Here's how I did it

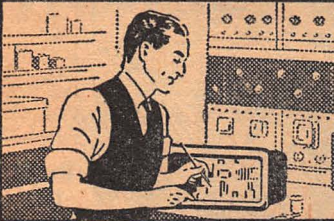

by S. J. E.
(NAME AND ADDRESS SENT UPON REQUEST)

"I had an $18 a week job in a shoe factory." He'd probably be there today if he hadn't read about the opportunities in Radio and started training at home for them.

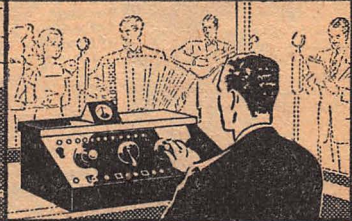

"The training National Radio Institute gave me was so practical I was soon ready to make $5 to $10 a week in spare time servicing Radio sets."

"When I finished training I accepted a job as Radio serviceman. In three weeks I was made service manager at $40 to $50 a week, more than twice my shoe factory pay."

"Eight months later N.R.I. Graduate Service Department sent me to Station KWCR where I became Radio Operator. Now I am Radio Engineer at Station WSUI and connected with Television Station W9XK."

"N.R.I. Training took me out of a low-pay shoe factory job and put me into Radio at good pay. Radio has enjoyed a colorful past. It will enjoy an even greater future."

J. E. SMITH, President
National Radio Institute Established 25 Years

Investigate Radio. Trained Radio Technicians make good money, and you don't have to give up your present job or leave home to learn Radio. I train you at home nights in your spare time.

Why Many Radio Technicians Make $30, $40, $50 a Week

Radio broadcasting stations employ operators, technicians. Radio manufacturers employ testers, inspectors, servicemen, in good-pay jobs. Radio jobbers, dealers, employ in installation and servicemen. Many Radio Technicians open their own Radio sales and repair businesses and make $30, $40, $50 a week. Others hold their regular jobs and make $5 to $10 a week fixing Radios in spare time. Automobile, Police, Aviation, Commercial Radio, Loudspeaker Systems, Electronic Devices are other fields offering opportunities for which N. R. I. gives the required knowledge of Radio. Television promises to open good jobs soon.

Many Make $5 to $10 a Week Extra in Spare Time While Learning

The day you enroll, I start sending you Extra Money Job Sheets—start showing you how to do Radio repair jobs. Throughout your Course I send plans and directions which have helped many make $5 to $10 a week extra in spare time while learning. I send special Radio equipment to conduct experiments and build circuits. This 50-50 training method makes learning at home interesting, fascinating, practical. BANK ACCOUNT

To the man who wants to enjoy an ACCOUNTANT'S CAREER

IF you're that man, here's something that will interest you.

Not a magic formula—not a get-rich-quick scheme—but something more substantial, more practical.

Of course, you need something more than just the desire to be an accountant. You've got to pay the price—be willing to study earnestly, thoroughly.

Still, wouldn't it be worth your while to sacrifice some of your leisure in favor of interesting home study—over a comparatively brief period in your life? Always provided that the rewards were good—a salary of $2,000 to $10,000?

An accountant's duties are interesting, varied and of real worth to his employers. He has standing!

Do you feel that such things aren't for you? Well, don't be too sure. Very possibly they can be!

Why not, like so many before you, investigate LaSalle's modern Problem Method of training for an accountancy position?

Just suppose you were permitted to work in a large accounting house under the personal supervision of an expert accountant. Suppose, with his aid, you studied accounting principles and solved problems day by day—easy ones at first—then the more difficult ones. If you could do this—and if you could turn to him for advice as the problems became complex—soon you'd master them all.

That's the training you follow in principle under the LaSalle Problem Method.

You cover accountancy from the basic Principles right up through Accountancy Systems and Income Tax Procedure. Then you add C. P. A. Training and prepare for the C. P. A. examinations.

As you go along, you absorb the principles of Auditing, Cost Accounting, Business Law, Statistical Control, Organization, Management and Finance.

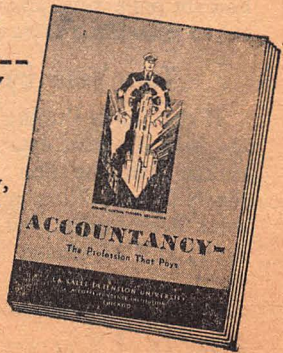

Your progress is as speedy as you care to make it—depending on your own eagerness to learn and the time you spend in study.

Will recognition come? The only answer, as you know, is that success does come to the man who is really trained. It's possible your employers will notice your improvement in a very few weeks or months. Indeed, many LaSalle graduates have paid for their training—with increased earnings—before they have completed it! For accountants, who are trained in organization and management, are the executives of the future.

Write For This Free Book

For your own good, don't put off investigation of all the facts. Write for our free 48-page book, "Accountancy, The Profession That Pays." It'll prove that accountancy offers brilliant futures to those who aren't afraid of serious home study. Send us the coupon now.

YOUR CELESTIAL SHRINE

By HELEN GREEN
WELL-KNOWN PSYCHOLOGIST

EACH day I offer a silent prayer of thankfulness that Astrology is serving such an outstanding purpose.

The trines and sextiles; the squares and conjunctions; the oppositions and parallels of the celestial orbs are the barometers that measure the tides of terrestrial events. Astrologers study the ephemeris and find therein the signals which tell them whether on certain days there will be clear sailing or whether it is necessary to "keep the weather eye cocked" for storms ahead.

The dates called "favorable" are clear of planetary complications. But this does not mean that you may overstep the bounds of discretion and do something contrary to universal law with the expectation that you will succeed simply because there were no adverse aspects. One must live according to established standards.

There may be days indicated as unfavorable that turn out to be especially fortunate. That is not at all strange. It is simply another proof that cosmic unity functions harmoniously, and in fulfilling certain phases of your destiny, the culmination of an act may occur on a predestined day even though the immediate but weaker planetary aspects are not favorable. Respond to the harmonious aspects and minimize the less favorable ones by keeping yourself mentally alert. Contentment comes from within. Radiate happiness, and your joy will reach out to strengthen those who need aid.

Turn Your Eyes Upward

If the Sun is shining while you are reading this, lift your eyes toward the sky and realize that the Sun and the Earth are ninety-three million miles apart. Yet the solar heat warms you; its rays give you light; and its energy raises life-sustaining crops.

The same power that is in the Sun is lodged in you. All living beings are energized with the vital forces of life which it imbues. The Sun is strong because it does not know the tragic fear of weakness. Within you should also be the determination to make yourself strong by refusing to feel weak. To make yourself happy by refusing to feel sad. To make yourself important by refusing to feel useless.

Every time you press back the doubts and frustrations which have been fostered through lack of self confidence, you gain that much headway. If you go through life with a sense of inferiority, perhaps it is because you are unaware of your own place in the cosmic scheme of things. Do not be content to remain an uncalled number on life's Wheel of Fortune.

Astrology opens the doors to wide vistas of universal conception. In all humility and gratitude I give thanks for the work that is being carried on in behalf of Sublime Intelligence. For centuries symbolic interpretations were repressed. Now they have emerged from obscurity. Moderns are at last finding solutions to many problems through cosmic laws. The mission of this generation is to clear away the mists that have obscured the ever-present truths.

"I Believe in You!"

Keep your thoughts attuned to the tremendous messages of the universe, for in outer space is the key to your destiny. Reach the lonely soul, despondent of hope and unable to glimpse the shimmering light of creative solace. Your own self-confidence will increase when someone speaks sincerely: "I believe in you!"

The faith that others have in you is a spur to better things. Give of your comfort to those who need it. Teach them with words and phrases of easy understanding, just as you would give the groping child some simple toy at first. But later, as intelligence unfolds, make the instruction more mature.

The same with Astrology. First limit yourself to facts about your solar horoscope. Then learn about the position of the Planets at your birth. Next analyze the aspects and the transits—then go on to the progressive influences and angular stresses. You become attuned to the vibratory influence of the celestial waves and are inspired to use the attributes of your personality to their best advantage.

You ascertain what force the Sun has in your horoscope, and you use this knowledge to enhance your individuality. You learn about the Moon in your birth chart, and as a result you have a clearer picture of your impulses and perceptions. Mercury symbolizes your intellect; Venus your affections; Mars your endurance; Jupiter your wisdom; Saturn your self-control; Uranus your instincts; Neptune your intuitions; Pluto your adaptability.

Steer a Straight Course

Each Planet contributes something to your character; each is a symbol of its own type of force. Your valor and hopes are part of your cosmic heritage. Without them you would be like a rudderless ship on a sea of divergent currents. You cannot use Astrology as you would medicine, nor is it capable of any potency in itself. But as a source of information and inspiration it is incomparable. It is a vehicle for analysis and enlightenment. Here are excerpts from a few letters which show with illuminating clarity why Astrology is so popular:

Louise M.: I have stopped worrying since I know what my horoscope has to say about me. I now believe that I can succeed in more than one way. Astrology has shown me how to gain happiness and love and understanding. My husband, friends and neighbors are dearer to me than ever because I am truly at peace with myself at last.

Julius A. C.: EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY is exceedingly inspiring. This would indeed be a lengthy letter if I were to discuss the changes in my philosophy since I began to study my cosmic heritage. I only regret that Providence waited so long before directing me to the truth about universal power.

Mrs. Christina D.: I was in deep trouble before I turned to Astrology. I have gained more knowledge in three months by reading EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY than if I had searched for years by myself. I have acquired more self-confidence than I ever had in my life because I now know what the solar chart reveals about me. Most of the hard trials I have had are already beginning to look smaller. I hope that others will have as much interest in Astrology as I have, and write you too, verifying the true value of this wonderful science.

HAVE you ever had the strange experience, both thrilling and exciting, which comes when you find yourself suddenly confronted by a total stranger—and you both seem to have known each other for years?

Within a few minutes you are calling each other by your first names, finding absorbing mutual interests, and the same likes and dislikes. By the end of the evening you have assumed the ease and understanding of old friends.

Your thoughts meld together as one. Before the other answers the question you have asked, you instinctively know what that answer will be. And, likewise, the other person anticipates your ideas.

What has happened? What strange forces are at work? The probability is that you have met someone who is in perfect tune with your own vibrations, perhaps caused by a trine of the planets, or the sextile of Venus and Jupiter, or the Sun and Moon in favorable aspect to the Ascendant in both horoscopes.

It is not love at first sight, as some would claim. True and deep love comes much later, after a thorough understanding and acquaintanceship with each other. Any astrologer looking at two birth charts can tell immediately that when Venus is conjoined with Jupiter the mutual emotions are of the enduring type. But when Venus is in opposition to Neptune, the infatuation will depart as speedily as it came.

There is attraction at first sight, of course, but it takes time for love to mellow. A Uranus-Mars conjunction brings a whirlwind courtship and a hurricane marriage, for instance. And then, almost before the honeymoon is over, the fires of romance have burned out. The divorce courts are filled with the tragic ashes of these loves. Homes established on the shifting sands of mental reasoning because of the Mercury-ruled influences, are swept aside by the first wave of a major misunderstanding. Logic is an unsatisfactory substitution for sincere, heart-felt desire.

It is an established astrological truth that the husband and wife who are within harmonious zodiacal zones find their lives together more compatible, more gentle and companionable than those who are not so fortunate. The ones who live under amicable Signs and beneficent cosmic radiations are able to blend their lives together quite favorably. They are truly blessed, for they are walking hand in hand along the road of happiness and understanding.

ZODIACAL HARMONY IS THE SECRET OF

To a great degree, love, romantic instincts, and the ability to attract and hold admiration are governed and guided by the Planet Venus. But the Venus vibrations merge with those of the other Planets, sometimes resulting in prankish, whimsical, curious, or confusing effects. For instance, a seemingly unattractive person may gradually reveal to you commendable traits, developing in you a strong and lasting affection. The original meeting may have occurred when there were inharmonious transitting Venus vibrations in your horoscopes. When the Planet entered a more congenial zodiacal atmosphere, the clash of temperaments gradually subsided, allowing you to see this person in a better light.

Sometimes those who at first apparently disliked each other have married into a long and happy life together. This can occur when the progressed planets move away from the degree areas in the Fifth or Seventh Houses where emotional storms brew.

If you have not had the experience of instantaneous mutual attraction or repulsion, probably it is because you are the type in whom affection or dislike must develop slowly. Strong, Fixed Sign qualities in your horoscope indicate emotional restraint. You should not try to change your personality. Its component parts were ordained at birth.

Most important in the celestial alignment for love are the aspects of Venus and Mars.

When the feeling of ownership is overly assertive in romance, the cause is the presence of too many planetary aspects in the Fire Signs. If you hope for perfect accord in your marriage, be alert to the effects of these aspects. Familiarize yourself with your personal horoscope. Use your free will so as to develop your best traits as an aid to win and hold the love to which you aspire.

The vibrations of Venus also influence your personal appearance—including your facial expression, your smile, and your disposition. Even the way you wear your clothes is governed by the aspects of Venus. When this planet is not impeded by adverse rays of the other celestial spheres, the result is usually bright for looks as well as romance. But when Venus is overshadowed by a Mars-Saturn opposition in the horoscope, then you have a temperamental grouch who is scarcely entitled to be the recipient of luminous love.

Astrology enables you to delve into the deepest soul of the person to whom you are attracted. It helps you to discover your own emotional responses. It shows you the sincerity and beauty of purpose you hope to find in your beloved. Astrology clearly demonstrates why you cannot or should not expect ideal affection from certain people.

Why You Are in Love

Your horoscopes show why you are always thoughtful and considerate of each other and why the one you love is so important to you. The placement of Jupiter in your horoscopes shows your mutual generosity, the powerful celestial significator that proves you both have each other's best interests at heart. The aspects of the Sun show the nobility of character in your lifemate. Genuine affection and deserved admiration are indicated by the beneficent aspects of the Sun and Venus.

But no matter how fortunate the planetary aspects, they are not infallible guards against mistakes in choosing a lifemate. That is why you have been given intelligence as well as instinct, judgment as well as impulsiveness. Without one to counterbalance the other, you might not be able to classify and delegate to its proper niche the impish happenings which sometimes distort the beauty of character of your ideal lifemate.

Marital tragedies could be avoided if the spiritual worth of the lifemate were properly evaluated, indicated by the aspects of the Moon and Neptune. You also must know if the one you love is your mental equal. This is shown by the position of Mercury in your horoscopes.

You want your companion through life to be loyal and resourceful. Look, then, to the aspects of Mars and Uranus. Unless you are prepared to minimize the adverse vibrations of these aspects, the major and minor annoyances which may develop could ruin your marriage, which otherwise might have been protected under fortunate prospects.

Ignore Disagreeable Traits

Also you must know the influences of Saturn—the celestial overseer. If you are married to someone whose habits become distasteful to you, the harmonious vibrations could help you to find an easy way to correct them or to ignore them. But when Saturn is in adverse relationship to the Sun, Venus, Mars, or Mercury, it means squabbling, fault-finding, and exasperation. In an ideal marriage the Saturn aspects are usually found to be favorable.

Is your lifemate ideal in every sense? And are you the ideal mate for your beloved? To make sure, ask yourself whether you are both tolerant, sympathetic, and generous to each other. Do you overlook small faults and emphasize each virtue? Are you proud of each other and do you have confidence in each other? Are you agreeable to maintaining your mutual independence?

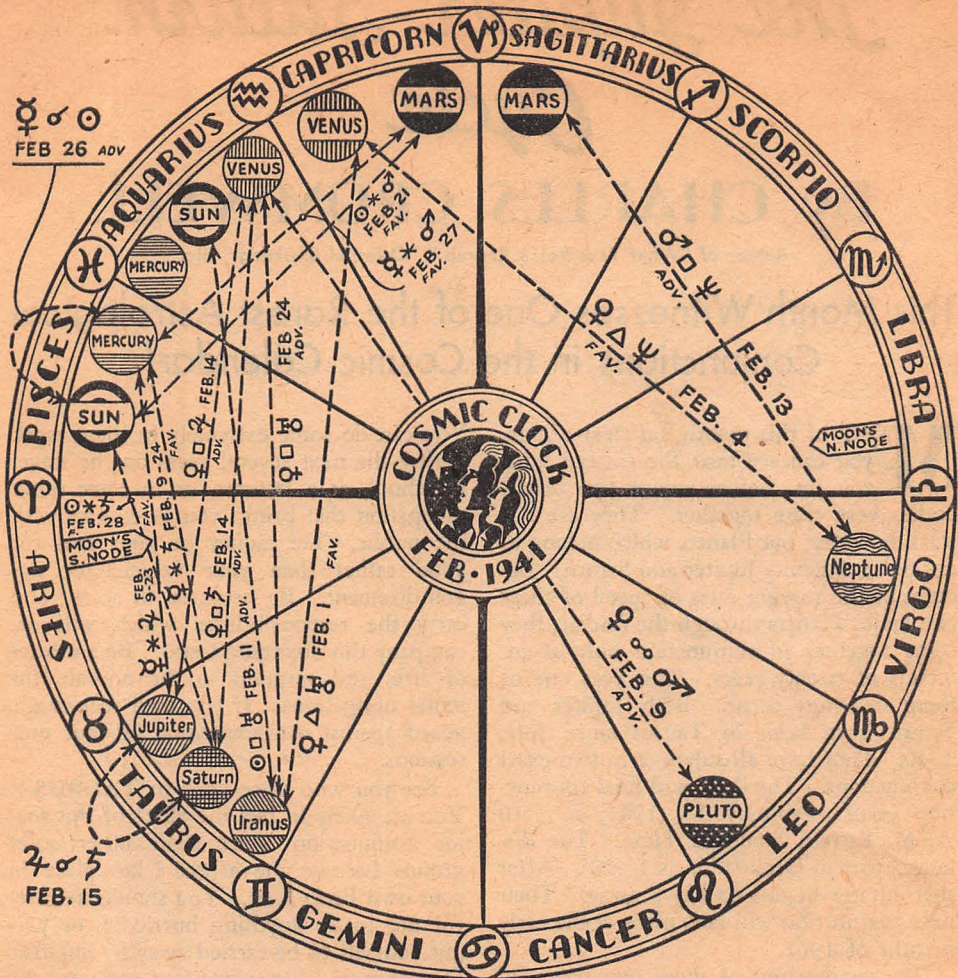

This questionnaire could be continued indefinitely, but to find the best possible answer as to your ideal lifemate, analyze the aspects in both your horoscopes.

By knowing the truth, a new road for companionship, understanding, affection, high romance, and harmonious blending stretches serenely before you—a haven of contentment for your soul.

Important Mutual Aspects of the Planets for February

INTERPRETATION OF THE COSMIC CLOCK

FEB. 1-4— $\text{♀}\Delta\text{♄}$, $\text{♀}\Delta\text{♅}$ —Since Venus is in the Sign Capricorn which rules business, there should be a great deal of prosperity for the trades, professions, and services catering to personal adornment.

Feb. 9— $\text{♀}\text{♁}\text{♄}$, $\text{♃}\text{♁}\text{♅}$ —A temporary slump in the theatre business may be noticed, due to the opposition between Venus and Pluto. Or a well known philanthropic project might have some difficulties.

Feb. 11— $\text{♁}\square\text{♄}$ —There will be some excitement and justifiable anxiety about funds. This may be caused by an unexpected appropriation or a sudden expenditure program which places unprecedented charges in the budget. Or there may be a serious airplane disaster, with high loss of life.

Feb. 13-15— $\text{♁}\square\text{♅}$, $\text{♀}\square\text{♄}$, $\text{♀}\square\text{♅}$, $\text{♄}\text{♁}\text{♅}$ —There will be some grievous news about well-known world figures. Carelessness or deliberate mischief could cause serious explosions in factories, laboratories, and even hospitals. Scandal and emotional disruptions are rife. The conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in the Sign Taurus is a major aspect which will not occur again for twenty years. Some countries will go bankrupt. Others will prosper. So will individuals and industries, depending on the direction of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction in their individual horoscopes. The next generation will have to bear the colossal debts contracted now while Uranus, Jupiter, and Saturn are in transit through Taurus.

Feb. 21-24— $\text{♁}\text{♁}\text{♄}$, $\text{♃}\text{♁}\text{♅}$, $\text{♃}\text{♁}\text{♅}$, $\text{♀}\square\text{♄}$ —Optimism, cheeriness, and scintillating ideas are uppermost. The radio is humming with good news about victory and prosperity, but there is some dismaying gossip about a distinguished person whose reputation had never been doubted before. However, the public memory is short about such things.

Feb. 26-28— $\text{♁}\text{♁}\text{♅}$, $\text{♃}\text{♁}\text{♅}$, $\text{♁}\text{♁}\text{♅}$ —Remarkable mental work is being done—the kind that has sparkle and brilliance but dims after its hour of glory is gone. A nationwide publicity stunt will keep everybody guessing about the answers to puzzles and quizzes. If you like to compete in a battle of wits, the vibrations are favorable.

The Jupiter-Saturn Cycle

By CHARLES CROMWELL

Author of "What Your Voice Reveals," "Celestial Blitzkrieg," etc.

This Month Witnesses One of the Rarest Astrological Conjunctions in the Cosmic Calendar!

MOST of this month, on clear nights, you can see near the eastern horizon just before sunset two bright bodies very close together. They are not stars, however, but Planets which belong to our Solar System—Jupiter and Saturn. Because of the varying rates of speed of these two major Planets through the Zodiac, they come together in conjunction only at intervals of twenty years. This year one of these meetings occur. Both Jupiter and Saturn have been in Taurus since July, 1940. They have already met in two exact conjunctions. The third and final conjunction occurs February 15, 1941, at 1:10 A. M. Eastern Standard Time. The distance apart in Declination is $1^{\circ} 20'$. After that Jupiter begins to move away. Their next conjunction will take place in the early months of 1961.

The conjunction of these two powerful Planets has an important effect upon the world's history, on the destiny of certain countries, and on the life and progress of every person. This aspect has a long range influence on your attitude toward life, your material possessions, your job, your income. It indicates your fortunes as well as losses for many years to come.

Brilliant Work by Aries

For you who were born in ARIES—The conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn will make you very conscious of money because the aspect occurs in your Second House, which rules your income. But if you concentrate too much on money and possessions for their own sake they may retard some of your inherent aptitudes in other directions.

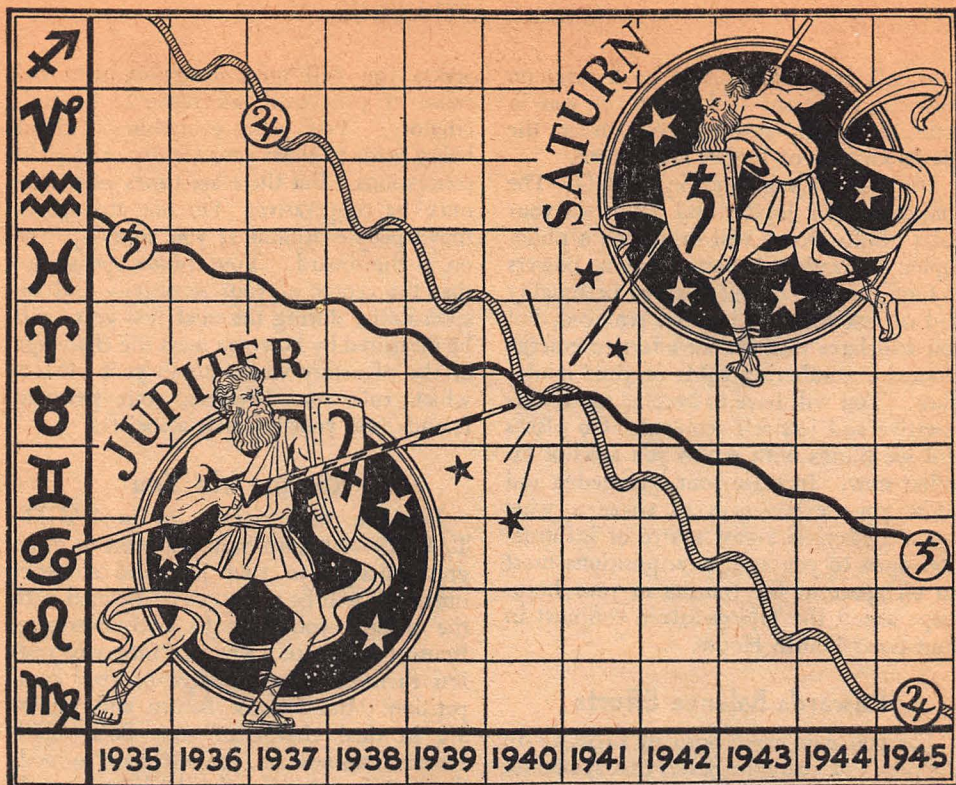

You can do some extremely brilliant work during the next several years on the stage, in school, as a lecturer, or in some other occupation that brings you in contact with the public. Let money be your tool for good rather than your vehicle for aggrandizement. Be prepared to accept and carry the responsibilities which will accompany this changing trend. Be a soldier of life, and respond to the crusade for moral obligations. If you own real estate, guard against over-expansion of your possessions.

For you who were born in TAURUS—You are likely to feel the effect of this major conjunction more than other solar groups because the aspect takes place in your own Birth Sign. You should be careful not to do anything hurriedly, or permit yourself to be carried away by impulse. Do not rush. Let events lead you until the silver lining in the cloud presents itself. Accept and adjust yourself with courage and enthusiasm. Do not hold on to the past, whether it is in glory or disappointment. It would only prove to be a hindrance to your future progress. New paths are opening for you, others are closing. Each is necessary to your spiritual development and mental growth, so do not be resentful toward Fate.

Deep Reasoning

For you who were born in GEMINI—You will have to delve below superficialities and look deeply into the reasons for events. A subconscious quality will appear prominently in your outlook, resulting in profound personal philosophy and the intuitive perception of human trends. You should be able to use your intellect to great advantage in speaking and writing. But do not expend too large a proportion of your energy on minor things which are exaggerated into overwhelming importance by your mind. Cultivate a calm attitude. Analyze each problem methodically so as not to deceive yourself about the outcome.

For you who were born in CANCER—Friends will be important in your life and your interests will be subject to their wishes in coming years, moved by their desires and swayed by the pressure which they bring to bear on you. You may find it hard to lead an independent existence or to carry out your own plans without being obliged to consult someone about them. Be selective and discreet in the acquisition of business associates. In your contact with the public as well as in your occupation, build up cooperative friendships. Good friends will be as willing to help you as you are anxious to favor them. Generosity is not an entirely one-sided thing. If you are willing to play on an even exchange basis rather than "for keeps," the influence of Jupiter and Saturn will be both helpful and enlightening.

Honor and Prestige

For you who were born in LEO—The conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter at the zenith of your solar chart indicates uncertainty. Your position in life, authority, reputation and standing in your community may be subjected to change. Some of this is likely to affect your freedom of action, bringing you responsibilities for which you believe you are not receiving adequate return. While you like to play a leading part in your sphere, there are times when you will have to give others an equal share in the limelight. You can have great honor and great prestige, but you must be willing to pay the price for them. As an executive, manager, or head of your household, always be ready to serve those who are dependent on you. If you become arbitrary and selfish you will be penalized in one of the numerous ways nature reserves for those who balk her edicts. You must carry on with the traditions laid down for you in your birthchart—now placed under the special custody of Jupiter and Saturn.

For you who were born in VIRGO—The conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in your Solar Ninth House will bring you a philosophic realization of your inherent powers as time goes on. Limitations of personality and of environment may be removed, but you will have to make an effort to emerge from the smothering folds of your inhibitions. You will have to become more self-assertive and less self-centered. Go places and see things with which you are not familiar now. Increase your knowledge and allow your experiences to cover a wide range. There is a vast source of information open to you and its acquisitions must go on apace as the transits in your horoscope aspect the Jupiter-Saturn conjunct in your Solar Fourth House.

Rewards Balance Efforts

For you who were born in LIBRA—In the next few years the Scales that symbolize your balanced temperament are likely to tip toward skepticism, making you less naive about the platitudes with which most people are content to solve the most important events in their lives. You will not be so ready to forego your own convenience to help the selfish. Not that you will discard your innate sincerity, but instead of turning your time and efforts to help human derelicts you will want to keep some gains for your own benefit.

You will be greatly impressed with the realization this year that the laws of compensation work fairly and that to each person is given rewards in accordance with efforts expended. No matter what the temptation to lag or loaf, everyone must work and give good value for what they receive. You will find yourself as a saving, economical, methodical individual due to the fact that the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction sets certain influences into motion in your Solar Eighth House which governs your assets.

For you who were born in SCORPIO—The opposition of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction may bring an extensive change in your personal associations. Things that you want will not be handed to you on a silver platter. Nor will you be able to get what you want without being ready to make a lot of personal concessions. In some respects you will meet disappointment because of your own reluctance to be conciliatory. You want everything without being ready to share your victory or to yield concessions. But there are times when you must be cooperative. Do not attempt to move people around as you would pawns on a chessboard. Your horoscope shows that the center of your sensitivity and responsibility during the next few years will be measured by how you meet the challenge of the planetary vibrations in your Houses which rule your lifemate, your personal friends, and your business associates.

Routine Irks You

For you who were born in SAGITTARIUS—At times you will want to make great changes in your job, and at other times you will be almost overwhelmed with the pitfalls you have to circumnavigate. Routine irks you. You are intensely restless to meet each challenge of your competition. But because Saturn and Jupiter are in dual charge of your Solar Sixth House from now on, you will have to modify your impulsiveness and adjust yourself to a slower pace in your labors. It is your good fortune that Pluto will be trine your Sign during the continuation of the Jupiter-Saturn cycle, for it makes you an important person in many respects. You are likely to gain a great deal through hard work—either through higher wages for your services or being a considerate employer. Do not be misled by selfish advisors. Use your own judgment in disputes about salaries, hours, and favors asked.

For you who were born in CAPRICORN—You will be helped by the Jupiter-Saturn cycle because the aspect is trine your Sign, and in your Fifth House which rules opportunities. You should be able to achieve great things in the coming years. Put your abilities to work, whether you are a writer, musician, artist, designer, dramatist, lecturer, actor, office worker, farmer, machinist, or rent collector. Opportunities will occur repeatedly for success, applause, and appreciation. You will know what it means to be singled out for a spectacular task when you prefer the more routine jobs. But you might just as well get accustomed to novelty because much of your time during the next several years will be occupied as an instructor, interpretator or creator of unique ideas—with the added thrill of adequate compensation.

For you who were born in AQUARIUS—You will have to stop looking at distant horizons and reconnoiter your immediate vicinity. Also you will have to stop tilling windmills for others. Your interest in altruism will have to be pushed into the background, for your own problems also have considerable importance. You may become quite busy with your career and domestic matters. Perhaps you will wish to throw off the shackles of your duties, but it will not be easy for you because the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction occurs in your Fourth Solar House which is occupied by the Fixed Earth Sign Taurus.

Whatever happens now will continue to be important to your family. The good you anticipate will manifest itself in direct ratio to what you do to make it come true. Now that the Aquarian Era is here, perhaps your wishes will come true. But in the meantime keep your home and business running smoothly.

For you who were born in PISCES—The Jupiter-Saturn cycle will give you a great opportunity for personal expression. The intuitive qualities which are inherent in your nature can help you accomplish a great deal, perhaps by interpreting your perceptions for the benefit of those who need advice. Much as you like living in cloistered seclusion and searching the spiritual depths occasionally, you will now have to get out into the highways and byways of existence. Use your mind as well as your instincts. Be a disciplinarian with yourself as well as with those whom you instruct. Allow yourself to write, teach and perhaps even preach. Your mind should be the gateway through which many will enter into the realm of understanding—a haven where ignorance and biased intolerance are unknown. But only as an instructor of the great truths can you hope to be worthy of teaching the real nature of existence, and its accompanying philosophies. You have the cosmic gifts that are inherent in a prophet of the future for you have, according to celestial law, completed the eleven cycles of existence and are now functioning in the final cycle, making you a fit vehicle through which nature can send her message to humanity. You are able to absorb and convey the good news that the world is waiting to hear. The cosmic wave lengths are ready to broadcast what you have to say.

Discover the Hidden Secrets of Your Nature That Enable You to Make Full Use of Your Intuitive Power!

THE word PSYCHIC has become part of the daily vocabulary. You hear it and use it as you do any other simple word. If only you were psychic you would know whether to take a trip or whether to change jobs. Yet, there is no word in language that is more difficult to define. You can give the meaning in a general way, but when you try to tell the whole story, you find yourself at a loss.

The dictionary gives some help. PSYCHIC: pertaining to the soul or the mind.

Certainly you can agree with the first half of the definition. The psychic quality is undeniably linked to the soul. Those that have it possess a deep, spiritual strength while those that are hard, materialistic and cold are definitely not of that group. Yet everyone with spiritual characteristics is not necessarily psychic. Why? How is it that this mysterious quality is part of some and not of others? The quality of being psychic is no respecter of wealth, race, creed or social position. The peasant in the fields is as likely to have it as the titled head of an estate.

But this much is known, and even the most skeptical will admit it—there are some men, women and even children who are so intuitive that they possess a sixth sense which makes it possible for them to perceive conditions beyond the barriers of normal material vision.

What Is Psychic Perception?

Visitors to the New York World's Fair will remember the interesting exhibit in the Telephone Building. As part of the program, the public was given an opportunity to test its hearing. One could put on ear-phones and listen while a voice read off a series of numbers. The first numbers were uttered in a rather loud tone, audible to all. Gradually, the voice became softer and softer until by the time the last was read, it could be heard by merely a few who possessed extraordinarily keen auditory powers.

There is an analogy with this to psychic perception. In the telephone exhibit the numbers were within the grasp of all, but only those with well attuned hearing faculties were aware of them. In psychic revelation the voices, sounds and impressions, are also awaiting the grasp of all, but only those who are mentally tuned in to the correct vibrancy range are able to pick them up.

Revived Interest

Nowadays, because of the powerful trine between Uranus and Neptune, there is a great renaissance of interest in matters pertaining to psychic forces. Uranus is in the Fixed Earth Sign Taurus which rules established material wealth. Neptune is in the Mutable Earth Sign Virgo which rules labor and laboratory research. Under the impulsion of these planets in the Signs that rule money and knowledge, it was a foregone conclusion that more money than ever before is being appropriated to authenticate psychic phenomena. Perhaps you listened to the radio broadcasts concerning the Duke University experiments about supersensory perception.

Part of this research was devoted to astrology, numerology and palmistry.

Psychics in History

Interest in psychic phenomena is as old as intelligence. Even the most ancient civilizations have left records carved in stone that show a belief that more exists than is tangible and visible.

The Bible abounds with examples of psychic manifestations. Joseph, in his prison, interpreted the dreams of a harassed ruler.

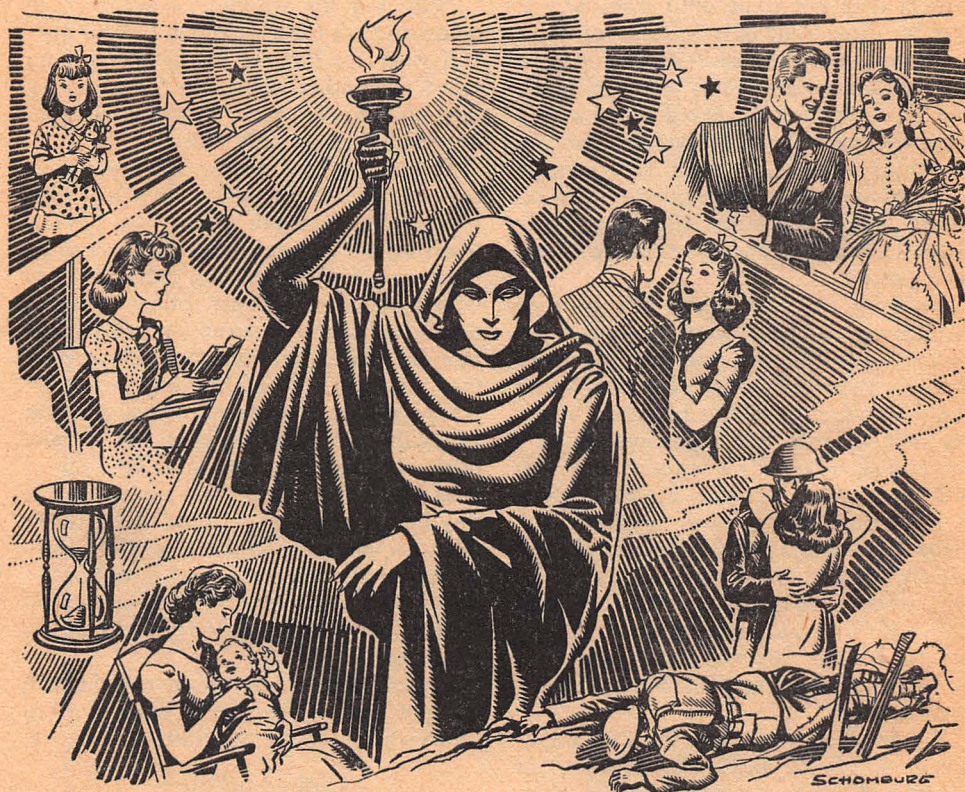

DETERMINE YOUR "HUNCH" INDEX THROUGH

In ancient Rome, Julius Caesar's wife had a premonition of danger that made such a profound impression on her that she was almost able to prevail him not to go to the Senate. Had he followed up her intuition, he might have saved himself from being stabbed to death. Joan of Arc, the simple French peasant girl, heard mystic voices which led her to become the savior of France. There are also the startling accomplishments of Nostradamus who, in the Sixteenth Century, made prophecies of events that came to pass almost four hundred years later.

possessed; the burning of the witches in New England in the sixteen hundreds.

Fortunately, most people express their disbelief in milder forms by argument or ridicule. In many a home or social gathering, dreams have been laughed off. Yet, a great thinker like Sigmund Freud built an entire philosophy and science on interpreting them.

In general, you can safely say that almost everyone has psychic powers, in some degree. Some have this ability more markedly, yet they wear no sign, they carry no stigma. It may be that your neighbor or

He predicted the World War, among other things.

It is interesting to trace the changes in attitude toward psychic matters. Through the ages there have been cycles of belief, then waves of skepticism. Whenever the tide of public opinion turned against psychic phenomena, the world went to extremes to show its displeasure. The result was a wholesale hysteria that led to untold cruelty—the brutal whippings in the Middle Ages to drive the devils out of the tradesman is psychic. A member of your family or friends might have unusually strong intuitions. You like to bring your problems to them when you are perplexed. Their reassurance are comforting and accurate in analysis of the future.

Are psychic people born with this characteristic? In general, yes. The history of psychic phenomena illustrates many events prophesied by children who could not have possibly had an inkling of them. These children are not unlike others in appearance and habits. They romp, learn, get into mischief, are naughty, etc. But one morning, a seven year youngster may say, "Aunt Em is packing her bag to come to see us," or "Grandpa's arm hurts him today," and later these statements prove to be true. They may be trivial predictions, but by and large, life itself is made up of trifles.

Often Years Before Noticed

Sometimes the awareness of psychic powers does not come until maturity. It may manifest itself only in times of stress or danger, and the manifestations may be few and far apart. When you love deeply and intensely, you are keyed up to such a pitch that you carry a listening ear with you constantly attuned to what may concern your loved ones. Every mother has intuitive flashes about her child, every wife about her husband, and some children about their parents.

Everyday the newspapers tell of such occurrences. Those who remember the Morro Castle disaster will perhaps recall that one passenger cancelled reservations a few hours before sailing because a member of his family had a premonition of a catastrophe. Recently a business man who was to have made a hurried trip by airplane. A last minute change saved his life. The plane was wrecked and all passengers killed. "I don't know why I took the train," he said, when news of the crash reached him. "My wife is usually nervous when I'm going to fly, but this was the only time I have ever changed my plans because of her premonitions."

People whose perceptive faculties are attuned to clairvoyance, clairaudience, or clairscience are more sensitive to the vibrations that affect other people than to impressions which concern themselves. Nature has made them transmitters on the radiation principle—receiving stations for the great astral networks.

When Death Hovers

Reminiscences and records of the World War offer a wealth of material for research. This is to be expected, for when death looms close, ready to strike with each tick of the clock, nerves, emotions, and the brain center are keyed to such a pitch that one is receptive to a supernatural degree.

There is the story of a young officer who was sitting in a car with another member of his division. They had stopped for a few minutes to relax and enjoy the beauty of spring in the French countryside. Suddenly the young man thought he heard his name called from the bushes. He got out of the car and walked a few feet down the path. A moment later a shell exploded behind him, blowing the car and his companion to bits. There was no one in the bushes from which he thought he had heard his name called.

Why did the warning sound for this officer and not for his comrade? Was there still work for him on Earth, or did some loved one, either here or in the hereafter, intervene to save him? These are questions on which one can only reflect.

In your life you have psychic experiences too—not of life and death importance, perhaps, but on a minor level. But the fact that they are less significant does not make them uninteresting or less genuine. You have a routine you must follow. It is in the unexplainable interruption of this routine in which you can look for psychic manifestations. Doesn't it happen almost every day that a housewife bakes an extra pie without apparent reason, but because of the feeling that company would drop in? And more than once it has happened that this hunch was right. Then there is the salesman who takes the bus instead of driving his own car to town, and finds himself sitting next to his most difficult prospect—the one whom he had been trying for weeks to contact?

These instances may seem coincidental, but are they? Too much is credited to coincidence, nerves, imagination, hysteria.

Clair-Audience

The clair-audient person has "hearing" perception of rappings, tappings and unexplainable sounds. A friend of this writer had taken some children on a camp picnic, and was sitting on the ground arranging the sandwiches when she thought she heard the horn of the station wagon. Thinking that the children were fooling around with the car, she got up and rushed toward it. A second later, a rattlesnake slithered over the spot where she had been sitting. No one was near the car. The children were at the lake at the foot of the hill.

The clair-sentient "feel" their psychic impressions. A newspaper item last September told about a mother in New York who awoke at 2 A.M. with an uneasy feeling that something was wrong with her daughter. She tried to shake the feeling off, and reasoned with herself, but she could not overcome her sense of disaster. Rather shamefacedly, she phoned her daughter in Connecticut, and explained with many apologies. She need not have apologized. Her daughter's pet cat, in walking across the kitchen cupboard, had accidentally fallen against a gas jet, knocking it open. The house was full of fumes. A short delay and the phone call would have been in vain.

After you have added the number of questions marked "Yes" and those "No," find the class to which you belong. If you have a score between 28 and 39 in the "Yes" column, you are in Class 1. Scores between 15 and 28 are in Class 2. From 0 to 14 is Class 3. If your score is very close to the dividing line between sections, you have many traits of the next class, but fit best into the class in which your score places you.

Class 1

You are definitely psychic. Your supersensory faculties are so accurate that you should rely on your intuitions rather than on the advice or suggestions of others. You seem to get an answer to almost every problem out of the atmosphere, as though a spark energy radiating from the cosmos had hit you. Your friends come to you for comfort and sympathy when they are in trouble because they know you will inspire them with your understanding. Your perceptive awareness is the keynote to your personality. Though you are surrounded by practical people, you are able to retain your psychic attributes. This quality of being psychic seems a divine gift to those not blessed with the same ability.

Class 2

You have a dual perspective about things. At times you are intensely logical, working

CHART of LUNATION

THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION: If you like to sit on the sidelines and watch a free-for-all, you will have a unique opportunity this month. There is likely to be a lot of acrimonious argument and a hot scrimmage or two about the government's policies, due to the square of the Lunation to the zenith of this chart. But most of the fuss will come to naught because the Moon's North Node near the cusp of the Ninth House which rules foreign matters is a modifying influence, especially due to this aspect's being trine the New Moon in the First House.

DOMESTIC PROBLEMS:

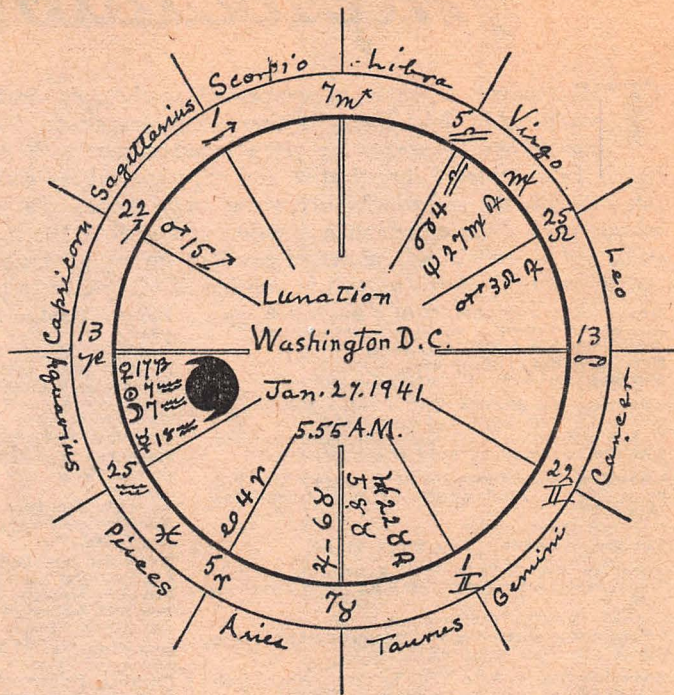

The presence of Venus at the Ascendant of this chart, trine Neptune and Uranus, indicates peacefulness in home rule. There will be an increase of interest in occult studies, and the possible announcement of a startling discovery about supersensory perception. The good, however, is overshadowed by selfishness and greed. The thwarted will clamor for more than their share, and the political arena will be filled with strange and depressing struggles, due to the square of Jupiter and Saturn to the Lunation.

WAR OF WORDS: Mercury in the First House in square aspect to Uranus in the Fourth House points to an avalanche of sarcasm, distortion, and slander—tinged with vindictiveness and false accusations influenced by the inclusion of Jupiter and Saturn in the square between planets in the First and Fourth Houses. An attempt will be made to drag scandals about well-known people and religious prejudice into the effort to undermine public confidence. But the Neptune-Uranus-Venus trine vibrations are an aid to the beleaguered as well as to the worthy causes that are suffering from a surfeit of oppression.

WISHES, HOPES, AND FRIENDSHIPS: The Planet Mars, which symbolizes cosmic energy, is in the Eleventh House that signifies the attainment of desires and the acquisition of sincere friends. This Planet, sextile to Mercury and semisextile to Venus, creates excellent aspects for dependable alliances. There is further harmony through the fact that Mars is not hampered by any active adverse planetary influences at the time of the Lunation.

BUSINESS: Automobile manufacturing companies may have a sharp slack in demand after this season, the decline to last about a year. The effect will not be as serious as it could be in ordinary times, however, because the plants of this industry are needed in filling defense program orders.

SUMMARY: Although this country is spending huge sums and there is great worry about the budget, due to the presence of the South Node in the Second House which rules income, the future prosperity of the United States is safeguarded by the position of Neptune in the Eighth House which rules possessions. With inspired foresight America is building up enormous reserves that will be of untold help in the years to come.

Building to the Stars

By

ALFRED M. SWIFT

Author of "The Mystery of Hitler Explained," etc.

With Uranus and Neptune in Cosmic Trine, a Great Stimulus Has Been Given to Construction and Housing

AFTER the spectacular post-war building boom, when Uranus in the Water Sign Pisces made illusion appear real, the bubble burst like a pricked balloon into depression and virtual collapse. Conditions in the building industry reached their grimmest point between 1930 and 1934 when Neptune had settled down for its long transit in the Earth Sign Virgo, opposed for a time by Saturn in Pisces.

General contractors, mortgage loan companies and bankers, to say nothing of the thousands in imminent danger of losing their homes, wondered if the building industry, the prop on which the economy of the United States is largely erected, would ever revive.

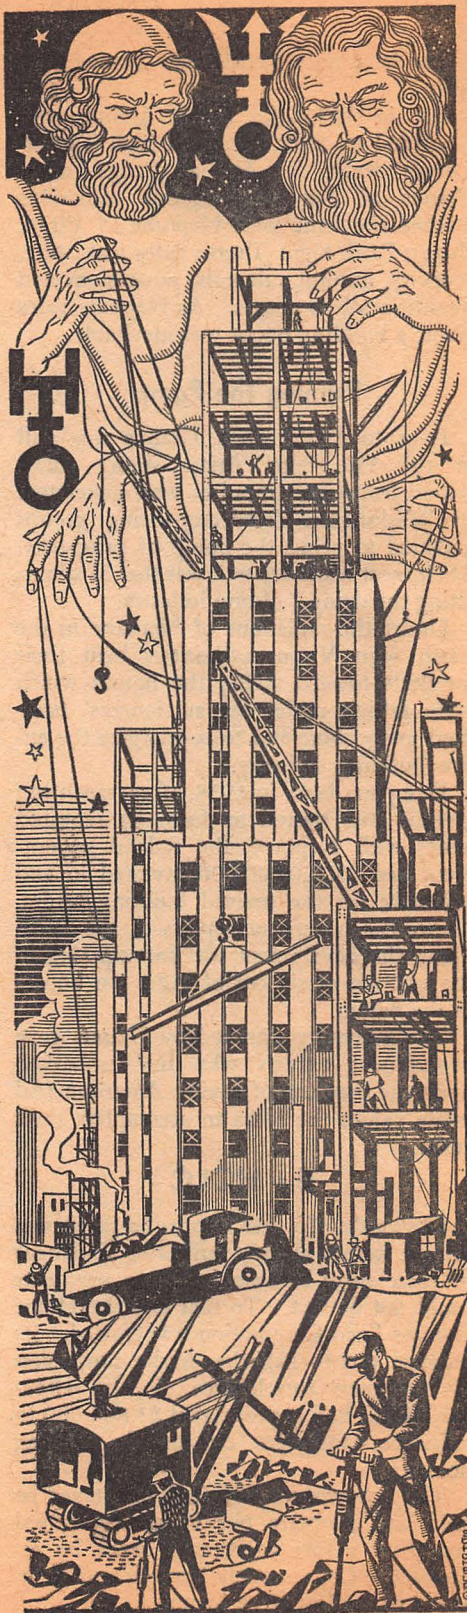

Construction was paralyzed. Empty and ghostlike, half-complete houses and factories were boarded up in every city and village.

Mortgages by tens of thousands were being foreclosed. Like damp firecrackers mortgage lending associations were exploding. Heavy with bonded debt, city governments faced ruin because payment of taxes on houses and land, the source of most municipal income, had halted.

An Ominous Picture

In 1932, when Saturn was in the Earth Sign Capricorn, less than 75,000 homes were constructed, one-sixth of the number erected in the boom year 1929, which was ushered in by the Planet Jupiter which rules expansion in the Sign Taurus, ruling money.

The picture grew even more ominous. During the next year construction of homes fell off to a record low of 54,000 units and a year later only 55,000 new homes were built.

But in 1935 the Planet Uranus was scheduled to enter the Earth Sign Taurus. Things were due for a change when Uranus of the unpredictable radiations reached the trine with Neptune in Virgo, also an Earth Sign. Taurus rules real estate, property, mining, minerals, possessions and wealth in all its phases. As Neptune rules labor, a building boom was inevitable.

Priming the Pump

Prior to 1935, when Uranus was still in the Fire Sign Aries, strong intellectual forces and impulses were generated. In Washington democracy-loving groups gathered to prime the pump of prosperity. Their most necessary task was that of stimulating the dying building industry.

Under the radiations of Neptune in the Earth Sign Virgo, authorities bent their intellects toward saving the homes which were falling under the auctioneers' hammers everywhere and to re-energize the entire building industry.

Five years later, in 1938, after transiting Uranus had started to form its repeated trines with Neptune, the federal government had $7,700,000,000 invested in and available for the revived building trades. Under the beneficent aspects of the Earth Signs, the government was participating in the erection of six out of every ten houses in the nation.

The ingenuity signified by Uranus gave government experts who had embarked upon the program of saving American real estate values the ideas to accomplish their ends.

The HOLC

Obviously, the first step to be taken was to save homes already built and in danger of foreclosure because mortgage payments could not be met. To that end the Home Owners Loan Corporation was created. Its purpose was to halt the deadly procession of mortgage foreclosures. So, by 1938, the HOLC had appropriated $3,804,000 to refinance mortgages on already existing homes.

The government required that taxes be paid and property put in good physical condition before mortgages could be refinanced. Consequently hundreds of thousands of dollars were loaned to the property owners by HOLC. This found its way directly into depleted city treasuries as home owners paid back taxes, and into the building trades as houses were modernized.

America's Housing Problem

But the government had not completed its task. True, HOLC had saved the home owner from dispossession. However, the vast sums already expended were drops in the bucket of what would be needed if the building trades were to return to normalcy.

Again, under the influence of the approaching Uranus-Neptune trine, government experts searched for methods which would not only return building trades to prosperity, but also provide adequate shelter for the millions who were ill-housed. This led to the birth, in June, 1934, of the Federal Housing Authority under the terms of the National Housing Act.

Its purpose was threefold: (1.) to create jobs by making credit available for modernization and repair programs; (2.) to promote construction of new houses by arranging credit up to 80% of the total value of the house; and (3.) to stimulate large-scale, medium rent housing.

By the end of 1939, the last period for which accurate statistics are available in Washington, the Federal Housing Authority had insured more than $3,000,000,000 for financing 465,000 small homes, 2,330,000 property improvements, and 265 large projects with living quarters for 30,000 families.

Millions of Mortgages

Nearly 12,000,000 persons, more than one-eleventh of the total population of the nation, had been benefited by the work of this single governmental agency.

Mortgages on nearly half of the building in the United States had been guaranteed by the FHA. This could not have happened except for the simultaneous transit of two major Planets in Earth signs, increasing the demand for popular-priced homes and liberalizing money for the satisfaction of the demand. Uranus in the Earth Sign Taurus made available money on a nation-wide scale. Neptune in the Earth Sign Virgo helped to benefit labor and the owners of real estate.

But the job of the federal government was not yet complete. Building trades, put back on the main line to prosperity by the combined forces of the HOLC and the FHA were to be given even greater stimulus by the benign aspects of Uranus in Taurus in behalf of the one-third of the nation ill-housed in firetrap tenements.

By rules under which it was created, the benefits of the FHA were limited to families whose income was $30 or more a week. In February, 1938, more than 85% of the loans insured by this agency helped families in this classification.

Obviously something would have to be done for families whose combined earnings fell below $1,500 a year. They, too, needed homes in modern buildings.

Slum Clearance

To fulfill this need the United States Housing Authority was created in 1937, still under the radiations of the Uranus-Neptune trine. Soon one hundred ten local housing authorities were set up by legislatures of thirty-two states in collaboration with the federal agency.

The main objective of the Housing Authority, aside from providing employment in the building trades, was slum clearance. Old rookeries were scheduled to be torn down and replaced by modern apartment dwellings which anyone could be proud to call home.

Uranus inspires altruism and humanitarianism. It isn't enough under the rays of this Planet, to erect houses for temporary use. Constructive virtues and economic value must be present. Therefore tests for housing were stiff. Apartment buildings constructed with the aid of USHA had to be modern in every sense. Seventy per cent of the lot upon which the house was to be erected was left vacant for light and air. Living rooms had to contain at least 150 square feet of floor space, bedrooms, 120 feet, and kitchens, 60 square feet.

The Influence of Uranus

Yet the per room cost was not allowed to exceed $1,000 in large cities and $1,250 in smaller cities. Monthly rentals were set at between $3 and $5 a room, plus a small fixed charge for utility services. The prospective tenant's earnings, in any case was not allowed to exceed six times the amount of the rent. This was a provision instigated by Uranus, to prevent the unworthy from crowding out deserving families.

Congress granted USHA $500,000,000 to guarantee up to 90% of the projects on a sixty years amortization to 3.5% interest. Local authorities could raise their small share of the costs by selling bonds, donating land on which buildings were to be erected, or providing essential services such as sewers, paving and sidewalks.

Building Trades

Were the building trades, one of the main props under the financial stability of the nation, stimulated?

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that by July, 1940, three years after USHA was created, it had entered into loan contracts totaling $638,213,000 with one hundred seventy-one local authorities for the construction of four hundred thirteen houses to accommodate almost one hundred fifty thousand families.

Two hundred twenty houses with apartments for 84,126 families were complete or being erected. Thirty of these apartment projects were occupied at the end of June, 1940, the last month for which complete statistics were available.

Forty-six millions remained for loans, and all of this was earmarked. Uranus hastens anything—both constructive or destructive—started under the influence of its powerful rays.

The favorable rays of Uranus, plus those of Jupiter and Saturn also in Taurus during the greater part of 1940, caused funds to be authorized for still greater public service. These sums are to provide housing for 160,000 families in thirty-five states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii. Public money set aside for public good is the edict of the Uranus-Neptune trine vibrations.

By the end of 1939 the government became the greatest landlord in the country, collecting rents and mortgage payments from one-twentieth of all houses in cities and small towns.

Saturn entering the Earth Sign Taurus in 1939 helped many of the Uranus-Neptune inspired plans to materialize. No ideas, no matter how brilliant, can serve a useful purpose until they become concrete realities. That is what Saturn helped to accomplish. The transit of this Planet through the Earth Sign Taurus has brought construction to a point where it almost approximates the 1929 boom level.

During 1939 there were 465,000 dwellings erected in the United States. Compare this with the 54,000 houses built six years earlier, in 1933, the rock bottom of the depression.

Industry everywhere has been aided by the construction boom. In addition to the manufacture and sale of raw materials, the USHA estimates that five men are employed continuously for one year on every two houses built. Think of the salaries these men bring home every payday, and then let your mind balance this against the loss of lives, employment and homes in war-torn Europe and China.

Great Benefits

Nature is helping the Western Hemisphere, but there is no guarantee that such help will be permanent unless the people North and South of the Equator realize their good fortune and preserve the benefits which have been bestowed upon them during the Uranus-Neptune trine.

The United States has been benefited almost beyond measure by the building boom.

It is not over. During the year just passed, construction rose even higher than it did in 1939, and the rise is continuing during the first months of this year.

The vast defense program upon which the nation has embarked requires additional dwellings, to cost a half billion dollars.

New housing being built near Army and Navy posts and arsenals is providing living quarters for more than seven thousand families at a cost of $28,675,000.

Activity in building trades has increased enormously under the beneficial transit of Uranus and Saturn in the Earth Sign Taurus.

Looking Ahead

Is this phenomenal growth purely accidental? Will the nation return to the acceptance of shoddy materials and careless building habits?

Should this happen, then the catastrophic consequences would be greater than the good that has been accomplished. With Uranus and Saturn approaching the Air Sign Gemini, which is at the ascendant of the United States' Foundation Chart, it would be disastrous for the nation to alter the present housing laws. The Earth has been enriched by what has been done in recent years in response to the transit of Uranus, Neptune, Saturn and Jupiter through the Earth Signs. Human folly should not undo the good or great mischief will follow.

When Uranus enters the Air Sign Gemini this year, the motto of the United States—"In Union There Is Strength"—will once more become a living force, every state in the Union cooperating to safeguard what Americans built while Uranus and Neptune were in cosmic trine.

Astrological Weather vane

These weather predictions are based on the Lunar System. In it, the Moon passes from one zodiacal sign to another, becoming favorably or adversely aspected to various parts of the country—thus affecting atmospheric conditions. The nature of the aspects, of course, differs from day to day, in almost direct proportion to the Moon's position. Because of the large area covered by this forecast, though, allowance must be made for individual lunar fluctuations within each zone, as the aspects vary from one degree of Latitude or Longitude to the next.

What Time Were You Born?

By JEAN SPENCER

Author of "Planets Have Personalities," etc.

The Position of the Sun in Your Horoscope

IF you were born between 4 A.M. and 6 A.M. you have a flair for finance, yet your success will come slowly. Steady effort is more likely to take you to the top. Eminence can come from fulfilling a mission of trust. Your genial, kind disposition attracts those who seek help and advice, but who in turn reciprocate when you need them. The Sun is in your First House.

If you were born between 2 A.M. and 4 A.M. you are active in the money mart and draw many a juicy plum from the financial pie. If you begin your career as bank clerk, you may finish as president or "economic royalist," whose chief labor is cutting gilded coupons. Financial success is almost assured for you. The Sun is in your Second House.

If you were born between Midnight and 2 A.M. you inspire respect and what you say is seldom contradicted. Your career may start as proofreader in a publishing firm and develop to one of editorial authority. You could also prosper as a commission agent. Or possibly you will receive valuable presents from a relative who has already achieved fame or fortune. The Sun is in your Third House.

If you were born between 10 P.M. and Midnight, you benefit from an honorable family background. Your devotion to your community or country may crown you with laurels, so do not go abroad to seek success. This position of the Sun also augurs well for the beginning or end of any enterprise. Though your ventures sometimes slump in the middle, they finish with a flourish. The Sun is in your Fourth House.

If you were born between 8 P.M. and 10 P.M. your talents put money in your pocket. Or, as an entertainer, fashion expert or social arbiter you become a top flight attraction. You are also a shrewd investor because your caution never permits you to be caught short. But your greatest love and joy is centered in your children who are deserving of your pride. The Sun is in your Fifth House.

If you were born between 6 P.M. and 8 P.M. your practical nature finds expression in a utilitarian job, and your stamina fits you for building, farming, manufacturing, homemaking, or supervisor of a hospital. You can excel as a landscape gardener or interior decorator. Whatever your work you are worth a substantial salary. The Sun is in your Sixth House.

If you were born between 4 P.M. and 6 P.M. you do credit to your associates, who reflect character and dignity. You should always travel "in pairs" because through a partner may come your worldly success. You could become an important cog of a large corporation and shine in the reflected glory of its sterling reputation. The Sun is in your Seventh House.

If you were born between 2 P.M. and 4 P.M. you can be a clever understudy because circumstances may select you to carry on the important work of an executive. Or you will enjoy the prestige of inherited wealth, or merit praise through handling others' estates. The latter half of your life is likely to be far easier for you than your formative years. The Sun is in your Eighth House.

If you were born between 2 P.M. and Noon you qualify as an authority on scientific farming, home economics or mining. You could reign as owner of a chain store system. Or you may become a broadcaster, news interpreter or radio vocalist. Exploring is one of your chief pastimes—or developing real estate projects and designing comfortable and artistic homes. You are versatile imaginative and capable. The Sun is in your Ninth House.

If you were born between Noon and 10 A.M. you certainly should arrive at the top—probably toward the middle of your life.

Your name may be inscribed on the lists of the mighty. You could become a government official or rank high as an industrial organizer. There is in your horoscope the way toward renown and honor. The Sun is in your Tenth House.

If you were born between 8 A.M. and 10 A.M. you move in gilded society or enjoy the patronage of the rich. If you own a shop it is one of the best, and your merchandise sells at a premium. Your personality is known to thousands and your popularity can net you substantial dividends. The Sun is in your Eleventh House.

If you were born between 6 A.M. and 8 A.M. your good work is not hung out like a flag for people to salute, nevertheless you are a real benefactor to humanity. You divide your affluence with the needy, and provide shelter, clothes and food to those in want. As a power behind the throne you manipulate the cords of finance, philanthropy, and perhaps even the government. The Sun is in your Twelfth House.

The Psychic Key to Your Birthday

By JOHN BOONE ROMISER

WELL-KNOWN PSYCHIC AUTHORITY

A PERSON who receives psychic visions of future happenings is often able to forecast courses for action with much greater reliability than those who are guided by most forms of logic and reasoning.

Into the mind of the psychic flashes thought-images of scenes throughout the world, brought before trained eyes to be carefully studied and interpreted.

For each day of the year, there is a psychic key to what individuals born on that day are like, and what they should do during the coming twelve months. Were you born in February, the days of which are analyzed in this article?

February 1. (Psychic key: The harvesting of winter wheat.) The little you may be accomplishing far from proves the futility of your efforts. The resultant force of long periods of honest work seldom fails to bring ample reward at the right time. Concentrate on your aims. The later part of this year should find you closer to their attainment.

February 2. (Psychic key: A drum corps in precision march.) Whether you are a trained musician, artist or writer, or merely like to sing and play, look for enjoyment in pictures and read good books. You should be able to attain happiness this year through artistic mediums. Set some of your inspirations on paper. Restrict the scope of your expenditures carefully during the middle of the year. Attain all the value you can for your money.

February 3. (Psychic key: An ancient Roman banner waving majestically.) You will travel far in your search for fame. Old conditions and worries will be left behind. You will be introduced to a harvest of exceptional opportunities, giving you the economic means to rescue friends and relatives from discouragement and want.

February 4. (Psychic key: A child gazing at a star-studded sky.) Undefeatable faith in the future is the tool that allows humanity to perform miracles and to keep its strength eternally alive. Maintain your courage too, and meet every contingency with determination and confidence in your ability. Good news or promotion to a better job can make you unexpectedly happy in the near future.

February 5. (Psychic key: An ancient fleet lying at anchor in the still waters of a harbor.) You do not need the menacing guns of a mighty armada to protect you. Build sufficient faith in your own self. Self-guidance is the best compass in the occasional stormy seas of life. If you have the offer of several birthday gifts, accept the ones offering educational, musical, or dramatical opportunities.

February 6. (Psychic key: The high, sweeping arches of an ancient aqueduct.) Preserve and make use of the worth-while things that are within reach of you. Keep your possessions up to date. Stay aware for the invaluable suggestions of friends and associates. Put all your ability into projects you attempt. The vibrations for the blessing of victory will be strongest in autumn and winter of this year.

February 7. (Psychic key: A nightingale hidden in the dark foliage of an orange tree.) Start new ventures; make new contacts; promote yourself in every way. Do not be surprised if you are called on to make an important change in your accustomed mode of living or daily activities. Use tact and discretion in enforcing the specific demands you have to make.

February 8. (Psychic key: Vestal virgins carrying sacred lamps through a temple at dusk.) Through energy and the steady drive of your determination you will be much closer to happiness than you have ever before experienced. This is especially possible in autumn this year. You have tremendous personal magnetism for the luck you desire, but wishing alone will not bring good fortune.

For Those Who Were Born in February

February 9. (Psychic key: A galley bristling with three banks of oars.) Move along as smoothly and rapidly as a ship. You have the profound belief that your psychological strengths can propel you through any reefs which suddenly arise. Such faith is not unfounded. Cultivate new acquaintances, for with unusual circumstances shaping themselves beyond the range of your vision you may need such friends to assist.

February 10. (Psychic key: A great room lighted by a circular opening in the roof.) Aggressiveness could be like a cover placed over the cubicle of the world in which you live, blocking out the life-giving Sun. Do not let excess activity blind your desire for effective progress, nor be impatient if things do not mature as quickly as you desire. All will come in good time. Preserve your temper and resources.

February 11. (Psychic key: Lovely young girls striking tambourines as they dance the tarantella.) You want to go through your life with dash and verve, but it is best that you control this impulse. You will make more headway by being patient, making certain that the craftsmanship in your work does not reflect carelessness.

February 12. (Psychic key: A sentry on guard.) Like a defender of the nation to which you owe allegiance, emulate the psychic symbol of your birthday. Be upright and strong, with a fixity and clearness of purpose. Be heedful of discipline, accepting it not as a burden but a system of rules that prevents disorder. Live up to the expectations others have of you by paying strict attention to details.

February 13. (Psychic key: A stone-age tablet upon which symbolical gems of wisdom are carved.) The lore of the ages is stored away in the libraries of the world, awaiting your study and understanding. Make use of their offerings of literary wealth. May the wisdom of the centuries become part of your unshakable character. If you are thinking of making changes this year, be sure that necessity compels them.

February 14. (Psychic key: Rippling arpeggio music.) Mark your birthday by beginning something new—work which truly reflects the sincerity of your heart and the deftness of your skilled hands. Turn commonplace activity into moneymaking propositions. Set aside all fear and doubt by letting this accomplishment be your bid for happiness.

February 15. (Psychic key: A horse prancing to the rhythm of military music.) What better basis is there for self-assurance than knowing you have overcome all obstacles by persistent faith in yourself? Make this birthday a link in the chain that secures and displays your ability to impress persons, particularly those who are in a position to aid you in increasing your income. It is upon your own words that you travel the speedway of progress or have to take the slow freight to your destination.

February 16. (Psychic key: A flight of forty stone steps.) Watch yourself to keep from stumbling. It might help if you overlook pettiness in your associates. Dismiss it with a smile. The very effort may reform them—which would be a birthday gift in itself. The financial outlook is especially good for you this year.

February 17. (Psychic key: The Moon sinking below the horizon.) Though life as you see it may be beautiful, the view might not be as unobstructed as you would like. Clarify the picture of what you expect or prefer, then move ahead and accomplish it. Face problems fearlessly.

February 18. (Psychic key: The lowing of cattle.) Success will come to you through arduous work. Take the inspiring words of affection you receive on this birthday as the passport to win against competition. Faith in yourself is usually the victor over oppression and hard times. You may be able to make a long-wished-for journey this year.

February 19. (Psychic key: A bridge spanning dark, swirling waters.) A bridge of financial aid or another form of encouragement will make it possible for you to reach the distant shores in safety. Strengthen the cables of the bridge with your sense of humor and refuse to heed the petty annoyances that try to upset you.

February 20. (Psychic key: The pouring of sparkling cold wine.) By following the interests that best suit you, there is an opportunity for accomplishment that you had thought impossible. Start enterprises which can be of value in establishing your future income. You need not be afraid to play a hunch, for your luck should be fairly good this year.

February 21. (Psychic key: Water lapping at the stone foundations of a terrace.) A practical, yet idealistic attitude is a part of your personality. You may find great material success and security in the near future. Those executives who are in a position to help you may offer financial reward that you did not expect, provided you do not approach them in a spirit of over-assertiveness.

February 22. (Psychic key: The sonorous tones of an organ.) From obscure sources may come developments that take you out of routine activities and give you a chance for the fullest development of your mind. For inspiration, look to the star-spangled sky where the Sun and its many satellites never waver in their eternal duties.

February 23. (Psychic key: Smooth, white, unruffled snow.) This year should find you rising to greater heights through renewed confidence and energy, bringing to unexpected fruition your ambitions. Matters involving distance and unusual friendships are favored. A journey may add unusual breadth to your viewpoints. This is an excellent year for marriage.

February 24. (Psychic key: Ashes glowing upon an open hearth.) A surprise, possibly pertaining to money, may occur, proving somewhat disruptive to the smoothness of your life if you have been relying upon others for support. Avoid emotional outbursts and sudden changes. Develop your creative ability into a capacity for earning.

February 25. (Psychic key: A curious and involved web of musical modulations.) This can be an outstanding year for you. Center your interests upon business aspirations and material ambitions. Do not allow associates to deter you from the important matters at hand. Be cautious in signing papers and making yourself dependent upon the verbal promises of others.

February 26. (Psychic key: An altar of lapis lazuli.) You should find your year comfortably paved with excellent remuneration for the mental work you have accomplished. Exciting journeys, possibly involving romance, are also possible. Favors will come to you in direct proportion to the warmth of your responses and the sincerity in which you are willing to grant equal blessings.

February 27. (Psychic key: A vaulted ceiling of an ancient chapel.) Old matters may be brought to an unexpected consummation, or the turning point for an entirely new field of activities might be made. This is an opportune year for beginning ambitious ventures. Your natural ability should enable you to successfully establish yourself. Have confidence in yourself, but not too much in promises.

February 28. (Psychic key: A royal pageant and courtly dance.) This will be an industrious year for you—one filled with optimism and profit. But ward off attempts to deceive you in matters concerning your job or profession. Be strictly honest with yourself and demand absolute honesty from others. Avoid the interesting but unprofitable plan of being ultra-original. Rely on logic rather than hunches.

Was Your Friend Born in Aquarius?

THE symbol of the Air Sign Aquarius is the figure of a Man, holding an urn from which pours a stream of water. Actually, the stream represents a flow of electricity that signifies the outpouring of humanitarian vitality. Throughout life the Aquarius person retains a progressive, ambitious outlook. Most Aquarians are interested in social betterment, science and inventions, philosophy, exploration, discoveries and philanthropies that can make life easier for the whole world. They want to raise existence to a higher standard, teaching to humanity the basis of truth, justice, harmony, and friendship. No matter what the actual work of Aquarians may be, in one way or another they attempt to put their ideals into effect.

Because Aquarians are far sighted, their plans are laid for a long period into the future, so much so that they may appear to be visionary and impractical idealists. But that does not worry the Aquarians who know that others will carry on their work. They have a deep, though perhaps unexpressed, knowledge that civilization will continue to grow from one generation to another. They have faith and an abiding trust in the inherent goodness of humanity which remains with them no matter how often they are deceived or misled.

Aquarius is a Fixed Air Sign, so they keep their passions, impulses, agitations, in restraint. They endeavor to settle their problems with a calm and tolerant understanding.

The Aquarians who seem restless and bored need inspiration through humanitarian work, such as social service, helping those who are in need, or instructing children. If they do not like anything of this nature, they should follow a hobby, such as inventing, wood carving, science or nature study.

They are not interested in wealth or material power merely for the sake of being rich or famous. They prefer to find happiness and contentment in the employment of their creative imaginations.

Edison, Roosevelt, Willkie

Aquarian children should not be forced to take up work which they dislike. Because they find it hard to make up their minds to a specific occupation, they should be encouraged to learn one definite trade or profession. But in addition, they should be encouraged to follow their own instincts, for the most able of the Aquarians are destined to become leaders in middle life. Thomas A. Edison, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Wendell L. Willkie, Evangaline Adams, and Abraham Lincoln are only a few of the distinguished Americans who were born when the Sun was in Aquarius.

Aquarians do not like to be tied down to specific and limited rules. They prefer to listen to reason and are willing to discuss changes in plans in order to avoid disturbing or hurting others. But want to do this voluntarily. If you attempt to force them, you will achieve very little. They do not quarrel or argue. They merely drop you. They are not vindictive, nor do they hold a grudge for long. They are, however, inclined to be impatient in business and in personal matters. If you are associated with them, make allowances for their seeming inconsistencies.

The world is so regulated that there are all sorts of people—old and young, rich and poor, wise and ignorant, strong and feeble. There can be no standard. There have been numberless attempts to standardize races and cultures through eugenics, but nature prefers her own seemingly hit or miss system. And part of this system which so many fail to take into consideration is the solar grouping and the periodic birth replacements. Each Sun Sign group has a mission to fulfill. That of Aquarius is through idealism. No matter how much people want to destroy themselves on the rocks of materialism, the Aquarian life is concerned with existence on a more spiritual plane. Theirs is not a maligned, utopian dream, but a prayer that earthly existence can some day offer to all people a life of amity, without slaughter, slavery, greed, or misery. And as long as humanity survives there will be Aquarians to attain and preserve that Utopia.

Coming Next Month: ARE YOU LONELY?

What Happens in Your Horoscope?

By ELLEN RUSHMORE McKEON

Author of "Your Golden Heritage," "Astrology and Humor," etc.

The Solution of Personal Problems According to Your Natal Chart, as Exemplified by Mr. Arthur Brainard

AT every moment of time something interesting is happening to you. Something important is beginning. Seeds of coming events are being planted. Future actions receive their initial impetus. Old conditions and circumstances come to an end. New ideas are born.

Nature supervises the process by automatically sounding a series of alarm clocks in your horoscope. When the time is ripe, these alarm clocks ring to signal that "now is the time" to do a certain thing. These alarm clocks are the Planets of the Solar System. Each Planet moves according to its own time schedule, every one sounding the signal for action at various intervals. Some of these alarms to get busy are of the utmost importance in your life. Others are less insistent.

The best way to find out in advance when these alarm clocks are going to ring and what they mean in your life is to understand your own horoscope. This amazing instrument of mankind's genius and celestial encouragement indicates the position of the Planets in every part of the Zodiac and their relationships to each other. When the exact moment as well as the place of birth are known, then the horoscope can be erected with greater accuracy and the degrees of the cusps of the twelve Houses can be ascertained.

Questions Are Answered

The natal chart tells you about the aspects on the day you were born. What you are interested in, however, are the cosmic vibrations for the present time. Is this a good time to invest money, to take a trip, get a better job, buy a new home—or perhaps fall in love? To give an adequate answer to these questions it is necessary to calculate the positions of the Planets in your progressed chart, and compare them with your natal chart. It will then show how the Planets have moved from their original places. The slow moving Planets change very little in the course of a lifetime, but the fast moving Planets circle the Zodiac many times. In their aggregate, these changes tell the story of your present, past, and future.

In order to find the answer to a specific question, the astrologer also uses "planetary transit" charts. Such questions as it answers may involve almost any problem, such as: "Should I go to the coast on my vacation?" "Should I sell my present business and start another?" "What is the best day for me to get married?"

What are these important planetary transits which mean so much in the horoscope? They are the daily movements of the Planets in the Zodiac. In relation to the natal and progressed charts, they are the most reliable of the celestial alarm clocks. They can be depended on to show how and which months, weeks and even days or hours become powerful centers of force in your life. The "transits" are the courses of the moving Planets. The transits make you aware of dormant conditions in your

When the declinations occur within one degree of each other, the vibrations of the aspects are greatly intensified. In this chart, the planets between 14 degrees and 18, either North or South, and those in 23 degrees, North or South, indicate the presence of planetary stresses.

horoscope, arousing you to action. This may be to your advantage or not, according to the intensity in which it affects your natal or progressed horoscope.

When Astrology Is Needed

While all is fair and life moves smoothly, you seldom bother about Astrology. But when trouble comes it can help you quite a lot by giving you an insight into your own personality. This was demonstrated not so long ago by Arthur Brainard, a reader of EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY. In his letter he said, "For many years I was able to make a comfortable living as bookkeeper, usually in hotels and restaurants. In 1933 my wife died. Then I lost my job and had to live on my savings. In 1935 I found work with some people who had a summer hotel in Maine. That winter they took their entire staff to run a place in Florida. But last summer, 1940, they suddenly announced they had sold everything and were going out of business. The new concern had its own staff, so we were all turned loose. A few found work in other hotels, but I was left high and dry. Is there a chance of finding another job, or would it be better for me to start a little business of my own? If so, what kind? What should I do? I was born in Rochester, N. Y., February 15, 1896 at 8:12 P.M."

Geographically, Rochester is 43 degrees N. and 78 degrees W. An astrological chart erected for this city and the time of Mr. Brainard's birth shows that Gemini, governed by the Planet Mercury, was on the Ascendant. Mercury rules the intellect, so it is quite important that Arthur Brainard, as a Mercury type, should do mental work. What can Astrology indicate about the kind of occupation? Since Mercury is close to the Sun in the Sign Aquarius, which occupies the Fifth House, but is square Saturn, his inclination would be toward methodical mental work that gives him a sense of responsibility. The suitable occupation for him, therefore, is accounting or statistics, which require mathematical accuracy.

Important Aspects

But the choice of an occupation in harmony with your chart does not guarantee that you will be able to earn money by it. The presence of Saturn in the Sign Scorpio in the Second House, in square aspect to Mercury, reveals that at some time the earning powers will be tested severely. The conjunction of Uranus with Saturn multiplies the difficulties. This happened when the progressed and transiting Planets stimulated the natal aspects in 1939 when Uranus reached the opposition of natal Saturn. The aspect is still in effect and will continue with varying degrees of force until Saturn and Uranus leave Taurus in the early months of 1942.

There are other planetary positions which affect Arthur Brainard. One is the conjunction of the Moon with Saturn and Uranus in the First House of the progressed chart for 1941. Also the conjunction of transiting Neptune with the radical Ascendant opposite the natal Moon in Pisces, and opposite progressed Mercury now in conjunction with the natal Moon. These aspects have been in effect since 1939 and will continue until 1942.

On the basis of the aspects, Arthur Brainard is in a restrictive cycle as indicated by Saturn. Unexpected events are shown by Uranus, while worry is signified by the Moon. False promises are indicated by Neptune. Therefore, according to his horoscope, Mr. Brainard should be content to get any kind of a job and stick to it for about a year. This is not a propitious planetary cycle to start a new venture. By early 1942 an entirely different set of transits will come into effect. He will feel like a different person. If he still wants to start a business of his own, it will be possible to do so.

Valuable Abilities

Mr. Brainard has accumulated a good deal more knowledge than perhaps he realizes. This can be put to good use. He has acquired a lot of valuable information about managing a hotel or camp.

Perhaps he will be able to meet and marry a woman several years younger than himself who has a strong Mars influence in her horoscope. This would give her good working power and executive ability. Between them, they should be able to develop a flourishing business. They already know the office routine. She should attend to the practical managerial side. A restaurant, overnight camp for tourists or country hotel would be just the thing.

Similar vibratory forces are at work in your own horoscope. This can be analyzed for you by a professional astrologer or you can learn to do much yourself through your solar and augmented personal horoscopes, prepared by EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY or by reading the interpretations of the current transits in the monthly issues of this magazine.

The accompanying chart for Arthur Brainard is a horoscope similar to the one you should have for yourself. In it is a simple astrological summary of a man's personality, career, emotions, prospects, hopes, limitations, intuitions, and resourcefulness. The moving Planets write, and having written move on. Every universal symbol revealed in the sky is a reflection of your life. Do not slight a single part of it.

ARIES COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between March 21st and April 20th

YOU enjoy nothing more than being in the midst of the social whirl, getting your full share of applause and appreciation. All this is within the realm of possibility due to the transit of the Sun and the Planet Venus through your Eleventh House which rules friendship.

Your initiative and self-confidence are at a high peak as the result of the Mars vibrations in the Ninth and Tenth Houses. Your ability to decide matters instantly should reach an excellent score for accuracy while Mars is in this zodiacal area. But be sure that your judgment is not befogged by illusion during midmonth, since Mars square Neptune on February 12th attacks the consciousness as live steam does a person in a room with all the windows shut. The two Planets, Mars and Neptune, meeting in adverse aspect just three days before Jupiter and Saturn are conjoined in your Solar Second House which rules your income, can make your ideas about money rather hazy. It would be well not to act hurriedly where your money is concerned until these major Planets have had a chance to separate in the celestial chart.

It is also possible that with the square between the Sun and Uranus on the 11th you will be involved in a situation over which neither you nor your friends have any control. A speech by one of your social group at the wrong time could act as a boomerang, causing you expense as well as humiliation. Or you may become intolerant of pressure on your good nature and explode without notice, taking both you and your friends unawares. But Pluto trine your Sign is a favorable aspect for soothing ruffled feelings, so as quickly as the excitement rises you can act to subside it. Attend to things that need immediate adjustment.

Sat., Feb. 1. Make a fresh estimate and evaluation of your own philosophy. What you thought set, definite, and unalterable may be easier to change than you dared hope. It rarely pays to be arbitrary or stubborn.

SUN., Feb. 2. This will not be exactly a day of rest. With characteristic decision and dispatch you will be active, doing things to your satisfaction, but probably upsetting others who prefer less haste and more planning. Take their preferences into consideration and there will be more pleasantness all around.

Mon., Feb. 3. Be on the safe side where money is concerned. Working with a friend or one close to you, a method may be devised to increase rather than decrease your earnings. But do not take any chances.

Tues., Feb. 4. You may have to take extra precautions against the loss of friendships because your aggressiveness is misunderstood. Work for your advancement and gather all the profit you can, but in the process do not sacrifice what is dear to you.

Wed., Feb. 5. Should you be startled by a sudden revelation in business matters, take it as a signal for action. Turn your plans to good account, and earn for yourself some valuable approval if not an actual money gain. Be on your toes. Make the most of the opportunity at hand.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Devote as much time as you can to self-analysis. If you are dissatisfied with your job, your surroundings, or your prospects, do not argue or complain. Wait until a better period.

Fri., Feb. 7. Perhaps you are sensitive and depressed, due to the Moon, Neptune and Mars rays, but it is important that you discipline yourself against nervous tension. It can cause you to squander both your mental and material resources.

Sat., Feb. 8. Center your attention on domestic affairs. You should be able to make everything run smoothly and increase the well-being of your family. At the same time stay in good humor. Week-end gaiety could help you in this.

SUN., Feb. 9. Be considerate and tolerant if you have to handle a difficult problem. Let circumstances shape your course because if you are too arbitrary you are likely to bump into double trouble.

Mon., Feb. 10. The possibilities for achievement may appear slight to you, and perhaps you are right. So do not take chances. A mistake, which ordinarily would be inconsequential, might, under the adverse planetary vibrations now in effect, seriously disturb your affairs. Accept the status quo.

Tues., Feb. 11. Your feelings and your better judgment may be having a tug of war about making an investment on the basis of sentiment. It may be a mistake financially, but if you are not careful it may also result in breaking with a friend. Do your best to work it out amicably.

Wed., Feb. 12. Be considerate, whether with employers, co-workers, friends or family. In your haste and enthusiasm it may be easy for you to overlook or even transgress the rights of others, and in so doing, injure yourself indirectly.

Thurs., Feb. 13. You should be able to make contacts or connections that will prove of great benefit. Through them may come new opportunities and new satisfactions. They should be profitable as well, and operate for long time advantage.

Fri., Feb. 14. Venus squaring Saturn and Jupiter gives warning against too much indulgence in social activity at the expense of your work. Such excesses might undermine your financial security. Do not give way to the temptation to play, even though you are unduly encouraged by your friends.

Sat., Feb. 15. Make use of your talents, and be generous in giving time to causes where your leadership is needed. Opportunity may come to you through group, club or organizational activities during the Moon-Venus trine and Moon-Mercury parallel. You should have reason to be very pleased with what you do.

SUN., Feb. 16. If you have to prepare for a lawsuit or enter into competition, do it to day. Your mind may not only work with meteoric speed and brilliance, but supported by subconscious intuition your judgment will be trustworthy and your manner of expression persuasive.

Mon., Feb. 17. Hold your nervous energy, your aggressiveness and your strong opinions from getting you into trouble. Do not antagonize people today. Go out of your way to be pleasant even if you have to grit your teeth bearing it.

Tues., Feb. 18. The Moon, in the benefic trine to Pluto but in unfriendly aspect to the Sun and Uranus, indicates the need for caution in matters relating to taxes, insurance, legacies and debts. In handling such things be sure of what you are doing, and defer action until you do.

Wed., Feb. 19. Open your mind to suggestions, but watch what you put in writing. Show every desire to cooperate, yet be sure you are not taken in by someone who might use your assistance against you.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Do not give in to self-indulgence today. It could make you irresponsible to the point of bringing material loss, spiritual decline, or injury to your reputation. Since your pride and ambition thrive on receipt of great respect, do not take the chance of having it lessened.

Fri., Feb. 21. Substantial cooperation with your associates will bring you unusual recognition. It may be that you will be admitted into a select business group where your advice will be sought and your ideas accepted. This can be a strikingly important period in your career.

Sat., Feb. 22. Your initiative and your managerial ability, activated by a trine between the Moon, Neptune and Uranus, bring you into favorable prominence. The result may be significant to your special interests and could cause an almost spectacular increase in your income.

SUN., Feb. 23. Do not interpret a lack of response from others as a reflection on your ability or character. The Moon, opposite Pluto and square Saturn and Jupiter, indicates possible criticism, antagonism or indifference. There is an abundance of good fortune for anyone who cultivates his or her ambition today.

Mon., Feb. 24. Unselfishness may be carried to an extreme by completely ignoring your own interests. Do not permit that to happen, because if you do you will have created little good and a lot of worry. Both money and friends could disappear. Be fair in your giving, but not to your own detriment. No one will ask more of you.

Tues., Feb. 25. With the Moon in favorable sextile to Mars, seek congenial companionship. Make use of the mental stimulation that follows. Do not allow yourself to come under the depressing influence of those who would elaborate on their troubles.

Wed., Feb. 26. A New Moon and a favorable outlook for the coming month, although its benefic influences will be somewhat limited since it takes place in your Tenth House. However, being efficient and optimistic should react to your advantage. Produce something worthwhile.

Thurs., Feb. 27. A good time, astrologically, for marking out a definite course of action. Mercury is in favorable sextile to Mars, increasing your initiative. Keep strict accounting of money entrusted to your care. Be discreet in making purchases and sales.

Fri., Feb. 28. If you accede to all the requests to lend your talents to interests outside of your immediate business and home demands, it might be to the detriment of your career, ambition, or desire for peace. Think of your own needs first, and then help others as much as you can.

TAURUS COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between April 21st and May 20th

THE present aspects in the Zodiac are so important and far reaching that their effect will prevail for years. Since the vibrations are at their maximum intensity in your Sign your entire personality is being influenced, changing your outlook and status to a greater degree than you realize.

Your ambitions, optimism and constructive qualities are aroused, but there is risk of emotional or economic pitfalls. You may be so blinded by the effulgence of your own wisdom that you neither heed nor follow sound advice. The cost of your self-assertiveness may be higher than you care to pay.

With Mars at the cusp of your Ninth House, Neptune in your Fourth House, and the Planets in your Sign at the Ascendant of your horoscope, you are being given a tremendous push for either a trip or a glamorous romance, or the blossoming of your popularity. There should be so much good for you that you know not which gift to pluck first.

The Sun and Venus at the zenith of your chart direct the highlights of your career and to a great extent externalize your attitude toward the public. Whether these contacts are advantageous or detrimental depends on how you manage your business or profession.

It is possible that, as the result of the Sun-Uranus square on February 11th, you may want to assert yourself so dramatically that you jeopardize your reputation. Metaphorically you are coasting on thin ice—headed for fame and affluence, or obscurity. This may seem paradoxical, but there is nothing enigmatic to the astrologer about the freeze-up of Saturn or the expansiveness of Jupiter—the Planets which are now conjoined in your Sign. This aspect, together with the transit of Uranus through your Sign, has elevated you to the zodiacal peerage. May you have the best of luck with this celestial gift!

Sat., Feb. 1. Turn your attention to unfortunate people. It is not always monetary aid that is essential, though. Under the present aspects you may be able to give some very important philosophic help when it is most needed. If you have been puzzled about a matter, get to the bottom of it now.

SUN., Feb. 2. It is better to bolster your own morale than to depend on outside aid. A gift may help pull you out of the doldrums, but do not rely completely on such tokens to make you believe in yourself and your ability.

Mon., Feb. 3. Use your creative energies constructively and be agreeable to everyone. It may be necessary to be strict and decisive, but the things you accomplish will be worthwhile if you do not hinder yourself by being too arbitrary.

Tues., Feb. 4. Possibly a business boost through some pleasant pursuit since your planetary Ruler Venus is in friendly sextile to Neptune. Seek a social atmosphere for your business talks. Perhaps an unusual restaurant would provide the setting for your discussions.

Wed., Feb. 5. The Moon, conjoined Uranus, and trine Neptune and Venus contributes to your personal attractions and encourages an exciting heart interest. Use this favorable planetary situation to exert your persuasive abilities where they will mean the most.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Sidetrack all the business matters you possibly can today. Your mind is likely to be restless and visionary—not good for finances or any objectives demanding complete balance. Work off your mood by seeking diversion in lively conversation or perhaps manual effort.

Fri., Feb. 7. Your income may show a satisfactory increase, but do not use it for speculative ventures. Stick to sure things. Keep your ears open for a friendly tip, but do not act on it. There is a possibility it will be worth something to you later.

Sat., Feb. 8. Financial subjects occupy your mind. The time is favorable for the consideration of money matters and for action. Decisions made in this field should prove satisfactory now.

SUN., Feb. 9. Promote relationships between groups or individuals while the Moon is in benefic sextile to Uranus and Neptune. Find out how others live and work. The results of such activity could give you experience and understanding helpful to the handling of your regular interests.

Mon., Feb. 10. You may find it rather trying to cope with the ill-nature and contentiousness of certain individuals, but it cannot be escaped easily. Do your share to maintain harmony.

Tues., Feb. 11. Pessimism and discouragement may have you in their grasps today. You might be sure that you cannot make headway in your present position, and you want to break away and start fresh elsewhere, but think it over carefully before you change. Do not act impulsively.

Wed., Feb. 12. In the midst of difficulty, good fortune could come your way and give you a lift—perhaps in the form of cash. If your arbitrary attitude to those near you brings criticism, expect it, unless you have conscientiously tried to change your viewpoint.

Thurs., Feb. 13. A change you may have made has helped calm your nerves, assisting you with your work and enabling you to attain greater opportunities for earning. However, the work you may be doing now might not prove as permanent as you think.

Fri., Feb. 14. Be careful that your statements are not misleading, because someone may be waiting to take advantage of them. With adverse rays from Mars, avoid over-exertion. Try to smile, and mean it, regardless of the trends.

Sat., Feb. 15. Your personal stock should rate high today. Jupiter conjoined Saturn in your First House brings honors and respect for your ability. It may present an opportunity for you to take on new responsibilities, with reward in proportion. Consider it a chance to prove your value.

SUN., Feb. 16. Disassociate yourself from the trying experiences you may have had. Put industry aside and relax. Enjoy the company of your friends. Make this a day of genuine recreation.

Mon., Feb. 17. This is no time to be opinionated. Broaden your outlook and try to understand the views of others. Win friendship and gratitude by sacrificing your ideas; you will gain in a larger way later.

Tues., Feb. 18. Estimate carefully in order to meet each condition with accurate judgment because it could be quite a simple matter for you to buy something for its appearance rather than its utilitarian value. Do not gamble—even if you can afford to lose.

Wed., Feb. 19. Make full use of your initiative. You would have something to regret if you sat idly by while opportunity is yours for the taking. Do not join your forces with persons who lack vision or imagination, and who are not ready for action.

Thurs., Feb. 20. It would be well for you to check the handling of funds, property or other things in which you may be interested. You may prevent later trouble if you act now to assure the strictest regard for custodial responsibility.

Fri., Feb. 21. Whether in business, on a job, looking for a position, or a stay-at-home, the good things of life can be yours. Capitalize on your abilities, and use them as stepping stones to something greater.

Sat., Feb. 22. You may be projected into a position of prominence, at least to the point where you stand out among a crowd. The Moon from your Midheaven is trining Neptune and Uranus. Whether in business or social activity, make the most of the attention you attract.

SUN., Feb. 23. If your work makes an excessive demand on your time, perhaps your financial security is worth it. Do not be despondent because you have to submerge all other interests to your career. Accept gladly the challenge of routine until you can make other arrangements.

Mon., Feb. 24. Try not to be impulsive or take risks that can be avoided. Either might bring liabilities that you can ill afford to assume. Before making promises, make certain you can carry them out.

Tues., Feb. 25. You may find general conditions quite satisfactory, yielding extra income for your savings account. However, do not permit pleasures to infringe on your business hours. Keep track of details so they do not entangle you.

Wed., Feb. 26. The New Moon, conjoined the Sun and Mercury in your Eleventh House, attracts advantages through people whose mental achievements are outstanding. Perhaps they will introduce you to new opportunities, and they can certainly help you increase your knowledge.

Thurs., Feb. 27. The romantic spark may be ignited in your usually placid personality, but do not take it as more than a passing fancy. Meanwhile, it will bring out the colorful side of your nature. Enjoy this period and all that it offers.

Fri., Feb. 28. Some artistic or inspirational accomplishment of yours may meet with an unexpected prize or acclaim. Enjoy your triumph to the fullest because very often adulation is a bubble that dissolves in thin air.

GEMINI COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between May 21st and June 20th

A LOT of vibratory force is being focused on your solar horoscope which, by associated influence, is reflected in your personal life and career. There is fulfillment and reward through past effort.

The most prominent immediate effect is through the trine of the Sun and Venus to your Sign, giving you mental sagacity and emotional poise. The feeling of assurance can translate itself into one of several phases, since the rays of these celestial spheres come through the Ninth House which has jurisdiction over matters involving distance, philanthropy, and philosophy. You may be required to solve an important problem that can be adjusted only through diplomacy and logic, or you may want to go off on a romantic pilgrimage with your beloved. You can do both or either with equal satisfaction and gain.

Mercury in your Solar Tenth House, in opposition to Neptune, and square Mars as well as your Sign, gives your imagination an enigmatic twist. In business, domestic, and personal contacts you are singularly resourceful. But if you feel that you must make sharp and sarcastic remarks in order to make an impression, do not give way to the impulse or you will get even more razor-sharp verbal comebacks. Whenever you get into a combative mood, shut yourself in your room or go off for a solitary walk to cool off. The fewer arguments you have this month, the happier will be your existence. The oppositional pull of Mars can make you too ambitious and too obstreperous.

Sat., Feb. 1. Sympathy may impel you to perform a service for someone with whom you are associated. If so, do it wholeheartedly, with no mental reservations. You will feel all the better for the good work you have done while the Moon-Sun sextile has quietly assisted you.

SUN., Feb. 2. If you have been annoyed by legal matters or conditions that needed correction, settlement should be possible with the initiative and ability of friends. Be sure you safeguard the benefits you receive. Forego social gatherings if you are able.

Mon., Feb. 3. You may be involved in a situation involving money, bringing you in contact with unusual and difficult people. Act with scrupulous care and caution, and do not allow yourself to be misled or deceived. Because of the adverse Mercury-Saturn parallel you are safe only with conservative people and methods.

Tues., Feb. 4. Interference seems to meet you at every corner, and obstacles block every doorway. The reason for all this is obscured to you, and you may be puzzled about the next step to take. Accept this condition for the moment, until the aspects clear and you can see the way out.

Wed., Feb. 5. You may experience difficulties through an emotional confusion, but if you can avoid unpleasant controversy by being economical and busy, you are likely to minimize the extent of the general jitters.

Thurs., Feb. 6. The Moon in your First House emphasizes restlessness, and the square to Mercury in Pisces causes vague, disorganizing quality of the mind. Plenty of fresh air, exercise, and following the early-to-bed rule would be better than pursuing your usual routine.

Fri., Feb. 7. Defer opinions and judgments of major matters today. If you act at the wrong time it would be easy for you to miscalculate human reactions. Follow established methods and you will be safer.

Sat., Feb. 8. Cash in today on thorough and efficient performance of your tasks, especially those which have been neglected recently. Show others interesting and important facts they have overlooked. It can bring you recognition and substantial approval.

SUN., Feb. 9. Put yourself in circulation, seeing friends and taking part in discussions. Your keen observation should enable you to add to your store of knowledge as well as make an impression that can prove of later advantage.

Mon., Feb. 10. Irritations and confusion may be much in evidence—a signal to bring out your compensating qualities. Counteract the prevalent state of mind by meeting it with its conciliation and clear thinking. If others appear unmindful of your kindnesses, take it calmly and continue to help all you can.

Tues., Feb. 11. With the Moon aspects in conflict, do not get mixed in your thinking. Try to see things in their true light. Be investigative. A little suspicion might be helpful.

Wed., Feb. 12. Understanding and cooperation will make for harmony both in your home and at work. See as many people as you can. Perhaps you will run across a proposition that will be just what you are looking for. Try to get away from routine as much as possible.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Do not stretch your budget or take a chance with a risky investment. Better handle your money with thrift and careful management. Otherwise you might be tempted to spend your cash for something that is merely ostentatious.

Fri., Feb. 14. Every day cannot be a perfect one, so if things do not go exactly the way you want them, do not let it worry you. You are prone to construct imaginary houses of trouble. There are better things to do than waste your time on such unprofitable occupations.

Sat., Feb. 15. As Saturn conjoins Jupiter, work that has been well done, responsibilities that have been faced, and lessons learned from experience will be rewarded with success, financial gain and spiritual satisfaction. If you have deserved these, you can well be proud.

SUN., Feb. 16. Luna, in favorable sextile to Mars and trine with the Sun indicates better understanding and penetration. However, the adverse Pluto vibrations encourage you to waste time. Overcome this, and venture into untrodden fields, mentally and physically. You should find it worth while.

Mon., Feb. 17. Calm down. If your ire has been aroused because of hindering forces, replace nervousness with cool logic. However, should that not be possible, defer decisions and important action until your anger has subsided.

Tues., Feb. 18. Though everything may seem rosy and prosperous, it would be rather disastrous to go far into debt. Spend only your present surplus, not tomorrow's income. However, if you have a brilliant idea, do not bury it out of sight.

Wed., Feb. 19. Under the favorable Moon-Venus sextile you may find friendships a powerful help in overcoming professional difficulties. But since Mercury is in adverse square to Luna, impulsive action could prevent solution of economic problems. Organize your work, and do everything methodically.

Thurs., Feb. 20. The vibrations tend to make you restless, highly excitable and abounding in whims. Get hold of yourself before you irritate too far your family and associates. You have within yourself the ability to change conditions surrounding you if you are sincere in your efforts.

Fri., Feb. 21. This should be a remarkably fine day, with things coming your way from many sources. New responsibility could bring its reward; you could receive gifts or benefits; your abilities could be called upon to serve in important endeavors. If there is a complex problem at hand, you should be able to find the solution now.

Sat., Feb. 22. With Neptune in the Fourth House, discoveries of an almost startling nature might be made. Persist in your efforts and you may have the answer to something that has caused you many hours of thought.

SUN., Feb. 23. Do not allow opposition of selfish individuals to weaken your faith. You can accomplish notable things if you refuse to have fear, and recognize adverse restraints. Since you are ruled by Mercury, your progress is determined by the saneness of your mental reactions.

Mon., Feb. 24. There is little conducive to happiness during the current planetary aspects, for the Moon and Venus are in adverse square to Uranus. Work to keep your own contentment high, and help others if you can. Ignore sullen moods.

Tues., Feb. 25. There is no reason to falter in your steps today. Romance can play an important part, and perhaps make this a time when dreams can come true. Be industrious. Write letters and make telephone calls.

Wed., Feb. 26. The New Moon, conjoined the Sun and Mercury, should keep you in the public eye during the coming month. Under such auspices get out in front and demonstrate what you can do. Let no opportunity pass to show your ability and perform attention-getting duties.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Intuition and vision, supported by ambition and driving force, make it possible for you to transform your mental pictures into practical realities. You cannot afford to let this period go by without using its favors to the utmost.

Fri., Feb. 28. The vibrations are excellent for mental expansion. Overcome tendencies to be too fixed or narrow in your views. You would also be aided by the aspects if you decided to start some new work, or extend your activities into fields you have not yet cultivated.

CANCER COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between June 21st and July 22nd

THE sum total of experience will come to you through the fulfillment of a wish as the result of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction in your Solar Eleventh House. This attainment may be spurred on through the kindness of a friend or as the acme of your own compulsion to keep plodding until you get what you want.

There is an aura of success in your vicinity this month. Mercury in your Solar Ninth House gives you quick discernment. This is a splendid aspect for the conception of philosophic ideals. Since Mercury is in Sign opposition to Neptune, you should find new ideas racing toward you with the speed of a millstream. This activity of mind and intuition can enable you to do valuable work for those who are in need, whether you are on the payroll of a philanthropic organization or not. The world needs the cardinal abilities of your solar group during these arduous days.

It is clear from the aspects in your horoscope that you will have very little time for introspection because Mercury, which is now stimulating your idealism, is in Sign square to Mars which is transitting the western angle of your solar horoscope. The forepart of the month Mars is in your Sixth House, so you will be as busy as ten electrically driven motors. On the 18th, Mars enters your Seventh House. This will create an opposition to your Sign, giving you an immediate concern about family problems. Perhaps you will have to straighten out the snarled romance of someone close to you; or you may have to give advice about a legal situation. At any rate, the aspects signify a busy and pleasant month.

Sat., Feb. 1. Your original thinking, effectively expressed, can propel you into prominence. Do not hesitate to be heard and seen. It should bring you approval and advantages. Allow your good fortunes to help others at the same time it benefits you.

SUN., Feb. 2. Look for assistance if you need it. Someone fond of you may be longing to help you, but awaiting your first gesture. If you are puzzled about a particular line of action, brush up on facts you may have forgotten.

Mon., Feb. 3. There is no reason to let obstacles stand in your way, although you may feel they are beyond your control. Give a little extra momentum to your plans. Diligence will serve you well at this time. Do not spread your good ideas casually; if you do someone else will use them, beating you to the attainment of due reward.

Tues., Feb. 4. Submit gracefully to the necessity of duty instead of rebelling against what is inevitable. In this way you may be able to circumvent the effect of the adverse aspects under which you can be excessively dominated by your emotions to face reality resolutely.

Wed., Feb. 5. Unwelcome news may be arriving, but be ready to discount it. Too great a hurry in interpreting what you hear may cause you to misjudge an innocent person. Also, do not say anything that can be criticised as being too boastful of your ability or possessions.

Thurs., Feb. 6. If you have to step into a confused situation and straighten it out, do it quickly. Use the full intensity of your ability to get at the heart of a problem. You are one of the persons whose services are always needed in adjusting the woes of humanity.

Fri., Feb. 7. Do not be irritable before your co-workers. Overlook mistakes, and give understanding assistance in correcting them. Be doubly considerate while the Moon opposes Mars and is square Neptune.

Sat., Feb. 8. Even if you feel that you have to spend money you can hardly afford—offer it as a sacrifice on the altar of friendship and make it up by denying yourself some luxury to which you believe you are entitled.

SUN., Feb. 9. Enjoy and spread good cheer and optimism. Give the day over to kind words and deeds. You may be able to experience a new satisfaction as the result of your benevolent attitude.

Mon., Feb. 10. Keep your hand tight around your money, and do not be inveigled into anything that may cause a loss. On the other hand you should seek both adventure and advance because of the Moon-Sun parallel avoid fool-hardy mistakes.

Tues., Feb. 11. Put your money in the bank rather than invest in speculative ventures, no matter how much is promised in return. Not only are early dividends problematical, but the safety of your principal could be placed in jeopardy.

Wed., Feb. 12. Seize every opportunity that comes along, for under the protective Lunar trines to Saturn and Jupiter there is little likelihood of unwise action. Investigate real estate, and if it serves your ultimate financial security perhaps a loan could be arranged that would be satisfactorily liquidated.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Do your figuring closely if you are planning to make a large-scale purchase. Search out the small openings that lead to advantages. Be sure there is practical value in whatever you buy or in the rearrangements you make.

Fri., Feb. 14. A domestic problem may cause you concern, so it is advisable to keep clear of new obligations that are liable to cause friction. Do not borrow money with the intention of using it for luxuries. Take precaution on trips.

Sat., Feb. 15. Future prosperity might be the result of acquaintances made today. Yet it would be well not to embark on a new venture unless you are certain it will help you and your family because you could undertake something that would be beyond your ability to handle. Make your efforts fit your capacity.

SUN., Feb. 16. The Fixed Sign Cross may impel you to anger. Such an extreme is to be avoided at any time, but especially now when it could impose heavy burdens upon you. If necessary, fight with yourself to maintain harmony. Nervous exhaustion exacts an unpleasant price.

Mon., Feb. 17. If members of the family or your associates appear to be unreasonable, do not take it too much to heart. Be conciliatory, even indulgent, especially where older relatives are concerned. Refuse to pay the cost for anybody having a good time.

Tues., Feb. 18. Do not undertake legal action. If there is one pending against you, attempt to have it postponed until the Moon has passed out of adverse aspect to the Sun and Uranus. Be strategic rather than forceful. Check electrical wiring and mechanical equipment.

Wed., Feb. 19. Weed out the true from the false in making decisions today. If you permit yourself to be influenced by nebulous conditions, truth may not appear in its real light. Indecision could result unnecessarily. Have facts and figures ready when you are asked for dependable guidance.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Faith is a good thing, but you take promises today with a grain of salt, since Luna is square Neptune and conjoined Mars. Keep your mind occupied with worthwhile matters. Do not dabble in unstable or visionary projects.

Fri., Feb. 21. The powerful trine of the Moon to Saturn and Jupiter provide vibrations that are of particular aid to the impulses and dormant creative abilities. Look for diverting, informal recreation, to be spent in the company of understanding relatives or friends.

Sat., Feb. 22. Responsibility can be either lightened or removed under the aspects now prevailing. It may come through your own efforts, or through the kindness and help of others. Take advantage of the period to work out your difficulties.

SUN., Feb. 23. The Jupiter-Mercury sextile provides you with energy to do many things. Organize your efforts to make them productive. However, beware of taking the blame for the mistakes of others. Ward off such a possibility by being vigilant.

Mon., Feb. 24. Direct your enthusiasm toward a definite goal to keep yourself from going in circles. Keep your temper even, and do not be fault-finding or arbitrary. Lapses into fiery passion will burn only yourself.

Tues., Feb. 25. During the next fortnight you might make discoveries that lead to unusual new opportunities or long awaited business openings. May your talents find many outlets, bringing you such an overflow of good fortune that you are able and willing to share it with others!

Wed., Feb. 26. With Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury in friendly aspect, consolidate your efforts and really make them count. Do not treat things lightly. Give them the sincere interest they demand, and add to your activities plenty of initiative and enthusiasm. Then you will make progress.

Thurs., Feb. 27. There may be a money matter that needs adjustment. If someone is good enough to help you, do not take it as a signal to go on a spending spree. It is still necessary to watch your finances. If there is extra cash, why not invest it in your own education?

Fri., Feb. 28. Do not be impatient if economic rewards have not yet come in full measure. You can afford to wait for all the compensation you want. In the meantime, place stronger and greater accomplishment behind your claims to success.

LEO COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between July 23rd and August 22nd

NO matter how suave you may seem to people who meet you for the first time, or even to casual acquaintances, actually you are a rather emotional person with an extraordinary sense of self-dramatization. That is why you are impelled to make "the grand gesture" and attempt the heroic.

This month a rather novel situation may work itself out for your special benefit, due to the transit of the Planet Mars through your Solar Fifth House which rules dramatic effects. The zest of your own personality, together with the fiery impulse of Mars, are the ignition and fuel to your ambition. You imbue even the most ordinary tasks with the glow and glamor of your imagination.

But this romantic cycle is challenged from two directions; one the square of Neptune to Mars, casting a rather gloomy shadow on what should be a radiant design; and the other a wavering influence through the square of Mercury, giving you an unsteady impression of your importance in the scheme of things. Instead of your ego being pleasantly exhilarated by appreciation and popularity, you say to yourself: "Oh, what's the use?"

The conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn within the orb of Pluto creates a momentous vibratory period for your solar group, clamping you down to arduous duties for several years. Do not be misled by your wishes. Look behind the glitter of each golden promise. Analyze each hope to make sure that you are not being tricked by a false attraction or unsubstantial illusion.

Your birth in Leo has endowed you with a rich heritage. Its aggregate worth is many times a king's ransom. Yet it can be jeopardized through your love of ostentation. It is the function of Astrology to point out the good as well as adverse aspects. Your strong as well as weak characteristics are being etched into stark clarity now by the planetary squares and oppositions.

Sat., Feb. 1. You cannot force anyone else to be good natured, but you can do as you please about being gracious. Polished manners are not only the essence of good breeding, but they are a decided asset in regulating the business of life.

SUN., Feb. 2. Do not rely on intuition. It may be accurate enough, but at variance with reason. Better come to your conclusions through use of facts. Be self-confident enough to keep from tying yourself in a knot while trying to make a good impression.

Mon., Feb. 3. You must reason things out if you are going to do your work well and get along with other people. Luna conjoined Saturn and Jupiter in your Solar Tenth House squares your Sign, causing mismanagement and haste in words and actions. Be logical in the things you do.

Tues., Feb. 4. You are not the sole reservoir of good ideas. If the family makes a suggestion, do not be merely tolerant—the proposal may be just what is needed to meet a current situation. Make no inroads on your bank account. With the Moon conjoined Uranus, ask to be excused if someone requests a loan.

Wed., Feb. 5. Due to the Moon square Mercury your judgment may be somewhat faulty. Count ten before you decide important problems. The friendly Neptune-Venus trine should open the way to some diversion that will help restore your balance.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Be methodical, taking up each of the day's tasks as they come. Carry them through to the last detail. The luminaries are in progressive trine, aiding the full realization of your opportunities.

Fri., Feb. 7. Do not take yourself too seriously. Since the Moon opposes Mars and squares Neptune you may unwisely talk out of turn or put on a display of feeling. It would be well, too, to restrain your desire for gaiety. It could lead to complications.

Sat., Feb. 8. You may receive the flash of an extraordinary idea, so favorable are the Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury rays. But do not rely on yourself to gauge the fullness of its value. Get expert advice to determine its strong and weak points. Then you will be prepared to go ahead.

SUN., Feb. 9. Hobbies frequently turn out to be worth more than the fun you get. With Mercury sextile to Saturn you might meet someone who is interested in your avocation, perhaps leading to career or business advantages.

Mon., Feb. 10. Do not try to stretch your budget or take a chance with an investment that might be risky. Thrift and careful money management are the present necessities since without both you could easily squander all your possessions.

Tues., Feb. 11. The Lunar and Solar aspects create adverse vibrations, so it would be well to adhere strictly to your duties even though you may be tempted to seek pleasure. Dispel any inclination to sulk or be depressed.

Wed., Feb. 12. Deep in your own consciousness are the springs of honesty in mind and intention. Give them exercise in your work and in your relations with your fellow-men. The planetary setup favors sincere sentiment and purposeful interviews.

Thurs., Feb. 13. With Venus in adverse square to Saturn and Jupiter pleasure might prove costly. There is no satisfaction in having to look back on an investment that was valueless and made in a moment of reckless abandon. Why not look for means of filling your pocketbook rather than taking from it?

Fri., Feb. 14. Changes may be suggested to you, but yet not seem advisable. Security should be your first thought, for advice offered without sound backing is liable to be more spectacular than workable. Avoid worry, and do not bring pending matters to a climax.

Sat., Feb. 15. Sometimes there is an impelling urge to unburden oneself to a friend. But do so only where you will find understanding. With the Moon in Libra you should receive the desired encouragement.

SUN., Feb. 16. The magnificent Moon-Sun trine and Moon-Mars sextile bring you in contact with many people. If you meet them half-way you will benefit through their good influences. At the same time do not come under the spell of their emotional or nervous ways of showing expression.

Mon., Feb. 17. Do not compromise with your standards for living. If you do not have a personal preparedness program, map one out now. You will then be ready for whatever emergency comes.

Tues., Feb. 18. The luminaries are square to each other, and Luna opposes Uranus. Beware of the whims and fancies of your friends and associates. Yet remember that human imperfections are far outweighed by good points.

Wed., Feb. 19. Your attentions are scattered, and you are standing in the way of your own accomplishment. With the Moon passing in square to Mercury you are being persuaded to jump from one thing to another, making you inefficient. Nullify this influence by concentrating on your work.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Approach everything in a business-like attitude. Luna, conjoined Mars in your Solar Sixth House, calls for scrupulous attention to details and thoroughness in planning. Be conscientious if you want to merit approval.

Fri., Feb. 21. Just as the prick of a spur can send a racehorse dashing to victory, so can a challenge encourage you to do much better in your work. Run your race as a champion, whether you win first prize or not.

Sat., Feb. 22. Be a peacemaker by soothing feelings that are ruffled, but do not expose yourself to a tale of woe that is intended specifically as a "touch." If you are too soft-hearted it may cost you more than you can spare.

SUN., Feb. 23. It would be better if you did not try to preach today. Because the Moon is in opposition to Pluto and in adverse square to Saturn and Jupiter, be the advised instead of the adviser. Due to the friendly Mercury-Jupiter sextile engagement in a sane discussion will be of definite benefit to yourself.

Mon., Feb. 24. Distractions may be so numerous that you find difficulty in getting work done. Do your best to keep yourself occupied. Since the aspects are so favorable you may be able to get done more rapidly than would ordinarily seem possible.

Tues., Feb. 25. Draw closer the bond of sympathy and understanding between yourself and your life-mate and friends. If you should hear some plain truths today, take it with a laugh instead of a flare-up. Laughter is a universal panacea.

Wed., Feb. 26. Whether you are working with old plans or attempting to formulate new ones, do not let over-enthusiasm take you off a safe course. Let your ideas evolve slowly if you want to be assured of getting the best results.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Mercury in favorable sextile Mars makes favorable the things which might have been otherwise. For instance, perhaps you have regarded your job as a stop-gap only to find it was the best one you ever had. Also, you might have your popularity acclaimed suddenly and unexpectedly.

Fri., Feb. 28. Do not submit to unreasonable demands on your time or your resources. If you do, your help is not likely to be appreciated, no matter how good your intentions. Set yourself up as an example to show others how to stand on their own feet.

VIRGO COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between August 23rd and September 22nd

YOU are prompted by motives which are almost inexplicable to you, due to the long-continued trine between Neptune and Uranus. You are a mental type. You like everything to have a definite cause and culminate in a definite effect. But Neptune does its work through intuitions and Uranus through the imagination. The effect is an influence too subtle for logical discernment such as you like to practice.

Added to this, the Planet Mercury is now in your opposition Sign, giving a rather obscuring effect to what should be straightforward alliances with people whom you know well or of whom you are very fond. There is also the transit of Mars at the nadir of your horoscope. If you get through the month without a domestic or emotional squabble, you will have something to rejoice over. Mercury in the Seventh House stimulates your mental rather than your emotional contact with others; and Mars in your Fourth House makes you impatient with your family, accenting shortcomings which you would ordinarily care to ignore.

Your solar group, like all the others, is affected by the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction. For you this punctuates a fortunate cycle. It may act as an incentive for travel, or you may gain from matters involving distance—such as advertising or publishing. The tenure of this Jupiter-Saturn aspect will last for twenty years, quite a long time in which to establish the good things of which you are capable. Since this month winds the cosmic clock for these vibrations, you can realize how imperative it is for you to find the right road on which you are to journey toward success and prosperity. In every way, may good luck accompany you!

Sat., Feb. 1. You probably feel like doing nothing at all—ready to enjoy a little indolence. The planetary aspects favor ease and pleasure. Rest now will prove a psychological boost. After your breathing spell you will be prepared to speed ahead again.

SUN., Feb. 2. Because of the Moon-Mercury sextile you are deeply understanding and sympathetic. Perhaps you will get some first hand descriptions about the burdens of life others have to carry. You could not express your friendliness in a better way than by being a good listener.

Mon., Feb. 3. Follow up—where work is concerned. And conserve. Restrain any impulse to scatter largesse even before you have made it. It may be depressing to your ego to be reprimanded for your lavishness—but what a difference it makes when the bills come in.

Tues., Feb. 4. Sift your facts carefully if you expect to find the solution to a problem that has kept you awake nights. Helped by the trine of Venus to Neptune you should be able to separate the real from the fictitious and see your difficulties cleared.

Wed., Feb. 5. Firmness in decisions can well be a virtue, provided it is not actual stubbornness. During the Moon-Mercury square keep your mind open so that you will not miss sound advice given you.

Thurs., Feb. 6. In your life you are always going through the processes of development and replenishment. This is true whether your hours are happy or turbulent, both being to your advantage albeit sometimes disguised.

Fri., Feb. 7. Should you feel generally dissatisfied, perhaps it can be traced to the rather disorganizing Moon-Mars opposition. It is up to you to overcome that influence, and to discover that your discontent is not based on sound reasoning.

Sat., Feb. 8. In some way a special gain or profit can come to you. Help speed it by giving more than ordinary attention to details. Use strategy in working things out.

SUN., Feb. 9. With friendly Mercury and Saturn rays to animate you mentally and physically, make this day count. Use as much of your time as you can in planning your future, and in making contacts that might eventually prove valuable. Yet continue to build on a foundation for your ambitions.

Mon., Feb. 10. An awkward situation, caused by the thoughtless act of a younger person, may involve you. But you can turn it into a laughing matter if you use tact. The progressive solar vibrations help make you abundantly resourceful.

Tues., Feb. 11. A basic rule for success in your job or career is to keep business and sentiment apart. With the luminaries in discordant opposition and the Sun square Uranus, do not bring someone you love into your affairs. Show that you are capable of handling yourself. Permit your heart to flame when it should.

Wed., Feb. 12. Be generous in your relationships with others. Maintain an optimistic viewpoint and at the same time keep active your faith in your own ability and your right to the benefits of life. The friendly Jupiter and Saturn rays may help you find new friends this month.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Let your deepest wishes remain dormant within you. Be willing to abandon, outwardly, the pursuit of your ideal, but do not be excessively sorry for yourself nor blame Fate. Rather fortunate things in store for your Solar group after a short wait.

Fri., Feb. 14. Due to the adverse Moon-Mars square people are often excitable and even reckless. Since this condition may prevail now, it is well to postpone appointments until there is a quieter period.

Sat., Feb. 15. Someone may ask for your advice. Give it, without taking on yourself any added burdens. Be a quieting, comforting influence to anyone who is upset or not well. Whether Astrology is your profession or pastime, turn to it for information and inspiration.

SUN., Feb. 16. The Moon, Sun and Mars aspects increase your strength of expression and your capacity for performing good work. Go about your tasks with a feeling that accomplishment can be yours if you desire it. If you plan to entertain this evening, there are good aspects for success.

Mon., Feb. 17. If you feel you must get your opinions out in the open, write them—instead of saying them—then wait until tomorrow to read them over. You may find your views have changed.

Tues., Feb. 18. Limit your associations to people who are progressive and ambitious. The Neptune vibrations make it possible for you to adapt yourself easily. Let your good taste be an asset as well as an investment at this time.

Wed., Feb. 19. Expedite your work and make a special effort to do it well. On the lighter side of your life, the Moon-Venus sextile contributes to your social advantages. Have a good time by providing pleasure for others.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Criticism frequently can be turned to good account, so do not waste time resenting well-intentioned comment. It might be the start of some needed self-analysis. Do not become involved in excitement that hovers near you and prevent distractions from upsetting your normal routine.

Fri., Feb. 21. This is a day when you should tie up loose ends and apply yourself patiently to the many details of your work in your office or at home. Since the Moon trine Saturn and Jupiter is favorable, arrange credit matters and execute contracts or other papers.

Sat., Feb. 22. Both business and romance are supported by the aspects. Attend to the business first and you may find that whether it is money you are after or professional recognition, either or both are coming your way. Then surrender yourself to leisure and romance.

SUN., Feb. 23. Precision in thinking and acting is in demand, for you may be called on for counsel in which you may have to make a decision. Get all the facts. The sextile rays between Mercury and Jupiter should help bring you inspiration.

Mon., Feb. 24. Your opinion will be sought on important matters, and you will be justified in giving it, provided you do not assume burdens not your own. Protect your money. Be a quieting, comforting influence to anyone who is upset or ill.

Tues., Feb. 25. Gaiety and good humor are the antidotes for the psychological woes which so often bring on depression. Be sympathetic as well as amusing by lifting the veil of gloom for someone who has the doldrums.

Wed., Feb. 26. Help someone in distress, send cheering messages, write encouraging letters, and buy birthday or other anniversary gifts. Entertain, if you can. This is a day for good deeds and for spreading happiness.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Mercury in favorable aspect to dynamic Mars stimulates mental work. Your interest in current events, politics, economics and world affairs in general should prove useful. Be ready to continue your helpful advice to those who need it.

Fri., Feb. 28. Results may not come easily today, and you will have to work hard even if you do not want to. It might seem that accomplishment is far from attained and is difficult, but draw on your resolute energy to overcome the opposing influences. You will feel better for making the effort.

LIBRA COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between September 23rd and October 22nd

YOU do not like to be fooled with high-sounding promises which seldom materialize. You are an optimist, but since you were born when the Sun was in the Cardinal Air Sign Libra, you conversely never became an extremist even in your skepticism.

You are in the center of things, as it were. You want to know what has been and what is to be. Due to your balanced instincts, the astrological emblem of your Sign is, quite logically, "the Scales." All of which is important to the present cycle set into motion by the trine of the Sun and Venus to your Sign.

You feel that you want to take chances, and are carried away by your enthusiasm. But the Planet Mercury is in your Solar Sixth House which rules your work, in Sign opposition to the Planet Neptune in the Twelfth House which rules hidden motives. So you see-saw in your opinions, with one day rapidly following the next until on the 26th when the Sun conjoins Mercury and your misgivings have increased to a distressing level.

The Planet Mars in your Third House stirs you up mentally. To help make sure that you do not lose interest in your immediate task, a close relative may take over the job of being your mentor, giving you advice and suggestions—much to your annoyance. In the long run you will agree that this sort of driving was just what you needed to get the best results. It would be rather easy for you to allow your ambitions to lag, due to the direct influence of the Saturn-Jupiter conjunction in your Solar Eighth House. The Planet Mars comes along in the nick of time to exert a strong pressure on your intellect and through family bonds, setting your "scales" at the proper angle.

Whatever you do this month will have an enduring quality, so make sure it adds to your prestige and is under the auspices and sanction of recognized authority.

Sat., Feb. 1. Tales of foreign lands may fascinate you. To learn the manners and customs of other nations means an increase of knowledge which is broadening. Only the ignorant regard their small niche in the world as the only important spot in the Universe.

SUN., Feb. 2. Instead of being sensitive to each force that wants to act upon your mood, seek the peacefulness of poise and serenity. Perform some kindly act which could spread happiness and gratitude.

Mon., Feb. 3. Maintain your balance even if others lose theirs. Be a hermit in a crowd, if necessary, until you can get all the help you need from friends and associates. Stand firmly on your own feet.

Tues., Feb. 4. Do not bother about petty things. If ignored, they will probably adjust themselves. Give as little attention as possible to fault-finding unless you think a word of your own will help smooth things. Watch your income and expenditures.

Wed., Feb. 5. Keep poised and rely upon inner harmony to carry through the day with flying colors. Forces of discord which may test your self-control are at work but their very strength may aid you to put through some especially difficult matter.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Your progress may be made easier if you heed the seasoned advice of those who want to be of help. If opportunity should present itself today, embrace it. You may soon have the chance to return the favor.

Fri., Feb. 7. Apply vigilance to everything so that you will be assured of accuracy and skip all false steps. Think things over first, and then act. In that way you will avoid the pitfalls which lie in your way.

Sat., Feb. 8. An excellent day for artistic achievement. The scope of your imagination is limitless during the existing vibrations. Keep yourself busy. As Edison said, "Perspiration is nine-tenths of genius."

SUN., Feb. 9. There can be comfort and spiritual revival in silence and meditation. Try it, no matter for how short a period. Your subconscious mind might reveal to you many ways in which you can contribute to your own welfare and that of your dear ones.

Mon., Feb. 10. Keep your mind nimble and ready to solve your own problems. Since outside advice might prove erroneous, be satisfied with planning and preparing your own activities. Do not take risks with money or your health, for you might undo some of the fine work already established to your credit.

Tues., Feb. 11. There are times when things do not move smoothly and when relationships with others seem inclined to be unbalanced. This can be such a time. Keep steady. Use reason. Be careful that you don't lose through either fear or over-confidence. Stick to routine. Take no chances.

Wed., Feb. 12. Do some serious thinking about your future because your tendency is to be inspirational and creative—avoiding reality. If you have been drifting aimlessly, stop and rechart the direction in which you want to go. The vibrations are good for dealing with lawyers and family assets.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Mind your valuables and papers. You may find yourself in the midst of activity requiring the quick use of your wits and information. Be sure everything is quickly adaptable to the situation; otherwise there could be loss. Expected fun may turn out to be a dud.

Fri., Feb. 14. Try to keep your mental faculties sharp in spite of the inharmonious Moon-Mars square. Attend to what you have to do and make concessions with a smile. Hold social matters in abeyance this evening. Your time would be better spent reading, writing or relaxing.

Sat., Feb. 15. Catch up on your correspondence, make calls and plan entertainment. Devise new ways of decorating your home, or take advantage of the influences favorable for beauty and art. New acquaintances can bring sunshine and warmth into your life.

SUN., Feb. 16. Extend your spiritual scope. It may not only give you inward satisfaction, but it is gratifying to know that others who look to you for guidance will heed your example. Under the inspiration afforded by the vibrations you might have the occasion to do something unusual.

Mon., Feb. 17. In planning your activities, make allowances for the uncertain factors. If you do, you might prevent disappointment. Balance the day with reading and good music. Why not use this time to write letters you have neglected.

Tues., Feb. 18. Should you be facing an employment problem, seek the aid of good friends to speak for you to those in authority. Keep an accounting of all your cash and other material assets, whether large or small.

Wed., Feb. 19. Be as conscientious and thorough as you like, but do not be unduly concerned about trifles. Prevent disagreements by maintaining your own type of serenity.

Romance, music and the theatre could give you pleasure and mental appeasement in the evening.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Success is more certain if you get down to the basic foundations of your plans and problems. Do not let your imagination run away with you. Keep clear of explosives, verbal and physical.

Fri., Feb. 21. Sentiment could play an important part in your life. Perhaps a visit to the scenes of your childhood would afford a nice holiday. Increase or start a savings account. Resources of others can stabilize your affairs, but you should build up your own reserves to work for best advantage.

Sat., Feb. 22. Valuable suggestions may result in transforming financial liabilities into assets, since Luna is favorably aspected to the Planets Neptune, Uranus and Venus. If you have some plans which have been neglected, take them out of the mothballs now and carry them to conclusion.

SUN., Feb. 23. This may be a period of friction, but do your best to minimize the difficulty and make order out of chaos. There is nothing to be gained by giving way to unwelcomed excitement. Get into the proper mood early and work hard the rest of the day.

Mon., Feb. 24. Venus is in adverse square to the Planet Uranus. Use care with social, partnership and competitive matters. Tolerance, patience and humility can assist you in getting around troublesome situations. Do not try to hurry things of importance.

Tues., Feb. 25. Give all the possible stimulus you can to some phase of your work which has new and unusual opportunities. By injecting fresh ideas into your regular program you may find a revival of the prospects for success.

Wed., Feb. 26. Try to be generous without being extravagant; genial without seeming to swagger; active without being ostentatious, while the planetary influences help generate excess in even good qualities. Do not put on a show. It may give a wrong impression.

Thurs., Feb. 27. With Mercury in favorable sextile to Mars, this can be an out-of-the-ordinary day if you are investigative and ambitious enough to rise above mediocre production and actively promote your claim to success. Gains are yours if you but reach out for them. Forget personal peevess.

Fri., Feb. 28. Look out for severance of old ties and connections. Be reasonable when relatives and associates are concerned. Unorthodox moves may cause tempers to rise, so do not say or do anything that might arouse disagreeable reaction. Quick thinking can save you from trouble.

SCORPIO COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between October 23rd and November 22nd

IF you could read the aspects in your horoscope, you would be amazed at the influences which are at work in your behalf. It is not that Nature is handing you a gold mine on a silver platter. Even if that were possible, it would scarcely be your idea of good luck.

Instead, the aspects in your horoscope show a new cycle that will demand of you the use of courage, enterprise, and cooperation.

The need to tussle with difficulties is deeply ingrained in your character. To you conquest loses its importance when the going is too easy. You want the satisfaction of using your prowess against your adversaries. This wish will be gratified in the years to come, due to the conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in your Solar Seventh House which rules other people in your life. You will be able to make terms with them through mutual adjustments. Your life mate and business associates are affected by the vibrations of this configuration, so it behooves you to be straightforward yet circumspect with them.

When you want to make demands, you must also be prepared to make concessions. Everything in your life, for a long time, will be a matter of giving as well as taking. This chapter will be the most significant in your book of experience, and also the most voluminous. You will come to depend on other people, and they will depend on you.

In all truth, this month introduces a new future for you in which the minor vibrations must take second place. The forepart of the month you will be busy earning and spending money. Your household should also be a very busy place. The respite from domestic activities comes toward the latter part of the month when you will be entertained and feted. Accept and extend all the invitations you can.

Sat., Feb. 1. There are powerful vibrations for your business affairs and progress. Conferences may be held successfully. Sell, seek assistance, and use your persuasion to bring others to mutual agreement.

SUN., Feb. 2. In planning your expenses, set aside part of the money for charity and philanthropy. Use some of your kindness in entertaining friends, and let your sympathy go to someone who needs your cheer and help. Good deeds bring special blessings at this time.

Mon., Feb. 3. The Moon is adverse to Pluto and Saturn, so guard your words and actions. Break down all opposition, but be sure your over-confidence does not get you into trouble. Arbitrate differences and try to be conciliatory.

Tues., Feb. 4. Worry and discontent have no place in your life while Venus is in friendly trine to Neptune. Be methodical in your desire to win support, and get started on the way to success by raising to a higher level your ambitions. Do not waste time in useless mental explorations.

Wed., Feb. 5. There comes a time when it is just as well to do nothing, or at least, as little as possible. Finish detailed work and devote yourself to the minor demands of the day. Spend the evening with a good book.

Thurs., Feb. 6. With the luminaries in favorable trine, work at solving some of your personal problems. Perhaps if you bestow your affections they will go a long way toward clearing up misunderstandings and small unpleasanties. Make use of the aspects to get rid of petty annoyances.

Fri., Feb. 7. Do not let inertia grip you. Keep going, but don't expect things to move by leaps and bounds. Nor should you start a new venture; its progress will be too slow to suit your eagerness.

Sat., Feb. 8. While the Moon is aspected beneficially to Jupiter and Saturn, free yourself from the doubts which have held you in check and prevented your advancement. Experiment. Try out new ideas. Discuss your hopes with sympathetic friends.

SUN., Feb. 9. You feel that your mental horizon is extended and you can see further into the future than usual. Start formulating long range plans. If you like to entertain, this afternoon would be a good time for it.

Mon., Feb. 10. You need more than personality if you are to succeed. You must demonstrate your ability, and prove you are capable as well as pleasant. Be forthright in what you do and say. It will be more effective than smooth talk and overly polite actions.

Tues., Feb. 11. Obstacles may get in your way, appointments may be broken, plans may go wrong, but if you permit yourself to be a victim of self-pity it will be doubly difficult to handle your problems. Make the most of what does go right, and plan for the new day.

Wed., Feb. 12. Search out and analyze opposition. Overcome it with cautious effort and tact. Luna trine Saturn and Jupiter is admirable for adjusting legal matters. Such settlements should turn out satisfactory for all.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Venus is in adverse square to Saturn and Jupiter. Sentimentality should be sidestepped. Be sure your feelings are sincere before you give way to what might only be a passing fancy. Say nothing you will regret later, particularly to anyone with whom you work.

Fri., Feb. 14. You may feel adventurous, with an urge to roam, but from an astrological viewpoint this is not advisable. Be patient, for your elation now may quickly turn into despondency. Common sense should be the sounding board of emotions.

Sat., Feb. 15. New and exciting matters may arise, demanding attention. Select and develop those which contribute to your personal reputation, but be careful with those of a public nature because the conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter in your Solar Seventh House is not favorable. Be sure you are familiar with the contents of letters and documents you sign.

SUN., Feb. 16. Find enough work to keep your hands busy. Take delight in your own accomplishments, but also devote sufficient time for relaxation with congenial friends and to the contemplation of spiritual things.

Mon., Feb. 17. Adjust yourself to conditions as they arise. Haste will not help today while there is a chance of stumbling into trouble. Neither should you take disappointing news too seriously, or pay attention to jealousy.

Tues., Feb. 18. Do not let your optimism be lessened because you are restrained. Discharge your duties with scrupulous care, even if you do not get the pat on the back you think you deserve.

Wed., Feb. 19. Conditions are favorable for advancement, but they could be adversely influenced by an under-current of apprehension. With proper tact let others know you have confidence in yourself, and that your knowledge and your ability are sound.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Your progress depends upon the work you are doing. To handle your work with success, see that your attention is not divided. If you have frequent interruptions, use your sense of humor while chasing out the disrupting visitors.

Fri., Feb. 21. Give serious thought to financial questions, because casual consideration might lead to worries. This is a good time to make major purchases and to meet exacting requirements. If you take a trip, route it on well-traveled highways.

Sat., Feb. 22. Keep both your hopes and your purposes high. Following vigorously your ideas for self-betterment, including those which might bring you publicity. Collect out-standing loans, and make an attempt to get a raise in salary.

SUN., Feb. 23. Let circumstances follow their own course instead of trying to direct them. If domestic affairs are in a state of excitement, do not make too much of an effort to quiet them. They will calm themselves, with no harm done. In the evening be a good listener—not a loud dissenter.

Mon., Feb. 24. There are days when nothing seems to go right. This may be one of them. Do not let minor annoyances challenge your poise and patience. Keep busy. A little hard work and reasoning will steer you out of trouble.

Tues., Feb. 25. Do not expect achievement to come to you on a magic carpet. Only your ability plus hard work will bring it. The vibrations quicken the tempo and make possible some outstanding developments. If you try, you can make unusual progress in the realm of your special talents.

Wed., Feb. 26. Mobilize your powers of will and performance, give vitality to your confidence, and carry out your tasks cheerfully. Get a lot done, and in the evening seek satisfaction for your leisure hours.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Be self-propelling. Do not wait to be pushed. If you have a worthwhile venture in mind, start it. Talk, plan, work. By cooperating with yourself you have learned one of the fundamentals for efficient living.

Fri., Feb. 28. Do not overload yourself with more than you can reasonably handle. Use the assistance you have at hand. Concentrate only on matters demanding your personal and immediate attention.

SAGITTARIUS COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between November 23rd and December 21st

YOUR personality is warmed and your enthusiasm increased because the fiery Planet Mars is transiting your Sign. Since you scorn taking second place, perhaps you can use your excess vim to excel as a leader, or accept an assignment that makes you the undisputed executive of your circle.

This is quite within the realm of possibility, except for some hampering conditions brought by the presence of Neptune in your Solar Tenth House which rules your career. Though you are aggressive and as a rule delight in the challenge of provocative creations, you may find the current element of uncertainty a bit too much even for your adventurous ways. There is an enormous difference between courage and foolhardy optimism. It is the latter which is signified by the Mars-Neptune square on the 12th. It would be folly to take risks that involve your reputation or security.

This weak spot is balanced by the fortifying rays of the Sun and Venus in your House which rules intellect. No matter what impelling force is driving you on, keep your mind steady and your ideas flexible. You are able, almost without conscious volition, to come to the right conclusion about most things. Do not surrender that ability now.

This most influential aspect of the month occurs in your Sixth House in which Jupiter and Saturn are conjoined. This will affect your work for a long time to come. If you value your job, do not become temperamental. At the same time, if you want to be worthy of a bigger income than heretofore, be conscientious in your efforts.

Sat., Feb. 1. Do not be indifferent to your routine responsibilities; they are as important as your moments of inspiration. If the object of your ambition is not clear in your mind, work it out and then determine to make it a reality. Ask aid from someone you helped in the past if you are looking for a job or selling a service.

SUN., Feb. 2. Desiring a thing is not enough—you must back it up with actual efforts. Do this and the strain of uncertainty will pass. Avoid new obligations and making sharp remarks. If you have had a squabble, forgive and make up.

Mon., Feb. 3. Throw up your job if you must, but you will soon regret the hasty decision. Continue with your present work even though you are dissatisfied. Matters will smooth out themselves. Padlock your bank account if you feel tempted to gamble on a daring scheme.

Tues., Feb. 4. There are favorable vibrations for spiritual and artistic matters, but not for commercial projects. Seek pleasures through family and friends. This is a time to cement friendships. Spend money on entertainment, but be sensible about it.

Wed., Feb. 5. You may get a glimpse of the dream you have been striving to make true, or your work may bring you into contact with a person whose friendly interest will be invaluable. Turn deaf ears to calamity howlers. If you pause before jumping a hurdle you cannot make a successful jump. Take it on the run.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Enjoy the sunshine and air and the bounties of nature. Do not place too much importance on worldly things. Seek beauty where you can. Enter wholeheartedly into recreation.

Fri., Feb. 7. Let persistent desires dissipate themselves before they lead to disagreements and entanglements. If the nerves of others are ragged, stay away until the even edge is restored. Restrain your instincts to gamble. Do not defy authority in your urge to escape monotony.

Sat., Feb. 8. Some effort you thought fruitless may suddenly yield a profit. Perhaps unexpected cash will materialize, or a wave of prosperity come your way. This is an appropriate time to reciprocate for benefits received and to prepare for the future.

SUN., Feb. 9. Every now and then there seems to be a perfect day as though that special segment of eternity were set aside for the fulfilment of spiritual nobility. This Sabbath is indeed blessed with harmonious vibrations for sympathy and faith.

Mon., Feb. 10. If you are timid and apprehensive you will doubt your own abilities. Why underestimate yourself when confidence is so necessary to overcome competition and other handicaps? For the sake of your happiness, differentiate between imaginary and real difficulties.

Tues., Feb. 11. Avoid loss and waste through nervous or hasty action. Stop and think before undertaking unfamiliar duties. Keep details well under control to prevent a tangle. Have little to say with gossip peddlers.

Wed., Feb. 12. Welcome new opportunities and get out of them all the good they offer. Do not let the day pass without an extra effort for self-improvement. Work on current plans and establish a solid foundation for the future. The Moon, Jupiter and Saturn are beneficently aspected today.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Hopelessness was never a spur to success. Do not lose your sense of values. Keep your balance, veering even toward conservatism. Give time and attention to the things with which you are familiar; experimentation is not for you. Think twice before you speak or act.

Fri., Feb. 14. Stick to the reality. There may be some difficulty in accepting a decision about an important matter. But in correcting it do not try to take the initiative yourself; leave that to others.

Sat., Feb. 15. If you cannot follow your ideas through, let someone else use them, either for cash or for dividends to be paid later. There is no reason why your plans should be a complete loss when it is possible to make them yield something, however small.

SUN., Feb. 16. The vibrations are harmonious for sympathy, understanding and love. Reciprocate kindness, or do good merely because you enjoy life and desire to make it worthwhile. The future holds as many advantages and opportunities as were ever offered in the past.

Mon., Feb. 17. You may be tempted to neglect important matters and lapse into inertia, due to the Moon's adverse relationship to Saturn, Jupiter and Venus. But lost time can never be regained. Since you are capable of success don't relax your vigilance now.

Tues., Feb. 18. Things may not seem easy to accomplish, but if you draw on your experiences and give your work concentrated attention, appreciable progress will result. Use your ingenuity in handling critical or fussy people. A little extra effort will help you get through the day.

Wed., Feb. 19. You may need a lot of patience, clever thinking and managing to get things accomplished. Yet an occasional test of your resourcefulness, ability and stamina is desirable. It gives you greater confidence. Knowing how to please others is a valuable asset.

Thurs., Feb. 20. You may have some difficulty in determining your line of action because the Moon is in adverse square to Neptune and conjoined Mars. It is safer to follow normal courses than take chances with the strange and uncertain things. Do not pay attention to flattery.

Fri., Feb. 21. Look for new openings that may offer substantial benefits. Do not be afraid just because an idea is novel. If you have papers to sign, credit matters to arrange, or short journeys to take, do it today.

Sat., Feb. 22. This is a favorable time to write, travel, execute contracts and buy clothes. Make every effort to accomplish all that you are able. Do not find fault with persons lacking enthusiasm or animation. Be sure your own humor is kept at high peak when criticism is aimed at you.

SUN., Feb. 23. If you feel unhappy about world occurrences, turn your thoughts to religion and philosophy. There is no need for hopelessness. Nothing can prevail permanently against the rights of mankind.

Mon., Feb. 24. Take time to investigate before condemning what you hear and see. Though surface appearances may impress you unfavorably, get to the real facts for honest understanding. When in doubt, obey the dictates of your conscience.

Tues., Feb. 25. Believe in the sincerity of someone who tries to be pleasant. There is no use being suspicious of compliments merely because they sound fulsome. Make a few gallant speeches yourself if you want to show you don't take social patter too seriously.

Wed., Feb. 26. Bring your personal assets into prominence, giving fresh impetus and new vitality to what you do. You may find warmth and friendliness replacing the usual austere caution of business executives. Be equally kind to anyone asking your assistance. Keep your ambitions high and your desires undefeatable.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Re-define your own philosophy. You may find it easy to alter some of your convictions you had previously thought changeless. Do not be arbitrary or stubborn. Create cordial relationships with new acquaintances, but first ascertain whether they are entitled to your trust.

Fri., Feb. 28. Changes concerning your income and security are not advisable. Refuse to follow out suggestions which are more spectacular than substantial. Spend your surplus only—not the money you expect next month.

CAPRICORN COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between December 22nd and January 19th

YOU have an uncanny conception of economics because your Sign is in zodiacal trine to Taurus. You are inherently prudent, no matter on what scale you live. This aptitude for earning and saving is at its crest right now, due to the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction in trine configuration to your Sign.

Your chief risk is due to the transit of Pluto in your Solar Eighth House, giving you a distorted view of inheritance, insurance, annuity, and gift donations. Be sure that with all your prudence you do not get caught in a snare of avariciousness.

The Sun and Venus in your Solar Second House which rules your income, give you the impulse this month to spend money for social pleasures. Since you need diversion, invest in a good time. Such spending, under the right auspices, usually yields profitable dividends in friendship and relaxation.

You are rarely carried away by enthusiasm beyond the zone of safety. Yet there is no accounting for the fiery effect of the Planet Mars. Even earth, a most stable element, is shattered when volcanic eruptions begin. Something of this eruptive excitement may enter your life simultaneously with the beginning of the bi-annual transit of the Planet Mars through your Sign. The mountain peaks where lodges "the Goat", symbol of the Earth Sign Capricorn, may feel the trembles of the Mars vibrations. The effect, though not unpleasant, may bewilder you, because you like everything to remain settled as it was originally. It is good to have a fire inside or outside your house, so long as you can control it. This you can do now with marked efficiency, making the Mars transit of considerable value to you.

Sat., Feb. 1. Bring out your best talent, but not for display. It should serve a useful purpose. By using your resourcefulness and originality in the right proportion you can go far in your career. In anything which requires mental aptitude you are likely to be tops this month.

SUN., Feb. 2. Interest yourself in local activities where your sympathy and understanding can be used to speed up efficiency. Be a group leader in raising funds for a hospital or for a self-help community project.

Mon., Feb. 3. The ties of friendship may snap suddenly unless you control yourself. Face unflinchingly every situation, however serious it seems, and you will be the victor. Liberate yourself from inhibitions and reach decisions with the freedom of thought you should rightly exercise.

Tues., Feb. 4. Do not wait for success—go out and get it. One way is to establish friendly contact with those who can be of help. During the process you will find your mental processes quickened, reflecting your desire for progress. Unexpected favors are indicated by the Venus and Neptune rays.

Wed., Feb. 5. Common sense and practical methods will solve your problems. Just stick to your job and do not let trivial things divert you. Do not waste your time on things of minor significance which do not count.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Industrial matters, labor relations, anything dealing with invention, and creative work generally are well aspected for you. Put tradition aside for the moment and look for results with modern methods. Mold nebulous thoughts into tangible results. Show the world what you can do.

Fri., Feb. 7. With the Moon in adverse to Mars and Neptune realize the necessity of judging all questions and conditions in their true light—not as you would like to have them. Moderate your speed, mentally, physically and emotionally. Look out for the possible hazards. Gambling and recklessness could end disastrously.

Sat., Feb. 8. Your relationships with individuals and the public should be built on the basis of cooperation and diplomacy. If you can't spare money in promoting the good suggestions of others, at least offer your recognition of their abilities.

SUN., Feb. 9. The day is astrologically favored for settling money matters and writing letters. You can get results from contacting well-informed people. If you need help in some specific instances, make a direct approach to those in power.

Mon., Feb. 10. Everything may seem out of order. Keep to yourself, and put all of your attention on those things most pressing. Do not waste time cultivating connections which may be neither lasting nor valuable. Be conscientious in everything you do.

Tues., Feb. 11. Do not speculate or sign your name to unfamiliar papers, especially while the luminaries are in adverse square to Uranus in your Solar Fifth House. Things begun today will be short-lived. Economize on time and cash. Postpone appointments and discount promises if you find people erratic.

Wed., Feb. 12. Make changes or revisions in connection with home and property matters. Devote some time to salvaging or making an inventory of your goods. Psychic studies, occult lectures, and creative matters are excellent outlets for energy in the evening.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Stay out of high altitudes, off ledges and open windows, and away from other hazards. Watch your footing wherever you walk, and be careful of face and eye injuries. Treachery and danger are in the atmosphere. Do not try to smash speed records.

Fri., Feb. 14. Be careful about cash outlays. Stay clear of emotional upsets. Give undivided attention to your work. There is less chance of trouble if you keep occupied. Find success within your own abilities.

Sat., Feb. 15. This is the beginning of an excellent cycle in which to analyze and appraise your desires and ambitions. Make a thorough examination to determine what you really want from life. Love, marriage, money and deeply personal matters may be advanced in just the direction you want.

SUN., Feb. 16. Your happiness may flower amazingly in the light of sympathetic understanding and approval from a business associate or your life mate. It is pleasant to know that those working shoulder to shoulder with you are ready to help you in almost every emergency.

Mon., Feb. 17. Avoid impulsive action. Reduce everything to a practical basis, and guard against personal entanglements. Balance your budget and pay off all the debts you can. You will feel better and at the same time preserve your credit.

Tues., Feb. 18. Do what you can to rectify mistakes. Make no attempt to run away from them. Avoid accidents and arguments. Today there may be a test of your will-power and self-control. As the planets are in adverse square, spend your time and money discriminately.

Wed., Feb. 19. Do not let your mind dwell on the hardships of the past. Gloom seldom pays dividends. Joy speeds your efforts, and enables you to go far. Spend a few hours at home to please the family.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Impatience and nervous energy are everywhere, but restrain your haste and emotionalism. Be a hermit, if necessary. Refuse to let monotony irk you. Instead, give yourself over to deep thinking. You will be surprised how helpful it can be.

Fri., Feb. 21. Your inventive ability should be given scope today. Work quietly to create and originate. Revamp old things and old methods. Concentrate on that which is practical. A friend or member of the family may have a usable idea for you.

Sat., Feb. 22. If you are in business, now is the time to broadcast the scope of your wares. If you represent others, benefit through commissions is indicated. Keep on your toes, ready to handle any situation capably if there are calls or interviews on your schedule.

SUN., Feb. 23. Let sunlight into your consciousness and dispel the darkness of nervous fears. Allow family matters to take their own course, for there is not much you can do about them. Give your mind peace by listening to an inspiring talk or reading a book.

Mon., Feb. 24. Do not let mistakes of the past make you timorous about the future. Be reasonably cautious and there will be no cause to retain the vestiges of fear in your mind. To be a victim of doubt is always a barrier to advancement.

Tues., Feb. 25. Make plans and arrangements in cooperation with others. Develop original ideas and work out methods to promote them. Follow your hunches. In practically every line of business and personal endeavor your ability should find useful employment.

Wed., Feb. 26. You have every reason to be hopeful where your desires and ambitions are concerned. But do more than wait—work to achieve your ends. This is a vital period for use of ingenuity and courage toward definite objectives. Take time off for love and admiration of beauty.

Thurs., Feb. 27. If you fail to convince someone about a particular proposition, it does not mean you have to abandon your entire project. Look for other methods of carrying out your project. If you must entertain, do so on a small scale.

Fri., Feb. 28. Take up your problems one by one and settle those which offer quick and easy solution. Do not try for mass accomplishment. Watch your expenditures. Keep your emotions within bounds to prevent nervousness. The Mars vibrations are unfavorable for exploitation of your own desires.

AQUARIUS COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between January 20th and February 18th

TRANSITING your Sign is the Sun, also the Planet Venus which rules affection and the social amenities. These vibrations radiate a warm glow over your disposition which, in turn, causes you to spread friendliness and cheer. This is just what you like, since your Sign rules friendship. You are conscious of your precious attributes, and want to make sure you use them where they do the most good. Your sympathy and sincerity enable you to understand the problems of those who seek your counsel, and allow you to give them encouragement and faith, despite setbacks they encounter.

But you are also on the receiving end this month. Though the favorable aspects are worth a good deal, the cumulative value may be realized by someone else rather than by you. You are used to unbalanced remuneration by this time, because for about a dozen years the Planet Neptune has been in your Solar Eighth House diverting your gains and assets in a most inexplicable way.

You are reluctant to take well-meant advice, due to the influence of Uranus, Saturn, and Jupiter in your Solar Fourth House. You prefer to blunder along as best you can. But the seeming detriment of the squares and oppositions to your Sign is a blessing in disguise. You are kept so busy with domestic and business problems that you have no time to bother with subterfuge or enigmas.

Things usually straighten out for you of their own accord. Right now they may seem at sixes and sevens, but there is a direction and sweep to the configurations which shows the ultimate rise of your career and reputation beyond the confines of your present environment. Perhaps Nature is grooming you for unexpected fame. However do not bank on hearsay. Look toward the future—but work like a beaver.

Sat., Feb. 1. If you are obliged to trust anyone with a family secret, take practical means to see that it is kept confidential. Avoid nervousness, worry, fretfulness and irritability, for they might color your judgment and lead you to do and say the wrong thing.

SUN., Feb. 2. If uncertainties fill your mind, why not find recourse by visiting friends. It is better than being alone just now. Keep all matters down-to-earth, and do not take any mental flights.

Mon., Feb. 3. Waive suggestions claimed to be infallible. Insist upon seeing the proof in everything to keep from receiving goods of inferior value. Do not listen to or repeat gossip, nor associate with persons of questionable character.

Tues., Feb. 4. Plans inaugurated today may prove either unsubstantial or troublesome. Be skeptical about the integrity of those who suggest a short cut to wealth. If you make a mistake, admit it immediately. It will waylay antagonism.

Wed., Feb. 5. You may meet opposition in your efforts, but if in your heart you believe you are right, criticism or resistance should not be able to turn you aside. As a crusader, you may have difficult experiences, but your inspired persistence will do much in the way of fostering better understanding of ideals and principles.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Matters pertaining to publicity, advertising and selling are favored, but outside of these things do not let yourself be stampeded into extravagance or ill-advised action. Investigate before you approve methods or devices claimed as energy and money economizers.

Fri., Feb. 7. A badly timed remark or an imprudent act could make you the center of a violent argument. Do not give encouragement to the thought that you are abused or unappreciated. Look at the difficulties of others and be thankful for your own good fortunes.

Sat., Feb. 8. Brighten the outlook of someone who is burdened with sadness. Your own contentment will be a worthy compensation, for some woes are calmed only by spiritual salves. The favorable Mercury, Saturn and Jupiter vibrations are excellent for spreading happiness.

SUN., Feb. 9. Extraordinary vibrations may inspire and stimulate you mentally. Stories of adventure and accomplishment stir the ambition and imagination. Be dramatic, gay, and optimistic about the future while Saturn and Mercury are in friendly sextile.

Mon., Feb. 10. Tact and patience are needed if things are to run smoothly. To get along with varying temperaments and dispositions, avoid controversy. If you have an attack of nerves and desire escape, better overlook it. You will feel better tomorrow.

Tues., Feb. 11. Do not spread your attentions over diverse interests. There will be a lot of confusion if you do. Even a little carelessness or forgetfulness could cause unnecessary expense, delay, or an accident. Haste will be accompanied by waste today.

Wed., Feb. 12. A fine period for hospitality. Spend your money wisely on entertainment. Stay within the domestic area if you want to make a good impression. There are excellent vibrations for gaining valuable information through reading or social contacts.

Thurs., Feb. 13. Matters of inheritance require skillful handling. Take precautions against legal upsets as well as delays caused by overly conservative persons. Hide your annoyance if your policies are criticised. Much of your success depends on your emotions and how you direct them.

Fri., Feb. 14. Be careful with your investments. Do not rely on statistics unless they have been proved authentic. There are indications that you will be required to take on an unexpected burden, but remember that responsibility and achievement go together. To deserve distinction, be ready to be distinguished.

Sat., Feb. 15. Work on personal matters, ask favors, attend to social obligations, further artistic enterprises, shop, and have a good time. Find compensation for your vocational efforts. Rise to each occasion by being sincerely anticipatory.

SUN., Feb. 16. You have a sense of mental and spiritual well-being that may be akin to exaltation. Give consideration to the great needs of humanity and do what you can to develop the harmony that will wipe out hate and intolerance.

Mon., Feb. 17. If figuratively you walk on the clouds, do so as gracefully and securely as possible. While boasting about your home and loved ones, guard secrets to prevent someone from making capital on what you reveal. Do not use slipshod psychology. It will increase the worry and trouble you want to minimize.

Tues., Feb. 18. This is not the time to harbor ill-feeling. Smoldering resentment could leave a lasting scar. Watch your mental and physical conduct as you might an explosion of temperament or an expected accident.

Wed., Feb. 19. Do your own thinking. If what you get is not all you desire, learn to be satisfied. Make yourself content with the present, for you can subsist neither on the past nor the future.

Thurs., Feb. 20. Why talk about your troubles when the telling may bring you reproach instead of the sympathy you seek? The adverse Moon, Neptune and Mars influence can create emotional as well as physical turmoil—so keep your peace.

Fri., Feb. 21. Tune in on the changing tempo of the times, for everything is rich in possibilities and dynamic in purpose. This is a period for trial and experiment. Do not let precedent hold you back. Develop the utility of your present assets, and put effort behind matters that hold prospects for the future.

Sat., Feb. 22. Whether you take personal command of the show or pull strings from the background, use your own ideas to increase success and accomplishment. Any project that is worth doing needs enthusiastic leadership and trained managerial attributes to give it the proper send-off.

SUN., Feb. 23. Take a firm stand for your faith so that no radical notions need collide against your desire for contentment. At the same time, if you are too cocky about your own beliefs you might stir up a minor rebellion among your adherents. Be a neutral.

Mon., Feb. 24. Unless you are careful you may find yourself involved in a discussion that is a complete waste of precious minutes. You may also have cause to fret over making a larger donation than you desired. A change in scene should restore your balance.

Tues., Feb. 25. A new occupation, probably in a different sphere, would work to your advantage. Perhaps you will be offered a better job or more pay, or be assigned to a duty calling for specialized abilities. Whatever arrangements are made, be certain they will remain unshaken. If you wish to be reconciled with some one, try it today.

Wed., Feb. 26. When you are in competition with anyone, and you are rashly overconfident, you become quite convinced of your established methods. When a setback comes you are afraid to change your ways, due to fear. Today, however, you have more to gain by following the direction of your impulses.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Things may appear clouded, but retain your optimism while Mercury in favorable sextile to Mars. If it is necessary to take an important business or domestic step, you should be able to negotiate it satisfactorily today. The future will take care of itself.

Fri., Feb. 28. Be diligent with work which does not require imagination. Attend to everyday tasks and those requiring manual labor. If anyone disapproves of what you do just keep on working.

PISCES COSMIC FLASHES

For You Who Were Born Between February 19th and March 20th

THE conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn overshadows every other planetary aspect this month, first because these major celestial orbs have very powerful astrological significance and secondly due to the rarity of this configuration. It will not be repeated for almost twenty years. Every solar group is affected. With you the horoscopic impact occurs in the Third House, influencing your mental work. Whether you are aware of it or not, your ideas are changing. For that reason you must not allow yourself to get depressed if things seem different. Slowly your viewpoint will become organized and your impressions more placid. Your initiative and resourcefulness will increase in scope.

In the meantime you are being prodded from several directions. The Planet Mercury in your Sign is giving you vivid ideas, but you may not be able to carry them out because in midmonth Mercury goes into retrograde motion. But do not discard a single notion that pops into your head. The way to use every inspiration profitably will come in good time.

The Planet Venus is in your Solar Twelfth House, creating beneficent vibrations for intuitive perception. A rather unusual wish-fulfillment may accrue through the influence of a "silent partner" who wants you to get the emotional satisfaction as well as fame for a plan that is close to your heart. The furtherance of your desires through the cooperation of an energetic friend is shown also by the transit of the Planet Mars in your Tenth and Eleventh Houses during February. The favorable sextile and semisextile Sign vibrations between Venus and Mars work in your behalf even when you are worried or uncertain.

The sun entering your own Sign toward the latter part of the month is a warm and comforting influence, no matter what the weather temperature is. You are sure of a genuine welcome wherever you go and whomever you meet.

Sat., Feb. 1. If you are travel minded, scan all available data today for any proposed trip. In your peregrinations you may encounter some highly intelligent, interesting people, kindly disposed, but if they should also be inclined to skepticism, don't allow that to sway you.

SUN., Feb. 2. One's spirit sometimes suffers a depressing "let-down" when realities must be faced, but that is no excuse for indulging in temperamental outbursts. If you should hear some plain truths today, take them with a laugh instead of a "flare-up." Laughter is a universal panacea.

Mon., Feb. 3. If some cherished hopes have crumbled, do not let momentary failure give you a feeling of inferiority or weaken your belief in your ability. Wisdom comes through mistakes. Let your restlessness be directed into constructive hobbies rather than dubious social activities.

Tues., Feb. 4. Even commonplace occupations can take on glamor under the Venus-Neptune trine. Perhaps it is your own heart singing—or can it be that you are under the magnetic spell of someone else's?

Wed., Feb. 5. Attend strictly to your own business, and underscore in your memory that advice is welcome only when sought. With today's adverse Moon-Mercury square even good intentions might succeed merely in stirring up antagonism. Be on the look-out for minor accidents.

Thurs., Feb. 6. Gather up the loose ends of the work at hand and finish them. They are in the way of other tasks that need to be done. This cleaning up process applies to your practical endeavors chiefly; not your imaginative or creative work.

Fri., Feb. 7. There is dynamite in the air today. Try to maintain a semblance of calmness, even if the nerves of other people are turning somersaults. The normal course of your life may be greatly changed, but take it in your stride. Be cautious in everything you do.

Sat., Feb. 8. Be ready to explore fields where new and engaging opportunities await. A tried and loyal associate may show you a way to augment your income.

SUN., Feb. 9. Refresh your mind and spirit by meditating. Quicken your mental processes by balancing yourself psychologically, or perhaps your imagination can be stirred as greatly by immersing yourself in an interesting biography.

Mon., Feb. 10. Do not be a jack of all trades and master of none. You are inclined to spread your energy too widely, this handicapping your progress. The people you contact today may be brusque by nature, but do not let it worry you.

Tues., Feb. 11. There are ups and downs in life, just as there are in business; hence, if at the moment you are not in good standing with the powers that be, do not be discouraged. With your Piscean intuition to guide you, winning your way back to the top will not be difficult.

Wed., Feb. 12. New plans are likely to move forward without friction; agreements to be made without argument, and interviews and conferences to proceed without waste of time. The Moon's trine to Saturn and Jupiter is a welcome aspect.

Thurs., Feb. 13. It is sometimes depressing to have to face the realities of existence, and it may even be annoying, but it doesn't provide an excuse for a show of temper. If you should hear some plain truths today, take them with a smile.

Fri., Feb. 14. The Neptune influence and the adverse Moon-Mars square can be troublesome today, so make an extra effort to avoid inaccuracies. Be discriminating. Keep your personal and business problems well separated to avoid criticism.

Sat., Feb. 15. You have given proof to those in authority that you can perform valuable services, and that your methods are efficient. This should give you an opportunity to earn extra money. The friendly Jupiter-Saturn conjunction is singling out the persons worthy of preference.

SUN., Feb. 16. Are you entirely certain which ambitions and what goals are worthy of your effort? If not, now is the time to settle them definitely in your mind, otherwise you will follow a trail that might end in a blind alley. Make your decisions and follow them persistently.

Mon., Feb. 17. You have much to do, so take advantage of the opportunity for clear- visioned action. If you feel like an exhibitionist today, put on your display privately, not before friends and co-workers.

Tues., Feb. 18. Your stamina may be tested today. Tidings from afar might disturb you, but the good aspects of Neptune should enable you to maintain your balance. It is advisable to take action in pressing matters only. Be resolute in your decisions when handling these.

Wed., Feb. 19. Keep your wits about you, otherwise something you consider disastrous could happen to your pocketbook or your personal property. Do not mislay things. Be mentally alert. Calmness is important while Luna is unfriendly to Mercury.

Thurs., Feb. 20. The Moon and Neptune make a discordant square that might cause trouble for the unwary. You are too clear-sighted to be duped by false claims or steered in the wrong direction by those who sell gold bricks instead of golden ideas.

Fri., Feb. 21. Joyfully welcome talented persons who may arrive at your home or place of business today. They may be rather strange to you, but don't let it hide their true worth from you. Perhaps they are bearing welcome gifts for you.

Sat., Feb. 22. Two favorable Moon trines are working in your behalf with the single purpose of helping your progress. Why not follow such generously extended guides rather than remain stubborn? Apply your enthusiasm to the accomplishment of your ambition.

SUN., Feb. 23. You may suddenly realize the truth of the saying that "happiness dwells within," but do not imagine that your exalted state of mind will last forever. Interest yourself in artistic and mental matters today; let the practical go until later.

Mon., Feb. 24. You may be filled with such enthusiasm and energy that you want to race ahead in testing your good resolutions and fresh ideas. But do not be impulsive. Luna occupies the House of restriction today, so use caution. Be careful not to allow yourself to be misunderstood.

Tues., Feb. 25. If you have a job to do, put behind it everything you have to make it a success. Courage, even daring, are needed, for the New Moon occurs in your Sign. Some power, unknown to you, may be working in your behalf. Live and reflect success! Faith can move mountains.

Wed., Feb. 26. With the Sun conjoined Mercury in Pisces, make new contacts. This is an especially good time to develop friendships that can bring you future happiness and add to your joy of living. Make the utmost of each hour.

Thurs., Feb. 27. Be a spectator rather than a participant in events today. Observe, note and file away in memory all you see and hear. Learning from the experience of others is one way to avoid the use of trial and error methods yourself.

Fri., Feb. 28. This is not a day to be spent in idling. Hard work is the best recipe for forgetting worries. If your life pattern seems to be somewhat altered, do not think too much about it. The change may be only temporary.

Noted Writer on Astrology

ARE you living your life to its fullest—like a tree that is bearing the fruit which was ordained for it, or like a flowing river that is fed by surging springs? Unless you are, you have shut yourself off from the endowments with which Nature has enriched you.

Your efficiency (ruled by the Sun) is a savings account in your personality bank that draws compound interest in character, courage, self-reliance, increasing ability, and material gain.

Your hopes (Moon) are the torchlights of your character that lead you to what you want to be—intellectually and bodily strong.

Your mind (Mercury) is the reservoir of your knowledge.

Your emotions (Venus) are the gifts which enable you to enjoy the fruits of your labor.

Your faith (Neptune) is the symbol of your sympathy and understanding.

Your desires (Mars) are the barometric measures of your emotional scope, whether you respond to the best or worst in your environment.

Your theories (Uranus) are the essence of your imagination and experience.

Your self-confidence (Saturn) is the regulating dial in your resistance to temptation.

Your sagacity (Jupiter) is the sum of your philosophy and intuition.

So all in all you are a human clockworks, gathering the fullness of life for your own use and for the aid of those who need your help. Nature has given you a valuable domain, as shown by the aspects in your horoscope. What are you doing with it? Some of the problems in effectively using that wealth are reflected in the letters many EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY readers have sent to me.

Find a Fire Sign Person

PROBLEM: I wonder why I am tormented by loneliness. I want friends, but something always happens so there is no one of my own age whom I can love, or who is really fond of me. I have never even had a real sweetheart. I was born August 27, 1911.

ARTHUR T.

ANSWER: When you were born, the Sun as well as Mercury and Venus were in the Earth Sign Virgo in grand trine with Saturn in Taurus and Uranus in Capricorn. Therefore you are a practical, conservative, and intelligent person. You are probably more interested in business and economics than in romance.

However, the Moon was in the Air Sign Libra and Mars was in the Air Sign Gemini, creating another trine for you. Your desire for friendship stems from this aspect. You could easily become the life of the party if you so desired, but it is to your detriment that you do not have a single Planet in a Fire Sign. Therefore you lack the spontaneity and aggressiveness that would create and hold friendships for you. You expect other people to make advances to you. And when they do, you are not able to "warm" up to them, due to the absence of a Fire Sign influence in your birth chart.

It is possible to remedy this condition, of course, through self-discipline and training. As a bachelor, you should develop your talents until you are popular enough with the girls to find a sweetheart who would appreciate your special qualities. Once you are married, the matter of friendships will take care of itself automatically. It is possible that you may find the girl of your dreams in the teaching profession or among laboratory research workers. You need a girl of your own type—studious and self-contained, but with sufficient fire elements in her personality to animate you. Too much sameness is not good for anyone, as you have discovered. If you had only one Planet in a Fire Sign—or if this is supplied in the horoscope of your future lifemate—you would lose your feeling of loneliness.

Inherently Restless

PROBLEM: I was born September 27, 1919, and am studying to be an electrical engineer. Do you think I will be successful at this work?

JOHN G.

ANSWER: The fact that you have the Moon in Scorpio shows that you are interested in electrical and other scientific subjects. But it is doubtful if you have the temperament to stick to such a job, for you have three Planets in the Fire Sign Leo which rules the stage. With the Sun and Mercury in the Air Sign Libra, you have artistic instincts, emphasized by the trine of Uranus in the Air Sign Aquarius.

But you have a very powerful Fixed Sign Cross through the Planets in Scorpio, Leo, and Aquarius, so you are overconfident in some ways but not sufficiently equipped with the resolution to carry through your ideas until you are positive you can sell them at a profit. You will want to change from one job to another—like the actor changing his stage characterizations. For that reason it might be better for you to take up the theatrical profession rather than electrical engineering. Or why not combine both and try for a job as a power engineer in a theatre? It is a highly lucrative occupation.

An Army Problem

PROBLEM: I was born July 25, 1917, and my girl friend was born December 30, 1924. Do you think we are suited to each other? I am anxious to know for her sake as well as my own because I am now in the Army and I do not want to ask her to wait for me if we are not meant for each other.

ROBERT H.

ANSWER: On the surface you and she might get on well, but you are a Fire Sign personality because you were born when the Sun was in Leo. She was born when the Sun was in the Earth Sign Capricorn, but the Moon was in the Water Sign Pisces on that day. This alone would set up a stress, for you would make too many demands on her. Instead of arguing with you, she might try to elude you, and in the end you would be baffled and unhappy. Inasmuch as she is seven years younger than you, why not allow her the freedom of choice until you come out of your training period. By that time both she and you would be accustomed to the separation and it will be easier to decide what you want to do.

Make Home a Sanctuary

PROBLEM: I wonder what my special talent is. I was born April 26, 1903, and my husband was born October 27, 1900. I want to do something especially artistic but my husband opposes me. He always tries to change my mind.

MRS. GRACE K. L.

ANSWER: Your interest in art is quite understandable since you were born when the Sun was in the Earth Sign Taurus which is ruled by the Planet Venus, the astrological symbol of art and beauty. But the Moon was in the Fire Sign Aries, which accounts for your uncertainty about your special talent. The fact is that you are interested in so many things and you have so many ideas you are unable to settle on any one long enough to carry it out to the end—particularly as Venus is in the Air Sign Gemini.

You have deft hands, indicated by the Gemini influence; and you have a fertile imagination, indicated by Uranus in the Fire Sign Sagittarius. But these two Signs are in zodiacal opposition, which makes Venus and Uranus Sign opponents. Consequently your imagination can never be harnessed long enough to let your hands create a really worthwhile job. So do not blame your husband. It is not his fault that you are not using your genius. But why worry about a job? You have the instinct for luxurious living due to the presence of the Sun and Mercury in the Sign

Taurus, and this is enough of a blessing these days when humanity is so restless and in need of domestic comforts.

Use your talents to make your home an ideal sanctuary for your family and you will have attained the best there is in life for any woman.

Be Fair

PROBLEM: I want to sue a neighbor and he offers to settle out of court. I have a good case against him, and would like to teach him a lesson. What shall I do? I was born November 15, 1898.

FELIX C.

ANSWER: Very obviously you have a good case against him, otherwise he would not offer to settle out of court. Inasmuch as you have three Planets in your opposition Sign, and Pluto is square your Sign, it is doubtful if you would be as fortunate before the bar of justice as you expect.

Uranus in your opposing Sign would cause erratic conditions to present themselves in the most unexpected way. A surprise witness or a surprise plea could easily change the entire course of the procedure. Furthermore, the conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in your Solar Seventh House which rules law matters is scarcely the sort of aspect which would safeguard you. Even if you win, you might lose by not being able to collect. Your neighbor might go bankrupt, or the verdict might be less than the amount you claim.

So if you can settle on terms that are comparatively fair, it might be well to do so.

The Number Power of Your Name

By RAOUL CHIMAY

Author of "The Numerology of Names," "Money Power for You," etc.

YOUR name is not only the mark of your identity, it is a dynamic force by which you are singled out from the throng. When your name is spoken—it creates definite vibrations in the atmosphere—like music on the etheric waves.

This series of articles on the number power of your name is an exclusive feature of EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY.

The names are chosen at random, and nicknames as well as first names are studied. It is hoped that the series, when completed, will encompass the complete range of names generally used.

ANDERSON. Numerical value, 4. Astrological equivalent, Saturn. Symbolizes the soft whisper of a mighty tree, repeating the romantic legends of the ages to the breeze. Your energy is amazing. While others hesitate, you go ahead, seldom stopping to count the costs as you throw yourself with fiery intensity into your undertakings. No task is put aside until you have completed it. Because you have great concentration and determination, you generally accomplish what you set out to do. Travel interests you, especially air trips and sea journeys. You are a citizen of the world, vitally concerned with everything which goes to make up the joy of living.

VIRGINIA. Numerical value, 5. Astrological equivalent, Mercury. Symbolizes the rich song of a bird, filling a summer evening with its passion-filled notes. Because of your profound nature you are never fully understood or appreciated. The depths of your mind and character are immense. Strong will-power aids you in adapting yourself to your surroundings and makes you able to face great difficulties and sorrows without flinching. Yours is a deep and tender soul, capable of making enormous sacrifices for those you love, although generally you are not demonstrative. Living much within yourself, you demand little of the world and are not over-ambitious for material possessions.

HOWLAND. Numerical value, 31. Astrological equivalent, Saturn. Symbolizes an oyster imbedded with a pearl. A good opinion of your capabilities is not unwarranted, for you have extraordinary physical capacity and mental apprehension. You are hard to please, but you have a warm nature. Though pleasure-loving, fond of the theatre and sports, you do not treat serious things lightly. It grieves you when your plans miscarry because you feel it is a reflection on your judgment and ability. Your creed is to do all things well, to neglect nothing, to slur nothing. Precision is your principle.

JULIUS. Numerical value, 8. Astrological equivalent, Mars. Symbolizes a Roman amphitheatre filled with a cheering throng. Mars confers upon you the courage and high optimism of a newly-awakened season. Through your veins races the energy of rushing torrents and the pulsations of a dynamo. You are a born leader, intense, impulsive and generous. But be careful that your enthusiasm and vitality do not incline you to be too headstrong. Every one of your minutes is valuable and must be made to count.

PHYLLIS. Numerical value, 24. Astrological equivalent, Venus. Symbolizes an eagle's nest with seven fledglings. Because you are a natural home maker, the outside world means little to you. Your family tree is cherished as a sacred possession. Nature endowed you with a strong sense of thrift, making you an expert in budget balancing. This, too, indicates your keen executive ability. If you chose, you could make your way in the business world. Poets and musicians tread your birth-path. You enjoy building air castles. Yours is an idealistic mind.

ELI. Numerical value, 531. Astrological equivalent, Neptune. Symbolizes a learned patriarch expounding the philosophy of ageless wisdom. You are an enigma to your friends because hidden beneath your natural reservedness is a wealth of devotion and human sympathy. You are endowed with fortitude, courage, determination and perseverance. Obstacles have no horrors for you, for you can overcome them. Splendid executive ability leads you into many activities. You are a locomotive of exceptional power, but drawing few ears and often running away with yourself. Cultivate some of your more material views. Live less in the purely mental realm.

URSULA. Numerical value, 9. Astrological equivalent, Neptune. Symbolizes a pond covered with rose petals. Beneath your stately silence glows a world of warmth and feeling, for you have the keen intuition to penetrate the obscure corners of the human heart. Your gracious charm invites confidence and people bring their problems to you. You are able to view things calmly, with balanced judgment. You are brave, willing to meet life face to face and take the bitter with the sweet. With the wish and persistence to fight, regardless of opposition, you have the power to conquer and emerge from adversity much the better for your experience.

MICHAEL. Numerical value, 13. Astrological equivalent, Saturn. Symbolizes a bull leaping into an arena. You can accomplish an extraordinary amount of accurate, painstaking work. Mediocrity is not for you because you are constantly making the effort to increase the scope of your mind, your ability, and your position. Blessed with great poise, you seldom lose your presence of mind. But you must learn how to say "No!" and mean it. Your innate generosity and good nature allow you to be imposed on by the ungrateful who have no compunction in taking advantage of your kindness.

MAURICE. Numerical value, 24. Astrological equivalent, Venus. Symbolizes vegetation gleaming with the Sun's gold. Your enthusiasm for life is tremendous. Loved by all because of understanding and great-heartedness, you can demonstrate your depth of feeling with lavish but genuine gestures. No matter how unjustly you may suffer, you manage to get along with everyone. However, you are not a martyr, and if the imposition goes too far, you can handle it so adroitly that the person responsible is mysteriously exposed. You are one of the fortunate upon whom many gifts were bestowed at birth.

HILDA. Numerical value, 18. Astrological equivalent, Neptune. Symbolizes fabulous gems sparkling in a temple. You are whimsical, fanciful, strongly imaginative, sometimes timid and even unwilling to face realities. Your reverence for the past often LOLA. Numerical value, 3231. Astrological equivalent, Neptune. Symbolizes jewels sold at public auction. You are an individualistic thinker and reasoner, seldom believing everything you are told. It is possible for you to become a good milliner or dress designer, but be sure you have capable assistants to take care of the details. Your mind is attuned to large things. Still, with all your dislike for details, you are not satisfied with your work until it reaches perfection. You show a few contradictory manifestations, but you will find them harmonizing after a while.

PERKINS. Numerical value, 57. Astrological equivalent, Jupiter. Symbolizes a rustic bridge spanning a stream. Your idea of form and outline makes you a creator of things. The intricacies of development you leave to others. You are domestic in taste, and have a fondness for music and poetry. The combination of the artistic and the practical would make you a good architect. You are faithful, just and kind, and an originator to a considerable degree. You like to get first-hand information about people and things, and may often make trips for that purpose.

BABBITT. Numerical value, 10. Astrological equivalent, the Sun. Symbolizes a blacksmith working at his forge. You reach out for things, not only for yourself but for those you hold dear. Your mechanical ability and good intellect is supported by a strong will and stubborn determination. You want to lead or not be in the procession at all. In spite of the tendencies which bind you to home and family, public affairs interest you. People listen to what you have to say, and follow with confidence your judgment and leadership.

RICHARDSON. Numerical value, 33. Astrological equivalent, Mars. Symbolizes the pouring of sparkling, iced wine. Because of your marked forcefulness it may be easy for you to make enemies. You are inventive and have a genuine capacity for accomplishment. Architecture may be one of your talents, along with a flair for finance. Art, music and science also are fields open to you. You are well informed on many subjects, hence, ready for opportunities when they present themselves. You are able to recognize and make the most of your abilities and talents.

BAILEY. Numerical value, 2. Astrological equivalent, the Moon. Symbolizes a sunset viewed through a screen of ivy. You are not averse to being seen and make yourself prominent in society. All sides of a question are weighed before you decide to act. Because of this you are a good director, but avoid hard work. Your home must be happy and you make every effort to improve family conditions. At times you have strong leanings toward the spiritual, a tendency which increases with age. You calculate closely and count costs before attempting a project. You are willing to carry the responsibility after your decision is made.

KELLOGG. Numerical value, 16. Astrological equivalent, Uranus. Symbolizes a sentry at his post. You have courage and insight. Though the outlook may appear dark and doubtful, you are not afraid. The light increases as you pursue your course, and more than otherwise you bring things to a successful conclusion. You want adventure and excitement—a full life, with love and romance. No quiet existence for you. While not boastful, you like to have your good deeds known. You enjoy happy company.

NEIL. Numerical value, 13. Astrological equivalent, Saturn. Symbolizes a legislative assembly in busy session. Your quick sympathies respond to changing conditions. When people understand you, they become warm friends and admirers. If they are not understanding, however, even your best friend may bear the brunt of your displeasure if there is an attempt to distract your attention at an inopportune time. Flattery, while appreciated, makes no impression on you. You are insatiable in your desire for knowledge. Your capacity for taking pains draws your interest to the smallest detail as well as to the largest consideration.

HENRIETTA. Numerical value, 35. Astrological equivalent, Mars. Symbolizes an ancient fleet at anchor in the still waters of a harbor. A tenacious nature makes you definite and positive. You like good things and are willing to share them with your friends. You have the qualities of a perfect hostess. You take special pride in your table and enjoy the genuine appreciation of your guests. Those who have your interest are fortunate—they will never be in want while you have enough. Your aim is high, but if necessary you can adapt yourself to other levels. Making money is no problem for you, but you earn easier than you save.

SALVATORE. Numerical value, 25. Astrological equivalent, Uranus. Symbolizes a secret tunnel to the citadel of an historical city. You frequently make sudden, unexplained changes. You can drop one line of work and enter another almost at a moment's notice. No one can tell how a situation will impress you or a piece of work suit you. This makes you vacillate in the estimation of your friends, causing them to be annoyed because you are so unpredictable. Your intuitions amount almost to inspirations. You are apt to have religious affiliations which are very strong and intense while they last. There are several other things in which you go to extremes.

VIOLA. Numerical value, 4. Astrological equivalent, Saturn. Symbolizes a range of low hills silhouetted against a bright sky. You are sympathetic, kind, and capable of great sacrifices. Also you are secretive and reserved about your affairs. Liberty and freedom are your watchwords. They guide you in all matters, public and private. Your work is done with patience and willingness. Reading is almost an obsession. You are an earnest, effective talker. When emergencies arise you can be depended upon. No one can fail to appreciate a friend who responds to every urgent call or need.

LAMARR. Numerical value, 11. Astrological equivalent, Moon. Symbolizes a bundle of sticks and an axe. You are physically strong, and possess much endurance. Although your natural love of ease and comfort may often make it appear that you dislike hard work, you are able to apply yourself diligently. You are skeptical to a degree, therefore like to search out the unknown and mysterious. With a strong will and great tenacity, you plan and work at a job until it is a complete success.

NOTICE

The interpretations of the planetary aspects in EVERYDAY ASTROLOGY are based on current planetary aspects and although identified with each Sign of the Zodiac are not purposed to be individual or specific. The pronoun YOU is used in a collective and plural sense. Neither theoretically nor actually is it assumed that the response to the cosmic vibrations is uniform yet there is sufficient similarity among the members of each solar group to justify the salient claims of Astrology.

YOUR PSYCHIC SELF

out every detail with flawless exactitude. You are good at deductive and inductive reasoning. Then, when you are all done with your analysis, you can scrap it without hesitation and do something you had not given much thought. Or you get a flash of inspiration and then spend hours finding facts to corroborate it. Though these traits seem contradictory, they are actually balanced, and particularly valuable when you have to make up your mind on the spur of the moment. You ordinarily weigh each fact deliberately and then come to your conclusions psychically. That is why you can accomplish so much and are so often ahead of your competitors.

Class 3

You are the complete logician. You have no patience with things that cannot be explained with concrete fact. Anything supernatural seems to you to be haphazard. You like to work in a systematic orderly fashion, without waiting for inspiration to stagger toward you. You admit that there are forces which deviate from logical planning, but you cannot conceive that they will always remain inexplicable. In due time, you believe, they will be catalogued by science and so lose their apparent mystery. You are not content until you have a scale with which to measure what you see, feel, and hear. Since psychic phenomenon cannot be perceived by your intellect, therefore it does not exist so far as you are concerned. But that does not make you any less able to get the right answer to a problem. Your decision is dictated by your mind rather than by your intuitions, and you are guided by demonstrations of truth rather than by emotional and supersensitive conceptions.

Astrological Basis

Whatever your classification, you are responsive to the imprint of the solar and planetary aspects on your personality. Your horoscope is a complete résumé and portrait of everything which pertains to you, from the innermost sources of your being to the outer film of your skin and coloring. Your ideas, speech, beliefs, work, ideals—everything you are and want to be—is reflected in your birth chart. That is why it is so easy to make a summary of your traits through your replies in this and similar quizzes. Is it any wonder then that Astrology has become such a popular adjunct to self-analysis?

Money-Moon Express— All Aboard!

February's Special Tour Around the Zodiac Conducted by

PHINEAS P. ADAMS

AT the celestial railroad station is the Money Moon Express, ready for its fast trip around the Zodiac. Fuel fills the tender to the brim. The time schedule has just been handed to the engineer. The coaches are coupled to the locomotive. There is place for everyone. In the mail car the postal clerk has set the steel arm to pick up the bags of letters and packages for the passengers as the Money Moon Express roars its way through each Sign of the Zodiac. There will be many things in the mail pouch for you. Are you ready for the journey? All right, Mr. Conductor, swing your lantern and let 'er highball.

Below is a copy of the Engineer's itinerary, showing the way stations as well as the signals for slowing down and points to speed up.

PISCES You are taking on a load of valuable freight that could easily be converted into substantial profit.

The rate of exchange is in your favor, and so is the good will of people with whom you are doing business—particularly those who hold executive positions. Success is attainable through enterprise in banking, real estate, electrical equipment, modern machinery, and ingenious ideas. But conserve your assets so that nothing is spent on enticing but unproductive social pleasures.

ARIES You have known great good fortune, but through the quirk of circumstance your economic prospects are so involved that you are uncertain about the safety of your possessions. One moment you are elated and the next depressed about money. This will continue throughout the month. Your moods carry you from one enthusiasm to the next, making you feel as though you are going through a series of crises. However, to one of your volatile temperament, nothing could be more enjoyable.

TAURUS While the world is going through the throes of disorganization, your solar group is carried along the crest of a great cyclic wave. Since Nature intended you to be the custodian of wealth, you are able to engineer your way through nearly anything adding to your income. You are able to save as well as spend. But watch the signals so that you do not become too self-centered. Share what you have with your friends and family.

GEMINI You have come to your wisdom about money through devious routes, and now you are content with minor gains so long as you are able to enjoy the comforts of life. Your earnings should suffice for your needs, with a surplus remaining to invest in property and pleasures. Take a midwinter vacation, or go to the theatre and opera. Buy books and attend a lecture or two. Use your money for mental as well as domestic diversions.

CANCER Your prudence stands you in good stead these days while your zodiacal House which rules your income is being bombarded with planetary squares and oppositions. You know how to manage your funds, despite petty exasperations, and you are aware of the best way to keep solvent while paying a good price. Do not let your allegiance to the past cause you expense. Cut down your overhead, if necessary, and save yourself from carrying extra obligations. What is the use of having a big home and a lot of furniture if you also have the worry of the upkeep?

LEO You are gifted with foresight as well as executive skill, but most of all you are aided by the excellent vibrations each time the Money Moon goes through your Solar Second House which rules your income. Despite your love of luxury, you know where you are with money and are seldom "caught short." You have the choice this month between an idea that is brilliantly daring and one that is equally clever but obscure in purpose. Instinctively you will know which is better for you, and will refuse to be falsely led in your selection.

VIRGO You can be a Good Samaritan without depriving yourself of the things you like. Your economic prospects may not be as spectacular as those of your friends and neighbors, but they are substantial enough to get you what you want. There are many excellent buys on the market, so seek the best bargains. Your idea of saving is to spend wisely for what you need. At the same time your mind is working on ideas that will get you more money through promotion or a wider distribution of your wares.

LIBRA Sometimes you wonder what to do to get money, and then a miracle happens which helps you over a tight spot. You are so accustomed to emergencies that you are not surprised at anything. Externally, a good many things may seem at sixes and sevens, but in your own mind you are confident. This assurance is a blessing to yourself and your family during difficult times. Do not risk what you have for what you expect. There can be disappointment for your solar group in speculation and gambling. It may seem enticing, but it is unsafe.

SCORPIO You are not the type to run away from things you know are yours by right. That is why you win against great odds, sometimes. This month your determination is bringing you compensation, despite obstruction and interference. But be careful not to talk yourself out of anything you acquire. Also, do not try to undo what has been accomplished by patient effort. Though you are not orthodox in your approach toward business, remember that others are not as modern as you. Try to be as patient as possible.

SAGITTARIUS If you are working hard, it is because there are many ways for you to earn money. You are so busy that you do not have time to enjoy a good vacation. But that does not prevent you from traveling in imagination. Your immediate family and your relatives are on the receiving end because of the good fortune that attends you. You are like Midas about money—everything you touch can turn to gold. But unlike Midas, you are generous and get more in proportion to what you give.

CAPRICORN You do not let the grass grow under your feet, but sometimes you find that the weeds are a bit thicker than you expected. You are kept hustling to get rid of impediments, so you are not able to garner the entire crop of good things that are growing in your garden. This makes you gloomy, but your innate shrewdness will not allow you to falter. Though you are gloomy about money, you know that the only way to get it is to work hard. Still, heed the Money Moon Express signals that warn of detours and possible trouble.

AQUARIUS You are like a dynamo which is being so supercharged there is danger of overloading. This month you are busier than ever, with a lot of your ideas that have been held in abeyance becoming suddenly useful. Advancement is here for you, also affection and admiration. A new opening may materialize, and some of your ideals work out according to your expectations. The confusion and turmoil which have set your nerves atingle for so many months are likely to abate, so now you can work with serenity and spiritual ease.

VACU-MATIC

SETS NEW COAST-TO-CHICAGO RECORD

BOB MCKENZIE
TRANSCONTINENTAL AUTOMOBILE CHAMPION

Vacu-matic Carburetor Co.
7617 W. State Street
Wauwatosa, Wisconsin

Dear Sirs:

Having just completed a new speed record between Los Angeles and Chicago, driving a Chevrolet equipped with a Vacu-matic carburetor control, I thought you might be interested in knowing some of the facts and the important part Vacu-matic played in the success of the run.

The distance covered was 2322 miles in thirty-nine hours and forty-two minutes, officially timed by Western Union, which gave us an average speed of 59.7 M.P.H. based on elapsed time and with the Vacu-matic averaged 12-1/2 miles per gallon on gasoline.

Before leaving Los Angeles, we made several test runs both with and without the Vacu-matic, and the tests proved that Vacu-matic increased my gas mileage 3-1/2 miles per gallon at the driving speed of 60 M.P.H. and also very noticeable increase in both acceleration and power.

Yours very truly,
Bob McKenzie

In addition to establishing new mileage records on cars in all sections of the country, the Vacu-matic has proven itself on thousands of road tests and on dynamometer tests which duplicate road conditions and record accurate mileage and horse power increases.

You, too, can make a road test with Vacu-matic on your car and prove its worthwhile gas savings to your entire satisfaction.

Learn all about this remarkable discovery. Get the facts NOW!

Fits All Cars

Easy To Install

Vacu-matic is constructed of six parts assembled and fused into one unit, adjusted and sealed at the factory. Nothing to regulate. Any motorist can install in ten minutes. The free offer coupon will bring all the facts. Mail it today!

The Vacu-matic Co.

Wauwatosa, Wis.

Answer this call! Investigate this remarkable discovery that trims dollars off gasoline bills — gives you worthwhile gas savings — more power — greater speed — quicker pickup — faster acceleration. Proven so efficient, it is guaranteed to save up to 30% and give better performance or the trial costs you nothing.

Automatic Supercharge Principle

Vacu-matic is entirely different! It operates on the supercharge principle by automatically adding a charge of extra oxygen, drawn free from the outer air, into the heart of the gas mixture. It is entirely automatic and allows the motor to "breathe" at the correct time, opening and closing automatically as required to save dollars on gas costs.

Sworn Proof of Gas Savings

This certifies that I have carefully read 300 original letters received from Vacu-matic users testifying to gas savings up to 30%, many reporting added power, smoother running, and quicker pick-up. These letters are just a small part of the larger file of enthusiastic user letters that I saw at the company offices.
