1940 WHAT'S NEXT

THE MOST OUTSTANDING ANNUAL IN AMERICA IN ITS CLASS

By Harry J. Gardener

This outstanding annual is now in its sixth year, and has a very wide circulation among enlightened people. This year, it is devoted largely to a combination of Pyramid and Biblical prophecies.

The first half of the book contains five articles by Mr. Gardener, starting with "1940 and You", based on numerology, blended with Pyramid and Biblical lore. Next is "World War Number Two", a very fine article based on Pyramid measurements. Following this, is "The 70 Weeks of Daniel", based on Dan. 9:24.

Then comes "The Miracle Workers", in which he shows that so-called miracle workers are merely people who have knowledge of cosmic laws. We especially recommend this article to all followers of the Ballard movement. The next of his articles is "The Closing of the Bottomless Pit", based on the Great Pyramid, blended with Bible teachings.

Your Editor has an article, entitled "Our National Salvation", which contains a special message to those who believe in the Anglo-Israel truth, as given in your Bible. My point is that Israel too will suffer for her national sins, and that we must clean house.

Barry O'Kent, in "The Roaring Forties", gives us the astrological picture, a very worth-while article. Last, but not the least, "Revelations of Joseph the Prophet", by H. R. Bangerter, a Mormon. This article alone is worth the price of this issue. We are in full accord with it, for it is in keeping with the ideas we have held for many years, unaware that the Mormon church had been giving these teachings since its origin. I want to commend the author, and the publisher, Harry Gardener, for presenting this fine article. This article may be the means of saving your life during the coming upheaval. It dovetails in very nicely with the Robenoff Vision, in our October 1939 number, and with that of Phoebe Marie Holmes in the January 1940 issue.

At the close of the book, is one more splendid article by Mr. Gardener, entitled, "Millions Now Living Are Already Dead." This article ties in with the prophetic vision of Phoebe Holmes.

To new readers, will say that What's Next? is very attractively gotten up, copiously illustrated, and makes a suitable gift for Christmas or other occasions; a present your friends will highly appreciate.

The Beacon Light - April 1940

By the Editor

As we told you last month, it is too late to save the United States all in one piece, we are going to go through the wringer; but we can save many valuable lives with a vigorous educational campaign for the balance of this year. I am convinced that we shall be sharply curtailed in our educational activities during 1941, '42 and '43; and it is very much to your advantage to take part in this educational program if you possibly can, for the more people there are who know the story, the more friends you will have on your side.

So I am going to renew my offer of last month; namely, back numbers, in lots of 100, at $5.00 per 100 F. O. B. Atascadero, our selection. A little missionary work this year may be the means of saving your property and your life next year. It is to the interest of those of you who own property, to take part in this educational campaign. Incidentally, I am satisfied that all anti-Communist and anti-Jewish literature will be suppressed before this year is out, but certainly next year. We are letting our stock run low, because we cannot afford to be caught with heavy stocks. Look over our list of anti-Communist and anti-Jewish books, and stock your library now; there are many items in our list that we shall not re-order after our present stock is sold, in fact there are many of the items that are imported and no longer available on account of British and French cracking down. By all means get a copy of Propaganda in the Next War; we still have a few left, and have cut the price to $2.50; there are less than a dozen copies available. This is the most vital book we ever listed, as far as the welfare of America is concerned. Get a copy, and keep it in circulation. If you can afford to send us a donation toward the distribution of back numbers, send it in and we will take care of the distribution; but remember, we are rapidly approaching the deadline.

CORRESPONDENCE: I am sorry to say it is absolutely impossible for us to keep up with all our correspondence. We attend to all letters involving money and orders, but we are receiving an ever-increasing number of letters, and I may say many of them from those who are not subscribers but who read the copy of a friend. These people usually ask questions pertaining to things we have covered in back numbers of the magazine, and which it would require a lengthy letter to answer; and usually no stamps are enclosed. We seldom answer these letters, because we feel we are under no obligation to do so.

We receive on an average about three pieces of mail a day from leaders of groups and parties, most of them small; they enclose manuscripts, or party platforms, and ask me to read them and endorse them. These letters are usually put aside for lack of time; some of them obviously have merit, if I had time to read them, which I haven't. Now I know that many of these men are pretty sore at me; judging from the vibrations I feel when I tune in on them; just as you tune in on your radio, so I tune in on people. Many of these people have sent me books to read, and asked me what I think of them. Friends, I must be frank; I simply haven't got the time. I have approximately three baskets of such mail, accumulated during the past year; that type of mail alone would take up the full time of one person.

My first duty is to my magazine. I may say AMERICA SPEAKS was to have been the medium through which I would keep in touch with you men who are leaders in the field. Many of you men complain of lack of cooperation from the other leaders, yet when I offered AMERICA SPEAKS as an avenue of expression, and asked you to pledge $10.00 a month, you to receive therefor 1,000 copies, we received three replies, none of which have been lived up to.

Friends, I wish you godspeed with your particular platform as you have it; you have your work and I have mine. The outlook, as I see it, is pretty black. Of course I may be wrong, but I believe that had my plan been carried out, we could have had a national party in the field that would have gotten somewhere. Remember, a national party, to succeed, must have popular acceptance. I have waded through a good many party platforms, very few of them would have got to first base, for the simple reason that they ignore or condemn the very fundamentals upon which the nation is built.

Pelley's Christian Party is a case in point. They all call themselves Christians, and they all call themselves Americans. Some of them sound as though they had never heard of the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Like my good friend Edmonson, I am a constitutionalist; if we refuse to work within the confines of the Constitution, we too are outlaws. During the past week we have received a number of letters from well meaning, sincere men and women; one of them asked me to endorse Technocracy. Technocracy, to succeed, must set aside your constitutional rights and set up a dictatorship in the person of Howard Scott. Others ask me to endorse Mankind United. Well, we told you the story of Mankind United in our June 1938 issue; we have about 6 copies of that number left.

Another good friend writes as follows: "It's sure great to see you line up with the Money Changers as you did over Ham and Eggs, the greatest traitors any nation ever had. Nor can I sympathize with your soft-peddling on Germany. Communism, Nazism and Fascism all stink. What little I know of Mankind United would suggest that plan definitely fits in with prophecy, as against your idea." This man wants me to endorse Ham and Eggs; Ham and Eggs would wreck this, or any other country if put into practice. This, also, provides for a dictator.

I could go on, and on; I have just picked a few of the most outstanding. Each one says this, or that, or the other, is the only thing that will 'save' America. Well, that is very strange, because the men who really built up America, never heard of all these fantastic schemes. These men and women have listened to the phonographic record of the spell-binder so many times that they are hypnotized into believing that it is so.

No nation ever became great unless it built its foundation upon sound principles; fundamentals of life; and those fundamentals are all in your Christian Bible. One so-called leader told me truth is ever changing. Well, that was a new one on me: this from a leader and teacher. It was a lady, and I said, "Madam, your concept of truth may change, but truth, or principles, are the same today as they were a million years ago."

Stern reality is going to jar many of our teachers and leaders and bring them up with a jolt; but for most of them it will be too late, they will be all washed up.

Now I believe I have co-operated with all of you to the best of my strength and ability. In almost every issue of The Beacon Light for the past year, I have enclosed your circulars and leaflets. I have sent thousands of them out in my personal mail. But, much to my surprise, when I asked them to reciprocate, 95 % of them turned me down flat. They made various excuses; the sum-total is, they did not quite approve of some of my platform, for the simple reason they did not understand it—not that I was wrong.

Many of you are still kidding yourself that this is purely a material problem. Well, as long as you think so you will never save America. In essence, the fight is a battle between the forces of light and the forces of darkness; a spiritual battle. Just as you and I sprang from a seed planted in our mother's womb, so this battle, which embraces the whole of this planet, sprang from a seed planted by the forces of darkness in the minds of men! and it grew, and it grew, and it grew, even as you and I. Today the whole planet is saturated with the spirit of the anti-Christ, the forces of darkness. What you and I see on the physical plane are effects, not causes. Our political and economic cesspool had a spiritual origin; and you may slaughter the exponents of these anti-Christ parties and groups but unless you win them over to the constructive philosophy of the Christ and of God, you will never get anywhere. You may slaughter them by the thousands, and they came back into incarnation. The world anti-Christ leaders, dictators and what have you, have played the same roles many, many times in past incarnations, they are experienced. The fact that you don't believe it doesn't alter the case.

Incidentally, when your so-called spiritual leaders, the theologians, awaken to the fact that the Bible teaches evolution and reincarnation, then we will begin to get somewhere. I find just as many racketeers among men and women who are not Jews, but of course we musn't say anything about that, because they are not Jews. Well, to hell with a philosophy like that. The program of The Beacon Light is to tell the truth fearlessly, and to expose evil wherever we find it, be it among Jew, Gentile or Israelite.

The worst hypocrites in the world today are found in England, the leading Israel nation, and the biggest liars I ever met in my life were among the clergy. They go through emotional gymnastics, and then tell you they are chosen by God; they are saved; they are above the law—quoting St. Paul. I am planning to write an article, which may run into a book before I am through, entitled, Are You Saved? or, "What Is Salvation? The clergy have a very hazy idea as to what salvation is. Oh yes, they can quote Scripture by the mile; that does not mean anything. Not those who cry Lord, Lord, but those who do the will of the Father. Briefly, Salvation comes from obedience to law; so, to return to my subject, if we are going to re-establish America as a righteous nation (righteousness exalteth a nation) we must return to God's political platform, and not sit up nights and have a brain-storm, and put the product out as a political party.

Again I say, most of your leaders absolutely leave God and His laws out of the picture when they have their brain-storm. Briefly, chaos is in the world because man thinks he knows more than God; this thought of course is, inspired by, the dark forces. If you men and women are serious, I am willing to join hands with any and all of you on his basis: a platform based on the laws of God, and not on the brainstorm of a political or religious racketeer. And I am going to tell you the inside story in a subsequent issue, and if it don't make you sick at the stomach you must have a pretty strong stomach; the dirty, un-Christian treatment I have received from our so-called spiritual guides will shock you beyond measure, and at the same time explain why we have Communistic atheism, which has permeated and saturated the nation; yea, the whole world. It's about time we put these religious racketeers behind the bars or else in a concentration camp. I have seen every crime in the calendar committed by them, including murder, indirectly.

I have a job to do, and I am going to do it, to the best of my ability. If you are in sympathy with my program, put your shoulder to the wheel and let's join hands; but if you have another man-made program don't bother me with it, I have no time, the hour is very late. I was hoping we could start out with a bang in January, and had intended to devote the January number to that subject. It is now April, and if you men were really serious in your intention to save America it would be June or July before we could get under way.

Do I hear a voice, anywhere, saying "I agree with this program"? And remember, I have no program of my own; I have told you repeatedly that the good Lord wrote it thousands of years ago, and it's still good, in fact the only one that will work. If I get any response to this, I shall indeed be surprised.

When we have indulged in a vigorous spring-cleaning, and set our own house in order, we'll get somewhere; fighting Jews and Communists is not enough; purification is not enough; in other words we must put our own house in order before we attend to the other fellow.

In this number we are enclosing a circular we have just had printed, entitled "Drink Your Way to Health With Raw Vegetable Juices,"

As I read the papers, it's appalling to see the number of people who take their lives because of ill health.

Please detach this circular, and send it to a friend who is sick. We will supply you with all you can use to advantage, as long as the supply lasts, but please don't waste them, they cost money. Place them in the hands of sick folks, those who are not sick are not interested, as a rule.

Next month we will enclose another circular, advertising The Beacon Light and books on Prophecy, Bible studies, etc. And when we have the funds available, we will print a third, dealing with Communism and the Jewish question.

In the state of California the old folks of 65 and over, are getting $40 a month; and married couples of that age receive $80 a month. These people have plenty of time to read, and can now afford to buy books.

MINING

In the February number we said something about this being a good year for mining. My goodness, is it possible that all Beacon Light readers are miners? Apparently a good sprinkle of them are, for from all points of the compass we received letters, mostly from those who wanted financial help in mining ventures. Some gave full details of the ventures, including government reports in some cases. We also received several letters from those who were looking for safe investments.

Of course personally I don't think there is any such animal as a safe investment; but a good bona fide mine of proven value is undoubtedly the safest kind of investment at this time. Now if you people who have from time to time written me about investments are interested in any of these ventures I shall be glad to put you in touch with the individuals who have written me; but remember, I am not recommending anything or anybody. I only know what they tell me. I have no qualifications to pass on a mining venture. I can however endorse the character of some of these individuals, and they are all Beacon Light subscribers, in one case an individual I have known for the last 17 years, another I have known for the past 8 years intimately. I will say this, however, that any kind of a legitimate mining venture is a much better investment than real estate in any large city, in fact than any real estate outside of farm land; or than insurance, or bonds.

If you desire this information I will give you the names and addresses of the individuals, and state whether these individuals are personally known to me or not, for of course many subscribers are not personally known to me.

And last but not the least, any investment of any kind is a gamble; even matrimony is a gamble. I do hope the many who have written me about mining ventures will strike pay dirt. Oh, yes, I forgot; a few people wrote about oil properties; but to me that's a worse gamble than mining. There is almost as much money sunk in oil wells as what is taken out.

If interested, send stamped addressed envelope for reply.

THE LUNATION OF APRIL 7, 1940

This lunation gives 7 degrees of Virgo on the ascendant. The Sun and Moon are posted in the 8th house, and this New Moon is an annular eclipse of the Sun. As this eclipse falls in Aries it will have a marked effect on the European conflict, especially as the two leading contenders, England and Germany, are both ruled by Aries.

Before I go any further, I suggest that you re-read the February Beacon Light, which contains the astrological predictions for 1940; for in that reading I have placed special emphasis upon the month of April, as I am convinced that things will begin to happen shortly after this lunation, especially as the Moon crosses Saturn, Uranus and Mars. It conjoins Saturn within a few hours of the New Moon, Uranus on the evening of the 9th, and Mars on the 11th, at noon Pacific time. These few days will make history.

Now inasmuch as these planets are posted in the 9th and 10th, the excitement will be over foreign affairs. As Saturn rules the Jews, there will be a decided Jewish angle to the news. Russia will loom very largely in the picture, for Uranus is her ruling planet.

But to come back to the eclipse. This falls in Aries; such being the case it will have a very definite effect on Aries people and countries. Of course the two great contenders, England and Germany, are ruled by Aries; but so are Palestine and Denmark. And these two latter countries are going to be bones of contention in the very near future. Finland is definitely gone; and it looks pretty much as though Denmark will also be drawn into the picture. But from now on, Palestine will be the focusing center, and will be the most dangerous place on earth; and yet the Jews want to go there. The last stand of the present conflict will be in Palestine, not in Europe; and Britain will mass more troops in and around Palestine than she will in Europe.

That may seem strange, unless you know the hidden factors.

On the surface, the present conflict is purely economic; but in the last analysis it is nothing of the kind; it is a religious war. Our Jewish friends are determined to set up their Talmudic Babylonian system of religion and government; and just as vapor and water precede, ice, so religion precedes economic conditions and power. There is scarcely an issue of The Beacon Light since the first number, in which we have not emphasized this important point; namely, that the war of the ages is now raging, having commenced with the World War; and that it is a battle between the forces of darkness and the forces of light.

 You men who have been active in fighting Communism, atheism, Judaism,—let that sink in, or you will be caught in no-man's-land. You are wasting most of your efforts until you recognize that important fact. I know many of you feel as I do; the exponents of Christianity are just as rotten as anything you will find anywhere in the world. Through the centuries, the advance guard of civilization has been so polluted; all sources of education, including religion, have become synthetically Jewish. And let us face this unpleasant fact; there are no organized Christian bodies in the world today that amount to anything; commencing with the great Roman Catholic Church, with 400 million followers; and they take the name of Christ. They have grafted the Babylonian system of religion on the Christian tree, but that does not make them Christian. And our so-called Protestant churches are an offshoot from Rome; therefore they belong to the same system. I care not what label they carry, they are Babylonian; their system and ethics of religion are not of the Bible nor of Christ. For instance, they have compromised with and condoned the system of Usury, which the Bible says is akin to murder; but they don't bat an eye. And they preach long sermons excusing our Babylonian system of government and religion.

The coming Messiah will draw together the individuals here and there who are living the life; who are fearlessly telling the truth. The Scriptures tell us to come out from the present system and wait for the coming of the Prince of Peace for He is going to smash the present system, through various agencies, that He may set up the Kingdom of God on earth, based on the laws that are already in your Bible.

But this is somewhat of a digression; and yet, is it? When I look at an astrological chart, I see something more than dead symbols and figures of planets. It enlarges, pretty much as the military map of George McClellan enlarged, as George Washington appeared to him. (Read the story in our Destiny of the United States). These lunation charts, month by month simply show the various steps in the great drama now being played.

6 Copies of this issue for $1.00—Circulate them among your friends,

Incidentally, if you have any planets around 18 degrees of Aries, this eclipse will materially affect you; that is, those born on or around April 8 will have the Sun there. Look up your own chart, and see what part it will play in your life.

I forgot to say that this lunation falls in the 8th house; and the 8th house is the house of death; it is also the house that rules banks, trust companies the custodians of other people's money; the Treasury of the United States. The latter will be very much in the lime-light in Congress, in our opinion. Those who know the real facts of our national finance are very uneasy, and they are going to say so publicly. Bankers, as a class, will be decidedly uneasy, for they see the foundation of their institutions crumbling, due to the activities of Mr. Roosevelt and his New Deal. In my opinion they are doomed to bankruptcy; and in a few years at the most our present banking system will go over the precipice, due to the very agency that was supposed to protect, it the Federal Reserve System.

Death will carry away many prominent figures, especially among bankers, lawyers, religious leaders and politicians, for these various houses are involved. And most of these deaths will be rather sudden, with the head the center of trouble; a stroke; a combination of head and heart, due to the tremendous tension and pressure under which our leaders are functioning today. They realize they have created a Frankenstein, and it is crushing them; there is no way out.

Unfortunately the country is going to be thinking more of foreign affairs than domestic; Mercury in the 7th, in Pisces and retrograde, chaotic thinking; strong efforts being made to embroil us, largely through shipping disasters and conditions. Maritime affairs will be critical.

The eclipse comes very close to Jupiter and Saturn, and will again bring flood conditions, especially in communities and states under the dominion of Aries and Taurus. We haven't much reliable data on this subject. And we may expect to see some very severe earthquakes, largely in Taurus localities. Ireland and Poland may not have physical earthquakes, but there will be a tremendous shaking up and much dissention in those countries, as they are ruled by Taurus.

One bright spot is, Uranus is again trine to Neptune, and will be for the next two or three months. The outward turmoil is driving people within, and a tremendous spiritual awakening is taking place throughout the world, and naturally will be at its strongest at the points of the conflict. Taurus and Virgo people will naturally feel the effect of this aspect. Tremendous shakings up will take place in legal and religious circles. Saturn and Uranus in the 9th represent the conflict between the old and the new; but Uranus will win, after a struggle. But Saturn on the cusp of the 9th will play havoc with shipping agreements and maritime affairs in general, and indicates great losses at sea, through storms and warfare. And there is grave danger of the United States becoming involved in some way this month. See our Predictions for the year.

The sign on the ascendant is rather weak; Virgo people are apt to be rather wobbly; and with Neptune there, retrograde, the people are apt to be in a very confused frame of mind, for the real factors that affect our national life are mostly hidden. And with the oceans of propaganda being spewed out, people don't know where they are at. And, to make matters worse, Neptune is exactly in opposition to Mercury in Pisces, a sign for which it has no affinity. The people are dazed and confused.

+ However, things don't just 'happen'; Americans, as a whole, have not been interested in the welfare of their country; they didn't have to; they couldn't be bothered; so they handed the job over to some slick, smooth-talking, smiling politician who told them pretty stories about 'democracy'. History tells you, if you aren't too lazy to look it up, what happens to democracy; and if you weren't too lazy you would know that founders of this great REPUBLIC were afraid of democracy, and made definite safeguards against it. The Jews, and Communists, are the ones that yell most for democracy, until they have the whole United States yelling for it. And yet, on the great patriotic holidays, July 4th, Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays, they pay homage to the men who were afraid of democracy and made provisions against it. Democracy is anti-American; if you don't believe in the American system of government, yell for democracy, which means rule by the mob—and that's what you are getting today.

Mars right on the midheaven—yes, Venus is there also—shows the administration is definitely thinking of war. And these two planets are square, or adverse, to the ascendant. We find Pluto in the house of legislation, therefore pluto-cratic streams are flowing through; in other words, control by the plutocrats; and, exactly square to Saturn in the 9th, favors plutocratic influences in the legislature. When you people have suffered enough, you will demand that your lawmakers think in terms of America only. The chaos in Europe is the result of centuries of trickery and wrong doing, and now it is harvest time. The United States is bankrupt trying to do the impossible; namely, save those countries. It can't be done; and conditions have gotten so bad that it will take America all her time to save herself. Read Washington's Vision in Action.

Very soon you will see a coalition of Japan and Russia, combined with Germany and Italy; and then the war is on, for they will all try to seize this United States of America, just as we told you, in our July 1938 number, Japan, Friend or Foe?, and in the February 1938 number, Washington's Vision in Action, also The Roman Empire Revived in August 1938, and Germany, in December 1938. We told you the whole story in 1938, even before that. We were laughed at by the men and women who thought they knew. Those who laughed at me are passing out of the picture. America! Make definite preparations to save yourself; you can't save the rest of the world, as that great spiritual being warned George Washington in his famous Vision.

Patriotic individuals throughout the land have been quoting Washington's warning against foreign entanglements and at the same time they are doing their darndest to embroil us; clamoring for us to aid Finland; Poland; England. Aren't these foreign entanglements?

Just a glance at the United States chart. This lunation and eclipse are exactly square to the Sun, which is posted in the 9th house of the Libra chart, (and the 9th house rules foreign affairs), and in opposition to Saturn, posted right on the ascendant. In other words, this testimony coincides with the lunation chart and indicates grave danger of embroilment in foreign affairs, and war.

Roosevelt

Look at Mr. Roosevelt's chart, and you will see that his Mars is right over Mercury in the chart of the United States, a good indication that he would keep us in hot water. And it is within orb of a square to Saturn in the U. S. chart; so you see this lunation and eclipse falls in Mr. Roosevelt's 7th house, and square to his Moon. This indicates that he is not doing his own thinking, but that somebody is supplying him the ammunition; he is the Charlie McCarthy, but who is the Edgar Bergen? Mr. Roosevelt is nothing but a marionett, through whom the enemies of the nation are working, The New Deal is now pretty much discredited; so, to take your attention away from domestic conditions they have to focus your attention on foreign affairs. Sumner Welles, Mr. Roosevelt's office boy; Myron Taylor, another; are trying to attract your attention over there.

America must learn to mind her own business, if she is to survive as an independent nation. Uranus is exactly on the cusp of Mr. Roosevelt's 9th house; again foreign affairs; dramatic and spectacular activities in connection with foreign affairs. But let us not forget that Mars is passing through his 9th house, and was right on the cusp, conjoined with Uranus, at the last lunation in March. At that time he set certain forces in motion; perhaps we will get the answer when Mars squares Uranus around the 27th and 28th of April. Watch your papers. And during the month of May, Mars will be crossing his midheaven. However, we will touch on that next month. The Grim Reaper, Death, is going to change some of Mr. Roosevelt's plans, however, for toward the close of this month and even more strongly next month, Saturn returns to its place at birth and squares his Venus. There will be sickness in the Presidential family; a woman or child. Very serious conditions will confront him this summer, of which we will have more to say next month.

Roosevelt can only stay in the saddle through embroilment in the European conflict, and he is going to do his darndest to accomplish this. Oh, yes, he is talking peace, as indicated by Venus on the cusp of the 10th; but he is preparing for war, for Mars is there also. On guard, Americans! Roosevelt is going to make one last throw to stay in the saddle; but he can not remain there through a normal election, in my opinion, he must seize the reins completely before election day; and he doesn't have to go very far to complete the circle. He is working to create the conditions so that he can say a national emergency exists; then the powers of the dictator are completely his, because as we told you in the first issue of AMERICA SPEAKS, a rubber-stamp Congress passed these laws, giving him this power.

Pray as you never prayed before; and then through your various affiliations, churches and fraternal organizations, let your voice be heard. We want peace; we want no foreign entanglements. We believe in the type of government that made America the greatest nation on earth; horse-and-buggy, if you please, but fundamental. The founders of this nation were clear-thinking, God-fearing men. Let us re-read the utterances of these founders, especially what they had to say about Democracy, of which they were mortally afraid, and which America today so lovingly embraces. This is an alien philosophy, not American or even Christian.

Oh God, help America to think straight and to pray often. She has deserted the fundamentals of the Book of Books, which she claims to believe from cover to cover; God give them the wisdom to retrace their steps and to return to the fundamentals of Americanism and the Bible. They are confused; befuddled; chaotic, and panicky. They have worshipped the Golden Calf; they have adopted the Babylonian system. Show them that truth is eternal, and the fundamentals of life everlasting and unchangeable; and that there is no salvation, physically or spiritually, outside of obedience to Thy will and Thy laws.

Father, we ask that you give them the wisdom and the light to think and to see and to act straight once again. Amen.

YOU AND YOUR ASPECTS

For April, 1940

On April 2nd Mars is favorable to Pluto; a favorable influence for dealing with large organizations and groups. Similar conditions are in effect on the 4th, with Venus sextile to Pluto.

On the 6th Mercury is favorable to Uranus; good for creative mental work, writing, reading and the signing of papers; also good for salesmanship.

On the 9th Venus is conjoined with Mars and Sun favorable to Uranus. The Venus-Mars influence usually brings domestic quarrels, because it generates a little too much steam; one is apt to feel temperamental, especially if of an emotional nature.

The Sun and Venus are adverse to Pluto on the 20th; keep away from large groups and powerful organizations, especially as the Sun and Venus are also adverse to Saturn the next day.

On the 28th the Sun and Venus are adverse to Neptune; do not transact any important business, it will be apt to turn out wrong.

On the 29th Mercury is favorable to Mars, a powerful mental stimulant; a good selling influence; good for advertising, reading, writing and study.

In a general way this is a rather critical month, with very few good aspects, and there is likely to be considerable tension in the air; however, the passage of Mars through Gemini will stimulate business in general, especially for the retail merchants, and it happens to be passing through the 10th house, the house of business; so your newspapers will report better business conditions.

Then again, we have only one planet retrograde, the others are all going forward, including Mercury, which was retrograde all last month. This is a good month for you who are salesmen to hit the ball; you will get results, especially if you were born between the 20th of May and the 20th of June. This influence really lasts until May 18th, and will surely put the pep into you Gemini, Libra and Aquarius natives; and, to a lesser degree, the Leo and Aries people. Just think, nearly 7 weeks of it.

But you Sagittarius natives had better not go around with a chip on your shoulder, which you are apt to do, with Mars in the opposing sign.

With Jupiter going through the pioneer sign of Aries, this is another powerful stimulant for business, and going through the 8th house cannot fail to loosen up money considerably; money will flow freely; good business conditions. This Jupiter influence will especially benefit the Aries, Leo and Sagittarius natives, with Jupiter coming near the cusp of the 9th house, too much money will be spent in foreign countries—and little or none of it will return.

This powerful stimulation in Aries will benefit nearly everyone, for when Aries people, and things, are active, it reacts on everyone and everything; a very expansive influence.

Saturn now on the cusp of Taurus will slow up the Taurus people of the first few degrees, that is, those born the last 10 days of April; but those born the first ten days of May will need to put the brakes on, especially those born on or around the 10th to 12th; Uranus crossing that point.

This Saturn and Uranus falls in the 9th house, a very good reason why we should mind our own business and have nothing to do with foreign countries.

But let me draw your attention to the powerful trine aspect of Neptune and Uranus. This combination brings powerful changes in the world; and as Uranus is in the 9th, and Neptune in the 1st, we may expect some tremendous changes in connection with the European war, especially pertaining to Russia. And look out for rumblings and activities in Turkey. We could fill the whole magazine with the possibilities.

With business conditions on the up and up, make preparations for the storm that is surely coming. This will be a very good business year, as we have stated before; but the lean days are surely coming. Don't be like the foolish virgins, caught with no oil in your lamps.

THE LUNATION OF MAY 7 IN AUSTRALIA

By Ada Muir, Editor, The Torch. R. R. 2, New Westminster, B. C.

In the map of the heavens of this lunation, the ruler of the map is in the 7th house, indicating that all things will depend for this month at least on what co-workers in other parts of the world are doing, but there is also the determination to be ready for any emergency and sacrifice if need be, for Neptune, the planet of sacrifice, is the ruler.

The Lunation takes place in the 2nd house, indicating that many will be employed in getting everything necessary for the army, navy and air force; and finances will be concentrated on perfecting these departments as far as it is humanly possible.

Much will be spent on education also, but mainly in the construction of suitable buildings. Speculation and theatres are not under very good auspices, for Pluto in 5th is square to Mercury in 2nd, indicating that promoters may be heavy losers.

Mars is very close to the nadir, threatening disastrous fires on land, stormy weather and loss of life at sea. Since Mars is adversely placed with regard to Neptune, this loss by sea could be brought about through service as well as through the elements.

The government will plan a taxation scheme, but it is hardly likely that it will be put into effect during the period of this lunation, since the planet directing this is void-of-course.

The map is the clearest picture we have seen of a people united in the service of the Motherland and sacrificing themselves and their country in so doing.

A FEW LETTERS

The following letters are mostly from new contacts received through the January number:

"I enclose $2.00 in cash to pay for a year's subscription to The Beacon Light to begin with January 1940 issue. A subscriber gave me an old copy to read to influence me. I feel if you could send me some back 1939 copies I could get 2 or 3 new subscribers for you."

"I read your Beacon Light monthly, and feel a little amused at your placing so much stress on June 24, 1940. Now look what you have done: Hatched up a Republican Convention on that date. How did you know that far ahead when they would meet to try and kill off the New Deal? Will they cause an earthquake or sumpin? I'm a Democrat but maybe I'd better jine the G. O. P. What is your advice?"

"Enclosed you will find Money Order $1.00 and I would ask that you kindly mail me one copy of "1940 What's Next" by Harry J. Gardener. I always enjoy reading articles by Mr. Gardener, and I find them most beneficial.

"I received your card; thanks for the information contained thereon. I have received the books, and find them very enlightening. One is never through learning; I wonder what will become of civilization.

"I find The Beacon Light a very interesting magazine, it discloses facts I never knew before now."

THE BEACON LIGHT—for April, 1940

A MESSAGE AND WARNING

We are presenting herewith a short message, received from the Higher Spheres by Ida Hagen, author of the book "Tracings of Eternal Light", reviewed in this issue.

"Following a short discussion as to the possibility that we might send Light to the rulers in Europe who are engaged in warfare, this message was given:

"The rulers take council together against the Lord and His anointed. This is the day when this is true upon the earth, and woe be to the rulers of the nations, for they place themselves in the front ranks of the law of condemnation. Woe, woe, woe is theirs.

"There is none good among them, nay not one, for they are all drunk with the blood of innocence. They are saturated with the thirst of power, they are all as fiends craving dominion over the world. The new-born and the unborn babes they would crush beneath their heels of brutality, and the tender heart they would brush aside and trample under foot, and they who see would they spat upon. They who carry the cross of brother man would they destroy, and the gain that is written spells vengeance, but they shall receive the cup of bitterness and woe again. Woe be unto the heads of all nations, for there is none good among them. They dare not slumber nor sleep lest their souls penetrate the mists of foul smoke of gun play.

"To read upon the tablets of light the great order of this day shall the Kingdom of Heaven be established upon the earth, and none other, for the Prince of Peace alone hath power to sustain the world, and His flock none shall take from Him. They have become mighty soldiers of the cross, strengthened to meet the warfare of light, to stand a mighty fortress.

"Who are ye then, Oh man, to fear the rulers of the earth? Pity them, pray for them that thy prayers may penetrate the deep folds of their darkness. But know ye, they in the law are condemned in the law and their time is short, and that which is good which they have lost temporarily rises again in manifold beauty and blessing, for the curtains between the light of spirit and the darkness of earth shall be rent anew as it was that other day of crucifixion, and they shall march forth, they the anointed with the oil of spirit. So speaks the Angel of Mons." Authenticity: Zechariah 9:12-17

Through Emoah

I may say we are in touch with quite a few people capable of receiving messages, just as the prophets of old. There are thousands who can receive messages from the disembodied, but there are not many who can contact the higher sources, the Elder Brothers, including the Christ, and bring back to earth valuable philosophy and information.

These modern prophets are playing the same role as the prophets in ancient times. Corrupt priestcraft and theologians have only added confusion to humanity instead of being a light; so this and other messages were received, just as George Washington received his famous vision of the future of America, and as, later on, in the Civil War, he appeared to General McClellan, with invaluable military information regarding the opposing army.

Today, those who have finished their evolution, headed by The Christ, are revealing themselves to inspired men and women who through aspiration and purity of life have earned the privilege of real spiritual contact. During the past thirty years we have received hundreds of messages, from men and women scattered all over the world; some have come to me personally, largely through prophetic dreams. I know what it is to go out in my astral body to the horrors of the battlefield, and to come back, sad and dejected, in the morning, from the sights witnessed. I have seen practically all the major disasters of the past thirty years when out in my astral body, and have had my visions verified by the morning paper; therefore I know they are reliable.

It is true we do not always bring back the full memory in detail. I recall the death of William Wrigley Jr. some years ago; I brought back the memory of everything, except his name.

This message we are giving you rings true to facts as I know them. We know there is none good among the world's leaders, even here in America; therefore we must not be influenced by them one iota. They know not where they are going, yet try to lead you; the blind leading the blind. We have repeatedly told you, Come out from among them; out into the rural parts, and begin to prepare; for God is going to wreak His vengeance on all these false leaders, and entirely destroy them and their handiwork.

The harvest of 1940 will be the last normal harvest for many years, in our opinion. Take heed, and carefully salvage the bounties of Nature, this summer. Preserve this harvest, in canning and dehydrating, for millions will die of starvation in the years that lie ahead. It is not too soon to begin your preparations now; don't wait until the harvest is here.

P R E P A R A T I O N

A few weeks ago we received a letter from a good friend and reader, saying "You told us that 1939 was the great year of preparation, and now you tell us in 1940 again we must prepare", or words to that effect.

Friends, 1939 was the great year of preparation; and those who were spiritually attuned, when they read my 1939 message, began to do something if at all possible. I say this because today we received a letter severely criticizing me for not trying to draw all my Beacon Light followers under my wing and taking them to a place of safety.

A year ago I took a scouting trip into adjoining states, looking for a location that would in my opinion be safe during the coming conflict. Then came the Jeffers persecution, which sidetracked me into that battle. Those two things, combined with two others which I have not mentioned, necessitated about 20 hours work a day for nearly 30 days; in addition, I received no raw juice the whole of that month, and the stroke was the culmination. The juice might have saved me, I don't know; I doubt it, with the tremendous strain I was under.

I do not feel called upon to be the leader of a group of people. I am a teacher, but I do not aspire to the leadership of a group of people, and such a role would have to be forced upon me by necessity before I would ever accept it, because of the tremendous responsibility. As a matter of fact, I did not choose my role as editor of The Beacon Light, it was a task given me to do, and one that I took up very reluctantly. I told the Lord I had no qualifications as an educator and teacher but that I would gladly help support those in the field doing worth while work as I had always done.

Of two things I am sure: One is that those who cling to our large cities will be buried in them, with bricks and mortar on top of them for a tombstone; and second, I see many self-styled leaders in the fight who will be a broken reed to lean upon when the crisis comes. In most cases we find a very prominent midheaven, at least one planet there and in some cases a grouping of planets. Leadership of a kind, yes; magnetic, positive; but in most cases those planets on the midheaven are badly afflicted. Most of your politicians have a strong mid-heaven, the ability to get into the limelight; but look at their 4th house—the end of things; it's a mess. They never end up right. At this time let me warn you against following a smooth tongue, a ready wit or a smiling face.

You will need something more than that to lean on, in the days that are just ahead.

I will however say at this time that 1940 is the deadline for safety in our large cities, but, not for everybody; tragedy will strike many this year, although not on the wholesale scale that will prevail in 1941, '42 and '43 when whole cities will be destroyed from various causes.

Unfortunately there are tens of thousands of people in large cities who have no resources to take them to a place of safety. During the past few years I have repeatedly been asked to take the lead; well, I have no inclination, nor am I able, to take the lead. This fight has drained me dry—and we were in very critical circumstances—and it has kept me drained, just barely able to get by; so I have no resources to even take myself to what I consider a safe spot. So unless the way opens I shall go down with the Beacon Light ship, preaching the gospel and warning you of the wrath to come, and teaching that salvation comes through obedience to law.

I may say, there are many Beacon Light readers who own substantial properties; hotels, apartment houses, business blocks; about fifty of them own and operate their own hotels. I know some of you hotel men especially, think I am an alarmist, and that there is no foundation for my alarm. But I can assure you that there is plenty of foundation; you cannot possibly save your properties, and the day will come when you will wish you had unloaded them to someone, who does not believe. Sell your property to the materialist; the atheist; the man who says there is no God; he will lose out anyway. And then spend your money two ways.

First, help us to get out our warning to a larger circle; there are millions of people who do not know the trend of coming events, and who will be caught like rats in a trap. As I see it, it's no longer a question of years, but of months.

Second, is the need for doing what the teachers in ancient Lemuria did; first, get a piece of land for a small settlement, of a select group, preferably in the state of Utah, Nevada or Colorado. There should be money enough to put up substantial buildings; buildings that are quake-proof; then for laying in a stock of provisions, clothing, etc.; there should be supplies enough to last for seven years, possibly longer.

All these things must be done in the next few months; and here is a task that will take a year unless a lot of money is available quickly. If you have money, or assets that can be turned into money, and have read The Beacon Light so that you know the story, you have a tremendous responsibility.

I am interested in building up a library of fundamental books; key books, as it were. And during the period of seclusion I expect to write a series of text books on the new order; the religion of tomorrow in the new order; the fundamental laws of life; what is salvation, and how achieved. There is a crying need for those things now, but I have no time to do justice to them. I should be relieved of fully 75 per cent of my work, but there is no relief in sight so far. Most people who want to help, want me to accept their ideas and do things their way; but I am a trail-blazer for the new order, and am not interested in brain-storms that have never been tested. My philosophy, as far as I have gone, has been tested in the laboratory of everyday life, and that is the acid test.

X In the very near future you will have to boil your life down to absolute necessities; tea, coffee, liquor, beer, tobacco, cosmetics, will all be out. Well, why not train yourself for what you will have to do eventually? Get ready, and spend that money on something worth while; help us to reach more people.

I find people really receptive now. All my life I have labored trying to tell the story; I was laughed at and ridiculed, but today it is different. People are torn loose from their moorings; that which they thought was a solid foundation has proved to be quicksand. People are beginning to question; they are not so sure of themselves as they were yesterday, because Judgment Day is beginning to unfold; they can see the evidence of that of which the prophets, both ancient and modern, have spoken.

Again I extend the privilege of joining us in our educational work. I should like to put on a series of meetings in some large hall in Los Angeles, where the people are clamoring for me to give a series of talks; and there is a big need for it. I could answer the call if I were relieved of a lot of routine work and financial anxiety. If every reader of The Beacon Light would tithe themselves, as the Scriptures say you should, we would surely go places. Remember, I am not asking you to do what I am not doing myself. And at this time I am interested in people who are able to help me with a series of meetings in Los Angeles, say twice a month. I want someone who will take care of the musical end of the program; what I would like is one person who could draw together a staff of workers ushers, literature sellers, someone who can act as chairman and someone to take care of the musical program. Then

I will give a series of lectures, pertinent and up to date, answering questions that are repeatedly asked in our mail every day.

This series of meetings should start not later than June, and continue throughout the year. If you are interested in helping out in a program of this kind, please get in touch with me.

BOOK REVIEWS

TRACINGS OF ETERNAL LIGHT: By Ida Hagen.

Here is a book that is as refreshing as the morning dew. Being somewhat of a realist, I should have titled the book, The Evolution of a Sincere Soul; for it is the record of a soul wrestling with its Maker; one who realizes that salvation must be worked out in fear and trembling. Not fear, in the ordinary sense of the word, but with a fear to do wrong. The evangelistic salvation is cheap and tawdry beside the real thing, as recorded in this book. Salvation comes through walking alone with the Great Ones who have gone before—yea, even our Elder Brother the Christ.

This book records the fruits of living the life, instead of just talking about it. Those of you who know what spiritual living really is, will recognize the writer for what she is. Almost every day I contact souls who are agonizing with God to reveal Himself and His truths. Well, here is the book that will bring comfort to your soul; one who agonized and prayed and walked alone until God revealed Himself.

I take great pleasure in recommending this little book to your attention, because in my opinion it is the real thing, not counterfeit. I do not profess to have attained to her heights, but I have experience enough to know that she is really on the Path. By all means get a copy; read it to your study or Bible class; go over it prayerfully with the members of your family; read it in the solitude of your own chamber, and let its message sink in.

Ida Hagen has discovered the truth of the statement, No man cometh unto the Father but by me. By that, He meant you must travel the same road that He traveled if you would know God; which is true. Jesus Christ, our Elder Brother, blazed the trail; all we have to do is to follow that trail, and we will arrive. It means solitude; it means loneliness; it means walking alone; rugged individualism; a casting aside of all outside influences, with eyes set on the Pole Star of the Christ. Eventually you will arrive. But you must live the life and not merely talk about it. Let your light so shine that men will see the reflection of Christ in you.

In this issue you will find a short article, or message, given through this pioneer soul, with the expectation that we will print other messages as she receives them. The book is cloth-bound, price $1.50.

THE TALMUD UNMASKED. With Appendix.

We reviewed the cloth bound edition of this book last August. A controversy arose, and the publisher, Col. Sanctuary, added another 16 pages, and printed a new edition on cheap paper with a paper cover. in order to give it a wide distribution. Many people have written us for a translation in English of Shulkhan Arukh; well, here you have it, or rather the highlights of it, for it's too voluminous to print in full.

I open a random a page, and my eyes light upon this translation: "The people of the earth are idolaters, and it has been written about them, 'let them be wiped off the face of the earth.' " Well, that's what the war is about that is going on in Europe now; they want the two leading nations of Europe to annihilate each other: England and Germany. It goes on to say that the Jews will never be free until this is accomplished. See page 80.

In light of this, re-read our article on Germany in our Astrological Predictions for 1940; they dovetail perfectly. This is the book that we have been waiting for all these years. Price, 25c, for 110 pages. Yes, for good measure we will send you 5 copies for $1.00. Obviously nobody makes any money on this book. Get them into circulation by the thousands, that mankind may know the why of the slaughter now going on.

THE RIME OF THE ISRAEL CLANS: By Wilson Charles Lorimer.

Your Christian Bible has a special message for the children of Israel, the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic people; and because our professing Christians do not know that they have been enslaved by the leaders of the Synagogue of Satan. If the Anglo-Saxon people had known their real identity, they would never have walked into the trap of the International Shylocks, as recorded in The Talmud Unmasked which we have just reviewed.

While we do not follow our Anglo-Israel friends fanatically, we do concede the truth of the Israel message; and until we Anglo-Saxons realize this special message in our Bible to Israel—not the Jews—we shall always go around in circles. In our ignorance of the Christian Bible we have conceded the blessings of Israel to the Jews, who have absolutely no right to them. This Chosen People myth, which they claim, and we have conceded, has enabled them to get a strangle-hold on the world in religion, finance, politics and commerce.

Mr. Lorimer must know his Bible pretty well, because he has boiled down into 50 pages in rime the Israel message from beginning to end; a wonderful box to keep beside your Bible; a very ingenious and helpful little book. Price, 50c.

PLANTING TIME: The Garden Calendar for 1940; By Dr. Clark Timmons.

A very timely little book, for it is indeed planting time now. This is an annual, prepared especially for the gardener from the standpoint of astrology. To quote Solomon, in Ecclesiastes, "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under Heaven; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted." And as Solomon was a wise old bird, let's heed his advice.

It is over 30 years since I experimented in planting astrologically; and I can say without fear of successful contradiction that it pays in dollars and cents to observe the phases of the Moon. If you want a garden that will be the envy of your neighbors, get a copy of Planting Time, and follow the advice given. The book gives detailed information for every day in the year, for gardening and poultry raising, worked out until it is fool proof. By all means get a copy of Planting Time; it will repay you in dollars and cents. Price 55c.

PLANTING BY THE MOON: By the same author, Dr. Clark Timmons.

A companion book or supplement to Planting Time. This book goes back into ancient times, showing what the Zodiac meant to the ancients, and how they used it; however the book does not confine itself to planting, for there is valuable information along the line of medical astrology in the chapter on the Moon and Mortality, and Diagnosing by Astrology. A very valuable book to any astrological student; and you do not have to be an advanced student for it is written in language that the beginner can readily understand. The price is 80c.

HOW TO USE MODERN EPHEMERIDES: By Elbert Benjamine, President of the Church of Light.

A very timely book for astrological students; because whereas for many years we had just one Ephemeris, namely, Raphael's, later on the Simplified Ephemeris was put out by the Rosicrucian Fellowship, and now we have about a dozen of them. But, it is like the Tower of Babel, it's confusing; they don't all use the same starting time. Some compute from mid-day, and others from midnight; so the writer tells you the difference in these various Ephemerides.

Mr. Benjamine is well qualified to do the work he has done; none better. I personally appreciate his efforts. I have already found it invaluable. Every student needs a copy. Just as a good mechanic must have tools to work with, so must the astrologer have reliable textbooks, if he would get results. Price 50c.

PIVOTAL POINTS IN A CHANGING WORLD: RUSSIA.

Part II, Cultural, Artistic, Religions. By Theodore Heline.

This is a revised edition of the same thing we have listed for some time, enlarged and extended, and in two volumes. You are going to hear more about Russia from now on, until the climax. Other books in this series are Germany, Japan, Spain, Britain and Ethiopia.

Other writers give you the political or religious background of Russia, but Heline goes into the social, economic and astrological in all of his series; in other words, they are more rounded out; more complete. He has a liberal blending of the Bible in it, which is as it should be. We don't agree with all his conclusions, however; he has accepted more of the Soviet's point of view or propaganda than I would be willing to concede. He seems to think the peasants have been somewhat liberated; I fail to find any signs of it, and I have gone deeply into the subject. In two volumes, 30c per volume.

Drink Your Way to Health

WITH RAW VEGETABLE JUICES

Nothing in modern times, in connection with health, has swept the country like the gospel of raw vegetable juices. The present widespread interest in this treatment dates back about five years, to the work of Mary C. Hogle, of Salt Lake City, who as an outgrowth of her own experiences put out her pioneer booklet "Building up with Foods that Alkalize and Heal," in which she gives the results of experiments on herself and others.

Among all the various juices recommended, that of the raw carrot stands far at the head of the list. But one doesn't need the evidence she supplies; for thousands of people who earn their living raising rabbits for their pelts, will tell you that rabbits must have plenty of carrots to produce a good pelt; and it takes healthy blood to make a healthy pelt. Those who breed and exhibit fancy horse stock, feed them plenty of carrots; they say it "brings out their coat." Again, we say it takes a healthy blood to produce a healthy coat.

We know that dairy ranchers who feed plenty of carrots to their stock, never need fear TB striking their herd. Furthermore, they know the milk will be much richer and more plentiful if plenty of carrots are fed.

Why can't we apply that same common sense to the human family? However, we can not eat enough carrots to produce quick results, therefore we extract the juice, as we can drink in a few minutes the juice from enough carrots to keep you busy all day if you ate them.

However, the drinking of raw vegetable juices has ceased to be an experiment; already doctors and laymen are compiling records of cures that are simply astounding. Why not get yourself a juice extractor, and supply the whole family with life-giving raw vegetable juices? You can extract the juices from the tops of carrots, beets, turnips, celery, etc., which you previously threw away, also the outer leaves of cabbage, cauliflower, lettuce, etc. Then again the life-giving qualities can be extracted from dandelions and other life-giving herbs. The juice habit will not only cut down your table expenses, but will at the same time build up the health of the whole family. Medical men, chiropractors and osteopaths are today recommending raw vegetable juices; in fact most of our text books on this subject, including Dr. Pope's "Raw Vegetable Juices: what's missing in your Body?" are written by medical men.

People often say, when they see the price of the Juice Extractor, "That's too much money; I can't afford it." Yet these same people don't hesitate to spend a hundred dollars or more for an electric stove, fifty for a radio or vacuum cleaner, or a thousand dollars for a car; and the average family spends more than the price of a Juicer in doctors' bills every year.

About a third of our sales are to people who "could not afford" them until they had had a serious operation, costing from $200 to $1000 including hospitalization and loss of time. Then, they gladly pay $150 for something that will restore their health. Some, of course, leave it too late, so their family give them a grand funeral, which costs considerably more than the best Juice Extractor on the market.

Why not be practical? Your health is the most valuable possession you have; without it you have nothing, and life is not worth living. Besides, your Juice Extractor will cut your food bill from a third to a half, therefore it will more than pay for itself in one year, in savings on food.

You are going to need health as never before, in the next few years, with their terrific upheavals; and everyone will be forced by necessity to live the simple life. Build up your health now, while still there is time.

HEALTH BOOKS YOU SHOULD READ

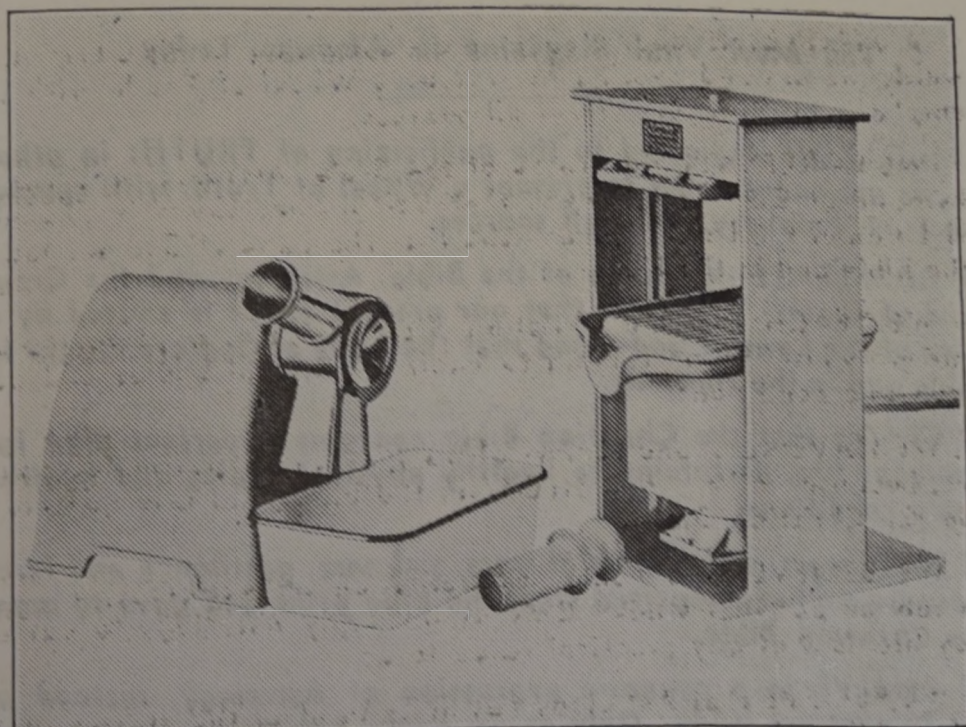

The following health books are among the best in print today. They cover the different phases of healing. Why not treat yourself to one health book a month? A good health library is a good insurance policy for health.

Read The Beacon Light

The Most Vital Magazine in America Today

A MAGAZINE dedicated to the publicizing of TRUTH; in other words, we are endeavoring to present a Wheel of Truth, with special emphasis on Prophecy, from all sources.

WE CORRELATE the truths of the Bible, Astrology and the Great Pyramid of Gizeh. We teach that our present chaos is caused by a violation of the Laws of God—and that the Laws of God are taught in the Bible and in the Heavens.

WE TEACH that the Christian Bible contains a perfect plan for our everyday life, pertaining to healthy physical bodies and healthy economic conditions.

WE HAVE wars, and rumors of wars, sickness, pestilence and famine, because we have departed from the blue print God gave to man, via the Christian Bible.

WE BELIEVE in a concrete expression of Astrology, instead of merely an abstract study. Only as we apply Astrology to our everyday life, is it of any practical value to us.

WE BELIEVE that Astrology has more to offer the masses than any other philosophy or science in the world today; that it augments and strengthens the teachings of the Christian Bible and those of the Great Pyramid, these three great sources of truth forming a 'trinity.

WE ARE WILLING to accept truth from any source whatsoever, but we refuse to accept a teacher, or philosophy, unless some evidence is given to support their claims. As the Good Book says, "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good."

THE BEACON LIGHT is now in its eighth year; and our readers say it is the most vital of all the magazines they read. It will help you to attain peace of mind, or, in other words, physical, mental and spiritual health; and that is what we are all striving for.

WHY NOT send a dollar for a 6 months' trial subscription, and prove for yourself the truth of this statement?

WHY PHYSICAL DISASTERS?

During the past two years we have printed some very startling prophecies regarding coming events; prophetic dreams and visions received by men and women whose spiritual eyes are tuned to the celestial spheres. And here is a question that has been put in this connection: "How do you know that these visions are true?"

In the same way that one musician recognizes another; in the same way that an artist, or a carpenter, or a plumber, would recognize another who is skilled along his line. All my life I have been conscious of these celestial spheres; more especially from 1907 to 1913 or -14 roughly, when the planet Uranus was passing through my 9th house. I received many marvelous visions of coming events. Some came in the form of dreams; prophetic dreams in which every detail was clear. Incidentally, most of these dreams have already materialized on the physical plane. Many of these revelations came while at work, especially when working in the garden, or while taking a walk. Usually I would feel restless, and feel the urge to take a long walk; the vision would then unfold as I walked.

Incidentally, a long walk, alone, especially out in the country amid the beauties of nature, is one of the greatest solaces you can have. When we walk, the circulation of the blood in the body is perfect; all organs including the mind are functioning normally. If you sit down to think the mind draws the blood to the head, and you get nothing but the products of your own brain; but when you walk, the exercise is drawing the blood away from the head and circulating it equally throughout the body, which is the normal condition. Then the spiritual part of man, the spiritual body, has a chance to function. So, a good, brisk walk, when you are worried or puzzled as to the course of action you should follow, will clear the cobwebs; that is, relieve mental congestion. When you worry, you try to solve your problem on the mental plane; but there are some problems that cannot be settled on the mental plane, and the inspirational faculties need to be brought into play. That is, we must go up one rung of the ladder. Man is a fourfold being; he is physical, he is emotional, he is mental and he is spiritual. During most of our waking moments we function on the physical and emotional planes. The animal man is scarcely capable of functioning on any higher plane. The mental type, however, is apt to concentrate on the mental plane alone, ignoring the spiritual and neglecting the physical. But there are times when only the spiritual plane can supply the answer to your problem. The plane itself does not supply it, but it is the vehicle through which God and the celestial beings who carry out His bidding work.

But this is somewhat of a digression from the subject, "Why Physical Disasters? Man, through his various manifestations on the three lower planes, physical, astral and mental, has very largely ignored the spiritual, or God; therefore it is very necessary to destroy man's handiwork, through which he has expanded his ego to such a degree that he is spiritually sick; enemic. You have only to look around you, especially in the larger cities, to see the source of man's pleasure and inspiration, if you can call it that.

As soon as his work is finished and he seeks recreation, he seeks it largely on the emotional or astral plane; smoking and drinking, eating gorgeous dinners, dancing, watching prize fights and boxing, attending night clubs and questionable picture shows and plays. I say that because the biggest crowds go where the show is the dirtiest.

The primitive people go around naked and unashamed, and there is no vulgarity associated with it. Go to some swanky dance, or if you will, where the taxi dancer is; the female of the species is not naked, it is true; but it would be less harmful if they were, for they dress suggestively, tantalizing, teasing the emotions; therefore more deadly. But the point I am making is that all these forms of entertainment appeal to the lowest in man and not to the highest. I have never learned to dance, because it did not appeal to me, but I have attended hundreds of dances because I like to watch people in their various manifestations. I have attended them in the red light districts, in the churches, and in the swanky night clubs. At this time I may say that your modern dance, especially the jitterbug and the expression drawn out by modern jazz, is vile in its effect; it can only be described in one word: degeneracy. This type of music has a demoralizing effect, especially upon adolescent youth; it breaks down all moral restraint, and throws the individual entirely out of balance. The distortion of life to them becomes normal; hence the gulf between modern youth and their parents.

Our boys and girls would never accept these distortions, were it not for the subtle effect of modern movies, the hundred and one questionable magazines on our news stands, and still more deadly, the Red professor and the text books in our schools and colleges, as naturally the boys and girls look up to their teacher as an authority and these authorities, for the past 20 years or more, have been telling them that degeneracy is normal; is good; is natural; and so they believe it. If you want some evidence, read "The Slaughter of Innocence", and "Crucifying Christ in Our Colleges," by Dan Gilbert. It will send a shiver down your back, and you will be horrified at the teachings your boys and girls are receiving. I say without any hesitation that your schools and colleges are making degenerates out of your fine boys and girls, and you are paying the bill. If I had a boy or girl, I would rather shoot him or her than to send them to any of our modern colleges; in fact I would not even send them to our high schools. You will find the answer in the two books mentioned above, which give the list of the vicious text books, including the Harold Rugg Series, Changing Governments and Changing Cultures, in which they proceed to tell you that we have outgrown virtues; they are old-fashioned. (And our modern virtues are vices of the worst kind. Briefly, these text books and I have read many of them, emphasize the physical and emotional expressions of man; they one and all use Freud as the foundation of their ideas—that it is bad for youth to suppress physical and emotional instincts; that the more conquers the young man or woman will have the freer will they be. As a result, they graduate from college enslaved with the habits of drinking, smoking, sex dissipation, drug addiction, stealing and even murder.

You say this isn't true? Check on the list in any penitentiary and the number of students who leave college to go to the penitentiary is alarming. In the December 2, 1939 issue of Liberty magazine was an article entitled "Is It As Bad As This?" A sorority sponsor talks about college girls' morals. In this article you will find a confirmation of everything I have said; and she ends up in a hopeless manner saying, "If I knew the answers I'd probably be over at the chapter house expounding them now, for I think they're needed. Since I don't, perhaps it may be to some purpose to put the question here."

It's surprising how dumb some educated people can be. This woman is a college graduate. It does however prove one point that I have regularly made: namely, the propaganda for the demoralization of our youth is so subtle that they are not conscious of it.

✗ On December 14th there appeared in the Los Angeles Examiner the following news item regarding Bertrand Russell, who is a British Earl ✗ "Bertrand Russell, British leftist philosopher, faculty member of the University of California at Los Angeles, must get out of the United States by January 1. His final alien visitor's permit expires then, but he said yesterday he hopes to return with his wife and two-year old son after spending Christmas scholastic vacation at Ensenada, Mexico.

"For three months, he said, he has been gathering police good conduct certificates and income tax affidavits from all the United States points he has visited in the last five years. The documents, including one obtained from Los Angeles police, are to be presented to the American consul at Ensenada with a plea for a recommendation for permanent entry under the immigration quota.

x "They fingerprinted me in the common jail here," he complained, referring to identification requirements of the State and Labor Departments.

"Russell, who does not use his title of Earl, said he did not plan American citizenship, but wished to accept the permanent chair of philosophy at the University. He added that, shunning the unconventional theoretical concepts which publicized him several years ago, he is teaching only "pure philosophy" at U. C. L. A.

"Several years ago he startled even his free-thought intimates by advocating marital infidelity as a cure for divorces on the part of "sex repressed" individuals.

"He took the U. C. L. A. chair last spring. His temporary visitor's permit expired in August, but was extended."

I have given it to you in its entirety; and here is his record in The Red Network, by Elizabeth Dilling. You will find it on p. 318:

"RUSSELL, BERTRAND A. W.: English author and lecturer; head English Section communist Anti-Imperialist Lg.: fined 100 Pounds imprisoned for six months, and lost lectureship at Cambridge U. for treasonable actions during war; author of "What I Believe," which advocates sex immorality, and "Why I Am Not A Christian," in which he says: "I believe that when I die I shall rot and nothing of my ego survive."; Daily Worker (Oct. 26, 1931) quotes him as saying in New York: "There is no hope in anything but the Soviet way."; League for Industrial Democracy lecturer on American tours; debater at Communist New Workers School, New York City, 1931-2; vice president Freethinkers (atheist); British section American Society for Cultural Relations with Russia; endorser "Letters Sacco and Vanzetti"; Freethinkers Ingersoll Committee 1933."

You may draw your own conclusions as to the brand of "pure philosophy" a man with that background would dish out.

I wish that every reader of The Beacon Light had a copy of The Red Network; you need it for constant reference, especially in this election year.

Now having read the Red Record of Russell, here is what The Red Network says about Harold Rugg; he is the writer of the innocent (?) Social Science series. Most of the High Schools and some grammar schools use the Rugg series; we have them in Atascadero, also in Paso Robles. Here is his record:

RUGG, HAROLD: Columbia U. professor; broadcast speaker of Dec. 26, 1933, for socialist L. I. P. A. (League for Independent Political Action); his growing pro-Soviet eulogies in another speech are quoted at length in communist Daily Worker, Dec. 5, 1933 (Mike Gold's column): "Today 6,000,000 young Russians in the Communist Youth Organization are making a fine constructive contribution to the construction of a new social order. Here is a war psychology of dramatic action which is so dear to youth set to the great building tasks of peace." His reference is to the Young Communist League (Russian Comsomols), which are building for world bloody class hate and revolution, destruction of religion and family life; cooperating educator Reconciliation Trips, 1931; board of directors progressive Educational Association organ 1934."

And you parents are sound asleep, or else singing "In the Sweet Bye and Bye"; or like the Sorority sponsor, wondering what it's all about. If God gave you brains, I don't know what you are doing with them; certainly you are not using them.

I may say at this time, all these things I have mentioned tie up with the Protocols and The Talmud. I am convinced that the day will come when the voice of The Beacon Light will be silenced, because it will be treason to tell the truth; the Constitution and Bill of Rights will be thrown into the ash can.

In the April 1938 Beacon Light our leading article was "Atheistic Communism in Our Schools"; now out of print except for one copy. We were laughed at in some quarters, but we were recently vindicated by the Dies Committee who revealed the same facts. They are telling you nothing new; in fact every revelation they have made we have told you in advance, two, three and even five years before; but I am thankful for the Dies committee for one thing: they have made public the findings; it's news.

Now these text books have done their deadly work; youth has, to a large extent, accepted these new standards as propounded by Red professors. If you don't believe it, talk to the average college graduate; and you will find Karl Marx and atheistic communism seeping out through their conversation. But they don't recognize it as such, and indignantly deny that they are communistic. They are to be pitied; they have been corrupted without their knowledge or consent, and you parents are the real criminals for allowing your boys and girls to be inoculated and vaccinated with such vicious teachings. But, you say, "I didn't know about it." Go out on the highway with your car and violate some traffic laws; and presently you hear the siren, "pull over there!" The officer pulls out his book and gives you a ticket. ("But, officer," you say, "I didn't know." His reply is something like this: "Ignorance of the law is no excuse." The law rightfully assumes that when you take upon yourself the responsibility of driving a vehicle on the highway, you are conversant with the laws of the state in which you reside, regarding motor vehicles; that's the basis of your license to operate a car.

My friend, when you assume the duties of parenthood, God Almighty holds you responsible for the training of those boys and girls; that you will guide and direct and protect them until the legal age of 21; then it's up to them.

Have you done it? You know you haven't. As a result, many of you are paying the price in bitter anguish. Hundreds of parents have consulted me about the problems of their boys and girls; and in every case I throw the responsibility on the parents, where it belongs. Immature youth lacks the discrimination, and promptly accepts that which is given by its teachers and parents; and what an example some of you parents show!! I have seen girls of the tender age of 14 at a cocktail bar, in some cases hopelessly drunk. What moral restraint does that girl have, in that condition? In many cases the girl is pregnant and don't know how it happened; so in the kindness of your heart you take her to an abortionist. Occasionally the girl dies, and then there is a rumpus. But I am nailing the whole responsibility on your door, Mr. and Mrs. Parent. I don't blame the Jew college writer of text books, I blame you, for permitting it. I am here to tell you that the condition of the average college, yes, the average high school, is such that the Red Light district is mild in comparison. I have seen it with my own eyes, in college towns and cities all over the United States; I have seen it in New York adjoining Columbia University; at Yale in New Haven; at Syracuse University; and our various schools and colleges throughout the state of California.

- ✕ I hope this article gives you a solar plexus blow; for I am charging you parents with the corruption and degeneracy of your own boys and girls. I charge you with criminal neglect. There is only one thing left for you to do; to plead guilty and then proceed to pay your fine; that is, to check up on my statements, and then go out and do something about it.

Again I return to my title, "Why Physical Disaster?" In the last analysis, humanity has set in motion certain forces; we have sown destruction, and we are going to reap destruction. God merely operates through the law of cause and effect; He has set up the rules and regulations, the laws through which He manifests. For a long time we have sown, and now we are going to reap the corruption we have sown. The soil of our large cities is so filled with destructive vibratory forces, that they will be destroyed through the operation of the law of cause and effect. We have been pounding this message into you in various ways since the inception of The Beacon Light; and now many of you come to me and say, "My, what terrible pictures you are painting of the future; what's the use of doing anything?" or, "What can I do?"

Well, you can start to practice obedience to the traffic signals on the Cosmic Highway; you can start to serve in the Master's vineyard; you can put your shoulder to the wheel; you can lighten the load of the modern prophets who are proclaiming these truths. This small handful is worn out, physically and financially; mentally weary; exhausted with the heavy load they are carrying. You can take your proper place by helping them financially, before they are forced through exhaustion to surrender their physical body and leave this plane. My own breakdown was nothing but exhaustion; fatigue poisons due to overwork; and I am here to tell you that the burden is heavier today than it has ever been, because we are now approaching the climax. The happenings of the next 12 months will convince you beyond the shadow of a doubt that we know what we are talking about.

We have presented the story from every possible angle, so you cannot plead ignorance of the law; of the facts. We have been submitting evidence that would be accepted in any law court; we have placed upon your shoulders a terrific responsibility and burden, the responsibility of action; or service; because you are no longer ignorant. Scores of you have written, What shall I do in the way of preparation for the coming upheaval? In the words of my beloved Master I will answer you. "Peter, lovest thou me?" "Yea, Lord." "Feed my lambs." There is and can be, no protection outside of service and obedience to law.

It is very necessary that your material possessions be swept away, because they have become your God. In the similar period of the world's history, the anthropoid ape appeared, a degenerate human being, belonging to the human family. Thousands of years ago on our evolutionary path, he became a straggler through degeneracy; sex perversion; stragglers of the human family in the path of evolution. Millions of degenerate human beings, especially those disciples of the Talmud, will be thrown off from this planet, because they have sunk so low in the human scale that they are retarding the evolution of the rest of the human family. They will be thrown off on another planet much lower in the evolutionary scale. There their environment will be such that they will be subject to severe discipline in their everyday life, just as the child who refuses to learn its lessons at school is put in a class with other sub-normal children and given another chance.

But don't confuse my teachings of real evolution with the imitation of the materialist. Your Bible teaches the story of spiritual evolution; man was never an animal, but he was animal-like, which is different. There was a time when we were devoid of intelligence; but we have evolved it; the time has now arrived for the capstone. We must evolve or unfold our spiritual consciousness, just as we developed or unfolded our intellect. You and I are potential Christs; as Christ Himself said, "Ye are gods." So the time has come for us to sweep aside the materialist, the atheist, the degenerate, and demonstrate our at-one-ness with God.

Soon the Great Being Who has charge of the evolution of this planet will come back and ask you and me to give an account of our stewardship. Those of you who have evolved or grown your spiritual consciousness will be at one with Him; but if you have taken the left hand or down hill path you will have nothing in common with Him. So you will determine your own fate, and will be placed in an environment in which you will be subject to severe discipline; and it will be as the Master said on one occasion, not those who cry Lord, Lord, but those who do the will of the father.

So you will need something more than church membership; that will have no weight whatsoever; less than nothing. Salvation or attainment comes through obedience to the law, and service; in the same way you become a musical genius, so you become a spiritual genius. Paderewski became the world's leading pianist through long years of practice; application of the laws of music. The same law applies to all trades and professions; and it also applies to your spiritual growth or unfoldment. A spiritual giant has put in long months, years, incarnations, in the practice of the spiritual laws of life. There is no magic about it. The words Lord, and law, are synonymous, and mean one and the same thing.

As I stated before, the voice of the modern prophets, and I consider myself one of them, will be silenced in the not far distant future; and many of you people will be groping in the dark, because the messages we have given out did not germinate in your spiritual consciousness. It was nothing more than mental entertainment as far as you were concerned; but I wouldn't care to be in your shoes when the books are balanced, and when it is revealed to you and to the world, the thousands of lost opportunities for spreading the gospel of these God-given truths. I shall be sorry for you; the Master will be sorry for you; but nothing can be done for you in that day. As the tree falls, so it will lie; as you have sown, so shall you reap. There is no such thing as a death-bed repentance and standing equal with the man who has lived the life. The most terrible thing on Judgment Day, when the books are balanced, will be the cries of anguish and the tears of remorse for lost opportunities. Remember, Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Hundreds of times I have heard people say, "I would like to take your magazine, but I can't afford it." But the vast majority of these people can, or do, afford many non-essentials, for physical, emotional, mental or spiritual health; such being the case, the money was spent for degeneracy. Man does not need alcohol or tobacco; it is detrimental to us on all four planes. Man does not need tea or coffee any more than he does opium; it's only a question of degree, they only poison the physical body. Woman does not need the thousand and one varieties of cosmetics. I have seen gorgeous girls and women in rural parts far more beautiful than those who ape the courtesan. These things are not necessary to your physical, mental or spiritual well-being; and you are going to do without them in the near future because they will not be available. Man has built up so many artificial wants that are unnecessary and detrimental, that he has acquired a false standard of values of living. Is it any wonder that he is so far away from God and His laws? It's the natural and logical outcome.

Some philosopher has said, "Put your wants at zero and you have the world at your feet." That is true; better do a little cultivating in your spiritual garden while there is yet a little time. The consuming fires of hell are nothing more than the fires of remorse for violations of the laws of God and for lost opportunities for service. We all get hell when we break the laws of God; but we do it deliberately, with our eyes open, so we have no kick coming.

So this, briefly, is my answer to those of you who have asked me about preparation. Let him who is greatest among you be the servant of all. See that your friends, neighbors and acquaintances receive the message of The Beacon Light; they need it as much as you. Thousands of letters attest to the fact that we are indeed a Beacon Light in fact as well as in name; and again let me remind you that you are responsible for the dissemination of any truth that comes your way. And let me say that the joys of service are far beyond those of any other form of entertainment in the world—bar none. And it's a joy you can partake of any time you want to. As the Prodigal Son said, "I will arise and go to my father." You and I can do that any time we choose to do so; so you see, fate is in your own hands. You can play hooky and become a straggler in the evolution of mankind, or you can become a diligent student and servant in the Master's vineyard. Which are you going to choose?

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

"Enclosed is $1.00 for subscription to The Beacon Light; please begin by sending the February number. I read the January issue while in Long Beach and think it is a very splendid work; trust I may be able to secure some subscriptions in this locality."

"Your writings have become intensely interesting to me . . . Am sorry Beacon Light is not on every news stand in America. We are all so much in need of the enlightenment you give to us."

"Am enclosing P. O. Money Order for $30.00 to help you carry on. More will follow as God prospers us. This is of our time so you need not take the time and trouble to thank me. I consider it God's money, to be used for his purpose, which I think you are serving."

"I never had anything sent me more interesting than The Beacon Light, and I've disposed of the 5 copies I got from you already, and I am sending $1.00 now for which I want you to send one copy of the January number to each of the 3 following names, and send to my address 2 copies of the February number and one of the March number."

"I finally did eke out for six copies of your January 1940 issue of The Beacon Light, to be sent to the following addresses: . . . and send me another as I'm loaning my other one around so much. I believe it would be an excellent plan to print on the cover "After rereading please loan to three friends."

I'm sorry I have not been financially able to keep up my subscription. I've been grateful I was blessed with some special issues; will try to do better."

"I am renewing my order for your grand and helpful magazine. I also want to assist you as much as I can. You are doing a wonderful work. I let my friends read my magazine."

"My Dear Friend? Well, I may be anticipatory, but just that, is what I believe you will be henceforth."

Yesterday I received your January publication, sent me by an old chum from Florida. She spoke most appreciatively of you. And I am grateful for your publication of the article by Koresa. I have not finished reading the January issue, but I want to share it with others. I enclose $1.00 for 6 copies, and $2.00 for a year's subscription."

BIBLE PROPHECIES FOR 1940

Lecture by F. E. Rogers

Given in San Diego Jan. 7, 1940

There is no room for doubt, defeatism or depression in the Anglo-Israel vision. Instead, it is a thrilling experience to watch the changing scenes as the climax to the prophetic picture, regarding the "time of the end" hastens toward its grand finale, representing the deliverance from oppression for all nations of mankind.

The study of Anglo-Israel clearly shows that history and prophecy must go side by side. ..Therefore we must not neglect the study of history, and above all the study of prophecy. This is the force of the two-fold instruction contained in the Divine injunction: "Seek ye out of the Book of the Lord, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate." (Isaiah 34:16) Hence we are charged to read in the Book of the Lord—which is represented in the living pages of human history—and see that none of the prophecies fail to find their "mate, i. e., "fulfillment."

The greatest aid in undersanding the fulfillment of Bible prophecies is a knowledge of time-periods upon which these prophecies are based. It is confusing to anticipate the fulfillment of prophecy without knowing something of the time into which all prophecy must fit. (Acts 17:26) While it was not given to the people of an earlier day to know the times and seasons, (Acts 1:7) we are now in the time when there is nothing that shall not be revealed, for we are now in the age of Revelation, when the "myst" is to be taken out of the "mystery." (Matt. 10:26, Dan. 2:22). We find that Daniel tells us that time-measures would be "sealed" till the time of the end, then the wise would understand them. (Dan. 12: 4, 9, 13.)

Therefore, it is no new thing that one should look for the fulfillment of prophecy in cerain times. The Wise Men of the East had seen the star of Christ appear; a feature which suggests that the three conjunctions of Jupiter and Saturn in 7 B. C. followed by the Triple Conjunction of these with Mars in 6 B. C. was an event awaited as the time for embarking on their journey westwards. It might interest you to note the present position of these three planets in the heavens, which appear to be running a race across the sky; Jupiter has been in conjunction with Saturn and Mars, and is now rapidly approaching Mars and appears as though there will be almost a transit; and next month (February) the parade of the planets will be more intensified, with Venus and Mercury joining the lineup. all of these will be visible to the naked eye. Can this also be a forerunner of the heralding of our Lord's return? At least it is something to think about! Daniel's 70 weeks prophecy also indicated the time of our Lord's advent. The Book of Revelation is full of prophetic time-measures concerning the past, present and future political developments; you would profit greatly by studying both Old and New Testaments with a view to discovering the many prophetic time-elements which are to be found therein.

Time elements are given in Holy Writ in terms of "years", "times", "months", "days", and even smaller subdivisions, and these can be synchronized by a knowledge of the ancient calendar.

With the knowledge and understanding of this Key, it enabled me to give you information from this platform, months ahead of its consummation; here are a few examples:

Jan. 2, 1938: 'A fictitious rise in the value of gold.' That Edward VIII, although abdicated, would still return and be of service to his country (an event which took place exactly 1335 days after his accession to the throne, on September 16, 1939.)

Jan. 1, 1939: "It is too bad that Anthony Eden's policy is not as immaculate as his clothes, but his political valet was Finkelstein Litvinoff (now liquidated) . . . The price of gold will be raised to the neighborhood of $45.00 per oz. . . It will be interesting to watch the week of July 3-10 here in the United States . . . If Germany were to make the least gesture towards Russia, the reaction would be immediate and sympathetic . . . Far better for our Congress to begin to clean house here first than to cook up some paltry excuse to get us into another war with a nation across the ocean, either east or west . . ."

March 12, 1939: "The coronation of the new Pope is significant at this time, especially when 1940 is destined to be very critical in the history of papacy and decidedly ominous for the religious system which the Pope stands for" . . . "General Franco will win and most of the Red leaders in Spain will migrate to Mexico."

February 12, 1939: "Nov 27, 1939 may indicate the entry upon the real Armageddon stage of Ezekiel's campaign, to be completed in the early '40's . . . Poland will be occupied in the fall of this year by Germany."

May 7, 1939: "Will Russia march into Poland on the pretext of saving it from Germany? When the final showdown comes, Hitler and Stalin will unite."

These few items are brought to your attention for the specific purpose of driving home one point,, that we have hewed straight to one line, and one line only, that of the revelation of the Scriptures, and paid no attention whatever to so-called voices of prophecy, marches ahead or behind the times, all of whom have had to back-track on statements made, because they did not pan out the way they had planned. Those of you who have attended our meetings, during the past eight years, know that this is a fact of truth. It all rests on the right key to the interpretation of prophecy in Holy Writ, and we intend to adhere strictly to this line and no other.

Recently, a certain supposed voice of prophecy has been giving out false information regarding the return of Christ, which this man now states is not going to take place on this earth; but still he adheres to the fact that Satan is to be bound for 1,000 years, in spite of the fact that all the evil ones will be destroyed at the return of Christ in the air, not on the earth. The question that comes to my mind is, What is the use of binding Satan for 1,000 years when there are no people on earth for him to menace? And how can this man explain Zechariah, Chapter 12?

However, we must remember that Christ warned us of these false Christs and false prophets that would spring up like mushrooms in these last days of crises, and to pay no attention to them. But this again is left entirely up to the individual himself, either to accept them or reject them.

Referring back to Daniel, 12:4, he tells us that certain things of divine importance would be "shut up and sealed to the time of the end"; this means, though the words were given, men's spiritual understanding would be dulled till God's purposes were ready for accomplishment; and Zech. 14:7 tells us that at the "Evening time" (meaning of the dispensation) "there shall be light." This means that the veil would be lifted from men's eyes, and that "light" will not be the exclusive privilege of any one favored class, (Matt 11:25) but that many who are looked upon by the world as unlearned and ignorant men will be found to have received the spirit of understanding. (Acts 4:13).

Again we read that knowledge will be increased. (Dan. 12:4). This is often taken to mean inventions, discoveries, and the general spread of knowledge, but I rather interpret it as a reference primarily to a revelation and knowledge of Divine things, for example, the revelation of the Great Pyramid, the Israel key to the Scriptures, and the key to the end of the present age. These subjects are all, more or less, recent revelations, and the Church, hide-bound by tradition, finds a difficulty in accepting them.

This brings us to three subjects of the greatest importance at the present moment, and so closely bound together that it is almost impossible to speak of one without referring to the others: The Israel Key, the End of the Age, and The Kingdom of God on Earth, sometimes called the Millenium. This latter cannot begin until this age has ended, and this age cannot end until the House of Israel has been revived and restored, because it is destined to play an important part in God's economic system for the future government of the world.

The House of Israel are to be God's messengers and agents to carry the Kingdom blessings to all the nations of the earth; this in accordance with God's promises to the patriarchs, and dwelt extensively upon by Isaiah in Chapter 40 and other passages.

The history of the Adamic Race has been from the beginning divided into dispensations or ages. First we had the antediluvian; second, the patriarchal; third, the Mosiac; fourth, the Christian, or dispensation of the New Covenant. This, we are assured, is to be followed by another, a glorious one of peace and righteousness, commonly called the Millenium, but better known to many of us as the Kingdom of God on earth. (Rev. 20:1-7)

Each dispensation has closed with manifestations of God's power exhibited in extraordinary phenomena. The antediluvian ended with the Deluge; the patriarchal ended with the miracles attending the Exodus and the giving of the Law at Sinai; the Mosaic dispensation ended with the Miracles of Christ and the destruction of Jerusalem. In the same manner, we have the assurance that the end of this age will be attended by the most startling signs of Almighty Power which the world has ever seen or will see again.

Though the Bible is most emphatic in reference to this great matter we meet two kinds of objections: those who say the world is not good enough for the Millenium, and those who say we cannot know the time. Christ himself said that no one save the Father only, knows when it will be. To the first objection and those who agree with it, all you have to do is to read; Matt. 24; Mark 13; Luke 21; I Tim. 4; II Tim. 3 II Peter 3; Jude: and finally John the Revelator in the Book of Revelation; and make sure whether this Millenium or Kingdom Age is to be ushered in imperceptably, by gradual improvement, or by signs and wonders. To those who say we cannot know the time, my reply is that in Christ's time this was absolutely true; but, He did give us certain time-signals and landmarks whereby we may know when it is not far off. As, for example, after a long voyage, the ship's look-out reports the sight of land; all cannot see it, and only an experienced eye can detect the faint line on the horizon, but every hour brings the vessel nearer, until, before landing, every detail of the shore is distinctly seen by those who care to look. In the same way, the great fact of our Lord's return was forgotten in the Middle Ages, and when during the last century, the cry was raised, "Behold the Bridegroom cometh", it was indistinct and uncertain; but ever since, the truth has been getting clearer and more certain, and will continue to do so until the expectation becomes a reality.

All God's revelations to mankind have been progressive. They begin with general statements, and the details are unfolded by degrees as they are required. For instance, the promise of the Messiah to Adam was just an intimation. During the ages, the details were added by the prophets as to time, place, manner and accompanying circumstances. Take Abraham again: God did not unfold to him at once the great designs he had in view for his posterity, that was left for succeeding revelations. In the same way, the archangel Michael told Daniel to "seal the book even to the time of the end"

It is very evident, therefore, that it was to be understood, from the indications and signs which are given by Christ and the writers of both Old and New Testaments, especially Paul, Peter and John. These would not have been given unless it was for us to know. And it is evidently our Lord's wish that we should study this matter, for He said, "O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, but can ye not discern the signs of the times?" (Matt. 16:3). Furthermore, is there not a special blessing attached to the study of the Book of Revelation? (1.3); and again, "Surely the Lord will do nothing but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets". (Amos 3:7).

Many say we have no prophets now; but they have overlooked the fact that all who proclaim God's will are prophets. Many have been mistaken in fixing precise dates for the end of the age, but they were raised up to arouse men's minds as to the importance of coming events, and in that respect, they were prophets. This uncertainty is a part of God's plan to keep people on the watch. If we knew the specific time with certainty, where would the watching come in?

Now, when is the end to be, and what are the signs? Let us see if we can read them. These signs may be divided into two classes; 1st, general signs, 2nd, time-signs or those which indicate more or less precisely when the end of this age will come.

General Signs

1. Our Lord speaks of "many coming in His name saying, 'I am Christ.' " (This is not confined to any one country in particular, but has occurred many times over, particularly here in America and England, and also among the Mohammedans.
 2. "Wars and rumors of wars." Could any words express more forcibly the present situation of affairs? You may say to yourself, There have always been wars, this is nothing new. But remember, in days gone by, wars were generally fought between single countries; whereas now, the so-called civilized world is armed to its teeth, simply waiting for the signal to get into the present conflict, which at present is involving no less than six nations, and there are more liable to get into it by the time next spring rolls around. Oh yes, I know many pacifists say that the Bible tells us to turn our swords into plow-shares, and spears into pruning-hooks; but, they obstinately ignore Joel's warning that before that time comes we must turn plow-shares into swords, etc. (Joel 3:10.) But Christ's words regarding this time are very realistic to those who believe: "See that ye be not troubled." (Matt. 24:6).
 3. "Famines and pestilences and earthquakes". These have always been in evidence, but not with the frequency of the past few years and I look for certain, that earthquakes will come in a more appalling scale in the very near future; a sample of which we have just had in the recent seismic disturbances in Turkey, about which I will have something more to say later. Christ informs us that these are the beginnings of sorrows.
 4. "Because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall grow cold." Look at the worldly indifference among the great majority of the people today. They have no time for thinking of sacred things, and soon lose the inclination. The word "many" used here implies that there will be some who will adhere strictly to the truth. As time goes on, we shall see this breach getting wider and wider, between the two; but the reward for those who do continue in the love of Christ is that "they shall be saved". (Matt. 10:22.)
 5. "Signs and wonders in the heavens, the sea and the waves roaring." This must be classed with other physical disturbances. Those who are connected with marine affairs and we who live by the sea can observe more manifestations of God's power than those who live further inland, and we never go very long without experiencing something distressing either by winds, high tides or storms; and we may expect more of them during 1940, and with greater intensity. These will be a warning of what we know must take place when the seas and the waves really roar.

Then again, look at the possibilities of the heavenly bodies, and the 'may-be's' and the 'perhaps' that people smile over have actually become realities; we have already mentioned the present position of those three great planets, Mars, Saturn and Jupiter. Have you forgotten also, that at one period prior to our Lord's advent on earth in the form of man, the constellation known as the Southern Cross was visible 10 degrees above the horizon in the latitude of Jerusalem (approximately $31\frac{1}{2}$ degrees)? Was it a mere coincidence that in the year of our Lord's crucifixion, this constellation, owing to the gradual alteration caused by the precession of the equinoxes, forever set from Jerusalem's horizon? It is no longer visible at any period of the year from this spot.

6. "Seducing spirits and doctrines of evil." Writing to Timothy, the Apostle Paul mentions among other things as the signs of the end, "doctrines of devils." In Paris, there is a secret cult called "Devil-worship," the highest expression of which is a parody on the Lord's Supper, the details and accessories of which are extremely blasphemous. At our Lord's first advent, there was evidently a great outburst of demoniacal power, and there is every indication that the revival of that evil agency is already with us to mark the "time of the end".

7. "A falling away". All the writers of the New Testament dealing with this subject, mention the "falling away", that is, from the truth and from the faith. Our Lord says: "Nevertheless, when the Son of Man cometh shall he find faith on the earth?" He does not say He will not, but His words imply that faith will be found with but a few. Compare the 7,000 in the day of Elijah, who had not bowed the knee to Baal.

This want of faith shows itself in the disbelief in parts of the entire Bible, the inefficiency of the means of grace, prayer, the Lord's Supper, and the growing belief that man runs the world without the interference of an active Providence, as well as in open infidelity. There is no doubt that the loss of faith in eternal things is at the root of the unrest, and the communistic ideas, of today. Men have ceased to believe in Divine equity and a future life, and argue that every man should have an equal chance; and that if he does not have it, he should obtain it by fair means or foul. The same loss of faith is the cause of the epidemic of suicides, which is such a painful feature of the present day. Can this be the result of the secularizing of education, through the past decades? Many may say No; but the fact still remains.

8. "Scoffers". They are seen on every hand, and seem proud of scoffing at all holy and sacred things. They appear to think it shows superior intellect to doubt everything they cannot submit to the evidence of the senses. And yet, many of these scoffers will plunge, heart and soul, into all the follies of spiritualism, fake occultism, or some other so-called scientific craze.

- 9. "Disobedience to parents." This needs no comment, it is apparent on all sides. Parents make little effort to enforce obedience, and they shield themselves behind the cloak of love for their children. This is a cowardly excuse, for the real secret is, they have not the moral courage of their forefathers to enforce obedience, and it is not that they love their children better.

These words also bear another meaning: honesty towards employers of labor. We all realize the force of these words in this sense, and how dishonorable some individuals are in working for their employers; for example we see the truth of this statement in the amount of sabotage that is being done where it will do the most harm.

10. "Covetous . . . lovers of pleasure." Pleasure seems fast becoming the motive of life, and greed but the means to an end, and that end, the gratification of self. Theatres, saloons, (we were promised faithfully that there would be no saloons, so today they are called 'cocktail-lounges'), gambling, etc. to excess, and the love of show, which keeps so many people in a chronic state of poverty; all these produce an anxiety on the one hand and frivolity on the other, which is utterly incompatible with any feeling of devotion.

This spirit of sensuous ease has always been the forerunner of destruction of the great empires and civilizations of the past. It was so with Lemuria, or Mu as it is sometimes called; it was so with Atlantis, with Babylon, with Persia, Greece and Rome, and it will be the same with our civilization. And if we, ourselves, were not part of God's chosen people, it would undoubtedly be the same with us; which does not necessarily mean that all will come through this ordeal, for we shall have to bear the weight of the Divine Anger (Jer. 30:7, Zech. 12:8, 9); and some will perish going through this experience.

11. "A form of godliness, but denying the power thereof." How accurately these words express the materialism and the endless ceremonies of the ritualists and the Roman Church. These may touch some superficial souls for good, but not one desiring whole-hearted communion with God; the manual of a ritualistic society, with which many of our highest placed clergy are connected, contains some very remarkable statements which most assuredly deny the power.

History repeats itself. The action of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin (1 Kings 22:52) in setting up calves at Dan and Bethel, was not in itself idolatry in the sense of the heathens round about, but it paved the way for the appalling idolatry under Ahab. In the same way ritualism may not be Romanism, but it paves the way for it, and in many cases, the difference is very slight, consisting of little more than the use of the word Anglican, and the taking of Protestant money.

The churches also whether Anglican or what have you, are, in many cases, a mass of dry rot of formality without the spirit. For a total stranger to go into some of our churches, is like being put in cold storage, for one freezes the soul just as surely as the other freezes the body.

✕ 12. "The time of the end; many shall run to and fro" (Dan. 12:4). This should be sufficient evidence to convince the most skeptical. Was there ever such a time of running about as now? People run here and there by auto, and the speed is increasing as though society were heading into the vortex of a whirlpool.

13. "And knowledge shall be increased." This is part of the same divine revelation as the former, and applies with equal force to the present day, and is therefore equally a "sign of the time of the end". Glance back over the last fifty years, and notice the efforts made in the cause of elementary education, which had never previously been thought of. In half a century, it has become a part of our national life, and no government (administration) seems to have fulfilled its destiny, until it has tinkered at the educational code.

In the fields of invention and scientific discovery, this age is no less remarkable. Within the memory of all those present here today, the whole economy of life has been revolutionized, and that with a continually accelerating force which certainly carries some grave meaning with it, to all those who think, quite apart from the Biblical aspect. My object is to simply draw attention to them as they are, and to that Book which we pride ourselves on possessing, but about which we know so very little.

These signs brought forth, by no means exhaust the list; but sufficient have been given to convince those who will be convinced. It may be said that many of the signs have been in evidence all through the years; they may have been to some extent, but, now they are all in evidence, and some of them have not appeared before; for example, the last two; and never before have they all appeared at the same time.

To study these signs is not fanaticism, nor the work of cranks; it is simply obeying the injunction of our Lord by a simple study—not just reading—of the Scriptures.

Note: We do not have the space in this issue for the second half of Mr. Rogers' article, in which he points out the Time-Signs, or indications of when the harvest will take place. The balance of this article will appear in next month's issue.)

OUR HEALTH NUMBER

Last month's issue was a Health number. This is usually timed for the March issue, because the cosmic forces are weaker in the month of March than in any other month in the year, and consequently there is more sickness.

Letters received since sending out that number indicate that it hit the spot. I am sure every one of you know at least six people who are sick and who need this information. Why not invest $1.00 in six copies? Who knows but what you might save a life by this one little act? Remember the divine injunction: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

In lots of 100, we sell them to you at $12.50; but we are willing to do what we have never done before; namely, give you the 100 price on 50 copies. That is, we will let you have 50 copies for $6.25, prepaid.

It's a big job to put out this magazine practically single handed every month; but the selling is a much bigger job than the writing. Then again, the production takes up all the available time. It is my hope that in response to this call every copy of this issue will go out to those who should have its message.

THE CONVICTION OF FRITZ KUHN A LESSON FOR OTHERS

Last December, the headlines reported that Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund, was convicted on four counts as a forger and embezzler.

The writer has been under condemnation by some of his colleagues because he has, in season and out of season, emphasized the necessity of a clean bill of health for all who are fighting communism and other un-American isms. Our attitude has been that we are fighting evil, wherever we find it, and not merely among the Communists.

As a veteran in the anti-Communist field, we have seen racketeering on a far greater scale than that on which Kuhn was convicted. Let us be specific: We condemned Ballardism back in 1935 and called it a racket. Immediately we were boycotted, condemned and abused, and subject to the black magic of its followers and sympathizers. I see no difference between the aim and goal of Ballardism and Communism; but I was condemned for voicing my convictions.

During the past 7 to 12 years there have been a long list of movements that were neither Christian nor American, and we did not hesitate to say so. The real purpose of them was to feather somebody's nest. It is true they did it in the guise of philanthropy.

We were one of the first to condemn the Utopians as another racket. Again we were criticized. I will go further, and say very few of our so-called patriotic movements would stand the light of day. I have come pretty close to the picture of most of these movements and individuals; and what I saw appalled and disgusted me.

Again I say, I am just as vigorous in my denunciation of individuals or movements fighting Communism but indulging in the very same methods that they condemn in the Communists, as I am of the Communists, or of any other alien party. Anyone who indulges in racketeering, shady or dishonest methods, lying propaganda, automatically lines himself up with the enemy he is supposed to be fighting. We will at this time define exactly where we stand. The battle of the ages now raging is clear and simple; you and I are either with the Christ forces, or with the anti-Christ forces. That's the issue, and nothing else. I am not affiliated with any religious movement, but I believe with all my heart and soul in the Second Commandment of Jesus the Christ; and I am sure He will not recognize as His own, organizations or individuals who merely claim to be Christian.

During the last election there were a number of groups in the field with the word "Christian" in their title. As the Man of Galilee said,

"Not those who cry Lord, Lord, but those who do the will of the Father."

I hope there are enough people in America with a sense of decency and fair play who will stand by individuals who refuse to compromise with evil, no matter where they find it.

We intend to present to you in the near future a platform for a party that is both Christian and American. This platform will be based entirely on the principles of Americanism and Christianity, nothing more and nothing less.

Let me once again repeat: The Beacon Light magazine and AMERICA SPEAKS—which boils down to the Editor — is fighting racketeers wherever he finds them, no matter which side of the fence they profess to be on. The Good Book states that righteousness exalteth a nation. That's exactly what we believe; but carrying an American or Christian label is not enough; we must carry out the principles and ethics of Americanism and of Christianity. In no other way can we save America.

If you subscribe to this platform, put your shoulder to the wheel, for if you do you will be on the winning side. In the last analysis this is the only program that will stand up until the bitter end.

✕ Of course, we recognize the fact that the heat was turned on Fritz Kuhn because he was fighting the Jews; which was all the more reason why he should have had a clean bill of health. I would hardly call him a criminal type, but power had gone to his head. The point is, he departed from the principles he professed to be following. Could parents conscientiously hold him up to their boys and girls as an ideal type of leader, either American or German? The answer is most decidedly, No.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

"What's Next for 1940 was handed me today, and I have read it avidly; and would you send six copies of same to me C. O. D. at above address. My sister brought me a copy today and said she has sent for six more copies to place them. They are wonderful, and a million of them would not be too many."

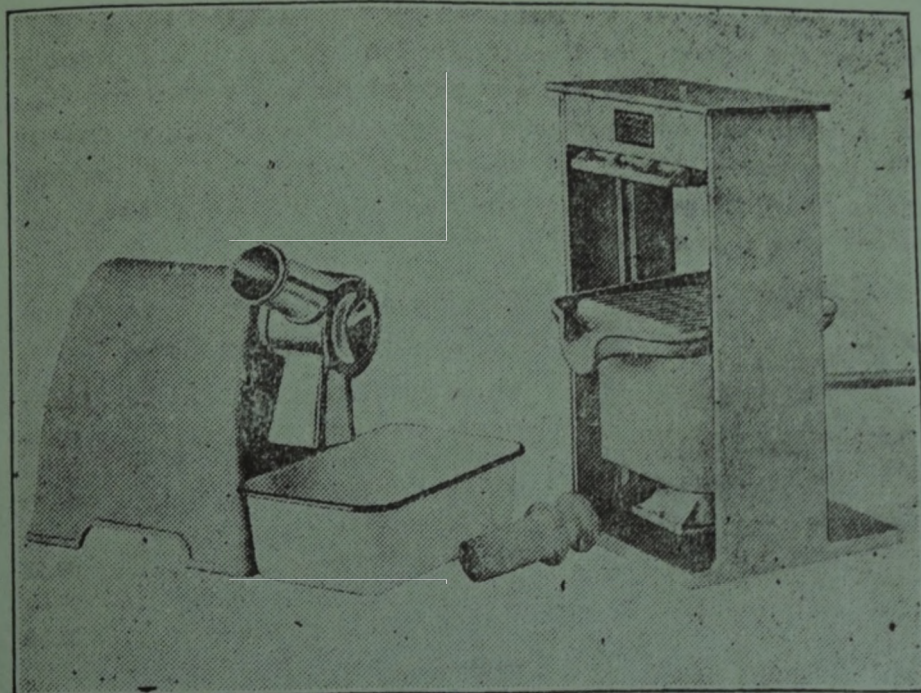

"Your article, Our National Salvation, in 1940 What's Next, cleared a great many things for me in Biblical history and in economic conditions. Would you kindly tell me where to find other articles you have written, and also send information about your periodical, The Beacon Light?"

We have received many similar letters regarding our article in 1940 What's Next. We are glad to know that we supplied the answer to the questions which many are asking.

From Wisconsin:

Enclosed find check for subscription of Beacon Light. May you keep on keeping on in your struggle for the saving of our America."
