«LET THE STARS LIGHT YOUR WAY»

WHAT THE STARS SAY ABOUT SAGITTARIUS PEOPLE

"Character Makes Destiny"

BY PHIL GRANT

IT IS possible to analyze you and your characteristics from the sole position of the Sun at your birth. The positions of other planets at the time of your birth give you the attributes of your character; but the real you is signified by the Sun and its position when you were born. This "character analysis" is based upon my interpretation of the vibrations of energy which Astrology teaches are produced by the Sun's position in the sign of Sagittarius. As a Sagittarius person, you have the Sagittarius individuality. You express this differently perhaps, from other Sagittarius persons, but the type of energy you have in your character is that given you by the Sun in your birthsign of Sagittarius.

Jupiter is your ruling planet, giving you power and much ability. The symbol of your sign is the Archer or the Arrow which is significant of your high aims and aspirations. You express yourself best when you are aspiring, enthusiastic, riding forth to conquer odds and difficulties. When delaying conditions hold you back and disappointments or friction exist in your life, you are then apt to lose your flaming zeal, ardor and enthusiasm. Feverish excitement is apt to exist in your work and activities. You are inclined to carry things to an extreme. Frankness, brusqueness and ability to speak your mind or go straight to the point are parts of the fiery Sagittarius nature.

Versatility is the keynote of your sign. You have ability to do more than one thing well. You have power to take advantage of opportunities and can usually accomplish twice as much as the average person. You may often be imposed upon because of your sympathetic nature which is easily aroused to compassion by the needs of others.

Success is generally promised. You are not driven by fear of failure, ordinarily, as are many others. You may waste your energy and become irritable when delayed, restricted or interrupted. You must learn to make allowances for the lack of energy or achievement of other people; otherwise your relations may be strained. You have deep sympathy for other people but do not possess much understanding or patience with them!

You must have freedom from restrictions or limitations. Others cannot place unjust demands upon you. You desire independence and freedom of action in all things. You are not suited to routine or restricted types of work. You are the manager, promoter and enthusiastic booster of projects, ideals or people. You must be careful to avoid a dictatorial or authoritative air with superiors unless you wish them to resent you. You are apt to experience ingratitude from others whom you help, for it seems that this is a test you are destined to overcome. You can be guided—but not driven.

You can realize security, good fortune and financial success. You possess the attributes of success and are well equipped for financial gains. Your general good judgment and financial ability speak for you if you can avoid premature action or haste. Pause to consider—and then follow a direct line of action to your goal. You have power to realize whatever you go after if you go after it to get it!

You are endowed with many splendid gifts and powers with which to build a successful life. The material given you at birth was abundant—with it you are meant to build a real "Temple" of success in life. As you aspire for the best do not disdain the wisdom you may gain from seemingly unhappy or limiting experiences. You have a lesson to teach others which Life must first teach you. That lesson is the invaluable one of perseverance: constant progress toward your goal, the riding of obstacles as you make them your servants and ceaseless aiming of your arrow of aspiration and search for the things lying beyond the horizon of today will be your invaluable aids to happiness and success. As a Sagittarius person, your thoughts are turned toward tomorrow. Don't forget that your tomorrow depends upon today for which you got ready yesterday!

HOLLYWOOD, CAL.: Nirvana Norn, founder of Universal Peace, International Friendship Foundation, Miami, Florida submits the above and suggests that ASTRO-DIGEST readers supply a verse each month to head this column. Not a bad idea; so go ahead and send your verses to me, care of this magazine. Don't make them too long and let the theme have some direct or indirect connection with Astrology. None of the submitted manuscripts can be returned, and decision of the judges (your correspondent and Dan Mainwaring of Warner Brothers publicity department) will be final as to which verse is most suitable for publication. There can be no prizes or awards, but perhaps I'll have a pleasant surprise for the winner.

Alexander's Ragtime Band! It's Irving Berlin's smashing success, and Hollywood's latest motion picture hit. But let's forget the make-believe of Hollywood for the moment and likewise forget Irving Berlin, while we turn back to some of the musty pages of California's famous gold rush days of '49 for a true story of real life. Nestling in the High Sierras in Northern California, and looking much the same today as it did back in the days of Bret Hart, is the little mining town of Downieville, California. There's a dingy barber shop tucked away on a side street where the tonsorialist's attractive daughter who had become a widow at a tender age is washing the miners' red shirts for a living.

One day in the "sixties" as the dust covered stage from Reno drew up to a grinding stop, "an astrologer direct from Boston" alighted. A few days later he opened a "studio" where he immediately did a landoffice business casting horoscopes for all and sundry who would pay him $20 in gold. The pretty laundress visited the "studio" and among other things was told that she would soon remarry, and shortly thereafter would become immensely wealthy beyond her wildest dreams . . . and that her children and even her grandchildren were to become world famous. She took her horoscope and left. Whether or not she believed what the astrologer had told her is not a matter of historical record.

Shortly thereafter she fell in love with one of her customers; a bewhiskered miner. There was no money for a honeymoon, and for a brief time the bride continued on as the town laundress. A few years later this same couple had a mansion on Fifth Avenue in New York City, and a huge country estate on Long Island with their names in the Social Register. They were Mr. and Mrs. John Mackay. The miner had made millions as one of the four original owners of the famous Comstock Lode at Virginia City. Their son was Clarence Mackay, the present Postal Telegraph tycoon, whose daughter is now Mrs. Irving Berlin! You won't see anything about this in Alexander's Ragtime Band. Truth is often stranger and far more interesting than Hollywood scenarios—a fact that motion picture producers just don't seem to understand.

Happened to be in court the other day when Lupe Velez obtained her much publicized divorce. She was wearing the largest diamond ring your correspondent ever saw—it even dazzled the judge. "No, John-ee deed not geeve it to me . . . I bought eet myself for $20,000," she coyly explained. And by the way; Lupe is a dyed-in-the-wool astrology fan, and a mighty nice girl, too. Leaving the court room your correspondent strolled down a few floors to the marriage license bureau where a local radio station had set up a portable set and were interviewing prospective brides and grooms. Never mind what the love-lorn said—perhaps some of you heard it.

Anyway, your correspondent also interviewed the various couples to obtain birthdates, etc. Now gather up real close so I can whisper in your ear and tell you that out of the six couples interviewed, only one pair were astrologically mated. After they left I talked to one of the marriage license clerks who assists in making out approximately one hundred such licenses daily. "Do you think most of the couples who apply for marriage licenses are actually in love?" I queried. A broad grin crossed his face. "If you ask me," he said, "I would say that most of 'em have love mixed up with something else!" Plenty of food for thought there. What do you think?

Myrna Kingsley, who recently concluded a coast to coast radio program that featured Astrology, with a breakfast food company as sponsors, is now in Hollywood. Wouldn't be surprised to see Miss Kingsley's name go on the dotted line of a movie contract before another lunar month. Much talk of Howard Hughes, of round-the-world fame, and a multi-millionaire in his own right, producing a picture featuring the life of Amelia Earhart. Hughes and Miss Earhart were great friends. Katherine Hepburn, Hughes reported fiancée, is to take the leading role, and strangely enough Hepburn bears a striking resemblance to the famous flyer. Did you know that shortly before Miss Earhart started on that last ill-starred flight, that one of Hollywood's better known astrologers strongly advised against taking the trip and begged her to postpone any flight over water for at least four weeks!

"A myriad of men are born; they labor and sweat and struggle for bread; they squabble and scold and fight; they scramble for little mean advantages over each other. Age creeps upon them; ambition is dead; vanity is dead; longing for release is in their place. It comes at last . . . the only unpoisoned gift earth ever had for them . . . and they vanish from a world where they were of no consequence."

Do you know who wrote that? Doesn't sound like Mark Twain, does it? But the famous humorist wrote it just the same. And by the way: Mark Twain knew the Downieville barber's daughter and often passed the time of day with her, and for all I know she washed his shirts, too; and the same would hold good for the late Senator Hearst, father of the present newspaper-chain publisher . . . and for old man Fair and others of those famous kings of the old Bonanza days. It's a pretty small world, isn't it? Someday I'll tell you the true story of Sandy Bowers.

Are the birthdates of movie stars as published from time to time in newspapers and magazines sufficiently correct for astrological purposes? The answer is yes . . . and no! In many instances birthdates of the film idols are released through the studio publicity offices where the star is under contract and let me assure you that few such publicity offices like to see their stars become doddering old men and women. For instance when Warner Oland died there were three different dates published in local newspapers as the day of Oland's birth . . . so don't take such dates too seriously. Sometimes, however, such birthdates as published are perfectly correct. Naturally, most of the film colony's astrologers know the correct dates, but it wouldn't be ethical for them to make public a birthdate that had been revealed to them in confidence for instance, by a 35 year old actress whose studio publicity office claims is only 24.

Assuming you are interested in the horoscopes of the various picture stars and know their real, actual birthdates; see how the following facts match up with your astrological findings: Maurice Chevalier was a bus boy in a cheap Paris cafe. Eddie Cantor was fired from a mailing room for clumsiness. Sam Goldwyn worked in a glove factory. Mae West (of all persons) used to do male impersonations. Richard Cortez was a doorman. Sam Harris, the producer, operated a laundry. Clark Gable worked in the oil fields of Oklahoma. Gene (Major Hoople) Ahern, famous cartoonist, sliced meat in a butcher shop. Gus Edwards sang illustrated songs at Tony Pastors in New York. Loretta Young got her chance when she answered a call for her sister. John Barrymore wanted to be an artist . . . sister Ethel a pianist. Morris Gest was a circus wild man. Harry Richmond played the piano in a roadhouse when he was 11 years

"THE SIGN OF SORROWS"

From Celestial Astrology

AT CHRISTMAS TIME it is fitting that we turn our eyes to the stars of Capricorn to study their message. We can find no more fascinating stellar influences. There is something regal and majestic in the pronunciation of the name "Capricorn". We wonder where and how the ancients who named this portion of the Zodiac derived the name and why they so named it.

When we use the term "making you the goat" how much of the ancient symbolism of Capricorn do we borrow? We thus term the one who is sacrificed or blamed as "the goat". The Latin name for Capricorn means "The Goat". From most ancient times, the goat was the symbol of "atoning sacrifice".

Prominent stars in Capricorn are named "Al Gedi" which means "The Kid", "The Goat"; "Deneb Al Gedi" which means "The Sacrifice Cometh"; "Dabish" which means "The Sacrifice Slain". When we study the prefix "Cap" we find the meaning of the word Capricorn. It means "To match"; "To match in contest"; "To equal"; "To furnish an equal or a better"; "To improve upon by substituting a better"; "To exceed", "climax" or "reach the utmost limit of perfection". The prefix "Cap" thus gives us the key to the interpretation of the name originally given this sign of the Zodiac. It is the name which the Romans translated as "Capricorn" or "The Goat" which means "The Substitute" or "The Better Sacrifice".

Capricorn's ancient star picture reveals a double figure of a Goat and a Fish. In our modern astronomical figures we find Capricorn's symbol reduced to The Goat so we are given but half the picture or the true significance of the sign itself. The Goat is only half of the story told by the star pictures. The dying Goat sinking into the ground transforms itself into The Fish—which tells another story altogether.

Capricorn is one of the zodiacal signs which lies along the ecliptic south of the equator. It is between Sagittarius and Aquarius. In the summer evenings we can see its constellations Sagitta, The Arrow; Aquila, The Eagle and Delphinus, The Dolphin. It is here that the branch of the Milky Way fades and disappears to reappear again further south. This, in itself, tells a startling story about Capricorn.

From earliest times, The Goat has been considered a "sin offering". It was the symbol of atonement, while The Fish represented redemption. The Goat becomes our token of sacrifice and atonement. The Fish is the symbol of Forgiveness which we seek.

The Goat becomes the sacrifice offered. The Fish responds to the effect of the sacrifice and shows the renewal or new life and resurrection of the Spirit of that sacrifice which has been made. To the ancients, The Goat of Capricorn was the symbol of suffering, death, sorrow and atonement. The Fish of Capricorn was symbolic of those for whom the sacrifice was made. The Goat denotes the sorrowing, dying, suffering sacrifice or the sacrificial element for sin, evil and wrong. It signifies the human body. The Fish represents new life, the result or effect of atonement which springs from the old body, rising upon sacrifice to new heights.

A sacrifice had to be acceptable (perfect). Not just any old goat or imperfect member of a flock or herd could be given as a sacrifice. The sacrifice stood as a symbol of the true spirit and intent of the one who sacrificed! It had to be perfect with no blemishes or imperfections. That alone constituted the first part of man's sacrifice. When he overcame his innate selfish, possessive instincts to keep the best for himself and offer a lesser sacrifice, he began to abide by the law of compensation. When he could learn to sacrifice that which he wanted to keep by giving his best for an ideal, and as a symbol, he had made his true sacrifice. The actual goat was but a symbol or token of that which had already occurred within the SACRIFICER.

Here is the true significance of all demands for atonement or sacrifice. We atone or sacrifice by "giving up" or "giving back" to the original giver. Here is an unwritten but divine law observed by all the Universe and on all planes of divinity or divine consciousness except within man! Each planet, each star, each comet, each celestial or terrestrial body gives of itself. It sacrifices what it has to keep celestial energy in motion. The law of force, energy, motion, gravitation, giving and sacrificing causes a ceaseless ebb and flow of energy and regeneration of power to keep the Universe alive and active! Man was and is, regrettably, the only part of the Universe which cannot willingly give or sacrifice of his best.

As man receives life from an unseen yet active force he must constantly give back or return that life and energy. His outer acts are symbols of that which he does within himself.

Religious sacrifice is the symbol or type of a higher sacrifice, one which was to be substituted for man's. At long last, the substitute came (symbolized for Abraham by the Ram caught in the thicket). The Sacrifice came to earth. He came not to do away with the Law but to fulfil it! To fulfil that Law he had to observe every command of it and be blameless. In the body of Christ, the "Great Sacrifice" or "Goat of the ages", we see the one of whom the stars of Capricorn stand as "witnesses". The story which is told by these stars had to be fulfilled upon the earth at some time of earth history. No mere man could fulfil every law of human conduct and righteousness. A blameless man, destined to be a perfect sacrifice, must be born upon the earth. Thus He came, ruled by Capricorn, born just when the Sun had entered that sign of Sacrifice. He became the Celestial Goat-Fish, born with ability to die as a Sacrifice and rise again to new life!

The Bible calls Christ "a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief". "He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed."

All these characteristics of the Messiah, the promised Sacrifice, are symbolic of the stars of Capricorn. This sign is called "The sign of sorrows", "The sign of grief", "wounds", "bruises".

Capricorn bestows a star influence upon natives of this sign which demands perfection and blamelessness. Wherever a fault, a broken law, a flaw is perceived, grief, sorrow and anxiety are felt until that condition is corrected. The stars of Capricorn bestow upon those born under their influence the principles of law, order, organization, perfection and flawlessness. Capricorn must replace fear with faith —ignorance with knowledge—sorrow for peace. It must rise above matter.

Karma—the Law of Compensation—could be halted, saith the stars of Capricorn, by a perfect sacrifice which would bear all our faults in one body and in one great sacrificial atonement. Through that sacrifice, new life could begin for all. When Capricorn ruled the earth during that sacrificial period, the Law was no longer one which man was fated or forced to suffer. He could change and alter his destiny and become, not a goat, a sacrifice to Fate, death and extinction, but a fish. For one was made sacrifice, for all time, that others might rise to new heights. In the body of the celestial goat all the sins, errors, weaknesses, faults and accumulated Karma and fate of an erring Universe were piled. As Isaiah so aptly expressed Christ's Destiny

"He was wounded for our transgressions;
He was bruised for our iniquities."

This was the law. If man would accept that sacrifice as one made for him, he could then become The Fish, the redeemed, and thus escape the penalty of death or bodily sacrifice for his own past misdeeds. He need no longer be saved or reconciled to God by "sacrifice", but by faith.

To what do you point, stars of holy Capricorn? Of what are you really a symbol? Are you a symbol of death and sorrow with your bleeding, slain, sinking Goat outlined among the stars—symbolized by their ancient names? Or—are you a symbol of "The cancellation of human debts"? Methinks you are!

The Fish of Capricorn preaches the eternal message that sacrifice pays; that it is not in vain. It tells us that the same law of compensation will repay the person who can or will sacrifice. It shouts aloud that sacrifice brings in return more than it has taken. It is the picture of the law of cause and effect, of giving and receiving, of breathing out of the body the dead oxygen, of receiving new life from the exterior life-giving forces of the Universe which are breathed and generated through the human body.

Capricorn tells the story of body (matter) and spirit. The body, a goat, sacrificed as the temple of the spirit. The mundane, earthy life with its sorrows, trials, pains, tremors, fears and hardships becomes the battleground in which the spirit rides within the human body which lives in this life. The physical body becomes "The Goat", as it were, the sepulcher in which the spirit lives or dies, from which it is resurrected. When the body is sacrificed after its life of living, experiencing, sickening, fighting, fearing, weakening and dying, the spirit leaps triumphantly forth into a new plane of existence for it knows no death or extinction.

Thus, the ancients believed in life after death. They believed in the invisible chemicals of the soul which would rise triumphant over every earthly sacrifice, pain or experience, which could never become the goat or remain earth bound.

Thus, when winter creeps upon the earth and the icy blasts of the North Wind fasten themselves upon us, the sign of Capricorn stands as a witness to us who look above that "If Winter comes, Spring cannot be far behind".

As old life dies in the winter season, new life begins to nestle beneath the snows, nourished by the promise of the stars that life goes on.

In individual lives, we find that Capricorn bestows great gifts upon those who are born under its influence. If the Sun or Moon occupied the sign of Capricorn at birth, or if this sign were rising at the hour of birth, Capricorn then has a strong dominance over the nature and destiny. Many astrologers have misinterpreted Capricorn's influence—calling it sorrowful, bitter, suspicious, jealous and generally melancholy. This is the negative aspect of Capricorn, when one allows the qualities of this majestic sign to become too material or earth bound. When the native of Capricorn realizes his or her destiny, it will be through sacrifice of the selfish motives. This does not mean that the life must be one of constant sacrifice, atonement and grief. Every Capricorn person should carefully read and study the life of Abraham, the "father of multitudes" for he is typical of the Capricorn paternalism functioning on the highest plane. Duty, honor, loyalty and desire to serve the Gods that be to the point of willingness to sacrifice self (in the form of his son which had been demanded) brought Abraham to the mountain top where such sacrifice was not necessary.

Here is Capricorn's (and the world's) lesson to learn: fearing sacrifice, you turn from it. You are afraid. Realize that the symbol or outer manifestation of a sacrifice is but the token of the true spirit which in turn is a token of genuine love. If that spirit lies within you, you are willing to sacrifice anything in order to go on in the path of duty, loyalty, service and atonement. No longer will fear dictate your life to the extent that you close yourself within an icy wall of restraint. The effects you will experience, when you live by fear, are those of sorrow, grief, loss, coldness, unhappiness and loneliness. You will forget the "I" and think of the universal benefits to be accrued from any sacrifice on your part. You will be so afraid of fear that you will force yourself to sacrifice. When the spirit of true sacrifice reigns within you, you will no longer nourish fear of loss or sorrow. You will live by faith—knowing that you "cannot lose what is truly yours". When Capricorn begins to live on a mental and spiritual plane, rather than upon that of the physical, then a new life will stretch before them in an endless vista of joy, beauty, happiness and great honor.

The true spirit of the Christmas Season is that of joy in giving, sacrificing and relinquishment. It is the spirit with which we end the old year—and face the new.

LIFE'S THREE GREAT PROBLEMS

BY W. J. TUCKER, D. SC.

THERE are three great problems of life which every individual has to solve. Only by knowing and understanding the nature of these problems can an astrologer study individual reactions toward them, and thereby gain the only form of knowledge which will permit him to dispense competent advice. These three great problems of life which each person has to solve are

1. His adjustment to society
2. His adjustment to his work
3. Sex adjustment

Man is a gregarious animal. If the individual wishes to succeed in life, he must learn to get on well with others. But there are important temperamental differences between one individual and another.

Some think too much of their own feelings and too little of the feelings of others. This inbreeds a type of sensitivity which makes it difficult for that person to adjust himself to society. His remedy is to learn to understand himself. By understanding the real nature and basis of his feelings, he can learn to conquer himself, forget his own selfish desires and emotions, and strive to understand the attitude of others who are likewise being swayed by those vague, inner promptings. By striving after such an understanding he will unconsciously be forming an ideal, and at the same time he will be successfully modifying his goal in life.

If, on the other hand, such a sensitive person blindly obeys escape-impulses, he can never hope for a successful life. He must inevitably become a "hermit type", living an indrawn, stunted life with a warped character and undeveloped personality denied self expression.

The person who fails to solve the problem of adjustment to society can never hope to achieve happiness. He has failed to find harmonious expression for his subconscious urges. While any of these basic urges remain unsatisfied, he is clearly denied self expression.

To put this basic problem of adjustment to society in a concise form, it may be stated that the individual has to learn how to do three things.

1. Supply his own physical needs
2. Control his feelings
3. Exercise his will by learning how to make up his own mind.

To supply one's own physical needs is to learn how to be independent (not in the sense of anti-social tendencies) and self-reliant—a first requisite for self expression. By obeying the escape-impulse in seeking security under the protection of others, the individual ceases to be self supporting and is thereby denied complete self expression.

Another paramount necessity for complete adjustment to society is to learn how to control personal feelings. In this lesson is encompassed the important principle of toleration.

As I pointed out in "The Principles of Scientific Astrology" (page 282): "As units we face the fact of the conventions from the standpoint of our own individual inherent character. But the superior force requires that we be tolerant and remain respectors of those community conventions—with the result that life flows on like a tranquil sea.

Now and again human passions (inherent character) break out to create a storm in a teacup. But the conventions developed by the community have to be respected or the individual breaking them will pay the penalty—even to the point of annihilation—to the society he has outraged. Equilibrium has to be restored."

So, instead of breaking out in fits of passion or alternatively lamenting our lot, magnifying our personal sorrows, constantly soliciting the sympathy of others, we must learn to suffer without fuss—if we wish to succeed in life through self expression. This, after all, is the only way in which to succeed in the achievement of that illusive something called "happiness" which we all seek.

Learning how to make up one's mind is another paramount necessity—especially so for those people in whose horoscopes the mutable signs are strongly stressed.

It is surprising how many people drift through life, requiring others to decide for them, think for them and supply them with ready-made ideas and opinions! Few are they who arrive at conclusions independently through grappling directly with life's difficulties. Few are they who will stand alone in the battle of life. For few are they who have real moral courage. Yet moral courage is something which is denied no one.

Of course, it does not fail to be the lot of every man to have that wide experience which alone brings a goodly measure of wisdom. I do not mean to infer that no one should seek advice from others. By all means let us have all the advice obtainable, for we can never know too much about life and its problems. Then, when we have that advice, let us learn how to utilize it to the best advantage so that we can make wise decisions. But—let us make our own decisions. Then, if the results are unfortunate, let us profit by our mistakes. But do not blame the dispenser of the advice whose opinions we have mistakenly adopted. Let us recognize that we were to blame in not making our own decisions. If we do all this, we shall have learned the all important lesson of "how to make up our own mind."

The problem of "how to get on with other people" is, then, all important for success and happiness in life; astrologers must recognize this if they wish to be of real service to their clients. They must solve the problem of the "solitary child" to begin with, and then extend the principle to adults with a view to inducing them to participate in some form or other of community or club life with the ultimate object of making good mixers of them.

Of course, we are here concerned with general principles. How the astrologer has to instruct his individual client is the subject of a book which I contemplate writing later. The cultivation of tact, for instance, is a valuable adjunct in seeking social adjustment. Learning the secret of personal charm is another. Such things, however, transform the general problem into an individualistic one, and extension in that direction is out of place at this stage.

Let us now turn our attention to man's second problem, which is that of adjustment to his work.

We are told that it was the consequence of the sin of Adam and Eve that individual man was condemned to work for his livelihood by the sweat of his brow. But whether or not this is true, the first idea in the mind of man is "one must work to live"!

Unfortunately, the idea that "one must work to live" often gives rise to another: the question of wages or remuneration for work performed. I say "unfortunately", because the temptation is thereby present to think more in terms of money than in terms of suitable work.

Money, as most of us know, cannot buy happiness. Unless we are completely adjusted to a type of work for which we are physically, temperamentally and intellectually suited, we cannot hope to achieve happiness.

A man or woman who is a square peg in a round hole can never be happy, for he or she is eternally as uncomfortable as a person in ill fitting shoes or clothing, or one who is perpetually suffering physical discomfort.

On the other hand, he who really enjoys his work (because it is the type that enables him to achieve complete self expression) remains unconcerned about the question of rate of pay. If it is equitable, or provides for his simple needs and those of his dependents, he is happy and satisfied.

The essential thing to observe is that the problem of complete adjustment to one's work (from the standpoint of physical, temperamental and intellectual capacity) is of far more importance than pecuniary consideration. Unless this problem is adequately solved by the individual there can be little happiness. Therefore, it must be forcibly brought home to the astrologer that this is a primary problem to be tackled on behalf of the client whom he hopes to benefit through the advice he is basing upon horoscopic considerations.

We now come to the third great problem: sex adjustment.

It is because of the basic sexual urges of mankind that the "love, romance and marriage" aspect of Astrology is so strongly emphasized by the popular press and by innumerable astrologers who seek to popularize Astrology.

Of course, many astrologers fondly imagine that they know all about sex and people. Nevertheless, from the visible evidence provided by the type of advice which many of them dispense, it becomes obvious that their real knowledge of the basic problems connected with sex adjustment is limited.

Love is a manifestation of the libido. It is capable of expression in many forms other than the more restricted way which comes within the everyday physical meaning of "sex".

What some individuals choose to regard as love is a form of narcissism or self-love, founded upon selfish pleasure seeking. (Real love for another person is only achieved when the lover has learned to give without demanding a return from his beloved.)

As children, our self-love normally becomes highly developed. We learn to love ourselves because all our consciousness is focussed upon our individual needs and pleasures. We look upon our parents as the natural caterers for such needs and pleasures without once thinking of recompensing them for their care and attention. But we have to learn to grow up and solve the problem of sex adjustment. The time and season of such lessons normally comes at adolescence, for it is then that we usually begin to take an interest in the opposite sex. This is natural, for sex is a gift of nature and is apparently designed for that express purpose.

Love of many persons of the opposite sex is possible, and indeed is perfectly natural, to begin with. But presently the sentiment becomes selective as maturity advances. That is when love of one person of the opposite sex becomes the characteristic feature.

Such is the normal run of things. It should normally lead to sex adjustment in a perfectly natural way. But we have to consider quite a number of different cases.

First, we have the immature person: He who never "grows up." He who is promiscuous in his affections and apparently incapable of real love for another.

In the majority of such cases, the trouble resides in an early fixation of narcissism. In other words, this person is a psychoanalytic problem. The only satisfactory correctative for his condition is psychoanalysis. Merely interpreting his horoscope is not going to help him. The root of the trouble has to be sought out, discovered, revealed and explained to him. Thus, by bringing the facts home to his consciousness, the adjustment between his subconscious and conscious minds will be effected, and correction will automatically ensue.

Then there are the innumerable cases in which sex has to be sublimated—at least for a time—by way of transforming the sex impulse from the seemingly natural goal to a sublimated goal which has for general objective the utilization of the creative forces (which are the bases of the sexual impulses) to creative art.

We are often informed that work is the proper remedy for unrequited love. The real foundation for that suggested remedy centres in this mode of sex-sublimation. It affords the perfect outlet for these vital creative forces by obviating the formidable dangers of sex repression.

Thirdly, there are the innumerable cases in which the sexual urges are employed to perverted ends.

There is no intention of making this study one of the sex question. But the matter has to be introduced because it is one of the three fundamental problems of life with which every individual is confronted. Like the other two, it ceases to be a problem when one understands and knows how to handle it. I have therefore endeavored to show that forms of narcissism are the root of most sexual problems which strike at true love and a happy sex adjustment in matrimony. Unless the ideal has been achieved—the ideal being perfect sex adjustment in matrimony—the solution to the problem resides in sublimation.

In order to be of real service to humanity, astrologers should study the problems of their clients with these facts in mind. They should dispense advice in accordance with individualistic findings. Actually, a greater responsibility lies upon the shoulders of the astrologer than he may realize. Other things besides the self-seeking wishes of a client must be considered, weighed and assessed, before coming to a conclusion on which advice is to be based.

"TOMORROW'S HEADLINES"

Predictions for December

By Alma Crawford Graning

*"Not what we have, but what we use
Not what we see, but what we choose,
These are the things that mar or bless
The Sun of human happiness.
The things near by, not things afar,
Not what we seem, but what we are,
These are the things that make or break,
That give the heart its joy or ache.
Not what we take, but what we give,
Not as we pray, but as we live—
These are the things that make for peace
Both now, and after Time shall cease."*

Astrology Brings Tomorrow's News Today

THE QUESTION of Peace or War may now present grave problems. American leaders will be confronted with more serious foreign questions and disputes. Late 1938 will be a perilous time for European countries, as well as those of the far East. Economic, war and weather conditions may produce terrible suffering and havoc in many parts of the world.

Mars in Libra usually denotes the violation of treaties, broken alliances between nations and people, ruptured foreign relations and intense disputes about justice and public rights. Mars will be in Libra from October 24 until December 11. It then enters Scorpio. In Scorpio, Mars (when making adverse aspects to other planets) denotes more famous purges, brutal warlike acts and atrocities which bring death to masses of people.

Frantic efforts to bring peaceful adjustment to world problems will be a keynote of December. These may fail for I do not see a peaceful solution to world problems—not, at least, until after April 20, 1939.

A powerful military and financial alliance may be formed between the United States and another power. Our national hand will be distributing financial aid to foreign powers while some outstanding trade agreement may be completed. December will be a busy, but not altogether safe or peaceful month for American ambassadors. Our national forces of defense will receive more prominent attention. Deaths of eminent officials in the War and Navy Departments may occur. Disasters threaten army, naval and aviation forces. Revolutionary changes and adjustments in their personnel and functions may occur. Speeding up of rearmament and improvement of national forces are indicated. Sabotage will be a grim threat in naval and aviation interests. Another naval "incident" in foreign waters is shown.

Deaths or changes may affect the Cabinet. Prominent statesmen may be taken by death. Sorrow will affect the White House and Presidential family. Discord and serious troubles in political and national affairs can be expected. A dictator-like, authoritative program, unpopular with the masses, is indicated.

Relief and welfare matters may now cause grave concern. Riots and unrest will affect them. Efforts to speed up employment and accelerate industrial plans to put more people back to work will be delayed and hindered until after the 25th. Communistic moves, strikes and "left wing" activities will increase. Labor will be more militant and powerful. Heavier taxation and new restrictions can be expected for industry and business. Adjustments in The Social Security program may be made. Extensive efforts are now shown to bring more harmony between capital, labor and government but these will be immature and unsuccessful.

The public will be excited about political matters. A crisis may arise in national and political affairs between the 12th and 16th.

Public Health and Welfare

Health will need to be more carefully protected this month. Influenza and other types of epidemic sickness may be more prevalent. Deaths from heart and kidney ailments may increase. Death of noted stars of the entertainment world is indicated. A noted publisher or writer may pass on. Children and young people should be more careful of their welfare. Violent crimes against them will increase. Cases of drowning, food poisoning, deaths from drugs and increase of suicides will be featured in the news. Domestic quarrels and marital scandals may reach a new high this month.

Travel disasters will increase, especially so around December 13, 15, 16, 22, 24, 25. The vicious cycle of aviation crashes which seems to occur around this time each year is apt to be repeated. The danger of fires, accidents and disasters in schools, theatres and places of amusement will be greater. Adverse dates for such happenings will be December 1, 2, 9, 10, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 24, 25, 30.

Storms, Floods, Earthquakes

Neptune's position in the fourth house of the United States' chart warns of peculiar, distressing weather conditions, especially so in mid-December (between the 12th and 17th) and again around the 24th, 25th. Fog and wet weather seems to be featured during this period. The seacoasts may be particularly unfortunate. Abnormally high tides may be reported. Floods may sweep many parts of the country. Earthquakes are apt to usher in the month (around November 30-December 1), and again between the 11th and 16th, 24th and 30th. Various types of disasters around the world will tax the resources of the Red Cross and other agencies of aid. Mining disasters will be more frequent.

Agricultural, Crop and Land Prospects

Farmers may experience increased difficulties at times this month. Grains and foodstuffs will rise in price. Discontent in the agricultural districts may lead to New Deal losses. Property and land losses are indicated. The public should exercise unusual caution in investment propositions connected with oil, minerals and land. Wheat and grain futures should mark new "highs" at times during earlier December.

Financial Indications

Unusually benefic financial prospects are shown at times during the month. Speculation and gambling will have particular appeal for the public. More money should be in circulation. Business should report astounding sales and good returns. A period of loss and financial reversals will exist between the 12th and 16th, however, for which we should be prepared. The financial boom which seems to start at the first of the month may not fully develop, however, until after the 25th. The beginning of the Winter Quarter should begin to bring more prosperous economic and business conditions. Financial activities, however, should now be planned very carefully in preparation for the astounding changes and unusual conditions indicated during early 1939.

The Keynote of December

Adjustment of existing conditions will be the keynote of this month. Such adjustment will either be brought about through peaceful solutions of existing problems, or warlike declarations. December will be one of the most dangerous months of the year, for aggression and the threat of war due to the demands felt by humanity for balance and harmony.

Domestic, home, family, community and personal needs will be to the fore. People will be more interested in themselves and their private affairs. Improvements will be sought in individual lives and civic groups. Changes will occur in all factors of life, due to the urge of this month for Balance.

Change and upheavals can thus be expected as adjustments occur or are made to produce the true level or establish firm foundations.

Around the World Predictions

Canada: Difficult agricultural, land and political conditions are shown for this Dominion. Much turmoil can be expected, with the threat of defeat, death and loss for high governmental officials or leaders. Excitement about Royalty will be a feature of the month. Deaths of Royalty or important dignitaries of state may occur. Children should be carefully safeguarded against illness. Crop losses will threaten. Fires, mining disasters and earth shocks are apt to occur from time to time . . . Public health will not be favored. Financial progress will be much better than may be anticipated.

California: Earthquakes will threaten, especially so around December 12, 13, 15, 23 through 29. Public health and labor matters will cause anxiety or trouble from time to time during the month, particularly on the 13th, 15th. Religious, legal and educational matters will be to the fore in public interest. A noted writer or publisher may die. Prison escapades will create high excitement. Another prison break will threaten. A great deal of secret crime, mysterious suicides and kidnapping may threaten. Gambling, racing and amusement enterprises may experience severe losses or restrictions. New financial activities will begin to produce more prosperity in the state.

Japan: Huge financial expenditures will continue to drain Japan's resources. New economic and currency ventures are now indicated, which may startle other nations. Japan will continue her skid toward the threat of revolution which awaits 'round the corner of 1939! Heavy war losses and disputes with other powers are shown. The people will be in a state of pitiable unrest and agitation. Disastrous aviation and shipping losses are indicated. Fires, earthquakes and storms (especially along the seacoasts) will occur during the month. Royalty will be unfortunate.

Russia: Critical warlike conditions will threaten this great nation. Mars will stir the people into an aggressive outlook, while Saturn will still further activate serious disputes and an impasse with foreign powers. Remarkable agreements are indicated with British and American interests. Russia should be on guard against plots, espionage and sabotage, particularly so between the 11th and 17th, and again around the 25th.

London: Feverish rearmament and military preparations will be stimulated. The public will be in a restless state of mind, fearful and uncertain. Radical happenings are indicated. Deaths of prominent statesmen who hold, or have held, high offices in the government, may occur. Agriculture will not be fortunate. Exciting financial activities are indicated. Huge expenditures will strain national resources. Deaths of capitalists may occur. Earlier December should bring marked financial activity, speculation and a boom of the markets. Travel should be carefully planned, for aviation, shipping, motor and railroad accidents will be more numerous.

Paris: Loss through her allies and treaties may occur. Deaths of high governmental officials or former statesmen are indicated. A boom in the financial markets may be followed by severe losses and reversals. Aviation and railroad disasters are shown. Crop and agricultural losses may cause public unrest. Communistic outrages will threaten. France will experience extreme anxiety or peril in connection with a neighboring country.

Italy: Ethiopia will be a menace to Rome's security and fortunes. Unrest of the people will grow greater as the month progresses. The theories of Church and State may produce extreme trouble for the government. Earthquakes and storms are indicated. Public suffering is shown. Radical programs directed against the masses of people will be underway.

Huge expenditures will strain national resources. A new military leader may loom upon the horizon. A purge or elimination of prominent national officials will threaten. Italy may play a deceptive game at the table of European affairs. Royalty may cause public sorrow. Deaths of those in high Church and national positions may occur.

Berlin: The terrific economic strain experienced by this country may now bring the long heralded financial collapse! This is most threatening around December 12 . . . Extreme unrest of the people will threaten governmental stability. Crop and agricultural losses are indicated. Deaths of prominent officials are indicated. Some man who holds, or has held, a high position in the nation may pass on. Serious conflict and further aggressive action against neighboring countries will exist. Military activity will be stupendous. Hitler, if he is still active as the ogre of European affairs, will be threatened by grave danger, especially so around December 12.

General predictions for the Continent are interesting. Some of these are based upon the Lunar eclipse of November 7, which will be powerful in its effects in ensuing weeks and months. An outstanding result or indication of this eclipse is that of the death of a reigning queen. (Such a prediction was made in earlier months of 1938 as the result of eclipse vibrations in Taurus; the death of Queen Marie of Rumania fulfilled the ASTRO-DIGEST prediction).

This eclipse falls in the Tenth House (house of government) of London, Paris, Madrid, Rome, Berlin and all central European countries. The forces of law and authority will be weakened. Radical changes in government will threaten. New leadership will loom upon the horizon of European affairs. Revolution and overthrow of old forms and systems will be attempted by the masses. Unrest will weaken the powers of dictators!

During December, watch the increase of insurance crimes—as Mars enters Scorpio . . . People born in early degrees of Cancer, Pisces and Scorpio (around June 21, 22, 23; February 19, 20, 21; October 24, 25, 26) should get some good breaks as the month ends . . . due to Jupiter's favorable vibrations, as it enters Pisces. A new business and financial improvement should stimulate prosperity and public optimism, after the 22nd. It may be temporarily halted in early January by sensational political and national happenings . . . A strange

DAILY GUIDE FOR DECEMBER

With Day by Day Predictions

PREPARED BY P. H. GRANING

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1

Moon in Pisces, enters Aries at 6:02 p.m.

Today is apt to be rather a trying time for health and business matters. Defer trips or new activities. Try to avoid melancholy or mental fatigue. Depression may be felt by the masses. Development of better conditions will be occurring.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2

Moon in Aries

More financial success should be realized. Promote your important interests. Better results should be realized in working and business matters. Travel will not be favored. Defer social or pleasure activities, for some danger of quarrels and accidents will threaten.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3

Moon in Aries

The Sun forms a trine aspect to Saturn which culminates at 9:29 p.m. This influence should stimulate business, financial and national success. More progress is indicated. Speculation may reach a "new high." Public affairs will be to the fore. This will be a favorable day in which to finish uncompleted work, seek favors and generally establish your affairs on a firm foundation. Social and pleasure activities will be more favored. Increase of buying is indicated.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4

Moon enters Taurus at 1:00 a.m.

Mercury turns retrograde today, at 11:04 a.m. Such a planetary influence tends to halt things in their stride, as it were. Agricultural interests may be affected. Labor and employment matters will be stimulated today, but may lag hereafter until after the 25th. Startling news and political announcements are now indicated. Defer travel for the danger of accidents will be greater. Don't start new activities today for they would be subject to delays.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 5

Moon in Taurus

Mars forms a trine aspect to Jupiter which culminates at 5:24 a.m. This planetary vibration tends to activate financial and business matters in an exciting manner. Sudden monetary and currency changes may be announced. Speculative and investment activity is indicated. Increase of deaths and sickness may occur today, so defer trips or risks through which accidents and danger could be attracted.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6

Moon enters Gemini at 4:18 a.m.

The Sun forms a quintile aspect to Jupiter which culminates at 3:58 p.m. More pleasure and social activity are shown for today. Business and financial progress should bring more optimism. Travel and changes will be stimulated. Don't expect rapid or immediate culmination of your plans for an element of delay and uncertainty will exist during earlier December which is apt to be confusing.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7

Moon in Gemini

Jupiter forms an adverse aspect to Saturn which culminates at 1:15 p.m. The danger of storms and adverse weather conditions will be greater. Public health will not be favored. Travel disasters are indicated. Labor and business may experience set-backs. Disappointments are more apt to occur today. An element of injustice and trouble will need to be met with optimism and confidence. Defer important changes or plans. Public sorrow may be experienced. Safeguard finances.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8

Moon enters Cancer at 5:07 a.m.

Mercury forms a favorable aspect to Mars which continues through 5 o'clock in the afternoon. This should stimulate buying, finances, speculative and business interests. Expect some delays, however. It will be necessary to furnish more force to your activities to get results or to bring things to conclusion. Employment will be more favored. Today will be favorable for buying. Protect health.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9

Moon in Cancer

This will be a favorable day in which to direct your attention toward home, domestic and personal affairs. Work to bring more harmony and happiness into your life. Protect health, for there will be greater danger of intestinal and stomach upsets. Conservative shopping and business activity will be favored. Be careful to avoid quarrels.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10

Moon enters Leo at 5:17 a.m.

Venus turns direct today, so that far more progress, happiness and cheer should begin to spread through our affairs. Pleasures and amusements will be stimulated. National affairs will be to the fore. Women are apt to furnish sensations today. Finances may be stimulated. Try to curb any tendency toward melancholy or irritation, for it will be less easy to remain cheerful and optimistic.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11

Moon in Leo

Mars enters Scorpio at 5:02 p.m. Such a planetary change is sure to accelerate the danger of accidents, quarrels, fires and various types of disasters around this date. Intense excitement may exist in connection with legislative matters. Deaths of those in high governmental positions may occur. Financial quarrels and scandals may threaten. Plan a careful program through today, deferring travel or changes.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 12

Moon enters Virgo at 6:37 a.m.

The Sun forms a favorable aspect to Venus in the early morning hours, but the general trend between the 11th and 16th will be unfavorable. Travel disasters are now apt to occur. Supreme Court losses may cause sorrow. Foreign affairs will be disturbed. Agricultural losses are indicated. Health and working matters will not be favored. An element of confusion, scandal, secrecy and intrigue may now be to the fore. Remain conservative and safeguard your interests. Don't force issues, or yield to the aggressive impulses you may experience.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13

Moon in Virgo

Mars forms a square of Pluto, while Mercury squares Neptune shortly after midnight of the 12th. Severe weather conditions may be reported. Travel disasters are apt to occur. Aviation, especially, will be adversely affected. This period between the 11th and 16th may be another of those disastrous transportation cycles in which peculiar, unforeseen accidents and crashes occur. Safeguard important mail and communications to avoid loss or delay. Don't place too much reliance upon news or rumors which come to you. Protect health, defer travel and remain serene, despite apparently disturbed conditions. Marked increase of deaths may be reported. Children and young people should be particularly careful. Heavy financial losses could occur. Speculation will not be favored. Grains and foodstuffs may mount in price, however.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14

Moon enters Libra at 10:27 a.m.

The Sun forms a conjunction with Mercury in the early morning hours, while Saturn turns direct at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Today will be another unfavorable day when care should be taken in your affairs. National sorrow or difficulties may exist. Set-backs are indicated. Increase of deaths may be reported. Defer pleasures and social activities. Be particularly discreet and avoid friction, if you are married or "in love." Sex crimes and tragedies arising from emotional entanglements may threaten many people. Heavy financial losses could now occur.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15

Moon in Libra

The Sun squares Neptune at 4:25 p.m., bringing still more confusion and difficulty. Be careful during this adverse period to avoid deception and intrigue. Hoaxes, in world, national and individual affairs, can be expected—especially so around the 13th and 15th. Public health, employment and labor interests, transportation, radio, aviation and shipping interests will be affected by extremely adverse conditions. Scandals thrive under such vibrations. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones. Avoid risks in pleasures or sports.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16

Moon enters Scorpio at 5:13 a.m.

Mercury will be in adverse aspect to Mars today, stimulating the danger of quarrels, accidents and fires. Travel disasters are indicated. Weather conditions will not be favored. Political disputes and scandals may create national excitement. Crimes may increase. Try to curb anger or irritation you may feel, and avoid recklessness. Pleasures will not be favored.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17

Moon in Scorpio

More financial and business activity should now exist. Promote your important affairs, but do so carefully to avoid loss or trouble. Pleasures and social activities should be deferred, for the danger of accidents and quarrels will still exist.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 18

Moon in Scorpio

Mercury forms a favorable aspect to Jupiter today, which culminates at 6:07 p.m. This should stimulate travel, news, happiness and personal affairs. Better conditions should begin to exist. A more optimistic, harmonious spirit may now spread, to bring us closer to the true Spirit of the Christmas Season. The day will be favorable for correspondence, and adjustment of your affairs.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19

Moon enters Sagittarius at 2:31 a.m.

Public health will not be favored today. More nervous strain and tension may exist. Travel will not be favored. Upsets in working matters may occur. Army, naval and aviation interests are apt to suffer set-backs; disasters could affect them. More public activity is indicated, however, so that business and trade will be stimulated.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20

Moon in Sagittarius

The Sun forms a favorable aspect to Jupiter which culminates at 4:06 p.m. This should bring more activity in business and financial matters. Travel will be stimulated, although the danger of accidents will still exist. News and correspondence will be favored. Foreign affairs may be more promising. Important happenings may make this a "red-letter" day of the month. Promote your affairs to bring more gain and success.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21

Moon enters Capricorn at 1:39 p.m.

Today is the day of the New Moon which officially begins at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. More activity, progress and success can now be attracted. Press forward in your affairs, but remain conservative. Foreign affairs will not be favored, although they are apt to be in the limelight! Sudden upsets in financial circles may cause uneasiness. Don't start new activities today unless you are prepared for delays. Danger of accidents will be greater.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22

Moon in Capricorn

The Sun enters Capricorn in the early morning hours, while Mars forms a parallel aspect to Jupiter which culminates at 4:57 p.m. Today will be an important date in world affairs. Warlike conditions may be emphasized despite frantic efforts to maintain peace. Try to avoid unrest. Follow a routine program throughout the day. Stimulation of business should occur.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23

Moon in Capricorn

Important national and political happenings are indicated for today. Business and finances should improve. Promote your affairs but remain conservative. Be careful not to accumulate too much or expand. Radical changes are indicated during the evening hours, which should stimulate more successful achievement on the morrow.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24

Moon enters Aquarius at 1:59 a.m.

Mercury turns direct at 5:08 a.m., followed by a favorable aspect between Venus and Neptune which continues through the evening hours, until 9:11 o'clock. After that time, the evening will be extremely adverse. Upturn in business should exist today. Buying power of the public should be stimulated in a sensational, surprising manner. More happiness, good fortune and pleasure will stir our general lives. Big achievements can be realized. Important news and reports are shown which should bring more optimism. Pleasure and amusement will be more favored.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 25

Moon in Aquarius

Neptune turns retrograde today, at 4:51 p.m. This will further emphasize the adverse aspect between Mars and Neptune which exists in the early morning hours. Terrible travel disasters may be reported. The peaceful chimes of Christmas bells may ring out upon confusion, intrigue and unrest. Disappointments and secret sorrows may be fostered in many lives. Crimes may increase. Weather will not be favored. Fiery disasters are indicated. Health will need to be safeguarded. Be very careful in connection with food and drink, for danger of food poisoning and intoxication will be intensified. You can bring peace and harmony into your own life today, despite the trend to which others may react.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 26

Moon enters Pisces at 2:41 p.m.

Financial and business matters will be more active today. Health will not be favored, however. The danger of accidents, crimes and sickness will be greater. Defer travel and guard correspondence or important messages. Plan a routine course today, to avoid complications.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 27

Moon in Pisces

Secretive crimes may occur today. An element of intrigue and deception will be greater. Things may seem slow and inactive. Adjust yourself to conditions which may arise, rather than try to force issues. Defer travel or changes. Important developments are ahead. Increase of financial and business activity should be noticed.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28

Moon in Pisces

More power, aggressive progress and activity should be noticed in our affairs, but remain conservative. Unforeseen set-backs or hindrances may be encountered. Travel will not be favored. Foreign affairs may interfere with national progress. Trouble with neighboring countries may cause grave concern.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 29

Moon enters Aries at 2:14 a.m.

Jupiter enters Pisces at noon . . . and a new "start" in celestial energy begins, which may be a prelude to new conditions in world history. Financial and business progress may be more pronounced. Big money activities are indicated. Remain conservative, however, for trouble lies ahead during the first three days of January—so that risks of a financial nature should not be curtailed. More pleasure, happiness and success can now be attracted. Weather conditions may be adversely affected.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30

Moon in Aries

More progress and public activity may now exist. Health will need to be safeguarded, however. Promote your affairs in a confident manner, but remain constructive and discreet. Defer travel today, for danger of accidents will be greater. Agricultural and weather conditions may not be favored.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31

Moon enters Taurus at 10:47 a.m.

The danger of quarrels, fires and accidents will be greater today, but more activity is indicated, nevertheless. Promote your affairs in a constructive, stabilizing manner. More excitement, amusement and pleasure will be sought by the masses. Be careful in planning your pleasures or celebration of New Year's Eve—for the evening and night hours will not be favorable. And . . .

Bon Voyage into 1939!

HOUSE EXPRESSIONS

BY DR. GUSTAVE EKSTROM

In our analysis of House Expressions, it must be borne in mind that they are not complete but refer to certain mental and basic reactions of the relationships of signs and houses without planetary interpretation. Our subject in this issue is "Mental Expressions", dealing with the Third House and sign influence to other houses and zodiacal signs. The positions of the planets will determine variations in the analysis. The planets' positions will be dealt with in future articles.

MENTAL EXPRESSIONS

Aries: Interest in objective and subjective matters. Must watch mental attitudes. Is independent. Wishes to be considered important. Often feels that money aids importance. LIVE AND LOVE

BY P. H. GRANING

*"I hold it true that thoughts are things
Endowed with being, breath and wings
And that we send them forth to fill
The world with good results—or ill.
They follow the law of the Universe
Each thing creates its kind.
And they speed o'er the track to bring you back
Whatever went out from your mind."*

THE CONDITIONS and details of our emotional life alter and vary. Circumstances change. The barometer of our happiness and enjoyment of life rises or falls according to those influences which affect our mental outlook and emotional impulses. We are content and inspired at one time; discontented and irritable at another. Our feelings and emotions undergo strange fluctuation. We can enjoy friendships, social and romantic ties; then again these bore us, or we feel repulsed by those whom we ordinarily love and like.

What is the cause of our changing emotional tides? If we can understand that the energy which activates our lives is constantly altering and changing, just as the tides, we then can more intelligently develop compassion, sympathy and patience in our emotional and personal relationships. We can also establish more self-control (balance) in our own emotional centres.

Astrology helps us to live more abundantly and happily. At the times when configurations exist which warn us of discordant energy which is apt to produce stormy relations with other people or disturb the regular harmony and normal procedure of our lives, we can be prepared for such conditions. We can consciously determine that the balance of our own temperament will not be disturbed. These times when emotional tests arise are critical cycles or "tests" which often undermine one's success and curtail opportunities. In a moment of stress, the man who can "hold his temper" or remain poised and balanced is the man who attracts the recognition, respect and admiration of his fellows. The woman who develops full control of her emotional faculties to the extent that harmony reigns within, during any time of mental or emotional strain, is the woman who rises to the place of happiness for which she yearns.

It might be a good idea to pause and analyze what we mean by emotions. Feeling, which is expressed in so many countless, diverse ways, is the word we can choose to best illustrate the term "emotion." "How are you feeling today?" is just another way of asking about your emotional status at any particular time. You either feel well or poorly; you are attracted or repulsed by happenings, people or conditions. Your feelings rise and fall attuned to some peculiar, nameless, unfelt but potent force of energy which tends to dictate them. You, and you alone have the power to combat feeling and change it to a constructive channel of expression.

Emotion, itself, is neutral. It is fluidic in action, we might say. When expressed on the material plane (or in physical form) it takes many forms. Constructively manifested, emotion assumes the expression of joy, love, friendliness, interest, grace, laughter, fellowship, enjoyment and all such forms. Negatively or destructively expressed, emotion is expressed through the channels of hate, vengeance, jealousy, suspicion, unfriendliness, coldness, dislike and combativeness.

Our emotions are influenced by many varying streams of energy which are analyzed through Astrology. Mars, Saturn, Jupiter, Venus, Neptune and Uranus have a stupendous part to play, astrologically speaking, in our emotional relationships and experiences. When we feel "gay" and romantic, Venus is the planetary energy to which we are reacting. When we feel quarrelsome, angry, combative and emotionally aggressive, stirring to the slightest touch or smile, Mars is responsible. When we feel cold, friendless, suspicious or fearful, of Saturn is to blame. Neptune is at the helm when we feel restless, dissatisfied, secretive, tempted to become involved in scheming intrigue or secretive relationships to escape some dissatisfying element of life. When we become aroused to adventurous, vigorous, separative, erratic search for love, romance and a "place in the Sun," to the point that we may break all laws of conduct to release our feel- ings which dictate action, then it is that Uranus is dictator.

Our innate temperament and emotional nature must be known and understood, in addition to the temporary planetary influences which accelerate or retard our natural emotional expression. If trouble, disappointment or heart ache loom before you during any part of the year, defer your important social or friendship activities until a time when more auspicious, harmonious conditions will exist to stimulate enjoyment, happiness and gain. Know the "times and seasons" along the emotional route you are to follow at any time.

And now, let's review the emotional trends of December, so that each of us may have a general understanding of the forces which will affect our happiness and enjoyment of life during that month.

ARIES (those born between March 21 and April 20):

Friendships and social matters should be especially favored for Aries people. Unusually fortunate friendships can be attracted. Gain and favors from friends and people who care for you are indicated. A more friendly, social type of life can be enjoyed this month. You who have birthdays on March 31, April 1, 2 may experience somewhat disappointing or restricting conditions at times this month. Saturn in your own sign of Aries tends to hold back your happiness or it may cause sorrow or anxiety in connection with others. Watch your mental and emotional reaction to disturbing conditions, to avoid becoming cold, suspicious or melancholy. The critical time of the month for Aries people seems to center around the 12th through 16th, when upsets in connection with other people could arise. Marriage and romance will now beckon to many of you who are born in this sign. More activity will exist in connection with loved ones or close associates. The test for Aries people will be that of co-operation and patience with others. You are apt to feel less considerate or patient from time to time.

TAURUS (those born between April 20 and May 21):

A less happy, serene month may be experienced by many Taurus people. This will be a time when you who are born between April 20 and May 4 will need to more carefully protect your affairs to avoid difficulties or trouble. Your emotions are now apt to be aroused to a higher pitch. You may feel more aggressive or easily angered. Less emotional restraint is indicated. Difficulties in family, marital and friendship ties are apt to threaten from time to time. Don't expect your emotional life to be altogether smooth and harmonious. Someone you love may cause anxiety or secret sorrow between the 13th and 17th. Don't depend too much upon others this month. A more deceptive or disillusioning trend is apt to be experienced by many Taurus people whose emotional affairs are disturbed and stormy. Keep a firm grip upon your feelings and don't get involved in quarrels or complications with others.

GEMINI (those born between May 21 and June 21):

Far happier conditions should generally exist for Gemini people this month. However, if you are born between June 13 and 17th it will be necessary for you to more cautiously safeguard your affairs; some disturbing influences will be felt in family, marital and emotional relationships of people born on those dates. The health or working affairs of Gemini people may interfere with pleasures or social activities at times during December. This is especially apt to threaten between December 12 and 17, and again around the 24th, 25th. More romance, love affairs and pleasures should be generally enjoyed by you who are born in this sign, especially so between the 1st and 11th. This will be a month when you can attract worthwhile things and people. Your emotional nature should be more optimistic, cheerful and inspiring. Nervous strain may be felt, at times, in connection with intimate associates.

CANCER (those born between June 21 and July 23):

Cancer people can prepare for a very exciting month. Your emotional interests will be of major importance. More love, romance, happiness and pleasures can be generally enjoyed until the 12th. The period between the 12th and 17th is apt to cause intense emotional and mental strain. Quarrels, the danger of accidents or strain upon the heart ties will be more threatening. Sudden upsets or separations from others could occur during that time, especially. Watch your emotional outlook, to avoid being too sensitive. Your feelings will be stronger and closer to the surface so that it will be less easy for you to use restraint. Some relative or neighbor may cause anxiety. More amusements, pleasures and social activity should be enjoyed this month. You who are constructive and wise should be able to enjoy more fun, love and excitement in connection with loved ones than has been the case in several months. This is a time when Cancerian people can realize new love and romance, if you are so interested; or stimulate more genuine happiness with existing love ties and domestic associations.

LEO (those born between July 23 and August 23):

Leo people have a far more exciting, promising period during December. One adverse trend will exist between December 12 and 17, however, which could cause intense emotional strain. Loved ones could cause sorrow or disappointment. Emotional matters will need to be carefully safeguarded during that time. Don't expect too much of others then, or let your feelings dominate your decisions. Pleasures and social activities should be deferred at adverse times this month. The 3rd, 8th, 20th will be the most favorable dates in December for your social, pleasure and emotional interests. At times, you are apt to feel less serene or happy with others. The danger of quarrels, intense mental unrest and irritation will thus be greater. The month seems to test your ability to adjust yourself and your own inclinations to others! Marriage will be more favored this month. Domestic and family affairs may cause strain or friction after the 11th.

VIRGO (those born between August 23 and September 21):

Somewhat secretive friendships or romantic attachments are now indicated for many Virgo people. More correspondence, pleasant invitations and short trips may be stimulated this month. Relatives should generally prove to be a source of greater happiness or good fortune, although strain or irritation could arise in connection with them between the 11th and 17th, and again around the 24th. Domestic and family matters may demand more attention, so that your private life will be more important to you this month. If you are born on September 15, 16, 17, 18 Neptune will be adverse to your complete happiness. Anxiety, secret matters or intense emotional strain may be felt from time to time in connection with loved ones and close heart ties. You should carefully safeguard your affairs to avoid deception or disillusionment. You who feel the strong tug of emotional attraction for others should closely examine their stability and reliability before trusting your feelings too greatly. December will really be a month in which Virgo people will be wise to "mark time" in important emotional matters, rather than expect too much from others.

LIBRA (those born between September 21 and October 23):

Romance will be actively stimulated in the lives of many Libra people. More pleasures, amusements and emotional enjoyment of life are now indicated. You who are married may experience difficulties, however, in connection with the partner. You will need to carefully watch your own emotional outlook in order to avoid coldness, melancholy or anxiety in connection with others. Friendships and social matters may cause trouble or prove very expensive to you between the 11th and 17th. A very deceptive or disturbing trend is then apt to exist in your emotional and personal relationships. This is a month in which it will be necessary for you to keep balanced and harmonious with other people, rather than force issues. Your pleasures or emotional relationships are now apt to prove more expensive or demand more attention than is wise. You will be more magnetic, aggressive and dominating so that it may be less easy to get along agreeably with other people.

SCORPIO (those born between October 23 and November 21):

Venus will be in your own birthsign of Scorpio all this month. This helps to balance and harmonize your affairs, especially so if you are born between November 11 and 21. More love, favors, gifts and emotional happiness can be attracted. You who are born between October 23 and November 6 will need to more carefully safeguard your affairs after the 11th. The threat of quarrels or emotional strain will be greater, particularly so between the 12th and 17th. It will be less easy for you to control your feelings. Intense anger, dislike and a too aggressive attitude could cause serious troubles to arise with other people unless you keep a firm grip upon your feelings and impulses. Friendships and social affairs will be more favored this month except on the 13th, 15th, 16th. The danger of disillusioning experiences, false friends or disappointment in social matters will exist at those times. Don't let your feelings dominate your decisions or life this month, for this will threaten. Try to be a comrade, friend and understanding companion, attracting the love and harmony in life for which you yearn.

SAGITTARIUS (those born between November 21 and December 21):

Your friendship, social and emotional interests will be stimulated in a very happy manner until the 12th. Plan your important activities during the earlier part of the month. More happiness and enjoyment of life should be realized. Important friendships and gains through others are indicated. Somewhat secretive good luck or friendships are apt to exist for many Sagittarius people. Your emotional and mental outlook should be more free, hopeful and optimistic. Trips, correspondence and invitations are apt to figure more prominently in your plans. With the 12th, however, a less happy, carefree condition may be experienced. This is especially true for you who are born on December 13, 14, 15, 16. Upsets are apt to occur in your personal life. Deceptive or troubled elements are shown. Keep your affairs safeguarded from the imposition or intrigue of others, avoiding all secretive or questionable associations through which unhappiness or trouble could come. Sagittarius people are apt to feel more irritable, tense or restless between the 12th and 17th. Unwise decisions or quarrelsome conditions are then apt to be experienced.

CAPRICORN (those born between December 21 and January 21):

Well, you children of Capricorn have an especially exciting month ahead of you! Venus will stimulate friendships and social activities. More fun and enjoyment of life should be realized between the 1st and 11th, and after the 17th. The period between the 12th and 17th will be somewhat trying or quarrelsome. Friends are then apt to cause trouble or difficulties. Other people may be ill or create strain for you. Social and friendship matters will be definitely adverse during that time. Secret enmity or disappointment could be experienced. Uranus will generally stimulate more excitement and emotional activity this month. "Love at first sight" may be experienced by many of you. Capricorn people who are married are apt to have some friction or anxiety arise in connection with the partner. The family and domestic affairs may cause sorrow or restriction from time to time this month, especially for you who are born on January 1, 2, 3. Your outlook should expand and grow far more optimistic as the month ends.

AQUARIUS (those born between January 21 and February 19):

Aquarius people who are born between February 11 and 19 should experience more good luck, happiness and enjoyment of life this month. Jupiter will help to expand and improve your personal affairs. You should be more optimistic and hopeful, better able to attract good fortune, love and favors. You who are born between January 21 and February 4 may experience more strain, friction or irritation during December. Mars and Uranus will be adverse to you, tending to cause family upsets and emotional strain with loved ones. Watch your emotions, so that reason and discretion dominate your trend of life. Trouble through or with others will be more threatening, especially so between the 12th and 17th. More popularity can be enjoyed by Aquarius people. Friendships and social matters will be particularly activated, but adversely so between the 12th and 17th, when a deceptive or secretive influence is apt to exist in friendships. Disappointment may then be experienced, in your anticipations of happiness or gains from others. Be a friend this month. Unexpected happiness from one who loves you may cause surprise.

PISCES (those born between February 19 and March 21):

You are apt to be mentally disturbed at times this month, so that unrest, fears or material responsibilities interfere with your complete enjoyment of love and happiness. You who are married may experience anxiety or strain in connection with the partner, especially so between the 12th and 17th. In all intimate, close associations of Pisces people, an element of secret enmity, rivalry or disillusionment will threaten. You will thus be wise to safeguard your interests, to avoid loss or trouble through others. This is particularly true for you who are born on March 12, 13, 14, 15. Pleasure trips, correspondence with people at a distance and new friendships should bring more enjoyment this month. Pisces people will now have better opportunities to attract worthwhile things and people. More love and enjoyment of life can be realized at favorable times of December. You are apt to be more aspiring and thrilled with new plans, rather than with ordinary pleasures or amusements.

The December Outlook for Aries

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between March 21 and April 20

YOU can take advantage of new opportunities which arise this month. December should generally be a time of progress and achievement. If you are born on April 1, 2 it will be necessary for you to more carefully safeguard your affairs, rather than start new activities. You should be prepared for delays or temporary obstacles. Income of Aries people should now improve. More ambition, hope and confidence should stimulate your outlook. Travel, news, changes and higher aspirations are keynotes of progress this month.

Health and working interests will not be favored between the 13th and 17th. It will then be necessary for Aries folk to carefully protect their physical welfare. Travel should be deferred. Bad news and mental unrest could disturb your working affairs. Something of a secretive or fraudulent nature could then arise in your activities. You are apt to feel restless and dissatisfied, so that unwise decisions or changes could be made. Legal matters will be definitely adverse during this period of the month. The health, finances and affairs of another person are apt to cause anxiety or strain. Safeguard the welfare of loved ones, and carefully avoid pleasure or financial risks.

At favorable times of December, you should be able to make far more progress and attract happiness or gain. Friendship and social matters will be extremely favored. New friends and acquaintances can prove fortunate. An expansion should exist in this phase of your life. Mars will activate marriage, partnerships and public contacts, but with the 13th an adverse trend will exist in these matters. The danger of quarrels or strain with others will be greater. After the 17th, generally benefic conditions should once again help to benefit your heart ties and friendships. More love, gifts, favors and goodwill should be attracted from others at this Christmas season. If you can check your own restlessness and desire for big, quick returns you should be able to make this month count for real achievement! You will have to be more cooperative with others during December—that will determine the degree of success and happiness you attain.

The first week of December should be more favorable for your affairs. Friendships, social and business activity will be stimulated. Marriage and romantic attachments will have greater appeal for many Aries people. Work to stabilize and harmonize your affairs. Travel, legal matters and correspondence should be activated for many people born in this sign. Higher aspirations and marked ability to achieve your ambitions are keynotes of this week. Don't expand or spend too much, as you'll be inclined to do. Follow an even, harmonious road of life. Build your health and vitality. Get important tasks done. Finish the work you may have started.

The second week will be favorable until the 13th. Social and friendship matters should prove beneficial. Enjoy life and endeavor to harmonize your different associations. Promote the important plans or activities which demand your attention. Forge ahead in a generally optimistic manner but remain conservative. After the 12th, an extremely adverse trend will exist which continues through the 18th.

During the third week, health, finances and affairs of other people may cause strain or trouble. Health and work will need to be safeguarded. Upsets are indicated. Travel or legal matters will not be favored. It will be less easy for you to get along with others. Pleasures, financial or emotional matters will not be favored. Protect the welfare of children and other loved ones very carefully. Defer changes. Don't trust your own feelings or impulses too greatly, for you could be mistaken.

The fourth week should definitely improve your prospects, although health and working matters may still require careful attention. The danger of quarrels or strain in connection with others will be greater on the 24th, 25th. A more happy, harmonious time should be enjoyed, however, if you can restrain your own impatience which you may feel. The last four days of the month will activate your business and public interests, so that more activity and progress should exist.

Favorable days: 1 through 12, 19 through 26, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 27, 28

December Outlook

... for Taurus

★
For Those Born Between
April 20 and May 21

THIS month may not be altogether happy or harmonious for Taurus people. More friction, delays or hindrances are apt to be encountered. It will be less easy for you to advance. Various interests of life may cause anxiety or strain. You will have to be constructive and conservative. The threat of trouble through or with other people will be stronger.

Business, working and financial matters should be very much favored between the 1st and 12th. Forge ahead in your affairs during that time. Finish uncompleted work and do your important tasks. More success should be attracted. This will be the time in which to promote those major working or business interests which demand your attention. Employment will be generally favored for Taurus people. More gain and goodwill can be attracted from other people. Try to avoid overwork or strain, however, for you are apt to tax your strength and vitality. The tendency to work too hard or neglect your health due to working or business demands will be greater. Follow a constructive health and dietary regime during earlier December, when this should be most beneficial.

Personal and emotional relationships are apt to be of major importance. Mars will disturb marital and intimate associations. The danger of quarrels or strain will be stronger, for you who are married. Friction will threaten. It will be less easy to cooperate with others. Enmity or rivalry may be felt. The health and finances of other people are apt to cause anxiety. You who are born between April 20 and May 6 will need to avoid risks, quarrels or changes—Mars will be adverse to you after the 11th. The danger of quarrels, accidents and strain is always greater at such a time. Some secretive or disappointing condition is apt to arise in connection with someone you love. You will be wise not to depend too much upon others. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones, especially so between the 13th and 18th, and again around the 25th.

New financial or investment activities will not be wise this month. Defer your important plans and new undertakings, for a far more auspicious financial influence is indicated in coming months which promises gain rather than loss or uncertainty.

The first week will be generally favorable for Taurus activities. More good fortune and achievement are indicated. Gains in health, working, business and emotional affairs can be realized. Happiness and good luck in connection with other people should exist. This will be the time in which to seek recognition or favors. Harmonize your affairs and bring peace and happiness into your associations with loved ones.

The second week should be favorable for your affairs until the 13th, although you should begin to safeguard your interests from the 11th on. The danger of quarrels, accidents and trouble with others will grow greater as this week advances. You are apt to feel rash and reckless. Emotional upsets are indicated. Quarrels with loved ones (marriage, romantic, family associations especially) will be more threatening. The danger of violent upsets or accidents will exist for Taurus people and their intimate associates. Legal, financial and domestic affairs will not be favored. Defer all new undertakings. Safeguard your own health and personal welfare. Enmity may be felt from others.

The third week will continue the unfavorable aspects until after the 18th. A more rash, quarrelsome time may be experienced. Loved ones are apt to cause concern. All risks should be deferred. Pleasures will not be favored. Heavy losses or strain through others could be experienced. The danger of accidents and friction with others will be greater. Follow a conservative, restrained course of action. Conditions should begin to grow more favorable as this week ends.

The fourth week should be especially benefic, if you can control the emotional strain which is indicated. Defer really important matters until the 27th, if possible. Changing, better conditions should begin to ease the tension which you may have felt earlier this month. Friendships, social matters and income will be especially favored as the month ends, especially so on the 28th.

Favorable days: 1 through 12, 19 through 28

Unfavorable: 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 29, 30

The December Outlook for Gemini

For Those Born Between May 21 and June 21

GEMINI people will experience both favorable and adverse conditions this month. The period between the 1st and 12th is generally favorable for your affairs, so that you should actively advance your interests during that time. Romantic, pleasure and emotional matters may take more time and attention during December. You will feel more vigorous, aggressive and emotional. Your own interests may have greater appeal than friendships and social matters which seem to be disappointing or curtailed. You will be striving to realize new aspirations and ambitions.

With the 13th, Mars will begin to affect health, working and business interests in an adverse manner. This will continue through the 16th. You will need to carefully avoid overwork or strain. More may then be demanded of you. Travel, correspondence, health and employment affairs of Gemini people will not be favored. Brothers, sisters and other close relatives may cause anxiety or trouble. A deceptive or troubled trend in domestic affairs may be experienced by many Gemini people during that time (especially so on the 13th, 15th). All agreements or intimate associations should be safeguarded. An element of loss or enmity will exist. This is particularly true for you who are born on June 13, 14, 15, 16. New undertakings, schemes, investments or important deals should be deferred. Delays in realizing your expectations or gains from others can be expected.

After the 16th, health and working matters will be more favored, although more strain or harder work may exist. Later December will be a generally promising time for you who seek employment or business advancement. This will also be a splendid period for health and body building. If you are cautious and discreet, you should be able to make much more progress in your ambitious plans. If you are too aggressive or become thoughtless, you can expect friction to exist in connection with others. December is a month when harmony, co-operation and closer association with others will be the keynote of progress.

The first week will be generally favorable for Gemini affairs. More progress and opportunity should be realized. This will be the time in which to forge ahead to finish uncompleted work or terminate your important activities. Important agreements or plans in connection with other people may be to the fore. Defer such matters after the 4th, however, for they are then apt to be unsatisfactory until Mercury turns direct on the 24th. Marriage, partnerships, romantic and emotional matters will be more favored during this first week. Plan your social, pleasure and personal activities for this time. Important correspondence, news or a trip may figure in your affairs.

The second week will be favorable until the 13th. An extremely adverse trend then commences which continues through the 16th. All important interests should then be protected. Defer your plans and new activities. A deceptive, troubled trend is apt to exist in connection with other people. Rivalry or enmity may be felt. Health will need to be carefully safeguarded. Working and business upsets can be expected. More worry, anxiety and secret sorrow may exist. Don't get your affairs involved with other people. Trips and legal matters will not be favored. Marriage, domestic and emotional interests of Gemini people will be troubled. Remain patient, diplomatic and agreeable. Maintain harmony with others, and don't force changes.

The third week will be more promising after the 17th. Delays or disappointing conditions may still be experienced, however, in connection with other people. More co-operation and responsibility may be demanded of you. Health and working matters can be advanced if you are careful to avoid strain. A tendency to overdo or try to accomplish too much will need to be controlled. Follow a routine program during this time.

The fourth week will be more favorable, although the 25th is apt to bring strain in domestic, personal and private affairs. Upsets in health and family matters could be experienced. Business and financial matters will be more favored as the month ends. An upturn should exist in your affairs, so that you will feel more hopeful and optimistic.

Favorable days: 1 through 4, 7 through 12, 18 through 31

Unfavorable: 6, 13, 14, 15, 16,

The December Outlook for Cancer

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between June 21 and July 23

CANCERIAN people have an exciting month indicated during December. You should be more popular and magnetic, better able to attract happiness and good fortune from others. Domestic and emotional matters will be to the fore, although intense strain on the heart ties may exist between the 13th and 16th. More fun, pleasure and enjoyment of life can be realized if you are conservative and discreet during the adverse time.

Gain through past investments will now be more promising. Ability will be greater to realize financial and business gains. Employment will be favored except on the 13th and 16th, although some irritating problems or delays can be expected between the 5th and 25th. Try to adjust difficulties or differences which may arise in your working and business affairs. Your health is apt to be strained at times this month, so that you may feel more moody, sensitive or irritable. The period prior to the 4th and after the 25th will be especially favorable for interviews in connection with employment, or for changes in your working interests. Correspondence and trips are apt to be more prominent, in working and business activities. Your environment may not be altogether harmonious and congenial, so that mental anxiety and unrest will need to be restrained. It may be less easy for you to be attentive or wholly interested in your working or daily tasks. Try to do your important work at favorable times of the month so that you can avoid mental or physical strain at the adverse times. You will be much more emotional this month. The general trend is favorable, but after the 12th, Mars will accentuate emotional strain. Likes and dislikes are then apt to be emphasized. Quarrels with loved ones may threaten. Danger of accidents in pleasures, sports or amusement activities will be greater, especially so between the 13th and 18th. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones during that period, and try to avoid a too passionate reaction to people or conditions. This will be a month in which love, marriage and companionship with those you care for can bring more happiness and good fortune, if you can maintain harmony and peace with others.

The first week should be very fortunate, although sudden aspects of a financial and friendly nature could occur around the 5th. But the general trend is favorable. More gain, happiness and good fortune can be attracted through others. Promote your important plans, finish uncompleted work and endeavor to stabilize your affairs. Pleasures, romantic attachments and greater happiness should be stimulated for Cancer people. Important family and domestic developments are indicated.

The second week will continue the favorable trend, although you should begin to curb your activities. Some delays or strained conditions are apt to exist in working and business matters. Health will require more attention. With the 13th, definitely adverse aspects will exist, so that travel, changes, health, working and family matters will not be favored. Pleasures and social activities should be deferred. New undertakings will be unwise. Safeguard the welfare of children and other loved ones. The danger of quarrels and emotional upheavals will be greater. Loved ones may cause anxiety or strain. Try to maintain peace and harmony in all intimate associations. Violent emotional attachments may attract many Cancer people, but this would be unwise. Curb any tendency to spend money or take financial risks which may now appeal to you. Upsets in working and environmental affairs can be expected. Watch correspondence carefully and don't express your ideas or views, for this could cause enmity or misrepresentation. Some secret anxiety may be felt in connection with relatives.

The third week will be adverse through the 18th. Better conditions should then begin to stimulate health, working and personal matters. A generally favorable trend should then continue on through the rest of the month, although you will need to exercise more self-control in regard to loved ones or emotional relationships. You will want more excitement, pleasure and adventure. Seek to attract happiness and cooperation, rather than insist upon it. Unexpected good luck should be realized as the month ends.

Favorable days: 1 through 12, 19 through 30

Unfavorable: 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18

December Outlook ... for Leo

For Those Born Between
July 23 and August 23

IMPORTANT planetary changes may now result in outstanding changes in Leo lives. The keynote of the month will be that of adjustment to conditions rather than reforms. Try to maintain harmony in your personal and emotional relationships. You are apt to feel more serious, so that pleasures or emotional matters may not bring the enjoyment and happiness you seek. An element of friction and strife may exist from time to time as a test to your patience and co-operative qualities.

If you are born between July 23 and August 6, Mars will be adverse to your affairs from the 12th on through the remainder of the month. Such a planetary influence tends to create quarrelsome conditions, irritation and poor judgment. Family, domestic and personal matters are less serene. The danger of quarrels and accidents is greater. Investments or impulsive changes in financial or private affairs should be deferred. More care will be necessary to avoid unwise decisions, haste and recklessness which tends to dictate mistakes you might later regret.

Plan a conservative financial course during December. Neptune will present schemes, intrigue, fraud and disappointing propositions to many Leo people through which loss would be attracted. It will be more difficult for you to feel secure and content about money matters. This is especially true between the 13th and 16th. It may be necessary to sacrifice for other people. Safeguard your finances more carefully from loss through others. Investments or speculative risks will not be wise. Gain through past investments can be realized at favorable times of the month. You may find it necessary to be more co-operative and patient with others, in financial matters. A trend of gain will exist in your affairs, if you can work with close associates.

Travel, news, correspondence and changes of environment will be activated earlier in the month. After the 11th, defer such matters as much as is possible. This will not be an auspicious time for major issues of your life to be decided. Your personal affairs will be to the fore, demanding more attention and interest. You can bring more happiness and harmony into your life now if you endeavor to do so.

The first week will be extremely favorable for your affairs. More good fortune can be attracted. Pleasures and emotional happiness will be favored. Plan your trips, correspondence, changes and important activities during this time. Press forward with inspiration. Finish up uncompleted work. This will be a fortunate week for achieving the things you may have planned for December. Exciting news and messages may be received. You should be more ambitious, progressive and aspiring. More activity is indicated in financial and social matters.

The second week will be favorable until the 12th. At that time, Mars will begin to adversely affect your affairs. Plan your important activities during earlier days of the week so that you can begin to safeguard your interests and be prepared for the unfavorable trend. From the 12th through 17th, an element of strain will exist in Leo affairs. Safeguard finances very carefully on the 13th. Avoid new undertakings or risks. Pleasures will not be favored. Family and emotional upsets are apt to arise. Health and personal welfare will need to be carefully protected as this week ends.

The third week will be adverse until the 20th. Financial and emotional difficulties may threaten. Your own outlook upon life will not be altogether happy and serene. Defer pleasures. Curb expenditures as much as possible. A very deceptive or disappointing trend will cause secret sorrow or anxiety. Safeguard your own welfare, and that of loved ones on the 16th, especially. Better conditions should exist on the 20th, so that more happiness, love and good fortune can then be realized.

The fourth week will be generally favorable, although financial and emotional upsets are still apt to affect your affairs. Try to remain conservative. Let the sunshine of your own nature glow upon those about you. Make this a truly peaceful, harmonious Christmas Week, giving that which you wish to attract. Defer important plans until the last week. The last four days of December should greatly improve your prospects. Work and business will be more favored.

Favorable days: 1 through 11, 19 through 28, 29, 30

Unfavorable: 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, 27

The December Outlook for Virgo

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between August 23 and September 21

DECEMBER should be an exceptionally favorable month for many Virgo people. Although an adverse trend will exist in some of your affairs, progress can be realized. It will be necessary for you to co-operate and work with others to maintain harmony or security. At times you may feel nervous, strained and anxious about conditions. Don't intensify seemingly unfortunate happenings or worries for you will be more sensitive to them.

Financial prospects will be favored, especially so during the first ten days of the month. Mars indicates increase of income and earning power. More money should be attracted. This will be the time in which to promote important business and financial plans or activities. Between the 12th and 17th, however, an upsetting period is indicated which will require good judgment to negotiate. All new plans, schemes or ideas should be curtailed to avoid deception or loss. December will generally favor advancement in employment and working prospects, especially so between the 1st and 10th, and again around the 20th.

Your own mental and emotional outlook upon life will need to be watched this month, particularly so if you are born on September 15, 16, 17, 18. A secretive, deceptive trend will exist in your affairs so that it will be necessary to be on guard against loss. Family and private affairs may cause anxiety. Your health will require attention. Inattentiveness could cause financial and personal losses. All propositions and associations should be scrutinized very carefully. Secret enmity may be felt.

After the 11th, you will be more aggressive, hasty and mentally active. It will be less easy for you to concentrate upon one goal or objective. The danger of accidents and quarrels will then be greater. Changes or moves will be desired. More correspondence and news will be stimulated. Keep yourself occupied so that you do not grow too restless or mentally disturbed. Trips or hasty moves will not be favored between the 11th and 17th. Danger of accidents, sickness or quarrels in connection with relatives or neighbors will be more threatening for Virgo people. Be very careful in regard to letters or speech.

After the 22nd, more pleasures, love and romance will be activated in Virgo lives. Pleasant news, invitations, messages and friendships are shown. An element of greater happiness and contentment will exist in your affairs. Carry out your plans and activities during the first ten days, and after the 25th, for the best results.

The first week should be particularly favorable. Work, financial and health matters will be more promising. Travel will be favored, although care should be taken to avoid accidents or unwise decisions on the 4th and 5th. Important moves or changes of environment may now appeal to many Virgo people. Family and domestic matters will be to the fore. Promote your affairs during this week.

The second week will be generally favorable until the 12th. Health, work and financial matters should be placed on a good foundation to avoid difficulties after that time. The danger of accidents or intense excitement in connection with the difficulties of other people will be greater on the 12th and 13th. Your own mistakes or poor judgment could then cause trouble. Health will not be favored. Domestic and emotional matters will not be favored. Risks, deception and secret sorrow may be experienced. Defer all important matters as this week ends, especially so if loss could arise through other people.

The third week will not be favorable until after the 17th. A dangerous trend will exist during this time which could undermine your security and happiness. Avoid new activities or risks. Plan a conservative, quiet program and follow it! Don't let yourself intensify worry or adverse conditions. Family upsets are apt to affect Virgo people whose affairs are not altogether harmonious. Don't depend upon others for they may fail or disappoint you. Remain as natural and practical as possible.

The fourth week should greatly improve your prospects, although the 24th and early morning hours of the 25th may bring strain. Travel will not be favored. Bad news or quarrelsome conditions could then exist. Defer your important plans or activities until after the 27th, when better results can be realized.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 20 through 26, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 3, 13, 14, 16, 17, 27, 29

IMPORTANT changes should now commence to affect Libra affairs. New conditions are indicated for December which stimulate more progress and achievement. Romantic happiness and more enjoyment of life should be realized by many of you. Pleasures and social matters will be stimulated, although adverse conditions will affect friendships and such interests around the 11th, 12th and 13th. This will be a month in which to generally advance your affairs in order to build security, harmony and happiness.

Your financial prospects will be favored except for a brief time between the 12th and 16th. That period will be extremely adverse for business, income and earning power of Libra people. Quarrels, poor judgment and credit strain could be experienced. Avoid all rash expenditures or risks with money. Difficulties with other people should be adjusted. Be prepared for financial strain so that your security will not be undermined. Unexpected good luck should be experienced in financial matters at other times of December. The prevailing trend may cause you to become too optimistic, happy go lucky or extravagant which would contribute to financial troubles. Libra merchants should be exceptionally fortunate in business this month, particularly those of you who deal in jewelry, art, foodstuffs or women's fashions. Try to curb your own desires for luxuries, for this will be a test of your good judgment.

Travel, moves and changes of environment will have more appeal this month, but should be deferred between the 13th and 16th. Danger of loss through secretive troubles, bad news or accidents will then threaten. You are apt to be mentally disturbed. Relatives may cause anxiety or sorrow. Be very careful in connection with correspondence or papers to which you sign your signature, for some loss or difficulty could arise in such matters.

The keynote of December will be that of co-operation and responsibilities. Try to adjust yourself to conditions or associations which may seem inharmonious at times. Unseen adjustments will be taking place underneath the surface of your affairs.

The first week of December should activate your personal and emotional affairs. Good fortune can be attracted. More love and happiness should raise your outlook upon life. A great deal of power and ability will be stimulated for Libra people to use to advantage in promoting their affairs. Finances will be favored. Generally fortunate conditions are shown, although some upsets may threaten, from time to time, through other people.

December Outlook ... for Libra

*For Those Born Between
September 21 and October 23*

The second week will be generally favorable until the 11th; thereafter, an adverse trend will begin to develop for which you should be prepared. Friendships and social matters will not be favored. Income and finances will be adversely affected so that loss would result. Safeguard your resources to avoid trouble through or with others. Expenditures may begin to rise. Defer new financial activities or unnecessary spending. The 13th will be exceptionally adverse for travel, correspondence or moves. Bad news or secret anxiety about others may exist. Your own mental outlook is apt to be disturbed and melancholy. Deceptive conditions will exist. All secretive or hidden matters should be carefully avoided. Carelessness or lack of forethought could then cause real loss and trouble.

The third week will continue the extremely upsetting, adverse conditions which began around the 11th. Follow the forewarnings given in the previous paragraph until after the 16th. Travel will not be favored. Relatives of Libra people may be unfortunate, or cause difficulties. Your affairs could be undermined by deception and lack of good judgment. A secretive trend will have developed between the 13th and 16th. Some disappointing, restricting associations will need to be carefully handled. Don't intensify happenings or temporarily adverse conditions. You will be more restless and dissatisfied. Keep harmonious and well balanced.

The fourth week will present unusual changes. Domestic, family and private affairs will be to the fore. Finances should improve, although it will be necessary to follow a more conservative program than you will be inclined to choose. Some unexpected happiness or good fortune should be realized. Defer important business or personal activities until after the 25th—the last four days of the month will be exceptionally favorable for health and working interests, but some upsets may occur in the domestic affairs. Retard changes or decisions which would create insecurity during the first week of January.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 20, 25,
27, 28

Unfavorable: 2, 13, 14, 16, 30

December Outlook ... for Scorpio

*For Those Born Between
October 23 and November 21*

will be a month for careful planning. You should be able to achieve unusual success or good fortune if you can control the few adverse trends which are indicated. Venus will be in Scorpio throughout the month, stimulating opportunities, favors, optimism and improvements in the personal life. This will be a time for health and body building, improvements in your personal appearance and changes for the better, through which more peace and happiness can be attracted. Venus will cause you to feel more sensitive and emotional. Self is intensified, so that your personal affairs will be to the fore throughout December. You should be able to attract more happiness and favors from others. The negative phase of Venus results in emotional disappointments, trouble with loved ones (women, especially) and selfish insistence upon personal interests. Work to beautify and harmonize your life, rather than enjoy a mere uplift of spirits or temporarily improved conditions. This is a time when every Scorpio person should endeavor to forge ahead in a progressive manner.

With the 11th, Mars enters Scorpio. You who are born on October 23, 24, 25 will then need to carefully safeguard health, business and personal relationships with others. The danger of accidents and intense emotional strain will exist on the 11th, 12th and other adverse days. People born between October 23 and November 6 will feel Mars' aspects from the 11th on. All risks or rash ventures should then be curtailed. Mars brings energy, but control and restraint are necessary to handle the increased power and force which stimulates the feelings, desires and will.

Your financial prospects will be exceptionally favored this month except between the 11th and 16th. Losses could then be experienced. A deceptive or secretive trend will exist so that you could lose unless your affairs are protected. Friendships could figure in your losses or financial difficulties. Some mistaken decision or fraudulent matter will threaten. After the 16th, better financial conditions are indicated, especially so on the 20th.

The entire month is one in which adjustment and improvement of your personal life and affairs should be attempted. At the adverse times, however, strife or strain will exist to test your good judgment and ability to co-operate or work harmoniously with others. Don't force issues or run risks which could endanger your personal welfare or disturb the harmonious element which is endeavoring to adjust your affairs!

The first week will be exceptionally favorable for your activities. Forge ahead to promote your personal happiness, financial and friendship interests. Gain through others should be realized. Business and working affairs will be favored. Good results can be attracted. Do your important work now rather than postpone it. Correspondence, trips and activity connected with finances will be a feature of this week.

The second week will be favorable until the 11th. An adverse trend will then commence which could greatly upset your affairs. Strife and strain can be expected. The danger of violent quarrels or accidents will grow greater as this week ends. Trouble through or with others will be intensified. Your own nature is apt to be aroused to a more aggressive, feverish rhythm which you will have to carefully control. Plan a very conservative design for living on the 11th, 12th and 13th. Don't expect a great deal of progress; that which would be undertaken would prove mistaken or be disappointing and troublesome.

The third week will continue the adverse trend beginning around the 11th, until after the 16th. Health and working interests will need to be carefully protected. Upsets with other people are apt to breed trouble and conflict. The danger of accidents or quarrels will be greater. Delays in realizing your financial expectations will exist. Adjust yourself to routine, pay attention to minor details and wait for improvements which lie ahead. Be very careful in friendship and emotional matters to maintain peaceful relations. Some sorrow or anxiety about another is indicated.

The fourth week should improve your affairs. Unexpected happiness, good luck and favors should be realized. More enjoyment of life is shown. After the 25th, more financial activity and good fortune can be expected. The last four days of the month should greatly stimulate your progress and optimism.

Favorable days: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 19, 20, 21, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30

Unfavorable: 2, 11 through 16, 22, 23, 24

December Outlook for Sagittarius

For Those Born Between November 21 and December 21

MUCH progress can be realized this month if you can adjust yourself to temporary delays or difficulties. Your natural impatience and urge for immediate action could dictate troubles or losses. Your personal affairs will be to the fore throughout December, demanding more attention. New ideas, plans and important changes are indicated. These, however, may be deferred or held back from immediate realization—especially so between the 4th and 25th. Change will be a factor of this month, but must be avoided, if possible, at the adverse times. Favorable times of December will be benefic for favors, opportunities and advancement through others. Your ability to attract will be greater. The unfavorable times will be periods in which to “mark time,” do routine work and avoid difficulties with others.

Health and vitality will be determined by your mental outlook and control of nervous energy. You are apt to feel devitalized, nervous and irritated especially so on the 13th and 16th. Good judgment will be undermined at those times. You may feel that you “aren’t getting anywhere,” and fret at delays or irritations which arise to curb your progress. The desire for change and improvement in your personal position or conditions of life will be an overwhelming trend which you will now have to control.

Conditions will be improving beneath the surface of your affairs, so try to be patient. Forge ahead at favorable times to gain good results; at the adverse times, finish uncompleted work, adjust yourself to others, and maintain harmony at all costs.

Financial improvements are shown for Sagittarius people, especially so between the 1st and 11th, and after the 25th. Important matters will be developing, somewhat secretly or perhaps unknown to you. A more secretive trend will exist in your life this month, anyway; but—beware of complications or deception between the 12th and 16th. Schemes, unwise propositions or disillusioning associations will need to be wisely handled at that time. This is a month when Sagittarius folk can attract increase of salary or experience marked rise in income. However, you should avoid all important business, financial or personal risks during the adverse period in mid-December.

Friendships and social matters will be exceptionally favorable until the 11th. After that time, an element of secret enmity or trouble with others will exist for which you should be prepared. Some new friend should enter your life this month. More activity with loved ones, social and pleasure matters can be expected.

The first week should prove to be exceptionally favorable for your affairs. Promote your social and friendship interests. Work to bring more harmony and happiness into your life. Unusual opportunities can be attracted. More power and enthusiasm should be felt which can be utilized to achieve your rising ambitions. New friends may prove to be important. Income will be favored. Do those tasks which demand your attention, so that you can be more quiet or inactive later on in the month. Changes in your personal life are indicated which should prove fortunate.

The second week will be favorable for your affairs until the 11th, although some delays or less activity may be noticed. With the 11th, travel, legal matters, correspondence and personal affairs may begin to cause anxiety or trouble for many Sagittarius people. These things will not be favored. Health will require careful attention. Irritating upsets are indicated. New activities will not be favored. Mistaken decisions or unwise changes will threaten. Defer all important plans.

The third week will not be favorable for Sagittarius activities until after the 18th. If you are born on December 13, 14, 15, 16 take particular care of health, business, emotional and personal affairs. A very deceptive or disturbing condition is apt to exist. Lack of favor or loss will threaten. The 20th should greatly improve your outlook, bringing unexpected news, changes and opportunities. That will be the favorable day of this week in which to promote your important interests.

The fourth week will be generally favorable, although delays or upsets can be expected until after the 24th. More activity will begin as the last week commences. Your financial prospects will be greatly improved, so that good returns should be realized from things started earlier in the month.

Favorable days: 1 through 5, 9, 10, 19 through 26, 29, 30, 31

Unfavorable: 11 through 18

The December Outlook for Capricorn

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between December 21 and January 21

DECEMBER should bring unusual experiences and conditions to Capricorn people. While some adverse indications exist for which you should be prepared, others are shown which promise opportunity and achievement.

Your social and friendship affairs will be very much favored, except between the 11th and 17th, and again around the 24th (Christmas Eve). Some danger of violent quarrels or upsets with other people will exist at those times. Carelessness or excitement will need to be avoided. New friends should be very important to you. More social and emotional activity are shown. The month will be a generally fortunate time for you to seek romance and emotional happiness. More gifts, love and favors are indicated.

Your financial prospects will be exceptionally promising, although an undercurrent of unrest, deception or poor judgment will exist during mid-December which could bring loss. Secretive troubles with other people are shown so that you should avoid new propositions, schemes or activities which could be misrepresented. Things will not be altogether open and above-board between the 11th and 17th, so that you are apt to be deceived or disappointed. Happenings beyond your power to control could then interfere with your plans or threaten loss. Travel, legal matters, correspondence and important dealings with others will not be favored during that time. The 3rd, 4th, 8th, 20th will be exceptionally benefic for your activities in business, financial and working interests. Those will be the times in which to forge ahead in your plans and undertakings. Don't be surprised or annoyed if momentary delays arise, or if you fail to quickly realize your aims. Unseen adjustments will be taking place underneath the surface of your affairs, so that you will need to be more patient while things work out for you.

Health may require more care, especially so for you who are born on December 2, 3, 4, 5. Saturn will be adverse to you, tending to deplete the vitality and resistance to colds or chronic ailments. This month will be a favorable time for medical, surgical and health building treatments. Watch your mental outlook for many Capricorn people will now feel dissatisfied, strangely restless and impatient of restrictions or hampering influences in their lives.

The first week should be exceptionally favorable for important business, personal and emotional interests. More public activity is shown. Gain through people in a position to benefit you can be attracted. Finances will be favored. Finish your uncompleted work, or do those things which demand attention, so that you can be more quiet and protected later on. News may bring more excitement into your life this week. Someone who cares for you should bring happiness and good luck to you.

The second week will be favorable until the 11th. Adverse conditions then begin which will upset social, friendship and emotional relationships, and bring some strain or anxiety into your affairs. All risks should be avoided. A quarrelsome or irritating association could cause trouble. You are apt to feel aggressive, rash and irritated at others. Don't force issues, but seek to attract the happiness or gains you desire. Safeguard your source of income or financial interests between the 11th and 16th. Avoid all secretive and undercover activities which could cause trouble or disappointment. Travel will not be favored. Bad news may come from people at a distance.

The third week will continue the adverse conditions until the 17th. Your prospects then change for the better, so that the 20th should bring more harmony, favors and happiness. Financial gains will be especially favored. Do your important work or carry out your constructive plans after the 16th.

The fourth week will generate some startling changes. Domestic and personal affairs will be to the fore. You will feel more ambitious and active, but should safeguard health and vitality to avoid overstrain. More honors, gifts, love and appreciation can be attracted. A more optimistic mental outlook is indicated as this month ends. Exciting changes in your personal affairs and environment may begin. Get your affairs harmonized so that the first three days of January will not threaten your security or cause difficulties with others.

Favorable days: 1 through 10, 19 through 28, 31
Unfavorable: 11 through 17

The December Outlook for Aquarius

★ ★ ★ For Those Born Between January 21 and February 19

DECEMBER'S stars may produce extraordinary conditions in the lives of many Aquarius people. Opportunity beckons, yet difficulties and friction are also apt to exist in your affairs. Good judgment, quiet management and control of your own feelings or impulses should enable you to attract the fortunate things which are indicated.

Mars will be very favorable to Aquarius people until the 11th. Thereafter, the strife or friction which threatens may be more apparent, particularly affecting your position in life, job, public activities, credit and ambitions. Promote your aspirations, do your important work and advance your affairs between the 1st and 11th. Thereafter, try to adjust your differences with others or work in harmony with them—to counteract the friction or incompatibility which will exist. Don't start new business activities, expenditures or important changes after the 11th for they would prove mistaken or cause regret. Personal gains are strongly indicated earlier in the month, especially so for you who are born between February 11 and 19. More favors, good fortune and opportunity should be realized. After the 11th, you who are born between January 21 and February 3 will need to be particularly cautious and conservative, to avoid quarrels, accidents or trouble with others.

You can bring more happiness and harmony into your life at favorable times of December. Financial prospects should be exceptionally good except between the 11th and 16th. Friends or loved ones could then cause loss and disappointment. Poor judgment will dictate unwise decisions and trouble about money. Don't anticipate gains or favors from others during that time, and endeavor to safeguard your interests from imposition or deception.

Friendships, social and emotional matters will be both favorable and unfavorable this month. Unexpected good luck and opportunity to realize some outstanding ambition or desires are shown. Good friendships can be established. Social activities will be more prominent. All business or financial activities with friends or acquaintances should be avoided, however, for they are apt to disappoint you. Delays in your expectations from friends or loved ones can be expected, but on the 24th, sudden changes, news, invitations and happenings should be stimulated in connection with them. The welfare and affairs of some loved ones may cause anxiety or sorrow this month, but peaceful conditions are shown as the month ends. Be the friend and co-worker with others you are meant to be—to realize your own ambitions!

The first week should be utilized to get your affairs in order. Promote your ambitious plans, finish uncompleted work and activities. Do the important things now which you might be tempted to defer until later. Take advantage of new opportunities to meet people, correspond, study and improve appearance. Endeavor to attract new, happier conditions. Use the tremendous amount of power and energy you will have in a constructive, ambitious manner to get results. More love, co-operation and gain from others should be realized.

The second week will be similar in influence until the 11th. Thereafter more strife or difficulties could be attracted. During the second and third week a rash, hasty and unwise trend will exist which you will have to control. The danger of quarrels with superiors in business or authority will threaten. Credit strain or poor judgment about expenditures could exist. Have your affairs in shape to avoid endangering your resources or security. Health and personal welfare will need to be carefully protected, for the danger of feverish ailments or accidents will be greater. Emotional strain could stimulate quarrels. Anxiety or trouble in connection with close associates and friends will threaten. Try to adjust differences which arise and maintain harmony in your emotional relationships. Don't trust your own impulses or feelings between the 11th and 17th. The 20th will begin a far more favorable trend which should stimulate more happiness, social, friendship and financial good fortune. Defer your important affairs until that date.

The fourth week will greatly improve your affairs. More good fortune and progress can be realized. Financial gains are indicated. An element of unexpected luck and gain through people who care for you will then exist in your life. With the 30th, Jupiter enters that part of the Aquarius chart which rules finances—indicating substantial money gains and marked increase in your financial affairs.

Favorable days: 1 through 10, 20, 24 through 31

Unfavorable: 11 through 19

December Outlook ... for Pisces

★
For Those Born Between
February 19 and March 21

VERY favorable conditions will generally exist for many Pisces people. You should be able to make more progress. More ambition should be felt. You can take advantage of new opportunities which arise, for earlier December should bring favors and recognition from those in a position to benefit you. Business, finances and emotional matters should improve. These things will be to the fore. You will need to use good judgment and discretion, however, at adverse times of the month, when it will be difficult to distinguish between fortunate and unfortunate trends or associations. Health will need to be safeguarded at those times. All changes which could affect your position, credit or security should then be avoided.

Neptune will be adverse to you who are born on March 13, 14, 15, especially so on December 13, 16. Secret enmity or uncertainty arising from failure of others to fulfil their obligations to you may exist. Losses rather than gains could be experienced. You should not place too much reliance upon other people and their promises. A secretive, deceptive, confusing trend could make you dissatisfied, vague and mistaken in your decisions. Don't intensify temporarily adverse conditions or happenings. Try to mark time, do routine work and maintain harmony with others during the "stormy period."

An element of exciting good luck and higher aspirations will exist for most Pisces people. Gain through apparent reversals or losses could be realized. Travel, correspondence, new studies and achievements on a higher inspirational plane will be favored except on the 11th, 13th, 16th, 24th. Exciting news from other people should come to you. At favorable times of December, Pisces people should endeavor to express themselves in a new manner, through writing, speaking or cultivation of their ideas. The planetary influences will be particularly favorable for you who are engaged in religious, scientific, transportation, radio, publishing or inventive matters except on the 11th and 12th, when health and work will be adversely affected by strained conditions.

The first week should bring more gain and good fortune. Exceptionally favorable conditions are shown so that your chances for success will be greater. This will be the time for travel, correspondence, legal and business activities. Important new plans and undertakings are indicated. Do your real work now, so that you can have more rest or seclusion later in the month. More activity in co-operation with other people is indicated. Your financial prospects will be particularly favored on the 3rd. Exciting business developments should exist at that time.

The second week will be favorable for your activities until the 11th. After that date, the week will be adverse. Travel, legal matters, health and working interests will not be favored. A quarrelsome, strained condition is indicated which may cause anxiety about others. Losses could occur through a hasty, careless or inattentive attitude. Don't make agreements or sign important papers. You may feel discontented and sorrowful, so don't intensify morbidness or despondency. Follow a careful, routine program and defer your important affairs until later. A very deceptive influence is indicated on the 13th. Health will then need to be safeguarded. Avoid risks through which trouble or enmity could arise.

The third week will be similar in its conditions until after the 16th. Health, business, marital and personal affairs are apt to be disturbed for Pisces people between the 11th and 16th. The welfare of others may cause anxiety. Defer new plans or ventures for they would not be wise. Maintain harmony with others as unseen adjustments occur in your affairs. After the 16th, conditions should change for the better. Unexpected triumph over your difficulties could occur. Good news and exciting messages from people at a distance should be received. Your outlook should grow more happy and optimistic.

The fourth week will be generally favorable, although delays or slow returns may prove irritating until after the 25th. Mercury will then be direct in motion, so that your plans, ambitions and activities will be activated in a more promising manner. More happiness, love and romance should exist in Pisces lives at this Christmas Season. Friends may be extremely important as the month ends, with important new social and emotional contacts bringing happiness and enjoyment. Have your affairs stabilized ere January begins, so that risks or strain can be avoided during the first week.

Favorable days: 1 through 10, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 25 through 30

Unfavorable: 11 through 16, 24, 31

Astrology Class

A STUDY of the Sun and Moon position at birth. This lesson on the Sun and Moon position in the horoscope began in the October issue of this magazine. Due to the length of this complete lesson, it is necessary to publish it in the October, November and December, 1938 and following issues of ASTRO-DIGEST.

THE SUN IN LIBRA WITH THE MOON IN THE TWELVE SIGNS

Sun in Libra—Moon in Aries: Strong likes and dislikes are apt to exist. This person may be very nervous and seem contradictory. Ambition, pride, originality and cleverness are given. The personality will be aggressive and attractive. Romance and adventure will have a strong appeal. Public success is indicated. Conflict in marriage or partnerships may exist. Friction between the inner nature and outer expression is indicated.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Taurus: Venus will be doubly strong in this person's life and affairs. Love of ease or comfort must not be too strongly developed. Financial and personal success can be realized. Health must be built, especially to avoid kidney or glandular disturbances.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Gemini: The disposition will be humane, yet nervous and irritable in times of stress or strain. Haste in action, thought and speech is apt to exist. Travel, literature, education, and inventions will be favored. Relatives are apt to play a dominating part in the life. The nature will be refined, beauty loving, restless and changeable. Ability exists to realize the inner ideals.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Cancer: Ambition and love of prominence will exist. Much success can be realized, although conflict and misunderstandings may arise with relatives or the public. Religion, science, healing, statesmanship and law will be favored. Fame is indicated, yet the private life may present many sorrows. The personality will be humane, maternal and sympathetic.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Leo: This personality will be more warm, magnetic, dramatic and loving. Dramatic success can be realized. Fame and prominence before the public can be secured. The nature will be made more independent, resourceful and dominant than is usually the case with Libra. Romance will have a strong appeal.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Virgo: A subtle, somewhat misunderstood nature may here be found. The intellect is deep and keen. The character is profound. The personality, however, may fail to be developed to portray the inner charm and magnetic powers. Sickness or obstacles in the environment may be experienced. Too much association with inferiors must be avoided. Much success in business or profession can be realized.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Libra: Some bar to complete expression or development of the personality and character may here exist. One may be stronger than the other. Much charm, grace and tact are indicated. The nature is beauty loving and just. Danger of becoming too immersed in personal affairs or one line of activity will exist, however. Marriage will play an important part in the life. Success can be realized in religion, law, politics or educational pursuits. Adjustment of the needs of others will be a keynote of good fortune.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Scorpio: A too critical or faultfinding personality must be avoided. The temperament will be strong, magnetic and dominating. Difficult to understand, this person must not become too passionately fixed upon people or things. Much energy to gain personal success will exist. Great success can be realized in an artistic, scientific or medical profession. Trouble through deaths or finances of others may threaten.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Sagittarius: A harmony-loving nature is given, although the desire for adventure and romance will be great. Many strange experiences may be encountered. The nature is artistic and creative. A good brain, fine personality and intellect are possessed. The nature is optimistic and progressive. Success through religious, legal or political activities is particularly promised. An artistic career will also be successful.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Capricorn: Too much ambition without the inner strength or urge to achieve must be avoided. Eagerness to succeed exists. Strength of determination should be developed. Obstacles are indicated which could bring failure unless perseverance is developed. Business, science, law and education will be successful lines of activity. The personality is apt to be cold or less warm than is the inner nature.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Aquarius: No finer combination can exist, if the positive qualities of character and personality are developed. Great success can be realized in social, public and business affairs. Gain through the public or through friends can be attracted. The nature is friendly, magnetic, warm and cordial. Much ability and talent are indicated.

Sun in Libra—Moon in Pisces: Sympathy and hospitality are marked. A somewhat passive, but strong, quiet nature exists. Success through service to others is indicated. The temperament will be deep, charming and romantic. Danger of becoming too dreamy or indolent on the material plane will exist. This person may seek to escape realities if actual conditions are ugly, discordant or inharmonious. Robert Louis Stevenson had this combination.

THE SUN IN SCORPIO WITH THE MOON IN THE TWELVE SIGNS

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Aries: An overabundance of martial energy, impatience and physical strain will exist. The personality and inner nature may often be in conflict, for both are strong and dominant. Haste and rashness must ever be avoided. Accidents, quarrels and feverish ailments may be attracted. Leadership in military, dramatic, legal or police activities can be realized through development of the talents. Extremes must be avoided.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Taurus: Success in middle and later years of life can be realized. Much friction and conflict in "finding one's self" may be experienced in childhood and earlier years. Finances will always be of major importance, yet this person may apparently scorn practical activities and often endanger the financial security due to secret impulses, ambitions and high aspirations. Difficulty in some phase of the domestic or professional life may be experienced due to incompatibility with others. Artistic, scientific, medical and analytical talents can be developed to assure great success and honor.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Gemini: An eventful life is indicated. The personality may not mirror the deep, resolute, fixity of the Scorpio nature, so that restless, uncertainty and nervousness may scatter the forces. Variety and change will be sought, so the firm, solid foundations of life which are necessary for the development of confidence and security may not be built. Literature, journalism, scientific, inventive and political activities will be greatly favored.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Cancer: This is a powerful combination. Theodore Roosevelt and Ulysses S. Grant were born with the Sun in Scorpio and the Moon in Cancer. It bestows a burning patriotic flame within the nature. Great public success can be realized in religious, political, healing or scientific interests. Perseverance and enterprise, if developed, will take this person far. The personality will need to be cultivated and strengthened to keep in step with the dominating, magnetic Scorpio individuality. Home, family and domestic ties will have a strong appeal.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Leo: Force of character, confidence, some arrogance and great pride will figure in this nature. Victory and success in life can be realized, although the emotional affairs are apt to be fraught with danger and friction. Sex and feeling must not be allowed to have too dominant a part in the life. Great dramatic success can be realized if the talents are cultivated. Cheerfulness, determination and sympathy must be developed.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Virgo: Uncertainty or lack of confidence can undermine this personality. Fears and worries about the health and personal affairs must not be cultivated or encouraged. The personality is apt to appear cold, disinterested or sensitive. Too much association with inferiors will not be favored. Much success in medical, scientific, educational or literary activities can be realized.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Libra: A very eventful life can be expected. Romance, sex and pleasure may have an important part in carving the destiny. Some danger of scandal, slander or trouble will exist. The personality will be charming, romantic, adventurous. Marie Antoinette had this combination of Sun and Moon. Success in dramatic, artistic, legal or religious activities can be realized.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Scorpio: Rashness and indiscretions must always be avoided. The personality is apt to be magnetic, dominating and powerful, yet uncertain about personal affairs or aims. Much care must be taken to aim toward a high, impersonal goal of service to others. Self cannot be too strongly considered.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Sagittarius: In-discreet actions, abrupt speech, rebellion and resentment at restrictions are apt to be cultivated. The personality will be aggressive yet shy or timid, adventurous and progressive. Deep feelings and submerged talents are indicated, which can be developed to attract much success. Science, inventions, law, politics, exploring, literature may have great appeal for these people. Much excitement, adventure and movement should figure in the life. Psychic and occult tendencies will be pronounced. Mis-understandings with associates may be experienced, due to the brusqueness of the personality.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Capricorn: Tact and diplomacy will cover a deep, magnetic, shrewd personality. The nature is apt to be jealous or demanding of those it loves. More practical or staid than is ordinary with Scorpio, success will come after hard work, perseverance and patience have paved the way. Grave danger of mishaps on water will exist. Love of adventure is indicated. Science, business (of an executive nature), law, government, education and religion will be mediums of success for people having this combination.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Aquarius: Conflict will exist in this nature and life until the humanitarian instincts are developed, to the exclusion of the personal or selfish interests. A friendly, enterprising personality is here given. A too audacious or reckless nature may exist, however. Great ambition is indicated, so that these people can realize their hopes and wishes.

Sun in Scorpio—Moon in Pisces: Reversals of fortune may often be encountered by these people, yet much success and gain can be ultimately realized. The personality is apt to be less strong, magnetic or dominating than the inner self, so that inferior people or conditions are thus attracted. Anxiety about the future must be avoided at all times. The talents are deep and varied. Literary, religious, occult, scientific, healing and dramatic powers are given which can be developed for great success.
