ESOTERIC VIBRATION.

What is Vibration? Scientists tell us that in the wonderful simplicity of Vibration lie all complexities of change in form and color, making our earth such a beautiful and glorious home. Visible Vibration proves the existence of an Esoteric Vibration, as a cause and manifestor of the visible.

Have you ever attempted to define a vibration? Did you ever formulate an explanation of where the effect begins, and in what it ends? Did it ever seem plausible to you there is but one law of nature, and that the law of Polarization? Would you believe the assertion as a corollary to this proposition that there exists but one motion, and that is Vibration? Life is a Vibration, and death the cossation thereof.

These and other similar questions, Dr. W. P. Phelon, who has a reputation as a teacher, lecturer and writer on mystic subjects, lucidly discusses in "Esoteric Vibration," on the lines of the Hermetic Brotherhood.

CHARITY.

Two trains clushed; then and there he was crushed in a moment and died.

But the new-wedded wife was unharmed, the sitting close at his side.

She found my letter upon him, my wail of repreach and scorn;

I had cursed the woman he married, and him, and the day I was born.

They put him aside forever, and after a week—no more, A stranger as welcome as Satan—a widow come to my door.

So I turned my face to the wall; I was need. I was roving wild;

I was close on that hour of dishener, the birth of a base-born child.

I had curst her as woman and wife, and in wife and woman I found

The tenderest Christ-like creature that ever stept on the ground.

She watch'd me, she nursed me, she fed me, she sat might and day by my bad.

Till the joyless birthday came of a boy born happily dead.

And we prayed together for him, for him who had given her the name.

She had left me enough to live on. I need no wages of shame.

She died of a fover, caught when a nurse in a hospital ward.

She is high in the heaven of heavens, she is face to face with the Lord.

And He sees not her like anywhere in this pitiless world of ours!

I have told you my tale. Got you gone. I am dressing her grave with flowers.

TENNYSON.

Rise, then, anow, oh fair Atlantian thought, Tumple of power, in Wisdom's silence wrought, "Foursquare," indeed, with jewels manifold And jaspor walls and streets of shining gold: With gates of pearl that open to the wise— City of Truth and Holy Mysteries., Whose light is Love. There doth the soul abide, flan's soul—regained and purified.

In 1876, Emma Hardings Britten, the celebrated psychic lecturer, published a volume she named "Ghostland." It is a most vivid narrative of occurences outside of the pale of visible existence, for whose reality she was ready to youch. The book contained also an able account of the unfolding along spiritual lines of the movement which has become the broad thought of this day,

As the author's thought has more of a logical and reasoning bent, than an inclination toward story writing, she was not quite pleased with her work, and when the first edition was closed out, that ended it as far as she was concerned. As high as $10.00 has been paid for a single copy of the book, since it was "out of print." It is a remarkable book, and as the greater part is inspirational, and many things in it have proved prophetic, since it was written, its value has much increased. New edition sells for $1.50, Address.

White Magic versus Black,

By ALWYN M. THURBER,

Still to be the greatest metaphy-ical and occult story aver published. The Theosophast, the Occultist, the divine Scientist, the Hermetist, or everyday Liberalist -such of our thinkers who have outgrown the conventional past, and who are longing for the forthcoming era of Universal Brotherhood, will be intensely interested in this latest and by far the greatest effort of Mr. Thurber's. As a humanitarian work it has never been equaled. It deals tersely with the problems of today, and divulges the secret of the spiritual insight without a waste word or prolix sentence. The book contains 350 wide-margined pages, and is set in large and elegant type. It is embellished with several fullpage half tone engravings, drawn by able artists. The cover is also original, and done in black and gold. Altogether it is a most litting souvenir for the season, besides being a valuable addition to the world's advanced literature.

It will bring in its wake health and harmony to all who study it.

"Heithroun, or Drops from the Fountain of Health." by Panny M. Harley, lentherette, 50 cents. This book is plain and simple, and exceedingly practical and help-ful. It teaches succially of salt harding ful. It teaches specially of self-healing for both soul and body. It takes for the keynote the words of the German mystic, Jacob Boelmey: "By the activity of the word, the sleeping germs of everything are awakened

"Sermonelles from Mother Goose for Rig Folks," by Funnie M. Harley, cloth, $130, paper, 50 cents. One critic wrote; We have already had awakened sonts who have found lessons in flowers, instruction in running brooks; sermons in stones; but here is an enlightened soul who has found veritable sermons containing life, that shows duckness which hashly an entitled. light, love, wisdom, truth, health, and all the good things of God, hidden in Mother Goose's rhynes. This is an unique book that will never outlive its usefulness,

"Out of Law into Gospet, or Got in Man." by Saruh Elizabeth Griswold, paper, 50 cents. This book is writ-ton with just enough of the ronance of daily life to give its prefound statements of abstract Truth an actual setting, a pleasing background, which cannot fail to interest and instruct any sucker for Truth

"Jonnie's Victory, or Fictures Made Reat." by Sarah Elizabeth Griswood, still cover, 25 cears. All boys, both great and small, can learn something from reading about Johnnie. He is a little newsboy who has the sole care of his younger sister, and his flithfulness to the principle of righteensess, makes him a very devoted beother and anardian.

"Springwood Tales," by Helen Augusta Fussell, ifins trated, cloth, $1.00. This is one of the best books that have ever come to our notice. It is beautiful, healthful and instructive. Miss H. A. Fussell uncovers the child nature, shows its little temprations, its desires, its aspirations, and its hopes; and in each story makes the good come off victor over all error, conditions and temptations,

CHARITY.

Two trains clashed; then and there he was crushed in a moment and died.

But the new-wedded wife was unharmed, the sitting close at his side.

She found my letter upon him, my wail of reproach and scorn:

I had cursed the woman he married, and him, and the day I was born.

They put him aside forever, and after a week—no more, A stranger he welcome as Satan—a widow came to my door,

So I turned my face to the wall; I was mad, I was roving wild;

I was close on that hour of dishenor, the birth of a base-born child.

I had curst her as woman and wife, and in wife and woman I found

The tenderest Christ-like oreature that ever stept on the ground.

She watch'd me, she nursed me, she fed me, she sat night and day by my bod,

Till the joyless birthday came of a boy born happily dead.

And we prayed together for him, for him who had given her the name.

She had left me enough to live on. I need no wages of shame.

She died of a fever, caught when a nurse in a hospital ward.

She is high in the heaven of heavens, she is face to face with the Lord.

And He sees not her like anywhere in this pitiless world of ours!

I have told you my tale. Get you gone. I am dressing her grave with flowers.

TENNYSON.

Rise, then, anow, oh fair Atlantian thought,
Tomplo of power, in Wisdom's silence wrought.
"Foursquare," indeed, with jewels manifold
And jasper walls and streets of shinns gold;
With gates of pearl that open to the wise—
City of Teuth and Holy Mysteries...
Whose light is Love. There doth the soul abide,
Man's soul—regained and purified.

NATURE'S FINER FORCES LIBRARY.

Vol. I. No. 1, "How to Seek and How to Find Work," is the title of a little booklet, by Swami Myeananda, in which occult power and its application in a practical way, are pointedly discussed. The truths from many large pages are condensed within this tract. It is many times worth its price to those who need it. Send a dime for it to Jos. MALLE, 126 Carondelet Street, New Orleans, La. It may return you a thousand dollars in helpfulness.

SUN SEALED.

Is a volume of over 100 poems, sealed by the Sun and planets, after the fashion of the Ancient Magi. Its author, Geo. P. McIntyre, is a well known writer on various subjects, but has done his best work on the line of these poems. The book is bound in cloth, with beveled edges. It is old gold in color. Gold back-title, and astrological side stamp. It is elegantly printed, on heavy paper, with red edges, and ring in the back to hold book marker. It is well worth the $1,00 that it sold for, when first put on the market. We have all that are left of the edition. We will sell them from now until Christmas for 35 cents. There can be nothing finer for a Christmas gift to any friend. The number for sale, is small, and we don't intend to carry any over into '99. Do you want one? Send at once. Hermetic Pub. HER BUNGALOW, AN ATLANTIAN MEMORY.

By Nancy McKay Gordon, Linen Cloth, $1.25. Hermetic Publishing Co., 4006 Grand Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

A work unpretentious, powerful and original. It is a study of Idealistic literature, in a field, which possesses a most fascinating interest, for the great majority of mystics of the present day. The author simply claims to give the world a recurring memory, whose experiences will make life more beautiful, and lift the soul toward its highest attainments. Its theme is rebirth. Its motif "Come up Higher."

It touches and treats of the life forces in words of song, glowing with all the fire of Oriental imagery. Its typographical appearance is artistic in every particular. It is the one book of its kind yet written. From its pages we quote as follows:

"As reward of obedience, she is able to commune with the angels, and hear her hearts desire calling, calling, calling from the mountain top. She goes climbing on and on, chanting silently the unpronouncible ode that makes music for the singing of many others. Love sings it as the soul mounts higher and higher, into the knowledge of what true love is, in all its bearings towards the three planes of life. The human love exists to trine the spiritual and soul love. Her chant is not the vibration of a single phase of existence; a treble note to be drowned by the deeper wayes of the base. It is the chant of the Three-fold God, as old as the Ages and as pure as the awakening of a new born soul. It is the love that has purity for its essence. The essence of purity is an unmixed quality, sciptillating from the gem after cutting, grinding and polishing have taken off all-the roughnesses gathered into its yortex by involvehas not only been dwarfed in body, but her mential aspirations have been caged with bonds forged of steel. But an, Woman! Listen, while Liell thee! Behold, the cycle moves upward sweeping forward with the light of Inspiration. The flaming glory of newly discovered truth melts into a metal more fusible the chains that bind thee. Links becoming more flexible, will be worn with the infinite grace of God's own child. So shall ye claim your birthright."

Again, we quote the opening sentences from the last chapter: "Long since, darkness has fallen between. Enfolding them, as the gathering mists had swirled around and separated them, when leaving the Gates of Paradise. As the surging water rolls back, revealing for the last time the sinking tower, again the voice from the depths echoes through space, calling:

The IS-IS! I Come! I Come! I Come! I Come! I come! Let me rise with thee! Lift me with thy own sacred Divinity!"

THE TEMPLE.

Worry and its cure is the subject of the leading article in the September TEMPLE. After procuring the nature of this complaint and its consequences, the author gives cogent reasons for considering it an entirely needless, avoidable and curable affliction. The logical remedy for worry is found in work; and this leads to a vivid contrast of the effects of work animated by faith with that which is merely mercenary in motive and purpose. "All the work that is well done," Mr. Tyner declares; "all the honest, woble and beautiful work, is done not for pay, but in spite of it." The achievements of our navy are pointed to in proof of this position. When men shall become work-seekers rather wage seekers, the evils of involuntary idleness, strikes, lockouts, panics, adulteration and the sweat shop and bargain counter disappear, Lucy I. Stout Dowd celebrates Magdalen in a sonnet of singular purity of feeling. In the editorial section, the peace proposal of the Czar is halled as the virtual inauguration of universal disarmament, and it is suggested that Germany's opportunity lies in the voluntary restoration to France of Alsace Loraine. A somewhat surprising turn is given to suggested Anglo-American alliance; large meaning is found in the developments in the Dreyfus affair and a Preshyterian prencher's version of Moses' vision of the creation finds unexpected application. YOUR PRACTICAL FORCES.

Is the title of a 124 page book, published by Ernest Loomis & Co. It is a compilation of the first seven essays, of the "Occult Science Library." For sale by the Hermetic Publishing Co., 4006 Grand Blvd. Cloth. Sent on receipt of price, $1.25.

This is a neatly covered book, artistically arranged and strongly bound, whose pages fairly run over with occult aphorisms, instructions, and practical suggestions. But it comes finally to the conclusions of all true teachers; after one has received the sayings of the Wise, and the teachings of the Ages, unless he adapts himself in a practical way. and does the things that are urged for practice; the teaching, the reading and the accumulation are of small advantage. The instructions are really along the line of practical occult force. But it cannot be expected they can be poured into the head. It comes little by little, like the learning of the alphabet of a new language. But "Your Practical Forces" are worth both the price and the amount of study necessary to adapt to one's needs.

FLASHES OF LIGHT.

One of our local Brothers has in her family a son, who through sickness has been changed from a bright, active child to a youth who is blind, deaf and dumb. Contrary to the usual helplessness of those thus afflicted he has been able, by the help of instructors, to communicate with the outside world and has ever manifested a disposition to be helpful in the home and for himself. So far as one so shut up could be. He has lately by what is called the "Pin-pricked" process, written a little book, which is of intense interest as the work of a soul so imprisoned. His friends have helped him to print it, and tastefully bind it in cloth. And he hopes to be able, by its sale, to be a help to himself. We are sure all the Brotherhood will be willing to help him dispose of the edition. The sooner the better. The book is put at 25c. We will receive orders therefor, without any charge for the handling. The young man needs the income, both for use and for his encouragement. We trust all our Brotherhood will make it a personal matter. Address,

Thave used Ripans Tabules with so much satisfaction that I can cheerfully recommend them. Maye been troubled for about three years with what I called bilious attacks coming on regularly once a week. Was told by different physicians that it was caused by bad teeth, of which I had several. I had the teeth extracted, but the attacks continued. I had seen advertisements of Ripans Tabules in all the papers but had no falth in them, but about six weeks since a friend induced me to try them. Have taken but two of the small 5 cent boxes of the Tabules and have had no recurrence of the attacks. Have never given a testimonial for anything before, left the great amount of good which I believe has been done me by Ripans Tabules induces me to add mine to the many testimonials you doubtless have in your possession now. A. T. DEWITT.

I have been a great sufferer from constitution for over tive years. Nothing gave me any relief. My feet and legs and abdomen were bloade so I could not were shows on my feet and only a loose dress. I saw kippins Tabbles advertised in our daily paper, hought some and took thom as directed. Have taken them about three weeks and there is such a change! I am not constipated any more and I owe it nit to kipans Tabules. Tam thirty-seven years old, have no occupation, only my household duties and nursing my sick husband. He has had the dropsy and I am trying Ripans Tabules for him. He feels some better but it will take some time, he has been sick so long. You may use my letter and name as you like.

MIR. MARY GORMAN CLAREK.

I have been suffering from headaches over since I was a little girl. I could never ride in a cur or go into a crowded place without getting o headache and siek at my stomach. I heard about Ripans Tabules from an aunt of into who was taking them for extern of the stomach. She had found such relief from their use sheadwised me to take them too, and thave been doing so since lust October, and will say they have completely enred my besideches. I am twenty-nine years old. You are welcome to use this testimonial.

Mrs. J. BROOKMYBE.

I want to inform you, in words of highest praise, of the benefit I have derived from Ripans Tabules. I am a professional nurse and in this profession a clean head to always needed. After one of my cases I found myself completely run down. Acting on the advice of Mr. Geo. Bower, Ph. G., 588 Newark Avo., Jorsey City, I took Ripans Tabules with grand results.

Miss Bredie Wirdman.

Mother was troubled with heartburn and sleepleanness, caused by indigestion, for a good many years. One day she saw a tastimonisi in the paper indorating Ripans Tabules. She determined to give them a trial, was greatly relieved by their use and now takes the Tabules regularly: She keeps a few cartons Ripans Tabules in the house and says she will not be without them. The incertourn and sleeplessness have disappeared with the indigestion which was formerly so great a hurden for her. Our whole family take the Tabules regularly, especially after a hearty meal. My mother is hirly years of ago and is enjoying the heart of health and spirits; also ests hearty meals, an impossibility before she took Ripans Tabules.

My soven-year-old boy suffered with pains in his haut, constipation and complained of his stomach. He could not ace like children of his use do and what he did eat tild not agree with him. He was tim and of a safron color.

Reading some of the testimentals in favor of Bipans Tabules, I tried them. Bipans Tabules not only refleved but setually cured my youngster, the headaches have disappeared, bowels are in good condition and he never complains of his stomach. He is now a red, chulby faced boy. This wonderful change I attribute to Bipans Tabules. I amentisfied that they will benefit any one from the cradie to old age; if taken according to directions.

ESOTERIC VIBRATION.

What is Vibration? Scientists tell us that in the wonderful simplicity of Vibration lie all complexities of change in form and color, making our earth such a beautiful and glorious home. Visible Vibration proves the existence of an Esoteric Vibration, as a cause and manifestor of the visible.

Have you ever attempted to define a vibration? Did you ever formulate an explanation of where the effect begins, and in what it ends? Did it ever seem plausible to you there is but one law of nature, and that the law of Polarization? Would you believe the assertion as a corollary to this proposition that there exists but one motion, and that is Vibration? Life is a Vibration, and death the cessation thereof.

These and other similar questions, Dr. W. P. Phelon, who has a reputation as a teacher. lecturer and writer on mystic subjects, lucidly discusses in "Esoteric Vibration," lines of the Hermetic Brotherhood. Sent by mail on receipt of 25 cents.

THE SCIENCE OF ASTROLOGY...

Given its true expression through the individual Horoscope by

COUNTESS GERTRUDE DE BIELSKI.

Upon application and four conts postage, a descriptive circular will be sent containing full particulars. Children's Horoscopes a specialty.

Address, care of SCHOOL OF HERMETIC PHILOSOPHY,

Extracts from two of many testimonials. Names are omitted as they are confidential.

NEW YORK CITY, April 26th, 1897.

East 56th Street.

DEAR MMR. DE BIELSKI:
Will you kindly write me promptly if you are still in Chicago, and can do some more work for me?
I have been experimenting with Astrologers recently, and conclude you are far the bost, and most careful, and conscientions worker we have.

> PHILADELPHIA, PA., Fob. 28th, 1897. - Street.

DEAR MER. DE BIELSKI:
The Horoscopes reached me. If the practical American adage. "Money Talks" is true, then the inclosure will express what I think of your eleverness. Two of them are really wonderful, and should convince the most skeptical that Astrology is Scientific, not guess, work. Your delineation of me,

MRS. F. B. NASH, SCIENTIFIC PALMIST.

READER and Delineator of the hand, as a record of the Past, Present and Puture. Photographs of hands from a distance read with written delineation. Past incarnations read.

Mrs. Nash has had the instruction of the best Palmists, and with her added experience has an original method of her own. She has also the recommendation of people who know of what they are talking. She will arrange for pupils, either in class, or by correspondence. For further particulars, terms, etc., address

MRS. F. B. NASH,
