"Thy Kingdom Come"

The material for this book was published serially in The Beacon Light last year, and presented to the public in book form in October; and has created something of a sensation among thinkers, especially among men and women who are leaders among leaders. We have letters from ministers of many denominations, and the book has only been out about 30 days as this is written. Metaphysical students of many schools have proclaimed it the Book of the Age.

Let me quote one of the many enthusiastic testimonials, received from Dr. Juno Kayy Walton, daughter of Julia Seton, internationally known Truth teacher, and herself president of California Institute of Numerical Research Inc. and the acknowledged leader in the field of numerology:

"Dear Mr. Kullgren: Congratulations! You have put out a wonderful book. It is colorful and attractive from the first glance, and the Bible references quoted make it very valuable.

"It is gratifying to me to know that the Letters are now in book form for all to read; they are too valuable to be given only to the few, and this is written with so much sincerity, love and sweetness. I first received them in 1934, and at that time it seemed an impossibility that a greater war could come, or any of the prophecies of change could come. But year by year I have seen the prophecies come true, and there is every reason now to believe the rest will likewise be true.

"There is nothing to fear in the prophecy of change; instead, they give me a feeling of joy, that so soon the old, false ways of living and the unfair methods of business and politics will be a thing of the past. Then we will all share in a happier world, good to live in."

'Thy Kingdom Come' contains a message of hope for a despairing world, for it gives the workable economic plan of the future; a divine blue print of God's plan for the human race, based on the laws of God, or if you prefer the laws of Nature.

This is the goal of all idealists, and this plan should appeal to all sincere seekers for a workable solution to the world's problems.

Beautifully bound in art covers; the price is $1.00, and we are offering 6 copies for $5.00.

OUR AMERICA

From the Congressional Record of Dec 11, '41:

Sen. Tobey: " . . . I happen to be a member of this body, and like the President of the U. S. A., I took an oath of office to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the U. S. A. I refer to Mr. Francis Biddle, the present Attorney General of the U. S. A., who supports me in my contention. Mr. Biddle, speaking at the American Bar Association convention the other day, made this statement, in which I concur:

"It is particularly important at this time, when we are on the very edge of war, that we encourage forums which develop open and full discussion of the policies of government".

He further said, and well said: "Every government can live only on criticism".

But there is a greater authority, in my judgment, no less a man than the greatest liberal of all times in the history of our Supreme Court, the late, beloved Oliver Wendell Holmes, or blessed memory, who, in an opinion in Frohwerk v. The United States (249 U. S.), said:

"We do not lose our right to condemn either measures or men because the country is at war".

As stated elsewhere, the month of December was the most hectic I have ever experienced in my life. For several weeks before war broke out, I was depressed beyond words to explain; then the experience on the night of December 6th. on which in my astral body I saw the fighting at Pearl Harbor. Then came the panicky letters from readers, some cancelling their subscriptions. And my mind went back two thousand years when Jesus was riding into Jerusalem and the crowds were shouting Hosannah; but before long when pressure was applied some of that same crowd yelled "crucify him"

We held the January number for nearly two weeks after it was printed before we sent it out, with the exception of copies to dealers, which according to custom were shipped out as soon as off the press, so they were in the hands of the dealers as soon as war was declared or shortly thereafter.

Fianlly it came to me that hysterical people should not decide my policy, no matter what it might cost; because on the front cover of every issue of The Beacon Light for nine years, we have printed the quotation, The Truth shall make you free. I hate compromisers; I hate expediency. And so, in meditation, it came to me: there is only one thing you can do, namely, to continue to tell the truth, even though they nail you to the cross for so doing. If ever there was a time when America needed fearless truth-tellers it is today.

Inasmuch as the Supreme Court has declared that we are a Christian nation, my first duty and yours is to be loyal to the Father of all men, God the Father; second, as an American citizen we must observe the Christian textbook, the Christian Bible; and third, I must continue to swear allegiance to the flag of the United States and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. And so as far as I am concerned, I must be loyal to the above platform. The fact that it might lead to the concentration camp is not important; the fact that I may be reviled by the mob for my loyalty to principles instead of to individuals is not my business. You note that the Master Jesus rebuked his mother by saying, woman, what am I to thee; know you not that I must be about my father's business?

In Russia you must be loyal to Stalin above all else; in Italy it is Mussolini, right or wrong; and in Germany it is Der Fuhrer. Here, we live, according to the Supreme Court, in a Christian country; therefore our first allegiance is to God and Christian principles. And if our leaders are loyal to ther oath of office there can be no conflict, we will be in complete agreement. Conflict can only come when our leaders are disloyal to God and the Constitution. And so, as I see it, if our leaders betray their oath of office, and deny their allegiance to God, it is all the more reason why I should be loyal to God and country and not to men.

In Germany, that brave pastor, Martin Niemoeller said "Not you, Herr Hitler, but the Lord is my Fuhrer". And so I say as long as Mr. Roosevelt and his cabinet officers, Congress and the whole law-enforcing machinery are loyal to God and the Constitution and Bill of Rights, so long will I support them. It is much easier for me to die for my convictions than to live a life of cowardice.

And so I am trying to put my house in order; to prepare for the worst but hope for the best. For if we all become cowards, and betray God and the Constitution, America is gone.

We have never dealt in rabble-rousing, and shall not begin now; but I shall continue to uphold the stars and stripes and the Constitution with its Bill of Rights, because that is my duty as a citizen, and I should be put in a federal prison if I did not continue to uphold that sacred document. And so I am again advising the authorities of my stand as an American citizen, and may God give me the courage to stand by my convictions.

War will thin out your flock of leaders; we told you many years ago that when the acid test came most of your leaders would melt like the snow in the hot sun. I could tell you right now how many will stand up, among the group I know. But you can rest assured of one thing; the Greek who edits and publishes The Broom, in San Diego, will come through with flying colors. He has a wonderful chart, indicating spiritual at-one-ness, and will be a tower of strength to the nation during the next seven years. It is this type of man who will save America, not the bunch at Washington, most of whom are merely seeking office.

I am convinced that you will hear much of Charles Lindbergh in the days that are to come.

Now if you are in agreement with my stand, I ask you to pledge your loyalty to The Beacon Light on the basis of the above program. It is not going to be easy to tell the truth, or rather I should say it is not going to be easy to stay in the picture if you tell the truth. I want every one of you to go into the silence, and in prayer, followed by meditation, decide where you stand in the fight. This is a very necessary step for you to take, else you may be caught between two fires, in no-man's-land.

After this issue, many items will drop from our book lists because no longer obtainable. We shall all pass through the refining fires of trial and tribulation; if you stand firm for righteous principles and government your future is assured. And to give you a constant reminder, I would suggest that you get a copy of the picture of the Christ, of which we still have a few. These are not folders, they are cards, the folders are all gone. These cards are 5¼"x7"; you can get frames in the 10c store for about 15c. It is a 3-color job; at the top is the lettering "Thy Kingdom Come", and underneath the verse "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." We have a few hundred of these; 10c each or 3 for 25c, or if you can absorb 100 you may have them for $5.00 per 100. These little pictures will be a powerful reminder to you throughout the day, a source of strength and inspiration in the trying days that lie ahead. Certainly that is a small price for such a powerful boost.

We still have just a few of the large size, which are photographs, not prints, and hand colored. The 5x7½ pictures mounted on 8x10 white mount are $1.00 and the full 8x10 pictures are $1.50; unframed.

FROM DETROIT:

"Today a friend of mine gave me The Beacon Light. I took it home and read every line. It is indeed a pleasure to find a publication of this kind in these troublesome days, but we are told, Fear not, for these days must come to pass.

My folks have been Bible students for years, and like the Prophets of old who prayed to their God and Creator that they could only live in these days, my people give thanks that they are able to see these things being transformed. The old must pass, that the new may enter. . . ."

Please send me a year's subscription to Beacon Light and the following books. . . ."

And, two weeks later:

"My books arrived in good condition and I spent a wonderful day Sunday reading and studying them.

For several years I attended health lectures by Gaylord Hauser and Paul Bragg, also others. I have lived on nature foods for years and have never known a pain or ache. One of the outstanding points of your Beacon Light is telling the people to prepare their bodies for the siege ahead. That point is small indeed compared to the spiritual and mental food contained therein. Keep up the good work, for the days grow ever fewer. We that understand, rejoice that these days are here, and long patiently for that day to arrive when the earth shall become a paradise for man, and man will be taught wars no more.

Find enclosed the sum of one dollar; send me a few copies of the Beacon Light for the month of December that I may pass them among my friends. — —"

THE GUIDING HAND OF GOD

A Message given through Ida Hagen Marshall,
Author of 'Tracings of Eternal Light'.

This year shall be born from out the pure stream of God's mind a new world within the world. A great stir hath been set up in the pool of regeneration. This pool is the spirit of God's holiness on earth, and it draws unto itself from all peoples and nations, to encircle a new creation founded in the pure minds of inspired man.

A drafting of Godly truth in the spirit of His calling shall come to bear witness to that which man doth truly seek, a plan of Brotherhood in the Spirit of Christliness where love supercedes law.

This nation shall come forth upon the world, and all who will may come, for there is God's Kingdom, and love the Counselor, the self lost in the great Godself of pure expression in the service of being. Many shall come but few remain to establish this Order of Light.

Now art pillars being established throughout the world, Pillars of Light preparing to embrace this great Temple of Godly Government where He shall reign.

(These Pillars are little centers of light forming all over the world. They look like tiny gleaming stars.)

All these are fulfilling the call of God. They are being drawn into the central pool of God consciousness wherein they shall meet and taste ecstasies not known to earth. These are again the Pillars of old who went forth to find the glorious purpose of God written upon the face of the earth. The Angel of Christ Motive protects each shrine. Rejoice when ye hear of the Pillars of the Majestic Temple not built with hands, for its roof is the firmament. Aum, aum, aum. Authenticity: St. John 12:32 "Angel of Prophecy"

Through Eموah (Ida Hagen Marshall)

This message was intended for the January issue but was not received until after it had gone to press.

FROM MICHIGAN:

"Please accept this token of appreciation from me, for the truth you have given the people, via The Beacon Light, according to natural law; as I have learned that to those who give are given, those who love are loved, and those who inspire are inspired. And while those who give money, are to some extent impoverished, yet those who give as you do are the more enriched.

While people today largely measure value by a fraudulent money system, and it seems you have to deny yourself of money you have given and are receiving national if not world recognition; you are proving your real worth and no one can rob you of the same. I hope that from your advanced position you may be able to clarify natural law, so the impoverished may be better able to know the truth, and improve.

It is only fair, for one to exchange temporal things for that which is better, so I will enclose a dollar for your physical needs. — — — "

CHATS

By The Editor

As per our predictions in the December number, when we stated that in our opinion war would break out in the first week of December, we are all the way in. Well, it took war to awaken some of you people, we have simply been swamped with letters, many of them panicky, asking advice, others with new subscriptions. And the book, Thy Kingdom Come, has been in much demand. A lot of the cynics have fallen off the fence; in other words, the world is now taking me seriously, after about forty years of effort.

It will take us a few months to adjust ourselves to the new set-up; at present we don't know just what restrictions will be imposed.

As we stated in the special mimeograph letter in the January number, there will be a new set-up, such as we have long told you would happen. War has come, not because of any one individual, war is just a symbol of disease, spiritual sickness. Just as the eruption of measles and small-pox is the result of poison in the system, so warfare indicates spiritual sickness in nations.

Now if there is any special phase of activity that you are interested in, let us know: whether it pertains to physical, financial, mental or spiritual health. We have much material along these lines that we have been holding back for some time, awaiting the day which has now arrived. But it will take several months before we run smoothly in the new system, so please have patience. We have stacks of letters that we are simply unable to answer. All letters with financial transactions will eventually be taken care of. Mail is very much delayed and some has gone astray. We have received a few very caustic letters because orders have not been arriving as promptly as they would wish. In some cases it was impossible to even get a first class mail reply, and of course during the Christmas season mail was much slower. Allow at least ten days for your order to reach the east coast, sometimes it takes two weeks; and so please try to cultivate the virtue of patience; and don't write caustic letters when your letters, in some cases, have not been received. Due to war activities, 2nd and 3rd class mail will be slow from now on. Sometimes we are out of an item, awaiting a shipment that we can not tell when it will arrive. Use your logic of deduction and cultivate patience, we are doing the best we can under a very trying situation. Remember, our one desire is to help you, not to cause you trouble, or to be mean to you.

6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

And remember another thing; everything at headquarters has to be done by two people, yours truly and his wife. We hope, however, that a helper will arrive in the near future; several are under consideration; we have turned down many applicants because their charts did not harmonize with our work. And so in our new set-up we shall emphasize the laws of God as manifested in our Christian Bible and astrology; but even these two sources do not take in all the laws of God, or not except indirectly. And we most certainly shall endeavor to stand by our Constitution and Bill of Rights. We shall not compromise; and so, if it is a crime or a felony to be loyal to God and our flag and Constitution, then you can put me down as a criminal, for I shall not pussyfoot anywhere.

If you will re-read the article in the November, 1939, issue entitled The Truth Shall Make You Free, you will have some idea as to what we shall emphasize. Now war with Japan will last about 6 months; in the meantime re-read your "Japan, Friend or Foe" and see how close we were to the mark in actual happenings.

You can help The Beacon Light along by getting this back number in circulation; we have about 200 copies. I would suggest a combination: Japan, Germany, Preparation, Why Physical Disasters, Coming Changes in the World's Map, and Coming Events. These 6 numbers are very timely just now, and you can help those who are blindly groping in the dark, by placing them in their hands... The June, 1940, is also very good, with an article on the new order in addition to the first of the series of "Thy Kingdom Come". These predictions are now being fulfilled in the world. Thousands are panicky because of ignorance. The Beacon Light readers have no excuse for being panicky. In the past ten years we have pretty much covered the ground.

Perhaps you would like to send in a donation for us to send this out to those who can not afford them. The last ten days have brought many requests for free literature, beyond our ability to supply. We have been sending it out at a very heavy pace for the past six months and for free literature we depend very largely on donations from those who can afford to contribute toward this end.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS:

"... Please let me know when my subscription ends, as I don't want to miss any of your wonderful Beacon Light magazines. I wish I could afford to send you a lot of money to help you in your great work, but the little I can get by nickels and dimes I save to get the books I order once in a while.

May God bless you and take good care of you and yours, as you are needed so much at this time. I am praying for you. — — —"

THE LUNATION OF JANUARY 16, 1942

The lunation of the 16th of January covers the period from that date to February 15th. Here we have the volatile Cancer on the ascendant. There is usually considerable expression from people, with Cancer on the ascendant in a lunation chart, and this will be no exception. And what will the people express themselves about? Well, the chart gives the answer; first we look for the position of the Sun and Moon. We find them posted in the 7th house, and the 7th house has to do with partnership, foreign affairs and our relationship to them.

Now the Sun and Moon are within orb of a square of Mars and opposition of Pluto, and Pluto is posted in the 1st house and Mars in the highest position in the chart, the 10th. This combination indicates a good deal of discontent, domestic as well as foreign disillusion. The government will not be as popular as it would desire—considerable hostile criticism; to sum it up, the people are not satisfied with the status quo. And so, we are not at peace with ourselves nor are we at peace beyond our borders, not even with our allies in the present conflict. It is taken for granted that we are hostile toward Germany, Japan and Italy and their satellites; but there will be considerable discord with Free France, with England and with Russia. And all is not well with some of the southern Republics. Uncle Sam would do well to learn to rely upon himself and trust no one; for in my opinion The United States has no friends among the various foreign powers, not even among those to whom we have poured out our treasures and the blood of our fine manhood. I would advise Americans to subscribe to and read The Congressional Record, for this lunation indicates that there will be real news from that source. Note the grouping of the four powerful planets in and near the 11th house; here we have Saturn and Uranus conjoined, and adverse to Mercury and Venus, the latter two are posted in the 8th house, so there will be great concern regarding the nation's finance. And well there might be, for no power on earth can stop the present trend now that we are at war; and that trend is national bankruptcy, as we pointed out a few years ago.

If the nation would live up to the Constitution, and print its own money, it would not be so bad; but for every billion dollars the nation borrows it must pay back two billion to the international bankers, whose wealth is estimated at more than the total wealth of the United States. Our borrowing from now on, will be such that we can never even pay the interest charges; and this issue alone will plunge the country into civil war within two years.

We have supplied an ocean of facts along this line in the past few years, and so we will refer you to those numbers to supply the missing links.

As we have stated before, war is spiritual sickness; it is a feverish condition in our nation, caused by our national sins, of omission and commission; and so, in the last analysis, war is a great benefic for it purges the system of the poisons within the body. The Good Book says there is no remission of sins without the shedding of blood; war will purify our national bloodstream. The suffering will make people think, and thinking precedes action. And if we are wise,—and we will be—we will see that hating Japan, or Germany, or some other power, is not only inefficient but disastrous to the individual or nation that does the hating.

The source of our trouble is within; so when the nation realizes that, and starts at the proper place by acknowledging that our own willfulness has bred the disease of war, we will return to God, and say 'Thy will, O Lord, not mine, be done'. We must substitute the 'Thy' for the 'my'. I have urged you, as individuals, for many months, to live the 'Thy will be done' life; and do you know what will happen when you do that? You will find that God is really helping on your side; our armed forces will vanquish the enemies without, because we have vanquished the enemy within. Let our enemies take care of their own national sins, we have enough of our own. This teasing God for victory will be of no avail until we clean house and walk in harmony with God; that's the law, and you either comply with it or suffer the consequences. Dictators throughout the world are but a symbol of degeneracy in the world, and always disappear as the spiritual consciousness of the people manifests; so let us first remove the mote from our own eye.

From an astrological point of view, Japan has committed suicide. She is to be pitied; and so are we. This chart indicates that we need more God-fearing men at the helm in Washington; because for the lack of fundamental knowledge of spiritual law Congress is going around in circles. And that Mars on the cusp of the 11th house is dynamite; the members are emotionally stirred up, combative and in anything but a spiritual frame of mind. There will be bitter quarrels in Congress; many eyes will be opened, many will wish they could turn back the clock, for they would vote entirely different on some of the major issues of the past two years.

The chart indicates that the Administration is not functioning efficiently; one can only function efficiently when God comes first, but with few exceptions God doesn't cut much ice in Washington today
6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

Labor is going to be heard from; it still has the 'gimmies'. They will get further concessions, for Jupiter is the ruler of the house of labor; and it is posted near the cusp of the 12 house and in good aspect to Mercury in the money house. Labor is heading for a tremendous fall, and will, we believe, play a major part in plunging the country into civil war.

Neptune on the cusp of the 4th house is a cloud the size of a man's hand; it indicates distrust, uneasiness, chaotic conditions, throughout the nation, even though it be in good aspect to the Sun, Moon and Uranus, and also Saturn. And by the way, most of this influence is in the 3rd, and indicates the trend toward spiritual reading; Uranian literature will be much in demand, material such as 'Thy Kingdom Come', and 'National Destiny', contains the meat the people desire and need.

Naval forces will have some outstanding victory during this lunar period, although we may expect considerable losses at sea. Nevertheless, we are going to get some very good news pertaining to naval warfare. Mercury in Aquarius in the 8th house and in good aspect to Jupiter indicates unusually good business conditions in the nation as a whole. It also indicates that the people will return to the government, through taxation, huge sums of money.

In conclusion, do not expect peace to come to the nation this year, although Japan is more than likely to drop out of the picture before the year ends, for she is surrounded by powerful enemies; she cannot possibly win, in spite of the initial gains up to date. The very earliest this conflict can end is toward the close of '43. I am forced to this conclusion by analyzing charts of individuals and nations. And when it ends, there will be no Treaty of Versailles with the seeds of another war, because God will dictate the terms this time. This is the Judgment of the Nations; and no nation will be in a position to dictate terms to anyone. And so again I say, while we must defend ourselves against a combination of nations, it is even more important that we learn to say 'Thy will, O Lord, not mine, be done.'

FROM NEW YORK:

THE BEACON LIGHT — February, 1942

YOU AND YOUR ASPECTS FOR FEBRUARY

There are some rather ugly combinations during the month of February, in fact they start in the last 10 days of January. You see we have such a grouping of planets in fixed signs, no less than 7 in fact; and at the next New Moon, 8, and they are adverse to each other. And so, in a general way, I would say don't start anything important during the month of February, for things started under these combinations cannot succeed, they will run into obstacles that you never dreamed of; unexpected disaster will strike them and you, if you indulge in them. And so, lie low as far as business activities are concerned. Of course, carry on the routine affairs of your life, but don't let anyone stampede you into new enterprises; whether it be building a house or publishing a book, thumbs down. Of course I am generalizing, it is too big to do otherwise; the individual wise enough to let God direct his affairs will be led through the shoals of hidden rocks to safety. Incidentally, I would suggest the book, Power Through Constructive Thinking, by Emmet Fox. We shall review it next month, but take my word for it, this is a book that you need now; it is a perfect gem, especially in times like this; the price is $2.00.

Many of you are contemplating building new homes or changing your place of residence. Plan, if you want to, but no action this month. You see, most of the minor planets are in Taurus; and so we have a succession of adverse squares of Sun, Moon, Mercury and Venus to Mars, Saturn, Pluto and Uranus; and briefly, that is the story of February. I have decided to let it go at that with one exception; watch out around the 15th as the Sun squares Uranus. If you were born around the middle of February, May, August or November, you are apt to make unwise moves; and so again I say, peg down your tent and wait till the month is out; the picture will change so much in most cases that you will have no desire to carry out the plans that came to you during the month of February. And remember that Man's extremity is God's opportunity. Get a copy of Power Through Constructive Thinking, and use it; by so doing you will be functioning on an entirely different plane than if you followed your own natural inclination.

Man is hanging onto the status quo, but God is going to break up that status quo; and so you may expect considerable damage through the elements this month, through earthquakes, tidal waves and storms, with an aftermath of considerable sickness. The moral is, don't identify yourself with these things; avoid them through the 'Thy will be done' formula.

THE U. S. CHART: The lunation of January 16th falls right over Pluto; in the Libra chart it is in the 4th house, in the Gemini chart in the 9th. But in any event it is in opposition to Mercury, indicating a very troubled frame of mind throughout the nation. And we find that Mars was adverse to Mercury and Pluto, and in the house of war in the Libra chart. Look out for heavy losses when Mars squares our national Moon, which it does around the middle of February. And this coincides with the Sun square to Uranus in the lunation at that time.

Furthermore, at that time Jupiter is coming up to a conjunction with Uranus. Additional testimony is the position of our progressed Moon, and it will form some very disagreeable aspects for the next 6 months. And so I am still convinced that the war with Japan will terminate on or before our national birthday.

At the time of the Pearl Harbor attack the progressed Moon was just separating from a square of Uranus; the next aspect is a trine to the Sun, and at that time the conflict will be coming to a head. The next 90 days will pretty well settle the issue; our forces will gain some ground, and be ready for a decisive battle before the month of April is out.

But as soon as the Japanese situation is in hand, we shall realize that we have a bigger job on our hands as Hitler's war machine begins rolling along again, this time toward Turkey. I take no pleasure in analyzing a chart under present conditions; it is too ghastly but the world must reap what it sows.

ROOSEVELT: As we glance over the chart of the President, we find that the month of February will be a very turbulent one for him, with the grouping of planets mostly in his 5th, 8th and 9th houses. Yet with the powerful Mars conjoined his Jupiter and trine to Uranus, he is very confident of his course of action. His chief concern will be the financing of the war. And look out for a blow to your solar plexus around the middle of the month when Mars crosses your Jupiter, you are going to know what war means.

During this month Mr. Roosevelt will lose some old and powerful friends, men who stood by him yesterday but who are shaking their heads today; some of this will happen in the last week of January. And again death will thin the ranks of the Administration. Very few of those now in the saddle will remain there until the end of the conflict, the mortality will be terrific; some through death but many through the terrific criticism which will be leveled at them because of the embarrassing facts that will come to the surface.

HITLER: Here is another ruler who is not felling very happy, we find him in a very worried frame of mind, for this lunation offlicts Uranus and Mercury. But he is still full of fight, with Mars going through his 7th house. I would say he is now planning another coup; watch him as Mars crosses his radical Mars between the 10th and 15th of February.

Jupiter in his 8th favorable to Saturn and Uranus indicates the conquest of additional countries. The war takes a new turn; but I am frankly suspicious of the Russian-German picture. We have a very powerful conjunction of planets this month, namely, of Mars and Saturn; this falls in a very sensitive point in Hitler's chart, that is in the 8th house, the house of death; it is possible that an attempt will be made to assassinate him. Of one thing I am sure; Hitler will not live to see the termination of this war. As I have stated before, none of the present day leaders will survive the conflict; one after the other, they will suddenly step out of the picture. But the ball will continue to roll along; the conflict will be fiercer than ever.

Fortunately this Mars-Saturn influence is very favorable in our national chart, although it is very adverse for the President; and so I find the trend right through—the charts of the nations and their leaders do not coincide, which indicates that the leaders will fall by the wayside. But the month of February is only a semi-final to the climax that will come up a little later.

THE LUNATION OF FEBRUARY 15, 1942

We feel that this lunation should be included in this number to complete the picture. The lunation, with the serious Capricorn on the ascendant and with Venus and Mercury in that sign in the 1st house, indicates a serious realization of the things we have spoken of for many years.

✱ You are going to see a real cracking down this month; and in our opinion it is very necessary, to awaken the people of the nation, especially of the middle class, the business men and the professional men. These are the people who will be most concerned for, many thousands of them will be thrown out on the streets destitute, because their business will be closed down for the duration. And so, this month, many Americans will begin to wonder and question about the freedom they are fighting for in foreign lands. This nation will go through exactly the same procedure as Russia, Germany, Italy, Spain and France; then England. Many years ago Maeterlinck produced a play and a book called The Bluebird. Would that this nation had taken to heart the precepts of that play and book.

The cracking down will result in a revolt; but I am for the cracking down, because it is the only thing that will awaken the people. Abstract ideas do not penetrate, and people will be thinking in terms of civil war more than of aggression abroad; too many people will be hurt during this lunar period. They are going to question the men placed in key positions. Men in responsible positions should be of unimpeachable character; such is not the case, many of them have criminal records.

You see, as an American it is still my duty to tell you these things no matter what it may cost me personally; I must be loyal to the flag and Constitution at all costs, and so must you. I do not hesitate to say that a chaotic condition will exist throughout the nation, due to drastic action. The Mars conjoined with Saturn in the 4th house and the Sun and Moon adverse to Mars, Saturn and Uranus, is a very ugly combination. Bitter opposition to the President and the administration will prevail; a definite cleavage will take place in the nation, which will eventually end in civil war.

I write this with considerable sadness; it need not have been, if you who read this message had taken a more vital interest in the protection of your flag and country than in your own personal safety. I do advise you to look up the records of the men who will do the cracking down; most of them are recorded in The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background, and The Red Network. And you will find that the objective of these men is a Soviet of America. They have come a long way; they have captured your schools, in fact the whole educational system is in their hands; the judiciary, the courts newspapers, radio, movies; they have worked while you slept.

Yes, our national ship will shake severely; but it is very necessary, to jolt the indifferent Americans into action. We must stand by the flag and its Constitution.

The discord will result in a tremendous amount of sickness, in spite of the fact that Jupiter is on the cusp of the 6th; that Mars-Saturn in the 4th will more than offset it.

Nature will be on the rampage, with destructive storms and earthquakes. Most of this will take place between the 7th and the 24th; the worst will be around the 15th. And when the elements break loose, remember that God is speaking through those elements, trying to awaken you spiritually, for only suffering will break through the effects of soft and high living, with the senses deadened by alcohol, tobacco and night life. I am glad to say, it is the beginning of the end of the glittering cocktail palaces throughout the land. God is speaking, and the people are going to listen.

As stated elsewhere, this is a good month to lie low on physical activities. Saturn will take a heavy toll throughout the nation. It is the duty of every citizen to be alert to enemy activities within the nation. Whatever internal troubles are, that is our affair; we must stand solid for national defense. Personally, my heart is not in warfare, but I am quite willing to shoulder a rifle if necessary to defend our nation.

I am sorry for those holding responsible positions in the nation's Capital; the pressure will be too much for some of them. As a result some will break down, others will step out, and in some cases suicide. They, too, will get the realization of what it is all about.

The malefic influence in the 4th indicates tremendous discontent among the backbone of the nation, namely, the producer; farmers, cattle raisers, and laborers in general. This is also very bad for mining activities; if you are engaged in this occupation, lie low; disastrous accidents will take place.

Labor will again kick over the traces and cause trouble. This combination will strike terror to the hearts of bankers, who see bankruptcy looming for them. And Congress will be alarmed as never before; they too will see visions of national bankruptcy, due to the tremendous spending. For the first time you will see signs of violence within the nation as an act of desperation.

So, see that you spend a portion of each day in prayer and meditation, that you may not be affected by the outward storms that will prevail; and above all you must be loyal to God and country, else the nation will perish. I do not think it will, God still remains supreme, in spite of the outward appearance of things. Anyway, put your shock-absorbers on, and renew your faith in God and Constitutional government; because as we have many times stated, man has failed, and divinity is going to take over the reins, and through the elements and cosmic forces will strike terror to the evil-doers in high places. He will strengthen the hands of the God-fearing Senators and Representatives in the nation's Capital, and people will begin to listen and follow their advice.

And so again I say we can rise above all this conflict, through meditation and prayer, and in no other way. As Billy Bray, the old Cornish miner, used to say, Me and God is always a moyority. God's will is going to prevail on earth, in spite of all the forces of hell; and so if you are wire, you will ally yourself with the winning element or principle, God. Only the fool would do otherwise.

C O L O N I Z A T I O N

This is a subject I have dodged for a long time, but it will not be downed. There is scarcely a day but what we get a letter asking if I am going to start a colony. During the past two years or more, when we began to write on preparation, we have received hundreds of inquiries on this subject.

I have hesitated to express my opinion, because I have very good friends, whose views are directly opposite to mine. Some 35 years ago I was imbued with the idea of founding a colony of idealists; and being a practical idealist, I began to collect data on co-operative groups and colonies, not only here in America but in England and other parts of the world. And here is what I have discovered: the average co-operative group ceases to co-operate in from one to three years, the vast majority fall in the first year.

I was co-founder of the co-operative group here in Atascadero some eight years ago; and like all the others it ended in collapse. And so, from this, you can see that I am definitely not interested in founding a colony. I have studied very closely, the reason why co-operative groups fail. I can sum it up in one word—selfishness. In other words, the average individual has not developed enough spirituality to think of the other fellow first and of self second.

But I believe there is another reason; we here in America are highly individualized; we are not, like primitive natives, governed by a group or race spirit, which is the only guiding principle in nature. Birds and animals are also governed by race spirits. Here in America we have caught a glimpse or have visioned what Jesus meant when He said, Ye are gods. That means individualism, to the nth degree.

However, in my studies I have gleaned much valuable information. Back in 1909 or 1910 it was my good fortune to run into Mr. Patterson, who is now the head of the National Cash Register Co. He was showing pictures and lecturing on what they had done at Dayton, Ohio, among the destructive element of boys in the neighborhood. Depredations from these lively youngsters ran into several thousand dollars a year. And so Mr. Patterson conceived the idea of using these misdirected energies for constructive purposes. And he bought up a large tract of land adjoining the factory, which was a city dump, known as Slidertown. He said the reason for the name was because everything that was of no value slid down there.

He hired an efficient gardener, called the boys together, and told them he would provide tools and seeds and an efficient supervisor to instruct the boys how to grow vegetables and flowers; but that they were to run it themselves, nobody would boss them. They were first to elect a mayor, and council and a chief of police, with assistants. Then, he said, it is up to you; when you have raised your crops we will offer prizes for the best crops; you can sell your flowers and vegetables wherever you like, and the profit is yours.

The boys were so dumbfounded they wouldn't believe it. I can't remember the details, I am just quoting from memory; but I can see those pictures before me as I write, the "before" and "after" transformation in the boys and the garden.

But that wasn't all; Mr. Patterson kept his interest in those boys and gave certificates of merit to those who earned them. And when they were old enough, if they cared to present them at the factory, an opening was made for them. To make a long story short, those boys of yesterday are now running that concern.

You will note that this was not exactly a colony idea; the boys were taught self reliance by standing on their own feet. And so my experience has been, that that is the only kind of colony that can succeed.

During the past two years I have had several tracts of land offered me free of charge for colonization purposes. Inasmuch as I had no money to develop them I turned them down. However, I would accept land in certain localities on this basis, providing I had enough working capital to make a start. And here is my idea. I would like a piece of land large enough to lay out an ideal community, in which certain restrictions would prevail, these restrictions for the benefit of all concerned, to prevent it from degenerating into just another town. Portions would be sold under these restrictions, but each individual would own his own home, and would have no interference or bossing from anybody, outside of the rules and regulations that must exist in every home or community, because we can only enjoy liberty under law, or discipline. Spirit without form is chaos.

I would like to make my home with a few other practical idealists, providing the thing could be worked out; however, it is just a pipe-dream as far as I am concerned; my missionary work has impoverished me so that I can do nothing. I would like to carry out my own advice as given in the September, 1940, Beacon Light.

....Of one thing I am sure; we shall have to learn to co-operate, during the next seven years, or else—. And we shall all have to learn to be disciplined. The average person who wants to join a colony thinks that by so doing they will be absolutely free to do as they please; of course they soon have a rude awakening. A colony or community must have an official head whose word is law; that individual must have the patience and the wisdom of a Solomon. And that is where I am let out, for I do not think I am wise enough to play that role. I am a disciplinarian, and if I were forced into such a position I would soon get the reputation of being hardboiled, because I would insist that all rules and regulations of the colony be observed.

Just imagine a home where everybody did as they pleased (and there are such); they are a regular madhouse.

And so I hope this little article will settle, once and for all, the colony idea as far as I am concerned, unless it be along the outlines I have given and someone is able and willing to finance such a venture. Rest assured of one thing: you are going to leave your cities, voluntarily or involuntarily. They will lie in ruins, and you will lie with them unless you leave them. And so you had better begin to make some preparations right now.

By the way, I haven't time to answer lengthy letters; my ideas are expressed in the Preparation numbers of 1940, and a few sets can still be obtained, the 6 for $1.00. They include the April to September, 1940, numbers. Only a very few are left of some of these numbers; they are yours while they last at 6 for $1.00.

I would like to join hands with a small, select group, along the lines above suggested; but of course finance is the first step, and this we do not have. I have spent most of my life in the building game, for many years followed railroad construction and practical occupations; have built many homes all over the American continent. Although I am somewhat rusty and not up to date, I do have some very definite ideas on the matter of building. In this connection, all building should be quake proof. Incidentally, I have a friend who has invented a very unique type of quake-proof, fireproof building, that far surpasses anything I have seen up to date.

Now if you write in on this subject, type your letters if at all possible. And make it brief and to the point, don't ramble, because I don't have time for lengthy letters, however good they may be. Besides, a clear thinker can express himself in a few words; so, begin to think clearly before you write me. Don't write just for curiosity. I prefer to answer your letters through the magazine so we will not have to cover the same ground for a number of people.

Your most valuable possession during the next seven years will be health, so you had better start reading up on the subject and find out how it is obtained, and where. In March, 1940, we put out a special health number, entitled The Laws of Health. There are about 200 copies left. They, too, can be obtained at 6 for $1.00. Why not get 6 and pass them out to your friends as they become sick, because from experience I have learned that people are not interested in the subject of health until they are sick.

Doctors will be scarce, but if you observe the laws of health you won't need a doctor. There are a lot of people who will worry themselves sick; that is a senseless procedure. The Virgos and Pisceans are the worst sinners in that respect, but it is not confined to them. Another class becomes sick because they are highly sensitive; they absorb the turmoil of the whole world through their solar plexus; I am one of that class. On the night that war was commenced, six times I dozed off to sleep, and each time I was out on the Pacific Ocean and saw the bombardment at Pearl Harbor; what a night of horror I put in! Now if you are sensitive, to the degree that you feel these things, build up your body to the best of your ability with body-building foods. If you can afford a vegetable juicer I would say it is a good investment. Cell salts are extremely valuable. On this subject, write to Mrs. Inez E. Perry, she knows more about this subject than anyone else I know of. Her address is Box 544, Hollywood, Calif. On the subject of vegetable juices, get a copy of Dr. Pope's book, Raw Vegetable Juices. And I do believe in herbs. I am going to tell you about one that came to my notice about a year ago; we have given away a lot of them in the past year, with remarkable results in some cases. It is the hardest-tasting thing I ever tried.

Briefly, it is a blood purifier, and was discovered when cattle were turned loose in a certain area where it grew. They thrived and fattened, and the other half of the herd, on other pasture, was skinny and did not thrive, over a given period for several months. It can be obtained from us in liquid form at \$2.00 a quart, or \$3.00 for a package weighing about 14 ounces that will make about a gallon of the liquid. It should simmer for about an hour, then be strained and bottled; a dose is from $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 wineglass twice a day, but don't take it on an empty stomach as it will be apt to make you sick. The dose will vary according to your disposition and constitution; however, there is nothing injurious. You must experiment with yourself, and see how much you can take. I shall have more to say on this subject from time to time.

T H Y K I N G D O M C O M E

A little over a year ago we launched the book, Thy Kingdom Come. It met with a rather frigid reception among the highbrows. To the astrological fraternity we mailed out about 25 or 30 review copies. Not a single one thought enough of it to review it or even comment. Indirectly they told me it had nothing to do with astrology. Well, I thought astrology pertained to the heavenly bodies and their movements, whether they be planets, fixed stars, comets or planetoids. Now 'Thy Kingdom Come' very definitely states that a planetoid will strike the earth.

Our experience with the spiritualist groups was the same; the acknowledgedly leading spiritualist journal in America asked for a review copy, but never did review it, although the material in this book was psychically received. And so I say the astrologers and the psychics should have been proud of this book; they could now point to it with pride because its predictions are coming true to the letter. Take the 4th Letter: Japan will capture the Philippines, Guam and Hawaii. Since the war broke out we have been swamped with orders for this book, and it is more than likely that the book will be out of print before you get this notice. However, we are trying to finance a new edition. In the meanwhile, if copies are all sold out when your order is received, we have a few sets of The Beacon Light containing the series, beginning in June, 1940, and ending with the November number; I would say not more than 20 sets at the most. But we have a surplus of the July number, with the above prediction in it, and while they last you may have them at 6 for $1.00. Regarding the war now started, it says, When the great war starts, rejoice and look up; God is judging the nations and He will be the victor.

We have collected a lot of scientific data pertaining to this book, with the idea of including it in a new edition; I doubt if this can be done, for two reasons, first, 'it would make the book too bulky so that we would have to raise the price, and second, printing costs are at least a third higher than they were a year ago. Now it is our desire to maintain the dollar price, so as to keep it within the reach of all. If all copies are sold when you order, please state whether you will accept the 6 magazines with the series in; if not we will hold your order until a new edition can be gotten out. This is likely to be several months because of difficulty in obtaining paper, labor shortage, transportation delays, etc. Send your dollar today for a copy; the most sensational book in modern times.

BOOK REVIEWS

MOON SIGN BOOK FOR 1942: By Llewellyn George.

This item I have sold for 34 years, beginning in the year 1908: at that time I sold a few items as a sideline; for with Gemini rising I was always interested in books. And so again I take pleasure in announcing that the 1942 edition of the Moon Book is available. The price is $1.05.

1942 WHAT'S NEXT: By Harry J. Gardener.

This annual is now in its eighth year, and has a very unique place in the realm of advanced literature. I don't always agree with my good friend Harry Gardener, but I do agree that Harry has been doing a fine, worth while job.

I am agreeably surprised at some of the parts of the 1942 edition: he is talking a little more plainly in this number than ever before, and so I take my hat off to him. Maybe some of the ribbing I gave him is responsible in part. I am particularly interested in the Signs of the Times article, and especially the paragraph devoted to Union Now. It is well that this be presented to the metaphysical readers, who are the chief ones who patronize 'What's Next'. You would do well to read his arguments. And later on, in the same article, much valuable information is given on Russia. All in all, this article alone on Signs of the Times is well worth the price of the book. The arguments are not new to The Beacon Light, especially four years ago in 'Washington's Vision in Action', which we are reprinting in this issue.

The price of this book is $1.00 as before.

NOSTRADAMUS, THE MAN WHO SAW THROUGH TIME: By Lee McCann.

This is a name to conjure with; Nostradamus must have been a spiritual giant, for the remarkable prophecies cover a range of 500 years. Now we are all interested in the near future; and from all accounts Nostradamus was a prophet par excellence. Here is a book of over 420 pages, with the most thrilling prophecies ever put between the two covers of a book in modern times. It is divided into two parts; the first part is a record of fulfilled predictions, the second part still in the future. You can not help but feel, as you read this volume that the Supreme Ruler of the universe is very definitely in the picture; at least that is the way it impressed me. And that is a comforting thought; I would hate to think that the future of humanity was in mortal hands.

Nostradamus must have been an astrologer the like of which we do not have today; there are so many missing links in our knowledge of the subject today, just as there are in our Christian Bible. And so this book is very intriguing to the student of astrology; he seemed to cover the whole gamut of history, past and future. His remarks on the League of Nations are very pertinent and to the point, also on the Spanish revolution. Much of his predictions seem to be based on the position of Saturn. Well, Saturn is now about to change its sign from Taurus to Gemini.

Nostradamus speaks of war, beyond the period when we believe this war will end, so apparently there will be further conflict if he is correct. You will be interested in the chapter entitled The Coming of Hitler. But I could go on, and on; will sum it up in saying that here is a remarkable book, well printed, and the price is $2.75.

ASTOUNDING NEW DISCOVERIES:

This title applies to Biblical research. I understand this book has had a remarkable sale. While I do not agree with all the conclusions, there is no doubt that this is a valuable aid to Bible study. The author has called in the aid of science in his exploring. The book, according to the author, has had a sales average of a thousand copies a day; that is some sales record.

The author has used the science of numerology, and I believe he is on the right track; for I am convinced that numerology runs all through life. He also brings in botany and chemistry, mathematics, and so on.

We believe all truth correlates, and so I say this writer is on the right track. If you are a sincere student of the Bible, this book is bound to prove valuable to you. It contains 171 pages, cardboard cover, and sells for 50c.

6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

WHAT TO DO WITH HERBS: By Mary Cable Dennis.

I am convinced that humanity will fall back on herbs a great deal during the turbulent days that lie ahead; and so I have been searching for books along this line. This is one of several I hope to present on the subject.

When I was a boy, the simple country folks leaned quite heavily on herbal remedies; today, everything must come out of a cellophane package instead of from nature's storehouse. Through necessity we are going to reverse the process.

This book has several chapters, all of which are without headings; but the contents, as stated by the title, are what to do with herbs. But we find it includes fruits and vegetables aplenty, and so the term 'herbs' has a wide application. It also includes materials which strictly speaking are not herbs.

It is followed by an appendix with recipes for various purposes, including the making of brandies. It is cloth bound, and contains a little less than 100 pages; and sells for $1.50.

RANDALL'S A B C OF ASTROLOGY:

This is a beginner's book on the subject of astrology; it is a primer for those approaching the subject for the first time. The book is concise and complete as far as the fundamentals of the first steps in astrology are concerned; and it contains a complete Raphael Ephemeris for the year 1917, so that the student can erect a chart for any day in that year from the data given. There is also a table of logarithms. It is cloth bound, of 104 pages without the Ephemeris, and sells for $1.50.

THE TANAKA MEMORIAL, Japan's Dream of World Conquest.

We have 3 copies, and it is long since out of print. Read this, and then our 'Japan, Friend or Foe?' and you will have a better understanding of the Japanese conflict. Also read 'Thy Kingdom Come': knowledge is power, most people are going around in circles for lack of it. Price 50c.

EDUCATION FOR DESTRUCTION: By Dr. Bessie R. Burchett.

I had intended reviewing this book next month; but inasmuch as it blends with our leading article, here goes.

Briefly, it is the story of the treatment of a patriotic teacher in our public schools; but more important yet, it shows clearly that the Communist party controls our educational system, from grammar school to college—hence the title.

Talk to the average high school or college youth, and you will find them more in sympathy with Communism than with our constitutional government; and this book explains why. It shows that the books written by Communist professors are favored in practically all our schools and colleges.

It is about time you parents and other adults realized that we are paying millions of dollars to an educational system that ridicules all that we hold sacred. And herein, my friend, are the seeds of war; and it is this generation that is going to pay the price of war, and what a price it will be! But we adults are to blame for permitting the corruption of our boys and girls.

We drew your attention to this, four years ago, when we received the Dan Gilbert series, including 'Crucifying Christ in Our Colleges'. This book could very well be titled 'Seeds of War'. We talk of persecution in foreign countries; nothing could exceed the persecution of this brave woman who stood up for Christian Americanism in the schools of Philadelphia.

The book is cloth bound, 175 pages; price is $1.50.

FROM ILLINOIS:

Enclosed is a Money Order for one year's subscription for The Beacon Light. It is truly a wonderful book! I meet so few to whom I can talk on these subjects, some of them written on in this magazine, without either giving offense or of finding a total lack of interest, or because of ignorance. And I can tell you that I fully appreciate every article that I read in the magazine, November, 1940, which accidentally came to my notice.

It is most heartening to find anyone, in these days, who is a true student of the Bible. I have just ONE friend to whom when she calls on me, I can open my heart, without giving offense. — — — "

A CHRISTMAS LETTER FROM MICHIGAN:

As this, the day of days, draws to a close, it is no more than fitting that I wish you and those around you the Season's Greetings.

What would be more fitting than that I make such a New Year's resolution: to pass among my friends each month a half dozen Beacon Lights, and a year's subscription to some interested person. Find enclosed the sum of $5.00 for which please send me 6 issues of January, and a year's subscription to — — —.

Once more a Happy and Prosperous New Year. I didn't make a mistake in the sum enclosed. Yours for a better world. — — —"

FROM NEW YORK:

Enclosed find $1.00 for which please send me 6 month trial subscription to The Beacon Light, starting with the December edition.

I have your book "Thy Kingdom Come" and want to follow your writings.

Wishing you divine inspiration, I am, Sincerely, — — —.

FROM LONG ISLAND:

Inclosed find check for $3.25, for which please send me the following books and the following 12 back copies of The Beacon Light.

I never heard of your magazine, although I've been spending 10 summers in Los Angeles! Only recently, here in N. Y., some friends gave me 1/2 dozen copies "to clean out all this literature!" evidently scared to death, because of N. Y. conditions, where most Communists are now "air raid wardens!" — —

FROM SAN FRANCISCO:

"Yesterday I stopped at the Aloha Metaphysical Book Shop to see my very dear friend, Mrs. Meyer, and ask her what she had to read that was new. Knowing that I am interested in astrology she promptly handed me your January issue of "Beacon Light", and I will say it is wonderful. You certainly have made a very complete diagnosis of the world's troubles; so well done that I am anxious to send 6 copies to as many friends, for which I enclose a dollar bill. I would like to send a dozen or more but can not afford it as I am out of work now. — — —

I can't understand why the people are so indifferent in these critical times. They all take the attitude of "What can you do about it?" I am so disgusted that I tell them they will soon find out, and then do as they are told, or else . . .

Hoping and praying that the Beacon Light will not become extinguished, I am,
Very truly yours, — — — "

FROM TEXAS:

Enclosed find one dollar for 6 copies of the January, 1942, Beacon Light. I think it is the most wonderful magazine in America; may God bless you with good health and a long life, for the good you are doing to enlighten us poor mortals. Very gratefully yours, — — — "

FROM OUR BANKER FRIEND IN MONTANA:

" . . . You are improving with age".

ANOTHER NOTE OF APPRECIATION:

"Many thanks for the, shall I say, wonderful 'Beacon Light'. May God bless you, and your helper, abundantly. Sincerely. — — —"

FROM WISCONSIN:

" . . Keep up your good work in spreading the gospel of truth as in Beacon Light, as we are sure in need of truth from now on. Yours faithfully. — — —"

FROM NEW YORK:

" . . As an astrology student I would not want to be without the Beacon Light as it gives me some very helpful instruction, especially in the Lunations. Am just wondering how long it will be possible for you to publish astrological truths. Your predictions certainly are exact and correct, which makes me respect you all the more.

. . . We do hope the Beacon Light continues and helps America in her fight for freedom. — — —"

WASHINGTON'S VISION IN ACTION

The following material is a reprint from our leading article of four years ago, that is, in February 1938. The whole 1938 series was four years ahead of time; see 'Japan, Friend or Foe?' in the July number.

We are in grave danger from without, but we are in far graver danger from within. When Russia withdraws the dagger from its sheath, that is the signal for real trouble for America. She is our enemy, and she always has been our enemy. And if it be treason to proclaim that fact, so be it.

Washington's Vision At Valley Forge, 1777, as related by Wesley Bradshaw. First published in 1859—Copied from The National Tribune of August 13, 1931.

The last time I ever saw Anthony Sherman was on the 4th of July 1859, in Independence Square, Philadelphia. He was then ninety-nine years old and becoming very feeble. But though so old, his dimming eyes rekindled as he gazed upon Independence Hall, which he had come to look upon once more before he was gathered home.

"Let us go into the Hall," he said. "I want to tell you an incident of Washington's life—one which no one living knows of except myself. And if you live, you will before long see it verified. Mark the prediction; you will see it come true.

"From the opening of the Revolution we experienced all phases of fortune—now good and now ill; one time victorious and another conquered. The darkest period we had, I think, was when Washington after several reverses, retreated to Valley Forge, where he resolved to pass the winter of '77. Ah! I have often seen the tears coursing down our dear commander's care-worn cheeks as he would be conversing with a confidential officer about the condition of his poor soldiers. You have doubtless heard the story about Washington's going to the thicket to pray. Well, it was not only true, but he used often to pray in secret for aid and comfort from God, the interposition of whose Divine Providence brought us safely through those dark days of tribulation.

One day—I remember it well—the chilly winds whistled through the leafless trees, though the sky was cloudless and the sun shone brightly. Washington remained alone in his quarters nearly all afternoon. When he came out I noticed that his face was a shade paler than usual, and there seemed to be something on his mind of more than ordinary importance. Returning to his quarters just after dusk, he dispatched an orderly for the officer I mentioned, who was presently in attendance. After a preliminary conversation of about half an hour, Washington, gazing upon his companion with that strange look of dignity which he alone could command, said to the latter:

"I do not know whether it is owing to the anxiety of my mind, or what, but this afternoon, as I was sitting at this very table engaged in preparing a dispatch, something in the apartment seemed to disturb me. Looking up I beheld standing opposite me a singularly beautiful female. So astonished was I—for I had given orders not to be disturbed—that it was some moments before I found language to inquire the cause of her presence. A second, a third, a fourth time did I repeat my question, but received no answer from my visitor except a slight raising of the eyes. By this time I felt strange sensations spreading through me. I would have risen, but the riveted gaze of the Being before me rendered volition impossible. I essayed once more to address her, but my tongue had become powerless, I even thought it had become suddenly paralyzed. A new influence, potent, irresistible, took possession of me. All I could do was to gaze steadily, vacantly, at my unknown visitant. Gradually the surrounding atmosphere seemed as though becoming filled with sensations, and grew luminous. Everything about me seemed to rarefy, the mysterious visitor herself becoming more airy and yet more distinct to my sight than before. I now began to feel as one dying, or rather to experience the sensations which I have sometimes imagined accompany dissolution. I did not think; I did not reason; I did not move; all were alike impossible. I was only conscious of gazing fixedly at my companion.

"Presently I heard a voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn', while at the same time my visitor extended her arm eastwardly. I now beheld a heavy white vapor at some distance arising fold upon fold. This gradually dissipated, and I looked upon a strange scene. Before me lay spread out in one vast plain all the countries of the world, Europe, Asia, Africa, America. I saw rolling and tossing between Europe and America the billows of the Atlantic; and between Asia and America lay the Pacific.

"'Son of the Republic', said the same mysterious voice as before, 'Look and learn'. At that moment I beheld a shadowy being like an angel standing, or rather, floating in mid-air between Europe and America. Dipping water out of the ocean in the hollow of each hand, he sprinkled some upon America with his right hand while with his left he cast some upon Europe. Immediately a dark cloud raised from these countries and joined in mid-ocean. For a while it remained stationary and then moved slowly westward, until it enveloped America in its murky folds. Sharp flashes of lightning gleamed through it at intervals, and I heard the smothered groans and cries of the American people. A second time the angel dipped water from the ocean as before, and sprinkled it on the land. The dark cloud was then drawn back to the ocean, in whose heaving billows it sank from view.

"A third time I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, the end of the century cometh; look and learn.' At this the dark, shadowy angel turned his face southward, and from Africa I saw an ill-omened spectre approach our land. It floated slowly and heavily over every town and city of the latter. As I continued looking I saw a bright angel, on whose brow rested a crown of light on which was traced the word UNION, bearing the American flag, which he placed between the divided nation and said, 'Remember, ye are brethren.' Instantly the inhabitants, casting from them their weapons, became friends once more, and united around the national standard.

"And again I heard the mysterious voice say, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' At this the dark, shadowy angel placed a trumpet to his mouth and blew three distinct blasts; and taking water from the ocean, he sprinkled it upon Europe, Asia and Africa. Then my eyes beheld a fearful scene. From each of these countries arose thick black clouds that were soon joined into one. And throughout this mass there gleamed a dark red light by which I saw hordes of armed men, who moved with the cloud, marching by land and sailing by sea to America—which country was enveloped in the volume of the cloud. And I dimly saw these vast armies devastate the whole country, burning the villages, towns and cities that I had beheld springing up. As my ears listened to the thundering of the cannon, clashing of swords and shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat, I again heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' When the voice ceased, the dark, shadowy angel placed his trumpet once more to his mouth and blew a long and fearful blast.

"Instantly a light as of a thousand suns shone down from above me, and pierced and broke into fragments the dark cloud which enveloped America. At the same time the angel upon whose head still shone the word UNION, and who bore our national flag in one hand and a sword in the other, descended from heaven attended by legions of bright angels. These immediately joined the inhabitants of America, who, I perceived, were well nigh overcome, but who immediately took courage again, closed up their broken ranks, and renewed the battle.

"Again amid the fearful noise of the conflict I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' As the voice ceased, the shadowy angel for the last time dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it upon America. Instantly the dark cloud rolled back, together with the armies it had brought, leaving the inhabitants of the land victorious.

"Then once more I beheld villages, towns and cities springing up where they had been before, while the bright angel, planting the azure standard he had brought into the midst of them, cried with a loud voice, 'While the stars remain in the heavens, and the sky sends down dew upon the earth, so long shall the Republic last'. And taking from his brow the crown on which was blazoned the word UNION he placed it upon the standard while the people, kneeling down, said 'Amen!'

"The scene instantly began to fade and dissolve, and I at last saw nothing but the rising, curling vapor I at first beheld. This also disappearing, I found myself once more gazing upon my mysterious visitor, who in the same voice I had heard before, said, 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is interpreted thus: Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The most fearful will be the last, passing which the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his God, his land, and his Union.' With these words the vision vanished, and I started from my seat feeling that I had seen a vision wherein had been shown me the birth, progress and destiny of the United States."

"Such, my friends," concluded the venerable narrator, "were the words I heard from Washington's own lips, and America will do well to profit by them."

There are some who are disposed to scoff at visions, dreams, etc., and to say, as did one certain prominent man to me recently, "I am a realist", implying that one cannot give serious consideration to visions or dreams if one is a realist. Certain types of narrow-minded religionists are apt to scoff at dreams and visions, overlooking the fact that there is no book in print which deals so much with the so-called supernatural as the Christian Bible. I am satisfied that the book itself was written largely under inspiration; but inspiration did not cease with the writing of the Bible. According to Winrod, the Old Testament contains more than 300 prophecies which reached fulfillment during the 33 years that Christ was in the flesh. Fulfilled prophecy is an unanswerable argument for the supernatural inspiration of the Bible.

There have always been on earth men and women who were instruments for divine revelations. From my earliest childhood I have had experiences which would be termed supernatural. I was afraid to tell anyone of those experiences, lest they would think I was insane; and not until I was around 21 years of age, would I take these things seriously. Like my good friend quoted above, I said "I am a realist; dreams and visions are all right for old ladies in their dotage and people about to die." In spite of the fact that I had had hundreds of revelations of events that later came to pass, I always said that reason was above all things. Incidentally, that's the basis of our school teachings today.

But the good Lord had intended to teach me a drastic and much needed lesson, and forced me to publicly admit that spiritual things were above reason and mental concept. On May 20, 1907, a beautiful, sunny day, and it happened to be my birthday, as I finished my lunch, and got ready to go back to work, an inner voice said "Don't go back to work this afternoon." Instead of accepting the warning, I was very much annoyed, and defiantly put on my hat and coat and proceeded toward the factory where I was working.

As I walked toward the factory, an invisible force was trying to hold me back; it was like forcing one's way through a blinding snow storm. Certainly here was a force that was beyond my reasoning powers. All the time I was saying, "Why should not I go to work?" as the invisible force pleaded with me to turn around. 1907 was the depression year, and I had been out of employment for several months, so I reasoned that I needed the money, which was true. As I entered the factory I felt like a condemned man about to be executed—such a terrible feeling of depression. Inwardly I knew that I should have obeyed, and felt condemned, but my logical mind said there was no excuse.

I was working in the mill room of a rubber factory. As soon as I returned to work, where I had only been a week or ten days, the foreman came to me and said, "We are short of mill hands" (who by the way are supposed to have a week's training) "will you help us out?" I knew if I refused I would lose my job; besides, like a good soldier I always pride myself on taking what comes to hand. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon I got my left hand caught in the mill, and in a second the fingers were ground to pulp. In that moment I heard that one word "Why" ring out; here was the answer. This is how the spiritual forces teach stubborn people like I was, that spiritual things are supreme. It took this tragedy to jar me loose from my conceit and stubbornness.

To astrological students, I may say that I have 6 planets in fixed signs; and Saturn, the steam roller, in Gemini which rules the hands, and square to Uranus. However, I knew nothing of astrology at that time, but became acquainted with it while at the hospital; I was between life and death for two months; shock, loss of blood and blood poisoning.

I may say that at that time I called myself an atheist, and was very bitter against religion, because of the proven false teachings of its leaders and the hypocrisy I met with. I was a patient for four months, but it was thirteen months before the bandages were finally removed from my hand. During those long days I did a lot of thinking, and became receptive to new ideas. I eagerly sought literature dealing with the so-called abstracts: astrology, spiritualism, theosophy, metaphysics in general. Astrologically, Uranus was then on the cusp of the 9th house, the house of higher mind, religion and philosophy, with the progressed Moon in the Karmic 12th house, the house of sorrow. So the cosmic clock had struck the hour for a change in my life. Man's extremity is God's opportunity, and it was so in my case.

Spiritualism taught me that there were unseen realms, and there was no such thing as death and destruction. But I could never become a spiritualist. While we are indebted to spiritualism for the proof that immortality is a fact, there is much about spiritualism that is undesirable, because they do not emphasize as they should that the dark forces can come through the door just as easily as the forces of light. I am grateful for some of the lessons learned in the realm of spiritualism, but the average spiritualist knows little or nothing about spiritual things; they are merely psychic.

But I had received a knock-out blow, and the props were taken from under me. At last I had learned to say, "Thy will, O Lord; not mine, be done". For many years I studied Theosophy, and learned much; but I found the average theosophist was an intellectualist, entirely void of spiritual or devotional qualities. I accepted reincarnation and karma because it appealed to my logical mind; and found that the Bible was full of references to reincarnation and karma. Eventually I dropped both spiritualism and theosophy except for those fundamentals. I also began to study astrology while in the hospital. Eventually I found evidence of the things I had learned in spiritualism and theosophy; that the fundamentals of those two philosophies dovetailed with astrology, although the adherents of the three groups fought each other bitterly. Again I became an independent, and refused to be tied by any organization.

Why am I telling you these experiences? Because after having thousands of spiritual experiences, I know that no individual can prosper and be at peace until he has learned to say "Thy will be done"; and this applies equally to nations. This brings me back to Washington's vision. As a nation, we are today where I was before my tragic so-called accident. America has been warned by men and women of vision. All these years we have had Washington's vision. McClellan's Vision, Elder Hoag's Vision, and numerous others.

Away back in 1909 I had a vision of Japan attacking America; so I know that Japan is going to make war against the land of the Stars and Stripes. We know that Russia plans to create a soviet of America. I am quite satisfied that Mussolini has similar aspirations after having conquered the whole Mediterranean area.

The good Lord has different plans for America, and the spiritual forces will play a big part in defeating the enemy when the time comes. But the point I wish to emphasize is, that the coming tragedy is necessary only because we have made it so. If we as a nation are willing to say "Thy will be done", throw overboard our modern dissipation, our sensational desires, and get down to a realization that God and His plans are supreme and that His will will prevail whether we cooperate or not, then much of the bloodshed will be done away with.

America is spiritually and morally sick. Civil war, or just plain war, are nothing but the expelling of the poison from our national body; and through the coming conflict America will again find her soul. If America will heed the warning, the blow can be softened considerably. When an individual is sick, if they be sensible, they lay off food, take a physic of some kind, and take plenty of hot baths to open up the pores. This is what we must do nationally. Your so-called modern music, which had its origin with the primitive savages, makes us mentally and spiritually unstable, creates unholy desires of eating and drinking and sex, destroys our spiritual poise, and kills our receptiveness to spiritual things. The very food we eat has been impoverished by so-called refining processes; as a result, we cannot build hospitals fast enough to care for the sick. We will go into this subject more fully next month, and explain what we mean. The youth of our land hasn't a chance to be decent, what with jazz music and suggestive motion pictures. And when they go to school, their minds are further poisoned by atheistic, materialistic teachings as Dan Gilbert so aptly calls it in his splendid book, The Slaughter of Innocence.

I am entirely out of sympathy with our modern gin palaces, and the dine-and-dance halls. I have no objection to dancing, although I have never learned to dance myself, providing they dance to music with harmony. Compare the Merry Widow waltz with modern jazz; the waltzes of Strauss with the products of Irving Berlin.

I could go on and enumerate many other things; but I have outlined enough to show that America has sunk to a very low level, mentally and spiritually. I should say a word about the material in our news stands; which fairly reeks with rottenness. What chance has the serious, staid Beacon Light got on our news stands, with the competition of suggestive pictures and sensational articles? America, let me plead with you to listen to the voice of the immortal Washington when he came to warn General McClellan during the Civil War. (This vision is included in our 'Destiny of the United States'; see our Book List), Great spiritual beings helped to found America, and were active in the framing of our Constitution; great spiritual beings are still on guard, and will stand by in the crucial hour now approaching. But the point I wish to emphasize is that we must listen, and then obey. I suggest that you memorize that grand old hymn, which is my favorite, "Thy will be done". There can be no peace, happiness nor prosperity, unless we as a nation are willing to say from the heart and mind, "Thy will be done".

We will now give you the opinions of a few men in the realm of practical things, to show you that we are well on the road to fulfillment of the 3rd part of Washington's vision. Under the heading of "Sabotage, Arson, Murder to start Next World War", the Seattle Post Intelligencer of Sunday, June 6th 1937, published an article by Capt. John H. Craig, U. S. Marines (retired):

"Should the United States ever come into conflict with one of the world's great military nations, New York, Chicago, San Francisco and our other great cities would face possible destruction before a declaration of war, by a new and terrifying method of attack.

"The new plan is the greatest contribution of Europe's military master minds to the horrors of war. It is based on sabotage raised to a fine art, and its weapons are fire and panic. It is not aimed exclusively at the United States, but American cities form its most vulnerable targets. Should a foreign nation determine to attack us, America might well awake on the dawn of a future war with half its rich industrial districts in flames and ashes.

New Plan

"By the provisions of this new plan, the hostile power would establish by "social infiltration" within each of our great cities a small force of desperate men with adequate supplies of arms and explosives. On the appointed night these would sally forth in disguise without warning, traveling in small groups, dynamiting, burning and destroying according to systematic plans, not ceasing until all of the attacking groups had been wiped out or the city reduced to ruins.

"This in a nutshell is the essence of Europe's latest nightmare of military ingenuity. Just where and when it originated is not definitely known, but experts have been aware of its existence for about two years. In some quarters its origin is ascribed to the Soviet general staff and it is called the "Voroshilov Plan" after the commissar of that name. Certainly its methods smack of those advocated by Communist authorities in promoting class war. Communist "cells" all over the world would form ideal focusing points for its operation.

Cities Vulnerable

"Whatever its origin, experts agree that strokes against cities, especially American cities, delivered in accordance with this plan would prove desperately hard to parry. As our great metropolitan areas have increased in size within the past 50 years they have grown increasingly vulnerable and delicate. Water-supply aqueducts, railroads, bridges and tunnels, gas and oil pipe lines and storage areas, communications trunks, all represent exposed vital spots in city organization where a sudden thrust would produce incalculable damages.

"Since the World War, military thought abroad has turned increasingly towards striking at those objectives. Many plans have been worked out that will render the life of the city man in future wars an unhappy one. He will be bombed and gassed from the air. Giant cannon of unprecedented range will drop shells on him from beyond the horizon's rim. His water and food supplies will be tampered with and he will face epidemics of disease.

"As if this were not enough, military savants now threaten him with blows from within dealt as outlined above. Added to the threats that already exist, this may prove serious enough to cause the disappearance from the map of the big city in its present form, should mankind continue to indulge in wars on an international scale in future years.

New York Defenseless

"Of all the world's cities, New York would form the most perfect target for attack by the new plan of 'social infiltration'. Boston, Chicago, San Francisco and other great American cities are vulnerable in many respects but New York would be the easiest to hit and the most difficult to defend.

"In Manhattan and the Bronx more than three million people are crowded on a rocky strip of land between two swift, deep rivers. More than 80 per cent of all buildings are of old-fashioned brick and wood construction. Gasoline and other inflammable fuel exist in considerable quantities over widely scattered areas.

Supply Lines

"Principal lines of water supply, gas, oil, food and communications all enter the city from a narrow sector, to the west. In all the world there does not exist such a made-to-order target for the sabotage raider as the North Jersey flatlands facing New York, with their complicated network of railroads, tunnels, pipelines, fuel storage depots and communications trunks.

"A force organized to harry New York by the 'social infiltration' method would probably consist of about 500 men. That would be enough to do the job. More would increase difficulties of concealment.

"These would be gradually infiltrated into some neighborhood close to No. 1 Highway. Probably the vicinity of Elizabeth would suit as well as any. The force would consist of picked men, all determined to die if necessary in accomplishing their mission. All would speak English perfectly and would be experts in the use of machine guns and explosives. It would not be difficult to domicile such a group in the vicinity of any big city in the United States. Other nations have elaborated police regulations and laws for the registration of aliens. We do not. The omission may some day cost us dear.

"The attacking force would gradually accumulate a considerable supply of high explosives in bulk, a quantity of hand grenades, both of the explosive and the incendiary types and sufficient automatic rifles and ammunition. They would be supplied with maps showing vulnerable lines and areas, which our government has obligingly allowed to be printed broadcast. Then after familiarizing themselves with the area of operations, they would be ready for their stroke.

Early Start

"Probably they would start at about 2 o'clock of a morning in spring or fall. Roads are then in their best condition and daylight does not come too early. Some lonely traffic light on the No. 1 Highway would be the scene of their start. Vehicles in large numbers are always traveling this road at all hours, day or night.

6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

"Trucks as needed would be held up and confiscated. Considerable groups of men in good sized-trucks would be started first, each group with certain major objectives as its aim. Most important of all to disable would be the aqueduct supplying New York with water. Next the railway and vehicular tunnels. Then the telegraph and telephone trunks.

"When parties had been sent scurrying into the darkness with these as their targets, smaller trucks would be manned. These would be given crews of three men, provided with explosive and thermite grenades and an automatic rifle apiece.

"These small trucks would provide both transportation and camouflage. Our automobile manufacturers turn them out by the millions every year and there are hundreds of thousands of them always on the streets of every large city. In them, each raiding crew would look just like any other small delivery truck going about its legitimate business.

Raiding Crews

"From the starting point, these trucks and their three-man raiding crews would spread out fan-like, mostly north and east, but a few south. Each crew would have its map and knew exactly what it was to do. Oil and gas pipelines would be blown up and fired. Blazes in oil storage depots would be started. A single high-explosive grenade would blow open the biggest gasoline tank. Then a thermite bomb would start a fire that all the fire companies couldn't put out.

"There would be hundreds of these fires breaking out within an hour. Police calls and fire alarms would pour into the cities of North Jersey in the sleepy morning hours. Some time would elapse before the authorities would realize that an organized raid was taking place. By that time the marshes from Bayonne north would be a blazing furnace.

"Probably in about an hour or an hour and a half the raiding force would finish with New Jersey and concentrate somewhere to the north. Here they would cross to the New York side, perhaps by the George Washington Bridge, perhaps by a ferry. Then they would start south in the early hours between dawn and darkness.

"Their tactics would be to keep moving at high speed and to keep separated, starting as many fires and causing as many separate alarms as possible. Each small truck would whirl and zizzag through the streets of the Bronx, and from there down through Harlem and Manhattan. Each would run a few blocks in one direction. They would stop at a likely corner, toss a thermite fashioned wooden building, cut loose a burst or two of machine gun fire 'at any traffic that might be in sight, veer off at right angles and repeat the process a few blocks further on.

"With incendiary blazes breaking out at the rate of fifty or more a minute and reports of machine gun fire coming in from widely separated localities, the police and fire departments would face an impossible problem. 'A panic such as the world has never seen might well add a finishing touch.

"Thoroughfares leading to the East River and the Hudson would be jammed to suffocation. Ferry boats would be overturned. Pedestrians would be trampled to death in the stampede at the entrance to the East River bridges.

"Eventually, of course, order would be restored and the raiding force wiped out to a man. But meantime millions, perhaps billions of dollars worth of damage would have been done. And if similar raids were staged on the same night in each of America's big cities, how much energy would this country have left to resist a later enemy thrust along more orthodox military lines?"

Compare this article with our warnings of the past few years, and with the visions of Washington, McClellan and Hoag. You will find that each portrays the same picture, in different language.

Here follows an article from the Los Angeles Examiner of July 1937 showing definitely the part Russia is playing in our coming civil war. It is entitled, "COMINTERN REACHES FOR BRAZIL".

"The Moscow Comintern, using its twenty year old tactics, has now caused a "state of war" to be declared in Brazil by President Vargas. An official statement by the Brazilian War Department says that it has intercepted correspondence between the Moscow Third International (the Comintern) and their Brazilian spies and plotters.

X "This correspondence instructs the Brazilian Communists to use arson, theft, the destruction of aviation fields, military barracks and the torpedoing of battleships and public buildings by dynamite in order to make Brazil what would practically be a western province of Soviet Russia.

X "This is almost word for word what the London Times uncovered two years ago. The secret manifesto of the Comintern ordered the destruction of banks, shipping and public buildings in London. Does this sound like an exaggeration or the invention of "capitalistic oppressors"? Well, then, listen to this from the pen of Nicolai Lenin, the founder and patron saint of Russian Communism:

6 copies of this issue for $1.00; circulate them among your friends.

"The American workers will not follow the Bourgeoisie. They will be with us for CIVIL WAR against the bourgeoisie."

"That is from page 17 of Lenin's "A letter to American Workers", published by the International Publishers (a radical publishing company, of New York).

"Lenin herein orders CIVIL WAR in America. What more natural, then, that his deluded followers should attempt to seize the Brazilian government and slaughter the middle classes, the wealthy classes and repeat generally the crimes of Communism in Russia?

"The Comintern, which sits in Moscow, and which was organized by Lenin SPECIFICALLY and WHOLLY to plot overthrow of all existing governments in the interests of Asiatic Communism, is represented in its membership by two "Americans"—Earl Browder and E. Z. Foster, secretary and president, respectively, of the Communist Party of America.

"UNSLUMBERING VIGILANCE on the part of all Americans against this international terroristic organization in Moscow must be our watchword."

The next is a quotation from the National Message of England of September 4, 1937, showing that Jewry is at the back of our various enemies; and that in the last analysis we have but one enemy, namely, Jewry.

"Meanwhile the cause of Zionism is not well served by the outbursts of its extremists such as the Revisionist leader, Vladimir Jabotinsky, who at the Warsaw Zionist Congress, is said to have declared: "If England does not hand over the government of Palestine to my compatriots, the Jews will be the dynamite that will blow up the British Empire."

Meanwhile, Rabbi Wise was a close rival in indiscretion when he maintained, at the Zurich Congress, "Britain has a mighty Empire, but there are forces in the universe more enduring than empire or dynasty. Britain may imagine that dealing with a world in chaos she may disregard public opinion. But Jewry of 1937 is not the Jewry of 1898. We are no longer a disunited and incoherent mass."

Now, we will give you a cryptogram sent by Mussolini to his agents in the United States in March of 1937, de-coded by an expert. If you are familiar with the Scriptures you will find that this is in harmony with Bible prophecies:

"My countrymen: This is the time and place when our ambitions shall be realized. We must rule the world. Roosevelt will not fight on foreign lands or waters, so we must not fear American aircraft or the United States wealth. Our own people now on foreign soil must secretly mobilize ready to join our main army at Canadian ports when Madrid falls and we control the Mediterranean Sea. Remember your obligations and remit contributions regularly."

There are many people in America who think the Japanese are friendly toward us, and that we should be friendly to them. All I can say is, that these people are acting like ostriches, in view of the overwhelming evidence as published in the daily press. I believe that Japan is just as big a menace to the safety of America as Russia, or Italy. For nearly thirty years I have been convinced that Japan would strike America on the Pacific Coast; so with that in mind I have watched carefully, all those years, the various acts of Japan; and I am here to tell you the evidence is overwhelming. When I say Japan, I don't mean the common people; I mean the war lords in command. I am going to quote just one, out of thousands of clippings we have on file; and this was published in the metropolitan dailies throughout the land on January 4th. It speaks for itself. Remember, this is quoting an accredited member of the group in charge of the Japanese war machine, not someone's opinion of Japan:

"European Capitals Seethe at Japanese War threat. Nippon ready to Fight All for Asia.

Paris, Jan. 4.—Europe's capitals seethed with excitement tonight following revelation of the sensational warning by one of Tokyo's highest ranking militarist-statesmen that Japan seeks to "scrub Asia clean" of the white race.

The statement, published first in Paris newspapers under prominent first-page headlines, was made by Admiral Nobumasa Suetsugu, Japanese Minister of the Interior and former commander of the imperial combined fleet. Admiral Suetsugu, generally regarded as the most promising successor to Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye, startled the world in 1934 with the declaration that Tokyo was preparing for war with the United States.

Yoke Must Disappear

Figuratively shaking the mailed fist of Japan at the entire Western world, Suetsugu said:

"The yoke of the white races over the yellow must disappear. The mercantile interests of whites must vanish in the sun of Japan's mission."

These remarks were made in an interview with the influential Japanese political review, Kaizo. Suetsugu's outspoken declarations duplicated in all their intensity his blast in 1934 when he said Japan was intensively preparing for war with the United States. Similarly, today's statement caused a like furore in major European cities.

Scheme Charged

At that time in an interview with International News Service the admiral charged that resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Soviet Russia involved a military scheme to surround Japan. When, in 1934, Suetsugu made this statement, Emperor Hirohito promoted him from vice admiral to full admiral in recognition of his outspokenness. He took an active part in directing the navy during the opening months of the Sino-Japanese war. On December 13 the admiral was named minister of the interior.

In the interview, which was reproduced by the entire Paris press, he added:

"When the whites are banished from Asia, I am convinced the yellow race will enjoy that happiness which heaven reserves for it, and the end of the hegemony of the whites will really inaugurate the era of justice and humanity of which Europeans and Americans are constantly speaking.

"I do not fear to insist in the face of the entire world that the white yoke must go. Naturally, rapid realization of this liberation will bring a general conflagration, but whatever precautions we take the result will be the same—a general conflagration.

"To break Chinese resistance, British aid must be absolutely stopped, even at the cost of war. Necessity ordains the means. We do not wish to believe that America will consent to be taken in tow by Britain. If we tackle Britain with our arms, the present events in Asia will have immense repercussions in world history.

"No one can say at present at what rhythm those events will develop.

"Thus fate wills it—the essential is to fulfill our mission without stopping to think of secondary considerations.

"The economic strength of Japan exceeds anything the whites can imagine."

Admiral Suetsugu is rapidly becoming a dominant figure in Japanese affairs and in some quarters is expected to succeed Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye as head of the Japanese government. . . .

We now quote former Kaiser Wilhelm; and it certainly looks as though he knew what he was talking about:

"Kaiser Wilhelm at the height of his power 40 years ago startled the world with a warning against Japan:

"Japan is the scourge of God", he said. "Peoples of Europe, guard your treasures against the coming yellow peril."

As I draw this article to a close, I have enough material to fill a good sized volume; but I want to give you just one more section of this picture. Away back in 1918 I knew the Reds had planned to strike at the Pacific Coast through the shipping industry. Today the maritime industry is in the hands of the Communists. Fleet owners are bankrupt. Many of the finest ships have not called at San Francisco since the major strike of 1934; and now all the crack liners have been removed from Pacific Coast trade, leaving the coast clear for the Japanese government-owned ships.

X Remember, the merchant marine is a vital wing of national defense. American liners are no longer safe to travel on, due to the break-down of discipline among the crews. Each ship is a miniature Soviet; the crews are drunk with power. Here follows a report from the shipping inquiry by a senate committee, dated at Washington January 15th:

"Scores of complaints against the asserted breakdown of discipline at sea aboard the American merchant marine were disclosed today when the Senate Commerce Committee, now revising the shipping act, made public the testimony given at several sessions.

"Senator Copeland, Democrat, of New York, the chairman, has said that he will not vote a dollar for American ships unless he is assured there will be "peace at sea". The alternative, he said, is placing the Navy or Coast Guard in charge of the merchant ships. Senator Copeland's contentions are opposed by Ralph Emmerson, legislative representative of the C. I. O. Seamen's Union.

Conditions Submitted

"Conditions which obtain at sea today on American ships are serious", the committee was told by J. E. Saugstad, special assistant in the State Department. The State Department submitted nineteen exhibits relating to actions of sailors at sea. A Consul-General's statement, which was included in the record, contains the following:

"The facts are that, insofar as concerns the American merchant marine, conditions are bad, and on the ships of some of the lines they actually are mutinous."

"The complaints received by the committee are from passengers, officers and in many cases from seamen who object to being forced into the union. That the union controls ships' personnel is brought out in the testimony of Shipping Commissioner Daly.

Senator Copeland: "Then everybody has to join the union?"

Commissioner Daly: "Yes sir."

Senator Copeland: "The company must consent to the discharge at once of any or all employees not joining or being members of the union?"

Commissioner Daly: "The delegation won't allow the ship to sail."

If there is man aboard who is not a union member, they won't permit the ship to be moved."

Commander Testifies

"An insight into conditions is given in the testimony of Commander R. S. Field of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

Senator Copeland: "Why does not the master do what is his duty according to the tradition of the seas?"

Commander Field. "In some cases I would say due to his weakness and unfitness for his job; but in the majority of cases, due to fear of reprisals against him by union activities."

Senator Copeland: "Do you hear of a similar let-down in discipline in foreign ships?"

Comander Fields: "No, sir."

Suggestions Given

"The Committee received three suggestions from an unnamed liner captain, whose identity was concealed for obvious reasons. The captain proposed the imposition of an oath upon officers and seamen of loyalty to the Constitution and strict observation of navigation laws, a severe punishment for drunkenness at sea equal to the punishment of a drunken driver, and a penalty for undue familiarity with passengers.

This captain said that there had come under his observation drunken lookouts and drunken steersmen, young girls, although accompanied by their fathers, insulted by stewards, waiters preaching Communism and unionism to passengers, sailors arguing with passengers and sometimes fighting with them, unsanitary performances by the kitchen help, attempts to break into women's cabins and demands for privileges without responsibility.

Protest Conditions

"Basis of complaints by the sea-going personnel is against food, quarters and other working and living conditions.

"Submitted to the committee was a list of 119 seamen's complaints against their ships or officers which had been investigated by the bureau. In nearly all cases the complaint was found groundless".

So you see our Merchant marine has absolutely broken down; and it is within the range of possibilities that in the event of war, the American Navy may be compelled to fire upon and sink some of our merchant marine.

Mr. Roosevelt says, "We planned it that way"—with the aid of Pinky Perkins and the alien Jew Harry Bridges.

From the veidence we have submitted month by month, and now that we have shown you from many sources the pitiful condition of America today, can you complacently lay this magazine aside, and continue to do nothing? This is actual warfare; the termites have rotted the foundation of your nation, and you have stood idly by and let them do it. If you have any American blood in your veins at all, I challenge you to action. This is a call to arms.

Your part is to spread this message, that we so laboriously prepare for you each month. This message must have a wider circulation; and we ask you as outlined in our Chats to help us to get this message before the American public.

THY WILL BE DONE

The following is a letter received from one of our readers

"... We are at flat tide-level here, jutting far out into the Atlantic. The Civilian Defense setup is well organized and Old Britania tells us that this precaution saves 85 per cent of air raid casualties. I am no less than an air raid warden myself!

But let me leaven the loaf of hard knocks a bit by better news. In vew of the fact that the "mills of the gods" seem to have speeded up their grinding at a great rate (witness the quick lethal return of the gasoline and steel just shipped Japan), perhaps even at this late hour, IF we could get the message across to the people of "Father, THY will be done through me" there might still be time to soften the final blow we will receive in the near future.

There is a plan under way which may achieve this result. It would not have been taken up actively in the USA prior to the declaration of war on us, and there is a question, of course, of whether or not the people will even now lay aside their will and let God work through them. They may do so now to save the nation; M A Y. But are we going to try to give them a simple chance to choose; one of your "last calls". At any rate we are going to try it locally.

Along with the national week of prayer we are launching a National Civilian Offensive, which will be spiritual. In it we will solely use Father, Thy Will Be Done Through Me (FTWBDTM), which is the common denominator of all creeds and churches. It will be a lay approach, but helped by the united churches. In our village of D— there are 7 churches, and all are expected to co-operate to, first, get their townspeople (there are 5 sub-villages) who are in Civilian Defense to turn out to a joint meetng where they will be inoculated with FTWBDTM. Second, the churches will hammer on this refrain and urge its daily use by all. Third, each C. D. worker will be a pebble in a pool to spread the message of the C. S. O.

channeled through a path for His servants wherein ye may walk, and on this path do ye fling all of life aside, to gain deathlessness; stripped, that ye may have all—that ye may be, and in the power of being shall ye know whereof I speak.

"Ye are entering the dark hour before the dawn. Be still within the heart. Hold no thing to you, except that which hath spiritual value. The forces of nature are about to confiscate the buildings of man, but also shall the forces of nature restore a greater life, a greater wealth in the purity of Godly living and abundance, and an order beyond any now in action.

"Therefore in Christ rejoice. It is nature's hand that shall fore-shorten the time of the struggle—nature's hand gently guided by God. Rest in the inner cradle of being. Rest and find strength and peace and harmony there. And rest till the dawn breaks and the shadows flee away. Then shall ye walk with the Beloved, and He shall be thine. Then shall ye feed among the lilies till the day breaks fully and all shadows flee away. This is not an idle promise. Neither is the Book of God's Revelations idle. Read the Psalm of the North Wind—the 18th Psalm—and be comforted".

(He leaves a pedestal with a ball of light on its top, from which light rays shoot all over.)

"Herein is the everlasting Father and Ye shall reign forever and ever".

FROM PENNSYLVANIA:

"... As you have been predicting it would, the lid has been lifted off of Hades, and I guess now we are in for it; but I have no fear, come what may, because my trust is in God, the Father of all. And should the strain become too great for me, and I pass out of this body, I know I shall come back again, and go on from where I ceased, which to me is a wonderful thought, because I realize that I am ever in the state of unfoldment.

You have fought a good fight, Mr. Kullgren, and I trust you and your good wife will be spared for many years to come, and that after this mess (which is just commencing for us) is cleared up that you will be permitted to do some real fine constructive work for humanity, which I know you are very capable of doing.

I send you my greetings for a joyous Christmas and for a speedy recovery in Christ. Yours in a spiritual victory, — — —"

BUT FOR AMERICA

By Harley Rosso—

I would place an "A" upon my heart and keep
A soul unblemished in the fight and weep
Not for the hordes who die on foreign land
Or suffer in command—

BUT—FOR AMERICA.

I would place an "A" before my eyes and cry
That those unthinking men of fate would buy
NOT Godless power in some foreign mart
Where bleeds the human heart—

I would place an "A" before the western world
Where freedom keeps the stars and stripes unfurled
Not for myself with just one LIFE TO LIVE—
And that I'd gladly give—
