favorable results. First impressions are not apt to be best today. Think before acting. Do not travel or change. Moon in Aries.

"APPLICATION"

S., 14th—Moon sextile Venus, square Sun, trine Jupiter, sextile Saturn, opposition Uranus, conjunction Neptune. Three good and three adverse aspects constitute a doubtful day. Act with caution and after deliberation. Ask no favors and make no special changes. Moon in Cancer.

“HARMONY”

Sunday, 15th—Moon sextile Mars. A good influence for all that requires confidence, activity, strength or muscular endurance. Moon enters Leo at 7:54 A. M.

“UTILITY”

M., 16th—Moon sextile Mercury and Sun, square Jupiter and Saturn. With the “greater fortune” and the “greater infortune” afflicted it will be best not to push matters of great import or start new business. Good for literary work and social interests. Moon in Leo.

“NEUTRALITY”

T., 17th—Minor lunar aspects only, but those are of an adverse nature and it will require care and caution to pass the day harmoniously and profitably. Moon enters Virgo at 11:41 A. M.

“CO-OPERATION”

W., 18th—Moon conjunction Venus, square Mars, sextile Jupiter, trine Saturn. A splendid set of influences marred only by the adverse aspect to the planet Mars. Avoid haste, force or bluster and matters of pleasure, finance or property should proceed well. Moon in Virgo.

“HYGIENE”

Th., 19th—Moon trine Uranus, sextile Neptune.

Favors matters pertaining to the occult, liberal movements, and inventions. First impressions and inner feelings or premonitions are very apt to be correct under these aspects. Moon enters Libra at 5:40 P. M.

F., 20th—Moon trine Mars. Increases activity, dexterity and confidence. Good for mechanical or muscular efforts. Moon in Libra.

"CONSTRUCTION"

S., 21st—Moon conjunction Mercury and Sun (eclipse of Sun, invisible), square Uranus and Neptune. The tendency of these aspects is to lower the vitality, deplete the Aura produce adverse psychical conditions, charging the mind with great activity. Attend regular business only and avoid over-exertion or undue haste, New Moon in Libra, dark.

"EQUILIBRIUM"

Sunday, 22d—Minor aspects of but slight import. A good day for recreation and rest. Moon enters Scorpio at 0:36 A. M.

"FOREBEARANCE"

M., 30th—Moon square Mercury and Saturn, trine Mars. The tendency of the first two aspects is towards nervousness and irritability, but the good aspect of Mars gives opportunity to direct excessive mental activity to practical means and results. Moon in Aquarius.

“EXECUTIVENESS”

T., 31st—Moon square to Jupiter. Be not hasty to judge or jump at conclusions, as your reasoning is apt to err today. Avoid risky financial matters. Choose the planetary hours of Venus for important affairs today. Moon enters Pisces at 10:10 P. M.

“MEDITATION”

The time given for Moon's entry into the different zodiacal signs in the foregoing chapter is the Pacific Standard time. Rocky Mountain time is one hour in advance; Central time two hours; Eastern time three hours; Inter-Colonial time four hours, and Greenwich time eight hours in advance.

---

The words quoted in capital letters at the end of each date have been carefully selected as watch words for concentration by those who are seeking to develop self-control or other desirable victories. In some cases the words vibrate in unison with the prevailing planetary influences and on other dates they suggest an element necessary or one lacking which should be supplied in order to provide balance. Hundreds of students thus concentrating on a single word develop a force that reaches around the world, gathering strength as the numbers increase and helping many who may not be conscious of the concerted movement, but who are receptive to that which may be helpful or inspiring. Besides, it unites the concentrators in an occult bond of universal harmony for general good.

Thoughts ARE things and when properly directed (i. e., under correctly corresponding planetary influences) create useful vibrations for the now and the hereafter. Be sure to practice Astro-Mental Science and tell your friends.

COPYRIGHT FOR SALE.

In order to enlarge our capacity and facilitate the work of publishing matter on Astrology we need another printing press and in order to purchase one at once we offer for sale the copyright, rights and privileges to either of the following books: Improved Perpetual Planetary Hour Book; Practical Astrology for Everybody; Planetary Daily Guide for All.

We will sell either copyright for $500 cash. Either of these are a big bargain and any live agent, lecturer or book store should easily make that much each year with them.

We would purchase the books at wholesale from the new owner and continue to advertise them in our catalogue and magazine. Also we would print the new edition at a very low figure for the buyer.

Either of these books are "live" ones, for mail order dealers, being popular and representative works on this subject.

As soon as one is sold and a new press obtained these copyright offers will be withdrawn, as this is a sacrifice offer on our part.

SEPTEMBER 22 TO OCTOBER 21, 1911.

Lunation 9:29 A. M., Washington, D. C., Mean Time.

At moment of conjunction the sign Scorpio is ascending with Jupiter in first house applying to an opposition with Saturn, who is posited in the seventh space. A concerted movement, by capitalists and those who are opposed to the interests of the common people, will take place to depress general conditions, especially as regards labor. Relations with foreign powers will be deceptive, disappointing and fraught with delays.

Uranus in third house denotes considerable travel and the usual catastrophies occasioned thereby. The science of aerial navigation will progress much more rapidly when Uranus is no longer afflicted by the opposition of Neptune, a delusive influence which prevents the real vital principles to be discovered. After the opposition is past they will be found and applied with successful results of practical utility. At present aviators would do well to remain on the ground on those days when the Moon afflicts Uranus.

Mars, ruler of the ascendant and also ruler of the sixth house, posited in the eighth, denotes much sickness affecting head, lungs and bladder. The rate of mortality will be high.

Neptune in ninth house denotes disasters at sea and religious and scientific dissensions, but psychical interests will be advanced.

Venus and Mercury in the midheaven are favorable influences for our President and tend to favor the people in minor ways.

The luminaries in eleventh house semi-square to Jupiter in ascendant indicate some adverse moves on the part of legislators with disagreements and possibly deaths.

AN ANNULAR ECLIPSE OF THE SUN

OCTOBER 22, 1911.

At 4:09 A. M. Greenwich mean time the Sun is eclipsed in the twenty-seventh degree of Libra. This eclipse is ominous because it follows so closely after an opposition of Jupiter to Saturn (four days) and also because Sun is conjunction Mercury and just beginning to leave a square of Uranus.

The eclipse begins at 74 degrees 42 minutes east longitude and latitude 38 degrees 4 minutes north, and ends on the earth generally at 7:06 A. M. in longitude east 162 degrees 21 minutes, latitude south 14 degrees 38 minutes. This eclipse is invisible to us, but the line of central eclipse will begin in Southern Pacific Ocean and will run through New Guinea, Borneo, the China Sea, Thibet and Persia, where it will produce various disastrous events, among which are epidemics, volcanic eruptions and seismic disturbances. Charlestown, Puerto Rico, Austria and Japan will also be affected.

The opposition of Jupiter and Saturn will cause stormy and wet weather generally. It brings contest between the great and lowly and detriment to estate of the rich.

In 93 degrees west longitude Saturn will be on nadir, producing seismic disturbance in the Central States of America, Texas and Isthmus of Tehautepec, while it will be rising at the Canaries and Maderia, denoting volcanic eruptions. Saturn culminates at Bengal.

PREDICTIONS.

The odd numbered signs of the zodiac, i. e., Aries, Gemini, Leo, Libra, Sagittarius and Aquarius, govern the left side of body in a male horoscope and the right side in a female nativity. Conversely with the even numbered signs.

For instance, in a female's natus we find Saturn in Gemini afflicted in third house (Oriental, and therefore denoting accidents), and the lady has broken her right arm on one occasion and injured it on several others, and has also injured the lower limbs (Saturn's domain).

Thus, in a chart like this, with the above rule in mind, it is easy to predict first: accidents; second, to arm and knee; third, on right side of body. Hereby, also, is shown that Astrology is not an unholy proceedings, nor is it guess work, but its predictions, of whatever nature, are legitimately based upon deductions derived from regular mathematical and astronomical calculations.

SIGNS UNDER WHICH MR. HARRIS' BALLOON ASCENDED.

Scarcely a day passes over that does not furnish the observer of signs with some sorrowful case which a little foresight might serve to prevent, and it is with the most philanthropic sensibility that I advert to a circumstance illustrative of astrological influence over individuals. While I sympathise with his dearest friends in lamenting the untimely death of Mr. Harris, who, when he ascended into the clouds in his balloon, bade them, and the thousands whose cheers accompanied him farewell forever, I feel it necessary to say, for the good of other intrepid and enterprising candidates for popular applause, that no gallant adventurer should have exposed himself to a danger that admitted of a delay, under the fatal prognostics that were pending. The planet Jupiter came into the point of the Dragon's tail in the ominous sign Cancer, but a few hours preceding the ascent, the planet having been, at the precise moment of his baleful transit of the node, in a partile square with the Moon.

This any one, who understands the least of the science will say is enough, for there are records of all ages to testify that such an aspect could not be expected to pass by without leaving behind it many fresh examples of its fatality, and a forewarning which portends death, or indeed accidental mischance, should not be tempted on any consideration by those who embark in aerial expeditions.

The reason I give of the life of his fair companion having been so wonderfully preserved is that Venus,† Georgium Sidus (Uranus) and Mars, being mutually in trine with one another, was a most lucky aspect for her, as a female, and foreshowed her recovery.*

*At the time Mr. Harris ascended in his balloon, May 25, 1824, four hours, nine minutes P. M., the sign Libra arose in the horizon, and Saturn was in the house of death, with Venus, lady of the Ascendant, and significator of the aeronaut, applying to the fatal conjunction of this baneful star, who also ruled the fourth house, and this plainly showed the fatal conclusion which took place.

From "The Astrologer of the Nineteenth Century," London, MDCCCXXV.

[†The older books on Astrology assigned Saturn as ruler of the sign Aquarius as well as of Capricorn, but in modern Astrology we give the planet Uranus to Aquarius, which ruled cusp of fourth house at above time, and, while we arrive at the same final judgment as the former author we do so in a different manner, towit: Venus, ruler of ascendant, is applying to conjunction with cusp of house of death; the cusp is afflicted on its other side by the proximity of Saturn, and, as Uranus, ruler of the end of the matter is in the house of aerial navigation (third house) conjunction Neptune and opposition Jupiter, it signifies a disastrous ending with death to the aeronaut. That his partner in the enterprise was so miraculously saved is because Mars, ruler of seventh, is in its own "terms" in the sign Virgo and applying closely to a trine with Saturn and furthermore because the seventh house was graced by the presence of the Moon therein in semi-sextile to Saturn and quintile to Jupiter.]

Anniversary the Third. Number 36 of the Astrological Bulletin completes the third volume and third continuous year. We feel proud, and justly so, we think, that the magazine has never been issued late nor has never missed a number. We take this opportunity to thank the subscribers for their kindly interest which has above all else been our incentive to endeavor to present the most valuable and useful features of Astrology to students and present the subject in a practical and dignified manner to the general public.

As our contribution to the science we issue the magazine at less than cost, making the subscription price as low as possible so that none who desire information in this line need be denied on account of high price. We would willingly send it free to any desirous person who may be so unfortunate as to be unable to pay the subscription price.

We ask all progressive readers who have the welfare of the science at heart to co-operate with us more than ever in this fourth volume, for, as the success of the magazine depends upon our efforts so does the spreading of the knowledge to new investigators depend upon you. Let each one of us decide to send in a new subscriber, at least one during the year (more if possible) and double the circulation. Twenty-five cents thus spent may give some hungry soul just the mental food necessary for nourishment to sustain an effort to "make good" and obtain light to make easier the way through this world. For the benefit of the school and to facilitate work in that department we ask our subscribers to patronize our book department as liberally as possible. Should you desire a book not advertised by us we will gladly order same for you, and have it sent direct from publisher to you, upon receipt of cost of same. Give publisher's or author's name, when possible, as well as title of work.

THE MEANING OF LETTERS.

—Jupiter Cooley,

JANE.

This name gives foresight, prophecy, faculty of making plans for others. It is full of the creative spirit and has strong material influence. A sharp speech usually and a quick nervous temperament and active mind, the number is three. Blue is a color of harmony, this is, a light blue, so she is magnetic and a healer, as the letter numbers are 1-1-5-5. And the name number is three. These numbers are all prime numbers and cannot be divided except by the No. 1 and its own number. A Jane will not be disturbed or thrown off her own way of thinking by others very easily. Nor will she permit others to interfere with her methods of work.

ABBREVIATED CHART.

This abbreviated chart from number reading is useful to keep about for reference after having full reading and wishing to retain salient points for reference. The form is also useful to students beginning the study of this science, as it shows the points to work out and the order of rotation.

Number of name.

This concludes this series of articles on the astrological relation of names and numbers. We feel sure that they have been read with interest and profit by the many Bulletin subscribers, many of whom will welcome the information that the articles are now being compiled and rearranged and will be suitably published in text-book form, being ready for sale shortly at 50 cents.

We believe this to be the most advanced, thorough and concise work for practical, progressive people and that it is destined to play a large part in the necessary rehabilitation of this ancient and useful science.

Professor Llewellyn George, Principal Portland School of Astrology—Dear Sir:

I have recently finished reading the August number of the "Bulletina" and I can truthfully say that it is certainly a valuable aid and help to the science of astrology.

I was particularly interested in your article regarding the needs of astrology and cannot understand why some of our richer patrons do not endow the science as others do colleges, etc., since they know it is the only "true" science. Your article is very timely and should be seriously considered by all interested in astrology, since we cannot expect the science to grow unless we have the proper facilities for speaking the truth, etc. I was also pleased to note that a certain lady, whose name was withheld, much to my regret, had donated several valuable books on astrology to the school, and perhaps now that a start has been made others might follow her worthy deed. I myself have a few valuable books on astrology which I am sending you under separate cover, and which I trust will be made use of in the school room.

While I am a great lover of astrology, I am unfortunately not overburdened with money or I would head the list on such an endowment fund. However, if some one else will take the initiative I will be pleased to be one of the first subscribers thereto.

Again assuring you of my hearty support in the interest and advancement of the noble science of astrology, I remain, yours faithfully,

R. ADAMS.

---

The time of the "phases of the Moon" given in the Calcutta daily papers is nearly 14 hours later than that given in your Daily Guide, thus:

Daily Guide, July 11, full Moon.....	4:53 A. M.
Calcutta papers, July 11, full Moon.....	6:47 P. M.
Difference .....	13:54

Q. Should a similar addition be made in the case of "time when Luna will enter each sign?"

Ans. The tables of "Moon's Place in the Zodiac," "Moon's Phases" and "Sun's Entry" as given in the "Planetary Daily Guide" each year are useful for any part of the world, if due allowance in time is given by the readers in various places. The tables are made for "Pacific Standard Time" (120th meridian). For every degree of terrestrial longitude east of the 120th meridian add four minutes to the clock time; thus New York City would be three hours in advance, as it is 45 degrees east; Calcutta is 208 degrees east of the 120th meridian, consequently time there is 13 hours 52 minutes later or in advance of Pacific time.

To places west of the 120th meridian four minutes of time should be subtracted for each degree of longitude west, as thus, as Honolulu is 38 degrees west of the 120th meridian time there is two hours and 32 minutes earlier, slower or less than Pacific time.

The reason for using the 120th meridian particularly is that a very large number of our subscribers live adjacent thereto and it is just as easy to make calculations from this as any other meridian.

Portland School of Astrology—Dear Friends:

I think that the Planetary Daily Guide is worth the price to any one who wants them, for any year, even if past, as the information is always good. Yours truly,

FREDRICK WHITE, Editor "Adept."

I bought one of your Improved Perpetual Planetary Hour books while in Seattle last year and I have found it the most useful and interesting of books.—Mrs. S. T. Kerr.

The Postal Department has raised the fee on foreign money orders.

There is a customs duty of 25 cents for each dollar value on foreign books, which must be paid by whoever receives the book. American dealers who import books have to pay this duty upon their arrival and consequently must add it in their advertised price. English publishers do not make allowance for this in their advertisements, consequently their prices seem to be the lowest, while in reality they are not, for if the customer sends to Europe he must purchase a money order, pay postage on it, wait five or six weeks for book, and then go to the customs house and pay duty at rate of 25 per cent valuation; whereas, if he purchases direct from an American dealer, this trouble and time is saved and the ultimate cost is the same.

We prepay postage and customs duty on everything ordered of us, unless otherwise stated.

Nearly every mail brings requests for back numbers of the Bulletina, and if any of our readers have some to spare we will be very grateful to receive them.

If you desire further information relating to lessons in Astrology by mail, send for free 32-page prospectus.

We send out hundreds of sample copies monthly and if you know of people who might be interested in Astrology just send in their names and addresses, plainly written, and we will send them a sample and invitation to subscribe.

Send us your subscriptions to any magazine, it will be appreciated and given our prompt and careful attention.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Professor Llewellen George and I. Hulery Fletcher,
Portland School of Astrology, Portland, Ore.—

When writing you some years ago of my success in treating and curing a twelve years' cancerous growth on my face, by the use of my successful dates, as given in the "Planetary Daily Guide," I supposed I was only writing a testimonial that was justly due in lieu of the good results obtained.

But when the letters began coming in, asking for more detailed information in regard to the treatment, I began to recognize the fact that your system of important dates were not the ONLY GOOD THINGS you had to offer, for the Bulletina Magazine seemed to REACH THE PEOPLE and was therefore a GOOD PLATFORM TO TALK FROM, for since that letter was first printed therein I have answered HUNDREDS of inquiries from those who "WANTED TO KNOW." I am ever glad to give credit where it is due, and you have been of inestimable help to me in this one case, as well as in the correctness with which you have helped me to give hundreds of readings, and business dates for my patrons. But, not being a millionaire I find these inquiries are reaching a point where I cannot possibly afford to pay the postage, or spare the time to give details of my most wonderful cure without making some charge for same. I shall carry the scar of this battle well fought to my grave. But, thank God, the CANCER IS GONE. For the cure "CURES," as my old physician said when he realized that I WAS CURED after he and many others had failed. I have been under X-ray treatments six months at a time, and tried many other specialists only to fail, and the only success I attained was in getting rid of about $5000.

I can send you a sworn statement from this physician (who is an old friend) that the cancer is gone, and that these statements are true in every particular. He was astonished at the result of my work, and YOURS. for do not forget I USED THE GOOD DATES as written by you in the Planetary Daily Guide of that year.

Since my cure I have sold this receipt many times, and get reports of success. But when I take a case myself, I am always careful to work out the fortunate dates for each individual case, as well as to ascertain the best dates for the method used, thus making assurance doubly sure when the rules are followed.

I am also satisfied I have demonstrated beyond a doubt the fact that your system and dates are CORRECT IN EVERY PARTICULAR, for I am employed by several business firms in this city and elsewhere to furnish the fortunate dates for all changes, or big deals in a business way, the methods I use have now been tested for three years by one business house here with the best of results. One big department store has recently bought up a bankrupt stock of $110,000 through my advice, and have "MADE GOOD" on it to the tune of many thousands of dollars in a few weeks.

I will enclose letters from them that you may see how implicitly they rely upon this method of using "Portland School" dates in their business. Please return letters, as I prize them as tokens of your good work and mine.

I will send cancer receipt, with successful dates on which to use it to all who send correct date of birth, and $1.50. Or two money-making formulas without the cure for $1. Address Mrs. H. E. Lohmann, Box 523, Knoxville, Tenn.

STARTLING QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

WHERE DID WE COME FROM?

WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR?

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

Never before since man began to record history, has the attempt to answer these questions together, been made and the lame attempts that have been made to answer them singly has involved the world in horrible religious wars.

That in one lecture of two hours, any man could cover so many points, as to settle the question, as well as WHERE IS GOD? Man's relation to Him, Evolution, Reincarnation, Spirit manifestation, Mind and Matter. No one could believe until they hear this feast of reason, analogy and logic by Prof. Lyman E. Stowe.

No student can afford to say I have not read it.

Mailed free together with a booklet with chart and colors descriptive of signs of Zodiac, alone worth the price of the whole. Price 25c. Address The Astrological Publishing Co., 131-133 Catherine St., Detroit, Mich.

"IMPROVED PERPETUAL PLANETARY HOUR BOOK"

Being void of symbols and easy to understand, new investigators can derive immediate benefit as well as good insight into this useful branch of Astrology.

The tables are concisely arranged in semi-monthly sections for any year, running from sunrise to sunset and from sunset to sunrise from latitude 30° to 55° North or South.

Each section is divided into twelve parts (the NATURAL division) and when added together both sections make 24 hours for each day in the week with planet placed opposite the hour which it rules.

The student of Horary Astrology will find the planet ruling moment question is asked a very important factor, in fact, it is almost invariably found in the house of the matter inquired after and becomes the principle significator; in any case it is always a co-significator of the matter and must be given due consideration as to position, essential dignity and aspect.

Table of Contents.

Preface. Introduction. How every individual can learn their most important daily Planetary Hours. The origin and use of Planetary Hours. 22 tables. Interpretation of the nature of Planetary Hours (each Planet treated singly in detail). Rulership of planets by hour, day and month. Summary. Rule for rectifying a nativity by use of Planetary Hours. Important lesson for converting Standard Time into Mean or Astrological Time.

In addition to its immense value in Horary Astrology this book is indispensable to the general practitioner.

Price 50 cents.

Mr. C. C. Cleveland says: "Your Planetary Hour Book is truly 'improved,' and is worth much more than you charge for it. I arranged a table for my own use years ago, together with a catalog of fixed stars, but I want to compliment you on your work. It is fine."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE A TO Z HOROSCOPE DELINEATOR

Now ready for delivery. Price, $2.00, postpaid.

From an astrological standpoint, it is a very complete work; typographically and mechanically, it is first-class, and, as usual, therefore, we are offering generous value for the money. While we have increased the size from 200 to 330 pages, yet we will not increase the price, and it will remain at $2.00 while the edition lasts.

The P. S. A. Mechanical Aspectarian is not a wall chart, although it can be used as such; it is totally different in design and purpose to any other device. It points out automatically or mechanically the aspects between planets in a Progressed chart, the aspects of planets in the Progress chart to those of the Natal chart, or transit aspects to places in both Progress and Natal horoscopes.

It is valuable to students of Astrology because:

It saves time in finding all the aspects in a Nativity;

It saves time in tabulating aspects in Progress chart;

It saves times in recording transits through the Nativity;

It saves time in recording transits through the Progress chart;

It combines both horoscopes in the one chart;

It insures your finding ALL the aspects;

It gets the aspect correct;

It saves mental labor and energy;

With an ordinary ephemeris it keeps you in close touch with ALL that is transpiring in your horoscopes, and as knowledge is power, you are therefore in better command of the daily situations as brought about through aspects formed in your charts.

FOREWORD

This Book Is Recommended to Those Who Seek RELIABLE Astrological Information.

This book is arranged in five separate parts but all bound together under two covers. The advantage of this division is obvious. Advanced students save time in being able to turn at once to parts necessary for reference without searching through the whole book each time as each part is complete in itself.

New students find the arrangement advantageous in that it conduces to concentration on one part of the subject and the mastery of it before proceeding into the next, thus making assimilation of each section easy and interesting—the five steps constituting the whole method of practical, modern Astrological Horoscope Casting and Delineating.

THE ELEMENTS OF ASTROLOGY

This is the most complete book of Astrology we have ever seen. It has about three hundred pages, and there is nothing left out that the astrological student needs. This one book, with the ephemeris and tables of houses is all the student of Astrology will need to become a successful practitioner.

The book is arranged in five separate parts: Part I contains the Elements of Astrology; Part II, the Progressed Horoscope; Part III, Delineations for Reading a Progressed Horoscope; Part IV, Rectification of the Birth Time; Part V, Effect of Rulers in Various Houses, also Tables of Logarithms for 24 hours.

We have made quite a study of Astrology, and we can recommend the "A to Z Horoscope Delineator" with the assurance that all who purchase it will be pleased.

"Practical Astrology for Everybody" portrays the science of Astrology in a practical, up-to-date, and very plain manner. It contains nothing but information and instructions from beginning to end of its 143 pages. It is complete in itself, requiring only the usual ephemeris for the year of birth and a table of houses for the latitude of birthplace.

It is particularly adapted to the use of Instructors of Astrology and for the use of teachers in societies, clubs and class work where an inexpensive and reliable treatise is indispensable.

It treats particularly with three important phases of Astrology, namely, the philosophy, the making of birth and progressed horoscopes and birthday character studies, and this feature makes the book valuable to experienced students, practitioners, new investigators and also the casual readers who are interested in the occult without any intention of making it a study.
