Wonderful Cure.

Ponca City, May 5, 1900.

To the afflicted.

I wish to speak from the standpoint of knowledge in regard to Pearson's method of restoring sick people to health. My wife being sick for over a year, more than half that time in bed, I spent over $400 without obtaining the slightest relief, in fact she was worst the day fate or circumstances made it possible for me to meet Mr. Pearson who at once diagnosed my wife's condition correctly and commenced giving her absent treatments although she was eleven miles out in the country, and the next day I discovered she was getting better and in a few days she was out of bed, slowly recovering her health and in less than three weeks was visiting neighbors and going everywhere. If you should see her now you would not believe she had been sick for so long a time. A smiling countenance, a cheerful, happy feeling of deep gratitude to her healer are prima facie evidence of these facts. Friends and neighbors, don't be blind or prejudiced in the face of cold facts, but go thou and do likewise and obtain that blessing which is in store for you if you will only prepare yourself to receive it. Yours truly,

Harrison Blackwell.

Resides 11 miles east of Ponca City.

Rheumatism Cured by a Touch.

Ponca City, O. T., July 30, 1899.

To the public in general:—My arm was lame from some unknown cause for fifteen years and with one treatment Peter Pearson relieved the lameness, and the relief is permanent. Don't be afraid to test his method of cure for it is certainly up-to-date and does the work.

D Lafe Hubler,

Attorney and Notary Public.

Intermittent Fever, Chills, Bowels and Kidney Trouble Cured by Absent Treatments.

Gladness and gratitude go hand in hand when we testify to restored health conditions. After one week's attack of intermittent chills and fever, with bowels and kidneys in a fearful condition, approaching a stage of typhoid malaria, I sent for Mr. Pearson, of Ponca City, to come and heal me but as he was unable to come, he sent some magnetized papers and gave absent treatments which at once broke up the chills and fever. Pains in stomach and bowels left me and in two weeks time recovered without having to resort to the "slop barrel—of the stomach method." Surely this new method beats the old. Friends who suffer, if you don't believe it, just try it once.

Mrs. M. C. Madson.

Arkansas City, Sept. 7, 99.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Ponca City, Mar. 24, 1899.

To whom it may concern:

Let it be known that I was afflicted with rheumatism in arm and hand, more than a year ago, my arm and finger swelling and being very painful and had to carry arm in sling. By one treatment of Mr. Pearson and by the mysterious healing powers imparted by his magic touch, I was restored the next day, and have been ever since.

L. L. Crossfield.

Reference, my Patients. !

Yours for Health

Uncle Sam Is Ill.

HAVE you heard the news that's going 'round?

'Tis known o'er vale and hill,

The breezes carry the news far and wide

That Uncle Sam is ill.

Why he should be sick we do not know—

Why he should need powder and pill

To bolster up his lagging brain—

We only know that Uncle Sam is ill.

Dyspepsia is quite plainly shown

In the lineaments of his face;

He is cross and crabbed, oftentimes,

And is fearfully off his base.

His Constitution is good, we all know that;

It has borne him through many a fight;

Has withstood rebel storm and a war of hate,

And has brought him through all right.

But internal disorders are at work

His Constitution to undermine;

It causes him to fume and fret,

And makes him droop and pine.

That his heart is right is known to all,

And if nursed with care and skill,

His diseases will quickly disappear,

And Uncle Sam will no longer be ill.

UNCLE SAM.

It is understood that this imaginary character originated from the extension, in a jocular way, of the initial letters, U. S., stamped on all government property, and it became a common understanding among all classes of people that all property bearing this stamp belonged to Uncle Sam, which in course of time has fastened itself in the public mind to such a degree that this imaginary character has become a real personality to all intent and purpose, hence we use this term when speaking of the birth of our nation, or any other question of national character pertaining to the government.

As the month of July is the birth month of this our venerable uncle, we have dedicated this July number of HARMONY, for a special elucidation and astrological write-up of his characteristics, possibilities and capabilities, pointing out conditions, as governed by the law of periodicity under planetary influence in the past, present and future life of this, our patron saint.

Patriotism, as exemplified in the love and worship of our "Great Father," as the Indians seem to delight in calling Uncle Sam, is very commendable, and should be instilled into the minds of the young and rising generation, minus the oftentimes conspicuous accompaniments of hypocrisy, selfishness, and agrandizement, so that in time to come, if our young men should be called upon to defend their country, they would shoulder their guns with that feeling of pure and unadulterated patriotism, which, together with the highest aspiration for freedom and equality, would win for them victory and honor wherever Uncle Sam should plant the stars and stripes.

For a full delineation of Uncle Sam's life and character, we refer you to the Astrological Department in this and subsequent issues, edited and under the management of Dr. C. S. Tisdale.

But as a Phychic diagnostician, it becomes our duty to give a true psychic diagnosis of our venerable Uncle's health, or rather diseased conditions, that he may as forwarned be forarmed, and put himself under a course of treatment from a good healer, that equilibrium, harmony and health may be restored, wherever there may exist any apparent danger of discord or organic trouble. A stitch in time saves nine, is an old saw and a true one. A simple thing, done at the right time, has been known to have saved a nation's life.

Diagnosis of our Uncle Samuel.

RHEUMATIC pains in right shoulder, which to some extent sympathically affect his left shoulders; which seriously interferes with and hampers the movement of right arm, in his labor of justice, etc.

A partial deafness in right ear is noticeable, which is caused by catarrhal mucus accumulating in the eustachian tube.

Heart Trouble—When closely examining the heart action, we find a defect in the muscular action of the right ventricle, hence a poor circulation of blood to the lungs for purification and oxegenic vitalization; sympathically we find the left ventricle affected in the same way, hence the circulation of the vital fluid through the whole system is not as perfect as might be desired.

Stomach Trouble—Causing indigestion, which is intensified by the inactivity of the pancreas gland, and manifests itself in the way of intestinal indigestion, under which condition we have more or less constipation and very poor assimilation, and very little benefit is received from the food partaken of.

When we direct our Psychic X-Ray to the kidneys, we find congestion present in the one on the right side, causing an imperfect process of purifying the blood; hence imperfection and disorder in cellular action, which, for the want of proper material which the blood should take up through the assimilation process, by the nutritive system, and distribute to every cell in sufficient quantity and quality, fail to perform their natural function in upbuilding and repairing the daily and hourly waste of the body.

Capillary system weak in its action, hence the circulation of the vital fluid is slow in returning to the heart. Some of the valves in the venous system seem to be deranged, not fulfilling their proper functions, but cause stagnation of the circulation in certain quarters, and the result is congestion, and at times, inflammation.

Nervous system is very much out of order especially in some parts, causing an uneven distribution of the vital forces, hence some unfavorable parts; suffer periodically; partial paralysis, from the want of that life principle and motive power, which it is entitled to under a just and even distribution.

Condition of blood, fair; circulation of blood in some parts of the system good, in other parts very poor.

Vitalization process defective, caused by a lack of the electric forces, or the feminine principle; under such unbalanced conditions the generation of the life forces can not take place.

Circulation of vital forces more or less obstructed, hence we have those paralytic conditions in certain parts of the system, these periods varying according to planetary influence, and atmospheric conditions. Soul powers very highly developed; aspirations pure and lofty; domestic love, sympathy and benevolence, manifested in a high degree. Mind, the attribute or agent of the soul is very much in evidence of being untrained, and in this undeveloped condition, is liable to run wild and play all sorts of pranks, and is not trustworthy of the administration or control of the physical body, consequently discord and ill symptoms are in evidence, mostly among the less favored members of the system.

The spiritual part is more or less hampered and snowed under by a lot of rubbish such as selfishness, greed, hypocrisy, etc., which prevent the higher part of the being to develop and attain the growth necessary in this trine combination in order to have perfect balance, harmony and health.

Complexion dark; color of hair very deep dark brown; indicates the location on the scale of vibration to be on B, hence his keynote is B. At this location we always find an angular, thin faced body tall, slender and angularly built, wiry and active, lots of energy and nerve power. Magnetic temperament, which together with highly developed soul powers, would, in some cases, evolve very great medianistic powers, but if these powerful magnetic forces are not properly controlled and held in check, they become a dangerous element in the economy of the vital process; in common ordinary human beings the result is rheumatism and paralysis, in the right side, which you might say they are subject to. Whether this is hereditary, or the result of the position of the planets under which the individual is born, we will let our astrological friends explain. In our own opinion we should say it is about half and half, and the degree of the result depends upon how these meet; that is, if we are born under certain conditions; we may also be born under other conditions that will modify the aforesaid, and vice versa.

THE TRUE HEALER.

We have a class of politicians that are not over scrupulous in their methods of obtaining an office. They seem to be very solicitous and anxious for the voters to do something for them, in exchange for some high-sounding promises, that stand for nothing when the question of the dollar is thrown in the scale.

Then we have a few of another class of politicians, who are anxious to do something for their constituents, and when their term expires they are not burdened to any great extent with the filthy lucre—that is always looked upon as an element belonging to official position.

So also we have one class of healers who are always anxious to have the patient do something handsome for them first, then they will surely cure them.

Then we have a few of that other class of healers, that are anxious to do something for the patient first, with a brotherly feeling and faith in humanity, that nearly always brings the proper remuneration.

Let the public judge which is the true healer; the one acting from a humanitarian standpoint, or the one with his eye on the dollar. It is true that a healer must live, like other people. He may be able to live on wind pudding for a little while; some of them have for forty days at a stretch, if the records are true, but eventually they will have to come down to something more solid—everything costs money now-a-days—and it is right that a healer should be paid for his work, and handsomely, too, if he does a good job; but if he don't there should be nothing coming, except perhaps for the time spent. "A dead man should owe no doctor bill." This perplexing question of pay seems to us could be easily arranged so it would be satisfactory to both parties. As a healer who understands his business can in a few minutes, in the majority of cases, give relief, he could make two propositions like this:

First, I will cure you for so much. (Stating a reasonably large sum.) If I don't cure you, you owe me nothing.

Second. You may pay me each week or day as the improvement goes on. If I cannot benefit you I have earned nothing, except perhaps a little something for my time and effort. If a healer has a clear understanding of the case and a perfect knowledge of the potent forces he is dealing with, he should know whether he can effect a cure or not; but will admit that it is impossible to know the length of time required to produce a good result, especially in a case of chronic disorder of an organic nature.

The patient himself, his environments and surroundings, has a great deal to do with it, and conditions that may arise during time of treatments; but why not say in most of the cases that it is only a question of time when you will get well under my method of treatment. In this way both parties will have a clear understanding, and the healer will of course do his or her best, and perhaps astonish the patient with a complete cure in fifteen minutes, when again it might take a week. Let us all try to be a little more conservative in our statements, and never use circulars with overdrawn statements of miraculous powers. Our testimonials are plenty large enough, when we stick strictly to the truth, and are hard enough then for the public to believe.

Don't try to make anybody believe that you know all about healing, and can heal everybody in a few days for a few dollars. The public is aware of the fact that everybody cannot acquire the art of healing any more than everybody is fit to occupy the president's chair, or any other calling. Remember that in regard to the subject of the "Healing Art Divine," we are merely peeping through the crack of the door ajar, and if we were able to devote several life-times to the study of this great subject, we might not be able to put more than one foot inside the threshold. Selfishness and egotism will sooner or later tumble to that plane where it rightfully belongs. If we expect to have any standing in courts of law, we must stand on a solid foundation of scientifically demonstrated facts.

The Birth and Growth of Uncle Sam.

BY THOMAS S. MURRAY.

One hundred and twenty-four years ago to-day, July 4, 1776, Old Liberty Bell, hanging in the dome of Independence Hall, in the city of Brotherly Love, Philadelphia, rang out the glad tidings of the birth of a new nation; a nation of states, a baker's dozen at first, taking the name of the United States of America, patronymical by Uncle Sam. On that memorable day the Declaration of Independence was signed, fifty-six patriots affixing their signatures thereto; Franklin the philosopher, remarking, "We must all hang together or we will all hang separately."

After a long and bloody war Uncle Sam gained his independence from his old father, John Bull.

Every school boy and girl should read carefully, every 4th of July, the Declaration of Independence.

Uncle Sam's family increased rapidly and prospered greatly, outgrowing the Articles of Confederation. On September 17, 1787, in the city of Brotherly Love, inspired by the grand principles of the Declaration of Independence, a working document named the Constitution of the United States was prepared, by delegates from each state, submitted to each state, ratified, and made the Magna Charta of the young, growing nation. The preamble of the Constitution should be memorized, by the youths of the nation, and repeated daily. Every voter should be familiar with the Declaration of independence, and the Constitution.

After Uncle Sam got the Constitution in good working order, the nation grew rapidly. A sister state ceded surplus lands to Uncle Sam, and under his wise and liberal management, lovers of liberty from other nations were invited and came to make permanent homes in Uncle Sam's domain.

Eight new states were formed out of the lands ceded by the states to Uncle Sam.

Seeing the advantage of having land for the children of the patriot fathers, as well as for the liberty-loving people of other nations, Thomas Jefferson, executive officer for Uncle Sam, secured in 1803 from France, a vast domain, from which have been formed twelve states and two territories.

In 1812, John Bull imposed upon Uncle Sam and got beautifully whipped.

In 1819, Florida was purchased from Spain.

In 1845, Texas, having gained her independence from Mexico, was admitted a member of the nation. Mexico got mad over this annexation, got to mistreating our citizens trading under treaty in her jurisdiction, and Uncle Sam gave her a good threshing, taking a slice of her territory to pay war expenses.

From this cession eight states and territories have been formed. The territory from which the states of Oregon and Washington have been formed was claimed by right of discovery, England and Spain each claiming a shadowy interest in this territory. Uncle Sam, by treaties, secured a clear title.

Our good and benevolent Uncle Sam, having such a vast expanse of unoccupied lands, composed and sent abroad to the oppressed and homeless of other nations a song; one verse I quote from memory:

Of all the mighty nations in the east or in the west,
This glorious Yankee nation is the greatest and
the best:

We have room for all creation—don't be alarmed—
For Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm.

Then come along, come along, make no delay—
Come from every nation, come from every way;
Our lands, they are broad enough, don't be alarmed,

For Uncle Sam is rich enough to give you all a farm.

This invitation brought the lovers of liberty

—protected by law when on our shores—from all parts of Europe.

Slavery of the sons of Ham, a domestic institution, was a bone of contention in the new states, and the southern portion of Uncle Sam's family tried to set up in business of government for themselves, but after four years of hard fighting returned to the fold. During this period, Uncle Sam's commerce being greatly disturbed by privateers, he opened up manufactories, and made himself independent of other nations. With freedom of thought, freedom in religion, free schools, press uncensored, education progressed very rapidly.

In 1867, Alaska was purchased from Russia, who sympathized with us in putting down the southern rebellion.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the great lakes to the gulf, our land is gridironed with railroads. Our manufactured products having outgrown our home consumption, Uncle Sam has had to look up markets abroad for our surplus manufactured products, as well as surplus cereals, beef, butter, cheese and pork.

Cuba, the gem of the Antilles, struggling for the right of self government, and being cruelly treated by Spain, Uncle Sam warned Spain to let Cuba go free, and when she refused, sunk her ships and drove her out of the western continent. Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands have come to us as a legacy of the war with Spain. What to do with these islands is being debated. The patriotism and wisdom of Uncle Sam will solve this question correctly, in time. During the Spanish war, the Hawaiian Islands came into the fold by annexation. Uncle Sam and other great nations are at present having some trouble with China. More ships and more men may be needed, but treaty stipulations on the part of China must be respected.

Uncle Sam is now a full grown nation.

EDITOR "THOUGHT."

We must be foolish, before we can be wise; it is through ignorance that we acquire knowledge. We must be asleep, before we can be woke up; it is in sleep that we wake up the Soul principle;

it is in sleep under the supervision of this supreme ruler of the human being, that nature builds up and repairs the physical body. You don't expect to overhaul and repair a factory when it is running in full blast; you can't even engage in conversation with the proprietor, under such clatter and noise, hence whatever tends to stop the wheels while repair is going on, is assisting nature that much, whether it be "HARMONY" thought force or a harmless drug; when a person can enjoy a good restful sleep at night there is no trouble about them getting well. If our readers want to learn how to think themselves to sleep, send for "Thought," edited by MARION EDDY, 1709 Encinal Ave., Alameda, Cali.

FROM A READER OF HARMONY.

READING, MICH., July 1, 1900.

P. Pearson, Ponca City, O. T.

DEAR SIR:—I received the June number of HARMONY last week and must say that it is a marvel. I came into the house last night very tired; and read the paper for about ten minutes and then eat my supper and went out and done my chores and felt like a new person and forgot all about being tired. I felt the magnetic vibrations without a doubt. I am interested in the wireless telegraphy. I was an operator myself 28 years ago. If it was so that I could I would like to help perfect the system, as I believe that the time is coming for man to be benefited by its use.

Yours truly,

J. G. CROXTON.

We print this above letter as a sample of many received, from different persons, all testifying to the benefits received from reading "HARMONY" for half an hour in the evening, when pain would stop, and new life would invigorate their whole system, and like Mr. Croxton feel like a new person; now we will make this statement with a full knowledge of demonstrated facts; that in the majority of cases, if a sick person knew how to handle themselves and those healing forces, streaming from every number of HARMONY especially last May number, cures and benefits might be obtained in a short time, in cases not too aggravated, especially when patient is of a negative nature, if of a severe nature and long standing, requiring a stronger application of these potent forces apply to the

EDITOR OF HARMONY.

ASTROLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

EDITED BY DR. C. S. TISDALE, 519 Pearl St., Joplin, Mo.

NOTICE—All matters concerning this department should be sent to the above address.

In this department will be given a presentation of scientific astrology, its history, votaries, nature, scope, use, and prognostications and other kindred matters.

Anyone sending five subscriptions to HARMONY is entitled to a brief outline of their possible traits of character; if ten subscriptions are sent, a complete character delineation will be given. Persons wanting these premiums will send name, sex, nationality, place, year, month, day and as near the hour and moment of birth as it can be determined, to the editor-in-chief of HARMONY, who will forward them to our address.

And What the Signs in the Heaven Say of Him.

Our National Character Delineated.

"There is one mind common to all individual men."—R. W. Emerson.

To the citizens of any nation there is one mind, in common, the public mind, and from the dawn of history itself, man has intuitively recognized this fact, and each nation has personified this national mind. "Ye heathen Chinees" personified it in Foo, and of ancient times the almond eyed children of the east were so concerned with this public character that they worshiped it, even as if it were their God. Yea it was one of the Gods. England finds its public mind set forth in John Bull, while the Emerald Isle of Ireland recognizes St. Patrick as its Patron Saint. The embodiment of its public mind. Americans have as the idol of their patriotism the venerable giant of personified beings in the personality of your Uncle Sam, who needs no more introduction. Believing in the law of growth and evolution, we maintain that the conception of our Uncle Sam was accomplished long before the days of the greatest orator of ages, Cicero, who nearly 2,000 years ago referred to George Washington as follows: "Across the ocean and after many ages, an extensive and rich country will be discovered, and in it will arise a hero (if we may credit the Sibylin oracles), who, by his counsels and arms, shall deliver his country from the slavery by which she was oppressed. This he shall do under favorite auspices, and O, how much more admirable will he be than our Brutus and Cornelius." See "Religion; page 118, by Dr. E. D. Babbitt." To trace the various environments in which Uncle Sam was placed, during centuries between his conception and birth would be a task too hard to complete in this life. But all down the ages we see the sick, the suffering and oppressed, crying for liberty, more liberty. And the ignorant asking for knowledge and truth. According to the oracles of old, Uncle Sam's conception was long preceeded by the heart needs of the world of common folks. And this race desire became incarnate in him, and the influences surrounding him during his career within the tomb of humanity were impressed upon him, so that when he was born, we find the cry of liberty upon his brow.

A child's time of birth dates from the moment that the physician begins to cut the naval cord.

Uncle Sam was born on July 4th, 1776, and the physicians who waited upon his mother, who was Miss Human-Necessity, were a committee of patriots that were authorized to draft the immortal "Declaration of Independence," which was the naval cord in this case. This committee began its work at 2 hours, 19 minutes, 34 seconds a. m., of the day in consideration. The immortal document was passed upon by congress at 2 p. m., and it was signed in the evening at 9 hours, 15 minutes p. m. Thus was the birth of Uncle Sam in the city of Philadelphia, and state of Pennsylvania, accomplished. Let us now see what the heavens say of the character of our immortal guardian of the nations welfare. On the back cover page you are given a typical picture of the personification, called Uncle Sam. He is shown in the background. Commencing in the center of the circle is shown the sun, and the planets, their orbits, and relative distance from the sun, on each of the orbits, the planets are shown in close proximity to their places at the time of Uncle Sam's birth, and on the lines with the same, is seen the name and symbol of every planet. The twelve signs of the Zodiac are shown, around the circle, next to and outside of the circle of Neptune's orbit. Of the signs of the Zodiac and planets used in the art, you have been instructed in past lessons. Aside from these there are the twelve mundane houses, and aspects, the houses are shown in this horoscope, on the circle outside of that of the zodiac, and are numbered in their order. Our next lesson will explain these houses. We will now turn our attention to the delineation of what we read from the heavens concerning the appearance of a person at maturity, born at this time and see how it symbolizes the American public mind, as set forth in Uncle Sam's picture. At the time in question, 9 degrees, 23 minutes, Gemini were rising in the eastern horizon, and mark the cusp of the first house or ascendant. In describing a person by the horoscope, we consider the sign in the ascendant, its ruling planet, the sign it is in, any planet in the 1st, and whatever aspects are formed to them.

Counting each 5 degrees of a sign we have the faces of the signs, and the 2nd face of Gemini describes a person having a tall, straight, thin and spruce body, that is strong and active, the arms are long; slender, long hands; long legs, short feet, with high instep, and capable of quick and active movements. Long, thin face; ill sanguine complexion, that is rather dark and obscure; the eyes are small, hazel grey, with sharp, quick and penetrating sights, hair is dark-brown chestnut, almost black; the nose is long and sharp and the tongue is voluble. Mars in Gemini, intensifies the above description, which is inclusive of the influence of Mercury in Cancer. Such a person represents a giant among men, and accurately symbolizes the giant among nations, which artists have so strongly pictured in the tall form of Uncle Sam. As the above native towers over his fellows, so does Uncle Sam tower above other nations.

The disposition of Gemini people show good will and intellect: they are scientific, judicious, and are passionately fond of all kinds of books, reading and knowledge; ambitious for fame; moderate and temperate in eating and drinking, are generally respected, and good members of society, but are somewhat inclined to be fickle in opinion, and inconstant in their habits and attachments, amateness, vitativeness, quick temper and reproductiveness are strong. The quality of brain power of Uncle Sam, comes from the Tera-Solar Polarity of earth in Capricornus, and sun in Cancer, which signifies one that is cheerful, fond of all kinds of sports and pleasures, music and dancing, and somewhat fond of the other sex; they bear most of the physical burdens, and represent the bone, muscle and sinew of the world. While slow to go to work, they are quick and active workers when once at it, and they are willing to do so; they are thoughtful, active and capable of a slow growth in intellectual pursuits; they are usually retiring, patient, sensitive, kind and gentle, and averse to discord and inharmony, pursue their way in a quiet, tenacious manner, have a love of home and family, a strong love of possession and somewhat inclined to selfishness. On the outer plane they appear to be slothful, but in the realm of thought they are active workers.

They admire what they possess, dislike dictation, are kind to their own family and home, and usually prefer to live in one locality for a long time. They are susceptible to psychic and magnetic control, and are many times mediumistic; very prudent, frugal and sometimes persistent in acquiring this world's goods. They require occupations calling for constant effort, patient labor and domestic love, combined with strength and power to bear. House-keeping and general management of home and family, domestic labor both outside the home and within; either in family, hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, and laundries, sewing, cooking and baking, together with chamber work.

Grief, anxiety, worry and fear, together with responsibility have often turned the hair from its natural color. Men have gone to war with dark hair, a few years and their hair is grey; and ere Uncle Sam had reached his middle age, his hair turned and is now a silvery grey; otherwise the above description is an exact one of Uncle Sam in his normal condition; and the many things he is capable of doing if he but undertook it and circumstances should favor it. We perceive from other occult sources, that prior to the conception of Uncle Sam in the remote ages of the past, that the masterhood of the once mighty "Ancient Order of the Magi" had outlined a mission of Uncle Sam's life, and hence their magnetic control of affairs led to the conception and birth of Uncle Sam under such conditions as would endow him as above.

The giant of nations, scientifically conceived and born, is the God-sent message of light and liberty for the world.

His mission is to civilize and spiritualize the human-race; reduce order from chaos, overthrow selfishness and usher in the time of the practical brotherhood of man on earth, as long foretold by Sage and Seer. And behind the din and roar of political upheavals, the clamour for place and power, the strife, discord, poverty, and other abnormal conditions, we see Uncle Sam pressing onward and upward to the successful attainment of his purpose. But at present Uncle Sam is not in his real condition of health, and Bro. Pearson has given a practical diagnosis of his case in a rather symbolical manner, and with which we fully agree. One of the most convincing evidences of astrology is to compare planetary positions with leading events, as wars, disputes, etc., as they have been in the past, and are to be in the future.

We will make this horoscope a sample of all other horoscopes, and delineate each part in our lessons to come, for space will not permit a complete delineation at this time, but offer the following points: Uranus, In Gemini, In Twelfth House and Going to Cusp of Ascendant, indicates many Secret Enemies, and Early Troubles, from Selfish People; but Moon, Lady of Eleventh (House of Friends), is in Tenth and indicates that the natives honor will be established by much warfare; all of which was fulfilled during the war of the "Bloody Rebellion," during which time Uranus made the transit of Gemini.

C. S. TISDALE, M. D., Joplin, Mo.

FLOWERS.

Yes, Sister L., we live a great deal with flowers; they are the best people we have to associate with. We visit back and forth and enjoy each other's company. A flower is not a hypocrite. They are always true to their colors; they are not selfish; they give freely of their perfumes, and beautify and pay back 100 fold the care we bestow upon them; they are not egotistic, but adopt themselves to environment, and enjoy each others company, whether they are white, red, yellow or blue. They furnish an endless study for the artist in the harmony of colors; and beautiful shading for the the naturalist in the unity and diversity of form; for the psychologist, in their various expressions of intelligence, power and perfection. A flower is an angel in the vegetable kingdom, giving forth wisdom, love and truth, according to its state of development for clairvoyant in studying its spiritual parts expressed in that beautiful aura emanating and surrounding their physical structure; this part as far as we don't know may live and exist in spiritual realness while we, for a little while, are enjoying the beauty of the corpse on our table until disintegrates and dissolves its atoms and pour them back into nature's lap; who will say that these atoms while expressing intelligence, wisdom and power, did not receive a twang of a higher rate of vibrations, that will especially fit them for a still higher expression next time and advance them at least one step higher upon the macrocosmic scale of vibration, one step nearer conscious being, one step nearer the infinite, or the top of the ladder.

P. PEARSON.

Expansion is growth, growth is the result of progression, the opposite pole of expansion is contraction, the result of a standstill and contraction is annihilation, in the onward march of progression. We know no stopping place for nation or individual, for that anglo-saxon desire for more achievements to attain, for more worlds to conquer, always present, and westward the star of Empire moves on till it overtakes the star of the East, and who will predict the results?

THOUGHT VIBRATIONS.

Uncle Sam.

Our patron saint.

Is now 124 years old.

But compared to Methuselah, he is as yet a babe.

His infantile experience, and phenomenal growth has amazed the world.

What may we not expect when maturity is reached, when he becomes fully polarized?

In a state of complete polarization, his domains will encompass the whole western hemisphere from the north pole to the south pole.

Will you allow us to predict a time coming, when our Uncle Samuel will, to a certain degree, rule over all nations on this earth? In a psychic vision we beheld Uncle Sam as represented this month on our back cover page, standing on earth, with his finger pointed towards heaven, with a smiling countenance giving forth commands, that the nations of earth will not be slow to obey.

Let the little boys shoot off the fire-crackers, let the young men shoot off the cannons, the eagle cream and flap his wings for Uncle Sam, although young, is still growing, with his mind no doubt in a Universal Republic. Who is going to stop him? Echo answers, "Who?"

United States, as the foremost nation on earth today, will, during the next century, break all former records, in map-making and new discoveries. During this progressive era the spiritual powers will be unfolded and developed, to go hand in hand in perfect harmony with universal destiny. Humanity on earth; then we may look for the millennium, or the second coming of the Christ principle on earth.

Before our mind's eye, we see a picture of a globe, partly covered with boulders and scrub oaks, between which a road winds its way upward, here we see Uncle Sam struggling under a heavy burden on his rheumatic shoulders, that fairly bends his tall frame out of recognition, with a facial expression of agony, despair and oppression, intermingled with that determination and will, which caused Alexander the Great to ask for more worlds to conquer. After some strenuous efforts he reaches the top, on which is situated a magnificent plateau, where flowers and trees grow to great perfection, intermingled with rivers and lakes of the purest of water; a new era commences; a new meaning to our national holiday, July 4th, will be instilled into the minds of the people; contentment of a higher order reigns supreme.

If Uncle Sam's psychic power were more highly developed, the generation of the vital forces, and the circulation of this life principle throughout the whole system, would be carried on, in a higher degree of perfection, and a more even balance, might be expected between unity and diversity and therefore in harmony with cosmic law and the result would be a higher degree of harmony between all cellular action, and all nerve centers great and small, and all the vital organs would work harmoniously together for the good of the whole. But what will be the consequences, when the nerve centers under a dormant psychic power, takes it upon itself the generation and circulation of the vital forces? Simply this: The concentration of vital energy, under favoritism at the expense of less favored parts of the system will, in course of time, be so great that explosions of such a magnitude will take place that the mind is liable to be affected and our dear Uncle may become a raving maniac, frantic in his efforts to destroy everything within his reach. If this condition should occur our beloved Uncle should at once be taken to a powerful magnetic healer, under whose treatment the nerve centers in the brain and along the spinal column might be readjusted and put in tune with cosmic unity and a harmonious vibration in all the different parts of the system restored, to the true symphonious chord of one, three, five, in his natural key-note, and then the millennium will not be far off.

CAMP MEETING

Of Arkansas Valley Spiritual Association Held at Winfield, Kans.

On July 14th and 15th, we had the happy privilege of visiting the above named camp, presided over by Judge S. M. Tucker, of Wichita, under the most favorable auspices of nature, in Island park, one of the most beautiful parks in the state of Kansas, where harmony and happiness reigned supreme. The association had taken great pains to secure some of our best talent for the rostrum, whose discourses were always followed by good platform test mediums.

Saturday, the 14th, nearly the whole camp took an outer outing in the way of an excursion on the steamer, Olympia, to Pastime park, five miles up the Walnut river.

This was not the well known flagship, Olympia, from which Dewey directed the annihilation of the Spanish fleet in Manila bay. Although small in size it is up-to-date in its mechanical departments. The armory carried by this well arranged little steamer, was in keeping with its size, and was occasionally trained on the mud-turtle, who delights to take a sun-bath on a log sticking out of the water, but fortunately for our little friend, Mr. Turtle, our gunner had not been trained in Dewey's command. What a lesson might we not learn from even a mud-turtle; it would be inducive to health if nothing else, if people would follow its example, and every once in a while come out of the mud and darkness, and partake of pure light, and health giving magnetic forces in a half hour sun-bath.

To say that this on-pleasure-bent and happy company enjoyed themselves hugely, does not half express it, for there were swings and sports of all kinds, and dancing in a beautiful pavillion, and when our steamer sounded the whistle for "all a board," we were in no hurry to leave, and being the last one on board, we were obliged to be contented with a seat on the gunwale, this however enabled us to be first on terra-ferma when we landed.

Among the speakers we will mention Rev.

Mrs. Hinsdale, of Fort Worth, Texas, who so ably and scientifically respond with answers and elucidations of the following questions which were handed up from a large and attentive audience.

First. What can you say of the problem of evil?

Second. Can you or any medium communicate with the spirit of a deceased friend, the home of which I will give, and his occupation when he died?

Third. Why can a person not speak to a spirit without a medium?

Fourth. Where do spirits stay?

Fifth. What is the prospect of the world to-day, is it good or bad?

Sixth. How many of the planets of our solar system are inhabited?

Seventh. What is the percentage of increase in spiritualism over theosophy in the United States the last year?

Eighth. Which will be the most uplifting to humanity, the phenomenal or inspirational; should more than one gift be developed at the same time?

Ninth. Can the soul or spirit leave the body, travel to distant places on earth's sphere, gather information, return, re-enter the body, and then impart the information to other persons?

Tenth. Who is God, and is Christ Divine?

Eleventh. If part of the bible is true, why is not all true, and if there is no Creator how came the earth and all things?

Twelfth. Is there a living God or Creator?

Among the speakers we listened to none will outweigh the earnest, and soul-uplifting discourses delivered by Mrs. Bessie Bellman, from Howard. It had everywhere the true ring of spirituality, which is the true philosophy of spiritualism.

On Sunday evening that old spiritual war-horse, Rev. L. A. Mabey, from Topeka, Kans., in her forcible discourses on "Death," made the old dry bones rattle in the orthodox graveyard, that gave unmistakable evidence of the speaker being well versed in Bible doctrine and spiritual science; besides being fearless, she is an earnest exponent of truth as she, herself, has experienced it.

Now we have not space to mention all the excellent speakers and mediums on the ground, but must say a word about that excellent little lady, Mrs. Aber, and her little Indian control, and the way they give those convincing tests, that are always recognized by some one in the audience.

The Arkansas Valley Spiritual association elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Judge S. M. Tucker, of Wichita, Kans., President.

Mrs. Bessie Bellman, of Howard, Kans., Vice-President.

Chas. O. Bethel, of Winfield, Kans., Secretary.

Mrs. Harriet Eastman, of Winfield, Kans., Treasurer.

Dr. A. S. Martin, of Cedarvale, Kans., Trustee.

This organization comprising nearly 200 members, invites all spiritualists and investigators to become members, and will so perfect their organization, that next year we will witness a still larger attendance, with yet greater enthusiasm.

A VICTORY OVER DRUGS.

On June 19 at 8 p. m., I was called to see a beautiful 19 months old baby. She is a grandchild of a prominent homeopathic physician, in this city. The little one had been very ill for two days, and was just coming out of a spasm and fever was 102. There we present several neighbors and two physicians. I sat direct in front of the child, the mother holding her on a pillow. One doctor said: "I have no faith, whatever, and sent for you for a test."

I placed my positive hand at back of brain, negative hand at solar plexus and assured the bystanders that the little one would not and could not have another spasm under these conditions. In less than one hour I had the little one quiet, never down below 100, in my arms in a sweet natural sleep. The doctors convinced that something was then doing the work Veratrum and bromine had failed to do. I left them at 10 o'clock at night.

The next evening a little later, the father of the child came hurriedly after me to come at once, fever running high. The younger of the two physicians had been doing what they saw me do, and the child growing worse. I began the same treatment and with same results as the night previous, explaining to them that while the young doctor was very magnetic, he lacked the directed will and the knowledge to hold for results as well as confidence in results. I then begged them to not give any more medicine, but trust nature to do her work, leaving them at 10 p. m. But their lack of faith in magnetism and their false education regarding medicine, overcame my wishes. At midnight the doctor directed that the child be awakened and some remedies given. The little one became fretful at once and her fever began running up, and the father came for me at 1 a. m. I responded with same result and remained until 3 a. m., and told them not to give any more medicine, as I had shown them, once, twice and thrice what I could do with the science of Phreno magnetism. They were all convinced and grateful. I called at the house next afternoon, found the mother and child on the lawn under the trees; child doing nicely and happy at its play. Have seen them almost daily since riding out by my office. All smiles and having a good time.—LENA E. FULLER, Teacher and Healer, Phreno Magnetism, Monett, Mo.

Non-Medical Healers in Ohio.

From The Progressive Thinker.

The Suggestive Theraputists, Magnetic Healers and other non-medical healers of Ohio, have organized under the name "The Psychopathic and Non-Medical Liberal Association," for the purpose of advancing the science of non-medical healing, and of protecting the members of the association from unjust prosecution under the law known as the Love Medical Law.

All non-medical healers, and others who are in sympathy with the movement are respectfully requested to write to the secretary for further information. Enclose stamp and receive in return a copy of the constitution and membership application blanks. Your co-operation is desired and solicited.—LILLIAN EICHORN, Sec., 1463 North High St., Columbus, Ohio.

MAN OVERBOARD.

Not many days after our last issue, when our ship was going at the usual 20 knot rate of speed, when the captain was most serenely pacing back and forth on the bridge, gleefully scanning the horizon, where the sky touches the briny deep, a shout from one of the crew on the starboard side, "Three passengers overboard!" caused our captain to order the mighty engines reversed and heave to, but nothing could be seen of the unfortunate, who no doubt were swallowed up in a whirlpool of ignorance and despair. Poor fellows, we would gladly have saved them from such an untimely end. However, we admire the courage of these men, taking such hazardous chance in order to save a 50c fare, but pity their judgment. We despise the fellows that hide in the coal bins or secret themselves in the fore-castle, for we have to carry their weight just the same. We glory in that man's honesty, who goes up to the captain, and truthfully admits his inability to pay, but come on board trusting to our humanitarian spirit of kindness and offers to labor for the good cause. Why this fellow can have half a dozen tickets if he wants them, besides we will give him our best attention, that he will enjoy and always remember the "HARMONY" family.

In order that we may not be responsible for any more passengers jumping overboard, we have concluded to alter our course a little to the left, where an island is in sight, then we will put ashore all delinquents and introduce them to Robinson Crusoe. He may need them as herders of sheep and goats.

It grieves us to leave them thus to their fate, as most of them are long time friends(?) and fellow travelers on this ocean of earthly existence, but perhaps they may there find the proper plane and environments they are capable of enjoying. At any future time if we should happen to pass this way, we will recognize any flag bearing the insignia of progress, and gladly stand to, and bring them aboard, when we will dish up the fattened calf of knowledge, wisdom and truth, to their hungry souls. We will heal them of their infirmities, cloth them in purest linen, and all hands will rejoice in a happy family reunion.
