TOWARD A BETTER LIFE

Your Key to find the Success Within You!

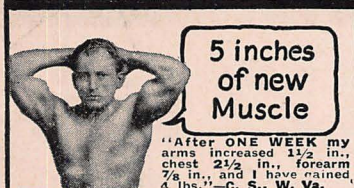

GEE what a build!
Didn't it take a long time to get those muscles?

No SIR! - ATLAS
Makes Muscles Grow
Like Magic!

Will You Give Me 7 Days to PROVE I Can Make YOU a New Man?

LET ME START SHOWING YOU RESULTS LIKE THESE

5 inches of new Muscle

"After ONE WEEK my arms increased 1 1/2 in.,
chest 2 1/2 in., forearm
7/8 in., and I have gained
4 lbs."—C. S., W. Va.

What a difference!

"Started a week ago.
Have put 3 1/2
in. on chest
(normal) and 2 1/2 in.
expanded."—F. S.,

YES- I'M CONVINCED THAT I CAN MAKE GOOD MONEY IN RADIO. I'M GOING TO START TRAINING FOR RADIO RIGHT NOW.

NO- NOT ME. I'M NOT GOING TO WASTE MY TIME. SUCCESS IS JUST A MATTER OF LUCK AND I WASN'T BORN LUCKY.

BILL SAID
"YES"
HE'S MAKING
GOOD MONEY
IN RADIO
NOW

THIS N.R.I. TRAINING IS GREAT. AND THEY SENT REAL RADIO PARTS TO HELP ME LEARN QUICKLY

YOU CERTAINLY KNOW RADIO. MINE NEVER SOUNDED BETTER.

I'VE BEEN STUDYING RADIO ONLY A FEW MONTHS AND I'M ALREADY MAKING GOOD MONEY IN MY SPARE TIME

THANKS

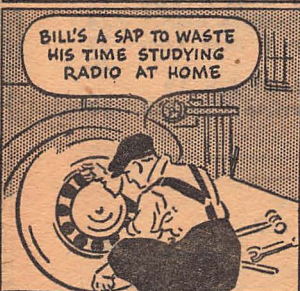

OH BILL! I'M SO PROUD OF YOU, YOU'VE GONE AHEAD SO FAST IN RADIO

YES! I'VE GOT A GOOD JOB NOW AND A REAL FUTURE. THANKS TO N.R.I. TRAINING

TOM SAID
"NO"
HE'S STILL WAITING FOR "LUCK"

BILL'S A SAP TO WASTE HIS TIME STUDYING RADIO AT HOME

SAME OLD GRIND -- SAME SKINNY PAY ENVELOPE -- I'M JUST WHERE I WAS FIVE YEARS AGO

GUESS I'M A FAILURE. LOOKS LIKE I'LL NEVER GET ANYWHERE

YOU'LL ALWAYS BE A FAILURE, TOM, UNLESS YOU DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. WISHING AND WAITING WON'T GET YOU ANYWHERE

J. E. SMITH, President
National Radio Institute Established 1914

Radio broadcasting stations employ engineers, operators, station managers and pay up to $5,000 a year. Fixing Radio sets in spare time pays many $200 to $500 a year—full time jobs with Radio jobbers, manufacturers and dealers as much as $30, $50, $75 a week. Many Radio Experts open full or part time Radio sales and repair businesses. Radio manufacturers and jobbers employ testers, inspectors, foremen, engineers, servicemen, and pay up to $6,000 a year. Automobile, police, aviation, commercial Radio, loudspeaker systems are newer fields offering good opportunities now and for the future. Television promises to open many good jobs soon. Men I trained have good jobs in these branches of Radio. Read how they got their jobs. Mail coupon.

Many Radio Experts make $30, $50, $75 a Week

Many Make $5, $10, $15 a Week
Extra in Spare Time While Learning

The day you enroll I start sending Extra Money Job Sheets; show you how to do Radio repair jobs. Throughout your training I send plans and directions that made good spare time money—$200 to $500—for hundreds, while learning. I send you special Radio equipment to conduct experiments and build circuits. This 50-60 method of training makes learning at home interesting, fascinating, practical. I ALSO GIVE YOU A MODERN, PROFESSIONAL ALL-WAVE, ALL-PURPOSE RADIO SET SERVICING INSTRUMENT to help you make good money fixing Radio while learning and equip you for full time jobs after graduation.

Find Out What Radio Offers You

Act Today. Mail the coupon now for "Rich Rewards in Radio." It's free to any fellow over 16 years old. It points out Radio's spare time and full time opportunities and those coming in Television; tells about my training in Radio and Television; shows you letters from men I trained, telling what they are doing and earning. Find out what Radio offers YOU! MAIL COUPON in an envelope, or paste on a postcard—NOW!

THOUGHTS HAVE WINGS

You Can Influence Others With Your Thinking

TRY IT SOME TIME. Concentrate intently upon another person seated in a room with you, without his noticing it. Observe him gradually become restless and finally turn and look in your direction. Simple—yet it is a positive demonstration that thought generates a mental energy which can be projected from your mind to the consciousness of another. Do you realize how much of your success and happiness in life depend upon your influencing others? Is it not important to you to have others understand your point of view—to be receptive to your proposals?

How many times have you wished there were some way you could impress another favorably—get across to him or her your ideas? That thoughts can be transmitted, received, and understood by others is now scientifically demonstrable.

This FREE Book Points the Way

The tales of miraculous accomplishments of mind by the ancients are now known to be fact—not fable. The method whereby these things can be INTENTIONALLY, not accidentally, accomplished has been a secret long cherished by the Rosicrucians—one of the schools of ancient wisdom existing throughout the world. Write for the free copy of the fascinating sealed book, "THE SECRET HERITAGE," which explains how you may receive this unique wisdom and benefit by its application. Address: Scribe H.M.C.

NEWSREEL THRILLS!

Photographing the war in China . . . flying through Niagara Falls . . . making closeups of a volcano in eruption . . . swooping low over the burning Morro Castle . . . witnessing a bloody European assassination . . .

These are but a few of the real thrills experienced by newsreel cameramen whose stories are told in text and pictures in the big new FOTO magazine.

In "Too Hot to Handle," Clark Gable enacted the fictional career of a newsreel hero. Now FOTO presents the careers of cameramen in true life.

And you will find this lavish picture spread every bit as exciting as the movie!

"Thrilling Adventures of Newsreel Cameramen" is but one of the twenty-five engrossing features in the February FOTO.

Which Way America? By L. Edward Johndro

The Birthday Outlook for President Roosevelt

It is late. The 1938 political show is over; the orchestral strummer has stepped behind the asbestos to examine the crack in his banjo, the leak in his squeeze fiddle; the sword swallowers have gone home; the magic carpet has been rolled up to be sent to storage; the red spotlight has been carelessly swung from extreme left stage and now through the open stage door it casts a fading oval beam into the very dewy dawn stealing up the alley without; the New Deal glare lights are off and there remain only the more mellow blues and greens.

The play gives promise that with further alterations in 1940 it will be a success, though as yet over half the audience still does not think so. It is an improvement on the 1936 show—less spot upon the wings and more drama down the center. It registers restraint and becalming moderation.

And now as interlude, while we await the Battle on the Hill, Swami Farley steps upon the dim lit stage, dragging the left forward wheel that came off the Donkey bandwagon. From a seat in the shadows I listen for a moment to his oriental advisements to the 1940 Elephant. The Swami is right. Mr. Vandenberg is beatable—for president. This not being news, I tiptoe out, catch a tram for Park Hill, and presently find myself seated opposite Dr. Herrick in his study, and asking, "Where do Mr. Roosevelt and the New Deal go from here?"

The doctor turns to his pivoted chart and begins to toy with its symbols. He hums a bar from "The Merry-go-round Broke Down" as he moves the pins about, finally breaking into "Show Me The Way To Go Home" as he moves the Uranus symbol to the eighteenth degree of Virgo and steps back to survey the result.

Before we can define the whither, we must consider the wherefor, he explains. In most men and movements there are enough virtues and capacities for success, did they but face their faults. Which is a way of saying that our flattering friends and yes men are our enemies, our critics are our friends. To speak kindly, then, of Mr. Roosevelt and the New Deal is to cite the missteps that led to the recent electoral revolt and poises the question, whither. Leaving merits to speak for themselves, what quirks led such worthy objectives up so blind an alley? Let the wheel speak.

1. Sun conjunction Venus—The wisdom (Sun) of the Innocents (Venus); dramatizing (Venus) the Self (Sun); desiring a too easy (Venus) life (Sun) for America; glorifying (Sun) peace (Venus) in a world not yet rid of meanies (Saturn) square Venus; craving yes men (Venus) to his wisdom (Sun); holding that "bright (Sun) boys (Venus)" cannot be stupid (Venus) square Saturn) nor their plays (Venus) dumb (Saturn).

2. Sun leaving square Saturn—Leading life (Sun) away from work (Saturn); the brand of wisdom (Sun) that seeks to repudiate the past (Saturn)—the horse-and-buggy charge; the ego (Sun) leaving humility (Saturn) behind; a waning and sub-square wisdom (Sun) in handling the farm and labor (Saturn) question; bright days (Sun) fading because of debts (Saturn).

3. Sun supersquare Neptune—Overconfidence; failure to exactly square the Self (Sun) with the public and politicians (Neptune); failure to square the New Deal (Neptune) with wisdom (Sun) because of that super or superlative complex; too enthusiastically credulous (Neptune) in absorbing anything new (Neptune) as a superlatively square way of life (Sun); wholesale borrowing and spending (Neptune), super credit, as a way to brighter (Sun) skies bye and bye (Neptune); spending tomorrow (Neptune) today (Sun).

4. Sun supersquare Jupiter—Excessive self-esteem; concern of Self (Sun) distinction (Jupiter); supersquare righteousness (Jupiter) of spirit (Sun); superabundance of legislation (Jupiter) of the I (Sun) brand; loans beyond capacity to pay; a bid for brighter days (Sun) by supertaxation (Jupiter); the abundant (Jupiter) life

(Sun) with supersquare trimmings; tax (Jupiter) the life(Sun) out of capital (Jupiter) to make Everyman(Sun) an arrogant king(Jupiter).

5. Sun 105 Pluto in 9th—Wisdom(Sun) shot through with foolish and crackpot (Pluto) philosophies(9th); nobody(Pluto) but I(Sun); lack(Pluto) of wisdom(Sun) to see that "I(Sun) am nobody(Pluto), I(Sun) am wrong(Pluto)" is equally true on occasion; weak(Pluto) strains in foreign(9th) policies reflect on wisdom(Sun) and distract from brighter days(Sun).

6. Sun sesquiquadrate Mars—An executive(Mars) wisdom(Sun) that seeks social (Venus) betterment(Jupiter) by destroying (Pluto) initiative(Uranus) through destructive(Pluto) dictation(Uranus).*

7. Mercury 75 Neptune—Political and public(Neptune) minded(Mercury), but credulous and wishful(Neptune) thinking (Mercury); the brain(Mercury) trust (Neptune) chaos(Neptune) of theories (Mercury); verbal(Mercury) promise (Neptune) not favorably tied to performance(see Mars).

8. Mercury square Pluto—Confireres(Mercury) too much with crackpots(Pluto); how square the waste(Pluto) with theories (Mercury); loss(Pluto) of memory(Mercury) of previous statements(Mercury) create bad(Pluto) opinion(Mercury); theories(Mercury) soon forgotten(Pluto) for other suggestions of demagogic(Mercury) crackpots(Pluto); talking(Mercury) squares nothing(Pluto).

9. Mercury trine Mars—Acts(Mars) too much on theory(Mercury); conquest (Mars) in verbal(Mercury) battle(Mars), but depends too much on words(Mercury) in the face of force(Mars)—"Just begun to fight," strong(Mars) words(Mercury), these; meanwhile wordless action abroad steals the show; spokesmen(Mercury) often rash(Mars)—preach(Mercury) fight and turmoil(Mars); bookkeeping(Mercury) in the red(Mars); the reds(Mars) have too much say(Mercury).

10. Venus square Saturn—Seeks easy (Venus) way to meet hard, economic realities(Saturn); Partiality(Venus) to labor, the farmer, the poor, the aged(Saturn) as part of a square deal but raps all savers (Saturn) of a dollar(Venus); foster's selfish grab(Saturn) in the poor(Saturn) by encouraging gimme(Venus), while deploring(Saturn) the self-interest(Saturn) of Nature's favorites(Venus); would square all service(Saturn) to the pattern of yes men(Venus); devalues(Saturn) the dollar (Venus) to doll(Venus) up the debtor (Saturn); would like(Venus) to square off the debt(Saturn), but goes in deeper(Saturn) for gimme(Venus); deceptive(Saturn) peace(Venus) by neutrality or isolation(Saturn).

11. Venus sesquiquadrate Uranus—"Give (Venus) me authority, power(Uranus)"; the power(Uranus) and then the revolt (Uranus) of gimme(Venus); gives trade (Venus) to the dictators(Uranus); the changeable(Uranus) dollar(Venus), planned(Uranus) society(Venus), election (Uranus) candy(Venus), shocking(Uranus) childplay(Venus), jittery(Uranus) peace(Venus), leftist(Uranus) favoritism (Venus), coddled(Venus) strikers(Uranus) then finally an election and a changed (Uranus) picture(Venus).†

12. Mars semisquare Neptune—Acts (Mars) too much on political, wishful and utopian(Neptune) considerations; attempts at executive(Mars) magic(Neptune) results in hot(Mars) water(Neptune); procrastinated(Neptune) air and naval(Neptune) defenses(Mars)—missed the sign that Mars being east and Pluto west, makes good(Jupiter) and easy (Venus) pickings for MIGHT(Mars) and a lost(Pluto) cause(Uranus) for trusting idealists(Neptune).†

13. Mars semisextile Pluto—Executive (Mars) waste(Pluto); the battles(Mars) lost(Pluto); much ado(Mars) about nothing(Pluto); damaged (Pluto) by turning on the "heat"(Mars); weak(Pluto) defenses(Mars).

14. Jupiter conjunction Neptune—The gold(Jupiter) boost(Neptune); the "money(Jupiter) magic(Neptune)"; pie in the sky for the international(Neptune) bankers'(Jupiter) credit(Neptune) money (Jupiter) racket; colossal(Jupiter) spending(Neptune) and borrowing(Neptune), Santa Claus(Neptune) with public(Neptune) money(Jupiter); artificial(Neptune) prosperity(Jupiter); price(Jupiter) inflation(Neptune); assumes credit(Neptune) for all betterment(Jupiter).

15. Jupiter trine Uranus—A try(trine)

† Check east and west tones of this aspect for effects on industry and taxation, as per preceding footnote.

for prosperity(Jupiter) by lavish, costly (Jupiter) experimentations(Uranus); tries (trine) to dictate(Uranus) legislation (Jupiter) and reorganize(Uranus) the courts(Jupiter); the gold(Jupiter) mandate(Uranus); managed(Uranus) money (Jupiter); inclined to think the different, startling and most upsetting(Uranus) course is best(Jupiter); tries pulling the glove through itself to make the left(Uranus) fit the right(Jupiter) hand—hard on the glove and on “all hands.”

16. Progressed Saturn conjunction Neptune and Jupiter—Reduces(Saturn) production(Neptune) to boost(Neptune) prices(Jupiter); the magic(Neptune) plenty(Jupiter) by scarcity(Saturn) thesis; endorses the privately(Saturn) owned Federal Reserve(Saturn) credit(Neptune) money(Jupiter) system, and greatly(Jupiter) expands(Neptune) national debt (Saturn) in borrowing and interest, in lieu of owning the Federal Reserve banks and issuing legal money as per the Constitution.

17. Uranus trine Neptune and Jupiter—The hydro(Neptune)electric(Uranus) spree; tap the treasury(Jupiter) for every imaginable(Neptune) experiment(Uranus); seeks the good and abundant(Jupiter) life through political(Neptune) power (Uranus); controlled(Uranus) inflation (Neptune) supposed to escape(Uranus) the future(Neptune) pay day(Jupiter).

18. Progressed Jupiter conjunction Pluto—Stupendous(Jupiter) waste(Pluto); would make princes(Jupiter) out of hobos (Pluto) and put capital(Jupiter) in the doghouse(Pluto).

19. Ascendant conjunction Uranus in Virgo—Personally inclined(Asc.) to experiment, dictate, boss elections(Uranus), revamp(Uranus) the courts and the Constitution(Virgo); the rise of lefthanded (Uranus) methods(Virgo)—and the eventual rising revolt(Uranus) to this threat to Constitutional law and order(Virgo).

“Sounds like a mighty poor setup,” I remark as Dr. Herrick pauses.

“Not at all,” he snaps. “These planetary rays have their merits—many potential expressions, in fact. But which expression a planet takes depends not upon oneself only, but upon the trends and events of one’s times and upon the type of one’s associates and advisors, who assist or hinder the best self-expression of any ray.”

I see. Then how about a third party or third term in 1940?”

The doctor shakes his head. “The 3rd house of Mr. Roosevelt’s nativity was opposed by Neptune, Jupiter and progressed Saturn. Therefore a third party, or a third term within the Democratic party, is opposed as a result of missteps arising from 2, 3, 4, 6, 12, 14, 16, 17, and by a rightest(Jupiter) and conservative(Saturn) political and public(Neptune) trend which in 1940 will be overwhelming because Jupiter and Saturn will then transit his Jupiter and Neptune opposite the 3rd house.

“Further, the orb of Neptune trine Uranus measures four years—meaning his New Deal(Neptune) reached its peak of power (Uranus) four years after the 1933 inauguration, early in 1937. The orb of Venus to Sun and Saturn square to Sun was five years—showing marked decline(Saturn) of popularity(Venus) in the fifth year, 1938. The orb of Saturn conjunction Neptune and Venus square Neptune was seven years and eight months, which brings us to November 1940. It means the public and politicians(Neptune) go conservative(Saturn) and repudiate(Saturn) the New Deal(Neptune); economic facts(Saturn) catch up with magic and spending(Neptune); popularity(Venus) vanishes(Neptune); retirement(Saturn) from politics (Neptune) becomes in order while Saturn and Jupiter then transiting his Neptune and Jupiter will still grant a fair historical(Saturn) appraisal(Jupiter) of his best (Jupiter) ideals(Neptune).”

But what if he were elected in 1940,” I persist.

“That assumption is without evidence. But grant it and we find the Ascendant and Uranus square to Mars in the 10th, Mars conjunction Moon in the 10th and Mars sextile Saturn, all in the 9th year. From the election and inauguration of 1932 and 1933 that brings us to 1941-42. If then president(10th house) these would surely involve the government(10th house) in war(Mars) as a broadsides(square) to the rising dictators(Uranus rising), or arising from a Russian(Uranus) Fascist(Mars) conflict, or a stop Hitler(Saturn) war (Mars), or the difficult(Uranus) role of neutral(Saturn) and spectator(Moon) of war(Mars)—not to dwell upon the domestic(Moon) evidence of revolutions(Uranus) and strife(Mars). Jupiter conjunction Pluto measures 10 years—1942-43 would threaten financial(Jupiter) collapse(Pluto), due to eight years of economic pump priming plus a year or two of war, or defense costs.”

“And how, Doctor, do you account for the contrast between the 1936 and 1938 elections?”

“The faux pas, are they not enough?” he counters. “And the wheel keeps turning.” He spun the chart. “Notice that during 1936-37 Neptune was still transiting his rising Uranus—the magic(Neptune) of his leadership and reforms(Uranus) had not worn off. But with the Summer of 1938 Neptune began to pull away from his Uranus, and by 1940 the politicians and the public(Neptune) will be wholly out of touch with his radical(Uranus) methods (Virgo) which they endorsed in 1936.

“Moreover, in 1940 Uranus will transit his Pluto—party control(Uranus) will become lost(Pluto) to him. Meanwhile Uranus transiting his Neptune and Jupiter in 1938 and the first half of 1939 will bring decided changes(Uranus) in New Deal (Neptune) legislation and laws(Jupiter)—changes(Uranus) to the good(Jupiter). And in 1940 Mr. Roosevelt’s acknowledged political(Neptune) luck(Jupiter) will be on the side of retirement or a complete return(Saturn) to the right(Jupiter). Make no mistake, the masses(Saturn) are going right(Jupiter) in 1940; they will elect no radical, nor outright liberal(Uranus) of the present New Deal school. Mr. Roosevelt, with Uranus rising, can hardly become sufficiently conservative and rightest to meet the requirements. Besides, the conjunction of Jupiter with Saturn in November 1940 falls in Taurus—the job of saving(Saturn) something of the capital (Jupiter) structure, and of working(Saturn) for prosperity(Jupiter) instead of spending(Neptune) for it, will be turned over to the Elephant(Taurus).”

“But will not Mr. Roosevelt’s progressiveness outweigh that trend of the times?”

“No. His converse Ascendant and Uranus progress square to his Saturn over late 1938 and early 1939. Here his personal inclination(Asc.) to reforms, dictation and authority(Uranus) meet the broadside interference(square) of conservatives, realists, labor and the farm block(Saturn); he becomes converted to the necessity for national unity(Saturn) in the face of real and exaggerated fear(Saturn) of foreign dictators(Uranus). Here you have the halt (Saturn) in experimentation and reform (Uranus); an end to obstruction(Saturn) to heavy(Saturn) industries and private (Saturn) power(Uranus) projects; the repudiation of one(Saturn) man power(Uranus). At the same time the ascendant and Uranus passes opposite Venus—feeling (Venus) runs strong against dictation and dictators(Uranus), and against meddling(Uranus) social(Venus) planning.

The Root of All Evil

(Before reading this article, do the Self-Analysis Quiz on page 18)

Many of us, in our struggle with life and its problems, are hampered at the outset by a badly defined attitude toward money. Whatever we as idealists or philosophers would like to think about money, we are forced very early in our lives to realize that money is an extremely important thing. Some of us realize this because we have money, and would be loathe to do without it; more because we haven't got it, know how difficult it is to get, and are required almost from the outset of our lives to realize that there are very few things in the world, including life itself, that can exist independent of money.

As opposed to a world in which man becomes increasingly an Economic animal, western civilization has a religious and philosophic training that makes it difficult for him to place a true value on money. Jesus said, "Take no thought for the morrow, for sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. . . . Consider the lilies of the field, they toil not, neither do they spin; yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." Jesus also drove the money-changers from the courtyard of the Temple; admonished his disciples to "give all to the poor and follow me"; and declared that "it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven." St. Paul followed him with the dictum that "The love of money is the root of all evil." Our religious and philosophic writing teems with statements and innuendos highly derogatory to money and to those who place a premium on getting and holding it.

Yet despite this, we, as simple human beings in an economic world, find that we must have money if only as a means to acquiring the bare necessities of life. The poet Wordsworth complained,

"The world is too much with us. Late and soon,

Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers—

Little we see in nature that is ours—

We have given our hearts away, a thankless boon . . ."

We are all likely to feel, at some time that we are spending an unconscionable amount of time in the mere business of getting a living. Occasionally we get a fleeting, bird's-eye view of our lives, and are shocked and disappointed by what we see. We rise early, we work all day, and we go to bed in order to be able to work another day. For what? Presumably we work to live; and in the end, we discover that we are living to work. We begin life with high hopes, with great aspirations, with a dream or an objective toward which we want to work. In order to be able to achieve our goal, we take a job that we may live; and shortly we discover that the sum total of our lives is our job, and that we have, apparently, no other goal except to be able to continue to work. What are we living for, anyway? If we measure the hours we work, and the hours we do anything else, most of us will discover that we work approximately 12 hours a day (from the time we get up till we come home to supper); and sleep approximately eight hours; leaving some four hours, or one sixth of our time, for the business of living . . . of doing those things, that is, for which we consider life worth while.

This is an almost inescapable set-up, except for two small classes of people—those who have money and don't have to work for it; and those who haven't money and won't work anyway. Both the Idle Rich and the Idle Poor (I don't mean the unemployed but rather the eternal loafers and spongers of society) have no especial financial problem to face. The rest of us—the great Ninety Percent who are neither rich nor lazy—have a definite financial problem, and no particularly well integrated attitude toward the root of the problem—money itself.

The surest way to success and happiness is to acquire a definite and progressive attitude toward money, and toward the work that produces money.

The surest fire way to failure and deep unhappiness is to put either too much, or too little, emphasis on money. The man or woman who idolizes money for its own sake is committed to a life of grasping discontent, since he will never have enough. He will wear himself out, use up all his time, all his energy; dry up his springs of human sympathy and kindness; lose interest in his friends and neighbors; and he will never arrive at his goal, which is, by definition, always beyond him.

The man or woman, on the other hand, who places too little importance on money, commits himself to a perpetual life of worry about the mere necessities of living—food, clothing, shelter. Through exaggerating a contempt for money, he makes it more and more difficult to get the things which money can buy, without which he cannot live at all. He is committed to economic failure, because he underestimates the economic cornerstone of our present existence. Like the man who places undue value on money, he will spend his life seeking for even just enough money to live on; and like his more grasping brother, he will exhaust himself and his inner possibilities in the mere struggle for existence.

Therefore, it doesn't pay to place too much or too little emphasis on money. Whether we like it or not, we are forced to have a healthy and realistic respect for money. Jesus recognized this when they tried to trip him in the matter of the rightness of paying tribute to Caesar. He replied, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." And you will note that St. Paul never said that money is the root of all evil. It was the love of money. It is this important difference that we are likely to lose sight of when, as young and starry-eyed enthusiasts, or as older abstract philosophers, we inveigh against "filthy lucre" and self-righteously feel ourselves to be better than our neighbors because we put less emphasis on getting money.

There are very few people who will admit that they care about money for its own sake. Even the most avid and hard-boiled of business men will claim that money doesn't mean anything to him—it's the things that money will buy. And this, of course, is true. Money all by itself is the most useless thing in the world. Gold itself is not worth storage space. Read Frank Norris' novel McTeague for a dramatic, and terrible, object lesson in the worthlessness of gold. Money is valuable only because of what it will buy. Your attitude toward money, therefore, is naturally your attitude toward what you want to buy. And what you want to buy (acquire, have, get, possess) is the ineluctable measure of what you are. For what you want to possess, materially, will always be determined by what you want that is not material. If you want enough things that are not material, then your material wants will reduce themselves to a minimum. If you want, for example, love, you can get this on $15 a week, as well as on $100. But if you want a steam yacht, you have to aim for more money. If you want to read books and learn things, you can do this on $15 a week very nicely, if you live where there is a library. But if you want to own a $10,000 estate and have servants and a Lincoln car with a chauffeur, you will need to fix your wages higher.

Your attitude toward money is going to be determined first and foremost by your attitude toward the things that money can't buy. If you are burning with zeal for things that money can't buy, you will never demand much money. If, however, you have no capacity for, or interest in, love, learning, books, art, music, poetry, human companionship—or if your interest in these things is less than your interest in fancy clothes, gay parties, fast cars, and elaborate houses—then you are bound to place more emphasis on the getting, having, spending of money.

People who are interested in the intangibles of life have a way of considering themselves superior to people whose interests are more earthly, more concerned with material objects and possessions. The Intellectuals, the Artists, who are satisfied with little return from the economic world, and who get their satisfactions otherwise, are prone to consider themselves a finer breed of oats than the others whom they consider earth-bound money-grubbers.

I do not think these Intellectuals and Artists are justified in the contention that they are better or finer than their more mercantile brethren. I think they are just luckier. Their attitude toward work and money rests on something within themselves, because of which they approach the business of earning a living for exactly what it is worth. It is a means of sustenance, of literally keeping body and soul together, so that the soul may continue to inhabit the body, and enjoy therein the things that are enjoyable about life. For what, after all, is the use of keeping the soul in the body, if the soul has nothing to do there? If the Soul is not eager for human love, for human companionship; if the soul is not hungry for life, eager to absorb it by both experience and learning, of what use is Life to the soul? The body is all well enough, but without the mind, the heart, the soul, it is a meaningless lump of clay. The lucky of this world are they who have learned how to keep the body alive for the soul's (mind's, heart's) enjoyment, pleasure, happiness. And these attributes of the soul cannot be bought by money; yet without money, in some degree, there will be no soul left on earth to enjoy them, to be happy, to love, and live, and learn.

The best way to keep money in its proper place in your life, is to place importance on things that do not depend on money. Start out with your income, your living conditions, exactly what they are now. You are probably not satisfied with them. You probably want a raise, a better house, a better room, a thousand things that you do not have. Forget them for the moment. You are alive. Somehow you have reached this point in your life without dying of malnutrition or exposure to the elements. Your present means of support, whatever it is, we shall assume can last a month or so longer. Forget that you want more money, more income, more material blessings. Take your mind off your income. Give all needed thought and energy and attention to your job, your means of sustenance. But free your mind right here and now from that teasing notion that you have to get more money. Remember only that you can live as you are now living; and that nothing terrible is going to happen to you if your income stays fixed for quite some time. In all probability, if you are like most of us, it is going to stay fixed anyway, so you might as well relax and forget it. Occupy your mind with something else.

What shall this something else be? It shall be, first and foremost, something that does not depend on money, something that you can do, feel, think, accomplish, in your present situation, with your present equipment of material possessions, without spending one extra dime on it. Naturally, it must be something you are interested in, and you may have to probe around in your mind and heart to discover just what you are interested in. Most of us get so wound up thinking about the mere business of earning a better and better living, that we don't stop to think what we're interested in at all. "Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers."

There are all manner of things to become interested in. The simplest, least expensive, and most satisfactory thing to get interested in is just folks. They are everywhere, and they don't cost a nickel. They exist in every shape, form, and variety. Nothing is so universal, so stimulating, so exciting, and so easy to get at as human beings. They surround you, and if you are like most of the rest of the world, you aren't getting anything at all out of them, and they aren't getting much out of you. When you think of "seeing people" you generally think of a date, a party, of going somewhere and doing something; and generally, it will be something that costs money. This is not necessary. People are most interesting when they aren't spending money. You can take in a movie with a friend, and to all intents and purposes, you might as well be by yourself. Out of such an evening spent together, if you have devoted thirty minutes to the friends, you have devoted a lot. The rest of the time and attention went to the movie. This is a very expensive and inefficient way to get something from friends.

Try cultivating people for their own sake. Study them. You can make a hobby of people, and get more satisfaction out of life thereby than through any single thing in the world. Gear yourself to understand people, to make yourself understood by people, to have friends in the real sense of the word. If you reject movies, dances, card games, etc., for a while, and spend time with your friends simply talking and getting acquainted, you will discover a richness in your world that you have not hitherto suspected.

You may have some difficulty getting this habit started, for present day social life revolves automatically around things that cost money. We talk about going places and doing things, and think this is social intercourse. You will have to be patient and persuasive to get your friends swung around to the simpler, less costly, and deeper satisfactions that do not depend on spending at all.

But if you can make people your interest, you will lay a foundation for happiness and contentment that will be worth as much as even a pretty big increase in income.

The next thing you can get interested in is books, which are almost as accessible as people, and as inexpensive if you live near a library. Even a pretty small library probably contains enough books you haven't read to keep you busy a long time. When we get into the matter of selecting what books to read, we are in a wide subject to which you in the end will return the final solution, so far as you are concerned. In general, however, you ought to get interested in something not strictly fiction. Get a hobby. There must be something that you would like to know about, in science, invention, history, art, music, drama . . . something that you are interested in, and have asked yourself questions about, without having ever stopped to find out the answers. We are all full of such loose ends of lacking knowledge. Make a hobby of finding out the answers to the questions you ask yourself from time to time. Instead of filing them in your mind under unfinished business, jot them down in a note book, and look them up. Read about them. One thing leads to another. Before you know it, you will be leading yourself on from book to book, from knowledge to knowledge, from interest to interest.

Then there is a hobby. There are all kinds of hobbies that cost nothing. Some are learning-hobbies, such as the study of astrology, or palmistry, or Egyptology, or chemistry, or phrenology. Some are collecting hobbies, though these are likely to end up by being expensive. Collecting autographs can be done inexpensively, however; postage is your only expense. There are doing-hobbies—sewing, knitting (these can actually be made to pay dividends), carpentry, electricity, ship-model making . . . all kinds of things that can be done with what you have, in the place where you are.

What you interest yourself with is of little importance, provided it costs nothing, and really interests you. The big thing is to discover within yourself the thing that is important to you—people, books, studies, creative writing, painting, a hobby—whatever it is that makes life significant to you: whatever it is, in short, that you earn a living to enjoy.

Have we started in speaking of money, and ended speaking of everything else? Yes, and properly so. For money is nothing but the key to everything else in the world. It is not even the key: it is merely the meal-ticket by which we stay alive so that we may enjoy everything else in the world. The English Philosopher Carlye, reduces it to a formula. "Make your claims on wages a zero," he concludes; "Thou hast the world at thy feet."

You can only reduce your "demands on wages" if you raise your demands on other things. Make everything more important to you than money, reserving for money

How to Use this Chart

This chart of Aspects of the Moon to the Planets, and of the Planets to each other, will enable you to discover for yourself just how you react to Planetary stimuli. The aspects formed by the Moon have effect for a few hours before they are complete, and wear off about a half an hour after. The aspects between the planets will have noticeable effect for several days before the aspects are complete, and effect larger events than the Lunar Aspects, which are generally responsible only for temporary mood and passing matters which have no permanent effect unless they are emphasizing one of the larger and more permanent planetary conditions. Watch your reactions under the various aspects, noting also the sign occupied by the Moon on days that are important to you for one reason or another. Nearly all of us feel better when the Moon is in certain signs. Discover for yourself what these signs are, and what aspects are best for you, materially and temperamentally. Read the Self-Guidance (Toward a Better Life) Article, and begin now to lead yourself intelligently and firmly toward the things you want.

Why I Believe in Astrology

by Grant Lewi

VI—Who Dictates to a Dictator?

The Transits that Made Hitler.

Nowhere is the evidence of astrology more powerfully presented than in the Horoscope of a so-called Strong Man of Destiny. The German Fuehrer is the outstanding example of personal achievement in the modern world. He is "strong" not only according to his own proclamations, but also by the testimony of events. From humble origins he has risen to the forefront of power; he has subdued the elements in his own country that would have fought him; he has conquered neighboring territories; finally, by a display of personal stubbornness unparalleled in recorded history, he has brought the great Democracies almost literally to their knees before him. He is forever glorifying the Will, the German Will, the Will of Hitler. Only the astrologer can see behind the veil of the personality of this man, to realize that the Will of Hitler is the Will of the Planets, and that when he appears most strong, most individualistic, he is then most certainly working out the implacable destiny for which he is at best a mouthpiece.

"Man, proud man,
Clad in a little brief authority
Performs such antic tricks before high heaven
As make the gods to weep."

Yes, one needs to go to the Horoscope of a Strong Man to discover the essential dependence of man upon the spinning planets. We, lesser mortals, less conscious of our destiny, more humble, more occupied with the simplicities of life, sometimes depart slightly from planetary form. We deviate; we exceed, or fall short of, our possibilities. By simple living, by adherence to rules of conduct, to laws of society and of cooperative living; by careful study and by self-analysis, we sometimes manage to escape the evil, or magnify the good, which the astrologer would predict for us if we were but robots on the universal stage. Our will, our self-awareness, our flexibility, permits us to alter the pattern of our lives—not greatly, perhaps, but to some constructive purpose.

But not so the Dictator, the Strong Man. He believes in his Destiny, in his Will. He responds to every vibration of the planets, bending them all to his purpose, which is power; and in him, the self-proclaimed Master of Men and of Himself, we see most conclusively that man is after all, but a creature of the planets, following an inexorable pattern that becomes more and more rigid, more and more inescapable, the more that he thinks he is dominating the world, and life itself. His pride breaks down the barriers that would hold him back, breaking down at the same time the safety guards that simpler people erect against disaster, until The Will Rampant of the Individual clashes at some last frontier with the implacable will of the Universe, and the Game is over.

Thus Adolph Hitler; Austrian boy; Chancellor, President, and Fuehrer of the Third Reich; Master of Men, and War-lord of Europe; self-proclaimed embodiment of the Force of the Will; and, in the last analysis, Pawn of the Planets, working out their will with a submissiveness that must be highly pleasing to whatever powers dwell afar and observe the struttings of men. For in the so-called leaders of men, the Cesars, the Alexanders, the Napoleons, the Gods find their most obedient servants; as the Royal Rulers on earth find their most devoted and abject supporters in the jesters who fancy they are King.

Let us then follow the Horoscope of Hitler from the time he entered the German army in 1914 until, as ruler of the Reich, he took over the Saar territory and junked the Treaty of Versailles. The accompanying Table gives the transits in his Horoscope at important times during those momentous years from 1914 to 1935.

The top line of the Table gives the natal positions of the planets. Libra rises ("the lagna of great men" according to Hindu astrology, the ascendant of Napoleon). Also like Napoleon, Hitler has the Moon in Capricorn, low in his chart. Saturn occupies the tenth, and is squared by Mars, lord of combat, which is conjoined with Venus, Hitler's ruler. (He can probably never win a war.) Neptune (mysticism) occupies the 8th House (Death) and is near the conjunction of Mars (Dictatorship), while Uranus (Dictatorship) is in the Ascending sign, near the Ascendant.

Saturn from the 10th makes first the contact with the Ascendant, before opposing the Sun, inclining the native (see previous Why I Believe in Astrology articles) to introversion. This testimony is borne out by the 8th House positions of Mars and Saturn, by the 3rd House position of the Moon and Jupiter, and by Neptune 8th House metaphysical and mystical position in the mental sign Gemini. The Libra ascendant makes him self-sufficient, while Mercury (the mind) exactly opposed to the Ascendant inclines to upset the balance of Libra, always a touchy sign to have rising in a horoscope which in any ways shows fixity of mental outlook and a good deal of inner conflict. Thus Hitler with Mars and Venus square Saturn (false premises, drive and fall due to fixity of purpose and of outlook) has his mental and psychological attitude first crystalized toward Himself, as Saturn contacts his Ascendant when he is a child.

Proud and ambitious (Saturn in tenth); stubborn (Taurus, Mars square Saturn in fixed signs); mystical (Neptune in Gemini in 8th); of essentially narrow outlook (Moon and Jupiter in 3rd); ruthless (Mars conj. Venus square Saturn); emotionally self-sufficient (Libra rising), the first impulse of Saturn is to drive deeper within himself the eye of the ego which must forever view the world as the persecutor, or the acclamer, of Adolf Hitler.

(2) He enlists as a German soldier. Neptune and Mercury are conjoined square the ascendant; the Sun is in his tenth house near to Saturn; the Moon is in its natal Capricorn; and Uranus and Jupiter are in his 4th House, where, at the age of 25, they are starting up the slope toward his 7th and 10th cusps. The tr. Sun opposes the tr. Uranus across 10th and 4th. Hitler's career starts here. (Note how at 4, when he makes his debut as an orator, Jupiter has moved from 4th to 10th, completing the 6-year half-cycle.)

(3) Saturn has reached the 10th, and Hitler joins the German Worker's Party. He is 30 (Saturn's return to his own place) and is launched under powerful stimuli.

(4) Jupiter follows Saturn into his 10th; he makes his debut as orator at the first meeting of the Party. Note Mars in Scorpio opposing his own place, indicating an abortive attempt, born out in

(5) the Failure of the Munich Putsch, Sun and Moon conjoined opposite Mars and Venus; with Saturn and Mars conjoined on his Ascendant and Uranus. Note the bad result from things begun with Saturn in 10th. (3) Things should be ended with Saturn in 10th. The timing of Saturn works out here (see HOROSCOPE for Dec. and Jan.). Hitler fails with Saturn conj. Asc., and goes to jail

(6) where he stays from April to Dec. 1924. This was the break of Hitler's life, saving him, astrologically, from death and obscurity. While he was in jail, he crystallizes his ambitions in Mein Kampf, outlining his plans from which he has never deviated. Note Mars' position: in 3rd as he went to jail, moving low in his chart (3rd, 4th, 5th) while he was there; and reaching static positions at 5 Pisces (5th House of inner ambition) and 25 Aquarius (4th House of beginnings). Hitler was to wait for fame till these two points where Mars was static during his jail-stay were animated by the transit of Saturn (see 11, 12, 13).

(7) He resumes leadership of his party. Note Mars conj its own place, with the Moon also in Taurus (Sun, Mars, Venus). Note Venus in Aquarius (4th house, beginnings) and Jupiter in Capricorn conj. Jupiter and Moon.

(8) 2nd Meeting of the Party. Jupiter in Aquarius (4th, beginnings); Saturn in Scorpio (opposite Mars and Venus), in the 2nd (financial) house. Those who claim that Hitler was supported by big financial interests will be interested to observe 1. His natal Mars and Venus in Taurus, money, in 8th House, big business: 2. square Saturn, an aspect of big business: 3, the many 2nd House activations in this chart, as the New Moon in Scorpio at the time of the Munich Putsch (5), and Saturn in Scorpio his second house at 6, 7, 8.

(9) Starts Der Angriff, newspaper. Neptune, Mars, Venus, Mercury all in 10th near Saturn.

(10) 1927-1932: steady political gains for the party as Saturn moves downward in chart, 2nd and 3rd houses, while Jupiter moves from 7th to 12th. With Jupiter in 10th (1932, Apr. 10) Hitler lost the election for the Presidency, an apparent defeat, but leading to even greater (Saturning) victory

(11) when the man who defeated him, Von Hindenburg, was forced to appoint him Chancellor on Hitler's own terms. Note the Sun, Mercury and Saturn in Aquarius, the 4th House, beginnings, following the New Moon there of the previous week. Note the emergence of Uranus into the 7th House (Public recognition) and Saturn ready to start the climb from 4th to 7th (to 10th, where it will never get). This is the fruition of the Saturn defeat of 6, the working out of Mein Kampf, written in prison with Saturn in the Ascendant. Now it comes to something

Uranus Opens a New Road by Nona Howard

A few years ago, when Uranus was in the late degrees of Aries, a new star appeared on the motion picture horizon. In only a few months after her first picture was released, Mae West and her press-agents had made all America conscious of curves and "Come up and see me sometime!" Her income from pictures leaped to the top among Hollywood's stars. From a chubby little actress, she became America's number one favorite and box office drawing card. And what, astrologically, opened this new roadway to her? The trine aspect of Uranus to her natal Sun in Leo, conjunction with her Jupiter in Aries! The fact that she has an almost exact trine of Jupiter to the Sun in her birth chart gave her more than ordinary luck throughout her life, but it took the transit of Uranus favorably aspecting both to make that luck spectacular. The transit passed out of orb several years ago, but not before she had traveled far upon the new road that Uranus opened.

Just before Mae West bloomed into overnight success, another picture actor who until then had been only a feature player had his name in lights on Broadway and found himself one of the top ranking stars. He was also a Leo—William Powell—but with the natal Sun in the earlier degrees of that sign, the Uranus trine formed some time before it reached the luck aspect to Mae West's Sun, and as a result he reached stardom several years ahead of her.

Norma Shearer, likewise a Leo, reached stellar heights first under the trine of Uranus to her natal Sun. Now, with Uranus squared and unfriendly, she would do well not to force issues but to content herself with the gains she has already made.

Among less celebrated charts in my files is that of an untraveled housewife who, with Uranus trine the Sun, sold her first short story to one of the better national magazines, and embarked upon a profitable career as a free-lance writer, made two trips to Europe and in the course of two years completely turned away from the road which, until the Uranian aspects formed, had seemed the only road in life which she would ever have the chance to travel.

Not many Uranus aspects which open a new road continue the full force of their benefits all the way along that road, as can be seen in the case of Mae West, and Norma Shearer's change of fortune. Other less favorable aspects of other planets form, and like clouds shut out the sun on the once bright pathway—but the pathway, once taken, continues onward through sunshine and storm until at last, when the planets mark the time, the road is joined to another and again the new road is opened. The eighty-four-year cycle of Uranus makes the trine form every twenty-eight years, the square or opposition every twenty-one years. Hence, for natives of the fixed signs who are now in the late forties, there have been at least four Uranus aspects, some favorable, others disrupting. During the years between 1891 and 1898, when Uranus was in Scorpio, it was conjunction to the Sun of those who were born with the Sun in Scorpio, squared or obstructive and disruptive for those who have the Sun in Leo and Aquarius and opposed to those with the Sun in Taurus, the exact time the aspect formed depending upon the degree at which the Sun is placed in the sign. At the same time, its beneficial influence was felt by those who had the Sun in Pisces and Cancer.

During the years of the World War, the fixed signs again felt the unfriendly influence, with Uranus in Aquarius from 1912 through 1919, but this time trine gave luck to those with the Sun in Gemini and Libra and opened new roads and new careers born with the war and the changing times.

Now, with Uranus more than half way through Taurus, those who have the Sun in the first half of Scorpio, Leo or Aquarius have had to take new roads whether or not it pleased them to leave the old and familiar paths, while the Taureans have felt the awakening influence of Uranus for either good or ill, since the conjunction is variable in its effect.

The thing to bear in mind is that we are the travelers on the road, not the builder, and that while we will not, in the end, regret the turn which we were forced to take, it is not our job to cut out on a by-path whenever we get bored with the scenery along the highway. When the time is ripe for us to turn upon the new road, we will find that a more far-seeing power than ours has opened the way for us, and that however rough it may seem, it leads at last to the goal marked for us from the beginning.

I have touched upon the lucky aspects of Uranus to the natal Sun and suggested the destructive aspects to illustrate the two extremes of this planet's action. There are many middle-courses of less spectacular nature, but each one, nevertheless, marks the turn of the road, the beginning of a new epoch. The Taurean princess, Juliana of the Netherlands, was married when Uranus reached the conjunction of her natal Sun. The well-known actress, Tallulah Bankhead, married recently with Uranus squared to her natal Sun. Helen Wills Moody, now divorced, married with Uranus unfriendly. Colonel Charles Lindbergh has, for the past year, had Uranus unfriendly to the Sun and has been the target for much criticism in contrast to his former wide popularity. Queen Marie of Roumania, with Uranus unfriendly to many Scorpio planets, died recently from an injury which, according to a well-known magazine, she received a year previous, when Uranus was unfriendly to Jupiter, ruler of her Sagittarius ascendant.

Miss Adams does not take up the influence of Uranus in friendly and unfriendly aspect to other planets in the natal chart, but it is essentially the same except that in acting upon Venus, for example, the break-up would be an emotional one, on Jupiter a financial one, and so on according to the matter which the planet aspected rules. Its aspects to the planet ruling the ascendant also bring decisive changes.

Among my first astrological predictions was one made to a friend who, at the time, was happily married but was, the next spring, coming under the unfriendly aspect of Uranus to his Venus. I warned him that it was a condition which often resulted in divorce and to see that he gave no cause for such action at that time. He laughed at the impossibility of such a thing happening to him—but the following summer, after hearing nothing from him for months, I met him on the street—and with one of those “Don’t you dare say I told you so” looks, showed me a divorce summons based upon his actions the month that spring when the aspect of Uranus had been exact and unfriendly to his Venus!

That is only one of many divorces and near-divorces I have seen take place as a result of unfriendly aspects or Uranus to Venus in the natal horoscope. On the other hand, I recall a case in which Uranus was in trine or friendly aspect to Venus in a man’s chart when he met, in the most unconventional, Uranian way, a woman with whom he fell deeply in love so suddenly that no one would ordinarily question the possibility of his feeling being more than a passing infatuation. But he married her—and ten years later he is apparently just as much in love, although Venus in Sagittarius does not usually give constancy in affection.

The important influence of Uranus as a marker of new roads when it aspects Jupiter is seen in the chart of England’s present king, George VI, whose Jupiter in Leo was squared by the transiting Uranus when he was suddenly thrust upon a throne which he had never expected to fill. Jupiter is not only the ruler of his Sagittarian Sun but also rules his tenth house in a birth hour chart.

Uranus squared both the Sun and Mercury in the chart of Mussolini when he changed the course of his pathway from that of the developer of Italy to the invader of Ethiopia. He has the Sun in the ninth house in the birth hour chart.

Uranus squared both the Sun and Jupiter in the chart of the former Senator McAdoo when, as a grandfather, he married a twenty-six-year-old nurse and vanished from the political spotlight.

Marion Talley, the Kansas City girl who came out of the west to become a sensation at the Metropolitan, only to retire to a Kansas farm at the height of her career, had Uranus squared to her Jupiter at the time she made her decision to quit the opera for the farm. She has since attempted to regain the spotlight by way of the moving pictures but without success. At the time of her spectacular debut she had Uranus squared to the Sun but Neptune trine to it.

An odd but worth mentioning result of the friendly aspect of Uranus to Jupiter is to be seen in the horoscope of the former "Public Enemy Number One," John Dillinger, who had Uranus trine to Jupiter in his birth chart and the luck that this aspect gave him enabled him to make some remarkable escapes from the law. The most unexpected (Uranian) was the time he bluffed his way out of a mid-Western jail with a wooden pistol. At the time, he had an exact aspect of Uranus conjunction his Jupiter and trine to his Uranus. At the time the law caught up with him, Uranus had moved from its protective aspect to the square or unfriendly aspect to his natal Sun.

Former Senator Royal S. Copeland had, in his natal chart, a square of Pluto, ruler of his Scorpio Sun, to the Moon, ruling the public (and also ruler of New York, a Cancerian city) and an opposition of Pluto to his Sun. He could hardly have selected a worse time, therefore, to enter a political race than when Uranus in Taurus was unfriendly to both Moon and Sun and conjunct Pluto, and his overwhelming defeat in the primaries was an astrological certainty. He died the following year quite suddenly and unexpectedly.

The tragic death of the former Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, murdered by the Bolsheviks in July, 1918, came when Uranus was on the cusp of her eighth house, squared to the Sun, ruler of her Leo ascendant, and transiting Saturn squared to her fatal Mars, Moon and Saturn conjunction in the fourth house, bringing a sudden and violent end to her life.

Probably the most publicized event caused by a Uranus aspect to the ruler of the ascendant, however, was the marriage of Edward, Duke of Windsor, when Uranus was square to his natal Uranus, ruler of his Aquarian ascendant, and his retirement to private life in a foreign country with a woman of foreign birth. His Uranus is in the ninth house in his birth hour chart.

Every newspaper carries examples of sudden and unexpected events which have caused men and women to turn the course of their lives into new roads, and almost without exception, when the birth chart can be obtained it will be seen that a Uranus aspect had formed to some important planet in their natal chart. Perhaps the aspect of Uranus in your chart may not cause an event important enough to put your name on the front page, but at least it will mark, to you, an important turning point, a new road upon which you may make a fresh start.

Mundane Forecast By Elizabeth Aldrich

The emergence of Premier Edouard Daladier as a possible French dictator comes as an interesting climax to the Munich Pact. Daladier was born at Carpentras, Vaucluse, France, June 18, 1884 at 10:45 A.M., according to L'Astrosophie. He had Virgo 15, rising with Mars in 7 Virgo 13 and Uranus in 24 Virgo. The rising sign is the sign of work and of labor in general. With Uranus and Mars, both forceful and dynamic planets, thereon, it can not be expected that he would be favorable to labor. In fact, this nativity from various points of view denotes a considerable harshness.

The Midheaven is held by Saturn in Gemini, and in the same sign with the Sun indicates enormous ambition. There is an over-supply of nervous energy with the Sun square Uranus, Saturn square the Ascendant, and square Mars, and Mercury square Mars. Here is a man who does not spare himself and will not spare others.

The position of Pluto in the Ninth House square Mars indicates to me the rock of a mistaken policy on foreign affairs which is most likely to produce M. Daladier's downfall. The environment into which the Premier was born did not, of itself, teach him the virtues of suavity, tact, and finesse. He had none of the advantages of an early contact with polite society. This early contact necessitates a recognition of the importance of the amenities of life and of its joys and beauties. The Moon in Aries is a position of great wilfulness. Huey Long had the Moon in Aries and the Sun in Virgo. In Daladier's chart we have the Moon in Aries and Virgo rising. The combination of Aries and Virgo is one well suited to put across political ideas through insistence and a forceful presentation of these ideas.

There is another important influence which Daladier shares with other dictators—Saturn in bad aspect to Mars. There is nothing more useful for putting your will across on other people by some means or other, than an aspect between Mars and Saturn. Any contact between these two planets, whether good or bad, makes the power for undergoing hardship or danger. When they are in good aspect, they complement and supplement each other giving orderly and courageous action, endurance, and sound practical abilities. This tends to discipline and self-abnegation. The bad aspect gives the same contacts with the roughness and the sternness of life. It usually adds to the severity of the character, and gives considerable egotism. It by no means forbids success but it entails severe struggles. Hitler has Mars square Saturn and Mussolini has the Moon, Saturn, and Mars all in conjunction in Gemini. Thus we see that M. Daladier's chart possesses enough of the urge to power to make him a dictator.

With Neptune going over his Ascendant and Uranus, and coming to the square of the Sun instability, confusion, and mistakes are very likely to occur in his life. The French Republic has Neptune in exact conjunction with the present Premier's Moon, retrograde in its Second House. Thus, financial troubles will crop up. The French people themselves are strangely contradictory. They want a strong government for the other fellow, but do not care to submit to its rigors for themselves. That serious disorders will occur within the borders of France and that many Frenchmen will probably suffer, can not be gainsaid. Since the Premier has his Moon in his House of Death and since Saturn will pass over it in 1939, violence is likely to be rampant. In the last week of May, 1871, twenty thousand Parisians were probably killed by French soldiers. Saturn was then stationary over the Moon in the chart of the French Republic. Given these influences and considering the fact that the eclipse of April 19, 1939 falls in conjunction with Neptune in the chart of the French Republic, and with the Moon in Daladier's chart, and that Saturn on this day is over this critical position of Aries, we foresee trouble. During the early part of April, Mars has been in Capricorn over the Moon of the French Republic, and Pluto has been stationary near the conjunction of Mars and Uranus on the cusp of the Seventh House in France's chart. The worst disorders in 1871 were ushered in by a New Moon on the 19th of April in the same exact spot as this April eclipse.

No survey of French affairs is complete without the consideration of the chart of Colonel de la Rocque, the French Fascist leader. He was born at Lorient, France, the 6th of October, 1885, at 8:00 A.M. It is quite possible that in the case of an impending revolution in France, he and his Black Shirts might attempt to seize the power. It might appear from his horoscope that he would cooperate with Daladier in a crisis. He has his Moon in Virgo in conjunction with Jupiter and both trine of Neptune thus making a link between him and Premier Daladier. Scorpio rises and Mars is placed in the Tenth House, in Leo. The Sun is just inside the cusp of the Twelfth House, and the Moon and Jupiter are in the Eleventh. De la Rocque has Neptune retrograde in his Seventh House, in opposition to Venus showing the doubtful nature of his partnerships. He is a factor in any upsets in France.

In the meantime, the United States has been drawn to a perilous position where foreign affairs are concerned due to the anti-Semitic wave which holds Germany in its grip. On several occasions we have mentioned the fact that the United States was treading upon astrological quicksands due to the approaching square of the Progressed Sun to Neptune. It now appears that the refugee question is threatening us with foreign complications beyond those which we might have imagined. It is a noticeable fact that Neptune, ruler of the Twelfth House, refers to refugees and to exiles in general. Few, six months ago, could have imagined that we would have taken such a serious step as the recall of our minister from Germany. Just what this will mean for the future, is difficult to know.

The signing of our trade treaty with Great Britain was a noticeable achievement. This trade treaty and the approaching visit of the King and Queen to the United States were probably well-timed as notice to the dictator countries, that the United States and Great Britain would stand together. These pacific foreign relations are a forerunner of the approaching good aspect between Jupiter and Uranus, which will occur in 1939. During this year, also, Neptune and Uranus will be trine on July 7th, bringing forth into manifestation a further practical cooperation where international work, money and good will is concerned. The conference at Lima is another indication of the potency of these two applying aspects.

As to planetary conditions where the United States is concerned, we find that the New Moon of February 19th occurs at 3:20 A.M. in 75 West Longitude. This brings the lunation in the very last end of Aquarius in the Second House of the horoscope. This configuration has a very direct financial implication since Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, and the Sun and Moon are all concentrated in the Second House. It probably means a rising market in the middle of the month. Aries is on the cusp of the Fourth House and Mars is in the Twelfth square of Jupiter, the ruler of the figure. Thus we will have financial manipulations of a hidden and secret character, with a probable rise in the market to be followed by a drop. Venus in Aquarius in the Second is Square of Uranus in the Fourth. Thus we may have domestic scandals, perhaps of a financial nature, with elopements and the divorce of some well known social figure. Criticisms of the way in which our money matters are administered will be found on every hand. Trouble with a neighboring nation may persist. This month Pluto retrogrades back into Cancer, and it again influences New York City. It afflicts the chart of Pope Pius and if that temporal ruler has not by this time passed on this period is unfortunate for him.

We may expect around this period party splits, and much talk of new parties. Foreign affairs continue very mixed. At the Capricorn Ingress under which we are now working, subject to the previous Aries Ingress, we find that Sagittarius rose. Since Sagittarius rises at this New Moon things which were started around Christmas time may come to fruition this month. The Ascendants are almost identical. The lunation takes place on the spot where Jupiter was situated at the Capricorn Ingress, and Mars is in conjunction with Mercury at this Ingress. Since almost the same degree appears upon the Midheaven, business conditions may be repeated.

When we refer to the United States' chart we find that Jupiter is now almost trine of the position of the Sun, and past the trine of its own place. Therefore, we expect that favorable business conditions will prevail, although undercover work and investigation will continue. However, with Mars square Jupiter, we will have disputes affecting religion and the churches and much excitement connected with religious meetings and movements. There will probably be a great deal of crime. Where health is concerned, it does not promise very well and there is danger of some epidemics. The army and the navy will be greatly strengthened and the Panama Canal will figure in the news. Large sums of money will be expended for our navy. New airplanes will plan for trial flights as soon as the weather is sufficiently good.

When we compare the chart of King George with the chart of the United States it is easily to be seen why the English monarch has elected to take this trip to our country. He has his ruler Venus in Scorpio trine of Venus in the United States chart in Cancer, and trine of Jupiter. His Moon and Uranus are exactly trine of Mercury in the United States' chart, and the idea that he may pick up American slang is not at all unfounded. He has Saturn in Scorpio, in trine of the Sun in the United States' chart. His Jupiter in Leo is in conjunction with the Dragon's Head in our national horoscope. We have Neptune in Virgo 24 and it is sextile of the Scorpio position of his Moon and Uranus. He has his Sun and Mercury in Sagittarius, in sextile to the Moon and Pluto in Aquarius in the United States' chart which added to other things makes him friendly to this country.

YOUR CONQUEST OF LIFE

How to make the planets work for you — in HOROSCOPE for March

Financial Forecast by J. Ross Tyler

This is likely to be the most active stock market month in the current cycle. I pointed out in the January Forecast that the basic economic pattern could be expected to follow an uptrend to Mid-March according to my interpretation of the favorable aspects between (1) Uranus Saturn, (2) Uranus Jupiter, and (3) Saturn Jupiter. Business activity promises to reach a new high and the Dow Jones Industrial Average will reach upward to a point between 165 and 170 in all probability.

In my opinion this month offers more opportunities to sell stocks than to purchase them. When optimism rules the marketplace, the price trend will overdiscount the future. When pessimism saturates Wall Street stocks will be offered at bargain prices. The present high leg of any graphic record on the current business boom must be largely attributable to armament orders. A prominent financial commentator recently stated that expenditures for arms which amounted to $3,800,000,000 in 1932 will rise this year (1938) to about $18,000,000,000, which should surely increase employment and the wages earned by workers. Here is an amount more than one billion dollars greater than all the taxes we in the U. S. A. pay to maintain every taxing unit in our Nation. This 18 billions represents an UNPRODUCTIVE investment. I do not mean to imply that we should fail to arm but why have we waited all these years to maintain strict arms competition with the Dictators? Meanwhile we have spent billions of dollars on relief. We might have spent more in wages to many of our unemployed who should now be usefully rehabilitated by doing their bit for National Defense. I agree with Mr. James Truslow Adams when he says that this unproductive investment threatens to DESTROY THE ECONOMY of the world. The policy of our administration is not to allow too much profit from arms orders. It will be but a question of time until investors realize that the present boom will be followed by a down trend which can reasonably be expected to continue until August. Meanwhile, business will be excellent. Net profits will decline, however, and security prices will adjust downward to meet them.

The Capricorn Solar Ingress Figure for December 21, 1938 at Washington has Pluto rising in Leo. Pluto is retrograde. Mars at 6 Scorpio separates from a square to Pluto. I take this square to mean high expenditure for arms. The reason I attribute to Saturn's position in 11 Aries in the 9th near the Midheaven. The U. S. A. now enters a brand new foreign affairs cycle. We shall now follow the ideals of Theodore Roosevelt who said in order to preserve peace you must be prepared for war. Washington will now assume a larger responsibility for the morale in world affairs since it has recently become all too generally understood that the British Empire is no longer a unit. Her separate States are more independent of each other than our own.

The Sun and Moon were in the 6th in square to Saturn in Aries in the 9th. Work, employment, employees, will be inharmonious to government policy with respect to recovery, railways, foreign policy, treasury deficits, and the weakening of our economic system through unproductive investment. The 5th House holds Venus at 21 Scorpio on the cusp with Mercury at 14 Sagittarius Rx within this Mansion of Speculation. During this month of February, Mercury will move rapidly through Aquarius which Sign holds the 7th and part of the 8th Houses of this chart. Mercury will be sextile Saturn February 9; its own place on the 10th and sextile the Midheaven on Lincoln's Birthday. This planet which has so much to do with business affairs of every description will pass over the radical Jupiter as he was placed in the Capricorn Ingress on February 18. Perhaps this will be the day that a large appropriation will be voted by the Congress. President Roosevelt's prestige will once again reach a pinnacle as his words will be weighed throughout the world. His Sun-sign Aquarius, Fixed, and determined to uphold civilization, is dedicated to the cause of an air force consistent with our National Emblem, the Eagle, king of the air. During the latter days of this month the news will be out and henceforth I expect the stock market to become more of a trading affair.

The trend of stock prices will be upward throughout the month with a sagging period shortly after the 18th and a renewal of the rally on the 21st as Mercury approaches the conjunction of Jupiter February 25th. It is probable that stock market averages will indulge in a sidewise movement with a series of dips and recurrent rallies during this happy month of February. A good deal of trading will occur which will include profit taking, switching, and transferring funds from stocks to commodities. I ADVISE STOP LOSS ORDERS after the 15th.

Wheat is the most widely used food product. There will be a good deal of agitation for a stronger tariff on agricultural products in the current Congress. Crops promise to be smaller during the year ahead and in my opinion May wheat will go off the board when the option expires at higher than present prices.

In my astrological opinion wheat futures, if purchased early in February, and sold in the latter half of February, should bring a profit.

Cotton will move upward also according to my opinion under the stimulus of the Venus Uranus Trine which becomes exact on the 19th. If you buy cotton early place STOP LOSS ORDERS under your commitments on the 18th. I am not as enthusiastic over the possibilities of cotton as wheat for the average trader because cotton is more of a professional Neptunian affair. It promises to rise however because of enlarged demand and possibly a more enlightened government attitude.

American Woolen Corporation. First incorporated in New Jersey, March 29, 1899. Reincorporated in Massachusetts February 15, 1916. The preferred shares are a business man's risk. The Common is highly speculative. When this company was formed Saturn was in the 10th degree of Cancer, Mars 17 Leo, Jupiter 1 Aries, Venus 3 Aries, Uranus 16 Aquarius. Saturn has now moved beyond the square of its radical place. In May Jupiter will cross both the radical Jupiter and Venus in this organization chart. At that time shares should reach their high for 1939. Buy only on dips and protect with STOPS in order to avoid loss.

Southern Railway, incorporated Virginia, June 18, 1894. On that date Saturn was 18 Libra, Uranus 11 Scorpio, Mars 26 Pisces, Venus 17 Taurus, Neptune 13, Jupiter 17 Gemini. Sun 27 Gemini, Mercury 21 Cancer. Uranus in transit now approaches a conjunction with radical Venus, which will be exact in April. Mercury's current transit through Aquarius will stimulate Neptune, Jupiter and Saturn in this company's organization chart. Current transit of Jupiter will trine Uranus February 18th. These shares will be very active. Place STOPS on February 15th. Shares promise to sell higher in March and April.

American Superpower. Delaware, October 26, 1923. Radical Sun 2 Scorpio, Venus 11, Jupiter 23 Scorpio, Uranus 14 Pisces, Mars 6, Mercury 19, Saturn 24 Libra. Neptune 20 Leo. Current transit of Jupiter* through Pisces will stimulate Uranus by exact conjunction during second half of February. PROTECT PROFITS during very last days of this month. Shares promise to rise until 28th.

Brooklyn Manhattan Transit. Incorporated January 18, 1896, New York. Radical Saturn 18, Uranus 23 Scorpio, Mercury 15 Aquarius, Moon 9 Pisces. Jupiter was in 5 Leo when this company was formed suggesting that shares will be very active until current passage of Jupiter passes the trine of radical during June. Buy preferred shares on dips, protect with stops whenever market is strong.

American & Foreign Power incorporated Maine, December 19, 1923. Preferred and 2nd. Preferred Shares should be stimulated presently. Radical Mercury 14, Venus 21 Capricorn; Uranus 14 Pisces, Mars 10 Scorpio. Protect with stop loss orders February 16 when Jupiter in transit will be in exact trine to Mars radical.

Cudahy Packing Company. Maine, Oct. 7, 1915. Radical Jupiter 20 Pisces, Venus 19 Libra, Saturn 16 Cancer, Mars 0 Leo. The current transits of Jupiter and Mercury promise to attract interest to shares of this old established company.

Aquarius' Year Ahead by Grant Lewi

A 12-months' forecast for those born Jan. 21-Feb. 19

Perhaps under the expansive influence of Jupiter in your Sun-sign, all through 1938, you have been able to forget pretty much that there are any other planets in your Horoscope at all! If this is so, 1939 is going to remind you of them again—not unpleasantly, to be sure, but forcibly, and in a way that will demand your attention.

Especially are you going to be reminded that Uranus is in your 4th house (of home, environment, and new starts) and that Saturn is in your 3rd House, low in your chart, and reaching the 4th House Cusp for a brief stay from July 7 to September 22, 1939.

The past year has been a year of "protection." That is, Jupiter in your Sun-sign has enabled you to get the best out of your opportunities and possibilities in 1938. Jupiter does not always bring good things, but he takes the edge from bad ones, yielding some degree of luck, and giving you a philosophy and optimism with which to meet whatever less fortunate things may come your way as the result of the action of other planets.

Thus, as 1938 ends, and Jupiter enters Pisces (Dec. 29) you emerge from a year which, either positively or negatively, has been lucky. 1939 is no less so—in fact, may be more so, especially if you have made the most of 1938 opportunities.

For with 1939, Saturn reaches to the cusp of your 4th House, starting you on some new line of activity. And clearing the decks of old things to make way for the new progress that proceeds steadily for the next 14 years. You have perhaps felt in the last six or seven years, since 1932, that you have not made the progress you've wished for. You feel, perhaps, that 1932 marked a high place in your life—the height of success, or ambition, or of your own ability to imagine high and big things for yourself—and that since then you have some how gone downhill into a more hum-drum existence than you like.

You have, perhaps, in this period (1932-38) rebelled against things as they are, the influence of Uranus in your 4th House during most of this time. Perhaps you have thought of "making a clean break" with things as they are, and starting all over again, along some new line, perhaps even in some new place, or some radically different line of endeavor.

If you have not yielded to this temptation, the glamorous if false lure of "somewhere else"—if you have done what has been expected of you, and taken things as they have come whether you like them or not—then, in 1939, you may look forward to a clearing of the air, and by 1940 you will realize that you are genuinely on your way upward again, approaching the things you dream of and aspire toward.

Saturn, the great timer of events, is now completing his transit of your 3rd House. Here he stabilizes your mental processes, and builds your self-confidence, in your own mind, your own judgment. He teaches you here, chiefly, facts, so that in the last two and a half years, you have cleared the mists of muddled thinking from your brain, and are able to face reality without flinching. You can feel yourself master of situations, because you are learning, and have learned, understanding of the realities of existence. Many of your super-romantic and adventurous notions have been tried and found wanting in the last few years, so that, though you have lost nothing in idealism, you are able to be idealistic and realistic at the same time—a great step forward. You have learned respect for facts as such, and for the ways of the world; and you are less likely than before to attach undue importance to your own feelings, wishes, emotions, and whims.

Now, as Saturn touches the cusp of your 4th House (July 7-Sept. 22) for a brief stay, before retrograding into Aries and your 3rd House again, you are given a chance to solidify and strengthen the foundations of your life, according to the lessons of reality that have been driven home to you. You are able, here, to re-form your way of thinking, to shift the pace and direction of your aim, and to work toward your ambition (perhaps a new one, or a new angle to an old one) with increased persistence, and increased chances of success and achievement.

1939 is for you not primarily a year of achievement. It is rather a year in which you will lay the foundations of achievement. And, what is best, you will be utterly satisfied with what you are doing. You will not—and should not—be impatient, for you will understand the permanent worth of the foundations you are laying, and you will be calm and willing to wait for ultimate developments, which come surely later as a result of this year's sane action and planning.

Your domestic and private life will become more satisfactory to you, because of the fact that you have learned to accept philosophically what is necessary. Sudden, or radical, breaks and changes in home-matters are not recommended here, unless they come about as a part of your normal progress and development. By this I mean that as Saturn transits the 4th, young men and women frequently launch out from their parents' home, and start their own life independently. Or they come out of College, and start looking for work. Older people, under this vibration, frequently find it expedient to change their residence for business reasons, to launch into a new and more secure type of business, or to alter radically their aims and goals. Any of these changes—normal, sensible, and considered—may be undertaken now with courage and confidence: the time is ripe for them, and the past and the future justify them.

You should seek this kind of change. However, change that is suggested to you by impatience, discontent, anger or rebellion should be shunned. For this sort of change, under these conditions, turns out to be a jump from the frying pan into the fire.

Analyze your motives carefully, wherever change is concerned this year. Are your motives sound, progressive, ambitious, rooted sincerely in your desire to better yourself? If they are, the change you seek is beneficial.

But are they rooted in a desire for an easier life, an unwillingness to face and master the situation you are in, a desire to run away from reality, or just a romantic and adventurous feeling that the "grass is greener over the fence?" If so, be sure the change you seek will not make for progress, but will, on the contrary, be a set-back from which you will be forced long and laboriously to recover.

As the year opens, finances should be in good shape, since Jupiter leaves your Sun-sign and enters your 2nd House of finance. It is possible that money is pretty free, right now, or that you have good reason to believe it will be easy to get. Some indication of a change in employment, or location, is in the air, culminating Jan. 5, and suggesting a change of work or residence with the beginning of the year. Be sure that this change fits into the constructive group listed above, and not into the backsliding one. Avoid temperament, anger, breaks through giving undue emphasis to personalities and pet whims and intuitions. Be careful in dealing with superiors (till after Jan. 5). Following this (Jan. 6-18) there is a good period for solidifying your worldly position through aggressive but tactful handling of superiors. Seek favors and advancement, and make the most of opportunity, new and old. Get into the habit of saving money right here and now, for it tends to run through your fingers, and if you don't check this tendency now, you'll have a lot of trouble with it in March and April. Till Jan. 29, promote yourself strongly and diplomatically, using all your mental force to increase your prestige and solidify your position permanently. Avoid strife at home, which weakens your magnetism and personality abroad; compromise where compromise is indicated, and never force an issue that can be settled by diplomacy.

Your friends prove a tax on your pocket-book (Jan. 30-Feb 16) and you will have to say no to would-be borrowers, and social tempters that can cost you too much. Veto all risky or speculative business schemes; gambles taken now turn out badly. Stick to conservative business practices. Your good judgment comes to your rescue (Feb. 17-24) and an agreement reached here is excellent, and of far-reaching importance. Private conferences over money work out well—you should keep your own counsel, and increase your luck by secrecy. Following this (Feb. 25-Mar. 9) another temptation to financial plunging needs watching, this time the influence to risk proceeding from an associate or partner who seems to have very optimistic ideas that won't work out. Protect your security here, by refusing to be flattered into unwise business moves. Your popularity mounts (Mar. 6-31) and you need to keep your social life on a discreet and conventional basis (esp. Mar. 10-19) for there are many temptations to step off the beaten track. By keeping your actions discreet, you can draw to yourself a very ideal love of friendship attachment that can well be made permanent.

Pprivate matters occupy your thoughts (Mar. 22-May 24) and some bad judgment in both personal and financial matters can complicate your life. Watch out for this especially Apr. 21-May 10, when fears and apprehensions over some secret matter weighs on your mind. Resolve to do nothing hasty or radical at this time, but to wait. In fact, you are now in a period which lasts till August 24, in which your chief aim must be to wait, patiently and willingly; and any rash action undertaken in the present circumstances will not work out well. Finances are subject to pressure (March) as Jupiter opposes Neptune, and makes some phony scheme very alluring. Steer clear of all get-rich quick ideas, all speculative or gambling ventures, for they are unsound; and try to cut down your expenses to the bone.

The pace of events slows down (till June 23rd) when Mars reaches a static position in your Sun sign (5° Aquarius). This will chiefly have effect on those Aquarians born at the end of January, for these will feel most keenly the stoppage of the forward movement of events, and be subject to the greatest impatience. However, it really applies to the sign as a whole. Some plan that you have thought moving forward satisfactorily, or some progress that you believed assured, appears now to come to nothing, and you are likely to be impatient as a result. You must not let your impatience lead to rash, headstrong, or hasty action for until Mars turns direct (Aug. 24) no aggression will be worth the trouble it gives you, and you might as well settle down to a two-months' wait for things to pick up (June 24-Aug. 24). Take a vacation, visit your relatives, or go about your job in a conscientious and routine manner, being willing to mark time and see what develops.

During this time Jupiter enters your 3rd House (May 12) and Saturn your 4th (July 7) and you should therefore use this period to get accustomed to these vibrations. Remember that you are now aiming at permanence, rather than at spectacular gains; and if you get used to the slowed vibrations till Aug. 24 and learn to master them happily, you will be insuring your progress when the pace picks up. Jupiter in 3rd gives you expansive new ideas which are undoubtedly sound, but which you should save up for the Fall, when they will be better received. Use the vibration now (July and August) for adjusting your philosophy of life, for letter-writing, short trips and vacations, and for writing and creative work, which this transit is especially good for if you have any ability or inclination along those lines.

Toward the end of the period (July 22-Aug. 24) Mars retrogrades into your 12th House, renewing some private concern or problem, and giving you excellent help in its solution. Settle a domestic matter once and for all under this vibration; adjust finances through close and careful budgeting; and clear the decks both in your mind, and in the world around you, for the renewed forward movement that is lying in wait in the immediate future.

Following August 24th, you will begin to feel a relaxing of tension and a lifting of the barriers that have held you back. But don't try at once for a forward spurt. Follow carefully the pace of events, and the temperament of those you have to deal with, whether in public or private life. You will find that nobody can be hurried yet, and you will do well to hold enthusiasms in check till after Sept. 24. Finances are good (esp. Sept. 1-20) and partnership deals will yield a good return. Cooperate with those you work with.

After Mars passes the square to Saturn (Sept. 24) he again enters your Sun-sign, and renews the opportunity you may have thought lost. Promote a new idea strongly (Sept. 25-Oct. 3), and following this, relax and await developments (till Nov. 4). Jupiter has returned to your 2nd House (finances) and should be renewing your earning power. Also, he renews your need to watch expenses carefully, for again money has a tendency to run through your

Your Place in Life

by Florence Evelyinn Campbell

Star-Number Vocations—Aquarius

Many volumes could be written on the tragedy of Aquarius—the sign of the “born-too-soon.” The great mitigating element consists in the fact that the natives themselves seldom realize that the world is not yet ready for them and they vaguely wonder why they do not fit into a picture which they see so clearly and whose faults and shortcomings they are so willing to point out. They are past masters at the doubtful art of vivisectioning everything except themselves—whom they regard as the most amenable and adaptable of beings—but whom the world is likely to treat as outsiders.

From the evolutionary angle, all we know of Aquarius thus far is that it is the ladder on which we are to mount to the peak of universality and the brotherhood of man. But Aquarius is not the peak itself—not yet. From the viewpoint of social relations, we recognize the reformers and idealists, the promoters of seemingly impractical and fantastic causes, or the dreamers of impossible Utopias which take no account of the present human equation. In accomplishment we often find genius—or wholesale inefficiency. The Aquarians of the present generation are the martyrs of the race—mere stepping stones for those who are as yet incapable of attaining their vision, plumbing their depths or reaching the heights of their aspirations.

The Aquarian has a passion for truth and if this requirement is met, usefulness is of small consequence. This makes him ill adapted to business, and if the strength of other signs and numbers thrust him into the commercial world, he is likely to succeed in small ways only, if at all. He is fundamentally allied to art, music, education, science and the secrets of nature, especially electricity. He is one day to be master of the elements and that subconscious realization makes his approach to our present kindergarten-knowledge either abstract or clumsy. His very foreknowledge of tomorrow defeats the skill and practicality necessary for today—despite the passionate purpose behind his every act. He is dependent upon society and his fellow man yet curiously impersonal and detached from them. He seeks the companionship of those who interest him regardless of their qualifications according to social standards—and frequently because of their lack of them. He wins the reputation—and deservedly—of consorting with queer dicks and outcasts and when he has “reached their shores” he abandons them with a melancholy sigh that they have disappointed his expectations. Tolerant of all laws, yet adhering to none, understanding of all people yet demanding his freedom from ties that have begun to weary him he is, in spite of himself, loyal and dependable wherever he feels he is needed. He is ardent and convincing and draws to himself staunch supporters and a host of friends who are willing to die for a cause long after he has abandoned it.

This is the odd, lovable, fascinating, exasperating mixture that is today's Aquarian, who must find his place in a world whose feet are on the ground, demanding common sense and small traffic in abstractions. Being one of the fixed signs, adaptability does not come easily and the child of Aquarius will remain himself to the end of his days, patiently, persistently and stubbornly following his own course—and winning converts through his charm and simplicity, his veracity and love of justice, his group-spirit and willingness to serve. If he is too far down the evolutionary scale all his gifts and dreams and ambitions will be turned in upon himself; he will be chaotic and decentralized, blunt and critical, tricky and egotistical, a boor and a nuisance. He is somewhat bewildered at best, for his breadth of vision carries him beyond the present horizon and the things close at hand are seen through a veil whose other side may reveal the objects of his search and therefore must be penetrated at all costs.

1 and Aquarius: Jan. 28; Feb. 1, 10.

If you were born on February 1st you are much concerned with your own development and the furtherance of your own ideals—which may be merely personal ambitions if you do not watch yourself. According to tradition, your sign has two rulers—Saturn for the first half and Uranus for the second. Since your Sun is about 12 degrees, that would give you the Saturn side of the partnership—which always makes for practicality and form—in your case an asset; at the same time it may tend to increase the sense of isolation and loneliness inherent in your number, so it is more than ever incumbent upon you to seek your life's work where there is no chance for selfishness and no success except in service. Go where your sympathies will be taxed; your head is too apt to rule. Cultivate warmth and conquer your unapproachability. You would succeed brilliantly as a diagnostician or specialist for the poor, as a reformer or exponent of social justice, as a scientist or researcher. If you will live up to the number of your month-plus-day—your “success number” 3—and if you have any encouragement from artistic numbers in your name or on your birth pattern or from Gemini or Leo in your astrological chart, you can become a popular actor (Clark Gable and Helen Chandler were born on your day) or a musical composer like Victor Herbert. In either of these cases you must express through your heart and emotions and, to a large extent, forget yourself.

Born on the 10th, you should cultivate your talents and work where your inspirations will count. Like 1 in Aquarius, you could also become an actor (Judith Anderson, W. C. Fields, Roy d'Arcy, Olin Howland—all February 10th) but the world would lose a potential scientist if you did, for although you are artistic and the cultivation of some talent would greatly aid in your expression and emotional outlet, your sign and number are both adapted to scientific exploration and discovery. Your findings should be given to the world through your pen. You are likely to have fluctuations in success until you have found your right place, but if you are young enough to be still in the training stage, take up engineering by all means—preferably electrical. Your Sun is well past the 15th degree and if we are to accept the double-rulership theory, Uranus is its lord. Railroads, airplanes, metals, etc., are his tools and if you are attracted to business, these provide congenial channels. You are especially adapted for civic leadership and no matter what your chosen profession, some group activity should form a part of your life.

For the 1st and 10th, the Success Number is 3—the Number of Venus. The planetary trinity for the 1st is Saturn (the month) Sun (#1—the Day) and Venus (3) their sum; for the 10th, Uranus, Sun and Venus. These are the star guides to heed and follow when mapping out the course whose key is hidden in that magic number 3. Study its positive and negative aspects. You cannot fail to make a success of your career if you will express (3) positively your purpose (Aquarius).

January 28th has enough warmth in its number to temper the chill of Saturn—but here we have a combination that is highly eccentric, strong-willed and nervous. It is the most personally ambitious of the Aquarians and selfless service—the raison d'être of the sign—may be sacrificed through the Saturnine fear of not reaching the goal. If you were born on this day you must fight against self-limitation; strive for a high place rather than your high place. 28 wants to excel—and be recognized. You are capable of carrying great responsibilities—and can be trusted to see them through; you are more executive than many of your brother Aquarians and can teach or direct (college, music or theatre) others to perform what is beyond your own capacity. You are exceedingly versatile and if you have other strength in Aquarius, a friendly Uranus and Neptune and one or two 11's or 22's, you are more than likely to be a genius—although your accomplishment may not come until youth is past. Avoid business if you want either success or happiness. You are an artist with a keen eye for color and design; you are a musician—intellectually if not in performance; you are an inventor—of strange and exciting effects if not of a machine of the future. You procrastinate, however, and waste many precious hours in an indolent type of dreaming or you have a tendency to “blow up” through nerves and frustration and lose your best chances for advancement. Your greatest task is with yourself and you will get nowhere until you have established peace within.

The road to this is metaphysical and you want to be practical—which you are not. You can be a playwright, an art critic, a designer, an architect, a director—or a leader of men. Your Success Number is 11 ( $1 + 28 = 29$  or 11)—the highest type of Neptunian idealism, often manifesting (if not understood) as bewilderment and nervousness. Forget the matter and seek the Spirit. You need religion—the type to fit your own peculiar needs; you need the sympathy and encouragement of your fellow-man—but you must win it. Your planets are Saturn, Sun and Neptune.

2—(11) and Aquarius: Jan. 20 (usually); Feb. 2, 11. 2 as birthdate augments the retiring quality we find in many Aquarians, strengthens the patience and persistence, softens the blunt edges and increases the intuition. 2 in Aquarius (but not 11 or 20—loses much of the sign's self-sufficiency, for 2 is a leaner and a partner until he has learned to find anchorage with the One within himself. He then becomes the best of counselors, cosmic servers and metaphysical teachers. Born on February 2nd, your capacity for accumulating knowledge is boundless and you can become a veritable storehouse of wisdom. You must work hard to conquer laziness, vacillation and a bewildered type of wavering in making decisions; you need to cultivate courage—both moral and physical, to avoid fear and depression. You have a strong religious bent which must not be allowed to drift into psychism, or "wishful thinking." You are a kindly, sympathetic and understanding teacher whose best fields of operation are music, poetry, religion and your pen. With due preparation you can become a Kreisler or a Heifetz. If the sense of material accumulation is strong, you would make a successful banker or economist; with a strong Neptune or emphasis on Pisces, a poet or rhythmic dancer; with a sound connection with Capricorn, an excellent diplomat.

Born on the 11th, you can scarcely escape some attraction to electrical engineering or invention (Edison), although you may go in for oratory (Daniel Boone), singing (Chaliapin) or even prize-fighting (Max Baer) as an emotional outlet. You dramatize everything in life—beginning with yourself—and are always on the heights or in the depths. You have a dangerous temper and must strive diligently for balance. The help of the more serene and stable stars and numbers will, of course, go far toward keeping you reasonable—but if there is any such thing as temperamentality, you have it! Learn the true value of money and fame; you passionately want both and must make sure that it is not merely to feed your ego and elevate your pedestal. Highly emotional, you can still be cold and calculating where your own interests are at stake. You have a mission in life rather than a vocation and once you regard yourself as agent rather than cause, you will go far. Your true development will come through sacrifice, but you are in line for fame and there is a strong streak of genius in you. You would be an inspired and dynamic leader of an unpopular but worthy cause—and could sway the multitude to your way of thinking and doing.

For the 2nd and 11th the Success Number is 4—which gives to the 2nd an increase of the Saturnine force but to the 11th a helpful balance to Uranus. Your planets for the 2nd are Saturn, the Moon and Saturn; for the 11th, Uranus, Neptune and Saturn all planets of magnetism and power.

January 20th is so close to Capricorn that either politics or business could be successfully handled. You could be a musician (Josef Hofmann) or possibly an actor—but your connection with the theatre will be more successful if confined to directing or playwrighting. Like all 2's and 20's, you are a teacher—or a preacher; in Aquarius your message will be very much "avant garde" and you will open up new vistas of understanding. Yours is the symbol of Change—the 20th century tearing-down process allotted to Uranus, although your Saturn rulership will make you go about it with thoroughness and system. Unlike many Aquarians, you can organize and execute—trusts, combinations or political reforms. If you shun the limelight, train for consultation law or use your pen. Your Success Number is 3—which should warn you against moods of depression as a barrier to your own progress. You must express (3) and you must make your contribution toward increasing the light (3). Your planets are Saturn (your month) the Moon (20-2—with an aspect to Uranus) and Venus (3).

3 and Aquarius: Jan. 21; Feb. 3, 12. 3 is very much at home in Aquarius, for both sign and number are artists, no matter what the early training or forces of circumstances has prescribed as a "job." If you were born on February 3rd you can go far with political oratory—either by word of mouth or power of pen. You are so close to the second half of the sign that you may consider both Saturn and Uranus as its lords—and profit by the partnership. You have a leaning toward drama, for on the stage or screen you find the world of unreality, which to you is the real world. You may not find your greatest success as performer for your critical faculty is too strong, but you could become a successful producer (Sam Harris, Giulio Gatti-Cazazza) or director, and you could write scenes and situations of great beauty and imagination. If you incline to a more substantial profession, a fine example of mixed rulership is found in Edward Moore Robinson—the banker (Saturn) and engineer (Uranus) who has made an outstanding success of both. You have a talent for literature (expressed) and writing coupled with a flair for mechanics; if you choose the latter, however, your number will incline you toward consulting, or as a recognized authority rather than an active worker in the field. You must check the tendency to scatter or you will arrive nowhere; your imagination is too strong a factor to go unleashed and if it does, you will find yourself living in your dreams—and left behind. You touch things rather lightly and can succeed very well as journalist or special writer.

February 12th has produced a variety of interesting and famous people—from Abraham Lincoln down. We have the Polish patriot Kosciusko, the scientist Charles Darwin, the philanthropist Peter Cooper, the novelist George Meredith, the theatrical producer Maurice Browne, the actors William Faversham and William Collier, Jr., the steel magnate Hugo Stinnes, the labor leader John Lewis and the unfortunate Aquarian outsider Harry K. Thaw. Here we have run the gamut of both sign and number—and each has been successful after his own fashion. 12 is the most versatile of the 3's for we have a fine legal mind coupled with a brilliant imagination. Your vocation cannot be labeled; it must be carefully selected—with due regard to your supporting stars and numbers. The success of these dates, however, lies in 5—again versatility, but with strong emphasis on understanding—of yourself, your environment, the age in which you live and most of all, your fellow-man. This is the number of Mars—and yours to use in the most constructive activity, backed up by the enlightened Uranus and the goddess of art, culture and beauty—Venus.

January 21st keeps you on a more even keel than the other 3's in Aquarius. Close to the stabilizing Saturn, emphasized by the Success Number 4, the 21 is held in check when tempted to fly too high or too far. You should have a good education and cultivate your mental side rather than your artistic longings—although some form of art-expression should be a hobby. You are a better business man than the other 3's and can become a banker, manufacturer, publisher, or promoter. In writing you will be apt to stress the mysterious or occult and will invariably choose unusual subjects. Woodcarving, architecture or conventional design should satisfy your need for art expression while providing a dependable income. Your vocational planets are Saturn, Venus (aspected to Moon and Sun) and Saturn.

4 and Aquarius: Jan. 22, Feb. 4, 13. 4 tends to clip the wings of Aquarius but provides much welcome balance and stability. Born on February 4th, you may safely train for music or sculpture. Your sign will always temper the severity of your number, in any event, and release you from too close confinement in any occupation. Botany or floriculture would be congenial and successful. 4 is a fine banker or manufacturer and if you use your Aquarian gift for service, you would be an excellent conservator of public funds or a manufacturer of steel for building railroads, ships, etc. Under 4 you must cultivate a good sense of values and strive to make your activities more practical than is congenial to Aquarius.

13th emphasizes the necessity for service. Few there are of this combination who escape without a war within themselves. Aquarius cries for the foreign and unusual; 13 demands that we stay at home and fulfill our obligations to family and community—and 13 always wins out in the end, regardless of sign. You are given to self-limitation and seek refuge in dangerous experiments in psychism when your true release may be found in music (Leopold Godowsky) or civic service—in either of which you could attain a place of leadership. You could be a very successful engineer or mine operator, a planner and builder of community houses or recreation centers, a designer for the trade, an estate manager or (especially with Gemini, Sagittarius or Pisces) an outstanding writer of mystery tales. With emphasis on Scorpio you could become a surgeon (Ernest Franklin Robinson).

The Success Number for these two dates is 6—the number of Jupiter—and it is of vital importance to learn its lesson of adjustment to duty through love. Your vocational planets are Uranus, Saturn and Jupiter.

January 22nd has given us many artists and musicians, although we have the famous German banker Hjalmer Schacht as an outstanding exception. 22 is the master—of whatever he undertakes, if he did but realize it. Francis Bacon was a pure Aquarian, likewise Lord Byron. In the world of music we have Yehudi Menuhin and Dr. Frederick Schlieder as outstanding performer and teacher; in the theatre the veterans David Wark Griffith and Constance Collier; in literature Conrad Veidt and Charles Morgan—and in a class by themselves Manuel Garcia and Douglas Corrigan. Your Success Number is 5—again Understanding and a message to bring to the Many. Your planets are Saturn, Uranus and Mars.

5 and Aquarius: Jan. 23; Feb. 5, 14. Freedom and versatility go hand in hand for 5 in Aquarius—with danger of going too far afield and losing sight of the Purpose. You are a wonderful booster if you were born on February 5th, a great stimulation to others—and a law unto yourself. You hold in your hands the key to progress—but you are apt to over-investigate, recklessly scatter your time, energy and money, entertain yourself through all-too-frequent change and diversion and overplay your hand—to the complete loss of your mission. It will be difficult for you to concentrate on one line of activity—for you can succeed in many, and you know it—but this is your only safe procedure if you want to achieve the recognition to which you are entitled. If you are attracted to law or medicine you will doubtless succeed at either. Whatever you do will be an innovation. If your bent is religious, you may become an evangelist (Dwight Moody) or a cult-leader (Roger Williams). You love crowds, groups and individuals—from interest, curiosity or for stimulation—but you feel no sense of obligation toward them, once you have passed on your knowledge of the moment. Both sign and number will make you eager for travel, and it will usually prove disappointing and expensive. You are given to risks, which are often ruinous. You are artistic, skilful in design (a fine architect), an excellent playwright (Frederic Lonsdale) or critic, and an actor—of the type of vaudeville, despite the much-admired Maxine Elliot. If you seek business as a career, deal in commodities. Your pitfall is diffusion, and when you note your Success Number you will see why.

Born on the 14th you are more mental than 1st degree 5 and therefore somewhat less liable to diffusion. You have a dangerous affinity, however, for the astral plane and should never allow your passion for investigation to extend to that field. You are capable of assuming large responsibilities but, like 5, are given to taking unwise risks when your natural common sense is not permitted to operate. Art and music are excellent outlets for you—but not reliable professions—although, with the help of Gemini or Leo you would make a successful actor. Your chances are better, however, in playwrighting (Charles Rann Kennedy) or dramatic criticism (George Jean Nathan). Your emotions are deep rooted and are often the cause of your suffering or frustration. They can be well balanced through your fine mental equipment, if given a chance. You can design, build or sell.

The Success Number for the 5th and 14th is 7—the seeker after Truth, the keen, mental analyst and perfectionist. Here we can plainly see the folly of scattering and experimentation for the sake of amusement, the need for concentration and examination and the error of flitting from one country or group to another before the given task has reached the “well done” stage. Your planets are Uranus, Mars (5) and Mercury (7).

January 23rd is progressive, but as practical as it is possible for an Aquarian to be. You could found new schools of thought, cure by unusual (especially electrical) methods, teach or lecture from an original platform or lead the way to a new religion. You have an intuitive knowledge of many things, and you have an arresting and intriguing way of presenting your findings. If you are attracted to healing you will not use surgery, for 23 is a builder of the temple, congenitally averse to tearing it down. You are erratic and moody (5 and Aquarius) but your tenacity of purpose keeps you pretty well in line. You may appear too self-sufficient for your own best good for you are actually dependent upon society and sympathy and you may just as well enjoy the popularity that comes easily to you as discourage it by an assumed aloofness. You are subjected to petty annoyances in your personal life because of your reputation for independence and your unwillingness to adhere to the accepted codes of society. You would succeed in aviation or as automotive engineer. Your Success Number is 6—a force which may not wholly subscribe to the dictates of Mrs. Grundy but at least never offends her openly. Cultivation of this adaptability (6) and a warmer (6) approach to those with whom you come in contact will see you over your difficulties. Your vocational planets are Saturn, Mars and Jupiter (6).

6 and Aquarius: Jan. 24, Feb. 6, 15. 6 often takes us into the realm of art, music and theatre and in the case of an Aquarian partnership, the inclination would be strengthened. There is a basic demand for adjustment in 6—no matter in what line of endeavor we find it. Both sign and number absorb and imitate but are seldom creative artists; both are fine group workers, ready with sympathy and gifted with understanding; both are providers—at a distance—for even when combined with this number of home and family, the attitude toward domesticity and children is one of complete impersonality, with the parental instinct totally lacking. 6 in Aquarius is peculiarly protected and less subject to the ups and downs of the sign than the other numbers. 6 can always raise money for its pet projects and can always get money for its personal needs. Congenial surroundings are essential to your happiness and your best work; praise will increase your efforts. While in no sense domestic, you would make an excellent manager of an hotel or tea room; your flair for design and color would stand you in good stead in millinery or dressmaking; your ability to teach and your natural sense of rhythm would bring you success as dancing or dalcroze instructor; your sense of justice and intuitive knowledge of guilt and innocence would help you to become an excellent judge. Your difficulties will come through your open defiance of the moral code, for you are a prize target for gossip and through your refusal to subject yourself to any sort of regulation or routine. You should seek a job where you are not accountable for your hours but only for your finished work. You live in your dreams—which retards your progress in the ordinary occupations of life. Curb your nerves and your tendency to borrow trouble; seek your emotional outlet in writing, acting or music.

Born on the 15th you can write (Sax Rohmer, Joseph Hergesheimer), act (John Barrymore, Cesar Romero, William Janney), sing (Marcella Sembrich) or become an outstanding legal consultant (Elihu Root, Dennis Francis Lyons); with Scorpio, you may choose some form of the healing art; with Capricorn, manufacturing. You can design or decorate, cultivate your musical talents or go in for clothes, although if the latter, you should leave the actual sewing to others. You are a natural money-maker in your number—and could commercialize art or science where others would spend their lives in struggle. You are capable of great spirituality but are more inclined to be satisfied with the middle level, for you prize contentment and luxury and have no taste for hardship or sacrifice. Despite all this, however, you are generous and philanthropic, optimistic and encouraging, liberal in religion and tolerant of all things and people. 15 belongs to Aquarius and is capable of reaching the heights of both sign and number once the tendency to easy-going and love of luxury is conquered.

The Success Number for February 6 and 15 is 8—organization of your talents and balance of your emotions. Your vocational planets are Uranus, Jupiter and the Sun (8).

January 24th is a natural-born leader, for cause or conquest (Frederick the Great, Emperor Hadrian), for patriotism and diplomacy (Joseph H. Choate) or for stirring the multitude to action (Charles James Fox). You can put drama into business or make a business of your art. You belong in public affairs—politics, civic reform, social betterment. You are idealistic and visionary, disregarding time, money and all the externals, magnifying the joys and sorrows of mankind beyond the bounds of reason, and yet you are endowed with a measure of practicality that makes of you a conqueror. You are dependent upon love and yet you rarely achieve personal happiness. You are a law unto yourself for you know that you can reach the place, if you will, where you are "ready to leave the circle and join the spiral." Your Success Number is 7—mental analysis and spiritual apperception. Jealousy, anger and rashness will keep you from your goal, no matter how great your ability. You are an accepted leader and a potential conqueror but you will not achieve any satisfactory victory until you have learned to conquer yourself. Your vocational planets are Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury.

7 and Aquarius: Jan. 25; Feb. 7, 16. Born on February 7th, you demand proof of the value of the faith of your fathers—and failing to find it, attempt to work out a formula of your own—a task which colors your life and finds its way into your every activity. Were you to act on your impulses and intuitions, your task would be easy, but you analyze and reason until the net result makes little sense in a world to which you came too soon. Some of your sign and number have found themselves through poetry or philosophy. Some there are who never find themselves at all and resign themselves at last to an unsatisfactory compromise with conventional law, traditional education or dyed-in-the-wool institutions. You are well fitted for legal practice, but should have the courage to inject into it your own ideas and arguments. In the field of education you have something new to say and simply because you cannot deliver your message in its perfection, should not deter you from delivering it as best you can. You are too likely to yield to depression, too easily defeated and discouraged. Train for science or connect yourself with some humanitarian institution where you will have enough authority to depart from the outworn standards. With help from your 12th House you would make an ideal leader of prison and hospital reform, with Sagittarius, a fine ambassador, with Gemini, a critic and commentator. Yours is the mental and scientific approach and you should therefore strive for a thorough education. Without it you will scarcely gain recognition for your efforts and may even find difficult the task of earning a livelihood.

February 16th brings a burden of karma to this already difficult sign, with Li Hung Chang and Nijinsky as outstanding examples. Like all 7's, you need a good education, and all possible fortification against unjust criticism and undeserved slander. Whatever your peculiarities of philosophy or belief, strive for a "normal" behaviorism and walk the straight and narrow path. Your heritage of silence (7) is a great protection, for you are less blunt and outspoken than the majority of Aquarians and are a safer custodian of secrets. You need to cultivate warmth and understanding if you would find yourself alone, and to curb your tendency to criticism and sarcasm. You are not suited for partnerships, nor can you, with assurance of success, conduct any business alone, so your best course is the literary or professional, as writer, teacher, preacher, lawyer or scientist, especially scientist, in which you may attain recognition, or even fame. You should cultivate some form of artistic expression—stringed instruments, painting or wood-carving leading. With any encouragement from congenial stars or numbers, you would make an outstanding writer on philosophical or metaphysical subjects and would find an appreciative audience, ready to be convinced. You are a specialist and therefore less adapted to work with groups at close range than many of your brother Aquarians; you are also inclined to mental snobbery, which erects a barrier between you and your audience. You would make a success of geology, archeology or mining operations but unless you are much more Aquarius than 7, you are not especially drawn to machinery. Electricity, however, is a fine field for you and the designing of electrical machinery might prove to be the fulfilment of your mission. Your Success Number is 9—the number of universality. The more you can extend your mind and spirit, the nearer will you approach your goal. The tendency of 7 is to reason with the conscious mind—which will never establish that invaluable connection which comes solely from the operation of the super-conscious. Your vocational planets are Uranus, Mercury and All (9).

Born on January 25th, you are likely to be strongly attracted to occultism. This number marks the parting of the ways and yours is the task of rebuilding the temple in the new architecture. You are naturally prophetic and intuitive and if you are aware of these faculties they will become valuable assets. If you are attracted to a profession, electrical engineering is sure to bring you success. Saturn helps you to recognize the value of production and you would make your mark as head of manufacturing organizations or associations—if your bent is toward business. You probably have a good voice and might succeed with a singing career (Antonio Scotti). You could easily learn to play several instruments and your love of music should be put to good use. You have talent for invention and composition but despite your many abilities along artistic and musical lines, your 7 casts the final vote on the side of intellect and your natural bent is toward a mental occupation. You have an excellent legal mind and would make a fine diplomat. Any form of politics is a fertile field for you. Your pitfall is laziness and aimless dreaming. Keep your fine, penetrative qualities continually in action and you can go to the top. Your Success Number is 8—which is sufficient warning that you should keep your feet on the ground. Your planets are Saturn, Mercury and the Sun.

8 and Aquarius: Jan. 26; Feb. 8, 17. If you can dedicate your 8 to service (Aquarius) it will work for you like magic. If you choose to regard it as so many dollars and select a business career to the end that they may be multiplied, you are likely to find the proverbial ups and downs of Aquarius mostly downs, full of strain and discouragement. Aquarius dreams of riches and honors; 8 attracts them. Yours is the decision as to how they shall be used. You hate to see others suffer; 8 gives you the means to alleviate the suffering. You have come to establish the new order—and at present it takes money to put it over. You are depressed and saddened by the woes of the world—for being Aquarius, you are a part of everybody and everything. You chose your birthday number as a supreme test of yourself and your worthiness to be one of the “missionaries” of this time.

Born on the 8th, you will be successful in a business career, for you must create and produce. You should connect yourself with large enterprises in which the general public is interested. You must not fear to spend or expand when your purpose lies in sharing. In business choose manufacturing, banking, railroads, real estate or the products of the earth; among the professions choose the theatre—as director (King Vidor) rather than actor, music (Chopin) or Astrology (Evangeline Adams). If you want to write, better not attempt other than technical subjects.

February 17th has produced more writers (Josephine Dodge Daskam, Samuel Sidney McClure—Ed) and actors (Donald Brian, Wayne Morris, Mary Brian, Tracy Barham) than the 8th and is more in the Aquarian tradition. 17 is a fine public servant or civic leader, a keeper of the records, historian, art patron and public benefactor. We find few artists or musicians in this group although fine technical results in music may be attained—especially in stringed instruments. Law may be chosen, or medicine, geology or exploration. Manufacturing or railroad enterprises, as in the case of the 8th, should flourish.

Your Success Number is 10 or 1—individualization, specialization. Keep to the one purpose in your life—the best of your sign and number—and you will not lack for success. Your planets are Uranus, the Sun—(8) and again the Sun (1).

January 26th has a strong religious bent which may be carried into finance-plus-philanthropy (John D. Rockefeller, Jr.) literature (Thomas Paine) or leadership (President McKinley). Swedenborg was born on this day and headed a religion of his own.

The humanitarian ideal can never be far lost sight of in this combination of sign and number for both are messengers of re-form and re-birth and both are pledged to service and sacrifice. You are especially skilful with your hands and could succeed in any of the plastic arts. This particular 8 is the least of all adapted for business, although successful business careers are on record. Social service and

Year Period Guide—1870-1920

The purpose of the Year-Period Guide is to give you, each month, a full report on planetary activity in your horoscope. Formerly all guides, in HOROSCOPE and other magazines, were based in the position of your Sun alone. This, though satisfactory as far as it goes, is incomplete. The benefit or the setbacks you derive from Solar vibrations are strongly conditioned by influences operating on your other planets. The Year-Period Guide now gives you the transits to your Neptune, Uranus, Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, and Venus.

Find the influences at work on your planets as follows.

There are Six Tables, each giving you the current transits to one of the major planets in your chart.

To find the transit influencing your Neptune this month, find your birth year in the left hand column of Table I (beginning on page 46). Opposite your birth year, in Table I, find the period that contains your birth. Next to this, you will find a number, indicating the paragraph (44-45) that is your Neptune-reading for the month.

Proceed in a similar manner to get your current transits for Uranus (Table II); Saturn (Table III); and Jupiter (Table IV).

To get transits to your Mars, use Table V (pages 54-55). Find your birth year in the left hand column. Run over this line till you find the period covering your birthday. At the head of this column, you will find a number, which is the paragraph number that is your Mars-reading for this month.

Proceed similarly with Table VI (Venus) on pages 56-57.

The influences will tell you how much you can expect from your Solar Guide, as given in The Special Solar Readings, and in Your June Horoscope, for your sign. If the influences given for you in the Year-Period Guide are progressive then you may expect the most from your Solar-vibration, and can use the Day-by-Day guide according to its most optimistic interpretation. If, on the other hand, these Year-Period indications call for caution, you cannot expect too much from the Solar indications no matter how optimistic they are.

The best thing to find in the Year-Period Guide, for present progress, is a good, enthusiastic Saturn-reading. If this is strongly aggressive, you can expect the most from all other indications. If it tells you to slow up, then do so with a good will. There's no use fighting Saturn; he's bigger'n you are. Nearly as good as a favorable Saturn-reading is a good Mars-reading (Table V). With your Saturn-reading and your Mars-reading both good, you are the favored of the gods at the time. Jupiter and Venus help or retard according to the major indications of Saturn and Mars.

Uranus and Neptune set up vibrations that last for about seven and fourteen years respectively. "Seven years bad luck" or "seven years good luck" are referable to these ponderous outer planets. They set up states of mind, and material conditions, that we come to take for granted. Study your life carefully—what you know about yourself and the things you take for granted, will tell you more of how you're reacting to Uranus and Neptune than any reading can. They are your subconscious. If you like what you can find there, and if it's progressive, use the vibrations in the other Tables to perpetuate it. If you don't like it, use the other vibrations to help you change, gradually and firmly. The readings in Tables I and II will help you discover what's deeply inbedded in your own life now; and what you can do about it.

NEPTUNE

Find paragraph for your birth in Table I, Page 43

1 Uranus transits the place of your Neptune, and your Neptune is under no other transit-influences. You are thus able this month to seek and find an understanding of the changes that are taking place deep within your subconscious. To many people, this influence will be unnoticeable, since it is a subtle, slow-working, long-range vibration. To these people, not very acutely aware of themselves, it will manifest as a general sense of well-being and self-confidence. If you are of this group, you will feel that you are developing a certain new magnetism, a certain new control over other people, perhaps some luck in material ways. Make the most of this; and don't be tempted to drift into wasteful mental and emotional processes. . . . If you are introspective, acutely aware of yourself and analysis and correction—with courage and confidence, for this is a very fine influence in your life, and enables you to build firm foundations along all lines of thought and endeavor, through your reactions, then this is the time to study them closely, with an eye to making the changes that you have long felt to be necessary in your way of looking at things. You may approach everything—other people, material affairs, self-the constructive use of your combined mentality and intuition.

2 Your Neptune in Gemini is squared by the transiting Neptune, and also by the transiting Jupiter, making the month Feb., Mar., and April especially confusing to you. The things you take for granted in your life and in yourself are being called into question, and a confusion results that can be very distressing if you do not understand it. You are very likely under this influence to go to excess in both emotional and financial matters, and to be unduly influenced by things that are happening in the world around you, both the great world, and the small world of which you are the center. You have great need to search deeply into yourself, for the truth as you know it to be, and to rely on those things which you have found to be reliable. Call on your philosophy, and insist on adhering to it even in the face of discouragement. Above all, don't let yourself be thrown off balance by the action of others; don't let the unworthiness of others lead you to act in a way that is unworthy of you. As Mars opposes your Neptune (till Mar. 20) there is danger that the negative, sensational, or over-emotional side of your nature will dominate you, leading you to a difficult mental attitude about many things. Distrust your impulses, intuitions, and feelings; and insist on reasoning everything out. If things seem clouded and misty, have faith that this is merely your way of looking at them; and avoid all decisions until this period is past. Avoid, also, all social excess, and refuse to seek escape through any artificial means. Excess of food and drink will play havoc with you, and you should be abstemious in the extreme.

3 Saturn transits in square to your Neptune. The real and the ideal are in conflict: the Real being the world, the Ideal being your own consciousness. Temptation to abandon the high motive, the great aim, is very strong; but if you hold to your inner ambition here, do right and fear no man, you will compel the forces of the world to work for you instead of against you. You need courage—both moral and physical—to stick to your guns. Remember that you won't like what you get unless you get it according to your best ideals. Only confusion and discouragement result if you compromise with your concepts of truth, honor, and justice.

4 Your natal Neptune in Leo is squared by the transiting Uranus in Taurus, a vibration that tends to emphasize any sensational, romantic, and adventurous ideas you may have. This condition has been in effect for some years. Be careful that you do not fall into some exciting, but basically unsound relationship that will test your self-control. Make the conventions your guide, and stick to them no matter what the temptation to stray. Protect health, also, from emotional excess. Choose your associates carefully, knowing that a man (or a woman) is known by the company he keeps.

5 Read paragraph 3, which applies to you in large measure. You have been learning practical and worldly lessons, in the past year, about how your deepest ideals may be made into a working reality. You have, it is hoped, learned to conform—not bring your desires into line with necessity, and with circumstances as you find them. At this point, this lesson is strained, for you will tend to kick over the traces, and revert to an impractical individualism which can do damage to the progress of your ambitions. Relax from aggression and be content to wait yet a little for the ultimate attainment of the goal you aim at. Take your steer from the world around you, not from your own impulses and intuitions and feelings, which are unreliable and will lead you astray if you let them.

URANUS

Find paragraph for your birth in Table II, Page 43

6 Your Uranus in Leo is square Uranus, bringing you unusual ideas, and a tendency to jump to conclusions, especially where novelities and innovations are concerned. If you are a promoter of any kind, an inventor, a business man, your mind is stimulated now to new, and perhaps radical, endeavors; and under the present trine of Saturn to your Uranus, you may well start along some new-line that will prove highly productive. Be sure that the practical side of whatever you do is sufficient to counter-balance the novelty of it; for unless you watch this angle, you may merely embark on some venture that is merely unusual and spectacular, with no particular future. Keep your feet on the ground! Until March 20, your ideas and plans are given unusual impetus by the position of Mars, further supporting your ambitions and efforts. Avoid financial risks here, and use your great mental energy to further things along safe and sound lines.

7 Your Uranus in Virgo is under the transit of Neptune, bringing you great magnetism, and unusual insight into social and personal problems. You are something of a Liberal, if not actually a Radical, and you ought to use your analytical mind to work out solutions to mass problems, either in your own small world, or in the great world of which you are a part. Someone of your generation, working under this powerful transit, can, and probably will, solve many of the troubles that vex the world; and though this may not be you, you will at least understand what is going on. Jupiter opposing your Uranus and the transiting Neptune (Feb., Mar., Apr.) will give you tremendous ideas, most of which are probably unsound and extravagant in some way, though the basis of them is accurate enough. Avoid taking yourself too seriously here, and insist with yourself that, in all your thinking, you consider first and foremost the practicalness of what you propose. Over-enthusiasm, over-optimism, can cause you to waste energy. Feet on the ground must be your motto. As Mars activates this combination with squares and oppositions (till Mar. 20) you can lose heavily, in money, health, and peace of mind, through hasty conclusions and ill-considered, ill-timed actions, and you should avoid promotions and innovations of all sorts till this touchy period is over. Protect your pocketbook from loss through speculation, and your health from injury through excess in food and drink. Moderation in all things must be your watchword till at least the middle of March when the crux of the tension will be past. Till then, be patient and cautious.

8 Saturn transits opposite your Uranus. Your most advanced ideas are under pressure because of practical considerations. This pressure can either result in your making your ideas practical and workable, or it can cause you to be jittery because your original ideas are opposed, or run counter to things as they are. Seek the practical way to get your ideas across; don't expect too much from ideals as such, for this is a time in which you are learning the lessons of worldliness.

9 You are in the early forties as Uranus opposes his own place—42 is the age at which the aspect is exact—and you are thus at the exact border line between the two halves of your life. Up till now, your interests have been expressive, expansive, objective—you have gone forth and conquered according to your tendencies, ambitions, and abilities. You are now at a point of consolidation: you should aim to adjust material affairs with an eye to security, rather than to further expansion. You do not feel old, and you are not old; yet for the most part, your aim now must be holding rather than getting—clinging rather than acquiring. This is true of emotional, as well as material, matters; in all things seek to clinch what you have. Do not seek to acquire more property, more friends, more people to love, more education; but seek rather to acquire more through learning how to appreciate better what this period of your life already finds you possessed of.

10 Your Uranus in Sagittarius is squared by Neptune, bringing some sharp conflict between your emotional and intuitional nature, and your creative and inventive mind. As Jupiter opposes Neptune and squares your Uranus (Feb., Mar., Apr.) you tend to go to mental and emotional excess. Some glamor clouds your eyes, unless you keep your mind very clear, and insist on taking advantage of the mental stimulus along mental and creative lines. Big ideas obsess you, and you can make these practical and workable, if you add to courage an insistence on being rational and deliberate, rather than emotional and hasty. As Mars transits the place of your Uranus (till Mar. 20) your enthusiasms mount, and so does your nervous tension. Keep your mind clear here, and avoid letting a multitude of ideas get on your nerves. Move with caution, both figuratively, in the realm of ideas; and literally, in the physical world, for speed and haste lead to accidents here. Avoid them by being extremely careful in all your movements, and by avoiding all dangerous enjoyments or means of transportation.

11 You struggle with circumstance, which tends to squelch your more advanced ideas, as Saturn squares your Uranus. Rebellion rises in you, and you are likely to want to kick over the traces and get off to a new and more exciting start. Be careful how you do this. The main thing for you to be sure of is that whatever you do is done in the light of reason, and not on an impulse of anger or impatience.

12 Your Uranus in Aquarius is squared by Uranus. Read Par. 6, which applies to you in some measure at this time. In addition to this, Mercury transits your Uranus (Feb. 2-18) bringing you some excellent new idea which you can promote soundly if you keep your feet firmly planted on the ground, and don't fly off at a tangent.

13 Your Uranus in Pisces is under much the same influences as are described in Pars. 7 to 10, which you should read. Your tendency to emotional excess is somewhat stronger than is described in these other paragraphs, and you must be careful that flattery doesn't lead you into bad company. Watch out also for self-deception; some phony idea can seem pretty good to you, and cause you to waste time and effort if you aren't careful. Protect health and heart from excess of all kinds, and be especially careful in travel. Play safe in all things.

14 Your Uranus in Cancer, which has been for some time under the restraint of Saturn's square, meets with support from Jupiter now. Your inventive and original nature has been curbed, and repressed, perhaps much to your disappointment. Now, though the same restraints operate, you are enabled to express your more advanced and original ideas freely, and to good effect. You have learned the lessons of restraint, and have learned to curb your enthusiasms to meet the needs of the world that does not think, perhaps, as fast or as originally as you do. Now you are able to get your ideas across much better than in the immediate past, if you remember to be tactful, and patient, in promoting yourself and the things that are dear to you. Give scope to your deepest and highest aims.

SATURN

15 Your Saturn in Gemini, which for a long time has been squared by Neptune, is now also squared by Jupiter. Your naturally canny outlook of life and its problems, especially its business problems, is confused now by a less practical influence that you are used to; and you must be careful that it does not lead you into some unwise financial or business activity. Stick to your own practical methods, even though the rest of the world is going off the deep end on some apparently wonderful scheme which will not work at all for you. Just now (till Mar. 20) Mars opposes your Saturn, warning you against hasty and impulsive actions of all kinds. Stick to what is tried and tested, even though outer pressure to make a change is great. Also, guard your health; your tendency is to do too much, to be too conscientious, and to wear yourself down thereby. Take it easy; there isn't as much need for hurry as you think!

16 Your Saturn in Cancer is squared by the transiting Saturn in Aries. You are midway along the road to success of some kind, toward a completion of a program that will be finally completed in about six or seven years. You are probably impatient and eager for some final settlement of your affairs, which will not come about except slowly and by degrees. This month, and for the next two months, you are well supported by the transit of Jupiter, bringing you some luck and stability along business lines. Make security your goal here.

17 A drain on your emotional vitality requires care. Your practical approach to life is subjected to questioning, and you are trying hard to line up your viewpoint with that of the world. You tend to take a standpat attitude in the face of changing conditions; you are stubborn about changing your mind and attitude toward basic life problems that really require a revision in your outlook. Examine, study, the more progressive ideas that come within the scope of your thoughts, and make an effort to bring your thinking in line with progressive ideas. Sticking to old-fashioned notions under these conditions simply wears you out mentally and emotionally—this is a time when you must bend and yield somewhat all along the line.

18 Read Par. 15, which applies to you. You have some unusual luck now, as Neptune transits the place of your Saturn, and your naturally conservative approach to business seems to have met with reward in the past years. This is being tested now, especially till Mar. 20, as Mars squares the place of your Saturn. Be very skeptical about some change in employment that seems to be up for consideration; and make sure that you do not plunge into some new line of work hastily, or as the result of discontent or anger. Protect health carefully, being especially careful that physical and dietary excess does not exhaust you or make you ill.

19 Saturn opposes his own place in your horoscope. You are nervous, worried and probably discontented. You are thinking of making a fundamental change which will alter the direction of your life in some essential way. Perhaps you feel that you have gone to the end of a road and must look for a new one. Remember that anything you begin here will develop slowly but surely for another fourteen years and unless you are ready for a slow and steady pace, stick to what you have. You have reached a period of slowing down and it may be that the very moderate pace of things is getting you nervous. If you embark on anything here through mere impatience you will have deep reason to regret it later. Therefore, be impersonal in all your decisions and look at the practical, worldly side of things, rather than at your own emotional likes and dislikes.

20 Look out for this, especially if Par. 9 is also in your horoscope reading for this month. In any case, this situation, of Uranus transiting opposite your natal Saturn, creates a good deal of tension in your life, in which external events tend to break up the things you have taken for granted, and to set your life up on new and different bases. You can overcome the worst possibilities of this influence by holding to what you inwardly know to be your best course for the acquisition of what you want out of life. But if you allow the persistent pressure of your more individualistic impulses to get the better of you you will break up the true pattern of your life in the search of some glittering ideal which is highly impractical for you to look for at this time. Stick to the conventions, here, and to the conventional mold of your life and your business—and apply all your individualistic aims and ideas to the perfection of what is already established in your life.

21 Your Saturn is Sagittarius is under the transit of Mars (till Mar. 20) bringing out some of the more treacherous features of the squares of Jupiter and Neptune which are also in force. You are likely to muff some big opportunity either through over-caution, or through wearing yourself out, and being in poor physical condition when the opportunity is ripe. Analyze all phases of your life carefully; while others tend to be too optimistic now, you tend in just the opposite direction, and will have to force yourself to grasp something that is practically forced on you. Use discretion in connection with work; excess here leads to fatigue and colds, which undermine your efficiency. Get plenty of sleep and rest which is your best way to preserve good health. If those around you are ill now, don't look upon it as a burden; do your share of helping gladly, and without either complaint or excessive effort.

22 Your Saturn in Capricorn is squared by the transiting Saturn in Aries. You made a new start of some kind about 7 or 8 years ago, and you are now midway to the success it promised at the time. Your affairs are perhaps not progressing as fast as you would like, especially with respect to material matters. But this is a time to be patient, to reaffirm your basic personal aims, and to take stock. You are well equipped to wait for success, if you know it is coming, and a little study of your situation now will show you exactly how to proceed to make it an eventual certainty. Refuse to rush or be hurried, and don't let material matters obscure the really big things you are after.

23 Uranus transits square your natal Saturn, causing doubts, worries, forebodings, about your personal and business existence. Ignore these by being as detached and objective as you can be. Learn to relax—half the things you want to worry about are in your mind only, and will disappear if you go out and have a good time. Protect health from nerves and worry, get plenty of rest, seek no artificial escape, and use your will-power to reason yourself out of the moods you tend to fall into.

24 Your Saturn in Pisces is conjoined by Jupiter, opposed by Neptune, and (Until Mar. 20) squared by Mars, a very tricky and treacherous combination in which you should, like the Red Queen and Alice, "run as fast as you can to stay in the same place." Avoid change of all kinds, especially any change that is suddenly presented. Be careful of the company you keep; some of those who talk the biggest and seem the most glamorous, are the least stable. Protect health from social, physical, dietary, excess; and distrust all your intuitions profoundly. Be reasonable in reaching all decisions, and protect all your interests by following a program of moderation and conservatism in all things.

25 Your Saturn in Aries, conjoined by the transiting Saturn, is now trined by Mars (till Mar. 20) giving you a new start along some highly beneficial line. Be courageous here, change the direction and pace of your life with courage and confidence. The dead wood of the past thirty years is dropping away now, and you are freed to move forward with a new outlook, a new philosophy, a new and clearer goal. Be wary about the generally optimistic tone of the world now; don't be taken in by false glamor; but follow what is best within you, even if it means some radical departure from what you have been doing for a long time. Watch emotions carefully—they are not your best guides by any means. Your mind is your best friend; think, and don't let feelings interfere with your following what reason tells you is good.

26 Protect your health. Nerves are the weak spot here, and the gland structure; be careful therefore of all sorts of stress and strain, as well as of physical excess. This influence lasts a long time, and works up its power slowly; be on guard against all sorts of influences around you that tend to make you nervous. Analyze yourself; dig into your subconscious; and find out what troubles you. By getting it into the foreground of your mind, you are able to cope with it, and avert the nervousness it might bring if you allowed it to remain buried. Beware of fixed ideas, and stubbornness. You need to be flexible now, in order to prevent yourself from falling into habits of thinking that make for nervousness and psychological involvements. Don't be bull-headed; compromise with others, and with your own ideas and be as watchful and patient as possible.

JUPITER

27 Saturn transits conjunct your Jupiter. Your life is steadying down and you will be able to bring your luck down to a sane and practical level of activity. You may feel somewhat hampered and restricted in whatever work you are engaged in but you are sensible enough to know that this is the proper thing to continue to do. You have found a steady and sober level at which to work, and the very consistency of it is bringing the satisfaction which only discipline can yield. Stick to the fundamentally sound business course indicated by this position.

28 Your Jupiter in Taurus is under the transit of Uranus, a condition which lasts with more or less strength for some time. Your mind is filled with schemes and plans, some of which may be good, but which in the main are likely to be impractical. If you have an inventive turn of nature, you may actually profit greatly here through the construction of some new mechanical device that's patentable. It is one of the signs of sudden acquisition of wealth, provided you can keep your feet on the ground and make your ideas practical. The danger is that you will attempt the impossible, either in ideas, inventions, actions, or financial maneuvering, and get nothing but an elated feeling that signifies little. But properly harnessed to a practical workaday outlook, this can carry you far in practical affairs.

29 Your Jupiter in Gemini is under the squares of Neptune and Jupiter, inclining to very dangerous over-optimism. Your mental attitude is expansive and too hopeful, and you are able to deceive yourself into thinking things reasonable which really are very dangerous. This is especially true in financial and business matters, where a tendency to gamble, take chances, and be extravagant, can undermine your security. Be careful of this inclination, and don't let either yourself or others induce you to stray from the beaten track of regular, safe and sane business. Especially till March 20, as Mars opposes your Jupiter, your "luck" will lead you on in some dangerous experiment until it proves to be bad luck. Move with caution here, and resist all temptation to splurge, or run risks. Loss through ill-advised loans, misplaced generosity, and downright theft are also to be carefully guarded against. Insure your property against burglary, fire, etc. . . . in other words, be prepared for the unexpected, and protect yourself against it.

30 Your Jupiter in Cancer is under the square of Saturn. Accept routine, even if it seems restricting, and do not try to rebel against the restraint that may be present in your business life. You may not feel that luck is very kind to you just now, and probably it isn't. This is not a time to rely on luck, but rather on sober hard work; put in the hard work now, and the luck will come to you later. Don't expect anything for nothing; be prepared to give services cheerfully, and to be patient.

31 Some of the more expansive ideas of Jupiter in Leo, stimulated by the square of Uranus in transit, can be made to work here, as both Saturn and Mars (till Mar. 20) support your business ventures. Be inventive, original, even daring in trying out new things, for, if they are rooted in practicality, they can be made to work very well here. Be careful what kind of people you associate with, especially in business, for your big-heartedness can be imposed on here. Keep your ventures in your own control, and go ahead with honesty, courage, and confidence.

32 Read Par. 29, which applies to you at this time. The vibrations you work under are even more insidious than those described in 29, and warn you additionally against loss through bad judgment and the fancy actions of others. In addition to this, protect health from excess, and use special care in matters of food and drink; excess undermines your health, and through this, your security suffers.

33 Saturn transits opposite your Jupiter, apparently cutting down opportunity and fields for expression, but actually serving to bring you down to earth and put your energies constructively to work. Expect little in the way of luck—but work like a beaver at the tasks at hand, which, though perhaps not exciting, are building for the future in their own slow way.

34 Uranus transits opposite your Jupiter. You are having ideas now that would set the world on fire if you could make them work, but unfortunately they are the kind which you nor anybody else could make work, and if you aren't careful, you will be sinking whatever money and energy you have in some wild scheme that would make you a huge success "if." Veto impulse, especially in business matters, in which your judgment is not sound. You incline strongly to risks, and they'll produce only disappointment and loss. Hold gambling tendencies in check, and in all matters, stick to the tried and true course.

29A The influence at work here is similar to that described by Par. 29, which you should read. You, too, are under vibrations that make you over-optimistic, and over-trusting; and you have to guard against this. However, there is some chance that you can make luck work for you here, by being extremely careful, and extremely cagey. To do this, you will have to fight a natural optimism, and be pretty skeptical and shrewd, and in any case, gambles are risky. But the transit of Mars over your natal Jupiter can bring you some exceptional financial luck . . . if you have the fortitude to veto the phony plans, and find the good one among all the bad ones that float around you. Be careful what you do with the money you get—you tend to let it slip through your fingers pretty fast.

35 Read paragraph 30, which applies to you at this time. Your naturally sober and steady nature accepts restrictions readily, and knows how to make the most of hard work; therefore, you should be able to make good progress along routine lines this month, even though you may feel you are working pretty hard for it.

35A Very mixed influences here, similar to those described in Par. 31 (which you should read) but needful of greater vigilance. Your inventive and humanitarian impulses are stirred, and you are able through some original method to get your ideas across. Be careful that you are not yielding to wild dreams and fantasies, which can waste a lot of time. Study how to be idealistic and practical at the same time—how to make your ideas work in the world as it is—and seek support from important people, who will favor your ideas and you at this time.

36 Jupiter has returned to your Jupiter's natal place in Pisces. Here he makes you always generous, expansive, fond of the nice things of life, and capable of spending money more freely than you ought to to get them. This tendency is accentuated now by the opposition of Neptune to Jupiter, and (till Mar. 20) by the square of Mars to both. You'll have to keep an especially careful watch over financial matters, for money will run through your fingers if you aren't careful. Guard against loss both through extravagance, deception, and theft. Read Par. 29, which applies to you, and make it your business to hang on to enough of the money you handle to insure your security.

MARS

Find paragraph for your birth in Table V, Page 52

37 Saturn transits conjunct your Mars. Your courage seems to be waning and you are nervous and indecisive. You can make some pretty big mistakes at this time through the misdirection of energy and you ought not to make any changes or decisions that you can avoid. You must stick to things as they are no matter how much you feel held down and cramped, because your tendency to move too quickly is a product not of real courage but merely of nervousness. Your health will suffer if you rebel against duties and against what you have to do. You should make your motto now stick to it at all costs.

38 Uranus transits conjunct your Mars. Look out for explosions of temperament, quarrels and undue assertion of your ego, for if you let these things run away with you, you destroy the creative genius which this aspect ought to give you. Take it easy here; make cooperativeness your watchword; and use up your energies in work, rather than in quarrels, anger, strife. Prevent loss by refusing to take risks; and avoid emotional disappointment by being tolerant and understanding with those you love.

39 Mars opposes his own place in your chart, indicating a time when you must start no new ventures, and must stick to the status quo for all you're worth. The temptation to dive into the middle of some unsound venture is very strong, and must be vetoed. Stick to what you have till at least Mar. 20, by which time you will see the wisdom of conservatism, and be able to take advantage of some opportunity that arises later.

40 The restraint that has been forced on you because of the transit of Saturn in square to your Mars may prove a benefit here, as Jupiter trines your Mars, and brings you some opportunity for material gain. Accept this without expecting too much of it; take it for what it is worth, develop it, but don't give up old contacts for new ones here. You will have to stick to things as they are pretty much till after the end of September; and you should use the chance that comes to you here to better your present position, rather than to create a new and less stable one.

41 Erratic impulses may seem plausible here, but you will do well to think twice before plunging into any new venture. Make sure that whatever is started now can be completed, or in sound shape, before the end of June, because anything that requires a long pull will run into obstacles before the summer is over. Your energies are good, and if you devote them to regular work, you will get better results than if you are looking for some important change which is not favored at this time.

42 Your Mars in Virgo is under the transit of Uranus, the opposition of Jupiter, and (until Mar. 20) the square of Mars. Matters begun last September and October should be consolidated and made firm, and you should not let go of them no matter how alluring something else may be. What was started then is being tested here, as also your patience and stick-to-it-iveness is being tested; and you have nothing to gain, and much to lose, by changing your mind under these deceptive influences.

43 Saturn transits opposite your Mars. This is like 37, which you should read, only more so. You are ready to break and run at the drop of a hat and you are likely to run in a very unsatisfactory direction. Keep your mind working twenty-four hours a day and don't let nervousness, impatience or discontent upset the even course of your life. You stand in a position to gain more by staying where you are than by going any place else however glamorous it may be.

44 Uranus opposes your Mars in Scorpio. Your impulses, however, are very likely to be based in love, romance, and/or sensationalism. Be cautious in making new contacts; seek the ideal in human relations, and don't waste your energy flitting from one to another in search of something that doesn't exist. Uranus contacting Mars this way can bring you the most ideal and beautiful love of your life—if you have the character to see it, and to put mere eccentricity, unconventionality, and temperament behind you. Avoid anger, and strife; don't take unnecessary chances in anything.

45 Start new ventures very cautiously, for though some of the influences favor new ideas, others make them dangerous. Your cycle is ripe for a new start, and you will have to be very careful what start you select to make at this time. Whatever you do will be slow developing, and you should distrust anything that seems too spectacularly good. Be content, even eager, to go into something slow and sure, and keep a careful eye on all matters to make sure you are not wasting your energies and your time in something that is merely a flash in the pan. Watch emotional reactions, and your handling of money—a tendency to excess in all lines must be fought down. Be conventional, and select friends carefully; strangers are likely to be alluring but unreliable. Stick to those who are tried and true!

46 Read 40, which applies to you. Your devotion to duty will stand you in good stead here, in the face of restrictions; by curbing personal resentments and feelings, you win the support of bosses. Avoid especially temperament, by which you lose the good opinion of people who are important to you.

46A Slow down the pace of events, for despite the stimuli you are working under, this year's new starts must be made slowly. Look ahead, and try to decide where you are going to be toward the end of June. Be cautious about radical new ideas of any kind, and make security your goal. You should attempt no new ventures till after the end of September, when you will be better favored by vibrations than in the early and middle months of the year.

47 Plenty of luck for you, and you feel it . . . only be careful that over-enthusiasm doesn't turn good luck into bad. Jupiter transits your Mars, and the transiting Mars squares both of them, making opportunity and a tendency to let it slip away. But if you are restrained, careful, and cautious, you will be able to make a good deal of this month, and lay the ground-work for some great success that will not culminate till the end of the year. Be prepared for delays and obstacles, and gear all your plans and enthusiasms to a slower pace in the next months than the one you are experiencing now, till Mar. 20. Till then, use extreme tact and care with everything.

VENUS

48 Saturn on your Venus sobers you with respect to your emotions, at the same time that it makes you powerfully magnetic. You attract others, and are strongly attracted by others, under this influence, which is having the effect of maturing you emotionally. This month, however, the vibrations are such as to undermine the balance and good sense of your attitude toward love, and lead to some very unpleasant results. Be careful whom you trust. Other people, with the best intentions in the world, may apparently deceive you, for you are very likely to misunderstand them, and be misunderstood by them. Guard your passions—of both love and anger—carefully, and make sure that neither one gets you into trouble or unhappiness. Be careful with money; don't spend too much for pleasure, finery, or social activities

49 Uranus transits the place of your Venus. This can produce one of two effects. It can make you restless, uneasy about emotions, endlessly seeking and never finding the Ideal, which you probably haven't even defined. Or it can give you the happiest and most blissful sort of love, or friendship, in which all the most realistic ideals of human relationships are realized. This is a favored time of life for you, especially if you are able to rise to the unselfish and devoted ideal of Uranian love. Avoid the bizarre, the sensational; seek love in one place, and you will find it. In business and financial matters, this is also a good influence, giving you unusual sources of income, increasing your property, and enabling you to get the most money out of the work you do, which ought to be making you happy at the same time as it makes for progress. Avoid eccentricity of all sorts; live on a high plane of love, unselfishness, and service; and you will be able to use your magnetism to build for success and happiness.

IMPORTANT NOTE: These readings of the Year-Period Guide give you the influences in your Horoscope till March 20th. Read them carefully, and save this issue for future reference. THE YEAR PERIOD GUIDE will appear again in the April issue of HOROSCOPE, to carry you forward with influences at work after March 20. In the meantime, watch for the March HOROSCOPE, with an important new feature enabling you to discover more about your Horoscope, and make the planets work for you.

50 Distrust emotions, love-reactions, and pretty much everything connected with social life. You can have fun here, if you don't take yourself, and others, too seriously. But some of your companions aren't too sincere, and you can be hurt (or hurt others) if you aren't careful. Be conventional, discreet; avoid following impulses; and don't depend too much on promises. You'll probably save yourself a lot of trouble later if you don't make any promises, either. Watch expenses—you tend to spend too much for a good time, and for finery and adornment. Young people are expensive, too; you'll have to be hardboiled about money matters if you don't want to be broke before Mar. 20.

51 Don't expect much of love here; the excitement of the last month may have left you expecting a good deal in the way of social life, and you'll be disappointed if you look forward to too much. This is a good month in which to rest up, socially, and look into your own heart to discover what you really want out of life. Be detached, aloof, objective in your approach, to avoid hurt; find your contentment at home, among relatives and friends; and don't look for flattery or too much sympathy. This is your time to give sympathy, not receive it. Budget money, and stick to the budget.

52 Stick to your highest ideals of love, as your Venus in Leo is squared by Uranus, trined by Mars and Saturn. Some very ideal and glamorous relationship can be established here, very much along the lines described in Par. 49, which you should read. Be conventional, and sincere, above all things. Don't mistake infatuation for love. On the other hand, love itself—the real thing!—can be pretty glamorous here. Try to make it permanent, and to weave it into your life for good. An excellent vibration under which to get engaged.

53 Read Par. 50, which applies to you. You are pretty sentimental, and capable of mistaking a false lure for the real thing in love. This is especially true when Neptune on your Venus fills you with an exaggerated ideal of love which those you meet are not likely to understand or live up to. Keep your ideals high, but not so high that no one can reach them with you. Be conventional and discreet, and refuse to make any final promises till this period ends Mar. 20. Also look out for excess in money matters, and be sure you aren't touchy and hard to deal with in your regular routine duties.

54 Read 48, which applies to you in the main. You are naturally very romantic, very simple and direct in your love nature. Better be careful that you aren't too trusting here: your own emotions play you false, and some of the people around you are not worth all the devotion you incline to give them. Protect yourself from yourself by checking impulses; your popularity can help you have a good time, if you don't let it go to your head and make trouble. Conserve finances.

55 Your love-nature is usually pretty much controlled; you know how to dominate those you love, and make them like it! Be sure that eccentricity here doesn't lead you suddenly into some path that you won't like at all. Be conventional and disciplined in love matters; and avoid the unconventional, the strange, and the bizarre.

50A Your romantic nature is emphasized here, as Mars transiting your Venus (till Mar. 20) gives you terrific magnetism. Be careful how you use this—it can hurt others, or yourself, if you aren't mature and careful in your attitude toward love. Your high ideals are stimulated here, and will serve you well, if you don't allow some untrustworthy individuals to get your confidence. Stick to the beaten track—the straight and narrow—and keep your love—aims high despite all temptations to slip. A swift romance here can culminate in an engagement and marriage, if you keep your feet on the ground, and your mind working even in the presence of intense emotionalism.

56 Read 51, which applies to you at this time. You can be a rock of emotional stability in the world around you, this month; your sound commonsense is needed by many people. Forget your own feelings, and give your sympathy and understanding to others whose emotional problems are much greater than yours at this time.

56A Read Par. 52, which applies to you at this time. Your attitude toward love is always high-minded and idealistic, and under the vibrations at work this month, you should be able to put your ideals into practice with very happy results.

57 Read Pars. 50 and 53, which apply to you now. Your Venus in Pisces makes you tender-hearted, likely to be imposed on, and in addition to the advice given in the above paragraphs, you must be additionally alert to pick your friends carefully, and to be sure that you aren't pinning your affection and your faith on unworthy individuals.

YOUR FEBRUARY HOROSCOPE

If you were born March 21—April 20

ARIES

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the influences at work on the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table III (Saturn), Table IV (Jupiter) and Table V (Mars), to discover how this month's Solar energy can best be used; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

This is a month of extremely mixed influences, in which your own inner poise and self-confidence will be tested, by the necessity of dealing with fears and apprehensions, and perhaps also with actual deception and treachery. You must keep your mind clear, and rely on reason alone, for there is danger that you will fall into destructive habits of self-pity, and think that the world and those in it are against you (Feb. 1-15). A deep wish is blocked, or is subject to some intensive argument or strife; and you need to maintain a balanced and rational outlook in the face of this. Be careful of how you seek publicity, for this is not a time for "telling the world" but rather for secrecy and silence. Blow off in private, to trusted friends; and reserve publicizing your feelings for later. A good chance to put yourself across comes Feb. 16-23, and you should make the most of this for promoting anything that is dear to your heart. Concentrate on, and aim for, this week, which is far and away the best one of the month. Both before and after it (Feb. 1-15 and Feb. 24-28) watch out for upsets in business and employment matters; protect your health against excess, and your ideals against sensational influences that can cause you to see the dark and seamy side of things even under the best of circumstances. Excess in work causes confusion and contributes to a sour attitude that can block your success. Write, do creative mental work, but don't seek to sell or publish it till later. Your prestige is upheld by younger people, if you permit yourself to be relaxed and do not try to force the normal course of events too fast. Keep your own counsel, and expect little this month, except permanent foundations.

1. Formulate plans, begin new ventures. Adjust domestic matters. Eve: rest.
2. Go ahead, developing yesterday's line. Private work-contacts beneficial.
3. Emotional control gives you power, magnetism, to get what you want.
4. Messages are important. Follow a distant lead, advertise, write, create.
5. Rest and relax. Physical excess wears you out. Avoid extravagance.
6. Promote yourself along routine lines. Servants, subordinates help you.
7. Curb your enthusiasms, cooperate with everyone. Seek publicity. Travel.
8. Avoid strife; curb the extravagant tendencies of an associate.
9. Secrecy promotes a good business deal. Important people help; seek them out.
10. Avoid financial decisions. Sign no papers. Eve socially pleasant. Have fun!
11. Business hours indecisive. Stick to routine. Eve: social glamor builds your prestige.
12. A trip, or distant matter, is good. Promote ideals and high aims. Eve: rest up.
13. Early-hour confusion demands restraint. Later: create, write, advertise.
14. Contact bosses; your position is boosted through the favor of superiors.
15. Seek advancement, blow your own horn with dignity and restraint. Work hard.
16. Seek friendly contacts, cement ties with those you love, who love you.
17. Curb emotional reactions which interfere with business judgment. Save.
18. A good idea started here has solid value. Lay out a program of secrecy.
19. Seek within yourself for the answer to your problems. Be restrained, relaxed.
20. Strife and confusion at work is avoided if you systematize your routine today.
21. Lie low and take it easy in all things. Eve: restrain your ego, compromise.
22. Push yourself with tact. Your ideas are sound: put them across soundly.
23. Let things take their course. Get in step with others, who favor you.
24. A financial agreement is good if kept quiet. Don't tell all you know.
25. Superiors help you. Seek a raise, advancement, a beneficial change.
26. Relatives muddle you, perhaps irritating and inducing to strife. Avoid it.
27. Hold your tongue; be silent, discreet, noncommittal. Sign nothing.
28. Examine the base of operations on which your life rests. Seek home adjustments.

YOUR FEBRUARY HOROSCOPE If you were born April 21—May 21

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the influences at work on the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table II (Uranus), Table I (Neptune) and Table VI (Venus) to discover how this month's Solar energy can best be used; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

Finances are in the forefront of your mind as the month opens, and you discover that the extravagance and/or bad judgment of a partner has you on the spot. Friends will be sympathetic here, and helpful; but they can be too helpful if you let them lend you money, for the tendency to go more deeply into debt (Feb. 1-15) is very strong. Put this temptation behind you: "neither a borrower nor a lender be," if you can possibly avoid it. A private, secret, or unexpected force may come to your aid (Feb. 16-23), or, if no miracle looms, you will be able in this period to adjust your affairs by your own inner and private efforts, by being rational and conservative and by working things out along strictly practical and commonsense lines. Say NO to props and aids that only entail more obligations later, and seek your solution within yourself, and within the limits of your income and your normal life. Publicity favors you strongly (Feb. 6-28) and by avoiding worry and nerves (Feb. 16-20) you stand favored to gain through ideas, creative efforts, and distant and public matters. Sell the fruits of past effort here, especially if you are in any literary or artistic line of endeavor. The apparent confusion of your life is working on a strong, perhaps little-expected basis, that is going to push you forward toward some personal kind of success, quite quickly, and you must here keep your head, and be prepared for the acceptance of some new promotion. You may find this difficult to believe, but should keep your faith in yourself high even in the face of apparent discouragements. Love supports you here, bolstering your self-confidence, and giving you strength to stick to your ideas and ideals, which will eventually prove right and worth-while. Your high-mindedness pays in happiness.

1. Write letters, confer with important people on important matters.
2. Go ahead with yesterday's plans and ideas. Seek relatives who help you.
3. Domestic strife over money: avoid it. Cut expenses to the bone and forget it!
4. An idea or plan inaugurated here has excellent business results. Go ahead!
5. Social excess wears you out. Avoid strife and love-matters.
6. An ideal contact makes the world seem bright. Rely on love,
7. Hard work is repaid as it attracts the attention of superiors. Seek agreements.
8. Budget time, tasks, energy. Expect little recognition; stick to duty.
9. A cooperative agreement is excellent. Sign papers, promote your highest
10. High-tension of temperament needs to be curbed early. Later: social pleasure.
11. Watch money over the week end. Avoid extravagance, and strife over it.
12. Bad business ideas. You're touchy, and so are others. Take it easy; relax.
13. You're confused within yourself. Smooth out your ideas and temper.
14. Promote yourself strongly in public and private. Use magnetism.
15. Messages are important. A distant matter comes into the limelight.
16. Contact superiors, but don't seek final settlements. Lay foundations.
17. Temperament needs the check-rein. Avoid important discussions.
18. New Moon in your 10th House promotes your interests. Make plans.
19. You're elated, tend to go to social excess. Avoid it, and you avoid strife.
20. Mixed influences, but you can make them good if you keep your aims high.
21. Secrecy pays. Draw into yourself and analyze your desires and opportunities.
22. You need rest—take a day off; or else work quietly and without haste.
23. Routine promotes you. Don't try to force issues; be silent, detached.
24. Go ahead strongly. Use your charm and influence with courage and confidence.
25. Follow up yesterday's course. Love favors you. Ask what you want.
26. More money excitement. Hold everything—remember you must conserve!
27. Business strife. Avoid risks, gambles, and extravagances. Play safe.
28. Wind up a business matter on a conservative basis. Confer with relatives.

YOUR FEBRUARY HOROSCOPE

If you were born May 22—June 21

GEMINI

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the influences at work on the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table I (Neptune), Table IV (Jupiter) and Table V (Mars) to discover how this month's Solar energy can best be used; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

This is a touchy month for you. Jupiter has reached to your 10th House where he will oppose Neptune (Feb., Mar., Apr.) transiting in your 4th. The chief thing for you to watch out for is an inflated ego, or, to put it more bluntly, a swelled head. You have Big Ideas, and they seem to work; at least, you are able to convince yourself that they are going to work. The pace around you is swift, and your ambitions are soaring; whether they will come to anything or not depends on you, and the way you can handle yourself, your bosses, and those around you. Everyone is at sixes and sevens; but through all the mist and fog, there is an excellent opportunity for you to make some unusual gains, if you can keep your feet on the ground and prevent your affairs from getting into a muddle of over-expansion. Your credit is good—too good for your own good, for you seem able to borrow money, or charge things, about as you please. Take it easy here; what you borrow tends to slip through your fingers and leave you with debt and nothing to meet it; what you spend on credit goes the same way. Your vitality is likely to run away with you, too, and produce quarrels, enmities, and separations. You can find both emotional and material stability through following the high ideal of love set by someone around you, who provides a restraining influence and at the same time gives you wonderful inner support and self confidence. Allow yourself to be guided, and held back, by elders and sober-minded friends. Be careful of the promises of superiors, and the optimism of those around you at home; both of these tend to build false assurance that can collapse beneath you suddenly. Watch excess especially till the 15th, and lay plans between the 16th and the 23rd.

1. Seek material advancement, ask a raise; contact bosses and superiors.
2. Analyze advice received at home, refuse to indulge in an expansive plan.
3. Cooperate with friends, associates. Curb enthusiasm; and avoid haste.
4. Go ahead with confidence. Rely on love, follow advice of loved ones.
5. Extravagance at home undermines security. Entertain, stick to budget.
6. Analyze an inspiration. Work privately toward an idealistic end. Be secret.
7. Advance your deepest wishes tactfully. Sign papers. Eve: relax, rest up.
8. Promote yourself, but don't expect final results. Use magnetism.
9. Work is favored; you make progress through devotion to duty.
10. Protect health from nerves, excess in early hours. Later, enjoy life at home.
11. Subordinates help you. Cooperate. Later: avoid strife by relaxing.
12. Curb expenses. Seek intellectual companionship; take a trip. Write, create.
13. Take it easy. Budget time, tasks, energy. Afternoon best for contacts.
14. Sign a business paper secretly; keep your plans to yourself. Love happy.
15. Good business day. Sell, or borrow money for a sound, businesslike purpose.
16. Stick to routine early. Later, a trip or a visit to someone is relaxing.
17. Mixed influences, good and bad. Mental effort is well repaid. Force nothing.
18. Promote, or formulate, an idea. Keep your aims high; be idealistic, strong.
19. Watch your ego—it tends to over-expand. Be self-confident.
20. Superiors help in early hours if you approach them with modesty.
21. Build your castle of dreams on solid rock by making your plans realistic.
22. Restraining elders irk you, but are a good and much needed influence.
23. Talk things over with trusted friends, seek publicity and support for plans.
24. A private or secret contact works out well. Keep what you know to yourself.
25. Love and business seem favorably mixed. Follow a high-minded course.
26. Rising temperament and self-will can make trouble. Be self-effacing.
27. Quarrels, strife, separations attend any effort to push today. Be peaceful, aloof.
28. Wind up odds and ends early; clear the decks for financial matters.

YOUR FEBRUARY HOROSCOPE If you were born June 22—July 23

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the influences at work on the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table IV (Jupiter) Table V (Mars) and Table VI (Venus) to discover how this month's Solar energy can best be used; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

You'll have to get used to a rush of new ideas to the head this month, and learn how to handle them with your feet on the ground, for the impulses at work on your mental activity are powerful, and confusing, right through April. Here, especially, as Mars square Jupiter (till Feb. 15) your energy runs wild, and you can wear yourself out physically and emotionally through going to extremes in connection with work. Guard your health carefully, and protect your security by avoiding strife, or anything that might lead to nerve- and mental-tension. Quarrels on the job are bad, and destroy efficiency and contentment. Keep your ideals high, and insist that they are made workable in the practical world of affairs. Contacts are excellent (after Feb. 6) and those around you help in furthering your plans. Be extremely impersonal with superiors especially till after the 16th; following this date (Feb. 17-23, especially) you are able to promote your interests through appealing to important people and influential friends. Don't be afraid to seek and use "pull" which will stand you in good stead. Beware of elaborate promises (esp. Feb. 20-28) when ideas, though stimulating, are unreliable, and when snap-judgments and plans made in a hurry are bound to come to no good end. Protect yourself against this tendency by being skeptical and by holding fast to reality, in the presence of a good deal of muddled thinking. Over-optimism is rife around you, and you yourself are inclined to see the rosy side of everything, even if facts don't warrant it. Build your plans on a rock, and be sure that in all matters, business, emotional, romantic, you let the head rule the impulses, which are deceptive.

1. Start new ventures, especially along lines of publicity and self-promotion.
2. Continue yesterday's push. Ask favors, confer with friends. Do creative work.
3. Adjust finances; clear up business matters. Avoid extravagance induced by friends.
4. Work progresses well. Seek a raise. Contact important people, who help.
5. Mental tension—you need to rest and relax. Relatives can be costly.
6. Trust intuitions; go ahead with an idealistic idea. Write, travel, confer.
7. Be tactful with superiors and elders. Adjust domestic matters. Budget energy.
8. Seek financial advice privately from important associates. Lie low, rest.
9. Love is favored, also all social activities. Seek settlement of distant matters.
10. Lie low early. Later: use your magnetism where it does material good.
11. Pleasant day. Have a good time—take life easily, happily. Eve: rest.
12. Sleep late; then seek social contacts of an intellectual nature.
13. Early hours confused. Avoid arguments, cooperate willingly with everyone.
14. Seek contacts with important people.

- Enter a cooperative agreement.
15. Promote yourself diplomatically with your public. Love favored.
16. Finances to the fore—and they require a good deal of careful handling.
17. Keep temperament and friendship from injuring sound business judgment.
18. Settle a business matter; prepare for a new start along profitable lines.
19. Take a trip, being careful on the way. Travel, mental work, eases tension.
20. Confusion of aims and interests, especially among relatives. Take it easy.
21. Promote yourself with bosses. Late hours good if you take it easy.
22. You win a promotion through tact. Eve: look out for gossip. Be discreet.
23. Accept new responsibility; advance yourself through dignity, restraint.
24. Good advice from friends, or in a letter. Correspond, seek out people.
25. Use pull to get what you want. Ask favors and advancement of big shots.
26. Stay by yourself; analyze desires, emotions, aims. Avoid haste, nerves.
27. Look out for strife on the job. Take it easy—don't rush or argue.
28. Start a new venture, or a new line of an old one. Express yourself.

LEO

Social and emotional matters, which tend to influence business decisions, are of the utmost importance this month, and require a special watchfulness. Extravagance and excess along all lines is likely, and you can wind up with a loss, both of security and of inner contentment, if you permit impulses to run away with you. Especially till the 15th, your individualism tends to run wild. Romance is impelling, or at least some deep emotional stir causes you to act indiscreetly. At the same time, those around you are exercising very bad judgment about money, and though income seems excellent, the outgo seems even greater. Risks and gambles are very dangerous, and are almost certain to end in catastrophe. This is the beginning of a vibration that lasts till May, and colors your whole financial outlook with rosy, and unreliable, hues. If you come through this month in sound shape it will be through the exercise of great restraint and will power, and you can congratulate yourself; you will have laid the foundations of security, if not of spectacular gain. On the other hand, loss here is hard to recover, and for this reason you should play as safe as possible. The best business period is from the 16th to the 23rd, when promotional plans should be decided, and all manner of business and personal matters adjusted. Watch your emotions especially all this month, and in the latter part (Feb. 24-28) be sure that the advice of some important person around you does not lead to some very ill-advised financial activity. Keep a sure grip on reality, and don't permit yourself to be swayed by the elaborate dreams that float around you, which are sure to be "brilliant but unsound." Stick to what can be proved.

1. A private business contact is excellent. Keep your own counsel; be discreet.
2. Analyze your aims, and your prospects. Refuse to plunge into anything.
3. Your magnetism is high; use it constructively. Avoid social, financial excess.
4. Love favors you. Ask favors, seek agreements, in personal, business life.
5. Financial excess over social, love matters. Curb expenses; say NO firmly.
6. A money-scheme may be good, if you have the resistance to keep it so. Play safe.
7. Take advice from elders. A restraining letter or message should be heeded.
8. Write, confer, do creative work. Social contacts with relatives are beneficial.
9. Adjust domestic matters; create budgets, but keep them moderate.
10. Early hours touchy. Later: promote business interests, contacts.
11. Social excitement; love is glamorous. Be discreet in your good times.
12. Curb enthusiasms; get enough rest, which you need. Avoid extravagance.
13. Take it easy in business matters early. Later, seek no important decisions.
14. Work is favored. Seek contacts with subordinates, bosses, who help.
15. Ask favors, seek advancement or a raise in your regular routine work.
16. Low vitality—be restrained, tactful, and avoid strife. Eve should be restful.
17. Energies run wild; can make trouble if you aren't guarding temper carefully.
18. Get off to a new start through some cooperative agreement. Seek advice.
19. Line up your business aims and interests; analyze practical affairs.
20. Avoid extravagance, risks, gambles. Say no to any new proposal; it's phony.
21. Late hours bring a sudden new proposal that merits careful consideration.
22. Plan ahead carefully. Seek publicity. Follow a distant matter, or travel.
23. Your prestige increases through some distant matter. A letter is important.
24. Contact bosses; don't be afraid to seek what you want, but be tactful.
25. Excellent day for all matters. Go ahead strongly with any sensible idea.
26. Relax effort. Say NO to friends whose wishes can be costly to you. Be cagey.
27. Quarrels and strife among those you love. Avoid misunderstanding by being silent.
28. Keep plans to yourself. Practice secrecy, and develop ideas cautiously.

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table IV (Jupiter), Table V (Mars), and Table I (Neptune) to discover how you can best utilize this month's Solar energy; and follow Your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

Jupiter in Pisces now opposes your Sun-sign and the planet Neptune therein, until after the end of April, setting up a condition over the months Feb., Mar., and April that will require some careful handling. Primarily, the influence of Jupiter in your Solar Seventh is favorable bringing you new contacts, renewing your popularity, and enabling you to meet the world with confidence and success. He tends to make you exert yourself too strongly, and to waste your energies in profitless ventures. The simple matter of having a good time will absorb you a good deal, and you surely can use the relaxation, for you have been more than necessarily serious-minded for a long time. The opposition of Neptune and Jupiter, however, involving your Sun, causes you to waste opportunity and to be careless of that security on which all life must eventually rest; and this month, as Mars in your solar fourth house squares Neptune and Jupiter, you must discipline yourself very carefully. All sorts of temperament and excess will seem plausible and even necessary to you; you will be able to make excuses to yourself for the most ill-advised of actions; and you will be able, in your thinking, to blame all your faults, defects, and foolishnesses on others. You will, therefore, have to exercise more than the ordinary amount of self-control, in everything you do, and be sure that you are not undermining your career with self-indulgences. Recklessness and carelessness with money are your prime bugaboos, and if you are ever going to stick to a budget, this is the time to begin. There is one good week in the month (Feb. 16-23) when all sorts of plans should be made, and stuck to thereafter. Aside from this one week, don't relax your vigilance at all, for loss, quarrels, breaks, and separations will attend your following of hunches and personal whims. Make reason rule you, and fight emotionalism.

1. Promote a wish, an ambition, through contact with a friend or associate.
2. Use your magnetism where it counts. Social contacts advance business.
3. Be secretive; restrain a tendency to strife at home. Accept partner's ideas.
4. A pleasant day. Entertain at home; cement ties of love and friendship.
5. Curb enthusiasms, temperament, tendency to excess. Remain aloof.
6. Promote yourself strongly, and with a dignified restraint. Use tact.
7. Avoid spending; adjust finances to a low level of outlay. Make a budget.
8. Routine business goes well. Sell, but don't buy. Avoid a risky venture.
9. Sell an idea, either by letter or personal contact. Advice is good.
10. Avoid strife, commitments, early. Later: Seek advice, confer, promote.
11. Wind up odds and ends; plan a quiet week end. Fortify against strife.
12. Home is turbulent. Keep the surface calm by moderation and restraint.
13. Unsound ideas need veto-ing. Later: analyze your basic needs and methods.
14. Love smiles: this is an excellent vibration for you to promote your wishes.
15. Follow up yesterday's course of self-promotion. Love, society favored.
16. Wind up something important. Later: take it easy, relax and rest.
17. Plenty of energy. Use it wisely. Avoid strife with subordinates, over work.
18. Begin a new job, or a new task on your old job. Protect health from nerves.
19. Take it easy; deal with others calmly, and keep your own center of balance.
20. Confusion and strife can dominate you if you try to hurry. Be relaxed.
21. Be cooperative, and willing to compromise. Adjust finances, business deals.
22. Let someone else handle your money. Avoid all risks and extravagance.
23. Promote a business deal strongly. Go ahead with long-range plans.
24. Excellent publicity. Seek news from afar, write, correspond, advertise.
25. Promote yourself and your public interests strongly. Love favored.
26. Avoid giving evidence of a swelled head. Promote and seek peace.
27. Lie low; avoid bosses. Everyone around you is touchy. Rule calmly.
28. Seek advancement and promotion through friends, superiors, associates.

LIBRA

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table III (Saturn) and Table VI (Venus) to discover how you can best utilize this month's Solar energy; and follow Your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

The pace of your life is picking up now, and you are being swept along by a tide that carries you out of obscurity and into more prominence, whatever walk of life you may be in. This is likely to produce a temporary confusion in your life, especially where work and employment are concerned, and you will need a good deal of restraint. Learn to budget your energy and your tasks, and to handle what is required calmly and without haste or excitement. Otherwise, your health will suffer, and your efficiency will be undermined. You are face to face with some big chance, which will develop from now till May, and which requires a good deal of maturity and sober judgment on your part. Especially this month, your ideas are numerous, your mind is exceptionally active, and you must distinguish between the good ideas and the bad, the sound and the unsound. There will be plenty of the latter. Relatives are stimulating and many of the notions they induce are not worth bothering with. Your responsibilities are heavy, and are likely to become more so in the next six months; don't let them get you down! Be philosophic, cooperative, and above all avoid self-pity. You are working out some inner problem, and will emerge from the present restraint into a bigger and brighter world, becoming yourself a more substantial and worthwhile person because of the present problems which may seem pretty burdensome right now. The week of Feb. 16-23 is excellent for formulating all plans, and for reaching some sound working agreement either with some difficult associate, or with circumstances themselves. You hold the key to your success, now, and will find it through calm, poise, restraint, and forgetfulness of self. Unselfishness and service to others helps your happiness and progress.

1. See bosses, ask for a raise or new authority. Cooperate, be calm.
2. Make your position secure through presenting a new business idea secretly.
3. Look out for exuberant friends. Curb optimism and enthusiasm. Cooperate.
4. Social contacts are excellent. Seek relatives, friends. Confer, write.
5. Take it easy! You injure your health through excess. Use care with diet.
6. A private meeting is advantageous. Be skeptical of an ambitious plan.
7. Use magnetism with restraint. Your popularity helps if you use it wisely.
8. Follow through on some personal matter. Domestic advice is excellent. Take it!
9. Finances to the fore. Use care in expenditures, especially in the evening.
10. Avoid risks early. Later, promote a money-making scheme privately.
11. Relatives have extravagant tendencies. Curb all mental, emotional impulse.
12. Mental fatigue follows excess. Do something kind for others, esp. elders.
13. Conflict of aims, misunderstandings, in early hours. Avoid commitments.
14. Start a new venture, lay sound plans.
15. Love smiles, romance is favored.
16. Go ahead with everything, with courage and confidence. Eve: Have fun!
17. Watch your emotions carefully. Your magnetism mounts. Entertain.
18. Quick speech makes trouble. Go slow! Stick to all social conventions.
19. Consolidate your aims; prepare to start a new venture that's very important to you.
20. You need rest; be sure you get it. Stay by yourself, be detached and discreet.
21. Protect health from over-work. A stabilizing influence at home helps you.
22. Low vitality requires that you take it easy. Cooperate with subordinates.
23. Stubborn people around you can't be hurried. Be tactful, and compromise.
24. A contact is good if you conduct yourself without temperament. Relax!
25. Promote a financial matter; curb the extravagance of an associate.
26. Sign a business deal involving others. Sell, but don't buy. Seek a raise.
27. Take a trip—it eases mental tension. Relatives are keyed up—avoid them.
28. Your quickness makes for strife. Be silent, and avoid trouble.
29. Superiors help you late in the day. Have a conference with the boss.

Consult especially Table II (Uranus), Table IV (Jupiter), and Table V (Mars) to discover how you can best utilize this month's solar energy; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

Financial matters will occupy your attention this month, as the pace of business and social activity quickens, and you are caught up in a whirlwind that can undermine your security if you are not extremely careful. You are progressing rapidly, now, in work and employment matters, and will emerge into some greater success toward the middle of this year. You must handle opportunity carefully this month, for a tendency to be swept off your feet by the over-optimistic advices of friends is very distracting. You are popular, able to win people to yourself and your cause because of personal magnetism of a high order; and you should pick and choose carefully the type of people you select. Some of those you will meet are not only unworthy, but can be distinctly bad influences. In connection with money some risky plan (Feb. 1-15) makes a dangerously strong appeal to you, and someone you love favors a very unsound venture which you must veto. Prevent extravagance from undermining your security; don't spend too much on good times, and look out for gold-diggers and sellers of phony stocks. Adjust all financial and employment matters permanently (Feb. 16-23) and thereafter crawl into your shell, and bend all your efforts to the maintenance of the status quo. Say a firm NO to all novelties, innovations, and changes (Feb. 23-28) and look out that your good-fellowship does not cause you to act unwisely in practical matters. You'll save yourself both heartache and financial loss by pursuing a program of safety and moderation in your business and personal life. Confusion of aims and interests among friends, loved ones, and partners requires the maximum of reserve and self-restraint on your part.

1. Seek publicity; advertise, write, correspond, travel. A message is excellent.
2. A distant matter can be promoted to good advantage. Seek the lime-light!
3. Confer with superiors, seek a raise. Be careful with money; learn to save!
4. Finances should be adjusted here. Watch out lest your desires exceed your means.
5. Friends are expensive. Have a good time, but keep cost down.
6. Promote your highest ideals; seek advancement for a deep-seated aim.
7. Be cagey and aloof. Cooperate with subordinates; avoid the spot-light.
8. Work out a plan secretly; don't tell what you know here.
9. Go ahead with all things strongly. Your magnetism and popularity work for you.
10. Tact avoids strife in early hours, enabling you to put across something.
11. Watch money! You're heading for an expensive week end. Readjust plans!
12. Financial and social excess wear you out. Seek safety, be discreet, peaceful.
13. Morning muddled. Later, promote business matters, but expect little.
14. Sign papers, reach agreements. Confer with important people, relatives.
15. You wind up some old matter through friendly agreement. Clear the decks!
16. Solve a domestic problem through putting your cards on the table at home.
17. Extravagance in your private life—check it good-naturedly. Seek peace.
18. Get off to a new start on some venture that is slow-moving, but sure to go.
19. Curb impulse; stick to conventions. Avoid strife and indiscretion in love.
20. Believe little, say less. Be cagey, reserved, skeptical of friendly tips.
21. Routine work promotes your interests, if you don't rebel at the slow pace.
22. Accept restraint of elders who work with you. Devotion to duty wins.
23. Stick to your knitting. Don't let nerves cause inefficiency. Learn to relax.
24. Cooperate with everyone. An unusual idea of an associate merits your study.
25. All contacts good; seek friends, partners, relatives, superiors. Confer, write.
26. Hold everything! those around you prove costly. Curb social expenses, avert strife.
27. Quarrels over money lead to loss and separations. Sign nothing; avoid risk.
28. Promote a sound idea through publicity or a letter. Distant opportunity good.

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table I (Neptune), Table IV (Jupiter), and Table V (Mars) to discover how you can best utilize this month's solar energy; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

You're beginning three critical months Feb., Mar., April—during which Jupiter will oppose Neptune from your 4th to 10th Houses, putting your position and security to the test of practicality. The foundations of your life are being tested here. If you have built your worldly position on the rock of reality, it will stand with only minor changes; but if any part of your public or private life is built on any false premise whatsoever, you had better be prepared for some major change. Look carefully both at yourself, and at those who stand in a position of authority over you, to discover if there is anything in you or them, or your relations to each other, that needs adjustment. If there is, take the initiative this month (Feb. 16-23) and make a clear breast of everything. Concealment here is bound to prove a boomerang. In your private life, there is developing some extremely optimistic influence, either from your own way of thinking, or from some super-enthusiastic person near you, whose feet are not very firmly planted on the ground. Following anything abstract, metaphysical, too idealistic, will result in loss or disappointment; while emotional excess undermines your judgment. There is some likelihood of false promises, and you should take everything with a grain of salt, studying the probabilities of things rather than hearing only the pleasant words. This month, as Mars squares Jupiter (Feb. 1-15) and Neptune (Feb. 23-28) you are likely to be led far afield from good sense by your own impulses; and you must check these consistently if you are to avert trouble. Make silence and work your methods; and even in the best period (Feb. 16-23) speak softly and with infinite tact and honesty. Protect health, security, from impulse, intuition, and excess of all sorts.

1. Work goes well; seek help from associates. Avoid extravagance, spectacular schemes.
2. Sell, but don't buy. A superior has elaborate ideas that you should be skeptical of.
3. A message puts a new slant on things. Write letters, seek publicity, travel.
4. Promote yourself tactfully. Love smiles here—keep it idealistic, discreet.
5. Hold everything! Your temperament today rebounds on you yourself.
6. If you see bosses, believe little that you hear. Discretion pays; be aloof.
7. A friendly tip may become a boomerang. Be detached, impersonal.
8. Enjoy social contacts; have a good time with those you love. Be frivolous!
9. You have a sound idea, but must keep it to yourself till it's developed.
10. Early hours produce work-tension. Later, your self-effacement wins.
11. Relax the tension! You're going too fast. Slow the pace, save energy.
12. Emotional and mental control make this a day of pleasant contacts.
13. Curb speech early. Later, attend to routine matters; they advance you.
14. Excellent financial day. Seek a raise, or settle a business problem.
15. Pursue yesterday's advantages; get things signed up black on white.
16. Write business letters, clear up odds and ends; look for new opportunity.
17. Wild words fly around. Keep them peaceful; don't believe all you hear.
18. Relatives seem very much in the picture. Accept some new responsibility.
19. Home matters create tension. Keep your head clear; be unemotional.
20. Bosses confused; don't make, or believe much in, promises.
21. Control impulse and emotion. Practice detachment deliberately. Think clearly.
22. Social matters are a mixed blessing. You have fun if you're serious about it.
23. Use your magnetism to promote an idea that's dear to you.
24. Routine work gives you an opportunity to show your originality.
25. Seek a raise . . . but if you don't get it right away, it probably won't come.
26. Curb temper! You're in a scrappy mood, and need to relax.
27. Avoid breaks and strife with partners, bosses. Relax, be mum as an oyster!
28. Business progresses well. Late hours good to promote a cooperative idea.

YOUR FEBRUARY HOROSCOPE If you were born Dec. 23—Jan. 20

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table III (Saturn) and Table VI (Venus) to discover how you can best utilize this month's Solar energy; and follow Your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

You will have a good deal of popularity this month, and considerable personal magnetism to bring to bear on whatever business or personal desires you may have. At the same time, you are under some very tense vibrations, tending to make you unduly fearful and apprehensive, and to undermine your self-confidence. Relatives and in-laws influence you more than is good; and some very glowing plans and ideas can lead you far astray from the course of good sense. Your health will suffer through mental tension, if you do not learn to handle yourself with stern self-discipline. Elders and those around you in the home environment will prove your best balance wheel; and through the cheerful acceptance of responsibility, you will find the easiest course through your difficulties, real and imagined. Make a policy of secrecy and self-sufficiency, for you will do no good by discussing your plans; they are not sufficiently well formed at this time to amount to anything. Disregard your intuitions and hunches; and repress all negative and fearful thoughts, at the same time that you insist on a realistic approach to the problems of your life. Don't err either on the side of pessimism or optimism, but steer a careful course dictated strictly by the reality of the facts as you find them. Be especially watchful of tendencies to mental and physical excess Feb. 1-15, and Feb. 23-28, when deceptive influences surround you; and when the danger of self-deception and wish-thinking must be guarded against. The best week in the month (Feb. 16-23) should be used for formulating ideas and plans, for laying plans privately, and for adjusting personal matters and responsibilities with the help and cooperation of those close to you. Avoid all sudden changes, novelties, and innovations.

1. Numerous contacts, some excellent. Avoid fatigue that comes from crowds.
2. Seek advice afar, through phone, letter. Look for publicity; advertise; travel.
3. A private business tip is phony—don't trust risks. Avoid financial excess.
4. Love smiles, especially in secret. Build self-confidence through romance.
5. Guard temperament, protect health which suffers through anger and strife.
6. A brilliant idea is supported by an associate. Seek contacts, agreements.
7. Superiors are willing to help you; approach them tactfully, don't rush.
8. Accept responsibility gracefully; avoid arrogance. Be restrained, cautious.
9. Friends help you; use pull to get what you want. An idea has possibilities.
10. Curb enthusiasms early. Later go ahead with some high-minded plan.
11. Be aloof, reserved, especially as the day wears on. Eve: rest, relax.
12. Nervous fatigue follows excess of any kind. Rest up, stay by yourself, read.
13. Secrecy pays. Don't tell all you know, and distrust (most of) what you hear.
14. Go ahead with courage and confidence.
15. Seek what you want; ask favors.
16. Follow up yesterday's course. Use your popularity in business, society.
17. Wind up odds and ends of business; prepare for a new start of some kind.
18. Check enthusiasm for some phony financial scheme. Relax effort; lie low.
19. Consolidate money-matters with a sane budget. Buy and sell. New plan favored.
20. Hold your tongue and you'll avoid strife. Save mental, physical energy.
21. Believe little, say less. Promises are unreliable, new ideas unsound.
22. Write letters, do routine jobs. Eve: entertain at home; be considerate.
23. Elders give good advice; take it and save yourself worry and trouble.
24. Build a strong foundation here by planning some safe and sane venture.
25. Love smiles; promote your interests in anything where personality counts.
26. Follow up yesterday's advantages. Eve: have fun, but take it easy.
27. Tired, touchy? Sleep late, and be careful of temperament when you get up.
28. Work-troubles, the result of inner turmoil. Force no issues; avoid strife.
29. Excellent work-contacts. Seek cooperation to further an efficiency-plan.

AQUARIUS

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table II (Uranus), Table IV (Jupiter) and Table V (Mars) to discover how you can best utilize this month's solar energy; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

Increased income appears to be your lot this month, and for several months to come—which doesn't at all mean that you can forget about money. On the contrary, the way you handle the money you get will decide in large measure whether you are happy, or worried, at this time. You tend to spend too much, to follow the steer of muddled and enthusiastic associates and friends, and to sustain heavy losses through failure to take safety measures with your security. Friends are especially distracting (Feb. 1-15) and through their influence you can be led into pretty wasteful channels. There are some dynamic people around you, and a new-comer to your circle is especially glamorous, inducing you to some recklessness that you will have reason to regret. Older friends and relatives provide a much needed check on your enthusiasms, and you should seek and follow their sane advice (Feb. 16-23). In this period also make plans for the future, and stick to them later (Feb. 23-28) when co-operative business ventures incline to become risky, and when you need all the sanity and restraint that you can muster. Throughout this month (Feb. 6-Mar. 5) an excellent private influence supports you, giving you self-confidence and a sense of being loved and appreciated; and you will do well to follow the guidance you receive from this source which is quite near you. Avoidance of the limelight, and dependence on decisions made quietly, when you are alone and thoughtful, will enable you to extract the best from the swift pace around you. Keep friends and social matters in their proper places; they tend to absorb too much of your time and energy, and to color your thought impractically. You cannot make spectacular financial gains this month, and will lose heavily if you enter risky ventures. Therefore, avoid them.

1. A work-contact is good. Seek promotion and a raise; be conscientious.
2. Promote efficiency in routine matters; work quietly, and thus merit advancement.
3. Conserve energy; avoid physical and social excess. Restrain friends.
4. Excellent social contacts; promote love, romance, good fellowship.
5. Extravagance over society. Save your money here, and avoid risks and strife.
6. Go ahead with a good business plan which you should develop secretly.
7. Publicity favors you. Write, advertise, travel, correspond. Seek advice.
8. A distant matter develops favorably. A message clears the air for you.
9. Promote yourself strongly with bosses. Seek new responsibility, a raise.
10. Avoid domestic strife early. Later: a cooperative venture is good.
11. Restrain impulse, especially along social and romantic lines. Be discreet!
12. Exuberant friends make trouble. Hold temperament in check. Conserve.
13. You gain nothing by forcing issues. Lie low, be calm, patient; and wait.
14. Love smiles. You can get what you want through popularity.
15. Go ahead with private plans; ask favors privately of important people.
16. Promote yourself discreetly; curb enthusiasms, and use pull cautiously.
17. Avoid domestic strife by forcing no issues. Curb home expenses peacefully.
18. You get off to a new start here. Play safe; look first for security.
19. Temptation to splurge must be vetoed. Hold expenses to a minimum.
20. Follow yesterday's caution. Say NO to all new ideas; they're phony!
21. Be firm with muddled associates. Late hours good for conference, discussion.
22. Accept the restraint of older relatives. A message requires serious attention.
23. Follow through on an idea; write letters, seek advice. Eve: entertain.
24. Promote your deep aims; lay foundations for a plan that will grow slowly.
25. Your home is your best center. Seek advice privately from those you love.
26. Romance, glamour . . . and quarrels through excess of these. Take it easy! Relax!
27. Veto risky schemes. Be silent over personalities. Detachment, calm pay.
28. An employment matter is adjusted satisfactorily. Routine goes smoothly.

YOUR JANUARY HOROSCOPE If you were born Feb. 20—March 20

This Day-by-day Guide is calculated according to the position of the Sun in your Horoscope. Reference to the Year-Period Guide will give you the influences at work on your other planets at this time. Consult especially Table I (Neptune), Table IV (Jupiter), and Table V (Mars) to discover how you can best utilize this month's solar energy; and follow your February Horoscope according to what you find in all Six Tables of the Year-Period Guide.

You're likely to feel this month that everything is swirling around you, and that you are being swept of your feet . . . which you will be if you don't hold yourself down to earth by main strength and ignorance. Jupiter in your Sun sign is opposed by Neptune and squared by Mars, which, going through your tenth house will bring some important developments in your career, profession, or credit-position. Watch all these carefully, for over-extension either of credit or ego is likely to result in a set-back that you'll be a long time recovering from. Examine your material affairs especially—you're so optimistic that you are likely to take your security for granted, only to discover that some muddle-headed, or wilfully malicious, person has cut the props from under you. Be sure you get receipts for everything, and keep them. Watch partners carefully, for carelessness and needless risks can be costly to you and them as well; and don't be too optimistic over what you're told by those in authority. Remember that "eternal vigilance is the price" not only of liberty, but of security. Guard your health, too, from physical and emotional excess, and be especially careful of dietary matters; you tend to over-eat, over-drink, and over-exert your system generally in a way that can be injurious to your health. All this applies throughout the month, especially Feb. 1-15 and Feb. 24-28. In the intervening period (Feb. 16-23) you have an excellent opportunity to stabilize all your affairs, especially financial ones; to refinance loans; and in general to solidify your credit and position. If you have to approach superiors at all, do it in this period. But try to rely on your own judgment, and your own routine work; and put not thy faith in others or their promises!

1. Creative work, ideas are favored. Push for something that's dear to you.
2. Social matters excellent. Seek the company of others. Cooperate, have fun!
3. You're tired, and will be more so if you do everything you think you must.
4. A profitable contact with an important person enables you to promote yourself.
5. Low vitality, plus a quarrelsome tendency, requires restraint. Rest, relax.
6. Distrust inspirations, your own and others'. Be skeptical of promises, ideas.
7. Conserve finances; keep your eye on security, and close your eyes to temptations.
8. Sell, but don't buy. Keep business matters in the routine rut. Be secretive.
9. Publicity favors you. Do creative work; advertise, travel, write, confer.
10. Quarrels among relatives, or misunderstandings through letters.
11. A trip is excellent, releasing energy, and averting tension. Relax, enjoy life.
12. Avoid reaching decisions today—they are likely to work out badly for you.
13. Steer clear of associates and bosses. Be aloof, detached, impersonal to all.
14. Seek what you want, ask favors, and use your popularity where it counts.
15. Love smiles here; go ahead with social and romantic contacts; promote.
16. Don't tell all you know, especially in the later hours. Secrecy pays. Be mum.
17. Inner tension makes you nervous. Avoid worry by using energy for work.
18. You've reached a big inner decision. Lay plans for a new start that you like.
19. You're elated. O.K.—but don't let your enthusiasm wear you out.
20. Confide in no one. Those associated with you are muddled, hasty.
21. Seek a financial settlement along safe and sane lines. Refinance loans.
22. Accept the restraint of a conservative business man. Advice is sound; take it.
23. Attend to routine business matters. Be careful what you sign. Avoid haste.
24. Messages and letters are important. The counsel of relatives is good.
25. Do creative work; mature a secret plan. Love and romance favored.
26. Home is tense, and you tend to be jittery. Get rest, avoid strife.
27. Keep out of the path of bosses. Force no issues, and avoid the limelight.
28. Promote a new and original idea. Even social matters, love favored. Have fun!

Solar Lunar Polarities

Sun in Libra—Moon in Capricorn. You are firmly based in diplomacy and in the end get pretty much what you want. People mind less being managed by you than by others who may know as much but who have less tact. You have charm and depth, too, and though you are adept in social behavior you are a strong personality, an excellent manager and very determined. Your suave exterior covers complete determination to carry out your plans. Your family knows this and your friends either know or suspect it, but are not therefore driven to oppose you. Your one hindrance to complete selfish action is your underlying need for approval, and a certain sensitiveness which you have to the feelings and opinions of others which you take into consideration in molding your plans. You want for yourself, above all, respect, and even more than you want love. In fact your courtesy holds others somewhat away from expressions of affection. This is as you are at your best. At your worst you may be arrogant or condescending, and if arrogant it is likely to be because you admire force and success and believe you can yourself demonstrate it by high-handedness. And in this stand you do have the respect which others have toward dangerous antagonists, and this feeds your ego as much as a finer type of admiration. But we hope that you are the first rather than the second type.

Sun in Sagittarius—Moon in Scorpio. You have a side which you seldom show, intense in feeling, determined in its objective and thereby successful to a degree. For what you keep secret, and with determination, you project into your life in fait accompli. Yet you can stand forth and claim your right to your position, and you are smart enough to know that you can deliver the goods, and satisfy all obligations. Mentally you are far above the normal, and are sensitive to all sides of a question but able to synthesize these sides into working power. Or you are willing to let the other person be as he is and do not demand in even your warm friendships any definite type of person, and many of your friends are far from being beyond reproach. Your good sense of humor allows you to tolerate them though this does not mean that you fail to evaluate them. You are therefore really companionable and get a lot more fun out of life than those who take themselves and others too seriously. If you are sensitive and nervous and sometimes moody, your good sense and ability to objectify brings you out of these states and you are capable of bringing cosmos out of chaos of feeling, of disciplining yourself and of putting your nervous energy to work. You realize sometimes that you are in a romantic phase and then your common sense usually comes to your rescue. At times you make enemies who direct a powerful animosity toward you, but you come out on top your fair share of times. You have the assurance that you are right, and though you know very well that "the truth can never catch up with a lie," this belief in your own integrity makes you a strong defender of your title to honor and in the end your enemies may find that they have merely contributed to your success.

Sun in Capricorn—Moon in Capricorn. You are a really ambitious person, ready to go to any length in your will-to-power. You have an ideal of justice and duty which you somehow reconcile with severity and selfishness, and you are perfectly willing to render judgments and see that they are carried out. You get a big thrill from seeing the other fellow get what is coming to him. You think it weakness to be merciful. You are worldly and highly materialistic, and you despise waste so much that you are not generous either in a material way or even mentally toward the ideas and plans of others. This may all be the result of the power that people, or health-conditions wielded over you in childhood. Your career is so important to you that you can be very, very diplomatic in your determination to win others over to your schemes. You have no respect for

THINK of the fun YOU are missing! The popularity, friendships, good times! Why? Because you think it's hard to learn music. You have an idea that it's a slow, tedious task, with lots of boring drills and exercises.

That's not the twentieth-century way! Surely you've heard the news! How people all over the world have learned to play by a method so simple a child can understand it—so fascinating that it's like playing a game. Imagine! You learn without a teacher—in your spare time at home—at a cost of only a few cents a day! You learn by the famous print-and-picture method—every position, every move before your eyes in big, clear illustrations. You CAN'T go wrong! And best of all, you start playing real tunes almost at once, from the very first lesson.

No needless, old-fashioned "scales" and exercises. No confused, perplexing study. You learn to play by playing. It's thrilling, exciting, inspiring! No wonder hundreds of thousands of people have taken up music this easy way. No wonder enthusiastic letters like those reproduced here pour in from all over the world.

Sound interesting? Well, just name the instrument you'd like to play and we'll prove you CAN! No cost, no obligation—simply mail the coupon or write. U. S. SCHOOL OF MUSIC, 4442 Brunswick Bldg., New York City.

Note to Advanced Musicians

Our Course in Modern Elementary Harmony by Frank Campbell-Watson, M.A., N.A.O., will greatly enhance your understanding and appreciation of music and will prove invaluable if you are interested in composing and arranging.

Learned Quickly at Home. I didn't dream I could actually learn to play without a teacher. Now when I play for people they hardly believe that I learned to play so well in so short a time. *H. C. S., Calif.

*Actual pupils' names on request. Pictures by Professional models.

"Thar's Gold in Them Thar Hillbilly Songs." Craze for mountain music, "swing" and other popular forms has brought fame and fortune to many who started playing for the fun of it. Thousands have discovered unexpected pleasure and profit in music, thanks to unique method that makes it amazingly easy to learn. Young and old are getting a big kick out of making their own music.

SEND FOR FREE BOOKLET AND DEMONSTRATION LESSON

See for yourself how this wonderful self-instruction method works. Sit down, in the privacy of your own home, with the free demonstration lesson—read the interesting illustrated booklet, "How to Learn Music at Home". No salesman will call—decide for yourself whether you want to play this easy way. (Instruments supplied at discount when wanted, cash or credit.)

Wouldn't Take $1,000. "The lessons are so simple," writes *S. E. A., Kansas City, Mo., "that anyone can understand them. I have learned to play by note in a little more than a month. I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for my course."

Found Accordion Easy. "I've always wanted to play the piano accordion," writes *H. E. from Canada, "but thought I'd never learn it. Then I read about your lessons. I don't know how to express my satisfaction."

Plays on Radio. I am happy to tell you that for four weeks I have been on the air over our local radio station. So thanks to your institution for such a wonderful course. *W. H. S., Alabama.

Astro-Numerology Calendar

Feb. 1st—a 7-Day: Irritable, impulsive, critical, impatient, sharp and of poor judgment! All these things will be yours unless you watch the number of the day. Go cautiously, analyzing every step of the way. Do no buying or selling, sign no papers and write no letters unless you understand the subject of human polarity and know exactly what the "other fellow's" motives are. If do you, it is a good day to make a contract.

Feb. 2nd—an 8-Day: Be the big boss in your own office today but do not overestimate your importance at home or with loved ones. Use diplomacy in finances but feel no unreasonable limitation. You may have an important business decision to make in the afternoon and if you listen, you can get the right inspiration about it. Make some change that introduces a novelty.

Feb. 3rd—a 9-Day: Your logic and reasoning powers may be very poor in the first part of the morning; better not put them to the test. A quick change may eliminate a stumbling block through a friendly influence during the afternoon. Hear everything through before expressing your mind. Jump to no conclusions—especially when dealing with partners—when something unusual arises. Get your emotions out of your thinking.

Feb. 4th—a 1-Day: This is your day—but don't tell the world about it—and be especially self-effacing when dealing with associates who are on the upper levels. If you want a raise, wait for another 1-day. Content yourself with starting new matters, thinking up original ideas and taking some steps toward your personal progress. This is a good day for shopping—or more important buying.

Feb. 5th—a 2-Day: This is another day that tests the self-control and since it is not a business day, home and family will be the center. Sunday plus the kindly 2 will help if permitted. It will also help not to discuss finances, your neighbors or your most private affairs. Expect nothing in the way of consideration but give much. Better spend the afternoon by yourself.

Feb. 6th—a 3-Day: If you have any creative or artistic work to do, use the morning and be mindful of your own interests. After noon, the influence broadens and some attention should be given to others. A fine "broadcasting" force for speaking, radio or dealing with groups. Business will benefit through advertising—but not the cheap variety. Make your "copy" choice-looking and smart.

Feb. 7th—a 4-Day: 4 is ruled by Saturn—but that need not mean depression and self-pity. It should mean the exercise of more common sense than usual, dealing with old matters instead of new, strengthening and securing what we have and forgetting ambition. Today stresses service and duty. Everybody must respond to it or lose the reward of better security. WORK—especially at the details. Forget romance.

Feb. 8th—a 5-Day: If you didn't finish your job yesterday, the freedom of 5 won't work for you until you do. After noon, everything changes and you will find stimulation and impetus for new experiments. Skill will increase and constructive ideas for financial progress will come easily. If there are problems about family health or finances, you will be helped to a constructive solution.

Feb. 9th—a 6-Day: See that you finish whatever you undertake. The creative urge is with you—but you may be too apathetic to let it work for you. All matters of the heart are favored—love at home or romance outside. 6 also helps everything beautiful or artistic. Never mind what others do about shirking their responsibilities—be sure to carry your own willingly.

Feb. 10th—a 7-Day: 7 does not always mean obstacles but this time there are many to be overcome. Read Kipling's "IF" before starting the day. The riotous and revolutionary spirit is abroad, high temper and mental disturbance. You will not become a part of it or become the victim of tricks and deceit unless you put yourself in its midst. The power of 7 lies in the mind and the spirit.

Feb. 11th—an 8-Day: Tread softly when dealing with older people, loved ones or servants. Otherwise, feel free to make all necessary adjustments of matters under your personal control. A business matter can be handled effectively during the afternoon. A new idea or a new angle of work should be mapped out and organized. (Please turn to page 72)

Astro-Numerology Calendar

Feb. 12th—a 9-Day: Some nervous tension is in the air, so keep to yourself in the morning and avoid discussions. A fine day for visiting friends or doing favors—but watch over-spending. The evening belongs to family or intimates. You may be called upon to make a choice or an important decision. See that it meets your ideals; expediency would not work.

Feb. 13th—a 1-Day: Do your important thinking in the morning. The afternoon brings many interruptions. Some new contact can be made that will benefit you and your plans for the new cycle. Keep your feet on the ground and beware the gold-brick salesmen. Buy nothing you are not sure of. Keep your plans practical.

Feb. 14th—a 2-Day: Remember that this is the waiting period—not the time to continue new plans and promote personal ambitions. Haste will be very wasteful today, so keep your mind in good balance, make no hasty decisions and be careful of your signature. Your course of action should have been mapped out yesterday; work on its details today. Be cooperative.

Feb. 15th—a 3-Day: Many of today's aspects are highly promotive—especially in the afternoon. Get everything into perfect working order before noon—and then promote yourself with all the "3" qualities you can muster. There is fine stimulation here—especially along untried lines. The unusual—or even spectacular—will have a good reception. Keep your finances under good control.

Feb. 16th—a 4-Day: Work—but not with a set jaw. Let go of the tension. There is a tendency to look through rose-colored glasses—and it doesn't work well with 4. Stick to the humdrum type of work or interest and keep your temper. Many people are likely to lose their jobs today through too much ego and a rebellious spirit.

Feb. 17th—a 5-Day: There is a fine force abroad for pushing business, making contacts, taking short trips, advertising and promoting. Chase everything except rainbows—there are many of them around. Don't forget sharing and tithing! Your benefits will be doubled if you observe this law. Friends—especially the older ones—will be helpful.

Feb. 18th—a 6-Day: Stick to the conventional and "proper," but don't take yourself too seriously. Family problems are helped—especially if they involve money. Concentrate on home matters between noon and 6 P.M. Avoid being too ardent in romantic matters; 6 stands for harmony and good balance. See that some old domestic problem is cleared up.

Feb. 19th—a 7-Day: This should be a truly peaceful Sunday. Anyone who wants to tune in with clear thinking and high-mindedness, can do so. 7 never promotes personal romance, so keep away from it; it may come of its own accord in the evening but should not be coerced. Be careful of health; 7 has no concern with the physical body and only serves to lower the vibrations.

Feb. 20th—an 8-Day: Be sure that everything you do is well organized before being presented. Try to keep your personal life out of your work; one or the other will suffer if brought together. A property or real estate problem can be satisfactorily solved. Be cooperative in the morning; concentrate on your own interests in the afternoon. Later aspects favor generosity.

Feb. 21st—a 9-Day: Many decisions will be made today involving emotional matters. The tendency will be to act hastily. Think first. This is a bad time for radical changes—especially domestic. If you forget yourself and your fancied wrongs you will come to the right conclusions. Letters, papers, correspondence or contracts should be cleared out of the way.

Feb. 22nd—a 1-Day: A variety of obstacles may be put in the way of new beginnings and personal plans. You can be in good control of them during the morning—and then leave them behind you. The changes you were tempted to make yesterday can now be modified and acted upon. An important contact will be helpful in a new project.

Feb. 23rd—a 2-Day: Watch your temper in the morning and your nerves in the afternoon. There is much electricity in the air and patience (2), cooperation (2) and diplomacy (2) will not come easily. 2 is on the safe side, however; 11 is not. Postpone legal matters and financial discussions. Avoid exposure.

Astro-Numerology Calendar

Feb. 24th—a 3-Day: Not a good day for journeys. Take no part in the gossip and backbiting that is prevalent. Personal popularity can be promoted and all matters pertaining to art and beauty. Good for furthering business interests, personal progress and a better understanding with partners and associates. Avoid negativity. Keep pleasant but be positive.

Feb. 25th—a 4-Day: This is a very friendly 4. Any duty, usually disagreeable or burdensome, will be lightened in this love-aspect to the disciplinary Saturn. Your closest associates have first place. Promote the interests of home, family and loved ones. Excellent for serious romance, marriage or improvements in home conditions. Through service, increase your standing with partners, women and young people.

Feb. 26th—a 5-Day: Make some constructive or pleasing changes in home conditions—even if it is only re-arranging the furniture. Give your higher mind a chance and take in church, a lecture or a good concert. Give somebody a surprise by offering an extra ticket or a gift. There is a fine creative aspect in the morning that relates to writing or speaking.

Feb. 27th—a 6-Day: The morning brings some trying obstacles. Keep yourself in the background unless asked for help. Expect little for yourself—especially from superiors. Avoid discussions of finances, or any disputed points. Do not be surprised or rebellious if some additional responsibility is handed you; this is exactly what will bear fruit later on. Assume nothing and start nothing that cannot be completed.

Feb. 28th—a 7-Day: You are likely to get gratifying recognition for some past service—but don't ask for it. This is a good day for signing contracts, drawing up papers, attending to legal matters and improving any work previously done. Use caution and deliberation in your decisions and watch to see that there are no loopholes in any paper given you to sign. Be watchful of craft—or graft—when dealing with strangers.

President Roosevelt

Here we may have further depreciation (Saturn) of the dollar (Venus) to the limiting (Saturn) one half (Uranus)—50 cents—to meet the pound's (Saturn) easements (Venus) to at least $4.50 in the British attempt to salvage France and her franc; this probably before March 1939.

"In February and March 1939 his mid-heaven completes an opposition to Venus and square with Saturn—further hint the dollar may be devalued the limit. Popularity (Venus) probably at a very low ebb (Nadir), except possibly on peace issues. The issues of peace (Venus) by neutrality or isolation (Saturn), excessive partiality (Venus) to labor (Saturn), farmer (Saturn) contracts (Venus), old age (Saturn) pensions (Venus), will all be much to the fore early in the 76th congress.

"Through late 1938 and into the Spring of 1939 his converse Sun comes sesquiquadrate to Saturn—the Self (Sun) becomes converted to a somewhat more conservative (Saturn) policy. In this ray the Sun is west and takes a Pluto-Uranus tone, the Self (Sun) loses (Pluto) its reform, dictatorial and leadership (Uranus) role to considerable extent, but Saturn being east will take a Jupiter-Venus tone, bringing a decided improvement (Jupiter) to trade (Venus) as a result of national unity and a more conservative (Saturn) policy.

"In November 1940 his Secondary Saturn reaches an exact square of his natal Sun—a united conservative (Saturn) trend blocks this ego (Sun) through whom the radical leftists of 1936-38 sought to "make America over" by their lefthanded methods (Uranus rising in Virgo) which for a time they sold so successfully to Mr. Roosevelt.

"In 1941-42 Primary Saturn progresses conjunction Mars in the 10th, with Primary Venus square Mars at the same time. Here will be the war (Mars) test of our peace (Venus) by neutrality or isolation (Saturn); the more certainly so were Mr. Roosevelt then president (10th house). It symbolizes a united (Saturn) defense (Mars). Shall we fight (Mars) Hitler (Saturn) out of friendship (Venus) for the Jews (Saturn) or because of inroads (Saturn) on our territory (Mars)?"

President Roosevelt

urn) on our near(Saturn) trade(Venus), or fight(Mars) the little brown men of Japan for our dollar(Venus) trade with Old Cathay(Saturn); or just take the saber(Mars) slaps(Saturn) and like (Venus) them, as by the Neutrality Act we rather foolishly advertised to the world we intended to do? Between these choices let America answer for herself. But let her not mistake her hour of decision. It is irrevocably 1941-42."

"One more question, Doctor. Can you name the man who will be elected in 1940?"

"That," he smiles, "would be another story. Come back in a couple of months; I may have a guess for you then. Meanwhile you might ask the Swami to make another guess, or compete with Raphael by issuing a hieroglyphical stamp."

I thanked Dr. Herrick as a scribe should. At the door, I cracked, "You are sure Mr. Roosevelt will not bolt and run off with the country in 1940?"

"Don't bet on it, Eddie. Mr. Roosevelt's converse Venus and Sun will be about as close square his Uranus in 1940 as the transit of Uranus was square to Theodore's Sun and Mercury in 1912. Why should he help the Elephant win at a walk? If the Republicans are to do a decent job of government after that election they will need all the running exercise a united Democratic party can give them in the sprint to win."

Toward a Better Life

a proper respect as the means by which you can get everything else.

There is one final word to be said on this subject which you will have to accept on faith, for it is impossible to prove it. It is simply this: that if you do your job well, and focus your sparetime attention on things that cost nothing, and contribute to your self development, you will very shortly become the kind of a person to whom more and more money accrues. Centering your attention only on money narrows your outlook. If you can do this and drive yourself forever, you are a genius, and will become a millionaire. Most of us cannot do this; and to most of us, centering attention on money is simply a narrowing influence which causes us to become comparatively unimaginative and useless creatures.

But the development of outside interests does something to you as a person. It opens up the creative forces within you. It unlocks the door to unsuspected abilities, unsuspected breadths of physical and imaginative effort. Through the cultivation of the intangibles of life—human interest, learning, abstract interests for their own sake alone—you become a broader, a better, a more worthwhile person. And if during this self-development in your spare time, you have also kept your feet on the ground and done your regular, bread-winning job seriously and conscientiously, you will find that you are doing it better and better; and that the better person you are becoming is steadily meriting more and more material advancement. "He who seeketh his life shall lose it; but he who loseth his life shall find it."

Reduce, therefore, your quota of things you have to have that cost money. Reduce your notions of how much salary you need, how much of a raise you need. Apply the energy, the thought, that used to go into this, to finding in yourself and your world the satisfactions that cost nothing, the diversions that you can acquire with what you have; and find, through this, a new person within yourself, a better, more useful, person, whom the world needs, and will gladly pay well for.

Your Place in Life

diplomacy are the best avenues, outside of the arts.

Your Success Number is 9—which gives the direction in which you must go for achievement. Your planets are Saturn, the Sun and All.

9 and Aquarius: Jan. 27; Feb. 9, 18, (usually). This is the best of all numbers for your sign, for their purpose is at one. Born on the 9th you must watch yourself for diffusion and the likelihood of spreading yourself out too thin for depth. To you especially was the command given to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." The medium through which you will deliver your message matters little—although it is hardly likely to be business or finance. 9 is the great artist—in song or story, on the stage or screen, on canvas or in music. We find many actors on this day. George Ade expressed his talent through his pen and made it all the more potent through its humorous appeal. Dissemination and broadcasting are the methods of 9 and time, space and distance become annihilated. Publicity and printing are fine avenues for those whose early training has been on the commercial side—with due regard for the subject-matter. 9 is quick to perceive any lack of harmony and makes an excellent critic. If you choose law, you will be a better consultant than practitioner. You are a born lecturer, teacher and preacher.

February 18th is even better adapted to law and politics than first degree 9—but is no less a public servant in some capacity. You are also more likely to succeed in a literary career. Some famous business men of this date have found success and given varying degrees of service—Louis Tiffany, August Belmont, Charles M. Schwab; Paganini expressed his 9 in Aquarius through his violin, Galileo his discoveries, Adolphe Menjou, Jimmy Durante and Edward Arnold through the screen—each after his own pattern. You are more scientific and logical than the other 9's in Aquarius and therefore better able to prove the worth of your brand of truth. You are liable to win distinction and although you are capable of making money, you probably will never make the effort to do so—and if you did, you would immediately give it away to some under dog.

Your Success Number is 11—the brilliant and electrical aspect of Neptune that is not completely revealed. Your planets are Uranus, All (9) and Neptune.

January 27th is an author, journalist, writer, lecturer, teacher, lawyer or politician. There can be no lack of versatility in this sign and number combination when it can deliver such a variety of personalities as Samuel Gompers, Kaiser Wilhelm II, Jerome David Kern, Mozart, the philosopher Schelling and Franchot Tone. You have all the intellectual qualities necessary for a literary career, all the emotional force (plus intelligence) required for good acting, all the talent you need for music or sculpture and all the fervor and inspiration any religious leader could ask for. Born in Aquarius and blest with the number 9, there is no limit to your power for influencing and impressing the minds of those in your environment. Your Success Number is 10—1. Your planets are Uranus, All and the Sun.

Why I Believe in Astrology

as Saturn hits the 4th.

(12) when Von Hindenburg dies and Hitler is made President as well as Chancellor of the Reich. Jupiter in the Ascendant, Saturn in 4th, Sun in 10th (see 2), with the Moon in his own Taurus, and Uranus on his Sun. The die is cast and at

(13) with Mars static on his Ascendant, Hitler takes over the Saar. Note that Mars was static in his 4th at (6), retrograde at (11), static at (13). Near the next static position in 1937, Hitler took Austria. We look forward with interest to the static positions in 1939.

Thus even the Man of Destiny could not succeed when Saturn was on his Ascendant; he could make only foundational moves as Saturn went from 1st through 3rd; he was catapulted into power as Saturn hit his 4th, and Uranus hit his Sun; he heads for the ultimate fate of Saturn in 10th, and Saturn transiting his Sun which even the great Will that laid low the democracies will not be sufficient to avert.

Aquarius Year Ahead

fingers. A promotion is in order (Oct. 12-Nov. 7) but you should let this come in its own time and way, and not seek it aggressively. Following Nov. 4th, you may again promote your own interests strongly, and should do so till Nov. 19, by which time you should try to have your affairs in the soundest possible shape.

Following the middle of November, Mars moves steadily toward the conjunction of Jupiter, which aspect is completed Jan. 6, 1940, in a position to influence your 2nd (Financial) and 3rd (Judgment) Houses. This conjunction of Mars and Jupiter represents the culmination of an expanded point of view, and the bringing-down-to-reality of over-optimistic ventures and ideas. Therefore make sure that you approach this period with nothing that can be lost if your optimism is unjustified—and the way to insure this is to cut your optimism down to a minimum.

This applies especially to financial matters, in your case, for the movement of Mars through Pisces, your 2nd House (Nov. 20-Jan. 3) is expansive in the extreme. Under it, you will tend to think in large figures, and you can easily be influenced by friends and associates to indulge in wild-cat financial schemes of a get-rich-quick nature. Don't do it! Be guided by your conservative associates in private life (relatives, those around you at home, brothers, elders) and even if you think you're giving up a golden opportunity, allow yourself to be influenced by their sound and conservative judgment. Play safe! must be your motto. Avoid debt, risk over-expansion of all sorts, in order to end the year soundly and in position to go ahead. Advice received in private is best; take it and be thankful for it.

As the year ends, your popularity mounts (Dec. 26-Jan. 18, 1940) and you ought to be in an enviable position for the New Year, especially if you have heeded the handwriting on the wall, and played safe in financial and material matters. 1940 will see you off to the realization of the new start that you had a hint of during the Summer of '39, when Saturn enters Taurus (Mar. 20) for a long stay that gets you off to a long period of progress. Happy New Year for 1940!

SOLAR LUNAR POLARITIES

those who would try to succeed by love and generosity, and yield admiration only to others who know how to use force. You admire that man of whom you can say: "He is forceful." Yours will not be sweet reasonableness, but a hard-headed reasoning which is clear as crystal in so far as it contributes to your ends. And you do succeed so long as you practice your complete self-control, and you do practice it until you believe you have reached a point where you are invulnerable, and this is your Achilles' heel whereby you may be made to fall. You will have made plenty of enemies by that time who will be well-suited with your overthrow.

Sun in Aquarius—Moon in Scorpio. You are out for success and you know you can get it. You are very smart and you have magnetism and intensity so that often all you have to do to gain your ends with people is to throw on the switch of your personality. But you are one of those people who prefer to do important things yourself rather than to teach or hire someone else to do them, and after awhile you have engaged in too many operations and there is no one to carry on for you, and some of your plans burst, and some fall by the wayside, and you yourself flop until you have generated a new set of plans and works which you try to carry on without adequate support. You have a great sense of responsibility, but are too eager to stand in the limelight and are mostly too egotistical or selfish or jealous to let another share the responsibility and do a little shining too. You think that it is so much easier to do things yourself than to show others how with their faltering ways. You are a very smart and efficient person so long as you do the whole thing yourself, but your final failures to carry through because the burden becomes too great for one man should teach you to stop and work out a philosophy on new terms and do more sharing, become more depersonalized and thereby far more useful and successful. You can really be a great person, and a great force when you become more detached from personality and more devoted to the idea and the result.

This is but one of the many similar letters I am constantly receiving. Post yourself! It pays! I paid Mr. Manning, New York, $2,500.00 for a single silver dollar. Mrs. G. P. Adams, Ohio, received $740.00 for some old coins. I paid W. P. Wilharm, of Pennsylvania, $13,500.00 for his rare coins. I paid J. T. Neville, of North Dakota, $200.00 for a $10 bill he picked up in circulation. I paid $1,000.00 to Mr. J. E. Brownlee, of Ga., for one old coin. Mr. Brownlee says: "Your letter received with the check for $1,000.00 enclosed. I like to deal with such men as you and hope you continue buying coins for a long time." In the last 30 years I have paid hundreds of others handsome premiums for old bills and coins.

All Kinds of Old Coins, Medals, Bills and Stamps Wanted

$1.00 to $1,000 paid for certain old cents, nickels, dimes, quarters, etc. Right now I will pay $50.00 for 1913 Liberty Head nickels (not Buffalo). $100.00 for 1894 dimes ("S" Mint), $8.00 for 1853 quarters (no arrows), $10.00 for 1866 quarters (no motto), $200.00 each for 1884 and 1885 Silver Trade Dollars, etc., etc.

I Have Been Buying Old Money For 39 Years

Any bank in Fort Worth or Dun & Bradstreets will testify as to my responsibility. My volume of business, built on fair and prompt dealings for 39 years, is such that I own and occupy my own building devoted to my coin business. You will find every representation I make to be true and not exaggerated. It will pay you to do business with me.

Amazing Profits FOR THOSE WHO KNOW OLD MONEY!

There are single pennies that sell for $100.00. There are nickels worth many dollars—dimes, quarters, half dollars and dollars on which big cash premiums are paid. Each year a fortune is offered by collectors for rare coins and stamps for their collections. The prices paid are amazing.

It Pays to Post Yourself on the Big Values of Old Coins and Stamps

Knowing about coins pays. Andrew Henry, of Idaho, was paid $900.00 for a half dollar, known in change. A valuable old coin may come into your possession or you may have one now and not know it. Post yourself.

Huge Premiums for Old Stamps

Some old stamps bring big premiums. An old 10c stamp, found in an old basket, was recently sold for $10,000. There may be valuable stamps on some of your old letters. It will pay you to know how to recognize them.

A Money-Making Opportunity for Men of Character

EXCLUSIVE FRANCHISE FOR AN INVENTION EXPECTED TO REPLACE A MULTI-MILLION-DOLLAR INDUSTRY

Costly Work Formerly
"Sent Out" by Business Men
Now Done by Themselves at a Fraction of the Expense

This is a call for men everywhere to handle exclusive agency for one of the most unique business inventions of the day.

Forty years ago the horse and buggy business was supreme—today almost extinct. Twenty years ago the phonograph industry ran into many millions—today practically a relic. Only a comparatively few foresighted men saw the fortunes ahead in the automobile and the radio. Yet irresistible waves of public buying swept these men to fortune, and sent the buggy and the phonograph into the discard. So are great successes made by men able to detect the shift in public favor from one industry to another.

Now another change is taking place. An old established industry—an integral and important part of the nation's structure—in which millions of dollars change hands every year—is in thousands of cases being replaced by a truly astonishing, simple invention which does the work better—more reliably—AND AT A COST OFTEN AS LOW AS 2% OF WHAT IS ORDINARILY PAID! It has not required very long for men who have taken over the rights to this valuable invention to do a remarkable business, and show earnings which in these times are almost unheard of for the average man.

Not a "Gadget"— Not a "Knick-Knack"—

but a valuable, proved device which has been sold successfully by business novices as well as seasoned veterans.

Make no mistake—this is no novelty—no flimsy creation which the inventor hopes to put on the market. You probably have seen nothing like it yet—perhaps never dreamed of the existence of such a device—yet it has already been used by corporations of outstanding prominence—by dealers of great corporations—by their branches—by doctors, newspapers, publishers—schools—hospitals, etc., etc., and by thousands of small business men. You don't have to convince a man that he should use an electric bulb to light his office instead of a gas lamp. Nor do you have to sell the same business man the idea that some day he may need something like this invention. The need is already there—the money is usually being spent right at that very moment—and the desirability of saving the greatest part of this expense is obvious immediately.

Some of the Savings You Can Show

You walk into an office and put down before your prospect a letter from a sales organization showing that they did work in their own office for $11 which formerly could have cost them over $200. A building supply corporation pays our man $70, whereas the bill could have been for $1,600! An automobile dealer pays our representative $15, whereas the expense could have been over $1,000. A department store has expense of $88.60, possible cost if done outside the business being well over $2,000. And so on. We could not possibly list all cases here. These are just a few of the many actual cases which we place in your hands to work with. Practically every line of business and every section of the country is represented by these field reports which hammer across dazzling, convincing money-saving opportunities which hardly any business man can fail to understand.

Profits Typical of the Young, Growing Industry

Going into this business is not like selling something offered in every grocery, drug or department store. For instance, when you take a $7.50 order, as much as $5.83 may be your share. On $1,500 worth of business, your share may be $1,167.00. The very least you get as your part of every dollar's worth of business you do is 67 cents—on ten dollar's worth $6.70, on a hundred dollar's worth $67.00—in other words two thirds of every order you get is yours. Not only on the first order—but on repeat orders—and you have the opportunity of earning an even larger percentage.

This Business Has Nothing to Do With House to House Canvassing

Nor do you have to know anything about high-pressure selling. "Selling" is unnecessary in the ordinary sense of the word. Instead of hammering away at the customer and trying to "force" a sale, you make a dignified, business-like call, leave the installation—whatever size the customer says he will accept—at our risk, let the customer sell himself after the device is in and working. This does away with the need for pressure on the customer—it eliminates the handicap of trying to get the money before the customer has really convinced himself 100%. You simply tell what you offer, showing proof of success in that customer's particular line of business. Then leave the invention without a dollar down. It starts working at once. In a few short days, the installation has actually produced enough cash money to pay for the deal, with profits above the investment coming in at the same time. You then call back, collect your money. Nothing is so convincing as our offer to let results speak for themselves without risk to the customer! While others fail to get even a hearing, our men are making sales running into the hundreds. They have received the attention of the largest firms in the country, and sold to the smallest businesses by the thousands.

EARNINGS

One man in California earned over $1,600 per month for three months—close to $5,000 in 90 days' time. Another writes from Delaware—"Since I have been operating (just a little less than a month of actual selling) and not the full day at that, because I have been getting organized and had to spend at least half the day in the office; counting what I have sold outright and on trial, I have made just a little in excess of one thousand dollars profit for one month." A Georgia man made $802.50 his first two weeks. A Connecticut man writes he has made $55.00 in a single day's time. Texas man nets over $300 in less than a week's time. Space does not permit mentioning here more than these few random cases. However, they are sufficient to indicate that the worthwhile future in this business is coupled with immediate earnings for the right kind of man. One man with us has already made over a thousand sales on which his earnings ran from $5 to $60 per sale and more. A great deal of this business was repeat business. Yet he had never done anything like this before coming with us. That is the kind of opportunity this business offers. The fact that this business has attracted to it such business men as former bankers, executives of businesses—men who demand only the highest type of opportunity and income—gives a fairly good picture of the kind of business this is. Our door is open, however, to the young man looking for the right field in which to make his start and develop his future.

No Money Need Be Risked

in trying this business out. You can measure the possibilities and not be out a dollar. If you are looking for a business that is not overworked—a business that is just coming into its own—on the upgrade, instead of the downgrade—a business that offers the buyer relief from a burdensome, but unavoidable expense—a business that has a prospect practically in every office, store, or factory into which you can set foot—regardless of size—that is a necessity but does not have any price cutting to contend with as other necessities do—that because you control the sales in exclusive territory is your own business—that pays more on some individual sales than many men make in a week and sometimes in a month's time—if such a business looks as if it is worth investigating, get in touch with us at once for the rights in your territory—don't delay—because the chances are that if you do wait, someone else will have written to us in the meantime—and if it turns out that you were the better man—we'd both be sorry. So for convenience, use the coupon below—but send it right away—or wire if you wish. But do it now. Address

'You bet Stunt Riding is a strain on the Nerves!'

says Carl Dossey, CHAMPIONSHIP COWBOY AND RODEO STAR

"RIDE 'EM, COWBOY!" ... and Arizona's Carl Dossey does—with the brilliant rodeo horsemanship that's won him two bareback championships in California, and a high-point cowboy title at the big Cedar City (Utah) show. He's pictured above in a breath-taking stunt at New York's Madison Square Garden. No room in this performance for tense, jittery nerves! Later, over a Camel, Carl explains his way of sidestepping nerve strain ... a pleasant way you'll want to adopt.

MUCH CAN BE LEARNED ABOUT NERVES BY OBSERVING THE DOG

THE English Springer Spaniel (above) is speedy, agile—an especially good gun dog. He has a highly developed nervous system remarkably similar to our own ... sensitive, high-keyed. But, unlike many humans, this dog doesn't ABUSE his nerves. When a dog feels tired, he rests INSTINCTIVELY! We often let will-power whip us on, deaf to the warning that nerves are getting frayed. Yet how much more pleasant life can be when nerves are rested now and then. Pause frequently...LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL! You'll welcome Camel's mildness—rich, ripe flavor. Smokers find Camel's COSTLIER tobaccos are soothing to the nerves.

NO DOUBT about the nerve strain in Dossey's life. But often we don't realize how tense nerves can get in every-day occupations—perhaps in your own. Miss Ferril (below) avoids nerve strain as so many smokers do ... by letting up—lighting up a Camel!

"ACCURACY IS VITAL in my job," says Elsie Ferril, who works all day at an adding machine. "My work requires intense concentration. I can't afford jittery nerves. So, when I feel nerve tension coming on, I let up—light up a Camel. I find this a pleasant way to soothe my nerves."
