To put it more plainly, we have already received One Million and Fifty-One Thousand Dollars ($1,051,000) for lots occupying less than Six Hundred (600) Acres; and the entire cost of the entire area of Six Thousand Four Hundred Sixty-Six Acres (6,468) is only One Million Eighty-Five Thousand Dollars ($1,085,000).

Since the beginning of the year we have purchased another One Hundred Twenty (120) acres, which brings the entire area up to Six Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-Six (6,586) acres.

Land in Zion City is constantly increasing in value, and we are able to get twice as much for lots as we did last year.

A number of persons who have chosen to realize on the increased values have secured in a great many cases more than one hundred (100) percent, above what they paid for their lots a year ago.

It may interest our readers, also, to know that we have graded Twenty-Five Miles of Streets in Zion City; that we have slagged and graveled nearly Six Miles; that we have laid Fourteen Miles of Sidewalks, and that we have built One Hundred and Ninety Bridges and Culverts.

We have also planted large areas of potatoes and strawberries and a general garden.

We have on hand Three Thousand Six Hundred (3,000) Fruit Trees, and Twenty Thousand (20,000) shade and ornamental trees.

We have planted Shade Trees on Nineteen Miles of Streets, to the number of Nine Thousand Fourteen (9,014), nearly all of which are healthy and vigorous.

We are farming a considerable quantity of land, and have reaped many thousands of bushels of grain and cut hundreds of tons of hay.

This is simply an outline of a report from one of our great departments and will give our readers an idea of what may be expected when we give a synopsis of all.

In our last issue, whilst dealing with the Chicago Tribune's first editorial lie concerning Zion for 1903, we spoke of the fact that Zion's Institutions had paid for freight, etc., to the great Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, the sum of One Hundred and Eight Thousand Dollars ($108,000), and we said there were "sometimes seventy (70) cars upon our sidings at one time."

Our Commercial Agent, Deacon J. H. Paxton, who is in charge of all our business at the Chicago & North-Western Railway Freight Depot, sends us a report under date of January 12th, in which he shows that we under-estimated the number of cars on the sidings at one time, and that the average was considerably more than seventy cars, on one occasion reaching One Hundred and Eighteen (118) cars in one day.

As will be seen, he makes the astounding statement that the total number of cars loaded for the year 1902 is very close to Four Thousand (4,000).

If we take these to average Twenty tons each, this would make a Freight Traffic of Eighty Thousand (80,000) Tons for the year.

To make this point clear, we will now give his letter in full.

Zion City Transportation Bureau
Daniel Sloan, Superintendent
J. H. Paxton, Commercial Agent
Zion City, Ill., January 12, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—Since reading your reply to the Chicago Press Liars concerning the alleged "Shrinkage of Zion's Assets," in last week's Leaves of Healing, page 366, wherein you made the assertion that there were "sometimes as high as 70 cars on our sidings at one time," I have been led to make a little investigation along that line, and thinking that possibly the result may be of some interest to you, I will give you a few of the items thus gathered.

I find from our records that instead of 70 cars, we often had more than 100 cars on our siding at a time during 1902.

During the month of May, 1902, the average was considerably more than 70 cars each day, and on the 19th of May there were 118 cars in our yards for this Station.

There were quite a number of days in July which show more than 100 cars in our yards.

The total number of car-loads for the year 1902 is very close to 4,000.

We expect that during the coming spring and summer we shall be obliged to have the switching done at night in order to be able to handle the business at all, because of the great delay in unloading cars occasioned by having the switching done by day.

Faithfully your servant in Jesus,
J. H. Paxton, Commercial Agent.

In leaving, for the time, these business matters, which are so very important in the development of Zion, we feel it right to again rejoice before all God's people, in the fact that our Obedience to Him has been followed by such Wonderful Blessings.

The Promise of God to Israel, given from Mount Gerizim the Mount of Blessing, nearly Thirty-four centuries ago, is being fulfilled in Zion today.
AND JEHOWAH shall make thee the Head,
And Not the Tail;
And thou shalt be Above only,
And thou shalt Not be Beneath;
If thou shalt hearken unto the Commandments of Jehowah thy God,
Which I command thee this day, to Observe and to Do them;
And shalt not turn aside from Any of the Words which I command you this day,
To the right hand, or to the left,
To go after other Gods to serve them.

These words follow the quotation with which we began these Notes, from the 28th chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy:
Thou shalt Lend unto many Nations,
And thou Shalt Not Borrow.

When we have made a fuller statement of Zion's Business Affairs in the Story of Zion, it will be seen that we are justified in calling for Millions of Dollars for subscriptions to Stock in our Present Enterprises; and for at least a Million Dollars to enable us to carry out the undertaking of all private and public buildings in the City of Zion in future.

No NEW CONTRACTS have been taken in Zion City for some time; all new work being done by the Zion Construction Department, pending the organization of the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, of which we have written in previous issues, and which we shall establish, God willing, not later than the 10th of April.

When the Subscriptions to our Present Stocks reach One Million Dollars we shall close the lists, and hold these stocks at Ten per cent. premium; that is, we shall not sell the One Hundred Dollar per share stock at less than One Hundred and Ten Dollars; for that is a low estimate of the Present Value of these Stocks.

The new Association will be floated at par, at Twenty Dollars ($20) a share; and we hope, as we have already stated, to issue the Agreements, and to receive subscriptions to that stock at an early date.

We cannot doubt it will soon be at a premium, for it is an Association that will from the beginning be very profitable.

After paying the guaranteed eight per cent. interest to the stockholders in the Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, and making provision for the wear and tear of machinery, etc., we shall divide the Excess of Profits in the following way:

Ten (10) per cent. of that overplus to the General Funds of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Thirty (30) per cent. of that overplus to be added to the interest payable to the shareholders.

Sixty (60) per cent. of that overplus to be divided, pro rata to salaries, among the workmen in that Association who have been in our employ for at least twelve months.

We shall at the same time take care that the price charged to our people for their buildings shall be lower than could possibly be charged by the most careful contractors.

Buying for cash at low prices vast quantities of building material etc., we shall be able to secure discounts of nearly three per cent. on every month's bills, which in itself provides a good margin of profit.

Our aim will be to build well and economically for rich and poor, giving just values, and yet securing a good profit for division amongst stockholders, workmen and Zion in the way we have just stated.

We have already selected for the office of General Manager of this important Association a gentleman of very great capacity and large experience.

God has been training in Zion for years a large number of excellent Builders who will be put into positions of authority as Superintendents of Construction and carry out the various contracts which the Association will undertake.

We mention this again, because we desire our people to clearly understand what this Association will be, and to prepare for it.

Large numbers of our friends in this and all other Continents intend to make very large investments in Zion City this year.

In fact we can say “There are Millions in sight!”

Further information on this subject can be obtained by addressing Deacon Richard H. Harper, General Manager of the Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, Zion City, Illinois.

We have given directions to our Law Department to prepare the necessary legal documents to bring this Association into existence; and when these are completed a Prospectus and Forms of Application for Shares will be prepared.

Meanwhile, Deacon Harper is ready to give all the information within his power on this subject.

The new Association will absorb the Zion City Lumber Association, Zion City Power, Plumbing, Lighting and Heating Association, Zion City Brick Yards, Zion City Planing Mill, etc., and, probably, the Builders' Hardware Department of the Zion City General Stores.
BUILDINGS for the work of this great Association will be constructed as early as possible.
Meanwhile we shall continue to select the Departmental Managers, some of whom have already proved themselves competent in the important positions which they now occupy in connection with some of the Associations named, as likely to be absorbed by the proposed Consolidation of all the Building Interests of Zion City.

NOW WE TURN with great delight to the contemplation of the work that is dearer to us than all beside, the Spiritual Work of Zion, which we never allow to be neglected for a single moment, amidst all these important matters.

LAST LORD'S DAY was a most remarkable one in many ways.
A severe blizzard was raging in the early morning, and yet there were thousands in Shiloh Tabernacle while it was still almost dark.

THE GREATER PART of a Thousand Members of the Zion Restoration Host went to the City of Chicago on the Special Trains between eight and nine o'clock.
A large number of earnest Workers and Worshippers went in also on the 11:44.

THE DAY was one of the coldest that we have experienced this year.
Not only was the thermometer below Zero, but the wind was particularly cold and piercing; yet Zion Restoration Host went forth doing their work joyfully and returning joyfully.
So far as we know, not one single person received any injury.

THEY MUST have visited homes inhabited by hundreds of thousands of persons, where they left their verbal and printed Messages from God and Zion, with the salutation, "Peace be to this House!"

IT WAS WONDERFUL, also, to see about three thousand persons assembled in the Auditorium at three o'clock; for traveling throughout the city was difficult and unpleasant, and the streets "downtown" seemed empty, bare and cold in the extreme.

OVERSEER JANE DOWIE also reported fully three thousand persons present at the Afternoon Service, which she conducts in Shiloh Tabernacle every Lord's Day, at the same hour as we speak in the Chicago Auditorium.

THE RESULTS of the work of that day have been very marked in a large number of cases.
Salvation, Healing and Holy Living came to many hearts and homes during the hours of consecrated labor which we all gave gladly to our Lord and King, in seeking to save those for whom He gave His life.

ONE OF OUR LARGE new Schoolhouses, two floors of which are used for school purposes, and the large Upper Room as a Zion Tabernacle, was opened last Monday, and filled with bright and happy children.
The other two Schoolhouses will soon be ready and will be filled at once.

THE EASTERN WING of Zion College Building, which will accommodate about 1,200 pupils, is now being roofed in.
The beautiful proportions of the building are now appearing, and it is greatly admired, being built of stone, backed with Zion brick.

AN EXCELLENT RALLY of Zion Restoration Host was held in Shiloh Tabernacle last Monday evening.
There was a good attendance at the Divine Healing Meeting on Tuesday afternoon, which we conducted, praying afterwards with several hundreds of sick folks.

BUT IN SOME RESPECTS the most remarkable meeting of the week was the Weekly Assembly, or Rally as it is usually called, on Wednesday night in Shiloh Tabernacle.
About a score of our principal officers were on the platform, and several made very able and interesting addresses on every phase, almost, of the work of Zion.

AT THESE GATHERINGS we speak freely and encourage our officers to do so.
The people know that they may expect to hear much that will interest them in connection with Zion's Onward Progress, especially in Zion City.

FROM ALL PARTS of the country we are receiving letters expressing interest in our Mission in New York City next October.
We hope to be able to give a month to that Mission, and are making much careful preparation.

WE HAVE ARRANGED with one of the great trunk lines to give excellent train service both of day coaches and of Pullmans to carry the Restoration Host to New York.
We expect to sign the agreement with the company next week, and then we shall give further details.
Meanwhile, we have sent Elder Abraham F. Lee, the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, and Deacon James F. Peters, General Auditor, and Superintendent of Zion's Transportation Bureau, to the City of New York. They left on Tuesday afternoon, January 13th, by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway, and will probably be absent a week or more, making careful inquiries as to the renting of halls, and the securing of accommodations for the thousands of the Zion Restoration Host who will probably accompany us, and who will carry the Message of the Christ to thousands of homes in the City of New York.

These brethren will also make inquiries, and probably visit Boston and Philadelphia, arranging for Zion Restoration Host Excursions to New York.

We desire to know as quickly as possible all who intend to go, divide them into their Seventies, appoint leaders and captains, and have them set apart far in advance to their various districts, so that the moment they land in New York they will know where their fields of labor are.

This is done in advance every week in Chicago.

We have an intense desire to be useful to the multitudes of New York who have not yet received the Blessings of the Everlasting Gospel and the Everlasting Covenant.

That Gospel and Covenant comprise Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, through faith in Jesus, the Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We have no new Gospel, but it is the Full Gospel; and a Reality, not a mere verbal expression.

All who are members of Zion Restoration Host, and desire to come to Zion City to join in this Excursion to New York, will please to communicate as early as possible with Elder Lee, so that he can arrange transportation and accommodation for them.

Cards of Application for the Excursion will be prepared upon the return of Elder Lee and Deacon Peters.

We would remind our readers that the Story of Zion in its secular aspect is told twice a week in the columns of The Zion Banner.

The Banner has now a large circulation, not only in Zion City, but amongst friends outside, who are interested in its progress.

It is published every Tuesday and Friday, and, besides the news of Zion City, it contains outlines of the principal addresses delivered at the various meetings and rallies in Zion City during the week.

We have been very busy this week in reviewing the Details of Administration in many departments of Zion.

A number of changes have been made, and officers in a number of cases have been transferred to positions where they are likely to be more useful than in those which they have been previously occupying.

It takes Time and Patience to be able to find the right positions for thousands of workers, and place them where they can do the work for which they are best fitted.

Next Lord's Day week, January 25th, at 3 p.m., a Great Praise and Testimony Meeting will be held in Chicago Auditorium, conducted by Rev. J. G. Speicher, M. D., Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion City.

We have an intense desire to be useful to the multitudes of New York who have not yet received the Blessings of the Everlasting Gospel and the Everlasting Covenant.

That Gospel and Covenant comprise Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, through faith in Jesus, the Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We hope to be present in spirit, although absent in body. We shall speak, God willing, our Personal Testimony and that of Overseer Jane Dowie, through the Phonograph.

We feel that we want to take a part in that Festival of Praise and Testimony to the Faithfulness of God, and to the Permanence and effectiveness of His Covenant, as the Deliverer of His people, in Spirit, Soul and Body, from all oppression of the enemy.

Let our friends in and around Chicago pay close attention to the directions of Overseer Speicher, and fill up their Testimony Cards in writing and in ink, carefully, in their own homes, letting him have them in good time to be able to sort them and handle them in an orderly manner.

Thousands will testify, God willing, on that occasion.

From all the Ends of the Earth Good News is coming, telling us of how the work of Restoration is beginning in the hearts and lives of ones, and twos, and tens, and hundreds, here and there, on all the Continents, and in most of the Nations.

To all in every land who stand with us for God and the Restoration of His Kingdom, and All Things which He has promised, I send the Loving Salutation:

"Work, Watch, and Wait, 'Till He Come!'"

Brethren, pray for us.
You women who have refused to have children are a murderous crew. There is nothing better than murder in your hearts, and many of your hands are red with blood. Abortionists! Murderesses! Your condemnation is just, unless you repent! Hear that everywhere! The Methodist Church has numbers of women in it who teach the infernal lie that it is a good thing not to have children. Susanna Wesley was the youngest, and twenty-fifth child of her father, the twenty-fourth of her mother. What a delight it must be, even in heaven, for Dr. Annesley and his wife to know that they gave that beautiful woman, Susanna Wesley, to the world: for so great a purpose as to be the mother of John Wesley.

Thanks be to God that she was not like some of the Methodist ladies of the Twentieth Century, who have restless of twenty-eight inches and screw them up, by means of certain infernal machinery, to twenty-four inches, and pretend that they are young ladies with wasp-like waists. They have a wasp-like character that is no pretense.

—The Voice of Elijah the Restorer, in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day, January 11, 1903.
THE Message of Elijah the Restorer, at the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day afternoon, January 11, 1903, was a splendid tribute to True Womanhood and Motherhood.

It was an eulogy upon the lives and works of two good and noble mothers.

This was the first of his series of Messages Unveiling the Apostasy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and God's Messenger spoke on the subject, "The Apostolic John Wesley, and the Beginnings of Methodism."

The speaker, in dealing with John Wesley, began with his sainted mother, Susanna Wesley, and her mother, the wife of Dr. Samuel Annesley of London.

His eulogy upon these good women was also a rebuke and a warning—powerful, direct, unsparing and effectual—to many modern women who have so little conception of the Dignity and Glory of Christian Motherhood, and whose hearts are full of murderous hatred for their own unborn children.

There was also a most valuable lesson to modern parents in the General Overseer's description of Susanna Wesley's spirit and practice in the training of her children, and in his pointed comments thereon.

Having thus made the parentage and childhood of the subject of his discourse a living reality to his hearers, the man of God spoke briefly of some of the important and crucial points of his youth and young manhood, referring with especial power to his conversion, while a minister in the Church of England, under the faithful teaching of a Moravian missionary, Peter Böhler.

The weather on this day was the most severe that had been experienced by Chicago during the present winter. A sweeping gale from the northwest brought with it bitter cold and blinding snow.

The wind whipped fiercely around the corners, penetrating with its chill the warmest garments, and stinging the faces of those brave enough to be out, with little volleys of hard-frozen snow.

The wind and cold also defied the efforts of the none too-effectual heating-apparatus of street-cars and other public conveyances, making travel in the city very uncomfortable.

Despite the severity of the weather, however, two train-loads of Zion Restorationists came down from Zion City, as usual, with the General Overseer at 11:45 a.m., arriving in Chicago about one o'clock. These three regular train-loads of Zion workers and worshippers make no stops for passengers between Zion City and Chicago.

This consecrated work for the Master was not without its effect on that bitterly cold Lord's Day. The thermometer registered several degrees below zero.

Prejudice, fostered and embittered by a Lying Press and a False Pulpit, was overcome and existing interest was increased.

The effect of this Restoration work, week after week, in all kinds of weather, was manifest at the Auditorium in the afternoon.

Large numbers of Chicago people braved the storm and the cold to attend and hear the Message of Elijah the Restorer.

It was a wonderful sight, on a day when the great majority of people ventured out only on necessary business, to see 3,000 people from all parts of the city, gathered in its largest Auditorium, to hear the words of God's Messenger.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, January 11, 1903.

Service opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

We come in the might of the Lord of Light,
With armor bright to meet Him;
And we put to flight the armies of night,
That the Sons of the Day may greet Him.

Chorus. —We march, we march to victory,
With the Cross of the Lord before us,
With His loving eye looking down from the sky
And His Holy arm spread o'er us.

Our sword is the Spirit of God on high,
Our helmet is His Salvation,
Our banner, the Cross of Calvary,
Our watchword, the Incarnation,
And the Choir of Angels with song awaits
Our march to the golden Zion,
For our Captain has broken the brazen gates,
And burst the bars of iron.

Then onward we march, our arms to prove,
With the Banner of Christ before us,
With His eye of love looking down from above,
And His Holy arm spread o'er us.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us, And cause Thy face to shine upon us; That Thy Way may be known upon earth, Thy Saving Health among all the Nations; For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

FARE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 161:

I will sing of my Redeemer And His wondrous love to me; On the cross He suffered, From the curse to set me free.

CHORUS—Sing, oh, sing, of my Redeemer, With His blood He purchased me, On the cross He sealed my pardon, Paired the debt, and made me free.

RECIPIENT OF CREDIT.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles’ Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell, The third day He rose from the dead, And ascendeth into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor’s.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.

To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.

The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.

The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of an infinite majesty;

Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;

Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.

When Thou wast upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,

Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.

We believe that Thou shalt come to our Judge.

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,

Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;

Goverm them and lift them up forever.

Day by day we magnify Thee;

And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory.

And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for Jehovah hath made it waste.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

Let us read in the Inspired Word of God in the book of the Prophet Isaiah, a part of the 24th chapter; then in the Second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians:

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,

Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;

Govern them and lift them up forever.

Day by day we magnify Thee;

And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer said:

Let us read in the Inspired Word of God in the book of the Prophet Isaiah, a part of the 24th chapter; then in the Second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians:

Behold, Jehovah maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for Jehovah hath spoken this word.

The earth mourneth and faileth away, the world languisheth and faileth away, the lofty people of the earth do languish.

The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because—

Get the “because.”

"The Earth Also Is Polluted."

You have only to dig up the streets of Chicago, and you can get a splendid crop of disease. There is no question about the pollution in every City on earth.

You get typhoid fever in abundance if you dig up State street, or any considerable street in the city.

They are saturated through and through with filth—it is a simple matter of fact.

The bodies of the dead carry down with them into the graves the filthy germs of trichinosis and tuberculosis, of cancer, of every foul disease you can think of, until the earth itself is a reeking mass.

The earth is polluted because—look at it again—just be sure you get it:

The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have Transgressed the Laws, Changed the Ordinance, broken the Everlast-

The whole trouble in the church and world today is in those three terrible facts.

Changing the Laws.

The whole Basis of Law in the United States of America does not recognize God’s existence at all. From the point of law, there is no God in the United States of America.
His Name is not in the Constitution.

His God and Law, the Ten Commandments which I have read—let alone the Eleventh Commandment, which is greatest of them all—have no place in the jurisprudence of this Republic.

The Basis, then, of Law is changed.

Law is made a question, not of responsibility to God, but of mutual responsibility to one another.

What a tremendous change!

What a revolution it is!

Law is changed because its Basis is changed.

The Appalling Prevalence of Perjury.

The essential, fundamental principle of obligation to God is not recognized.

When you give testimony in court you are sworn or not, just as you like.

You can lie without being sworn.

It does not much trouble the perjurers whether they are sworn or not.

Perjury is so common a crime, that if the judges were to send to prison the men who deliberately lie under oath there would not be enough prisons to hold them.

They never think of doing it, however, because many of the judges lie themselves.

Every judge who is a Freemason is a liar and an Anarchist.

He may not know it.

He has taken an oath to maintain the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America, and the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America make it impossible for any citizen to create a court of any kind without the sanction of law.

The Constitution makes it impossible for any person or number of persons to inflict penalties or to administer oaths, except under proper appointment by law.

In every Secret Society, however, oaths are administered and penalties are adjudicated with which the law has nothing to do.

They are, therefore, anarchistic.

You have no right, under the law, to have a Secret Society which administers oaths or imposes a penalty, much less executes it.

That is anarchy.

Every judge who is a Freemason is an anarchist.

He helps to administer oaths and to inflict penalties which the law does not recognize.

You have “transgressed the Law.”

The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have Transgressed the Laws, Changed the Ordinance, Broken the Everlasting Covenant.

God’s Covenant is the first Covenant.

Contract of Man with Man is not the First Covenant.

The first thing to be considered is the Eternal Rights of God, who made this world and made man.

If you do not recognize Him as preeminent, as first and last, and all the way through, then you are amongst those who have Transgressed the Law, Changed the Ordinance, Broken the Everlasting Covenant.

You are a polluter of the earth.

Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

The Fire of Hell and of Damning Lust has burned up everything good.

The Lack of Real, True Men.

There are many animals about that look like men.

I think I would have to apologize to the dog if I called them dogs; because a dog would not do what a great many men do.

You might make a dog drunk once, but if you try to make a dog drunk twice, he will want to bite you and change masters.

You might make him to be just as depraved as yourself by constantly keeping at it.

There are few men left.

A man is something more than a two-legged animal who has become a child of the Devil, and a mass of filth in thought and word and deed.

That is no man!

He may look like one, but his manhood is gone.

Sometimes he is a serpent.

The Christ said to the scribes: “Ye offspring of vipers!”

Sometimes he is a wolf in sheep’s clothing.

Sometimes he is a roaring lion.

Sometimes he comes like an Angel of Light; but every time the man who has Transgressed the Law and Changed the Ordinance and Broken the Everlasting Covenant is simply an inconstant devil.

He was made capable of being a temple, either for God or of the Devil, and you will find either the Spirit of God in the innermost shrine or you will find some dirty, damning lust.

An Analogy in the Egyptian Temple.

Look at the old Egyptian temples, magnificent in appearance.

The door is lowly.

You enter under the great pile of majestic masonry, and go through the halls, gleaming with amber and gold.

You hear the chanting, afar off, of the priests as they bow in the innermost shrine.

You put off your shoes, for you are a worshiper, it may be, of Isis, or of some other goddess or god.

You go into the innermost shrine, and fall before the curtain that conceals the god, and what do you find when the curtain is withdrawn?

A stinking bull!

A nasty, slimy serpent out of the Nile!

A deadly viper!

The object of worship is the embodiment of damning lust and deadly poison.

That was ancient Egyptian worship.

That has, in one form or another, been the worship of all men away from God.

Masonry is full of it.

The damming Phallic worship is the center of the Masonic Order.

The Point within the Circle is the filthiest emblem that ever was conceived for a religious purpose.

The True Nature of Freemasonry is Phallic Worship.

You know nothing if you do not know that.

The Point within the Circle is the emblem of the sun god, and its use signifies the worship of the procreative powers of nature.

You enter in the darkness and bow before the altars.

You pass from the rising to the setting of the sun with your abominations.

You solemnly conduct your mock resurrections.

You have brought this horrible thing into the Church of God.

This Methodist Apostasy, with which we are starting to deal today, is honeycombed with it through and through.

Bishops, clergy and people are worshipers of Baal in the secrecy of the lodge.

They shut out Jesus, the Christ, cutting Him out of their Bibles.

They do not dare to mention Him in their lodges.

In the fundamental degrees of Freemasonry He is not honored, and at the end He is not mentioned; for when you get to the end there is no religion at all.

A man who gets to be a Knight of Kadosh has left all religion behind him.

A part of the ritual in that degree declares that religion in every form is a superstition with which no Knight of Kadosh, of course, has anything to do.

The General Overseer then read from the 6th verse of the 24th chapter of Isaiah to the end of the chapter.

He said, That is a good prophecy, and it is a terrible one.

Let us see what the New Testament says about these latter days.

Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the Coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, and our Gathering together unto Him;

To the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the Day of the Lord is now present.

Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition.

He that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God.

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

And now ye know that which restrains, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.
The Lawless One is the Last Great Enemy.

One day the forces of Lawlessness will be organized in America just as the forces of finance are being organized; just as the forces of political parties are being organized. Subtle, clever and unscrupulous men like John Mitchell know right well what they are doing.

A False Analysis of the Position by John Mitchell.

John Mitchell has said that there are three parties to this: The miners, the coal operators and the public. Whom did he mean by the miners? He simply meant the union miners. For him there are no other.

But what of the vast number who are not unionists? "Oh," cries the rank and file unionist, "break their heads, burn their houses, kill them, drive them out; they are 'scabs.'" A scab in the labor ranks today looks to me very much like a hero. It takes a hero to make a "scab." (Applause.) It takes a hero to say, "I will not belong to your infernal and unjust union." (Some young men left the Auditorium.) Hit you, did it? Hit you hard, boys. Harder than stone, is a true word. You can get out, but it follows you. There are four parties, Mr. John Mitchell—the union miner, the non-union miner, the coal operator, and the public. Yes, and there is a very important fifth party, the coal dealer, who is charged with so many crimes just now. You cannot do what you like with the non-union miner. The law says that a man has the right to work, even if he does not belong to your union. That is right, is it not? Audience—"Yes."

Injustice of a Uniform Wage Scale.

General Overseer—Has a man no rights except such as the union cares to give him? I would object if I were a miner. If every miner were equal to every other; if every miner had the same skill and the same honesty and industry and capacity, you could give them all the same wages; but the miner is like the carpenter. There are some carpenters who are "wood-butchers." Twenty-five cents an hour is too much for them. There are some carpenters who are underpaid when they get fifty cents an hour. There are some who can earn a dollar an hour. The men who can use delicate tools, and do the fine, beautiful work that the "wood-butchers" would have to be trained twenty years to learn, and perhaps never learn, are worth more. I am not hard upon the "wood-butchers." I employed several hundreds of them this last year, (laughter) and I was very glad to have them. Before I got through with them, some of them were able to do something more than butcher. They are able now to saw a plank without sawing it three inches out of square. (Laughter.) It is ridiculous to talk about every carpenter getting the same wages, just as ridiculous as it would be to give the same wage or fee to every lawyer. You killed him on the highways; you drove his daughter out of the public school where she was a teacher—not because she had done anything wrong, but because her father was a "scab." Is that honor? Voices—"No." General Overseer—Is that right? Voices—"No." General Overseer—I would like to live in another land if that is right. It is Lawlessness!

Respect to Law Should Have Been Compelled Before Arbitration.

I would have seen these miners further, before I would have done what has been done at Washington. I would have made them obey the law before I would have treated with them. Men have no right to force the hands of a government, a nation, through threats of coal famine or any other calamity. They think they have a right to do it. I would have protected the non-union man. I would have let him work in the mines if it took half a million men to do it. I would have called for the troops, if I had been President; then I would have talked about arbitration. I would never arbitrate with Lawless Men. A mistake has been made, President Theodore Roosevelt. I know you acted according to your light in the interests of the whole people, but you had powers that you had not exercised.

If the militia of Pennsylvania was not sufficient you had the militia of every state and the Federal forces, as Commander-in-Chief, should there be grave danger. Every law-abiding man in the land would have said: "Do not treat with law-breakers who smash people's heads, starve them, flood the mines and destroy property."

You can put your tongue in your cheek, and be "smart" and impudent, Mr. Mitchell. You think that the majority is on your side, but God is not on your side, and if God is against you, you will go to pieces every time.

I am with the Working Man.

My people are working people. Zion is built up by working people. We get along splendidly. We have no strikes. We have peace, and we have no unions. Let them try to bring a Trade Union into Zion City! They did try, but my people told them that they could just go into the middle of the road and take their choice between Beer—that is Milwaukee, and Babel—that is Chicago, and Boodle—that is St. Louis. (Laughter.) "But your people do not prosper," some of the papers say. I could tell of some working men who, in eighteen months, have made out of their earnings and the little money they put in land, fifteen hundred to two thousand dollars. Where is the union man, in almost any line of work, who has made that in the same time? The papers are too cowardly to publish what I say. They are afraid of John Mitchell. They are afraid of the other side. They are afraid of their own shadow, not that their shadow is very much. They are dreadfully thin, and getting thinner all the time.

The Mystery of Lawlessness doth Already Work.

It is at work. You do not find these men Christians. John Mitchell is not a Christian. He does not profess to be. Samuel Gompers is not a Christian. He does not profess to be. The Ten Commandments would knock them out, let alone the Eleventh. Men cannot keep the Commandments of God and work Trades-unionism Lawlessness.

The Mystery of Lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restrains now, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall be revealed the Lawless One.—

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 17, 1913.
I stand for Law. Do you? Audience—Yes.

General Overseer—Therefore, I stand for men; for the man who stands for God and Law, stands for humanity.

The man who stands against God and Law stands for the Devil.

I do not say that you have no right to combine. Combine if you like.

You have no right, however, to combine in such a way as to say to those who do not combine: "If you do not come into our combination, we will smash you."

You cannot do that unless you abandon all pretense of Law and let the mob rule.

Then there will be what Defoe sang about in the true-born Englishmen:

For drunkenness has been the darling of the realm;
E're since a drunken pilot has had the helm;
Slaves to the liquor, drudges to the pole;
The mob are statesmen and the statesmen their lords.

The Lawless One Will Be Destroyed.

That is what you will get when you get to the Lawless One. He is coming.

But he will be destroyed, and every Lawless Being who follows him will be swept away.

For the Mystery of Lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way.

And then the Lawless One, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of His mouth, and bring to nought by the Manifestation of His Coming.

May God bless His Word.

Prayer was offered by Elder Excell, and by the General Overseer, at the close of which all chanted the Disciples' Prayer.

The announcements were made and the tithes and offerings received, after which the General Overseer delivered the afternoon address.

UNVEILING OF THE APOSTASY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH; THE APOSTOLIC JOHN WESLEY AND THE BEGINNINGS OF METHODISM.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and be profitable unto this people, and to all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time till Jesus come. Amen.

The Second Epistle of Paul to the church of the Thessalonians, second chapter.

These are the words that I will use in the front of all I have to say:

TEXT.

Let not man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first.

I desire to speak to you today concerning the Methodist Apostasy—the Falling Away of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

I declare that the Methodist Church is apostate upon the evidence of its own Bishops, upon the evidence of its most prominent, intellectual and respected laymen.

A Former Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

You, who have followed my ministry for years, will remember my series of discourses delivered in the Central Tabernacle during the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Church here in 1900.

It has been published in this pamphlet: "Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy."

I then dealt with that Apostasy, especially in connection with Freemasonry.

I proved, at that time, the fact which I wrote on the title-page of this pamphlet, that the Methodist Church has been sold out by its leaders to the World, the Flesh and the Devil.

I delivered those nine discourses while the Methodist Conference was sitting here in this very building from May 6th to May 24, 1900.

I had an appendix to it entitled "Zion's Inquisition for Blood."

These nine discourses are on record.

Hundreds of Delegates to Methodist Conference Attend Discourses on Methodist Apostasy.

It is not easy to pooh-pooh discourses that were attended by hundreds of the delegates to the General Conference which sat in this building during that period.

When I opened the discourses, it was reported openly that there were less than twelve hundred persons in this building.

There were more than four thousand in the Central Zion Tabernacle, and we had to get the police to prevent others from crowding in.

In that audience hundreds of the delegates, desirous to "hear what that babbler would say," neglected their duty to be here, and again and again attended our meetings.

All through that series of nine discourses I think there never was a time when I had less than fifty ministerial delegates present.

Sometimes hundreds of them attended.

Words of Approval from a Prominent Methodist.

At the close of the Series of Discourses an eminent brother, long connected with the literature of Methodism, waited an hour outside of Zion Building that he might see me.

He introduced himself to me, and if they challenge me about it I will give his name.

He said: "Doctor, I have attended all your discourses.

'1 stand here in the open street to grasp your hand and say to you, 'Thank God for the words that you have spoken.'

'I have been a Methodist minister fifty years, and you have spoken the truth of God."

Just then I thought I saw Dr. Buckley coming down on the other side of the road, so I invited the good man and his wife to ride to the Auditorium with me in my carriage.

I took that distinguished minister and literary man and his wife down the avenue, and left them at the door of this Auditorium with two or three Bishops looking on.

As my brethren know, a number of these delegates came into my room and thanked me; for they knew I was right.

What had I done in dealing with Methodist Apostasy? I had done what they ought to have done themselves.

I had opened the door and shown the horrible spiritual debauchery, prostitution and lust in the leaders of the entire Methodist Episcopal Church.

Tens of thousands of hearts are seeking God earnestly in that church, but the church has been sold out by its leaders.

The Seal of the Covenant.

When I began that Series of Discourses I quoted from the bishops' address to the whole church before that conference was held.

I quoted the words uttered by these bishops under the title of a document called "The Seal of the Covenant."

I used the text upon which I spoke so much today in the 24th chapter of Isaiah, 5th verse:

The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have Transgressed the Laws, Changed the Ordinance, Broken the Everlasting Covenant.

I read from that document this statement made by the bishops in summoning the conference which was held in this very room:

"Today our Methodism confronts a serious situation.

Our statistics for the last year showed a decrease in the number of our members.

Yet before last year's advance was checked.

Last year our advance column has been forced back a little, the lost ground is paved with the dead, and there are now unhappily many Methodists who lack present knowledge of New Testament salvation.

We have great organized benevolences. . . . . We have successful revivals reported. . . . . We bow with grateful hearts, remembering what God has done for us. But when we see how little we have done for Him, how we are(retreating) in spite of all our appliances, we feel our lack of power.

We can only fall upon our faces and cry to Him to have mercy upon us and, "not cut us down but spare us another year," and dig about us and fertilize us.

God Almighty did it, but they brought forth nothing but weeds. They have not increased.

I stand for Law. Do you? Audience—Yes.

General Overseer—Therefore, I stand for men; for the man who stands for God and Law, stands for humanity.

The man who stands against God and Law stands for the Devil.

I delivered those nine discourses while the Methodist Conference was sitting here in this very building from May 6th to May 24, 1900.

“Yes, and it is a cause for anxiety. Where does the decline come from?”

“It comes from a sufficient cause. That cause is the slipping a cog in our experience, our lack of spiritual power.”

Judge White on the “Decline of the Methodist Episcopal Church.”

He said:

“I have been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for sixty-five years, and my memory goes back several years longer. In my judgment the paramount cause of the decline was the loss of the revival spirit in the church, and this was the result of two causes: first, worldliness in the laity; and, second, a lack of spirituality in the ministry. I say the loss of the revival spirit; it is more than a decline. The old revival spirit has gone out of fashion—is abandoned—lost. . . .”

Formerly, an unconverted person joined the church, he was urged to seek conversion, and never rest until he had obtained the witness of his pardon. Now how is it?

The unconverted join, scarcely hear a word about conversion, and never have any personal religious experience.

“What is the cause of this?”

“Let us not deceive ourselves,” they continued. “This is the cause of it. Why is all this?”

Now how is it?

The unconverted join; scarcely hear a word about conversion, and never have any personal religious experience. It is proper that I should begin a series of discourses like this, as a part of my Restoration work.

“Destruction Must Precede Restoration.”

The only way to restore the old waste is to get rid of the old rubbish which is there.

How shall we ever be able to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem if we do not first get rid of the old rubbish?

It must be done.

I should like to have some part in doing it and I believe I shall.

Meanwhile, several things must first be done.

I shall deal with the Beginnings of Methodism, and show what Methodism sprang from, what it was and what it is. I will go a little further back than John Wesley.

I have announced my discourse: “The Apostolic John Wesley, and the Beginnings of Methodism.”

Books to be Quoted Concerning Methodism.

For a number of years I have been giving this matter considerable attention, and from time to time I shall make quotations from the authoritative books which I have before me.

I shall quote my distinguished opponent, Dr. James M. Buckley, and use his two volumes which are entitled: “A History of Methodism in the United States.”

For the facts connected with the actual resolutions and doings of the Methodist Church I shall quote from this book, which is entitled: “The General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church from 1792 to 1890.”

I shall also add the volumes of the reports of the Conference of 1900, all of which I read day by day whilst the Conference was sitting in Chicago.

I read in the Christian Advocate, every day, the daily report of their Conference.

I shall quote from the Works of John Wesley in seven volumes, from his Journals in two volumes, his Sermons in two volumes, and his Miscellaneous writings in three volumes.

I shall quote from the last edition of “The Doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church.”

I shall occasionally quote from the “Memorials of the Wesley family,” which have been compiled with such care and skill by George J. Stevenson. I shall quote from Larrabee’s “Wesley and his Co-laborers,” two volumes; from Thomas Jackson’s “Life of Charles Wesley”; from the Methodist Home, etc.

If necessary I shall quote from other writings which throw light on Methodism and its Masters.

The Significance of John Wesley’s Name.

You cannot understand the origin of Methodism until you get to know Samuel and Susanna Wesley.

You must understand his father and mother before you can understand John Benjamin Wesley.

I am sorry that the Benjamin is usually omitted; for Benjamin is a very good name.

If you put John and Benjamin together you get, in the Hebrew tongue, two words which signify: “By the grace of God a Son of the Right Hand”; or a Light-bearer as some words say. It is a good addition to his name either way.

That is just what John Wesley was.

Put my two names together, and you have John Alexander, “By the grace of God a helper of men,” and that I hope I am. (Amen.)

Susanna and Samuel Wesley are the Key to this Position.

Samuel Wesley was the son of a minister of the Church of England. He was born in 1662.

Susanna Wesley, his wife, was born in 1669, and there are some important points connected with both, to which I desire to call your attention.

First, Susanna Wesley was the twenty-fifth child of her father.

Think of that, you miserable, who groan if you get three! (Laughter.)

Her mother had twenty-four children.

Her father, Dr. Annesley, a Non-conformist minister had one child before he married her mother, so that made two dozen and one.

Think of it!

The astounding fact is that she was the youngest of the family and if she had not been born John Wesley would have had no existence.

A Rebuke to Women Who Want Few Children.

Some of you women complain if you get three.

The other day a woman in our church at the time her baby was born, said: “I am going to have no more children for ten years”—and she is dead.

She never got up off that bed.

She will have no more forever.

You women who have refused to bear children are a murderous crew.

There is nothing better than murder in your hearts, and many of your hands are red with blood.

Abortionists! Murderesses! Your condemnation is just, unless you repent! Hear that everywhere!

The Methodist church has numbers of women in it who teach the infernal lie that it is a good thing not to have children.

Susanna Wesley was the youngest and twenty-fifth child of her father, the twenty-fourth of her mother.

What a delight it must be even in heaven for Dr. Annesley and his wife to know that they gave that beautiful woman, Susanna Wesley, to the world.

A Rebuke to Women Who Are at Ease.

She was a cultivated, gentle, stately, beautiful woman, and she married a man whose income was only thirty pounds a year.

Hear this now, you women who are at ease.

We have very few women at ease in Zion. We stir them up if they get too lazy.
We send them out on long journeys, shake them up and send them out. We will let them up and get them out of the church if they will not do something. I am getting tired of some women in Zion. They can find excuses for idleness, they will not go out and work. I would have been in my grave if I had not worked. I could have found plenty of excuses for not preaching—pleasure. Many a time I have come on the platform with a voice so hoarse that I could scarcely whisper, and I talked until I got a voice. Work! Work! Women, you have as much right to work as we have. Work!

A Protest Against Useless Classical Music.

"Oh, I have my children and my music." Yes, most of your music is of no account. (Laughter.) Cat-squalling would be as much music as some of that classical music! (Laughter.) I would rather play the "Ninety and Nine" in the homes of the.going out and singing the perishing. I do not want to hear any of your classical music. Much of Wagner is about what you could get if I trod on ten cats tails. (Laughter.) "That shows your ignorance, General Overseer," you may say. Perhaps it does, but I have done something with my music. I know something about fine music, too. I heard the best singers of this age singing "The Messiah." God grant that some day I may be able to let you hear "The Messiah" in the Temple of God in Zion City, with 30,000 persons there.

The Nobility of Motherhood.

Susanna was the twenty-fifth child of her father. The Lord give every good Zion Woman twenty—twenty-five. You say you cannot keep them. I will help you. I will adopt some of them. I want to impress it, and I want to tell you what a happy woman the twenty-fifth was. Hallelujah for Susanna Annesley! Susanna Wesley and her husband were happy. He wrote poems and articles.

She helped him, and they managed to get another thirty pounds a year by his pen; that was $300 a year at the best.

Sad Disappointment of Susanna Wesley.

Susanna Wesley followed her mother's example. She had nineteen children. Thank God for that. If she had stopped at the fourteenth, John Benjamin Wesley would never have been given to the world. There is a very sad record there; she had very many disappointments. Here on page sixty-five of the "Memorials of the Wesley Family," by Stevenson, I have the official record. She had the disappointment of losing her first daughter within two years of her birth. Her fourth and fifth sons died, also her ninth child. She lost her tenth and eleventh children, and then her twelfth and thirteenth. Her fourteenth child lived. Some would say, "Why should the poor woman go on bearing children?"

Her fifteenth child was John Benjamin Wesley. Thanks be to God that she was not a "society" Chicago lady! (Laughter.)

Wasp Waists—Wasp-like Characters.

Thanks be to God that she was not like some of the Methodist ladies of the twentieth century, who have waists of twenty-eight inches and screw them up, by means of certain infernal machinery, to twenty-four inches, and pretend that they are young ladies with wasp-like waists. They have a wasp-like character—that is no pretense. (Laughter.) I would rather have her as broad as a bumblebee, than as narrow as a wasp. (Laughter.)

There is no beauty in a wasp-like waist, you wasps: I do not admire you, and no one who has an eye for the beautiful would. Look at the most beautiful representations of the human form divine. Have they wasp-like waists?

When the Greeks wanted to represent Aphrodite, the goddess of love and beauty, they did not give her a wasp-like waist. She represented, in the physique, the ideal woman of the Greeks, and I should think that she must have weighed about 180 pounds. Perhaps more. I dwell upon this because heredity is a wonderful thing.

John Wesley's mother was a joyous woman.

Susanna Wesley's Government of her Children.

In a letter to her son John dated Epworth, July 24, 1732, when she was sixty-three years old, she tells of the way she dealt with her children, how she loved them, and how she used the rod to make them understand before they were a year old. They knew that they would get the rod if they did not cry softly. The passage is worth quoting: "When turned a year old (and some before) they were taught to fear the rod and to cry softly, by which means they escaped abundance of correction which they might otherwise have had, and that most odious noise of the crying of children was rarely heard in the house, but the family usually lived in as much quietness, as if there had not been a child among them." She taught them to go to bed with their eyes wide open. She did not walk up and down until she soothed them to sleep by singing "Three blind mice; three blind mice." When you stop the "three blind mice" the howls begin. She was the tenderest of mothers. They had to rise in the morning when she called them, and not when they thought it the right time.

There are some of you who are slaves to your children. You let them rise any time they like, and the consequence is that they are lazy and good-for-nothing. They sleep too much, and do not understand the responsibilities of life.

Before they had breakfast, she sent her little flock in twos into their own rooms, after she had prayed with them, and there they learned a small portion of Scripture and prayed with each other in two separate rooms. Then they came back and had their breakfast, and then went out to their tasks, or to their school. They were not permitted to go as they liked, and do as they pleased.

There was a rod, and Susanna Wesley knew how to use it. She wrote: "In order to form the minds of children, the first thing to be done is to conquer their will and bring them to an obedient temper."

Love of Susanna Wesley's Children for Their Mother.

Every one of her children loved her, adored her, idolized her, because as soon as possible she taught them by reason and by love. There are some animals which you cannot teach with reason or love, but you have to take the stick. Many of you were born into the Kingdom of God in Zion, but you had to get the stick first. Many of you would never have been anything at all but for the stick.

The stick has been laid away for a long time, except now and then when you will do wrong, and then there is a stick still.

Susanna Wesley preserved the love of her children until they were old men and women. John Wesley was the fifteenth child.

If Susanna had said, "Oh, I have lost so many children, and I have had so much disappointment, let me have no more," John Wesley would not have been born.

One of the greatest and most wonderful movements of the eighteenth century would never have taken place, humanly speaking. One man, under God, was the very center and origin, as it were, of that whole movement.

Charles was a very weakling compared to him. The Wesleys were poor, but they rose above it. It was the shame of the people, and especially the rich, that ministers were so poor.
They were burned out at Epworth, and were scattered a whole year.

Susanna Wesley’s Musical and Literary Tastes.
She did not bother about classical music.
She did not bother about painting.
She liked to paint roses on her children’s cheeks by giving them good, fresh, sweet milk and oatmeal.
She liked to paint heroic character.
She liked the inspiration of music—but it was a holy music.
I was very much touched in reading her letters to find what an admirer she was of one whom I have always loved as a poet,—George Herbert.

She quotes with such happiness from that great neglected poet.
I know of no greater.
Several times she quotes these lines from Herbert:

Only, since God doth often make
Of lovely matter, for high uses meet,
Throw one at His feet;
There will I set until my Maker seek
For some mean stuff whereon to show His skill;
Then is my time.

And there was no mock humility in her quoting these lines in a letter to her husband.
She had few books, and she had little time to read them, but she would insist upon the Bible being read until every child of hers knew the Bible from Genesis to Revelation.
She taught them history from the Bible.
She taught them good conduct from the Bible.
She taught them the way of Salvation from the Bible.
She demanded of God that all her children should be saved, but she prayed with them.

Need of Mothers’ Prayers with Their Children.
How many mothers of today do that?
How many mothers pray in the morning and at night with their children?
How many go into the young girl’s room and kneel and pray with them there?
How many mothers pray with the youth, the boy, the man; with the maiden grown up and having her first heart-breaking disappointment?
You cannot get heroic characters out of Ouida’s novels.
Susanna Wesley never let them read the trash of the day.
She taught them the way of Salvation from the Bible.
She taught them good conduct from the Bible.
She taught them history from the Bible.
She taught them the way of Salvation from the Bible.
She demanded of God that all her children should be saved, but she prayed with them.

Concerning Samuel Wesley.
No one can speak lightly of Samuel Wesley, senior, the father of John, although it is admitted that he sometimes wrote poems for people he did not believe in at all, because there was some pay attached to it.
In those days they did not have much of it.
I would like to let him down as gently as I can.
However, I do not take much account of Sam Wesley, for he was not much to boast of.

John and Benjamin were the names of two of her dear children who died.
Then she gave the two names to the fifteenth child.
How many tender thoughts were in her heart when she gave these names of the departed ones to John?
When John Wesley began his life’s work he had to pass through many peculiar spiritual experiences.

John Wesley’s Confession of Need of Conversion.
He wrote in his Journal on January 24, 1738, on the voyage back to England from America:

Who, what is he that will deliver me from this evil heart of unbelief? I have a fair summer religion. I can talk well; say, and believe myself, while no danger is near; but let death look me in the face, and my spirit is troubled. Nor can I say, ‘To die is gain!’

I have a sin of fear, that when I’ve spun
My last thread, I shall perish on the shore.’

He went to America to convert the Indians, but, oh, who shall convert me! It is now two years and almost four months since I left my native country, in order to teach the Georgian Indian the nature of Christianity, but what have I learned myself in the meantime? Why, that I least of all suspected— that I who went to America to convert others was never myself converted to God. In after years he inserted the words ‘I am not sure’ before this.

He was a minister of the Church of England, and quite a High Churchman.
He made things hot down in Savannah, and did many things of which he afterwards repented.

In fact he was indicted by the grand jury for refusing to administer the Communion to a young lady whom he had at one time desired to marry, but who had married another, and a number of other offenses. One of these was that he refused to baptize Mr. Parker’s child otherwise than by dipping, except the parents would certify it was weak and not able to bear it.”

Another of the grand jury’s absurd declarations was that “John Wesley, clerk, had taken the laws of the realm, contrary to the peace of our sovereign Lord the King, his crown. and dignity by—baptizing an Indian trader’s child with only two sponsors!

In a parenthesis in his Journal, dated August 16, 1737, Wesley gravely writes—“This I own, was wrong; for I sought at all hazards, to have refused baptizing it till he had procured a third."

These were laughable times in Savannah, Georgia.

He went there to convert the Indian, and he himself was not soundly converted.

You say, “Surely the son of so godly a mother would be converted.”

He had the head knowledge, but not the heart knowledge.

But the day came when he was truly converted, and knew it.

John Wesley’s Conversion.

It was through the agency of a simple man named Böhler, a Moravian whom he met in London about 1738, who was on his way to America.

He found in Peter Böhler, a Moravian missionary the simple truth of how to find a real and perfect Salvation.

He says concerning his meeting with Böhler:

- He consented to put the dispute upon the issue which I desired, namely, Scripture and experience. I first consulted the Scripture, but when I set aside the glosses of man, simply considered the words of God, comparing them together, and endeavoring to illustrate the obscurity by the plainer passages I found they all made against me, and I was forced to retreat to my last hold, namely, that experience would never agree with the literal interpretation of the Scripture, nor could I therefore allow it to be true until I found some living witness.

- He replied he could show me such at any time, if I desired it, next day.

Accordingly the next day this man, Peter Böhler, a Moravian, came with three others, all of whom testified of their own personal experience with a true, living faith in the Christ as inseparable from the past, and freedom from all present sin. They added with one mouth that experience would never agree with the literal interpretation of the Scripture, nor could I therefore allow it to be true until I found some living witness.

- He replied he could show me such at any time, if I desired it, next day.

Accordingly the next day this man, Peter Böhler, a Moravian, came with three others, all of whom testified of their own personal experience with a true, living faith in the Christ as inseparable from the past, and freedom from all present sin. They added with one mouth that experience would never agree with the literal interpretation of the Scripture, nor could I therefore allow it to be true until I found some living witness.

That was the beginning and God finished the work eventually. He had been a cold, formal, but a very earnest minister of the Church of England, insisting upon a great many things which were right and good and true.

Amongst other things

John Wesley Insisted Upon Immersion.

He would not baptize a child in any other way unless a certificate was brought to him that the child could not bear the dipping.

The consequence was that he dipped children.

The Church of England demanded it.

Immersions was John Wesley’s practice.

The following entry in his Journal on February 21, 1736, shows what his practice was at that time:

Mary Welch, aged eleven days, was baptized by the custom of the First Church, and the rule of the Church of England, by immersion. The child was ill then, but recovered from that hour.

I have gone only a little way into the life of the founder of Methodism.

I believe that as we go on with John Wesley’s life and work, that the power of God will accompany the story. All who desire to consecrate themselves to God, stand.

(Outside part of the audience rose.)

Prayer of Consecration.

My God and Father, In Jesus’ Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, Take away my sin. Give me True Repentance.

Give me Thy Holy Spirit in Jesus’ Name. Bless the words which have been spoken. Grant that we may understand how this wonderful work was done; how Thou didst bless it, and why it decayed. Help us to learn the lesson to be strong and to do right. For Jesus’ sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

After the Doxology had been sung, the General Overseer pronounced the

 Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

REPORTED BY E. W., E. S. AND A. W. N.

JUST as one never gets quite used to the dawning of a new day—the surprise, the glory, the mystery—so impenetrable and full of delight are the Lord's Day early morning meetings in Shiloh Tabernacle.

Where else, in all the world, may be witnessed the sight presented on Lord's Day morning, December 21, 1902, when, the darkness of the night not yet fled, and the dense fogs and falling rain obscuring all objects save those at a close range, hundreds of the children of God, shaking off their slumber and ease, unmindful of personal comfort and the allurements of happy homes in the happiest city on earth, gathered together thus early in the morning of the Lord's Day?

A thousand of Zion Restoration Host—one-sixth of the total number constituting that wonderful force which is pushing out in advance of the church throughout the world—was present when the Prophet of God began to speak.

The wonder grows and deepens when, for the fifth succeeding time, the same Scripture is read and the same truths promulgated by this servant of God, Elijah the Restorer.

Old as the dawn itself are these truths, yet now, imbued with Divine life by the power of the Holy Spirit, clothed anew, they convict, and seem altogether lovely. The great, gentle, loving, sympathetic heart of the speaker gives the interpretation to the words of the Lord Jesus in that memorable prayer before His Crucifixion in such manner that the audience seems to see the great heart of the Christ laid bare.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, December 21, 1902.

Service opened by Congregation singing Hymn No. 177:

Savior, more than life to me,
I am clinging, clinging close to Thee;
Let Thy precious blood applied,
Keep me ever, ever near Thy side.

CHORUS—Every day, every hour,
I shall feel Thy cleansing power;
For Thy tender love to me
Blinds me closer, closer, Lord, to Thee.

Prayer was offered by Elder Dimius, also by the General Overseer, at the conclusion of which the Congregation chanted the Disciples' Prayer.

The General Overseer then read from the 17th chapter of St. John.

After Hymn No. 226 had been sung, the General Overseer delivered the following address:

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer.

The PRAYERS OF JESUS.

INVOCATION.

Last Lord's Day morning I spoke to you especially upon that part of the Lord's Prayer in which the Redeemer says:

I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom Thou hast given Me; for they are Thine; and all things that are Thine are Thine, and Thine are Mine: and I am glorified in them.

All Things Are the Christ's.

The righteous appropriation by our Great Advocate of everything that God has made is a wonderful fact. An appropriation without a right is a misappropriation.

All that is in this great world is the Lord Jesus Christ's by right.

It has been given to Him by the Eternal Father.

There was given to Him the Creative Power; for all things that exist were made by means of Him. He is the Eternal Word, the Logos, the Reason, the Ratio of all things that we see.

He was in the beginning with God.

He was God, and He is God.

All things came into being by means of Him, and without Him came not into being anything which has come into being; for in Him is the Life which gave, and continues to give being to All Things.

In Him was Life, and that Life is still the Light of men.

That Light still shines in darkness, and the darkness does not comprehend it.

God sends those to whom He has revealed His Son to carry the Message of Light and Life.

The dead comprehend nothing.

The thing which is dead cannot be reasoned with.

The brute which is dead to reason, cannot be reasoned with.

Dead in Trespasses and Sins.

The great majority of men in this world are dead in trespasses and sins.

They are very much alive psychically and physically, but the light that is in them is darkness—and, oh, how great is that darkness!

The life which is in them is brutish, and foolish and brutish men do not understand things which are Divinely spiritual.

There are a great many who have some knowledge of God, who are so rash, so foolish, and so brutish that they forget everything when they give way to lust and are controlled only by their brute passions.

Gratitude goes to the wind.

The many, many things which you do for them have no place in their hearts or memories.

They have been offended, and they must needs act like brutes and fools.

I have seen much of that.

A great many men whom you will meet today are brutish and foolish, and yet they profess to be Christians.

I have had much experience in my life with men who professed to be Christians, and were brutish in their selfishness and utterly foolish and reckless in their passions.

The Christ Claims Power Over All Men.

He claims power over the brutish, the foolish, the silly, the weak and those who, this morning, are found in all parts of the world, having spent their money for that which is not bread, having labored hard to get money simply to debase themselves still more deeply.

The Christ Claims Power Over All Men.

He claims power over the brutish, the foolish, the silly, the weak and those who, this morning, are found in all parts of the world, having spent their money for that which is not bread, having labored hard to get money simply to debase themselves still more deeply.

The Christ Claims Power Over All Men.
THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

It may be that one of your own children, despite all you can say, or do, is determined to become a son of perdition a daughter of damnation. You must go right on. One of the saddest things in all the world is to see men who have toiled and striven and given every advantage to children, and still have children who willfully go to the Devil. That is one of the saddest things in connection with the whole range of human life. Nevertheless you must go on, and do God's work, never giving up your own loved ones, and learning, by your work in rescuing others, how to rescue your own loved and wandering ones.

Ingratitude of Those Whom the Christ Loved and Saved.

The Christ Himself had this sorrow. The mother who bore Him, and the brethren whom He had helped to raise, as the head of that family, whose mouths He had fed, and for whom He had cared so tenderly, in the hour of His trial, were outside the crowd one day when He was contending for Righteousness. They had wanted Him to come away. They had wanted Him to stop preaching. They did not want Him to get into trouble. In the hour when it would have been so good to have had the saintly mother and the strong brothers around Him, they were outside, they were wanting Him to come away. So it is, oftentimes, with the man who is doing God's work most faithfully. He will find himself alone in his hour of trial, and outside will be mother, wife, son, daughter, friend, all tired of him, tired of his faithfulness and entrusting him to let up. The Christ had to turn around when they said that His mother and His brethren were there, and it was with a sad look, They were there, but outside. There were those who were closer to Him than they, and He stretched out His hand and said: "Who is My mother, My brother, My sister?" He told them that they who did the Will of God were His mother, brother, sister. They were as close to Him as the brethren whom He had attended to so faithfully. He told them that they who did the Will of God were His mother, brother, sister. They were as close to Him as the brethren whom He had attended to so faithfully. He told them that they who did the Will of God were His mother, brother, sister. They were as close to Him as the brethren whom He had attended to so faithfully. In the hour when it would have been so good to have had the saintly mother and the strong brothers around Him, they were outside, they were wanting Him to come away. It is strange that the brothers whom He had attended to so lovingly should have been outside. It is strange that He came to His own, and His own received Him not.

Gratitude and Faith of Heathen Exceeded Those of the Christ's Own.

It is strange that the Roman Centurion should bow and say: "Say the word only, and my servant shall be healed." It is strange that the Woman of Canaan should still persist, when she seemed to have been again and again driven back, and take the lowest place and say: "Lord, even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." It is strange that the only times that Jesus ever said "Great Faith" were to that man and to the woman who had just come to Him out of Heathen Darkness. It is strange that all Israel should stand outside! It is strange that He should have been compelled to say to His own Apostles "O ye of Little Faith!" or, even more, "Why are ye Fearful? Have ye not yet Faith?" It is strange that in the hour of His need these very apostles with whom He was praying, should every one of them forsake Him and flee, and that He should go to the Judgment Hall and wear the Crown of Thorns and be smitten, and bear His Cross to Calvary, and not one of them stand by Him throughout that awful period of bodily suffering and mental agony! It is strange, but true! If you are working for human gratitude, you are making one of the greatest blunders. The gratitude of men, no matter how sweet it may be, and no matter how true it may be, is but transient.

Tie of Blood Not the Closest.

Since the apostolic days when the Holy Spirit came—since the day when the Christ offered that prayer which has made multitudes of men and women closer to each other than father or mother, brother or sister—the ties which bind closest are not the ties of blood. The ties of blood may be ties of misery, of shame, of agony. They may be ties which are loathsome to contemplate, which you can only remember with sorrow, and which have no spiritual power at all.
LEAVES OF HEALING

Saturday, January 17, 1903.

The ties of God, the ties of Spiritual Union, the ties of a Faith, a Hope, a Love which cannot be broken, these are the ties which bind man to man far more strongly than those of blood relationship.

Mary was not there.
Jesus' brothers were not there.
At that last Feast of the Father He brought in those who had loved Him and followed Him, and who, although they were going to fall for a moment, were going to rise again and be strong. They were His nearest ones.

You must realize, as you go two and two, each supporting the other, that you are going into a world where all belongs to God who sends you.

Although the Devil has usurped and stolen, and although sons of rebellion, sons of Babel, and daughters of shame will be found, yet to them are you sent.

You may find the warmest welcome, not in the homes of those who profess Christianity, but in the homes of those who have lapsed and fallen and know nothing of God.

The Hearts of All Men are Crying Out.

There is no rest anywhere.
There is no peace anywhere.
There is no rest anywhere.

Confession Requiem.
Law is a mass of jangled jargon.
Christianity is represented by a series of petty social clubs.
True Catholicity is to be found more in Christians who belong to the Greek and Roman Apostasies, sometimes, than in Protestantism.

There is left, even in Rome, a union, a catholicity which, Confusion Reigns.
The Hearts of All Men are Crying Out.
There is no finality to anything.

There is no rest anywhere.
There is no peace anywhere.
There is no rest anywhere.

There is no finality to anything.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION’S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer.

Great is our Jehovah, And mighty in power. His understanding is infinite. Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving; Sing praises upon the harp unto our God.—Psalm 105:5, 7.

ZION is realizing more and more, from day to day, the Infinite Power of Jehovah.

Elijah the Restorer continues faithfully proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, throughout all seasons, and God continues to bless his ministry.

This Full Gospel preached in Zion gets into the hearts and lives of the people, and the story of the blessings which it brings is very wonderful.

Those who obey God fully and who are faithful to the teaching in Zion are being blessed from day to day, and thanksgiving constantly arises from the hearts and lips of the redeemed, the healed and those who are being kept by the power of God.

Instantly Healed of Serious Lung Trouble.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, January 12, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Over two months ago I took a heavy cold, which developed into serious lung trouble.

I failed rapidly, and could hardly get to the office where I work.

December 22d, when you prayed for me, I was instantly and perfectly healed.

The soreness left my lungs at once and I have not coughed since.

I am rapidly regaining the flesh and strength I had lost.

Within the last year the report has reached me of over twenty o'clocks that I was supposed to be dead.

I can truthfully say I never felt better in my life nor enjoyed my work more than at the present time.

I am planning for New York in October.

Thanking God for His blessing and you for your prayers, I remain yours Truly,

H. C. COOY.

Raised from Sickness by Jesus, the Christ.

PULLMAN, ILLINOIS, December 21, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your letter was received, in which you stated that you prayed for me.

God has answered the petition. I went to see her on Monday, the 14th instant, and she was up and praises God.

She said that her healing was like an electric shock through her body, down one side and coming up the other.

She said that Jesus, the Christ, raised her up. We thank you for your prayers, and our daily prayers are that God will bless and protect you.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) B. A. KLAWONN.

Instantly Healed when Dying of Heart Failure.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 31, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Peace to thee.

It is with a heart full of thanksgiving and praise to thee that I write these words of testimony and praise.

I had overworked this past summer, and for some time I would at times feel weak and exhausted. I also suffered from heart failure.

On the Tuesday before Thanksgiving Day, while at the Divine Healing meeting, the Devil tried hard to take my life.

The heart refused to act for a time, and I was sinking fast.

I could not pray, but I had full trust in God.

An Elder prayed with me, and you, dear General Overseer, kindly came and prayed for me, and, praise His Holy Name, I felt a warm thrill go through my entire body, and the heart began its work.

I have not had an attack since.

Praise God that I am entirely delivered of all weakness, and the heart action is perfect.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) B. C. THOMPSON.

Miraculous Healing in Answer to Prayer.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 10, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel that I ought no longer put off testifying to some of the blessings I have received since coming into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, for God has wonderfully blessed me and mine.

In May, 1901, I was healed of rheumatism, to which I had been subject for many years. At one time I was confined to the bed and house one year, the greater part of the time in bed, not able to help myself.

Since then the Devil has tried hard to destroy my body.

At one time, in answer to prayer, I was quickly healed of pneumonia.

In December, 1901, I was healed of a cough and a severe hemorrhage, when my wife and Elder Fockler prayed.

At one time, in answer to prayer, I was quickly healed of pneumonia.

In December, 1901, I was healed of a cough and a severe hemorrhage, when my wife and Elder Fockler prayed.

Last July, through impudence and over-lifting, I had a return of the hemorrhage. A telephone message was sent you and I was quickly healed, and have had no return of the trouble since.

Praise God!

Wife has been healed several times when very sick. Only two weeks ago she was taken very sick with a high fever, vomiting and severe pains from head to foot.

After she had suffered all day, I found we could not get the victory ourselves, so went for Elder Hall at West Side Tabernacle.

When he came and prayed for her the fever left her, and she was relieved of pain, and in a few days gained her usual strength.

"What a wonderful Savior is Jesus, my Lord!"

We have many spiritual blessings as well as physical, for which we praise God.

We are blessed in paying tithes and offerings. Through your teaching I have given up several secret orders that I had been connected with for a good many years.

I have given up the insurance on my life, for you made it plain to me that I could not retain it and fully trust God for spirit, soul and body.

The taste for tobacco was taken from me.

I thank God that my wife and I are one in the Lord.

We have much to be thankful for at this close of the year.

I give God all the praise and thank you, dear General Overseer, for your prayers for me and mine.

I thank God that He supplies me with strength from day to day. Your brother in the Christ,

WILLIAM V. WALKER.

Healed of Chronic Diseases in Answer to Prayer.

W. C. SAYERS, of Wilmington, Ohio, writing under date of January 6, 1903, says:

I write to make acknowledgment of your past kindnesses and the effectiveness of your prayers.

About eighteen months ago you were kind enough to pray for me, and I was healed completely of chronic constipation and bleeding piles.

Best of all, my experience has brought me into a blessed spiritual condition that I never enjoyed before.

I thank God for the healing, and you for your messages in Leaves of Healing.

We believe, in spite of all newspaper reports, that you are a righteous man, and that "the prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

May God bless you and protect you.

Healed of Sudden Attack of Severe Illness at Time of Prayer.

CANNON CITY, COLORADO, December 22, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—On the afternoon of October 21st, my father and I were in Victor, Colorado, when he was taken suddenly with a terrible pain through his right lung and with hard chills.

He grew worse until sometime after dark I telegraphed you for prayer. Before that he could only get breath in short gasps and was in terrible agony.

Shortly after the telegram was sent he began to breathe easier and in a short time slept.

He kept gaining, and while the pain did not entirely leave him for some time, yet he was able to ride down to Canon City in a heavy wagon three days afterwards. God has most wonderfully strengthened and healed him entirely of the sudden attack.

Thanking you sincerely for your prayers in our behalf, I am,

Humbly your servant in Jesus,

ALBERT G. RANDOLPH.
Twelfth street.

NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary.

Zion Tabernacle, 135 Girard avenue; services, Sundays, 10 a.m. and 7:45 p.m.; Tuesdays, 8 p.m.; Wednesdays 3:30 p.m.; Thursdays, 6 p.m.

Rev. Gideon Hammond, although placed in charge of the work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in the great city of Philadelphia, nevertheless, from time to time visits our Branches and Gatherings in the surrounding country.

He sends the following interesting report of some of his labors:

DEAR BROTHER: I am glad to send you a brief report of our work in Philadelphia, since May 181, the beginning of our church year.

Aside from many with whom we know nothing about, in various meetings here and elsewhere, twenty-eight persons have definitely given themselves to God.

Seventy-seven persons have been healed of various diseases, without the hindrances of doctors' drugs.

Forty-eight have been baptized.

Sixteen men and boys have given up the use of tobacco.

Forty-nine applications for membership have been sent in.

Deacon Kelchner and myself have made 501 calls.

Our membership is now 135.

Zion Seventies and Restorationists have sold 9,218 copies of LEAVES OF HEALING and 36,000 copies of TANAKH.

Four hundred fifty meetings have been conducted—139 of these led by myself.

We have sixty juniors; thirty in our central branch and thirty in two other little missions.

One hundred forty-one open-air meetings have been held with an estimated attendance of 17,000.

The work of Zion Restoration Host in bringing the knowledge of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living to the inhabitants of the world, is clearly delineated in the following beautiful text of Scripture:

Verse 1: Arise, shine, for thy Light is come, and the Glory of Jehovah is risen upon thee.

Verse 2: We are glad to know that Zion in Philadelphia is engaged in this wonderful work.

Zion Restoration Host not only visits the sick and sinful in Philadelphia, but in the surrounding cities and villages.

As Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil, so Zion Restoration Host, anointed of God with power for service, is not content to remain at home, but goes about doing good, bringing the truth of Divine Healing to those who are sick and afflicted, and otherwise oppressed of Satan.

Elder Hammond continues as follows:

During the summer, fourteen of Zion Seventies from Philadelphia did special work at the following places:

In Philadelphia, at Souderton, Quakertown, South Bethlehem, Bethlehem, Rittersville, Allenstown, Nazareth, Hecktown, Macungie, Reading, Lebanon, Harrisburg, Carlisle, New Kingston; in New Jersey at Atlantic City, Cape May, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Holly Beach, Wildwood, Ocean City.

The work consisted of house-to-house visits, distributing Zion Literature at the pleasure resorts, street meetings and cottage meetings.

The calls made at these places, and Philadelphia, have been nearly 10,000; the majority of these calls, however, have been made in Philadelphia.

Since Satan transforms himself into an Angel of Light, and his ministers into the ministers of Righteousness, it is no marvel that the agencies which he uses to extend his kingdom by increasing sickness, disease and death are so named that the people are deceived.

He thus puts darkness for light and evil for good.

Elder Hammond calls attention to this fact in the following:

We are so often more impressed with the fact that the Devil has played a sharp trick on humanity by calling drugs medicine.

He has done just what he always tries to do, and that is to take a good name and put it on a bad article.

While the word medicine is used seven times in the Bible, in no case has it reference to drugs.

The good word medicine, which comes from the Latin word medicus, meaning healing and life, should not be placed upon an article which drugs and kills.

Our people in the large seaport cities have a great opportunity for extending the Kingdom of God by obeying the injunction of the Scripture, "Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days." Our people in Philadelphia realize this fact, and two persons of these women were largely aggravated by the doctors' devilish drugs.

The only thing that has been a success is the money that the doctors have got.

One man, quite deaf, who has recently given himself to God, received instantaneous healing when prayer was offered for him.

Another woman, whom fifteen doctors have been unable to help during the past six years, came to one of our meetings, and received healing, and is now happily telling her friends and neighbors what a blessing has come to her.

The diseases of these women were largely aggravated by the doctors' devilish drugs.

A woman who injured her knee last Christmas, and who was lame ten months, having constant pain, was completely healed of lameness and all soreness in ten minutes after prayer.

A woman at Morgantown, Mrs. L. M. Bent, who has been in bed ten years, not having stood upon her feet in that time, is now able to walk about the house, after two or three visits by Deacon Kelchner.

The crook in her back, which made a hole large enough to put the fist in, has straightened and healed her strength is fast returning.

She told her former Methodist minister that she did not believe that all the prayers of the Philadelphia conference could have raised her from her bed. He said that they did not pretend to pray for such things.

The Christ calls Divine Healing, in His talk with the Syrophoenician woman, the children's bread.

This Methodist minister as much as said that they did not pretend to feed their people with the Bread of Life.

A father could scarcely be excused from giving his children bread simply because he did not pretend to.
We find it quite difficult to keep up our number of members, as so many have recently gone to Zion City.

We are delighted to have the privilege of training the children and young people for straightforward and aggressive work.

We are glad to see that young men and women can become such excellent workers.

It is our desire to get hold of more children so that we can form them from the worldliness and indifference of the denominations of the day, and to teach them to trust God for their bodily healing and also to work for Him.

I have taken special delight in doing some Zion Restoration work lately with my two little daughters.

I find that they do not dread it and never look upon it as irksome.

We are glad to have them, not only in our Zion Junior Bible school, but glad to have them in our Zion Junior School.

We see that the public schools are just as mechanical and superficial as are the denominations.

I recently visited a school where the teacher is getting a good salary, and I was thoroughly disheartened in seeing the lack of thoroughness.

We are sure our children in Zion Junior school are being taught, neither of which are being taught in the public schools; these are, thoroughness and obedience.

On Thanksgiving Day Deaconess Orman took some of the pupils down-town to sell Leaves of Healing.

They were greatly delighted and had a very profitable time. One of them sold ten papers; others sold eleven, ten, eight, etc.

We are constantly living with the thought in mind that the Christ is to come.

We desire, more and more, to get hold of boys and girls and to teach them and lead them that they will be of special use to Him during the Millennium.

We are sure that our work is a preparation for that time, hence our ministry must be continued after the Christ comes.

Wooster and Orrville, Ohio.

Deacon Thomas Henderson, who is in charge of the work at West Salem, Ohio, has the Spirit of Jesus, the Christ, in that he believes that he should not only preach the Gospel in his own city, but that he should also proclaim it in the surrounding cities and villages. He writes of his work as follows:

Dear General Overseer:—I will drop you a few lines to tell you of my visits to Wooster and Orrville, Ohio.

We held a meeting at the home of Sister Burkholder, near Orrville.

There were eighteen people present, and we had a grand good meeting.

God was present and His Word was powerfully handled.

I think that when I go again I will be able to send in two or three applications for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

When the meeting was over, I was asked to go to a home near by to pray for the healing of the daughter of a woman who was at the meeting.

I complied with her request, and before I was through praying for the first one, another mother brought her baby for me to pray for its healing, which I did.

One of our members said that two persons in Orrville had asked me to visit them and pray for their healing, but I could not, as I had an appointment at Wooster at 7 p. m.

When I started for Wooster one young man who was at the meeting followed me out to the buggy and said that he would like to have a long talk with me on religious matters.

I had to ask him to excuse me for the time, as I was afraid I would be late in getting to the other meeting.

I told him I hoped to be able to grant his request when I came again.

You see that God is at work among the people in this place.

We got to Wooster in time for our meeting.

It began to rain before night, and although it rained all night and about all day Monday, we had a good meeting.

One brother, who has lately joined Zion, told in his experience how the Lord had healed him.

There was one request for prayer sent in by a young mother for her babe, that it might be healed of bowel trouble and we complied with her request.

We stayed all night with Peter Bahl, of Wooster, a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

At 8:30 a. m. we started for home, driving eighteen miles through the rain, and found our family all well.

Today a minister of the Evangelical church came to see me, asking me to tell him about Zion City.

I did so, and gave him Zion papers to read.

I also gave him two applications to look over.

He has left, or is about to leave the Evangelical church.

This is the second Evangelical minister to visit me since my return from Zion City.

The last one has already left the Evangelical church.

I gave him a blank to fill out to become a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and I think that he will soon come into Zion.

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI AND KANSAS.

Zion Tabernacle, 918 East Nineteenth street, Kansas City, Missouri.

Deacon Charles E. Robinson, although but lately ordained to the ministry of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion has been doing effective work in Kansas City.

He writes of his work as follows:

A few days ago we had a testimony meeting in our Tabernacle, which is located at 918 East Nineteenth street, Kansas City, Missouri.

I append hereto an abbreviated statement of some of the testimonies given.

God has blessed us with a considerable number of remarkable healings which are not included in the testimonies given below.

Among these there is a case of immediate delivery from heart disease, a case of healing of gall bladder and other serious complications, the healing of a young man, who had worn glasses since his fourth year, changing them twice a year for glasses of different focus.

He has no need for glasses now.

We have just organized our Zion Restoration work.

The last two Sundays we disposed of 126 copies of Leaves and sent about 650 families, giving the Message to all.

The workers are in high glee over the profitable launching of this work.

The Deacon-in-charge conducts, personally, eight services each week.

God is making the cottage-meetings a power for good in this city.

We have had several remarkable occurrences connected with the matter of eating unclean meats.

Mr. Walton, who was learning how to trust God for his healing, sent his daughter for some fish, telling her not to get catfish.

She told the butcher she wanted fish, but not catfish.

The butcher sold her a piece of catfish, though none of the Waltons knew it.

It was nicely cooked, but a few mouthfuls served to make Mr. Walton violently sick.

They afterwards learned what kind of fish it was.

The family had a rabbit given to them.

They talked it over and concluded the rabbit was not forbidden.

However, after they had eaten it, Mr. Walton was again taken sick.

On looking in their Bible after dinner, they found rabbit was forbidden.

Mrs. Blanchard, tiring of beef, and not knowing that system were unclean, bought some and ate them.

She became very sick.

The testimonies referred to above are as follows:

R. B. Robinson, 904 Euclid avenue, Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Blanchard.—When one of my friends was ill, some of the testimonies given.

I called on our leader to pray.

"My wife says that in a moment of time my heart ceased its wild struggle for life, and beat properly.

"I at once fell asleep and slept like a child.

"This was the beginning.

"Through Zion teaching I was soon at peace with God.

"In answer to prayer, God completely killed the disease.

"I gained a pound in weight every day for twenty days.

"I had a weak heart all my life.

"It was all healed.

"A few weeks ago my heart trouble came back and I seemed very near death.

"I kneeled in my office and prayed to God.

"I received instant deliverance, but several times that day I had occasion to pray about it.

"Before the day was over I had obtained entire deliverance."

Mrs. D. W. C. Bower, 630 Sandusky street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"I love the 18th Psalm.

When I first sought healing I was in no condition to secure it.

"I had been an active church-member for ten years, but when it came down to life and death I found nothing to help.

"Deacon Hard Cledin sent me Leaves of Healing.

"I studied the papers carefully and with an obedient spirit.

"I was for a long time just hovering between life and death, so that none who knew me then and see me now can take any exception to my positiveness in saying I have been fully healed."

J. E. Edsberg, 630 Sandusky street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"It is over six years since God took me from the depths of hell.

"Terribly sick and terribly wicked, I was induced to hear the General Overseer preach.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Mrs. E. C. Easter, 809 North Fifth street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"I never had good health in my early life.

"An accident gave me paralysis of the lower bowel.

"I had hysterical and bladder trouble developed into Bright's disease.

"In 1901 my cough was diagnosed as a well-defined case of consumption.

"I had a cancerous tumor, which, when it came from the bowels, looked like slices of liver mingled with blood, and was sufficient to fill a ten-quart pail.

"I had fistula, piles and female troubles so fully that I nearly lost my mind, my memory being almost wholly destroyed.

"I had a terrific battle with the Devil, but, through the prayers and teachings of the General Overseer and those taught by him, by the Grace of God I am here today perfectly whole, without having resorted to a single remedy for nearly eight years.

"My cancerous tumor, Bright's disease and consumption were inherited.

"I weighed 108 pounds, but now I weigh 172 pounds, and able to do all my own work, besides a great deal of work outside.

"I thank God from my heart for it all."

JOHN LONG, 2358 Jefferson street, Kansas City, Missouri.—"I praise God for all He has done for me.

"I was very sick.

"I had locomotor ataxia.

"Getting a little relief from that, I got a sun-stroke, which just about finished me up.

"Doctoring did no good.

"I praise God He showed me this place.

"I came here and heard the teaching.

"I then applied for prayer.

"I was a great smoker.

"Mr. Robinson told me that I would have to clean up if I wished God to undertake my case.

"I told him I would go home and come again.

"I came back that night and told Mr. Robinson that I had burned my pipe.

"He said that he would pray for God to deliver me from the appetite.

"This prayer was immediately and miraculously answered.

"The next Sunday he prayed for my healing, and again God answered.

"I am so glad for my wonderful deliverance.

"I am now sound and well."

JOHN JACOB LEFFERT, 113 East Thirteenth street, Kansas City, Missouri.—"I had been using tobacco for seventeen years.

"I often tried to quit in my own strength, but could not.

"I went to LEAVES OF HEALING.

"I would read a little and throw it down.

"The reading did not suit me.

"But I would come back to it again and again.

"New Year's Day, God gave me grace to get free from tobacco, a great love for pool and the theater.

"I am free.

"We run a restaurant.

"We sold cigars and served pork.

"Mr. Robinson finally succeeded in persuading us to give these things up.

"We expected it to hurt our business greatly.

"It did hurt us for a few days, but now we seem to be doing a better business than ever before.

"We give God the praise."

MRS. LEONORA LEFFERT, 113 East Thirteenth street, Kansas City, Missouri.—"I rejoice and praise the Holy Name of the Lord for complete deliverance from inflammatory rheumatism in my feet and ankles."

E. C. TUDMAN, 933 Everett street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"I was in Chicago, drinking, lying, cheating, smoking and unclean.

"I took sick.

"The grip developed into quick consumption.

"I was spilling up my very life's blood.

"My body was paralysed.

"I sent for the Elders.

"I confessed fully and forsook my sins wholly.

"God restored me to health immediately.

"My chronic sore throat was healed; my heart palpitation ceased.

"I had been full of sin and disease from my head to my feet.

"Elder Graves was one of the Elders who came to see me.

"I praise God for a complete deliverance of spirit, soul and body."

Privately I have in the past few days received the following testimonies:

MRS. SARAH BALL, 2408 Woodland avenue, Kansas City, Missouri.—"I had been suffering for several months with a pain in my side so severe that I had to be constantly kept under the influence of morphine.

"The doctors told me that I must go to the hospital and be operated on, but said that even then I would be an invalid for several months.

"Just as I was getting ready to go to the hospital I heard of Zion and came to hear Mr. Robinson teach.

"I asked him to pray, and he did.

"The second time he prayed I got complete deliverance.

"I have been wonderfully healed and am so happy.

"I give God the praise."

MRS. MELISSA MARTIN, 933 Everett street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"I had a needle in my knee.

"They told me at Fort Scott that it would necessitate the amputation of my leg.

"I came to Kansas City to see about it.

"I met my old friend Mrs. Thomas, and she told me about Zion.

"I came to the meeting, and Mr. Robinson taught me and prayed, and I was entirely healed.

"I have been canvassing for several weeks, walking up and down-stairs and from house-to-house all day long.

"I went into a house where a woman sat holding a baby.

"The doctor had just left, saying that the baby was dying, and that there was nothing further to be done.

"I showed the mother the truth and prayed for the child.

"He sat up and asked for food.

"He is now well and the mother has gone back to work.

"The same day I saw a lady in bed, who had one side paralyzed.

"I prayed with her and she was healed."

MRS. HOLLIDAY, 935 Everett street, Kansas City, Kansas.—"I had a cancer.

"It was about nine inches across.

"A big piece had rotted and fallen out of my breast.

"It fell down into my lap.

"Mr. Robinson came to my home and taught me the truth of Divine Healing.

"I was prayed for, and God wonderfully healed me.

"The cancer is gradually leaving.

"I can now help about the work, and have no pain at all.

"I can go all about the neighborhood, telling about my healing."

Praise and Testimony

Five Children Quickly Healed.

STERLING, CONNECTICUT, December 30, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I received your blank letter dated December 21st, and give you many and earnest thanks for your prayers for my six children.

They got well, and are out of doors. We give God all the praise.

God has been my Healer for five years. I always take my children to Him, and He has saved them more than once.

I wish the world could see what I see. My boy was healed of a very bad cough. I think that he had lung trouble.

He was very ill, and as soon as I sat down and wrote the letter, he began to get better. At the end of two days he was as well as ever.

My oldest son, John, was well the next morning after I sent the request for prayer.

My husband and I are sure that the Great Physician is the only One to call upon.

Just think of five children sick and healed almost at once. I gave no medicine after I prayed to God, and after you prayed.

My dear little baby is all right; no sores on her beautiful face, and not one on her anywhere; she was a terrible sight—the sores all raw and bleeding.

Thank God, my husband does not raise any more tobacco; our home is better; the children love me better, and are more obedient. Your prayers are answered.

Our hearts are in Zion; and, oh, how we long to see you.

May God give you many happy years with us here on earth.

Your sister in the Christ, A. E. McGregor.

God Hear Prayer for Mother.

BERRYVILLE, WISCONSIN, December 18, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I want to tell you how God has answered your prayers for me. After my baby was born my breasts began to get sore and I had considerable pain through my body.

We wrote you to pray for me, and God heard and took the trouble entirely away.

Later I began to do my housework, and the Devil caused me to have a hemorrage.

We prayed and it stopped, but a week later I had another which was quite severe and made me very weak.

We wrote at once for you to pray and God healed me.

Seven weeks have elapsed and I have had no return of the trouble.

I do thank you, dear General Overseer, for your prayers and am grateful for your prayers of our dear Zion people here and in Zion City.

We do feel thankful to God, our Father, for hearing and answering prayer, and for our dear baby boy.

Wishing you and your wife a Happy New Year, I remain,

Your sister in the Christ, Mina B. Madison.
LIGHT naturally comes first to the eastern lands and extends to the western.

The beautiful island continent of Australia, the land of the sun rising, caught the first rays from the Sun of Righteousness when He arose in these Latter Days with Healing in His wings.

He had arisen on the world centuries before and for some years the Church of God had walked in His Light.

The world turned away from this Light to the darkness of pagan belief in doctors and medicine.

The history of medicine traces its origin back to the worship of heathen deities. Very early in the history of mankind, God declared Himself the Healer of the people, telling them that healing should come through keeping His laws.

This Declaration is embodied in the Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living which the Messenger of the Covenant is teaching today. (Exodus 15:26; Malachi 3:1.)

This truth came to God's Messenger in Australia, in the year 1878, as he sat one day in his study, bowed with grief over the ravages of an epidemic, which, like a fierce wolf, was carrying off his flock.

Then he cried unto the Lord in His distress and there came to him a ray from the Sun of Righteousness, showing him the Christ, the Healer of the people.

This was the beginning of his worldwide ministry of Divine Healing through the preaching of the Full Gospel.

This remarkable story is told in a little book entitled "He Is Just the Same Today."

It has been greatly blessed to many readers, leading to conversions and healings.

A part of the story of the years following, a hint of the great work in Australia, has been beautifully told in the article, "How I Came to Speak for Jesus," by our beloved Overseer of women's work, Rev. Jane Dowie, who has taken a very important part in this ministry of healing.

The course of God's Empire took its way westward when His Messenger left Australia, and, in the year 1888, entered the Golden Gate at San Francisco to plant the Banner of Zion on the shores of the western world. (Revelation 7:12; Isaiah 41:25.)

The wonderful work which God did, through His messengers, along the Pacific coast, is given in the book entitled "American First Fruits" and "The Second Year's Harvest."

These are like a continuation of the "Acts of the Apostles."

Persecutions followed the preaching of the Full Gospel as in the Primitive Apostolic Church, to restore which God has used His Messenger.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion is the Restoration of the Early Apostolic Church and not a new denomination. An account of its organization is given in a pamphlet entitled "The Organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion."

The sermons entitled "If it be Thy Will" and "Permission and Commission," published in Leaves of Healing and in pamphlet form, have carried the light of God's willingness to heal the sick, to a multitude of weary sufferers who believed they were suffering the Will of God in sickness. (Matthew 8:17.)

The tract entitled "The Woman of Canaan," shows what conditions may prevent God's Good Gift of Healing from coming to the sick, and how to get where God is able to heal them.

"How to Pray," teaches us how to pray to the Father in the Name of Jesus as our Lord taught His disciples and to obtain answers to prayer.

Since our Lord attached so much importance to Baptism, commanding the Apostles in His last words to "make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," surely the method which He instituted in the Early Church must have been the right one.

Since the Ordinance is an outward symbol of the inward work done in the believer by the Holy Spirit, the method used is of great importance.

When Paul found believers who had not been baptized properly, he had them baptized again. (Acts 19:2,9.)

It is important that Christians should investigate this subject for themselves.

The pamphlets entitled "The Christian Ordinance of Baptism by Triune Immersion," and the "Ordinance of Christian Baptism (eighteen centuries of proof)," are the result of much research and prayerful study on this subject.

The title of the lecture, "Zion's Protest Against Swine's flesh as a Disease Producer," sounds a loud note of warning which all will do well to heed.

This is why God in His Word forbids the eating of it, and even handling of the carcass of the filthy animal. (Deuteronomy 14:8.)

Zion uncovers Secretism and shows it in its true light, as the Baal-worship denounced in God's Word, in a series of lectures entitled "Secret Societies, the Foes of God, Home, Church and State," published in pamphlet form.

Christian Science is also exposed as a form of Spiritualism and a very dangerous error, in the pamphlets, "False Christian Science Unmasked," and "Christian Science Exposed as an Anti-Christian Imposture."

The small book entitled "Ye Are Come Unto Mount Zion and Will a Man Rob God?" shows this to be God's Zion of the latter days, and also teaches the importance of observing God's laws for tithes and offerings, which is binding upon the people today, since it has never been repealed. (Malachi 3:10.)

One of the most wonderful truths taught in Zion is that man's being a trinity of Spirit, Soul and Body.

This great truth, taught in the Scriptures and well known to the ancient heathen nations, has been lost sight of in the churches.

It is set forth in a pamphlet entitled "Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body."

This truth of man's trinity helps him to understand himself.

When he understands himself he will better understand God and all truth, because all truth is adapted to man's organization and it finds its expression in him.

Zion believes in the kind of sanctification that the Apostle Paul taught when he said:

And the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. (1 Thessalonians 5:23, 24.)

The children are very willing to come to God for healing.

Very many of them are healed instantly.

Oversee Jane Dowie has told the beautiful story of the healing of some of the children, in her booklet entitled "How Jesus Heals the Little Ones."

This shows parents the importance of bringing their children to God for healing instead of defiling their flesh with medicine.

Zion's booklets will repay, in connection with the Scriptures, the careful study of all who seek to know the truth.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

An earnest student who pursues this course will find himself much better prepared to do practical religious work than by any theological course which he can take in any college without it.

We can only give a partial notice of Zion's publications.

The extremely low price at which they are sold places them within the reach of all.

For less than one dollar, books can be selected which will furnish the best commentary on the Scriptures that has been published.

LEAVES OF HEALING going into the homes of the people weekly is a great educational power in the household.

The young and the old can find equal enjoyment in reading.

A Home Reading Circle, where LEAVES OF HEALING is read aloud each week, will be found very instructive and of great value in many ways. Zion Literature Mission has been organized to send Zion Literature over the world, to prepare the people for the coming of our Lord.

We ask you, dear reader, to help to the Mission to send forth these stirring truths of Zion to arouse the sleeping world—for, "Behold, the Bridgemoist cometh!"

At this time LEAVES OF HEALING fell into my hands.

I read it, my heart bounding for joy.

"That man is the only man in the world who preaches the Gospel."

My family thought that I was losing my head. Nevertheless, I went into the meetings and taught a Triune Baptism, and God greatly blessed me.

I soon saw plainly that this was the work which God had raised up to draw His people together, to be ready when the King appears.

God then showed me the uselessness of trying to build up the churches.

I saw, through reading LEAVES OF HEALING, that they had become apostate, and that the good people must be brought out.

I came to Zion Home, Chicago.

I found a man striking Sin in high places, as no other man had ever done.

Oh, how my heart rejoiced!

I then left the Christian Crusade work.

I found this the Apostolic religion which gives you a good fight all the time.

This is the Gospel which brings in the new drunkards and shows you how to obtain the power to live pure, godly lives.

For eleven years God has been our Healer.

How blessed it is to know that God has raised up a people, and has established His Kingdom where everyone, from the least to the greatest, stands upon the Full Gospel.

Thank God, that a little over three years Zion has given me more real satisfaction than all the rest of my life.

Now we have a place to put the people, where they are kept by the Power of God.

We have learned many blessed lessons in Zion. Praise God, He has sent us His Prophet, Eliah the Restorer.

How we love to carry this Restoration Message to sinful, suffering humanity!

I can say, in the glory of God, that I have never tasted accursed liquor since the night God delivered me in my office.

I thank God with all my heart that in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion we have a Church where the poor drunkard may know how God taught the Devil, that he may be kept when captured from the devil.

I knew a poor creature, after turning to God to deliver him from drink, is brought down again by whisky in drugs.

Temperance societies preach against whisky. They may at the same time go to the drug-store and take accursed drugs which have whisky in them.

The only Gospel which can keep the drunkard drunk is that which shows him how God taught the Devil.

And if you pray is that this testimony of what God has done for me may help many poor, sin-bound slaves to turn to Zion's God and be free.

Yours for the Master, DAVID A. REED.

OF ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE is 100,000 Yearly Subscribers to Leaves of Healing

Need We Say Why? IT IS, not only the Silent, White-Winged Messenger which carries the words given by God to the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of His Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, that Strong Messenger, to all men everywhere, doing the work of Restoration in men's spirits, souls, bodies, homes, workshops, offices, and stores, and in the church and nations; but IT IS, by constantly adding to the membership of the Church, building up Zion City and her Industries, making her people powerful and prosperous, and thus increasing the prosperity of every member and friend of Zion. It depends largely upon the loyalty and activity of members and friends whether the Publishing House realizes its Watchword for 1903.
GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

RAISED FROM DEATH AND INSTANTLY HEALED OF CONSUMPTION AND HEART DISEASE—PERFECTLY FREE FROM DISEASE MORE THAN FOURTEEN YEARS LATER.

The Dead Are Raised Up!

No more wonderful story of God's Love and Power is told in these times than that of this woman. She was dead and is alive. She was full of disease.

She was instantly healed at the time when she was brought back from beyond the gates of death.

Her lungs had been dug out by consumption.

God has completely restored them.

At sixty years of age, over fourteen years after her healing, her lungs are perfectly sound, and she is in splendid health.

This Miracle is the work of God, her Father.

It was wrought in the Name of Jesus, to whom All Power and All Authority in heaven and on earth have been given.

It was wrought in the Power of the Holy Spirit, by whom Jesus, the Christ, is with us according to His promise, "All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age."

It was wrought in answer to the prayer of the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer.

It is one of the Seals of God upon his ministry and prophetic mission.

The wonderful testimony of this Witness has appeared in "American First-fruits" and Leaves of Healing before.

In these publications it has been sent forth in hundreds of thousands throughout the earth. It has never been questioned or disputed by any who claimed to know the facts, although twelve years have elapsed since its first publication.

We send forth that wonderful story again, its truth more firmly established, if possible, than ever.

We give the testimony as told, so vividly and convincingly, by Mrs. Kelley herself and by the General Overseer, in Central Tabernacle, before thousands of auditors on Lord's Day afternoon, September 19, 1897.

We add to it a letter written by Mrs. Kelley only a few days ago, confirming all her previous testimonies, and praising God for His Keeping Power.

We also publish a recent portrait of the witness, which speaks more loudly than words of her excellent health and renewed youth.

Following these few words of introduction, we give the comments of the General Overseer upon this testimony as it was published in Leaves of Healing, Volume 4, Number 2.

No words which we might write could add anything to this testimony. Let those speak who were present, and beheld and experienced that mighty miracle.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. S. A. KELLEY.

(Extract from Leaves of Healing, Volume IV, Number 2, November 6, 1897, pages 19-24.)

"Raise the dead!"

What a wonderful command!

These three words are a part of the Commission to the First Twelve Apostles whom Jesus sent forth, and commanded, saying:

As ye go, preach, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

"Praise the Lord!"

"Cast out Devils!"

"Raise the dead!"

"Cure the lepers!"

"Freely ye have received, Freely give!"

This witness believes that she was raised from the dead! We also believe it. We were there at the time it happened. We were used of God in the doing of it. It is a wonderful story of Zion; but it is true, it matters not who sees or who denies. The facts remain, and all the powers of earth and hell combined cannot shake them.

She told it in San Francisco shortly after it happened, surrounded by her friends, in Union Square Hall of that city, on the evening of Monday, June 9, 1890, as is recorded in "Our Second Year's Harvest," pp. 129-131, which can be had in Zion Publishing House, Chicago. She has lived in San Francisco for many years, and still has her residence there, and she is a member of the First Baptist Church of that city.

She is a most intelligent, calm, clear-headed Christian lady, a widow and a mother, was educated for the medical profession, and thoroughly understands the gravity of her testimony.

It is one which grows in importance as the years pass. She was raised and healed, and has grown into a noble and beautiful womanhood, after having been a consumptive—that she was near unto death, but as she tells the story in the paper in Volume 1, No. 2. Now all had gone, and I had locked the door, and went with me to bed, and as we stood by the bed we both say, "Death!"
She had thrown herself back in her last expiring groan; it was that which made me turn quickly, and as I reached the bed I looked at her. Now, I have seen a great many people faint, and I have seen many in trances, and I did not get nervous, and death had no more terror for me than anything else, but I knew death when I see it. I have walked the hospital in Scotland and seen death; I have buried fifteen people a day in a pestilence, and I know death, and I saw death. The eyes were looking up expressionless, glassy, without sound, and there was no feeling of breath, and I said: "Death!" But with it there came this thought.

It was my last few months in San Francisco; many had been healed, and a vast congregation was waiting for us, but I felt I could not leave the room; that she had called for me to come, and I had come, just as I had said if the Lord would come because his daughter was at the point of death. Her brother did not know she was dead. "My sister," he had said, "is at the point of death;" he had said, "and now she is dead!"

With my good wife here we knelt down by that bedside, and I did what I did for the first time, and I never done it once. I do not know that I shall want to do it often. I knelt by her side, and I said:

"O God, she called or me while she was yet living; she knew that she would live; she expected life. I cannot tell her brother, her daughter and son that she is dead, and I cannot live.

I believed that God would bring her back. I do not know how long I prayed, and I do not know all that I said, but I know what I thought. Mrs. Dowie, of course, was in perfect sympathy with me. And then I waited.

Now, you do know one reason why you do not get answers to prayer is that alter you have prayed you keep on everlastingly talking and you do not wait?

I waited, and said: "Now, Lord, I expect to see the breath come back, the spirit return, that body awake as I had said it had awoke. I was standing there, and suddenly I felt the first tremor of her pulse upon my finger, and I saw that the spirit had come back, and then in a moment the rushes came again, the twitching of the lips, and then in the next moment the eyelids fell, and she was asleep. I do not know how many minutes I waited, but the pulse was restored, the heart was beating, there was a slight moisture in the palm, and the result was that I realized that she was fully alive, and, as I say, the moments and minutes passed. At last I did something like (snapping his finger) and she awoke.

What she then said she will tell. What Mrs. Dowie said she will tell. What I said does not matter. I am telling the story of her restoration to life now apart altogether from that incident of her healing. I want to have it placed again upon record after nine years.

I write Mrs. Kelley, to have you here in Zion Tabernacle to witness to what God has done for you.

The Lord bless you.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. S. A. KELLEY, 314 EDDY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. Kelley said:

"I believe my testimony has been given from the lips of our dear Brother Dowie more or less fully from time to time here in Zion, and the Little White Dove has carried it over the earth yearly.

"I have sent a little account of the keeping to Brother Dowie on that anniversary, and I count it an especial blessing from my Lord that He permits me to be here with you in person, a living Witness to His power to heal, and to raise from the dead. She is truly that is just what it is to heal and keep.

"I do not want to weary you by detail, but I just, as the Lord shall show me, want you to know about the case so that God may be glorified.

A SUFFERER FROM HEREDITARY TUBERCULOSIS.

"I was born of parents who were subject to consumption on both sides. My mother's people went down with rapid consumption. My father's people lived for years, and years, and years with the disease in the system, and died with it finally; so you see, I had a double handicap.

"Now, if there is a physician in this audience, will he please note that my disease was hereditary pulmonary tuberculosis. It was pronounced such by the best physicians of New York and Boston, and later, of San Francisco and Oakland, so I do not want any loophole for any one to say, 'Well, perhaps you thought it was so, but it was not.' It really was so.

"I was not very strong as a young person, and at the age of eighteen, through over-study, the disease developed; but curiously in my case, it would effect one lung for a time, and then that lung would heal, and it would attack the other one, and so on in that way I lived as I would not have done if the disease had been continuous in one lung.

ALSO FROM HEART DISEASE.

"Well, I was up and down, as the saying is, sometimes better and sometimes worse, and had heart disease as well. I had enlargement of the heart, so that my physician said that I should never go out alone without my address upon my person, because I was liable to fail dead at any time.

"When I was twenty-three years old I married and went to California, and for a time the change of climate was beneficial, and I got better, but not fully well.

"So I went on year after year, up and down, until in 1882, I had been for some time at one of the mineral springs of California, and had improved so much that I thought it safe to go home to the East; but many people there did not know that I was not able to answer many of them as much as he would like to; but would I come to his mission at the Y. M. C. A. building? Well, the dear doctor did not know that I could not leave my room, much less come to the Mission.

About that time he employed my brother as his stenographer, and I said: 'Oh, now I shall get help.' So when my brother would come home, I knew he had been working with him, and I would say: 'Did you say anything to Mr. Dowie about me?' and he would say: 'No, he has so much on hand.'

"Well, I knew that my brother felt that there was no hope for me anyway, and he did not want to say it outright, and so I left my hopes altogether; and he would put me off in that way. The first time that Brother Dowie came he was so thronged with people at his hotel he could not get a chance to attend to his correspondence, and my brother said to him: 'Now you come to our house, and I won't let a soul near you to trouble you, and we will write all day without interruption.'

TERRIBLE HEMORRHAGES.

"That was the 14th of September. That is the way we got him first, and at that time he prayed with me, and I received a blessing, as he said before; but later this frightful hemorrhage set in; the bowels were quite as badly affected as the lungs. As Brother Dowie has told you, on the 28th of October the crisis came, after I had two days and nights of dreadful suffering, my family around me constantly, and I had not been able to swallow a teaspoon of water for ten days, that I could swallow it but I could not retain it--much less food.

"My brother said to me--the first time he had given me a discouraging word--about 4 o'clock in the morning, the 28th, 'You cannot last very long; you will soon give over.'

"Well, that startled me a little, although I realized my condition myself. I said: 'Do you think that Brother and Sister Dowie would come again?' 'Well,' he said, 'I will go and see, but I..." cannot go very soon, because he works so late at night that he has to sleep in the morning.' He went about ten o'clock in the morning, and came back with the good news that they would be there at two o'clock. They were to open the closing meeting of the Mission at that hour; but would defer it for my sake.

* Well, I just held on to that, started holding on to the visible messengers of God.

[...] and the Christ was the Healer, and yet I looked for the healing through His instruments, but 2 o'clock came and they did not come, and I just felt as though my hold was going, like a drowning man feels when he cannot hold on to a rope any longer.

THE CRISIS.

- At 2 o'clock they came, as he has just told you, and I remember that he asked my family to go out, and I remember where Sister Dowie was seated, and he said: 'I will lock the door lest we be interrupted,' and that is the last I knew. I just remember how his back looked as he went to lock that door.

- Then I was gone.

- And the next I knew I heard Brother Dowie say: 'How do you feel?' and I felt as though the very agony of death was upon me, the renewing of the circulation, the passing of the circulation gave that agony. It seemed to me as though it were the very agony of death, and this dear, blessed woman (embracing Mrs. Dowie) I shall never forget how she looked like an angel, as she was. She looked down on me, and she said: 'Yes, it is the death of the disease.'

- And I caught it at once, and I said: 'Yes, it is the death of the disease.'

Then, from that on I came up. Now I say this for those who are inquiring the Way of Healing, for your encouragement; that while I realized that the disease was killed, I had the assurance that God meant that I should live and be well, yet my strength came little by little.

- That same afternoon I heard a Voice say: 'Rise and walk.'

- Well, I had not been able to lift my head, and my family were afraid—a little startled when I was able to see. Brother Dowie had been sitting, was a handkerchief chief. Well, I caught hold of the chair, held on to it, walked through quite a long hall from my bedroom to the parlor, and sat down upon my reclining chair; it was about halfway up. Soon the dinner bell rang, and the Voice said: 'Rise and eat.'

- Well, as I tell you, I had not been able to eat anything in quite a long time, and I said: 'I want some dinner.' 'Well, my daughter said, 'what can you eat?' I replied: 'Just the same as the rest have,' and she went down and sent the same as the others had—turkey, vegetables, and so on. I sat up and ate. I did not eat dressing and onions, but I ate turkey and bread. It did not do me one bit of harm. Courteously, it did me a great deal of good. Of course it was little while it seemed the Voice said to me: 'It is enough; return to your room.' So I did, and lay down. My brother was going to report the maturing that evening, and he said: 'You better give me that handkerchief to take back.' 'No,' I said,

- YOU DO NOT GET THIS HANDKERCHIEF.

I will send another one, but you cannot have this.* I had a new one that I had not used at all, and I said: 'You take and give this to Sister Dowie in place of Brother Dowie's handkerchief. I am going to keep that, because in the days of the apostles the spiritual gifts were taken from the ministers of the Lord to those that were sick and they were healed, and I am going to keep this handkerchief with me,' and so I did.

- Well, I gained strength slowly, and I was not able to go out until the next February; but there was the constant assurance that God had healed me and was now perfecting the strength. And I want to say to you that, as precious as this healing is to me, and has been all along, and as blessed as it has been to my family that I could have a well body and minister unto them, I count it as a very small thing compared with gave that life to my body. But I realize that this is a precious life that is given from Him, and that I have a responsibility in the way in which I use it.

HEALD FOR NINE YEARS.

- Well, I have gone on from year to year, until this is the ninth year this healing has stood.

- I think I shall tell you that four years ago last month I was hastily summoned to my sick mother in the East. I left California in the heat of summer, and crossed those awful mountains, where I suffered and nearly died six years before, without feeling the altitudes at all; in fact, if I had not seen the mountains, I should not have known that I was at an altitude of 11,000 feet, as I was at the Tennessee Pass on the Denver and Rio Grande road. I went through the heat of Kansas, that awful heat on the prairies all along, and the Lord graciously fulfilled His promise:

The sun shall not smile thee by day, nor the moon by night.

CALLS UPON HER CHESTER PHYSICIAN.

- Well, you may be sure I called upon my physician when I got back there, this one who had brought me to California, and he stood back as though he would fall when he saw me.

- *'Why,' he said, 'is it possible that I see you so well?' I had to assure him two or three times over. Then I said to him: 'Do you remember the condition my lungs were in when you left me in California?' He replied: 'Certainly; the worst that I had over you for three years fixed the condition of your lungs indubitably upon my mind, so I can tell exactly how they were.'

- *'Well, now,' I said, 'I have excellent use of them but I do not know whether I have whole lungs, or whether just portions of healed lungs, and I would like you to examine them and tell me.' So he said he would, and did, and he sat back and looked at me two or three minutes before replying, and said: 'This is a wonderful thing."

A MIRACLE HAS BEEN BROUGHT. THIS IS NOTHING LESS THAN THE POWER OF GOD. THERE IS NOTHING KNOWN IN MEDICAL THERAPEUTICS LIKE THIS.

- The upper portion of each lung was gone when I saw you last in California, and now they are fully restored, and the grunting adhesion or two they will never give you any trouble. Your lungs are just as full and sound and well as though you never had any disease.

- *Now, I said, 'is that a testimony to the power of God? I had been satisfied that the lung tissue had been restored, I was pretty nearly overwhelmed with the wonderful love of God and His wonderful interposition in my behalf; and I have no trouble with my heart."

NOW, this year I came over the mountains again and I was not troubled all at all. The altitudes did not do me any harm, and I am going on the same errand I was on before—to minister to my sick mother, trusting the Lord to raise her up as He did before.*

- She is on the verge of the same disease, consumption, but He restored her before in answer to prayer, and I trust He will again.

- This is the ninth year this healing has stood. I know that those who do not believe as we do, say: 'Oh, nervous diseases are helped in that land perhaps organ to try me, but it has been for a time, and it will all come back.' I have had them say that to me.

OBEDIENCE NECESSARY.

- Well, now, it has not come back on me, and I know that if I walk as I should in obedience to my Lord, it will never come back on me.

- I am busy at home, busy from early morning until late at night. If any of you have been in San Francisco much, you know we have fog here, dampness, chilly winds; and, of course in winter we have rains; but I am able to go out in the evenings in the fog, and in the rains, if need be, and in the daytime all about, and the Lord healed me of that disease right there, and He has kept me well these nine years.

- Many say that one cannot recover from lung diseases on the coast; so you see in all this how great is the power of the Lord, and how blessedly He will use those who are yielded up to Him.

- Four years ago I was here, not in this place, but I was in Chicago, and I was in Tabernacle No. 1.

- I praise His Name, as I stand before you here in this building, for what God has wrought, and it is a great testimony to how God will honor the man who dares to speak out His truth.

HER DELIGHT AS A QUEST IN ZION.

- *And as I was a guest in Zion last night everything was so peaceful; everything was so sweet. 'Oh, I said, 'how blessed it is to be a follower of the Lord, and I want to tell you, beloved, that there is a great volume of prayer going up all and down the Pacific Coast for this work, for Brother and Sister Dowie; and all along, as I have been from San Diego in California on the south to Victoria in British Columbia on the north I hear people saying: Praise God that He ever sent Brother Dowie to our coast."

- So the eyes of many, many people are upon you here, and we feel that Chicago has reason to rejoice, that God has wonderfully favored her in permitting such servants of His to abide in your midst and to do His work.

THE JOY OF BEING DIVINELY HEALED.

- Now, I suppose there are many here present who have felt the Divine touch, who have been healed as I have been, and I need not tell you the joy, the peace and the blessedness that comes from such glorious relationship with our Lord; and to those who are inquiring the way, and perhaps are a little bewildered, I can say, believe God's Word. That is the foundation, and I am sure you cannot have a more thorough teacher than our good brother, to whom, and to God, I owe my present life and health.

- Now, if there is any one present who does not know this Jesus, Oh! I want to say to you, do not put Him aside: these blessings are for every one. He is no respecter of persons. He is just the same yesterday, today and forever. He is just as ready to heal one, and to save one, as another, if they only meet His conditions. The Word says, and I know it is true, that His commandments are not grievous.

- Now, I just want to say, the last time I was weighed, before I was confined to my room at the time of my sickness, I weighed ninety-six pounds.
and I must have fallen away a good deal from that.

"I weig 160 pounds good and strong.

and I think every one that sees me will say I do not look very much like a consumptive.

"I DO NOT KNOW THAT THERE IS A BIT OF DISEASE IN MY BODY, and I give all the praise and the glory to my Lord Jesus, the Christ, and I am glad to pray for all of you here, and for all this work, and I thank the Lord for permitting me to be here with you."

A MESSAGE TO THE PACIFIC COAST.

Dr. Dowie—I want Mrs. Kelley to take a message back to the Pacific Coast. Every one in this meeting who has been healed through faith in Jesus, the Christ, and I am glad to pray for all of that testimony; here is the force of it. And I give all the praise and the glory to my Lord for permitting me to be here with you."

"I DONOT KNOW THATTHERE IS A BITOF DISEASE IN

"I am going to be healed, because I do will all he tells me. He has got the old-time religion."

"I am going to be healed, because I do will all he tells me. He has got the old-time religion."

"I am going to be healed, because I do will all he tells me. He has got the old-time religion.

"I am going to be healed, because I do will all he tells me. He has got the old-time religion.

"I am going to be healed, because I do will all he tells me. He has got the old-time religion.

Mrs. Kelly testifies that she saw her less than a week ago, and that her trouble had never returned.

Now I thank God for that, and for the thousands and tens of thousands of healings between.

RECENT WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. S. A. KELLEY.

553 O'FARRELL STREET,

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

January 14, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Reading the testimonies of "God's Witnesses to Divine Healing" from week to week, it is impressed upon me to honor and glorify Him in testimony to His keeping.

I told the wonderful story of my healing in answer to the prayer of dear Brother Dowie, on the platform of the "little wooden hut" in September, 1893, and repeated it with four years' additional testimony, to thousands assembled in Central Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, on September 19, 1897.

Now, fourteen years, two months and seventeen days, from that one great day when the strong crying of General Overseer John Alexander Dowie brought me back from beyond death's portals, where it is believed my spirit had gone, I can testify to the honor and glory of Jehovah-Rophi, not only that He is "able," but that He hath "kept that which I have committed unto Him."

At this moment my lungs are perfectly sound, and I have not a particle of organic disease in my body.

Although the shock of repeated sore bereavements hand four years past have somewhat shaken my nerves, yet I am able to do as much as some and more than many of my age (sixty years).

Through over-effort and almost unpardonable impropriety in outside benevolent work last fall, I had a sharp attack of pneumonia, but praises be to our Lord, it quickly passed, leaving no cough or trace, not even sensitiveness.

I am going out and about, feeling well and grateful all the time to my heavenly Father, who has condescended to make known unto us the riches of His glory in the Christ Jesus, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

If these lines reach any discouraged ones, I would say to them as Brother Dowie has in His discourses, "he patient, like the husbandman in Scripture and wait God's time, if the blessing does not come at the moment of prayer."

He has His own way of answering and sometimes delays answering prayer that some better things may be wrought out for us.

May He bless this testimony wherever it goes, and spare the lives of His faithful servants in Zion City to accomplish all His purposes.

I wish that all Zion would pray for me, that He may make the best possible use of me.

My love to them.

Yours in Him,

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Ben MacDhui, Montague, Michigan,
January 23, 1903

The General Overseer has retired to Ben MacDhui for a few days’ rest from the pressure of work in Zion City.

He has revised the Message of last Lord’s Day and Report of the last Early Morning Meeting of 1902, which appear in this issue; but there is not time for him to write either a General Letter or Editorial Notes.

He sends his loving greetings to all in Zion, and rejoices to be able to say that he and Overseer Jane Dowie, who is with him, are enjoying the stillness of the lovely Winter scenes around the beautiful White Lake.

They are in excellent health, and expect to return in a few days much refreshed and strengthened for the duties, responsibilities, and privileges of their Ministry.

"TILL HE COME."
THE Messages of Elijah the Restorer, unveiling the apostasies of the various portions of the fallen and disunited church of the Christ, are not railing accusations.

They are not the mere brawlings of an envious, unfriendly, and unreasoning critic.

They are not wholesale and unfounded recriminations hurled at these organizations in malicious and impotent fury.

They are not broad generalizations and sweeping charges brought in ignorance or in total disregard of the facts.

On the contrary, they are the result of long years of patient, painstaking and exhaustive study of the men and times out of which the various sects grew, and of a close, careful and unbiased observation of present conditions in all parts of the world.

They are powerful, unsparing of evil and error, and as destructive as the fiercest fire, but they are inspired, not by envy or malice, but by Divine Love.

There is, indeed, an intensity of hatred for the false teachings and practices into which the so-called churches have fallen, but that very intensity is a measure of his love for the people, who have been deceived and led astray.

Never was this spirit of absolute truthfulness, fairness and love more manifest than in the second Message in the unveiling of Methodist Apostasy, which was delivered in the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day afternoon, January 18, 1903.

The man of God took up again the life, character and work of the founder of Methodism, John Benjamin Wesley, whom he held to be an apostolic and prophetic man.

Passing by all that was non-essential in his long and intensely interesting career, God's Messenger dealt, with inspired insight, with the words, deeds and beliefs of John Wesley which had their bearing upon all the subsequent history of the organization which he founded.

While acknowledging the high character, deep piety, complete consecration, splendid ability, and, in many things, inspired wisdom of the subject of his Message, God's prophet was not unmindful of his shortcomings and his errors, and faithfully and lovingly pointed them out, showing how some of them had sown, at the very beginning, the seeds of apostasy in Methodism.

Having thus clearly outlined the good and the true and the helpful in the beginnings of Methodism, as well as the evil and the false and the hurtful which had crept in, the Messenger of God dealt briefly but with mighty power with the fundamentals underlying the true religion taught by Jesus, the Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit and in accordance with the Will of God, the Father.

He closed this remarkable outline with an appeal to all those who desired to live for God, in accordance with those truths, to rise and seek their Father in repentance, faith, consecration and prayer for Divine guidance and help.

The great audience had heard with deepest interest the story of John Wesley, and its lesson had sunk into their hearts.

They had been moved by the teachings of the old but ever new truths of the Everlasting Gospel.

And now when the ringing appeal of Elijah the Restorer sounded in their ears and stirred their hearts, they arose almost without any exception, and in humility and sincerity repeated the prayer of consecration.

The day was clear and bright, but intensely cold, and made more severe by a stinging north wind, but the interest in these Messages has now grown so earnest that the bitter cold of the day did not deter the people of Chicago from coming out in large numbers.

There were between 3,200 and 3,300 people in the Auditorium when the services began.

Amongst them were a large number of strangers, most of whom remained respectfully attentive until the close, and many of whom rose and joined in repeating the prayer of consecration.

Services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Ten thousand times ten thousand
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransom'd saints
Throng up the steepsof light:
'Tis finished; all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin,
Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.

What rush of Alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumphs nigh!

Oh, day for which creation
And all its tribeswere made;
Oh, joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid!
The trouble with John Wesley was that, while he was very liberal and very broad in enrolling people connected with the Methodist Society to help each other to live a godly life, and to seek the salvation of others, he had no clear conception of how to keep them in union with God, except to tell them that they must go from their class-meetings to listen to the sermons of the Church of England and to receive the Communion and Baptism at the hands of men whom he knew and that he knew were, in many cases, drunkards, evil-doers, foul-mouthed, political persons without one iota of true religion in them.

Large numbers of people, who were attached to God, lapsed into infidelity and moralism by being set into association with these bad men and with a worldly church.

"The Voice of Elijah the Restorer to Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Jan 25, 1853."

ELIJAH THE RESTORER UNVEILS THE BEGINNINGS OF THE METHODIST APOSTASY.
NEED OF WITNESSING.

Oh, then what raptur'd greetings
On Canaan's happy shore;
What knitting sever'd friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
That broum'd with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power, and reign:
Appeal, Desire of nations,
Thine exiles long for home:
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign:
Thou Prince and Savior, come!

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer cam upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the INVIcTioN.

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus Amen.

PRAISE.
All then joined in singing Hymn No. 318:
I am a soldier of the cross—
A follower of the Lamb!
And I'll not fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His Name!
CHORUS—In the Name of Christ the King,
Through grace I'll win the promised crown,
What'er my cross may be.

RECIPECTioN oF CREED.
The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day he rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty:
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen

READINg oF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.
The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, or serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it shalt thou not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore
Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Command-
ment:
XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another;
even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then sang Field's

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.
We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlastng.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee.
The Father of an infinite majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humbly Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants.
When Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Governs them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee:
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God in the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, the 40th chapter.
Prayer was offered by Overseer Jane Dowie and the General Overseer, followed by the Disciples' prayer chanted by the Choir and Congregation.

The General Overseer, in making the announcements, said:

Need of Witnessing.

A Church in which one man does all the talking cannot belong to Jesus, the Christ.
Opportunities must be frequently given to God's people to witness for Him.
Ye are My witnesses, saith Jehovah.

Reality of all Religious Systems is Proved by Work Done.
If we cannot demonstrate that Faith, when translated into prayer, has eventuated in visible answer, we are no better than the heathen.
The Methodist Church claims to be powerful in this land, and that it leads the evangelical forces of the world.
Yet according to its own official religious statistics, compiled by Dr. Carroll and published in the Christian Advocate of New York, the Methodist church gained only one and one-fifth per cent, during the year 1902. Any business man would consider that percentage to be clear evidence that his business was a losing concern.

Decrease in Methodism in 1902.

It did not gain anything. An honest statement would show a tremendous loss. Suppose a sheep farmer begins the year with 500 sheep; during the year 248 lambs are born, and he closes the year with only 502 sheep; can you say he has gained two? He has lost 248 sheep.

The Methodist church lost all its lambs, excepting one and one-fifth per cent, last year. That is the way to count, Dr. Carroll—You lost 248.

If you did not lose the lambs, that is the converts, of which it is claimed there were tens of thousands, then you lost the old sheep, because death is eliminated from this calculation. Where did they, old or young, go? Zion got thousands of them; but, alas, the World, the Flesh, and the Devil got more. The Methodist Church has lost because the Methodists have ceased to be God's Witnesses to the Reality of a Full Salvation through Christ. Christianity began by the preaching of the Gospel of Salvation, Holy Living and Holy Living, and that is the Gospel still. If Jesus, the Christ, is the same, He is the same Savior and Healer.

Medicine Not a Science.

Who has taken the place of God as the Healer, then?  “Oh, He has given us the Science of Medicine.”

Science of what? Science of Medicine? Where is the Science of Medicine? Is it Homeopathy or Allopathy, Psychopathy or Isopathy? You can name a dozen or two of these “paths” which are short cuts to the graveyard. Is it similia similibus curantur, like cures like; or contraria contrariis curantur, the contrary cures the contrary? Both cannot be right. Which is it? If God Almighty has given us a Science of Medicine, demonstrate it in the Name of God. Science is accurate knowledge. I can master enough of the science of mathematics and of astronomy, to apply both to navigation. I am not lost upon the sea because I have two sciences, astronomy and mathematics, that are accurate; and they enable me to navigate the trackless ocean with perfect confidence.

By observations of sun, moon, noon and stars, away far off upon the deep, and by the aid of mathematical tables, I can steam across the Ocean and arrive at the distant port exactly. It does not matter whether a man is a Frenchman, or an Englishman, or a German, or a black man, or a white man, the sciences are the same. Where is your Science of Medicine?—One gets tired of hearing you talk about your science. Demonstrate it.

You have changed your theory and practice at least every ten years on an average, and you are in a transition stage now, as your own authorities assert.

The Absurdities of the Germ Theory.

“Oh, we have found it out now,” you say. “All we want is to get a ‘vermicide’—something that will kill microscopic vermin in the human blood and body; because we found out that disease is to be found in those miserable microbes, bacilli.” Get your vermicide. It is not Koch’s淋巴. That has been demonstrated. Virchow proved that it drove the parasites from the diseased tissues into the healthy, and killed the patient ten times as quickly.

There are many “scientists” telling us that it would not do to kill all the microbes, because some of them are very good to eat and keep. Even the bacteriologists are at war with one another. Why do you not agree as to what medical science is, if you have the audacity, the sublime impudence to tell us that God meant you to have humanity from the cradle to the grave, and that He has broken His Covenant as the Healer of His people which He made at the Waters of Marah thirty-four centuries ago, as we read in Exodus, 15th chapter, and gave His Covenant Name—Jehovah-Rophi—“I am Jehovah that healeth thee?” Establish by law what Medical Science is.

Can you do it? Have you ever done it?

Medical Science Today—Foolishness Tomorrow.

Every generation has seen new suggestions, and every generation of doctors has told us that the past generations were fools. We intend to have a Praise and Testimony Gathering. Those who have been saved and healed are to tell about it next week.

I believe I could have a Testimony Meeting of considerable proportions just this minute.

An Improvisation but Powerful Testimony Meeting.

Now listen, you people who never saw anybody healed.

Some of you miserable parsons up there in the boxes who would not stand and sing “I Am a Soldier of the Cross.” You crossed your legs and looked ugly. (Laughter.) You looked very small, too. I watched you. (Laughter.) A man who professes to be a Christian who will not stand up and sing, “I Am a Soldier of the Cross” anywhere, is of no account, even if he does wear a white stock. His stock is no good (laughter); not worth one cent on the dollar. I will show you some Zion stock that is worth something.

Here is a people who will witness at any time. You in this meeting who know that you have been healed through faith in Jesus the Christ, stand.

(Thousands rose quickly, eagerly, in all parts of the great Auditorium.)

Now, you parsons, look around. Did God heal you? Voices—“Yes.” General Overseer—Did I heal you? Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Did I ever ask you for anything for your healing? Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Did you ever pay me? Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Did God really heal you? Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—You are sure you are not lunatics, suffering from “General Paresis,” as Dr. Buckley would say? Voices—“Yes.”

No Use for Doctors.

General Overseer—Do you want a doctor? Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Not even when your babies are born? Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Not even when you have to die? Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Do you mean to tell me that you are such “wicked, foolish people” that you are going to dispense with doctors? Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—You ought to be sent to an insane asylum, according to these gentlemen. But you do not look very unhappy; and I know you in thousands to be honest.
UNVEILING METHODIST APOSTASY.

Last week Overseer Speicher told us in Zion City—we have between eight and ten thousand people there—that there were only four people suffering from acute disease in bed.

General Overseer—Since before Christmas we have not had two people sick at any one time with acute disease. "Not a person has died of acute disease for several months." General Overseer.—In Chicago you have had 200,000 persons sick; one-tenth of the entire population, so the Chicago Board of Health says. This statement is further made that one-fifth of the entire population is sick. One-tenth is seriously sick, and one-fourth sick more or less seriously.

I think we have a good showing out at Zion City, with all the difficulties attaching to the founding of a new city of over eight thousand population within eighteen months. We have not a drug, nor have we a doctor who administers drugs or uses any remedies, in that city, but we have God. We go to Him.

Are you determined to trust God all the way? Voices.—"Yes."

General Overseer—I am prepared to trust myself in a city full of such "lusties" as you. (Laughter.)

The tithe and offerings were then received.

While the ushers were waiting upon the Congregation, Zion White-robed Choir sang very effectually and with a depth of feeling and power of expression, which comes only from a company of believing singers. Barnby's difficult and beautiful anthem, "Ye Shall Go Out with Joy!"

UNVEILING OF THE APOSTASY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—THE APOSTOLIC JOHN WESLEY AND THE BEGINNINGS OF METHODISM.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, and turn away from me the iniquity of my flesh. (Psalm 51:17.)

In this Series of Discourses, which I presume all of you know, I am now delivering on the Falling Away, the Apostasy, I have put in the front of all that I have spoken, this passage in the second epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians, the 2d chapter and 3d verse, which I quote again:

TEXT.

Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition. He that opposeth and doth not agree himself, but that all is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sitteth in the Temple of God, setting himself forth as God. Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know that which restrained, until the end that he might be revealed in his own season.

For the Mystery of Lawlessness doth already work; only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall be revealed the Law of Antichrist, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of His mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of His Coming.

In this Series of Messages I have dealt at very considerable length, and with as much care as my time permitted me, with the general condition of the church and the world first; then I have dealt with the Lutheran Church, the Church of Rome, the Greek Church, and the Church of England. Now I am dealing with the Apostasy of Methodism. Methodism a Daughter of the Church of England.

UNVEILING METHODIST APOSTASY.

This very properly follows the discourses on the apostasy of the Church of England. I gave a very great deal of time to the preparation of those discourses, immediately previous to their delivery; and I am rejoiced to know that the reading of the long past years, and the continuous keeping-up of this historical reading, has helped me wonderfully throughout all this Series.

Freshness of Memory Concerning Former Reading.

I feel that I must make this grateful acknowledgment to God. I have been exceedingly delighted to find that a vast mass of matter which I had laid aside upon the shelves of my memory, and almost forgotten where it all was, having very little need to use the knowledge, was all there just as fresh as when I read it. I only had to refer to books to remember whole pages, whole volumes.

In dealing with Methodism I desire very firmly to establish my points, and to go at this matter in as orderly a manner as possible.

It seems to me especially necessary that I should be careful in statements of fact, so that I may reason upon an incontrovertible basis.

I have dealt with the Methodist Episcopal Church in a Series of Nine Discourses which has been published in book form.

These discourses were delivered in this city in Zion Central Tabernacle two and one-half years ago, when the Quadrennial General Conference of that Church sat in this building.

Many thousands of copies of this pamphlet and of Leaves of Healing containing the same discourses have been purchased throughout the world.

More than a million people have read what I then spoke. I directed my attention in those Nine Discourses principally to the allegation which I made, that the Methodist Church had been sold out by its leaders to the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, by being handed over to the Masonic Order.

I dealt with that at considerable length.

Any of you who desire to know what I said then, and what hundreds of delegates to the Conference two years ago approved, can read it all in the book entitled "Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy," which can be purchased at Zion Printing and Publishing House for twenty-five cents.

Many Conference Delegates listened to these discourses with deep interest and, at the end, thanked me.

A big rift in the Methodist organization from top to bottom was made by these discourses.

Any one who looks at it can see the crack right through.

One of these days there will be a landslide, and vast numbers of those who are really Christians in the Methodist Episcopal Church will seek admission into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

PRESENT DISCUSSION OF METHODIST APOSTASY ON A WIDER SCALE THAN FORMER.

I approach this matter now, however, on a wider scale.

I began last Lord's Day with "The Apostolic John Wesley, and the Beginnings of Methodism."

I was a very cold day, yet there were thousands in this Auditorium.

I have been asked if I would say a few words again concerning these Beginnings of Methodism.

I began before John Wesley's birth.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT SUSANNA ANNESLEY WESLEY.

I began with Susanna Annesley, daughter and twenty-fifth child of a Non-conformist minister in London.

But that down, twenty-fifth.

Dr. Annesley was a very distinguished and learned man. Susanna was only the twenty-fourth child of her mother, who was the second wife of Dr. Annesley.

Dr. Annesley had one child by the first wife, and twenty-four by the second.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 26, 1903.

If Madam Annesley had said, when she had the twenty-third child, "This is too much. I will not have any more," then Susanna Annesley would never have been born, and the wonderful work that Susanna Wesley did—for she was John Wesley's mother—would never have been done, because John Wesley would not have been born.

Susanna Wesley had nineteen children herself and John Benjamin Wesley—for that was the name his parents gave him—was the fifteenth.

If, when she had borne twelve, she had said: "I will have no more," John Wesley would never have been born.

An ordinary American woman of our time would have been tired long before that time.

She would have counted it a perfect abomination, nine cases out of ten, that she should have so many "brats."

Children an Heritage of the Lord.

It shows what dirty, disgusting, wicked creatures these women are who talk about children in that way, no matter what their position socially or ecclesiastically may be; for they are in direct conflict with God and virtue.

Lo, children are an heritage of Jehovah, And the fruit of the womb is His reward. As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, So are the children of youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them.

I pray God that the time may come when the great blessing that God gives to clean, faithful, holy, happy men and women in Zion will be increasingly manifested in large families of beautiful, holy and happy children.

Malthusianism, which is, at bottom, the ruling doctrine in a great part of American motherhood, is a shameful, murderous and sinful doctrine.

John Wesley an Apostolic and Prophetic Man.

I am glad for Susanna Annesley's mother and her twenty-fourth daughter.

I am glad for Susanna Wesley herself and her nineteen children.

I am glad that when John Benjamin Wesley was born she received from God the greatest honor that a woman can have, the honor of being the mother of an apostolic and prophetic man.

I believe that John Wesley was both an apostle and a prophet.

I am not blind to the follies of John Wesley.

He was a very foolish man at some points of his career, as his best friends freely admitted, and so were some of the apostles.

I am sure you would have to go a long day's march to find a greater one, in some things, than Peter.

Peter was more than a fool, he was a very wicked man, even after the Christ our Lord ordained him to be an apostle.

But he had, after all, the root of the matter in him.

Although he denied his Lord, yet the Lord had prayed for him, that his faith should not fail utterly, and at Pentecost he stood forth and witnessed for Jesus—bravest of the brave, and filled with the Holy Spirit.

No doubt many of the apostles were weak in many ways.

They were all first-class sprinters, and ran as hard as they could on the night the Lord was betrayed by one of their own number, and was arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane.

For all that, they were apostles. When afterwards the Holy Spirit, who had been with them, dwelt in them, they became mighty indeed.

Some of Wesley's Early Blunders.

John Wesley, for a great many years of his life, contended that he had never been converted until he returned from Savannah, Georgia. I should think, in some respects, that it is very likely he was correct, because he made an awful fool of himself at Savannah.

For one thing, John Wesley did not understand any other woman than his mother.

He was particularly susceptible to flattery upon the part of the other sex, and made some awful blunders.

He made a blunder in Savannah, at the beginning of his ministry.

He offered a lady marriage.

When she refused him, he began to investigate her condichurchman, and holding on to many things that even the Liberal Party of the Church of England had long discarded. Charles Wesley fought him bitterly, and denounced him publicly as an apostate for many years, because he was afraid that John Wesley would separate from the Church of England.

Wesley Knew the Apostasy of the Church of England.

The fact of the matter is, that Wesley knew that the people whom he had brought into his Kingdom through his ministry could never amalgamate with the corrupt and dissolute Church of England, the shameful prostitution of which I have in previous discourses carefully sketched for you. It was born in sin, conceived in iniquity.

The Church of England has continued to this day to be a disgrace, a shame, a hissing and a byword. That Church was born in the days of Henry VIII.

The Church of England Not Protestant.

It derived all its power from Rome. It never really was a Protestant church, and is not now. It simply changed the supremacy of the pope into the supremacy of the king.

There is no difference between them except the difference between tweedledum and tweedledee. A king knows less of theology than an apostate, is a worse head for church than an ecclesiastical of the Roman Church.

If I had to choose between the two, whether I would have a church with a king like Edward VII., at the head of it, who knows more about horse-races and gamblers, about theaters, about wine and women, to his shame, than he knows about theology — if, I had to choose between a king like him and a pope like Leo XIII., I would choose the pope every time.

I do not hesitate to say so.

The pope knows something about theology. As for Edward VII., no one, so far as I am aware, has ever accused him of having any personal religion at all. (Laughter.)

Defiance to British Threats.

The Church of England authorities did not like that statement when I made it in London, within two or three blocks of Buckingham Palace.

Every now and then I hear a rumble about their going to take up Leaves of Healing, which contain such expressions as these, and deny it postal privileges in Canada and other British Dominions.

If they want to make Leaves of Healing the most popular journal in Canada, let the Church of England indict it. I will get it into Canada through express and freight, and by other means. (Applause and laughter.)

You cannot keep it out.

If I have to send special agents through Canada with it I will send for it for time for the truth to be fully told.

They censured it for some time in South Africa, when they had the power, and they could influence the military authorities to refuse to pass it through the mails.

The British Censor could pass the dirty, filthy London sporting newspapers, but they could not let through Leaves of Healing.

They flung it into Russia for the same reason, but we get it into Russia all the same.

I get it into the Czar's palace.

A few members of the Greek Church who are high in office in the Government of Russia are practically members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, thank God. (Applause.)

Some of my unkind critics once said that I was like a black spider. "All right," I said, "the spider is in kings' palaces." Solomon was right. Zion is everywhere.

John Wesley a Church of England Minister to the Time of His Death.

In dealing with Methodism, you must remember that, up to the day of John Wesley's death, he was a Church of England minister.

He died in full canonicals.

He seldom spoke, either in the open air or anywhere else, without his robes as a minister of the Church of England.

You will not find a single picture of John Wesley without his bands, and they are pretty long bands, too.

They are so long that some people might object to their length.

Story of a Keen Rebuke to a Too-critical Woman.

There are Scotch people who are always keeping their ministers in order.

It is related that a certain lady once said that she very much objected to the length of the new minister's bands.

They were "over lang a' thegither," she said, and it was not right to wear sic lang bands. The auld minister had always had short bands, and this young man was vain and foolish, and his bands were too long.

That young minister sent for this parishioner and said to her, "Margaret, I hear you do not like my bands?"

"Oh," she said, "please excuse me."

"No," he said, "I just want to know; it is quite possible that the bands are 'over lang.'"

He said to his servant, "Elspeth, bring all my bands here; put them down on the table and bring a pair of scissors."

When she brought them he said: "Now, Margaret, just cut whatever you like off the bands, and make them your ain length."

"Oh," she said, "I do not like to."

"Well," he said, "you criticized them; I will wear them just the length you like."

So she cut off one or two, and said she thought that would do.

"Now in all faithfulness to you," he said, "I want to say that there is something wrong with you, Margaret, and that ought to be cut off."

"What is it, meenister," she said.

"Just put out your tongue," (laughter and applause) "and let me take a wee bit off that."

I saw John Wesley's bands in one of the best pictures of him, lately discovered, known now to be a very authentic picture.

I thought that his bands might have been too long for my Scotch friend.

I do not think there are quite so many talkers in Zion as there used to be; although a lady said to me the other day: "Doctor, can you tell me what is wrong with me?"

I said: "I can."

"What is it?" she asked.

I went to my pocket and brought out a little pair of pocket scissors that I always carry there, nicely cased up.

I opened them and said: "Madam, you will perhaps not like it."

"Oh," she said, "do tell me what you think the matter is with me."

I said: "If you will just put out your tongue," and she put out her tongue, "I will undertake to cure your principal complaint by cutting off half an inch of your tongue."

She did not submit to the operation, but it is said in Zion City that she has not talked very much since. (Laughter.)

John Wesley was an out-and-out Church of England minister, gown, bands and everything, not only in outward form but wholly honest in his belief that the Church of England was apostolic.

The Church of England not Apostolic, as It Claims.

That is the contention of the Church of England.

They say the Church of England existed long before Henry VIII.'s time; that there was an original British Church.

Augustine did not find it when he landed there with his Mission.

The Church of England acknowledged, from the days of Augustine, the monk and missionary, or Austin as they sometimes called him, that it was a part of the Church of Rome.

Henry VIII., himself, who established the Church of England by law, got the title of Defender of the Faith from Leo X. and confirmed by Clement II., for defending the Church as an integral part of the Church of Rome.

The Beginning of the Apostasy of Methodism.

The significance of this is that it will show you where the Apostasy of Methodism begins; in the fact that John Wesley held on to what he knew was a corrupt and apostate church.
There is no use in attempting to dispute that fact because it is a fact. If you want to get it upon the best authority, surely that authority is his own.

Wesley, in his very first Conference, had this matter brought up. There was no doubt whatever, after his conversion through the instrumentality of Peter Bohler, the Moravian, that he really was converted.

What the Moravian, Peter Bohler, Taught John Wesley.

Peter Bohler taught him that the Saving Faith in the Christ was invariably attended by dominion over sin, and constant peace arising from a sense of forgiveness.

Wesley had known nothing about that. He was like multitudes of the Church of England ministers today. They know nothing of dominion over sin. They know nothing about conscious peace arising from forgiveness.

An outward ordinance was all they cared for, all that they thought they needed.

John Wesley, himself, was of that opinion. In fact he tells us that his Baptismal Grace lasted ten years; then he lost it all!

He lost all the blessings of Regeneration by Baptism and of Baptismal Grace after ten years! Perfect farce!

The nonsense that he preached for a good many years before his conversion is perfectly amazing.

It was not until he was thirty-five years of age, in the year 1738, that he was converted.

When he was converted, it was a perfect amazement to him to know that a man could have dominion over sin, and have a conscious peace within his own spirit. But he did realize union with God.

This was the beautiful result of Bohler's teaching.

Similarity Between Conversions of Luther and Wesley.

It was just as remarkable in its way as the conversion of Martin Luther in the Roman Catholic Church.

When Luther was told by Staupitz, the general of his own order, the Augustinian, that a man could have peace with God and have dominion over sin, he would not believe him.

He was searching for peace through his own good works. But Staupitz had found God in the Christ to be a Savior and a Deliverer, and he told Luther the Way.

So Bohler, this plain, simple Moravian, on his way to America as a missionary, led John Wesley to find that Way.

John Wesley, however, held on to the Church of England, although he was converted, and in the last days at the close of his life wrote letters in which he distinctly and positively declared that his people must not separate from the Church of England.

For instance, under date of December 11, 1789, he wrote an article which he published in his magazine for April, 1790—within less than a year of his death, in which he says:—"I never had any design of separating from the Church of England. I have no such design now. . . . I do, and will do, all that is in my power to prevent such an event, (the separation by Methodists). I declare once more that I live and die a member of the Church of England; and that none, who regard my judgment or advice, will ever separate from it." It is very well that we should look at that.

John Wesley's Demand that His People Stay in the Church of England.

He demanded that none of the ministers and preachers in the Methodist Society should ever speak of being other than Church of England ministers, even although near the end of his life he ordained several ministers. Yet he seemed to consider them ministers of the Church of England, by virtue of his being in priest's orders.

He refused, for a great many years, to allow any of them to administer the Ordinance of Baptism or the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper.

There is simply no question on that matter.

At a time when a great conference was held, Wesley drove out of his society those who demanded the right to administer the Communion of the Lord's Supper to their own converts. heart, and soul, and mind, and strength in the democratic principles in that church, have swung right around to the opposite point, and am absolutely opposed to Democracy in the Church.
The Christian Catholic Church in Zion is founded upon Theocratic principles; that the Rule of God, and not the rule of man, shall obtain in the Church.
It took me many years to get there.
John Wesley lived eighty-eight years and contended with dying breath that he was a Church of England minister.
One of the last prayers he offered on his deathbed, was for the Church of England, and for the King of England.
It is thus recorded by his biographer, Tyerman: "Bless the Church and King, and grant us truth and peace, through Jesus, the Christ, our Lord, forever and ever."
Loyalty to the Church of England and Loyalty to the King Inseparable.
In those days there was no possibility, in the minds of the so-called faithful Church of England men, to separate their loyalty to the Church from their loyalty to the king.
The men who fought the Church of England fought the king, and the men who fought the Church fought the Church of England.
The two were inseparably connected, and they are today.
Fight the Church of England, and you will fight Edward VII.
Fight Edward VII, and you will fight the Church of England.
A man today in England has very considerable difficulties in standing up and fighting the Church of England without getting in a slap at Edward VII.; because the Church of England is founded upon the supremacy of the king.
The bed-rock of that ecclesiastical organization is that the king is the Defender of the Faith and the rightful head of the Church.
Political Liberty in John Wesley’s Day was Unknown.
One of the saddest things about that great and mighty man,
George Whitfield, is that he was once presented, when in Georgia, with a number of slaves to aid his missionary work; that he coolly handed over these slaves to be sold at public auction, put the money into his pocket and thanked God for the money which he made vast sums of money out of it.
England Imposed Slavery Upon America.
It was England that sent slaves to Southern United States.
Queen Anne, in whose reign John Wesley was born, was one of the largest slave traders.
She had vessels trading from the African coast to the American.
She practically made the slave trade a royal monopoly, and made vast sums of money out of it.
John Wesley's Acceptance of Church of England Errors.
Everything that I have said in my Unveiling of the Apostasy of the Church of England must apply to John Wesley, and to those associated with him, clinging as they did to the decalogue that the Church of England was to be honored as of God, when its doctrines and practices were, and are, so evil and dangerous in a number of vital questions.
They, therefore, approved of Baptismal Regeneration and in the disregard of the fact that the Head of the Church and Defender of the Faith was to be found in whoever was king or queen. That Church was manifestly apostate.
I have, therefore, although with great regret, to call attention to the fact that John Wesley sowed the seeds of the subsequent Apostasy of Methodism with his own hands by forcing the sheep of Christ into a fold which was always ravaged by wolves, as it is to this day.
John Wesley's Call to Found a Christian, Catholic, Apostolic Church.
He did not know that he did wrong.
I believe that if he lived today he could see it clearly.
He did not know that God was calling him to Restore the Primitive, Apostolic, Christian, Catholic and Apostolic Church.
I believe that John Wesley was called by a loud Voice from God to Reestablish the Primitive, Christian, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.
John Wesley, however, was a very modest, quiet man, and did not realize the immensity of the strength of his own movement.
He did not see that God had called him to bring back the Church; not only to save sinners, but to keep sinners saved, and to extend the power of the Kingdom of God by destroying the Church apostasies which cursed England.
I believe that if John Wesley were living in my time John Wesley would be preaching the doctrines, and forming an organization very much in the way that I am doing in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.
I claim to be, spiritually, a follower of John Wesley in a great many things, but I deplore exceedingly that he missed his great opportunity, and that Methodism became a poor, perishing Church compared to what it might have been if he had boldly declared the Apostasy of the Church of England, and established the Christian, Catholic, and Apostolic Church of God.
For this cause it is well at the very beginning to be perfectly honest.
I have many things to say in connection with John Wesley's work and ministry of which I can wholly and heartily approve.
First of all, beyond all question, John Wesley's glorious Preaching of the Gospel to Every Creature whom he could reach was apostolic in the true sense of that word.
God gave to him, too, a prophetic Insight which will appear as we go on examining his life.
A church, however, that does not go out and seek the perishing is not the Church of God, no matter how many support it.
Wesley's Converts Ministered to by Wicked Men in the Church of England.
The trouble with John Wesley was that, while he was very liberal and very broad in exhorting people connected with the Methodist Society to help each other to live a godly life, and to seek the salvation of others, he had no clear conception of how to keep them in union with God, except to tell them that they must go from their class-meetings to listen to the services of the Church of England, and to receive the Communion and Baptism at the hands of men whom he knew, and that they knew, were, in many cases, drunkards, evil-livers, fox-hunters, political parsons without one iota of true religion in them.
It was an especially grave error upon the part of John Wesley that he drove his people, after they were born into the Kingdom of God, into an ecclesiastical organization, and recognized the rights as ministers, of men whom he knew did not possess a particle of real Christianity.
I find it exceedingly difficult to reconcile this with truth, with honor, with that which is right.
Again I must remind you, however, that John Wesley had the false idea, that a church like the Church of England, holding "apostolic succession," as he would say, must be considered apart from the character of its deacons, priests or bishops.
In fact, they contended that no matter what the private character of these men was, their public office given to them by the State, and the fact that they were properly ordained by the Church, gave them the right to preach and teach and administer Ordinances.
This was a great error.
Large numbers of people, who were won to God, lapsed into infidelity and worldliness by being sent into association with these bad men and with a worldly and apostate church.
The movement, which would have been so immensely strong,
was weakened, and weakened terribly, by that fact.
The Wesleys Preached the Everlasting Gospel.
Having said that, let me say before I close today, what I am glad to say, that the Methodist people had this great blessing given to them: that the Wesleys preached the Everlasting Gospel as far as they knew it.

They preached fundamentally that all men might be saved by grace through faith in our Lord Jesus, the Christ, and the Gospel as far as they knew it.

The beautiful Gospel which they preached, which was the salvation of such vast multitudes of people, and which today is the Power of God to Salvation to all who believe, I rejoice to proclaim here today.

 Importance of What God Thinks.

You can never be saved but in God's Way.

It does not matter what I think.

It does not matter what you think.

It does not matter what any man upon God's earth thinks.

The only thing that really matters is to find out what God thinks.

This is true regarding everything.

It is true regarding science.

You may have a notion about electricity.

You may be entirely wrong, and you may find what some have already found that in playing with electricity, that in carrying out your own thinking, you meet death.

The forces that God has put into the world, which men call "blind forces," are not blind.

They are not moral forces at all.

These physical powers, these wonderful laws of nature, put into operation by God, must be obeyed.

You must take care that you understand them before you begin to deal with them; for, if you resist them, death will be your punishment.

You would better agree with the Law of Gravitation, or that Law will crush you.

You would better agree with the principles and laws controlling these two great forces, which, after all, are amongst the most wonderful in the world, the forces which we call centrifugal and centripetal—the one that drives away from and the other that draws toward the center of motion.

Inventions Kept Back by Greed.

There are a great many inventions that are kept back because it does not suit financiers and the railway people to allow them to come into use.

A great many inventions, in connection with electricity, are kept back because it would not pay to destroy the Western Union Telegraph System.

A very distinguished gentleman, who recently died in the neighborhood of this city, invented and perfected, although he did not get the profit out of it that somebody will, a system of telegraphy by means of which I can privately write a message in Chicago and have the exact writing immediately reproduced in New York or anywhere else where only the receiver sees what I have drawn or written.

Who hinders?

We are now reaching the time when the "Hidings of God's Power" can no longer be kept back by self-interested people from carrying God's messages and good gifts to men.

These are the beginnings of the times of restoration of all things.

Need of National Control of Great Public Utilities.

It will not be possible to do this in the world as it now exists, as long as newspapers and capitalists can combine to keep back progress until it pleases them to set the wheels in motion.

Every one will ere long see that all the great public services should be controlled by the nation, and that the nation should be controlled by God.

Water should not be doled out just as rich men please.

It is doled out at the highest possible price, and within.

Some of them will have the hypocrisy to present a thousand tons of the coal to the poor, while they keep back a million tons and make it dear for the poor.

I say that all these things must be in the hands of the people, but they can never be managed by the people until the people are in the hands of God.

Amen.

It will never be possible to manage things otherwise.

Democracy wants to smash the plutocracy, and the plutocracy and democracy will sometimes unite to smash the middle class.

You can have the hidden powers and the open gifts of God distributed properly only when God Himself rules, and when the saints of God judge the earth.

This time is coming.

We are upon the eve of very great changes.

That might be a line from any paper religious or non-religious.

The only question is in what direction shall we go?

If you go in the direction of democracy you have nothing before you but the rule of the mob, the most cruel, wicked, blind and base rule that ever cursed this earth.

The world saw the highest point, nationally, it could reach in the French Revolution, in the worship of the Goddess of Reason, and in the refusal to allow people to worship God in any form, whilst the murderous guillotine did its horrid work, and lawlessness was supreme.

The Lawless One.

There you had the lawless one in complete command for a little while.

The Lawless One will be revealed, and you will find him where I told you, right behind the last screen in the highest order of masonry.

There is no religion there.

Even now, by that mystery of lawlessness, which pervades all the empire of secretism, the lawless one and those associated with him are working to get the forces of the world into their hands to overthrow all government, so that he may reign.

That time will come, too, at the very end.

The lawless one will be supreme on earth for a little while.

Even the man of sin revealed will be put aside.

The pope and all apostate forces will be put aside when the Rapture comes, and God's people are taken out of this world.

The lawless one will be revealed and rule for a period; and only when the Christ comes will he be destroyed.

Now the trumpet call resounds throughout the world:

"Behold the Bridegroom."

The next cry will be, "Go ye forth to meet Him."

The great power of the Wesleys' work, despite all their errors, as of Luther's, despite all his, was the presentation of salvation for every one who repents of his sin, and seeks mercy from God through faith in Jesus, the Christ. Then followed growth in grace, deliverance from the dominion of sin, growth in experience, and conscious witness of the Spirit within.

Increased activity, by means of which the kingdom of God is extended, must follow.

No matter how we may err, or how they erred in the past in connection with doctrine, which, after all, was not essential to personal salvation, the preaching of this personal salvation, the personal sense of responsibility, and the personal sense of acceptance with God, was the great power of the Methodist movement.
I preach these things today, and much that they never knew.

I tell you one and all that

You Must Enter Into Life One by One.

You cannot be saved by multitudes.
You have to be saved individually, and pass in at the gate one by one.
You come into life one by one.
You will pass out of life one by one, and you must pass through the power of Satan, Sin, Disease, Death, and Hell into the Kingdom of God one by one, giving up yourself and your sin, repenting of it, and forsaking it, and obeying God, receiving His Word wearily, and obeying it humbly.
Then you can receive the Grace of Healing, and the Power to live a Holy Life.
This is the Greatest of All Things, this Covenant that God has never altered, that He never has broken, that He never has changed, this Law of the Spirit of Life in the Christ, Jesus, which is the Best of all Laws; this Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, which is the Best of all Covenants.
This truth can never change.

God wants you to receive it now by giving yourself wholly to Him, and ye who are God's by reconsecrating yourselves to Him, and realizing that it is His Grace, His Gift of Love that saves you unto Everlasting Life.
That Life He offers you now.
All who desire an uttermost Salvation stand and tell God.
(Nearly all arose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. I seek to know Thy Will. Teach me from the past, from Thy Word, from the experience of Thy Church, from its good and from its evil, that I may shun the evil and receive the good. Help me, set me free from evil. Forgive me. Strengthen me, and enable me to live for Thee a Holy Life. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, change of clause, after the General Overseer.)

Now, did you mean that?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then if you mean it I want you to live it.
After the Recessional had been sung, the service was closed with the following prayer and benediction by the General Overseer.

CLOSING PRAYER.

Grant, our Father, that that Day of Earth's Redemption of which we have just been singing shall come speedily.

Lord Jesus, Come! Again this earth by sin oppressed:

By demons from beneath possessed,

Some dark and foul as hell and night,

And some transformed like sons of light,

Lurking Thy throne within the heart,

And bid men choose the evil part,

Lord Jesus, Come!

Lord Jesus, Come!

Thine answer sweet our spirits hear,

It soothes our grief, we cannot fear,

It came to him on Patmos' sign

Who loved and lived on earth awhile,

It comes to us — "I quickly come."

Yea, "Even Lord Jesus, Come."

Lord Jesus, Come!

And now, Father, we are waiting "Till He Come" whom Thou hast promised will come. We love to work and watch and pray, for we know not when the Midnight Cry will come.

Let us be ready, no matter when He comes. For Jesus' sake.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.

The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever.

Amen.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Two Dollars will bring to you the weekly statues of the "Little White Dove" for a year.

I tell you that you can afford it. I will send it to your minister, or to a Y. M. C. A., or to a Public Reading Room for a whole year. We offer no subscription blanks, and print no commercial lists or soliciting enticements of unscrupulous thieves. Leaves or little white doves, and we lay out everything that would not set from all except the extension of the Kingdom of God, for which alone it exists. (If we cannot send forth our Little White Doves without altering its wings with theadder of the factory and the dust of the wrangling market place, or compelling it to utter the screaming cries of the beaten roulines in the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Dove at home.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:20)
The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:18; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Among these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

THE last Lord's Day Early Morning Meeting of the year 1902 was one of Prayer, Praise and Testimony by the great audience which filled the ground floor of Shiloh Tabernacle.

The dawning of the third year of this wonderful twentieth century marks the first full year of residence in Zion City, and it is fitting that Zion, which is putting in operation the principles of the Kingdom of God, should often pause and give thanks to God.

The dearly beloved General Overseer himself led his people in this Thanksgiving Service.

After the reading of a portion of the Scripture as it is recorded in the 17th chapter of St. John, beginning with the 11th verse, the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet of God, Elijah the Restorer, poured out his heart to God in a testimony as to God's goodness and mercy in all things, even in his great personal sorrow, which, though always with him, yet was not a hindrance, but, through God, was proving an impetus.

A most unique testimony was the presence on the platform of a basket containing fifty-nine packages of tobacco and a half-consumed big bottle of bitters, surrendered by a new-comer to Zion City, who had that morning accepted God for Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Hundreds of testimonies followed that of the General Overseer. Most worthy of note being one given in the form of a Thanksgiving, that out of a City of fully 8,000 inhabitants, but one case of acute sickness existed at the time of speaking.

Following these testimonies, after prayer, the General Overseer commented briefly on the Scripture read.

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, December 28, 1902.

The services were opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 200.

The General Overseer then read from the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, beginning at the 11th verse, closing with the prayer:

May God bless His Word.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer after which a large number of testimonies were given.

The General Overseer then said:

The Christ Reveals a Wonderful Unity.

Let us get hold of the great truth in the 11th verse of this wonderful prayer of Jesus.

I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to Thee, Holy Father, keep them in Thy Name which Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, even as We are.

Except in the great and glorious Spiritual Sense in which He is with us “All the Days even unto the Consummation of the Age,” our Lord is an absent Lord.

I know not how the spirits of the departed may be permitted to return and view the scenes where they once labored.

I am glad that much is hidden from us, and, probably, much is hidden from them.

I thank God for this glorious fact that He who founded this great and glorious Religion, and rescued humanity from all the miseries, has given to us a great and glorious Revelation which has no limitations whatever.

I am thankful for the Progressive nature of Christianity, and also for its Conservative nature.

Truth in all the ages and in all time is held firmly and preserved by our Lord Himself—by the Spirit.

There is very much in this verse:

I am no more in the world and these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep them in Thy Name which Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, even as We are.

What a wonderful Unity!

If we are one, just in the same manner—of course we never can be in the same degree—as God the Father, God the Son and Holy Spirit are One God, then we are to be members of One Great Mystical Body.

How faithful we should be with one another, when we are members of that Body.

A Faithfulness Which Is not of God.

There are some people who do not need to be told to be faithful—as they count “faithfulness.”

However, the only people with whom they are faithful are their neighbors, whose faults they most keenly perceive and tell.

They are never faithful with themselves.

They can see all kinds of faults, and are sharp to discern all kinds of imperfections.

They are those who can read thousands of pages of LAVES OR HEALING without getting the wonderful truths in it, but they pounce down upon one unimportant sentence, which may simply be an oversight or a printer's error.

They are very faithful in searching for things of that kind.

They will tell me that, in “faithfulness to God,” they must call my attention to a word or a comma which is not in the proper (?) place.

They are wonderfully faithful people.

Their faithfulness is a perfect nuisance.

They are quite prepared to be faithful and to kick their friends out of pure faithfulness.

In faithfulness they are willing to show you your faults, never supposing for a moment that they have any of their own, or that the alleged faults have no existence except in their own conceived and hypercritical imagination.

Let us be One.

If you have a sorrow, it is mine.

If you have a joy, it is mine.

If you are happy, I am happy.

If you are successful, I am successful.

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

The scoundrel did not see that tampering with the mail of one who was in his care was a criminal offense. I hope you all understand that your sons' and daughters' mail is just as sacred as your wives' and yours is as sacred as her's. That was only one small failure. The teredo had fastened upon her life, and upon the life of Zion. I protected the woman, who refused to send him to prison, and sent him away from the City, having first removed him from fellowship. I do not intend to have human lives in this great work bored into by teredos; nor will I allow the Christian Church in Zion to retain human "teredos" in fellowship a moment longer than it takes to get the creatures out. We do not want the kind of unity which lives to promote shipwreck and death. We must have the Unity of Life and Light and Love.

Love the Essential Factor in Unity.

Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, wants us to be one so completely that we shall be One Body, not hating our own flesh. A man who worries his wife, and a wife who worries her husband, hate their own flesh, and hates are doing the things which bring Death, Darkness and Damnation.

By the grace of God we are the sheep, and shall be, a united people, in the Unity of Faith, Hope and Love. The very first thing in Love is self-sacrifice. "Love seeketh not her own." Love is selfless. Love is not Damning Lust. Damning lust is ever seeking gratification for the flesh. That lust is no better than the brute's. Such a person, male or female, is even worse than the brute and has not a particle of rightful claim to be considered a Christian: for no Christian can live like a stinking goat. Christ's sheep are not Secret Society Goats, or any other kind of Goats. All human goats will hear the Christ say—unless they are truly converted into His sheep—"Depart from Me, ye cursed, into the Aeonion Fire, prepared for the Devil and his messengers!" The Christ demands that I shall keep all Goats out—"Amen and Amen!—The very first thing in Love is self-sacrifice.

If you rejoice in being in Zion, I rejoice. My joy is your joy. My sorrow is your sorrow. My Unity with you is complete, I hope, but our Unity with one another must find expression. It is simply impossible for any one part of the body to do the work of all. The head can do a great deal. The head can direct, and the feet move according to those directions. The fingers will move as the head directs, unless these fingers are stubborn, diseased, or made inefficient in any way. Then it does not matter what the head says; the fingers remain dead; the feet are chained, and the body will not act. The most important member of the body is the head. However, every member needs to be helped, quickened and blessed.

There are some people who have come into Zion to be one with us, and above all to be one with God. They have been glad to be one with us.

Parasites Which Impede the Ship.

There are others who come merely to get bread and fish, as the multitudes whom Jesus fed, and who followed him to get more of the loaves and fishes, and the other good things which might be going for the benefit of disciples who worked principally with their mouths.

We have to be careful about this kind of unity for revenue only.

There are a few people in Zion City who never came to Zion for anything else but for selfish motives. They do not seek to extend the Kingdom of God. They seek to extend their own selfish purposes. They have not been able to get on anywhere else. They think that they can get on here by simply hanging on and sucking out the life of Zion. I am going to take care that parasites of that kind shall not clog the ship. This ship is bound upon a great voyage. I will tell you of a creature against which you must take great care.

The Teredo a Destructive Enemy.

It is a sea worm, sometimes measuring three feet in length, which has great jaws and a sharp head with which it bores into wood. It is called the teredo. It fastens itself to the ship, sometimes in great numbers, and then bores in. Vessels have been sunk because of the innumerable holes which have been bored into her hold by these wretched teredos.

That is a thing which you have to watch in Zion. The only union which some people want is a teredo-union to stick on the outside of Zion to make a hole in her. There are those who have been led by Satan to make their abode in Zion City for that purpose only. They are the torment and sorrow of one's life; but I must remove them the moment we discover them, and I do: for I am going to take care that teredos of that kind shall not clog the ship.

The ship is bound upon a great voyage. I will tell you of a creature against which you must take great care.

Love the Essential Factor in Unity.
If you cannot approve my policy you would better hold your tongue.

One of Abraham Lincoln's greatest troubles during the War of the Rebellion was caused by officers who did not approve this and did not approve that.

At last General Grant had to turn to Lincoln and say: "You must fire these men away. If you do not, I will resign the command of the United States Armies." If you cannot approve my policy, hold your tongue in every language you know.

That is the only way to maintain Unity in Zion.

You have a right to your opinion before a policy is determined upon, and is still under discussion, and you know how willing I am to consider an important question from every point of view, and to listen to all honest, well-intentioned counsel, if it is good, and to set it aside cautiously and only when I find it is not good.

I weighed all you and others had to say—prayerfully and thoughtfully—at the right time and in the right place, and I rejected your counsel, as contrary to the Policy of God's Israel set forth by Moses on the Mount of Blessing—Deuteronomy 28:1-14.

Why did you not content yourself with giving me your opinion instead of criticizing my policy to others? I am going to be sharp and quick in discipline in the Coming Year.

We are sailing this vessel over troubled seas. These seas have been deeply troubled.

There is a condition prevailing now that has never troubled this world before.

The enemies of God and of man have in a large degree the control of the financial position in America, and they are only held in check somewhat here, and still more in Europe, by the far wiser methods of International Finance adopted by the great Hebrew Financiers of the World, to whom the Morgans, the Rockefeller, etc., are but children in arms as compared with grown men.

Freemasons, men who put their private hatreds into their public actions, Rockefellers and Morgans, and many others in America hate Zion, because, when God wins they go. The Jew—after the world—is the Balance Wheel of the World's Finance; and the Day will come, and that soon, when God will justify my going back to His Message to Israel, by the Voice of Moses, for the Policy of Zion contained in the words—

Thou shalt lend unto many Nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

As Elijah the Restorer, I nail these words to the mast:

And Not the Tail; And thou shalt be above only. Thou shalt be beneath; And thou shalt hearken unto the Commandments of Jehovah thy God, Which I command thee this day, To Observe and to Do them.

Zion's Policy is from God.

I will not take criticism from any one, not the humblest or the highest in rank.

The people have been with me all the time, and they have approved my policy, and so has God.

I want Unity, but it is not the Unity of backbiting and criticism.

I am honored, not rebuking you in the Blessing which He is giving to us in the close of the year. [The day following the utterance of these words, Monday, December 29th, more than Eighty Thousand Dollars were subscribed for Stock in Zion's Financial and Commercial Institutions; and the float has continued until the date of the publication of this discourse—January 24th.]

I do not want people close to me who will give me a stab in the back.

I want Unity, from the highest down to the humblest.

If you cannot approve my policy, you would better sell out and go.

Pray for me. (Amen.)

I have only a few short years to live; but Zion must be firmly established and the Flag of the Messiah our King must float high all others on Mount Zion at Jerusalem, ere my work as the Restorer is done.

I may live till the Christ comes in the Rapture. I know not.

There Must be Order and Unity.

You have to stand by your leader, even when you do not understand the policy.

It is a piece of impudence upon your part to go about criticizing.

There is no man in Zion today to whom God gives the policy of Zion but the General Overseer himself. (Amen.)

You know that this work has been led by me under God from the beginning.

The reason why these resources pour in today is because I am at the head of it, carrying out God's directions.

I am not going to have any critical dogs yelping around whom I thought were strong men.

The tail is not going to wag the dog.

It is only because I have had the courage at all times to say what I am saying this morning that Zion stands.

I do not want any one who is closely associated with me to go with me into the year 1903 who does not heartily approve of my policy; if you cannot approve my policy, and you want to stay in Zion, you must hold your tongue.

If all the federal officers in the War of the Rebellion endeavored to direct the United States army, when would that war have ended?

It would never have ended.

I believe that this people approves my policy. (Amen.)

I would like to hear that Amen again. (Amen and applause.)

It is not a selfish policy.

It would have been a very easy thing to have borrowed money and to have piled indebtedness upon Zion land.

That is not Zion's policy.

Zion's Policy has been to Wait upon God, and to do Right.

God has been with us.

I thank God for my faithful people.

I often say to my officers that the strength of Zion, under God, is the strength of the Common People whose love and loyalty have been given to me so freely.

May God bless you.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

Our God and Father, in Jesus' Name we come to Thee. Take us as we are. Make us what we ought to be in spirit, in soul and in body. Give us power to do right, no matter what it costs, to stand by Thy Word, to follow Thy Son, and follow Him whom Thou hast put over us. Give to the General Overseer the grace he needs, and help us to support him, for Jesus' sake. Blessed is he that worketh in the work of the Lord; and we know that the calling of the Lord is holy. Give us grace, for Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Service was closed with the Doxology and the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit, soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it: the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever, Amen.

...a Strong Messenger (angel) painted for us by the Apostle John through his vision on the Isle of Patmos.

The rainbow was given by God to Noah as the token of His Covenant with him and all flesh. (Genesis 9:11.)

The Old Testament contains many promises of a coming Messiah, but nowhere is there a complete or perfect plan of salvation. It was only with the coming of Christ that man was given the final and complete Covenant—the New Covenant.

And the Messenger lifted up his hand to Heaven, and said: "These are the works which I have done for them. I have given them life, and they have lived; and everlasting life have I given them, and they live for evermore." (John 10:28.)

And the Messenger of the Covenant has a ministry of fire—the fire of the Holy Spirit which, through his words, consumes evil. (Malachi 3:1-2.)

The rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, shows forth the wonderful light which he brings to the world.

And I saw another Strong Angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. — Revelation 10:1.

THIS is a beautiful portrait of the Strong Messenger (angel) painted for us by the Apostle John through his vision on the Isle of Patmos.

The rainbow on the head of the Messenger represents the Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, which he brings; for he is the Messenger of the Covenant. (Malachi 3:4; Exodus 15:25.)

He is the seventh and last Messenger, sent to Restore All Things before the Coming of the Lord. (Malachi 4:5; Matthew 17:10-14; Acts 3:21-26.)

The rainbow was given by God to Noah as the token of His Covenant with him and all flesh. (Genesis 9:11.)

The Lord Almighty is so manifestly with him, ending him with His Spirit, that he commands my earnest attention.

He certainly has the "spirit and power" of Elijah, and still greater courage— for the Tishbite fled, panic-stricken, a hundred miles or more from a woman—but Dr. Dowie never flees or flinches and still greater courage—for the Tishbite fled, panic-stricken, a hundred miles or more from a woman—but Dr. Dowie never flees or flinches. A lady, who had been attending our meetings, said to me a short time ago, saying: "Will you read something about Dr. Dowie, if you shortly after you had been in Zurich, but I was ing your work."

Great peace and happiness into my heart and life. But, to our surprise, we found not only that your heart is filled with the burning desire to see every member of my church brought into the Kingdom by True Repentance and Living Faith in the Christ. I think that God already has manifested a real hunger for God's truth among those of my members who are really born again. Your brother in the Christ, GEORG ZOGG.

A minister writes to our General Overseer from Germany, saying: "I have a great desire to tell you God, in answer to your prayer, has brought me into such close communion with Him as I never had before. I am so deeply moved by your story that I cannot find words to express how much I feel that I am now laying aside the tenth of all our income, which I now used for the poor, to give to the Church."

I ask you, dear Dr. Dowie, once more to pray for me, that I may be an out-and-out witness for God. Knowing that God answers your prayers, I ask you, dear Dr. Dowie, once more to pray for me, that I may be an out-and-out witness for God.

Leaves of Healing the Best Teacher and Preacher.

A lady who is a member of the Baptist church writes: "I have been a careful reader of Leaves on Healing for several months. It preaches the Gospel to me fuller, richer, sweeter, than I have ever heard it before from any pulpit. I have been a Christian for forty years trying to serve my dear Master as best I could; have had comfort and pleasure in His service, but never felt so at rest in the Christ as now. The Gospel as Rev. John Alexander Dowie preaches it satisfies me. It is full, complete, beautiful. I believe Elijah the Restorer is here. I must believe it or else give up my faith in God and prayer."

ZION LITERATURE MISSION.

Dear General Overseer:—I first heard of you shortly after you had been in Zurich, but I was not led to make any further investigation regarding your work. For some years I have been vice-president of a Men's Christian Society, and lately I have often heard the members discussing Dr. Dowie. I did not know what to say or think, because I felt I was not going to condemn a thing of which I knew nothing.

A lady who had been attending our meetings, stepped up to me a short time ago, saying: "Will you read something about Dr. Dowie, if you give me some of his writings?"

I asked her that I would be glad to do so, and she handed me three copies of Blatter der Heilung.

My wife, my oldest boy and myself set to work that night to read them, which we did very carefully, making a point to find out if they contained anything contrary to the Word of God.

But, to our surprise, we found not only that every word was in perfect harmony with the Bible, but we also found many truths, of which we had been convinced for years, and which the preachers have not had the courage to proclaim.

I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once. I am glad to say that God has raised him up to tell the whole truth to the churches and to the world for once.

Your brother in the Christ,

GEORG ZOGG.
NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer.

I came that they may have Life, and may have it abundantly.—John 10:10.

JESUS, the Christ, said He came to bring Life. The so-called churches today seem to forget this, or if they do make any admission they usually claim that this “Life” applies only to the spiritual.

In Zion the teaching is very clear and positive. Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. He is the Savior. The Atonement which He made was wrought that all who truly repented and believed might be saved.

Redemption from sin and its consequences was made possible through the Atonement of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Life from God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, can be given to all who will meet the Divine conditions.

Disease is not Life. Sooner or later it brings death. Therefore it cannot be that which Jesus came to bring.

Elijah the Restorer, from day to day leads God’s people in Zion forward, boldly proclaiming the Everlasting Covenants of the Eternal God, and demanding a full obedience to God on the part of His children.

A great Host is rising over all the earth, which is receiving and obeying the ministry in Zion.

God is wonderfully hearing and answering prayer in their behalf. The testimonies can be read and heard on all sides.

This week we print a few more Notes of Thanksgiving.

Humanity can read these testimonies, but God alone can know the full story. He alone can see and hear the thoughts and silent breathings of praise and thanksgiving.

We sent a request to you on the 28th of December, asking you to pray for my husband. He had been quite sick for several days with high fever and sore throat.

Monday evening, the 29th the fever left him, the soreness left his throat, and he was able to eat a hearty supper.

We knew your prayers would be answered for us. After the request was sent he felt quite at rest. We thank and praise God for His goodness. We are so glad we have learned to know God’s way of healing.

Thanking you for your prayers and your kind letter, and praying God’s richest blessings upon you and your family, I am,

Your sister in the Christ,

MRS. TREACE.

Father and Son Healed in Answer to Prayer.

NEW CARLISLE, OHIO, December 31, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Some time since I wrote asking your prayerful assistance in my affliction.

I had what the doctors pronounced sciatica. I was so ill that I was unable at times to get my shoes on, as I could not stoop enough to reach my feet.

I suffered so much pain that the doctor was obliged to inject morphine into my hips and back to enable me to rest.

I was unable to do work of any kind for eight or ten weeks at one time.

It was during one of those bad spells some months ago, after trying doctors, Christian Science and every available means, that I got hold of some of your papers, and at once concluded to write to you.

The blessed result was that I have been healed. One morning I arose from my bed well, and said to my wife, “I feel all right this morning; I could not stoop enough to reach my feet.”

She looked very much surprised but finally said: “I hope you are; I would be so glad to see you able to work again.”

The next morning was a rainy day, and I could not go to work, but I did go the next morning.

Thank God, I have been able to work ever since.

I am writing to ask your prayerful assistance for my son, who was taken sick with this same ailment.

He is now a hearty, robust fellow.

I am writing this letter as my son has just been healed.

We are praising God for Zion where there is Light, Life and Healing.

Your prayers and those of the Brethren in Zion are the only way of healing.

With our first baby we had a doctor. We was in labor four days and nights, and then lost our baby.

I might have gone with him had not God answered the prayer of my husband and nurse.

All doctoring that was done for the cancers only made them worse.

My husband and I were officers in the Salvation Army, but the rules and regulations were too oppressive; so we got out.

We are praying God for Zion where there is Light, Life and Healing. Yours for the upbuilding of God’s Kingdom.

Prayers of the Children Heard and Answered.

CLARKSDALE, MISSOURI, December 24, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your letter is at hand, and we thank you for your comforting words.

We wrote you on the 24th of December, asking you to pray for our daughter Clara.

She was very sick, with a high fever, and pain in her lungs and stomach, and at times she could not hear at all.

For over a year we have not used any of the Devil’s drugs.

We asked Clara if she wanted any; she said she would trust the Lord for help. She said: “Mammie, you write to the General Overseer to pray for me, and I will get well.”

Thank God, she is well, and started to school this morning.

Her little brother and sister were sick at the same time.

We trusted them in the hands of the Lord, and they are both well again.

Faith in God is Always Rewarded.

MANSFIELD, OHIO, January 8, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your letter of January 7th saying that you had prayed for us, has been received.

It gives me great pleasure to testify to what God has done for us in answer to your prayers.

She retired and I picked the little fellow up and walked and prayed, and in about five minutes he was asleep.

I kissed his little face and was happy to find it perfectly cool.

This has all been some months ago, and neither the baby’s nor my troubles have returned.

Blessed be the Lord who healeth us.

Your brother in the Christ,

ELWOOD BENNETT.

Healed of Cancers and Delivered in Childbirth.

READING, CALIFORNIA, December 26, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty to let you know of some of the things which God has done for me.

Last April I sent a request for prayer for cancerous tumors in my breast.

One tumor was of a year and a half standing, and nearly the size of an egg, but very hard and painful.

The other one, smaller and on the surface, is now entirely gone, with only a scar left.

The large one is nearly gone and I praise God for the healing and for showing me that He is all-powerful in all things.

I believe the healing would have come sooner, had I realized at first that I must leave the whole thing to God, and not try to “doctor” my blood and help Him out.

The third cancer, lower down on my body, which I did not mention in my letter, is also gone.

On July 7th, 1902, He delivered me wonderfully when our dear baby boy was born.

He is now a hearty, robust fellow.

I was sick five hours, when the pain came and I asked God to help me. I suffered no more.

On March 19th I went to a doctor, but while she was preparing to go I took him in my arms, and we thank you for your comforting words.

It was during one of those bad spells some months ago, after trying doctors, Christian Science and every available means, that I got hold of some of your papers, and at once concluded to write to you.

We knew your prayers would be answered for us.

The blessed result was that I have been healed. One morning I arose from my bed well, and said to my wife, “I feel all right this morning; I could not stoop enough to reach my feet.”

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD.

Saturday, January 20, 1903.

Our little boy, Henry, will be three years old next month. He would scream out and hold his sides, the pain was so intense. I told him that he must ask God to heal him. When I got through talking to him he said, "I wish God would heal me now." For a while he seemed to be in a deep study, and all at once he looked at me and said, "Mamma, I am healed now.*

Sure enough, the little fellow was healed, and is well and happy.

Wishing you and your dear family a glorious New Year, with God's richest blessings upon you and all Zion, I am,

Your sister in the Christ, (Mrs.) Fred Ladoge.

Instantly Healed of a Terrible Throat Disease.

Miss Alice Tillotson, of Zion City, Illinois, writing under date of January 10, 1903, says:

Dein General Overseer:—God has wonderfully and instantly healed me of a terrible throat disease, with which I suffered for twenty years.

I have suffered death at the hands of many doctors and specialists. Your sister in Jesus, Alice Tillotson.

God Is Still the Healer of His People.

Mrs. C. L. Greer of Jackson, Tennessee, writing under date of January 3, 1903, says:

Dein General Overseer:—I thank you for your prayers in behalf of our dear little baby, also my dear husband, who were quite sick a few weeks ago.

I also thank you on behalf of Carrie Beth, who was taken very suddenly and severely sick with pneumonia.

Our dear Heavenly Father heard and answered, for which we praise His Holy Name.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) C. L. Greer.

Healed of Many Diseases.

Mrs. Minnie Maddox, of St. Elmo, Illinois, writing under date of December 5, 1903, says:

Dein General Overseer:—I write to tell you of the many blessings I have received through Zion teaching.

I have been healed of severe stomach trouble, constipation, catarrh, female trouble and nervousness.

Delivered from the Tobacco Habit.

766 West Eighty-first Place, Chicago, Illinois, December 31, 1902.

Dein General Overseer:—I write this testimony to thank God for what He has done for me during the past year.

I was a slave to tobacco for over forty years. I was advised by my family doctor to smoke tobacco for indigestion as he could do me no good. I can further state that the tobacco did no good. I have often felt in late years that it was not right for me to smoke.

The habit of smoking had become second nature and it seemed impossible for me to give it up in my own strength.

At the All-Night gathering at South Side Zion Tabernacle, December 31, 1901, my daughter, Mrs. Jennie Shaffer, sent a request for prayer for me, that God would deliver me from this terrible curse of smoking.

Thank God, He heard and answered your prayer.

I was not aware that my daughter sent in this request.

I was in East Chicago, Indiana, twenty miles from the city, at that time.

I hope that this testimony may help others.

Thanking you for your prayers and giving God all the glory, I am,

Yours in His work, (Mrs.) Mary Ericson.

God Quickly Heals the Little Ones.

Tecumseh, Nebraska, December 20, 1902.

Dein General Overseer:—I want to write you a few lines this morning to thank you for your prayers for my two children.

One of them had contracted a severe cold, which settled on his lungs.

He became so hoarse that he could scarcely speak. He was in this condition for two weeks. One night it seemed as though his throat would close up.

I awoke at 2 o'clock, and while praying for him I was impressed to send a request to you.

I wrote the request at that hour, and sent it right out.

In three days after this the cold broke, and he is now able to talk, and can go to school again.

I also requested you to pray for my little girl, who had a sore arm.

Before I heard from you the sores had healed up nicely, and her appetite had returned. She is now well and hearty, and is in school.

Before, when this sore broke out on her, she was out of school for six months, but they healed in five days this time.

I thank you, dear General Overseer, for your prayers, and I thank and praise God for His goodness and mercy to me.

I am a constant reader of the Little White Dove, and would not be without it for twice its price.

I learned through reading it that God was the Healer and not the afflictor, and that He was not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

May God bless and spare you and your dear wife and son, many years, to carry the Gospel to every creature.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) Ida Wilson.

Lameness Healed, Crutches and Splints Cast Aside.

18 Oldham Road, Waterlooo, Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancashire, November 15, 1902.

Evangelist H. E. Cantel.

Dear Evangelist:—Peace to thee!

I feel led to testify of what God has done for me in Jesus' Name.

About six years ago I had a fall, which resulted in my having a very sore leg: but, owing to my iniquities, and healeth all my diseases.

My leg was so strengthened that I was able to walk three miles without the aid of crutches or anything else.

I am now able to follow my occupation, which is that of a weaver, and am still trusting God.

I heartily thank you and the General Overseer, and all the members here and at Ashton-cum-Tyrley for praying for me.

I pray that God will continue to bless your ministry.

Your sister in the Christ,

Diana E. Greaves.

Many Healings and Blessings.

Luling, Texas, December 28, 1902.

Dein General Overseer:—I feel it my duty as well as a privilege to testify to God's goodness and mercy to me during the year that is just closing.

For two or three years previously I had given up drugs for myself almost entirely, having been blessed a number of times when the prayer of faith was offered for me.

As I learned more of God's Word I was led to give up drugs for my children—two little girls.

I began the year with an attack of the grip, from which God speedily delivered.

Then the children and I had very severe colds.

The children had the Cuban itch or something like it, and one of them had mumps.

In July, Julia and Mary both were taken with typhoid fever.

We immediately sought the Lord for healing.

Julia was speedily restored to health, but God permitted little Mary to draw very near unto the gates of death.

Her bowels moved involuntarily, and it seemed almost continuously, but after telegraphing for prayer twice, I obeyed for prayer for her bowels especially, and from that hour they changed for the better, and she improved from that time on.

On Thanksgiving Day, God gave me a dear little Zion boy.

I telegraphed to you for prayer, and as God had kept me in health all along, I was not afraid to trust Him to deliver me.

My labor was short, and attended with no unnatural condition.

This was my third child, and my health is good, while it was anything but good after the birth of either of the other two. Surely He forgave all my iniquities, and healed all my diseases.

He is leading me on to a wider, deeper spiritual life, and a stronger, physical one.

Each day the Holy Spirit gives me a new ray of light, which makes life more beautiful, and the Christ still fairer—the Fairest of ten thousand.

Praise God for such a wonderful, precious, perfect Savior, Healer and Keeper.

With earnest prayers for the welfare of yourself and family, and for the success of every Zion movement, I am,

Faithfully yours,

NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Eclesiastical Secretary

Boston, Massachusetts.

Daniel Bryant, Elder-in-charge.

Edgewood—Helen A. Smith and Emma D. Bryant.

Deaconess—Nicholas B. Rideout and David J. Ellsworth.

Boston is, religiously speaking, a most remarkable city. Portions of Scripture adorn the walls, and enabling quotations speak forth from above the portals of her public buildings. Zion's religion on earth thrives in Boston, and it is a characteristic of the city to tolerate all beliefs and take a taste of each, at least so Boston says. Boston's religion is a cosmopolitan mixture of Spiritualism, Infidelity, Christian Science, Unitarianism, Roman Catholicism and Denominationism. All gods are welcome in her Pantheon, and at first she was disposed to be friendly to the unknown God of Zion.

But Boston's religious tolerance is a humble, and before the heart-searching Gospel of Zion it is so manifested. It rather amused incident of this occurred recently.

We were courteously allowed to distribute Leaves of Healing among the members of the fire department by the chief. When the call was made, twenty-five came forward offering their lives for service wherever their beloved leader should direct.

We feel that the blessing of the Holy Spirit has been upon us in our work, and that it would be helpful to tell how it is now organized and carried forward in Boston.

SALOON-WORK.

As the week's program begins Saturday noon, we shall begin with an account of the Saloon-work. At this time Leaves of Healing arrive at the hall. We are taking 100 copies per week which we feel is a good record in a branch of thirty members.

At noon Saturday, our beloved young deacon, Nicholas B. Rideout, begins his labors. He is an expert accountant in the employ of Ginn & Co., and does all the bookkeeping and technical work involved in the use of the literature. Oftentimes he labors from noon Saturday until ten at night stamping Leaves of Healing, Zion Messages and other Literature, arranging saloon-districts and workers, and districts for the Restoration work on the morrow, and assigning the workers for each. The Deacon furnishes the Elder at the close of each month a statement accounting for each copy of Leaves and all financial receipts. His services are invaluable.

When the saloon-workers arrive Saturday night they find all in readiness for them. Two of our workers always have each sold seventy-two copies in a single night. About three hundred are sold each Saturday night, beside fifty copies distributed in the large hotels.

Half of our saloon force recently migrated to Zion City, but we were able to fill up the ranks. With our full force here we could easily sell six hundred copies each week.

But our workers are not simply selling Leaves. Most touching personal work is done among the women found in the saloons, and the men hear a Message from heaven spoken to them in these foul abodes of darkness.

Our workers tell until late Saturday night and are present, bright, fresh and happy, Lord's Day morning to march in the ranks of the Restoration Host.

WORK OF ZION RESTORATION HOST.

On the first Lord's Day in November, 1902, Zion Restoration Host was organized in Boston. It was an occasion never to be forgotten. The Elder unfolded the nature of the vow to be taken—that the long-awaited prophet of the Times of Restoration was there marshaling his host for battle.

When the call was made, twenty-five came forward offering their lives for service wherever their beloved leader should direct.

Faces were shining with joy and many cheeks suffused with rosy glow. "I'll go where You want me to go, dear Lord." Zion Restoration Host meets every Lord's Day morning in Boston.

A half hour is spent in earnest supplication before God that all may be filled with the Holy Spirit and endued with power for service.

The little army then marches forth, dropping leaves to each district.

Home after home is entered. * Peace be to this house* is lovingly spoken in lowly tenements and in gorgeously furnished mansions. Most touching scenes occur.

We are all in this house unitedly received with kindness. In an elegant home a woman, upon receiving the beautiful salutation, said with tears in her eyes, "Oh, those words mean so much to this house just at this time.*

We meet carefully after the sick, for Jesus has said, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me shall live, even as I live." Our workers get into the homes, hold little meetings, pray with the sick and leave Zion Literature behind them. We are meeting a blessed success selling the Leaves in this house-to-house work, one couple selling twenty and another—two of our men—twenty in Boston.

We enter about four hundred homes each Sunday and thus minister to at least 2,000 people; so we have a pretty good audience in Boston.

Although small, yet trained in the grace of God, this little army is moving over Boston, knocking at every door and leaving the glad news of the Everlasting Covenant of our God.

Our regular services are as follows: Thursday, 2:30, an afternoon Divine Healing service; Thursday evening, 7:30, the regular weekly meeting; Sunday, 2 p.m., junior meeting, led by Evangelist Bryant; 3 p.m., preaching service; 4:30 p.m., a sort of business meeting, in which we endeavor to get a general report of the week's work.

Our meetings have steadily grown in spiritual power, and Baptism for service has come upon our people, leading them forth into the most consecrated work.

Many blessings of healing have come in answer to prayer. We desire to record to the glory of God a few of the most striking cases as they occurred under our ministry.

INSTANT HEALING OF TUMOR OF THE LEFT EYE.

This is the case of Mrs. Hannah K. Bishop, Stewartrtown Hollow, New Hampshire.

The healing took place before our very eyes. For months a growth had been forming in the left eye, and it became so bad that with this eye Mrs. Bishop could not discern the features of one's face, her vision directly in front being obstructed. To ascertain the nature of the difficulty, Mrs. Bishop consulted and was examined by two oculists the day before we saw her.

They both pronounced the difficulty to be a tumor in the eye, and said that nothing but an operation would save the remaining eye.

The next day I conducted Divine Healing service at Colebrook, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Bishop was present. I laid hands upon Mrs. Bishop's eye in the Name of the Lord Jesus, asking for complete healing.

The prayer was offered in a half minute. Mrs. Bishop immediately took up the Message containing the testimony of Ma Belle Kelsey, which was lying on a stand beside her, and, closing the right eye, she read with the eye which a moment before was blinded with a tumor.

She read several chapters in her Bible the next day with her right eye closed, and a letter from her, recently, tells me that her left eye is now stronger than the right eye.

Praise God!

CASE OF MISS JOSEPHINE GILBRANSON.

Miss Gilbranson had been sick several months and was in great agony, and to all appearance dead.

Her difficulty was apparently a stricture somewhere in the bowels, as she constantly vomited and had no passage from her bowels.

I could not help noticing how well she was clothed for so poor a woman and how warmly she was dressed on this bitter winter day.

I felt a thrill of joy when she incidentally informed me that the dress she was wearing had been given her by our little relief circle.

God bless Zion Dorcas Work and beloved Overseer Jane Dowie, who directs it.

PLAN OF COTTAGE-MEETINGS.

We have established these in different quarters of the city and suburbs, holding three or four a week. Thorough house-to-house work is done in the afternoon, surrounding the place of service by the members of the company, who give out the Messages, tells Leaves of Healing, and invites to the evening service.

REGULAR SERVICES.

Our regular services are as follows: Thursday, 2:30, an afternoon Divine Healing service; Thursday evening, 7:30, the regular weekly meeting; Sunday, 2 p.m., junior meeting, led by Evangelist Bryant; 3 p.m., preaching service; 4:30 p.m., a sort of business meeting, in which we endeavor to get a general report of the week's work.

CASE OF MISS JOSEPHINE GILBRANSON.

Miss Gilbranson had been sick several months and was in great agony, and to all appearance nearing the end.

Her difficulty was apparently a stricture somewhere in the bowels, as she constantly vomited and had no passage from her bowels.
After a heart-searching talk with her we kneaded by her bed of pain, and laying hands upon her in the Name of the Lord Jesus, the Christ, we asked that her bowels might open and that she might be able to take food and retain it.

We then commanded her to eat in the Name of the Lord.

In a few hours her bowels moved; she began to eat, vomiting ceased, and she was lifted by the power of God from a bed of great suffering.

IMMEDIATE HEALING OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

This case was accompanied with some most interesting and gratifying features as it was diagnosed as pleurisy.

In a week her trouble had developed into pneumonia.

Miss Elizabeth McLennan, a nurse of years of experience, graduate from the Homeopathic training school of Boston—now a member of Zion—was called to nurse Mrs. Harrington.

She stood by the bedside as Dr. Wood made his examination.

Mrs. Harrington’s temperature was 103. Dr. Wood perused her chart, and said: “The right lung is solidly congested. It is pneumonia and must run its course.”

We had been sent for and arrived about two hours after the examination.

We asked God for immediate healing, and laying our hands upon the congested lung, we said: “Take a deep breath in the Name of the Lord.”

We watched the lungs fill with air, as several deep breaths were taken.

All pain immediately vanished, and when the doctor returned subsequently to examine his mother-in-law, he found the previously congested lung as clear as the other—not a trace of congestion left, and the temperature normal.

Miss McLennan stood by a delightfully witness, as the doctor marked these facts.

He left the room remarking: “Oh, well, the crisis could have come at any time and ordered that lamb-chops and anything else she desired be given her to eat.

BLESSED DELIVERANCE IN CHILDBIRTH.

In November, Mrs. Frank Marsen gave birth to a sweet little Zion baby.

We cannot give the details of this case in print, but do so as far as we can.

The midwife in charge of Mrs. Marsen was Mrs. Christina Arthur, Lawrence, Massachusetts, but a telegram failing to reach her, she did not arrive until about twelve hours after the birth of the baby.

Mrs. Arthur was educated in Scotland and is an old experienced midwife.

She found Mrs. Marsen in a most critical condition, from a professional standpoint.

The afterbirth had adhered, and upon her attempting to remove it, it parted, one-half remaining within.

Mrs. Marsen had failed so rapidly the past six hours that her condition appeared alarming.

Mrs. Arthur informed me that in surgery an immediate operation would be necessary.

We definitely asked God to remove this afterbirth by the power of the Holy Spirit, and in a few hours it came away.

The following morning Mrs. Marsen was bright and full of the joy of the Lord and His praise was upon all our lips.

Since preparing the above report word has reached us from our beloved General Overseer that we are to proceed to Cincinnati to take charge of the work there. With deep regret we lay down a work which was a growing joy, and pray God’s blessing upon those in New England, whom we love more than words can tell.

With joy we turn our faces to Cincinnati, asking that God’s presence go before us.

Deacon Peter G. Winters.—Through reading Leaves of Healing I was set free from the tobacco habit, and God healed me of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Louisa Rawn.—In answer to the prayer of Elder Bryant I was quickly and wonderfully healed of paralysis.

Deaconess Catharine H. Frew.—Thank God that He has delivered us from the use of poisonous drugs. God’s keeping power preserved our children from scarlet fever, although they were exposed. We have had God’s healing of pleurisy, grip, and other diseases. A window fell on the baby’s hand and hurt it badly. God healed it at once.

Deacon Stephen H. Pusher.—We lost several children by trusting to doctors and drugs. We have found great blessing through Leaves of Healing. I had the grip and was healed immediately through the prayers of my wife and another Christian. The pain disappeared and appetite came.

Mrs. Eliza Winters.—I had dropsy for many years. In answer to the General Overseer’s prayer I was healed when I gave up medicine. God also healed me of heart trouble.

Mrs. Caroline E. Armstrong.—I had heart disease during thirty years. I took many drugs and suffered many things of many physicians and was nothing bettered but rather grew worse. Among my doctors were Dr. Colter, of Marinette, Wisconsin, and Dr. Hicks, of Menominee, Michigan. They got their pay but did nothing for me. When John Alexander Dowie laid his hand on my heart and prayed, I was healed by God, and from that day I have had no trouble with my heart.

Deacon Fred Hackeman.—Long ago I was in the saloon business and was becoming a drunkard. I was healed of rheumatism and partial deafness, immediately when I cried out, “Lord, help me.”

Mrs. Caroline E. Armstrong.—I had heart disease during thirty years. I took many drugs and suffered many things of many physicians and was nothing bettered but rather grew worse. Among my doctors were Dr. Colter, of Marinette, Wisconsin, and Dr. Hicks, of Menominee, Michigan. They got their pay but did nothing for me. When John Alexander Dowie laid his hand on my heart and prayed, I was healed by God, and from that day I have had no trouble with my heart.

Deacon Fred Grandall.—Through Leaves of Healing, God has greatly blessed myself and family. I was delivered from the tobacco habit while a Methodist. But they would not let me hear the Divine Healing in the class meeting. So I came out and joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Joseph Lindom.—Through reading Leaves of Healing I was healed of bad eyes and weak lungs in answer to prayer. I have been living in Zion City. The city speaks for itself.

James Fleury, of Ingalls, Michigan, gives the following testimony:

“My wife had various diseases, and was treated by many doctors.

She was given up as incurable by Dr. Jensen and also by Dr. Minnehah of Green Bay, Wisconsin.

But she was healed by God at home through reading Leaves of Healing.

The priest said to her: ‘You cannot belong to the True Church and read that paper.’ So she burned Leaves of Healing.

Not long after that a Voice spoke to her: ‘The Jews crucified our Lord and you are crucifying Him by your neglect.’

Then she repented and turned to God and subscribed for Leaves of Healing and joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

She read the Leaves aloud to me.

Through it God saved me from tobacco, from beer drinking and from the vile habit of cursing.

I was struck violently in the leg by a piece that flew from the saw in the mill.

My leg turned black and swelled terribly, so much so, that I actually weighed seven pounds more than usual. People said, ‘Oh, you must have a doctor.’

I said: ‘No.’

My wife prayed for me.

The pain went away immediately.

I at once went back to my work and kept at work, to the surprise of the doctors.

“My child was healed of a broken collar-bone.

I praise God for many blessings.”

Zion Tabernacle, 50 State street.

Services Sunday 10 and 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., Tuesday and Thursday 7 and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. W. C. Christie, Deacon-in-charge.

We are pleased to receive the following report of Deacon W. C. Christie’s labors.

As we think of the broad Empire state and realize the small number of our laborers, we are reminded of the words of Jesus: “The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few.”

We are looking forward, however, to great blessing during the summer months, and trust that our officers in that great state will not only “hold the fort,” but do splendid service in battling for the Captain of our Salvation, and thus prepare the children of God for the part which they should take in the October campaign, at which time our General Overseer will lead the ever-victorious host of Zion against the great metropolis of New York, where sin and wickedness abounds on every hand.

It will be a mighty conflict.

Sharp and decisive will be the engagement, but the victory will be glorious.

Deacon Christie writes:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Since I took charge of the Binghamton Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in July, 1902, God has wonderfully blessed me in my labors.

The opposition has been great, and we have labored under great difficulties and persecutions, but notwithstanding all this, God has given the victory to Zion.

Some have been saved from the tobacco habit; some from secret societies (one a Freemason); six have been hopefully converted; sixteen baptized.
by Trine Immersion; twenty-two have come into fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion; twenty-one have been healed of various diseases (some chronic for years); over five thousand calls have been made by the Restoration Host and myself, and one hundred and thirty-one services have been held.

Thousands upon thousands have been reached with the Messages from Zion and her beloved General Overseer (Elijah the Restorer), and I must add that thousands in this city in the last few months or year (through coming in contact with Zion) have had something vastly greater to think about than a presidential election or territorial extension.

May God by the power of His Holy Spirit stir the hearts of the multitude.

The worst side is being shown.

The enemies of Zion are gnashing their teeth and saying to Zion, "Thou shalt not," but Zion marches among her enemies and slays her thousand with the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God.

The ecclesiastical work in Zion is so vastly different from that of the denominations and other so-called religious bodies, that I find myself in a great school of education, and one from which we will never be able to graduate till Jesus come.

I feel like Paul when he says, "Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before." I desire to be an apt student in the school of the Christ and of Zion.

We thank you most heartily for your prayers, and for all your effort to extend the Kingdom of God in Binghamton.

SPECIAL NOTICE:—The Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Binghamton, New York, will hold a ten days' Zion Rally in the Tabernacle, 89 State street, beginning Friday night, January 23d, and closing Lord's Day, February 1st, with two services each day, 3 and 7:30 p.m., except the first day.

We will endeavor to make arrangements for a Baptistical Service, if there are any to be baptized.

Let Zion in New York State and Northern Pennsylvania rally to assist us. Yours for the extension of Zion,

W. C. CHRISTIE.

God Heals Mangled Hand.

KIPP, KANSAS, December 28, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am writing with the hand you prayed for—which I caught in the corn-sheller.

I saw the bone in my thumb when I pulled it out. God wonderfully healed it, for which I praise Him, and thank you for your prayers in my behalf. I can now help mamma and papa as usual. My hand never hurt me after we prayed for it, and after you prayed it healed so quickly—in one day.

I pray that God will make you a blessing to other little boys.

WILLIE SCHULTZ.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Praise the Lord!

I join Willie in praising the Lord that He answered your prayer in the healing of his hand. Surely He is the Great Physician for His people, I thank you for prayer in my behalf. May God work in and through you in being a great blessing to others till Jesus come.

M. E. SCHULTZ.

Jesus Heals a Dying Babe.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 31, 1902.

MY DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty, before this year is ended, to let you know of God's goodness to us.

On the fourth day of last March, God delivered me of a fine ten-pound boy.

My boy grew weakly until he was about four months old, when he was taken very sick with bowel trouble. His bowels were in a bad condition for two or three weeks before he seemed to be at all sick; then all at once he lost his appetite, had fever and was in terrible pain, as if he would go into spasms. We called Deaconess Thomas in, and after she prayed for him he was much better for the rest of the day, but that night he was worse again.

The next day we carried him to the Tabernacle, it being the last day of the Feast, where you, General Overseer, prayed for him.

He was better then for a day or two and then he was worse than ever before. We called Elder Brock. He was in great pain when he arrived. He prayed several times.

The answer came and he was delivered of that terrible pain, and never had such awful pain again during his sickness.

After this the trouble went to his head. He kept his head tossing about all the time.

I sent a request to Shiloh Tabernacle.

Overseer Piiper was conducting the service. At the time of prayer he was again delivered and sat up to play and laugh. But the Devil was not satisfied yet.

He again gave him pains in his bowels and his fever was worse. By this time he was just skin and bones. It seemed that he had lost the power to move his tongue.

Quite often I have squeezed the milk from the bottle into his mouth, for I felt that he must eat something.

We sent again for an Elder. Elder Cairns came.

After this I carried him to a Divine Healing meeting.

Elder Cairns conducted this service. He was again delivered.

Then his lungs were attacked. He coughed badly and threw up phlegm.

Overseer Speicher was called, and in answer to his prayer the healing came.

We have great reason to praise God today, for the little one who was so poor, and whose flesh felt as if it were dead, is today a fine, rosy-checked boy of ten months, lacking a few days.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) MARY REAY.

Healed of Typhoid Fever at Time of Prayer.

57 BLOCK M.
PUEBLO, COLORADO, December 29, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty as well as a joy to tell others of God's wonderful power to heal as well as save His people.

I wish to thank you for your prayers in my behalf.

I wrote you about November 28th, to pray for me, as I had typhoid fever, and I received your kind letter about December 8th, telling me you had prayed.

I praise God, I knew you had prayed and He had answered prayer, for I was better, and have grown stronger every day since.

I wish to thank you again for your prayers in behalf of my little girl, Ruth.

She has been healed more than once, and we trust God for all and in all.

She is a true Zion girl.

I am so glad that God has sent His faithful servant who will teach His people the truth, that He is our Healer as well as our Savior.

May God bless you and your dear wife and keep you until His coming.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) BELLE CARSON.

Healed of Mangled Hand.

COOL OGOOD STREET,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, December 28, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I praise God for the good He has done for me.

I write my testimony telling that the Lord healed me of a hard growth I had on the thumb of my left hand.

It increased every year, covering the whole top of the thumb about half an inch and the nail being half its ordinary length.

At times it was quite painful and interfered with my work.

We sent again for an Elder. Elder Cairns was conducting the service.

The Lord answered the prayer of Elder McClurkin and in a few days it entirely disappeared.

The same kind of growth began on the finger next to the thumb, but that also was gone.

I thank God for this great blessing and pray God to keep you many years to do His blessed work.

Your sister in the Christ,

AMELIA DAHLBERG.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Blessings too Numerous to Mention.

ELGIN, IOWA, December 19, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—It is with a heart full of gratitude to God and to you, His servant, that I send you this testimony.

Your letter of November 3rd was received on the 7th, the day you had set for prayer. Our baby received a great blessing that day. I noticed the change in the evening.

She got along very well for a few days, but in some way she caught cold and was very ill again for three days.

I made up my mind to fight the Devil's work, and that he was not going to kill our dear baby. From that time on she got better, and is now well.

I praise God for the victory.

My two boys are also healed of the whooping cough.

The blessings are too numerous to mention. I thank God for it all.

I thank God for sending Elijah the Restorer, and that we have been taught how to trust God for everything, and how to pray.

My prayer is that God may bless and keep you and dear Overseer Jane Dowie till Jesus come. Yours in the Christ,

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. PHILIPPIANS 4:8.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TODAY.

BY REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

---

LET me speak to you of Jesus, kind reader of these pages.

In simple, honest words, with tenderness and love, I want to tell you glad, good news. Christ changes never, and as He was on earth in age long gone by, He is unchangeably the same even here and now. The Word which never dies is true, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." (Matthew 4:23 ; 9:35.)

All His life and His love were beautifully described by Peter thus: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who wrought about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed of the Devil." (Acts 10:38.)

"Teaching" patiently, "preaching" boldly, He went about with constant sympathy, "healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." (Matthew 4:23 ; 9:35.)

He is the same today as when He trod the Holy land, blessing the fainting, scattered, burdened sheep of God with words of life. And still He journeys over all the earth and bleeding hearts, He still delivers from the tyrant's fetters, and never wearies of His loving task. He binds up still the broken, from Himself, the Fountain, healing virtue still is flowing.

With outstretched hands He stands, quick to respond to thine appeal and banish all thy woe. Unseen but "with us alway," as He said, He stands beside thy bed of weary pain.

Loved ones bend over thee, and minister with sympathetic care; but nearer than all beside is Jesus, thy Saviour and thy Healer still.

The Hand that cleansed the foullness of the leper's flesh and made it sweet and clean; the Hand that made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, the lame to leap, the dumb to speak; the Hand which raised the dead to life is here, no vanished Christ have we.

Oh, wherefore doubt, and wherefore seek at other hands, from surgeon's knife or poison draught, the healing which He died to bring to thee, to me, to all mankind, in every age, in every land, in every clime? Christ changes never.

At noontide, sixteen years ago, I sat in my study in the parsonage of the Congregational Church, at Newtown, a suburb of the beautiful City of Sydney, Australia. My heart was very heavy, for I had been visiting the sick and dying beds of children, the youths and the maidens, were stricken, and, after hard struggling with the foul disease, they, too, lay cold and dead. It seemed sometimes as if I could almost hear the triumphant mockery of fiends ringing in my ears whilst I spoke to the bereaved ones the words of Christian hope and consolation.

Disease, the foul offspring of its father, Satan, and its mother, Sin, was defiling and destroying the earthly temple of God's children, and there was no deliverer.

And there I sat with sorrow-bowed head for my afflicted people, until the bitter tears came to relieve my burning heart. Then I prayed for some message, and oh, how I longed to hear some words from Him who wept and sorrowed for the suffering long ago, the Man of Sorrows and of Sympathies. And then the words of the Holy Ghost inspired in Acts 10:38 stood before me all radiant with light, revealing Satan as the defiler and Christ as the Healer.

My tears were wiped away, my heart was strong; I saw the Way of healing, and the door thereto was opened wide, and so I said, "God help me now to preach that word to all the dying round, and tell them how 'tis Satan still defiles, and Jesus still delivers, for 'He is just the same today.'"

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers, who said, "Oh come at once. Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of the dying maiden. There she lay, groaning, grinding her clenched teeth in the agony of the conflict with the destroyer, the white froth, mingled with her blood, oozing from her pain-distorted mouth. I looked at her and then my anger burned.

"Oh," I thought, "for some sharp sword of heavenly temper keen to slay this cruel foe who is strangling that lovely maiden like an invisible serpent, tightening his deadly coils for a final victory."

In a strange way it came to pass; I found the sword I needed was in my hands, and in my hand I hold it still, and never will I lay it down. The doctor, a good Christian man, was quietly walking up and down the room, sharing the mother's pain and grief. Presently he stood at my side and said, "Sir, are not God's ways mysterious?"

Instantly the sword was flashing in my hands—the Spirit's Sword, the Word of God. "God's way!" I said, pointing to the scene of conflict. "How dare you, Dr. K——, call that God's way of bringing His children home from earth to heaven? No, sir, that is the Devil's work, and it is time we called on Him who came to destroy the work of the Devil to slay the deadly, foul destroyer, and to save the child. Can you pray, Doctor; can you pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick?"

At once, offended at my words, my friend was changed, and saying, "You are too much excited, sir. 'Tis best to say God's will be done," he left the room.

Excited! The word was quite inadequate, for I was almost frenzied with Divinely imparted anger and hatred of that foul destroyer, disease, which was doing Satan's will.

"It is not so," I exclaimed; "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's wishes, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them."

Oh, how the Word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil: for God was with Him." And was not God with me? and was not Jesus there and all His promises true? I felt that it was even so, and turning to the mother I inquired, "Why did you send for me?" To which she answered, "Do pray, oh, pray for her that God may raise her up." And so we prayed.

What did I say? It maybe that I cannot recall the words now without mistake, but words are in themselves of small importance.

The prayer of faith may be a voiceless prayer, a simple, heartfelt look of confidence into the face of Christ.

At such a moment words are few, but they mean much, for God is looking at the heart.

Still I can remember much of that prayer unto this day, and asking God to aid I will endeavor to recall it.

I cried:

Our Father, help! and Holy Spirit teach me how to pray. Plead Thou for me, and I will consent with Thee, as I would with my Father. Hear and heal, eternal One? From all disease and death deliver this sweet child of Thine. I rest upon the Word. We claim the promise now. The word is true, "I am the Lord that healeth thee." Then heal her now. The word is true, "I am the Lord, I change not." Unchanging God, shall save the sick. Trusting in Thee alone, I cry, oh save her now, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that I could hardly believe she had slept. I lay my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she awoke, smiled and said, "Yes, hungry, too," she answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone.

In a few minutes she fell asleep, breathing easily and softly.

Smoothing the long dark hair from her now peaceful brow, and feeling the steady pulsation of her heart and cool, moist hands, I said that Christ had heard and that once more, as long ago in Peter's house, "He touched her and the fever left her."

Turning to the nurse I said, "Get me at once, please, a cup of cocoa and several slices of bread and butter.

Beside the sleeping maid we sat quietly and almost silently until the nurse returned, and then I bent over her and snapping my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she awoke, smiled and said, "Oh, sir, when did you come? I have slept so long."

Then stretching out her arms to meet her mother's embrace, she said, "Mother, I feel so well." "And hungry, too," I said, pouring some of the cocoa in a saucer and offering it to her when cooled by my breath.

"Yes, hungry, too," she answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone.

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that the mother said in a low whisper, "Is she dead?" "No," I answered in a whisper lower still. "Mary will live; the fever has gone. She is perfectly well and sleeping as an infant sleeps."

DIVINE HEALING IN THE GOSPEL.

We claim Divine Healing upon the ground of the Atoning Sacrifice. We claim it because it was said, "The chastisement of our peace was upon Him," and more, "With His stripes we are healed." That we humbly claim. Matthew eighth chapter and sixteenth and seventeenth verses distinctly refers this prophecy to Divine Healing.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness, singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as thou goest along the way through earth to heaven:

Thou, O Christ, art all I want,

More than all in Thee I find.

Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,

Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

We bring this Message to this city, and to thee, kind reader. It will give us joy to tell it to all who will come. Salvation and healing are free, for God never sells His gifts. "Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

The mission opens its doors to all. It is the old-time religion and no new Gospel that is preached. 'Tis the Gospel of Jesus' Redemption for spirit, soul and body, bringing Salvation from sin, Healing from sickness, and Cleansing from every defilement of the flesh and spirit.

Let the words abide in thy heart:

HE IS JUST THE SAME TODAY.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness, singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as thou goest along the way through earth to heaven:

Thou, O Christ, art all I want,

More than all in Thee I find.

Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,

Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF SEEDS grow every year on a maple tree.

GOD HAS HIDDEN WITHIN EACH, wrapped up in its silky green and brown coverings, and borne on its graceful, glossy wing, the Life Principle which is a potential forest of maples.

THESE BEAUTIFUL AND WONDERFUL SEEDS are destroyed by the thousand.

PERHAPS ONLY ONE OF THEM ever grows to be a tree. What a great and beautiful tree it is, though, and how many millions of seeds it bears!

GOD SAW THE GREAT POSSIBILITIES of destruction of the seeds, and created all those thousands that the one might grow.

EACH COPY OF LEAVES of HEALING
HAS UPON ITS SNOW-WHITE PAGES, PLACED THERE BY GOD, THE SPIRITUAL LIFE PRINCIPLE which is potential for the Salvation, Healing and Cleansing of a whole nation.

INDIFFERENCE, PREJUDICE, IGNORANCE, and bitter enmity against God make the power of many copies which are sent forth of none effect. Hence the necessity of sending them out by the Hundred Thousand.

THE ONE YOU SEND OUT MAY BE THE ONE WHICH WILL BE INSTRUMENTAL IN SAVING A NATION

One Hundred Thousand Yearly Subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING
GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HUSBAND HEALED WHEN DYING OF HEART TROUBLE—WIFE HEALED OF BROKEN WRISTS AND CANCER OF THE LIP.

LET THEM SAY... IT IS TRUTH.

God's Messenger has come proclaiming His Covenant, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee." These Witnesses say, "It is Truth." He declares that Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God came, according to prophecy, to bear on the Cross the sicknesses as well as the sins of all the world.

These Witnesses say, "It is Truth."

He tells the wonderful story of Jesus, who went about teaching, preaching "and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people," and says that He is with us still the same Savior, the same Healer, the same Cleanser, the same Keeper.

Again these Witnesses say, "It is Truth."

He claims Divine Authority and a Divine Commission for his ministry.

Once more these Witnesses say, "It is Truth."

They speak with conviction. Their voices have no uncertain sound.

They speak from knowledge, not from speculation, supposition or opinion.

They say, "It is Truth" to every one of these propositions, because they have themselves experienced the Truth in their own spirits, souls and bodies. Hear the Wonderful Story of the husband: A severe injury so seriously affected his heart that for six years he would be prostrated for weeks at a time at frequent intervals. He was so weak that he could not work, and often, even when not entirely prostrated, could scarcely walk.

All this time he took the poisonous drugs of physicians.

Of course they did him no good.

What folly for any one to suppose that the taking of a poison into the stomach could heal a break or a tear in the heart!

God, who made the body, never used a drug to heal it.

Finally, after he had spent a great deal of money to no purpose, he was told by specialists that his heart was permanently injured, and that no medical or surgical skill could afford him the slightest relief.

Thus all human hope perished.

Constant suffering and weakness with the ugly, black shadow of death hovering near, every moment of every hour, was his only portion until that black shadow should fall and end his life.

But the Little White Dove brought him the declaration...
LEAVES OF HEALING.

of the Messenger of God's Covenant. Hope came into his heart.

Then, through reading that Message and the Word of God, came Faith.

He came to Zion.

God's Messenger laid hands upon him and prayed for him in the Name of Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit and in accordance with the Will of God, his Heavenly Father.

Instantly the Life of God flowed through him. He was healed of his terrible affliction. God had made his heart. God alone understood it. God alone could and did heal it.

Years did not beat a normal age this Witness is well and strong.

The heart which for over six years did not beat a normal stroke, is now perfectly sound.

Both her wrists were broken at different times. A fracture of the wrist, as is well known, is one of the most serious to which the body is liable.

But God, who made the wrist, with all its delicate yet powerful adjustments, can perfectly restore it when it is broken.

He has promised to do it, if His conditions are fulfilled.

This Witness fulfilled His conditions and trusted Him alone for healing.

She was delivered from pain, and in both cases was able very quickly to use her wrist again as well as ever.

Physicians who afterward examined her wrists were compelled to acknowledge that the healing was perfect. She also suffered from that indescribably horrible disease, Cancer.

The very name strikes a chill of terror to the heart.

Humanly speaking, it means untold agony and death.

Like some unclean monster it fastened itself upon her lip, and grew to a great size.

It was very painful.

She trusted God for healing.

God has never failed in any of His promises.

Jesus is still the Healer, and His Divine touch still destroys the work of the Devil.

In answer to the prayer of faith, this deadly thing was totally destroyed.

Not even a scar is left to show where it was.

It is because of these miraculous healings wrought by the Power of God in the fulfilment of His Covenant, and through the ministry of the Messenger of that Covenant, that these Witnesses so confidently say, "It is Truth."

They told their wonderful stories on Lord's Day afternoon, January 25, 1903, from the platform of the Chicago Auditorium, in the presence of three thousand hearers.

None who heard could for one moment doubt the absolute sincerity and truthfulness of their statements. These state-

I knew more about it than they did.

I had seasick spells.

I would lie in bed sometimes three or four weeks at a time.

I could not walk to my barn, about 200 feet, for six weeks or two months, because that poor heart of mine would not beat.

When it did beat you could hear it sometimes fifteen or twenty feet away. When it had a fluttering spell, I knew just what was going to happen.

I would have a sick spell for about three weeks or a month. I lived in that misery for about six years.

Then I went to Rochester, Minnesota, to specialists, to have them examine me.

They told me the truth.

They told me that my heart was broken, that the left lobe of my heart did not beat at all without a flutter.

They could not tell how it was, only they knew it did not beat.

I knew that very well.

They told me that there was no power on earth that could heal me.

I was delivered from pain, and in both cases was able very quickly to use her wrist again as well as ever.

I began to think that patent medicine had not done me any good.

I had been reading Leavess of Healing.

My wife and son had faith that God would heal.

My wife thought that I might be healed at home; but I thought that I could not be healed without coming to see the General Overseer. I wanted to see some great miracle performed. I was a Sunday school superintendent, class leader of the Methodist Episcopal church, and had been for twenty years, yet I did not have that faith which takes hold of God.

I was foolish enough to lift more than I ought.

I believed that I have as good a heart as any man here.

It beats regularly; it beats strongly seven days in the week.

For the five years, the second day of February, since I was healed in Zion, I have had only one sick spell.

Once I was sick because I was foolish enough to lift more than I ought.

Since then I have been able to do as much work, I believe, as any man in the community, although I am sixty-five years old.

It is a glorious thing to trust in God.
I thank God that we are here in Zion. We believe that God is the Healer; for He has healed us both and kept us both.

ORAL TESTIMONY OF MRS. ELIZA CLARK.

Given in the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, January 26, 1903.

I have been healed by God's power. I am now sixty-six years old. In my younger days I was always sick, and oftentimes the neighbors would think I was dying.

One time my children, from ten to four years old, got round a chair and prayed to God with all their might—"they told me afterwards—they did not want mamma to die.

The woman who was taking care of me had told them I was going to die.

After they had prayed she came from my room and said, "Mamma is all right." God healed me by children's prayer.

Now, in 1892, I had a cancer on my lip. It was what was called a "rose cancer." I have been healed by God's power.

After they had prayed she came from my room and said, "Mamma is all right.

She said it was broken.

I broke the arm in the afternoon, and the next morning I went home and did some sewing.

I cut out some pieces with my left hand.

During the next week I went again to the place where I had been when I broke my arm, cut some work and helped to do some sewing.

Within two weeks I did my housework.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I want to tell you how God has blessed me in paying tithes.

This week I was very short of money, and it seemed almost impossible to pay my tithes and have enough money left to pay our expenses with.

So I only paid part of my tithes yesterday, thinking I could spare the money better next week to bring to me the Little White Dove.

It has been mannato my spirit, soul and body.

Cleveland, Ohio, December 23, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—At the present time I cannot worship as I desire, but I wish to testify to what God has done for me since coming into Zion.

First of all, we have been taught to understand God's Word much better, which has brought great spiritual blessing to us.

You baptized us when you opened the Branch here.

I was healed of chronic constipation and severe headaches.

I thank God for His keeping power.

Last April, my husband was healed of a bite from a savage dog.

The three children have been healed of measles, fever and blood-poisoning.

We give God all the glory, and thank you and Elder Boeck for teaching us to trust God for spirit, soul and body.

Your sister in the Christ, (Mrs.) Ella Dennison.

We are so thankful for the Full Gospel as taught in Zion, and that we were led out of the apostate church into Zion.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

IS NOT JEHOVAH IN ZION?
IS NOT HER KING IN HER?

These two questions (Jeremiah 8:19) are prefaced by the words,

Rejoice, the Voice of the cry of the Daughter of My People,
From a Land that is Very Far Off.

The Prophet was seeking comfort.
He had cried:

Oh, that I could comfort myself against sorrow!
My heart is faint within me.

This cry which his prophetic ear hears, from "a Land that is very far off," brings comfort to his heart.

In a Land the Prophet never knew, twenty-five centuries from the time the Prophet lived, the Answer comes from Zion, which abideth forever: "Jehovah dwelleth in Zion!"

It is a joy to know that these "sure words of prophecy," whereunto we have taken heed in many a dark day, are more and more clearly receiving their fulfilment in Zion all over the world.

Every form of attack that Satanic ingenuity could devise has been made upon ourselves and upon Zion.

But, standing on the verge of the close of the Seventh Year of the existence of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, we are enabled to raise high the Banner of Zion and to declare:

Jehovah hath brought forth our Righteousness:
Come, and let us declare in Zion the Work of Jehovah our God!

The pages of Leaves of Healing from week to week, and month to month, and year to year contain the record of the Deliverances which God hath wrought.

With great delight we point to the Glorious Record in this issue, pages 463 to 470, of the great Praise and Testimony Gathering held in the Chicago Auditorium, on Lord's Day, January 25, 1903, where thousands witnessed to Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through Faith in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord.
From all parts of the world the same constant stream of testimony comes as to continuous blessing through the operations of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and the glorious Restoration Host.

Thousands are going forth constantly with the glorious message of "Restoration of all things which God hath promised by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began."

Intense interest continues to center upon the work of God in the building up of Zion City.

Although we are in the midst of winter, with long periods of intense cold, often below zero, it is a most surprising fact that building operations are not only continuing, but that many new buildings have been begun, and a number roofed in since the beginning of winter.

We have now the first section of the beautiful buildings for Zion College under roof, and work upon the interior will now go rapidly forward.

Meanwhile the students are comfortably housed in various parts of the city, and Zion College is doing splendid work.

The three large new schoolhouses which have been completed are now filled with throngs of happy, earnest children.

In all directions God's work is moving forward in Zion.

We have given much attention to the absolute necessity for providing increased accommodations for the throngs of worshipers who frequently overflow our present Shiloh Tabernacle, although it seats over five thousand persons.

It was found to be too small within four months of its opening, and when the Feast of Tabernacles closed last July, it was not uncommon to hear the complaint that hundreds, and it was even said that thousands of people had been unable to get in.

The probability that the population of the City of Zion will be at least twenty thousand (20,000) before the end of this year, and that the throngs who have come from Chicago, Milwaukee, and elsewhere, will increase, has compelled us to face the construction of a new Shiloh Tabernacle to accommodate at least sixteen thousand persons.

This will, possibly, enable us to meet the necessities of Zion City until Zion Temple is built, which, as we have stated, is being designed to seat thirty thousand (30,000) persons.

We have decided upon the location of the new Shiloh Tabernacle, a little to the northwest of the site of the present Tabernacle, on a little higher ground, and in a most beautiful situation near Shiloh Grove.

Our architect, Mr. Paul Burkhard, with our superintendent of construction, Deacon Richard H. Harper, have been in lengthened consultation with us and with the engineering staff and other important officers during this week.

We have now given the final instructions for the completion of the plans.

Bids will soon be called for to provide the steel construction framework which will be necessary to carry the immense galleries which will be built in the new Tabernacle.

When these plans are completed, we shall give our readers fuller information.

In a few weeks we hope to be able to publish in the Leaves a photo-engraving of the elevation of the new building.

It is marvelous when we think that one year ago from this date the present Shiloh Tabernacle had no existence, and there were, in the entire city, nothing like enough people to fill so large a place.

And now, within about nine months of its completion, we are compelled to look forward to its abandonment, because of its being already too small for the throngs who frequently come to hear the Word of God within its walls.

If we combined the two audiences that continuously meet at the same time on the afternoon of each Lord's Day, there would have been for many months more than one thousand people, on the average, who could not have obtained seating, or even standing, accommodation in Shiloh Tabernacle.

As our readers will remember, it was thronged at the All-Night with God on the opening of the year.

This is Jehovah's doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.

The sound of our enemies' continued attacks for several months upon Zion's financial institutions has scarcely died.
March 1st.

the fact that within two months, more than three-quarters of a million of dollars have been subscribed for shares in Zion's Commercial and Industrial enterprises, as will be seen by the following letter, which we have just received from our General Financial Manager:

Office General Financial Manager of all Zion Institutions and Industries,

Zion City, Illinois, January 30, 1903.

Beloved General Overseer:—Deacon Daniel Sloan, Manager of Zion Securities and Investments, reports Unconditional Subscriptions to Shares in Zion's various Institutions and Industries received since December 1, 1902, amounting to Six Hundred Ninety Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($690,700); and a further Subscription of Seventy Thousand Five Hundred ($70,500) Conditional on the probable sale of certain properties, making in all, Seven Thousand Six Hundred Twelve (7,612) shares, or Seven Hundred Sixty-One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($761,200).

This shows confidence in your Leadership, and a determination on the part of God's people to aid in establishing a Clean City and Prosperous Industries.

We have great cause to rejoice that this money will come from people whose confidence cannot be shaken by false reports, but who would willingly sacrifice, if necessary, their money and their lives for the Gospel's sake.

With earnest prayers for you and your dear ones,

I am, with hearty Christian love,

Faithfully yours in the Christ's Service,

(Signed) Chas. J. Barnard, General Financial Manager.

Understanding that there are Large Numbers of our Friends who are disappointed in having been unable to get their affairs into such shape as to enable them to subscribe for stock before it is advanced to the premium of Ten Dollars per share on February 1st, WE HAVE DETERMINED TO POSTPONE THE ADVANCE FOR ANOTHER MONTH.

This will give the opportunity which so many desire.

It will be seen that Seventy Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($70,500) of the sum subscribed is "conditional upon the sale of certain properties," and we have been informed that a very large number of our friends would be glad to subscribe upon the same conditions, or would be able to subscribe unconditionally if there was an extension of time granted.

We therefore very gladly permit the subscription to be made where there is a probable disposal of property in view, and also extend the time for making subscription until March 1st.

We shall, however, launch the New Great Business Enterprise, Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, as we have said in previous Notes, when the new Subscriptions to our Present Stocks have reached One Million Dollars ($1,000,000).

The New Association will be floated at par, at Twenty Dollars ($20) per share, and a working capital of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) will be immediately required.

These shares will soon be at a premium.

We have been delighted to know that even before the Articles of Agreement of this new Association are prepared, that money and applications have been sent in for shares in the New Enterprise.

We direct our readers to the Notes in our issues of January 10th and 17th for fuller information in this matter.

In the very interesting reports submitted to us this week by the manager of our Zion Lace Industries, Deacon Arthur Stevenson, we find many evidences of the Wonderful Success of the lace produced by these great Industries.

The following extracts will doubtless be of interest to our readers:

Up to date we have received 671 orders. Of these 374 have been shipped.

We have now on our books 287 orders waiting shipment, of which 97 are due to be sent on or before the first of February.

On some of our patterns we have run entirely out of stock.

We have over fifty webs to remake to fill orders.

Every Bit of Lace is taken from the counters as fast as it is finished, and sent right out.

I have had to call in the travelers, with the exception of two, whom I have instructed to take no more "immediate orders," but to get as much time as possible.

We are constantly receiving requests for samples and prices, and our difficulty is not how to get trade, but how to make the goods in sufficient quantities.

We have barely touched the fringe of the trade, and I almost dread the summer, because of the avalanche of business which we shall be compelled to refuse.

Our travelers come home with regret, as they are delighted with the reception and success that they meet with, and they talk with confidence of "the Tremendous Business" which will come to us when once the people have tested our goods.

One considerable firm in a neighboring city has just sent in their fourteenth order, and they report that "the public like the laces" and that they are having "a phenomenal sale."

We anticipate such returns as these all through, but it makes us feel badly to know that we cannot keep up with the business.

Everything is well at the Industries as regards the people, and God blesses us in our own spirit and helps us through all the work.

We pray that God will bless Zion and give you Resources and Wisdom to rightly use them for His glory and for the Extension of His Kingdom.

WITH THIS REPORT the manager also gave us, verbally, many interesting incidents connected with the work.

FROM A LARGE "White-goods, Hosiery, Lace and Embroidery House" in the Capital City of one of the Southern States we have the following:

REVEREND JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Zion City, Illinois.

Your Reversal—I am in receipt of a small order of Your Lace Factory at Zion, and I give it much pleasure to say that they compare most favorably with goods that come from both England and France, and it is only a question of time when you will out-strip them in the manufacture of Lace.

For twenty-seven years I have handled laces of all kinds.

I wish you unbounded success.

These are the kind of letters that we are constantly receiving.

It must be most gratifying to our investors in these great Industries to know that the success of our Beautiful Zion Lace is so wonderful and so complete; and that it is now only a matter of men and means to establish the Enterprise on a most extensive and profitable scale.

We are now rapidly pushing forward new machinery into the factory, and will place large orders for more as soon as the New Capital subscribed for comes into our hands.

Indeed we are placing orders already in anticipation; but these things would take time even if we had unlimited resources.

So great is the success of Beautiful Zion Laces that we find attempts are being made by New York travelers to impose upon Lace houses samples of very inferior make as being Zion Lace, in the hope that they can thereby prevent the extension of our business.

This can be best illustrated by the following correspondence.

We leave out names, because we think it best to do so:

OFFICES OF ZION LACE INDUSTRIES.

ZION CITY, LAKE CO., ILLINOIS, U. S. A., January 17, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer Christian Catholic Church.

Dear General Overseer,—A few days ago we had a letter from W. G. L., a member of Zion. He stated that he had called upon the firm of L. & McB of his city, and while there they told him of a New York Lace salesman, who had sold them Lace, and who had produced some samples of very inferior make, saying that these were Zion Lace.

Mr. L., feeling certain that he did not really show our product to us in regard to the matter, and we sent the firm mentioned some of our samples letting them speak for themselves.

The result is shown by the enclosed letter, which we think you will be interested in reading.

Yours faithfully in Jesus,

ARTHUR STEVENSON.

ZION CITY LACE CO., ZION CITY, ILL.

HENRY STEVENSON, Assistant Manager.

Dear Sir:—Your samples sent us January 15th at hand, and although we had already bought our entire Spring line, we could not turn such nice work down without injury to our business, so send you a small order to be shipped by express as soon as you can.

Please send us one piece each of the following numbers. (Then follow 32 separate numbers.)

Will you please give us exclusive sale of your lace in ——— as long as we give it first place in our lace department?

Very respectfully,

Per L. L. & McB—Co.

The trick which this New York salesman has adopted cannot, of course, be long continued or be permanently successful; for the superior design, quality, and workmanship of Zion Lace is already too widely known throughout America to permit so foolish and wicked a ruse to succeed.

It will, moreover, as in this case, come back like a boomerang upon the trickster.

The incident, however, proves the high standing which Zion Lace has on the market, when trade competitors are found acting in such a manner, for it is a confession that they are unable to compete fairly.

We trust that our friends will continue to invest the capital which is needed, as we call for it, for the rapid extension of these great Industries.

There are no better, or safer, investments in all the world.

Many thousands of persons can be most profitably employed, with splendid results to all investors, in these great enterprises in which Zion now is leading on this continent.

And, best of all, the profits which will come to us will be used for the Extension of God's Kingdom in all parts of the world.

Great interest continues to be manifested in our Mission in New York next October, when we expect to be accompanied by thousands of Members of Zion Restoration Host.

We informed our readers, in our Notes of January 17th, that Elder Abraham F. Lee, the Recorder of Zion Restoration...
Host, and Deacon James F. Peters, General Auditor and Superintendent of Zion Transportation Bureau, had been directed by us to proceed to New York and to make inquiries as to many matters.

They have now returned and submitted their Reports, upon which we have taken action.

WE FOUND it impossible to secure any place large enough for the mission, except the Madison Square Garden, which is seated for Sixteen Thousand (16,000) Persons.

We have secured a lease of this for Fifteen Days from Lord's Day, October 18th, to Lord's Day, November 1st.

IN ADDITION to the Immense Auditorium just mentioned, we have secured a Large Dining-room, with dishes and cooks, which will accommodate One Thousand (1,000) Persons at one time; an additional Hall which seats another Thousand which will accommodate our Restoration Host at their Morning Meetings and daily Conferences; private rooms, robing-rooms for ordained officers and Zion White-robed Choir, offices for Zion Literature, Transportation Department, Bureau of Information, and for Elder Lee and the officers of the Restoration Host.

All of these are under the same roof with the Main Auditorium in Madison Square Garden.

WE EXPECT to sign a Contract with a great Trunk Railway Line during the next few days for the Transportation of the Host, but think it best not to give full details or to mention the name of the Line, as the contracts are not signed.

WE, HOWEVER, have pleasure in informing our friends that they can have splendid transportation in Pullman cars to and from New York, with a visit of several hours to Niagara Falls, and board and room accommodations in New York City for one week, at an approximate expense of thirty dollars ($30).

THE FULLER DETAILS, however, of this will all be set before our readers in a Special Page in LEAVES OF HEALING, entitled "MISSION OF ELIJAH THE RESTORER AND ZION RESTORATION HOST TO NEW YORK."

When all arrangements are concluded this page will be devoted every week to Information and Directions until the time of making this Peaceful Invasion of New York City in the Name of the Christ our King.

A CARD has been prepared for signature by those Members of Zion Restoration Host who intend to accompany us on this mission.

These can be procured, and all further information given, on application to Elder Abraham F. Lee, offices of Zion Restoration Host, Elijah avenue, Zion City, Illinois.

THOUSANDS OF Zion Restoration Host in Zion City and in Chicago are looking forward with great delight to the opportunity of serving God in New York City, and of carrying the Christ's Message of Peace to millions in that great city.

At Special Gatherings in Shiloh Tabernacle, every detail will, so far as possible, be perfected long in advance of the dispatch of Zion Restoration Host on this Mission.

GREAT MAPS are being prepared for exhibition and instruction at these Gatherings in Shiloh Tabernacle; and the Host will be thoroughly familiarized with New York City, and the districts into which it will be divided for the Work of the Seventies.

LEADERS OF SEVENTIES and Captains of Tens will be enrolled and appointed to their locations.

Means of communication will be studied, so that the Host will reach their Districts easily, and prosecute their work without loss of time or over-lapping.

ADVANTAGE will be taken of the presence of the members of the Restoration Host living outside of Zion City at the various large gatherings which will be held in Shiloh Tabernacle before October next; such as the Anniversary of the Organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion on February 23d; the Gatherings on Easter Monday, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, the Feast of Tabernacles in July, and at the Anniversary of the Formation of the Restoration Host, in September.

THE EXCURSION TRAINS will start from Zion City and will not stop in Chicago.

Members of Zion Restoration Host from a distance must make their arrangements for starting, at an hour which will be named, on Wednesday morning, October 14th, from Zion City.

It is probable that arrangements can be made to attach Special Cars for members of Zion Restoration Host at one or more points en route.

The trains, of which it is even now expected there will be five, will be vestibuled and run as limited, leaving within ten minutes of each other, and they will make the journey very rapidly to New York.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

WE EARNESTLY ask the prayers of all in Zion for our guidance, and for the protection and blessing of the thousands who will travel with us on this First Restoration Invasion.

Far away though the date may seem to be, there will be none too much time to prepare the Host thoroughly for the work that lies before them, and to make the Mission known to the millions of the Metropolis and the Eastern States.

IT IS PROBABLE that a Special Rate to the General Public of one and one-third (1 1-3) round-trip Fare will be granted by all the Railway Lines from all parts of the country to this Mission; but the Special Excursion rate, which will be shortly announced, will apply only to Members of Zion Restoration Host.

These trains only will travel in company with one another, so that the entire Host will probably be landed in New York within fifty or sixty minutes from the time of the arrival of the first train.

THE POSSESSION of so central a location as that of the Madison Square Garden will enable us to make excellent arrangements.

Accommodations for nearly a thousand persons have already been arranged at two excellent hotels, where intoxicating liquors are not allowed or sold.

SPECIAL EXCURSIONS at low rates will be arranged for from Boston and Philadelphia for the members of the Zion Restoration Host who live north and south of these cities; and probably from some other cities in the West, such as Cincinnati, Cleveland, etc.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT that we have made, at any time, of Organized Effort upon the part of Zion, has ever met with a more enthusiastic reception, or has been responded to with such inspiring interest and serious purpose.

MAY THE RESULTS be Glorious in the Extension of the Kingdom of God, and in the preparation of God's People for the Coming of the Messiah, the Christ, our King. And so we Go Forward, "TILL HE COME."

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 18:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
THE ZION DORCAS WORK, which was established on October 23, 1901, is certainly fulfilling the purpose for which it was inaugurated—providing the poor within our reach with necessary clothing.

We have over twenty-two Branches, and about six hundred workers, who receive, mend and make over garments which are sent in for the poor, and also make up new material.

During the last three months, we have distributed over five thousand articles of clothing from all our various Branches of the Dorcas Work, and we still have a supply on hand to meet the requirements of the remaining winter months.

We are grateful to God that He has enabled us to provide these things with so much ease, especially at this time, when, in consequence of the coal strikes, there is great difficulty in obtaining coal everywhere in this country, which has therefore caused an extra demand for warm clothing.

In addition to the Dorcas Work we see that our people are provided with coal and food; but that does not come under our special Branch of the Work. The Ecclesiastical Department attends to this, and it is done in a very quiet, effective and undemonstrative way through the various Elders in the Branches, and Overseer Speicher in Zion City, the necessary funds being provided directly from Zion Storehouse.

Zion Dorcas Work, since its establishment, has not needed to ask anything from the Storehouse. All contributions have been given voluntarily and sent directly to us, and the clothing, which is just as acceptable as money, has been sent directly to the various Meeting Places.

The practical women, who have had the care and distribution of these things, have exercised much wisdom and good judgment.

We have been able to provide ample for all who have come to us up to the present time.

We received a Special Offering in Shiloh Tabernacle, at our Communion Service at Zion City, in December, and the General Overseer also received a Special Offering at the close of the Communion Service on the First Lord's Day in January, in the Chicago Auditorium, which, with the contributions that have reached us from friends in various parts of the country, have kept us well provided with funds.

We have now reached the middle of the winter season, and shall still be glad to receive contributions either in clothing or money from those who desire to help the poor and needy in this way.

Our meeting place in Zion City has been moved from Elijah Hospice to the new school building in Elim avenue and Twenty-sixth street, which is a much more convenient place. We had a very pleasant Opening Meeting and a good practical talk with the workers there on Wednesday, January 14th, at two o'clock in the afternoon, when we met a very hearty band of Christian workers.

We intend soon to arrange for a meeting to be held once a week for the purpose of instructing those who do not understand the art of cutting and making up clothing.

We find that this is quite necessary, as so many poor people are not able to make the best use of the things they have, and will therefore be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity.

We desire also in the near future to engage some one who is thoroughly competent to teach the art of cooking.

We find that so many of our working women are taking up work in the factories and stores. Therefore, when they come to do any practical housekeeping they know very little about it, and there is a great need everywhere at the present time for thoroughly trained domestic workers.

We trust, in a short time, to be able to provide these classes where our women will receive good, practical instruction in this important branch of Women's Work.

The Maternity Dorcas Branch, which provides clothing for infants and mothers at the time of maternity, is doing very efficient work.

Elder Speicher, who is the Officer-in-charge, gives us some very interesting details in her report for the past month. She says:

"In visiting some of the homes where these little garments go, I found our sisters, even amidst trying circumstances, joyful, without fear, and confident that 'In the Christ we are conquerors.'"

"The work is delightful. Loving cooperation and quietness prevail in our sewing-room, and I only regret that each mother could not have the joy of making her own little garments; but I doubt if more love could be 'stitched in' than is given by our own little band of cheerful workers."
She sends a letter which she received from a Christian brother in Wisconsin, with a very generous donation. He writes:

"——, WISCONSIN, December 27, 1902.

Elder Abigail I. Speicher, Zion City, Illinois.

Dear Sister in the Christ:—I have no further use for these little garments, as all my darlings are in heaven.

Having had my home broken up twice, I know what real sorrow and trouble is, and it is in the hope of helping some of these needy little ones that I donate these infant garments to the Maternity Dorcas Work in Zion, knowing full well that they will be used to the best possible advantage. May they be the means of bringing both joy and comfort to some of the Christ's little children.

With earnest prayers for you and your good work, and for Zion in all her several Departments, I beg to remain,

"Your brother in Christ, love, ——.

A sister in Zion City writes, in answer to a letter received from Elder Speicher sending her a little outfit for her expected little one and herself, a letter of thanks in which she says:

"I am now nicely provided with clothing for baby and gowns for myself.

"I am so pleased with them.

"May God abundantly bless you all.

"The Maternity Dorcas does such blessed work for people who are in need, and I hope that everybody who has received help will be as thankful as I am."

Elder Speicher also received a letter from a lady who writes to her as follows:

"——, ———, December 29, 1902.

Elder Abigail I. Speicher, Zion City, Illinois.

Dear Sister in the Christ:—I would like very much to make a Maternity outfit as a memorial.

"Will you please tell me what pieces and how many of each to make? I have never made any baby clothes. As my only one was taken from me I would like to help some other mother in that way.

"I will bring the little outfit when I come to Zion Feast of Tabernacles in the summer.

"I want it to be a generous one.

"Your sister in the Christ, ———.

We have noticed that this Branch of the Dorcas work has appealed to the hearts of many of our sisters who have the motherly affection but have no little ones of their own; that it has drawn out their love to others and given them an opportunity to use their talents in "stitching in love" into the little garments that they are making to give away to others.

We say heartily, may God bless them, and may He also be the means of bringing both joy and comfort to some of the people in Zion City, and the General Overseer said to them, "Go, thou, and do likewise."

Although we have received sufficient to carry on Zion Dorcas Work as it has been needed, we have not yet received sufficient to build our Home of Hope for Erring Women in Zion City, or the Orphanage or Aged Women's Homes. This is the first contribution of any large amount that we have received for the Homes for Aged Women, although we have had many appeals from various parts of the country from those who wish to come and live in these homes.

We visited Zion Home of Hope for Erring Women in Chicago, on Friday, January 16th, late in the afternoon, and consecrated eighteen little babies.

It was a very touching sight to see the two large rooms filled with mothers and babies. There must have been at least thirty children, all clean and nicely dressed with their pretty plain white dresses, ready to receive us when we came in.

We had a little service with them and told them of the mothers who brought their little ones to Jesus.

These little children are worse than fatherless but most of them are being kindly cared for by their mothers who evidently love their little babies, although they have come to them through sin. But there were some little ones there who had neither a mother's nor a father's love, including one who had been left in an ash-barrel, whom somebody had found and brought to Zion Home of Hope.

He is now being very tenderly cared for by Deaconess Paddock, who has a heart large enough to take in all the little children.

When laying on my hands in prayer, consecrating to God a little child, I remarked that it was a beautiful baby and said to the one who held it, "Are you its mother?" She said "no."

The matron then said: "This dear baby was deserted by its mother; some one found it and brought it to us, not knowing to whom it belonged."

"When thy father and thy mother forsake thee
Then the Lord will take thee up."
These little children are, considering the circumstances, in remarkably good health.

God has graciously heard and answered prayer for them when they were sick.

We ourselves, who lived so long in the midst of the smoke and know how much better and fresher and purer the air is at Zion City, feel as if we want to take this Home and provide them with a place where they can get the fresh air and sunshine of our beautiful City of Zion.

The General Overseer has established this Home, and has himself provided personally for all its needs, but we want to be able, in our Women's Branch of the work, to build a Home of Hope for Erring Women in Zion City, and we ask you all to help us so that you may also have your share in the blessing of God for this good work.

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have Eternal Life.”

In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, Holy unto the Lord.—Zechariah 14:20.

"In that day" refers to the Consummation of the Age.

We know that it is near because the signs of the times agree with prophecy.

The Prophet Zechariah writes much about this Zion of the Latter Days.

He describes the work of the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Restorer.

God gave the Prophet a vision of Zion Literature flying over the face of the whole earth, on the wings of the Little White Dove, in the power of the Holy Spirit, which it symbolizes.

He saw the work which this Literature was to do in purifying the people and preparing them for the Coming of the King. (Zechariah 5:1-5.)

This is the result of keeping the Covenant which Zion's Messenger teaches.

The Covenant is to save and heal and keep men whole.

A holy man must be whole throughout his entire being.

His spirit must be saved; his soul and body healed and kept whole by the power of the indwelling Christ.

This is the True Holiness which Zion stands for— the Holiness which the Apostle Paul taught.

It includes man's spirit, his soul, and his body.

Paul wrote to the Thessalonians:

Abstain from every form of evil. And the God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the Coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.—1 Thessalonians 5:23, 24.

God's Kingdom will consist of such people.

No one is holy (whole) whose body is diseased. (Mark 2:17; John 5:6.)

The people in His Kingdom may have been great sinners, but their sins have been pardoned, and they have been washed in the blood of Jesus that cleanseth whiter than snow. (Revelation 7:14-16.)

The inscription upon the bells of the horses shows that the business life of God's people is to be holy.

The ton must be a holy (whole) ton and the yard must measure thirty-six inches.

A false balance is an abomination to Jehovah: but a just weight is His delight.—Proverbs 11:17. The best grade will not be on the outside of goods only, for the eye of man; for the measure of quality will not shrink or fall short, any more than that of quantity.

It will measure up to the standard in every way when every worker makes his work holy unto the Lord.

Then business will teach Holiness—the true Holiness of being and doing—which will spread until the entire community shall catch it.

Holiness is also to rule in the minute details of the home-life of the people, for the Prophet tells us that:

Every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy unto Jehovah of Hosts.—Zechariah 14:21.

Then the cooking utensils will not be used for food which God has forbidden, because it is unclean and will defile the body. (Deuteronomy 14:21.)

Such are swine's flesh, oysters, etc.

God tells us of people who call themselves Holy but walk "in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts," and eat swines' flesh, and "broth of abominable things is in their vessels." (Isaiah 65:2-4.)

The brand of Zion on goods must mean "Holy unto the Lord," and the humblest worker in Zion must be a preacher of True Holiness.

The world is tired of spurious holiness. Multitudes are hungry for God and True Holiness.

We ask you, dear reader, to help Zion Literature Mission to carry this Gospel of Holiness to the world—the only Gospel that the Word of God teaches.

Mrs. Sarah C. Passmore, of Pretoria, Transvaal, South Africa, writing under date of October 24th, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER AND OVERSEER JANE DOWIE:—God does hear our humble prayers, although we have no officers who can lay on hands. My little boy had influenza, a low fever and a very sore throat a while ago.

At the same time, my little four-year-old granddaughter had inflammation of the lungs and fever.

She was very ill; she had been given up several times by doctors when taken in this way before; but this time our Deacon from Johannesburg was here, and he and all of us prayed for the children.

They were both healed.

Lifted Close to God by Reading Zion Literature.

Miss Anna T. Adams, to South Middle street, Charlotte, North Carolina, says:

I thank you very much for the Zion Literature you sent me. I gained much faith in reading it.

I found my mistake in praying. I did not know how to ask God's Will to be done in me.

I have read the circulars over and over, also Leaves of Healing, and am much uplifted.

I am so close to God when reading, that I feel His power and love in my whole being.

The following extract from the letter of Miss Collett, Dunkirk, Notts, England, gives testimony to blessing through Leaves of Healing:

My father had a very deficient education, but since we have been receiving Leaves of Healing in our home, he has read it carefully through each week, and he is now able to read very well.

He is a changed man altogether, and, I believe, converted, as God has healed him distinctly three different times.

BLATTER DER HEILUNG is being greatly blessed to many people throughout Europe.

Some have written to Zion and have received healing through the prayers of the General Overseer.

Some have been healed through their own prayers, after seeing that Jesus is just the same today.

A minister of the Gospel in Bohemia has been brought into the light of the Full Gospel through reading Blatter der Heilung and boldly stands for the truth.

He writes that he is studying the English language so as to be able to read Leaves of Healing.

He is willing to obey God in all things, and says he has come to the place where he would rather be a street-sweeper than to stay in the apostate churches.
"And if the blind guide the blind, both shall fall into a pit."—Matthew 15:14.

"In vain they labor, they work for nought; they run to the place where there is no healing for them."—Jeremiah 8:11.

"For I the Lord change not."—Mal. 3:6.

"Jesus the Christ is the same yesterday and today, and forever."—Heb. 13.
THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE sat in the Chicago Auditorium Lord's Day afternoon, January 25, 1903, and heard distinctly the words of the General Overseer and Overseer Jane Dowie, although the speakers were at the time over two hundred miles away.

The words had been spoken on the day before into a graphophone. What was an unheard-of and unthought-of impossibility only a score of years ago, was now an accomplished fact, so well-known, that it was accepted with little more than passing comment.

It had become known, as a means for reproducing public speech, largely through Zion.

The voice which now spoke through this wonderful little machine was the first ever heard proclaiming the truth of God through its medium.

The General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, the pioneer in the use of the graphophone for public addresses, is still practically the only speaker to use the machine in this way.

His graphophone addresses have been heard, not only in Chicago, but in other American cities, especially in the West, in New Zealand, in Australia, in South Africa and on shipboard on the high seas.

It is significant and fitting that this Messenger of God should thus lead in the use of this invention for the sending forth of the Message of God's Covenant, the truths of the Everlasting Gospel, and the proclamation of the near approach of the time when he himself, as that "Strong Messenger," foretold by Jesus, the Christ, through the Apostle John, shall stand where he can be heard, "upon the sea and upon the earth," and declare "there shall be delay no longer." It is fitting because God has sent him with a Divine commission to make use of the revelations of the Hidings of His Power, now being so rapidly made, for the spreading of the Gospel of the Kingdom, ere the King shall come.

After the usual exercises of praise and worship with which the principal services of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion are opened, conducted by Overseer John G. Speicher, Deacon E. A. Parsons, who had charge of the two graphophones on the stage began the reproduction of the General Overseer's testimony.

Clearly and distinctly, so that they could be heard throughout the great building, the well-beloved tones of the General Overseer's voice rang out, calling all the people to praise God in Zion's Marching Hymn, "We're marching to Zion."

When this had been sung by the congregation, the General Overseer was heard to read, very impressively, the 43rd chapter of Isaiah from the 8th to the 13th verses. In response to the call of God's Messenger, given through the graphophone, those who had been saved and healed and cleansed and kept and blessed by the Power of God in Zion, arose and testified as God's Witnesses in the words of the prophet, saying, "It is truth." Then briefly, but with power, came the personal testimony of the General Overseer. It made a deep impression upon the thousands of hearers, who sat in perfect silence throughout. Every intonation and expression in the sweet voice of Overseer Jane Dowie was beautifully preserved and almost perfectly reproduced by the graphophone as her testimony was given.

It was a wonderful testimony, simply and directly told in a manner which carried it into the hearts of the hearers.

The testimonies of God's witnesses who were present in the Auditorium, followed.

Hundreds upon hundreds arose, with faces bright with joy, in response to the Overseer's call for the testimonies of those who, but for the power of God in Zion, would have died.

Several individual testimonies were then given.

Wonderful indeed were the mighty works of God, the Father, in the Name of Jesus, in the Power of His Holy Spirit wrought in the spirits, souls and bodies of those who testified.

The same note of praise and thankfulness to God for His Messenger, and for Zion, rang through the words of every one of these witnesses.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, January 25, 1903.

Services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL

Love Divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heav'n, to earth come down;
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful mercies crown.

Jesus, Thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love Thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

Breathe, oh breathe Thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast;
Let us all in Thee inherit,
Let us find Thy promised rest;
Take away the love of sinning,
Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning,
Set our hearts at Liberty.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Come, Almighty, to deliver!
Let us all Thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never Never more Thy temples leave.
Thy we would be always blessing;
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above;
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

Finish, then, Thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly secured in Thee,
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love and praise.

At the close of the Processional, Overseer Speicher came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.
God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.
All then joined in singing Hymn No. 348:
Encamped along the hills of light
Ye Christian soldiers, rise,
And press the battle e're the fight
Shall veil the glowing skies.
Against the foe in vales below,
Let all our strength be hurled;
Faith is the victory, we know,
That overcomes the world.

CHORUS—Faith is the victory!
Oh, glorious victory,
That overcomes the world.

REcitation of CReed.
Overseer Speicher then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From hence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Reading of God's Commandments.
Overseer Speicher then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."
1. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:
3. Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them:
4. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heavens and earth, the sea, and all that is therein, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.
We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son:
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyselv to be born of a Virgin:
When Thou hast overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The 35th chapter of Isaiah, the Psalm of Salvation, Healing and Holiness, and triumphant entry into the Zion above, was repeated by congregation, at the close of which all joined in singing a verse of "Marching to Zion."

Prayer was offered by Overseer George L. Mason, after which Overseer Speicher presented the petitions of the sick, sinful and sorrowing.

The Overseer then led the choir and congregation in chanting the Disciples' Prayer.

The announcements were made by Overseer Speicher, and the tithes and offerings received.

The General Overseer, through the graphophone, then announced Hymn No. 151, which was sung.

He then read very impressively in the 43rd chapter of Isaiah, from the 8th to the 13th verses.

TESTIMONY OF GENERAL OVERSEER.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion, obeying the Command of God in this Wonderful Prophecy for the Latter Days, is gathering all nations together under the Banner of Zion.
In this Assembly of God's people it is probable that more than Fifty Nations are represented.
On a recent occasion in the City of Zion I found there were sixty-six Nations represented.
The Banner of Zion now floats over many Gatherings throughout the Continents of America, Asia, Africa, Australasia, Europe and many of the Islands of the Seas.

It is a joyful Privilege which permits my Voice to be heard in this Assembly: and, although invisible in body, to be present with you in spirit, and to utter my Testimony among the many thousands of God's Witnesses in Zion today.

Month after month and year after year, for ten years, in this city of Chicago, we have brought forth our witnesses, and justified our teaching and our practice as believers in the Everlasting Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holiness through faith in Jesus, and in that New Covenant, which God, our Father, has made by the Spirit through His Son, which brings Redemption to His people in spirit, soul and body: here and now, from all the Power of the Enemy.

Thousands of Witnesses to God's Healing Power.

Ye who are here, and are God's witnesses, rise and obey the Command and say—

"It is truth!"

"(Thousands of people throughout all the great Auditorium in response to this call, rose to their feet.)

Standing as you are now, doubtless, in this Assembly, in the Chicago Auditorium, let me repeat the words which I have already read:

Ye are My witnesses, saith Jehovah, And My servant whom I have chosen: That ye may know and believe Me, And understand that I am He; Before Me there is no God formed, Neither shall there be after Me. I, even I, am Jehovah; And beside Me is there no Savior.

I ask you again in the presence of God to say, as His witnesses—

"It is Truth!"

(Like a great surge, the voices of the people rolled up in response to the General Overseer's call through the graphophone.)

Although I am hundreds of miles away from you in body, I know that you have responded to this call, and thanking God for it, I ask you to resume your seats.

Why is it that all the churches in Chicago, in America, yea, in all the world, it would be impossible, probably, to duplicate this Gathering?

Let me answer this question in the prophetic Word of God: I have declared, and I have saved, And I have showed, And there was no strange god among you: Therefore ye are My witnesses, saith Jehovah, And I am God.

No Strange God in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

This is the answer, that in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion there has been "no strange god."

Therefore, God has raised up witnesses who can declare this; who can show "former things" hidden for many centuries from the people of God by ignorant and false teachers, who have preached to the people "another Gospel," who have shown the people "a strange god," who have explained away a "salvation that saves to the uttermost," who have "transgressed the laws," "changed the Ordinance," and "broken the Everlasting Covenant."

But, thanks be to God, we can answer to the Messengers of the Nations:

Jehovah hath founded Zion, And in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge.

I rejoice that I am enabled, not only to point to the thousands of witnesses now present, but to the tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands whom God has raised up all through the world, through my ministry, to proclaim the infallibility of the Laws of God, the unchangeableness of His Ordinance, and the unbroken and unbreakable nature of His Everlasting Covenant.

I rejoice also, with my beloved wife, whose words will also be heard in this assembly, that I am enabled, as I approach the close of my fifty-sixth year, to witness in my own person to the glory of God, my Father, of Jesus, the Christ, my Lord and Savior, and of the Holy Spirit, my Cleanser and Keeper, the Glorious and Eternal Triune God, that I have been Saved and Healed, and that I am Kept, by the Power of God through Faith unto an "Uttermost Salvation."

Passing through, as I have, many long years of toil and trial and triumph, I am enabled to say in this assembly of God's people: Thanks be to God, Which gives us the Victory through our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

Reality of Union and Communion with God in the Christ.

The Reality of my Union with God in the Christ, and the Reality of my communion with God in prayer through the Christ is witnessed for by One infinitely greater than I: it is witnessed for by God, the Holy Spirit within me, by God the Holy Spirit within you, by God the Holy Spirit within the spirits, souls and bodies of multitudes throughout the world, and it is witnessed to by many who have passed into Heaven, and who are witnessing before the Throne of God.

With all these witnesses on earth and in heaven—we join in the Song of the Redeemed—

Unto Him that loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by His blood; To be Priests unto His God and Father; To Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Behold, He cometh with clouds; And every eye shall see Him; And they which pierced Him; And all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over Him. Even so, Amen.

Rejoicing exceedingly in this opportunity, therefore, of adding my witness with yours, not only in my official capacity as the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and as Elijah the Restorer, but as a humble member of the Body of Christ, I gladly witness that from my childhood I have known God, my Father, in the Christ as the Savior of my spirit; and that for nearly forty years I have known Him as the Savior and Healer of my spirit, soul and body; and that for nearly twenty-eight years I have been used by the Holy Spirit in the exercise of many Divine Gifts, especially in the "Word of Wisdom," the "Word of Knowledge," "Faith," "Gifts of Healings," and "Workings of Miracles."

To God alone I give all the glory, from whom is all the Power. And now, beloved, "Let your light so shine before men" that you will fulfill the Law of God, so that they who see and hear your good works and words shall glorify—not you, not me, not a Church, and not a Creed—but shall glorify your Father who is in Heaven.

Magnify your Savior in all your lives, for He redeemed you by His blood through the Grace of the Holy Spirit, who is our Comforter and Guide.

Christ the King is leading Zion and is making us to be a "kingdom and to be priests unto His God and Father."

Zion must establish Cities of God amidst every Nation and Government on earth; Zion must send forth a Restoration Host to every land and people; and Zion must prepare the Way for the Coming of the King in His glory.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion stands before all the world today, not only to witness to the Salvation of the spirit, of the soul and of the body, but to witness that the Christ is King over all Kings, and that His Kingdom is an Everlasting Kingdom, and that we are Working, Watching and Waiting—"Till He Come!"

* Till He Come!—Oh, let the words Linger on the trembling chords, Let the "little while " between In their golden light be seen; Let us think how heaven and home Lie beyond that, "Till He Come!"

When the weary ones we love Enter on that rest above. When their words of love and cheer Fall no longer on our ear. Hush! be my murmurs dumb, it is only. * Till He Come!"

Go forward, O Zion! Be pure! Follow after Peace! Be gentle and considerate to All Men! Be merciful: For your Father in Heaven has been merciful to you; and He is kind to all, even to the unthankful, to the evildoer and to the unjust.

Bring forth Good Fruits, O Zion!
Therefore sow good seed daily in your homes, your business and wherever you go. Good words and good deeds make happy days, quiet nights and joyful lives.

Be impartial in your words and actions, speaking and acting as under the Ever-present Eye of God.

For honor, truth-hearted and absolutely sincere in all your lives—hating hypocrisy.

Sow, beside all waters, in righteousness, the Seeds of Peace and Love—and everywhere, be Peacemakers.

The Great Physician, the Restoration Host of God in Zion, carrying the Message in these Times of the Restoration of All Things to All Men in All Nations—the Message of God's Everlasting Covenant of Peace.

The Day has come, the Shadows are fleeing away and the Night will soon be gone.

Children of God in Zion—Children of Light—Rejoice! Go forward and be ready: for the King will soon appear, and take you into the Rapture, and bring you back to reign with Him throughout the Millennium, and then to Dwell with Him forever!

Overseer Jane Dowie then spoke, through the graphophone as follows:

TESTIMONY OF OVERSEER JANE DOWIE.

"After listening to the exceedingly comprehensive and graphic address which the General Overseer has just delivered to you through the Graphophone, I am at a loss to know how to speak to you.

But as he has asked me to give my Testimony I must say a few words.

"It is always a pleasure to speak of what God has wrought, and if we did not tell of His wonderful works, and give praise to Him, the very stones would cry out against us.

"Surely goodness and mercy have followed us all the days of our life, and we shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

"For many years we have believed and taught that Jesus, the Christ, came to take our infirmities and bear our sicknesses.

"It has been our joy to see many thousands of His children who have believed and received this Truth, and we have heard them witness to a perfect Salvation for spirit, soul and body.

"We can testify today that we know that these Witnesses speak the truth when they say that they have been healed through faith in Jesus.

"From a little child I have believed in God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, as our Heavenly Father, and in the Christ, as our Redeemer, and in the Holy Spirit as our Sanctifier.

"When so young that I wondered what those long words meant, I was so taught; and as soon as I knew that God intended us to be redeemed from all the Power of the Evil One, trusted in His love who gave up His Only Son for this sinful world.

"But not till I was about twenty-four years of age did I know that the Christ had borne our sicknesses, and that he had provided a Full Salvation for our bodies as well as for our souls and spirits.

"From that time I have had no other physician than Jesus the Great Physician. What He did not do we knew no man could do; for He has all power in heaven and on earth.

"No drugs have ever been given in our family, and we rejoice to be able to testify that God has healed all our diseases and given us daily strength to do the work He has committed to our care.

"With my husband and son today, I rejoice to say that we are all in good health.

"I trust that God will give us life for many years to come, to enable us to do our part in the extension of His Kingdom and in the destruction of the kingdom of Satan, whose works are Sin, Disease, Death and Hell.

"Our precious daughter, Esther, who was with us last year, and who is now with the blessed ones in the Zion above, would wish, if she were here, to add her testimony to ours today.

"We know that it is well with her, and that she is now serving God in Heaven, with those who have washed their robes, and whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life, because she overcame death and conquered through the blood of the Lamb.

"Our prayer is that those who listen to these words may be as well prepared as she was for God's service, either on earth or in Heaven."
that Peruvian bark, from which quinine was made, would heal ague, chills and fever.

He did not understand how it would heal ague.

He decided, one day, that although he did not have the ague, he would see what effect this Peruvian bark would have upon a healthy body; so he took a large dose of quinine.

Of course it gave him chills. He got the ague. It would make any man have the ague if he took enough quinine.

He came to the conclusion, therefore, that because a big dose of quinine would give a well man ague, therefore a little dose would be a good thing to heal the ague.

He experimented in the same line with other medicines.

By this means, he established the great school of similia similibus curantur, the Homeopathic school of medicine.

For a hundred years, men and women all over the world have been following in that old, crooked path.

Where have they gone?

They have gone to their graves, dying just the same as those who took the medicine of the other schools.

A well man at Chicago had an ague.

He was partially deaf.

When the prescription had been filled and the medicine handed over to him, the purchaser asked, "How much is it?"

"Seventy-five cents," said the druggist.

"All right," replied the man, "and handed out five cents.

As he handed over the medicine, he said, "It was in Chicago, but I am not quite sure.

A man took a prescription to the druggist the other day — I don't know whether he was a drunkard or not.

He was partially deaf.

I am thankful that this man of God was sent of God into the world.

"Yes, sir," said the druggist.

"Well," the druggist said, "I'll go on, you old fool, I have made two cents on you anyhow." (Laughter and applause.)

I think the old man got cheated in the bargain.

That was in August, 1902, immediately after Zion's Second Feast of Tabernacles.

I went to the Divine Healing meeting one Tuesday afternoon, and after the teaching that afternoon the General Overseer prayed for me.

I resolved then and there that I would trust Him even if I saw no evidence of healing.

"My prayer went up to God with his prayer," I told the Overseer, "and God gave the healing. I claimed it from that on.

"My breast grew worse; but I had confidence in God that it would be healed, and held on to Him.

"I was sick in bed, it grew so much worse.

"The General Overseer prayed for me on a certain day.

"On the day that the General Overseer prayed for me I went to the Divine Healing meeting one Tuesday afternoon and after the teaching that afternoon the General Overseer prayed for me.

I have been able to do in a large number responded.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable, O God, in Thy sight. For Jesus' sake. (Amen.)

Eliza Clark and Charles E. Clark, of Thirty-third street and Enoch avenue, Zion City, Illinois, then gave their testimonies. These are given in full on pages 450 and 451 of this paper.

Healed of Palsy and Other Diseases.

Mrs. Sallie A. Mullins, 281 Fortieth street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "God has saved me, and brought me out of bondage.

"I have been sick several times, and He has healed me.

"I had a sty on my eye, and He has taken that off.

"I had a palsied arm.

"I could not walk.

"I could not lie in bed without having my arms stretched out, or over my head.

"I heard of Zion, went to the Divine Healing meeting, and, in answer to prayer was healed.

"Next morning, when I got up, I got breakfast, swept the floor, and I have been working ever since.

"I am perfectly well."

Healed of Cancer of the Breast. Blessings in Family.

Mrs. Fielding H. Wilhite, Zion City, Illinois, said: "I am glad to be among God's witnesses this afternoon; for had it not been for the goodness of God I would not be here today.

"About four years ago, six months after the birth of my youngest daughter, a growth began to form in my left breast.

"I grew slowly at first.

"Then it began to grow more rapidly; and in April two years ago my husband brought me to Zion Home.

"Well, my breast had grown very rapidly, and was very large. I think it was three or four times its natural size.

"It was very dark blue.

"It gave me some pain, although God wonderfully kept me from very great pain.

"Through the personal teaching of the Elders and Overseer Speicher, I learned to have faith in God.

"One Lord's Day afternoon, at the time when the General Overseer was praying for the sick, my tumor passed away almost instantly, and my breast healed very nicely.

"It was well until I received a very severe blow upon my breast, by three or four wires wound together.

"It began to grow very rapidly again.

"That was in August, 1902, immediately after Zion's Second Feast of Tabernacles.

"I went to the Divine Healing meeting one Tuesday afternoon, and after the teaching that afternoon the General Overseer prayed for me.

"I resolved then and there that I would trust Him even if I saw no evidence of healing.

"My prayer went up to God with His prayer, and He would give the healing. I claimed it from that on.

"My breast grew worse; but I had confidence in God that it would be healed, and held on to Him.

"I was sick in bed, it grew so much worse.

"We wrote to the General Overseer for prayer on a certain day.

"On the day that the General Overseer prayed for me I went to the Divine Healing meeting one Tuesday afternoon and after the teaching that afternoon the General Overseer prayed for me.

"I came, prayed for me and taught me.

"He said that the mercies of God were fresh every day, and that it is as old as the world.

It is so beautiful Way.

It is such an easy Way.

It is so safe for the children to travel over.

No unclean thing shall pass over it.

It looks more natural, more healthy than any other Way.

God has been good to us and blessed us all along the way.

"Our family has been held up, or over my head.

"He has given us two Zion babies and has kept us in health.

"God has blessed our family.

"I have been in better health than I have been since I can remember.

"I can do more work now than I have been able to do in a long time.

"God has blessed our family.

"He has given us two Zion babies and has kept us in health.

"He has healed four of our little ones, two of the youngest in answer to the General Overseer's prayer at the hour of prayer. I thank God for His goodness."
Leaves of Healing

Webb, formerly judge in chancery of Tennessee, a real old-time Southerner.

Judge Webb said: "I am very glad to stand before thousands of people to give testimony for my Master. "I was a witness for the Devil for a long time. "I was a medicine fiend for about twenty-five years. "I used to tell my neighbors that certain medicines would heal them. "But I thank God that as time rolled on, and before I could make my exit from this world, that God showed a Better Way, a Sublimer Way, a True Way. "When I was in Florida last winter, a year ago, with my sick wife, I ran upon Leaves of Healing, and began reading about Divine Healing. "I did my youth much credence to that, because I had been taught all my life that all the Bible said about Divine Healing applied to the spiritual man, and not the natural man. "The following September I came to Chicago on legal business with the Illinois Central Railway, and, stopping near the depot at the Hotel Normandie, I found that I was in the midst of Zion people. "I bought twenty or thirty sermons—little pamphlets—took them to my room. "I read one through, and that sounded well to me. "I said to myself, 'it is late, but I will look at the few words of the next one.' "I read that one through. "How many I read I do not know; in the wee small hours of the night I found myself reading the General Overseer's sermons. "I read a great many of the General Overseer's sermons. "I had an interview with Elder Excell, who taught me the truth of Triune Immersion. "Through reading Leaves of Healing and A Voice from Zion, I became convicted of the sinful error of the life which I was living. "I had been what the world calls a Christian for about thirty years. "I had stood in the pulpit even, in the absence of the preacher, and talked to the people. I had read my Bible prayerfully and diligently. "I was trying to be a good man. "Last August I came to Chicago on business. "The doctors had told me before I left home that Mrs. Webb could live but a few days. "She had lung trouble. "On Saturday after our arrival, the General Overseer prayed for my wife and myself. "My wife went home a well woman. "Before we left home she could not walk to her daughter's who lived four or five hundred yards from us. "We very frequently would have to hitch up to take her. "I was gone. "I did not suffer much. "When I got sick I asked the Lord to heal me, and I do not need to go to medicine. "This is only a part of the wonderful story. "I could not begin to tell you all. "I am a little like the man who went duck hunting. "He went duck hunting and came back with no ducks. "What is the matter, John? some one asked; 'why didn't you bring any ducks? There are plenty of ducks; the lake is full of them. Didn't you have your gun? You are a good marksman?" "I will tell you,' he replied; 'every time I would level my gun on one duck another one would swim in the way.' "So when I attempt to tell you one thing another slips right in the way. "I could stand here and talk to you until tomorrow night, and I could not tell you all the blessings God has given me since I have been in Zion. "I thank God I have known Zion. "I thank God for His Healing Power and Keeping Power. "I thank God that I am a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. "I was a member of another church for about thirty years before I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. "I thank the Lord that He brought me out of the Apostate Church into Zion. "I thank the Lord that He taught me how to get well without medicine. "A vocal duet was then very sweetly sung by two young lady members of Zion White-robed Choir. "Wonderfully Healed when Dying of Kidney Disease, Bladder Trouble and Threatened Blindness.

Andrew Taylor, Zion City, Illinois, formerly of England and Ireland, said: "I now live in a city where there are no stick-pots; no drinkpots.
PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING

"These are two things from which I have been saved.

Two years ago the General Overseer went to England.

Notwithstanding the lie to the contrary, told by the ungodly, he did not leave until his work was done; until he had sown the seed which is now bearing fruit in hundreds and thousands of lives.

My wife and I were both mockers then.

We both mocked the idea of Divine Healing.

I was a sufferer from the age of fifteen years with kidney disease and bladder trouble.

I employed fifteen doctors in England and Ireland.

I have had none in America and I never will! (Laughter.)

My own doctor, who treated me for years in Ilford, Essex, told me that, at a very outside figure, providing I was very careful, I might live for ten years.

I tried to insure my life, for the sake of my wife, in most insurance companies in England and Scotland.

I failed in this, as even my own private physician could not get me through.

I tried in America, in New York, then.

They gave me an examination and told me that I was in a very bad state of health, and the sooner I saw a specialist the better.

I saw that specialist and it cost me a lot of money.

In the end I was as bad as before I saw him.

All the other insurance companies to which I went refused to give me insurance.

I was troubled about how to provide for my wife.

My physician told me to save as much as I could for I was becoming worse.

I had three operations in the hospitals.

The doctor sent me home with the word that I would be blind.

I went home, knelt down by my bedside and asked my Father to heal me.

"I believe it and accepted God as the Healer through Jesus the Christ.

He saved me first, and then He healed me.

I believed that He would do for me what He had done for others.

There was a testimony which meant something to me.

"I saw that the desires of my heart would have to make all things right or die.

"O God, I will obey.

"I said: 'O God, I will obey.'

When God showed me that if I trusted Him whatsoever I asked for that would He do, He gave me the strength to overcome it.

Two years ago last summer I caught cold.

It settled on my lungs and developed into quick consumption, from which I was very ill.

"It was because there were things in my life which I had promised God when I came into Zion that I would make right.

"When I got to Zion I was not willing to give them up.

"God brought me to the place where He showed me that I would have to make all things right or die.

"I said: 'O God, I will obey.'

God healed me in answer to Elder Fockler's prayer.

He gave me all the praise and glory.

Sared from Sin and Delivered from Saloon-keeping, Drunkenness, Gambling and Other Vices.

Edward Boylan, Zion City, Illinois, said: "It gives me great pleasure to speak a word in praise of God for His goodness and mercy to me.

Seven years ago I was a sinner, a user of tobacco, a drinker of beer, whisky and alcohol, a gambler, a saloonkeeper, and a stinkpot, in the worst degree.

"I praise God that He has delivered me from all those things.

"I have no desire in my heart for any of them, nor have I had for years.

If the desire came up before me I would go to God in prayer, and ask Him to give me strength to resist the vile use of the nicotine poison.

"I could not quit it in my own strength.

When God showed me that if I trusted Him whatsoever I asked for that would He do, He gave me the strength to overcome it.

"Two years ago last summer I caught cold.

It settled on my lungs and developed into quick consumption, from which I was very ill.

"It was because there were things in my life which I had promised God when I came into Zion that I would make right.

God healed me in answer to Elder Fockler's prayer.

I give God all the praise and glory.

Healed of Internal Diseases, Hie Trouble and Insanity.

Eliza Boone, 3220 Dearborn street, Chicago, Illinois, said:

"I praise God first of all for His Son whom He sent, that by His blood we could be cleansed from all unrighteousness.

"I also praise God for the great spiritual blessing which He has given me and for the way my eyes have been opened to obey and to keep His commandments.

"I had been sick with a pain in my limb for twenty years prior to the time I was healed.

"I had two operations.

"After the first operation I did not seem to get any better.

"After I went home I had an issue of blood which lasted sixteen months.

"I suffered many things of many physicians.

"After the sixteen months had passed I went out to do a day's washing, as I wanted to earn something to live on.

"I was so weak I felt as if I would fall.

"I returned home that night and said to my friend that I believed something had happened.

"I went to see a doctor, and he said that I would have to go to the hospital in order to stop this issue.

"I went back to the hospital and underwent the second operation.

"I was sick for many months.

"I had treatment of all kinds for the brain.

The only hope the doctor had of saving my mind was to bleed my arm and take away a quart of blood every four or six weeks.

"Something happened to my limb, and he said that he would..." have to scrape the bone. I was driven into insanity, raging and tearing.

'Nevertheless I believed that God would save me.

'I would get in a terrible rage and the people in the house would have to get out of their beds and get me into bed.

'The Devil kept me in a constant fit all the time.

'I went again to a hospital to be examined.

'The doctor there asked me who operated upon me.

'I told him, Dr. Robinson.

'Why,' he said, 'he is the finest surgeon in Chicago. He knows more about the human abdomen than anybody living.'

'Well,' I said, 'I am his wreck; I do not care what he knows.'

'I went home, and the following Thursday I had the hardest spell I ever had.

'Finally, I heard a voice saying: 'You need teaching.'

'It came to me to go to Dr. Dowie's. So we went down.

'When we got nearly there I could scarcely get off the car.

'Just as soon as I stepped inside the door of Zion College and Divine Healing Home, it seemed to me that something had come near me, I never felt like that before.

'I sent word up to Elder Cossum, and he sent word back that he would see me in about twenty minutes.

'He came down and read to me the 5th chapter of James.

'I prayed in my heart that God would put it in his heart to pray with me.

'He laid hands on my back and head and prayed for me.

'He said: 'Do not look to me for healing, I can do you no good.'

'When I went home I felt that something had happened to me.

'I felt so light that I could scarcely stay on the ground.

'I did not know what had happened to me but I was so glad.

'Then it came to me that I was healed, and I went out and told the neighbors.'

Overseer Speicher— You are healed?

Mrs. Boone— Yes.

'I thank God for saving me from my sins, and giving me power to do what is right; and for the blessing He has given me.

'I am stronger than I have been for twenty years.

'I ask God to bless Zion.'

Overseer Speicher— All who desire to follow the Christ, stand.

(Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name, I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, soul and body. Help me to do right. Help me to obey Thee. Help me to forsake the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, and to walk in the Highway of Holiness, that I may be clean and pure in Thy sight. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after Overseer Speicher.)

Then, while all stood with bowed heads, the voice of the General Overseer was heard from the graphophone, in the well-known words of the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Notice to Officers and Members of the Christian Catholic Church. Send all newspaper clippings concerning the General Overseer, the Elders, or any department of the work in connection with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to Deacon Carl F. Stern, Zion City, Illinois. Send as soon as possible after publication, and carefully mark name and date of the paper clipped from on each article. If this is not done, the clippings are absolutely useless.
With the story of the year's unprecedented prosperity scarcely yet told, a story teeming with figures which baffle the imagination; a story of bounteous harvests, of faburous riches mined from the earth, of unparalleled fruitfulness of farm and field, of an extraordinary era of commercial and industrial prosperity, the Voice of the Prophet of God is heard, li
ted in warning and admonition.

Through the din of the factories, above the noise of the engines and motors, the looms and spindles, the wheels and hammers, the Message of Elijah the Restorer, given to God's people gathered together in Shiloh Tabernacle on the first Lord's Day early morning meeting of the new year, January 4, 1903, may yet vibrate around the world. After the close of the solemn service, which was attended by an audience entirely filling the ground floor of the immense building, many persons from a distance took the sacred Consecration Vow of the Zion Restoration Host.

Again was the 17th chapter of St. John the portion of Scriptures read by the General Overseer to his people.

Like a many-sided prism, have the Prayers of the Christ,

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois,
January 4, 1903.

Service was opened by Congregation singing Hymn No.
422:

It may be morn, when the day is awaking,
When sunlight through darkness and shadow is breaking,
That Jesus will come in the fulness of glory
To receive from the world "His own."

CHORUS—O Lord Jesus how long, how long,
Ere we shout the glad song,
Christ returneth; Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Amen, Hallelujah! Amen.

The General Overseer read from the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, beginning with the 11th verse.
And I am in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep them in Thy Name which Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, even as We are.

While I was with them, I kept them in Thy Name which Thou hast given Me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the Son of Perdition; that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.

But now I come to Thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.

I have given them Thy Word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

I pray not that Thou shouldest take them from the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the Evil One.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them in the Truth: Thy Word is Truth.

As Thou didst send Me into the world, even so sent I them into the world.

And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in Truth.

Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on Me through their word:

That they also may be one; even as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be in Us. that the world may believe that Thou didst send Me.

To name any part of the Church by the name of the Ordinance, as the Baptist church, or by any other name than "the Name that is above every name," is sin.

You might just as well call it the "Lord's Supperist" church.
While the Ordinance of Baptism can only be fully received by us once, we have the joy of knowing that we can receive the Lord's Supper a great many times.

Therefore, if you are very fond of the Lord's Supper—and it is a very desirable thing to be fond of—you would have more reason to call a church the "Lord's Supperist" church than the Baptist church.

General Gordon the day before he went to Khartum took the Lord's Supper in four churches.

He took great joy in partaking of the Lord's Supper.

He got up early and took early Communion with a number of churches. He might have been called a "Lord's Supperist."

That would have been as proper as to call him a Baptist or Congregationalist.

well-founded charge of its impropriety. In the first place it is Christian.
In the second place it is Catholic.
In the third place it is Church.
As the Christ is the Name above every name, by which alone we can be saved, through which alone we dare to go to God, win every victory, triumph over every sin, and present every prayer to the Father, surely we may be permitted to call it the Christ's Ecclesia—that is Gathering or Church.
As for the word Catholic, it is the most beautiful word I know next to that of Christian.
Catholic means Universal, General, and has the idea of Unity.

Catholic Was the Word Used from the Very Beginning to Describe the Church.

In the Apostles' Creed we say: "I believe in the Holy Catholic Church."

That is when the Church of God is cleansed by God through faith in the Christ, and by the Power of the Spirit.
The great prayer of our Redeemer, to which I intend to continue to direct your attention in these morning meetings, is a prayer for Unity.

There Must be Unity With God.

He does not pray for Unity with one another only; that is a poor thing.
If our Union is only with one another, it will produce a certain amount of strength; but there is no cohesion of a permanent character in that which is only human.
The prayer of the Lord is not only that they may be one, but:
That they may all be one even as Thou Father art in Me and I in Thee; that they also may be in Us.
The Unity is not only with one another, but, above all, with God, in whom alone Unity can find Perpetuity.
The purpose is:
That the world may believe that Thou didst send Me.
The world will not believe that God sent the Christ until the Church presents a United Front, and gives a United Testimony.
This is the cry of a great many mean, little, miserable sectarianists: "Oh, I believe in the church which is quite independent.
Therefore, my father, my brother, my sister, three neighbors and I form a church, and we are independent of every one and everything."
What is going to happen to you if there should be a split?

(Left to right.)

Story of the Break-up of an Independent Church.

My friend, Dr. Guthrie, of Edinburgh, knew a very dear, good man, an elder of his church.
He was a fine fellow and did magnificent work, but he became one of the Plymouth Brethren.
He withdrew from the church and united himself to a gathering of the Plymouth Brethren on George IV. Bridge, Edinburgh.
It was a large gathering.
There he was a shining light.
There were a number of shining lights, and quite a number of them who thought that they shone brighter than the other lights.
They were all teachers.
They had no pastors, because they were all pastors.
Any man could stand up and say anything he liked.
Some of the shining lights had to put down some of those whose light was darkness in their opinion, although they never called it their "opinion," always declaring that they had "the mind of the Spirit."
This caused a violent split, and the large gathering was broken into two halves.
This elder of Dr. Guthrie's went off with one-half to a gathering in Nicholson street.
They formed an ecclesia which they declared was "pure."
They formed an ecclesia which they declared was "pure."

About three months after, the gathering in Nicholson street had a split.
They formed two hostile meetings.
By this time a split which was nearly into two parts again reduced the number with whom our friend went to about twenty.
They were all shining lights; they were the whole thing.
They went on for about a year, and they had a split.
I do not believe that there were more than ten left with our friend.

Then they had a split.
To my certain knowledge—it is no joke—that man, his wife, his son-in-law and his daughter had a meeting, and they composed the entire congregation.
They celebrated the Lord's Supper, and then they had a split. (Laughter.)

When Dr. Guthrie met his old elder one day he said:
"Where are you worshiping now, David?"
He replied: "The old wife and I just break bread together, and eat the Lord's Supper, and pray, and sing, and we have a meeting together."
"But, David, if you two have a split, what will become of you?" Dr. Guthrie asked.
"Well," he said, "I will just have to meet with the Lord alone."

That is what it comes to where there is no order, no rule and no authority.
You will have endless splits until it gets down to you and the old woman, and probably you will have a split, too.
That is the effect of individualism as applied to Church organization.
It is an absurd thing.

Organization is the Protection of True Independence and Liberty.

Disorganization is the destruction of independence, and the reduction of it to an absurdity and to weakness so great, that the Devil can easily destroy the whole thing.
The Devil has no difficulty in defeating a church which has no organization and is under no authority.
The General Overseer then read from the 21st verse of the 17th chapter of John to the end of the chapter.
After Hymn No. 430 was sung, prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which all joined in repeating the Disciples' Prayer.

The Unity of the Body of Christ.

Beloved friends, I desire to say a few words to you this morning preparatory to a number of short discourses on Unification which will be based upon the rest of the prayer.

A Terrible but Sometimes Necessary Prayer.

While I was with them, I kept them in Thy Name which Thou hast given Me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the Son gave Me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the Son.

The reference there is to the 7th and 8th verses of the 109th Psalm:

When he is judged, let him come forth Guilty;
And let his Prayer be turned into Sin.
Let his days be few;
And let another take his Office.
If a man were to pray that for his enemies in the spirit of revenge, as perhaps even good men have been led to think they could pray acceptably, it is sin.
There are mysteries in connection with such a prayer as this.
I have had occasion in the course of my life to pray some terrible prayers.
It is an awful thing to pray for a judgment, and to know that you are going to be answered.
Sometimes there is no other way in which the work of God can be guarded than in that way.

A Prayer for the Destruction of the Flesh.

The Apostle, whose beautiful chapter on Love—the 13th chapter of first Corinthians—which is a very Peason of triumphant Love, wrote severely concerning two who had sinned deeply.
They were impenitent, and were a curse to the Church.
He said:
To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
That was a distinct prayer that, as to the flesh, these people might perish.

Saturday, January 5th, 1903.
THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

He did not pray that their spirits might be lost, but that they might be cut off from life on earth, and curse the Church no more in the flesh.

Drudth a Terrible Calamity.

A drouth is one of the most awful calamities which can ever visit a Nation. Then year after year, the heavens are as brass; all the springs dry up, and the river courses are hot and arid. I have seen dry river beds in Australia. You might have found a little water by digging down for many feet, but there was not a drop of water on the surface of watercourses which I had seen brimming up to the banks. It was an awful thing to pray that it might not rain, and year after year see that prayer answered. Nevertheless, there was no way left by which that Nation might be brought to God but by that prayer.

A Warning of National Peril.

I do not wish to say anything rash. I believe, however, that we are rapidly approaching a time of drouth and of national peril in this land. It will not be this year, and it may not be next year, but when it comes everything is ripe for terrible consequences. The Commonwealth of Australia has passed through such a period, and the story is a very sad one. But her time of drouth is passing away.

When it comes to this land it will be different. There the population is homogeneous. The foreign population is small. Probably seventy or eighty per cent of the people in Australia are British born, or Australian born. Therefore with the accumulation of many years of wealth they have been able to tide over a long and terrible period of drouth.

When this land is stricken by a drouth, however, famine will almost immediately come to unprovided millions. The hand of the Lord will be upon the people who can scarcely be out of work a week without bordering on starvation, will rapidly become so terrible, unless the wisdom and resources given by God are used to provide for the Emergency, that there are going to be Terrible Times in America, such as the world has never seen.

Prayers for America Answered in the Past.

I am not led to ask God to prevent this drouth. I have prayed, and prayed publicly, that God would avert this terrible calamity. I have fought that fight on my knees. I have prayed, and prayed publicly, that God would bless the land and establish the City of Zion. I fought that fight on my knees. I did my part in wheelsing all in Zion into line upon that question, almost without a single exception.

God has answered prayer ever since in a wonderful manner. That prayer was offered before the election of William McKinley to his first term of office as President, as the pages of Leaves of Healing for 1895 and '96 prove.

I tell you frankly that the time is fast approaching when this Nation will have to deal with the question of the Recognition of God in its Constitution and, therefore, in its Government and Legislation.

If this is, as alleged, a Christian Nation, then an infidel, or an antichristian woman, has no right to act as a judge, jury, or executive officer or legislator in any part of the United States of America or its distant possessions or protectorates. If this Nation will not recognize God in its Constitution, then it must take the consequences of the damnation that will inevitably follow. I say that frankly.

Call to God's People to Prepare for Coming Famine.

I say to Zion far and wide: Realize upon your outside properties and securities, and get together and let us create gold reserves, if not here, elsewhere.

I do not care to go into details now, but we must get ready for this time of peril, so that when it does strike this land, God's people in tens and hundreds of thousands will be gathered in and be protected by their real and practical Union with God and with each other in All Things.

This has to be done upon a large scale all over the world. The Children of Perdition must perish—no man, not even the Christ, can save a man who will be a Judas Iscariot. Such people must "go to their own place" for the time being, and that, most certainly, is not heaven.

There is no possibility of the Church of God being planted with a Judas in its midst as an apostle. Judas has to get out every time.

No people can be powerful where Children of Perdition, who will do wrong, are permitted to remain.

I vow before God and you that I will not suffer a liar, a thief, a harlot, a mocker of God, or a whoremonger to remain in Zion one hour longer than it will take to get him out.

You can make up your mind that this Year There Will be Very Stern and Very Swift Discipline.

Last year I waited in vain for alteration in the conduct of some, and it has only increased my sorrows, and endangered the City of Zion, and the purposes for which we came together here from all parts of the world.

One man in prison now whom I had to send there on New Year's Eve, who has the Devil in him up to his eyes, and whom it would have been a positive danger to have left at large after threatening different persons in a dim, vague way, after I had been dealing with him very kindly he came in and threatened me.

I did not care about the threat, but I wanted to save that man from committing murder, because I saw it in his eye when he threatened me.

I had been giving him good counsel. He is absolutely insane; but his insanity has much down-right mean devilry about it.

I have borne much with that man during the past year. I was cleaning up things all day on the 31st of December, and I am cleaning them up still.

A mother wrote to me yesterday, begging for another opportunity for her son, who is only twelve years of age. He is a bright little fellow, and the slickest, sharpest little devil of a thief and liar that ever you saw.

He had infected others who were present before me and had been taught to steal. That was not the first offense, but was one of many. The mother who appealed to me has neglected her children. She has gadding about this town, and has been rebuked for her talk, talk, everlasting talk!

The boy has again and again become a criminal, and I will not keep so willingly wicked a child in Zion City—I would sooner leave a young tiger or wolf to roam about the streets of the City of Zion.

His mother can have the alternative of sending him to the Reformatory or out of this city to his father.

There are people here in Zion whom I shall have to pray God Almighty to be allowed to be removed from this earth, unless there is an immediate change—sometimes I think they are like salt which has "lost its saltiness," and are, as our Lord Jesus said, "fit neither for the land nor for the dung-hill." What else then can be done with them but to "cast them out?"

They are of no earthly use.

There are some of you sitting in front of me who quarrel continually like devils, instead of lovingly bearing with one another, and helping one another. There are very few—very few—to whom these words apply; but two are too many in the City of Zion.

People in the City of Zion will have to live at peace with each other. You are a curse to your children, to your neighbors and to each other.

You cannot stay here to be a perpetual curse in Zion and, therefore, you must do better, or depart into cities where you can do as you please, and where there are too many like you for any one to disturb you in your luxury of serving the Devil by making home a hell.

Son of Perdition Cannot be Protected Against Himself.

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, guarded every one that God gave Him, except the Son of Perdition.
He could not guard him. He could not protect him against himself for he would be a devil. He first became a thief. He had the bag, and he thought he would make a little money "on the side" by stealing. He was an apostle outwardly, and a cowardly, envious, greedy, malignant thief and betrayer inwardly.

Perhaps some of the money which he appropriated was part of that which the wise men had given to Mary at the time of Jesus' birth. Possibly they were using that money to help pay the expenses of the Apostolic band.

He also stole the money which Mary of Magdala, and Joanna, the wife of Chusa, Herod's steward had given to Jesus for His own use and for the poor. From this he degenerated so far that when he thought Jesus' time was at an end, he sold Him to His cruel, blood-thirsty enemies for thirty pieces of silver.

This year if I find a man in Zion who is stealing, from God or man, he must go at once. I will count a man as a thief who "robs God" by keeping back his tithes from the Storehouse, just as much as if he robbed his neighbor's cupboard.

If we do not get him away, he will sell us for silver. He will betray us with a kiss. I cannot guard a Son of Perdition against himself. We did not form a city to be composed of goats and sheep.

I am determined they shall all be sheep and I will have every goat out to the utmost extent of my power. If you are going to live the life of a dirty, stinking goat, you cannot remain in Zion City.

I desire to know of any wrong-doing before it is too late to render assistance and, if possible, avert calamity. I am determined that, even though we may have to get strangers to stand and build our walls, we shall have honest work done.

Some strangers who have stood to build our walls have acted a good deal more honestly than some people who profess to belong to Zion.

There have been workmen here in this place who have made no profession of Christianity who have done a far better day's work than a few unmitigated humbugs who have had to be watched all the time, and also some who have wanted wages as expert and fully qualified workmen when they were not.

There are not many faithless, but there are some.

Fifth of a World's Fair.

The other day a workman gave me the alternative of doing what he wanted or of his leaving Zion. I only answered him and all like him in a few words at a Wednesday evening Rally—and he has gone.

He has gone down to St. Louis to help to build up that World's Fair City.

St. Louis is now just like Chicago was before the World's Fair, a stinking cess-pool for all America, and a more horrid destruction, but a World's Fair as all the world knows.

The Unity will come when we get rid of the disuniting power. The disciples were weak and they fled because they had not strength to belong to Zion.

The Christ could not guard the Son of Perdition. It was impossible. Right through all the ages, prophecy had come regarding Judas, and all who do the same thing. The 47th Psalm will make it clear to you.

When we get rid of Judas and he has gone to his place, then we have a real people. We do not believe we have any Judases in proportion, or anything like it. He Christ had in the Apostolic band, for He had one out of twelve.

I would have my hands immensely more full of trouble if in Zion City we were two or three out of every hundred, at the most, and they cause great trouble. I have been patient and considerate, and have endeavored to do my best, forgiving again and again, but this is the Last Warning.

If Any One Steals, He Must Go.

It is stealing when a man gets twenty, thirty, or forty cents an hour for his labor, and fools away a good part of that time. He is a thief, stealing Zion's money.

It is becoming a very serious thing to waste time, for there are about 1,500 persons at present in mid-winter drawing regular incomes from Zion's Funds; and sometimes we have had a pay-roll of more than double that number.

A Lesson to Zion Workmen.

Fifteen minutes out of a whole day's work lost in idleness by a thousand men whose pay is thirty cents an hour makes a total loss of $75 per day, or $450 per week, or in fifty working weeks it would amount to the large sum of $2,250 a year.

Think of a loss to Zion of that sum for every thousand men who fool away in gossip, or idleness, only fifteen minutes out of each working day.

Now, thirty cents an hour, and more, is earned by every good carpenter in Zion; and if I have 2,000 men who idle a quarter of an hour out of each day, then they have robbed Zion of $675 a year.

I do not for a moment imagine that I have any such number of thieves in Zion: for I am sure that I have thousands of most conscientious workers in all departments of Zion.

I sustained his foreman and the superintendent of construction in their action in his case—so he went to the City of Vanity to work for Messrs. Hate-good, Love-lust, Live-loose, Bitter-bitter and Company, who are very old Builders of World's Fairs as all the world knows.

I grieve for those who will leave Zion City for the City of Destruction, but I will not allow them to remain on the roll of the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I will tell all whom it may concern that they cannot remain in our fellowship and work for the Devil.

I object to pay them for robbing Zion by idling away the time for which Zion pays.

No man will be permitted in doing wrong because he is a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I am determined that, even though we may have to get thousands of men whose pay is thirty cents an hour, I will not allow them to remain on the roll of Zion City for the City of Vanity.

Let Our Unity be Complete.

It is these useless and wicked individuals who keep the Unity from being perfected.

The Unity will come when we get rid of the disuniting power. The eleven disciples were weak but they were genuine; and they were stronger by getting rid of Judas Iscariot, and on the Day of Pentecost God gave them Matthias in his place.

You can do anything with a people who are really genuine. They would never sell their Master, neither would they take money for His life. The disciples were weak and they fled because they had not received, at that time, the Holy Spirit within them.

When the Christ met them in Galilee after His Resurrection, He met eleven men who were real.

When the Holy Spirit came upon them, and the twelfth, Matthias, was added to their ranks, there was an Apostolic Band which was full of Divine Power. They made the world believe, to an extent that never has been proportionately done since that time, that God sent the Christ.

We Want a Church Which Will Make the World Believe that God Sent the Christ.

Large numbers of people, through the work of Zion Restoration Host, are now believing that God sent the Christ.
DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALICE DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. In this question: 'Mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one expected way of healing in these days, of which men may know and avail themselves?'

B. Yes, I will answer this question, that God has now a procedure in healing. This was spoken by our Lord Jesus the Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who came to this earth, that God sent the Christ.

A. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. I will answer this question. Not only to save us but to heal us also.

A. Then, if God's Way be the Way a person, not a thing, I will answer your question in His own words. 'I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life.'

B. Then I will answer your question. 'He who hears my words and believes on him who sent me, has eternal life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.'

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. I will answer this question. 'Yet, it may be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.'

A. But do you think that sickness is often of God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. I will answer this question. 'Neither is sickness of God's will, but it may be accomplished by sickness, that the grace of our Lord Jesus the Christ, the love of God our Father, the Spirit of kindness, and the love of brotherly kindness, may abound in you; for all the commandments of God are fulfilled in loving one another.'

A. If there be no sin which came through Satan there would have been no disease, and the sickness would not be God's work or will, but the contrary.

B. I will answer this question. 'Ye must be born again.'

A. But, if there had been no sin which came through Satan there would have been no disease, and the sickness would not be God's work or will, but the contrary.

B. I will answer this question. 'Ye must be born again.'

A. Notice all whom He healed, not some, not suffering from Satan's evil work.

B. I will answer this question. 'God's Word says, 'The gift and calling of God are without repentance.' (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12). They are: Prophecy, tongues, interpretation of tongues, knowledge, faith, healing, speaking with tongues, miracles, and prophecy. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keepeth them safely.

A. But even if it agrees with all your say yes, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were withdrawn from the Church in the latter days, and not in the New work of God?

B. A. But even if it agrees with all your say yes, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn from the Church, and that the angel of the Lord was not in the falling of God without repentance? (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12). If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of sins. A sick person should call an immediate healing, and He will obtain from God in one of these ways, namely, First, by the direct prayer of faith, without and against all the power of Satan, and the sin of his heart; Second, by the laying on of His hands, and the prayer of God, and the faith of the church; Third, by the officiating prayer in perfect accord with accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 16:19. God will answer the prayer of the church, and in circumstance of circumstances as these are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keepeth them safely.

NOTES FROM ZION’S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. O. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground: I will pour My Spirit upon thy seed, and My blessing upon thee offspring.—Isaiah 44:3.

THOSE who were present in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, at the All-Night with God, 1902-1903, will long remember the showers of blessings which God in His infinite mercy caused to come down upon us.

We are glad to know, however, that these showers of blessings were not only given in Shiloh Tabernacle, but, in the different Zion Tabernacles where the faithful observed this occasion, God was present to bless. We take pleasure in subjoining the following reports:

Toronto, Canada.

Zion Tabernacle, Corner Queen and Victoria streets.

Elder-in-charge, Rev. Eugene Brooks, 137 Markham street.

Services Sunday, 7:30 p.m.; Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., Thursday, 8 p.m.

DEAR ELDER:—Our All-Night began at 7:30 p.m. with a Baptismal Service of great power and blessing.

While we were delivering the charge to the candidates, a Presbyterian lady stepped out from the audience and took her stand with the candidates, and was baptized the "same hour of the night."

The Misses Burgess sang several duets during the night, which were much enjoyed.

We spoke from Acts 28:22, on "What Zion is and is not." A long testimony meeting then followed.

I herewith enclose a few of the testimonies:

Mrs. Perry, Toronto Junction, Ontario.

"About six years ago a lump formed under my arm, and I was also suffering very much from rheumatism.

"I heard of the General Overseer and went and had him lay hands on me.

"I was instantly healed of the rheumatism, and after six months had elapsed the lump under my arm came off. I do thank God and praise His Name.

"I had not seen a doctor at all."

Elder Brooks—You did not merely say that you had that trouble, did you?

Mrs. Perry—No;"

Fannie Finch, 143 Ontario street, Toronto, Canada.

"I praise God for many blessings. One thing which I had to fight the hardest was the giving up of oysters. I was exceedingly fond of them, and thought Zion was going just a little bit short of Heaven."

"During prayer, it seemed as if some one was putting a pair of tweezers to the afflicted part of my stomach and trying to wrench something out. Then the first I knew the trouble had gone.

"I was not a member of Zion, but trusted God and was delivered.

"I was also a smoker, and after this continued using the tobacco, which I have no doubt had been making me sick.

"Since Elder Brooks prayed for me tonight, I have felt God's healing power. I have also given up eating pork, and thank God for victory over the tobacco habit."

"I was previously a member of the Methodist church. I have been baptized by Triune Immersion tonight."

Agnes Minns, 817 Marlborough avenue, Toronto, Canada.

"I praise God for many blessings, and ask you to pray that I may always be faithful."

A. T. Campbell, 611 Yonge street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

"I thank God that He has taken the desire out of my heart for tobacco. Sometimes I have given it up for as long as three or six months at a time, but always started it again.

"Since reading Leaves of Healing, I asked God to help me get rid of it, and I praise God for victory."

Agnes Minns, Toronto Junction, Ontario, Canada.

"I do praise God for our General Overseer. I do not know where I would have been today had it not been for his teaching."

"Two years ago I was healed of a rupture which I had had from childhood.

"We have the promise that if we ask we shall receive.

"I have also been healed of bilious attacks.

"We trust our children to God, and have been much blessed.

Then came the communion and prayer, and while passing into the New Year all hearts were touched and sweetly subdued by the strains of "Pray, Brethren, Pray."

After the New Year's greeting, we had lunch and a time of sociability to digest it, and were then called together to hear Deaconess Burgess on the "Great Commission."

Out of a rich and full experience, she told in word and song how to "Go"—the blessing of going, and the success in going. Then came Evangelist Brooks, who told us of "some remarkable healings."

She detailed with a Spirit-given power some of the wonderful healings recorded in Zion, which she knew personally.

After a short talk, we prayed for the sick, and closed at 5:30 a.m., and not one showed signs of sleepiness.

God has wonderfully blessed us with the coming year.

With earnest request that all Zion pray that we may not fall behind in Zion's rapid march, and with prayer for Zion everywhere, I am your brother, Eugene Brooks.

Huntington, Indiana.

Services held 10:30 a.m. Sunday; 7:30 p.m. Thursday, 78 North street.

The members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Huntington, Indiana, held an All-Night Meeting with God, beginning at 10 o'clock New Year's eve and continuing until 4 o'clock New Year's morning.

Services began by singing, the Apostles' Creed was recited, the reading of the Commandments followed and prayer was offered by Deacon S. H. Creager.

After singing, testimonies and thanksgiving were in order:

MRS. STOVER.—I thank God for the privilege of testifying to His goodness.

"I have been most wonderfully kept this past year.

"I was healed when nigh unto death. I find it pays to trust Him at all times.

"I have been saved more in the three years that I have been in Zion than in all the forty years I spent in the Methodist church.

"I never know what a genuine, practical, Christian religion was until I united with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion." "

G. W. STOVER.—I am thankful that God is so good to me.

"I thank Him every day for His protecting care.

"So many never think of what God is doing for them. I want to live closer to God every day."

Mrs. Creager testified to healing at different times, and among other things said: "I thank God that He has kept us free from sickness so long a time."

"We have had splendid health in our family almost all summer and fall.

"I have been able to care for our three small children and do all my own housework.

"My limb, which used to be four and one-half inches short, is but one and one-half short at present.

"I am stronger in every way since I came into Zion than I ever was before."

"I cannot praise God enough for a happy home.

"I love to read Leaves of Healing and The Zion Banner."

After testimony meeting all partook of the Lord's Supper.

Prayer was then offered by the leader. "Pray, Brethren, Pray," was sung, while we were kneeling before God, as the Old
NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

B. Fockler, who is now working in the interest of Zion Securities and Investments.

Under date November 25, 1902, he writes from Washington Court House, Ohio, as follows:

Peace be to thee!
May the Spirit that guides into all truth, that comforts and gives life abundantly, be richly dwelling in you and all Zion.
God, our Father, has been blessing and lovingly guiding me, as his child, to places where poor weak humanity was in need of "a voice" that could speak, and of a life that could inspire with words and acts, that would help them to catch glimpses of the same loving Christ Spirit that dwelt in the Hebrew Carpenter, named "Jesus," long years ago.

Last Wednesday, at Paulding, Ohio, I was asked by Rev. Reuben Cell to see a Mr. and Mrs. Harris, and find them just prepared by Leaves of Healing for some of the living Water.

After some words spoken in the power of the Holy Spirit, we brought, and God poured out His Spirit.

They were blessed, and gave me their applications for fellowship.

With a farewell greeting, I went on my way rejoicing.

I would have baptized them, as they were ready, only that circumstances would not permit.

Last Lord's Day I held services at Oceloa, Ohio, at the beautiful home of our Deaconess Teeterick, and we had a blessed outpouring of Life there was!

A large number of people was present, and deep conviction followed the words spoken in the power of the Holy Spirit.

At the close of the afternoon meeting, I had the joy of baptizing six in a beautiful stream of water, just as the golden sunset was upon us.

A crowd witnessed this scene, preserving the best order.

In the evening services, the Fountain of Life again overflowed, and once more similar results were present.

Albert Phillips desired to speak.

We gave him opportunity, and as for the first time in his life he openly confessed the Christ, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and we had a general inquiry meeting.

There was a deep movement of the Spirit of Truth in the hearts of all present.

We closed by having the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

One more man was ready to be baptized in the morning, and when the hour came, our dear Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson, was greatly favored in the last few months by various representatives from Headquaters.

First, we had with us, Deaconess Maloney and Mrs. H. D. Gardner, on their way to Los Angeles in the interest of Zion Lace Industries.

They were right from Zion City, and we enjoyed the few days visit they gave us very much, for in the interest of Zion Lace Industries.

The beautiful thing about Zion was always made by the speaker that this par

Then returned to their homes, thanking God for being glad to see him come again.

Our All-Night Meeting on New Year's eve was the most beautiful thing we have had during the two years we have been in San Francisco.

The chairs in the Tabernacle were all filled, and most of the congregation remained until morning.

The close of the New Year was ushered in by observing the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and singing Zion's Consecration Hymn.

I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord,
Over mountain or plain or sea;
I'll be what you want me to be.

I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord,
Over mountain or plain or sea;
I'll be what you want me to be.

I am persuaded also that from this time on, Zion City, sends us under date of December 30, 1902, the following report.

Four baptized and one member Restoration Hosts.

Apparent results of this trip were: One conversion, one gave up tobacco habit, one gave up morphine habit, two applications for membership, four baptized and one member Restoration Host ordained.

Several more have got to the fence—re-baptism and application for membership, and God is moving things all along the line.

There is a shaking among the "dry bones," but it will take lots of shaking to get a move on some of them.

I praise God because His Spirit is at work, and results will follow which I am sure will be glory to Him and strengthens the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in these places.
And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:14, 15.

THANKS be to God for a ministry in Zion. The last days in which is lifting up Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God to the sight of a sinful, sick and perishing world.

Thanks be to God for the wonderful Salvation which He is working out through the Christ, by the Power of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God for the thrilling testimonies which are heard on all sides. What would have been the records of the Church, and what would have been the effect on the world which “lieth in the wicked one,” if through all the centuries the Church of God had presented the Christ as He really is—the Savior, the Healer, the Cleanser and Keeper?

What if the clear and thorough teaching now being presented in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion had always been presented in the Church of God, and God had found men true and faithful to His Covenants and Commandments?

The past is in the hands of Jehovah, and He will judge righteous judgment. Zion thanks Jehovah that in these Last Days there is a leader in the person of Elijah the Restorer who is fearlessly declaring the Covenants of God, demanding a true Repentance and a full Obedience, and presenting the Christ as a living, present-day, personal Savior, Healer, Cleanser and Keeper.

The testimonies come with power, and yet are but a feeble expression of the depth of thanksgiving which is in the hearts of God’s people in Zion.

Healed of Cholera Infantum, Constipation and Whooping Cough.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, January 20, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — We have felt for some time that we should send in our testimony to the many blessings which have come to us through Zion. Especially do we thank God for the wonderful healing of our little girl. She was very low with cholera infantum. The neighbors said that she would not live the night through. We telephoned to Deacon Christie of Binghamton, who came and prayed with her. In half an hour the fever broke and she was breathing naturally. She was healed of constipation in answer to your prayers, a disease from which she had suffered all her life. She has also been healed of whooping cough and other diseases.

We have been greatly blessed in paying tithes. Thanking God every day for Zion, and for our beloved General Overseer and Overseer Dowie, and praying God’s blessing upon them, we remain, your brother and sister in the Christ.

(MR. AND MRS.) S. J. BOARDMAN.

A Welcome Christmas Gift.

1013 Borgundy Street,
Baltimore, Maryland, January 14, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I thank you for your prayers and thank our Heavenly Father for hearing. On December 23d I sent a request for prayer, and on Christmas morning I received an answer and my healing.

That was the best Christmas gift I received. May God spare you and Overseer Jane Dowie many years.

Your little sister in the Christ,

HELEN VONDERHEIT.

God is True.

WAUBAUSHENE, ONTARIO, CANADA, January 12, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I believe that it is my duty, also it is my joy, to tell of the power of God to heal and protect His believing children.

On December 28th while driving through the extensive lumber-yards at Victoria Harbor, the yard shunter with one car unexpectedly came up one siding. I saw that I could not avoid being struck, but remembered no more until I recovered consciousness.

I was lying full length under a wheel of the car which had left the rails. It was resting on my left shoulder in front of my arm.

My first words were, “God help me!” and I thank God that He did in a most wonderful way.

The wheel had been allowed to go but a few inches further it must have crushed my breast. As it was, it seemed as though I would suffocate with the pressure about my heart before I could be taken from under the car.

The car had struck the cutter, and I was thrown on the car and then had rolled off and under it.

My head, shoulder and arm were badly bruised, but God had been with me and kept all my bones, not one of them being broken.

I committed my body unto the care of the Great Physician and telegraphed you for prayer. My arm was powerless and I was afterwards very weak, nervous and sore, but realized relief at the time you prayed for me.

By Christmas I had almost recovered from all the evil effects of the accident.

I praise God for His wonderful goodness, and for a complete deliverance.

I desire to live to praise Him and learn more of His love and lead others into the glorious light and truth.

I thank you for your prayers on my behalf, and pray that God’s richest blessing may rest upon you and your family.

Your sister in the Christ,

EMILY M. ARBOR.

Delivered by Power of God from Poisoning by Candy.

MILO, OHIO, January 15, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — With a thankful heart I give testimony to the healing power of God, My daughter, who works in a candy factory, ate some candy, and was poisoned so that she could not walk.

She suffered severe pain. God healed her of it all. I praise His Holy Name for sending Jesus to destroy the Devil’s work.

Your brother in the Christ,

SANFORD FRAZELL.

Healed and Kept by God.

316 ASHTON STREET, GRAND FORKS,
NORTH DAKOTA, January 14, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I take pleasure in writing you a few words of testimony as to what Jesus has done for my wife and me.

On January 6th I came home feeling very sick. I had a chill, and then headache and backache and fever. I asked God to heal me. I was healed almost instantaneously, but was left very tired. Some years ago I was taken in the same way, and was ill four months.

Last night my wife was quite sick with high fever. We prayed in the Name of Jesus that she might be healed, and tonight she is going about doing her work. The Little White Dove is a great blessing to us, for it is all truth. May God bless you and all Zion, and may you be spared till Jesus comes.

Your brother in the Christ,

NAT SPROUL.

Blessed in Paying Tithes.

MITCHELL, SOUTH DAKOTA, January 8, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I wish to testify that I have been blessed in paying tithes, and that what I give I give gladly and not grudgingly. I have also been blessed in reading LEAVES OF HEALING.

It is a great comfort to me. Since I have read it, the Bible has become a New Book.

We are laboring with a greatest desire and prayer is that I may be a true disciple.

I want to live in Zion City some day where I can bring up my little girl where there is not so much wickedness.

Pray for me that I may continue faithful and also that the way may be opened for me to come to Zion City to live.

May God bless and keep you till Jesus comes.

God Answers the Prayer of Faith for the Dumb Animals.

775 WEST VAN BUREN STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, January, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — * Peace to thee!* It is with a heart full of joy and thanksgiving that I write to tell you that God heard and answered prayer for the healing of our lame, Clover, of lameness. I wrote to you for prayer for her. We praise God for the many blessings received through Zion teaching, and thank you for praying and for the kind letter which you wrote.

May God continue to bless and keep you till Jesus comes.

Your sister in the Christ,

An Endless Chain

During the Spanish-American War a young woman, living in a New Jersey city, wrote a letter to a friend of hers, requesting that the friend send ten cents to help defray the expense of installing an ice-making machine for the United States soldiers in Cuba.

She also requested that the friend write to ten of her friends asking each one to contribute a dime, and in turn to write to ten friends, making the same request of them.

The result was that the young lady who started the chain was overwhelmed with letters and dimes, receiving so many she was finally compelled to ask the newspapers of the country to request the people not to send any more.

Every copy of Leaves of Healing sent out from Zion Printing and Publishing House has within it the power to start An Endless Chain of Salvation, Healing, Cleansing, and Blessing.

Each person who receives a copy of the paper, and is blessed by it, may pass the blessing on to ten others.

In some cases, the blessing of thousands can be traced along a chain of events set in motion by ONE COPY OF LEAVES OF HEALING

Multiply the possibilities that there are in one copy of Leaves of Healing by fifty-two, and then multiply the product by 100,000, and you will have the possibilities which may be realized when we have attained the mark set by the Watchword of Zion Printing and Publishing House for 1903.

Every one of the following persons received the wonderful blessings described, through reading Leaves of Healing. Their stories can be found in full in the Volume and Number of Leaves of Healing indicated. This is but a very small part of the list, which would fill every page of this paper many times.

Dubin, Chas. O.—Healed of Paralyzed Limb. Volume I, Number 28.

Schafer, Miss Annie—Instantly healed of Idiopathic Muscular Atrophy. Volume I, Number 30.

Parker, Emma—Instantly healed of a Terrible Affliction, Blotted and Disfigured. Volume III, Number 5.

Beavers, Mrs. Mabel—Instantly healed of Internal Trouble and Heart Disease. Volume III, Number 36.

Soule, Mrs. C. E.—Healed of Cancer and Indigestion. Volume III, Number 36.

Ford, Rev. Freeman—Healed of Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Kidney and Liver Trouble. Volume IV, Number 43.

Thompson, Mrs. J.—Healed when dying of Cancer and Heart Failure, caused by an operation. Volume II, Number 1.

Wilson, Miss Ella M.—Healed of Internal Abscesses, Tumors, Endometritis, and Retroversion of the Uterus. Volume IV, Number 4.
GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

INSTANTLY HEALED AND RAISED UP WHEN AT THE POINT OF DEATH WITH FIBROID TUMOR OF THE PELVIC REGION.

A NOTABLE MIRACLE HATH BEEN WROUGHT!
The healing of this witness is one of the most notable Miracles wrought by the Power of God in Zion.

She was dying with fibroid tumor.

Her physicians said that she could live only a few days.

She was carried on a cot from Richburg, North Dakota, to Zion City, a distance of nine hundred miles.

She had to be carried twenty-six miles in a buggy to reach the railroad station at Richburg.

She arrived at Zion City alive, only through the Love and Power of God.

She had come to Zion City expecting to die because she thought it would be a clean, quiet, godly place in which to pass away.

She was carried into Shiloh Tabernacle on the cot on which she had been brought to the city.

She heard the teaching of Overseer Jane Dowie and the General Overseer.

She decided to trust God for Healing, and by His Grace to live.

The General Overseer prayed for her in the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God her Heavenly Father. He commanded her to rise and walk in the Name of Jesus, the Christ.

Rejoicing in the Lord, she walked out of the healing-room and ascended the platform.

She gave her testimony in the presence of five thousand people, who had seen her carried into that room in her cot.

She has been walking and working and growing stronger ever since.

That great, hard, fibroid tumor, which had grown to an enormous size, was stifling every vital function of her body, and causing her indescribable agony night and day, was killed at the time of her healing, and very rapidly passed away.

Today she is one of the happiest residents of the beautiful and happy City of Zion.

She was raised up from weakness, suffering and the very jaws of death by a Miracle of Healing.

A protest of angry unbelief comes from the theological professors, the so-called religious editors, the pastors of denominational churches.

"The Day of Miracles is past," they say. That is their faithless theory. There is not
LEAVES OF HEALING.

May God reveal His Love and Power and Willingness to heal, by Miracles, through her simple, truthful words.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. ISAAC E. MILL.

2213 Enoch Avenue, Zion City, Illinois, January 17, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—It is with gratitude to Almighty God that I write my testimony to you today.

For a number of years I had been in poor health, brought on largely by worrying and mourning for our dear darlings, a boy and a girl.

In the latter part of the year 1901, I became very poorly and suffered a great deal till April 15, 1902, when my baby was born.

After that I kept my bed for three weeks. I then felt that if I stayed in bed longer I would never get well.

I got up, but was very weak and had no appetite. I suffered with pain in my body most of the time.

I remained in this condition for a week or two, then about the last of May my sister-in-law came and took me out for a drive.

When I got home my husband helped me out of the buggy.

I had not sufficient strength to walk, and when I tried, I fell. My husband picked me up, carried me into the house and put me in bed.

The next day we called in Dr. Durnin of Richburg, North Dakota.

He said that I was run down and told me to stay in bed and I would be all right.

I kept getting weaker and weaker, however, and in two weeks we sent for him again.

This time he brought Dr. Sturman, also of Richburg, with him.

They both said that I was run down.

Dr. Sturman also said to me, "Do not trust in the little that man can do, but look to a Higher Power for help."

They made an examination but did not tell me the nature of my disease.

They tried to get me to eat, but I could not.

The pain in my body was terrible.

This went on until July 3d.

We sent for Dr. Durnin again.

He came, made another examination and said that I had a tumor, and that it had grown so rapidly that he could not tell the nature of it exactly.

He asked permission to bring in Dr. Sturman, again.

We consented.

The following day, July 4th, they came and made another examination.

Both said that it was a very bad fibroid tumor and that they could do no more for me.

There was no hope, they said, unless an operation was performed, and they gave me little or no hope even then, as my vitality was so low.

After the doctors went away my husband came to me and asked if I wished to go to the hospital for an operation, or to Zion City.

I asked to be left at home with my little ones to die; for I thought I was going to die anyway.

He said that was impossible; that I would have to go either to the hospital for an operation or to Zion City, whichever I wished.

I said: "I will go to Zion City. I think it will be a nice place to die in."

He took me by the hand and God gave me strength to get up and walk from my cot out into the prayer-room and Willingness to heal, by Miracles, through her simple, truthful words.

He took me by the hand and God gave me strength to get up and walk from my cot out into the prayer-room and Willingness to heal, by Miracles, through her simple, truthful words.

I said to my husband, "If I should die, would you lose faith in God as the Healer?"

He said: "Wife, if all belonging to me and myself die, the Word of God is true."

I had not eaten anything for three weeks, as my stomach would not retain it, and what I tried to eat caused me pain.

I had not walked for six weeks, and to put me in an upright position caused terrible pain, on account of the size and position of the tumor.

My husband and his brother carried me from my bed to a bed they had prepared in a buggy to take me to the station.

We lived twenty-six miles out on the prairie.

I shall never forget how I felt leaving my three little ones that morning, for I never expected to see them again, and they were dearer to me than my life.

I suffered a good deal from the jolting of the buggy, but, praise God, I had not gone more than two miles when I began to get hungry.

They got me a cup of coffee and a piece of bread.

I ate and drank.

It tasted good and did not hurt me in the least.

When we got to the station I ate some more.

They then carried me into the baggage-car, as there was no better accommodation on the train till we reached the main line.

I suffered a great deal of pain on the way.

I had to change cars four times.

The coldness of the people on the way almost broke my heart.

But the moment I landed in Zion City I felt that I was among friends.

May God bless those ladies and men who wield the power of healing.

I had traveled over nine hundred miles on my cot.

Only for God's goodness, I would have been dead.

I had not taken a drop of medicine from the time I started to come to Zion.

The tumor kept growing all the time, so that when I got to Zion City my body was nearly as hard as a bone and so large that it was impossible for my bowels to move naturally.

On July the 19th, I was carried from our tent about a quarter of a mile to Shiloh Tabernacle, by my husband and three other men.

I listened to Overseer Jane Dowie's teaching on Divine Healing, believed and knew she was preaching the Gospel.

But I was suffering so much that I longed to be at rest with my Savior.

I was not afraid to meet my God and Father, whom I loved and served in my weak way.

After Mrs. Dowie got through teaching, the General Overseer came upon the platform and talked to the sick ones.

I then asked myself if I was willing to obey God and His servant and live.

I said: "Yes, Lord, I will obey, live or die."

I was then carried into the prayer-room.

After the General Overseer had talked a short time, he prayed with the sick.

He came to the cot where I lay and asked me if I expected God to heal me.

The thought came to me, what had I come over 1,000 miles for? I said: "Yes."

He said: "Are you willing to obey me in the Name of Jesus?"

I said that I was.

He then prayed for me and told me to stand and walk in Jesus' Name.

I started to rise.

I felt as if I was walking upon a cloud, with the blessed truth to these weary, despairing sufferers.

Let this witness speak to their hearts.
without resting, I rode in our buggy from the depot to our home, twenty-six miles. I worked all day with no feeling fatigued. I do all my work by myself, also taking care of three little ones. For now over two months I have been doing my own work without help, also caring for little ones without feeling fatigued. I give God all the glory and thank Him for giving me the world the General Overseer to teach His Full Gospel in these last days. I thank you, dear General Overseer and your dear wife, for your prayers and your kindness to me. May God bless and keep you till Jesus comes. Obediently yours, till He come,

CONFIRMATION OF TESTIMONY BY ISAAC E. MILL.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, January 18, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I have read wife's testimony. All that I wish to add to it is that it is all true, and that a good deal more might be said. No pen can describe her sufferings. When the doctors said that they could do no more for her, they did not give any hope that she would live. When I asked the doctors, in their own offices, the nature of the tumor, one said that it was so large that he could not make a thorough examination and that, at the rate the tumor was growing, she could not live more than three weeks, as by that time it would be so large it would stop the action of the bowels entirely.

Dr. Sturman said that it was a fibroid tumor of all the pelvic organs, and gave no hopes for her life. He told my brother that in all his practice he had never seen so little vitality in a living being as there was in my wife. He asked me where I was going to take her. I told him to "Zion City." He said that he was glad of it. I thank God that we came, and she received healing as she has told it. Today she is well and happy.

We thank God for His wonderful goodness to us, and also for the privilege of hearing you, as His Messenger, teach the Full Gospel. May God give you strength to carry on the good work till Jesus comes.

Again, with my wife, I wish to thank you and your dear wife for your kindness to us. Obediently yours till He come,

ISAAC E. MILL.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

MAIDEN ROCK, WISCONSIN, January 23, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—We feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to add our testimony to the many already given to God's power and willingness to answer prayer.

After the crops were put in we sent you a request to pray that God would bless and prosper us. In this He has truly answered. Later we sent you a request to pray for our daughter, who at times suffered great pain. She went in the face of an attack of the Devil to perform her duties, which she could not have done in the Devil had had his way.

She trusted God to deliver her, and He did so, speedily giving her relief and a full deliverance, thus verifying His Word, He that believeth on Him shall not be confounded.

We also asked you to pray for another daughter who was away from home and exposed to small-pox.

God heard and answered your prayers and those of others for her, for she has been graciously kept. I contracted a severe cold on my lungs and coughed and expectorated very much.

I became quite weak and had night sweats. Believing you to be God's prophet, and sent of Him, I sent you a request to pray that I might be healed. Your prayer to God has been answered.

She trusted God to deliver her, and He did so, speedily giving her relief and a full deliverance, thus verifying His Word, He that believeth on Him shall not be confounded.

I also asked you to pray for my dear wife, for your prayers and your kindness to us.

God caused the cow to come near the barn, so that she was noticed. We went to her, and prayed God to relieve and heal her. She began walking about, and in a very short time began to eat. She went away into the field with the other cattle.

We thank God that He has sent the Messenger of His Covenant, and that we live in this time of the Restoration of All Things.

May God bless and keep you, and may He continue to prosper you and His work.

Your brother in the Christ,

A. M. LEITCH.

MOTHER SAFELY DELIVERED IN CHILDBIRTH.

214 WEST TWENTY-THIRD STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, January 27, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—Though I have been a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion only a short time, God has wonderfully blessed me and shown me in many ways that He is the same yesterday and today, yea, and forever.

Last fall, November 20, 1902, God wonderfully delivered me of a little daughter. I was in hard labor for only a short time. At that time I was living in Wisconsin on the farm. The only ones with me were my husband and Deaconess M. Maloney, whom good friends in Zion had sent to be with me.

When I went to the children's room, she was praising God for the teaching we get every week in the blessed Leaves of Healing. When I went to the children's room, she was praising God for the teaching we get every week in the blessed Leaves of Healing. Enclosed find a small thank-offering.

I pray everyday that I may soon be able to live in Zion City. Please to let me have a place to send my children to attend school out of all this sin and evil in this large city. Pray for me that I may grow stronger in God. I thank you for praying for me and my little ones. May God bless you and your dear wife and son. May He strengthen you and give you great power and wisdom in this work of the Restoration of All Things. Till He come.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS) GEO. WILEAR.

BLESSING AND HEALING THROUGH LEAVES OF HEALING.

410 EAST WYSON STREET, MUNCIE, INDIANA, January 20, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—Saturday at 2:40 p. m., I sent a message asking you to pray for mother. She had been afflicted with asthma for more than three weeks. She was unable to lie down, and part of the time had to be fanned. On Saturday morning she had a hard chill followed by a raging fever. At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon her fever left her. She was able to lie down, and slept sweetly all night.

When I went to her Sunday morning, she was sitting up wishing for something to eat. She was praising God for His goodness and mercy and thanking you for your prayers. She was praising God for the teaching we get every week in the blessed Leaves of Healing. Enclosed find a small thank-offering.

I pray that we were able to send you one hundred times as much.

I thank Overseer Piper for praying for my little son and for me last July. My child was very bad with whooping-cough, and was immediately relieved at the time of prayer. I was also healed.

I praise God for the many blessings we have received through reading Leaves of Healing and in answer to prayer.

Thanking you again for your kindness and praying that God's choicest blessings may rest upon you and your dear wife and son, and upon all Zion's movements. I am, your sister in the Christ,

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE, AND THE PEOPLE IMAGINE A VAIN THING?"

The week now closing has been remarkable for the widespread interest that has been awakened throughout the entire country, and in Chicago and New York especially, in the Announcement of our Mission in New York, God willing, next October.

We have been beset by press syndicates and telegrams from many quarters, and especially from the great New York newspapers, asking us for information.

The amazing scale of the Excursion of Zion Restoration Host, and the fact that we have taken the Madison Square Garden Auditorium, which seats 16,000 people, and all the rooms connected therewith, has made a profound impression.

The general interest, which we have known for years that thousands in the East have felt in us and in our Mission, has found very remarkable expression in New York City.

Although more than eight months from the time of the Opening of the Mission, we have had many inquiries from prominent persons as to whether we can secure them seats, as they believe that the Garden Auditorium will be crowded to overflowing.

It almost seems as if we would have to issue tickets to prevent overcrowding.

As our readers know, we have never made any charge, and never will, for our service in preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God or in ministering to the sorrowing and the sick.

It has ever been a joy to do this "without money and without price."

No money, therefore, will in any case be accepted in payment for tickets, either from rich or poor.

If we have to determine upon tickets for at least a portion of the building, it will be with much regret, and we shall endeavor to see that the poor get them as well as the richer classes.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

WE HAVE to acknowledge that the Newspaper Press of New York, considering the misinformation that they have had from Chicago concerning this Mission, have thus far acted very well. While there has been some sensational writing, there has been nothing of a vile or disreputable character.

Among many papers which have come to hand with lengthened articles, some of the cartoons in which are exceedingly amusing, it must be said for the Chicago Inter Ocean that it has taken the palm in the competition for extreme absurdity.

Our General Associate Editor has given the cartoon, which is intensely laughable, to The Zion Banner of yesterday, the 6th.

It is inexpressibly funny to observe the horror of Father Knickerbocker on the other side of the river, as he sees our Host advancing, with ourself as a gigantic figure, ridiculously attired, about to take the river in half a step.

But the extreme absurdity of the whole thing is that the Statue of Liberty Enlightening the World, has actually turned around and is facing our advent with inexpressible amazement and alarm.

The action, however, of the Chicago Press is exceedingly spiteful in some things, and they have put into our mouth words that we never uttered, and fathered upon us plans that we never made or thought of.

A sinister attempt has been made from Chicago's end to show that New York is protesting, and that there will be violence offered to us and to our people. The wish is father to the thought.

If we were a tithe as foolish as the Chicago reports make us, it would almost justify a verdict of extenuating circumstances were there any mob violence.

But the press of Chicago knows that it is lying and it is endeavoring to keep up the impression that it has caused to be circulated concerning us throughout the world.

But we have triumphed in Chicago itself, and will do so in New York: for God is with us all the way.

Our readers will find on pages 490-492, under the heading of Mission of Elijah the Restorer and Zion Restoration Host in New York, a number of interesting items as to our telegraphic correspondence and our replies.

We direct the attention of our friends particularly to the signed statement of more than 1,500 words, which we gave by request to the New York Herald.

In the midst of many pressing duties, we prepared it somewhat carefully, and trust God will use it for His glory in making known the real nature of our work and Mission.

It will be the constant aim of the "heathen" to rage against us, and of the wicked people to "imagine vain things" concerning Zion for months and months to come.

All these things will, however, be overruled by God and will help to make our coming known to the Millions of the Great American Metropolis.

No weapon formed against Zion has ever prospered, or ever will, and our enemies "will take counsel together" in vain.

He that sitteth in the Heavens shall laugh:
Jehovah shall have them in derision.
Then shall He speak unto them in His wrath,
And trouble them in His sore displeasure:
Yet I have set My King
Upon My Holy Hill of Zion.

It is our intense joy to know that the Messiah who is our King is coming, and will one day rule and reign o'er all the earth, throughout the glorious Millennium, establishing His Throne on Zion's Holy Hill where once He was rejected.

It is an intense joy for us to remember the words spoken by God our Father concerning the Christ:
Ask of Me, and I will give thee the Nations
For thine Inheritance,
And the Uttermost Parts of the Earth for thy Possession.
Thou shalt break them with a Rod of Iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

It is our joy to come, as Elijah the Restorer, with the Message of Peace "to men of good will" everywhere, before the "Great and Terrible Day of the Lord come," so that the hearts of the parents and children, and men in all relations of life, shall be turned to each other, and all restored to God.

We rejoice to know that this is Mercy's Hour, and that the Day of Grace still lingers.
It will continue through these "Times of the Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began."

The "Terrible Day" has not come, which the Lord Himself foretold.
But the "Times of Refreshing from His Presence" are here, and they are "Times of Preparation for His Coming."

We know that the enemy is strong, but God is stronger.
We know that the hosts against us are numerous, but we know that all the Hosts of Heaven are with us.
The chariots are swinging low at the command of Jehovah-Sabaoth, Jehovah, God of Hosts.

We are glad that thousands will accompany us from Zion City, at the end of the many months of toil that lie before us, going forth to reap with us in God's great Harvest Field at the time of harvest.

We ask our readers everywhere to pray that nothing may be permitted to hinder the great purposes of our God in Zion's Onward Movement this year.
He is directing us in our Beautiful City and all its interests and enterprises, and in all the glorious, splendid work of preparation to which the people are most earnestly addressing themselves in thousands, not only here in the City of Zion, but everywhere.

We desire to remind the members of Zion Restoration Host living on the Eastern Coast, that it will be well for them to enter into closer communion with God and fellowship with each other, if they are to join the Legions of Zion Restoration Host from every direction, which will gather in New York from October 18th to November 1st under the Banner of Zion.

The first great requisite for success is that every good soldier shall seek Divine Purity in Spirit, Soul and Body.

If we are to endure hardship as good soldiers of Jesus the Christ, whilst upon this great work of Restoration in New York, every one must remember that for the time being all "Entanglements" from the Business Affairs of this life, as far as possible, must be laid aside; for, as the Apostle Paul wrote:
No Soldier on Service entangleth himself in the affairs of this life;
That he may please him who enrolled him as a Soldier.
And if also a man contend in the games, He is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully.

It is of the utmost importance that every member of the Legions of Zion Restoration Host shall set aside, if it be possible, the whole of the Fifteen Days for this First Great Operation in which the Host is to engage in New York.

Like soldiers who are also Citizens, and who lay aside the duties of life that they may go into the Camps and drill and learn how to fight successfully, so Zion Restoration Host must prepare, and then, leaving home and friends and all, they must mobilize, as it were, rapidly into one Great Unit with One Heart and One Mind in the greatest City of this Continent.

WE HAVE MANY PLANS concerning the operations of the Host beyond this Mission in New York, and it will be seen from the telegram of the Philadelphia North American that there is a desire upon the part of some in that city for us to visit Philadelphia after the New York Mission.

WE DO NOT FEEL it well at this time to decide between the rival claims of several large cities.

We are somewhat inclined, if it can be arranged satisfactorily, to give one or two weeks either to Boston or Philadelphia, or divide our time between them.

WE DO NOT WISH to be understood as promising this, for there are many things to be considered, which are by no means settled.

GOD IS CONTINUING to bless us at our Headquarters and in our Services in the great Chicago Auditorium every Lord’s Day.

And the Zion City Legion of Zion Restoration Host is gathering most valuable experience every week by co-operating in Chicago in great numbers.

NO MATTER how cold the weather may be, they never miss one Lord’s Day in this work.

The quiet Courage, Patience and thorough Consecration of our people have been very remarkable.

In visiting Two and Two from House to House, through the Streets and Lanes deep in snow and mud and mire, or slippery with ice, nothing has hindered.

Although in a few cases cruel words, taunts, sneers and threats were uttered, they have had no effect except to deepen their consecration.

But to the glory of God it must be said that, probably, more than ninety per cent. of the people have gladly received the Message of the Christ which the Host carried, “Peace Be to This House!”

FROM ALL PARTS of the land, and from distant lands, excellent reports continue to come.

We have just received a long, well written and intensely interesting résumé of the Year’s Work from Overseer Voliva in Australasia, which we hope to give with other matters in the Story of Zion, which we shall begin to print in Special Supplements this month.

FAR AND NEAR the world is more and more earnestly beginning to listen to the Voice which is uttering God’s Message from Zion.

No one excepting those who are bitterly prejudiced against everything that does not extend their Denominational interests, can fail to see that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is leading the forces of Spiritual Life and Light, and Love and Wisdom, and Peace and Power in the Extension of the Kingdom of God and the Blessing of all Mankind, through Faith in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord.

THE NIGHT is far spent, and time does not permit that we shall write much longer, for we have much to do ere the other portions of this paper are prepared for the press.

WE CANNOT, HOWEVER, forbear the Announcement for which doubtless many of our friends are looking, as to how God is continuing to bless Zion financially.

ON PAGE 454 of our Last Issue, we were able to announce that Subscriptions to Shares in Zion Financial Institutions had been received since December 1st to January 30th, amounting in all to $761,200.

AS WILL be seen from the subjoined letter from our General Financial Manager, the Subscriptions now amount to $881,000—an increase of $120,000 in six days, or an average of $20,000 a day, of New Capital in our Present Institutions.

Office General Financial Manager of all Zion Institutions and Industries, Zion City, Illinois, February 6, 1903.

Beloved General Overseer:—The subscriptions for shares in Zion’s various Industries and Institutions have increased, since my last report of the 7th, to $881,000.

If our friends continue to take advantage of your liberal offer, the subscriptions will soon reach $1,000,000.

Many persons will purchase shares later on, who cannot at the present time, because of property interests of which they are not able to dispose.

One gentleman, (not a member of Zion), whose interests are located in one of the Western States, and who is now visiting Zion City, will return home in a few days with the intention of selling all of his property and investing every dollar in Zion Securities.

He told me today that he intended to invest largely in Zion Lace Industries Shares, as he regarded that the best investment any one could wish.

We believe that hundreds of persons who are not members of Zion, if they knew of your liberal offers at the present time, would make large investments in Zion Securities.

Praying for God's richest blessings to rest upon you and your dear ones,

I am, as ever,

Faithfully your Brother in Christ's Service,

Chas. J. Barnard, General Financial Manager.

Referring to the last paragraph but one of Deacon Barnard's letter, we think it well to again repeat the Note which we wrote in our last issue:

Understanding that there are Large Numbers of our Friends who are disappointed in having been unable to get their affairs into such shape as to enable them to subscribe for stock before it is advanced to the premium of Ten Dollars per share on February 1st, WE HAVE DETERMINED TO POSTPONE THE ADVANCE FOR ANOTHER MONTH.

This will give the opportunity which so many desire.

It is evident that we did not need to make this extended offer of another month in order to get the sum of One Million Dollars for which we called, in subscriptions to our present stocks.

So far as we can see, that sum will be reached in a very short time.

We shall, however, keep faith with our friends who have read the announcement.

But we desire now to say that the List will close absolutely on March 1st.

Our Present Stocks will be advanced to a Premium of Ten Dollars; that is to say that each Hundred Dollar Share will then be sold for One Hundred and Ten Dollars ($110), which is, beyond all question, their present minimum and proper value.

The New Association, which will be called the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, will now speedily come to the front.

Its stock will be floated at par, at Twenty Dollars ($20) per share.

A Working Capital of Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000) will be immediately required.

We are making most excellent arrangements for the purchase of building material on a very large scale for the approaching spring and summer work, both for the public and private buildings of the City of Zion.

We believe, from what we can now see, that in the eight months which lie between this and the New York Mission, this Association will build, God willing, more than a thousand houses, at a probable average of more than Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500) each.

With the Zion public buildings, and especially the new Shiloh Tabernacle, the building operations of Zion will probably reach an average of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) per month, or Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) for the season.

We think this is a minimum estimate, when we remember that, in addition to this, very expensive machinery will be required for the extension of the Zion Lace Industries, and other Institutions.

It will be seen that a Busy Building Season is before us in Zion City.

This leads us now to say that it will not be too early for our brethren at a distance, who desire to work in Zion City, and especially those who belong to the Constructive Trades, to make their applications for employment—even if they have made previous application.

We are adding very extensively to our Architectural and Engineering Departments, and will require much more assistance very soon.

Godly men and women will be in much demand in all branches of work when the season is fairly opened.

But we desire to warn our friends against their coming in too numerous at a time.

They must not leave their homes until they get encouragement or direction to do so, either in these columns or by private circular.

Let those who desire to enroll for employment address the Zion Employment Bureau, Zion City, or, in the event of their being Specialists, the Manager of any of the Departments to which they would specially belong.

Even if they are not members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, but are Christians who have a friendly attitude towards us, they will be gladly welcomed.

We do not want to have strangers build our walls in greater numbers than is necessary.

We desire to "do Good unto All Men, but specially unto those who are of the Household of Faith," even if they are not within our ecclesiastical boundaries.

We recognize that there are millions of earnest Christians...

EDITORIAL NOTES.

in all the Denominations, thousands and tens of thousands of whom are "inquiring the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward."

WE WOULD also warn persons who come for employment that there are practically no houses unoccupied in the City of Zion.

It will be most unadvisable for newcomers to bring their wives and children at first, especially when the weather is cold.

Tenting is not safe earlier than June.

WE SHALL, however, make provision, by the enlargement of Elijah Hospice and also of Edina Hospice, and by getting our people to take boarders, for many hundreds until the warm weather comes in.

AFTER A CONSULTATION with our business cabinet, and the officers of many departments, we have felt it well to make these announcements personally in these Notes.

Let our Christian friends far and near understand that the time has now come for good Christian workmen, especially, to make their way to Zion City, after correspondence with the Zion Employment Bureau, and a clear understanding concerning wages, work, and conditions of employment.

AS AN ILLUSTRATION of the rapid progress of the City, it may interest our friends to know that the large and beautiful Administration Building on Elijah Avenue, finished only six months ago, has become altogether too small for the Headquarters' Offices.

We have directed it to be extended in such a manner as to cover every inch of space on the site which it now occupies, and provide for about one-third increase of accommodation.

Even this enlargement will be immediately occupied.

We have directed, also, that the original plans of Elijah Hospice shall be carried out in their utmost detail.

Several hundreds of new rooms will thus be provided for guests.

GROUND WILL also be broken this year, God willing, as early as possible, for the Permanent Buildings at the northwest corner of Elijah avenue and Shiloh boulevard, which will be occupied by ourself and Overseer Jane Dowie, and the Departments associated with us in the Direction of the General Work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the world.

These buildings will probably be known as the Chief Administration Offices, and the present Administration Building will be known as the General Administration Offices.

WE SHALL NEED a number of excellent stone-cutters and a superior class of builders, both in brick and terra-cotta, who are accustomed to fill up steel construction framework.

It is intended to make these offices absolutely fire-proof, and to keep the Archives of Zion there.

A NUMBER OF Expert Stenographers, both men and women, will be required very soon.

Some are wanted now.

Our present staff is very large, but the work is increasing so rapidly that it is necessary to have immediate help.

We cannot undertake to train unskilful and awkward stenographers in our offices.

This must be done before they come to us, because it will delay business and waste the valuable time of important officers, when they are compelled to dictate slowly and have the work done badly.

We shall not receive any who have not acquired both speed and accuracy.

There are many excellent positions for such, and the old saying is true, "There is always room at the top."

WE INVITE personal application to the General Ecclesiastical Secretary, the Rev. J. G. Excell, of at least three new stenographers for that department.

AND SO, even although the winter is not yet over, and the ground-hog is asleep, Zion is moving forward and new building permits are being granted every week.

WE WOULD REMIND our friends who are expecting to build that it takes time to make plans, specifications, and estimates for buildings.

If we are to do their work this year, and there is no private contracting in Zion City, we must receive their applications very early.

Jehovah shall Guide thee Continually,
And Satisfy thy soul in Dry Places
And make Strong thy bones;
And thou shalt be like a Watered Garden,
And like a Spring of Water, whose waters fail not;)
And thou shalt be called the Repairer of the Breach,
The Restorer of Paths to dwell in.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.
MISSION OF ELIJAH THE RESTORER
And Zion Restoration Host in New York

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, February 2, 1903.

DR. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, Zion City, Ill.

Will you kindly prepare for New York Herald, formal signed statement, fifteen hundred words, your plans and expectations regarding New York City.

Please wire answer my expense tonight if I may get statement by calling at Zion City Wednesday afternoon.

JOHN HOWARD TODD, Correspondent,
154 Washington Street.

Signed Statement to "The New York Herald."

Complying with your courteously expressed request to send you a signed statement concerning my fifteen days' proposed Mission in Madison Square Garden, New York, next October, I say:

(I) This project is the first of its kind.

It is the Mission of Elijah the Restorer and a portion of Zion Restoration Host.

It is a part of the preparation for the Coming of the Christ as King, "whom the heaven must receive until the Times of Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began." (Acts 3:21.)

(II) I firmly believe, and so do tens of thousands of God's people throughout the world, that I have been sent by God, "in the spirit and power of Elijah," as the third and last manifestation of that prophet.

(III) The first manifestation was in Elijah (a word meaning Jehovah is my God), who was a sojourner of Gilead in the days of Ahab and Jezebel, when the worship of Baal was triumphant in Israel, nearly twenty-eight centuries ago. He was Elijah the Destroyer.

(IV) The second manifestation of Elijah was in the person of John the Baptist. (Matthew 10:13, 14.) He was Elijah the Preparer.

(V) The third manifestation of Elijah is in my person, of whom the Christ spoke after John the Baptist's death, when he admitted the correctness of the Rabbinical contention "Elijah must first come," saying, "Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things."

I am Elijah the Restorer.

(VI) Orthodox Jews everywhere look for the coming of Elijah as an essential antecedent to the Coming of the Messiah, and in this expectation they are fully supported by the words of Jesus which I have just quoted, and by the very last words of the last prophetic book of the Old Testament:

"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet Before the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah come. And he shall turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, And the heart of the children to their fathers; Lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."—Malachi 4:5, 6.

(VII) Christians have failed to be taught by their cowardly, and often extremely ignorant ministers in these times, that "Elijah must first come;" but the best Commentators on the Bible, including some of high scholarship and recent date, acknowledge this fact boldly.

(VIII) More than thirty years of successful Christian ministry in Europe, Australasia and America, give me some right to speak to my fellow Christians throughout the world as a faithful preacher of the Everlasting Covenant and Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

(IX) The formation of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, seven years ago, in Chicago, of which I am the General Overseer, has been followed by the Planting of the Banner of Zion on every continent of the world and many Islands of the Sea.

(X) Tens of thousands have witnessed to the blessings accompanying our Ministry, having been led into the experience of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, through faith in Jesus, the Christ.

(XI) The City of Zion, on Lake Michigan, forty miles north of Chicago, is a proof of the soundness of our teaching and practice as a people; and of the Theocratic Principles upon which this city was founded eighteen months ago.

Among the "outward and visible signs of an inward and invisible faith," are:—

A population of over eight thousand (8,000) happy people, comfortably housed; working contentedly; having flourishing financial, commercial and industrial institutions occupying buildings covering many acres of floor space; three large school buildings, and the first section of a stone and brick building for a college, which has already hundreds of students; church accommodation for about seven thousand; and a building about to be erected for sixteen thousand; three papers, having three editions weekly and two monthly, etc.

With all these and many other good things, there is not a single saloon, tobacco shop, drug shop, piggery, house of ill-fame, secret society, or other evil thing of a similar kind in the City of Zion.

(XII) The people of Zion City are God-fearing, courteous, thoughtful, skilful, cheerful, quiet, "diligent in business," "servant in spirit," without being fanatical, and are intensely desirous of doing good.

This is shown by the fact that many hundreds, sometimes as many as from one to two thousand, go every Lord's Day from Zion City to Chicago, and to other cities and points around, with the Message of the Christ,

"PEACE BE TO THIS HOUSE."

This they do at their own individual cost, as members of Zion Restoration Host, an organization which now numbers many thousands throughout the world.

We have also a Home of Hope for Erring Women, and no less than Six Hundred Dorcas workers among the poor of Chicago, etc.

(XIII) With these facts in mind, I proceed to state some of the special reasons for our projected movement on New York, and, possibly other Eastern cities, this fall:

(XIV) There are multitudes of sinners in every class of society to be saved from their sins and to be restored to God, who are now manifestly captives of the Devil.

There are multitudes of sick people, whom no doctors or surgeons' knives have healed, to whom we shall teach God's Way of Healing, through Repentance, Faith and Obedience, and to encourage whom we shall produce hundreds of witnesses who have been saved through faith in Jesus.

There are multitudes of Christians who are far from living clean, unworthy and holy lives, many of whom are "cumber ers of the ground," whose efforts are unfruitful, who are hindering the extension of the Kingdom of God, and who must be delivered from their diabolical ecclesiastical, business and social environments by the power of the Spirit of God.

(XV) Christianity as hitherto organized in what is called Christendom, has proved itself for centuries to be, largely, an Organized Failure; and whatever progress has been made, or triumph achieved, has been largely the work of consecrated individuals, in spite of the apostate or incompetent leaders of ecclesiastical organizations, who have often been narrow-minded, bigoted, selfish, deceitful, proud, self-seeking, and lacking in Christian Catholicity.

(XVI) The apostasy, contemptible weakness, worldly conformity, and fruitlessness of the so-called Catholic and Denominational Churches, as organizations, demand sharp rebuke.

(XVII) The true people of God must be brought out of these decaying, dishonest, and dishonorable organizations, which, like salt that has lost its savour, are "fit neither for the fountain, nor the earth, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men."

This was the condition which our Lord Jesus, the Christ, foretold would be that of unfaithful disciples (Matthew 5:13) and the apostolic John Wesley in "Thoughts on Methodism" —Wesley's Works, Volume 7, page 317—plainly foretold that under certain contingencies, which have clearly come to pass,
Methodism would be reduced to "dung and dross."

(XVII) I shall especially reprove, expose, and utterly destroy, God helping me, during our New York Mission, the insufferable pretentiousness, self-conceit, and ignorance of Dr.
James M. Buckley in his article in the Century magazine for October last, entitled, "Dowie Analyzed and Classified."

(XIX) Beneath the Folds of the Banner of Zion in New York City, I will preach, as the Messenger of God's Covenant:
1. The Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God.
2. Repentance, Restitution, Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.
3. Baptism by Triune Immersion.
4. Obedience, the Royal Law, and the Eleventh Command-
ment.
5. Christian Union in Church, Home, Business and State.
6. The Downfall of all forms of Apostasy and Tyranny in Church and State in all Nations.
7. "The Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began." (Acts 3:21.)

(XX) As to the details of our Mission, it is too early to write, but a program will be published in due time, giving the hours and places of meeting, subjects of addresses, etc.

(XXI) In answer to your request, and many other inquiries,
I may say concerning many fictitious statements which have appeared already in the Chicago press, that I would warn the press and public against any press telegrams originating in that city; for if they are not wholly false, they will always be that truth with a vast amount of falsehood.

I have absolutely no hope of that press.

"Ethiopian can change his skin," and the "leopard his spots," mined upon in connection with this Mission:
1. The Madison Square Garden has been leased for fifteen days, from October 18th to November 1st inclusive.
2. Accommodations have been already secured for fully
One Thousand (1,000) persons.
3. Arrangements are being made for the transportation of a
Zion Restoration Host Excursion from Zion City on October 14th, which it is estimated will not consist of less than two thousand, and may possibly reach four thousand persons, including Zion's White-robed Choir of from three to five hundred singers.

4. Arrangements are also in progress for Excursions of the members of Zion Restoration Host from Cincinnati and Cleveland, Philadelphia and Boston, and from other points.

5. Beyond the presentation of simple truth and the exercise of simple faith, and hope, and love, there will be no features in this Mission of a foolish or fanatical, or what is usually known as "sensational" nature.

6. We expect only, what we have always expected, the good will of the masses of the people, and especially of the poor, the sick and the sorrowful, whom we have always sought to reach first of all.

7. We do not expect, and would be very chary in accepting, even if it were offered, any help from the churches as they are now organized.

8. We shall bear all our own expenses, every member of the Zion Restoration Host bearing his or her share, and the Christian Catholic Church in Zion will from its Storehouse provide the rest.

9. Freewill offerings only will be received.

10. No charges of any kind will be made, and the Mission will be absolutely free to all well-disposed persons, who behave in an orderly manner, for interruptions of any kind will not be permitted.

11. Our Message is one of Peace "to men of good will."
12. We have no personal wrongs to avenge, Dr. Buckley not excepted, and we desire the good of all.
13. Our fight is against evil, and only incidentally against evil-doers, so long as they will cling to their sins.
14. Our supreme and intense desire is the Salvation, Healing, and Cleansing of all, and the Restoration of all to God.

EDITOR NEW YORK AMERICAN, New York City, New York.

In reply to your courteous inquiry, I desire to say that the report is true concerning my conducting a Mission, God willing, this fall in New York. It will be held from October 18th to November 1st, both dates inclusive, in the Madison Square Garden.

I expect to come with several thousand members of Zion Restoration Host, and Zion White-robed Choir, to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, which brings Salvation, Healing and Cleansing for spirit, soul and body, to all who truly repent, believe and obey our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

I expect to accomplish what I have done in Chicago and elsewhere, namely: to establish a strong Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, a Legion of the Zion Restoration Host, and to extend the Kingdom of God.

These words cover all your questions, and you can find from week to week in the pages of my weekly paper, LEAVES OF HEALING, the detailed program and arrangements for the Zion Restoration Host Excursion, and for the Mission.

There is but one other matter which I think it might be well to add, namely: that it is my intention, very early in the Mission, to devote an entire evening to a reply to Doctor James M. Buckley's article in the Century magazine of October last, entitled, "Dowie Analyzed and Classified," exposing and sweeping away the load of accumulated ignorance concerning Divine Healing, myself and my work for God, which Doctor Buckley in his folly calls "knowledge."

I have left this task for this Mission, and will, God helping me, perform it as early as possible.

I thank you for your courtesy, and send my hearty good wishes and prayers to every citizen of New York, and thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

A MOST astounding and flagrant misstatement of the facts concerning the work of the Methodist Episcopal church was utterly demolished Lord's Day afternoon, February 1, 1903, by Elijah the Restorer.

The plain, straightforward and absolutely fair statements of God's Messenger from year to year, calling attention to the loss of power in the Methodist Episcopal church, its failure to advance and its terrible losses, had manifestly alarmed and aroused the leaders of that apostate body.

A four years' campaign was begun to raise twenty million dollars and to gain two million converts.

At the close of the year 1902, they announced that the twenty million dollars had been raised, but nothing was said of the two million converts.

The people pressed the leaders for a statement about the converts.

The official statistics showed that, during the four years of the campaign, there had been so slight an advance that it amounted practically to a retreat.

In the face of all this, the editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate attempted to show that a million and a half of converts had been won.

This extraordinary statement was published on January 21, 1903, in the midst of Elijah's Restoration Messages, Unveiling Methodist Apostasy.

Hence it was fitting that this matter, bearing so directly upon the subject of the series, should be dealt with immediately and effectively.

God's Messenger shrank not from the unpleasant duty of exposing the wilful falsehood of a great so-called religious paper.

Taking up the matter under the subject: "The Methodist Massacre of the Innocents: an Examination of the Allegations of the Northwestern Christian Advocate of January 21, 1903," he showed with keen, unanswerable logic, that if, as the writer claimed, there were a million and a half of converts during the four years, then all or nearly all of them must have been slaughtered, spiritually, after they entered the church.

He then pointed out the significant fact that John Wesley, the great founder, under God, of Methodism, had foreseen the apostasy of the church, and had uttered solemn warnings, which had been heeded.

The day was not severely cold, but was damp and disagreeable, and the walking in the muddy streets of the city was bad.

Notwithstanding this, however, a great throng poured into the Auditorium to hear the words of Elijah the Restorer, filling the ground floor and boxes, and a very large part of the gallery, while hundreds stood in the foyer, unwilling to climb the stairways to the higher galleries.

Many went away because all the desirable seats were taken.

About four thousand people were present.

The Scripture reading and exposition, which preceded the Message of the afternoon, was made exceedingly interesting and inspiring by the General Overseer.

With characteristic plainness of speech, keenness of wit and vividness of descriptive power, he interpreted the truths of the Word of God as applied to many of the follies and sins which the ministers in the apostate churches dare not rebuke.

While the presentation of these truths by the man of God was in no sense popular, yet it was given with a Divine Power which made it mightily effective.

Although the great audience was, perhaps, more than half composed of strangers, there was the most respectful and earnest attention, and frequent outbursts of approbation of the strong words spoken.

Practical people in the audience were especially pleased with the sharp denunciation of the theoretical university professors who talked and talked and talked, but never did anything.

There was the same keen appreciation on the part of the audience of the fairness and righteousness of the stand taken in the Message concerning "The Methodist Massacre of the Innocents."

The testimony of the Methodists' own figures, which God's Messenger hurled against the lies of their official press, was so plain and unmistakable that none failed to see the truth.

The Message was closed with an appeal to all those who desired to consecrate themselves to God to do so by rising and repeating the prayer of consecration.

There were few indeed in all that great audience who did not respond.

The regular February Communion of the Lord's Supper was administered by the General Overseer, assisted by Overseers Speicher and Mason, and many Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses.

The three thousand Christians who remained, filling the ground floor of the Auditorium, will not soon forget the power and blessing of that service.
I may say that this article of the "Northwestern Christian Advocate" has been reproduced in all parts of the United States to contradict my statement that the Methodist Episcopal church has been fading away.

Every Masonic paper printed it at great length.

I admit that 1,104,739 probationers, and no more, were added—at least that they said they were added—but I submit that their own figures show that they were lost.

In order to bolster up an unspiritual and decaying body, this paper sets out to impress upon the people a shameful imposition.

If there were really a million and a half conversions, the converts are not to be found.

Is not this a Massacre of the Innocents?

The Voice of Elijah the Restorer, in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, February 1, 1903.

Elijah the Restorer unMASKS THE FALSE STATISTICS OF THE "NORTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE."
It is with a deeper, fuller, and more joyous realization of the significance of this Ordinance, which is observed by the followers of the Christ, "Till He Come," that the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion gather about His Table this year; for they have learned to work, to watch, and to pray in the spirit of the motto given by the Messenger of God for the year: "Till He Come."

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they stood up on the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the Processional:

Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the Invocation:

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
And Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
And Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 164:

Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleventh Commandment:

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God, first in the 6th chapter of the book of the Prophet Isaiah, and then in the Catholic Epistle of James.

For Zion's sake will I not hold My peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth.

And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a New Name, which the Mouth of Jehovah shall name.

The New Name.

Old names have passed away with out-of-date institutions. Names, after all, do stand for something. We have a great many meaningless names.
It has become the custom to give foolish names which do not mean anything, except a jingle of sounds.

In the olden time names meant something.

If a man were called John, everybody knew that the name meant that his mother and father had received him as a gift, and recognized in him the Grace of God.

If he were christened Samuel, it had a similar significance.

If he were called Daniel, it meant "God is my Judge," and doubtless his name helped to inspire with the fearless determination to do all things with the consciousness that he was always and supreme in God alone.

A man's character was often molded by his name.

Men were often given names because of their character.

The old name by which they were known passed away, and they were given a new name.

For instance there was one man, who afterwards became a very excellent worker in the early Church, possibly that ruler whom Jesus loved, and told to sell all, give all to the poor, and then to follow him. He went away very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

But a very ancient tradition says, that after the Christ passed away, he became a true disciple.

He was known among the disciples as Joses, and then he was called Barnabas, "son of consolation," because he became such a good man in comforting and helping others.

Now we have a new name, a New Name.

God's People Called by Isaac's Name.

Institutions have to change.

God said that in the Latter Days His people would be called in Isaac, but not in Jacob.

They were not even to be called in Israel, "but in Isaac shall thy Seed be called."

Therefore we are Isaac's sons.

We are Saxons.

That "Saxon" has been gradually dropped.

Our race is Isaac's sons, the Saxons.

It is a New Name.

The Israelitish people are represented by the British and Scandinavians—the Anglo-Saxon race.

There is no difficulty about that.

The Danites in Europe.

You can easily trace one of the tribes, the Tribe of Dan.

They took to the sea in ships at the time of the captivity, came down the Mediterranean and landed at the mouth of the Danube.

That means Dan's river.

You can trace the name of Dan all through Europe, because every place to which they went they called by the name of their father Dan, until at last they came to Danmark, and there they drew a line.

They made a mark and did not go any farther, and so it was called Dan's mark.

They came over to Great Britain and pursued their thievish habits there.

They were great thieves and warriors, ready to fight at the drop of a hat and before it. They were a powerful race.

It can be clearly proved that they belonged to the tribe of Dan.

You can trace them everywhere by the Hebrew in their language, their manners, and their customs.

After they got to Great Britain they called themselves by the name of their father, Dan.

All through Great Britain you can find the words Don and Dan applied to rivers, cities, etc.

An Anglo-Saxon Confederation Coming.

The Sons of Isaac—Saxons—have the name of the ruling tribes of Israel in these Latter Days.

All Jews and all Israelites and all really Christian Nations everywhere must come under the Anglo-Saxon Confederation flag, because the British, and the Anglo-Saxon, will, politically and commercially, be the greatest ruling power in this world.

The interests of the Race are one, and the Anglo-Saxon element dominates in the British and American nations.

It is not very difficult to see the sons of Joseph in America.

I call your attention to this expression:

Thou shalt be called by a New Name.

That was not written there for nothing. It is Divine prophecy.

Thus shalt also be a Crown of Beauty in the Hand of Jehovah, and a Royal Diadem in the Hand of thy God.

This has reference to another New Name.

Jews were a Nation, Not a Church.

The Church of God really had no existence as a Church until the Christ founded it as an Ecclesia, a Gathering from out of the Bastetia (Bastard) the Kingdom of God.

There is and was no such thing as a Jewish Ecclesia.

There never was a Jewish Church.

There was a Jewish nation. The whole nation was under the law.

Every Jew was born into the kingdom.

The Church and the Kingdom are two different things altogether.

There are a great many people in the Kingdom of God who are not in the Church.

It is a very good thing for them that they are not, because it is no railing accusation for me to say today what the Master said nineteen centuries ago to the proselyting priests:

"Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become one proselyte, and when he is become one, ye make him twofold more a Son of Hell than yourselves."

When a man goes into these infernal Apostate churches, all the spirituality that he ever had dies out; especially if he gets into a church where the minister is a Freemason, who, leads him into the first, second and third degrees until he reaches the thirty-third degree, when all his spirituality is gone and he is a "Christian no more."

The Christ Shut Out of Freemasonry.

He has had to leave the Christ outside the door at every degree because he cannot name His Name inside.

"The Bible is there," you say.

Yes, a closed Bible, and with the Name of the Christ cut out in the quotations made from it in the Masonic Manual which the chaplain of the lodge uses.

You do not dare to read the Name of the Christ as the Son of God, crucified, dead, buried, resurrected, glorified, and coming again to reign, in a Masonic lodge.

Blindfolded, with a rope around his neck, stripped almost naked, the poor wretched candidate is led around to take vows, he knows not what.

What abomination!

Gradually the religion of this member of the Apostate church who goes into the lodge dies.

He gets nothing back except Baal-worship.

It is not God he has been worshiping.

He has for an emblem "The Point Within the Circle," the most disgusting emblem that ever cursed this earth, for it is the emblem of the Phallic heathen mysteries.

If I were to put into plain English just what that Emblem means, I would shock you.

The Phallic Mysteries was the filthiest thing that ever cursed humanity, and its Emblem is the Point Within the Circle.

There is to be a New Name given to the church.

That is the thought here.

It is the Church of the Christ; the Church of the Messiah which He purchased with His Blood.

He will make it beautiful and glorious and powerful.

The Kingdom is God's.

The Church is to be taken from those who are in the Kingdom.

It is much better, I think, for some people to stay in the Kingdom than to join organizations which do not obey God first, but put their customs, their creeds and other things first.

Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Jehovah's Delight, and thy land Beulah: for Jehovah delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

I have set watchmen upon thy walls.
SCHEIP}T READING AND EXPOSITION.

Do you think that they will take that back tomorrow? No. They will only tell a few more lies about me, that is all. So it is with them all.

"These are thy gods, oh Israel."

You have to read more lies than anything else: for they are devils—none the less so because they wear trousers and sometimes petticoats, and who make life a demi-monde- jest. There are a few exceptions, but, like angels' visits, they are few and far between.

There are a great many others who aspire to teach who are not taught themselves, even though they are earnest and sincere Christians.

God never meant all His people to be teachers.

He meant all His people to live good lives, to witness for Him, to attend strictly and well to their daily business in the world, the home, and church, and to talk about the things which they understand.

Great Need for Properly-Qualified Teachers.

To be a teacher one must needs have been a long time learning.

I believe that there never was a time in the history of the world when the teacher needed to be more accurate in his historic facts, and needed more power or capacity to express them correctly than now. It is essential now, and has been at all times, in the Church. God has set in the Church first apostles, secondly prophets, then teachers, and then many other ministries; but these three are the chief.

Apostles, prophets and teachers come first, according to 1st Corinthians, 12th chapter and 28th verse.

And God hath set some in the Church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then Miracles, then Gifts of Healing, helps, governments, divers kinds of tongues.

"Be not many teachers, my brethren."

Rabbin is the Jewish equivalent for the English word teachers, in the new version, wrongly translated masters in the old version.

A Foolish Lie of the Chicago "Chronicle."

I do not know who sent it to me, but a copy of the Sunday Chronicle, which I never buy, was sent to me today at midday. I was very much astonished to find that we had a great meeting last night in Zion City.

It must have been while I was asleep. (Laughter.)

The Chronicle was the only wide-awake paper around at that time.

They have a long and thrillingly sensational account of a meeting which was never held.

It told numerous things that never happened, and made me say things I had never thought.

That does not matter.

That is the Chronicle of the Man of Sin, and he has had a bad and murderous record for many centuries.

SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.

---Jehovah hath sworn by His right hand, and by the arm of His strength, that is a good time which is coming, is it not? (Amen.)

What a foolish city is this, and every other city which is a city of sin! Behold, Jehovah hath proclaimed unto the end of the earth, Say yet to the end of the earth, and praise Jehovah; and they shall call them the holy people, the redeemed of Jehovah: and there shall be no more uttering of lies, no more drinking in the courts of My sanctuary.

No, James, you did not know the newspaper press. They never stumble; or at least they never admit it. Homer might nod, and even an apostle stumble, but who ever heard of a newspaper editor confessing to a nod even when he had been drinking champagne (at night) and came to his desk with real pain later on in the same day. Never! The Tribune never nods! The Inter Ocean never stumbles! and not a single newspaper in Chicago ever admits its fallibility! I never knew them to tell lies by mistake. They never make any mistakes. Never! They always lie on purpose. So it is with many of the so-called religious papers.

They do not make mistakes.

The Northwestern Christian Advocate with which I intend to deal later on this afternoon, has made no mistake.

The editor knew he was lying.

He knew that he lied when he wrote that article on January 21st, and tried to make the people of this city believe that the Methodist Episcopal Church had won by conversion to God from a million and a half to two millions of members in four years.

The biggest liars whom I know in this country are newspaper and "religious" editors. I do not know which is the bigger.

I think that the professed Christian-minister-editor who lies is the biggest kind of a liar.

I have been lied about for nearly fifteen years by nearly every religious newspaper in this country.

You, who are trying to teach the people, and leading them astray by lies, will receive heavier judgment.
You will receive a heavy condemnation from the hand of God.

The very best of us may stumble by giving imperfect information. It is exceedingly difficult to get accurate information. Even when you see the thing transpiring before your face, you cannot always understand it all.

You have to get behind the fact itself to understand. But the editor who tells spurious and wilful lies is on a par with a thief and a murderer: for he often does the work of both.

His damnation is just.

The Tongue an Unruly Evil.

For in many things we all stumble. If any stumblieth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body, also. Now if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about their whole body also.

Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are Driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth.

So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!

And the tongue is a fire: the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of nature, and is set on fire by hell.

What a description of an unbridled tongue!

For every kind of beast and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed by man. But the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of deadly poison.

No man can tame the tongue; it takes God to tame it. If James had lived today, he would have said: “And the pen can no man tame.”

“The printing press can no man tame.”

They send forth Oceans of Ink, and they fill continents with their vile Rags, just to obscure things.

Wen do nine times as much work as we do talk.

I notice that my good wife, who has had such a sore trial in the months past, is able to say in the report which she wrote for Leaves of Healing of last Saturday, that she now has about 600 Dorcas workers in this city.

They have been growing rapidly.

This year we have distributed more than 5,000 articles of clothing in and around Chicago alone.

We did not say much about it, but we did it.

Zion Restoration Host visited, in their homes, a population equal to the entire population of the City of Chicago.

The recorder of Zion Restoration Host says that in Chicago they visit 23,000 families every Lord’s Day.

That is at least 115,000 people.

They take a Message of Peace to each house in many cities, villages, towns, places all over the world, and on ships that sail in many seas.

By the goodness of God we have recently won from the paths of sin many scores of poor women.

How many babies have we now in our Home of Hope for Erring Women, Deaconess Paddock?

Deaconess Paddock—“We have now in our Home twenty little babies.”

General Overseer—How many women?

Deaconess Paddock—“Last year we had cared for 150 women and 33 babies.”

General Overseer—Many of these babies, would have been thrown aside and have died long ago.

Zion’s Care for Homeless Babies.

The other day when Mrs. Dowie, as Overseer, was consecrating to God the little babies in the Home she saw one particu-
I will never be entirely Peaceable on earth until there is Universal Purity.

That is why I have a row with the Devil all the time; because he is a dirty Devil, and wants to make things unclean.

He always wants to smear and soil everything and defile every one whom he can.

He is nasty and dirty and stinking himself and succeeds in making nine-tenths of the men in many places to be walking stinkpots.

Lah! They are stinkpots.

They go about chewing and spewing nicotine. (Laughter.)

Do that in Zion City, and you will find that we have a lock-up and twenty-five dollars fine awaiting you.

I shall lean up against the saloons in your cities chewing away, with their dirty black god in their mouth, getting it ready for their dirty belly, or for viler purposes.

They send a lady coming down the street and they get all ready to receive her in the way in which thousands of young American hogs delight.

Just as the lady begins to smell them and tries to get past quickly, they spew their filth out on the street when it is too late for her to escape.

The poor lady gathers it up in her skirts and hurries by.

The stinking dogs! And the president of the American Federation of Labor is very appropriately, a cigar maker!

Tobacco Users Smell Like Devils.

No dog would act as you do, you stinking brutes.

You call yourselves Christians, do you?

You smoke and chew and spew $700,000,000 of nicotine poison in the shape of tobacco every year.

You call yourselves Christians?

You may be Christians after a certain kind, but you smell like devils, and I believe you are mostly devils or fast becoming devils.

Your throat is an open sepulcher.

No clean man, I do not care who he is, smokes tobacco or chews it.

What right have you to come home and stink your wife out?

Why do you not bring her a box of cigars, and say—"My dear, here are some nice cigars, and some chewing plug. Please chew it.

A gentleman should be clean, and every Christian should be a true gentleman.

He has no right to stink his wife out.

She never contracted to be stunk out.

Men Who Poison Their Wives.

She is not only stunk out, but let me tell you that living in the same room with you and breathing your dirty breath, the nasty filth of your cupids—or it is not pleasant to talk about, but we may just as well have it out—and living in the same bed with you, your wives are being poisoned to death.

You drink champagne and whisky and eat and smoke tobacco.

Then you swat out the alcohol and nicotine.

Nicotine could be scraped off your skin.

Your wives never contracted to live with a poisoner like that, you dirty dogs!

You deserve the lash, and I would like to give it to you, too.

You spend two thousand million dollars a year in liquor and tobacco, you wretches, and yet you call yourselves Christians.

I will have Purity first, if I have war all the time.

It will require war to get Purity.

Not war with the weapons of man, but with the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

May God make my tongue sharp to fight for God! (Amen.)

"A Sharp Threshing Instrument, Having Teeth."

A brother brought me a text the other day, saying: "That is you, General Overseer."

I looked at it, and this is what I read: "Behold, I will make thee a New Sharp Threshing Instrument, having teeth."

I said, "I want to be just that."

May God make Zion a New Sharp Threshing Instrument, having teeth.

But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without variance, without hypocrisy.

And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for them that make peace.

God help us to be Peacemakers. (Amen.)

May He bless His Word.

The Gloria Patri was then chanted, after which Overseer George L. Mason and the General Overseer offered prayer.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, and all the coming time till Jesus come. (Amen.)

No Malice In This Examination.

What I have to say now will be said without a particle of malice.

I shall not spare words that I think are needed, however, to characterize the action of the official organ of Methodism in this city and in the Northwest.

I am delivering a series of messages about the Apostasies, and this comes at the present moment in the midst of the series on the Methodist Apostasy. I, therefore, give the afternoon, as far as I am aware, to this text:

"One Million Five Hundred Thousand Conversions."

The Methodist Episcopal Church Has Had at Least "one million five hundred thousand Conversions."

Accessions and Conversions During the Four Years of the Twentieth Century Thank-offering Movement.

The Methodist Episcopal Church Has Had at Least "1,500,000 Accessions and Conversions During the Four Years of the Twentieth Century Thank-offering Movement."

Now I join issue with that and say that it is an abominable lie!

That is a shameful lie, in all its actual intent and purpose, to impose upon the people of this land the statement that 1,500,000 persons have been added to that church during the last four years.

I will prove the statement by their own statistics.

I will put in the front of all I have to say, the words that I read to you in the 3d chapter of the Epistle of James, in the 14th verse, the last clause of that verse.

TEXT.

"Glory not and Lie not against the Truth."

I have not a particle of malice against the gentleman who edits that paper, because I am told by some of my own people that he says a great many kind words about me, after the manner of the Rev. Mr. Nicodemus, who lived in Jerusalem some time ago, but whose present address is not known with any certainty.

Indeed, he sometimes adopts a patronizing tone which I do not care about, nor do those to whom he sometimes uses it.

I do not care who the editor is; that article is disgraceful.

I think I ought to say that I have been a student of Methodist literature and of Methodist Statistics for a number of years.

Among other books I have the Reports of the Methodist Episcopal General Conferences from 1792 to 1900, and the Spring and Fall Minutes of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a number of years—especially for 1897 to 1901, and the Spring Conferences for 1902.

I tried at the Methodist Publishing Houses in New York and in Chicago to get the Fall Conferences for 1902, but could not get them.

All information concerning them is taken, however, from Methodist sources, and, especially, from the New York Christian Advocate, which I have received regularly for some years.

I say these words simply to place on record, at the outset of this discourse, the fact that I am quoting only from the official publications of the Methodist Episcopal Church in refuting the false allegations of the Northwestern Christian Advocate.

Why the Lie Was Concocted.

The writer says:

We have received a number of letters, the burden of which is that our church has pledged twenty million dollars as a Twentieth Century Thank-offering, but not the Two Million Converts.

At the time that this Twentieth Century Thank-offering was brought up it was suggested that they go in for two million converts.

This is the only paper, as far as I know, that has had the audacity to make this astounding misstatement.

As its editor says: Dr. Robert Stephens, Presiding Elder of the Danville District, Illinois Conference, and Dr. Fayette Thompson, of Davenport, Iowa, write to him complaining that the Methodists are boasting about getting the twenty million dollars, but they are not humbled about the fact that they did not get the two million conversions.

Dr. Stephens says: "Why did we fail to bring into the Kingdom of Christ the two million converts?" Who can answer?

He will be very much astonished to find that he was wrong in presuming there had been any gigantic failure: for there was a David ready to demonstrate that Goliath Failure was dead—David D. Thompson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, had it all laid out on paper.

Dr. Thompson writes: "We must in some way lead our people into a deeper religious life." "I do not know how. I am trying to do it with my own flock and with scarcely any better success than the others. But in some way it must be done. I am glad for the $20,000,000, but my soul would exult far more over 2,000,000 converts do you mourn? Did you not know, my dear Fayette L.

"The Case [it was thought to be a lost case] is far better for the Methodist Episcopal church, has pledged twenty million dollars as a Twentieth Century Thank-offering, but not the Two Million Converts?"

The writers have all evidently taken the reports of the simple increase in the aggregate membership of the church as indicating the number of converts during the four years of the Twentieth Century Thank-offering Movement.

The fact is there have been at least 1,500,000 conversions during these four years, for the following good reasons:

In 1899, the entire membership, including all probationers, was 2,874,037.

In 1901 it was only 2,852,234, showing a net increase covering three of these years of 78,197.

The figures for 1902 are not available.

But where is there any place for adding any to the probationers in the Fall Conferences?

There is none: for they are all accounted for in the figures now fully quoted.

Nor can there have been, by any possibility, interior probationers to any such number added to the fellowship during these four years, for the following good reasons:

In 1899 the entire membership, including all probationers, was 2,874,037.

In 1901 it was only 2,952,234, showing a net increase covering three of these years of 78,197.

The figures for 1902 are not available.

Where is the possible room for the wholly mythical 500,000 additional that editor D. D. T. daringly imagines?

But 400,000 more conversions were needed to make up the 2,000,000; and how does the editor of the Northwestern Advocate get them on paper?

By the following "guess" of "two of our bishops" who must surely have been laughing at him:

"Two of our bishops tell us that, in their judgment, at least two-thirds of those who unite with the Church on probation in the Fall conferences are taken into full membership during the conference year, but do not appear in the records of probationers present at conference. If these bishops are correct in this opinion it would add at least 400,000 more to our estimate, and make the number of probationers and of converts during the last four years nearly 2,000,000."

What has Become of the 1,500,000.

If 1,500,000, or as he says, 3,000,000 were added during this period of four years to the Methodist Episcopal church, would not the Methodist Episcopal church, if they were real additions show the increase?

A Startling Loss in 1899.

What was the rate of increase in the year 1899? No increase at all, but a decrease. A decrease of 18,846 by their own figures on page 647 of Minutes of Fall Conferences for 1899.

They lost all the probationers, every one of them, and about twenty thousand more. There is no getting out of that. These are their own figures. If there is any lie about it, they are the liars themselves.

A Total Loss of 375,519 Members in One Year.

In the year 1898 the total number of probationers and members was 2,863,685.

During the year 1899 there were added as probationers, 257,563.

That made a total of 3,151,576, the total as it ought to have been in 1899.

What, however, was the fact? The figures show that it was only 2,876,057, which shows that there was a total loss, in that year, of 275,519 members.
Instead of 1,500,000 conversions taking place, there was a loss in some years.

Massacre of the Innocents.

Let me now put the story of the four years in this way.

1899  Total Members and Probationers ................. 2,876,057
1900  Total Members and Probationers ................. 2,929,674
1901  Total Members and Probationers ................. 2,952,314
1902  Figures not complete (say) 3,000,000

Now, if these probationers and converts had been really converted and retained to the number of 2,000,000, there would have been 4,876,000 now in fellowship.

Therefore, there would be a LOSS OF ABOUT 1,876,057, and NO GAIN WHATSOEVER DURING THESE FOUR YEARS.

The nominal gain claimed is only about 1,240,000 in four years, in their official minutes—not 2,000,000.

It does not exceed one per cent.—one per cent, per annum! That proves that if these probationers were really taken into the Methodist Episcopal church, they were spiritually murdered every year; because they were not found at the end of the year.

Why should this man have imposed upon the entire community this falsehood?

Wholesale Reproduction of the Lie.

I may say that this article of the Northwestern Christian Advocate has been reproduced in all parts of the United States to contradict my statement that the Methodist Episcopal church has been fading away.

It seems to have been done on purpose.

Within a day or two of the publication of this paper articles appeared all over the United States, boasting that the Methodists had grown in this marvelous manner. The secular press, all over the United States had it.

I read it in Michigan, and I have it upon my exchanges and files from every state in the Union.

Every Masonic paper printed it at great length.

It was intended, as an answer to me in stating that this denomination was dwindling.

I admit that 1,104,739 probationers, and no more, were added—at least that they said they were added—but I submit that their own figures show that they were lost.

That is a serious charge.

The Significance of This Awful Exposure.

I desire to make a few comments upon it.

What does this thing mean?

Glory not, and lie not against the truth.

What did John Wesley say concerning the Methodist society?

He said that society had gone to the Devil largely.

I have Volume VII. of Wesley's Works in my hand, and I will read to you from "Thoughts Upon Methodist," pages 316-317, which bears the date, August 4, 1786, within five years of Mr. Wesley's death, after the Methodist society had been in existence more than fifty years.

What does he say?

He says what you can say about it, today, that the Methodist society has become "dung and dross" to a large extent.

John Wesley's Appreciation for Methodism.

After giving a sketch of Methodism, after showing how Methodism had been consecrated and earnestly seeking for holiness of life—they had grown, he says:

I am not afraid that the people called Methodists should ever cease to exist either in Europe or in America, but I am afraid lest they should ever cease as a dead sect, having the form of religion without the power.

That is where they are now.

They have not the power, and they lie about it.

They glory in a lie, and lie against the truth.

They boast that they have the converts that they never had, or else they murdered them.

Then he says this will undoubtedly be the case unless they hold fast to the doctrines, spirit and discipline with which they first started out.

Will any man in the Methodist church tell me that they hold either the doctrine, or the spirit, or the discipline of the original Methodist society?

None who know the facts.

Lack of Piety in Methodist Trustees Today.

Today, in Methodist churches, large numbers of the boards of management do not even pretend to be Christians. They are not even supposed to be Christians.

In the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church which was burned down lately, a gentleman eminent in commerce, and a very fair-minded and public-spirited gentleman, no doubt, as business men go, who did not even pretend to be a converted man, went into the pulpit of that church, and pleaded against the laws of God and man, and the solemn covenant of the World's Fair Co., that the World's Fair should be opened on the Lord's Day.

The Methodist Episcopal churches in this city have not even a semblance of piety in their trustees in scores of cases. They are not chosen for that.

John Wesley's Definition of the Essentials of Methodism.

This is John Wesley's own writing, remember:

Any man of understanding may easily discern that true Methodism is only plain, simple religion, guarded by a few simple regulations. The essence of it is holiness of heart and life; the circumstantial s all point to this, and as long as they are joined together in the people called Methodists, no weapon formed against them shall prosper; but if even the circumstantial parts be despised the essential will soon be lost; and if the essential parts should evaporate what remains would be Dung and Dross.

• John Wesley's Prediction of Methodist Apostasy.

The essential parts have evaporated, and what remains is, for the most part, dung and dross.

John Wesley went on to say that among the Methodists, even then, riches were increasing and the mind of the Christ was decreasing.

He said that pride, anger, and love of the world in all its branches was beginning to raise its head.

He said that the church would grow but that the spirit was already vanishing away.

Within six years of his own death he made those statements.

In closing, he asked the question:

Is there any way to prevent this continual declension of pure religion among the Methodists? We ought not to forbid people to be diligent and frugal. We must exhort all Christians to gain all they can, and to save all they can, that is, in fact, to grow rich. What way then, I ask again, can we take that our money will not sink us to the nethermost hell? There is only one way, and there is no other under heaven. If those who gain all they can and save all they can, will likewise give all they can, then the more they gain the more they will grow in grace, and the more treasure will they lay up in heaven.

The Methodists' Twenty Million Dollar Thank-offering Analyzed.

This Twenty Million Dollar Thank-offering alleged to have been brought together in four years—what is it?

They boast that they have three millions of members.

What is twenty million dollars among three million people in four years?

It is less than seven dollars a head for the entire period of four years.

It is only one dollar and seventy-five cents a year for each member.

That is the entire Twenty Million Dollar Thank-offering Fund.

Think of it, it is less than half a dollar every three months!

It is a little less than half a cent a day for each member.

That is the great, bright, majestic thing they have done.

They have raised twenty million dollars; half a cent a day from each of their membership for four years.

Just think of it—half a cent a day! And then to boast of it, and call it a Thank-offering to God!

Zion's Continual Thank-offering.

I do not want to boast about our little Zion.

However, our people give one dollar out of every ten as their Tithe to God's Storehouse, and also a thank-offering almost every week that they live.

In coming into Chicago and doing Zion Restoration Host work, my people in Zion City have spent from $750 to $1,000 a week.

With the cost of this place, and other contingencies, we have spent more than a thousand dollars a week in our mission work in Chicago alone.

It is about time that somebody talked some perpendicular English.

My heart is very sore, because

The Methodist Episcopal Church Has Become the Biggest Sham of All the Denominations.

The ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church is honeycombed with Freemasonry. Many of its bishops are high Masons. It is impossible for them to challenge the fact that no man can be a Freemason and honor the Christ within the Masonic lodge. It is against the rules of that order to mention His Name in the lodge. They cannot contradict that statement because we have ex-Masons among us who have taken the degrees up to the thirty-third. They all say that that which we have published is true.

The Masons themselves confess in their manual that the Name of Jesus, the Christ, must be cut out of every passage read from the Scriptures. Masonry is Unchristian and it is Antichristian. There is no place for the Christ in it. There is a place for Hiram Abiff, the son of the widow of Tyre, a purely mythical person. His sham death and resurrection upon the five points of fellowship, by a sham King Solomon, form the basis of the Masonic mystery.

When Solomon raises him by the lion’s paw from the dead he whispers into his ear the omnific word: “Mah-hah-bone!” What a mockery! What a sham! Methodist ministers go through that mockery, leaving Jesus, the Christ, outside.

Purpose of the “Northwestern Christian Advocate’s” Lie.

In order to bolster up an unspiritual and decaying body, this paper sets out to impress upon the people a shameful imposition.

If there were really a million and a half conversions, the converts are not to be found. Is not this a Massacre of the Innocents? Why did they die?

Freemasonry Is Enough to Kill Any Convert.

A church which is Masonic cannot live for God. When a man goes into that kind of thing there is no more place for a vital Christianity.

“What are you doing?” you may ask me.

“Aren’t you going ahead of the Methodists?”

Yes, and we have in Zion many of those who left the Methodist church.

Many Ex-Methodists Now in Zion.

All who used to be Methodists and are now members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, stand! (Many hundreds rose.)

Open your eyes, Mr. Northwestern Christian Advocate. There are hundreds.

Were you once Methodists?

Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Why did you come out? Voices—“We found something better. We found Salvation and Healing and Holy Living.”

General Overseer—You came out because you found that you could not stay in.

All of you who were once Baptists who are now in Zion, stand. (Several hundred rose.)

All who were once Presbyterians, rise; now Congregationalists; now Lutherans; now Roman Catholics. (Hundred rose at each call of the General Overseer.)

All who are now in our fellowship, and used to belong to any of the denominations, stand. (About two-thirds of the audience rose.)

There you are, you see.

Unconverted in the Denominations.

All of you who were in the denominations but were not converted, say aye.

A great many voices—“Aye.”

General Overseer—That answer is an eye-opener.

About one-half of Zion’s members were won from the denominations, and the other half won from the world.

That is about the proportion. I thank God for it.

I tell the Apostate churches today, that while they have been lying against the truth, we have been getting their unconverted people converted.

Thank God for that. (Amen.)

I confess I am angry when I read what even the Methodists’ own statistics prove to be lies.

I believe that when the ten years which are now rolling away, from 1900 to 1910, are over, unless there is a complete repetition before God, an abandonment of secrecy in all its forms, a determination to punish the ungodly who are in the church, and to maintain Christian discipline, the increase of Methodism will be even less than it was in the last decennial period, when it was less than one-half of one per cent.

May God bring His people out of every Apostasy! I do not care what the Apostasy is.

Zion has come, and Zion has been established by God fulfilling the prophecy:

Jehovah hath founded Zion.

Zion’s Answer to the Messengers of the Nation.

To whom is that prophecy spoken? “What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation?”

The nations are asking Great Britain and America for a real religion.

“What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation?”

That the Lord hath founded Methodism?

Audience—“No.”

General Overseer—That the Lord hath founded the Baptist church?

That the Lord hath founded an Episcopalian church?

What is the answer of the prophet?

Voices—“Jehovah hath founded Zion.”

General Overseer—“Jehovah hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge.”

Read the passage in Isaiah 14:31, 32.

Howl, O gate!

Cry, O city!

Thou art melted away, O Philistia, all of thee:

For there cometh a stroke out of the North,

And there is no straggler in his ranks.

What then shall one answer the messengers of the Nation?

That Jehovah hath founded Zion,

And in her shall the afflicted of her people take refuge.

I open wide the gates of Zion today to the afflicted of God’s people in all the Apostasies, to those who are afflicted with this lying, Christian Advocate, so-called.

Get out of these Apostasies!

If you belong to God, come into Zion.

You will be welcome, but when you get in I will make you work, and obey God.

Zion Does Not Countenance Robbing God.

In the Methodist church you can do as you like, but a man cannot stay in Zion City and rob God. There is no work for him in Zion City if he robs God.

He can work somewhere else, but we have no money to pay to a man who is a thief, and who robs God in tithes and offerings.

Our people have prospered just in the proportion that they have paid their tithes to God.

I am going to ask a question.

Every one who has been impoverished or made poor by paying tithes in Zion City, stand.

Let me have a look at you.

I do not see any one.

Every one who has been blessed and increased in every way in Zion by paying tithes, stand. (Nine-tenths of the entire audience rose.)

Did you pay your tithes to God?

Audience—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Are you better off for it?

Audience—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Thank God for that.

I will tell you what I have stated publicly before, and the officers of the Church will confirm it, that not one cent of these tithes has ever been used by myself for a number of years.
I am the largest contributor to the Church funds, and I thank God for that privilege.

The tithes are now enabling us to do a great many things.

Our people can do many things because they spend no money upon doctors, drugs, theaters, liquor, tobacco, secret societies, or any of these abominations.

Therefore, they are so much richer.

Every one who wants to consecrate himself fully to God stand. (Nearly all rose.)

Let me see you Methodists on your feet.

Get converted!

Get out of the “dross and dung,” as John Wesley called it.

Now pray.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus’ Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do what is right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may serve Thee and obey Thee; that I may do right in Thy sight, and to Thee. For Jesus’ sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean that?

Audience—“Yes.”

After the Benediction, those who desired retired, and the Christians who wished to partake of the Lord’s Supper gathered on the ground floor.

The Ordinance was administered by the General Overseer, who read the well-known but always helpful words from the Scripture which he is wont to read at these services, and led in the singing of appropriate hymns.

When all had partaken, the Messenger of God stood before his people, while they awaited with joyful anticipation his “family talk.”

They were not disappointed; for it came with greater spiritual richness, power and blessing than ever.

Communion of the Lord’s Supper.

He said:

What is the watchword for 1903?

Voices—“Till He Come.”

General Overseer—I am so grateful to God for this opportunity at the beginning of the second month, of saying these few words in closing.

Causes for Praise and Thanksgiving.

We have a right to rejoice in the Lord in the close of the first month of the year.

We have had so much darkness around us, but there was no cloud in Zion.

It was all bright within.

I never saw any gloomy faces.

I know that we trusted God in the darkest day.

There never was a real danger at any time, although it looked so much and indeed a little more than the substance which cast the shadow.

It may be only papa’s hand making shadows on the wall, and the children wonder and almost cry.

Sometimes God permits these fantastic shadows to be upon the wall.

The Devil is a great one for casting shadows.

There was not a shadow in my heart at any time.

I know that we trusted God in the darkest day.

It was all bright within.

I never saw any gloomy faces.

I know that we trusted God in the darkest day.

There never was a real danger at any time, although it looked so much and indeed a little more than the substance which cast the shadow.

It may be only papa’s hand making shadows on the wall, and the children wonder and almost cry.

Sometimes God permits these fantastic shadows to be upon the wall.

The Devil is a great one for casting shadows.

There was not a shadow in my heart at any time.

Jehovah has established Zion.

We were strong in every way.

We were sound and strong ecclesiastically, educationally and commercially.

We were standing on the Christ, the Solid Rock.

There is no sinking sand beneath our feet.

We know what we have believed, and we are persuaded that He is able to keep that which we have committed unto Him against that Day.

The shadows passed away and Zion came out stronger than ever, rallied around her leader, and made my heart very happy by the devotion and love which never for a moment was broken in upon.

Great Blessings Follow Strong Words.

God is continuing to bless us in all our spiritual work.

I have asked God to especially show me a token for good ear the closed.

It was wonderful how the Lord answered, especially after I spoke in the early morning meeting upon the 28th day of December, the last Lord’s Day in the old year.

I said some very strong things, but they were needed.

No one saw that more plainly than those to whom they were especially addressed.

In the most loving and submissive and yet at the same time manly and Christ-like way, apologies were made for resisting the policy of “no borrow” from the world.

We had many temptations during that month.

More than half a million dollars were offered me in one week, and I said: “No. Zion is neither a beggar nor a bor rower. Zion can go through without it.”

What has God wrought for us?

During December and January, $782,000 have been sub scribed for Zion Stocks, thank God.

Voices—“Hallelujah!”

General Overseer—We ought to be very happy, because I believe that, before this month of February has passed, the Million Dollars which I asked for to strengthen our reserves, and to give increased capital to our enterprises, will be given.

I have no doubt of it.

In fact, it is in sight now.

We have only $220,000 to get in one month.

I am so thankful for this.

It has been an object-lesson to the world and to ourselves.

Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association.

In March next I am to call for half a million dollars for our new Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, for we are going to build our own houses this year.

There will be no contracting in Zion.

I desire to say right here, that if I find any man in Zion trying to get over the agreement which we all made two months ago, that there should be no contracting and jobs in ways that are real contracting, I will deal with him sharply.

I tell you frankly that I will grip you very hard, if you break that policy of Zion.

If you endeavor to throw us back into the sea of ungodly competition, you will hear about it.

Any one who attempts to lead Zion back into that quagmire where Starrett lost his life, will hear about it.

I tell you that I will have none of it, and I believe that you are all with me in that.

May God grant that you shall stand fast with me. (Amen.)

Zion is well able to attend to this matter.

If some of you have some little side games of your own, you will not be able to work for Zion.

You will work yourself out of Zion, because we will carry out the policy of Zion building Zion.

I want, if it is possible to have None But Christian Men Work in Zion City This Year.

Ask God to bring the Christian workmen to Zion from all the lands. (Amen.)

Of course, we may be compelled to bring in strangers to build our walls which is probable in connection with our steel construction of the new Shiloh Tabernacle, because it requires vast capital to roll the steel and that kind of thing.

However, we want as far as possible that every one who works in Zion shall be a Christian.

I want the new Shiloh Tabernacle to be built by the hands of godly, consecrated men.

The New Shiloh Tabernacle.

It will be a wonderful tabernacle.

It will be higher in the roof than this.

It will be far larger than this building.

This one has only 4,200 seats in front of me.

It is the standing room and the platform which makes the capacity here.

We need the capacity of the new Shiloh Tabernacle, which will be 16,000 persons. I do not think it will be too large, do you?

Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—All who think it will be too large, say Yes.

I do not hear any one speak.

We know from what we see in Zion City that in two years it will be too small.
He is spreading infidelity by his trashy talk about Divine Healing.

We will take down witnesses in thousands, and they will stand there and say: "The Lord healed us."

If he wants their testimony, and will pay for it, I will give him a thousand persons to go before notaries public and make their affidavits that they were healed.

That would keep many notaries very busy in New York.

We intend to have a great time.

God will bless that great city.

He will make the passing of our numerous trains through the land like a track of light.

Then it will be glorious; for Zion is a Witnessing People.

Do not get off the road now.

If you step off the path the Devil will get a lick at you, and that will be the end of you for service in this life.

The meeting was closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again," after which the General Overseer pronounced the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.

The grace of our Lord Jesus the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere.

Amen.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of Leaves of Healing or The Zion Banner we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that Leaves of Healing now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as Leaves of Healing had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remembering promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie and address all letters intended for us to Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Zion City Transportation Bureau of Zion City, Illinois, operates the most beautiful and comfortable railroads and express companies in the world.

Direction as to railroad and steamship routes given upon request.

DEACON JAMES F. PETERS,
Superintendent of Zion Transportation.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

ON to New York in October! is inscribed on the Banner of Zion Restoration Host.

The announcement of the General Overseer's plan to descend upon New York, thousands strong, in the autumn, and capture the city for the Christ, was received with acclaim and rejoicing by the great audience which had faced the rigors of a blinding snow-storm, to meet in the early dawn of Lord's Day morning, January 11th, in Shiloh Tabernacle, to hear the Message so precious to them, and always awaiting them, of their beloved leader and teacher.

With eight months yet ahead in which to plan and pray and save, there is no doubt but that an immense concourse of Zion Restoration Host workers will accompany the General Overseer in the autumn.

That the world may believe that the Christ was sent of God! The projected trip is not a pleasure jaunt, although the General Overseer is planning for pleasures, pure and God-given.

In the Bowery, along the levee, among the thousands of saloons, in the homes of the rich and of the poor, in the lanes and alleys and stately boulevards and thronging streets of this first city of the land, the Message must be carried, by word of mouth and through the distribution of literally tons of Zion Literature.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, January 11, 1902.

Service opened by singing Hymn No. 72:

On that bright and golden morning, when the Son of Man shall come, And the radiance of His glory we shall see; When from every clime and nation He shall call His people home, What a gathering of the ransomed that will be!

CHORUS.

What a gathering, what a gathering, What a gathering of the ransomed in the summer land of love; What a gathering, what a gathering, Of the ransomed in that happy home above.

The General Overseer then read the 13th and 14th verses of the 17th chapter of St. John.

The Lord's Day Morning, January 1003.

How can you expect the world which lieth in the wicked one to love you? The world does not love to be reproved or rebuked, and neither does the Church when it has the world in it. It is sensitive. A great many Christians have a great deal of Devil in them. If you are not under authority then you will begin to be above all authority.

Diotrephes Has Many Spiritual Descendants.

There are many numbers of professing Christians today who would not obey Jesus, the Christ, if He were here in person. They would tell the Apostle Paul to mind his own business. They would be like Diotrephes "who loveth to have the preeminence among them, and receiveth us not."

That miserable little Diotrephes actually stuck up his diabolical little piece of pride, and would not receive the Apostle John, the apostle whom Jesus loved, who leaned upon His bosom at the Supper! Diotrephes would not receive the apostle who, spiritually, was the most majestic of all the apostles.

John told Diotrephes that he would have what the French call "a bad quarter of an hour."

He said in his third epistle, "Therefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and, not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that he for- biddeth, and casteth them out of the Church."

He had a bad name: for Diotrephes meant "nourished by Zeus;" and he seemed to be fed by that Chief of the Devils on wretched words: and, not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that would be for- biddeth, and casteth them out of the Church."

He was the most majestic of all the apostles. Some of you are like Diotrephes.

Nothing can be done with you until you get a bad quarter of an hour, and until the Devil is in you is cast out.

You think too much of yourselves. You imagine you are something when you are nothing. You might be something, if you imagined that you were nothing.

If you have actually reached the point where you realize that in yourselves you are nothing, that power belongs to God, and that you have no power, you would be of some use.

The moment that realization comes, God can prepare us for usefulness; but the spirit of a Diotrephes is one that cannot be tolerated for a moment in Zion.

Exaggeration of the Work of the Past.

There are some people who have caught a few fish, who tell these fish stories over and over, until a fish of nine inches becomes nine feet.

A dozen or two fishes that they have caught have become a vast assemblage, and you would think that they had done a prodigious work.

If they would not talk about the little work they have done, and would continue to believe it was a pitiful thing, God could use them.

I stand in doubt of people who are continually magnifying what they have wrought.

They did not do anything good, if anything good was done. God did it.

I can say without any mock humility, with a reality that is deeper than any I can give expression to in words, that I have a very clear consciousness that I have not done anything at all.

God has done something through me, by me and with me, but I have done nothing.

He has done a good deal through me, but when I look back I think, how much more God might have wrought through me had I been wiser; and I mourn over opportunities lost, or imperfectly used, that can never return.

I longed for leading by some one having Divine Authority. Many times I have said to my wife: "If the Apostle Paul were living, or any of the apostles of our Lord who had been ordained by Him, I would just close down on everything and go straight to that apostle and say, "now put me to work in a proper, apostolic way. Tell me what to do, and I will do it."

I have longed for Divine Authority to undertake the direction of my life; and I have received that direction more and more clearly as the years rolled on.

I know now, with the centurion, that "I am a man under Authority," and I delight to obey, and to tell others to "Go! Come! Do this!" having received my Commission from the Highest Authority in all the Universe.

Spirit of Obedience a Mighty Unifying Power.

I thank God that in Zion the Spirit of Obedience is manifested to a wonderful extent. That is the Power of God in Zion today.

The one thing which is making this people a mighty power is the Spirit of Obedience, for they will move like a mighty army.

They will move as a unit. They will move in a way that will astonish the world. I have been thinking a great deal this morning about this unity of which we so often sing here:

Like a Mighty Army moves the Church of God.

We want Zion Restoration Host to be a reality, which moves with the precision of an army, and with an effectiveness which no ecclesiastical or secular army ever possessed.

Every man must take his station and do his work, and, if it is needful, he must die.

I do not want anybody to be killed whilst the Legion of Zion Restoration Host is operating in New York, next October, but if any body were killed, we should never forget it.

We would call that one the first Glorified Witness in New York.

But now I come to Thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them Thy Word, and the world hated them.

The World May First Hate; but It Will Learn to Love.

The world does hate at first, but it learns to love God's people and goes after them. See how the Christ is followed now.

Millions go over every step of His journey with love and veneration.

Many would hear His cross, like Simeon, if they could.

Many would give their lives for Him.

I pray not that Thou shouldst take them from the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from the Evil One.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them in the Truth: Thy Word is Truth.

And for their sakes I sanctify (marginal reading is consecrate) Myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in Truth.

I like the marginal reading as applied to the Christ "I consecrate Myself."

The Christ Was Sanctified.

He was holy from His birth to the grave.

He did not need sanctification, but, as a Sanctified Being, He continually reconsecrated Himself to the work of God, His Father.

He remained holy, and the Prince of this World came at the end, and found nothing of an evil nature in the Christ.

Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on Me through their word.

Salvation, Obedience, Consecration, Unity.

The whole strength of the Church under God, is first Salvation, then Obedience, then full Consecration and then Unity.

Elder Lee you must not allow any person to go to New York who is not fully consecrated to God's work.

If any think that they are going down to New York on a pleasure trip of a worldly sort they are mistaken.

Let there be Wisdom at all times as well as Love in all our work, and let us be patient and considerate, never forgetting even when we are most deeply injured that the people are deceived by their false and cruel leaders, and are acting in ignorance. Thus the Christ Himself was crucified: for Peter, referring to the Lord's crucifixion at Pentecost, said, "I wot that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers."

Let us be united to destroy Ignorance.

It is the parent of countless crimes, and it is the product of psychological scribblers in Grecian times, as it was in the days when Jesus lived on earth in the flesh.

Let there be Unity.

"That the World May Believe."

As the work of perfecting progresses, then increasingly will the world believe that God sent Jesus.

In them, and Thou in Me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that Thou sentest Me.

The world will say, "God does love you!"

If they see this Unity, and see that you love God, that you love each other, that you love your leader, and the people, they will not get away from that.

Father, that which Thou hast given Me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with Me: that they may behold My glory, which Thou hast given Me: for Thou lovedst Me before the foundation of the world.

O righteous Father, the world knew Thee not, but I knew Thee; and these knew that Thou sentest Me,
The Christ not only with us, but the Christ in us.

If a man love Me, he will keep My Word: and My Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are willing to make Their Divine abode within us.

When that Divine abode is within us it leads to a very deep and intimate relationship with the Godhead. We turn from the outer to the inner life, and find no pleasure in association with him — in fact it is difficult for me to think that he can be a Christian at all.

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. It is written: "Belief comes of hearing, and hearing by the word of the Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the purpose of teaching the whole counsel of God, in order that men may come to the knowledge of the truth, and salvation which are apart of the Work of the Holy Ghost. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is by grace, not by works, and therefore you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will-offerings of the people. Angel's attend these meetings, and help the sick, but the poor, who have no money, to give, are as welcome as the rich one.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes: after we have felt satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord before the healing can take place. We can then proceed with the laying on of the hands, which is a very solemn and sacred part of the Work. We do not accept any person to the Work of Healing without their consent, and after they have had a time to rest in the Lord. They are then told how much they expect to be healed.

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes: there is a small book on Divine Healing, which is only a half dollar. The Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly, is the best book on Divine Healing.

"The Healing of Christ's stainless dress is as in all hands of men."

We touch Him in life's throng and press.

And we are whole.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

The darkness is passing away, and the True Light already shineth.—1 John 2:8.

JOHN, the Beloved Apostle, wrote these words many centuries ago.

The True Light had come to the Church, and many wonderful things had been done by the Christ and by the Apostles.

The Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing, and Holy Living was practiced, and multitudes were won to God and shown how to trust Him for His blessings in spirit, soul, and body.

Many centuries have passed away. Once more, in the Times of the Restitution of All Things, which have now begun, we can say with the Apostle, the words quoted above.

The light of the Full Gospel is beginning to shine upon the Church of the Living God.

God has sent another with Divine Authority, and has given him the Mission of Restoration.

In the light of the teaching of Elijah the Restorer, how terrible seem the apostasies of the so-called churches throughout the past centuries!

How beautiful the Gospel which is being proclaimed in Zion!

Gradually the Church throughout the world is being made to realize the power of the Everlasting Covenants.

God is working through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Once more a true and Apostolic Church is being established, and the signs are following those who believe.

The testimonies ring with no uncertain sound concerning the Love, Mercy, and Power of God.

Multitudes of God's people are beginning to understand and to receive the Full Salvation which He has provided—the Salvation for spirit, soul, and body.

A Dying Child Healed in Answer to Elijah's Prayer.

827 Main Street.
DENISON, IOWA, Jan. 6, 1903.

BELIEVED GENERAL OVERSEER:—I desire to thank you with all my heart for your prayers for little Louis Strohm, aged two years and seven months.

On October 22, 1902, he was dying with fever and spasms. I hurried to the telephone office to send you a request for prayer, at 12 o'clock, p. m.

Praise God, He answered your prayer at once, for when I returned home I found him better.

At 1:30 he asked for some milk, and then he slept for two hours.

On waking up he wanted milk and crackers, and we noticed a great improvement in him.

At 10 o'clock that night the physician, who has done him more harm than good, called to see how he was.

As soon as the child saw him coming in, he hid himself under the covers, calling out as loudly as he could:—"Go home, go home, I am all right." The next morning I found him sitting in the chair with his playthings.

Ever since then he delights in telling that Jesus healed him.

He is a bright, good child.

We ask you to pray God to keep him by His power, that he may grow up to His glory.

We thank God for Blatter der Heilung, for it is a great blessing to us.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) SUSANNA ZOBAYTO.

Healed of Cataract.

107 Ashmore Street.

DEACON LAKE, SOUTH DAKOTA.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I thank God that he healed me of cataract.

My throat and nose are entirely well.

The other day I took a cold in my head.

I prayed in the Name of God for healing, and I received it.

I went to sleep, and when I awoke in the morning I was well, for which I thank God.

Praying that my testimony will do some good, and thanking you for your prayers for us and our home, I am,
Your brother in the Christ,
NAT SPROUL.

Healed of Severe Affliction.

107 Ashmore Street.

DEACON LAKE, NORTH DAKOTA.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I had a very sore throat.

My mouth was swollen and my tongue was coated white.

My throat closed, and there were white spots on my tonsils.

We thought it was diphtheria.

We asked God in the Name of Jesus to heal me, and He did.

I praise Him for all His blessings to me.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) NAT SPROUL.

A Little Girl Nine Years Old, Tells of God's Healing Power.

West Toledo, Ohio, January 26, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am a little girl only nine years old.

God has healed me of a very bad cough, and I want to tell you about it.

I have had a cough just like the whooping-cough ever since I can remember.

Mamma says I was born with it.

I would cough until I would cry with pains in my stomach, and then I would choke and vomit.

Mamma called the doctors, and they said that I would have to use remedies.

Last fall my cough came again.

Mamma prayed for me, and it went away for a while, but it came back again.

Then Deacon Neiswander laid hands on me and asked God to take the cough away.

In about fifteen minutes I was asleep.

I have never had any cough since.

I love God for taking it away.

BESSIE MARIE VAN ANTWERT.

Mother Healed of Internal Ulcers, Confirms Daughter's Testimony.

West Toledo, Ohio, January 26, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—One week ago last Friday evening, I was healed of internal ulcers.

For about two months I suffered terribly.

One day the pains were so intense that I thought I would have to use remedies.

Then I fell on my knees and asked God to keep me from using means and help me to trust Him fully.

My prayer was answered.

Soon after that I was healed.

In regard to the cough, which my daughter Bessie had, I can say that I never heard a child cough harder with whooping-cough.

I used to wonder why God put such affection upon an innocent child.

I thank God that I have learned that it is not His work, but the work of the Devil.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) W. K. VAN ANTWERT.

God Graciously Heals a Little One of Measles and Dysentery.

Kenosha, Wisconsin, January 26, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—We want to thank you for the interest which you took in our little Dorcas when she was so sick.

She was taken with measles and dysentery together.

The measles came out nicely, and at the end of four days disappeared, but the dysentery grew worse.

She became so weak that she could not raise her head from the pillow.

We prayed, but did not seem to have power with God.

We knew the wrong must be in us, and asked Him to show us ourselves, and make us willing to right all wrongs.

We then sent a telegram to you for prayer, and that night she was a little better.

The next day she seemed worse.

Two days later we telegraphed for Deacon Lake to come up.

He prayed for her when he came, but she seemed no better, and had a bad night.

He prayed again just before he left in the morning.

Before he reached Zion City we felt that she had received her healing.

It was quite a while before she was real well and strong again.

I fear that our weak faith delayed her perfect healing.

We are so thankful that we are in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and have learned to know as a Healer and Keeper as well as Savior.

It is so restful, after having made all things right, to leave the responsibility with the Lord, and to know that He will do the rest.

Yours in the Christ,
JESSIE A. PETRIE.

Sprained Ankle Almost Instantly Healed.

Gideon Avenue and Twenty-ninth Street.

DENISON, IOWA.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I thank God for hearing and answering prayer.

Last Tuesday Elder Cossum and Dietrich prayed for my ankle which I had sprained.

In ten minutes I rose and walked, for which I thank God.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) MARGARET GALLAUGHER.

ARE YOU THINKING OF TAKING UP A COURSE OF READING?

THE ELEVEN Bound Volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING are a History of the most important events of the last years of the Nineteenth Century and the first of the Twentieth. They contain the best thoughts about Art, Music, Literature, and Science; they tell of things far more strange and interesting than fiction, and all these are in inspired Bible Commentary and the safest and best works exist on Theology.

The Most Blessed Opportunity of these latter days was to live in Zion Headquarters from the beginning until now. Comparatively few had that opportunity. The next best opportunity is that of reading these Eleven Volumes that is within the reach of almost every one. No member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion can afford to miss that opportunity.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS TO LEAVES OF HEALING
GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED BY THE POWER OF GOD, WHEN DYING, AFTER MANY YEARS’ SUFFERING.

IN VAIN SHALT THOU USE MANY MEDICINES.

This is God’s Word about drugs. It shows what He thinks about them. God witnesses against drugs and drug dispensers and users in many other parts of His Word.

In one place we find the words: “Ye are forgers of lies; ye are all physicians of no value.” We are told that when Asa, King of Judah, was sick, he “sought not to Jehovah, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers.”

We are told concerning a woman, whom the Christ healed, that she “had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.”

Although the Christ healed multitudes, it is not recorded that He ever used a drug or remedy of any kind.

Although multitudes were healed in the Name of Jesus by the laying-on of hands and prayer of the early apostles, there is nothing to show that any one of the apostles ever used or permitted to be used any drug or other remedy. But God speaks most strongly and unmistakably against doctors and drugs in the last Book of the Old Testament, and in the last Book of the New. Speaking through His prophet Malachi of the work of the Messenger of His Covenant, He says: “And I will be a Swift Witness against the sorcerers.” The Hebrew word there translated sorcerers is Kashaph, the literal meaning of which is makers and venders of deadly poisons. This sorcery was the beginning of that which is today called medical science. Such sorcery has been one of the chief accessories of every heathen religion from time immemorial, and is so today.

In the Revelation which Jesus, the Christ, gave to His servant John, we read: “But for the ... sorcerers, ... their part shall be in the Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimstone; which is the Second Death.” We also read, in the 15th verse of the 22d chapter, “without are the sorcerers.”

In both these cases the word translated sorcerers is pharmakei (Greek, φάρμακα). This word also means the makers and venders of deadly poisons. The modern English word pharmacist is derived directly from it.

The physicians, surgeons and druggists of today are direct lineal descendants of the priestly sorcerers, against whom God said that He would be a Swift Witness, and of whom He said, “Their part shall be in the Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimstone.”

This is a simple historical fact, admitted by all who know the history of medicine.

They are the first cousins of the priestly sorcerers of modern savage and semi-civilized nations.

The so-called science of medicine as it is practiced today, is a gradual, slow development from ancient sorcery.

It is the adaptation of the weird incantations and absurd concep-
LEAVES OF HEALING.

During that time she also "suffered many things of many physicians, . . . and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

At last, she was dying.

The death-dew was upon her brow.

The icy fingers of death were slowly closing upon her heart.

She had bidden her heart-broken husband farewell, and kissed her little ones. Then her children prayed for her.

Their Faith was simple, unwavering, complete—the Faith of little children.

That is the Faith which is Victory.

God answered that Prayer, just as the little ones had asked Him.

He saved their mother from death.

But she still suffered from her diseases.

Then the Little White Dove, LEAVES OF HEALING, came into her hands.

It brought her the Message of God against the sorcerer, and taught her that He Himself was the Healer.

When she put away the false god, medical science, so-called, and trusted God, her Heavenly Father, alone, seeking healing in the Name of Jesus, the Christ, His Son, and in the Power of His Holy Spirit, God honored her faith.

He fulfilled His Precious Promises.

The diseases which had made her life a misery for so many years were healed.

No truth is of private interpretation.

God is no respecter of persons.

The Truth which set this Witness free from the terrible, killing bondage of disease and sorcery, is a Universal Truth.

The glorious and blessed freedom which the Christ gives through the Truth is for every man, woman and child in every place, under whatever circumstances, who will meet the conditions.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. J. O. LEMACH.

WHITCOM, WASHINGTON, August 1, 1902.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—With a heart full of thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for his goodness and mercy to me, I write my testimony, trusting God it may be a blessing to some sick and weary heart. I praise God for Salvation, Healing and Keeping Power, through faith in Jesus.

In 1892 I was taken sick.

I did not know God's Way of Healing or His Salvation, although I was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Whatcom.

We called Dr. Lawrence to attend me.

He treated me for all kinds of female trouble, but I still suffered in agony and dying, and the modern sorcerers only add to their miseries.

The facts bear them out.

There is no such thing in all the world or in any country.

Hence, God's Swift Witness against the sorcerer applies to the physicians, surgeons and pharmacists today.

Why did God so emphatically and so tersely condemn the ancient sorcerers?

Why does He witness through the Messenger of His Covenant against the modern sorcerers?

First, because Sorcery, both ancient and modern, sets up a false god in place of Him who said, "I am Jehovah that heal thee."

Second, because Sorcery tortures, robs and murders its victims.

There is not one gleam of light in all the darkness of that system.

Drugs do not, cannot, heal.

The most eminent, learned and honest of the physicians of today declare that medicine is not a science, and that humanity would be better off if no medicine was ever administered.

The facts bear them out.

Humanity is moaning, groaning, shrieking in agony and dying, and the modern sorcerers only add to their miseries.

The ancient sorcerers, who were heathen priests, presented humanity with myriads of gods to be worshiped and appeased.

Being unable to choose from the confusion the One True God, the poor heathen took no chances, but religiously worshipped and sacrificed to them all.

Likewise, the sick man in the world today, unable to choose the best amidst all the jangle of disagreeing physicians, surgeons, patent medicine advertisers and others of the medical hierarchy, cheerfully takes all the treatments, swallows all the poisons, and pays his money to the different physicians, either one after the other, a few at a time, or all together.

Such superstition and credulity are hardly to be equaled in any age of the world or in any country.

The Command to Disciples.

1. What are you to do—Go.—Matthew 28:19, 20.
   We are to go to all nations.
   We are to go to people.
   We are to go to their homes.

   We have neglected to do this.
   We have avoided doing God’s service.
   The work requires haste.

   We must work while the day lasts.
   We must work with all our soul.

   We will do what others ought to do.
   We will find hearts without concern.
   Men whose consciences are seared.

A person with spiritual perception, natural simplicity and earnestness of presentation can make Zion’s Bible Class Lesson to be as instructive and profitable to that person as to any person who is now studying them, as well as the tens of thousands who will yet be moulded and stimulated in their relation to the everyday affairs of life through Holy Living and fruitful service, by this method of presenting Bible truths.

SUBJECTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION’S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

A reference encyclopedia of Bible truth can be had by those who will make the proper use of Zion’s Bible Class Lesson which appears in the Bible Class column. They open up wonderful resources of preparation for Zion’s Seventh and those connecting Cottage Prayer Meetings or Zion Gatherings. The key to Volume VI, Number 27, and now number about 600 lessons. They extend over a wide range of Bible topics and subjects of practical use. Distinct teachings are scattered among the full text of Bible truth concerning God, man, sin, redemption, the Christian, a holy people, the church, Christian work, the world, the age beyond and final events. These lessons can be clipped out of the paper and pasted as a book and indexed under the doctrines, subjects, topics and words of which they treat. This will be a book of ready reference and can be added to regularly. The subjects, with the varied methods of treatment as they appear in comprehensive outline with citations of Scripture from every book of the Bible, together with practical questions or remarks thereon, may be added to by explanations and observations and illustrations which will enliven every one who diligently studies and diligently uses them to rightly divide the word of truth, and thus in an increasing measure become thoroughly imbued unto every good work.

Recommended how to study or teach a Zion Bible Class Lesson should not prove to be a difficulty to any one. It is the intention to cover simply the vital truths and important doctrines of the Bible, presenting a phase of some subject in each lesson from a given point of view, with selections of Scripture which have a plain and positive meaning, viewed from a broad light of Bible research. No commentaries are to be used, for in most parts nothing is used but the traditions of the elders, which make rich the Word of God. They, like many of the translations of the Bible, give a dark meaning to God’s truth. They set forth lack of faith and show the standard of spiritual conception at the day and time in which the work was done.

The safe rule for all is to read the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit, comparing Scripture with Scripture. Let the communion Scriptural texts be one given subject, with the true meaning of the words involved, determine the points of view from which the subject must be approached.

For instance, take Zion Bible Class Lesson in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VII, Number 27—"If any word out of them!"—To illustrate the point of God’s truth, consider closely this lesson; for personal comprehensive study must, of course, precede the presentation of such a subject by a leader at a Zion Gathering. The first question brings out the fact that if a new word would get into an old Church with a lack of clerical truth, it would be a Church divided in the power of the first love where “Christ is All and in All” and is trusted for everything.

The next question brings out the fact that people are slow in accepting new truth. So used are they to an old textbook falsehood, lined with wall of creeds and denominational teachings, that they cannot see that the truth is the truth, and ever continue to show things to come as God’s plan unfold step by step throughout the ages.

This same treatment is applied in the next question and thus our subject, which is founded on that glorious prophecy in Jeremiah 3:14, 15. The analyst underlines the Scripture subdivisions of the lesson in question form, they can be turned into statement form and be verified, not only by the text cited or other biblical evidences, but also by one’s own spiritual experience, all of which should be brought to bear on a lesson with such illustrative examples everywhere as true to the case of the subject at hand. A person with spiritual perception, natural simplicity and earnestness of presentation can make Zion’s Bible Class Lesson to be as instructive and profitable to that person as to any person who is now studying them, as well as the tens of thousands who will yet be moulded and stimulated in their relation to the everyday affairs of life through Holy Living and fruitful service, by this method of presenting Bible truths.

Subscribe, Read This!

On every subscriber’s copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of pages which we put into each volume.

Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

JEHOVAH SHALL REIGN FOREVER, THY GOD, O ZION, UNTO ALL GENERATIONS.

The week now closing has been one of much blessing in all Departments of the Work.

Many rearrangements in organization have been made, which have been rendered necessary by our rapid expansion, and for other good reasons.

We ever rejoice, above all other joys, in the continuous blessing which God vouchsafes to Zion in the work of Salvation.

If the Story of Zion could be written from week to week from that point of view alone, it would be a marvelous record of the loving kindness of our God in blessing the ministry of His people throughout Zion's world-wide work.

THE EDUCATIONAL WORK OF ZION has been making rapid progress.

Over 1,100 pupils in Zion City are receiving daily instruction in three large Zion Junior Schools and in Zion College.

Our friends will remember, that, God willing, we shall begin on Saturday, February 28th, to tell the Story of Zion in a series of Illustrated Additions to this paper of probably nearly thirty-two pages each week, without extra charge to subscribers.

Arrangements are now being made for this important work. Subscriptions should be sent in immediately.

We are rejoicing in the Blessings which God has been giving during this past week to the Legal and Commercial Departments of Zion.

It will be remembered that some time ago many columns of the newspapers were filled, not only in this country but in others, with a series of bitter attacks upon us in connection with what is known as the Sutton Will Case.

After the Will, which was in our favor to the extent of probably $35,000 or more, had been probated in Lake County, in which the City of Zion is situated, it was attacked by lawyers representing persons in New Zealand.

Upon a purely legal point the case was reopened and removed to the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Cook County, in which Chicago is situated.

Our Enemies in the Press all rejoiced at this, believing that the Probate Court of Cook County would decide against us, although there was no evidence in favor of such a conclusion.

Every conceivable falsehood was resorted to, alleging that we and our people had been guilty of some evil actions in connection with the case.

The Administration was removed from the Rev. John G. Speicher, M.D., Overseer in the Christian Catholic Church for Zion City, and handed over to Mr. Neil J. Shannon, an officer of the Chicago Court.

This was heralded by the press as a prelude to our complete defeat.

But the Probate Court of Cook County, Honorable Charles S. Cutting, Judge, has now rendered a Decision fully justifying us by sustaining the Will and the Codicil, and requiring Overseer Speicher again to file Bonds and qualify himself as the Administrator of the Estate.

His Bonds were filed a few days ago for $110,000, and approved by the Court, which directed him to take the necessary steps to become again possessed of the estate which had been willed to us, with the exception of certain provisions made for relatives in the Codicil.

The following letter from Zion's Law Department, signed by Judge V. V. Barnes, our General Counsel, and Judge B. M. Webb, our Solicitor-general, states the case very clearly, and sets forth the Victory which God has given to us.

Our Counsel managed their case before the Court with great ability, and were fully sustained by the learned Probate Judge at all points:

ZION CITY, ILL., U. S. A., February 11, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Administration Building, Zion City, Illinois.

Dear General Overseer:—The Probate Court of Cook County, Hon. Charles S. Cutting, judge, has recently rendered a decision, hereto appended, (see page 521,) fully sustaining the contention of the executor on every legal proposition before said Court in the master of the Frederick Sutton will contest.

The Law Department of Zion desires, in vindication of your position, to briefly contrast the unjust aspersions of the press with the judicial conclusions of the Court as based on legal evidence, though strongly combated at every point by five able counsel of the Chicago bar.

In answer to the false statements of the press, set forth in sensational headlines and paragraphs, that you 'refused to turn over the estate to the custody of the Court,' had 'given up through fear of fine for contempt,' were 'in danger of jail,' had 'made involuntary restoration of such estate to the heirs,' and other like allegations equally untrue, the record shows the following facts:

The property was devised mainly to you, but was, so far as the portion of the estate in this country is concerned, in possession of Dr. Speicher by the terms of the will and the decree of Judge Jones, of the Lake County Court.

Upon the change of jurisdiction to Cook County, and the appointment of Neil J. Shannon as administrator to collect, that portion of the estate in the hands of Dr. Speicher was at once turned over, awaiting the result of the contest of the probate of the will, the hearing of which has been deferred by the length of time needed to give the proper legal notice to the heirs in New Zealand.

Some of the Chicago papers have put not only yourself and Dr. Speicher but also the Court and administration in a false light.

The rulings of the court have been characterized by eminent judicial fairness and the conduct of the administrator by his usual courtesy.

Neither in any way reflected upon the integrity of yourself, the executor, or any other person interested in sustaining the will.

You never resisted the probate of the codicil in favor of the heirs, but, on the contrary, notwithstanding the meager testimony in its support, repeatedly expressed yourself as favoring the payment to the heirs of the full amount named therein, whether sustained in probate or not, and sanctioning statements to that effect in open court by your counsel.

The unfairness of these newspapers in so garbling the reports of the early proceedings in this case as to make even the facts lie, coupled with their silence now that you have been more than vindicated by the judicial decree of Judge Cutting, is painful to all lovers of fair play.

Though apparently otherwise for a time, an evil-doer is, in the long run, in this country, when the recoil comes, a heavy loser by appeals to the passion and prejudice of the people.

May God speed the day when your acts, prompted by love to God and men, shall no longer be misrepresented by the wicked or misconstrued by the ignorant.

Faithfully yours in the Master's service,

V. V. BARNES,
General Counsel.
B. M. WEBB,
Solicitor-general.
Our readers will also find on pages 521 and 522 a report in full of the Decision in our favor by Judge Cutting.

The Unfairness of the Chicago newspapers, who led the people to believe a lie against us in this Case, is very clearly seen by the fact that they have entirely suppressed all mention of the Decision in our favor.

As this case has created a great deal of interest throughout the world, we have given the facts concerning this Decision in full.

During the week God has greatly blessed our Financial Department, and we announce that the subscriptions received for Zion's Stocks since December 1, 1902, now amount to the sum of $928,000.

As our readers are aware, we set before us the task of raising the sum of One Million Dollars before March 1st; and we do not doubt that the sum will easily be reached.

We direct attention to the following letter of our General Financial Manager, reporting the subscriptions and making several remarks thereon:

Office General Financial Manager of All Zion Institutions and Industries,
Zion City, Illinois, February 13, 1903.

Beloved General Overseer,—The Securities and Investment Bureau, of which Deacon Daniel Sloan is Manager, reports subscriptions received since December 1, 1902, to the amount of $928,000.

No person who desires to make a safe and profitable investment can neglect to take advantage of your very liberal offer.

Shares sold on the Stock Exchanges, paying eight per cent. dividend, are considered to be worth $140 per share; while you are offering a gilt-edged security for $100 per share that pays nine per cent. per annum.

A friend has notified us that a gentleman owning a large block of good paying securities has signified his intention of disposing of same and investing the entire amount in Zion shares.

Among the subscriptions received today were a number from foreign lands.

There has been quite a lively demand for shares in the Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, which you are soon to launch, and which I believe will be the most popular of all your Industries, as it will give the working men an opportunity to place their earnings in a good paying investment.

With Christian love, I am as ever,
Faithfully yours in the Christ's service,
Charles J. Barnard,
General Financial Manager.

We shall deliver an address Wednesday evening, February 25th, at our Zion City General Assembly in Shiloh Tabernacle, on

"God's Plan for Zion in Building the City of Zion."

We shall most fully inform our people as to how every employee in Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association will become a Participant in its Profits.

Every shareholder, who is also an employee, will receive his portion of ninety per cent. of the surplus profits, after payment of interest to the stockholders, and the making of all proper appropriations for the safety of the Association.

The Blessing of Jehovah, maketh rich, And He addeth No Sorrow therewith.

Immense Resources are necessary for Zion's Evangelistic work throughout the world; for the Education of Zion's children and for the work of Zion Restoration Host.

These will be acquired in a legitimate way through the industry of Zion in her Industrial, Commercial and Financial Institutions.

We call attention to the important confirmation of our position in our last two issues of this paper in which we exposed the misleading and false statements of the Northwestern Christian Advocate of January 21st, which announced that there had been One Million Five Hundred Thousand (1,500,000), or even Two Millions (2,000,000) of converts in the Methodist Church, during the last four years.

The confirmation comes from a very unexpected source; namely, Dr. James M. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate.
While endeavoring to be as tender as possible with his contemporary, he says:

The announcement of the Northwestern Christian Advocate is most misleading.

It also likens the foolish statements of that paper to "the rapid movements and uncertain destination of voyaging in a balloon."

THE WHOLE SUBJECT is a most painful one, and we are filled with ever-increasing amazement and wonder that a professed Christian man could be guilty of so shameful an attempt at imposition.

THE ENTIRE ARTICLE of Dr. Buckley of the New York
Christian Advocate is published on pages 533 to 534 of this issue.

WE ALSO direct attention to the discourse which we delivered in the Chicago Auditorium last Lord's Day, and to the important paper written by Rev. John Wesley, in London, August 4, 1786, entitled, "Thoughts Upon Methodism," which we have printed in full on page 533.

NEXT LORD'S DAY we shall conclude our Exposure of the Methodist Episcopal Apostasy, in a Message entitled:

"THE EVAPORATION OF THE ESSENTIALS."

We refer in that title to the words of John Wesley:

"If ever the Essential Parts should Evaporate, what remains will be Dung and Dross."

WE SHALL CONTEND that the "Essential Parts" have evaporated from the organization, as such, and that the consequence is that we now see what John Wesley predicted.
We cheerfully admit that there are many faithful Christians in the Methodist Church who cling to the "essentials," but the "organization" is steadily choking them to death.

INSTITUTIONS of this kind, when they have become degenerate, cannot be reformed.

They must be abandoned and destroyed, as organizations, and the best material must be reorganized in better formations.

This is the Teaching of Experience in All the Ages.

WE DIRECT ATTENTION to the fact that next Lord's Day week, February 22d, completes the First Seven Years of the History of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

WHAT HATH GOD WROUGHT?

SO MUCH has been wrought within these Seven Years that it seems almost incredible that this Church was formed with less than five hundred members on February 22, 1896.

But so it is, and all in Zion have much reason to rejoice as we call our friends together to the Celebration of the Seventh Anniversary.

THE USUAL holiday which takes place on February 22d, Washington's Birthday, is postponed until Monday, February 23d.

We shall therefore have a Special Excursion to Zion City on that day.

It will leave Chicago at 9:30 o'clock, a. m., and the Service in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, will take place at 11:30 a. m.
The Excursion train will return, God willing, at about 4 p. m., enabling our friends to reach the City and their homes in daylight.

The return fare is thirty cents; children between five and twelve years of age, fifteen cents; and under five, free.

We trust that many of our friends will be able to spend the Holiday with us in Zion City.

All Officers will please to bring their robes, as the service will be a full one.

WE HAVE MUCH reason to be thankful for the kind treatment thus far accorded to us by the Municipal Authorities of the City of New York, and by the press of that City, in connection with our Mission and that of Zion Restoration Host, in Madison Square Garden in New York from October 18th to November 1st.

THE NEW YORK Herald published in full the communication which they asked us to make to them, and which we printed in our last issue, pages 490 and 491.

They not only did this, but introduced it in a very kind manner with an article almost as long as our own.
All through the Atlantic States, and in the great Cities and smaller towns much publicity has been given to the contemplated Mission.

We have a long period of activity in Zion City to pass through ere we can hold this Mission.

But, notwithstanding the many things in which we are all engaged, the minds of our people, and especially of the Zion
LEAVES OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, Not a Thing.
Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:20)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever;" and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His People.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: and with His stripes we are healed." It is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:9-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more persons; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.
and two subscribing witnesses have sworn to thenecessary evidentiary bate of the will. The first is, that the witnesses are disqualified by reason of Church, an unincorporated and voluntary association. It is contended—supreme court—to show particularly that real estate which comes to a organization—this case there is no realty, the entire amount being personal property, as I fact, they become partners in the benefit usual to the property devised. In a will leaving legacies to the church, or parties in the interest of the church the Gills' will in the 2d Dane Kentucky, otherwise known as the 35th Ken seemed to be in point to me cited in behalf of this contention is the case of fact that they belong to such an organization from testifying as witnesses to who were the sons of the legatee, who died, as I remember reading the case, after the death of the testator—but as is stated in the brief before—tute which provides for the forfeiture of a legacy, in case there is a legacy to the other states of the nation; and I am constrained to hold on this branch of the will as will of itself show that the instrument as will of itself show that the instrument incapacitated from witnessing a will which gives a legacy to some officer of the church, or to some corporation incident to the church organization of which he is a member. In the Kentucky case no one would have contended for a moment that these sons of the legatee, if the legatee had lived until after the proof of the will, would have been incompetent witnesses; it was only after the estate had absolutely vested in them. Our own court has adopted in matters of that kind a different view. Instead of holding that the persons must be qualified at the time of giving testimony, the rule in Illinois is, that they must be qualified at the time of the signing of the will, and I very much doubt if the supreme court of Illinois would have followed the Kentucky case by reason of its own holding on that proposition, it being the doctrine here, if I understand it, that the witnesses must be qualified at the time of giving evidence in support thereof. If that were not so, a testator would never be sure that his will would be probated, because it is impossible for him to foresee what conditions and changes would take place so that the witnesses entirely qualified when signing may become wholly disqualified before the proof of the will in the probate court.

The next objection is made on the ground that under our statute, which provides that the proof may be taken in effect, but the question as to whether any fraud or undue influence was used in obtaining the signature of the testator that the evidence in this case warrants the Court in refusing probate on the ground that there was such fraud and undue influence. Only the subscribing witnesses were examined on that proposition; the subscribing witnesses swore, as is usual in such cases, that there was no fraud or undue influence and no fact or circumstances tending to show fraud or undue influence was developed, excepting the fact, that the deceased was a member of the Christian Catholic Church, that the chief beneficiary, John Alexander Dowie, is the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church; that the executor named in the will is John G. Speicher, who is one of the overseers of the Christian Catholic Church and second only to John Alexander Dowie in the Councils of the Church; that the deceased was receiving treatment such as is prescribed by the Christian Catholic Church for his bodily ailments, and in a sense that the Church through its various assistants occupied toward the deceased both as spiritual and medical adviser—I presume the Church, perhaps, might resent the expression medical adviser—had been caring for him both spiritually and bodily, and it is held and argued with great force, that he having been surrounded by such influences, and having made the Church, in fact, his chief beneficiary, that the law will raise the presumption of undue influence at least to such an extent that formal evidence must be heard in rebuttal and rebut this influence. This court has had much more trouble with the case—undue influence—than the one just disposed of. The doctrine was well established in the 134th Illinois, and I may say in passing, that I believe it is—by the fraud or undue influence of which the probate court may take cognizance, must be such overt act at the time of the execution of the will as will of itself show that the instrument is not the act of the testator.

Other tribunes and other procedure is prescribed for the attacking of a will where all the facts and circumstances surrounding its execution and leading up to its execution may be followed, heard and determined. The 134th Illinois, in which there is the strongest expression of the doctrine contended for in this case, was the case in which the trial judge instructed the jury to find that the will had been duly executed at the close of the contestants' evidence, and the court held that such instruction was wrong because it said that the fact that the decedent was in poor health, was surrounded by those who were the recipients of his bounty, and it was impossible to take the case—undue influence—that the one just disposed of. The doctrine was restrained to such narrow limits as it is in the probate court; so that the case should have gone to the jury, which is a far different thing from saying that there is a presumption arising from somewhat similar facts which should be allowed to prevail in a case like this where the evidence is restrained to such narrow limits as it is in the probate court. If I were sitting as a chancellor and instructing a jury, after fully hearing all the evidence in a case like this

Wonderfully Healed of Heart Trouble.

724 North Beaumont Street,

St. Louis, Missouri, January 27, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Peace to thee. When I became a member of this Church I had been sick about fifteen years with that dreaded disease, heart trouble. Ever since 1898 I had had hay fever. I had used glasses at least eleven years, because my eyes were so weak I could not go without them. Praise the Lord, on the night of September 29, 1902, He graciously heard and answered my prayer. That evening as I was coming home after having done a heavy washing and some scouring, I was congratulating myself that although I had worked so hard and was tired, my heart was not troubling me as it had always done after a hard day's work.

The thought had scarcely passed through my mind when the Devil gave me such pains about my heart that I thought I would not live to get home.

I had only about half a block to go, and when I got home I tried not to give up. I went down-stairs and made a cup of tea, but I could not drink it. I went upstairs to my room feeling that I had only a few minutes to live.

When the lady who roomed with me came up-stairs, I told her that I got very sick to send for my sister, and gave her the address, thinking I would soon be dead.

I lay down on the couch with my head pressed to my heart to still the pain.

I had stopped praying and was thinking in my mind when a voice said, "You are healed."

I sprang upon the floor.

I said: "Yes, God will heal me, and He will heal you also."

A voice seemed to say, "You are healed."

I answered, "No, praise God, I am healed."

I thank God for His wonderful kindness to me and the wonderful healing that has come to me through Zion's prayers and the laying on of hands.

I was instantly healed of chronic constipation of over thirty years' standing.

I had to take a water injection sometimes to the amount of a gallon of water.

I did not get a natural movement of the bowels for the ten previous years without the internal bath.

Many other healings have come to me through Zion's prayers.

I ask God for continued spiritual blessing which I want more than anything else, so that God can use me more and more.

Yours sincerely,

(MRS.) MARY C. THOMAS.

An Instantaneous Healing in Answer to Prayer.

2711 Elm Avenue, Zion City, Illinois, January 28, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—The latter part of August, 1902, I had malarial fever. I had been having three or four chills in a day and night, and at last had chills morbus.

I was so sick that I was not able to do my house-work or attend to my little children.

I sent a request for prayer and received an instantaneous healing, for which I praise the Lord.

I was not sick another day.

I got up the next morning and went about doing my housework, which I had not been able to do since moving to Zion City.

I pray the Lord may bless you and your family and keep you all until Jesus comes.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) MAUDE CORDELL.

Instantly Healed of Chronic Constipation of Thirty Years' Standing.

1506 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, January 18, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I cannot tell you one tenth of the blessing which I have received from God since I have been in Zion.

I was a total physical, mental and spiritual man. The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare. The Antichristian Abomination, and "Degrees of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, a year ago last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference."

Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, a year ago last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry."

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devility" ought to be read by every Lodger man. The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare. The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given. One of these books can be had for one cent. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.
The necessity of tearing down many effete and disunited organizations before the effective and united Church can be restored, becomes more and more apparent as Elijah the Restorer proceeds with his Restoration Messages.

Every Message has shown how the organizations into which the Church of God has been divided, have become apostate beyond reformation; have, in fact, become not only cumberers of the ground, not only fruitless, but a deadly menace to the spiritual lives of all those within their sphere of influence.

The Messages for the last two weeks have been directed against the Methodist Episcopal church.

With directness, power, historical fairness, and keen spiritual discernment, the man of God has put aside all non-essentials and has gone straight to the foundations of that apostasy.

His blows have fallen where they would be most destructive; for there is no concealment of the fact that his mission is to destroy ere he can restore.

The Methodist Apostasy has now, and has had, many critics, but never before has there risen a man so fearless, so mighty and yet so loving in his denunciations of the sins and errors which have robbed that great organization of its power, and made it a thing to be utterly destroyed in order that God's people within it might be set free.

The Message of Lord's Day afternoon, February 8, 1903, was very brief but very telling.

The speaker quoted a prophecy of John Wesley, founder, under God, of the Methodist church, in which that apostolic man foretold the very lines along which the organization, of which he was spiritual father, would fall away from God; in fact, was even then becoming apostate.

Again using the Methodists' own writings and figures, the man of God showed how sadly and yet how unmistakably that prophecy had been fulfilled.

As a prelude to this Message, the General Overseer took up a two-page editorial in the New York Christian Advocate, written by Dr. J. M. Buckley, rebuking Dr. D. D. Thompson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate for his claim of a million and a half conversions in the Methodist church in the last four years, and showing the fallacy of his figures.

This was especially timely, as the General Overseer had, only the previous Lord's Day, exposed the same lie.

The reading of this editorial, by the man of God, and his comments thereon, were full of Divine fire and keen, clean wit, as were also the lively comments upon certain other portions of the number of the New York Christian Advocate, which he had in hand.

He closed his prelude with a reductio ad absurdum of the Methodists' exulting praise of their own generosity in the much-advertised Twenty Million Dollar Thank-offering.

By the use of plain, simple arithmetic, God's Messenger showed that this munificent (?) offering really cost the beggarly sum of half a cent a day from each member of the church.

An audience of about three thousand filled the ground floor, boxes and part of the main balcony, but this was increased to four and perhaps five thousand hearers by the many who came in, and rather than climb to upper parts of the balcony, stood for a time in the foyer listening, and then passed out.

Thousands of those who heard were strangers who came in response to the invitations carried into more than twenty thousand homes and public places in the city of Chicago that morning by members of Zion Restoration Host.

Many of these remained respectfully attentive and deeply impressed to the close, and, with the thousands of Zion present, arose in response to the General Overseer's call, and repeated after him the solemn Prayer of Repentance, Confession and Consecration.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, February 8, 1903.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing as they came, the words of the PROCESIONAL.

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ our Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the Word;
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride;
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace indued.

Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the Consummation
Of peace forevermore;

One, holy, innocent, free,
Her pump is Truth, her shield
Is Love, her weapon, Prayer;
Her banner is the Cross;
Her scepter is the Book,
Her crown the Lamb;
She Roars through every land
And gathers to her own.

To God's new heaven and new earth.

Glorified by His blood,
She shines in splendor bright
Till all our trials cease;
She shines in splendor bright
Till all our trials cease;
She shines in splendor bright
Till all our trials cease.
Some of my Methodist friends may have thought that I was very severe last Lord's Day, in dealing with the statement of the Rev. Mr. C. H. W., of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, that Dr. D. D. and his sympathizers were heart and soul for the conversion of the Methodists of New York. I was so delighted to find that a Methodist, of Last Octo-ber, says the Rev. Mr. C. H. W., as the editor of the “Northwestern Christian Advocate,” is most misleading, and not at all true. Where are they? Dr.
D. D. must be a very bad man, or he has never heard of the newspapers of the country.

The Rev. Mr. C. H. W. says the Rev. Mr. C. H. W., has become of these more than two million converts.
Where did you ever make up that internal lie which you have sent to all the newspapers of the country?
Upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 348:

Encamped along the hills of light,
Ye Christian soldiers, rise,
And press the battle ere the night
Shall veil the glowing skies.
Against the foe in valour bold,
Let all our strength be hurled;
Faith in the victory, we know,
That overcometh the world.

CHORUS—Faith is the victory!
Oh, glorious victory,
That overcometh the world.

RECEITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles’ Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them, that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain: for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth,
It may matter with the politicians, the flesh-flies of an hour, or a day.

What does it matter to God? This world is not governed by opinion. This world is governed by God.

Your opinion of His Laws does not alter them.

If you and the Law of Gravitation are at odds, the Law of Gravitation will vindicate itself very quickly.

You say, "I do not believe in the Law of Gravitation. That four-hundred-pound weight suspended there will not fall perpendicularly."

"Look out, the man up there is going to cut the string, and you are right under it"—you are warned.

You reply, "I do not care. I do not believe in the law."

When he cuts the string you will have no further necessity to believe anything.

You will be a fine case of irreparable brain smash:

Law vindicates itself.

It is surely not a foolish proposition to suppose that the God who made this world, and you—made you, with your vast opinion of yourself—has some right to rule you.

It is surely a logical proposition:

The Creator Has Some Rights Over the Creature.

There is no good reason why you should have any more right to control anything you had made than the laws of man would give you that right.

The laws of man say that when a man makes a thing, he has a right to control it, and surely the God who creates a man has a right to control him.

Surely there is such a thing as Law in the moral and spiritual realm as well as in the natural.

If there is not, it is the one exception in the whole Universe.

Law would be everywhere except there, and that would be absurd.

Law reigns.

God reigns.

If you do not recognize the Theocratic Principle, you will disappear; have to be wiped out, that is all.

All the vastness of the world that affected thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee The City of Jehovah, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

This is the reconstruction of Zion, spiritually and physically.

The reorganization of the administration of government throughout the entire world will proceed from Zion's Holy Hill at Jerusalem.

Every other Zion will be subordinate to that. From there the Messiah, the Christ, the King of all the Earth and all the Nations will reign.

The Unspeaking Turk.

It is beginning to be about time to rebuild that old city, to clear away the rubbish of the many generations, and to drive out the unspakeable Turk, whose crimes are not merely against God but against common decency, common cleanliness, the commonest standard of common morality.

How can any one who knows exactly what Mahomedanism is, for one single moment imagine that God or man can forever stand that abomination?

"Where the Moslem hoof comes no grass grows," is the Eastern proverb.

Wherever the accursed teaching of Mahomet has come, there has been no progress.

How can there be progress when one-half the people are treated as spiritless beasts?

The nation has no right to political existence that makes a religion one of the arts and promises a heaven of harlotry to man—his reward being a number of peri or houri as paramours.

The theology of Mahomedanism is that no woman has a spirit.

The Mohammedan paradise is a palace where the satisfaction of a man's dirty belly, his abominable passions, are the highest form of reward through endless ages.

It is time that such an organized abomination as that should be swept out.

I pray God for the day to come when the Crescent shall disappear, and when the flags—I would like to see them united there and everywhere—of Great Britain and America shall float over Zion at Jerusalem, as they often do at the City of Zion near Chicago.

May God grant it!

It is time that the Moslem Abomination was gone, "bag and baggage," as Mr. Gladstone used to say.

Let it slink away back into the deserts of Arabia whence the filthy thing emerged.

For the sake of the whole womanhood of the world there ought to be a setting free of women in Turkey.

No nation can ever be strong where such filthy theology is made a part of the religious life of a whole people.

Woman a beast to be used for a time, and then flung aside! Ugh! How one hates the whole thing, the slimy, filthy thing!

May God destroy it!

Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

Thou shalt suck the milk of the nations, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I Jehovah am thy Savior, and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

The Sons of Jacob.

I seek for favor with no class of men, and yet in one sense I love to get the favor of all, if I can get it honestly.

I am not saying this for the first time, or for the twentieth time when I tell you Americans that one of the meanest things that exists in American so-called society is the deep, bitter prejudice against the Jew as a Jew.

One of the saddest and meanest things in Europe is that same prejudice.

In Paris, I was shocked, going through the streets of the better part of the city, to read, chalked upon the walls, words in French: "Spit upon Dreyfus." "Conspuez Dreyfus."

Shame!

Why? Because he was a Jew.

Yet I go into Notre Dame Cathedral, and I see them bowing at the feet of the Jewess, Mary, and worshiping the Jew, the Christ, Jesus.

"A bas the Jew," they cry, simply because he is a Jew.

Let me tell you. Never forget it.

The Hebrew Race is the Imperial Race of the World.

God's Word declares distinctly that you must be grafted into that race to have any power at all.

I believe that, while I am not a Jew, I am an Israelite.

The Jews properly are members of only two tribes, Judah and Benjamin, with a portion of Levi; but there are ten tribes, including Levi, besides these two.

To these ten tribes God has given the Promise of the Ages.

All Israelites are not Jews. All Jews are Israelites.

The Anglo-Saxon Race Israelitish in Origin.

I believe strongly in the Israelitish origin of the Anglo-Saxon people.

I do not think that there is any difficulty in establishing it from an ethnological point of view.

If you desire to study that, some of you, take pains to look up Colonel Gawler's Monograph on the "Migrations of the Tribe of Dan," and you will see one of the most interesting and simple and thorough things of its kind.

He was a very able man, Surveyor-general of South Australia.

In writing that monograph he has no difficulty in showing the migrations of the tribe of Dan down the Mediterranean to Dan's river, Danube; up through Europe to Dan-mark, where they lay a line, Dan's Mark.

Their migrations over many parts of Europe and especially in the British Isles are traceable from one peculiar feature of that tribe, which the Scripture notes in that they called every place by the name of their father, Dan.

Don, Den, Dan, Dane and other corruptions of the name remain everywhere that they went.

The Scandinavian people and Isaac's sons, the Saxon races, very clearly demonstrate the fulfillment of the prophecy in Israel.

Far from fighting our Jewish brethren, we should thank God for them, and thank God that Jesus, the Christ, was a Jew, and that the Jew, Jesus, the Christ, Himself, said: "Salvation is from the Jew." How can Christian join in the shameless persecution of the Jew simply because he is a Jew?

Character of the Jew.

It is because of what he does, you may say. Can he do worse than the Chicago rough? Can he do worse than the Southern hoodlum? Where do you find the Jew guilty of the unspeakable abominations which are to be found everywhere in the United States of America? It is a rare thing for a Jew to be in collision with the law. He does not go about with a chip on his shoulder and a revolver in his hip-pocket, ready to shoot on sight. This is not the Jew. He is peaceable. "Oh, he makes too much money," you say. It would be much better for him to have that money than for you who talk like that to have it. "He makes much of it dishonorably," you say. I have had, and do have, extensive business dealings with men of many nations. I have often been robbed by Britons and Americans, but never by a Jew. Admit, for a moment, that some do wrong—are they in a larger proportion dishonorable than thousands of Americans? I do not believe it. I believe that many of you do things that no Jew would think of doing. You can always trust a Jew if you are doing a square, fair, honest business with him; but if he thinks that you are trying to cheat him, then look out for your eye-teeth. He cannot be cheated very easily, and he knows how to punish those who try to do wrong. Perhaps you have had some experience; you may have tried and failed and suffered—hence your complaints.

The Jews' Power Through Control of Gold Reserves.

The Mighty God of Jacob—Jacob was a weak fellow in many things—will stand for His people. That Russian Colossus will go to pieces in the next great conflict; because she has oppressed the Jew. Russia thinks that she is very strong. She has a church which it is a scandal to call a church of the Lord. She thinks that she can drive out the Jew, or murder and cheat him as she chooses. Wait until the next great war. I could almost guarantee that no sooner does she produce her gold to pay the expenses of her war, than these astute Jews will have it all. When Russia is without her gold what can she do? She is a cruel monster! She uses cruel, brutal force and power! There is no real Christianity in her government. She has a church which it is a scandal to call a church of God. They have the image and picture worship, with all the apostasy of the Church of Rome accentuated and intensified, and an ignorance which is shocking to think of. The day of the liberation of the Russian people will come when that autocratic government and that murderous church are both smashed. For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron; I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

The Gold Standard.

That has been the relation in which the precious metals have ordinarily stood to each other for thirty centuries. Gold is always at the top. Silver comes next, then brass, iron and stone, but gold first. Gold is the Standard of Value in Israel. It would have been a terrible and far-reaching crime for this Nation to have gone off on the silver crank with a thirty-five cent dollar, with all the nations of the world eager to put in their silver for free coinage.

It was a dream of some political thieves that they could pay private and public debts in that debased currency. It was the dream of a political party which allied itself to a policy of spoliation—stealing! Do you not remember the Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal?" It has a very broad application.

In vain we call old notions fudge, And bend our conscience to our dealing; The Ten Commandments will not fudge, And stealing will continue stealing.

You cannot steal with impunity. Let no party be stupid enough, to revive that policy. It is a shame to talk about it. I am thankful that Zion wheeled into line. When I brought you into fellowship, you were a motley crew, politically. Some of you were Republicans. Some of you were Democrats. Some of you were Populists. You were an awful mixture. But God was very good. I was enabled to wheel Zion into line and give a solid vote, without a single dissentient, so far as I know, at the first election of Mr. McKinley as President of the United States. We have kept Zion there still, on a good, sound Gold basis. There would have been no Zion City built and no Zion enterprises started by me, under God, with thirty-five cent dollars. I knew the Word of God. The Basis of all Commercial Value in Israel is Gold. You would better look out for the Jew, because he has the Gold. He has much of it; and what he does not have he can get. If the Jew were to come down upon J. Pierpont Morgan tomorrow morning, with all his forces, the United States Steel Trust Stock would not be worth fifty cents on the dollar. It would be safe to back the Jew to smash Morgan, because he could corner the whole thing. You would better treat the Jew respectfully. You will need him some day. He is the best financier in the world. The Jew is not altogether a saint, but you can make something of the Jew: for he is of the same stock as Jesus—the Mightiest Man of All Time.

As far as his average citizenship is concerned, it will compare quite respectfully with that of the average Chicago politician. "Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, desolation nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Everlasting Light, and thy God thy glory. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but Jehovah shall be unto thee an Everlasting Light, and thy God thy glory. The sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself for Jehovah shall be thine Everlasting Light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. Thy people also shall be all righteous, they shall inherit the land for ever." The Little One shall become a Thousand, and the Small One a Strong Nation. Zion Dwells Alone.

Zion is a people who dwell alone. That is the prophecy concerning Israel spoken by the prophet of Moab when he saw the tents of Israel in the valley—"It is a People that dwell Alone." God's people always dwell alone in the world, for they do not belong to it. The true people of God are not found at progressive eucharistic parties—progressive abomination. The people of God are not found at champagne suppers at night, and with real pain the next morning. The people of God do not listen to disgusting operas, such as Faust, with Mephistopheles (the Devil), Faust (the doctor), and Marguerite (the harlot). They do not employ that Trinity of Musical Damnation for amusement. The people of God do not want these things. You say that you see church people there.
Ah, they must be Methodists or other Apostates. Perhaps they are the two million whom Dr. Thompson lost. They must belong to the denominations which are Christian in name only. The people of God who are real do not get along peaceably with the people of the Devil at any time. Therefore Zion always has to stand alone. The little one shall become a thousand.

Zion Is a Spiritual Nation Within the Nations.

She is a Nation with a King—God is her King. She is a Nation with laws—God is her Lawgiver. She has peace everywhere, with good laws and law-abiding people, giving no trouble to governments. We have a little City out there, of from eight to ten thousand people. We have never given any one any trouble. No government can complain of us. We have not cost the State one dollar for the education of our people. We educate them at our own cost. We have three large schoolhouses and one college building. We built them ourselves. We have not cost the State a dollar for a pauper, for there are no paupers there. We take care of our poor. We have not cost the State a dollar for a criminal. We have produced none. We have not cost the State a dollar for a lunatic. We produce none. Zion City has not cost the State or Nation one cent. Can you say the same of Chicago's people? The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation.

Do you hear? Zion is a Nation which is growing up; an Imperium in imperio. Zion is a government of God within a government of men which is mostly ruled by the Devil, so far as I can see and smell. I the Lord will hasten it in its time. The Time has come. It is the Times of the Restoration of All Things of which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began. May God bless His Word. Prayer was offered by Elder Excell, also by the General Overseer, at the close of which the Disciples' Prayer was delivered by the following Prelude:

PRELUDE: WHY THIS EXCITEMENT IN CHICAGO ABOUT ZION'S MISSION IN NEW YORK?

Before I deliver my discourse I desire to say a few words regarding two matters, only one of which I mentioned in the notice. The subject for the prelude which I announced was: "Why this Excitement in Chicago about Zion's Mission to New York?"

The Chicago Press has for twelve years endeavored to blacken Zion and myself by every art known to liars. Now they are afraid that the New York press might not want to lie, and might receive us and judge without reference to their judgment. The Chicago Press Held in Contempt in the East. Why?

The Chicago Press is held in the most complete contempt in the East. It is a disgrace to be praised by it. I never saw a man yet, standing for public office in Chicago with the press arrayed against him, who did not win. You all know that Carter Harrison, Sr., became mayor of Chicago five times, and Carter Harrison, Jr., mayor three times, in spite of the hostility of a united newspaper press.

It is the greatest feather of honor in a man's cap to be abused by the Chicago Press. The people trust him on that account if for nothing else. The Chicago press know that they have been lying all these years, and they know that they have been found out. The Chicago papers are much troubled about the attitude of the New York Press to this movement, which has been, up to this time, exceedingly friendly.

Courtesy of the New York Press.

It has been quite impossible for me to avail myself of all the kindnesses which the New York Press would have shown me. I have contributed during the past week telegraphic articles to six Eastern papers, not only in New York but in Philadelphia. I received an invitation direct from the Philadelphia North American to send them five hundred words telling what I think of Philadelphia as a field for my mission after I had finished my work in New York. I contributed to the New York Herald a signed statement of about eighteen hundred words. You can find these in full in the last issue of Leaves of Healing.

I now desire to say a few words apropos of my discourse last Lord's Day. I intended to deal with the Chicago vipers and their attempts to injure Zion in New York on another day. They will give me sufficient opportunity.

A Lie Out of Whole Cloth.

Last week they coined a very amusing story and put it in all the papers. They told that twelve hams came to Zion City depot, and that twelve citizens of Zion demanded that these hams should be surrendered to them to be thrown into the lake.

I do not know whether any foolish person in Chicago believed that lie or not. However the Depot Master of the City of Zion thought that it was worth while to write me a letter in which he says that the alleged incident never took place. The letter is as follows:

CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY CO.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, FEBRUARY 7, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIN, GENERAL OVERSEER CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.

Dear General Overseer:— Referring to the article which appeared in the various Chicago morning papers of today, relative to an alleged "exciting scene" which was supposed to have taken place here yesterday between a "delegation of twelve of Zion's leading Citizens" and myself, because of "twelve hams marked Waukegan" having been unloaded at our depot, I have let that I should make a short statement of the facts.

I wish to say, there was no meat for Waukegan unloaded here yesterday, that no delegation or party has ever at any time waited upon me, making any demands whatever for the surrender of "hams" in our possession, that the exciting scene did not exist and that the statement is absolutely false in every particular. I might say that today Swift & Co.'s representative, who delivers meat direct to Zion at this place, called upon me and in commenting upon this article we both called to mind the fact that one year ago a small box of hams marked "G. W. Evans, Waukegan," was put off here with request to hurry back to Waukegan by passenger train, which was done. Said representative while at Highland Park the following day heard it rumored that the box of meat had met with foul play at Zion City and had not reached destination. He wired me, relative to same and I of course replied that the meat was promptly forwarded. Now it is barely possible that this stupid reporter has just learned of the Highland Park story and that he was able to remember that the rumor had something to do with "twelve." However, the astray shipment occurred "twelve" months ago, and had nothing to do with "twelve Dowieites" after "twelve hams."

"Mindfully yours in Jesus the Christ's Service, E. O. MIERS, Agent."

This story then was concocted by a Chicago press liar's imagination. Perhaps he was short on pig, and dreamed about it. There may possibly have come to him a vision of twelve hams being treated in that manner after reaching Zion City, and his swinish soul arose in indignation that pig should be handled so badly, when he loved it so much. It was an unspeakable lie and went through all the papers in all parts of the United States. The citizens of Zion City are not capable of such a lawless act. There never was the first word of truth in it.

The Chicago press has started upon one of its campaigns of lies, in which it fabricates every part of the invention.
EXCITEMENT ABOUT NEW YORK MISSION.

Many other causes are responsible for the carrying of the same names on the list from year to year. When two Methodist parson editors quarrel we begin to get the truth.

Therefore we are getting the truth that these probationer lists are largely lies. Babies are carried on them from year to year, people who have disappeared and whom they cannot find, they call probationers, to keep up the number. I would like him to give us the "other causes" for keeping these names on their lists. It would be quite interesting to hear them.

Dr. Buckley plainly says, "the report of probationers does not honestly represent the actual number of conversions in any one year, or in any series of years. What does it represent? It is a series of lies. It represents what Deacon Champe shows in his cartoon of last week's issue of Leaves of Healing; it represents wind, or an inflated appraisal, as Dr. Buckley would say. Dr. Buckley points out, first of all, that there is a discrepancy of the little number of 10,000.

He puts in the fall conferences at 120,000, and Dr. Buckley says that there are only 120,000. Dr. Buckley himself says with such tremendous figures as Thompson's that 10,000 is quite a small thing. Then he goes on to analyze the article. He says that the Northwestern Christian Advocate says that to this number might be reasonably added at least 500,000 more who united with charges in the fall conferences, and were admitted into full membership before the statistics were prepared for the conference. I have shown you in my sermon which is printed in Leaves of Healing that every one of these persons was accounted for, either as a probationer or as a member in that four-year period.

Dr. Buckley Sweeps Away 500,000 of Dr. Thompson's Claim.

Dr. Buckley takes the same view apparently. He sweeps the entire 500,000 away with these words: This is to leave the safe, though slow, methods of traveling on terra firma for the rapid movements and uncertain destination of voyaging in a balloon. Pretty hard hit, Dr. Thompson! Dr. Buckley in effect says that you are only a windbag, and that you are voyaging in a balloon. It is by means of this audacious and unfounded addition of 500,000 that the 1,500,000 is reached. It is a shameful fabrication that you Methodists have been concocting.

When Dr. Buckley found that I was after it he thought that he would get after it too, and in that way perhaps minimize the spanking which he will get concerning another subject. He goes on and pricks this balloon of Dr. Thompson's. He points out detailed blunders. Here is another error of 60,000.

The figures show that the Northwestern Christian Advocate has given the fall conferences about 60,000 members more than the facts allow. He sweeps off the 500,000 with a puff, and says it is a balloon business.

About the "Two Bishops" Figures.

The whole thing was evidently made up, when they were 400,000 short, by two bishops coming upon the scene and suggesting that they could put in 400,000 more. Here it is. Two of our bishops tell us that, wrote Dr. Thompson, in their judgment, at least two-thirds of those who unite with the church on probation in the fall conferences are taken into full membership during the conference year, but do not appear in the records of probationers presented at conference.

What has that to do with it? If they do not appear as probationers they appear as members. They have got to appear in one column or the other. Where are they? You cannot find that four hundred thousand in either column; and they must appear in one or the other. If they are members, they appear as members. If they are probationers, they appear as probationers.

The Windbag Pricked.

Dr. Buckley pricks that windbag by contending that if these bishops were correct in this opinion, it would add at least 948,544 more to their estimate. He says:

If we may take the "at least two-thirds" of the bishops as the basis, then for every convert acknowledged in the table of probationers there must be two others that have been received on probation in the fall conferences during the year, and carried over into the church without appearing in the minutes as probationers. The number found in the tables of the fall conferences for these four years amounts to 474,279, and three times that number amounts to 1,422,816 probationers who must have been received into the fall conferences in these four years.

With these figures before us an amazing situation comes to light. The fall conferences, December 31, 1899, had 1,585,183 members in full connection. December 31, 1902, they had 1,654,287, showing an increase of only 69,104 in four years, an average of less than 17,300 per year.

During the year, and received into the church without appearing in the minutes as probationers. The number found in the tables of the fall conferences for these four years amounts to 474,279, and three times that number amounts to 1,422,816 probationers who must have been received into the fall conferences in these four years.

Where are they to be found, Dr. Thompson?

Where did you ever make up that infernal lie which you have sent to all the newspapers of the country?

Dr. Thompson, where are these two millions?

I cannot find them and I am the critic of the Methodist church.

Dr. Buckley cannot find them, and he is the defender of the Methodist church.

Where are they to be found, Dr. Thompson?

Where did you ever make up that infernal lie which you have sent to all the newspapers of the country?

Dr. Thompson, where are these two millions?

I cannot find them and Dr. Buckley cannot.

They are the product of a lie.

Dr. Buckley criticises the church, and says that the "discipline of the church in many parts of the country is practically abdicatd." He says that about one million persons, at the lowest calculations, have gone, in the fall conferences alone, and their "present whereabouts cannot be established."

"We would dispose of the matter thus," says Dr. Buckley;

"First, taking the whole of the fall conferences into account the estimate of two-thirds, who never show themselves in the list of probationers, is absurdly large."

Contemptibly False, That Is the Fact of It.

"Secondly, at least," he continues, "ten per cent. of all the probationers, east and west, are carried over, so that the actual number of probationers reported for any one year is much less than the number of persons."

There is a fine revelation; that they have more probationers on their books than they have people.

Are the Ghosts Probationers?

He says that they have figures on their books that are not true.

That is the fact.

I will read it again for you.

At least ten per cent. of all the probationers, east and west, are carried over, so that the actual number of probationers reported for any one year is much less than the number of persons.

If a probationer is a person, a person is a probationer, and they have got more members than real persons or probationers, what are these members?

What do they represent?

ghosts! ghosts!! ghosts!!! (Laughter.)

This is your own man, Buckley, now, that is lashing you.
He adds, "There is no way to explain the vast numbers which our contemporary sees upon the hills and prairies. It is not well to "number Zion," but it is never well to add to the numbering estimates by the half million."

Dr. Thompson, you are catching it from Gotham, and you deceive it.

Here is

A Very Remarkable Expression.

With all his faults, and he has many, Dr. Buckley is the keenest, brightest writer in the Methodist body.

However wickedly he may act regarding Divine Healing and some other things, which he will have to be spanked for at the proper time, he is better able than any man in the denomination to say what follows.

It is a very serious matter. He says: "While there have been many conversions, and not a few genuine revivals, both east and west, we cannot believe that the number of conversions during the past four years in the Methodist Episcopal church has been equal to the normal average of the growth of the denomination."
JOHN WESLEY'S PROPHECIES FULFILLED.

I will read from an article to which I called brief attention last Lord's Day afternoon, dated London, August 4, 1785, a little less than five years before Mr. Wesley died.

Wesley was born on June 28th, new style, that is to say, adding those days, eleven days, when the calendar was changed, it was June 17th at the time he was born.

On June 28th next, it will be two hundred years since John Benjamin Wesley was born.

Thank God that ever he was born.

After he had lived eighty-three years, and after Methodism had been founded fifty years, Methodism was not as strong in the fifty years as Zion now is in seven.

I will demonstrate to Dr. Buckley, or anybody else, that Zion is stronger in seven years than Methodism was in fifty.

A Significant Prophecy of John Wesley's.

Fifty years and more after the foundation of the first Methodist society, when John Wesley was eighty-three years old, and had all his faculties in perfect control, so that he was preaching twice a day, John Wesley says, in this prophecy, that the condition of the Methodist society then warranted him in saying that if they did not maintain the inward principles of religion, the mind that is in the Christ; the renewal of the Spirit after the image of the God of Righteousness and True Holiness; if they did not continue to believe that that could not be wrought in them but by the Holy Spirit, and that they received that and every blessing for the sake of the Christ; that if they abandoned, in short, the fundamental principle of a Spiritual Regeneration and a Spiritual Life; if they failed to exhort each other and to exercise godly discipline, and remove from their number those that were ungodly, the Methodists would become but dung and dross.

Methodist Discipline Abdicated in Favor of the Devil.

Dr. Buckley says that discipline is abdicated in the United States; that it is given up.

Abdicate is a word that is used when a ruler has left a throne, and resigns his rights to some one else.

When Napoleon I. abdicated the throne of France, he abdicated in favor of his son, Napoleon II.

I say, will you tell me, Dr. Buckley, since the Methodist church in the United States has abdicated its discipline, to whom did it hand over its discipline?

Was it to God or to the Devil?

Does God have it?

Did you resign your discipline in favor of God, or did you resign in favor of the world, the godless liver, which is an abdication in favor of the Devil?

John Wesley pointed out that this time would come, when discipline would be abdicated, and would not exist.

That is what Dr. Buckley says. I read it to you, I will read it again:

Some members in full connection disappear by expulsion. It is to be regretted that the power of the discipline in many parts of the country is practically abdicated.

Why, Dr. Buckley, you could say in all parts. Where do you exercise discipline? Can you tell me one church which carries out fully and honestly section 248 of the Discipline of 1896, pages 156-157.

In cases of neglect of duties of any kind, impatient conduct, indulging sinful tempers or words, the buying, selling, or using intoxicating liquors as a beverage, signing petitions in favor of granting license for the sale of intoxicating liquors, becoming bondmen for persons engaged in such traffic, renting property as a place in or on which to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquors, dancing, playing at games of chance, attending theaters, horse races, circuses, dancing parties, or patronizing dancing schools, or taking such other amusements as are obviously maddening or questionable moral tendency, or disobedience to the order and Discipline of the Church—first, let private reproof be given by the Pastor or Leader, and if there be an acknowledgment of the fault, and proper humiliation, the person may be borne with.

On the second offense the Pastor or Leader may take one or two discreet Members of the Church. On a third offense let him be brought to trial, and if found guilty, and there be no sign of real humiliation, he shall be expelled.

You would have to drive out several of your bishops, and especially Bishop Fowler, if you enforced section 452 in the Discipline of 1896, where the form for laying the corner stone of a church is given. Again and again bishops have laid stones with Masonic rites, in which the Name of Jesus is not mentioned as the Son of God.
It is a serious matter when your bishops abdicate your discipline in behalf of Baal, the son of acd, whom Freemasons adore in their lodges.

John Wesley's Forebodings.

Mr. Wesley says:

I. I am afraid that the people called Methodists should ever cease to exist either in Europe or America. But I am afraid, lest they should only exist as a dead sect, having a form of religion without the power. And this undoubtedly will be the case, unless they hold fast both the doctrine, spirit, and discipline with which they first set out.

Mr. Wesley contended that even then the church was going to pieces.

He says further, Methodists—proportionally increase in pride, in anger, in the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes and the pride of life. So, although the form of religion remains, the spirit is swiftly vanishing away.

Then he goes on to exhort in closing the passage, saying:

If those who "gain all they can," and "save all they can," will likewise "give all they can," then, the more they gain, the more they will grow in grace, and the more treasure they will lay up in heaven.

Do the Methodists Give All They Can?

If Dr. Buckley will assure me that half a cent a day is all that the Methodist body can give even for a great thank-offering, then all I have to say is that they are the poorest set of beggars in the United States. I will guarantee that the tramps of the United States could get together one cent a day easily for the Devil; yet the Methodists of the United States can barely get half a cent.

I am compelled to say that this prophecy of John Wesley is being fulfilled.

He says:

And if ever the essential parts should evaporate what remains will be dung and dross.

I have already shown you, in a series of discourses upon Methodist Apostasy, that the essential parts have evaporated. I shall deliver just one more Message in which I shall speak on the Evaporation of the Essentials of Religion in the Methodist church.

I shall show you how one thing after another has evaporated until what is left is Thompson's dung and dross, Buckley's dung and dross, and the dung and dross of a great Denomination which is "like salt that has lost its savor."

The Dung and Dross of Methodism.

I am speaking now by Dr. H. K. Carroll's figures.

Dr. Carroll distinctly declares that in ten years the Methodist body has grown at the rate of only twenty-one points of one per cent. annually; that is to say, one-fifth of one per cent.

What business is there that would exist upon such a basis?

If all that I could do in Zion were to earn for my stockholders one-fifth of one per cent, I would go out of business.

What business is there that would exist upon such a basis?

I am able to show, however, and I have shown, and you can see it yourselves, an increase to investors in Zion City land at the rate of one hundred per cent. in one year.

You can walk along Edina boulevard and ask every proprietor there if he would accept an advance of one hundred per cent. upon his property, and he would not do it.

Great Increase in Zion City Values.

Elder Fockler, you have a lot there, will you sell me that property at a hundred per cent. advance?

Elder Fockler—"No."

General Overseer—You will not. Not even to me; not even the General Overseer would do it.

He says that because he thinks I have enough of them.

He knows that I do not want it; that I am rejoice that his money has doubled, and it has more than doubled.

He thinks it has trebled.

He knows that I rejoice in the prosperity of every one of the people whom God has committed to my care in Zion City.

Your prosperity is mine, and my prosperity is yours.

If I make a dollar I immediately put it into Zion. I fatten Zion City—not with wind, as Thompson does Methodism—but with solid investments. And above all Zion City is continually adding godly people to its population.

The original investment has been increased twenty times, taking it altogether, and I would not sell it for that much advance.

If, however, as a business man, I could show in Zion City Bank, in Zion Land and Improvement Association, in Zion City General Stores, in Zion Lace Industries and other Institutions and Industries only one-fifth of one per cent. increase where would I be? I would not be where I am today.

If you cannot apply that business principle to the church, why not?

"Oh," you say, "you cannot reckon like that in a church."

But the Christ reckoned it like that.

How the Christ Reckoned God's Work.

He said that a man got one talent, and he did not use it, and he was sent to the outer darkness.

He said that another man got two talents; he made them four, and he blessed him.

He said that another man got five, and he made them ten.

He blessed him. He said that was very commendable. He said that that was the principle upon which Christian work must be done.

I am a very matter-of-fact man.

I do not judge people by what they say. I judge by results; by what comes out of their work.

I have a right to be judged by that standard. So have you.

Thanksgiving at the Seventh Anniversary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I cannot forbear to raise my voice in gratitude to God that, as we are nearing the end of the seventh year, I do not need to tell you what our growth has been—so immensely different from that of the Methodist body.

Four hundred and fifty persons signed the roll at the first meeting of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion on the 22d day of February, 1896.

Think what the church is now!

We have more members, by a very large number, if all who are with us were enrolled, in seven years than Methodism had in America sixty years after its organization.

Think of a city almost entirely populated by members of the Church!

Think of the tens and tens of thousands scattered throughout the earth.

Think, for instance of Overseer Voliva going to Australia a year ago to pick up the work (left through the folly of a man in a terrible condition) and closing the year, 1902, in one of the largest halls in Melbourne, with an All-Night Meeting.

Deacons and other officers were present from all parts of Australia, making it the largest ecclesiastical gathering in the city of Melbourne within one year.

He did not go around hunting to make trouble. He went around hunting to put down trouble, and he did something.

If any of you people are hunting to make trouble, you will never be a Zionite, and you will never be a Cantel.

Look at Cantel's list of meetings in the United Kingdom, in this week's LEAVES OF HEALING.

I went and planted that work two years ago in a brief mission in four or five places.

It has spread until there is a representation in more than sixty cities and towns all over the British Isles.

Zion's Financial Prosperity.

After all the attacks of the press upon our financial condition, from the first day of December, 1902, until last Friday night, the sixth day of February, that is in sixty-eight days, or taking out the Sundays, fifty-nine days, the subscriptions to Zion stocks have amounted to $851,000!

Think of what God hath wrought!

No commercial institution in the world could have outridden that storm; and yet the storm is scarcely known before Zion emerges.

Where did the $851,000 come? From our own people.

Deacon Charles J. Barnard, who is the head of the financial department, estimates that before we have reached the end of the month, we may reach the million number.

I ask the Methodist body to show anything corresponding in the same period of time.

The spiritual work in Zion is inexpressibly great as compared to what the Methodists showed at their beginning, and to what they show now.
Yet a man who knows better, Dr. Buckley, will class us with that which we hate and fight—Mormonism.

When we get down to New York, Dr. Buckley, we will have it out with you there in the Name of the Lord.

There are good people in the Methodist church, but as an organization the power has departed. Ichabod is written over its doors.

It has nothing left as an organization but dung and dross.

An Unpleasant Duty.

The role of a teacher who will tell the truth is never a pleasant one, for it sometimes tells the truth to his own people and friends in a fashion that is pretty severe and hard to hear, and harder to speak. God Almighty will put aside the prophet who does not speak the truth.

I would rather die tonight and finish my work now than keep back the truth for friend or foe.

"I am in the place where it is demanded of conscience and of faith to speak the truth," I say with John Knox, "and speak it I will, impugn it who so list.

I will speak the truth.

I have nothing left to live for but to do God's Will, and God's Will I shall do.

May God help you and me to do His will fully.

All who will stand together for God rise and tell Him so. (Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me a bark, and let the blood of Jesus flow in me, so that I may do right no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may speak the truth and live for God, or to make money?

Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Which is the greater—for you to speak the truth and live for God, or to make money?

Audience—"Speak the truth and live for God." General Overseer—I think we show it.

The moment we come to rely upon our prosperity, then we will go to dung and dross.

As long as we are faithful to God, "get all we can, save all we can, and give all we can," then we will progress.

God will bless us.

When you get all you can, save all you can, and give as little as you can, half a cent a day—that surely is little—then you will go to dung and dross.

May God help us to Get, and Save, and Give.

And this undoubtedly will be the case, unless they hold fast both the image of God, in righteousness and true holiness. (2.) That this can never be attained, unless every man, woman, and child, who wishes to be saved, shall do the very thing we wanted. The leaders are the persons who may not only hinder, but hinder essentially.

This is in effect to grow rich! What way then do we proceed to hinder? Either an Inflatable Appraisal or Intangible Assets.

FAMOUS PROPHECY OF JOHN WESLEY SHORTLY BEFORE HIS DEATH.

THOUGHTS UPON METHODISM.

1. I am not afraid that the people called Methodists should ever cease to exist either in Europe or America. But I am afraid, lest they should only exist as a dead sect, having the form of religion without the power. And this undoubtedly will be the case, unless they hold fast both the doctrine, spirit and discipline with which they first set out.

2. What shall be the distinguishing doctrine? Methodism? That the Bible is the whole and sole rule both of Christian faith and practice. Hence they learned; (1.) That we must learn by experience and not by precept, in the mind that was in Christ; or in other words, the renewal of the soul after the image of God, in righteousness and true holiness. (2.) That we cannot be wrong in us, but by the power of the Holy Ghost. (3.) That we receive this, and every other blessing, merely for the sake of Christ: and, (4.) That when we have the mind that was in Christ, we are one in our brother, and sister, and mother.

In the hour of death, four young students in Oxford agreed to spend their evenings together. They were all zealous members of the Church of England, and had no peculiar opinions, but were distinguished only by their constant attendance on the church and sacrament. In 1733 they were increased to fifteen; when the chief of them embarked for America, intending to preach to the heathen Indians. Methodism, then, seemed to die away; but it revived again in the year 1738; especially after Mr. Wesley (not being allowed to preach in the settled manner) had been allowed to exercise influence in the society. One and another then coming to inquire what they must do to be saved, he desired them to meet him altogether, which they did, and increased continuously in number. In November, a large building, the Foundery, being offered him, he began preaching therein morning and evening; at five in the evening and seven in the evening, that the people's labor might not be hindered.

From the beginning the men and women sat apart, as they always did in the primitive church, and none were suffered to call any place their own, but the first comers sat down first. They had no pews, and all the benches for rich and poor were of the same construction. Mr. Wesley began the service with a short prayer, then sung a hymn and preached (usually about half an hour), then sung a few verses of another hymn, and concluded with prayer. His constant doctrine was salvation by faith, preceded by repentance, and followed by holiness.

5. But when a large number of people was joined, the great difficulty was to keep them together. For they were continually scattering hither and thither, and we knew no way to hold them. God provided for this also, when we thought not of it. A year or two after, Mr. Wesley met the chief of the society in Bristol, and inquired, "How shall we make the debt upon the preaching house?" Captain Foy stood up and said: "(Nearly all rose.)" every one in the society give a penny a week, and it will easily be done. "But many of them," said one, "have not a penny to give." The General Overseer asked: "then put ten or twelve of them to me. Let each of these give what they can weekly, and I will tell what is wanting." Many of them made the same offer. So Mr. Wesley divided the societies among them, assigning a class of about twelve persons to each of those, who were termed leaders.

6. Not long after, one of these informed Mr. Wesley that, calling on such a man as his house, he found him quarrelling with his wife, because he had found in drink. It immediately struck into Mr. Wesley's mind, "This is the very thing we wanted. The leaders are the persons who may not only hinder, but hinder essentially."

7. For those who knew in whom they had believed, there was another hindrance. Five or six, either married or single men, met together at such an hour as was convenient, according to the direction of St. James, "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, and ye shall be healed." And five or six of the married or single women met together for the same purpose. Innumerable blessings have attended this institution, especially in those who were peculiarly addicted to evil. When it seemed to have attained this, they were allowed to meet with a select number, who appeared, so far as man could judge, to be partakers of the same "great salvation."

8. From this short sketch of Methodism (so-called), any man of understanding may easily discern that it is only plain, Scriptural religion, guarded by a few prudential regulations. The essence of it is holiness of heart and life; the circumstantials all point to this. And as long as they are joined together in the people called Methodists, no weapon formed against them shall prosper. But if even the circumstantial parts are despised, the essential will be lost. And if the essential parts should evaporate, what remains will be dung and dross.

9. It nearly concerns us to understand how the case stands with us at present. I fear, wherever riches have increased (exceeding few are the exceptions), the essence of religious life has quickly decreased, and in the same proportion. Therefore do I not see how it is possible, in the nature of things, for Methodism to continue long, or religion must necessarily produce both individuals who are infinitely better, and these cannot but produce riches. But as riches increase, so will pride, avarice and love of the world in all its branches.

10. How, then, is it possible that Methodism, that is, the religion of the heart, though it flourishes now as a green bay tree, should continue in this state? For the Methodists in every place grow diligent and frugal; consequently, they increase in goods. Hence they proportionably increase in pride, in anger, in the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life. So, although the form of religion remains, the spirit is swiftly vanishing away.

11. Is there no way to prevent this? this continual declension of pure religion? We ought not to forbid people to be diligent and frugal; we must exhort all Christians to gain as much as they can, and save all they can; that is, in effect, to grow rich! What way then (I ask again), can we take that our money may not sink us to an infinitely hellish state? There is a kingdom in heaven, and there is no other under heaven. If those who "gain all they can," and "save all they can," will likewise "give all they can," then, the more they gain, the more they will grow in grace, and the more treasure they will lay up in heaven.

London, August 4, 1786.
Two things are essential to give value to statistics; that the principles on which they are made are true, and that the mathematics involved are accurate. In an investigation of an important business running over several years, it was found that when the profits were so small that stockholders would complain, the directors increased the appraised value of stock and real estate; and when the profits were so large that stockholders would think of obtaining larger dividends, before the directors arrived at their conclusion the stockholders would complain.

In this case no suspicion of intentional error can be entertained. The frankness and jubilant tone of the announcement show a confidence which is sublime in the achievements of the Gospel through the Methodist Episcopal church. Of course we do not believe that the table of probationers number of admissions on probation, the editor of the Northwestern begins to believe that the table of probationers number of conversions in any one year or series of years.

But before the statistics are prepared for the annual sessions of the conferences, while in the spring conferences the newly admitted members appear in the list of probationers. The number found in the tables of the fall conferences for these four years amounts to 1,673,091, and the number for the next conference was 150,000, or 1,823,091.

With this much said, we are bound to place our views in such a form as to admit of their being completely answered within the comprehension of everyone who desires. The exact statements of this surprising proclamation shall be given in the language of the Northwestern Christian Advocate. The first is:

The fact is that there have been at least 1,500,000 conversions during these years, and possibly not far from 2,000,000.

The next statement relating to the subject, is this:

There is no positive means of ascertaining the exact number of conversions. No provision is made in the general minutes for the publication of such statistics, but the table of probationers gives us the necessary data.

With the first statement in the second we fully concur, but the second statement we cannot accept, believing that the table of probationers is not a true index of the actual number of converts. The theory of the probationary system implies the danger and certainty of this, and the history of the church proves it; and though many persons who promote the system among other denominations, there is no reason to believe that the number of converts among those relatively larger than among those who announce the message upon probation, it should be kept in mind, however, that in practically every report of probationers from year to year there is the recommendation of persons that are carried on the list far beyond the expiration of the probationary period. This is due to a variety of causes. Sometimes the probationers are very young children and it is thought advisable by pastors and parents to continue them as probationers; sometimes they are persons who have moved away, and their names are kept on the list for an indefinite period; and many other causes are responsible for the carrying of the same names on the list from year to year. So that the report of probationers does not necessarily represent the actual number of converts of any one year or series of years.

After stating that the reports from the presiding elders throughout the church, of the number of conversions and real converts upon their districts, received at his office, always show a larger number of conversions than the number of admissions on probation, the editor of the Northwestern begins his estimate as follows:

The general minutes of the church report that during the past four years the number uniting with the church or probation has been as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Number of Admissions on Probation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>113,312</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>127,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>174,323</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The sum total of the above figures is 620,760.

The figures are as follows for the spring conferences:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Number of Admissions on Probation</th>

<tbody>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The sum total of the above figures is 620,760.

The total number of conversions in the Methodist Episcopal church during the past four years, are 1,770,471.

The number for the fall conferences is 1,229,332.

The number of persons disappearing every year by death, the number for the period under consideration amounting to 158,584.

The fall conferences cannot receive their probationers into full membership after the conference year, but do not appear in the records of probationers presented at conference. The number of persons who have joined in spring conference must be two others that have been received on probation in the fall conferences during the year, and received into the church, without appearing in the minutes as probationers.

The number found in the tables of the fall conferences for these four years amounts to 1,572,371, and 1,229,332 in the spring.

The total number of conversions in the Methodist Episcopal church for these four years amounts to 3,649,716, and possibly not far from 4,200,000.

In the same period the figures for the spring conferences were:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<tbody>

</tbody>

The sum total of the above figures is 620,760.

The next statement relating to the subject, is this:

Two of our bishops tell us that, in their judgment, at least two-thirds of those who unite with the church on probation during the year 1899, 1900, 1901, and 1902, would never be received into the church, if we do not deny or doubt that the increase of the denominations is due to the great number of Methodists who have joined in spring conference, and then the number of persons who have joined in the fall conferences.

The following facts and figures:

- In the spring conferences, those who joined in April; and in December, those who joined in May.
- The number of persons who joined on probation in January, in June, in September, and in December.
- The number of persons who joined in the fall conferences, and their present whereabouts cannot be established.
- The number of probationers reported for any one year, is an estimate and makes the number of probationers and of converts during the last four years not far from 2,000,000.

If we may take the "at least two-thirds" of the bishops as the basis, there is no way to explain the vast numbers which our contemporary formal withdrawals are more numerous, but certainly cannot seriously interfere with this problem. Some disappear from every society without formal withdrawal, and some from every society without probationers.

The number of persons decrease by what may be called denomination exchanges—at least so would appear in the minutes as probationers.

In grappling with this subject, in order to ascertain how many more probationers than "converts" as the term is used by the Northwestern should be allowed to the fall conferences on this account, the Northwestern observes:

Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

AS the burden of silence is sometimes greater than the burden of speech, so the things unspoken in those blessed early morning meetings of the Lord's Day in Shiloh Tabernacle are often freighted with silent eloquence.

What words could give adequate expression to the deep, abiding love which must fill the hearts in order to so animate the lives of thousands of men and women who gathered together in the bleak, wintry dawn of Lord's Day, January 18, 1903? And for what? To hear a Message!

And how inadequate is all speech to convey to the mind a conception of the loving sympathy, the perfect understanding of the unity of purpose existing, the appreciation of work well done, the fellowship, the oneness of kindred spirits, which is all expressed in a single flash of the eye of the beloved Messenger as he greets his faithful people with "Peace to thee!"

Verily, the volumes unwritten are greater than the volumes read.

The greater part of that vast concourse of people brave the piercing blast and bemumbing cold of the day cheerfully, brightly, lovingly to carry the Message throughout the great city lying so near.

It is the Message—the Message—that doth work this miracle. The last verses of the Redeemer's Prayer before His crucifixion was the theme from which the Prophet of God gathered the Message.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, January 18, 1903.

The service was opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 430. Prayer was offered by the General Overseer.

The General Overseer then read from the 17th chapter of St. John, beginning at the 15th verse:

I pray not that Thou shouldest take them from the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the Evil One.

The Ingratitude of Humanity.

Not only is it true that "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," but the more good one may have done for humanity the less certain can one be of gratitude—the more certain of ingratitude.

I receive a number of epistles myself like the one Baron Rothschild showed; but I am happy because I do not belong to the world; and leaving the world—by any route God may permit—has no terrors for me.

I wonder if you all are clear about that? When God made the world, He put it beneath man's feet. "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But man takes the world and puts it in his heart, and on his shoulders. When they get anything from the world they immediately add it to the pack that they carry on their back, and it gets very heavy as they go on, so that the rich man is oftentimes the most burdened man upon the earth.

The Cares of the World.

He will sadly say, as a certain rich man in Chicago said, shortly before his death a few years ago: "Happy! I used to be happy when I was a man working for daily wages. I finished my work, went home and slept soundly—happy. The more I have increased my riches, the more I have increased my cares. Happy!"

It was with a sneer that he said the words.

His sons were dissolute, drunken devils; his daughters gave him much anxiety.

His wife was far from God, would not be controlled, as was publicly revealed when his will was taken into the Probate Court.

Happy? One might be woke up out of his troubled sleep. There was no wife there; no son or daughter there. Some guests, whom he had been entertaining, heard a noise.

Death was feeling for his heart-strings. He was trying to get to the bell to ring for help, when they entered the room.

Ask the Czar of All the Russias if he is happy. He has to send a train ahead with armed men all along the line to guard it lest they should dynamite the railway track. He has to have spies in his palace to watch his own body servants. Happy? Is real, unalloyed and permanent happiness, for a moment do you think, to be found in the world? No, it can only be found in God.

Not of the World.

Not of the world! . . . They are not of the world.

When God made the world, He put it beneath man's feet. "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But man takes the world and puts it in his heart, and on his heart and carries it around. He is troubled as to what other men may think of him. When God made the world, He put it beneath man's feet. "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But man takes the world and puts it in his heart, and on his heart and carries it around.

The more I have increased my riches, the more I have increased my cares. Happy!

But I get, on an average, three of these a week. Happy?

Death was feeling for his heart-strings. He was trying to get to the bell to ring for help, when they entered the room.

You must be happy, Baron Rothschild! said a friend.

"Happy?" said the rich man.

"Look at this: If you do not give the writer one thousand pounds by such a time and in such a way—he has no interest in life; his life does not cost him any fear to give up—he will murder you."

Some guests, whom he had been entertaining, heard a noise.

He was gasping for breath, suffering the most severe agony, and in a few minutes he was dead, and so long as owned or controlled the vast estate and wealth which he had sacrificed everything to accumulate.

Happy?

"You must be happy, Baron Rothschild!" said a friend.

"Happy?" said the rich man.

"Look at this: If you do not give the writer one thousand pounds by such a time and in such a way—he has no interest in life; his life does not cost him any fear to give up—he will murder you."

If one could see into his heart, it would be found to be full of cattle, full of lust, full of unclean desires; but when there is a new creation there, and a man is a new creature in Jesus, the Christ, then he can understand something of the Redeemer's Prayer.

"I am not of the world! . . . They are not of the world."
It is a very remarkable Word.

The Lord's meaning was: "They are not of the world, just in the same way that I am not of the world. They have been regenerated.

They are a feeble band. They will all run away presently although they are brave.

"Peter thinks he can die with Me; but I know he will lead the procession when they all forsake me and flee.

John always keeps clear in his writings that thought, that the Word is the Christ primarily. I suppose that he understood the Christ to be speaking there of Himself.

"Consecrate through Thy Truth," or "in Thy Truth.

"Thy Logos is Truth.

That is what He said of Himself.

"I am the Way, the Truth, the Life.

The Logos is Truth. The Christ is Truth.

Truth Not Defined—It is Infinite.

Truth is not a certain quantity or a certain theory. It is not an operation of certain laws, because you never get to an end of law.

I often smile at men who say: "Now, that is the end." I know better, because above all law there is always a power to suspend law, and to bring in another law.

The law condemns a man to die. "That is the end of it," you say.

No! No! No! No!!!

That is not the end of it.

Law gives to a man the power to suspend the sentence, and to refuse to execute.

There is a sovereignty which no law can ever take away from even man.

Then how can you take it away from God?

People tell me that they got to the end of the Law of God.

"Then," I say, "you have got to the end of God. You can tell me all that His Law means. You can tell me all that He is. "I know you cannot; for His mercy is above the heavens; not only below the heavens, but it is above the highest star beyond the very thought of man."

Truth is too wide for us to comprehend.

God is Too Great for Us to Comprehend.

But it is a delightful thought to remember: "O God, although I never can comprehend Thee, Thou dost comprehend me. Although I cannot know Thy Power, Thy Power protects me."

It is a great deal better to let God have us than for us to imagine that we have God.

I have heard so many people say "I have truth. I have the Holy Spirit." They talk as if they had the Holy Spirit tucked away under their waistcoats.

I would rather say, "The Holy Spirit has me."

It is a very poor thing that you have tucked away under your waistcoat; and it certainly is not God.

Do not get God down to a little thing like that—God somewhere inside the circumference of your skin; and that is all.

Get something larger than that.

"Oh, but I am so full of God today," says one some. It does not take much to fill a thimble.

Ask God to Increase Your Capacity.

You will see what the child at play on the seashore sees, who says, when digging deep holes in the sand, "Now, that is a big thing for the Ocean to fill up."

The tide creeps up; the little child looks.

Not only is the hole filled up with the advancing waters, but the waters have swept in enough sand to level it up.

The Ocean of Love that fills my heart, thank God, extends to every wounded, broken heart throughout all the world, just as the Sun's Light that shines upon us shines upon all.

"Thy Logos is Truth."

Not only is Truth God, but God is Truth.

"Consecrate them in Thy Truth. Make them holy in Thy Truth—in Thy Truth, in My thoughts, in the Word."

Thy Logos is Truth.

"As Thou didst send Me into the world, even so, just in the same way send I them into the world."

That is wonderful.

He was sent to be a Savior, a Deliverer, a Sympathizer, and a Helper, to live and love and die for humanity; and so are we.

We are sent to help even if the help should cost us our lives. In one form or another it must cost us our lives.

We must give life.

You have to put life into it to the very last drop.

"But then I will die," you say.

So you will not.

I sat with my pen in my hand yesterday morning at half-past eleven o'clock, and I had been working from the previous morning at seven, twenty-eight and a half continuous hours at my writing-table, save for a little time for food.

I gave the last drop of strength I had, but God has given me a splendid supply of strength again this glorious Lord's Day morning.

I went to bed, and I got it: for "He giveth His beloved sleep."

I rose in six hours, and was bright and well, strong, fit for anything.

I took a little food and after many hours I went to bed again.

Now, here I am, and I am ready for the Mah-hah-bones and to meet with you in thousands to raise and to God, and to prepare the Zion City Legion of Zion Restoration Host for their work in Chicago today.

There is an Infinite Resource in God.

Give your life and you will get Life Eternal.

He that loseth his life shall lose it.

He that heareth the word of God, and keepeth it, he that believeth on the Son shall have everlasting life.

I sometimes think of the airy humbug that glances at that number. It is not quite up to the standard.

I think "I do not think so very much of this particular number. It is not quite up to the standard."

I sometimes think of the airy humbug that glances at that which has cost my life.

Hours of Work With No Result Seen by the People.

If I strike something while revising my Messages of which I am not quite sure, I make a hunt, and see whether it is right.

I take hunts into forests, dismal swamps and deserts of historical records.

I go through my library. I come back after two hours and a half, and all the result you will see upon the Message is nothing at all. I come to the conclusion I would better strike out that paragraph. That is all I do as the result of that two and a half hours work.

I would have to modify the paragraph so much that I conclude to strike it out, and take it up at another time.
THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

It is well to be careful, especially when you have Dr. Buckley after you. As the Methodist hymn says—

Into a world of devils seat, I tread on hostile ground.

I am on Dr. Buckley's ground and the Methodist hymn well describes it.

He is a smart man, and he would know if I made a blunder about Wesley.

He has read that up.

He is an old Methodist, and is on his own ground there.

Never mind that people do not know how you work.

They never will know: for even when they tell them they cannot know. You cannot know what I go through by my telling you. But God knows, and that is enough.

Jesus Was Holy; He Did Not Need Sanctification.

"As Thou didst send Me into the world, even so," just the same way "sent I them into the world. And for their sakes I pray." (John 17:9.)

Now, the word cannot mean sanctify there, because He was holy. It must mean consecrate, as the margin puts it.

That they themselves also may be sanctified in Truth (or consecrated in Truth). Neither for these only do I pray.

The word pray must always be understood to be as in the declaration of faith in Jesus as Intercessor for man with God?

Martha said, "I know that, whatsoever Thou shalt ask of God, God will give Thee."

Martha of Bethany was not considered to be very much of a theologian. But what apostle ever said, or wrote, a sublimer declaration of faith in Jesus as Intercessor for man with God? It was Martha who said: "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even now I know that, whatsoever Thou shalt ask of God, God will give Thee." (John 11:26.)

Mary was not saying anything. She was weeping.

Martha was attending to business, as usual.

There is Too Much Useless Weeping.

I do not care for this optical waterworks business. There is too much of it.

Some people are always ready to weep.

They have learned to turn it on at very short notice. Some people can weep any time, in deepest sorrow for themselves.

A certain minister was famous for weeping in the pulpit.

After his death they examined his sermons, and he had them marked all over, "Weep here. Weep here." (Laughter.)

Then it all came out how he had wept in the wrong place now and then when his sight became dim.

Get rid of your merely sentimental, self-pitying, optical waterworks.

There will be occasions enough for tears. When you weep, they will be like your heart's blood; they will be worth something.

It is only written twice in the Scripture that "Jesus wept;" that is all.

These were not the only times, doubtless, that He wept. They were perhaps the only times the world saw Him weep.

Weep often for the world when the world does not see you.

Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on Me through their word;

That they may all be one; even as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee. That also may be in Us: that the world may believe that Thou didst send Me.

How Can the World Believe a Daunted Church?

How can the world believe in Zion, if we have those in Zion who are not in unity with us?

You have no business here. Your place is somewhere else.

God will throw you out.

By the very Law of Unity you will go.

The Law of Unity demands the operation of a double force, centrifugal and centripetal, which keeps you on the Divine Road when you are rapidly verging from the Divine Life, in exactly the same way as when a heavy train dashes along at a high speed upon two narrow steel rails.

You will fly off into infinite chaos if you detach yourself from the Body of the Christ.

If you try to be a little unit all to yourself, with a theology that is satisfactory to yourself, and you do not belong to the body, you will go off into space like a little speck of dust.

Your strength is in your unity with the Body.

What are you apart from the Christ but a speck of dust?

If we belong to the Body, we are something; we are a part of —draw our life from it. We do something in unity with it. The body should be healthy.

You do not belong to the body if you stand outside of it.

You only belong to it if you are united with it.

What would you think of my fingers setting themselves up, saying, "I do not belong to you, O John Alexander Dowie, I am an independent organization all by myself."

That independent organization would rot and stink and have to be buried.

When one of your fingers becomes completely or permanently detached from your body it has to be buried quickly.

The Christ Gives Us His Glory.

And the glory which Thou hast given Me, I have given unto them.

What, have we the Christ's glory?

Yes.

How much?

Just as much as you are ready to take of it.

Some of you have precious little Glory of any kind.

What may they be One, even as We are One; I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be perfected into one.

That is it. We need a great deal of perfecting.

We have to be "perfected into one."

We are united, but we have to be a good deal more united.

Some of you have to be riveted on the other side.

Oh yes, you are very much united; you are united to Zion.

You have one foot in Zion, and the other foot is sixty miles from here in a pig- pen. (Laughter.)

There are some who think that they would like to have some interests outside, therefore they straddle.

It is a hard thing for a man to walk with one foot in the pig- pen down in Kentucky, or out in Iowa, among the Gadrareres, and the other foot in Zion, to scramble along like that.

I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be perfected into one: that the world may know that Thou didst send Me, and lovedst them, even as Thou lovedst Me.

Father, that which Thou hast given Me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with Me: that they may behold My glory, which Thou hast given Me: for Thou lovedst Me before the foundation of the world.

A Mystery.

Beloved, there is a mystery here; that Jesus is "the Lamb that hath been slain from the foundation of the world."

I wonder whether He ever went somewhere else and died for sinners.

I know that He went somewhere else and fought for sinners.

He went to hell and rescued myriads.

"He Descended into Hell."

There is no use of your saying that He did not, and yet say that you believe the Apostles' Creed.

"He descended into hell." I have no doubt that there was an interesting time down there when the spirit of the Christ of God appeared there—spotless, pure, omnipotent, and triumphant.

The Devil thought that he could keep Him there, but he could not.

He preached down there, and got a great myriad of miserable spirits out of the bondage of hell; for He "led captivity captive."

I wonder sometimes whether there was not a crucifixion of the Christ somewhere else; because wherever there were sinners, He would go to save them; and there were devils to crucify Him.

He not only came to this world but He went to the lower world.

If the Devil got into any other world, He would go there.

He would seek and find sinners there.

Some of you have precious little Glory of any kind.

He would seek and find sinners there.

Oh yes, you are very much united; you are united to Zion.

I am an independent organization all by myself."

What would you think of my fingers setting themselves up, saying, "I do not belong to you, O John Alexander Dowie, I am an independent organization all by myself."

That independent organization would rot and stink and have to be buried.

When one of your fingers becomes completely or permanently detached from your body it has to be buried quickly.

The Christ Knows the Father.

O Righteous Father, the world knew Thee not, but I knew Thee. Yes, and O Christ of God, that is the advantage You have over all of us.

We did not come from Purity into impurity, and remain pure.
DO YOU KNOW GOD’S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN AXEL DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

[A] What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has one special way of healing in these days, of which men may know and avail themselves?

[B] That is expressly my meaning, and I ask you to believe that you should know God’s Way of Healing, as I have known it for many years.

[A] You should rather ask, Why is God’s Way of the Way in a Person, not in a thing? I will answer you, and you will see that the Way, and the Faith, and the Life, and the Knowledge, and the Holiness, and the Power, are all in a Person, and not in anything else.

[B] Yes, and I will prove it to you. In the first place, God has blessed the Church with a Person, the Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Savior and our Healer. (John 1:14.)

[A] Then I see that you have not only taught me that we should believe in Jesus as the Way, the Truth, and the Life, but also that we should believe in God’s Power and His Healing.

[B] Yes, but you see that you are not in the same position as you are in the world. You are in a position where you can believe in God’s Power and His Healing, and you can believe in the Bible, and in all the things that are contained in it.

Some Interesting Figures Pertaining to the Work of Zion Restoration Host.

It should be remembered that it has not been possible to get reports from all the large number who have taken part in the work of the Zion City Division of Zion Restoration Host since the work was first inaugurated.

It will, however, be interesting to many to examine the figures given below.

They represent the reported work done by those who have gone to Chicago every Lord's Day from Zion City, since the Auditorium services opened September 7, 1902, up to January 4, 1903, covering a period of seventeen Lord's Days.

The smallest number of workers reporting for duty on any Lord's Day was 490.

This was caused by the stormy weather.

Average number of workers reporting for duty each Lord's Day exclusive of officers 598

Average number of homes called at each Lord's Day 23,686

Average number of leaves of Healing distributed each Lord's Day 27,502

Average number of leaves of Healing bought and distributed 1,241

Total number of pieces of literature including Auditorium announcements distributed............ 668,472

Total number of trial subscriptions to leaves of Healing reported............. 303

While the average is not so large as that for the preceding months, it should be borne in mind that this represents the work of those who have gone a distance of forty-two miles in the dead of winter, for the purpose of carrying the Gospel Message from door to door in the face of rain, snow and sleet.

The average number of workers reporting each Lord's Day during the month of January was 482.

Total number of houses called at during the month 68,916

Total number of Restoration Messages given............................................... 26,062

Total number of Announcements and invitation cards given out.............. 63,947

Total number of leaves of Healing bought and distributed........... 1,043

Total number of leaves of Healing sold 352

Total number of trial subscriptions reported............. 112

The Report of the First Week in February.

It should be borne in mind that this represents only the first week in the month of February, which is supposed to be the severest season of the year:

Total number of workers reporting for duty 640

Total number of houses called at 24,118

Total number of Restoration Messages given out.......................... 28,530

Total number of Auditorium Announcements........................................ 26,062

Total number of leaves of Healing bought and distributed........ 1,775

Total number of leaves of Healing sold 233

Total number of trial subscriptions reported 44

While the above figures represent only the work of the Zion City division of Zion Restoration Host, most excellent reports have also been coming to us and are still coming in from various sections of the world.

Within the last few days reports have come to us from seventy-five different points, representing twenty-one different states in the Union and the Dominion of Canada, reporting 4,112 copies of leaves of Healing sold by these faithful workers.

As yet a very small portion of the reports are in for the month of January.

Excellent reports have come to us of work done by Zion Restoration Host in the following-named places:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA-MONTH OF JANUARY, 1903.

Easton, California
Montevideo, Minnesota
Princeton, California
Mantua, Montana
Fresno, California
Dayton, Ohio
San Francisco, California
Dayton, Ohio

New England Division of Zion Restoration Host.

The Host throughout New England is being organized by Overseer Piper, from whom a letter has been received this past week, ordering 100,000 Restoration Messages for the use of the Host at the following-named points: Boston, Lawrence and Worcester, Massachusetts; Providence, Rhode Island; North Springfield, Vermont and Franklin Falls, New Hampshire.

Philadelphia Division.

This division of the Host under the supervision of Elder Hammond, is being thoroughly organized and work being aggressively pushed.

One hundred thousand (100,000) Messages have recently been shipped to this point, and large quantities of leaves of Healing are being sold by them.

Among the individual workers of this division who are especially worthy of personal mention is Deaconess Mary Orr, who sells nearly a hundred copies of... the Leaves every week, besides pursuing her duties as a teacher in Zion Junior schools.  Cincinnati Division.

Under the able direction of Deacon W. D. Yerger, this division of the Host has already been well organized and excellent work is being done.  Deacon Yerger reports forty workers in the field for the month of January.

San Francisco, California, Division.

Under the direction of Elder W. D. Taylor the work at San Francisco and adjacent points will be organized and the work vigorously pushed in a systematic way.  Seattle, Washington, Division.

This division which also includes Tacoma and other adjacent points is being organized and directed by Elder August Ernst.

Vancouver, British Columbia, Division.

This division, which includes Vancouver, Victoria, Whatcom, and several other points, is being organized and directed by Elder R. M. Simmons, who says in a letter under date of February 4th:

- I have been watching the projected New York movement with much interest, and would like to have a hand in it.
- We are pushing on our own little battle however.
- Our recent trip to New Westminster was a great success.
- The city is supposed to have a population of about 8,000.
- We nearly covered the entire place with the work of Zion Restoration Host in one day, and had one of the best services in the afternoon that it has ever been my lot to hold.

Minneapolis, Minnesota, Division.

A recent letter from Elder F. A. Graves, who has just been appointed to take charge of the work at Minneapolis, states that steps are being taken to organize the work at that point, and a large supply of literature has been ordered.

Marinette, Wisconsin, and Menominee, Michigan, Division.

The Host at this point was recently organized by Overseer Mason and placed under the direction of Deacon Stephen Pushpee.

This Division will now be under the general supervision of Elder A. W. McClurkin, who has just been appointed to take charge of that Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

It is expected that in all localities where there is a Zion Gathering, Mission or Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion all officers or persons in charge will see to it that the members of the church are organized for definite Zion Restoration Host work at once.

A little pamphlet, giving instructions as to how best to proceed to organize and direct the work, is now being prepared and will be placed in the hands of every officer and conductor of gatherings throughout the world.

It is to be hoped that no time will be lost or effort spared to organize the forces of Zion for more aggressive work in every community, and that as far as possible all who can arrange to do so will unite with the Host in the great mission which is being planned for New York City next October.

In order that the greatest good may be accomplished, it is important that this mission be made the subject of daily prayer by every member of the Host throughout the world and that a complete consecration be made on the part of all those who participate in the work.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

ARE YOU THOROUGHLY IN EARNEST?
Have You Waked Up?
Is Zion's Work of Restoration a Reality to You?

If so, you must know the important part which LEAVES OF HEALING is playing in that work. You must see something of what it would mean to increase its circulation to ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND YEARLY SUBSCRIBERS this year.

There are not only one hundred thousand, but many hundreds of thousands of people all over the world who would gladly become subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING if they could only be shown the character of the paper. Our experience has taught us this.

GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HUSBAND QUICKLY HEALED OF SICK HEADACHES, GRIP, WOUND, ABSCESS OF THE BRAIN AND DYSPEPSIA—WIFE MIRACULOUSLY DELIVERED OF CHILD AND HEALED OF DISEASE—SON HEALED OF SCROFULA AND SEVERE SCALD.

GOD IS UNTO US A GOD OF DELIVERANCES.

This is a Story of a wonderful succession of Divine deliverances. They were all wrought by God, the Father, in the Name of Jesus, the Christ, His Son, and in the Power of the Holy Spirit.

Husband and father, wife and mother, and the little son, have each a part in this Story.

With praise and thanksgiving to the God of Deliverances they tell of His Goodness, Love and Power.

The Devil attacked him with grip. He grew worse. He was delirious with fever. God instantly delivered him in answer to prayer. Once more he was attacked with the same disease, and again God delivered him from the agonies of dyspepsia.

DEACON JASPER HEMAN DEPEW, WIFE AND SON.

by the same disease, and again God delivered, even before prayer with the laying on of hands.

For five years he suffered the indescribable agonies of dyspepsia. God completely delivered him in answer to the prayer of His Messenger, the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

In answer to prayer God delivered him from the bondage of sin, and made him His own son. God delivered him from the appetite for tobacco.

In answer to prayer God delivered him from sick headache.

Husband and father, early in life, became a victim to terrible sick headaches.

He was a slave to the tobacco habit, a sinner far from God.

God delivered him from the bondage of sin, and made him His own son. God delivered him from the appetite for tobacco.

In answer to prayer God delivered him from sick headache.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

He is with us still, as He promised. "The healing of Christ's seamless dress is by all beds of pain."

This little family trusted Him and they tell how wonderfully He healed them, again and again.

To any who will fulfill the conditions of God's Covenant, He is indeed a God of Deliverances in all things.

The conditions are Repentance of all sins, Confession and Restitution to all those wronged, obedience to God's Laws, and Faith in Him through Jesus, the Christ, His Son.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF DEACON JASPER HEMAN DEPEW.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, February 10, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — It gives me great joy to witness with the thousands throughout the world to the power of God to save all who trust in Him and obey His laws.

I was born and reared in the state of Texas.

From early childhood I had been subjected to sinus headaches caused largely by the use of tobacco and cigarettes.

This same year I was induced to join the Indiana national guard, my parents having moved to Goshen, in that state.

In the fall of 1858 I was honorably discharged and decided I would not reenlist, as I saw where I was going and what the consequence would be.

I became deeply convicted of sin and strove diligently to bring myself into subjection to God's laws.

I forgave all my sins and saved me.

One week later I smoked my last cigar.

I felt convinced that no Christian should smoke.

I prayed to God to deliver me from the appetite for tobacco which was largely hereditary.

This appetite and desire for tobacco went from me at that moment.

In a few days I had forgotten what tobacco tasted like.

However, through no fault of my own, I could not forget the smell.

The following summer I became interested in Zion Literature and decided that I would go to Chicago so as to be able to attend your ministry.

I accordingly secured employment in Chicago, in answer to prayer, and began going to Zion Tabernacle on Stony Island avenue.

I subsequently joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and was baptized.

In January, 1899, I was taken with a severe attack of the grip.

I became delirious with fever.

My wife sent for an Elder.

Elder Daniel Bryant came to see me, and before he prayed with laying on of hands, I was instantly delivered.

My former evil life had left my stomach in a very weak condition.

My former life had left my stomach in a very weak condition.

My former evil life had left my stomach in a very weak condition.

My former evil life had left my stomach in a very weak condition.

I was taken with dyspepsia in 1857 and suffered the horrible terrors of that disease for five years.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"TRADE YE HEREWITH TILL I COME."

These are the Words of Jesus, our Lord, the Christ, the Son of God.

They are a portion of the Parable which He spoke when nigh to Jerusalem, "because they supposed that the Kingdom of God was immediately to appear."

"HE SAID, therefore,"

A certain nobleman went into a Far Country, To Receive for himself a Kingdom, And to Return. And he called Ten Servants of his. And gave them Ten Pounds, And said unto them,

TRADE YE HEREWITH TILL I COME!

In his excellent translation of the Bible, Dr. Robert Young, translates the command in these words:

"DO BUSINESS—TILL I COME!"

Seven years ago tomorrow, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion was organized by us in the City of Chicago, to obey the Divine command,

"DO BUSINESS—TILL I COME!"

Conscious of many imperfections, and seeing as we do, with the fuller knowledge which experience has brought us, how much better the work might have been, we yet have reason to rejoice that Zion has been able to "do business" for her Lord and King in such a manner that we can say, with one of the Servants to whom One of the Ten Pounds had been committed,

Thy Pound, Lord, hath made Five Pounds.

Indeed, the proportion of gain is immensely larger; for, if we had only increased by five times we would number less. than three thousand, whereas the Christian Catholic Church in Zion numbers Many Tens of Thousands of Members all over the world.

WE HAVE done "business" for God in the Church, School, Commercial and Political Departments of Zion.

On every line we have been able to extend the Kingdom of God through a long series of carefully devised, earnestly continued, and uniformly successful operations.

IT IS NO LONGER possible to summarize the work of this Church in the Extension of God's Kingdom, on all these lines in a few paragraphs.

Therefore, as we have already announced, we shall begin a Series of Additions to each issue of Leave of Healing, telling the Story of Zion from week to week in carefully written and beautifully illustrated supplements.

WE HAVE NOT FEARED to use the word "trade" or "business," because we have never for a moment concealed the thought that God's Work was Our Business.

We say, with Jesus,

Wist ye not that I must be aboutMy Father's Business?

In our Discourses of tomorrow, at the Chicago Auditorium, and on Monday, in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, reports of which, God willing, will appear in our next issue, we shall review the Wondrous Period of the First Seven years of our Ecclesiastical Existence, which is just closing.

MEANWHILE it is fitting that we should rejoice to record the fact that the Banner of Zion has been planted by this Church on every Continent and on many Islands of the Sea.

We number more Ministers and Members at the close of the First Seven Years of our existence than the Undivided Methodist Church did at the end of Sixty Years on the American Continent, dating from the origination of the first Methodist Society in England in 1738, and the arrival of George Whitfield, who planted the first Methodist Society in America in the same year.

The Methodist Year Book for 1903 records that the entire number of Methodist members in America, in the year 1800, sixty-one years after the foundation of Methodism, was 61,351.

Our numbers are far in excess of that today.

For some time, however, we have felt unwilling to commit ourselves to exact figures, because for the first few years of our work the records are exceedingly imperfect, and it will take some time to give us a perfectly reliable membership roll.

If we were to number those who are associated with us in perfect sympathy, and who would be in actual fellowship had we enough officers to organize them into Branches, our numbers would be many times greater than they now are in all parts of the world.

When we pass to the Departments of Christian Activity represented by working members and officers, we believe that we are incomparably stronger than the Methodist Churches in America were after One Hundred Years of their existence; for we have now in the field many thousands of effective laborers for God.

The Extent and Strength of the Educational, Commercial and Political Institutions of Zion are without parallel in the history of the Church of God, within the same period.

No matter what any one may say, or think, or write, we make these Declarations to the Glory of God alone; from whom is all the Power which has wrought so effectively in Zion in the extension of His Kingdom.

Unless God had been with us and for us, it would have been impossible for a tithe of what has been wrought to have been even attempted.

The Object Lesson which is now beginning to direct the attention of the entire world, in the Establishment of the City of Zion, has never been attempted, as far as we know, upon any such scale, by the Church of God in any age.

We take no glory in this; for we answer the "Messengers of the Nations" from our heart, in the Words of Inspiration:

Jehovah hath established Zion,
And in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge.

The week now past has been an exceedingly busy one at Headquarters, and we are only able to reach these Editorial Notes within a few hours of going to press on the date of publication.

The work in Distant Lands during the past year has been most wonderful.

We have now received from the Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Australasia, Rev. W. G. Voliva, B. A. B.D., his excellent report for the year just closed, and also most interesting letters from many of our principal ministers in various States of the Australian Commonwealth, and from New Zealand.

These Reports will, however, be digested carefully, and appear in the Story of Zion, to which we have already referred.

The same remark will also apply to most interesting Reports from Europe and other Continents.

The Educational Work of Zion is going forward in Zion City by leaps and bounds, even in the midst of winter.

Details of this work will also appear in the Story of Zion.

"AND NOW we have the Great Joy of announcing that our purpose to raise One Million Dollars in new Subscriptions to Stocks in Zion's various Industries and Institutions within three months has now been realized.

The following Letter from our General Financial Manager, stating this result will interest our readers:

OFFICE GENERAL FINANCIAL MANAGER OF ALL ZION INSTITUTIONS AND INDUSTRIES, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, FEBRUARY 20, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Administration Building, Zion City, Illinois.

Beloved General Overseer—Praise God!

Your call for a Million Dollars has been realized.

One Million and Two Hundred Dollars ($1,000,200) subscriptions to Shares in Zion's various Industries and Institutions have been received since December 1, 1902.

We have been so confident that the people would respond to the few appeals which have been made, that of late we have made very little effort to secure subscriptions.

We are constantly in receipt of letters, not only from members of Zion, but from friends, advising us that as soon as they dispose of properties they will invest in our securities, and locate permanently in Zion City.

Following is an illustration of the spirit indicated by many correspondents:

After stating that he expected to invest several thousand dollars in Zion, he says, "We will keep your city in mind, hoping some day to visit it, and perhaps make it our home, as we hate tobacco and the drink traffic in all its forms." For this and other good reasons, thousands are setting their faces Zionward.

Praying that God will abundantly bless you and your loved ones, I remain, as ever,

Faithfully yours in the Christ's service,

CHARLES J. BARNARD,
General Financial Manager.

As our readers are aware, we have Postponed until March 1st the ten per cent. Advance in the Price of the Stocks. In some cases, where adequate cause can be shown for delay in subscribing, a little longer time will be given.

It is not unlikely that within a few weeks the subscriptions to the stocks of the existing Institutions and Industries will reach a Quarter of a Million Dollars more.

We shall now, however, address ourselves to the further task of raising a capital of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000), in shares of Twenty Dollars ($20) each, for the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, concerning which we have written frequently within the last few weeks.

In this connection we again remind our readers that we shall deliver an Address next Wednesday evening, God willing, at our Zion City General Assembly in Shiloh Tabernacle, on

"GOD'S PLAN FOR ZION IN BUILDING THE CITY OF ZION."

We hope then to have the final draft of the Agreement which will be the basis of this Association, and to lay it before the Gathering, which will doubtless be a very large one, as it concerns all.

GOD WILLING, we shall publish our Address and the Articles of Agreement in our next issue.

We shall be prepared from the first day of March to receive applications for the New Stock.

It is not unlikely that the capital stock for this Association will be subscribed for very rapidly.

Those who wish to come in at the beginning would better get ready.

In this case we shall not invite subscriptions to be paid at a future date; for the money is immediately required.

We shall only allot stock upon applications accompanied by payment in full for each share of stock applied for.

We ask our friends everywhere to pray for us, that we may be able to put this great subject before our people next Wednesday evening in a right manner.

This is the beginning of a vast Building and Manufacturing Enterprise.

We shall doubtless establish many New Industries, under its control, as well as build up the City of Zion.

Through it we may eventually reach out to build other Zion Cities.

Our own people and Christian people throughout the world must have this proposal placed before them in such a manner.
as to enable all to see that it is a Plan of God for the Building of His Cities in many parts of the World, preparatory to the Rebuilding of the City of the Great King at Jerusalem.

WE HAVE BEFORE us a very interesting report from the Manager of Zion Lace Industries, Deacon Arthur Stevenson, sending us many "items of good news."

After reporting that orders are being received far in excess of the present capacity of our Factory, he says:

We are constantly receiving duplicate orders, with instructions to hurry shipments, and we regard this as phenomenal at this season of the year, as the Lace Season has not opened.

Wherever our Lace has been placed, inquiries flow in from other merchants in the same city or town, who have seen our laces in the stores.

They have remarked upon their quality and reasonableness in price, and have sent requests for patterns and prices.

Our Manager also informs us that dry-goods merchants in all parts of the United States are advertising the Zion Laces extensively, and in some cases they are even comparing the Nottingham Laces with the Zion Laces, to the advantage of the latter, as in the following advertisement which appeared in the Genesee (Illinois) Republic recently:

LAMBERT & McBROOM COMPANY.

This week we are showing a handsome line of Laces made at the Zion Lace Works; the laces are far superior to any imported laces of like character and are much lower in price.

We invite you to call and examine the product of the new Zion Lace Works.

We invite your careful inspection.

We have now on display hundreds of pieces of handsome new Embroideries and Insertions, bought direct from the Nottingham Mills. Entirely new patterns, and all marked so low in price that you should lay in a good supply for future use.

Such an advertisement as this will prove to our friends what we have stated already, that the dry-goods merchants throughout the United States consider our Zion Laces to be superior even to the Nottingham Laces of like character.

This is indeed a wonderful position to have attained in our first season as a manufacturer of Lace.

Our Manager remarks, "We can have all the trade we want.

"The one question now is machinery."

Our friends, therefore, who have subscribed for Zion Lace Industries stock will see that it is very much to their advantage to send in the money immediately in payment for their shares, so that we may be able to push on with the purchase and installation of new machinery on a very large scale, and to make arrangements for the purchase of large supplies of yarn.

We are keeping the Factory going as best we can, and all hands are busily at work.

But we need the capital which has been so liberally subscribed, and trust that it will all come in very promptly.

Concerning another department of our Zion Lace Industries, that of Lace Curtains, our Manager writes:

I am having repeated calls for the Lace Curtains, and there is a "sound of abundance of rain" in this line also.

Travelers and commission men of many large firms are eagerly seeking our business.

Only the other day I had a call from a New York commission man who had seen our goods on the counters of a merchant with whom he did business, and he remarked that they were skilfully executed and of much importance to the general dry-good trade.

He said he was in a position to dispose of our entire output, if we would enter into relations with him for that purpose.

I am repeatedly refusing these offers.

God is very good to us and keeps us, but we wish we could go faster.

I am looking forward to working the machines twenty hours a day.

This latter, of course, can only be done by working the employees in two, and sometimes, three shifts.

Such an advertisement as this will prove to our friends that the words which we are now writing will lead our friends in all parts of the world to see the desirability of enabling us to increase our facilities as rapidly as possible.

We do not desire to boast concerning our Success in this great Industry; but, giving all Glory to God, we cannot but rejoice in this Phenomenal Success which compels us to push forward with new machinery and appliances, and to the training of large numbers of employees.

Ere long we shall be able to employ millions of dollars of capital profitably in this Great Enterprise, in which we have at the very beginning taken the lead in the American market.

We trust that the words which we are now writing will lead our friends in all parts of the world to see the desirability of enabling us to increase our facilities as rapidly as possible.

We see clearly that we shall be able to use at least a Million Dollars more capital in this one Industry alone, during the present year.

We wish this money to come, if possible, entirely from our own people, so that Zion may have the entire control and benefit of that, which, humanly speaking, will be one of the Most Profitable and Successful Industries ever established in the United States.
In connection with the Zion Sugar and Confection Association, orders are being received far in excess of our present powers to produce.

We are informed by our Manager, Deacon Rodda, that three orders were offered to him a few days ago for Seventy-five (75) Tons of Candy from three firms in a leading city of Ohio.

The purity and originality of our manufacture is making the Zion Candies to be sought for in every part of the United States, as it is felt that no harm can come to the children who eat them in proper moderation, but the contrary.

It was this desire that we should preserve our own children from injury from poisonous Candies that first led us to think of establishing the Industry.

The success and originality with which our able managers, Deacons Rodda and Cook, have carried out our desires in this respect has established the future of this Association beyond all question.

We shall undoubtedly be able during the year to employ profitably, in the construction of factories and in the increase of machinery and other facilities, a capital of at least a half million dollars ($500,000) in this one Enterprise.

Our Zion Candies, which are most attractively packed in boxes and cans, are being sought for in Europe, Africa, and Australasia, as well as all over the continent of America.

This is one of God's ways in making His work in Zion known to millions of people throughout the world.

Our hearts go forth in gratitude to God for His blessing also upon Zion City General Stores, which are managed so ably by Deacon Hurd Clendinen, and his large force of departmental managers and employees.

These well-conducted Stores challenge the admiration of all who enter them for their excellently arranged stocks and their efficiency in supplying the needs of the many thousands who do all their trading there.

Zion City Fresh Food Supply is also winning golden opinions and doing a wonderful business in connection with this most important department of daily life, on which the health of the City so much depends.

On all sides the present Institutions are growing with an expansion that is most delightful to witness, but which imposes upon us and our able officers many responsibilities.

It is, however, evident that the blessing of God is following every one of the Enterprises already launched, and Zion City is getting splendidly ready for the work of the year.

Ere we pass from these subjects, we ask again that our friends shall pray earnestly concerning the Mighty Enterprise which is about to be launched for the building of the City and the establishment of new manufactures connected therewith.

We have submitted our plans to several very able and successful merchants who are doing business on a large scale in this country.

In every case they have expressed their conviction that Zion Building and Manufacturing Association will not only be a success, but will present a solution for every Christian workman in America of the vexed questions and constant strife caused by the hostile relations of Capital and Labor.

It is a glorious recompense for all our toil in this and all the other departments of Zion to know that God is abundantly blessing the City of Zion and providing work, wages, homes, Christian privileges, educational and social advantages, and protection from the mischiefs and miseries caused by alcohol, nicotine, and all other poisons.

The absence of impure and unclean foods, sewd theaters, and all other kindred abominations, creates conditions where families can be brought up to the glory of God, thousands of whom will aid in Zion work for the salvation, healing and cleansing of millions in all parts of the world, and in raising the standard of Christian life throughout the earth.

We remind our readers that special excursion trains will leave Chicago on Monday morning next, at 9:30 o'clock, reaching Zion City about 11 o'clock.

It is the Seventh Anniversary of the organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Then the Seventh Anniversary Assembly will be held in Shiloh Tabernacle by a special service, which will close about 1 o'clock.

This will give plenty of time for our friends to view the City and the beautiful new subdivision, which has just been opened for selection, in the northwestern portion of the City, and enable them to return to Chicago at 4 o'clock, getting home in good daylight.

Our friends will also remember that a Zion special excursion will leave the North-Western railway depot, Wells street, Chicago, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, to enable many to attend our Lecture that evening in Shiloh Tabernacle on "God's Plan for Zion in Building the City of Zion," to which we have referred in previous Notes.

THOUSANDS OF NEWSPAPERS have given at great length more or less accurate accounts—generally less—of ourself New York City, from October 18th to November 1st next.

The tone of the Press, however, has been for the most part friendly.

And wherein they have erred, it has been in copying the errors of others—probably the misrepresentations of the Chicago Press, which are persistent and malignant at all times.

WE ARE QUIETLY perfecting our preliminary arrangements for the Transportation of the Thousands of Members of the Zion Restoration Host who will accompany us to New York. They will carry the Message of God's Everlasting Covenant and the Glad Tidings of the Restoration of All Things to Every Home in New York City.

WE HAVE MADE a number of very Important Appointments in many Departments during the past few days, and there are many still pending.

We trust to be able to record these fully in our next issue.

NOTWITHSTANDING the fact that during the week our City has been, with all the Land, in the grasp of a Severe Winter, and that the thermometer has registered sometimes as low as Fifteen Degrees below Zero, work has proceeded rapidly upon the Interior Finishing in hundreds of homes.

Arrangements are being made for the laying of the foundations of the New Shiloh Tabernacle and other Important Buildings immediately after the weather becomes suitable for out-of-door work.

WITH JOYFUL HEART, cate with Gratitude to God, we shall stand before the Many Thousands of Zion in Chicago and in Zion City during the coming week, telling the Story of the Past Seven Years, and unfolding our Plans for Zion's Onward Movements in many Departments.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 5:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 16:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
Elijah the Restorer finished one of the most disagreeable and difficult tasks of his ministry Lord's Day afternoon, February 15, 1903.

It was the last of a series of Messages raining powerful, destructive blows upon an organization mighty in numbers, which had in times past been greatly used of God, and within whose walls even now there are many true children of God, but which has fallen away and become a hindrance to the extension of His Kingdom.

In Elijah's Restoration Messages unveiling the apostasies, God's messenger had for some time been dealing with the Methodist Episcopal church.

He had shown the apostolic and prophetic character of John Wesley, its founder, under God, but had faithfully pointed out his errors.

He had with perfect historical truth and fairness traced the history of that organization, which its founder and its conferences had refused to call a "church," and had shown how early the seeds of apostasy had been sown by its being kept as an organic part of the apostate Church of England.

Coming down to the present time, he had pointed out clearly and unmistakably how the leaders of that organization had denied their Lord and gone into the foulest heathenism in the darkness of secret lodges.

With mighty spiritual power and Divine courage he had demolished some of the more recent lies of those who had attempted to defend and bolster up the tottering organization.

As his last message on the subject he closed the indictment by pointing out how the essentials had evaporated, as prophesied by John Wesley, and naught was left but "dung and dross."

All day long and indeed all through the previous night Chicago had been in the grasp of the worst blizzard of the season, which seemed to reach a climax at about the time set for the afternoon meeting.

So intense, however, was the interest in these services that between two and three thousand people braved the storm to come to the Auditorium and hear the Message of God's prophet.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the Invocation.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 227:

The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion, Prepared for Zion's war.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:

His love foretells thy trials;
He knows thine hourly need;
He can with bread of heaven
Thy fainting spirit feed.
Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the secret foe;
For more of thee are watching
Than human eyes can know.
Trust only Christ, thy Captain;
Cease not to watch and pray;
Hear not the treach'rous voices
That lure thy soul astray.
Go forward, Christian soldier,
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished
And heaven is all possessed;
Till Christ Himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by;
Oh, pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the Invocation.

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

Praise.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 227:

The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking To penitential tears;
The Lord Himself, thy leader, Shall all thy foes subdue.

The services were opened by Zion White-robbed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the Processional:

Go forward, Christian soldier,
Beneath His banner true;
The Lord Himself, thy leader,
Shall all thy foes subdue.
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; The third day he rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From henceforth shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, February 11, 1903.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy ox, nor thy ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting. To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The General Overseer read from the 12th chapter of Daniel: And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the Book.

And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to age-during life, and some to shame and age-during contempt.

Goh-lahm' and Alonlan Do Not Mean Without an End in all Cases.

I did not read the word as it is translated there, "eternalizing," for there is no such word either in the Greek or the Hebrew tongue in the places where these words are translated "everlasting."

The Hebraic word "goh-lahm'" and the Greek word "alon," mean an age, and signify a definite rounded period, a cycle.

All that either word means is from age to age, cyclic to age to age; every cycle is complete, and there is no such thing as Eternity, except in God Himself, and in His offspring from whom He imparted it; for we have no life from Him, and in Him, who alone is eternal in Himself.

The Hebrew word here translated "everlasting"—"goh-lahm'"—is used in many cases where it cannot possibly mean "without an end." It is applied in Genesis 6:4 to a period which had ended, referring to "mighty men which were of old;" and similarly in 1 Samuel 27:8 to nations which of old had inhabited certain lands. It is also used in Habakkuk 3:6 in two verses—the temporal as applied to earth, and eternal as applied to God: "The eternal mountains were scattered, the everlasting hills did bow; His ways are everlasting." Now hills do not last forever. But God does, and God's "goh-lahm'" or "alon" is applied to both in the same sentence. This proves conclusively that it is impossible to translate the word as always meaning "without end," although it must always mean that when applied to God, and to all being to whom He has imparted His eternal spiritual nature.

Many more illustrations could be given as to the temporal meaning, as applied to the past or future, of the word "goh-lahm'"—more commonly known as "alon," as translated in the passage I am now expounding; Daniel 12:12, "eternallizing life" and also "everlasting contempt."

One may just as well look fairly at the facts as they really are in God's Word, and this passage is, I believe, correctly translated by one of the greatest Biblical scholars of our time—Dr. Robert Young—in these words—"And the multitude of those sleeping in the dust of the ground do awake, some to age-during, and some to reproaches—to abhorrence age-during."

There is no use living in a fool's paradise or a fool's inferno. We are living in God's great universe, and we are the Eternal Offspring of an Infinitely Wise and Good God.

But we make His love too narrow By false limits of our own; And we magnify His strictness With a zeal He will not own.

For the love of God is broader Than the measure of man's mind; And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind.

A Temporal Offense Cannot Merit Eternal Punishment.

The idea of eternal punishment, of that which must always be in poor fallen man a temporal offense, is abhorrent to the human mind and to every conception of justice.

The essential meaning of justice is that the punishment shall not be greater than the offense.

A little bit of common sense here helps one wonderfully.

The word is used in an indeterminate sense, when you speak of everlasting contempt; from age to age held in contempt.

Having been guilty of contempt, you have placed yourself in contempt, and you are in contempt by having placed yourself in rebellion against law, against the Rule of God.

The olamic or aionian contempt follows, from age to age until its Divine purpose is effected, and the sinner really hates, forsakes, and truly repents in words and by works, of the transgression which provoked the contempt.

To imagine, for one moment, that there is no period to that punishment, would simply be to make the Devil, and evil, and crime eternal, and never to establish the Kingdom of God throughout the Universe.

God would fail in putting away evil, in destroying it utterly.

All Evil Shall Come to an End.

Death and hell shall pass away, for death and hell shall be cast into the lake of fire. There shall be no more death, and there cannot be any more hell.
Since God is true, then "As in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive." That is the Word.

"God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that He might have mercy upon all." That is the Word. At last somewhere there will be futility—for God shall be "All and in all." That would simply be impossible if there were a hell somewhere like an immense pot with a lid upon the top, and angels sitting there to keep those inside from getting out; for if that were so, God, angels, men and devils would have to go through the same old fights over and over again. There is no futility in that; no victory that is Divine and eternal.

The prospect of a vast multitude of the Heavenly Hosts being detailed to watch the Penitentiary of Hell is simply ridiculous—inconceivable. It would be a Guard Duty which no good man or woman who ever lived would like to be detailed close enough to hear the Hopeless Ravings of men and women in all. That would simply be impossible if there were a hell somewhere like an immense pot with a lid upon the top, and angels sitting there to keep those inside from getting out; for if that were so, God, angels, men and devils would have to go through the same old fights over and over again. There is no futility in that; no victory that is Divine and eternal.

What does that mean?

Punishment Is Pruning, Correcting.

Take that word which is translated "punishment" in the words of Jesus in Matthew 25:46. It came from a Greek word meaning pruning. Kolasis (koX&ctk) is the word. The word koladoe (koladoe) never meant anything else in the whole range of Greek literature but, primarily, to prune, and then to prune until a man prunes a tree, to improve it. The gardener prunes a tree, or a vine, and cuts it back, and cuts off branches that it may grow better. It has failed to fulfill his purposes, therefore he cuts it back. He does not kill it. That thought is impossible so long as it has possibility of bringing forth more and better fruit.

The horticulturist may graft another plant into a tree, making a crab-apple tree bear large and sweet apples. The Greek word koladoe never meant anything but to prune, or something with an allied signification. The word is translated punishment, which is a derived mean and must follow the root.

It therefore means Punishment for the Betterment of the Offender, as pruning is for the betterment of the tree. Adam (ad&sm) is the age-to-age pruning. God Almighty will keep at it until He makes some of you wretched crab-apples something better; until He makes miserable and rebellious sinners at last happy and obedient saints. He will put you through the age-to-age process of purification and pruning, keeping at it until man is Restored to Himself and becomes what He planned him to be.

Why Go Through Hell?

What is the use, however, of your having to take ten thousand years to be pruned into the common sense of being good?

Why will you go to hell, and have to go with all the devils that come from the Chicago dives?

Why go to the dirty, filthy, vile prison of hell when you do not need to?

If you will be good God will have mercy upon you; take you to heaven; but if you will have to be punished, you will have only your own wilfully stubborn hearts to blame.

God Almighty has a very sharp pruning-knife, and He will keep at you. He is at you now through me as a Pruner in His Vineyard, and I am doing the best I can with it in its awful condition: for the Churches in the world—those which have controlled the Vineyard for so many centuries gave up pruning long ago, and point with pride to the fruitless vines, luxuriant with leaves and dead wood. God Almighty has many loving pruners who know how and when to use His sharp knife, and He will send them after you.

He will prune you and keep after you until something can be done with you; keep clamorously and aloofly after you. The age-to-age pruning will strip you of all your pride and contemptible meanness, and keep on stripping you, keep on cutting you down, until you bring forth some fruit.

God will keep at you so that He may get you right at last.

Power of the Christ to Save All Men.

That is what the Christ says in His last great prayer. He thanks the Father that He gave Him power over all flesh. Power over how much flesh? Audience—"All flesh." General Overseer—The flesh that lived in Noah's time, the flesh that lives in mine. Audience—"All flesh." General Overseer—He said: "Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that the Son may glorify Thee: even as Thou gavest Him Authority over all flesh, that whatsoever Thou hast given Him, to them He should give Eternal Life," How many did God the Father give to the Christ? Audience—"All." General Overseer—Some flesh? Audience—"All flesh." General Overseer—Then He will give Eternal Life to as many as the Father gave Him—all flesh.

It makes some people happy to think that He will not do that; that He will give Eternal Life to the Baptist, and the Methodist, and somebody else, if they will only live up to the thing; but as for Dowie and his lot, there is no Eternal Life for them. (Laughter.)

I have been relegated to Damnation solemnly by Conferences and Synods, and Unions, because I dare to tell the Truth, and do what I can to help all men, in the way God shows me, to be good on earth and to get safely to heaven.

I am not quite sure that they will not call an Interdenominational Conference to deal with me before the New York Mission in October next.

They have not hurt a hair of my head—such hair as is left. They would not have caused me to lose a wink of sleep. They would better look out for themselves: for like Demetrius of Ephesus, their "craft is in danger"—real danger.

The Reality of Hell for the Disobedient.

Do not misunderstand this. There is judgment.

You cannot live a bad life and go to heaven; you are sure to go to hell. That is where you belong.

Every man will go to his own place, and to his own special department in hell.

The Hell of the Hypocrite the Deepest.

Jesus said concerning the people to whom He had preached and in whose cities He had done His mighty works:

"Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. "They are a better breed than you Hebrews of Chorazin, than you Hebrews of Bethsaida," is the meaning of what He said.

It will be more tolerable in the Day of Judgment for the Tyrians and the Sidonians, who followed the filthiest forms of heathenism, in their ignorance, than for the hypocrites of Jerusalem, Chorazin, Bethsaida and Chicago.

The hell of the ecclesiastical hypocrite is the deepest hell.

The Essential Hypocrisy of the Stage.

The man that loves and makes a lie, that speaks lies, that wears a mask, an actor, is the original meaning of the word hypocrite.

Hypocrites (wuoroptry) in Greek meant an actor who wore a comic or tragic mask. All acting is hypocrisy. The theater is hypocrisy from start to finish. There is not an atom of reality about it. Every actor is a hypocrite by profession. Pretending to be queen or king, or some other great personage! Pretending to be greatly moved! Sometimes they pretend to be the Devil. I do not think that is any pretense. I think they are devils.

(Laughter.) In the opera "Faust," there is Mephistopheles, the devil, and there are very few actors who cannot take that part. because that is just what they for the most part are, very un-dean devils.

Mephistopheles, the devil, Marguerite, the harlot, and Faust, the doctor; is the trinity of that opera.

They can do that well, because it is the kind of hypocrisy that is quite congenial to the stage—the devil, the harlot and the doctor.

There is no honesty about the stage.

It is dishonest in every line of it, dishonest in everything, in the false hair, in the false padding, the cosmetics, and the paint, and the stinking villainy of the whole thing.

All the World Not a Stage.

Dramatists and Actors are hypocrites by profession.

They are ready to tell you that all the world is a stage, and the people only players.

That is just because they do not know any better.

They do not know that there is anybody honest because they are never honest and have no friends of their profession that are.

From day to day they never draw an honest breath.

They pretend to enter into the joys as well as the sorrows and tragic hatred of those whom they imitate.

The stage is foul as when it was born in ancient Greece, as a part of the Worship of Dionysius or Bacchus, in the days of Eschylus, Euripides, and Sophocles.

Its very essence is heathenish, sensual, diabolical.

There is no reality, and because there is no reality in them they come out with their “All the world’s a stage.”

No one can truthfully fasten that upon me.

I never was an actor, and this world is not with the majority but is being a Throcrat.

Every man who is not a Throcrat is in contempt: for it is his duty to obey God.

In Zion We Are Getting People to Be Real.

When we find that any are hypocrites in Zion City, we are just half way between Beer and Babel, between Milwaukee and Chicago, and we give them their choice.

They cannot stay in Zion City and be hypocrites, because that land belongs to God.

When we let them upon it, it is under the terms of a Lease, the basis of which is practically the Ten Commandments.

If you are persistently determined to break any of these Commandments in Zion City, we will take the risks of dumping you down in the middle of the road, and keeping you moving, too.

You cannot do what you like there.

You have to do right or go.

There is no place upon God’s earth where one can more truthfully say that.

People in the world say, “It is my earth.”

It is not so in Zion City.

There is not a foot of land there that belongs to anybody but God.

I saw to that when I founded the city under God.

I let the people have a lease for eleven hundred years, with coventants.

No one has broken these covenants with impunity yet.

No one will violate them, with impunity, God helping me, while I am on top of the ground.

I believe that my successors will keep up the standard.

We must be real people.

If you have a contempt for God you will be under the Eternal contempt, from age to age, and age to age, until you get rid of your infernal contempt.

You will have to be purged of it.

There is only one way to be purged of it.

You will have to repent.

The blood that the Christ shed for your redemption is the only thing that can avail to cleanse you of it.

Death Not the End.

When you die that is not an end of it.

You are to rise up for judgment if you have defied God.

Then you go into Eternal contempt with all those who will not obey God.

They were democrats, plutocrats, etc. They would obey the people or money-bags, but they would not obey God.

In Zion We are Throcrats.

We believe in the rule of God.

We have a right to believe in it.

It is an inalienable right under a Republican form of government, that a man may do all he can to better the form of government.

If you do not know that, you have not read the Constitution and the Declaration of Independance.

One declares it an inalienable right, and the other gives the people to carry it out.

We have the constitutional power, if we can get enough votes, to make it impossible to elect any one in this or any other countries, who will not say, as he stands before the people: “I will stand by the Ten Commandments.

“I will stand by the rule of God.

“I will obey God.

That is being a Throcrat.

Every man who is not a Throcrat is in contempt: for it is his duty to obey God.

Government of the People, by the People and for the People, a Bad Government.

“But I believe in the rule of the people, by the people and for the people,” you may say.

You do?

No you do not.

Not one of you who is an intelligent, honest man, believes in it.

It is the most dishonest creed going.

You say that you believe in the rule of the people, by the people and for the people.

Let me ask you a straight question.

Are the majority of the people in Chicago good or bad?

Voices—Bad.

General Overseer—We will not say that all men in Chicago are liars; but would it not be safe to say that a good working majority are liars?

Audience—Yes.

General Overseer—It would be safe to say that a working majority are beer-drinkers, tobacco-smokers, dirty stinkpots and sots of all kinds. Very well, do you want that majority to rule you?

Audience—No.

General Overseer—Instead of that, you try to get a man who is not with the majority but is better than the majority.

You want him to rule you, and not the majority.

The Referendum a Curse.

One of the biggest humbugs that ever cursed a country is a referendum.

Napoleon III. came in upon the referendum.

He strangled the French Republic, planted his cannon in the streets, and swept them clear.

He took judges, magistrates, senators and legislators and clapped them into prison.

Then he said, “France shall now vote whether I shall be president and emperor;” and stood by with his tongue in his cheek.

Election time came.

France voted—voted with soldiers standing over the ballot-box with drawn bayonets.

No one had the power to say anything.

France was at peace—with a bayonet at her throat.

When the votes came to be counted, of course Napoleon III. had the majority.
That was easy enough because he could stuff the ballot-boxes with as many votes as he liked, just as they do down South where there is a large negro population.

They let the negroes vote, but they count the ballots to suit themselves.

The referendum would be exactly what the fellows who could control the ballots would make it.

The Rule of God is the only right rule.

Rule of the People, by the People and for the People, Selfishness.

Elder Dinius, let me make you the illustration.

Supposing this brother were to say, "My name is Dinius, I believe in the rule of Dinius, by Dinius and for Dinius."

Would he be selfish or unselfish?

Voices—"Selfish."

General Overseer—If I stand up and say: "I believe in the rule of Dowie, by Dowie and for Dowie," then what am I, selfish or unselfish?

You and I.

General Overseer—How many millions of selfish people are there in the United States?

A voice—"Eighty."

General Overseer—That is no just principle of government.

It is all selfish.

I believe in the rule of Dinius by God and for God.

I believe in the rule of John Alexander Dowie by God and for God.

If it had not been that God ruled me I would have gone to the Devil long ago; and I would have smashed things in a wide radius, too.

Which side are you on now?

Audience—"God's side."

General Overseer—Have you got hold of the theocratic idea?

Is it not the Rule of God?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Abraham Lincoln did not mean to be in contempt when he made his famous Gettysburg speech in which he enunciated the principle of a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

He was one of the greatest and wisest of statesmen and rulers.

He thought that he was saying a very good thing, and it was the best thing that he knew at the time.

I am not going to pin my faith to his definitions any more than he would pin his faith to the definitions of his father.

The Blunder of Democracy.

There is no bigger blunder than the blunder of democracy.

The rule of the people by the people and for the people means aionian smash, smash from age to age.

Not until there is the Rule of the People by God and for God, will we have a right principle of government.

That is good, sound, common sense if you would only see it.

God must rule.

Never! It pays rather to die.

Napoleon I. does not reign over any one, because he murdered people.

Charlemagne murdered the people; other great conquerors murdered the people, and they do not reign in a single human heart.

Jesus, the Christ, reigns, because He died for humanity.

There is no power anywhere in killing a man.

I desire to lay down the dictum, supported by good logic and facts, that every man is in aionian Contempt who will not admit the Rule of God.

If you die without admitting the Rule of God and owning God as supreme in your own life, and in the whole land, you are damned.

When you rise up you are going into the Aionian Contempt.

You are a contemptible fellow while you live.

When you wake up you are contemptible, and if you will still keep on being contemptible, you will have to keep on being contemptible from age to age until you learn something.
And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to Everlasting Life, and some to shame and Everlasting Contempt.

"Abhorrence" is the marginal reading.

"The Teachers Shall Shine as the Brightness of the Firmament." And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament.

The marginal reading is, as you see, the literal rendering of the Hebrew word teachers.

The teachers shall shine as the firmament.

That is the thing for which the world is perishing—teachers.

It is true that many are not teachable.

You cannot have teachable people until you have the teachers.

A preacher is not a teacher.

A preacher is the proclaimer of an ascertained fact.

But a didaskalos (didaskalo), a teacher, is one who eliminates truth from error and teaches.

He teaches.

He instructs—puts it in; and then he educates—draws out.

That is the True Principle of Effective Education.

What is the use in getting a thing into a person and then not getting it out?

Double Process in Teaching.

A good teacher goes to humanity, which is very much like a suction pump, and if he knows how to teach he puts in a little water and keeps working at this pump.

Why does he do that?

To get it in, and then he at first gets up dirt and muck.

Keep everlastingly at it.

After he has got out the dirt and muck he gets some clear water if he is patient enough.

Those who are really teachers must be well taught themselves, must know how to teach, and must be sure that they are right, too.

And they that be wise shall shine as the Brightness of the Firmament; and they that turn many to Righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

There is a better translation here by Young:

"And those Teaching do shine as the Brightness of the Expanse, and those justifying the multitude as Stars to the Age and forever."

But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the end of the age; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side.

And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

And I understood not. And I understood not.

I heard the man clothed in linen, which was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by Him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

After the Millennium We Shall Have the Hardest Fight of All.

Perhaps you have not seen it.

However, if you will read into the Book of Revelation you will see that after the Lord comes and the Millennium is finished then will be the greatest fight of all.

And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, And shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them.

And the Devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

At this time the evil powers will endeavor to break the power of God's Holy People.

Satan will be loosed for a season and there will be a Final Conflict.

Then we will have Final Victory.

It is one of the wonderful things, that after the Millennium the biggest fight of all the age will come.

Some people think that the fight will all be over when the Christ comes.

The fight will only be begun.

Do you think that when the Christ comes the rebels will submit to Him?

I must imagine the reply of some Emperor, Caesar, or even President, if a messenger should come to him from the Lord Jesus, the Christ, who had suddenly come to Jerusalem to reign, saying: "You are no longer ruler; step down and go to school for awhile. I am going to send—well, I will send another ruler here."

(Laughter.)

The Christ will send some one, and they will have to obey Him.

Do you think the monarch would obey?

He would be more likely to say, "I have this throne. Who is that miserable Jew at Jerusalem? Let us have a look at him."

I think that there will be a big fight, and I know who will win.

It will not be the kings or emperors.

Establishing the Rule of God by Force.

Do you think that the bosses will yield in America?

Do you think that Carter Harrison would step down and out should a messenger come to him from Mount Zion telling him that he has to hand over the keys to me?

Not he.

He would say, "Who are you?" and appeal to Judge Tuley for an injunction. (Applause and laughter.)

That would not help him any.

The only way that the Rule of God can be established will be by Divine Force.

"If you do not step down and out you will die," the Messenger of the Christ, the King, will say.

It will be done as quick as a flash.

How?

Do you not know of Ananias and Sapphira, who would not do what they were told, and lied?

They died as quick as a flash.

Do you think that God Almighty will leave the unprincipled bosses in power forever?

Not a bit.

He will clean out that whole outfit beyond all question.

It needs cleaning."

Politics and Corruption in the Traction Question.

Who knows what is really being done about the traction question?

Do you not see how quickly the people who wanted to get the railways into their hands have gone down?

They do not want the railways into their hands now.

They do not want municipal ownership.

Not they.

I think that I could tell the reason.

I think that honest men who have any insight could tell the reason.

But you may never be able to prove it.

For a long time they could not prove a thing at St. Louis, although it was quite apparent in the House of Delegates.

One day the combine broke, and they found that almost all had been in it, including the president.

There was corruption everywhere in that city.

A judge who does not fear God will never regard man.

A politician who is ruled by the people will never fear God.

And he will never regard man.

And I heard, but I understood not.

It is Easy to Hear and Not Understand.

Seeing is not believing; hearing is not knowing.

A man may see and not believe at all.

Oh," you say, "I would believe in Divine Healing, if I saw a man who was really healed. If I saw two I would believe more firmly; if I saw a hundred I would believe fully.

Would you?

All who have been healed through faith in Jesus, the Christ, stand. (Thousands rose.)

Did God heal you?

Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—You unbelievers look around and see the people who have been healed.

Now do you believe?

Not you.

Many of you do not believe any more than you did before.

You do not want evidence, you do not want teaching.

You need a new heart, and a right good honest spirit.

Thanks be to God, we have been taught to know that the Christ is the Healer.

General Overseer—Do you who are standing mean to tell
Said the man, "I, O my Jehovah, what shall be the issue of these things? And I said, 'Go thy way, Daniel.'"

I sat in the midst of them and read Calvin's "Institutes." That is why I nearly died of indigestion, for the effects extended to both my spiritual and physical nature. I suffered from dyspepsia.

I was born in Presbyterian Scotland, and I swallowed everything that I read. That is why I nearly died of indigestion, for the effects extended to both my spiritual and physical nature. I suffered from dyspepsia.

I was then a theological student, and I was enabled to read the "Shorter Catechism," will do well to escape death. I was able to read at a very early age. At seven years of age I was solemnly appointed the reader of a Theological Club of ten stinkpots, and they nearly killed me.

I sat in the midst of them and read Calvin's "Institutes." Just think of it! I read every word in those three big volumes, and listened to their discussions, and I came out barely alive! (Laughter.)
The trouble has been that men have taken on board such a load of accumulated ignorance, which is called knowledge, that they cannot understand the truth because of it. However, the teachers shall understand. O God, give many good teachers!

And from the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and shalt stand in thy lot, at the end of the days.

We Shall See Daniel.

When the end of the day is come we shall see Daniel, because the Word is true. That message is true. We will see many others also; for "them that sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him."

A glorious galaxy will come with Jesus! Daniel will stand in his lot. His lot is a very big place. He was an interpreter. He had a pure spirit. He could talk with God.

He could understand the meaning of “Mene, Mene, Tekel Upharsin,” the handwriting upon the wall.

I venture to declare that there will be a great many things that will require the interpretation of a Daniel, even in the Millennium.

I think that the Lord will continue to deal with His people through glorified beings and great and mighty messengers. I believe that Daniel will stand in his lot and interpret the hand of God, as he did before, the wonderful writing.

I do not know that the Scriptures will ever be fully interpreted until he comes to interpret his part.

There Has Never Been Another Like Daniel.

He stood so wonderfully distinct. I have been getting a great deal of personal instruction from Daniel lately. I have been so glad for that Word:

And the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.

You will be there, Daniel. Jesus will bring you with Him, and you will stand in your lot. Daniel is a great interpreter, a great king. May God bless His Word.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Mason and the General Overseer, at the close of which the Choir led the Congregation in chanting the Disciples' Prayer.

After the announcements had been made and the tithes and offerings received, the General Overseer delivered the afternoon address.

UNVEILING THE APOSTASY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH; THE EVAPORATION OF THE ESSENTIALS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer.

I said that I would speak in the closing address on Unveiling the Methodist Apostasy concerning the “Evaporation of the Essentials.”

I am prepared to stand by every word that I have printed in the Series of Messages already delivered. Now I feel it right to draw them to an immediate conclusion, inasmuch as I have only a limited time in this Auditorium for the rest of the work that I ought to do before the end of May, if God spares me.

I have explained to you in the latest issue of Leaves of Healing what I mean by the title of the discourse: "The Evaporation of the Essentials."

I have printed in the latest issue of Leaves of Healing, Volume XII., No. 17, page 533, that famous production of John Wesley, "Thoughts on Methodism," from which these words are quoted.

The text upon which I have preached all these sermons has been that in the 2d Epistle to the Thessalonians, 2d chapter and 3d verse.

TEXT.

Let no man beguile you in any wise; for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition. The "Falling Away" Has Come.

That is the prophecy regarding the Times of the End. There is to be as one of the Signs of the Times, an Apostasy—a Falling Away of a terrible character in the Church of God. It has come.

I have, these last two Lord's Days especially, shown you a terrible fact in the Methodist church, that Truth has evaporated to a terrible extent.

When Truth evaporates it is then that the salt has lost its savor, and it can no longer be salt. It is fit neither for the land nor yet for the dunghill. Men cast it aside, and it is trodden under foot.

A Methodist Lie Nailed.

The astounding lie was told, that the Methodist body had won one million and a half or even two million members. I attacked it.

I collected the facts and figures and proved that the Methodist statisticians could not support the contention.

If one million one hundred thousand had been converted, as their statistics allege, even then what I had always said is true, that the Methodist church murdered its newly-born converts. They were still-born; for I said they were non-existent, and in that I have been strongly supported.

I may say that my discourse had plenty of time to reach New York before Dr. Buckley followed in my train, and wrote his first article.

Then he delivered his speech last Monday, in which he drove home to the Methodist ministers what I had said before, namely, that if it were as Dr. Thompson alleges about 1,100,000 professed conversion in the fall conferences, then their present whereabouts cannot be established.

They were not converted at all. Their whereabouts cannot be established in any church. That entire statement was a lie.

Dr. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, has taken the same position, I am glad to say.

He told his brethren not only that they did not get 2,000,000 converts, but that there were less converts than usual.

He said that in the eastern part of the United States the Methodist church had absolutely declined.

An Alleged Gain in Membership Really a Decline.

A minute examination of the statistics brings out this point, which is not at first apparent, namely: that all the growth was in heathen lands.

The Methodist Year Book for 1903 says (page 34) that the decrease in the home fields for 1902 is 2,001.

The growth in heathen lands has been sharply challenged, and Dr. Thoburn cannot find the alleged converts in India.

In a certain district where converts are set down by the thousands, a vast number of the natives have lapsed into heathenism. The converts cannot be found. What is the cause of the evaporation here? It is

The Evaporation of Spiritual Power.

They cannot bring forth to the birth. Is there anything more provoking and more horrible to contemplate than the women of an entire nation being unable to bring to the birth their babes, and that they are still-born? There is nothing more horrible than the fact that instead of a living babe in every house, there is a dead one which cannot be shown.

It is a monstrosity, perhaps, and must be hurried into spiritual birth.

I challenge them to stand up alongside of Zion, whom they criticise, and I will prove to you as soon as she travails she will bring forth everywhere.

Who hath heard such a thing?
THE EVAPORATION OF THE ESSENTIALS.

Who hath seen such things? Shall a Land be born in one day? Shall a Nation be brought forth at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

This abortion is the mark of a degenerate and shameful church.

Shall! I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith Jehovah. Shall! I that cause to bring forth shut the womb? saith thy God. A woman who is an abortionist is held in contempt and loathing.

Instead of being a mother, she is only a mother of the dead. The Methodist church has reached the place where her sins have made her the mother of the dead.

The power to bring forth living children of God has gone from her. What has evaporated? That which would evaporate in the physical condition of a nation.

Instead of desiring to have children, they hate and desire to murder them.

I charge it upon the Methodist Episcopal church that all the things that John Wesley said were essential, in his prophecy entitled "Thoughts on Methodism," are no longer to be found in that organization.

Methodist Evaporation in Reference to the Bible.

First, he said that the fundamental doctrine of original Methodism was that the Bible is the whole and sole rule of both Christian faith and Christian practice.

I charge it upon them, that the bishops and presiding elders, a very large proportion of the eldership, and an immense proportion of the rich members of the Methodist church are members of the Masonic order.

I charge it upon them that in the Masonic lodge, while there is a Bible upon the altar, it is not open, and that all that is read from the Bible are the passages in the manual from which the Name of the Lord Jesus, the Christ, is cut out.

I charge it, therefore, upon the Methodist church, whose bishops and leading men and elders are Masons, that this first essential—the evaporation of which John Wesley says would prove the decadence and be the precursor of the reduction of Methodism to dung and dross—is lacking.

The Methodist church of today does not hold the Bible to be the whole and sole rule of faith and practice.

They hold the ritual of a secret organization that is essentially unchristian and antichristian to be the rule of faith and practice to such an extent that the Bible is no longer in control.

The Bible Lost to Methodist Homes.

While the Bible is nominal in the church, the Methodists of today are worse off with reference to the Bible, than any generation of Methodists that have preceded them.

For this reason, Dr. Buckley himself says, in the New York Christian Advocate, it is an exaggeration to suppose that one family out of ten reads the Bible and prays.

You cannot, therefore, have a Bible-loving people, whose sole rule of faith and practice is the Bible, where there is no family altar—where the Bible is not produced at the morning and evening sacrifice, and the Word instilled into the minds of the children.

I contend that the Methodist church of today is biblically ignorant even of the very text itself.

They are astounded when a Zion child tells them where to find the teaching in the Word of God upon the subject of Divine Healing.

I will back a ten-year-old Zion child against any bishop in the Methodist church on that question. John Wesley's statement that religion is an Inward Principle, that can never be wrought in us, but by the power of the Holy Spirit, is eternally true.

We receive this and every blessing for the sake of the Christ.

This brings about the great principle: Whosoever shall do the Will of My Father which is in heaven, he is My brother, and sister, and mother.

Methodism Has Become the Narrowest of All the Sects.

If a man is not a Mason, he has no high place in their churches.

John Wesley declared that there should be no pewss in the early Methodist church.

There was no pew rent.

There was no consideration for the rich man as a rich man.

Methodist Discrimination in Regard to Riches and Color.

This is all at an end now.

Today not only are there pews set apart for the rich, but there are churches where, if the poor were to come, they would be almost put out.

The black man is not welcome in the white Methodist church.

He is told where he can find a "nigger church" and to go there.

In Zion, thank God, the black man, the yellow man, the white man, and men of every shade of color, are on one footing.

That is original Methodism; but not present Methodism.

Loss of Discipline in the Methodist Church.

The discipline with which Methodism started in reproving each other and in exhorting each other is entirely gone.

The sixth contention of Mr. Wesley is also realized today—that the disorderly are not punished and the weak are not helped.

Today the weak and the poor fall out without care.

The disorderly are not disciplined.

The two hundred and forty-eighth section of the Methodist discipline is a dead letter.

I quoted that in full last Lord's day, and pointed out to you that the form of religion remains, but the spirit has vanished, as John Wesley said it would.

The worst of all apostasies is a form of godliness without power.

That has been reached in Methodism.

The Danger in Riches.

Year after year as he neared the end, John Wesley saw the danger point.

The Methodists had become abstainers.

They did not traffic in liquor; they did not drink and they did not permit their members to allow property to be used for it in any way.

The original Methodists' hands were clean.

The consequence was they rapidly became rich just as Zion is becoming.

There are no people who are abstemious and careful who will not rapidly become rich.

John Wesley saw the danger.

I see it with our people.

I saw it when I considered this many years ago.

I have been a close student of Methodism and every other form of Denominationalism for many years.

I saw that an organization would find its greatest difficulties from within after a certain time, and not from without.

What are these dangers?

I want to put it in plain language.

They are very few words, and very effective ones.

They are the words of a man who proved himself an apostle, and a prophet of God, John Wesley.

He says: "Is there no way to prevent this, this continuous decension of pure religion?"

"We ought not to forbid people to be diligent and frugal. "We must exhort all Christians to gain all they can, and to save all they can. That is in effect to grow rich."

"What way then, I ask again, can we take that our money may not sink us to the nethermost hell?"

"Zion, listen! We must watch right there; that our prosperity does not sink us to the nethermost hell."

I warn you.

The same rocks that wrecked Methodism would wreck Zion.

How to Escape the Danger.

"What way, I ask again, can we take that our money may not sink us to the nethermost hell?"

"There is one way, and no other under heaven."

"If those who gain all they can, and save all they can, will likewise give all they can, then the more they gain the more they will grow in grace and the more treasure will they lay up in heaven."

Leaves of Healing

The church that does not rob God but gives its tithe and offerings, will be blessed by God materially as well as spiritually.

I consider Zion has gained $25,000,000 within seven years.

I would not think of selling Zion's estate today for that. Nevertheless money will sink us to the nethermost hell unless we who have saved will also give.

The blessing of God will be withdrawn if we do not give.

God? Can you afford to have made hundreds of dollars this year and were so disorderly that Judge Horton, who was the chair of the committee on hospitality, had to rise up in this place and say that their conduct would disgrace a political man or that man for bishop.

The blessing of God will be withdrawn if we do not give. The standard of giving is this, that you have to give until the nethermost hell, of which John Wesley spoke.

You must get out of the nethermost hell, of which John Wesley spoke. You have the form of godliness, you have the church, but no hope for the Methodists as an organization.

There is no Authority in that church. There are vast numbers of genuine Christians, both members and ministers in the Methodist church, but they are groaning under Satanic bondage, and if they do not take care they will die. They will be destroyed by the world.

They are the gall of bitterness in the bonds of iniquity, ready to fight for the mythical Hiram Abiff; and the astounding puerilities and falsehoods of Freemasonry.

Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

A STRANGE quality of inexhaustiveness characterizes the Messages as delivered by the Prophet of God, the strong Messenger, in the early morning meeting of last Lord's Day, February 1, 1903, in Shiloh Tabernacle.

After a Message of power, instinct with life, trembling with potentiality, at the end there is always the sense experienced of the existence of a mighty reserve force held in check; a feeling that the things unsaid are greater than the things said.

For many weeks the Messages have grouped themselves about the Prayer of the Redeemer immediately preceding His crucifixion; and now, when the last few words are dwelt upon, there is borne in upon the spirit the apprehension that the chapter of St. Matthew, beginning with the 5th verse:

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, February 1, 1903.

The General Overseer read again the inspired words in the 17th chapter of St. John, together with a portion of the 6th chapter of St. Matthew, beginning with the 5th verse:

Any little thing that they have done in private, they want some recompense for openly.

I believe that I am speaking with all sincerity when I say that I do not like open recompense for any little private act of kindness which I may have done.

If I have done something, personally, of a kind nature, it is very offensive to me to find that the person upon whom I bestowed the kindness is perpetually talking about what a good thing I did.

In telling it, that person takes away the pleasure of it for me.

If, perhaps privately, standing only in the presence of God, they say some kind words to me, grasping my hand, I appreciate that.

To me the greatest recompense is the fact that some good was done and that God was pleased.

God is pleased with every good thing we ever do or say.

I am glad that it does not say, "My Father who is in heaven shall recompense openly," because it is so much better that the recompense shall come privately and secretly.

The open recompense causes the act to lose something of its flavor, whereas the secret consciousness between God and yourself, and perhaps only one other who is in the matter, is delightful.

The fact that God knows is even more to me, when I say that all the Universe should know.

When the Books are Opened.

It will be better for the open recompense to come when the Books are sealed and opened.

We may be surprised to see the records of some cup of cold water; of some secret prayer known only to God and us alone.

When the Books are opened we will have wonderful stories of what God has wrought through some little deed or word of kindness.

Why can you not wait until the Books are opened for your recompense?

Why do you desire all the world to know what a good man or woman you are, or what a wonderful thing you have done? I would rather be absent even from Praise and Testimony meetings in Zion, because I hear so much about myself there.

For my own part, I never care to have a testimony meeting; and I was used of God for years in Australia in the Ministry of Divine Healing through Faith in Jesus before I held one. I did that to reply to the taunts of an apostate minister who had become an infidel lecturer, and who declared that the Day of Miracles had never been, and that the Bible records were lies. The result was a glorious victory for God and His Truth.

I desire God's people to witness because it helps others.

It does not need witnessing to convince me that God is the Hearer and the Answerer of prayer.

That was settled when I was yet a very little child.

I have never doubted Him.

I Cannot Doubt God, My Father.

I never imagined that God could be anything but the Healer and the Answerer of prayer.

I do not know a time in my life when I ever doubted it. I should as soon think of a kind, good mother not being willing to answer the cry of her little baby as to think that God is not the Healer of His people.
It is perfectly absurd to suppose that a good, Christian mother or father could hear the child cry in pain and not want to help it. It is ridiculous.

If you imagine that an earthly father or mother could be kinder and more tender than the God who gave His only Son to die for sinful man.

You never knew your Father in Heaven if you ever doubted that He would help you when you needed it. Sometimes the only way in which He can help you, though, is with a stick.

That is the time when you want help in a certain way and He gives it to you in another way. Some children cry, and the only help which they ought to get is that which will, Susanna Wesley says, "make them cry softly.

She had nineteen children and when any of them started to cry, they had to cry softly. She taught them that before they were a year old. That can be taught even to a little child in one way only, and that is with a loving severity.

Prayer Not Always Answered as Asked.

Some of you have made a mistake in supposing that when you cry to God you are always to get what you cry for. You must sometimes get something else. That is one reason why you imagine that prayer has not been answered. You did not need the thing for which you asked.

You needed a stick and got it. That was the answer.

Whenever we really need comfort and help for a broken, weary and disappointed heart, then God answers. It is ridiculous to suppose anything else.

That is to say, if you fulfill conditions and pray in faith, you will get an answer. If you do not pray in faith, you cannot expect anything.

Let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord; a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. You are a double-minded man when you are not praying in faith.

You are praying in words, with doubt and fear. That is not faith at all. I paused at the thought that the word "openly" is omitted in the Revision after the words "recompense thee." I am glad that it is.

The sweetest recompense that I have ever had from my fellow man has been in secret. The greatest recompenses that I have ever had from God, have been in secret; in the inmost room of my own spiritual being.

Do not ask open reward, but thank God for the beautiful promise that He will recompense us. There may come a time when God sees that the recompense must not only be secret, but open.

In praying, use not vain repetitions.

There Are Some Repetitions That Are Not Vain.

There is misunderstanding here with some people who imagine that all repetitions are vain. The Word says, "Use not vain repetitions." There are some repetitions that are not vain. There are some repetitions that are good.

For example, how many times does our Lord Jesus, the Christ, say Father, in the 17th chapter of John? Voices—Sixty-two times.

General Overseer—Is that a vain repetition? Voices—"No, sir." General Overseer—There are repetitions that are not vain; while there are others that are vain.

However, the word Father, when you apply it to God, is not vain. You can say it sixty-two times in one prayer, and it is not vain.

I know that because the Christ said it sixty-two times in the Prayer we are still considering.

Some Vain Repetitions.

On the other hand it is a vain repetition to tell God a great many things about Himself. It is a vain repetition to merely repeat words such as are oftentimes repeated to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is repeated over and over and over until one gets sick of it. If you have repented of sin, and asked God to have mercy upon you, believe that He has had mercy upon you and then trust Him.

Do not constantly talk about the sins which He has already forgiven you.

If you have brought forth fruits meet for repentance, and fully rest in the Atoning Sacrifice of the Christ, "the Lamb of God which taketh away the Sin of the World" you may say, "that is all taken away."

When I have forgiven a person, I do not want him to keep on asking me to forgive him the same old thing over and over and over again. I say, "I want you to go away. I forgave you yesterday."

"I forgave all that twenty-four hours ago.

"I do not want to hear any more about that, I have something else to do. Stop that howling. Get away."

That miserable grind of an Episcopal prayer is one of the most vain of all repetitions:

"Lord, have mercy upon us miserable sinners. We have left undone all the things we ought to have done, and have done all the things we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us."

It is like a Tibetan Prayer Wheel. God Almighty is weary of that kind of thing.

If you have repented of a sin, forsaken it, turned to God and asked Him to forgive you, He has forgiven you and takes it all away. What is the use of your bothering any more about it? Go on, now, and do not fall into the same old sin. That is the thing which God wants you to keep out of.

What is the use of your coming to Him and saying, "I am sorry," over and over again, for an old fault, when He forgave you long ago?

Do better.

Get to work and do some good and do not howl perpetually over that miserable old thing.

You can say: Father, Father, Father, Father, a hundred times, and it will never be vain repetition, if you use it in the Spirit of Him who teaches all God's children the common cry of our common need—"Abba! Father!" There may be more prayer in that one word Father, than in all the rest.

No Vain Repetitions in the Word Father.

A little child who loves father and trots along by his side, will say continually, "Father, father, father, father."

Did any of you fathers find that the child said it too often? No, not at all. It is very nice to hear the little child say father and mother. The child has not a big vocabulary, but puts nearly all its little heart and meaning into the one little word, "father!"

Abba, Father!

Oh, how much there is in that. That is not a vain repetition.

You can say it adoringly. You can say it confidentially. There are so many ways in which you can say it: "Father. I thank Thee."

You can say it tenderly: "Father, You are so good, and You told me so kindly and lovingly."

The little child comes, and it can say "father" in so many ways.

I can remember so many things of my dear, departed daughter Esther, which illustrate this.

One day I was sitting in my chair very quietly, and I found her arm around me, and she said, "Father!"

I said, "What is it, dear?"

"Oh nothing," she replied, "I only wanted to love you." She had said only the one word "Father!" There was no need for more. It expressed so much that other added words would only have spoiled.

And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask Him. God Knows Your Need Better Than You Do.

You can give God no information. He sees your need more accurately than you see it yourself.
You diagnose your own case so imperfectly that you believe that your necessity lies somewhere that it does not.
I have often been asked by people to pray for some particular part of their diseased body, and I have said, "No. I am going to pray for an entirely different part. That is where the lesser part of their diseased body, and I have said, "No. I am be the consequences?
I have been thinking especially of the Unspoken and Unrecorded Prayers of Jesus.

Prayer in Secret.
I desire to say just a few words about that, after I close my remarks concerning the 17th chapter.
Prayer is the spirit's sincere desire. Uttered or unexpressed,
The motion of a hidden fire Which trembles in the breast.
Prayer is not necessarily a matter of speech at all. When the Father who sees in secret hears you, it will all be well.

Close the door when you enter into your closet. Get into the inner chamber and close the door.
Sometimes it is a good thing to close the door of the eye so that things that are suggested by sight will not come into your mind.
I have often been asked by people to pray for some particular part of their diseased body, and I have said, "No. I am going to pray for an entirely different part. That is where the lesser part of their diseased body, and I have said, "No. I am
be the consequences?

There are times when that may help you, but sometimes you need to close the door of all the five senses, and commune in spirit, as spirit with spirit, with the Father of Spirits—our Father!
Get inside and talk to God in spirit, apart from all outward sensation.

Let the door be open only when some one is praying whom you can realize has an open door into heaven. Never attempt to join in prayer with a man or woman who is laboriously" composing a prayer, "or with one who is shouting, without thought, a jumble of irreverent nonsense. Shut your ears and pray silently in spirit.

Making Up a Prayer.
When some people begin to pray, I want to close the door of my ears, because it is very offensive to me, and I know it must be to God.
I hear people making up prayers as they go along. There is nothing honest about it.
It is a purely artificial concoction. They are straining after some effect. They are making a speech to God Almighty.
No, that is a mistake; they are making a speech to the audience; they are not talking to God at all.
I remember the first Fourth of July prayer that I heard.
I put my fingers in both my ears, and prayed for that
tea. His interests were in the duty.
I never wanted to hear another of that kind.
This fellow was thanking God Almighty for a party that was doing things like these and I got so disgusted that I said,
"O God, let me pray."
I put my fingers in both my ears, and prayed for that
tea. His interests were in the duty.
I never wanted to hear another of that kind.

I have always thought that it was stealing to tumble that tea into the harbor.

It was not George III.'s tea. George III. did not lose anything by the Bostonians destroying that tea. His interests were in the duty.
This man in Oakland went on and told God Almighty what a wonderful people the Pilgrim Fathers were, which was true in part; but the Pilgrim Fathers did many things that God never approved.
I thank God Almighty that I did not live in the Pilgrim
Fathers' day.
They might have burned me for a wizard; and I would probably at the least have lost my ears and been put i

The other day the Republican boss sent for me, and I went hearing that I was glad the Republicans were in power, he said: "I am a Republican, but I do not praise the Republicans.
"The other day the Republican boss sent for me, and I went to see him.
He said: 'Now, Mr. Hawes, you have done very nicely for our party, and I can get you such and such a position.'
"'Why,' I said, 'that belongs to the Democrats.'
He replied, 'I have a trade with the Democrats, and I can get that position for you. Boss Buckley and I have arranged that. It is worth so many thousand dollars a year, and I divide that with Boss Buckley. He gets so much and I get so much out of your salary, and you get the rest.'"

This fellow was thanking God Almighty for a party that was doing things like these and I got so disgusted that I said,
"O God, let me pray."
I put my fingers in both my ears, and prayed for that weeping fellow who was standing there, and for the many millions of good and bad people in these States, and that they might acknowledge God as King, and I only knew when he had finished by the people rising about me.
There is one thing which you can always do.
You do not need to close the door of your inner chamber by going to an inner chamber in your house.

The PRAYERS OF JESUS. 567
That is the place in which to worship God; in the Temple of your Spirit.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer, after which he said:

Pray that the few words that I have to say shall be spoken helpfully.

Father, that which Thou hast given Me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with Me; that they may behold My glory, which Thou hast given Me: for Thou lovedst Me before the foundation of the world.

O righteous Father, the world knew Thee not, but I knew Thee; and these knew that Thou didst send Me:

And I made known unto them Thy Name, and will make it known: that the Love wherewith I lovedst Me may abide in them, and in me.

The Power of God's Love In Our Spirits.

If this prayer were answered today what a tremendous power it would be—the Father's Love, and the Spirit of the Christ Himself within our spirits.

It ought to be answered in us all, because the Master prayed it, and still prays it.

Let me repeat it—he prays that the Love wherewith the Eternal Father loved Him should be in us, and that He, the Christ Himself, should be in us in Spirit today.

I remember one case that comes to me with tremendous power as I think of the power of the Christ Spirit in me to help God's children into immediate Deliverance from Sin and Sorrow and Sickness.

I never wanted to talk very much about my own personal experience, except in transforming it into action.

God's Love Within Used in Teaching and Healing.

The same summer that I arrived in this country, in 1888, a lady wrote to me something like this:

"Oh, I have been so desirous to get to your mission, Doctor; but the Devil seems to have struck me wherever so as to make it quite impossible!"

She had sprained her feet and shoulders as they thought at first, but it developed into something more serious.

She was completely disabled by a form of rheumatism that made her life utterly miserable. She was a very beautiful character; a lady between fifty and sixty years old.

When I first saw her face, framed as it was in beautiful white hair, it reminded me of the words: "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

She had a beautiful face, and a lovely spirit looked out of the windows of her very expressive eyes.

That morning on which I went to see her, she had come down from her room in a most painful manner.

She could not get to her bed.

She had crawled down upon her knees, and had managed to get on to a sofa and be propped up.

There she was, swathed in many bandages, her face very sweet and beautiful but suffering great pain.

I said to her, "Why is it that you do not get the healing?"

"I do not know," she said.

"I believe all you speak. My daughter has brought me shorthand reports of the entire meeting.

"I wondered that so many of God's children should get healing through Faith in Jesus in your mission, and I, who have known and loved the Lord all my life, can get nothing."

"I sat for a minute quite still, and then I said to her: "If the Lord Jesus were here and said to you, 'Wilt thou be made whole,' what would you say?"

She replied: "I would say, 'I will, gladly.'"

I said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, Whom did you expect to come with me?"

She looked at me and a bright light shone in her face. I had asked God to make her see.

She said, "I asked you to come because I believe that the Christ is with you and in you."

Then I told her that the Christ in me said to her, "Wilt thou be made whole?"

She closed her eyes, and I sat quite still, I think it must have been for two minutes.

After what seemed a long silence, she said, "I say unto Thee, my Lord, I will."

"Will you do what I tell you?" I asked.

She said, "I will."

A Miracle of Healing.

"Then put out those feet."

She put them out, and I took, I do not know how many wrappings off the body and legs, until I got down to the swollen ankles. It was a terrible sight.

I threw off the wrappings from the swollen shoulders and prayed.

Then I said, "In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, rise!" She rose and stood on both her feet.

Then she stretched out her arms, and put them over her head. That was the woman who had crawled down-stairs on her knees only a few minutes before.

Now she walked up and down the room.

Her sister and brother did not know what to say.

They were going to rush to her, I said, "do not do that; let her alone."

She passed through the kitchen, where a very amusing incident occurred with the Chinese cook.

On the Pacific Coast, they employ Chinese servants largely. Their cook was a Christian, who loved them all very much. We heard him chattering away, and presently he made a dash into the room where we were, and in great excitement said: "Don't you know missie walking?"

Then she went up-stairs, and was gone for some time.

"Now," I said, "let us all kneel here and thank God."

After a little time of prayer, I said, "Now it is time for me to go back."

Meanwhile her daughter had wanted to go up-stairs; but I said "No! You be still, Mary."

"Why can you not be still? You have been wanting to rest, and now you can. Be still. Be at rest."

A "Christian Alliance" Devil Cast Out.

"I want to see mother," she said.

I said, "You may in a short time, and meanwhile you may see me. I want to talk to you." I wanted to talk to her, because I wanted to knock a little devil out of her.

It was a nasty little devil.

It was a "Christian Alliance" devil that the entire family had been afflicted with.

She had the notion that people were healed before they were healed, and that they had a right to say that they were healed, when they did not have any healing at all.

She had been trying to instruct her mother in that kind of thing, and to get to her say she was healed by faith, when she knew such a statement to be false and contrary to fact.

I talked to Mary, and she listened very quietly.

At last she said, "Well, Doctor, you must be right, because God hears you."

Presently the carriage was brought around, and we heard footsteps on the stairs.

It was a frame house, and the lady's room was just above us. There was the mother walking down stairs without assistance. She had put on her own boots and had come down-stairs in them.

They were not quite laced up, as it took a few hours for the swelling to go down. However, she had her own boots on, and was fully dressed to go out.

"What are you going to do mother?" asked the astonished Mary.

"Why" her mother replied, "I am going into Oakland with the Doctor." (Laughter.)

She went into Oakland with me and testified in the First Presbyterian church that morning in the presence of hundreds. Her testimony was published in American First Fruits—which was the Record of Our First Year's Harvest in America, and God blessed it.

I realized myself that day that the Christ was in me, and that I had a right to say so. I realize that fact at this moment. If God, by His Spirit, is in you, then you can go in the Power of God with the Message of the Christ, and realize that the Love wherewith God loved Him is in you.

Then by the Eternal Spirit, the Christ will be in you, and you can go with the Message and say: "Peace be to this house."

Then the Christ will speak through you and many will be blessed in spirit, soul and body, in this life and in the life to come. May God grant it. Amen.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God and the Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, be with you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God ever where, forever. Amen.

MISSION OF ELIJAH THE RESTORER
and Zion Restoration Host in New York
by Elder A. F. Lee, Recorder of Zion Restoration Host

The great interest awakened by the announcement of the Mission of Elijah the Restorer and Zion Restoration Host in New York City is manifesting itself on all sides. Large numbers of letters have already been received from members of Zion Restoration Host throughout the country expressing their desire to accompany the General Overseer and the Host on the Special Excursion Trains from Zion City on October 14th. One letter from Spokane, Washington, reads as follows:

"I very much desire to go to New York with the Restoration Host. We are praying that God will send us a buyer for our home here, so that we may locate in Zion City early in the summer. If we do this, we shall certainly, God willing, go with the Host to New York."

Another letter from San Francisco reads as follows:

"I desire to know if I may join the Host in the New York excursion, as I am at present a member of the Restoration Host and am now working under Elder Taylor in San Francisco."

Another letter from a point in Illinois says: "I want to join the Host next October for New York, if you will allow me to do so. As I will have to be very saving, I would like to know as soon as possible, so as to make preparations."

Another writes from Milwaukee, saying: "Is there room for me in the Restoration Host going to New York next October? Kindly answer at once."

Another writes from Gaylord, Michigan, saying: "The General Overseer requests all Zion Restoration Host who desire to join the excursion to New York in October next to communicate with Elder Lee. "I would very much like to join the Excursion, and will, God helping me, spend my whole time and talents in the service for which I am called. Please send me card for application."

And still another reads as follows:

"Noticing in Leaves of Healing that all Zion Restoration Host that intend to go to New York next fall are to fill out cards which are to be obtained from you, I write you for a card, as I intend, the Lord willing, to go with the Host."
MISSION OF ELIJAH III. TO NEW YORK.

Saturday, February 21, 1903.

"I will set apart the money now, and expect to be in Zion City this year, and, if convenient, would like to take the training given the Restoration Host this summer."

We also give herewith a very lengthy and very interesting article which appeared recently in the New York Herald, introducing the signed statement of over seventeen hundred words of the General Overseer. On the whole, it is a very favorable article.

There are many errors in it, as readers of LEAVES OF HEALING will immediately recognize, and it is quite a little overdrawn in some particulars. But we quote without correction simply to show the fair spirit of the very influential paper in which it appears. It is gratifying to note that the attitude of the Press throughout the East, thus far, has been very courteous.

The accompanying cuts are given as they appeared in the New York Herald.

[Special Dispatch to the Herald.]

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, Saturday.—John Alexander Dowie thinks in big figures. He is the Morgan of religion. The idea of "millions" is as concrete in his mind as units in that of the ordinary mind. View his creed as one may, smile at his pretensions, it remains that he is a most remarkable man. When he says he is going to conquer New York and bring the second city of the world under the reign of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, alias himself, he takes himself seriously.

The conquest of Gotham is a little thing compared with what Dowie has planned as an ultimate aim. It is considered a step toward world dominion. That is his dream. He has preached it from his pulpit. He has proclaimed it in his papers. He has voiced it in his prayers.

Less than two years ago Dowie said he would found and build up a great city on the shore of Lake Michigan. It should be his capital until a grander and a greater should arise on the site of the old Jerusalem. This latter work was to be realized after the nations of the earth had acknowledged him as their deliverer.

HOW ZION CITY WAS BUILT.

Outsiders who heard his boast about Zion City scoffed. Even some of his closest confidants were skeptical, but that did not bother Dowie. He set about getting title to a site. He purchased a strip of land here and there another, until the former residents of the place would return and discover that he had come into possession of 6,500 acres of land. Moreover, he had provided the money with which to pay for it. But this is an old story. The thing which strikes new about Zion City is its marvelous growth.

Something more than a year ago there were four hundred inhabitants in the town. Last April, when the story of the development of the place was told through the columns of the Sunday Herald, between four thousand and five thousand faithful Dowieites had settled in Zion City homes. The other day Elijah the Restorer announced from his pulpit and published in his paper that the population has grown to nearly ten thousand. Those who doubt his word have only to visit the place to convince themselves that Dowie is not a mere juggler with figures.

So great has become his flock that it is necessary to refer to Dowie's tabernacle into a larger structure, with accommodations for sixteen thousand worshipers. That work is to be undertaken the coming spring. Illustrating still further the largeness of his plans, Dowie announces that this new tabernacle is to be only a temporary affair, the forerunner of a magnificent marble temple which is some day to be reared at the crowning glory of the whole city.

All this is to show that the man who is to send his saving host to New York is capable of big things. His followers have banished their skepticism.

PILGRIMAGE TO BE PICTURESQUE.

This pilgrimage promises to be the most picturesque affair of its kind since the days of Coxey and his army. It is to be an invasion of peace and good will, but dramatic features will mark it from beginning to end.

According to present expectations there will be five special trains of a dozen or more cars each. The start is to be made from Zion City station and no stop will be made in Chicago. This arrangement means that all the faithful in this part of the country who expect to make the trip must gather at Dowie's capital on the lake shore. Such a plan will insure the pilgrimage a certain prestige before it starts. Anyhow, it will be the most interesting in the brief history of the town.

The trunk line over which the run will be made will have the full complement of cars waiting at the city station. All of these cars will be Pullmans, with all the comforts of the up-to-date service. Others will be tourist cars and the remainder day cars. From the engines will fly the pennants of the Christian Catholic Church. On the side of each car will be tacked a long banner bearing the words the Restoration Host—On to New York.

Dowie says he has been offered a fifty thousand dollar private car for himself and Mrs. Dowie, but he has stated that he will probably use his own car for the trip. Anyhow, he will ride in state befitting the absolute ruler of Zion's domain.

The Zion band is already practicing faithfully for the pilgrimage. The regular staff of instrumental musicians will be augmented for the occasion. The musical director of Zion City has called for volunteers for this organization from among the residents of the capital. It is not understood which of these has been a hundred, thoroughly rehearsed and drilled in the battle songs of the church, will make music en route and herald the arrival of the Host in New York.

GREAT CHOR A FEATURE.

Overshadowing the band in numerical strength will be the surprised choir of six hundred, which makes music at the Tabernacle meetings. This is the famous band of vocalists that has attracted thousands of outsiders to Dowie's big meetings at Madison Square Garden. In Madison Square Garden it will intone hymns and exultant choruses with the fervor of men and women moved by religious zeal. Choir and band will take part in the two mile street parade which is contemplated as a feature of the invasion.

Dowie will be at the head of the marching column, probably accompanied by Mrs. Dowie, a band of refinement, culture and experience.

The deacons and other leading officials of the church will have conspicuous places. The main body of the marchers will be constituted of the rank and file of communicants, who will attest their faith in song as they move along. Present plans contemplate a line of march at least two miles long.

The three big Sunday meetings at Madison Square Garden, of course, will be the main features of the religious work in New York. These meetings will precede the tremendous pilgrimage, which is to be given next week in Zion City Tabernacle. Dowie will lead, the surprised choir will sing, the orchestra will play, and the audience will roll out in mighty chorus the refrain of the hymn.

While these Sunday meetings will be the grand rallying points, it is expected and planned that the effective work for the regeneration of New York and the upbuilding of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion shall be done at the street meetings. Leaders of Seventies and Captains of Tens will have charge of these meetings. It is the purpose to have services on nearly two thousand street corners during the investment of the city.

CITY WILL BE MAPPED.

Dowie and his lieutenants are not going into this feature of the work blindly. Great maps of New York are being printed for exhibition and instruction here. Detailed study will be made of the topography of the city, so that the leaders may be thoroughly familiar with the ground beforehand. With the aid of the maps the city will be subdivided into districts, and each Band of Seventy will have its own field to look after. Means of communication also will be closely scrutinized, so that the hosts may reach the respective districts with the greatest possible economy of time and not find themselves overlapping each other's territory.

Similar care will be taken that there shall be no confusion when the thousands of invaders reach the city. Military tactics will be employed in handling the army of marchers. Drills will be undertaken from time to time at Zion City the coming summer, and by the middle of October, when the invasion begins, the rank and file will know well what is expected of them.

It is understood the entire city is to be subdivided into sections of twelve blocks, with each single block in charge of a man to be designated therefor. A thorough house-to-house canvass will then be made, the Zionite ringing the bell, giving the accepted salutation, "Peace be to this house..." and leaving tracts setting forth the belief of the Church and the testimony of members who claim to have been healed themselves or to have had relatives or friends recovered from sickness by the grace of Dowie's prayers. No attempt will be made to go into the houses or apartments unless a welcome is extended by the inmates thereof. If such should be the case, the evangelist should be greeted with the statement, *"Peace be with you," which is the How do you do? invariably said by the faithful in Zion City.

The self-control of the Zionite will be found to be his strongest weapon of defense. He will not be provoked to any outward expression of anger, no matter to what test his patience may be put.
Vancouver, British Columbia.
Zion Tabernacle, 144 Hastings Street, West.
Elders-in-charge, Rev. R. M. Simmons, Grove Crescent, Vancouver.
Services—Sunday, 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 7:30 p.m.; Tuesday 6 p.m.; Saturday 8 p.m.

CONSECRATION in Zion is a very practical thing.
It means not only that we sing in the words of the old hymn "Consecrate me now to Thy service, Lord, by the power of grace divine," but it means, better than all, that we live what we sing.

Consecration is the giving of one’s self, one’s time, one’s talent, indeed all, to God.

We take pleasure in printing the following report of the All-Night with God in Vancouver.

We desire to call special attention to the practical consecration which was made at that service.

The result was that 100 new subscriptions to Leaves of Healing were obtained.

When our readers sing the hymn mentioned above, they remember this practical consecration in Vancouver and praise their sincerity by increasing the subscription list to Leaves of Healing.

My Dear Elder:—Zion in Vancouver, British Columbia, began their fourth All-Night with God, with an informal reception in Zion Tabernacle from 9 o’clock to 10 o’clock, p.m., followed by a prayer and praise service from 10 o’clock to 10:30.

We then delivered a discourse on "God’s Balance." The public audience was dismissed at 11:45 p.m., and only Christians invited to remain.

The communion service was then begun.

When all had been consecrated by this glorious service, a practical consecration service was held, which resulted in increasing our weekly supply of Leaves of Healing for Zion Restoration work from 300 to 400 copies.

At 11 o’clock we adjourned for refreshments, which were served in the Tabernacle.
At 12 o’clock a.m. of the new year, services were resumed and continued with increasing interest until nearly 7 o’clock, when the Benediction was pronounced.

All were agreed that this, the last and best attended of all the All-Night meetings held in Vancouver, was by far the best.

As incident of the meeting worthy of note was the healing of defective eyesight.

Alexander Speck, a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, asked for prayer for his eyes, stating that he had what the doctors called astigmatism, and was compelled to wear special glasses.

When he reached home the next morning he found that his glasses no longer suited his eyes.
He took them off, and to his great joy, found that Zion's God had healed and healed.
It was learned afterward that a number of other healings took place at that same time.

Last Lord's Day between twenty and twenty-five Restorations took an early car for New Westminster, twenty miles from Vancouver.

They visited nearly the entire city, distributing about 500 copies of Leaves of Healing, and more than 1,000 Messages, and invited the people to a public service to be held in the Assembly Hall in the afternoon.

We joined the Host at 2 o’clock and went with them to the hall, where we were greeted by a good audience, who listened for two hours to the Gospel of Divine Healing, presented from the Scriptures and witnessed to by living witnesses who had been healed.

We all returned to Vancouver in time for the evening service, rejoicing as the Seventies of old.

We learn that we stirred the city that one of the apostate preachers is going to deliver a lecture next Lord’s Day evening on "The Lord Jesus, the Prophet Elijah and the Baptist versus John Alexander Dowie, the self-assured Elijah and Reformer."

The same man has, for two seasons past, disturbed our open-air meetings held in New Westminster, for which he has received a severe rebuke.

We have sent him the latest copy of the Leaves, and also written him a courteous letter, warning him of his folly and asking him to consider Acts 5:39, and 2 Kings 14:9, 10.

We entered the New Year with deeper consecration, greater love to God, clearer conception of Zion’s great work, and full purpose of heart to be true to our consecration, as expressed in Zion’s consecration song, "I’ll go where you want me to go, dear Lord," etc.

Praying God’s continued blessing upon all of Zion, I remain, Faithfully yours in Jesus, R. M. Simmons.

The following testimonies were given at the above meeting:
REV. R. M. SIMMONS, Grove Crescent.—"I desire to record my gratitude to God, this morning, for His keeping power during the last year; for the many blessings we have received in our home; for the joy I have of being an Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion; for the joy of having a wife who is in full sympathy with the work in all its branches; for the joy we had of attending the Feast of Tabernacles in Zion City last summer and for the joy of being able to witness the baptism of our two eldest boys, and their acceptance as members in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.
I also thank God for the wonderful deliverance I received from a very severe attack of rheumatism."

Perhaps every day, for many weeks, even extending into months, I would feel the effects more or less, until last it developed into an acute attack, and my left arm and shoulder became helpless.

I suffered most excruciating pain.

How, however, God for the very remarkable healings we have had in our family.

My wife was healed on two occasions of very severe attacks of illness.
NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD. 573

Saturday, February 21, 1915.

"I also thank God for healing our baby.

"She caught a very severe cold.

"We prayed for her but did not get an immediate answer on account of opposition in our home.

"I thank God that when we made wrongs right He immediately delivered her.

"I met with a very severe accident last summer.

"I was knocked down and almost fainted.

"People near by rushed to my assistance, but I prayed and was enabled to go to work and work all afternoon.

"When I returned home at night my leg was badly swollen, and in the morning I almost fainted because of the pain.

"I thank God that when my wife prayed I was delivered.

MRS. TUFTS, 76 Seymour Street.—"I thank God for the great spiritual blessings which I have received during the past year.

"Since coming into Zion I understand the Word of God as never before.

"I receive great blessings from all the services, and new thoughts are presented which were never brought to my mind before.

"I also thank God for His wonderful healing power.

"He healed me of a very sore back.

"I was perfectly delivered in answer to prayer, and the pain has never returned.

"My little boy has been wonderfully blessed and healed through the prayers of Zion.

"He was perfectly delivered, through the prayer of Elder Simmons, from a very sore arm caused from vaccination.

"From a human point of view it looked as though he would lose his arm.

"Had I not accepted this teaching I think I would have lost it.

"I thank God that when I asked Elder Simmons to pray for him I got perfect assurance that God was willing to protect and deliver.

"I thank God for the blessings I have received spiritually, and also for blessing my family.

"I am here tonight without any opposition, for which I thank God last year.

"I thank God for the teaching of Zion, and I desire to be more faithful in the future than ever before.

"I go out in saloon Seventy work and God greatly blesses me.

"By His grace I will go forward."

SHIRL BUZZELLE.—"I am glad that I can testify to God's blessings, spiritually, physically and financially.

"We have had a great many marked healings in our family during the past year.

"We have also had a great many blessings through obedience to God and to those who have the rule over us.

"I have found that it pays to obey those who have the rule over us, and that when we confess our sins we get forgiveness.

"I thank God for Zion teaching more and more every day.

"I thank God especially for the last issue of Leaves of Healing, wherein the General Overseer says, 'The man who builds his house on a rock digs deep.'

"I never realized what that meant before.

"It means giving up sin, giving up tobacco, giving up whisky and many other things which I have had to abandon.

"It also means that we have to clean up and pay our debts.

"I thought that I never could work with Zion Restoration House.

"Now it is no cross to rap at the doors and say, loud enough to be heard, 'Peace be to this house.'

"I used to say it in a whisper.

"I thank God that we are privileged to visit the homes of its people and distribute the literature, and thus help in the extension of the Kingdom of God.

"There are very few who refuse to take the Leaves.

"I have learned that when we go into Restoration work we have to crucify self.

"God has blessed us in many ways in our home.

"On the 4th of March last there was a baby born to us without the aid of a doctor.

"The baby before the last died at childbirth, and my wife lingered between life and death for five or six days, under the care of a doctor.

"We did not know how to trust God for healings then.

"Some thought that we were going to have the same trouble this time, but we put ourselves in God's hands and trusted entirely in Him, and He delivered.

"I thank God for Zion.

WILLIAM WAXWICH.—"I have much for which to praise and thank God.

"I was a hard old sinner for a number of years.

"Now I thank God that He took away from me the appetite for chewing and smoking tobacco, also the appetite for liquor, and He delivered me from secret societies when I obeyed Him in repentance and obedience.

"I was a Freemason and attended a great many lodges and banquets.

"I thank God that He has delivered me from the desire for those things.

"I also thank Him for the wonderful blessings which I have received spiritually.

"By His help I am going forward.

"Jesus is the Rock on which I stand, a shelter in the time of storm.

"You have only to say that you belong to Zion if you want a fight, for 'all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.'

"I intend, by the help of God, to continue to go forward, for it says in the Scripture that the man who takes hold of the plow and looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of Heaven.

"I desire to hold fast to my crown, that no one takes it away.

"Elder Simmons—You were a member of the Church of England?

WITNESS.—"Yes.

"Elder Simmons—You were sprinkled when a baby?

WITNESS.—"Yes.

"Elder Simmons—You were confirmed in your sins?

WITNESS.—"Yes.

"Elder Simmons—You stayed in them?

WITNESS.—"Yes.

"Elder Simmons—You were a member of the Freemasons and drank wine and whisky, smoked and was a bad fellow in general?

WITNESS.—"Yes.

"Elder Simmons—Is that your apron on the wall which you gave up when you gave yourself to God?

WITNESS.—"Yes, when I came into Zion I could hardly walk, now I can run.

ALEX SPECK, New Westminster, British Columbia.—"I thank God that He gave me strength to be here to add my testimony with those of our brothers and sisters.

"I am very thankful to God that He has lifted me from the depths where I had been sinning against God and against myself.

"I used tobacco for over twenty-five years and God instantly delivered me from the evil habit.

"I have never had the least desire for using it since.

"We had a son born in our home on August 14th without the aid of a doctor.

"I thank God for the many blessings which we have received.

"I feel that I ought to repent for not doing as much as I should have done to extend the Kingdom of God through distributing Leaves of Healing.

"I have made up my mind to do what I can from this time forward.

"I have the Leaves in my store window in New Westminster and give quite a number of them away.

MRS. W. J. WATERS, 656 Westminster avenue.—"I have so much to thank God for.

"It is impossible for me to tell one-quarter of what God has done for me.

"Nine and a half years ago, in Sydney, Australia, I first heard of Jesus as the Savior and Healer.

"This heard how wonderfully the people had been saved and healed through the teaching of Dr. Dowie.

"My mother was healed of cancer when the doctors had given her only three weeks more to live.

"At the same time my husband was striving to get deliverance from the whisky and tobacco habits.

"He tried in his own strength and failed.

"He did not know God, but was told that if he would repent and put his trust in God, He would help him to overcome these habits.

"I thank God that when he trusted in Him he got the victory.

"I thank God that I was a member of Zion and was in a very delicate state of health.

"I was suffering from diseases too numerous to mention.

"I had scarcely enough strength to walk across a room, but when I put my trust in God, He most wonderfully strengthened me.

"I did not get instantaneous healing, it came gradually.

"God has blessed us with four strong, healthy children since then, all born without the aid of a doctor.

"This last year has been a most wonderful year to us.

"It has been a year of trials and trouble, but, thank God, through Jesus we have had the victory.

"Last summer I was taken very ill, but when we confessed our sins and promised to do right, I thank God that through the prayer of Elder Simmons I was wonderfully raised up.

"Three months ago I was taken very ill again.

"I sinned against my body by overwork.

"When Mrs. Simmons came to see me I was suffering great pain.

"When she laid hands on me and prayed, in about three hours the pain was gone.

"I thank God also for healing our little girl.

"Some five weeks ago she fell down-stairs and dislocated her arm at the elbow.

"I feel that I ought to repent for not doing as much as I should have done to extend the Kingdom of God.

LEAVES OF HEALING. Saturday, February 11, 1905.

We rejoice in the blessings which God is giving to the faithful labors of Elder and Evangelist Reed.

We have received the following from them:

DEAR ELDER:—We are glad to report to you some of the blessings which attend the work of Zion in this place.

Our All-Night meeting was well attended, and greatly blessed of God.

God is giving great blessing to those who are doing Zion Restoration work in salvation, healing and cleansing of the people.

Two Restorationists found a sick man on South Washington street; they taught him the way of repentance and faith, and then prayed. He was out at work and left for them two subscriptions for LEAVES OF HEALING. Some who were very angry before they received the Messages are now receiving LEAVES OF HEALING every week.

Every afternoon we go from house to house with the Message of Peace, often leaving a sample copy of LEAVES.

A man who has been reading Zion Literature, has been delivered from tobacco and had found work.

A man who has been reading Zion Literature for over a year, but continued eating swine's flesh, was taken very sick with erysipelas. Evangelist Reed prayed that he might find work elsewhere.

The next day he found other work.

"My hands were very sore and swollen from husking corn.

"After Elder Reed prayed for them they were not sore any more.

"I have been healed through prayer of a bruised foot.

"At the All-Night meeting, when I prayed Zion's Prayer of Consecration, I was healed of a hard pain in my head.

"I thank God for the teaching I have received through Zion.

"A young man in the Salvation Army had heard Zion teaching, but was persuaded to turn away from it.

"He was taken sick and could not get prayer answered.

"He went back to medicine.

"Prayer was offered for him in Zion, that he would repent and put away medicine.

"The next week he came to our home and confessed his sin, gave up his medicine, and promised to obey God.

"We prayed the Prayer of Faith and God healed him.

"He told us that he had not been well a day since he turned away from Zion.

"When people go to the Devil they get the Devil's pay.

"Mrs. BARKETT, Oak street, Wichita.—"I was a sinner when Zion found me, sick and needy.

"I repented, and Evangelist Reed prayed for me.

"I did fourteen washings the next week, and did not feel tired.

"I had no fire, and I took cold, and the asthma came back.

"I could scarcely breathe.

"I called on Evangelist Reed to pray, and I was helped immediately.

"I walked over twenty blocks the same night.

"I am so thankful for the Light which has come to me through Zion teaching.

One who attends the Salvation Army meetings testified as follows:—"I have felt such a desire in my heart to partake of the Lord's Supper, and we do not have this blessing in the Salvation Army.

"This was the Last Supper of the Christ with His disciples, and He told them as often as they did this to remember His death till He come.

"We knew what I desired, for I did not know that they were going to have Communion here today, and I am thankful I am here."

MRS. CHAMBERS, 516 South Main street, Wichita.—"I came to Elder Reed's home one night to inquire, but when I entered I was so struck with the beauty of Zion teaching that 1 should not work in the packing-house any more.

"I was without home and had but few friends.

"My wife was sick, and the doctors told me that I would never be healed until 1 was operated on.

"I had a large lump on my eye.

"I promised Elder and Evangelist Reed that I would obey them.

"They took me in and taught me repentance.

"I confessed my sins, and God forgave me.

"I then wrote to the General Overseer to pray for me.

"Now the lump on my eye has entirely gone.

"I am married and have a home.

"I thank God for leading me to Zion people.

"I thank Elder and Evangelist Reed and their children for all that they have done.

"Mrs. Reed has been like a mother to me."

NELLIE DOMME, West Side, Wichita.—"I was a captain of the Salvation Army for six years.

"One time my people wrote me a letter and enclosed a stamp.

"I bought something to eat with it.

"I often went hungry.

"I did not always have the assurance that I was saved, yet 1 worked to have others saved.

"I fell away into sin and lost my health.

"Since I have come to Zion I have found the Gospel which takes in the body as well as the spirit.

"I cannot get along without meeting with Zion people.

"It strengthens me for the battles of the week.

"I was all broken down in my body when I came to Elder Reed's home for help.

"Since obeying Zion teaching as far as I have light, God has healed me.

"My little girl was very sick.

"Her temperature was 101 ½.

"When I repented and confessed my sin, God healed her.

"May God bless this teaching to others as He has to me."

ALBERTA R. REED, 231 South Water street, Wichita.—"I praise the Lord for healing me of diphtheria when we were living in Chicago.

"I stayed from school only two weeks.

"Since then we came to Kansas.

"When we returned from the Feast of Tabernacles in Topeka, the Devil gave me a hard cold and I couldn't get the victory.

"I coughed and raised phlegm for about two months, getting weaker all the time.

"The Devil said: 'You have consumption.'

"We wouldn't listen to him.

"We knew the Lord would heal any disease if we trusted Him.

"I was so weak that I could hardly walk and I could eat but little food.

"Papa was away and we couldn't find out why we didn't get the victory, only I was cross.

"I wrote to Overseer Jane Dowie.

"She wrote me such a sweet letter.

"It made me cry.

"I wanted so much to be good, and I knew God would keep me when she prayed, and He did.

"She prayed at 11 o'clock on Lord's Day, and God kept me good; but I had to resist the Devil all the time, and praise the Lord.

"When the Devil wanted me to cough, I would say I wouldn't do it, and I would say, 'Praise the Lord.'"

"The Devil left me and I was well.
"The Lord keeps me so that I have not lost one day at school."

William Reed, 234 South Water street. — "I thank the Lord for keeping me from being killed.

*I was riding horseback and my saddle broke.
*I fell under the horse and asked God not to let him step on me.
*I got loose.
*I was all bruised up and had a chill.
*My leg was hurt badly and I was lame.
*God saved my life and made me well, and keeps me well.
*I have never tasted any medicine in my life and am never going to.
*I like to sell LEAVES OF HEALING every Saturday from house to house.
*I am all for God and Zion, even if I am a little boy."

Danville, Kentucky.

Deacon-in-charge, William B. Holmes, 57 Maple avenue.

It was with pleasure that we read the following report from Deacon Holmes.

We are glad that Zion is getting a foothold in Kentucky, the state which has been so cursed, and has been such a terrible curse to the whole world, because of the manufacture of Liquid Fire and Distilled Damnation.

We read with pleasure the following statement, that Danville has had "no licensed saloons for more than twenty-five years."

We call attention to the fact that Zion City has no saloons, either licensed or otherwise, and not only this, but there is no liquor allowed within the city.

We have no drunkards, no people who defile themselves with tobacco or unclean foods, no theaters, no gambling places, no brothels and no secret society lodges.

When the gospel of the Kingdom of God as taught in Zion is believed and obeyed in Kentucky the entire state will not only be freed from the liquor curse, but from all the above-mentioned sins which are defiling humanity and undermining the principles of good government.

May God hasten the day!

My Dear Elder: — As requested I send you a report from Zion in Danville, Kentucky.

Zion literature has been circulated in Danville since the first of 1898.

However, the fruit from the seed-sowing has not been large, and yet to the praise of God we can report that twenty-seven names have been enrolled on our list as members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We have had some wonderful healings and God has blessed us in many ways.

Most of our number can gladly report blessings received through giving tithes and offerings.

George West, now of Zion City, was at home a month including Christmas holidays, and helped us much.

He gave us faithful teaching of the Word of God, and most inspiring reports of the wonderful condition of things in Zion City.

He went to Stanford, ten miles away and held three services, and also to Maywood, four miles farther, and held one service.

We have services regularly, Lord's Day morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon and on Thursday night.

Danville is about the prettiest place in the state.

It has a great deal of wealth and is proud of its morality.

It has had no licensed saloons for more than twenty-five years.

It is a college town, full of churches and most every one attends.

We find it one of the hardest of fields for reaping a harvest for God, and yet one of the most inspiring, for it is surely a city set on a hill.

When the Christian Catholic Church in Zion gets its own building here and gets strong enough to have an Elder, its light will shine forth far and wide.

May God hasten the day.

Will not all Zion pray for us that we may be faithful, watching, waiting and working "Till He come?"

Yours in the Christ,

W. B. Holmes.

Do you put it in a bank, mortgage, bonds or even stock paying only three, four, five and six per cent?

Why not let it earn eight or nine per cent.

"What Is that In Thine Hand?"

"And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, Jehovah hath not appeared unto thee. And Jehovah said unto him, What is that in thine hand?"

God has laid a solemn responsibility upon His people in Zion in these Latter Days—these Times of the Restoration of All Things.

God has given His people untold blessings in Zion. He has given them the truth of the Everlasting Gospel, the Messages of Elijah the Restorer. He will require much at their hands.

They must do their part to warn the wicked of the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord, or the blood of those who might have been saved will be upon their heads.

To those who would excuse themselves, saying that none will harken, God says, "What is that in THINE HAND?"

God has placed LEAVES OF HEALING in the hands of His people in these times.

He is making it a mightier instrument in warning the erring and sinful and turning them to Him, than those who send it forth will ever know.

Let them use what He has placed in their hands and leave the results with Him.

Pray, work, and plan to increase the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING, so that the Watchword of Zion Printing and Publishing House for 1903 may be attained.

The Watchword of Zion Printing and Publishing House for 1903 is ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND Yearly Subscribers to "Leaves of Healing"

Every one of the following persons received the wonderful blessings described, through reading LEAVES OF HEALING. Their stories can be found in the Volume and Number of LEAVES OF HEALING indicated. This is but a very small part of the list, which would fill every page of this paper many times.

"JEHOVAH HATH BROUGHT FORTH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS:
COME, AND LET US DECLARE IN ZION THE WORK OF JEHOVAH OUR GOD."

ANNIVERSARY WEEK, although it comes in the middle of our severe American Winter, is ever a Time of Blessing in Zion.

THE GREAT GATHERINGS in the Chicago Auditorium and in Shiloh Tabernacle, during the first four days of the week, aggregated an attendance of about 19,000.

That one fact will show the zeal and devotion of the people; for many of these attendants were the same persons who came out again and again.

A Full Report appears in this issue, pages 583 to 592 of the Anniversary Sermon in the Chicago Auditorium: "WHAT HATH GOD WROUGHT!"

There is also a report on pages 593 to 597 of the gathering in Shiloh Tabernacle on the following morning, Monday, February 23d, when more than four thousand persons assembled to praise God with united heart and voice for the Wonders He has wrought in these Seven Years.

In addition to these assemblies other gatherings were held which many thousands attended, as on the Lord's Day Morning at 6:30, and at the various regular meetings of that day, especially when Overseer Jane Dowie officiated at the Afternoon Gathering of over two thousand five hundred.

If we put the entire gatherings of all the Anniversary Week together in these two places—Shiloh Tabernacle and the Chicago Auditorium—it is probable that the attendances would reach over twenty thousand.
In addition to this, it must be remembered that regular meetings are held in all the Zion Tabernacles in and around Chicago; and Sectional Gatherings of Zion Restoration Host, under their respective Seventy leaders; and large numbers of prayer meetings are held in many places in Zion City, and also in Chicago.

So great and numerous are the activities of Zion at Headquarters and its surroundings, that it would be easier to under-estimate than to over-estimate the zeal, and love, and patience, and perseverance of Zion's workers, not least of these being the more than 600 Zion Dorcas workers, Maternity Deaconesses, etc., in and around Chicago.

We trust that the records of the Meetings held during the week will be blessed to the readers of this paper. They have cost us much toil to prepare for publication as well as to do our part of the work therein reported.

Owing to this fact and the many other pressing duties of the week we have been compelled to delay the first issue of the First Part of the Story of Zion, although we have made very many preparations for it.

When we came to review the last published Story of Zion in February, 1900, we found that so many changes had been made, and that the whole field of Zion's operations had so widened from 1900 to 1903, that we found it would be necessary to rewrite and rearrange the whole of what had been published.

We also find that the work of preparing the detailed information from Zion's many departments and distant branches will take much time.

Therefore, as we wish to illustrate the story with numerous photoengravings, both of persons and places, and interiors and exteriors of Tabernacles, factories, stores, offices, etc., we think it best not to begin the publication of this work until early in April.

This will, we trust, give us good time to present the Story of Zion in a more perfect form, and enable us to gather it all together when finished, into a permanent volume, for which there has long been a demand.

One of the great features of the present issue is the presentation to Zion throughout the world of "God's Plan in Building Zion City."

The gathering in Shiloh Tabernacle last Wednesday night, at which this discourse was delivered, was indeed a wonderful assembly. More than four thousand persons followed the proceedings with intense interest, which lasted from 8 o'clock, p. m., until nearly midnight, our Chicago friends leaving on their return train at 12:15 a. m.

Never in all our experience have we seen an assembly of so many thousands listen with such intelligent interest to the reading of such a long legal document as that which appears in this issue on pages 606 to 607, containing the Articles of Agreement of the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, which comes into existence on Monday, March 2d.

To follow that reading with our long address seemed a most daring act.

But the people were equal to it, and we were greatly cheered by the overflowing enthusiasm and appreciation with which our remarks were greeted from first to last.

Never did Leader have a more splendid and loyal following than we have in the City of Zion, and indeed in Zion all over the world, at this hour!

Our love for the noble people, which has grown throughout all the years, who have so faithfully served God under our direction, was deepened and increased in no ordinary degree by their determination to carry out what we showed them to be God's plan. Zion sees God's plan, not only in the building of this City, but in preparing for the building of other Zion cities, and for a world-wide commerce under the flag of Zion, which will eventually bring the Zion communities in every continent into a closer business as well as ecclesiastical relationship.

We think that our enemies will be somewhat slow to attack the plan as Utopian or visionary, in view of what has already been done, and what is being done daily in Zion.

We should think it folly, did we not know the plan is all of God, and is in perfect accordance with His Revealed Word and with the demands of our office as Elijah the restorer in these glorious beginnings of the times of restoration of all things.

We bespeak for the Articles of Agreement and for the discourse the earnest consideration of all the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout America, and every continent and island where the banner of Zion has been planted.

No other plan will ever effectually carry out the Divine Purposes, or even provide a way by which God can fulfill.
His loving intentions towards His people than the Union this Plan demands.

Unity, perfect, continuous and complete is an essential prerequisite to Divine Blessing, and that Unity must extend to every detail of life.

THROUGH the loving kindness of our God, we were able to announce our ability, with our dear wife and son, to subscribe for one-tenth of the entire amount necessary to launch the New Association, for which we have called.

WE ARE ALSO DELIGHTED to know that money has been coming to Zion City for weeks, and is now on deposit in Zion City Bank, awaiting the issue of the Articles of Agreement and the share certificates.

WE SHALL HAVE the pleasure of paying, on Monday, the second day of March, the Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) subscribed.

All intending shareholders are reminded that the Cash must accompany their Applications for Shares, as it is needed at once for the extension of our Lumber-yards, Planing Mill, Power, Plumbing, Lighting and Heating Supply House, Brick-yards, etc.

In short, it is absolutely necessary that the month of March should see immense supplies of building material on the ground in Zion City.

Our supply, although large, is small compared to what it should be when building operations begin upon the large scale that they undoubtedly will whenever "the frost is out of the ground."

This, as our readers know, may possibly take place before the first of April.

WE HAVE NO DOUBT whatever that the Half Million Dollars called for will be supplied very rapidly, and we again say that we should love to see these shares of twenty dollars each taken up to a very large extent by our own workmen in Zion.

They would then not only get the seven per cent. interest on the investment itself, with the contingent interest of one per cent. per annum for three years, until it reaches a permanency of ten per cent. per annum; but they would also be entitled as shareholders and workmen to no less than ninety per cent. of the Surplus Profits, the other ten going to God's Storehouse in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

ALL SHAREHOLDERS, including those who are not members of the Church, will be entitled to the interest we have spoken of, and the twenty per cent. of the Surplus Profits.

Workmen who are not shareholders at all will get good wages, and be entitled, in common with all their fellow workmen who are "in good standing" as members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to Seventy per cent. of the Surplus Profits.

Our intense desire has been to make this, first of all, an attractive and permanently profitable Association for our own immediate workers in Zion City.

But it is also one of very great value to investors who are interested in Zion, whether members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion or not.

Their applications will be received, and in all probability accepted.

But we again say that those who wish to make these applications should act promptly.

As our readers will remember, we have been giving them information from week to week concerning the Subscription of One Million Dollars to Shares in Zion's present Industries and Institutions, for which we called before the end of February.

As this issue of the Leaves of Healing is published upon the last day of February, and these Notes are also prepared on the morning of the last day, we think it well to inform our readers that the Subscriptions still continue and that they amount, up to date, to One Million Eighty Thousand Dollars ($1,080,000).

They will probably reach One Million Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,300,000) within the next few days, as stated by our General Financial Manager in the following very satisfactory letter:

OFFICE GENERAL FINANCIAL MANAGER OF ALL ZION INSTITUTIONS AND INDUSTRIES,
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, FEBRUARY 27, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, GENERAL OVERSEER OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION, ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.

Beloved General Overseer:

Since my letter of February 20th, the subscriptions to shares in Zion's various Industries and Institutions have been increased to $1,080,000; $25,500 of this amount having been subscribed for within the last two days; and if certain parties could have sold valuable properties, the subscription list would have been increased to $1,300,000.

Several gentlemen, whose subscriptions are not included in the above amount, and who are endeavoring to realize on their properties, intend to invest large amounts in Zion's Shares between this and June 1st.

Many farmers who realize only a small percentage on their investments, are endeavoring to sell their farms, with a view of locating in Zion City, and purchasing shares.

We have received many inquiries regarding the Building and Manufacturing Association, and many persons are anxiously waiting for the opportunity of subscribing for shares in that Association.

We all rejoice in the fact that you have more than realized your expectations in the million-dollar subscription fund.

May God continue to bless you in all of your undertakings.

With hearty Christian love, I am,

Faithfully yours in the Christ's service,

Charles J. Barnard,
General Financial Manager.

... Plans and Arrangements for the Great Mission in the Madison Square Garden, New York, next October, are going quietly forward, and Deacon J. F. Peters has just returned from New York with very satisfactory information concerning many important matters, which we do not think it well to yet make publicly known.

It is clear, now that the first excitement of the announcement has passed away, and that tens of thousands of the Citizens of New York will attend the Mission; and that even the Secular Press anticipates great public interest and even great results.

One recent Cartoon in the New York World, which is no less than fifteen inches wide, has a very graphic representation of Zion Restoration Host routing Hosts of Demons, who are in full Retreat, have abandoned their Artillery, and have left on the Battle Ground their Cards, Dice, Whisky Bottles and Gambling Machinery generally.

May this imaginative Artist be a true Prophet.

Following up our warning to Chicago of last Lord's Day in the Auditorium, we have determined to speak tomorrow on "Chicago: its Sins and Sorrows."

More and more terrible are the depths to which multitudes in Chicago are sinking, and the needs of the hour demand more and more Sympathetic and Earnest Effort to carry the Gospel of the Kingdom of God continually to that vast and greatly neglected Population.

Tens, and sometimes even Hundreds, of Thousands are reached by the Immense Numbers of Zion Restoration Host, who Two by Two and in Well Organized Seventies visit large Sections of the City from Street to Street and from House to House every Lord's Day with Christ's Message—"Peace Be to This House!"

We trust that the words that we may be permitted to speak tomorrow shall be especially accompanied with Divine Power.

Opening the Eighth Year of our Ministry as General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and in the third year of our Ministry as Elijah the Restorer, we cry aloud to Zion in all the Earth, and to all who love God and seek the welfare of men,

Brethren, pray for us.

What do you do with money?

Do you put it in a bank, mortgage, bonds or even stock paying only three, four, five and six per cent? Why not let it earn eight or nine per cent.

The acknowledged unprecedented success of Zion City warrants us in advising you to increase your holdings in Zion Securities, or become an investor in the excellent interest-earning and dividend-paying shares in Zion's Institutions and Industries.

Offered during January at the par value of $100 each, but applications received after February 1st will require a premium of $10 (or $110 per share) on all shares which have reached the 9 per cent. earning period.

Some such shares now pay nine per cent., but lace shares will soon increase to an earning power of twelve per cent. per annum. These will be at a premium after the date mentioned.

Applications should be made before February 1st and remittance can be sent, or payment made, on or before March 1, 1903.

One can readily see that these Securities pay better than farm or town property.

Better than notes or mortgages.

Better than stocks or bonds.

Better than bank or savings accounts.

Send applications at once, or write for particulars, to

Deacon Daniel Sloan, Manager,
Zion Securities and Investments,
Zion Administration Building. ZION CITY, ILLINOIS
Woe unto thee, Chicago! If the mighty works that have been done in thee had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. Multitudes have been saved and healed. Woe unto you ministers! Woe unto you lawyers! Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! The day will come when you will say: "Would God that we had treated Zion as we ought." . . . I say woe unto you, Chicago! You shall be cast down to hell, if you do not repent. You are creating a hell in Chicago. . . . I say it lovingly. . . . Woe unto you. You are coming right down to the dung and the dross of citizenship. . . . God has a controversy with you. You cannot oppress God's people and prosper. Your false prophets in the press and pulpit are your deceivers. They care nothing for you. In the day of your anguish they will abandon you. There is time for you to seek God, and do right, but it must be done quickly. May God bring Chicago to repentance.

"WOE UNTO YOU, CHICAGO!"

It was the Voice of the Prophet of God.

It was the Voice of him who for nearly six years as a lone champion of God and Truth, and for Seven Years as General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, had been calling the people of that great and wicked city to repentance.

It was the Voice of him whom press and pulpit and thousands of other bitter enemies had tried in vain, for nearly thirteen years, to drive out of the city, ruin or kill.

It was the Voice of the Prophet Foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, that Strong Messenger of the Times of the End, who has proclaimed his great prophetic mission amidst the hisses, the jeers, the sneers and the derision of that city.

It was a Voice whose inspired utterance had stilled the jeers of derision, and forced the city to hear, respectfully, if fearfully, the Message of God.

"Woe unto you, Chicago!"

It was the Voice of him who, at the close of the first Seven Years' work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, spoke, as its General Overseer, to the city in which it had its birth.

It was with these works in mind, and the indifference, hostility and persecution with which they were received by Chicago that the Prophet of God uttered the solemn and significant warning: "Woe unto you, Chicago!"

The Message, of which this warning was a part, was delivered in the Chicago Auditorium Lord's Day afternoon, February 22, 1903, on the occasion of the Seventh Anniversary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

It was a Message also of Thanksgiving to God for the wonders He had wrought; of a very brief account of the growth of the Church, and of most joyous prospect, as the Messenger of God looked, with prophetic eye, into the future of the Church which God had founded through his ministry.

About four thousand people in that great building, even more in Shiloh Tabernacle, at Zion City, and tens upon tens of thousands throughout the world rejoiced with their General Overseer on this Seventh Anniversary of the natual day of the Church which had meant to them Salvation from sin, Healing of disease, Cleansing from impurity of every kind, Keeping from evil, sickness and death, and Blessings innumerable for the individual, for the home, for the business, and for whole communities.

The Spirit of that great work was present in that gathering, and made Himself deeply felt in the spirits of all.

In making the announcements, before the Message, the General Overseer spoke concerning the mayoralty contest now being waged in the city of Chicago.

His words, although few, have already made their power felt in the camps of the municipal politicians.

The General Overseer declared himself and Zion unalterably and unequivocally opposed to the candidacy of Mr. Darrow, told how Zion had kept the Republican party out of power in Chicago for a number of years, and intimated that if the Republicans would cut loose from Lorimer and nominate John M. Harlan, Zion might cast her 15,000 votes for him.

Since he spoke Mr. Darrow has retired from the contest.

The words of the man of God were received with great enthusiasm, even by strangers, who were present in large numbers at this meeting.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, February 22, 1903.

Services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL

Rejoice, all ye believers,
And let your lights appear;
The evening is advancing,
And darkernight is near.
The Bridegroom is arising,
And soon He draweth nigh;
Up, pray, and watch, and wrestle;
At midnight comes the cry.
See that your lamps are burning,
Replenish them with oil;
Look now for your salvation,
The end of earthly toil.
The watchers on the mountain
Proclaim the Bridegroom near;
Go meet Him as He cometh,
With alleluias clear.
Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear;
Arise, Thou Son so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere.
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We praised, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
That brings us unto Thee.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.
God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy saving Health among all the nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.
All then joined in singing Hymn No. 213:
Jesus shall reign wheresoe'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run,
His Kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

RECITATION OF CREED.
The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
Ascended into heaven;
Sitteth at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
Believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The communion of saints;
The forgiveness of sins;
The resurrection of the body,
And life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.
The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the choir and congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:
Thou shalt bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them:
For I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy:
Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy beast, nor anything that is thine.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother:
That thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house:
Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another:
Even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDANUM.
We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou didst bear Thine own cross and Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

The people love the House of God, and, after long days of weather, when it was about sixteen degrees below zero, we had about 1,500 people present, of whom about fifty were women.
We have the largest Wednesday night prayer meeting in the world perhaps.
We sometimes have as many as 4,000 people present.
I have seen nearly 5,000 there on a Wednesday night.
We very seldom go below 1,500 people.
Last Wednesday night, during a spell of exceedingly cold weather, when it was about sixteen degrees below zero, we had about 1,500 people present, of whom about fifty were women.
Where will you find, week after week, months after month, and now year after year, similar conditions and similar results?
The people love the House of God, and, after long days of toil in all departments, they love to gather in Shiloh Tabernacle for Praise, Prayer, Teaching, Communion with God, and to hear concerning the progress of His work in Zion throughout the world.

We had a prayer-meeting this morning at 6:30 o'clock where we had between two and three thousand.

This meeting next Wednesday night is an especial one.

I have a lecture to deliver concerning God's Plan for building the City of Zion.

Problems Solved Not Theorizing.

We have been working out some problems. There are many people who belong to the "highly cultivated classes" who, from their lofty dignity, look down upon Zion in their impudence, as something too crude for "scientific" or "philosophic" minds of their high "academic standing."

We, too, may say that we have been in the halls of learning, and learned of them there.

We, too, have many among us who have earned their degrees.

But that does not matter to these foolish people.

University undergraduates even, aping the bad manners of their seniors, look upon Zion with great loftiness.

And right spirit to Zion City.

We, too, may say that we have been in the halls of learning, and learned of them there.

We, too, have many among us who have earned their degrees.

That alone proves their impudence and ignorance.

Some of these would-be great sociologists, who have been saying theories, say they "take no stock in Zion."

Doubtless that is true, for if they did, they would have some money. (Laughter.)

They might have many things if they had taken stock in Zion, but they have only theories.

Theories are good, if they are workable, or if they are working out.

These sociologists are like a cage of chattering monkeys in a zoo; they chatter and chatter about "economics," etc., and leave entirely out of their consideration, God and the Ten Commandments, and the Everlasting Covenants and Gospel, the operations of the Holy Spirit, and the Kingship of the Christ, the Savior of all men, the Son of God—the Living Leader of His people who has "all authority" in heaven and on earth.

They do not know what they are talking about.

They have never solved one problem. Never!

They might get some real help, if they came out in a humble and right spirit to Zion City.

They might see some problems being solved, and some that are already solved.

The New Zion Building and Manufacturing Association.

Next Wednesday night we will launch a new Association.

Whenever we want to do anything in connection with business in Zion we make an agreement, call it an association and launch it, and it goes on all right.

We are going to build the city ourselves this year, without the aid of contractors from outside.

Therefore we are launching Zion Building and Manufacturing Association.

I desire to say a word to Christian workmen whether you belong to Zion or not.

We want only Christian workmen, because we have less trouble with them.

We have no use for non-Christian workmen, unless they are going to be sober and obey the regulations under which we all live in Zion City.

We are willing to employ good workmen in all trades, even if they are not Zion people, and I even if they are not Christians, should there not be enough of these two classes.

We have no prejudice against, or in favor of, a workman because he is a Union man, but we do not receive or employ him as such, or recognize the right of his Union to interfere in Zion's affairs.

Hundreds of Union men worked last year alongside of non-union men without a minute's trouble, and, should we need them and they act as they have done, we should on no account discriminate against them.

The Folly of Trades Unions.

Unionists, why do you not get some sense?

Why can you not see that Trades Unionism is a big failure?

Every workman in each particular grade of a trade is to receive, under Union rules, the same wages, no matter what his work is.

What does that mean?

It means that the clever artisan is dragged down to the level of the poor one.

He can get no more, no matter how he works.

That will never do.

You know that that thing cannot stand, and all men in the same grades are not equal.

That rule is tolerated only in good times; and in bad times—well, capital is supreme.

I Do Not Believe in This Fight Between Capital and Labor.

I believe that capital and labor should go hand in hand.

I will tell you where the capital should come from.

It should come from the men who create it.

Who provides me with my capital for employment in Zion's enterprises?

Principally, our own people, men who have earned it by their own labor or skill in one form or another; and only in a few cases by inheritance from the laborers of past generations.

I do not hesitate to say that the capital of Zion City today has been created by honest labor.

One-half of it, at least, has been created since Zion was founded seven years ago.

It comes from the savings of men who use neither liquor nor tobacco, nor eat pig, nor attend Lodges or Unions, nor gamble in any form, nor attend theatres, nor live unclean lives, nor read unclean books, nor squabble for place or power in politics, etc. They attend diligently to their daily business that will are kind and considerate to each other, love their wives, families and homes, and do what they can to extend the Kingdom of God.

The Man or Woman Who Eats Swine's Flesh Is a Fool.

You pig eaters do not know what you are doing.

You are eating cholera, trichinosis, tuberculosis, cancer and all kinds of muck.

You are eating the dirtiest muck that ever cursed this earth.

There is no pig in Zion.

You cannot get any pig there.

Labor Creates Capital.

I am intensely desirous in this new Association of handing over to the shareholders what belongs to them—a fair interest on their money at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, with a contingent interest, if earned, of one per cent. per annum for three years, until the guaranteed interest is ten per cent. per annum.

Then, after providing for the safety of the Association and the ultimate refunding of the capital in twenty years, we will hand over to Zion what belongs to her.

That is ten per cent. of the surplus.

Then we will hand over the remaining ninety per cent. of the entire surplus every six months as follows—twenty per cent. to shareholders and seventy per cent. to workmen.

I am so glad that I have been able to get to that point where we can form an association with that definite agreement.

I should like you to come out and hear my lecture Wednesday night.

Quit fooling around with the unions and get to work and be a cooperator with me, all ye who are Christians belonging to the constructive trades, in a business which has a sound footing, and which will probably have at least one thousand private houses to build in Zion City this year—not less than two million dollars in value—besides public buildings which will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Everything is pretty sound in Zion City.

It is a sound, strong, healthy community in every way.

I should like to see the men there who have sociological theories in their heads—who have a lot of theories that will not work—come out this year and see what God had wrought through this people.

The Theory That Leaves God Almighty Out is Worthless.

That is where you allumble in your sociology.

You have a society and a sociological condition with God Almighty left out.

That will not do.

God Almighty does not propose to be left out in His own
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, February 21, 1903

Keep out, and may God grant that the best man may get the nomination.

I do not think that Zion will vote the Democratic ticket this time.

I know that she will not vote the Darrow ticket.

I know that she will not vote for a Lorimer man.

Therefore it seems to me that you would better get the ablest and most honest man there is in the field and, if that is John Harlan, let him go in and see what he can do.

You surely know that if there ever was a time that this city needed an honest man it is now.

That is no Tuley. (Laughter and applause.)

Dishonesty Brings Eventual Defeat.

It does not pay to tell Tuleys. I have not heard of that unjust judge lately.

He was going to be the whole thing, but I knew that he would not be nominated after a few words that I said here.

You will see that the Democrats do not dare to put him up.

He would meet with the most thorough defeat, and he deserves it.

He is an unjust judge who said that a man was a liar and a cheat, and yet gave him the verdict in a matter where the whole issue was a question of honest dealings.

Zion takes a very keen interest in Chicago.

Why do you not give a good man an opportunity?

Why does not the city for once break away from all mean partisans and compel one of the two dominant parties to choose as a candidate some man that will do right?

Is it not time? (Applause.)

I Want to See a Good Man Mayor of Chicago.

We have many thousands of people here in Chicago still, and when the day of voting comes I think it highly probable 15,000 will vote as I say on the day preceding the election.

One politician put the number of our voting strength at 25,000 the other day.

He was wrong.

Only once did I get 35,000 people to vote my way in Chicago.

I will not tell you that story now, nor how I did it.

I will write that in my autobiography. (Laughter.)

That was about the time when I wanted to get rid of ex-mayor Swift, politically, and Chicago got rid of him and Tatge, and all their associates, swiftly. (Laughter.)

We have never had a Republican mayor since.

I said that by the help of God there should not be until we could get one who was not "machine made."

Every year I fought for the Democratic ticket.

Now I am about through with the Democrats. (Laughter.)

They are a very bad lot. They have not improved since they deceived me, after we helped to put them in power at the last contest for the mayoralty.

We never desired one of our people to be in office in Chicago.

We never asked for an office and are not asking for one now.

As things are now, the best thing that you can do is to keep out of office.

If you do not, you will get in among drunkards, liars, thieves, and all kinds of bad people in Chicago, and it needs grace, grit and skill to mix with such people and not get entangled with them.

You must do the best you can to keep out of office as things are now.

Zion Stands Firm Against an Anarchistic Mayor.

I am intensely interested in Chicago and desire to let you know that I stand squarely against lawyer Darrow, who has been recently openly pleading for law-breaking and murderous strikers before the Commission appointed by President Roosevelt to examine into the recent strikes and crimes in the Coal Regions of Pennsylvania.

He has attacked Zion and myself with bitter and malignant hatred, and many falsehoods, in the columns of Hearst's Chicago American.

He is no true friend of the working man, but aspires to be the leader, by becoming the tool of the Unions who post pickets to smash the heads of non-union workmen, because they dare to work for their families' bread, at places, and for wages which are not to the liking of the said Unions. Several murderers by union pickets have recently been sheeted home to them in the Criminal Courts of Cook County, as well as before... the Commission of which I have just spoken. Mr. Darrow has no words of blame for murderers when they are Unionists. But God’s Law says, “Thou shalt do no murder!” to all men, at all times, in all places, and under all circumstances. A lawyer who mocks at the Ten Commandments is an enemy of God and man; and a lawyer who does not place God first, last and all the time, can never be a helper of his fellow man in any permanent way for good.

The entire vote of this city is over 400,000, and the entire number of unionists that you can put in the field is not 80,000 men.

You have not one working man out of five in your unions. Nevertheless you aspire to rule the city with your minority, and your bludgeons and thuggeries.

I have no personal feeling against Mr. Darrow.

I do not know him.

I have no personal feeling against Mr. Harrison.

I know him very slightly.

I have no personal feeling for Mr. Harlan, excepting just this, that as far as I can see, he has a good record.

May God grant, that if he is the right man he may get the office.

I have said this because I have been asked by my people what road I am going, and as far as I can now see it may be called the John M. Harlan Road.

May God grant that the best man out of all the available candidates may get in.

After the tithes and offerings had been received, the General Overseer delivered the following address:

GOD’S WORK IN ZION FOR SEVEN YEARS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time Till Jesus Come.

TEXT.

Rise up, Balak, and hear; Harken unto Me, thou son of Zippor.

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man that He should repent:

Hath he said, and shall He not do it? Or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good?

Behold, I have received commandments to bless; and He hath blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath He seen perverseness among them.

God bringeth them forth out of Egypt; He hath as it were the strength of the wild-ox.

Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob, neither is there any divination with Israel: Jehovah His God is with Him, and the shout of a king is among them.

God bringeth forth them out of Egypt; He hath as it were the strength of the wild-ox.

Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob, neither is there any divination with Israel: Jehovah His God is with Him, and the shout of a king is among them.

The angel is bending down and smiling upon us.

What is that carved on the keystone of the arch?

Lift your eyes.

What is that carved on the keystone of the arch?

Oh what a beautiful figure!

It is that of an angel.

The angel is bending down and smiling upon us. He is holding a rose, the leaves of which are falling.

Do you understand that if you take your own cross daily and follow Jesus, the grief is but for a moment, while the joy shall appear the opposite.

The angel wants me to know that if I take that cross—whose cross?

The Cross of Jesus? No! No! No!

You Cannot Bear the Cross of the Christ.

Oh, no, I cannot take that and neither can you.

Jesus had a Cross that He bore alone.

You cannot take His Cross.

He tells you that you have to take Your Own Cross. (Luke 14:27.)

Whoever doth not bear his own Cross, and come after Me, cannot be My disciple.

Mark you, it is not His Cross.

You cannot bear His Cross, nor can I; but I have mine and you have yours.

Oh, how the grief comes!

How pained we are who follow the Banner of the Christ’s Cross, to know that the very best things that we ever thought, the very best things that we ever said, the very best things that we ever did, have been maligned, misrepresented and made to appear the opposite.

Nevertheless we bear Our Own Cross and go right on—following Jesus.

Do you understand that if you take your own cross daily and follow Jesus, the grief is but for a moment, while the joy is eternal?

If you suffer with Him, you reign, but there is no reigning without suffering.

Now we pass on under the archways of the door of the cathedral.

There is one more arch, and one more angel, and one more message.

Carved in that wondrous third arch is an angel with such a radiant face!

How glorified, and what wondrous beauty there is in his face, as the angel bends over our heads!

What is the angel holding?

Look closer.

A crown.

What is it that the angel says?

These are the words:

“That Only Endures Which is Eternal.”

Ah! I know.

The Crown is the Crown of Loving Kindness and Tender Mercy, or it may be the Crown of Righteousness which the Lord, the Righteous Judge will give to you, if you win it.

A ring is the symbol of completeness, an emblem of eternity. It is not a very beautiful-looking crown.

It is simple.

It is like the ring that a true lover gives to his bride when she becomes his wife.

That is the best of all rings that she ever receives.

That is not the engagement ring.

It is a ring that is given afterwards.

It is a plain, little golden circlet.

You know the one that mother used to look at—that circlet.

Father gave it to her long, long ago—and no ring, however costly, or beautiful that you could give her will ever take its place in her heart; for she will carry it to her grave.

It is more precious than all the rings she has received before or since.

It is worn down, but it stands for Eternal Love.

A Crown is just a Ring of Divine Gold round the head that is worn down, but it stands for Eternal Love.

Ah! I understand.

The angel desires to teach me by the falling of the leaves of the full blown rose that soon that beautiful flower will pass away.

Its beauty is but for a moment.

Now come to the next arch.

I see another angel bending over us, whose face is full of sweet sorrow.

What is that which he holds in his hand?

It is a cross.

I read upon the scroll:

“All That Grieves Is But For a Moment.”

Ah! I see.

The angel tells me of that symbol which hangs in the sky, that Southern Cross which is at the end of the Milky Way, which has at its feet the darkest place in all the Universe.

I see.

The angel wants me to know that if I take that cross—whose cross?

The Cross of Jesus? No! No! No!

You Cannot Bear the Cross of the Christ.
God puts there, but it is a ciret of Eternal Love, and will never wear away—its gold never cankers.

The Crown for Which We Strive.

Work on, not for a corruptible crown, but for an Incorruptible Crown.

It is the sweetest of crowns.
I do not care for crowns of many jewels.

"The most famous crown in Europe is the Iron Crown of Lombardy.

One of the greatest decorations given for valor in Europe is the iron cross.
Some monarchs have beautiful crowns, and others have plain iron circlets.

Do not think of the metal; do not think of intrinsic value, think of the seal of God that passed it, and the Crowning so great as that of God’s Loving Kindness and Tender Mercy.

The angel is holding out a crown, and saying to you, “Do right. Do right.”

I hear these voices echoing down through all the ages, telling us to press onward and let nought that would hinder daunt us.

1. I hear it. Do you not?

2. Are you never so still that you can hear it?

3. Do you never hear this voice from the battlements of glory floating downward in the sweet song—

"Her eyes do regard you in eternity’s stillness.
Here is all fulness, ye brave, to reward you.
Work and despair not!"

Only Work for God Abides.

Work, work, work, while it is called Day.
The Night cometh, and the only thing that will endure will be the work that you did for God in the open light that was honest, right and true.

Seven years of honest work!

Seven years of work that a dishonest press, a dishonest pulpit, and a dishonest people in tens of thousands have endeavored to turn into shame and a hissing and a byword.

Seven years of work that have silenced the revilers, and stopped the mouths of those that speak lies in thousands of cases.

Great results have come out of it all.
Your vain, cowardly villainy cannot hurt Zion now, Mr. Editor of the Universal Liar.

Zion is too strong for you.

Seven years ago, after a year of the most intense conflict, during which I had to fight one hundred battles in the mean, low police courts, of the City of Chicago, where the city persecutor of that time, the unspeakable Mayor Swift, and the unspeakable set of villains that seemed to have in one form or another bribed or controlled the city administration, thought that they could crush me.

A Prophetic Reply.

In 1895 a cautious Scotchman, who was traveling through Australia, was sitting in the Great Northern hotel in this city, when some one said to him: “We are going to make it so hot for Dowie, that he will have to get out.”

“Who are you speaking about?” my friend asked.

“Dowie,” was the reply.

“Oh,” he said, “where is he preaching? I want to hear him.”

He went down to the Tribune office, and asked the editor where I was preaching.

He was told the deliberate lie, that I had been driven out of the city; for that editor knew that I was preaching every Lord’s Day afternoon to immense audiences in this very place—the Chicago Auditorium.

He was sorry for that, and said, “I used to ken him in Australia and I want to hear him.”

“What are they doing to him?”

“O we are driving him out,” he was told.

“What for?” he questioned, and they tried to tell him.

“Light!” He said “you do not ken the man. He will drive you out.” (Laughter and applause.)

There have been a good many driven out since that time.

They have been driven out in hearses to the cemetery.

Every editor of that time is either dead or has given up his paper.

I told them when they were fighting me: “You will never drive me out until you drive out my dead body.

“I will stand and fight and win my battle.”

I did, did I not?

Voices—“Yes.”

That was the beginning of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

But do not let me forget to tell you that my dear old friend, James Duncan, J. P., of Adelaide, South Australia, did hear me in this Auditorium, and was my guest for several days.

He found where I was preaching by one of my people giving him a card of invitation in the rotunda of the hotel at which he was living.

A Former Field of Labor.

I had been a Congregationalist.

That church has more brains and less heart than any other denomination in the world.

They have been living upon the Pilgrim Father’s dust and certain kinds of theological and ecclesiastical theories for so long, that their food is Dead Men’s Brains for the most part.

I was the pastor of one of the most important charges in the denomination at Newtown, Sydney, the present capital of the Commonwealth of Australia.

I was a Congregationalist, and believed that the people should rule, which is a fundamental principle of Congregational polity; but as the years rolled on, I found that the government of the church by the people is a farce.

You might just as well govern a family by the children, or govern a factory by the men and apprentices.

Government does not come from below, unless it comes from hell, and that government is Confusion.

Real Government Comes from Above and is Divine.

You cannot make a man governor.

God made him.

A governor comes from God.

You never heard of a prophet being voted for.

Prophets are very uncomfortable fellows.

They have a strange way that makes them, even when very young, extremely obnoxious to slow and unprogressive persons who love to be quiet and at ease above all things.

But prophets, even young ones, care for nothing, but for God, except now and then, when, like Jonah, they want to run from God and get into a big fish’s belly.

It does not pay to get away from God.

If God has sent you to Nineveh there is no use in your making tracks for Tarshish.

God will have you go to Nineveh, even if you have to take the voyage in the unsanitary bowels of a monster of the deep.

I have had no experience of that kind because

I Never Disobeyed God.

When I knew what God wanted, I did it.

I never counted how many there were on the other side.

Never!

A man who counts the fellows on the other side, is no prophet of God.

He may be a servant of Elisha, but he is not the prophet of God.

Elisha’s servant said: “Alas, my master! how shall we do?”

Elisha said, “Lord, I pray Thee, open his eyes, that he may see.”

Then he saw a great army that had been there all the time.

The horsemen and chariots innumerable.

God’s Chariots Swing Low.

I have never been in a fight when the angel chariots did not swing low.

I have never been in a fight when the angel songs did not come down.

I have never been so happy as when I was in danger of a cruel death, at the hands of a mob of medical students, in Trafalgar Square, London, a little more than two years ago.

There were perhaps twenty or thirty thousand howling for my poor little life.

Nevertheless, I was very happy.

I was happy because I thought that I might be very close to heaven.

GOD'S WORK IN ZION FOR SEVEN YEARS.

I had told my personal attendant just what to do with my body if he could get the remains of it. He looked at me questioningly.

"I am not troubled at all," I replied. Why should a man who has known God, and who has a Message of God to tell the mighty, bother about his life?

That is the last thing that he thinks of. Why?

Because he knows that, if he is faithful, he cannot die until his work is done.

I was faithful, and, therefore, I am not afraid.

I am faithful. Therefore, I cannot fear.

 Threats have a peculiarly bracing effect upon me. I never feel better than when devils are grumbling and growling at me.

Why the Church Was Established in Chicago.

When I formed this Church, Chicago was very attractive to me, because there was more Devil to the square mile here than in any other place I knew of under heaven.

I thought that if a man could whip the Devil here, he could whip him anywhere.

I undertook the contract. (Laughter.) I have been at it ever since.

I think that even the Devil will agree with me that I have had the best end of the fight so far—his own daily scribes, who are the reporters for Lucifer's Universal Liar, being witness.

I have had him pretty well whipped at the end of every great fight.

Every time he has opened his foul mouth he has put his cloven feet into it, and then I have given them a push. (Laughter and applause.)

Seven years have passed; this will probably be the last Anniversary Discourse that I shall ever deliver in Chicago, as we have relinquished it as our Headquarters.

I expect that all the rest will be delivered either in Zion City, Illinois, some other Zion City, or by-and-by in the City of the Great King at Mount Zion, Jerusalem.

I intend, however, to keep on delivering Zion Messages in the homes of Chicago until Chicago is under the dominion of the Lord Jesus, the Christ.

I shall do my part for Chicago; and we shall multiply Zion Tabernacles in its streets until they far outnumber all the Apostate Churches put together.

I shall help you every now and then to get a good mayor.

I shall spank your press properly every now and then just to keep it a little in order until the day comes when the Christ will own and control every type and every machine in Chicago.

However, I am through with Chicago as my residence and headquarters.

We are concentrating now on Zion City and when that is fully established, and tens of thousands of God's Builders are trained, we shall go forward to build other Cities of Zion until they are found over all the earth.

Zion to Build Other Cities.

"You have enough in hand now," you may say.

Yes, we have for the next few years.

"Then after that"—that is my business.

Do you think I would tell you? (Laughter.)

It might be worth millions of dollars to you, because you could buy up the real estate that I want.

No. I have lost most of my hair, but I have not lost all my senses. (Laughter.)

I have learned to never give my confidence to the Devil.

Therefore I never give it to the Press of Chicago. (Laughter.)

There is a Mighty Work Before Us in Chicago.

It is the dirtiest place I know of in almost every sense, except for the Oases planted and cared for by the Park Commission, who hold office in spite of the City Council, and except for the more than "ten righteous men" who keep it from the fate of Sodom for at least a time.

There are fine people in Chicago as well as the very worst.

It has, without any question, the vilest press in all the world.

It has the most miserable, good-for-nothing pulpit in all the world.

We were given a revelation a few months ago.

They suddenly took a census of the Protestant churches in Chicago and there was not one that had anything like a thousand people in attendance, excepting the Moody church, and that had less than 2,000.

They found that we had an attendance of 6,198 in this building, according to their own count.

They have the most good-for-nothing pulpit; because the preachers are, for the most, "salt which has lost its saltiness," of which Jesus our Lord said long ago—"Wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men."

Their ministers are rank cowards. They are afraid of their own, not very pronounced, shadows. They are afraid of the rich; they shun the poor; they tremble before secret societies, card clubs, glutinous clubs, and political bosses; and they grovel like serpents on their bellies, and eat dust, as they prostrate themselves before the Great Boa Constrictor, the King of all Vipers, the Daily Newspaper Press. Doubtless there are exceptions, even as in the days of Elijah the Tishbite there were thousands who were not worshipers of Baal, yet they are, like them, not much in evidence; but they will live, we hope, to join in the jubilation at Mount Carmel, and other safe occasions.

They are afraid of the working man. They are not his true friends. They are afraid to tell the working man the truth.

I have more working men in my ministry than any of them. Have I ever been afraid to tell you the truth? Voices—"No."

General Overseer—I wiped the floor with many of you. (Laughter.) And I smashed your political silver goats, and your lodges, your pipes, your beer-pots, your cards, your family meannesses, etc.

You needed it, did you not? Voices—"Yes."

Seven years ago today we formed this Church. It has seemed a very strange Church to some people.

Zion's God Has Been Her Source of Blessing.

We never asked any rich man to "donate" anything.

We never went to the Standard Oil thieves and asked them for money.

Never!

We never went to any other Trust thieves.

We went to God.

We sought for the people.

We sought for the poor, the sick and the sorrowing; those who had no helpers.

When I look at you, and at the thousands of people in Zion City I wonder what has happened to you.

It has been a transformation.

I now behold Christian ladies and gentlemen who I used to have people, some of whom smelled of garlic, of onions, of pig and liquor, and reeked with diseases.

I do not know them now.

They died long ago.

A new life has come, and they are God's New Creation.

People who were poor are well-to-do today.

I look around our city, and find hundreds who never had a dollar until they came into Zion.

Now they have houses and lands and sweet families.

I see their sons and daughters in Zion College.

I hear them singing in Zion's White-robed Choir, with rich voices of wondrous spiritual power because they know God.

They have learned a New Song.

What has God not wrought?

We were not 500 people when we enrolled this day seven years ago.

What are we today?

Figures Are Not Always to Be Relied Upon.

For a number of years I have refused to give our figures to Dr. Carroll, of New York—the principal compiler of Religious Statistics in the United States.

I stopped when we reached 40,000.

I will tell you why I refused; because the biggest lies that are told anywhere are in church statistics, and Dr. Carroll himself knows and deplores it, I cannot doubt.

Ask Dr. Buckley if that is not true.

He will tell you that it is.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

590

Saturday, February 28, 1903.

We are stronger in numbers today after seven years than the Methodist church was after sixty years.

Early Methodist Church Met no Opposition in America.

They had the whole field to themselves.

All that there was of vigorous Evangelical Christianity was on their side.

They had no fight with the other denominations.

The Episcopal body has never had any fight in it.

You can never get any fight out of the people who say:

"Lord, have mercy upon us miserable sinners, for we have left undone all the things we ought to have done, and we have done all the things we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us."

Any man who says that he is leaving undone all the things that he ought to have done, and did all the things he ought not to have done, will never be a fighter: for he is quite right in confessing himself as full of spiritual disease, and utterly devoid of health.

He has nothing to fight for.

He knows that he is under condemnation, and his heart condemns him.

He is not saved, and has no confidence toward God either in prayer or work.

The Methodist body had everything with them, while we have had everything against us.

Will you tell me who has been for us?

What paper?

What church?

What men of any exalted position?

Which of the rulers?

Zion Greatly Enriched by God.

Nevertheless, we have had God with us, and that is the best of all.

I do not boast, because it is a mean thing to boast at any time.

I give God all the glory when I say that Zion's estate throughout the world could not be bought today for $30,000,000.

As for active workers, we can put in Zion Restoration Host alone, 7,000 splendid workers in the field today.

They work, too.

There is no pretense about their work.

We also have a splendid staff of Elders and Overseers.

Growth of Zion in Australia.

What have we done in Australia in one year?

Overseer Voliva went to Australia a little over a year ago.

We had but a faithful few there at that time.

The Devil had managed to destroy most of the organized work that we had.

We had only a handful of scattered people all over Australian.

I sent Overseer Voliva and his wife and Elder Reiff and his wife there, a little over one year ago, and what have we there today?

We have planted the Banner of Zion over nearly every State in the Commonwealth of Australia and in New Zealand in the midst of a terrible drouth when ministers have received but scant salary and churches have been closed.

I have not sent one dollar from the Storehouse in Zion to help the work in Australia, and they always have money to credit.

Australia has begun to make investments in Zion City, and quite a number have come here—one family of six—and others are on their way.

We have one of the healthiest and most vigorous Branches of this Church in Adelaide, South Australia.

We have one of the largest average congregations in Melbourne.

We have the brightest and most thorough man and people in Sydney.

We have a splendid work beginning all through New Zealand.

Zion Restoration Host has just organized its first Legion.

The Banner of Zion floats in scores of centers in the Commonwealth of Australia.

Zion's Chain in Africa.

What have we in Africa?

We have a chain of earnest members that reaches from Cape Town to Buluwayo, and another from Durban to Pretoria.
We have the materials for gatherings in scores in Cape Colony, Natal, Transvaal, Orange Colony, Mashonaland, and away North towards Lake Tanganyika.

At the other side, we begin at Cairo and we go to Khartum.

The Strength of Zion in Great Britain.

What have we in Great Britain?
A little more than two years ago we had almost no representation in Great Britain.

Now we have representation in sixty-two or sixty-four cities.

Some of them are strong, vigorous and powerful branches.

I have never had to send a dollar to England.

They have all paid their own way, and more.

They have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in Zion and many citizens of Zion City have come within the past year from the Shetland and Orkney Islands to Cornwall, in the South of England, and from many parts of Ireland.

The Rapid Spread of Zion in Europe.

Where are we in Europe?

We went up to the foot-hills of the Alps and planted Zion in Zürich, in beautiful Switzerland.

Now, just as the beautiful waters are flowing down from these great lovely lakes beneath the Alps, so Zion is flowing all over Europe, Germany, Austria and Bohemia.

We have a brother here today who came all the way from Budapest in Hungary who is now a minister of the Church, and who brought to Zion a congregation of two hundred and something.

Another minister present with us, who is now an elder in Zion, was a Baptist preacher in Zürich when I conducted my Mission there in December, 1900.

Zion is in Berlin and is spreading through all Germany.

The Missionary Activity in Zion Has Amazed Me.

We can say truthfully that through the Christian Catholic Church in Zion the Message of the Gospel has reached directly more than 10,000,000 people in seven years.

I can show you this from figures.

Evangelist Hill, how many rolls have you sent out up to date?

Evangelist Hill—"About 2,500,000 rolls."

General Overseer—Evangelist, no woman in the world knows better than you; do you think that each of these rolls have reached at least six people?

Evangelist Hill—"I believe so. We know that some rolls have been read by 200 persons."

General Overseer—If I put the average number at ten, we would have reached through these rolls of Zion Literature 25,000,000 persons.

If they were put at twenty, they would have reached 52,000,000 persons.

I do not hesitate to say that the Message of God in Zion directly and indirectly has reached more than 100,000,000 people through the Zion Literature Distribution Bureau, which the Rev. Sarah E. Hill has conducted so ably, with her associates, for nearly seven years.

In addition to this we have sold and sent to all the world tens of millions of copies of LEAVES OF HEALING, BLÄTTER DER HEILUNG, A VOICE FROM ZION, tracts, pamphlets, books, Restoration Messages, cards, etc., etc.

We have a large Zion Printing and Publishing House in Chicago, employing eighty-five persons in all its departments, occupying a large building in Michigan avenue, full of up-to-date machinery, sending forth at least five tons of Zion Literature every week, and eagerly awaiting the summons to follow our Headquarters to its future home in Zion City.

We reach hundreds of thousands weekly in their homes all over the world by our Seventies in Zion Restoration Host, which now numbers fully 2,000 members.

All work in Zion, and the individual efforts of our people to do good are an unceasing delight to them—no matter what the toil or cost may be.

Multitudes Saved and Healed.

Multitudes have been saved.

Multitudes have been healed.

If you do not believe it I will show you thousands now.

Every one healed and saved through faith in Jesus, the Christ, in Zion, stand. (Thousands of persons rose.)

Did God save you and heal you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Do you give Him the glory?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—That is only a representation of a great multitude scattered over all the earth.

Other Results of the Work of Zion.

First, from end to end of this continent something of Zion is to be found.

Second, on every other continent.

Third, on many of the islands of the seas.

Many Zion Tabernacles and many private homes constitute thousands of meeting places every week.

We have Zion Dorcas work done for the poor of Zion in and around Chicago by 600 women under the management of Overseer Jane Dowie, through which 7,000 families have been helped this winter.

We have Homes of Hope for Erring Women where hundreds have been saved, and where there are perhaps scores of women and babies today.

Deaconess Paddock—"Thirty-five babies and thirty-six women in the Sixteenth Street Home in Chicago."

General Overseer—Hundred's have passed out through the doors of that Home, saved and blessed, and many of them married to Christian husbands.

Deaconess Paddock—"Nineteen have married and have nice homes."

General Overseer—Scores have been sent back to their parents.

Others are working honorably in good positions of all kinds.

This has been going on throughout the years, and arrangements are being made for a great enlargement of this work.

Zion Never Sleeps.

In some part of the earth she is unceasingly at work.

The sun never sets on Zion's flag; it is always shining upon it somewhere.

Her workers are always working somewhere.

Zion City a Plan of God.

One year and seven months ago it was open prairie land.

Today it is a beautiful city of over 8,000; with a Tabernacle seating 5,000; schools attended by more than a thousand children; a College of over three hundred students; stores, factories, an electric power house which supplies power to great machines, and light to streets and homes, etc., etc.

That city represents in its simplicity a mighty thought—The Thought of God.

I do not want to praise it.

I only praise God for it.

I thank God today that we can see that He has blessed everything that we have touched, and that He is blessing everything that we touch.

He is blessing those who associate themselves with us.

No weapon formed against Zion shall prosper.

Thus, at the end of the seven years, we are able to say that under God we have won.

We stood alone, but for a little Gideon band of less than 500.

The sun never sets on Zion's flag; it is always shining over all the earth.

The Full Gospel is being taught through Zion in more than one hundred languages.

We have sixty-six nations represented in Zion City alone.

• Shall we not give glory to God?

Shall we not say:

What Hath God Wrought!

I did not accomplish this.

Who did accomplish it?

Voices—"God."

General Overseer—Did He use you and use me?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—He will continue to use us, according to our loyalty and thoroughness of consecration.

This may be the last Anniversary Sermon that I shall ever deliver in Chicago.

Therefore, in Obedience to God, I say to Chicago:

Woe Unto Thee Chicago!

If the mighty works that have been done in thee had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. Multitudes have been saved and healed.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Woe unto you ministers!
Woe unto you lawyers!
Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
The day will come when you will say: "Would God that we had treated Zion as we ought."
You tried to kill me.
You tried to destroy me.
I continued to do my work.
I am doing it still.
I say woe unto you Chicago!
You shall be cast down to hell, if you do not repeat.
You are creating a Hell in Chicago.
All wise men want to get out of it, and only live in it from necessity, or from a sense of duty to God and their fellow men.
Ye who rule Chicago do not know how to deal with its vast resources.
You are unfair in your taxation.
You are unfair in your business dealings.
There is no use in making contracts with many of the labor-unions in Chicago; for they will tear up the contract any minute they like.
Hence it is that men prefer to go to New York, or somewhere else where people keep their word.
I say woe unto you.
I say it lovingly.
You have to learn to keep your word.
You have broken it.
Men do not trust you.
They do not trust your government.
They will not trust their wealth in your city, and remove it as quickly as possible in thousands of cases.
You tax them disproportionately, and in many ways make life miserable by failure to administer law and justice, and the consequence is they go.

A Warning to Chicago.

Take care Chicago.
You are in great danger.
If you get a Darrow into power he will be the last straw on the back of the long-suffering camel of decency and respectability.
Woe unto you!
You are coming right down to the dung and the dross of citizenship, and if you do not repent and do right you will only exist as a workshop with half its business gone forever.
Chicago, you think that you will abide forever.
You think that you are essential to the development of America.
You are not.
You will find that the manufacturer can do his business without you; that he can work up his iron farther up the Lakes.
I know what I am talking about.
I have studied you.
I know you.
I know you as a business people.
Beware!
I love the masses of your people.
They are cruelly oppressed.
Many people who have intelligence, and have won wealth by their brains, have been oppressed by you in a cruel manner.
You steal by means of unequal taxation.
You make it a crime to be a wealthy man and a clever one.
You make it a crime to be a working man, and a poor one.
You have only a place for the political boss and thief.
Woe unto you, Chicago!
Woe unto you! Woe unto you!
God has a controversy with you.
You cannot oppress God's people and prosper.
Your false prophets in the press and pulpit are your destroyers.

Repentance Alone Can Save Chicago.

They care nothing for you.
In the day of your anguish they will abandon you.
There is time for you to seek God, and do right; but it must be done quickly.
May God bring Chicago to repentance.
I love Chicago.
I will work for it and in it.
I will keep Zion Restorationists at work in it unceasingly.

I will seek for the poor and fallen that they may be restored to God.
I will seek for the perishing.
I will not fail to do my duty.
Nevertheless I warn Chicago.
I have watched the City closely, and lived in it, or near it, for more than twelve years.
Chicago, God can do without you.
The United States of America can do without you.
It is easy to create manufacturing centers whose name shall not be Chicago.
I warn you.
I am your friend.
I have a right to warn you; for my life has been a benediction and a blessing to you, and the Witnesses to this are in every street of your city.
I have brought more in every way to Chicago than Chicago has ever given to me.
Do you think that it is Chicago that has built up Zion City? You are mistaken.
More than six-tenths of the money invested in Zion City has come from outside of Chicago.
That is not my Chicago people's fault.
They were kept poor by your miserable policy.

An Approaching Destruction.

I warn you far I see the possibility of a terrible catastrophe, both commercially and as a city.
I have done my duty.
I have done it thoroughly and honestly.
I am God's minister.
As the Ecclesiastical, Educational, Commercial and Political director of my people under God, I have studied Chicago, and I say, your house may be left unto you desolate.
You may lose, by a few more years of misgovernment, ungodliness, debauchery, drunkenness, infidelity and crime that from which it will take more than half a century to recover.
Beware of that press that is fooling you, and will forsake you.
May God bless you and give you grace to heed my Warnings.
Every one now present who intends to do right and give their lives wholly to God, stand. (Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am.
Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it cost.
May I repent, restore, and confess.
Bless Zion, and grant that in the years to come we may walk humbly with Thee, and do Thy Will.
For Jesus' sake. Amen.
(All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)
The services were then closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.
The grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE
Christian Catholic Church in Zion
REPORTED BY I. M. S., A. C. B. S., AND A. W. N.

The great central fact, the most important feature, the crowning glory in the observance of the Seventh Anniversary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion at Zion City, Monday, February 23d, was the inspired address in Shiloh Tabernacle by the man who, under God, had founded that Church and, through the seven years of its existence, had led it triumphantly on from victory to victory, with never a defeat and never a retreat.

The address was intensely characteristic of the man.

It was not an historical retrospect.

It was not an account of victories won and triumphs achieved in the past.

It was not even a description of the great extent of the work at the present day.

It was, although brief, an intensely practical, deeply spiritual and inspiring presentation of the essentials which must remain and increase in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, as an organization and as individuals, if the Church is to continue the strong, growing, effective power for the extension of the Kingdom of God which it has been in the first seven years of its existence.

These essentials the Messenger of God expressed in the five suggestive alliterative words, Purity, Prayer, Patience, Peace, Progress.

This address took a deep hold upon the spirits of those who heard.

There was an intensity of spiritual power and determination in the voices of the people as they followed their leader in the Prayer of Consecration, asking God for Purity, for Power in Prayer, for Patience, for His Peace in their hearts, and for the power to Progress.

This address came as the climax of a most beautiful and inspiring service.

Although the day was not a general holiday in the City of Chicago, fully five hundred people filled the eight cars of the special train which came from there, arriving here shortly after 11 o'clock.

There were present, also, many visitors from various sections of the country and cities near by.

These with the throngs of Zion City made an audience of more than four thousand people in Shiloh Tabernacle.

While the people were gathering, Zion City Brass Band, stationed in the rear gallery of the Tabernacle, rendered several selections of sacred music with an excellence which bespeaks great possibilities for service for this organization. Especially beautiful was their execution and tenderness of expression in "The Holy City." Mr. Bosworth, the leader, Deacon Irish, his assistant, and all "the players upon instruments" received the hearty appreciation of the General Overseer, whose words were applauded by the thousands present.

Then came the procession of about five hundred singers of Zion White-robed Choir and hundreds of robed officers of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Zion has seen many processions in Shiloh Tabernacle, but none which excelled that of Monday in beauty and impressiveness.

The singing of the Choir was especially good. Especially wonderful was the singing of the Benedictae, Omnia Opera—every part of the Choir finding a place, and the sweet, shrill voices of the Junior Choir in the oft-repeated words, "Praise Him and Magnify Him Forever," was especially thrilling and inspiring.

It was the first time that this Ancient Anthem of Praise to God, which comes down from the earliest ages of the Church, had been sung in the City of Zion, and it was full of power to raise the people upward to God. To Conductor Rice, to Organist Mary Mason, and to every member of the Choir, we are directed by the General Overseer to express in this report his personal thanks and appreciation, which he believes is also the appreciation of the thousands of Zion present at the Seventh Anniversary in Shiloh Tabernacle.

In reading the Scripture the General Overseer took up the third chapter of the Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Philippians.

In his exposition of the Scripture he dealt especially with the Spurious Holiness Doctrine, which he more appropriately termed "Howliness." He emphasized "True Holiness."

During the taking of the tithes and offerings, the Band played "The Holy City," and Zion White-robed Choir sang Best's "Benedicite," to which we have already referred, very beautifully and impressively.

The service closed at about 2:30 o'clock.

The remainder of the afternoon the hundreds of visitors in the city spent in sightseeing, while many shareholders in Zion Land and Investment Association visited the new subdivision opened that day in sections 16 and 17.

Some hundreds of residents and visitors in the city thought, with wonder and praise, of the day three years before, when they had first seen the site upon which the city now stands.

On that day, the occasion of the first excursion, they had come out to find only fields, fences and forests upon the site, and a bare, wooden observatory tower. Even one year and seven months ago the building of the City had only just begun, for the first land, leased for 1,100 years, was only opened for selection on July 15, 1901.

On this day they saw the city, a city of beautiful, comfortable homes, and great, thriving, busy industries, standing where there had been only bare, bleak fields.

As they looked they could only say, "What hath God wrought!"

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Monday, February 23, 1903.

The service was opened with the usual Processional hymn, recitation of the Apostles' Creed, reading of the Commandments, and singing of the Te Deum.

The General Overseer then read from the inspired word of God, first, the Eighty-fourth Psalm; then in the inspired letter of the Apostle Paul to the Philippians, the third chapter.

In his comments upon the first verse, the General Overseer said some very pungent things about the tendency to seek after a new fashion in religion.

Commenting upon the eleventh verse, God's Messenger exposed the fallacy of the Spurious Holiness Movement and the unclean living of many of those who claimed complete sanctification.

Commenting upon the twelfth verse, God's Messenger exposed the fallacy of the Spurious Holiness Movement and the unclean living of many of those who claimed complete sanctification.

Commenting upon the passage, "Brethren, I count not my self yet to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind," he said:

"There are some people who can never forget. All their religious experience is in the past. It is a Dead Thing."

I say with the Wise Preacher in Ecclesiastes: "For to him that is joined with all the Living there is Hope: for a Living Dog is better than a Dead Lion."

We hear a great deal too much about Wonderful Dead Lions both in Church and State, and the world is getting tired of the subject.
This pointing back to past experiences, and, in the testimony meeting, washing their hands in invisible soap and water, is often an exhibition of hypocrisy, diverting attention from their present good-for-nothingness; but plainly revealing that they are only "jointed with all the Dead," and that there is no hope for them among the Living who are doing something new.

Get up and do something.
The times are better now than their "good old times" ever were. (Amen.)
Be real.
Have a real Christianity.

A plant was planted three months ago.
It has come up and is a very beautiful healthy-looking plant.
It is perfect, but has it reached its completion?
Watch it as the months go on.
It branches out and there are beautiful buds, and then there are beautiful flowers, yet has it reached perfection?
No, no!
Where is its perfection?
I gather a thousand seeds from that plant, and I sow them, and now there are a thousand plants and a million seeds.
Is that perfection?
No!
It goes on and on and on and on forever.
Thank God! May we be like that! (Amen.)

May we grow and grow throughout Eternity, conscious that we are ever learning and growing in Wisdom and Love and Purity and Power in the service of a Eternally Progressive God.

Stop that miserable talk of a limited and stunted perfection.
It destroys growth, yea more, it destroys life.

Perfection Is Not Completion.

Walking by the Same Rule.

If you walk with us, you have to mind the same rule and walk in step. You cannot stay in Zion and say, "I will break every rule."

What does it say? Repeat the passage: "If in anything ye do not otherwise minded, even this shall God reveal unto you: only, whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk." Repeat the last clause with me.

Audience—"Only whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk."

General Overseer—God has blessed us by walking together by the same rule, has He not?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—He has blessed us these seven years.
Now pray. Pray and expect to get an answer. I think I will have my nearest colleague, my good wife, who has been with me all through the years, pray.
I would rather have my right hand cut off and my tongue cut out than be the woman who criticises Mrs. Dowie. You leave her alone from criticism.
I do not say that she is perfect, I never did say that. If I did she would not believe me.
(Turning to Mrs. Dowie) Jeanie, if I said you are perfect, would you believe me?

Overseer Jane Dowie—"No."

General Overseer—Do you think I am perfect?

Overseer Jane Dowie—"No." (Laughter. Applause.)

General Overseer—Two imperfect people did this work under God. We are still singing together in praise to God the sweet old Scotch Paraphrase—

That to perfection's sacred height
We nearer still may rise,
And all we think and all we do,
Be pleasing in Thine eyes.

Overseer Jane Dowie then offered prayer, after which the General Overseer presented the petitions of the sick and sorrowing.

The Choir and Congregation then joined in singing No. 238, Luther's grand old hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."
The tithes and offerings were then received.

PURITY, PRAYER, PATIENCE, PEACE, PROGRESS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight and profitable to those to whom these words shall come, especially members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, throughout the world, for the sake of Jesus. Amen.

I have a few words to say on this celebration of the Seventh Anniversary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in Zion City.
I will give you Five Words, which I desire you to remember.
Each will begin with the letter "P."
There are Five P's in this Anniversary Pod.
I hope that you will remember them all in a very practical manner.
I desire to put in the front of all I have to say, these words of inspiration; for I believe them to be Divinely inspired.

TEXT.

Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal, unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

This is the Upward Calling—the Calling to Higher Things.

I might speak at length and give you a Wonderful Story as to what God has wrought in Zion in Seven Years; but the story of Zion will soon be published in a series of special numbers of Leaves of Healing, and thousands of you have been helping me to make this history year after year in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.
I desire to say to you just a few words in gratitude to God concerning the past.
If we were to tell you all, we would have to speak for weeks and months, not hours or minutes.

$600,000 Spent in One Year in Spreading the Gospel.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion, although only Seven Years old, last year expended upon her strictly ecclesiastical work over four hundred thousand dollars in sending the Gospel to the world. This year we shall, probably, spend a million dollars.

Thank God we are able to do it. (Amen.)
This is a minimum figure. If I had all the figures from all the lands I would have no hesitation in saying that we have spent a half million dollars.
As nearly as we can reckon, we have, now, in Seven Years, more than the Methodist Episcopal church had in sixty-one years.
The first sixty-one years of the Methodist church were its best years in this country.
It had the field to itself.
There was really no difficulty in preaching the Gospel, because the people were hungry for it.
Although they labored earnestly and had millions to labor amongst, they only numbered 61,000 persons after sixty-one years of existence.
The membership of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion today would be 61,000 at a minimum estimate.
Sometimes I think that we might place the minimum at 1,000,000.

However that may be, we can bear comparison with any Branch of the Church in any age, not excepting the Apostolic age.

Zion's Seven Years the Greatest in the History of the Church.

As far as we can tell, there have been no Seven Years in the history of the Church at any time, in any place, that have been productive of an organization as complete and thorough on all sides as this little organization of ours.
We thank God, and we give Him all the praise for that fact.
I will not try to tell you all that God has wrought in Zion, because it would be impossible if I tried.
The Banner of Zion now floats over every continent.
SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Nothing shall stand against us all the days of our life if we receive from God the Holy Oil that will make us be quickened and refreshed every day.

I thank God that I am able, oftentimes, to pray all night for you; for while I am working at my all-night task, when I am a little weary, I rise from my desk, lay down my pen and pray for the sleeping city—pray for them in all the lands—pray for them because there may be something happening.

Death may have its shadow there—sorrow, trial, conflict may be oppressing some of my beloved flock, somewhere, or in many places, all over this sin-stricken and disease-smitten earth.

When I walk up and down and pray a little, I can go back to my work and feel refreshed: for I know God has answered, and I rejoice in the God of Deliverances.

Patience.

The next thing is Patience. That is a truly Divine Power.

It requires Faith to have Patience.

It requires Hope to have Patience.

It requires Love to have Patience.

It requires Wisdom to have Patience.

Sometimes persons might think that the General Overseer is not very patient.

You never knew me; you know nothing about me, if you say that.

I have to speak in tones that all can hear and maintain the Standard high, but God knows, and my people know, how patient I have been with them individually, and also collectively.

It is not exercising Patience if I see a fire there and do not jump on it and stamp it out.

I have no Patience with hell-fire.

I have no Patience with the work of the Devil.

I have no Patience, though it were that those nearest and dearest to me had wilfully sinned, and will not put it right, although I have no such trouble.

I am impatient until Sin in Zion is destroyed, no matter who the sinner is.

I do not care who he is, I will not let any one light a fire in Zion that might burn the house down.

When I jump at the fire I am thinking of the City; I am thinking of your homes. I am thinking of the Restoration of All Things.

Patience Exemplified by Zion Fire Department.

When a fire breaks out in any part of Zion, we hear a wail from that whistle which we have just erected on the Power House.

It is just as if ten thousand people were shrieking Help, Help, HELP!

What is done when that takes place?

When the fire-whistle utters that wail, the horses know it, the men know it.

They harness up and make for the fire, having found out where it is.

They carry their axes and cut down the parts that are burned, that the good parts may be saved.

They carry with them their chemicals and take with them their engines to extinguish the flames.

They carry with them a burning desire to put out that burning fire, save the house and save the city.

That is the kind of Patience we want—the patience of a fireman—who waits day after day and night after night with all his instruments polished up, and horses well fed.

Although there is no fire, he is watching.

Zion firemen are never all sleeping.

There is some one there all the time who is watching in the Tower, who sings the Songs of Zion, and prays the Prayer of Zion, and loves the God of Zion, and keeps wide-awake, watching under the stars, and in the starless darkness, watching patiently, ever watching, eager to help in preserving the properties, and above all the lives, of all in Zion City.

God give us the patience to be good Zion firemen in every sense of the word.

When any fire breaks out, in any part of Zion throughout... the world, I want to get there and set my chemicals upon it and put it out." (Laughter.)

The Great Love and Patience of God.

I am patient; for God has made me so.

I want you to have the patience of Divine Faith.

Oh, what a wonderful patience Jesus had! Not only after He came here, but before.

What patience God has had with us sinners!

What hope God has had!

God has had the hope that by-and-by this poor miserable humanity would yield to Him.

God's love has never failed.

For the lowest, meanest and most sinful His mercy endured forever.

May we have the patience of the Christ, and remember how God has been patient.

The Story of Abraham's Guest.

"Abraham wilt thou help a poor man?"

At the door of Abraham's tent, a poor, starving man stood and asked that question.

Abraham said: "Come in hither, thou blessed of Jehovah.

"But I am poor and sinful," replied the man.

"Come in hither, thou blessed of Jehovah," said Abraham, and then called to Sarah.

The servants spread the table, and Abraham served the poor man and himself.

Why is Abraham looking so sad?

Why is his brow gathering with storm?

Why is his heart hot with anger?

He waits till his guest has finished.

When his guest stands up refreshed, bows to Abraham and is departing, Abraham's wrath bursts out and he says: "Oh, thou hast not bowed thy heart to Him in praise and prayer.

"Thou hast not raised thy voice to thank the God who gave thee this bread."

Thus he pursued him with words of cursing and denunciation and drove the now crushed and heart-broken poor man, whom he had fed, out of the camp.

"Abraham! Abraham!"

It was a Voice that Abraham knew.

He bowed low in his tent, for it was the Voice of God.

"Abraham, A-b-r-a-h-a-m, I had patience with thee till thou wast an old man, gray-headed; and thou didst never thank Me for all the goodness I have poured out upon thee.

"Thou hast not raised thy voice to thank the God who gave thee this bread."

SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Is that the way to make Zion or the Kingdom of God progress?
A single stick is of no use at all.

I am going to concentrate this year all the powers of every kind that God gives me, as I did last year and the year before, and the years before that, upon Zion, morning, noon, and night.

The Power of Concentration.

What Zion is today, under God, it has become because I have consecrated every power of spirit, soul and body, of time and talent upon Zion, knowing that to be God's Will.

Progress comes by Concentration of prayer and effort—Concentration of wealth and strength—Concentration of all good things that will stand together.

A single stick is of no use at all.

The Devil can break it.

But when we are bound together in thousands and tens of thousands, no Devil out of hell can break us.

We Are Treading Where No Saint Has Ever Trod.

Like a mighty army
Move the Church of God!
Brother, we are treading
Where no saint has trod.

No saint ever trod where we are treading.
Millions trod their appointed paths, did their work, triumphed gloriously, and entered Heaven.

But, although the same Faith, Hope and Love animates and sustains us, as it did them, our Road in the Twentieth Century is a very different one to their Road in the First and all succeeding centuries.

They never had the work to do that we have.

They never had to deal with the conditions that we have.

There never was such concentration of evil or of good in all the world as now.

A single stick is of no use at all.

Progress!
You are fooling your time away.
You are leaving your estates, South, North, East and West in the Devil's hands.

Get ye all out and come into this City of God beside this lovely Lake, and, when we have filled it to overflowing, we shall build another, another, and another, until every Nation has its Zion City.

Stand together, and let us Go Forward.

What hath God wrought!

I pray God your whole spirit, soul, and body, be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.
The grace of our Lord Jesus, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, one God abides in you, blessed and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere forever.

Amen.

General Overseer—Go Forward!

General Overseer—Pray with me the PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name we come to Thee. Help me, for Jesus' sake forgive me, cleanse me, give me power to do right no matter what it costs. Help me to trust in Jesus, the Lamb of God who taketh away the Sin of the World, whose blood was shed for our sins, and therefore shed for me. For His sake cleanse me, and give me power to do right. Give us in Zion Purity, give us the power to pray. Give us the spirit of Prayer, the grace of supplication. Give us Patience, Peace, and Progress, every day and every hour. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

The meeting was closed with the following Benediction.

Beloved abstain from every appearance of evil, and the very God of Peace, Himself, sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit, soul, and body, be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the Love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, one God abides in you, blessed and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere forever.

Amen.

General Overseer—Peace to thee.

Audience—"Peace to thee be multiplied."

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager,
Zion Administration Building, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.

DEACON JAMES F. PETERS,
Supervising Editor of Zion Transportation.
God's Plan for Zion in Building the City of Zion

MID-WEEK RALLY IN SHILOH TABERNACLE

ZION CONTINUES to make world-history.

From the standpoint of finance, commerce, sociology, economics and politics, in its highest sense; from a standpoint of its bearing upon the history of the age, in fact of all the ages, and from a spiritual standpoint, the Rally held in Shiloh Tabernacle last Wednesday evening, the words spoken there and the action taken, were absolutely without a precedent or a parallel.

This Rally served, in a sense, as a connecting link, of most vital significance, between the past and the future.

The plans which were there outlined and explained, and their reception by the thousands there gathered, were the result and the development of a lifetime of preparation and experience on the part of God's Prophet, and of ages of preparation by God Himself.

They were also the inception, the beginning, the entering wedge of a new Onward Movement on the part of God's people in Zion in these latter days, of the most momentous importance in connection with the work of the "Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His Holy Prophets, which have been since the world began."

The meeting was attended by an immense audience of Zion people from Zion City and Chicago, about four hundred coming out from the latter-named city on a special train and returning after the service, making about four thousand five hundred in all.

It was a representative Zion Gathering.

Although those most directly interested in the subject to be discussed were men, there were large numbers of women present, who took a lively interest in the proceedings.

It was a significant fact that although the plan outlined for the building of the city, by the General Overseer, was a most radical departure from all ordinary methods, and indeed from methods heretofore in vogue in Zion City, they were most enthusiastically and heartily received and concurred in by the great congregation.

Before the meeting formally began, the audience listened with pleasure to a number of splendid selections by Zion City Band.

The General Overseer came upon the platform with quick, elastic step, at a few minutes after 8 o'clock; his cheery salutation "Peace to thee " was given the mighty shout of response, full of sincerity, "Peace to thee be multiplied."

The appropriate hymn, "To the Work" was sung with a ring and spirit that showed that the words were not meaningless to those who joined in them.

The General Overseer then took up the evening Scripture lesson.

The first portion read was the 127th Psalm.

After a very clear explanation of the circumstances of the writing of the book of Nehemiah, setting forth in outline the wonderful story of how that great man of old built up the walls of Jerusalem, the Messenger of God read from the 4th chapter of that book.

There were some interesting and very characteristic comments upon the passage: "So we built the wall; . . . for the people had a mind to work."

He illustrated this point by a story of a man in Zion City whom he had watched as he talked when he was being paid for using a pick-axe.

The man had been paid off, as a result of his eloquence.

At this point, the Chicago delegation arrived, and the band played while they were finding their seats.

Resuming the reading, the Man of God drew a very striking parallel between the denominations of today and Sanballat, Tobiah and Geshem, of Nehemiah's time.

The General Overseer then recited, in brief, how Nehemiah had finished his work, so that when the Christ came, in a later age, the Exiles had largely returned to Jerusalem, and God's people were in His Holy City, although it had become very wicked.

He showed how the people had, after crucifying the Redeemer, been finally driven out, and were now wanderers in every nation under heaven.

He then referred to the fact that, although Israel had been scattered, the war clouds were even now gathering, harbingers of a great conflict, which might result in Jerusalem being wrested from the hands of the Moslem, and placed under the flags, perhaps, of the two great Anglo-Saxon nations, Great Britain and America—God's Israel.

The time for this he set within ten years.

This significant prophecy was greeted with applause.

All this reference to the events now transpiring showed a marvelous grasp of the situation in the light of prophecy, and was very helpful.

"Oh," said the General Overseer, "that God would shorten these days of conflict and give His people victory!"

The practical application of this was made very strikingly, showing how Zion people in this day must become great city builders, and great and successful miners, manufacturers, and traders, so that the Flag of Zion would float over ships on every sea—thus enabling Zion to plant the Gospel of the Kingdom of God in hundreds of millions of hearts in every land and nation.

Speaking of the fact that he was sure God had a Plan for the building of Zion City, the General Overseer said that he would carry out that Plan, no matter what opposition there might be.

Prayer was then offered by Overseer Jane Dowie, after which the General Overseer presented the petitions of the sick and troubled.

The choir and people then chanted the Disciples' Prayer.

The General Overseer then introduced Judge V. V. Barnes, General Counsel.

Judge Barnes, to the delight of the people, was "reminded" of a story, after which he introduced, very happily, Judge R. E. Cantrell, formerly of Tennessee, and Judge C. E. Lauder, formerly of Iowa, now general attorneys in Zion Law Department. The new members of that Department were received enthusiastically by the people.

Each spoke briefly but appropriately.

The General Overseer then introduced the reading of the Articles of Agreement of Zion Building and Manufacturing Association by complimenting Zion Law Department, which had prepared them with the aid of a Special Council.

The entire Council of Preparation were named by the General Overseer while speaking of the Agreement, and it is the same as the Council of Final Revision which he named later on.

He stated his belief that this document was the ablest legal instrument yet drawn in Zion.
By way of parenthesis, the General Overseer announced that, on next Lord's Day afternoon, in Shiloh Tabernacle, Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie would deliver a discourse on "Reasons for the Formation of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion."

General Attorney Lauder then read, with clear voice and good enunciation, the articles of agreement.

This document was listened to with the deepest interest by the great audience.

The General Overseer then said: "This document is the result of a whole lifetime of service for God."

"The law department has very ably translated into legal verbiage my instructions."

The General Overseer then named the following as a Council of Final Revision to revise, together with himself, the Articles of Agreement: General Counsel V. V. Barnes, Solicitor-general B. M. Webb, General Attorneys R. E. Cantrell and C. E. Lauder, Overseer John G. Speicher, General Financial Manager Charles J. Barnard, Cashier W. S. Peckham, Secretary and Manager H. Worthington Judd, Manager Daniel Sloan, Mayor Richard H. Harper and General Associate Editor Arthur W. Newcomb.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Wednesday evening, February 25, 1903.

The General Overseer said:

The Document Result of a Whole Life of Service of God.

I desire to say, regarding this document, that it is the result of a whole life of service in connection with God's work.

The instructions which I gave to the General Counsel, Judge Barnes, were very ably translated into that splendid preamble and into the details.

The matter was then submitted to Judge Webb, late a Judge in Chancery in the State of Tennessee.

Then it was submitted to the younger men, our general attorneys, Judges Cantrell and Lauder, whose keen intellects, and finely trained legal minds, were brought to bear upon it.

After carefully reconsidering the final draft, I had a number of copies made of it, and confidentially desired some of my principal officers to give

Then I convened a Council of Preparation which held four long meetings in my Council Room in the Administration Building.

Personnel of the Council Which Revised the Agreements.

There were present at this council the four members of the Law Department and eight others including myself.

At the request of the members present was Rev. John G. Speicher, M. D., Overseer in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for Zion City.

Deacon Richard Harper, A. B., Mayor of Zion City, and designated as Manager of Zion Building and Manufacturing Association; three of my ablest and foremost financiers, Deacons Charles J. Barnard, William S. Peckham and Daniel Sloan.

I had the land department represented by Deacon H. Worthington Judd.

From a literary point of view I invited in Deacon Arthur W. Newcomb, my general associate editor.

These composed a Special Council of Twelve.

If you only knew what a document of this kind costs, where every word has to be weighed, and where the great sweep of it has to be expressed, not in pious language which would be very pleasant to hear, but in a legal manner which would stand any amount of strain, and be justified before the Supreme Court of the United States, and before the Supreme Court of Heaven.

If you only realized that, you would realize what a stupendous task this has been, and many other tasks also, of which but little mention is made.

Every point of that document is imprinted on my mind, because it came from my mind.

Being the father of the thing, I know a good deal about it.

It is a legal document which we believe will stand test, and will protect your investments and protect Zion's right to manage her own affairs, whatever Tuleys may say, Till Jesus Come. (Amen.)

I have before me three passages which I want to put in front of all I say tonight to you, and to Zion everywhere throughout the world, and to all who look for and love the Appearance of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, our Coming King.

The first, is in the 56th Psalm, the last two verses.

TEXT.

For God will save Zion, And build the Cities of Judah; And they shall abide there, And have it in possession. The seed also of His servants shall inherit it; And they that Love His Name shall dwell therein.

In the 102d Psalm, I place before you these words in the 16th verse:

For Jehovah hath built up Zion, He hath appeared in His glory. (Revised Version.)

And then in the 127th Psalm:

Except Jehovah build the house, They labor in vain that build it: Except Jehovah keep the city, The watchman waketh but in vain.

It is in vain for you that ye rise up early, and so late take rest, And eat the bread of toil for so He giveth unto His beloved sleep.

I desire to put before you the great thought that God has built up Zion, as a spiritual power, and that in accordance with His own Will, He will preserve Zion and build the Cities of Judah before the Great City at Jerusalem is built in preparation for the King, who will again stand upon Mount Zion.

The Coming of Elijah the Restorer and the Building.

Every student of prophecy will see two things in connection with the Coming of the Lord.

The first is that Elijah must first come and be the Restorer.

The second is, that all over this earth the Cities of God have to be built, when Zion is built, and then the Lord will appear in His glory.

When we launched out into this, we had to ask God for the direction and the power to prophesy what was His Will.

Faithful Adherence to Plans.

My good wife, last Lord's Day, said to me, just before I went into the city, "I should like to get a copy of the sermon you preached when you established the Church."

I told her that it was on her own library shelves in one of the Eleven Volumes of Leaves of Healing that I had presented to her.

Your library, I may say, is no Zion Library at all until it contains every one of the eleven beautifully bound and indexed volumes of Leaves of Healing.

This would better save up and get them, because they will be of great importance to you, and to your families, in the years to come.

They are now.

When I came back from the Chicago Auditorium service last Lord's Day evening, Mrs. Dowie remarked to me how absolutely every word that I had said as to the mode in which the city should be built had been carried out.

It was just as if we had been talking about a thing that had just happened, yet those words were spoken more than three years before we started to purchase the land for Zion City.

I hold in my hands a copy of Benton Township, in which this City of Zion is situated.

I have the absolute title—or will have at the end of this week—to over five thousand acres.

Of the sixteen hundred acres remaining in course of purchase, I shall have the title about the 10th of March to about six hundred more.

There will then be only about one thousand acres of the site to which I shall not have an absolute title.

We have paid a good deal of money on that thousand acres, but we are simply carrying the completion of purchase over for another year because the farmers who now occupy the land are very willing that we should do it, and we shall not need it for that time.

The site of over Six Thousand Six Hundred (6,600) acres is practically all in our hands.

Not a single acre of what we optioned has been lost, but on the contrary we have added to our original purchase several hundred acres.

The land transactions have been perfectly remarkable.

No Builder Ever Builds Without a Plan.

Any builder who builds without plans and exact specifications does not understand his business.

The first thing necessary is a Plan which has been thoroughly studied, and is exact in all its minute particulars and specifications as to material and all the details of building and furnishing, so that there shall be no mistake.

When God builds his Cities, do you think He builds without plans? Verily no!

Everything that is Divine is perfectly orderly.

I rejoice in God, Who is not a God of Confusion, but is a God of Order.

Unless every part of my being at this moment were working in perfect co-relation, I should be in misery. But the opposite is the case, and, therefore, I am well and happy.

Heart, and head, and ear, and thought, and memory, and will, and capacity to concentrate the whole of my past experience and present knowledge is essential for my standing up here at this moment and delivering to you an orderly address upon an orderly subject.

The legal document that has just been read is a perfectly orderly document; orderly in every point.

I will repeat a few words regarding that document before I tell you how God has shown me it will carry out His Plan, if you and I, and our successors, are faithful to the Great Trust which He now commits to us.

This Agreement Unique.

You will notice that it is unlike any of our previous agreements, which each dealt, principally, with a particular thing.

For instance, when we made the agreement of Zion Land and Investment Association, while we did not altogether confine ourselves to the land, it was almost exclusively a Land Agreement.

It contained only certain reserved powers of which this agreement is simply a development.

The Agreement of Zion Building and Manufacturing Association is simply the development, and the orderly development, of the Zion Land and Investment Association Agreement.

When Zion City Bank was formed, the Agreement for that had in it several clauses that enabled me to operate financially this whole plan.

When the Zion Lace Industries Agreement was drawn it was more definite. It had to do with a specific Industry; and therefore it had a very peculiar and very exact form.

I thank God that every word of our promises in that Agreement has been carried out.

Today the Zion Lace Industries is the most successful Industry ever established in the United States!

I intend to ask the Zion City Power, Plumbing, Lighting and Heating Association and the Zion City Lumber Association shareholders to surrender their shares and take shares in this Association.

If they will not, then I shall, probably, retire the shares as the Agreements provide, and give them back their money.

Every loyal member of Zion in these two Associations, which will soon be merged in the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, will doubtless comply with my wishes: for they will get dollar for dollar in the New Stock, and will be guaranteed thereby a much better investment in every way.

The Time for God's Plans Comes.

The time has come when the Principles, Plans and Purposes of God which had been shown to me, must be carried out, first, in the City of Zion, and then as the whole of the "Till He Comes."

It is one thing to see Plans, and it is another thing, in the complicated conditions of modern life, surrounded by legal and business difficulties, to carry them out.

It is an exceedingly difficult thing to be able, in the midst of the noise and strife and toil, to see the details by which the Plan can be wrought out.

Receiving an Order and Carrying It Out.

It is one thing to get an order to do a thing such as I got, and it is another thing to carry out this order.

For instance, General Grant got an order, and it was a pretty big one, from President Lincoln.

Lincoln said, "If I will give you all the men, I will give you all the money, and I will give you all the resources you want, but you must smash that rebellion and establish the Government of the United States, down South to the Gulf of Mexico, and from East to West of the Southern States, and make the Government of the United States supreme."

That was the order.

General Grant had to sit down and see how he could do it.

He did it.

He did not do it by fighting one series of battles on the line of the Potomac or on the line of the Wilderness.

He had to deal with the entire problem, from the eastern to the western shores of this vast country.

He had to deal with the entire naval as well as with the entire military operations of the United States.

He was compelled to see all the difficulties connected with the operations in the enemies' country.

He was compelled to mass the troops of the National Government so that he might eventually, by the successful operations of all the Armies, crush the rebellion at every point, and plant the National Authority and Flag in every place where the Government had been deified and the Flag torn down.

Do you say, "What has that to do with you?"

It has this to do with me: whatever you may be individually or collectively, or this Church may be,

I Am "Boss of This Job."

My Mission is that of Elijah, the Restorer of All Things whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began. (Amen.)

It must be done very quickly, too. There is very little time for it: for the Times of Restoration have begun.

You say, "Where are the resources?"

The resources are first in God, and then they are in His world: for the Earth is His, and all its Treasures and Fullness; and the People are His, and He is their Righteous King.

The immediate resources we shall employ are now held by His people, and by the multitude who, after all, are perishing principally from "lack of knowledge."

A paper in New York, commenting upon our operations, said that the marvelous thing was that a comparatively obscure and unknown man should only have to raise his finger in Chicago, and thousands upon thousands, millions upon millions of people, would want to know what he was going to do, and how he was going to do it.

Why? Because, they said, with the writer of a certain magazine article, that the Twentieth Century was producing at its Open a few foremost men, who must lead by the very force of their organization.

They have been kind enough, in the world, to give me the title now, of "the Morgan of Religion."

May God make me very much more in religion than Morgan is in commerce! (Amen.)

I desire that you shall understand that the Plan of Building this City is a Plan which God puts in my hand.

Will you please to understand that

I Am "Boss of This Job."

(This expression was received with vigorous applause and very hearty good-will.)

That is plain language!

You all understand that!

Do you accept me as "Boss of this job?"

People (With great enthusiasm) "Yes!!"

General Overseer—Then I will boss you!

(Turning to General Lauer, who had read the Articles of Agreement to the audience), You could not say "the Boss of this Job" on that ponderous Legal Document, but that is practically all that paper means; that the people would bring them up with our spirits, our souls, our bodies, our wives, our sons, our daughters, our lives, our everything, all we have!" (Applause.)
I know my people. I know the people that God has raised up. I knew that you would understand that point, and my way of putting it to you.

The Builder and Maker of the City is God.

What is the first thing in Zion in the building of the City for God? The City of God above, the Holy City, is called the "City which hath Foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God." This City of Zion in which I speak tonight is also a City which hath Foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God. Strangers may sometimes stand and build our walls, while the sons of the alien may become our "plowmen and vine-dressers." It is perfectly permissible, if our numbers are insufficient at first for us to do our work with Zion men, that we shall take the sons of the alien; and that "strangers may build our wall."

But the Plan demands, however, is that the Building shall be controlled, and that the profits shall be won by those who belong to God.

The New Shiloh Tabernacle.

The plans are now sufficiently advanced to enable us to call for the steel work for the new Shiloh Tabernacle. Eight of the largest firms in this country have asked us for the privilege of getting the plans and bidding.

We were told a little while ago that the condition of the steel market was such that we would not be able to get the steel, but Deacon Harper tells me the fact I have just mentioned. I have no doubt whatever that God wants that Great Tabernacle, with its seating capacity of 15,000, to be built this year.

We have to build something that will last until Zion Temple, which is to seat at least 30,000, is built, and so we have to build substantially and well.

The new Tabernacle, therefore, will, probably, cost about Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000), and the quicker you find your proper share of those dollars, the better.

God will help you, if you do your part. I have no fear at all about it.

Thank God for this building, which seats over 5,000, in which I am now speaking.

May God ever be praised that we built it! It is not twelve months old; and it has been frequently too small for the throngs who have come.

The floor of this building was scarcely laid twelve months ago.

How absurd it would be to attempt to build the new Shiloh Tabernacle without a plan.

The Plan of God As Regards Your Part Is a Very Simple One.

There is no difficulty at all about it. I will ask the gentlemen learned in the law who are on the platform, whether it is not the law of the United States, of all countries in fact—where the safety of the people is the supreme law—is it not true that the man at the head of the state has the right to command the life and control the property of every citizen?

Judge Barnes—"Always so!"

General Overseer—That is a fact which perhaps you did not know. It is a fact in the United States.

It was, as history shows, under that provision that Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation and destroyed the property rights of the rebels by freeing the slaves.

Judge Barnes—"That was an act of a supreme dictator."

A Supreme Dictatorship Needed.

General Overseer—It was an act of supreme dictatorial power for the preservation and safety of the nation.

No man had a better grasp of the fundamental principle that "the safety of the people was the supreme law," than President Lincoln, and that to educate he had the lawful authority and power to control the action of every citizen's life and every dollar's worth of property, down to the last chicken on the farm.

That is a legal fact!

If that is a fact in law amongst men, is it not a fact with the Children of God in Zion, that they gladly recognize that this Authority and Power is, at this moment, and in this place, vested in our Lord Jesus, the Christ, as King? Has He a right to us and our lives? People—"Yes!"

General Overseer—Our money? People—"Yes!"

General Overseer—And our property? People—"Yes!"

General Overseer—If you have the right man to lead you, a man whom you know God has sent, is it not your duty to turn out and obey, just as some of you did when Lincoln called for three hundred thousand more? You just shouldered your musket and went out and obeyed, and many who went with you never came back.

As God's minister in this matter, I do not hesitate to say that He, God, has a right to my spirit, soul, and body; has a right to you, and everything that you have; and that the real builders of Zion are men who own that God has this right, and are willing to own it practically.

Are you such men? Men—"Yes!"

General Overseer—Are you such women? Women—"Yes!"

Then, the Plan is very simple: that the Whole People of God in Zion set to work, with every power and every dollar they possess, and do the Whole Work as they are directed.

Blunder of the First Apostles.

I believe that a tremendous blunder was made by the first apostles.

When the first apostles received the Holy Spirit, they were without a financial head.

What did Peter know about finance? He knew about catching fish and selling them for as much as he could get.

What did Matthew, the best financier, perhaps, left amongst them, know about finance? He, probably, only knew enough to buy from the Romans the right to "farm" the taxes at one particular gate of a city.

That was about all he knew of finance.

These first apostles were very ignorant of finance, and of business generally—the greatest of them all, Paul, being no exception.

Judas Iscariot Probably a Financier.

I have always regretted that Judas Iscariot did not go straight.

If Judas Iscariot had gone straight, and had continued the good man all the way through that he was at the start, the mistakes that were made in finances never would have occurred. He had a misdirected financial capacity, which at last centered wholly in himself, and made him a thief, a liar, and a betrayer for a few pieces of silver.

Had he remained faithful what a blessing he might have been in the Pentecostal Times. Then when such Vast Sums of Money came into the Apostolic Treasury.

It is estimated that there were probably at least ten thousand persons among the first disciples who had real estate at the time when they laid their property at the apostles' feet.

If each of these ten thousand persons had only a thousand dollars, that was ten millions; and if the average value in present-day money were calculated, it was probably five thousand.

That was Fifty Million Dollars! What became of it? It was not cared for properly.

If the apostles had taken that Fifty Million Dollars and bought land along the Mediterranean and elsewhere, and established great colonies of Christians, who would have created beautiful cities and manufacturies, Christianity would have been a mighty power, and we should have had nineteen centuries of successful Christian work on all the four lines along which we are now operating in Zion—ecclesiastical, educational, commercial and political.

What has been the result? The apostles did not know any better than to take that vast sum of money and give it to the people who would sing hymns, pray, talk, and cease to work as long as the money lasted.

Then the piety of many waxed cold when there were no free lunch pie-counters, although it cannot be doubted that there were vast numbers who were industrious and honest and true and faithful unto death.

It will probably be said that there was a splendid company of "Christians" who had seven principles, "five loaves and two fishes."

In fact, the history of the Christian Church shows us that the apostles, in the "Teaching of the Apostles," had to warn the early Christians against the "Christian traffickers," and to tell them that if a man came and said that he was a minister, he was to be allowed to stay two days, and if he did not do work he was to be moved on.

How the World Outdid the Church.

The world conquered the church upon the financial issue, because the world knew how to pile up wealth and bank it; pile it up in commerce; pile it up in public utilities, libraries, etc.; pile it up in the creation of values.

The Christian was crowded to the wall because he was a poor hand-to-mouth creature, and desired no more, being misled by a false representation of God's Plans and Purposes for His people on this earth. Some even now say, "But Christians were always intended to be poor!"

That is a lie, invented by the Devil who put on priestly robes and preached it to the people; and put on professor's robes and taught it in theological seminaries to men who, from age to age have preached it, believed it, lived it, and died for it, and who let the Devil have all his own way with God's gold, silver, fields, mines, earthly treasures and powers. Clever Devil—but his day in that is going, and will soon be gone forever: for Zion has come to claim God's property, and possession of it on every line.

You might just as well say that Christianity always intended a man to be sick as that the Christian intended men to be poor. Some people believe that, and that is a lie. Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, bore our infirmities and took our sicknesses, and "for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich!"

There is no use talking; Zion cannot overcome New York unless Zion is rich enough to go down there and do it properly. I expect to take down three thousand Zion Restorationists with me.

What will you do then?

I will set each of these three thousand to work. I think that each of the three thousand can interview three hundred in a day.

That gives me nine hundred thousand in a day, and in ten days enables my three thousand to make nine million visits, and that is eight times the number of houses there are in New York.

We can go over it once, twice, three times, and sow New York knee deep with Zion Literature. That is the result of organization! You cannot do that with a penny-whistle church, nor with a penny-whistle leader.

We are just a poor people; but look at what God has wrought in Seven Years, until all the political economists and social and religious philosophers are beginning to look at this work, and say, "We have been theorizing, but this fellow has done something."

Something was done, because I worked upon a distinct and positive Plan from the very beginning of the organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in 1896. I began at that Plan down at the bottom where nobody believed in it.

A Gigantic Undertaking.

When I came to America I was told, "Dr. Dowie, do you not know that this is a low-octave country?"

I said, "Yes, I think there is plenty of the 'deemo-n's' in it, plenty of Devil."

"But, Dr. Dowie, do you not know that the American citizens are, each of them, 'kings'? You cannot talk like that to them, and say that they must do something."

You see, I undertook to do the most unfashionable kind of thing in the world. I undertook to teach a Democratic community to be Theocratic; to exchange the rule of themselves, by themselves and for themselves for the Rule of themselves by God and for God.

That is the difference between the Rule of the People, and the Rule of God.

But I have got at least a hundred thousand to think as I think, and to live accordingly. That is the kind of Alexander's Army that will enable me to smash any number in Darius' Army.

The Coming Conflict in New York.

I positively enjoy the thought of how Dr. Buckley and Dr. Parkhurst, and all those fellows will be getting ready. They will be coming on, a Syrian Host like unto Senacherib's or Darius' armies.

But we will go down and meet them with a little Zion phalanx only three thousand strong.

We will strike them in the middle (applause) and they will melt like snow.

It is this principle of organization—the organization of the Spiritual, Financial, Commercial Power that lies at the bottom of the Plans of Operations in Zion City. This Plan of God could not have been put into operation one hour sooner than it has in this City.

A Severe But Necessary Lesson.

You had to learn a lesson last year, and I do not think you have learned it all yet. Some of you have not the Spirit of Zion in you. You have come into Zion with another spirit. You did not come into Zion with a spirit to consecrate your all to God, and whether winning or losing to trust God and do right.

I believe that about ninety-five per cent. of you did; and that you are blessed by God in Zion today. But as to that small percentage that did not—we have found out and got rid of the most of it, and we shall find out the rest of you most surely when we put this Plan of God into operation, and then—why, if a rat fights a buzz-saw, you know what follows.

In this Association you and Zion everywhere, and people who are not in Zion, but are in sympathy with God's great purposes of redeeming the world, and in sympathy with us as good, sound business men, will cooperate.

Deacon Sloan tells me that there is an increasingly large number of thoughtful Christians, and even some worldly people, who are headed for Zion with their investments. Some of them have already made them.

Part of that million dollars recently subscribed in ten weeks for shares in Zion's present Industries and Institutions, came from people who are not yet in Zion.

But that is only a few drops compared to what is going to follow, as all know who have studied God's Promises to Zion in the Latter Days as they are set forth in the sixtieth chapter of the prophet Isaiah. As, for instance these words—"Thy gates also shall be open continually; They shall not be shut day nor night; That men may bring unto Thee the Wealth of the Nations, And their kings led with them."

No Independent Constructive Work.

I desire to point out to you exactly what this will mean to the workmen of Zion City in the practical carrying out of these Plans. It will mean that every builder and artificer connected with construction and with it, these various things mentioned in the preamble, will be willing to forego all independent action in the way of individual work, whether it be upon their own houses or their brother Tom's or their uncle Ned's, and come into the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, and cooperate with me and the shareholders, and with their fellow workmen, in carrying out God's Plan of Building Zion City.

There is no use of my coming down among you to build, because I cannot strike a nail straight. I would hit my thumb, and I would not earn a wood butcher's wages. (Laughter.)

A Start of $50,000 in the Raising of Capital.

I can do something else.

I praise God that I can head the shareholders' list tonight with a subscription for $25,000 in 20 shares.

My wife will follow with $12,500 and my son with $12,500.

I show my faith by my works in that matter. I am willing to invest that amount and a great deal more if it is necessary, in this Association.
I can only say that the Association shall never be embarrassed at any time, if I have any resources upon which I can rightfully and legally call.

Workmen, Not Shareholders, Take Prominent Place.

I desire to point out to you that this Association is not one in which the shareholders take the most prominent place. It is a splendid stock for outside shareholders and for persons who are not working in the Association, but it is a still better stock for you who are workers in the Association.

The Plan as set forth in the Articles of Agreement gives to myself and others like me, who can control a little capital, sons who are not working in the Association, but it is a still greater stock for you who are workers in the Association.

The next twenty per cent. goes to the shareholders. Where is the greatest reward for the workers? This is the biggest thing for Christian workers that the world has ever seen! You are not my partners. I could not make you that. If I made you that it would void the agreement.

How you cooperate with me, —even those who do not put money into the Association.

I give you the best wages I can afford—that is the best wages you can earn. If you are worth more than the union scale you will get it. If you are worth less you will get it.

The Union scale has nothing to do with us. We will give to every man according as his work is and according to his several ability.

We will not give to every man the same wages, because that is not fair.

There are some men who will not pay attention and are not good workmen.

Surplus Divided Among Workers Who Are Members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in Good Standing.

We propose to divide seventy per cent. of the Surplus Profits with our Zion workmen, and if you are shareholders it will be ninety per cent.

We propose to divide only with Christian men who are members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and are in Good Standing, who are honestly and earnestly serving God according to their light.

Any man in Zion who does not pay his tithes is robbing God, and he would not be considered in Good Standing.

That man will not get any share of the Surplus Profits, because he is not in good standing.

We put him in his proper standing.

For the first time in this Church, we will search the records and see whether a man, in Zion, getting two or three or five dollars a day, is robbing God.

This has been done without discovery for a long time; but it will not be done any longer, for Zion's Paymasters and the General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church are cooperating to prevent our being imposed upon by Robbers of God, who pretend they are faithful members of the Church.

Men who fail to pay their tithes will benefit their honest fellow workmen who do, because there will be so much more to divide amongst the people who do not rob God ever seen!

I calculate that workmen, not shareholders, will probably receive, after the Association is well established, very considerable sums as their share of the Surplus Profits.

How can we do it?

We are a people that does not spend a cent on the Devil's ways.

Influence of the Plan on the Workmen.

Christian men in Zion, you must see that you each do your work. You will say to lazy ones, "None of your soldiering. You are putting your hand into my pocket and robbing me of my work."

"There will be no surplus and no gain at all if you fool away your time."

In this Association there will be no temptation to workmen to lengthen out any job: for the quicker you get through with... your job the larger will be the Profits in which you are to have a share.

The Fault With "Day Labor" Building.

In conversation with a lady the other day, I learned that she was building a house.

"I have not heard of your building through Zion Construction Department. I keep my eye on these things, you know."

"Oh, glad she said. "I got a friend to draw my plans."

"Who is building your house? Is any body disobeying the rule about contracting?"

"Oh, no, I am building it by day labor."

The longer that day labor continued the better it was for them, so the poor woman paid about twice as much for her house as she needed to.

We will have none of your day labor business.

You will have to belong to Zion Building and Manufacturing Association.

How will we stop the day labor business?

Every house in Zion City must have a permit to be built, and we will see that you do not get any permits, unless plans and specifications are approved at the Mayor's office. (Applause.)

We know about some of your jobs, and we intend to make you do a good part of some of them over again, Mr. Day laborers. (Appl.)

Moses had some difficulties in the wilderness, and it made him so hard that he said some things that shut him out of the land of Canaan. They were a bad lot that grieved his righteous soul.

My spirit has been grieved by a few men who pretend to be saints and live like devils, and are not honest in their daily work.

I fully expect them to be taken up quickly.

Voices—"Yes!"

Great Future for Young Men.

I rejoice to think of how our young men have a future before them of honestly earning money out of this Surplus of Profits. I think that when we have built this City in this way, with such Associations as this, with our own people being not only the workers but largely the shareholders, we will be splendidly equipped for building other Zion Cities.

The quicker you subscribe for these shares, the better.

I fully expect them to be taken up quickly.

No Need for Plotting and Planning.

Zion City will not require men to go about plotting and planning so to get work; for this Association is likely to supply work for thousands of workmen in all branches of construction and manufacturing.

The planning is being done for you.

God is putting this thing into operation by means of honest and able Christian men.

He has given you talents and the skill to do your part.

We will take you young men and train you in our manual training and polytechnic schools.

We will make you the best workmen in the world if you will take the pains.

The Plan of God is that good, Christian men, children of God in Zion, shall build His City and get the results.

Interests of House Builders.

In all this too we have the interests of those for whom we build at heart. We shall buy in such a way that we can bid low, and yet get good returns.

We do not intend that they shall suffer from want of competition: for no one could honestly underbid us, and we are Building for God's Children in His City.

My plan and my thought in connection with it is to save by concentration.

Saving by Concentration: and Cooperation.

Shareholders will get all that belongs to them. We must have capital and they have a right to a fair return, but the vast proportion of the Profits will go to the workers.

I am glad that you have had this opportunity to tell you these things, and I thank you for listening so long and so earnestly. I have been on this platform for nearly four hours, and some of you who came early have been here for more than five hours.

I am glad that thousands of you have so much business capacity.

It is because of the lack of business capacity in the Church of God that it has been knocked about as it has, and the Devil has won nearly every battle: for he has controlled the supplies of life in many forms. The Commissary General of the Church of God should never be an enemy of God.

He will get no more victories of that kind here in Zion City, God being our Helper.

I am determined to organize the affairs of Zion in such a way that the men who shall hold the results.

May God grant it! (Applause.)

Unanimous Acceptance of God's Plan.

I believe that everybody in this place is satisfied that I have done the right thing.

I am glad that I was at the head of the procession to subscribe for the shares.

Every one who is in sympathy with me in these remarks stand to your feet and consecrate yourselves to God in this matter, so that He may bestow a Blessing upon us. (Applause, without exception, all in that great audience arose.)

I think I have you all, thanks be to God!

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name, take me as I am. Make me what I want to be in spirit, soul, and body. Bless Zion. Bless the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association. In Thine Infinite Love and Mercy help us to love one another, to be honest with each other, to cooperate together to build up this city and to be prepared for the building of other cities. Bless the officers at the head of this organization. Give the General Overseer and his cabinet all the departments and all associated with him in the administration, that they may do. Give us good superintendent and good workers. Give us young men who shall learn their trade honestly. Bring in many Christians into Zion and help us to be a blessing to the ungodly who may come into our city this year. For Jesus' sake.

The General Overseer led in singing one verse of the Consecration Hymn and then pronounced the BLESSING.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace. Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God would quicken your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, he love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of paper we put in each bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT

Zion Building and Manufacturing Association

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE

WHEREAS, John Alexander Dowie, the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, has acquired a large tract of land in the County of Lake and State of Illinois, on the western shore of Lake Michigan, which he holds for God for the purpose of establishing, and has established thereon, a city known as the City of Zion, it being his purpose to incorporate therein the practical working of the principles taught by Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, in the Sermon on the Mount, in the municipal and industrial, as well as the religious departments of said city, that there may be secured to all generally, and to each in particular, the fair and just proportion of the fruits of human industry and divine beneficence; that in order to share the gains flowing from efficient and loyal service, he recognizes as fundamental to economic and spiritual success as taught by Jesus, the Christ, the eternal truth that "Where God reigns man prospers;" that in pursuance of these views he desires every family in Zion to possess a substantial home, free from debt or liability, and to be so improved as to add to the value of the same; and furthermore, to this end, it is one of his great concerns that all artisans, mechanics, artificers, builders, and other workers in Zion, unite their common interests in an associated effort to supply all needful demands in these directions, and to derive from the exercise of a just and equitable return in the degree as well as collectively, for their investment in money, skill, and labor, in proportion to their contribution to this end. It is his purpose, by this righteous economy of association, to avoid the baseless results of improper competition, as well as the wicked war waged between labor and capital, both of which are needed in harmonious relation in building and fostering the civil and other institutions of a Christian commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, The said John Alexander Dowie desires to obtain capital, labor, and materials for the purpose of founding and carrying on the construction of buildings of all kinds, as well as other material improvements, whether private or municipal, and the manufacture, transportation, exchange and sale of any and all good things made by human industry, and to cause the just division of the proceeds of such investment among the participants in such enterprise, such business to be carried on at any and all places where it may be possible throughout the world, with headquarters at the City of Zion, in said county and state; and it is contemplated, in the furtherance of this project and the development of such enterprise, to include within its scope the purchase of lands, timber and forests; the erection and operation of saw-mills and the machinery needed in the manufacture and preparation of lumber; the acquisition, cultivation, improvement and development of mines, the erection and operation of smelting works and foundries; gold, silver, iron, lead, tin, zinc, brass, steel, copper, and other works; the building, acquisition, operation and control of railroads, tramways, street, suburban, inter-urban, and other lines of transportation operated by horse, steam, electric, or other power now or to be known, discovered, or invented; the construction of harbors, docks, canals and improvements generally; waterways; the building ownership, operation and control of boats, steamers and other water craft; the erection and operation of car and other shops; the manufacture of sewing machines, farm machinery, pianos, organs and other musical instruments; the acquisition, ownership, operation and control of telegraphs, telephones, cable, electric, pneumatic and other lines and systems of communication; the erection and operation of steam, electric and other power plants; the erection, operation and control of woolen and cotton mills and other power mills; and the establishment and equipment, promotion and prosecution generally, in all parts of the world, of such and all other lines of human industry or economic development pertaining or essential to the happiness, well being, progress and Christian development of mankind as individuals, families or commonwealths;

WHEREAS, Said John Alexander Dowie, for the purpose of raising capital to carry on said enterprise, has decided to issue certificates representing shares therein as hereinafter provided;

NOW, therefore, the undersigned hereby subscribe and agree to pay to the said John Alexander Dowie the sums set opposite their respective names for the purpose of furnishing him with the capital for an association to be known as ZION BUILDING AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION, JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, to enable him to carry out his desires as indicated in the preamble hereof, and to have issued to them, respectively, certificates of the kind and character subscribed for by them as hereinafter provided upon the following terms and conditions:

John Alexander Dowie, hereby guarantees to pay interest upon all shares in said Association at the rate of Seven (7) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, the first interest coupon being payable September 1, 1903, and the balance every six (6) months thereafter until the maturity of said shares; and on the first day of March every year thereafter, there shall be declared and paid on each share then outstanding, if earned, in addition to the Seven (7) per cent. interest above provided, out of the surplus profits of said Association, such sum as will, when added to the guaranteed Seven (7) per cent. interest, be equal to interest on the capital represented by the certificate for said share at the rate of eight (8) per cent. per annum, from the date of the issue of the respective certificates thereof, to the first of March, 1901, and from March 1, 1901, to March 1, 1903, at the rate of ten (10) per cent. per annum; and from March 1, 1903, to March 1, 1906, at the rate of twelve (12) per cent. per annum; and from March 1, 1906, and until the maturity of said stock as herein provided, at the rate of ten (10) per cent. per annum.

But it is agreed that all said contingent interest above the seven (7) per cent. interest guaranteed, as aforesaid, must be derived from the surplus earnings of the said Association as herein provided, and after the payment of all expenses the seven (7) per cent. interest guaranteed, and after making proper provision for the protection of said Association and for the ultimate refunding of the capital, or else said contingent interest is not payable.

All shares shall commence earning interest and share in the profits of said Association, as hereinafter provided, from the date when the Certificate for the same is issued, which shall be the date of payment for such shares.

4. It is further agreed that all employees who may be discharged from time to time for want of work in the service of the Association, shall receive, in the event of a surplus of profits accruing, a portion of said surplus in the same ratio for their term of service and equipment as the Association and its associations were engaged in the furtherance of this project and the development of such enterprise, respectively.

In some conspicuous place in the office of said Association, where it can be seen by all shareholders, there shall be subscribed his name.

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF SEEDS grow every year on a maple tree.

GOD HAS HIDDEN WITHIN EACH, wrapped up in its silky green and brown coverings, and borne on its graceful, glossy wing, the Life Principle which is a potential forest of maples.

THESE BEAUTIFUL AND WONDERFUL SEEDS are destroyed by the thousand.

PERHAPS ONLY ONE OF THEM ever grows to be a tree. What a great and beautiful tree it is, though, and how many millions of seeds it bears!

GOD SAW THE GREAT POSSIBILITIES of destruction of the seeds, and created all those thousands that the one might grow.

IN HIM WAS LIFE!
Life is glorious.
Life is radiant with energy, beauty, joy, peace and love. Life is Divine; it is a gift from God Himself; it is God, for Jesus, the Christ, who was God manifest in the flesh, said: "I am the Life."
Life and Death are poles asunder.
Death is cold, hideous, bitter, hateful.
Death is of the Devil.
False teachers try to clothe Death in garments of beauty. They speak of Death as a gift of God.
They teach abject submission and resignation to Death.
They even teach people to thank God for Death.
Their teaching is squarely against the Word of God.
God, throughout His Word, classes Death with all that is evil.
God says: "The wages of sin is Death; but the Free Gift of God is Eternal Life in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord."
"For the Law of the Spirit of Life in Jesus, the Christ, made me free from the Law of Sin and Death."
"The Mind of the Flesh is Death; but the Mind of the Spirit is Life and Peace."

He also Himself in like manner partook of the same; that through Death He might bring to naught him that had the power of Death, that is, the Devil."
"Then the last, when it hath conceived, beareth Sin; and the Sin, when it is full-grown, bringeth forth Death."
Not only does God thus place Death amongst all that which is evil, but He declares Himself the Deliverer from Death; aye, the very Destruction of Death.
God's Word is full of precious promises of deliverance from Death.
God says: "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."
"I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from Death: O Death, where are thy plagues? O Grave, where is thy destruction?"
"Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that heareth My Word, and believeth Him that sent Me, hath Eternal Life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of Death into Life."
"Death is swallowed up in Victory. O Death, where is thy victory? O Death, where is thy sting? The sting of Death is Sin; and the power of Sin is the Law: but thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus, the Christ."

way, but we did not know how to confess and make all things right and trust the Lordfully for healing.

Oh, how it breaks my heart to think of it! Through my own care of him I contracted the dreadful disease, consumption. It began in my throat and then went to my right lungs. I would not take any medicine.

I suffered all the time. I could not lie down, and had to prop myself almost straight up in bed before I could sleep. I was losing flesh and getting weaker all the time.

My breath was so short I could scarcely talk. My husband became alarmed and had our family physician examine my lungs.

The doctor did not tell me the worst, but said my right lung was in a very serious condition, and advised me to take Koch's treatment. I told him that not a drop of that would ever go into my body.

I had been reading LEAVES OF HEALING with God's Word, and believed that God would heal me if I would trust and obey, but I had not fully made up my mind to want to live after my son had gone.

My husband was very much alarmed and wanted me to go to Zion.

Then I asked God to give me life and strength to get there. At the same time I wrote to Zion asking prayer that I might have strength to come. I left home all alone on May 21, 1903.

When I arrived at Fort Worth, I felt more dead than alive, and scarcely had strength to change cars.

After that day the Lord gave me more strength. I arrived in Chicago May 29th.

I went to Zion Hospital, No. 2, where Deacon Ruby prayed with me, from which I received strength and great blessing.

When I walked I was surprised to find how much strength I had received in answer to prayer.

The next day I went to Central Zion Tabernacle, heard the General Overseer, and with thirty-four others was baptized by him. I received a great spiritual blessing at that time. I attended services two or three times each day.

On the morning of the 3d she was worse, with hacking cough and pain in the side.

The doctor did not tell me the worst, but said that there was a large spot on my right lung which was infected with tuberculosis, that my lung was heavy and soggy like a liver, that I got no air through that lung at all, and that it was a question of only a few months with me from a physician's point of view.

I said: I was healed by the power of God, as you know I took no medicine.

He replied: If you had, it would have done you no good.

Thank God for an honest doctor.

I praise God for my healing, and know that He has not only healed me, but that He keeps me.

I know that He has brought me from death into life.

I went to the Lord in prayer and asked forgiveness for a wasted life, and had the assurance that He forgave me.

At that time I was not healed. My lungs were still sore and I pained me very much. Nevertheless I knew that the healing was coming.

A short time after, in answer to prayer, with laying-on of hands, praise the Lord, I was healed. I went to bed that night and slept well for the first time in many weeks.

When I rose in the morning, all the pain and soreness had gone, and I could breathe from the bottom of my lungs, a thing which I had not been able to do for weeks.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

One of my neighbors who had mourned and said, Poor Mrs. Hartman will never come back alive, was the first one to come and tell me that it was all a lie, and that there was nothing the matter with me.

My church people all turned against me and said that I had gone crazy. I talked with one of our ministers about it, and he said that it was nothing but hypnotism, that the power of the Holy Spirit ceased with the last Apostles.

A few days ago I called on Dr. S. J. White and told him that I wanted to write my testimony.

I asked him what he thought about me at the time he examined my lungs.

He said that there was a large spot on my right lung which was infected with tuberculosis, that my lung was heavy and soggy like a liver, that I got no air through that lung at all, and that it was a question of only a few months with me from a physician's point of view.

When I returned home the Devil was stirred up.
Now faith is the giving substance to things hoped for (Hebrews 11:1).

Faith must be the leading characteristic in the life of the Christian because without faith it is impossible to please God. (Hebrews 11:6.)

It is by faith that we are saved from our sins and cleansed from their defilement. (Acts 13:15; 26:18; Romans 5:1.)

By faith we are sanctified and receive peace. (Acts 20:18; Romans 5:1.)

By faith we receive all the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Faith is the hand that reaches out and takes from the great Storehouse which the Father has provided, whatever the Christian needs, even the unsearchable riches in the Christ. (Ephesians 3:8; Philippians 4:19.)

The promises of God are the fulcrums upon which the faith of the Christian must rest.

Then, if he abide in the Christ and His words abide in him, he shall be able to move the world. (John 15:7.)

All of God's promises are yea and amen in Jesus the Christ. (2 Corinthians 1:19, 20.)

By them the Christian is made partaker of the Divine nature and is enabled to escape the corruption that is in the world through lust. (2 Peter 1:4.)

Faith is not feeling or sight. It seems like nothing.

It is so simple that a child can exercise it, and the wise and the learned fail to grasp it.

The Apostle who wrote the Epistle to the Hebrews illustrates his clear definition of faith by examples of those who have pleased God by their firm faith in Him when the Devil tried them to the limit of their power.

God tries no man to see whether he will do evil, but He does permit men to be tempted and tried by the Devil, as in the case of Job (James 1:13; Job 1-11).

He will not permit man to be tempted above what he is able to bear (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Our faith, by being tried, grows stronger.

The Christian learns to walk by faith as a little child learns to walk after repeated falls.

We find, in the 11th chapter of Hebrews, a wonderful picture gallery of men and women whose faith failed not when tried to the utmost.

Among these Abraham is given the most prominent place in being called the Father of the Faithful; for when he was tempted, as he believed, by God, to sacrifice his child, as did the heathen nations around him, the great promises which God had made to him were swept from beneath his feet through his obedience to what he thought to be the Voice of God.

But accounting that God was able to raise up Isaac even from the dead, his faith stood the test, and God commended it.

The history of Abraham affords a profitable study of the growth of faith through repeated testings and failures.

All of these are not given.

They must have extended through many years before he reached the place where his faith could stand the severest test that could be brought to bear upon it.

Faith, like every other power in man, can only grow by use in the daily experiences of life.

When God commanded Abraham to leave his country and his kindred and go to the Land of Canaan, his faith enabled him to start and walk until he came into the promised land, and then he fell before the famine and stumbled into Egypt.

He was afraid to trust God for his bread and butter in the land where God had promised that he should be blessed.

In Egypt he was afraid he would be killed, although God had promised that he should be the father of a great nation.

Thus his history shows him to have been a man of like passions and with the weaknesses and temptations of the rest of mankind, but he persevered where others would have given up discouraged in the walk of faith.

God speaks to us today through His Word as He did to Abraham, and His promises are for us.

We who live in these Latter Days have a work to do such as has been given to no other people; that of preparing the world for the Coming of the King and for the Times of the Great Tribulation.

As we consecrate ourselves to God and recognize the unity of the Body of which the Christ is the Head, we shall receive by faith that Purity, Power in Prayer, Patience and Peace which shall enable us to progress in the Divine Life and become a mighty army which God can use under our Lender, to destroy the Devil's kingdom and establish the Theocracy.

Zion Literature is to be a mighty factor in this great work.

Then let us study it ourselves in connection with the Scriptures and send it over the world to bring the nations under the Rule of God, that Christ may be All in and All.

We give the following extract from the letter of

A Sower Who Went Forth to Sow.

I was so glad to have the opportunity of taking a roll of LEAVES OF HEALING to the summit of Pike's Peak, and to distribute Zion Literature on the train going up.

None had ever read the Literature before and it was received gladly.

The road is almost four miles straight up, and nine miles from foot to summit.

I also distributed LEAVES in the jail at Colorado Springs.

I heard of a German who stayed in the mountains six months at a time, and longer, because when he came to Colorado City he could not keep from drinking.

He had his food brought to the toll-gate for him. I sent him LEAVES OF HEALING to the toll-gatekeeper's daughter.

I distributed many LEAVES and tracts to tourists at Seven Falls, Cheyenne and Pueblo.

In going to Cripple Creek I handed the Literature out of the car windows when we stopped at the stations.

This trip was certainly a gift of God to me.

Mrs. Ava E. Logan, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, writes to our General Overseer:

I received your kind letter in due season, for which I thank you; also for your prayers, which God heard and answered.

I have gained in strength every day since.

My only gain was healed of consumption three years ago through the teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING.

Words can never express my gratitude to God and to you for teaching us that our Savior heals the same today as He did of old.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"They know not the thoughts of Jehovah, neither understand they his counsel."

AND NOW many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye see its desire upon Zion. But they know not the thoughts of Jehovah, Neither understand they His counsel: For He hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. Arise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion: For I will make thy horns Brass: And thou shalt beat in pieces many peoples: And their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

WE HAVE HAD an exceedingly heavy week of office work in connection with the Administration of the Affairs of Zion, not only in Zion City and in America, but throughout the World.

We rejoice to tell our readers that, by day and by night, the Literature of Zion, and the faithful efforts of hundreds of officers and tens of thousands of members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion are rapidly extending the Victories of Christ our King.

We are so busy making history that we have not time to write it.

We are so busy preparing for the wonderful work that is most manifestly coming to us in Zion City this spring and summer that we find it difficult to even move far from our office for a single hour, excepting when our duties call us to the platform, or to the prayer-room.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

Day by day God bears our Burdens, and delivers us amid the heavy toils which Zion's successes have imposed upon us.

Within a few weeks we shall have a Wonderful Story to tell regarding the financial response to the call for the first half million dollars for our new Commercial Institution, the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, which was launched last week so successfully.

The Articles of Agreement were published at length in our last issue.

We have given directions for the preparation of the Certificates of Shares, and the General Financial Manager is now ready to receive Applications, through the Bureau of Zion's Stocks and Securities, which is under the management of Deacon Daniel Sloan.

We expect to close our Series of Restoration Messages upon the Apostasies with the Message which, God willing, we shall deliver tomorrow afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium, entitled: "The Valley of Dry Bones, or the Apostasies of the Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregationalist and other Free Church Denominations.

Zion Restoration Host, which has been doing splendid work in Chicago throughout the winter, will now redouble its energies, as the spring approaches, and reach still larger numbers every Lord's Day morning.

The Twelve Restoration Messages which, God willing, we shall deliver from Lord's Day, March 15th, to Lord's Day, May 31st, when we close our Long Series of Seventy-eight (78) Messages in the Auditorium, will be, as at the beginning of the Series, Calls to Repentance, Faith, Hope, Love, and Holy Living, for which we ask the earnest prayers of Zion everywhere.

Then we concentrate upon Zion City.

By that time we hope the new Shiloh Tabernacle will be rising on its beautiful location in Shiloh Park.

Plans are now almost perfected, and bids for the structural iron work, etc., will be called for in a few days.

It is a noble design and a wonderful interior, with many necessities and conveniences which we have needed for years in handling the immense throngs of worshipers, and in gathering the Choir and Officers and preparing them for the services.

We shall also, God willing, have a Beautiful Baptistry, like unto a Flowing River, which we trust to be able to describe soon in these columns.

We expect to be able to baptize a thousand persons easily within an hour.

Great interest continues to be taken all over the country, and all over the world, in our Mission in Madison Square Garden, New York, which has been announced for from October 18th to November 1st, both days inclusive.

A New York lady has just written to us saying that she will leave in a few weeks for her old home in Europe, and bring back with her, at her own expense, a number of her friends to attend the meetings.

As our readers are aware, we intended to have held a continuous month's Mission in New York, had we been able to secure the great Auditorium of the Madison Square Garden, which seats Sixteen Thousand (16,000) persons, for that period.

But it was impossible for us to do so, as it had been already taken.

We have, however, felt that it would be very desirable for us to spend a few days longer in New York, and consolidate the work done in the Madison Square Garden.

Hence we have arranged for a short Special Series of four meetings in the large Carnegie Hall, which we have secured for Tuesday, November 3rd, Wednesday, November 4th, Friday, November 6th and Lord's Day, November 8th.

We have already a Branch which meets in one of the smaller Carnegie Halls.

We trust to be able to leave a powerful organization behind us, to carry forward the work done in Madison Square Garden.

In answer to many questions we desire to say that, as far as we can now see, we shall not be able to hold a Series of Meetings in either Boston or Philadelphia this year; nor can we promise to visit either city at the close of our New York Mission.

We therefore advise our friends in the Atlantic States not to reckon upon any such visits, but to concentrate, with Zion Restoration Host, upon the work in New York.

If God permits, this Mission may be only the first of a Series to the Large Cities of the United States in the Fall of each year, to which we shall gather the Legions of Zion Restoration Host from all parts of America.

Some day we may cross the Ocean with an entire ship-load of the Host for a Mission in the great cities of another Continent.

The Night is very far spent, and we must close these brief Editorial Notes, leaving a thousand things untold and a thousand desires unexpressed.

The Possibilities of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, as an instrument of God for the evangelization of the world, and, above all, the possibilities of Zion Restoration Host, as a closely organized band of the bravest of the brave, are limited only by the world itself.

But great results are achieved only by those who excel in the patient performance of daily duty.

So we say to all our people everywhere, do the immediate work that God has given you to do, in your homes, workshops, offices, and in association with Zion.

That is the best preparation for service in the world-wide work of Zion.

Go forward daily, sowing precious seed, and doing the Will of God from the heart—humbly, patiently, faithfully, hopefully, lovingly, and perseveringly; sure that the beautiful words of the Angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary will be fulfilled,

"No Word from God Shall be Void of Power."

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 7, 1903.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, inercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 6:15-14; 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
Chicago heard the truth about itself. Lord's Day afternoon, March 1, 1903.

Chicago has been criticised, praised, cursed, flattered, reviled, cajoled, misrepresented and exalted by thousands of writers and speakers of all classes and professions and from all parts of the world; but never before has there come a man who has fearlessly, because lovingly, told the unvarnished truth to, and about, the city.

God's Messenger spoke the truth because he had lived long and labored faithfully in Chicago and among her people, and because he had seen the city with eyes which had been opened by the Spirit of God.

He could speak with knowledge and understanding concerning the Sins of Chicago, because, for many years, his Voice had been raised day after day and week after week, faithfully, lovingly, patiently, and yet unceasingly, rebuking Chicago for those Sins and calling her to repentance, and because thousands had heard and obeyed that call, and had been blessed in spirit, soul and body.

He could speak with knowledge, understanding and deep sympathy of the Sorrows of Chicago, because for those many years he had shared in those Sorrows, and had poured out his life in relieving them.

He was the one man in all the city to warn her of the approaching visitation of Divine wrath; for he spoke not only as one of the oldest, in point of service, of all the ministers in the city, and one who has ministered continuously for many years to the largest and most representative audiences assembled in the city for any purpose whatever, but also as the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer of all Things, the Strong Messenger of the Times of the End.

God Himself had also witnessed to the prophetic mission of His Messenger by again and again answering his prayers, giving him wonderous victories over the combined powers of Press, Pulpit, Secretism and Politics, and fulfilling his prophetic utterances in a most remarkable manner, before the eyes of all the people.

Hence it was, that this Message, although the subject had been announced only one day previously, attracted to the Auditorium a great audience of about 5,000 people, who came and heard, not only with respect and interest, but with conviction.

The truth stood forth in startling clearness as proclaimed by the man of God, showing that Chicago was sinful, sorrowful, and swiftly approaching disaster, because, for the most part, she was without Faith in God, was in despair, had lost true Love, and had crowned hell-born Lust in its place.

A notable feature of the service was the very excellent singing of an air from "The Messiah," "Why do the nations so furiously rage together and why do the people imagine a vain thing?" by Mr. John Thomas.

At the close of the Message, the thousands present, almost without exception, rose and joined in the solemn Prayer of Consecration.

It was fitting that this Wonderful Message should close by the singing of that hymn which has been of deep significance to thousands, "Sin no more." Again and again, the beautiful words rang out, each time with increasing power, as the women, and then the men, sang them alone, and then all together joined in the mighty chorus, with a harmony and volume which came because there was spirit in the singing.

After a short intermission, the General Overseer administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to about three thousand Christians.

The Spirit of God was present in the Ordinance, and there was a prayerful renewal of consecration as God's Messenger called upon Zion Restoration Host in Zion City and Chicago to put forth even mightier efforts than ever before during the remaining three months of the Auditorium services in Zion Restoration Work in the city of Chicago.

The service was closed with the Parting Hymn, "God be with you, till we meet again," the Benediction, and Zion's Salutation.

CHICAGO AUDITORIUM. Lord's Day Afternoon. March 1, 1903.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the PROCESSIONAL:

When morning gilds the skies, My heart awaking cries May Jesus Christ be praised! Alike at work and pray', To Jesus I repair; May Jesus Christ be praised! When sleep her balm denies, My silent spirit sighs, May Jesus Christ be praised! When evil thoughts molest, With this I shield my breast, May Jesus Christ be praised!
The Chief Sin of Chicago is, that like "the fool, in his heart," Chicago has said, "There is no God. There is no God."

The great mass of people in Chicago will not admit it, but it is true.

When a man says, "There is no God," he says in effect, "There is no Bible; there is no Law of God to hold me; the Ten Commandments are blotted out."

The next great sin of Chicago is its despair. When you have destroyed Faith you destroy Hope—Divine Hope that brightens all the Pathway of Life with its Eternal Sunshine, and takes all Sorrow away.

Then, worst of all, when you have destroyed Faith and Hope, you have destroyed Love. What have you in its place? You have Lust! Damning Lust!

Then Lust is supreme everywhere.

For Sin, the remedy is the Faith of God, the Hope of God, and the Love of God, as revealed to us in the Christ our Lord.

God's Love never fails.

The only Hope is in God, for in man there is none.

ELIJAH THE RESTORER TELLS CHICAGO OF HER SINS IN THE REJECTION OF GOD AND THE REIGN OF LUST.
SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION. 617

I. Thou shalt not have other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain: for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, nor thy neighbor’s wife, nor thy neighbor’s manservant, nor thy neighbor’s maidservant, nor anything that is thy neighbor’s.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

The Choir then chanted the

The Choir then chanted the

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us, And cause Thy face to shine upon us; That Thy Way may be known upon earth, Thy Saving Health among all the Nations; For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAYER.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 195:

Chorus—Oh, the crowning day is coming, Oh, the glorious sight will gladden, But soon He’ll come in glory, When our Lord shall come in “power” By the many still neglected, And “glory” from on high.

And by the few enthroned;

Each waiting, watchful eye.

And by the world disowned.

The Choir then chanted the

RECITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles’ Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; The third day he rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting. To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continuually do cry: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth, Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory. The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee. The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee. The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee. The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of an infinite majesty; Thine Adorable, True and Only Son; Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter. Thou art the King of glory, O Christ; Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father. When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin; When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father. We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting. O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; Govern them and lift them up forever. Day by day we magnify Thee: And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin. O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us. O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee. O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded. The General Overseer read in the Inspired Word of God the 1st Psalm, also from the 23d chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, commenting as follows upon the 9th verse:

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.

The Choir then chanted the
in His own prayer in addressing our Father in Heaven, are applied by them to a miserable monk.

I do not doubt that there are very few men of our time who have been more abominable, more self-restrained than the Roman Catholic Pope. Pio Nono delighted in the dogma of papal infallibility, but since Pope Leo XIII. came to the throne we have heard very little of the dogma.

I hope he is much ashamed of it.

It is a decree now and he has to sustain it: for, as Cardinal Pecchi, he outwardly approved it, or he would never have been pope.

Shameful, wicked and ecclesiastically blasphemous in claiming the infallibility which belongs to God alone, the pope is called Holy Father.

The Papal hierarchy declares that it has the power by a little Latin hocus-pocus to change a bit of wet flour into the body, blood and bones of the Christ.

It also claims that God Almighty, in answer to its prayer makes it no longer bread, but transforms it into the Living God.

That is a shameful, disgraceful, crowning lie, and yet the man who is at the head of the system which teaches that lie is called Holy Father.

Jesus the Christ, our Master, the Son of God, used the words Holy Father but once in addressing God His Father in Heaven; and they were never used at any time in addressing the Apostle Peter, or any of the Apostles.

It is well not to begin to call men Father, and to call any man, even the Christ Himself, "Holy Father," is blasphemy.

Call no man Father ecclesiastically.

You have a Father in Heaven.

The pope and the bishops of Rome who permit themselves to be called "Right Reverend Father in God," are directly sinning against the command of the Christ.

A Wrongful Use of the Word Father.

Sometimes people think that they can please me by so addressing me.

"I have some little correspondence with ecclesiastics of high degree who address me as the "Right Reverend Father in God."

Though they mean it kindly I should like to tell every one that I hate the word as applied to myself, or to any other man. You have a Father in Heaven. You do not need to talk of any minister of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, as Father.

It takes away from the dignity of prayer to speak of a man as "Holy Father," or as a "Right Reverend Father in God," and then begin to pray to our Father in Heaven.

It takes away the strength of the word Father when spiritually applied.

I call your attention to this because the Church, at a very early time, disobeyed in calling bishops "Fathers in God," and "Right Reverend Fathers."

Jesus, the Christ, says:

"Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even the Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

The word translated servant here is the Greek word δοῦλος, or δοῦαν, and has the signification of the Latin word minister, or servant. It sometimes means messenger. Later it was applied to the first seven δοῦαν who were called to that office, and ordained, by the apostles in the Pentecostal days.

(The General Overseer then read the remainder of the chapter.)

"Prayer was offered by the General Overseer."

He then made the announcements, and in referring to his subject for next Lord's Day said:

Independent, Free Churches Have Become Worse than Useless.

I desire to show why it is that so many of the independent free churches have become such useless and even pernicious elements in connection with the extension of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. That is a strong remark, but I know that it is true.

I bring no railing accusation.

I propose to prove everything I say.

In the long series of discourses upon the apostasy I have proved every allegation that I have made, and had time permitted the proofs could have been multiplied until the repetition would have become monotonous and tiresome. It is useless to go on slaying the slain.

These have been published and read all over the world by hundreds of thousands of people.

Shortighted Policy of the Press.

I think they are read least in Chicago, outside of the many thousands of Zion, because the press with very shortighted cunning—for it recoils upon itself at last—has suppressed the statements which I have made. Not once has it ever attempted to give a fair and truthful report of any sermon that I have ever delivered in Chicago, although for many years I have spoken weekly to audiences with average aggregate attendances of fully 10,000.

It has continued to represent us and our people, as if we were a pack of clowns, mountebanks, or a huge continuous joke.

The press knows well that the statements that it prints every week are lies.

The people attending my ministry know it.

Lately a young man wrote an article in which he said he was perfectly astounded in reading the report on the Monday morning to find things which I had never said.

The report was entirely contrary to facts.

You remember James O'Donnell Bennett's article. in the Chicago Journal to that effect.

Mr. Bennett was soon suppressed.

The Chicago papers think that they cannot afford to keep a man who tells the truth.

And by they will find out that they cannot afford to keep a man who tells a lie.

"Leaves of Healing" Returns to Chicago From Distant Lands and Is Blessed.

Many Chicago people have learned of this work going on in their midst through receiving Leaves of Healing sent to them by some friend in distant lands.

There is a lady in this meeting now, one of whose friends first received Leaves of Healing from the Orkney Islands.

She knew no more about my existence and what was going on in Chicago than if she had been living in the moon.

Leaves of Healing, which we print in Chicago, had been sent by the lady now present to her relatives in the Orkney Islands, and she testified also to her own healing.

Their friends began to write to a very sick woman in Chicago, once an Orkney Islands, about the wonderful things they read.

She replied: "I know nothing about that. Send me the paper."

The paper was sent, and she came to our mission with the lady who had first sent Leaves of Healing from Chicago.

Thousands of Witnesses to Divine Healing.

We have had testimony meetings here and elsewhere where thousands have testified to their healing.

I could show you a testimony meeting now in a minute where thousands would testify.

The press will not report it tomorrow.

Everybody who has been healed through faith in Jesus the Christ, healed by God alone, stand. (Thousands rose.)

Did God heal you? Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—You look very well and happy. Sit down.

Not a line of that will appear tomorrow, unless it is some miserable lie about it.

We have had hundreds and thousands of testimonies given in detail in all our Zion Tabernacles all over the world, as well as in this Auditorium.

These are recorded in eleven large volumes, beautifully printed and illustrated, and the twelfth volume of Leaves of Healing is now being published in the issues from week to week.

Many of these volumes consist of more than a thousand pages, and they contain a record of Miracles of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living which is unparalleled in the History of the Church since Apostolic Times.

But you would not know about any of this work from the Chicago press.

People in hundreds and thousands know more about our mission in many distant parts of the world than you do in Chicago.

You have a press which suppresses the truth concerning myself and the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

It tells lies only—giving only enough truth occasionally to make the lie more plausible and injurious for the time.

Zion's Victory Over the Press.

I am very happy because I have chastised that press soundly for more than twelve years, and it has never succeeded in defeating me.

I have fought them and have won, and I shall continue to win if I trust God and do right.

Last week was perhaps the most remarkable week in the history of this Church.

If you desire to get the story read LeAVES OF HEALING.

You would not know from the press that for years we have been turning out tons of Zion Literature every week.

I marvel, often, that the people of Chicago know so little of what is going on in their own city.

Since we have been sending out the Zion Seventies and Zion Restoration Host they have been getting some better idea of our work for the glory of God, and the salvation and cleansing and enriching of humanity.

Elder Lee, how many do we reach even in the midst of this severe winter?

Elder Lee—"We have averaged twenty-one thousand homes every Lord's Day."

General Overseer—Averaging only five persons to every home, that would be 105,000 people every Lord's Day.

Sometimes we have reached a great many more.

The figures given are the average of last month, which was one of the coldest months of the winter.

I know that we have sometimes reached more than two hundred thousand people in a week; for I remember once that my people in two weeks distributed 400,000 messages.

I am glad to know that this is the way by which we can reach the people.

When we go down to New York, God helping us, we will do our utmost to reach everybody in that city by our organization.

We shall do better and more effective work there than we have ever done within the same time in Chicago; for the Legions of Zion Restoration Host may number at least 4,000 fully effective members who will give at least six to eight hours each day for at least ten days.

Each of those workers will reach, in one good day's work, a hundred homes at least; thus the four thousand workers will reach four thousand times a hundred or 400,000 homes in one day.

In ten days at that rate they will visit four million homes.

There are probably less than a million homes in New York; so the Host could cover New York four times within two weeks.

We have been studying how to get ahead of the Devil, in the way of effective organization for the destruction of his kingdom, and we are getting ahead generally all the time.

Blessings of the Week.

I am very thankful for the week just gone—our Seventh Anniversary week—which reveals the wonderful fact that we have grown during those years from less than 500 to more than 8,000 in less than twenty months from the time we leased our first lot for 1,100 years.

I want to get the story read LEAVES OF HEALING.

I have a member of Zion Law Department read to them the Agreement read last Wednesday night.

I marvel at the wonder of it, and the consequence

And enriching of humanity.

When people in this world want to give me something for nothing, I do not trust them.

Only does God that; and only His people, who are "not of the world," even although they dwell in the midst of it, and do business on earth.

They "give, hoping for nothing again" from those they help in the Spirit of Love.

He gives you something for your good-for-nothing heart.

If you will give Him your heart, He will give you Salvation, Healing, Holiness, and power to live a good life.

People who are Christians will do the same thing.

They will carry the Gospel to you, without money and without price; as Zion Restoration Host has done to hundreds of thousands today all over the world—for the Banner of Zion now floats on every Continent, and on many Islands of the Sea.

It pays magnificently to carry the Gospel of the Kingdom of God to mankind without salary.

We have carried the Gospel without salary for a great many years, and for twenty years I have had the largest income of any minister in the world.

I have spent my income on my work with great delight.

He may get up a miserable counterfeit, but it is a wretched thing. It does not pay anybody to buy the Devil's counterfeit. Even the world sees that it is worth while to study how we are doing things. Some of you sociological monkeys in the Literary Zoo would better study the work of Zion. You do not know anything about real sociology for you have never been alongside the working man. I am with him all the time, and have been all my life: for even when a student of liberal arts and theology in great schools of learning, I ministered to the working classes, and the lapsed masses in my native city—Edinburgh, Scotland.

Fun at the Expense of the Foolish Press.

I have a great deal of fun at the expense of the press. I keep many of the things they publish concerning Zion and myself, and when I want some fun I send "for my scrapbooks. Occasionally I do not see the scrap-book until the end of the week.

Then I rejoice in the work that the Devil has been doing against himself.

One paper in New York has published a cartoon about fifteen inches wide, in which it represents Zion Restoration Host and me as having landed in force at the Battery, and immediately attacked the Demon Powers there entrenched to receive us. We have apparently carried their works, and have driven them up Broadway, Fifth avenue, etc.

We have the Devil on the run and are driving him up-town from one point to another at a great rate.

Before we get to Madison Square Garden we have had five engagements and five collections.

As you look at the picture you see that we have captured the enemy's artillery, all his playing-cards, dice, and all his whisky bottles.

I hope that will be true.

That cartoon did not hurt me, although the picture of both my people and myself was not flattering.

I do not worry about what the papers are doing.

I am very glad to know that there is so much fire about me, that even the Tribune said a few days ago that it was an absurdity for a company to go away and buy the crater of a Central American volcano to get sulphur, when, if they only capitalized me, there would be plenty of sulphur. (Laughter.)

I thought that was a good joke; and a good admission from the Devil's Chicago Tribune, that we had made it quite hot for the towers of evil here.

Perhaps the Tribune knows how hot I can get, and has felt the sulphur of a Divine Anger in dealing with a shameless and persistent Diabolical Liar, as we have proved it scores and hundreds of times to be, since we had our first fight with the Devil.

If I had paid the Devil to advertise me he could not have done so more thoroughly.

After the tithes and offerings had been received, the General Overseer delivered the afternoon Message.

CHICAGO: ITS SINS AND ITS SORROWS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight and profitable unto me. And unto all them that love me, and unto all them that seek my good. Amen. (Luke 10:41.

And when He drew nigh, He saw the City and wept over it. (Luke 19:41.)

I have not been accustomed, as you know, to speak much concerning my own emotions or personal and inward experiences, believing, as I do, that no man's inward experiences or emotions are, for the most part, of any consequence at all except to himself.

There are, however, exceptional times when a man must speak of himself and his emotions, and when he must give vent to personal feeling, and give utterance to private conviction.

Love for Native City.

After a long absence from my native city, Edinburgh, where I was born and lived for the first fourteen years of my life, I thought that I would like to approach my native city by sea.

Accordingly I came down from London by steamer, and I will never forget the great disappointment in finding that the Firth of Firth was full of fog.

I could hear the warning bells on the Rocks, and the fog signals from the Life-saving Stations along the coast; but I could see nothing of the beautiful shores that I knew so well.

Nevertheless, I rejoiced over that fog: because standing, by his kind invitation, with the captain on the bridge of the steamer, I saw that I was about to have presented to me a wondrous, although rare, spectacle—that which is presented when the fog begins to lift from the sea, and creeps up the side of the hills.

I saw, as it crept up from the waters that Portobello, Leith, and the Fife Coast began to appear, and then, at last, I beheld the Unveiling of the Lovely City, just as if Divine hands were lifting the veil from the face of a beautiful bride.

Then I saw the city in all its splendor, with its historic palaces, spires, towers, the castle which crowns one of its seven hills, and its green-clad mountains which are wrapped around it, as it rose up from the deep blue waters of the Firth, reflecting the deeper blue of the unclouded skies. Oh, it was wonderful! I wept, for it was my native city, Edina, the historic capital of my native Scotia.

Breathe there the man, with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said, This is my own, my native land, Whose heart hath ne'er within him burn'd, As home his footsteps he hath turn'd From wand'ring on a foreign strand. If such there breathe, go, mark him well; For him no ministrels' rapture swell; High though his titles, proud his name, Bomblew his wealth as wish can claim,— Despite those titles, power and splend— The wretch, concentrated all in sell, Living shall forfeit fair renown, And, doubly dying, shall go down To the vile dust from whence he sprung, Unwept, unhonored and unsung.

I was not that kind of man, and, therefore, my heart burned, my throat choked, and the hot tears ran down my youthful face. O Edina! Edina! I love thee still!

The Christ's Prophetic Vision of Jerusalem.

When the Veil was lifted from the Prophetic Eyes of the Son of God He saw the awful Vision of the Last Days of Jerusalem. He saw the armies of the Roman Emperor, Vespasian, under his son Titus, encamped around the Doomed City. He saw, in a prophetic vision, the horrors of that scene; the fatal miseries wrought by a fanatic and wicked people who would accept no mercy.

They hated one another.

The factions fought and tore each other as wild beasts.

At last, rather than yield, they devoured the fruit of their bodies, boiled their children in caldrons, tore them limb from limb and drank their blood.

They lived upon the flesh of their own children.

Then He saw the final horrors when the city was over-run, every one now fleeing, when no stone was left upon another.

The story that Josephus tells is but the full realization of a story which the Christ tells in these words—

If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

To the vile dust from whence he sprung, Unwept, unhonored and unsung.

For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up a bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side. And shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

Who would think that within less than forty years from the time He spoke that city which had been built up again in magnificence even greater than in the time of Solomon would be absolutely destroyed?

Its Great Temple was the wonder of the world; but it vanished away.
The Christ Who Wept Over Jerusalem Weeps Over Modern Cities.

It was a city full of art and literary treasures of every kind, with palaces, towers and beautiful furnishings from every land. No one was able to calculate the wealth of that people in those days; and now all is gone, because they knew not the Time of their Visitation.

Alas, for the people in any age who are wilfully blind to the Prophetic Message, and refuse to recognize the Time of their Divine Visitation.

Could He see all this in prophetic vision and not weep? If we weep with joy to behold our native land and city after long absence, oh, what anguish of spirit, what bitter weeping it would cause the Master, the Prophet of all prophets, to see so clearly the doom and the destruction of Jerusalem, the Holy City, where God had established His Holy Temple—a Place of Prayer for all Nations.

And when He drew nigh He saw the City, and wept over it.

The Christ Who Wept Over Jerusalem Weeps Over Modern Cities.

The same Christ is with us now. He has ever been the sympathetic Friend of Humanity. He has ever been the Spirit of Compassion, and of earnest desire to be a blessing to others, is the same Spirit that He puts in our breast, and that has made us a blessing to others.

First Impressions of Chicago.

I remember when I first came to this city I so disliked it that after being in it about two hours I went out to the suburb where I had my temporary abode and I said to my wife: “I never want to see Chicago again.”

I thought that it was the most vulgar, the most filthy and the ugliest kind of city I had ever seen, and I have seen many cities. I remember the disgust which filled my heart when I saw the numberless saloons around the Union Depot.

When I returned to that depot at night I found the thugs and thieves and harlots and drunkards swarming around that neighborhood, preparing for their night of drunken debauchery and crime.

I remember walking around one block in which I counted, if my recollection serves me, not less than twenty saloons, and dives and low theaters besides.

Lewd women were standing there beckoning me in. I saw villains ready to strike and rob me even then, in the early part of the night, who were restrained only by the presence of the police.

I saw crime and vice in full blast, no one taking any heed. I felt that it must be a gate of hell.

I said to my wife: “I never want to see Chicago again.”

Evanston a Conceited Humbug.

Shortly after I took a house in Evanston, which is about the most contemptible little Mah-hah-bone-Methodist humbug of a suburb in existence.

The abounding pride and contemptible conceit of that people filled me with the utmost disgust. I thought that I had never seen a more ignorant people who thought themselves the hub of Christian Civilization.

Folly of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

I was perfectly disgusted with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which had its headquarters there, with their utter want of capacity in the commonest kind of business.

The supposition that a number of women could run a notoriously unprofitable skyscraper Lasalle street office-building at a profit in Chicago, calling it a Woman's Temple, and that women could run the temperance movement alone, was manifestly stupid.

All the politicians of the country were putting their tongues in their cheeks, and telling the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to go ahead and fool all the women with the idea that they were doing something.

But the politicians got all the men, and all the votes, and all the money. You never can run a great movement with any class, you miserable Christian Try-to-do-its.

You can do nothing by attempting to run a great movement with a lot of children, or illiterate and uninformed young people.

All Classes, Sexes and Ages of People Must Unite to Fight the Devil.

It is easy and wisdom to run a great movement.

The apprentices cannot run a factory; the children cannot run a church.

And a temperance movement cannot be run by women alone. You must have men and women, boys and girls, youths and maidens, all combined to fight the Devil.

That is what we have in Zion today.

We have no Christian Try-to-do-it society in Zion.

We have no Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Zion.

We do not endeavor; we do.

We do not talk Prohibition, we Prohibit.

All in Zion City cooperate.

Chicago Detestable as a Place of Residence.

I detested Chicago as a place of residence, and I have never changed my opinion, never!

I have never had any reason to change my opinion, because it has been the worst governed, the worst scavenged and the worst cared-for city that I have ever seen in the whole world, possessing as it does so tremendous an income, and supporting as it does, armies of tax-eaters.

Think of the Budget of contemplated expenditure for this year being Thirty-two Millions of Dollars ($32,000,000), and of the terrible condition of the city!

The reformers who have appeared in connection with affairs in Chicago—in its outward business affairs—have been only a shade less foolish than the ecclesiastical and educational reformers of Chicago.

Chicago's Great Educational Need.

“Wear about the Chicago System of Education?” you ask; “Do you not think that is good?”

Do you want me to tell you about it.

An Education that has no recognition of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, in it from beginning to end is worthy of the Devil.

Do you hear?

An Education that never opens the Best Book in the world, the richest in poetry, in literature, in magnificent oratory, in history, and that shuts the Bible to the children—do you call that Education?

An Education that leaves out history, except a few little scraps, and makes the children grow up in ignorance of the past, and the significance of events, is not a real but a sham Education.

They have a little spread-eagle talk about America, and how the Yankees licked creation (laughter), and that is about all.

Any man who has only the first principles of a broad philosophical, religious and historical education cannot help looking upon the Educational System of Chicago with supreme contempt.

It would be better, except for the fact that it does give the power to read and write and figure, if about nine-tenths of it were gone.

An Education without the Best Book in the world, and without anything like clear, honest historical reading, is a farce.

Of course the highly educated "Offspring of Vipers" that edit the papers will not agree with me.

The Devil and I can't agree. I hate him, and he hates me, Glory! Hallelujah!

(Laughter. Applause.)

I never expect to agree with the Devil.

Chicago No Longer My Residence.

I left Chicago for Zion City a year ago, although one newspaper said the other day that I was living in great luxury in Michigan avenue.

I have not lived in Michigan avenue for a year, although I still have valuable property there which I use for God.

But that does not matter; that is as near the truth as a Chicago paper can get.

Zion's Political Power.

The great thing is to get right down to the cause and not bother about any of the political bosses—William Lorimer,
Carter Harrison or Clarence Darrow, who, by the way, is gone. I thought that he would go.
That is the second Democrat I have knocked out this year. (Applause.)
If you read this week's issue of LEAVES OF HEALING on page 586, where I have given the exact figures, you will see that the Balance of Power is right here in Zion. (Applause.)
You have only to look at the returns of the last Presidential election, when there was a straight vote between McKinley and Bryan.
The number of votes that would have changed that into a Bryan victory we held four times over. It was very uncertain once as to whether Mr. Bryan would get the Zion votes, because we were very much disgusted with the Republican administration.
The President himself, who sacrificed his life for the nation, with the exception of one matter in which his excellency knew that we differed, I personally loved and admired. I had the pleasure of knowing him just a little.
Nevertheless the administration had made such terrible blunders that I would have doubted whether it would not be better to let Mr. Bryan in but for one thing, and that was the silver question.
Had it not been for that, I think Zion's vote would have gone with the Democrats.
However, we held the balance of power and we hold it again.
We hold it, and you cannot help yourselves.
In a straight vote for the mayoralty or presidency, between the Democrats and the Republicans, the victory goes which ever way Zion goes. (Applause and laughter.)

Some Remarks on Chicago Politics.
That is a fact.
It is a matter of figures.
Therefore, if there is a clear fight between the Republicans and the Democrats on the mayoralty question, the man for whom we vote will go in.
I tell them that to their face.
If it is a strict party vote, as it seems likely to be, then we have the decision in our hands.
Perhaps Mr. Darrow knew that.
Mr. Harrison knows it.
It was known by Ex-chief of Police Kipley, who was the shrewdest police adviser this city ever had, and an honest man, too, because he was poor.
If he had been a dishonest man he would have become rich.
But Chicago people got a newspaper craze against him, and a splendid officer was lost to this city, while a mere tool of Rome was stuck in his place.
I have something against the present administration for that, and if they talk I will let it out.
That, among other things, is the reason that I am angry.
They lied to me, and they will never lie to me again with impunity.

Some Important Information Not Known to the Press.
My relations with this city and its public affairs have been quite considerable, much larger than you know, and much larger than the politicians know.
I could tell that press, that knows nothing worth knowing, things that would stagger it.
Men of affairs do not talk to the papers.
You will read sometimes in the papers a lot of trash that Kaiser Wilhelm is said to have spoken in the hearing of reporters.
Bosh!
A reporter does not get within a hundred yards of Kaiser Wilhelm, much less would he dare to interrogate the Emperor concerning great questions of international diplomacy.
He would think it a degradation of his high station to talk to them, and especially in the manner so often alleged.
It is no use to think of a man in the position of the Emperor of Germany talking to a reporter from Hearst's American Cesspool.
Kaiser Wilhelm talk to a representative of Lucifer's Universal Press Syndicate! He has never said a word to them.
When on my way to New York to take a steamer for Europe a little over two years ago, the railroad officials were very kind in keeping all reporters out of the private car in which I was traveling, as I had requested. I did not see one.

However that did not affect the New York World, and the other yellow journals.
When I reached New York, before I got into my carriage at the depot, I got a copy of the afternoon paper in which was given an account of a long interview with me, containing scores of things that I never thought and could not have said: for I had not spoken a word to a reporter between Chicago and New York.

Chicago's Terrible Murder Record.
Mr. Deneen, the state's attorney, has lately told us, that there is a murder in Chicago every day.
I do not know how many he said that there were upon a Sunday; but I suppose it is at least an average of three.
There are more than five hundred murders a year in this city that are known; and no doubt hundreds of unknown murders are committed.
Crime stalks everywhere.
Last week, in this city, as you know, a man who committed one of the most cold-blooded murders that ever was committed was set free by a jury, who were afraid to convict him because of the threats of the labor party.
What had he done?

A Cold-blooded Murder Unpunished.
I will tell you.
A merchant down in South Water street could not get his goods.
There was a strike on of teamsters, or freight-movers of some kind, and they were picketing certain railways.
This merchant wanted to get the perishable goods that he had bought and that were going to waste at the freight-house.
He said: "I will go down and get them myself." And jumped into the wagon and drove the horse down.
He was met by a big bully, who said: "You do not dare to get these goods."
"I will," the merchant replied; "they are mine."
"No, you do not dare to go," the ruffian again said.
Nevertheless, the merchant started on, and this man struck him on the back of the head blow after blow, until he fell senseless.
He was found and taken to his home, or an hospital, where in an hour or so he died.
The murderer said, "We had a quarrel."
"My God! A quarrel! If they had a quarrel, who made it?" That man did not know the merchant, nor did the merchant know the man who murdered him.
He had no quarrel with that Union picket.
The ruffian made the quarrel and murdered him, and the jury brings in a verdict of "Not Guilty."
Is that justice?
Voices—"No."

General Overmeer—Is it justice that that man shall be set free and declared by a jury to be not guilty?
Is it enough to bring the Vengeance of God upon the city where these things happen?
Justice and Life are trampled to death in the streets.
The Unionists have threatened to smash my head into a million of pieces; they have threatened to ruin my health, shorten their lives, and send down a hundred murders a year.

Is that justice?
Voices—"No."

I got into my carriage at half past seven in the evening. I got into my carriage at seven o'clock in the evening.

Goats." (Applause and laughter.)
CHICAGO: ITS SINS AND ITS SORROWS.

But the press is silent, the pulpit is silent, and all men are silent because they think that the Labor Vote must be flattered.

Zion's Relation with the Working Men.

I have more working men under my ministry than any other man in this city, or this country, and I never flattered them. I love them; I serve them too honestly to flatter them. If he could earn union wages he got them. If he was worth more he got more. If he was worth less he got less. He got just what he earned. No man has any right to more than that, has he?

I say, "No."

General Overseer—I would whip you out of Zion if you said Yes. (Laughter.) My hands have been laid upon them and their families in their police court business.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works. (Psalm 14:1.)

But the press is silent, the pulpit is silent, and all men are silent because they think that the Labor Vote must be flattered.

The Poor Denied Justice.

All the wages that America has had for some of its best Presidents have been assassination.

All the wages that the poor have completed to when there are no two men equal anywhere. Men have to be paid, not as a class, but as individuals.

God Almigty does that. He pays men their wages.

Sometimes a man gets a bloody grave, but his wages are Immortal Life and Imperishable Fame.

Whether they live on forever, remembered by the good they have done, and the sufferings they have endured—even unto death—as the representatives of the Nation.

All these things combined—the harlotry, the drunkenness, the stinking filthiness of the nicotine poison, the abomination of the drug-shops with their scores of drugs that are destroying millions of people by narcotic poisoning, are only symptoms, horrible as they are, of still more terrible maladies.

What is this Chief Sin of Chicago?

It is deeper than any visible thing.

I have been asking God to show me what it is, and I believe that I know.

Chicago's Chief Sin Is in Saying "There Is No God!"

The Chief Sin of Chicago is, that like "the fool in his heart," Chicago has said, "There is no God. There is no God."

The great mass of people in Chicago will not admit it, but it is true.

How a man lives, not how he talks, settles the question.

Chicago lives in its press, its politicians, its business men, its police court business. My hands have been laid upon them and their families in their police court business.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works. (Psalm 14:1.)

When a man says, "There is no God," he says in effect, "There is no Bible; there is no Law of God to hold me; the Ten Commandments are blotted out."

There is No Law in Chicago.

"Doctor," you will say, "we have courts."

I know that you have courts presided over largely by judges who are the Destroyers of Law.

I say it to their teeth, that, with a few marked exceptions, the judges of Chicago do not fear God, and therefore they never regard man.

They are unjust judges, political judges, whose judgments are not according to Law, unless they are compelled to make them so.

There Are Exceptions.

There are judges who are notable and striking exceptions, such as Judge Gary, who did his duty so nobly, and did it where it might have cost him his life, in the Anarchist Trials. There are also judges, junior to him, who are true and want to do right.

On the other hand there are judges who are old "copperheads," not only in law, but in justice.

They go their slimy way in and out, these judicial copperhead snakes, and watch the time when they can bite and kill a personal or a political antagonist.

Justice has fallen in the streets.

You can get juries to do anything, as former Judge John Barton Payne said boldly years ago.

He said that if a commissioner of Cook county were to commit murder, he did not believe it possible that you could hang him for it.

He was a splendid type of judge, of whom there are, alas, too few.

The great trouble in Chicago is—no God, no Bible, no Law, no Faith, which condition produces Infidelity, Impurity, Intemperance, Lawlessness, Fear, Doubt and Perplexity.

The next (treat Sin of Chicago is Its Despair.

When you have destroyed Faith you destroy Hope—Divine Hope that brightens all the Pathway of Life with its Eternal Sunshine, and takes all Shame away.

Hope is a glorious thing.

I love the working class and my Message to them is to reveal to them the Hope and Desire of All Nations and All Ages—Jesus, the Messiah, the Deliverer.

I have lived for them.

My hands have been laid upon them and their families in tens and hundreds of thousands in their sicknesses and sorrows, in the Name that is above every name.

I have toiled for them without money and without price.

I have been asking God to show me what it is. I have fought many battles for my King there.

I know, for I have been there a hundred times under admitted false charges.

I have fought many battles for my King there.

The vilest, lowest, basest, dirtiest and most disgusting set of judges that ever cursed this earth occupy these justice-shops.

Some of them are in prison now for having conspired with constables to destroy poor people's property and for sending them to prison without cause.

There is a difference between the justices and the police magistrates, but the difference is often that between tweedle-de-dee and tweedle-de-dum: for these magistrates sit as justices in their own little private shops, when they are through with their police court business.

Cases that ought to have come before them as police magistrates are shamefully smuggled away in their justice-shops.

There should be a number of high-grade city courts, conducted with dignity, where the poor could get justice.

These things follow when a people have lost Faith in God, in His Word and in His Law.

Doubting Castle.

If he is a Christian even, who has transgressed and gone away from Faith into Doubt and wandered along the by-path into meadows of Sin and fallen into Giant Despair's hands, he will find himself in Doubting Castle.

Doubting Castle is the most wretched place in the Universe. Giant Despair and his wife Despondency, and their daughter, Much-afraid, dwell there.

When a man gets into Doubting Castle, he will be likely to leave his bones there.

When a Nation has lost Faith in God and in His Law, it gets into that state of Despair where the people think that Revolution is the only remedy for their ills.

The Folly of Revolution.

Revolution is the very way to play the game of the tyrant.

Every one knows that in a social revolution, which would mean the destruction of property and life, every good citizen would at least have to rise up to crush it, and put a Man on Horseback, like Napoleon, to force it down.

Thus the Nation loses its liberty and throws itself into the arms of a Military Dictator.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 7, 1903.

I warn the working men as far as my voice can reach throughout this land: Go on as you are going, do as you did when Debs led you in this city, and you will find that the people of the United States will rise up and crush you, even if Theodore Roosevelt has to get on his horse, put on his sword, assume command as dictator, and put down the uprising. It must be done. Some Man on Horseback will have to do it; for that is the only Deliverance possible to a Nation that leaves God out. History proves this; but it is not likely that you will get as good a man as President Roosevelt to do it. Usually it is some adventurer, some military tyrant. It is usually a Deceiver and Unscrupulous Tyrant, who destroys the liberties of the people.

Leaders who desire to take the torch and the sword to right the wrongs of the working classes are your enemies. Hope maketh not ashamed; but Despair makes a man to creep away into the darkness, and arms him with a dagger and a poison cup and makes him an assassin. Then, worst of all, when you have destroyed Faith and Hope, you have destroyed Life.

You Have Destroyed Love.

What have you in its place?
You have Lust! Damning Lust! Then men and women hunt for each other's flesh, like hungry beasts in the forest. It is no longer Love but damning Lust, filthy and hell-born! Lust is not Love.

Lust is pure, unselfish, desires the good of the object loved, and is willing to sacrifice all gratification, and even life itself.

But that damming thing called Lust—that is, hunting for a woman's virtue to drag her down to be beasts in the forest. That is hellish Lust; and Novel Literature is full of it, and tens of thousands of Temples of Lust, in the form of theaters, represent Unclean Desire as Love. It is false—such Desires are Hell-born Lust.

Do you hear, women—you who are hunting for the life of a man? That is no Love; that is damning, hell-born Lust.

Hence it is that when a people have lost Faith and Hope, they also lose Love.

Then Lust is supreme everywhere.
Do I need to tell you that this is the fact? God made us, and He made us for Himself. He made us to be pure.

He made us to be faithful; to be bright with Divine Hope, and radiant with its glory.

He made us to be like Himself, full of Love that was pure and holy as Himself, and that sacrifices to the uttermost.

When Humanity Fails, Oh, the Sorrows!

When you wake up to find there is no Faith anywhere, and you can trust no one: when you wake up to find that, instead of being an object of love, you were but a tool of damming lust—oh, then the heart breaks or the life withers.

Then it is suicide or murder; or it is a broken spirit, a wasted life, and no desire for it to be otherwise.

What is the Remedy?

For Sin, the remedy is the Faith of God, the Hope of God and the Love of God, as revealed to us in the Christ our Lord. This I preach and teach, that God may be trusted when all else fails.

This I teach that God may be looked up to in Hope when all else fails.

God's Love never fails.

Those who have this Faith, and Hope, and Love within their breast, have a Divine Power that makes them, even when passing through the Valley of Weeping, Helpers of Humanity. They have a Power that makes them fulfil the Word that a time shall come when

A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest, as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

O God, make the men of Zion this!

Make them ten thousands, hundreds of thousands, of men in Chicago this, filled with the Faith, the Hope and the Love of God. Then there is hope for Chicago, but not otherwise. There is no other Hope.

The only Hope is in God, for in man there is none.

Therefore I preach this Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and pray for the Coming of Him who will yet become the Desire of All Nations.

Lord Jesus, come quickly!

All who desire His Coming, and love God our Father, and desire to do right, stand and tell Him so. (Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul and in body. Give me power to do no matter what. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may restore if I have done wrong to my fellow man, and to Thee. For Jesus' sake, the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world, take away my sin. Restore to me the Faith, the Hope and the Love that will save me from Sin and Disease and Death and Hell, and that will give me the power to help others. Bless Chicago with her weeping, heart-broken, hopeless multitudes. For Jesus' sake reveal Thyself, O God, to them as their Deliverer, in Jesus' Name. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

The service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

COMMUNION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

After a brief intermission, the General Overseer, assisted by Overseers, Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, administered the Communion of the Lord's Supper to about 5,000 Christian people.

Fervent prayer by God's minister, with earnest responses, the reading of appropriate passages from God's Word, and the singing of hymns marked the Ordinance.

The General Overseer then arose and addressed to the people the regular post-communion Family Talk:

An Important Month.

I feel this month to be very important.

We have just begun the eighth year of the life of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

It is the third month of the third year of the twentieth century.

Who can tell which of us will drop out of the ranks on earth during this new year?

Little did we think that some of those who have passed away during the past year would not be with us at this opening of the eighth year.

Nevertheless Zion can never halt in her Onward March. None living in Zion on earth or passed beyond into heaven would have us halt for one moment.

I did not press the members of Zion Restoration Host in Zion City to come to Chicago today, for a number of reasons.

One is that we have had a very heavy week.

If I were to tell you what I have done in the way of work you would more than wonder that I am here.

Nearing the Close of Continuous Ministry in Chicago.

We have just three more months in this Auditorium.

When it is given up on the last Lord's Day in May you will all, I hope, with thousands more, come out to Zion City every Lord's Day.

It will be very delightful to come out there.

We have three more months here, and we ought to do a great deal of Zion Restoration work during that time.

The Duty of Zion in Chicago to Chicago.

I expect to see better work done by the Chicago Branch.

You are leaving this work to Zion City far too much.

Get into work, Chicago, do you hear, and get in quickly.

Chicago, you must do better work.

Get many more districts mapped out by Elder Lee every week.
COMMUNION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

LET IT BE SUPPOSED THAT THE FOLLOWING WORDS ARE A CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE READER (A) AND THE WRITER (B):

A. WHAT DOES THIS QUESTION MEAN? DO YOU REALLY SUPPOSE THAT GOD HAS SOME ONE SPECIFIC WAY OF HEALING IN THESE DAYS, OF WHICH MEN MAY KNOW AND AVAIL THEMSELVES?

B. A CHRISTIAN SHOULD OBEY GOD'S COMMAND, AND AT ONCE TURN TO HIM FOR FORGIVENESS AND HEALING. IF THE BIBLE IS TRUE, IF IT IS THE WORD OF GOD, IT IS THE AUTHORITY ON WHICH WE MUST DEPEND. IF GOD SAYS SOMETHING, IT IS TRUE.

A. THAT IS VERY DIFFERENT FROM THE TEACHINGS WHICH I HAVE RECEIVED ALL MY LIFE FROM MINISTER AND BOOK.

B. THAT IS NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE TEACHINGS OF THE BIBLE. GOD SAYS THAT HE IS THE ONE WHO HEALS. "HE IS THE HEALER WHO HEALTH, SAITH THE LORD; AND THEY WHO HEALETH THEM SHALL HEAL THEM."

A. BUT HOW SHALL I OBTAIN THE NECESSARY FAITH TO RECEIVE HEALING, WHICH FAITH I AM AT TIMES LACKING?

B. "HE BELIEVETH IN HIM WHO IS TRUE, AND IS COMFORTED IN HEARING THE WORD OF THE CHRIST; AND HEART HEALING октября 27, 2015, 12:08 GMT - http://hdl.handle.net/2027/nyp.33433003134362

The ZionSalvation, and "Peace to Thee," and "Peace to Thee be Multiplied," and the Zion Handshake by the thousands present closed the service.

Pray for the Work in Chicago.

Pray God that we may come from the City of Zion into this city a thousand strong every Sabbath for the next three months that lie to float it.

The Benefits Are for God's People.

Almost every one of you could take one share, twenty dollars, and many of you could take ten.

Some of you can take two shares.

Some of you may be able to take a hundred shares.

Push the thing and let Zion get the resources to begin with her work fully equipped in all respects.

Pray that God will greatly bless Zion Building and Manufacturing Association.

I am endeavoring to help our own people to get the benefit of this great Enterprise, which has won general admiration and inspired confidence in thousands of people in and out of Zion, as based upon splendid foundations from every point of view. I have not received, nor heard of, a single word of adverse criticism from either friend or foe.

I want the workers to get the benefit of the provision, provided that they are Christians and godly workmen.

The ungodly brethren, and the members of Zion who are not in good standing, will not get any of the surplus.

I thank you for your cooperation.

Remember that the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association has just been launched, should have your support.

The ungodly workmen, and the members of Zion who are not in good standing, will not get any of the surplus.

I hope you will work for God.

Will you work for that?

Amen.

Pray for the Zion City Publishing House.

Pray that the Lord may bless the efforts of the Zion City Publishing House.

THE above words of our Lord come to us at this time with particular significance, as we have just gone through two days of very heavy mail, which have brought to us the reports of the faithful work which is being done by Zion Restoration Host in all parts of this great land and throughout the world.

As we read the many interesting letters relating the thrilling experiences of these faithful workers, coupled with the many melancholy experiences given to us by other Restorationists who have come in contact with our workers in Chicago, and also a few experiences related by the workers themselves.

The Story of One About to Commit an Awful Crime.

From a very interesting letter recently sent to the General Overseer, we quote the following:

I must tell you of a little instance that occurred when I came to Chicago before I knew of your meetings at the Auditorium, or before I knew even of a Zion Tabernacle in the city.

One Lord's Day, when coming from the St. Paul Methodist church, corner of Harrison and Ashland boulevard, I felt very much cast down, low-spirited and despondent.

The Devil was tempting me to end my life in the Chicago river.

My pockets were almost empty, and it seemed the only way I could get out of my trouble for I could not obtain employment.

While in this attitude a man came along and handed me a card on which I read, "ZION'S ONWARD MOVEMENT, the Rev. John Alex. Dowie will conduct Divine services, Lord's Day, in the Chicago Auditorium."

As I read this card it seemed to put new life into me.

It certainly has been the turning point in a life that was almost ended.

I went to the Auditorium, purchased some Zion Literature, took it to my room and pondered over it.

From that day to this I have been much cheered with the fact of God's willingness to save and heal.

This man has since been received into fellowship in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

A Few Experiences of Members of the Host in Their Work in Chicago on Last Lord's Day.

Following are some of the experiences related to us by some of the faithful workers in their house-to-house work in Chicago on last Lord's Day.

The first given is that of two ladies who were assigned to work on Halsted street, in a very rough neighborhood.

Their story is as follows:

As we came to the entrance of a flat we met a man coming out into the street.

We greeted him with our salutation of "Peace to thee," and handed him the Message.

He took it, not knowing what it was.

However upon glancing at it and recognizing it as a Message from Zion, he told us to keep it, stating that he had no use for it.

We asked him if he was a Christian, to which he replied that he was.

We soon discovered that he was a very poor one, for he showed signs of being under the influence of liquor.

As we talked with him, he began to get very uncomfortable and tried to excuse himself.

He called to his wife, who was just inside the door, to come and talk with us.

She utterly refused to have anything to do with us, saying that she was perfectly satisfied with her church, which was the Roman Catholic.

After a little further conversation we found that she had not been attending their services because they were charged ten cents for seats, and were not welcome unless this was paid.

Furthermore the priest never called upon them or showed any interest whatever, in their behalf.

This gave us an excellent opportunity to contrast the work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion with that of the Roman Catholic.

We soon won the woman's friendship and assured her interest.

She informed us that her husband had told her of some remarkable cases of healing, which had been reported to him by some of his companions at the place where he was employed.

While in this house we noticed a very interesting child of about sixteen months of age.

We learned that he had been taken in by these people for protection, having been deserted by his parents, the mother living a life of sin.

In a few days this little one was to be sent to the humane society.

We asked the little one if he would not like to go with us, to which he cheerfully responded, Yes.

On returning to the Auditorium we reported the case to Deaconess Paddock who promised to do what she could for the poor child.

It might be well to add here that Deaconess Paddock has been instructed to procure this little one if possible and to see that it is properly cared for.

The next experience is that of two of our young men who entered a saloon in the course of their district work, where they were greeted with very abusive language in response to the Peace salutation and Message which they delivered.

On retiring from the place they asked God to forgive their offenders for their wicked words and passed on to the next house.

They had not gone far, however, when they were called back by the porter of the place, who informed them that the bartender desired to see them.

As they again entered the saloon and again greeted the bartender with "Peace to thee," he turned and took from the sideboard a beautiful vase of carnations, and turning to the Restorationists, said: "Gentlemen, take a flower."

They thanked him and asked God to bless him.

He also thanked them politely, saying that it was a great joy to present them with the little token of regard, and assured them of his respect for their gentlemanly conduct and perseverance in the work which they were doing.

Thus we see that the unkind conduct of these poor, sin-blinded ones often recalls upon themselves.

Many of them give evidence of a better nature underneath the rough exterior, which, when awakened by the spirit of the living God, leads them to hate themselves, and to cry out for deliverance, from the bondage in which they are held.

Who dares to say where the work of the faithful Restorationists is going to end?

The following we would not relate except that we believe that even this may be an inspiration to others, revealing as it does, the beautiful Christ-like spirit of our workers and the willingness to suffer even blows, that they may carry this blessed Gospel to those who are living in sin.

Two young men, whose district lay in a very wicked section of the city, had gone to the second floor in a flat building where they met a woman.

They handed her the Message after the usual Peace salutation.

Instead of accepting it in the spirit in which it was given, she started to curse them, saying that she was perfectly satisfied with her church, which was the Roman Catholic.

a man of the most depraved type, who gave every evidence of being one of the lowest characters.

Without any provocation whatever, he first kicked the young man who had presented the Message and with all his muscular strength struck him a heavy blow with his fist full in the face, which almost stunned him and caused the blood to flow most freely.

So cruel was this vicious monster that even the sight of his companions was called forth for the young man whom he was so unjustly abusing, and they implored him to stop.

These faithful workers then departed.

After recovering themselves somewhat from the shock, and removing the stains from their faces and hands, they proceeded to carry the Message to others.

They have expressed a perfect willingness to return again with the Gospel when the time shall come to this and other homes in that neighborhood, believing that God will, by His Spirit, lead some to repentance and to forsake their lives of sin.

These, however, are but a few of the many instances that have been reported to us during the past week.

Reports from the Field at Large.

Reports have been received by us from the continents of Europe, Asia and Australasia besides many states throughout the Union.

Some belated but very interesting reports of work done during the month of January, have come to us from the following-named places, showing that the number of workers and also the number of leaves of Healing sold is on the increase:

- Boston, Massachusetts, reports 16 workers in the field, 1,481 leaves sold.
- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, reports 33 workers in the field, 1,091 leaves sold.
- New York City, reports 14 workers in the field, 966 leaves sold.
- San Francisco, California, reports 14 workers in the field, 695 leaves sold.
- Milwaukee, Wisconsin, reports 8 workers in the field, 450 leaves sold.
- Waukegan, Illinois, reports 1 worker in the field, 62 leaves sold.
- Windsor, Connecticut, reports 1 worker in the field, 63 leaves sold.
- Fredericton, New Brunswick, reports 1 worker in the field, 31 leaves sold.
- West Salem, Illinois.
- Benton Harbor, Michigan.

A letter from Elder Adams, Benton Harbor, Michigan, reports the work as being in a prosperous condition in that field. It reads as follows:

My Dear Elder: — Please find enclosed seven applications for enrolment in the ranks of Zion Restoration Host.

This brings our little force up to twenty-seven. I also enclose an invitation to a little reception at our home, on which occasion these new members will be officially received.

We will doubtless have twenty-five present.

We hope that you will accept the invitation and meet with us.

With Christian greeting and earnest prayers for the Host, I am, Kindly yours in Jesus,

JAMES R. ADAMS.

WEST SALEM, ILLINOIS.

The following letter is from one of the Restorationists who recently left Zion City to spend a few weeks with old acquaintances in the interior of the state, and writes as follows:

My Dear Elder: — In addition to my report card, I shall send you this clipping, published in the Albon Journal, the leading paper in this county, in which they publish some very interesting figures concerning Zion City, furnished them by the writer.

The week after the letter was published I went to Albion, taking a supply of Zion Literature with me.

I called on the county judge, the county clerk and the minister of the Christian church, and spent at least an hour's time with each of them.

I attended a mid-week meeting at the Christian church.

The minister, in his talk, spoke of my interview with him, after which the leader of the meeting called upon me to speak.

I gave them some interesting facts about Zion City.

The minister, his wife and a number of others came up to shake hands with me after meeting was over.

Then I visited the college, during chapel hour, and met the president and several other acquaintances.

I called at the houses until my ammunition was nearly exhausted.

On my way home I stopped at a town where I secured a package of leaves of Healing, which I put into circulation before I returned.

I found stamps enclosed for a supply of Messages for further service.

Pray for me.

Your brother and fellow servant in the Christ,

O. M. MARSHALL.
NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

And I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: and I will give you shepherds according to Mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Jeremiah 3:14, 15

God moved upon the heart of John Alexander Dowie seven years ago and caused him to call together into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion a small body of believers.

Those who were present in that upper room will never forget what a joyous yet solemn occasion it was.

The teaching of John Alexander Dowie had been so plain and scriptural that this little body of believers felt that they could no longer continue in the membership and fellowship of the apostate denomination and retain their faith in the Full Gospel as taught by the Scriptures.

It has been nothing more than the wonderful Gospel has been presented in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion during these seven years!

It has been nothing more than the Gospel of our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion has presented a ministry which has been peculiar in the fact that the sermons preached have reached not only large and small branches of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and gatherings of friends of Zion in all parts of the world, but every Lord’s Day finds Leaves of Healing delivering its Messages in the homes of tens of thousands in many parts of the world.

A plain, logical and practical presentation of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God must have the effect of inspiring the child of God to pray the prayer of faith for blessings needed.

As a consequence the blessings come, and the General Overseer constantly receives testimonies telling of how God has blessed the people spiritually, physically and even temporally.

How foolish seem the wicked and false statements which we hear so flippantly passed by the critics of Zion: “Dowie is after the money,” “Dowie is robbing the people,” and like expressions.

Testimonies like those which immediately follow might be quoted in every issue of Leaves of Healing, but it is seldom necessary to pay any attention to such wicked and false assertions.

However, it may be well to occasionally let witnesses bear testimony as to how God not only blesses them spiritually and physically in Zion, but has given them blessings in temporal matters.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, February 16, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I desire to return thanks to God and to you.

You gave me a twenty-dollar gold piece over a year ago.

I kept it as a foundation for a lot.

Even last spring I had not saved a penny beside it.

Then a man and his wife offered me a share of $116 toward buying a lot.

While holding a week's meetings in their town two years ago, God had used me to bring their only son into Zion and they were grateful.

I took the gold piece and this money and made payment on a lot costing $390.

They came again and said that God would have them help me build a house.

I built on the lot; then sold, paid for the lot and building, making between three and four hundred dollars more than I paid.

I built again.

Although, as you know, I was far from well, yet I drew the plans and superintended the building of both house and lot.

Both were well plastered and finished.

One is a six-room house and the last a seven-room house.

My husband earns twelve dollars a week and God enables me to save four dollars a week beside tithes.

I have paid all the interest and forty dollars on the principal of what I borrowed.

The enclosed check is the title of what I made, and a thank-offering.

It is just double what you started me with.

I am so happy and praise God.

Thanking you with a grateful heart, I am,

Yours in Christian love, (Mrs.) D. H. Yager.

Perfect Healing Received for Broken Ribs.

Canon City, Colorado, February 10, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I should have sent in my testimony before this, and expressed my thanks to God for my healing of broken ribs, and to you for your prayers in my behalf.

I wrote to you October 10, 1902, asking your prayers for healing of broken ribs, from which I was suffering most intense pain.

I had two ribs broken and a third injured on the left side, above my heart, a few days before.

On October 28th, unfortunately, I gave them a wrench.

A neighbor who had come to help me heard the ends of the bones grate together while she was several feet from me.

I came into the house and prayed, and then wrote to you asking your prayers.

I became easier.

That night I slept without coughing, which was a great blessing, as the cough almost broke me.

I kept improving so that on the afternoon of the next day 1 helped sort apples two hours.

On October 24th, the day you received my letter and prayed, the pain left my ribs, and never came back but once, when overworked.

Amelia, North Dakota, February 10, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—The 5th of this month was the eighth anniversary of my healing. I send enclosed a draft for a thank-offering for the work in Zion.

The Lord has not only healed me, but has kept me these years.

Not any of the diseases have returned.

I have many times been on duty seventeen and eighteen hours for one day's work.

God has wonderfully strengthened me.

I praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Please remember me in your daily prayers, that I may be faithful in doing my duties here on earth.

We pray daily for you, dear Overseer Jane Dowie, your son and all Zion everywhere.

Your sister in the Christ,

Wilhelmine Haacker.

God the Healer of All Diseases.

Eolia, Missouri, February 3, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—With a thankful heart to my Heavenly Father, I write to tell you what the Lord has done for me through your prayers.

Four years ago last May I wrote to you to pray for little Dora Yager.

She was having chills and spasms.

You prayed for her and she was healed and has had no chills or spasms since.

At the same time I was healed of a painful trouble in my left arm.

About two years ago Dora Yager had something like dropsy and was healed through your prayers.

I thank God and praise Him for His goodness and mercy.

Thanking you for your prayers, and praying the Lord to bless you and your loved ones and your work everywhere, I am,

Yours in Christian love, (Mrs.) D. H. Yager.
NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION’S GOD.

To God We are Grateful.

I sorted apples all the afternoon of October 6th. From that time on I did my accustomed work, and some other, such as washing beds, clothes, without any trouble from those bones. Thanking you for your prayers in the past, I am,

Gratefully your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) ELLA C. WALKER.

WEBSTER, NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Dear General Overseer:

— I desire to give my testimony to my knowledge of God as a wonderful Helper and Healer.

About six years ago we were living in Maine. I had been troubled for some time with a soft corn. I purchased a small box of patent corn salve, and applied it to corn as directed. My foot and limb pained me very much. I was alone for a little while with my two little daughters. They did what they could for it, but it pained me very much. I was in bed nearly three months. I gained very slowly. After I was able to eat, I had to live on a strict diet, eating bread made wholly of gluten flour. I could have nothing that contained sugar or starch, as my stomach was so weak that I could retain hardly anything in it.

Doctors said that I had diabetes. My husband’s aunt, Mrs. Mullikin, who resides in Colebrook, New Hampshire, had been sending me leaves or healing, and I had read the teachings. I knew that many had been healed through the prayer of faith. I knew of no one living near us who believed in Divine Healing, whom I could call upon to pray for me.

About this time we received a letter from our aunt, advising us to write to you, asking you to pray for me, and to lay medicine aside and trust God fully for healing.

We received another letter from her saying that she had sent a request for prayer in my behalf to you. I did not know when she wrote nor how long it would be before you would receive the message. The next afternoon my husband went out to get more medicine for me, and I was alone for a little while with my two little daughters. My foot and limb pained me very much. I had to lie with it propped up on pillows for many days, as the pain was intense if I held it down or if the blood could circulate through it. All at once it came to me that I could get up if I tried.

I thought to myself, “Dr. Dowie has received the message and has prayed for me, and God has healed me.”

I called Nellie, my eldest daughter, and told her to bring in my dress, that I was going to get up. I dressed and went out into the kitchen and began to get the supper. It had nearly ready when my husband came in, and it gave him quite a surprise to see me up and dressed and placing food upon the table. I soon explained it to him.

I took the bottle of medicine which he had handed to me, and poured out its contents. I kept gaining strength. My foot healed rapidly, and has scarcely a scar upon it. I do not live on a diet. Neither have I eaten pork from that day to this. I thank God for all this, and also for many blessings which I have received since.

If any of us have been sick or in trouble, I have gone to Him asking for help. He has never failed me. I have told of my healings to others. I trust that this testimony may influence others who are afflicted, to trust in God to be healed in Jesus’ Name.

Your sister in the Christ.

Baby Healed When at the Point of Death and Husband Delivered from Tobacco and Morphine Habit.

-DESOTO, WISCONSIN, February 5, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:

— I send you here with my application for membership.

I have been trying to live up to your teaching for a year, and have had many healings.

My husband was delivered from the tobacco and morphine habits.

About two weeks ago my baby, who is three years of age, was taken very sick with cankered sore mouth. Her lips, teeth and tongue were white with canker. At night she was very much worse, with high fever.

This kept up until the sixth night. That night about 8 o’clock she began to get cold all over.

Nevertheless God heard our prayers, and she was healed.

Next morning she was very well, and has been getting stronger ever since. Now you would not know that she had ever been sick.

Pray for us that we may be faithful and live up to what we believe.

Your sister in the Christ.

(MRS.) CHARLES SMITH.

LIGONIER, INDIANA, January 27, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:

— I send you here with a heart full of praise and thankfulness to God for His healing and cleansing and keeping power that I send you my testimony.

God wonderfully kept me during my confinement and gave us a beautiful Zion boy weighing nine pounds.

When our baby was born he was ruptured quite badly.

We took him to God in prayer, and he was perfectly healed.

When he was six months old a felon came on his thumb, and God healed it.

I had a gathered breast, and God answered our prayers and healed it.

We give God all the praise for His wonderful deliverances, and thank you for your prayers.

Our hearts are full of praise and thanksgiving that we have been kept, and that we live at this time and hear the Full Gospel taught as you are teaching it.

We are thankful to know that we can pay our tithes into God’s Storehouse.

Our last tithes were nearly double what they were at first.

We give God all the glory.

We thank you for teaching us how to live pure and holy lives.

We pray that God will bless you and your dear wife and son, and that you may be spared many years to carry on the work of restoration, and the extension of God’s Kingdom.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) L. J. HIRE.

Healed of Rheumatism Through Faith in God.

SPRINGFIELD, IOWA, February 12, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:

— I am so glad that I can thank God for His healing power, and that I realize that He is the same yesterday, today and forever.

I thank you for your prayers and kind words.

I wrote to you on December 31st to pray for me.

I felt that I was going to have rheumatism.

On January 1st it settled in my right arm.

It was very severe and I could not wait on myself.

I kept praying, but did not seem to get an answer.

On the morning of the 6th, I decided to write to you again for prayer.

I received the blessing before the letter started.

I knew that God had answered prayer.

I thank God that He has raised up a man who can pray the prayer of faith.

I thank you for the teaching in the Little White Dove.

May God bless you and your dear wife and son, and keep you till Jesus comes.

Your sister in His Name,

(MRS.) JANE W. SHELLHAMMER.

God Rewards Those Who Are Faithful in Paying Tithes.

HOLYOKE, ONTARIO, CANADA.

February 2, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:

— I have realized fulfillment of God’s promise in paying tithes.

Since I have been paying tithes God has been blessing me by multiplying the fruits of my garden.

Instead of a single fold He gave three-fold.

I thank God for His loving kindness.

Your sister in the Christ,

HONORA BAKER.

God a Physician Who Never Fails.

1217 NORTH HALSTED STREET.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, January 30, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:

— It is with love and gratitude to my Heavenly Father that I write this testimony.

I was taken sick last June with terrible pain in front and back of left hip.

I was unable to sleep night or day.

I overworked, and believe this to be the cause of my suffering.

I asked God to forgive me.

I sent for our faithful Elder McClurkin, who prayed with me.

The pain left but returned in the morning.

The Elder came again and prayed.

God heard and the pain left, but the place where he laid on hands broke out in one large sore and itch so that I could not sleep or rest.

The Elder came and prayed the third time and it broke out again.

Thanks be to God I was healed and slept well.

I have not taken any medicine since I came into Zion, now over three years.

I do praise God for hearing and answering prayer.

May God bless and comfort you and your family in your earnest prayer.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) MAGGIE PAUL.
NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. O. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

Walton, Indiana.

Desconsec-in-charge, Mrs. Mary P. Bohn.

Services Sunday, 9:30 a.m.; Wednesday, 7 p.m.

We are glad to know that God is blessing not only the ministry of our Elders throughout the world, but also that of our Deacons and Deaconesses.

Although the Scripture says "Is any among you sick? Let him call for the Elders of the Church," yet in places where we have no resident Elder, God hears and answers the prayers of our faithful Deacons and Deaconesses.

We note with pleasure the following testimonies to Divine Healing given at the All-Night with God, at Walton, Indiana:

My Dear Elder:—At the All-night with God on New Year's Eve, we had a blessed time. We have twelve members in our little Gathering.

I praise God that Zion in Walton has gone forward, in spite of the Devil and the prejudice in the hearts of the people.

We have sold Leaves of Healing every week, and God has given many victories during the year which is past.

Mrs. Chappelear, of Logansport, testified to God's wonderful keeping and healing power.

Mrs. Slusher said that she praised God for a wonderful healing of grip, and for victories in her family.

Otie Umbarger praised God for healing of headache and lung trouble.

Sarah Shredron.—I praise God for the cons and Deaconesses.

Sarah Shredron.—I praise God for the cons and Deaconesses.

I was healed of grip, poisoned face and cholera morbus.

Deaconess Bohn.—I was taken with grip, and could not eat. I suffered very much, and could not eat. This room has been my home (when at home) a little over a year.

The child did not want a physician. The teacher picked her up and washed the blood off her face, put some court-plaster on her head, and she was in a critical condition.

But God would have that little one in His kingdom.

I shall never forget the happiness which I witnessed in that home.

The youngest, a bright boy nine years old, had been in agony and despair a short time before. He was in a feverish condition.

When I saw her beaming face in the meeting last Sunday, she looked like a different woman.

She had undergone a severe operation, and was much worse afterwards.

NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD.

was the only thing which would save him. He did not think that he would live through it. Through a young lady who had been at Lieb- burg, he heard of the teaching. He came here and in less than a week he was free from all pain. He was a Christian and had prayed with the sick himself, but he could not get deliverance from his own sickness until he believed, contrary to his former teaching, that sickness was from the Devil. Now he is so happy to know that sickness is never from God, and that he can fight it with the Sword of the Spirit. Luke 13:16; Acts 10:28; Ephesians 6:10-17 tell us of the weapons. We received a letter from this man today. It is full of praise and thanksgiving to God, not only for his bodily healing, but for the wonderful spiritual uplift which has come into his life through the power of God.

A Mrs. Traber, who had heard the General Overseer when he was in Zurich, but had forgotten all about him, became paralyzed, her whole left side being perfectly helpless. After six months' treatment in the hospital she had been given up to die. One day she suddenly remembered what she had heard on Divine Healing. She had even forgotten the name of Dr. Dowie, but she begged her husband to take her home. That English doctor, as she said, would help her. She had even forgotten the name of Dr. Dowie, but she begged her husband to take her home. She had a remission, and after the Deaconess prayed with her she was healed.

Elder Hodler was called to Bern last week to see a young man who was reported to be in a dying condition. After talking with and praying for him, he left. In two days the Elder received a letter from the young man's mother, stating that soon after he had left, Emil had called for something to eat. He was a Christian and had prayed with the Seventies found her. Although she was not able to sit up, she eagerly drank in the teaching. Now she not only sits up alone, but walks with a little assistance. The hearts of the whole family are full of joy and gratitude to God for the teaching in Zion which has brought them such great blessings. She confidently expects to bring some other sick ones in the chair she now uses.

A woman with asthma came to Deaconess Baliff and asked her to write to Dr. Dowie for prayer for her healing. Deaconess Baliff said: Why not pray and expect God to heal you here and now? They did pray, and the woman was healed. Another woman came to me in the meeting last week and told me how she had suffered with an internal growth. She had suffered for five years, and had been in the hospital, but the doctors could do nothing for her. She was at one of Deaconess Baliff's meetings, and after the Deaconess prayed with her she was healed.

Sister Hershman, whose heart was very sick, wrote to me how she had been given up to die, but how she had learned that she is not under the curse of the law. A young woman who had been operated on for cancer of the uterus, and was told to expect death, said: Thank you, Sister, for praying with me. I have never felt so well in my life since I came to Zion.

A friend who had been in prison for several years, and had been released only to find himself in a worse condition, sent me a note that he was well again, and was able to attend the meetings.

A woman who had been suffering for many years, and had been told that she would die, wrote me that she was well again, and was able to attend the meetings. May God help every one to find his place, so that he can have the consciousness of God's guidance, is our earnest prayer.

Your sister in Christ,

SOPHIA J. HERTEICH.

Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Deceit" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Free Mason.

EVER DISHONORED AS THE HEALER, CLEANER, KEEPER AND PROSPERER OF HIS PEOPLE.

Why People Are Loath to Change Church Relations.

2. The torches of pride lose their strength.
   Men hold on to old things, even if they are wrong.
3. The honor and praise of men lands one to these vanities.—John 1: 41-45.
   What men highly esteem God despises.
4. The favor of man shuns favor from God.
   Men may be cautious. God will come out.
5. They are dull to comprehend that God's power leaves organizations.
   The sermon by the General Overseers should also be attentively read. Assemble, sometime during the Lord's Day. Pray and speak with one another, and study together the Bible Class Lesson and talk over the marvelous doing so far.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, MARCH 29th.

1. It makes the people happy.—Isaiah 11: 1-5. Over a sense of sins forgiven.
2. Over a sense of salvation experienced.

6. It enables one to live without care.—Isaiah 33: 14-19. Every captive is loosed.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, to a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth—that all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

[Signature]

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED OF CATARRH, CONSUMPTION, INTERNAL TROUBLE, AND HEART TROUBLE.

IF YE THEN, BEING EVIL, KNOW HOW TO GIVE GOOD GIFTS UNTO YOUR CHILDREN, HOW MUCH MORE SHALL YOUR FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN GIVE GOOD THINGS TO THEM THAT ASK HIM?

Oh, that God's people would learn to love and trust Him as their Father!

Sin, sickness, woes unutterable and death have come upon God's children, because they have not known Him as their Father.

Jesus, the Christ, came to reveal the Father.

His teaching was ever of the Father.

His mighty works were, as He said, the works of the Father.

All His prayers were addressed to the Father.

The Holy Spirit, through apostles and prophets following the Christ, taught of God as our Father.

And yet, alas, on account of false teaching, God's people do not know Him as their Father.

They have lost their Father.

They have been taught to regard Him as the author of sickness and death, seeking His own glory in the defilement and sufferings of His people. Even the most evil of earthly fathers delight in the health of their children, and would willingly sacrifice themselves to save their children from disease. How, then, can any one say that God is less kind, less merciful, less loving than these earthly parents? And yet that shameful lie is taught, and has been from tens of thousands of pulpits throughout the world.

So-called ministers of God have talked of the Fatherhood of God in a vague, theoretical way.

They have, at the same time, driven men and women away from Him as from a cruel monster, by holding Him up as the afflicter of His people.

Although God said, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee," these false teachers have driven His children to seek healing from doctors, drugs and surgeons' knives, means which God never promised to bless, but against which the Word of God warns His people, in both Old and New Testaments.

While God their Father waits for them, His great heart of love and compassion grieving for His wandering and suffering children, they are going from physician to physician, from treatment to treatment.

They spend their money.

They lose priceless time in months and years of weakness and sickness.
In agony and despair they go down to death. With eyes blinded by error, they cannot see Jesus pointing to the Father. With ears dulled by prejudice, they cannot hear His gentle words, pleading with them to turn to the Father, and saying, "Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My Name, He will give it you." But God never ceases to plead with His children. Long-continued absence and neglect may cause an earthly father's love to grow cold. But God follows His children by the voices of His Messengers and by the pleadings of His Holy Spirit through ages upon ages.

In the Latter Days, He has sent the Messenger of His Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, whose prophetic mission it is to turn the hearts of God's children to their Father. His cry, which is now ringing throughout the whole earth, is, "Return ye unto God!"

Tens, yea, hundreds of thousands are hearing that cry. Sick and afflicted, suffering and dying, they are turning to God their Father. True to His promises, God is hearing their cry. Their songs of praise and thanksgiving ascend to Him in ever-increasing chorus from all the ends of the earth.

None sings that song of thanksgiving with greater joy and praise than the Witness, whose wonderful Story follows these few introductory words.

She was a sufferer from hereditary cold.

With intense joy she learned that God, her Father, was her Healer, not her doctor.

That Wonderful Message came like a flood of Divine Light into her darkened life. Putting aside the drugs, which had only made her worse, she began to fulfill God's conditions.

Through repentance and confession of sin, and making right all wrongs she had done, and through faith in Jesus, the Christ, her Savior and Healer she turned to the Father. Her Heavenly Father, more willing to give good gifts than any earthly father, and more powerful healed her of all her diseases.

Today she is a resident of Zion City, rejoicing in Him and in the opportunity of carrying this Message of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living to other suffering ones, as a member of Zion Restoration Host.

And now, on the wings of the Little White Dove, we send her forth to all the ends of the earth.

She will tell her Wonderful Story by many beds of pain.

May God grant that the Light which came into her life may also be shed abroad in the lives of those to whom Her Story comes.

May God grant that they, too, may hear the call and return to God, their Father.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MISS LUCY HICKS.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 21, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—For several years previously to my healing, my health had been very poor.

At first I suffered with cataract and throat.

For this I took a great deal of treatment from Drs. Copeland and Wayble of Cincinnati, where I then lived, who said I could never be cured except by them. I grew worse.

Then I started to take patent medicines again. I also had internal troubles. These two diseases seemed to meet at my lungs and I began to take Dr. Shomet's treatments for consumption.

I was not cured, but my lungs seemed to trouble me more every day.

I then began to think that I would not live very long. As I was the only girl in the house, I placed, in a certain drawer, everything to be laid out in if I should die. I also had heart trouble. I would tell my little nephew, "Now, if you should come home from school and find me dead, you must not be afraid of your auntie. Your papa's telephone number is there. Get some one to telephone for him."

I then went to Dr. Livingston, a specialist, who came to the hotel every Sunday from Dayton, Ohio.

He gave me very little encouragement, saying that my left lung was entirely closed with consumption.

He said, however, that he would treat me for three months.

He said that there was danger of cataract and that he could give me nothing for this, but that I must light it off. This was hard to do as I was very weak and slept most of the time.

As I was coming from the doctor's I saw, at the corner of Fourth and Elm streets, a sign, "Zion Tabernacle." It seemed so beautiful to me that I went in and heard Elder (now Overseer) Piper preach.

I told him that disease came from the Devil. He told us that disease came from the Father. I could never understand the words, "I and My Father are one," for Jesus was always healing.

Oh, how I did wish I lived in the days when Jesus was here in the flesh!

I believed that God had taken away my father, left my mother a widow with eight little girls, gave her consumption, broke up our home and gave this terrible disease to my sisters, until only two of us are left.

While I suffered in my body, I suffered more in my spirit; for I thought if God did all this He should send my spirit to hell. I could not trust Him.

When I learned Zion's teaching all this worry was taken away.

I asked God only to make me well long enough to make everything right in my life, and to know everything was right between me and God. After going into the prayer-room and getting blessing, I gave up all my medicine.

Elder McClurkin was very kind and patient with me.

I used to go into the prayer-room, and when I came out would begin to examine to find out whether the trouble was gone.

I found, when I quit looking to symptoms and looked to God that the victory came.

I am now a healthy woman. I thank God for His goodness, and you, General Overseer, for the blessings which have come through Zion.

(Lucy Hicks).

Subscribers, Read This.

On every subscriber's copy of Leaves of Healing or The Zion Banner we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be II-25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume II, Number 25. Also take notice that Leaves of Healing now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which are put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as the Leaves of Healing had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourselves familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice, or Express Money Order in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to Zion Printing and Publishing House, 130 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

We preach the Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumbling block, and unto Gentiles foolishness. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. . . . But God chose the foolish things of the world that He might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world that He might put to shame things that are strong—1 Corinthians 1: 23, 25, 26.
NOTES FROM ZION’S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

Bloemfontein, South Africa.

Although God has not called all to be ordained ministers, He has called every Christian to be a minister.

Every one who is born of God will have in him a desire to see others also born into the Kingdom.

To this end he will watch and pray till He Come, that in that Great Day he may say, “Here am I with the children which Thou hast given me.”

We are glad to print the following report from one of our members who is doing Zion Restoration work:

BLOEMFONTEIN, SOUTH AFRICA. | January 25, 1903. | DEAR ELDER: — Your letter brought me a deeper insight into the will and love of our Heavenly Father.

It brought me strength, encouragement and determination to carry forth the messages of God’s love and mercy.

I am ready and willing to do anything required of me to further the extension of God’s Kingdom.

I thank God for the General Overseer and for his prayers and letters of love.

I feel that I am the happiest man in this city.

I am glad that I am able to assist, in a measure, my fellow workers.

I have failed to let them know of Zion.

They feel their weakness in giving up the filthy tobacco.

When I see how evil is carried on by men who persist in disobeying God; and when I see tobacco, pig and the oyster, with every other abomination, used on every hand, I feel a greater determination to do the Will of God.

I spent three hours this morning distributing Leaves of Healing.

It is the work I do for God.

I make no class distinction in distributing Zion Literature—rich and poor are visited by the Spiritless Dove.

I like to make use of God’s ammunition.

By keeping up the distribution of Zion Literature, I am bound to interest some one.

I believe that Zion Literature is the best, second to the Bible, that the world has ever seen.

God will raise up friends and members for Zion in this place.

It is my determination to carry out the royal command of obedience; then I shall not fail to call them together with a loving heart.

I have given all the denominations Zion Literature.

This morning the Little White Dove visited the Roman Catholic convent.

When I turned away I heard a shout.

His anger must have been aroused.

He, no doubt, at that moment saw the cartoon.

I walked away and came home.

LEAVES OF HEALING make a good weapon with which to fight the Devil.

I pity the people, but I hate the Devil, and I feel and see that he hates me.

Keep continually praying for me, that God’s Word and promises may be fulfilled in me.

Yours faithfully for Jesus and for Zion’s Onward Movement,

ALFRED N. SMITH.

Although Deacon Christie is in charge of the work in Binghamton, and does all in his power for the extension of God’s Kingdom and the upbuilding of Zion in that place, he also labors in other fields at times.

The following is a report of a ten-days’ Rally which he held in Syracuse, February 8th to 18th:

DEAR ELDER: — I have just returned home from Syracuse, and will give you a summary of the ten-days’ rally.

There were seven saved, ten healed, five applications for fellowship received, and eight more are on the verge of writing out their applications.

Six joined Zion Restoration Host, and from ten to fifteen are to be baptized at the earliest opportunity.

Twenty-six homes are open to Zion in Syracuse.

A large number rose at the command to surrender and consecrate themselves to God.

Between 1,400 and 1,500 persons were reached directly and indirectly through the meeting.

A good number received special help, of whom I cannot give a definite account.

The Devil was stirred; the newspapers lied; the pulpit was silenced.

Zion will grow strong in Syracuse.

An M. D. took an application for membership to fill out.

He attended all the meetings but two, and received great blessing.

He is a veterinary surgeon, and practices medicine besides.

He is leaving it all.

Yours in Jesus’ love and service in Zion,

W. C. CHRISTIE,

Deacon in Christian Catholic Church.

Auckland, New Zealand.

A sister from Auckland, New Zealand, sends the following:

BELLWOOD, Mt. Roskill, AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND, December 2, 1902.

DEAR OWIE: — I have just returned home from God for healing, for I have been sick for years with many complaints.

One thing troubled me very much. I asked God to take that away.

He took it away while I was praying.

I was alone in the house.

It was strange, but beautiful.

Since then, I have been healed of two other very troublesome and painful complaints in answer to my own prayers, for which, in my heart, I thank God more than Words can express.

I cannot get enough of your books and sermons.

I think it is just what I have been hungering and thirsting after for years.

May God bless you in your labors of love, is my prayer.

Yours faithfully,

MINNIE LYNCH.

Shanghai, China.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to the whole creation.

Zion is fulfilling this great commission.

She is sending workers into various parts of the great harvest-field.

We are glad to inform our readers of the blessing which God is bestowing upon our faithful workers in China.

That God has been gracious to our workers is evinced by the following letter:

SHANGHAI, CHINA, November 23, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — We thank God for a dear little daughter who was born to us October 15th after only fifteen days’ sickness.

I thank God for the strength that He has given me since to care for my children.

God’s blessings to us have been without number since coming to Zion.

Our dear little boy was very sick recently from eating sand, which clogged his bowels and kidneys.

We had given him a box of sand to play in.

It was a joy to leave him in God’s hands and to know that all would be well.

In a few days he was well again.

We praise God for His Word as taught in Zion, and for His servants whom He has sent to teach us.

May God keep you and Overseer Jane Dowie until you both have finished the work that He has given you to do.

Yours in His service,

(MRS.) SARAH KENNEDY.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"We look not at the things which are seen,
But the things which are not seen are eternal.

We have been pondering over these words of the Apostle Paul, and also those which precede and which follow them.

Like him, we can humbly say that having received this Ministry and having "obtained Mercy, we faint not."

Like him, "We have this Treasure in Earthen Vessels, that the Exceeding Greatness of the Power may be of God, and not from ourselves."

Like him, "I also believe, and therefore we also speak."

Like him, we know that our "Light Affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us More and More Exceedingly an Eternal Weight of Glory."

But all this is only possible while we look at the things which are invisible.

While we are engaged with all our might working in an "earthly temple" for the Salvation, Healing, Cleansing and Upbuilding of a poor decaying humanity, if we did not feel that the "inward man" was being renewed day by day, both in ourselves and in others, we should feel utterly hopeless of any abiding result for all our toil.

But the "Joy of the Lord" which is "Strength" lies in the glorious revelation that "the Life of Jesus," which is being manifested "in our mortal flesh," is becoming increasingly manifest "in the mortal flesh" of tens of thousands around us.

WHAT A WONDERFUL WORD that is: "THE LIFE OF JESUS." He is The Way, The Truth, and the Life.

In Him is the Eternal Life: for He is the Word (the Logos). He became flesh; but was in the Beginning with God!"
IF WE WERE building up a City for earth and time alone and merely for a passing good, it might still be worth doing.

But when we know that in addition to this we are building for Eternity, then it is a joy to work.

OUR EYES are very steadily looking forward into the "Unseen" and the "Eternal."

OUR EARS are ever open to the voice of the Invisible Spirit, Who, leading us into the Way of All Truth, guides our feet into Ways of Peace as we walk in the "Green Pastures" beside the "Still Waters" where the Heavenly Shepherd leads.

Onward and Upward we gladly follow beyond all the noise and strife until we shall come to the place where the "earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved," and we enter into God's Building, the "House not made with hands, eternal, in the Heavens."

WE HAVE NEVER been able to understand how it is that most men only seek for Heaven and long for Celestial beauty when they have reached the place where they are compelled to leave the "earthly house of this tabernacle."

IT HAS ALWAYS seemed to us that we realize the glory of the "things which are not seen " when we are in the midst of life, and vigor, and health and strength, as we are now.

WE THINK that it is a poor conception of a really happy, healthy condition, for the Christian to be looking for and longing for the perfect life above only when his "earthly house" is falling into ruins all around, and when life is one long physical and mental agony.

EVERYWHERE throughout the whole earth we call upon our beloved people in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to walk in the light, and live very near to God.

Let all see so clearly by the eye of faith, and hear so clearly by the ear of faith, and understand so joyfully with a heart and mind of faith, and will so earnestly with a spirit of faith and hope and love, that they shall go unceasingly forward with eyes fixed upon the "Unseen" and the "Eternal."

FOOLISH MISUNDERSTANDING of these words would lead our people to be visionary and dreamers.

Wise Understanding will make them most reasonable and practical believers and workers for our God, and for the extension of the Glad Tidings which Jesus brought when He preached the Gospel of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Never forget how practical Jesus was: for He "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil."

Yet in the midst of all His teaching, His toils, His temptations, His sufferings, He was ever in Perfect Communion with the Father.

Let us follow Him and rest with Him in Heavenly places, in spirit, even while our feet tread the stony street, and we toil amid a sin-stricken, disease-smitten and perishing humanity.

THESE THOUGHTS seem to dominate our mind more and more as we continue our labors for God and for His people in the City of Zion.

IN THE MIDST of almost ceaseless activities, and, we trust, of ceaseless prayerfulness of spirit, we realize more and more the presence and power of the "Unseen Things," and the Unseen Hosts of the "Ministering Spirits" who are sent forth to minister unto the Heirs of Salvation.

THIS IS OUR JOY as we continue to press forward our little Host of Zion Restorationists into these great cities where we are now operating, and shall operate, God willing, not only in this land, but on every Continent.

WE BELIEVE what Elisha said to his servant to be true: "They that be with us are more than they that be with them," and although that servant could not see, yet, when the prophet prayed, "Jehovah, I pray Thee, open his eyes, that he may see," he also for a moment saw what Elisha probably saw all the time: the Myriads of the Hosts of Heaven circling around, invisible to human eyes, in the cloudless skies around Dothan, and above that vast army of the heathen foe who surrounded the prophet and sought to destroy his life.

THERE IS A WONDROUS JOY in that fact.

We have realized its power for many years spent toiling for our Lord and King, and it is ever with us as we labor amid the millions of Chicago.

It is our joy, as we look forward to our Special Mission among the millions of New York, God willing, next Fall.

No matter how numerous the population of any city or land may be, it is infinitesimally small in number as compared to the Myriads of the Hosts of Heaven who encamp around us, and go with us, and guard us, and who will, whenever we leave our "earthly tabernacle," receive us into Everlasting Habitations.
This is the Joy of Zion Restoration Host as they go into battle for the King.

There are no cowards in our ranks, and if any should be found, they will be immediately removed.

We can have none who are afraid to face all the possible consequences of witnessing for the Christ.

On Monday evening, March 23d, a Special Rally of Zion Restoration Host will be held in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, at which we will preside, not as the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, but as Elijah the Restorer.

To this Rally we summon every member of the Host, within one hundred miles of Zion City, who can possibly come.

We have now made such arrangements as will enable us, we trust, to announce many things definitely that we have hitherto been able to speak of only as not finally decided.

For instance, the exact date and hour of the departure of the Zion Restoration Host Excursion from Zion City, the route, the stop for several hours at a certain place of great natural beauty, the exact hour of our entering New York, and of our assembling together at Madison Square Garden with the other members of the Host from other parts of the United States to perfect the organization of the workers, and to assign to each his place in accordance with the plans that we shall then have perfectly matured.

We shall also at this Rally be able to state, we trust, the exact rate for the railway fare to New York and return, and for the living expenses whilst in that city, and the times at which the Host can return.

We are arranging that those who can only stay a short time can return immediately when their time is exhausted; and we are also arranging that some who may stay behind shall come during the Mission, and help when others have returned to Zion City.

There are many things, also, in connection with the arrangements for a series of what may be called "Spiritual Drills," as well as to familiarize our Host with the map of the Cities of New York and Jersey City and vicinity.

In this connection let us say that we have had a very large Map of Greater New York prepared, carefully drawn to scale, which is now rolled up in its casing, under the roof of Shiloh Tabernacle, and which, when fully unrolled, is not less than thirty by forty (30 x 40) feet in size.

But, above all, we assemble this Great Rally to let the Host clearly understand the conditions upon which they can accompany us, from a spiritual standpoint; for we will, like Gideon, blow the trumpet that will give no uncertain sound, and we will demand that the cowards, if there are any, will immediately return to their tents, and be at ease, if they can, while their brethren go to war.

If there are any who have imagined that the Vow of the Restoration Host was in any degree a mere matter of form or words, they will be now very thoroughly undeceived.

In this great Mission, which we shall have the joy of leading in person, we plainly say that we shall make every clause of that Vow effective, or remove from our Host any who have repeated of their Consecration to God and to us as His Prophet in this glorious work in "the Times of Restoration of All Things whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began."

These Times of Restoration have fully begun.

Our office as the Restorer demands that we shall begin to put into full and effective operation Legion after Legion of the splendid Host which God is raising up in all the lands.

One day we shall join hands with the Host across the Seas; for the day will come when Legions of Zion Restoration Host will, at suitable times and in a proper manner, cross the Oceans and operate on all the Continents of the earth.

Much lies before us on this solid land; but much more lies before us in the lands beyond the seas.

We have come more and more distinctly to the conclusion that in these latter days God's work in the Restoration must be wrought, not by a few clerics, who are supposed to be "the whole thing," but by the most consecrated and perfectly trained and devoted of the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion going forward in this great Restoration Host, reaching out to all the lands and occupying vast territories for Christ our King, building up Zion Cities, establishing agricultural and other colonies, engaging in commerce, legitimate mining, and all the activities of life, whilst at the same time they form Evangelizing Forces.

The City of Zion which God has now established, and from which we are writing, must be, of necessity, the mother city of the lesser Cities of Zion throughout the world, until the time comes when chosen Restorationists from all these cities and lands gather at Jerusalem, and build up the Temple and City, in preparation for the Coming of the King.

These things are practical and they are practicable.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

WE HAVE LONG been tired and weary, almost unto death, of the theorizers, philosophizers, theologizers, chronologizers, geologizers, and many other wretched "gizers," who have been an unmitigated curse to the whole earth and the progress of the Church of God, and who still carp and snarl and whimper and bark, and even with their decayed old teeth, or puppy-soft, young teeth, endeavor to bite us, in their papers, in their pulpits, as they with great horror comment upon our movement as being clearly indicative of our association with the Devil, and even class us with the antichrist Himself.

WE FEEL TO apologize for even mentioning this miserable class of creatures, that have been whimpering and howling and groaning from the miserable "Morgan-Scott 'Christian,'" in London, to the pitiful whimperers of a similar stamp in the Antipodes; green with envy, consumed with spiritual bile, sick unto death as they drink of the poisoned river of their own false theologies and their deadly drugs.

These "dry-as-dust" skeletons, down in the Valley of Dry Bones, have incurred the loathing and contempt of all humanity; and we say, as the Messenger of God's Covenant, that He is weary of them, and that they will either have to obey the voice that bids them come, bone to bone, and be inspired with the Breath of a Divine Life, and "get a move on them" and "do something," or else they must sink back into the Valley, "earth to earth" and "dust to dust," and add to the great charnel-house of death, out of which they have been crying for "revival."

They have been crying for a "Prophet;" and when their "Revival" and the "prophet" come, they have only the same old miserable wall of the spiritually dead, who in the days of the Lord had "eyes and saw not," "ears and heard not," "hearts and understood not," and who "would not be converted and could not be healed."

BEYOND THIS VALLEY, and beyond these Hills of Darkness, the Sun is shining on the Hills of Light, and God's Voice is calling us upward and onward, to carry the Message of Living Faith after we have done our duty to those who are therein.

This we feel that we have done in the Series of Messages upon the Apostasies; and we go forward, having given good, sound reasons and facts for our Declaration that Christian Organizations as they now exist are almost entirely apostate, and cannot be used by God.

THERE ARE, beyond question, great numbers of truly earnest spirits amongst the ministers and among the members of these apostate organizations.

Unto them we cry, "Oh, that you would let the Breath that is coming to you from the Four Winds, and which is Breathing upon you, enter into you, and bring you up into Union with us as we march forward One United Host."

THE TIME HAS COME, therefore, for us to say to all who are really in Zion, that is, in the Kingdom of God, everywhere, "Arise! Shine! for thy Light is come."

LET EVERY MEMBER then of the Zion Restoration Host again remember that we expect to see them in Thousands at the Rally Monday Evening, March 23d.

We will not permit any person to be present who is not a member or intending member of that Host.

WE MAY SAY that we shall then administer the Vow and Separate, by the laying on of hands, a very large number who are now ready to enter into the fellowship of the Host, and go forward with us in its Great work.

WE HOPE that we shall not be under the painful necessity of driving the Drones who love to look at the Workers, but do not care to work themselves, out of Shiloh Tabernacle. We certainly shall not permit such persons, even although members of the Church, to remain. Not one single person shall, knowingly, be within Shiloh Tabernacle that Evening who has failed to make "a Covenant with God by Sacrifice," in this matter.

REFLECT EARNESTLY, O Children of Zion, on the words in the Glorious Fiftieth Psalm:

God, even God, the Jehovah, hath spoken,
And called the Earth from the Rising of the Sun unto the Going Down thereof.

Out of Zion, the Perfection of Beauty,
God hath shined forth.

Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: A Fire shall devour before Him,
And It shall be very tempestuous round about Him.
He shall call to the Heavens above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people.
LEAVES OF HEALING

Gather My Saints together unto Me;
Those that have made a Covenant with Me by Sacrifice.
And the Heavens shall declare His Righteousness;
For God is Judge Himself.

We LOVE all our people, young and old, and we want to be patient with the drones, and tender with many willing ones who cannot go forth into the Battle-field, but must “tarry by the stuff.”

Yet there is a time when we must gather together only those that are like-minded, whom we are training for this special work.

Our friends who are not in Zion Restoration Host must therefore bear with us when we say that the Gathering on Monday evening, March 23d, will be positively limited to Members and Intending Members of the Zion Restoration
Host.

The week through which we have just passed has been one of Delightful Service, but also of very Continuous Toil in all Departments of Zion.

As the Frost comes out of the ground, the Imprisoned
Water runs away to the Beautiful Lake.
Activities are increasing in every direction, and Building
Operations are going on on every side.

We have many things to tell our Readers concerning the Progress that is being made in Zion City, which we must reserve for another occasion.

It has been our delight in the midst of all our Teaching of Spiritual Direction, also to be able to help our dear people in connection with the Educational, Commercial and Political aspects of Zion.

The legal limits of Zion City have been greatly increased, and now comprise a very large area.

Over Eight and One-half miles of the Territory of the Zion
City Site is now under deed to us, and God is greatly blessing us in connection with the Zion Land and Investment Association.

Zion City Bank goes forward in its strong and prosperous career for God.

We are glad that we have been able to spare for a week or two one of our Chief Helpers in the work of Zion City, Deacon Charles J. Barnard, General Financial Manager of all Zion’s Institutions, whom we have requested to take a rest in Florida for several weeks.

He left, with his good wife, for St. Augustine, early in this week.

We hope to receive him back before the end of the month, safe and sound and strong. He has done splendid work in Zion.

Deacon Sloan and his Staff in the Zion Stocks and Securities Bureau report splendid work, much progress and large investments.

Zion Lace Industries and the other Institutions are going forward with amazing prosperity.

Orders are being received in connection with all our Manufactories which could only be fully executed by factories many times their size.

We are increasing them as rapidly as is possible and wise.

The Great New Enterprise, the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association is being carefully organized.

Large numbers of shares are being applied for.
It will enter upon its work early in April.

Meanwhile the Zion Construction Department is taking up the work, which will afterwards be transferred to the new Association.

Engineers, Architects, and Constructors are all busy, and we shall soon need very large additions to our staff in these departments.

We are delighted with the continued Good Tidings from all parts of the world where our people are carrying on God’s Work under the Banner of Zion, and especially with the Good Tidings from Australia, of which we shall make extended mention at the proper time.

We rejoice in the River of Blessing which is continuing to flow in upon our beloved Workers in almost every part of the Field, and all indications point to a most successful Spring and Summer’s work.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

When we have the joy of meeting our Friends in Vast Numbers at the Third Feast of Tabernacles in July next, we shall doubtless be able to hear from them Wonderful Stories of what God hath wrought.

MAY GOD OUR FATHER abundantly bless every true Child of His who reads these lines, and every family in Zion.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

GOD’S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God’s Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said “I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life,” and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or “I am Jehovah that Healeth thee.” (John 14:6; Exodus 15:28)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for “Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yes and forever”; and He is still with us, for He said: “Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age.” (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ’s Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, “Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed”; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God’s Will.

It is the Devil’s work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to “destroy the works of the Devil,” and when He was here on earth He healed “all manner of disease and all manner of sickness,” and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been “oppressed of the Devil.” (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance, and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

“Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ.”

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
The 37th chapter of Ezekiel describes Israel as being in the Latter Days like a great Valley of Dry Bones, and that is just what they are. The religious life of Judaism and Christianity has simply become a Valley of Dry Bones, out of which the sap of life has for the most part departed, and contains also millions of the Presbyterians, the Congregationalists, and the Baptists and other Independent Churches who all frankly admit among themselves that they are very dry.

It seems to me to be very clear, that all these free church denominations have at last come to the very proper conclusion, that they are by far too free.

In fact, they have been applying Democratic principles to a Theocratic institution.

Democracy is the Rule of the People.

Theocracy is the Rule of God.

Every honest man knows that the Church cannot be the Church of God, if it is the Church of the People.

The Church of God is ruled by God.

—The Voice of Elijah, the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day, afternoon, March 8, 1903.
ORD'S DAY, March 8, 1903, was a gloriously beautiful forerunner of springtime.

The sunshine, the air, the sky and all nature seemed quivering with the fulness and intensity of the promise of the coming joyous season.

An earnest of the New Life about to burst forth on every side seemed to find expression in every sunbeam and whisper in every breath of the breeze.

Zion City, beauteous even in the dull, leafless garb of winter, awakened early, and thousands of her people assembled in the golden dawn to praise and worship God, and to receive practical teaching for His service from His Messenger.

All through the hours of that beauteous morning a thousand of her people were going from door to door in all parts of the great city of Chicago with the salutation, "Peace be to this house," and a Message of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Each Message was accompanied by a courteous but pressing invitation to attend the great service in the Chicago Auditorium in the afternoon.

These invitations and the beauty of the day brought out many thousands, who filled all the desirable seats in the Auditorium, stood in great numbers in the foyer, and came and went away again rather than climb to the upper parts of the gallery or stand throughout the service.

The last of the Series of Messages Unveiling the Apostasies was delivered by Elijah the Restorer at this service. Like those which had preceded it, historically and logically, fair and just.

But, in this respect also, consistent with all the other Messages of the Series, it was primarily a Message of Divine Destructive Power, aimed boldly and fearlessly at the very foundations of organizations which, full of error in teaching, resulting in many grave errors in practice, are keeping God's people back from the Waters of Life, and hindering rather than helping the extension of the Kingdom of God.

The organizations attacked were the Congregational, Presbyterian, Baptist and other independent churches.

The Message closed with a vigorous, convincing protest against the false principles which had wrought such hurt and ruin in these churches, of the rule of the church in all its affairs, not from above, by the authority and power of God, but from beneath by the votes of the people, or even of certain classes of the people.

Then came a call for an expression of the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion concerning their recognition of the Rule of God, through His Messenger, in the Church, and of their hearty approval of, and cooperation in, that form of government.

The response was unanimous and enthusiastic.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, March 8, 1903.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Forward! be our watchword,
Steps and voices join'd;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind.

Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?

Forward thro' the desert,
Thro' the toil and fight!
Jordan flows before us;
Zion beams with light.

Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind;
All thro'youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind:

Speed thro' realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace;
Faint not, till in glory
Glimpses our Father's face.

Forward, all the lifetime,
Climb from height to height,
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eve be light.

Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepar'd,
By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared;
Eye hath not beheld them.

Hath our God prepar'd,
By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared;
Eye hath not beheld them.
Ear hath never heard;
Nor of these have utter'd
Thought or speech a word.
Forward, marching eastward
Where the heav'n is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 14, 1903.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 307:

The whole world was lost in the darkness of sin, God's loving Son came down from the skies; Jesus is the Light, Jesus will shine and make all men wise.

The Light of the world is Jesus;
Like sunshine at noonday His glory shone in.
The Light of the world is Jesus.

RECIPIATION OF CRED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate:
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
And ascended into heaven;
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them; for I Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy handmaid, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of an infinite majesty;
Thee Adorable, True and Only Son; Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou pourest down upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hast overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God in the book of Ezekiel, 37th chapter, closing with the prayer:

May God bless His Word.
After the chanting of the Gloria Patri by Zion White-robed Choir, prayer was offered by the General Overseer.

The announcements were made, after which the tithes and offerings were received.

The General Overseer then delivered his Message.

THE VISION OF THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES—THE APOSTASIES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN, BAPTIST, CONGREGATIONAL AND OTHER FREE CHURCH DENOMINATIONS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable unto this people and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time Till Jesus Come. Amen.

I desire to read to you the words which I placed in front of all that I had to say in opening my Series of Messages concerning the Apostasies.

They are found in the 2d chapter of the 2d Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

TEXT.

Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, and our gathering together unto Him;
To the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is now present;
Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition;
He that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sitteth in the Temple of God, setting himself up as God;
Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things;
And now ye know that which restrains, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season;
For the Mystery of Lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restrains now, until he be taken out of the way,
And then shall be revealed the Lawless One, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of His mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of His Coming;
Even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders, with all the artifice of unrighteousness for them that are perishing; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that they should believe a lie:

That they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

No Pleasure in Destructive Work.

It has been no pleasure to me to deliver the Series of Messages which I am closing today.

I did not choose the task of being a member of the firm of the Universal Wreckage Company.

I do not care for being in the business of pulling down things.

Nevertheless it has been necessary; for "the Son of God manifested, that He might Destroy the works of the Devil." He is, therefore, the Head of that Universal Wreckage Company, of which I am an humble member.

The World's Fair a Curse to Chicago.

When the World's Fair was held in this city I had my residence close to that World's Fair grounds.

Sometimes I was made to smile, and sometimes became very indignant at the contemptible lies of the press which used to speak of the Fair as the White City, the Dream City, and the Wonderful City.

It was the dirtiest, filthiest hole upon God Almighty's earth.

Never was there a filthier thing.

Never was there a thing that cursed this city more.

Every great exhibition has been followed by disaster to the city in which it was held.

It has always been followed by war without a single exception.

World's Fairs Always Followed By War.

You all remember that first Fair of 1851, which ended the long Peace that followed the Battle of Waterloo, when the nations met together in London to congratulate each other that a great Era of Peace had come; that the federation of the nations was about to take place, and that nations would men bear arms against each other, but the peaceable pursuits of commerce and industry, and art and science would take the place of war.

It was all very poetical, but it was a shameful lie from the very start.

In McCarthy's able "History of Our Own Times" that historian says: "The Exhibition of 1851 was often described as the Festival to open the Long Reign of Peace. It might, as a mere matter of chronology, be called the close of the short reign of Peace. From that year, 1851, it may be said fairly enough that the world has hardly known a week of Peace."

There is nothing so likely to produce war as nations revealing to each other their treasures and weaknesses, and competing with each other for the trade of the world.

Therefore 1851 was followed, as you will remember, by that most awful war—the Crimean War.

England led the way—she who had sung the Song of Universal Peace—in 1853 in war with Russia, and she had Turkey, France, Austria and Sardinia with her in the fight which lasted from 1853 to 1856, and cost hundreds of thousands of lives and terrible sufferings.

Every great exhibition has been followed by disaster down to the last one, when the people of this city went into ecstasies over the Duke of Veragua and the Infanta Eulalia!

Oh, what a beautiful thing it was to "recognize grand old Castile!"

Everything was fine for the Spaniard, and their love for the United States of America was so great that they sent across the Ocean, up the St. Lawrence river, through the Canals and down the Great Lakes, an exact copy of Columbus' fleet of discovery, and sailed it into the Court of Honors at the Chicago World's Fair.

Then in a few months afterwards, what did the Spaniards do, you remember—what did America do to the Spaniards at Santiago and Manila?

The very naval officers who visited this city were shot to death, and their vessels riddled and wrecked.

The cry went up with gloating as you read the story of the horror of the battle of Santiago, where only one captain had the grace to say when the men were shouting: "Boys, stop! The poor wretches are dying."

Beginning of Zion Work in Chicago.

I review this just at the present moment because I desire to say that it was at that time that I began my ministry in Chicago.

No one wanted to hear me particularly.

I unfurled my banner and the people passed by.

Nevertheless I had come to Chicago to stay.

I did not know that at first.

I first thought that I would be here a few weeks or months, at the outside two years, and pass on.

I was looking forward with great delight to the future work that I had before me, and then to the return, if possible, to the beautiful land, Australia, from whence I came, and to which I can return at any moment and find, instead of one congregation that I had before I left, the flag of Zion planted over nearly every state of the Australian Commonwealth and in New Zealand.

I was thinking today of a certain editor who wrote to me and told me in plain terms that he would drive me out of Chicago.

I did not know that such a threat was the very thing that would keep me in Chicago.

(Laughter.)

That was the only thing that could possibly keep me, for when the Devil says, "You go," then I know that that is the right place to stay.

As I studied Chicago, I saw that there was so much Devil in this city that if I could defeat the Devil here I would be able to conquer him anywhere, and I think so still.

Bad as New York is, I do not think that I will have half as hard a nut to crack as when I first cracked this city and smelled it.

Oh! Oh! I will never forget it.

You are pretty bad yet; but you are not quite as bad as you were in 1853.

I have been your minister during these ten years.

There is no use in saying that I am only the minister of a day, because I am one of the oldest ministers in Chicago.

Ministers do not stay long in Chicago.

Some of them fight me hard and then I give them one blow, and that settles them.

They have to go after that.

I can count a score of them who declared "Dowie must go;" but they have disappeared—for their audiences began to disappear, and finances were in a place so low as to prevent any more such shows. Zion has increased every day; and for more than nine years I have had the largest audiences in Chicago—some say in the whole world, but that I do not affirm.

I give the glory, the grace and the power and the Holy Spirit.

Cosmopolitan Character of Zion City's Population.

I am glad to look back upon victories won, and above all, upon the multitudes who have been blessed, saved, healed, cleansed, and received a larger view of life.

I am thankful to live all the time with thousands of them who have gathered in Zion City.

It is quite a mistake for you to suppose that the citizens of Zion City are principally recruited from Chicago.

There are not, I suppose, one-fifth of the citizens of Zion City from Chicago.

They are from all parts of this and other lands.

I have just received a letter telling me of something like five families, probably about twenty persons, who will begin their voyage in a few days from Sydney, Australia, for San Francisco, and will come from thence by Overland Railway to Zion City.

So they are coming from all the world.

I want you to know that Zion City was never founded by Chicago. Never! It was founded by God, and He is bringing His people into it from all the world.

Thanks be to God, we have a number of very able people from Chicago who have gathered around us as officers, although a very large number of our best officers are not from Chicago.

I say this in passing, because there is a notion abroad that Chicago supplied the money for establishing Zion City.
Chicago did no such thing.

The money has been supplied by God from all the lands.

The Pain of Delivering Messages on the Apostasy.

I desire to say, as I close this Series of Messages, that they have been painful to preach.

I do not like to see the tearing down of the world's fair buildings.

I think that it was providential when the fire took them away.

I watched that fire.

I felt the heat of it in the house where I was living in Edger-ton avenue one block from Jackson Park.

God Directly Intervenes to Protect Against Fire.

I was glad that God changed the wind and carried away the debris to the lake, because when that fire started it was headed for Chicago.

The brands fell upon the three Divine Healing Homes, Zion Printing and Publishing House, and upon Zion Tabernacle No. 1.

I remember coming in and praying God the Almighty that Zion's properties, and the south side of the City itself, which was in great danger, would not be destroyed by fire.

I had the joy of seeing a complete change of wind in twenty minutes.

I believe that God spared the city in answer to that prayer.

I had to keep my people busy stamping out brands that fell upon the tops of our houses and in the streets until I called a special meeting of the elders, and prayed that prayer.

You will remember, hundreds of you who were there at that time, how God changed the wind and carried the brands into the lake.

A Fire-stick for the Apostasies.

The best way to get rid of those world's fair buildings, which were flimsy, and had become old so soon, and were a menace to Chicago, was by Fire.

That took them quickly.

My notion about the close of these Messages upon the Apostasies is that I shall put a fire-stick into the rest.

(Laughter.)

Of course I will be criticised for that, but it does not matter.

I have been criticised a great many years, and I have not grown any leaner upon it. (Laughter.)

I have never bothered myself about criticism.

I have only done my duty, to God and to all men, as kindly and thoroughly as possible.

I have said that in closing this Series of Messages, I would speak concerning the Apostasies of Presbyterianism, Congregationalism, Baptist, and the other Free Church denominations.

I am a Scotchman, every inch of me, so far as I know, and I believe the Highland Scotch to be pure Israelites in their origin.

The Clans, among the hills of Scotland, who wear "Joseph's coat of many colors" in their tartans, are Hebrews.

They are not Jews, but they are Israelites.

Every Jew understands the difference between a Jew and an Israelite.

All Jews are Israelites, but all Israelites are not Jews, for Judah is simply two tribes and Israel is ten.

The Valley of Dry Bones.

These Ten Tribes that are scattered are to be brought back.

The chapter which I read to you this afternoon, the 37th chapter of Ezekiel, the Story of the Valley of Dry Bones, has to do with this matter.

That is to say, "the whole house of Israel," all the Twelve Tribes are included there.

It describes Israel as being in the Latter Days like a great Valley of Dry Bones, and that is just what they are.

The religious life of Judaism and Christianity has simply become a Valley of Dry Bones, out of which the sap of life has for the most part departed.

I have shown you this in Lutheranism.

I have shown you this in Papalism.

I have shown you this in the Episcopal Church.

I have shown you this in Methodism.

I have gone over a very wide field in some other denominations, and what is the use of bothering with the rest?

The Valley of Dry Bones contains also millions of the Presbyterians, the Congregationalists, and the Baptists, and other Independent Churches, who all frankly admit among themselves that they are very dry.

So dry are they that some of them have even lately been saying that they need converting.

The Baptist "Standard" Sees Need for Conversion of the Baptist Church.

I hold in my hand a statement made by a Baptist organ saying that they need to be converted.

It is the Chicago Baptist Standard of October 11, 1902:

Christian ought to want to be informed about the affairs of the Kingdom, and until they have this heaven-born desire they will remain ignorant in the presence of stores of wisdom. Facts! We are surfeited with them, but having ears to hear we hear not, and having eyes to see we see not.

We need to be converted.

That is right.

Dr. Harper, set to work with your Divinity Corps and get the Baptists converted.

You had better start with John D. Rockefeller and his son—who are like yourself, "Prominent Baptists." (Laughter and applause.)

They need to be converted.

Do not say that I made that accusation, for I read in the Baptist Standard an excellent description of them—

"having ears to hear we hear not, and having eyes to see we see not." (Laughter.)

I could go through all the varied denominations that I am to talk about, and read to you the wails of the Presbyterians, the walls of the Congregationalists, and the walls of the Christian Disciples, and the wails of all these free churches, lamenting their dryness and barrenness.

The best men among them tell you that they do not know what to do with their ecclesiastical "bodies," for they are "dead."

Pitifully Small Increase of the Free Church Denominations.

They tell you, and their statistics show it, that the average increase for years is considerably less than one per cent.

It is also known that if the statistics were closely examined they would be like the statistics of the Methodist Episcopal church, which we examined the other day, and found that Dr. Thompson was claiming 2,000,000 people that we proved, and Dr. Buckley said, could not be found anywhere.

There is no doubt that these are the facts.

Narrow Escape from Death in the Valley of Dry Bones.

I feel very sorry about this part of the work, for I was born, ecclesiastically, in the Valley of Dry Bones; yea, more, I was a minister there.

Moreover, I conscientiously obeyed the direction of Dr. Dry-as-dust, and I lived upon dead men's brains for many years.

I ate any amount of Pilgrim Father's dust until I nearly choked me; until it seemed to me that my whole composition was rapidly becoming dust.

I wondered how much dust a theological book-worm such as I was could put into himself.

At last I felt that the only thing would be that by-and-by I would burst and go dust to dust. (Laughter.)

A last thought came to me that it might be possible that up there where I sometimes saw the stars, there might be a way out; and that up there I might some day find that I had "feet," and even "wings," so that I should run without weariness, walk without fainting, and get into higher heights than eagle ever reached.

I started to climb up.

I had many a tumble, but at last I got out.

I am out, and I keep on; and many of my dreams down in the Valley are being realized.

I look down at that Valley and I should run without weariness, walk without fainting, and even "wings," so that I should run up in the Valley and I hear them groan.

Oh, how they are groaning! and sometimes they say very ugly things because I have escaped and am telling the truth about the Valley.

They are saying as they did in that olden time, "Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off."

I would really like to help them.
The only way that I can possibly help would be to put the fire-stick in and make them shift their quarters.

Applying Democratic Principles to a Theocratic Institution.

It seems to me to be very clear that all these free church denominations have at last come to the very proper conclusion that they are far too free.

In fact they have been applying Democratic principles to a Theocratic institution.

1. Democracy is the Rule of the People.
2. Theocracy is the Rule of God.

The question arises, Is the Church something to be ruled by the people, or is it something to be ruled by God?

Every honest man knows that the Church cannot be the Church of God if it is the Church of the People.

It cannot be the Church of God, because those in the Church of God are born of God, controlled by God and have to obey God.

Theocratic principles are at entire and positive enmity with Democratic principles.

In the Church of God the people must not rule, or the Church will go to the Devil surely.

Therefore it has come to pass that, in these free churches, when they have given up the reins to the people, you have a most extraordinary condition of things.

Made-to-Order Preachers.

You have Theological seminaries which take young men and a very few women from the universities and schools and make ministers of them by machinery.

All the churches of the Apostasy are afraid of the ministry of women.

Do you not notice that?

The churches are very much afraid of women.

The men do not like to see women occupy the pulpit, because they know that they can talk better. (Laughter.)

I always admit that my wife can talk on many subjects better than I.

However, I put Mrs. Dowie at my side at a very early stage of my ministry, and I said: "You shall not treat me only to those private lectures.

"I will have you talk to others."

So she talked to others, and talked with much good effect.

She is talking today in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City.

I thank God that my son, Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie, A. B., whose twenty-sixth birthday has just passed, delivered his first address in Shiloh Tabernacle last Lord's Day.

May God bless him. (Amen.)

She is talking today in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City.

I thank God that my son, Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie, A. B., whose twenty-sixth birthday has just passed, delivered his first address in Shiloh Tabernacle last Lord's Day.

The question then becomes a question of salary.

Mr. Flesh-pot's choice.

He takes enough time to get the cigar out of his mouth and silently damn them, and then he begins to think, "After all, I cannot afford to let these fellows get just any one, because I put $5,000 into that church, and this town must have a man who can talk. Well, I will think about it." So he tells them that he will think about it.

At last he sends off to some place where there is a young fellow talking away.

It cannot be the Church of God, because those in the Church of God are born of God, controlled by God and have to obey God.

Theocratic principles are at entire and positive enmity with Democratic principles.

In the Church of God the people must not rule, or the Church will go to the Devil surely.

Therefore it has come to pass that, in these free churches, when they have given up the reins to the people, you have a most extraordinary condition of things.

The Free Churches have the Spirit of Fear.

Why not?

How are they created?

The theological student—frequently being poor—is fitted for the ministry at the cost of the denomination.

The consequence is that the denomination owns him from that time on.

He goes from step to step, taking everything that they say, swallowing it all, thinking as they think, and then at last he becomes their minister.

"Calling" a Minister.

How is he called?

In all these denominations, the Presbyterians have become Congregationalists, the Congregationalists have become Presbyterians, and the Baptists and Christian Disciples are very much the same.

They all go upon the same basis that the people have the right to call the minister, which is so ridiculously unreasonable a proposition, that it would be absurd to imagine the possibility of its being scriptural.

Do you not know how the people call the minister? In the first place, they have to think of the minister's salary.

If they go about it the best way, the committee will say, "We will get a first-class talker."

"He will attract crowds of people, fill this church, and boom the town.

"We cannot afford to have any but a first-class talker."

The consequence is that they go to Mr. Hog Jones, who is in the pork-packing business, or Mr. Stinkpot Tobacco Manufacturer, or Mr. Beer-pot, or Mr. Whisky-pot, or some other dirty pot, and say, "How much can you help us, Mr. Flesh-pot?"

He takes enough time to get the cigar out of his mouth and silently damn them, and then he begins to think, "After all, I cannot afford to let these fellows get just any one, because I put $5,000 into that church, and this town must have a man who can talk. Well, I will think about it."

So he tells them that he will think about it.

At last he sends off to some place where there is a young fellow talking away.

He is pretty bright.

Mr. Flesh-pot, who is chairman of the committee, and pays all expenses, Fullman car and Hotel and Cigars included, begins to see whether he is the man or not.

The question then becomes a question of salary.

The committee must do as he says in thousands of cases.

As a result, a man is chosen who praises society, who will not damage any of the interests of Mr. Hog Raiser, or Mr. Distiller, or Mr. Brewer, who will be very gentle with pet sins and allow progressive euchre to progress, the dance, the theater, and every worldly thing to go on.

It will not do, you know, to stir up these things.

A meeting is called, and this man is put before them, and the people vote upon it. But the "primaries" have been already held and Mr. Flesh-pot's nominee must be voted for.

The great question is who nominates, and Mr. Flesh-pot puts on his most religious dress, manner and drawl.

Dumb Dogs In the Pulpit.

This minister is chosen by the ecclesiastical bosses in reality.

He is introduced and nominated, and the people have only Mr. Flesh-pot's choice.

They have to take one or the other of such men.

The committee must do as he says in thousands of cases.

What is the consequence?

Dumb dogs in the pulpit!

They will not bark.

They will not tell the truth.

They are afraid to talk.

They are afraid that if they do not take care, they will not have bread and butter.

I would rather break stones in the street than be a minister of that kind.

I have never been dependent upon any people for salary since my first experience with the Congregationalists. I very quickly refused that.

After that they gave me some good positions.

I have never been dependent upon any people for salary.

I have nothing personal to say against my friends in the Congregational denomination.

They were very courteous and kind to me. It was the system that was all wrong.

I could make no great headway, nor could any Congregational minister with such a system.

If the people have the right to call the minister, they have the right to rule the minister.

Why do they not educate him as well as call him?

Why do they not make him from the beginning?
The free churches today are filled with ecclesiastical machine-made men for the most part.

There Are Some Good Men in the Free Church Denominational Ministry.

There are men who are better than that, and who offer themselves for the ministry, because they are soundly converted. In this time of ours any bright man who offers himself for the ministry knows that he is making a pecuniary sacrifice. Any man with any brains at all, any character, push or capital could make far more in any business, than he can in the business of preaching to an ordinary congregation of Presbyterians, Baptists or Congregationalists. A business man, a professional man of law, or literature, or architecture, or engineering could always make more.

Therefore large numbers of good men get into the ministry because they desire to serve God, and then their hearts are broken: for they find themselves to be practically Slaves of the Ring which controls the organization.

I know what I am talking about, because I know this ministry. I know it from the ecclesiastical Dan to the ecclesiastical Beersheba.

Sometimes the women and the little Christian Try-to-do-its get together, and various parties in a church will each find the very man that they want, and there being no Flesh-pot big enough to boss, the contest rages until the church is torn to pieces: for they find themselves to be practically Slaves of the Ring which controls the organization.

Sad Failure of Young People's Societies.

What is the condition spiritually of these churches today? They told us, when Mr. Clark established the Society of Christian Endeavor, that this was going to be the great thing. They told us, when the students' missionary movement was started, that that would be the great thing. They told us, when the Baptist Young People's Union, the Epworth League, and various other organizations of young people were established that they were going to do the thing.

"Stand off, you old fellows, we are going to show you how to do it."

What became of it? The proportion of converts has steadily lessened. Mr. Clark, since you established your Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

Do you hear?

I speak it across to the Atlantic Coast.

I viewed the monument of John Knox that crowned the hill.

As I stood there the sunlight of a glorious sunset fell upon the monument and the words that Regent Morton had said stood out in bold letters.

He spoke the Truth that shattered Rome—the accused system that was strangling Scotland.

I do not need to prove the Apostasy. For that I thank John Knox, the Presbyterian. I cannot but remember that many of the great martyrs of my country professed the Presbyterian faith. I venerate them.

I love to read of their devotion to God's Rights as King and to the Eternal Covenant, even though I deplore many things. But are the Presbyterians of today like the men of John Knox's day?

Presbyterianism Has Fallen Away from the Standard Set by John Knox.

No! They are very different indeed. They have fallen. They are jugglers of words. They get into Presbyterian pulpits and empty a dictionary upon the people.

You do not need a Bible when you go to hear N. Dwight Hills. You need a dictionary.

He is allegorical, metaphorical and parergorical. It is enough to sicken any one.

Presbyterian Form of Government a Patchwork.

These first Presbyterians established the best form of government they could, and it was a mere patchwork. It was a mere accommodation. They were trying to unite the principle of monarchy with the principle of Presbyterianism.

They were trying to make James I., Head of the Church of England, the Head of the Church of Scotland—which was, and is, a gross inconsistency. They wanted him as the head of the nation and received his commissioner who sat as representing the king and had voting power.
They tried to unite the principle of the government of the church by the state, and they could not do it. They could not unite two opposite principles. They failed and they have failed ever since. The consequence is that Presbyterianism is split into two principal schools. The old Presbyterian church is the Church of Scotland. Go back a few years and ask what it was. When the United Presbyterians, the Free Church of Scotland, and others broke away from the Church of Scotland, in what did they differ?

The ministers of the Church of Scotland were men put there by political power, who were scholarly and kind men in many ways, but who were short on personal piety and most religiously got drunk, in many cases, about as regularly as the day came.

The consequence was that they were a disgrace to the whole church.

A True Story of Intemperance in the Church of Scotland.

I remember hearing a true story of these matters. A certain Church of Scotland minister went to rebuke one of his parishioners. His name was Andrae, which is used for Andrew. The minister asked: "Do you take a glass of whisky?"

"Yes," he replied, "I do, because it is necessary for me."

"We will just admit that it is necessary," said Andrae.

"Will you answer me some questions?" asked Andrae.

"Yes," replied the minister.

"When you rise in the morning, do you take a glass of whisky?"

"Yes," he replied, "I do, because it is necessary for me."

"We will just admit that it is necessary," said Andrae.

"We will not say what you take 'tween whiles, but when it comes to dinner, do you any take—at least another glass?"

"Aye," he said, "I do, but that is for digestion."

The minister replied: "I'll no be merciful any mair. I have already got drunk about once a month when he was paid off. He knew the minister's habits quite well. He was very submissive for a while, because he was always peremptorily after he got sober. He said that he was quite sure that he was a sinner, and he hoped that the minister would be merciful.

They had a splendid "body of divinity" in the Catechism, in the Confession of Faith and the Shorter and the Longer Catechism.

Presbyterian Ministers Do Not Believe Their Own Theology.

I have found many Presbyterian ministers who had never studied their Confession of Faith, and who never defended it. When I was a student in Scotland, a young man came to me and said, "I am about to be ordained, Dowie, and I am ashamed to say that I have not fully read the Confession of Faith."

"I said, "why not?"

He replied, "I do not want to read it; for if I read it, I will never become a minister."

"Why?" I asked.

"Because," he answered, "I know that there are many things in it that I do not believe."

"Do you mean to say, you young rascal, that you are going to be ordained, and you do not believe?" I asked.

"Yes," he said, "I am going to be ordained tomorrow."

"I have spent so much money in getting my education, and I am promised a church, and I am going to be ordained; nevertheless, I do not believe many things it is said to contain, even although I have to say I believe it all."

I was perfectly amazed. Mentioning the matter a day or two later to another person, I said: "Is there much of it?"

"I was told that it was all through the University of Edinburgh, in which I was a student at the time."

A Presbyterian Professor's Subterfuge.

"Even your professor in Greek, the man of whom you think so much, dissembled when he signed the Confession of Faith," I was told.

"How did he do it?" I asked.

"He tells us that he is an honest man, and that an honest man is the noblest work of God. How did he do it?"

"It is this way," my informant said. "When he was appointed professor of Greek in Edinburgh University, he came down from Aberdeen, where he was professor of Latin.

"He had not signed the Confession there; or, if he had, it had been so long back that he had almost forgotten. When he came to Edinburgh he had to sign the Confession."

"Mr. Kennedy, the Registrar of the University, brought him a book, and said: 'There, professor, you must sign that before you can take your chair.'"

"What is that, Kennedy?" he asked.

"That is the Confession of Faith."

"What have I to do with the Confession of Faith? I came to teach Greek, not theology. I will not do it," the professor replied.

"Then you cannot take the chair, Professor," he was told.

"What do I say when I sign it?" he asked.

"You declare that it contains what you believe."

"Kennedy, give me the book," he said, and took it and opened it.

"Then he wrote the words, John Stuart Blackie, and said, 'This contains all that I believe and a great deal more.'" (Laughter and applause.)

That was the way he got out of it, and he was the man that I had thought so much of, as a particularly brave and honest man.

Men sign these accursed Confessions and they are not honest out and out, because they cannot be.

Honors of the Presbyterian Confession of Faith.

A church that demands of its ministers and people the signature to a great "Body of Divinity" that no mortal man believes in every point, is sure to fail. It teaches that God Almighty from all eternity predestined that some people should be "vessels of wrath" and be damned forever, no matter what they do; and, on the other hand, that other people are "vessels of mercy" and must be saved forever no matter what they do.

There is no mortal man who is honest before God the Almighty who believes such a lie. That was the theology of the time; but no one believes it now.

The Presbyterian church of today has in it a multitude of learned and able men.
But it is in a shocking condition of misgovernment by reason of the laity, who are the real rulers.

There are men who overawe the entire congregation by saying: "If you do not turn that man down and out, I will take back all my money and will starve him out." The consequence is that the churches today, with a few exceptions, are not progressive.

The Baptists ignorant of Baptism.

What are the Baptists? Baptist.
The last thing that they know anything about is Baptism.

They are fighting for Baptism, and do not understand it.

The General Overseer then inquired of a number of Elders seated on the platform, how many years they had been Baptist ministers, and found that their aggregate service in that denomination was one hundred six years. He then said: These brethren, who had a united ministry of one hundred six years, did not know the first thing about Baptism.

They baptized by single immersion into the death of the Christ. That is not Baptism.

Baptism is obedience to the Lord's command, who said, Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Baptism Cannot Be by One Dipping.

If I took this handkerchief and said to you, dip that into the blue, the yellow and the black, could you do it with one dipping? No.

If I told you that the Lord commanded you to baptize into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, could you do it by one dipping? No.

You could never do it by one dipping.

The Baptists cannot fight our position.

For thirteen centuries, and especially for the first nine, and still more for the first four, there is no real dispute that the Church, as a Church, ever permitted Baptism in any other way than by Trine Immersion.

The Baptists have talked, and talked, and talked, and they have not baptized.

I charge it upon the Baptist denomination that they have been wide of the mark from the beginning, and that their spiritual teaching in connection with Baptism has been like the mountains labor and they bring forth this ridiculous little mouse, and you boast about it.

A real Baptism is a Triune Immersion.

They are to be baptized into His Resurrection, and Rise with Him to Newness of Life.

They are to be endowed with Power for Service.

A real Baptism is a Triune Immersion.

The Baptists know nothing about a real Baptism.

They are an apostate church howling about an Ordinance of which they administer less than a third.

Power of a Real Baptism.

What is the consequence?
The consequence is that in Zion we have baptized more people than have the Baptists in all the state of Illinois, within the last seven years.

We have baptized more people in one year in Chicago, than the entire Baptist body in seven counties including Cook county.

There is no Power in their baptism.

There is no Life in it.

People do not care a snap about it.

I know that because I started my career in baptizing that way, and it nearly killed me.

Unpleasant Task to Unveil Congregational Apostasy.

I am sorry to talk about the Congregationalists, because it is like talking about my boyhood friend's.

While I cannot say that my friends in the Congregational church were without exception kind, I can say that no man has less reason to complain than I of the splendid treatment I received during all my ministry in the Congregational denomination.

I found the ministers, with few exceptions, to be gentlemen.

I found the people educated, talented, moral and upright, no ordinary degree.

Evil Men In the Congregational Church Sap Its Vitality.

There are large numbers of men who are Congregationalists connected with newspapers that are serving Satan all the time.

I know of one who is a prime mover in what I call Satan's Universal Press Syndicate.

It is rotten to the backbone.

An ordinary Congregationalist's sermon is the most amusingly unpractical and unscriptural thing.

When the ladies file into a "good society" Congregational church, the minister smiles his professional smile, and then practically tells them that they are the nicest kind of people in the world.

An Exposure of Spiritual Death.

I remember once in New South Wales, when we were preparing the Annual Report for a union of thirty-nine churches, the secretary brought in a report of five years' condition of the churches, and said: "We have added five hundred members in five years in these thirty-nine churches for which we thank God and take courage."

I was indignant.

I sat still until they were about to read the report when I rose in my place and said: "If that report is presented, my resignation will follow very quickly."

It is a shameful thing.

We have thirty-nine churches; and, if we have five hundred people converted, what is that per annum a church?

It is one hundred persons a year, and less than three members a year for each church.

Nevertheless, you propose to thank God and take courage that a minister, his earnest wife, the superintendent of the Sunday school, with a great staff of teachers and a large number of local preachers who labored in each church, did not get more than three in the entire year?

It is one every four months, a fourth of one every month, and a sixteenth part of one every week.

That is the entire outcome of all the toil.

The consequence is that in Zion we have baptized more people in one year in Chicago than have the Baptists in all the state of Illinois, within the last seven years.

You cannot fight the Devil with rose water.

You cannot fight the Devil with perfumes. You have to give him the Sword of the Spirit to the very hilt. They used to do it in the Congregational body. Rowland Hill, and multitudes of others were mighty men of God, but where are their successors today? They are gone, and they have left almost no successors. What is the condition of the rest? It is no railing accusation when I say that I hear them crying out of the pit in the Valley of Dry Bones, "Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off." Why is it? I will tell you why.

The Fallacy of Democracy in Church Government.

Denominations that imagine that the Church of God can be ruled by the people have ceased to understand their Bible. The Church of God must be ruled by God. "What will the Church do?" you may ask. Not the people. The people did not call me. I called the people. You did not call me, I called you, and I call you still.

I will ask you, who have come to see that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is God's Church, and has an opposite opinion. I will ask you, who have come to see that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is God's Church, and has an opposite opinion.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

HOW JESUS HEALS THE LITTLE ONES.

BY OVERSEER JANE DOWIE.

WHEN we wish to speak to children, our thoughts naturally turn to the story in the Gospels of how the little ones were brought to Jesus, and He said:

Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus had been speaking to the people, and they had asked Him questions. His answers were good and full of purity and wisdom, as He told them, in answer to these questions, that Moses had permitted some things because of the hardness of their hearts, but that in the beginning it was not so; one man was for one woman; God made them male and female.

We can imagine that the parents of these children, listening to the teaching of the Master and looking at the loving face of Jesus, wanted Him to bless their little ones. Then, too, knowing that Jesus laid hands upon the sick and they recovered, they wanted Him to lay His hands upon them that they might be healed of their sicknesses.

So these mothers, thinking first of their children before everyone else, boldly pushed their way to Jesus.

The disciples rebuked them, but Jesus said:

Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Then He took them up in His arms, laid His hands upon them and blessed them. We feel sure that when He did that, they received a spiritual blessing, and that those who were sick were healed. What happy mothers and fathers!

What happy little children were they to have had the hands of the loving Saviour laid upon them, and to have received blessing and healing through His tender, loving hands.

But, you say, "these things are of the past. He does not bless and heal the little ones now in that way. He has given us another way. We must receive blessing through the priest's or minister's words only and healing through the doctor. They are the balm of Gilead: they are the physicians of this day. Jesus is not here now," they say. "He was crucified and is dead and buried."

Is He? I thought the angel said to the women at the tomb, "Why seek ye the Living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen." And Jesus Himself has said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

We present to the children a Living Christ, a present Saviour and a present Healer.

We tell fathers, mothers and children to come to Jesus for Cleansing, Healing and Keeping power, for He "is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever," unchanging and unchangeable.

This story of the children being brought to Jesus is read by ministers when they are sprinkling infants; but nothing is said in the Gospel story about Baptism in connection with His blessing the children. Baptism, too, has to be preceded by Repentance, hence this could not have reference to that Ordinance.

In the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, we believe that it is a good thing for parents to bring infants to the House of God to receive a blessing. So the parents bring them and present them to the Lord. His minister lays His hands upon them and blesses them, in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The parents are responsible to God for their children until they are old enough to understand, and the parents, bringing their children to the House of God, promise to train them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and to show in their own lives the example of godliness.

Many a time have I told this lovely little story to our children in Zion. Although it is repeated down through the ages, it never loses its charm. Such are all the narratives of the healings of children in the Gospels.

How sweet the story of the little daughter of Jairus, whose father came to Jesus on her behalf, and how touching the story of the woman who was healed as Jesus was on His way to heal Jairus' little daughter!

Ah! how in that day the rulers, as well as others, felt the helplessness of human strength apart from the Divine. How brought her daughter, previously vexed with a devil, to Jesus. When she became willing to humble herself, begged the children's bread for her child, and was willing to become as the little dogs, if she could thus be let into the Master's House, and eat of the crumbs that fell from the Master's table, she was taken into the Kingdom, and her daughter set free from those awful demonical possessions!

Then we have the story of the man who brought his son to Jesus. The boy was possessed of an unclean devil, and "ofttimes it cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him."

The man cried to Jesus, "I brought him to Thy disciples, and they could not cure him."

Jesus said, "Bring him hither to Me."

These disciples, while Jesus had been on the mountain, had been busy disputing among themselves who should be the greatest, and so God could not use them at that time.

The man brought his son to Jesus, and He had compassion on him and cast out the evil spirit as the father had prayed Him to do.

Jesus came down from the beautiful mountain scene where He was transfigured with Moses and Elias, to cast out horrid, unclean devils, and to find His disciples disputing as to who should be the greatest.

Then He called a little child and set him in the midst of them and said:

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus wants us to be His true children, humble and teachable. He was a little child Himself once, so He knows how it feels, and can understand little children.

His Book also says, that the angels of the little ones "do always behold the face of My Father which is in Heaven."

As a little child in a father's house can get to his father and talk to him, so a little child who is in the Kingdom of Heaven, on earth, can pray and receive what the Father in Heaven has promised to give to His children: good gifts to those who ask Him; the Holy Spirit to those who obey Him.

We tell the children that they must obey. That is the lesson we begin with in life, and we have to keep on learning it.

They obey God first. To a little child, father and mother are in the place of God until he understands.

"Children, obey your parents," is a Divine command. How necessary, then, for parents to be wise with their children, and not "provok them to anger." That is a Divine command also.

Then, too, we urge upon the children the necessity of Repentance and Confession.

When they do wrong, they must be sorry and put things right. They must tell it to those whom they have wronged and to God, and ask them and Him to forgive.

Then they must ask God to put His Holy Spirit into their hearts to keep them from sin, and witness with their spirits that they are His children.

If the Holy Spirit is in their hearts, they will not love sin. He will say in their hearts, "This is not right; do not do it!" and then they must not do it or they will grieve the Holy Spirit, and He may leave them to the consequences of sin.

We also get them to ask God to cast out all fear from their hearts, so that they can love Him with a perfect love.

Perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

"But," you ask, "does this help them to receive healing for their bodies? Can a child understand how to do this?"

Certainly they can, and they do.

If it were as easy to get older people to know the Way, with all the lessons of the past, as to show them how not to believe, and how to explain away the simplicity of faith, the Gospel of Healing would now be welcomed in all the churches, and the people would not have had to come out of the denominational churches in order to keep their faith in Christ as the Healer.

But Zion has been established by God Himself as a refuge for the afflicted of His people. Her gates are open wide to all who belong to the Kingdom. We are large enough to receive all.

In the earlier part of our work in Chicago, after we had built our first Zion Tabernacle there, we commenced to have one day a week specially set apart for the children, to teach them and to pray with them.

I shall never forget that time and the great number of lame, blind, deaf, deformed, imbecile, and sick children of every kind who came.

It was indeed a strange sight.
One wondered where they all kept coming from, week after week.

My husband was very much loved by these poor little children.

When the time came for prayer, I used to arrange them for him in the room, and do such things as he asked me to do.

Some of them were not over clean, and they all had something the matter with them, but they were all the same to him.

He took each little child up in his arms, inquired what the trouble was, then laid his hands on the diseased parts and prayed, "In the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God our Heavenly Father."

Then kissing the little one, he set it down and went on to the next.

Perhaps the next little one had been prayed for before, and was much better. She would greet him with a happy smile, and tell him how her lame leg had come down four inches, and she had no pain now.

The mother would say, "Yes, Doctor, she used to cry all the time, and now she is so happy, singing all day, and sleeping all night."

He would thank God for this, pray again for the child, and tell the mother to keep on bringing her till she was all well.

And so on he would go around amongst them, seeing many at a time and laying hands upon as many as five or six hundred sick children in one day.

The dear little creatures used to love to get as close to us as possible, and, as the building would always be full, and all the space had to be used, we let them sit down on the platform, on the edge of it, and on the steps.

I have often gone in to begin the meetings till my husband would come, and as soon as they saw him, their faces would light up with joy. How different from the looks with which they would greet a surgeon or a medical doctor!

At first, some of these children would shriek if he came near them. Their mothers explained that it was because they were afraid of every man with a black coat, they had suffered so much from the treatments of doctors and were afraid to be touched.

But when they found it was just that we were praying to the Heavenly Father in the Name of Jesus, and that no nasty medicine was to be given, faith and love took the place of fear.

The only trouble was they could not get enough of the "Good Doctor’s" laying on of hands.

Their pains were now gone, their abscesses were healed, and the terrible hallucinations from which they had suffered were all passed away.

My husband always told the children, “I cannot heal you. The healing comes from God, who has promised to heal, and His dear Son Jesus told me to lay hands upon you in His Name.”

So they fully understood that it was God’s work, but they loved Dr. Dowie just the same.

He used to like to have them witness. One favorite way he had was first to call on all the children who had been healed of lameness to stand up. Often as many as twenty would stand.

He knew each one and would ask them, “Where are your crutches and high boots now?”

Out would ring their little voices, “On the wall, Doctor!”

“Do you need them now?”

“No, sir.”

“How many inches has your leg lengthened?”

They would answer, and the answers were all the way from an inch to, in one case, eight inches.

In the same way he would have those who had been blind and deaf testify.

Then he would have some come up on the platform and let them give particulars.

I think I can hear now the clear little piping voices as they gave their thrilling testimony.

One little girl is saying: "When I came here first, I could not walk at all.

* I had never walked.
* I am twelve years old.
* My spine was paralyzed.

My mother carried me, and when Dr. Dowie saw me he said, ‘Can you walk?’ and I said, ‘No, sir.’

CORA CARLEY.

Deaf three years; ear drums destroyed; twelve bones removed from nose; was healed so that she now hears the slightest whisper. Restored through faith in Jesus. (See LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume I, Number 25, page 351.)

"Then he put his hands on me and prayed; and then he took my two hands in his and said to me, ‘In Jesus’ Name, you can walk’—and I walked.

*I have been able to walk ever since.
*I thank God, and ask Him to bless dear Dr. and Mrs. Dowie."

Then my husband would say, “Let the people see how you can walk,” and she would walk up and down the platform to show them.

The mother then would give her testimony with a grateful heart, telling the names of the doctors who had treated her in the past, and giving their statements of the hopelessness of any cure to her child.

What man could not do, God had wrought.

I hear another sweet little voice talking. It is little Mary Dowling.
She is saying: "When my mamma brought me here first, I could not see; my mamma and my sister led me by the hand. When I was quite little, I had the measles and my eyes were weak. I could not see well when I went to school. So the teacher sent me home, and mamma took me to the doctors. I could not go to school any more, and I had the doctors a long time.

"The doctors doctored me blind.
"So my mamma brought me here.
"I gave my heart to God, and then when Dr. Dowie prayed for me and touched my eyes, I could see.

"I could not go to school any more, and I had the doctors a long time.

"The doctors doctored me blind.
"So my mamma brought me here.
"I gave my heart to God, and then when Dr. Dowie prayed for me and touched my eyes, I could see.

MARY DOWLING.

Totally blind in left eye for six and one-half years, and nearly so for eight months in the right eye. She is now able to read fine print, and is going to school. [See LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume I, Number 25, page 401.]

"Now I can see quite well. I go to school and am in the Second Grade.
"I thank God and dear Dr. and Mrs. Dowie."

Then my husband would say, "Let me see; you say you can read," and, opening the Bible at the story of the healing of the man who was born blind and to whom Jesus had given sight, he would have her read the verses:

The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshiper of God, and do His will, him He heareth. . . . If this man were not from God, He could do nothing.

We felt as they did of old. We have seen strange sights today, for He hath done all things well. He maketh both the blind to see and the deaf to hear. They glorified the God of Israel.

Another little voice is speaking.
This is little Cora Carley.

After she has spoken, her mother tells her story while she stands upon the Doctor's table to look at the people. There was not a scrap of fear in her little heart, for she is a witness for Christ.

"The mother speaks out with a rich, clear voice.
She tells, first, of how she heard of the wonderful works of God, and then brought her little girl.

She had come a long journey; but when she saw so many who seemed to be even worse than her child, she gave them her place several times, because there were so many that some had to be left, and she could come again.

At last her turn came, and she said she felt that it had been good for her to wait.

Cora had a disease which had decayed the bones in her nose, the back part of her head behind the ears and in her ears.

Pieces of bone would come from her nose; her hair came off from portions of her head, leaving them bald.

The corruption was very offensive indeed.
She was told by the doctors, whose names she gave, that her little girl's ear drums were destroyed.

The little one was totally deaf.
A doctor gave her strong medicine to put in the child's ears. She had to put her down on the floor and hold her with force while she put this strong medicine into her ears.

She thought at that time she must do this, and that it was her duty to her child because the doctors had ordered it.

The poor child screamed so that the neighbors came to expostulate with her, and know why she was so cruel to her daughter, whose piercing shrieks were more than they could endure.

Then she was told of God's wonderful works in healing. She thought Divine Healing was more merciful and more like God's Way.

Little Cora was prayed for and went home.
That same day the little girl was playing with a little boy at the end of their yard. They were playing with a spoon in the sand.

The mother wanted Cora to come in. "So," she said, "I called to the boy who was playing with her to tell her, when Cora turned herself and, holding up her little spoon in her hand, came running and crying out, 'O mamma! mamma! I heard you, I heard you.'"

From that time on she has heard perfectly. Her hair has grown again and the horrible disease is all gone.

This certainly was a Miracle of Healing.

Little Cora then heard and answered the questions put to her, and as she had listened with a happy, smiling face to her mother's story, it was quite apparent to every one that she could hear all that was said.

These are just a few illustrations of the great work God was doing at this time.

People thronged from all parts to Zion Tabernacle.
As so many persons were being healed free, Divine Healing being without money and without price, the doctors did not like it.

As people were coming from the churches, the ministers did not like it. The people belonging to Secret Societies did not like it, and many others whose crafts were in danger did not like it. It did not touch their hearts to know that the sinful were saved from lives of sin; that unclean habits were put away, and the sick healed.*

History repeats itself.
They wanted to destroy the servants, as those whom He rebuked wanted to destroy the Master.

They banded together to pass an ordinance in the City Council of Chicago. On the authority of this Ordinance, which they passed for that purpose, they arrested my husband and tried to imprison him.

They also had the doctors of the Board of Health to work, to attempt to prevent such "unnecessary" healing. They decided that praying for the sick with the laying on of hands was practicing the healing art. Practicing the healing art, they decided, was practicing medicine, and as we did this without a license from them, they had us before the magistrate to answer for this awful crime.

My husband's case was tried first. He made no secret of the fact that he prayed for the sick. He had persons who had been healed go into the witness box, where they told how they were healed, without any medicine, but in answer to prayer.

The Doctor told them, in answer to their questions, that he was a minister of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, not a doctor of medicine; that he had his commission from the Bible. Then he read the passages to them.

The magistrate, after several days' trial, took two weeks to think it over. He then delivered himself of the monstrous verdict that my husband was guilty of "practicing medicine without a license," and sentenced him to pay a fine and costs. He refused to do so, and told the magistrate to his face what he thought of him.

My husband at once appealed the case to a higher court, and as this Judge was so unjust we asked for a change of venue when my case was called.

They never brought up either of these cases again, because they knew that they could not stand in law and they would be defeated.

But they apparently decided that the ordinance which was made in the City Council was to be the persecuting machine.

This ordinance was also an interesting and unique idea.

The crime which they tried to make out the Doctor had committed, in this case, was keeping a hospital without a permit. This ordinance defined a hospital as any place where the sick were received and cared for. It declared that a permit must be obtained and $10 paid for it to the city.

As we received sick people into our house, they had witnesses to prove they saw them going in, and that was sufficient to prove that we had a hospital. As we declined to ask for a permit, the cases were proved.

My husband contended that these verdicts were illegal, because the ordinance was contrary to law; that an ordinance could only be valid if in accordance with the common law.

They, on the other hand, claimed that he committed three offenses a day, and arrested him on one hundred warrants.

One Sunday they took him from his platform, officers being sent with firearms in their pockets.

These men took him in the morning and kept him till the afternoon. When he came to preach at the afternoon meeting, he was arrested and carried before a police magistrate on the other side of the city. He gave bonds and returned to take the evening meeting.

The indignation of the people was very great, but my husband was very calm. He spoke quietly to the people, telling them to keep calm; that this was done by a form of law, to which for the present we must submit, although it was illegal. He said that it would only please the persecutors to be able to make us commit some disturbance of the peace.

The people did just as he told them.

He turned to me and told me to give the sermon that morning. This I did, and God wonderfully strengthened and blessed me. Even though their indignation was aroused to fever heat, the people listened so quietly that you could have almost heard a pin drop.

The enemy hoped by keeping up this system of persecution to weary us out, and eventually to be able to shut up our Divine Healing Homes, our Zion Tabernacle and our Zion Publishing House.

But they failed in it all.

They did not know the material they had in hand to deal with. God was with us, and when He is with us, it does not matter who is against us.

The ordinance at last reached the upper courts, and there it was eventually pronounced invalid.

I put in this piece of history at this point, because it was during this period that I first took up the Children's Day at Zion Tabernacle.

ALTA GERTRUDE NOWELS.

Healed of curvature of the spine, partial paralysis, diseased lungs, etc., in Zion Home. The instruments of surgical torture, previously used without benefit, caused her such severe pain that she would lose consciousness. (See LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 15, page 250.)

Many a time, just as Dr. Dowie was teaching the children, would these police officers arrive. Then the usual performance of finding a magistrate to take bonds and get him free consumed a great deal of time. The trial of all these cases, each one separately, also took him away a great deal.

I had to start in and do just what I could. We did not omit one meeting.

God began at this time to raise up other faithful workers. Dr. Spiecher (now Overseer for Zion City) and J. T. Wilhide (now a deacon in Australia) both came to us at about that time, and were very helpful.

Now we have a very large staff of Ordained Officers. How those little children cried when they knew that they could not have the "Good Doctor" to pray with them!

I said to them, "Jesus is here just the same. He will hear..."
I began then taking these Children's Meetings regularly. I did so for over three years. I had much joy in this work.

It has always been a joy to me to be with the children, for I have a natural love for them. Little children never trouble me.

In my testimony meetings, I used to ask all the children who wanted to tell what God had done for them to come up to the platform to me, and tell the people about it.

I will give you a few of these testimonies.

---

SUNSHINE HARDING.

Healed of scarlet fever. When her mother tried to have her take medicine, she refused, saying, "Why don't you get closer to Jesus?" A telegram was sent to Dr. Dowie which he received and answered from the platform, and God healed the child. (See Leaves of Healing, Volume II, Number 28, page 133.)

Two nice, intelligent boys, with their mother, came up. The boys told that they were quite healed of a trouble they had had from their earliest recollection, and they wanted to thank God and serve Him all their lives because He had been so good to them.

The mother then arose and said: "I brought my two boys and came myself to hear the great preacher, but when we came I was disappointed, because I had come from the other side of the city, a long way, and he was not here. They had him in the police courts.

"I thought at first I would go back, but when Mrs. Dowie began to speak I became interested and listened. I felt that she was right and that disease was evil, the result of sin and the work of the Devil.

"I saw that doctors could not heal; but that Jesus came to destroy the work of the Devil; that He healed the sick, when He was in bodily presence on the earth, and that He had said:

"He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works shall he do; because I go unto the Father.

"I knew I was sick and miserable, and that I and my boys had suffered from constipation all our lives. We could only get relief by artificial means, and life was always a misery.

"When the meeting was over I was going away, but my two boys said, 'Mother, we want to go into the room to be healed.'

"I thought to myself, 'Do they expect to be healed?' But I saw they were eager, so I went in with them.

"The room was full, and Mrs. Dowie went around and put her hands on the heads of the children, praying a brief prayer with each in turn. Then she let them go.

"My boys walked quietly out with me, and we took the train for home. On our way we passed the drug store at which we were accustomed to deal, and I stopped to go in.

"I had thought when I came out of the prayer room, 'Is that all they did?' So I was going for the old thing again.

"My boy put his hand on my arm and said to me, 'Mother, don't. We won't need it. I am healed. Besides, you know we promised the lady we would take no more medicine.'

"I thought to myself, 'Does he really mean it? Has he more faith than I have?' As I looked at his face, I saw that he was in earnest.

"So I went without the medicine, and that night and the next day everything was natural with the boys.

"It was wonderful.

"I have not thought since then that prayer was nothing. I felt how faithless I was as compared to my children's simple faith.

"The following Sunday I came and heard Dr. Dowie's wonderful teaching. At the end I repented in tears and gave myself to God; for I do not believe I was a true Christian before, although I had professed to be.

"The next Tuesday, Dr. Dowie prayed and laid his hands upon me, and I was healed of about six different ailments.

"I do praise God.

"Never again will I look upon prayer as nothing.

"How many persons, if you tell them that when you are sick you pray, will say to you in horror, "But do you do nothing for it?"

"You say, 'Yes, I pray. That is something; it is the mightiest force on earth. The power of God is put forth to answer prayer.'

A young man brought up his little step brother to testify in Central Zion Tabernacle.

The little fellow was twelve years old. He had been injured by a wall falling on him and his back was broken. He could only walk on his hands and feet, bent over like an animal.

His brother brought him to Chicago, because the doctors in Milwaukee, who had treated him for a long time, wanted to break his back again to see if they could straighten it in that way.

The little fellow was very happy to come, for he said to his step-brother, "I believe Jesus will heal me."

They carried him into the Prayer Room out of a chair in which he had to work himself about.

He was healed.

His brother said, "He walks now on his two feet."

We let him come up and he showed, with his face full of happiness, how now he could even jump, which he did. He jumped up about a foot high.

Then his step-brother said to him, "Show them how you used to walk," and he walked in the old way, on his hands, making them like the paws of an animal.

The people all cried and rejoiced, in turn.

I thought it was so good of God to answer my prayers in this marvelous way. It was only His wonderful goodness.
Here is another story from Central Zion Tabernacle. A mother and father had one only child, a little boy eight years old. He became blind.

When the friends of the family knew this, they wrote to her, telling her of various doctors to go to in Chicago. Among the letters, however, they received one from an intimate friend of former years, who had written to my husband and had been prayed for, receiving a marked and wonderful healing.

This friend sent a copy of Leaves of Healing, and begged them to leave the case entirely in God's hands and have Dr. Dowie pray for the child.

The boy listened to his parents talking about this, and when his mother took him to still another doctor, who gave no more hope than the others, he said, as they came out, "Mother, take me to Zion Tabernacle. This is the day (Thursday) for the children. I want to go there, because God can heal me, mother, if the doctors cannot."

She came. She thought she would hear Dr. Dowie, but it was only Mrs. Dowie. She heard the simple Gospel Story, the healing of Jairus' little daughter.

She heard the children testify to their healing, but she only listened without heeding, for her heart was so full of sorrow that her boy was blind, and she could not take her mind off what the doctor had told her.

But with the child, it was not so. He could not see, but he could hear. The Holy Spirit got into his heart because he was ready to receive, and he drank it all in.

At the close I said, "All who believe that God will heal them today may stay and come into the Prayer Room. I will believe that God will heal today all who obey and believe Him."

The mother, taking her boy's hand, turned to go toward the front door. But the boy, feeling her turn, said, "No, mother, not that way. The lady said the door to the Prayer Room was behind her; you are not going the right way."

She looked down into the face of her child, which was full of sweet trust and expectation. She said, "Do you believe, dear, that God will heal you today?"

"Yes, mother, I do. I know He will today."

She turned to go the right way with the child, and that day he received his sight.

He went home seeing.

Can a little child understand and believe? Surely he can.

Our children in Zion now look upon the least thought of taking drugs as sin. They are taught to pray themselves, and if they do not receive the answer, they must search their hearts to find the hindrance. Then they have their parents pray with them, and if the answer does not come, they obey the Word of God and send for an Elder of the Church, or the parents bring the child to the place of prayer.

There have been very, very few deaths among the vast number of Zion children.

One Sunday morning, just as we came from the platform, my husband was accosted by one of our Zion members, who asked to be let come into the vestry. He had his little son wrapped in a rug.

This little man, three years old, was quite a favorite of the Doctor's. He used to save his pennies for Zion, and then come with a bag full of them to give to the work, surprising the Doctor with the vast amount of his acquired treasure.

The plump little face was all flushed with fever. He had his shoes on the wrong feet, and when the rug was off him he was seated on the table, his legs sticking out and a woeful expression on his face.

One could see that not only was he in pain, but he was in sad disgrace. It was evident that he had sinned.

What was the matter?

His father seriously and solemnly told the story, while his blue eyes opened to their fullest extent as he listened.

He had sinned, and it was willful sin.

His father had a wagon factory, and the men would come in and out and leave the gate open.

It was a wet day, and Micky's mother had told him he must not go out in the wet, and also that he must not go with some naughty boys who used bad words.

MICHAEL N. LINDSKOG.

Healed from the effects of a bite of a mad dog. Divine Healing better than the Pasteur treatment for rabies. (See LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume III, Number 40, page 625.)

Micky watched to see when his mother was busy, and then ran out and went off with the bad boys. His mother could not go after him, so he was away a long time.

The consequence was that Micky had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It was all over his body. His fat little ankles, his knees, his shoulders and wrists were swollen. It was pain for him to move himself at all; and he had a high fever with it.

It was all the direct result of willful sin.

Doctor said to him, "Micky, I am shocked to think you could do this! What have you to say?"

The little mouth twisted and then he said, the tears filling his big blue eyes and dropping down his cheeks, "I was naughty, Doctor. I won't do it again. I am sorry."

So he was told to tell God he was sorry; whereupon he folded his hands together, closed his eyes and repeated the prayer.

Doctor then took him and prayed, passing his hands around the joints. Then he moved the ankles without pain; then the knees and arms and wrists.

Then Micky stood and walked. Doctor then told him to thank God, which he did.

We kissed him and letting him go, Doctor said, "Now, Micky, God has been good to you." With a twinkle in the back part of his eye, he added, "I am not quite sure that you deserved Him to be, but be sure you do not do that again."

He was fully impressed with the gravity of his case. He, a little Zion boy, who had been healed before in answer to prayer, was wilfully disobedient to his mother, and playing in the wet and mud with children of the Devil who used bad words!

He knew he deserved the Devil's wages.

This is the story of little Michael Lindskog's healing, but he was also healed of other things, amongst which was the bite of a mad dog.

Among the testimonies I loved to hear there were those of fear. Now he tells me, 'Mother, put out the light. I am not afraid any more, because Jesus is here. He will take care of me.'

I have sought earnestly to get fear out of the hearts of the mothers; for from them it gets into the children even before they are born.

Famine and plague have slain their thousands, but fear its tens of thousands. Even after you think it is cast out, how often it will try to pop up its ugly head again!

Many a child has come into the world with an inheritance of fear.

Fear has prevented many beautiful little spirits from coming into this world at all. They have been killed before they were born.

Mothers, do not fear to have your children. God will take care of them and of you, if you will obey Him.

Do not take the bad advice of doctors who tell you to do things which are sinful to your bodies. Our bodies are fearfully and wonderfully made, and are most tender in their construction. As long as God's laws are obeyed, they can be kept in good order. The Bible is the book which instructs us in these matters.

It is to the interest of the doctors to keep women sick; not to have them made well.

God's command to the first man and the first woman was: "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth." That was given before the fall, as well as after.

God's Book also says: "Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord."

When a husband and wife unite together to train up their children for God, and live as God would have them do, then the promises which were given for the seed of the righteous will be fulfilled in them, and they shall inherit the earth.

When my children were very little they knew God. It was one of the first things they were taught, as soon as they could walk and talk.

My boy, who was the older and is now a young man, was very young indeed when he began to talk, and very intelligent.

He used to read his child's Bible when only five years old, and repeated the second chapter of Luke when he was not three years old, just by having heard it read a few times at family worship.

I do not remember his ever having any fear in his heart at all. He thought every one was his friend, and had a very happy disposition. His name which we called him when a child just fitted him. It was Gladdie.

When he was less than five years old we were away from home, and boarded for a short time with a lady who had an old Irish servant for a cook.

This old cook, Mrs. O'Leary, was a good servant, but she had an unfortunate failing. She had periodical times when she would get off on a drinking bout. Then she would get right again, and go on for a while doing her work well. Her mistress was sorry for her and tried to do what she could with her because of her good qualities.

When she was recovering from the effects of liquor she would be afraid of everything.

On one occasion her mistress asked her to go across the street for something, only half a block away. It was a dark night, and she was afraid to go. She said so.

Little Gladdie heard her, and looking at her with surprised eyes, he went up to the poor creature and putting his hand into hers, said, "I will go with you, Mrs. O'Leary. Then you will not need to be afraid, because God always takes care of me."

She looked at the child. Then she said, "Sure I will. I believe God does take care of ye."

I am sure many a mother wonders that her boy comes through dangers and difficulties. My boy was very venturesome, but he always came through unhurt.

When I heard him speak as he did to this old servant, I knew that he had faith in God's protecting care over him.

My little daughter once when quite young got fear into her
LEAVES OF HEALING.

It was a hot night in summer, when we lived in Melbourne, Australia. A maid who had been with us for some time, left to go to her home in the country. It was while the new maid was with us that this happened.

A young man, son of one of our members, had taken an epileptic fit. His mother came and begged us to go and see him. We did so. We had taken twelve strong men to hold him, he was so possessed. When we arrived, my husband had them let him go and knelt down beside him, holding his temples with his hands and praying. In Jesus' Name the Devil was cast out. We paid another visit afterwards and reached home at 11 o'clock, having no uneasiness about our children, because they never awoke in the evening after they were put to bed.

We had our latch-key with us, and as we put it into the door we were surprised to hear a smothered sound of weeping coming from the nursery. I said, "That is our little Esther," and we went quickly upstairs to her room.

She was in her little bed with the blanket held tightly over her face with both her hands. Her sobs sounded as if she had sobbed thus for a long time and was all tired out, so that she could hardly cry any more.

The perspiration was all over her body and her face was wet with it.

I said, "Why, Esther dear, what is the matter?"

Her papa began to take the blanket off her, but she held tightly to it crying, "Oh no, I can't. I can't look; there is a black man there."

We said, "No, dear, there is no black man. Papa and mamma are here."

But she said, "There is a big black dog down the lane, and he is coming to carry me away."

Then we saw at once what had happened.

This child had never been told anything but the exact truth all her life, and she believed exactly what was told her. This new maid wanted her to go to sleep quickly for some reason of her own, and had told her these things to make her lie down and cover herself up.

Then she had awakened, and the horrid black man had come up before her vivid imagination. She had, at that time, never seen any colored person, and would not have feared one if she had. As for a big dog, she never was afraid of any animal. But this wicked girl had put into her heart the spirit of fear.

Immediately her father said, "Esther dear, there is no one here but papa and mamma and Jesus. He is here. He is always here when we are not. He will always take care of our little girl."

She at once dropped her hold of the blanket and smiled at...
You can always ask Him to take care of you.

Wicked persons can harm you. Fear.

Tell you He would do. See Him, papa and mamma been looking for Jesus.

She took great interest in the wickedly frightened her. She never again had any fear.

Of course, we at once sent away the bad girl who had so wickedly frightened her.

The sick people came to our house for healing, as they did shortly after this time, she took great interest in the sick children and would talk to them about Jesus. One day her doll had a bad fall and broke its head. She ran at once to her father and knocking at the door of his room, where he prayed with the sick, she got in and, laying the doll down on his knees, she said, "My baby is sick, papa; pray for her.

Her father took the injured doll and gently put it together, tying it up. He explained to her that it to take care of you.

She stood and looked at me. I said, "What is it, dear?"

She said, "Mamma, I have been looking for Jesus."

She then went back to her room, looked behind the door, under her bed and all around. I watched to see what she would do.

Then she said, "I can’t find Him now, mamma. He was here last night. I saw Him, but He is not here now."

Then I saw what that look meant, and I said, "Esther, He is always here, dear. We cannot see Him, but His Spirit tells you. He is always taking care of His little child, and no wicked persons can harm you. You can always ask Him to take care of you.

See looked very happy and, smiling at me, said, "He is always here, mamma.

She never again had any fear.

Our son and daughter are now grown to manhood and womanhood, but they are not afraid, and believe what Jesus said is true, "Lo, I am with you always."

We trust that in the years to come all the instruction and knowledge which our son and daughter are now busy acquiring in great schools of learning will be turned to good use in furthering the work of God. They were given to Him from the beginning of their lives. May He ever guard and bless them. As we have prayed for you and yours, we also desire that you will pray for us and ours.

There are many more things which I could say, but I think I have made this now long enough.

I would just add that Jesus has been our Home Physician for almost twenty-five years, and we wish you to make Him yours. We are not telling you to do what we have not done ourselves.

Never a drop of medicine has been in our home, either for ourselves or our children.

We have lived with the sick a great part of the time, but God has kept us; and when any sickness has come, God has answered prayer in our behalf.

Just one more little story, and with that I close. An artist once painted a beautiful picture intended to represent the mothers bringing their little ones to Jesus.

He made a beautiful picture of Jesus, and then put in some beautiful little children. Jesus was holding out His hands to them, and looking lovingly upon them; but some of them were hiding behind their mothers’ skirts and pulling back, the mothers gently drawing them forward as they did so.

The artist took his little girl to see his picture, and asked her how she liked it.

She looked at the face of Christ, and her face lit up; then she looked at the children. He said, "Are they not beautiful little children?"

She said, "No, papa, I do not like them! If Jesus looked at me like that, I would run to Him. I would not want to be pulled and pushed to Him."

He saw his mistake. He wiped out these children and painted in their places the beautiful picture of the little children, holding out their arms and running eagerly to Jesus.

Ah, that has been the trouble! Our Heavenly Father, the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit have not been presented to the world as they are, a glorious Tri-une God.

If we had always been shown Him as a loving Father, merciful and gracious, pitying His children as a father pitiful; if we had always thought of Him as loving us with an Everlasting Love, whose mercy endureth forever; if we had pictured Him as one who went about full of sympathy with the sick and sorrowing, bearing away from them their burdens of sin and sickness; if we had kept more in mind that He said, "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven," and had always known that He is ever ready to take them up in His arms and bless them, what a different world this would be!

The time would indeed hasten when the prayer which our Lord taught His Disciples to pray would be fulfilled:

Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS

Conducted by Deacon Daniel Sloan

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, APRIL 1st or 2d.

Using Wealth for God.

   Evil is ever in conflict with the good.
   God is in it to win it.
   Evil operates to overthrow the good.
2. Those in the early Church sold all. — Acts 2:44-45.
   They had no fear of what they feared God.
   They held their property in common, for they had all.
   It took weeks and months, perhaps a year or two, for some to sell.
   The last Church will be like the first.
   They will sell their property and cooperate.
   The work of God demands everything.
4. Those who do this have a sure reward. — Matthew 19:25-22.
   God's rule is, Give and you will get.
   Heaven's riches come in place of what you give.
   Do not love money or you are an idolater.
5. We must give up much for the Christ. — Matthew 16:27-30.
   Give up homes and lands.
   Give up dear relatives.
   Give up life itself.
   Men can love money only to worry over it.
   Men can love it only to be destroyed by it.
   Men love it only to be led into evil.
   They lie, steal and cheat to get it.
   They defraud and oppress to obtain it.
   They make it their god and savior.
   God's Holy People Are a Wealth-dedicating People.
   His people must be ready to defend the right.
   The work of God demands everything.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, APRIL 5th.

What Belongs to God.

   Every living creature is His.
   Every inanimate object is His.
   All was created to glorify Him.
2. He saved us through our faith. — 1 Peter 1:15.
   A man who does it is as bad as the Devil.
   The usurper possesses another's property.
   Man is too insignificant to cope with God.
3. Heaven and earth are both His. — Deuteronomy 10:12-21.
   A man who claims the earth will not get to Heaven.
   Everything in the earth is God's alone.
   A man must one wealth, given him of God, for God.
4. Every foot of land is God's. — Leviticus 19:5.
   No man can say, "The land is mine."
   God simply gives you the use of it.
   The land is God's and His alone.
5. The earth and all it contains is His. —Psalm 24:1-10.
   All of the developed resources are God's.
   All of the hidden resources are God's.
   The silver and gold, and even all the cattle, are His.
6. Everything is for His praise and glory. — Revelation 4:10-11.
   Use your property to please God.
   Evicted He is with what He has given.
   You cannot join this song unless you do.

ZION'S HOLY WAR

Has Been Reduced to

THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

in order to place it within the reach of all.

This Book of 330 pages contains a History of the most important Religious Campaign ever carried on in Chicago and Rutland Sermons and Prebutes delivered during the three months in which the War was waged. It is illustrated with thirteen of Mr. Charles Gamble's recent Cartoons, drawn during the Holy War. God greatly blessed these Portions and Prayers when they appeared in LEAVES OF HEALING. This Book, neatly and attractively bound in paper covers, 50 cents.
ION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE has a most peculiar and intimate connection with every other institution of Zion in all of her four great departments—Ecclesiastical, Educational, Commercial and Political, and especially with the personal ministry and prophetic mission of the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer.

Zion Printing and Publishing House, in fact, was the first of all the present Zion Institutions, and was first of all—what it is, principally, still—a God-given instrument for multiplying and carrying into all lands the Messages which God has given to the Strong Messenger of the Last Days to deliver.

By means of the direct personal ministry of His Messenger, supplemented by Zion Printing and Publishing House, God has raised up the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and all her many institutions and departments, including that wonder of the twentieth century, Zion City.

The first work of Zion Printing and Publishing House was the publication of LEAVES OF HEALING. That is its greatest and most important work today. LEAVES OF HEALING is the official organ of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and much more. It stands absolutely unique and peerless in the field of journalism, in fact it may be said to be above and outside of that field. It has been called the Seventh Gospel. That term more truly describes its character than anything we can say.

On July 1, 1902, Zion Printing and Publishing House began its campaign for the increase of the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING to One Hundred Thousand yearly subscribers. At that time the circulation of the paper was approximately twenty thousand. Today the circulation is thirty thousand.

Ten thousand new subscribers in nine months, gained without the use of premiums, or other questionable means, by which the circulation of other papers is inflated, is a good record.

It is a small record, however, when compared with the work which must be done during the remaining months of this year.

Seventy thousand yearly subscribers must be obtained.

We are confident that Zion is confronted by no impossibility in undertaking this task, under God.

We know, by actual experience, from correspondence in this office, and from reports of workers in the field, that there are many hundreds of thousands of people in the United States and other countries, who will become subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING as soon as the paper is placed before them, and they see its character.

There are three ways in which we are doing it.

The first is by the personal work of officers, members, and friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion everywhere, and especially of the members of Zion Restoration Hoot. This is the most effective method.

This second is by sending out from this office sample copies, trial subscriptions, circular and personal letters, and other matter to persons whose names are furnished us from various sources, and especially by the members and friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

The third is by the work of Zion Literature Mission, under the superintendence of Evangelist Sarah E. Hill.

It will be seen that we need for this work the earnest co-operation of every man, woman and child in Zion in three highly important ways.

First, we need their prayers.

Second, we need their energetic, active and enthusiastic work, not only in personally soliciting subscriptions and selling single copies, but in securing and sending to us the names and addresses of persons to whom we can send sample copies, etc.

Third, we need their generous, and even self-sacrificing financial assistance, both in sending subscriptions to their friends, and in gifts to Zion Free Literature Mission.

If Zion people everywhere will pray earnestly, work faithfully, and give liberally to get that One Hundred Thousand yearly subscribers, there is nothing that can prevent its attainment.

Zion Printing and Publishing House is working and praying for One Hundred Thousand yearly subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING, first of all because we believe that the time is very short, and that the work of Restoration and Preparation for the Coming of the King must be done very quickly.

There are also other considerations, which, however, tend more or less directly to the same end, LEAVES OF HEALING is greatly needed in Danish, Swedish, French, Italian, Hungarian, Russian, Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Hindustanese, and many other languages and dialects.

This, however, will require a very largely increased equipment in every department of Zion Printing and Publishing House, and in order to have more equipment there must be more room.

The present quarters in Chicago are already outgrown, and we are looking, with longing eyes, toward Zion City and the beautiful and commodious building there, for which plans have already been drawn.

But it takes money to construct such a building.

One Hundred Thousand yearly subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING would mean a tremendous increase in the resources of Zion Printing and Publishing House, and would make possible that important building with all its increased facilities for the spread of the Gospel and the extension of the Kingdom of God.

ION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE has a peculiar and intimate connection with every other institution of Zion in all of her four great departments—Ecclesiastical, Educational, Commercial and Political, and especially with the personal ministry and prophetic mission of the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer.
HE sendeth His word and healeth them.

LEAVES of HEALING

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 22. CHICAGO, MARCH 21, 1903. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

INTERIOR OF SHILOH TABERNACLE, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.

Showing Platform and Trophies Captured from the Enemy. This Tabernacle, which Seats 5,200, is Less than One Year Old, and is now too Small. The construction of a New Shiloh Tabernacle to seat 16,000 has been Begun.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

"But who is able to build Him an house, seeing the heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him?"

We turned the first sod on Monday afternoon, March 16th, in Shiloh Park, northwest of the Temple Site, on the ground where, God willing, we shall build a new Shiloh Tabernacle, to seat about sixteen thousand (16,000) persons.

Our First Shiloh Tabernacle is not yet one year old, and has become far too strait for us, although seated for over five thousand (5,000) persons.

Architect Paul Burkhardt has now perfected a very beautiful design for the new House of God on this consecrated spot.

An army of workmen will soon be digging out the extensive foundations for the great steel arches and gallery construction.

The design is a most beautiful one, and will doubtless commend itself, both in its interior and exterior, to the many thousands of Zion who will crowd its gates and soon fill it, we doubt not, every seat within its spacious walls.

In a few weeks we hope to be able to present to our readers a photo-engraving of a perspective drawing which will soon be made, and also a view of the interior arrangements.

We have been compelled to build upon this vast scale, because it was evident that the growth of the City of Zion alone would soon require a building with the accommodations which we are providing.

Upon a special occasion in Chicago, about two years ago, between twenty and thirty thousand persons came to hear the Word of God from our lips, and it would be unwise and wasteful for us to make another temporary structure, or to build a more permanent one on a smaller scale.

And so this vast building, which is but a stepping-stone to the still vaster Zion Temple, will arise as the first of eight permanent buildings which will surround it at a distance of seven hundred (700) feet from its outer walls.
We hope God will permit us to build that glorious Temple for His worship, for the Proclamation of the Everlasting Gospel with all its Covenants, and the Message of Restoration which He has especially given to us, as Elijah the Restorer, in these Latter Days.

The building of this new Shiloh Tabernacle will give us, and our architects, engineers and superintendent of construction, more time to prepare plans and to settle important questions of detail for a Temple to accommodate between thirty thousand and forty thousand worshipers.

We ASK our friends far and near to help us in the building of the new Shiloh Tabernacle, which we hope to complete before the end of the year; and, possibly, to have in some measure of readiness even before the summer has passed away.

We built our present Five-Thousand-Tabernacle in seven weeks.

Why should we not complete a Sixteen-Thousand-Tabernacle in seven months?

With a probable resident population in the City of Zion of from fifteen to twenty thousand, at least, ere the year closes, and making even a very low estimate of the throngs who will come from Chicago, and all points between that city and Milwaukee every Lord's Day, we think it will be seen that even within a year it is not improbable that the new Shiloh Tabernacle will be too strait for us, when the people gather together for the Great Zion Assemblies.

This Tabernacle will be of much permanent value even when the Temple is erected, for many purposes connected with the work, and especially in connection with Zion Junior Seventy work, Zion Dorcas Women's work, etc.

Estimates of the cost can scarcely yet be given with any accuracy, but it is likely to take between four hundred and five hundred thousand dollars to build and furnish it.

When all bids for the steel construction portion of the work have been received, we shall be able to let our friends know the amount which must be provided for this beautiful and necessary building.

It would be very pleasing to us now to receive Special Gifts from our beloved friends in this and all lands, towards the cost of construction.

We feel that it is right for us to ask for liberal Offerings to the Lord for this purpose. Let drafts or money orders, made payable to John Alexander Dowie, be sent to the General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Zion City, Illinois, and acknowledgment will be promptly made.

The next building to be erected in Shiloh Park will be the Chief Administration Building of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which we had intended to place at the northwest corner of Shiloh boulevard and Elijah avenue.

We found that site, however, was likely to be too small for possible future extensions, and that it would be more suitable for one of the permanent offices of an important Zion Institution.

The plans already prepared for this Chief Administration Building will be altered, as the new site will enable us to arrange upon a larger scale for the numerous offices connected with our Headquarters administration of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and of Zion Restoration Host.

The expansion of Zion is so rapid and strong that it would be folly to provide, except with space for large extensions, for a Building in which we must needs gather the many officers through whom we direct the work in the City of Zion and in all parts of the world.

We ask our readers to pray for wisdom in the preparation of the plans for this building, which will be constructed, humanly speaking, on absolutely fire-proof principles, since it will contain the Archives of Zion.

We may also say that the fire precautions taken in connection with the building of the new Shiloh Tabernacle are of the most effective nature.

We have provided for the safety of the people in every known or possible contingency, so far as human foresight can go.

After very much prayerful consideration, we have determined to remove the large and valuable Plant of Zion Printing and Publishing House to Zion City from the building which it now occupies at the corner of Michigan avenue and Thirteenth street, Chicago.
IT IS IN EXCELLENT condition and now completely fills, even to overflowing, the Chicago building.

The necessity for the removal has become most urgent, both for the sake of the work itself and the workers.

Since the removal of our headquarters to this city, we personally find it a very great inconvenience to be forty-two miles away from our Printing House.

The demands of Zion’s world-wide work upon our Printing and Publishing House are constantly increasing.

We shall remove the present plant to Zion City not later than May 1st.

WE SHALL BUILD, at first, only a section of brick, glass, iron and concrete, 120 feet wide by 200 feet long, one story high.

But this will be a part of a great building 200 by 600 feet, which will fill the entire block between Deborah and Damascus avenues, on the south side of Shiloh boulevard.

WE SHALL HOPE to publish in an early issue a photo-engraving of a perspective drawing which has been made of this great building, where Leaves of Healing and many other Zion publications will be produced and sent forth, in many languages, to all the ends of the earth.

WE SHALL ADD very extensively, God willing, to our present plant, and hope to give a description of our plans when we publish the picture to which we have just referred.

WORK ON Zion Printing and Publishing House has been begun in excavating and putting in foundations.

The Zion Building and Manufacturing Association has been given the contract for the construction of the building, and also for the new Shiloh Tabernacle.

NOTWITHSTANDING HEAVY RAINS which fell in Zion City during a great part of this week, work in Zion City has advanced on every line, and considerable numbers of new citizens are pouring in.

WE ALSO THANK God that new resources in scores and scores of thousands of dollars are weekly pouring into Zion City.

Although the frost is scarcely out of the ground, and the first green grass has not yet appeared above the earth, the Spring has opened for Zion’s business.

It is beginning to appear that even our most sanguine expectations for the coming season are likely to be far exceeded.

IT HAS BEEN delightful to meet with Zion members from across the Oceans, whose faces we have hitherto never seen, and to know that there are many on the way from many parts of the world, including lands as far distant as Australia and New Zealand.

THE BLESSING of our gracious God and Father has, by the Power of the Holy Spirit, come increasingly upon the Lord’s Day services, both in the Chicago Auditorium and in Shiloh Tabernacle.

The attendance at the various services in both places, on the first day of the week, is from ten to twelve thousand.

Large numbers also attend the many Zion Tabernacles and other meeting-places of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in and around Chicago.

OUR MID-WEEK ASSEMBLY, held in Shiloh Tabernacle every Wednesday evening, continues to be attended by thousands of our people, and is always an occasion of much blessing and interest.

LAST WEDNESDAY evening it was especially so; but it may be said that every meeting has its own peculiar attractions.

After praise and the reading of the Word of God and prayer, we usually devote some considerable time to the Exposition of Scripture, and to Scriptural Instruction.

Then we and many of our officers speak concerning the business of Zion in general.

THE RALLY, as it is called, has a delightful place in the weekly Gatherings in Zion City.

Subjects of all kinds, interesting to the people, are brought forward, and information is given concerning projected work in the Church, in Zion College and schools, and in the business and political departments of Zion.

WE HERE ANNOUNCE that on next Wednesday evening it is our purpose to make some Important Announcements concerning our personal future plans and the work to be immediately done in Zion.

Members and intending members of Zion Restoration Host will please remember the Special Rally which will be held in Shiloh Tabernacle on Monday evening, March 23d, at 8 o'clock.

A Special train will bring our Chicago Restorationists from that city, leaving the Wells Street Depot of the Chicago & North-Western Railway at 7:30 o'clock and returning when the meeting is closed.

We are glad to know that considerable numbers have already expressed their wish to come.

Doubtless the meeting, which is strictly limited to members and intending members, will be one of very great importance, and will be attended by thousands of members of Zion Restoration Host.

We shall be able to give much interesting information concerning the details of the plans which are being wrought out for the great Zion Restoration Host Excursion to New York City, on October 14th, for the purpose of holding a Mission from October 18th to November 2d, in the Madison Square Garden, which seats sixteen thousand persons, and in the large Carnegie Hall for four days in the following week—Tuesday, November 3d, Thursday and Friday, November 5th and 6th, and Lord's Day, November 8th.

These later meetings will be principally for conference with the members and officers of our Eastern Branches, and for the organization of Zion's permanent work in New York City.

Without making any positive statements as to the rates to and from New York, we are now in a position to say that they will be the lowest on record.

We rejoice in this, as it will make it easier for Zion Restorationists to go.

Great interest continues to be taken throughout the United States in this projected mission, and we cannot doubt that God will richly bless it.

We trust that our friends throughout all the lands will not fail to keep the dates in mind, and pray for us, and the members of the Host who will go with us, during that mission in the Imperial City of the American Continent.

It has been a great joy for us to receive strength from God for the many heavy duties and responsibilities of the work of our headquarters offices during the week now closing.

We are writing these Notes at 8 a.m. on the morning of publication, Saturday, March 21st, after an all-night of work for God.

We ask our readers everywhere to pray that our strength may continue to be adequate to the demands which are constantly being made upon our strength and time, and which we have hitherto been able for many years to meet without the loss of a single day by sickness.

It is indeed a reason for constant thanksgiving that we have been so graciously kept by the Power of God in strength of spirit, soul and body.

Only His Grace has been sufficient for us; and only His grace can ever be sufficient for us.

His Strength is "made perfect in our weakness," and but for that Strength continually flowing into us and through us, by the Holy Spirit, it would be impossible for us to continue the work.

As we close these Notes our eyes fall upon a touching little slip of paper which contains these words:

To distribute Leaves of Healing:
From one who is in deep distress. May God bless these papers to the good of some other suffering soul. If the sender cannot be blessed, perhaps some one else may be.

This memorandum is not signed.

It reached us in our mail last Monday, having been posted in a railway postoffice between Pittsburg and Chicago, on March 13th.

Enclosed with it is a five-dollar bill, which we have handed to Evangelist Hill for her Free Distribution Fund.

This is only one of many tokens of God's blessing upon this paper, which we know is continually being used of God in Salvation, Healing and Cleansing of many throughout the world.

We cannot doubt that God has heard the cry of the sinful and sorrow-stricken heart, which longed to bless others.

Another token of God's special favor in connection with this paper was a special contribution of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) during the past few days, for the Free Distribution of the Leaves, especially in foreign countries.

We called upon our people to write on wrappers the addresses of their friends in all parts of the world. These copies are going out from Zion City postoffice in large numbers.

ONLY WHEN THE BOOKS are opened at the Last Great Day can the Story of the Little White Dove be ever fully known.

THAT LEADS US to remember that, owing to the removal of Zion Printing and Publishing House from Chicago to Zion City, we shall postpone the issue of the Special Series of Supplements containing the up-to-date Story of Zion.

Our readers will lose nothing by this delay, but the contrary.

We shall be able to make the Story far more interesting and illustrate it more fully, so as to make it of greater permanent value, and enable us to bind it up into permanent form as a large and beautiful book.

IT IS NOT unlikely that the delay will now extend into the summer, and that we shall be able to use our new electrotyping plant, and, possibly, our own photo-engraving plant, in the production of the Story of Zion.

It is fitting that the Story of Zion should be produced and published in the City of Zion.

WE SHALL HOPE soon to be able to use color processes in connection with our publications; God having provided for us from among ourselves most remarkably on this line.

BUT TIME FAILS us to further tell of the events which are transpiring from day to day.

We often feel when we have closed these Notes that they present only a few jottings of the meager description of a work that, to be reported fully, would take volumes every week.

WE DELIGHT, HOWEVER, to be able, although it is at great cost to ourselves, to send forth the Little White Dove each week, with its Message to all the lands.

LIKE NOAH'S DOVE, it comes back to us with the olive leaf from every land, telling us that the waters of sin and prejudice of every kind are abating; and that multitudes are looking with longing eyes to Zion.

Like the Ark in ancient days, Zion has gloriously outridden the long period of darkness and storm and stress and flood, and is gloriously going forward with God's Restoration Message in these "Times of Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began."

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

ZION'S CONFLICT with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason. Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

Jesus said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall Restore All Things. Matthew 17:11

Message No. 64
CHICAGO AUDITORIUM
Lord's Day Afternoon
March 15, 1903

REPENT!

It was the first word of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

It rang out in the Voice of Elijah the Preparer, John the Baptist, in the midst of the rocks and crags of the wilderness of Judea, and beside the sacred River of Jordan.

That “Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness” rang in the ears, and reverberated through the inmost spirits of the thousands who came out from Jerusalem to hear the strange, fiery young prophet.

It burned itself into the depraved consciences of hypocritical priests.

It penetrated even into the palace of the king, and smote adulterous royalty full in the face.

The common people repented and were baptized.

The priests were filled with envy and wrath, and went on to their indescribably horrible destruction in the fall of Jerusalem a few years later.

The king and his wicked and crafty queen imprisoned and then murdered the prophet, and they too, perished miserably.

Elijah the Preparer was dead.

His Voice was stilled.

Repent!

Still that disquieting word was heard throughout all Judea and Galilee.

This time it was the Voice of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

Filled with diabolical fury and hatred, the priests and rulers attempted to silence that Divine Voice by murdering Him upon the Cross.

Repent!

The word now rang out throughout all the known world.

The Holy Spirit, proceeding from the Father and the Son, came upon His apostles and messengers, and they carried the Message of Repentance, “in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.”

In all the centuries that have followed, every Messenger who has brought a Message from God, and has delivered it with power, has begun His work with that word.

Repent!

The Consummation of the Age is at hand, and the Dawn of the Restoration is brightening.

The Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God’s Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, is being heard throughout the earth.

The same old word is the beginning of his Message.

It is the burden of his cry.

The common people hear it gladly, and are blessed in spirit, soul and body in hundreds of thousands.

Hypocritical ecclesiastics, like those of old, hear it with envy, wrath and malice.

Adulterous tyrants, whether crowned monarchs or secret political plotters, hear it and tremble on their tottering thrones.

It is the same word and the same Voice which struck terror to the heart of the Idumean usurper.

Repent!

It was the word which rang forth in the Voice of Elijah the Restorer in the Chicago Auditorium Lord’s Day afternoon, March 15, 1903.

It was the old Message brought down to present day realities and present day needs.

Hence, it was intensely practical, dealing with individual, ecclesiastical, commercial and political sins.

With that call to Repentance there came a solemn warning.

It was not a general, indefinite, half-formed prediction, but a specific, direct warning to the people of Chicago.

It pointed out the truth, “except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish.”

It showed the possibility of a terrible volcanic disaster overtaking the city and its millions of inhabitants.

There was genuine Repentance, real Confession and earnest consecration in the spirits as well as on the lips of almost every one in that great audience, when at the close they rose and repeated the prayer after God’s Messenger.

While making the announcements, the General Overseer took occasion to speak in no uncertain tone concerning the reported threat of Dr. Lorimer of Boston, that a so-called “Lily White Party” would be formed in the United States if President Roosevelt persisted in the appointment of negroes to federal offices.

Increasing interest in Chicago was evidenced by the great throngs that came to the Auditorium.
A strong conviction has taken hold of my heart that God is going to permit terrible judgment to come upon this city, because this city is wilfully wicked. . . . This city shuts God out from the public schools. The Bible is thrown out from her schools by Chicago as if it were a hateful and hated book, and could not be trusted in the public schools. You can have Shakespeare and his filthy plays and almost unprintable sonnets; and many that are even worse than he. . . .

The writers of fiction can have their lies, crammed down the children's throats; for that is polite literature. The Bible, which is the best literature in the world in history or poetry, philosophy or fact, is shut out, but the "Merry Wives of Windsor," and such plays as that in which the disreputable Falstaff flourishes, are called "classics." God's Word has no place.

You are getting the result of your training—a city full of infidels.

—The Voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, March 15, 1903.
They filled every desirable seat, stood in the foyer in hundreds and went away, unwilling to stand, in great numbers.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL:

Love Divine, all loves Excelling, Joy of every heart, to thee come down, Fix us Thy humble dwelling, All Thy faithful mercies crown.

Jesus, Thou art all compassion, Pure, unbounded love Thou art; Visit us with Thy salvation, Enter every trembling heart.

Breathe, oh breathe Thy loving Spirit Into every troubled breast; Let us all in Thee inherit, Let us find Thy promised rest; Take away the love of sinning, Alpha and Omega be;

End of faith, as its beginning, Set our hearts at liberty. Come, Almighty, to deliver! Let us all Thy life receive; Suddenly return, and save us, Never more Thy temple leave.

Thee we would be always blessing; Serve Thee as Thy hosts above, Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing, Glory in Thy perfect love.

Finish then, Thy new creation, Pure and spotless let us be; Let us see Thy great salvation, Perfectly secured in Thee. Chang'd from glory into glory, Till in heav'n's we take our place; Till we cast our crowns before Thee, Lost in wonder, love and praise.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us. And cause Thy face to shine upon us; That Thy Way may be known upon earth, Thy Saving Health among all the Nations; For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 395:

God loved the world of sinners lost And ruined by the fall; Salvation full, at highest cost, He offers free to all.

Choirs—Oh, twas love, twas wondrous love! The love of God to me; It brought my Savior from above, To die on Calvary.

RECITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; The third day he rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and bellowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.

To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage, The Father of an infinite majesty.

Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter. Amen.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ; Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyselv to be born of a Virgin;

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,

Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father. We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage; Govern them and lift them up forever.

Day by day we magnify Thee;

And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer then read, in the Inspired Word of God, in the Gospel according to St. Luke, the 13th chapter. He read the first eleven verses, commenting as follows upon the 11th:

And behold, a woman which had a spirit of infinity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up.

While every form of disease is the oppression of the Devil, directly or indirectly, there are some infirmities that are the consequence of demonical possession.
They are caused not so much by oppression of the Devil as by possession of the Devil.

Demoniacal Possession a Reality of Today.

Many of you do not believe that any such thing exists in this enlightened age.

What light has this age thrown upon the matter?

Do you know what you are talking about when you deny the existence of evil spirits who sometimes gain the physical, psychical, and spiritual control of human beings, and even of animals?

"Why did you do that wicked act?" you may ask a man who has committed a terrible crime.

He will reply, "I do not know; I was possessed."

That is a very common expression, and is perfectly true.

If a man is wicked and foolish enough to become a victim to a narcotic poison, such as tobacco, nicotine, or alcohol, he will open the five gates of his being to countless demons.

His eyes will see strange women.

His tongue will utter perverse things.

You do not believe it, that is because you have not watched humanity carefully; and because you are ignorant of Satan's devices.

Demons Find Habitation in Women.

A woman has only to take the accursed morphine long enough and steadily enough, and it will wipe out every bit of womanhood, character, purity, piety, self-restraint and self-respect. Countless demons will drive that woman to the deepest depths of perdition.

This woman of whom I am reading was not merely "infirm"—not weak in health, asthenic, anemic—but she had a "spirit"—spiritus, pneuma—of infirmity.

She was demon-possessed, but the nature of the possession had doubled her up so that she could in no wise raise herself. Perhaps some thought that it was rheumatism, or perhaps gave it some very learned name to hide their ignorance.

However, there was such a woman in the synagogue when the Christ was teaching there.

And He laid His hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

Envious Men Who Do Not Rejoice in the Healing Power of God.

You would think that surely the ruler of that synagogue would glorify God.

Why should he not?

He did what a great many do today.

Filled with envy, the ruler of the synagogue was moved with indignation because a law— a law!—had been broken, a law—a law! — a Sabbath Law of their own devising.

Jesus had healed on the Sabbath Day! Think of it!

What a shameful thing had thus been done on the Sabbath!

And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, addressed and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the Sabbath.

At this time the Lord was about thirty-two years old, and it is quite probable that this Rabbi was a venerable and aged man.

The Lord did not turn around and say: "Rabbi, excuse me; you have made a mistake in this matter, and you will put me, Rabbi, to state what should be the proper course of procedure for your reverence to take in this matter."

That is the way that some people go about their work.

They are very polite, exceedingly polite to the Devil.

I notice, however, their politeness vanishes when they speak of me, and of the works of healing which God has wrought through my hands.

I Have Never Been Polite to the Devil.

He is like a serpent, and I am always ready to hit him on the head.

I have never been particular about what stick I used to hit the Devil with, whether it was crooked or straight, so long as it was a good stick and would do God's work.

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, answered in the manner in which every hypocrite should be answered.

But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

Aught not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, to be loosed from this bond— this day of the Sabbath?

"Thou hypocrite!" was the sealing brand put on his brow.

There it stands all through the centuries.

The Rabbi did not answer that charge—he proved its truth by his eloquent silence.

That is the way people do.

I have asked a great many questions from this platform, and it has pleased ecclesiastical hypocrites to pass on and say,
"What is the use of taking notice of Dowie? No one takes notice of him."

That is a lie.

The whole world, outside of Chicago especially, is ringing with what "Dowie" says in this place.

You cannot keep it back. Chicago Press Liars have tried to, but they cannot keep it back.

Questions That Must Be Faced.

Moreover, I have spoken for the last ten years in this city to average audiences of more than ten thousand a week.

There have been some weeks in which I have spoken to twenty-five thousand people.

What is the use of talking nonsense about my being too little to notice—my one congregation in this building a short time ago was declared in the Chicago Record-Herald, by actual count, to be larger than all the Baptist, or the Congregational, or the Presbyterian congregations in Chicago put together.

You have to face the question which I have a right to ask—

Are you not hypocrites for ignoring thousands of plain facts, in the healing of the people in Zion through Faith in Jesus?

You can turn up your noses, and pass by and say "What is the use of taking notice of him? He is but a fanatic of a day, and will pass away."

That is what they said when Jesus came into the synagogues and healed the sick.

Hypocrites! Hypocrites!! Hypocrites!!!

They could afford, they thought, to pass by.

They answered Him nothing; but why did they not answer? Because they could not answer without condemning themselves.

And so it is with myself today: for my critics have the testimony of thousands who have been healed during my ministry of nearly fifteen years in the United States of America. To attempt to dispute these facts would cover the modern Christian Rabbis with compassion and contempt.

He used the simple illustration of a domestic animal suffering from want of water and crying out.

It was common humanity to loose it from the stall and lead it to the water; was it not, then, the commonest kind of humanity to loose this daughter of Abraham "whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years?"

Surely if the cattle could bewatered on the Sabbath, a suffering woman might be led to the Divine Streams of Life and Healing.

Hypocrite! I have noticed that

The Extreme Sabbatarian Is Always a Hypocrite.

I can well remember an incident that happened in my youth.

I was whistling a Psalm-tune which came from my heart, when an old villain, who kept a whisky-shop all the week, put his hands upon my shoulder, gave me a crack on the ear and said, "Stop your whistling! Dinna break the Sawbath!"

That was done by a scoundrel around whose shop door, on the previous night, I had seen people lying drunk, thrown out into the streets for the police to pick up.

In those days the police put the drunken men in wheelbarrows and wheeled them to the station.

That scoundrel would stand on the Sabbath morning behind the white cloth and silver collection plate at the church door, with a white necktie and the most sanctimonious appearance.

He was the most saintly looking blackguard you could find in Edinburgh; and at that time there were quite a number of sellers of brandy and distilled damnation who held high offices in the churches.

In the sight of God, he was a downright thief and villain!

Those Who Hunted for the Christ's Life Were Extreme Sabbatarians.

After they succeeded in having Him murdered they came to Pilate and said: "Pilate, you will have to take down His body from the cross, because tomorrow is the Sabbath. We cannot have it hanging on the cross on the Sabbath."

They could murder Him any day of the week, but they must not break the Sabbath.

The extreme Sabbatarian, in nine cases out of ten, is a hypocrite.

He has warped the Sabbath into something so monstrously absurd and miserable that neither God nor man can tolerate it.

The Son of God could not endure what they had made it.

He was constantly breaking the Sabbath according to their ideas.

He actually went through the fields, when hungry, and rubbed out the grain; they considered that breaking the Sabbath.

The Christ Himself was the Lord of the Sabbath.

Right Interpretation of the Law.

Take care of any extreme application of the law, and remember this, that law has heights and depths and applications very different from what you imagine, otherwise you will be very likely to make a great blunder.

You think that the only man who is an adulterer is the man that has killed his fellow-man.

You are mistaken.

Every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

You may think that the only man who is a murderer is the man that has killed his fellow-man.

You are mistaken.

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer.

That is the interpretation that God has given to the law.

And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond of the day of the Sabbath?

As He said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

May God bless His Word.

After the Choir had chanted the Gloria Patri, prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which all joined in chanting the Disciples' Prayer.

In making the announcements the General Overseer said:

A Word of Warning to the New Roman Catholic Archbishop.

Our people have gone forward no matter what has happened.

We have returned again and again to places where we have met with blows, bad words and threats.

Our people have never hesitated to go back to carry their Message of Peace in the Name of Him who sent it with the first Seventy bidding them say——"Peace be to this house!"

We surely have as much right to canvass Chicago for Jesus, the Christ, as the political parties have to canvass it for their political chiefs.

If it is to be said that you can go from house to house for Harrison or Stewart, and that you cannot go from house to house for Jesus, the Christ, then you have a city where the Devil reigns, where Jesus, the Christ, has no rights at all, and Christianity is made subordinate to partisan politics and the rule of democracy or republicanism is of more importance than the Rule of God.

I do not believe in that.

Zion's Work of Restoration Cannot Be Obstructed.

Moreover, our rights under the law permit us to call upon a man, give him the Message of Peace that the Christ sends, and ask him to get right with God.

That is our Message.

We try to help humanity in every way we can.

That we are going to do, and Rome cannot keep us from it.

I warn Archbishop Quigley that if he thinks that the method he is taking, or that seems to have been taken by Bishop Muldoon under some recent inspiration, is going to succeed in keeping back our people, he is greatly mistaken.

I say to him more, that if he is in earnest for the social elevation of this people, he would better call together all the Roman Catholic saloon-keepers who sell Liquid Fire and Distilled Damnation, and whose saloons are the center of iniquity and harlotry, and tell them that if they do not give up their businesses he will excommunicate them from the church. (Applause.)

Then I will take some stock in his talk about social regeneration.

A Need for Works, Not Words.

You know that it is true, that three-fourths of the prisoners in the jails are Roman Catholics.

You know that it is true, that three-fourths of the saloons of Chicago are run by Roman Catholics, and you know what kind of detriment these dives and gardens of the Devil are.

If the Roman Catholic priests are sincere and earnest in their alleged determination to elevate humanity, they will tell...
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 21, 1903.

The Roman ecclesiastics seem to have forgotten that that kind of thing cannot be done with impunity, and will not be tolerated in the United States of America. (Applause.)

I do not propose to have the Zion Restorationists, who merely go to homes with a word of kindness and say: "Peace be to this house," cruelly treated.

I tell you, you priests of Zion, that I do not propose to let you strike or kill with impunity.

I will hunt you down and bring you to justice for the murder.

Do you hear?

That is fair warning.

Your people have a right to decline the Message.

Your people have a right to say, "I do not want it;" but that does not alter our right to call there and say "Peace be to this house:"

Rome sends nuns and women of various orders around the city begging for money, or food, or clothing, at nearly every door, and they are treated with courtesy by Protestants.

You will not be permitted to strike deadly blows at Zion Restorationists who ask for nothing, but only carry the Christ's Message of Peace and Love.

That is fair warning to you priests of Zion.

I am on the war-path today. (Applause.)

A Warning to a Leading Baptist Minister—Dr. Lorimer of Boston.

There is another matter that I desire to mention before I deliver my address.

My spirit has been very much stirred this week by the statement reported to have been made by Dr. Lorimer of Boston.

I hope that the press is not responsible for a lie in this matter.

If the press has correctly reported you, Dr. Lorimer, late of this city, now Baptist minister of Tremont Temple, Boston, then, Dr. Lorimer, I desire to have a short conversation with you, and to argue the African-American Question with you for a few minutes.

"A Lily White Party"—A Suggestion Both Contemptible and Ludicrous.

Dr. Lorimer, if you said that a continuance by President Theodore Roosevelt of his policy concerning the negro would bring about a "Lily White Party," let me have a talk with you about it.

Dr. Lorimer, it ill becomes you, a minister of the Christ, to talk about the creation of a party of such death-like character.

I have observed that the whiter the people are the weaker they are.

The whitest people that I have ever seen.

A "Lily White Party" is it?

Dr. Lorimer, have you no sense?

Do you know that there are nothing like two hundred fifty millions of white people in the world and that there are one billion two hundred fifty millions of God's creatures on this earth who are not "Lily White"?

They are colored people of every shade, and to me they are all beautiful.

The most beautiful men and women that I have ever seen in the world were "colored people" whom I saw in Samoa.

They were perfect specimens of humanity.

Dr. Lorimer, they were a beautiful creamy, coffee color.

Next to them, some of the finest specimens of humanity that I have seen were, as the Scriptures say, "black, but comely."

The Song of Solomon, or the Song of Songs, represents the Bride, spiritually the Church, as singing:

I am black, but comely, 0 ye daughters of Jerusalem, 0 ye daughters of Jerusalem, As the tents of Kedar, As the curtains of Solomon, Fear me not (Young's translation) Because I am very dark, Because the sun hath scorched me.

Are you, Dr. Lorimer, among those of whom the Bride sings:

The sons of my mother were angry with me.

Dr. Lorimer, what are you talking about?

A man who believes or says that he believes that Jesus, the Christ, tasted death for every man, to talk about a "Lily White Party" in the Church of God, the Father of All, of the Christ who "tasted death for every man."

What are you drawing the color line for, when God draws none?
SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.

Even King Edward VII., with long generations of royal blood, receives at his table and eats with colored people.

Many of them are nobles of the realm; they are decorated with the highest decorations of the empire.

Still you, Dr. Lorimer, want to draw a color line.

It is an infinitesimally small proportion, I hope, of the white people of America that want to draw a color line.

My God, is that what a Christian man should do at a time like this?

What has Theodore Roosevelt done?

President Roosevelt's Conduct Commended.

He has simply said: "I will not shut out a man from public office because of his color; neither will I forget that there are eight or ten millions of Afro-American citizens who ought to be considered in public life, if they have education enough to take the office."

Is that not fair, Yes or No?

Audience—Yes." (Applause.)

General Overseer—I stand with President Theodore Roosevelt in this matter.

If he is defeated for the Presidential office by the "Lily White Party," I will invite him to come to Zion City and talk in Shiloh Tabernacle, to sixteen thousand Zion people who belong to the Theocratic Party.

I range myself on the side of that great and powerful statesman, and what little I can do to help him I will.

I feel almost ashamed of my color when Dr. Lorimer talks like that.

I almost feel like blacking my face (laughter and applause), and appearing as an Ethiopian.

What a contemptible mass of nonsense this is.

I want to see all that Dr. Lorimer said.

I want to know if he said that there would be a combination of those superfine people with blue blood.

What kind of blood is blue blood?

I am told by scientific men that Blue Blood Is Very Impure Blood.

If the blue blooded "Lily White Party" comes into existence with Dr. Lorimer as its clerical sponsor, then I will have something to say.

May God help our African brothers and sisters.

As He has endowed them with such infinite patience may they continue to be patient.

God Has Cared for the Ethiopian.

He heard their sighing and groaning out of the centuries of misery and pain and delivered them in the Land of Bondage, and He will lead them on in the Land of Liberty.

You have only to look along the Southern and Northern states to see the shame of the white man in the faces of those who are neither black nor white, but are the offspring of damning lust upon the part of the "Lily White" man.

That is the kind of man who has not hesitated to outrage the black woman.

But let one poor degraded African touch a white woman, or even be accused of it, and there is no punishment too terrible.

The shame of tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands of white men it written in the mulatto race that has grown up in the United States.

When God makes inquisition for blood He will not forget all that fact implies.

It would become this nation to bow in shame before God for National Sin in this matter.

However, Dr. Lorimer, the Ethiopian is not without his friends in the Caucasian race.

You will find that the best and purest and noblest Christian men and women in America will rally around Theodore Roosevelt in this matter. (Applause.)

That is the kind of politics I can take some part in.

I shall take some part in that fight, for it is a part of the Restoration Work which God has given me to do.

I have longed for many years to do more than I have ever been able to do for the African; but there is one thing I have done, and that is: an African sings in Zion Choir in this Auditorium today in the very front row. Look at her. Who shall dare to touch her?

There Are Numbers of Africans in Zion Choir.

Africans are officers of this Church and Africans are members of this Church.

Africans in Africa as well as in America, also Chinese and Japanese are members of this Church.

I do not mind how many colors come into this Church.

Yes—I welcome and long for every tribe and color.

Thank God we have them all over the World in considerable number.

May God bless the people of every color.

I will tell you when this Earth will see its Strongest Race.

Many may not like to hear or read this; but I am not afraid of any consequences when I speak a Truth.

Miscegenation Essential for Restoring Primitive Strength of Man.

God made Adam and Eve to be the progenitors of one Strong Race; but the many migrations, the many sins, and the scatterings of the peoples have made them of many tribes and many colors.

Nevertheless, they are of one blood.

When all kindreds and tribes come back into Christian Unity, and the miscegenation of the nations is complete, we will get back the strength of the primitive man.

Do you hear?

Chew that, you "lily white" people.

The only way to get back the Edenic strength is for the miscegenation of all the nations to be complete.

Then we will get back that which we lost, which made our skins white.

I do not think a white skin is any sign of strength.

I wonder if this "Lily White Party" is to be a leprous party, with the brand of Gehazi upon it.

The whitest kind of men on earth today can be found in Lepers' Camps.

I do not wish to fight with Mr. Lorimer or any one else; but I stand for the Race, whose burdens have been, and are, many, and whose friends comprise every man, woman and child in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion stands for every race; under our banners today all over the world we have nearly a hundred nationalities, thank God.

After the tithes and offerings had been received, the General Overseer delivered his message.

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMING KING: "EXCEPT YE REPENT, YE SHALL..."

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time Till Jesus Come. Amen.

TEST.

Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke 13:4.

John the Baptist was the first preacher of the Gospel.

The first words of the Gospel according to St. Mark, are these:

The Beginning of the Gospel of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

John the Baptist came in the spirit and power of Elijah, as it is written in Isaiah the prophet,

The Voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make His paths straight;

Then we will get back that which we lost, which made our skins white.

I almost feel like blacking my face (laughter and applause), and appearing as an Ethiopian.

There Are Numbers of Africans in Zion Choir.

Africans are officers of this Church and Africans are members of this Church.
Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand: Repent ye, and believe in the Gospel.

The Christ Did Not Place Faith First.

He put Repentance first.

He said, "Repent ye, and believe in the Gospel."

One of the greatest blunders that the churches have ever made is the treacherous blunder of saying that faith is the first thing in the Christian life; that if you will only believe it is all right.

"Believe! Believe! Believe!" on the Lord Jesus, the Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and that is all there is to it," is the cry of the average Evangelist whom the Apostate Churches delight to honor.

That is a shameful lie!

"Not so," you may say, "did not the Apostle Paul say to the Philippian jailer; 'Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house'?

Of course he did; but why do you not go a little farther back and observe that that was not the beginning of a conversation, but the end of one?

Why do you put the end at the beginning?

That was the end of the whole matter.

The Apostle had preached Repentance toward God and Faith in our Lord Jesus, the Christ, to the Philippian jailer, and Repentance came with power.

It had come before they started to preach; but it was increased by the preaching.

The man who had wounded them, beaten them and illegally imprisoned them without a trial in the innermost part of the prison, and set their feet fast in the stocks—that cruel, brutal and utterly unlawful jailer was brought to penitence by the Spirit of God through an earthquake.

It Takes an Earthquake to Bring Some People to Repentance.

I am not quite sure but that some great Political and Social and Ecclesiastical Earthquake will be needed to bring this people of the United States of America to Repentance.

I believe that such an Earthquake is coming.

I think that the people have allowed and are allowing things to go on until, when trouble comes to the Nation by the failure of crops and by reason of labor and financial troubles, the result will be a great Political Earthquake.

When it comes, some people will be converted who are not converted to anything like decency now.

Some of them will want to flee to Zion in that day.

Some people will want to get a place where there is no saloon, where the whisky is not running free, and where iniquity is not allowed to exalt itself.

Some will begin to understand that Zion is an impersonation of Divine Law; that they will begin to know something that they do not dream of now in connection with this organization.

What I desire particularly to impress upon your minds in the beginning of this short series of discourses upon Repentance, is, that the beginning of the Gospel was Repentance; that the beginning of a Divine Life is Repentance; and that Faith in God Is an Impossibility to an Impenitent Man or Woman.

Until you repent you cannot exercise faith.

The Foundation of Faith is Repentance.

Faith must rest upon God, upon God's Word and God's Work, and upon the Foundation of a true Repentance laid by the Holy Spirit.

There were people who came to the Christ and told Him all sorts of stories.

As there were no newspapers in those days the stories were told in letters or in speech by those who saw the event, or heard it from reliable people.

There were some who came to Jesus and told Him of two very terrible events.

A Fulfilment of Prophecy.

One story was, that a number of Galileans had come down to worship at the Temple.

Pilate had evidently thought that he had good grounds for believing that they were rebels against the Roman power, and, taking advantage of their helpless condition without arms—for they could not enter into the Temple with arms—he had allowed them in the act of sacrificing, mingling their blood with the blood of the sacrifice.

That was a terrible story.

When this was told to Jesus, He said:

Think ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they have suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish.

He told them that the day would come when the Roman sword would come upon them in this very Temple, and mingle their blood with the blood of their last sacrifices.

Within less than forty years that Temple was a heap of shapeless ruins, and the Jews were massacred in that Temple at their altars as they were offering their final sacrifices.

The Christ Foretells the Destruction of Jerusalem.

Others told Him that the old tower in Siloam had suddenly fallen and killed eighteen persons, and He said:

Think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish.

One of the ways in which vast numbers of the Jews perished in that siege was, by the battering-rams of the Romans throwing down the towers upon the men who were defending the city.

They were buried in hundreds and in thousands beneath the towers.

As the tottering walls fell, some rushed out on the walls in order to perish amid the ruins of these walls.

At that time these things seemed to them to be a very foolish kind of prophecy, I dare say.

"What does He mean?" they asked one another.

"Does He really mean that people will perish in that way?

"Does He really mean that their blood will be mingled with their sacrifices, and that the walls of this great City and Temple will fall?"

That was exactly what He meant.

The habit of trying to make the Scripture mean something else than what it says, is a very foolish thing.

You will find that when Jesus, the Christ, said a thing He meant it just as He said it.

When He uttered a prophecy of this kind He meant it just as He said it, and this prophecy was actually and literally fulfilled.

I desire to say in very plain words that except the people of Chicago repent they will perish in a terrible manner.

I am not a prophet of evil, nor do I say that I have any special revelation at this moment.

Geological Facts Concerning Chicago.

However, I will say this, that this city with its surroundings is in a position geologically that is called the "divide."

You may not be aware of the fact that the Chicago river is so evenly on the "divide" that before the drainage canal was dug, sometimes its waters flowed back into the lake, and sometimes they flowed toward the Mississippi.

The geological position of this whole tract of country indicates that there are great hollows beneath it where water is not found, although it used to be there in very great quantities.

We who are drilling for artesian wells at Zion City have found that out.

We have found that if we drill two wells upon the same line toward the lake, that the flow of the first well will be very much interfered with if the second one is between the first and the lake, indicating that the pressure is not as great as formerly.

In the event of great seismic disturbances and great volcanic action, it would be most natural for the lava to flow down this way, and for a great upheaval to take place on the borders of this lake.

The result of that upheaval would be a great and sudden overflow.

It would not take many feet of water to do it, for there are portions of Chicago today that, if the lake rose from six to ten feet, would be flooded, not only a little, but many houses would be absolutely buried.

An Awful Destruction.

I desire to point out to you the possible consequences of even a comparatively small volcanic disturbance.

A change in the land the country might cause: the same action below the lake as would go on under the land, which would result in an upheaval.
A MESSAGE FROM THE COMING KING. 687

Then a great tidal wave would cause an overflow, and the easiest thing in the world would be to drown out this city. If this city were covered with water and submerged below the lake level, in a good deal less than half an hour there would be stillness, for there would be death. I do not say that it is going to take place. I do not say that it is not going to take place. You, yourselves, know that the volcanic disturbances in the Caribbean Sea, which have extended to the volcanoes of South America, have also had their counterpart considerably to the north as well as to the south of the Gulf of Mexico. A continuance of these disturbances, moving northward, would probably cause great volcanic action in the higher countries above us, and the subterranean flow of lava would come down. If once it broke out under the Great Lakes there would be a terrific explosion, the results of which no man can foretell. I point this out to you merely as a geological and seismic fact, that is not only possible, but if these movements on the earth's surface continue in a northerly direction, is most probable. The words that I am uttering today are not being uttered without much thought. It was Not by Accident that Zion Left Chicago.

It is not an accident that we are situated upon lands which, at the top of the crest, are about 170 feet above the lake, and that the City of Zion rises gradually to that elevation. I do not trouble though the earth change and the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Zion does not stand upon clay or rock. Zion does not trouble whether the waters overflow or not. Zion is rooted and grounded, and is resting in God alone. If Zion City were overflowed tonight, I have the humble confidence that a sudden death would be sudden glory for our people, for they are not afraid.

A Divine Courage.

I believe that they would be made strong by the same spirit which animated our dear daughter, of which I so often think. She never wept one tear. After I had choked down the sob, I was able to say: "Not long, dear." She smiled and said: "I am glad." Then she said, as she closed her eyes: "When I pass through the waters they shall not overflow me, for Thou art with me, and I am not afraid." She never wept one tear. She was never afraid for one moment. She knew she was to be afraid except once—when a very little girl had frightened her. We showed her that there was nothing to fear, that God was with her always. Although she was only a baby, she was never troubled again. I believe that in Zion we have that spirit which knows no fear. It is a spirit of love, and there is no fear in love. I give this warning remembering that Zion City itself might share in such a catastrophe, but I do not think it will. My exception is based partly upon geological conditions, and my opinion is that the explosion would take place in all probability just about where Chicago is located. It would be local in its nature, because the outburst must come at about that place.

If it were confined to the land, and did not reach the lake, I believe that the outburst would take place not farther south than Blue Island. Whether I am correct in that or not is a matter upon which any one can exercise his independent judgment. I am not giving this as prophecy. I am uttering this as a scientific possibility and under certain circumstances a probability. A similar condition in other parts of America point to similar probabilities; and indeed there is no part of the world that can be considered exempt.

Chicago Bringing A Terrible Destruction Upon Herself.

A strong conviction has taken hold of my heart that God is going to permit terrible judgment to come upon this city, because this city is willfully wicked. This city is willfully sinning. This city is willfully shutting out God. This city shuts God out from the public schools. The Bible is thrown out from her schools by Chicago as if it were a hateful and hated book, and could not be trusted in the public schools.

You can have Shakespeare and his filthy plays and almost unprintable sonnets; and many that are even worse than he. You can have all kinds of abominable trash in fiction, which means lies. The writers of fiction can have their lies crammed down the children's throats; for that is polite literature. The Bible, which is the best literature in the world in history or poetry, philosophy or fact, is shut out; but the "Merry Wives of Windsor," and such plays as that, in which the disreputable Falstaff Bouchers, are called "classics." God's Word has no place. You are getting the result of your training—a city full of infidels.

You have no right to complain that your children do not venerate God, when you shut out His Word from the schools. If you say that the Sunday-school takes the place of the Bible, then you know very little about what you are talking, because the Sunday-school teacher is taken as a whole, not only the feeblest, but the worst kind of teacher.

The Sunday-schools of Today of No Value.

In the first place, large numbers of Sunday-school teachers are not converted, and they frankly admit it. In the second place, very many have no fitness for communicating Divine thought to the children.

In the third place, the lessons are so contrived that the children are taught about everything that can be got out of a Sunday-school lesson except its practical religious teaching. They are taught chronology; they are taught topography; they are taught history; they are taught philosophy; and when you have all these and many other things crammed into a child's mind there is no time for the spiritual application of the lesson.

It is the last thought in the teacher's mind. Again, the number that really attend Sunday-school, even if it were able to do the work, is infinitesimal— as compared to the number who attend the public schools.

The condition of the churches shows you that the Sunday-schools are not bringing the children into the church, because the vast majority of the children are running absolutely wild as regards religious teaching.

The Sins of Chicago.

The sin of this people, in shutting the Bible out of the primary and upper grades of the public schools, will and must bring the damnation and judgment of God upon the people unless they repent. The fact is abundantly clear that the citizens of this city look on and see their own laws openly defied. The chief magistrate of this city, if he carried out the law that is on the statute book, would close every liquor saloon, back, front and side, and shut it up tight so that not one single drop of liquor could be sold in any saloon on the Lord's Day. That is the law. But they are all practically "wide open." A voice—"He could not do it if he wanted to."

General Overseer—All that is best in this city would stand by him. But if he did it, he would not be the successful candidate for the next mayoral election. (Applause.) They would rather choose "Bathhouse John" or Hinky-Dink, both of the persons known by these names being saloon-keepers and aldermen.

When the laws of a nation and the laws of a state are publicly set at naught by the chief magistrate of its greatest city and trampled under foot, that city deserves, and will certainly receive the punishment of God, deserves.

What does it mean—these saloons open today? You know what it means, if you know anything of the condition of Chicago today.

Chicago's Damnation Wrought By Her Own Hands.

Then again the Theaters and Music Halls are open today. Every theater has three great doors leading from it; one leads into the house of her whose house is the gate of hell:

another leads straight into the gambling saloon, and the third leads into the liquor saloon, where all these evils flourish.

What is the result?

Last Lord's Day we had ten suicides and four murders in this city.

Last week we had an average of more than one murder a day for the week days, and we have an average of two or three a minimum on the Sundays.

That murderous stream goes on, fed in almost every case by the gambling hell and brothel, the saloon and the theater, and the magistrates and people of this city know it.

Neither the Republican nor the Democratic party has the courage to grasp the monster by the throat.

The damnation of a people who do this kind of thing is not wrought by any other hands than their own.

The people are themselves forging their own fetters, are themselves sharpening the daggers, are themselves filling up the poison cup, are themselves their own murderers.

The people themselves and their leaders who have laws upon the statute book that could close up every one of these evils I have named, but which they run wide open today, have a terrible responsibility.

Why are these things true?

Because campaign expenses are largely provided, for both parties, from these evil resorts.

I do not hesitate to say it.

Are all the liquor sellers of Chicago Democrats?

No; large numbers of them are Republicans.

Are all the purchasers of votes in Chicago Democrats?

No; large numbers of them are Republicans.

The Dishonest Practice of Buying Votes.

In the year that Mr. Harrison was defeated for the presidency by Mr. Cleveland, who then came in for his second term, I met a gentleman on my way out to Evanston who was a prominent merchant of this city.

It was on the day of election and he was going back by a mid-day train, as I myself was, my home being in Evanston at that time.

"What is the trouble?" I asked. "I thought you were in for a long day's work."

"I have some conscience left, Dr. Dowie, and I cannot cast my vote for Harrison today, although I thought when I went into the city that I would take off my coat and work tooth and nail," he said.

"What has happened?" I asked.

"I will tell you," he said:

"About an hour ago my partner said to me, 'Will you stay and hold the fort for two or three hours?"

"I have thought so many thousand Greek and Italian votes in certain precincts and wards, and I must go out and see that they are delivered and pay for them.'"

The gentleman said: "Dr. Dowie, I did not dream that my partner was in this."

I asked: "Does he profess to be a Christian?"

"Certainly," he replied, "we are both Methodists. (Laughter.) He is a member of the same board of management that I am."

How Some Foreigners Vote.

In your simplicity you may imagine that there will be an honest vote cast in this city at the next election.

You know very little about it.

There are hundreds of thousands of people in this city who cannot read the English language, cannot speak it, and do not understand it.

Beyond all peradventure they would not know how to vote unless they were instructed.

The votes of these people go to those who can afford to pay the highest price for them.

I do not hesitate to say that the Republicans are as deep in these political machines as the Democrats are in the mire.

They buy the ignorant foreign vote in thousands and tens of thousands.

Neither party can cast an honest vote and continue operating their present political machines.

It would be an impossibility.

Do you think that God the Almighty is going to stand this lying and cheating and this ruling of the people by means of chicanery, fraud and bribery?

Shame! Shame!
A MESSAGE FROM THE COMING KING. 691

Make your vows to do right to your fellow man now, and let your repentance be practical and your faith real.

All who desire to do this rise and tell God so. (Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do right no matter what it costs. Help me truly to repent and fully to restore to my fellow man. Help me to live Thy mercy in the Christ, My Lord, the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world. Give me power to live. Take away my sin, give me Thy Spirit and help me to do right, no matter what it costs. Bless this city, and this land. Bless the faithful and theerring, the foolish and short-sighted, and, O God, make the people wise. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause after the General Overseer.)

General Overseer—Did you mean that?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you live it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then may God bless you.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it: that grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Subscribers, Read This! 692

On every subscriber's copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire. Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration. By making yourself familiar with these customs and remembering promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

WE are exceedingly glad to be able to announce to Zion Restorationists, and in fact to all Zion everywhere, that numerically the Host is rapidly increasing.

New applications are daily being received and most interesting reports are coming to us from all sections, telling of the excellent work being done.

One hundred forty-three new names have been added to the list during the past two weeks.

Fifty-six of this number were sent in by Overseer Voliva from Australia, where the work is being well organized.

The following very interesting letter reached us March 17th:

MELBOURNE, January 31, 1903.

My Dear Elder:—I am sending you via the steamer Sonoma, leaving Sydney on February 7th, fifty-six applications for membership in Zion Restoration Host, making a total of one hundred seventy that I have sent you to date.

The members of the Host in Australia are taking hold of the work very earnestly, and the members in Melbourne are averaging 2,000 calls every week.

Praying God’s blessing upon you, I am

Wilbur Glenn Voliva,
Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Australia.

The Host in New Brunswick.

Most faithful work is being done by Zion Restorationists under the direction of Deaconess M. L. Reed at Fredericton, New Brunswick.

A letter received from her under date of March 3rd, reads as follows:

My Dear Brother in the Christ:—I am sending you rather an imperfect record of our Zion Restoration Work, as more Leaves of Healing have been sold and more Tracts distributed than have been accounted for, which is due to the fact that two friends, who have not yet become members, have assisted us in selling the Leaves, and their work does not appear in our regular report.

I trust they will soon become members.

We continue to dispose of fifty copies of Leaves of Healing weekly, when the weather permits.

If they run over we hurry up a little the next week, so we do not get behind.

Fifty copies of the Leaves weekly, among 6,000 inhabitants will make the Devil rage.

God is blessing, so we rejoice.

Several are becoming deeply interested.

One man has stopped using tobacco.

Pray for us and me, especially, that I may not lack in any part of His work or will.

Faithfully yours and His,

M. L. Reed,

The Host in British Columbia.

Passing from New Brunswick across the entire Dominion of Canada to the Pacific coast, we learn that Zion Restorationists in British Columbia, under the direction of Elder Simmons, are doing some effective work.

The following letter was received from the Elder a short time ago:

My Dear Elder:—Thinking you would like to know what Zion Restoration Host is doing here, I send you a few lines.

Enclosed please find some newspaper clippings; also a report of the trip to New Westminster last week.

You will remember that I wrote you about making a trip there last month.

That trip stirred up a preacher of the Reformed Episcopal church and he has preached against our beloved General Overseer and Zion every Sunday evening since.

But the scribes themselves seem to have become ashamed, as there appeared no report of the last harangue.

Last Lord’s Day we spoke in the city opera house at 2:30 p.m. to a large and very attentive audience.

We first delivered an address on Zion’s place in the Divine Economy, based on the words of Isaiah 14:32.

We then briefly replied to some of the false and foolish statements of the minister above referred to.

The audience was about twice the size of the one we had last month, so you see the Lord is still able to make the wrath of men praise Him.

The enclosed report will show you the work done.

We are now organizing our Host and will in the future cooperate in a body on Lord’s Day, as far as possible, following the order and plan of work at headquarters.

Praying God to bless graciously Zion Restoration Host in all parts of the world, that we may all become more efficient, I remain,

Faithfully yours in Jesus, the Christ, Till He Come,

R. M. Simmons,
Elder in Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

The Host in New Westminster, British Columbia.

The following interesting report comes to us from Elder Adams, of Benton Harbor, Michigan, in which he says:

My Dear Elder:—Please find enclosed the report cards from twenty-four members of Zion Restoration Host, who have been at work for God and humanity during the month of February.

I also send you two more applications for membership, which brings the enrolment of those who have taken the vow up to twenty-nine.

We desire you to send us twenty thousand new Restoration Messages as soon as possible, for we are almost out of Zion Literature, and the enthusiasm of the Kingdom of God is coming upon the people in this Branch of the Church.

Deacons Humphrey and Bauske have the cities of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph mapped out into nearly fifty districts of convenient size for Zion Restoration work.

These Deacons have charge of the work of pairing the Restorationists, providing them with Literature, assigning them suitable districts, and making such arrangements as may be necessary from week to week to assure the successful prosecution of the work.

Very encouraging reports are brought in.

Two members of the Host called upon sixty-five families last Saturday.

They were received kindly, and every Message gladly received in every home, save two.

God is using the Message and the Messengers as a mighty instrument to effectively overcome the blind and bitter prejudice, which the lying newspaper press has put in the hearts of the people against Zion and her God-sent leader.

Experience has proved that those who receive the Message are greatly blessed, but that those who refuse suffer calamity, as the following will show.

Last month a Benton Harbor Zion Restorationist called upon four families, in each of which was serious illness.

In one a man lay dying with cancer; in the second a mother of little children was afflicted with tuberculosis; the third home contained the wasted form of a young girl in the last stages of consumption; and in the fourth the mother had heart disease and the daughter suffered from serious internal injuries.

The daughter had had two operations, which left her worse than ever, after three years of invalidism.

A third and very dangerous operation was recommended by the attending physician.

Zion, with her Divine Message of healing through faith in Jesus, the Christ, came to these disease-stricken homes, so terribly cursed by poisonous drugs and medical bungling.

The Message was received by the mother and daughter, the doctor was dismissed, the drugs destroyed, and Zion’s Elder called in.

God has most wonderfully answered prayer in the healing of both, and they come into Zion, rejoicing greatly.

The old man’s friends would not admit the Zion Messenger, and he could not be saved by the doctors.

The mother of the little children would not permit the Messenger to enter her room. She, too, passed away.

The relatives of the poor consumptive would not listen to the words of Zion, and the girl died, even as the others who rejected the Message, which says, In My Name . . . they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover, (Mark 16:18), and also, The prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up. (James 5:15).

Faithfully yours in Jesus, James R. Adams, Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Reports from Other Fields.

The following brief reports have been received from some of the faithful workers scattered throughout the country.

My Dear Elder:—I have traveled by team and railway and held meetings in the following towns and cities: Overstone, Whitemouth, Beaumont, Selkirk and Winnipeg.

I have been giving all my time to Zion since I joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and Zion Restoration Host.

Some of my own relatives are the greatest enemies of Zion and think that I am a disgrace to myself and them.

Others have written me to call on them, wishing information.

Faithfully yours,

James F. Lee,
Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.
Saturday, March 21, 1903.

Most of the readers of Zion Literature in Winnipeg are favorably inclined, and some will come into Zion.

They ask me to come again and hold meetings. The work in Manitoba should be encouraged.

Pray for us.

I. P. SIMMONS.

The writer of the above has for years past been engaged in mission work in the Baptist denomination.

The following from Caleb Gaumer and George R. Clark, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, reads:

During the past month we have secured twenty-five new Zion Junior Societies in connection with the work in Kensington.

None of these children’s parents are identified with Zion, but will be visited by us from time to time.

Pray for these.

One has given up tobacco and three others have faithfully promised to do so.

The following from Annie Anderson and Jannett Ewart, Edinburgh, Scotland, reads:

One poor man who has been diseased for nine years, and for the past two years of that time has suffered severe pain night and day, has been greatly blessed in reading Leaves of Healing.

He was enabled to give up the use of tobacco in answer to prayer and is looking to Jesus as his Healer.

Pray for him.

The following from Miss Myrtle Clark, Corning, New York, reads:

A woman of influence, who has lived here thirty years, buys several copies of Leaves of Healing each week and sends for old numbers, mostly on Masons, which she gives and lends.

A few weeks ago we stood outside of a Roman Catholic Church as the people were leaving, and gave Messages.

As a result we have sold the Leaves to several who received the Message that day.

We sold a copy of Leaves of Healing to the manager of a large theater company, who said that he knew of Dr. Dowie and his work, and hoped that he would be interested.

He said that he wished to God there were more men like him.

The following coming from Deacon John Peter Schaffer, Cincinnati, reads:

God blessed me with four for baptism and five applications for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion this month.

God’s Holy Name ever be praised. Psalm 107:1.

God again wonderfully heard and answered prayer for the sick and sorrowing.

Surely James 5:15 has been fulfilled this month. I am not able to thank God a tithe for His infinite love and mercy to me, and for the teaching of the Full Gospel which I have received from our beloved General Overseer.

NOTES FROM ZION’S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

Evangelist-in-charge, Rev. H.R. Castel, St. Euston Road, N.W.

Ye did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in My Name, He may give it you. (John 15:16.)

One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored: others have labored, and ye are entered into their labor. (John 4:37, 38.)

Those who have carefully read Leavés of Healing will well remember the General Overseer’s visit to the British Isles.

The Banner of Zion was planted there amid severe persecution.

Being called of God to proclaim the Everlasting Truths of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living in all lands, it was necessary that this Gospel of the Kingdom should be preached in the greatest city of the world, the capital of the British Empire.

The declaration that our General Overseer as Elijah the Restorer was preparing the way for the advent of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, in power and great glory, was received with scorn and bitter persecution.

However, the seed of truth was sown, and is springing up, bearing an abundant harvest.

God, in His infinite mercy, protected our beloved General Overseer, although attempt after attempt was made to take his life.

Evangelist Cantel, who was one of the European party, remained to carry on the work.

He is doing excellent service.

We take pleasure in subjoining the following report:

February 12, 1903.

MY DEAR ELDER:—Peace to thee!

Lord’s Day is a very happy, as well as a very busy day with Zion in London, beginning with the junior service at 10:15 o’clock, when the children’s bright, happy faces give no uncertain evidence of the pleasure they anticipate.

Larger audiences than theirs gather in the Tabernacle, but none more appreciative than this company of little men and women, for to them it is simple and natural to believe that Jesus is ever near.

Surely they, too, will grow strong, be filled with wisdom and the grace of God will be upon them because they have been fed from the beginning with the sincere milk of the Word.

Following this service comes that which is especially intended for our members, whom we are glad to note have been evincing their deepening interest by an increasing attendance, so much so that we have found it necessary to more than double our accommodations for those who remain at the close of the service for lunch as well as the services that are to follow.

The largest attendances at the morning services are naturally the first Lord’s Day when we celebrate the Lord’s Supper, and the last Lord’s Day when we administer the Ordinance of believer’s Baptism by Trine Immerion.

Allowing a brief interval after lunch, we again assemble in the Tabernacle at 2:30 p.m.

This service is a Bible class, the chief purpose of which is to drill the members of Zion Restorations in the use of the Sword of the Spirit.

To this end time is devoted to memory drills of fundamental passages of Scripture, followed by a study of How we got our English Bible, and closing with a chronological study of the Life of our Lord.

At the close of this class the Restorationists are formed into companies of ten, and all leave in a body to engage in house-to-house work in the various streets assigned to them in a neighboring district.

Half-past five o’clock sees most of the Host back for tea, which is heartily enjoyed by all, especially as the many and varied experiences of the blessed afternoon’s work are told over the tea-table.

At half-past six o’clock we again assemble in the Tabernacle for the final, and usually the largest service of the day.

Although the day has been a busy one, the time has been well spent in the advancement of the Kingdom, as is shown both in the harvest of those brought thereby into the obedience of repentance, reformation and righteousness, as well as the increased attendance at all the services of the day.

But the warfare against Sin and Satan is by no means confined to the Lord’s Day, that being rather the culmination point of the week’s work.

Tuesday afternoon and Thursday evening services for teaching and prayer are held every week in the Tabernacle.

In addition to these services, cottage-meetings are held at about twelve different points in the city and suburbs every week, members nearest them rallying to their support by their presence at these meetings as well as by engaging in Zion Restoration work in the neighborhood before the time of meeting.

These meetings are held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, thus practically leaving only Saturday evening—not occupied with some meeting; but as this is the Devil’s high carnival night we began twenty-one or twenty-two months ago to visit him in as many of his nearly 8,000 public houses as we could find time and possibility of reaching, in this, the largest city in the world.

Faithful Seventies, and later, Restorationists, equally faithful, but having now become more experienced, carry on this work, never missing one Saturday night, and selling thousands of leaves during these nearly two years, to those held in awful bondage by the demon of strong drink, as well as in too many instances by his seven other evil companions more evil than himself.

Six months ago we further enlarged this work by preceding it with an open-air service, held in the center of the city in which the public houses were to be visited later in the evening.

These services have never once failed to be held, and God has graciously owned and blessed them, so far as we are able to understand, the enemy’s frequent interruptions.

One of our members has presented us with a bright acrylène light, which diffuses its rays into many dark parts of this great city, where we are holding these open-air services, thus being a fitting type of the message of life and light which we dispel the clouds of prejudice, ignorance and their consequent sin.

This lamp bears upon its shade that wondrous name ZION which means so much to us, but which must mean even more to both them and us.

We held an all-night service at the opening of the New Year, which was much owned and blessed of God.

The service began with songs of praise at 9 o’clock on the last day of the old year.

The closing hours of that year were chiefly devoted to praise and testimony.

Of these there were many that rang out with Zion’s deep God-given notes of more abundant grace.

Towards midnight we prepared to meet around the Lord’s Table, and there watch the ebb and flow of the new year; this we did with Zion’s familiar “Pray, brethren, pray, the sands are falling,” upon heart and lip.

After an intermission for refreshment, we renewed the and took up as the dominant thought the Word which, through the ministry of our General Overseer, has been given new meaning to so many of the world over, namely: Prayer.

Scripture texts laden with promises for prayer were called for, and many were the glad responses.

This was followed by striking examples of answers obtained through the prayers of individuals as recorded in the Word, and by definite answers obtained by the people themselves.

Then followed a discourse on the prayer life of our Lord, tracing by Scripture inference its beginning in early childhood, and culminating with His marvelous prayer as recorded by the beloved disciple John in His Gospel, chapter 17.

The remaining hours were devoted to prayer and fasting for Zion in the wide world over, especially by remembering the General Overseer, Overseer Jane Dowie and Deacon Gladstone Dowie, as well as the many and varied needs at headquarters.

Unconverted husbands, wives, children and friends at present opposed to God’s will, were also especially brought before the Throne of Grace in the prayer of faith.

Having begun our service with praise, and continued it with prayer, it seemed most practical to close it with a definite presentation of work—work that should be the fruit of both praise and prayer.

Hence we forthwith presented the need of increasing the distribution of Zion Literature.

This was responded to, and we have pleasure in receiving there and then increasing subscription from those who were already circulating a definite number of leaves each week, as well as from numbers who promised to begin from that time.

Thus was our service brought to its close at about half-past six o’clock the following morning.

We are very thankful that the experiences of these hours will be read or translated into living epistles, to be known and read of many, not only in the present year, but Till He Come.

With Christian greetings, beloved one, Faithfully yours in Zion’s bonds,

H. E. CANTEL
LEAVES OF HEALING.

IF IT BE THY WILL.

BY REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE.

IT is a constant experience in our ministry to hear from the lips of Christians who are seeking the Lord for healing, the statement that they have always prayed to God for deliverance from pain and sickness with the proviso “if it be Thy will.” This is the cause in tens of thousands of cases why their suffering and disease is not removed, for such a prayer is not “the prayer of faith” and not in accordance with the revealed will of God.

When we state this, we are met by a number of statements in defense of this mode of prayer, which may be briefly summarized thus:

1. It is presumptuous to pray in any other way, since God’s will in this matter is unknown.

2. It may be for God’s glory that we shall not be healed.

3. This form of prayer is justified by the prayer of the leper, “Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean.”

4. It is justified by the prayer of our Lord, “Oh, my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt.”

5. It is justified by the Lord’s Prayer, or rather the prayer which the Lord taught His disciples to pray, “Thy will be done.”

We propose briefly and pointedly to answer the errors involved in all these five statements.

1. It can never be presumptuous to pray with Divine assurance for healing if all the conditions are fully complied with by the supplicant, since God has revealed Himself in every age as the Healer of His people, and it is His absolutely revealed will to heal all such as come in faith, pleading His Covenant Name and Promises.

It is presumptuous to doubt what God has said, or to ask in any other spirit than of confident expectation for what He has promised. He has said, “I AM the Lord that healeth thee” (Exodus 15:26), and that is an eternal Covenant Name, the Covenant of Jehovah-Rophi, resting in which the believer may sing, “Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all mine iniquities, who healeth all my diseases.” Unchangeable as God Himself, that Name reveals His nature as the Healer of His people, for it is written by His fingers on the Imperishable Page of His Word. His promises are in perfect accord with this revelation of Himself. Prophets and poets, evangelists and apostles, inspired by the Divine Spirit, repeat these promises in a thousand forms. The prophets tell of Jehovah manifest in the flesh, who would in the fulness of time come not only as the Saviour, but as the Healer and the Cleanser of His people. Isaiah thirty-five embodies this glorious three-fold blessing of Salvation, Healing and Holiness. Salvation first: “He will come and save you.” (Verse 4.) Healing comes next: “Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing,” etc. (Verses 5 and 6.) And then follows Holiness, which is the glorious Highway of the King in which the fully redeemed shall walk, “The way of Holiness.” (Verse 8.)

The evangelist reveals to our admiring gaze the glorious scene in the synagogue of Nazareth (Luke 4) where our Immanuel unfolds His mission in the first recorded sermon after His baptism, His temptation, and His triumph; and there our Lord declares His mission to save and to heal. Throughout all His ministry the dual Gospel of Salvation and Healing goes hand in hand, and again and again it is recorded, as in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35, that He went about teaching, preaching, and “healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.” Truly we may cry with the prophet, “Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, ‘sicknesses’) and carried our sorrows” (Isaiah 53:4), and with Matthew, as he closes the record of that wondrous night of healing in the streets of Capernaum (Matthew 8:16, 17), “Himself took our infirmities and bare our sicknesses.” Over and over again His willingness to heal all who come in faith is demonstrated, and that without exception. In no case did He ever say, “I will not,” but His “I will” rings out in every page of the Gospel.

Apostles, prophets and teachers throughout all the early ages of the Church repeat and demonstrate in the inspired epistles, and the other sacred records of the Church’s wondrous story, the same willingness of the Lord to heal, and that without exception, all who trust Him. Unless He is changed, and, if that were possible, He would not be God, then He is still the Healer of His people. Let us rejoice that the Holy Spirit still breathes upon our hearts the inspiring words, “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever.” Since that is so, then He is able, willing, long-suffering, and present to heal, for He is not only an unchanged, but a present Lord, whose Word declares, “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.”

2. It cannot be for God’s glory that any of His children should be unhealed, since God is never glorified in our sickness any more than in our sin, for both sickness and sin are clearly Satan’s work. He is glorified in delivering us from sickness, and nowhere is it written that He is glorified in sickness. The mistake perversion of our Lord’s words in John 11:14 has led many astray by giving them the false interpretation that God is glorified in our sickness. Jesus, when He received the message of Lazarus’ sisters, “Lord, behold, he whom Thou lovest is sick,” did not say that God was glorified in that sickness; He said, “This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.” This glorious declaration was abundantly justified by the wondrous manifestation of His resurrection and healing power, and He was glorified, as the Son of God, in delivering His loved one from the power of the Devil, who is the author of disease and death. Jesus did not say, “God made him sick” that He should be glorified in delivering him from sickness, but He said in effect that the glory of God in His own person should be manifested in delivering him from that evil one from whom sin and sickness and death and hell proceed; that is, from the Devil.

Christ did not go about healing those that were oppressed of God, for it is written (Acts 10:38), “God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil; for God was with Him.” Since, then, all forms of human sickness are Satan’s work, these filthy diseases and painful infirmities can never be God’s will, and if we believe that “for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil” (1 John 4:8), then we must believe that He came to destroy disease, and that God is ever glorified in the destruction of disease in His people.

How glorious it will be when from the four winds the breath of God breathes upon multitudes of God’s children who are fainting, groaning, and dying, and are in their graves so far as practical usefulness is concerned.
What a glorious power will be given to the Church of God when those who are now useless in the battlefield will rise up at His command, filled with Divine Life and glad with the indwelling consciousness of His Healing power in every part of their spirit, soul and body.

What mighty blows will then be dealt in Jesus' Name, and in His strength to Satan's kingdom, and what multitudes will be set free by these triumphant hosts who will go forth "an exceeding great army" to proclaim a perfect redemption not only for the spirit and soul, but for the body also.

This wondrous power rested on the Church in its glorious morning, and now that the night has come, the sure word of prophecy encourages us to believe that He who is coming to take out of the world His own will prepare them for that coming by "restoring health" to them. This health will be given for blessed service in the "little while" ere "He shall descend from heaven with a shout with the voice of the archangel and the trump of God." It will not be from innumerable sickbeds, groaning with cancers and rheumatism and fevers, that the "wise virgins" shall go forth with glad songs and joyful steps to meet their Lord, but they shall go forth to meet Him with the Oil filling their earthly vessels, for ere He comes He shall be glorified in their deliverance from the foul imprints of Satan's finger.

On every page of the evangel and in the Acts of the Apostles we read that "they glorified the God of Israel" when they saw the mighty power of Jesus' Name in the healing of the sick, and so it will be again. It is for God's glory that we should be healed.

3. The prayer of the leper can never justify the use of the word "If Thou wilt or it be Thy will," since we have the assurance of the Lord to the prayer of the leper in the two glorious words, "I will." When the leper said, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean," he acknowledged in the act of worship, first that Christ was his Lord and God in whom he trusted for salvation. Second, by the words, "Thou canst," he expressed his faith in the power of the Lord to heal, but being ignorant as yet of the abounding willingness of Christ, who was only then unfolding His glorious will, he said, "If Thou wilt," and in speaking thus he expressed his doubtfulness as to the Lord's willingness. But when Jesus said, "I will," the leper no longer prayed "If I Thou wilt;" to have done so would have been to sin. Now Christ's answer to the leper is His answer to every true believer, "I will," and to repeat the form of the leper's prayer, "If I Thou wilt," is to doubt whether that is the Lord's answer, and doubt is sin. Had the leper persisted in praying "If I Thou wilt," after he had heard the Lord's answer, he would never have been healed, for he would have shrunk from the Lord's touch. This is what many Christians are doing now; they persist in praying, even when they have heard the Lord's answer, "Lord, if Thou wilt," and therefore they shrink from the Lord's touch.

To every true believer today bowed down with sickness Christ speaks as at Bethesda (John 5:6). "Wilt thou be made whole?" and unless we are willing He cannot heal, for He demands that we shall believe in His willingness without an "if" or a "but" or any qualification whatever. The language of faith never includes a syllable of doubt, and the little word "if," though it be but a syllable, is an element of doubt so great that no prayer can be answered which contains it. Let the believer listen to the Lord's answer to the leper, "I will," and never again repeat the leper's word of ignorance (justifiable in him, but not in us), that little pernicious word "if." When one came to Jesus with that word, saying "IF Thou cannot do anything, have compassion on us and help us," the Lord's answer was distinct and clear, "IF thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark 9:23) The "if" is never on God's part; His will is revealed, and there can never be any doubt as to His willingness to heal. Therefore it but rests with the Christian to throw away the "if" and to say, "LORD, I BELIEVE."

4. There can be no analogy between our prayer for Divine Healing and Christ's bitter cry in the hour of His agony and sore temptation in the garden, when He said, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death." As He Himself had said, it was impossible for that cup to pass from Him. This is proved by reference to His Word in John 12:27, where he says, "Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour"; and then it was that He, withdrawing that prayer, said, "Father, glorify Thy Name," and to that there came a Voice from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."

It was only in thus fulfilling the eternal will and purpose of the eternal Trinity that it was possible for Him to become the Redeemer of men, and the "if" in that prayer was thus absolutely withdrawn; and with glorious devotion for our salvation and healing and perfect redemption, He said, "as Thou wilt." All we ever can desire any Christian to say is, "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt;" only let us know clearly what that will is, and then pray that His revealed will shall be fulfilled in us.

5. There is no such prayer taught Christ's disciples as that which is so often quoted as justifying the retention of the doubting "IF"; viz, "Thy will be done." Christians have no right to insert a full stop where their Bibles do not even contain a comma. The prayer, as our Lord taught it to His disciples, is contained in Matthew 6:10, and is not "Thy will be done," but "Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven"; a very different prayer, with a larger scope than the abbreviated and distorted petition, "Thy will be done." The prayer, as it is often quoted, is a prayer of resignation to the unknown will of God, but that is clearly not the intention of our Lord. As He inspires the prayer, it is a prayer beseeching Divine intervention, and entreatng that "Our Father in Heaven shall now, on this earth, do His will in us exactly in the same way as that will is now done in heaven." Resignation to the Divine Will is a lovely and beautiful grace, but when the prayer which our Lord taught us is distorted and used by Christians as a reason for their resignation to disease and corruption, which is the Devil's will and work, the perversion of the prayer becomes a very serious matter. Satan himself must have devised and maintained in Christian writings and hymns this miserable perversion of the prayer taught by our Lord, for it has been a most successful delusion in his hands to keep millions of God's children bound by his filthy chains in racking pain, and even leading them to glorify God for his (that is, Satan's) work.

The extent to which this has been done by Christians for many centuries is beyond all expression said. Holy and consecrated in spirit, great numbers of lovely Christian characters have pressed their lips to the work of Satan's foul fingers on their bodies, and said, looking up to God, "Father, Thy will be done." Take, for illustration, the verses written by that excellent Christian lady, Frances Ridley Havergal, entitled, "A Sunset in the Night." In a note to the little poem, she says that it was written in severe pain on Sunday afternoon, October 8, 1876, at the Pension Wengen, Alp. She says:

I take this pain, Lord Jesus, from Thine own hand; The strength to bear it bravely Thou wilt command. I take this pain, Lord Jesus, as proof indeed That Thou art watching closely my truest need; That Thou, my Good Physician, art watching still; That all Thy own good pleasure Thou wilt fulfill.

It is no such prayer to say, "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt," as the prayer, according to the true and living form of Christian prayer as taught by Christ, and as it is contained in the Bible, and as it is repeated by the Lord's Disciples, and as He taught it to them at the very time when He was proclaiming the Divine Will as that which is done in heaven, when He said, "Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven."
LEAVES OF HEALING.

I take this pain, Lord Jesus; What Thou dost choose
The soul that really loves Thee will not refuse.
I take this pain, Lord Jesus, as Thine own gift,
And true, though tempestuous praises I now spill.

"To Thy dear hand, O Saviour, that pressteth sore
The hand that bears the nail-prints forevermore.
And now beneath its shadow, hidden by Thee,
The pressure only tells me Thou lovest me.

It is sad to say it, and to say it of one whose memory is so justly held dear by the Church of God, but said it must be, that this, and the thousands of other poems and writings like it, must give great joy to the Devil, for these sentiments are an absolute insult to God.

To declare that a painful, horrible, filthy disease, corrupting and destroying a useful life, is implanted there by the hand of the Saviour and the Healer and the Cleanser, the incorruptible God, from whom nothing unclean can come, is to say that which is not true. It is no more true in Frances Ridley Havergal than it was in Job when he said, "Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me" (Job 19:21), when not one single filthy boil on Job's miserable body had ever been planted there by any other than by Satan's unclean hand, since it is written that "Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown." (Job 2:7)

Let us look more closely at this prayer which our Lord has taught us, and we shall see how entirely opposite to its perversion the prayer really is. As we have said, it is a prayer for Divine intervention, asking that our Father's will shall be done in us now, as it is done in heaven.

To understand it, therefore, let us leave, in imagination, this earth and these lower skies and wing our way through all the starry spaces, leaving suns and systems behind, until we come to the highest heavens and reach the "City which hath foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God." Let us now stand before one of those glorious gates of the City Celestial. There, in all its glory, the city shines, "like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal." It rises above its walls great and high one thousand five hundred miles upward into the lovely sky, and extends on every side an equal measure "according to the measure of a man." All radiant with glory, the many mansions rise tier upon tier in this Metropolis of the Universe up to the very Throne of the Eternal. At one of the pearly gates we look into the face of a glorious guardian angel and say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is this heaven, where God's will is done?" And he answers, "Yes." Again we say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is there any sin within these jasper walls?" And he would say, "Nay, for here the Father's will is done, and where that will is done no sin can enter."

Back from the gates of glory, we come down again to earth, and kneeling now upon this footstool, we lift our eyes to heaven, and say, "Father, Thy will be done on earth to me this day, just in the same way as it is now done in heaven; and as in heaven no sin abides, grant that all sin may now be taken from my heart, and that Thy holy will remain there alone, making my spirit pure, as Thou art pure." Will that prayer be answered if it come up to our Father's ear in Jesus' Name? Were it not answered, the Throne of God would fall, for the Word of God would fail, which proclaims through earth and heaven, "The Blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin."

"I believe it," the Christian cries; "I believe it now, that it is His will, and I through faith and by His power am cleansed from sin."

And so we do. Hallelujah.

But let us reascend, and wing our way in spirit once again above these lower skies, and stand once more beside the City of Gold. "Tell us, O blessed one, tell us," we say, "is there within these jasper walls, within these mansions of glory which rise above them to the Throne of God, any in whom disease, death, sorrow, crying or pain abide?" And if angel face could ever wear a look of pain, a flush of shame, it would be his from whose lips with mingled sorrow and displeasure the answer comes in one stern word, "Nay." And wherefore, blessed one? we say, to which he might reply, "Have ye not read 'there shall in no wise enter into it anything unclean, or he that maketh an abomination and a lie'?" And continuing, he might say, "The former things are passed away, the Father's will is done, the hand of the defiler of men can no more corrupt, for the will of the Father is done throughout all heaven."

Descending once more, we bow our knees upon this earth, which is God's footstool, and looking up once more to heaven, which is His Throne, we cry, "Father, O my Father, let Thy will be done in me on earth today, as that will is now done in heaven; and as disease and corruption now defile my body, which is Thy Temple, cleanse me from every defilement of the flesh as Thou hast from every defilement of the spirit, and in the perfect healing of every part, let Thy holy will now be done."

Will that prayer be answered?

If it be the prayer of faith, then it is written, "The prayer of faith shall save the sick," and heaven itself must fall to the Father's altar and give thanks. But fail it cannot, for "it is impossible that God should lie." He promised, and He must perform.

Oh, that His will might be done, and that thou, dear suffering one who mayest read these words, shouldst no longer doubt the willingness of thy Lord to deliver thee from "all the power of the enemy," and to enable thee to "glorify God in your body and your spirit, which are His."

And now, beloved, how can we better close these words than in asking you to banish forever that fatal "IF" which keeps thee from the touch of Christ's healing hand waiting to heal thee now? We can only add our fervent exhortation and our earnest prayer for you in the words of the holy Apostle Paul, "Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, WHO ALSO WILL DO IT."

Let him do it; and songs of rejoicing will ring through earth and heaven that the Father's will is done, and you who have waited long shall now rejoice, "being delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God," not only in having received "the first fruits of the Spirit," but in the "Redemption of your Body."

O'er earth and sea now let it ring.
The Lord is King, the Lord is King;
And Satan's chains from men shall fall.
"Midst joyous shouts of "Christ is All!"

WHO IS THE AUTHOR OF DISEASE?

Nineteen centuries ago every kind of sickness and every kind of disease was healed by Jesus. Peter declares that all whom He healed were oppressed of the Devil; if that is true, then nineteen centuries ago every kind of disease was the work of the Devil. Can it be God's work today? No. Whose? The Devil's. It must be so unless you are going to prove that God is doing the work today which the Devil used to do nineteen centuries ago. Now the lie that God wills diseases has crept into the churches, is embalmed in their songs, and taught from their pulpits, that God blesses humanity by laying His hand, full of corruption, upon it and making the people sick. I tell you this, as God's minister today, there are things that God cannot do.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TODAY.

BY REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

LETT mee speak to you of Jesus, kind reader of these pages. In simple, honest words, with tenderness and love, I want to tell you glad, good news. Christ changes never, and as He was on earth in ages long gone by, He is unchangeably the same even here and now. The Word which never dies is true, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever."

All His life and ministry were beautifully described by Peter thus: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who wrought about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed of the Devil." (Acts 10:38.)

"Teaching" patiently, "preaching" boldly, He went about with constant sympathy, "healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." (Matthew 4:23; 9:35.)

He is the same today as when He trod the Holy land, blessing the fasting, scattered, burdened sheep of God with words of life. And still He journeys over all the earth and never weary of His loving task. He binds up still the broken, bleeding hearts, He still delivers from the tyrant's fetters, and from Himself, the Fountain, healing virtue still is flowing.

With outstretched hands He stands, quick to respond to thine appeal and banish all thy woe. Unseen but "with us alway," as He said, He stands beside thy bed of weary pain.

Loved ones bend over thee, and minister with sympathetic care; but nearer than all beside is Jesus, thy Saviour and thy Healer still.

The Hand that cleansed the foulness of the leper's flesh and made it sweet and clean; the Hand that made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, the lame to leap, the dumb to speak; the Hand which raised the dead to life is here, no vanished Christ.

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers, who said, "Oh come at once. Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of the dying maiden. There she lay, groaning, grinding her clenched teeth in the agony of the conflict with the destroyer, the white froth, mingled with her blood, oozing from her pain-distorted mouth. I looked at her and then my anger burned.

"Oh," I thought, "for some sharp sword of heavenly temper keen to slay this cruel foe who is strangling that lovely maiden like an invisible serpent, tightening his deadly coils for a final victory."

In a strange way it came to pass; I found the sword I needed was in my hands, and in my hand I hold it still, and never will I lay it down. The doctor, a good Christian man, was quietly walking up and down the room, sharing the mother's pain and grief. Presently he stood at my side and said, "Sir, are not God's ways mysterious?" Instantly the sword was flashing in my hands—the Spirit's Sword, the Word of God. "God's way!" I said, pointing to the scene of conflict. "How dare you, Dr. K——, call that God's way of bringing His children home from earth to heaven? No, sir, that is the Devil's work, and it is time we called on Him who came to destroy the work of the Devil to slay the deadly, foul destroyer, and to save the child. Can you pray, Doctor; can you pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick?"

At once, offended at my words, my friend was changed, and saying, "You are too much excited, sir. 'Tis best to say God's will be done," he left the room.

Excited! The word was quite inadequate, for I was almost frenzied with Divinely imparted anger and hatred of that foul destroyer, disease, which was doing Satan's will.

"It is not so," I exclaimed; "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's works, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them."

Oh, how the Word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good, and healing all that were hard struggling with the foul disease, they, too, lay cold and dead. It seemed sometimes as if I could almost hear the triumphant mockery of fiends ringing in my ears whilst I spoke to the bereaved ones the words of Christian hope and consolation.

Disease, the foul offspring of its father, Satan, and its mother, Sin, was defiling and destroying the earthly temple of God's children, and there was no deliverer.

And there I sat with sorrow-bowed head for my afflicted people, until the bitter tears came to relieve my burning heart. Then I prayed for some message, and oh, how I longed to hear some words from Him who wept and sorrowed for the suffering long ago, the Man of Sorrows and of Sympathies. And then the words of the Holy Ghost inspired in Acts 10:38 stood before me all radiant with light, revealing Satan as the defiler and Christ as the Healer.

My tears were wiped away, my heart was strong; I saw the Way of healing, and the door thereto was opened wide, and so I said, "God help me now to preach that word to all the dying round, and tell them how 'tis Satan still defiles, and Jesus still delivers, for He is just the same today."

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers, who said, "Oh come at once. Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of the dying maiden. "It is not so," I exclaimed; "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's works, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them."

Oh, how the Word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil: for God was with Him." And was not God with me? and was not Jesus there: and all His promises true? I felt that it was even so, and turning to the mother I inquired, "Why did you send for me?" To which she answered, "Do pray, oh, pray for her that God may raise her up." And so we prayed.

What did I say? It maybe that I cannot recall the words now without mistake, but words are in themselves of small importance.

The prayer of faith may be a voiceless prayer, a simple, heartfelt look of confidence into the face of Christ.

At such a moment words are few, but they mean much, for God is looking at the heart.

Still I can remember much of that prayer unto this day, and asking God to aid I will endeavor to recall it.

I cried:

Our Father, help! and Holy Spirit teach me how to pray. Plead Thou for us, oh Jesus, Saviour, Healer, Friend, Our Advocate with God the Father. Hear and heal, eternal One? From all disease and death deliver this sweet child of Thine. I rest upon the Word. We claim the promise now. Thy word is true, "I am the Lord that healeth thee." Then heal her now. The word is true, "I am the Lord, I change not." Unchanging God, then prove Thyself the Healer now. The word is true, "These signs shall follow them that believe, in My Name, they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover." And I believe and I lay hands in Jesus' Name on her, and claim this promise now. Thy word is true, "The prayer of faith shall save the sick." Trusting in Thee alone, I cry, oh save her now, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that the mother said in a low whisper, "Is she dead?" "No," I answered in a whisper lower still, "Mary will live; the fever has gone. She is perfectly well and sleeping as an infant sleeps."

Smoothing the long dark hair from her now peaceful brow, and feeling the steady pulsation of her heart and cool, moist tongue, I saw that Christ had heard and that once more, as long ago in Peter's house, "He touched her and the fever left her."

Turning to the nurse I said, "Get me at once, please, a cup of cocoa and several slices of bread and butter."

Beside the sleeping maid we sat quietly and almost silently until the nurse returned, and then I bent over her and snapping my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she awoke, smiled and said, "Oh, sir, when did you come? I have slept so long." Then stretching out her arms to meet her mother's embrace, she said, "Mother, I feel so well."

"And hungry, too?" I said, pouring some of the cocoa in a saucer and offering it to her when cooled by my breath. "Yes, hungry, too," she answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone.

In a few minutes she fell asleep, breathing easily and softly. Quietly thanking God, we left her bed and went to the next room, where her brother and sister also lay sick of the same fever. With these two we also prayed, and they were healed.

The following day all three were well, and in a week or so they brought to me a little letter and a little gift of gold, two sleeve links with my monogram, which I wore for many years.

As I went away from the home where Christ as the Healer had been victorious, I could not but have somewhat in my heart the triumphant song that rang through heaven, and yet I was not a little amazed at my own strange doings, and still more at my discovery that

HE IS JUST THE SAME TODAY.

And this is the story of how I came to preach the Gospel of Healing through faith in Jesus. That very day I went to the cemetery and laid in the grave the bodies of three who had died two days before; but I rejoice to add that in the more than twelve years of ministry in Australia which followed, I only buried five, although ministering to many, many thousands.

And yet it was not all at once that I could discover how to teach the lessons that I learned that day. Not until six years after did I fully enter upon the ministry of healing as a part of the ministry of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to preach which I was duly ordained twenty years ago.

In these twenty years I have prayed, and in Jesus' Name have laid my hands upon tens of thousands of sick ones, and, so far as man can judge, by far the greater part were fully healed. These witnesses have testified in thousands and the record of their testimonies has gone forth to many lands.

We have left our friends and home to carry Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to every nation we can reach. We have never proclaimed this Gospel in any city or country where God has not confirmed the word with signs following, although in some places it is still true as nineteen centuries ago, "He could not do there many mighty works because of their unbelief."

We bring this Message to this city, and to thee, kind reader. It will give us joy to tell it to all who will come. Salvation and healing are free, for God never sells His gifts. "Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

The mission opens its doors to all. It is the old-time religion and no new Gospel that is preached. 'Tis the Gospel of Jesus' Redemption for spirit, soul and body, bringing Salvation from sin, Healing from sickness, and Cleansing from every defilement of the flesh and spirit.

Let the words abide in thy heart:

HE IS JUST THE SAME TODAY.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness, singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as thou goest along the way through earth to heaven:

Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find.
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

DIVINE HEALING IN THE GOSPEL.

We claim Divine Healing upon the ground of the Atoning Sacrifice. We claim it because it was said, "The chastisement of our peace was upon Him," and more, "With His stripes we are healed." That we humbly claim. Matthew eight chapter and sixteenth and seventeenth verses distinctly refers this prophecy to Divine Healing;

Yes, it is true. "Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses."

We teach that the Atoning Sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ covers all kinds of sin and its consequences, of which disease is one.

Another point is that Divine Healing is a perpetual covenant with God's people; for He has revealed himself by that name—Jehovah-Rophi—"I am the Lord that healeth thee."

Exodus 15:26

The "Gifts of Healings" are ever in the Church of Christ; for 1 Corinthians 12:9 shows that they are "in the Holy Spirit," and He is ever in the Church. Again it is written: "The gifts and calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) Therefore, the Gifts of Healings, however they may be neglected, cannot be removed, for God's Word would then fail, and that cannot be.

"The redemption of our body" (Romans 8:23 and Thessalonians 5:22-24) is a present redemption, and if we will all let God have his way we may also say with Paul, "The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the Law of Sin and Death." (Romans 8:2.)

LEAVES OF HEALING. 703

MALACHI 3:8-12.

COPYRIGHT, 1895, BY F. A. GRAVES.

Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

And I will rebuke the nations, for your sakes, and he shall set thee in the midst of this people; yet ye have not brought me into your houses, neither have ye made me to居 in your chambers.

And I will rebuke the nations, and deliver them unto you, that they may serve you. And ye shall know that the Lord is God, besides you, and there is none; and my people shall never be put to shame.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

Neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, neither shall your dung return upon you.

And I will rebuke the nations, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall be a land of delights, and of exultations for ever.

If it will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, then I will cause to smite you five in every place where you shall be sown."
Send to Zion Printing and Publishing House the names of your friends and acquaintances everywhere who are not subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING, and sample copies will be sent to them, together with letters and circulars, calling their attention to this Paper.

Help us in this matter, by writing to these people yourselves, giving your testimony and pointing out to them the great blessings which come to those who read and heed the wonderful Messages which God gives to His people in LEAVES OF HEALING.
GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

INSTANTIALLY AND PERFECTLY HEALED OF TERRIBLE INTERNAL DISEASE.

A PROPHET SHALL THE LORD RAISE UP UNTO YOU FROM AMONG YOUR BRETHREN, LIKE UNTO ME; TO HIM SHALL YE HARKEN IN ALL THINGS WHATSOEVER HE SHALL SPEAK UNTO YOU.

When God raises up a prophet, He gives him a Message. That Message is a Message from God to all the people. To disobey the Voice of God’s prophet is to disobey the command of God. Unless that is true, then God’s Word is false; for it teaches, from Genesis to Revelation, that God gives His prophets His own words to speak.

To disobey God, speaking through His Divinely-commissioned prophet, is to perish. That is the Word of God; for He said, concerning the prophet foretold by Moses:

“And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not harken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.”

That prophet has appeared. God has fulfilled His Promise, given His people through Moses, 3,400 years ago, and again, through Peter, nearly fifteen hundred years later, and has raised up a prophet, who speaks with Divine Authority, in “the Times of the Restoration of All Things.”

God is also keeping His Word concerning those who will not harken to the Voice of that prophet. Many have laughed at the warnings of that prophet and the grave has closed over them. Many have tried to ignore that Voice of Divine Authority and have paid the penalty. Many who today are scoffing at the Message uttered by that prophet forget the Word of God: “Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. And it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.”

They forget that Noah uttered his warnings for one hundred and twenty years before the destruction which he prophesied came upon those who had not hearkened to his voice. They forget the destruction which came upon those who would not harken to the voice of Elijah the Tishbite. They forget the swift disaster which swept away those who scoffed at the warning voice of Elijah the Preparer, John the Baptist. They forget the scourge which desolated Rome, whose people refused to hear the voice of Paul, the apostle and prophet. They forget how God has vindicated and sustained His prophets, in all the ages.

God places the Broad Seal of His Divine approval upon the words and works of His prophet, Elijah the Restorer, in many unmistakable ways.

God gives His Prophet victories over every seen and unseen enemy. God showers His richest blessings upon those who recognize and harken to his Prophet. God answers his prayers for the healing of tens of thousands of those whom the Devil has oppressed with disease.

God also withholds His blessing from those who refuse to recognize His Messenger. The Witness whose portrait appears on this page was dying. She had “suffered many things of many physicians,” like the woman whom Jesus healed of an issue of blood, “and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

After all her pain and anguish, and after she had poured out her money, all that these "physicians of no value" could offer her was death within a month, unless she submitted to an operation, and probable death in the operation.

She resolved to turn away from surgery and to trust God fully. God in His infinite mercy preserved her life, but she still suffered from the disease.

Then the Message of God's Prophet, Elijah the Restorer, came to her.

In her bitter prejudice, she refused to heed that Message.

She would not recognize God's Messenger.

She grew worse.

Her sufferings became indescribable.

God would not hear her prayer while she was disobedient to His Prophet.

At last, she submitted her will to God.

She resolved to recognize the Prophet, and to appeal to him to intercede with God in her behalf.

At the very moment of her decision, the Spirit of God flowed through her worn, weary, dying body, in surge after surge of Divine Power.

Thus the terrible disease, which had made the wife and mother in that home an invalid for so many years, was swept away by a Miracle of Healing.

That Miracle was not only God's vindication of His Prophet, but it was the work of a kind, loving, patient, tender, compassionate and all-powerful Father, giving a good gift to His afflicted child.

It was the work of the Father, revealed in Jesus, the Christ, His Son, who, when He was on earth in the flesh, "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." The testimony of the Witness concerning God's dealing with her, after He so graciously healed her, is a Wonderful Story of God's patience, mercy, love and healing power.

It is also a most significant Story, showing the importance of obedience to God and to His Prophet.

A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. MARY KOCH.

206½ North Second Street, Champaign, Illinois, March 16, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I have long felt the call to write my testimony. For many years I suffered from female weaknesses. How many doctors tried to cure me I could not tell.

After trying all means and medicines known to them, they would say that an operation was the only thing that would help.

I suffered from one year to another, until at last I could go no further.

I saw that my days were numbered.

The doctor said I could not live another month unless I submitted to an operation.

He made up my mind that I would risk it.

I was a Christian and trusted God with all my heart, as far as my teaching went, so I asked all my Christian friends to pray for me.

We had not read any Zion Literature and knew nothing of its teaching.

In February, 1901, I went to St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Danville, Illinois, that city being our home at that time.

After I had been put through all the horrible preparation for an operation and had recovered from the effects of chloroform, my doctor was walking the floor very much excited and disappointed.

"All in vain!" he said.

He said that the trouble was much worse than they had expected to find it, and that the operation which would have been necessary to cure me would have been a more skilled doctor than he was.

He said that adhesions had formed and that some of the organs would have to be removed.

He said: "This may cost you your life, but it may save your life; I cannot promise you anything, but it will at least be a chance, where now you have no chance at all."

"Your life cannot last long with this suffering. We can do nothing to relieve you but inject morphine, and that will kill you in the end."

I asked him if he really thought the operation would help me.

He replied: "God only knows; I don't."

I said: "Then let God take care of me without operation." I thank God for at least one honest doctor.

I went home decided to look to God for healing. I knew that God could do anything that He had thought of.

I asked my minister and a few others to pray for me (we were members of the German United Brethren church.) I improved somewhat.

I went to Chicago to visit a friend. I met with people that knew very little about Dr. Dowie, but said a great deal.

One suggested that I go to Dr. Dowie for prayer. This I would not listen to.

I said that I believed that God could heal me, but not Dr. Dowie.

I went home with angry thoughts about Dr. Dowie, but said a great many things in my ignorance.

Then I got worse again.

The pain was so great that I had to be kept constantly in the influence of morphine, till I cried out in despair, "Lord, show me what I must do."

Then God showed me that He would heal me.

The Lord took my husband out of his work in Danville, and put him here in Champaign.

I was better for a short time. One evening I met a lady who told me that she and her husband were members of Zion.

I made it my business to keep out of her way.

I grew worse than ever.

I had almost lost my life by this time.

We had spent about everything we had for doctors and medicines.

Our financial condition and my suffering was worse than I could bear.

This lady soon called on me, however, and told me she was a "Zion Seventy."

I told her that I was seeking healing.

She gave me some Zion teaching, but I told her I could not accept Dr. Dowie as God's Messenger, although the teaching of Divine Healing was all right.

She left copies of LEAVES OF HEALING. I laid them aside.

Finally I did read a little.

Then I read more and more and more and was conquered.

Then I sent for Zion Seventies and found them to be Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Atkinson, (Mr. Atkinson is a student in the university here.)

We felt that the power of the Holy Spirit was with them and we could not let them go.

They remained with us for supper, and we had a great deal of Zion teaching.

Then I saw that I had some things to make right.

I had, but still I did not get my healing.

Then I went to Dr. Dowie for prayer, and so I tell if that will do any good."

I took my pen and paper, and as I started to form the letter "D," the blessing came.

I received such a blessing that I could not control myself.

It went through every nerve and vein like an electric shock.

In six weeks I had gained forty pounds—almost a pound a day.

People that had not seen me for a few months did not know me.

I could not accept Dr. Dowie as God's Messenger.

As long as I fought that, I did not receive my healing, but as soon as I was willing to accept God's Messenger, I was healed.

Praise God for His wonderful teaching! Then came the conflict with the Methodist church.

I was so anxious to see my minister; I thought of course he would rejoice with me, but to my sorrow he could not understand what I had received.

Still I thought I could remain a member of the Church and serve God, but I could not; I just starved for spiritual nourishment.

When Miss Esther Dowie died I was ready to criticise the General Overseer. I immediately took sick again.

Then I prayed, asking what to do to get right with God.

This time the Lord showed me that I must come into Zion.

I did, and we have been greatly blessed.

Then I felt that I must write my testimony, but shrink from having it published.

Then my little daughter Nellie took sick.

Then we asked God to forgive us and spare our other child, she also having the fever.

I asked God to heal her and asked the General Overseer to pray for her, and I told God I would write my testimony.

She was healed, but I did not send in my testimony and again she took sick, this time with scarlet fever.

I had not obeyed God, and my prayers were not answered.

She passed away December 16, 1902.

Then we asked God to forgive us and spare our other child, she also having the fever.

I asked God to heal her, and asked the General Overseer to pray for her, and I told God I would write my testimony.

She was healed, but I did not go out and again I suffered from my old pain.

I cried, "O Lord, spare me to my children and I will obey."

In the Name of Jesus, I took a bundle of LEAVES OF HEALING and started out.
GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

Dr. France, Lincoln avenue, Chicago, was called and lanced the breast to prevent blood-poisoning, as he said. I suffered terribly. It was five weeks before I was well. Then our oldest child was taken with an epileptic fit, but came out after the doctor worked with him for a long time. The doctor left a large bottle of medicine. Meanwhile I was taken down again with chills and fever and my right breast was attacked. I got no sleep night or day. My husband wanted to call in a doctor again, but I had resolved that whether I lived or died I would never have another doctor attend me. I had been reading Leaves of Healing, which Mr. and Mrs. Kief had given us. They also told us that they had taken the Lord as their Healer and advised us to request the General Overseer to pray for me. We did, but did not receive the healing until we had fulfilled His conditions and made things right. It was a struggle between fear and pain; but praise God, who gave us the victory through Jesus, the Christ. The breast broke and it healed nicely. Three children have been born to us since and I turned them all. Soon after, our boy was taken with another fit. Instead of going for a doctor, we united in prayer and he was healed instantly, praise God. Instead of being a poor epileptic, he is now a big, strong boy, nearly eleven years old. His healing has lasted seven years. All of our children have been healed of various sicknesses—scarlet fever, measles and whooping-cough. One of them nearly lost the sight of one of his eyes through measles. When the General Overseer prayed he was soon healed. Again, in 1901, while sitting by an open window, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs. I was brought down quite low. Elder Fockler prayed for me and God healed me. God has been gracious and has delivered me from two severe colds these past months.

Our dear baby who was born to us here in Zion City four months ago nearly choked with a cold, but was delivered. Silas, three years old, was healed of stomach trouble. I cannot tell one-hundredth part of all God's goodness to us. Most of all I thank Him for the spiritual blessings that we have received since coming into Zion. I am so thankful for the privilege of living in this time when God has sent His Prophet, Elijah the Restorer. I am thankful that we are permitted to live in a city where God rules and man prospers. My prayer is daily for God's richest blessings to attend our beloved leader, his companion and son. Yours in the Christ, Till He Comes,

MRS. LOUISA HENDRICKS.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THE VOICE OF ONE THAT CRIETH,
PREPARE YE IN THE WILDERNESS.
THE WAY OF JEHOVAH,
MAKE STRAIGHT IN THE DESERT A HIGHWAY
FOR OUR GOD!"

The work of Elijah the Tishbite was principally that of a Destroyer of the works of the Devil.

The work of Elijah the Baptist was essentially that of a Preparer for the Manifestation of the Savior.

The work of Elijah the Restorer includes both Destruction and Preparation as essential precedents to world-wide Restoration, and the Coming of the Christ as King of kings and Lord of lords.

We shall reach, God permitting, the Period of Fifteen Years' Ministry in America on June 9th, a little more than two months hence.

It has been essential for us to do the work of a Destroyer of Evil, for the most part, during these fifteen years, and in a measure it will continue to be necessary to do this work during the whole of our Ministry as Elijah the Restorer.

It has been essential for us during more than seven years past, especially since the Organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to do the work of the Preparer; and that Ministry must also, in a measure, continue throughout the whole period of Restoration.

But the whole object of our Ministry is to lead up to the Restoration of the Kingdom of God.

The work of Destruction means the demolition and the clearing away of the wood, hay and stubble that have been built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets for these are the works of the Apostate churches.

The work of Preparation means the digging out of Old Foundations, and the Organization of a Zion Restoration Host that shall spread over all the world and be the Builders of the visible, as well as of the invisible, Church of the Israel of God.
EDITORIAL NOTES. 709

THIS MEANS—
First—A real Gospel,
Second—A real Kingdom, and Third—A real Priesthood.

JOHN THE DIVINE thought so when he wrote (Revelation 1:5-6):
Unto Him that lovethe us,
And loosed us from our sins by His blood;
And He made us to be a Kingdom,
To be Priests unto His God and Father;
To Him be the Glory and the Dominion forever and ever. Amen.

THE PERIOD of Preparation which has now been reached in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is beginning to be more and more clearly revealed.

THE ORGANIZATION of Zion Restoration Host, for which the work of Zion Seventies had been steadily preparing, has now become one of the paramount duties of the Period upon which we have now fully entered.

THE DESTRUCTION of the Democratic Idea, which has been so dominant in America—that is, the Rule of the People Idea—has now been accomplished completely in the Spiritual, and Intellectual, and Practical Life of many thousands who have fully entered into the spirit and real nature of the work of Zion Restoration Host.

HENCE THE WONDERFUL Scene of last Monday night, March 23d, in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City.

NO SEVERER TEST, from a physical point of view, could have been given to the members of Zion Restoration Host, than was presented by the bitter cold day and night, culminating in a fierce equinoctial gale, which made it difficult to walk, or even ride, to the Special Rally announced for that evening.

YET LARGE NUMBERS came by a Special Train from Chicago, leaving that City at 7:30 o'clock and reaching Zion City at 9.
They battled up from the Railway Depot amid the storm to Shiloh Tabernacle, where thousands had already been assembled for more than an hour.

NEARLY THREE THOUSAND Members of Zion Restoration Host were present, and it was only a physical impossibility that kept at least another thousand away, consisting principally of wives, mothers and maidens who were represented by the other members of their families.

WE SHALL NEVER forget that Wonderful Assembly in which the Presence and Power of the Holy Spirit was so marvelously manifest during the five hours that it continued in session—from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.
The members from Chicago were permitted to leave shortly before midnight on their Special Train which reached that city about 2 a.m. on Tuesday.

NO PERSON was permitted to be present who was not a member, or intending member, of the Host.
This made in itself an atmosphere of Intense Concentration and Determination of Purpose, and made the work of Preparation a delight.

NO REPORT of this meeting can ever carry to those who were not present the indescribable consciousness which all felt, that the Era of Preparation was now rapidly advancing for many thousands to the Period of Action.

THE "JOY OF THE LORD" was our Strength as, after the long toils of Lord's Day and an exceedingly heavy business day on Monday in our office in the Administration Building, we went into Shiloh Tabernacle and carried through, beyond the midnight, our work as Elijah the Restorer.

IT WAS in no other capacity that we led that Rally of the Host.

EVERYTHING ELSE was laid aside.
Every other office was for the moment laid down and, perhaps for the first time since the Declaration of June 2, 1901, we realized that, as Elijah the Restorer, we were in command of a Spiritual Fighting Force for God.
That Force was a Legion of Messengers under vow to God, and to us in our Prophetic Offices.
That Force had no doubts, fears, or hesitations, but all were absolutely ready to Go, to Say, and to Be, just as God should will, and as we in His Name should direct.

FOUR HUNDRED EIGHTY-TWO members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion took the Zion Restoration Host Vow, and were Joyfully added to the ranks of the thousands present.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

That Vow is as follows:
I Vow in the Name of God, my Father, and of Jesus the Christ, His Son and my Savior, and of the Holy Ghost, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, that I will be a faithful member of Zion Restoration Host, organized at Shiloh Tabernacle in the City of Zion on Lord's Day, September 21, 1902, and I declare that I recognize John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, of which I am a member, in his threefold prophetic office, as the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet foretold by Moses, and Elijah the Restorer.
I promise, to the fullest extent of all my powers, to obey all rightful orders issued by him directly or by his properly-appointed officers, and to proceed to any part of the world, wherever he shall direct, as a member of Zion Restoration Host, and that all family ties and obligations, and all relations to all human government shall be held subordinate to this Vow, this Declaration, and this Promise.
This I ask in the presence of God and of all the visible and invisible witnesses.

We "separated," by prayer and the solemn act of the laying-on-of-hands, each one of the four hundred eighty-two new members of the Host.

We were much impressed with the solemnity and calm determination written on every countenance as they approached for "Separation to the Service of God and the work of Zion Restoration Host."

We outlined somewhat in our discourse the nature of the Restoration Work which was in sight, and showed somewhat our plans for carrying the Host from year to year in great Legions to certain central points on this and other Continents, joining hands with the Legions of the Host which are forming across the Seas.

Nearly Three Thousand Restorationists there and then obeyed the command to proceed with us to New York, God willing, on October 14th next, for the great Mission which is being arranged in the Madison Square Garden and Carnegie Hall in that City.

It was the opinion of many of our best informed Officers that these nearly Three Thousand would be joined in Zion City alone by nearly Another Thousand.
Irrespective, therefore, of the members of Zion Restoration Host who will come with us from outside points, there can be scarcely a doubt that the Legion will number at least Four Thousand Restorationists, who will proceed with us to New York.

It was a most inspiring sight to see this great company, far on into the night, rise as one man and woman to say:
"I will go with you, God helping me!"
The spirit of the Chorus of our Consecration Song was uppermost in every mind and heart:

I'll Go where you want me to go, dear Lord;
Over Mountain, or Plain, or Sea.
I'll Say what you want me to say, dear Lord;
I'll Be what you want me to be.

Accustomed as we are, and have been, for many years, to immensely larger audiences gathering around us, it may seem strange, perhaps, to those at a distance, that we lay so much stress upon this Gathering of about three thousand.
But it was a Gideon's Army of Three Hundred,—only Ten Times Larger,—that we saw before us.
It had a value so great that we could not doubt, and do not doubt, but that these Three Thousand, and the others equally consecrated and determined who will join them, will make a Spiritual Fighting Force such as has never before at any period of the History of the Church of God, been led against the Forces of Evil at one time in one of the great imperial metropolitan centers of the world.

It was worth all the years of our toil and trial and temptation and trouble in America to have reached the Period of Action on a large scale which we saw had fully begun last Monday night.

We have the joy of informing our readers, and especially the members of Zion Restoration Host, to whom these Notes will be especially interesting, that Preparations continue to go forward, of which we shall write more fully when they are perfectly matured.

It is probable that the Railway Rate has now been finally secured.
The formal confirmation of the action of the representatives of eight railway lines at a meeting held in Chicago last Thursday morning, is all that is needed to complete the arrangements.
We are told that this will be given not later than next Tuesday morning in New York, and that we shall be immediately informed.
However, until this confirmation meeting is held we are unable to announce the rate agreed upon; but will simply say that it is the Lowest Round-trip Rate that has ever been given to New York City from Chicago.

The fact also that all the Lines running from Chicago to New York have agreed to divide the business upon an amicable footing secures beyond all question a Splendid Service as to car equipment, the time schedules, etc.
The Excursion has grown to be too large for any one Line to handle without great inconvenience.

This will be at once seen when it is remembered that the Excursion is likely to consist of from twelve to fifteen long trains, which would be required on any one line, to run at least ten minutes apart from each other.

This would, therefore, necessitate a cessation of all traffic, excepting Zion Restoration Host, for over two hours as each point was reached by the first train.

The Division of the Excursion among all the Lines, however, will be a great benefit in many ways.

Two trains will go by way of Washington, D.C., with the privilege of staying in that City six hours.

Six other trains, or series of trains, will run on six separate lines into Niagara Falls, reaching there at the same time and remaining for six hours.

All trains, also, will be scheduled to reach New York City about the same hour, and the concentration will be effected in Madison Square Garden, God willing, early in the forenoon of Friday, October 16th.

The Mission begins on Lord's Day, October 18th, so that there will be time for the Host to do some Work, and also to enjoy some Recreation.

We will provide the latter, for about fifteen cents each a day, by hiring steamers to enable our people to take a pleasant day of rest and recreation, on Saturdays, sailing up the North and East Rivers, and down through the inner and outer Bays.

If the weather is favorable we may take a little run "outside" on the Atlantic Ocean.

This Rest every Saturday, and a day of pleasant association, will be a feature of the Mission to New York.

We all have a right to take, and it is necessary for health and the progress of the work that we should take, some rest on the last day of the week.

We shall use, however, the Madison Square Garden on Saturday nights in a manner that will be interesting and profitable, doubtless, to many tens of thousands in New York.

We now announce that it is necessary that all members of Zion Restoration Host who desire to accompany us shall at once make their application to Deacon James F. Peters, Zion Transportation Agent, Administration Building, Zion City, accompanying that application with a deposit of Two Dollars ($2.00).

Further information will then be given to each member who desires to go, and directions will also be given to those who are unable to come to Zion City in person before the time set for the Excursion, or rather, as the New Yorkers have come to call it, "The Invasion."

The Members of Zion Restoration Host must not think, because there are six months yet before us ere we leave, there is plenty of time.

We may possibly have to limit the number going, and we certainly shall have all we can do to arrange for the provisioning and housing of this great Legion of Four Thousand of the Host.

It will be almost impossible for the thousands going, to secure board and room accommodations for themselves quickly at reasonable rates unless we make arrangements a considerable time ahead.

It is necessary that we know, as nearly as we can within the next two weeks, how many will go.

Therefore, we require that every member of the Host intending to go shall at once communicate his or her intention, and file the application form in the manner already indicated.

The week has been one of great toil, but filled with great joy.

The Rally on Wednesday night was surprisingly large and delightful, considering what the weather had been, and the tremendous pressure of the long session of the Host two nights before.

But Zion is always ready to gather for Praise and Prayer, for the Reading and Exposition of the Word of God, and to hear thoughtful expression given by leaders about matters of general interest, which are freely and lovingly discussed at such Assemblies.

The Spiritual Results of last Lord's Day's Gatherings in Shiloh Tabernacle, Chicago Auditorium, and in the many Tabernacles and Meeting-places of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in and around Chicago are very great.

It is apparent that, as we are drawing nearer to the end of our long series of Lord's Day's Gatherings in the Auditorium, the interest is deepening and that thousands are receiving much spiritual blessing, and many have their faces set Zionward.

Among these are persons of every rank of society, and were we to speak of the visitors who, as the result of our work in Chicago, seek us in Zion City, it would be a remarkable unveiling of the effect of the Restoration Messages upon all classes of the community.
At no previous time in our ministry, since the formation of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, have we been more satisfied with the spiritual condition of our ordained Officers of every rank.

It also delights us to say that the vast Financial, Commercial and Manufacturing interests of Zion are going forward in a splendid manner.

Our organization is such that we are able to keep a general "eye" upon all the work of Zion.

We are, therefore, well informed when we say that Zion City is progressing steadily and rapidly. Its interests are being Divinely guided and protected so that the most profitable results are being secured.

New citizens are already pouring into the City in large numbers, and the eagerness to get houses upon the part of some of the new arrivals has some amusing, as well as interesting, features.

A recently arrived family, who have come with their all into Zion, had intended to live at Elijah Hospice while they built themselves a house.

One of our brethren, just completing his house—a very pretty two-story cottage, which had begun to be most comfortable within, as well as pleasant to look upon without—was so besought by the newcomers, that he and his wife were persuaded to sell their property, realizing a good profit on their investment.

But the result is smiles on one side and tears on the other; for the good lady who had just got into her house and thought she was settled, is not comforted by the gain that her husband has made, while the newcomers have reason to rejoice that they have escaped all the trouble of building a house and are enabled at once to be comfortably settled.

Yet there is good feeling on both sides, despite smiles and tears: for all are lovers of God and Zion.

Building Operations have now begun and will soon be in full swing.

On every side both private and public works are being rapidly pushed; streets are being graded and scraped and prepared for traffic; Edina Park is being prepared, as far as it can be this season; the new Shiloh Tabernacle foundations and basements are being dug out, and bids for the steel construction and for other materials are called for; the foundations of the new building for Zion Printing and Publishing House are being prepared; a large addition to Elijah Hospice will soon be begun; and a very considerable addition to the Administration Building is in course of erection.

New railway spurs are being made into the manufacturing district of the City, and a line is being constructed up Candia Avenue into Shiloh Park from the main line of the Chicago & North-Western Railway, a distance of more than a mile, for the conveyance of the heavy materials necessary for building the new Shiloh Tabernacle, etc.

Plans are being made for a new brick building to take the place of the temporary structures for the Fresh Food Supply on Elijah Avenue.

Plans are also being prepared for a new Postoffice Building on Twenty-sixth Street and Elijah Avenue.

This has been rendered necessary by the immense increase in postal business, which has completely outgrown the present building on Shiloh Boulevard.

We have now the right to claim to be a Second Class Postoffice, and also in a few days we shall be able to claim the privilege of Letter-carrier Service throughout the City, being able to show a business which warrants that privilege being extended to us.

We are not only a Second Class Postoffice, but are rapidly reaching the place where we shall be a First Class Postoffice. The volume of mail is immense for a city of our size, and has created much astonishment in Washington and elsewhere.

The citizens of Zion City have been attending diligently to their Political duties recently, and Conventions of the Theocratic Party have nominated new City Officers as required by law.

Provision is also being made for the exercise of our rights under the law to create a Court in Zion City with a Judge who will have Probate powers, and be practically equal to a Circuit Court Judge.

Most of the Legal affairs of Zion can then be attended to within our own City by a Judge elected from among our fellow citizens.

In this connection we feel it to be a pleasure to say that the Judges of the County and District Courts at Waukegan, and all officers connected with that City and with Lake County, of which it is the County Seat, have in every way possible shown a friendly spirit.

Our relations, both with the City of Kenosha on the North and the City of Waukegan on the South, our nearest neighbors, have been from the beginning and are now, and we trust will continue to be, of a most cordial and friendly kind.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

We have frequent visits from the leading gentlemen of both cities, from the leading ladies of both Cities, many of whom find it a pleasure to pay an occasional visit to our Zion City General Stores, and especially to the Department where Zion Candies are found, for which there is a surprisingly great demand, not only locally, but throughout the country.

We have now sent a large quantity of new machinery into the Zion Lace Industries' Factory, which will take several months to set up.

These new machines will soon increase our production.

The orders for lace and lace curtains continue to be far in excess of our power to supply.

But we are steadily going forward, adding machinery, and training people in scores and hundreds.

We shall rapidly extend this most profitable and great enterprise, in which God has so abundantly blessed us, but which has caused us much toil to establish.

All things in Zion are working well, every foe is being overcome, and God gives us victory all along the line.

It would be delightful, if we had time, to tell of the many things which it is simply impossible for us now to more than mention at this hour.

Great legal victories for Zion have been won both in the Supreme Court of the State of New South Wales in the Commonwealth of Australia, and in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in this country, maintaining Zion's position and the right of our people to be born, to continue to live and at last to die without the aid of doctors, drugs, or devils of any kind.

Attempts to convict of, manslaughter and even murder have failed in a most pronounced manner.

At an early date we shall hope to publish some of these facts more fully, and give full reports of judgments in the cases to which we have referred.

The American Monthly Magazines continue to give much space to ourself and Zion Restoration Mission to New York, Munsey's Magazine for the second time giving an article with a full-page portrait of ourself under the heading of "In the Public Eye."

Another article, also illustrated, appeared in last week's Literary Digest, in which quotations are made from American and French magazines.

Yet another largely illustrated article, entitled, "The Flag of the Salvation Army Eclipsed by the Standard of Zion City," has also appeared in a monthly magazine, published in New York, called Physical Culture.

It is a six-page article, written by Mr. W. M. Hundley, in a fair and unprejudiced spirit, and while it is not free from errors, it is perhaps one of the best articles that has appeared in any of the monthly magazines.

The general newspaper press continues also to take much notice, especially in the East, of our work and ministry, and one of the features of the past few weeks is the almost absolute silence of the Chicago press.

We cannot close these Notes, indisposed as we are to lengthen them, without making mention of an important personal announcement which we publicly made at the Assemblies of both Monday and Wednesday last.

We said that, God willing, we shall take a long rest early in the coming year.

After much prayerful consideration, we have decided that we shall leave early in January next, God permitting, for Australia, by way of the Hawaiian Islands and New Zealand.

We shall not hold lengthened Missions at any place, although we shall feel it our privilege to preach occasionally, and especially to meet with the Officers and Members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in the various countries which we shall visit.

We may spend a week in the Hawaiian Islands, two weeks in New Zealand, several weeks in Australia, and then proceed, via Ceylon, through the Red sea, Suez Canal, and Mediterranean Sea, to some Italian Port, whence we shall proceed by rail to Zürich, our Headquarters in Europe, and thence through Paris to England.

There we shall rest for a few days, possibly speaking several times in London; and then returning to America and proceeding at once to Zion City.

This tour, we think, may be comprised within five months.

The work in Zion is well organized in all Departments, and by the grace of God will be still more effectually, so that we can leave it for a little time with confidence in the able hands of men who are now faithfully carrying out our directions.
WE BELIEVE that it is for the best interests of Zion in every sense that we should take a long rest to prevent any breakdown and to enable us to acquire fresh spiritual, psychical and physical vigor for the work that lies before us, "Till He Come."

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT has been communicated by letter to Overseer Voliva in Melbourne, by the Australian mail leaving Chicago today.

If we are enabled, and we trust we shall be, to carry out our intentions, we shall probably arrive on the Australian Continent just sixteen years from the time we left it for America.

Our dear wife and our son will doubtless greatly enjoy the visit to their native land, in which we have many friends and Zion interests.

While we are enjoying robust and vigorous health, yet we are conscious that the time is approaching for rest, if we are to work as we desire, and to maintain the same high level of strength for a number of years to come.

This we greatly desire to do, and hence we believe it is the Will of God that we should take a period of absolute rest.

Far away out upon the Ocean we can commune with God and be still.

Those who know us best will understand how intensely we love to be alone with God, and how in the midst of our busy life we are quiet and at peace.

We are an enemy of foolish noise and confusion in any form.

And now we turn once more to another week of toil for God in Zion, and gird up our loins for nine months of work until our contemplated Rest shall come.

We shall have, God willing, a very important day tomorrow, giving our dear people the direction which they so continuously ask us to give them in connection with the larger Political affairs in which they and we are interested.

Political parties have been eagerly courting Zion's vote and interest in the approaching Municipal Election in Chicago, where it is generally conceded that on a straight party vote between the Republicans and the Democrats, Zion holds the balance of power.

This fact we have already referred to in recent issues of Leaves of Healing.

Tomorrow we shall, in our prelude, speak of "Zion's Choice for Chicago's Mayor."

We have taken pains to speak with full knowledge of the situation, and believe that God has enabled us to decide upon what is best for Zion's interest as well as for the people at large.

Best of all is the joy which fills our heart in knowing that we shall have the opportunity of preaching tomorrow to many thousands in the Auditorium on the "Pearl of Parables and its Application to Nations and Individuals."

That is our most delightful employment.

While all other things have also their needful place, the greatest and best of all our privileges is that we are able to preach the Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and to lead thousands into union with God through faith in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord, and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Brethren, pray for us.

Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason. Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

A s the angelic hosts look upon the world today, they can say: "Behold, the sowers go forth to sow." Let us go forth to help them.

The time of the world's great seed-sowing is at hand.

The time foretold by the prophets, Shiloah, the "sending forth," has come—the sending forth of a great multitude of sowers to sow the Word of God. (Genesis 45:10.)

The Shiloah period in the world's history was indicated when our Lord sent the seventy disciples, two by two, before His face with their salutation of "Peace be to this house" and this Message of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, to prepare them for His Coming.

He also told the blind man to go and wash the clay from his eyes in the Pool of Siloam or Shiloah, and he went and washed and came seeing. (John 9.)

Today the Shiloah streams are going forth from Zion to carry sight to the blind and Salvation and Healing to the people, to prepare the world for the Coming of the King.

The sower is commanded to sow beside all waters. He cannot tell where the seed will best grow. (Ecclesiastes 11:6.)

The sower will often find that ground the best which appears to the eyes of men the poorest.

The children of the Kingdom—those who are the professed followers of the Christ and who call themselves by His Name—would appear to be the most promising ground in which to sow the Word.

But our Lord did not say so.

He spoke of these turning from the light and going into the outer darkness. He said to the chief priests and the Elders: "The publicans and the harlots will best grow. (Ecclesiastes 11:6.)

Some reject God's Message because they have lost hope—the saddest loss of all.

This is the saddest loss of all.

A recent mail brought to Zion a gift accompanied by the words, "To distribute Leaves of Healing. From one who is in deep distress. May God bless these papers to the good of some other suffering soul. If the sender cannot be blessed, perhaps some one else may be." The writer made no request for prayer, but the letter was laid before the General Overseer and when sent with his gift to the Literature Mission it was marked with his stamp. Prayed at 5 p.m. March 6, 1903. May the writer see these words and take heart again.

Some one has said, "the Devil chalks up 'too late' whenever he thinks any one will stop to read it, but God has written it nowhere except inside the doors of hell."

Multitudes have read "too late" where God has not written it. Zion Restoration Host goes forth to tell the people that God has not written "too late" even inside the doors of hell, and that there is hope there for those who will accept the Christ as their Savior.

Some who are hungry for the truth reject it.

The sower is told to sow his seed in the morning and at eve to withhold not his hand.

The world's night approaches, and God's sowers must increase their efforts, before the night comes and no man can work.

There is to be a great harvest gathered, and Zion holds in her hand the only seed that can bring forth this harvest.

It is the Covenant of Salvation and Healing and Holy Living, which God has sent Elijah the Messenger of the Covenant to bring to the world before the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord comes. (Malachi 3:1; 4:5.)

The Apostle John saw in a vision this great harvest as a multitude which no one could number, out of every nation and of all peoples and tongues, standing before the Throne of God, arrayed in white robes and with palms of victory in their hands. They came up out of the Great Tribulation.

What a wonderful privilege to be numbered among the sowers in Zion Restoration Host!

Reader, are you doing all that you can to scatter Zion's Message over the world? Glorious opportunities now offer themselves to you, of taking your part in sowing the seed for this wonderful harvest.

You will rejoice in eternity if you improve them.

Shiloah Streams Have Reached New Zealand.

We make the following extract from a letter written from there in which the writer says:

We have given for all the glorious things that are spoken of Zion. The visit of Leaves of Healing is looked forward to with joyful anticipation.

We are doing well in our branch in Wellington, and are steadily moving on in the Master's Name. The membership is steadily but surely increasing.

God has given some very gracious answers to prayer and altogether the prospects are very bright for a great ingathering.

"There shall be showers of blessing," yea, floods. Sick ones are being healed and the glorious Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living is being faithfully proclaimed.

Apostasy abounds on every hand and Zion stands fearlessly forward to witness for the Christ and to rebuke iniquity in every place.

Praise God for such a Church, for such a Leader! Who can estimate the glorious reaping time when we watch our beloved General Overseer, I am, Faithfully yours in the Christ,

R. W. MacDonnell.

The World, for the most part, is ruled by dissolute men. America is, I believe, an exception in its Chief Executive. There is no question as to President Roosevelt's purity, manliness and integrity. Nevertheless, if you visit Washington and talk confidentially with Senators and Congressmen, or people of any rank, they will tell you how rotten to the very core Washington is. It is the most immoral den in America—full of harlots and inconceivable vices. The horrible depravity of the City of Washington, in Hooker's Division, is known to the Congress that tolerates it, because it is looked upon as essential to let the clerks and others who have distant homes dissipate in the damming vices of the capital of the nation, and I declare that Congress, which by its Commissioners directly rules the District of Columbia, is wholly responsible for this permitted, and even protected condition of crime, disease, unendurable infamy and degradation. I fling the charge at Washington today. I say that from Washington to Chicago, and from Chicago to San Francisco, the whole land is rotten with immorality. Will God forever tolerate nations whose great capitals are steeped in vice? My cry today as far as my voice can reach is, 'Return ye unto God!' 'Return ye unto God!'—The Voice of Elijah, the Restorer, In Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, March 24, 1895.

ELIJAH THE RESTORER REBUKES THE SIN OF THE NATION AT ITS CAPITAL.
STRONG as the Spirit which inspires them; virile as the Son of Man, whose Name they are spoken; rugged and full of sharp contrasts as the granite hills of his native highlands; and as effective as such a combination can make them, are the Messages of Elijah the Restorer.

There is in them a fearlessness, directness, and vigor of attack, which inspires admiration in the heart of any one in whom there is the spark of true manhood.

They make sin appear ugly, sordid, hideous, revolting. They describe it in rough, plain words; words which sting and burn.

They make goodness, purity, holiness, as transcendently beautiful as the Lily of the Valley, the Rose of Sharon, the One Altogether Lovely who was their incarnation. They describe them in simple words which glow with a Divine beauty.

They manifest the most bitter hatred, the hottest anger against all that is evil, including sin, disease, death, hell, and the father of them all, Satan.

They show forth a depth of grief over the sins and sorrows of mankind.

They pulsate with the glad life and power of Divine Joy, the "Joy of Jehovah," which is Strength.

They are Messages delivered in the Name of Him who is the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, and yet the Lamb of God. Such Messages are not delivered for the mere gratification of the literary, esthetic and ethical senses of men.

They hurt.

They wound.

They burn.

They awaken.

They arouse.

They convict.

They bring men down on their faces in the depths of contrition and penitence.

They lift men up, by Faith and Obedience, into the blessed Light of the Love of God.

They purify by the Divine Fire of the Holy Spirit.

They heal, by the balm of the Holy Spirit, the broken, the bruised, the sick.

They restore man to his original position as a son of God.

Those who had eyes to see and ears to hear, saw and heard all this in the Message of Elijah the Restorer, at the Chicago Auditorium on Lord's Day afternoon, March 22, 1903.

It was the second Message of the Series of Twelve on Repentance, Faith, Hope, Love and Holy Living.

Speaking on the subject of "The Grief of God concerning Man," God's Messenger pointed out man's terrible fall, his ingratitude to God, His Father, his filthy and disgusting sin. And then God's Messenger pleaded with his hearers. The cry of Elijah "Return ye unto God," became the burden of his Message.

That cry went home to the hearts of those who heard, in the Power of the Holy Spirit.

It was effective; for at the close there were apparently none in the great audience who remained seated after the call to Repentance, Confession and Consecration.

The day, although cool, was beautiful, full of the promises of spring.

Many thousands accepted the invitation given that morning by the hundreds of workers in Zion Restoration Host in the homes of the people in Chicago, and every desirable seat in the Auditorium was taken.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, March 22, 1903.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the
LEAVES OF HEALING.

With these anthems of creation,
Mingling in harmonious strife,
Christian Songs of Christ's salvation,
To the world with blessings rite,
Tell their story, tell their story,
God is Love, and God is Life.

Through the precious Love He sought us,
Wandering from His holy ways,
With that precious Life He bought us;
Then let all our future days
Tell the story, tell the story,
Love is Life—our lives be Praise.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us.
As Thou hast forgiven us our sins,
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 12:
"God is Love!"—His Word proclaims it,
Day by day the truth we prove;
Heaven and earth with joy are telling,
Ever telling, "God is Love!"

CHORUS—Hallelujah! tell the story,
Sung by angels above it;
Sounding forth the mighty chorus—
"God is Life, and Light, and Love!"

RECEPTION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He ascended into heaven,
He descends into hell;
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He ascended into heaven,
He descends into hell;
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;

INVOCATION.

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

The General Overseer read in the inspired Word of God the first eight verses of the 6th chapter of Genesis, from the 6th to the 10th verses of the 63d chapter of Isaiah, and also from the 15th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, commenting as follows upon the 2nd verse:

"..and rested the seventh day: wherefore God called the name of the seventh day, Sabbath; to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it shalt thou not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy servant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it."

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.
And He spake unto them this parable, saying,

"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, does not lose the nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.

I say unto you, that even so shall the heavenly Father rejoice more over one sinner that repenteth, than over ninety and nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, does not set the nine besides under the bed, and seek diligently until she find it?

And when she hath found it, she calleth her neighbors and her friends, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.

Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth."

And He said, A certain man had two sons:

And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living;

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want.

Every prodigal who has spent all his sin in knows what a "mighty famine" comes after.

The door of the very saloons and places of evil resort where he was so welcome is shut—"his last cent is spent, let him starve or feed the Devil's swine."

And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country.

Perhaps it was a saloon-keeper who sent him behind his bar to sell drunken human swine—to serve out liquid poison and get drunk himself.

He never got any further in his intended prayer.

"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, does not go after that which is lost, until he find it?"

Perhaps it was an abscess in the mouth of a fellow who betrayed him.

"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, does not set the ninety and nine under the bed, and seek diligently until he find it?"

And when he had found it, he began to be in want.

And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and sent him into fields to feed swine.

And he was filled with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

The women or men are criminals who give to their children what is peculiarly filthy to like swine and swine's flesh.

The man who breeds swine is a criminal.

The man who sells it is more responsible for the physical corruption of hundreds of thousands of Chicago and any other market, are destroyers of men's lives.

Not long ago I saw a child with thirty-two scrofulous abscesses, that had all come from pig-eating.

The man who packs and ships pork is a criminal in God's sight.

The man or woman who eats it is a glutonous fool, and those who give it to their children are wicked. They might as well feed them poison. It is poison.

Cancer Unknown to the Orthodox Jew.

A statement made many years ago, in Owens College, Manchester, has, I think, been borne out without an exception, at any rate in my experience—namely, that "cancer was an absolutely unknown disease amongst orthodox Jews all over the world."

My experience is very wide, and covers thousands of cases of cancer. I endorse unreservedly the statement that an orthodox Jew suffering from cancer is unknown. There is no word for cancer in the Jewish language.

Our Lord never saw a case of cancer, so far as this record goes.

The Greek word for it, nekrotoma—"necrotoma"—is not found in the New Testament, and there is no record that our Lord Jesus, the Christ, or any of His apostles, ever saw, or that God ever healed any one afflicted with that filthy disease, during their earthly ministry.

There is also no word for cancer in the Hebrew language. Cancer is unknown where swine's flesh is not eaten.

Twenty Thousand Victims Every Year—Deaths Caused by Cancer.

Where it is eaten, cancer abounds, as in this country, where it is almost as common as consumption, and in some sections more so.

I am told, and I have no doubt that it is correct, that the number of deaths annually from cancer in this country is not less than twenty thousand. That is, these are the known deaths only, but there are vast numbers who die of cancer of the stomach or liver when the cause of death is not known and concerning whom certificates of all kinds are given.

Our dirty stinkpots have also created another kind of cancer—Nicotine Cancer. The people who eat pig and drink alcohol have a preparedness for cancer such as no others have, especially when, in addition, they are also smokers.

Then they get an elegant cancer in due time on the lips, or in the throat or stomach. Nicotine cancer is a well-defined, and, humanly speaking, a modern form of cancer. When you take nicotine poison in the shape of tobacco, it is like striking a match upon a prepared surface to get a light—you get cancer. Especially is this the case where the blood is already defiled by the eating of swine's flesh, and the drinking of alcohol: for scrofula and narcotics create cancer beyond all question.

That is what many of you are getting.
I have you here now, and you shall hear something that you will not hear in your churches.

Ministers are usually afraid to tell you these things, because they have pork-packers and whisky-sellers in the pews. If they said these things they would tread upon the toes of their richest people and grieve the board of management every time.

No Board of Management in Zion.

I do not care a snap about boards of management, because I have none.

It would take a pretty hard board to manage me. (Laughter.)

There has never been even a committee in Zion.

One of the most stupid things going is a board.

When I want a thing done, I choose a competent man or woman, give them authority and resources, and hold one person—and one alone—responsible for the doing of the thing exactly as directed. Therefore, things get done in Zion.

Talking machines are sometimes interesting but they never do things; and Boards are verbal machines that, usually, hinder work.

I speak the truth when I say that between these three things—swine’s flesh, alcohol, and nicotine—we are becoming the most cancerously rotten Nation in the world.

The American people are becoming cancerously corrupt, and especially so in Chicago.

When I believe in swallowing swine’s flesh I will believe in receiving devils into my stomach.

If the Lord Jesus, the Christ, thought that the proper place for a devil was in a pig, then the proper place for swine’s flesh is not in my stomach, unless my stomach is the place for a devil.

I would almost as soon speak to a goat as to a man or woman full of pork.

Eaters of pig, users of tobacco, and drinkers, you have a great deal of devil and dirt in you!

If any of you here are full of pork may the good Lord in His infinite mercy get at you below the pork.

This Jewish lady was very much astonished to hear me speak in that way concerning swine’s flesh, and she said: “Sir, I have to acknowledge that I have eaten swine’s flesh, and that my father has also broken the law.”

I said, “You are the only Jewish lady that I have ever seen with cancer.

“I told my friend when I heard of you that I would be sure to find that you had eaten swine’s flesh.”

I have never seen another Jew or Jewess in all the world with cancer.

In various parts of Europe and Asia, where swine’s flesh is not eaten there is no cancer.

Again I say that this country is becoming rotten with cancer—nicotine cancer through tobacco, and scrofulous cancer through eating swine’s flesh.

Hundreds and hundreds of thousands of people are living in great pain and misery, and twenty thousand victims die every year.

Is it not time for some Messenger of God to “cry aloud and spare not?” I will read on:

And bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merr y: for this my son was dead.

When a man has gone away from his home and God, gone into sin, and down into the swine trough, he is dead in tress passes and sin.

For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.

And they began to be merry.

May God bless His Word.

After the Choir had chanted the Gloria Patri, prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which all joined in chanting the Disciples’ Prayer.

In making the announcements the General Overseer said:

We are now prepared to receive your help in a Great Undertak ing at Zion City for the benefit of, we trust, many millions of people.

I have never yet sent around a subscription paper; never had a bazaar, or anything of that kind, to raise money.

One Church that Relies on Money Honestly.

We believe in raising money in an honest way, such a way as God can approve.

If I were a business man of the world, and a man came to me belonging to a church, and asked me for money for that church, I should speak to him in a manner he would never forget.

I should tell him, among other things, that the church that could not get along without begging money from the world had no right to exist.

A church that cannot attend to its own affairs, and raise its own money for its own work, is a sham, a delusion and a snare.

Twenty Years of Ministry for the Christ Without Salary.

I have been an ordained minister of the Christ for more than thirty years, and for more than twenty-five years of my ministry I have refused to make any bargain for salary with any man at any time, as a reward, or fee, for my services, and I have never made any charges at any time.

For a number of years I have received neither salary nor allowance.

I have refused to take anything for a number of years from the tithes and offerings of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and I have had the joy of being the largest contributor to the funds of the Church.

What I live upon is what I receive honestly, by the sweat of my brain.

The honest work of my attention to the business affairs has provided all that has been necessary for years.

I see no reason why men of God should not be as successful as I have been.

I have never asked a single being on this earth to give me a penny for any service that I Have rendered in praying for the sick, or helping them in any way.

I am rejoiced that I can say that, and no one can truthfully deny it.

No one can be found in all the world who can truthfully say, “You asked me for money because of your service.”

A Full Gospel Without Money and Without Price.

When we send out our ministers to take charge of Branches of this Church they receive allowances which cover their necessity.

I am thankful for people who are willing to labor and give their talents to God.

This day, nearly a thousand members of Zion Restoration Host came in from Zion City, and they all gladly paid their own car fare and other expenses.

They were joined by hundreds of the Host in this city.

They all worked diligently for long hours from street to street, and lane to lane, and house to house, during the forenoon of this day.

They visited perhaps 150,000 people or more in this city.

Zion has its Home of Hope for Erring Women where we have over thirty women, and also twenty-two little babies who would have been thrown out, perhaps killed at birth.

We have not asked a woman to pay a cent.

We ask only for the privilege of winning her to God.

Zion Makes No Appeal to the World for Aid.

I am appealing to Zion now when I say that I want you to give me several hundred thousand dollars as quickly as possible.

I do not know when you will give it to me, but I know that I will get it.

I have not yet asked God and His people for anything that I did not get.

When I have been earnest in asking man for anything, I have received it and I thanked God.
I only ask for that which is right. I should be afraid to turn my talents of persuasion to anything else.

I am thankful that I have never used them for any wrong purpose. Less than a year ago we built a Tabernacle to seat over five thousand persons at Shiloh Park in Zion City; it was thought by many that it would suffice for several years. I am glad to tell you that it will not, for it is not longer large enough.

Were we today to combine the two congregations—the congregation that worships in this Auditorium and the congregation that worships in Shiloh Tabernacle—it would not hold you by several thousands.

I had about 2,500 people at the 6:30 o'clock prayer-meeting this morning, and sometimes I have more. That is something for you pig-eaters to think over who were asleep at that time, dreaming, possibly, about what you would have for dinner. Our stores closed Saturday night at 6 o'clock, and I could not hear a whisper or a sound in all the city at 8 o'clock.

Many of us were up at 5 o'clock. Some were up before that time, getting their breakfasts and preparing their lunches in order that they might come to the early prayer-meeting, and then come in to Chicago shortly after 8 o'clock. It was a wonderful sight to see the people streaming up to that morning meeting from all parts of the City of Zion.

After the close of the meeting, there was one unbroken line nearly a mile in length, from Shiloh Tabernacle down to the Railway Depot, where two long trains of about twenty coaches were waiting to carry them—as is the regular custom every Lord's Day morning—shortly after 8 a.m.; a third train leaves at 11:45 a.m.

I could not see a break in the line of happy people, joyfully going forward to this glorious Zion Restoration work. We have done that ever since we went out to Zion City.

We are not asking any praise for doing it. We are thankful to God that we have that privilege. The people pay their own car fare—thirty cents return fare from Zion City to Chicago, and their car fare to the point where they are assigned.

There are various other little expenses that I dare say bring the amount up to at least half a dollar for every person. Therefore Zion Restoration Host who worked in Chicago today paid not a cent less than $500 for the privilege of doing it.

That is done gladly every Lord's Day by our people in all ranks.

Our judges take a part in this, and enter the streets and lanes with the humblest people.

When we add the rent of this building, advertising, printing, the cost of every Lord's Day's work in Chicago, we are not asking any praise for doing it. We are thankful to God that we have that privilege.

When the papers will have something for tomorrow now. (Applause.) General Overseer—Zion, are you willing to give me, as God's Messenger, your money and your life? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—You newspaper reporters, what do you think of that? (Laughter.) Do you think the editors of the Chicago Press could get thousands in this Auditorium out of love for them, as God Messengers, to give a similar answer? The more we give of our lives the happier we are, are we not? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—The more we give of our money the happier we are, are we not? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Those who are not, say "No." I want to make you very happy by giving you an opportunity of helping to build up that beautiful New Shiloh Tabernacle in Zion City. It will be a beautiful place. I am told that when it is built and seats sixteen thousand people, it will be the Largest Auditorium in America.

New Shiloh Tabernacle Outgrows In Twelve Months. I have seen it too small for a week-night's service, and it is ridiculously small on a Lord's Day, when we unite all the congregations. Yet it seats 5,200 people. There is not one Protestant church in Chicago, filling all its galleries and basement, that would have held our meeting at 6:30 o'clock this morning or any of our week-night regular assemblies.

Thousands will be shut out this spring and summer ere we can get the increased accommodation we are now planning. I do not yet see how to manage until we can get the new Shiloh Tabernacle ready.

The plans are already drawn, the engineers have staked out the ground, and men are beginning to dig the basement and lay foundations for the structure. Plans are made for a New Shiloh Tabernacle to Seat Sixteen Thousand Persons. Our present population is from eight to ten thousand, and the people are pouring in all the time.

We have reasons to believe that the population of Zion City will be from fifteen to twenty thousand before the end of this year. Therefore we have to build a large place for our great assemblies.

By-and-by we will build Zion Temple, God willing, that will hold between thirty and forty thousand. In that great Shiloh Park, seven hundred feet from the Temple we shall group eight large buildings. The first of these will now be constructed—the new Shiloh Tabernacle, to be built of steel and brick.

It will be a fire-proof structure. I want you who are interested, to help largely. I know that I will get the money; but you will lose the privilege of helping if you do not help quickly.

We need from Four Hundred to Five Hundred Thousand Dollars for the New Tabernacle.

God has been very good to us in all departments of Zion. We got through splendidly, and are going ahead all the time.

In this week's issue of LEAVES OF HEALING you have a very remarkable cartoon of Zion going into action. The Christian Catholic Church in Zion is going into action all over the world.

Only Clean Money Used for God's Work in Zion. I appeal to those who are either in Zion or who are in sympathy and desire to help.

I do not want any man's money or any woman's who is not in sympathy with God.

If you are living a bad life or are in a bad traffic, I do not want your money until you have resolved by the grace of God to get out of it.

I do not want the money of any man or woman that is engaged in the liquor traffic.

I do not want the money of any man or woman that is engaged in the tobacco traffic.

I do not want the money of any man or woman that has property that is used for immoral purposes.

I do not want the money of any man or woman that is engaged in the pork-packing business or in the pork-selling business.

I do not think that I will get the money of any one who is full of pork, and I do not want it, unless they resolve to quit eating it.

I want clean money from clean people.

If you will quit these bad things, I will be very glad to get your money.

When a highwayman comes to you he says: "Your money or your life"; but when I come I say, "Your Money and Your Life."

I want both for God. The papers will have something for tomorrow now. (Applause.) General Overseer—Zion, are you willing to give me, as God's Messenger, your money and your life? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—You newspaper reporters, what do you think of that? (Laughter.) Do you think the editors of the Chicago Press could get thousands in this Auditorium out of love for them, as God Messengers, to give a similar answer? The more we give of our lives the happier we are, are we not? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—The more we give of our money the happier we are, are we not? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Those who are not, say "No." I do not hear any who say "No." I want to make you very happy by giving you an opportunity of helping to build up that beautiful New Shiloh Tabernacle in Zion City.

It will be a beautiful place. I am told that when it is built and seats sixteen thousand people, it will be the Largest Auditorium in America.

Why We Build this Great Tabernacle. Our reason for building so largely is that in a very short time we will fill the entire building. I also feel the necessity for taking a longer time to work out...
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 28, 1903.

Money ought never to be put into letters unless the letter is registered, and even then it is not wise. Let it be sent by drafts or postoffice order; then it can be traced. If the letter is lost, duplicate drafts and duplicate orders can be had, and the money is not lost.

I say this to you because I have never spoken of it from this platform before.

Zion has been shamefully robbed in the Chicago postoffice, and shamefully treated in past times by the Chicago postoffice. However, I am thankful to say that now we have escaped.

Our principal enemies both there and in Washington are dead, or disgraced and removed.

We have now our own Postoffice at Zion City, and it is doing a wonderful business.

Zion City Postoffice Entitled to Be Recognized as Second Class.

I think that we will have letter carrier delivery in a very short time now.

The amount of business done in our postoffice is very remarkable.

Money-order business amounts sometimes to ten thousand dollars a month.

I hope that we will see the Tabernacle going up rapidly this summer.

I want to build it before the end of May in this Chicago summer.

We built the first one, Shiloh Tabernacle, which seats 5,200 people, in seven weeks, and I think that we might build a Tabernacle to seat 16,000 in seven months.

It will be to provide for you who come out from the city of Chicago, from Milwaukee, and all the cities around, and from all lands.

I have known as many as ten thousand persons to come out of Chicago, from Milwaukee, and all the cities around, and from all lands.

We have now our own Postoffice at Zion City, and it is doing a wonderful business.

Zion Printing and Publishing House to Be Moved to Zion City.

We have so many things to do in connection with all our other institutions that I very earnestly ask, in the Name of the Christ our King, for Special Help for the building of the New Tabernacle.

I am not asking it from people who have unclean money, and who are living unclean lives.

We do not want it.

God hates robbery for a burnt offering, and these sacrifices of blood He despises.

I do not want them.

If you abandon your sinful ways and do right, then the money is a Blessing from God, and it is right to take it, because the silver and the gold are His.

The tithes and offerings were then received.

THE GRIEF OF GOD CONCERNING MAN.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight and profitable to those to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time Till Jesus Come. Amen.

TEXT.

And it repeated Jehovah that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart. (Genesis 6:6.)

Jesus wept. (John 11:35.)

Number of Years from Creation to the Deluge an Uncertainty.

The Hebrew chronologist states that 1,056 years passed between the creation of Adam and the deluge, the time of Noah.

I do not know whether that Chronology is correct or not. The Septuagint differs, I think, to the extent of eight hundred years.

However, I am absolutely without concern as to Chronology. It is not so much a question as to when a thing happened, but whether it happened.

The man who says that there was no flood has no geological facts to stand on; scientifically he is nowhere.

Possibly the Deluge lies between 1,000 and the 2,400 years after Adam's creation. Perhaps both Hebrew and Greek Chronology are wrong.
THE GRIEF OF GOD CONCERNING MAN. 723

Sixteen hundred years of humanity had only given God Almighty one long grief.

Adam and Eve had gone to the Devil.

Eve's First-born Was an Offspring of the Devil.

I hold to that.
The Apostle John says that he was "of that Wicked One," and slew his brother.

I hold to it that he was an incarnate devil.

There are many incarnate devils; perhaps numbers of them here today.

I desire you to understand this great thought concerning God.

Grief so fills the Father's heart that He is always afflicted intensely by the wickedness of man.

He is our Father, and a good father cannot help but be grieved when his son or daughter is shamefully and wilfully wicked.

I do not understand why some people believe that God is so angry that He punishes man because He is angry.

He punishes man because it is the only thing that can be done to make him good.

Man Sent to Hell to Learn Obedience.

He had to send that whole race to hell to make them good, and it took a long time, too.

We know that they were in hell 2,500 years after they went there; for that whole generation went to hell, with the exception of Noah, his wife, his three sons and their wives.

I am not sure that some of them did not go to hell, because they were very bad.

Even Noah himself, after the flood, faithful amidst a faithless world, got shamefully drunk, and his sons played shameless tricks upon him.

There are very sad stories connected with that family.

I hope that they all repented and got to heaven.

But the Apostle Peter declares that our Lord Jesus, the Christ, preached to the spirits in prison after He went down to hell.

Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unjust, that He might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but quickened in the spirit; in which also He went and preached unto the spirits in prison, which aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.

We have repeated in the Creed today that "He descended into hell," and the Christ never went anywhere except to do good.

The Christ's Mission to Hell.

What did He do in hell?

The Christ does not go anywhere without a good purpose.

He did not need to go to hell unless He willed to do so.

It was the only way to save humanity; the only way to bridge that great gulf which, the Christ Himself said, was impassable between Lazarus and Abraham on the one side, and the Rich Man who lifted up his eyes on the other—in hell.

No man could cross that gulf, and it was never crossed or bridged until the Christ bridged it.

He did bridge it, and preached to the spirits in prison.

They believed Him and He led captivity captive.

I have not the slightest doubt but that vast numbers of those who were disobedient in the days of Noah became obedient under the preaching of the Christ; but they had spent 2,500 years in hell.

Hell is a very sad place in which to spend 2,500 years.

Some of you say, "Oh, well, if a man can be saved eventually, it does not matter if he does go to hell first."

Do you want to go through 2,500 years of hell, when you can go straight to God?

Do you want to go around by way of hell and spend 2,500 years there before you seek the way to heaven?

The disobedient in the time of Noah all went to hell because God said that their hearts were continually evil.

The whole race had gone down to depths of sin unutterable.
It grieved God and yet He sent them to hell, because no matter what He did they would not repent, and it was the only way left to Him: for He never saves people against their will.

Noah, the Prophet, Mocked by the People.

Probably those very carpenters who built Noah's Ark mocked at him, and said: "You old fool, building an ark on dry land, and preaching to us that this world is going to perish by a flood; you old fool.

They took their wages every Saturday night, laughed at the old prophet, and said: "Just think of it. He has been one hundred twenty years building that ark. He has a regular menagerie here, the old fool that he is. Hal! Hal! Hal! He pays good wages, and we will build it for him. It is all right, and you know he preaches earnestly with us and weeps over us, and says that if we do not repent that the flood will come.

"Just think of a flood taking off that old ark. There never was a flood at any time in this valley that would do that."

They laughed and mocked.

They would drink their wine, and dance, and when they wanted a first-class joke they would talk about Dowie. (Laughter.) Ah, I should have said Noah.

Some people today when they want a first-class joke think that I am the fellow to give it to them.

"Have you ever seen Dowie? Did you ever hear him preach, old fool that he is?"

"He thinks that something might happen to Chicago. Hal! Hal! Hal!"

"Think of something happening to Chicago!"

"He actually suggested that if there were a seismic disturbance in the middle of the lake, and the water rose a few feet we might all be drowned. Hal! Hal! Hal!"

Some of them would say that would be the first time that they had taken so much water.

They laughed; they drank; they married; they whored; they were thieves, liars, and murderers until the flood came, and then they laughed no more.

It lasted so long that they did not get out of doors for a few weeks, and some of them began to wonder where the ark was.

They went down to the place where it had been. They found a raging torrent, but no ark.

Some of them went to the tops of the mountains, and saw the ark floating away upon the waters.

The waters rose, and the wild beasts fought with them for the rocks, and the tops of the mountains.

The great serpents coiled around them, bit them and dragged them down, fighting for the tops of the rocks.

They did not laugh then.

It is Dangerous to Mock a Prophet.

Neither will you laugh by-and-by when the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah comes.

You will not laugh, but He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh, and the Lord shall have you in derision.

You who have laughed at God and at His prophet will know then that it does not pay to laugh at prophets.

It is a bad business.

It is not a safe business.

I have never uttered one prediction which has not come true.

I take care that I tell you what God has said.

His Word is very plain.

The Sure Word or Prophecy is the surest thing in all the world, and you will do well to take heed unto it as unto a Light in a Dark Place.

The only thing that God the Almighty could do was to warn humanity, and then when they would not take the warning to let them go to hell.

The only thing that God can do with this world, when He has taken His elect out of it, is to let those in it go to hell.

You will go in a worse way than they who went before, because it will be by fire, no more by flood. The bow in the heavens tells us that.

Astronomers Predict the Destruction of the Earth by Fire.

The astronomer will tell you that, and will tell you, too, that the most certain thing that will happen to this planet will be its burning.

Read Proctor. Read any clear astronomer who looks into the future fate of this planet; read the story as it can be read in the heavens, now; read the story of the disappearance of heavenly bodies by fire.

They have disappeared completely.

Every one knows how easy it would be for this planet to ignite.

Alter the proportions of the various gases composing the atmosphere of the earth in a very slight degree and the world itself would be a rolling sea of fire.

One of the most influential prophets today is a union of oil, water and air; that produces a fire which melts platinum, the hardest metal known, in a few seconds.

The Grief of God compelled Him to condemn man, to sweep him away, and yet to provide a way by which these banished might return.

The Rebellion of God's People Their Destruction.

The rebellion of humanity caused Him again and again to scatter those whom He had blessed, until at last He had to scatter His own ancient people and disperse them amongst the nations.

They sinned, and sinned against God.

The Christ of God Himself said in the Temple at Jerusalem:

Ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of their iniquity. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgment of hell?

They filled up the measure of their iniquity; they crucified the Christ.

Then the judgment came, the eagles were gathered around the carcasses.

The people were scattered for the last time, and they have never been gathered together since.

The time is fast approaching when they will be gathered together, but it will be Israel—the Ten Tribes that will lead the way, and bring back Judah, the Two remaining Tribes.

God Sorrows Over the Disobedient.

The weeping of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, and the Grief of God have continued through all the centuries since the antediluvian period.

God has grieved over humanity's sins for thousands of years.

Do you think that it is no Grief to God that for nineteen centuries they have rejected His Son?

The Shameful Practices of the Apostate Churches.

Do you think that it is no Grief to God that the apostate churches have no living Christ within them?

They have taken a bit of wet flour, stamped it, and said: "This is God."

Hundreds of millions of people have been cursed by sacrificing the Christ over, and over, and over again—He who was once slain for our sins, and can be sacrificed no more.

Do you think that God is not grieved with churches that profess to believe in the Christ and yet will not do as He commanded?

They say that they believe in the Christ and His example, who said when He spoke at Pilate's tribunal:

I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogues and in the temple where all the Jews came together; and in Secret spake I Nothing.

Nevertheless, you Christians, so-called, spend half your nights in Secret Societies, mumbling in the dark and going through the shameful mummeries of Baal-worship brought down from Sidon, Tyre and Phoenicia.

The filthiest forms of Phallic worship are represented by the Masonic emblem, the Point within the Circle.

There is not a man of education here today who does not know that that symbol in Masonry, the Point within the Circle, is the filthiest and most bestial symbol of the Phallic worship of the ancient time.

It is too shameful to speak of.

Still you call yourselves Christians—you Bishops, ministers, officers and members of Apostate churches who wear that emblem on the Devil's aprons when you act as chaplains in the Secret Lodge worship of Baal; for that is Freemasonry.

You go through the sham resurrection of Hiram Abiff, and hold aloft as your emblem the most shameful emblem of the Phallic rites—the most filthy emblem of the Baal-worship.

Do you think that God is not grieved?
Do you think that your Father in heaven has no sorrow as He sees your shameful folly?

Government of Our Cities in the Hands of Corrupt Politicians.

How can God help but grieve when He looks upon these cities, and sees what statesmanship means in municipal politics? Is it not utterly shameful that cities tax the houses of shame, the gambling hells, and the places of evil resort to pay the election expenses of some one?

In Omaha they have made an open business of it.

Taxation of vice is a regular part of the income of the city.

They fine them so much a quarter, which fine maintains the city's power to make roads, bridges, and banquets, and pays fat salaries for filthy officeholders.

They do it in other ways in this city also.

Is it not an utterable shame that in this land so-called Christian, if all the places of worship in this city were crammed, one million and a quarter of people would be outside the churches?

Is it not a shame unutterable that liquor is sold in defiance of law, every saloon being by the law of the State of Illinois engaged in illegal traffic when it sells a drop of liquor on the Lord's Day? And yet every saloon is open in Chicago.

There is no use in saying that it is only the Democratic administration that allows this.

When the Republicans were in office they sold liquor just the same. Swift and Washburn were no better than Harrison in that matter.

They gambled just the same.

The harlot's houses were open just the same.

Disease and sin and vice and murder went on in this way just the same.

We know that surely, like the Christ of old,

The Father Weeps Over These Cities.

What can He do?

He is sending messenger after messenger.

He is pleading with humanity to abandon sin, live purely, and trust Him.

They put their tongues in their cheeks and laugh, and go on in their devilry.

Is there to be no end to it?

Does the Grief of God find no expression in a justifiable indignation and judgment; or is this world forever to be the prey of the saloon-keeper, the gambler, the harlot, and the politician who cares for nothing except his own selfish ends?

There is but little real Christ-like willingness upon the part of competent men to consecrate life, talent and power to the service of the people.

The Shocking Prevalence of Crime and Depravity.

This city, and other cities of this land are, for the most part, run by the World, the Flesh, and the Devil.

The entire world is in a terrible condition.

The names of King Edward VII. and his brother, the Duke of Connaught, are commonly bruit ed about in London as being connected with that scoundrel who was arrested in New York last week, for having stolen a hundred million dollars.

They have not dared to prosecute him, because the scoundrel said openly in London what he said when arrested in America. "I am the friend of the king."

I do not know whether he is or is not, but I do not think that it is unlikely; for the King, when Prince of Wales, was notorious for the infamy of his life.

When he was a student in the University of Edinburgh, of which I also was a student, his conduct was so shameful that when he came down to lay the foundation stone of the Edinburgh Infirmary in 1859, I think, he was hissed in the streets by the students and better class of people.

He had stepped into the witness-box in the famous Lady Mordaunt divorce case and told what all England believed to be a lie.

He had been threatened to be horsewhipped by Charles Mordaunt if he visited his wife again. Nevertheless, he visited her again and again. And when she was delivered of a child, she said what is perfectly certain to be the case, it was not the child of Sir Charles Mordaunt. The present King's own "set" were charged in open court as co-respondents, and if Sir Charles Mordaunt could have got it he would have had the name of Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, in the bill of complaint.

But it was not allowed because no action can lie against either the king or queen or the heir-apparent to the throne.

That is a fact in English law.

The wicked lie that "the king can do no wrong," is not only a theory but it is an axiom of law, although a very foolish one.

I do not know whether the king is connected with this scoundrel Wright or not, who broke the Marquis of Dufferin's heart, and has brought such deep disgrace upon so many innocent men who were associated with him.

I do not think that they will do anything with Wright.

I think that they will be glad to let him go when they get him back to England.

Many are sorry that he has been arrested and sent back.

Some one may force the fight, however, and then revelations may be made which will overturn the Throne.

This state of affairs not only exists in England, but all over Europe. The condition of Austria is unspeakably shameful.

Many Great Disasters Can Be Attributed to Vice.

The murder of the late Crown Prince Rudolph, and the murder subsequently of his mother, the Empress of Austria, are fresh in your memories.

The murder of King Humbert and others, can easily be attributed to politics; but no one attributes the death of the Crown Prince of Austria and the poor Countess with whom he perished, to politics.

Everybody who knows anything about it attributes it to his shameful vices, and to her fall from virtue.

So it is all over Europe today.

The Crown Princess of Saxony is no exception.

The King of Saxony asks his subjects to believe that she is a woman of ungovernable passions, who had fallen long before she went away with that wretched man.

If it is true, why did he not take steps long ago to deal with the woman of ungovernable passions?

But if the King spoke out plainly, he would have to condemn his own family, who have ungovernable passions, too.

He would have to condemn the princes around his throne.

He might have to condemn himself.

If all the princes and princesses of ungovernable passions were expelled from every court in Europe, how many would be left?

The World, for the Most Part, Ruled by Absolute Men.

America is, I believe, an exception in its Chief Executive.

There is no question as to President Roosevelt's purity, manliness and integrity.

Nevertheless, if you visit Washington and talk confidentially with Senators and Congressmen, or people of any rank, they will tell you how rotten to the very core Washington is.

It is the most immoral den in America, full of harlots and inconceivable vices.

I was never so ashamed of my humanity as when a gentleman made that assertion to me, and I replied: "My dear sir, you will excuse me, but I have looked upon Washington as one of the cleanest cities in the United States, and I must say that I think there is exaggeration in your statement."

The gentleman had lived in Washington for more than forty-five years.

He was a business man on Pennsylvania Avenue, which is the principal Avenue of the City, connecting the Capitol and White House.

"Dr. Dowie," he said, "can you spare me half an hour?"

"I heard you preach last night in the National theatre, and I was very much impressed. I do not want you to think that I am guilty of exaggeration."

"I am a Christian man, and I am talking in truth and soberness."

He asked if I would walk two or three blocks behind his place of business in Pennsylvania avenue, into Hooker's Division.

"You will never forget what you see," he said.

The Immorality at the Capitol the Nation's Shame.

"Why is it called Hooker's Division?" I asked.

"Because Hooker's Division of the Army of the Potomac was encamped there during the War of the Rebellion, and when a great battle was about to be fought they had to get many hundreds of Hooker's men out of the houses of ill fame in that district.
I said: "Are these dens of infamy still there?"
"Come and see," he replied.
I do not like these kind of visits.
I do not like to go where the Devil is, but it was broad daylight, and I went, stipulating that we should only walk through the streets and lanes.
I was never so ashamed of my humanity in all my life.
I will not attempt to describe what I saw within two blocks of Pennsylvania avenue.
The horrible depravity of the City of Washington, in Hooker's Division, is known to the Congress that tolerates it, because it is looked upon as essential to let the clerks and others who have distant homes dissipate in the damning vices of the capital of the nation, and I declare that Congress, which by its Commissioners directly rules the District of Columbia, is wholly responsible for this permitted and even protected condition of crime, disease and unspeakable infamy and degration.
I fling the charge at Washington today.
I say that from Washington to Chicago, and from Chicago to San Francisco the whole land is rotten with immorality.
Shameful immorality is not only tolerated but is protected by law.
Will God endure that forever?
Will God forever tolerate nations whose great capitals are steeped in vice?
The Christ who wept over Jerusalem weeps over these cities.
That which happened in Chicago also happened in Waterbury quite recently.
There an innocent police officer was dragged from the streets and delivered to the criminal courts.
There many hundreds of Hooker's men out of the houses of ill fame were disencumbered of their freedom.
A terrible case of murder occurred in the next block.
After "Sin no more" had been sung, service closed with the Benediction by the General Overseer.

Sinning Against Knowledge of the Truth.
There is none so vile and none so low as you who know better and still do wrong.
There is more excuse for the poor victim of vice who never knew virtue; for the poor victim of stealing who never drew an honest breath, who was born in sin, conceived in iniquity, and steeped in vice?
So much more excuse for the poor victim of stealing who never drew an honest breath, who was born in sin, conceived in iniquity, and steeped in vice?店

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.
My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am.
Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me a true repentance.
Give me power to restore, and to confess to those whom I have wronged, and to Thee, my God. Help me to trust in the Christ, the Messiah, the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world, the sickness of the world, and the sorrow of the world. For His sake take me, cleanse me from sin, and from the powers of disease, and evil of all kinds. When I leave this body may I go to dwell with Thee, and with those who have loved Thee and served Thee, and maintained Thy cause and Kingdom on this earth.
For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

General Overseer—Did you mean it?
Audience—"Yes."
General Overseer—Will you live it?
Audience—"Yes."
General Overseer—Then God help you.
After "Sin no more" had been sung, service closed with the Benediction by the General Overseer.

Benediction.
Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.
The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

it is possible to get an order; if not, it is much safer to register the letter containing the bills.
NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclisastical Secretary

Resist the Devil. Fight the good fight of faith. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, But against the principalities, against the powers, Against the world rulers of this darkness, Against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in heavenly places.

Zion in Benton Harbor sees more and more clearly that true Christianity consists in opposing evil as much as in doing right, writes Elder Adams. Not only must we build up the walls of Zion, but we must tear down Jericho.

While we bear witness to the wonderful work of God in healing the sick, we also "testify against" the barbaric and materialistic practice of medicine and surgery. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

Recently a movement was started in this city in favor of a new and larger surgical hospital.

We at once protested against this proposal from the pulpit, and by writing an article for the press, which the Evening News printed in part.

The people of Benton Harbor are waking up to the realization that medical practice is a gigantic mass of falsehood and fraudulent imposition, contrary to nature, reason and the Word of God.

It is a fact that over five hundred residents of Berrien county died last year under the treatments and medication of the best doctors of the county.

The city is much stirred over the hospital question, and the number of people who have lost all faith in medicine is increasing daily.

Zion is winning. The Christ is Conqueror.

We have now thirty members of Zion Restoration Host enrolled in Benton Harbor and are making use of tens of thousands of Restoration Messages.

The following is a testimony to God's blessing:

Ben MacDuh, Montague, Michigan. March 5, 1903.

Dear Elder:—I praise and thank God for the healing I have received in answer to your prayers. For about five months I had been bothered at night with severe pains in the bowels. I was kept awake sometimes for several hours.

I was delivered from these pains several times in answer to your prayers, but I did not send in my testimony, and consequently lost the healing which God had given me.

I might add that the above trouble was caused by eating too many peaches. I thoroughly repented of my sin before I received any blessing.

I also praise and thank God for other healings which I have received recently in answer to prayer. Thanking God for His blessings, and you for your prayers I am,

Your brother in the Christ, Lewis H. Wisk.

Newton, Iowa.

Deaconess-in-charge, Mrs. Minerva Pardoe.

July 3, 1900, a Zion Gathering was organized with F. T. Patterson, who is now Manager of Zion's Bureau of Employment, and Agent of American Express company in Zion City, as Conductor.

Since our organization there has been much seed-sowing done through the distribution of literature, which is the mightiest agency that God has set in action in this great work of Restoration.

In the last year we have sent out 2,090 LEAVES OF HEALING and BANNERS.

Three families have moved to Zion City and several more are going as soon as they can dispose of their property. We want to have our part in building this "City of God."

We have been greatly blessed in having Overseer Mason, Deacon Sloan and Elder Fockler with us for a short time, the latter being with us in December.

He held two services on Sunday and a Baptismal service on the following Monday at which time he baptized eight persons and received three applications for membership.

The Lord was with us in the power of the Spirit, and although the weather was very unfavorable, a number who knew but little about Zion, came to hear the Elder. They listened attentively to his teaching.

We have no members who do not tithe. One person pays who is not a member. Our people rely wholly upon God as their Healer.

Our audiences are very attentive.

Our record shows nineteen healings for the year. The Lord has fulfilled His promises to us as we have obeyed Him.

We have no members who do not tithe. One person pays who is not a member. Our people rely wholly upon God as their Healer.

Our audiences are very attentive.

Our records show fourteen healings for the year. The Lord has fulfilled His promises to us as we have obeyed Him.

We have a neat, comfortable Tabernacle on the south side of the square.

We hold an afternoon's service during the last month.

Seven of these were baptized and twenty-four claimed to have received healing.

We have a mid-week prayer-meeting and have held a number of cottage-meetings.

We take great delight in "searching the Scriptures," and in the light of Zion's teaching the Bible has become a New Book.

We have sustained losses however, by many leaving the city.

Our audience is very attentive. Some of our members are gaining an extensive, practical knowledge of the Bible.

Our Zion Restoration Host numbers thirty-three.

About one-half of these do house-to-house work each Sabbath morning under the leadership of Deacon Splete.

These Sabbath morning labors during the month of January reached in the aggregate one thousand one hundred thirty-six (1,136) calls and distributed five hundred thirty-five Leaves of Healing, and eight hundred thirteen Messages.

This is in addition to the house-to-house work done by the Restoration Host, on the other days of the week.

The Lord's Day morning work is done before the service which is held at 10:30. The chief service of the day is at 2:30 p.m. in the Tabernacle, at No. 92 Ontario street.

Seven have begun the Christian life during the last month.

Seven were baptized and twenty-four claimed to have received healing.

The healings have numbered from fifteen to thirty each month for many months.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, March 19, 1903.

We think it would be difficult to find a city in the United States where the people are more difficult to reach than in Cleveland.

Christianity prevails, but Christianity is very weak; in fact, nearly a minus quantity.

It seems to us that forms of godliness are so numerous, and real Christian experience so rare, that the general consensus of opinion is that the mere statements of the Bible are not sufficient ground upon which to raise an issue, and that no man should be reproved in matters of religion, as that is only a question of opinion, without real significance.

People do not seem more conscious that there is any real truth of God within reach, than was Pilate when he impudently replied to Jesus, “What is Truth?”

Cleveland is not a propitious field for rapid religious growth, but there are those here and there who are willing to obey God, and therefore Zion goes steadily forward.

Upon invitation we visited Everett, Ohio, and held three services.

All the attendance seemed to appreciate the services, except an officer of the Disciple Church, where the services were conducted.

He was very angry because I did not know that “the days of miracles are past.”

I think the people there would willingly accept the Full Gospel if they had a chance to hear it.

We have many invitations to hold services at places where there are a few members or friends of Zion, but we can respond to very few of these calls.

LEAVES OF HEALING is the most effective means of help we can give.

We can always send the Little White Dove where we cannot go.

May God bless it to those who receive it.

Toronto, Ontario.

Zion Tabernacle, corner Queen and Victoria streets.

Elder-in-Charge, Rev. Eugene Brooks, 137 Markham street.

Services—Sunday, 1:30 and 2:30 p.m.; Tuesday, 2:30 p.m.; Thursday, 8:00 p.m.

We arrived in this city of churches and doctors, October 25, 1902, writes Elder Brooks, and found our little Zion gathering planted in the very heart of the city.

David-like, it lifted itself up in the center of conflict, before this mailed giant, with its two hundred and sixty thousand heads, and there it still stands, thundering with the voice of Authority: You have “defied the Armies of the living God.”

The big fellow has not touched us, but he has just looked on with a little contempt, and cursed us “in the name of his god” now and then.

We have distributed scores of messages on the street-cars.

A lady tore the message in two and threw it down before us, which made us think that the Devil might awake after a while.

We have been kindly received and many doors have been opened which we could not enter.

This city is remarkable, not only for its fine churches and doctors, but also for its morality and religion.

We are under no delusion as to the thinness of that veil, knowing, as we do, that it is largely of the “Athenian” character, “too religious,” for it is the polite and proper thing to be religious in this city.

Notwithstanding this, there are many who “feeling after God” through the mummeries of their churches and the mumblings of their creeds.

Because of this fact, this city has become a fertile soil for the “Holy Anna” and “Cyclone Thomases.”

It is also seriously afflicted with an epidemic of “healers”—Christian Science, Christian Alliance, Christian Workers, Independent Churches, Independent and City Missions of all descriptions and kinds, with every phase of error, on Divine Healing.

Our Restoration Host is doing good work.

The following is the monthly report of two of our Restorationists:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total number reached</th>
<th>500</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Leaves sold</td>
<td>123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number prayed with</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number helped</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We had only three members of the Host when we came.

Now we have fourteen, and more will follow.

God is blessing, and the work is growing.

Our first audience has doubled itself three times.

Our offerings have been doubled four times.

Deaconess Burgess has been of inestimable blessing to this work.

God has honored her ministry and I hear many expressions of gratitude to her, as well as testimonies to answered prayer.

Our literature order has increased threefold.

We have received one thousand three hundred forty-three (1,343) tracts and our sales have increased threefold.

We can have the church for Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons only, but we hold seven services during the week by meeting elsewhere.

Our testimony meeting last Sunday was intensely interesting.

Evidences of blessing were heard all along the line.

One young lady who had asked us to pray that she might find a position, testified that at the very first place which she visited, she secured a position.

Mrs. L. L. Finch told of a battle and victory which she had had with the demon of hemorrhage, from nine in the morning until five in the evening.

She had no one to send for the Elder and had to fight it out alone.

Another young lady, not a member of Zion, told how God had answered her prayers for work that she might attend Zion College.

A brother, not a member of Zion, who came over a hundred miles to attend our meetings, told how God had healed him of salt rheum.

Through a false idea of being neighborly, he had helped in killing hogs and the disease had returned, but God had taken nearly all of it away again.

We cannot begin to declare all of God’s wondrous grace and blessings to us.

We cannot begin to respond to all the requests given or sent us to visit the sick.

If there were twenty Elders instead of one we would be kept busy, for calls are also coming from various Gatherings around Toronto to visit them.

Verily the fields are “white already unto harvest.”

One remarkable thing has been the goodness of our God in answering prayer for those who knew little or nothing of Divine Healing.

It has convinced us that “we make His love too narrow by false limits of our own.”

As our beloved General Overseer has said “we lay down too many conditions.”

My first experience was with the son of a Baptist preacher.

I had visited the widowed mother who said, “I do not think much of you people.”

That streak of honesty made me think more of her.

I visited her son on Monday.

He was to have been operated upon on the following Wednesday.

The vertebrae of his back were decaying and had produced a running sore of six years’ standing.

He was not a Christian, and could not see Divine Healing.

I went back to the mother and said, “Your son does not see Divine Healing, nor does he seem to care about God, but God will hear and answer our prayer.”

We prayed that God would not let the doctors put a knife into his body, and they never did.

The next time I saw the mother she said she had asked the doctors why they did not operate and they said, “Something seems to be growing over the bone. A
He asked for Leaves of Healing. Zion has surely come to the Kingdom for such a time as this.

If we should fail God will certainly raise up deliverance from another source. We send a hearty appeal to all Zion to bear us up before God for grace to labor, love and suffer "Till He Come."

Omaha, Nebraska.

It is interesting to note the development of Zion in places where no officer is in charge.

Some one receives a copy of Leaves of Healing sent by a friend. He reads it, believes it, subscribes for a year, and the longer he reads the more interested he becomes. He lends his papers to his neighbors; some ridicule, but some believe.

A little later, applications for fellowship are sent in.

As soon as we have three or four members of Zion, a Gathering is organized, a Conductor is appointed, and regular meetings are held.

God blesses, the Gathering increases in numbers and spiritual power. A Deacon is ordained and placed in charge. The Gathering then becomes a Branch.

God blesses the faithful ministry of the Deacon-in-charge. The Branch continues to grow. At last its needs become so great that it becomes necessary to place an Elder in charge.

We record with pleasure the following beginning in Omaha. Elder Hoy writes as follows:

DEAR ELDER: I returned yesterday afternoon from a two days' trip to Omaha. We have had continuous correspondence with Daniel W. Lehnig, who recently became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and perfected arrangements to hold meetings Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 29th and 30th, in Washington hall.

Brother Lehnig placed the notices in three daily newspapers, and did considerable Seventy work over Sunday.

I prayed earnestly that God would burn the Message into the hearts of those present, and I am happy to report two conversions as a result of the meetings.

Mr. Lyttle and Mr. Stone, of whom I wrote in a former letter, requesting prayer that their spiritual convictions might be deepen, both joined the Gathering that night.

I visited one of the large department stores of the city.

Before presenting my card and making myself known, I inquired if they had Zion laces for sale.

“Yes,” replied the lace buyer, “and they are fine; won't you look at them?”

In further conversation he said, “Dowie certainly has the bulge in the lace trade if his curtains are as fine as his insertions.”

I asked him what he had done with the large picture of the General Overseer that he displayed amid the lace.

“Brother, we are keeping that to display with the lace curtains when we get them next month,” he replied.

* Did you find the smaller laces saleable this time of the year?

* Oh, yes,” he said, “we soon disposed of over $4,000 worth, and are now out of some patterns.”

He then showed me a large envelope which they use in many ways with a fine "ad" for the lace curtains.

He said they had spent $800 in advertising the lace, and found it paid them; that they would spend double that amount in advertising the lace curtains when they came.

He asked many questions about Zion and Zion City, of which he had never heard until the Zion lace was brought to his notice.

I told him that over $15,000 had recently been subscribed for new lace stock, which would all be put into new machinery.

He replied, “I am glad to hear that. We will be glad to get a complete line of Zion laces.”

* But, I asked, “Do you know that other Omaha houses are after Zion laces also?”

* Yes, we have heard it,” he said, “but will do our best to keep the exclusive sale of Zion laces.”

* Faithfully yours Till He Come.

CHARLES A. HOY.
Go ye into all the World and preach the Gospel, to the whole creation.—Mark 16: 15.

W HAT a wonderful Commission this is. It is the command of the Son of God to proclaim the good news of Salvation throughout the whole world.

The Gospel is indeed good news.

The Scripture says: "As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country."

There are thousands today who are thirsting after righteousness.

To them the good news comes from a Far Country—from the land where there is neither sorrow nor sadness, sickness nor death.

It comes from the abode of our Heavenly Father who so loved us that He sent His only Son to redeem us from our iniquities, and to bring us back into perfect harmony with Himself.

The Christ came to proclaim this good news unto us.

Before He returned to the Far Country, unto His Father's house, He poured out upon His disciples the promise of the Father, that in the fulness of the power of God they might proclaim this same Everlasting Gospel.

Not only was the Gospel to be proclaimed by the original twelve, but by their successors, since the Apostolic Office is perpetual.

In these wonderful "Times of Restoration of All Things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His Holy Prophets which have been since the world began," God has called and sent forth an Apostle.

True to his apostolic calling, he proclaims the Everlasting Gospel to the whole world.

Carried by the Little White Dove, Leaves of Healing, it is scattered throughout the inhabited globe.

The weekly discourses delivered in the Chicago Auditorium are thus brought to the inhabitants of every land.

Not only is he whom God hath called to proclaim the Gospel of the Son of God, doing this by the printed page, but he has already proclaimed it in person to three of the six continents of the earth.

Even before the Christian Catholic Church in Zion was formed, he proclaimed this Gospel in the beautiful land of the Southern Cross, Australasia.

God wonderfully blessed his labors in that Continent.

Thence he came to America, and from the East to the West the Gospel has been proclaimed by him in person.

He also planted the Banner of Zion in Europe, and God is greatly blessing the branches of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion which have been established there.

Although the truths of Zion are now being proclaimed in Asia, Africa, and South America through the printed page, the General Overseer will no doubt proclaim it in these countries in person.

That multitudes in every land are being saved, healed and cleansed, is evidenced by the communications which reach the General Overseer from the whole world.

We take pleasure in printing the following excerpts:

Healed of Jaundice.

Who art thou that givest me assistance? I should have been beyond all hope. But when I had no friend, and no man cared for me, my case seemed hopeless. My body was covered with a greenish disfigurement, which was pitiful to look upon. My liver was diseased, and I was in the last stage of jaundice. Everything seemed to be against me. I had lost both husband and home, and the fever was breaking me down. But God, in His infinite mercy, did not leave me in despair. He sent a minister of Grace to visit me, and He gave me the true Gospel, and I have been well ever since. I, now, thank God for His mercies to me, and I am thankful that I was saved.

Your sister in the Christ,

ELIZABETH PINNEY.

Mother and Child Healed as Soon as Request was Sent to the General Overseer.

And it shall come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.—Isaiah 65: 24.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, OHIO. March 4, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am in receipt of your kind letter of February 29th in answer to my request for prayer for my dear wife and baby. They were both quite ill with grip, but, praise God, they were delivered as soon as I decided to send the request to you. Today they are feeling perfectly well. We praise God and give Him all the glory, and thank you for your prayers.

Your brother in the Christ,

E. E. LEMARR.

Deliverance in Childbirth, and Children Healed.

Lo, children are an heritage of Jehovah; and the fruit of the womb is His reward.—Psalm 127: 3.

2109 GABRIEL AVENUE, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS. March 2, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER AND OVERSEER JANE DOWDE:—With a heart full of thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for His goodness and mercy to me, I send you this testimony.

He tried many times to rob me of her during the time of gestation. I can also witness to a perfect delivery. I also wish to say that God has many times healed us since we accepted Him as our Physician through your teaching in 1895.

The children have been healed of measles, whooping-cough and other complaints. One of them was healed of a severe case of bloody flux the summer she was three years old.

She is now being greatly blessed.

The last few days they are all fastening nicely.

Thank you for sending you and your dear wife to teach us the Bible so plainly.

May God keep you from every power of the enemy.

Yours Till He Come,

MRS. F. F. ANGELO.

Healed of Fever and Kept from Smallpox.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day; nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.—Psalm 91: 5, 6.

ULYSSES, IOWA. February 2, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty to testify to what God has done for me.

I have been blessed spiritually, physically and financially.

I have experienced a great change for the better since you have prayed for me, for which I praise God more than for all other blessings.

I still need more light and more prayers.

Last summer in August I was stricken down with mountain fever. I grew worse rapidly until the eightieth day when my heart failed so that I had to be fanned for nearly twelve hours to enable me to get my breath.

In answer to my wife's prayer I fell into a round, peaceful sleep, and improved rapidly from that time.

We sent a request for prayer to Zion, and you all prayed for me.

In less than two weeks I was able to be out of doors.

About six weeks ago I was exposed to smallpox. I sent a request for prayer.

I had a headache only half a day, and felt weak for about two days.

I also took a very bad cold about two weeks ago and my lungs were so sore that I could scarcely breathe.

My wife prayed for me, and I prayed, and in four hours my lungs were clear, and the soreness all gone.

I praise God for it all and thank you for your prayers, and for teaching us the full Gospel.

Your brother in the Christ,

FRANK R. MARSH.
I am hard of hearing, but in other ways I am perfectly healed.
I praise God for Zion.
May He spare you till He come.
(Mrs.) Catherine Wells.

God Heals Both Old and Young.

Mrs. Charlotte Dinnsee, of 840 Chaucney avenue, Chicago, writing under date of March 5, 1903, says:
I have the great joy of telling you that after you prayed for my little daughter Martha last fall, when she was suffering from worms, she was perfectly healed.
She has been well ever since; for which I am ever thankful to our Heavenly Father, and you for your kindness and love to us.

Jennie Wells, of South Franklin, Michigan, writing under date of March 5, 1903, says, among other things:
We heartily thank you for praying that Grandma Shirley might be delivered of the tobacco habit.
He has not touched it for two weeks, and the appetite is gone.

Child Healed When Near Death's Door.

Even so it is not the Will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.—Matthew 18:14.

Belle, South Dakota, February 23, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I wrote you twice for prayer for my children, and I am grateful to God for His mercy, and to you for prayer.
On Friday, toward evening, Harold was very sick.
It seemed that he was near death.
I prayed, but he did not improve.
These words came to me more than once, "The battle is not yours, but the Lord's."

I felt help would come soon.
I think that you prayed for them at 9 o'clock for they all felt so much better.
Harold got up and wanted something to eat.
They are all well now, and have started to school again.
I was so glad that you prayed.
Yours till He come,
(Mrs.) A. L. Gilgore.

He Brought Her to Zion.

And I say unto you, . . . seek, and ye shall find.—Luke 11:30.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, MARCH 2, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with praise and thanksgiving in my heart that I speak of God's great goodness to me.
He has led me into the Church that I have been seeking for the past five years.
He has also made it possible for me to live in the City of Zion, where all the evil of the great cities are positively forbidden, and where laws are enforced.
In obedience to Baptism last July, I was healed of very weak eyes, severe stomach trouble and other afflictions.
May God's choicest blessings rest upon you and your dear family, and may He bless you in this great and noble work.
Yours in the Master's service,
(Miss) Edna H. Potter.

Healed of Sickness of Four Years' Standing.

Milan, Michigan, March 9, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—It is such a blessing that we can write you last January, asking you to pray for me, as I was suffering from a trouble I had had since the birth of my last baby, four years ago.
I praise God for His goodness to me, for He graciously healed me.
We feel that it is such a blessing that we can call upon God for everything in this life.
May God bless and keep you and Overseer Jane Dowie for many years.
Your sister in the Christ,
(Mrs.) Jonathan Wardle.

Garments.

A body without blemish a necessityfor priestly service.—Leviticus

21: 16-23.
God's ministry must be blameless.
God cannot usea decrepit body in healing others.
The spirit, soul and body must be perfected.
The bodyis not to be robbed of God-given adornment or protection.
Energy of the body is lost in many ways.
Shaving is an injury to the nervous system.
God put all the bald spots in the right place.
The hair shall be moderatelytrimmed, neither worn long nor short.
— Ezekiel 44:
ir^-31.
A moderately cut hirsute is proper.
God's ministry are to set holy examples.
There are other things as bad as a shaven head and face.
The bodyshall not beclothed with goods of mixed or inferior quality.
— Deuteronomy 22:5-12.
God is not in the shoddy clothing business.
The body must have proper protection.
Sickness comes through thoughtlessnessin clothing.
Special garments should beprepared which pertain to priestly offices.
— Exodus 28:40-43.
God's ministers require an official dress.
When they minister they wear them.
God requires order about His business.
They shall comedown in a long skirt covering thebody.— Psalm 132:1-3.
The specific manner of dress is given.
Dress cannot, however, take the place of ability.
God can bless and does honor priestly robes.
A bove all onemustbeclothedwith authority from God tobeHis servant.
The girdle of truth must be about one.
Power must be delegated from God.
One must first be the servant of God, then of the church.
One must also beclothed with humility to exercise this authority. — 1
Peter 5: 1-5.
Spiritful pride is sinful before God.
Greatness does not consist in authority, but service.
The man who feeds the flock is greater than he who rules,
Also unquestionablymust one beclothed with salvation, which in value is above all else.— 2 Chronicles 6: 40-42.
A man can tell out only what God has wrought in.
A man must think of salvation, not of his robe.
An anointed head is essential to a prepared heart.
The Lord our God is a Ministry-clothing God.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:— The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

AS FAR AS POSSIBLE THE APPLICANT HIMSELF SHOULD FILL OUT THIS BLANK. WRITE PLAINLY AND WITH INK.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Ty shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, come ye and join yourselves to Jehovah in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten."

On Wednesday last, in Zion Council Room, Administration Building, Zion City, we had the joy of receiving, with our dear Wife and Son, a party of twenty-six, who had come to Zion City from Australia.

Eleven of these had just arrived, and the remainder had come at various times within the past year.

Fifteen more are on the Ocean from Sydney, New South Wales, to Vancouver, British Columbia, en route for Zion City; and we hear of about thirty others who are intending to follow in a short time.

It was most interesting to receive these beloved Brethren and Sisters and their dear Children, who had come so many thousands of miles from the lovely Island Continent where we had spent so many years of ministry for the Lord, and where our dear Wife and Son were born.

Almost every day brings tidings of little Bands who are setting out for Zion City, from the East and from the West, from the North and from the South, and already they are beginning to arrive in considerable numbers.

It may truly be said that Thousands and Tens of Thousands are asking their way to "Zion with their faces thitherward," and with a full understanding that in this City we are joined together unto Jehovah in the Glorious Everlasting Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, which the Christ has established through the Preaching of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

Wearied and Afflicted, Tempest-Tossed and Uncomforted, multitudes of Israel and Judah are "going on their way, weeping and seeking Jehovah their God."
REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE
General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion
And when they hear the voice from Zion, of Elijah the Restorer, no matter in what Tribe or Nation they may be or in what Language the Message reaches them, there is but one feeling in the hearts of nearly all the true Children of God, and that is an intense desire to see the City of Zion.

Thousands and tens of thousands become determined to cast in their lot and live out their lives with God's people here.

MY PEOPLE hath been Lost Sheep:
Their Shepherds have caused them to go astray,
They have turned them away on the mountains;
They have gone from Mountain to Hill,
They have forgotten their Resting Place.

HOW FULLY these words are fulfilled, alas, in the experience of vast numbers of God's Children in all the ages, and how applicable to the present day are the words used by St. Matthew to describe our Lord's earthly ministry:

And Jesus went about in all Galilee,
Teaching in their Synagogues,
And preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom,
And healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

But when He saw the multitudes,
He was moved with compassion for them,
Because they were tired and lay down (margin)
As sheep not having a Shepherd.

IT IS VAIN any longer to raise the shameful and unfounded cry of Deceit, Delusion or Devilry.

"BY THEIR FRUITS ye shall know them."
Men do not gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles.
Every tree is known by its fruit.
The fruits in Zion are beyond all question "the Fruit of the Spirit," and not the works of the flesh.

THE WORKS of the Flesh are "Fornication, Usuality, Lasciviousness, Idolatry, Sorcery (Pharmacy—pharmakeia—pharmakeia—drug poisoning), Enmities, Strife, Jealousies, Wraths, Factions, Divisions, Heresies, Envyings, Drunkenness, Revelings, and such like."

NOT ONE of these shameful things is tolerated for a moment in Zion City.
We believe the words of the Apostle who gives that catalogue of the Works of the Flesh, "that they which practice such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God."

But "the Fruit of the Spirit" abounds in Zion.
Without vain glory we can say that "we live by the Spirit and walk by the Spirit" to the uttermost extent of our power.
In Zion City we bear one another's burdens, "and so fulfill the Law of the Christ."
In all things we desire to crucify "the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof."
In Zion City we work as we have opportunity "that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the Household of the Faith."

The Fruit of the Spirit is Love, Joy, Peace,
Longsuffering, Kindness, Goodness,
Faithfulness, Meekness, Temperance:
Against such there is No Law.
IT IS FITTING, as we are entering into the second Spring and Summer since the opening of the City and the Organization of its Government, that we should say, as we truly can, that there is not known to be in this City, at this moment, a single man, woman, youth or maiden, living in known violation of the Laws of God.

On the contrary, with all our imperfections, we are without exception a community of people who are seeking to glorify God and be a blessing to all men in all conditions and in all lands.

IT IS OUR JOY to write these facts and to declare with Thanksgiving that our highest hopes and expectations in founding Zion City have been thus far greatly exceeded.

It was not possible for us to have conceived the thought that in so short a time the City would have become so beautiful in all that constitutes real moral and spiritual beauty, and even in material attraction, as it undoubtedly is today.

Our critics and enemies themselves witness that, considering its age, it is a city without a peer, in any period of the world's history.

TO GOD ALONE BE ALL THE GLORY.

THE REMARK is often made by those who live in Zion City, that if God's true people in general only knew the joy of dwelling in an atmosphere so exhilarating and so pure materially, morally, commercially and spiritually, the City would be flooded within this year with hundreds of thousands of intelligent, earnest and consecrated Christians who would bring skill, courage, perseverance and vast wealth into Zion.

TO GOD ALONE BE ALL THE GLORY.

WHAT A WONDERFUL THOUGHT it is that even the New Shiloh Tabernacle, for which we are just beginning to dig the foundations, will probably be too small within a year or two of its opening.

And yet we expect it to have seating accommodation for sixteen thousand (16,000).

WHEN WE LOOK around and behold the many large Public Buildings, which had no existence whatever a year ago, such as the magnificent First Section of our Zion College Building, substantially built of brick and stone; the Three Large Beautiful Schoolhouses; the attractive Elijah Hospice; the Administration Building; the enlarged Zion City General Stores and Fresh Food Supply; the new Railway Depot, and the large number of beautiful little Cottages, worth a few hundred dollars, up to beautiful Houses costing as high as $30,000; when we see the throngs of happy children and young men and women who gather in our Public Schools and College; when we see the many new Manufacturing and Commercial Institutions established within the year, such as Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, which is probably destined to be the greatest of all Zion's Enterprises; and when we remember that from Zion City we have already sent forth Overseers, Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, and great companies of Zion Restoration Host, who have reached Hundreds of Thousands, and even millions, with the Everlasting Gospel—it is simply overwhelming, and would be incredible even to us who, with the thousands around us, have been used of God, in doing this work for God, were it not that Every Morning's Sun as it rises up out of the Great Beautiful Lake on the shores of which our City is built, reveals to us the Wonderful Fact that the CITY OF ZION is here, and that it is a STUPENDOUS REALITY.
WE FEEL, HOWEVER, that all our words are faint and feeble to express what Zion City really is.

When we asked the Australian Party in our Council Room last Wednesday, as to whether there was any sense of disappointment to their expectations in their first impressions of Zion City, the answer came immediately from the lips of Deacon McEwen, "No, General Overseer; we only say that the half has not been told!"

WE FEEL IT RIGHT to pen these words in gratitude to God, and in encouragement to those whose faces are set Zionward.

Thousands and tens of thousands are bringing their lives, and their all, into this City of God, and joining with us in that Everlasting Covenant, which can never be forgotten.

It is fitting that we should say to all who come, after due consideration, prayer, and correspondence with us at Headquarters—"Come with fullest confidence: for the Prophetic Promise is fulfilled, Jehovah dwelleth in Zion."

AMONG THE WONDERFUL THINGS that we must not forget to mention in connection with Zion City, is the fact that Zion City Postoffice, which had no existence a year ago, having only been opened on April 11, 1902, although it was gazetted in Washington on March 22d, has now attained what we are informed is a position without precedent within the time.

Our one-year-old Postoffice was rated in the humblest class, as a Fourth Class office.

It has now reached the position which enables us to ask from the authorities at Washington a rating as a Second Class Postoffice, with Letter Carrier Delivery throughout the city.

THIS POSITION was attained by the postal business reaching the sum of $10,300, without the aid of Zion Printing and Publishing House, whose postal business has been done in Chicago.

WHAT WILL Zion Postoffice be within a year? is the question being now often asked.

Will it be a First Class Office?

It requires a business of $40,000, and this we venture to say we shall probably attain within one year from this date.

ONE OF THE remarkable characteristics of our people in the City of Zion is their intense desire to interest their friends and neighbors in all parts of this Continent and throughout the World in the work of God in Zion.

Hence the correspondence, registration, money order, and literature business of the office is very great, both incoming and outgoing.

When Zion Printing and Publishing House is removed to this city on May 1st next, the business of Zion City Postoffice will at once double; and, if we only double the entire business during the eleven months following that date, we shall have Zion City Postoffice listed among the First Class Postoffices of the United States in April, 1904.

DEACON GEORGE WIEDMAN has done splendid service at Postmaster, and has been ably supported by his small but excellent staff.

The present office, however, has become altogether too small for the work and they are literally crowded out.

We have directed, therefore, during the past week, the construction of a new Postoffice, in Elijah avenue, in a position that will be central to the business portion of the city, for which plans had been prepared.

WITHIN ANOTHER YEAR, we hope to be able to knock at the door of Congress with a request for an Appropriation of not less than $100,000 for the building of a large and permanent Postoffice building, on a site which we have reserved for that purpose. We ought to get it without delay.

MUCH CAREFUL work has been done during the past week in the final completion of the plans for the new Shiloh Tabernacle, and operations have been begun upon the site and will be pushed rapidly forward.

WE HAVE ARRANGED with the Chicago & North-Western Railway to construct a number of long railway switches into Zion City.

One of these, extending in a northwesterly direction on the north side of Caledonia avenue will enter Shiloh Park, not far from Zion College, and, skirting Shiloh Grove to the east of Zion Temple Site, will terminate at the new Shiloh Tabernacle, which is northwest of the present Tabernacle.

This long switch will be used in the delivery of immense quantities of steel, brick, stone, lumber and other material for the erection of the new House of God.

ANOTHER SWITCH is being constructed in a northeasterly direction to the site of the new Zion Printing and Publishing House at Deborah avenue and Shiloh boulevard, so that the immense quantities of machinery and type, and a newly-purchased electrotyping plant, may be carried there directly from the main line of the railway, without transfer by wagon.

The removal of the plant and stock from 1300 Michigan avenue is an undertaking involving very much labor and care, but the railway facilities which we have, and the excellent disposition of the authorities of the Chicago & North-Western railway, make our task much easier than it otherwise would be.

Yet in the removal of so much complicated and delicate machinery there is considerable risk, and we earnestly ask the prayers of our people everywhere, that the transfer may be accomplished without injury to any one engaged in it, and without damage to the beautiful plant with the type and machinery of which we print these pages.

When we look at the Plan of the new Zion Printing and Publishing House, a photo-engraving of the perspective of which we present our readers on the front page of this number, it calls forth our heartiest thanksgiving to God in expressions of wonder and love and praise.

Less than nine years ago this immensely powerful arm of Zion's Operations had no existence.

How wonderfully God has blessed us in using this Latter Day power to send forth hundreds of millions of pages of Zion Literature to every Continent of the World and many of the Islands of the Sea.

We are glad to be able to announce to the members of Zion Restoration Host that the long fight for the Low Rate for the round trip from Zion City to New York City next October has now ended with very great success on our side.

On Tuesday last we sent Deacon J. F. Peters, General Superintendent of Zion's Transportation and Railway Affairs, accompanied by Deacon Carl F. Stern, our Personal Confidential Attendant, to New York City to meet with the Commissioner and members of the Joint-Line Passenger Association, which had arranged to consider the unanimous decision of the Central Passenger Association at Chicago, for a Rate of $14.50 from Chicago and return, and for $15 from Zion City and return. This rate has now been confirmed as the following telegram shows:

NEW YORK, April 2, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Zion City, Illinois.
Meeting of Joint Line Association this afternoon. Rate—Chicago and return $14.50; Zion City and return $15.00.
Passed unanimously.
(Signed) J. F. PETERS.

Deacon Peters will remain in New York to draw up the proper Contracts consequent upon this decision, and to bring them to Zion City for our approval and signature.

Then the transaction will be finally completed.

We are glad that this matter has been at last settled.

The lowest rate that has ever been given on any Line has now been granted to us on all the Lines between Chicago and New York City.

The excursion will leave Zion City, all trains massing there on the night of Wednesday, October 14th, and will most probably be divided as we indicated last week.

Two of the trains will run via Washington, D. C., on the Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio Lines.

Six, or possibly twelve, other trains will be divided between the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Nickel Plate, Erie, Wabash, and Grand Trunk Lines, all of which will concentrate about the same time at Niagara Falls on Thursday forenoon, October 15th.

After six pleasant hours spent there, all the trains will speed their way to New York City by their different routes, and land the entire Host in New York City, conveying them by Street Railways to Madison Square Garden on the morning of Friday, October 16th, where all will reassemble, and, after breakfast, proceed to their work.

This matter being now settled, we shall make fuller announcements and give fuller information from time to time.

We shall present the details of the various time schedules on which the various trains will run, and the states, counties and districts through which they will pass, in an early issue of this paper.

We expect our Special Messengers to New York to return not later than Tuesday next.

We shall then send Elder Abraham F. Lee, the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, and Deacon F. W. Cotton, Steward of Zion Hospices and Caterer for the Restoration Host, accompanied by several lady Officers to New York, to make final arrangements for hotel accommodation, etc., for the members of the Host.

It is now of the utmost and most immediate importance that all the members of the Host who intend to obey the command to concentrate at Zion City on October 14th, and accompany us to the New York Mission, shall at once make application for their tickets, etc., on the specially prepared forms which have been sent out. We cannot guarantee tickets, or accommodation in New York, to those who delay.

Should any of the members not have received these application forms, they will please to make application for them at once.
There is much to be done during the coming months in arranging for the details of this great Excursion, which we still think will consist of at least Four Thousand members of Zion Restoration Host.

We are determined that no effort shall be lacking on our part, and that of all our officers, in making the arrangements so complete that all things will work in good order, so that the great purpose for which we are going, the Restoration to God of Multitudes in the Great Imperial City of the American Continent, may be accomplished.

There are many matters of great importance which have transpired, and which are transpiring, in connection with our work in Zion, upon which we should like to comment—not least of these being the part that we are at this time taking with our people in connection with Municipal Politics in Chicago.

Our readers will find in the Prelude to our Message, published in this week’s issue, pages 749 to 752, that we spoke last Lord’s Day afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium upon “Zion’s Choice for Chicago’s Mayor.”

We have only to add to the words recorded there, that it is generally believed, that the action which Zion then took will result in the election of Mr. Graeme Stewart to the great office of Mayor of the second largest City on the American Continent.

We shall at least have done our part in helping to elect the better of the two men, one of whom is sure to be elected, humanly speaking, since there is no question that the choice of the City will be between the Republican and Democratic Candidates.

We are under very much temptation to speak next Lord’s Day concerning the Shameful Overtures that were made to us on behalf of the Democratic Candidate to endeavor to make us change our support from Mr. Stewart to Mr. Harrison.

We think it not unlikely that we shall speak somewhat on the subject at the Auditorium Tomorrow Afternoon.

We have been especially stirred to utter our Protest against the Warlike Utterances last Thursday night in the Chicago Auditorium, of our very able, brave and patriotic President.

We shall speak, in our Prelude, on the following question: “Is it best for the Nation to speak softly and carry a big stick?”

This, of course, has reference to the words of President Roosevelt, who is reported to have said: “There is an homely old adage which runs: ‘Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far.’ If the American Nation will speak softly, and yet build, and keep at a pitch of the highest training a thoroughly efficient Navy, the Monroe Doctrine will go far. I ask you to think over this.”

We have thought over this, and more, we have prayed over it.

We have a very sincere respect for our President, but we shall feel it to be our duty to remind him and the Nation, so far as we can reach it, that “Wisdom is better than Weapons of War.”

If the plea for the Big Stick, otherwise an overwhelmingly Powerful and Destructive Navy, is right, and, therefore, the enormous taxation of the Nation which its construction and maintenance involves, then the plea for an immense Standing Army will also be right.

Heavy Taxation and the Conscription System of Europe which compels every man to serve two or more years in the Army, and takes him away from father and mother, wife and friends, and from those occupations in the workshop, field, college, or in the countinghouse, which make a Nation happy and wealthy— if all that is right, then let the People of the United States of America remember that they will soon be reduced to the same horrible Military Oppression as the Nations of Europe.

Militarism, which is simply Organized Murder, will rule; and Armies and Navies, with vast numbers of reckless and degenerate officers will control, whilst all that makes a Nation religious, industrious, good and progressive will steadily diminish, and in many things almost disappear.

We are greatly disappointed that the first great speech of the President to the Nation should be an appeal for money to construct “Weapons of War,” or Vessels of War.

The best Navy may become utterly useless in a moment by some discovery such as that which has put Hundreds of Millions of Dollars worth of war vessels into the Naval Harbors of Great Britain, and those of the Naval powers of Europe, where they lie, rusting and rotting until they are worth only the value of scrap-iron.

Battle-ships are the most expensive of all Weapons of War, and last for the least length of time.
BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.
In these Latter Days, Elijah the Restorer comes as an Israelite. I am calling the Nations to Israel's God—to the Jew, Jesus, the Christ, the Messiah, for there is no salvation outside of Israel. I have no part in the prejudice against the Jew. God loves the Jew. Jesus, the Christ, the Jew, remembers the Jew and loves him. Elijah the Restorer loves the Jew. We have reason to be extremely grateful to the Jew. It is time for Prejudice to disappear and Wisdom and Love to come and take its place. You who are Jews must remember that you have no right to keep up an anti-Christian prejudice, any more than the Christians have a right to keep up an anti-Jewish prejudice. Have we not all one Father? I say to you here today: In the Name of Jesus, the Christ, the Messiah of God, seek that Father, and come back from the weary Wilderness of Sin.

—The Voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, last Lord's Day Afternoon, March 20, 1902.
The Theocratic party is a power in Chicago politics. In that city it holds no caucuses, no conventions, and no primaries. It has no ward committees and no central committees. It puts no candidates in the field for any offices, and has no patronage to distribute. It buys no votes and pays for no influence. Yet the Theocratic party has wielded a power which has decided the question as to who should be Mayor of the City of Chicago.

The Theocratic party is stronger today than ever before. Chicago knows its power and political parties realize that it must be reckoned with as a factor in every election; and often a deciding factor.

A very lively interest was therefore aroused when it was announced, through the Chicago newspapers, last Saturday morning, that the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, who is the leader, under God, of the Theocratic party, would speak in the Chicago Auditorium on the Lord's Day on the subject, "Zion's Choice for Chicago's Mayor."

It was a topic of discussion in the two opposing political camps on Saturday, and on Lord's Day afternoon, March 29, 1903, every part of the Auditorium that was conveniently accessible was crowded with an audience in which there were many men prominent in Chicago's public affairs.

As a "prelude to his prelude," the General Overseer outlined, briefly but clearly, the position of the Theocratic party. He declared its policy of throwing its weight on the side of the best candidate of those likely to be elected in all elections where it was not strong enough to elect its own ticket.

He then announced that, after thoroughly canvassing the political situation in Chicago, he had decided to direct all members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to throw the full weight of their influence to bring about the election of Graeme Stewart for Mayor of Chicago.

This announcement was received with an outburst of hearty and prolonged applause by the great audience.

As he gave his reasons for this decision, his arguments were received again and again with heartiest approbation, not only of the members of the Church present, but also of the many strangers.

At the close of his prelude, he called for all those who endorsed his position in this matter to rise.

There was a very general response throughout the house. The Message of the day, the third in the series of calls to Repentance, Faith, Hope, Love and Holy Living, was from that Pearl of Parables, The Story of Jesus, the Christ, concerning the prodigal son. Elijah the Restorer did not deal, however, with the Prodigal Son.

His Message was a wonderful national and individual application of the story of the Elder Brother.

It was an application full of important and significant Restoration truth.

The broad, Christian, Catholic spirit of the Restorer was strikingly manifested in his eloquent, logical and powerful protest against the unreasonable and wicked anti-Jewish prejudice of people who call themselves the followers of Jesus, the Christ, the Jew, which was an important part of the Message.

It was a deeply moved and intensely earnest congregation that stood at the close of the Message, in response to the call of God's Messenger, and solemnly consecrated themselves to God, in true penitence, strong faith and fervent prayer for Divine wisdom and strength.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 4, 1903.

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us. and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain: for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

To Thee all angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,

To Thee all the angels of the Lord do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,

The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.

The joyful fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.

The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.

The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of an infinite majesty;

Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;

Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin:
When Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father. We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage.

O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.

Day by day we magnify Thee:

And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.
ZION'S CHOICE FOR CHICAGO'S MAYOR.

Before delivering my Message I desire to say a few words by way of prelude as to Zion's choice for Chicago's Mayor.

Some Conceptions Concerning the Office of a Minister.

I know that it is a common expression among those who consider that their conceptions of Christianity are the only current coin in spiritual realms, that the minister who even speaks concerning municipal, state, or national politics has departed from his duty.

I think that it is commonly accepted by large numbers of people, that a minister must be without any political opinions whatever.

In fact he is a kind of spiritual haphazardite. He is to be without sex, but all of them must be sure to take care of the sects to which they belong.

I have no such conception of the duties of my office, as you well know.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion is a purely Theocratic institution, where Democratic ideas have no place whatever; inasmuch as there never has been a vote taken upon any question.

Nor is it a question with myself as to what the people think, nor with the people as to what I think.

God the Highest Legislator and Executor.

The only question in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, with both myself and my people, is this—What does God think?

Let us think as He thinks.

If God has given us a Revelation of His Thought, and it is perfectly clear and intelligent, then what we have to do is not to vote about it or even talk about it, but to do it, for it is His Will.

Laws once passed and completely confirmed by the highest executive authority are not open to discussion.

Once the law has been properly passed upon and signed by the highest executive, and its interpretation has been sustained by the Supreme Tribunal of this country, then the only thing remaining is to carry it out.

We are under the very strong conviction that God has made Laws for man's government, which He had a right to make.

We believe that these laws have been sustained by the Highest Tribunal, which is God Himself, and we have only to carry them out.

The Bible is not a thing to be apologized for, to be analyzed, or to be criticized; nor is it a question of what you think about it.

Its Divine Directions must be obeyed.

Do you hear, you miserable infidels?

Obedience to God and His Laws is not a question for voting.

I say this by way of prelude because Zion belongs neither to the Democratic, the Republican, the Popocratic, nor any other similar political party which makes government depend upon the will of the people.

Zion has a Very Clearly Defined Political Platform.

Perhaps you are not aware of it.

We do not believe in the Rule of the People.

As Theocrats, we believe that the government of this world should be in the hands of the God who made it.

That is a simple principle, is it not? The Rule of God—Theocracy!

Some people say that they do not believe that God ever made them.

I would sometimes be inclined to think, if I did not know better, that it might be true because they act so foolishly.

If you were to endeavor to find out what they were made for by the way they act, you would really wonder if they had not been made by some supreme fool, they are so unreasonable.

But that is not true. They have fallen very low, nevertheless God made them.

The God who made this world, who sustains it, has some claims upon it.

The God who gave you the Ten Commandments has the right and power to enforce them.

In vain you call old notions "Fudge!" And bend your conscience to your dealing; The Ten Commandments will not budge, And stealing will continue stealing.

Lying will continue lying; adultery will be adultery, and murder will be murder.

You cannot alter it.

None of your nonsense can alter it.

You may get a packed jury to say that you were not guilty, but you will be guilty just the same.

You would find that the verdict of a Chicago jury would not stand at the Judgment Seat of God.

The Theocracy Must Be Re-established.

We believe that we have a God, and that there are not only ten commandments but that there is an eleventh, which I read to you today.

We who stand for the Theocracy believe that the God that the Church has had given to it, is the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

That which the Christ came to establish was the Kingdom of God.

The God who made the world, who sustains it, has some claims upon it.

The Theocracy Must Be Re-established.

Democracy is the rule of the people.

If the people really ruled, then the very worst thing that could happen would happen to this city.

The bad are in the majority.

If the bad really ruled in everything, if there were no laws higher than their passing whim or will, then indeed there would be no liberty or protection for life, property or religion.

But in this land, thanks be to God, in the triune form of government that we have—legislative, executive, and judicial—the judicial power is supreme.

The supreme power in this land, thanks be to God, is the non-partisan Supreme Court of the United States, and may God ever preserve it non-partisan. (Amen.)

As Far as We Can We Carry Out a Theocratic Policy.

I directed that several thousand copies of this little pamphlet, entitled "Principles of the Theocratic Party," be placed in the foyer today and you are welcome to them.

It is a very short platform, of which the five words, "Where God rules man prosper," are the very center.

There is one part of the United States where the Theocratic party is supreme.

We have a Theocratic party which makes up its ticket, and is always elected.

I believe that it always will be, because nearly every one who lives there came to obey the Ten Commandments.

If they openly fight any one of the Ten Commandments we have the power to dump them down in the middle of the road, because they have broken their lease.

If any have erred, they do not want to go, so they repent, obey and do right for the most part.

The Theocratic Party Is the Only Party In Which I Have Any Confidence.

I have not a fragment of confidence, and I never did have, in the Democratic party, although I supported for years the Democratic candidate for Mayor.

But I did this because it was necessary to whip the Repub-
Christians," whose god lican party, and to whip it soundly, and because the present Mayor promised to do right toward Zion—that is, to protect us in the exercise of our legal rights, for we ask no more, and will be content with no less.

When George B. Swift, that enemy of Zion, conducted his administration in the way that he did, he had to be whipped.
The party had to be whipped, and we set about whipping it because of his bad conduct to Zion in 1895.

We have supported the Democratic party ever since the election of 1897.
The Democrats have been in power for six years.
Zion cannot carry its ticket in Chicago; because if I were to sketch the god of Chicago I should sketch a big, dirty belly, and say, "Your god is your belly;" for Chicago is not under the Rule of God.

There are a great many good, sensible people in Chicago who have thoughts higher than that.

Nevertheless, as a whole, Chicago is ruled by its belly.
The Scripture says that there are a great many so-called Christians "whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things."

If we had a chance, however remote, of carrying a Theocratic ticket in Chicago we would put it on the slate, and ask you to vote; but the time has not come for that.
The Theocratic party is in power in Zion City, and you Democrats or Republicans would not get a ghost of a chance.

So far as we know we are not cursed with either a Democr at or Republican in the city.

Why say cursed?

Because the Republican Has Not Been a True Republican.

I think that next to Theocratic the word Republican is the best word that I know in human government.
I do not think that you Republicans understand its meaning.
Let me give you a little explanation.
The word Republican is really two words in Latin, res publica, and means the Public Interest.

It might be translated by a synonym, Commonwealth.

A True Republican Has No Party Spirit.

He stands for the Commonwealth.
He stands, and ought to stand for the Republic every time, and for himself not at all.
You remember the lines of Cataline in which he says that true patriots

By their deeds will make it known Whose dignity they do sustain, And life, state, glory, all they gain, Come the Republic's, not their own.

A true Republican is a man who would say: "Life, State, Glory, all I get, is for the Republic, not for myself."
I am afraid that the Republican has become a Democrat. And I am beginning to think that some Democrats are going to make good Republicans.

This cannot be true, however, when one has a black spot on his heart, and thinks that it is a curse for the President of the United States to eat with a black man, forgetting, or perhaps not knowing, that five-sixths of the world's population are colored.

More than five out of every six are colored, and still you think that the "Lily White Party" should rule.
The whitest people that I have ever seen were dead. When a man dies he becomes lily white.

I have a desire to see a real good Republican, and I think that there are some.
I think President Roosevelt comes very near being a real Republican, in the sense of a man who stands for the nation every time, even although his truest friends may not always be able to approve some of the details of his policy.

May God bless him. (Amen.)
Zion will always cast her vote in this country, where she cannot elect a Theocratic ticket as yet, for the best of the men out of whom one is certain to be elected, regardless of party.

Votes of the Prohibition Party a Sure but Needless Loss.

I was born an abstainer, and I have remained absolutely free from alcohol and nicotine.
If I could help elect a Prohibition ticket tomorrow, I would do it.

But what is the use of throwing away good votes upon a sacrificial lamb?

That is what the Prohibition candidate is every time in most of the contests in municipal, state and national politics.

Why do you Prohibitionists not take the Republican party, and by keeping everlastingly at it, transform it into a Prohibition party, and make a plank in it for Prohibition?

These Republicans, if you can show them enough votes anywhere, will become Prohibitionists.

Partisans will in their extremity do almost anything for votes. (Laughter and applause.)

An Apt Illustration of Political Scheming.

They are like a captain of a steamboat on the Mississippi river who was running in competition with a rival steamboat on the river, and always tried to get into port ahead.
He was a great blasphemer and made everything blue around him. He was pushing his boat ahead and got into a mud-bank while the other fellow went by tooting his horn and laughing at him.
There was old Captain Jerry stuck in the mud just outside the town. He saw his rival loading up.
At once an idea struck him.
He turned to his first officer. "Bill, you devil," he said, "you go ashore there and be quick. Take a boat. Tell the people in town to come on board, that I have got religion.
Tell the Methodists, the Baptists, the Presbyterians, the Episcopalians, and especially the Temperance people, that I have sworn off drinking liquor and have got religion.
Tell them to come on board and hold a prayer-meeting."
Bill went ashore with the boat and told them that the captain had got religion and was anchored off the town for the purpose of having a prayer-meeting.

Off they came to rejoice with old Captain Jerry who, they were told, had been converted.
As they came on board the captain sniffed and said: "Ah, brethren, I am glad to see you. I have got religion. Go aft; the prayer-meeting is aft."

They came in hundreds and were all sent aft.
Presently he saw that his idea was working, and the steamer was beginning to move.
When he got a big crowd at the stern, the steamer's nose swung out of the mud.

"Full speed astern!" he called to the engineer, and the boat came off.
"Now, then," he said, "this prayer-meeting is over. Get out!" (Laughter.)
They had floated his ship, and that was all there was to the prayer-meeting.
There are a lot of politicians who are very glad to have you on board their ship, especially when they are stuck in the mud; then after you have gone on board and voted for them, they say: "This prayer-meeting is over until the next election."

I Have Had Some Experience in This Matter.

I supported the Democratic ticket time after time, and put the Democratic candidates in.

"How do you know," do you ask? I will tell you how I know.

In a straight vote between the Democrats and Republicans in this city four thousand votes on either side would turn the scale in their favor.
When we gave these votes, with ten thousand more that we controlled, to the Republican party, McKinley had the majority.
When we gave them to the Democratic party, Carter Harrison had the majority.
It is quite generally conceded that we have "the balance of power."
Who is going to get them this time?

We Still Have Kindly Feelings for Mr. Harrison.

I do not want to say anything about Mr. Harrison unless I am forced.
If the Democratic paper that supports him gets him into trouble with me as it did with Harrity, he would better look out.

I do not want to say anything, because up to a certain point, Mr. Harrison and those associated with him kept all their pledges to us.

We asked for nothing that was not legal and right.

However there was a point at which something else took place, and if Mr. Harrison's organs, or he, himself, challenges me to say what it was, I will say it, and he will never forget it. He acted the part of the Mississippi captain two years ago.

I will say it, with other things, if I am compelled to do so, next Sunday, and in time for the election, too. (Applause.)

He would better not challenge me, although I have a kindly feeling towards him, even though you see I am going to turn him down. (Laughter.)

I think that it is now time to give the other side an opportunity.

Zion Will Cast Her Vote for Mr. Graeme Stewart.

I think that we have kept the Republicans out long enough. For years Zion controlled and influenced twenty thousand votes, which is more than enough to put the one man in, or the other man out.

I do not believe that Zion's influence is any less in Chicago than it was, even though a large number of voters have removed to Zion City.

I have been making quite a close investigation, and I think that when we go to the polls, together with those whom we influence, we shall go there ten to fifteen thousand strong.

I believe that we hold the balance of power between the two parties.

Therefore, since you have asked me for direction, I direct you who are with me in Zion to cast your votes and influence for the Republican candidate, Mr. Graeme Stewart. (Applause.)

Chicago Business Affairs Made the Battledore and Shuttlecock of Political Parties.

Zion, in common with all the citizens of this city, has a right to be dissatisfied at the postponement, by the mayor and those associated with him, of the settlement of various questions that have been continually agitated, but never settled, apparently for the purpose of making political capital.

It is a shameful thing when the business affairs of a great city are made the battledore and shuttlecock of political parties just for the purpose of keeping in or keeping out of power.

I am assured by Mr. Graeme Stewart himself that, if elected, he will give us a good, straight, and honest business administration, uncontrolled by political prejudices.

If it were not so—if he were a mere spoke in the Lorimer political machine, I would say vote for Harrison, to keep that capitalist out.

It is the worst thing of that kind that has ever cursed this city.

It is worse in its way of going about things than Judge Tuley, and he is the worst judge I know. (Laughter.)

How Judge Tuley Stands with His Party.

Judge Tuley will smile, and say that he is strong with his party.

If I were to tell from this platform what was told me three hours ago, I could make Judge Tuley's ears tingle, and I will do it if I get any more of his old impudence. (Applause and laughter.)

I will let him know how he stands with his own party. I will give him a revelation.

His organ would better keep silent—that miserable American Caesar!

Not that the other papers are much better.

They are all unclean—it is simply a question of degree.

This City Must be Rescued from the Hands of Roman Catholics.

One of the reasons why I have asked Zion to vote as one man, and use its influence as one man for Mr. Graeme Stewart, is that we have had an administration in this city that has been becoming more and more a Roman Catholic Administra-

Zion needs a wise, honest, determined mayor.

It is a shameful thing to see how the poor are living in many districts where they have streets full of dirt and muck and disgraceful mud-puddles, while the taxes are being spent upon City Hall tax-eaters. Shame!

Mr. Stewart is a Scotchman and a good business man; and if ever this city needed a Scotchman and a business man it needs it now. (Applause.)

Financially also the city is in a very bad way.

I believe that he is Scotchman enough, business man enough and good citizen enough to see that they are properly managed.

That is something gained.

Then he is no Roman Catholic, and that is something good.

My impression is that Mr. Stewart will carry out his pledges, and that he will have a police force under him who will clean out all the known gambling hells, and resorts of harlots, murderers and thieves in this city.

God grant it. (Amen. Applause.)

It is time that this were done when Chicago has an average of one murder a day and three or four on the Sunday.

One can find nothing too severe to say when every other business but the saloon has to be closed on Sunday because it is the law; but the Mayor will not enforce the law.

You cannot sell dry-goods, groceries, flour, or other good things; but you can sell liquid fire and distilled damnation in every block in the city.

Is that right?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—Enforce the law, Mr. Stewart. Do you hear me, you Scotchman? If you do not do it you will catch it the next time. (Laughter and applause.)

We believe that he will win, and will do his best when he assumes power as Mayor.

We will pray about it; and not only will we pray, but we will work in every nook and corner of Chicago.

We Did Not Build Zion City by Merely Praying About It.

We took off our coats and worked in the Name of the Lord. That is why Zion City is what it is today.

We will work in this campaign; for it is time for Mr. Harrisson to get a rest. (Laughter.)

There are other reasons than those I have mentioned. They are certainly more than I care to say here; because when a man has done fairly well toward Zion for four years,
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 4, 1933.

I have called this parable of the prodigal son the Pearl of Parables, as so many have.

So much attention has been concentrated upon the prodigal son that the full meaning of the parable has been lost.

There Were Two Sons.

One of them was not a prodigal; at least he did not think that he was.

He was worse than the prodigal.

The prodigal was wicked and knew it; he was sinful and confessed it; but the elder son was envious and impudent, sulky and hatefully selfish, and that is worse than being a prodigal.

The prodigal son was a fool.

The son that stayed at home was a fool, a hypocrite, a liar, an envious brute, a miserable, wretched creature who could take no joy in the return of his brother, but was sorry he had come back, fearing that the father would divide the inheritance all over again.

It has always been astonishing to me that the parable has been considered as only the parable of the prodigal son.

Its great beauty is emphasized in following the parables of the lost sheep and the lost piece of silver, leading up to the lost son.

The Parable Complete Without the Mother.

Some wonder why the Christ did not introduce the mother into it?

Ah, because there is no mother in it; but there is the great Father who, without a mother, is the Procreator of every spirit.

There is no mother god.

There is no necessity for a mother god.

The parable is a parable of the Eternal Father, and of the two great divisions which in our Lord Jesus, the Christ's, time were represented by these two sons.

The Elder Son Represents the Israel of God.

The Jews to whom He spoke understood what he aimed at perhaps a great deal better than we do today.

The elder son in that parable is the Israel of God as represented by the Jewish people.

They had ever been with Him.

All that He had was theirs.

He had called that people into existence.

He had cared for them in the wilderness and through the terrible drought.

In the long centuries of slavery their cry had come up to Him from Egyptian bondage, and He delivered them.

He had led them through the deserts; had fed them with manna from heaven, and the water had gushed out of the rock in the arid waterless sands all through the forty years.

He had cared for them.

He had clothed them.

He had fed them.

He had led them.

The pillar of cloud by day was the pillar of fire by night.

He had given them victory.

One generation of them had passed away because they were unbelievers.

A Royal Generation Had Risen.

They were born in the desert and had seen the mighty works of God.

They were prepared to obey God: for they were a generation that took great cities by faith: marching around Jericho until its walls fell down, and coming up against old armed cities without fear.

They swept out the filthy Philaic worship, filthy Baal-worship, the accursed abominations of the Phoenicians, and drove the heathen out.

They had turned the filthy land into a clean land, established the worship of God, and made that beautiful land more fertile and beautiful than before.

God had cared for them.

When the Philistine remnant that they left, and the Ishmael-" It was meant to make merry, and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

THE PEARL OF PARABLES, AND ITS INTERPRETATION NATIONALLY AND INDIVIDUALLY. him, after four hundred years of Theocratic rule, and demanded a King:

The Apostasy of God's Chosen People.

He had given them the best possible, but they had gone away from Him and sinned.

They had slain the prophets.
They had followed after false gods.
The wisest king that they ever had became the most de-bauched of them all.

Miserable Solomon became the wretched, brutish head of herds of heathen women—three hundred concubines and seven hundred wives—who turned his heart from God.

At last, carried into captivity after many repeated warnings had been given, and the ten tribes were swept away, God brought back the Tribe of Levi in part, and a portion of Benjamin, nearly the entire tribe of Judah, and gave them the land and great wealth and favor, so that kings like Cyrus, and his successors, helped the mighty men who loved their land to cleanse away the rubbish, to again build the walls of Jerusalem, and at last to rebuild the Temple.

He had so blessed them that even an Idumean prince like Herod, who knew that he was not a Jew and had no right upon that throne, and great nobles among the Romans, helped to build what was perhaps the most magnificent temple of all the various temples that had been built on Mount Moriah, the Temple Mountain.

There on that mountain, the Sacred Hill of Zion, and the beautiful hills around, God established His worship.

The Jews Envious of Jesus, the Christ.

When our Lord Jesus, the Christ, came, the elder son, the Israelitish Race represented in the Holy Land only by the two tribes, was in great outward prosperity, but they were miserable grumblers.

At the beginning of the 15th chapter of Luke you will see that they murmured at Jesus, because He received the tax-gatherers, and poor outcasts, and ate with them.

He loved them and He attracted them.

The Christ called him a son of Abraham, and went to his father, saying: "I will arise and go to my father." He shows them that they have been blessed by the Father; they have been cared for, and all that the Father had was theirs.

They had had a King and the Holy Prophets.
They had the Holy Promises, and the revelation of the Good and Holy God, and now they had the Messiah.

Still they were grumblers.
Why?
Because the Father in the Christ, was receiving the prodigal nations back to Himself.

The Elder Son Denied the Brotherhood of the Prodigal Son.

He denied the brotherhood of the younger son by saying: "As soon as this thy son was come, they were envious when they saw princesses attending him, as you say that she should be stoned.

They were always mourning, for their religion was very mournful.

The Pharisees and Sadducees the Worst Kind of Hypocrites.

One of their cardinal principles was: "Thou shalt not laugh." They were envious when they saw princesses attending him; when Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, ministered to Him of her substance.

The Pharisee did not recognize his full brother in the Ethiopian and in the Chinese.
They might become proselytes of the gate; they might stand afar off, but they could not be received as brethren.
They were not of the stock of Abraham.
They were not of Israel.

They could not deny that the common paternity of all humanity was in God, but why should they be having a feast, and laughing and dancing? Why should they be so happy?

These Pharisees and Sadducees were never happy.
They were always mournful, for their religion was very mournful.

The Pharisees and Sadducees the Worst Kind of Hypocrites.

One of their cardinal principles was: "Thou shalt not laugh." They never laughed in public, but they were the biggest kind of hypocrites, and possibly often the sport of heathen harlots in private.

They were the kind of debauchees who laughed in private.
They were the people who could bring a woman taken in adultery to the Master, who said in effect: "The one that is among you without this sin, take up a stone and throw it at her, as you say that she should be stoned.
"Let the sinless priest who is here, the man that has never sinned, take up the first stone."
Then He began to write upon the ground.

He loved all men and all races, and He told them that the good Father in heaven loved all men.
He told them that God so loved the world of sinners lost and ruined by the fall that He had at last, after all the prophets had been rejected, sent His Son, saying that they would reverence His Son.

But the Christ told them in plain language that they would say: "This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours."

Jesus received the outcasts that, in the morning of humanity, had gone away into the far countries of sin, and had spent their substance in riotous living.
But now they had heard; and the Spirit having come, they were seeking the Father, and saying, "I will arise and go to my father."
Because the Father in the Christ was receiving sinners, the elder son in the field was full of jealousy, and would not come in and share in the joy of the Lord Himself.

He would not share in the Joy of all Heaven over one sinner's repentance, but began to say that he had not even had a kid to make merry with his friends.

The Elder Son Denied the Brotherhood of the Prodigal Son.

He denied the brotherhood of the younger son by saying: "As soon as this thy son was come."

He did not say, as soon as this my brother was come.

He loved them and He attracted them.

The Christ called him a son of Abraham, and went to his father, saying: "I will arise and go to my father."

He shows them that they have been blessed by the Father; they have been cared for, and all that the Father had was theirs.

They had had a King and the Holy Prophets.
They had the Holy Promises, and the revelation of the Good and Holy God, and now they had the Messiah.

Still they were grumblers.
Why?
Because the Father in the Christ, was receiving the prodigal nations back to Himself.

He was receiving the outcasts that, in the morning of humanity, had gone away into the far countries of sin, and had spent their substance in riotous living.

But now they had heard; and the Spirit having come, they were seeking the Father, and saying, "I will arise and go to my father."
Because the Father in the Christ was receiving sinners, the elder son in the field was full of jealousy, and would not come in and share in the joy of the Lord Himself.

He would not share in the Joy of all Heaven over one sinner's repentance, but began to say that he had not even had a kid to make merry with his friends.

The Elder Son Denied the Brotherhood of the Prodigal Son.

He denied the brotherhood of the younger son by saying: "As soon as this thy son was come."

He did not say, as soon as this my brother was come.

He loved them and He attracted them.

The Christ called him a son of Abraham, and went to his father, saying: "I will arise and go to my father."

They were envious when they saw princesses attending him, as you say that she should be stoned.

They were always mourning, for their religion was very mournful.

One of their cardinal principles was: "Thou shalt not laugh." They never laughed in public, but they were the biggest kind of hypocrites, and possibly often the sport of heathen harlots in private.

"Let the sinless priest who is here, the man that has never sinned, take up the first stone."
Then He began to write upon the ground.

By the time He had finished writing they had gone, one by one.
That was the kind of men they were.
They were afraid to take up a stone and fling it at the woman taken in adultery for fear that the Christ would say, "Did I not say that it was the man without sin who was to throw the first stone?"

"Now, Rabbi, I will tell you the day, the night, the hour and the woman."
They knew that He was perfectly equal to it, so, one by one, they all left.

These Pharisees were envious because sinful, outcast people, who never were allowed to come within the sacred precincts of the Temple, went to seek the "Savior of All Men."
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 4, 1903.

They were envious that these people should be attracted to the Master—should weep their penitence at His feet and even wash His feet with their tears, emboldened by His love, in the house of a Pharisee.

He was the Friend of Sinners.

Thus envious, hateful and impudent to his father, the elder son refused to partake in the joy, notwithstanding that the father said: “It was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again.”

The Father did not say: “My son,” but “Thy brother.”

He was lost all through these long ages, and has now been found; therefore, it is meet that there should be joy on earth, for there is joy in heaven.

I love the Jew, Because I am an Israelite.

I am not a Jew.

The Jew is an Israelite, but all Israelites are not Jews.

They were ten tribes scattered abroad and carried into captivity.

Judah and the tribe of Levi and a part of Benjamin was kept behind.

They are the people that form the Jewish race.

But there is an Israelite race that is all over the earth.

God is gathering these in the Anglo-Saxon nation.

The Saxon is Isaac’s son.

They used to be called Isaac’s son; but the name was contracted into Saxon.

They are the people that form the Jewish race.

The Jew is an Israelite, but all Israelites are not Jews.

Up in my native highlands in Scotland, we have a language called Gallic, which is full of Hebrew.

The Saxon is Isaac’s son.

The Father did not say: “My son,” but “Thy brother.”

That is true; but I am an Israelite.

That does not require me to be a Jew.

I am thankful for the Jew.

I speak with respect of the Jew.

I speak with admiration of the Jew.

I speak with thanksgiving of the Jew.

I Have No Part in the Prejudice Against the Jew.

I should not like to transgress by calling some of you fools, who are speaking against the Jew, but I might be permitted to call you worse than asses.

Have a care.

Some of you are talking about men whose genius, capacity and power are such that you are poor little pigmies alongside of them.

You miserable are talking with contempt of the Jew, when you know that they would have been higher still, had you not been for your infernal jealousy and wretched laws.

You are hated by the Teutonic power oftentimes.

You are very imperfectly tolerated by Russia, and often persecuted.

You are only tolerated by all the Slavonic powers.

You are protected by that portion of the human race that comprise many of the imperial intellects of the world?

You Cannot Keep Down the Jew.

They take no second place anywhere, with few exceptions.

You do not usually find them, especially in Anglo-Saxon countries, among the hewers of wood and drawers of water.

You find them among the great merchants, and the great lawyers of the world.

They would have been higher still, had it not been for your infernal jealousy and wretched laws.

God loves the Jew.

They are His own people.

Jesus, the Christ, the Jew, remembers the Jew and loves him.

Elijah the Restorer loves the Jew.

We have reason to be extremely grateful to the Jew.

I hope that there is not a single man or woman in Zion with anti-Jewish prejudice.

I hope that there are none in Zion with anti-Negro prejudice.

It is Time for Prejudice to Disappear and for Wisdom and Love to come and take its place.

It is time for the miserable enmities and envies of the Jew as well as of the Gentiles to disappear.

My brethren, who are Jews, you owe it to God that you are now protected by the flag of the cross.

You are protected by that portion of the human race that has most of the Israelitish blood in it—the Anglo-Saxon race.

You know that you are not well protected by other nations.

You are only tolerated by all the Slavonic powers.

You are very imperfectly tolerated by Russia, and often persecuted.

You are hated by the Teutonic power oftentimes.

Even in France, where they are bowing at the altar of Jesus, the Christ, the Jew, and of Mary, the Jewess, they are cursing the Jew.

With strange and foolish inconsistencies they hate Dreyfus because he is a Jew, not because he was guilty, which he was not.

They know that he was not, but he is a Jew, and that is enough.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one other way of healing? If you do, your honor and your conscience tell you that you are as much in error as the farmer who thinks that the earth is flat, and that nothing can be better than to fly on a kite. This is inexcusable. For the Bible teaches, in the most unambiguous words, that the only way of getting God's grace to us is by faith in Christ, who died for our sins. There can be no other way.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, Willis's Way? For the way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6.) It is the Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Savior and our Healer. (John 3:16.) And I always thought that those words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. So I have always thought. But I am now willing to be convinced that there is something else besides the truth of God's Word, and that we must seek another way.

A. Because He cannot change. He is in the same yesterday, today, and for ever. (Heb. 13:8.)

B. It is true. And He said that He came not to destroy the law, but to fulfill it, Matt. 5:17. And when He came He had a wonderful work to do, Matt. 10:10. He exhorted His disciples to believe in Him, and to proclaim the Gospel of Peace, "Gospell of Peace..." (Lk. 21:14. The Prodigal Son Always Received With Joy by the Father.

If you ask Him to give you the lowest place as a servant, He will lift you up, and kiss you and say, "My son! My daughter!"

The robe of the Redeemer's Righteousness will be placed upon you, and the signet-ring that gives you power in prayer over all things that God hath promised, will be upon your finger.

Weary Wilderness of Sin.

The robe of the Redeemer's Righteousness will be placed upon you, and the signet-ring that gives you power in prayer over all things that God hath promised, will be upon your finger.

Better, clad in the white Armor of God, with the Helmet of Salvation, your loins girt about with Truth, with the Breast-plate of God's Righteousness, the Shield of God's Faith, and the Sword of God's Spirit, which is God's Word, you will go forth with your feet shod with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace. The Prodigal Son Always Received With Joy by the Father.

Mercurius, the messenger of the gods, was so shod, that as he flitted through the sky, they knew when he came, for the bells rang and the heavens became musical.

You, better than the feeble Mercurius, have your feet shod with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace. Cleansed and robed by the Christ, you can go out and do His will.

What could not be done by great priests and great philosophers, He did by humble fishermen, who were willing to do His will.

Let us follow in their train.

The Son of God goes forth to war, A kingly crown to gain; His blood-red banner streams afar; Triumphant over pain, He follows in His train.

Who follows in His train? Who best can drink his cup of woe, Patient bears his cross below, Triumphant over pain, He follows in His train.

All who want to follow the Christ, and to consecrate them to God's Father, stand and tell Him so.

Now pray.

PRAYER OF CONSERVATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me to be in Thy Spirit, in soul and body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may trust Thee, serve Thee and be Thine own and Thine daughter. For Jesus' sake, amen.
THE Psalmist had been speaking of the literal water, the rain from heaven with which God waters the earth. Although the rain does not give life, it is necessary to preserve life, and has a very important part in building up the material structure of plants and animals.

This structure is necessary to hold the life principle within them which comes from God.

The Psalmist goes from the letter to the spirit and speaks of the River of God—the wonderful River of Life which flows from God as its source and fills the earth with life.

All life comes from the Father through the Son, who came that the world might not only have life, but have it more abundantly. (John 10:10; 1:4; 14:6. Acts 17:31. Psalm 36:9.)

He is the Mediator between God the Father and man, through whom life comes to man's spirit, soul and body, to cleanse, heal and renew.

When our Lord was here in the flesh He healed the sick and forgave sins, because the one was as much a part of His redemption plan for man as the other. (Matthew 8:17; 1 Peter 2:24.)

Sickness is the result of sin; if man had not sinned he would never have known sickness or death.

St. John saw the wonderful River of Life proceeding out of the Throne of God and of the Lamb.

He saw growing on both sides of the River the Tree of Life, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations.

The Christ is the Tree of Life and His Words are the Leaves.

He says that His Spirit and His Life are in His Words.

People are often compared in the Bible to trees.

How like leaves falling from a tree are the words that drop from our lips!

The life of the tree goes into the leaves as our life goes into our words.

We are told that a world of iniquity may drop from the tongue when it is set on fire of hell; then why not a world of good if we obey the command of our Lord to be filled with the Holy Spirit? (James 3:6; Proverbs 15:4.)

Multitudes lose the blessing which God's written Word contains because they endeavor to separate the spirit and the letter.

Since the letter holds the spirit, if we throw away the letter we lose the spirit also, as when we throw away a pitcher, we lose the water which it contains.

Some of the church organizations hold the letter without the Spirit, which is form without life.

The letter alone kills, if persons are content to rest in it.

Other organizations reject the letter and attempt to retain the Spirit, and as a result have neither.

Holding to the letter will bring the Holy Spirit if the individual will seek for and expect to receive His Presence.

How often the Adversary tries to dissuade the Christian from observing his usual hour of prayer because it seems like an empty form.

How many when thus tempted, having observed the form, have found themselves refreshed by the Water of Life?

The thirsty soul will take his empty pitcher of form and look to the hills whence the River of Life flows and expect to have it filled with the Water of Life for his spirit, soul and body.

From the earliest history of the human race there have always been some who have gone to this River of God, which is full of water, and found salvation for their spirits and healing for their bodies.

But for centuries this River has been hidden from the eyes of the masses of the people by the fogs of false teaching and prejudice.

The teachers have taught the people to spiritualize the Word of God and to reject the letter until there is not much substance left for practical life.

But God has sent to the world in these Latter Days, Elijah, the Messenger of the Covenant, to teach His Covenant to the world and to lead the people back into the old paths, the Way of Life. (Psalm 16:11.)

In Jeremiah 6:16, God commands the people saying:

Ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.

This wonderful Covenant takes the people to the River of Life which comes to the world through Jesus, the Christ, that they may be saved and healed and kept.

Zion Literature is going over the world to point the nations to this River of God which is full of Salvation and Healing.

God needs many helpers in this great work of sending forth the Literature from Zion.

He is calling all to take part in this work who love God's Kingdom and the Coming of the King.

The King's business requires haste.

Let every one obey His call to work while the day lasts, for the night is coming soon.

Miss Olla Smith's testimony in Leaves of Healing was read by a native in India, who writes a letter to know if it is true.

He says:

You can never fully realize the joy I felt when I read lately in one of the July numbers of Leaves of Healing, the first one of its kind that I have ever read, God's miraculous cure and favor in your case.

For a time I was doubting if your testimony could be true. But now I am fully convinced of its reality because with God nothing is impossible. For Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday today and forever.

He, Himself, hath said: "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

In James 5:15 we are told that the prayer of faith shall save the sick; and if he has committed sins they shall be forgiven him.

What is it then that prevents us from accepting and believing these miraculous cures when we are given so many proofs and assurances of God's grace and power?

It is a pity that I had not the benefit of seeing a copy of Leaves of Healing before this, either in South India or in Ceylon.

I am a South Indian—my race, Tamul. My seeing one of these is more a God-gift than anything else.

I am anxious to know more about Zion and to come in close contact with it.

I am sure that you would prove a great help in my work; by sending me any book connected with Zion that seems most suited for this purpose.

I am praying for Zion, Mr. and Mrs. Dowie and Zion schools.

May God bless Zion in turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just and in making ready a people prepared for the Lord.

The following extract is from a letter written by a worker in a mission in India:

I thought that I would write and tell you how much I love and appreciate the Little White Dove and all literature from Zion.

Healed Through Obedience.

They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.—Mark 6:18.

TIBURON, CALIFORNIA, February 28, 1903.

TO GENERAL OVERSEER:—I rejoice to add my testimony to the other testimonies that are published from week to week in Leaves of Healing, in praises to God our Heavenly Father, who is able to save, keep and heal as, through His Son, our Lord and Savior, and by the power of His Spirit.

On December 27, 1902, when I ate my dinner at the hotel where I stay, I ate some canned string beans. The beans were poisoned from the tin of the can, but I did not detect the poison in them. The next evening, when I went to bed, about 9 o’clock, I felt as well as usual.

The next morning about 1 o’clock I awoke, and my limbs were as stiff as bars of iron. My entire body was stiff and I felt cold. I could not think for a few minutes what had happened to me, and so tried to turn over on my side.

With great difficulty I managed to turn over. Then the thought came to me that I was poisoned and must do something immediately, because I could not live much longer in this condition. Something seemed to say to me, "Get up and take it to the Lord. He has healed you before and He will heal you again." So I twisted and struggled and managed to get up. I prayed and got relief after a little.

After getting warm I went back to bed and fell asleep. I awoke about 6 o’clock and I felt relieved of all the pain and could move my limbs freely. But there seemed to be poison in my blood which made it feel hot as it passed through my body. I arose and prayed again and felt better. Shortly after I was up my head began to ache.

That afternoon I went over to San Francisco to Zion Tabernacle, where Elder Taylor was holding a meeting.

I was determined to have the Elder lay hands on me and pray for me, because I knew that I would be healed. I sent in a request for prayer and thought that I would have the Elder lay hands on me and pray after the service.

But after the service I felt a great deal better, and instead of going near the Elder, I went home. When I got home the headache increased a little. I went to bed about 9 o’clock and fell asleep, but soon awoke with a high fever. My blood seemed to boil in the veins, and burn the flesh around them. I rolled and tossed all night.

I would fall asleep for a few minutes, and wake and toss all night; fall asleep again and then the same thing over. The night seemed a long one. I prayed several times, but got no relief as there was something in the way. The next morning I got up at the usual hour and went to work. I felt miserable, and about 10 o’clock had to go home.

I determined to find out why I was not healed, or did not get answers to my prayers. As I prayed earnestly and asked the Lord to show me what it was, and He did.

The trouble was that I did not get Elder Taylor to lay hands on me and pray. I saw where I had sinned, and repented and asked the Lord to forgive me. I got relieved immediately and lay down and slept about two hours well since.

When I awoke I was perfectly healed and did not feel sick in the least. That night I rested well, and the next day did a hard day’s work and felt well all the time. I am being brought to see God’s Way of Healing, and the glorious truth that all diseases come from Satan, and cannot possibly come from God. My great object in writing to you is to ask you to pray for me, that I may be delivered body, soul and spirit from the power of Satan.

DEAR DOCTOR, I have been led into that accursed Masonic Lodge, but after reading your exposures of it, I must leave.

Everything you say is perfectly true. There is no Christ there.

I have been in the lodge over two years and have never heard the Name of the Christ mentioned.

DEAR DOCTOR, do pray that the merciful God may give me strength to put away the accursed thing, and that I may be delivered from Satan’s bondage. I have never before found any teaching so true and beautiful as Zion’s.

I trust that before long I shall be able to write and tell you that I am one of Zion’s faithful band. Please excuse my taking the liberty of writing you, but I know that you will not mind, as your mission is to help all who wish to belong to the Christ.

Subscribers, Read This.

On every subscriber’s copy of Leaves of Healing or The Zion Banner we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire. Thus, should your label number happen to be 11—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume 11, Number 25. Also take notice that Leaves of Healing now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which are put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as the Leaves of Healing had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourselves familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you will never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice, or Express Money Order in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1320 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.
NOTES FROM ZION’S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

Stanningley, Yorkshire, England.
Zion Tabernacle, Town Street.
Services—Sunday, 5.30 p.m., Wednesday, 7.30 p.m.

Zion is like a mustard seed, which, although very small at first, takes root firmly and grows to become the greatest among herbs.

The truth of Zion takes root and springs up, and, although bitterly opposed, the opposition only makes it send its roots down deeper into the earth, and correspondingly extend its branches towards heaven.

The meetings, which began in Leeds, England, were blessed of God.

The truth was received into good and honest hearts.

The work grew.

The meetings were first held in private homes, but it soon became necessary to open up Zion Tabernacles.

What God has done in Leeds, He will do wherever the truth is faithfully proclaimed.

Let our people, therefore, throughout the world write us at Headquarters in Westy Road, Stanningley, Yorkshire, England, j

Sixty-four of these have signed the Restoration Vow, and much good is being done by the Message of the Prophet being taken from door to door and to the homes of these consecrated workers.

As we recognize that God has fully justified His servant, Elijah the Restorer, by the many and wonderful works He has wrought through him, so He has abundantly blessed His Message of Repentance, Faith, Restoration, Obedience and Consecration by giving in all our Gatherings to those who own Him, signs and wonders as promised in His Word.

The following are a few out of the many which might be given to show that Jesus is just the same today.

With Christian greetings, I am Yours in Zion’s bonds.

Robert McKell,
Deacon in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

7 Westy Road, Stanningley, West Leeds, England, February 24, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—I have great pleasure in sending you an account of my healing.

I am fifteen years old.

My mother and elder sister are members of Zion.

I began to be very sick on the 26th of October, 1902, with vomiting, diarrhoea and extreme pain.

Being afraid, I asked for a doctor.

My father went for one who was formerly our family doctor.

He took his medicine but grew worse until the following Sunday, the 26th.

On that day the doctor and his son examined me carefully, and pronounced my disease to be appendicitis, telling my parents that there was no hope for me only by an operation, urging them to send me to a hospital for that purpose.

The same day, about 5 p.m., Deacon McKell came to see me.

He asked me if I had repented and intended to do right.

I said, “Yes, sir.”

I had taken no medicine since morning and did not take any more.

Then Deacon and Deaconess Wood prayed and laid hands on me in the Name of Jesus, in the Power of the Spirit and in accordance with the Will of God our Heavenly Father.

The Lord immediately took away all my pain and gave me a good night’s rest.

The next day the doctor came to see me and said that I was much better.

The day following he came again and declared the swelling was all gone, claiming that his medicine had wrought the wonderful cure.

My appetite returned and my health and strength was soon restored.

I have since been kept in good health for which I praise God and thank all Zion friends.

Mary W. Gill.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with great gratitude to God and thankfulness to you that I send you my testimony.

In August, 1901, I first received a copy of Leaves of Healing.

Brother Whitehead brought the leaves to the mill where we work.

He also conducted the meetings there at meal times.

He invited me to meetings held in his house, and I went.

Being somewhat deaf I requested prayer on my behalf.

When Deacon McKell laid hands on me he smelled tobacco, and said: “You must give up smoking tobacco and drinking beer.”

The Lord took the pain away.

When I was in bed, I had a severe pain in both legs; but I soon became well.

I was also delivered from severe bowel trouble, piles and colds in my head, and have been kept in good health since.

I walk many miles doing Restoration work and attending cottage meetings.

I thank God for splendid health at sixty-two years of age.

I pray God’s blessing upon you and all Zion everywhere.

John William Taylor.

47 Turnwall Road, Balby, Doncaster, England, March 1, 1903.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with a heart full of praise and thanksgiving to God and to you that I write this testimony, thanking you for sending the Full Gospel and Leaves of Healing to England.

They have been the means of enlightening our darkness and showing us the way to the Great Prophet.

I do praise God for the many healings in our home since I first read the Leaves.

I wish to thank God for healing my daughter, Laura.

She fell down-stairs and broke her wrist.

We prayed for her.

Two days after Deacon McKell came from Bradford to conduct a meeting in our home.

He prayed and laid hands on her and she was able to go to school in a week and use her wrist perfectly in two weeks.

We have had many instances of healing of children’s complaints.

Yours in the Master’s service,

Emily Winter.

Langley, Lofthouse, West Wakefield.

March 1, 1903.

My Dear General Overseer:—Peace to thee.

I thank God that He healed me of blood poison.

I had the misfortune on Thursday three weeks ago to scratch the end of my finger, which resulted in blood poison.

It ran up and under my arm with a painful red mark about three-quarters of an inch broad.

Monday and Tuesday nights the pain was so intense that I could scarcely sleep.

At the close of the Wednesday night meeting I asked Deacon McKell to pray for me.

God wonderfully heard and answered.

The pain ceased immediately.

In two days the mark had disappeared, for which I praise God.

Your brother in the Christ, T. H. Fielding.

Springfield, Ohio.

We know that the readers of Leaves of Healing will take great pleasure in reading the following letter sent by...
Mother Stewart to the General Overseer.

Mother Stewart is known not only in the United States, but throughout the world, as a leader in the Temperance Movement.

She was connected with that great Temperance Movement which afterwards led to the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

She has been a prominent figure in the movement, speaking to thousands of persons throughout this country and England.

God has greatly used her in leading people to turn from the accursed drink habit.

Although for years connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church, she came to see that that denomination was apostate, and that God has raised up the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to fulfill His will.

She was baptized by the General Overseer, and made application for fellowship.

She has been ordained an Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

She writes as follows:

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, March 6, 1903.

My Beloved Pastor:—I desire to write a few lines to tell you what a blessed occasion we had last Lord's Day.

Brother and Sister Van Ausdall of Dayton came on Friday and we had a precious service.

Then Sister Van Ausdall remained with us and she and Mattie did some good Restoration service Saturday night.

They were very kind.

They sold Leaves of Healing and gave tracts.

They sowed some precious seed and found hungry souls.

On Sabbath afternoon we had a lovely meeting.

The room was almost full of many deeply interested people earnestly inquiring the way.

The truth is permeating the community.

Praise the Lord!

A friend told me the other day that a young woman who is receiving the attention of a barrister, said that he told her that every sallon-keeper in Springfield respects Mother Stewart, and they would all fight for her.

He added, "They know that she fights their cause."

In the bonds of our blessed Christ, your MOTHER STEWART,

Till He Comes,

SATURDAY MORNING—1 find that I have forgotten to mention Mrs. C.—a case, for which you have already prayed.

She suffers greatly from neuralgia.

Her last report was, "Much better."

The pain in the right side of her face had ceased.

I feel sure that she is growing in knowledge and grace. Thy loving MOTHER STEWART.

Bay City, Michigan.

Zion is like a fruitful tree planted by the rivers of waters, that springs up and extends its branches in all directions.

Although the Headquarters of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion are in Zion City, we have Branches and Gatherings throughout the continent.

In places where we do not have ordained officers, Conductors are placed in charge, and these Gatherings are visited from time to time by ordained officers.

The following report is from one of our Conductors.

RURAL ROUTE, 2 EAST AVENUE.

Dear Elder:—Enclosed please find my report for the month of February.

During the past month God has again granted me many blessings, as was witnessed to in our little Gathering last Lord's Day by several members, all of whom, I believe, are seeking to know more of the Christ and realize the power of His Resurrection.

I was rejoiced to hear our young brother, John Craig, testify to God's healing power.

He was badly scalded on the leg a short time ago and was suffering intense pain.

A telegram was sent by his mother to the General Overseer, asking prayer in his behalf.

About the time the telegram reached the General Overseer all pain left the leg and he has not suffered any pain since.

I believe that the Lord is about to give us yet larger blessings.

The ministers and members of the apostate churches are getting conscious of the power of the Word.

I thank God that He has made known to me this Full Gospel through His servant, the General Overseer, the Elijah that now is, and that we have the privilege of an interest in his prayers.

May God, our dear Heavenly Father, continue to abundantly bless, strengthen and keep him till He Comes.

Yours in the Christ Jesus, DRAPER FOWLER.

Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Dear Elder:—Peace to thee.

As obedience to God and our leader is the secret of Zion's power, I send, at your request, a condensed report of my work since April, 1902.

During the month of August I had charge of the Boston Branch.

The rest of the time my work has been mostly outside of Boston.

I have held meetings in the cities of Fitchburg, Stoughton and Lawrence, Massachusetts, and other cities and towns near Boston.

In Lawrence I organized the Gathering in September, 1901, where we have a Zion Tabernacle on one of the leading streets.

In the two large windows Zion Literature attracts the attention of hundreds each week.

Services are held on Lord's Day and Wednesday evening.

The members of Zion Restoration Host are scattering Zion Literature all over the city.

The following testimony has been sent to me this week from a member of the Lawrence Gathering.

METHUEN, MASSACHUSETTS.

Dear Evangelist Smith:—I thank God for our General Overseer and Overseer Jane Dowie.

From my birth I was a sickly child, always subject to severe headaches and epileptic fits.

Sometimes it seemed as if I would lose my reason.

Seven years ago I underwent a critical operation, hoping for relief, but failed to find it, for my headaches and fits were more severe than before the operation.

I then tried other physicians but found no permanent help.

I thought that God punished me in this way and I longed to die.

Now I want to live and work for God.

In May, 1902, Evangelist Helen A. Smith came to my home and told me of the teaching of Zion.

I was glad to hear the truth and give up medical treatment and trust God for my healing.

I was glad to obey God in Baptism and join the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I have not had a fit since Evangelist Smith prayed for me.

After my healing I was thrown from the carriage and hurt.

My right arm and left wrist were badly sprained, so that I could not use them.

I was not able to get my clothes off at night and seemed to be hurt inwardly.

Members of Zion remain with me all night and thought that I would die.

More of the Christ and realize the power of His Resurrection.

I was rejoiced to hear our young brother, John Craig, testify to God's healing power.

He was badly scalded on the leg a short time ago and was suffering intense pain.

A telegram was sent by his mother to the General Overseer, asking prayer in his behalf.

About the time the telegram reached the General Overseer all pain left the leg and he has not suffered any pain since.

Yours in the Christ Jesus, DRAPER FOWLER.
LEAVES OF HEALING

I praise God for the victory which He gave me when you were here last. I had an attack of pleurisy in my left side and was unable to lie down. After you had given me helpful teaching, showing me how to care for myself and to trust God, you laid hands upon me and prayed the prayer of faith. I was at once relieved, and lay down and rested about an hour. Then I rose and went to the Zion Tabernacle and played the organ for the praise service. When, in the past, I have had similar attacks, I have had to remain in bed from exhaustion. This time I was instantly relieved and able to do all my hard work. You laid hands on me and prayed, as Jesus told His disciples to do, and I was healed at once. The suffering did not return. I hope this testimony may be used to help some one else to trust God as their Healer.

Your sister in the Christ,

MRS. POOLY E. DICKINSON.

NORTH SPRINGFIELD, Vt.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—I am so glad to give my testimony to God's healing power. In October, 1902, I was taken with an old, serious trouble from which I had suffered much. I kept growing worse, suffering intense pain, until I was not able to sit up, nor to eat or sleep. Nearly every doctor in the city attended. I soon fell asleep and slept an hour. The 2d of November you came to North Springfield.

At once sent a request for you to pray for me. I rested that night and in the morning you came five miles in the rain to pray with me. After you had given me the teaching on God's willingness to heal, you laid hands on me and prayed. I soon fell asleep and slept an hour. I rose, ate my dinner and went to work. I split wood all the afternoon, helped to do the chores on the farm, and then rode five miles to meet and back again.

Next day I rode sixteen miles on a lumber wagon with a board for a seat. I praise God for my wonderful deliverance from the enemy's power. To God be the glory.

Your brother in the Christ,

A. C. DICKINSON.

I trust that I may work till He comes.

Services—Sunday, 3 and 7:30 p.m.; Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

Zion believes that God has called both men and women to the work of the ministry.

This is not a mere theory, but a demonstrated fact.

The following report is from one whom God has greatly blessed in proclaiming the truths of Zion.

She was first appointed Conductor of the Gathering.

God manifested His approval of this appointment by greatly strengthening our work in Sault Ste. Marie.

Two errors were led to repentance, the sick were healed and the poor had the Gospel preached unto them.

The result was that it was clearly evinced that God had called this young woman to the work of the ministry.

She was accordingly ordained an Evangelist in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We take pleasure in publishing the following report:

DEAR ELDER:—I have been trying for some time to send you a report of our work, and this is the first opportunity that I have had.

During the latter part of January, my brother, Deacon John Lake, and my sister, Mrs. Moffat, both of Zion City, made us a visit.

We planned for a series of Gospel services during their stay.

We began with a Praise service Sunday morning, only our own members being present, in which we renewed our consecration to God, and prayed for an out-pouring of the Holy Spirit upon the work.

For three weeks Deacon Lake conducted a Divine Healing service each afternoon, except Saturday.

We held a Gospel service in the Tabernacle every evening.

The services brought great blessing to ourselves and many others.

Several gave their hearts to God, a number received healing and many had aroused in them a desire to know more of Zion and Zion teaching.

It is wonderful to see how people's attitude toward Zion has changed within the last two years.

Many who would not deign to read Zion Literature left in their homes by the Seventies, are now seeking earnestly to know God's way of Salvation, Healing and Holiness.

Two successive Sunday evenings we held services in the opera house.

The first evening Deacon Lake spoke on the subject "Doctors, Drugs and Devils."

The house was crowded, over a thousand people being present, while many had to turn away.

Nearly every doctor in the city attended, the audience being very attentive and the Spirit of God wonderfully manifest.

The next Sunday evening Deacon Lake spoke concerning Elijah the Restorer.

Again the opera house was crowded; but the doctors were conspicuous by their absence.

Dear Evangelist Smith:—With gratitude to God for the victory I had over a severe attack of dysentery, which caused great pain and vomiting so I could not remain to the meeting. You laid hands on me and prayed, as Jesus told His disciples to do, and I was healed at once.

The suffering did not return. I hope this testimony may be used to help some one else to trust God as their Healer.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) JENNIE F. HALL.

NORTH SPRINGFIELD, Vermont.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—That which wife has written regarding ourselves is correct. We are thankful to God and you for all our blessings, also for the good impression made in the minds of those present at the meetings while you were here.

We have had five additions to our membership, Brother John in the Christ.

FRANK A. HALL,
Conductor of Zion Gathering.

I am thankful to God for His mercy to me. I have had to remain in bed from exhaustion.

Great spiritual blessings followed my healings. When she came I was still with my outside garments on, and left about an hour.

I have had to remain in bed from exhaustion.

We have had five additions to our membership.

I organized the Gathering with Mrs. Maude Holley, Mrs. Miller, and others.

I was ordained as Deaconess in July, at the Feast of Tabernacles.

She was first appointed Conductor of the Gathering.

NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD.

THEME

On Thanksgiving Day, a number came over from Fostoria, Deaconess Lehr from Ada, Mrs. Harbaugh from Bowling Green, and others from Findlay. Deaconess Lehr and Mary Harbaugh gave their testimonies, each in the afternoon to wonderful healings which they had received. David Basinger and his two daughters are "true blue" workers. They were as kind to us, as we made our home with them while in Bluffton.

Two of our members go out every Sunday morning, from house to house, with the LEAVES. Two others do saloon work every Saturday evening.

We have been able to sell enough LEAVES OF HEALING each week to pay for at least one hundred copies.

We do not sell we use in house to house work.

During the past year we have canvassed the city three times with Zion literature.

The population of the city is about twelve thousand.

Saul, Ste. Marie has much to thank Zion and Zion's God for.

There are many transformed homes, many men and women made "new creatures in Christ Jesus" since the fall Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holiness has been preached here.

We pray for strength and courage to go on and lovingly labor Till He Come.

Your sister in the Christ, Clara J. Lake.

Jesus plainly told His disciples that His ministry was not to be confined to one place, but that it was necessary that He should preach the Gospel in other villages also.

Following His example, Zion from time to time sends out faithful laborers to go from place to place and preach the Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

God always blesses these itineraries by saving, healing and cleansing those who receive the Truth in good and honest hearts.

We had partially arranged for Deacon Keller to conduct meetings in many other places on this trip, but owing to his appointment as Deacon-in-charge of the North Side Parish, he was unable to carry out the original plan. He writes as follows:

533 SEMINARY AVENUE, )
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. )

MY DEAR ELDER:—After a long delay, the result of being busy in the beginning of my work here in Chicago, I now give a brief report of my work in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

I left Zion City November 25th and reached Bluffton, Ohio, November 26th.

There I met Elder Basinger, who has charge of the work at Bluffton.

On Thanksgiving Day we opened a series of meetings, holding three services during the day. Zion in Bluffton has a large, well-lighted and well-equipped Tabernacle, with a large side-room.

Here we held twenty-five services—Bible reading in the morning and preaching service at night—except Sunday, when we held three services.

These meetings were fairly well attended and good interest manifested.

This series, seven who were not members remained in an after-meeting and were deeply interested in Zion's teaching.
Notes of Thanksgiving from the Whole World

By J. C. Excell, Secretary to the General Overseer

The enemies of Jehovah shall return, and come with arrows and spears; and everyone roaring shall be as the roarer; they shall eat the morsel and the Hor. and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. —Isaiah 35:5.

WHAT a glorious day that will be, when the Redeemed shall come to Zion, singing glad praises to Him, who has loved them and washed them from their sins in His own blood.

They will cast their crowns at His feet and rejoice in the Everlasting Salvation which He has purchased.

What a glad day it will be, when sorrow and sighing shall forevermore flee away; when there shall be no more sorrow, or sadness, or sighing; no more sickness, pain, or death, but when the Redeemed shall be forever with the Lord, for in His presence is fulness of joy; in His right hand are pleasures for evermore.

How sad have been the years since man first sinned!

The long, dark night of sin will finally pass away, and the dawn of Eternal Day will break.

The above Scripture will have its complete fulfilment in that day.

But we rejoice in the fact that the promises of God are fulfilled to the believer at the present time.

We need not wait until sin shall have all passed away; but we may have a part now in this glorious song of rejoicing.

Those who have been washed from their sins, and have departed from unrighteousness, and turned unto God, find that He has put a new song in their mouths, even a song of rejoicing.

This wonderful deliverance from sin, sickness and disease is proclaimed by the righteous song which continually ascends to the Most High.

Blessings which He has given through Christ will have their complete fulfilment in that day.

We give below a few notes of the glorious day that will be, when the Redeemed shall come to Zion, singing glad praises to Him, who has loved them and washed them from their sins in His own blood.

Dear General Overseer: — About January 20th, we sent a request for prayer asking you to pray for our little girl, who had a very thick rash on her hands and also a grain of wheat in her ear, that had been there for a year and four months.

We have received an answer saying that you prayed, her hands were almost well and the grain of wheat had come out.

Thanking you for prayers, we give God the glory.

Praying God's blessing upon Zion everywhere, I am,

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) Alexander Robertson.

—A Schoolboy Healed.

So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, that he believed, and his whole house. —John 4:53.

PITTSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA, March 14, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — Mamma sent a telegram Wednesday morning, asking you to pray for me.

At 10 o'clock I felt better, and got up and went to school in the morning.

My trouble was all in my head. I thank you for praying.

Daughter Healed When Nigh Unto Death.

My little daughter is at the point of death; I pray Thee, that Thou come and lay Thee hands on her, that she may be made whole, and live. —Mark 5:25.

LEYDARD, IOWA, March 15, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — Feel it my duty to write my daughter's testimony, hoping that it may do some good in teaching others to trust God for healing.

She was taken sick in November, 1902.

I prayed for her, and sent to other Gatherings to have them pray, but it did not seem to do any good.

She had pains in her stomach, and did not have a passage for three weeks. She gave up all hope and thought that she was going to die.

She was so near death that she could not see me. It was a solemn hour for me.

I thought that if she were spared until morning I would telegraph to you for prayers, which we did, and praise the Lord, the pain all left her body.

Her urine was like blood; but she had no pain, and I felt sure that she would get well.

A week after we telegraphed, I wrote you a letter stating that she had not had a passage from the bowels.

When I was writing she said to me: Tomorrow I will be up and dressed.

Sure enough, that night she had a passage, and the next day was up and dressed.

She has been well ever since. We give God the glory, and thank you for your prayers.

May God's blessing rest upon you and your family.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) C. C. HALL.

Husband and Four Children Healed.

COWY, OHIO, March 15, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I have felt for some time that I should send in our testimony to God's great goodness and His healing power.

In December my four children and my husband had measles.

In January we were exposed to smallpox, and all of our family had symptoms of the disease.

We thank God for the Little White Dove and its teachings.

We wish that we could go to Zion City to live, where we could get more of the true teaching.

May God continue to bless you and Overseer Jane Dowie, and may your lives be spared till Jesus comes.

Yours in the Christ,

(MRS.) Annie West.

Obedience Essential to Healing.

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land. —Exodus 3:12.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — Beloved General Overseer, Peace to thee.

I am glad to write and tell you of the healing I have received, for which I desire to thank God, and to testify to His readiness to answer prayer when we have submitted to Him in all things.

I was taken ill in October last, and received help in prayer offered by Evangelist Cantel and others, but was not fully delivered because I was not prepared to give up my will to God in everything.

We wrote to you for prayer, and God showed me the hindrance.

When I obeyed, God healed me.

I thank you for your kind letter and prayers on my behalf.

I have been blessed in spirit, soul and body, through Zion teaching.

Our children have had several healings, for which we thank God.

We have had a hard fight with the Devil, but God has given us the victory.

We started cottage-meetings on November 2d, as directed by Evangelist Cantel.

With Christian love to you and Overseer Jane Dowie, I am,

Yours in the Christ,

Charlotte Laura Mole.

—Thanksgiving to the Great Physician.

But when the multitudes saw it, they were afraid; and glorified God, which had given such power unto men. —Mark 6:5.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, March 11, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — Peace to thee.

I feel it my duty to thank you and all of your officers who have prayed for our family, and give praise to God for hearing and answering prayer.

While in Virginia I wrote to headquarters for prayers for myself, God heard and answered.

I wrote to Overseer Jane Dowie for prayers during confinement, and God answered.

I had always had a doctor before, but this time I got on better than I may be kept faithful and that I may be prospered in business.

May God bless and preserve you and Overseer Jane Dowie till Jesus comes.

Your brother in Christ,

Thomas Mole.

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION'S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

A reference encyclopaedia of Bible truth can be had by those who will make the proper use of Zion's Bible Class Lessons which appear in LEAVES OF HEALING. These studies are based on the well-known and widely-accepted doctrine that God governs all things according to the counsel of his will. These lessons are provided with full references to the Scriptures, and are intended to give an easy and orderly presentation of the doctrine of God's sovereignty over all things. Each lesson contains an outline of the main points to be considered, and a selection of Scripture passages. The lessons are arranged in a logical sequence, and are designed to be used in conjunction with the Bible and other reference materials. They are intended for use in Sunday School classes, Bible classes, and other religious instruction settings. These lessons provide a thorough and systematic presentation of the doctrine of God's sovereignty, which is a fundamental principle of Christianity. They are designed to help students understand and apply this doctrine in their daily lives.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third—that such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth—that all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

AS FAR AS POSSIBLE THE APPLICANT HIMSELF SHOULD FILL OUT THIS BLANK. WRITE PLAINLY AND WITH INK.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

INSTANTLY HEALED OF TUMOR OF THE EYE WHEN NEARLY BLIND—HEALED OF OTHER DISEASES.

WHEREAS I WAS BLIND, NOW I SEE.

This Witness testifies to a simple fact.

The man born blind, whom Jesus healed, testified to a similar fact when he said, “whereas I was blind, now I see.”

Against that simple fact, the theological teaching, scientific theories, and assumed authority of the leading ecclesiastics of the greatest religious system of that day, availed nothing. Jesus was an untitled Rabbi, the so-called son of a carpenter of Nazareth, whose disciples were a few fishermen and a tax-gatherer. The man who had been healed was only a blind beggar. Arrayed against them were the high priests and rulers in a most magnificent Temple and thousands of costly synagogues.

But opinions, no matter how strongly entrenched and generally held, cannot stand before the simplest fact.

Hence the fact of that man’s healing, and the truth which it proved, stands to this day, while the ancient and elaborate system of the enemies of Jesus perished with them.

In like manner, the fact to which this Witness testifies, stands and will stand. Against those who assume theological, ecclesiastical, scholastic, scientific and Scriptural wisdom, knowledge and authority, may hurl their shafts of argument and ridicule. They will fall harmless, shattered against the solid Rock of Truth. Moreover, this simple fact and its great underlying truths are the destruction of a false theology which has entrenched itself in tens of thousands of beautiful churches, and in hundreds of great colleges, universities and seminaries.

They are the destruction of a so-called science, practiced by thousands of learned men, holding sway over millions of God’s children, and taught in hundreds of great, wealthy and powerful institutions.

This woman says, “whereas I was blind, now I see.” I was healed and my eyes opened by the Power of God, in answer to prayer.”

The theologian says, “It is impossible! The day of miracles is past. God afflicts His children for their good and His glory. You are a deluded fanatic and your testimony dangerous to our church.”

The physician and surgeon say, “It is impossible. Nature works by inexorable laws. Diseases can be cured, if at all, only by the use of drugs and knives. We will make it a crime for you to seek healing in any other way.”

The Witness knows that she did not imagine the tumor in despairing ones everywhere. May they be led, by God's Spirit, through this simple testimony, to receive the wonderful Truth.

Then shall the words of Jesus be fulfilled: "Ye shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free." - A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF HANNAH R. BISHOP.

STEWARTSTOWN, NEW HAMPSHIRE.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: - With a thankful heart to my Father in heaven, I desire to add my testimony to the many thousands of like precious testimony that has already been given about the wonderful Message of God's Covenant from His Divinely-commissioned Messenger. That Message was a Message, not only of Salvation, but of Healing and of Holy Living.

When I received my copy of THE LEAVES OF HEALING, I was a member of Zion, and had declared that she was suffering from a terrible tumor of the eyeball, which would eventually make it necessary to remove the eye.

Already, the eye had become almost totally blind.

But the Witness had received the Wonderful Message of God's Covenant from His Divinely-commissioned Messenger. It was confirmed not only by an intimate friend, but also by an oculist, who examined her eye before her healing, and pronounced it incurable, and after again her healing, had pronounced it well.

Other oculists had examined her eye, and had declared that she was suffering from a terrible tumor of the eyeball, which would eventually make it necessary to remove the eye.

Therefore, the eye had become almost totally blind.

But the Witness had received the Wonderful Message of God's Covenant from His Divinely-commissioned Messenger. That Message was a Message, not only of Salvation, but of Healing and of Holy Living.

She believed God's Word, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

To her, the Word concerning Jesus, the Christ, "Surely He hath borne our sicknesses, and carried our sorrows," was a joyous reality.

She gladly believed the promise of Jesus, "Lo, I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age."

She realized His presence with her, by the Power of His Holy Spirit.

She knew that He was the same loving, compassionate, powerful Jesus, who opened the eyes of the blind man nineteen hundred years before.

In faith she obeyed the Divine command "Is any among you sick? let him call for the Elders of the Church; and let them pray over him."

In faith she claimed the promise given by our Lord to His disciples, "these things shall follow them that believe: in My Name . . . they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

An Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, laid hands upon her, and prayed for her healing in the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God, our Heavenly Father.

God heard and answered that prayer.

Instantly the eye which had been almost blind, and which the oculists had said would have to be removed, was healed.

It was restored to perfect sight and strength.

She began to use it at once for reading and sewing.

It has remained strong and well to this day.

The testimony of this Witness goes forth to weary, diseased, discouraged and despairing ones everywhere. May they be led, by God's Spirit, through this simple testimony, to receive the wonderful Truth.

Then shall the words of Jesus be fulfilled: "Ye shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free." - A. W. N.

Jesus said to the people, "The Kingdom of God is within you." (Luke 17:21)

St. Paul tells us that the Kingdom of God is Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Spirit. (Romans 14:17.)

First come right ways in living. This brings Peace to the heart. Peace brings Joy in the Holy Spirit.

The righteous must overcome evil. They must overcome evil through the power of the Indwelling Christ. We must either overcome evil or be overcome by evil and have the kingdom of the Devil established within us.

His kingdom is the kingdom of darkness and doubt and unbelief. After victory over evil, Peace and Joy in the Holy Spirit always light up the countenance of the overcomer, while doubt and unbelief, discouragement and sin, are like darkness driving away the light from the countenance of him who loves darkness rather than light because his deeds are evil.

The Kingdom of God must first be established within man before it can be established upon the earth. The fall from God began in man, and the Restoration must also begin there. God has raised up Zion in these Latter Days to do this work.

He has placed a great Leader over His people, Elijah, the Prophet of the Times of the Restoration. (Matthew 17:11.)

The Apostle Peter tells us that every soul that will not harken to this Prophet shall be utterly destroyed. (Acts 3:19-24.)

The great work of the Times is to get God's Message into the hands of the world that men may be led from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of Light. Our Lord promised some of His followers that they should not taste of death until they had seen the Son of Man coming to His Kingdom. (Matthew 16:28.)

Six days later He took Peter and James and John up into a high mountain, apart, and He was transfigured before them. His face did shine as the sun, and His garments became white as the light. They caught a glimpse of the Son of Man coming into His Kingdom. (Matthew 16:28.)

Elijah and Moses were in the Transfiguration scene. Two Prophets have been given a very important part in preparing the Way for the coming of our Lord into His Kingdom. To Moses, God first gave His Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living formulated into a law. Elijah has been sent in these Latter Days to bring the Covenant again before the world and to teach the people how to keep it.

ZION'S LITERATURE

THIS is a wonderful truth, that God's people may become, through obedience to Him, so filled with His Spirit that they shall shine as the sun.

The shining of the sun is a literal, visible brightness. So shall it be with God's people when the Christ shall reign fully within them. It is difficult for poor, weak humanity, so prone to sin and so far from the image of God, to realize what we are capable of becoming when the Christ shall reign within us.

Man was made to be the Temple of God. (2 Corinthians 6:6; John 14:20.)

When, on Mount Sinai, God talked with Moses about the establishment of His Kingdom upon the earth, Moses became so filled with the Spirit of God that his face shone and the children of Israel feared to look upon him. (Exodus 34:29, 30.)

We have also the narrative of that wonderful scene upon the Mount of Transfiguration.

Our Lord promised some of His followers that they should not taste of death until they had seen the Son of Man coming to His Kingdom. (Matthew 16:28.)

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THE LITTLE ONE SHALL BECOME A THOUSAND,
AND THE SMALL ONE A STRONG NATION:
I JEHOVAH WILL HASTEN IT IN ITS TIME."

THE GROWTH OF ZION justifies the Declaration that the Little One has become a Thousand.

From all the Nations Zion is gathering, and we are all realizing that God is forming the Beginnings and the Central Organization of a Strong Nation.

ALTHOUGH the Leaves have not appeared upon the trees, and only the faintest hue of green is to be seen upon the land, yet the inflow of population into Zion City during the past week has been large and steadily increases from day to day.

We are hearing on every side of the coming of the people from far and near.

THE WEEK has been one of very hard toil but, until the last few hours, it has been a week of brilliant sunshine, during which splendid progress has been made in building operations, street construction, etc.

ZION BUILDING and MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION is getting into existence in a very business-like manner.

In addition to the orders which have been placed with the Association for the construction of Public Buildings to the value of more than Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($600,000), scores of Private Buildings are rising on every side.

The work of preparing Plans for a great Building Season is pressing forward.

THERE is NO Loan Institution in Zion answering to the Building and Loan Associations of the World.

Therefore we feel it right to warn persons who have been wrongly informed, that they cannot borrow money from Zion to build upon their lots in Zion.

We have not entered into such money-lending business.

WE COULD not, even if our resources were much greater, embarrass the Spiritual Work of God in Zion by the methods of the world in this respect.
It will be seen upon very brief consideration, that we could not adopt the World's Methods of Lending, Mortgaging, Forfeiting and Selling-out our people by Foreclosure Proceedings, etc., such as is done continually by the Building and Loan Associations, upon the failure of people to meet their Obligations.

We have encouraged our poorer people in every Lawful and Right way, by Industry and Wise Investment, to acquire Resources, which, by Prudent Forethought and considerate Arrangement on the part of Zion Land and Investment Association, will enable them to acquire lots and build Temporary Residences at the rear of their lots, until they are able to save enough money to build their Permanent Homes in front.

This was done in hundreds of cases last year by people who are this year either living in their own new Homes or preparing these Homes.

We, therefore, earnestly warn our friends at a distance, that they cannot borrow money from any Loan Association in Zion to build upon their lots; and we wish them not to embarrass themselves by such borrowing.

It is better to do with humble homes, which can be made warm and comfortable, than to be burdened with Time Payments, which are Weights upon Progress.

We find that God abundantly blesses His People who are among the poor of our Citizens, and who refuse to go into heavy debt for the building of their homes.

Zion is a City of Christian Homes.

Probably more than Nine out of Ten leaseholders are actual controllers of both House and Lot.

In a very large number of cases the Lot, and every dollar of the cost of the Construction of their Homes whether big or little, is fully paid for.

There are, however, those in Zion City, and those desiring to come, who earnestly and very properly long to get Homes of their own.

Since the very beginning large numbers have been living in Kenosha, Waukegan and surrounding places, who could not secure accommodations in Zion City: this condition still continues.

We, therefore, once more make the Appeal to our Brethren, who desire a field for the Investment of Capital, by stating that a most Profitable Investment may be made by purchasing Land and building Houses for Workmen connected with the various Factories, etc.

We have no doubt that more than a hundred such Houses could be rented at once.

Those who own them could also make good arrangements with our workmen to sell them at a good profit, on Deferred Payments, arranged in such a manner as not to be Oppressive.

We should be glad, were the Resources of Zion available, to build Hundreds of such houses, knowing well that they could be profitably rented to Responsible and Good Christian Tenants.

The Zion Land and Investment Association will be glad to give further Information to Investors who read these words, and who may desire to make such Building Investments in Zion City.

We see plainly, however, that we could not agree to any Persons outside of Zion making such Building Investments on Deferred Payments, unless special provisions were made to protect our People from oppression, such as is deliberately planned and executed by Heartless Bands of Wealthy Thieves all over this Land.

Again, however, we say there is a Splendid Field for the Employment of Capital, and sure and certain returns to Honest and Conscientious Investors, who will be content with Legitimate Methods and Profits.

That which has not a little surprised us has been the fact that in the initial stages of our City, so very large a proportion of our City Builders, in all ranks of life, have become the Owners both of their Lots and Houses.

Usually in the First Period of the Construction of a New City, large numbers of exceedingly poor and even rough persons are among the first laborers and builders; but it has not been so in Zion.

Even the Poorest and Feeblest of our People have, with few exceptions, rapidly acquired sufficient means to buy Lots and build their first Homes.
WE DO NOT WISH to discourage any from coming to the City who can find employment. We shall have employment for hundreds and even thousands of persons belonging to all departments of Constructive Trades this Spring and Summer.

But the workmen must be of a still better grade than we had last year; for the houses that are now being contracted for by the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association are largely of a superior quality, requiring greater skill, both in building and finishing.

WE ALSO DESIRE to encourage those whose means are comparatively small, but who are willing either to rent houses that may be prepared for them by persons of means, or to purchase lots upon favorable terms, and reserve sufficient money to build a humble but comfortable temporary home.

ALL WE MEAN by these Notes is to say, in short, that Zion will not pursue the Course so often pursued by City Builders, and bring the Buyers, through improvident Loans, into a position of embarrassment and loss.

We cannot and will not, and we believe we dare not, in the sight of God, enter upon a course that would lead to our having to take proceedings against our People because of debt to Zion, and drive them out of their Homes.

We praise God that there has been no such thing done in Zion City, and, God helping us, there shall not be.

SPLENDID PROGRESS has been made during the week in laying the Foundations for the First Section of Zion Printing and Publishing House at Shiloh boulevard and Deborah avenue.

A beautiful picture of the Plan of the Completed Building appeared on the front page of our last issue, and has doubtless created wide-spread interest; for all our people know that Leaves of Healing (the Twelfth Volume of which is now almost completed), has been the Power of God to the Salvation, Healing, Cleansing and Quickening of many Hundreds of Thousands throughout the Whole World.

EXCELLENT WORK has also been done by the Street Construction Department upon the Public Roads in Zion City, and a good beginning has been made in the preparation of Edina Park and the Terracing of the Hill in front of Edina Boulevard.

THE INDUSTRIES of Zion are making excellent progress. The Six New Machines that we have sent into Zion Lace Industries’ Factory are being rapidly set up, and some of them will soon be ready for use; but we shall be glad when the day comes that we can have this machinery made upon American soil, as it is often damaged in transit, and the delicate parts of the immense machines must all be in perfect condition to enable us to work them.

THE MACHINERY in other Industries has been increased, and is being increased.

The astonishing growth in Zion Sugar and Confection Association, leads us to see that when we are able to erect the New Building for that Enterprise, it will at once enter upon an immensely profitable business.

The demand for Zion’s Candies is simply “prodigious,” especially since the finer and more expensive preparations have been made by the new machinery and expert help. Deacon Rodda and Deacon Cook, and their Excellent Staff, are justifiably elated over the prosperity attending this business.

Every confection proceeding from Zion is pure and wholesome. When eaten in moderation, like all things that are good, Zion Candies are helpful and not injurious.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our friends will remember that we first thought of this enterprise because of the injury being done to our Zion City children by candies that were full of impurities dangerous to life.

We have been interested and amused to note the enthusiastic admiration of "candy connoisseurs" in all classes of society, who, even in distant cities, are demanding to be supplied with Zion's Product.

When we think that from one city we received orders for no less than seventy-five tons of Zion candies, it will be seen that this enterprise is by no means an inconsiderable one.

Whilst writing these lines, we have turned to our files and taken up a report from Deacon W. Hurd Clendinen, General Manager of Zion City General Stores, which is as follows:

OFFICE
ZION CITY GENERAL STORES
(John Alex. Dowie)
W. Hurd Clendinen, General Manager
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, APRIL 8, 1903.

Rev. John Alex. Dowie, Zion City, Illinois.

Dear General Overseer:—As we are entering upon the fourth month of this year, we have many things to thank God for.

We need only to take a glance backward to see the remarkable growth of Zion City General Stores, as well as of Zion throughout the world.

Our records show that our store was opened about March 1, 1901.

During that month—March, 1901—we sold four hundred ten dollars ($410) worth of goods.

During March 1903 we sold goods to the value of thirty-four thousand nine hundred eighty dollars ($34,980).

At this rate of course it is astonishing to think what it will be in two years more.

We are also very grateful to God for enabling us to discount our bills again.

The cash discount for March purchases of dry-goods alone was very large.

On March 31st we had one hundred thirty employees.

We find it difficult to get a room suitable for holding our morning prayer-meeting, there being so many of us.

Pray for the general stores.

Yours in the master's service,

(Signed) W. Hurd Clendinen.

We ask our readers to join in the prayer which we have offered, and do offer for our excellent General Manager, Deacon Clendinen, and his splendid staff in Zion City General Stores.

It will be remembered, too, that Zion fresh food supply, which started in the General Stores, is now a separate institution.

It is doing a very large business, of which we may give some brief account in our next issue.

We are grateful for the financial prosperity which enables us to make purchases upon a cash basis, thus securing a very large discount, not only in this department, but in others.

But we dare not, at the late hour at which we write, yield to the temptation of telling the story of the wonderful business progress in Zion.

Better than all that, however, is the continued prosperity of Zion in spiritual things.

From all parts of the world, where the flag of Zion is floating, continued good tidings are coming, and it would take volumes each week to tell half the story.

We shall hope to be able in the coming story of Zion to present a general view of the work throughout the whole world, which no fragmentary editorial notes can ever properly express.

During the week now passed, the attendance at public services both in Chicago and Zion City has been very large. Putting all the gatherings together, they have probably aggregated fourteen thousand (14,000) attendances.

The rally of Zion restoration host on Monday night last, and the weekly assembly on Wednesday night, both held in Shiloh Tabernacle, were seasons of much blessing.

Deacon James F. Peters, General Superintendent of Zion Transportation and Railway Affairs, and Deacon Stern, our private and personal attendant, returned on Tuesday from New York, having very successfully fulfilled their mission.

The rate, as we have already stated, of fifteen dollars, has now been finally fixed for the round trip between Zion City and New York, for the great mission in Madison Square Garden from October 18th to November 2d. The distance run is fully two thousand miles, at a cost of three-fourths of one cent per mile.

Registration and the payment of the deposit of two dollars is now proceeding very rapidly.

We hope to be able to report in our next issue that the first two thousand have made application for their train transportation.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 11, 1903.

There is now every appearance that at least Four Thousand Members of Zion Restoration Host will accompany us from Zion City on the Evening of Wednesday, October 14th.

This great host will be divided into Eight Divisions. Six of these Divisions will travel on the Lines of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Nickel Plate, Erie, Wabash, and Grand Trunk Railways.

These trains will all meet again at Niagara Falls, not later than 12 o'clock on the following day, and will remain there while the Host spend Six Pleasant Hours at that Beautiful Spot.

All these six trains will then proceed along their various routes during the night, and arrive in New York about 8 o'clock on the following morning, Friday, October 16th.

Two other divisions of the Host will proceed by way of Washington, D. C., on the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railways. These will meet the next day at the Capital City of the Nation, and Six Pleasant Hours will be spent there. They will then proceed in the evening to New York in time to arrive with the other trains.

All the divisions of this Legion of Zion Restoration Host will then concentrate at Madison Square Garden, where we shall hope to meet in time to lunch together. Then the Host will go forth to their first work in New York in preparation for the Mission which begins on the following Lord's Day.

Saturday, October 17th, will be given up to a day of rest and recreation.

We are arranging a contract for two large steamers which will carry more than four thousand persons, and which will go from the Battery, up the Hudson River as far as Grant's Tomb, then up the East River to Blackwell's Island, and then out past Long Island, Governor's Island and Bedloe's Island, where the famous Statue of Liberty is, through the Narrows, to the Atlantic Ocean, if the weather is favorable, and return early in the evening.

The cost of this trip will not exceed Twenty-five cents for each member of the Host, and it will extend over at least Six Hours.

Saturday Excursions of the Host will continue during the Mission, and will be the means, no doubt, of much pure pleasure and real benefit.

We have now directed the Rev. Abraham F. Lee, the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, and his wife, Deaconess Lee, with the Rev. Sarah E. Hill, and Deaconess Peters, to proceed to New York on Monday next, April 13th.

We hope they will be able to make arrangements for the Rooming of the Members of the Host.

Elder Lee will attend to the carrying out of certain special directions, and to the "districting" of the work of the Seventies, which can only be done after personal observation in various parts of the city.

Zion has taken a very lively interest in the Municipal Affairs of Chicago, as is known to our readers, and we supported the Candidacy of Mr. Graeme Stewart for the Mayorcy as against the present occupant, who, to the disgrace of the City, has been reelected, although by a comparatively slender majority.

Fraudulent practices at the polls are openly alleged, and there can be no doubt whatever that the Election was most unfairly conducted in many parts of the City. Votes were openly purchased by the Democratic Party, and it is declared that most shameful "trades" were carried on in order to secure votes.

We have already publicly said that such a "trade" was offered to us.

In our Prelude in the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon on "Chicago's Mayorcy Disgrace," we shall give further details concerning that Shameful Proposal and speak with the utmost plainness concerning the disgracefully conducted Election, which resulted in the temporary triumph of Everything that is Evil in Chicago.

We do not feel that Mr. Graeme Stewart has been fairly beaten, but, on the contrary, that he was cheated out of a Fairly Won Victory.

It would take many pages of this paper to tell the modes in which the criminally guilty political traffickers successfully maneuvered last Tuesday to effect their evil purposes.

Democracy is truly a Failure in Chicago, and especially in its Municipal Government. The best interests of that city have received a severe blow, and many thousands of business men and good citizens will now feel that the Outside is the best side of Chicago, for Residential Purposes.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: ... and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:36.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of prayer of more or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
"NATIONS shall come to thy Light," sings the prophet Isaiah in the triumphant strains of that wonderful song descriptive of the glory, beauty and power of the Zion of the Latter Days, in the 60th chapter of his prophetic book.

God has sent His Messenger, Elijah the Restorer, to fulfil that glorious prophecy. He comes with a Message from God to men and women, not only as individuals, but in their relation to family, school, business, church and nation.

This Message is the Elijah-call, "Return ye unto God." It is ringing today in the hearts of the lowest toilers in the ranks of labor, and of the greatest captains of industry.

It is heard in the cottage of the humblest citizen and in the palaces of kings and emperors, and mansions of presidents and dictators.

This Strong Messenger comes with Divine Authority to rebuke the nations for national sins, and to warn them of the terrible national penalties, which will destroy them unless they repent and turn to God.

God has given to him Words of Wisdom for the rulers of the nations, and the nations must obey. Their very existence depends upon their attitude towards Elijah the Restorer; for God said unto Zion, "That nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted."

With this responsibility laid upon him, Elijah the Restorer cannot but utter his warning from God, when nations or their rulers transgress the laws of God, or depart from the dictates of Divine Wisdom.

When Theodore Roosevelt, the President of the United States, speaking from the platform of the Chicago Auditorium on Thursday evening, April 2, 1903, and later, through the columns of the daily press, built a very plausible, but fallacious argument for a great navy upon an old adage, "Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far," Elijah the Restorer replied on the following Lord's Day, April 5th, with a Message from the Word of God.

Under the mighty blows of logic, historical truth, and sound national economics, based upon God's Word, "Wisdom is better than weapons of war," the argument of the Chief Executive fell to pieces like a house of cards.

Fearlessly, boldly and destructively as the man of God attacked the position of the President concerning a great navy, he nevertheless accorded him high honor for his courage, patriotism, integrity and sincerity.

Over six thousand people representing all classes of society and every walk of life, heard that Message with respect, attention, deep emotion and conviction.

In making the announcements before his Message, the General Overseer referred briefly to the matter of the mayoral election of the city of Chicago, giving reasons why all lovers of good government should vote for Graeme Stewart, and exposing some of the political degeneracy of the opposition.

The regular April observation of the Ordinance of the Communion of the Lord's Supper, followed the Message.

Words cannot describe that service, for its mightiest forces worked not where eye could see or ear hear, but deep down in the spirits of the Three Thousand Communicants gathered there in Divine presence.

Its record will be written in their lives.

Services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
He whose word cannot be broken,
Form'd thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hov'ring,
See the cloud and fire appear
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near;
Thus deriving from their banner,
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which He gives them when they pray.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Blest inhabitants of Zion,
Wash'd in the Redeemer's blood!
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
Makes them kings and priests to God.
'Tis His love His people raises
Over self to reign as kings:
And as priests, His solemn praises
Each for a thank offering brings.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

Invocation.
God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

Praise.
All then joined in singing Hymn No. 318:
I am a soldier of the cross—
A follower of the Lamb,
I shall not fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His Name.

Chorus—In the Name of Christ the King,
Who has purchased life for me,
Through grace I'll win the promised crown,
What'er my cross may be.

Recitation of Creed.
The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body;
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Reading of God's Commandments.
The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt not have any other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt not kill.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment: XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
The Choir then sang Mark's

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.
We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
To Thee all angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite mercy.
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter,
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father,
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thy name;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.
The General Overseer read in the Inspired Word of God the first nine verses of the 4th chapter of Proverbs; in the 9th chapter of Ecclesiastes, beginning with the 13th verse and reading to the close of the chapter; in the 26th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, from the 47th through the 56th verse, and also from the Book of Revelation the first ten verses of the 13th chapter, closing with the prayer:
May God bless His Word.
Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer.
After the announcements had been made the General Overseer delivered his Message.

WISDOM BETTER THAN WEAPONS OF WAR.

Invocation.
Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto those who are now present to hear, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all coming time, Till Jesus Come. (Amen.)

Text.
The words of the wise spoken in quiet are heard more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.
Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good—Ecclesiastes 9:17, 18.

Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech My Father, and He shall even now send Me more than twelve legions of angels?—Matthew 26:52, 53.
I desire to speak this afternoon in Opposition to War and to the utterances from this platform, three evenings ago—Thursday, April 2d—by President Roosevelt, in connection with the organization of a great navy for this country.

New York Public Library
WISDOM BETTER THAN WEAPONS OF WAR.

It is a poor, miserable kind of adage, for a statesman of his rank and caliber, to give us as a text for a great political address. He has this: "Speak softly and carry a big stick, and you will go far."

He applied it in this way: If the American nation will speak softly, and yet build and keep up a policy of the highest training, a thoroughly efficient navy, the Monroe Doctrine will go far.

I ask you to think over this. If you do, you will come to the conclusion that it is mere plain common sense, so obviously sound that only the blind can fail to see its truth, and only the weakest and most irresolute can fail to desire to put it into force.

I challenge the adage. I challenge the reasoning and say that it is false at every point. I have "thought over this;" I have prayed over it; and I decline to be classed as blind, devoid of common sense, weak or irresolute, because I reject the "adage."

In fact it is silly and unworthy of the gentleman who called our attention to it.

When Pat Speaks Softly and Carries a Big Stick.

It is an adage which is peculiarly applicable to the Irishman at Donnybrook Fair, when he is out for a holiday, according to the satirists of Ireland.

He dresses himself up in his pea-green coat and his big hat. When he has everything in fine trim for Donnybrook, he takes his shillahaw and away he goes smiling.

The good wife says: "Now, Pat, take care ye don't get into any trouble with that shillahaw." "No, Bridget," he says, and kisses her, "I am going to shoke shortily, but I have got to carry a big stick, because these spalpeens may want to hit an innocent b'oy like me. Never fear, mavourneen, I'll go far with this shillahaw."

So away he goes to Donnybrook with his pea-green coat, and speaks softly to every one.

Fat is the nicest man going. He buys a horse, and he goes on with his various amusements.

In the meantime he still carries his shillahaw, but he has been treating his resolution to a "few sups of the crathur"—whisky. He promised Bridget that he would not get drunk, and he is not going to get drunk.

Hasn't he done all his business, and has he hit any one? He has been speaking softly; but the whisky that he has taken to "trate the resolution" begins to get into his head.

Now he begins to march, and he looks around for a spalpeen. Where is that spalpeen who insulted him at the last Donnybrook Fair? Where is he?

Did you see that spalpeen of a fellow who was at the last Donnybrook Fair? He has a big stick, but he cannot find that spalpeen.

He wants a fight anyhow, so he takes off his pea-green coat and drags it along after him.

"Is there any gentleman that will do me the favor to thread upon me coat?" he says. (Laughter.)

At last he gets some one on the tail and then he goes at it. (Applause. Laughter.)

Is President Roosevelt Going to Donnybrook Fair?

So you are going to Donnybrook Fair, speaking softly and carrying a big stick, President Roosevelt? (Laughter.)

Are you going to say to the nations of Europe: "Who will do me the favor to tread upon my coat?"

"Oh, No! Oh, No, No!" Mr. Roosevelt will tell you. Did he not tell you that it would not do to insult people? Did not Pat tell Bridget that he was not going to have a row with any one; but he was just going to "shoke shortily and carry a big stick," and he would go far.

Don't you know that if you go about with that kind of talk and wear chips on your shoulder, which undoubtedly Theodore Roosevelt has started to wear, you are going to have a first class row in a very short time with a number of great European powers, which, at the present day, would be no small thing for America?

America's Power Not Attained by Means of War.

I desire to ask, before I go further, did the United States of America arrive at its present splendid position amongst the Nations of the world by means of war?

Voices—"No"
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 11, 1915

General Overseer—Was it by large navies?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—America is what it is today because she has no standing armies to speak of; she has had no great navy to speak of until lately, and even now no one knows better than President Roosevelt that the United States Navy would be blown out of the water if two or three great European Powers were to combine. It is not possible for the United States Navy in its weak condition today to stand against all the naval powers of Europe. Mr. Roosevelt knows very well that America must have more than a navy corresponding to that of Great Britain, in order to do this great work of keeping every European Power from the so-called South American Republics. It must be superior to that of any three of the greatest European Naval Powers.

South American Republics a Farce.

Mr. Roosevelt, did you not have your tongue in your cheek when you said that the United States must protect her "sister" South American Republics?
Do you not know far better than I do, that they are not Republics at all?

These so-called South American Republics, where half-breed, infidel, or superstitious Roman Catholic, Spaniards and Portuguese are the military dictators and rulers, are not Republics. You know better than to call them Republics. They are only Republics in name.

A Republic is, according to the definition of this country, a nation where all the people are politically enfranchised and free and take part in the ruling of that land.

You talk about Diaz being the President of a Republic, when the vast majority of the people in Mexico can neither read nor write, and are not asked about voting at all.

It is a mere military dictatorship.

What a farce to call Brazil a Republic under President Campos Salles; or Paraguay under Hector Carvallo; or Uruguay under Cuestas; or Venezuela under Castro!

What a farce to call these mixed Spanish and Portuguese and Indian countries in South America, Republics?
They are not Republics!
You know better.
It is no use saying that you are defending the Republican principle in South America, for there are no Republics there. That is plain talk, and it is true talk.
It is talk that every statesman in Washington knows the truth of.
For political purposes you can call them republics, but they are not republics any more than the United States of America south of Mason and Dixon's line are republican states.

There is No Republic South of Mason and Dixon's Line.

There are people there who come to the polls with shotguns, to keep the African back from the polls, and to stuff the ballot-boxes exactly as they like.

It is a farce to call Alabama a republican state.
It is a farce to call North Carolina a republican state.
It is a farce to call South Carolina and Mississippi republican states.
No one knows it better than you, Mr. Roosevelt.

There is No Republic there; but there are political thieves and destroyers who steal the ballots of the African, and shoot him if he dares to come to the polls.
That is plain, perpendicular English, without any qualification.
Let us have honest talk.
When you talk about the Republic, talk about a country that is a Republic.
It is not south of Panama.
It is not south of the Gulf of Mexico.
It is not South of Mason and Dixon's line; and sometimes I wonder whether it is north of it or not.
I sometimes wonder whether the Republic called the United States of America has not been carried in Hanna's breeches' pocket for a number of years past. If so—is it a Republic?

How Much Open, Honest Voting Is There?

You know very well what the primaries are. We see how devoted a Republican Mr. Lorimer is; for he is so afraid of the votes in his Congressional District being recounted, it raises the question as to whether there are not two thousand pink ballots there that were simply sample ballots pushed in and counted, as if they were genuine ballots.
That is the assertion that is made.
Why does not Mr. Lorimer, if he is a real patriot, say: "Let the ballots be recounted. Let them be counted over and over again, and if I am not elected, let the man who is, take the seat."
He seems to be afraid to do it.
That is the thing that will hurt Mr. Graeme Stewart as a Republican candidate for Mayor next Tuesday, and it is the thing that makes me pause a little sometimes.
I am not speaking about the various candidates, but the two parties, when I say that I do not know which is the blacker, Caesar or Pompey.
I think that they are both about as black as they can be.

Where Are the Sister Republics That Need Protection?

Mr. Roosevelt, when you talk about the United States of America guarding the liberties of the sister Republics, talk sense.
You know that they are not Republics.
When you are dealing with President Diaz, you are not dealing with a Republic; you are dealing with a military oligarchy.
When you are dealing with the president of Brazil, you are not dealing with a Republic, you are dealing with a military oligarchy.
When you are dealing with Castro, you are not dealing with a Republic.
It is a farce.
When you are dealing with Colombia under a Marquis de Lourdes, you know you are not dealing with a Republic.

No one knows better than you, because you have been dealing with Colombia, lately, over the Panama question.
When you are dealing with things in the Southern states, you cannot say that you are dealing with a Republic.
When you are dealing with Senator Tillman, you are dealing with a human monster, who ought to be expelled from the United States Senate for saying that he will put the negro's face in the ground and keep it there. (Applause.)
He was talking of American citizens who have their rights under the constitution, and he says: "They shall not have their rights. We will put their faces in the sand and keep them there if we have to shoot them in thousands."
That man ought to have been expelled by the Senate.
The Senate ought to purge itself of a lawless Senator of that description.
What is the use of bringing up the Monroe Doctrine here in Chicago as if it were in any danger.
The President closes his speech by using these words: "If we have such a navy, if we keep on building it up, we may rest assured that there is not the slightest chance that trouble will ever come to this nation, and we may likewise rest assured that no foreign power will ever quarrel with us about the Monroe Doctrine."

Foreign Powers Had No Thought of Seizing Land in South America.

Mr. Roosevelt, you know before the late Venezuelan trouble, both England and Germany assured you that in coming to the coasts of South America to set the dishonest Venezuela, it was, no guarantee before they came.
You know very well what the primaries are. We see how devoted a Republican Mr. Lorimer is; for he is so afraid of the votes in his Congressional District being recounted, it raises the question as to whether there are not two thousand pink ballots there that were simply sample ballots pushed in and counted, as if they were genuine ballots.
That is the assertion that is made.
Why does not Mr. Lorimer, if he is a real patriot, say: "Let the ballots be recounted. Let them be counted over and over again, and if I am not elected, let the man who is, take the seat."
He seems to be afraid to do it.
That is the thing that will hurt Mr. Graeme Stewart as a Republican candidate for Mayor next Tuesday, and it is the thing that makes me pause a little sometimes.
I am not speaking about the various candidates, but the two parties, when I say that I do not know which is the blacker, Caesar or Pompey.
I think that they are both about as black as they can be.
WISDOM BETTER THAN WEAPONS OF WAR.

What use could they make of it? What special interests have they there? It is only so much talk to scare the people into the thought that they have to maintain a doctrine that is in danger.

You know very well that Europe has been quite content to recognize the United States of America as the pre-dominant power on this continent.

Other Nations Have Some Rights Upon the American Continent.

Great Britain was on this continent before the United States of America was brought into existence.

Spain was on this continent centuries before Great Britain; and the Dutch and French have some rights in Guiana.

There are other powers that have some rights.

If you measure land for land, you may find that there is a little larger area north of your boundary under the British flag than there is south of the boundary of the Canadian Dominion, under the Stars and Stripes. In fact, the figures stand thus: Canada—3,651,946 square miles. United States—5,057,040 square miles.

I want to know whether there is not such a thing as “right” as well as “might;” and whether other nations that were here before the United States of America was brought into existence have not their honest rights as well as we?

Do you not think so?

Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Who will be unfair enough to say no? Let us be honest.

What About This Big Stick?

What about Weapons of War?

Did we not hear the talk at the time of the formation of the great armies and navies of Europe as they now exist that these and the enormous preparations of the nations for war would prevent war?

Were we not told in Great Britain that the creation of a great navy would make every nation respect Great Britain so that there never would be any war?

I ask, have these prophecies been fulfilled?

No! They have not been fulfilled.

What has happened?

There have been more wars and more disastrous wars than ever.

Today, the rulers, as well as the people of these great powers, are trembling at the thought of more than ten millions of armed men coming into collision with each other at any moment.

What Does War Mean?

What do these great armies mean?

What do these great navies mean?

In the first place they mean terrible taxation, grinding oppression, and wholesale murder.

The poor of all these lands have to labor and toil for the support of armies and navies. They have gone away and debauched themselves with women who are rotten with leprosy and syphilis, and the men who have come back in hundreds have come back diseased and dying.

Let us have plain talk about it.

Has that been for the good of America, tell me?

Audience—“No.”

General Overseer—What have you gained?

You Went Beyond Your Monroe Doctrine.

You went into Asia, and went beyond your Monroe Doctrine. You smasshed the Spanish fleet, because you were at war with Spain; but what business had you to pay twenty million dollars to Spain for all the muck of the Friars’ property — the married and unmarried Friars’ property — the property of a low, lying and filthy priesthood of which even Rome itself is ashamed.

You took a semi-savage people in the tropics under your rule, and what a mess you have made of it. The war continues.

Do you think that you would better have stayed at home, and that the boys would have been better off had they remained on the farms and gone to their occupations, and saved the thousands of broken hearts?

I Have Seen the Results of War.

I saw, when I was a boy in Edinburgh, the Forty-second Regiment of Highlanders come back from the Crimean war. It had been recruited three times, and how did they come home?

The Black Watch came up the Lawn Market and High street of Edinburgh and oh, what a desolate sight!

There were only a few hundred able-bodied men, and more than three thousand had gone out strong, healthy and vigorous.

There were scores brought back upon stretchers and carried by their comrades.

Others who staggered up High street to the castle could not carry their own guns.

And what for? Nothing was gained.

Sebastopol is in the Russian hands today, and the Black Sea is still in their power.

Everything was practically lost, for the very allies who fought with them sold them.

The Turk smiled at them all.

He pocketed the results, and he pockets them today.

What Are You Going to Do With This Large Navy?

You do not need it in America.

What are you going to do with it?

Will you send it around Europe, and show them what a big stick you have?

Yes, and perhaps the men belonging to the navy will get drunk as the men of a certain United States war-ship did, when they got into an Italian port.
They boasted that they could "lick the whole Dago crew," and they soon found themselves in prison.

There was considerable trouble in getting them out.

They who form the armies and the navies of nations are usually the most shiftless, reckless, Godless, filthy and lazy. Of course, there are many exceptions.

Are you going to make this condition universal?

He emphasized the fact that the Name of God does not appear in the Constitution of the United States.

It is Better to be Killed by the Sword Than to Kill.

Empires Founded by the Shedding of Blood Cannot Abide.

The worst cement for laying one political stone upon another to build up a great nation is a cement of human blood.

It rots.

It stinks.

It will not hold together.

Kaiser Wilhelm, you are a brave man.

At any rate you talk like one, and I think you are.

Nevertheless, I say that your Germanic Empire will have to be built all over again, on a better foundation, and with a better cement.

Your grandfather, with Bismarck and Moltke, built it up with blood at Versailles.

When in the palace of Versailles, you hailed the Prussian King as Emperor, you raised up blood-stained hands to God.

But you did not make him a real emperor.

Hanover has never recognized him; and the Hanoverian King would rather cut his hand off than acknowledge him.

Although the southern German states have acknowledged them, they hold, practically, to their independence.
WISDOM BETTER THAN WEAPONS OF WAR.

At the first moment that Prussia is in real trouble Bavaria, Württemberg, Baden and other states will go like a flash.

They care nothing for your empire.
You cannot build up an Empire with blood.
You cannot build an Empire with blood.
It must be something stronger than that.
It must be something stronger than that.
Napoleon found that out.

He spoke to Bertrand, at St. Helena, somewhat as follows:

"My Empire has gone to pieces because it was built upon blood.

Charlemagne's Empire went to pieces because it was built upon blood."

The Empire of the Christ the Only Empire that Will Remain.

"Oh, Bertrand, the only empire that stands today is the Empire of Love, the Empire of the Christ.

All else, and many better, because they hate the names of the great conquerors who waged to human glory through seas of blood; but the Christ, who gave His own blood for humanity nineteen centuries ago, oh, how men love Him, and how today they will die for Him in millions.

The greatest empire is the empire that is founded, not in shedding the blood of others, but in shedding your own blood that others might live.

That is the Empire of the Christ; and it is the only Empire that will remain."

America, do not take Theodore Roosevelt's advice.

Do not carry around a big stick, and a chip on your shoulder.

Do not tax yourselves and curse your children to all generations, to build and maintain a big navy.

Do not have a big army.

Send out educators to the nations.

Send out messengers of peace.

The Christ sent them out.

Send out your wheat and your grain from the plains.

Send out your manufactures.

Send out your sons and daughters as Messengers of Peace—Peace, a thousand times nobler than War.

Peace, a thousand times nobler than War.

America, be wise.

Give yourselves to God.

Sing your anthem to the "Great God, our King," and mean it.

I pray God that this may be so.

I have no harsh words to say, but I do say this:

The President Has Made a Tremendous Blunder.

He has lost a splendid opportunity.

Nevertheless, I pray God to bless him; for he is a brave, conscientious man who, when he sees a blunder, will remedy it, I believe.

May God make him worthy of being the President of a great country, and take the love of physical fighting and killing out of him.

May he fight for the right with a sword sharper than steel.

I have gone about this world a great deal.

I am a little older than the President.

I did not speak softly, and I did not carry a big club.

But I came to you and spoke strongly, and hurt you a great deal, and made you better.

President Roosevelt, if you have God in you, speak out that which you know is true.

I do not fear of the politician.

Do the right, and just leave the big stick alone.

How America has grown by the arts of peace and not the arts of war.

We do not want our sons to go into foreign fields and come back wrecks, insane and unclean.

We do not want great armies.

We do not want ships of war.

The taxation will be enormous; the result nothing but shame, sorrow and loss.

Let the nation go forward under Divine Protection.

Obey God.

Wisdom Is Better Than Weapons of War.

I pray that Theodore Roosevelt will not be a "sinner" who will "destroy much good."

I pray that he will not "rule among fools," but that he will speak the "quiet words of wisdom," stand by them, and lay aside the big stick.

May God help him.

I do not say that there is not a place for an armed police.

There is.

I do not think that life would be possible in Chicago without a strong police force, and without power to enforce law.

Yet Love Is a More Efficient Protection Than a Big Stick.

I have lived in Chicago and its neighborhood since 1890—thirteen years.

I have much property that is lying loose and, yet I never lost a dollar's worth, so far as I know, by the action of any of the criminal class.

They never stole a cent from me.

They never robbed my house.

When a notorious burglar and murderer was in prison a little while ago and some one said to him: "Why is it that Dowie's house has not been broken into?" the man turned and said: "I would like to see the man that would break into Dowie's house."

"Why?" the burglar was asked.

"Because," he replied, "he has been kind to the poor; he has been kind to the sick. There are people in every street of the city whom he and his people have been kind to.

There is not a thief in Chicago who wants to take a dollar from his pocket, or his house."

I will tell you more, my people have not often been robbed.

Zion's Only Weapon is a Message of Peace.

We did not carry a big stick, and we do not go around with a revolver.

Mrs. Dowie with her six hundred Dorcas women clothed thousands of poor families last year.

We do not want to boast of it, but we have been working for the poor, the criminal, the harlot and the oppressed.

When you do that, you are safe even in the midst of murderers and thieves.

You have touched their hearts.

There is not a thief or a murderer in Chicago who does not know that John Alexander Dowie would help him to the utmost extent of his power.

We hate his crimes.

We hate his sins, but we love the sinner.

Although we may say stern words, we do not go about with a big stick.

Not one of my homes has been guarded with revolvers.

We are trusting God and doing right.

We are not afraid.

If any man steals my purse he steals only trash.

But we have had worse thieves to deal with: those who have tried to rob us of our good name which would not enrich them, and would leave us poor indeed.

God takes care of our names, and our lives.

No, Theodore Roosevelt, generations and generations have lived on in America without the big stick—a large navy and a large army; and we do not need to fight for islands in the China Sea or in the Caribbean Sea.

Theodore Roosevelt, go back to God's Book.

Lay aside that "old adage" book, and for the remainder of your trip throughout America read the Bible every day. (Applause.)

"All who want to give themselves wholly to God and who are in sympathy with what I have said, stand. (Nearly all rise.)"

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

May God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am.

Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do right no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit. Help me to cleanse my hands, and to help to cleanse the Nation. O Father in Heaven, bless the President, and make him to know that wisdom is better than all the weapons and vessels of war.

Show him that he must obey the Christ, put up the sword in its place and go on doing the work that God has given him to do. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

General Overseer—Did you mean it?

Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Are you going to live it?

Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—God knows about that. That is the most important thing of all.

The service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 11, 1903.

Do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

Let neither your thoughts nor your hands ever defile. Young women, be pure. Help the young men also to be pure. Resent familiarities, which can only be pure when they are the loving attentions of a pure husband. Let no man have privileges other than those compatible with perfect purity and maidenhood. If you do otherwise you not only are not Christians, but you are not ladies. You are unclean and filthy women. Be pure in thought, word, and deed. Let no word be whispered into your ear that is improper. Read nothing unclean. Do not unite your lives with others until you are sure that their lives are linked with God, lest you find yourself amongst harlots and whoremongers. You cannot unite Christ and Belial.

Let marriage be had in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. Be pure. We are going down, God helping us, four thousand strong to New York in a few months. You must not be good only when we go, but be good all the time, before and after. Be pure. Purity is power. Be pure in thought, in word, in deed. God help us, and make every one of us perfectly pure. He can. He will.

We have passed through the first three months of the third year of what I call the Zion Century.

Zion the Most Remarkable Movement of the Century.

When God set the doors of this Century wide open I was in England; but I ventured to say that there would be a wonderful year of Open Doors and that many wonderful things would appear. What I have said in this matter has not only been echoed by you, but today the keen observers in all parts of the world, not in sport, but with a strange intensity of earnestness, whether friend or foe, have said that Zion is the most remarkable movement of the century, and that no man can tell whither this movement is going and whereunto it will grow. If I were a man capable of being made vain by much attention, I should be exceedingly flattered by the attentions that I have received for so many years at the hands of the Devil. He has counted it worth while to do his utmost to blacken my name, cover it with obloquy of every kind, and to make the Zion movement to appear as the crazy work of a hot-brained fanatic, or the cunning device of a deceiver, a false apostle, an angel of light in appearance, and a devil in reality.

These things were not said merely by the world. They were said, and written, and printed by the apostate churches. Today the world and church alike are almost silent. Enemies are silent. Critics are silent. It is left for a few of the unclean dogs of the so-called holiness movement, in obscure places, in pitiful rags of papers, and in poor, pitiful little meetings, to continue these vile things.

But apart from religion, the most thoughtful writers of this time in Europe, America, Australia, Asia, and in Africa are taking heed of Zion and the Message which God has given to Zion. They see the handwriting on the wall of the apostate church.

The Truths of Zion Penetrating All Parts of the Earth.

They hear the voice that rings over the earth, and they are amazed to see that where they thought themselves safe, with oceans between us and the people in their churches in remote islands, even there the truth of Zion is penetrating.

Take, for example, a certain island on the Australian coast. Zion has scores and scores in that island, although there is a very small population, and practically all the best people in it belong to the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

COMMUNION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

After a brief intermission, the General Overseer, assisted by Overseers, Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, administered the Communion of the Lord's Supper to about three thousand Christian people.

The General Overseer then addressed to his people the regular Post-Communion Family Talk, in which he said:

May God give to us, in these last two months of our work in this Chicago Auditorium, a great blessing.

I did not want this little fight today. I was unprepared for it, but I had to do it. As the week went on I felt: "Theodore Roosevelt, you got up on my ground; you talked high treason against God to Chicago from my platform, and I cannot stand that, so I shall have to go for you next Lord's Day." I pray God to bless the President. He is what we can learn. I do not think that he is above learning.

If he is, then he is a fool and of no account at all.

When a Man Has Nothing More to Learn It Is Time for Him to Leave This World.

He is of no more use here. I hope the day will never come when I cannot learn something more.

I am learning every day, every hour. I think that I see a number of things more clearly today than I did yesterday. Even as I was talking I saw how, perhaps, the Devil had led the President astray in this matter.

It is rather hard to be surrounded by certain classes of politicians all the time, and not get some of their bad ways.

I remember how touched I was to look upon a grave once which had only these words:

"My Brother. He Loved Me and Gave Himself Instead of Me."

I turned to a person and said: "Tell me the story of that grave."

He told me that it was erected by a man in memory of his brother who was killed in war.

The man was drawn as a conscript; but when this younger brother, who had no wife or family, heard of his death he went under the name of his brother, John, and was killed in battle.

John went down to the battlefield and brought the body home and buried it.

He erected a tombstone on which were only these words:

"My brother. He loved me and gave himself instead of me."

These are the words that Paul used concerning the Christ: "He loved me, and gave Himself up for me."

Let us follow Him, and let all mankind for whom He died.

Let us unfurl His flag, and raise it above all other flags, and proclaim Him King of all kings, Teacher of all teachers, Lord of all lords, and obey Him in all things fully.

May the Holy Spirit lead us.

May God Make You Very Pure.

May He keep you from the contamination of evil association. Young men, be pure.
COMMUNION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

787

From remote Africa, only last night, I had handed to me by the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, the record of a wonderful work in Durban, Natal, South Africa.

It amazed me to read that what little hand has done, and to see the building now of the Wesleyan church there, which is the principal form of Methodism in Great Britain, leaving a church of six hundred members and coming into Zion.

They boldly declared to their minister and brethren that they had long feared that the Methodist church was apostate, that they knew it now, and to save their own spirits and those of others, they had to come out and stand with Zion.

All over the earth it is the same.

In Australia, when we left, some thought, and some may have said, "Now we have got rid of him."

Last week twenty-six Australians met me in my council-room, eleven of whom have just come, and fifteen of whom had come a little before.

Fifteen more are on the ocean between Sydney and Vancouver; thirty more are about to follow, which will make over seventy in all.

They are beginning to wonder whereunto it will grow, because they find Zion here, there, and everywhere.

"Leaves of Healing" a Mighty Power.

They say, "It is that paper that does it. If we could only stop that paper."

But they cannot stop that paper.

If you will only look at the front of the last issue of Leaves or Healing, you will see what a fine home we are going to make for the Printing and Publishing House of that paper in Zion City.

It is six hundred feet long, two hundred feet deep, and part of it two stories high.

You would better put your hand into your pocket and help me to build it.

What a beautiful home for that beautiful paper! How God blesses us!

I love it, and oftentimes I sit down, oh, so tired, to take up my work on it.

I could not get at that paper until Friday night and I toiled and produced all my part of it from that time.

It was nearly 2 o'clock on Saturday morning when I started to dictate the Editorial Notes, and I laid down my pen at 9:30 on Saturday morning.

I have been burning the candle at both ends this week, rising many mornings at 5 o'clock, staying up all day, and on all night, and yet, I am strong.

I do not realize except in the natural weariness, and not very much of that, that I have done anything to speak of.

Yet I went to bed at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, got up in the afternoon, did a few things, went to bed in the evening again, rose at 5 o'clock this morning, and had a glorious morning meeting with thousands at Shiloh Tabernacle, and now here I am.

As we labor for God the weariness goes, and life and power come to concentrate thought, and to tell a little of the Story, a thousandth part of which has not been told.

The Story of Zion Cannot Be Told In Printer's Ink.

But the Story, thank God, is being written in living epistles, and is being wonderfully written in Zion City.

What an object lesson that is.

The vilest infidel sees it.

I thank God for letters from the Freethinkers.

One man, the editor of a Freethinking paper, wrote to me somewhat like this: "I know that you do not think with us, for you are infidel."

"But we watch your fight with the apostate church and with public wrongs, and we admire you, and love you.

"Although we are Freethinkers, we feel that you owe us much, and we want to get your photograph. I desire to write an article in my paper telling the people what I think about you. Won't you send me a picture, Doctor?"

I sent him a photograph.

Now the next of the many magazine articles will be in a Freethinking monthly.

All over the world, saint and sinner alike are becoming greatly in earnest about this mission in New York.

I have not seen a single paper that has cast the slightest disrespect upon it.

Every one of the papers says that the Madison Square Garden will be crowded; and some jocularly say that the show that I am bringing to New York is so wonderful that Barnum and Bailey and the greatest shows on earth are mere Quaker meetings compared to it. (Applause and laughter.)

That shows you what they expect of you.

They have it in their minds that we are going to do something.

One man sat down and figured out what a wasteful, extravagant man I am.

He says: "It will cost sixty thousand dollars for railroad fares.

"It will cost sixty thousand dollars to feed them.

"Then the loss of their wages will be eighty thousand.

"In all it is going to cost Dowie and his people two hundred thousand dollars.

"What fools they are!

Another fellow went after him. He said:

"Not so fast. You do not know what you are talking about.

Dowie will invest two hundred thousand dollars in New York, but he will eventually get millions back." (Applause and laughter.)

That last fellow was right.

Do you think I am going to throw away that two hundred thousand?

Not I.

God gave me talents to invest, and every one of the five talents must gain another one.

They are quite right.

We will get back all we invest in New York.

We will get back spirits for God.

We will get back sinners saved.

I am beginning to pray for Morgan and Wall Street financiers generally.

I am beginning to pray for many others there.

America is talking about this contemplated mission; make no mistake about it.

The Labor Question Solved In Zion.

The leaders of labor are thinking and saying: "That is cutting into our theories. Dr. Dowie has no trouble with his labor; not a bit."

If there were any trouble my working people in Zion City would only be striking their own noses, bumping their own heads, and knocking out their own eyes, because everything there is in their favor.

They could not have it better.

In our last commercial organization, for instance, the Zion Building and Manufacturing Association, after interest is paid on capital, and provision made for wear and tear, ninety per cent. of the surplus of profits goes to the working men who made the profit.

I am so thankful for the success in Australia, in Africa and in Europe.

There are floods of blessing pouring down from Zurich all over the German countries.

May God bless Austro-Hungary.

Budapest is waking up.

They are very eager everywhere to know more of Zion.

May God bless them.

Sterling and the great shows in New York, with the Aurora Borealis, will only go to show what God can do in a little while.

They are bringing to New York what God is doing in Europe.

They will see that Zion is no illusion.

Zion never was stronger or more prosperous than at this time.

Do your work properly, and help along.

Let us ask God to send more work to Zion.

"May God continue to strengthen Zion.

The congregation then sang the first stanza and the General Overseer the last of the parting hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," after which the General Overseer pronounced the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful in Him who calleth you, who also will do it in the grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.
Lord’s Day Afternoon in Shiloh Tabernacle

ADDRESS BY OVERSEER JANE DOWIE

EVERY Lord’s Day afternoon, when the great throngs gather at the Auditorium in the city of Chicago to hear the Message of Elijah the Restorer, there is another, and often larger audience, gathered in Shiloh Tabernacle, at Zion City, to praise and worship God and to hear the truths of the Everlasting Gospel, taught by Overseer Jane Dowie. Her deep insight into the Word of God; her many years of experience as the companion and co-laborer of the General Overseer, in the teaching and preaching of the Gospel, and the ministry of Divine Healing, in many lands; and her great love for the people; give to Overseer Jane Dowie a power in speaking and in prayer, which has been, and is of untold blessing to many thousands in Zion.

The sweetness and beauty of her character, her many years of self-sacrificing toil among the poor, the sinful, the sick, the sorrowful and the dying, her words of wise and loving counsel to perplexed and troubled women, who lay their woes and problems before her, have made her deeply beloved by the people, and her voice is gladly heard.

In these Lord’s Day afternoon services in Shiloh Tabernacle, Overseer Dowie is assisted by her only son, Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie, who leads in the Recitation of the Apostles’ Creed, reads God’s Commandments and the Scripture Lesson, and also makes the announcements.

These exercises are always conducted with dignity and impressiveness, and God gives blessing to the people as they join in them.

The service was opened with the usual Processional Hymn, recitation of the Apostles’ Creed, reading of the Commandments and singing of the Te Deum.

Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie read from the Inspired Word of God, beginning at the 16th verse and reading to the close of the chapter.

The tithes and offerings were then received and the announcements made, after which Overseer Jane Dowie said:

"I take my text from the 23d, 24th and 25th verses of the 5th chapter of Luke:"

TEXT.

"Whether it is easier to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?"

But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins (He said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house.

And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that wherein he lay, and departed to his house, glorifying God.

And immediately they knew that he was healed, and they glorified God; and they that were brought together were filled with fear.

The joy of the living and the peace of God that passeth knowledge were spread abroad among them.

"What precedes Divine Healing."

All eyes were upon Jesus as He spoke to the sick man, saying, "Son, be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven thee." As Jesus looked at him He saw what he needed, and said: "Man, thy sins are forgiven thee."

It is very probable that the man had the palsy in consequence of some sin of his own.

Today, when people are brought into the Divine Healing meetings suffering from the palsy, the first thing that we think of is, Has he become paralyzed through taking nicotine poison?

Is he what the General Overseer calls a "stinkpot?"

"Sin the Direct Cause of Sickness."

In these days a great proportion of men who are paralyzed are brought into that condition through nicotine poison or through other sins of the flesh.

There are sins of the flesh that produce palsy.

There are sins of the flesh that produce palsy.

The sweetness and beauty of her character, her many years of self-sacrificing toil among the poor, the sinful, the sick, the sorrowful and the dying, her words of wise and loving counsel to perplexed and troubled women, who lay their woes and problems before her, have made her deeply beloved by the people, and her voice is gladly heard.
If this had been done it is very probable that he would have gone back to the same sins.

Jesus saw that the first thing necessary was the forgiveness of this man's sins.

He told him first: "Thy sins are forgiven thee;" then He said, "Arise and walk."

In the meantime, the Pharisees and doctors of the law who were sitting by listening, thought, Now we can have something against Him. He claimed that He had the power to forgive sins, and who can forgive sins but God only?

This man is claiming to be God; He is committing blasphemy.

They showed the thoughts of their hearts by the expressions on their faces as they looked at one another.

A Manifestation of the Son of Man's Power.

They did not say it aloud, but Jesus knew their thoughts.

He answered their thoughts by asking the question: "Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?"

Then, that they might know that the Son of Man hath power to forgive sins, He at once showed that He had the power by giving the word of command to the man.

He said to him, "Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto the house."

The man arose, took up his bed and went out before them glorifying God who hath given such power to men.

Such is the Story as it is related in the Wonderful Book of books.

We See These Things Done Today.

We have seen meetings crowded to the doors with the sick. When they could not get in because of the press, they were not discouraged.

They were brought in, and God healed in answer to the prayers of his servant.

Jesus did not only teach and demonstrate, when He was here in person on earth, that He had power to forgive sins, and to heal the sick, but He also directed His disciples, whom He sent out to preach the Gospel, to heal the sick.

He said: Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

One of the things that He taught them to observe was that they should be baptized into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and that in His Name they should lay hands on the sick and they should recover.

In our day, when these words are spoken with power, the signs follow just as they followed after the Christ's death and resurrection.

They were brought in, and God healed in answer to prayer.

As I was telling this story to the audience, a doctor was sitting well in front, whose patient was in the audience, and had sent up a thanksgiving testimony that she had been healed in answer to prayer.

The doctor became very angry, and jumped up as if he were going to say, "No, you are wrong, count them again."

She then looked around and counted, "One, two, three, four," and so on, pointing to each one as she spoke; then she saw herself in a mirror, and counted herself.

That was where she had made her mistake.

She did not know herself; but thought that her reflection was another person in the room.

Doctors Infuriated When Their Craft Is in Danger.

As I was telling this story to the audience, a doctor was sitting well in front, whose patient was in the audience, and had sent up a thanksgiving testimony that she had been healed in answer to prayer.

He was giving his services now without charge, after she and her husband, a working man, had spent all they could get, on his treatment.

This was looked upon as a very kind deed, but in reality he was only experimenting on her.

She had tumors and a complication of diseases and humbly speaking she could not recover, not being able to rise from her bed for seven years.

The doctor became very angry, and jumped up as if he had been sitting on pins and needles, and shouted out to me, "That is blasphemy, I do not believe it."

The General Overseer told the man to sit down, and he would give him some more information.

He said, "This man has challenged my wife's statement, and I happen to have a letter here that was handed to me this afternoon from the German lady who is Christian's mistress, and was present when the girl received her sight."

She asks me to pray for some one else who is sick.

"In that letter she also tells me that Christine can see perfectly, and is able to do housework."

The General Overseer took up this letter, and said, "If this gentleman wants to know the truth about this case, I will give him the letter."

"The address is on it and he can look her up."

"I shall be here two weeks longer with my wife. Let him expose us and show that it is not a whiff of blasphemy."

He then passed the letter to the irate doctor in the presence of the assembly.

It was returned two weeks after with the Doctor's compliments and no other answer.

It seems such a strange thing that Christian people who believe that Jesus is the Savior from sin should think it such an extraordinary thing to believe that in these days He also heals the sick.

A Theory that Cannot Satisfy the Human Heart.

The theory has been that He simply healed the sick when He was here on earth to prove that He was the Christ, and then after He had proved that He was the Christ it was not necessary to have any more miracles of healing.

Has it been proved?

If it was proved in those days, does it prove it in our day to say that He used to heal, but that He does not do it now?

Is it satisfactory?

Would it satisfy us to know that He forgave sins then, but that He does not do it now?

Would it be enough to know that people could be born
ADDRESS BY OVERSEER JANE DOWIE.

791

The power of the Holy Spirit by obedience and faith in the Living Savior, in those days, but not now?

That would not satisfy the human heart today.

We know that it was prophesied that when the Christ came He would open the eyes of the blind, bind up the broken-hearted, give deliverance to the captive, and set at liberty them that are bruised, and that it is part of His redemptive work.

No Limit to God's Power.

Were we to be asked the question, Whither it is easier for Jesus to say, "Thy sins are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise and walk?" we would say that with God one is just as easy as the other, but the forgiveness of sins must come before the healing of disease; because the blessing is first spiritual and then physical.

We are so glad to be able to teach the people this Gospel, and not to only teach it but to demonstrate by witnesses who are with us all the time.

Most of the people who are here in Zion City can witness that at some time God has healed them.

They know when we do not receive blessing it is not because of any unwillingness or inability on God's part, but because we have not repented of all our sins, perhaps, nor have been committing sins of ignorance or disobedience.

How many of us have received and are receiving blessing all the time, and are being kept by the power of God.

What a joy it is to know that the man with the palsy went away that day whole, carrying his own bed, and glorifying and praising God, who had given such power unto men, and that we are continuously sending up a stream of Praise and Glory to God for His wonderful works.

Zion City is an Object Lesson to the Whole World.

They look and wonder and see that there is a prophet in Israel.

They know that Elijah has come again.

We know that our leader has come in the spirit and power of Elijah, and that he is teaching us.

We are looking forward to the Restoration of All Things that God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets since the world began.

We are in the beginning of these times, and we do rejoice that it is so.

We do each person in Zion City to help in this. Every one can do something. If we work together in unity and purity and peace He will give power because In Union There is Strength.

If a large company of people such as we have here in Zion City are filled with the Holy Spirit, what can we not do for God?

Those who have gone in to Chicago today to carry the Message of Peace, what can they not do for God in bringing that City to the Christ?

Above all, power is going forth, in the Little White Dove, Leaves of Healing, carrying the Message which is delivered every Lord's Day in Chicago by the General Overseer, and the knowledge of what is being wrought.

It passes out through the mails to the people, and reaches to the uttermost parts of the earth and all eyes are being turned hitherward.

In Australia the people remember how, when the General Overseer was there, he fearlessly preached the Gospel.

The wicked people remember how they tried to lie about him there, and yet how much they respected him, and how the good people that knew him loved him.

They remember how those who were suffering from all kinds of diseases were healed through the Prayer of Faith and the laying on of hands; and how we worked there year after year to carry the Full Gospel to the people.

Now they see how it is being brought back by the messengers who are taking the Little White Dove from house to house in every street and lane.

We have the privilege of this wonderful teaching.

We have no need for doctors or drugs, for we have the Great Physician, Jesus, the Christ, the Righteous.

At the time when the man sick of the palsy was healed, and the Pharisees were exchanging their thoughts and imagined that He was a blasphemer, Jesus said to them, "They that are well have no need of a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice."

Plain Words for the Hypocrite.

These people were pretending to be spiritual when they were full of uncleanness. They were hypocrites. Jesus once said they were like whitened sepulchers full of rottenness and dead men's bones. He spoke to them very plainly. If we have any hypocrites in Zion we want to speak to them very plainly and very severely today.

We can have mercy upon, and we can be very patient with, people who sin because they are ignorant; but we have no mercy for the hypocrite until he confesses and gets right with God and his fellow men.

We want all the hypocrites to leave Zion City.

They can live somewhere else, if they must live, but we do not want them here.

We want to have a people who are true and simple in faith.

I notice in the chapter, from which I took this lesson, that Jesus addresses this man as "man."

In the Gospel of Matthew, however, we read, according to the margin, that He said to him, "child."

He was a full-grown man, yet he was a child in faith. To have faith for healing we must have simple, child-like faith.

Not the faith that thinks it knows everything, but the simple faith that can come down to the feet of Jesus.

We would be at the feet of Jesus; we would bow before Him. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

All who desire to give themselves wholly to God, spirit, soul, and body, and desire to be free from sin, sickness, and all uncleanness, stand. (The entire audience stood.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee, take me as I am, and make me what I ought to be; forgive my sins and make me clean in spirit, soul and body. Help me to do right. Give me Thy Holy Spirit to keep me from sin and to cleanse me from all unrighteousness. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Overseer Jane Dowie—If you have truly repented of your sins, and are determined that if you have wronged any one you will put it right at your first opportunity, then we know that God, who has taught us that if we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, has forgiven your sins, and He will cleanse you from all unrighteousness.

After a short interval the Lord's Supper was administered, in which about two thousand five hundred communicants participated.

After the Recessional had been sung the service was closed by Overseer Jane Dowie pronouncing the Benediction.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

NOTES FROM ZION'S HARVEST FIELD

By REV. J. G. EXCELL, General Ecclesiastical Secretary

Europe.

After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation, and of all tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the Throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes and palms in their hands; and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God, which sitteth on the Throne and unto the Lamb. — Revelation 7:9.

FROM this Scripture it is evident that the saved will be of every kindred, tribe and tongue.

Zion believes the Word of God, and therefore sends her missionaries to every land.

The Banner of Zion has been firmly planted in Europe.

Since the General Overseer's advent to Zurich, which is the Headquarters of our work on the Continent, great blessing has attended the preaching of the Word.

Our ordained workers are not many as to numbers, but it is "not by an army, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith Jehovah," that the cause of God is to be advanced.

We rejoice in the fact that the officers whom the General Overseer sent to represent Zion in Europe are laboring under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

As in America, so also in Europe, the people are hungering and thirsting for righteousness.

They are tired of lifeless forms, and are learning that Zion has not only the form, but the power of the Spirit of God.

Many people of God who are connected with the apostate churches are hungering and thirsting for the Bread of Life, and for the River of Water of Life.

As the streams in the desert, so is the truth proclaimed by our messengers, and the souls of the weary are refreshed as they hear the proclamation of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

It is not a new Gospel. It is the same that we have heard from the beginning, even the Gospel of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

Although we have received no formal report for publication, we take pleasure in giving the following letter from Elder Hodler, who is in charge of the work on the Continent:

ZURICH, SWITZERLAND.

KLAUSSTRASSE 44, MARCH 5, 1903.

DEAR ELDER: —All is going well here and we are happy to be in this glorious work.

Of course we are very busy, as my wife and Evangelist Hertrich are still in Germany, and we have to hold the meetings and visit the sick people here and around Zurich.

Deaconess Baliff has been for some days at the Home at Liebguth to help Mrs. Hofer with the guests there; so I was quite alone.

As you will have heard by direct letters of Evangelist Hodler and my wife, they had beautiful and blessed meetings in the north of Germany.

They had over three and four hundred people in some public halls, and many are joining Zion.

They are in Berlin now and in a few days they will be home again to help us here after a little rest.

I think that we will have to send some one to Italy this spring as some friends are calling for a visit.

I shall be in Bern next week to have the first Baptist meeting in that city, where we have taken a hall for some weeks, and where we had some wonderful healings.

We also have beautiful meetings here in Zurich and in Winterthur and other places.

I sent a former captain of the Salvation Army out to Germany to see Zion Literature.

May God bless you abundantly, dear Elder.

Your fellow servant in the service of the Christ,

C. HODLER.

It will be seen from the following reports that Zion believes in the ministry of faithful women.

The Word of God says, "There can be no male and female: for ye all are one in the Christ, Jesus."

We understand from this and from other Scriptures that God has called both men and women to proclaim the Word of Truth.

Deaconess Baliff is one of those sent by the General Overseer to represent the cause of Zion.

She has been doing faithful work, and we rejoice in the fact that God has used her in turning people from darkness to light; from superstition and error to the truth of His Word.

We are glad to note that God has manifested His blessing by healing the people in answer to her prayers.

We trust that God will call other faithful women to proclaim His truth in Europe, so that "the women that publish the tidings" will be a great host.

KLAUSSTRASSE 24, ZURICH, SWITZERLAND.

DEAR ELDER: —Very often I am sent out to the country towns to hold meetings, and God is blessing those who attend.

Last Sunday I went to Herisau.

At the close of the services an old man stepped up to me, and, with tears in his eyes, handed me all his cigars, and said: "I wish to be a different man with the help of God." It was very touching.

Friday night we held a Zion Restoration meeting.

Our band is small yet, but, praise God, it is always increasing.

A few weeks ago a young girl stepped up to me asking if I would heal her.

The doctors had told her that she would have to undergo an operation, as a fine skin was growing over her eye, and she was losing her eyesight.

I told her that I could not heal her, but that I knew some One who could do it.

She was a Roman Catholic girl and had no Bible, but when I gave her the Word when I gave her the Word when I gave her the Word when she was losing her eyesight.

She eagerly reads the Zion Literature now, and has bought a Bible.

We have many Roman Catholics who are coming to our meetings.

Another thing which rejoices my heart very much is to see how people are longing for the Word as soon as we visit them and teach them.

Many homes in Zion have asked of God to bring blessings for spirit, soul and body.

We are finding many homes where the Bible is not to be found, and we have been the means in God's hands of carrying many Bibles to the homes of the sick and sinful.

We rejoice and are happy in God.

S. BALIFF.

As will be seen by the above letter from Elder Hodler, his beloved wife, Evangelist Hodler, in company with Evangelist Hertrich, have been visiting different places in Germany.

God has especially blessed their labors.

Our readers will bear in mind that the following reports were not sent for publication, but are private letters.

We feel, however, that our readers will greatly appreciate the following words from Evangelist Hertrich:

ZURICH, SWITZERLAND.

KLAUSSTRASSE 44, MARCH 5, 1903.

DEAR ELDER: —Peace to thee.

I found your welcome letter here yesterday when Evangelist Hodler and I arrived.

About fifty persons gathered here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich, where we are being entertained, to listen to the Messengers from Zion.

Tomorrow and on Sunday evening, we expect to have a public hall in which to speak.

At each place thus far, we have had lively times as the close of our public services, answering the objections and questions of the ministers.

God gave us the victory, and many have received the truths more fully because of the attacks of these ministers.

We have been visiting some dear friends of Zion in their humble homes.

Our hearts have been gladdened with the stories of how they were blessed through the teaching of Zion in Leaves of Healing.

At Coblenz we were invited to tea by a countess.

In her lovely home, in the presence of the count and four children, she asked me to tell them something about Zion, which, of course, I did with great joy.

The way has been opened all through our journey to bring the glad Message of a full salvation to many who have been in doubt and fear concerning Zion.

SOPHIA J. HERTRICH.
Our readers will see that the Evangelist has spent several days in Lübeck, and then proceeded to Nörenberg.

The following report is also from Evangelist Hertrich:

NÖRENBERG IN FÜSSMERN, February 11, 1903.

DEAR ELDER:—Peace to thee he multiplied. We left our pleasant home at Mr. U’s yesterday, and stopped a few hours at Sleiter, where we had a nice talk with Mr. H.-- who is preaching there without belonging to any church.

We may hold a meeting there when we go back.

We were made welcome here by Mr. and Mrs. K., who seem to be very nice people and friends of Zion, but who have been warned by professional friends against Zion.

But I must tell you something more about Lübeck, and Sunday evening in a public hall.

All the other evenings we held the meetings in the nice parks of the home where we were entertained, and also on Sunday morning, when we held three services combined.

We first talked to the parents, and then consecrated three children; we then spoke on the suffering of the Christ, and administered the Lord’s mission for seven years in Sweden.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, APRIL 29th or 30th.

Evils Found in Children.

1. Some evils are bred in them.—Exodus 20:5. Evil can be inherited. It may be a physical distemper. Perhaps some defect of character.

2. Disposition to sin is fixed.—Job 19:1. Continually watch for displays of evil. Who can tell what may be in the heart? Occasions of liberty bring out much yet unseen.

3. They have both moral and physical handicaps.—Deuteronomy 32:15. Parents mark children's characters. Like produces like. Sometimes children are not like parents.

4. Their spirit sometimes is worldly and selfish.—Ephesians 5:19. That which is born of the flesh is flesh. A child is from an earthly being. By grace they may live for things above.

5. That makes them rebel against doing right.—Numbers 11:30. A Peevish child is a care. A murmuring spirit is a trial. A rebellious disposition is a strife.

6. It develops pride and deception.—Isaiah 53:3. Children are what they are made. A child can be a liar from the crib. They can do mean things from childhood.

7. It manifests foolishness and indecency.—Proverbs 29:15. Some children will do all manner of foolishness. It is strange if they do not act foolishly. There is a way to correct them.

8. Brings sorrow and burdens on children.—Ecclesiastes 1:18. How vain all is at its best estate. The Lord our God is a Safeguarding God.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

AS FAR AS POSSIBLE THE APPLICANT HIMSELF SHOULD FILL OUT THIS BLANK. WRITE PLAINLY AND WITH INK.

ARE YOU THINKING OF TAKING UP A COURSE OF READING?

THE ELEVEN Bound Volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING contain the best thoughts about Art, Music, Literature, and Science; they tell of things far more strange and interesting than fiction, and all true; they are an Inspired Bible Commentary and the safest and best works extant on Theology.

The Most Blessed Opportunity of these latter days was to live in Zion Headquarters from the beginning until now. Comparatively few had that opportunity. The next best opportunity is that of reading these Eleven Volumes. That is within the reach of almost everyone. The members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion are anxious to miss that opportunity.

SOME ZION CITY RESIDENCES

ZION CITY is a city of homes, beautiful within and without, sheltering a happy, prosperous, godly home-life. By industry, frugality, wise investment of savings and a willingness to undergo some of the hardships of pioneer life, the vast majority of the people now resident in Zion City own their homes. Zion teaches and cultivates in her people a true conception of the value of beauty, and as a result, the residences in the City of Zion are pleasing to the eye in architectural design and exterior and interior decoration. The above are representative homes.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A RISE AND THRESH, O DAUGHTER OF ZION:
FOR I WILL MAKE THINE HORN IRON,
AND I WILL MAKE THY HOOF BRASS:
AND THOU SHALT BEAT IN PIECES MANY PEOPLES:
AND THOU SHALT DEVOTE THEIR GAIN UNTO JEHOVAH, AND THEIR SUBSTANCE UNTO JEHOVAH OF THE WHOLE EARTH.

ZION MUST BE MILITANT before she can be Triumphant.
Zion must thresh out her own Harvest.
Zion must Conquer Nations.
Zion must bring the Spoils of her Conquests into the Storehouse of God.

IT IS VAIN to imagine Zion at peace with the World, the Flesh or the Devil.
It is vain to imagine Zion at peace with Corruption in the Nation, the City or the Home.
It is vain to imagine that Zion will hold her peace when the Powers of Darkness are attacking the citadel of the Church.

MANY NATIONS shall go and say,
Come ye, and let us go up unto the Mountain of Jehovah,
And He will teach us of His Ways,
And we will walk in His Paths;
For out of Zion shall go forth Instruction,
And the Word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.

DAYS OF PEACE are with us, and all the principal Gates of the World, by Land and Sea, are standing open for Zion to pass through.

WE EARNESTLY REMIND our readers, and especially those at a distance, that ZION'S THIRD FEAST OF TABERNACLES will be held in Shiloh Park, in the City of Zion, from Saturday, July 11th, to the evening of Lord's Day, July 19th.

WE PROPOSE TO DELIVER, as one of the Special Features of our Third Feast, a Series of Early Morning Instructions to Zion Restoration Host, with a view to the Preparation of a Legion of about Four Thousand (4,000) Members, which we hope to lead to New York October 14th, for the Great Mission in Madison Square Garden.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

ON LORD'S DAY, July 12th, for the 2 o'clock General Assembly, we now summon a Special Rally of all the Members of the Host who have been enrolled for service in that Mission.

The ground floor of Shiloh Tabernacle will be cleared for their accommodation, and we shall present before the Lord and His people, we trust, at least Three Thousand (3,000) Members of the New York Legion, consecrating them publicly to this Great First Expedition of Zion Restoration Host from the City of Zion, for the Conquest of the whole Earth.

WE BELIEVE that this will be one of the most impressive and solemn services ever held in Zion, and that the Power of God will descend upon the Consecrated Host in the three months of continued Preparation, which will then lie before them.

EVEN IF MANY of our friends cannot remain throughout the entire Feast, we trust that they will be present at this Assembly, and we especially desire the presence of every member of the New York Expedition.

ONLY A PEOPLE prepared by God in Zion, and thoroughly instructed in His Ways, can ever go forth successfully into the great Harvest Field of the Great Cities of the World, to gather together “Multitudes, Multitudes in the Valley of Decision.”

Who is ready to go down for God, with the Sickle of Truth, and reap the Ripe Harvest in the Valley of Decision?

ONLY A BLOOD-CLEANSED PEOPLE whom Jehovah hath purified in Zion, and who know their Mission in the Great Harvest Field of Final Restoration of All Things, can ever be the Successful Reapers of multitudes for Him ere the Day of Darkness shall come—the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah—when the “Sun and Moon are darkened;” when the “stars withdraw their shining;” “when Jehovah roars from Zion” and speaks from Jerusalem; when “the Heavens and the Earth shake;” when the People of God find a “Stronghold” in Him, in the Zion which He hath established.

A glorious Day will then appear—a Day that is already dawning.

AND IT SHALL come to pass in that Day,
That the Mountains shall drop down Sweet Wine,
And the Hills shall flow with Milk,
And all the brooks of Judah shall flow with Water;
And a Fountain shall come forth of the house of Jehovah.

SHOULD THE LORD tarry and give us length of days and strength, we shall, by His grace, lead forth every year, from the City of Zion, vast Legions of Zion Restoration Host, not only in one large City, but we expect the numbers to be so large that we shall be able to direct the operations of the Legions in covering the strategic points of a certain State, and we may say that even now we are planning a most interesting and thrilling Invasion of a certain State in the Fall of 1904.

WE HAVE COME to the Decision that so far as Aggressive Operations are concerned, the hope of the Restoration and its glorious realization in the Planting of Zion Cities over all the Earth, is to be found in the Operations of Zion Restoration Host.

THE TRAINING of a Zion Junior Restoration Host is very much upon our hearts, and we hope to be able to give a prominent place to this work on the Second Lord’s Day, the Last Great Day of Zion’s Third Feast of Tabernacles.

WE HAVE NEARLY One Thousand (1,000) Members of Zion Junior Seventies in the City of Zion alone, and with those from other cities, who will be brought, we trust, by their parents, we shall hope to be able to gather thousands more, and to have a great Procession of Zion Junior Seventies, with their Banners and their insignia on the morning of that Lord’s Day. Then we shall reorganize them as Zion Restoration Host.
LEAVES OF HEALING

WE SHALL ENTRUST the direction of that Celebration, and the details of the Reorganization into a Zion Junior Restoration Host to Overseer Brasefield, who will, God willing, be ordained to that office on the First Lord's Day of the Feast, and who is now the Vice-president of all Zion Educational Institutions.

With his splendidly organized staff of Educators, Overseer Brasefield will doubtless be able to organize a magnificent Presentation of the Children of Zion—the Hope of Zion in all the days to come.

WE ARE looking forward to a Royal Generation of Children growing up through youth and maidenhood into the glorious strength and fulness of spiritual, psychical and physical manhood and womanhood.

To the many thousands who will doubtless gather for Zion's Third Feast of Tabernacles, one of the most suggestive and inspiring features of this glorious occasion will be the remarkable Object Lesson of the processions of Zion Restoration Host in Preparation, and of Zion Restoration Host in Maturity.

WE HAVE A NUMBER of very interesting and delightful Announcements to make in connection with the coming Feast of Tabernacles.

We hope to be able to issue the Full Program very early in May, from Zion's new Printing and Publishing House, the first section of which is now being built in Shiloh boulevard and Deborah avenue, in Zion City.

We earnestly ask the prayers of all our people, far and near, for Grace to Plan, and for Resources of every kind with which to execute these plans for the Glory of God, the Blessing of vast multitudes, and the Preparation for the world-wide Mission of Zion.

PASSING FROM these announcements concerning Zion's Third Feast of Tabernacles, from July 11th to July 19th, we shall now, although the time at our disposal for doing so is very short, refer to the current work of Zion at Headquarters.

IN CONNECTION with this we desire to present to our readers some interesting facts concerning the present condition of Zion Educational Institutions.

The readers of our semi-weekly paper, The Zion Banner, will note from its columns that we have recently perfected a Reorganization of the entire College and School work.

WE KNOW no better way in which to state the present condition of matters than to give the following, slightly abbreviated, last weekly report of Vice-president Brasefield.

ZION CITY, LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS, U. S. A., April 16, 1903.

My Dear General Overseer and President:—Peace to thee.

With the reports of the Principals before me, I am glad to write you that the Educational work has never been in better condition.

The Reorganization of the Department has increased the efficiency of the teaching staff, and put some square people into square holes.

Miss Luella Waddington has already shown her executive power, and the Twenty-first street school has improved greatly under her direction.

Overseer Speicher and I have perfected a plan whereby I will be able to notify him daily in regard to the Health Conditions of the pupils and students.

This will enable him to learn quickly of any contagious disease and prevent its spread among the children.

Great interest is being shown in the Polytechnic School, and the draining of the basement of the new building and its cementing will enable us to begin our woodwork and make a good part of our necessary furniture and equipment. This can be done under Professor Bayley's direction, and will not only enable us to keep money in Zion, but will also furnish worthy young men employment.

The tendency of a large number of our students is toward mechanical pursuits, and we can meet this need splendidly by equipping the Polytechnic School for its work in the several departments.

The following is the registration in Zion City to date for this term:

Praying God's blessing upon you, I am,
Yours in His Service, (Signed) H. D. BRASEFIELD.

In addition to the foregoing, it must be remembered that we have a number of schools in and around Chicago, and in other cities, numbering several hundreds of pupils.

We regret to say that we have not sufficient school accommodation for the children now in Zion City.

We endeavor to so arrange that they shall all get some careful attention.
We are building a commodious new schoolhouse, which will be fully ready after the summer recess.

The large, beautiful first section of the Educational Building on Twenty-seventh street and Enoch avenue, will be ready in time for the Ministerial Training School, College, Business School, Music, Normal, Polytechnic and Preparatory Schools, all of which were a part of what was known as Zion College, but which is felt should be kept in the classification now adopted.

All our Schools and Colleges are designed with a view to a future Zion University.

There is much room in connection with the Educational Institutions for large Christian liberality.

We are praying that God shall put it into the hearts of some of His stewards to help us very materially in the furnishing of the substantial building fronting Shiloh Park, on Twenty-seventh street and Enoch avenue, which is the admiration of all who see it.

Its proper furnishing and equipment will cost us many thousands of dollars.

We invite the friends of Zion to consider the claims of Zion's Educational Institutions, for which we have, at much sacrifice, provided no less than Five Large New Buildings within the last eight months.

We say, with greater confidence than at any previous time, that Zion's Educational Institutions are now placed on a footing of solid strength, with a splendid staff of teachers and professors.

We are justified in earnestly appealing to Zion everywhere to come with, or to send their children, and their young men and women, into Zion's Schools of Learning.

Perfect discipline is maintained and no known evil habits are tolerated for a moment.

The whole tone, both of young and old, is in keeping with the entire atmosphere of Zion City, which we can truly say is one of Purity, and Peace, and Power, and Progress—God's Presence is felt everywhere.

We have called for a fuller Educational report from Professor Brasfield, and have placed our columns at his disposal as soon as he is able to write a General Descriptive Article with a Catalogue of the Courses, and the names of the teachers, etc.

Next to the Ecclesiastical, the Educational Interests of Zion have been most constantly in our prayers, and thoughts, and efforts.

Turning to the Business Interests of Zion, we have to say that all is well.

"Growing in favor with God and man," is the verdict of all.

Never were the Financial, Land, Investment, and Commercial Institutions of Zion, with her various Industries, in a healthier and better condition; although we are yet in our Infancy in many things.

When we meet our Friends at the Midsummer Feast, we shall be delighted to give them many interesting Details of Zion's Business for God, especially on Wednesday, July 15th, the Second Anniversary of the Opening of the Gates of Zion.

On the Afternoon of that day, a great Procession, God willing, headed by Zion Guards and Zion Band, consisting of the Municipal Officers of the City, and of the Officers and Employees of all Zion's Institutions, will be reviewed by us at the Administration Building, and then proceed to Shiloh Tabernacle, where our Service of Thanksgiving will be held.

At that Meeting we shall hope to place Printed Matter in the hands of our friends, showing in a clear and simple manner the Wonderful Progress of the City, which then will have completed its Second Year of existence.

But it is impossible in the time now left us to even quote from the many excellent Reports that are in our hands.

But it is impossible in the time now left us to even quote from the many excellent Reports that are in our hands.

We must leave these until a later Issue, and to the Occasion to which we have just referred.

Zion has been diligently attending to her Political Interests both in Chicago and in this City.

God has been overruling in that great and wicked Babel, from which we have come out, and is enabling us to deal some effective blows against the Iniquitous Administration, which has so shamefully triumphed in the Reelection of the Mayor, who has allied himself with all the worst Elements of Chicago life.

It will be seen from the Report of the Proceedings in the Chicago Auditorium in this issue, that we had felt it our duty to expose the Shameful Overtures that had been made to us. for the judicial sacrifice of Judge Tuley in exchange for Zion's Influence and Votes.

CHICAGO, and indeed a large portion of the Country, has been greatly stirred by the revelations that have been made, and which are referred to in our Report, on pages 812 to 815 of this issue.

We shall make final reference to the matter in our Prelude of Tomorrow, entitled, "The Final Word Concerning Mayor Harrison's Proposal to Sacrifice Judge Tuley."

There can be no question that what we have said is universally believed, notwithstanding the clumsy attempts at Denials and Explanations by Mayor Harrison and Master of Chancery Granville Browning.

Judge Tuley's remarks on the subject only complicate their "explanations," and still further implicate the offenders, for whom there is no escape, except by repentance and confession, as they will find out when we speak in the Chicago Auditorium tomorrow.

In the City of Zion, the election of School Trustees takes place this day, and on Tuesday next that of the Municipal Officers.

The question of the appointment of a Zion City Judge with Circuit and Superior Court power will also be decided by the voters on Tuesday.

On the evening of that day a great Ratification Rally will be held at Shiloh Tabernacle, when we shall deliver an address upon "The First Triumphant Year of the Theocratic Party, and its Glorious Future Possibilities."

It is most delightful for us to see the interest that our Zion Women, who are permitted to vote under the Law in connection with School Trustees, etc., are taking, in the exercise of the Franchise, limited though that privilege is at present.

We are also pleased to see the earnestness with which all our people enter into the Election of their Officers, although there is but one Ticket in the Field.

The unanimity displayed at the Recent Convention of the Theocratic Party, when these Officers were nominated, was most encouraging.

We are absolutely without any Political Partisan Strife in Zion City.

We are of one Heart and one Mind in the Lord, and no "Root of Bitterness" is left in any Mind or Heart when the Annual Election is past.

The week has been one of delightful but most arduous toil for God. All "the people have a mind to work."

We realize that we are being led by the Spirit, and are following Him who alone leads the Hosts of Heaven, and directs the Hosts of God on Earth, in the Conflict of the Ages.

His Name is Emmanuel, for He is "God with us."
We know that His Promise is true, "Lo I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age."

JESUS, STILL lead on,
Till our Rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless;
Guides us by Thy hand
To our Fatherland.

If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not Faith and Hope forsake us;
For, through many a foe,
To our Home we go.

JESUS, STILL lead on,
Till our Rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us;
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland.

There are many Trials, many Temptations, and many Foes as we press onward.
But we do not dwell on these.
We meet them, and OVERCOME them, by the grace of God.
We Go Forward.
LET IT BE SUSPECTED that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B]:

A. What does this question mean? Do you really oppose that God has superceded the Way of healing in this era, of which you now speak, and that Jesus who was the Christ, our Lord and God, is in the present times using no other methods to heal men than those by which He healed the sick in the days of His flesh?

B. I am not opposed to the methods that Jesus used in the days of His flesh. I am opposed to the methods that all devils, through their different agencies, are using in the present times to lure men to themselves and to keep them away from the true healing of God.

A. But does the church of Jesus Christ not use the Holy Spirit to heal the sick in the present times?

B. Of course, but it is a different kind of healing. The healings wrought by the Holy Spirit in the days of the Early Church were different from those wrought by Jesus in the days of His flesh.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes. I can prove this from the Scriptures.

A. But can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil’s work?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are many and very numerous. I need quote only two. In Isaiah 3:8, “The whole land shall be as a winding sheet.” Then, if you will refer to Acts 10:38, you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] “went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil.”

A. But what is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God’s Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus, who is both our Savior and our Healer. He said, “Lo, I am with you All the Days of the World.” (Matthew 28:20.) And He added, “No Power on Earth or in Hell can ever permanently keep back Zion.” (Matthew 16:18.) This is Zion’s Century, and as the Gates of the Third Year open into the Glorious Spring, our Hearts are full of Joy and many Thousands move forward in Unbroken Lines. Like the Army described in Joel—only we are Restorers not Destroyers—They march every one on his ways, and They break not their ranks.

ALL IS WELL, and, by God’s grace, Zion’s many thousands continue to overcome, through “the Blood of the Lamb, and because of the Word of their Testimony.”

ZION’S Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of special value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

“The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order,” “Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination,” and “Degrees of Masonic Devilry” ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystie Shrine is laid bare.

“The Christian’s Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath” is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason. Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

In connection with giving the details of the shameful trickery of Mayor Harrison (see pages 812-815), the General Overmeer said:

That is the kind of a man you have in the mayoral chair. He is a man who, in order to get our support, sent Mr. Granville Browning, a Master in Chancery, to offer as a sacrifice a Judge in Chancery, a prominent Democratic leader, the president of the principal Democratic Club in Chicago—the frequency—and to murder him politically. Is that the kind of man who should be mayor of Chicago? He received a plurality of seven thousand votes. I do not believe that he got them honestly. My opinion is that the man who would make such a shameful offer to me, got these votes by countenancing evil and corrupt practices, and by shameful offers to others. My opinion is that he got them by cornering political parties, and then using the people's honest candidates. It is quite apparent in every one that, among the "tories" made by the Democrats, was one with the gamblers, the saloon-keepers, and the dive-keepers, for all these infamous places are running wide open. I was fighting for a clean Chicago. The worst element will now rule in Chicago.

—The Voice of Elijah the Restorer to Chicago Audience, Last Lord's Day, Monday, April 22, 1866.
EVERY MOMENT of the three and a quarter hours of the great service in the Chicago Auditorium Lord's Day afternoon, April 12, 1903, was filled to overflowing with intense interest.

It was Easter, the day set apart by the Church for centuries, as memorial of the Resurrection of Jesus, the Christ.

The Processional, the hymn, the recitation of the Apostles' Creed, the Te Deum, the anthem and the prayer of the General Overseer, all breathed the spirit of Eternal Hope, which was given life by the Resurrection of our Lord.

The Prelude delivered by the Messenger of God is destined to become historic.

It was heard with breathless interest by the thousands of people present.

The scene, as the General Overseer made the disclosure, which was the climax of his prelude, was a most dramatic and impressive one.

That serious charges against Mayor Harrison and his political friends, involving men high in Democratic circles, were to be made at this time, was well known throughout the city.

Accordingly, a very large audience of Chicago's citizens had gathered, filling every desirable seat in the great Auditorium, and standing in hundreds at the rear of the parquet circle. Probably between six and seven thousand people were in attendance.

During the latter part of the week a letter had been sent to the General Overseer threatening his life if he made the promised disclosure.

When the man of God reached that part of his prelude in which he was about to give the details concerning the shameful proposal which had been made to him by a politician who was urging him to support Mayor Harrison's candidacy, a suspicious movement, apparently the drawing of a weapon, on the part of a man seated in the audience, was detected.

Quickly, but calmly, the General Overseer gave the order for the Zion Guard to come forward.

Instantly the guards came from all parts of the house and drew up in a line in front of the stage, facing the audience.

The excitement, though quiet, was intense.

But the speaker proceeded, boldly and fearlessly, with his disclosure of the corruption and treachery in Chicago politics.

The facts were related in full detail, with names and dates.

The Message of Elijah the Restorer was indeed a Restoration Message.

It was not a Message to any particular church or people or race or nation, but to all humanity.

Its subject, "Eternal Hope," was one which appeals to every heart that has ever known sorrow and pain, and in which there has ever been, uttered or unexpressed, the longing to know God, the desire for a life beyond the grave.

Deep down into the hearts of the hearers it sank.

Its realization gave to the joyous songs of Easter time a new signification; for the reality and the blessedness of the Divine Hope, given to man, when the Christ rose from the dead, was made clearer and brighter than ever before.

It was with the light of that Hope shining in their faces, and its gladness vibrating in their voices, that the congregation rose and repeated after the General Overseer the Prayer of Consecration.

Withal, it was a most wonderful service, which will live in the memories and in the lives of many thousands throughout the earth.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, April 12, 1903.

The service was opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Jesus Christ is ris'n today,
Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day,
Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross
Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss.
Alleluia!
Hymns of praise then let us sing
Alleluia!
Unto Christ, our Heavenly King,
Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave
Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save.
Alleluia!
But the pains which He endured,
Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured;
Alleluia!
Now above the sky He's King,
Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing
Alleluia!
Now be God the Father praised,
Alleluia!
Our true God, by all confessed.
Alleluia!

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us and bless us, And cause Thy face to shine upon us; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown Him Lord of all.

PRAYER.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 201:

All hail the power of Jesus' Name! Let angels prostrate fall, Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown Him Lord of all.

RECALLATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles’ Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is within them, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor’s.

The Soul Is Not the Spirit and the Spirit Is Not the Soul.

Paul’s Epistles Were Not Catholic Epistles.

They were epistles to the particular churches, and oftentimes had particular reference to the exact conditions pertaining to these churches.

The first two epistles of Peter, the epistle of James, the first epistle of John and the epistle of Jude, are called catholic epistles because they are for the entire Church.

They are not dealing with matters of discipline, or matters of particular importance to that church only, but they are general and for the Church in All Ages.

Of course, there is a sense in which large portions of Paul’s epistles are catholic also.

Nevertheless, they are addressed to particular churches.

For example, that one which I have just read was addressed to the Christians in Thessalonica, the present Salonica of Southern Europe.

The General Overseer then read the first nine verses of the 1st chapter of 1 Peter, commenting as follows upon the ninth verse:

Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your lives.

I have not read the word souls.

I would that it were better known that

The Soul Is Not the Spirit and the Spirit Is Not the Soul.

The word “soul” ought to be translated “animal life.”

A beast has a soul.
A bird has a soul.
A fish has a soul.

Perhaps you would like to know what my authority is upon the subject.

In the 1st chapter of Genesis, in the 20th verse, it is written:

God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
The word translated "life" is "soul" in the margin. In the 50th verse it is written:
And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to everything that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life.
In the margin again the word life is translated "living soul.
It is the Hebrew equivalent of the Greek, Pneuma.
Every fish of the sea; every beast of the forest; every fowl of the air, and every creeping thing, has a soul, but these creatures do not have spirits.

God is the Maker of Our Souls and Bodies, but He is the Father of Our Spirits.

Hence it is that all creation lower than man is unspiritual; it has psychical and physical life. In all life—in the waters, in the air, and on the earth—there is the Soma, body, and Psyche, the soul, but the Pneuma, the spirit, that which distinguishes man from all other creatures. God is spoken of as the Father of our spirits. He is not the Father of our souls. He is not the Father of beasts, birds and fish; He is the Maker. He is our Father, because we have His spiritual nature.

A tremendous blunder is made by people who imagine that the soul and the spirit are the same thing. They are not. The soul dies.

There is no Immortality of the Soul.

Did not Jesus say, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even unto death?"

Is it not written of Him that "He poured out His soul unto death?"

The Virgin Mary in that wonderful prophetic song which she sang, said: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior." She differentiated between soul and spirit.

Psychology and Pneumatology Confounded.

In psychology many otherwise scholarly men have a notion that mixes pneumatology with psychology.

You fancy, when you are talking about the soul, that you are talking about the spirit. You are doing no such thing. In Scripture the word soul is animal life, and nothing else. You must differentiate between the temporal and the eternal parts of man's being.

Keep it clear in your mind, and you will get a better understanding of Scripture.

As a matter of scholarship there is no question about that. No man who is a scholar, either in Greek or Hebrew, will challenge me when I say that the word Nephesh in Hebrew and the word Psyche in Greek mean animal life.

If you want to get the words in the Bible for spirit, you must take the Hebrew word Ruach and the Greek word Pneuma.

They are never confounded.

The Word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and pierceth even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart.

You see in that passage that there is a difference between soul and spirit. It is the Word of God that divides asunder the soul and the spirit.

When you talk about the immortality of the soul, you are talking crass nonsense.

Any infidel can floor you in a minute in an argument on that subject.

He can take the Word of God and say, "Your Bible says that 'the soul that sinneth, it shall die.' How can a thing be immortal that dies?"

It Was Not the Soul of the Christ That Rose From the Dead.

There was no soul in the Christ when He rose from the dead. He had poured out His soul, every drop of His blood, unto death.

When He rose from the dead His Spirit reanimated a bloodless body.

He had no blood in that body.

He told His Apostles that, when they were afraid and then cleansed an ever-increasingly filthy stream of psychical being, only now were we put our soul and body in the keeping of God and are cleansed by His power. Then He will cleanse you, and He will keep you clean.

I desire to make it clear that when the Christ died His soul died: for He said it would.

But His spirit never died.

The great mass of people only see two parts: soul and body, and because they do not see the spirit, they are always talking about keeping soul and body together.

It is like the big fish eating the little fish, and the big beasts eating the little beasts, and the big birds eating the little birds, in trying to keep soul and body together.

There is something more important to be kept together than your animal life and your poor body.

The Spirit is Immortal.

There is an immortal spirit. Remember that the spirit is immortal, for the reason that God is the Father of our spirits.

We share His nature, being His offspring.

If we are not eternal, He is not; for He is our Father. We are His offspring, and we must share His eternal spiritual nature.

Therefore we cannot die.

The soul and the body can die, but not the spirit.

The sun is but a spark of fire,
A transient meteor in the sky;
The spirit eternal, as its sire,
Shall never die.

There is the essential immortality in our lives—our Divine parentage.

As for our souls—we get the soul direct from Adam in an ever-increasingly filthy stream of psychical being, only now and then cleansed a little, but cleansed wholly, only when we put our soul and body in the keeping of God and are cleansed by His power.

Then He will cleanse you, and He will keep you clean.

I desire to have it clearly understood that Peter meant your psychical nature when he said: "Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

Salvation for the Triune Man a Perfect Salvation.

That is a glorious object, but that is not all, because the Apostle Paul says, "May your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire."

But there must be a beginning.

There are a great many people who do not get complete salvation for their spirits until their lives are saved.

Humility is like a drowning man in the Chicago river.
You cannot picture to yourself a more horrible fate than that a man should be drowned in that river.
It is like Chicago itself.
It is one of the dirtiest things I know.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

If a man were drowning in the Chicago river, and were pulled out of that sewer of pollution, that man would not be saved any further than his life was saved.

A Man's Soul Must Be Saved If You Would Fully Save His Spirit.

So it is with humanity.

You must take humanity out of all kinds of physical and psychical depravity before you can ever get humanity's spiritual nature cleansed.

Healing is not possible, unless you get them out of these things.

It will begin with a spiritual work of regeneration.

Regeneration is a new birth.

When you are born of God, you are born a baby, as every creature is.

Of all the creatures that are feeble when they are born, man is the most helpless.

Any chicken can scratch for a living within three days; but I have known many men and women who could not scratch for a living after they had spent thirty years on this earth.

Some of them never manage to earn their living.

You must get a man out of the river before you can save his spirit.

You must get his soul and body, and then you can get at the spirit.

It is a slow process.

To Be an Instructor of Humanity You Must First Be Instructed.

A great many foolish Christians think that the moment they become Christians, they are full-fledged ministers of the Christ.

They think that they can preach, and teach, and exhort, and do all kind of things.

They are merely babies.

The last thing in the world that a man should attempt to do is to teach his fellow men before he himself is taught.

A spiritual baby cannot tell you how to live a spiritual life.

It is not within the bounds of possibility.

"If he has the Word of God in him, he can speak it," some say.

He can do no such thing.

You may be crammed with the Word of God from Genesis to Revelation, but that does not make you a preacher.

That does not make you an instructor of humanity.

Why?

Because the Word of God must dwell in you richly, and you must live it out and understand it yourself before you can ever teach it effectually to others.

Be not many teachers, my brethren.

There are far too many teachers in the world.

You have so many teachers on all kinds of subjects that humanity is in a fog.

The Daily Press an Ignorant and Lying Instructor.

In the morning the Examinerr and the Chronicle want to teach you; but the Inter Ocean shouts out: "Put them all aside, I am the teacher."

The Tribune shouts out, "I am the teacher," and the Record-Herald shouts, "I am the teacher. I sit upon the fence and am ready to come down on either side as it pays."

You find teachers with millions of tongues, and no unanimity of thought.

They are entirely untaught.

They are entirely untutored.

A short time ago a Chicago paper said that a certain man had been appointed by the Chinese government to a position in Hong Kong.

Every one who knew anything at all about it was laughing, because Hong Kong is a part of the British colony of the Island of Victoria off the Chinese coast, and does not belong to the Chinese Empire at all.

But a wonderful paper said that owing to the influence of an influential Chinese statesman some one had been appointed to a position in Hong Kong by the Chinese government.

These papers are a mass of ignorance and falsehood from beginning to end.

They lie from the first page to the last.

Last week they spent a great deal of their time lying about the Russian Czarina; and then two or three days afterwards, down in a corner of the paper, they said that it was found not to be true.

The teachers are all about us, and you are foolish enough to swallow the teaching of numberless brainless boobies—drunken, dissipated, stinking, filthy reporters.

They are a generation of vipers who are filled with the very abominations of hell.

They do not know how to write the truth when they get it, but rather hate the truth and love and make lies.

America in Need of Protection from Her Daily Press.

If this people were wise, they would have a censorship that would put the liar where you put the thief—behind prison bars.

Is not that the right place for him?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—If I were dictator, I would have them there, as the Daily Spews said not long ago: "When Dowie gets his commission some of us will have to get off the earth."

They were right. (Laughter.)

They would have to repent, or get off the earth.

When the Lord Jesus, the Christ, comes to be Boss of things there will be no Daily Spews.

No liars will be allowed to write, print, and publish lies.

We will have an end of that, then.

The liar is far worse than the thief.

The thief merely takes a little material property; but the liar steals the sensitive spirit of women to the very heart, and enters into the homes, and defiles everything that he touches.

Why do not the American people rise up, and put their heel upon that serpentine press?

You never really know what your public men are saying, doing, or thinking.

The Republican lies about the Democrat, the Democrat lies about the Republican, and they all lie about one another.

You never know the actual facts, without color or bias.

Why?

They do not intend that you shall.

They want to deceive you.

What you need is the salvation of all parts of your life; but the soul and body must be saved before you can do much with the spirit.

Filthy Habits, Which Pollute and Destroy Mankind.

What is the use of trying to do anything with you who have bodies that are full of beer, whisky and pig?

I would as soon preach to a pig itself as to a man or woman who is full of whisky, pork and tobacco.

You cannot think, because you are a mass of rottenness.

You get scrofula, cancer, trichinosis and tuberculasis when you eat pork.

When you smoke tobacco, you are smoking amaurosis, dyspepsia, ulceration of the bowels and stomach, and destroying digestion.

When you drink alcohol, it is Liquid Fire and Distilled Damnation; and how can a man who drinks liquid fire and distilled damnation, smokes Satan's Consuming Fire and eats the flesh that defiles—how can he be, as a spiritual being, of any use at all?

Sometimes I do get below the cuticle of such a fellow, but it is hard.

That is why I have to say hard things to you who are full of all this filth.

How dare you eat and drink those filthy things?

God wants you to be clean, and you know that these things are unclean.

Eat that which is good.

Love that which is good.

Then you will be of some use upon God's earth, and you will help to clean the Political Augean stable of this filthy city.

May God give us the complete Salvation of our lives.

May God bless His Word.

Prayer was offered by the General Overseer.

After making the announcements, the General Overseer delivered the following Prelude:

CHICAGO'S MAYORALTY DISGRACE.

"Doctor, why do you feel that you have to take so much interest in Chicago's affairs?" some one asked the other day.

Why?
CHICAGO'S MAYORALITY DISGRACE.

I know much about them and their methods, from those who have suffered from them.

However, at this time I desire to turn my attention to the mayorality disgrace that is now in the chair.

For four years Mr Harrison kept his word with me.

These were the first four years of his administration, and I venture to say they were years one of which was an improvement upon the other.

When the fifth year came and he was a candidate for re-election. Bobby Burke, then Democratic Boss, and Mr. Harrison's close friend, came down to see me.

I am going to talk now. (Applause.)

Robert E. Burke Asks Zion's Support for Harrison.

I did not have a very high opinion of Mr. Robert Burke; but, after all, he was the representative of the dominant party, which I had supported.

He came to see and ask me whether I would help Mr. Harrison for the third time.

I said: "Mr. Burke, I am tired of some things that have taken place towards the end of this fourth year.

"I find that you have been letting the gamblers have their own way, and it is time to stop it."

"Will you help us do it?" he asked.

"Yes, I will," I replied.

"What will you do?" he asked. "Mr. Harrison is willing."

"Reappoint a certain officer to his place and set him free from both yourself, Mr. Burke, and all your clique, and from Mr. Harrison. Let Joseph Kipley be a real chief of police, and I will clean out the gambling dens in a week." (Applause.)

I knew what I was talking about.

You do not know Joseph Kipley, perhaps, but I do.

There never was a better police officer in this city.

He is a comparatively poor man today, and yet he was an officer of police in high position for thirty or forty years.

No man has ever been able to prove that he ever took a bribe.

Joseph Kipley and the police under him saw my life and the lives of many of my people at Oak Park, on a very serious occasion.

I made his retention a stipulation before we voted for Mr. Harrison when he went into power for the third time.

There was going to be a straight party fight between Hennessy and Harrison, and I knew that we had the balance of power.

Zion's Possession of the Balance of Political Power in Chicago.

When Mr. McKinley and Mr. Bryan were the contending parties it was a straight party vote with less than four thousand majority for Mr. McKinley.

We gave that four thousand.

There was a point at which Mr. Bryan might have had these votes if he had not ridden that silver goat.

In a straight party fight there are not five thousand votes between the two parties.

We have those votes.

We can influence fifteen or twenty thousand.

They knew that, and they came to me to ask how we would vote.

I said, "I am tired of the disgraceful condition into which the city is getting.

"I know you are against Joseph Kipley, Mr. Burke, but if you will get a pledge to me from the Mayor to reappoint him chief of police, we will cast our votes again for Carter Harrison."

"I will withdraw my opposition," he said, "and I will go and see Mr. Harrison."

Mayor Harrison Breaks Anti-Election Pledge.

He brought me the positive assurance from Mr. Harrison that, if we supported him, Joseph Kipley would be chief of police;

I was not content with that.

I put my demand in writing, and I sent Mr. Packard, my attorney, and Deacon Stern, my personal attendant, to get the personal assurance from Mr. Harrison's lips that Mr. Kipley would be reappointed.

Mr. Kipley had promised me that if he were freed from the Burke and Harrison influence and were a real chief of police, that he would clean out the gambling dens and dives, and all that kind of thing.

He could do it within a week or two.

I knew that he was reliable, and when my personal attendant returned from the Mayor with the positive promise I asked for, then I sent him a letter saying I was glad to get the assurance that Joseph Kipley would be reappointed and have free and untrammeled control as Chief of Police.

We did our best in that election.

I will not tell you all we did, but we worked hard.

An immense number of votes were influenced by us.

When the time came and Carter H. Harrison was reminded of his promise to Dr. Dowie, that Joseph Kipley should be reappointed Chief of Police, all that immensely overrated young man remarked was, "Dowie be damned."

When I heard that, I said, "No, Dowie is saved, but Harrison is damned."

Unless he repents he is damned, because he has told a direct lie, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone."

When this next election came I pronounced for John M. Harlan.

And right here I wish to say a very unpleasant duty devolves upon me.

I do not like to say what I am going to.

It is hard.

I have an object in view in telling this today.

A Cowardly Threat of Murder.

I have been told that I would be murdered today

Will a number of the guards please come to the front.

(About fifty guards came forward and drew up in line in front of the stage.)

I will speak the truth if I am shot for it. Do you hear?

(Applause.)

My personal attendant has the letter with him.

It was written from the Hotel Lakota two nights ago and said that I would be shot.

I am not afraid of your bullets, and never was. (Applause.)

They may find the person who wrote that letter before we are through.

I placed the letter in the hands of my personal attendant this morning, and told him that it was to be given tomorrow to Inspector Stuart, chief of the postoffice police.

I am tired of getting these letters.

I have received them for a number of years, whenever I have taken a bold part in municipal politics.

I do not care about that, but it would be well to see who the murderers are.

The guards are here, and the man who fires a shot is likely to be arrested.

Zion's Course Straight.

My course is perfectly straight.

I said from this platform that I would support John M. Harlan.

He failed to get the support of the Republican convention.

Then Mr. Stewart was nominated.

I have nothing to say against Mr. Stewart, because I think of all gentlemen in the Republican party outside of Mr. Harlan, Mr. Stewart was, perhaps, one of the best, if not the best man of the prominent politicians, to get the nomination.

I think that he is perfectly honest, and would have made a splendid mayor.

Mayor Harrison's Appeal for Support.

After I had pronounced for Mr. Harlan, and it was also known that I was going to pronounce for Mr. Stewart, Mr. Granville Browning, a Master in Chancery, with a message from Mr. Harlan, his personal friend, begged to see me at my home in Zion City. He talked to my attendant, from Chicago, over the telephone on Saturday evening, April 4th, about 6 p.m.

I declined.

I said that I did not want to see Mr. Browning.

Mr. Browning is a very gentlemanly man, and I had some pleasant relations with him when he was Assistant Corporation Counsel at the beginning of Mr. Harrison's career as mayor.

However, I had decided for Mr. Stewart and I did not want to talk it over with any friend of Mr. Harrison.

The following day, two weeks ago today, Mr. Browning again sought an interview.

He did not come by my invitation, but the contrary, so I have a right to talk about what happened.

I never promised to keep his proposals secret, and I think the time has come to speak plainly.

Mr. Browning sought to see me in Zion Hospice No. 1, at the corner of Twelfth street and Michigan avenue.

When I arrived there from Zion City about 1:30 o'clock, Mr. Browning was there.

As a matter of course, I gave him an interview.

He pressed me to support Mr. Harrison.

I said that I would not; that we had promised to support Mr. Harlan, and now that he was not nominated I would pronounce for Mr. Stewart that very day.

He argued and reasoned and talked.

Then I told him the story that I have told you, of how Mayor Harrison broke his promise and added insult to falsehood.

Mr. Browning said it was very wrong of the Mayor to break his word, and to say "Dowie be damned."

"I have nothing more to say, Mr. Browning," I said, "I want to part with you pleasantly. I am going to stand for Mr. Stewart."

An Infamous Offer of Political Murder.

Then he drew his chair close to me and said, "I have a logical proposition to make to you which I know will make you stick to Mr. Harrison."

"I think that you would better not make it," I said, "because I do not want to be embarrassed with any private communication."

"I want to make it," he said.

"You make it at your own peril," I replied.

He drew his chair very close to me and he said: "Dr. Dowie, you do not want Judge Tuley to be Judge, do you?"

"No, sir," I answered.

"If you will promise to stick to Mr. Harrison," he said, "Mr. Harrison will promise to strike Judge Tuley's name off the list of candidates on the judiciary ticket of the Democratic party at the convention in Chicago which will be held on April 18th."

The Offer Spurned.

I could only look at him for a moment.

Then I said: "It is a shameful proposition to hand over to me, knifed politically, that old man, at whose side you have been hobnobbing and passing toasts at the Iroquois Club."

While he thought that he had the honest support of his party, they offered, as it were, to murder him politically, and hand over his political dead body to me.

I felt it an insult.

I told him just how I felt.

"Mr. Harrison and I thought that you would accept that proposition," he said.

"Do you not know your man," I replied. "I will fight a fair fight, but I will have nothing to do with men who would knife their own party."

For this reason I wanted this to be known before the nomination of Judge Tuley this week, if he is to be nominated: that, much as I am opposed to Judge Tuley's being elected, and much as I feel that he is an Unjust Judge, I would rather see him elected than knifed in that shameful manner. (Applause.)

That is the kind of man you have in the mayoral chair.

He is a man who, in order to get our support, sent Mr. Granville Browning, a Master in Chancery, a prominent Democratic leader, the president of the principal Democratic Club in Chicago—the Iroquois—and to murder him politically.

Is that the kind of man who should be mayor of Chicago?

Audience—"No."

How Mr. Harrison Probably Got His Plurality.

General Overseer—He received a plurality of seven thousand votes.

Except God, who knows everything, the Devil only knows how he got them.

The Devil knows just how he got them.

I do not believe that he got them honestly.

My opinion is that the man who would make such a shameful offer to me, got these votes by countenancing evil and corrupt practices, and by shameful offers to others.
CHICAGO'S MAYORALTY DISGRACE.

I do not care much about being shot, because when my life's work is done I want to get home to heaven as quickly as I can. However, I think that I have yet something more to do on God's earth, and I will not allow my life to be sacrificed without making some endeavor to protect it in a proper manner.

I think you will agree that I am right. (Applause.)

I would have been murdered years ago had it not been for God's protection, and the Zion guards, who do not carry any weapons, but who have again and again arrested men who would have murdered me.

I have always spoken the truth, so far as it was known to me.

Of course, the man who speaks the truth in this country exposes his life to danger continually.

But my life is in God's hands, and I believe that God will protect me if I take the proper precautions, and will enable me to do His will.

I feel that my life is of some value to my people, to my family, and to the work of God throughout the world.

I have a great deal of love in me yet, and although I would not be afraid of dying at this very moment, I prefer to live out my life rather than to die over to some miserable political scoundrel, who, if he did murder me, might go unpunished in Chicago.

Why?

MURDER UNPUNISHED IN CHICAGO.

Because a short time ago a unionist picket murdered a merchant in this city who was doing nothing but trying to get his own goods from a freight warehouse into his own warehouse. The facts were unchallenged, yet a jury in Chicago found the murderer not guilty.

I think that Mayor Harrison's party and others are quite capable of getting a jury that would find the man not guilty, although you saw him fire the shot.

However, I do not care much about that.

I would rather that a man who murdered me were not hanged, because he would then have some time for repentance.

Threatened men live long.

If I had troubled myself about these things I should have been afraid to stand upon any platform or do any public work for many years; for I have received hundreds of such letters threatening to murder me.

I am not afraid; for I love God and often desire to be with the Christ, and my loved ones in heaven.

I have told you the truth.

I think that you can see the importance of this revelation.

You will see that the judiciary of Cook County is being played with in a game of battledore and shuttlecock by the bosses of the political parties.

Again I say that I would rather see Mr. Tuley elected than sacrificed to please me or any one else.

Mr. Tuley will now understand how much Mr. Harrison's friendship means when he sits with him at an Iroquois club banquet.

After the tithes and offerings had been received, the General Overseer delivered his Message.

ETERNAL HOPE.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, Till Jesus Come.

TEXT.

Now our Lord Jesus, the Christ, himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace.

Comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.—2 Thessalonians, 2:16-17.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, who according to the great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus, the Christ, from the dead.

Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

Who by the Power of God are guarded through Faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the Last Time.—1 Peter 1:3-5.

My conviction is that the extent of the Salvation of Jesus, the Christ, our Lord, is to be known only in the Last Time.
Jesus Himself said to His disciples, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now." But He said when the Holy Spirit should come, He would lead His people step by step—patiently lead them into the Way of All Truth; so that when the Last Time came, the Full Revelation of that Salvation would be made. I believe that we are speaking in the Last Time. I have the same conviction that The Bad Are Getting Worse, and the Good Are Getting Better.

Wicked men and seducers are waxing worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived, but the wise are understanding.

None of the wicked can understand.

I am deeply convinced, therefore, that this is the time for the Proclamation of that Eternal Consolation and Good Hope—of that Living Hope which God has given to all men in Jesus, the Christ, His Son.

It Takes a Long Time to Replace a Bad System by a Good One.

It took a long time for Judaism to be replaced by a good Christianity. Many were large numbers of Jews who doubtlessly lived and died in the faith of the Christ, who were narrow-minded and bigoted, and were more Jews than Christians.

They were more ready to stand by the Jewish Sabbath, as you see in the controversy between Trypho, a Jew, and one of the early Christian fathers, Justin Martyr.

It makes it an offense that the Christians do not keep the seventh day, but keep the first day of the week.

There is much of the Judaising spirit still abroad in the keeping of the Sabbath.

I often get letters telling me that I am all right except in one thing; that I shall be damned because I do not keep the Sabbath on Saturday.

The narrow-minded bigotry of the Jew in this matter is repeated in these days.

This is true not only in that question, but in a great many others.

Twentieth Century Denominational Narrow-mindedness.

The narrow-mindedness of the Jew of the olden time is in many things not a circumstance to the narrow-mindedness of the Baptist of the twentieth century.

It does not begin to compare with the narrow-mindedness of the Episcopalian.

It does not begin to compare with the narrow-mindedness of the Roman Catholic or Greek Catholic, all of whom and many more consign me to Eternal Perdition, because they and I do not quite agree in definitions.

One of the most astounding things to me is that character and life, the blessing of God Himself, and answers to prayer, could have taught, or that came down from heathen philosophers here and there throughout the world.

Mere morality never saved any one.

A man can be very moral, and yet morally wrong, and when it becomes convenient to be immoral, his morality will drop from him like the old skin of a serpent.

A mere external morality that does not proceed from spiritual regeneration is not a Divine Hope.

It is not the result of a Divine Faith.

It does not indicate the presence of a Divine Love.

There is no reality in such Christianity.

The Christianity that is real is a Christianity that realizes that the Christ is risen indeed; that the Christ lives and loves; that the Faith of the Christ is a real power, and that the Hope of the Christ is the brightest thing in all life.

Let me tell you a personal experience.

At one time in my life, when I was very young, I did not know God as I desired to.

All through my life I have been First a Thinker, and Then a Worker.

I do not think I have ever done anything that I have not first thought out.

One of the mistakes that a great many people make about me is to regard me as an exceedingly impetuous man, acting upon impulses.

This is entirely wrong.

I am one of the most deliberate men in Chicago, and I think one of the slowest speakers in public life today.

I am a slow man in many things.

I take a long time to think a thing out, but when I act, I think that I will plead guilty to acting very quickly and thoroughly.

When I start to act I never stop.

I keep right on, because I know that the line I am pursuing is right.

Little things indicate character and influence life.

It is not the big things, so-called, that influence men.

They only become big things as the little things grow.

It is not the big things, so-called, that influence men.

They only become big things as the little things grow.

If the Christ's dust is in some Syrian tomb, and that body did not stand upon this earth transformed, and reascend into heaven, then Christianity is a lie, and everything connected with it is a sham.

Then all that is good in Christianity is merely the retention of certain moral maxims, that even Mencius and Confucius could have taught, or that came down from heathen philosophers here and there throughout the world.

The Hope that the Christ came to bring to all humanity was made of no effect, because people had to agree upon Roman Catholic or some other dogma before they could get to heaven.

The agreement upon creed and dogma has nothing to do with it.

You may all agree with John Calvin or Martin Luther, or with the Popes who never agreed among themselves.

You may agree with the creeds of your various denominations and you may all go to hell at the same time that you agree with them, for mere agreement with a creed is nothing at all, unless you are a new creation in the Christ.

Christianity Is Not a Question of Creed.

It is a question of Life.

If the Hope that is within you is not a Living Hope which came through Faith and will stay with you at all times, and if the Consolation that you have is not an Eternal Consolation, then you know nothing about Christianity.

Christianity is not conformity with certain ordinances.

Christianity is not conformity with certain creeds.

Christianity is a transformation of the spiritual nature which is the result of the Resurrection of Jesus, the Christ; because, the Hope of the world is to be found only in His Resurrection.

If the Christ hath not been raised, your Faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

If the Christ's dust is in some Syrian tomb, and that body did not stand upon this earth transformed, and reascend into heaven, then Christianity is a lie, and everything connected with it is a sham.

ETERNAL HOPE.

It was a great delight to me to be permitted to hear my great friend, the Rev. Henry Wight, speak in the street.

I knew him well.

I loved him.

I was sometimes an invisible assistant to his precentor, because Mr. Paul, his regular precentor, was growing old. Mr. Paul used to take me behind the curtain, where Mr. Wight could see me from the pulpit, but the people could not see me.

When Mr. Paul would lead the people in some high tunes of the old-fashioned Scotch melodies and could not reach the upper notes, I would be there by his side and take them for him, and the people would say, "How splendidly old Paul's voice holds out." (Laughter. Applause.)

My good friend, Henry Wight, would look at me and smile when I would take the high notes.

Then, after the meeting was over, it was the richest kind of reward to be cuddled to his breast, and have his loving hand put upon me while he said: "John Alexander, may God bless you."

That "God bless you," came down with me through life. He was a very wealthy man—an advocate, or, as we call them in Scotland, a barrister. He had become a Christian under very strange circumstances.

The Brutality of Killing God's Creatures.

He had accidentally shot the wife that he loved. He was one of these men, who, when it was a fine morning would take a gun and say: "A fine morning. Good morning, lunch."

It is a brutal business, I do not care who says no. When Mr. Paul would lead the people in some high tunes of the old-fashioned Scotch melodies and could not reach the upper notes, I would be there by his side and take them for him, and the people would say, "How splendidly old Paul's voice holds out." I was only a child, but I wanted to see the Face that once was spat upon for me, the Head that once was crowned with thorns for me.

I wanted to see the great, good Friend who was so kind and compassionate to all men and loved the children.

I wanted to see Him, oh, so much!

I was so sorry that I had not died when I had been very sick.

I had sought Him, and I had seen something of the glory of the world beyond.

I had talked about it, and the memory of it lingered with me.

I thought that I had seen Him, and I wanted to be sure.

When I became better, the cry of my heart was: "Oh, that I might see the Christ who rose from the dead for me."

That night I had been thinking a good deal about Him. My good friend put me upon his street pulpit and said to me: "Johnny sing."

"What shall I sing?" I asked, as any child would.

Although I was only a child the big crowd did not frighten me, and it never has.

I Have Never Known Fear.

May God grant that I never shall.

Perfect love casts out fear.

I have loved my fellow men too much to fear them.

I have not feared the Devil.

I think that my friend told me to sing the tune called Martyrdom with these words:

Come, let us to the Lord our God with contrite hearts return;

"Our God is gracious, nor will leave the desolate to mourn.

While I sang that great crowd in the High Street was so still that I could hear my voice reechoing from the high houses—yes, from the very house where John Knox had lived, and from the steps on which he preached.

It came reechoing from the "Tron Kirk," a sacred spot where many martyrs had died for the Christ.

The people were weeping.

I did not know why, but I was crying, too.

Henry wiped my eyes and said, "Now, Johnny, sing to them, 'Long hath the night.'"

Seeing the Face of the Christ.

As I sang my eyes were looking up into the skies, as the purple hues of light were leaving the clouds; when all at once it seemed to me that the Christ became

He seemed to look down upon me and the old historic city; the stars were as jewels in His robe; the purple and white of the sky as a royal robe and as ermine around His breast; and I sang:

Long hath the night of sorrow reigned.

"The dawn shall bring us light; God shall appear, and we shall rise with gladness in His sight.

The Christ was there, and I rose with gladness.

I said that night to a friend, "I believe that I am converted. I saw the Christ."

It does not matter whether I did or not.

The revelation was at least real to me spiritually.

From that moment the Christ became a Reality. He filled the earth.

He filled the skies.

He filled the earth.

He filled my life, and I have known nothing else all through my life but the one great desire—the Living Hope in my heart that I shall see Him face to face, for He is a Living Christ.

You cannot tear it from my heart.

So the Sorrow all disappeared, and I went on singing the quaint old paraphrase:

As Dew upon the tender herb, Diffusing Fragrance round;

As Flowers that usher in the Spring, And cheer the thorny ground;

So shall His presence bless our souls, And shed a joyful light;

That hallowed morn shall chase away The Sorrow of the Night.

I Labor Only Because I Love the Christ and Those for Whom He Died.

I labor only because I am His minister, sent with His Message. I bless the God and Father of my Lord Jesus, the Christ, who gave me this Eternal Consolation and this Good Hope through grace, and has shown me the Inheritance that is incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for me, and for all who are kept by the power of God through faith unto Salvation, ready to be revealed at the Last Time.

The Christ's Sacrifice for Every Man.

They told me as I went on in my Christian life that the Christ did not die for every one.

"How is that?" I would ask, "the Scripture says that He tasted death for every man."

"But, Johnny," they would say, "it only means every man who believes." "Well," I said, "it does not say that."

"Well, that is what it means."

"Ah, but," I said, "here is another Scripture which says, that it is a faithful saying that the Christ came into this world not only to save sinners of whom Paul said he was the chief, but that He is the Savior of all men, especially of them that believe. It says 'All men.'"

"But it does not mean that, and you will be a heretic if you say that." "But," I said, "Jesus said, 'If I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Myself.'"

"It does not mean that; it means all good men." "But it says: 'As in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive.'" "O Johnny! that is heresy." "But," I said, "that is St. Paul. Was he a heretic?"

"Oh, no; you do not understand, and you must not talk until you know better. When you have read Calvin you will know all about it."

Well, I read Calvin, and I did not know all about it, and I found that Calvin did not.

The Larger Hope.

At last the day came when I saw this Larger Hope, this Eternal Consolation and Good Hope through grace; and when I saw that, while there was a kolasis aionion—kolosai aionov—an aionian pruning for those that sinned, and an aionian life for those that believed and obeyed God, the "pruning" was, after all, only "age long."

That punishment of which the Christ had spoken was the very thing that helped me to see Eternal Hope for all; because the word punishment there is the word kolasis, and means pruning.

I saw in a moment that it was not the destruction of the tree; it was the cutting back, and the pruning; that it might bring forth more fruit.

The aionian punishment which will come to every sinner who goes to hell will be a punishment that will bring him back to God.

Authority of the Christ Over All Flesh.

It came with such power one day, I said, "O Master! let me have a word that covers it all with certainty."

As I began to pray, my thoughts went to what the Christ had prayed, remembering in the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, where the Christ opened his lips and prayed to the Father, and thanked Him that He had given Him Power, that is Authority, over All Flesh, that He might give Eternal Life to as many as He had given Him.

I have always been fond of a plain, straight logic.

I read that passage just as it means.

He had power over All Flesh, that He might give Eternal Life to as many as He had given Him Power over; therefore, as God had given Him Power over All Flesh, and He had Authority to give Eternal Life to all that had been given Him, to All Flesh, it was perfectly clear that eventually All Flesh, all spirits born into human flesh should be redeemed, and brought back to God.

I have never hesitated to preach it.

At the same time I have warned the sinner that if he sins, the Face of God is against him; that if he sins, hell is in front of him; that if he sins, he cannot go to heaven, but he must go to hell.

I have said, what the Scripture has said, that God has provided a Way that His banished may return.

I have had no sympathy with those who have said that for a Temporal Fault God would inflict an Eternal Punishment and shut away His children from an Eternal Hope because they had sinned in this Temporal State.

Oh, how good it was for me when I first realized the truth that

The Christ, When He Died, Did Not Go to Heaven.

The Christ, when He died, after His painful life on earth and His agony on the cross, did not at once ascend to heaven. He went down to hell.

The Apostles' Creed, that we have repeated today says: "He descended into hell."

He went into the deepest hell, and there He preached to the spirits in prison—to those who were disobedient in the days of Noah. Out of that dark abyss of hell He took those prisoners.

Now they are in heaven, whiter than the lily which sprang out of the dark earth. He took them from hell.

The Christ Crossed the "Great Gulf Fixed."

Abraham could not cross that gulf. It was a Fixed Gulf to him, but the Christ crossed it; the Christ bridged it.

The Day will come when Death and Hell shall be cast into the Lake of Fire, and there shall be no more Death and no more hell.

That is not yet. We have a great deal of hell in Chicago. We have lots of hell beyond us, but our Work is to follow the Christ, and to clean out hell, until there is no hell anywhere in the Universe, and the Eternal Consolation, and the Eternal Hope has reached every spirit saved in heaven and damned in hell.

Hope Like a Mother's for Her Lost Son.

Mothers, your boys sinned. They were dragged into sin and died in sin, and you have been weeping because they went to hell. Mothers, if the Christ would guide you down to hell to talk to your son there, would you not go? Would you not go and plead with your son to come back with you to heaven?

Mothers, some of you are going down with me to New York, because you have sons there in that hell.

It is no worse than Chicago, but you say, "peradventure some message may reach my boy lost in sin there," and you are willing to tramp through the saloons in the Bowery, in the hope that you may run across your son and bring him to God and to Zion, and, finally, to heaven.

That is just the hope I have concerning the life to come.

If I had my choice after leaving the body now, I think, if the Lord Jesus, the Christ, ever made me mayor of Chicago, I would like to take a Restoration Host down to hell, and have it out with him.

I have never been afraid of him on earth, and I will not be afraid of him in hell.

I would like to take the captives out of his hands. I do not wait for an ordinance. I would like to take the captives out of his hands. I do not know that I quite as much care to go to heaven, except for a time to rejoice with the loved ones that I have there.

I have a hope that when I have gone to heaven, I will be brought with the Christ to earth, and if He gives me an appointment to Chicago, I will do my duty if I should be mayor. (Applause.)

If the Lord Jesus, the Christ, ever made me mayor of Chicago, I would like to take a Restoration Host down to hell, and have it out with him.

I am not afraid of him on earth, and I will not be afraid of him in hell.

I would like to take the captives out of his hands. I do not wait for any city ordinances. I would be an ordinance myself when I went in. In Zion City I do not wait for an ordinance. I do the thing, and make the consequence. I do not wait for any law. I execute the law, and I see that it is executed.

The Great Final Conflicts.

I am coming back with Him to reign on earth a thousand years.

At the end of a thousand years He will not have finished His work then, because there is to be a pitched battle at the end of a thousand years as is set forth in the Revelation 20:7-10.
ETERNAL HOPE.

Then the Devil will be defeated forever.
I intend to take a part in that battle.
I am looking forward to it, just as I am looking forward to going down to New York, and having a lick at the Devil on Broadway. (Applause.)

Why is this?
Because there is life in me. It is a Living Hope; this Hope that, at last, every poor sinner will hear the glad sound, and that at last every poor spirit in earth and hell will bow before the Christ, and will own His sway, and God shall be All in All.
That is my Hope.

I Fight My Battle Now.
I am not afraid to take the blows from the Devil, and I am not afraid to give blows.
I have a shield upon which I can take the fiery darts.
I am glad for the fight.
It is the Good Fight of Faith.
It is the Good Fight of Love.
The thing, however, that buoy up my heart above everything else is the Hope, the Hope that springs perennial in this breast, that I shall see victory; victory for Purity and Righteousness and Peace; that I shall hear a song of Universal Joy from the whole earth when they sing with the Hosts in Heaven: Hallelujah! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth, and the kingdoms of this world have become the Kingdom of our God and of His Christ.

O God, make them wise from this time on.
Soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:9-11.)

Blessed Hope!
We must have it!
We shall conquer though we die; for we shall come back again in the spirit-body with the Christ.
We shall come back, and we shall be with Him in His millenennial reign.
We shall fight it out to the end, and we will win.
Sin shall be abolished.
Disease, Death and Hell shall pass away.
New Heavens and a New Earth, shall be, wherein dwelleth Righteousness. (Psalm 35:1-8.)

Then, O Christ, and then alone, wilt Thou see of the travail of Thy soul, and be satisfied.
Then, O Christ, and then alone, can we be satisfied; when the last rebel has bowed at Thy feet, and there is no more fight; for there is no more rebellion anywhere.
Hallelujah! God shall reign forever!
All who believe it, and desire to be with Him, stand.
(Nearly all rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.
My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am.
Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may true.
Thee, love Thee, serve Thee, have hope in Thee, and carry this blessed prayer of two or more.
Thee with the prayer of faith in the spirit-body with the Christ.
8:17.)

After Hymn No. 20 had been sung, the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the following

PRAYER AND Benediction.
Father in Heaven, we thank Thee for the beautiful words which Thou didst give to Daniel: "they that be wise shall shine as a firmament, and they that turn many to righteouss as the stars forever and ever."
O God, make us wise. (Amen.)
Take the folly out of us.
Let the folly cease.
There are many men and women who have been fools up to this time.
May they be wise and kneel at Thy feet and repent and trust Thy Son; and do His bidding, and be led by the Spirit, and do right.
God help them tonight. Help us all to live a better and holier life.
For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, cause by cause, after the General Overseer.

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.
The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois,

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.
Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee.
(John 14:9; Exodus 15:29)
The Lord Jesus, the Christ, Is Still the Healer.
He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said:
"Lo, I am with you all the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable. and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.
It was prophesied of Him,"Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrors:
and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.
It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.
It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church.
(Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:9-11.)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.
The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, Intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.
Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called),
Mind Healing, Spirituality, Trance Evangelism, etc.
(1 Timothy 4:1-2; 1 Timothy 4:1-11; and Isaiah 51:22, 23.)
ADDRESS BY OVERSEER JANE DOWIE
REPORTED BY I. M. B. AND A. W. N.

SIMPLE and practical, yet full of deep spiritual truth, was the address of Overseer Jane Dowie in Shiloh Tabernacle, Lord's Day afternoon, November 30, 1902.

The Overseer has the rare gift of teaching, and with the patience which is one of the chief requisites of the true teacher, expounds the Word of God until its truths become intensely real to her hearers.

There was valuable instruction and spiritual uplift in the service for the many hearers.

We send forth this report with the prayer that God may bring the same blessings to the many, many thousands all over the earth who will read it.

Shiloh Tabernacle Lord's Day Afternoon, November 30, 1902.

The service was opened by Zion White-robed Junior Choir entering the Tabernacle, singing as they came, the words of the Processional, followed by the recitation of the Apostles' Creed, and the reading of the Commandments.

Overseer Jane Dowie read from the Inspired Word of God the 5th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, from the 1st to the 29th verses.

Prayer was then offered by Elder Harvey D. Brasefield.

The announcements were made by Elder W. O. Dinius, and the tithes and offerings received, after which Overseer Jane Dowie delivered her discourse.

LESSONS FROM BETHESDA.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, Till Jesus come. Amen.

TEXT.

Wilt thou be made whole?—John 5:6.

These were the words that Jesus spoke at the pool of Bethesda to the man who had had an infirmity for thirty-eight years.

These are the words that have come down to us through the ages, and which Jesus is speaking today to His people.

Let us picture that scene in a few words as we have it given in the Gospel according to St. John.

IT IS A VERY FAMILIAR SCENE TO US.

It almost seems to us who believe in the Christ as the Healer as if we had been there; for we have witnessed similar scenes.

We are so thankful to God that He has permitted us to live in these days, when people have believed in the teachings of the Word of God, and the signs have followed.

It was at a time when there was a Feast of the Jews, and Jesus had come up to Jerusalem. The pool of Bethesda was by the sheep gate, having five porches.

In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk.

They are described as blind, lame, halt and withered.

What an expressive term that is—withered!

There they all gathered around that pool, waiting for the moving of the water.

Traditions Concerning the Pool of Bethesda.

There was a tradition that an angel came down and troubled the water.

This portion is not in the earliest manuscripts, and is believed to be an interpolation of later date.

There are a number of traditions about that pool.

Today the Arabs believe that a dragon comes down and shakes itself under the water.

Thus, when the water moves, they attribute it to the power of a dragon.

Here they attributed it to an angel that came down and troubled the pool.

It is probable that it was like the mineral springs to which people go in these days.

CURATIVE PROPERTIES WRONGFULLY ATTRIBUTED TO MINERAL SPRINGS.

We have known people to go long distances from many parts of the world seeking these mineral springs for healing.

There are famous mineral springs in Europe to which people go, such as the Spa.

There are mineral springs in New Zealand that people go long distances to find.

They pay large sums of money to reach them that they may bathe in the mineral waters which flow from these springs.

In this country there are many mineral springs of that kind which are supposed to have certain curative properties. There are even places known as "mud baths," to which people go and wallow like pigs.

Clean water is a very good thing in which to bathe the body.

A great many people would be much healthier if they could bathe in the waters of these mineral springs occasionally, or any spring where the water is good, sweet, and fresh.

This pool of Bethesda was one of those wonderful springs that bubbled up out of the ground, and here the people were assembled in multitudes, waiting for something to happen.

It was about the time when their prophets had prophesied that the Messiah should come, and they were looking for something miraculous.
ADDRESS BY OVERSEER JANE DOWIE.

I do not wonder that they believed an angel came down and troubled the water, and that the man might come up and be able to do all the week, and do that on Sunday, making your work the Lord's Day. Do good on that day.

The Devil's Agents Always on Hand to Discredit the Work of God.

They had no joy in seeing this poor man, after he had been in that condition for thirty-eight years, perfectly healed. Instead of that, they asked him how he dared to carry his bed on the Sabbath Day!

Have not some of you whom God has healed through faith in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the laying on of hands by God's servant, met with this same kind of thing when you have gone back to your homes?

Have you not had some one come along and try to undo what God had done?

Voices—"Yes."

Overseer Jane Dowie—Have they not tried to destroy your faith, by telling you that you were not healed by the power of God, but that you were healed by the power of the evil one?

Voices—"Yes."

Overseer Jane Dowie—that is what they did to this man.

They told him that he must not obey Jesus and that he must not carry his bed on the Sabbath day.

What did Jesus say?

He said that the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

It is right that we should do on the Sabbath, works of necessity and works of mercy.

Some Have Strange Ideas Concerning the Sabbath.

We have read and repeated together in this audience the Ten Commandments, one of which is "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

Was it not a holy act to carry his bed when Jesus told him—was it not an act of faith?

Did it not show that the man was willing to be made whole?

The Necessity of a Willingness for God to Heal.

You may think that it was not necessary to ask that question.

Did it not show that the man was willing to be made whole when he had taken all the trouble to get there? No, that does not follow.

There are a great many people who seek healing, but in reality they do not want to be healed by the power of God. They have all the doctors that they can get.

They pay any amount of money to surgeons to cut them up, and to doctors to give them poisons.

They would like to be healed by poisoning, but they do not want to be healed by the power of God.

Jesus did not have a man of that kind before Him.

When He asked him the question, "Wilt thou be made whole?" he told Jesus when He asked him.

Although he did not know that Jesus was the Messiah, yet when Jesus asked him that question, he said that he had been waiting there all these years for the time when he would be the first to go in, He said to him: "Wilt thou be made whole?"

In ancient times they did not have such immense distances to travel; they did not have many things to do that we have in these days, and they were only allowed to go to a Sabbath Day's journey. They had their tabernacles and places of worship convenient, so that they could get to them easily.

Beautiful Essays Have Taken the Place of the Word of God.

In these days, since the Christian Catholic Church in Zion has come into existence, you cannot go to the apostate churches, even although they are convenient to you, for you do not hear the Full Gospel preached there; you only get a part of it.

When we were traveling and on mission work we held our meetings on the Sunday afternoons, and in the mornings and evenings we went to some of these churches. We have been in dozens of churches, where, instead of getting bread, we got a stone—an essay that had no practical point at all.

Where we did get something for the soul, as they called it when they meant the spirit, we got nothing for the body. When Jesus said “Wilt thou be made whole?” He wanted the whole man to be made whole in spirit, soul and body. We have three parts to our being, spirit, soul and body, and we need a redemption that will cover all.

In the Christ, the Redeemer, Healer and Keeper, we have that redemption.

We Must Grow Continuously.

When you have been born into the spiritual life and received the witness of the Spirit that you are a child of God, that does not finish it. You have still to keep on growing.

You have to grow in grace and in the knowledge of God. When a tree has reached the limit of its growth it begins to wither and die.

So it is with a human being.

You must keep on growing in the spiritual life. Jesus came to redeem the spirits of men.

This man at the pool of Bethesda was a believer in the Living God.

He had known the Christ, he would have believed in Him at once, because he believed what Jesus told him.

He had that in him which responded.

You, who for years and years have been groping in the dark, looking for something, not knowing what—believing the teaching of the churches, that sickness is from God, and for your good, which is not true—felt that something was wrong, and when you heard the voice of God’s servant you were attracted to Zion.

You have heard from the lips of one whom God sent as His Messenger, this teaching that the Christ is willing today to make you whole in spirit, soul and body.

You have learned that you may have bodily healing as well as spiritual and psychical.

You have learned that you have always to begin with the spirit.

We must begin there, but we must not stop there.

That is the trouble; people stop at the wrong place.

They stop before they get to the end of the journey.

Then there are those who have put impossible barriers before your healing by saying that you must be perfectly holy before you can be perfectly healed.

We say, No.

You Must Be Perfectly Healed Before You Can Be Perfectly Holy.

It is hard to have a perfectly healthy spirit if you have a body that impedes you at every step of the way.

Your spirit can rise above the body at times, but it is always reminded that it is living in that body and is clogged and hindered in every way, if it is diseased, defiled and unclean.

Disease is defilement of some portion of the body.

Nevertheless, the Christ is able to make you pure.

He is willing to do it.

He is just as willing today that this whole congregation should be made perfectly whole, as he was that that man who lay there in the pool of Bethesda, waiting for the moving of the waters, should be made whole.

Are you willing to be made whole?
ADDRESS BY OVERSEER JANE DOWE.

He said there seemed to be a great apathy among the people. They had churches but they did not seem to have any spiritual life—there was no move to them. They were not doing anything to get the waters to move; but they were waiting for the moving. This man thought that he would do the people a kindness by inviting the General Overseer to pay them a visit and speak to them while he was passing by that way. He had heard of the miraculous healings by reading Zion Literature on the subject.

He said that, if we came, he could provide us with a nice hall in which to speak, he would entertain us in his home, and take every care of us while we were there. He was the president of the Young Men’s Christian Association, and felt sure that the young men would be very much delighted to have the General Overseer come and preach the Gospel of Divine Healing.

Great Joy Over Immediate Healing.

When we arrived at his home he at once began to tell us about his wife who was sick and wanted to be healed. She had a terrible sickness. We talked with her and taught her God’s Way of Healing, and she was healed. Oh, he was so happy that his wife had received this healing. He took us around to different places after we held our meetings there. So we drove around, and got some of the sweet, fresh air which we needed so much after we had been shut up with the sick for three meetings a day in close halls.

The General Overseer said that he would utilize the time in driving to the homes of the sick people, as far as he could, who had sent in their requests for prayer. "Doctor," this gentleman said, "there is a man whom I want you to see very much. "He has been sick a great many years, and if he were healed people could not but believe, for every one knows him."

At that time we had not formed the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. We were ministering to all the churches. This man was on the poor fund of the church to which the gentleman who entertained us belonged. He said this poor man was very holy. "Why," he said, "the people come there from great distances to see him, because he talks to them so beautifully about the Bible, and he is so resigned to his sickness. "He thinks that it is the will of God that he should be sick; but I believe that if he is shown differently he will be glad to trust God for healing."

The Story of a Man Who Enjoyed Poor Health.

We went to his home, which was a pretty little place, very clean and well-kept—his wife attended to that; His wife was a very clean little person. She was lame, but she attended to the house and to the little garden and kept it all in "apple-pie" order. This man had a kind of rheumatism. We found him lying on his bed making little watch-chains of beads, which the people who came to see him would buy of him, giving him an exorbitant price just to help him. He showed us his fingers. He said that this form of the disease made the fingers stiff and chalked. He looked at one of his fingers quite admiringly. It was a perfectly useless member, although not a bad looking finger.

Then he began to talk his pious talk. The General Overseer startled him very much by telling him that this kind of work was not God’s work at all. He told him that this beautiful piece of disease was the Devil’s work because all disease was the work of the Devil, and that Jesus came to take our sins and our infirmities. He cited the passages from Scripture and showed them to him.

He had lived this idle life so long that the thought of working appalled him. His fingers would not look quite so pretty if he had to go out and turn the ground over and plant potatoes. He said: "No, Doctor, do not pray for me that I may be healed, but pray for my wife." He wanted her to get the healing.

It was all right for her to get the healing so that she could do more work for him and help to support him. He was not waiting for the "moving of the waters" at all. He was quite willing to lie there for the rest of his life and be nicely cared for.

The Curse of Laziness.

There are some people who are just as lazy as that. There are women as well as men. I gave that illustration of a man because it was unusual; but there are some women who are so lazy that they do not want to do their own housework. They do not want to mend the clothes for the children. They are born lazy. There are many people like that. They have been in the habit of having others do everything for them.

They do not marry very rich husbands who can provide them with a great deal of service. If they are fairly well off when they marry, they will spend it all in a very short time. They have large families, but still they do not exert themselves to do anything. I think that many of them who are sick do not get well simply because they will not move themselves. I know there are some people who are not willing to move until the General Overseer tells them to.

These people are sick, but there is nothing at all the matter with their locomotive powers. They are able to get out and do some things for themselves, but they will not. They are waiting for the General Overseer or Mrs. Dowie or some Elder to visit them when they might just as well exercise faith in God for themselves and get up and walk. There are a great many people who can do it, but they will not, because they are waiting.

See that you do not wait any longer, if any of you are in that position.

You Do Not Need to Wait.

The General Overseer does not have the time to go around and visit all your homes. We have meetings here every Tuesday for the sick, and they can be brought to these meetings. The Tabernacle is nicely heated and they can be kept warm. You do not need to be afraid of their getting cold. When you get them here, oh, that the waters would move and the power of God would come down upon the people! God’s power is present to heal always. He is present with us today.

Hear the footsteps of Jesus, He is now passing by! Bear in mind the wounded, Healing all who apply.

You can get healing today by the touch of the Christ just as you could if He were here in bodily presence. You can get healing through the laying on of hands of those who have been ordained to this office.

You can receive the blessing if you are willing to obey.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, April 18, 1903.

All who want to be made whole in spirit, in soul and in body, stand. (The entire audience rose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, I come to Thee in Jesus’ Name, take me as I am and make me what I ought to be in spirit, soul and body: help me to do right; help me, my Father, to repent, to forsake sin, and to restore to any whom I may have wronged, that I may receive this blessing today. I ask this in Jesus’ Name and for His sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after Overseer Jane Dowie.)

Overseer Jane Dowie—If you have truly repented of your sins and confessed them to God, and today seek the Christ as the Healer, and if you will at this moment let Him stretch forth His hand and heal you, He will do it.

He is here today, by the power of His Holy Spirit, for He said, “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the Consummation of the Age.”

After the Recessional had been sung the service was closed by Overseer Jane Dowie pronouncing the Benediction.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you; with Him all your burdens are laid. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Publisher’s Notice.

The remittance must accompany receipt of subscriptions at the Publishing House, no difference by for whom or for whatever time they may be given, or whether forwarded through Ordained Officers, Branches, or Gatherings of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. Accounts will be carried on Leaves of Healing.

The willing ones have all the burdens laid upon them.

The Christian Must Have Both Active and Passive Faith.

In the life of faith there is Passive Faith, as well as Active Faith, and we must have both. This is the highest form of faith—Passive Faith—the faith to rest in God and expect Him to do it. However, Passive Faith does not mean being lazy, and idle, and expecting the other person to do all for you. It means doing what you could to help yourself and help others to get this blessing, and having got right with God to rest in Him, and He completes the work.

The General Overseer in giving his lecture about the healing of the man at the pool of Bethesda often speaks of the five steps of faith. He has illustrated the five porches at the pool of Bethesda as five steps of faith and the Christ as the fountain opened for sin and for all uncleanness.

The steps are:

- Perceptive Faith;
- Receptive Faith;
- Retentive Faith;
- Active Faith; and
- Passive Faith.

Or, as it might be otherwise put: Seeing Jesus, Receiving Jesus, Holding Fast to Jesus, Working for Jesus, and Resting in Jesus.
The little one shall be a thousand, and the small one a strong nation: I Jehovah will hasten it in its time.—Isaiah 60:22.

Applications for membership in Zion Restoration Host are being received in large numbers daily from all parts of the world, and great activity is being manifested by these thousands of faithful workers in all sections. Vast numbers of most interesting reports are coming to us by every mail, telling how God continues to bless the Message of Elijah the Restorer in the leading of men and women to give up their abominable, filthy and sinful habits, and surrender of themselves, spirit, soul and body to God, as the result of faithful seed-sowing of Zion Restorationists. It is not possible for us, however, to give all these in detail, but we shall give below a list of places from which reports have come within the last two weeks.

Many reports have not yet been received from distant points for the month of March.

Work in Pontiac, Illinois.

We are pleased to introduce to Zion Restorationists this week, two faithful workers, Mrs. Balmer and Mrs. Flaglore, of Pontiac, Illinois, where such faithful work was done a few years ago by Deacon O. W. Farley, who is now associated with Zion Land and Investment Association, and later by Deaconess Eliza Taylor, who has also taken up her residence in Zion City, with many others who have come from that place.

We quote from a letter recently received from Mrs. Balmer:

My Dear Elder:—Peace to thee.

Ever since Zion Seventy work was organized in Pontiac, I have been very deeply interested in the good work.

I was for ten years prior to this a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, but when I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion I gladly resigned from this work to assist in a larger, broader and better work, with the noble band of Seventies, now become Zion Restoration Host.

I am so thankful to be one of God's servants.

My companion, Mrs. H. M. Flaglore, and myself have been doing Zion Restoration work alone most of the time since Deaconess Taylor moved to Zion City.

We receive twenty copies of Leaves of Healing each week and almost every week sell the entire number.

We also distribute free literature.

Pontiac has eight saloons and soon will have another one open for business.

Satan is very busy at work here.

We feel the need of an Elder, and our good Conductor, Mr. McElhaney, asks us to pray that God will send us a leader, that we may hold meetings and have Zion teaching.

I am thankful that God can use us, and I want to be humble and ever willing to do right in His sight.

I have ever felt that I wanted to be obedient to the instructions of our General Overseer. May God bless him and keep him until our Savior comes.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) ANNA B. BALMER.

Praise and Testimony

God Graciously Heals of Several Diseases.

HERSEY, MICHIGAN, February 19, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—Peace to thee.

I desire to tell you what the Full Gospel, as taught in Zion, has done for me and mine.

It will be three years next November since I received my first healing and became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

The first healing was of paralysis of the rectum. The healing was instantaneous and complete.

The next was the healing of four children of scarlet fever, and one of whooping-cough.

Little Pearl strangled very badly with it. I wrote to the General Overseer for prayer, and the disease was stayed instantly, as near as I can mark the time.

She never coughed after he prayed.

I was also healed of a milk-lead by obeying God in Baptism.

The swelling in my leg and side went away and has never returned.

That limb feels the lighter of the two since this healing.

I can walk so well now.

I am out every day when the weather permits, telling the good news of the Christ, the Healer.

Everywhere Jesus is just the same today and forever.

I never loved God so much as I have since I received His teaching; since knowing that it is the Devil who sends disease and sorrow, and that the Christ’s death on the cross removed the curse from all who will believe on Him.

We were not taught in the churches.

The love of God which passeth all understanding be with you.

Yours faithfully in the Christ,

Great Blessing Through "Leaves of Healing."

BAY VIEW, LITTLE METIS, PROVINCE QUEBEC, March 11, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—Peace to thee.

Some time in the latter part of last November, my husband received a post card saying that a friend would send him a few copies of LEAVES OF HEALING on trial, and asked if he would subscribe if he liked the paper.

I thank God for directing LEAVES OF HEALING to our home.

With what gladness we now look forward to reading it carefully every week.

May God spare you for many years to come, that this blessed Gospel may be preached in every land.

We have subscribed for LEAVES OF HEALING, and after we have read them we give them around to neighbors.

Some think that it is the old time religion; others scoff and say that the days of miracles are past. It grieves me to hear even pastors talk that way. My husband and I believe that God does answer the prayers of His faithful servant.

Faithfully yours,

(Mrs.) John Campbell.

2014 FOWLER AVENUE, EVANSTON, ILLINOIS, February 24, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—Monday morning my little boy was playing on the bed and fell off.

When we picked him up, he was unconscious, and black in his face.

We laid him on the bed and went to our Father in heaven for healing, knowing we would receive what we asked in Jesus’ Name.

God heard our prayer, and he woke up and was soon playing on the floor.

We raised our hearts in thanks to God for His goodness to us, and praised His Holy Name.

WILLIAM D. DRICKER.

I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground: I will pour My Spirit upon him, and My blessing upon thine off-spring...—Isaiah 44:3.

HOW precious are the promises of God to the believer! Water upon the thirsty! Moisture upon the dry ground!

God is the Father of the Spirits of all flesh, and has promised to supply all our needs according to His riches in glory by the Christ, Jesus. Yet how many professed Christians there are today whose souls are withered, and who are spiritually dead, because they do not receive the water which the Lord has so graciously promised.

Ask ye of Jehovah rain in the time of the latter rain.—Zechariah 10:1.

What fulness of blessing God has promised! Not only will He give Water to him that is thirsty, but He will pour water upon him; for He giveth not His Spirit by measure unto the believer.

He not only promises water to the dry ground, but says, "I will pour... streams upon the dry ground."

"There shall be showers of blessing." He not only gives to the longing soul, and feeds the hungry soul with that which is necessary, but "He satisfieth the longing soul, and the hungry soul He filleth with good."

Yea, He is able and willing to do exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think. How thankful we should be for the privilege of living in these Latter Days; in these glorious "Times of Refreshing": these "Times of Restoration," of which God hath spoken "by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began.

Many prophets and righteous men have desired to see the things which we seek, and have not seen them, and to hear the things which we hear, and have not heard them.

The drops of the "latter rain" are beginning to fall.

Soon the Lord will make bright clouds, and the showers will come down upon the earth.

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour My Spirit upon all flesh. The "Times of Refreshing" are upon us. Already we may see the clouds banking up higher and higher, bigger with drops of mercy which will come down in copious showers upon the dry land.

What a blessedness is ours who sense the times in which we are living, and open our hearts to receive the Spirit poured out from on high!

What wonderful blessing there is to those who come out of the apostate denominations into the Church of the Living God; who forsake dead formalism and receive the quickening Spirit!

As the summer showers cause the earth to bud and blossom and bring forth its precious fruits, so the Spirit of God, poured out in life-giving showers in these Latter Days, refreshes, enrichts and fructifies His people.

As the refreshing rain makes the whole earth rejoice, so that the mountains and hills break forth into singing, and all the trees of the fields clap their hands, so the showers of the "latter rain" cause the people of God to rejoice in Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

The following are a few of the testimonies of thanksgiving which are continually ascending to the "Father of Lights," the Author of every good and perfect gift.

Many Blessings Through the General Overseer's Teaching.

After this manner therefore, pray ye: Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.—Matthew 6:9.

PLATTE, SOUTH DAKOTA, March 19, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Having written to you asking you to pray for us when we had the grip, I wish to write and tell you that God answered your prayer, and we thank Him for the blessing.

We do thank God that we accepted the teaching of 2Cor. 5:10 wherein we heard it, which was seven years ago. We could not begin to tell of the blessings we have had during that time.

When we have written to you to pray we have always received the blessing. We have also received answers in a marked degree to our own prayers, but it was you who taught us to pray to God in this way.

I desire to say that reading the first Divine Healing sermon you preached after returning from Europe, was made a blessing to me. I thank you for the kind letter you wrote, and also for praying for us.

"How precious is Thy loving kindness, O God! And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of Thy wings."—Yours in Jesus' Name, (Mrs.) CHARLES RICHARDS.

She Claimed the Promise and Was Healed.

For the Word of God is living and active...—Hebrews 4:12.

ALAMO, TEXAS, March 27, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I felt it my duty to write and tell you of God's goodness to me in healing me and raising me up, in answer to your prayers.

About the 18th of February I overworked, in caring for my daughter, who was very ill, and was myself compelled to give up and go to bed.

I had been troubled with my kidneys for some time, and became worse.

Then I had neuralgia and the grip. I suffered terribly for two days and nights, and then my little daughter asked if she should not fill out a prayer request and send to you. I told her to do so.

I tried to pray, and my husband and the children prayed, but I got no relief.

On Saturday morning I suddenly realized that I was feeling better. I ate some breakfast, and wondered if I would better get up.

I asked my daughter to bring me the Word, for Satan was tempting me in this way: "Now if I get up too soon, and the General Overseer has not yet prayed for me, I may have a relapse and be worse than ever." Then my eye fell on the blessed promise of God:

"And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear."—Psalm 9:17.

When your letter came, it was a prayer in itself and comforted me much. I thank you for your prayers and for the letter.

Sister Sherman, for whom you prayed, is much improved in health.

I thank you for your prayers for little Effie Belter, who fell and broke her arm. It did not get well, and seemed to be crooked after being set by the doctor. She had no use of it, and carried it in a sling.

The neighbors advised them to have it broken over. I asked her father to wait until spring, and wrote you to pray for her. He promised to wait.

Three weeks later I met Effie with another little girl, drawing a child about her size on a hankie. She was using that arm very arm.

Our Gathering is increasing in numbers and interest, for God in with us. We give Him all the glory.

Praying God's blessing upon you and yours while we watch and wait till He come, I am, Faithfully yours for God and Zion, (Mrs.) MARY COPELAND.

Healed of Consumption, Nervous Prostration and Neuralgia when the General Overseer Prayed.

Jesus of Nazareth, how that God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil; for God was with Him.—Acts 10:38.

PARIS, TEXAS, January 3, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I have thought for some time that I would write my testimony to God's goodness and mercy in healing me of consumption, nervous prostration and facial neuralgia.

For twelve years I had been a sufferer from almost every ailment the human flesh is heir to.

Like the woman told of in Mark 5:25, I had suffered many things of many physicians, had spent all my money, and was nothing bettered but rather grew worse.

I had been taught that God afflicted us for our good.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, Apr. 11, 1903.

I could not see any love in that, and I had become almost an infidel. My Bible was a blank book to me. I got no comfort from it.

In the spring of 1902, Deaconess McReynolds came to see me and brought several copies of LEAVES OF HEALING. I began to study my Bible with them and was much impressed with the teaching. I was convinced that you were preaching the Truth. I read the LEAVES almost every week after that.

In July, I was taken down in bed with what the doctor called typhoid-malarial fever. I would get better, then worse.

I had night sweats, and had coughed very hard for years. I could not lie on my left side without pain, and my stomach was in such a condition that I could not take even a swallow of water without suffering great pain afterwards.

After about eight weeks of this suffering, Mrs. McReynolds came to see me again, and brought some new LEAVES OF HEALING, and told me about the great meeting she had attended in Zion City, and about the wonderful healings, etc.

I then determined to trust God for my body and all. I set medicine aside. I gave up the meat and all. I set medicine aside. I began to improve rapidly, but I continued to have night sweats and neuralgia in my face, although I was up doing all my work.

I wrote to you in about three weeks to pray for my complete healing, and praise His Holy Name, I am able to do all my work.

I ate pork. I prayed God if it was wrong for me to eat it, let it make me sick, and He did. I cannot bear it.

I give God the glory for healing me, and for sending the Comforter into my heart to teach me all the truth.

I thank Him for sending Elijah the Restorer to teach us how to pray and how to live. I feel strong and happy, and sing His praises all day long.

May God bless you and your dear wife, and spare you many years to carry this Gospel to every nation and every creature.

Yours in Jesus' Name,

(Mrs. Lizzie B. Wells.)

Sought God and Not the Physician, and was Healed.

And in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, Am was diseased in this feet: his disease was exceeding great, so that he went not on his bed, but on his bed from the time of his lying down to the time of his death, two years. And as for his sons, they were not fit to sit on the throne of his father:—2 Chronicles 30:11, 12, 13.

ZION CITY, Illinois, April 3, 1903.

BELIEVED GENERAL OVERSEER:—Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from our Lord Jesus, the Christ. It is now eighteen months since I began to trust God as my Healer, and I am pleased to say that I have been healed of many sicknesses, some almost instantaneously.

For many years I suffered very much during the winter with chilblainson my feet, hands and ears. My feet used to swell very large, so that I wore slippers and boots many sizes larger than would otherwise be necessary.

Many times when the days work was done my feet would burn and hurt so that it was impossible to walk, and on taking my boots off, the heat of my feet caused them to steam badly.

To ease the itching pain I used to stamp on the ground, kick and do all sorts of things. My hands would swell badly, too, the chilblains would burst and cause ugly scars, and my ears would swell.

I am glad to say that this year I have not had these afflictions. God has wonderfully kept me.

For about six weeks I had a cyst on the top of my left eye, which was very noticeable.

Before I knew about God being the Healer of His people, I went to Dr. Morgan of Kilburn, London, about it. He said if it grew larger it would have to be cut out.

I have taken God as my Healer, and I am pleased to say that I have been healed of many sicknesses, some almost instantaneously.

For many years I suffered very much during the winter with chilblains on my feet, hands and ears. My feet used to swell very large, so that I wore slippers and boots many sizes larger than would otherwise be necessary.

I did this, and the baby is now a happy and well baby ever since.

I cannot begin to mention all our blessings. To God be all the glory.

I also thank you very much for your prayers, and for the Zion teaching.

May God spare you and yours for His work for many years to come.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) C. C. BENNETT.

LONGED FOR THE TEACHING OF ZION.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.—Matthew 5:6.

South Merrimack, New Hampshire.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your kind letter of March 8th received.

I had decided some time ago that when the right time came, I would go to Zion, and ask you to take me into the Christian Catholic Church, for its teachings, as far as I could learn from reading LEAVES OF HEALING, what are we have believed in a straight Gospel—the Christ our Savior, Healer and Sanctifier.

I have believed and longed for the teachings.

I had not been able to grasp this healing for myself until you prayed for me, since which time I have grown very much better in a great many ways.

When I was in Boston, I looked up Evangelist Smith and stayed with her over-night.

I found her a beautiful Christian woman.

After a long walk with her she gave me a blank to fill out, applying for membership in Zion. I did so, and was accepted as a member.

Let me thank you again for your kind letters and prayers.

May God’s blessing and power rest upon you and yours.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) E. S. D. R.

Pain Removed When Prayer Was Offered.

He gathered unto his beloved sleep.—Psalm 137:1.

KIRCHBACHSTR., BERLIN W., GERMANY, May 15, 1903.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—With my heart full of joy and thanksgiving to God, I inform you that God has answered your prayer for Mrs. Mrs. A. C. Bennett. She is now three years since God so wonderfully kept me.

I was convinced that you were preaching the truth. I thank Him for sending Elijah the Restorer to teach us how to pray and how to live.

We believe that God can answer our own prayers, but we know better that He will hear your prayer of faith.

I expect to send you a report of the work of Zion in Berlin very soon.

May God bless you and Zion everywhere!

Yours in the Christ,

GUSTAV SOUCER.

SUBSCRIBERS, READ THIS.

On every subscriber’s copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be 11-25, you may know that your subscription expires on Volume II. If you wish to take Volume III, you can notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which are put into a bound volume. Each number of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as the LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourselves familiar with these customs and remembering promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Military Despotsium.
1. If men please God, they will be happy.—Revelation 6:3-4.
The Devil makes strife between nations. He excites all who have to do with him. Wars and rumors of wars will come.
2. Men's hearts will fail at ugly rumors current.—Matthew 24:6.
Large nations will consume small ones. One nation will overthrow another. Military powers are arm wrestling more and more.
3. Invasion after invasion will occur.—Jeremiah 6:22.
War cannot be humane. War is of the Devil. War gets recruits for hell.
War does not make people better. War makes them revengeful. War brings burdens and sorrows.
5. Men will seek ways of escape and not find them.—Jeremiah 8:13-16.
There is no reason in war. War occurs from trampling causes. War springs from the sins of the people.
6. The few righteous men will not be able to withstand it.—Ezekiel 11:17-23.
The war spirit is uncontrollable. Good men cannot always prevent it.
7. The blunders and ignorance of the people cause it all.—Jeremiah 4:10-23.
When people lose sight of God, harm comes. When people forget God, they go to hell. How foolish sensible people become by sin.
8. The chiefs of military power will be overthrown by judgment from God.—Revelation 6:17.
The rich and the army officers will try to rule. They will have a judgment to face later. They will be taken from God, the Judge of the earth.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, MAY 10th.

The Spirit of Lawlessness.
The counsel of the ungodly is evil. All who disobey God retrograde.
2. Evil men more and more persecute the righteous.—2 Timothy 3:12-14.
Evil men persecute good men. Those deceived persecute the wise. Seducers persecute all who denounce their sins.
3. Persons sometimes choose to sin rather than suffer persecution.—2 Thessalonians 2:3-5.
The falling away must first come. The Man of Sin will find plenty to follow him. Iniquity will burst out so suddenly in a flood of evil.
4. Evil men must be very cruel against the good.—Job 10:26-23.
The Devil loves to devour God's sheep. He stirs up hatred in the heart. No man can hate without being a murderer.
5. The aim will be to get persons to recant and serve the Devil.—2 Peter 2:17-22.
It will get harder to openly confess the Christ. The world will not have the Christ rule over it. It will seek to get all to deny the Christ.
6. Those in authority will not desire to do right or execute justice.—Micah 7:9.
The poor can scarcely get justice. The rich by bribes win their cases. The moral conscience is all seared.
7. The spirit of blasphemy and injustice now increasing will be cut off.—Revelation 17:5-8.
The Devil uses religion as a cloak in which to do his dark deeds. He uses religion to deceive the people. Under the cover of religion he commits abominations.
8. Those who exist on God will surely be delivered and rewarded.—Isaiah 31:12.
Those who look for the Christ will find salvation. He comes quickly to those who look for Him. The Lord will surely save Zion. God's Holy People are a Lawlessness-decrying People.

AND THE sons of those that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and they that despise thee shall bow themselves down at the sole of thy feet; and they shall call thee The City of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.—Isaiah 60:14.
