A One-Volume Library for Students, Teachers and Professionals!

HERE is your opportunity to own your own copy of astrology's most remarkable book, the "A to Z Horoscope Maker and Delineator." Written by that great authority and scientific genius, Llewellyn George. The dean of astrologers reveals his own secrets of horoscope reading and delineation.

A Standard Textbook

of Genethliacal Astrology. Used in the leading astrological societies and classes; endorsed by teachers; recommended by practitioners. Very popular with students and research workers. A reference work of great value. It treats in detail all the requisite calculations involved in correctly casting natal and progressed horoscopes. Well attested methods of the radix and progressions are presented. All the planetary indications are thoroughly delineated. Retrogradation, declination of parallels, transits, the effect of New Moons in the horoscope, and many other important factors are treated in illuminating detail. The book is divided into five parts. Each part treats completely and in subsequent order a different phase of the subject. The whole study is presented in simple easily understood fashion. When you finish this volume you will have a well-rounded knowledge of the fundamental principles and methods to produce satisfactory results regarding readings, predictions, and general information of importance.

You will take great pride in owning this beautiful sixth edition of the "A to Z HOROSCOPE MAKER AND DELINEATOR;" an enlarged and improved version that will delight the soul of every true book lover. Price to Students, Teachers and Professionals, only $5.00. Send your order today to

HOLLYWOOD, CAL.: Names make news, but sometimes the real names of film celebrities have newspapermen guessing. Here's just a sample:

Stage Name	Real Name
Ben Bernie	Ben Anzelevitz
Jack Benny	John Kubelsky
Fred Astair	Fred Austerlitz
Betty Blythe	Elizabeth Slaughter
George Burns	Nathan Birbaum
Eddie Cantor	Isadore Iskowitz
Ricardo Cortez	Jack Krantz
Allan Jenkins	Al McGonegal
Sally Rand	Billie DeBeck
Marion Davies	Marion Duras
Lupe Velez	Lupe de Villobos

Hollywood newshawks all carry an indexed list of more than a hundred such names. Sometime if you're interested your correspondent will tell you how every Los Angeles reporter passed up a big murder story; and how red their faces were the next day when their 50 word account of what they thought was a cheap killing developed into a front page sensation. Since then, no reporter's press credentials are considered complete without the above mentioned indexed list.

Whether there is any truth in this report your correspondent deposes not. However, since Warner Brothers' film "When Were You Born?" created such favorable and wide publicity for Astrology, the story is going the rounds up and down Hollywood Boulevard that several of the major studios have engaged a professional astrologer in the casting office. His duties are said to consist of passing his opinion from a purely astrological standpoint on the applicant's fitness for film roles. This is not to say that other of the applicant's qualifications are entirely being disregarded in

When her photograph hit the desk of the picture editors all of them instantly recognized it as one of the most beautiful girls they had seen in months. Naturally, they "played" the story simply to carry that gorgeous picture . . . and they spread it over three columns. But such striking beauty that had caught the eye of the newspaper editors apparently hadn't registered in the slightest with the various casting directors at the studios as the girl had been given but a few of the most minor parts. How different it might have been if an astrologer had been in the casting office to give the girl a bit of advice. It could have saved a life.

Greater majority of the better known stars in the film colony and hundreds of the lesser lights are strong believers in Astrology and the list grows daily. Of course it wouldn't do to give names, but there are at least six prominent actors and actresses that your correspondent could name off hand; stars who shuttle back and forth from Hollywood to New York by air, who wouldn't dream of stepping into a plane without first consulting their favorite astrologer. Many of them won't even sign a picture contract without the same okay.

The newsstands in or near the film factories sell more Astrology magazines than any other; and stealing a line from Abou Ben Adam . . . favor of Astrology. Rather it is that Astrology is being put to a practical use in helping to determine whether or not the applicant is at all suited for film work.

Nobody as yet (but wait until we get astrologers in the casting office) has figured out just what it takes to "crash" the movies. It's Hollywood's greatest mystery. No one seems to know for certain, but on one point, at least, the experts appear unanimous. Beauty of face or form is not the essential asset. Take the case of the little West Virginia girl who committed suicide here recently. Never mind her name . . . it's all a matter of police record. Just the same old story of broken dreams. Ordinarily such a story takes about 75 words back near the classified ad section. Yet poor little Miss West Virginia (not the beauty contest winner) made the front page on every Los Angeles newspaper that day. The Answer?

THE STUDY OF THE SUBCONSCIOUS MIND

BY W. J. TUCKER, D. SC.

IT WILL lie within the compass of experience of each of my readers to determine whether or not the stars have patently directed his or her mind by direct influence—within the span of his or her memory. I cannot doubt the verdict each must return. This must inevitably find expression in the conclusion that the stars have no direct influence over the conscious mind.

The jury, however, will undoubtedly agree that the conscious mind and the will of the person which gives it direction, are often influenced by the basic, inherited instincts which, in turn, find expression in the form of emotions.

It is well known to psychologists, and to psycho-analysts in particular, that these basic instincts emanate from the subconscious mind. But it seems to be as yet unknown to both psychologists and astrologers that it is the subconscious mind which is influenced and affected by the celestial bodies.

Unknown to psychologists because they have not hitherto suspected the stars as the cause of the movements of the instincts. Unknown to astrologers because of the general vagueness of their ideas about psychological matters and the confusion of thought which has led them to extend the province of stellar influence to the conscious and superconscious parts of the mental processes.

This information may be startling but it is nevertheless true that the stellar bodies affect the subconscious mind solely and exclusively. They have no direct influence over any other part of the mental processes.

However, it is true that the mental processes, whether in whole or in part, can be influenced by the basic instincts. Yet, due consideration will show that as far as the conscious and superconscious parts of the mental processes are concerned, the stellar influences can only be indirect.

What is fundamental to the sensory equipment are the phenomena of pain, insensibility and pleasure. It is the phenomenon of pain (or pleasure) which provides the evidence of the existence of an emotion, whatever the form or quality of the emotion may be.

When we experience the emotion of love, we find it intensely pleasant—if our love is returned. We find it painful, if our love is not returned. Love often turns to hate, in order to afford an outlet for pent-up and excessive emotional force.

When we experience joy we also experience pleasure; but if something occurs to mar our joy, we feel the reverse—sorrow or pain.

We are actually normal when we experience neither extreme of a given emotion and are therefore insensible to that emotion temporarily; feeling neither pleasure or pain.

Descartes analyzed the passions; i.e. the outward manifestations of the subconscious mind. It was he who identified the three primary passions as Love, Admiration and Joy—each of which has its opposite counterpart, depending upon whether or not pleasure or pain is experienced.

That which Descartes identified, however, is but the quality or mode of manifestation of a primary passion. He has not explained its origin or connection with the subconscious mind.

Instinctive or unlearned behavior emanates from the subconscious mind. Psychologists also know that it is the subconscious influence which moulds the individual. They are also aware of the fact that each emotion can be expressed in one of three ways:

1. Directed to natural ends.
2. Directed to perverted ends.
3. Directed to sublimated ends.

The main basic instincts (impulses, inclinations, etc.) are also three in number:

1. The libido (sex).
2. The ego (self love, narcissism, self assertion, etc.).
3. Fear (flight, escape, etc.).

The above instincts may be readily identified as the prime movers of Descartes' passions: Love, Admiration, Joy. It is the concern of Astrology to show that it is these three basic instincts which are moved and influenced by the stars.

The libido or sex impulsion is identified with the passion of love. That is to say, when the individual is directed to natural ends it is expressed in the form of the emotion of love. But, because the word "sex" has a special use in our everyday vocabulary—meaning a special set of emotional values which limit it to the organs of sex and particularly to intimate, physical relationships between males and females—it is necessary to explain that the prime instinct, itself, has a much broader basis and meaning to that which is generally understood.

Dr. Martin Peck, in his "Meaning of Psychoanalysis" explains the distinction:

"Sex, to the ordinary person, is thought of in a concrete behavioristic way as something to be indulged in or denied; to be desired or abhorred; to be looked upon seriously or lightly according to circumstances, training, moral concepts and aesthetic standards. Freud demands that the term be extended to cover other fields and to be used in widely expanded meanings, psychosexual rather than sexual. Put in another way, the ordinary person thinks of sex in the physical sense, while Freud refers equally and more to the purely psychological features and the subconscious ones, at that. For the average man to conceive of a subconscious psychic sexuality is as difficult as to think of an unconscious blow on the point of the jaw. His machinery of thought is not sufficient for the task. The whole Western World is thoroughly conditioned to a limited, special meaning for the term 'sex'. The task of reeducating to a broader concept seems a difficult and, in many ways, altogether useless burden to undertake. There is as much effort required in undoing the old as in establishing the new, in tearing down as well as in building up.

Certainly, one might fervently hope for an inspiration which would lead to devising some convenient concept and terminology, including more easily within its scope both sexuality as interpreted by the man on the street and the extended sexuality of Freud."

The ego is the instinct which stimulates that which we call self-expression. It is the self assertive impulse of man. It dictates, under its imperious promptings, the end or purpose of an individual's life. Individual self-expression results according to the manner in which this primal instinct is repressed, modified or given free play; according to whether or not it is directed to natural, perverted or sublimated ends.

Fear is the primal subconscious instinct which often crosses the other two, thereby distorting their free expression. It is the flight instinct—or escape impulse—under the impetus of which the individual shuns the unpleasant, painful or difficult. The expression of this instinct is, like the other two, capable of control by the conscious mind via direction—modification or repression.

The three main instincts cited here are the inheritance of each individual. They cannot be separated. Yet there are differences as to intensity between their strength as is observed in the human species. Thus, our observation of the behaviour of selected individuals often induces us to employ such terms as "over sexed", "an arrant coward", or "an intolerable egotist".

In those individuals who have the fixed signs (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius) as the chief influences, the libido is the more strongly stressed of the three instincts. This is why the sublimated form of sex (artistry) is usually so observable a proclivity of the natives of these four signs.

Taurus often inclines to voluptuousness. The negative expression of this inclination often tends to make them seem lazy and slothful. Leo inclines to romance, governing "the heart and love nature". In this sign, too, there is a hint of the same innate indolence as evinced by Taurus. "Scorpio" say the astrologers "is the sign of sex". Aquarius usually tends either to sublimated sex or to repressed sex (neurosis).

In those individuals who have the cardinal signs (Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn) as

LIVE AND LOVE

BY P. H. GRANING

ARIES PEOPLE (born between March 21 and April 20). Your emotional prospects for November are somewhat hectic. Mars will be in opposition to your own sign of Aries. This always tends to inflame the passions, make the feelings more sensitive and stimulate one's ardent nature. More hasty marriages and love affairs are apt to be activated in Aries lives. For you who are married, strain or friction may develop from time to time in connection with the partner. Your social and friendship interests will be very much favored this month, except on the 1st, 16th, 24th when friends could prove more expensive or cause difficulties. More gain and happiness, however, should be attracted from other people during November; if you can remember that word attracted. It will be less easy for you to get along with intimates, for you are apt to feel quarrelsome, irritable and more aggressive. This will wound or offend the more sensitive types of people. Correspondence with friends or loved ones at a distance should be greater this month.

TAURUS PEOPLE (born between April 20 and May 21). This month may not be a "bed of roses" for you who are born in the sign of Taurus. Plan a careful course, to avoid trouble or friction with other people. You who are married are apt to experience separative or quarrelsome conditions from time to time, especially so around the 7th, 8th, 16th, 24th. A very strong emotional trend is indicated during November, so that you will have to use good judgment to avoid becoming erratic or strained. More cooperation with other people (in marriage, romantic ties, friendships and general associations) will be required of you. It will not be so easy to be patient with those about you. You can make friends of rivals or enemies, however; and establish far more harmonious conditions with those about you—if you work at it. The 24th is the adverse or deceptive, disillusioning day for you who are in love; or for you who have deep emotional ties in your life. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones at that time. Defer pleasures, and don't try to look at life or others through "rose-colored" glasses. That's the way folks get burned! Keep a firm grip on the throttle of your feelings and emotions this month.

GEMINI PEOPLE (born between May 21 and June 21). Mars will be transiting through that part of the Gemini chart which rules the emotions, loved ones, pleasures and romantic inclinations! You can expect more excitement, romance, pleasure and activity in your love life this month—but . . . friction, quarrels and rashness will also threaten, from time to time. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones on the adverse days, especially on the 13th. If you are looking for love and romance, this is a month that can bring you what you seek. Friendships are not altogether favored. Coldness, separations or sorrow may arise between you and friends, so try to get along with those who are really worth while to you. Defer pleasures or amusements on the adverse days of November, particularly so on the 7th, 8th, 13th, 24th. You'd be disappointed or trouble would arise, anyway, so why make the effort? Secretive affairs won't be fortunate this month, if you're involved with others in hidden romance or associations. Some deception or secret sorrow could thus be attracted. Marriage should be more favored on the 15th, 17th, 27th; but keep peace with that partner, if you have one, on the 24th! Family difficulties are apt to arise then.

CANCER PEOPLE (born between June 21 and July 23). The happiest days of November should be the 19th and 20th, when pleasures, romance, love and happiness are apt to be newly stimulated in Cancerian lives. A more emotional month is indicated during November. More activity with loved ones, pleasures and romantic matters should be experienced. You, however, are apt to be irritable, nervous or hard to please at times, especially so around the 7th, 8th, 16th, 21st, 24th. Some anxiety or emotional strain can then be expected. Better defer pleasures or social activities you might then plan—to avoid estrangements or upsets with and through others, especially with women. Secretive friendships may have more appeal, but those will not be favored on the 24th. Deceptive news or disillusioning conditions could then exist. Friction or strife may exist in the home, domestic and family affairs of Cancer folks this month, particularly adverse around the 13th.

LEO PEOPLE (born between July 23 and August 23). The first week of November should stimulate more happiness, romance and pleasures; after that, these matters may be delayed or interfered with by personal, domestic or business interests. Marriage may cause anxiety for you Leo people who are married—especially so around the 1st, 16th, 24th; otherwise, the month will stimulate more marriages and romance for many Leo people. The emotional trend will be swift, however, so that it will be less easy for you to use good judgment in love or with intimate associates. The danger of quarrels, friction and incompatibility will be greater. You are apt to be more restless, quarrelsome or irritable, especially so with relatives, or close neighbors. Family connections may be strained or cause anxiety from time to time. More happiness, fun and enjoyment of life should be realized after the 24th.

VIRGO PEOPLE (born between August 23 and September 21). Secretive romantic attachments may exist for many Virgo people this month. Correspondence to and from loved ones should be stimulated. New friends, and old, may be met in trips or through unexpected happenings. A more happy trend should be experienced, although the 13th is apt to cause sorrow or friction in connection with other people; and the 24th seems to indicate deceptive or troublesome, disappointing conditions with family, relatives or a loved one. You are not apt to be emotionally aroused this month, since planetary influences center around the financial and business interests moreso than the emotional and friendship affairs. However, November will be a very favorable time in which to harmonize your relationships with others. Relatives are apt to cause anxiety or sorrow.

LIBRA PEOPLE (born between September 21 and October 23). Libra people are now apt to experience a hectic, exciting month—in emotional and personal affairs. Your own nature will be more excited, temperamental and feverish. Lack of restraint is something which will threaten—so that quarrels, accidents or conflict with others could threaten, especially around the 13th. You who are married may not experience the happiness or enjoyment of life which you seek, due to coldness, lack of compatibility or anxiety about the partner which may exist. The most favorable times for marriage will be November 15, 25. More romance, love affairs and friendships should now be stimulated for Libra people, but the necessity for care in such matters will exist around the 7th, 8th, 16th, 24th. The health, finances and affairs of a loved one may cause strain this month. Secretive love affairs or romantic attachments may be more attractive to many Libra people during November, but should be carefully handled or avoided, on the 24th; deceptive, disillusioning conditions are then indicated. You can be more magnetic and attractive to others if you can handle the fiery Mars vibrations of November which are apt to kindle too much energy, enterprise, aggressiveness and emotion.

SCORPIO PEOPLE (those born between October 23 and November 21). Except for you who are born on October 23, 24, 25; November 7, 8, 9, 10—this month should hold much more happiness and romance than you have experienced in former months. You whose birthdays are listed here may find some conflict, trouble or upsets occurring in marriage, romance or friendships. It will be less easy for you to adjust yourself to others. You will want more love, fun, pleasure and excitement so that estrangements or separative conditions could exist in connection with intimates. This is a month, however, in which you Scorpio people can be "your best" if you make the effort. Venus will be in your own zodiacal sign especially favorable to you on the 19th, 20th. Your appearance, magnetism and personality should all be improved. A new glow of happiness and attractiveness should be experienced. Utilize this month as a time in which to attract love and happiness. Keep your feelings in check around the 7th, 8th, 13th, 16th, 21st, 24th—the most critical dates for your emotional and personal life.

SAGITTARIUS PEOPLE (born between November 21 and December 21). The emotional affairs of Sagittarius folk may be somewhat involved this month. The danger of quarrels with friends, coldness or anxiety in connection with loved ones and trouble in your emotional relationships will be greater on the 7th, 8th, 13th. Somewhat secretive sorrow or disappointment may be felt from time to time. Friendships and social matters will be stimulated in an exciting, new manner—yet the danger of quarrels or friction with friends will be greater. A new type of friend may now enter your life. Defer pleasures and social activities on the 13th . . . definitely! Secretive heart ties or relationships could cause expense or anxiety this month, around the 1st, 7th, 8th, 16th, 24th. Unexpected happiness, good luck or love may come to you on the 19th, 20th. The period after the 24th seems to be the most promising and happy of the month. Be careful not to neglect those you love, or stimulate coldness and indifference to those about you.

CAPRICORN PEOPLE (born between December 21 and January 21). An element of strain, coldness or anxiety may be felt by many Capricorn people this month, especially so around the 13th. Home, family and personal relationships are then apt to be strained or troubled. You may feel resentful or rebellious at limiting, restricting conditions so that coldness and quarrels with others could be fostered. You will want more excitement, activity and happiness in your life. Upsets and estrangements with loved ones could occur, as old interests end and new friends enter your life. Friendships and social affairs will now be stimulated in a vigorous manner—but could prove more expensive than is wise around the 1st, 7th, 8th, 16th, 24th. This will be a time when many Capricorn people will form splendid friendships, particularly with women who enter their lives. The 19th, 20th should be the most fortunate days of the month for friendships. The most favorable time in November for emotional happiness, love and pleasure will exist after the 24th.

AQUARIUS PEOPLE (born between January 21 and February 19). The month seems to start in an exciting, pleasant manner, so far as social and friendship matters are concerned. New friends and associations can be attracted during the first week. Thereafter, your business or personal affairs may demand more time and attention until after the 24th. A more happy, pleasant trend is then indicated, in which social, friendship and romantic matters will be much more favored. Upsets and estrangements are apt to figure in the lives of many Aquarius people this month, around the 1st, 8th, 13th, 16th, 24th. Don't let your emotional affairs dominate your time or interests, or you may lose out financially or professionally. Don't force issues with other people, as you're apt to do! Many Aquarians may now find themselves more strongly attracted to superiors in business (or find them attracted to you!). More popularity and success can be realized in attracting others, yet the upsetting emotional trend is too strong to "belittle." You will want more freedom, excitement and adventure—but many of you will seem to go after these things in a thoughtless or unwise manner. Keep a firm grip upon your own feelings.

Be ready for emotional disturbances, and try to avoid estrangements. A powerful friend seems to be an anchor or steadying factor in your life this month, especially so around the 15th, 20th, 25th.

PISCES PEOPLE (born between February 19 and March 21). You who are married should now experience more happiness or harmony in connection with the partner, except around the 13th and 24th. Adverse conditions are then apt to exist, in their health, finances or personal affairs. The 15th, 25th, 27th should be exceptionally favorable for marriage, partnerships, love and romantic attachments. Try to avoid quarrels about money or various interests this month; this could cause strain to exist in your emotional ties. Some disappointment or heavier expense may arise in connection with friends, particularly so around the 13th. People at a distance are apt to stimulate more happiness and excitement in your life, through correspondence and important messages. This will be a time in which you can be more attractive, magnetic and appealing to others. Endeavor to attract love and recognition this month, rather than fret about the lack of happiness in your life! Upsets with or through relatives may occur around the 7th, 8th, 16th, 24th. Try to maintain cordial relationships with them at those times, or be ready for emergencies because of them. Secretive marriages, romantic ties and friendships are now apt to be thrilling factors in the lives of many Pisces people; but you should carefully protect your interests against those things which are undercover and hidden which could cause misrepresentation or enmity.

GONE AWAY

"I have no memories for the great events
That signalize the day.
Only I have a dulling sense of pain
That you have gone away.
I have no memories, save of little things
To harbor each spent year.
A bough grown pink with blossoms of the May.
A threshold—and you near.
You were a world, a world within a world,
Sufficient and alone.
That world you left me cannot be the same;
It never can atone."

"TOMORROW'S HEADLINES"

Predictions for November

By Alma Crawford Graning

"I tell you the future can hold no terrors

For any sad soul while the stars revolve,

If he will stand firm on the grave of his errors,

And instead of regretting, resolve, resolve.

It is never too late to begin rebuilding,

Though all into ruins your life seems hurled,

For see how the light of the New Year is gilding

The wan, worn face of the bruised old world."

Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

NOVEMBER will be a month of sensational happenings. A study of several star maps or mathematical charts which show the positions of the planets to the earth in relation to this month is necessary in order to fully understand or comprehend the vast changes and happenings scheduled to occur.

First of all, let us study the chart for the Autumn Quarter of 1938. The most significant planetary position related to late October and November shown by this chart is the transit of Mars through 28 degrees of Virgo, the degree occupied by the Moon at the start of the fall season. This signifies intense political and national excitement which will reach its height during late October, continuing into November. The people of the nation will be stirred into greater, more feverish agitation. The danger of violent quarrels, crimes, accidents and feverish ailments will be more threatening. Warlike waves of excitement are shown which may seriously involve us with other powers, or stir the public into greater aggression. The American people will be more militant or less manageable. A fiery democratic spirit will inflame the populace, particularly arousing the workers and less fortunate classes. More positive progress can be realized, yet strikes and riots are more apt to figure in sensational happenings. Labor struggles will be a keynote of the month. Public health will need to be more carefully safeguarded. Fires will be another feature of November.

Employment should be stimulated in an unprecedented manner. People should go back to work in far greater numbers than has been the case during past months. A militant program of reform and advancement is shown which will work to stimulate national prosperity; yet labor is apt to resume its troublesome threat of former months.

An upward curve in American fortunes should begin to stimulate greater prosperity. Unforeseen reversals or threats to our peace and prosperity can be expected from time to time—arising from both internal and foreign conflict.

Labor and relief matters may create marked excitement through upheavals in their ranks. These national interests are now apt to be purged of subversive forces or thoroughly altered and renovated, if food for scandal or room for reform exist.

One of the outstanding trends of November which may act as a cause for the terrific national excitement and alarm which is shown may be the revelation of secret enmity, spy plots, sabotage activities and dangerous influences at work to undermine America's safety. This may particularly affect our currency and economic stability. The threat of warlike complications with other powers will be greater during the fall months.

November will once again emphasize our financial affairs in a stirring manner. Increase of taxation will threaten. Marked fluctuations are indicated. Both good and adverse financial conditions will be experienced. Heavy losses occurring on one day may vie with extreme gains on another. An increase of sales and commercial activity should be reported. Speculation will be stimulated in a more exciting manner. Uncertainty will exist in financial circles, caused by extreme alterations in our currency and economic policies.

Critical financial and economic times will be November 2, 6, 8, 13, 16, 19, 22, 24.

More general gains should be realized on the 1st, 3rd, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 14th, 15th, 17th, 18th, 20th, 25th through 30th.

A definite upturn in business, trade, stock market and financial affairs should be noticed around November 20th and again after the 24th. Wheat and other grains should score sensational advances during the last week of November. Speculative and investment ventures will have greater appeal for the public during November, particularly so as the month ends.

You should carefully safeguard your financial affairs from fraud, forgeries and such types of losses. This is particularly true around November 1, 8, 16, 24.

Publishing and newspaper matters should be more prosperous. The deaths of noted writers, publishers and reporters may occur. Some outstanding "book of the year" may now be published or reviewed. This should be a very favorable month for writers.

Theatrical, amusement and sporting ventures will be newly stimulated. The most fortunate trend of the year should now benefit these matters. Pleasures and entertainment will be sought by the masses. Gambling may assume spectacular proportions. Famous stars of the motion-picture and theatrical world will be more in the limelight, although death or extreme misfortune may threaten a prominent star.

Educational and school interests should be more activated. At adverse times, however, greater care of children and young people will be necessary. Particularly adverse aspects indicate tragic accidents in schools, trips, theatres and places of amusement or sport. Disastrous fires may be reported in connection with such places or activities.

The birth rate of the nation should increase. Unusual types of births are indicated. The death rate may also increase, due to Uranus' influence in "the house of death." This position of Uranus warns of marked increase of sudden, violent deaths. Various types of disasters—murders, suicides, explosions and electrical mishaps—may increase. The death of prominent statesmen may occur. This will be a time when national leaders should take particular care in protecting their personal welfare (late October through November). Risks and hazards should be avoided during November. Explosions, assassinations, transportation accidents (shipping, railroad and aviation disasters) thrive under such aspects. Prison breaks and disturbances in public institutions (insane asylums, reformatories, etc.) will be more prevalent and violent. Mysterious disappearances and renewal of kidnappings will threaten. A secretive, hidden crime of the past may be solved. Women and children are apt to be particularly unfortunate.

Saturn occupies the seventh section of the November chart. This planetary position indicates unfavorable relations with foreign powers, trouble through labor happenings and political events. Enmity or opposition to the peaceful, prosperous progress of the people will exist. Trouble can be expected with other nations. Depression in foreign trade and international matters can be expected. Our national, political and financial affairs will be greatly disturbed by enmity from abroad. The people will be more aroused and indignant. Less sympathy or liking for other countries may be exhibited. These matters may threaten our peace and prove more harmful around November 13. Remarkable developments of a financial nature are indicated in connection with foreign nations. Deaths or removals may affect prominent statesmen and ambassadors connected with the State Department. Important negotiations with Mexico and neighboring countries are shown which may pave the way to new conditions on the American continent.

November will be a month in which to promote your important plans and changes, through which improvement of your affairs can be realized. The element of change which will exist during this time can stimulate advancement and achievement for many. For the negative or undeveloped person, the trend of change and sudden reversals may threaten misfortune.

Weather conditions are rather uncertain. The Autumn Quarter may bring generally far colder weather than is anticipated, especially so during the second week of October, and again on November 13, 18, 19. Storms along the seacoasts are apt to cause much damage. Extremely stormy weather may adversely affect crops and property. Shipping and aviation will be unfortunate. High tides may be spectacular. Mining disasters, earthquakes and furious tornadoes or hurricanes are also indicated.

AROUND THE WORLD

California's prospects for November are very interesting. Somewhat unusual or peculiar financial conditions are shown. Waste of public monies, heavy losses through disasters and general anxiety about financial affairs may be experienced. State revenue is apt to be adversely affected. Frauds and dishonesty in financial matters may create state-wide scandal. Shipping and aviation losses are shown. Strikes are once again indicated as a threat to employment and business progress.

Deaths of important publishers and writers may occur. Travel accidents are apt to be more numerous. Land development, agricultural and property activities will be favored moreso than in past months by new plans and improvements which get underway. Damp, wet weather may be a feature of the month, for this "golden" state.

Notable marriages may cause excitement. The domestic and marital troubles of prominent stars may be aired in the courts. Religious scandals are indicated. Deaths and troubles of those high in religious, legal and radio activities may be reported. Political excitement may be intense. Sudden changes in administration are apt to affect many state departments and threaten the prestige of different state leaders.

Canada's outlook for November is very similar to that of the United States, although some marked changes or new conditions are apt to occur in leadership and governmental administration. Increase of crimes, murders and accidental deaths is shown. Although generally improving economic conditions should commence, financial upsets are apt to occur. The health and welfare of young people and children should be more carefully protected. Religious and educational difficulties, scandals and deaths of those associated with these interests may create high excitement from time to time. Agricultural and land interests are not favored during November. Mining disasters are indicated. Crop losses may threaten, especially around the 13th, 18th, 19th. Extremely cold weather may then be most threatening. Heavy shipping, aviation and transportation losses are shown during the month. Storms along the seacoasts are apt to cause much damage. Some outstanding treaty or agreement with the United States may be made, although the Dominion's relationships with foreign powers will be strained and unfortunate.

GREAT BRITAIN

Political upheavals are indicated. A change in leadership may be an outstanding highlight of this period. Confusion and uncertainty in state and empire matters are shown. A more radical or popular type of government could be inaugurated. Sensations, scandal, unpopularity and violence may mark the month, in connection with Parliament, the Prime Minister and general political matters. The health and welfare of the Royal Family will not be favored. Some sorrow may arise in connection with royalty. Heavy economic losses may be experienced at times; more general prosperity and good will should develop, however, as the month progresses. Criminal classes are apt to be more active and violent. Public health will not be favored. Danger will threaten military, naval and aviation forces of the nation, so that explosions and disasters are more apt to occur. This is especially true around November 8. Labor matters will be of exceptional importance during November. Labor may now be the dominant voice in British policies.

FRANCE

Change in governmental leadership may occur. Labor and radical forces may dictate new policies of this nation. The welfare of prominent leaders may be threatened by assassinations or peculiar, mysterious illness. Naval, military and aviation forces will be stimulated into greater activity, yet heavy losses may affect them through disasters. Economic and currency upsets are indicated which may cause rapid fluctuation of the franc. A more fortunate program could be evolved for France as the month ends.

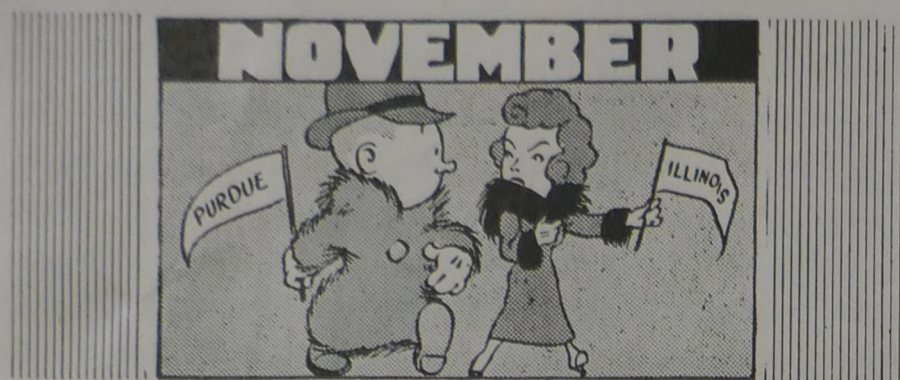

ROME

Warlike conditions may bring misfortune to Italy, yet the nation should advance in a militant, aggressive manner. Plots and counterplots against those in high positions of church and state are shown. Changes in governmental leadership may threaten the position of prominent statesmen. Discontent of the masses is shown, which may lead to radical labor and agricultural upheaval. Heavy losses in land, property and crops may occur. Disasters are apt to strike with sudden force. The month will be generally unfortunate for this nation.

BERLIN

Radical attacks against religious organizations may be a feature of this period (especially so around the 7th, 13th). Conflict and confusion may arise due to opposition of foreign powers. Naval, military and aviation disasters are shown. Excited activity in rearmament and scientific discoveries may be revealed. Danger will threaten foremost leaders of Germany. A more militant, aggressive trend may now dictate warlike policies for both Italy and

DAILY GUIDE FOR NOVEMBER

With Day by Day Predictions

PREPARED BY P. H. GRANING

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Moon in Aquarius

Enters Pisces at 11:09 p.m.

Earlier hours of the day should be favored, as benefic aspects will exist. General progress can be realized, if care is taken to avoid rash or hasty action. Defer pleasures, trips or hazardous financial risks, however, for the evening hours will be adverse for such matters. Domestic and personal matters may be of major importance today. Work to harmonize and improve your affairs.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Moon in Pisces

Today will be a less active or fortunate time. Health will need to be more carefully protected. Working matters may cause strain or trouble. Secretive or mysterious happenings are apt to create anxiety for many people. Try to avoid melancholy. Don't intensify lonely, irritating or inharmonious conditions which may exist. Try to secure as much rest, relaxation and spiritual uplift as is possible.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Moon in Pisces

Somewhat exciting financial and business programs should mark the day. More power to achieve good results in your undertakings should exist. Pleasures and general enjoyment of life will be more greatly favored. Try to harmonize and improve your affairs today so that they will be protected later on.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4

Moon enters Aries at 8:34 a.m.

This will not be a favorable time for new activities or undertakings. Disappointments and obstacles are to be expected. It may be less easy to concentrate or plan. Safeguard the health. Avoid trips or risks through which accident would be attracted. World affairs are apt to cause concern. Public matters will not be favored. This is a date when grave difficulties could arise with other nations. Defer your own important plans.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Moon in Aries

More activity and progress may exist today; yet friction and trouble are also shown. Foreign affairs as well as domestic strife may adversely affect national affairs. Deaths may increase. Defer plans for pleasure or social activity. Financial upsets are indicated. The day and evening will not favor important activities or plans.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Moon enters Taurus at 2:40 p.m.

Mercury enters Sagittarius at 5:27 p.m. while Mars forms a slightly adverse aspect to Jupiter. Changing conditions can be expected to affect world and national affairs. Deaths may be reported in sensational headlines. Financial upsets are indicated. Explosive, adverse conditions will generally cause today to be an unfavorable time for our activities. Try to cultivate patience and tolerance. Avoid risks through which accident or separative conditions would be attracted. The danger of accidents and disasters will be greater.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Moon in Taurus

Both favorable and unfavorable conditions are indicated, but the generally adverse trend of the 6th is apt to continue through today. Exercise care in your affairs. Health and personal welfare will need to be more carefully protected. Avoid risks or new undertakings. Pleasures and travel should be deferred. Legal, religious and scientific matters may figure in world news. Mars parallels Saturn during the afternoon and evening hours, which will adversely affect foreign affairs, transportation and communication matters. Avoid risks or emotional strain which could stimulate violent quarrels.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Moon enters Gemini at 6:04 p.m.

The Sun forms an opposition to Uranus at 2:49 p.m. This will be followed by a conjunction of Mercury and Venus at 9:10 p.m. Heavy financial losses could occur under the Sun-Uranus aspect. Sudden, unforeseen changes or reversals are indicated. Currency upsets may cause uncertainty. Foreign affairs will be adversely affecting our own national affairs. It is under such planetary vibrations that assassinations, explosions and various forms of disastrous happenings occur. Strain and unrest may stimulate strikes, riots and generally explosive conditions. Violent deaths may be a feature of today. Defer your own important plans or activities until a more auspicious time. Take particular care in your emotional relationships, to avoid quarrelsome conditions. Sudden changes, through adverse happenings, are indicated. Violent storms or earthquakes could be reported around this date. Have your financial, personal and emotional affairs well protected. The Mercury-Venus aspect will help to harmonize and adjust our affairs. A determined effort to improve and re-establish conditions on a better, happier basis should then be noticed. Some of the most exciting national and political happenings of many years may now be recorded.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9

Moon in Gemini

Important changes may now affect governmental matters. Travel and messages will be stimulated. Your mind is apt to be more restless so that you will want to do new things, see new places or alter your affairs. Minor changes can be made in your affairs. Defer big, important activities or decisions until later. Travel disasters and accidents may be more prevalent today.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Moon enters Cancer at 8:00 p.m.

Mercury forms a favorable aspect to Neptune around midnight of the 9th, which should stimulate some improvements in our affairs on the 10th. National happenings are now apt to provide repeated sensations. New ventures will be reported. More favorable financial conditions should exist. A wave of reforms is apt to sweep the country. This will be a favorable day for important planning and improvement of your affairs, but defer definite changes or moves until a later date. Unexpected news or good luck may now come to many people. An inspirational element in the day's aspects will be favorable for writers, artists, inventors and designers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11

Moon in Cancer

National happenings are apt to create much excitement. Legislative and congressional matters will be to the fore. Don't plan an exciting program for today, but forge ahead in a quiet, discreet manner. Domestic, marital and emotional upsets are apt to increase. Secure as much rest, quiet and seclusion as is possible. Stimulate your own spiritual and inspirational talents through which gain would come. Safeguard health and family affairs. Accidents are now apt to increase.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Moon enters Leo at 9:50 p.m.

Venus forms a trine aspect to Pluto today. This should stimulate political and legislative matters. Important news, financial gains and governmental happenings are shown as a source of public excitement. More favorable financial gains should exist. An adverse element will exist today, however, contributing to accidental deaths and disasters. Plan a careful course to avoid trouble or danger.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Moon in Leo

One of the most adverse days of the month is now indicated. Mars forms an opposition to Saturn at 4:26 a.m. Preceding hours may bring reports of catastrophes in the Orient and Pacific. Adverse weather conditions are shown. Mining disasters, fires, storms and earthquakes may take a heavy toll of life and property. Terrific losses may cause gloom and foreboding. War will be stimulated in many parts of the world. Foreign affairs, labor troubles, deaths of prominent leaders and generally sorrowful, violent conditions may create intense fears. A clash between opposing interests in many departments of life will be inevitable. Safeguard your own welfare to avoid accident. This malefic Mars-Saturn influence will continue generally through the ensuing week; particularly emphasized on the 15th, 18th, 19th. Trouble with a capital "T" is the element to be expected in world, national and personal affairs.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Moon in Leo

More harmonious conditions are indicated for today. Plan a careful, conservative course. Don't let yourself grow rebellious, resentful or discouraged by obstacles which may exist. Be particularly discreet in personal and emotional relationships to avoid clashes of temperament. This will be a time in which people will wish to eradicate old barriers and remove hindrances to their progress.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Moon enters Virgo at 0:36 a.m.

Venus retrogrades into Scorpio today, while other favorable aspects are formed between Mercury and Saturn, the Sun and Neptune. If it were not for the basic Mars-Saturn opposition which still rules this period, a great deal of cheerful, harmonious, positive progress could be realized. As it is, the constructive person can establish more harmony and success; while the negative or undisciplined individual may experience a temporary, rather than permanent, uplift. Stormy, adverse conditions may still affect the world and national affairs. Travel disasters may occur. Conflict is shown in labor and political ranks. Public affairs of the world scene will be unfortunate. Sensational happenings, however, will be working to establish better conditions. Avoid risks through which accidents could be attracted, for marked increase of deaths, cruelty and injustice will be reported. This is a period in which the Jewish question may create unprecedented alarm.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Moon in Virgo

The Sun forms a square aspect to Jupiter which culminates at 0:05 p.m. while Venus will be in adverse aspect to Mars. There are adverse influences which will not contribute to health, happiness, justice or genuine progress. Travel, legal and health matters will not be favored. Pleasures should be deferred. No large financial risks should be undertaken. Heavy national expenditures are now apt to be a source of friction and publicity. Trouble with neighboring countries may occur. Railroad, postal affairs, publishing and radio matters will not be favored. Quarrels are apt to be a feature of the day.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Moon enters Libra at 5:02 a.m.

Mercury sextiles Mars in the early morning hours which should stimulate more general financial and national progress. Care should be taken until the 20th, however, if you wish to avoid troubles, friction or threat of accidents. Public excitement will now be greater. People will want more freedom, happiness, success and independence.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Moon in Libra

Finances may be to the fore today. A trend of gain and loss will exist. Friction could develop with others, in regard to financial matters. Some interests may soar in price at reports of heavy losses or failures, while others may lose. Safeguard finances today, deferring important decisions or risks. Foreign affairs will be unfortunate and troublesome. Weather conditions are apt to be adverse. Labor and industrial matters will not be favored.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Moon enters Scorpio at 11:26 a.m.

Plan a careful program through today, to avoid financial or personal difficulties. Avoid investment risks or changes which could affect your earning power. Unreliable propositions may come to you. Endeavor to bring more harmony, peace and good will into your life. People may now find it more difficult to get along with their associates.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Moon in Scorpio

The Sun forms a conjunction to Venus at 0:20 a.m. which should stimulate a more harmonious, benefic influence in world affairs. Emotional and personal matters should now improve. More impetus to success, ambition and enterprise is indicated. Love affairs and romances are shown for many people. A turning of the tide toward far better conditions should now occur, although immediate results may not be so apparent.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 21

Moon enters Sagittarius at 7:57 p.m.

Increase of travelling, correspondence and news may mark today. The Sun will be in the last degree of Scorpio, approaching an eclipse which occurs at approximately 6:57 p.m. (Washington time). Definitely changing conditions can be expected today. Big money projects are indicated, but plan carefully so that your resources will be protected against the threat of sudden loss. Health and working matters will not be favored today. Excessive expenditures should be avoided.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22

Moon in Sagittarius

The Sun enters Sagittarius at 5:06 p.m. More activity, change and enterprise should be stimulated. Progress will be in the air, but safeguard your interests against sudden loss or friction with others. Haste or rashness will not be conducive to success or happiness. Public health will now need to be more carefully protected. Build new foundations in your working, health, financial and personal affairs.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23

Moon in Sagittarius

More pleasure and enjoyment of life should now be stimulated. Financial and emotional matters will be more favored. You can start new activities but be sure that they are reliable and benefic in purpose. More financial and business gain should now be reported.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24

Moon enters Capricorn at 6:36 a.m.

Generally favorable conditions should greatly stimulate financial, industrial and business matters, yet an element of confusion, loss and trouble will also exist today. Be very careful to avoid loss through unreliable propositions or people. Defer really important matters until after 2:00 p.m. in order to avoid trouble or difficulty. Storms, disasters and heavy losses may figure in world and national affairs due to Mercury's square aspect to Neptune which culminates at 1:40 a.m. and Venus' square to Jupiter which ends at 1:56 p.m.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25

Moon in Capricorn

Generally fortunate financial and business progress is now indicated by the stars. Promote your important plans and activities. More gain and happiness can now be attracted. Unexpected good luck should come to many people. Prosperity should be more greatly stimulated. Changes can be made with greater promise of success. More emotional happiness and enjoyment of life can be attracted. Improvement of national, labor and business affairs is shown.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Moon enters Aquarius at 6:59 p.m.

Greater care should now be taken of health and personal welfare. Accidents and various types of disasters may be reported. Increase of sickness and deaths may mark today. Friendships, social matters and pleasures will hold more appeal. Income can be improved.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27

Moon in Aquarius

Venus and the Sun form favorable aspects to Neptune today, which should improve world and national affairs. Great reform programs of real benefit to the public should be underway. More love, happiness and pleasure should be realized by the masses. Property values, agricultural matters and mining interests should improve. Promote your important affairs.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28

Moon in Aquarius

Financial and business gains should continue. A more optimistic program seems to stimulate public enthusiasm and successful achievement. Press forward in improving and stabilizing your affairs. Improvement of working and labor interests should now occur. Friendships and social matters will be more favored.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Moon enters Pisces at 7:30 a.m.

Travel, news, correspondence and moves will be stimulated for many people and interests. More excitement concerning political and governmental matters may now exist. Be very careful in travel or correspondence, to avoid friction or accident. Such matters will not be favored. Deaths of important writers or publishers may be reported. Some railroad or other form of transportation accident may occur under somewhat peculiar or mysterious circumstances. Be careful to avoid fraud or deception in your dealings with others. Progress can be realized, but advance carefully.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30

Moon in Pisces

Accidents and quarrels are now more apt to occur. Unwise changes or risky ventures will be undertaken by many people. Defer important decisions. Financial gains are strongly indicated today but waste and rising expenditures could nullify them. White House affairs and other governmental happenings may figure in the headlines of the press in a sensational manner. Fires, accidents and deaths may be more prevalent today. Take particular care of children and other loved ones. Try to avoid quarrels or irritating conditions with other people. Crimes may increase.

HOUSE EXPRESSIONS

BY DR. GUSTAVE EKSTROM

EACH SIGN and house of the horoscope has a definite relationship to each other. This is a neglected study, for one's tendency is to investigate the type of energy or action of the planets without a thorough understanding of the basic network of the chart. The following deductions apply especially to the Ascendant and the Sun position.

FINANCIAL INDICATIONS

ARIES

Aries people gain through secret interests and from private activities. They profit through their own efforts. Gain comes from friends and associations, through mental efforts, writings, publicity and short journeys. Relatives of the mother may prove to be a source of good fortune. Benefits to the health from marriage partner. Gain through association with others in sixth house interests (the army and navy). Profit can be realized from land, stocks, bonds, corporations, government work, educational or religious matters. Gains and losses through speculative ventures involving the funds of others. Children may lose inheritance.

TAURUS

Taurus people are capable of making money through their own efforts. They are interested in financial and personal possessions. They are secretive, but can be the opposite in financial matters. Gain through use of the hands in unusual ways is shown. May often lose to competitors. Relatives aid in realizing hopes and wishes. Sometimes too trusting. Benefits are derived from parents, home interests, real estate. Gains or losses come through servants and inferiors. Dramatic interests, singing, writing, children, schools, theatres and occult interests are promising sources of good fortune. Hopes to gain through the marriage partner.

GEMINI

Gemini people gain through dual interests, writings, teaching and lecturing. Benefits come through institutional deductions, occult writings, mental or psychic healing. Friends and prominent people help in the realization of the ambitions. Many friends are entertained in the home. May travel in connection with work and business. Gains from educational interests, publishing or radio broadcasting. Often handle the money of others, which threatens trouble.

CANCER

Cancer people are interested in money for environmental comforts. They benefit through relatives, short journeys, writings, expression and personal study. Gain or loss through secret matters and firms which deal in real estate. Benefits through friends, children, social activities, speculative interests. Unusual occupations, nursing and raising of small animals are favored. Religious or scientific associations are fortunate. Partner is apt to travel, or is connected with educational or publishing interests. Gains through legacies or psychic matters that pertain to deaths.

LEO

Leo people can benefit through property, mines, the affairs of the father. The mother's influence upon the life is very important. Gain comes through marriage or partnerships with those in higher positions. Hopes are realized through helpful service to others. Work in connection with friends is favored. Profits are indicated in advertising, travel, writings and skilled use of the hands. Speculative ventures, motion pictures, dramatics, theatres and children are generally favored.

VIRGO

Virgo people can benefit through teaching, dramatic, literary work, advertising, publishing, children. Gain through handling of funds in investments or real estate matters of others. Detail occupations, railroading, medicine, dietetics or nursing, institutional work are favored. Benefits through friends. Ambitions involve the partner. Legal work, banking, governmental service, educational, religious, philosophical and psychological matters are greatly favored.

LIBRA

Libra people can succeed in many different activities. Gain can be realized through inferiors and partnerships. Cooperative schemes or methods in handling the money or affairs of others, insurance, employment offices or work in institutions in a silent capacity are favored. Profit can be realized in educational, legal and religious interests. Commerce and transportation are fortunate. Gain in the fine arts, dancing, designing and amusement fields. Activities in speculative, bond, real estate, agricultural, assaying and air conditioning work are favored.

SCORPIO

Scorpio gains through corporations, government service and associations. Difficulties are apt to be self made, but losses of self or others can often be turned into gains. Investments, educational, scientific and foreign affairs are favored. Gain can be realized in partnerships, the law and medicine. Skill exists in health, food and surgical matters. Real estate, agriculture, mining and horticulture are favored. Benefits through scientific friends, educational interests, politics, popular interests and secret alliances. Occult and healing talents should be developed.

SAGITTARIUS

Sagittarius people can gain through marriage, legacies, management and handling of the affairs of others, banking and insurance. Partners and powerful associations prove to be a source of gain and good fortune. Benefit through foreign service in a secretive or educational capacity. Speculation, stocks, mines and real estate are generally favored. Interested in religion, education and institutional work. Benefits through business friends and commercial rating associations. Writing or mental expression in the field of employment agencies, health service, accounting and dual occupations are favored.

CAPRICORN

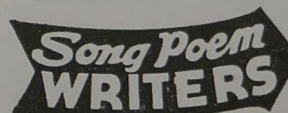

Capricorn people can benefit through foreign affairs, diplomatic posts, science, philosophy and travel. Gains directly or indirectly through legacies, banking, investments. Benefits through association with transportation interests, agricultural investments, real estate and domestic service. Education, theatres and amusement enterprises are favored. Gains or losses through corporations, business institutions and fraternal organizations.

AQUARIUS

Aquarius persons can gain through government work and public affairs. Benefits through banking, commerce, science and education. Affairs of the father, partnerships and secretive pacts or dealings with friends have important effect upon success. Gain through health and social service is favored. Mystical, occult and dramatic talents can be developed for success.

PISCES

Pisces people can gain through institutions and mystical societies. Benefit through friends and influential people. Often gain through inheritance in later life, especially through the father. Can display marked skill in work. Gain through teaching, writing, education, psychology and poetry. Theatrical, entertaining, amusement activities and fine arts are favored. Service to the sick, labor relations and work with small animals can prove profitable.

THE SCORPIO OUTLOOK FOR THE NEXT YEAR

SCORPIO people are now confronted by numerous planetary influences which produce unusual events and conditions. Certain interests and affairs are activated in a favorable manner. Others are adversely affected. Your personal problems will arise in those phases of life which are influenced by changing planetary positions. The manner in which major planets such as Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto affect your Scorpio chart during 1939 denotes the general direction of your life during that time.

A synopsis of the effects of the various planets in the Scorpio solar chart brings us the following information:

SATURN

Saturn will influence the affairs of life which are ruled by the sixth house of the chart, except between July 6 and September 23. During that short period, Saturn will be in Taurus, in opposition aspect to Scorpio people who are born on October 24, 25, 26. In the sixth house, Saturn's vibrations will be felt in health, working and employment interests. The sixth house is associated with health and physical matters, daily work or tasks, details, service and labor. One's servants or employees, animals (pets or domestic stock) and all activities connected with the general work and state of health of the body, are ruled by this part of the chart. Saturn's influence upon these things brings more responsibility, harder work, less achievement or recognition. Less freedom, due to the demands of one's work or health, is experienced. Details associated with one's daily tasks demand more attention. It seems less easy to accomplish. One's patience, ability, skill and will to work are thoroughly tested. The ending of certain working interests occurs. Less cooperation from others exists. Fatigue will be felt. You will feel tired of routine matters. A constant health building regime should be inaugurated by all Scorpio people, to offset the depleting physical conditions. Direct more time and attention to your physical self, appearance and general vitality.

Between July 6 and September 23, Saturn will affect the health, working or business interests and emotional relationships of you who are born on October 24, 25, 26. Saturn then warns of enmity, coldness or separations from former associates and companions. Your health and personal welfare will require more careful attention. You who are married are apt to experience trouble in connection with the partner. You should not start important new activities for your affairs are then apt to be delayed by obstacles or hindrances which will arise from time to time.

Times in 1939 when Saturn will be adverse to health, work, marital and emotional matters of Scorpio people will be January 2, 21; February 20; April 7, 11, 20; May 9, 10, 14, 16, 18; June 16, 29; July 15, 18, 24; August 3; September 23, 25, 27; October 10 through 15, 19 through 26, 30; December 20.

URANUS

While transiting through the sign of Taurus, Uranus produces many marked changes in Scorpio lives. You who are born between October 23 and November 3 have already felt the revolutionary hand of Uranus in your affairs. You who are born between November 4 and 15 will be influenced by Uranus during 1939. This is the planet of sudden changes. Its influence is now directed toward seventh house affairs. Marriage, partnerships, all public and impersonal contacts with other people, the cooperation of others, legal matters, enmity and rivalry, health and business interests are affected by strain, sudden changes, upsets and troubled conditions. The emotional nature is influenced more strongly than the intellectual and reasoning powers. The whole system is unbalanced and charged by the powerful, electrifying vibrations you now receive. Feeling rises to the surface so that it is less easy for you to control your impulses. The desire for freedom from all restricting, limiting or incompatible conditions and associations grows more powerful than any other urge. Longing for excitement, change, freedom and new experiences will dictate unwise changes, separations and risky ventures. The course you will wish to follow is often apt to seem erratic, aggressive and too emotional to others.

Heart ties will be strained. Difficulties can be expected in all personal and emotional relationships. The unmarried Scorpio person will feel the urge to marry and enjoy new happiness, yet may attract unreliable or impermanent associations. The married person born in Scorpio is apt to experience separative conditions in connection with the mate. Sudden, unforeseen changes could occur in the marital and intimate relationships. You should be careful not to place too much confidence or dependence in others who might suddenly be taken out of your life. It will be necessary for you to plan your affairs so that they cannot be adversely affected by sudden changes or unexpected happenings which could otherwise cause uncertainty. All risks which might bring you into contact with dangerous people or accidents should be curtailed as much as is possible. Remember that the keynote of Uranian influences such as these you now experience is the warning that "you almost reach your goal—but do not quite make it!" Uranus is the planet which works to entirely change your life. In your case, these changes may occur through temporarily adverse or unfavorable happenings. Uranus leads the unprepared person through troubled, stormy waters. Its vibrations indicate the time when one is apt to learn from experience. This energy is usually attended with sudden losses in business and personal life. Unexpected changes of fortune, just when one might think that a secure goal was in sight, are to be expected. Bankruptcy, disfavor and troubled relations with other people are experiences which many Scorpio persons may now meet, due to their lack of preparedness for this radically changing period of life.

Times in 1939 when Uranus will be adverse to Scorpio interests will be January 3; February 3, 9; March 18; May 9, 25; July 18; August 4, 15, 20; September 1; October 19, 26; November 3, 12.

PLUTO

Pluto will be in adverse aspect to you who are born on October 24, 25, 26 during January, February, July through December. It affects the career, profession, credit, reputation and public activities of Scorpio people. Your judgment will not be altogether good, so that you should carefully consider all changes or new, risky ventures before they are made. Some threat to your security and position in life can be expected. It will be necessary for you to more carefully safeguard your affairs, to avoid difficulties which could endanger your interests.

Times in 1939 when Pluto will most adversely affect your affairs will be January 21; February 1; July 15, 24; August 3; September 29; October 12, 15, 25, 26; December 27.

NEPTUNE

Transiting through the sign of Virgo, Neptune exercises an unusual influence upon Scorpio people. It affects the eleventh house affairs of life, so that social matters, friendships, emotional relationships, your own ambitions, hopes and wishes and income are now under the domination of this planet. Neptune is generally very favorable to Scorpio birthdays, particularly so to you who are born between November 12 and 19. At times when Neptune is fortunately aspected by other planets, you can expect new trends to operate in your social and friendship affairs. Remarkable friendships are stimulated which can prove a great boon to your happiness and fortunes. A more romantic association with other people is indicated. Your keynote of happiness and success will lie in friendship . . . in your ability to be a true friend. People who care for you, and those in a position to materially benefit you will be more strongly attracted into your life.

Somewhat secretive friendships are indicated. Association with unusual types of people—those who have extraordinary powers, talents or interests in life, or who are "different"—will have more appeal for you. Pleasures and personal happiness will center around friends and social matters. Your own attitude toward friendships will alter and change to a more idealistic pattern. Income will be stimulated by unusual associations and the aid or goodwill of those in a position to help you. New ambitions will be formed.

When Neptune is adversely aspecting these interests, your friendships, social and income activities may be affected by peculiar, secretive or disappointing conditions. Great discretion should then be exercised in connection with friends and loved ones. Intense emotional strain is apt to be experienced. Sacrifice may be demanded. Deception, intrigue and disappointment may arise through friends or social contacts. All important pleasure, social and friendship contacts should then be deferred! The threat of disillusionment will hover over these matters. You should be very careful not to get involved with other people. Income is apt to be undermined by secret enmity, mistaken advice of others, or your own foolish, unwise decisions. Emotional strain with loved ones will exist.

Times in 1939 when Neptune will be favorable to your affairs will be January 13, 14, 17; February 26; April 21, 30; May 12, 26;

June 6, 24; July 7, 14, 27; August 14; September 2, 13; October 6, 8, 18, 27; November 2, 18; December 21. Neptune will be adverse to your interests on January 6, 30; March 2, 7, 12; April 1, 17; June 9, 12; July 1; November 27; December 18, 28.

JUPITER

Jupiter's vibrations signify a rising curve in the fortunes and lives of many Scorpio people. Its position during 1939 should help to alleviate any unfavorable conditions apt to be experienced. It will help to stimulate remarkable good luck, gain through past investments or speculative ventures, more love, romance and personal happiness. Jupiter's position between January and May 10, October 30 and late December will influence your emotional life, as this planet then transits through the fifth house of the Scorpio solar chart. The fifth house rules love, romance, sex, things and people you love, romance, speculative and investment activities, pleasures, amusements, sports and children. Your emotional nature will be more expansive and responsive to love. Romance will bloom in the lives of many Scorpio people. Children are apt to be more prominent in your calculations. Your pleasures, loved ones, emotional and personal affairs are apt to prove more expensive. Unexpected good luck, pleasure trips, more love, romance and opportunity to succeed are attributes of Jupiter. Pleasure trips are indicated.

This will be the year in which Scorpio people who seek love and romance should endeavor to make "their dreams come true".

At adverse times, especially so during March and early April, the emotional interests, pleasures, loved ones and speculative risks are apt to bring much greater expense, disillusionment or sorrow. Separative conditions are indicated, which may end many existing heart ties or emotional relationships. The negative trend of Jupiter tends to bring too much emotion, pleasure and recklessness into your life. Waste, extravagance, indiscretion and poor judgment then threaten to undermine the constructive interests.

Times in 1939 when Jupiter will be in favorable aspect to love, happiness, pleasures and emotional enjoyment of life will be January 14, 26; February 6, 16, 23, 26; March 4, 6; April 21; October 31; November 6, 17; December 12, 25. Times when Jupiter will adversely affect these interests will be January 6; February 15; March 7; April 1; June 16, 29; July 15; September 23, 25, 27; November 30; December 22.

Between May 10 and October 30, Jupiter will affect health, working and business matters. A more expansive, beneficial, prosperous influence should then stimulate the employment, working and business affairs of Scorpio people. More advancement in life should be realized. Health can be improved. Probable changes of environment, due to new working or health interests, could occur. At times when Jupiter is adverse to health and working matters, all carelessness or indiscretion in regard to diet or personal welfare should be avoided. You will then be inclined to overstrain the health and neglect your welfare. A careless or indolent attitude toward work could cause loss. Times in 1939 when Jupiter will favor your health and work will be June 1; July 6; August 1, 9, 10.

Study the planetary positions of 1939 in order to know their influence upon the general affairs of life for the different birthday groups. The major trends, problems and interests will then be revealed. You can thus be forewarned and forearmed of approaching experiences, dangers or conditions which are stimulated into activity by the planetary energy operating in your various affairs.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OF ASTROLOGICAL INTEREST

1939 CROP PREDICTIONS

PLEASE note the attached newspaper clipping. I will appreciate your answer in ASTRO-DIGEST. I cannot believe this man's prophecy. I'm interested in next year's crop, so will be looking for your weather calculations for 1939 in your magazine.

D. B., Kansas

"Long Distance Crop Estimate

"J. H. Abbot, Gate, Oklahoma, who places confidence in the location of planets in affecting crop yields, presents his theory.

"The outlook for 1939 crops is so poor that I advise the farmers to take out government insurance, and comply with the Wallace crop reduction, especially west of the 96th meridian. The government probably will not go broke, but you had better play safe. Don't be scared about regimentation that will blow up sooner or later. My weather calculations do not always prove true, but the general trend of the seasons and crop success have been and will be nearly correct. My prediction for 1938 was for an unusual winter, spring and summer. Owing to a dearth of weather records for this period I could not say just what to look for but knew, on account of the location of the planets, that it would be unusual. This is the first time that this combination has shown up since weather records have been kept. I am not certain what 1939 will bring and will have to wait until I get the exact location of the heavenly bodies. My theory of weather is based on this information and actual weather records."

I admire Mr. Abbot for his interest in planetary positions, and for his boldness in declaring his opinion of oncoming conditons. I do not know as yet whether I agree with his prognostications concerning crop conditions in 1939, but I would be the last to criticize him. Even if his prediction should be wrong, he would not be the FIRST prophet to have missed the mark—our governmental forecasters seem to be wrong often enough! ASTRO-DIGEST has no statement to make, as yet, concerning the 1939 crop prospects. You can expect this to appear in the December and January issues. Such predictions are based upon an astrological interpretation of planetary positions in relationship to any particular part of the country which is to be studied. IT MIGHT BE INTERESTING FOR DIFFERENT ASTROLOGERS AND CROP FORECASTERS to forward their findings to "The Mail Bag" for publication and discussion.

THAT FIGHTING AUGUST ISSUE

I have been buying ASTRO-DIGEST on the newsstand for more than a year. I am an astrologer, although not professionally. A few moments after I bought the August issue I met a Leo person. He said "What is that?" I told him it was an astrological magazine. He said "That stuff is a lot of hooey", but I had him read "What The Stars Say About Leo People" and he admitted it was true. I loaned the magazine to him so that he could read the whole issue and boy! What an issue. If you will pardon me, I will turn to verse for the rest of this:

THE FIGHTING AUGUST ISSUE

Down on the border
A little woman lives
And to ancient, honorable stars
Her time and work she gives.
Her July issue was a beauty
For flags and patriotism
But in August she answered those
Who said the stars were just an "ism."
They thought she was a softie
With nerve as thin as tissue
But she really poured it on 'em
In That Fighting August Issue.
With the sign of Libra rising
We wouldn't take her for a fighter
But when she has to, we have learned
She can knock 'em for a kiter.
"The stars" they said, "Were guff and hooey"

They put Astrology on the spot
 But Alma up and at 'em
 And told them what was what.
 Those who raised their voices
 Against Astrology to shout
 Learned that Alma could take it
 And also dish it out.
 Those who attacked Astrology
 Will go away a-slinkin'
 And best of all, it's bound to start
 Some of them a-thinkin'.

D. B., Springfield, Illinois.

IDENTICAL EXPERIENCES

Did you by any chance hear "Believe It Or Not" Ripley's program last Tuesday night? As a student of Astrology, I found one part of it particularly interesting. It dealt with an unusual incident in the life of the father of the present King of Italy. One night he met an innkeeper to whom he remarked that there was something very familiar about him, as if he had seen him or known him before. The innkeeper informed him of some very astonishing, similar characteristics of their lives. They are as follows:

1. They were both born in the same town on the same day.
2. They were both given the same name.
3. They were both married on the same day to girls of the same name.
4. To each was born, on the same day, a son. Their sons were given the same name.
5. On the same day the King was crowned, the innkeeper opened his place of business.

After stating these facts the innkeeper told the king that he had a premonition that he was going to die. He said his one wish was for the king to survive him. The king told him to forget his premonition, that he liked him and wanted him to be his guest at the athletic matches which were to take place the following day.

The next day as the king was preparing for the celebration, he received word that the innkeeper had been accidentally killed while cleaning an old gun.

The king was saddened by this news, remembering the words of the innkeeper indicating this tragedy. After being informed that the crowd was awaiting him, he prepared to leave for the celebration. As he stepped outside the door, he was shot by an assassin.

Thus, the two men whose lives were so parallel met death on the same day. Both were killed with similar weapons. I don't see how anyone hearing this could help believing in Astrology. The time and place of birth of these two men revealed their parallel experiences.

E. L., Mississippi.

Talking about babies born on the same day. Homer Leonard, one of the outstanding young men of South Texas who is Representative from this district to the state legislature, announced the birth of his young daughter born on July 20, 1938 in McAllen, Texas at 4:30 p.m. On the same date, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., announced the birth of a baby son who was born on July 20, 1938 in Philadelphia at 5 p. m.

It is interesting to note the horoscopes of these two infants, both born on the same day but with slightly different horoscopes due to the thirty minutes difference in time in their births, and the twenty-four degrees difference in longitude of their birthplaces. They would experience many similar events in their lives, although the time of the events would not be similar. It might be interesting to keep this copy of ASTRO-DIGEST in which this valuable birth data is given. As events of major importance occur in the lives of these infants, ASTRO-DIGEST will report the happenings. The events of little Barbara Leonard's life will fall approximately a month or so later than those of Franklin Roosevelt, III. 1939, 1940, 1944 will be the times of major events in earlier years of both children.

HAWAII CLIPPER

W. McCarty, radio expert lost on the Hawaiian Clipper, was born May 8, 1905 at Cotulla, Texas. He was unmarried. In his natal horoscope, the Sun was in 17 degrees of Taurus in exact opposition to Mars in Scorpio. At the time of his death, Uranus was transiting over his natal Sun.

SUICIDES

Life, August 8, 1938 Issue:

"Some three hundred people killed themselves throughout the U. S. last week . . . In New York on July 26 there occurred a suicide which for mass camera coverage of spontaneous one-man drama surpassed anything ever recorded by the press . . . this melancholy youth provided the unexpected climax by plunging feet first off his ledge."

John Warde committed suicide in the evening of July 26 by falling seventeen stories to the ground. His was the most spectacular suicide New York, or the nation, has experienced. On the same day, local newspapers in South Texas recorded the suicides of two other people who met death by falling from buildings. "Life" states that during the last week of July, three hundred people committed suicide in the United States alone.

Is there an astrological indication for such a suicide wave as that which swept the nation during the last week of July?

In the July ASTRO-DIGEST, "Increase of deaths may be reported" is a constantly reiterated phrase in the calendar of day by day events, for the last week of that month. (Page 11.) "Death is an attribute of July which may raise the death record in a startling manner" is a prediction found on page 6 of the July issue.

Do coming events cast their shadows before" so that they can be foreknown? Astrology, through the fulfilment of its predictions made months before actual happenings occur, proves that this IS possible.

In the June issue of ASTRO-DIGEST, in which EVENTS FOR THE SUMMER SEASON of 1938 were predicted, we read on page 21:

"Public health will be endangered by INTENSE HEAT and feverish epidemics. Marked increase . . . of SUICIDES . . . are indicated. Adverse times for the fulfilment of these prophecies will be . . . July 24, 27, 29, 30 . . ." The June and July issues of ASTRO-DIGEST were written in March and April.

The horoscope for the Summer Quarter brought Neptune into the eighth house of a chart erected for Washington, D. C. This chart would reveal the type of planetary energy which would be felt in the United States from June 21 to September 23. Neptune's position in the eighth house of a quarterly chart denotes marked increase in the death rate. Suicides and mysterious deaths would be more prevalent. The THOUGHT of death would be an insistent vibration in the minds of those who tuned in to negative, destructive or disillusioned impulses. Furthermore, another planetary indication of mass-suicide conditions which would prevail following May 29 was given by the solar eclipse of that date, which fell in conjunction with Uranus' position in "the house of death" of the United States natal horoscope.

Tomorrow's Headlines

Germany. Changes in governmental leadership are apt to occur in a startling, violent manner. A more radical trend of government is shown. Some momentous new program or step will be secretly planned, which may flare into activity around the 21st. Heavy crop and agricultural losses are indicated, particularly so around the 13th.

RUSSIA

A more powerful program is now shown for this nation. Financial developments are indicated which places Russia in a prominent position as a world power. Capitalistic tendencies may be more strongly shown. Heavy aviation losses may be experienced. Scientific achievements in producing new explosives, poison gas and other such "persuaders" may startle the world. Warlike activity in connection with her colonies will lead this powerful nation to still more aggressive action than that which she has formerly pursued.

JAPAN

Radical happenings may introduce alarming changes into Japan's domestic and foreign affairs. Downfall of the militant element of this empire will threaten. Marked changes in army, naval and aviation affairs are indicated. A severe financial collapse may occur. The Fall Quarter is a time in which Japan may sue for peace, to end the conflict abroad and the more threatening climax at home which now looms as her dangerous enemy.

BEHIND THAT CURTAIN

BY OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT

EDITOR'S NOTE: The author of this sensational letter must necessarily remain anonymous. He writes from a foreign country where it is not always safe to talk or write the truth. We hope to have more communications from this pen, the ink of which is dipped in Truth, blotted with tears of sorrow at the impasse which confronts Europe. Read and wonder—

AGAIN it is the German Lather-Boy (or as the New York Prelate picturesquely called him "The Austrian Paperhanger") who is principally to blame. It's a mad world, with two supermadmen striving to gain the whole world, reckless of their own souls or those of others. All natural issues are being dammed up artificially. None of these men are engineers. They have not the slightest idea of the strengths or weaknesses of the material they use. Inevitably, the dykes will burst asunder in fury. Civil war all over Europe will rear its ugly head. Uglier than the Great War, it will be more ferocious, vindictive and unmentionable. At least, that's the picture I envisage after weighing all the pros and cons.

Last week the Pope came out with a proverb: "He who strikes at the Pope, dies!" This is much more than a proverb. It is a startlingly accurate prediction. Both Hitler and Mussolini will surely die soon. Both have long since signed their own death warrants. They are dead men, even though this fact may not at present be recognized.

Take the world position of the present day. The vain glorious period of the Dictators is definitely over! Britain and France are mighty. The size of their armament programme has struck fear to the hearts of Hitler and Mussolini. They know they could not win, but must lose all, if they attack either nation. So—they turn their attention to another form of madness. They now strive to foster intense nationalism within their own borders, via the "race purity" doctrine. They declare that their nationals are a race of supermen and demigods . . . the darlings of the earth especially chosen by the gods. The rest of humanity is but garbage and exists like the beasts of the field to slave for and administer to these heroic supermen.

Because they instinctively realize the puerile nature of their own doctrine and experience a real need to bolster it up, they have now embarked upon the greatest madness of all . . . the attack on organized religion. They have chosen as objects of their attack the most powerful religions of all: Jews and Roman Catholics.

"He who strikes at the Pope, dies!" Is there any doubt that both these men will die when, surrounded by hostile nations whom in recent years they have constantly provoked, they are presently assailed within their own countries by their own people whom they are persecuting and outraging? Italy is a Catholic country. Germany is largely Catholic. Austria outstandingly so. Are these men so blind or egotistical that they imagine they can accomplish that which Nero or the Medicis could not do?

What a world! In this country, as in others, the government is looking with terror at the falling birth rate and clamoring for more babies. For what? Everybody impoverished, overtaxed and oppressed. What will happen when the boilers eventually burst and rearmament comes to an end? What will happen when the armament workers join the ranks of the unemployed? Why "more babies" when we cannot find work and food for those already born?

These are the products of the very forces which are changing the face of mankind, with which we have to reckon in our future astrological calculations.

When you've got madmen running loose inside a powder magazine, there is danger of one of them wanting to smoke a pipe of peace and blowing the works sky high!

It's a world of blind people. I'm not a Jew. But I have a heart which exudes kindness and pity for suffering humanity. We hate to see a helpless, oppressed people shunted hither and yon about the world as though they were so much vermin. I don't like these so-called Christians who would prosecute a man because of his nationality or religious philosophy.

Astrological Glimpses of Hollywood

ASTRO-DIGEST leads all the rest. Your correspondent made it a point to inquire of a number of news dealers near the studios just why ASTRO-DIGEST outsells similar publications in Hollywood. The consensus was this: "They like Alma Crawford Graning . . . she writes Astrology the way they like it and in a way they can understand." Surely a tribute to Miss Graning, who also has many personal friends among the film celebrities and among a lot of little extra girls, too. She used to live here, you know.

Do you remember Frances . . . the dancer so desperately ill with tuberculosis mentioned in last month's column? So glad to tell you that Frances is getting along like a million—improving all the time. She is now permitted to get on her feet and walk around the ward for a short time each day. Her doctors are nonplussed. Frances has since told me that she knew, and knew it all the time, that death was indicated in her horoscope . . . that she knew no one could have the heart to tell her the truth about it. She says that "God has granted her a reprieve", and declares that she believes in Astrology more now than she ever did before. Frances is a swell girl. If you'll get in touch with me through this magazine I'll give you her address. She loves letters. Have I any bidders?

Here's one that Edward G. Robinson gave me to toy with the other day and I'll pass it on to you. "Quite simple", Robinson said, "for you astrologers to cast horoscopes if you know the person's age, but what do you do when they won't tell how old they are? I'll show you a little trick that you might use on people who are reluctant to give their age; and on top of that, you'll know how much money is in their pocket." (Of course, your correspondent bit and this is the trick).

Ask the subject to double his age and add five. Have him multiply this by fifty. Then have him subtract 365 from that. Next have him count the change in his pocket (any sum under $1.00) and add. Now ask for his total and to this total you (not the subject) must add 115. The final answer will then give your subject's age in the first two figures and the amount of change he had in his pocket from the latter two. For example

Take your age as	20 years
Doubling makes	40 years
Adding 5 makes	45

Multiplying by 50 makes	2250
Subtracting 365 leaves	1885
Add, for instance, 23 cents	1908
Then add 115 which equals	2023

So your subject was twenty years old (taken from the first two figures of the final result) and he has 23 cents in his pocket (taken from the last two figures). It will work out the same regardless of your age or the amount of change the subject may have. Remember, though, that the change must always be under $1.00. After tearing my hair for an hour or so trying to figure out why I phoned a professor of mathematics at the University of California. "Of course there's a reason for it, my boy", he said. "I'll call you back". That was two weeks ago . . . my phone must be out of order, or I haven't paid my bill. So will some of you experts on roots, powers and imaginaries . . . to say nothing of calculus, trigonometry, analytic geometry, conics and hyperbolic functions come to my aid? Page Mr. Einstein.

The November Outlook for Aries

For Those Born Between March 21 and April 20

ARIES people who are born between April 1 and 6 should now be more careful in business, health and personal matters, especially so around November 13. Mars and Saturn will be adverse to you during parts of this month, so that it may be less easy for you to advance in a vital, aggressive manner. You who are married or intimately associated with others may experience difficulties in connection with them. Try to avoid risks, and defer important new ventures until really favorable times. A more quarrelsome, sorrowful element may be felt in your life from time to time.

The trend of the month, for Aries people in general, will be more progressive and promising. Marriage and romance are now apt to have greater promise for you who seek happiness in love. More gain and good fortune should be attracted from other people who are in a position to benefit you; however, you should be especially careful on the 8th, 16th, 24th to avoid loss or difficulties with them.

Travel, legal matters and important new plans or aspirations will be featured in the lives of many Aries people. This will be a favorable month in which to make necessary trips or changes you have planned, start new studies or carry on correspondence. Exciting news from people at a distance should stimulate your own prospects. The 13th and 24th will be adverse for trips, legal matters, news, health and working interests.

Your financial prospects will be more favorable during November, although unexpected upsets or threat of loss will exist around the 8th. Defer new activities or changes at that time; safeguard your source of earning power more carefully. Throughout November, you may find it less easy to control your feelings or impulses so that quarrels, strain or trouble with others are stimulated. Try to avoid haste. Restraint and self-control can be keynotes of your success and happiness.

Your friendship and social interests should bring more happiness and excitement. Important friendships are indicated as a source of greater inspiration and good fortune. On the adverse days, control the tendency to spend too much money or waste time in social matters or with friends.

The first week of November should be more harmonious and cheering. Exercise restraint in your activities, however, for there will be a tendency to overdo. More activity and progress with other people are shown. Social, friendship, romantic and personal matters should be activated in a vital manner. This will be the time in which to make your trips or important changes, especially so on the 1st, although the evening hours of that date will not be favorable for travel, financial or friendship matters. Your personal life will be more vitalized and pronounced this week so that more opportunity can be attracted.

The second week is apt to find your affairs more upset and uncertain. This is especially true of the 7th, 8th, 13th. These dates are extremely adverse, so defer changes or personal activities. The danger of accidents, violent quarrels and feverish ailments will be greater. Friction or opposition with others can develop which could cause personal and money losses. Don't take financial risks on the 8th, particularly. The affairs of some other person may then cause anxiety. Plan a careful, discreet course of life this week, on the adverse days.

The third week should be far more fortunate, except on the 16th when social and friendship matters will not be favored. Promote your personal affairs during this time but keep a firm grip upon your emotions and impulses to avoid poor judgment or strain. Gains should come through other people.

The fourth week will also be more promising, although others may cause anxiety or strain around the 22nd and 24th. Safeguard your own health. The 25th should be the most favorable date of this week, stimulating personal happiness, income and social matters. You can take advantage of new opportunities which arise after the 24th. The last three days of November should continue to stimulate more excitement and progress. The danger of this month lies in the tendency to recklessness or lack of forethought which could attract accidents or friction in pleasures and emotional relationships.

Favorable days: 1, 5, 6, 9, 10, 14, 15, 17, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

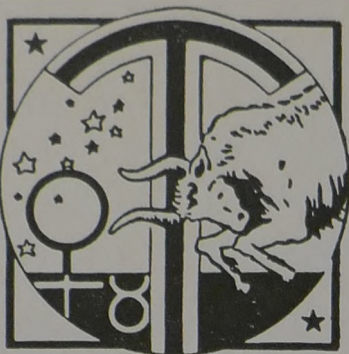

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 12, 13, 16, 22, 23, 24, 30

November Outlook ... for Taurus

For Those Born Between
April 20 and May 21

DON'T start new activities this month if you can avoid doing so. There will be a trend of uncertainty and reversals which could bring loss or disappointment. The plan to follow is that of adherence to routine and familiar things. Risks will not be favored. Unexpected emergencies or upsetting conditions are apt to test your poise and wisdom.

Taurus people born on April 20, 21, 22; May 5, 6, 7, 15, 16, 17, 18 should more carefully safeguard their affairs.

Domestic, family, property or business, emotional and marital matters may be upsetting or disturbed from time to time. Unexpected changes could alter your life this month. Try to adjust yourself to changes which may occur, rather than force issues. Your decisions are now apt to be dictated by feeling rather than intellect. Changes and decisions you make could affect your entire future. All separative or quarrelsome conditions must be curtailed.

Safeguard your health and personal welfare so that the very disturbing aspects of the 7th, 8th, 13th and other adverse days do not find sickness or accident affecting you. Protect the welfare of children and other loved ones. Don't rely too much upon other people.

If you feel impermanent or uncertain about your affairs, don't become panicky. Defer new ventures for they would not prove successful or permanent. This is a time in Taurus lives when old conditions are ending. Things will be quickening so that it may be less easy for you to keep in step with old trends or become adjusted to the new.

You can progress in work, health building, emotional and personal matters at favorable times of November; especially so during the first week, again around the 20th, and after the 24th. The affairs, finances and health of other people may be an important factor in your own progress or happiness. Don't yield to the temptation to "gamble" with your future or present happiness and position.

The first week of November should hold more promise and opportunity. Working and employment matters will be stimulated. More gain and success should be attracted from others. Try to avoid overstrain, however, for work and health matters may now require more attention. There will be the urge to work, achieve and DO. Social and friendship interests will be more favored, especially on the 3rd and 4th. Get your affairs harmonized so that you can take things more easily during the second week of this month.

Beginning with the 7th, a series of powerful planetary aspects will be forming which are more or less inharmonious to Taurus people. A lunar eclipse occurs on the 7th, in your own sign; affecting people who are born on May 5, 6, 7. Safeguard your health and personal affairs, avoiding, risks, travel and unwise changes. Sudden upsets or changes could occur on the 7th and 8th. The 13th will be extremely adverse for health, working and personal matters. Quarrels or accidents are more apt to threaten. Defer important matters which could cause loss or trouble on the evening of the 12th on through the 13th. This is a week in which your affairs are apt to be shaken and tested, especially if you are born in May.

The third week should be far more promising, although health strain may exist. Be careful to avoid friction or trouble with other people which could cause legal difficulties or attract the disfavor of superiors. It may now be necessary to depend more upon others, or cooperate with those closely associated with you. Your good luck or happiness will have to be attracted from others. The 14th, 15th, 17th, 20th should be the most harmonious days of this week, while the 16th will be the adverse day in which to remember the warnings for this period.

The fourth week should stimulate health, working and business matters, but may arouse difficulties in your emotional relationships. This is especially true on the 21st, 22nd, 24th. Safeguard your affairs at those times, avoiding risks or changes. Trips, relatives, legal matters and loved ones will not be favored.

The period after the 25th should be far more harmonious and benefic for your affairs until the 30th. Some danger of quarrels or accidents will then exist. Your problems, this month, are apt to be connected with changes and altering conditions which may threaten from time to time. Improve yourself and your personal appearance, seek to attract worth-while things and people into your life, and mark time during the unfavorable periods.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29,

Unfavorable: 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 22, 23, 24

The November Outlook for Gemini

For Those Born Between May 21 and June 21

THE health and working interests of Gemini people should now be stimulated in an important manner. Some strain, however, will be felt from time to time so that your physical welfare will need to be protected. There should be more activity in your working life and daily tasks. You are apt to be more irritable or nervous, due to the urge to accomplish and achieve results. The most favorable times of the fall months for work and employment should be around November 19, 20, 27.

evening hours of the 1st). Business, friendship and social matters are apt to be more prominent and interesting. Promote your important affairs this week so that you can have them protected during the following seven-day period. Some unexpected good luck could be attracted.

The second week will not be an altogether favorable time. Circumstances beyond your power to control may disturb your affairs. Health and emotional matters will not be favored. Some secretive, sorrowful conditions may arise. Keep your affairs open and aboveboard to avoid risks or trouble with enemies or those who might misrepresent you. Defer social and pleasure matters on the 7th, 8th, 13th especially. The danger of accidents or sickness for loved ones will be greater. Adverse changes or upsets in the working and health affairs of Gemini people could now exist. Avoid risks as much as possible.

The third week should be far more favorable for your affairs, although health, work and travel matters will not be benefited on the 16th. Promote your important working and business interests at favorable times during this week. Work to improve health and vitality. Changes and better conditions can be wrought in your environment and surroundings between the 17th and 20th.

The fourth week may bring further upsets although more favorable conditions should be developing beneath the surface of your affairs. The 22nd (and late evening hours of the 21st) and 24th may be the most adverse days of this period. Some deceptive or troubled matters could cause concern, in connection with loved ones or domestic affairs. Health and working interests will need to be safeguarded. After the 24th, a very fortunate trend should be experienced. You can then take advantage of new opportunities which may come to you. More progress and personal happiness should be realized. Pleasures, social and emotional relationships will be improving. Marriage and romance will have greater appeal, bringing more happiness to many of you. Travel and changes will be favored on the 25th, 27th.

Favorable days: 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17 through 21, 25 through 30

Unfavorable: 1, 2, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 23, 24

This will be a most fortunate month for business and financial affairs. New opportunities and improvements in your life can be attracted. Be careful, however, to avoid over expansion or higher expenditures. Some threat of legal difficulties or conflict with superiors will exist around the 2nd (late hours of the 1st, as well), 7th, 8th, 16th, 22nd, 24th. Avoid travel or important changes at those times. Investments in land or property will not be favored if you are born on June 13, 14, 15, 16.

The first week of November will be more favorable for your affairs, if you can safeguard working and health interests on the 2nd (and during late

The November Outlook for Cancer

For Those Born Between June 21 and July 23

CANCERIAN affairs are now apt to seem somewhat complicated. Both favorable and unfavorable conditions are indicated during November. You who are born on July 3, 4, 5 may meet with setbacks or disappointments from time to time as Saturn will be in adverse aspect to you. The necessity to exercise more caution, forethought and patience in your affairs will exist for all Cancer people who are born between June 21 and July 16. The danger of quarrels or accidents will be greater. Legal difficulties could affect you whose affairs are not safeguarded. The 13th may be the adversely testing day in business, domestic, health and emotional relationships.

The emotional affairs will be to the fore. More pleasure, excitement and social activity may now figure in your life. Things and people YOU love will be of greater importance or prominence in your calculations. You may be more emotional and sensitive to love or discord. The health, finances and affairs of other people may cause anxiety or emotional strain around the 2nd (late evening hours of the 1st), 7th, 8th, 13th, 16th, 22nd, 24th. Defer pleasures and social activities at those times. Try to curb your feelings to avoid quarrels or strain with others. The tendency to take financial or personal risks in connection with loved ones will be greater. Others could then prove more expensive or cause sorrow. Estrangements could occur, with friends or a loved one, around the 7th, 8th. Sudden upsets can then be expected in social and emotional affairs. At favorable times during November, more love, romance and emotional happiness should be realized. This is especially true around the 19th, 20th, 25th, 27th.

Your financial prospects will be improving, although they are apt to seem depressed or discouraging around the 13th. Try to avoid higher expenditures or waste of money. Gains you may anticipate from other people may be affected by their losses or troubles. Income may be disturbed around the 7th, 8th. Any urge to overspend or expand should be restricted. This is a time when money could be wasted in unwise ventures or with unreliable people. Gain through past investments will be more promising at the favorable times of this month. Some unusual financial matters are now indicated through which new future gains should be realized. The working and business affairs of you who are employed should definitely improve except on the 24th, when these matters could cause anxiety. Your health could affect work and business, for you are now apt to be restless and more easily irritated. Pay particular attention to the diet, in order to counteract any digestive or intestinal complaints.

The first week of November should greatly favor your affairs, if you can avoid strain in domestic or family matters, and follow a careful routine program. More pleasures, excitement and activity should figure in your life. Loved ones should bring more happiness to you. Gains and progress can be achieved.

The second week will be definitely adverse. Losses or disappointments could threaten. A feeling of sadness or melancholy is apt to cloud your outlook. Health and vitality may be depleted. The danger of accidents, quarrels or conflict with others will be greater. Upsets with friends or loved ones could occur. Income may be upset. Extreme emotional strain is indicated during this time, so try to keep a firm hand upon your feelings and impulses to avoid mistakes you would later regret.

The third week should be far more fortunate, if your health and personal affairs were protected to avoid loss or strain during the preceding week. The 16th will be adverse for love, pleasures, financial and health matters. Travel or changes may have greater appeal to you. Important news or messages may be received. More mental activity and progress can be realized. Greater happiness with loved ones should be attracted. Take advantage of new opportunities to improve and harmonize your life. Do your important work around the 19th, 20th.

The fourth week will also be more favorable, although the 22nd (and late hours of the 21st) and 24th will not be harmonious for happiness and loved ones. Avoid risks through which accident or emotional strain could arise. Don't start new activities. Promote your happiness and financial success after the 24th. A very favorable trend should then exist until the 30th; that date will be favorable if you can control the tendency to anger, strain and accident in the domestic sphere which will threaten.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 6, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 19, 20, 21, 25 through 30

Unfavorable: 2, 5, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 24

November Outlook ... for Leo

For Those Born Between

July 23 and August 23

LEO people who are born on July 23, 24, 25; August 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 should more carefully safeguard health and important affairs. November is apt to disturb your interests moreso than those of other Leo birth-days. Don't make changes or take risks this month, although you may feel more restless and uncertain.

The home, family, domestic and personal affairs are now apt to be more prominent. Visits to and from the home may occur. Changes are indicated in the surroundings. Relatives of Leo people are apt to be ill or in trouble. Quarrels or friction could more easily occur. Avoid investments in property and possessions. Heavier expenditures should be curtailed, if possible. The urge toward change, more activity and freedom will be much greater this month; yet unwise changes or decisions could be made which would cause trouble and difficulty, later on.

Your business and financial prospects are apt to be somewhat uncertain or disturbed, from time to time. Yet gains are indicated, so that the earning power or source of income should be improved. The 24th is the most unfavorable day for financial matters. Avoid propositions or new activities on that date. An element of secrecy or loss could then affect your financial affairs. Adverse changes or trouble with superiors may threaten you who are in business or employed, around the 7th and 8th. Gain through past investments will be more favored for Leo people.

Important changes of environment, ideas and activities may now be a keynote of life for many Leo people. This is especially true for you who are born on August 3, 4, 5. More solid, substantial gains should come your way. Emotional interests will be more favored this month, although pleasures and social matters may not appeal to you so much. You who are married should safeguard the health and affairs of the partner as much as is possible around the 2nd (evening hours of the 1st), 7th, 8th, 16th, 22nd (evening hours of the 21st) and 24th. Those will be adverse times for marital and emotional relationships. There will be greater danger of estrangements or separations this month.

The first week of November should offer exceptionally favorable conditions except during the evening hours of the 1st and on the 2nd. Disputes, accidents and friction with others could then develop. Safeguard health and avoid quarrels or trouble which could cause legal difficulties. Remaining days of the week should stimulate your success and happiness. More progress can be achieved.

The second week will not be a favorable time. The 7th and 8th will be extremely adverse. Business, personal and emotional upsets could occur. Sudden changes of an adverse nature could occur. Defer important activities or ventures. Safeguard your interests rather than force new conditions. Estrangements or trouble with others will be more threatening. Your health and personal welfare will need to be more carefully protected. Social and friendship matters should be favored on the 9th and 10th, but have your affairs protected by the 13th. That date will be unusually adverse for travel, relatives or new plans. Disappointment in changes or activities you plan may arise. Bad news is apt to be received. Watch your mental outlook on that date, for you are apt to feel resentful and mentally disturbed.

The third week of the month should stimulate your affairs in a more harmonious manner, although the 16th will be adverse for marriage, family and emotional matters. Health and personal welfare will need to be more carefully protected. The 19th and 20th should be fortunate times for social, domestic and personal matters, even though some conditions of your life may not be altogether smooth or serene.

The fourth week will be disturbing, due to changes or exciting happenings in the private life. This trend may be felt through the 24th. Defer important matters until after that date. Thereafter, the month should end on a favorable note although danger of quarrels or accident will exist on the 30th. Unexpected gains and greater happiness in connection with loved ones or personal affairs should exist on the 25th, 27th and other favorable days of late November.

Favorable days: 1, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17 through 21, 25 through 28

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 23, 24, 30

The November Outlook for Virgo

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between August 23 and September 21

THE financial and business affairs of Virgo people should now receive a boost. Marked increase of money should be realized. Expenditures are apt to rise, however, so that it will be necessary for you to use good judgment in controlling your urge to spend money. Other people are apt to prove expensive from time to time. The 13th will be THE adverse day of November, for financial matters. Some disappointment, loss or sorrow in connection with other people may threaten. The ending of some source of income or earning power could then occur. The health, finances and troubles of other people may cause anxiety or loss for you. Safeguard your interests on that date.

More travel, change and variety should now stimulate Virgo affairs. Correspondence, news and important messages are indicated. Your mental outlook should be more happy and optimistic, although there is danger of this being intensified so that poor judgment would exist. This month will be a very favorable time in which to make changes in work or business, seek employment, sell or communicate with others on important matters, except on the 2nd, 7th, 8th, 16th, 22nd, 24th. The 15th, 17th, 19th, 20th, 25th, 27th should be particularly favorable for such activities. On the adverse days poor judgment or carelessness could cause loss or anxiety in connection with employment or business. Travel should be avoided, for the danger of accidents will be greater. This will also be a favorable month in which to advertise, write or start new studies of a mental nature. Marked improvements in your environment should occur, although personal interests COULD interfere with your working, health and material affairs.

Relatives of Virgo people are now apt to be of greater importance in your life. Their health or troubles may cause concern from time to time. The emotional affairs are far more promising this month, although the 13th and 24th are apt to cause disappointment or sorrow in connection with loved ones. Safeguard the welfare of children and others you love at those times. Unexpected romance may enter the lives of many Virgo people. More personal happiness and enjoyment of life can be realized at benefic times of November.

The first week of November should be very favorable for your affairs, except on the 2nd (and late evening hours of the 1st). Health, travel and working interests will not then be favored. More success in promoting your important plans or affairs in connection with others should be realized this week. Cooperation with them will be necessary but you are promised a great deal more progress and general gain. Obstacles will not be so great.

The second week will not be a favorable time. Travel or legal matters may cause trouble for many Virgo people. These should be deferred. Bad news or adverse changes may alter your plans. Relatives and people at a distance from you are apt to cause anxiety or trouble. Risks should be deferred, although you are apt to be increasingly restless and rash. Correspondence will be adversely affected. Safeguard important mail or communications. This will not be a good time in which to make changes or seek favors. The 7th, 8th, 13th will be the extremely adverse days of this week.

The third week holds more promise of progress, although the 16th is unfavorable for trips, changes or health matters. Work and business could be disturbed. Bad news may create intense nervous strain. Except for that date, however, your affairs should be more favored. Trips, changes and marked improvements in your surroundings can be undertaken. Important news should be received which adds to your happiness. A more congenial, optimistic outlook upon life should exist. The 19th, 20th are particularly good dates for selling, correspondence, changes or business matters.

The fourth week will not be favorable on the 22nd and 23rd (or evening hours of the 21st). Mental unrest or strain may exist. A deceptive or disillusioning trend is apt to be felt in your affairs. Defer risks and don't rely too much upon conditions which may arise. The 25th, and thereafter until the 30th, promises to be far more happy and fortunate. The 30th will be adverse for finances and personal affairs. Some danger of rashness or quarrels will affect finances.

Favorable days: 1, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17 through 21, 25 through 29

Unfavorable: 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 23, 24, 30

MARS will be in your own sign of Libra throughout this month. It denotes more activity, energy and aggressiveness in your personal affairs. More power and magnetism should be felt. On the negative plane, Mars tends to arouse friction, quarrels and a more irritable, hasty trend in the life. The danger of accidents or feverish ailments will be greater. An interest in sports or some new form of exercise is more apt to be cultivated under this martial influence, to improve health and vitality. Improvements in the personal appearance and general affairs of life should occur. Mars will be generally favorable to your activities except on the 13th and 30th. Those are the two extremely adverse dates of the month for accidents, quarrels, danger. Try to adjust yourself to conditions which may then seem incompatible. Don't force issues or take risks. The danger of fires, cuts and accidents will be greater at those times.

The emotional affairs of Libra people are now apt to be thrown to the fore. Other people may experience upsetting or adverse conditions which cause anxiety or friction. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones on the adverse days of November. Financial difficulties through or with others are more apt to occur, so that you may feel emotionally strained or tense. New friends now entering your life should offer more promise of happiness and enjoyment. Social matters should be stimulated. Romance and love affairs will be favored on the 9th, 10th, 15th, 17th through 20th, 25th, 27th. At adverse times this month, defer pleasures or social activities for they are apt to prove too expensive. A more careless, emotional trend will then exist which could cause trouble. Some pleasure trip may have strong appeal for you this month but should be avoided at times which are unfavorable. Loved ones may prove to be a source of greater expense this month. More time and energy is apt to be wasted in pleasure and enjoyment of life than in building your material resources. You who are married will need to exercise great care in connection with the partner on the 13th. Your financial prospects will be very much favored, except on the 7th, 8th, 13th, 16th, 24th. Those dates will not be benefic for money or business transactions. Losses or difficulties could be experienced through poor judgment or carelessness.

The first week of this month should be exceptionally favorable for your affairs, although the 2nd (and evening hours of the 1st) will not be harmonious for financial, pleasure or emotional matters. Work and health interests may demand more attention this week. Build your affairs to avoid loss during the ensuing week.

The second week will not be favorable for important matters. Strain and tension may exist in connection with other people. A loved one or close associate may be ill or in trouble. Financial upsets are indicated. Sudden changes or losses could interfere with your business and financial affairs. Be careful to avoid risks, for the danger of violent accidents or disasters will be greater this week. It may be less easy for you to get along harmoniously with others. This is especially true in marital, family or business associations. Defer all important matters, if possible.

The third week of November should be far more promising for your affairs, except on the 16th. That date could cause financial and emotional losses to occur. Avoid pleasures or waste of time and money. Unexpected financial gains should be attracted around the 19th and 20th. More happiness, good luck and enjoyment of life can then be realized.

The fourth week will not be entirely harmonious to your affairs until after the 24th. The 22nd (late evening hours of the 21st), 23rd and 24th are apt to be dates when financial and emotional matters are disturbed. More strain and trouble may exist. Poor judgment could then dictate heavier expenditures or unwise decisions. A somewhat secretive, deceptive influence is shown on the 24th. Avoid travel and don't rely too much upon news which may be received. The 25th, and following days until the 30th, should bring exceptionally good conditions. Financial, personal and emotional matters will then be far more favored. More genuine pleasure and happiness should exist. The 30th will be extremely adverse, especially so for you who are born October 10, 15, 16. The danger of quarrels, accidents or emotional strain will then be greater.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 17
through 21, 25 through 29

Unfavorable: 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 23, 24

November Outlook ... for Scorpio

*For Those Born Between
October 23 and November 21*

YOUR life is now apt to be vitalized and activated in an important manner. Be ready for changes and new progress; yet also be prepared for the unexpected—in upsets or temporary reversals which may occur from time to time. November is a month in which partnerships and close associations with others may be strained or disturbed, so that separations and estrangements could occur. This is especially true for you who are born on October 23, 24, 25; November 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, 16. You will need to be more careful in safeguarding your personal health and welfare, and also avoid risks or changes which could cause loss and regret.

Trips or changes of environment are now apt to affect many Scorpio people. More vitality, progress and ambition should dictate a changing trend in your surroundings. You should be more mentally alive and optimistic. Favors, gifts and expressions of love and affection can be attracted by you who are seeking happiness. This will be the month in which to build harmonious relationships with others, although sudden separations are apt to occur with some loved ones or intimate associates. You should experience better luck in many of your personal plans and affairs. This is especially true around the 19th, 20th, 25th, 27th. New friendships are indicated.

Health and working matters will need to be very carefully protected on the adverse days. This is especially true of the 13th. The danger of violent quarrels, accidents or overstrain will then exist. Some disappointment or rebellion at restrictions which may exist could then dictate angry decisions or risks. Old working and business interests are ending for many Scorpio people, while a new trend begins. Some contacts with hospitals or secret enmity and opposition may arise around the 13th.

Your financial affairs should be far more promising except on the 24th. That date is apt to threaten deception or secretive matters through which loss could arise. This will be a favorable month in which to collect money due you, take business trips or generally make the changes and improvements in your financial affairs which are necessary. Endeavor to conserve your resources, however, rather than make new investments or start new financial activities.

The first week of this month will be exceptionally favorable for your affairs except on the 2nd. That date (and the evening hours of the 1st) will be adverse for health, domestic, travel and personal matters. Nervous strain could cause quarrels or unwise decisions. Avoid changes or risky matters. More pleasure and enjoyment of life should be realized on the 3rd, 4th, 5th. Promote your affairs this week so that you can take things more easily during the ensuing week.

The second week of November will be definitely adverse for important matters. Estranging, upsetting conditions are indicated. Difficulties are apt to occur between yourself and others. It will be less easy to get along with intimate associates. Others are apt to cause anxiety or strain. Sudden changes and emergencies may affect your personal affairs. Safeguard your health throughout the week. Avoid changes, don't gamble upon future prospects! Defer new undertakings. Control that terrific urge for action, change and greater freedom which you are apt to feel.

The third week should greatly improve your prospects. More love and happiness should be enjoyed. The 16th, however, will be adverse for health, travel, changes and personal affairs. Domestic matters or possessions may cause concern. Try to curb rising expenditures. You can take advantage of new opportunities which arise at favorable times this week. Seek to express your own talents, gifts and ideas on a higher plane, during this time. Good luck should be attracted.

The fourth week will not be favored until after the 24th. More strain or friction may be felt in connection with other people. Safeguard your health and personal affairs, especially so on the 22nd and 24th. If you are born on November 20, 21, 22 you should be particularly careful to protect your own welfare and avoid risks. After the 24th, you should then be able to progress in a powerful manner, in financial and personal matters. The 27th will be the most favorable date of this week, bringing gain and happiness through friends.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 11, 15, 17, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 29

Unfavorable: 2, 7, 8, 10, 12, 13, 14, 16, 22, 23, 24

The November Outlook for Sagittarius

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between November 21 and December 21

SAGITTARIUS people are now apt to experience numerous upsets in working and business matters. Important sudden changes are indicated in many different interests of your life. An element of progress and achievement will exist, but nervous strain will need to be controlled. Adverse changes could affect health and working interests from time to time. You who are employed may experience uncertainty about your working affairs; especially so on the 7th and 8th. Careless or aggressive action could bring about loss of position or financial restriction. You are apt to feel discontented and want more excitement or activity in your work. Secret enmity may figure in your affairs. You who are in business and who have employees may now experience upsets through them. You should keep all your business and personal affairs safeguarded throughout this month, to avoid misrepresentation or loss through somewhat secretive or peculiar sources.

Your own ideas, aims and plans will be changing and altering. You will be more mentally alive and enterprising. Trips, changes in your personal life and surroundings, and an element of reform or alteration in your affairs, are indicated. These will be generally favorable except on the 24th, when deceptive or mistaken decisions and conditions could be experienced. Some personal disappointment or danger of accident will then threaten.

Social and friendship interests will be more strongly activated. Mars will stimulate more fun, pleasure and social enjoyment. New friends should be attracted. On the 13th and 30th, however, the danger of quarrels or accident in connection with friends or loved ones will be greater. Defer social and pleasure matters at those times, to avoid trouble. You are then apt to be reckless or thoughtless. Some sorrow may arise in connection with a loved one. Safeguard the welfare of children and others. New plans and progress are developing underneath the surface of Sagittarius affairs, so that more achievement will be possible.

The first week of November should be exceptionally favorable for your affairs, although the 2nd (and late evening hours of the 1st) will not favor trips, health or changes. Bad news could be received, or trouble arise with others. Use good judgment at that time. The domestic and personal affairs are apt to be of major importance this week. More pleasure and enjoyment of life should be realized on the 5th and 6th.

The second week will be adverse. Working and health matters may be disturbed. Secretive or sorrowful conditions are apt to arise to test your optimism and judgment. Sudden changes and upsets in the environment are shown so that it will be less easy for you to quietly progress toward your goal. Defer important matters. Don't start new activities. More progress can be realized on the 9th and 10th, but plan carefully this week. The 13th will be exceptionally unfavorable for social, pleasure and emotional matters. Investments and financial matters will not be favored.

The third week should be far more promising, although the 16th will be another day in which to use good judgment in speech, decisions or dealings with others. Travel, health and personal matters will not be favored. Unexpected good luck may be experienced around the 19th and 20th. More happiness and progress should be achieved this week.

The fourth week will be disturbing to your affairs until after the 24th. Some deceptive or mistaken matters may exist in your life during this time. Changes or new ventures will not be favored. Travel should be deferred. Health may require more attention. Don't let yourself grow irritable, restless or disturbed by inharmony or uncertainty which may arise. After the 24th, a far more harmonious time is indicated. Important changes and new ventures can be promoted on the 25th. More love, happiness and personal good fortune can be attracted. This will be a splendid time in which to build health, improve the appearance, break old habits and start a new trend of life. Gains through others should be attracted.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 18 through 21, 25, 27, 28, 29

Unfavorable: 2, 7, 8, 13, 16, 24, 30

The November Outlook for Capricorn

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between December 21 and January 21

BOTH favorable and unfavorable conditions are now indicated for Capricorn birthdays. If you are born on January 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 you should be more careful to safeguard your health, business, domestic and personal affairs especially so around the 13th. Some losses or disappointments could be experienced this month. Defer new undertakings and protect your present interests. You may feel more aggressive and impatient of delays, hindrances or opposition.

Speculation and investment will not be generally favored this month. Sudden losses could occur. A tendency to overexpand will need to be controlled. Expenditures may be higher. More money can be attracted, but you should endeavor to curb spending or unnecessary, risky drain upon your financial resources. This is particularly true of the 2nd, 7th, 8th, 13th, 16th, 22nd, 24th. Quarrels or friction with others in business or work could occur from time to time. You can make a great deal of business and financial progress if you remain conservative and patient. An element of reform and improvement will exist in these matters—if you can avoid impatience and unwise changes.

The emotional relationships are apt to be strained during November. Capricorn people should carefully safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones. Family and domestic ties may cause anxiety or friction, especially so around the 13th. The 7th and 8th will be adverse for love, romance, friendships and emotional ties. Sudden estrangements or troubles could arise in these matters. Defer pleasures and social activities. More social activity will exist this month, but friendships may prove expensive or cause strain. New friends should now enter your life. The 9th, 19th, 20th, 25th, 27th are the most favorable days of November for friendships, social and romantic matters.

The first week of this month should be far more favorable for your affairs, although the 2nd (and late evening hours of the 1st) will not favor social, friendship or financial matters. Short trips, news, neighbors and correspondence may figure more prominently in your affairs this week. Promote your important interests now, so that you can take things more easily during the ensuing week.

The second week will be decidedly adverse. Upsets with other people can be expected. Your own ambitions may conflict with those of others. Social and friendship ties are apt to be strained. Romantic attachments will not be favored. Sudden upsets or separations from loved ones could occur. The week will be far more emotional, strained and troublesome. Don't rely too greatly upon your own feelings or upon people who may now enter your life. Curb the desire for excitement or adventure. Avoid all risks, through which finances, position in life and personal ties could be strained. Safeguard your own welfare and that of loved ones very carefully.

The third week should be far more fortunate, although the 16th will not be favorable for finances or social activities. Waste of time or money could occur. Quarrels with others may be more threatening. Unexpected good luck or greater happiness is indicated, however, especially so around the 19th and 20th. Friends should be a source of unusual enjoyment or gain. A more romantic, happy trend should exist in your affairs. The 19th and 20th will be more favorable times for favors, love and personal matters. Income should improve.

The fourth week will not be favorable until after the 24th. A somewhat disturbing mental trend is indicated which could cause strain or uncertainty. Bad news may be received. Travel will not be favored. Keep your affairs protected. Dealings with other people may not be open and aboveboard around the 24th. Finances should be safeguarded. Avoid risky changes or important decisions. After the 24th, an exceptionally fortunate trend should exist until the 30th which will be adverse for business, health and personal affairs. The danger of quarrels or accident will then be greater. The 25th and 27th should be very favorable for your personal happiness and gains. Increase of finances should be experienced. A far better trend should then stimulate your enjoyment of life, and general affairs.

Favorable days: 1, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

Unfavorable: 2, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 24

The November Outlook for Aquarius

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between January 21 and February 19

AQUARIUS people can now expect an exciting, changing month. If you are born on January 21, 22; February 2, 3, 4, 5 you should more carefully protect your affairs. Sudden changes may cause uncertainty. Upsets in the domestic, business and emotional affairs are apt to occur from time to time. You who have birthdays on February 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 should safeguard your health and carefully avoid new activities which could create legal or financial difficulties. Travel will not be favored for any of you whose birthdays are here given, until after the 24th.

The business and professional affairs of Aquarius people will now be to the fore in a more important, pressing manner. You will feel the urge to greater achievement and progress, yet upsets are apt to occur from time to time. At the adverse times, defer new undertakings or changes which could cause loss. Strive to use forethought and good judgment in all your new plans or activities. The 19th, 20th, 25th, 27th will be the most fortunate days of the entire month for your business and financial affairs. More popularity, success and recognition should then be attracted. Gains can be realized through others from time to time, but friends or loved ones could cause anxiety or disappointment around the 7th, 8th, 13th, 16th, 22nd, 24th. Avoid new investments in land or property, or business matters.

Sudden upsets in the domestic and emotional life are now apt to occur. You may feel more strained and uncertain. Excitement and change will be desired. Your feelings will dictate important decisions, so that it will not be easy for you to be reasonable or patient with delays.

Quarrels or trouble with friends could occur at times, especially so around the 24th. Business dealings with friends and acquaintances are more apt to arise this month. Relatives will not be favored, especially so around the 7th, 8th, 13th. Trips, correspondence and risks through which trouble with other people could arise should then be deferred. November will be a month of starting, changing conditions—so be prepared for them. Concentrate upon holding your affairs steady and secured. A trend of advancement and progress will exist for you at favorable times this month, but unwise or careless action could counteract that influence.

The first week of November should be far more fortunate, although the 2nd (and evening hours of the 1st) may bring personal difficulties or anxiety about others. Business matters should be protected. Expansion or new activities would not be wise. Safeguard the health. Your financial affairs should be more favored on the 3rd, 4th, 5th. Important news and messages may be received this week.

The second week will be decidedly adverse, particularly so for you who are born on February 2, 3, 4, 5. Estrangements may threaten. Upsets could cause insecurity and adverse changes. Emotional strain is shown. Your own health and welfare will need to be carefully protected. Loved ones are apt to cause anxiety through troubles or difficulties which arise for them. Violent quarrels and accidents will be more threatening. Avoid travel or changes. Adjust yourself to conditions as they arise. Do not force issues. Unreliable propositions or associations may exist this week, so don't depend upon them. Temporarily adverse matters are shown, so that your decisions or changes now made would affect your future life. Try to maintain a calm, controlled attitude. Above all else, control your own urge to action, to correct, reform or improve conditions about you.

The third week should be more favorable, although the 16th will not be favorable for health, business or financial matters. Avoid new ventures or expenditures, if possible. The 17th should bring exceptionally favorable influences to stimulate greater happiness through people who care for you. Income should improve. Press onward in your important affairs during the remainder of this week.

The fourth week will not be favorable until after the 24th. Sudden changes or sad news may be received. Safeguard your own health and personal interests. Avoid risky, venturesome matters. A deceptive trend is indicated which could cause disappointment. After the 24th, far happier conditions are shown. More gain and progress can then be realized. Income should improve. Personal happiness will be stimulated in a more harmonious manner.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 25 through 30

Unfavorable: 2, 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 22, 23, 24

November Outlook

... for Pisces

For Those Born Between
February 19 and March 21

MORE progress and genuine success can now be realized by Pisces people who remain constructive and aspiring. Upsets are apt to occur from time to time in the environment or relationships with other people; but if you can maintain a calm mental outlook and avoid unwise changes you should be able to really accomplish a great deal.

Saturn will stimulate your financial affairs this month, except around the 13th when heavy losses or reversals could occur in connection with other people. Try to follow a very conservative, prudent financial program this month. The ending of some source of income or earning power may occur. Don't make business changes or force issues with other people. Seek to attract the financial gains which you wish to realize. More activity with other people is indicated. Friction or strain could be experienced because of the waste, poor judgment or troubles of others. The 13th is the date when this could explode into activity, as it were, and cause losses for you. Safeguard the credit, rather than expand or take on new financial obligations. Business progress can be realized, especially so on the 9th, 17th, 25th. An element of change will exist in the business or professional affairs of Pisces people, but this should not be adverse (except on the 24th, when deceptive or secretive conditions could cause loss). Be careful in making agreements or signing contracts at unfavorable times in November.

Marriage, emotional relationships and friendships will be more favored this month, although the adverse times are apt to bring sudden strain or anxiety about others. This is especially true of the 7th, 8th, 13th, 24th. The 13th and 24th are apt to be the most unfavorable days for marital and romantic matters. The health, finances and welfare of the partner or loved one may be adversely affected at that time. There is greater danger of quarrels or incompatibility with others. The 7th and 8th will be especially unfavorable for relatives (brothers, sisters particularly). Estrangements could occur with others, or bad news concerning them could be received. Avoid travel and be particularly careful to safeguard correspondence on the days given as unfavorable.

Your aspirations, ideas and plans seem to be developing this month, to be put into greater activity during December. This is a month in which your talents, ideas and genius can be utilized to promote your success.

The first week of the month will be far more favorable for your affairs. More personal success and progress can be realized, although the 2nd (and evening hours of the 1st) will not be favorable for health, personal or travel matters. Be careful to avoid agreements or dealings with others which could cause trouble. Your personal and financial affairs should be more prominent this week. Promote your interests so that you can take things more easily during the ensuing week.

The second week of November will not be fortunate. The 7th and 8th will be extremely unfavorable for trips, news, relatives or changes. Your mental outlook is apt to be greatly disturbed. Moves may be taken on the spur of the moment. It will be less easy for you to remain quiet and serene. Safeguard finances and avoid quarrels or friction with others. New investments or financial obligations should be avoided. Others may prove more expensive. The danger of quarrels and accidents will be greater during this time.

The third week should bring more progress and opportunity. Travel, changes, higher aspirations and a more enthusiastic program of life should be enjoyed. Changes for the better are indicated, although the 16th will be extremely adverse for new ventures, trips or health matters. Poor judgment or enmity could cause loss. Defer important matters at that time. Exciting news and ability to attract worth-while things and people to add to your success or recognition should be greater around the 19th and 20th. An expansive trend is then indicated.

The fourth week should be exceptionally harmonious after the 24th. Prior to that date, upsets can be expected. Be careful in all business or financial matters. Avoid secretive or deceptive conditions in connection with other people. Travel, legal matters or changes will not be favored. Difficulties with superiors could occur, in business matters. The 25th and following days of late November should greatly improve your prospects. Unexpected gains and triumph over difficulties should be experienced until the 30th. That date will not be favorable for financial or personal relationships. Some quarrels or accident is apt to threaten a loved one at that time.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 25 through 29
Unfavorable: 2, 7, 8, 13, 16, 22, 24, 30

WHAT THE STARS SAY ABOUT SCORPIO PEOPLE

(Those Born Between October 23 and November 21)

BY PHIL GRANT

IT IS possible to analyze you and your Individuality or inner character from the sole position of the Sun at your birth. It is also astrologically possible to analyze coming events and conditions along your road of life for any period of time through study of the aspects of other planets to the position of the Sun at your birth. The Sun is the major luminary of our solar system. It is also the major influence controlling man's destiny. Aspects from other planets to your Sun position at birth, for any time, will produce favorable or adverse conditions affecting your health, happiness, business and financial success.

The study of the Sun's influence upon you at your time of birth is thus of supreme importance. The positions of other planets at your birth give the attributes of your character. But the real you—your inner self—is signified by the Sun.

This "Character Analysis" is based upon my interpretation of the energy which Astrology teaches is produced when the Sun is in Scorpio.

It is conceded by astrologers that Scorpio people have a stronger will and greater personal magnetism than most other birthday groups. You are deep, intense and emotional. Secrecy weaves a deep trend through your character and general life. It is difficult for you to be really intimate or close to others because of the varying depths of your nature. You will never be completely understood by others about you. You must be handled with care, as it were; for you resent interference in your affairs. You are apt to grow restive or rebellious when compelled to submit to the authority or discipline of others.

You may be secretly loved or admired by people you do not know or notice. You are respected for your sterling qualities. Your intense magnetism attracts others to you. If you can keep your strength of personality you need not fear loss of those you love or those who care for you. However, when those who love you discover some flaw or human weakness in your character or nature, they are apt to feel disappointed or disillusioned. This is true of all strong people. Your destiny is to be strong—the one upon whom others lean. You are not meant to have weaknesses or to fail. The materials given you at birth were those of charm, leadership, power, will, magnetism and forcefulness. Failure to develop these materials for your building of life will cause weaknesses to develop.

Feeling is inclined to dictate your decisions, aims and progress. If you allow the negative, destructive feelings of resentment, prejudice, suspicion, anger, jealousy or rebellion to dictate your principles of living, you may do many regrettable things.

You possess one characteristic which is truly fascinating. It is that of retaliation. Your instinct to strike back or carry a war forward, to cling to old sorrows or review past happenings of negative nature will not bring happiness or lasting success. Once you are hurt by another, you do not forgive nor forget. If trouble arises, your instinct is to cut straight through to the core or cause of that difficulty.

You are at your best in times of emergency when you can take the initiative or when others depend upon you. You should not be in partnership with others except in a financial or marital manner. In business associations, it should be understood that you execute the business policies. You are apt to depend upon the finances of others in business matters. It will be necessary for you to develop your own talents and ability in order to carry the burdens or responsibilities which you will attract in life.

Since Destiny has given you the materials for leadership and dominance in the lives or affairs of others, it is your duty to stimulate your fine will, knowledge and ability to really fulfil this instinct born within you.

Astrology Class

The Planets in the Houses of the Horoscope

IT IS interesting to study the combined influence of the Sun and Moon upon the individuality and personality. These are dominant factors in the life material which are given to each person. A strong solar position existing at the birth, inharmonious expression of the character and gifts given by the Sun will exist. How often we find a person who possesses splendid gifts, talents and powers, but who seems unable to achieve success or recognition because of a poor personality or lack of expression. The astrologer will immediately identify the cause—which would be due to a poorly placed or adversely aspected Moon.

The manner in which the energy that provides our inner character and outer personality is received and used will be further analyzed in this lesson of Astrology Class. Remember, that the Sun's energy which is identified by the zodiacal sign it occupied by birth is transmitted to the outer plane of material expression (through the personality) according to the lunar energy. The Moon position will denote the direction the individual character will take in expression and development of personality.

THE SUN IN LEO WITH THE MOON IN THE TWELVE SIGNS

Sun in Leo—Moon in Aries: This combination is fiery, idealistic, intuitive and ambitious. If not spiritually developed, the nature may become too forceful and aggressive. Success is indicated in dramatic, educational and political fields. Ability exists to become a dominant, powerful leader.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Taurus: This combination is apt to produce a somewhat obstinate, stubborn, fixed nature. A deep emotional nature is given. All tendencies toward gambling or speculation must be avoided. Financial success can be realized. The arts, sciences, education and statesmanship will be favored as a profession.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Gemini: Conflict between the mind and heart may exist. Writing and dramatic qualities are uppermost. Mussolini and George Bernard Shaw are examples of this solar-lunar combination. Power to coordinate personality and individuality to produce success and attain leadership is prominent.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Cancer: This is the only solar-lunar combination in which the Sun and Moon are found in their respective signs. The will to accomplish must be developed, so that natural resourcefulness is cultivated. Natural talents, deep emotional traits and financial ability exist. The nature is apt to be deeply patriotic. Feeling may dominate the life.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Leo: A fiery nature is here given, although either the personality or individuality may be subdued. Lack of expression or complete freedom may exist. Reserve and pride are given. Dignity is a characteristic. Energy must be conserved to protect the health, particularly to avoid heart-strain. The emotional life is apt to be a dominating factor.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Virgo: Fine mental qualities exist, although care must be taken that the personality does not seem cold or aloof, thus dimming the natural warmth of Leo. Ability exists to adapt one's self to circumstances or environment. Health may require attention. Splendid dramatic, educational and literary powers should be possessed.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Libra: An artistic, loving, charming nature is here given. Too much pleasure or emotion must be avoided, however. Law, religion, politics, drama and the arts will be favored, professionally. Marriage will be a dominating factor in the development.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Scorpio: A somewhat ruthless nature might be developed. Sex and passion may be marked characteristics in many of the people having this combination. The nature will be powerful, dominating and masterful. Jealousy must be curbed. Surgery, drama, chemistry and education will be favored, professionally.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Sagittarius: Good fortune is promised. The personality should be excellent, portraying the finest qualities of both Leo and Sagittarius. Science, literature, inventions, religion and foreign affairs will prove attractive. Freedom and independence will be necessary to the full development of this character. Sports may have a strong appeal.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Capricorn: Scientific achievements will be very promising. The nature will be more practical and exact. The personality may not reveal the warmth of heart which lies inside a more cold or exacting exterior. Napoleon had this combination. Shrewdness, dramatic appeal, ability to attract the public and assume leadership over others will exist.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Aquarius: Humanitarian qualities will be intensified. The nature is inventive, creative, dramatic and friendly. Rise in life can be realized. Henry Ford has this combination.

Sun in Leo—Moon in Pisces: The spiritual qualities of the nature will be more marked. Much of the life or affairs may tend to be secretive or secluded. Strength of character must be developed so that others do not dominate. Dramatic and artistic talents are given.

THE SUN IN VIRGO WITH THE MOON IN THE TWELVE SIGNS

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Aries: This combination arouses the nature to activity and ambition; nervous strain may exist, however. The ideals are extremely high so that a more superior plane of life is sought. Medicine, civil service, literary and educational matters should prove successful.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Taurus: Financial success can be realized. The nature is apt to be reserved, diplomatic and difficult to please. Lack of enthusiasm may discourage others. Practical affairs will have strong appeal. A position of power in life can be attained. Health will require careful attention.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Gemini: Discrimination and analytical power are very great. The mind and intellect are apt to dominate the feelings. Literary and educational faculties are promising. Continuity and concentration of thought must be developed.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Cancer: Feeling and intellect may strive for mastery in this nature. A sympathetic, but somewhat nervous or strained, nature is indicated. Success in religion, science, medicine or education can be realized. Health will need to be protected.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Leo: Mind and heart should be well balanced with this combination. The personality will be assertive and romantic. Many different interests will attract this person. Religion, healing and science will have a strong appeal. The character is somewhat reserved and cold, while the personality will have warmth and magnetism. Anna Kingsford had this combination.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Virgo: A sensitive, nervous, retiring nature may be developed. Health will require attention. The environment, or some factor of the life, is apt to offer obstructions. Learning and education will have a strong appeal for this person. Intellect will be powerful in determining the life. Literary faculties should be developed. Tolstoi had this combination of the Sun and Moon.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Libra: A nature which loves justice, reason and balance will strive to attain success. Art, religion, law or medicine will be favorable professions. Marriage and partnerships will be a dominant factor in developing the life. Maeterlinck had this combination.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Scorpio: A subtle, shrewd nature is here given. The personality will be magnetic and powerful. Feeling and mind may often be in conflict. Surgery, medicine, science and law will be favorable professions. Commerce and business will also be favored. Self confidence in the inner powers and ability must be developed.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Sagittarius: A quick, enthusiastic and aspiring personality will direct this Virgo person into many strange conditions of life. Many changes of environment are indicated. The nature will be at its best in travel or adventure. Health will need to be safeguarded. Hasty action or speech will cause difficulties.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Capricorn: This nature should be economical, practical, reliant and successful. Business or professional success can be realized. Ability to realize good fortune through the executive powers is a keynote of this life. Scientific achievements will be promising. An effort must be made to avoid melancholy or fear.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Aquarius: The personality is apt to be very strong, so that the inner nature is swayed or controlled by the outer expression. Originality of thought, speech and viewpoint can produce a leader. Success in life can be realized, although a somewhat radical profession or type of work may be chosen. Time and energy must not be wasted. These people are often found as "square pegs in round holes" due to their failure to develop their fine qualities of leadership, inventiveness and originality.

Sun in Virgo—Moon in Pisces: A somewhat contradictory nature may be given. Ups and downs of fortunes can be expected. Secrets, mysteries, romance and adventure will have a strong appeal. The personality is apt to be wavering or undeveloped, but if once strengthened, it can lead to sure success. Conflict will exist in this nature, so that the expression is inclined to be dreamy or impractical, whereas the inner nature is reliant and capable. Lack of persistency must not be allowed. Health will always need to be protected.

Astrology - Study of the Mind

the chief influences, the ego instinct predominates. Whence the self-assertion and pioneering impulsions of Aries natives emerge under the free expression of the ego. In Cancer, this self-assertive urge is toned by the supercharged, emotional content, whereby the maternal (or paternal) inclinations of these natives become so pronounced. In Libra, we have the ego as the slightly more powerful of the three main instincts. We often see the Libran deliberately striving to ruffle tranquility with the intent to manoeuvre into a position from whence he can set about the task of restoring balance or equilibrium. He will often disgruntle others who turn to him for confirmation of a thesis by deliberately taking a line or argument entirely opposite to his habit, for the sheer joy of arguing. Libra wishes to feel that he knows everything, can do anything and is able to master anything. In other words, he reveals all the symptoms of the accented ego instinct. The ambition of Capricorn is too well known to need dwelling upon.

The fear instincts dominate in those individuals who have the mutable signs (Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces) as the chief influence. It is fear of the consequences of failure which instinctively impels Gemini and Sagittarius people to follow two simultaneous occupations or interests. It is fear which is the basis of the self pitying element of Virgo. It is fear which is the basic cause of the indecision of Pisces. It is joy (the passion identifiable with the fear instinct) which is the special proclivity of Sagittarius and Pisces (joviality, good spirits, friendliness, hospitality). It is the thermometric register of the passion of joy in Gemini and Virgo (the variant scale of moods founded on the fear instinct) which is the factor responsible for the "mercurial" behaviour.

Thus, in bald outline, we show the "character" urges of the zodiacal types as emanating from the three primal instincts of the subconscious mind, which are in turn dependent for their movement upon the influential properties of the zodiacal constellations.
