«LET THE STARS LIGHT YOUR WAY.»

stars and a star-cluster named Praesepe. The stars are luminous bodies (radiators) or Suns. That is, the light coming from them is self-emitted and not merely reflected (as is the case with the planets).

Considering them as charged bodies radiating energy into space, and considering the fact that energy travels in straight lines, it is evident that the rays of light coming from the stars of this constellation must also be surrounded by their own magnetic field.

A body will not radiate energy unless there be another body within range to receive it. (At least, the phenomenon will not be apparent). Therefore, the fact that a body, such as our Earth, receives the rays of light coming from such stars is sufficient evidence of an attraction existing between the Earth and those distant stars.

Our Earth is not the only body that receives energy from those stars; it seems reasonable to suppose that an observer stationed on one of the stars of Capricorn would also be able to see the stars of Cancer. Were he able to see them it would prove that the energy from them was being received there, and vice versa.

But the constellation of Capricorn forms a quite different configuration to that of Cancer. For one thing the constellation of Capricorn consists of some twelve stars differently placed. For another, the spectroscope reveals that the wave lengths of the different stars are not identical with one another.

As these variations of position and wave length will affect the character and intensity of the magnetic field surrounding the travelling current, it would seem that the magnetic field accompanying the rays of light travelling from Capricorn must differ in some respects from that accompanying Cancer's light-rays.

Imagine a charged body such as our Sun, placed directly between our Earth and the sign of Cancer. From our point of vision the Sun would appear to be among the stars of the constellation of Cancer. What, then, would be the effect of a charged body thus intercepting the rays of light coming from Cancer's stars on the magnetic field accompanying these rays.

It will be realized that, being a self-luminous charged body, the Sun also possesses its own magnetic field. Therefore if the Sun's magnetic field happens to be at right-angles to the magnetic field of the star-rays (which may easily be the case should the Sun be radiating energy to a planet in quadrature to himself) the probable result would be a magnetic torque.

In any case there would be either attraction or repulsion with the result that the rays of light coming from Cancer's stars would be bent out of their normal course—either towards the Sun or away from it—as viewed from the Earth.

That this does happen we know from photographs taken of the stars at the time of total eclipse of the Sun, on which the apparent displacement can be measured.

Because of this perturbation it is evident that the resultant magnetic field reaching the Earth will be very different in physical effect to what that of the Sun, or of Cancer's stars, would be if acting independently.

So far we have been considering the electromagnetic phenomena of radiators. We have now to consider the action of planets which are weak transmitters of light (reflected sunlight only) but whose principal influence on our Earth is an electrical one occasioned by electrical capacity and inductivity.

The charges stored by the Earth and the planets are, of course, received from the Sun.

The Earth, for instance, is a huge magnet. But it is only so by virtue of the energy received from the Sun. For the Sun is shining on the Earth through every instant of time at some point or other of its surface, turning it by induction into a charged body of opposite character to itself.

There is every reason to suppose that the amount of energy received from the Sun does not remain invariable. Consider what probably happens at the time of New Moon (A New Moon is a conjunction of the Sun and Moon; that is to say, at the time of a New Moon the Moon is situated between the Earth and the Sun).

The Moon, like our Earth, is essentially an uncharged body which is eternally charged inductively by the Sun. It will be realized that when the Moon is placed between the Earth and Sun it is naturally intercepting a great deal of the light and heat energy radiated from the Sun which the Earth would otherwise receive. Since the Moon is being charged by the Sun it consequently is charged with electricity of the same kind as the Earth. Hence

HOW different the star positions of this July, 1938 to those of last July, 1937! New events are scheduled to occur upon the earth in this, one of the most exciting months of 1938.

The New Moon of July falls in the sign of Cancer with the Sun, Moon and Mercury, approaching Mars. These planetary positions tell a story all their own! The New Moon falls in good aspect to Uranus and Jupiter, but adverse to Saturn. Thus we will experience both good and evil conditions during July. The Lunation ruling July occurs on June 27, so that the last few days of June will come under the influence of the planetary vibrations of the following month.

Financial prospects for July are favorable to a great extent although heavy losses or a recession period may mark a part of the month. Theatrical, entertainment or amusement projects are not favored during July. Speculation is apt to be retarded or heavy losses occur in investment fields around July 1 through 3, 10. Increasingly heavy expenditures on rearmament, with intensified labor troubles arising, are indicated. Increase of taxation may occur throughout the United States. The nation should gain greatly through income from death duties. Insurance losses are apt to be intensely heavy this month! Wages should improve—Prices of foodstuffs and general commodities will rise. Greater prosperity for the nation and general public is shown for July. A boom in building and industry should be underway!

Speculation and investing should be activated in an exciting manner this month, but it will be a "gambler's" period—so be conservative! Grains and foodstuffs should rise in price. A famine, as it were, in merchandising, raw materials and industrial products may bring a sharp upturn in all such stocks. Theatrical stocks may show losses until after the 16th. A general rise in market values and stocks should occur during July, except at the adverse times. Speculation may now be more active than has been the case thus far in 1938. Prices may not reach their expected highs, however.

Favorable financial times should be July 5 through 9, 11 through 14, 18 through 20, 23 through 26, 28 through 31. Bearish trends are apt to develop between July 1 and 3, 10, 15, 17, 21, 26, 27. The "high" day of the month for grains may occur on the 30th.

Health prospects of the nation, and world in general, will not be particularly good during July. Mars will be in the sign of Cancer until the 22nd. This signifies increasing digestive disorders. Over eating, indulgence in foods, drinks and general excesses are to be carefully avoided during July, otherwise health will suffer. Epidemics are apt to spread in an alarming manner during this month. Feverish ailments, violent accidents and marked increase in fires and deaths are foreshown for July.

Astro-Digest Brings You "Tomorrow's News Today"

Past predictions in ASTRO-DIGEST which have reflected THE NEWS OF TODAY!

"Mexico will assume a new place of importance in our trading and export affairs"! (ASTRO-DIGEST of December, 1937—page 13).

"Germany's military forces may be in foreign places"! (ASTRO-DIGEST of December, 1937—page 14).

"National sorrow through death of some famous American"! (ASTRO-DIGEST of February, 1938—page 9) (Death of O. O. McIntyre, America's most widely read columnist).

"FLOODS WILL BE A FEATURE OF MARCH"! (ASTRO-DIGEST of March, 1938—page 12)
"THIS IS APT TO BE MOST EVIDENT AROUND MARCH 4"!

The utmost care in one's personal health and welfare should be taken. Intense heat is indicated which is apt to contribute to general epidemic or sickness conditions. Deaths of writers, statesmen, police, firemen, soldiers, naval men and public leaders may be far more numerous. National sorrow, through death of a leading statesman, may occur. Prominent financiers and industrialists are apt to pass from the scene. Increase of crime and accidents will be reported. Death through violence is an attribute of July which may raise the death record in a startling manner! Travel accidents will be more numerous, so that trips or changes should be deferred at adverse times of the month. Dates when these predictions may be most emphasized are July 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30. Violent storms, earthquakes and floods may take a heavy toll of life and property during July.

The danger of fires in homes and dwelling houses, hotels and theatres or places of amusement will now be greater, so use particular caution in such matters. Heavy losses in ship disasters may occur during the month. Employees working in dangerous occupations or in risky types of work should be more cautious to avoid accidents or mishaps. Crimes, directed against women and children, will be increasing. This is especially true around July 1, 2, 3, 9, 10, 20 through 24, 29, 30. The birth rate may be lowered this month. Death of a famous star may occur.

Weather will be "unusual", indeed, during July. The prevailing trend should be extremely hot with thunder storms and atmospheric disturbances but cold may occur on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 10th. Marked increase of sunspots should occur this month, with a consequent disturbance of our atmosphere. Drought conditions are apt to be most severe during July.

Floods, storms and seismic shocks are indicated, particularly so around July 1 through 3, 6, 9, 10, 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24. Generally stormy conditions around the world may disturb shipping, communication and trade!

July will be a "sorry" month for dictators. New church and religious leadership may begin to predominate, now, in world affairs. Assassinations will be reported which could cause sudden collapse of great schemes and plans. In the United States, a blaze of patriotism will newly sweep the nation. Americans will be more aggressive, fighting mad and pugilistic. A new foreign policy may begin to be promoted. Intense sympathy with Great Britain and furtherance of an Anglo-Saxon or Democratic alliance with this great power is indicated. July is a month in which democracy and the masses of people will be more prosperous and triumphant, while the higher classes of monarchy groups will be unfortunate. Deaths or removal of certain kings and rulers may now occur which alters maps and programs of different nations! In the United States, our own government may be more "leftist", due to the position of Neptune high in the Mid-heaven of the July chart of the skies. Deaths of leading statesmen may occur during the month which changes many administration and national policies. Political matters will be confusing and uncertain.

Employment prospects will be greatly favored from the 14th on, particularly so between the 28th and 31st. Those who seek work and employment should be especially favored in their endeavors during late July. An upward surge in home building is indicated which should improve the fortunes of architects, builders and carpenters, as well as furnishing supply houses.

Big water projects of the government are apt to be started this month, but—dams and aqueducts should be carefully scrutinized during July to detect any weakness or failure in their structure.

July is a month in which to start new activities and promote new undertakings. Do so conservatively, however, to withstand the terrific rashness, impulsiveness and haste which will prevail during the month.

Mining ventures should be carefully protected this month. Danger of unforeseen accidents in mines and excavation (in connection with the earth) projects will exist.

Marked increase of travel is shown for July.

AROUND THE WORLD PREDICTIONS

Canada's prospects for July are very similar to those of the United States. Crop and agricultural losses may be heavy, causing the price of grain and foodstuffs to rise. Political matters will be confusing. Marked increase of deaths is indicated, through accidents, fires and travel disasters. Children and women should be particularly protected. General re-employment and progress in prosperity is noted for Canada, but unrest will prevail from time to time. A heat wave may sweep the country. The welfare of noted Canadian children may cause concern. A legal case may create sensational headlines.

California's employment prospects are not as much favored as they will be in other parts of the country. Public health will not be good. Labor troubles may halt industry or do much to cause friction throughout the state. Crops may be damaged. Religious and legal scandals are indicated. Increase of crime is shown for this state. We are warned of naval disasters. Death of some statesman may occur. Politics may create much turmoil and excitement through the state. Deaths may create sensations. Anxiety about foreign matters will exist from time to time. Some major emergency is indicated for the state during July.

Japan's outlook for July is decidedly adverse! Heavy government losses are shown. Deaths or removal of leaders and statesmen may occur. Destruction of Japanese cities or coast towns may threaten, from storms, seismic shocks or peculiar fiery disasters. This will be a most unfortunate time for Japan if aviation of a foreign country should head her way! Assassinations will mark this month. Secret plots, spy scares and dictatorlike methods in purging herself of her enemies will exist. Japan's fortunes will be most insecure until after the 27th, when better conditions may commence for this island empire. The month is particularly unfortunate for the Emperor and the royal family. Naval and aviation losses are apt to be severe.

London's chart of the skies for July is both favorable and adverse. An intensified military and naval program is shown. Naval disasters may cause alarm. Labor troubles are shown, yet England may now conscript her workers for military service. Peaceful alliances and treaties with some foreign power are shown, yet disturbed, warlike relations will develop with other nations to threaten Britain's peace. England has the promise of victory and triumph in her attempts and ventures this month! Financial difficulties are shown. The pound may diminish in value around the 2nd, 3rd, 10th especially.

Russia's outlook for July is alarming. I do not see much promise of success, progress or victory for this nation during the month. Warlike conditions seem to surround her. Dreadful crimes, assassinations or restrictions of public liberty are indicated. Heavy losses in leadership may be suffered. This is a month which holds a serious threat to Russia's present government in power.

Berlin seems to proceed right along—merrily on the war path! Success in her program is indicated by a rising Jupiter. However perilous her financial position may grow this month there seems to be triumph or victory over her problems. Peculiar and fascinating foreign programs are indicated. Unusual alliances with other countries are shown although serious upheavals and revolutionary troubles will arise with a neighboring country! Disastrous fires and explosions may wreck havoc with ammunition works, naval or aviation matters and industrial plants. Loss of some great servant of the state may now occur.

Rome's outlook for July is very similar to that of Germany, although a confusing, vague or deceptive foreign program is apt to be followed. Intrigue will mark the entire month. . . . Heavy financial losses and economic crisis is indicated for Central and Southern Europe! A new program to alleviate this may seem to produce a more peaceful picture for Italy and Germany—yet behind the scenes the feverish activity and plotting will continue. Death of royalty and famous Italian leaders or their children may occur. Great military reviews are shown. Religious ceremonies may halt other militaristic programs for the time being! Radical upsets in connection with neighboring countries are shown. Heavy aviation and transportation losses are apt to occur.

France will be faced with an economic crisis which grows very severe. This fact is indicated for all of Europe—yet the Franc may rebound in a startling manner. A huge military program will be underway. Uncertainty and serious trouble in connection with neighboring countries and allies may cause her armies to be on the march! Public health is apt to be very poor.

Earthquakes are scheduled to strike different parts of the continent during July.

Death of an outstanding dictator or leader may now occur.

July will be one of the most dramatic, eventful months of 1938. More exciting, sensational world happenings may occur during this month than has been the case, thus far, during the entire year!

DAILY GUIDE FOR JULY

With Day by Day Predictions

PREPARED BY P. H. GRANING

FRIDAY, JULY 1

Moon enters Virgo at 6:24 A. M.

Generally favorable conditions are indicated for today, although health should be protected. Increase of deaths or nervous disorders are apt to be reported. Work, business and financial matters should be improved. Be careful to avoid water hazards or tricky influences with others.

SATURDAY, JULY 2

Moon in Virgo

A square aspect operates between Venus and Uranus today which culminates at 2:34 o'clock in the afternoon. This is an adverse influence which causes emotional upsets, estrangements and separative conditions. Avoid pleasures, defer social activities. Try to use reason and restraint in your activities. Emergencies will occur in many lives today which will require much discreet handling. Disasters may be reported. Don't take risks.

SUNDAY, JULY 3

Moon enters Libra at 10:09 A. M.

The prevailing aspect of today is the square between Mars and Saturn which occurs at 6:08 A. M. This vibration creates anger, coldness, misunderstandings and forceful application of one's wishes or decisions. Injustice, bad luck and privation may affect many lands and peoples. Assassinations thrive under influences such as these which exist during the first week of this month. Avoid risks in travel, changes or moves. Danger of violent accidents will be greater today. Labor crises may arise. Deaths of leading officials or statesmen may occur. Protect your health and defer important matters.

MONDAY, JULY 4

Moon in Libra

America's "Independence Day" should be generally more peaceful and safe. Happiness and harmony can be introduced into your affairs if you so desire. More freedom and opportunities for enjoyment should now exist, but use restraint. Danger of strain, over-indulgences or accidents will still exist.

TUESDAY, JULY 5

Moon enters Scorpio at 5:49 P. M.

Mars forms a favorable aspect to Neptune in the early morning hours which should stimulate business, employment and financial matters, but try to proceed quietly and conservatively. Avoid haste, quarrels or strain with others. Health can be built more successfully today.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 6

Moon in Scorpio

Mercury enters Leo at 9:08 o'clock in the evening, but first comes to a conjunction of Pluto and a favorable aspect to Uranus. World affairs will be thrown to the fore in an exciting manner today. Danger of floods or storms will exist. Foreign affairs may affect the financial and business security of this nation. Irritation and unrest will affect the public. Protect your health, avoid travel or changes.

THURSDAY, JULY 7

Moon in Scorpio

Today's financial prospects are very fortunate. Work to stabilize your finances, and generally improve your affairs. More entertainment and pleasure can be enjoyed. Speculative gains should be realized. Business promises to be more active and encouraging.

FRIDAY, JULY 8

Moon enters Sagittarius at 4:45 A. M.

Mercury forms an adverse aspect to Neptune today which does not culminate until approximately midnight. The entire day will thus be a tricky, shadowy, deceptive time. Increase of deaths may be reported. Money losses through intrigue, fraud, counterfeiting or deceptive deals are indicated. Protect your affairs very carefully and defer new activities. Don't place too much reliance upon propositions or rumors which may come to you. Travel should be deferred.

Moon in Sagittarius

Although generally favorable mundane aspects are in operation today, an adverse trend is shown which may affect public health, financial matters and national affairs. An element of sorrow, anxiety, and fear may exist. Protect your own health and that of loved ones. Don't force issues or start new activities. General losses or bad news may be the order of the day, although unexpected happenings may produce beneficial changes. Financial losses may be heavy.

Moon enters Capricorn at 5:22 P. M.

The Sun forms a square aspect to Saturn which culminates at 9:14 o'clock in the morning. This is an adverse influence which may cause health, labor, business and financial losses. Coldness, in weather conditions as well as in general intercourse with others, predominates in such a vibration. Deaths may take a heavy toll in the official world, for this is a time when "national sorrow" or loss may affect the world, in the passing of noted statesmen and public men. Publishers or writers may die or be ill. Travel will not be favored. An element of force and the execution of law and order will now exist, so don't antagonize others. Defer important plans.

MONDAY, JULY 11

Moon in Capricorn

The Sun forms a favorable aspect to Neptune today, which should greatly stimulate public health, work, industry and business. Much happier, better conditions are indicated. You can promote your important plans or endeavors. Bring some new happiness into your life. Social or pleasure matters should be more harmonious. Promote your business and personal activities. Financial gains are shown.

TUESDAY, JULY 12

Moon in Capricorn

Financial gains should continue today. More money and success should be realized by many people. Promote your personal happiness, bring more color and excitement into your life in a conservative but definite manner. Amusement or social matters should be favored.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13

Moon enters Aquarius at 6:05 A. M.

Venus enters Virgo at 11:44 o'clock in the evening where it will begin to stimulate work, employment and labor matters. Today's vibrations, however, are not particularly favorable for health or work. Unrest may be felt, and general nervous strain exist. Avoid travel or changes. Defer important decisions.

Moon in Aquarius

More travel, change, moves and general activity should exist today. Buying, selling and speculative matters should be stimulated. Work to reform and improve your affairs today, but avoid upsets caused by estrangements or risk you might be inclined to promote. Unexpected good luck should be realized.

FRIDAY, JULY 15

Moon enters Pisces at 5:56 P. M.

Venus forms an opposition to Jupiter which culminates at 3:45 o'clock in the morning. This influence will be adverse for world peace, harmony and financial matters. Injustice may affect the lives of many people. Public health and prosperity will not be favored. Avoid travel. Church and religious leaders may be unfortunate. Upsets in our foreign trade may occur. Today is one of adjustments, in which the trend toward war against unsatisfactory conditions or the settlement of opposing beliefs may be very strong. Keep harmony in your domestic and personal affairs. Defer pleasures or amusements you may have planned.

Moon in Pisces

Health conditions will not be favored today. Safeguard finances, working and business matters. Avoid changes or over-optimism. Upsets will generally affect us through today. Finances will be to the fore, so that losses as well as gains are indicated. Be careful to avoid trickery or deception about money matters. Don't over spend. Catastrophes are apt to occur on the 16th and 17th.

SUNDAY, JULY 17

Moon in Pisces

Mercury forms an adverse aspect to Uranus which culminates at 3:59 o'clock in the morning. Thus the late evening hours of the 16th and early part of the 17th will be unfortunate. Earthquakes or storms may occur with great havoc in many parts of the world. Political upheavals are indicated. A general trend of change, risk and lack of wisdom is shown, so defer your own important decisions.

MONDAY, JULY 18

Moon enters Aries at 4:02 A. M.

Mercury forms a favorable aspect to Neptune today which should stimulate finances, business and employment. Better, happier conditions should exist. Promote your important plans and work to improve your general affairs. Health should improve today.

TUESDAY, JULY 19

Moon in Aries

Finances can be promoted today. Work to improve your affairs. Business and working matters will be more favored. Pleasures and amusements will have more appeal. The day will be generally favorable for your affairs, but avoid risks and don't start new activities which would materialize during the next week.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20

Moon enters Taurus at 11:31 A. M.

A quarrelsome, fiery, destructive influence will not exist which may create crucial foreign conditions, storms and general disastrous events. Plan your affairs carefully. Be particularly cautious in health and personal welfare. Danger of fires or explosions will be greater. Foreign crisis may arise. Avoid quarrels or risks in connection with others.

THURSDAY, JULY 21

Moon in Taurus

Mars forms a conjunction with Pluto today which will be decidedly adverse for health, happiness and personal affairs. Be very careful to avoid risks. Foreign and warlike matters will be exceptionally threatening. Trade will be disturbed. Atmospheric and other types of disastrous conditions are apt to exist. The day will be really adverse for anything requiring risks or strain.

FRIDAY, JULY 22

Moon enters Gemini at 3:42 P. M.

Mars enters Leo at 4:06 o'clock in the afternoon, while the Sun forms a conjunction with Pluto today. The day is favorable for business and financial matters, so that marked improvements should occur due to the tremendous amount of energy which will be generated through space. Yet it is apt to be risky, violent and explosive type of day in which danger of quarrels, accidents and disasters will exist. Don't take chances. Safeguard your health. Foreign affairs are apt to be particularly violent.

SATURDAY, JULY 23

Moon in Gemini

The Sun enters Leo at 5:47 o'clock in the morning, so that a new set of vibrations will now begin to affect us. Today should favor travel, business improvements and general affairs, but avoid risks of any kind. More pleasure can be enjoyed. Love and romance should be stimulated in the lives of many people.

SUNDAY, JULY 24

Moon enters Cancer at 4:54 P. M.

Today is the date in which the Sun forms a conjunction of Mars in Leo. This will stimulate quarrels, fires, stormy conditions, and warlike gestures. Avoid all risks, particularly if you are born on July 23, 24, 25; October 23, 24, 25; January 21, 22, 23; April 20, 21, 22. There will be greater danger of fires, violent quarrels, crimes and accidents today. Haste and lack of restraint or reason will exist. Violent flurries of warlike conditions will sweep the earth. Plan a conservative, careful program and "stick to it".

MONDAY, JULY 25

Moon in Cancer

Health should be carefully protected today. Work, business and labor matters may be stimulated but could cause overstrain or quarrels. Naval, military and national matters will be to the fore. Deaths of those in high positions in the government may occur. Defer important plans until later.

TUESDAY, JULY 26

Moon enters Leo at 4:25 P. M.

Mercury enters Virgo in the late afternoon, coming to an opposition of Jupiter at 11:10 o'clock in the evening. This is an unfavorable influence for foreign affairs, church or government matters, the welfare of leaders or the general public. Unwise expansion should be avoided. Be conservative. Defer risks or important activities.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 27

Moon in Leo

The Sun forms an adverse aspect to Neptune which culminates at 5:22 o'clock in the afternoon. This is an adverse influence for business, health or finances. Danger of labor unrest and dissension will exist. A deceptive influence is shown which could cause loss through trickery or treachery. Don't rely upon your own feelings, desires or impulses today. Avoid travel. Defer changes or risks. Money losses could occur. Increase of deaths may be reported.

THURSDAY, JULY 28

Moon enters Virgo at 4:18 P. M.

Protect health today. Increase of deaths may be reported. An element of strain or worry about finances, health and general affairs may exist. Work or employment may cause anxiety. Avoid friction with others which could cause legal difficulties or accident. Defer travel or important changes. Plan a routine day. Try not to let things annoy you or make you too sensitive.

FRIDAY, JULY 29

Moon in Virgo

Jupiter returns into the sign of Aquarius today, while Venus forms a favorable aspect to Uranus. These are stimulating vibrations, but Mars will be adverse to us—tending to create quarrels, strain and feverish haste. Danger of accidents will be greater. Warlike news may cause much concern. Be careful to avoid risks through which health or welfare could be endangered.

SATURDAY, JULY 30

Moon enters Libra at 6:35 P. M.

Saturn turns retrograde today, while Venus forms a conjunction with Neptune which culminates at 9:16 P. M. The day will be adverse for risks of any kind. Travel should be deferred, for accidents in transportation are indicated. Increase of deaths may be reported. Statesmen, governors, publishers and writers may be unfortunate. Financial matters may reach their high, to drop upon bad reports or news from abroad. Avoid risks. Don't expect to make a great deal of rapid progress. A tendency to attract trouble by forcing matters, taking risks or courting difficulties with others will be greater. Keep all your affairs open and above-board to avoid deception or trickery. Mysterious deaths or troubles could occur through carelessness or lack of forethought. Don't accept propositions presented to you or rely too much upon others. Labor troubles are indicated.

SUNDAY, JULY 31

Moon in Libra

Venus parallels Saturn in the early morning hours of today, which is apt to bring a somewhat sorrowful, repressing element into our affairs. Plan a routine day, but expect to progress if you are careful and conservative.

YOU AND THE MOON

BY LOUISE VANCE

“MAN, KNOW THYSELF” is really possible when one knows Astrology, or understands that a study of Astrology can acquaint one with celestial factors existing at the birth, which in turn signify the particular equipment of body, mind and soul which each person possesses.

There is no more important celestial body to study, in relation to ourselves and our lives, than the Moon. The Moon's influence upon each of us is of such extreme importance that it can hardly be exaggerated. In Astrology we learn that the position of the Moon at our birth denotes our Type of Personality. The Moon is associated with man's personality just as the Sun denotes the Individuality or inner self. The sign of the Zodiac in which the Moon was placed at our birth describes our personality; revealing how we will be inclined to express our inner powers, or how we will act, live and move through life.

The position of the Moon at our birth signifies the state of our daily lives and activities. Each of us aim high in life—but not everyone realizes that to which they aspire.

When we say that “circumstances” have interfered with our achievements we really mean that the Moon's influence in our lives has halted us, or created conditions in our personal lives or selves which have “side tracked” us or limited our expression.

When we are dull, our senses are restricted to the point that we cannot grasp opportunity, or it may be that we cannot take full advantage of opportunity. Our senses are quickened or retarded by the Moon . . . in some instances, we find people who do not use all their physical powers; in other cases, we find those who are extremely vital, sensitive and alert. We can express ourselves only as our Moon opens up the flood-gates. We will express ourselves, through personality, according to the type of sign occupied by the Moon at our birth.

The Moon is our most powerful influence so far as Destiny is concerned. It rules our environment. Its vibrations upon us either open or close our senses by which we contact the world. Not long ago someone asked me a question about a horoscope where the Sun was placed in Scorpio, with Venus and Mercury; looking at the chart, I noticed the splendid Sun, Venus and Mercury vibrations. I said “This is the chart of a very fine person, who is capable of great expression, power and success . . . but . . . the Moon in Capricorn at the birth was in conjunction with Uranus and in opposition to Neptune. Thus—the personal life would always present such obstacles that the life would be thwarted.”

The history of the world might have been far different—had past or present leaders possessed a different Moon position than that which they actually had. England might have remained Catholic had it not been for Henry VIII and his Moon in Aries, which made him capricious and romantic. The Revolutionary War might have been lost to the British had it not been for George Washington's Moon in Capricorn, which made him austere, insensitive to pain or failure. The World War might have never been fought had Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm not had the selfish, militant position of the Moon in Scorpio.

For men, the position of the Moon at birth is of utmost importance. It denotes the type of women, and circumstances surrounding them, who would be most prominent in their lives. This is also true of women, themselves; for the Moon, signifying their personal lives and feminine associations, would denote relations with the mother, sisters, children and their own sex, as well as their general domestic life in which the husband or male associates would be included.

The Moon's Influence in the Twelve Signs of the Zodiac

The Moon in Aries emphasizes the nerves. A nervous, sensitive nature is indicated. Brilliant, romantic, quick, fiery, adventurous, independent, this personality must have action, change, freedom and opportunity for expression. Rashness would exist. Quickness of action due to the instant reaction of the senses to impressions would be a part of the nature. Women in one's life would tend to be ambitious, restless, headstrong, passionate, brilliant, mental.

The Moon in Taurus emphasizes the feelings, and steadies the nature. Obstinacy, stubbornness, slowness in important decisions or changes makes this personality more stable, conservative and deep. Splendid talents and gifts are given, yet failure to express the personality in a magnetic manner may bring restrictions. The personality is steady, affectionate rather than passionate, relentless in determination. Women in one's life would be more domesticated, artistic, stubborn, conservative, affectionate, clinging.

The Moon in Gemini emphasizes the conscious mind, giving a restless, intellectual type of personality. The mental qualities are powerful, yet changeable and fluctuating. This personality is constantly changing. As the mind changes, so will the feelings and nature veer in a new direction. Mental stimulus is necessary. This personality is at its best when travelling, moving about or changing. The nature may seem cold, intellectual rather than emotional. Women in one's life would tend to be changeable, fretful, restless, mental, ambitious.

The Moon in Cancer emphasizes the senses so that this personality is magnetic, super-sensitive, sensual, deeply affectionate. The nature is reflective so that the personality is inclined to seem backward or timid. Contentment is sought. Upsets stir antagonism and fretfulness. Women in one's life are apt to be of a domesticated, affectionate, placid, comfort loving nature, influencing the personality and nature to a great degree. This personality is at its best in the Home or familiar surroundings. Success before the public can be realized.

The Moon in Leo emphasizes the heart and emotional nature. This personality is ardent, magnetic, enthusiastic, although it must be interested in anything or strongly attracted to be stirred. The heart must be involved in projects or associations for the personality to be at its best. The nature will be positive, independent, noble, generous, sacrificing, vital and loving. Women in one's life will tend to be queenly, sacrificing, public minded, dramatic, inspiring, deeply loved.

The Moon in Virgo emphasizes the intellect, causing the personality to appear cold and practical. The nature is apt to be materially inclined, so that practical needs and activities are demanded. Ability exists to portray emotion or sympathy without actually feeling it which is a valuable asset in professional and business matters. The personality is fastidious, intellectual, brainy, critical and ambitious. Women in one's life would tend to be practical, sensible, un sentimental, apparently cold, contributing much to material needs but somehow failing to provide warm happiness.

The Moon in Libra emphasizes the senses to the extent that a delicately balanced, charming, adaptable, dramatic personality is given. The feelings and desires may largely determine the success or failure. The nature is refined, beauty loving, impractical and delicate. Women in one's life would exert a tremendous influence for good or ill, swaying the judgment, stimulating beauty, social matters and personal affairs.

The Moon in Scorpio emphasizes the passions. The personality is magnetic, forceful, independent, secretive, positive and impassioned. The powers of observation are intensified. The nature is apt to be suspicious, jealous, revengeful if aroused to hatred or dislike of anything. This personality is inclined to be too forceful or intolerant of interference. Power of leadership and command of others is very great. Much sex appeal exists. Women in one's life are apt to be strong-willed, sexual, passionate, secretive, courageous and enterprising.

The Moon in Sagittarius emphasizes the spirit. A breezy, adventurous, restless, exploring, magnetic personality is given. The nature is extremely active, vigorous and progressive, unable to "stand still". The personality is intelligent to a marked degree. Companionship is sought. This nature is affectionate, but is apt to attract disappointments or friction. Women in one's life will not be of a domesticated type, but tend to be independent, freedom loving, expressive, brilliant, mental, professionally inclined, helpful in inspiring one's religious, philosophical and mental attainment.

The Moon in Capricorn accentuates a somewhat cold or restricted personality. The nature seems to hesitate or fear to express itself on the personal plane. Difficulty in being free and natural may be experienced. Ambition, observation, executive ability, a cold, analytical tendency and power of leadership are all very strong. The nature is inclined to be morbid, unhappy, unresponsive. Women in one's life will tend to be practical, cold, ambitious, critical and materialistic rather than affectionate and clinging. Sympathy is the attribute which should be developed.

WHAT THE STARS SAY ABOUT CANCER PEOPLE

(Those Born Between June 21 and July 23)

IT IS possible to analyze you and your Individuality or inner character from the sole position of the Sun at your birth. It is also astrologically possible to analyze coming events and conditions along your road of life, for a period of time, through study of the aspects of other planets to the position of the Sun at your birth. The Sun is the major luminary of the heavens; it is also the major influence controlling your destiny. Aspects, at any time of life, from other planets to your Sun position at birth will produce favorable or adverse conditions affecting your health, happiness, harmonious associations with others, business and financial success.

The study of the Sun's influence upon you at your time of birth is of supreme importance. The positions of other planets at your birth give you the attributes of your character; but the real you, your inner self, is signified by the Sun.

This "Character Analysis" is based upon my interpretation of the energy which Astrology teaches that the Sun produces through the sign of Cancer.

As a Cancer person, you have the Cancerian Individuality. You express this individuality or character, differently, perhaps, from other Cancer people. This is due to the positions of other planets at your individual time of birth; but the type of energy which you possess in your Character is that given you by the Sun in Cancer.

The Moon is your ruling planet. The combination of sign and planet (Cancer and the Moon) causes feeling to be the keynote of your nature. You either feel well or unwell, happy or unhappy, gay or despondent, successful or a failure. Your feelings are apt to be the barometer of your achievements in life. Your associations, environment, work and interests must cooperate in producing a congenial, feeling within yourself for you to do your best work or accomplish satisfactory results. You are changeable and elusive. Others find it difficult to fully understand you. You seem open and clear for all to read—but when they try to analyze you they find depths of which they never dreamed. You have a tenacity and persistence which is aroused only when you really want something.

You are indomitable when desire is coupled with your will. You may often seem to give up an objective because of opposition or objections of others—but if this is truly desired by you, you never inwardly forget it or relinquish it. You are harder to beat or defeat than any other type, for you, yourself, never know when to "give up" or "let go"; that is, if you are really determined that the thing you are fighting for or clinging to is worthwhile.

Your greatest success will come through public service of some kind. The Moon rules the general public. This planet promises success in work, business or career which brings you before the public. Home, family and domestic life will have a tremendous appeal for you, but your nature aspires to prominence and a public position. You must combine your professional and financial powers with your domestic and family interests so that you can enjoy both.

Marriage is necessary for you. You should find your perfect mate, and then begin to build a life of mutual interests, happiness, progress and prosperity. This is possible. However, you are somewhat difficult to be married to! This is because of your extremely sensitive nature and changing moods. You dislike lack of tact or quarrelsomeness (unless you are the aggressor; and if you are, you're usually right!) You abhor injustice. Thus, if your marriage partner or close associates are unfair, cruel and thoughtless, you will find intimate relationships a poor arena for pleasures or happiness.

You are inclined to sacrifice yourself for family and loved ones. Cancer is the sign of "martyrdom" and this may explain the prolonged periods of sacrifice and service to family and others, which may have been demanded of you. You are the rock upon which others lean. You are the breast upon which others rest a weary head. Your sign is associated with the great constellations, Ursa Major and Ursa Minor which are called "The Sheepfolds" or "The Resting Places" of the heavens. Ursa Minor holds the great Pole Star, the central

MARS' INFLUENCE UPON US DURING JULY

BY P. H. GRANING

THE position of Mars, during July, will be of utmost importance to all of us who wish to be guided aright by Astrology. Mars will be in the zodiacal sign of Cancer until July 22nd, when it enters the sign of Leo. Mars will form adverse aspects on July 1, 2, 3, 21, 24 when its energy will be rash, hasty, militant and destructive.

When Mars is in Cancer, it is adverse to those who are born in the signs of Aries (March 21 to April 20); Cancer (June 21 to July 23); Libra (September 21 to October 23); Capricorn (December 21 to January 21). When it enters Leo it will be adverse to those who have birthdays in Taurus (April 20 to May 21); Leo (July 23 to August 23); Scorpio (October 23 to November 21); Aquarius (January 21 to February 19).

During July, Mars will be particularly adverse to those who have birthdays between July 8 and 31; April 5 through 28; January 6 through 28; October 9 through 31.

In other words, people who have birthdays in the groups mentioned should be particularly cautious in all plans or activities to avoid accident, quarrels, friction with others, hasty or rash actions you would later regret. Danger of feverish ailments or sudden strain will exist. Fires, violent accidents or quarrels are stimulated when Mars is adverse to us. The body, mind and feelings are heated and over stimulated. Danger of surgical operations is greater. Excesses and indulgences are more attractive. Legal difficulties present a threat of trouble. Every effort must be made to remain quiet, calm, controlled and restrained. No risks should be taken which could cause trouble, accident or quarrels. At such a time we feel more daring, aggressive, vigorous and reckless. Women are subject to accidents, quarrels or trouble through men. Wars, crime, excessive heat, fires and explosions increase. Crimes of passion are reported on the increase.

Mars' Influence Upon All Birthdays During July

ARIES: (Those born between March 21 and April 20)

Until July 22, Mars will affect your home, family, domestic and private affairs. Danger of feverish ailments, quarrels or accident in family or personal affairs will be greater. Discord is apt to arise in the domestic environment or surroundings. Danger of fires is greater. Mars upsets things in the home, family and personal affairs. Danger of accidents will be greater. You will feel reckless, careless, rash and impulsive. You will overdo! After the 22nd, Mars will stimulate the feelings so that you will be more emotional, passionate and stirred. You will want pleasures or excitement. Strain on the heart-ties may exist in connection with loved ones. Protect the welfare of children or other loved ones against accident or feverish ailments. Pleasures, amusements and emotional happiness will be stimulated yet prove hazardous through the 24th. Avoid gambling, speculation or hazardous financial risks.

TAURUS: (Those born between April 20 and May 21)

Until the 22nd, Mars will activate trips, moves and changes. Upsets in the environment are apt to occur. Trips will be planned or taken. A tendency to be more quarrelsome, reckless and restless will exist. Danger of accidents to relatives or neighbors (or quarrels with them) will be greater. Quarrels, in letters or speech, will be more numerous. Your mind will be restless and active. Your actions will be impulsive. The adverse times will not be favorable for correspondence, travel or changes. From the 22nd on through the rest of July, Mars will be adverse to your home, domestic and private affairs. Danger of accidents, quarrels, fires or feverish ailments will be greater. Unrest or disturbances in the private or family affairs will exist. Necessity to control your impatience or anger will be greater. This is particularly true for you who have birthdays between April 20 and 28. Avoid investments or improvements in property or home. Defer important, rash changes.

GEMINI: (Those born between May 21 and June 21)

Marked increase of income should exist, but waste, rising expenditures or sudden losses are apt to occur at the adverse times. Gain through your own activity and enterprise can be realized, but at the unfavorable periods loss through impulse, quarrels, accident or poor judgment may occur. Extravagance is a keynote of Mars influence in your life until the 22nd. You can expect your expenditures or spending to rise and should try to curb this. Don't try to realize your financial ambitions this month. Be conservative and don't overspend. Be productive and endeavor to make more money but don't gamble or take financial risks due to excess ambition or confidence. From the 22nd on, Mars will be activating travel, changes, moves. Your mind will be more restless and active. It will be difficult for you to concentrate. Plan a trip or some important change from the 27th on, but avoid these things until after the 24th. Danger of accident, quarrels or trouble with or through relatives and close associates will exist through the 24th.

CANCER: (Those born between June 21 and July 23)

Mars will be in your own sign of Cancer through 4:06 o'clock in the afternoon of the 22nd (Central Standard Time). It will be particularly strong in the lives of you who are born between July 8 and 23. Mars indicates conflict—between your desires and reason; between you and others; between right and wrong; between yourself and those in superior positions. It indicates friction, danger of violent accidents, quarrels and feverish ailments. Fires are more apt to occur. Caution, forethought and restraint should be keynotes of your conduct, plans and activities. Don't court danger—for it will be close enough! Don't let yourself grow angry, tense, irritable or aggressive. Don't over eat or become over stimulated. Too much heat, in the system or atmosphere, will need to be carefully avoided. You will be inclined to overdo physically. An interest in sports, physical exercise or new forms of physical activity may now be greater. You will be quick, resolute, aggressive but irritable. You will be more sensitive. Be particularly careful to protect your affairs, welfare and interests on July 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 10, 19, 21, 22, 24. Be cautious to avoid legal difficulties! From late on the 22nd through the remainder of the month, Mars will be in the sign of Leo, activating your financial affairs. Increase of money or earning power can be realized. Better financial fortune should exist, but rising expenditures or waste of money may also accompany this new Mars influence. Avoid loss through foolishness, rash ventures, quarrels, poor judgment or credit strain. Don't over spend!

LEO: (Those born between July 23 and August 23)

Until the 22nd, Mars will be rather a difficult influence for Leo persons. This is true, in fact, through the entire month. While in the sign of Cancer (until late hours of the 22nd), Mars brings a repressing, smouldering feeling into your lives. Resentment at opposition, enmity or hindrances will be very great and difficult to control. A tendency to be angry or secretly worried and annoyed will be greater. Some contact with hospitals or places of confinement may arise. Travel, risks or disputes should be avoided. False accusations and quarrels could cause enmity and legal difficulties. Necessity for medical or surgical attention may be greater. Things may not be open and above-board. From the 22nd on, Mars will be in your own birthsign of Leo, particularly adverse on the 24th. That date will be especially unfavorable for you who are born on July 23, 24, 25. Danger of accidents, quarrels, risks or feverish ailments will be greater. Necessity to withhold action or rash impulses will exist.

VIRGO: (Those born between August 23 and September 21)

Until the 22nd, Mars will stimulate friendships, social matters, income and ambitions. A tendency to want to "paint the town red" will be greater. Lack of discretion or care in association with friends or social contacts will exist. Trouble in connection with others may limit or restrict your own plans. Quarrels with friends or acquaintances will threaten. Income is apt to be wasted. Contact with old and new friends is shown. More activity in these matters will exist. Disputes or enmity are apt to arise from time to time. Avoid accidents in social matters or with friends. A loved one may cause sorrow or be subject to loss. From the 22nd on, Mars will be at work to eliminate old limiting conditions in Virgo lives, but it will be adverse on the 24th—tending to bring some contact with hospitals or places of confinement, or trouble through enmity. You will feel rebellious. You are apt to seem eccentric or rash.

LIBRA: (Those born between September 21 and October 23)

Until the 22nd, Mars will affect the credit, business, profession and public activities of Libra people. Great care will need to be taken to avoid loss, quarrels, legal difficulties or credit strain. A desire to take risks and start new venturesome activities will be greater. Rashness may take the place of good judgment or reason. Danger of accidents or quarrels will be greater, particularly with superiors or those in positions of authority. Parents of Libra people will need to more carefully protect their welfare. Some threat to the reputation, credit or prestige will exist. Danger of fires is shown. From the 22nd on, Mars will activate social matters, friendships, income and ambitions. These things will be adversely affected on the 24th, when danger of waste, disputes, quarrels or enmity will exist. Avoid social matters or close contact with acquaintances on that date. Income should improve, although you will be inclined to be rash, rebellious and socially inclined so that waste of time or money will be greater. Contact with old friends and new should begin to be more prominent.

SCORPIO: (Those born between October 23 and November 21)

Mars will stimulate an interest in education, correspondence, travel and changes until the 22nd. New aspirations and plans are shown. More enthusiasm and excitement should exist in your affairs. At adverse times, however, you are apt to be over-confident, aggressive and argumentative. Danger of accidents, travel mishaps, quarrels and legal difficulties will be much greater. Trouble through or with "in-laws" or people at a distance may arise. Contact with law or lawyers may be more prominent in your affairs. You will want to take risks and force issues. Travel should be carefully avoided at the adverse times. From the 22nd on, Mars will be adverse to you—especially so on the 24th: You who are born on October 23, 24, 25, 26 should be particularly cautious on that date, to avoid credit strain, legal difficulties, quarrels or accident. Rash ventures or new activities will not be favorable for Scorpio people, after the 22nd. Avoid risks in business or matters where your reputation could be injured.

SAGITTARIUS: (Those born between November 21 and December 21)

Until the 22nd, Mars will affect the finances, health and affairs of other people—mostly in an adverse manner. Gains or increase should be realized in connection with others, but at the unfavorable times the danger of quarrels about money or losses, anxiety and sorrow through others will be greater. You should avoid financial loans—if others need your help, as they probably will, serve them, but don't risk money on promises or "I. O. U's". Quarrels with close associates are shown. Some danger of legal difficulties or trouble through the difficulties, sickness or losses of others may arise. You should avoid risks through which accident or sickness could arise. Safeguard the welfare of children or other loved ones in your life. Avoid risky experiments. From the 22nd on, Mars will activate travel, changes of environment or new plans and aspirations—but these things will be extremely adverse on the 24th when danger of accident, legal difficulties, trouble through or with "in-laws" or people at a distance could exist. You are apt to be quarrelsome, over aggressive or too confident so that risks would cause loss or friction.

CAPRICORN: (Those born between December 21 and January 21)

Until late on July 22 Mars will be in opposition to you Capricorn folk, particularly adverse to those who have birthdays in January. It will affect marriage, partnerships, close, intimate ties or public contacts. Danger of rivalry or enmity from others will exist. Lack of cooperation is shown which could cause quarrels or friction. If you are married, quarrels, strain or anxiety in connection with the partner will exist. Capricorn people will be more hasty in forming ties, marital unions or intimate associations this month which would be regretted later on. Danger of accidents, feverish ailments, quarrels, legal difficulties or fires will be greater during July—you will be inclined to act hastily without forethought. Avoid risks! From the 22nd on Mars will affect the health, finances and welfare of other people so that friction, loss or anxiety may exist, particularly so on the 24th.

AQUARIUS: (Those born between January 21 and February 19)

Until the 22nd, Mars will affect the health and work of Aquarius people. This month will be favorable for seeking employment; making changes if you live in a hotel or apartment; buying merchandise, equipment or domestic animals if you have a business or farm—but on the adverse days when Mars is unfavorable to the world, overwork or overstrain will exist in health and working matters. Quarrels, danger of accidents or explosive conditions in work and daily tasks will threaten. Trouble with employees, employers or subordinates will exist. There will be a tendency to overwork. You will be "bossy", irritable, strained and too aggressive—take time to think and carefully plan your words or activities! From the 22nd on, Mars will be affecting public contacts, marital or intimate relationships, legal matters and personal affairs. The 24th will be exceptionally adverse, especially so for you who are born on January 21, 22, 23, 24. Danger of accidents to yourself or close associates will exist. Quarrels and lack of cooperation may cause friction. Enmity or rivalry will be felt. Your instincts will be rash, hasty and irritable, so avoid all risks. You will be inclined to "fight back"! Defer important action on matters which may seem to demand hasty decisions! Marriage, partnerships, legal difficulties and accidents will be particularly affected by adverse conditions from the 22nd on.

PISCES: (Those born between February 19 and March 21)

Until the 22nd, Mars will affect pleasures, amusements, romance and emotional matters. These things will be more prominent and active in your life; yet strain, risk, danger of accidents or quarrels will be greater. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones. Strain upon the heart-ties is apt to arise during late June through July. Quarrels or trouble in connection with loved ones are shown. Someone you love may be in trouble or subject to accident. A tendency to overdo in pleasures or love will be much greater. Speculative, gambling and investment matters will have more appeal to you but should be avoided at the adverse times for danger of waste or loss will exist! From the 22nd on, Mars will activate your work and health. These matters will be adversely affected on the 24th when danger of quarrels, accidents and feverish ailments will exist. Thereafter, your health and working affairs should be stimulated in a more favorable manner!

What Is Astrology

there is simultaneously a repulsion between the two bodies. It would appear that the combination of this set of circumstances must result in a complete change of character of the magnetic field surrounding them.

We have a certain amount of evidence of this in the reports from the radio engineers who, observing the position of the Heavside Layer at the time of an eclipse of the Sun, noticed a sudden shift at the moment of total eclipse.

The complexity of the resultant magnetic field must be increased when other planets are also in conjunction with the Sun. Likewise when they are in quadrature or opposition to it. Again it must be remembered that the planets are not radiators but are bodies similar to our earth and, like it, are charged inductively by the Sun. Therefore their relative proximity to the Sun or their constant change of position will radically alter the resultant magnetic field at any given moment.

How can these electro-motive forces affect mankind?

Let us consider what probably happens at the instant in time when the vital breath of life enters a child's body for the first time.

In the moments prior to birth the child has no separate existence but consists of a collection of living cells which may well be considered part of the mother's organism. At the moment of drawing its first breath, a vital change takes place. It is at that critical moment that self animation comes to the child—the product of the life-forces which enter it. At that same moment, the lines of force of the existing magnetic field surrounding the earth (product or result of the composite magnetic fields belonging to the Sun, Moon, Planets and Stars) run through the child's body, setting the paths of the electrons within the atoms of the matter composing the child's body into a fixed, definite pattern which appears to exist for the duration of its life.

If the theory be tenable it provides us with a reason why the inherent aptitudes, desires and impulses of an individual remain consistent and make him behave in a manner characteristic of him. It also explains why certain configurations of the planets, interacting with the celestial radiators, will subsequently affect him.

"UNCLE SAM'S" HOROSCOPE

BELIEVE it or not, Uncle Sam, but your horoscope tells all about you. Planetary configurations were rich with a glorious promise when you were "born". You have a most unusual chart of the skies. Your destiny seems to take you on and upward toward heights now undreamed of. You seem to "bridge the gap" between the old age and the new—appointed by divine will to be the "Ark" in which those who progress into the Aquarian Age survive the destruction of the judgment which is to befall the old world!

There is not space nor time in this article in which to deal with your divine destiny and the part you will play in the great world drama to come. It is our wish, rather, to deal with your material affairs.

Your horoscope, for instance, tells a graphic story of your political trends. In case you're interested, let's analyze your political parties. There is the Republican Party which astrologers say is ruled by the planet Jupiter. Then there's the Democratic Party which they say is ruled by Saturn. There is also a conglomeration of socialistic or communistic groups, all of a somewhat "poor relation" variety, some good, some bad—but these come under the rulership of the planet Neptune.

We will consider your two major political parties for they are strongly revealed in your horoscope. They will each have a stupendous influence upon your fortunes and always play an important part in your destiny—moreso than the Neptunian parties.

We find Jupiter with the Sun in your horoscope, high in the ninth house which rules The Supreme Court. Jupiter would thus have a predominating place in your American political scheme of things. That means your Republican Party. Of course, I know that lately your Republicans have had a pretty hard time, but they've experienced such times in the past. And really, their destiny and fortunes are wrapped up with your own general prosperity and destiny. The Republican Party or its equivalent will always seem to be most fortunate for your own success.

As we have said, the Democratic Party is ruled by Saturn. When you were "born", Uncle Sam, Saturn was just rising in the East.

This would make the Democratic Party part and parcel of your destiny, also. But . . . Saturn formed a square or adverse aspect to your Sun which rules you, Uncle Sam—and that is why the Democrats have never been chosen by you for long periods of time; that is also apt to be the reason that you have turned to them at times of depression or trouble. They would pull you through those periods, while the Jupiterian element would build your trade, prosperity and riches.

Now remember that your astrologer is non-partisan in political views and that this is an astrological interpretation of what we see in Your Stars . . . don't "get mad" if your Republican or Democratic toes get stepped on. You have two feet, Uncle Sam. Both are essential to you at all times. One is a Republican foot, which you use best for riches, wealth, expansion, power and success. The other is a Democratic foot. It will hurt you, pain you, "cramp your style" and slow you down, but both your feet, nevertheless, are necessary in order for you to stand alone and upright. So appreciate them!

Your Democrats would always seem more or less unfortunate (as was your beautiful South in the days of the Civil War)—for Saturn is a hard task master. Both your political parties would be subject to changes, for you will always have your ballot with which to switch from "one foot" to "the other". This promise is given you by the position of Mercury in "the house of government".

Your other political parties ruled by Neptune will never be very powerful although they will be a secret threat to your prosperity and achievements for Neptune occupies the twelfth house of your horoscope which rules "secret enemies and undercover works". Neptune would often tend to involve your labor groups for Neptune rules the sixth house of your horoscope, which governs labor and work. Neptune has been the one great planet most strong in your destiny since 1929—as it was returning to the place it occupied at your start and as it was receiving a square aspect from your progressed Sun. Neptune continues to be a threat and menace to your peace of mind, security, political welfare and industry until after 1942.

You are now going through a "transition" stage. Your horoscope shows that capital and land has their boost. Industry and big business had their's. Labor is next in line and until its difficulties are surmounted (as they will be in the course of the next few years) your great Ship of State will seem to be in stormy waters. Injustice, inharmony and friction would reign at the present time in labor, governmental and industrial matters; but after 1942, labor, capital and government will go peacefully forward together if they can work out their present problems without crippling you altogether!

What about your Townsend Plan proposition? Well if you could get the Republican Party to embrace your plan, you would have it. And undoubtedly, although the Townsend Plan, itself, may not experience the triumphs of which its exponents dream, a similar plan will be evolved and perpetuated, at some future time.

What about the threat of a Dictator? Strangely enough, a dictator could arise only from your Democratic ranks, or labor groups. Saturn, adverse to the Sun in your horoscope, would cause certain Democratic leaders to assume dictatorial powers or prove harmful to the general interests of all your nation. This is the forewarning shown in your horoscope which you should never forget. Your greatest threat of dictatorship will appear in 1960—and it will not be long lasting!

What about Uranus? Oh, you've heard of the influence of this planet on other countries and individuals and you want to know about its influence in your affairs! I see . . . well, I hate to say "I told you so", but you'd better be careful, always, in loaning money or in anticipating money from others—for there's where you'll get "stuck".

You should remember this in all financial negotiations. You will experience fluctuations of financial prosperity. You will always suffer heavy losses or sharp gains in connection with the prosperity or affairs of other powers. You will always have periods of deep financial depression as well as times of unprecedented prosperity. You will always get involved with other peoples so that you suffer financial loss. This is because Uranus is in the eighth house of your horoscope!

Your Revolutionary War was fought because you didn't like the idea of financial bondage to another power—taxation without representation was distasteful to you. Uranus complicated your financial dealings with England—you fought to free yourself and become independent of such financial supervision or restriction. You will never be able to be fully allied or in partnership with any country or any power without financial loss—you will never be able to completely depend upon financial obligations owed you by others. Sudden, unforeseen happenings or crises can always be expected to arise to leave you "holding the bag".

Another thing—the eighth house of a horoscope rules the monies of other people; in your case, this would be the monies of your citizens which you would collect by taxation. You can always expect to have "taxation" troubles. And, you can also expect to experience revolutionary civil wars and such types of troubles until you find an equitable tax solution to your financial problems.

Your money and wealth will come from your own people and their degree of money, wealth or prosperity. Uranus warns you against excessive taxation—you will eventually evolve one means of taxation which will solve your particular problem.

What about complications with other powers? Right now you are in serious danger of warlike complications with Germany. This is planetarily indicated by the positions of your Mars 21 Gemini, and Germany's Mars 21 Virgo. At the present time, your progressed Sun is forming a square to Germany's Mars—this denotes warlike strain and friction between yourself and that nation. Tread carefully during 1938 for Aries nations will always be prominent in any wars you may fight.

What about your future prosperity and good fortune? Uranus has just now passed into the eighth house of your horoscope where it will remain for about ten years. Immediately Uranus moves into this part of your chart where it has not been for more than a half century, and you changed your financial dealings with Mexico! Your financial and monetary dealings with other powers will be the keynote of your own economic success or failures during the next ten years. You can expect to have the most surprising, fluctuating, troublesome upsets in connection with your finances and taxation problems. You will make many changes in your governmental organizations particularly in those associated with monetary matters. You should be far more fortunate, financially, during 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943. An inflationary period is strongly shown which may reach its peak from 1943 through about 1951. A great, high prosperity peak is shown for you around 1954, with your worst depression indicated around 1960.

What about the threat of war? You will experience ever increasing danger of war during 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, 1951, and 1960. Possibilities of Civil War will exist for you during the early 40's. You will be victorious in any warlike activities in which you engage except in those which arise around 1960—when losses would threaten to occur.

What about 1938? Saturn forms a square aspect to your Sun 13 Cancer. This Saturnine aspect is strongest and most direct in May, between the 9th and 19th. It is reached again between October 16 and 29; again in 1939, from January 29 through February 9. You can expect crises to arise in connection with other countries during those times. National sorrow through deaths, trade, economic and financial losses for your people, may occur under this vibration.

Jupiter will be extremely favorable to the American people during April, late August and December—stimulating prosperity, increasing fortunes, the circulation of money and advance of general good fortune. Fortunate stock market and speculative conditions should exist during these times due to the expansive Jupiterian vibrations which will then occur.

Your crop and agricultural prospects will grow much better, although in May, July and October you should prepare for heavy losses through droughts or atmospheric disturbances. This may cause the price of foodstuffs to rise sharply.

Your most perilous time of 1938, for war or militant political and domestic troubles seems to exist in late June through July—as Mars transits through your Sun-sign of Cancer.

Will you ever have a woman president? Yes, I'm afraid so—but this may not occur until epochal changes have occurred in your country's affairs. The position of the Moon in Aquarius, when you were born, indicates great national gains through women.

The Moon rules the tenth house of your horoscope and in Aquarius, it will undoubtedly bring a great woman President of the United States upon the national scene, at the start of the Aquarian Age.

Will your people be safe from 1940 on? If they are not safe in your country they won't be safe anywhere! You, Uncle Sam, and Canada can safely consider yourselves "protected" by beneficent promisory notes given you by your Horoscopes—of course that may not mean much to you now: but as Europe is destroyed, as the Orient becomes fiercely nationalistic and aids in the destruction of Europe, your own continent will prove to be the "haven of rest" which is always prepared by unseen hands in any great time of judgment or world crisis.

Your own great judgment will be experienced in 1960—as your progressed Sun forms its square to Saturn.

The July Outlook for Aries

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between March 21 and April 20

A combination of both favorable and adverse conditions are written in Aries stars during July. You should plan carefully so that you can avoid risks, haste or important activities which could cause loss.

Mars will be adverse to Aries folk until after the 24th. This is always indicative of trouble, discord, accidents or feverish ailments. The home, family, domestic and private affairs are apt to be disturbed. Activity, trouble or upsets in these matters will be more marked. Extra care of health should be taken to avoid digestive troubles or feverish ailments. The danger of accidents, falls or broken bones will be greater this month. You will be more hasty, rash or impulsive. This could create accidents or quarrels.

Investments or speculation during July will be generally unfavorable for you Aries people. There will be a greater tendency to take risks or make hasty decisions which could cause loss. Property and possession should be protected against fire or such types of hazards.

Work and health matters should greatly improve after the 27th. The most fortunate period of July then begins, in which unexpected gains, working opportunities and progress according to your individual plans can be promoted. Defer new business or personal activities until the 28th.

Emotional upsets and personal disappointments are apt to be experienced. This is especially true for you who are born between April 7 and 11, 18 and 20. You should plan your vacation time or important pleasures during the favorable time in June or in late July. Love and happiness will be disturbed from time to time. It will be more difficult for you to adjust yourself to other people or to enjoy happiness. Protect the welfare of children and other loved ones at the adverse times of July.

The first week of July will be adverse for emotional relationships, and personal happiness. An element of disappointment or anxiety is shown in connection with other people. Set-backs may arise in business or personal matters. Finances should be safeguarded, for sudden losses or changes may occur. A tendency to waste money or overspend will be greater. Be particularly careful to avoid loss or trouble on the 2nd, 3rd. Defer pleasures or social activities.

The second week should be more favorable for financial and personal matters on the 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 13th. The 10th, however, will be definitely adverse for health, business, family or domestic matters, property or personal affairs. Some disappointment or sorrow may arise. Defer important plans or new activities. Avoid coldness or misunderstanding with others. Some heavier responsibility or anxiety may arise.

The third week will be favorable on the 18th, stimulating health, work, business and pleasure. Gains should be realized. Improved conditions are indicated. More happiness, love and enjoyment of life are indicated. The 15th and 17th, however, are apt to be definitely TRYING days. Health and work will be adversely affected on the 14th, 15th. Pleasures, loved ones, financial and personal matters are apt to cause anxiety or trouble on the 16th, 17th.

The fourth week of July will be one of the most exciting, dangerous periods of the year. Mars forms a series of adverse aspects on the 21st and 24th which could produce anger, danger or sorrow in Aries lives. This is apt to be particularly felt in private affairs, in home, family or personal matters. Avoid all risks and remain conservative. The danger of quarrels, friction or sickness will be greater. Utmost care in connection with fires and such matters should be taken. The 26th will be adverse for health, working matters or trips. Plan a conservative course this week.

The last four days of July should be exceptionally good for your success and activities. Health, work, business and personal affairs should be promoted during this time.

Favorable days: 1, 8, 12, 13, 18, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2 through 7, 9, 10, 15, 17, 21 through 27

July Outlook ... for Taurus

For Those Born Between

April 20 and May 21

JULY may be an exciting month for Taurus people. Both favorable and unfavorable conditions or trends are shown. If you are forewarned of the adverse, you can then use discretion or good judgment to avoid mistakes or risks.

Your mind will be irritable, changing, restless and disturbed all this month. Friction or discord with others is apt to arise at unfavorable times. Danger of quarrels in letters or speech, with neighbors, relatives or close associates will be greater. Relatives (brothers, sisters, especially) of Taurus persons should be particularly careful during July for danger of accident, sickness or trouble will exist for them. You should very carefully avoid rashness, haste or risks in trips or changes you may plan, if you are Taurus born; danger of accident will now be greater. Trips, changes, moves and correspondence will be activated all this month.

The domestic, family and private affairs will be to the fore during July, causing inharmony or difficulties with others from time to time. Loss through investments or personal matters COULD occur. Be very careful to avoid estrangements or separative influences which will exist. Unwise changes or decisions are apt to affect the affairs of many Taurus people this month; especially so on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 21st through 27th. If you defer important matters, plans or decisions until after the 27th, you will then be in a far more fortunate position to achieve success.

Health should be carefully protected this month. Danger of accident or sickness will be greater for Taurus people on the 2nd, 3rd, 6th, 10th, 17th, 21st, 22nd, 24th. After the 27th, a more harmonious emotional period will begin. More love, romance, happiness and enjoyment of life is indiicated. Plan your important activities or affairs from that time on.

The first week of July will be adverse for trips, changes or personal affairs. Your emotions are apt to be upset. Sudden changes may prove unwise. Don't make changes or take risks; safeguard your emotional relationships. You are apt to feel upset, mentally and physically, so that sudden reversals or uncertainties could exist. Be particularly careful in travel, secret matters, health, business and family affairs to avoid trouble. The 1st, 4th, 5th will be the most favorable days of this period.

The second week will be extremely adverse around the 10th; bad news or sorrowful conditions may arise, such as those apt to be experienced around the 2nd and 3rd. Avoid secretive or undercover plans. Be very careful in trips or changes.

Defer important plans on the 10th. Don't accept new propositions presented to you at adverse times during July or depend upon people entering your life. Some secret enmity or secretive, peculiar matter may cause deep anxiety around the 10th. Relatives of Taurus people should be particularly cautious at that time. Important matters can be promoted at the favorable times.

The third week will improve conditions considerably, although you should avoid pleasures, social matters, financial or personal risks on the 15th, 17th and 20th. Protect the welfare of children and other loved ones at those times. A tendency to be rash, careless or extravagant and emotional will then be greater. Sudden upsets or adverse news and changes may arise.

The fourth week will be an adverse time for Taurus people. Safeguard your affairs. Defer all really important matters. Avoid risks through which accidents, quarrels or reversals could arise. Don't force issues. The 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th and 27th will be adverse for your affairs. Danger of accidents, quarrels or violent upsets with others will exist. The 24th will be extremely adverse for you who are born on April 20, 21, 22. Danger of discord, sickness or trouble in connection with family or private affairs will exist. This will be a very quarrelsome or troublesome period.

The last four days of the month show exceptional promise for Taurus people. Promote your important affairs. Improving conditions should then exist. More love, romance and personal happiness can be enjoyed. Plan your pleasures, vacation trip or personal enjoyment of life during this period. Gains through past investments and favorable new opportunities should exist.

Favorable days: 1, 4, 5, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 18, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 15, 17, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 27

The July Outlook for Gemini

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between May 21 and June 21

JULY will be an eventful month for Gemini people. Both favorable and unfavorable conditions or events are shown. Your knowledge of the adverse trends and times should help you avoid them; for forewarned IS forearmed.

Marked increase of money is indicated for many Gemini people during July. Increasing expenditures waste or extravagance, however, may arise to cancel the gains. Be very careful in all financial matters to avoid friction, trouble or poor judgment. Ability to collect money due you will be greater on the 5th and other favorable days. Losses may occur, however, through other people or your own eagerness to promote gains. The 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 21st, 24th will be particularly adverse times for finances, business and money matters.

Friends or close associates may play an important part in your life this month. Some restrictions or losses are apt to arise through other people. Defer important social or amusement matters at the adverse times. Others may prove more expensive to you.

Unexpected upsets or troubles are indicated; some contact with hospitals or places of sorrow may arise in connection with relatives or friends, at the adverse times. Trips or changes should be avoided for danger of accidents or troubles will exist. These matters will be stimulated in a very favorable manner after the 27th, so that the last four days of July will favor changes, moves, trips, news and personal activities. Earlier in the month, the relatives or close associates of Gemini people may be unfortunate.

Important news will be a trend of July for which you should be prepared. Your own mental outlook and decisions will have much to do with either success or failure. It will be difficult for you to adjust yourself to conditions at times, yet this will be your wisest course. Better conditions will exist at the month ends.

Family, personal and domestic affairs should greatly improve as July ends. New improvements or happenings in connection with family or private affairs should offer greater happiness.

The first week of July will be adverse for finances, travel, relatives, friendships or social matters. Some secret enmity or sorrow may be felt. A feeling of rebellion or dislike of routine conditions could dictate unwise decisions or moves. The 1st and 5th will be exceptionally favorable for financial matters; the 2nd and 3rd will be adverse.

The second week of the month should greatly improve your affairs except on the 10th. This date will be extremely adverse for finances, business, friendships or gains. Some disappointment or loss is apt to arise. Coldness or misunderstanding could bring reversals. Don't start new activities or make important decisions, as you'll be inclined to do. Other days of the week will be generally favorable for your routine affairs.

The third week will be adverse on the 15th, 16th, 17th; domestic or family matters are apt to be disturbed. Credit strain or unwise spending should be carefully avoided, although expenditures beyond your power to control could arise. Defer changes or risks. Don't allow yourself to be aggressive or rash. Danger of accident or bad news will exist around the 17th. Avoid travel or changes.

The fourth week will be very active! Financial upsets are indicated. Waste of money or sudden quarrels and losses are shown. The utmost discretion should be observed in all financial affairs. Danger of quarrels, in letters or speech; rashness in trips or changes, and unwise decisions will exist around the 24th. Relatives of Gemini people should be particularly careful to avoid accident at that time.

The last four days in July should greatly improve your affairs. The 28th and 29th should be particularly favorable for progress, happiness, gains and success. You can take advantage of opportunities which may arise. Marked improvements in the private life should exist. Promote your important plans during this period.

Favorable days: 1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 18, 19, 20, 25, 28, 29, 30

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 27, 31

The July Outlook for Cancer

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between June 21 and July 23

JULY will be a month in which Cancerian people should be particularly cautious. Mars will be passing through your own sign, which tends to stir up discord, friction, rashness and haste. Use the utmost restraint in your affairs, particularly so if you are born between July 7 and 23. Both favorable and unfavorable conditions are indicated during this month so that if you are careful you should be able to promote happiness and generally fortunate gains.

Carelessness or lack of attention to your affairs may cause losses or extravagance this month. More money should be realized, but waste or "out-go" of business will be greater. Around the 2nd, 3rd, 10th and 17th definite losses or reversals could be experienced in business or financial matters. Some restriction, disappointment or delay may then arise to test your affairs. Be conservative, all this month, for sudden need of money may arise. Heavier responsibilities or expenditures are shown at the adverse times. Defer NEW activities.

Your personal health and welfare will not be favored between the 1st and 27th. Danger of quarrels, accidents and feverish ailments will be greater. You are apt to be more rash or careless and thus rush into danger. Utmost care of your personal welfare should be maintained throughout the month. During earlier July you seem to be laying new plans or starting new activities. Your PERSONAL life and affairs will be greatly activated. As the month ends, marked increase of money or financial gains should begin to exist for you, although expenditures may also rise.

If your birthday is on July 7, 8, 9, 10, 20, 21, 22, 23 you should be particularly careful this month. Sudden emergencies or strain may exist, testing your strength, happiness and general affairs. Cancer people should defer their really important plans or activities until after July 27; much better conditions should then exist for you.

The first week of July will be adverse for your health, happiness and success on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 6th. Sudden upsets or estrangements from friends or loved ones could occur. An element of rashness, disappointment or trouble will exist in connection with other people. Don't force issues or try to hurry things. Protect your own welfare, and patiently work to keep harmony in your association with others. An element of accident and overstrain will be very strong. Promote your interests on the 1st and 5th when important gains can be realized.

The second week of the month will be extremely adverse on the 10th. If your birthday is on July 7, 8, 9, 10 you should be very careful to protect your health, happiness and business affairs. Defer new activities. Be conservative and cautious. An element of sorrow, anxiety or coldness will be felt in your life. Delays or reversals could occur. Some loss is then apt to affect Cancer people. The other days of this week are generally favorable for your affairs, although you will be subject to strain, accidents or quarrels and haste. Friends may prove to be a source of unusual good luck or happiness around the 9th, 11th, 13th.

The third week promises to be more fortunate for you, if you can advance conservatively and avoid STRAIN or risks. The 15th and 17th will be adverse for finances, social or friendship matters, trips and personal affairs. News or private matters may cause strain. Upsets and uncertainty, felt previously around the 2nd, 3rd, 10th may now be strongly affecting your affairs (around the 17th). Avoid financial promises or changes. The 18th should be exceptionally favorable for financial news or good luck.

The fourth week will be adverse! Defer all important matters, and remain conservative. Mars will be unfavorable to your affairs. An element of strain, personal troubles or danger will exist, strongly felt on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 27th. Avoid changes, trips, correspondence or friction with others. Your own health and welfare will need to be carefully protected.

The last four days of the month promise to be exceptionally favorable. Promote your trips, correspondence, changes and new plans! Gain through relatives or people YOU love should be realized. Unexpected happenings may work to greatly improve your prospects. Marked increase of money and progress should begin.

Favorable days: 1, 5, 8, 9, 11, 16, 18, 20, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 15, 16, 21 through 27

July Outlook

... for Leo

For Those Born Between
July 23 and August 23

JULY will be an eventful month for Leo people. Both favorable and unfavorable conditions are shown. If you plan aright, you should be able to bring order out of chaos and harmonize your various interests.

Venus will be passing through your own sign of Leo between the 1st and 13th. This works to stimulate more love, happiness, good luck and favors for Leo people. However, Venus' adverse aspects tend to create personal disappointments, waste, rashness and carelessness on the 2nd and 3rd. Be very careful to safeguard your reputation and personal affairs at those times, and again on the 17th and 24th. Upsets or adverse changes could then influence your life in an adverse manner. Protect your personal welfare very carefully. Avoid Emotional Upheavels or impulsiveness! Mercury, passing through your own sign between July 6 and 25 will stimulate changes, trips and new conditions. This will be a very favorable time in which to build health, break old habits and form new IDEAS; but upsets, nervous strain and unwise risks or changes are apt to be stimulated on the adverse days. Mars enters your own sign on the 22nd, remaining in Leo until mid-September. Mars invigorates but strains, fires but fevers the nature; a too emotional, risky, hasty and impulsive trend will develop so that you must carefully plan your procedure or program of life to avoid haste, accident, quarrels and personal upsets.

July is a time in which some secretive sorrows or anxieties are indicated. "Inlaws" of Leo people may be unfortunate or cause trouble. Trips or risks should be avoided at the adverse times. Some contacts with sickness, hospitals or places of confinement may arise from time to time. Avoid dealings with others unless everything can be kept open and above-board, on the 2nd, 3rd, 6th, 10th, 17th, 21st through 27th. Necessity to build and protect your own health will now be greater.

July is a month in which to attract happiness, gains or progress; don't force issues. Be careful to restrain your feelings, for you will be more emotional and hasty. Too much activity, energy or feverish haste will try to stimulate anger, impulse and poor judgment.

The first week of July will be favorable for your personal affairs, except on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th. Of course that leaves only the 1st and 7th in which to progress in a more fortunate manner. Danger of upsets or adverse changes in the life will exist on the 2nd and 3rd; avoid changes or new ventures. Protect your emotional, business and personal affairs. Don't take risks or make changes.

The second week will be far more favorable, except on the 10th. This date is apt to bring bad news, sorrow or anxieties. Some disappointment or delays can be expected. Reversals or loss may arise. Protect your affairs and avoid agreements or activities which could cause trouble. A secretive element of loss may exist in your affairs. Defer travel or legal matters. A separative influence will exist in Leo lives all this month which you should understand—emotional strain could cause separations or estrangements from others. The 11th, 12th, 13th should be more fortunate times for financial and personal matters.

The third week will be adverse on the 15th, 17th; adverse changes or nervousness could dictate unwise decisions or separations. Defer important action or pressing matters. Temporary upsets are shown UNLESS you force issues. Protect finances. Others may prove more expensive. The fourth week will be decidedly adverse for your affairs. A feeling of strain, enmity, explosive rebellion or resentment may exist in your life. Secret enmity or opposition is indicated. Don't force issues but await the very favorable period beginning after the 27th. Some contacts with hospitals or places of sorrow may arise during this time. If your birthday is on July 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 safeguard your own health and that of loved ones very carefully. Avoid quarrels or risks which could invite accident!

The last four days of July are exceptionally promising and favorable for your financial, personal and emotional affairs. Sudden gains are indicated. Promote all important financial, business and personal matters during this late period in July, to attract opportunity!

Favorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 28, 29, 30

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 14, 15, 17, 21 through 27

The July Outlook for Virgo

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between August 23 and September 21

JULY is apt to present some real problems as well as opportunities. If you plan and act rightly you should be able to make real progress; however (and I hope this makes you "mad" enough to prove me wrong!)

I doubt it! You are apt to let people or conditions harass, hinder or influence you during July.

Defer your really important personal activities, plans, changes or undertakings until after the 27th. New, better conditions then arise which could greatly stimulate your chances for success and happiness. Some secretive disappointment, sorrow or limitation in the life may cause difficulties on the 2nd, 3rd and 10th. The health, finances and troubles of others may delay your own affairs, or bring anxiety about them. Don't seek favors or expect much gain or happiness in connection with friends, loved ones or associates at those times. Losses of others could affect your own income, ambitions and happiness.

Social and friendship matters will be very prominent in Virgo lives this month. These things are greatly favored at the fortunate times, but may prove extremely adverse at the unfavorable times in July. New friends may enter your life. Gains through people who care for you can be more easily attracted around the 1st, 5th, 11th, 13th. More fun, pleasure, social activity and friendships should exist. These matters should all be deferred or avoided, however, at the unfavorable times. Danger of serious quarrels or friction and accident with friends or loved ones will exist on the 3rd, 10th, 21st, 22nd, 24th. Some new friend is now apt to enter your life. Income should be both stimulated and retarded. Avoid carelessness and safeguard your own finances.

The 24th will be adverse for risks, health, trips or personal matters. Some contact with hospitals or secretive matters may arise during the period between the 21st and 24th. You who are married are apt to experience difficulties through the finances, health or affairs of the partner. Legal matters should be avoided, this month, at the adverse times, but can be promoted at the favorable times.

The first week of July will be favorable for personal, social and financial matters except on the 2nd, 3rd, 6th. Upsets or disappointments through others are then apt to occur. Defer social matters; don't place too much dependence upon other people. Some sorrow or anxiety is indicated. Safeguard your finances and don't let other people influence your decisions. Changes will not be favorable. Plan a careful program this week and attend to routine matters.

The second week will be very favorable except around the 10th. This date signifies sorrow or disappointment through others. Social matters, friendships, income and close relationships with others will not be favored. Some restriction or anxiety is indicated. Defer important plans. Other favorable days of this week should find your affairs progressing in a benefic manner. Personal gains through friends and people who care for you should be attracted.

The third week finds Venus entering your own sign of Virgo; its benefic aspects work to bring more favor, good luck, protection, love and personal happiness into your life. Its adverse aspects such as exist on the 15th indicate some disappointment or opposition in connection with others. If your birthday is on August 23, 24, 25 safeguard your health and happiness very carefully. The 17th will be adverse for risks, secret matters, trips or new activities. Bad news or abrupt changes may arise. News to and from sick people or those in trouble may be more prominent.

The fourth week will be adverse. An element of quarrels, friction and discord may exist in social or financial matters. Don't be hasty or indiscreet. Defer important social or friendship matters and protect your income. Upsets through others may occur. Your own ambitions or desires may make you restless, careless or rash and this will invite trouble. The entire week will be a dangerous one.

The last four days of July will be exceptionally promising and fortunate for Virgo people if you are awake and alert to opportunities. Unexpected good luck, favors, love, gifts and appreciation can then be attracted. A "new start" toward important gains or achievements can be inaugurated. Take advantage of opportunities which may arise.

Favorable days: 1, 4, 5, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 18, 19, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 15, 16, 17, 20, 22, 23, 24, 27

IMPORTANT developments and happenings are now scheduled for Libra lives! Both favorable and unfavorable conditions are indicated during July. If you plan carefully you should be able to avoid adverse happenings or mistakes which could cause loss later on.

If you are born on October 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 20, 21, 22, 23 you should be particularly cautious throughout the month. Strain, anxieties or trouble may affect these Libra birthdates, especially. You should avoid risks, protect health, defer important activities and work to keep peace in your relations with others. Upsets or sorrow through other people are apt to arise from time to time. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones very carefully at adverse times of July. Libra people who are married or intimately associated with others are apt to experience some sorrow or loss in connection with the partner. The parents of Libra people may be subject to sickness or trouble.

Don't be surprised if you meet with opposition, delays or disappointment this month. Your keynote of success will be that remarkable ability you have of keeping harmony and balance in your associations with others. Avoid business, credit or financial risks for these will cause loss. Gains in money or business matters are now strongly shown for you, but extravagance, waste or poor judgment will cause regret. You are apt to be rash, impulsive and hasty in your decisions or acts, thus arousing friction with others.

Social matters, friendships and new contacts are now strongly shown for you; these matters, however, may cause upsets or trouble around the 2nd, 3rd, 17th, 24th. Avoid quarrels with friends. Don't seek favors or get involved with others in important matters through which loss or disappointment could arise. At the favorable times, enjoy your social or friendship interests, for these matters will then be greatly stimulated and harmonious to you.

Your health and work will be favored this month except on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 17th, 21st through 24th, 27th. Carelessness or lack of attention could affect your health. Somewhat secretive matters are apt to arise in connection with trips, news, letters and personal matters. Legal matters will not be favored this month, but may affect many Libra people. Defer such matters if they arise, until after the 27th, if possible.

The first week of July will be unfavorable for business, marriage, romance, health and personal affairs. An element of delays or loss is shown so that you should be conservative. Don't start new undertakings. Avoid risks. Opposition or trouble through others may arise. Friendships and social matters will not be favored. Unexpected happenings may cause strain or interfere with your affairs. The danger of sickness, accidents or quarrels will be much greater. Loss through others could occur.

The second week will be a far more favorable time for your affairs, except on the 10th. Loss or sorrow could arise at this time. You who are married are apt to experience difficulties through the partner. Try to avoid trouble or misunderstandings. A feeling of heavier responsibility or anxiety in connection with others may exist. Business and personal gains can be realized on the 8th, 9th, 11th. More happiness in connection with friends or people who care for you can be attracted, but progress quietly.

The third week will be a less favorable time. Health, work and personal matters should be safeguarded. Avoid changes or carelessness in health or working affairs. Upsets in social or friendship matters may occur. Sudden losses or difficulties through others are indicated around the 17th.

The fourth week will be definitely adverse for Libra people, particularly so for you who are born between October 20th and 23rd. Be very careful to safeguard your health and personal welfare. Danger of cuts, burns, accidents or feverish strain will be greater. Defer important decisions or risks. Business and personal upsets are indicated. This will be a time in which Libra folk will feel angry, strained, tense and irritable, so that discord or troubles will be intensified.

The last four days of the month promise to be exceptionally favorable! Secretive or somewhat hidden gains, progress and news are shown which should stimulate your affairs. Advancement in work, business and health matters should be more fortunate. Unexpected happenings should improve your prospects.

Favorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 14, 18, 25, 26, 29, 31
Unfavorable: 2 through 7, 10, 15, 16, 17, 20

July Outlook ... for Scorpio

★

For Those Born Between
October 23 and November 21

SCORPIO people have an exciting, eventful month before them! A great many very fortunate conditions are shown, yet an element of strain, risk and trouble will also exist (as always, do I hear you say?)

However, forewarned is forearmed. And with careful planning and restraint, you should be able to promote your affairs in a favorable manner during July!

Your health and work will need to be carefully protected on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th. More responsibility, harder work, slower returns or anxiety about your affairs may exist at these times. The ending of some old phase of work or duties may occur. Vitality will be diminished so that your resistance to colds, intestinal ailments or general physical disorders will be lowered. A feeling of tiredness, failure and melancholy may exist from time to time which could dictate relinquishment of interests you might later regret. Stay on the job this month, whether it seems to pay or not! But be ready to "give up" former types of work if it dies beneath you, as it were.

Travel, legal matters, correspondence and people at a distance from you are now apt to be activated in a somewhat exciting and troublesome manner. You will be more aspiring, aggressive, impulsive and ambitious, and thus fail to use good judgment in your activities. At the adverse times of July, avoid trips, changes, new undertakings and risks, legal matters or correspondence! Some contact with law or lawyers may arise. Trouble with people at a distance from you may occur. "Inlaws" of Scorpio people will be subject to accident or troubles. Be particularly careful in all your affairs between the 21st and 24th, for that will be a dangerous or adverse time.

July will be an extremely fortunate month, IF you can avoid haste or impulsive, hasty decisions, for new plans and aspirations. You will feel more free and can be more vigorous in promoting new ideals or programs. Writing, studies, publishing, unexpected opportunities and news from a distance will all be greatly stimulated. Your business and financial affairs should be favored during the month, except for the 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 17th, 21st through 24th—sudden upsets, uncertainties or reversals could occur at those times. Be careful throughout July to avoid enmity or friction with other people. Unexpected, unforeseen difficulties with other people will threaten to arise, which could cause sorrowful separations or estrangements.

The first week of this month will not be favorable for your affairs, although you can progress if you are careful. Remain conservative. Remember that July favors steady advancement and is adverse to the new, venturesome, risky projects! Don't over expand or over do! Protect the health and working interests this week. Avoid travel or legal disputes. Be careful about important letters or writings.

The second week will be far more fortunate for your affairs, except on the 10th. This date may bring restrictions, sad news or disappointments. Defer travel, correspondence, changes or risks. The 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 13th should stimulate friendships, social matters, income and personal happiness. Marked improvement should be noticed in your affairs.

The third week will be adverse for friendships, love, pleasures and personal relationships. A tendency to run risks or force issues will be greater. Remain conservative and attract the things or people you want in your life rather than force issues or rush things. Business upsets or separations from others could occur on the 17th.

The fourth week will be definitely adverse for all risks. Danger of credit strain or business emergencies is indicated. Be prepared for this period of July so that trouble can be avoided. Legal matters will not be favored. Danger of quarrels, strain, accidents, fire or risky ventures is indicated. Be particularly careful to protect your health and personal welfare if you are born on October 23, 24, 25.

The last four days of July are extremely favorable for your affairs. Social matters, friendships, love and personal happiness will be stimulated. Promote your favors, improve income, take advantage of new opportunities which may arise. Unexpected gains and happiness are indicated for you. Some one who cares for you should be a source of unusual good fortune. This will be your time in which to realize the favors, love or gains which you desire from others.

Favorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 6, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27

The July Outlook for Sagittarius

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between November 21 and December 21

SAGITTARIUS people should now defer their really important business or personal activities until after the 27th. This may seem difficult to do but will be wise. Earlier July seems to disturb your affairs and cause upsets through other people. Waste of money, time or energy is strongly shown. The health, finances and troubles of other people may create sorrow or interfere with your own plans and interests. Financial relationships with others may cause friction.

Some sorrow or disappointment is apt to arise around the 2nd, 3rd, 10th. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones at those times. Anxiety about the organization of business matters, or about someone you care for, will exist. Investments, pleasures and emotional matters will not be favored. Disappointment in pleasures and emotional matters will not be favored. Disappointment in pleasures you may plan is indicated. Plan a routine course of life so that you can thus avoid risks or strain.

Travel or change may be prominent in your plans. News from people at a distance seems to be more exciting. Trips should be deferred on adverse days, however, for danger of accidents or trouble will exist. Health and work are apt to be upset through news or changing conditions. "Inlaws" and relatives of Sagittarius people should safeguard their health and personal welfare. Defer really important changes, trips, legal matters and plans until after the 27th, if you wish to take full advantage of the fortunate tides which then begin to stimulate your affairs.

Sagittarius people born in November should take particular care of health and business affairs. All Sagittarius birthdays should be careful, now, to avoid waste or rising expenditures in connection with home, family and private affairs. Investments in land or a permanent home should not be undertaken. These matters may cause anxiety or difficulties around the 15th and 27th, especially.

The first week of July will be generally favorable for your affairs except on the 2nd, 3rd and 6th, which will be adverse for the health, finances and affairs of others; danger of quarrels, accident or sorrow in connection with other people will exist.

Safeguard your loved ones carefully. Sudden emergencies may arise. Avoid risks through which accident could arise.

The second week will be favorable for your activities except on the 10th. This date may bring sorrow or disappointment through others. Defer pleasures; someone you love may cause anxiety. Business matters will not be favored. Otherwise, this period is more promising for financial and personal gains. Unexpected good luck and happiness will be working underneath the surface of your life. A trend of gain as well as loss will exist in your affairs. Strong indications of travel or new plans and sudden changes are shown. If sudden emergencies arise in connection with other people adjust yourself to the problem. Gain through apparent loss or trouble is shown.

The third week will be adverse on the 15th, 16th, 17th; travel, health, work, legal matters, correspondence and personal affairs will not be favored. Avoid financial risks. Upsets in the private life may occur. Changes, in business or position, will not be favored although a strong trend will exist. Plan your affairs carefully this week to be prepared for the violent trend in the following week.

The fourth week will be extremely adverse on the 21st, 22nd, 24th, 27th. Safeguard your own health and welfare. Danger of accident or friction about money will exist. Quarrels or deep anxiety about the affairs or health of others are shown. High excitement may exist in connection with someone in your life. Avoid all risks. Safeguard your own welfare and that of loved ones. Defer new activities. Don't make hasty decisions or changes.

The last four days of the month promise to be exceptionally fortunate. A new business, financial and personal trend will exist, stimulating the public and professional affairs. More popularity, good luck and happiness can be realized. Work, health and personal matters should offer new encouragement. Promote your affairs during this time.

Favorable days: 1, 4, 5, 8, 9, 11 through 14, 18, 19, 20, 28, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27

The July Outlook for Capricorn

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between December 21 and January 21

JULY is apt to be a disturbing month for Capricorn birthdays. You must carefully avoid haste or rash activities, deferring your important plans and undertakings until the 28th. A very fortunate trend then commences which should stimulate and promote your success and happiness. Earlier days of the month may produce inharmonies, friction and general incompatibility with others which would hinder your progress.

Lack of cooperation from others is a feature of July with which you may have to deal. Discord in marriage or intimate relationships may arise for many Capricorn people. The health and affairs of others are apt to cause sorrow or anxiety. This is a time when marital or intimate relationships will tend to be strained; coldness, misunderstanding or sorrow in connection with family, domestic and emotional matters will be to the fore. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones to the best of your ability. Emotional upsets are indicated at the adverse times.

Be particularly careful to avoid investments or financial risks. These matters will be more favorable after the 27th but are apt to cause loss if undertaken prior to that time.

July is a time in which accidents, quarrels or trouble through enmity are more apt to affect Capricorn lives. Legal matters or trips can be promoted at favorable times after the 13th. But all through the month the tendency for upsets to arise through others and their troubles or losses will be greater.

Capricorn people born on January 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 18, 19, 20, 21 should be particularly cautious throughout July. These birthdates will be more affected than others by retarding or difficult conditions.

The first week of July will not be favorable except on the 1st and 7th. More happiness, gain and progress can then be realized. Plan your pleasures or personal activities for those dates. The 2nd, 3rd, 6th will be extremely adverse for domestic, family, business, health and personal affairs. Some sorrow or difficulty may arise in connection with others.

An element of loss or disappointment exists during July, so plan carefully. Don't force issues. Upsets about money or important agreements with others are apt to arise.

The second week of the month will be far more favorable, but a conservative program should still be followed. The 10th will be the exceptionally adverse day for happiness, health, business and private affairs. Some sorrow or disappointment is indicated. Coldness or difficulties with other people may arise. Heavier responsibilities and tests of your patience or perseverance are shown. Defer new activities and await better conditions. Favorable days of this week should attract more happiness and gains to you. Promote the favors you may seek from others. Bring more happiness and love into your life.

The third week may present difficulties in connection with relatives, news, health and business matters. Defer travel on the 15th and 17th. Aggressive, careless action could cause loss in work or finances. Travel or changes will not be favored. Safeguard the welfare of loved ones on the 17th, particularly. Some peculiar dream or psychic experience may exist for you during this time. Upsets through others are shown.

The fourth week will be extremely adverse, especially so for you who are born on January 18, 19, 20, 21. Safeguard business, health and personal matters. Avoid quarrels or risks. A tendency to be rash, careless, quarrelsome or hasty will exist. All important matters should be deferred. Marriage or love matters may present sorrow or difficulties. Upsets with others are indicated.

The last four days of the month should be very fortunate. A new, happier trend will exist. Unexpected gains, news or opportunities can be attracted. More love, happiness, romance and good fortune should exist in your life. You can then advance your important plans and personal interests with expectations of gain.

Favorable days: 1, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11 through 14, 18, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 15, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28

The July Outlook for Aquarius

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between January 21 and February 19

AQUARIUS people should be carefully prepared for July. A trend of favorable conditions seem to mingle with adverse influences so that it will be necessary for you to use forethought and good judgment in order to avoid difficulties.

Health and work are apt to be principal problems during July. Danger of overwork or strain will exist. Accidents or friction in the working environment or daily tasks and associations will threaten. Difficulties with servants, subordinates or inferiors are apt to arise. Health will be strained so that you should plan a thoughtful health routine during July—and follow it! Be particularly careful, on the adverse days, in health treatments or your choice of food and drink. Favorable days of July will be extremely beneficial for health building, employment and business matters, yet unforeseen or trying conditions are apt to arise at the adverse times through which loss or disappointment could be attracted. Don't make changes, force issues, ask for raise of salary or anticipate big gains. These things can be attracted, not forced. You will earn that which you receive this month.

An element of melancholy, disappointment or anxiety will be felt at times during July. Sorrow through relatives or loved ones may be experienced. Bad news may come to you. Secret friendships or plans will not be favored on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 17th, 20th through 24th. Delays in news, letters or plans can be expected. Trips should then be deferred, for danger of accident, trouble or uncertainties will exist.

Marriage, love and romance will be stimulated for many Aquarius people yet an element of separative, estranging conditions will also exist for you. Upsets in home, family and emotional life are indicated on the 2nd, 3rd, 17th, 24th. Danger of quarrels or deep anxiety about others will then exist. Avoid hasty emotional decisions, separations or changes. Legal matters will not be favored at these times. Aquarius people who are married or intimately associated with others are apt to experience strain through such matters at adverse times of July. You who are born on January 21, 22, 23, February 4, 5, 6, 7 should be particularly careful in all your affairs to avoid quarrels, friction, accident or trouble in connection with others.

The first week of July will be adverse on the 2nd, 3rd, 6th, affecting health, work, happiness and environment. Bad news or upsets may arise. A feeling of intense strain or nervousness may exist. Defer important plans and don't take risks. Protect your health. The 1st, 4th, 5th should be very favorable for working, health and business matters. Unexpected gains may be received.

The second week will be both favorable and unfavorable for your affairs. Health and work will be adversely affected on the 10th. Some disappointment, sorrow or delay is indicated. Bad news may be received. Relatives of Aquarius people should be very careful all through this month to protect their health and affairs. Defer trips or important matters on the 10th.

The third week of the month will be adverse on the 15th, 17th, 20th for your general affairs. Upsets in home, family or private life are apt to occur. Marriage will not be favored. Safeguard finances, for a tendency to over-spend will exist. Waste or outgo of money will be greater. Unwise changes or decisions are apt to be made.

The fourth week will be the most unfavorable period of July extending from the 20th through 24th, 27th. Danger of violent quarrels or accident will exist. Strain may be strongly felt. Avoid friction or strain in connection with others, and don't take risks. Try to "mark time" and advance in your affairs without aggressive action. If you have pets or domestic animals, safeguard their welfare carefully; this is a time in which Aquarius people are apt to lose in such matters. Marriage, romance, business associations and health will be adversely affected. This will be a time in which to remain quiet, patient and poised.

The last four days of the month should greatly stimulate your affairs. Better conditions with others are indicated. Favors, gains or unexpected good fortune should come through others. This will be the time in which to advance your personal or emotional interests.

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 12, 15, 17, 20 through 24, 27

July Outlook

... for Pisces

For Those Born Between
February 19 and March 21

JULY will present many changing, exciting conditions to you. Both favorable and unfavorable trends are shown. If you plan aright, you should be able to advance your affairs in a fortunate, happy manner and minimize the adverse conditions.

Saturn will be adverse to your financial and business affairs on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th and other adverse days of July. Heavier expenditures, anxiety about money or some restriction or disappointment are apt to arise. A tendency for loved ones or emotional matters to cause money loss will exist. Don't let personal desires or associations interfere with conservative business or financial matters, for there is danger of this. Some child or other loved one may prove more expensive. Defer investments or financial risks, and don't overspend.

Your health and work will demand more careful attention this month. Good luck should exist in working or employment matters on the 11th, 12th, 13th, 18th, 29th through 31st. Promote your affairs at those times. These dates will be favorable for employment or business affairs, for Pisces people. At the adverse times, an element of strain, quarrels or overwork will exist, however; unwise changes should be avoided.

Trips or moves will not be favored on the 2nd, 3rd, 17th. Bad news or upsets in your environment or family relationships could exist at those times. The general trend of July is that of unrest or irritation at routine matters. You will long for greater freedom, expression and opportunity—but don't force these things.

July will be a highly emotional month so that you will need to use good judgment. Don't let your feelings dictate decisions or risks. Quarrels or strain in connection with loved ones and heart-ties will be much greater this month. Use restraint in all emotional matters or pleasures. More pleasures, love and happiness can be enjoyed at the favorable times, but sudden friction, quarrels or anxiety may arise at adverse periods.

The first week of July will favor gain through past investments or business matters. Pleasures and emotional happiness will be favored except on the 2nd, 3rd, 6th when these matters are apt to cause strain or anxiety. A child or other loved one may be in trouble or subject to accident. A quarrelsome, strained emotional life may be experienced. Avoid risks, rashness or poor judgment in connection with pleasures or loved ones. Don't take risks which could attract accidents.

The second week will be extremely adverse for finances, love, happiness or loved ones on the 10th. Some disappointment or loss may arise. Defer social or amusement matters; protect the welfare of loved ones very carefully. Don't take financial or emotional risks. Heavier responsibility or anxiety is indicated. Other favorable days during this week can find you advancing your affairs in a fortunate manner—but the need for care and prudence will still exist.

The third week will be especially adverse for you who are born on February 19, 20, 21. Guard health and personal matters. Difficulties through or with others could arise. Other Pisces folk should protect health, avoid travel or upsets through others, on the 17th. Trouble in working or personal matters may arise. Avoid sudden changes. Do routine work this week and don't make hasty decisions.

The fourth week of July will be extremely unfavorable for loved ones, pleasures, risks, health and working interests. Over-strain or overwork is apt to affect health. Violent quarrels or accidents could arise. Strain on the heart ties is indicated. Try to keep peace with others, and avoid waste of money, time or energy.

The last four days of July should be exceptionally fortunate and favorable for your affairs. Work and health can be promoted in a more benefic manner. Take advantage of new opportunities which may arise. Exciting news or changes will be in the air. More love and personal happiness is shown.

Favorable days: 1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 6, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27

The Planets in the Houses of the Horoscope

IN THIS LESSON, let us study the position of Uranus in the horoscope.

Remember that Uranus is the starry signifier of man's inner genius. Its energy influences man's inner self and development! Those things which you feel inwardly stirred to strive for, dream about and attain are Uranian. Those ideas of a vast, wide, unusual nature, foreign to your everyday life or things consciously learned, come from Uranus. Uranus is the planet which stimulates revolutionary ideas, changing, unexpected conditions, happenings and events. Wherever Uranus is in the horoscope there is the place of sudden changes, unexpected happenings and revolutionary, unorthodox or different ideas!

The position of Uranus in one's horoscope, in sign and house, should be carefully, diligently studied. There lies your genius and power which you should produce and cultivate. There also lies the dangerous trend of thought, action, conduct or events which can cause sudden unforeseen reversals, upsets, separations or conditions which could throw you off the "track" of fortune and happiness.

Uranus in the first, fourth, seventh and tenth houses tends to operate upon the plane of events and happenings of the life; it causes sudden startling changes, events and happenings to occur, either for good or evil according to one's direction of Uranus' energy. Uranus in the second, fifth, eighth or eleventh houses of the horoscope produces an entirely different influence upon the life: its effects will be felt in the financial, emotional and personal interests. Uranus in the third, sixth, ninth and twelfth houses of the horoscope works to produce its influence first upon the mind or body, environment and circumstances surrounding one. Its influence here will be felt upon the mind or body moreso than in events or happenings which cannot be controlled.

Uranus' position in the horoscope surprisingly, startlingly reveals those events or conditions in the life over which one does not have much control. The things ruled by the house or sign occupied by Uranus denote those things in the life which will be surprising, occur suddenly or cause sudden changes in the affairs.

Don't ever expect those things ruled by the house occupied by Uranus to be permanent or lasting, so far as the permanent, stable structure is concerned. They will be subject to sudden, unexpected change or reversal!

That which occurs through Uranus' influence happens suddenly and without warning. Thus the person having this planet in the second house (financial) of the horoscope can expect sudden gains and sudden losses to regularly occur throughout the lifetime. The individual having Uranus in the tenth house of the horoscope (profession, career) can anticipate sudden fame and recognition with probable reversals and loss of power. The person having Uranus in the seventh house of the horoscope should never rely upon a permanent marriage or intimate associations: these interests will be subject to sudden upsets and changes.

URANUS IN THE TWELVE HOUSES OF THE HOROSCOPE

The First House: An independent person! Eccentricity is apt to develop due to the original mind and nature. The temperament is explosive. Stormy reactions to things or people will exist. This person will be progressive, radical and unorthodox in thought, speech and action. Great power and magnetism are given, yet if no control over the impulses is exercised, radicalism and waste of power will exist. The new ideas, vogues or advanced principles attract. The other side of the fence of life will always have a tremendous attraction. Freedom must be completely enjoyed for this person to progress. Splendid gifts are given. Uranus here makes a leader, originator, creator. Some physical handicaps or dangers are shown. Extreme nervousness will be experienced.

The Second House: This position of Uranus will affect finances. The earning power of the person will be often disturbed, for good or ill. Bankruptcy may be experienced through lack of forethought or good judgment. Unusual optimism about money will exist. Means of making money will be different to the ordinary mode. Great financial gifts are given. Ability to attract money but inability to hold it is the keynote to remember about this Uranian position. Times when big money is being attracted should be times to recall the story of Joseph, Pharaoh and the conservation of grain in Egypt. The unexpected will always exist in the financial life. At some time or other in the life fantastic good fortune may occur.

The Third House: The mental capacity and intellect are influenced when Uranus is here. If the mind is cultivated, tremendous gains in writing, teaching and all intellectual matters can be realized. The conscious mind will be capable of producing inner ideas and expressing them. An erratic mind exists, difficult to harness or keep on one track; revolutionary or somewhat unorthodox, radical or scientific matters will attract. The education is apt to be affected by the person's travels, views and independent conduct. Reading and observation will be the chief means of education. These people are "born" astrologers! Inventive, creative ability is great. Much travel and many changes of environment will exist in this life. Difficulties with or through relatives will occur at times. Danger of estrangement or unforeseen separations from relatives will occur. If adversely aspected here, Uranus is apt to create much restlessness, strain and trouble through mental impulses and erratic action. The health will be undermined by overstrain, worries or nervous breakdown. Danger of accidents in trips will threaten. Some handicap of one of the physical senses (speech, hearing, etc.) may exist.

The Fourth House: An unconventional or unusual type of home and family life is shown. Many changes and adventures will occur in life. No permanent residence or home will exist. Troubles in family and domestic life are indicated. This person should move far from the birthplace and not be too closely associated with family. Mining, land, politics and such types of activities may have a great appeal. The later years of life may be upsetting and unstable. The stomach and digestion may be disturbed. The unexpected will always happen in this life. Ability to rise high in life or to fall very low will exist. The private life will be unconventional which could affect the career and general affairs. The native should always be insured against unforeseen events or sudden happenings which could mar the credit or cause losses. The secret aspirations will tend to interfere with stable living. The father may be an unusual character, subject to sudden events which alter the individual's life.

The Fifth House: Here is an unconventional, romantic, emotional nature! The views on love, sex and emotional relationships are apt to be unorthodox or "different" to those of Mrs. Grundy. Extreme emotional hazards will be run. Romance and love affairs will play an early and sensational part in the life. Estrangements, sudden separations or the breaking up of heart-ties can be expected. The reputation is apt to suffer from foolish or unwise actions and associations. Children are not promised by this planetary position. The love for gambling, speculation, risks, pleasures and excitement will need to be curbed. Sports and amusements will have a great appeal. Genius for sports, drama, educational or public life will exist, but it is apt to be affected by the emotional temperament.

The Sixth House: This Uranian position gives a very highly strung, nervous disposition which is thus apt to affect the bodily welfare. Periods of sickness and ailments are indicated. Chronic invalidism could exist, although sudden cures can be affected through unusual healing methods. Inability to work with others will exist. This person will have original, independent ideas about work, business, health and general life. Radical ideas about labor or work will exist. Trouble or unusual experiences with servants, employees or inferiors will occur. Genius in some particular line of work or effort will exist, however. Sudden emergencies may find this person "on the job". Danger of accidents in work or health matters will exist. Unusual ideas about health, healing, medicine or the hygiene of the physical body could produce marked success. An unusual or creative line of work will be chosen in life, in which the person is apt to be erratic or spasmodic, but withal, a genius.

The Seventh House: Erratic, unusual experiences in marriage, partnerships and all public contacts are shown. Incompatibility of temperament in marriage could cause estrangements; marriage is apt to end suddenly, without warning, through sudden removal of the partner, either through separation or death. Enmity and rivalry are apt to cause troubles. Inability to win in legal matters is strongly shown. Scandal may be attracted. This person can achieve success in public work, but can always expect opposition or misunderstandings. Unorthodox views on marriage or love are held. The unusual experiences of the life will center around marriage.

The Eighth House: A sudden death is indicated. Troubles through monies of other people are shown. Sudden gains and sudden losses through others will occur. The unexpected will occur in relation to wills, legacies or promises of others. Unexpected gains through marriage or partnership are shown, with equally sudden reversals or uncertainties. The life is apt to be strongly influenced by other people, by their gains, deaths, losses or troubles. Success will depend upon the health, fortunes and welfare of others. Psychic experiences, dreams and scientific achievements are indicated.

The Ninth House: An independent, creative, original type of mind is given. Ability exists to think and map out plans. Mental keenness, shrewdness and brilliance in unusual exploits are indicated. The nature is radical, revolutionary, "different" and fanatical in some respects. Devotion to some cause or Ideal is very great. Many long journeys and adventures are shown. Trouble in foreign countries may be experienced. Impermanence in any one locality will be felt. The development of new pioneering schemes or projects will always have a great appeal. Uranus here creates the soldier, missionary, pioneer, inventor, military commander, aviator, "soldier of fortune". Great literary gifts are given but need to be developed. Trouble through or with the church or law may exist from time to time. Difficulties with "inlaws" will be experienced. A constant desire for knowledge may be felt which sends the mind and thoughts out into the unknown. Danger in long journeys will exist, although many such voyages or trips will exist.

The Tenth House: Popularity will fluctuate, although ability to rise high in life through public favor and position is given. Danger of sudden reversals or loss of position will exist, however. This person has an unusual life and destiny, far above the ordinary. Ability to rise in life through one's genius and personal ability is given. Unexpected happenings would bring opportunity or advancement. Utter freedom, independence and lack of fetters, restraint or authority must be enjoyed, however, for this person to accomplish. Scandals may affect the reputation. Credit will be uncertain from time to time. Difficulties or estrangements from family may occur.

The Eleventh House: Ability to realize one's hopes and wishes exists, but sudden changes or reversals could cause failure or disappointment. One's success and achievements will depend upon others who would offer opportunity, or cancel one's hopes. Social life would be unstable. Friendships might be unorthodox or tend to cause reversals in the life. Sudden estrangements would always threaten. Income from business will depend upon the ambition and desires. A high position in life can be attained. Unusual experiences with friends or acquaintances will occur.

The Twelfth House: Obstacles will need to be overcome—but this position of Uranus promises their elimination through sudden happenings, application of one's knowledge and development of one's gifts! Work in quietude, aloofness or privacy is indicated. Research work can bring great gains. Contacts with hospitals, prisons or social welfare matters may enter into the life. Secrets, mysteries and hidden things will have a great appeal to this nature. Sudden misfortunes through trusted friends who become enemies or through sudden troubles may occur, either through poor judgment or through no fault of one's own. Every effort to maintain a protected, honest, open and above-board life should be maintained at all times.

You and the Moon

The Moon in Aquarius gives a splendid personality which is interested in humanity. Ability exists to attract friends and rise high on the wings of friendship. The person will generally be a fine companion, a fellow worker and friend, although he is likely to give more pleasure or benefit to others than he receives. Some "lack of heart" or imposition from others may be experienced. The women in one's life will tend to be inspiring, friendly, companionable, intelligent and professionally inclined, proving of practical benefit to the career.

The Moon in Pisces intensifies the sympathetic nature. The personality may tend to be quiet, passive, unobtrusive, dreamy and romantic. An impractical strain lies in the nature. The personality is not robust or active in material or practical things. Ability exists to sacrifice; generosity is a strong trait. A tendency to let pity or sympathy control the life is too great. Women in one's life will tend to be dreamers, impractical visionaries, charming, emotional, clinging and sometimes deceptive. They will have power to intensify love or devotion to a high plane, helping one in the domestic or emotional life but inclined to harm the career.

The PRINCIPLES of SCIENTIFIC
ASTROLOGY

You Need This Book to Know Astrology

Here is a treasury of scientific fact for both amateur and professional. The author, who is recognized as one of the foremost authorities on the subject of Science and Astrology on both sides of the Atlantic, discusses astrology from the scientific viewpoint, reconstructing it as a science by carefully weighing the evidence for and against it, and by revealing its scientific principles. The fascinating history of astrology is outlined from Biblical days down to modern times. The first important astrological discovery since the Middle Ages, made by the author himself, is fully discussed. Known as the Zenith System of House Division, it keeps the elliptic circle always evenly divided into twelve houses. In a captivating and fully understandable manner, the book reveals the Scientific Interpretation of a Horoscope, the Problem of the Houses, and the Scientific Method and Astrology. For every sign of the Zodiac, it contains a remarkable analysis of the effects of planetary aspects, individuality-result of solar influence, personality-result of lunar position, and temperament-result of the rising sign.
