THE AQUARIAN AGE

About the year 1883 our solar system passed into the sign AQUARIUS, symbolized in Astrology by a man pouring water from an urn. This pictures the out-pouring of the Spirit upon all nations, which is to bring about The Brotherhood of Man and the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.

In Luke we read that when the apostles asked Jesus regarding the next Pass-Over, he answered: "Go out into the highways and byways until you find a man bearing a pitcher of water"; undoubtedly referring to the symbol of this new age.

This Aquarian Age is ruled by Uranus, the planet which governs revolutions and reforms of great magnitude, the air, electricity, clairvoyance, clairaudience, telepathy, and the intuitional and inspirational faculties of man. Already in the birth of this Age we have seen what wonderful developments have taken place along these lines. The higher faculties of the soul will unfold and a great spiritual awakening come to this planet.

"And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams." Acts 2:17.

Christ Has Arisen

HE that hath ears to hear let him hear what the spirit saith to the churches.

Wake thou that sleepest. The spirit of the living Christ moveth as a mighty river over the minds of men. Listen to His message and be ye quickened, thou who art sleeping. Christ has arisen! He has risen in the heart of every soldier who fought on the battlefields that the world may be free and that brotherhood may be established. Christ has arisen in the heart of every man and woman in this country, and every country, who gave their money and their time freely and gladly to help succor the needy in foreign lands, of whatever creed or color they may be.

Christ has arisen in the hearts of men from whom the spirit of brotherhood has radiated, in trenches, in army camps, out under the stars in foreign lands, as comrade touched comrade, unable mayhap to understand each other's tongue, yet able to understand the common spirit actuating them to fight on, to die mayhap, that those who live after them shall enjoy true freedom and brotherhood.

Awake thou that sleepest! Brotherhood has been established in spite of creeds and dogmas and separating beliefs. The Church must also establish a Brotherhood. They must find a common ground where there is no criticism or condemnation of brother-men of whatever church or creed, but a realization that all are set for the self-same goal whatever path they are following.

If the soldiers of all nations, in trenches filled with suffering humanity, could feel and express brotherhood, certainly those who call themselves Christians in the churches of our land, amid flowers and music and the highest art and refinement given by the Spirit of Divine Love to man, should feel the spirit of love and brotherhood more than they. It were best that men tear down their churches that continue to exist with the idea of separateness. The spirit of God binds together, it never separates. He who is imbued with the spirit feels his unity with God and knows that every man is part of himself, which is God. He can hurt no man for he will be thus hurting himself. He can steal from no man, he will only be stealing from himself. He can hate no man, he will only be hating himself. He can injure no man knowing he is thereby injuring himself. He can set up no barrier or limitation between God and man, knowing he is thereby shutting out himself, part of the Cosmic whole, and any act of commission or omission reacts upon himself. When we realize this, creeds will drop from us like worn-out garments; churches and temples will serve all in the community. Each man will recognize the true Temple of the Holy Spirit to be himself, his own body, the "Temple of the Living God," the "House not made with hands," while the outward edifices which men erect of brick and stone, will stand only as a symbol of the Body or Temple Corporate. This shall be the Church of the New Age. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

Obstacles a Blessing in Disguise

HERE is a statement which used to puzzle me a great deal when I was younger, and that was "Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." With later years of observation, and understanding through the study of astrology, which shows the working out of the law in all lives, I no longer doubt this statement. All strong personalities in life are those who have met the strongest opposition, those who have had to struggle all the way up the line, first to get an education, usually self-earned, and then a continual uphill struggle against poverty and public opinion. A weak man does not weather the gale that leads to the goal, but does gain certain strength and dominion before he decides to quit climbing in this life and be satisfied with a lesser position than he has dreamed of. The obstacles he has overcome in getting thus far are however a great step gained in universal progress, and this soul who has only attained a minor position in life when he becomes tired of the struggle is still far in advance of him who has had nothing to buck up against.

There are souls, however, who are not satisfied with mediocrity, and no matter what their rebuffs, their opposition, or the sadness or trouble which assails them in life, they have an aim in view and "press toward the mark." Therefore, "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." The strong are given much to overcome, otherwise they could not gain greater soul strength through overcoming.

The way to power, to poise and soul strength is to be always conscious of the soul within and its aim, and to keep harmonious, no matter what situation may confront you. The person who is strong in soul strength never gets excited nor angry, never desires to give up. He has one aim and purpose in view and presses on.

THE AQUARIAN AGE

Supersensitiveness in Children

NOW as never before minds are reaching up to the light, and the spiritual worlds are reaching down in response, and the day is not far distant when we shall clasp hands so to speak and see and talk to friend and teacher on the higher planes of life. This is being done now but in its crude beginning. There is in reality no line of demarkation between the visible and invisible realms of existence, except the barrier imposed by the senses, which have been educated to catch only the crude vibrations of matter, but which can be cultivated to vibrate to the finer forces of life.

George Starr White told recently in a lecture how he, when a boy, once saw a bird in the woods going through the motions of singing but producing no melody. He thought this was wonderful and related the incident to his mother who told him the little bird was talking to the angels, and that if he would cultivate his ear he would be able to catch the melody. Later on he was able to hear the bird's song.

There is a world of colors and sounds and forms about us which we do not perceive or catch, simply because our senses are not attuned to them.

THE AQUARIAN AGE

Maurice Hewlett in his remarkable book, The Lore of Proserpine, relates his experiences with the curious little wood-folk which he was able to see and commune with. On one occasion he brought one home on his bicycle who had been wounded, and it became a companion to his child who also had this more ethereal vision.

Children often manifest unusual powers, such as seeing things others do not see; but these powers being little understood by the parents, the child is often punished for lying and the gifts soon suppressed. They often have invisible playmates whom they see and talk to, and consider as real as if they were on the physical plane. They are not myths to them, but living entities, visible to their finer seeing powers through the gift of clairvoyance. We have read of fairies, nymphs and gnomes, brownies and others, but few have suspected that they could have a basis in truth.

As the child grows up these finer powers pass away chiefly because the child meets with so much opposition and ridicule, and also because material things more and more engage the senses, consequently these finer faculties become dormant and often atrophy.

I was surprised to accidentally run across an article in an old Munsey's Magazine dated about 1900, on this very subject. The author cited several cases where children had invisible companions whom they regarded as real and to whom they showed every consideration. The author, however, attributed this phenomena to the imagination of the child, but implied in a veiled way that this did not altogether explain the matter. It is the only explanation that would have been accepted in a channel of this kind and at that time.

A man we met last summer told us of a little girl in his home town in the state of Maine who had remarkable powers. She could locate anything lost or stolen, and if stolen, name or describe the thief. One can get a glimpse from this of the conditions in the future when our police and police courts will become obsolete.

The horoscopes of children now being born show marked possibilities for the development of the higher faculties. So let us encourage these God-given gifts knowing that the All-wise Father never gives a power or a gift but for a wise purpose. They belong to the new age and are the forerunners of what is to be.

People have often asked us why it was that they were able to see on the invisible planes, or see symbols and colors, or get prophetic dreams during a certain period of their lives, and later lose this power. The fact of the matter is that there are periods in our lives when certain latent influences in the horoscope of birth are excited by directions or transitting planets which stimulate these finer faculties into action and we get a wonderful momentum toward spiritual development. This is fleeting or lasting according to its force, or according to the time given to perfecting these faculties. Often they pass away through neglect. These exciting influences pass by and do not awaken the faculty in those living a selfish life without spiritual aspiration. But if at the time of the excitement we are studying or meditating along higher lines the faculty will become established and permanent.

There are powerful major aspects which may occur but once in a life-time and never come into play at all in other lives, but there are always many minor exciting influences which stimulate these latent inner faculties, and if we know when these are in force and work at that time for their unfoldment we shall make greater strides forward in the direction indicated.

Spring

ONE day last spring, before we had come to sunny California, we were sitting on a beautiful green bank close to a swiftly running brook, with our backs against a swaying birch tree, gazing up into its lacey branches just leafing out. Listening to the notes of birds warbling their love-songs, just beyond, and to all the woodsy noises of creeping, humming life around us, this little message came to me and as I could not give it to you at that time, I want to pass it on this year as the spring season comes around.

I saw two clusters of yellow cowslips just in front of me, gorgeous in their colorings, a sight I had not seen since a child living in the country, and all the early life came back to me. Dainty ferns were unfurling all around us and with the waving flowers and grasses in the balmy spring air, it made a most restful picture.

THE AQUARIAN AGE

Having been tied to an office desk for twenty years, and this my first spring and summer in the country in all that period, I was amazed at the beauty of it all, and felt a strange sense of loss for what I had missed all these years. I wondered how many of you, having the opportunity to get out into all this beauty, to contact Nature just springing into new life, were missing the uplift through sheer lack of effort or inclination. I felt I must tell the whole world to go often to the country, leaving all care and worry behind and live and grow afresh with the new life teeming about them. I was amazed at the miracle of life which I had forgotten to exist; the ferns, the flowers, the grasses in myriad variety struggling with wind and storm and sunshine to further their growth, and in the process of their evolution gladdening the earth and every passer-by. The birds were busy with their mates preparing for the young to come, yet singing their songs of joyous melody. Everywhere in nature life and action seemed abounding, without worry or care, but just an inborn instinct and trust in Mother Nature to care for them, and all the time each doing its utmost to become a thing of beauty to entrance the eye or ear, or to please the taste or palate of some more intelligent but less trustful being.

I learned a lesson from that one afternoon I shall never forget. My own soul burst into simple song demanding expression, and so dear friend I pass it on to you, that you may also get the vision of Spring which came to me that afternoon.

Oh Love Divine, I know thou carest for me
As thou dost care for every blade of grass

THE AQUARIAN AGE

And every bird that warbles forth the love and joy it feels.

I cannot sit in this green field, and listen to the music all around,

Or sense the beauty of thy pulsing life in all I see,
And feel that thou art all of this to birds and bees
And grasses, and the trees, and Thou art naught to me.

I feel Thy love in all this throbbing life,
This glowing beauty, rich in varying greens;
I see Thy life spring up anew each year
In what seems brown and gray and lifeless,
And know that I, no matter what my state,
Can also feel this thrill of life
Flow through my veins; and more than flowers
Or trees or birds and bees,
Who only feel this life within themselves,
I have the power to let this life flow out
And gladden all around,
And in that process, feel more life, and as I grow
Draw to me life in greater ratio
Than these other things, which cannot reason as can I.

For as we give of what we have the law returns
four-fold;
And as we give our life, our joy, our blessings and
Our love, in greater bounty than these lower forms,
It must return to us More Life, More Joy, More Love!

So shall we feel Thy Life pulsing again through us,
In ever-widening measure, each returning spring.

How to Heal

 ANY people think they have to become proficient in Psychology to become a healer. Often it is a hindrance, causing one to depend too much on mental processes and not enough upon the real source of power. I once knew a very illiterate woman who performed wonderful cures. She knew nothing at all about Psychology or mind processes. She merely placed her hands upon the patient's head, and called upon the Christ for a blessing. She attracted a wonderful power which all felt flowing through them. She was able to do this simply because she learned to vibrate to this power, by loving and blessing others. You always attract help from the higher realms when you engage in a work of blessing and healing. You build about you a light which attracts master souls and enables them to work with you, making your work more efficient and permanent.

All can learn to bless. If you start with what equipment you have, no matter how insignificant it may seem, your power to heal and bless will expand through practice. When you start to radiate life or love or blessings, it causes an inflow of power from the great Universal Source. "Let your light shine." It will attract more. The limitations of the mind limit soul expression. If your thoughts are mortal and negative the soul has little chance for expression or expansion. But feed the soul thoughts of truth, love and peace, like unto its own nature, and you give it avenues through which it can express its divine attributes.

You can bless and heal others by speaking words of truth to their souls. By denying their negative conditions and affirming for them the qualities manifest in the Son. See them radiant; beautiful with divine light and life; healthy, vital, strong, Christ-like, and express this vision to them in words.

I was treating a woman once who had travelled a hard road, and not knowing the power of thought to transmute adverse conditions into blessings, she permitted herself to become critical and cold, building about her a kind of a shell like unto her own thoughts. One day as I was treating her absently I saw an attractive form step back out of this shell I speak of. It was like the butterfly coming out of the cocoon. This is true of everyone. All can build themselves Christlike and radiant if they will think the right thoughts and learn to love and bless others, which brings out the best in their soul natures.

Repeat the name of your patient several times; speaking audibly gives your words greater vibratory force. Each time you repeat the patient's name you strengthen the cord between you. Later you will be able to sense a tangible connection while treating.

Another way to make a strong connection is to see the patient's name written mentally in the atmosphere, or see his or her face in mind. The power of visualization will grow through this process. A photograph is a great help as the face is the key to character. You cannot think of anyone without establishing a connection, weak or strong, according to the degree of interest or concentration. Even appreciation, or a kindly thought, acts as a blessing, particularly if the recipient is attuned to you, so intimately are we related soul to soul. Those whom you love and appreciate, you prosper.

In treating get quiet a few minutes, then ask your Heavenly Father to bless the words you speak with light and love and healing power. Thoughts are things, and when used in this way they radiate out and bless your patient with your own soul quality plus the divine blessing you have invoked upon them. Your thoughts will go out like freighted argosies and carry your blessings wherever they are directed.

“There is a principle which is a bar against all information, which is proof against all argument, and which cannot fail to keep a man in everlasting ignorance. This principle is CONTEMPT PRIOR TO EXAMINATION.”—Herbert Spencer.

Say not thou, what is the cause that the former days were better than these. Eccles. vi:10

Go with the sun and stars, and yet evermore in thy spirit

Say to thyself: It is good; yet there is better than it.

This that I see is not all, and this that I do

Affirmations to Help in Soul Unfoldment

One of the quickest and most positive ways for you to reach soul realization, building a faith and power which will remove every mountain from your path, is through daily affirming those things or qualities you wish to manifest in your life.

We know the power in affirmation, and are therefore giving some statements of truth to hold each month, knowing that if you practice them, they cannot fail to bring great good in your life.

Take a few minutes each morning, and again if possible before retiring, to sit in the quiet and repeat these statements, BELIEVING THAT THEY ARE TRUE, AND TRYING TO REALIZE THAT THEY ARE ALREADY MANIFESTING IN YOUR LIFE. If you can repeat them audibly it makes a stronger vibration, acting more readily on your mind and consciousness.

Repeat these statements slowly, and with a sincere prayer that God will make your words bear fruit.

Feel and believe that these statements are true of your being, regardless of all appearances to the contrary, and they will become a divine conviction and reality, making a great transformation in your life.

Affirmations based on Divine Reality can build you anew. You can recreate yourself. If you formulate in mind a picture of yourself as beautiful and radiant with divine light and hold this picture before your vision constantly, and affirm it true of yourself it will gradually manifest. This has been done so successfully by many as to remove all doubt as to its efficacy and practicability. If you lack the power of visualization think of the Christ as your ideal. You cannot find, search as you will, anyone who manifested so much of the Divine as He did, and taking Him as an example of what your life should be you will not only grow like Him but you will attract divine co-operation, which will help you to build and manifest those qualities that will make your life a blessing to all mankind.

The Ancient Science of Numbers

[This series of articles on Number Vibration began with the January issue.]

G or 7. Planetary vibration	Lunar

In the Body Governs	Kidneys, Loins and Ovaries
Triad of Harmony	1—5—7

This has been called the sacred number and shows the power of spirit over material conditions, or victory through subjugating the lower self. Mystics and philosophers throughout the ages have held this number sacred. Those vibrating to this number are as a rule, self-conscious, yet self-controlled and somewhat self-willed. They are original and prophetic, and have the faculty of understanding the mysteries of life. This vibration in the name usually gives a deep spiritual or mental influence on the life, and helps one to conquer the lower nature through the power of their thought and word. Its color is supposed to be electric blue, signifying deep thought. It is conservative and retiring, and is therefore not the best influence for progressive or public work requiring ambition and initiative. It is rather the vibration of the religionist and mystic, gaining as a rule more through quiet, solitude or retirement until its gathering period is finished. Yet 7 is a leader of men and should never accept a subordinate position.

On the other hand seven is a number of completion, as on the seventh day God ended the work of Creation. Seven represents the square or foundation and knowledge and control of the worldly elements; then going on to the more spiritual vibrations of eight and nine, we are lifted to the pyramid of spiritual expression.

This number is considered fortunate, and extremely so for those who have the Moon unafflicted at birth. The moon changes every 7 days making her entire circuit of the zodiac in 28 days. There are 7 days in the week. The Moon is the seventh planet in our solar system, counting from Neptune toward the Sun. Rightly speaking it is a satellite of the earth, but has always been counted as a planet in the solar system because, I presume, of its marked influence on life and vegetation and the fluidic element of the earth.

Occult symbols [ Kozminsky ]: "The Victor in the Chariot; The Conqueror; The Chariot; The Cherub's Fiery Sword. The Victor is pictured in a chariot with two columns reaching to the Heavens. It is drawn by two Sphinxes, one black and one white. The Victor stands in the chariot between the columns. He is in full armor with ornaments representing the Moon at its increase and its decrease, on his shoulders. He holds a scepter in his right hand, whilst his left rests upon his hip. His hair is long and curling, falling daintily upon his shoulders. On his head is a crown ornamented by three golden Pentagrams. His look is serene and triumphant. It is a number of royalty and triumph, of fame and honour, of reputation and victory. The Bible is full of allusions to this sacred number.

In the Sepher Yetzirah the seventh path is that of Occult Intelligence, and represents the combination of Faith and Intellect.”

H or 8. Planetary Vibration	Saturnine

In the Body Governs	Generative Organs
Triad of Harmony	2—4—8

This is a vibration of sympathy and compassion, desirous of bearing others' burdens. While it attracts many friends it is sufficient unto itself and never dependent upon others for happiness. Its mission is to create, to fulfil and to complete. There is a strong tendency to live introspectively, but it will take up a work for humanity, and endeavors to deal justly with all men. If in discord, selfishness and egotism are sometimes developed. It has inventive ability and love for research. An eight is always a lover of nature, music and artistic things, and often has ability to execute along these lines. To be successful it is absolutely essential for an 8 to have harmonious surroundings. As it inclines to duality of interest and activity, it should never confine its ability in one single direction, but have free play to carry out its originality. It is a number of Justice aspiration and reaping, and on the higher plane denotes light, promise, and intellectual power, with analysis and understanding. When vibrating to lower planes it tends to criticism, destruction and separateness.

This is one of the universal numbers inclining to sympathy and understanding and a desire to serve. It is also a number of business, organization and material achievement, and an especially good vibration for the business man, the scientist or the technical musician. This number was regarded by the ancient Greeks as one of great power, that which represented all things. Pythagoras called it the number of Justice and fullness.

Occult Symbols [Kozminsky] "Justice with the Sword and the Balance; the Perfect Way; the eight Priestly Ornaments [Viz: breast-plate, coat, girdle, mitre, robe, ephod, ephod-girdle, golden plate.] Justice is seated on a throne; a sword, point upwards, is in her hand, and she holds the scales in her left. Her hair is parted in the center, and she wears a spiked crown on her head.

In the Sepher Yetzirah the 8th Path is the Path of Perfection. In the Sphere of Intellect its eight rewards are [Inheritance, Purity, Power, Victory, Holy Vision, Grace, Rulership and Happiness.]"

In the Body Governs	Arteries, Thighs and Nervous System
Triad of Harmony	3—6—9

Number nine being the farthest from One, is supposed to be the most inclusive and universal. It is a number of the highest love, both on the personal and the universal plane. It is said to represent the sacred fire of pure spirit and is the number of virtue and wisdom, strength and influence, prudence and silence. It is inspirational and intuitive and this often expresses through literature, music and dramatic art.

It is inclusive, never petty or personal, and tends strongly to spiritual unfoldment through whatever path it is expressing. Its tendency is to finish all undertakings, but as it has a high ideal there is a tendency to repetition or doing the work over and over until it satisfies the inner ideal of expression. It tends to changes, and is also considered a lucky number. Changes lead to greater attainment, intellectual or spiritual. It is strongly individualistic, independent and original. It tends more to lecture work and intellectual attainment, than religious work, but even in the less favored circumstances will use the pen, if only along the lines of clerical work. If it cannot create it will copy, but it must write. When out of harmony the nervous system becomes easily upset, and there is a tendency to despondency.

This is considered a prosperous number, and is a number of mystery and silence, connected with the astral plane, and inclines to wisdom, virtue, experience, protection and love.

Occult Symbols [Kozminsky] The Hermit, Prudence Veiled, with lamp and staff; The Cross; The Sacred Fire curtained; The Sacred Fire of the Vestals. The hermit is pictured in gown and cowl, holding out a lantern with his right hand and a staff in his left. On the ground by the end of the staff is a small snake nearly erect, such as adorned the sacred crown of the Egyptian Pharaohs and symbolized wisdom. He has a long flowing beard and an anxious, thoughtful face,

In the Sepher Yetzirah the 9th path is the path Pure Intelligence."

Fruits of the Spirit

"Not by might nor by power but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."—Zech. 4:6.

CALIFORNIA—You must have struck the keynote of my being Friday afternoon and I am able to rejoice in a resurrection morn this beautiful Easter after passing through my Gethsemane of suffering the past month. Keep up the good work. I enclose a check for another month's special treatment. The headache and pain in my back yielded Friday.

ILLINOIS—Your attitude toward Jesus the Christ of God sent out in Aquarian Age of December 1918 has lead me to wish to be a subscriber. I endorse all you say in that issue of your magazine, and enclose some of my thoughts regarding what he has done for me in my hour of need. When I sought him as the highest consciousness I knew, I was taken up into heavenly states of consciousness and truth was revealed to me. Twelve years ago my only daughter of 22 and two years later an only son of 28 passed on. It was the crucifixion of every hope and desire. I had nothing left (seemingly) to live for. In that supreme hour of my life I reached out toward several cults, among them Christian Science but they could not heal a broken heart. I went at last to Matthew, Mark, Luke and John asking Jesus to come and comfort me. I had a wonderful experience like being translated from earth to heaven. I knew there was no death and all was life, life, eternal life. My loved ones were living in the Kingdom and so was I for I had found myself and everyone else in him. I was born again, old sorrows and griefs fell from me and I realized I was the daughter of the King.

TENNESSEE—I know you will think I am a slacker but I am not. Am sending a dollar for the Ministry service last month, and will send another for this month soon. I enjoy the lessons in truth so much, and put them in my book as fast as I receive them. Hope you receive this all right, and wishing you every success which you so richly deserve.

TEXAS—I thank you for the month's Aquarian Ministry service. I feel I have been strengthened in the realization of the Truth of Being. I find the lessons very helpful and will continue to study them, and try to realize the truths in my own being. The Human Magnet in March number is fine; you have given me light on the subject. It is indeed worth its weight in gold many times to all who accept it. Just received the April Aquarian Age and it is splendid.

---

NEBRASKA—I thank you with all my heart for your good lessons, twelve of which I have received. I read them all over with a deep feeling of interest. May the Spirit of Love in Christ enrich you with the blessings of the Almighty Father, so your works will help all humanity and bring your desired rewards.

MICHIGAN—Some time ago I received a sample copy of the Aquarian Age. It is only lately that I have had an opportunity to look into it, and I find it a most worthy publication, and desire to have all the numbers very much. If you have Vol. 1 in book form I would prefer it, if not do send me the single copies. This copy I have received is December 1918, but I shall pass that on to others, so send me the complete set. Should there be any special offer included I should be glad to receive it. I think the form and size of the magazine is perfect, and the cover could not be more attractive and appropriate for the present age. Anxiously awaiting these little magazines I am with you in Truth, Love and Wisdom.

CALIFORNIA—I am better and giving thanks every day for more vitality. Kidneys and liver better and also sleep better. Enclosed find a dollar for another month's Ministry service. I am in hearty accord with every sentiment expressed in your lessons.

THE AQUARIAN AGE

NEW HAMPSHIRE—I wish to thank you for the help you have given me and I know your words have helped me as I feel so much better able to look at the bright side of all questions. I shall endeavor to keep looking for the good as I believe it is for me. Your Lesson No. 11 is splendid. Although I have been trying to use the light I now have to help others; the lesson gives me a still greater desire to use all the light that is given me. I hope you will write some lessons on healing and how to help others. I am enclosing this little offering as I know it will run a few days into April before this letter reaches you. Blessing you and your work . . .

CALIFORNIA—Doubtless you have thought me very unappreciative for your kindness in sending your lessons for a month, but so many unusual duties and responsibilities have been piling up that I found no time for writing or studying as I should have done. Your lessons are grand, and I wish to thank you for them, and as soon as financial affairs brighten I shall subscribe for your journal and take your course of treatments, but until I can pay for those received, it is better for you not to send any more. Enclosed you will find a small bit. I bless it and ask that it may be a blessing to your noble work. God bless you.

MASSACHUSETTS—Just a few lines to let you know how I enjoy the Lessons in Truth and the blessings received from them. I enjoy my eight o'clock silence so much. I read a chapter in my Bible as I am going through the New Testament, then I read your lessons in truth and repeat the affirmations you send. Then I take my own affirmations, and then a season of silence. Then I go forth blessed for the day, and I know I have been so strengthened and helped since I came in touch with your work. I think of you all in the Master's service, and ask his blessing on your work and ask him to prosper you. I am sending a few stamps hoping they will assist in the work. In this way I can perhaps have a part in the work until things develop further, and I can do more. Thanking you very kindly for all favors given, and God's blessing on you both. Yours in the Service.

THE AQUARIAN AGE

IOWA. Some time ago I wrote you asking you to treat my son for protection in the aviation corps, and to also treat him for Pyorrhoea of the gums. He is getting along splendidly in his work, and has recently been to the dentist, who tells him his teeth are all right. Will you continue to hold him in thought that he may come into his heritage of Inner life consciousness, and will you also treat my daughter? Thanking you, I am cordially.

WASHINGTON. Received The Aquarian Age, also the "Sermonettes" and Lessons. I find the reading is very helpful and interesting. My ideal is the Christ-spirit. It is no trouble for me to visualize the Christ Presence. You are doing a noble work, and it is bound to bear fruit. I am enclosing one dollar and it is given in a cheerful spirit. If you could send a copy of The Aquarian Age to Mrs. — I know she is interested along these lines and is very spiritual. I thank you for your help.

MASSACHUSETTS. I was so glad to see the little Aquarian Age this morning. It is pretty in the Aquarian Age color. The poem is a gem and I think you must attract a very high-souled poet, but why not your own Divinity? I am blessing and praying for your every success in the new center. I wish I could send you more, but just now this mite must go with a strong blessing that it may be increased a hundred fold. I see you busy in your work and I am sure you love it, for it seems to me when the sunshine of God's love is radiating over you there can be no anxiety with regard to ways and means. I have proved that in my long workless period. I feel better than last Christmas and am aspiring to best. I hope people will respond liberally to you this Christmas. Your work needs the open mind and pocket-book. Many blessings on you both and praise to the glorious invisible workers who co-operate with you.
