GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AN INVALID—HEALED BY THE POWER OF GOD, WHEN AT THE POINT OF DEATH—INSTANTLY HEALED OF CANCEROUS TUMOR.

I WILL BE A SWIFT WITNESS AGAINST THE SORCERERS.

This is the promise of God in foretelling the work of the Messenger of the Covenant. The word translated "sorcerers" is the Hebrew word, "Rashaph," and means, literally, "makers and sellers of poisonous drugs."

The corresponding word in the Greek, and translated in the same way in the New Testament, is pharmakeis, (pharmakeia), and is the word from which the modern word pharmacist is derived.

The modern pharmacists and physicians are the direct lineal descendants of the ancient sorcerers; there is no break in the line.

Modern so-called medical science is evolved from ancient sorcery; indeed, it is ancient sorcery brought down to date. Ancient sorcery depended, for its power over the people, upon their great awe for what they could not understand, and their credulous superstition. Modern medical science, falsely so-called, depends for its power upon the same weaknesses of poor humanity.

Men and women madly swallow drug after drug, with-out the slightest understanding of the effect of the nostrums, and notwithstanding the fact that they grow worse with every dose. The sorcerers (physicians) themselves acknowledge this, when they are honest.

The following is from The Hospital, a well-known medical journal:

A science, if it be a science, springing in the far past from mystery and witchcraft, tainted with the methods of the sorcerer, and even now dominated by that overmastering faith in drugs and nostrums which is the direct and disastrous heritage, handed down to us by our immediate ancestors, the apothecaries.

It has been an ignoble spectacle. No one taking a broad view. Each man limited by his education and treading along in the rut of his old habits—physicians pouring in drugs, surgeons scraping out bits of diseased tissue.

Once a year we have met together to do honor to the immortal Harvey, and then we have returned to this miserable drug-giving, as if Harvey had never existed.

God has sent His Messenger to witness against these sorcerers.

Before the people can avail themselves of the Covenants of God, they must be delivered from the galling bondage of sorcery.

God cannot fulfill His Covenant, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee," if His people are being poisoned to death by the sorcerers.

God cannot fulfill that Coven-
LEAVES OF HEALING

I was then taken with severe pain in my stomach and bowels, which produced bloody diar¬rhea. These attacks grew more severe and frequent.

My suffering during that year cannot be told. Seemingly, at times, death was very near. An inward Voice said, "Put on your wrapper." I felt that I gained strength very fast for a few hours, but did not know I was healed until an inward Voice said: "Put on your wrapper." I ate different food from what I had taken for years, and it did not distress me. Up to this time I had never known anything about Divine Healing.

Since then I have learned, and am fully convinced that I was led by the Holy Spirit.

About six years later my husband's health failed. My youth was renewed, and I felt much stronger than I ever had before. I thought I could take boarders to help, as we were not well-to-do. I kept boarders about three years, when I found my health was failing. I was taken very suddenly sick with bloody diarrhea, lasting three days and three nights.

My husband and family became very much alarmed about me because I would not consent to have a doctor. I was obliged to take medicine, which left me in a very weak state, not able to do anything for about three years.

A growth began to form, which the doctors said was a cancerous tumor. When it reached the point where it was forming into a cancer, I received three copies of LEAVES OF HEALING, sent by the General Overseer, describing my case and requested prayer.

I set a time for prayer, and at that very time I was healed.

The power of healing through my body as if a hand passed slowly over my bowels.

I then wrote to the General Overseer, thanking him for sending me the LEAVES OF HEALING, and expressing my gratitude. I also sent a letter to the General Overseer, describing my case and requesting prayer.

In writing this, my heart is filled with gratitude and thanksgiving. God's power to save and heal is a wonderful Story to all the ends of the earth, on the wings of the Little White Dove. Wherever her testimony goes it will be a part of that Swift Witnessing against the sorcerers.

It will be the call of Elijah the Restorer, who is the Messenger of the Covenant, "Return ye unto God." It calls God's people in all the lands to turn from the deadly deception of sorcery unto Him. He has promised to heal those who obey that call. And God's promises never fail. — A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. MARY J. TAYLOR.

2456 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, October 22, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I have been impressed for some time to write my testimony, hoping that some poor sufferer might be benefited. I was an invalid for twenty-five years.

My first sickness was heart trouble. My heart would palpitate at times so that the bed would shake. The doctor then made sore the length of my spine from which I suffered very much and was punctured for months before healing.

I had been failing gradually for five years and had five different doctors, one a specialist from New York City, doing me little or no good. We consulted another specialist. He said I had green sickness.

About this time a tumor began to form, with a heavy droning. I was taken very sick and a new doctor said the main arteries of the body were enlarged.

I gradually grew weaker for five or six months. I could ride a little, in an easy carriage, but could not walk, sometimes for a year or two at a time.

Oh, what a burden my life was! I could not keep dry bed sheets. At one time I went eight days and nights without sleep.

We then called an old doctor, who was highly recommended.

He used castor, causing much suffering.

A black discharge from the womb which lasted for months, was the result of this treatment. The heavy beating in the tumor remained for six years.

I could not eat anything, no matter how simple, without suffering for an hour or more with great distress.

One morning my tongue was so enlarged I could not swallow a teaspoonful of water.

My husband sent for the best doctor of the county, so-called.

He said it was a case of chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. He said that there was no use of his taking the case, as he could see no chance for my life.

About two months later a membranous discharge, in pieces from six inches up to a yard long and as large around as my finger, came from the bowels.

The doctor said that the inflammation was so high that it caused a membrane to form. Finally I became able to sit up a little, but could not bear my weight on my feet.

The physician, however, said that I could not live.

Death had no terror. It seemed to me, at times, it would be a blessing.

Then a growth began to form, which the doctors said was a cancerous tumor. When it reached the point where it was forming into a cancer, I received three copies of LEAVES OF HEALING, sent by the General Overseer, describing my case and requested prayer.

I set a time for prayer, and at that very time I was healed.

The power of healing through my body as if a hand passed slowly over my bowels.

In less than an hour I got up and walked the length of the porch a number of times.

In writing this, my heart is filled with gratitude and thanksgiving. God's power to save and heal is a wonderful Story to all the ends of the earth, on the wings of the Little White Dove. Wherever her testimony goes it will be a part of that Swift Witnessing against the sorcerers.

It will be the call of Elijah the Restorer, who is the Messenger of the Covenant, "Return ye unto God." It calls God's people in all the lands to turn from the deadly deception of sorcery unto Him. He has promised to heal those who obey that call. And God's promises never fail. — A. W. N.
Honor Jehovah with thy substance, and with the First Fruits of all that thy hands shall labor for; and the wolf shall not devour thee, nor shall the East wind [i.e., drought] blow upon thee. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall make thy paths straight.

On entering one of the offices of Zion Printing and Publishing House, for the prayer service one morning this week, one of the young lady clerks said to me: "I want to give this as an offering to Zion Literature Mission. It is the money I earned for the first day's work I ever did in the office."

With a happy face she presented the first fruits of her labor to extend God's Kingdom by sending the Full Gospel over the world. In the conversation which followed, another young lady remarked that she had been earnestly considering the command:

Honor Jehovah with thy substance and with the First Fruits of all that thou hast increased.

The importance of this command is shown by the promise which follows its observation in the abundant blessing which shall come into the lives of those who obey it.

The human heart, by nature, does not love to be bound by God's laws for giving. It loves to give where it chooses and what it chooses. But underneath these laws lie great principles which affect the success of God's Kingdom and the good of the individual givers.

God tells us through the Prophet Malachi that the windows of heaven are opened when His people give according to His laws.

These laws for spiritual things are as sure as are the material laws which govern the world on which we live.

We expect the ground to give its return for the sunshine and rain from heaven and the seed-sowing and labor given to it by the farmer.

It is "give and it shall be given unto you" in the spiritual world also. (Luke 6:38.)

If we honor God with our substance, we shall use it in ways which will best extend His Kingdom and help His people.

The ungodly use their substance in ways which extend the Devil's kingdom. We honor God directly, when we give our tithes and offerings into His Storehouse to be used for the support and extension of His work, although we are only obeying His direct command to pay Him what He claims as His own.

We honor God indirectly with our substance when, in business, we turn it into channels which will build up the industries of His people.

We honor God with the first fruits of our increase, when we give Him His tenth and a thank-offering from it also, as a real expression of gratitude to Him for success in our labor.

God's people will honor God as they have not yet done, when they are all united according to the prayer of our Lord when He prayed that they should all be one, saying: "Even as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be in Us.

Then the world will believe on the Christ as One appointed by the Father as His Savior. (John 17:21.)

But when the people are looking out for their individual interests and not making the prosperity of the whole work their first concern, they fail to honor God. They are seeking their own honor. God will never be honored fully, until His Kingdom is fully established on this earth and the Devil's kingdom is destroyed.

We may pray, God hasten this time, but each one of His people has a part to do in answering this prayer.

God's Kingdom will fully come as the people accept the Covenant.

Then they will be witnesses to the Voice of the Lord their God and do what is right in His eyes and give ear to His commandments and keep all of His statutes.

Zion Literature teaches the people how to honor God by keeping the Covenant.

Will you not help to sow Zion Literature broadcast over the world?

A native in India, from whose letter we quote, writes that he finds "Leaves of Healing" a Worthy Companion to the Word of God.

Rev. John Alexander Dowie, my dear Father and Brother in the Christ:—I wish to express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father and to you, that since I read LEAVES OF HEALING I feel much healthier in bodily strength, stronger in faith, and am much nearer to my God, and in the truth.

I am very thankful for the true Word of God that was sent out here in LEAVES OF HEALING. I am doing good work with it.

Several families have given up dirty swine's flesh.

There are some natives to whom I have sent LEAVES OF HEALING, and they are converted and will never touch the swine's flesh again.

Yours faithfully, through our Lord Jesus the Christ.

A gentleman writes from New Hartford, Minnesota:—

There is so much in the paper that appeals to the best in man and that helps in the formation of a true and noble character.

That which leaves the strongest impression on me is the bold voice that attacks sin everywhere. It is indeed something greatly to be admired, and that truly needs to be imitated in these days, when preachers have learned to think that words spoken against sin are merely breathed waste.

I thank God that He has given us a prophet who is bold enough to tell the people their sins, and to command them to repent.

I am very glad, too, that we may become a Witness to the Healing Power of God.

I say that the faintest whisper of faith on earth is echoed in heaven.

On Wednesday, August 9th, at 2:30 p.m., I had a severe attack of headache while seated in the class; the room was here, as a rule, are not properly ventilated.

I had recourse to prayer. After a time the pain seemed to grow less, but I was not altogether free.

When the college closed at 4 o'clock I went home, to suffer more.

The pain continued until 6 o'clock p.m. At that hour I was reading LEAVES OF HEALING, and I once more prayed, resolved to receive the blessing.

From that time the pain subsided, and I was all right by 7 o'clock.

My prayer is that God may bless Zion everywhere, and that He will bless you and your family and spare you for many years.

The following testimony was sent to our General Overseer by a worker in South Africa:

Recognizes "Leaves of Healing" as the True Word of God.

Dear General Overseer:—I wish to express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father and to you, that since I read LEAVES OF HEALING I feel much healthier in bodily strength, stronger in faith, and am much nearer to my God, and in the truth.

I am very thankful for the true Word of God that was sent out here in LEAVES OF HEALING. I am doing good work with it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"IN ALL THESE THINGS WE ARE MORE THAN CONQUERORS THROUGH HIM THAT LOVED US."

For I am persuaded, that neither Death, Nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, Nor Things present, nor Things to come, Nor Powers, norHeight, nor Depth, Nor any other Creature, Shall be able to separate us from the Love of God, Which is in the Christ Jesus our Lord.

WE HAVE TO record a week of quiet, steady, Onward Progress in every Department of the Work of God in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

All the fierce attacks of the press upon Zion's Financial Institutions, and all the “cuttle-fish” tactics to which we referred last week at great length in our Editorials, have entirely ceased.

Day after day, and night after night, the silence of our enemies continues. It is most suggestive and most eloquent.

God is greatly blessing us in connection with Zion's Business Affairs, and kind letters are continuing to come to us from the largest houses of business in Chicago. One from a large Wholesale Dry Goods House closes with these words:

Since my visit to you, our office has issued only one statement as to your affairs: “We have full confidence in the Doctor.”

The writer, speaking also concerning our Zion Lace Industries, says: “I am satisfied that this industry will be a success with you.”

Our first Zion Lace Industries' salesmen have returned from their extensive trips, during which they have visited many states and received orders for Zion Lace from many of the largest houses in the largest cities in the United States.

Without a single exception, the design, quality and price of Zion Lace have been unchallenged, and, indeed, most heartily commended.

The margin of profit is very satisfactory, and, although it is not the right season for securing large orders, yet, as we stated in our last issue, we are convinced that every yard that we can possibly manufacture will be sold early in the coming year.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

This Industry was established for God's glory, and the profits will be used for the extension of His Kingdom.

It is, humanly speaking, certain that this Industry has now been fully established, and that its future will be very great.

We shall make fuller statements on this subject a little later, and shall call for fresh capital to extend the Industry rapidly.

We are first in the race for a trade of many millions of dollars per annum.

Deacon Arthur Stevenson, our Manager of Zion Lace Industries, and Evangelist W. B. Kindle returned from a lengthened visit to New York and neighboring states.

As a result of their experiences in the City of New York, we have determined to establish a permanent Zion Agency in that City, which will represent all Zion's varied Interests, and especially Zion Lace Industries.

We have appointed the Rev. W. B. Kindle, an Evangelist in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and G. A. Corlette, with their excellent wives, who have both had a business training, to proceed to New York and open the Zion Agency in a Central part of the City.

We shall give fuller details in an early issue.

Meanwhile we announce that Evangelist Kindle, in addition to his duties as the Chief of the Zion Business Agency, will take charge of the New York Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and will establish a Zion Literature Depot in connection therewith.

We have a number of changes to announce concerning many of the Branches.

We ask our readers earnestly to pray for us in this matter, for, in addition to all the other toils, the arrangement of the officers and forces of Zion in the field is one of the most important, and requires Divinely-given wisdom and foresight.

We rejoice to know that in every part of our world-wide field, Zion is going forward!

It would delight our friends in all the lands could they see Zion City as it is in these lovely autumn days.

Houses are arising on every side, new ones beginning every day, and, so far as we know, not a single man is out of employment in the City.

The perfect order, cleanliness and quietude of the City, and yet its amazing industry, are subjects of continuous admiration from our hundreds of visitors every week.

We very much dislike to call attention again to any of the wicked statements of the press to which we referred in our last Notes; but finding that the lie of the Chicago Tribune of October 14th, and which we nailed down last week, has been widely circulated through the country, namely, that there was a "shortage of meat supply" in Zion City, we have directed our Manager of that Department to make us a further report on the subject, which is as follows:

ZION CITY FRESH FOOD SUPPLY.

John Alex. Dowie.

Zion City, Illinois, October 23, 1902.

To the Rev. John Alexander Dowie, Zion City, Illinois.

Beloved General Overseer:—It might be interesting for you to know that at the close of the first fifteen months of the existence of Zion City we find that it takes sixteen hundred cows to supply us with butter, ninety-five cows to furnish the cheese and three hundred fifty cows to supply the milk distributed throughout the city, making a total of two thousand forty-five cows per day to keep Zion City supplied with dairy products.

One thousand, fifty dozen eggs are used each week.

We have already given you the meat report, showing that Zion City has been using from thirteen thousand to fourteen thousand pounds of meat weekly.

There are so many different varieties of fruits and vegetables consumed and the wants of the people are so changeable that it is difficult to give definite figures in regard to these.

We are glad to report to you that we are having no difficulty in purchasing goods. We find plenty of good, reliable houses to do business with, but have taken a new course and are going direct to the producer for our supplies as far as possible.

Praying for God's richest blessings upon you and yours, we are,

Faithfully yours in the Master's service,

Zion City Fresh Food Supply.

J. W. Crane, General Manager.

Surely a City which requires Two Thousand, Forty-five (2,045) Cows per day to keep it supplied with dairy products, and which consumes Twelve Thousand, Six Hundred (12,600) eggs and nearly Seven Tons of meat each week, besides large quantities of fruits, vegetables and groceries, is not, in any degree, suffering from a famine.
GOD IS GOOD and provides us plentifully, and gives us the resources necessary to provision the City fully and constantly, and there never was a single atom of truth in the lies of the Chicago press.

WE FEEL almost to apologize for inserting these facts, but they may be of value in setting at rest the minds of some who, like the Tribune, have been weeping crocodile tears over our fancied shortages of every kind.

Our friends do not need further assurances.

LAST LORD'S DAY morning we had much delight in speaking to an audience of fifteen hundred people in South Side Zion Tabernacle, which has recently been in charge of the Rev. G. E. Farr, whom we have designated as Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in South Africa.

He will come to our Headquarters in Zion City after November 1st and will give attention to the South African correspondence and to preparations for his departure after the All-Night of Prayer, early in January next.

We shall probably arrange that he shall spend a month or more in Great Britain and Ireland, and then proceed to his destination.

This will be good news to our friends all over Cape Colony, Natal Orange State, Transvaal and other parts of South Africa, where we have many friends and members of this Church.

We shall direct him to make his Headquarters in Johannesburg, but he will visit in Cape Colony, Natal and Orange State before proceeding to the Transvaal.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER, Overseer-in-charge of Zion Educational Institutions, sends us an interesting report concerning the enrolment of Zion College for its first Session in Zion City.

The total enrolment is now 240, with a night school of 158, making 398 in all.

The students come from no less than twenty-five States and ten foreign countries, including England, Ireland, Canada, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, China, Switzerland and Greece.

Sixty-seven of the students have come from Grammar Schools, thirty-three from High Schools, four from Normal Schools, six from Colleges, seven from Universities, and six from Private Schools, one hundred and twenty-three schools being represented.

Fifty-nine of the students have entered the Ministerial Course, twenty-one the Commercial, twenty the Musical, six for Kindergarten work and one hundred thirty-four for Preparatory and ordinary College work.

We shall hope to publish an extended report when the enrolment of all Zion City Junior Schools is fully completed.

IT IS EVIDENT that there will be a very large number in these Junior Schools this year.

Several of the New School Buildings are now under roof, and will be rapidly finished and furnished.

They are located conveniently to the scholars in four separate districts of the city.

WE SHALL hope to preach tomorrow in West Side Zion Tabernacle, where excellent work has been done by Elder and Evangelist Fockler, who will, from November 1st, take charge of the South Side Tabernacle.

REV. ALBERT E. STEUERNAGEL, Evangelist, will take charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Milwaukee from tomorrow, and we expect that he will do good work in that large city.

ELDER AND EVANGELIST BROCK, who have done excellent work in Zion City, have been appointed to take charge of the Branch in St. Louis, Missouri.

We do not doubt that they will do good work in their important new field of labor.

ELDER AND EVANGELIST HALL, who have done good work in St. Louis, are now in Zion City, and will shortly be appointed to an important Station near Headquarters.

The work of that portion of Zion Restoration Host residing in Zion City has been for some time past, and will continue to be for the remainder of the year, in all probability, concentrated on Chicago.

It is a thrilling sight to see the splendidly drilled Companies of the Host entering the trains in Zion City at an early hour every Lord's Day morning, and, upon reaching Chicago under the Captains of Tens and Leaders of Seventies, to see the Bands proceeding to all parts of the City.

The Forty-ninth Rally of the Host will be held in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, on Monday week next, November 6th.

These gatherings are always intensely interesting.

The good work of the Zion Dorcas Women is going forward on a very large scale this year in all parts of Chicago as well as in Zion City.

We remind our readers of the Appeals made by Overseer Jane Dowie in her articles in the last two issues of LEAVES OF HEALING.

THE PRESSURE of work is very great upon ourselves and upon all at Headquarters in Zion City; but we are going forward in the confidence that God will fulfill in our experience the inspired words of the Apostle Paul:

And my God shall fulfill Every Need of yours according to His Riches in Glory in Christ Jesus.

LET OUR FRIENDS everywhere remember that we are expecting a still larger response to the Appeal made in our Glory in Christ Jesus.

In the great Charge of Moses to the People of Israel, recorded in the Book of Deuteronomy, these wonderful words are found:
Jehovah shall command the blessing upon thee in thy barns, And in all that thou pourest thine hand unto;
And He shall bless thee in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee. Jehovah shall establish thee for an holy people unto Himself, as He hath sworn unto thee;
If thou shalt keep the commandments of Jehovah thy God, and walk in His ways.
And all the peoples of the earth shall see that thou art called by the Name of Jehovah;
And they shall be afraid of thee.
And Jehovah shall make thee plenteous for good,
In the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle,
And in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which Jehovah saw unto thy fathers to give thee.
Jehovah shall open unto thee His good treasure, the heaven, to give the rain of thy land in its season,
And to bless all the work of thine hand:
And Thou shalt lend unto many nations, and Thou shalt not borrow.
And Jehovah shall make thee the head, and not the tail;
And thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath,
If thou shalt harken unto the commandments of Jehovah thy God, Which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them;
And shalt not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

BELIEVING AS WE do, that every member of Zion recognizes that the times of Restoration have come, we direct attention to this command of God to Israel: “THOU SHALT NOT BORROW!”

ALREADY GOD has made Zion “the head and not the tail.” He has put us “above” and not “beneath.” Zion everywhere recognizes the wonderful goodness of God to us in the establishment of Zion City.

In this time of financial stringency, which has been severely felt by all the Nation, we are not looking to the world for ready money, but to God and to His people.

WE WOULD remind every one in Zion that God is now creating not a Church only, but a Nation, and establishing a Kingdom.

In these Latter Days He has manifestly called us, as a People, to fulfill His Will, and to prove to all the world:
THESE HATH NOT FAILED ONE WORD OF ALL HIS GOOD PROMISE.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

GOD’S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God’s Way of Healing is a Person, Not a Thing.
Jesus said, “I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life,” and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or “I am the Lord that Healeth thee.” (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.
He cannot change, for “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, yea and forever”; and He is still with us, for He said, “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.” (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ’s Atonement.
It was prophesied of Him, “Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed”; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God’s Will.
It is the Devil’s work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to “destroy the works of the Devil,” and when He was here on earth He healed “all manner of disease and all manner of sickness,” and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been “oppressed of the Devil.” (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.
It is expressly declared that the “Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance,” and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.
The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 6:13.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.
Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.
The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

“Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God.”
You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
ELIJAH THE RESTORER NAILING HIS THESSES UPON THE DOOR OF APOSTATE LUTHERANISM.
The fundamental errors of Lutheranism, and the sad falling away from God, both in teaching and practice, of which they are the cause, were unveiled by Elijah the Restorer at the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day afternoon, October 19, 1902.

The Message which the prophet of God delivered was indeed a Restoration Message; for it was full of destructive fire, and it is only by the destruction of that which is false and evil that the good and true can be restored.

With unbiased historical insight, and logic keen as a rapier, the man of God disclosed the basal errors of Roman Catholicism which were permitted to remain in Lutheranism, as the result of the pernicious influence of self-seeking politicians and princes and hair-splitting theologians.

Clearly and convincingly he traced the history of these false teachings and practices, and showed their damning effect upon the lives of the people who were deceived by them.

Then, with sledge-hammer blows, he attacked the terrible sins of both clergy and people, resulting from the apostasy.

That mighty witnessing against evil thrilled the audience with intense spiritual power.

In closing, God's prophet manifested his intense love for the very men whose errors and sins he had been attacking, weeping as he related a touching incident, showing how the best and most godly men in the Lutheran clergy recognized and deplored the apostasy and loss of spiritual power of their church.

The great audience was deeply moved by this recital.

Then came the mighty Elijah call to Repentance, Confession, Restitution, Faith and Obedience.

With scarce an exception, the thousands present rose to their feet and repeated after God's prophet a fervent and earnest prayer of Repentance and Consecration.

There was a deep sincerity and firm determination written upon the faces and ringing in the voices of all that great throng as they sang with mighty volume that inspiring hymn, "Sin no more."

The day had been a most beautiful and perfect example of fine October weather, and between six and seven thousand people had gathered in the Chicago Auditorium for this service.

In his prelude, the General Overseer dealt briefly but happily with Zion's great victory over her bitter foes in the godless Chicago newspaper press.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, October 5, 1900.

Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almightly;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord, have mercy upon us and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is incline our hearts to keep this law.”
in the waters under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I, the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My Commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto the Lord thine God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy Son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day:
wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt not slay a Murderer.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor’s.
Hear also what our Lord Jesus the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:
XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another;
Hear also what our Lord Jesus the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

One of the Divine Things I Know is Anger.

A Divine Indignation burns like fire and cuts sharper than any Damascus blade.
As you can measure the height of a tower by the length of its shadow at a certain time, so one can always measure the height of a man’s Love by the intensity of his Anger at sin.

Righteous, Holy, Divine Anger was manifested in our Master more than in any other man.
Did you ever see Him angry?

Some of you do not seem to understand Him at all.
You ought to have seen that Divine Countenance that night in Bethany as He knelt with His Divine fingers that whip of small cords, and fastened it with His Divine hand upon that firm little handle.
He put it within His robe as He ascended Mount Olivet, thence descended that eminence and climbed up the Temple mountain.
He walked into that Temple, and then burst out in His Divine Indignation, “Get ye hence!”

“Get ye hence!”

He laid it again upon their backs as only His Divine hand could.
He overturned the money-changers’ table; He opened the cages of the doves and let them go, and drove the lowing cattle out of the Temple of God.

“Get ye hence!”

My House shall be called a House of Prayer for all the nations, but ye have made it a den of robbers.
They were driven out.
Do you think that He never spoke strong words?
He looked into their faces and said:
“Ye are of your father, the Devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

DIFFERENT THINGS I KNOW IS ANGER.

Jesus became angry at the dinner-table when he marked the hypocrisy of his host.
The Pharisees saw that uninvited guest who had crept in from the street, who was weeping in her penitence at the Saviour’s side.
He was saying in his heart: “This fellow, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is who toucheth him, for she is a sinner.”

He was a hypocrite in his heart, and the Christ unveiled him several times.
“Simon, I have something to say to you.”
Rabbi, say on.” He went on, and told the story of the one who was forgiven so much.
He said to Simon, “Which of them will love him most?”
UNVEILING THE APOSTASIES.

It has the meaning there of Falling Away—not so much the idea of Falling Away with the deliberate intention of deserting, but the idea of being deceived, corrupted, and led astray, and so Falling Away.

It has not the same meaning of wilful and shameful desertion as the word has in secular Greek.

The Apostasy Must Needs Come.

It is inevitable that there shall be a Falling Away in the Last Days, for Paul wrote (2 Thessalonians 2:3): "For that Day shall not come, except the Falling Away come First."

There has been a continual Falling Away; but there will be a great and world-wide Apostasy.

Among the Twelve Apostles there was the Falling Away of one, Judas, the traitor of the Church, who was a thief and a murderer.

There were fallings away in the early Church, like that of Simon Magus, who became a member in order that he might buy, if it were possible, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and who, when he offered money, was denounced as having neither part nor lot with the Christ, although he had been baptized.

Falling Away began at a very early age, even when the Church was purest.

Men like Ananias, and women like Sapphira, conspired against the Holy Spirit and told lies.

These poor, miserable people, as you know, perished openly and miserably.

If all the liars in all the churches were to die today, it would be quite impossible for the undertakers to do the work tomorrow.

One of the saddest things is the fact that in all the churches there are large numbers of men making a profession of Christianity which is most shamefully untruthful.

Some of these men are editors, and may be seen today, sitting in churches and taking up the offerings as elders and church wardens.

It is a shameful fact.

A certain man in a very prominent position on the Press occupies a relation to a church which is a shame and a scandal.

Some day I may deal with him personally.

It may be an object-lesson to call him by name some day, and deal with him before all the people.

The anonymous villains who write in the press shield themselves under an editorial or a reportorial "we."

If the name were signed to the article, they would look dreadfully "wee."

The people would be perfectly disgusted to think that such persons impudently assumed the right to lead them in forming opinions on any subject.

With the explanation of our use of the word apostasy, as given in my previous Message, I proceed.

It would be quite impossible to go into detail in all the matters which cause me to say that the Lutheran Church of today is apostate.

Political and Theological Influence Sowed Seeds of Apostasy in Lutheranism.

I do not hesitate to say that Martin Luther and those associated with him came early under the power of politicians who had not a particle of real Christianity in them.

They were no more Christians, even though they were Protestants, than King Henry VIII. of England was either a Christian or a Protestant.

He broke away from Rome because it would not do his bidding in a matter that was highly honorable to that church.

He was refused a divorce from Catherine of Aragon, against whom there were no charges made, which reflected upon her in such a manner as to entitle the king to a divorce.

It was a shame and a disgrace.

Hence the Church of England was "born in sin and conceived in iniquity." It has never been otherwise than in an apostate condition.

It was not unlike the churches on the Continent, however.

Many of the German princes quarreled with Rome because they saw an opportunity of confiscating property.

They had a very excellent opportunity of destroying or converting to other uses the churches, monasteries and nunneries of the Roman Catholic Church, and confiscating the lands for their own purposes. They never thought of restoring them to the people, from whom they had been stolen.

Whole But Superficial Conversion of Roman Catholic Ecclesiastics.

It is true that Rome had spoiled the people, and they were only being repaid. Nevertheless, there was no Christianity in it. Lutherans were done with any and every early period. A number of hair splitting ecclesiastics associated themselves with Luther, and, as Luther himself admits, the Reformation was hindered.

Lutheranism Holds to Her Old Errors.

The Lutheran writers in the United States of America admit and glory in the fact that the Lutheran church does not dissociate itself from the past. Dr. Henry Eyster Jacobs, Professor of Systematic Theology of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, has written a very recent work on the history of the Evangelical Lutheran church in the United States, which was published by Scribner's in 1899.

In this he says: "The Lutheran church accepted all that had gone before in the church's history," which I admit, "casting out that which is contrary to Holy Scripture," which I do not admit.

He says that "the Lutheran Church is constantly seeking development, but only upon the basis of what has preceded it, for it knows too well that this is the law of all true progress."

The fact is that these admissions invalidate the whole Reformation, if pushed to their logical extreme: for they lead right back into the bosom of Rome.

Roman Catholic Influence Strong in the Lutheran Church.

The Lutheran Church never became ultra-Protestant. The Lutheran Church retained everything that it could retain of Roman Catholicism and yet be dissociated from it. It is wholly illogical in this position and extremely unscriptural.

The Roman Catholic Church has the advantage in many respects in fair argument on this very question as to what the Holy Scripture teaches concerning Church Organization.

Practically, the Lutheran Church declares, not only the individual responsibility of every person before God, which is right, but also declares "the spiritual priesthood of believers." It declares, although it does not act in accordance with that declaration, that it recognizes the right of every believer to have a voice in the government of the Church, which is not a Scriptural position.

The Roman Catholic Church is far stronger than the Lutheran Church in taking this position, which declares that the Church is an institution created by God, sustained by God, and that the people have no right to rule the Church. It declares that God rules His Church by His Word, and by the Terrible Effect of the Lie of Baptismal Regeneration.

Two of the first martyrs of the Lutheran Church, who died for the Christ in Brussels on July 1, 1523, Henry Voes and John Esch, had been monks of the Augustinian Order. They were burned to death, after condemnation by Rome.

Many of the Augustinians were undoubtedly able and good men. However, the conversions were altogether too sudden. They were not based upon conviction and repentance. They were not based upon the operation of the Holy Spirit in their hearts.

Dr. Jacobs rightly says, "Where the (Roman Catholic) bishops espoused the Lutheran faith, and effected reforms according to it, as seen especially in Sweden, there was no change in the form of organization."

In most cases the powers of the bishops devolved upon the rulers. Then large numbers of bishops suddenly became converted. They found it an exceedingly good thing to break from Rome, because they could set itself upon the ecclesiastical property and do with it as they pleased.

If you trace the history of Lutheranism from the beginning of the Reformation, in the various countries into which it went, you will see that in many cases there was really no change at all.

Extreme Lutheran Position on Salvation by Faith.

It remained Roman Catholic in its doctrinal positions to the core, with the small addition of a declaration about Salvation by Faith and not by works.

That hatred of "works" went on to such an extent that Luther expressed a doubt as to whether the epistle of the Apostle James was canonical, because James had said: "As the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead also."

He afterwards admitted his error when he saw they were pushing too far this talk of "Faith, faith, faith, believe, believe, believe." They were pushing it to such an extent that they did not repent, and did not do works meet for repentance.

He saw, before he passed away, that a Faith which was Divine must work by Love and must have manifestation.

It was at this point that Luther left a seed in the Church which has today made the Lutheran church shamefully apostate: for the faith which is a mere verbal confession and intellectual apprehension is dead and ineffective.

He left also the shameful, False Doctrine, which no person of common sense, who is not pledged to refuse to exercise his reason, will maintain. He left the destructive doctrine of Baptismal Regeneration as an article of the Lutheran faith.

The Terrible Effect of the Lie of Baptismal Regeneration.

I appeal to every one present, sprinkled by water in infancy, as to whether the teaching of the Lutheran church agrees with his or her experience.

I put this question to the apostate members of the church, and I said to them: "You have been sprinkled by water in infancy, as to whether the teaching of the Lutheran church agrees with your face?" I asked you who have been sprinkled in infancy in any church, Was your heart changed by the water sprinkled upon your face?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—When I was speaking in the tribunal in Zürich, Switzerland, less than two years ago, I had the chief justice in front of me.

I looked into his eye and I said to him and to the crowded audience present: "I am going to judge you, and I am going to have you judge yourselves."

Honest Germans Repudiate the Lie of Baptismal Regeneration.

Standing there I put this question: "Every one of you who cannot accept the Zwingleian and Lutheran doctrine which says that the baby's heart is regenerated, and Divine Grace and Faith implanted, and that it becomes a new creature in the Christ Jesus when sprinkled with water on the face, give me the good German answer, "Nein."
"Nein," came from the audience.
"Now," I said, "those who believe it to be true, say 'Ja!'" A eelie, "Ja," came up from a far-away corner of the room.
The said, "Ja," but it would be safe to bet a few dollars to a million that the person who said 'Ja' is a Lutheran or Zwinglian parson."
They all laughed, because he was a minister of the Cantonal Church. Every one said "Nein." However, that False Doctrine is the Doctrine of the Lutheran church.
The Lutheran Church is Cursed by Rationalism, Indifferentism, and Infidelity In Consequence of False Doctrine.
Large numbers of men in Germany and elsewhere, who are in the Church and eat of its Sacramental bread, boldly deny the Divinity of the Christ and laugh at this faith as being imparted by the Church in Baptism.
There are hundreds and even thousands of saloon-keepers in Chicago today who sell that Liquid Fire and Distilled Damna tion, which no man who is a good citizen will sell to his fellow man. They sell that accursed, damning poison which inspires hellish lust and destroys true love; which destroys the happiness of the family; which fills the jails and lunatic asylums; which starves the children and leads hundreds annually to the gallows and tens of thousands to premature graves.
No good citizen will sell that damning liquor.
I said, "Ja."
"Ja," the Church, of today, however, allows its people to sell it and to drink it without rebuke.
Lutheran ministers drink it, although they know the shameful consequences which follow.
They have the audacity to receive saloon-keepers as godfathers and their wives as god-mothers, who renounce the World, the Flesh and the Devil on behalf of the children, when they are full of the World, the Flesh and the Devil themselves, and sometimes are even under the influence of alcohol when they make the vows.
It is almost unbelievable that Dr. Jacobs would make that horrible statement that Saving and Regenerating Faith comes into the heart of a child through the act of Baptism.
It is a Shameful and Intolerable Lie, and one which must be utterly destroyed.
The False Doctrine of Baptismal Regeneration Lies at the Foundation of the Infidelity of Europe.
How can any man of sense believe that any priest or parson, whether he be Lutheran, Roman Catholic or Episcopalian, can impart regenerating faith to a child by dropping a little water upon its face and receiving the vows of the godfather and godmother, who are, in many cases, most ungodly men and women?
It is a shameful falsehood, contrary to experience and to the Word of God.
This doctrine of the Lutheran Church came from Rome.
Martin Luther himself at one time was against the practice of this form of baptism.
It is stated upon what has appeared to be sufficient authority that Martin Luther wrote a letter in connection with the baptism of a Jewess, directing her to be baptized according to the primitive rite, which he admitted was Trine Immersion.
She was to be clad in a decent robe and placed in a tank of water up to her neck.
She was then to be submerged three times, into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, which was the primitive practice of the Church.
Whether Luther said this or not is immaterial: for there is only One Baptism which is Scriptural, and I have proved again and again that Trine Immersion Was the General and Authoritative Practice of the Universal Church for Twelve Centuries.
Trine Immersion was practiced by the Church for twelve centuries without a single break, excepting the divergence of Eunomius, a heretic and a man of evil life, who was expelled from the Church in the fourth century.
In the seventh century the council of Toledo tolerated single immersion in Spain, but this was not approved and the authoritative practice of the Church for twelve centuries was Baptism by Triune Immersion.
The popes of Rome contended for that mode, in common with the patriarchs of Constantinople.
The Eastern and Western Churches were agreed that Baptism by Triune Immersion was preceded by repentance and a profession of faith, was the proper form.
Whether Luther approved it or not, it is a fact beyond all question that no one can find any other form of Baptism approved by the Church for many hundreds of years other than that which the Orthodox Greek practices even to this time, namely, Baptism by Trine Immersion.
However, the Greek Orthodox Church has departed from the Primitive Church and the Word of God in that it baptizes infants.
Infants cannot repent or make any profession of repentance, or exercise any intelligent faith.
The Scriptures have no place for the Baptism of any who have not repented, brought forth fruits for repentance and believed intelligently.
The Lutheran Church, in its shameful travesty of Baptism, have become terribly apostate.
It has made its people to believe that they became Christians when they were sprinkled, which is a shameful lie and keeps the people in bondage.
It also leads to the false conclusion that Infant Baptism is essential to the Salvation of children who die in childhood, which is unscriptural, unreasonable, and makes God a horrible monster who eternally punishes the innocent in hell for the offenses of guilty parents. The injustice of this has driven millions into infidelity. But the charge was never true: for the Christ Himself said of the young children, that "their angels do always behold the face of My Father which is in heaven" and that "of such are the Kingdom of Heaven."
Confusing People in Their Sins.
The next charge which I make against the Lutheran church, in proving its Apostasy, is the charge of confusing persons who are not converted, but who are often living in sin.
They confirm persons who make confessions in words and do not live them.
The ministers are perfectly aware that large numbers of these people are living worldly and ungodly lives.
They prove the sham of their confirmation and their taking of the communion by going immediately into abounding worldliness and even open wickedness.
It is beyond all question that the ministers themselves have become shamefully corrupt, to a large extent, in consequence of the corruption of the doctrine of the church.
The Idolatrous, False Doctrine of Consubstantiation.
I desire to deal briefly with the doctrine of the Lord's Supper in the Lutheran church.
Dr. Jacobs tries to escape from the charge that the Lutheran church believes in Consubstantiation.
Dr. Jacobs fails in his endeavor to escape from that charge because his own admission clearly states it.
In the Holy Supper the Lutheran church has rigidly held to the literal interpretation of the words of the institution, finding in the Doctrine of the Real Presence the surest pledge of all that is comprehended in redemption, and in the Distribution of the Heavenly Object to all communicants the Seal of the Individualization of the general promise of the gospel, made in the divinely appointed words which accompany the distribution, and declare that, so far as God's will and purposes are concerned, the benefits of Christ's death belong to every one partaking of the Sacred Elements of that which they convey.
That statement is perfectly clear and there are many similar to this.
The Lutheran church cannot get away from the charge of Consubstantiation; and there is no essential distinction between that and the Roman Catholic error of Transubstantiation, with which, God willing, I shall deal in another Message.
Dr. Jacobs is falsely taught to believe that in the elements received in the Holy Supper they partake of the actual body and the blood of the Lord Jesus, the Christ.
That is also stated in a work of Dr. E. E. P., entitled titled "The Lutherans in America," to which Dr. Jacobs has written an introduction. He says: "Lutherans believe that in the Holy Supper there are present with the elements, and received sacramentally and supernaturally, the Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. Whether it be Dr. Waltz or Dr. Jacobs, it is the same wolf of Romish Error, and there is no getting away from it.

Absurdity of the Doctrine of Consubstantiation.

How can any man or woman be foolish enough to believe that our Lord Jesus, the Christ, when He established this ordinance, gave His apostles his own body and blood to eat when He Himself was sitting there with them and said: "This is my body; this is my blood."

How could it have been His literal body and His literal blood, when He was still sitting there in flesh and blood, when He went out into the garden and after that was crucified? He died, was buried, and reassembled into the heavens in an embodied form, and He still exists in that glorified body which has been gloriously transformed, and He will return to reign for a thousand years on earth in that body.

No men of sense will believe that people down here upon this earth eat that glorified body every time they come to His Table.

It is a Farce!

It is a Sham!

It is a Lie!

It is simply an ordinance which is a memorial—"till I come."

The spiritual power of that Memorial Ordinance is very great, if we believe in the blood which was shed, in the body which was broken, and if we eat and drink the unfermented bread and wine as memorials "till He comes."

To say that you eat and drink the actual body and blood of the Lord is a horrible blasphemy.

The Idolatry of the Eucharist in Roman Catholic and Lutheran countries, when the people bow down before that which the priest has blessed and declared to be the very embodiment of God Himself, is the most horrible of all idolatries.

Idolatry of the Eucharist Responsible for Infidelity.

That doctrine is responsible for much of the infidelity of the world.

No man of sense will believe that a priest can, or that God Himself will, through a priest, transform a little wet dough into the actual body and bones of Jesus the Christ.

Think of it, a rat might steal and eat the body of Jesus the Christ!

I charge it upon the Lutheran church that these two fundamental errors—baptismal regeneration and consubstantiation in the Lord's supper—are the signs of a terrible apostasy. You can see it yourselves in this city.

Very few men take any interest in the Lutheran churches.

Last Lord's day in the Lutheran churches three out of every five think were women and children, according to the enumeration made by the Chicago record-herald, and we had more men in this building by 1,154 than in all the twenty-two Lutheran churches in this city put together.

The consequence of these false doctrines in all intelligent communities is that men will not go and listen to teachers who teach that human hearts can be changed by water, and that human teeth can eat and human stomachs digest the body, blood and bones of the eternal Son of God.

With these errors in doctrine have come some terrible errors in practice.

The Lutheran Church Not a Protestor Against Shameful Sins of Humanity.

Lutheran ministers, by their own bad example, encourage their people to smoke, drink and eat riotously in the most shameful manner.

A few days ago I was told the following by a lady who used to attend the Lutheran church.

She gave me the name of the town and the name of the minister, and said there are many living there who would bear out the statement if it were challenged.

She said that so devoted are the Lutherans to their pipes in that place, that minister and people alike smoke up to that very moment before going into the services.

They have shelves made inside the porch where they put their pipes. They go into the church, and the moment that the service is over they immediately become animated stinkpots.

I am told that the shelves are all charred, and that a burning fire is kept in the pipes so that the moment they come out they can go right on puffing and spitting, and developing numerous diseases, in their beer and tobacco-soaked bodies.

The Filthy and Terrible Consequences of the Use of Tobacco.

How shameful is the devotion of minister and people to that filthy poison, nicotine!

It has not one good thing to recommend it.

Something like $700,000,000 is spent upon it every year, to the great injury of the people who smoke and chew.

It degrades the youth and every one who uses it.

It is creating amoebiosis, paralysis, dyspepsia, ulceration of the stomach and bowels, and cancer.

Cancer is becoming more common than tuberculosis in many parts of this country.

Nicotine cancer is transmitted to offspring through the sins of men, until cancer is becoming one of the most common of diseases.

The use of swine's flesh and the use of tobacco have greatly increased the number of cancer patients and victims.

Cancer is spreading at a terrible rate in consequence of the bad and shameful example of Lutheran preachers, Lutheran teachers, and Lutheran church members.

Surely if we are to obey the Word of God and "abstain from every form of evil," we are to abstain from so shameful a vice as the use of nicotine poison.

Speedy Death by Nicotine Poison.

It is deadly poison.

Some of you do not know how deadly it is.

A fine feather drawn through a heavy smoker's pipe, I aving the liquor clinging to the feather, put into the mouth of a puppy dog, will cause that dog to die in terrible convulsions within half an hour.

The Lutheran Church, Beer-soaked and Addicted to Stronger Liquors.

I charge the Lutheran church with being very largely responsible for this shameful, sensual indulgence.

Many indulge in beer until, if they are not drunk, they do not know whether they are drunk or sober.

Besides taking tobacco and beer, many take spirituous liquors and wines.

The Germans are not so guilty of this as others, but they are more so than you would think.

Before I made a voyage upon a German ship, I was under the impression that the German sailors and German people for the most part used beer.

I was undeceived, however.

I seldom saw beer at the tables; but I saw strong wine, brandy, whisky, etc., at almost every meal, and served in smoking-rooms and state-rooms at nearly all hours of the day and night.

I saw and heard shameful conduct, consequent upon shameful drunkenness.

The action of some of the officers and passengers was the scandal of the whole ship.

I say, with deep regret, that the Lutheran church utters no protest against the sins of the flesh, and exercises no discipline, or almost none, for such offenses.

They go on in the knowledge that men drink, smoke, eat riotously and live glutonously, but there is no reproof from the Lutheran church and its ministers.

There is no discipline administered to thousands of well-known transgressors.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion will not knowingly take into fellowship any man or woman who does any of these things.

If you wish to do these things, go into the world and say you belong to it; but never disgrace the Son of God by calling yourself a Christian while you so live.

Do not make a sham of abstaining from every form of evil while you seek and make evil things, and drink and eat them.

I have kept closely to facts, and, if I am challenged, I can produce some very practical and very terrible details.
UNVEILING THE APOSTASIES.

There was a very large number of Lutheran ministers present when he read the paper. One Lutheran divine, a very godly man, soundly converted and very scholarly, had recommended my friend to write this paper.

My friend submitted the paper to this aged man of God; he wept over it as he said: "Your charges are true. Oh, that God would have mercy upon me and upon my brethren for our lack of spirituality!"

They prayed together earnestly that the paper might be blessed.

Lutheran Ministers Revile a Brother Who Rebukes Them for Spiritual Weakness.

These two men, probably the youngest and the oldest Lutheran ministers in that city, prayed earnestly on the morning of the ministers' meeting. When the paper was read, many of the ministers got very angry. They stunk, literally stunk, of tobacco and beer. Some of them had smoked up to the very moment of their coming into the meeting.

One of them had boldly gone into a saloon and drunk beer with some of his flock that morning.

They were so angry that they could scarcely let him finish, but when he had finished they fell upon him to devour him.

They said many untrue and very unkind things about him.

One said that he had come under my influence, though my name was not mentioned in the paper.

That old pastor sat there and heard all the torrent of abuse that was poured upon this young man, who had dared to say that they were not spiritual.

They held that they were spiritual, and that everything was all right.

Many were spiritual, anyhow. There is no doubt about that.

When it was over my friend was permitted to reply.

All he did was to rise, turn to the aged man, and say: "Father So-and-so, you advised me to write this paper?"

"I did, my son."

"And you have heard how they have treated it?"

"I have, my son."

"You and I have prayed for these brethren, whom we love, and they have treated me as if I were their enemy."

"I know it, my son," and the old man wept.

Sad Lack of True Christians in the Lutheran Church.

"And now," said my friend, "you are the oldest and I believe the best minister of this city. You have over 3,000 members on your church rolls. I ask you, Are there 1,000 of these that are truly converted and manifest spiritual power?"

The old man said: "Nineteen."

"Are there 500, father?"

"Nineteen."

"Are there fifty, father, whom you know to be soundly converted, among your three thousand members?"

"Nineteen. At least I know them not."

"Are there ten?"

"Oh," he said, "I know them not. If there are ten, I know them not. O God, Thou knowest, but I do not know them. Among my thousands I do not know ten men whom I could ask to kneel and pray with me now for the conversion of one sinner."

My brothers and sisters, that story is the story of Many Cities. Those in the city where it happened will know it.

My brother who read the paper told me the story with tears.

He was in heaven now, "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest." He came away from that meeting with a broken heart.

The men whom he loved had trampled upon him.

They had hurt him more than if they had broken every bone in his body.

They had broken his heart.

He was not very strong and he became weaker and weaker, and died.

O God, so we would die, if You had not given us some backbone.

When I come to the denomination with which I was connected, I shall deal with it just as plainly and as truthfully as I have dealt with the Lutherans.
LEAVES OF HEALING

I mean the Congregationalists.
I was born in that Valley of Dry Bones and I nearly died there.

If I wish I need not say it, but I can only pray to God the Almighty that, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, He would smash the Lutheran Organization, save the people and scatter the ungodly ministers who are in that church, for Jesus' sake.

Elijah's Call: Turn Ye unto God.

All who desire to be pure in heart and life, and to give yourselves wholly to God, stand and say so.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may restore anything that is not mine to those to whom it belongs; that I may confess the falsehoods or the wrongs I have done, no matter what it costs. Help me to bring forth fruits meet for Repentance. Give me power to trust Thee and Thy dear Son, my Advocate who died for me; who pleads for me, Jesus the Righteous, the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world. For His sake take away my sin, and give me Thy Spirit, that I may live righteously and do right and be a blessing to others. Take away everything that hinders. Give me power to break away from everything that hinders, for Jesus' sake. By Thy Spirit give me the strength which I need to fulfill the declaration and vow which I now make—that I do repeat, that I believe, that I will obey. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?
Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then say, For Jesus' sake, I will do it.
Voices—"For Jesus' sake, I will do it."

General Overseer—Sing "Sin no more."

The audience then sang the beautiful hymn which follows, the women and men singing the chorus, at the request of the General Overseer, separately, without organ accompaniment. Over and over and over again the sweet words of the Master rang forth, "Sin no more! Thy soul is free; Christ hath died to ransom thee," etc., until they laid hold of every heart, and dwell, doubtless, in the memories of the thousands who were present:

Sin no more, thy soul is free,
Christ has died to ransom thee;
Now the power of sin is o'er,
Jesus bids thee sin no more.

Chorus.—Sin no more, thy soul is free,
Christ has died to ransom thee;
Sing the message o'er and o'er,
Think of what His love hath wrought.

Sin no more, His blood hath bought;
Think of what He bore for you;
Shun the snares that luredbefore,
Near the hand that guards the sheep.

Sin no more, oh, sin no more;
Jesus lives to keep thee pure;
Saying, "Go and sin no more."

CLOSING PRAYER.

Our God, grant that we may go from this place to sin no more. If there be one like the woman who came out of the street and went at Thy feet, like the woman who came from Sychar, who had five husbands and lived in sin with him who was not her husband and who went back into Sychar and brought as many as thirty to Thy feet—if there be one poor wandering woman here, O God, may she sin no more. If there be one man here, so much the worse than any woman, who thinks with shame if his sister knew—yet, O God, Thou hast known all the time—lay hold of that man and may he sin no more. May we be determined by Thy Grace we will not sin any more. Do Thou bless that great organization of which we have been speaking today, that has so much of truth in it, but which has become so apostate. Bless all the churches that have departed so much from the faith. And now, Father, help us not only to live a life apart from sin, but to work righteousness and to see that we keep from the wrongs that have done so much evil to us and to all mankind, by the power of Thy Holy Spirit. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And pray the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ELIJAH'S RESTORATION MESSAGE

Unveiling the Apostasies: the Rome of Paul and the Martyrs, and the Rome of Pope Leo XIII

All Welcome Seats Free Freewill Offering CHRIST IS ALL AND IN ALL
WHEN the Host of Zion Restorationists met in the dawn of Lord's Day, October 12, 1902, in Shiloh Tabernacle, they awaited with feelings of loving apprehension the appearance of their beloved leader.

Although there had been no outward evidence of the fact in the peaceful, beautiful little city, all knew that the conflict had been fiercely raging during the week—the deadly conflict between Righteousness and the powers of the Evil One.

Would the marks of the warfare be there?

And behold! No lagging step, no bent form, no bowed head, no furrowed brow, no broken voice.

Instead, there is the same springing step, betokening healthful vigor; the voice rings out as of old, deep toned, impelling; the head is bowed only in prayer to God, and the fearless spirit blazes anew with the unquenched fire of God's Messages to men, as delivered through His servant and prophet, Elijah the Restorer.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois. October 12, 1902.

The service was opened by Congregation singing Hymn No. 164.

Behold, what love, what boundless love.

The Father hath bestowed on sinners lost, that we should be called sons of God.

What manner of love! What manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we—that we should be called the sons of God.

Overseer Piper then read the 5th chapter of Matthew. (Amen.)

INTERIOR OF SHILOH TABERNACLE.

I told them some time ago, when the price of land was at its highest, and prosperity had reached its zenith, that it was time to sell their properties.

Realization will be more difficult for us now, as well as for our friends. I shared with others the thought that the wide-spread prosperity would continue for a while, and that we would not be likely to have times of financial stringency for some time. I assured that from the public records, and from what I could see of the condition of this country and the great blessing God was giving to the land.

Storms Are the Incidents of Life; We Merely Shorten Sail.

No man who sails the seas, no matter how old a navigator he is, can always be quite sure that a storm will not come up, for they often come up at the most unexpected times. I have sailed the seas in perfectly smooth water, when the captain was just as sure as I was, that we had a spell of fine weather ahead, when all at once I would see him start from my side, rush for his glass, and look away to horizon; and then shout with a voice of thunder:

"Shorten sail."

When he became cool and could talk to me, I have asked him what happened.

I have taken up the glass, and have seen, away in the horizon, just a little dark cloud, and under it what seemed to me were storm waters.

But that dark cloud has come up and covered the sky, and in half an hour we were in the midst of a raging storm.

Our captain had taken in sail and had watched things. The consequence was that when the storm struck the vessel if did not go down.

The Storm Gives Opportunity to Show Our Strength and Discipline.

When this financial storm arose we took in sail and trimmed the ship as quickly as we could.

We have now been in the storm for three or four weeks, and, hallelujah, we have not lost a man! (Amen. Applause.)

Up to this point we have not borrowed a dollar from the world.

If we stand firmly together, work as we should, and give God all the glory, we will not need to borrow a dollar from the world.

Immensce Resources of Zion.

This is the boast of Zion: that for the vast estate which Zion controls today in my person, with assets, over and above liabilities, estimated at $23,256,152, we have never, by the grace of God, borrowed one dollar from the world.

If you cut it down one-half, it is still quite a respectable sum.

If you cut it down one-fourth, it still remains quite a sum.

One business man said: "Gentlemen, take Zion's land, even if it were only cabbage gardens at $200 an acre, Zion would still be worth Millions."

The world has come to the conclusion that our position, from a large financial standpoint, is strong and sound.

By the grace of God, we are going forward. (Amen.)

Jehovah Will Care for His Own.

I am in no trouble about this matter at all. Why should I be in trouble?

If Zion had only a tithe of the vast estate that she has, I could not be troubled, because Jehovah hath founded Zion. The Devil cannot uproot what God has planted. We are in the days in which we know just where we stand. We may expect a concentration of enmity and devilry on the part of the world. Deacon Champe's cartoon in the last issue of Leaves of Healing, which illustrates my sermon of last Lord's Day, puts the whole thing in a nutshell. Extremes have met. Masonry and Rome have forced on the vipers and hydrophobic dogs of the press to this attack. The thing has now become so perfectly ludicrous that the papers are being laughed at.

The World Respects a Solid Front.

One of the things that very much impresses the world is the solidity of Zion. Notwithstanding all these attacks, so far as I know, there has not been one break in our ranks. If our ranks should break, at that moment the enemy would get in. We should have to close up our ranks. We cannot pay any attention to the dead. They will just have to be left upon the battlefield. We must go on. Now our ranks are firm. No one has fallen. If there are those in Zion who are dead in trespasses and sins, they have no business here. We must march right on, and Leave the Dead in Sion to Bury Their Dead.

We are not going to suppose that we have such people among us. We are going to suppose, what we hitherto have seen, that we are one. Pray for us. The pressure upon me and upon my associates in the direction of Zion has been very great. There is no outward sign of this battle in Zion City—it is a battle in the counting-house; it is a battle in the General Overseer's office; it is a battle in the counting-houses of the cities. Although it is one of those battles which do not show upon the outside, nevertheless, it is the most real and desperate of battles, from a financial point of view.

Zion's Leader is Afraid of Neither Man nor Devil.

I am so glad that God, in bringing me to the leadership at this time, brought a man, who, not by his own strength, but by the grace of God, can say that he never feared the face of man or Devil. (Amen. Praise God.) I do not understand what fear is. When people tell me they are afraid, I do not understand it. I sometimes ask: "How does it feel to be afraid?" Why should we be afraid? If God is for us, it does not matter who is against us. With God for us, it does not matter if we lose everything of an earthly character.

The Zion which has come up out of the wilderness, in spiritual strength and power, leaning upon her Lord, and which has been enriched by God, is going to stand by and protect what God has given her. She will be an effective power in extending His Kingdom. If a man keep My sayings, he shall never see death. If you have fear, you will die a thousand times before you leave this body.

The Coward Suffers a Thousand Deaths.

If you have fear, you will die a thousand times before you leave this body. You will live in bondage all your life through fear of death. That is a most miserable life. I had previously told you that it was anywhere from Fifteen to Twenty-five Million Dollars. Until we went into it very carefully, we could not tell in exact figures. The figures that I have given you now are reliable, and I believe conservative.

Best of All is the Spiritual Work.

Zion Restoration Host is today going again into the spiritual work, which is the best thing of all. Perhaps you will get some knocks today. You may have the joy of nursing a broken head before night. It may be so, but I do not think you are going to suffer. God is going to cover your head in the Day of Battle. There is an immense amount of real sympathy for us in every way. The goodness of God has given us a large place in the months of the Civil War but they had to go fight through.

Do you know that? We are not enlisted for three months.

We Are Enlisted for Life, for Eternity.

We must get ready for the last and greatest fight of all, which is beyond the Millennium. A great many people do not see that there is one great battle, the hardest of all, beyond the Millennium. They have not read their Bibles closely. The people who get afraid are not the ones who are going to last for the Rapture. They are not the people whom the Lord is going to bring back with Him at the opening of the Millennial Reign. He will have to bring back brave people. He will have to bring back with Him those over whom the second death will have no power.

I once said to me: "General Overseer, what do you think about death?" I said: "I do not think anything about it." "Well, are you not going to die?" "No," I said, "I died long ago. I have passed from Death unto Life." I believe the words of my Master, who said: I am the Resurrection and the Life: He that believeth on Me, though he die, shall live: and whosoever liveth and believeth on Me shall never die. Believeth thou this? Believeth thou this? Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Then you will never die.

We are in the days in which we know just where we stand. We are enrolled for life, for eternity.
Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois,
Lord's Day Morning, October 12, 1902.

EARLY MORNING MEETING.

The question of Baptism.

I myself never used to give Baptism a hundredth part of the consideration that it deserved.

I do not care to talk about it.

I do not hesitate to say before God today that, while my heart is supremely with Him, and hid with the Christ in God, it is also here in Zion.

The only thing that my enemies wish for now is my speedy departure from this life. However, I do not think that they are likely to be gratified. God is going to keep me in life.

Do not fast like the hypocrites. Do not appear unto men to fast, and, when you do fast, do it because it is a good thing.

It is a good thing if you have to do it, but,

As a Rule, It Is Best to Eat Three Meals a Day Regularly.

There are some of you who have fasted too much, and you look like it, too.

We must be strong. We want vigor.

We need good, red blood. Let us see that we eat heartily. Whatever you do in this matter of fasting, do it in secret, that your Heavenly Father shall be glorified.

Cancer is never mentioned in the New Testament. The Jews never knew anything about it. They never ate pig nor oysters.

If your treasure is in these things, and your heart is there, then, beloved friend, you are the weakest kind of a Christian that can be possible. In fact, I do not think they are a Christian at all; for where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

Your heart is with the Lord, is it not?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Our life is hid with the Christ in God. If our life is there, we are living a life of faith in the Son of God.

Our Treasure Should be in Heaven.

While we are upon earth we are citizens of heaven, and our treasures are there.

While we have treasure for God on earth, it is one which we hold as from Him, that we may bring to heaven all who can be brought there.

You will not need to take any gold to heaven, neither will you need to take anything of earth; for in heaven there is all that heart could wish. But we can make heaven here for God. Our treasure ought to be where our heart is.

Our Hearts Ought Also to be in Zion City.

I confess to you that my heart is in the City of God here, as well as in the City of God above, because I believe that God wants us to put our hearts into what we do.

If this work of Zion is done for God, if this building is for God, and if this City is for God, then it is a right place for us to have our hearts for the time being. I do not hesitate to say before God today that, while my heart is supremely with Him, and hid with the Christ in God, it is also here in Zion.

But where is the Christ today? Is He an absent Lord?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—Is He not with us?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is He not here?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then, if I have my heart with the Christ, is my heart not in Zion?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is He not in the midst of us?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—I think so. So my life is hid with the Christ in God, and the Christ, invisible, is with us all the way standing by our side, helping us to fight the battle, and, with the unseen Hosts of Heaven, giving us victory and restful sleep.

The Blessing of Restful Sleep.

That is one thing I have to thank God for. I sleep o' nights.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

I think the other fellows lie awake, thinking what lies they will tell about Dowie tomorrow. (Laughter.) It does not bother me a grain. I sleep o’ nights.

Listen: Sleep when you do sleep. Sleep o’ nights.

Lay down your head and get a good, sound sleep— if you have done your work and done it bravely.

Even if you seem for the moment not to have been successful as you would like to have been, take a good night’s rest.

There is another day.

We are not laying up treasures for ourselves, but we are laying them up for God.

I can truly say that

My Personal Interest In Zion City Is Five Cents Out Of Every Hundred.

That is all, and I have not taken that out.

I have lived on less than two and one-half per cent. of my income per annum.

I want everything that I have to be in Zion.

I want this treasure to be laid up, not for my children, nor for myself, but I want a Strong City to be laid up, a treasure for God—a strong city where there are strong men and strong women, clean men and clean women, and where there is a sufficiency in every way.

I want a City with a strong, powerful treasury, by means of which we can send out hosts from Zion, to conquer the world for God. (Amen.)

That is what I want. That is what I am aiming at, and I am going to win, too.

Anyhow, I will have a good try, and I believe I shall win.

Do you not believe it?

Audience—"Yes."

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Instantly Cured of Fever and Kidney Disease.

WAWAKA, TEXAS, September 21, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—It is with a thankful heart that I write my testimony of healing through Faith in God.

I had been troubled with my kidneys for some time and gradually grew worse. On June the 7th I became very sick.

I suffered from urinary trouble, and vomited pure bile.

I grew very weak.

The time had come when something definite had to be done.

I said to God: "Thou knowest that I believe, through Thy Word, that Thou hast the power to heal us. I read several of His promises, and knelt down in prayer. Thank God, I was instantly healed! The vomiting ceased at once, and my kidneys began to act normally.

On the 16th of July I was instantly healed of a fever while at prayer.

I read several of God’s promises to heal, and believed them.

Then I prayed.

When the prayer was ended I was covered with perspiration. The fever had gone, and has never returned.

I thank God for His Saving, Healing and Keeping Power.

I thank Him for LEAVES OF HEALING.

May He spare your lives for many years to do the great work that you have undertaken for Him.

May He bless Zion wherever in all departments.

Your brother in the Christ, S. A. MORROW.

Wonderfully Healed of Inflammation of the Optic Nerve.

590 JEFFERSON AVENUE,

OSKOSH, WISCONSIN, September 23, 1902.

DEAR BROTHER IN THE CHRIST:—About six years ago, God mercifully healed me of inflammation of the optic nerve, which had caused great suffering.

I was nearly blind and could not use my eyes for any kind of work.

None of the doctors whom I consulted encouraged me in the hope of ever seeing for a living again.

Praise His Holy Name! since He healed me, in His Divine love, I have been able to see all day and evening.

I now do all my work: washing, ironing, housecleaning and all other household duties.

He has given me grace and strength to do it all.

I have been greatly blessed in tithing.

My two children and myself have been wonderfully kept in health and strength for the past six years. We were all members of the Presbyterian church.

Last winter I united with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, because I believed that God wanted me there.

Yours in the Christ, (Mrs.) DELIA MILLER.

ZION’S LEAVES IN THE MIDST OF LUTHERANISM.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, September 19, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Two months ago I was led into the home of a Lutheran family in Jefferson Park. Sorrow and sickness had made their abode in that home for years.

Liquid fire was one cause of sorrow.

Three of five dear children almost ruined the mother’s life, and brought her to the verge of insanity.

I asked if we could not have a Zion cottage meeting in their home.

They consented.

It was in the midst of a Lutheran settlement, and I invited the neighbors to come to our Zion meeting.

Thirty came the first evening and thirty-six the next.

Since that time we have had glorious weekly meetings.

The sister in whose home we have held the meetings has been wonderfully saved and healed.

Her sister was healed in childbirth when at the gates of death.

The liquid fire was put out by the Water of Life.

Within six weeks nine persons were saved.

They came out of the Lutheran church and gave me their applications for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We now have a faithful gathering in Jefferson Park.

We have good meetings, and we see the dawn of a glorious day.

Faithfully yours in the Christ, FRED RICHERT.

Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE first regular rally of Zion Restoration Host, held Monday evening, September 22, 1902, was marked by marvelous manifestations of Divine Power.

By the meetings of the previous day, the Spirit of God had prepared the people for great things.

He had led them away from self and selfish interests, to behold a sin-striken, disease-smiten World, awaiting the Salvation that is in Christ; to realize the dignity and importance of their holy calling, wherein God had called them, and to see the victories for God, to be won by each individual who was faithful in the coming contest.

The Light of Victory was beaming from the eye of every faithful member of the Host.

They had conquered their own ambitions and desires.

They had submerged self.

They had caught a glimpse of a larger life.

A New Era had burst upon them, and, with a keen anticipation of a feast of good things, they met together in this memorable conference on "The Conquest of the World for God, and the World-wide Establishment of His Kingdom."

It was plainly manifest that the Spirit of God was resting upon the people and spurring them on into this new life.

But the Spirit had taken possession of God's Prophet.

More than ever did he prove himself to be Elijah the Restorer of All Things.

With a keen sense of the responsibility resting upon him, whom God has chosen to lead in this mighty conquest for the Restoration of the World from its sin and degradation, he came before his people to give them many of the things which God had revealed to him; to take them into his confidence as a loving father might his children, and to confer with them concerning the mission which God had given them.

Shilo Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Monday Evening, September 22, 1902.

The service was opened by the Congregation singing Hymn No. 103.

The General Overseer said:

There are three verses in the 3d chapter of Malachi which are very much in my mind tonight.

I would like to read them with you.

Then they that feared Jehovah spake one with another, and Jehovah harkened, and heard, and a Book of Remembrance was written before Him, for them that feared Jehovah, and that thought upon His Name.

And they shall be Mine, saith Jehovah of Hosts, in the day that I do make, even a peculiar treasure; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

And they shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not.

The General Overseer continued to read, beginning with the 1st verse of the 3d chapter, as follows:

Behold, I send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me; and Jehovah, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple; and the Messenger of the Covenant, whom ye delight in, behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

Worldwide Scope of Zion Restoration Host.

That will always mean more to us now, in Zion Restoration Host.

I have been thinking with much delight, that God will give us an American Host, a European Host, an Asiatic Host, an African Host, an Australasian Host, and a Host in all the Islands of the Seas; one might say an Oceanic Host.

By and by we shall think of them all as only one Host.

We will begin to understand something of the Heavenly Host.

All in Zion Restoration Host must be workers.

If any turn out to be drones, we will put them back with the drones.

But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver; and he shall offer unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness.

Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto Jehovah, as the days of old, and as in ancient years.

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and that say to the father of the fatherless, Where is the benefit? and to the widow, Where is the increase? saith Jehovah of Hosts.

For I, Jehovah, change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from Mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

Will a man rob God? yet ye rob Me. But ye say, Wherein shall we rob thee? in tithe and offerings? ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob Me, even this whole nation.

Bring ye the Whole Tithe into the Storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith Jehovah of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruit of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

And all nations shall call you happy; for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

Your words have been stout against Me, saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, Wherein have we spoken against Thee? Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Jehovah of Hosts?

And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God, and are accepted of Him.

Then they that feared Jehovah spake one with another, and Jehovah harkened, and heard, and a Book of Remembrance was written before Him, for them that feared Jehovah, and that thought upon His Name.

And they shall be Mine, saith Jehovah of Hosts, in the day that I do make, even a peculiar treasure; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

For, behold, the Day cometh, it burneth as a Furnace.

The Great Increase in Seismic Activity.

There is more seismic disturbance in the world today than within the same space of time in all the history of the world.

For years after the eruption of Krakatoa, in which whole islands disappeared, and the coasts of Java were washed with tidal waves that swept hundreds of thousands into their graves beneath the ocean, and which threw up great masses of volcanic dust into the upper air, there was a peculiar phenomenon at sunset, when the sky was cloudless.

The sun, shining through these atoms, gave the sky all the glittering colors of the spectrum.

Then we had influenza, commonly called grip, which was caused by breathing in that fine dust, filled with microscopic life.

In this neighboring city of Chicago, in 1891, I was witness to the fact that there were more than a thousand deaths a week.

The papers were afraid to tell it.

 Bodies lay unburied that winter in Calvary cemetery for days.

One lay upon the top of the other until they could dig graves.

They had to dig them with a pick-axe out of the almost solid, frozen ground.

At that time I lived at Evanston.

I would go into the city with strong, healthy men, chat with them, and find them missing the next morning.

I would be told that they were down with the grip.
Within perhaps two or three days I would hear that they were dead.

Terrible Destruction of Life by Volcanoes.

In the Caribbean Sea the volcanoes have been making a great dust and burying tens of thousands. It is said that 30,000 persons perished in thirty seconds. Old Mount Vesuvius is smoking very hard just now, and lava is beginning to pour down its sides.

Down in Ohio, there is a mountain that has been smoking for months.

The people are quite concerned. Everything is hot. The report of the scientists is not given. Two weeks ago Lake Michigan receded at least three feet. In some cases a hundred feet of the shore lay bare for a short time. Then it flowed back again.

Where did the water go? That was evidence of a possible disturbance in the bottom of the lake. Just suppose, for a moment, that the bottom of the lake opened, and the water poured down into the horrible abyss. The result would be inconceivable. If miles of the bottom of that lake were to suddenly open, and the water pour into that abyss, and be transformed into steam, it would have to find a vent.

It is a scientific fact that there is nothing burned with such terrific heat as the atmosphere and the water, under certain conditions.

One of the fiercest flames possible is produced by burning oil, water and air together. It will melt platinum in less time than it takes me to tell it. I have seen that done. If that can be done upon a small scale, what will happen when it occurs on a large scale? That Day will burn as a Furnace.

Oh, there will be some Terrible Days! I do not say it will be all over the earth, but over large portions of it.

The General Overseer then read the 4th chapter of Malachi.

The Significance of the Organization of Zion Restoration Host.

The significance of yesterday's meeting will never be fully understood by us who took part, on this side of the Vale.

They understand it better on the other side. But the significance of this is, that Zion Restoration Host, while it sustains the principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, consists of a great Host who have pushed out beyond the Church line, and who are under my immediate command.

I am the commander of that Host. It belongs to me. You said it in your Vow before God.

I am careful to maintain the command that I am the commander of this Zion Restoration Host.

The Difference Between the Church and Zion Restoration Host.

The Church, of necessity, must be everything. It must have a house for babies who are a few weeks old, babies who are sixty and seventy years old, and some babies who are twenty or thirty years old. I have a good mind to send all the big babies out some day, and erect a baby-house for them.

There are many babies in Christ, in the Church, who can only be fed with milk. Strong meat will not do for them.

The Church must be a hospital, as it were, taking care of the sick. It must be a House of Mercy for the destitute and the poor. It must have Houses of Hope for the Erring Women. It must have Schools and Colleges. It must have Ordnances and Solemn Assemblies. It must have a great many things. But Zion Restoration Host steps out in front of the Church. It carries nothing but a Sword, and is all clad in armor. Every one of the Restorationists is a fighter from the word go.

If they are not, they will have to go back to the baby-house. I do not expect to have in Zion Restoration Host all who are in the Church.

It would be impossible.

For instance, we cannot push out our dear little Juniors to do men's and women's work. It would be cruel, wicked and unkind. It would make them precious.

One of the worst things in the world is to send out precocious boys and girls to teach men and women.

The World Is About Tired of Boy and Girl Preachers.

The impudence of some of these precocious boys and girls has been an awful curse.

Numbers of foolish people have supposed that these children were specially inspired, when they spoke foolishly regarding men and women with the weight of age and experience, whom it often pleased the children to insult.

There was a boy preacher here, named Cook, who made a tremendous blunder in exegesis one night in a Methodist church.

A Methodist brother, very gently, very lovingly corrected the boy. The boy turned around upon him and said: "Shut up, brother. Sit down. You need to be converted!" A great many people applauded the sentiment.

Perhaps he did need to be converted in some things, but it was a woeful blunder that the poor boy was making.

That brother had some knowledge of the Word of God and of the original tongue, and was trying to rescue the boy.

We do not propose to send out precocious little prigs into the world.

I have no use for them.

I have always been grateful to God that I never wanted to talk.

You may think that strange, considering the amount of talking I can do.

Those who knew me in the old days would tell you it was a very hard thing to get a sentence out of me. It is a hard thing now, sometimes. Overseer Piper knows that.

(Laughter.) If you try to get me to talk when I do not want to, you are wasting your efforts.

If you think that I do as much talking in private as I do in public, you are very much mistaken.

I do a maximum of work and a minimum of talk.

When I was twenty years of age, my pastor found me, one day, in the midst of a ward of dying men.

I had my chair in the midst, and I was talking with them.

Often a great many dying men and women would be there, some of them who could just crawl about.

In this particular ward they were all in bed and all given up to die.

Their death was only a question of days or weeks.

As I spoke, they began to cry, and I began to cry.

We were all crying when I stepped my pastor, and he was crying, too.

He said to me, "Preach that sermon at my church."

I said, "No, I cannot preach it there."

"I can preach it here. I can sit here and talk to dying men and women who know that they are dying."

In your church there are a great many men and women who are living as if they would never die.

"No; I cannot talk there. What are you coming here for? You have no business here."

The Superintendent of this Hospital for Incurables told me that he would not let strangers in."

He asked me, "I begged my way in."

I said: "Then beg your way out."

Stinging Rebuke to Pastor of a Dead Church.

I did not want him. I was a little angry. Afterwards he said to me: "O Mr. Dowic, will you not preach in my church? What a power there was in that talk!"

I said: "There is no power in your church. It must be knocked to pieces."

"These people were ready to hear a voice of Love and Mercy."

"They knew they were sinners and were damned, and they were ready to listen to the Gospel of Salvation."

"Your people are self-righteous humbugs. They would not listen to that."

NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

ORGANIZATION ZION RESTORATION HOST.

"If they did listen, it would not have the same effect."
"No," I said, when he pressed me further, "ripe fruit is all right, but my fruit is green. If you pluck it you will have the colic." (Laughter.)

I would not speak publicly.
I delivered only one public address up to my twenty-second year.

I wrote; I thought; I talked with the individual.

It is a grand, good thing to know, as Moltke did, how to keep silent in seven languages, and then speak when you are ready.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion must be a very widespread organization, touching Life at every point.

Zion Restoration Host must be pushed out in front of the Church in Light Armor, to go ahead and do something.

While I have the oversight of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which is my principal duty, if I ever had to lay down one office and take another,

WILL RATHER LAY DOWN THE GENERAL OVERSEERSHIP OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION THAN THE LEADERSHIP OF ZION RESTORATION HOST.

But they cannot be separated.
You will see some developments in Zion Restoration Host that will surprise you.
I only dimly see them myself.
This is only the beginning.
I desire to talk tonight about the Conquest of the World for God
I do not say that all the world will be won for God before the Rapture.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion must be the world, the Church in Light Armor, to go ahead and do something.
I do say that the preparation for the Coming of the Lord and the Restoration of All Things begins now.
I believe it will continue during the Millennium.
Perhaps it will rather startle some of you if I say that I believe that My Ministry Will Continue During the Millennium.

Zion Restoration Host will be needed to subdue the world.
It will be a vast and mighty Host of glorified and sanctified men and women who have reigned with Christ.
The Coming of the Christ is not the end of all strife. It is the beginning of man's big fights.
You must read Zechariah and Paul's letter to the Thessalonians to see that.
The Lord Jesus the Christ's coming will be to a world that will have to be conquered after He comes.
It will not be ready for Him.
It is a world out of which the good will have been taken, and which will be in rebellion against Him.
The first thing to be done will be to destroy the Lawless One, who will be in power when Christ comes.
The fight will not be over even with the Millennium in its highest glory.
Even then, when the Reign of the Christ is extended over all the earth, the Devil will be loosed from the abyss for a season, and will go forth to deceive.
Then will come the times of Gog and Magog.
These times will see the hardest fight of all; but it will be the last fight.
Then comes the End, when He shall deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father, and God shall be All and in All.

The Millennium Not the End of the Fighting.

"Why, General Overseer," somebody says, "that takes my breath away. I thought the Millennium was the end of it all."
You are mistaken by a thousand years.
Some of you are so ready to get out of the fight, that you cannot think of fighting for a thousand years.
It will not be all fight; it is now; for we have a Sugar and Confection Association (laughter and applause), and a Zion Milling and Baking Industries.
We have happy homes and lovely children, and a spot of ground where the Devil cannot have a saloon. (Applause.)
You must not imagine that this fight is going to end as soon as you think.
But, thanks be to God! it is not all fight.
There are places of rest, refreshment, health and strength, and life becomes worth living.

The Good Fight of Faith becomes something which makes the heart warm and happy, when you know that every stroke that you give is helping to break down the Strongholds of Sin and Satan, and setting multitudes free.
I cannot ask any one to pray who has a better right to be heard in this meeting and to be heard by God than the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, Elder Lee.
I recognize Zion Seventies as only a temporary arrangement.
The old order gives place to new, but we will maintain the Seventy order while the change is going on, and the Organization is being effected.
We may continue to have the Host go forth in Seventies, and in tens, and in twos.
Elder Lee will lead us in prayer.
(Prayer was offered by Elder Lee, at the close of which the Congregation joined in chanting the Disciples' Prayer.)

The General Overseer continued:
I desire to hear what you think about Zion Restoration Host.
Even the little you know about it now can be used in the Conquest of this World for God and in bringing multitudes into the Kingdom of God.

OPENING OF CONFERENCE TO OFFICERS.
The Conference is open.

Members of Zion Restoration Host may rise and speak, if they have any special light from God.
May God bless you.
If you were all of my mind, we would ask Deaconess Sarah E. Hill, who is a host in herself, to speak first. (Applause.)

DEACONESS SARAH E. HILL, SUPERINTENDENT OF ZION FREE LITERATURE MISSION.

Deaconess Hill said:
"This is a very proud moment in my life.
I do not believe that that is a good word to use, but I do not know how to express it any better.
Six years ago, God gave me a wonderful Call to the work of sending Zion Literature over the world.
The Call was so marvelous, that it has been a Power with me ever since.
It has never weakened.
"With the Call, He gave me strength to do the work.
The whole world seemed to lie before me; not as you see it on the maps in your geographies, but the great, big, round globe, as Zion's Parish.
I saw that Zion was to conquer the World.
I saw it in the Bible, and it was impressed on my mind.
"How little I thought then, that this great Host would be raised up so soon to do this work!
I am so glad that I am a member of Zion Restoration Host.
"I cannot think of a higher position in the world, or of a greater, grander work to be done.
I think that if our eyes were opened, we could see the Host of Heaven, and realize that we were fighting with them.
"I found that this impression was common with the people, yesterday.
"Some said to me, 'I feel as if God's Host were above us, looking down and watching with interest this movement.'

REALITY OF THE UNSEEN.
"It seems so hard for us to realize the Unseen.
We are accustomed to believe only that which we can see with the outward eyes and handle with our hands.
We forget the Invisible World.
We would better remember it; because not only God's Visible Hosts are about us, but the Devil's Hosts, also.
As we can see this visible representation of God's Army, so we can see the visible representation of the Devil's hosts forming.
You see the Apostate Churches, on down to the lowest inhabitant of the slums, uniting on that side.
If there is anything that Zion Restoration Host ought to love it is God and Good; and if there is anything we ought to hate it is the Devil and Evil.
Once in Zion Tabernacle, I saw in the gallery, toward the front of the church, a light, a brightness.
I said: 'Why, what does this mean? I think we are going to have a Baptism of the Holy Spirit.'
Then suddenly my eyes were opened, and I saw, just for an instant, God's Host hovering over the place.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

"Was not that wonderful?"
"I was not mistaken: I saw it."
"I do not say that I saw it with my outward eyes; I suppose it was the eyes of my spirit."
"I believe they are here tonight in countless numbers."
"May God help us to work faithfully with these hosts."
"May we always keep our face against the Devil's hosts."
"The demons are all cowards. To recognize them is to conquer them."

"Whenever you have a thought of disloyalty concerning the leaders in Zion, or a spirit of criticism toward them, you may know that the Devil's hosts are near, and are talking to you."
"May God help every one of us to be faithful."
"There are many here whom I wish to thank for enabling me to send so much Zion Literature over the world." (Applause.)

General Overseer—If Deaconess Hill were absent, I would say many nice things about her.

I have had great joy in knowing that her faithful, unremiring labors, which at one time seemed to endanger her life, have been the means of planting the Seeds of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living in every Continent, and over almost all the civilizing lands of the Sea.

May God bless her forever! (Amen.)

Elder Cairns Reads a Letter from Japan.

Elder Cairns—"General Overseer."

General Overseer—Elder Cairns—"I received a letter today from our Brother Tokida in Yokohama."

He already seems to have the spirit of Zion Restoration Host.

"I desire to read a very little portion of his letter to you."

He says: 'Praise the Lord! He is going to do great things in Japan. We are all encouraged and strengthened in looking for the arrival of the Messengers from Zion to unfurl Zion's banner in our country. We are all ready to obey Zion's directions, and to be used for the glorious work. May God keep us ever faithful and useful for His Glory.'

"Then he goes on to say, after describing a short fight with some of the apostate missionaries: 'When Zion is established permanently in Japan, and sends forth her Little White Dove, the missions will be greatly troubled.'

"They published a beautiful report of the missionary effort which was put forth in Japan a couple of years ago, and the news of the great revival in Japan went all over the world. I hear nowadays that those who were brought into the church through this revival are hopeless for the most part, and many are falling back."

"I believe the failure is not chiefly in the new converts themselves, but in the churches, pastors and members. They proved that they could not do the evangelistic work there. The whole of Japan is waiting for Zion.'

"I have been making close inquiries."

He will rejoice more than I can tell you in the Organization of this Mighty Host that is going to share in the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus the Christ." (Amen.)

Overseer Piper—"I thank God first of all for the great inspiration of yesterday, especially in the service in the afternoon.

To be seated where we could see the entire audience, and the deep earnestness of the people, was an inspiration that will live through me and on again into the endless Cycles of Eternity.

One of the best things in this movement, taken as a whole, is that it is not necessary to work up enthusiasm—enthusiasm works us up.

"We have something to talk about."

"We do not have what I sometimes characterize as a jack-screw religion, which you have to work up like a jack-screw."

"We have a Salvation that saves, thank God! and that enables us to know that we are saved."

"In addition to that we have a Healing that heals, and a Holy Spirit who keeps."

"When we go to the world with a Message that not only reaches a man's spirit but also reaches his body, he is interested."

"This truth of Divine Healing puts life and vitality into spiritual Salvation."

"The world is waiting for something tangible, for a God who really means something, and who is interested in man's everyday needs."

"I thank God for Zion Restoration Host, and all that it means."

Elder Farr—"General Overseer. As I sat here yesterday afternoon and listened to the address of the General Overseer I was thrilled with its teaching."

"I felt that it was truly inspired of God."

"As I saw the response of the brethren in desiring to come up to the Standard that was set before them, I said: 'This is Practical Christianity. This is Christianity in action.'"

"The Lord Jesus, the Christ, put more stress upon doing than He did upon hearing."

"After that wonderful Sermon on the Mount He said:

'Every one therefore who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

May God bless her forever! (Amen.)

General Overseer—I have been deeply impressed by the Spirit of God to select Elder Farr for South Africa. (Applause.)

They are crying out so pitifully! I do not know that I can send anybody with him but his wife, the Evangelist."

I would not think of separating them.

They will have to travel from Capetown to Pietermaritzburg; from Pietermaritzburg to Pretoria and Johannesburg. It is a vast empire.

He will have to start in a very few months. (Hallelujah. Amen. Applause.)

I may start off a party of ditch diggers (laughter) somewhere, but you said you would go.

The reason why Elder Farr is sent is because God has used him in the Prayer of Faith.

I have been making close inquiries.

While we sorely miss him in the new charge where he is acquiring so much power and doing so much good, I always feel that the distant Continents ought to have our best."

Rev. John O. Speicher, M. D., Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in Zion City.

Overseer Speicher—"Beloved General Overseer, I believe I can say with Elder Farr that I am ready to go anywhere that I can feel that God has called me through you."
Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Monday Evening, September 28, 1892.

ORGANIZATION ZION RESTORATION HOST.

25

"I have come to Zion City to be only what God wants me to be."

Elder Cossum—"I am very strongly reminded of the work in which God permitted me to engage in the years 1890 and 1891. I worked as traveling secretary for the Superintendent of the Volunteer movement, whose watch-cry was 'The evangelization of the world in this generation.' They have been at it sixteen years. We had a good many fine-spun theories, and we could prove them with great enthusiasm. Two or three thousand were enrolled for the Foreign Field. Many of those who were enrolled, like myself, had already determined, in their hearts, to be foreign Missionaries if God would permit them to go to the Foreign Field.

At the very incipiency of Zion Restoration Host there are six thousand who are ready to be enrolled and who are really meaning it. They are ready to go where they are sent. For a long while nothing has thrilled me as this Commission that has been given to Elder Farr.

There has been a burden on my heart for Africa for a number of days, and when the General Overseer mentioned South Africa the other day I could almost hear the groans of that Nation calling for help.

I do thank God that one of the most faithful of Zion's men is going to that field. I do thank God that this work is full of reality. A minister was once pleading for the heathen in foreign lands who needed help, and from whom he could hear the Macedonian cry: 'Come over and help us!'

Now, who will go?' he said. His own daughter came and knelt down to consecrate herself for the Foreign Fields. 'O my daughter,' he cried, 'I did not mean you—somebody else's daughter.' (Laughter.)

It may be your daughter and your son. If we mean business we dare not, under God, put any barriers in their way.

I took seventy-five people, under the direction of the General Overseer and Recorder Lee, to Madison the other day, and we did up the city thoroughly. In addition to going from house to house and leaving enough Zion Literature for each individual in the city, we held an enthusiastic out-door meeting in the state-house park for an hour and a half, giving testimony there to which hundreds listened.

A lady who was there told me there was no dissent in the crowd, so far as she could hear, but that they said these things were true.

They did not hear a compromise speech, for we went after the stinkpots, gave testimonies of healing, and did our best to touch all the subjects involved.

A small company of those who have the spirit of Zion Restoration Host can clean up a city in a day with a Message from God.

I have seen that work practically in China and Japan. I have been in both Yokohama, Japan and Shanghai, China, with just a small company of consecrated people, going from house to house with Zion Literature.

The Chinese who could not speak English went to the merchants, in the great custom house offices.

There are a great many there. That busy, humming place is like a mystery to a foreigner.

We went from house to house with Leaves of Healing and in a very few days we had covered the entire foreign settlement in Shanghai, embracing six thousand people.

There was a man, Mr. Su, who went up to a city in North Fu Chow, northern part of China. He was told not to preach, but to simply give his testimony.

The whole town was stirred.

The missionaries and all the native churches sent delegates to this man.

He did as Elder Viking had said, only told them of his healing.

The crowd after crowd came there to hear him talk. Finally, the foreign missionary said, 'Where is your foreign missionary? Trot him out.'

'There is no foreign missionary,' he said.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Thursday, October 25, 1902-LEAVES OF HEALING.

"That man went up there alone, far away from Shanghai, and stirred that whole town, including the foreign missionaries.

"He could not make them believe that he did not have a foreign missionary hid away in a box somewhere, pulling the string. (Applause and laughter.)"

Zion Rich in Material.

What are we to do with all this vast mass of material? I think I am going to be the richest man in the world in material.

I heard only today from a distinguished gentleman in the Salvation Army who begs the privilege of seeing me at the earliest possible date. He is deeply impressed with Zion.

His son is a judge.

If he comes into Zion something is going to drop.

I am told of another person who attends our services in the Auditorium, who says he cannot sleep at night any more, or think of anything by day but the Truth he hears there.

He is a very distinguished man.

He is afraid he will have to come into Zion.

The Holy Spirit is at work.

Surely no man could do this work.

It would be impossible for this work to have been done by man alone in the few short years in which the Christian Catholic Church in Zion has been established, since 1896.

The apostate church and the frivolous world laughed, but they do not laugh now. They do something else.

We will give all the glory to God. It belongs to Him alone.

A Mission to Scandinavia.

I desire to make another announcement that will give pleasure to some.

I intend to send ten Messengers, for the summer months, to Scandinavia, to Norway, to Denmark and to Sweden.

I intend to send only members of Zion Restoration Host.

None of them will be above the rank of Deaconess or Deacon. I am thinking of a few more things, but I will not say anything about them.

I have received so many loving letters today, in connection with the Scandinavian Work. I want you to pray that God will give me the Grace to select the right ones.

I want translations made during the fall and winter, and much Zion Literature prepared for Scandinavia.

My heart has been very much impressed with the belief that a rich and glorious Harvest awaits us there.

There is a Danish Baron who is interested in Zion.

There is another person nearer the throne than that, who is interested; God bless her!

In other lands there are thousands who are deeply impressed; some of these are among the lowest, humblest classes of the community, almost on the dunghill.

The spider has come into the king's palace, also.

You may not know who the spider is.

Somebody once said that I looked for all the world like a big, black spider.

I thought that that was very unkind, until I remembered that it was written in the Scripture that the spider got into the king's palace.

So I comforted myself and I said, "O God, I am willing to be a spider if I can only take the Message into the king's palace."

The Devil's Attempt to Ridicule Rebounds upon His Own Head.

I have always enjoyed the Devil's attempts at fun, because I have always been able to get the most fun out of them.

Let us be a very happy people, whose happiness does not demand fleshly excitement, but rests upon the solid Foundation of the Word of God, and arises from the presence of God and His Angels.

I would be the most unhappy man on God's earth today if it were not for that.

I cannot find any pleasure in living apart from the Life of God within. I have to do some strange, hard things.

Elijah to Solve the Hard Problems.

The Jews have always had this Proverb: "When Elijah comes he will solve the hard questions."

It is also common among the Jews to say, when anything perplexes them: "Put it aside until Elijah comes."

It does seem to me as if everything had been put aside until now, and that I have every problem to deal with—ecclesiastical, educational, commercial and political.

One of the wonderful things about it is this, that my brain works without pain or fatigue, and that after twenty-six or twenty-seven hours of continuous use of my eyes, they are just as fresh as when I began.

That is remarkable. I give thanks to God tonight, for the wonderful strength that has come.

It does not come from sleep, because I have not been able to sleep much; nor from food, because I have often had to omit meals because I could not find time to eat them.

It has not come from anything of a physical character.

The nature of my work has been to impart, therefore to exhaust.

Strength "Changed" by Waiting upon God.

I was very weak in body when I was through with my work last night.

When I was offered supper I said, "No, I am too weary to eat."

I went into my office.

All had retired to rest, and I communed with God alone.

I went to my room anything that Mr. Keens's "Jewish Church," and became intensely interested. I soon felt so well that I was able to drink a glass of water and eat a few small crackers.

I felt so fresh as I studied Dean Stanley's "Jewish Church," three large volumes, that I was getting rapidly over them, when all at once I was in the dark.

They had turned off the electricity at the power-house. (Laughter.)

But for that I might not have gone to bed until morning. I was wondering whether anybody had given them a tip.

I say to you who are weary sometimes, there is a reality in the words:

They that wait upon Jehovah shall change their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

Do not say "renew." The Hebrew is correctly rendered in the Revision: "They that wait upon the Lord shall change their strength."

It will be changed from a human into a Divine strength.

It will be changed from a strength that wears out to a strength that grows, the more of which you give, the more you get.

I want you to know that in that lies the Secret Power.

How the Eagle's Youth Is Renewed.

You have read about renewing the youth like the eagle's, have you not?

It is done in this way: The old eagle, it is said, after it has lived a hundred years, cannot eat any more, because the beak has grown over its mouth.

Though it drinks a little it cannot get anything to eat.

The great, mighty eagle that has lived a hundred years begins to faint, and leaves its seat.

It screams in its agony; it is in a pitiable condition.

At last it goes to a rock and rubs its beak upon it.

The lower part falls off, and it goes away and makes a meal on the first thing it can get.

The eagle has renewed its youth and it lives on for another hundred years, perhaps.

I say! has your beak grown over? (Laughter.)

Just think it out, will you?

There are some people who grow theological beaks, which grow over their mouths, and they cannot eat anything.

May God rub off everything that keeps us from eating the meat of which Jesus spoke—"I have meat to eat that ye know not."

Pray for me.

I have to jump from prayer for the sick and dying, and from the care of the Churches all over the world, to a vast lumber question, that involves the cutting down of forests, and the turning of them into houses.

Pray for us. I am going Forward. Are you?

Audience—"Yes.

Pledge of All Things for God's Work from Thousands.

General Overseer—Are you going to back me?

Audience—"Yes."
ORGANIZATION ZION RESTORATION HOST.

General Overseer—With all your powers?
Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—With Spirit, Soul and Body?
Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Time?
Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Money?
Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Everything?
Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—I may call for everything. I cannot tell.

But in times of great National Peril every single dollar that every citizen of the United States possesses is at the command of the Government. The Government has a right to everything.

Suppose that the Government of Zion seizes up all you have what will you say—take it?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I have to take the same medicine myself.

I do not think that God will require us to do it. If God required us to give up every house and every stick in Zion City, I feel that I could march out tomorrow and camp (applause) on the battlefield. I do not think God is asking for this.

But we must be willing.

If we are a people of that kind, there are not Devils enough on earth or in hell to overturn Zion.

These are cool words, but their meaning is tremendous.

Zion City Is in Its Very Infancy.

You must pool your issues with us.

We must concentrate the entire spiritual, physical, psychical and financial strength of Zion here in Zion City.

We can do it. We have been doing it, and it is a world's wonder, but it is nothing compared to what we shall see.

The churches and the various Christian organizations have hitherto been beggars, a kind of religious mendicancy, going cap in hand to the world, and sometimes to the Flesh and the Devil, for money to carry on God's work.

Will you tell me where I have ever appealed to the World or those who serve the Devil?

One Condition of the Restoration.

I appeal to God's people who are with me.

I say to them: "Do what I have done, put everything into God's care, and we will get back a Restoration of primitive Christianity."

That Restoration is not the kind of thing you are looking for; I am looking toward it.

While I want everybody to retain the proper control of the properties, with the proper earnings that they put into Zion, yet I demand that everything shall go into Zion. Am I right?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Pray for me.

That is the only solution of the question.

Otherwise we will have to borrow from the world. Shall we?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—Then let us do our part.

This is a part of winning the world to God.

Nature of Zion's Future Work in China.

I am looking forward to seeing, on the banks of the Yang-te-Kiang, a beautiful settlement, under the protection, not of the Dragon Flag, but of the British Flag, and the Cross.

The British are determined to seize for God, although they scarcely know that they are doing it, that great Yang-te-Kiang river, from its source to its outlet.

I can see there a beautiful colony of lovely little Chinese boys and girls, whom we have trained, who speak pure Chinese and lovely English.

I can see them working as even children can work; feeding mulberry leaves to silk-worms, and unwinding the precious silk from the cocoons, by machinery, so quick and so clever, that they are unwound in a moment or two.

I can see that wealthy silk sent to this land and woven up into beautiful fabrics of Zion.

In many ways Zion can carry out what I showed my friend, Mr. Wu, that Zion wanted to do.

He said, "Go and do it."
would do, the vast progress of the past and its victories are but small compared with what they will be.

Zion City May Increase to Five Times Its Present Size in One Year.

I think that, in twelve months, you will see this city five times as large as it is now.

I have been over a part of Zion City twice today.

I gave certain directions concerning Educational buildings and to the commissioner of the streets.

I have never, at any time in the history of Zion City, felt more thankful to God than I did today, when I stood beside Zion Educational buildings.

I said as I looked at them: “O God, next to Shiloh Tabernacle, I praise Thee that I am able to erect this beautiful building for Zion’s lovely children.”

Then I thought, “Lord, let me start the Temple soon.”

We can start any building, and we can finish it, too, if we have God with us.

After the Doxology had been sung the service was closed with the following

PRAYER AND BENEDICTION.

My Father, hear me for the people. My God, Elijah’s God in every age, I come to Thee. Oh, help me to learn from those who preceded me in the flesh how to do this work better in the End of these Days at the Consummation of the Age. Bless this glorious company who are with me in the Restoration. Take care of every interest of Zion, the Church, the School, the Business, and the Politics. O God, we thank Thee that tomorrow we are going to add two more miles to Zion City. We will soon add the other four by Thy Grace. Give us Spiritual Blessing that will make the Temporal Prosperity effective. Bless the brother whom we intend to send, with his dear wife, to South Africa. Bless the twenty Messengers and the eight Zion City may increase to five times its present size in one year.

The Offices of the General Recorder and Financial Secretary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been removed from 1210 Michigan avenue, Chicago, to Temple Cottage, Zion City, Lake County, Illinois. As per instructions of the General Overseer in Leaves of Healing of April 5, 1902, pages 1017 and 1018, all remittances for tithes and offerings, and all reports and correspondence relating thereto, should be addressed to General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Zion City, Illinois. Checks, drafts, express orders and postal money-orders should still be made out in the name of Rev. John Alex. Dowie. Drafts should be drawn upon Chicago, New York, Philadelphia or Boston. Drafts drawn upon other points, and personal checks drawn upon banks outside of Chicago and Zion City, should contain ten cents for exchange. Postoffice money-orders should be drawn upon Zion City, which is now a money-order office. Never send silver through the mails, and never send bills if it is possible to get an order; if not, it is much safer to register the letter containing the bills.
SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION’S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

A reference encyclopedia of Bible truth can be had by those who will make the proper use of Zion’s Bible Class Lessons which are prepared by LEAF:ER. They open up marvelous resources of preparation for Zion’s Students together with those conducting Church Work or Zion Gatherings. These studies have been based since Number 27, and now number about 300 lessons. They extend over a wide range of Bible teaching, in the subjects of practical life. Disciplines are presented, covering the full scope of Bible truth, concerning God, man, sin, redemption, the Christian, a holy people, the Church, Christian Work, the World, the age before and final estate. These lessons can be clipped out of the paper and posted in a book and indexed under the third subject, topic, and question where necessary. It is thus readily reference and can be added to regularly. The subjects, with the varied methods of treatment, can be then applied in comprehensive teaching, with characters of the Bible, together with practical questions or remarks thereon, may be added to by explanations and observations and illustrations which will enable every one who devotes thought to diligent study to rightly divide the word of truth, and thus in an increasing measure become thoroughly furnished unto every good work.

Here is a study to reach Zion’s Bible class who should prove to be a difficulty in any one. It is the intention to cover simply the vital truths and important doctrines of the Bible, presenting a phase of some subject in each lesson from a given point, with selections of Scripture which have a plain and positive meaning, viewed from a broad light of research. No commentaries are used for this, in most cases, we are nothing but the traditions of the elders, which make void the Word of God. They like many of the truthless acts of the Bible, give a dark meaning to God’s truth. They set forth lack of study and show the low standard of spiritual conception at the day or time in which the work was done.

The safe rule for all is to read the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit, comparing Scripture with Scripture, that we may know the truth, and that the truth may make us free. (John 8:32).

For instance, take Zion Bible Class Lessons in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VII, No. 1: “Some keep out of God’s will.” To illustrate the plan of going on study, consider this lesson on Scripture texts on given subject, with the true meaning of the words involved, determine the points from which the subject must be approached.

Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilyry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason. Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

ZION'S INVESTMENTS

GENESEE, ILL., MAY 30, 1902.
Mr. Chas. J. Barnard,
General Financial Manager of Zion's Institutions,
Zion City, Illinois.

Dear Brother in Christ,—I am free to say that I am well pleased with Zion's Investments as being both safe and profitable. Interest and dividends have been promptly paid; in fact everything of a business relation has received prompt attention. Hoping to add to my former investments in the near future, I remain.

Faithfully yoursin Christ's service,

Mr. Chas. J. Barnard,
General Financial Manager of Zion's Institutions,

Dear Brother in Christ,—I think it well to state to you my confidence in Zion's Financial Enterprises. After more than three years' experience with investments in Zion, I do not hesitate to commend them as safe and profitable. Fears of Zion's dealing and the promptness of service are rather more experience. Before investing in Zion I found it necessary to do as I did when investing elsewhere—learn the business of the Management of its different departments; through Attorneys, Bankers, and one of the best Commercial Agents, and then personally, and I have no regrets for placing my money with Zion, and shall take pleasure in further investments.

Very truly in the interest of Christ's service,

J. H. SIMPSON.

After more than three years' experience with investments in Zion, I do not hesitate to commend them as safe and profitable. Fears of Zion's dealing and the promptness of service are rather more experience. Before investing in Zion I found it necessary to do as I did when investing elsewhere—learn the business of the Management of its different departments; through Attorneys, Bankers, and one of the best Commercial Agents, and then personally, and I have no regrets for placing my money with Zion, and shall take pleasure in further investments.

Very truly in the interest of Christ's service,

J. H. SIMPSON.
GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED BY THE POWER OF GOD, OF CONSUMPTION AND OTHER DISEASES.

In my Name they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

"In the Name of the Lord Jesus."
In that Name prayer was made for this Witness. It was in the Name of Him, of whom it was written by inspiration of God, "Surely He hath borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows."

It was in the Name of Him of whom God's prophet said: "Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

It was in the Name of Him who "went about healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people."

It was Prayer in the Name of Him who said to the leper, "I will; be thou made clean."

It was Prayer in the Name of Him who healed the multitudes nineteen centuries ago in Palestine because He "had compassion on them."

That Prayer was in the Name of Him who said: "These signs shall follow them that believe. In My Name... they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover."

It was Prayer in the Name of that Divine Son of God, who said: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, He will give it you in My Name."

That Prayer was in the Name of Him who said: "Lo, I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." That Prayer was in His Name, of whom God has said: "Jesus the Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever."

That Prayer, the burden of the spirit of God's Messenger, arose without audible words, in the silence of his office.

It was in response to request by letter, one of the many thousands which are constantly pouring in from all parts of this and other lands.

It ascended to God, Father, who had made Covenant with His people, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

That Prayer came up to God as He had commanded.

His conditions had been fulfilled.

God fulfilled His Covenant and all His precious promises and answered the Prayer.

His Holy Spirit's Power was manifested in the body of that suffering girl.

Other prayers had been offered for her, and she had grown better.

But now she speedily grew well.

She had gone down near to the grave.

Her lungs were being dug out... by that dread "Great White Scourge," Consumption.

Other diseases had come upon her as a result of the consumption. In no human means was there any hope. She rested only in God. Only He who created her lungs could heal them of their terrible disease.

Now she who was weak, weary, dying, is healthy, happy, full of the joy of Jehovah which is strength, working for Him in the beautiful City of Zion. His Name is indeed Wonderful.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MISS IDA M. FIDDES.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 22, 1902.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer—In this city, and that I have learned to take God as my Healer, I know I would not be living today.

Last December I decided to go home to Chesley, Ontario, Canada, to spend Christmas with my parents. While on the way, I contracted a severe cold.

After reaching home, I suffered a great deal with pain in my side. I coughed so much. I could neither sleep nor do anything. I very foolishly kept on working, although I was very weak.

I went back to my position in Chicago, and again took cold and the pain came back. I did not have enough strength left to do more than drag myself around.

One day Deacon Crane came in and prayed for me. He also told me I should stop work, and go out to Zion City and take a rest. We did not get a complete victory until he took him up and prayed for him again, and he vomited three or four times after I prayed for him, and threw up pieces of the paper. That is the way I found that he had eaten it.

Deaconess Elma Jacques of Marinette, Wisconsin, writing under date of September 23d, says:

We have today proved the truth of God's promise, "And if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them." Today my little baby ate a piece of poison fly-paper about two inches square. It would be a nest.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, whom we saw of the companions of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As Jehovah, the God of Israel, liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to My Word. — 1 Kings 17:1.

COMMANDING, courageous, authoritative, an intense hater of Baal worship, Elijah the Destroyer stood before the wicked King Ahab and fearlessly announced God's judgments upon him and the nation for their worship of Baal.

Elijah's God is to him a living reality, and he is conscious of standing before Him and speaking for Him to the people. Elijah has fittingly been called the Prophet of all time.

The Scriptures give the early history of the other prophets recorded there. But Elijah is suddenly introduced to us in this striking scene with the King, merely as the Tishbite, one of the sojourners of Gilead, "the Hill of Witness."

He stands before the King as a witness to God's Covenant with Israel, to testify that God would keep His Covenant by withdrawing His blessing from them, as He had promised.

In this Covenant God tells them that if they will diligently harken to His commands, to love Jehovah their God, and to serve Him with all their heart and with all their soul, that He will give the rain in its season, that they may gather their crops, and he drank of the water of the brook.

But when he had cast all fear out of her heart, she was ready to believe God's promise when the Prophet told her: "Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, the barrel of meal shall not waste, and the cruse of oil shall not fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth rain upon the earth."

She obeyed the command of the Prophet, and "she and he and her house did eat many days. The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth rain upon the earth."

The widow, with her son, was so poor that she only had a handful of meal in her barrel and a little oil in her cruse. Elijah found her, on his arrival, at the gate of the city, gathering a few sticks with which to bake a little cake for herself and son, that they might eat it and die.

When she had told the man of God her sad story, what must have been her surprise to hear him command her to give it all to him for the supply of his needs.

But when he had cast all fear out of her heart, she was ready to believe God's promise when the Prophet told her: "Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, the barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth rain upon the earth."

Elijah has fittingly been called the Prophet of all time. In this instance they were even able to sustain another.

When the brook dried up and the famine was sore upon the land, God told His prophet to go to Zarephath, that He had commanded a widow there to sustain him.

The widow, with her son, was so poor that she only had a handful of meal in her barrel and a little oil in her cruse. Elijah found her, on his arrival, at the gate of the city, gathering a few sticks with which to bake a little cake for herself and son, that they might eat it and die.

When she had told the man of God her sad story, what must have been her surprise to hear him command her to give it all to him for the supply of his needs.

But when he had cast all fear out of her heart, she was ready to believe God's promise when the Prophet told her: "Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, the barrel of meal shall not waste, and the cruse of oil shall not fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth rain upon the earth."

She obeyed the command of the Prophet, and "she and he and her house did eat many days. The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the Word of Jehovah, which He spake by Elijah." (1 Kings 17:12-17.)

Great blessing came to the house of the widow in another way also; for when her son "fell sick" and died, because of her sin, as she said, God's Prophet prayed for him, and he was restored to life, so that she was able to say to the Prophet, "I know that thou art a man of God, and that the Word of Jehovah in thy mouth is truth."

Again, as in those days, the Voice of God's Prophet is giving His Message to the Nations.

It goes forth on the printed page of Zion Literature, calling God's people to come out of the apostate churches where the Baal Worship of Secretism rules.

He is calling them to accept God's Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

According to God's Word, the rejection of this Message will bring a drouth upon the churches; no showers of spiritual blessings, nor even a drop of dew of God's Holy Spirit will fall upon them.

A famine of the Word of God has already begun here.

Who will help us send Zion's Message to the Nations?

Many Healings and Blessings Through "Leaves of Healing."

Dear General Overseer — We send you greeting in Jesus' Name.

Although we are away out here in Northwest Territory, yet our hearts are in Zion, and we trust we have a place in your prayers.

We are giving our LEAVES OF HEALING here to our friends, and they say they never heard this Gospel before.

Some are seeking light, while others are mocking.

The church-going people here are very formal as a rule.

We cannot tell you half the blessings we have received through your teaching and LEAVES OF HEALING.

God has blessed us so many times in answer to your prayers, and given us health and delivered us out of the hand of the oppressor.

Our little ones have been healed many times. Our baby boy was attacked by a vicious cow, and in her fury she rolled him over and over, and tossed him up like a ball. All who saw it thought he would never breathe again.

When they brought him home to me he was breathless. I called on God to heal him. One of his thumbs was broken. All his wounds healed except something in his throat, which seemed to be decaying. We wrote to your prayer, and it quickly healed.

We praise God, and thank you for your prayers. May you and your dear wife live long to proclaim the Everlasting Gospel.

Faithfully yours in Him,

(Mrs.) Lillian E. Davis.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE LITTLE ONE SHALL BECOME A THOUSAND,
AND THE SMALL ONE A STRONG NATION;
I, JENOWAH, WILL HASTEN IT IN ITS TIME.

We have but a few minutes in which to write the Notes for this issue, and while there are many important matters that we would like to make known to our readers, the time is too short to do so with sufficient care and fulness.

THE WEEK has been a most delightful one in Zion City and in our work in Chicago.

THE STRENGTH of Zion is rapidly and yet steadily and solidly increasing.

COMING INTO TOUCH as we do with the people every week, we are able to see and hear and know that the "Little One," which has long ago "become a Thousand," is steadily assuming, although in its infancy, the condition of a Strong Nation.

LAST LORD'S DAY in Zion City and in Chicago we addressed three assemblies numbering 10,500 in the aggregate; and our Elders and Evangelists in both places spoke to audiences of at least 7,000.

THEN ZION RESTORATION HOST in Chicago, to the number of more than 1,500 splendid workers, probably reached the homes of nearly 250,000 in carefully-worked and previously-planned districts, with both the printed and spoken Message of the Christ, "Peace Be to This House."

AND THEN in every State of this Union, and in nearly all the large Cities, Gatherings and Branches held Assemblies in which the Gospel was preached.

On every Continent the Banner of Zion was uplifted and the Gospel of the Kingdom of God proclaimed by officers and members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.
And all this by an Organization not seven years old.
And then the Little White Dove, Leaves of Healing, reaching hundreds of thousands of homes, in both its English and German forms; A Voice from Zion, and the tracts published in many languages—Zion’s Messages from God to all the world—went forth, calling the people of God into His Kingdom and into a National existence within all the Nations, until they shall come to realize the Unity of Zion and the Supremacy of the Law of God in every Department of Daily Life.

God’s Kingdom must rule over all.

We have spoken every day during the week up to Friday evening, Lecturing to Zion College on Prayer, speaking to hundreds who were seeking Healing through Faith in Jesus, and praying for them, and addressing the Great Weekly Rally of thousands in Shiloh Tabernacle on Wednesday evening.

We also presided over a great meeting of the Theocratic Party on Thursday evening, at which nearly 4,000 men and women were present.

A full report of that meeting will appear in The Zion Banner of next Tuesday, November 4th.

We have thus had the joy of helping, and meeting face to face, many thousands of the people in all the varied aspects of their life, besides preparing our sermons for publication, and attending to Zion’s interests in scores of ways.

Every one in the City of Zion is busy.

God continues to care for us from day to day, enabling us to keep our Onward Way.

Trials and temptations and difficulties are ever around us on every side, but the Spirit of God is in Zion, and it is the Spirit of Faith, and Hope, and Love, and Dauntless Courage.

On every side we hear of Blessing in Salvation, Healing and Holy Living; and nowhere do we hear a note of Despair, except from the ranks of our enemies.

We send the Message once more to friends far and near:

The Morning cometh and also the Night: If ye will inquire, inquire ye: Turn ye, come!

A cablegram from Europe, received on Friday, October 31st, asks the following question:

“Are Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Clibborn still connected with Zion? (A reply of ten words is prepaid.)”

To this we replied:

No. I asked them to withdraw.

We hope that this is all we shall be called upon to say regarding this matter.

But there is another matter in connection with the Booth family which demands our immediate attention.

We have been exceedingly unwilling to write anything concerning General William Booth and the Salvation Army, and its many calumnies concerning ourselves, whilst his eldest Daughter and Son-in-law were our guests in Zion City.

But now that, without any bitterness or quarrel of any kind, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Booth-Clibborn have returned to Europe, and no member of the Booth family is connected with Zion, we feel free to demand from General William Booth and his Headquarters’ Office a Retraction of a Shameful Lie which they have published concerning us.

Our attention was called to the matter by the following correspondence, which we give verbatim:

---

REV. H. E. CANTEL,
Evangelist in Charge.
81 Euston Road, London, N. W.,
October 8, 1902.

DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Shiloh House,
Zion City, Lake County, Illinois, U. S. A.

Dear Deacon:—Peace to thee!

I enclose herewith a copy of a letter that I addressed to Mr. Bramwell Booth in connection with a statement (which I also enclose) which appeared in one of the daily papers.

Together with these enclosures I am handing you a copy of the reply received from Mr. Bramwell Booth.

I thought it best to turn these over to you, in order that the General Overseer might take such action as he deems best.

With Christian greetings, believe me,
Faithfully yours in Zion’s bonds,

REV. H. E. CANTEL.

"17th September, 1902.

"Mr. Bramwell Booth,

"The Salvation Army, 101 Queen Victoria Street, E.C.

"Dear Brother in Christ,—The enclosed cutting was taken from the Morning Leader of the 13th inst., and inasmuch as it is published as an official statement given by the Salvation Army, I must needs call your attention to the wrong impression caused by the words, ‘Mr. Dowie, who was with us in Australia more than twenty years ago.’

"These, with their context, convey the impression that Dr. Dowie had in the past some official relationship to the Salvation Army, which, as you must know, is not true; for, although during his ministry in Australia Dr.
Dowie frequently had occasion to help the officers of the Army in the various cities in which he ministered, this help was always given in a ministerial and not an official capacity.

"I very much regret that this statement should have appeared, especially in the connection in which it is given, where there is an apparent desire (without any justification) to belittle Dr. Dowie by connecting his name with that of Mr. Pigott.

"Certainly this was uncalled for.

"Inasmuch as this misinformation has been given such publicity as your official statement, I must ask, in the interests of truth, that you withdraw it as publicly as it was made; not because Dr. Dowie has anything to hide in his past friendly but unofficial relationship to the Army, but because this statement makes that relationship the basis of a wrong statement.

"Your early attention will greatly oblige,

"Yours faithfully,

H. E. Cantel"

(London Morning Leader, September 12, 1902)

"PIGOTT AND THE S. A.

"On inquiry at the headquarters of the Salvation Army concerning the narrative of Mr. Pigott's life in the Army, the following official statement was given to a representative for publication:

"Our attitude towards Mr. Pigott is that his pretensions are the consequence of a disordered brain. He was one of us for less than two years (not ten) fifteen years ago. We are very thankful now that he left; just as thankful as we are that Mr. Dowie, who was with us in Australia more than twenty years ago, severed his relationship with us.

"Mr. Pigott's extreme views and actions led to the necessity of his services in the Salvation Army terminating.

"We can only pray that such people may see the errors they fall in and repent and seek forgiveness."

THE SALVATION ARMY.

INTERNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS.

101 Queen Victoria Street,

London, E. C.

19th September, 1902.

"REV. H. E. CANTEL, 81 Euston Road, N. W.

"Sir:—Your letter of the 17th instant, addressed to Mr. Bramwell Booth, has been handed to me for reply.

"I am afraid I cannot assist you in the matter, as you are evidently not informed that Mr. Dowie was at one time, previous to the date you mention, connected with the Salvation Army, and the circumstances under which he left us are well known both to persons now in Australia and in this country.

"I am, sir, yours faithfully,

"GEO. A. POLLARD, Commissioner,

"Acting Foreign Secretary."

WE WISH to say in the plainest words with which we can convey our meaning.

First—that Evangelist Cantel was absolutely correct in stating that we never, at any time, had any official relation whatever with the Salvation Army.

Second—that the "official statement" of the Salvation Army, published in the London Morning Leader of September 13th, connecting our name with Mr. Pigott's, was a gratuitous insult entirely uncalled for.

Third—that the statement that we were connected with the Army in Australia more than twenty years ago, and severed our relationship with it, is an absolute falsehood.

Fourth—that the reiteration of that falsehood by Mr. Bramwell Booth, through Commissioner George A. Pollard, is a repetition of a Shameful Lie, and we defy Mr. Pollard or the Army to show when and where we were connected with the Salvation Army, and to make known "the circumstances" under which we "left."

Fifth—that it is utterly false to say "these circumstances are well known both to persons now in Australia and in this country," since we never had any such "connection."

THE WHOLE thing is a Deliberate and Shameful Fabrication.

Our time does not permit us in this issue to write at any length concerning the many ways in which we have helped the Salvation Army, both in Australia and in America, without ever being for a moment officially connected with it.

It is a poor return for many acts of kindness, involving time and strength and money, that we should have this Disgraceful Libel fastened upon us by its leaders.

WE SHALL take care that a copy of this issue, containing these Notes, is forwarded to General William Booth, so that he may have an opportunity of withdrawing this Libel in Chicago, where he is announced to speak for several days during this month.

WE DO NOT wish to embitter the last days of General Booth by any unnecessary attacks; but all our readers and all the world will see that we are not attacking him, but are simply defending ourselves against the attack of his son, Bramwell Booth, who is the Chief of the Staff of the Salvation Army.

THERE ARE OTHER shameful Libels by Bramwell Booth, Commissioner Railton and others, that we will not at present mention in detail.

But if there is to be a conflict, we shall most certainly deal with and show the unscrupulous, ungodly, dishonorable and tyrannical methods of the Headquarters' Officers of the Salvation Army.

We may also be compelled to speak of General Booth's attacks upon us, entirely without cause, in connection with faithful members of his family and officers in his Army.

We may also deal with his feeble and false teaching in a recent pamphlet on Divine Healing, wherein he displays great ignorance.

It has long been seen by careful observers that the Salvation Army has ceased to be a great spiritual power, and that it has become a shadow of its former self. It is now a Grim Skeleton Army, which has left its dead all along its track for years—not slain in the conflict with the enemy, but left behind to die, after suffering the crudest tortures and severest privations that petty tyrants could inflict upon their helpless victims.

We say again that it is with very great reluctance we have published the above correspondence and made the above demand, but we have no alternative under the circumstances.

Meanwhile Zion Goes Forward, and it is all in vain that the Feeble Battalions of the Apostate Churches or of the Skeleton Army attack us. Zion will drive them from the field, and Go Forward.

Jehovah hath established Zion, and it shall stand despite every attack of a hostile world or an envious church.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

SECOND EDITION.

Since the first edition of this paper went to press, the following cablegram concerning Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Clibborn was received:

DOWIE,
Zion City, Illinois:
Is cause money?
Are you indebted to them?
Is it true they supported your work from their pockets?
Who paid expenses, London?

Important.

Brooke Stewart,
Westcliffes.

The following reply was sent:

Brooke Stewart,
Westcliffes:
Money not cause.
Owe them nothing.
Gave them money and free entertainment.

DOWIE.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

By the Rev. John Alex. Dowie.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed:" and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 6:5-13; Matthew 15:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
CONTRAST BETWEEN PAUL THE APOSTLE AND POPE LEO XIII.
STANDING at the summit of the Ages, with the dawn of the Times of the Restoration of All Things sending forth its first pure rays, the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, pictured, with most wondrous word-painting, the beautiful, strong character of St. Paul, the establisher of the church at Rome. Then, against that picture of purity and light, he placed, in a few mighty words, a word-painting of the present head of the Roman Church, Pope Leo XIII., showing that "Man of Sin Revealed," in all his hideousness.

The subject announced was "Unveiling the Apostasies: the Rome of Paul and the Martyrs, and the Rome of Leo XIII." God had given Zion, Lord's Day, October 26th, another most beautiful autumn day, marvelous in its warm sunshine, cloudless skies and gentle breezes, when one considers that it was almost the end of October.

Fifteen hundred Zion Restorationists from Zion City, and several hundred more from Chicago, who, all the morning had been going about from house to house, carrying to hundreds of thousands the Glad Tidings of the Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God, were among the first to enter the great Auditorium when the doors were opened at 2:30 o'clock. Thousands of other members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion from Zion City and Chicago were also early at the Auditorium, the men filling the upper galleries.

Then came the strangers in thousands. They filled the boxes and all the available seating-room remaining in the ground floor and balcony.

They were from all parts of the city of Chicago, guests of friends in the city, and hotel guests from other parts of the United States, and of the world. They were well-dressed, intelligent, orderly men and women, many of them very evidently coming with genuine interest in the great work, and in the man by whose name it is identified in the world.

Hence it was with a spirit of reverence and worship that the great audience of about six thousand people beheld the Solemn Processional of Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers.

They were well-dressed, intelligent, orderly men and women, many of them very evidently coming with genuine interest in the great work, and in the man by whose name it is identified in the world.

Hence it was with a spirit of reverence and worship that the great audience of about six thousand people beheld the Solemn Processional of Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers.

In his prelude, the man of God alluded briefly to the complete victory of Zion over her enemies of the press, and to the fact that in their bitter campaign of lies, they had, for the time at least, been whipped into silence.

He then told of a new attempt at blackmailing, and fearlessly defied his enemies, declaring that he never had submitted to blackmail, and that, since his life had no chapter which he was not perfectly willing to have published, he never would.

In the course of his remarks he directed a few earnest, telling words against the Mystery of Lawlessness, Freemasonry.

Although the words were few, they made a mighty impression upon those who heard; for they came from the spirit of him who has been Divinely commissioned to deliver the final blows in the great conflict against that lawless, antichristian organization.

Then came the Message, unveiling the terrible apostasy of the Roman church.

But, first of all, there was a tribute to that glorious character, the mighty Apostle Paul, which the thousands present can never forget.

It was with a deep and peculiar sympathy that the man of God entered into the consideration of the story of that spiritual giant of the early Christian Church.

In the light of that splendid character, Pope Leo XIII., "The Man of Sin Revealed," sitting in the Temple of God at Rome, was shown indeed dark and vile, with his ridiculous and blasphemous claim of infallibility.

The service closed, as does every service of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, with a call to Repentance, Confession, Restitution, Faith and Obedience.

The thousands of that great audience responded almost as one man, rising to their feet and repeating, after God's Messenger, the simple but significant words of the Prayer of Consecration.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, November 1, 1902.

It is the golden casket
Where gems of truth are stored,
It is the heav'n-drawn picture
Of Christ, the Living Word.

It floats like a banner
Before God's host unfurled:
It shineth like a beacon
Above the darkling world:
It is the chart and compass
That o'er life's surging sea,
Mid mists and rocks and quicksands,
Still guides, O Christ, to Thee.

Oh, make Thy Church, dear Saviour
A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true Light as of old;
Oh, teach Thy wand'ring pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
Thy saving Health among all the Nations;
Thy true Light as of old;
Oh, teach Thy wand'ring pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 231:

Come, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help up to praise:
Father! all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

RECITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From hence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body;
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the Response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy ox, nor thy ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house; thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another: even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DRUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabauch;
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory,
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee,
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter,
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin,
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers,
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
Therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God, in the Epistle of Paul to the Romans, the first twenty-five verses of the 1st chapter, and in the Epistle to the Thesaloniens, the first twelve verses of the 2d chapter.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer.

The announcements were then made, in the course of which the General Overseer made the following remarks:

Invitation to Visit Zion City.

I think it might help to remove any lingering impression adverse to our little City if you were to visit it.
You will be very welcome. It is the City of Chicago, or, at any rate, you cannot use them in Zion City.
I warn you about that because our little City is the City of Chicago, or, at any rate, you cannot use them in Zion City.
We put out your pipe or cigar.
If you would not do it, we would have to take you where we put bad boys.

There is one city, at any rate, where there is an Ordinance which says, "Thou shalt not stink the people out."
You know my word for you people who smoke and chew.
It is not a very elegant one, but it is a very emphatic one. I call you Stinkpots.

There is not a good woman or a clean man in this place who is not of my opinion.

The Foul Sin of Using Tobacco.

The use of tobacco is a disgusting and a shameful habit. You smoke nicotine, and you sow the seeds of amaurosis, and paralysis, and dyspepsia, ulcerations of the stomach and bowels, and cancer.

No man has a right to do that. Others have some rights, too.

A man who goes about stinking and spitting out his filth all over the place has to remember that the sun shines upon that, and the wind raises it up, and that others must breathe that disease-breeding, catarrhal, stinking nastiness, you dogs!

Dirty dogs!

That is just how I feel about you. (Laughter.)

What right have you to do it?

We have an Ordinance against you in Zion City. You cannot stink there with impunity. (Laughter.)

I am so glad that I can tell you that. I am thankful that our little City is being established. We have gathered more than 7,000 people there in fourteen months.

But ninety-five per cent. of them are living in their own houses, and they are nice houses, too.

They are hard-working people, but courteous and clean.

There is not a saloon in the place, nor a gambling hell, nor a harlot, nor a whoresommer.

If we find a man of that kind, we jump him down in the middle of the road and give him his option of going to Beer (that is Milwaukee,) or Babel (that is Chicago.) (Laughter.)

He cannot stay in the City of Zion and be a drummer for the Devil, or a serpent in the grass.

We ask God to help us to take care of our people, and they also take care of themselves.

They are workers.

We built our own little City.

We are still building.

More than one house is started every day, and scores, perhaps hundreds, of new houses are now going up.

Defiance to a Would-be Blackmailer.

I would not care if every letter I have ever written in the world were published.

What that man thinks would damage me is simply a bit of plain, straight English that I thought ought to be written.

If the shameless man who put it into his hands, and whose shame it is, wants to publish it, as it seems to me he does, or tries to blackmail me, that proves his real character, and that I was right in writing the letter.

I have to say is, let it be published, because it is true.

Although it will grieve me because of some who are living, and, most of all, because of one very dear to me who died more than nine years ago, I tell Mr. Gideon, and all these scoundrels, whether they are in Boston or in Chicago, that they cannot get at me either by public assault or by private blackmail.

My family is now a very small one—just three in this country—my wife and son and myself; and we stand together, fearless of what all the world, the flesh or the Devil can say, do, think, write, print, or threaten. We have done, and are doing, our work for God and for humanity, and, by His grace we shall continue to do it without fear, or yielding to blackmailing press criminals.

It has been tried in vain several times.

The open attacks of the press have ceased, and now come up their secret blackmailers.

If I have done anything wrong in my life, it would be better, far better, that it should come out now, upon this earth, than that it should be concealed and stand against me at the Judgment Seat of God.

I am not afraid of anything that may come up.

If I have done wrong, I will admit it.

In this matter, however, I have done no wrong.

I defy the Chicago editor to print it.

It does not affect me at all, nor any of my family now living, nor my lovely and pure daughter recently departed. It is, however, a dastardly and villainous plot which will come back with crushing effect upon the miserable creature who gave up these letters, and “the birds of a feather” to whom they were shown with the insane idea that their publication would injure me.

Zion is Going Forward in spite of every demon on earth or in hell.

If God can afford to let Zion City go to ruin, then let it go.

If Zion is not right, then let her go to smash.

If, however, Zion is established by God and is doing God’s work, then Zion will Go Forward, and there is no power on earth or hell that can prevent. (Applause.)
I feel happy. It does not trouble me, not a grain, for I know that Zion is God, and that I am doing His Will from my heart and with all my might. Let those who attack God's work have a care; for the Sword He gave me is sharp, and I know how to use it upon liars and reprobates.

The Need for a Rigorous Press Censorship.

I am not attacking the press. I am simply rebuking it for its villainy and spanking it for its misdeeds, every now and then. If the people were wise, they would see the need of legislation that would make these anonymous villains in the press responsible for their action.

They are an irresponsible band of criminals.

They have the law in such a condition that if you were to begin to prosecute them for their libels, all they would have to do would be to put a little bit of a note in nonpareil type away down in a corner, saying that they have withdrawn the statement, and they can go right on unpunished.

You have allowed the press to terrorize the legislators into making laws for the protection of the villainy of the press. I shall never cease to fight it, and of course I never expect it to stop fighting me until it is converted. My hope for its conversion is very slight.

I can only hope that the day will speedily come when the Lord Himself will resume the reigns of government over all the Earth.

As the Daily News said the other day: "When Dowie gets his commission from the Lord some of us will have to get off the earth." (Laughter and applause.) You will, unless you repent.

I have a commission now, however, and my commission is to keep you in good order. I do that, and you know I do.

What I say is believed, and what you say is not, because you Chicago press liars are set down all over the world as the phenominal liars of the century. (Laughter.)

I heard a man say a few months ago in the East: "A Jersey mosquito and a Chicago press liar are the nastiest things in America." (Laughter.)

I was talking to you about coming out to Zion City. It is a city worth looking at; a place that has probably not far from 8,000 people, and one factory, that of the Zion Lace Industries, to design, produce, and sell lace of the highest quality and price.

We desire to use this great and beautiful and new industry in the service of our own people, and to get profits to extend the Kingdom of God throughout the world. Zion has never been a member of any other order, whether he belonged to the Standard Oil Steal or any other kind of a Steal, for money to carry on God's work.

We have attended to our own matters, and never sought outside help yet.

God Prospers Zion City Bank Notwithstanding Opposition.

May God help us to continue to carry on our business in accordance with that principle.

I am exceedingly glad for the great kindness which has been shown me on every side by the great business houses of Chicago.

I cannot say the same of the banks. I am sorry that I cannot, for the conduct of some of them has been simply shameful.

If God had not, from the very beginning, taken good care of Zion City Bank, it could not have continued and prospered as it does.

Thanks be to God, our Bank stands strongly, with five six thousand depositors, not one of whom has removed deposit in all this time of lying and scandal.

On the contrary, I am very thankful for the confidence of the people, and for the confidence of large business men of Chicago.

We are finding out all the little lawyers and big Masons, who are doing their best to strangle Zion in the darkness. They cannot do it. Life and Light and Love are ever triumphing over Death and Darkness and Hatred.

Freemasonry, the "Mystery of Lawlessness."

Zion fights in the light. They fight in the darkness. They do their deeds in darkness.

They have to bandage the eyes of the candidate, and strip him till he is nearly naked, and put an old shirt upon him and an old pair of flannel drawers, and then take him, no matter what his rank, with a cable-tow around his neck, and drag him into their infernal lodges, out of which the Name of the Christ is barred. There they parody the Resurrection by a bogus raising from the dead of the mythical Hiram Abiff by King Solomon, with the "lion's paw" grip on the "five points of Masonry." It is this blasphemous lie of a Sham Resurrection which is the basis of Masonry.

You know it, too, you Freemasons.

You know that in the fundamental degrees of the Blue Lodge, which is really all there is to Masonry, the Name of Jesus, the Christ, is cut out wherever it should be mentioned in your quotations from the Bible.

You are a Christless, Godless crew!

I do not care who you are—ministers, bishops, lawyers, bankers, merchants, politicians, editors or what not. Many of you are ashamed of your associates, some of whom have been recently sent from the Masonic Temple of Chicago to prison for their crimes of stealing Masonic Funds and "fixing taxes" to the extent of $26,000 in one year. Other "high Masons" and low thieves are under indictment by the Grand Jury, and the scandal grows from day to day, as the criminals turn State's Evidence and inform upon each other.

Every honest, self-respecting man should get away from such a "high" company.

I tell you that Masonry is simply a revival of Baal worship, the filthy Sun idolatry of Phenicia, which usurped the worship of Jehovah in the Land of Israel in the days of my mighty predecessor, Elijah the Destroyer.

You have entered into illegal combination to murder and make, men take vows that are contrary to law.

You are anarchists! You are the lawless ones.

The law does not give permission to any man to administer an oath or a penalty unless he is a proper officer of the Law appointed in accordance with Law.

You know you administer oaths and impose penalties, and try to carry them out, you villains!

May God smite all your secret lodges throughout all the Secret Empire, every last one of them! (Applause.)

If your wives knew the whole facts concerning Masonry, you would be in a queer place.

There is no use getting mad with me and stamping out, because you have to take your medicine when you come here.

(Laughter.) You do not get the truth elsewhere.

Well, that will do for today. (Applause and laughter.)
UNVEILING THE APOSTASIES.

You remember the letters of which I published facsimiles, saying that I was to be shot in the same way that President McKinley was, and would not live to see the spring of this year.

That kind of nonsense will not deter me from speaking the truth.

I have nothing in my heart but love for all mankind, and I will speak fairly.

I Claim to be Competent to Speak on Matters of Church History.

There are many things, the great majority of things in the world, that I do not know anything about.

The things that I do know, however, I know.

If a careful reading and a very careful study of almost every fragment known to exist from the days of the Apostle Paul, from the writings of Clement down through all the Antenicene Fathers to the postenicene fathers, as far at least as the Seventh Ecumenical Council, held also at Nice in the year 787, can give any knowledge of Church History, I have that knowledge.

I have given very careful study to the whole History of the Church.

I have been a very close student of Neander and many other great historians of the Church who have written in more modern times, including both Protestant and Roman Catholic writers, and I am indebted amongst the latter to Bishop Hefele, whose History of the Councils is a work of the highest value.

I have also sat at the feet of great living historical teachers.

I cannot plead ignorance, therefore, if I say anything that is not historically reliable, for I have knowledge.

I will speak fairly.

I must. I dare not do anything else; for I am speaking at the End of the Dispensation, and am speaking Words of Warning that are being listened to throughout the world; words that will have more effect tomorrow than they have today.

The Personality of St. Paul.

When he became an apostle, probably ten or eleven years after his conversion, Paul changed his name from Saulos, "great," to Paulos, "little."

Paul was a Jew—thank God for the Jew! "Salvation is of the Jews."

Thank God for Jesus the Christ, the Jew! (Amen.)

Thank God for Mary, the Jewess, and for the mighty apostolic Jew, Paul.

According to an apocryphal writing, he was, in person, a very little man. I sympathize with him.

He also was bald-headed. I can sympathize with him there, too. (Laughter.)

Onesiphorus, in a writing known to scholars as the story of Paul and Thecla, says that Paul was a very little man, by no means striking in his appearance, for he had a very hooked nose.

I might have had a hooked nose, but for a cricket-ball that smashed it when I was very young and gave me the nondeskript nose I have now.

Paul, bald-headed, bandy-legged—there again I am slightly with him—had not very much to commend him in personal appearance, and could not any more than I be compared with the Apollo Belvidere.

Onesiphorus gives the only description, I think, we have of his personal appearance.

He describes some one watching at the gate of Iconium for him, and tells us that it was only in his countenance that there wasught to make men look at him.

But oh, what a mighty man Paul was!

He who was the greatest of the apostles humbly called himself the least of all saints!

He said, "I am not worthy to be called an apostle."

He was the greatest, for he was the humblest.

Yet he could say he was not a whit behind the chiefest of the apostles.

He was of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, blameless; a Pharisee—which must not always be understood as a term of reproach, for the Pharisee was the orthodox Rabbi of the Christ's time.

Lord's Day Afternoon, October 26, 1902.

He that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sitteth in the Temple of God, setting himself forth as God.

The second is in the Epistle to the Romans, the 1st chapter and the 24th and 25th verses.

Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts into uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves:

For that they exchanged the Truth of God for lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

A "Far Cry" from Paul to Pope Leo XIII.

It is a "fancy," as we would say in Scotland, from the Rome of Paul and of the early Christian martyrs, up to the Council of Nice; from Paul the Apostle, who gave himself a willing sacrifice and died for the Christ, and from the Confessors of the Church of Rome, to the Apostate who sits today in the Temple of God, declaring that he is the Infallible Pope.

It is a long way that one has to travel from the time of Paul to reach the shameless degeneracy of Leo XIII. and of the Roman Curia of today.

The Church of God in Rome took no second place to any of the churches, or the gatherings, of the first century.

The Church of God in Rome had a splendid beginning, a splendid youth.

Its degeneracy followed the assumption of papal supremacy by the Bishop of Rome, the ridiculous doctrine that the pope was the lineal successor of Peter, and the Vicar of the Christ.

The absurdity of that dogma is extreme when you remember that there is not a single atom of historic fact that can be produced to show that Peter the Apostle was ever in Rome.

I desire to speak of Paul who, if not the founder, was the establisher of the Church in Rome.

But first, let me say a few words concerning the Uselessness of the Threats of Apostates.

It does not matter what they say, or do, or think, or threaten, I will Unveil this Horrible Apostasy.

I have already had a number of letters, informing me that my last hour has now come; that if I dare to deliver this Series of Messages concerning the Roman Apostasy, I shall certainly have to bid farewell to life.

That does not trouble me: because, although I love my work, my family and my people, and am very happy in doing it, my last hour has now come; that if I dare to deliver this Series of Messages concerning the Roman Apostasy, I shall certainly have to bid farewell to life.

But first, let me say a few words concerning the Uselessness of the Threats of Apostates.

Jesus said they sat in Moses' seat and told his disciples to do as they said, but not to do as they did. There were many of these Pharisees who were mighty men.

Paul had sat at the feet of Gamaliel. No greater teacher of the law of God had ever lived, probably, than the wise Rabbi Gamaliel, whose name means God is Recompenser.

Paul a Roman Citizen by Birth.

You will not forget that Paul was born in Tarsus, a famous city more than 800 years old at the time of his birth and renowned for its philosophic and literary culture. It was made a free city by Augustus. Therefore he had the right of Roman citizenship; for its citizens had equal rights with the citizens of Rome. That will be a very important point for you to remember in studying Paul, since he has had more than once appealed to his Roman citizenship.

The centurion of Jerusalem, who saved him from a mob, wanted to know who he was; whether he was not a pestiferous citizen.

Gamaliel, whose name means God is Recompenser, was a fellow whom they had been hearing about, and he told him No, but that he was a Jew of Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city. Then again he told another one that he was a Roman, and that he had beaten him contrary to law. It meant death to beat a Roman without trial.

He had a right to be judged by no one else but by his peers at Rome. When the chief captain of the Temple said to him, "Tell me, Art thou a Roman?" Paul answered "Yes!" And when the astonished officer replied, "With a great sum obtained I think to free him," the rejoinder of Paul was the calm, strong words of a Roman citizen, "But I was free born!" or, as the Revision reads, "But I was a Roman born!"

Paul, therefore, had the right to appeal from the Roman Procurator, Festus, to Caesar at Rome. He was a Roman citizen, and he had availed himself of what that meant; for the great mass of people in the world were slaves.

Only those who were citizens of Rome were politically free. He was a free-born Roman, yet a Jew; and, when he became a Christian, he did not cease to be a Roman and an Israelite, but was ever ready to remind others of both facts. The man who is ashamed of his Jewish origin has no right to proclaim his American citizenship. Paul rejoiced in the privileges of his birth and citizenship, as well as in his apostleship.

The Splendid Scholarship of Paul.

He was a man trained in all the learning of the Greeks. Any one conversant with the Greek language, cannot but admire the evidences of his wide and thorough scholarship. He does not parade it. No true scholar does. A man who parades a little scholarship has a cheap kind of scholarship.

Paul's scholarship runs right through and permeates, and gives dignity and force to his writings. Although a Hebrew, he became the Apostle of the Nations —of the Gentiles. (It is always better to use the word Nations.) Yet as a Rabbi, he must have stood very high.

The Sanhedrin had existed for about fifteen hundred years, in one form or another, as the ruling power in Israel. It was a Council of great dignity, and of great scholarship. Even in the time of Jesus it had some mighty and good men in it—men like Nicodemus, men like Gamaliel, who gave the Council good advice, to refrain from persecuting the Christians, but whose wise counsel his disciple, Saul, did not follow.

Paul stood, however, amidst them all, a man not less than the greatest of the Rabbis of his time.

You never understand Paul unless you think of him as the ripe Rabbinical and Greek scholar, acquainted with the Holy Spirit's writings, and, doubtless, with the documents that have since come to form the Talmud and the Mishna, the Gemara, and all that mass of tradition. All scholars of that time were expected to become more or less acquainted with these "traditions of the elders."

Paul Was More Than a More Knower of Books; He Was a Thinker.

He was a man who could use his learning. Believing that this sect of Christians was a pestiferous set, a blasphemous set, and that the Church had been rightfully properly crucified, he became the most violent and skilful persistent persecutor of the Church of God.

Remembering his splendid scholarly and Rabbinical position; remembering his Roman citizenship, and his great dignity in the Sanhedrin, do not forget that when he entered the Christian Church he left behind him wealth and fame and power, to become the bond-servant, as he puts it in that Epistle to the Romans, the Slave of the Christ, "for whom," he says, "I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may gain the Christ, and be found in Him, not power, to become the bond-servant, as he puts it in that Epistle to the Romans, the Slave of the Christ, "for whom," he says, "I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may gain the Christ, and be found in Him, not having a Righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the Law, but that which is through faith in the Christ, the Righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know Him, and the Power of His Resurrection, and the Fellowship of His Sufferings, becoming conformed unto His death; if any means I may attain unto the Resurrection from the Dead."

In these sublime words he indicates what he had put aside, and how little it seemed in comparison with the glory of being the Bond-servant, and yet the Apostle of the Christ. When he became a Christian, you will remember, it was in Damascus, after that bright Shekinah Light of God had shone upon him, out of which there spoke the ringing but tender and pleading Voice of the Christ, the rejected Messiah Himself: "Saul! Saul! why persecutest thou Me?"

"Who art Thou, Lord?" cried the cruel persecutor of Christians everywhere.

And He answered: "I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest." The Head of the Church was telling the great persecutor that every member, even the humblest who was persecuted, affected the great Head.

You cannot harm the humblest Christian without grieving the Master. O, foolish persecutors, it is the same today! You cannot touch me, if I am the Christ's, without touching the Christ. "Lord," he cried, "what wilt Thou have me to do?"

One such moment, and All the Past Was Swept Away in the Shekinah Light of God.

He saw what a mean, pitiful, wretched creature he had been, thinking to do God's service, by murdering, maligning, and persecuting His people.

Paul a Mighty Persecutor of Christians.

He was renowned as a special hater of the Church of God in the Christ, and as its persecutor. The high-priest at Jerusalem entrusted him with letters to the authorities at Damascus, so that he could follow the Christians who fled to Damascus from Judea, Galilee, Perea and Samaria, to get Aretus, the ethnarch in Northern Arabia, to punish them and enslave them.

Such an embassy would be likely to be undertaken only by one who was a Rabbi of the highest rank. It would not be committed to one in the lower ranks at all.

He was the head of the embassy. The Sanhedrin had existed for about fifteen hundred years, in one form or another, as the ruling power in Israel. It was a Council of great dignity, and of great scholarship. Even in the time of Jesus it had some mighty and good men in it—men like Nicodemus, men like Gamaliel, who gave the Council good advice, to refrain from persecuting the Christians, but whose wise counsel his disciple, Saul, did not follow.

Paul stood, however, amidst them all, a man not less than the greatest of the Rabbis of his time.

You never understand Paul unless you think of him as the ripe Rabbinical and Greek scholar, acquainted with the Holy Spirit's writings, and, doubtless, with the documents that have since come to form the Talmud and the Mishna, the Gemara, and all that mass of tradition. All scholars of that time were expected to become more or less acquainted with these "traditions of the elders."

Paul Was More Than a More Knower of Books; He Was a Thinker.

He was a man who could use his learning. Believing that this sect of Christians was a pestiferous set, a blasphemous set, and that the Church had been rightfully properly crucified, he became the most violent and skilful persistent persecutor of the Church of God.

Remembering his splendid scholarly and Rabbinical position; remembering his Roman citizenship, and his great dignity in the Sanhedrin, do not forget that when he entered the Christian Church he left behind him wealth and fame and power, to become the bond-servant, as he puts it in that Epistle to the Romans, the Slave of the Christ, "for whom," he says, "I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may gain the Christ, and be found in Him, not having a Righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the Law, but that which is through faith in the Christ, the Righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know Him, and the Power of His Resurrection, and the Fellowship of His Sufferings, becoming conformed unto His death; if any means I may attain unto the Resurrection from the Dead."

In these sublime words he indicates what he had put aside, and how little it seemed in comparison with the glory of being the Bond-servant, and yet the Apostle of the Christ. When he became a Christian, you will remember, it was in Damascus, after that bright Shekinah Light of God had shone upon him, out of which there spoke the ringing but tender and pleading Voice of the Christ, the rejected Messiah Himself: "Saul! Saul! why persecutest thou Me?"

UNVEILING THE APOSTASIES.

But all the answer he got was, “Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do!”

When he arose, he found he was blind, and so they “led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.”

In the agony of his spirit he prayed alone.

Oh, it is a wonderful scene!

You must see it.

Day after day, and night after night, Saul was fasting and praying, but neither the Shekinah Light nor the Heavenly Voice came again.

The heaves were as brass, and the help did not come.

No longer could his blind eyes see any human face, nor the sunrise, the glory of the day, nor the beauty of the sunset—all gone!—blind! blind!

Yes, Saul was upon his spirit; for the Christ who had met him in the way had not yet spoken.

But he prayed.

He prayed in that great Name in which the Jew must learn to pray, in which the proud Rabbi had to pray, the Name of Jesus, the Messiah.

God Often Makes Humble People His Messengers.

God did not send an apostle to Saul in the house of Judas, in Straight Street, Damascus.

He sent him to a humble Christian, bearing a very obscure name and one that was not in good odor in the Church, the name of Ananias. An Ananias had died for his hypocrisy, but God takes very humble means of correcting and instructing great men.

As Augustine so beautifully said: “It pleased God, in His Infinite Wisdom, to save philosophers by means of fishermen, and not fishermen by means of philosophers.”

It pleased God to take humble and, apparently, contemptible men to bring down the great Rabbinical structure, and to plant the Christian Church upon the Apostolic Foundation, Jesus the Christ being the Chief Corner Stone.

So Ananias came to Paul.

He had been instructed by the Lord.

He had been told to go to the street and house where he would find Saul, the Rabbi. He was still known by that name, Saul the Rabbi, the great Rabbi.

But Ananias said: “Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to Thy saints at Jerusalem; and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon Thy Name.”

There are some presumptuous people (perhaps many of you know one of them) who will even discuss His Commandments with God Almighty, and when they get a message from God and are told to do something, they start disputing; they begin to object; “But! But! But!”

The best kind of soldiers never do that.

The best kind of soldiers never do that.

Ananias was asked with a sharp, “Go thy way!” and to be told that he could not give God any information about Saul that He did not possess.

I marvel sometimes at what some people call their prayers.

Did you ever listen to a Fourth of July prayer, in which the mighty Savior, and the Almighty Healer and Cleanser, the Christ who had given sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, and banished the disease and brought the dead to life—whom He had so shamefully persecuted.

Then Ananias said, “Arise! and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the Name of the Lord.”

Ah, Saul, you had to learn just what Real Baptism meant.

What Real Baptism Means.

It is not the sprinkling of a few drops of water on a baby’s nose or face, but it is the Baptism of a penitent sinner, who has found the Saviour, and is willing to obey Him in all things.

By that Triune act of Baptism by Immersion, into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, a penitent believer will realize what Paul himself afterwards taught: the Power of Baptism—Death to Sin, buried with the Christ; Power for Service, walking with the Christ in Newness of Life.

That is Baptism. No water can impart it; but if you are where Paul was, in Straight Street, Damascus, you can get it. The trouble is that many of you are in Crooked Street, Chicago, or elsewhere.

Then came the words that told him that he was to be a chosen Apostle, a chosen Lamp to carry Light.

The Tribe of Benjamin was the tribe of the Light-bearer. Paul was to carry the Light to all the Nations.

But first he was to learn how to hold his tongue for three years.

He says concerning this period: “I conferred not with flesh and blood, neither went I up to Jerusalem to them that were apostles before me; but I went away into Arabia.”

For three years he never preached.

He went into Arabia and studied alone with God.

He writes, “After three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.”

The Value of Silence.

Silence is the best thing when God calls a man to do a special work: for he must “be still,” if he would “commune with God,” and learn His Will and Way.

But when God calls a man he can make him talk.

The first thing he makes him do is to make him to be still, and know that He is God.

Commune with your own hearts upon your bed and be still! A man who can learn to hold his tongue in all the languages he knows, and spend three years in silent preparation will be a power.

A man who thinks it is essential to utter all he does not know, and to chatter and to write and to scribble the first thing that comes into his pimple of a head (laughter), is an abomination, and you know there are many of them around.

Paul was no such man.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, November 1, 1870.

He had done enough talking. He had talked too much, and he had to learn to keep silence. Before you start to preach, if you will just hold your tongue for three years as far as preaching concerned, and quietly learn, God will make some use of you.

Oh, I would like to know something more about that three years. I confess that if ever I should meet Paul, I should want to say to him: "Paul, will you not give me a sketch of those three years, or tell me where I can read it in the Library of Heaven?"—because I think that there are books there.

Books in Heaven.

I am hoping that I shall be able to read some of my books in heaven that I have not any time to read on earth.

I have a very intense desire to read.

I have been a reader all my life; although it has pleased the press to paint me as an ignoramus. I have been a student all my life.

I can say that my books cost me something, too, for I was a poor boy, and I had to earn the money to get them, by the sweat of my brain, until I got several thousand. I knew something of the inside of them, too.

If I had my way, I would not talk today at all; I would be still.

It is only because it is God's Way, and because there is no other man who will do the work that He gives me to do.

You who talk as if it were pleasure to me to be a "public man," forever a mark for every ecclesiastical or literary hoodlum of the pulpit, the newspapers or the magazines, have no idea of the pain of such constant crucifixion. Mean men obtain interviews upon the most sacred assurances of personal honor, solely, they say, for the glory of God, and then, like Dr. James M. Buckley, who did this, they impudently, in that defiance of the facts, and utterly regardless of their promise, attempt to "analyze" and "classify" me as if I were a new kind of beetle.

It is disgusting, it is laughable, and it is disgraceful for Dr. Buckley to write as he has. But I shall leave him until I have time to attend to him, and then, in the Name of the Lord, whose Name he deceitfully used to obtain his interview, I will do a little analyzing and classifying of this Scribe of the Apostate Masonic-Methodist Episcopal Church.

Meanwhile, I cannot retire to Arabia, but I can afford to be still in Zion City a little longer, concerning Dr. Buckley's insolence and falsehood and suppression of truth and distortion of facts in this month's Century Magazine.

I have never had any desire for the conflict and clash of arms in controversy; but it has been forced upon me by God, who called me to this work at the close of this Dispensation and who knows how my heart has loved the peaceful paths of private life. But I have had my Arabia, my Felix also, and I dare not, and do not, complain that I have now to "fight with beasts" at Chicago, and with "false brethren" from New York.

Paul at Antioch.

"Wise God" he appealed.

In the wilderness of that Arabian desert, Paul studied, per

The rest of them, however, did not take much stock in him, because he was turning sharply around upon the Judaizing Christians who wanted to make Christianity simply a sect of Judaism.

Christianity is not a sect of Judaism.

Christianity is the establishment, by God, through the Christ, upon the Eternal Rock—not upon the vacillating Peter, but upon the Son of God—of a Church against which the Gates of Hell shall not prevail. When Paul, who was the forerunner of a Kingdom that shall cover all the earth.

This is the Paul of the First Century.

This is the Paul, who, hated even by Judaizing Christians, went forth to conquer the world, without money, without influence, hated and persecuted, with thorns in the flesh, and with the promise of the Holy Spirit that in every city there would be a big row, and that bonds and imprisonments awaited him.

That is the Paul who died for the Christ at Rome.

I would like to say more of him.

Oh, may God help us to be more like him.

May God help us, like him, to have no Righteousness of our own, but the Righteousness which is of God by Faith.

What a Contrast Between Paul and the Thirteenth Lion of the Popes of Rome!

What a contrast between Paul and the Cringing Coward who keeps within the Vatican and tries to persuade the Roman Catholic church that he is a prisoner.

He could come out and go where he liked any day of the week.

He preaches to no people.

He is simply a cunning spider who is the center of a political, ecclesiastical and educational web.

After all, White Pope as he is, he is only the tool and nominee of the Black Pope, the General of the Jesuit Order.

Poor, mean, miserable, simulant, infallible by a Vatican decree!

Infallible!

The Folly and Blasphemy of the Dogma of Papal Infallibility.

I do not want to call a man a fool; I do not want to call a man a liar, but he might well call himself an infallible fool and liar.

Who is infallible but God alone?

He is no successor of either Paul or Peter who has a righteouness and an infallibility of his own, which a company of fallible bishops decreed to be the Pope's peculiar possession, at a Council of Apostates, held in the Vatican at Rome on July 18, 1870.

Strange that it was an unknown Dogma, even in the Church of Rome, until thirty-two years ago!

What a sham!

Joachim Pecci, as Archbishop of Perugia, was only a fallible bishop, when Pio Nono was declared to be an infallible pope, and how came he thereafter, in 1877, to be infallible? Where was his infallibility seven years before? Where will it be when he dies?

Seven hundred fallible bishops had made Pio Nono an infallible pope.

But it took less than that to make Cardinal Pecci an infallible pope. It took only a caucus of cardinals in Rome to make Pio Nono's successor pope, and presto! by the election of the caucus he becomes infallible.

What a farce!

You might as well declare that a caucus of men could turn a woman into a man.

You might declare that she was a man, but she would be a woman all the time.

A woman is always a woman. Thank God, she is!

A fallible being is always a fallible being.

The mighty Paul claimed no infallibility. To "the Only Wise God" he appealed.

And, as for poor Peter, who never was in Rome, he never claimed infallibility.

Dear old fellow, he was always opening his mouth and putting his foot in it. He got into trouble all the time.

Twenty-five years after Pentecost he got into trouble with Paul at Antioch.

He was always repenting and getting right, dear old fellow! As for his being the great apostle of the Church of Rome, the Church of Rome owes to Phoebe, the faithful deaconess of Cenchrea, the letter which she bore from Paul, and which we read from today, and the Scriptures and reliable History contain no mention of Peter's writing to Rome, or ever being there.

I want you to see the Paul of the early days.

I want you to see the Martyrs of Rome, among whom Paul was perhaps one of the first.

I desire you to see the contrast between him and the Apostate Church that has dishonored his Christ, and exchanged

PRAYER OF CONFESION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right to my fellow men; and if I have wronged any, to repent, to restore, to confess, and in Thy sight to do right, to undo the wrong, to bring into Thy Storehouse that of which I have robbed Thee in tithes and offerings.

May God save the Roman Catholics!

The service closed with the Doxology and Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul be preserved entire without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to

TO HIM who reads between the lines, Lord's Day early morning meeting, October 19, 1902, was heavy with hidden significances. Here, at the dawning of a day given over by the world and the apostate churches to indolence, pleasure and a grudgingly given hour or two to formal church services, were gathering thousands of people.

From every gradation of life and occupation, they came, of one mind and moved by a common purpose. Happy-faced people, calm, orderly, with intelligence and thrift in evidence in their persons, were there in thousands. They are met to feed upon the Word of God, to gain spiritual wisdom and strength, and many afterwards to leave their homes in the beautiful little City of Zion, going into the great metropolis adjacent, there to spend several hours of the Lord's Day in carrying a Message of Peace to the world.

While the great audience awaits the appearance of their beloved leader, by an almost involuntary impulse, a prayer service is held.

Not the stilted, cold, formal thing the above words are wont to express in the majority of churches, but a simple, fervent outpouring of the Spirit.

Now calm, now fervid with feeling, rapid, without circumlocution, as men speak when in earnest, voice follows voice in such quick succession that the torrent is broken only by the strong "Our Father, who art in Heaven." Read, whose will: Though Zion's physical body shall be laid away and seen no more forever, yet Zion, beautiful, deathless, spiritual Zion, shall live for aye; for her foundations are with God.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, October 19, 1902.

The service was opened by the Congregation singing Hymn No. 350.

Christ has for sin atonement made,
What a wonderful Saviour!
We are redeemed! the price is paid!
What a wonderful Saviour!

CHORUS—What a wonderful Saviour is Jesus, my Jesus!
What a wonderful Saviour is Jesus, my Lord!

The General Overseer then read from the Gospel according to St. Matthew, 6th chapter, beginning at the 10th verse:

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust doth consume, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

One may serve two men, but he cannot serve two masters.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth.

The admonition in this Scripture is to crucify and consecrate self. It is a good thing to lay up treasures; but, if you lay them up for yourselves, that is a bad thing. It is not wrong to give to the poor, but it is very wrong to sound a trumpet and call the people together to let them see what you give to the poor.

That is self-righteous hypocrisy and an insult to God. It is not a bad thing to pray in public, but it is a very bad thing to pray in public if you do it to be seen of men. It is wrong to appear to men to fast, to be charitable, and to be virtuous in many other ways.

Lay up Treasures for a Right Purpose.

You must distinguish clearly between the laying up of treasures for a right purpose and the laying up of treasures for a wrong purpose. Nothing in recent years has given me more joy than the fact that my attention to God's business in connection with our financial affairs has been so very successful.

I have been able to lay up treasures, not for myself, but for the people of God, to be used in this Age and in the Ages to come.

I am glad that every cloud has its beautiful silver lining.

I know that the sun is always shining on the other side, and that sooner or later it will break through and the light appear.

It is exceedingly delightful to know that we have a right to lay up treasures for God.

Zion's Financial Foundation Is Strong.

We have a right to build strong financial foundations for a work like this. I am glad that the financial strength of Zion is great, putting it any way we like.

When an institution is able to stand such terrific hammerings, and such tremendous misrepresentation as Zion's Financial Institutions have stood during the last few weeks, it proves that that institution is very strong.

Nearly all the powerful business men of Chicago with whom we have dealings are united in saying: "We cannot afford to have Dr. Dowie and his people embarrassed in any way.

They stand around Zion like a solid phalanx and say to that lying newspaper press, 'Be still!'

It is essential in all things that there shall be strong reserves.

I have always asked God to give me a strong reserve of psychical and physical strength, so that, whenever there was a call upon it, God would arrange for the reserve to be there in His own Divine way.

And so it has been.

I have never yet found that reserve strength to fail. It has served me and will serve me, until the time comes when I shall pass away.

You must have a reserve in connection with all Divine work. You must lay up treasures for God, if you desire to be powerful in His service among men.

If you do not lay up Treasures of Knowledge; Treasures of Wisdom; Treasures of Faith; Treasures of Experience, and by labor and by diligent cultivation store up Reserve Power, then you will speedily and utterly fail.

The day will come when you will suddenly find it necessary to fall back upon your Knowledge of the Word of God; upon the Wisdom that can come only from diligent study and preparation of that Word; upon the treasures of Experience, and, if you have none, then you will have to be put aside.

The days of youth should be days of perpetual labor spent in learning and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus the Christ.

You must study His Word.

You must follow in His footsteps and speak His Word, and do His work.

Then you will come into your life's field of labor, with stores of Knowledge, Love, Wisdom and Strength, and the Treasure of Faith which will stand you in good stead in the days to come.

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

The best place to have your treasure is where it cannot be taken away.

It is Sad When a Man's Treasure is Earthly.

It is sad when all your treasures lie in a man or woman or child.

When you touch the cold, dead form, then you realize that you have been putting your heart upon a thing of earth and a bit of cold, dead clay.

Then, like Pericles, who was unmoveed amidst the plagues, until he touched the body of his dead son, Paralus, you will cry out that life is without hope, for your treasure is gone.

If you know that the life of the departed one is hid with Christ in God, then you can stand above the dead, cold body and say, "He is not here but is arisen," as the Christ said.

Then you can think only of a spirit radiant with love, and you will lay the body of clay reverently away, as garments that can be no more used.

If your heart is fixed upon the mortal and physical form, when that is gone, your heart is broken.

When your heart is fixed upon that which is spiritual and eternal, you have arisen from the grave and your spirit is with the radiant spirits who have gone before.

Then you will become stronger, and life itself will become more precious, and the realities of Eternity more real.

Let your Treasure be in Heaven.

Our Master has gone before.

He went out of this world from a broken, bleeding, wounded body.

He reanimated that body and reascended into Heaven, and that body, glorified, transfigured and made eternally beautiful, still abides.

It is a Spiritual Body now.

It has been transformed, and we are seeking a like transformation.

"All Treasures Which Are Worth Anything Are Eternal."

We thank God that we have a right to lay up treasures on earth for God, for the use of generations to come.

Through these treasures we will be able to lay up treasures in Heaven.

We are able to use the Powers of Earth as well as Divine Knowledge and Wisdom and Spiritual Powers; for the material things can be made the stepping-stones to heavenly things, and so by means of earth's treasures we can extend the Kingdom of God.

The Lamp of the Body is the Eye.

How much there is in this!

Those who have to deal with their fellow men seek for the eye.

When I am speaking with men, I seek for the eye.

I do not concern myself about the form first.

Theirs is a selfish sorrow, which is pitying and bemoaning self all the time.

They weep over the loss of an earthly friend, or of earthly goods.

There is nothing which will destroy the sight more quickly than the darkness of death.

Let death enter, and lay hold of you; look nowhere, but there you see the dead form, and then weep, and in a year you will be half blind.

Keep on weeping, and in another year neither your eyes nor your heart will be worth anything. Your whole body will be full of darkness—blacker far than the weeds of woe which you love to wear, but which chill the spirits and darken the lives of those who dwell with you.

Beloved friends, if weeping would wash your sins away, restore the lost, or bring you back lost property, I would say, Keep on weeping.

But it will do just the opposite, and it will ruin your life.

I say these things because, while there is always a place for tears and a time when it is best to let the tears flow, there is also a time for tears to cease, a time when sorrow becomes sin.

The life of the body is the eye; as the spirit is, so is the eye. A great many people speak of having dim eyesight.

With very few exceptions I have never failed to see what is in the heart.

When the spirit stands at the door of the eye, then you see the real man or woman, if you have the Divine gift of discerning spirits.

When the eye is capable of lighting up with that Light which never shone upon sea or land, when the Shekinah Light of God is within, however small, it can be seen. It is the most beautiful of all Lights: For it comes from the Indwelling Spirit of Him who is the Father of Lights.

The Power of Divine Anger Necessary to a Christian.

There are a great many so-called Christians who never have any light.

They can talk, but the eye is cold.

The eye never lights up with a flash of Divine anger.

If a man cannot get angry with sin, and no sense of Divine justice within lights up the eye and expresses determination to destroy the things which are evil, that man has nothing of God in him.

If the eye is incapable of mercy or love or strong confidence; if it is shifty; if it is eager to get out of the searching light of a stronger eye, then something is wrong. The eye that shrinks from a man of God is that of a man who is afraid of God.

Evil thinking or evil doing is always associated with fear, and fear dwells in darkness.

You do not need to be told that, for it is written:

Shine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness.

What I have said about the body being full of light may seem to you to be only a figure of speech.

It is no such thing. It is a spiritual, psychical and physical reality.

The indwelling Power of God within the body is the Life and therefore the Light.

The Life was the Light of men.

If all the light that is within you comes from without, and you are dependent upon the sunrise, or upon the illumination of electricity, or some other form of light, then, beloved friends, you are in darkness, and the light that is in you is darkness.

A glorious fact in connection with a true Christianity is that each one who is a true Christian is a Child of Light, being a Child of Life.

The Life is the Light, and it is impossible for Life to be within, without Light.

One reason why so many who have so little light grope and err dreadfully and are always afraid is because Life has been hindered and growth prevented.

Only a very little has been allowed to come in, and the whole body, which should have been radiant with the Life of God, is dull and has not the fulness of Light which makes some to be "burning and shining Lights."

The Sin of Continued Weeping.

A great many persons lose their sight by weeping.

They are not weeping over others, but really over themselves.

There is a selfish sorrow, which is pitying and bemoaning self all the time.

They weep over the loss of an earthly friend, or of earthly goods.

There is nothing which will destroy the sight more quickly than the darkness of death.

Let death enter, and lay hold of you; look nowhere, but there you see the dead form, and then weep, and in a year you will be half blind.

Keep on weeping, and in another year neither your eyes nor your heart will be worth anything. Your whole body will be full of darkness—blacker far than the weeds of woe which you love to wear, but which chill the spirits and darken the lives of those who dwell with you.

Beloved friends, if weeping would wash your sins away, restore the lost, or bring you back lost property, I would say, Keep on weeping.

But it will do just the opposite, and it will ruin your life.

I say these things because, while there is always a place for tears and a time when it is best to let the tears flow, there is also a time for tears to cease, a time when sorrow becomes sin.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

I lately worked for forty-three consecutive hours, principally with my pen, and when I ceased I could see the smallest comma. There was no pain in my eyes, and there is none now.

Spiritual Strength Means Physical and Physical Power.

The Life is the Light.

In this Teaching the Master is enforcing the great truth that the lamp of the body is the eye. If you are living with an eye single to God's glory, putting everything else aside, and are pursuing Divine purposes, with a clear and steady eye, you will get through.

The man who has the helm must have a clear, cool, steady eye. He must see through the driving sleet and the dark night, or else strike the rocks, or be driven on the sands of the sea-shore.

A man whose eyes are dim cannot be put at the helm, because upon the clearness of his sight and the steadiness of the hands which holds that helm depends the safety of all on board the ship. You will never be strong if you are trying to do two or three things at one time, or are striving to please God and man.

Let your eye be single to God, and strive to please Him. Do right; keep a single eye, and steer a straight course. If men are not pleased for the time being, and think that you are doing this, that and the other thing in a way they do not approve, never mind; go right on in God's way—it is always right, and always best.

The ship will go into the harbor, and then the people who have been talking nonsense will have to hold their tongues or join in the shouts of triumph.

If you regard man, and if you are not steering by the "sailing directions" of the official chart which tells you how to get the lights in line, you will turn away from the clear, steady course that you ought to pursue, and there will be trouble.

Let every individual eye be looking straight to Heaven.

Run your race with your eye fixed upon Jesus the Christ. See Him all the way, and then you are sure to get through.

No man who has seen the Christ has anything in the road which he cannot overcome, for when the Christ Light appears it is a clear, white Light.

Lights of Three Colors.

There are lights of three colors upon a railway line. The green one means "Go slow, be cautious." The red says, "Stand still, there is danger." The third is the White Light, and it means "Line clear; go ahead, as fast as you like."

Be sure that you are not color-blind.

Some people who are color-blind cannot distinguish the different colors in the lights. They see but one color in their lights, which must be a very startling case, unless they must trust those who see clearly. If you have the power to see the red light, stop. Do not go back. Perhaps there is more danger in going back than in going ahead.

When you see the green light, go slowly until you see the white light, and then go ahead as fast as you can.

There is more safety in traveling on a Pennsylvania Limited than there is upon an "accommodation" train that is crawling along at ten miles an hour. Go ahead when the light is clear.

The Light of the body is the eye—the spiritual, psychical and physical eye.

May God give us the eye to see His Will and Way very clearly, and when we see, may we do as He wills and go in His paths.

You Cannot Serve God and Mammon.

If any man attempt to do the two, he will fail. I can say here this morning that I have never served Mammon in my life. I was never a devotee of gold. I have served God. I quietly told a man the other day, who began to talk about how to do business, that he did not know anything about it.

I showed him that I had taken him about forty-five years to get together $150,000, while I had taken up this land and begun operations in 1900, and 1902 is not gone, yet I have made more money out of the leasing of less than one-twelfth of the land than the entire land cost me.

I still have reserves in the portion which we have subdivided which are worth another million, and it is easier to underestimate than to overestimate the present and the prospective value of the land.

Today Zion stands, put it as you like, anywhere from twelve to twenty-four millions of dollars to the good.

"Oh," he said, "I will admit this, that you are a far better businessman than I am," and so he called upon me.

"Then," I said, "keep still, and make tracks straight for your home and attend to your business, and do not talk any more as if you knew more. I can see from what you have said that you cannot tell me anything which will help me. I would not finance on your lines if I could, and I dare not if I would: for you leave God entirely out of your reckonings, and when you are honest it is only from policy and not from principle."

You will always get more by serving God than by serving Mammon, for God is not unrighteous, and He never forgets your works of faith and labors of love.

He is a Rewarder of Faithfulness, of Love and of Service. I have the positive promise of the Christ that I shall not do the things that I have done, without having a hundredfold more in this present time.

I shall have persecutions, and I have them galore, but I have also the hundredfold more. Go ahead. Do right. Serve God alone. Never bow down to Mammon.

There Is No Place for the Fearful or the Half-hearted in Zion.

Serving God as we are, let us go with His Power into His work in Chicago today.

Zion has gone on and is going on, and I hope that every coward will get out of the way for ever.

If there are any fearful, the best thing is for them to get away.

I proclaim to God's Israel, as Gideon did more than a thousand years before Jesus the Christ came: "Whosoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead!"

I will not go into battle for the Lord with those who have one foot in Zion and another foot somewhere else.

I want all who think that they can be one-half in Zion and one-half out to get out entirely.

Let Us Go Forward.

May God bless you.

I love you. I want to see you greatly blessed, and before I lay down my life, which is a very easy thing to do, so far as I can see, I want to have done my part in establishing the Kingdom of God and preparing His people for His coming.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may be perfectly consecrated; that I may be fully united to Thee and to Thy people in Zion. Give me grace today to serve Thee. Bless every member of Zion Restoration Host here and in all the world. Give those who go forth today grace to speak the soft answer that turneth away wrath; to remember that their Message is Peace, and with the Peace of God to go to every home. Give us strength for the day. Bless Zion everywhere in America, in Europe, in Asia, in Africa, in Australasia, and in the Islands of the Sea, and wherever man is found let the Gospel speedily reach. For Jesus' sake, Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit; our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, He took a little child, and set him by His side, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in My Name receiveth Me; and whosoever shall receive Me receiveth Him that sent Me: for he that is least among you all, the same is great.—Luke 9:46-50.
How precious is Thy loving-kindness, O God! And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of Thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fainess of Thy house; And Thou shalt make them drink of the river of Thy pleasures. For with Thee is the Fountain of Life: In Thy Light shall we see light. O Lord, Thou lovest kindness and truth in the uprightness of heart. —Psalm 36:7-10.

1 MINISTRY of prayer answered is that of John Alexander Dowie. Every day it has its record of prayers answered. From the ends of the earth the prayer requests come.

They are presented before God in a most simple and direct way. The prayers are from the heart of man subjected to "like passions" with our own. Every day has its record of prayers answered. From another letter received, written under date of August 30th, we print some extracts which tell of how a business man heard the General Overseer in the city of Philadelphia some years ago. Again the Message was with Divine authority and power and led this man to a reconsecrated life in God. So effective was the Message that the simple telling of it by this business man to one high in ecclesiastical office brought the latter person to a fuller trust in God, and a deliverance from physical infirmity. He is now inquiring the way to Zion.

The following are a few lines copied from a recent letter received from this clergyman:

An earnest seeker for truth heard you speak in Philadelphia. He was a business man and he came from that meeting reconsecrated! He told me that your plain words that night made him realize the depth and significance of your mission.

Like the prophet of old, you did not fear to speak to the people! Day by day that Message, brought back from that enthusiastic gathering in the "Quaker City," rang in my ears!

Day by day I neglected to write you, or heed the call.

I tell it, and my friend—now in England—said (in spirit), by letter, Pray have you not a God stronger, more potent and eternal than the drugs, or the diploma-made physicians? The prayer of faith did bring me forth—and I am in the 14th Street, Brooklyn, New York, September 12, 1902.

MY DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your kind letter of the 4th inst., saying you had received my telegram of the 2d, asking you to pray for Brother Karl Brockman, was received and the references read with much benefit and pleasure.

On September 2d, when I returned home from work, between 5 and 6 p.m., I met Sister Brockman at my gate, with her baby in her arms, crying. She said to me: "Brother Wilson, my husband is very sick; will you please come down as soon as you can, for I am all alone?" I got ready and took a car, but jumped off at a telegraph office and sent you the request for prayer for Karl Brockman.

I then went immediately to his house, 116 Bond street, Brooklyn. I found him resting quietly, but a very sick man. He could not speak very loudly or plainly. We had prayer, and then we began to talk about the tricks of the Devil. He began to get better between 8 and 9 p.m. I called again the next night, and found him well.

He had been to his work that day. Praise the good Lord! I am happy to say that the Lord wonderfully healed our dear brother of a bad case of diphtheria in answer to prayer. I thank you, dear General Overseer, for your teaching that has made us acquainted with God as a dear Father, who will heal His children when they ask Him a right. May God greatly bless Zion everywhere, is my prayer. Yours in the Master's service.

E. H. Wilson.

Three years ago a suffering one wrote to the General Overseer from Steveston, British Columbia.

In answer to the prayer of God's servant a rupture was healed. We print the testimony as sent, under date of September 12, 1902.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, September 12, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Three years ago God healed me of rupture of nine years' standing. I wrote from Steveston, British Columbia, asking you to pray that I might be healed. I had taken off my truss and left it in Victoria about two days before I wrote.

I soon after received a reply, saying you had prayed, and would be glad to receive a testimony when the healing was perfected.

I thank God for the healing, and you, dear General Overseer, for praying for me. I feel I ought to have written before.
May God bless you and give you grace and strength for all your work.
Yours sincerely in Christ,
MALCOLM ROBINSON.

Healed of a broken hip and of a cancer on the eye is the story which comes to us in the next testimony which we publish:

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO, September 12, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER.—In December, 1901, I fell on the ice and broke one of the bones in my right hip.

For one week I could not stand on the limb.

I wrote to my son, Mr. Duclo, who lives in Zion City, and when my letter reached there my hip was healed.

I give God the glory.

In June, 1901, I noticed a lump coming on my left eye.

I had it examined by the doctor, and he pronounced it cancer.

I was residing in Michigan at that time, and went to Zion City in November, 1901.

I had Elder Brock pray for me, and that creeping feeling left me for awhile.

He prayed for me a second and third time, and the place seemed to get smaller.

On the 17th of May, 1902, my right eye commenced to swell, and soon I could not see out of it.

As soon as I could be out of doors I went to a Divine Healing meeting, and it got better, but was not healed.

I then came to Colorado Springs, and at times the swelling would break and run.

In July I sent you a request for prayer, and I was healed immediately.

I thank you and yours for your prayers. I give God all the praise.

Your sister in Christ, our Savor and Healer.
(Mrs.) MATILDA DUCLO.

We might go on calling particular attention to the testimonies which are received from day to day.

We have not the time or space.

But who has a right to say that in the claims which the General Overseer makes he has taken any step which is not approved of God?

God Himself has not been displeased, nor does He refuse to hear and answer prayer.

On the contrary, from day to day He continues to set His seal and His mark of approval upon the ministry of John Alexander Dowie.

Healed of Broken Collar-bone.

1513 Madison Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, August 25, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER.—I take this opportunity of writing you a few words regarding our daughter, Myrtle.

On the 8th of July she fell out of bed and broke her collar-bone. We sent you a telegram for prayer for her.

When I got back home she was looking for me. When I left home she could not move her arm. I know, and all who saw her know, that before the telegram reached you she was healed.

The collar-bone is all healed except that a small lump is left, which is gradually disappearing.

Myrtle is eight years of age, and every time she is in trouble she prays the prayer of faith and gets immediate answers to her prayers.

Your brother and sister in Christ,
MR. AND MRS. OSTROWSKA.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

A Wonderful Testimony to God's Power to Heal.

COLORADO AGENCY, MONTANA, August 27, 1902.

MY DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER.—It seems like ingratitude to God and to you, longer to withhold my testimony from among the many thousands who have been healed in answer to your prayers.

Four years ago this summer my most frequent prayer was for death.

My suffering was so severe that life at times seemed unendurable, and I had given up hope of ever gaining health.

Every organ but my heart was said to be in a chronic state of disease, and I was a physical wreck.

The change was very helpful as I never lost my voice again for four years, though the yearly visits East always resulted in congested lungs and weak-kneed throat.

Other troubles grew worse, especially indigestion.

A long-standing displacement had caused great suffering; at times, delirium, and twice, almost my life.

For many years there was no relief from constipation but through drugs and other aids.

The liver had always been torpid, and caused much suffering through bilious attacks and jaundice.

Kidney trouble had been gradually increasing for many years, till it was sappling my remaining vitality, and I had grown so weak that life was indeed a burden.

Then came a friend with the message of Divine Healing, and information concerning your work in Chicago.

Her husband told me still more, and they gave me some LEAVES OF HEALING.

I immediately began finding the references given in God's Word, reading the papers, and praying that I might find the truth and be healed.

I gave up medicine then, because my friends told me that it was unnecessary, and none has ever passed my lips since—four years ago the 15th of September.

A few days' study convinced me that God was indeed the Healer of His people.

I wrote, asking you to pray at 10 o'clock the following Friday morning, that I might be made strong in body, soul and spirit, adding that a few friends and I would pray at the same time here.

Forgetting the difference in time, at a few minutes to 9 I took up my Bible and LEAVES OF HEALING, intending to prepare myself for the Prayer of Faith by studying that hour before 10 o'clock each day.

Thanking you for your prayers, and asking God's continued blessing upon you and the work, I am,
Very sincerely yours in Christ,
LILLIAN L. RICHARDSON.

A Safe Deliverance in Childbirth.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, September 7, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER.—It is with a heart full of gratitude and praise to God for His wonderful goodness and mercy to me, that I write this testimony.

God wonderfully delivered me of a ten-pound baby boy July 14th.

Labor did not last more than ten minutes.

Deaconess Starratt and Sister Boyd were with us.

We had prayers before and after the baby was born.

We claimed God's promises, and He answered.

I do thank God for Zion's teaching, and for LEAVES OF HEALING.

I thank you, dear General Overseer, for your teaching and prayers.

May God continue to bless and keep you.

Your daughter in the Lord,
(Mrs.) OTTO SEARS.

And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I do make, saith Jehovah of Hosts.—Malachi 3:5.
For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater; So shall My Word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: It shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.—Isaiah 55:10, 11.

The positive assurance of God concerning the prosperity of His Word, as given in the Scripture quoted above, is most inspiring.

Resting upon these precious Promises, Zion Restoration Host continues to go forth from week to week in great numbers, so that through these faithful workers, in the city of Chicago alone, the Gospel is brought to the doors of between twenty to fifty thousand every week.

For three successive Lord's Days, in the face of pouring rain, these workers left their comfortable homes in Zion City, to seek the lost in the streets and lanes of the great city of Chicago.

Two trains of eight coaches each are required to carry these faithful workers a distance of forty-two miles, in order that they may deliver the Message of Peace at the doors of the multitudes in that wicked city.

Such devotion is something which the world does not understand. Nevertheless, many are being deeply impressed by the earnestness and self-sacrificing spirit of these soldiers of the Cross. Many of them have been met with words which have not been of the kindest, although on the whole they have been most cordially received by those at whose doors they have called.

Many express surprise that people should be out in such inclement weather, doing God's work.

The kind faces and earnest words of the Restorationists have touched the hearts of many who have heretofore held very bitter feelings toward Zion and the General Overseer.

As a consequence, the workers have often been invited into the homes where they have had an opportunity to correct the false notions which some people have held concerning this glorious work. In some instances the workers were served with refreshments, and in one of the most elegant homes in the city two of these faithful workers were served to tea and invited to eat their lunch, which they carry with them when out on this mission.

While sometimes it may discourage, to be met by those who are so unappreciative and seem so little concerned about their salvation, yet many little incidents are brought to our attention, which go to prove that God's Promises concerning the prosperity of His Word are unfailing.

As an illustration of this, we quote from a letter received a few days ago, from one who is an entire stranger to the work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. The letter reads as follows:

Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion,

Dear Sir:—About a week ago, on the Lord's Day, I found on the street, one of your little Restoration Messages, in which were the principles for the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth.

I lent it to a friend, but he lost it.

I hope and pray for the speedy coming of Christ to establish His Kingdom.

This little Message undoubtedly had been carelessly thrown away by some one, and, to all appearance, was seed wasted.

God decreed it otherwise.

In fulfilment of His Promise, we find that it furnished seed for the sower as well as bread for the eater.

Work Among the Summer Resorts of Michigan.

The party whose photograph appears on this page was sent out to the summer resorts on the east coast of Lake Michigan, during the month of August.

This little company consists of Deaconess Mary A. Boyd, Mrs. Mary Schreffler, Miss Louise Cullen and Miss Myrtle Clarke.

During the two weeks they were out they distributed 8,569 pieces of Zion Literature among the people, besides selling a large number of Leaves of Healing.

They held several meetings and found great interest in the work of Zion on the part of large numbers of people.

Unknown to them, however, one of their little Messages awakened a great desire for a better life in the heart of one woman who had drifted away from God. In writing to a friend a short time afterwards, she related how she had met with a serious accident, caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove.

She said that she could not help contrasting her condition with that of Miss Esther Dowie.

She saw how poorly prepared she was to meet her God.

God, in His Mercy, spared her life.

She expressed an earnest desire to re-consecrate herself fully to His service.

In the Sunny South.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

At their request a large box of Zion Literature was sent to them during the early part of the summer.

Mrs. Royall writes as follows:

DEAR ELDER LEE:—Please find enclosed a report of the work which was done after the splendid box of Zion Literature reached us.

Some of the Leaves published in 1895 and 1896 were eagerly bought. Lying by the bed of one bedridden man, we found an almost worn-out copy of Leaves of Healing.

"Praise the Lord," he said, as we entered with the Peace Message. "I had just been praying God to send me another paper like this."

Quite a number greeted us in like manner. One young woman was reached in time to prevent her from committing suicide.

She is now rejoicing in Zion.

Trusting that all the harvest field may be speedily reached through Zion Restoration Host, Yours faithfully,

The detailed report of these workers is given below:

Number of leaves sold.......................... 350
Number of leaves given away.............. 67
Number of tracts sold......................... 30
Number of tracts given away............. 290
Number of messages distributed............ 8000
Number of banners given away............. 350

This work was done in Pelzer, Williamston, Belton and Piedmont, South Carolina.

Eleven thousand people, we estimate, were more or less brought in contact with Zion, through this work.

Work in the Northwest.

Passing from South Carolina, far into the Northwest corner of the United States, to Spokane, Washington, we find that some more faithful work has been done by eight representatives of Zion Restoration Host, located in that city.

During the month of September, these workers made 1,558 calls, distributed 2,314 Messages and sold 483 copies of Leaves of Healing.

This work was all done during such time as they could spare from their other duties.

These figures are most astonishing when we consider the fact that nearly all of these workers have little families and household duties to attend to, or men who are engaged in business from early morning until late at night.

It shows the spirit that prevails in Zion. Had the Church during all the past ages displayed the same zeal and put forth the same earnest effort which is now displayed by the Christian Church in Zion, we can almost fancy that the world would have been prepared for the coming King long before this.

Perhaps nothing illustrates the enthusiasm and earnestness of these workers better than the hearty manner in which they have responded, since the organization of Zion Restoration Host.

Numerous letters have come to us from all sections of the country, expressing the desire to take the Vow of Zion Restoration Host, which was first read by the General Overseer in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, September 21st.

The following letter, written by a lady of over fifty, is one of many which have come to us during the past two weeks.

She had just recently been enrolled as a member of Zion Seventies. She writes as follows:

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—Your kind letter received.

I rejoice that I am enrolled as a member of Zion Seventies.

It is work God has laid upon my heart for a long time.

I realize that it means a great deal.

I thank you for the directions and the helpful references.

I hope to be able to do my part in giving my household their share in due season.

I am so glad to have the prayers of Zion.

May the Lord soon raise up some one in this community, that we may go two by two according to His Word.

We have prayerfully considered the weight and solemnity of the Vow of Zion Restoration Host and I here, with uplifted hand, do solemnly take upon myself this Vow, Declaration and Promise, so help me God.

Yours very truly, M. C. Hazel.

Great Blessing Realized in God's Work.

The following letter expresses the great blessing that numbers have realized in this work:

ELBERON, IOWA, October 9, 1902.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—I thank God that I have been permitted to work in Zion Seventies one year.

I thank God for His Son Jesus, who left the society of heaven to seek a lost world, and who will never be satisfied until all are fully restored.

I am thankful that He has raised up a ministry which follows His example.

In sickness our prayers were unavailing.

We called in our nearest Elder (Elder Adams), and from that time our care was cast on the Great Burden-bearer and we felt the joy of restoration.

We have been blessed in answer to your prayers.

We have sent many requests for prayer to Zion, and have scarcely ever failed to recognize the time of prayer, by the answer we had in our spirit.

Some requests have been sent for those on whom we call, who have been blessed and healed.

When the matter of selling Leaves of Healing presented itself, it seemed an impassable barrier; but we determined God's work should be done, no matter who the instrument or what the consequences.

Since then we have had ten copies a week.

We sell less than half, but lend some every week.

Our work has been for the most part among acquaintances—an ever-widening circle.

Some reject God and Zion, but most are willing to read at least one of the Messages.

We have many home duties, but have been enabled to spend about one day in a week doing this most blessed work. We always have the witness of God's Spirit while so engaged.

There are three members of Zion Seventies here at present.

Since coming into Zion, our family has been enabled to pay off some debts, which were heavy for our income.

We first pay our tithes to Zion, on all our produce and on our income, and we live happier than before Zion found us.

We earnestly pray that God will continually increase Zion Restoration Host and make it a pure and powerful Host which no man can number.

My brother conducts a Gathering each week in our home.

With love to Zion and asking your continued prayers, I am,

Your sister in Christ,

MARIA DEAN.

Instantly Healed in Answer to Prayer.

BROOKSTON, INDIANA, September 16, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEEER:—Your letter of the 13th instant has been received, stating that you had prayed for my daughter.

On the morning of the 4th she was instantly healed.

We give God the glory, and thank you for your prayers.

Your brother in Christ,

J. W. WARREN STEWART.

WE thank God for the healing of Deaconess Rachel Thomas, and we are grateful to Him that He has not only healed her but has also renewed her strength, so that she is now able to take again the active oversight of the Dorcas Work in Zion City.

We therefore request that all parcels sent to Zion City for this work shall be addressed either to myself or to Deaconess Thomas. We have good reports of the work from all Branches and have received answers to most of the letters that were sent out, so that in all of the cities where there is a large Branch of the Church the Dorcas Work is being taken up by our women.

The Chicago workers all report a good beginning in each of the Branches.

Deaconess Paddock, who is in charge of the Central Work, in her letter of last week sent me a very interesting incident:

She received a call from a lady who was much interested in the work done in our Zion Home of Hope for Erring Women, of which Deaconess Paddock is the Matron, and she expressed herself as being very much pleased with the work and the way it was being carried on, and when she was told it was our intention to build a Home of that kind in Zion City and remove the work there, she gave the Deaconess fifty ($50.00) dollars for that purpose.

She did not wish to have her name mentioned, or any acknowledgment of it, so we desire to acknowledge the receipt of it in this way, and to thank her for her kindness to these women, who are now living good, clean lives, and whom God has rescued from a life of sin. Among the touching letters we received during the week was one letter, sending a few dollars for the same purpose.

The good sister who sent it said that she had earned it herself by her own hands, and that she sent it for the Building of the Home of Hope in Zion City.

She asked us to pray for her husband, whom she loved dearly, but who is living in sin with another woman and wants her to get a divorce from him, so that she shall be free to marry this woman.

She said, in sending me the few dollars, that she sent it because it was evil women that had led her husband first into that kind of life, and led him away from her and from his home. We do earnestly pray, with this good sister, that her husband may be led to see his sin and come back to her and lead a good, holy life.

We have written to her, telling her not to get the divorce, but to keep on praying for her husband, because God's Word says that the "believing wife shall be sanctified to the unbelieving husband."

May God graciously answer our prayers on her behalf.

In this week's article I desire especially to call attention to another feature of our Zion Women's Work: the work which is being done at Shiloh Nursery.

The General Overseer had a beautiful little house built, with a veranda all around it and every convenience for the little ones, which was opened on May 30th of this year.

The object of this nursery was to enable tired young mothers, who have been taking care of their little ones all week, to have an opportunity to restfully enjoy the Lord's Day services without interruption or anxiety on behalf of the little ones, knowing that they were being well taken care of in Shiloh Nursery.

It also enables both husband and wife to be together and receive the benefit of the Lord's Day teachings.

When these little ones were brought into the services, before the building of this nursery, they became so interested in the General Overseer that they sometimes started to talk back to him from the audience and make a noise generally.

He repeatedly declared that he was unable to compete with these little fellows, and sometimes he had to direct parents to take them out, as it was impossible to speak to so large an audience with the little ones all talking at the same time. This he very much disliked to do.

Since the establishment of Shiloh Nursery all interruptions from this source have ceased, and we are able to have quiet and uninterrupted services.

After the house was built we found that it was necessary to put a railing round a piece of ground in the rear of it and make an inclosed yard for the little toddlers, who began to run off into the woods, and it took one person to watch each little one; so now we have a nice picket-fence enclosure as a corral for these little ones, and they interest themselves out there in fine weather with a load of clean, white sand and some other playthings which children like, and which keep them interested.

DEACONESS MABEL BARNARD, and Industries, was selected and appointed as Deaconess-in-charge of this work.

Under her care this work has gone on very smoothly and everybody has been well satisfied.

At the General Overseer's request, she has sent me the following report:

"ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, October 8, 1902.

"REV. JANE DOWIE, Overseer of Women’s Work in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the World, Zion City, Illinois.

"My Dear Overseer:—In accordance with the wish of our General Overseer, I write you a brief account of the work done at Shiloh Nursery since it was opened on May 30, 1902.

"We have been with the nurses at the Baby House every Sunday afternoon and during many week-day meetings, gladly caring for hundreds of babies and young children during these times.

"On one Sunday alone we checked 105 little ones, and, during the summer months, seldom cared for less than 50.

"Through June and July, I think that at least 80 little ones came every Lord's Day.

"I am thankful to say that the nurses have gladly come and helped in this work. I am sure God has blessed them and that they have realized that the mothers have not only been relieved physically from the care of their little ones, but that they have also received teaching whereby they may gain wisdom to help them bring up their children for God.

"We have had many parents thank us so heartily, for making it possible for them to attend an entire service without being disturbed.

"We thank God that he has taken special care of the children of strangers, and that mothers who were fearful about their little ones being contented with strange nurses have seldom had to be called from the meetings.

"We give the mothers checks corresponding in number to those pinned on the babies, and, by means of large numbers on cardboard we can easily call the mothers when they are needed, from the place where they sit together in the Tabernacle.

"We check children as old as six years, for they often disturb the meetings more than the tiny babes. They love to come to the Baby House, which is not at all surprising, for the General Overseer has made it so pleasant for us, with such a comfortable house, with its beautiful veranda and nice yard.

"For a few meetings Deacon Sloan kindly lent us cots and furnishings from the Camp Esther storehouse, but as soon as possible we furnished the building with things especially for babies. With linoleum on the floor, cribs, small cots, rocking chairs and hammocks, we are all very comfortable.

"We keep a small stock of playthings with which the children can quietly amuse themselves.

"We also furnish crackers and milk every Sunday.

"Our nurses wear blue uniforms, with white aprons and caps.

"Many strangers have visited us and begged to 'look around.' One man from a neighboring city said: 'Well, this is worth coming to see.'

"Now that the busiest season is over, we hope to organize our work more completely; for, in our experience this summer, we learned many things. We pray God will show us the best way to do this work for Him.

"Personally, I thank Him that He has allowed me to work among the children; for I have always loved them, and they never trouble me or make me nervous with their little ways.

"I enclose a statement of the moneys received and expended in this work; also some questions which we will be glad for you to decide for us.

"Praying that God may bless you abundantly in your work,

I am faithfully yours in the Master’s service,

"M. Mabel Barnard.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Healed of Nervousness and Diphtheria.

150 Bond Street,
Brooklyn, New York, September 29, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:— "Peace to thee.
While an officer in the Salvation Army, I suffered with severe nervous trouble and was often in spasms for hours.

I had opportunity I attended the meetings in Central Zion Tabernacle in Chicago in 1899, and became stronger in faith and received much blessing.

I was not willing to obey God fully, but believed more in the doctrine of the Salvation Army than in the Bible.

Several times I was rebuked for preaching against swine's flesh, secret societies and doctors, but I had to obey God.

I had to get out of the Salvation Army and come to Zion, as Overseer Speicher said I should.
On the 12th of December, 1901, we became members of Zion, and we are very glad of it.

God has often manifested His power in a wonderful way.

On August 29, 1902, I was afflicted by Satan with a severe cold which turned into diphtheria.

The Devil tried his very best to destroy me, but the power of God is just the same today.
Deacon Staley and Brothers Wilson and Yesser prayed for me. Mr. Wilson also sent a telegram to you.

At 9 o'clock I felt much relief from pain, the swelling went gradually away, and in a very short time I was perfectly well.

I did not lose a single day's work.

I wrote to you on Thursday to pray for her.
You said you would pray at 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Dear General Overseer:— "Peace to thee.
We were very glad to receive an answer from you, and thank you for your prayers in our behalf.

Our little girl was not entirely healed of the trouble of which I wrote to you a little more than a week later.

We wondered why she was not healed sooner, as we had most earnestly expected it when we prayed.

We heard that the abscess had burst, and the child was able to go away, and then others would come out.

for the Elder. We prayed often to God in Jesus Name, and about a week ago the boil disappeared.

She now appears quite well, and we do thank God for it.

Very sincerely yours in the Christ,
(Mrs.) Anna Lou.

Family Blessed and Healed Through the General Overseer's Ministry.

Dear Brother in the Christ:— It is with a heart full of gratitude to our Heavenly Father that I write you these few lines.
We have received much to thank God for these last few months.

Our little five-year-old girl was healed of a sore toe.

My husband was healed of a severe cut on the leg. The cut was two inches long and half an inch wide, and no doctor was called to set it up. We left it entirely in the hands of God.

It is completely healed.

Our little three-year-old girl was healed of an abscess on her leg at the groin.

I wrote to you on Thursday to pray for her.
Saturday morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, we sent a telegram to you, as she was in great pain.
You said you would pray at 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

I have been running around playing every day since.

All have been healed in answer to your prayers.
We thank you for praying for us, and give God all the glory.

Your sister in the Christ,
(Mrs.) Joseph Fleury.

H. WORTHINGTON JUDD
Secretary and Manager Zion Land and Investment Association
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS

DANIEL SLOAN, Assistant Manager
There is no doubt that there are hundreds of thousands of people in this and other lands who would become subscribers to Leaves of Healing if they could see the beauty and value of the Little White Dove.

The problem is to get them to see it and to subscribe. It may help you to help us to get that Hundred Thousand, if we give a few suggestions as to the ways and means.

The following are some ways which have succeeded:

- Distribute Sample Copies to all who may become interested (which means every one in reach), calling attention to some of the most interesting points of the paper.
- Follow up the distribution of Sample Copies with a personal solicitation, emphasizing that particular point of the publication which appeals to the person to whom you are talking. Always carry subscription blanks with you.
- Strive to interest people whom you meet as you go about your every-day tasks—the man who sits next to you in the car, the man who stands beside you at the workshop or in the office.
- Follow up those who show a special interest. Invite them to Zion meetings. Make yourself helpful to them in any way that the Spirit leads. Give them other Sample Copies, if necessary. Do not be discouraged too easily.
- Use the mails to assist you in sending out these Sample Copies, and supplement each Sample Copy with a letter. Do not let the paper lie idle. Keep it going; for it is, under God, a mighty power for the Salvation, Healing, Cleansing, and Blessing of those into whose hands it falls.
- Send us the names and addresses of those to whom you cannot afford to send Sample Copies, and then pray God to give His blessing upon the means used to interest those whose names you send us.

Above all, pray daily and definitely that God may give success in attaining the glorious reality of our Watchword

Dear Brother in Christ,—I am a shareholder in the Lace Industries, and also some of the others which are located at Zion City, Illinois. Zion City was founded by my father, and I have always been interested in its growth and development. I have invested all the surplus cash that I can raise in the various enterprises of Zion City, and I consider every one of them a gilt-edged investment. The interest has been promptly paid of any investments I have ever made. My interest has always been paid promptly, and I am well satisfied. Yours sincerely, Your Brother in Christ.

ZION CITY BANK
Zion City, Illinois, May 30, 1902.

Mr. Charles J. Barnard,
General Financial Manager of Zion's Institutions.

Dear Brother in Christ,—I have no doubt that the interest on all my investments therein is being promptly paid, and I consider my investment in Lace Stock safe and profitable. This has proved very satisfactory in a business way. The interest has been promptly paid, and I have always been satisfied. Yours very truly,

RUTH WEAVER DENNIS.
GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

BLOOD QUICKLY CLEANSED OF ECZEMA BY POWER OF GOD IN ANSWER TO PRAYER, WIFE HEALED OF PNEUMONIA.

AND I WILL CLEANSE THEIR BLOOD THAT I HAVE NOT CLEANSED: FOR JEHOVAH DWELLETH IN ZION.

How many thousands, yea, millions, there are, throughout all parts of the earth today, who are suffering from unclean blood!

Nearly every known disease is the result of filth in that life-stream.

Polluted by the sins of generations gone before, polluted still more by their own filthy eating, drinking and living, these multitudes are fairly rotting into their graves and leaving their offspring a heritage of disease and death.

Unless Jehovah shall cleanse the blood that He has not cleansed, the race must miserably perish.

The sorcerers — those who make, sell and administer deadly poisons — who, in every age, have striven to deceive God’s people and to turn them away from Him by their counterfeit of His healing, are now imposing upon suffering humanity their germ theory and their deadly antitoxins.

But the blood of the people cannot be cleansed by adding more dirt and poison to that already polluting it.

God said: “I am Jehovah that healeth thee,” and He has never turned that work over to the physicians; for He said: “I am Jehovah, I change not.”

God said: “In vain dost thou use many medicines,” and He has never said a word favorable to physicians.

God sent His Only Begotten Son to die for humanity and to bear in His body, upon the cross, not only their sins, but their sicknesses and their uncleanness.

That atonement for spirit, soul and body still avails; for God said of His Son: “Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea, and for ever.”

And, praise God, He has sent, in these latter days, the Messenger of His Covenant, to witness against the sorcerers and to proclaim that His Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing is as true today as when He first made it.

From thousands, yea, tens and hundreds of thousands throughout the earth, there comes the mighty volume of the Sweet Redemption Song, the Song of praise and thanksgiving to God for blessings...
LEAVES OF HEALING.

received in accordance with that Covenant.
The Witness whose portrait is printed on the front page of this paper is one of those whose voice is joined in that great chorus.

His blood was filled with the unclean fire of eczema.

Only those who have suffered from this disease know of the almost intolerable burning and itching of the skin it causes.

Only they can tell of the dread persistence of its spread, the obstinacy with which it seems to eat into the very flesh.

Only they can tell all of the uselessness and hopelessness of trying to fight that insidious fire with salves and drugs.

How absurd to attempt to purify the blood by applying a salve to the skin!

How absurd to try to cleanse the blood by taking poisons into the stomach!

And yet, for two years, this Witness was fighting that hopeless battle.

His condition grew steadily worse.

Great sores broke out on many parts of his body.

He spent nearly all that he earned in physicians' fees and drug bills.

The doctors told him that he could be cured only after a long course of treatment and that he would probably never get the taint of that filthy fire out of his blood.

And then, one day, a little Messenger came into his home.

It was silent and beautiful, the Little White Dove.

It bore upon its snowy wings a Message from His Heavenly Father.

It was a Message telling of God's promise to cleanse the blood of those who would trust Him.

It told him that when Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, said to the leper, "I will, be thou made clean," He forever settled the question of God's willingness to cleanse and heal His children.

Simply, briefly and with a ring of truthfulness which makes it impossible to doubt, the Witness tells of how that Message brought hope to him, healing to his wife, who was past human help with that deadly disease, pneumonia, and then the wonderful cleansing of his blood.

Two years have passed, and, in all that time, he has been free from that terrible fire of the blood and skin.

He also tells of the wonderful healing of a dying neighbor.

O weary sufferer, wherever this little Messenger of God may find you, that promise is for you.

God waits only for your fulfilment of His conditions to cleanse your blood of all its defilement and to make you strong and healthy, your blood a stream of pure, vigorous, abounding life.

His conditions are simple: Repent, Believe, Obey.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF G. F. HURST.

ALANSON, MICHIGAN, October 6, 1902.

Dear General Overseer,—With a glad heart and thankful to God through our Lord Jesus Christ, I wish to add my testimony to those of the many thousands who have been healed through the teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING and in answer to your prayer.

For almost two years I suffered from eczema.

I tried salves and other "sure cures," with the result that the disease spread until I had sores on many parts of my body almost as large as my hand.

Then I went to the doctors, who said it was a bad case, and that it would take a long time to cure me, if I ever got it all out of my blood, which was not at all sure.

I was discouraged for I did not then know that God had said: "I will cleanse their blood which I have not cleansed: for Jehovah dwelleth in Zion."

I did all the doctors told me to do and grew worse every day.

One day LEAVES OF HEALING came to my home, with all the promises of the Full Gospel.

At about the same time the Devil afflicted my dear wife with pneumonia.

She became so Ill that we knew that God alone could save her.

I called in an elder or minister of the Presbyterian church, who had given me LEAVES OF HEALING.

We prayed and she got relief.

CHRIST IS ALL AND IN ALL
AND it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Is it thou, thou troubler of Israel?—I Kings 18:17.

THIS meeting between God's Prophet and the wicked King Ahab took place at the end of the three years and six months of famine, when there had fallen upon Israel neither dew nor rain during that time.

Previously to this we are told of a meeting between the Prophet and the King, when Elijah stood before him and said:

As Jehovah, the God of Israel, liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. Their land shall not have fruit, neither shall there be victual in their land. (Deuteronomy 11:13-18.)

Elijah was standing before the king as the witness of God's Covenant with the people concerning the fruitfulness of their land. (Deuteronomy 11:15-18.)

It was because the king and the people had broken this Covenant, and gone into Baal worship that judgments came upon them. We may be quite sure that Elijah had reproved the king and the people for their sins and announced the judgments which were coming upon them. Elijah was prompt to reprove sin wherever he saw it.

When King Ahabiah was sick and sent to Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, for help, God sent word to the king through Elijah, asking him if there was no God in Israel, that he had sent to Baalzebub for help, and telling him that he should therefore die. (2 Kings 1:2-7.)

Elijah even sent his writings forth in those days to reprove the people of sin. We learn later that when King Jehoram led the people into Baal worship as Ahab had done, “There came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet.”

This writing reproved the king for his sins and announced the judgments which would come upon him and the nation for their sins. (2 Chronicles 21:12.)

When the people persistently refused to hear God's Message to them through the prophet, God withdrew, in a measure, His protecting care over them. When God withdrew His protection from them, then the Devil, whom they served, had the power to afflict them.

Should God wholly withdraw His protecting care over an individual, the Devil would at once destroy him.

The history of Job shows these facts. At the close of this drought and famine in Israel, Elijah fearlessly presented himself unto the King who had reached every nation for him in order to kill him. The King said to him when they met: Is it thou, thou troubler of Israel? Elijah answered:

I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah, and thou hast followed Baalim. (1 Kings 18:18.)

Elijah's Messages stirred up the wicked who loved their sins, and they called him a troubler of the nation.

But those who were willing to turn from sin and obey God accepted His Message gladly and were blessed.

While many suffered from the famine, the poor widow, who went and did according to the saying of Elijah, found that her barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail.

While some probably died of starvation, her son was restored to life. In these latter days, when we are nearing the time of the final conflicts between the Christ and Baal, God and the Devil, as to which shall rule this world; in these days when the churches have been ensnared into Baal worship through the Secret Societies, God has again sent His Prophet with His Covenant to the people. Through Elijah God is calling the people to unite in solemn Covenant relations with Him— to obey Him and love and serve Him with all their heart.

Today there comes a writing from Elijah the Prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord.

These writings go forth from Zion to call the people to repentance, for God's judgments are coming upon the world. The time for the final reckoning with the earth approaches, and the command is: "If Jehovah be God, follow Him, but if Baal, then follow him." Reader, Zion asks you to help send this call to the nations.

The letter from Deaconess Bailiff which told us of her three weeks' work.

A native writes from India to our General Overseer:

Dear Dr. Dowey: I am glad to say that LEAVES OF HEALING is being distributed in our city and many are interested in reading the paper. Some have been dismissed from the church just for reading and believing the good news of the paper.

I can assure you that thousands would join Zion if we only had a place here.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"COMFORT ONE ANOTHER! BUILD EACH OTHER UP!"

We are going forward from day to day, obeying both these apostolic injunctions, as God gives us grace and opportunity.

Amid the many toils of the work, it is an increasingly difficult matter to revise and send forth our Restoration Messages; but the Blessing which has so continuously been given to us compensates for the long nights of toil.

We have had a great joy in the hearty cooperation of God's people in Zion during the past week, which has been one of very heavy financial strain.

But every day has brought us Victory through the Faith of God.

We have taken title to another one hundred and seventy (170) Acres of beautiful Land in Zion City Site, and made large payments in connection with Zion Land and Investment Association, Zion Lace Industries and other departments of Zion, amounting in the aggregate to a very large sum.

We give God alone the glory; and we thank our friends who are, by their Investments in Zion, enabling us to go forward.

We have given much attention to the reorganization, or rather to the extension, of our General Financial Department, the able chief of which, Deacon Charles J. Barnard, has done most excellent service.

We shall soon be able to make some very important announcements.

Good news from the World's Harvest Field continues to come every day, for which we give God thanks.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE REV. W. B. KINDLE and Mr. G. A. Corlette, and their wives, have arrived in New York City, and are establishing the offices of our General Zion Agency at 438 Broadway, Room No. 806, where communications from our friends on the Atlantic Coast can now be sent.

Evangelist Kindle has also taken charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in New York City with good results; and we have no doubt that much blessing will follow his attention to both the spiritual and temporal affairs of Zion in the Metropolis.

A larger hall in New York is being looked for, in a more convenient locality, and we hope soon to be able to announce that it has been secured.

WE DESIRE to inform our friends that we shall, God willing, conduct a Special Thanksgiving Service in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, on Thanksgiving Day morning, Thursday, November 27th, at half-past nine o'clock.

It will be a full service, all officers and choir to be robed, and we shall endeavor to arrange for Special Excursion Trains from Chicago.

IT WILL BE our first Thanksgiving Day Gathering since we established our residence here.

IT IS A MOST fitting time for us to review the past, and to give heartfelt Thanksgiving to God, not only for the material bounties with which He has enriched the Nation, but for the Great Things that He has done during the past year for Zion, whereof we are glad.

IT IS ALSO a good time to bring the Whole Tithe and the Offerings “into the Storehouse, that there may be meat” in God’s house, and that we may be able to carry out our purpose in sending forth strong bands of earnest Christian workers, who are now being prepared for China, Japan, South Africa and Europe.

WE HAVE POSTPONED the sending forth of the Oriental company, which is a very large one, until next month.

The needs of South Africa have so grown upon us that we shall probably take more time, and prepare, with the assistance of our Branches in South Africa, for the sending forth of a number of officers with the first Overseer early next year, which will enable us to occupy the field in an efficient manner.

WE ARE ALSO hoping to send forth to various parts of Europe, and especially to Scandinavia, a strong force of Zion Restoration Host next spring.

God is blessing Zion’s workers in many parts of Germany and Austro-Hungary, and we have recently ordained a very able brother and sister, who have come into Zion with a large body of Christians in Budapest.

THE SINNERS in Zion are afraid.

IT IS WELL they should be.

SOME TIME AGO we removed from our fellowship and dismissed from Zion’s employment a member of the Church who had wronged the entire community by making use of the prosperity of Zion City to aid the enemies of Zion in engineering a real estate scheme which could only work harm if successful.

THE PROMPT action which we took at that time entirely destroyed the Schemes of the Conspirators, but the man to whom we referred was very impenitent and rebellious, declaring that he had done no wrong.

THIS COMPELLED us to request him to retire from the City.

He did so, and he returned to his distant home, where he came under deep conviction of sin, made a confession to all, and sought for forgiveness.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

WE GLADLY FORGAVE HIM, and we believe God did, but it was a sin unto death, and he died.

SEVERAL SUCH cases have occurred, and God has defended our city and its interests by leaving the Sinners in Zion to reap the Wages of sin—Death, even while, as in this case, the spiritual guilt was forgiven.

THE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH reports only one case of contagious disease in more than ninety days in Zion City.

Diphtheria and typhoid fever are epidemic in Chicago and several cities in our neighborhood, but God is preserving us all, and the entire people are being greatly blessed.

WE HAVE NOT TIME TO WRITE any more, although we have a thousand things we long to say.

We hope to see thousands of our outside friends on Thanksgiving Day, and also at the Great Gathering which will assemble in Shiloh Tabernacle, at the All-Night with God, at the Closing and Opening of the years 1902-1903.

God will display His Power and Glory as in former years.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

Notice of Removal.

The Offices of the General Recorder and Financial Secretary of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been removed from 1201 Michigan avenue, Chicago, to Temple Cottage, Zion City, Lake County, Illinois. As per instructions of the General Overseer in LEAVES OF HEALING of April 5, 1902, pages 1017 and 1018, all remittances for tithes and offerings, and all reports and correspondence relating thereto, should be addressed to General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Zion City, Illinois. Checks, drafts, express orders and postal money-orders should still be made out in the name of Rev. John Alex. Dowie. Drafts should be drawn upon Chicago, New York, Philadelphia or Boston. Drafts drawn upon other points, and personal checks drawn upon banks outside of Chicago and Zion City, should contain ten cents for exchange. Postoffice money-orders should be drawn upon Zion City, which is now a money-order office. Never send silver through the mails, and never send bills if it is possible to get an order; if not, it is much safer to register the letter containing the bills.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:6-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
THE General Overseer, at Zion's Second Feast of Tabernacles, called for Deaconesses who would volunteer to become Zion Messengers in China or Japan. Many have nobly responded. Some, who are otherwise qualified to go cannot be sent because of their age. At middle age it is very hard to learn a new language.

Others need further education. Some of these would make fine workers after several years in the ministerial course of Zion College. The weapons of our Warfare are not carnal, but spiritual; nevertheless, if one is wholly consecrated to God, the more culture he has, the more training his mind has had, the more ready knowledge he has on tap, the more will he be worth in Zion Restoration Host abroad.

God puts no premium on ignorance. More skill and tact are needed to interest and teach a half-educated Japanese scholar or an African savage than are needed to teach trained university men. Missionary work is hard. A Zion Messenger's work is harder than the hardest.

In the natives alone he finds enough to call out all his powers. The Protestant and Roman Catholic missionaries whom he meets are many of them men and women of much culture and great force of character. They are usually broader and more cosmopolitan than the preachers who have had the more ready knowledge he has on tap, the more will he be worth in Zion Restoration Host abroad.

In the natives alone he finds enough to call out all his powers. The Protestant and Roman Catholic missionaries whom he meets are many of them men and women of much culture and great force of character. They are usually broader and more cosmopolitan than the preachers who have had the more ready knowledge he has on tap, the more will he be worth in Zion Restoration Host abroad.
The first thing which the Apostle Paul did was to put that truth: You are a sinner and you need Jesus, the Christ, the only Saviour, the one Mediator between God and man, the Man Christ Jesus, the who will save unto the uttermost all that come unto God by Him. "No, is that the teaching of the Pope of Rome, Leo XIII?"

No, he says, you are a sinner and you find your way to get rid of your sins is to utter Pater Nosters and say Ave Maria. You must burn your candles, come to confessionals, do penances or whatever the priest tells you to do. You must pray to Mary the Virgin, and to St. John the Baptist. Then you must come and be sprinkled with water in the name of baptism. If it were not done when you were a baby, you must do all that is told you to do. You must believe that the Pope is infallible. If the Pope is infallible, he is infallible, and that is true, and anything else he says to you, for example: drink, pass away the church says it, the pope says it. You must shut your eyes, open your mouth and swallow all that he tells you, or you will be damned. That is Pope Leo XIII, but it is not true. He never tells about all that rubbish, he talks about Jesus, the Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. The Voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day, Nov. 2, 1902.
LAST Lord's Day afternoon was the occasion of the delivery of another blow by the mighty Sword of the Spirit, in the hands of Elijah the Restorer, at that system of darkness and error, Roman Apostasy.

It was one of the blows in that Last Conflict which is now being joined between this and all other Apostasies and the Truth of God, by the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, going forth in the van of the battle and preparing the way for the Restoration of All Things by hewing down and burning up all that is false.

The Message which thrilled the great audience which had gathered in the Chicago Auditorium was a continuation of that of the Lord's Day previous, on the subject: "Unveiling the Apostasies; the Rome of Paul and the Martyrs Contrasted with the Rome of Pope Leo XIII."

There could have been no more powerful and effective way of unveiling the terrible apostasy of the Roman church than by contrast with the majestic, saintly, Christ-like character of its establisher, the Apostle Paul.

Hence, with inspired eloquence, with deep spiritual insight, with marvelous historical knowledge, and with keenest logic, God's Messenger once more took up the character of that mightiest of the apostles of the First Century.

The day was a phenomenal one for the 2d of November, the rain-storms of the morning having passed away, and the sun shining bright and warm from an almost cloudless sky.

Thousands of people came from all parts of the city, many of them having been invited to attend the meeting by the faithful Zion Restorationists, who, throughout the morning, some of the time in the rain, had carried the Christ's Message, "Peace be to this house," to thousands of homes in the city of Chicago, and had delivered announcements of the service.

The Auditorium was well filled, many standing in the broad foyers who did not care to climb the stairs to the seats in the higher galleries.

Five thousand people heard the Message of Elijah the Restorer.

The general assembly was dismissed after nearly all had arisen, in response to the call of God's Messenger, and repeated the Prayer of Repentance and Consecration.

Then about three thousand Christians gathered in the ground floor of the Auditorium to commune with one another and with God, about His Table.

The General Overseer, assisted by Overseer George L. Mason, a large number of Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, administered the Ordinance, which seems each time to grow more precious and blessed as Zion sees the End of the Dispensation approaching.

After the Ordinance, the General Overseer introduced Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Kasch, formerly of Budapest, Hungary; Rev. J. R. Keller, formerly of Martinsburg, Pennsylvania, and Andrew Christian Jensen, Acting General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. It had been his intention to ordain these as Deacons and Deaconesses, but as time would not permit, he presented them to the audience, and announced that they would be ordained privately.

Then in a very few loving words he addressed the audience in his Family Talk which always follows the Communion Service in Zion, and then the meeting closed with the singing of Zion's parting hymn, "God be with you till we meet again!", the Closing Prayer by the General Overseer, the Benediction and Zion's salutation, "Peace to thee," with the response, "Peace to thee be multiplied."

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in His train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in His train.

That martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave;
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save;
Like Him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong.
Who follows in His train?

A noble band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew
And mocked the torch of flame;
They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane,
They bowed their necks the stroke to feel.
Who follows in their train?
A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Throne of God rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed.
They clumb'd the steep ascent of heav'n
Thro' peril, toil and pain;
O God, to us may grace be giv'n
To follow in their train!

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us:
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations.
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRIASE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 44:
Oh, wondrous Name, by prophets heard
Long years before His birth;
The Prince of Peace on earth.

Chorus—The Wonderful! The Counselor!
The Great and Mighty Lord!
The everlasting Prince of Peace!
The King, the Son of God!

RECEITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived of the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, “Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My Commandments.

II. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guilless that taketh His Name in vain.

III. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labof, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy maidservant, nor thy manservant, nor thy ox, nor thy ass, nor any thing that is thine: it is a holy day unto Jehovah thy God: wherfore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy Father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thine neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the Glory of Thy Lord.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an Infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants;
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer read in the Inspired Word of God in the 95th Psalm, and in the 8th chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Romans:

There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Jesus, the Christ.

The Meaning of the Word Christ Is “Anointed One.”

The word “Christ” must always be understood to mean the Messiah, the Anointed One, and properly the definite article should precede it.

It should not be spoken, “Jesus Christ,” as if you were talking about John Jones; but Jesus, the Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah, the Saviour, the Healer, the Wonderful, the Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, the Fullness of the Godhead bodily, The Christ.

The American revisers are correct in that.

For the law of the Spirit of Life in Jesus the Christ made me free from the law of sin and of death.

The Law of Sin Is the Law of Satan.

The Law of Disease is the Law of the Devil.
The Law of Death Is the Law of Satan, and sin, and disease—the inevitable consequence.

Hence we have to remember that it is the Law of the Usurper, Satan, being set aside, destroyed, and set at naught by the Law of the Spirit of Life, the Law of God in Jesus, the Christ.

For the Law of the Spirit of Life in the Christ Is a law. It comes into operation when you obey.

The Life of God is against you while you sin and obey the Devil.

For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

That the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit, the things of the spirit.

The mind of the flesh is death.

All the Mysteries of Secretism Are Connected with Death.

There are skulls, cross-bones, coffins, bogus resurrections of Hiram Abiff, dark rooms, mystery, death, Devil everywhere! With God it is not so.

For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace:

—because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be:

And they that are after the flesh cannot please God.

But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you.

You Have to be a Medium.

You must be a medium either of the Devil or a medium of God.

God made you and me and all men, as He Himself hath declared in His Word, to be a habitation for Himself, a temple for God.

If you will not let God dwell in you, then the Devil comes in, and you become a temple of I do not know how many devils.

In one form or another you have to be a medium; either a medium through whom God will speak, to whom God will speak, or a medium through whom the Devil will speak and work upon humanity.

“Oh, I do not need to be either,” you may say; “I can control myself.”

That is impossible. You are not so built.

You are so built that upon the Throne of the Empire of your Being another must sit; not yourself, and he must be either the Devil or God.

You must choose between being a Saint or a Brute, as old Richard Baxter used to put it. He was right.

But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of the Christ, he is none of His.

You can call yourselves Christians; you can call yourselves Methodists, Presbyterians, or anything you like, but if the Spirit of the Christ does not possess you, you are none of His.

Powerlessness of the Body Without the Spirit.

And if the Christ is in you, the body is dead.

That is, it is completely compelled to obey the spirit.

The body has no power in itself. It is the spirit that sine and drives the body.

The body does not take you into a saloon. It is your mind that takes you there, your spirit when dominated by an evil spirit.

Your body does not take you into a place of shame.

It is your demon-controlled spirit that takes you there.

But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, He that raised up the Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also the body, yea shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

For ye are not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

Did You Ever Cry “Father” and Mean It?

Did you ever cry Father, and expect God to hear?

You mumbled out your prayer, “Father, Father.” Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, be- tense.

What does it mean? Shame! that you never should have realized what Father means.

“Father!” God hears it, and knows when it is truly addressed to Him.

The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God.

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with the Christ; if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified with Him.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to usward.

For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the Revealing of the Sons of God.

For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of Him who subjected it, in hope.

That the Creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the Liberty of the children of God.

For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to the Adoption of the Redemption of our body.

If the Redemption of Jesus the Christ extends only to the spirit, and to the soul, the animal life, and does not extend to the body, then it is not coextensive with the work of the Corrupter and Enslaver, and it is an imperfect Redemption.

But the Apostle Paul makes it perfectly clear that everything has been waiting for this, that the Qalavation of which he says he had only the first-fruits in his day.

Nearly nineteen centuries have passed away since he wrote these words; we are in the Twentieth, and we ought to have something more than First-Fruits.

For by hope were we saved; but hope that is seen is not hope: for who hopeth for that which he seeth?

But hope that is not seen is full of tribulation: and hope that is seen is not hope: but who seeth hope for that which he seeth it not.

For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace.

And they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, He that raised up the Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also the body, yea shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

But if any man hath not the Spirit of the Christ, he is none of His.

And they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

But if ye receive the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

If we know not how to pray as we ought.

But the Prayer-books will help us to grind it out: “Have mercy upon us miserable sinners!”

Is that it?

No. Prayer-books cannot enable you to pray; only God’s Spirit can, and until that time comes all “saying” or “reading” or “singing” of prayers is entirely in vain.

If you do not know how to pray without a praying-machine, the machine will not help you.

The Prayer-book will be no better than the Tibetan Prayer-wheel.

You can go on grinding it out:

“Lord, have mercy upon us miserable sinners, for we have left undone all the things we ought to have done, and done all the things we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us,”

That is a miserable prayer, isn’t it, that you shall tell God Almighty every day that you do not do the things you ought to do, and do the things you ought not to do, and that there is no health in you?

That is a wretched prayer.

If my stenographers and typewriters were to come to me and say “Dr. Dowie, have mercy upon us; we are miserable sinners; we have smashed all the typewriters and spilt all the ink, done all the devilry we could, and there is no health in us,” (laughter) then I should not have them in my office tomorrow. They must find some other employment.

If your cook comes to you and says, “O Mistress, have mercy upon me; I have spoiled all the dinner, smashed all the plates, and have no plates nor any dinner,” how long are you going to keep her?

Is it not a shame that you should grind out that confession over and over again?

If it is true, it is a most miserable confession, but that is not prayer.

If you know how to pray—if you have the Spirit of God helping your weakness—then you can pray, and you will not need a Prayer-book, either, although there are many real prayers in the Bible, and in many books by godly men and women in all the ages, which can help those who have “the Grace of Supplication.”

And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity—

—that is, weakness, asthenia (do-flewta), our want of strength, our poor, weak, imperfect spiritual nature. The Spirit helpeth us in our want of strength.

For we know not how to pray as we ought.

Uselessness of Prayer-books.

But the Prayer-books will help us to grind it out: “Have mercy upon us miserable sinners!”

Is that it?

No. Prayer-books cannot enable you to pray; only God’s Spirit can, and until that time comes all “saying” or “reading” or “singing” of prayers is entirely in vain.

And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit Himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

The Inexpressible Nature of Real Prayer.

Prayer is like the inexpressible cry of a little child who cannot speak, but can only cry until the mother comes, to find out what the trouble is and to put it right.
A Crushing Reply to a Prayer, and the Reward of Humble Faith.

"The prayer, which is the voice of the spirit in the heart and the love for God in the heart, is a prayer of the heart. The heart is what will make a prayer a prayer, and it is what will make a prayer effective.

"The power of prayer is that it can change the heart. When a person prays, they are changing their heart. When they change their heart, they change their actions.

"Prayer is not a luxury, it is a necessity. We need to pray to connect with God, to understand our purpose, and to find our path.

"Now, I understand that some people may feel like prayer is not for them, but I believe that everyone can pray. It doesn't matter if you are religious or not, if you believe in a higher power, you can pray.

"Prayer is a way of connecting with ourselves and others. It is a way of expressing our feelings and asking for guidance.

"So, if you are feeling down, or if you are feeling lost, I encourage you to pray. Pray for guidance, for clarity, for strength.

"And remember, prayer is not just for the religious. Anyone can pray. It is a way of connecting with the divine.

"So, I challenge you to try prayer. Try it for a week, and see how it changes your life.

"I believe in prayer. I believe in its power. I believe in its ability to change the world.

"So, let us pray. Let us connect with the power of prayer. Let us connect with ourselves and each other. Let us change the world.

"So, let us pray.
SCRIPlT READING AND EXPOSITION.

"It does not matter what you think about me," might have been the reply. "One day it will be more important what I think about you, O Imperial Caesar, and your court, and all your power."

Is it not more important today, what Paul thought of Nero than what Nero thought of him?

Is it not more important today to find what Abraham Lincoln thought of the people than what some of the people thought of Abraham Lincoln.

Pray Without Ceasing.

Pray. Pray as if you meant it.

Pray: be you a saint or a sinner, pray, and keep on praying.

If you do not get it, go ahead again, and get the things out of the way that hinder.

Pray without ceasing until you have got it. Whenever you have got it, start praying for another thing.

Keep on. There are many things to pray for, especially in Chicago.

This whole city and nation has to be made over.

And He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that to whom we pray He maketh all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to His purpose.

Some of you would not be here if the Devil had not advertised me.

You are here because the Devil has been abusing me, lying about me.

You came to see the man the papers were all lying about.

You may have said: "I will go and hear what that babbler has to say?"

And now that you have come, you have heard something that you will not get rid of very easily; and so the Devil fooled himself in crying out so bitterly against me. "All things" are overruled for good to me.

For whom He foreknew, He also foreordained to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren: whom He also called, and whom He called, them He also justified: and whom He justified, them He also glorified.

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not also with Him freely give us all things?

God's Greatest Gift Was His Own Son.

Surely there is no material good that He who gave His Son will withhold. He gave His Son. Will He not freely with all things?

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's Elect, of God's chosen?

Who are you, O child of the Devil, who will lay anything to the charge of a man, chosen by God, who is doing God's work?

Who are you?

What does matter what you think?

It only matters what God thinks. That is the only thing that matters in this Universe.

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's Elect? It is God that justifieth; Who is he that shall condemn? It is Jesus, the Christ, who died: yea, rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the Love of God, which justifieth; offered by the General Overseer.

Nay, in all these things we are More than Conquerors through Him that loved us.

It is Jesus, the Christ, that died; yea, rather, that was raised from the dead, who is the Lord, and the Father thereof.

Ye are of your father the Devil, and die lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

Jesus said that. That is about as strong as you can get it.

If any of you tell lies, you belong to the Devil. Jesus, the Christ, says so.

If you write lies you belong to the Devil.

There is no difficulty, therefore, in telling where wilful fabricators belong, whether they write in the War Cry or the Chicago newspapers.

May God help you to speak the truth and do what is right. Our Evangelist in London took up this thing without my knowing it, and wrote to the London Morning Leader. He wrote to Bramwell Booth, and received the very shameful answer which you see.

I would rather not have this trouble.

Probable Cause of Salvation Army Hostility to Zion.

If you think about you, O Imperial Caesar, and your court, and all your power, and think about you, O Lord, and all your power.

I have now demanded of the General that he shall take it back.

It is a shameful lie, that I was once connected with the Salvation Army in Australia, and that the circumstances under which I left are known to a great many.

I never at any time had any connection with the Salvation Army, in any place, in any country, except to be kind to them, and to give them money, and give them help.

I had no official relation, or any connection with them of any kind.

They have reiterated that lie over and over again, and now that General Booth will be here in the adjoining building, the Studebaker, on the 16th day of November, I demand a retraction.

If I do not get it, I may deal with him further, and say a good many other things which it is, probably, time to say.

I will have up his son, Bramwell Booth, and Commissioner Ruben before the Tribunal of Christian Truth and Justice, and let the whole world see what manner of men these are who have been telling shocking falsehoods, not only concerning myself but others.

God cannot bless an institution whose leaders deliberately lie.

My charge against them is falsehood. The proof of it all is here in this correspondence which I published.

I want to say that

There Was No Quarrel Between Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Clibborn and Myself.

I asked them to withdraw.

They did so.

They were my guests before they withdrew. They were my guests after they withdrew, and they visited me at Zion City before they left Zion Hospice No. 1 in Chicago, for Europe.

I desire not to say or write any words concerning them that are not kind and pleasant. Of course I did not agree with the policy they had pursued and were pursuing, or I would not have asked them to retire; and I hold myself free to tell all the facts should the interests of Zion demand it.

The Salvation Army is a shadow of its former self. God cannot bless it.

God can bless no man and no institution that trifes with truth.

When any one tells a lie, he belongs to the Devil, who is the Father of Lies.

Jesus said:

Probable Cause of Salvation Army Hostility to Zion.
INVOCATION.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus come. (Amen.)

I have one ex-Brigadier-general sitting on the platform among my Elders
I have captains, majors and other officers and members of the Salvation Army in all parts of this house and in the Christian Catholic church in Zion on every continent.
Probably that is the trouble; for this may be the beginning of a landslide from the Salvation Army. However, telling lies will not stop it.
I give this piece of news in the most public manner possible, because, if I have to do this work, I will do it thoroughly.
If General Booth apologizes and withdraws, I shall be very happy indeed to say "Forgiven," and let the matter pass.
If he does not—well, there will be more of it.
But I hope he will do that which is honest and right in the matter and prove himself to be incapable of doing me a wilful injustice, or of allowing it in his own chief of staff, or commissioners.
After the tithes and offerings had been received the General Overseer delivered the following address:

UNVEILING THE APOSTASIES: THE ROME OF PAUL AND THE MARTYRS, AND THE ROME OF LEO XIII.

The Fruit which will be a Blessing when Ripened is a Curse when Green.
No matter how precocious or how apparently clever the children may be, you are shamefully injuring him, or her, by allowing them to preach.
Humility at large is sustaining a still greater injury than the child.
The fruit which will be a blessing when ripened is a curse when plucked green.
If you eat green fruit, you will likely die of colic or cholera, no matter how good the tree may be.

The Brother of Jesus.
James, the brother of our Lord, did not believe in the Lord while He was alive; because it is written in the Gospels expressly: "Even His brethren did not believe on Him."
He had four brothers—James, Joses, Simon and Jude—and several sisters.
The Roman Catholic church keeps that back, and many pretend that Mary had no other children besides Jesus. The names of those brothers are recorded in the 6th chapter of Mark, 3d verse, and the statement is made that there were three sisters in addition.

The hardest thing a man can do is to unlearn that which he has learned, and which he ought not to have learned.
When, in the University of the Theological Seminary, you have accepted a load of diabolical lies, and a mass of accumulated ignorance which men call Theological Knowledge, it is a very hard thing to get rid of it.
But when men become Christians indeed, they have to get rid of it.
When Saul, the Rabbi, became a Christian he had not only to get rid of a great deal of accumulated ignorance which he thought was knowledge, but he had to get into communion with God and prepare for his life's work, beginning "as a little child."
A great many Christian youths who are sent out to preach, to teach, to have the care of immortal spirits, who begin by being accounted divine prodigies, end by being concealed, ignorant and monumental failures.
To have been a member of the Sanhedrin, or a Rabbi, Paul must have been over thirty years of age.
He must also have been a married man.
After his conversion in Damascus he said he went into Arabia, and, after three years, he came up by way of Damascus to Jerusalem.
Three years' silence—three years' communion with God in Arabia, not talking but getting ready to talk.

Too Many People Talk Without Getting Ready to Talk.
You are not ready to talk when you have taken aboard a load of theology. That is the thing to close you—a perfect closure.
A great theologian of today reminds me of King James II. in full armor.
When clad in his heavy mail and carrying a great, heavy, steel spear, and unable get on his horse without being lifted, he looked at himself and at his horse, and said: "I feel like a fool. I am in full armor; I can hurt nobody and nobody can hurt me."
It is even worse with a man who is a mass of cast-iron theology; he does hurt people, and he hurts himself.
Saul went away into the desert, and communed with God.
He communed with God through Jesus, the Christ, who had met him on the way to Damascus.
He communed with God in the power of the Spirit, and when he came to preach he could do it because he had been in communion with God.
The Need and Value of Quiet Communion with God.
It is probable that he met mighty men in the desert, some of whom may have been disciples of John the Baptist.
Maybe he met men, like the Esseniens, who had retired into the deserts to commune with God.
There were many who did so; and I do not know why they should not have a right to do it after they had finished their life's work.
I think I, too, would like to get away sometimes.
Only I see the twilight fast approaching,
And have not completed half my task;
And so, at times, the thought of my shortcomings in this life Falls like a shadow on the life to come, and I feel I must work while it is day.
Paul was a comparatively young man when he went into Arabia, possibly twenty years younger than I.
Passing through Damascus three years later, he came to Jerusalem, but the greater part of the Christians did not want to take any knowledge of him.
They doubted him; he had been such a persecutor.
He saw dear old Peter at Jerusalem, and another apostle who had not been an apostle while Jesus was alive. He was now the Apostle James.

The Blunder of Beginning to Preach When Too Young.
One of the greatest blunders which can be committed in the Church of God is to set a boy or a girl to preaching.
No matter how precocious or how apparently clever the children may be, you are shamefully injuring him, or her, by allowing them to preach.
Humility at large is sustaining a still greater injury than the child.

The Broth—
The Apostolic Office continued as man after man died, for some little time. The discontinuance of the Apostolic Office has been the cause of the disruption of the Church, because the only visible and Divinely ordained human authority that there is in the Church is Apostolic Authority. The Church is built in perpetuity upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus the Christ Himself being the Chief Corner-stone. The Apostolic Office must be restored to the Church. God will restore it.

May He do so just as soon as is right.

When Paul the rat-up of Jerusalem, James, the brother of our Lord, and Peter, saw him and were kind to him. The others did not want to see much of him, so he had to leave the Judaizing Christians and go away and preach the Gospel in various places amongst the heathen nations.

The Separation of Paul as an Apostle.

He seems to have gone to Antioch, where he is found and named amongst the prophets and teachers there.

The Ordre of Office in the Church.

The Divine Order of the Offices in the Church is set forth in 1 Corinthians 12:28:

And God hath set some in the Church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, fourthly miracles, then healings, helps, governments, divers kind of tongues.

Paul was not found in the first office of the Church at that time, but in the ranks of the second and third.

He was a prophet and a teacher. If you read that chapter closely, you will see that Barnabas also was a prophet and teacher. He was probably the young ruler who was very rich, and refused to obey the Lord until after He was risen from the dead, when he sold all that he had.

He was a very rich man. He became a Christian, changing his name from Joses to Barnabas, which means "Son of Con- tulion." There were others, as you will see in the 13th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. It says: Now there were at Antioch in the Church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger. Niger meant a black man no doubt—what is called in contempt a "negro." Thank God for the Negro Race; it is a great race, and has a great future. This Symeon was probably a black man. Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. These five were praying when the Holy Spirit told them to separate Barnabas and Saul for the ministry to which He had called them. From that moment they became apostles. God called them to the Apostleship to fill up some vacancies in the twelve.

I do not know who they were. It may have been James, the brother of John, who was killed shortly before that time, although perhaps James, the brother of our Lord, took his place before.

It cannot be stated with certainty whose places Barnabas and Saul supplied. It is probable that James, the brother of John, was slain by Herod, about the year forty-two or forty-three. The Ordination of Saul and Barnabas must have been in forty-four or forty-five, or thereabouts.

Paul not Made an Apostle until Ten Years after His Conversion.

It was at least ten years, probably eleven, after the conversion of Saul that he became an apostle. Some of you think he became an apostle right away. He did no such thing.

He went into the desert, and did not talk for three years, but held his tongue in all the languages he knew. Then he occupied a very humble position as a teacher in the Church at Antioch, then as a prophet, quietly pursuing his work.

God called Barnabas and him at the same time, and made them Apostles.

The Continuity of the Apostolic Office.

This fact proves the continuity of the Apostolic Office. If the Apostolic Office is not continued, then Matthias, Paul, Barnabas, James the brother of our Lord, Apollos, Epaphroditus, Andronicus and Junias at Rome were not apostles.

Paul says that Andronicus and Junias were "of note among the apostles." If I say a man is of note among the fishermen, among the ministers, or among the politicians, I certainly mean he is a politician, or a minister, or a fisherman.

Andronicus and Junias the Probable Founders of the Church at Rome.

I am strongly inclined to believe that the Church at Rome was not founded by Paul, nor by Peter, but by two apostles, Andronicus and Junias, of whom Paul speaks in the 16th chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, and 7th verse. He sent to the Church at Rome a very wonderful letter by the Deaconess Phoebe, of Cenchrea, a Port on the Isthmus of Corinth.

He says in the salutation of the 16th chapter:

Salute Andronicus and Junias.

Who are they? "My kinsmen." What else? "My fellow-prisoners." What else? "Who are of note among the apostles." What else? "Who also have been in the Christ before me."

These two men were apostles; they were Christians before Paul was a Christian. They had suffered for the Christ; they had been Paul's fellow-prisoners; they were his kinsmen, and he knew them well.

They were of note among the apostles; and I hold that we have good reason to think that the Church at Rome was founded, established and maintained by these two apostles, Andronicus and Junias. That is my conviction.

Proofs of Pre-Pauline Existence of Church at Rome.

It certainly did not take its origin from Paul, because he writes to it as being a Church in full order and in full vigor. There were large numbers of persons in it, some of them belonging to the household of Narcissus, who, as we know by secular history, was the Freedman of Claudius, the Roman Emperor, and was executed by Nero—possibly because he was a Christian.

He speaks of some in Caesar's household.

He mentions other households among them being that of Aristobulus.

Peter Not the Founder of the Roman Church.

He never established that Church, nor did Peter establish it. It is more than doubtful whether Peter was ever in Rome at all.

There is not a fragment of historic certainty about Peter's having been in Rome at all, and not a word on the subject in the New Testament. It is never heard of in Church history until the last quarter of the second century.

Why would Peter go to Rome? Peter was the apostle of the circumcision. He was the apostle of the Jews.

Why should he go to Rome? It was not his sphere of influence.

He had plenty to do among the Jews in Palestine, and in parts nearer home where they were found in large numbers. He wrote two epistles, one when he was probably sixty and the other when he was sixty-six years old, and in neither of them does he mention Rome. But he does say, in the first epistle, that he writes from Babylon, and he sends salutations to Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia. If by Babylon he meant Rome, as some allege, then why did he make no mention of the great Church which was there at that time?

Paul was the Apostle of the Nations, yet he never founded...

the Church at Rome, and Peter makes no claim to having done so.

The Church at Rome Was Founded on the Day of Pentecost.

Any one who looks at the story will see that.

Among those who rejoiced in the Pentecostal blessings were those from Rome, as well as "out of every nation under heaven."

I believe it was from Jerusalem, at Pentecost, that men like Andronicus and Junias went to Rome and established the Gospel in the highest and lowest places.

That Church was a vigorous one when Paul wrote to it.

I now venture the suggestion, which has never been ventured anywhere else, that Andronicus and Junias were principally responsible for the founding of the Church at Rome.

They were men he knew well, and may have been among the men associated with the rulers of the Jews and with the Roman Procurator; for Pilate's wife was probably a Christian, as was shown by her demand that Pilate should do no harm to her Lord and Master, "That Just Man," as she called him. Perhaps Andronicus or Junias or some one of the Roman soldiers of "Cesar's household" was the Centurion who cried: "Truly this was the Son of God."

It may have been in the agonies of the Crucifixion and in the glories of the Resurrection that the Power was given to the "strangers from Rome" to found the Church at Rome.

I say as one who has studied this question: It is clear that neither Paul nor Peter founded that Church.

Who founded it?

Andronicus and Junias more than any others would likely be the founders of that Church.

For ten years Paul takes a lowly station, and then becomes an Apostle.

The Result of Paul's Rise to the Apostleship.

He does not rise in the opinion of humanity by becoming an apostle. In fact, he changed his name from Saulos, the name of a great king of Israel, to Paulos, meaning little.

His name was changed from the time he suffered the loss of all things and counted them but dung that he might win the Christ.

He stood forth as an Apostle.

He had the Seals of an Apostle, the Marks of an Apostle, and the Power of an Apostle.

I dare say that there were some people in those days who did not recognize his Apostolic Authority.

They thought that the Lord Jesus the Christ had twelve Apostles, and never would have any more.

That is what some of you think now.

The Apostolic Office Perpetual.

How could that be true when Paul was an Apostle? More than that, there was an Apostle elected on the day of Pentecost.

His name was Matthias.

God approved of the election by sending the Holy Spirit immediately after Matthias was elected.

Matthias came first.

James, the brother of our Lord, came next.

Barnabas and Saul, who afterwards became Paul, came next.

They make four more Apostles, and you talk about there being only twelve. Apollos, Jude, Epaphroditus, Andronicus and Junias would make nine who had taken the places of nine who had passed away in New Testament times.

There were only twelve at one time, but as they died their places were filled up.

Until these apostolic places are filled up, and a Church is formed which has Real Living Apostles, there will be no real Authority in the Holy Catholic Church, which embraces every regenerated Believer in every part of the world.

May God give us an Apostle Church. (Amen.)

That is what we are looking for in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We will never be content until God gives us Twelve Apostles.

There is no use in our electing Apostles if God does not call them and manifestly qualify them.

We cannot create them. They are God's own creation, in the Christ, by the Holy Spirit.

Paul goes forth, after his ordination as an Apostle, and gets into trouble with the Apostate Jews and the world, flesh and Devil, in every form, the first thing.

Stirring Character of the Apostolic Mission.

One of the Signs of an Apostle is that he makes a terrific row every place he goes.

You hear that?

He stirs up things.

Did not the Holy Spirit witness in this matter to Paul?

Did he not say distinctly: "The Holy Spirit testifieth unto me in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me?"?

He was willing to be bound and to die for the Christ.

There was such a row in Jerusalem that it took a whole regiment of soldiers to keep the peace and take care of Paul.

His enemies made such a fuss about it that on one occasion more than forty men swore an oath that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed him.

I think their stomachs got the better of their vows, because they could not kill him, and there is no statement that they died of starvation. (Laughter.)

He went to no place where there was not trouble.

Why?

Hypocrites Hate Those Who Know Their Sins.

In the first place, the Jews were everywhere.

The Jews hated Paul because he had been a trusted Rabbi, and had known all about them.

In the same way some of you miserable Freemasons hate some members of my Church because they have broken their bad vows and have given you away.

They have told the whole nasty business of your Mah-hab-bone rubbish, and of your sham resurrection of Hiram Abiff on the five points of fellowship by a sham King Solomon.

They have told of your shameful mockery of the resurrection of Jesus, the Christ, your suppression of the Name of Jesus, the Christ, in your ritual, and your cutting out His Name wherever it should occur in your quotations from the Bible.

We know all about you, because we have men in our Church who have taken every degree up to the Thirty-third Degree of Foolery! (Laughter.)

I can tell you more about Masonry than some of you know, even you who have been Masons a long time—so at least ex-Masons have told me.

Paul was a Rabbi.

There was nothing about the Sanhedrin which he did not know.

There was no crookedness of the High Priests which he was not up to, or no learning which he did not possess.

He was not only a Rabbi, but he was a Roman citizen, which gave him a tremendous prestige.

He was a born citizen of Tarsus, and had the rights of a citizen of the City of Rome.

Paul filled a large place in the world although he was a little man.

After he became an Apostle he got into trouble all the time.

The Jews persecuted him.

They hated him.

He had broken away from Moses.

He had found Jesus, of whom Moses and the prophets spoke.

They hated him because he acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah.

Paul's Ground for Belief on Jesus the Christ.

He had a right to.

Had he not been met in the way by Jesus? Had not Jesus spoken to him? .

Had not that Shekinah Light shone upon him? Had he not been blind, and had not Jesus given him sight? When a man has been praying three days and three nights and has eaten nothing and he hears a voice say: "Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou comed, hith sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight," and in the Name of Jesus he receives it, that man is apt to believe.

He believed. He believed before he received his sight, for he said: "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?"

The Lord told him to go away and be silent.

He did not say how many days. He only said: "Rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

He went into Damascus, and lived in a street called Straight!

That is a good street to get into.

Some of you live in Crooked Street.

Paul lived in Straight Street, in the house of Judas. There he received the blessing.

You could not have made Paul doubt.

A man whom God has met in the way and rebuked for his sin, who has become blind, and received his sight in the Name of Jesus, whose spirit, soul and body has been set free from the power of the Evil One by God, you cannot make to disbelieve.

There are those here in this place today from whom you cannot tear the faith of our Lord Jesus the Christ, with burning tongues.

Thousands Testify to Healing and Saving Power of the Christ.

All who have been Saved and Healed through Faith in Jesus, stand. (Many thousands arise at a moment in the General Overseer's call. It was a most impressive sight.)

You infidels and you miserable apostates, look at that body of thousands of people. These are like Paul, God's Witnesses to Salvation and Healing in Chicago of almost every kind of sickness and disease.

Did God save you? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—Did God heal you? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—Were you healed by any man? Witnesses—"No.

General Overseer—Were you healed by the Power of God through Faith in Jesus? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—And do you witness to Him alone? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—That He saved you and healed you? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—You will stand for that, will you? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—Live for that? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—And die for that, if need be? Witnesses—"Yes.

General Overseer—Let that miserable Daily News take note of that.

And did you pay anything for your healing? Witnesses—"No.

General Overseer—Did I charge you? Witnesses—"No.

General Overseer—Do you know any one who ever paid anything to me for his healing? Witnesses—"No.

General Overseer—That lie has been nailed long ago. But the Devil occasionally digs it up from its grave, and vainly tries to reanimate it; but it is as dead as Hiram Abiff, and no Solomon can resurrect it.

Now, you who are vastly in the minority in this Auditorium can see that we have thousands upon thousands here whom God has saved and healed.

Paul witnessed because God told him he was to be a Witness.

The Word Witness Means Martyr.

A martyr is a witness for God. It does not matter whether he dies for his witness or not. He is a martyr.

The original word for martyr, simply means Witness.

God told Saul when He appointed him and made him an Apostle that he was to be His Witness unto All Men of what He had "seen and heard."

He has glorified His mission, and for the greater part of two thousand years he has enjoyed the bliss, though "absent from the body," of being "present with the Lord."

To what did he witness?

Paul Kept Very Close to the Teaching of the Christ.

There is one thing about Paul to which I would like to call your attention. While all the Apostles kept close to the teachings of Jesus, the Christ, Paul kept closer than any of the others.

The truth of the Lord's own statement as to what the Holy Spirit would do when He came to this earth was proved in Paul's life.

Jesus said:

When He is come He will convict the world in respect of Sin, and of Righteousness, and of Judgment.

The great thing in Paul's ministry is that he at once began to teach Repentance for Sin and Salvation through faith in Jesus, the Christ, the Righteous One.

He said to those to whom he preached: "You are sinners. I was a sinner. Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Jesus, the Christ, came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief."

All have sinned and come short of the glory of God, and you are all damned; you are self-condemned sinners, and there is no way out of it but for a Messiah, a Sinless One, to come and suffer for you—a Christ to die for our sins, according to the Scriptures."

The Alpha and Omega of Paul's teaching was that Jesus, the Christ, is the sinner's only Saviour, the "one Mediator also between God and men, himself Man, the Christ Jesus," who will save "to the uttermost" all that come unto God by Him.

The Teaching of Leo XIII. Contrasted with Paul's.

Now is the teaching of the Pope of Rome, Leo XIII? No. He says: "You are a sinner and the way for you to get rid of your sins is to utter Pater Nosters and say Ave Marias."

"You must burn your candles, come to confessional, do penances, or whatever the priest tells you to do."

"You must pray to Mary, the Virgin, and to All Saints.

"Then you must come and be sprinkled with water on the nose in baptism, if it was not done when you were a baby."

"You must do all that I tell you to do, no matter that it has not a word of Holy Scripture, or good sense, to support it: for I say it, and my church says it—though that no longer matters, since I am infallible, and am therefore equal to God!"

"You must believe that the bit of wet flour and water that we stamp and hocus-pocus with our talk is God Almighty; you have to swallow that and any other lie we like to tell you."

"If we say that the pope is infallible, he is infallible."

"If we tell you that Mary was born immaculate, that is true, and anything else we like to tell you, for ecclesia dixit, papa dixit, the church says it, the pope says it."

"You must shut your eyes, open your mouth and swallow all we tell you. If you do not do that you are damned."

THAT IS POPE LEO XIII, BUT THAT IS NOT PAUL.

Paul never talks about a compulsory priestly Confessional.

He never talks about Penances.

He never talks about Ave Marias.

He never talks about Pater Nosters.

He never talks about indulgences.

He never talks about Scapulians and Rosaries, and Holy Water and Relics of Saints.

He never talks about all that rubbish. He talks about Jesus, the Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever.

He teaches that the Holy Spirit helps him to convict the sinner. He is not afraid anywhere.

He tells Festus, the Roman Procurator, that he is a sinner.

He reasons of righteousness, temperance and judgment to come until that procurator trembles, until Agrippa, the king, says: "Almost persuaded thou me to be a Christian."

He is afraid nowhere.

Is that the Pope?

Cowardly Behavior of Pope Leo XIII.

The miserable old Pope keeps inside the Vatican, and tells you he is a prisoner, which is a lie. He could walk out any day he liked.

He could preach in any Church in Rome if he liked.

He could preach anywhere in Italy if he liked.

He could make a trip to America; and if you saw him you might not think as much of the old fox. (Laughter.)

He never likes to have anything taken of him, because he looks so much like a wolf—and he is like one.

Leo XIII., a Man of Splendid Learning and Power, Cannot Believe His Own Teaching.

I do not for one moment imagine that Joachim Pecchi, late Archbishop of Perugia, and now Pope Leo XIII, is an ignorant man.
He is a man of splendid power. He is a man of remarkable talent. He is a man who has kept under his body, and brought it into subjection for the purposes of the Church. He has been a splendid devotee of Rome. He is now.

When he says that a piece of bread becomes God Almighty when he consecrates it, he does not believe it: for reason, however fallen, utterly repudiates the possibility; and the Christ never taught it: for when He instituted the Ordinance He wore His flesh and blood, went with His body to Calvary, re-ascended to heaven in that body after His resurrection, wears that bloodless but glorified body in heaven now, and will soon return in that body to reign at Jerusalem.

These are the facts and promises set forth in the Holy Scriptures. He does not believe that he can transform any bread into God Almighty, into Jesus', the Christ's, body, blood and bones. When he says that he is an infallible being, he knows he lies, because he is not. There is no man living who can believe it.

When did he become infallible? Was he infallible when he was a priest? No. Was he infallible when he was a Bishop? No. Was he infallible when he was an Archbishop? No. Was he infallible when he was a Cardinal? No. When did he become infallible?

No One of Sense Can Believe the Infallibility Dogma.

Can any one of sense believe it?

You cannot get any man in the world of sound sense to believe that a man can become infallible by a caucus of Cardinals making him Pope. I would as soon believe you could turn a woman into a man by getting ten men to say so.

You cannot get it by twenty or five hundred saying so.

You cannot turn a donkey into a race-horse! (Laughter.)

You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. (Laughter.)

You cannot take a fallible priest and make an infallible pope. There is no reason, there is no sense, there is no Scripture in it. Where is the Scripture for it?

Paul Did Not Claim Infallibility.

When did Paul claim infallibility? He was not less than the greatest of all the apostles, and when did he claim infallibility? He never claimed it.

He said: "If any man think otherwise the Lord reveal even this unto him."

Several times in his letters, he said, in effect: "I am not quite such as this. I say this by permission and not by commandment."

On one occasion he wrote: "For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away."

Paul never claimed infallibility.

Peter Did Not Claim Infallibility.

The Pope says he is Peter's successor. What a ridiculous kind of infallibility Peter had!

Twenty-five years after Pentecost, Paul had to lay Peter upon the anvil and hammer him out, just as I have to hammer out some naughty people.

General Booth will have to be hammered out yet. I fear, upon Zion's anvil, where a good many have been hammered out before him.

When Peter came to Antioch, twenty-five years after Pentecost, dear old Peter came to see Paul.

Paul had been an Apostle by that time from ten to fourteen years.

He came up to Antioch to see Paul, to rejoice with him over the mighty works that had been wrought through him.

Dear old fellow was Peter, grand old man, glorious old man, but an awful bangler. If there was any chance to make a mess of it Peter would be sure to do it. (Laughter.)

Peter's Capacity for Blundering.

He was always getting into trouble with Jesus while He lived. On that Mount of Transfiguration, when He saw Jesus, and Moses, and Elijah he did not know what to say. Instead of being quiet he blurted out something like this:

"Let us build three tabernacles: one for Moses, and one for Elijah, and one for You, and we will have a fine show upon the top of this mountain."

Instead of being quiet he blurted out something like this: "Let us build three tabernacles: one for Moses, and one for Elijah, and one for You, and we will have a fine show upon the top of this mountain, I will go and bring all the people to see the Spectacle, and then they will believe."

There are some people who would like to make a peep-show of Jesus, the Christ, of Elijah and of Moses; and they do make a Spectacle of the Pope.

You cannot do that with Paul and you cannot do it with me.

The Christ and Moses and Elijah have God's business to do; they are not a peep-show. I do not feel like a peep-show, anyhow.

People who come here from curiosity to have a peep at me in this Auditorium do not find me a freak in a Dime Museum: for God begins to unveil their heart, and reach their conscience, and they have to take away in their memories many things that do not please them.

When Peter came to Antioch, Paul withheld him to the face, after a day or two.

Peter's Good Appetite.

When the Apostolic Conference of the Church at Antioch had begun Peter was Paul's guest.

Peter was on hand, I suppose, at breakfast, lunch and supper.

Good appetite had Peter! He was always ready to eat. There are many indications of that.

Every fisherman who has lived out in the open air and spent most of his time fishing has a good appetite.

No doubt he liked the Lord, when, after the Resurrection, He looked out at him on the dim grey of that early morning at the Sea of Galilee, and told him to cast the net down on one right side, and he caught a great draught of fish.

When He came to shore Jesus said: "Children, have ye any meat?"

They had nothing ready.

He appreciated the Lord's kindness in having lit a fire, and having some fish broiled and some honeycomb. The Lord is very good to us. He provides us fish and honey, but some of you are not content with God's good gifts and you take them to the Devil's Still and Brewery and change them into Whisky, Liquid Fire and Distilled Damnation, and Satan's Consuming Fire, Tobacco! You dirty dogs!

The Controversy Between Paul and Peter.

Probably these Apostles had a very good time.

But after a while, one morning, there came a number of Christians from the Apostle James at Jerusalem, and the next morning Peter was missing from breakfast.

Paul said: "Where is Peter?"

Oh, he has gone down the street to have breakfast with those Christians who have come from the Apostle James at Jerusalem. He knows them well."

"That's all right." After conference, at lunch, Paul said: "I say, where is Peter?"

"Oh, he has just gone down to the same place." "That's all right."

Then supper comes—"I say, where is Peter?"

"Oh, he is eating with those Christians who have come from James."

"Aha! What is the matter?"

"Well, the fact of the matter is," says Barnabas, a little hesitatingly, "you must not be too hard upon Peter. Don't you get into a row with Peter; Peter is all right. Paul, Paul, take care!"

"What is the matter, Barnabas? What is the matter?"

"Promise me, if I tell you, that you will not go for Peter."

"I will do no such thing. I once went for you when you were wrong, when you wanted to take Mark, your sister's son, with you. Did not I tell you, Barnabas, I would not have him? He had gone back upon us at Paphosphia. He was not the kind of a man to take and I took Silas."

"Barnabas, if there is any crooked business, I am going for you, and I am going for Peter. I am going for the whole outfit. William Booth and all! (Applause and laughter.) Barnabas had to own up. He said: "I do not know whether I do not feel that way myself."

"What is the matter?"

"Well, he does not think that circumcision is necessary..."
ought to eat with uncircumcised Gentile Christians. I am beginning to think that way myself."

Paul's Rebeck to Peter.

There was a to-do! Paul withstood Peter, saying: "You do not walk uprightly according to the truth of the Gospel. You have carried away even Barnabas with your dissimulation.

"Peter, you are wrong.

"I am as much a Jew as you; I am as much a Jew as Barnabas; but if we are Jews we are to compel Gentiles to live as do the Jews, why, what then? Where is the Christ? Circumcision, an outward Ordinance in the flesh, takes the place, then, of Baptism, and of the work of the Holy Spirit, who gives Repentance, Faith, Obedience and Regeneration.

"Circumcision availeth nothing. It is a New Creature that we want. Barnabas and Peter, it is a New Creation by the Holy Spirit that our Lord demands.

"Peter, you will have to back down.

"Barnabas, you will have to back down. I blame you before all the Church."

They backed down. He made them back down. His logic was irresistible; that the Christ had swept away circumcision, and every other Ordinance of that kind.

Peter had to be straightened out twenty-five years after Pentecost.

I say, Mr. Roman Catholic Priest, where is Peter's infallibility?

Paul did not take any stock in it.

And you, Leo XIII., the successor of Peter? I believe you are, like Peter at Antioch, guilty of Shameful Dissimulation and worse.

The Pope the True Successor of Judas Iscariot.

Still, I believe in the apostolic succession of Pope Leo XIII.

I believe that he is the direct lineal successor of Judas Iscariot, who sold his Master for money, and betrayed Him with a kiss!

That is all I can see in Rome—a betrayal of the Lord.

I stand here and I say today: "Pope Leo XIII., why do you not go out and preach the Everlasting Gospel?"

"Why do you not say to men: 'You are a sinner and God sent His Son to die for you, according to the Scripture, and you have to repent and be baptized by Triune Immersion."

"You know, Pope Leo XIII., that even the first seven Ecumenical Councils of the Undivided Church.

Anathema Pronounced Against Leo XIII. for Preaching Another Gospel.

You have failed. You are not preaching the Gospel, Leo XIII.

You have another Gospel; and Paul said:

"Barnabas, you be there tonight. We will have it out."

He got into prison nearly everywhere.

He was in trouble all the time; and, last of all, he got to Rome. He had wanted to get there for many years. He got there in a convict ship. He got there a prisoner, and he abode two years in his own hired house, chained to a soldier.

He preached to all who came, and he established that Church, which, as I think, had been founded by the agency of Andronicus and Junias.

But why a difference there is between the Pope and Paul who established that Church! Paul, who was the friend of Andronicus and Junias; Paul who loved and knew all these people; Paul who was rejected by the Jews of Rome, and who turned to the Gentiles; Paul who at the end said:

I am already being offered, and the time of my departure is come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith, whereas there is laid up for me the crown of Righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give to me at that day: and not only to me, but also to all them that love His appearing.

O Timothy, guard which is committed unto thee.

The Glorious Finish of Paul's Fight.

He bowed his head; he died an obscure death.

Perhaps he was wrapped in oil and tarred and burned to death by Nero.

Perhaps he was thrown to the wild beasts.

Perhaps he was beheaded, as an old legend says.

But he died in obscurity, so poor that he had to tell Timothy to go and get an old coat, because it was going to get cold.

The winter was coming.

He asked him to bring the parchments that he might write some more before he died.

"Timothy," he wrote, "come quickly or you will not see me at all.

I am already being offered up.

"Come quickly, Timothy—the Crown! The Crown!" and he passes away.

Tell me, how much like this is the Pope at Rome? What risk does he take?

I will take this up and finish it next week.

I have a good deal to say regarding the Roman Cura.

Rome is Anti-American.

I have to tell you that Archbishop Ireland and Cardinal Gibbons, and the new Archbishops, whoever they are, or will be, and the Bishops of the Church of Rome are fooling you when they say that they are Loyal American Citizens.

They are not. They cannot be.

They are loyal to the Pope, "not only in matters which concern faith and morals," but—I am quoting from chapter three of the Constitution Pastor Eternus, the Decree of the Vatican Council—the claim of the Pope is that he has a right to interfere with every government, no matter whether it is right in God's sight or not.

The Pope does not recognize any marriage unless it is wrought by a Roman Catholic Priest.

The Pope does not recognize a single law which he does not approve.

The Constitution of the United States is an abomination to the Pope, and the Constitution of Great Britain has been declared invalid by a solemn Bull. That declaration has never been withdrawn.

If the Pope felt himself strong enough he would stifle every bit of liberty today in America, as he has tried to do, and has done, in the South American Republics.

Surely some of you will remember how he abrogated a Constitution of the Empire of Austria in solemn allocation.

Surely some of you will remember how he abrogated a Constitution of the Empire of Austria in solemn allocation.

Semper eadem is surely the motto of Rome: Rome is always the same.

She may veil her face and appear the friend of Liberty, but she is the Foe of all Liberty.

She is not the Rome of Paul.

She is the Apostasy of Leo XIII.

Threats Will Not Deter Me from These Exposures.

I do not know what the result of this Unveiling of the Roman Apostasy will be. I am continually told that my health will not be good; and, in fact, that I shall very soon be in my grave if I continue to talk like this.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

by DEACON G. L. SPECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

I shall now present a few of the many testimonies which come as a result of faith and patient reliance on God.

When oppressed in spirit, sick in body, or troubled in temporal matters, they go to Him in calm, positive faith, believing He is the Deliverer, and their faith is rewarded by most blessed answers to prayer.

Day unto day adds blessing unto blessing.

Their hearts are filled with gratitude, and the testimonies which come as a result are interesting and inspiring.

And so we send a few forth each week that all the world may know and rejoice, and that God may be glorified.

Wonderfully Healed of Gathering in the Ear.

[Signature]

Dear General Overseer:— Last May our oldest boy had a gathering in his right ear, caused by the measles. It got so bad that he suffered every minute. It was so swollen behind his ear that it deformed his face.

Our prayers were of no avail and we telephoned to Deacon Rice.

Two of our doctors examined him and told us that we must have an operation, as the pus had formed between the two bones, and had now way to escape, and was causing the intense pain.

The doctor who attended us before we took the child to a hospital, and have an operation, as the existing conditions would kill him in a short time.

But we turned to God in our distress. He heard and answered prayer in our behalf.

On the 26th of August I was delivered of a tapeworm.

Before I sent you my request for prayer, I had Deacon Lake pray for me.

When Overseer Speicher was in Milwaukee, he had him pray, and on the 26th of August I sent a request to you to pray for me.

On the 26th of August the head of the tapeworm passed from me.

On the 28th I claimed the promise and lost the very last bit of the tapeworm.

I am so happy that I have been delivered of so terrible a thing as that.

I feel and know that I am a new person.

I have been wonderfully changed in spirit, soul and body, and every one who knows me can see it.

I give God all the praise and glory, and am so happy to have such a Physician to call on in time of trouble.

I do thank all the dear friends who have prayed for me.

Your sister in the Christ,

Dear General Overseer:— It is with a heart full of gratitude to God and to you, His servant, that I send you this testimony.

On the 26th of August I was delivered of a tapeworm.

Before I sent you my request for prayer, I had Deacon Lake pray for me.

When Overseer Speicher was in Milwaukee, I had him pray, and on the 26th of August I sent a request to you to pray for me.

Your sister in the Christ,

God Heals the Little Ones.

[Signature]

Dear General Overseer:— It is full of gratitude to God for His goodness to me and mine, and I feel that if I should keep still the very stones would cry out.

I asked you to pray that God would lead the judge to grant our claim against my sister's estate.

He has graciously answered, and we thank Him for it, and thank you for your prayers.

We also thank Him for pleasant, dry weather, which He sent in answer to yours and Brother Wade Peterson's prayers.

We were praying for the same, and at the very hour you should have received his letter the weather began to clear up.

It is clear and bright now. Please pray God to give us continued dry, fair weather to mature the abundant crop of corn which He has given us in answer to prayer, although the corn was frozen to the ground the 21st of June, and it seemed as though there would be none unless He sent us wonderful blessings, which He has done, praise His Name!

We also need continued dry weather to gather the abundant hay crop He has given us.

How wonderful it is that He is so good to answer prayer, and to so abundantly bless us—and yet it is no wonder, for it is just like Him.

Our hearts hunger and thirst for more abundant spiritual blessings.

I also thank God for answering your prayers in behalf of our poultry.

Praying God to continue to bless and keep you and yours till Jesus comes, I remain,

Your Sister in Jesus' Name,

Healed when at the Point of Death.

[Signature]

Dear General Overseer:— Some time ago I wrote, asking you to pray for my father, who was at the point of death.

You kindly answered my letter, and God heard prayer and restored my father.

Yours in the Christ,

Testimony meeting, held on Lord's Day afternoon, joyfully bore witness in the last regular Praise and their Heavenly Father, Zion in Benton Harbor "redemption of our body," which "groaneth and travaileth in pain" through disease, for Salvation and Healing here follow: "To her He is " the same yesterday and today, "I myself have been healed by God of deafness, typhoid fever, headache and other diseases." "I have been greatly blessed in reading Zion Literature the Bible became a New Book to me. "I have no more use for trashy reading. "I think it is the best paper on earth. "I have no more use for trush reading.

Elder Adams writes:
Zion is not a hobby-rider. Zion does not follow the fads and fashions of religion.

The apostate churches are continually seeking to tell or to hear some new thing. Yesterday they amused themselves with "Institutional church work."
The day before they had "Revivalism."

Today they toy with "Social Salvation."

There is no telling what Satan will get them to feel away their time with tomorrow.

Zion is satisfied with the Christ and His Salvation.

To her He is "the same yesterday and today, yes, and forever."

Zion teaches the Gospel of Salvation which was taught by Jesus the Christ. Tree conversion must ever come first.

"The obedience of faith" then leads to a present "redemption of our body," which "groaneth and travaileth in pain" through disease, for "There is mercy with the Saviour; There is healing in His blood."

Then follow blessings in Baptism and prosperity in tithing.

To all these and other blessings, given freely by their Heavenly Father, Zion in Benton Harbor joyfully bore witness in the last regular Praise and Testimony meeting, held on Lord's Day afternoon, August 31st, in Zion Tabernacle, 111 East Main street.

Some of the words of thanksgiving and praise to God for Salvation and Healing here follow:

C. L. Shultz, Zion City, Illinois. — "I have great pleasure in testifying to God's wonderful power to heal. I have often witnessed to that power since 1895."

"I overworked, and was sick two days."

"When I heard the General Overseer preach, I knew it to be the true Gospel." "I wish to speak especially of my last healing."

"At the Feast of Tabernacles I was indiscreet."

"I wish to speak especially of my last healing."

"It was hard work for me to use my limb in climbing the stairs."

"I fought it because there was too much truth in it for me."

"I came here and heard nothing but the Word of God, which he true the power of God unto my Salvation and Healing."

"We came into Zion and gave up all drugs and medicines."

"Before our baby had his healing, the medical doctor admitted that he was merely experimenting upon him."

"Now the baby is strong and well in answer to prayer."

"We discover new lengths and breadths and heights and depths in God's Word, never dreamed of before."

"I myself have been healed by God of deafness, typhoid fever, headache and other diseases.

Jasper H. Dickerman, Lake Shore Drive. — "During the last three years, I have been healed of three different ailments."

"When anything goes wrong, I expect to be healed at once in answer to prayer."

A lady who could not be present at the meeting wrote the following letter:

"Zion City, Illinois, September 17, 1902."

"About the 13th of August I was taken ill with a numbness in my left arm."

"It continued to grow worse for about two weeks, causing me a great deal of trouble about my work, as I could scarcely lift anything with that hand.

"The numbness spread all over my right side, affecting the heart."

"I think it was paralysis."

"On Sunday morning I went down to Zion Tabernacle in Benton Harbor, Michigan."

"It was hard work for me to use my limb in climbing the stairs."

"It was becoming quite alarming."

"After the meeting I asked Elder Adams to pray for me."

"He prayed the prayer of faith, and from that time I was perfectly free from that trouble."

"(Mrs.) J. J. Waters."

"I have been wonderfully blessed in reading Zion Literature."

"I have never desired it since."

"I cannot bear the smell of it; it makes me sick."

"Through reading Leaves of Healing I have been cleansed up and made a new man."

Mrs. Sophia Morrill, corner Superior and Empire streets. — "I received the first copy of Leaves of Healing ever saw, five years ago.

"I have been greatly blessed spiritually, and enlightened by reading it."

Mrs. Fred Peters, Coloma, Michigan. — "I thank God for Leaves of Healing."

"My husband has returned to God and come into Zion."

Rev. Sarah Elizabeth Adams, 120 Superior street. — "I used to read the Bible in the spirit of criticism and for its historical facts.

"After I began to read Zion Literature the Bible became a New Book to me."

"Leaves of Healing is a valuable searchlight upon the Scriptures."

"I now read my Bible to get benefit from it."

"I consider Leaves of Healing the best guide to the Scriptures in circulation."

The following are testimonies to prosperity and blessing as a result of obedience in tithing:

W. E. Schmalpess. — "I have not always been faithful in paying tithes."

"I held back a part through ignorance of the truth, having been taught to give what I could."

"Elder Adams gave us the truth and I began to pay the tenth to God faithfully."

"Since then I have had more money than ever before."

"I am paying up back tithes, too."

Elder James R. Adams. — "I know the above testimony to be true."

"I know a young man who began faithfully to tithe his income a month or two ago."

"His first week's tithe was fifty cents; the second week it amounted to sixty-five cents; the third week to seventy-five cents; the fourth week's tithe was eighty-seven cents, and the fifth, $1.05."

"This shows how God has financially made his barns to be filled with plenty, according to the promise."

MRS. FRED PETERS.—We are greatly blessed in paying our tithes.

It is a real joy to do so.

The more money we make, the more we have to give to God, and we are no poorer through tithing.

C. L. SHULZ, Zion City, Illinois.—I can say truthfully that ever since I began tithing I have been blessed financially.

Before that I could hardly pay my rent.

Now I am saving money.

My wages have been doubled, and I thank God for His mercy to me.

DEACON PETER.—People say, 'You are giving down all your money.'

I laugh at them.

It used to cost me $30 a year for doctors' bills.

One sickness of my wife cost over $100, and it had no end to it.

It is more the truth that we are getting all Dr. Dowie's money.

God blesses us when we are faithful in paying our tithes.

MRS. S. MORRILL.—I have been a tither for fifteen years.

When I supported my family by my needle and paid tithes, I found I could buy more with my money and have more left, than when I robbed God.

I am so glad for Zion's Storehouse, a place where we can put our tithes to be well used for God.

C. L. Shultz, Zion City, Illinois.—I can say truthfully that ever since I began tithing I have been blessed financially.

Before that I could hardly pay my rent.

Now I am saving money.

My wages have been doubled, and I thank God for His mercy to me.

CHARLES P. EVERETT.—The Lord gives me of His riches, and I return a tenth of it with a willing heart.

When I used tobacco I was always hard up.

I am much more prosperous since I gave up the filthy habit, and began paying my tithes.

The following testimonies were given, thanking God for blessing in Baptism:

FRED TEbbe, Zion City, Illinois.—I have great reason to praise God for the wonderful spiritual blessing and healing that came to me at the time of my baptism by Trinite Immersion.

It proved a great change in my life.

I am grateful for the privilege of living in Zion City.

After this meeting, the Elder, accompanied by a party of singers and Zion Seventies, went to St. Joseph, where a street meeting was held for an hour. Then the party returned to Benton Harbor where another street meeting was held in both cities the crowd was large and very attentive to the teaching and preaching, and nearly all eagerly received the Messages presented them by the Seventies.

After the street meetings were over an evening service in the Tabernacle was conducted by the Deacons.

The street meetings will be continued every Lord's Day in St. Joseph at 6 p.m., and Benton Harbor at 7:15, as long as the weather permits.

Zion Restoration Host has nineteen recruits in Benton Harbor, Michigan.

On Lord's Day, October 5th, just before the communion service in Zion Tabernacle, seventeen eager and joyful volunteers stood, and, with shining faces and uplifted hands, took the vow of Zion Restoration Host, repeating it clause by clause after Elder-in-Charge James R. Adams.

Later in the day two others were added, making nineteen members of the Benton Harbor Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion who have the glorious privilege of being among the first members of this Host, which we believe will prove to be the mightiest power ever used by God to prepare the world for the Coming of the King whose right it is to reign.

Wednesday evening has been set apart for Bible study and practical training for active service in this detachment of Zion Restoration Host.
AN OUTSIDER’S VIEW OF ZION CITY

N ow and then, among the great clouds of ugly, malicious press lies about Zion, her General Overseer and Zion City, there appears an article which, while it may contain a few inaccuracies such as will creep into any production which is gotten up as hastily as most newspaper articles are, is very manifestly written by some one who is inspired by a spirit of fairness and justice.

We are very glad to say that such descriptions of Zion are becoming more numerous.

The press is very evidently beginning to awaken to the fact that Zion has triumphed, notwithstanding its bitter opposition, and that such opposition has only made the newspapers themselves ridiculous before the eyes of all the world.

It gives us great pleasure to record the fact that one of the most brightly-written, and, for the most part, the most accurate account of Zion City, which has yet appeared in the secular press, is from the pen of a young woman.

Anne Shannon Monroe, writing in the Tacoma (Washington) News, under the title, “Tacoma Girl Visits Dowie’s Zion City,” was given almost an entire page of that paper, last August, in order to tell what she saw and heard here.

The article is splendidly illustrated, if any illustrations on print paper can be said to be splendid, containing some of the very latest views of Zion City and her institutions.

Zion is a very big subject to write about, and it is not surprising if one who spends only a few days visiting the city fails to get all the facts in perfect accuracy. This writer has unwittingly fallen into a few errors, to two of which we call attention.

Ground was not leased to the Chicago & North-Western Railway company for only a few days visiting the city. This lease of ground was not to be for manufacturing purposes or public parks. Already there has been erected an immense brick building, occupying upwards of five acres, and known as the Zion Lace Industries. The value of the $20,000 is awaiting the process of bleaching to become marketable.

The process of bleaching this lace requires water without a trace of mineral, and, after several unsuccessful attempts to strike pure water, they have begun to pipe it from the lake.

A second lace factory, to cost half a million dollars, is in contemplation.

On the west side of the railroad were many freight-cars standing on the side-track, certifying to the enormous business being carried on there.

Close by is a brick-yard, turning out thousands a day. Farther on is a planing mill. A candy factory is also under way.

To the west the ground slopes gradually upward until a thousand feet away, lies almost hidden from the rapidly building city.

From the window of the train I had already seen the scores of houses extending along the bluff from the southern limit of the town, all new and in course of construction where not already completed.

GROWTH OF CITY IS RAPID.

I alighted from the train amidst fifty other passengers and followed the immense throng up Shiloh boulevard.

I found that more than a thousand houses had been erected; more than 5,000 people were making their homes there; factories employing half a thousand people; a $75,000 hotel, housing 1,000 guests; a block of stores where the buying and selling is conducted by the city itself, and where no adulterated foods are allowed, no dishonestly made goods handled, and where the prices are, I learned later, during a week-day visit, lower than downtown Chicago.

Then there is the Administration building, which has just been completed at a cost of $30,000, where the court and the city hall, and the bank and other public business is being cared for; and beyond is the stone foundation of the huge Educational building which is being erected at a cost of $125,000.

Beyond, following Shiloh boulevard, is a large grove comprising 200 acres, which is known as the Shiloh Temple site. A building is to be erected here that will seat 3,000 people within hearing of the speaker’s voice.

It is indeed a beautiful spot, and the thousands who had come in on the special trains scattered through the grove and spread their lunches on the grass beneath the trees.

At the edge of this grove is Shiloh fountain, which is fed by an artesian well bored to a depth of 160 feet.

The water is extremely cold and has an excellent taste.

TABLENACLY SEATS 6,000 PEOPLE.

Some distance farther, to the north of Shiloh boulevard, is the present tabernacle, a large wooden structure seating about 6,000 people.

To the south and southwest and off to the north-west hundreds of houses have sprung up, some of them hidden from view back of other beautiful groves.

The city is so scattered one must go all over it to begin to realize the extensive improvements.

I stood on the hill and looked off in every direc-
Wednesday, November 8, 1902.

I was prepared. He should not hypnotize me. But the first thing I know, I had forgotten all about the hypnotism, in the interest I took from the first moment in the bluff, kindly-faced, twinkling-eyed old Scotchman in flowing robes, who faced the audience. He read from the Bible and expounded the Scriptures; then he pitched, full force, into his sermon.

I shall not try to quote from his sermon, as it was such as any minister might preach—but doesn't—full of gentle admonition and fierce attacks against the power of evil. His personality, as he hurled truths like thunderbolts at his people, possesses his hearers and they are bound to listen, in fear and trembling, until he has finished.

NO SLEEP THERE.

One could no more sleep under his discourse than in the presence of a tornado. One man in that vast audience yawned and Dr. Dowie called him down for it so pointedly that the man doubtless felt no inclination to sleep the rest of the day.

Once well into his sermon, this much-discussed man made me think of a raging bull, or a boar lion behind bars. He thunders, he storms, he demands, he commands, and with his feet down on the platform with the force and vitality of a wild animal in the jungles. At times he is terrible; again he is sublime; and yet again he is as tender and gentle as a woman. His strong human sympathy is keenly felt, and also his displeasure. He is an apostle, a zeal of a man, a leader whose word is law, whose flashing eye moves his hearers to prompt obedience, whose ringing forth rounds of applause throughout his sermon.

His language is strong, forcible, at times bordering on the violent. One is carried along irresistibly by the strong current of earnest force of the man.

Whether he is Elijah or an imposter: whether he is sent by God or the Devil; whether he is true or false—he has a firm hold on thousands of people, and the work he has been able to accomplish alone places him easily among the most remarkable men living today.

FOLLOWS BIBLE LITERALLY.

Dr. Dowie's very peculiar religion, that has been so much discussed, consists in a literal following of the Bible. He claims that every line is true, that every command meansexactly what it says, that every prophecy has an important significance; that the Bible has been given to man as the Rule of Life and that it is possible to live and prosper as it may be in his power to do.

He also maintains by the same authority that God is never the author of sickness, and that the hypnotism, in the interest I took from the first day, is full of gentle admonition and fierce attacks against the power of evil. His personality, as he hurled truths like thunderbolts at his people, possesses his hearers and they are bound to listen, in fear and trembling, until he has finished.

WILL ASTONISH THE WORLD.

Dowie maintains by Bible authority (and it is on this point that he has incurred the enmity of the doctors) that God is never the author of sickness, disease or death, placing the responsibility on the Devil.

"Man," he says, "is a free agent in himself and the Devil is permitted to work on those who get in evil pathways."

He also maintains by the same authority that God stands ready to heal those whom the Devil has brought down, providing the trespasser repents, is baptized in Trine Immersion, and shall have righted every wrong he may have done to any one, so far as it may be in his power to do. From this, Dowie is called the "healer," a term which he takes violent aversion to. At the close of his sermon on Sunday he called on all who had been healed through prayer to rise. More than half the audience stood on their feet.

"Were you healed?" he demanded.

"Yes," came the answer.

"Did I heal you?"

"No!" they cried, as in one voice.

"Who did?" he thundered.

"God!" they shouted.

"Did I ever charge any of you for praying with you?" he demanded.

"Never!" they shouted again.

During the "Feast of Tabernacles," which began July 12th, I was present at a "divine healing meeting," and, among others who appeared to be inhumanly "made whole," was a woman who had been brought a distance of miles by the husband, Isaac Mill, of Kichberg, North Dakota. He told me that two doctors who had attended her had assured him that she could not live and that she would not visit Chicago anymore.

The following Sunday over 400 were baptized, among the number being the woman who had been healed five days before.

After the service I talked with a large number who claimed to have been healed of divers diseases. They had all become ardent supporters of Zion. One woman told me she had been a disciple of Divine Healing for many years, and, although the mother of ten children, she has never had a doctor nor medicine in her home.

WILL ASTONISH THE WORLD.

It is said by Zionites who stand close to their leader that a cardinal of the church of Rome will soon astonish the world by accepting Dowie as the Elijah who, according to Malachi 4th, is to come before the great and terrible day of Jehovah come. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, etc., and "restore all things."

Not alone in Zion City is conducted all the business and religious institutions of Zion. In Chicago, at Michigan boulevard and Twelfth street, is located Zion bank and hotel, a stone and brick structure, owned by Dowie, and on ground for which he holds a ninety-nine-year lease.

A block south on the same street is located the Zion Publishing houses, where, by various languages, the Scriptures in Zion literature is published. Zion colleges, Women's refuge, Zion schools and kinder-garden, are also in the same neighborhood, while scattered throughout the city are more than a dozen tabernacles and halls, and over three hundred cottage meeting-places, where week-night services are held. One has no difficulty in finding any number of cases in Chicago alone, where thousands of dollars are being distributed annually by Dowie's "Seventies," of whom there are over three thousand constantly at work, to relieve distress and care for the poor.

For a dozen years Dowie has been waging war against everything with appearance of evil, and almost everybody has taken a whack at him, but he is no longer a theory. He has become a fact which the whole living world must recognize sooner or later. The only question is, can it endure?

WILL ZION LIVE?

With 20,000 or 200,000 people, which may be possible in Zion City, and with a possible successor or successors to the dictatorship of this blue-law municipality, will it live?

Today the world is full of skeptics. Perhaps the churches are to blame, with their various kinds of salvation prescriptions to suit most any kind of man in most any kind of condition.

Whether skepticism has or has not done it, nevertheless "civilized" humanity no longer looks itself in the face with moral confidence—every man is suspicious of his neighbor. And it may be that this enlightened world, which sometimes does seem to be running topsy-turvy, upside down and off the track, reeking with an ever-increasing immorality, and groaning under a burden of disease, deformity and suffering, has been unconsciously waiting the dawn of a new kind of life in a new kind of city, where the Eleventh Commandment seems to be understood and where the Golden Rule is the spirit of the law.

In Nothing be Anxious.

ASHLEY, OHIO, October 7, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your letter of encouragement is before me, and I thank you. I thank our Heavenly Father for such an earthly teacher and helper.

Bless the Lord, for He does hear His children's cry.

I got better Friday evening at 5 o'clock.

I do realize that His seamless garment is by every bed of pain.

The following words were precious to me: "In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God."

Your daughter in Zion,

(Mrs.) Abigail J. Light.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth.
But the Word of our God shall stand forever.

—Isaiah 40:8.
ZION'S BIBLE CLASS
Conducted by DEACON DANIEL SLOAN

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION'S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

A reference encyclopedia of Bible truth can be had by those who will make the proper use of ZION'S BIBLE Class Lessons which appear in LEAVES OF HEALING. They open up wonder-ful resources of preparation for ZION with greater assurance of a New Life through the Power of Prayer Meetings or Zion Gatherings. These studies have been issued since Volume V, No. 1 in 1914 and now number about one hundred. They extend over a wide range of subjects and topics and words of which they treat. This is a book of ready reference and can be added to regularly. The subjects, with the varied methods of treatment as they appear in comprehensive outlines, with citations of Scripture from every book of the Bible, together with practical questions or remarks thereon, may be added to by reflections and observations and illustrations which will enable every one who devoutly studies and diligently uses them to rightly divide the word of truth, and thus in an ever increasing measure become a thoroughly furnished servant of God.

How to study or teach a Zion Bible Class Lesson does not prove to be a difficulty to any one. It is the intention to cover the vital truths and important doctrines of the Bible, presenting a phase of some subject in each lesson from a given point of view, with selections of Scripture which have a plain and positive meaning, viewed from a broad basis of Bible research. No commentaries are to be used, for they, in most part, are nothing but the repetitions of the elders, which makes the Word of God, like the forced translations of the Bible, give a dark meaning to God's truth. They set forth lack of faith and show the low standard of spiritual conception at the day or time in which the work was done.

It is safe to say that one of the vital rules for all is to read the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit, comparing Scripture with Scripture. Let the consciousness of Scripture texts on one given subject with the true meaning of the points of Scripture be the subject to be approached. For instance, take ZION Bible Class Lesson in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VII, Number 25—"What are the facts of the Lord's Day: a True Use of Sabbath Day Hour*.

To study this lesson with the true meaning of the points of Scripture in view, the subject should be approached. For instance, take ZION Bible Class Lesson in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VII, Number 25—"What are the facts of the Lord's Day: a True Use of Sabbath Day Hour*.

The lesson should be studied as above, or as per the subject, but the message is this: that if a new truth would be put into the world with its light of spiritual power, it would then be received by the Church to glory. Such a Church is filled with the unity of the Spirit, but with backsliders from pulpits to pew, who know not God in the power of the first love whose light is All to All and is trusted for everything in order and complete consecration.

The third question cites the fact that people are slow in accepting new truths. So used are they to old traditions and worn paths, seeing its lack of spiritual power, it would tear the Church to pieces. Such a Church is filled with the unity of the Spirit, but with backsliders from pulpits to pew, who know not God in the power of the first love whose light is All to All and is trusted for everything in order and complete consecration.

LESSONS OF HEALING

Two Dollars will bring to you the weekly visits of the "Little White Dress" for every county day she will visit. This plan will need for its success the prayers of the people to send it to your minister, or to a, M. C. A., or to a Public Reading Room for a whole year. We have no premiums, and the goods are of the utmost quality. We receive no advertisements and spirit no commercial lies or churning enterprises of unchristian clerics. LEAVES OF HEALING are open to all on the premises, and are not a show or an exhibit but a genuine, real service rendered from all across the Empire of the Kingdom of God, for which reason it is, if ever we can do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God. We come bearing gifts of the world, as well as the world without. We are not afraid of the critical business vulgarities at the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Divas at home.

And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bowing unto thee; and all they that despise thee shall bring presents at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee The City of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.—Isaiah 60:14.

Form of Application for Membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The Principles of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the Second Section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, Page 267):

First—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.
Second—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.
Third—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.
Fourth—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer all the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

QUICKLY HEALED WHEN NEAR TO DEATH WITH CONSUMPTION.

That through death he might bring to naught Him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. This young woman was dying. The dread scourge Consumption had laid its killing blight on her young life.

It had followed upon a siege of sickness and indescribable suffering at the hands of physicians and surgeons.

Her weakened body had quickly succumbed to the fatal malady.

The physicians had confessed their helplessness.

Trembling with weakness, wearied out with constant pain, she felt the cold, pitiless fingers of death closing upon her heartstrings.

Was it the hand of God that touched her heart and sent that icy chill through all her veins?

Was it a loving Heavenly Father who had dug out her lungs?

Are they right who stand in the House of God and solemnly quote “Jehovah gave, and Jehovah hath taken away; blessed be the Name of Jehovah”? How many, many of God’s children have stood in the presence of Death, and, hearing those cruel words, have turned from God with bitter, rebellious hearts! Irresistibly the thought has been driven home that if God had wrought that fearful torture, ending in the horror of death, then He was a cruel monster. No; God is not the afflicter of His people, for He has said of Himself, by the mouth of His prophet: “In all their affliction, He was afflicted.” No; Job was wrong when he said, “Jehovah gave, and Jehovah hath taken away; blessed be the Name of Jehovah,” for God’s Word distinctly says that the Devil took away, hence Job, and all who quote him, bless Jehovah for the Devil’s work.

No; it is not God’s hand that kills His children, for He said by His Apostle: “Since, then, the children are sharers in flesh and blood, He also Himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death He might bring to naught him that had the power of Death, that is, the Devil.”

There is the glorious truth. God is not the murderer of His children.

On the contrary, through His death, He has brought to naught the Devil, who has the power of death.

And how wonderfully that blessed truth is sustained throughout His Word!

Hear His loving Voice proclaim His Covenant, “I am Jehovah that healeth thee.”

Hear God’s prophet, foretelling the coming of His Son, declare: “Surely He hath borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows.”

Hear that Divine Saviour, Healer and Cleanser say: “I cane that they may have Life, and may have it abundantly."

Hear His apostle say of Him: "Jesus of Nazareth, . . . who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil."

Hear another apostle say: "To this end was the Son of God manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil."

Praise God, He is still destroying those works of the Devil: Sin, and Disease, and Death.

He never changes.

His love never grows cold.

His power never fails.

Into the room where this dying girl lay, there flew, one day, the Little White Dove, LEAVES OF HEALING.

Into her sad, despairing spirit, it whispered the Glad Tidings of this blessed Hope.

In simple, straightforward language, she tells what followed.

Her sister confirms her words.

And her portrait, showing her once emaciated and all but lifeless figure standing erect and strong, buoyant with life and health and strength, adds its indisputable confirmation.

On the wings of the beautiful, snow-white messenger that brought her the Good News, she now goes forth to tell to suffering ones everywhere the glorious truth which delivered her from the power of "him that had the power of Death."

That deliverance is for every one who will repent, confess, restore, and trust and obey God.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

ELIJAH HOSPIER, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I have been impressed for some time to write my testimony, hoping that some one who is suffering under the cruel hands of Satan and doctors might be helped, and turn to God, who is the Only Healer.

In January, 1899, in the town of Antigonish, Nova Scotia, Canada, I was taken very sick with pneumonia.

I was treated by Doctors W. H. and Huntly McDonald, who are considered the best physicians in that county.

They gave me a great amount of medicine but it did not cure me.

In a few weeks I stopped coughing and took a severe pain in my left side, which the doctors found was caused by an abscess forming on my lung.

It grew larger until it pushed my heart out of place, up into my chest and over toward the right side.

The doctor said at that time that I could not become well, as displacement of the heart was always fatal.

I suffered so much with pain in my side that the doctors decided to perform an operation and draw the pus off my lung.

My heart was so weak they could not give me an anesthetic, so, after having a consultation with Dr. McIntosh, they cut into my side and put a tube with a long piece of rubber attached, with the end of it in a basin of water to keep the air out.

That operation was not successful and they had to cut into another place and put a tube in it. I suffered untold agonies.

I felt that my time was dragging my life out. I could not stand it.

I begged the doctor take it out, but he told me that if it was removed I would die.

One morning, when I was groaning with pain, my mother and sister prayed to God that I would get some relief.

In a little while my sister was bathing my face, and accidentally hit that tube and knocked it out of my side.

I almost fainted, but, praise God, I received relief right away.

My sister, of course, was frightened and telephoned to the doctor immediately.

He came and tried to insert the tube into my side again, but I screamed so hard that he could not do it.

Then he was angry and went away, saying he would not come again.

I wish he had come again; for I would have been saved a great deal of suffering, and would have turned to God sooner.

The next morning he sent the other doctor, and when he saw that my side was discharging pus all right, he was astonished and decided to leave the tube out.

They wrapped iodoform gauze and absorbent cotton around me, and I had a little rest.

Then I became well enough to walk out doors, and sit up almost all day.

After that I had a severe pain in my back, and a bad cough.

It grew worse until my left lung was entirely gone, so that there was a large hollow place in my back.

I could not sleep at night and in the morning the sheets were wet with perspiration.

I grew weaker every day.

Then the doctor told my mother that he could do nothing more for me, as I had consumption and could live only a short time.

About this time my uncle in Marquette, Wisconsin, sent me LEAVES OF HEALING and wrote a beautiful letter, telling me that God was willing to heal me, no matter how sick I was, if I would trust Him.

I was so weak that I could only read a few lines at a time, but I had LEAVES read to me.

I gave up all drugs and had my mother take all medicine bottles out of my room. I hated the sight of them.

I prayed and had my mother and sisters pray for me, but did not get any better until I sent a request for prayer to you, General Overseer.

I remember so well a few days after, at about 9 o'clock in the evening, I spoke to my sister and said that some one was praying for me.

From that time I began to grow better and stronger.

I did not have any one to teach me Divine Healing, but I held on to God and read the Bible and LEAVES OF HEALING.

I used to get up and walk across the room in the Name of Jesus.

I shall never forget it.

I had never seen a Zion person, but I had a longing in my heart to see the dear General Overseer and be with Zion people.

In three months after that, instead of being in my grave, I came to Boston, Massachusetts, a strong, healthy girl, and had the pleasure of shaking hands with our General Overseer in Berkeley Hall, on his way from Europe in 1901.

I give God all the glory and praise, and thank Him for sending Eliah the Restorer to teach us Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Yours faithfully in Jesus,

FLORENCE A. CAMERON.

Confirmation by Miss Harriet E. Cameron.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, November 3, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I confirm my sister's testimony. It is wonderful how God healed her so perfectly.

No one would imagine, to see her now, that she was ever sick.

The only sign that is left of that year of suffering are the two scars on her left side, where the operations were performed.

Her left lung was completely gone and the right one very much affected.

She could not sit up straight and could not sleep at night.

The only relief she could get from pain was by having some of us rub her back very gently.

At night she would long for the morning, and in the morning she longed for the night.

It is no wonder she loves the dear General Overseer for sending forth the Little White Dove, telling of God's love and power to heal.

Whenever I think of how she suffered, it makes me despise doctors and medicine.

When she began to read LEAVES OF HEALING, no one had any faith to believe that she would be healed at all, so she fought the battle alone.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude to God every day for His Love, and for sending His Prophet to turn our hearts to righteousness.

Yours in Jesus' Name,

HARRETT E. CAMERON.

INJURED FOOT HEALED.—BLESSED IN PAYING TITHES.

W. H. WILBRAM AVENUE, HIGHLAND STATION, SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, OCTOBER 1, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—On the 4th of August I sent a request for prayer for my foot, which was very painful.

Last May I let a heavy iron fall on it. Eider Bryant, prayed for me and I became better.

Through overwork in moving to Springfield, I got so much worse that I could scarcely walk.

I thank God that He heard and answered your prayer.

My foot has been better ever since.

I thank God that He blesses me in paying my tithes.

My money seems to go farther.

I am stronger and better in every way since I came into Zion.

May God bless you and yours with long life to do His work.

Your sister in the Christ, (Mrs.) ANN HALL.

HEALED OF SORE THROAT.

TECUMSEH, NEBRASKA, September 25, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I received your kind letter yesterday, telling me you had prayed for my daughter.

I thank you for your prayers.

I thank God for His loving-kindness and for His healing power, for He has graciously answered your prayer in her behalf.

For about a week she was a very sick girl.

She had a very sore throat, with hard, yellow lumps on each side, and a constant cough.

She lost all desire for food.

I do not know what her sickness was but God knew all about it and stayed the affliction.

She is well and able to attend school again.

Your sister in the Christ, (Mrs.) IRA WILSON.
THE history of Elijah as given to us in the Scriptures affords one of the most profitable of character studies.

His ministry is given more in detail than that of any other of the prophets.

In the verse quoted above, we have the secret of every successful ministry, the rule of all successful work for God.

God was to Elijah then as He is today, a Living Personality—the most real in all the Universe.

He was always conscious of standing before Him, ready to receive His Message.

This should be the condition of every Christian, and it may be, for it is largely a matter of habit.

Whatever we think most about becomes a reality to us.

If we permit ourselves to be constantly engrossed by material things and the cares of life, then we become always conscious of their presence.

Like a swarm of beggars, with outstretched hands, they are ever before us and are always crying after us for our attention and thought.

David said: "I have set Jehovah always before me; Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved" (Psalm 16:8), showing that, although Jehovah is always before us, yet we must place Him there constantly, in thought, in order to realize the strength and help which comes from His presence.

David found that when he did this he could not be moved.

This is why Elijah was like a rod of iron in his inflexible obedience to God's commands.

Through obedience, men receive the Holy Spirit, who will lead them into all truth. (Acts 5:32, John 14:26.)

Elijah knew that he held God's Message, and although he also knew that it might cost him his life, he fearlessly hurled it at the king and the nation.

Ahab had sought Elijah, among all the nations, during the three years of famine, to kill him; but God preserved him until He had another Message for the king and then He sent Elijah to show himself to the king.

On the way, Elijah met the servant of the king, who warned him of his master's determination to kill him.

Then Elijah replied:

As Jehovah of Hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself unto him today.

When Elijah met the king, he boldly charged him with being under the curse of famine upon the land, by having broken the commandments of God in the worship of Baal.

Today the condition of the people is as it was at that time.

They have forgotten God and have gone into the worship of Baal in Secretism.

Today, as then, Elijah is calling the nations to repent of their sins and accept the Covenant which God gave to His people of old, by which they promise to harken to His Voice and do what is right in His eyes, and keep His commandments, that they may be saved and healed and kept whole.

He is calling them away from physicians and drugs, whose origin was in demon-worship, to Jehovah, who promises to heal them, if they keep His Covenant.

He is calling them to give up alcohol, tobacco, swine's flesh and whatever defiles their bodies, that they may be pure temples for God to dwell in.

He is calling out a Holy Nation, a Theocracy.

Reader, do you not desire to see the Rule of God established over the world? If so, help us to send out Zion's Message over all the earth.

It calls the nations to repent and seek Salvation and Healing, through the Lord Jesus, the Christ, by whose Atonement alone men can be saved.

The World Is Zion's Parish.

God has brought all the nations to Zion's center in Chicago that they may send the Full Gospel to their own people, and they are doing it.

We quote a few lines from Deacon John S. Johnson, Zion City, who has been faithful to his native Isles in sending Zion's Message. He says:

DEAR DEACONESS:—I thought it might be interesting for you to hear again from the Shetland Isles.

As the world is Zion's parish, I know that you are always glad to hear from any part of it.

One lady, who used to be much opposed to Zion, writes from Shetland and says: "Send me some more of Dr. Dowie's papers."

We are doing so.

There are now three families of us in Zion City, and every Tuesday evening we roll LEAVES OF HEALING and mail them to our native isles.

Children's Work with "Leaves of Healing."

The little children can help to send out Zion's Message over the world, and many of them may be sent, some day, to take it to the ends of the earth.

Evangelist Samuels writes from San Antonio, Texas:

DEAR SISTER IN THE CHRIST:—Enclosed I send you our Junior offerings for the month of October.

It is only a small sum but we believe this is the beginning in the right direction, to teach the children to have the missionary spirit.

I told the Juniors I would send their offerings to you.

We all love Zion Literature Mission page, and want to help send as many Little White Doves as possible, flying over the world to sinning, suffering humanity—to those who have never yet heard of Zion.

Through one of our members here LEAVES OF HEALING was sent by a relative in the National Military Home, Kansas, and we were much rejoiced to see that you had received such a beautiful letter from one of the old soldiers there, who had been blessed through it.

A lady writes from Missouri:

DEAR FRIEND:—I have been reading LEAVES OF HEALING for the past nineteen months, and it has done me much good in both body and mind.

I feel it my duty to send for some more.

Find enclosed fifty cents, from which take out my tithes.

All the income I have is four dozen eggs a week.

I am a widow and shall soon be sixty-two years of age.

There is no one in this country who takes LEAVES OF HEALING.

I had over a dozen given to me while on a visit to Kansas.

I have given them out as far as they would go, and I looked after those who were afflicted by the Devil.

I wish some of Zion Seventies could be sent here to work, as it is very much needed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"JEHOVAH SHALL ESTABLISH THEE FOR AN HOLY PEOPLE UNTO HIMSELF, AS HE HATH SWORN UNTO THEE; IF THOU SHALT KEEP THE COMMANDMENTS OF JEHOVAH THY GOD, AND WALK IN HIS WAYS."

AND ALL the Peoples of the Earth shall see That thou art called by the Name of Jehovah; And they shall be afraid of Thee.

AND JEHOVAH shall make Thee plentiful for Good, In the Fruit of thy cattle, In the Fruit of thy ground, In the Land which Jehovah swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

JEHOVAH shall open unto thee His Good Treasury, The Heaven to give the Rain of thy Land in its Season, And to bless All the Work of thine hand.

AND THOU shalt Lend unto many Nations, AND THOU shalt NOT BORROW.

AND JEHOVAH shall make thee the Head, And Not the Tail; And thou shalt be Above only, And thou shalt Not be Beneath; If thou shalt harken unto the Commandments of Jehovah thy God, Which I command thee this day, to Observe and to Do them; And shalt not turn aside from Any of the Words which I command you this day, To the right hand or to the left, To go after other gods to serve them.

THESE are among the blessings which were pronounced by the command of God upon His people, from Gerizim, the Mount of Blessing, in the Vale of Shechem, opposite Ebal, the Mount of Cursing.

The People of Israel stood on the mountains on both sides of the Valley before Jehovah, and renewed their Covenant with Him before entering upon the possession of the Promised Land.

IT IS FITTING that we should recall that Glorious and that Awful Scene, entering as we are about to do, God willing, into the full possession of the first Ten Square Miles of God's...
EDITORIAL NOTES.

earth that has ever been, since the days of Moses, consecrated wholly to God as a City site, not one foot of which has been sold to man.

We have believed what God spoke long ago:

The Land Shall Not be Sold in perpetuity,

For the Land is Mine;

For ye are strangers and sojourners with Me.

Recent events in connection with Zion and our General Finances have led us to make a close study of the wondrous portion of Scripture with which we began these Notes.

It will be found in the 28th chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy, verses 1 to 14.

We HAVE BEEN kept, as is well known, from borrowing from the world, in establishing the City of Zion.

We realize the Blessings which God has given to us, and the many Deliverances.

They have been more remarkable than we could find time to tell, though we were to write for weeks, and they have proved to us that we were following out a Divine Policy.

A STUDY of the wondrous words of Divine Inspiration given through Moses at the Vale of Shechem has led us to see more and more clearly the glorious truth that "Salvation is of the Jews," as Jesus said Fifteen Hundred years later, when He sat with the Woman of Samaria, beside the Well of Jacob, at Shechem (Sychar), under that very Mount Gerizim.

ZION MUST everywhere read, and ponder, and pray over the Words of God to Israel as they renewed their Covenant with Him.

We have determined to obey, God helping us, at all risks, the command:

"Thou shalt Lend unto many Nations,
And thou Shalt Not Borrow."

THEREFORE we turn to Zion everywhere, and confidently appeal for the concentration and unification of the interests of the whole people, to the leadership of which God has called us. Many thousands have nobly followed us through the long Wilderness Years, and are now settling around us on God's Land in the first City of Zion, which it has been our privilege to establish.

From the North, and the South, the East and West, and from all over America, God's People have been appealing to us for advice and help in connection with the Realization of their Properties, and their coming to Zion City.

Our overburdened and overwrought General Financial Manager, Deacon Charles J. Barnard, has been responding to these appeals as quickly and as effectually as was in his power.

But the time has come for providing an Effective Staff to attend to this one great matter, so that cash Resources shall come into Zion continuously and in an orderly way, so that we may develop the City, and find Profitable Investment for Every Dollar realized by our people from the sale of their properties.

We now announce, therefore, that we have released Deacon Daniel Sloan from the Positions which he has hitherto so successfully occupied, as Assistant Secretary and Manager of Zion Land and Investment Association, and as Zion Transportation Agent, etc.; and we have appointed him to take charge, with a considerable staff of excellent men, of a New Department, under the General Financial Manager, which will be known as ZION STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS.

From this Department, Deacon Sloan will send forth to our People, in all the nations, Zion's Special Financial Messengers and Advisers.

They will bear with them Authorizations signed by him, and countersigned by the General Financial Manager and ourself.

These Well-trained and Competent brethren will give Counsel as to Investments, and full information as to Zion's Securities and Zion City.

They will enable hundreds of God's people, and we hope thousands, both in the Disposal of their Properties and in their Investments in Zion.

We therefore say that, just as the Tribes and Families of Israel, Thirty-four Hundred years ago, were United in Taking Possession of their Promised Inheritance, so we, God's Israel today, must be United in establishing His Kingdom, in building up His Cities, and in training a People who shall be builders of Zion Cities, and from whose ranks Hosts of Zion Messengers shall go forth in the glorious Work of Restoration throughout the World.

Let our people, therefore, everywhere, who desire to come to Zion City, immediately communicate with Deacon Sloan in fullest confidence.

Under the direction of the General Financial Manager and ourself, with all the expert assistance that we can give him, Deacon Sloan will immediately respond to these communications.

This Department will, doubtless, be the means in God's hands of drawing into Zion City a Union of the Skill and Labor and Capital of thousands of God's people who are the possessors of them, and who desire to use their Skill and Resources in extending the Kingdom of God, building up Strong Cities of Zion and of God, together with many honest Industries, in which honestly earned money can be used for the maintenance and education of many thousands of the people, and for the Extension of the Kingdom of God.

The growth of Zion City is so phenomenally fast, and yet solid, that it requires a larger Capital, for our Enterprises, which can only be supplied if we and all in Zion obey God's command to Israel,

"THOU SHALT NOT BORROW."

The people must realize rapidly and come in themselves and help to build up the City quickly.

The signs all around us point to a flowing into Zion City, early in the coming Spring, of thousands of God's people from many distant lands, as well as from all parts of America.

We desire to be well prepared for the work of the coming year, for the final payments on land purchased, and for the equipment of the new Zion City Building and Manufacturing Association, in its many departments.

After the payment of every cent of Zion's floating indebtedness, we shall, God willing, create strong gold reserves for every Zion Institution, so that Zion City Bank may have larger powers to perform its functions as the great financial heart of the work of Zion in every department.

We realize that God has been giving us counsel and strength and clear guidance in these past weeks.

He is overruling the trials through which we have passed, and are passing, to His glory, and to a better ordering of the vast undertakings which He is laying upon us in the establishment of His Kingdom.

We are making preparations for greater Zion onward movements in these times of the restoration of all things, which are now so gloriously opening before us, not only in America but throughout the whole world.

We heartily thank our dear people everywhere for their constant prayers to God in our behalf, and we are sure that they are being answered in many remarkable ways.

It would be wonderful if there were not some mistakes made by ourself and our helpers in the unaccustomed task which has been given to us in the organization of Zion's great business departments and in laying the foundations of Zion City, which is not sixteen months old, and which has a population of probably more than eight thousand.

We are informed that the city consists of about twelve hundred dwelling places, large and small, with factories and stores, etc., covering a floor space in the aggregate of probably more than twelve acres, with large school buildings, and with a Tabernacle which seats over 5,000 persons.

But we rejoice that these mistakes have not been more serious, even while we regret that any have been made.

The severest tests to which we could possibly be subjected have been permitted to come upon us; and it has again and again been said by powerful business men and bankers that they knew not of any financial or commercial institutions in the United States of America which could have survived the daily torrents in the newspaper press, of misrepresentation and abuse and vilification in every way, with the view of accomplishing Zion's financial ruin.

Investigation only proved, what even our enemies at last had to admit, in large headlines, as we have shown in these columns, that

"ZION'S FINANCIAL FOUNDATION IS SOLID."

And now, as Zion emerges from the typhoon or tornado, and the mists are clearing away, we have great delight in telling our friends, far and near, that we have not sacrificed a single atom of our cargo, and that the ship is in excellent condition, and will be prepared, after a quiet winter, for still more prosperous voyages.

Let our friends continue to pray and to cooperate with us bravely, and loyally, and quickly.

Let those that are afraid leave us immediately: for we are stronger when the "Fearful and the unbelieving" get out of Zion, and join the procession to which they belong, which is more fully described in Revelation 21:8.

"THE SINNERS in Zion are afraid."

We mentioned last week in our editorial notes the death of a young man who had wronged Zion by becoming a party to a scheme which had for its purpose the forcing of Zion to buy certain land at an exorbitant price, or of maliciously subjecting Zion City to most undesirable neighbors on her border.
AS THE young man, who was removed from our fellowship, has now departed from this life, and undoubtedly died a true penitent, we think it well to give the letter of his widow, which reached us on Wednesday last, November 12th.

It is the Handwriting of God on the Wall to those who are scheming to use Zion's success to help them do a "good turn" to themselves, at the expense of Zion:

STURGEON BAY, WISCONSIN, November 10, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Your letter of the 31st received the day Edward was buried. Pray for me and my little girl.

I thank you for your letter saying you forgave him.

Now, as Ed is not here, I will show you that he truly repented.

He knew in his spirit that we would not fail in the hour when he was awakened to see the exceeding Sinfulness of his Sin.

But he lost no time in making things right.

When Ed asked me to send you the telegram asking your forgiveness and prayers, I said: "You have not written to the General Overseer and he may not think you have truly repented."

He said: "I will write as soon as I am able."

Then his face looked so bright and he said: "He will forgive me. He will know I have repented."

Then he told me to thank you for the kind way he had been treated before he bought the land.

He said he did not buy the land knowing that he did Zion a wrong, but he said he saw now what it meant to Zion, and just how wrong it was.

He asked God to forgive him, and he died feeling Zion had forgiven him.

He called his brother and sister, father and mother and friends to him, and talked to them about living for God.

He passed away very peacefully, with a smile on his face, without a struggle.

He was unconscious for a little time, but not altogether so.

He would have full consciousness every once in a while, and then his face was so bright.

He said: "I am a child of God."

Then he called all members of the family.

It was hard for me as I stood with the rest of the family and watched him for hours, till he breathed his last.

Then he told me to thank you for all the kindness you have shown me, and for accepting me as a member of the family.

Then he told me to thankyou for your letter saying you forgave him.

I thankyou for your letter saying you forgave him.

Your sister in the Christ, (Mrs.) Lulu Bavry.

WE REJOICE exceedingly in the fact that God forgave Edward Bavry, and that he knew in his spirit that we would forgive him also; and that Zion's Love and Helping Hand would not fail in the hour when he was Awakened to see the exceeding Sinfulness of his Sin.

No Weapon formed against Zion has ever prospered.

All who have joined hands with those who sought to profit from Zion's success, and to establish undesirable places at our very door, have failed to accomplish their Evil Designs; while the Judgment of God have been very manifest.

OUR REMOVAL of this young man from fellowship when he fell into sin was, as will be seen, Divinely Justified; for it was the means of his awakening to see that he had never really been in Zion; for he had not become a New Creation in the Christ.

Discipline is essential to Purity, Peace and Love.

LET THE Warning be effectual to some that may have thought our action harsh, and let them fear lest they fall into the same Condemnation and Punishment.

One of our brethren, writing from Sawyer, Wisconsin, on November 3d, speaks of the terrible agony this young man endured until he confessed his sin:

It took three men holding him to keep him in bed. He has made a confession to those at his bedside, explaining how he had wronged Zion, and that he wanted the General Overseer to forgive him.

He has asked God to forgive him, and made a very deep repentance.

Referring to the telegram which had been sent to us, the writer, Mr. John Magnussen, says:

Your answer has been received, and he seems some better, but he wants the assurance that you have really forgiven him.

This assurance, as we have already said, was given by us gladly and promptly, but God had given it to him before he received it from us.

ZION'S LOVE goes out to the widow and the orphan, and we shall not fail, God helping us, to do what we can, as we do in all cases, to help the widow and fatherless in their affliction."

But we deeply grieve that, by an Act of Disobedience, a bright, strong young man should be numbered with the dead when he might have lived to be a happy Christian worker in Zion.

Alas, however, he had not truly repented and believed, and obeyed God from the heart.

Hence when the temptation came, his profession fell from him like a cloak of hypocrisy, and he joined himself to Zion's enemies while eating Zion's bread.

THE INCIDENT is not a common one in Zion, we thank God.

It has made a deep impression upon the people.

The story of Ananias and Sapphira, who conspired against God and their tragic death, as recorded in the 5th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, made a deep impression upon the Church and upon the people in those days; for the inspired writer, Mr. John Magnussen, says:

And Great Fear came upon the whole Church, and upon all that heard these things.

And by the hands of the apostles were many Signs and Wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

But of the rest durst no man join himself to them; howbeit the people magnified them; and believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes... both of men and women; insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some one of them.
And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits:
and they were healed every one.

MAY GOD GRANT that this, and some other events in Zion City which we do not care further to record, shall be the means of producing a Godly Fear " upon the Whole Church," and upon all that hear these things, and be followed by increased blessing in the Salvation and Healing of Multitudes.

ZION CITY is an unhealthful place for hypocrites and cowards.
They had better not come, and if any such are here, they had better not stay, unless they deeply, fully, and practically repent and obey God, and " those who have the rule over them in the Lord," so far as they follow God.

OUR ESTEEMED General Associate Editor, who is also the Manager of Zion Printing and Publishing House, Deacon Arthur W. Newcomb, has been making a brave effort and an earnest appeal to our readers for some months to Increase the Circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING to a Subscription List of One Hundred Thousand by January 1, 1863.

WE CALLED for a report from him a few days ago as to the success which had followed his efforts, and we think it well to print that report exactly as we received it yesterday.

ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE
John Alex. Dowie
1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago
CHICAGO, November 14, 1902.
REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Zion City, Illinois.
Dear General Overseer:—In accordance with your request, I am sending you a report of the result of our campaign to increase the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING to 100,000 by January 1, 1903, giving the figures up to Friday, November 14th.
On the first of July of the present year, believing that there was no mightier factor in the spread of the momentous messages of the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, than LEAVES OF HEALING, we began a six months' campaign for the increase of the circulation of that paper to 100,000 yearly subscribers.
Considering the circulation of the paper at that time, this was a task such as no other periodical has ever attempted, but we believed that if each member and friend of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion would do his or her best, it was by no means impossible.
While the results up to date have not come up to our expectations, owing to the many unforeseen contingencies which arose, we thank God for the wonderful record which has been made, and look forward with brightest hopes to the remaining forty-seven days of this year.
In the figures which we shall now give, we offer the explanation that we count subscribers as the United States Postoffice regulations permit us, as follows:
All those who receive the paper regularly and pay for it themselves; all those, a limited number, who receive the paper regularly, paid for by friends, and all those papers sent regularly in quantities to those who sell them.
When we began this campaign, on July 1st, there were approximately twenty thousand subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING.
Since that time, a large number of those who were taking from five to fifty copies of LEAVES OF HEALING every week and selling them have removed to Zion City, where their opportunities for that kind of work are not so great, and as a result, there has been a falling off of about three thousand in this kind of subscriptions.
Since we began this campaign, there has been no effort whatever to push the ten weeks' subscriptions, and during the campaign about five thousand of these have expired, thus making a total loss, which was unforeseen, of eight thousand subscribers.
Notwithstanding this loss, however, there are now about 23,000 subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING, a net gain of 3,000, and a gross gain of 11,000.
It will also be remembered that there has been, throughout the most of this campaign, a scarcity of money in the country, which has very seriously affected our results.
Another consideration which is worthy of notice is the fact that when so many of our best workers removed to Zion City, they not only cut off their subscriptions for quantities, but they also very greatly reduced the number of those upon whom we could depend to assist us in our campaign in the wide field.
Besides the subscription list, it will be remembered there are one to ten thousand copies of LEAVES OF HEALING sent out as sample copies and for Free Distribution by Zion Literature Mission every week, thus increasing the actual circulation of the paper to from twenty-four to thirty-three thousand.
Four years ago, when I first began work in Zion Printing and Publishing House, the circulation was four thousand five hundred.
A brief comparison of our circulation with that of other religious papers may be of interest.
LEAVES OF HEALING has a larger circulation than that of the principal Congregational, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and Episcopalian denominational papers published in Chicago, and ranks about equally, in total circulation, with the Baptist and Methodist papers, exclusive of the Epworth Herald, which is the young people's paper for the entire denomination.
In conclusion, we wish to say that the heavy losses for the reasons mentioned are about over, and the remaining forty-seven days of this year ought to give ample time for tens of thousands of the members and friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to make an especial effort along this line, and give you and all in Zion the great joy, before the end of the year, of seeing the circulation increased to the 100,000 mark which we believe God led us to set at the beginning of this campaign.
It is indeed a large task, but by no means impossible. If twenty thousand of the subscribers at present on our list would each gain four, during the remaining weeks of this year, the mark would be reached.
Thanking God for the success which He has given, and earnestly praying that He will continue to be with us in this campaign, I am, with Christian love and prayers,
Very respectfully your servant in the Christ,
ARTHUR W. NEWCOMB,
General Associate Editor and General Manager.

WE WANT now to take a hand in this good work.
Last Wednesday evening at our Weekly Rally in Shiloh
Tabernacle, of between three and four thousand, a suggestion that we made was received with great enthusiasm, namely, that, as a Thanksgiving Offering to God, we should make an earnest effort to Double the Subscription List on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 27th.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

LEAVES OF HEALING has now been established more than eight years, and we have never permitted a single advertisement from the world to appear in its columns.

We have even limited the advertisements from Zion to the mere announcements of our Financial Institutions, and have kept the advertisements of our General Stores, etc., to our semiweekly paper, The Zion Banner, which contains the news from day to day of Zion City, and a very excellent condensation of News from All Parts of the World.

LEAVES OF HEALING must stand upon its merits.

If it is not worth five cents per copy, let it perish.

We know, and God has abundantly justified us in saying so, that it is worth infinitely more than it costs; for it has brought Salvation, Healing, and Holy Living, and Innumerable Blessings to multitudes of homes in all parts of the world.

WE SHALL never soil the Wings of our Little White Dove by making it a mere Money-making Raven.

That has its place, if the money is made legitimately and for God; but LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on Wings, and it is a sacred Messenger of God to many.

WE HOPE to be able to preserve it from the clutches of worldly advertising.

Doubtless we could have increased its circulation more rapidly, and placed it upon a commercially profitable basis long ago had we done as others do.

But from the very beginning, this paper, and every type and machine in our Printing and Publishing House, has been to us as a Holy Thing, reminding us of the words in the book of the Prophet Zechariah:

In that day shall there be upon the Bells of the Horses, HOLY UNTO JEHOVAH.

And the pots in Jehovah's House shall be like the bowls before the altar.

Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be Holy unto Jehovah of Hosts:

And all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein:

And in that day there shall be no more a Canaanite in the house of Jehovah of Hosts.

AND NOW we must close, although there is much that we would like yet to say, but we are writing on the morning of publication, and neither time nor space permit us to continue.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.
LEAVES OF HEALING.
ELIJAH THE RESTORER closed his present Series of Messages, unveiling the Roman Apostasy, with a most masterly exposition of the deep inconsistency and duplicity of that wicked system, in National Affairs, and the absolute hostility of the Dogma of Papal Infallibility to Civil Allegiance.

On the two previous Lord's Days he had been contrasting the Rome of St. Paul and the martyrs with the Rome of Leo XIII., and on this, the occasion of his third and last Message on the subject, he delivered the crushing blow up to which these had led.

The great power of this Message lay in its Divine authority. It was the arraignment of the Man of Sin Revealed and his close associate, the Lawless One, by Elijah the Restorer, the prophet sent by God to lay bare the true nature of these two characters of the Latter Days. It was fact, historic truth, backed up by indisputable authority. It was a conviction of the Roman Catholic church out of its own mouth. It was a warning, clear and unmistakable, to all Loyal Citizens of All Nations, against the bitter enemy of free institutions, seated on the papal throne in the Vatican. It was an arraignment such as the pulpit, Dress and platform of the present day fear to make.

But, although standing practically alone, save for God and His people, this mighty prophet of these latter days fearlessly and boldly made the attack. Fact was laid upon fact, citation strengthened and confirmed by citation, authority backed by authority, no link being left weak, as the unyielding Chain of Evidence was forged against the Roman Apostasy. Although, in the very nature of things, such an argument must needs be long, and might easily become dry and uninteresting, the General Overseer so condensed the array of facts which he hurled against Rome, and infused such vital interest into his words, that by far the greater part of the audience remained intensely interested until the close; then, rising, gave themselves to God in the prayer of consecration, without which no public Zion service ever ends.

Directly in front of the General Overseer at this service were Zion Robed Deacons and Deaconesses and the members of Zion Restoration Host, who had arisen early that morning and left their homes in Zion City, to go two by two through the streets and lanes of the city of Chicago, carrying the Message of the Everlasting Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living through Faith in Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

The parquet circle and the boxes were filled, for the most part, with visitors, while the great balcony contained a great many of the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in and around Chicago and Zion City, and many strangers. There were probably more than five thousand people in the Auditorium.

The deep and reverent interest manifested by this great, composite audience, in that Solemn Act of Praise and Worship, the Processional of Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers, in the Invocation, Hymn, Recitation of the Apostles' Creed, impressive reading of God’s Commandments and the Te Deum, showed that these Forms of Godliness are losing none of their Power, but continue to work, in the spirits of those who hear and behold them, that which is in the spirits of those who participate—the Power of a Living Faith in a Living God.

The Recessional Hymn, “The Son of God Goes Forth to War,” was a fitting close to this great service, and brought all into a spirit of love and loyalty to the Christ as the General Overseer pronounced the benediction. But the closing stanza seemed to linger, as it came from the invisible Choir who had passed out in long lines of white array—

A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Throne of God rejoice,
In Robes of Light arrayed.

Yes, that is all that God requires—to follow the Christ fully, and to witness for Him every day and everywhere.

Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in His train.

Crown Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of Love;
Behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

Crown Him the Lord of Peace,
Whose power a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise;
His reign shall know no end,
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
The Holy Catholic Church;
And Thy saving Health among all the Nations.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 226:

Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
Till ev’ry foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

RECESSION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles’ Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose from the dead;
And siteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body;
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the Response, “Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.”

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My Commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain: for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor’s.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

X. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

Scripure Reading.

The General Overseer said: Let us read in the Inspired Word of God, first in the 22d chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, beginning at the 15th verse:

Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare Him in His talk.

It is a common thing in all the ages for the Scribes and Pharisees, if possible, to entangle a person in conversation.

Deliberate and Continuous Misrepresentation of Zion by the Press.

Unable to do that in this Auditorium, it is the constant practice of the uncritical and mendacious press of this city to narrowly and continually misrepresent.

Never have they reported correctly and fairly one single address which I have delivered in this place.

I suppose I have preached in this Auditorium many times more than any other one man since it was built, and to larger audiences.

I have spoken here for eighty-eight Lord’s Days, to average audiences of about five thousand, or an aggregate attendance of four hundred and forty thousand persons of all classes in the community, and to many thousands of strangers passing through Chicago from all parts of America and from many parts of the world.

Yet I have to read the first fair and honest report of what was said or done by me in this great building—for the rental of which alone I have paid more than twenty-five thousand dollars, and for admission to which I have never charged a cent.

My audiences would, on many occasions, have filled a building two or three times larger, could they have found seats, or, in many cases, even standing-room. This was proved on the first Sunday I returned from Europe, in January, 1901, when twelve thousand five hundred persons gathered together to greet me in the Chicago Coliseum, and from twenty to twenty-five thousand persons stood for hours in the street, unable to get even standing-room in that immense building.

While every unclean thing that happens in this city, every scandal, and every piece of uncritical politics can find long exposition, yet these vast audiences, as well as the speaker, are from year to year and week to week insulted by reading or Monday morning a direct, positive and wilful misrepresentation and perversion of what I have spoken.

Of ten times one of it is true, especially when placed in inverted commas, as if it were an exact quotation.

This is an old trick of the enemy.

In every age it has been so.
When a man has offended the press the command is sometimes given: "Put down your pencil and do not report him." That failing to be effective, they persistently misrepresent him. They twist what he says until it means exactly the opposite. They pervert everything and lie without any fear of consequences.

John Bright was one of the greatest orators and noblest statesmen who ever lived. A purer patriot, larger minded politician, nobler defender of the rights of the people, there never lived in England. However, because he was an opponent of the Corn Laws and the abuse of liberty in every form, he pleased the press, for many years, to call him a red anarchist. They instructed their reporters to put down the pencil whenever "that babbler" spoke.

The day came when a reporter of the Times would think himself very highly honored if he could get one word of his opinion on any great subject from John Bright. They would send their reporters from Land's End to John O'Groats to report anything he said. They pervert everything and lie without any fear of consequences.

Lord's Day Afternoon, November 9, 1902.

The General Overseer then read from the 2d chapter of the 2d Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

SCROLL READING CONCERNING THE APOSTASY AND THE REVELATION OF THE MAN OF SIN.

The Mystery of Lawlessness.

There is nothing so mysterious as Lawlessness. It is so absolutely ridiculous and contrary to everything which makes for human happiness. Lawlessness is indeed a Mystery. What a mysteriously foolish thing it is that any one should want to run against laws which are righteous, good, pure and true, and to be ground to powder between the upper and nether millstones of Divine Law.

Law must and will prevail, and Lawlessness must perish. Otherwise, the Universe itself would become a Universal Chaos, and all society a Universal Hell of Filth, Horror and Hatred, Bloodshed and Robbery, Deceit and Murder, "Red Ruin and the Breaking up of Laws."

The seed of open Anarchy is secret Lawlessness.

For the Mystery of Lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that strengtheneth him, until he be taken out of the way.

And then shall be revealed the Lawless One, whom the Lord Jesus shall stay with the breath of His mouth, and bring to naught by the Manifestation of His Coming.

Even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan, with all Power and Signs and Lying Wonders,

And with all deceits of unrighteousness for them that are perishing: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And for this cause God sendeth a Working of Error, that they should believe a Lie:

That they all might be judged who believed not the Truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Havig Pleasure in Lying.

What a horrid thing it is for a man to deny Truth and to have pleasure in Lying.

Nevertheless that is the very atmosphere of Twentieth Century life.

There are thousands upon thousands of books of fiction written, and read, in hundreds of millions of copies, until the minds of the multitudes are unable to distinguish between fiction and that which is called history.

Ofentimes books of alleged history are simply written for party purposes. Some one, in speaking of Allison, said that he had written a history in a great many volumes to prove that Providence was a Tory.

You have to go back to get the facts themselves, and it is impossible to trust partisans who wrote to please the church or the party to which they belonged, or for whom they wrote.

They would get back which I have always said, and which is never challenged, a weekly report of falsehoods, running on from year to year for the last twelve years.

You have to be careful in reading history: for Liars often tell which the facts very care fully, and, at the best, it is often extremely difficult to know whether you have found facts, or fictions, or misleading distortions.

If any one were to try, five centuries hence, to dig into the mud and mire of Chicago history for the facts connected with my poor little ministry, and endeavor to get them out of the daily newspaper press, oh, what a mess they would be in!

They would get back which I have always said, and which is never challenged, a weekly report of falsehoods, running on from year to year for the last twelve years.

You have to be careful in reading history: for Liars often write the records of the lives of those who loved Truth.

Roman Catholics will tell you many stories about the good Queen Mary, and Protestants will speak of her as Bloody Mary.

One will praise her piety, and the other will blame her for her treachery, declaring that she married Phillip of Spain in order to deliver England into the hands of Rome and to destroy the civil and religious liberties of the people.

You will have to choose between those assertions by getting all the facts on both sides and weighing them.

Americans and, in fact, nations in general, do not bother much about getting the real historical facts. Few are strong in history.

That is one reason why the people fall into so many mistakes which they might easily avoid if they learned the lessons which History so clearly teaches.

Archbishop Ireland can tangle you all up in five minutes with his "blarney" and by his indomitable courage in telling History so clearly teaches.

That is one reason why the people fall into so many mistakes which they might easily avoid if they learned the lessons which History so clearly teaches.

Archbishop Ireland can tangle you all up in five minutes with his "blarney" and by his indomitable courage in telling the most shameful lies about the liberality and the trustworthiness of Papal Rome.

Ugh!

He knows he lies.

Of course he does.

I intend to show you today how he lies. I intend to show you how every Roman Ecclesiastic must lie when he talks about the possibility of an intelligent and devoted Roman Catholic being a patriot with an undivided civil allegiance.

The thing is impossible.

But we are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, that God chose you from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.

Wherefore He called you through our Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.
UNVEILING ROMAN APOSTASY.

111

His grasp of all these questions was that of a giant, and today ordinary statesmen look like pigmies alongside of him.

It was my privilege to take some part in the fight in which he was so distinguished a leader, and I have no memory in all my past, in that line, that gives me greater joy than that I had his personal approval, and received from him kind words and a copy of one of his able pamphlets as a complimentary return for the pamphlet which I sent him.

A Fight Against Roman Apostasy in Australia.

I had a good deal to do in fighting Roman Apostasy in Australia, during the seventies of last century. I took some considerable part in public affairs, and I was chosen once by the great Liberal party in New South Wales to voice, with Sir Henry Parks, the sentiments of the Liberals of Australia in connexion with the policies of the British Empire, then under the premiership of Benjamin Disraeli.

I also had the distinguished honor of cooperating with Mr. Gladstone in his conflict against Vaticanism in the seventies.

One of the mementos which I have of that is a little pamphlet of Mr. Gladstone's, entitled "The Influence of Authority in Matters of Opinion," which he sent to me in 1877, with kind acknowledgment of the pamphlet I had published in Sydney in February of that year. I will quote from my own pamphlet, which is entitled "Rome's Polluted Springs, Being an Examination of and a Reply to Archbishop Vaughan's Address on Hidden Springs." I will also quote from Mr. Gladstone's pamphlet which is entitled "The Vatican Decrees in Their Bearing on Civil Allegiance; a Political Expostulation."

I had to deal, not with Cardinal Manning, as did Mr. Gladstone, but with Archbishop Vaughan in Australia—Roger Bede Vaughan, brother of the present Cardinal of Westminster, who was such a distinguished leader, and I have no memory in all my past, in that line, that gives me greater joy than that I had his personal approval, and received from him kind words and a copy of one of his able pamphlets as a complimentary return for the pamphlet which I sent him.

The False Claims of Rome to Claim Roman Catholic Emancipation.

Every Irishman who is acquainted with the history of his country and the struggles for deliverance from political oppression will remember that in the twenties, when the question of Roman Catholic Emancipation came up, and when it was discussed for years, that the British Government, Parliament and people were unwilling to remove the disabilities which prevented Roman Catholics being members of either the House of Lords, the House of Commons, or of the Judiciary of the country.

They believed that a fair interpretation of the Roman Catholic's position made not only the Church infallible, but also the Pope. It was upon the most solemn and the most official and the most dignified repudiation of any such dogma of Papal Infallibility, especially, that the British government and people removed the political disabilities under which the Roman Catholics of Great Britain and Ireland suffered.

It will be too long a story to go into it here in detail.

Archbishop Kenrick, who only recently died in St. Louis, in the Vatican Council itself, repudiated the Dogma of Papal Infallibility. He voted against it up to the last moment and said: "It is contained in no authoritative book, published among any English-speaking people. In England and Ireland it was repudiated by the bishops in the most solemn manners and its repudiation contributed essentially to Catholic emancipation, and to the removal of national prejudices."

He never promised or in any way spoke with approval of it, beyond saying, "Petrus dictus, ecclesia dicta." (Peter says it, or the Church says it.)

He had nothing to say; but there is no question that Archbishop Kenrick was no more in favor of the Papal Infallibility than Dr. von Döllinger, who led the Alt-Catholic movement in Germany, and who was, at the time he was excommunicated from Rome on account of his hostility to the Dogma of Papal Infallibility, the most distinguished philosoper, historian and teacher in that church in Germany. Bishop Hefele, the most eminent ecclesiastical historian in the Roman Church, said, when the subject was before the Vatican Council: "The Dogma of Papal Infallibility is never going to be repudiated, both in speech and in writing, as a calumny."

Mr. Gladstone's Charges Made in the Most Solemn Manner in 1874 Are True.

The Roman Catholic church, which had been growing more and more apostate as the centuries rolled on, and which at last had turned completely upon itself and practically repudiated its proud boast of "semper eadem," was confronted by four charges which Mr. Gladstone formulated in his famous pamphlet, "The Vatican Decrees in Their Bearing on Civil Allegiance."

These charges are:

1. That "Rome has substituted for the proud boast of semper eadem, a policy of violence and changing faith."
2. That she has refurbished and paraded anew every rusty tool she was fondly thought to have disused.
3. That no one can now become her convert—"I call your attention to this.
4. That she (Rome) has equally repudiated modern thought and ancient history.

In proving these charges, Mr. Gladstone contended most ably that Cardinal Newman had rebuked the Roman Curia before the Dogma of Papal Infallibility was uttered. After that he was silent.

He was very old, and beyond one famous piece of work in conflict with Gladstone, he practically said nothing.

He, although led away into the Romish Apostasy, is a scholar, and a dying saint. My own lovely daughter asked me to sing it to her as she went through the Valley of the Shadow out into the Eternal Light of God.

Fights Systems, Not Men.

Do not mistake; while I am fighting against a rotten and bad government and an Apostate Church, I am not denying that the Faith, the Hope and the Love which the Gospel engenders flourish in the hearts of millions in the Roman Catholic communion who know nothing of these extreme and blasphemous and diabolical claims of Mariolatry, Papal Infallibility, etc. Mine is not a fight against the people, it is a fight against the leaders who control the people, and who, speaking for them and enslaving them, have destroyed their most precious pos. session and endangered them in a terrible manner throughout the whole world, and especially in the United States.

Mr. Gladstone noted that Cardinal Newman, protesting against Jesuit assumptions, said: "Why should an aggressive and insolent faction be allowed to make the heart of the just sad, whom the Lord hath not made sorrowful?"

But Mr. Gladstone has shown that the bishops, especially of the Church of Rome in England and in Ireland, had denied in the most positive manner that the dogma of Papal Infallibility was a part of the faith of the Roman Catholic Church.

Hypocritical Expressions of Civil Loyalty by Roman Catholics.

For instance, Bishop Doyle, when giving evidence before a committee of Lords and Commons in 1825, in answer to the question:

In what, and how far, does the Roman Catholic profess to obey the Pope?

Replied:

The Catholic professes to obey the Pope in matters which regard his religious faith and in those matters of ecclesiastical discipline which have already been defined by the competent authorities.

He was then asked the question:

Does that justify the objection that is made to Catholics, that their allegiance is divided?

Bishop Doyle answered:

I do not think it does in any way. We are bound to obey the Pope in those things that I have already mentioned. But our obligation to the Pope and the allegiance which we owe the sovereign are complete and full and perfect and undivided, inasmuch as they extend to all political, legal, and civil rights of the king of his subjects. I think the allegiance due to the king and the allegiance due to the Pope are as distinct and as divided in their nature as any two things can possibly be.

It was upon such declarations as these that Roman Catholic Emancipation was granted.

Every one of the Roman Catholic Bishops, and the whole of the Vicars Apostolic in the year 1826, "who, with Episcopal authority, governed the Roman Catholics of Great Britain," made these declarations.

By the word "Vicar Apostolic" is meant an Apostolic Delegate. The real ruler of the Roman Church in the United States of America is not an Archbishop, or Cardinal Gibbons, but this man at Washington, who is the ruler of all the Bishops and Archbishops and Cardinals of the Church of Rome in the United States.

There is one who rules him, however, and that is the dark master, the Jesuit. You have one in America, at Washington, D.C. He is an Apostolic Delegate, a Vicar Apostolic.

The Jesuits work steadily towards their end with sleepless energy, large intellectual power, great skill and low cunning, without laying down their reason and their civil allegiance and everything that men count worth possessing, at the feet of the Pope.

They declare on oath their belief that it is not an article of the Catholic Faith; Infallibility was not an article, and never had been an article, of the Roman Catholic Faith.

The Infallibility Dogma is Now a Corner-stone of Roman Belief.

Now, however, that Dogma is the very corner-stone of that Apostasy; it is the whole thing.

There is nothing else in Rome now, but a so-called Infallible Head.

And yet they declared it never was the faith of the church. But many of the most distinguished ecclesiastics at the Vatican Council in Rome in 1870 declared that it never had been the faith of the church.

In the teeth of it all, the Jesuits packed that Council and carried the Dogma on July 18, 1870, and today the Roman Catholic church itself has drifted away from its moorings and is adrift upon a stormy sea, where it is sinking! sinking!! sinking!!!--and where multitudes are perishing.

That proud boast, then, that Rome is "always the same" has utterly failed.

Rome is not always the same. Rome never was consistent at any time.

She was always changing, chameleon-like, her colors from one Apostasy to another.

Bishop Doyle, for instance, repudiates in the most severe language the abominable practices of many of the popes of medieval times and practically declares that in the Middle Ages the popes had gone to the Devil.

Pope Hildebrand, Pope Gregory VII, as he is usually known, declared that the Church had become almost wholly apostate.

He declared it to be a scandal beyond all expression that that church had become so corrupt.

He said:

Away with expressions which nurture vanity and wound love.

Concerning this rejection of the title of universal father or pope, and all which that word implies, he, in voluminous correspondence, insisted most strongly that it belonged to the Saviour alone, the common though Invisible Head over all, and ought not to be applied to any human being.

But how did Pope Gregory VII. end his days? Deposed from office, cursed by Pope Clement III.—which of them was infallible?—he died at Castiglione on May 25, 1085, crying in his dying agonies, "I have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore I die in exile."

The Crowning Iniquity of the Roman Catholic Church.

There is no question at all that at no time had the church, apostate as it was, ever been so wicked, so shameful, as thirty-two years ago, when, under the leadership of the Jesuits, the Council declared the Pope to be infallible, that awful blasphemy was perpetrated which destroyed the possibility of any one being a member of the Roman Catholic Church without laying down their reason and their civil allegiance and everything that men count worth possessing, at the feet of a blasphemous and fallen ecclesiastic.

Moral and mental freedom and civil loyalty and duty are at the mercy of the Pope.

What is the dogma?

How did it come into existence?

I feel the difficulty of explaining, to a general audience, that which would require a long series of lectures to make perfectly clear.

Diabolical Characteristics of the Jesuit Order.

The Jesuits work steadily towards their end with sleepless industry.

They pursue the diabolical policy which is expressed best by Satan, in Milton's Paradise Lost:—

Better to reign in hell than serve in heaven.

The Jesuit, with devilish tenacity and with splendid concentration, large intellectual power, great skill and low cunning, and with powerful material resources, sleeplessly pursues his object—to make the Church, and then the world, the slave of the two empires which, as I firmly believe, he controls.

He controls both the open Empire of Roman Apostasy and the Secret Empire of Masonry, and, practically, all that belongs to both.

Jesuit Control of Secretism.

I say that in the teeth of you who belong to the Masonic Order, and if you deny the Rule of the Black Pope, the Jesuit General, tell me, O Masons, Who is your ruler? You cannot tell me, for he is veiled from you.

In that degree of the Knights of Kadosh, beyond which there is nothing, it is called me plus subre, the head of the Order puts his hand through the curtains and his face is not seen. If it could be seen, I believe that you would find it to be that of the Jesuit General, or one associated with and wholly subservient to him.

I hesitate not to say that the Secret Empire of Secretism, which strikes blow after blow in God's favor and the Divinity of the Christ, is the Church seeks to establish a worship of lust, of a religion of Baal, is under the control of the Black Pope, just as that same Black Pope controls Leo XIII., the White Pope.

There is simply no question, to those who have closely observed, that the Jesuit power is plotting, by means of these Two Empires—the World Empire of Romish Apostasy, and the World Empire of Masonic Secrecy—to enslave humanity and place upon the throne of universal dominion the Man of Sin Revealed.

Failing to do that, they will bring about Revolutions, in Europe especially, which will make way for the Lawless One, whom the Lord Jesus, the Christ, will find to be the Opposing Power when He comes to establish His Millennial Reign.

Jesus Full Control of the Pope.

Pursuing the suicidal policy they have followed for years, from 1826, when England gave Roman Catholic Emancipation, they worked enthusiastically to make the Pope the absolute controller of the church, so that they, controlling the Pope, would therefore control the church and the world.

Their success is their destruction. One of the first things they did was to extend the worship of Mary and to establish the Idolatry of Mariolatry.

Practically the Mother would say, as she said then: "Whatsoever Jesus saith unto you, do it." If she were standing here today, the Blessed, Holy Virgin Mother would say, as she said then: "Whatsoever Jesus saith unto you, do it." Jesus said:

I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me. She who gave that command to the servants that day, when the water was changed into wine, would give that command now.

She never claimed, the apostles never claimed, the Scriptures never claimed that she was immaculately conceived; but she was sanctified and prepared by the Holy Spirit to be the Holy Mother of the Holy Child Jesus.

But the next step of the Jesuits was still more important. Syllabus Preparatory to Council Which Promulgated Infallibility Dogma.

An Encyclical Letter and Syllabus was issued which contained certain declarations that must be accepted before the Council could come together.

It is a very long Syllabus. I could read it to you in Latin, but I think I would read most of you out of the building.

I will read you only certain extracts from it, which will show you its real nature.

This Syllabus is an ex cathedra utterance of the Pope, and is therefore held by the Roman Catholic Church to be infallible, according to the Dogma of Infallibility contained in chapters 3 and 4 of the Constitution Pastor Eternus, in the Decree promulgated at the Council of the Vatican.

These eighty propositions which Pope Pius IX. sent forth contained amongst them the following:

The Pope Pronounces an Anathema on Everyone Who Holds:

That every man is free to embrace and profess that religion which, according to the light of reason, seems to him to be true.

You are allowed no individuality.

That the church has no right to use compulsion; it has no temporal power, direct or indirect.

That the church ought to be separated from the state, and the state from the church.

That matrimonial causes and relations belong to civil society.

Therefore you can see that every person who is not married by a Roman Catholic priest or who recognizes the right of the Law in connection with marriage is anathema and accursed.

In his preface to his book, "Rome, and the newest Fashions in Religion," pages 5 and 6, Mr. Gladstone gives the details of a case where an English adulterous husband joined the Church of Rome, and went through the form of marriage in an English Roman Catholic Church, his chaste wife, with whom he had lived for more than a quarter of a century, being still alive. Some question arose as to his marriage in the Roman Catholic Church, and the case was referred to Rome, where the first marriage, to an English Catholic lady, was declared to be null and void, and the second marriage, to a Roman Cathol cic woman, with whom he had lived in open adultery, was declared to be valid. Meanwhile the injured wife was declared by the British Courts to be his lawful wife, and the bigamous husband admitted that she was, according to British Law. But the vile fellow took his paramour to his estate, introduced her as his wife, registered her spurious children as legitimate, and Roman Catholic priests openly acknowledged that woman as his wife. Mr. Gladstone declared that Cardinal Manning knew all these facts. This proves that the Pope claims the right to annul all marriages not performed in the Roman Catholic Church.

That in our time it is useless to regard the Catholic religion as the only state religion to the exclusion of every other cultus.

That the law is right which in certain Catholic countries provides for foreign residents the enjoyment of their own peculiar forms of worship.

That the Pope might and ought to put himself in accord with progress, liberalism and modern civilization.

These are specimens of the eighty Anathemas hurled by the so-called infallible Pope at the world, and at the Church before the Council came together.

Rome Agitation over the Dogma.

This is the infallible, ex cathedra utterance in an allocution in 1856. When the Council came together great agitation prevailed throughout the whole Roman Catholic world, and quietly does today.

I often hear that it is said by distinguished Roman Catholics in this country that the Ecumenical Council has only been adjourned without a day, that but that it may and it ought to be reconvened, because its own Decrees must be reaffirmed and, in accordance with ancient practice, must be established by that reaffirmation.

I do not think that these gentlemen need trouble themselves.

How the Church May Convene an Ecumenical Council.

The Roman Catholic Curia will never reconvene that Council. You will have to change the entire Constitution of the Roman Catholic Church, and place it in the hands of the

UNVEILING ROMAN APOSTASY. 113
Christian Catholic Church. Then we will get an Ecumenical Council. (Applause.)

That is what a Cardinal of the Roman Church has said. That is what an Archbishop of that Church has said, when looking at the title of this Church. I stood by the side of that Cardinal in the Rue Cambon in Paris, and heard him say: "It is good; it is better to be a Chretienne Catholique than a Roman Catholic. O God, make me a Christian Catholic!" I tell you there are those in the Church of Rome who today are seeking for light, and are determined to fight. I tell you too, in America and in Europe, and to her seat of power in the Vatican, that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion will yet replace her and take her real power in the world and establish the Rule of God. (Applause.)

The Text of the Dogma of Papal Infallibility.

The Dogma of Papal Infallibility is principally contained in two chapters of the decree of that Vatican Council. I will read it to you in English. I have it in Latin, if anybody wants it. I am not altering a word, and the translation which I give is one that is admitted by Roman Catholics to be correct.

Chapter III. Hence we teach and declare that by the appointment of our Lord the Roman Church holds over all others a sovereignty of the ordinary power (ordinaria potestas—power of the Ordinary, who in ecclesiastical law is one having immediate jurisdiction), and that this power of jurisdiction over the Universal Church, NOT ONLY IN THINGS WHICH RELATE TO FAITH AND MORALS, but also in matters which belong to faith and morals, AND TO THE DISCIPLINE AND GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH SPREAD THROUGHOUT THE WORLD; or that this power has, both individually and collectively, been, by their duty of monarchical subordination and true obedience, to submit, not only in matters which belong to faith and morals, but also in matters which relate to discipline and government, to the Pope, and to the Pope in connection with matters which pertain to faith and morals.

Now I will stop there for a moment. In the Church of the Holy Angels the other day a Jesuit answering me, though not by name, said that the dogma simply referred to the Pope in connection with matters which pertained to faith and morals. I would be quite willing to accept that definition, and show that moral duty extends to everything in daily life, and that there is nothing exempt from the sweep of that application, but I point out to the priest who criticized me the exact wording of the Decree, that it says:

To submit, not only in matters which belong to faith and morals, but also in those that appertain to the discipline and government of the Church throughout the world.

No matter what this command may be, anything that affects the discipline or government of the Church—and of that the Pope is to be the judge,—that is a part of the things in which every Roman Catholic must obey the Pope, and of which we speak for him.

—so that the Church may be one flock, UNDER ONE SUPREME PASTOR, through the preservation of unity, both of communion and of profession of the same faith with the Roman Pontiff. THIS IS THE TEACHING OF THE CATHOLIC TRUTH, FROM WHICH NO ONE CAN DEViate WITHOUT LOSS OF FAITH AND SALVATION. If, then, any shall say that the Roman Pontiff has the office merely of inspection or direction, and not the entire and supreme power of jurisdiction over the Universal Church, NOT ONLY IN THINGS WHICH RELATE TO FAITH AND MORALS, but also in those which relate to the discipline and government of the Church spread throughout the world; or assert that he possesses merely the principal part, AND NOT THE ABSOLUTE FULLNESS OF THIS SUPREME POWER; or that this power which he exercises is not of any kind, i.e., that of an ordinary, and immediate, both over each and all the churches, and over each and all our pastors and the faithful, LET HIM BE ANATHEMA.

There is no place for him in the church or on earth. He must go to hell if he differs with this definition.

Chapter IV. . . . . Therefore, faithfully adhering to the tradition received from the beginning of the Christian faith, for the glory of God our Saviour, the exaltation of the Catholic religion, and the salvation of Christian people, the Sacred Council approving, WE TEACH AND Declare THAT IT IS A DOGMA DIVINELY REVEALED, THAT THE ROMAN PONTIFF—when he speaks ex cathedra, i.e., when, in discharge of the office of pastor and doctor of all Christians,—

Who made him that?

He assumes it.

God never made him that.

Peter never assumed it.

It was never declared by anybody until he assumed it.

—by virtue of his supreme apostolic authority, he defines a doctrine regarding faith and morals to be held by the Universal Church—BY THE DIVINE ASSISTANCE PROMISED TO HIM IN BLESSED PETER,—

Where?

Not in the Bible.

—IS POSSESSED OF THAT INFALLIBILITY—

Where in the Bible?

Not in the Bible.

—with which the Divine Redeemer wished that His Church should be endowed,—

Where is that in the Bible?

It is not in the Bible.

—for defining doctrine regarding faith or morals; and that, therefore, SUCH DEFINITIONS OF THE ROMAN PONTIFF ARE IN THEMSELVES, AND NOT BY REASON OF THE CONSENT OF THE CHURCH, UNALTERABLE. But, if any one—which may God avert—presume to contradict this, our definition, LET HIM BE ANATHEMA. Well, I will contradict it. (Laughter.) I am not anathema, and I have contradicted it a long time.

That is the letter of the Dogma. What does that Dogma mean?

You say that it is a question for Ecclesiastical Law, and that I am not a lawyer.

If We Had Less Lawyers, the World Would Be Very Much Better Off.

Woo unto you lawyers!

"Woe unto you," you are a bad lot, with exceedingly few exceptions. May God give us some of that few in Zion! We have some. Most lawyers, however, are a crooked and bad lot. They openly, continually, and even while professing to be Christians, "justify the wicked for a reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him."

I have nothing to do with the Roman Catholic canonist or lawyer.

I have to do, and so have you, with the plain, straightforward interpretation of this Dogma in the plain words in which it is put.

I have also to do with the facts connected with it, and the way which the Pope, and the Civile Cattolica, his organ at Rome, defined it.

I have also to do with Cardinal Manning's definition of it, under the direct sanction of Rome.

What then shall I say of the definition of the Dogma, in its application to Civil Allegiance?

Cardinal Manning's Bold Definition of the Dogma of Papal Infallibility.

Cardinal Manning makes no mistake about this. He says that this Dogma of Papal Infallibility has but one meaning.

In the Pro-cathedral at Kensington, October 9, 1864, six years before it was promulgated, speaking as for the Pope, he said:

I acknowledge no civil power;—

No matter what continent it is upon.

I acknowledge no civil power; I am the subject of no prince; and I claim more than this—I CLAIM TO BE THE SUPREME JUDGE AND DIRECTOR OF THE CONSCIENCE OF MEN—of the peasant that tills the fields, and of the prince that sits upon the throne; of the household that lives in the shade of privacy; and the legislator that makes laws for kingdoms; I AM THE SOLE, LAST, SUPREME JUDGE OF WHAT IS RIGHT AND WRONG.

If that is true, he is God: and, if it is not true, he is an incarnation of the Devil.

That is just what he is.

A proud, blasphemous Man of Sin.

But more:

Declaration of the Divinity of the Pope.

Under the direction of the Propaganda de fide, Dr. Littledale, translating a sermon which is sent forth by that great congregation for the propagation of the Roman Catholic faith, which is presided over by a Cardinal in immediate touch with the Pope, says that about this time:

M. M. Berteaud, Bishop of Tulle, in a sermon now before me, preached in St. Eustache, Paris, in 1864, and reprinted as No. 69 of a series of tracts published in the "Société d'Études Théologiques de l'Institut Catholique de Tou- loure," sustains the thesis that St. Peter's confession of Christ, as commented on by Christ Himself, shows that St. Peter did not need to be taught by Christ, but was in private and confidential relations with God the Father independently of the Son, and that the like privilege extended to his successors; so that the Father and the Pope may have, and probably have,
UNVEILING ROMAN APOSTASY.

I

SECRETS BETWEEN THEM IN WHICH CHRIST DOES NOT PARTICIPATE, and that it is practically safer to go to the Pope than to Christ, for when the Pope speaks, it is more (but not than Christ speaking); IT IS GOD THE FATHER HIMSELF.

There is the declaration of the Pope's essential Divinity as well as Infallibility.

But that is not the only one.

The Pope Held to be Fountain Head of Faith and Religious Life.

The Civilta Cattolica, a Roman newspaper, in a Papal Brief dated February 12, 1866, was commended as being the purest journal of true Church doctrine, and its editorship was thereby vested in a kind of commission.

Therefore we may look upon its articles, not only as representing Roman Catholic opinion, but as almost Papal in their authority, seeing it is the recognized organ of the Roman Curia.

In an article on "The Father of the Faithful," meaning by that term the Pope, it says:

IT is not enough for the people only to know that the Pope is the head of the Church and the Bishops, but that their authority, seeing it is the recognized organ of the Roman Curia.

And still more recently, it utters the blasphemy in these words:

When the Pope reflects, it is God who thinks in him.

He is God according to that doctrine.

There is a declaration made by Bellarmine long ago, who designated the Pope to be Vice-God.

The Pope Held to be Third Incarnation of the Christ.

Professor Faber actually described the Pope as the Third Incarnation of the Christ; the birth at Bethlehem and the "host " being the other two.

I will not continue to quote from Roman Catholic writers, of which I have a great many here.

How long since is it that the Popes became infallible?

The Decree says that the Apostle Peter was the first Pope, that he was infallible, and that every one of his successors has been infallible.

Historical Instances of Crimes of "Infallible" Popes.

It is very interesting, is it not, therefore, to go into the history.

The Ranke's "History of the Popes," or Bishop Hefele's "History of the Councils," a Roman Catholic work.

Take any candid Roman Catholic writer, and what will you find as to the character of the Popes?

Gerson, the German Chancellor, preached a sermon before Alexander V., in which he charged Pope Marcellinus that he had gone into the heathen temples, after he was Pope, of Vesta and Isis, and burned incense as an act of heathen worship.

You will find that Alexander VI., Rodrigo Borgia, was a shameless villain, and the story of his crimes and those of his son, Cesare Borgia, and his daughter, Lucrezia, is too horrible and indecent to relate.

Was he infallible?

But the Council says Popes have always been infallible; so that when Popes have been wicked they must have been infallible.

Leo X., Giovanni de Medici, received the priestly tonsure at seven years of age, held benefices at eight, became a Cardinal at thirteen, and Pope at thirty-seven; but was simply an elegant pagan, giving himself to heathen art and heathen literature.

It was he who sent out Friar Tetzel to get money for the Papal benediction, to crown his infallible.

Stephanus VII. annulled the acts of his predecessor Formosus, and ordered those ordained by him to be reordained.

Was he infallible?

John IX. afterwards annulled these acts of Stephanus, and confirmed the acts of Formosus, whilst, to crown this infallible confusion, Pope Sergius III. condemned both John IX. and Formosus, and confirmed the acts of Stephanus!

Who was infallible?

The contradictions are too numerous to mention, and are a weary record of hypocrisies and crimes.

And yet the Vatican Council Decree of Papal Infallibility says this Infalibility began with Peter!

Paul did not think that, when, at Antioch, he "resisted him to the face because he stood condemned.

The Dogma of Papal Infallibility, if there were no other proofs, is the unanswerable proof of the Apostasy of the Roman Catholic Church: for it is (1) Unscriptural, (2) Unreasonable, (3) Unhistorical, (4) Blasphemous, (5) Hypocritical, and (6) Dangerous to humanity everywhere.

It dethrones God and Faith and Reason, and aims at enthroning the Devil and a Lie in the hearts and lives of hundreds of millions of people who profess to be Christians.

This proves the Roman Pontiff to be "the Man of Sin" of whom coming Paul prophesied, in the 2d Epistle to the Thesalonians, 2d chapter, verses 3 and 4.

This Dogma, in Its Bearing on Civil Allegiance, Is a Very Serious One.

You say, "Oh, it is only an Ecclesiastical Decree, and nothing will ever come of it."

Let me tell you what has come of it.

In America, not in Great Britain, where the Roman Catholics send clever men like Vaughan and Ireland, Gibbons and others to speak with all dignity and seductiveness and pretentiousness and bombastic idiocy—

It is very easy to look solemn. If I were merely an actor, I could do it, too. (Laughter.)

You have no idea how I could do that, but what an ass I would be!

The Pope's Acceptance of Worship.

I am a man. When Cornelius fell down before Peter to worship him, Peter said: "Stand up; I myself also am a man."

Yet that miserable, pretended successor of Peter lets people kiss at his feet and kiss his old slipper or toe, if they can get at it. (Laughter.)

Disgusting!

What is the effect of this as a political measure?

If it were only an Ecclesiastical Dogma that had no political effect, it would not be very much worth talking about.

The Attacks of Popes on Civil Allegiance and Liberty.

Let me give you some illustrations of what has been done already.

Pope Pius IX., the immediate predecessor of this Pope, in a Papal Allocution on June 22, 1868, attacked the New Austrian Constitution, which he did not like.

Let me tell you, and let me thank God for it, the Roman Catholics in Austria-Hungary, who are among us today, who is from Budapest, Hungary.

He comes into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion with solemnly excommunicated him and threw his naked and mutilated body into the Tiber.

Which of these two Popes was infallible?

A third pope excommunicated them both.

Who was infallible?

John XXIII. declared ex cathedra that his predecessors Clement V. and Nicholas IV. had promulgated certain principles that were erroneous, and were heretical because they had attributed unjust and dishonorable acts to the Christ and His apostles.

Who was infallible, John XXII. or Clement V. or Nicholas IV.?

Or were they all just what they really were, a set of abominable rascals?

Innocent III. repealed a decree of Pope Celestinus.

Which was infallible?

Stephanus VII. annulled the acts of his predecessor Formosus, and ordered those ordained by him to be reordained.

Was he infallible?

John IX. afterwards annulled these acts of Stephanus, and confirmed the acts of Formosus, whilst, to crown this infallible confusion, Pope Sergius III. condemned both John IX. and Formosus, and confirmed the acts of Stephanus!

The Attacks of Popes on Civil Allegiance and Liberty.

Let me give you some illustrations of what has been done already.

Pope Pius IX., the immediate predecessor of this Pope, in a Papal Allocution on June 22, 1868, attacked the New Austrian Constitution, which he did not like.

Let me tell you, and let me thank God for it, the Roman Catholics in Austria-Hungary, who is among us today, who is from Budapest, Hungary.

He comes into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion with probably about 900 others. They are only a few of a great many whose faces are Zionward. One hundred and fifty of these are adult Christians in fellowship. The rest are associated with him. There are thousands and tens of thousands in Austria-Hungary who are breaking away from Rome; and this which I will now read to you is one of the causes.

The Pope, when a liberal constitution was proclaimed in Austria, that took away a good deal of his Peter's pence, rose up in the following allocution:

By our Apostolic Authority we reject and condemn the above-mentioned laws in general, and in particular all that has been ordered, done, or enacted in them and in other things, contrary to the rights of the Church by the Austrian Government or its subordinates; by the same authority we declare these laws, and their consequences, to have been, and to be for the future, NULL AND VOID. (Nulliusque ad iuxta.) We exhort and adjure our subjects, especially those who call themselves Catholics, and all who have dared to propose, to accept, to approve, and to execute them, to remember the censures and spiritual penalties incurred upon facts, according to the apostolical constitutions and decrees of the Ecumenical Councils, by those who violate the rights of the Church.

Concerning this action, an able and learned writer has observed:

By this sentence, the whole legislature and executive of Austria is placed under ban, with the Emperor Francis Joseph at its head.

That allocution has never been taken back; but some sort of a peace with Rome has been patched up.

Another of the Pope's actions was in dealing with the then republic of New Granada, which dared to adopt a constitution contrary to his wishes.

He delivered an allocution on the subject, and said that he condemned the constitution because that in it, among other things, "the right also of free education is defended, and liberty of all kinds is given unto all, so that each person may even print and publish his own thoughts, and all kinds of monstrous portents, and with the goblins, and profane powers, to worship he pleases. You assuredly see, venerable brethren, how horrible and sacrilegious a war is proclaimed against the Catholic Church by the rulers of the republic."

He closed this precious piece of "infidelity" with the following utterance:

We, raising, with apostolic liberty, our pastoral voice, in this your most illustrious assembly, do denounce, condemn, and declare utterly null and void, all the aforesaid decrees which have been there enacted by the Civil Power.

That is concerning a South American Republic.

How do you know that there has not been a secret Conclave at which the Constitution and Laws of the United States have been condemned, and declared to be null and void?

A Blow of an "Infidel" Pope at American Liberty.

You received your Common Law from England. You have your Common Law still from England. It is made by express statute a part of the laws of every State in this Union. The Magna Charta of Great Britain is the basis of liberty, and that was declared to be null and void by Pope Innocent III, in his Bull of August 15, 1215. This strikes at the foundation of all laws in England or in America. I desire to point out to you what this really means.

Mr. Gladstone's Definition of Scope of "Faith and Morals."

I will go back from my own writings to those of Mr. Gladstone.

I will point out to you what he says about it.

He says:

Will it be said, finally, that the infidelity touches only matter of faith and morals? Only matter of morals? Will any of the Romanists kindly acquaint us what are the departments and functions of human life which do not and cannot fall within the domain of morals? If they will not tell us, we must look elsewhere.

I ask, if there be dregs or tatters of human life, such as can escape from the description and boundary of morals. I submit that Duty is a power which rises with us in the morning, and goes to rest with us at night, and is consolative with the actions of our intelligence. It is the shadow which cleaves to us, go where we will, and which only leaves us when we leave the light of life. So then there is the supreme direction of us in respect to all Duty, which the Pontiff declares to belong to him, "auctor approbant concilii; and this declaration he makes, not as an unwise opinion of the scholiasts and modern doctors, sed simpliciter.

It is a declaration essential to faith and salvation, which, if any one does not believe, he is anathema.

There is simply no doubt that, such being the case, it is simply impossible for an intelligent Roman Catholic to be other than compelled to accept. Mr. Gladstone's four conclusions:

Real Force of the Pope's Claims.

1. That the Pope, authorized by his Council, claims for himself the domination (a) of faith, (b) of morals, (c) of all that concerns the government and discipline of the church.

2. That he in like manner claims the power of determining the limits of those dominations.

3. That he does not sever them, by any acknowledged or intelligible line, from the domains of civil duty and allegiance.

4. That he therefore claims, and claims from the month of July, 1870, onwards, with plenary authority, from every convert and member of his church, that he shall "place his loyalty and civil duty at the mercy of another," that other being himself.

Therefore, I declare, that it is a logical conclusion, from all these facts, that An Intelligent Roman Catholic Believer in This Dogma of Papal Infalibility Cannot be an Honest American Citizen.

He must be ready at any moment to march against his country and strangle its laws, if the Pope so bids him; therefore the Roman Catholic citizen has no longer any Civil Allegiance: for it is at the mercy of the Pope.

If it were a question of right and wrong that was at issue, it would be another thing; but it is a simple question of the will of one man, and that man thousands of miles away, who acts upon policy, cunning and caprice, who is the head of a Church which has been for many centuries the slaughterer of the saints of God.

I have in my own veins blood coming down from the ancient days of those who died for the Christ, when Rome endeavored to crush out liberty to serve God according to His Word and to conscience from my native land, Scotland.

Our ancestors in Scotland, rather than obey the Pope and deny their Lord and give up their liberty of worship, bled and died on the hillysides and in their houses, on the scaffold and at the stake.

We, who are their sons, shall not degenerate sons of sires who wrested Civil and Religious Liberty from this Man of Sin, the Pope of Rome, but we will continue to say that we shall be free if we die for it. (Applause.) All who desire to live and die for God, stand and tell Him so. (Nearly all arose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do good. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may obey Thee, love and serve Thee, and only Thee, all my life, doing all that I can to win men and women from sin to Salvation; from sickness to health; from death unto life; from hell unto heaven, through faith in Jesus, the Christ, alone, for His sake. Help us in His Name. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, change by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Now live it. Remember that some day you may find yourself where you may have to die for it.

May God bless you.

After the Recessional had been sung, the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the Benediction.

Beloved, arisen from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Finish your course well, knowing that the Lord is at hand. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever.

Amen.

Notice to Officers and Members of the Christian Catholic Church.

Send all newspaper clippings concerning the General Overseer, the Elders, or any department of the work in connection with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to Deacon Carl F. Stern, Zion City, Illinois. Send as soon as possible after publication, and carefully mark name and date of the paper clipped from on each article. If this is not done, the clippings are absolutely useless.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

As a brimming goblet holds one and yet another drop of water, so full to overflowing with spiritual blessing was the early morning meeting, Lord's Day, November 2, 1902.

The Message as given by the Prophet of God, the beloved General Overseer, was a Message instinct with life and power, and compelling to action.

As tangible as the beauty of sky and earth and the nestling little city in the glow of the dawning day, was the Message; wide as the arch of the heavens in its compass; in its humanity, as near as the clinging clasp of a child's hand; while love—love for God and humanity—permeated it all. The great audience, almost filling Shiloh Tabernacle, received the Message as given unto each alone, and at the close of the service hundreds went into the adjacent city, with full hearts, there to carry the blessed salutation of Peace to all, and spread the Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living throughout the world.

They went out not as burden-bearers, heavy and drooping, nor as slaves whipped into service, but gladly, joyously, brightly, with love in their hearts and shining through their eyes.

The Message as given by the General Overseer was a continuation of the exposition of the teachings of Jesus as recorded in the 7th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, November 2, 1902.

The service was opened by the Congregation singing Hymn No. 54:

Nearer the cross! my heart can say,
I am coming nearer;
Nearer the cross from day to day,
I am coming nearer;
Nearer the cross where Jesus died,
Nearer the fountain's crimson tide,
Nearer my Saviour's wounded side,
I am coming nearer;

I am coming nearer.

The General Overseer then read from the 7th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew:

Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you.

And why beholdest thou the beam that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the beam out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Give, not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Or if ye asked anything of him, ye would not believe, lest he should talk to you.

Imitate the sacrifice for Him which He made for us, for His Sacrifice was the Sacrifice of a Sinless One.

The Life which He gave for us was a perfect one.

The work which He wrought for us is one which we never can work for others.

In our degree we are to love as He loved.

Never forget that the Golden Rule is a great, good, and glorious thing, but it is not the Gospel.

It is the Law.

It is the Prophets.

They are very good.

Nevertheless, the Gospel is better than the Law or the Prophets.

The Gospel gets far above the Golden Rule.

All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them.

That is very good, but, after all, it is only tit for tat.

If I do for a man only that which I know he is going to do for me, that is not the Gospel.

Do for Others that Which You Know They Can Never Do for You.

I am going to do for men, if I can, things which they can never do for me.

I am going to make a sacrifice for people who never can make a corresponding sacrifice for me.

That is the Gospel.

I do not want to boast about it, but I have done some things for you which you can never do for me.

Voices—"That is true."

General Overseer—I have done some things for humanity which humanity can never do for me. I never expect them to do it.

I should be almost disappointed if they could. I like humanity to be my debtor.

I would like to be able to love humanity in such a manner as to let humanity get into debt to me.

I would like to be on the right side of the ledger with humanity all the time.

I do not want to be on the debtor side.

I would rather have a balance in my favor in the account of good deeds.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, November 15, 1902.

I would rather do more for humanity than humanity can ever do for me.

Zion Restorationists Doing That Which Others Cannot Do for Them.

We are going to do today some things which people cannot do for us.

They cannot bring to us the Gospel of which we have not heard.

You in Zion Restoration Host may take the Gospel today to some person for the first time; you may take a Message which they have never heard before.

That beautiful salutation of ours, "Peace be to this house," is taken to many a home where it never was heard before.

They never heard that salutation since the time that house was built, nor from the day they were born.

Carry that salutation in the Power of the Spirit.

Be able to say it from your heart to some weary woman who opens the door.

She may not care to be troubled by some one knocking at the door.

She may want to be quiet for awhile.

"Did you see there a man or a woman with a bright face and a smile in the eye, as if it were meant for her alone, who says "Peace be to this house," the poor woman feels the power of that Message.

"Where did you get that Message? Who sent you with that Message?"

That is something which she cannot do for you, because you have the Peace.

You are doing something for her which she never can do for you, for you are bringing that Message to her for the first time.

You do not expect people in Chicago to get up at 5 o'clock in the morning and come to Zion City to do us good, do you?

Did you expect the Baptists, the Methodists, the Presbyterians, the Episcopalians and the Roman Catholics to rise up at 5 o'clock this morning, get their breakfast, start off upon a journey to Zion City, and visit your homes with the Message: "Peace be to this house?"

Do you expect it? No.

You might just as well be a Jew who never became a Christian at all as far as your having made any advance upon the Law and the Prophets is concerned.

The Gospel teaches that Abounding Love which takes the Gospel to the heathen, who never can recompense you.

It enjoins the Love which takes the Gospel to the degraded, sin-cursed, disease-smitten world, and does a thousand things which you know no man can do for you.

That is the Gospel.

May we get the Gospel into our hearts.

There is a whole library of Christian experience just in the truth that the Golden Rule is not enough.

Let us keep the New Commandment—the Eleventh, as I call it, ever before us: for it came to us from God by a greater than Moses, even the Christ himself:

A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another: even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. (John 13:34.)

The Gospel Includes the Law and the Prophets.

It includes everything which is good in all the Bible.

However, there is something in the Gospel which is not in the Law, as there is something in the Christ which is not in Moses or the Prophets.

Prayer was then offered by various members; also by the General Overseer, closing with the chanting of the Disciples' Prayer.

The General Overseer then said:

"The first five verses which I read contain the teaching of Jesus concerning people minding their own business.

The trouble is that people are undertaking somebody else's business all the time. They are undertaking the work of final condemnation.

This word "judge not" does not only mean that you are not to make or form any estimate, but demands that you are not to assume judicial functions, unless you are a judge.

Do Not Judge Unless that is Your Legal Office.

But how many have judicial functions?

How many citizens in city, county, state or nation have judicial functions?

They are very few.

In fact, in this city, in one sense, there are none. We have not even a Justice of the Peace.

We have a Police Magistrate who is sure to be found attending to other business.

If you want to get anything done in the way of Police Magistrate's work, you will have to go and take his hands out of some good, hard, honest work that he is doing, and get him to clean up, because Police Magistrate Lamonde has something better to do than to sit in a Police Court all day.

The command "judge not ye be not judged" is an expression of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, concerning Christians assuming judicial functions, just as a great many Christians assume teaching functions who have no right to.

My brethren, be ye not many masters. The original reads, "be not many teachers."

How many people are fit to teach?

The idea of our Lord is: You mind your own business.

If your business is to be a judge, get to the place where you can be a judge.

No man can ever be a fair judge of others who has a beam in his own eye.
He will not be able to see how to take motives, beams or anything else out of his brother’s eye.

The First Thing Essential to a Judge Is Absolute Fairness.

A good judge cannot be swayed for a single moment by personal friendship, or the individual's good character, or his social or ecclesiastical position.

No man is fit to be a judge in Zion who does not take the humblest member of this Church and put him upon, the absolute ground of equality with her highest officer.

How many can do that?

To how many is this spirit of absolute impartiality given?

There are a great many people who, because they are this, that, or the other thing in the Church, expect consideration upon that ground.

That is the very thing which, with me, would tell against them.

If any one were to do a wicked thing who is in one of the high positions, I would make it harder for that person than for the humbler one.

I should think that it was only fair that I should.

The person who has had the best opportunity and the best position I would judge by a severer standard than the poor man who has had few advantages.

Fairness Is Not Equality.

That is only fair.

Fairness does not mean that you are to judge people equally.

That is not fair.

It is not fair to judge a person who has not had any teaching or training, equal to a person who has.

Fairness means that you are to judge them absolutely, bringing them to an equality.

That cannot be done without some pains, and some capacity, for it must absolutely destroy all partiality.

One should not receive accusations against one’s associates or persons one has entrusted with offices, and condemn them upon an ex parte testimony.

Then, on the other hand, one should not accept the testimony against the poor man just because a superior officer says so.

I have seen some superior officers make the most tremendous blunders.

They have told me things and have said, “Now it is true.”

“Well, how do you know it is so?”

“I have gone into the matter.”

“I want to know how you went into the matter.”

this.”

These whom you have had before you are the accusers of this man, or this woman.

Why did you not have the accused also? There may be quite another side to this story.

The Judge Who Does Not Hear the Other Side Is Not a Judge at All.

He is like the jurymen of whom Judge Barnes spoke the other night, who put on his spectacles and looked at the prisoner and declared that he believed him guilty.

The judge had said to the jury: “Jury take a good look at the prisoner,” and to the prisoner, “Prisoner, take a good look at the jury.”

Then the jurymen put on their glasses and said: “Your worship, I believe he is guilty.”

What is the use of judging like that?

Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, determined that final condem-ation should be left to Him. God alone can judge unerringly.

All that we can do, at the very best, is to give a judgment which seems to us to be right.

Those who know me personally, as a judge in this Church and in Israel, know that I never decide without giving the person accused an opportunity.

Never! I do not care who it is.

I do not care how humble the boy or girl is, or how wicked they have been, I will give them an opportunity.

They will not be punished without having been heard.

I will weigh all the facts given to the testimony of the person accused, because there is a prejudice natural enough to rise in the mind of even a judge against the person accused.

The mere fact that an accusation has been made is, in the minds of many people, a kind of prima facie evidence that there is something wrong.

I have found that that is wrong.

The Accuser Judged as Well as the Accused.

The person who brought the accusation has sometimes been punished ten times more than the person whom he accused.

When I have investigated cases, I sometimes have found that for one thing which the accused had done which was wrong,
I got on the track of ten wrong things which the accuser had done.

The accuser never imagined that he was going to be examined. However, after I have examined the person accused, I have examined the accuser and turned him inside out and upside down, and found out a great many things.

I do not believe for a single moment that our Lord Jesus, the Christ, meant that you were not to use good sense in deciding things, because the same passage tells us that we are to know men by their fruits.

You do not gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles, and you are bound to judge whether it is a crab-apple tree when you have the apple between your teeth.

There is no difficulty about judging between a grape-vine, with its luscious grapes, and a crab-apple tree.

You can judge by their fruits.

A great deal might be said on this question.

However, let this much be understood in Zion, now and at all times, that when a man or a woman brings a charge against another, he, himself, must be prepared to be judged as well as the person whom he accuses.

Unless their own record is absolutely clear, they had better not come.

Accusations Must be Made in the Right Spirit.

I will go into the whole matter.

I will not judge Tom Brown because John Jones says it.

I will judge Tom Brown, and after I have uncovered all the wickedness of Tom Brown, then I am going to turn around and judge John Jones.

I will find out the spirit in which this accusation is made.

I will also find out what Tom Brown has to tell about John Jones.

The greater part of these things should be forgiven, put away, and lovingly settled among yourselves by gentle, and kind consideration for each other.

If you must come before the judge of arbitration or myself, come in a right spirit, prepared to stand by whatever is judged to be right.

The best thing to say, beloved friends, when we are apt to judge others, is: “Is there not something wrong with our own eyes? Do our eyes focus correctly?”

Some of you see things double. Then again, some of you do not see things in the right proportion.

Some of you have eyes which reduce things and make them very small, especially when they are in favor of the other fellow.

You are very apt to turn the big end of the telescope to your eyes when you are wanting to examine the good deeds of some one.

When you are wanting to examine their frailties, you are very apt to turn a magnifying glass upon them.

The condition of the eyes is an important thing.

I question very much whether any two of us see the same thing alike.

An object may look to me with the naked eye to be a certain size.

If I were to put to my eye a certain kind of glass, I could reduce the size and send it far away, or I could increase the size, and bring it closer.

How many of you do that?

Our Judgments Are Very Much Like Our Eyes.

There are some people who see only blackness in others, when the real cause is the beam in their own eye.

I have seen a person who said that a certain thing was black when it was not. The black was in his own eye.

I have seen some who were color-blind.

They could not see color, and were constantly getting into trouble because they could not tell when they saw a danger-signal.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

They do not know the difference between red and blue. The Word of our Lord calls upon us to be exceedingly careful. In these addresses upon the Apostasy, as I examine the subject more and more closely, I find myself under the necessity of being exceedingly careful to maintain the proper proportion and to see what is right.

"Give Not That Which Is Holy unto Dogs."

Some of you will meet dogs today. You will meet men and women who are worse than dogs. When you meet a woman of that kind she is ten times worse than a man.

As a rule you will meet with a larger number of women prepared to receive the Gospel than men.

When you do meet a really bad woman, she is bad. It is harder to deal with her than it is with a man.

You will meet men who are mere dogs, intellectual dogs, big dogs and little dogs, black dogs and yellow dogs, well-bred dogs that have got into bad company, and dogs that never had any breeding at all, miserable little curs that never had any right to be born, you would almost think.

You are apt to become disgusted, especially when you see a mangy dog, a dog that is diseased, and you turn away.

It is worse to see a man or woman who is full of sin, and yet at the same time full of ugliness. They will turn upon you.

Give Love and Pity Even to Dogs.

Be kind to that dog, but do not give that which is holy.

If it is showing its teeth and snapping, be kind.

All you can do is to be kind, loving and gentle.

Even the little, nasty, mangy dog that gets ticks from everybody will look up when you say a kind word, and wag its ugly little tail. (Laughter.)

It will say: "I have found a friend at last."

You do not need to give a great deal of pious talk. There are looks and acts which come from loving hearts which are far more eloquent.

If you can only give a small pat, perhaps you might win even that poor little dog; it has need to be pitied.

Truly, if we pity the poor little dog, can we not pity these people?

Can we not take into consideration the fact that they never had a chance of being better?

At the same time, do not throw out a great deal that they are.

Some People Are Swinish.

Then there are people who are worse than dogs.

They are worse.

They are full of pig.

They start eating pig in the morning, they eat pig at noon, they eat pig at night. They go about full of pig.

They are swine.

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, told me to love every one, and I have brought you a Message which can make every one in this house to live a purer and a happier life. (Laughter.)

The Christ's Appeal to the Father-love of Bad Men.

It was very touching when Jesus said: "Which of you that is a father—"

Oh, these miserable Pharisees; these miserable Sadducees; these miserable Scribes that were hunting for His blood—it went to their hearts.

After the day is over the proud Rabbi enters his home and hears the little baby boy or girl cry: "Papa, Abba, Abba!"

There comes into his eye a light which has not been there all the day.

"Bread, bread. Come to dinner."

What are you going to give that child? A stone?

The child has been waiting for you and for supper-time.

Will you say, "Give the brat a stone?"

He wants an egg; will you give him a scorpion?

He wants a fish; will you give him a serpent?

A man may be a murderer; but, if he is a father and has a little child who is holding out his hands to him, will he give it bad things?

Voices—No.

General Overseer—He touched the very heart of humanity with even these people who were wicked and hated Him.

When they went home and saw their babies, would they give them stones, serpents and scorpions?

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask Him? (Laughter.)

The Need of Many Good Things.

We want many good things, and we need them for Zion. We want more Wisdom, Knowledge, Faith, Hope and Love. We want your kind cooperation, your sympathy, and we need your money; and what you have is God's and He has a right to it in Zion: for Zion is the Kingdom of God.

Some of you are not doing all your part.

Do not expect God to give to you all you need, if you are wilfully robbing God in tithes and offerings, or in work for the salvation, healing and cleansing of humanity, or for the destruction of the works of the Devil.

Do not expect to have the door opened to you when you do not open the door to God.

There are some of you who only let God into the kitchen. You only let Him in the back door.

You never give Him all the house.

Let God in, and then He will open the door and let you into all the treasures of His grace.

May He bless you in all your service for Him, caring for His lambs in Shiloh Tabernacle and in Zion City homes today, or in the battle-front with me in Chicago—one of "the high places of the field." It needs grace to stay at home as well as to toil everywhere in all the lands; in all the Zion Restoration Host. Be with us at the Lord's Table in the Auditorium and in all the work of today guide us by the Holy Spirit. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

PRAYER OF CONVERSION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name help us not to judge when we are not appointed judges. Help us to be brethren, kind and considerate to each other, and not willing to condemn. Help us, we pray Thee, to be wise to those to whom we go. If they act like dogs and sin, keep us from giving the holiest and the loveliest pearls. Help us to give them words of love, even if we cannot give them the best things, and to tell them many things which would be good for them to know. May we ask, seek and knock until we find.

Father, help us to know how much our Father wants to give us all good things. Now bless Zion everywhere in all the lands; in all Zion Restoration Host. Be with us at the Lord's Table in the Auditorium and in all the work of today guide us by the Holy Spirit. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.
ZION RESTORATION HOST

Elder A. F. LEE, Recorder

I HEREBY you, therefore, hearken, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not fashioned according to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.—Romans 12:2.

And from the days of John the Baptist until now the Kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.—Matthew 11:12.

ZION, as our beloved leader, the General Overseer of the Catholic Church in Zion, has declared, is a Nation, not a Church, for Zion is the Kingdom of God, which is much larger than the Church.

The Church represents the organized forces of the Kingdom, whose duty it is not only to defend every interest of the Kingdom, but also by aggressive warfare to take by force that territory which has been captured by the enemy.

Zion Restoration Host represents that battalion of the Church's forces which is to attack the enemy's strongholds, consequently, the Host must be composed of able-bodied, thoroughly consecrated men and women, of sixteen years of age or over.

While there are many below this age who would be glad to enter the active service of Zion Restoration Host, it is felt that the responsibilities involved in the Vow should be entrusted only to adult persons.

Let those under this age be given work under the direction of those in charge of Zion Junior Seventies, which should in all cases be regarded as a training department for Zion Restoration Host. We give herewith a copy of the application form which is being used in connection with Zion Restoration Host.

We trust that all members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion who are interested in this great movement, and who have not heretofore been enrolled as Seventies, will fill and cut out this form and mail it to the Recorder of Zion Restoration Host, at Zion City, Illinois, as soon as possible.

It should be borne in mind, however, by all, that in a great Nation not all are sent to the front in time of war, but on the contrary a Home Guard is required to protect the interests at home.

Thus in Zion's great onward movement, not all will be sent to distant points, but, as intimated above, the Zion Restoration Host must be composed of those who have so thoroughly consecrated themselves to God's service that they will be willing to go or stay, as the Commander-in-chief may consider their qualifications indicate.

Thousands are already cooperating with us in this great work in all parts of the world.

As we contemplate the result of thousands upon thousands of others being bound together by this Solemn Vow, we do not wonder that the hosts of Satan tremble. May God speedily give us an innumerable Host for the great conflicts which must, of necessity, be waged with the powers of Hell before the Kingdom can be presented to the Father.

Application for Membership in Zion Restoration Host

Being in full sympathy with the Gospel of Jesus Christ as it is taught in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and desiring to do all I can to extend the Kingdom of God, I herewith submit my name for membership in Zion Restoration Host.

VOW OF ZION RESTORATION HOST

I Vow in the Name of God, my Father, and of Jesus Christ, His Son and my Saviour, and of the Holy Ghost, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, that I will be a faithful member of Zion Restoration Host, organized at Skillet Tabernacle in the City of Zion on Lord's Day, September 11, 1902, and I Declare that I recognize John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, of which I am a member, in his threefold prophetic office, as the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet foretold by Moses, and Elijah the Restorer.

I Promise, to the fullest extent of all my powers, to obey all rightful orders issued by him directly or by his properly appointed officers, and to proceed to any part of the world, wherever he shall direct, as a member of Zion Restoration Host, and that all family ties and obligations, and all relations to all human government shall be held subordinate to this Vow, this Declaration, and this Promise.

This I make in the presence of God and of all the visible and invisible witnesses.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION’S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPECKER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

And all thy children shall be taught of Jehovah; And great shall be the peace of thy children. Isaiah 54:13.

PEACE is the legacy which Jesus, the Christ, left to his followers.

In the midst of any special conflict with the enemies of God and Zion, God’s people in Zion manifest their faith and confidence in Him.

They believe very practically in their Heavenly Father’s care over them and in His overruling Power.

No matter how fierce may be the battle, they calmly go on working, watching and praying and expecting the deliverance of God, and they are not disappointed.

The hands are not slack; the hearts are not fearful, and the faith is not shaken.

If there is a tendency for the natural heart to be affected by surrounding circumstances and environments, and fear seems to be creeping in at any place, they quickly pray to God to take it away and fill them with His Divine Love, which “casteth out fear.”

Why should they be afraid?

It is written in God’s Word:

He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

They not only have the plain Word of God, but they also have His special Messenger, Elijah the Restorer, to whom He has given authority, and whom He has sent in the power of the Holy Spirit to teach and lead His people.

Truly the people in Zion have been “taught of Jehovah,” and great is the peace of God’s children in Zion.

This teaching and ministry of Elijah the Restorer has reached unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

From far-away Russia come the following words:

Rev. John Alex. Dowie.

Dear Sir—I believe that you are indeed a great Prophet, sent by God to restore all things; and that through you the churches will commence to unite in the one true Church.

Yours in deepest gratitude,

Irene Kosschine.

On August 11, 1902, a letter was written in Switzerland to the General Overseer, asking him to pray for one suffering from a rupture, and expecting to be confined soon.

God’s servant in Zion prayed when the letter reached him, and now comes a letter which tells of the answer to prayer:

HERZOGENBRUCKE, Switzerland, August 11, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—Will you please pray for my dear niece, who is suffering terribly from a rupture, and expects to be confined soon.

I have been reading BLATTER DER HEILUNG for some time and I praise God for Zion and for the General Overseer, who is doing such a wonderful work.

Yours respectfully, MARIA NIEDERAUER.

HERZOGENBRUCKE, Switzerland, September 15, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—I have received your letter of August 28th.

I thank you with all my heart for your words of encouragement and cheer, and especially for your prayer on behalf of my niece.

I rejoice to tell you that God has heard and answered your prayer, for she was healed of her rupture and had a safe deliverance.

Will you remember me in your prayers, that I may be successful in distributing BLATTER DER HEILUNG in this village.

With Christian love,

I am, your sister in the Christ,

MARIA NIEDERAUER.

While conducting the meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle on Wednesday evening, October 15th, a telegram was placed in the General Overseer’s hands, for one who was supposed to be in the Congregation.

It proved that the gentleman was present and that it was a message from his wife, informing him that their daughter was very sick, and that he should come home at once.

Upon receiving this knowledge, the General Overseer said to him: “We will pray for Jennette, and shall trust that it will not be necessary for you to go home.

Do not go, until you have received further instructions from me.”

The next day the gentleman received a telegram which said:

Jennette is better. Do not trouble to come.

We publish numerous testimonies which show that, within the last few days, God has been very specially hearing and answering prayer, and that many have been saved, healed and instructed in the way of God through the ministry of Elijah the Restorer.

Every day has its record of prayers answered.

God says his seal of approval upon the ministry of His servant.

God lives, peace reigns, Zion rejoices.

WILTON JUNCTION, IOWA, September 15, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—I thank God for the victory He gave me a few days ago, in answer to your prayers.

I was taken sick with terrible pains in the stomach, which kept getting worse every minute.

My daughter put hot plates on my stomach, but instead of getting better, I kept getting worse.

I then made up my mind to put myself fully in God’s hands, promising Him to testify in Leaves of Healing, if I should receive forgiveness and healing.

Two friends who are believers in Divine Healing came at my request and earnestly prayed to God for my deliverance, at the same time sending a request for prayer to you, by telegram.

This was a little after 6 p.m., and not more than three-quarters of an hour later all pain left me, and my heart went up to God in thanksgiving for His great goodness.

Your reply, saying that you had prayed for me at 7:35 and would pray again at 12 p.m., reached me the following day.

I am glad to say that I am able to do my work as usual, for which I give God all the glory.

Thanking you for your kindness and love, and praying God to bless you, I remain,

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) ANNA MAURER.

Broken Wrist Healed in Answer to Prayer.

ORCHARD, IOWA, October 6, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—I rejoice to be able to testify to what God has done for me in the healing of a broken wrist.

Last April, while cleaning the sidewalk, I stepped on a large board which tipped up and threw me off the walk.

I struck my left wrist on the end of the board, breaking one bone and badly injuring the joint.

I rose to my feet and asked God to take away the pain.

My prayer was answered immediately. The pain was gone.

It was very badly swollen and purple, and I sent word to Deaconess Woodridge to pray for my healing.

In five days I began to use my hand, and in two weeks I could lift a pail of water.

I wrote to you for prayer, and in a short time that wrist was as strong as the other.

I thank my Heavenly Father for what He has done for me.

I thank you for your prayers.

Praying that God’s blessings may rest upon you and your dear wife and son, I am,

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) L. M. MERCIE.

Child Healed of Fever.

CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS, 206% NORTH SECOND STREET, September 29, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—About the 12th of this month my wife wrote to you and asked for prayers for our little daughter.

We have received your kind letter and are thankful to God to be able to say that the fever left the child the day after we sent the request for prayer.

I thank God that we have been led to Zion, and have learned how to fully trust in God for all our sicknesses and weaknesses.

Zion Restorationists in Champaign have taken great interest in us, for which we feel truly thankful.

May God bless you, and the work of Zion.

Your brother in the Christ, EDWARD KOCH.

God Wonderfully Heals Husband, Who Was Given up to Die by Many Physicians.

ORCHARD, IOWA, September 29, 1902.

DEAR ATLANTIC STREET, September 29, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER,—Praise the Lord, we have the victory!

This man whom Satan had bound for five months is loosed, and Satan is a conquered Foe.
I wrote to you on the 13th of August, saying that we thought that my husband was a little better, but he grew worse. The bile and gall which should have passed out of the gall-bladder through the bowels all came out of the opening of the abscess. The doctor said that the canal or passage from the gall-bladder to the bowels was stopped up with gall-stones and that it would have to be opened by an operation or the bile would all come out of his side. He could not have lived long in that condition. My husband had become so weak that he had no faith to trust God, and so they took him to the hospital in an ambulance. He was there nine days. They tried to operate on him, but he was so weak they said they did not dare to do so until he was stronger. He continued to grow weaker. A few of us had faith in God kept praying. One morning the Lord spoke to him and said: "Go home!" He told the head surgeon that he was going home to trust God to do the work. They brought him home so weak that he could hardly speak. He was carried on a stretcher. He told the doctors he would trust the Lord, whether he lived or died. In a few days he was down-stairs; in a week he was walking out of doors; in two weeks the flow of bile stopped. He opened the passage, and the bile passed out through the bowels. He had not yet enough faith to take the tube out. Deacon Staley, of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, came in and said he could not pray for him with that tube in, so he took it out, and the Lord healed it up the next day. He has been getting stronger ever since, and is now well, has a good appetite and works around the house. He has not had one drop of medicine since he left the hospital. He had not sat up for one whole day in five months. No one expected he would live. They took upon it as a miracle. Six doctors had given him up. When they opened the abscess, they cut down to the gall-bladder, and pierced it, but God has healed and opened the canal, which they were unable to do. To God be all the glory. One evening as I sat at the window laboring for breath, the Spirit said to me: "You need not suffer so, if you will only ask God to heal you of this trouble." I took Him at His word, and, while I prayed, the fulness and pressure passed away. I have not been troubled with it since. Praise the Lord! He answered while we called. "I also had stomach trouble so I could scarcely eat or drink anything without distress. As God had so completely healed me of my heart trouble, I asked Him to heal me of the stomach trouble." He answered my prayer. I have been free from it to this day. I have suffered from constipation for years. Since coming into Zion He has healed me of that also. I was overeaten at one time in the harvest field, so that I could not be out in the sun. A year ago last August I told my wife I was going to try to get a job feeding a threshing machine. She and my son laughed at me and said: "You cannot stand it; the sun will do you up." I felt as though there was a pressure over my heart. I could scarcely get my breath. One evening as I sat at the window laboring for breath, the Spirit said to me: "You need not suffer so, if you will only ask God to heal you of this trouble." I took Him at His word, and, while I prayed, the fulness and pressure passed away. I have not been troubled with it since. Praise the Lord! He answered while we called. She and my son laughed at me and said: "You cannot stand it; the sun will do you up."

I said: "I am going to take the 121st Psalm and go out and trust God for the outcome." I got a job, and the first day the thermometer registered 104. I fed fifty bushels of wheat in twenty minutes. I fed right along for about three weeks without any results. I had not been able to do any work to amount to anything for about fourteen years.

I was then living in Nebraska. Now I live in Zion City, the City of Refuge. I am helping to build the city, and am doing the hardest kind of work, chopping and grubbing. I am nearly sixty-one years old. Almost every day I think of the passage, "They that wait upon Jehovah shall renew their strength." I give God all the glory. It was so sweet to see all pain and suffering leave, and to know that Jesus had taken her in his arms, and kept her. Words cannot express our joy and thankfulness. Enclosed you will find 5 — to help extend this good work.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) Violet Kibler.

Healed of Many Diseases.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, September 24, 1902.

Dear General Overseer: — I have never yet given my testimony to God's healing, keeping and saving power, and I desire to do so now. Two years ago I accepted your teaching. At that time I was having severe difficulty with my heart. The doctors told me I was threatened with dropsy of the heart.

I felt as though there was a pressure over my heart. I could scarcely get my breath. One evening as I sat at the window laboring for breath, the Spirit said to me: "You need not suffer so, if you will only ask God to heal you of this trouble." I took Him at His word, and, while I prayed, the fulness and pressure passed away. I have not been troubled with it since. Praise the Lord! He answered while we called. Your sister in the Christ.

(Mrs.) Jane Black.

Beloved General Overseer: — About the 1st of September, 1902, Mrs. Verena Schipbach, of Dallas, Texas, sent you a request for prayer for rain, as the terrible heat in that part of the state caused great suffering.

She believed, when you prayed for rain at her request, that God would answer your prayer just as He did a year ago. We have received a letter from her, saying that at the time of prayer, September 4th, God not only sent them a big shower of rain, but also cooler weather, which they needed so much.

"I am so glad that God hears and answers Elijah's prayer," she writes, "and that I am now enabled to take up Zion Restoration Work once more."

"I had to give it up, because the burning sand blistered my feet through my shoes."

Yours in Christ,

Rosa Schlip.

Blessed in Paying Tithes.

GREAT BARRINGTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

September 22, 1902.

Dear General Overseer: — We have received great blessing since you prayed for us one month ago. Where we had only about $—— coming in monthly, we have had fifty per cent, more in the last three weeks, of which I will send $—— tithes. I trust God will bless and give us plenty of work. May God bless you and yours. I pay thank you for your prayers and for the teaching that God should have a share of all.

DO YOU KNOW GOD’S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [4] and the writer [14].

[4] What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing, in these days of men which men may know and avail themselves of, that is truly making manifest, in very much that you should know God’s Way of Healing, as I have done for many years?

[14] What is the way? In your own experience?

[4] If it is for fellowship and communion.—1 John 1:1-7.

About four thousand people in Zion City have promised to do this.

If you and all the others act upon that suggestion, it will

ZION'S ONWARD MOVEMENT

LORD'S DAY SERVICES IN THE CHICAGO AUDITORIUM

REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE
(ELIJAH THE RESTORER)

GENERAL OVERSEER OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION, IS DELIVERING

A SERIES OF SEVENTEEN
ELIJAH'S RESTORATION MESSAGES

IN THE
CHICAGO AUDITORIUM

SPEAKING

Every Lord's Day Afternoon at 3 o'Clock

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

ALL WELCOME    ALL SEATS FREE    FREEWILL OFFERING    CHRIST IS ALL AND IN ALL

The Chicago Auditorium is the largest building for public speaking in the city, having 4037 fixed seats, with room for 1000 on the stage and standing room for nearly 2000 more, a total capacity of fully 7000 people.

Grand Processional of over Five Hundred of Zion Robed Officers and Zion's White-robed Choir
GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

QUICKLY HEALED WHEN DYING WITH TUBERCULOSIS OF THE LUNGS, BOWELS AND BONES.

According to your faith be it done unto you. Lying upon a bed of suffering and death, this young woman cried unto God in prayer. But there was no answer. Words cannot even faintly portray the depths of her agony.

Her whole body was filled with the deadly filth of tuberculosis.

In her lungs, the terrible disease was clawing out their delicate tissues.

In her bowels, the relentless foe was eating, eating, eating, and pouring out his corruption until they were but a decaying mass.

The same fatal disease had attacked the bones of her foot.

Death was near at hand.

And so, out of the depths of her misery, she prayed.

But the blackness of the heavens was starless.

Why did not God answer?

Why did not His Divine Hand stay the awful Shadow of Death?

Why was His ear deaf to her despairing cry?

Why have millions of His children gone down to their graves, tortured and torn by this dread monster, crying unto Him in vain? Mighty men of God, saintly women, whose lives have been a benediction; pure youths and maidens, with the rich promise of years full of usefulness in His Vineyard, have been mercilessly slain by this unspeakable scourge, notwithstanding that hundreds joined them in prayer for healing.

Why, oh why, have the heavens been as brass to these agonized petitions? It was because these prayers dishonored God. It was because they were not prayers of faith, but prayers of unbelief.

They prayed as if God had never said: “In vain dost thou use many medicines”; for they were asking Him to heal by means of drugs.

They prayed as if He had not said, at the waters of Marah, “I am Jehovah that healeth thee”; for they were asking Him to give deliverance through human professed healers.

They assumed that He had spoken falsely when He said: “I am Jehovah, I change not”; for they asked Him to heal by means of physicians, although He had inspired His prophet to write: “He sendeth His Word and healeth them.”

They refused to believe that “Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, yea, and forever”; for they asked Him, who used to heal by a word or a touch, to change His methods and heal through poisonous drugs and surgeons’ knives. Their prayer was in direct disobedience to the apostolic command: “Is any among you sick? let him call for the Elders of the Church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord: and the Prayer of Faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up.”

God will not, can not, dare not, answer prayers that set Him aside as the Healer, and ask Him to do His work according to human methods.

How absurd to ask Him to bless the poisons used by a dozen widely differing schools of medicine, and of a number of different doctors, who can come to no agreement as to diagnosis or treatment; men who, for the most part, neither fear God nor regard man!

Asa, King of Judah, “sought not to Jehovah, but to the physicians.” He died.

Many hope to be heard because they seek, and the Lord and the physicians. They also die.

The principle is the same as that involved in the words of the Christ: “Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.”

This is not a matter of opinion. It is a matter of the Law of God.

People have no right to pray as they choose.

They must pray as God directs.

This Witness and her grief-stricken family prayed as the false teachers of the apostate churches had taught them.

Physician after physician gave his treatment.

She only grew worse.

Surgeon cut and mutilated her, but only caused great running sores and added suffering.

Then they all gave her up to die, saying that she could live but a very short time. One of the last that saw her said that she could live but a very short time.

In the summer of 1890 I had severe pain in one of my sides, of which I spoke occasionally after we returned home.

I was in bed nine weeks, and not getting very much food all these weeks, I became very thin.

Eating raw eggs at the rate of about fifty per week, for six months, I am quite sure would not have been good for me; so I just dreaded the very thought of taking eggs again.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

The following night I was awakened with a terrible pain in my right side, just under the lung, and it became so severe that I could only gasp for breath.

I rang for the nurse, who, after conferring with the doctor, gave me a hypodermic injection.

After this the pain was more severe than before, causing me almost more pain to breathe than I could endure.

However, I slept soon after and slept until morning.

When we asked the doctor to tell us what had happened, he said: "It was simply an accident, and if it had happened from the act of the nurses, I would have jumped at them."

Surely it was only our Heavenly Father, in His great love and mercy, who kept me alive during those days.

Shortly after my return from the hospital, there formed a gathering of pus in my abdomen, which broke open and was a running sore after that.

This was a rubber tube inserted in the other wound.

About this time, Dr. Friedlander attended me.

Upon my sister's question as to the length of time it would take to remain in the wound, he said that it would never come out again, for I could not possibly live long.

If it were taken out, he said, I would die so much sooner.

We moved to our little home in the country at the end of July, 1901, and as my death seemed much sooner, it was thought that we would not return to the city until I had passed away.

It was at this time Deaconess Storey gave my sister a copy of Leaves of Healing.

Sister read it and decided to take me to Chicago.

When in the country two weeks, I took very sick suddenly and suffered indescribable pain from 9 o'clock at night, until 3 o'clock the next morning.

While still in the city, I had one of these sick spells, but not as severe as this one.

When asking the doctor what to do at such a time, he said that nothing could be done; that these spells would follow one another closer and I would likely die of one of them.

During the last spell my abdomen swelled up to an enormous size, my bowels being hard as stone.

It seemed as if I would burst, every minute.

From this time on I was not a minute without pain.

Believing that something might be done to relieve me, a doctor living on the grounds was called in.

After seeing me, he told my family that the best they could do would be to put me in a hospital to die, so they would not need to be bothered with me, and would not need to bother any doctor, for there was no help for me.

She also said: "You can see for yourselves that she is all decayed inside, for her abdomen is discolored already and her death is only a matter of a short time."

When I was again able to be carried out on my cot under the tree where I lay all day, Leaves of Healing was thought of again.

We read it very carefully, at the same time turning to the places in the Bible where Divine Healing was mentioned.

After reading the wonderful testimonies I did not doubt that such miracles were performed in the same day.

Being asked whether I could believe that God would heal me, I said that I thought I could, but did not know how great faith was required to be healed.

Sister then wrote to the General Overseer and told him that I was in the last stages of consumption, and had been given up by doctors.

She also asked what the terms were if we would come to Chicago.

In due time the answer came, stating that if I was right with God, I could trust Him to heal me, we could come to Chicago.

At the same time attention was called to the fact that there was a meeting-place here in Cincinnati.

They letter stated that, aside from board, there were no other charges, for all God's gifts are free to all.

We also received the little paper called "God's Way of Healing" which we studied carefully.

At this time I put away all medicine and began to trust God.

The first evidence of healing was manifested when, one day, I was suffering intensely, and instead of making hot applications, as usual, we prayed, and believed that God would take away the pain.

I was placed on a couch and was asleep in five minutes and slept for one hour.

Two days before leaving for Chicago I was very miserable and not able to take a meal at the table.

But I felt that God could supply the strength I needed.

On the evening of August 19th, we started from home, which was twenty miles away from Cincinnati.

I had a good night on the train, suffering no pain whatever.

Arriving at Chicago, I walked from the Big Four depot at Twelfth street to Zion Home, and ate breakfast, which was just ready.

When asked how long we intended to stay, we said four days.

This seemed to be a short time, but I expected to be healed immediately.

For months before this I had not been able to stand erect, and was hollow-chested and stooped.

When walking through the hall at about 10 o'clock on the morning of our arrival, my sister almost shouted, and said: "Why, girl, you are standing straight."

I had not felt that God was strengthening me, but was delighted to find that He had done it, and praised Him for it.

There was a Divine Healing meeting at the Tabernacle on that afternoon, and it was thought best that I should ride there, but I felt strong enough to walk.

By the grace of God, I walked there and back again to the Home, to the great surprise of my sister, who had not seen me walk for nearly nine months.

On August 21st, we went to the business district and attended some necessary shopping, and on the following day enjoyed a delightful ride on the lake.

On August 24th, I returned home, healed of all except constipation, from which I had been a sufferer for over ten years and of which I had said I could never be cured, because the bowels were grown together with tubercular matter and knotted up so that the doctors could not do anything for that at the time I was operated upon.

I was permanently healed of this trouble within two days after giving up the syringe.

Since two days after my healing, I have been working very hard and have been kept well all this time.

I am so glad to be a member of Zion and also of Zion Restoration Host.

I am so thankful to God for sending me a man like our General Overseer, who teaches us the blessed truths of the Bible, which have been neglected in other churches.

I desire that all who come to me and say that if any part of the body is gone, it cannot grow again, that I can say it does grow again.

The right side of my chest was very hollow on the account of part of the lung being gone.

God has healed that lung so that the right side is now as well as the left one.

Thanking our Heavenly Father for all His wonderful goodness and mercy, I pray that He may bless you and your dear wife abundantly in doing His work.

Pray for me that I may be faithful in His service.

Your sister in the Christ,

Lousie Boehl Nowack.

Praise and Testimony

Blessed in Paying Tithes.

WILLIAMS BAY, WISCONSIN, November 6, 1902.

Rev. William Hamner Piper,

Dear Brother in the Christ:—I have for some time past felt it my duty to write my testimony for Leaves of Healing, concerning the blessing which I have received in paying tithes.

I have given God a tenth for several years, but I never noticed such a direct blessing through it as I did soon after sending my first tithes to Zion.

The Lord sent me a great blessing by putting it into the heart of some kind friend to send me Leaves of Healing for a year.

It was an answer to my prayer, as my husband was not willing for me to send for it myself.

I receive much blessing from reading it.

It is bread to my soul.

I praise God for leading me into Zion.

I pray that His richest blessings may rest on the General Overseer and his dear wife, by giving them a long life for His service.

I remain yours in the Master's service.

(Mrs.) M. E. Southwick.

God Supplies Tenant in Answer to Prayer.

WAUWATOSA, WISCONSIN, September 20, 1901.

Dear General Overseer:—On September 13th, when about to leave Zion City for a week or two, I sent in a request for prayer, asking that I might have a tenant for a vacant house.

On the 15th God gave me the assurance that my prayer was heard.

In two days the house was taken and the thing settled.

I thank God for His goodness, and you, dear General Overseer, for your prayers, and for teaching us how to pray.

God is greatly blessing my daughter and me in our trine beings.

Yours in the Christ,

J. HART.

Blessed in Returning a Tenth to God.

NEWFIELD, NEW YORK, September 14, 1902.

Rev. William H. Piper,

Dear Brother in the Christ:—I am unable to tell you of the many blessings which have come to me since coming alone to the old farm two years ago.

Since that time I have been giving God one-tenth of all that comes to me.

In doing this I am so conscious of His blessing and abiding presence.

God is coming into my life as never before.

Yours in Christian love,

Phineas A. Brown.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

THERE BE SIX THINGS WHICH JEHOVH HATETH; YEA, SEVEN WHICH ARE AN ABOMINATION UNTO HIM:

- Haughty Eyes;
- A Lying Tongue;
- Hands that shed Innocent Blood;
- An Heart that deviseth Wicked Imaginations;
- Feet that be Swift in Running to Mischief;
- A False Witness that Uttereth Lies;
- And he that Soweth Discord among Brethren.

For several years, and especially within the last three years, we have had reason to grieve over the fact that six of these Abominable Things have stood out prominently in the actions and words of leaders in the Salvation Army—an organization which we had hoped would be of great and permanent value in extending the Kingdom of God.

We HOPED against Hope; for our experiences and observations of the Salvation Army, extending over a period of more than twenty years, had shown us that its Hopeful Aspects had steadily diminished, while its Primitive Weaknesses and Serious Deviations from New Testament Requirements had increased, and had become painfully Acute Maladies.

It HAS FOR YEARS become apparent, also, to us, that the organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion would develop a Host of soundly converted and well-trained Christian workers, which would undertake Throughout the World the Work of the Salvation Army in a much better form.

ARMIES ARE NOT Churches and are not Nations.

Unless Armies are subjected to Civil Government among Nations, and to Ecclesiastical Discipline in the Church, they become the deadliest Foes of Good Order and Progress, the Destroyers of Life, Liberty and Law, and the Promoters of Death, Slavery and Anarchy.

Throughout all the Ages this is the unvarying Lesson of History in regard to National and Political affairs.

When Armies have conquered new territories, or defended ancient boundaries and become powerful, they have often been the destroyers of the government and the disturbers and deteriorators of every good thing.
So well known is this fact that all wise Statesmen, after successful wars, have immediately disbanded the victorious Armies, or lessened them in numbers, and distributed them in garrisons at great distances from each other.

Where this has not been done, as, for instance, during the French Revolution, then the Army has become, in the hands of a Napoleon, the Destroyer of National and Individual Liberty and the Creator of Imperial Despotism.

When the Salvation Army arose, about thirty years ago in England, out of the obscurity of a somewhat feeble Christian Mission in the East End of London, which had struggled for many years in poverty and weakness, it was hailed by many as a Hopeful Power, and as a strong and aggressive organization in the Evangelization of the very Lowest Classes.

It was also hoped that by Divine Wisdom and good management it might become an Evangelizing Force among the Middle and Upper classes in Anglo-Saxon countries, especially.

This latter hope, however, which, during the life-time of the Wise and Spiritual Leader, Catherine Booth, seemed to be upon the point of realization, and which was in a measure realized, steadily faded away under the Cruel and Metallic Policy of foolish Martinets, who pushed the idea of an Army to an absurd extent.

Only the most ignorant and illiterate, unthinking and unspiritual people of the lower classes could submit to be Officers or Members in an organization where thousands upon thousands of Orders and Regulations had taken the place of the Word of God and of the Spirit of Love, which had been the Motive Powers in the beginning of the organization.

As the years rolled on, the most spiritual and the ablest members of the Booth family, including Herbert and Ballington Booth, and their sister Catherine Booth-Clibborn, and her husband Arthur Sydney Booth-Clibborn, found it absolutely impossible to be officers or members of the Salvation Army.

Then, to our own certain personal knowledge, large numbers of the more intelligent members of the Army and Officers, some of whom had left splendid positions in the Christian Ministry, and in many Professional and Business positions, left the Army, being utterly unable to work in a System where Militarism, with all its attendant tyrannies, had taken the place of Wisdom, Love and Power.

The number of defections of Officers and Members of high rank is so great that they form, outside of the Army, a far greater number than those that are now in its ranks, so that when distinguished ex-officers meet each other, they usually say: "Well, we now belong to the Great Majority."

This condition has been aggravated by the departure of Despotic Officers from the original policy, which was so eloquently expressed by Catherine Booth and the most intellectual and spiritual founders of the Army.

Amongst these Irritating Despots, a first place must be given to Bramwell Booth, the deaf, and spiritually blind, Chief-of-Staff.

His cruel, relentless and utterly conscienceless severity are worthy of a place in the Jesuit Order, or in the Roman Catholic Inquisition; but are quite out of place in the organization as planned by his beloved mother, who was a far more potent power in the birth of the Army than his father who looked on with amazement as it came into being, except when he "fussed," as so many conceited fathers do at such times.

The eccentric, if not insane, Railton has been a mischievous element, for his eccentricities have led him to ride the "hobby-horse" of Army Orders and Regulations, until he and others have made the Army a contemptible Military Despotism.

Officers of high rank, especially the Booth-Tuckers, have flattered the somewhat weak and exceedingly narrow-minded General, whose strongest point is a dogged obstinacy which defies love, faith, reason, facts and truth.

These false counsellors have flattered the self-conscious General, and have carefully covered his grievous faults and his steady loss of personal piety with words and deeds of contemptible toadyism.

Hence the Salvation Army is but a Skeleton of what it was shortly after its beginning.

Its original weaknesses have been intensified, its best and most beautiful features shattered and eliminated, and there have been added to it many parasitical growths which have emaciated it in every way.

Its protest against Sin has become limited to vague generalities, and all kinds of iniquities are passed by unchallenged, if thereby a temporary gain seems to come to the Army.
It only strikes where its blows will not create public censure, and it flatters and cooperates, and depends for its strength upon association with Apostate Churches, Political Institutions, Suppressions of Truth, and Public Men who are without personal piety, and are often persons of very unclean lives.

We have known such persons to be deliberately selected to preside on Public Occasions, even when the leaders have been warned that they had selected men of bad character. But they were influential and rich; and Mammon covers many offenders in the Salvation Army all over the world.

The fact which is brought out very prominently in this issue of Leaves of Healing, that General Booth, when he arrives in a city, immediately becomes the Slave of the Press Ring, is in itself an evidence of the hopeless deterioration of the Salvation Army.

So, also, is the fact that he could shamefully abuse us recently in Exeter Hall, London, and in interviews which he gave to the Press before leaving England on his present American tour, and then, when his allegations were challenged and proved to be false, in Chicago, he takes refuge in a Guilty Silence, under the pretexts that it is a dignified rebuke to one unworthy of his notice.

But the impudence of the assumption only proves that the Leader of the Salvation Army has become a first-class Coward.

We direct the attention of our readers to the words which we spoke in the Chicago Auditorium last Lord's Day Afternoon, within less than a hundred and fifty feet of a neighboring hall in which General Booth was at that time speaking. They are reported fully on pages 145 to 150 of this issue.

We could have said much more, but felt that we had said enough to give him an opportunity to repent and apologize.

Having failed to do this, we feel ourselves at liberty to go forward next Lord's Day with a further Expose of the Apostasy of the Salvation Army and its Leaders.

For a number of years it has become apparent that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion would develop some strong form of aggressive work.

This has taken place in the formation of Zion Restoration Host, with about Six Thousand Members, on September 21st last.

The Host has, during the first two months of its existence, spread into all the Continents of the World, and into many of the Islands of the Sea.

It is a Wonderful Movement.

Considerable numbers of Officers and Members of the Salvation Army have come into our ranks and there are more to follow.

We have been very unwilling to build up our organization at the expense of any other, however feeble or however strong that organization might be, if it were only doing the work of God.

We have been especially unwilling to weaken the Salvation Army, and there are many officers now in it, and many who have left it, who can bear witness to the fact that we have urged them to stay in its ranks as long as possible.

But now we do not hesitate to say that the Salvation Army must take its place with the other Apostasies, and share their doom as an organization; and, therefore, it must be dissolved.

It is essential for the Full Salvation of the People in the Army, and for their growth in grace, that they shall leave it.

We shall, therefore, do our best to help in the dissolution of the Army by every legitimate means within our power, as opportunity shall offer.

The Great Purpose of our life has been to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.

Our religion has been a Happy Experience in the midst of many sorrows, trials, losses, crosses, conflicts, joys, comforts, and, over and over again, supremely glorious triumphs.

We can say truly that we have never envied any man's success in the ministry, but have rejoiced therein.

We did rejoice in its success, and helped, to the utmost extent of our power, the organization which it now becomes our duty to destroy.

When a so-called Christian organization has ceased to be a Blessing, it becomes a Curse to the Kingdom of God and to the Evangelization of the World.

An Army standing alone, without Ordinances, without Church Organization, without Scriptural Discipline, without a true Knowledge or Study of the Word of God, without Education, and rejoicing in its Ignorance, and with so many Evils in it, is an organization that must be swept away as speedily as possible.
LIKE THE Church of Rome, against which the Salvation Army never protests, it has become a greater hindrance to the progress of Christianity, with a few exceptions, than if it did not exist.

That is our solemn conviction, after many years of study and observation, and especially after the insight which has been afforded to us into its innermost heart by confidential association with distinguished Officers who have left it, and with those who are members of the Booth family.

Engaged as we are in the delivery of an important series of Restoration Messages, in which the Unveiling of the Apostasy of the Salvation Army had not been given a place upon our program, we cannot at present devote more attention to it than in the Prelude to our discourse which we have announced for tomorrow afternoon, namely:

"General Booth's Guilty Silence;
With some further Observations on the Salvation Army."

May God in His Infinite Mercy grant to us that we shall continue to speak the Truth in the Spirit of Love.

During the week which is now closing, we have, as in many weeks past, given very close attention to the work of God in the City of Zion.

Lecturing as we do to Zion College every Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, on Prayer, we have had intense delight in ministering, not only to the Faculty and Students, but to large numbers of Ministers and Christian Workers, whom we have gladly accorded the privilege of attendance.

It has been to us at all times a Great Joy to open our heart to our own people, and to impart freely such fruits of experience and knowledge as we may have gained during a Life of Prayer and Communion with God, extending over all our conscious existence.

We have been reflecting much during the last few days upon this subject of Communion with God in Prayer, associated with Communion in Service.

The constant appeals to us from all parts of the world, for many years, by the sinful and erring, the sorrowful and the sick, the perplexed and the despairing, as well as by devoted children of God, for direction in matters of conscience and in action, have led us to apply the Word of God, the Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life, to the wounds of groaning and afflicted humanity throughout the whole world.

Almost every Race and Nation under heaven has its representatives setting their faces toward Zion, seeking for help and guidance; and the fact that there are over sixty nationalities represented in this City of Zion proves that the Prophetic Word as to the composition of the "Little One," which is becoming the nucleus of a "Strong Nation," is already being fulfilled in Zion.

The love, the Unity, the Peace, the Purity, the Prosperity and Progress already made, and being made, by the probably Eight Thousand persons who have gathered into the City of Zion within less than fifteen months is also a proof that God is with us.

Another proof is that we have come through, and are coming through, triumphantly, a Series of the most Powerful Attacks by the Devil ever directed against any organization.

God's Sustaining Grace infinitely exceeds our Necessities at all times; and, therefore, we have conquered.

But we can never rest in Past Achievements, nor ever count the final battle won, when the campaign is only just begun.

Therefore, we need, above all things, a People who know How to Work and How to Pray; How to Live and, if need be, How to Die for the Christ, and for Humanity for whom He died.

We have been giving much attention during this week to the work of Zion Restoration Host.

At the great Assembly last Monday night we had the joy of hearing, for hours, reports of the work done by the great Regiment of about a Thousand, which goes forth every Lord's Day from the City of Zion into the City of Chicago.

They do valiant work from house to house, in the streets and lanes and boulevards and avenues of the city.

It is exceedingly difficult to convey to those at a distance the Holy Enthusiasm and quiet Self-Represen of these splendid workers, who, under most efficient leadership, go forth by two by two, under captains of tens and leaders of Seventies, into carefully mapped-out districts, with Special Messages for every home in these districts, and with other Zion Literature.
THE CONVERSATIONS and opportunities for impromptu meetings in the streets and in various halls and houses are very many, and the reports from these are very interesting.

The results are beginning to appear in many ways, and, notwithstanding all the continued opposition of the pulpit and the press, the people are increasingly kind and considerate to the members of the Host as they salute every home with the Message of Jesus, which He gave to the Seventies of old,—

"Peace be to this House!"

The Spirit of Peace, of Purity and of Power has accompanied theseMessengers and the Messages; for they have gone forth in the Spirit of Wisdom and Love and Truth.

Hour after hour at Shiloh Tabernacle was passed by the members of Zion Restoration Host last Monday night in delightful conference, until it was impossible to imagine that we had reached, not only the eleventh hour, but far towards the midnight hour, ere we closed the Conference and Assembly.

Our Tuesday afternoon Divine Healing Meeting was largely attended.

The Weekly Zion City Rally on Wednesday night was attended by thousands, and was a time of much heart-searching and blessing.

We have given much attention also during the week to the Business of Zion, and a number of very Important Changes, and, we regret to say, some Removals, have been made in the staffs of the Architectural and Engineering Departments.

The most important of the latter is that of Mr. Burton J. Ashley, who has been succeeded as Acting Chief Engineer by Mr. H. E. Eckles, B. S. in Engineering, who has been Assistant City Engineer from the beginning.

Mr. Harvey G. Hays is also no longer our principal general architect. He designed the Factory for Zion Lace Industries, and also Elijah Hospice and the Administration Building, and did other good work.

Mr. Paul Burkhard, late of Zürich, Switzerland, and a graduate of Parisian and German Schools of high standing in architecture, is now at the head of the Architectural Department, with a very efficient staff.

We shall thoroughly examine every one of the large Departments in Zion, making all needful changes after thorough investigation, and putting the work upon a still stronger and more efficient footing.

In this we are assisted by the excellent men who have so long cooperated with us, and whose zeal and love and intelligence and capacity grow more effective day by day.

The great Bureau of Zion Stocks and Securities, now being organized by Deacon Daniel Sloan, has already done excellent work, and a number of Special Financial Messengers from the City of Zion have been sent forth to aid friends in all parts of this country who are coming to Zion City, intending to make investments in our Zion City Lands, Institutions and Industries.

Having effected the initial organization of this Bureau, we have directed Deacon Daniel Sloan to make a Brief Visit to the northern portion of the Pacific Coast.

During that visit he will speak in Vancouver and Victoria, in British Columbia, and in Seattle, State of Washington, and in Portland, State of Oregon.

We do not think we shall be able to spare our able brother from Headquarters to visit in other portions of the Pacific Coast, as his stay can only be very short.

It will not be possible for us to give an itinerary, but we may say that he will leave Zion City next week, and it is probable that he will visit Portland and Seattle first, and make the visits to British Columbia later.

Our friends must everywhere pray for him, and hold themselves ready for his visit.

Deacon Daniel Sloan thoroughly understands the whole Situation in Zion, and has been with us as a member of our Business Cabinet from the beginning.

He has a richly-trained Spiritual Nature, as all know who have followed his Bible Lessons from week to week in these columns.

He is also a splendidly equipped Christian Business Man, able to give counsel, and to represent us well in Spiritual and Material Things.
The glorious weather which we have been experiencing in Zion City for some time has made the season seem to be rather that of an early and warm Spring, than of the last month of the Fall and precursor of the Winter.

Never has the city looked more beautiful. Every day adds to our population, and every day sees new houses begun and rapid progress made with the large number that are under construction.

The East Wing of the large educational building, which is being built solidly of white stone and backed with Zion brick, has now reached its last story, and will soon be ready for roofing in.

It is a noble pile and will cost, when completed, about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The central portion and west wing will soon be required.

We hope to have the Zion College, which is now safely housed and doing excellent work, in the new building early in the coming year.

Four large new schoolhouses in various parts of the city are now approaching completion, and will soon be used by more than one thousand pupils, who are eager to avail themselves of the new accommodations.

The upper rooms, that is, the third story of each of these buildings, are being prepared as local Zion Tabernacles where district meetings of various kinds may be held throughout the week.

Zion city postoffice is clamoring at Washington, D.C., for larger premises. The beautiful little building that we gave them at the beginning has been for some time too small.

In fact, the office has done for many months the business of a second-class United States postoffice.

We hope that the authorities at Washington will soon agree with us in the need for the early construction of a proper building for the phenomenally large and constantly growing postal business of Zion City.

From every part of the world, where Zion's banner has been planted, glad tidings continue to come. The good news from far countries is indeed as refreshing water to our thirsty spirit, which longs for the extension of the Kingdom of God to every human being in all the world.

But the night is far spent and we cannot continue to review the delightful work of God in Zion. We must bring these notes to a close.

We cannot do so, however, without recording our gratitude to God that our beloved wife, Overseer Jane Dowie, has returned to Zion City, after a few weeks' absence, with greatly-increased vigor, and she is looking forward to a happy winter of work in connection with the Zion Dorcas Women, who are laboring in Zion City, Chicago, and a great many other places.

She hopes to be able to fill regularly the appointment which we have given her for the winter, of preaching every Lord's Day afternoon in the great auditorium of Shiloh Tabernacle, where thousands assemble five times every Lord's Day to hear the word of God.

We know that our beloved people take a very intense personal interest in us, and in our son, Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie, who has not continued his course at the law school of Harvard University, Cambridge, but is now studying law at Chicago University.

Our little family band of three takes this opportunity of gratefully acknowledging your prayers and loving salutations which continue to come to us from thousands of hearts, in thousands of letters, from all the earth.

We can only say that we hope to be more worthy of the love and confidence of our dear people, and, above all, of Him who has comforted us in our great personal sorrow and loss of last May, and enabled us to go forward, humbly, patiently and lovingly, with His work.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

“NO weapon that is formed against Zion shall prosper.”

This is the promise of God.

At the Chicago Auditorium, Lord’s Day afternoon, November 16, 1902, God once more manifested His Divine approval of the Mission of His Messenger, Elijah the Restorer, and His wrath against those who attack His work in Zion, by giving to His Servant mighty and effective utterance, as he rebuked General William Booth and other high officials of the Salvation Army for their wicked and persistent falsehoods concerning himself and Zion.

God placed the Sword of His Spirit in the hand of His prophet and gave it mighty power, as in His strength it was wielded against Zion’s foes.

For several years, high officials of the Salvation Army had been making unwarranted and untruthful attacks upon Zion and her General Overseer, and the General Overseer had allowed them all to pass by unnoticed, hoping that, with more knowledge of Zion, those who assailed her would cease their opposition, and that he would be spared the unpleasant task of rebuking them.

Now, however, an especially insolent and uncalled-for falsehood concerning him had been published in an official interview of the headquarters office of the Salvation Army in London, in a London paper.

It had been repeated in a private letter addressed to Evangelist H. E. Cantel.

Other public and private attacks had been made.

General Booth, himself, after having been given an excellent opportunity to withdraw the false accusations for which he was responsible had not done so, and since the General was in Chicago, and hence could avail himself of an opportunity for an immediate reply, the General Overseer took advantage of the occasion by addressing some very pertinent questions to the head of the Salvation Army.

God’s Messenger began his discourse with an account of his frequent and effective assistance of the Salvation Army during the beginning of its work in Australia, many years ago, and of his repeated acts of friendliness to this organization and its members up to a very recent date.

He then showed how ungratefully General Booth and his staff officers had forgotten all his kind treatment of them, and had attacked him, some of them most bitterly.

He showed how their attack had consisted not only of mean, little, noncommittal insinuations, but also deliberate and malicious and repeated falsehoods.

He ended with a call to repentance and a solemn warning of the prophet of God to those who fought God’s anointed one.

In spite of the fact that it was raining when the service began, and there were numerous other meetings in the city at the same hour, the ground floor and boxes and a large portion of the main balcony of the Auditorium were filled, and many hundreds, not desiring to climb the stairs to the upper parts of the balcony, stood in the broad foyer during the greater part of the service.

Over four thousand people were present.

So manifestly was the Spirit of God with the General Overseer in His Message, and so fairly and dispassionately did he present his facts and arguments, that the people showed, by hearty applause and other expressions of approval, their complete acceptance of the position which he took.

In the general exercises which preceded his address, the General Overseer aroused deep interest, and made a deep impression on the spirits of those present, by his masterly exposition of the 3d chapter of the 2d Epistle of Peter.

The meeting closed with an earnest prayer of consecration in which almost every one in the audience joined, the Doxology, the benediction by the General Overseer, and the Zion salutation, “Peace to thee,” and its response, “Peace to thee be multiplied.”

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Far o’er yon horizon
Rise the city towers
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours.

Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold,
Flows the gladdest river,
Shedding joys untold.

Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit’s might,
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into Light.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.

To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.

The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.

The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,

The Father of an infinite Majesty;

Thine adorable, true and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;

Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,

Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,

Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.

We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,

Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

Matthew 5:32. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

In these courts have stood

To our City bright,

There shall no evil befall thee,

And the Life everlasting. Amen.
For He shall give His angels charge over thee, To keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

How many believe that?

Angelic Ministry.

How many believe in Angelic Ministry? Modern Spiritualityism, so-called, is a compound of fraud, delusion, and diabolical reality. Yet the Ministry of Angels has, throughout all the ages, been taught and realized by the people of God; and it is to me a Divine Reality, full of untold blessing, every day of my life. The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews (chapter 1, verse 14) asks a question which can only be answered in the affirmative.

Are they not all Ministering Spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit Salvation?

[Continuing the reading of the 91st Psalm.]

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known My Name. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, And show him My salvation.

I will read in the 2d Catholic Epistle of Peter, the Apostle, and the 3d chapter.

Meaning of Catholic is General or Universal.

I call your attention again to that word, Catholic, the word General, which is at the head of the Epistle. The Epistle of James is a Catholic Epistle. The two Epistles of Peter are Catholic Epistles, written, that is, not to one portion, but to the Universal Church; The First Epistle of John is a Catholic Epistle. The Epistle of Jude, the brother of James, and the brother of our Lord; that is also a Catholic Epistle. This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you, and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance: That ye should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: Knowing this first, that in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of His coming? for from that day the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this they willfully forget—How many people there are who willfully forget! They do not forget accidentally. They forget on purpose. They "willfully forget."

For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and amidst water, by the Word of God; by which means the world that then was, was being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same Word, have been stored up for fire. "Stored with Fire" is the marginal reading, and it is the better reading. But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same Word have been stored with fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. But forget not this one thing beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

Humanity's Foolish Estimate of Time.

Oh! what a foolish estimate of time men have when they speak of one day sometimes as a long time—or even a week, a month, a year, a century, or even a millennium, as "a long time."

But the Power of God laughs at the slow processes of men's thought, and speaks of doing, and manifestly does, in one day, the work of a thousand years. Somewhere a "nation" will be "born in a day" into the Kingdom of God. Some day the Power of God will come upon this world in such a way that all the nations of the earth shall submit to Him, perhaps within one week.

The work that has not been done in the six thousand years will be done in, possibly, six days.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

For He is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is long suffering toward you, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

God's Wish that None Shall be Lost Will be Satisfied.

I know the wish, or desire, of God is going to be carried out. I cannot see how it is possible for a Divine Desire to be other than carried out. If God wishes, God wills, and He will "have all to be saved." You will have to be saved.

If you want to be damned for this life, or perhaps a thousand years or more in another life beyond your death, it will only be because you want to be plunged into the misery of your own wilful damnation. You do not need to be.

You will have to be saved eventually: for God has willed it. He desires it, and that settles the matter.

Some day you will have to cry out "Father!"—perhaps only when you have made your bed in hell.

Prayer Will be Made in Hell.

"People do not pray in hell," I read the other day from one of those who consign men in the calmest possible way to an everlasting hell. I know that teaching never came from God. Why will he not say, "There shall be no prayer there?"

The statement was made by one of these writers, nevertheless: "You will go to hell, and you cannot pray there; for you will only get more and more wicked throughout Eternity." Who said that? It was a Salvation Army writer.

But the Christ in the Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus teaches otherwise. The rich man, who was so wicked and so careless of everyone but himself, when he had died, lifted his eyes in hell, and started to pray. First he prayed for water for himself. Then Abraham said that there was a Great Gulf fixed, and he could not send Lazarus, then the man started praying for his Kinsfolk. This writer said that people get worse and worse in hell; that they never got any better; that they never have any good impulses in hell. That rich man had, however, He prayed out of the depths of hell:

"I pray Thee, therefore, father, that Thou wouldst send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. That was a good impulse, was it not? Audience—Yes."

General Overseer—That man down there in hell did not want his brother to join him, and he prayed in hell. You will learn something, some of you wretches, who consign men to an eternal hell, and say they can never pray there.

I am as to Abraham's saying there was a Great Gulf fixed which neither he nor Lazarus could cross—that was true. But our Lord, Jesus the Christ, crossed that Gulf, and bridged it for every sinner who repents in hell, just as He has bridged another Gulf between earth and heaven for every sinner that repents on earth.

You have forgotten that the very Christ Himself descended into hell, preached to the spirits in prison, and carried captivity captive, and that one day God is going to empty hell, and destroy it, and that Death and Hell shall be cast into the Lake of Fire.

A Miserable, Unscriptural Conception of Hell.

You want hell to be forever, do you, with a big lid placed on the top of it, and the angels to sit there, to keep miserable, agonizing myriads of spirits who are "His own offspring" in a hopeless hell? What would then happen if the lid got lifted, and the Devil and all his myriads got out? It would all have to be done over again; and the Christ would have to save a lost world once more.

As in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive. God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that He might have mercy upon all.

A merciful Father will follow, follow you, follow you, just as the Restoration Host follows you everywhere in Chicago.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

A man said the other day that he could not get away from these Dowie fellows; “they follow you, follow you, follow you.”

Yes, they will follow you, no matter what you do.

Some one said today that a few members of the Host were not very well received in one district.

“Has any one had the honor of being killed yet?” I asked.

“No,” was the reply.

As for God following you, the Christ of God, who came from the Father to seek you, came not only to earth, but He descended into hell, and preached to the spirits in prison, as Peter said, to them who had been disobedient in the days of Noah, who had been thousands of years in hell.

Folly of Noah’s Carpenters and Their Destruction.

There will be some people, you know, who will not listen to a prophet when the prophet tells them that the world is going to be destroyed.

They laugh.

“Everything continues as it was,” the ark-builders said, “and Noah told us that 120 years ago, when he began building that ark.”

“Our fathers and our grandfathers worked for Noah building that ark, and you tell us that the flood is going to come now surely! We have had generations of wages and we shall have for many years to come, out of Noah for the building that menagerie.”

Noah’s carpenters perished!

If you do not take heed of the Word that comes to you today, you will be a Noah’s carpenter.

There is a real hell.

There is a real heaven, but there is a real God who never gives up His children, and will seek and save that which was lost, until He has found the last one, if He has to go through a dozen hells and tens of thousands of years to get you.

If you are good enough, some of you, when you get to heaven, may be sent to hell to help empty it.

I guess there will be some work for Zion Restoration Host there, since myriads perished in their ignorance, not knowing God’s Way.

I think there is nothing that would make me hate God more than to believe that God the Almighty could do what these hateful Presbyterians say He does: create human beings to be “vessels of wrath,” to be damned whether they like it or not, with a damnation that has been predestined by God Almighty. I believe that I should just hate God.

How could I do anything else?

Election by Grace.

Your damnation or salvation is a matter of your own election.

You cannot be damned unless you elect to be damned, and you cannot be saved unless you elect to be saved.

If you elect to be saved, God will save you.

If you elect to be saved, God will save you.

No matter how bad you have been—and some of you have been very bad—God will save you if you will let Him.

There is a Day of Judgment.

There is a Day of Judgment.

There is a Destruction of Ungodly Men who cannot get into heaven.

They must go to hell.

Thanks be to God, Jesus said: “I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Myself.”

I believe that, every word of it.

He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.

We have our hope set on the Living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe.

Neither doth God take away life, but devieth means, that he that is banished be not an outcast from Him.

He would not be God if He did not.
They met him, by arrangement, at the Press Club. Here in the parlor of the Chicago Press Club, Chicago, Americans—that Literary Cesspool which it is almost a reflection upon a man's character to be seen reading—

VISITS THE PRESS CLUB.

He was met at the station by Luther Laflin Mills, who escorted him to the Press Club, where the party spent nearly an hour; the General chatting with those representatives of the press who assembled to greet him.

"I always enjoy meeting newspaper men," he continued. "I am a newspaper man. I have worked in several papers and I am always in need of editors and writers. I hope to enlist some here during my visit.

Another notoriously vile paper, the Record-Herald, which we have publicly convicted of scores—yes, hundreds—of the most vile, fabricated lies that ever appeared, and the General said to the Press Club, "I am glad to meet the newspaper men of Chicago. I shall be pleased if I can afford them material for a little interesting copy, for I place a great deal of value on the cooperation of the press in the good work which brings me here.

My Lord! The Press of Chicago cooperating in Salvation! Think of it! Think of these vengeful stinkpots and beer pots—think of these notorious ungodly and unclean place before appearing at any other organization. Shame! Shame! Not first to a Gathering of God's Children, to give thanks to God, to supplicate His Blessing in prayer, and to plan for the work of God. No!—he goes to the Press Club of every city [a notoriously ungodly and unclean place] before appearing at any other organization. He reminds me of a Chinese worshiper whom I once saw in a Joss House, worshiping Malignant Spirits: for they never hurt."

Another Unclean Bird—the Chicago Inter Ocean—says:

"Can it be that he and they are "birds of a feather"?—for the proverb is true that "birds of a feather flock together."

And so the Devil Worshiper in the Chinese Joss House and the General of the Salvation Army agree that it is best to be on good terms with the Devil first, in every city, "William Booth goes, and cap in hand, to the Printers' Devils and begs them to be gracious, and promises them "material for a little interesting copy."

So, on the principle of squaring things with the Devil first, I was corrected a galley of proof.

"Did God heal you in answer to my prayer?" Witness—"Yes."

General Overseer—"And bless you?"

Witness—"Yes."

General Overseer—Thank God for that! That is the test. I never prayed, and I never will, in the howling fashion of the Skeleton-Salvation Army in my life."

Shame! Shame! Not first to a Gathering of God's Children, to give thanks to God, to supplicate His Blessing in prayer, and to plan for the work of God. No!—he goes to the Press Club of every city [a notoriously ungodly and unclean place] before appearing at any other organization.

A Miracle of Healing in Answer to a Brief, Silent Prayer.

"In all Holy Living, and Godliness, one Holy Living must be, or no holy end result will be."

"Howliness," is Not Holiness.

They talk of Holiness.

They get up a great cry and howl. Scream! I do not like to show you how they do it. It is awful. I do not like to do it. It seems too serious.

They get up a great cry and howl. Scream! I do not like to show you how they do it. It is awful. I do not like to do it. It seems too serious.

Did you ever see a Salvation Army Holiness meeting? It sounds something like this: "Lord! Lord! Jesus! God! Oh! O God! O Christ! Oh!" (Throwing up his arms, and rolling his head from side to side.) The General Overseer gave a very graphic imitation of a spurious holiness prayer.

"Is that the way to pray? If anybody came to my office and prayed like that, I should say to my personal attendant, 'Scrn, take that lunatic out.'" (Laughter.)

Is that prayer—howling like a derisive, screaming like an idiot, and asking to be made holy? Live rightly; that is the kind of thing God wants. You cannot get holiness in the fashion that you go after it—screaming, like the priests of Baal.

The Silence of Effective Prayer.

I pray more prayers every day for the healing of God's sick children and for the comfort of the sorrowing of this world than all the ministers of Chicago put together.

In some of my missions, there have been times when I have received thousands of petitions for prayer in one day. I receive large numbers now constantly, and I get answers to my prayers. I get them. They are there on record. They are right here now. Every one here who has received Blessing in answer to my prayer, stand. (Many thousands in every part of the great Auditorium, arose.)

Did God heal you in answer to my prayer?

Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—And bless you?

Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—Thank God for that!

That is the test.

I never prayed, and I never will, in the howling fashion of the Skeleton-Salvation Army in my life."

When you are in the room where I pray, you might not know I was praying at all. While I speak I think of—it is one out of thousands—

A Miracle of Healing in Answer to a Brief, Silent Prayer.

My eyes fell upon my watch, and upon a petition for prayer at the same moment; I was correcting a galley of proof. I put down the pen. Yes, it was time—3 p.m., April 2, 1896.

Minnie R. Martin was lying down there in Martinsville, Indiana.

She was paralyzed in lower limbs, hip stiff, legs drawn backward until they were tightly pressed against her body, had spinal meningitis, was blind, and unable to swallow any solid food, and "given up to die" by the physicians who had attended her for a year.

"O God," I prayed, but there were no words heard, "that girl and her cousin are alone. By the Power of Thy Spirit, for Jesus' sake, heal her." In some such words as these I prayed for her silently.

They believed that prayer would be answered.

Those few moments were enough.

I laid down the request, went on correcting my proof, believing God had answered, if, as I confidently trusted, they were fulfilling the Divine conditions, and obeying my directions.

But down there in Martinsville, Indiana, the girl arose, perfectly healed by God. Here is a part of her testimony:

"The Lord has healed me, and given me all the praise, and thank Dr. and Mrs. Dowie for their prayers for my healing.

The Lord has healed me, and it is my intention to serve Him all my life.

Thankfully yours in Jesus,

MRS MINNIE RANDOLPH MARTIN.

P.S.—I was 10 years of age the 25th of March.

The newspaper reporters came and saw her and got her testimony, and it is there, with thousands of others, in LEAVES OF HEALING for June 12, 1896 (Volume 2, No. 34, pages 539-540). You cannot cut it out.

Miraculous Healing Vindicates God's Prophet.

There is Deaconess Jennie Paddock, who takes care of Zion Home of Hope for Erring Women in Sixteenth Street, the work that I have loved to take the responsibility of, for years. We do not talk much about it, almost never, except when Mrs. Dowie sometimes says a few words about it in the LEAVES. We have thirty or forty girls there, and eighteen to twenty-five babies, and God is saving them all the time.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

But Jennie Paddock, who is our Deaconess in charge, was dying in August, 1895, over twelve years ago, when I was at Western Springs.

She had a great, big tumor.

Dr. Simpson and Mrs. Eddy, that wretched system of Christian Science, both of which seem to me to belong to the Devil.

I have a request in my hand, know nothing about the woman, but she says she believes if I pray she will be healed.

I was going to lecture on that, when up along the central passage in the big tent there came a little woman with something in her hand.

I waited and took it.

It was a note, asking me to pray for this dying woman, fifteen or twenty miles away.

I said: "I will say some very hard things tonight about Dr. Simpson and that miserable Christian Alliance, and Mrs. Eddy, that wretched system of Christian Science, both of which seem to me to belong to the Devil."

I turned to the Secretary of the Convention. It was not my convention; I was simply talking there by invitation, for a few days.

The Secretary noted the time and I presented that petition.

Away there in Chicago, fifteen or twenty miles away, the woman turned and said: "I feel well; what has happened?"

She turned and lay upon the tumor; a great, big tumor that had to be supported.

After several hours' sleep, she said: "I am hungry. I want something to eat." They thought she was dying. The doctor had said that she would die in an hour or two.

She did not die.

She ate. In the morning she got up and put on her clothes. In a few days that enormous tumor had disappeared, and she had made a carpet and moved to a new house.

She has been working for God all these twelve years.

Her testimony was first published in the present series of LEAVES OF HEALING of May 3, 1895 (Volume 1, No. 31, pages 481-485), and has been spoken before tens of thousands of persons since, and widely published over all the world.

And God hears prayer. If you know how to pray, you do not need to howl. Howliness is not Holiness. Looking for and earnestly desiring the Coming of the Day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat.

But, according to His promise, we look for New Heavens and a New Earth, wherein dwelleth Righteousness.

"A New Heaven and a New Earth."

Thank God for that!

This old earth will be all melted up and turned all over, God making a something out of it.

"A new heavens and a new earth wherein dwelleth "

-Hinck Dink and his saloon? (Laughter.)

Will men dwell there who go about fighting each other, lying about God's servants and yet saying that they belong to God?

I would not have said a word about General Booth today had not the letter that had come from the Exeter Hall, London, maligne me and God's work in Zion just before he left England on this American tour, which has brought him at this very hour to the Studebaker Theater, Michigan avenue, Chicago, where he is probably speaking at this moment—not a hundred and fifty feet from the platform on which I am now standing. In the Name of the Lord, and for Zion's sake, I must speak. God requires that I shall.

No; there is going to be Righteousness in this new heavens and this new earth.

People will have to do right—not tell lies.

Dwight L. Moody could not lie about me with impunity, and William Booth cannot.

Do you hear, William Booth? You cannot lie with impunity.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and blameless in His sight.

And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you.

Even Men of God Have to be Straightened Out.

Paul had just been giving Peter, a little while before that, a tremendous scoring. He needed it, too.

He gave it to him at Antioch.

He was to be blamed. He was going right back to the miserable Judaizing business and eating only with people who had been circumcised.

Paul just took old Peter and put him on the anvil of Divine Truth, and blew up the Fire of Love a little, and hammered him out straight!

It has to be done sometimes.

I hammered Moody out straight.

He would not take it, but kept on saying naughty things. I told him he would soon die; that God would not stand him in fighting Zion without good cause.

Tell William Booth: You cannot lie against John Alexander Dowle and Zion with impunity.

The Chicago editors of 1895 thought they could all lie about me.

They are all lying in their graves today, with one exception, and he is going about the place, picking up any political job he can get.

You cannot lie with impunity.

You never had it told you so plainly, but you are going to have it now, William Booth.

I will cover no man's sin when he will lie against God's work in Zion.

Peter was a great Apostle. Paul would not cover his sin.

He said to him: "I withstand you to the face; you are to be blamed.

"You are not walking uprightly according to the Truth of the Gospel. You are getting Barnabas and these others carried away with your dissimilation."

Peter took that nicely, and he wrote about Paul, in this last letter that ever he wrote, a commendation of Paul's teaching, who "accounted that the long-suffering of our Lord is Salvation."

Peter was always in danger of falling into trouble because of his being willing to be conformed. He had a timorous spirit. Although a very brave man, every now and then he would become a coward.

He was so great a coward that he denied his Master when he was bound, bleeding, scourged, reviled, and crowned with thorns.

He went back also upon the Christ's teaching twenty-five years after Pentecost, and had to be straightened out by the Apostle Paul.

There is no infallibility in any man, no matter how high he may have stood, or may stand, in the Kingdom of God; and even an apostle may lie, as Peter lied, to his Master's face; or may fall into Perdition as the Apostle Judas Iscariot did. I am very conscious that I am very fallible; but, by the Grace and Mercy of God, I can say that I have never enviéd, or, knowingly, borne false witness against any living being, or any one who has ever lived on this earth.

And account that the Long-suffering of our Lord is Salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the Wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; —

Peter's Next Dig at Paul.

Then Peter got in one of the neatest digs that ever an apostle got into another in the next words:

—wherein are some things hard to be understood—

That is right.

Paul's epistles are very hard, in some places, to be understood.

They remind me of a story I have read concerning one of Horace Greeley's letters.
QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL BOOTH.

One day he wrote John H. Raymond, a fellow editor in New York.

Mr. Raymond got the letter, and turned it every way, but could make nothing out of it.

Mr. Greeley had told the messenger to wait for an answer. Raymond turned it over to a brother editor, but he could make nothing of it.

Then he quietly put it into an envelope, and addressed it back to Horace Greeley, Esq., and, handing it to the messenger, said:

"That is the answer, my boy."

Greeley took it, looked at it and said: "Take that back to Raymond, and tell him to write so that people can read it." (Laughter.)

I sometimes wonder whether Paul always understood what he wrote himself. I dare say he did not.

I dare say there is no man living, who speaks the truth, and yet fully understands, or correctly expresses it all.

Paul did mingle his up over this "election" business, and some other things; and our theologians from age to age have made his epistles a very armory for polemical controversy, in which Love had no place.

I wish sometimes that Paul's writings had not been so hard to understand, even whilst I rejoice for all we can understand.

Peter, I admire you for that word—"some things hard to be understood," and I think I can see Paul smile when he reads.

You got back at him very lovingly and very cleverly.

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things: wherein are some things hard to be understood, which are not only ungodly and unchristian, but also of themselves wanting in the ways of the Lord, saying, "Ye therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the triumph which was before us, ye fall from your own steadfastness."

But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus the Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Piper and the General Overseer, at the close of which the congregation and choir chanted the Disciples' Prayer.

After the announcements had been made the General Overseer delivered the following Address:

SOME QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL BOOTH.

But before speaking on the Unveiling of the Apostasy of the Greek church, which is next in the course of the Restoration Messages which I am delivering, I feel it right to put in my prelude Some Questions for General Booth.

I may not get to my Message at all, as my time is limited.

I am Not Attacking General Booth.

I am simply defending Zion and myself against hundreds of attacks which are not here answered.

I put the questions which it is my duty to put, as God's minister, messenger and prophet, in the position from which I have not receded for a moment.

God has called me, and by His Spirit has made it plain to me and to you, in tens and hundreds and thousands throughout this world, that my mission is that of Elijah the Restorer.

God give me strength to perform it! (Amen.)

But speaking simply as a Christian man, first, and then as minister next, of Jesus, the Christ, and then as the head of an important organization, I desire to offer some remarks.

Unmanly Conduct of General Booth and His Chief Officers.

First, as a man, I complain today of the unmanly conduct of General William Booth, and the discourteous treatment of Chief of Staff Bramwell Booth, the Consul, Mrs. Emma Booth-Tucker, and Commissioner Railton.

I will confine my remarks to these four for the present.

In the first place I say that the conduct of the General is unmanly, unchristian, and entirely unwarranted in any attack upon myself personally, for I have been a sincere friend of the Salvation Army when it was in great stress. I may as well just say a few words about that now.

My First Acquaintance with the Salvation Army.

I scarcely knew of the existence of the Salvation Army until in the early eighties, having occasion to spend some little time in Adelaide, South Australia—my field of labor being at that time in Sydney, New South Wales—and having business that detained me there and made it uncertain just as to when I could return to my work in New South Wales, or as to whether I should proceed to England, I was able to give the Salvation Army some considerable help which ought to have won their everlasting gratitude, and not their diabolical falsehood and inefficacy.

When I was in that city, the Salvation Army's first officers in Australia arrived.

I very soon went down to the barracks, as they called them, where they were speaking.

Taking a great interest, as I have for many years, in aggressive Christian work, leading, as I did, many processions of my own people through the streets, and filing, as I had, for many years, the largest buildings available in every city where I spoke, I had sympathy with the aggressive forms of Christianity.

I wanted to see what the Salvation Army was doing.

The opportunity was unique, and without any hesitation I paid earnest and close attention to the movement, and read all the literature it had up to that time produced.

Unsatisfactory Character of Salvation Army's First Officers in Australia.

I found two exceedingly vulgar, exceedingly ignorant, and utterly ridiculous people had been sent to found the Army in Australia.

I do not hesitate to tell the facts now, because they may as well be stated.

The man's name was S—.

His wife had been known as "Hot M—" before she had become a captain, and was sent out there with him.

They sent, to perhaps one of the best educated Anglo-Saxon communities in the world, the most illiterate man and woman that they could possibly have sent.

They were not only illiterate and vulgar, but they were ungodly, because they were continually showing that they were utterly destitute of saving and restraining grace.

It was not an uncommon thing for the woman to fling a knife across the table at her husband, or throw a cup of coffee in his face.

The degradation and disgrace of their action was going on to such an extent that the people, who were interested in the Salvation Army and had formed a kind of corps before these people arrived, told me about it. Some of them had been members and non-commissioned officers of the Army in England.

They said the scandal had become too terrible that some friends of the Salvation Army should tell the General, and should interpose and save the work, if possible.

I never entered into any official relation with the Army, and I said: "That is not my work. However, I will continue to watch and see."

Meanwhile I formed the acquaintance of these people.

Their behavior was perfectly shocking.

My Rebuke of Sin in First Officers of Salvation Army in Australia.

I said to you that Australia is a well-educated community.

I have a right to say that.

By law every child is educated.

If a man will not educate his children in Australia, he is fined, and, if necessary, sent to prison, where he ought to be sent: for such neglect is a crime.

You will never have a people in America who will be able to do their work, as a people, until you have National, Secular, Compulsory and Free Education, under the control of the National Government and provided for by the National Treasury, for every child, white and black and any other color, in this country.

I felt very sorry, and I privately and frequently expostulated with these two foolish people.

I told them that their conduct had become very well known, and that I had been asked to speak to them about it.

They took it very nicely, I must confess.

Both of them, having been approached by me in a kind spirit, repented.

It was, however, a very short repentance, because I saw her box his ears within two days, accompanying the act by words which sounded like swearing.

I was very sorry.

Added to this, they soon both became very sick. I did not wonder at that: for they took no intelligent measures to adapt themselves to the almost semi-tropical climate, and to the sudden changes in the weather at certain seasons.

When people are persecuted, I am in deep sympathy with them. I do not see any reason why they should be persecuted for going through the streets, singing a hymn and exhorting sinners to repent.

The family had lived many years in that city, and I was pretty well known there. I had spent about nine years of my youth and early manhood there before I returned to Scotland to study for the Christian ministry.

I felt very indignant at the treatment which the Salvation Army received.

Leading a Salvation Army Procession Despite Persecution.

When both of these foolish captives were sick, and their lieutenant came to me and told me he and they had been arrested several times, and begged me to help them, I said: "I will help you." That night, I put myself at the head of their poor little corps, and started out with them, singing through the streets of Adelaide: "We'll work till Jesus comes."

I led the corps in front of the principal police-office of the city. I wanted to draw out the fire of the Inspector-general of Police. I did. Presently officers came out and said, "Stop! Why should we stop?" I asked. "The law says so." "The law does not say so. Stand aside!" "But the law does say so, and I will arrest you if you do not stop."

"I will arrest you in two minutes if you do not get out of the road," I said. "Officer," I continued, calling a police officer in uniform, "get this man out of the way. He has no right to stop this procession."

"I am an officer of the police," said the man, showing me his badge under his coat. "I do not care who you are," I replied. "I do not care if you are Inspector-general. Stand aside! You have no law on your side."

"My orders are to arrest you," he said. "Then," I said, "arrest me." "Oh, I cannot do that," he whined. "You are not a Salvationist, are you?"

"Oh, yes," I said, "I am a Real Salvationist, though I do not belong to the Salvation Army." Somebody whispered my name to him. "Oh, Mr. Dowie," he said, very deferentially, "I did not mean to stop you."

I said: "You are stopping this procession. Get away. Take my name, and let your superiors summon me if they dare." He took my name, and we went on singing: "We'll work till Jesus comes."

I marched on triumphantly, but I thought that would not do. I had gotten off too easily. I had expected to be arrested, and I was sorry I had not been, because I wanted that fight for the right to seek the salvation of sinners in the highways of the city by religious procession, and open-air gatherings. I wanted to help the Army. But the police officers of Adelaide would not summon me, and would not arrest me.

Securing an Important Ruling for Salvation Army Before a Magistrate.

The next morning I went to my friend, Mr. Beddome, whom I knew very well, the police magistrate of the city. I may say to you that a police court in Australia is conducted with great dignity, and not the ludicrous and disorderly affair it is in Chicago.

I went into his private office and saw my friend before court convened. "Oh," he said, "I am glad to see you." I said: "I am very glad to see you."

"I have not seen you for years," he said. "Did you not get into trouble with the police the other night?"

"No," I replied. "I did not get into enough trouble."

"Have I not the right, Mr. Beddome, to step into the witness-box today, in your court, and lay a formal complaint against Inspector-general of Police for the way in which he stopped me on the street through his officers, and for the way which he has been treating the Salvation Army? If you will allow me, your worship, when your court is through with its ordinary work, I would like to address you for about an hour."

"I shall be most happy to hear you," he replied. (Laughter.) At the proper time, I stepped into the witness-box, and arranged the Inspector-general of Police, who was a foe of God and of Christianity, and a friend of the saloon and every bad thing.

I went for him, and I went for the police. I showed that there was no law to stop the Salvation Army; that they had a perfect right to go down the streets.

I quoted the decision of Lord Chief Justice Colderidge in the Court of Queen's Bench in the case of the Magistrates of the City of Hastings, in England, versus Salvation Army.

Demanding Arrest of an Officer Who Persecuted Salvation Army.

When I got through—the Inspector-general was there to hear his indictment—I demanded that the Police Magistrate should issue a warrant there and then for his apprehension. My friend, Mr. Beddome, smiled and thanked me for what he was pleased to call my very able and eloquent speech.

He said that it was exceedingly convincing, and that he had been delighted to hear me.

He then said, "I am afraid if I grant Mr. Dowie that warrant, and you were arrested, I might have to fine you, sir," address, the Inspector-general.

The Inspector-general opened his eyes very wide. "But," he said, "I do not think Mr. Dowie will press this matter. I think you can come to an understanding."

"I will have no understanding, Mr. Beddome," I objected. "I simply want this man to keep the road clear; that is all, and to let this procession go on.

"I am going into the streets again tonight, and I defy them to arrest me, or any of the Salvationists. I am not a member or officer of the Salvation Army. I do not belong to them. I am simply visiting the city. As you know, my work lies in Sydney, New South Wales."

"I am going to stand up for the persecuted, and stand by the right, nevertheless. I can march in Sydney all I like, and I am going to march here when I want to."

The result was that our enemy, the Inspector-general, made the amende honorable, and the police kept out of the way, and I secured for the Salvation Army the right of way up and down the streets, without any more arrests or molestation. (Applause.)

I think the General owes me something for that little good deed: for I helped them considerably in that matter, and I again and again stood by them for many years when similarly persecuted in other parts of Australia, New Zealand, and on the Pacific coast, where I spent two years after my arrival in America.

A Letter to General Booth, Setting Forth Conditions in Australia.

The people whom he had sent out were unmanageable. The whole corps, with a very few exceptions, revolted, and they came to me.

"I am not a Salvationist," I said, "but I will put your case before General Booth in a careful letter, and tell him to send out somebody who has more brains and more sense than these poor people have." I have an idea that I have preserved a copy of that letter amongst my old files, and if I find it, I will publish it, and prove what I now affirm. They have it, and I challenge them to print it.

I scolded them lovingly, that captain and his wife, but I helped them.
Chicago Auditorium,
Let's Day Afternoon, November 14, 1913.

They were in great financial difficulties. I did not give a great deal of money myself. I had little to spare. I gave what I could. But I got them friends and money.

They were in great trouble.

I interested a number of judges, ministers, merchants and a number of other persons of good position and some wealth.

I received some of the Army literature from them.

I remember I got Railton's "Heathen England" at that time.

I read it up carefully and familiarized myself with Mrs. Booth's writings, etc.

Making Money for the Salvation Army.

"I cannot give much money," I told them, "but I will deliver a lecture. You can charge what you like for it, and you can have all the money." So I had a gentleman of high standing in the city take the chair and, to a very large audience, I delivered a lecture on "William Booth, and the Salvation Army in Heathen England."

The place was crowded to the doors, admission was by ticket, for which a fair price was asked, and they got all the money for that.

That is something they ought to be thankful to me for.

I helped them quite considerably.

In my long letter to Mr. Booth, I told him all about the mess his first officers had got into.

I told him that the whole corps had rebelled, and that I was in sympathy with the corps, although I could not help feeling that these poor fellows whom he had sent were doing the best they could, but that they were very ignorant and very coarse, and very quarrelsome with each other, and could not do the work satisfactorily in such a place as Adelaide, South Australia.

I said: "That is all I can do, only just tell you this, you have sent your first officers to the wrong place. You should send them to Melbourne. Melbourne and Sydney are the centers of everything in Australia.

I sent him all about Australia and where to send his Australian Headquarters' officers whenever they came.

I will give whatever little help I can," I said, and that was all I had to do with the Salvation Army, except that I carried out my promise.

I appeared upon the platform, by invitation, to deliver a lecture on "William Booth, and the Salvation Army in Heathen England."

I spoke for them, and many of my people to distribute the notices connected with the General's visit.

The consequence was that, in more than one case, a great deal of money myself. I had little to spare. I gave a collection of at least ten pounds."

I was known to be a friend, believing that God would bless the Army for the good that yet remained in it.

That brings me up to date as far as I am concerned.

Eighteen cents and fifty dollars were two different sums.

"Sing a hymn," I said, "get a thump on your drums; blow your trumpets. Go around. Get this collection."

They went around and made a collection of three pounds, ten shillings, if I recollect correctly.

Several of us put in thirty shillings and made it five pounds.

"We have just half," I told them. "God is not willing that this lecture should be delivered until I get ten pounds. Drum up again."

So they drummed up again.

The people entered into the spirit of the joke and I got ten or twelve pounds, and cheered on these devoted people in that godless old mining town.

I think General Booth ought to be thankful for that, and many similar good turns which I did in the hope that the Salvation Army and its work had God's approval.

Helping the Salvation Army in Later Years.

I helped the Salvation Army many a time in Europe.

I helped them on my recent visit to London. I went into several Salvation Army meetings there, and I gave quite freely in their collection, but did not speak.

They did not know who I was, and I was glad that they did not, because I wanted to see whether or not they had improved any.

They bowed just as ridiculously as ever; made noises of the most horrible and irreverent description, especially during prayer and testimony.

I do not mind a man making a noise if there is anything going to come out of the noise.

I will make as much noise as any Salvationist if something comes out of it.

I helped the Salvation Army in this country for many years. That is a matter of record. When the General was here about four years ago, I think he spoke in this very Auditorium, and I helped them at that time.

Helping the Salvation Army in Chicago.

The Brigadier who was in charge here in Chicago at that time wrote a letter to me asking if I would not help to make the General's visit a success, because I was known to be a friend of the Army.

He asked me, as there was going to be a great conference, if I could not give hospitality to a number of Salvation Army officers for a few days.

Overseer Speicher will remember that I opened Zion Home and received a number of these officers.

Dr. Speicher—"That is true."

General Overseer—I gave them free accommodations.

I also encouraged my people to distribute the notices connected with the General's visit.

I gave them money also, and was kind to them in many ways.

I think for all that I ought to have at least manly and courteous treatment from the General and his officers, don't you?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—I appeared upon the platform, by invitation, in this Auditorium when the General was in Chicago the last time.

Mr. Luther Laflin Mills, who was the chairman, introduced me to him just about where I am standing.

I was very sorry to see such an array of empty benches.

Not half as many people were present then as there are now.

I was then introduced to him, to his daughter, Consul Emma Booth-Tucker and her husband, and to others whose titles I do not remember.

I was courteous, kind, and considerate, and was their friend, believing that God would bless the Army for the good that yet remained in it.

That brings me up to date as far as I am concerned.

I Never Attacked the Salvation Army.

Why did they lie about me?

Why did the General go out of his way at Exeter Hall, in London, at his Farewell Meeting there, to lie about me?

Why did he speak so unkindly of me—without any cause—in his final interview with his friends, the reporters?

I was not attacking them, further than that I was saying that the Salvation Army, like every other Christian body, must accept the Full Gospel, must accept the fact that Jesus, the Christ, was the same, yesterday, and today, yea, and forever, and therefore He was the same Healer. I spoke of General Booth as an apostolic man, as I then believed him to be. I said to the others that if General Booth or any one else fought Divine Healing they would go to the wall. I would say that if the Apostle Paul or Peter were here, and we fight Divine Healing.

The Word of God says that the Covenant Name of God is: "I am Jehovah that healeth thee," and that Covenant was given 1,500 years before the Christ came in the flesh.

The Word of God says that Jesus, the Christ, is with us, and He is the same.

If He is with us and the same, He is the same Healer.

If any church or organization does not preach the Gospel of Divine Healing, it has left out a part of the Gospel and it cannot succeed in establishing His Kingdom.

That was all I ever said, and that was no personal attack.

It was simply a declaration of doctrine, spoken in good temper—yes, in Christian love for the Army.

Envy the Cause of the Attacks of the Salvation Army on Zion.

The fact of the matter is that by this time the Salvation Army is beginning to feel the power of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion all over the world. Thousands of its members were, and still are, readers of Leaves of Healing.

An ex-Brigadier-general of the Salvation Army, who was in command for years in Italy, and who was a special Commissioner from the General to various parts of the world, ex-Brigadier Percy Clibborn, is now an Elder in this Church, and is sitting on this platform.

Praise God for him! He is a faithful member and officer of Zion. (Applause.)

I have scores and hundreds, and, I think, throughout the world, possibly thousands, of privates, sergeants, majors and captains, ensigns and other officers of the Army who have come out and are now in Zion.

A number of them are here, sitting in front of me.

Here is Deaconess Rosa Schlup, for instance. She is the translator of my foreign correspondence.

She was an ensign, a higher rank than captain.

The gentleman who is at the head of Zion work in Europe today, Elder Carl Hodler, a magnificent man, was the financial manager for years of the Salvation Army in France and Switzerland. He was a staff-captain.

The fact of the matter is this, that hundreds, and, perhaps, thousands of officers and other persons connected with General Booth are coming towards us, and the Army leaders are lying about us for fear of a great exodus to Zion in all parts of the world.

There are more to follow, especially after today.

"What did General Booth say about you?" you might ask.

If I were to tell you all he and his officers have said, I should have to talk a week or two, but I am not going to do any such thing.

I will take up only the most flagrant falsehoods.

A Bitter, Lying Letter from Commissioner Railton.

I have a letter here from Commissioner Railton, who has charge of the Salvation Army in France.

He says in this letter that I am "the champion liar of Chicago." I defy him to prove one lie.

He writes to me and calls me "that villain."

Then he goes on and he says that I am a "blackguard."

In another letter he says that he hopes that I shall "soon get the salvation Army out of France."

He also says that I have told lies in Leaves of Healing about the death of my sister Methie.

He says that she never died at sea, as I stated in the Leaves, but that she died of disease in Paris, and is buried in a well-known cemetery in that city, and that I was present at her death-bed.

Of course, he simply and audaciously lies.

Our sister died on November 9, 1900, three days out from England, at sea, on board the Steamship Petrina, an American-Hamburg liner, and was buried at sea, as the ship's records may show.

Commissioner Railton is telling an abominable and shameless lie when he says that she died in Paris in great agony, when I was present, and praying in vain for her healing.

The fact was that when she died I was in my native city, Edinburgh, Scotland, at the time conducting a Mission in the Queen's Hall, as the newspapers will show.

As for the other words he says concerning me, I have only to remind them to you that the shameful nature of his private correspondence to myself and others.

Disgraceful Lies of Chief-of-Staff Bramwell Booth.

Mr. Bramwell Booth, who is closest to the General, has written very disgracefully concerning me.

He has linked my name with that of Pigott, a man who blasphemously claims to be the Messiah.

In an interview which appeared in the London Morning Leader, he said:

(London Morning Leader, September 12, 1902.)

"PIGOTT AND THE S.A."

On inquiry at the headquarters of the Salvation Army concerning the narrative of Mr. Pigott's life in the Army, the following official statement was given to a representative for publication:

Our attitude towards Mr. Pigott is that his pretensions are the consequence of a disordered brain. He was one of us for less than two years (not for justification). We are very thankful now that he left; just as thankful as we are that Mr. Dowie, who was with us in Australia more than twenty years ago, severed his relationship with us.

Mr. Pigott's extreme views and actions led to the necessity of his services in the Salvation Army terminating.

"We can only pray that such people may see the errors they fall in and repent and seek forgiveness."

Our Evangelist in charge of the English work, Evangelist H. E. Cantel, immediately called upon Mr. Bramwell Booth for a withdrawal of that statement, saying that it was not true that I was ever connected with the Salvation Army in England or at any time or any place in Australia. I gave this correspondence fully in the Leaves of November 1, 1902, in my Editorial Notes, pages 37 and 38.

He says:

These, with their context, convey the impression that Dr. Dowie had in the past some official relationship to the Salvation Army, which, as you must know, is not true; for, although during his ministry in Australia Dr. Dowie frequently had occasion to help the Salvation Army in various cities in which he ministered, this help was always given in a ministerial and not an official capacity.

I may say, also, that my help was always given without money and without reward, and was always for the purpose of helping them to win sinners to God, and to get them financial aid, as I have already said.

Mr. Cantel continues:

*I very much regret that this statement should have appeared, especially in the connection in which it is given, where there is an apparent desire (without any justification) to belittle Dr. Dowie by connecting his name with that of Mr. Pigott."

"Certainly this was uncalled for."

Then he calls upon the Salvation Army to give publicity to the denial and to withdraw the falsehood, and, in reply, he gets this impudent letter from Commissioner Pollard:

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS

"SALVATION ARMY, LONDON."

Any communication regarding this letter should be addressed to the Foreign Secretary.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

INTERNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS,

101 QUEEN VICTORIA STREET, LONDON, E. C, 16th September, 1902."

*REV. H. E. CANTEL, St. Eustou, N. W."

Sir—Your letter of the 17th instant, addressed to Mr. Bramwell Booth, has been handed to me for reply.

*I am afraid I cannot assist you in the matter, as you are evidently not informed that Mr. Dowie was at one time, previous to the date you mention, connected with the Salvation Army, and the circumstances under which he left us are well known both to persons now in Australia and in this country."

*I am, sir, yours faithfully."

"GEORGE A. POLLARD, Commissioner."

"Acting Foreign Secretary."

Now, I want to repeat what I wrote in my Editorial Notes of November 1st, page 38, from which I am now reading:

We wish to say in the plainest words with which we can convey our meaning:

First—That Evangelist Cantel was absolutely correct in stating that we never, at any time, had any official relation whatever with the Salvation Army.

Second—That the "official statement" of the Salvation Army, published in the London Morning Leader of September 13th, connecting our name with Mr. Pigott's, was a gratuitous insult entirely uncalled for.

Third—That the statement that we were connected with the Army in Australia more than twenty years ago, and severed our relationship with it, is an absolute falsehood.

Envy the Cause of the Attacks of the Salvation Army on Zion.
QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL BOOTH.

I charge Bramwell Booth not only with lying in that paragraph that he gave to the Morning Lender, but with false charges, which he has published in the War Cry, at the time he was connected with the Salvation Army, and to make known "the circumstances" under which he left.

Fifth.—It is utterly false to say "these circumstances are well known both to persons now in Australia and in this country," since we never had any such statement under which we "left." I never did any such thing.

General Booth's Failure to Meet the Issue Squarely.

I sent this copy of Leaves of Healing to General Booth, through my secretary, and received back again a most amusing and ridiculous letter which simply says that General William Booth has received my letter calling for a retraction, and that he has sent it to London.

I do not propose to let it be settled at his leisure in London.

Another Demand for a Retraction from General Booth.

I have him here next door, at the Studebaker theater, in Chicago, and I will make my demand upon him here and now. General Booth, by your own admission well that that statement is a Lie; that I never was connected with your Army in Australia, as a private or as an officer, or in any way except as a friend who spent money, and did good work in trying to help you there, and in many lands, as late as your last visit to this city. I demand that you shall take that Lie back right now in Chicago.

If you do not, I ask why not.

You say that you and the press are coöperating in "the good work."

You are coöperating in lying about Zion. Is that a "good work"?

You will find that you will have to answer to God for that.

It is the Devil's work to tell lies, and "all liars" find themselves, if they continue impudent, in the Lake of Fire.

Constitutional and Legislative officer and the "Big Lie" in saying that the child was that of an officer living in New York— the child of one of their officers. The statement that she has made to her sister of the alleged circumstances that the people will think reflect upon me?

She told me a lie,

the Army has been fighting us all over the world in

I have facsimiles made of his letters, and published them in Leaves of Healing.

Every lie that the Salvation Army could scrape up, from any part, they have flung into their columns, and spoken to their officers in their councils.

They are fighting God, fighting Zion and fighting me; and they are doing the Devil's work, using the Devil's weapons, and will, unless they repent, reap the Devil's reward—Death is the Wages of Sin.

Solemn Warning to General Booth.

I warn William Booth.

I warned Dwight L. Moody. I very much hate to do this piece of work, but I will finish it. William Booth, you cannot lie concerning any man with impunity.

You cannot lie concerning God's Messenger and Prophet with impunity.

You cannot lie and not take the consequences of it. The consequences of lying are that you shall die as sinful men die, unless you repent and confess in the way God demands.

I tell you that you will die in disgrace, if you do not take back these lies, and show your penitence before God. That is my Message.

I make a further statement about the Salvation Army. The Army has been fighting us all over the world in a manner of which even Jesus might be ashamed.

If it had been a fair, open, legitimate, truthful fight, I would not care a pin, but the Army has been fighting us in the most shameful, underhanded way.

The Salvation Army Denies Its People Ordinances Which the Christ Commanded.

I ask this Army: Are you a Church?

You will say, No; we are an army. Why is it, then, that you will not permit your officers and members to be connected with churches and to get the Ordinnances that the Christ Himself lays down as Ordinances for His people?

The Salvation Army denies its people Baptism and the Lord’s Supper; and it visited with dismissal some of its members whom I baptized two years ago in London.

The Christ’s Command Concerning Baptism.

These two Ordinances do not exist in the Salvation Army, and yet our Lord Jesus, the Christ, in giving the Commission to each His Apostle, said:

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age.

When the people cried out on the Day of Pentecost, “Men and brethren, what shall we do?” The answer of Peter was:

Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus, the Christ, unto the remission of your sins.

In the Name of Jesus, the Christ, he gave that command, and said that they would receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Your Apostles was that they should be baptized. You are an offender and a sinner against God for keeping your people back from that Ordinance.

The Christ’s Command Concerning the Lord’s Supper.

You also deny your people the Ordinance of the Lord’s Supper.

You are a sinner in this, because our Lord said: “This do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

The Apostle Paul said:

For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

And when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, This is My body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in My blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord’s death till He come.

You are afraid to proclaim the Lord’s Coming at His table—why?

That Ordinance of the Lord’s Supper belongs to every member of His Body—the Church.

William Booth, you have denied your people the Two Fundamental and Essential Ordinances. You are a sinner against God in this matter.

The speech, tomorrow morning, will help Mr. Booth to know what I said. Perhaps Mr. Booth will answer it.

If he does not answer it, he will get more, and if he answers it unsatisfactorily he will get more—he will get more in adopting either of these two courses. (Applause.)

Desire for General Booth’s Repentance.

My heart’s desire and prayer to God is that in his old age he will cease to be the helper of those who tell lies, that he will repent of this thing, and put it right immediately, and that all concerned will.

If they do, then I quit.

If they do not, then I go on, and I think I shall smash all that remains of the Grim Skeleton Army in a short time.

It does not take much to smash it.

It is going to pieces.

When officers leave, it is one of the jokes in the Army that they have gone to join the “great majority,” because there are more officers of the Salvation Army who have left its ranks, by several times, than there are now in its ranks.

This is going on, and will go on, and must go on, as long as the leaders of the Army are unjust and untrue.

General Booth’s Mean Insultation When Leaving London.

I did not start this fight.

There is one thing that I think I cannot close without adding:

It did not satisfy the General and his son Bramwell, and daughter Emma, to heap all these insults upon me personally; but he must, when he was leaving England, say that “the Salvation Army could not grow Messiahs or Elijahs.”

Mr. Pigott, who has proclaimed himself as the Messiah, in London, was a Major in the Salvation Army, and was in charge of their training home in London.

They grew that Messiah. (Applause and laughter.)

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager.
WHEN come into him again. And Jehovah it is written of Elijah: "And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto Jehovah, and said, O Lord, my God, I pray Thee, let this child's soul come into him again. And Jehovah harkened unto the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived." (1 Kings 17:21, 22.)

If God harkened unto the voice of Elijah for the restoration of the life of the child, He without doubt would have heard Elijah's prayer for his healing, had the mother appealed to Him in her son's illness. The sickness was severe, and may have been short, bringing sudden death, but Elijah brought life and health to that home, as he has done, through his teaching and prayers, to many homes in the world today.

In reading the history of Elijah, it is interesting to note how the trinity appears in the various incidents of his life. The trinity should enter into each thought and deed of every one's life. Man was made in the image of God, a trinity of spirit, soul and body, and he should put his whole being into every thing that he does. This makes a three-fold cord which cannot easily be broken. If he fails to do this the act is wanting in power.

The three parts of man's being are closely united and they should act in unison. The life of each differs in its nature, that which comes from man's soul should be intellectual and emotional in its nature. The natural mind and emotions are in the soul and these should unite to make the soul-life. Unless feeling enters into our thoughts and deeds, how cold and lifeless they seem!

If our words are full of feeling, without thought, how foolish they appear! The life of man's spirit is spiritual in its nature, and when its condition is normal, it brings the fear of God into our thoughts and words and deeds.

The life which proceeds from the flesh puts the strength of the material into our thoughts and deeds. The flesh is intended to serve as the foundation of our house, and, if kept in its right place, the stronger it is the better; but if this foundation of the house is on top, what a condition of things that is!

Yet this is man's condition when he is ruled by his flesh instead of being ruled by God. He is upside down, with the higher under the lower. He is a beast then.

Every faculty and appetite and sense in man is a trinity, and each has its beginning in man's spiritual being where God's Spirit dwells.

In creating man God began at the highest part of man's being and made him a spiritual being in His own image, and clothed him in the garments of soul and body.

While, in His creation, God began at the highest part of man's being and proceeded to the lowest, in his development the process is from the lowest to the highest.

In the Christ, man's development has no end. This is a wonderful truth.

The development of a child begins on the physical plane in the development of muscle. The development of the soul through the emotions and thought-life soon follows.

Last in order comes the development of his spiritual being. Every faculty and power in man has its beginning in his spirit where God's Spirit dwells, and it can be renewed by the Holy Spirit when man is in the right relations with God.

The sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body is one of the many wonderful truths in the Full Gospel teaching of Zion.

Some of the lectures of the Rev. John Alex. Dowie on this subject are embodied in a pamphlet bearing this title. These, studied in connection with the Bible, become the key to the understanding of many valuable truths.

Will you not, dear reader, help us to scatter Zion teaching over the world?

WOODSTOCK, September 5, 1902.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with gratitude and praise to God, my Heavenly Father, that I send you another title, and tell you how I am rejoicing in the Lord and in the peace the Saviour gives.

My way has grown brighter since I have learned to trust Him with my body, soul and spirit, which are His.

He is now making me clean through obeying His Word.

I have heard the command to "Wash and be clean," and again, "Go wash." He who said "Go wash," knew that my spirit needed cleansing, for, before coming into Zion, I was a self-righteous Baptist.

But, praise be to God, my Heavenly Father has sent the Comforter, who has shown me how to return to God, and He has returned unto me and enabled me to discern between the righteous and the wicked, and those that serve God and those that serve Him not.

God's Word says: "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

I realize that I am one of His little ones, learning at the feet of Jesus. God is truly blessing me out of Zion.

I hunger and thirst for your teaching in Leaves of Healing, which I read at every available opportunity.

It has become food to my spirit.

I am happy in Zion, while I obey God and the General Overseer.

I am still engaged in Zion Seventy work, faithfully scattering the seed, which I know in due time will take root and grow, for I have proved God's Word to be true.

Yours in the truth of Jesus,

(Mrs.) Eliza McColl.
Gathering of Hebron and various outlying towns, on Saturday afternoon, holding their attention for ministered communion to the deeply spiritual Zion the Blue River, prayed with many sick and ad seh and elsewhere, in behalf of Zion. At Tecumseh, where we have a little gathering, we spoke to a full house of interested people, and taught and tauqua Assembly during the month of August, before the leading people of the community, who listened attentively to a long discourse.

Southeastern Nebraska.

Elder Hoy sends us the following interesting and encouraging report of the work which Zion is doing in Auburn, Falls City, Salem and other places in Southeastern Nebraska.

Elder and Evangelist Hoy have now been in charge of the work in this field for over two years.

Since Zion's Second Feast of Tabernacles we have been busy with the work of the Lord throughout Nebraska that we have not taken time to make any report of the work.

We are happy to state that there are visible signs of God's blessing resting upon Zion in Nebraska.

Deacon Sloan's visit was a great inspiration to Elder and people at Falls City. His lecture was full of solid meat.

Deacon Davis and family have been with us for more than a week, and are doing much to inspire confidence in Zion among the Salem and Falls City people.

As the Deacons goes from merchant to merchant, displaying his satchel full of Zion literature, and disciplining on the blessing he has enjoyed in Zion City, his glowing countenance overflowing with intense earnestness, he dispels prejudice as mist flies before the morning sun.

We have had a number of Saturday afternoon meetings recently.

There is good attendance and good interest, out of which have come visible results.

At the close of a meeting at which the theme had been "Zion City's Prosperity," one man was inclined to shake the Elder rather roughly, calling him and the General Overseer very vile names, but a number of friends made him stand back and keep quiet, after which I was able to speak to a larger crowd than before.

We had the privilege of delivering a lecture on the Principles and Practices of Zion and Zion City, at Auburn, Nebraska, to an evening Chautauqua Assembly during the month of August, before the leading people of the community, who listened attentively to a long discourse.

Tecumseh.

We have made several tours recently to Tecumseh and elsewhere, in behalf of Zion. At Tecumseh, where we have a little gathering, we spoke to a full house of interested people, and taught and prayed with many sick.

Hebron.

At Hebron we spoke on the street to a very large, attentive audience, mostly of country people, on Saturday afternoon, holding their attention for more than an hour as we spoke on "The Phenomenal Prosperity of Zion City and the Cause of It.

We held six meetings there, had a Baptism at the Blue River, prayed with many sick and administered communion to the deeply spiritual Zion Gathering of Hebron and various outlying towns, whose members had gathered to praise God and get strength for greater activity in the Master's service.

Many splendid testi monies were given at the closing meeting. Zion at Hebron has a devoted, fearless worshiper in their leader, Deacon Gallant, who, with his family, is putting out much literature there, and who, with others, covered the town with Zion literature during our meetings.

A young lady who was quite sick during the evening meeting was wonderfully healed after the after-meeting.

There is much seed-sowing by Zion Restoration Host throughout this state, from which we have faith to believe there will be a bountiful harvest.

Elder Hoy sends us the following in closing meeting.

Some of the workers accompanied the Elder to Alexandria, where Miss Ruth Angsteed, who was so wonderfully healed a year and a half ago, began covering the town systematically with Zion literature, and plenty of work was found for the Elder among the sick.

Mrs. Lydia Saylor testified to God's wonderful keeping power since she was healed in Zion Home six years ago.

She spoke of prompt deliverance from colds and other ailments of herself and family when they made everything right with God in prayer and consecration.

She also spoke of her granddaughter, Mrs. Edgar Mather's little daughter Gertrude, who was speedily delivered from what seemed to be typhoid malaria, when prayer was offered.

She told, also, of her little grandson, the Saylor's child, who had received quite an ugly burn from a hot stove, but when the loved one cried to God in behalf of the child, deliverance came immediately, the fire leaving the parts burned.

The child qui eted and healing came speedily.

Mrs. Mary McCumber. — "I am so grateful to God for all the good things I have enjoyed since I have been in Zion.

"I have much to be thankful for.

"I thank Him for delivering me from the severe pain in the back, from stomach trouble and other internal trouble, when Elder Hoy prayed for me."

Mr. Edgar praised God for a healing of some years' standing; also for the wonderful peace and joy that comes from trusting God for all things.

Mrs. Bertie E. Lively. — "I thank God for wonderfully delivering me from what everybody called bone fever."

"People said if I did not have it treated, the thumb would get stiff."

"Others said the thumb had to be taken off."

"But I thank God that I entirely trusted Him."

"I went to Elder Hoy for prayer."

"The pain left and it began to improve rapidly."

"It is now entirely healed and I have perfect use of the thumb."

"I am also thankful for what God did for my son Quinton, who was quite sick with measles some time ago."

"He was getting along nicely, but took cold and a high fever."

"I became uneasy and sent for Elder Hoy."

"He taught me faithfully about God's promises, and then prayed for him."

"He broke out with perspiration and the fever went down."

"He had not eaten much for several days."

"I could see, after the Elder left, that he was much better."

"He began to tell me what he wanted for supper."

"He soon recovered, for which I thank God.""

Mrs. Alice Young testified to a wonderful deliverance during childbirth.

She also told how her little daughter had broken out with blood poison, her neck being one mass of sores.

She said: "Mr. Young brought Elder Hoy to pray, but she did not get much better."

"We went into his house for prayer, and he showed me that I must faithfully leave it in God's hands and expect the sores to heal when we prayed."

"They began to heal from that day and have not bothered her since."

"I thank God for such a sweet little daughter, and for two healthy little boys that we call Zion boys, not having had a doctor for any of them.""

Miss Grace VanWinkle. — "I thank God for healing me of a bad tooth."

"I went to Elder Hoy for prayer for it."

"It stopped hurting and the swelling went down so I could get the tooth out."

Mrs. Lydia Saylor. — "I thank God for the way He keeps me since I have been healed."

Elder Hoy — Tell the people of what you have been healed.

"Of spiritual trouble of many years' standing."

"I never thought I would be able to walk."

"Now I am able to be on my feet all day long, and on the street every week, selling Leaves, for which I am very thankful."

Miss Anna Saylor testified to the blessedness of God's keeping power, also to spiritual strength that came to her from doing faithful work in selling Leaves.

Mr. Cameron testified to an extreme nervousness in his case, that he had lived for years, but which was constantly getting worse, until he stopped drugging and asked God to heal it. It is now perfectly healed, for which he was thankful to God.

Both Elder and Evangelist Hoy, who had been healed of many things, testified to the wonderful keeping power of the Great Physician who had not only healed them, but taken away all desire for the poisonous medicines, delivered them from fear, and had marvelously kept them and their son so well during the three years that they have been in Zion, for which they had great reason to thank God and take fresh courage.
WOMEN'S WORK lies very largely in the care of the home, in taking care of the family, and in the preparation of food.

Many of our Zion women have had wonderful answers to prayer, and their little babes have been born without difficulty when they have obeyed and trusted God, and He has cast out all fear from their hearts. We have many letters in reply from those who have written, asking us to pray for them, telling the beautiful story of God's love and His precious gift to them.

Then, after a while, there comes the question:

What food shall we give our babies?

We invariably answer: "There is no food as good as mother's milk."

God, through the Apostle Peter, tells us that "new-born babes desire the sincere milk of the Word," that they "may grow thereby."

He there makes the analogy from the natural to the spiritual life. We turn his application back from the spiritual to the natural, and say that both mother and child will grow better if this law is followed.

Then, after a few months, the mother finds that the little one has been growing so rapidly that his demands upon her are more than she can supply.

She does not want to give up nursing, but what shall she do? The little fellow very vigorously makes his wants known. When a baby cries he has some reason for it: either he is sick or uncomfortable, or he is hungry.

I remember once visiting a young mother who asked me to help her find out what was the matter with her baby. He was well born and a beautiful child, but he would cry.

We could find nothing wrong with him.

His clothes were all comfortable—nothing tight or rough about him—no pain; he was clean in every way.

His mother said he was drinking all day long, and that she had plenty to give him; he could not be hungry and yet these were the symptoms he exhibited.

While we were puzzling over the problem, and trying to soothe the child by walking up and down with him, caressing the little fellow with soothing talk, the baby's grandmother arrived—his father's mother.

We began immediately to tell her about it, and she at once said: "Oh, I know that cry—it is a hungry cry! All he wants is food."

"But," said the mother, "it cannot be; you have no idea how much he has had."

But the grandmother said: "That does not matter; I know that cry well. All my boys have cried that way when they were hungry."

She then prepared him some food, and after he had eaten it he was "as good as gold," and as sweet and amiable as could be, after he became what his mother laughingly called "drunk and incapable."

As she continued to use this food for him he grew strong and hearty.

The mother was a gentle, refined little lady, with a dainty appetite, but the child was of another type, and he needed to be bountifully nourished. He was wanting to grow and her milk alone was not sufficient.

He needed something more than milk.

That child grew into a splendid man, with the gentle, refined and beautiful features of the mother and the large frame and physical strength of the father.

By taking the grandmother's wise counsel this lady was able to nurse her baby for more than a year, which she could not have done otherwise.

Many persons give their babies milk in nursing-bottles, prepared to taste as nearly like the mother's milk as possible. If this is very carefully attended to and the milk agrees with and nourishes the child, that is a good way; but it requires a great deal of care in keeping all the utensils perfectly clean. Sometimes, however, the different milks do not agree with one another and with the child.

A better plan is to give the little one food with a spoon, and a very excellent preparation to give to infants and little children is made from whole-wheat flour. Take the whole-wheat flour, or if you cannot get whole-wheat flour, use graham flour.

If you use the graham, sift it through a double piece of net, keeping back the coarser part of it; then put it in a baking-dish into a slow oven; bake it for half an hour, stirring it up several times to prevent it from getting lumpy.

Keep on hand a quantity of this flour so prepared. Then take two tablespoonsfuls of the flour just before baby's feeding time, and wet it with one-half cupful of cold water; then add a dessert-spoonful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Have a clean little saucepan kept for the baby, especially, and put into it a cupful of fresh, cold water. Place it on the fire, and when the water is boiling, stir this... mixture into it. Keep on stirring it after it boils, for about ten minutes. Then take it off the fire, and with a little soft sugar sprinkled over it, and milk, give it to the baby with a spoon, or let the little one drink it from a saucer.

This makes an exceedingly palatable, nutritious and easily digested food, and is not only good food for the baby, but for the mother also, and for young children.

In our opinion this is better and more economical than using the prepared foods which come in tins and are made from condensed milk and other things, which one does not feel sure about.

With this whole-wheat gruel you know just exactly what you are giving them.

This food could be given at first once a day, and then afterwards twice a day, and will enable mothers to keep nursing their children longer than they otherwise could.

Many mothers are compelled to wean their little ones when they are four or five months old, but if they use wisdom and give them this food in addition to their own milk, it will enable them to continue nursing for over a year, with benefit both to themselves and to their little ones.

We recommend the above preparation as a good breakfast food also.

All babies cannot be treated alike.

You must study their temperaments and their tastes; but the one thing you must be very particular about is that the baby shall be kept clean, and that the food which is given to it shall be perfectly fresh and wholesome.

Children should not be given any meat or strong food until they are at least over a year old; then vegetables and gravy, eggs, and stronger foods may be given to them gradually as they grow in strength.

All of the cereals, well-prepared, are good for a little child and can be used time about to make a little variety, which is good for children as well as older people.

We are told by competent authorities that all the properties necessary to nourish the human body are contained in a grain of wheat.

The Christ, the spotless Lamb of God, who tooketh away the sins of the world, said to the Tempter, when he came to Him and said "If Thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread": "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Paul speaks of milk as necessary for babes, and says that "solid food is for full-grown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil."

The trouble has been that teachers have not been teaching the first principles and have not been remembering that which God forbade as an unclean article of food, in the Old Dispensation, the Christ did not cleanse in the New, but He destroyed the swine at Gadara, by sending the legion of devils, which He cast out of a man, into them, at the devils' request. He therefore thought that the pigs were proper dwelling-places for devils.

Scarcely any one who has read the General Overseer's lectures on swine's flesh, or his tract entitled "Swine's Flesh, the Disease-Producer," can continue to use anything connected with the hog as an article of diet.

We find that many persons have, in the past, been in the habit of using lard in their cooking, and they seem to find it difficult to cook without it.

In our own household, we have never used lard, and at first we were puzzled to know how they found this a difficulty.

In homes where a part of the family had received Zion teaching on this subject, and the other part of the family still held to the hog, it has given rise to quite a little unpleasantness in the home life, which, we believe, could have been easily prevented if the housekeeper had known how to prepare food nicely without the use of hog's fat in the cooking.

I will therefore give some useful information on this subject.

First, to fry steak or chops nicely, you do not require to use any fat at all, as there is a very much better mode of frying meat than frying it in fat. The process is somewhat similar to broiling and the meat retains its juices, and the flavor is very much better.

Take a frying-pan, scald it with boiling water; wipe it thoroughly and place it over a fire; when it is quite hot lay the steak in it and brown it quickly, turn it often until cooked, and when done season it on both sides with salt and pepper.

If you desire to have some gravy with it, pour off all the grease that is in your pan, leaving the brown; if you want a thick gravy, sprinkle a little flour in the pan and let it brown, then add boiling water, let it boil up and pour it over the steak. If you wish to have plain gravy, leave out the flour.

This manner of cooking steak is preferable to broiling or frying it in a quantity of fat, and can be used to fry chops, steaks, veal, or any other meats.

To Roast Meats, a good deal of the success in roasting depends on the heat and quality of the fire.

If put into a cool oven a roast loses its juices, and the result is a tough, tasteless roast; whereas, if the oven is of the proper heat, it immediately sears up the pores of the meat and the juices are retained.

The oven should be hottest when the meat is put into it, in order to quickly crisp the surface and close the pores of the meat, thereby confining its natural juices. If the oven is too hot to hold the hand in for only a moment, then it is right to receive the meat.

The roast should first be washed in pure water, then wiped dry with a clean, dry cloth and placed in a baking-pan without any seasoning, but no water should be put into the pan, for this would have a tendency to soften the outside of the meat.

The water can never become as hot as the hot fat upon the surface of the meat, and the generating of the steam prevents its crispness, so desirable in a roast.

It should be frequently basted with the drippings which flow from the meat, which will make it brown and tender.

When partly done, season it with salt and pepper, as it hardens any meat to salt it when raw and draws out its juices: Then dredge with sifted flour to give it a frothy appearance. When done remove the roast to a heated dish and set it where it will keep hot.

Pour off all the fat, sprinkle a tablespoonful of sifted flour into the pan, add a little pepper and a teaspoonful of boiling water. Boil this up well and serve it in a gravy-dish. If the gravy is preferred without thickening, leave out the sifted flour.

If you save the drippings from the roast meats, you will find that you will have sufficient to use for other necessary cooking purposes, and it is very much nicer than using the unwholesome and indigestible fat of the unclean hog.

Keep your beef and mutton drippings separate, so that you can use them for different purposes.

Many persons have felt the need for a little salted meat as a variety to their diet, after giving up the use of ham, but very few people know how to cook a piece of corned-beef or salted tongue in a palatable way.

We will therefore give a little information regarding the best way to boil meats.
ZION WOMEN'S WORK.

Although this is one of the easiest processes in cookery, it requires very skilful management.

Boiled meat should be tender, savory and full of its own juice or natural gravy; but, through the carelessness and ignorance of cooks, it is too often sent to table hard, tasteless and in nutritious.

To insure a successful result in boiling, the heat of the fire must be judiciously regulated, and the proper quantity of water must be kept up in the pot.

Liebig, the highest authority on all matters connected with the chemistry of food, has shown that meat put into cold water loses some of its most nutritious constituents.

"If the meat," says the great chemist, "be introduced into the boiler when the water is in a state of brisk ebullition, and if the boiling be kept up for a few minutes, and the pot then placed in a warm place so that the temperature of the water is kept at 158 degrees to 165 degrees, we have the united conditions for giving to the meat the qualities which best fit it for being eaten."

When a piece of meat is plunged into boiling water, the albumen which is near the surface immediately coagulates, forming an envelope which prevents the escape of internal juice, and most effectually excludes the water, which, by mixing with this juice, would render the meat insipid. Meat treated thus is juicy and well flavored, when cooked, as it retains most of its savory constituents.

On the other hand, if a piece of meat be set on the fire with cold water, and this slowly heated to boiling, the meat undergoes a loss of soluble and nutritious substances, while, as a matter of course, the soup becomes richer in these matters.

The albumin is gradually dissolved, from the surface to the center; the fiber loses, more or less, its quality of shortness or tenderness, and becomes hard and tough. The thinner the piece of meat is, the greater the loss of savory constituents.

In order to obtain well-flavored and eatable meat, we relinquish the idea of making good soup from it, as that mode of boiling which yields the best soup gives the dryest, toughest and most insipid meat.

To boil meat, have ready your meat, wash and wipe it very clean; put on your saucepan with clean, fresh water, bringing it to a boil and when it is well boiled up, plunge in your meat, having sufficient water to cover it. Then let it boil up again for a few minutes. Then draw the saucepan to the side of the fire, where it should remain until the finger can be borne in the water. Then place it sufficiently near the fire that the water may gently simmer, and be very careful that it does not boil fast or the meat will be hard.

Add a little salt if the meat is unsalted, and let it continue to simmer until it is tender.

The scum which rises to the surface of the pot during the operation of boiling must be carefully removed, otherwise it will attach itself to the meat and thereby spoil its appearance.

The cook must not neglect to skim during the whole process, though by far the greater part of the scum arises at the first.

If the meat is required to be eaten hot, it should be served as soon as it is taken from the pot, and it should not be allowed to stand a moment longer than necessary.

If it is intended to be eaten cold, leave it in the water until the water is cold, and then take it out.

This method, if carefully followed, will give satisfaction with all kinds of boiled meats.

We desire that our Zion women shall be competent, all-round women. That they shall not only be among "the women that publish the Tidings, . . . a great host," but that they shall be good wives and mothers, and look well to the ways of their households, and eat not "the bread of idleness"; then their children shall rise up and call them blessed; their husbands also shall praise them.

They will be as the virtuous woman, described in Proverbs, whose "price is far above rubies." The heart of her husband trusteth in her, and he shall have no lack of gain; she doeth good and not evil all the days of her life. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and her maidens. She girdeth her loins with strength, and maketh strong her arms, she spreadeth out her hands to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh for herself cushions of tapestry, her clothing is silk and purple, her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh linen garments and servleth them; and delivereth girdles to the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in the time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and the law of kindness is on her tongue. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her works praise her in the gates."

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

ALMOST INSTANTLY HEALED, IN ANSWER TO PRAYER, WHEN AT THE POINT OF DEATH FROM NERVOUS PROSTRATION, PARALYSIS AND HEART TROUBLE.

THE PRAYER OF FAITH SHALL SAVE HIM THAT IS SICK, AND THE LORD SHALL RAISE HIM UP.

This woman was very near to death.
Her eyes were set.
Respiration had apparently ceased.
Her lips were stiff.
Her body was growing cold.
No pulse could be detected at the wrist.

Only with a stethoscope could the physician discern the rapidly diminishing flutterings of her heart.

Her death seemed to be a matter of minutes, if not seconds.
An Elder of the Church laid hands upon her, praying the Prayer of Faith.

Almost instantly she was not only raised from the very jaws of death, but was completely healed of many terrible diseases from which she had suffered from her girlhood.

Nervous prostration had tortured her with its indescribable horrors.

At times it seemed as if her mind would give way.
She even pleaded, in her despair, to be sent to an insane asylum.

What a world of woe there is compressed in her words: “like the woman with the issue of blood, spoken of in Mark 5:25. I had ‘suffered many things of many physicians,' and had spent all I had, and was ‘nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.”

Paralysis had gripped her with its cruel, relentless grasp.

Death from heart disease threatened her momentarily, like the cruel sword suspended over the head of Damocles at the banquet.

All these terrible afflictions passed away, almost in the twinkling of an eye, in answer to the Prayer of Faith.

Such is the wonderful Story which this woman tells. Such is the wonderful Story which her husband confirms. They did not imagine it.
They did not dream it.
They did not invent it.

A Story such as these honest people tell is not the product of imagination, dreams or invention. This Story is a fact.
Theories, doctrines, creeds, opinions and prejudices may conflict with it, but they are ground to powder beneath the unyielding adamant of its certainty.
Sneers, jeers, taunts, falsehoods and violence may assail this fact, but it stands unmoved and immovable, founded upon Divine Truth.

It proves, actually and tangibly, in this present day, that God meant what He said at the waters of Marah, so many centuries ago, when He made His Covenant with His people, “I am Jehovah that healeth thee.”

It proves the truth of the prophecy concerning Jesus, the Christ: “Surely He hath borne our Sicknesses and carried our sorrows.”

It proves that He has kept His promise: “Lo, I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age.” It proves that the apostle... was writing by inspiration of the Holy Spirit when he penned those words: "Is any among you sick? let him call for the Elders of the Church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord: and the Prayer of Faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up." The truth is incontrovertible.

The Word of God says it, from one end of the Book to the other.

The indisputable fact of the healing of this woman, and of hundreds of thousands of others who have fulfilled God's conditions and have trusted Him alone, proves it.

O weary sufferer, why attempt to find healing in the poisonous drugs concerning which God hath said, "In vain dost thou use many medicines"?

God, your loving Heavenly Father, waits to heal you.

You can rest your case with Him in perfect confidence, for His promises are sure and tried.

A. W. N

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. MARY ROGERS.

1213 NORTH HALSTED STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 12, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I have thought for some time that I would write my testimony of God's goodness in healing me when dying with nervous prostration, paralysis and heart trouble.

It has been three years since I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and God has been very good to me.

I had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since a child of thirteen.

All these years I had been a sufferer of almost every ailment human flesh is heir to.

Like the woman with the issue of blood, spoken of in Mark 5:25, I had "suffered many things of many physicians," and had spent all I had and was "nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

I had been taught in the Methodist Episcopal church that God had sent me all these afflictions.

I could not see any of God's Love in that.

I was very much impressed with the teaching whether it was served she left the table, crying that she was going crazy and that we should take her away.

I left the table and went to her.

I saw that she was failing rapidly.

As she states, she soon recognized the Elder.

I pray and trust that God will abundantly bless you in your work for Him, and give you strength to go forward.

Rev. W. H. Piper.

I am entirely a teacher, that He can lie?

I know that the promise given by God in Malachi 3:10; Mark 10:28-30, etc.

I have been paying tithes God has increased my wages to more than three times the amount which I received before.

I thank and praise Him for this.

Not only has He blessed me this way, but the work is better, and the surroundings also.

I thank God that I am permitted to live in such a nice, clean city, and to work among men and women whose aim is to serve and love the Lord.

I pray and trust that God will abundantly bless you in your work for Him, and give you strength to go forward.

Believe me, I remain,

Yours faithfully,

ERNEST A. PAUL

OBEDIENCE IN PAYING TITHES BRINGS BLESSING.

MORGUL, PENNSYLVANIA, October 17, 1902.

Rev. W. H. Piper.

Dear Overseer:—In answer to your question, "Has God blessed you in tithing?" I wish to say that I have paid tithes into God's Storehouse for three consecutive years, and each succeeding year the tithe is almost twice as much as it was the year before.

I know it pays to obey God's command in Malachi 3:10; Mark 10:28-30, etc.

Why should it not be so?

If God is a man, that He can lie?

Hoping that these few words will help some one to be faithful and take God at His Word, I remain yours and Zion's, JACOB D. GARMAN.

HE day when Jehovah will shake the heavens and the earth will be the Consummation of the Age—the Time of the Restoration of All Things.

This Time has already begun. Periods do not suddenly burst upon us. They come by degrees, as the darkness of the night steals upon us at the close of the day.

There are days and nights in the world's history. We are nearing a wonderful day in the world's history—the Millennium Age, when the Christ shall reign upon the earth. One day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

Nothing in the world today is as when God made it. Everything has been interfered with and changed in a greater or less degree by the Devil.

God pronounced everything good when it came from His hands, as He made it. Before things can be restored as they were at the beginning they must be shaken to pieces and reformed.

When God reigns on this earth everything is to be good and pure and beautiful. There is to be no sin and no sickness and no death.

Death is the last evil to be abolished. Sickness and disease will be destroyed first. The Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, which the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, is now teaching to the world, is to bring about the Rule of the Christ in the spirits, souls and bodies of the people.

God promises that He will not permit disease to be put upon those who keep the Covenant.

The first step in accepting the Covenant is Salvation through Repentance, and Confession and Faith in the Lord Jesus, the Christ.

The second step, which should immediately follow the first step, is Healing for soul and body through the Atonement of our Lord.

His Atonement covers man's entire being. Thus the rule of God is established in man's being.

This can be constantly maintained as we obey the rule of God every moment and trust Jesus to save us from sinning.

The man whom God says He will make as His Signet or Seal must be a holy man. The Christ must be All and All in him, reigning as King in his spirit, soul and body.

God uses this man who is His Seal to stamp Salvation, Healing and Holiness upon men by stamping out all that defiles the spirits, souls and bodies of men.

He will stamp into them righteousness in eating, and drinking, and thinking; he will teach them right ways in the worship of God.

He seeks those slain by the Devil, lying in the Valley of Dry Bones.

He cries: "Come from the four winds, O Breath, and breathe upon these slain that they may live." And the Spirit of God causes life to come into these bones, so that they come together, bone to bone. (Ezekiel 37:10.)

He causes the flesh to come upon them and they become a great Army of Witnesses to the life-giving power of God, through His Son Jesus, the Christ, who died that He might give to the people this abundant life in spirit, soul and body. (Isaiah 43:10.)

This great Host has its beginning in Zion, where thousands have been brought out of this Valley, to work for God and humanity.

Their testimonies to the wonderful work which God has done in them are going out on the printed pages of Leaves of Healing, to help others, who are in the Valley of Dry Bones, to seek the Fountain opened in the House of David for sin and uncleanness, that they, too, may wash and live.

Reader, what are you doing to send Zion's Message to the earth's needy and suffering ones?

The Seal of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion represents the work of this man, who is the Signet of the Lord. It represents the Host of Witnesses brought up from the Valley of Dry Bones.

God desires all the world to get into this army, and each one in Zion must do his part towards getting them into it.

Thought the Full Gospel of Zion too Good to be True.

The letter which follows is from a lady who writes from Nottingham, England:

MY DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I hereby send you a short testimony.

Like many others, I was attracted by the Gospel of Divine Healing three years ago, but thought it too good to be true.

After reading the Bible on the subject, and much prayer, together with a careful study of your papers, I came to the conclusion that it was true.

After three years, and a thousand years as one day.

There are days and nights in the world's history.

Among the many testimonies to the wonderful work which Zion Literature has done in the world, is the following, which is from the United States:

DEAR OVERSEER:—I write these lines to you to thank you with all my heart for sending Blatter der Heilung, God has kept me well, my faith has grown stronger and I want to be true to Zion as long as I live.

Zion has taught me how to pray, and I now read the Bible every day, which brings great blessing to my heart.

Many other people here gladly accept and read Blatter der Heilung, and I believe that our number will soon increase and that Zion will be planted here.

We are praying every day for the Dear General Overseer and all Zion, and send our love to you all.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"A AND THE LEAVES OF THE TREE WERE FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS."

HE SENDETH HIS WORD, AND HEALETH THEM, AND DELIVERETH THEM FROM THEIR DESTRUCTIONS.

FULLY TWO THOUSAND New Annual Subscriptions to LEAVES OF HEALING have been received by Zion Printing and Publishing House during the present week.

ONE THOUSAND and Four Hundred of these were received at Shiloh Tabernacle on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 27th.

A CABLEGRAM from Evangelist Cantel, in London, England, which was received today, reads:

Hundred more LEAVES weekly.

CANTEL.

WE DOUBT not that in many parts of America, and in other Continents, our appeal for a large increase of subscribers to LEAVES OF HEALING is being responded to, and we trust to be able to record many thousands more of New Subscriptions before the close of the year.

No premiums, or similar inducements, were given to secure these new subscriptions, nor has anything of that kind ever been done by us.

LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on Wings.

Our Little White Dove, in its present form, has now been flying forth from Zion for eight years and three months. It is now a constant and a welcome visitor on every Continent and in many Islands of the Seas.

Leaves of Healing, Saturday, November 29, 1902.
Almost every issue contains many stories of how it has been blessed in the Salvation and Healing and Cleansing of those to whom it has come.

Were we to attempt to record a hundredth part of the testimony to the blessing which it has been to those who have received it, we could fill every issue for months to come with the details of hundreds of cases of salvation, healing and cleansing through Faith in Jesus.

Our hearts rejoice and we praise God that He gave us the power in the summer of 1894 to establish this paper “for the Extension of the Kingdom of God.”

Despite the most desperate opposition, it has grown in influence and increased in Power, until it is becoming, by the Grace of God, a World-wide Factor in Religious, Political and Commercial Affairs.

Read by friend and by foe, it occupies a unique position in the World of Literature.

It enables multitudes to get the truth about Zion and our utterances as to God’s Work in Zion, which are most persistently misrepresented all over the world by the secular and so-called religious press.

We praise God that amid the almost overwhelming pressure of our work for Him, we have been enabled, though only by the pouring out of our life, to send forth week after week, and year after year.

We are grateful for the intense desire, which is entering into the hearts of God’s people in Zion, to raise the Subscription List to a weekly issue of One Hundred Thousand copies.

At a conservative estimate, it is believed that each copy is read by at least twenty persons before it is worn out, so that if this number now asked for could be reached, then two millions of readers would be directly influenced by Leaves of Healing every week all over the earth.

With such a good beginning, we can expect, when we remove our Printing and Publishing House to Zion City, God willing, next year, to be able speedily to reach immensely greater numbers of people.

The blessing which has followed the publication of a monthly issue of our Leaves of Healing in German, Blatter der Heilung, is very great.

We are continually receiving glad tidings of the blessing the German Leaves brings, from Elder Hodler, Evangelist Brieger and Evangelist Herrich, who are in charge of the Headquarters of our work in Europe, at Zürich, Switzerland. It is blessed also to many in America and Australia.

We have an intense desire to issue, as speedily as God enables us, two Scandinavian monthly editions of Leaves of Healing, one for the Danes and Norwegians, and the other for the Swedes. But adequate resources for these have not yet reached us.

We shall hope, also, to be able to issue occasional numbers, and then periodical issues, in many European and Asiatic tongues.

We hope, also, to be able to announce, within a few months, the printing of Leaves of Healing in Chinese and Japanese.

Zion’s great onward movements must be accompanied with a great sending forth of Zion Literature from Zion Printing and Publishing House.

We commend to our friends everywhere renewed exertions in this matter.

We should be glad to receive tens of thousands of New Subscriptions before the end of the year.

We are also praying that God will enable us to begin the laying of the foundations of a large new building in Zion City, for Printing and Publishing purposes.

Plans have now been prepared, and we are ready to Go Forward.

The first section of this building will cost twenty-five thousand dollars; but that sum will provide only for the accommodation of our present plant and stock in Chicago.

It will require at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to enable us to construct buildings large enough, and to pay for the new machinery requisite to meet the demands which are already in sight.
NEW AND COMPLETE electrotyping, photoengraving, color-printing and lithographing plants will be necessary in addition to our present facilities.

A large increase must also be made in the number of printing machines, folders, cutters, stitchers, etc., for the ever-growing weekly issue of LEAVES OF HEALING.

WE MUST ALSO make early provision for the issuing in Zion City of a Daily Newspaper; for there is every prospect of the population, which is now probably more than 8,000, reaching at least 20,000 by the end of next year.

This will require an entirely new department in Zion Printing and Publishing House, and a thoroughly competent literary and mechanical staff.

THE ZION BANNER, now published semi-weekly, will then give place to the New Daily, which will doubtless soon require to be issued every evening.

THE ZION SUN and ZION STAR will then take their places day and night continually, God willing, in a glorious fight for the Extension of the Kingdom of God, along all the lines now being occupied by the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

WE SHALL ALSO require facilities for Book-binding.

We have now eleven complete volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING and A VOICE FROM ZION, and the Restoration Messages must be gathered into volumes periodically.

Zion Restoration Host Messages will soon reach a million of copies per week.

OUR ZION CITY and Chicago Restorationists alone are using nearly a million copies of the Messages per month.

When our readers add to these things the immense mass of printing to be done in connection with Zion's official stationery, and the general printing constantly required by the Christian Catholic Church and Zion's Financial and Land Institutions and Industries, it will be seen that the Printing and Publishing House must enter next year upon a great Mission for God and for Humanity in Zion City.

WE HOPE THAT these words will meet the eyes and reach the hearts of tens of thousands of our people, who will feel led of God to send us special help, as He enables them, before the opening of the New Year.

Perhaps some wealthy steward of God may see and respond to God's Call.

SHOULD THE WEATHER be favorable, we shall endeavor this winter to put down the foundations of the First Section of Zion Printing and Publishing House, at the corner of Deborah avenue and Shiloh boulevard, a little east of the new depot which is being built in Zion City by the Chicago & North-Western Railway.

It is very desirable that we finish that section during next spring, so that we may remove all our machinery and stock from our present location at 1300 Michigan avenue, Chicago, during the summer.

LET ALL ZION pray that we may be able to carry out these plans.

OUR FIRST THANKSGIVING Service in Shiloh Tabernacle, which had no existence a year ago, was held last Thursday, November 27th.

THE WEATHER, which had been exceptionally fine for many weeks, suddenly changed, and a light fall of snow with high, cold winds swept over the entire country within a radius of several hundred miles.

This interfered very much with the attendance, especially from Chicago.

Hundreds of those who had taken tickets for the Special Trains at 8 and 8:15 a.m. shrank from facing the bitter gale and the sudden cold.

But notwithstanding all our drawbacks, four or five hundred friends came from Chicago in a special train, and a considerable number also came from surrounding towns.

THE SERVICE was fixed for an early hour, 9:30 a.m.; but a chapter of accidents, none of them involving any serious danger, delayed the Zion Special train from Chicago, so that we did not begin the service until 10:30, an hour later than the time fixed.

IT WAS, HOWEVER, a wonderful sight, on that stormy Thanksgiving Day, to see Shiloh Tabernacle more than three-fourths filled, probably nearly 4,000 persons being present.

WE HAD a glorious Choir of nearly four hundred voices, and a large attendance of officers.

The Processional Hymn was a very solemn and inspiring one, as was also the Recessional.

WE WERE GRATEFUL for the response made, when we called for Special Annual Subscriptions for LEAVES OF HEALING.

We received from the audience no less than 1,188, which, with some that had been given in previously, and some afterwards, reached, before Thanksgiving Day was over, the number of 1,400 annual subscriptions.

Our address was from the words:
Oh, give Thanks unto Jehovah;
For He is Good;
For His Loving-kindness endureth Forever.
Let the Redeemed of Jehovah say so,
Whom He hath Redeemed
From the hand of the Adversary;
And Gathered them out of the Lands,
From the East and from the West,
From the North and from the South.
They wandered in the Wilderness
In a Desert Way;
They found no city of habitation.
Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble,
And He delivered them out of their Distresses.
He led them, also, by a Straight Way.
That they might go to a City of Habitation.
Oh, that men would praise Jehovah
For His Loving-kindness,
And for His Wonderful Works to the children of men!
For He satisfieth the Longing soul,
And the Hungry soul He filleth with Good.

We directed the attention specially to these words:
Oh, give Thanks unto Jehovah;
For He is Good;
For His Loving-kindness endureth Forever.
He led them, also, by a Straight Way,
That they might go to a City of Habitation.

Our heart and the hearts of the thousands present were filled with gratitude to God for the Bounteous Harvest with which He had favored our land, greater than that in any other year's history of the United States of America.

We also felt grateful for the goodness of God in gathering us out of the lands, "from the East, and from the West, from the North and from the South," and bringing us to the beautiful "City of Habitation" in which we dwell.

When the sun at last burst forth from the clouds and illuminated the whole landscape, our little City looked divinely beautiful, with its homes and towers and institutions and industries, although yet in their infancy, as we wended our way homeward, to meet, in little groups, in hundreds upon hundreds of happy homes, and to eat that especially American Institution, a Thanksgiving Dinner.

Great sorrows, great conflicts, great joys and great victories had marked the year; and the wide-sloping land which on every side had been without inhabitants, excepting for here and there a little farmhouse, only a year before, was now a legally constituted City, with long lines of pretty buildings along miles of broad streets and avenues.

But best and greatest of all was the fact that Shiloh Tabernacle had been the birthplace of many immortal spirits, and a Bethesda, a House of Mercy, where God had healed and blessed many who were afflicted in spirit, soul and body.

Better than all that, it had been a true Shiloh: for Streams of Life and Light and Love had flowed from that humble Tabernacle, which has overflowed in attendance so often throughout the year, although it seats over 5,000 persons.

The Teachings of Jesus have gone forth from it to millions of men and women in almost every clime and nation under heaven.

Truly we had much reason for Thanksgiving to God, in common with all our fellow citizens in this Great Nation, which especially called for our personal praise and gratitude to our God and Father for His mercy, comfort and sustaining grace, by the Holy Spirit, through His Beloved Son.

And now we set our faces toward the last hour of the twelve in the year 1902.
Within one day from the time we write these lines we shall have passed into the twelfth month.
If permitted by God, we shall hold our First All-Night with God in Shiloh Tabernacle, on the night of Wednesday, December 31st, and until Daylight on the morning of the New Year, January 1, 1903.

We trust to issue next week our Annual Letter, announcing the Program of this great Anniversary in Zion, at the Close and Opening of the Years.

Three years ago, on the early morning of January 1, 1900, we publicly announced our having taken Options upon Ten Square Miles of Land as a site for Zion City.
We also exhibited maps, on a large scale, to the thousands assembled that New Year's Morning in Central Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, showing the location of the site, and an ideal picture, on a very large scale, of the way in which it would be laid out.

And now, three years later, on January 1, 1903, we shall be able to announce that we have obtained ownership title and full possession of nearly the whole of that tract of land.
Our visitors will see that there are now many miles of streets opened, and that we have built schools, tabernacles, homes, stores, industries, great hospices, where thousands of people can be fed and entertained, a magnificent Administration Building, an Electric Power Plant, and almost perfectly appointed factories, etc.
All these can now be seen on the land where three years ago the building of such a City was to many only an idle dream, entirely beyond our resources.

How little the world knew what all our Resources were, and are still, in God.

More than could have been expected, considering the shortness of the time has been accomplished.

TO GOD ALONE BE ALL THE GLORY.

We trust that large numbers of the Members and Friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion will gather together in Zion City and keep watch with us as we pass into the Third Year of this Wondrous Century which has seen the New Birth of Zion, the establishment of the City of Zion, and the Organization of Zion Restoration Host.

Zion is now operating, under our direction as Elijah the Restorer, all over the world, on a well-defined plan, for the Conquest of the World for God, in the Name of the Christ, our King, and in the Power of the Holy Spirit.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

Important Notice Concerning Moneved Interests of Zion and Her People

A Bureau of Aid, through correspondence and interview, as well as by visitation of Zion's Special Financial Messengers, is now maintained in connection with ZION SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS, WHICH WILL list for sale farm and town property of the members and friends of Zion everywhere, who are coming to Zion.

WHICH WILL present to men of means and business affairs the claims and the opportunities which Zion offers to experienced persons.

WHICH WILL attract property investors, to the substantial upbuilding of Zion City, in view of the increase in values and residential benefits.

WHICH WILL promote the sale of the varied interest-earning shares in Zion's Industries and Institutions.

WHICH WILL secure from Zion's people advances of money to be employed in the channels of her municipal and world-wide work.

WHICH WILL induce godly people by gifts and conveyances to devote their property to the glory of God, to be used by Zion, and not be controlled by enemies of Righteousness.

WHICH WILL inculcate in Zion's people the privileges in tithing, and the blessings of free-will offerings and being liberal-souled.

These things are contributory to the upbuilding of Zion City; the maintenance of the health, happiness and prosperity of Zion's people, and the extension of Zion's Gospel evangelization throughout the world.

Good Earnings and Profits are assured on these Investments.

Descriptive printed matter, with full particulars, mailed upon application. Correspondence solicited, and personal interviews invited.

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager.
In the course of his unveiling of the Apostasies of the modern professsed Church of the Christ, Elijah the Restorer came Lord's Day afternoon, November 23, 1902, to the Greek church. Historically accurate, and replete with unerring information concerning the present-day state of the Eastern church, Elijah's Restoration Message struck at the very core of the Apostasy of that great organization.

The greatest power of the Message, however, lay in the fact that it was a Message from God by His prophet, especially commissioned in the closing days of this dispensation to destroy and dissolve organizations which have fallen away from the Christ, and to set the people free from their errors in teaching and practice.

Giving full recognition to all that was good and pure and Christlike in the Greek church, in its ministry and among its membership, God's prophet showed the appalling fact that this organization, which was spiritually responsible for the lives of so many millions of people, had become the mere tool of the political power of a godless and unprincipled clique of politicians in Russia, Roumania, Bulgaria, Armenia, Egypt, Greece and elsewhere.

In the Prelude to his Message, God's Messenger dealt once more with General William Booth and the Salvation Army. His words were a powerful and unanswerable arraignment of this man who, professing to be at the head of the most aggressive Christian movement of the day, had been responsible for uncalled-for, bitter and lying attacks upon God's Messenger and His work, and who, when given an opportunity to acknowledge the falsity of the attacks, and set the matter right, had taken refuge in cowardly silence, and permitted the unclean and criminal press of the city of Chicago to attempt his defense on the pretense that he was too big a man to notice the General Overseer.

Then, turning his attention to the organization which General Booth represents, the General Overseer briefly set forth the manner in which it had departed from the strong and aggressive, evangelistic character given to it by its real founder, Catherine Booth, until it had become a cruel, merciless and ineffective military machine, ruled over by ignorant, untruthful and pompous martinets.

In making the announcements, the General Overseer took occasion to refer briefly, but very effectively, to the folly and tyranny of Trades Unionism.

The temper of the people concerning this important subject was clearly shown when the great audience, composed largely of visitors, applauded with lively enthusiasm the sentiments which he expressed.

The day was a most phenomenally pleasant and beautiful one, and over 4,000 people thronged the great Auditorium to hear the Message of God's servant.

When, at the close, the great audience had arisen, and, after the General Overseer, had solemnly repeated the prayer of consecration, it was most inspiring to hear the assembled thousands take up the significant words of Zion's Consecration Hymn:

- It may not be on the mountain's height,
- Or over the stormy sea;
- It may not be at the battle's front
- My Lord will have need of me;
- But if by a still, small voice He calls
- To paths that I do not know,
- I'll answer: Dear Lord, with my hand in Thine,
- I'll go where You want me to go.

And then, clear and strong, rising in ever-increasing volume, were heard the sweet voices of the women in the chorus:

- I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord,
- Over mountain, or plain, or sea;
- I'll say what you want me to say, dear Lord,
- I'll be what You want me to be.

Then, still singing alone, the women took up the second verse:

- Perhaps today there are loving words
- Which Jesus would have me speak;
- There may be now in the paths of sin
- Some wanderer whom I should seek.
- O Saviour, if Thou wilt be my guide,
- Thou'rt dark and rugged the way,
- My voice shall echo Thy Message sweet;
- I'll say what You want me to say.

Calm and earnest determination ringing in their voices, the men took up the chorus, and then, altogether, the thousands sang, not only with their lips, but from their hearts, those sweet and solemn words.

Hearts were deeply touched and lives changed by that wonderful scene.

The services were opened by Zion White-robbed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the PROCESSIONAL.

Forward! be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind.
The Salvation Army is but a skeleton of what it was shortly after its beginning. Its original weaknesses have been intensified, its best and most beautiful features shattered and eliminated, and there have been added to it many parasitical growths which have emasculated it in every way. Its protests against sin have become limited to vague generalities, and all kinds of impieties are passed by unchallenged, if thereby a temporary gain seems to come to the Army. It only strikes where its blows will not create public censure, and its flatters and cooperates with, and depends for its strength upon association with apostate churches, with political institutions; upon suppression of truth, and upon public men who are without personal piety, and are often persons of very unclean lives. We have known such persons to be deliberately selected to preside on public occasions, even when the leaders have been warned that they had selected men of bad character. But they were influential and rich; and Mammon covers many offenders in the Salvation Army all over the world. Officers of high rank have flattered the somewhat weak and exceedingly narrow-minded general, whose strongest point is a dogged obstinacy, which defies love, faith, reason, facts and truth. These false counselors have flattered the self-conscious general and have carefully covered his grievous faults and his steady loss of personal piety with words and deeds of contemptible tradecism.

I am wearied out; Christian people everywhere are wearied out with it, and, above all, God is wearied out with the ignorant pretense and spiritual inefficiency of the Salvation Army, which is now a simulacrum, a mere skeleton of what it was when the ripe, richly cultured, beautiful spirit of Catherine Booth gave it its great impulse and sent it forth on a glorious mission, in which it has at last miserably failed.

Now a towering, vain, foolish old man, in the hands of a few designing people, is the principal strength remaining to the organisation. Let it pass; and let every organisation, including our own, if it fails to do right, pass away, but let the people be saved and the kingdom of God be established.

The voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord’s Day, November 21, 1892.

UNVEILING THE APOSTASY OF THE SALVATION ARMY.
At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us, And cause Thy face to shine upon us: That Thy Way may be known upon earth, Thy Saving Health upon all the Nations, For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 231:

Come, Thou Almighty King, Help us Thy Name to sing, Help us to praise: Father! all-glorious, O'er all victorious, Come and reign over us, Ancient of Days!

RECEPTION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; He sits at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.
III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.
V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting. To Thee all Angels cry aloud, and all the Powers therein To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth, Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory. The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee. The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee. The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee. The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of an infinite Majesty; Thine adorable, true and only Son; Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter. Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ; Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father. When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin: When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father. We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting. O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage; Govern them and lift them up for evermore. Day by day we magnify Thee; And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin. O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us. O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee. O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The Scripture lesson was then read by the General Overseer from the book of the Prophet Isaiah, 40th chapter. Closing with the following prayer:

May God bless His Word.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer.

The General Overseer then made the following remarks:

This morning at 6:30 o'clock I had the greater part of 3,000 people at the Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle, and nearly a thousand have come into the city to work among the
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Zion Alone Going Forward in Australia.

I notice that in this time of drought, in Australia, the Christian Church in Zion is the one church in all the colonies that is making any headway.

Many of the ministers are getting disappointed.

They cannot get any salary, and cannot get the people to take much interest in what they preach.

I should think they could not, when they teach that every misery comes from God Almighty. I wonder how they can possibly expect the people to listen to that kind of nonsense.

Everything that is evil comes from an evil source.

I sent out four to Australia just a year ago. In looking at a report I received last night from Overseer Voliva, I noticed that for the able to pay all his expenses in Adelaide, in Melbourne, in Sydney, in Auckland, in a great many interior towns of these provinces of the Australian Commonwealth, and come out with a balance in his favor every month.

He has not lost a single cent of it, but has acquired considerable.

We have increased our numbers from a very few to thousands of persons attending the meetings in Melbourne, in Sydney, in Adelaide, and in other cities and towns of the Commonwealth of Australia, as well as in various parts of New Zealand.

Hundreds have been saved, healed, blessed, baptized, and added to the Christian Church in Zion.

I notice that in Adelaide our deacon-in-charge has a congregation which sometimes reaches between six and seven hundred.

Considerable congregations meet in Zion Tabernacles in Melbourne, in Sydney, in Auckland, in Wellington and Dunedin, New Zealand.

The work is spreading inside of all these great southern lands, although they are passing through a terrible time of drought.

I thank God for establishing Zion at such a time in Australia: for which my beloved wife and son and myself have a sincere love, having spent many years in those beautiful lands, which will soon again become fruitful and prosperous: for the drouth will pass away, and years of plenty will come.

I rejoice that Zion is there to teach the people How to Pray, and that, despite all opposition, Zion has planted her Banner. It is there to stay.

Zion Always Thrives in Both Good and Bad Times.

When I established this work in Chicago in 1893, it seemed an absurd thing to expect anything to be done in that year of riot and wickedness, in which the people went down to Jackson Park into a Carnal of Vice and Sin that was speedily followed by a National Financial Crisis, and by wide-spread Poverty and Demoralization.

But, during that year, Zion was established there.

During 1894 the anarchistic powers of a cruel and murderous labor union seized this city.

The United States Army coming to it, hungry and misguided mobs, who had seized upon the food supplies of the people, would have given it over to fire and sword, and made it the headquarters of Anarchy.

Yet Zion grew rapidly in these disastrous and "poor" times.

The Cruel, Dangerous Tyranny of Trades Unionism.

I am no friend of unions that would beat into insensibility men who want to work for their daily bread, simply because they do not belong to the unions or to a Labor Federation.

I warn this people that there are two sides to this labor controversy.

I am the pastor of a working people; and I am a working man, and the friend at all times of the toilers.

I am glad to say that we can conduct our work in Zion City independent of the American Federation of Labor, and the Unions it controls.

They said I should never build the city; that I never could build it if the unions said I should not.

Notwithstanding their threats, I have never lacked for builders, and we have already erected homes in Zion City for probably over 8,000 persons, built tabernacles, schools, stores, offices, hospices of large size, where many hundreds can be boarded and thousands fed, and have established successful industries on a large scale.

Union workmen in large numbers have ignored the threats of Unionist leaders, and have worked for months at a time in Zion City.

We have no prejudice against unionists, if they observe Zion's rules, and do an honest day's work—and they have done good work in our city, and left none of their hard-earned money in saloons and other bad places: for they do not exist there.

The unionists are a minority among the workers of America, and they are inherently weak and quarrelsome and divided amongst themselves.

You working men, many of you, and you employers, are afraid of them. You are letting that tyrannical minority rule you.

I would rather be ruled by an intelligent despot than by an irresponsible mob.

I do not hesitate to tell you to your faces that you will have to look out for that greatest of all dangers, the danger of an unthinking, irresponsible mob, led by tricky leaders, who are selfish, ungodly, and care not for the people.

Let every man get the full present reward of his labor. It is his right.

The principle of Trades Unionism, however, which would give to all workmen in a trade the same wages, whether they are all worth the same or not, is a shameful principle.

It destroys all real progress, and destroys legitimate ambition.

It brings clever workmen down to the level of the loafer and of the man who puts in as few licks as he can, and lengthens out his job as much as he can.

All men are not worth the same wages, and you know it.

There are some men who are not worth a red cent an hour, and there are others whose worth cannot be computed in dollars and cents.

There are some great workers for humanity who never get their pay except in calumny and every evil thing that envious and evil men can say.

There is no sense in supporting a system that, if it were successful, would destroy all real liberty and progress.

Unionism Invading the Schools.

If I were mayor of Chicago, or head of the Board of Education, I would stop that association of the Chicago Public School Teachers with the Federation of Labor.

It is a disgraceful association.

It is dangerous in the extreme, and will bring about more of what you see now: a mob of impudent little boys and girls striking against their teachers and deserting a Public School because they "don't like" the action of the Board and the Superintendent in disciplining a certain teacher. This is sowing seeds of Anarchy with a vengeance.

(At this point three or four persons left the Auditorium.)

You may go out, but it is all true.

Perhaps some of you belong to that association.

I intend to speak what I know to be right and true whether you like it or not.

I am not here to flatter anybody.

I never made my success, whatever it was, in Chicago, by flattering you.

I usually started by wiping the floor with you. (Laughter and applause.) That is about what you need, some of you Cowards!

An Example of a Tyrannical Minority.

A few years ago I investigated one strike especially, and there were 3,500 workmen or thereabouts.

The number of unionists was not really 1,000. They struck and compelled 3,500 non-union men to lie idle for months, and they threatened to smash their heads and kill them if they returned to work until the tyrannical unionist minority said they might.

I advised Zion people who were employed in the piano factories to let their employers know that their sympathies were with them.
TYRANNY OF TRADES UNIONISM.

When the gates were thrown open, my people were the first to enter.

Thank God, they all got work meanwhile.

A tobacconist led that strike. A distiller led the second strike. A brewer is at the head of the American Federation of Labor—that smokestack, Gompers.

There is no honesty in cigar-making. Next to liquor-making, it is the most dishonest and the most injurious business in the world and should be suppressed by law.

The Brewer, the Distiller and the Tobacconist Are Enemies of Tobacco-workers is widespread and consists of Dirt, Debt, Disease and Death—a loss in lives of tens of thousands annually, and a loss of not far from a Billion Dollars ($1,000,000,000) annually in America.

It is making millions of people to stink and rot, and is sending down shattered nerves to the generations to come.

May God smite it! It is an outrage that United labor should be led by a walking "smokestack," a cigar-maker. (Applause.)

Let the men belong to a labor union if they want to, but let the man who does not want to join it be free to labor without fear of having his head broken.

If the law does not support men in performing labor contracts for price workmen may agree upon with their employers, whether it be on a "union scale" or not, then you have Anarchy enthroned. Beware! How Zion Increases the Rewards of Labor.

I am not speaking against increasing the rewards of labor: for I desire with all my heart, and labor with all my might, to increase the prosperity of the thousands of men and women whom I employ in Zion.

Everybody knows what Zion is doing in that respect. I was very glad last week when a man came to me and said: "General Overseer, I have asked for an interview for a long time. Will you let me have it now?"

I said: "Yes, what do you want to say?"

"I wish to know how to invest $2,000 I have made in Zion City," he replied.

"How did you make it?" I asked.

"In the first place," he replied, "my wages have been good the last eighteen months, and I have saved $500." "Now," I said "the second place."

"In the second place," he said, "I bought a piece of land and built a house on it. Some one wanted it, and I made $800 on that. Then," he said, "I bought another bit of land, and put a house on it, and I made $750 on that. So I made $2,000 in eighteen months."

He was a working man, with a good trade, a blacksmith, and without any "grumble" in him. And there are many others in Zion who have done as well in proportion—some better.

All the working people know where I stand. I wish to see the working man succeed.

Poverty is the Devil's curse. Prosperity, honestly earned, is God's blessing.

A working blacksmith will be a very long time making $2,000, under the leadership of "smokestacks."

Servile Deference of Politicians to Labor Leaders.

I am angry, downright angry, to see great politicians bowing and deferring to these who threaten, and carry out their threats, that they will smash the head of any man who will work, when they do not want to work. You must have that fight out before the Law. You working men are the most concerned; for if ever these "smokestacks" fellows should get the upper hand they would smash the country for the time; great industries would shut down; capital would go where it would be protected; and millions of men and women would be thrown out of employment for a long time—until confidence was restored.

The country is not led by smokestacks. It is led by brains, and there are no brains in a smokestack. (Laughter and applause.)

I sometimes wish I were, for a little time, a Christian legislator, where my words might directly influence law-makers. I do take a little hand in it now and then, at odd times when my people and the welfare of the nation are concerned: for we have laid down the foundations of a Theocratic Party at Zion City, with the motto, "Where God rules man prospers."

If the men who know better were not afraid, and would talk right out, and you had a press that would not be afraid, you would have a different state of affairs, and the working men would be better off.

But Fear overshadows Right and Truth.

Great Saving by Abstinence from Liquor and Tobacco.

I have nothing but working people at Zion City. There are no loafers there; no tobacco smokestacks there. Ugh! You tinkerers! What good are you, smoking $700,000,000 a year; drinking $1,300,000,000? You chew, smoke and drink two billions of dollars, every year. It is a wonder you are not ashamed.

When hard times come, where are you? You have nothing saved.

Destroy the traffic in these two things alone, and you have two billion dollars saved for the country.

Two billion dollars more would be saved, because the loss of labor, and the cost of crime and pauperism and the actual money loss through diminished strength and skill of the people, resulting from these things, is worth more than that. Think of it—an annual waste of Four Billions of Dollars—$4,000,000,000.

In Zion City there is nothing spent in that way, and that is why the people grow; why they are strong; and why, God helping us, they shall continue to be strong and grow prosperous.

If the press of Chicago were only half fair, and told only a tithe of the truth about Zion, they would record the triumph of Zion's principles.

They do not dare to, however, because that would kill them. They have told lies so long, that it would undo them to tell the truth.

I do not fear them, though. I never did. I never will. I never feared anybody or anything. I was not born with fear in my heart and I never acquired it.

I Have No Fear of Threats.

Some people have been writing me threatening letters. They cannot move me by these. It is one of the silliest things a man can do.

I get cross-bones and skulls, and orders that I am not to speak any more about the Pope, or about Luther, or Gompers, or somebody else.

That is the very thing that makes my back stiffer. (Applause.)

I Will Never Play a Retreat.

When a Highland piper was captured and brought before Napoleon, the Little Corporal did not quite understand the Caledonian in his kilts, cap, and above all his strange bag-pipes.

He had never seen one of them. He wondered if he were a woman, or a water-carrier.

"What does he do with the things that he has there?" asked the emperor.

"Have him play, your majesty, and you will understand." The Highland piper played, as requested, walking up and down with his pipes.

He played a piobairch, and he played a charge, he played an advance, he played "The Campbells Are Coming." He made that emperor, every now and then, put his fingers in his ears.

Napoleon asked what he was playing each time, and was told.

Then he said: "Now tell him to play a retreat."

The piper understood at last, after a good deal of talking, what it meant.
"A retreat!" he said, "a retreat!"—taking his bagpipes and laying them down—"she never learned to play a retreat, and she is going to learn noo." (Applause and laughter.)

You want me to re-form, do you? I never learned to play a retreat, and I am no going to learn noo.

Not for all the Gompers' smokestacks that ever struck the country (laughing), or all the vipers of the press.

You papers, politicians and pupils are afraid. Why do you not speak out? The workingmen at bottom despise flatterers and cowards, and sneer at your surrender to the "smokestacks" of Organized Labor.

The Unionists are in the minority. They cannot put 50,000 men in procession on Labor Day in the streets of Chicago, and there are more than 400,000 male workers in Chicago who cast votes.

There are seven times as many people working who do not belong to the unions as there are who do, and yet you cringe and crawl before that determined minority, whose leaders wink at Lawlessness!

These girls who went down to New Orleans to get the teachers to join the Federation of Labor had better attend to their own proper business, and not play with edge tools. Teachers of that kind are not helping the schools.

"What do you know about teaching?" perhaps some one asks.

I know something of educational matters.

I could have had a portfolio of minister for education in one of the Australian colonies many years ago.

I have about twelve to four hundred young people whom we are educating, and educating well, in Zion City.

Our teachers and our schools are cared for.

We have scores of excellent teachers in Zion City, in the Kindergarten, the junior schools, and in Zion College.

That is only a beginning. We are not asking the State or the Country to help us.

We build our own schools, and put in our own teachers. We will continue to do it.

I feel very indignant today at many things I am seeing and reading.

Press, Pulpit and Politicians are cowards when they deal with organized Labor.

Why do they not stand up and speak out and tell everybody the truth?

If every man who now suppresses facts, and lies, would speak the truth, there would be a different and much better state of affairs.

Then these poor fellows would not get into the trouble they are in, and the good workmen would not be dragged down by the feeble ones.

I admit that the right of workmen to band themselves together in a lawful manner, and to use lawful means to advance their cause in such a way as not to interfere with the full right of others to work for such wages and prices as they please.

President Mitchell's Evasions.

A great deal of praise has been given to Mr. Mitchell, president of the miners' union, for the skill with which he evaded questions. It would have been a great deal better, if he had answered them straight out, and not evaded them.

He knew very well that he did not dare to answer some of them straight out, that a number of men had been murdered by the strikers, a large number seriously injured, and many workmen's homes made desolate because some miners had died to work when others struck—nothing else!

Several public officers had been murdered, and in discharge of their public duty.

If I had been president of the United States, I would have said: "You shall get no concession from the law, until you keep the law, and until the murderers are arrested and punished."

You say it is only a dozen or so.

One is too many to be murdered in that way. (Applause.)

Some of you are too frightened to say very much, but I believe you are mostly with me.

All who are with me say, Ayce.

Audience—"Ayce." [The audience, which had sat very still during the General Overseer's vigorous words, uttered the "Ayce!" with an immediate unanimity and explosive force which was almost startling in its intensity, coming from thousands of persons.]

General Overseer—I love the working people. They are happy in Zion, and I honor them; and I want them to be happy everywhere, to train up their children for God with the best available literary and manual training, and to prepare the way for the King who loved them, died for them, and once was a non-union carpenter at Nazareth.

They are my brethren. I live for them, love them and would die for them, but I am not in favor of tyrannical secret society unions; for that is what they are.

Unions Controlled by anarchists.

The Anarchists are in control to an extent that you scarcely see; for it is Anarchy to defy the law, and compel others to stand idle for fear of murder or injury.

The press will lie about what I have said: for it is under the thumb of the unions.

The papers put the badge of the union on their front pages, showing that they are wearing the chains of unionism.

They cannot be printed without the consent of the unions.

I have printed a paper eight years without the union, and I propose to continue it.

I will never print the badge of slavery on the front pages of Novels of Healing or of Zion Banner.

Let the people everywhere be free; and let there be a free press in a really free nation.

The tithes and offerings were received.
UNVEILING SALVATION ARMY APOTASY.

The other statements that I made are in print, because I not only spoke them, but they are published in Leaves of Heaing of yesterday, Saturday, November 22d. I asked an ex-Brigadier of the Salvation Army—who is now an Elder of this Church, and is seated on this platform—as to whether the statements that were made in the War Cry about me and that matter were true, and he said, no, they were a lie. I suppose he would say that again today.

Elder Clibborn—"Yes, Doctor, that is all right."

General Overseer—He is the ex-Brigadier General of the Salvation Army in Italy, and I have scores, perhaps hundreds, of other statements that I might call to mind on this subject.

Silence of General Booth an Admission of Guilt.

It is no use, William Booth, for you to pretend that I am not worthy of an answer from you. You were silent because you could not answer. You hid behind the newspaper press and did not dare to attempt a reply because you were guilty.

Guilt! Guilty of downright, shameful lying!

All I have to say is that, since the Book of God is true, "All Liars shall have their part in the Lake that Burneth with Fire and Brimstone."

That is just where you are going. It does not say some liars. It is all liars.

You and the press will go there together if you do not repent.

I desire to say a few words more about this Salvation Army, this Skeleton Army—the shadow of what it was.

I gave an Editorial Note in Saturday's Leaves of Heaing, written somewhat extensively and carefully concerning this matter.

I Am Not the Beginner of this Fight.

I get credit, you know, for the initiation of a great deal of fighting with which I have nothing to do.

I never begin a personal attack upon any prominent leader. I simply meet a personal attack and answer.

I never attacked the one-eyed Baptist joker, Dr. Henson. He attacked me and I answered him in that pamphlet entitled "You Dirty Boy," and that was about the end of him in Chiicago.

He has since emigrated to Brooklyn.

I never attacked that rhetorical, allegorical, historical, paregorical orator, Dr. Hillis. He attacked me.

When I had finished with him, I felt as if I had been hunting a blow-fly and killed it, and was inclined to be ashamed that I had treated it so seriously.

He has not an original thought in his head, but is a mere crammer of words and phrases.

He has since emigrated to New York.

I never attacked the ponderous Presbyterian leader. He attacked me.

He has since emigrated to Boston.

And it has been so with all my foes and Zion's, in pulp or in print. They were attacked first,

But they have disappeared from the battlefield, and I remain.

Those who have not emigrated are buried. Zion goes forward and upward, and fear has come upon her foes. No weapon formed against Zion has prospered.

I have been attacked all through the years.

I never attack personally, but now and then I have found it desirable to answer.

Up to this time I have only answered attacks of the Salvation Army, but now I am attacking: for it is a Divinely-Imposed Necessity.

A Self-governing Army a Menace.

An army, whether it is in the Church or State, that stands alone and claims to be a self-governing power, is the greatest danger that the Church or State can have.

Imagine the Army of the United States claiming the right to be a self-governing power.

It would be the greatest danger that the United States could have: for it would sooner or later destroy its Constitution and Laws.

The history of the world has shown that all successful armies, when they have returned from conquest, have had to be disbanded, put into distant garrisons and reduced, or else the State can not live in danger from them.

The story of Imperial Rome will show you that at last there was no security for life, liberty or property because the army was continually deposing Caesar after Caesar, and destroying the last vestige of republican government.

You have a striking illustration of that in comparatively modern times, in the French Revolution at the opening of last century.

The people fought against the Bourbon monarchy, the Roman Catholic Church, the privileges of an oppressive Aristocracy and Priesthood, and swept them all away with the Guillotine, with fire and sword, in rivers of death.

They destroyed great estates, divided the property amongst themselves, and reduced everything to one common level, as they called it, of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

Then Liberty, Equality and Fraternity turned out to mean Robespierre, Marat, and demons of that kind, who made the streets of Paris run red with the blood of the best men and women in France.

The army took the power, and the military overthrew the republic, and all that the people had so many years fought and bled for fell into the arms of a cruel, merciless, brutal, adulterosious, vicious but clever military man, Napoleon Bonaparte, who established an Empire that crushed Liberty and made the Army his instrument of tyranny, and the means of depopulating and degrading France when the tyrant fell to rise no more.

As an illustration of the danger to the organized Church of an ecclesiastical army claiming an independent existence, let it be remembered that the Church of Rome ever suffers. Organized to defend the Church and Pope, and to extend the power of both, it has ended by becoming the secret and ruthless strangler of the independence of both. Feared and hated, and yet obeyed, every Roman Catholic in every papally controlled country allows the Jesuit his right of way in directing the policy and doctrinal definitions of the Church and State, until the crisis comes, and the order is banished.

Ignatius Loyola, and the so-called Society of Jesus, have many points in common with William Booth and the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army Amenable to no Ecclesiastical Law.

Whether it is in the Church or in the State, an army is a danger unless it is amenable to law.

The peculiar position of this Salvation Army is that, from an ecclesiastical standpoint, it is amenable to no law.

It does not pretend to be a Church.

It has no Ordinances.

The General does not pretend to be a teacher. He does not even read the Word of God in his public services, except in a very few cases, and does not expound it.

On a recent occasion here it was not the Word of God that was presented at all; but a mere series of inconsequential chattering, emotional rhapsodies, and howling prayers, worthy of an assembly of Mohammedan dervishes, or of a Red Indian Ghost Dance.

Conversions under such conditions are literally Screaming Farcic whose "salvation" had been often rehearsed at penitent forms: for they are mostly the "weekly customers" at many Barracks.

No one ever accused William Booth of being a scholar.

No one ever accused him of being a gentleman, that I know of.

No one ever accused him of having any considerable capacity.

The fact of the matter is that he is simply the tool of clever people who are flattering his vanity.

Of the good things that used to be in the Salvation Army have become emaciated.

The Army has become the mere tool of militarism in Christinianity, so that it is now burdened with about 5,000 orders and regulations and by a bureaucratic system controlled by men who are absolutely conscienceless, for the most part.

Serious Admission of a High Officer in the Salvation Army.

Let me tell you a conversation that took place between two of them high in authority.

One said to the other: "How can you reconcile your conscience to saying and doing these things?"

"I can do it very well," said the other.

"How can you do that? Your conscience must be against you."

"I intend to support the policy of the General at any rate."
LEAVES OF HEALING.

"Yes, but you would not support the policy of the General if that were to involve anything wrong. How can you reconcile it with your conscience?"

This was the answer:

"Oh, my conscience is like my stomach. It has to digest whatever I give it."

Have I told that story correctly, Elder Clibborn?

Elder Clibborn—"Yes, that is right."

General Overseer—"You were a very high officer in the Army at the time, and you are my authority for that story. I will saddle it on you. (Laughter.)"

I could tell a good many others that are more serious than that story, but when truth becomes a joke in the Salvation Army, where is its Christianity? Where is it?

Perhaps that man's conscience was his stomach. (Laughter.)

It is all the conscience some people seem to have.

Perhaps that man's god was his belly.

The Apostle Paul said that there were some whose god was their belly, whose glory was in their shame; who minded earthly things, and who were enemies of the cross of Christ.

I once heard of a man who said something like that.

An Illustration of a Conscience Situated in the Stomach.

A woman said to me: "If I confess to my husband all the bad things I have done he will turn me out of doors."

"You must confess the truth," I said.

"I do not want to leave him, although he is a pretty bad og genteel," she said.

"I know that," I replied. "You have sinned, but you cannot be a member of this Church and cover your sin, although it was committed before you were a member."

"You must confess it."

"Tell me how I am to do it," she pleaded.

I told her to get the house nice and clean; to make all her curtains nice; to sweep things, and get all her things clean and pack them in a box, and send them to her mother, so that she would have her clothes in any event. (Laughter.)

"Then," I said, "on Saturday when he comes home, give him his Sunday dinner."

"Make the nicest dinner you can, and after he has finished, and he has eaten like the hog that he is, you tell him what you have told me; and, if he says that you are to go, go and thank God Almighty that you have got rid of a hog." (Laughter.)

She did it.

He was wondering all the week why she was getting things so clean, and when at last she wound up with this magnificent dinner, he kissed her and said:

"I feel good at heart," putting his hand down on his stomach. (Laughter and applause.)

That is where his heart was.

His heart was good.

Then she began to tell him the story of her sin and shame prior to her marriage, but he did not want to hear.

At last, penitent and broken in heart, she told him in tears how she had deceived him and others, and had sinned against God.

The story reached even down through that dinner and got to the place that he called his heart.

Presently he cried also, for his own sins came before him, and he said: "Mary, stop! I am worse than you were. Who told you to do this?"

"Dr. Dowie," she said.

"I will break his head." (Laughter.)

"You do not need to," she replied.

"I will go and hear that fellow preach next Sunday," he said.

"You do not need to," she replied.

"I will break his head." (Laughter.)

At last, penitent and broken in heart, she told him in tears how she had deceived him and others, and had sinned against God.

The story reached even down through that dinner and got to the place that he called his heart.

"I will tell the General of the Salvation Army that those who have been most closely associated with him have, in many cases, very little confidence in his personal piety."

They have good reason for their doubts.

He has become an unreasonable martinet.

Love, Duty, Truth, Wisdom, and the Word of God are nothing. The Salvation Army Rules and Regulations are everything, until, at last, no man can continue to be an officer and a member of that organization unless he is either an ignorant man, or one who endeavors to hold on to it in the hope that it may be improved.

The best of the Army are coming out, however.

I am now profoundly convinced that

The Salvation Army Has Become the Most Hopeless and Useless of Christian Organizations.

It sends out its minor officers to do the work of street mendicants.

They beg on the streets, to my personal knowledge, in Europe, Australasia, and America, for money to support their corps and their halls, although, at the same time, that Army has vast funds, and allows its hardest working and best officers often to nearly starve.

I will tell the General a story that he knows is true, that one of his most important officers of highest rank—indeed, two, man and wife, with ten children—were compelled to live, in their high position, upon an allowance of £150 ($750) a year, or rather were compelled to starve upon it. The facts of that case are heart-rending, and his conduct utterly inexcusable.

I say that the General's policy is cruel, wicked, oppressive, and that he is in the hands of flatterers and martinets and ingrate people, and of a few, intelligent schemers.

The Army had better go the way of the other Apostasies, and make way for something better.

The Salvation Army Has Failed in Its Great Purpose.

The masses pass it by with a sner.

As for these "altar services"—my good Lord! They are the most wretched things in existence.

You can get scores of weekly customers at any corps of the Army to come out and howl for salvation that they get today and lose sometimes before midnight.

It has become an unspeakably wretched, miserable thing!

I am wearied out; Christian people everywhere are wearied out with it, and, above all, God is wearied out with the igno-

"pretense and Spiritual Inefficiency of the Salvation Army, which is now a Simulacrum, a mere Skeleton of what it was when the ripe, richly cultured, beautiful spirit of Catherine Booth gave it its great impulse and sent it forth on a glorious mission, in which it has at last miserably failed.

Now a tottering, vain, foolish old man, in the hands of a few designing people, is the principal strength remaining to the organization.

Let it pass; and let every organization, including our own, if it fails to do right, pass away, but let the People be Saved and the Kingdom of God be established!

THE MESSAGE.

At the close of the above Address, the General Overseer then delivered, as Elijah the Restorer, his Restoration Message—"Unveiling the Apostasy of the Greek Church"—a full report of which will appear in our next issue.

(After the Consecration Hymn that had been sung the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and body be preserved entire without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.
As the sun arose in majestic beauty, flooding the rain-drenched earth with the brightness of its glory, the scene presented to the thousands wending their way to Shiloh Tabernacle, early Lord's Day morning, October 26, 1902, was one to be graven in the memory.

Across a sky of soft deep blue, fleecy clouds floated; while the groves, in their brilliant autumnal dress, rivaled the colors of an artist's palette.

The green of the fields fading into the sere and brown, the little mirrors of pools left by the rain along the wayside, the grace of leafless limb, the brown of freshly turned earth, the winding road—how the beauty of the picture stirs the soul!

Yet within the white walls of Shiloh Tabernacle the spirits of the great throng assembled there are thrilled and filled and uplifted with a spiritual beauty more glorious.

As if moved by one impulse the audience unites in prayer and praise and song while awaiting the appearance of their dearly loved leader, the servant and prophet of God, Eljah the Restorer.

"Peace to thee,"—the old, sweet salutation is given by the General Overseer; and "Peace to thee be multiplied," a mighty chorus responds.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois,
Lord's Day Morning, October 26, 1902.

The service was opened by the Congregation singing Hymn No. 141.

The General Overseer read from the 6th chapter of Matthew, beginning at the 24th verse:

The expression in the Old Version, "take no thought," is a very incorrect rendering.

"Take no thought," is not the word at all.

If we were to take no thought, we should be entirely devoid of reason.

It is impossible for reasonable beings to take no thought.

The meaning of the words is as I have read it in the Revision: "Be not anxious,"

There is a great deal of difference between "Take no thought," and "Be not anxious."
You may be killed, and rolled into a bloody grave as the Master was. You may have the privilege of dying for the Christ, for the martyr period is not over.

The time for Confessors is not past, but the time for mere professors is over.

May God help us to witness a good confession. Be not therefore anxious for the morrow; for the morrow will be anxious for itself. The Revised Version has a very suggestive way of putting it—"The morrow will be anxious for itself."
The people of Chicago, of New York, of London, of Paris, of Melbourne, and everywhere will be anxious. They will be anxiously running after the dollar. They will be anxiously guarding the dollar. They will be anxious to do what they can to make another dollar.

Be not anxious. Do your work, but do not be anxious.

Do Not Borrow Trouble from Tomorrow.

If there is going to be trouble, get all the Joy, Strength, Happiness and Power that you can today.

Then, when the trouble comes, you can overcome it every time.

If you are anxious today about tomorrow, you are already more than half beaten.

The Devil will surely have you then: for he has you partly now—if you are "anxious."

Get all the strength, blessing and grace that there is for you. no matter what the morrow may bring.

He can bring it with nothing that He will not bear you through.

He who gives the Lilies clothing will clothe His children, too.

Self Our Worst Enemy.

O Lord, how happy we should be, if we could cast our care on Thee; if we from Self could rest.

It is not the World, nor the Flesh, nor the Devil, but Self, which is our worst enemy.

O Lord, how happy we should be, if we could cast our care on Thee; if we from Self could rest.

And feel at heart that Thou above, in perfect Wisdom, perfect Love, Art working for the best.

Could we but kneel and cast our load, E'en while we pray upon our God, Then rise with lightened cheer; Sure that the Father who is nigh To hear the famished raven's cry Will hear in that we fear.

Sure that the Father who is nigh To hear in that we fear. The ravens are not called "the callow birds."

How far from this men's daily life, Ever disturbed by anxious strife.

If we from Self could rest. Art working for the best. And simply fall on His Almighty arms.

Do not be troubled. The raven gets its food. God hears the famished ravens cry, and He will hear us when we cry.

I am so glad that the lesson this morning begins with the warning against the attempt to serve two masters.

You Can Serve Two Men, but You Cannot Serve Two Masters.

I can serve you only by the Christ being my Master. One is your Master, even the Christ, and all ye are Brethren.

I can have only one Master; but I have many Brethren. The Mastery and the Mastership Are in the Christ.

You cannot serve two Masters. You can serve all humanity, but there can be only one Master.

You cannot serve God and Mammon. You can serve God or Mammon, but you cannot serve both.

However, you can take wealth away from Mammon, and make it serve God.

You can take wealth and use it for God—make that which once served Mammon bow at God's feet, do His bidding, and make the messengers run very swiftly with God's Message to All Nations.

Life is a great puzzle, of which God alone can give the solution, since He has a Divine Plan for Every Life. As people look at life with faithless eyes they get perplexed. "The command of our Saviour, the Christ, rings out, "Be not anxious."

If you are God's child you must have trouble. That is all in the Divine Plan of a Good Life—"In the world, ye shall have Tribulation."

In God alone can Peace be found. You are not the only one who has had trouble. You do not stand alone in that.

No Temptation Hath Befallen You But That Which Is Common to Man.

Man is born to trouble, but you do not need to worry about that.

I believe that if some of you did not have trouble you would be so abominably lazy that you would die of sheer laziness! (Laughter.)

It takes trouble to stir you up and to bring out the best in you.

I do not think that trouble is an unmixed evil.

In the original word, trouble has the idea of "the stirring up." Stir up the gift of God, which is in thee.

Men Need Trouble to Stir Them Up.

Make trouble for yourself by "stirring up," and properly exercising some Divine Gift which God has put within you. Self will say, "Do not make trouble by speaking, writing, singing, sewing, giving for Jesus—be still, and the Devil will not fight you!" Yes, but you must make trouble for that nasty, greedy, lazy Self, by using every gift fully, openly and boldly, yet withal wisely, for God.

I have always to make trouble for John Alexander Dowie, for he is just as lazy as anybody else, by nature.

John Alexander Dowie would like to spend all his time in an observatory, in a laboratory, or in his library, with a telescope or a microscope, or some other thing of that kind.

He is very fond both of literature and of science, but I have to make trouble for him, and tell him: "Get out, the world needs you, and God is calling."

They are calling to us in Zion in all lands, from the rising to the going down of the sun.

They are calling for God out of the depths of their Sorrow, their Sin and their Ignorance.

I have to put away things I like, and go and do the things I would not like, but for God's grace, who gives me power to love to do His will, whatever it may be.

You have to give yourself trouble, but do not be anxious.

The Surpassing Beauty and Boundless Expanse of God's Universe.

When the sun arose this morning it blotted out of the sky the light of all other worlds but this one; but when it sets tonight there will be an amplification of that light.

If the sky is clear you will see tens of thousands of worlds. This earth is only a little speck amidst them all.

Sometimes this lesser sun, which illumines our earth, bright and beautiful as it is, hides from our eyes the great Vision of the Innumerable Hosts of God's Universe.

I am thankful for the light. It gives color and beauty.
It gives us power to see how to go about and do our work and do our duty.

I Am Thankful for the Night.

Although the sun is the eye of day, yet its light conceals the ampler vision of Love which the night reveals.

We value Love, which is the Light of our life—but light after light disappears, and sun after sun sets, and it grows very dark.

Then lift up your eyes, and you will see tens of thousands of lights that the daylight never would have shown you at all.

Be thankful and remember that you are not to be anxious.

Remember that God made all things and all beings at the first, when all was very good, and He guards us and loves us, and wants us to do our duty and overcome the evil powers.

He will take us to Himself, when our work is done.

Get the cheerfulness of the Master, who loves to speak of the lilies and their clothing.

He loved to speak to men of how these birds of the air, and the flowers of the field, were the care of their Father.

The God that clothes the field will clothe His people, too, and it is all right.

Do not be troubled, but trust.

Trust, and do not make bridges for tomorrow.

You cannot live in tomorrow, but you can live today.

You cannot hope for results, but you can hope for the best.

Do not make plans for tomorrow, but make plans for today.

Trust, and do not make bridges for tomorrow.

You cannot live in tomorrow, but you can live today.

You cannot hope for results, but you can hope for the best.

Do not be troubled, but trust.

Trust, and do not make bridges for tomorrow.

You cannot live in tomorrow, but you can live today.

You cannot hope for results, but you can hope for the best.

The Necessity of Forethought.

That does not mean that you are not to work, neither does it mean that you are not to do the best you know, nor to have any forethought.

The man who takes no forethought will have to take a good deal of afterthought, and will find his way a hard one.

You must take forethought.

You must remember that you can only reap in harvest if you sow in due season.

It is no use to sow unless you have hoed, or harrowed, because the weeds will choke the seed.

If you are to get results, you must do what Jesus said, “Consider.”

In building a tower, or in doing anything else, you have to consider.

“- I have always considered. I have been led to the conclusion that if I am working for God and fulfilling Divine conditions, I have behind me Omnipotent Power, and therefore I have the right to undertake Great Things for the great and Eternal God.

If you who are associated with me see only a mortal man, as the founder and leader of Zion and not the Immortal God, you will get fearful, and will wonder whether Zion will ever get through.

Zion will get through all right, but will you?

There may be some of you who will “get through” on the wrong side with your Christianity, with your faith, with your love, with your loyalty, and go back to the World, the Flesh and the Devil.

But Zion will come out all right.

She always has; always must.

Every plant which My Heavenly Father planted shall not be rooted up.

Every plant which the Heavenly Father hath planted shall remain and grow.

The Kingdom of God hath been planted, and it cannot be destroyed.

Zion Has Been Divinely Established, and Therefore Cannot be Destroyed.

Jehovah hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge.

If Zion is God’s, then Zion is going to get through on the right side, with final and complete Victory.

You must not begin to doubt whether a Divinely planted thing will grow or not, or lie awake at night worrying as to whether the seed sown by Zion Restoration Host will grow, and whether you will have any harvest or not.

That will make a poor preparation for the work in the field the next day.

You must sleep nights, if you are to work days.

He not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself.

Foolish Anxiety Rebuked.

A man was raming up and down his room one night in a hotel, and as the night went on his agony increased.

He groaned and moaned, until a gentleman in the next room could not sleep at all.

He went to his neighbor’s door, rapped, and said: “Excuse me, you cannot sleep, and I cannot sleep; are you sick? Shall I call some one?”

The man opened his door and presented a baggarden face.

“No,” he said, “I am not sick, but I am dreadfully anxious; I do not know what to do.”

“What is the trouble?” said the man.

“I have a note to meet tomorrow,” he said, “and I cannot meet it.”

“Is that all?” said the great American financier who was, making the inquiry—“then it is the other fellow who ought to walk the floor (laughter), not you.”

Why should you or I be anxious, no matter what the morrow brings?

Be Not Anxious for Tomorrow.

Get all the grace and strength you can today, and may God bless you.

Let us pray.

After a short prayer, the congregation arose and repeated after the General Overseer the following

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

Our God and Father, for Jesus sake, take us as we are. Make us what we ought to be, and help us to do our work for Thee; in Jesus Name.

After the Doxology had been sung, the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. EARLY MORNING MEETING IN SHILOH TABERNACLE.

REPORTED BY S. W. E., B. A., AND A. W. R.

In the wonderful lengthening out of the fall season another glorious day was given Zion Restoration Host, Lord’s Day, November 9, 1902.

So perfect was the day that the query arose and was on many lips whether even the seasons were not being tempered that the work of God, through Zion, might not be hindered in these latter days.

The Message of the dearly beloved General Overseer at the early morning meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle was directed especially to the Zion Restoration Host.

The many workers gathered to hear the Message of the Prophet of God, Elijah the Restorer, before departing on the two long trains awaiting them which were to carry these hundreds of messengers into Chicago, which is the storm center, for the present, of the Host from Zion City.

In burning words, the Spirit of God spake through His Messenger.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, November 9, 1902.

The service was opened by the Congregation singing hymn No 164:

Beloved, what love, what boundless love,
The Father hath bestowed
On a race lost, that we should be
Now called the sons of God!

Chorus—Beloved, what manner of love!
What manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us.
That we—that we should be called,
Should be called the sons of God.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer.

The Disciples' Prayer was chanted by the Congregation.

The General Overseer then said:

Beloved Friends, we will now open the Book, the Book of God.
There is no book like the Bible. We go back to it always.
No matter how interesting any other book may be, it never is as interesting as the Bible for the true Child of God.

This is especially true of the teachings of Jesus, the Christ, of which we continue to read, and to speak in these Early Lord's Day Morning assemblies, where it is a joy to meet constantly with thousands of God's people.

The General Overseer then read from the 7th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, beginning with the 13th verse:

Enter ye in by the Narrow Gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby.
For wide is the gate, and straitened the Way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.

The Gate is "narrow." The Way is straitened which leadeth unto Life.
You can enter in no other way but one at a time.

In entering into the Divine Way you can only come through the one Mediator between God and man, the Son of Man and Son of God, Jesus, the Christ.

There is no other Way.

God reveals Himself in many ways, and brings His children to Him by strange and singular providences.
Nevertheless, there is only one Way which leads to the Father, and that is Jesus, the Christ.

There is no use in saying that it is easy to come in that Way.
It is not easy for us by nature.
It is only by grace which we receive after we have entered in at the Narrow Gate, that we can keep the straitened Way which leadeth unto Life.

The Way of Life, although steep and sometimes thorny, is the Way straight to Heaven, to our Home.

While those who daily walk therein are happy and content, yet it is a contest: for we must fight or perish.

One at a Time.

Do not forget that in speaking to people of the Way to Life you are telling them to do a hard thing.
It is hard to give up everything and put aside every being and every claim of the flesh in order to enter in at that door.
It is not a wide gate, and you cannot go in with a crowd.
Every one enters into life alone.
Every one passes into the life beyond alone, except for God.
No eye ever saw the moment when the little bit of clay, pursed by God in the wondrous way in which the human being is pre-created, is conceived and born.

No human eye ever saw the life come into the unborn babe, which gave it the possibility of becoming a separate entity, which gave it the individuality which ere long becomes an individual responsibility.
None ever knew the moment, or saw the life as it came from God and entered into that unborn babe.

However many there be who are born into the world, they are born one at a time.
In the New Birth it is the same.
The cry of the Philippian jailor: "What must I do to be saved?" has been the cry of every man who was ever saved.
This Philippian jailor has a wife, children and friends.
He is not selfish; except for a moment.
He shows this very quickly when he gets the answer:
"Believe on the Lord Jesus and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house."
He goes after his household and brings them all together to be taught the Way of Salvation.
The first cry in his heart is an individual cry for himself.
He was a sinner—a man who was damned.
He was the man who was the subject of mercy, and saved in the awful earthquake which has thrown open every door in the prison at Philippi, and every door in the dungeons of his unclean heart.

He was saved from the self-murder which he was about to commit when the sword was on his very throat or about to pierce his heart.

It was he and he alone who needed saving—he saw no other for the moment.

The Attempt to Deal with Humanity in Masses Is a Mistake.
You must deal with people one by one.
The man who speaks to a multitude of people, looking upon them merely as a flock of political sheep, to be driven to the polls, will never accomplish it.
That man will succeed who individualizes even in politics, and makes every man in his constituency feel that he is his individual friend.
The successful politician gets down to the individual in political life.
If you in the Christian life imagine, as the Church in her folly has, that the mere aggregation of a vast number of people following their silly shepherds, the blind leading the blind, can ever create a powerful Church, you are wofully deceived.
Individuality must always be preserved.
May the day never come when Zion, although she is united and works as one man, will ever destroy personal responsibility or lessen the separate consciousness of individuality.

Zion's Power Lies in Casting Aside Every Weight and Besetting Sn.
There is Reality in being truly saved, entering in at the Narrow Gate, and walking in the straight and self-repressive Way, with the eye fixed upon the goal.
EARLY MORNING MEETING.

It means steadily to resist every temptation which takes one out of the Way, and to determine that Way, repressing, smiting down, destroying and crucifying every worldly association. There must be an absolute crucifixion of self, of the inclinations of the carnal mind, which is enmity against God, which cannot be subject to the Law of God, and which must be destroyed and replaced by another mind. It must be replaced by the same mind which was in the Christ Jesus, a spiritual mind; for the Mind of the Flesh is Death; but the Mind of the Spirit is Life and Peace.

In order to retain that Spiritual Mind you must walk on earth the Narrow Path of the Christ to Heaven. You cannot take an excursion now and then into the Devil's territory by taking a dip in the Devil's Pot of Carnal Pleasure, the opera, the theater, gambling hell and the saloon. You cannot indulge in the unclean book, the unclean picture, the unclean associations, the unclean music, the unclean conversation or anything which is unclean. You must keep the Straitened Way, for your life depends on it. If you do not do it, you will go to the Devil. You have to do it. You cannot trifle with Sin.

The By-path.

Some one may think the Way is too hard. It is too painful for his feet. He looks about him and sees a by-path. Oh, the grass is so green there, and there is a well-worn path, for many have trodden it! It will be so nice to get away awhile from the strait path! The silly Pilgrim, like him in Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," says: "Oh, the Master will not mind. My feet are weary. I will go over to the by-path." So he goes into the by-path through the meadow, and walks along that way. He does not notice that the straight path has continued straight on, but that the by-path has diverged. At last he thinks he will take a little sleep in the meadow. He is now far away from the straight path which leads to the Golden Gate. Oh! it did seem so nice to have his feet rested for awhile, so he lies down and sleeps. But what a rude awakening! He finds himself in the grip of Despair, a terrible giant, who says: "Now you belong to me." He looks about him. Where is he? He had walked so long in the Narrow Way, and it seemed now that he was about to be lost, because he had just taken a step or two aside. He cannot reason with Despair, for Despair grasps him like a giant, and slings him over his shoulder and takes him to Doubting Castle. He is flung into the dungeon, and the door is locked upon him.

The giant Despair says: "I am coming in to club you to death bye and bye and bye." The Key of "Promise," Lets Pilgrim out of Doubting Castle.

What if there had not been a key called "Promise" in the Christian's bosom, by which he could unlock that dungeon door? Still it was some time before he remembered the Promise of God to all who have wandered from His way, if they only truly repent. If it had not been that God reminded Pilgrim that there was an open way out of Doubting Castle and the hands of Giant Despair, he would have perished there like multitudes of others. So might we have perished, who have sometimes gone astray from the Strait Road, just because we wanted our feet to have a little rest. We lay down and slept in the meadow of the Devil. We thought we could doubt for just a moment or two. We have been told that we must not go one step to the right or to the left. We had been told that no matter how hard the path might be, and our feet bleeding, we must go straight on. We thought it differently, and fell into despair. Had it not been for the Love of God which was in us, and the Promise of God which was kept within us, we would never have opened the lock of that dungeon, and fled away from the grip of Giant Despair in Doubting Castle. We would never have returned, bleeding and wounded, to the Narrow Way. We would never have been able to help any other Pilgrims. Never, never!

Oh! how good it is, even when learning lessons by our own experience, to know this, to say to every Pilgrim: "Do not turn aside. It does not pay. It is better that the feet shall bleed, and that you shall find the Way hard, for the Master will bind up the broken heart.

The Master will heal the wounds which have been made in the rough journey. The Master will take care that we do not faint and perish in the Way of Life, which is a Straight Way. Self-repression, self-denial, absolute extinction of self, saying no to self, crucifying self, and obeying God, no matter what the result may be, are necessary, if we are to stay in the Way.

Only the Holy Spirit Can Show Us the Way and the Gate.

For narrow is the gate, and straitened the Way, that leadeth unto Life, and few is there that findeth it. O God, we would never have found it, if You had not shown it to us. We knew not where to find the Gate. Humanity can never find it. It is only the Holy Spirit who can lead us to it. It is only the Holy Spirit, the faithful Guide, who can keep us in the Way. But there is the other side.

The Broad Way.

How wide is the gate! How "broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby." There is no difficulty in finding that road. There is no difficulty in drifting down that Niagara. You can embark upon the great bosom of that wide Lake of Sin. You can flow on into its Niagara, and you can go with its multitudes over the Falls into the Whirlpool, and be dashed in pieces on the Rocks of Doubt, Despair and Death. It is quite easy. Individuals, nations, generation after generation, go that Broad Way. It is the Devil's way. Your business and mine today is to seek for the perishing who are steaming downward into that way which ends in Hell. Walking in life with God alone, we have to take the multitudes out of this great, broad River of Death, sweeping on to the Niagara of Destruction, and do it quickly, thoroughly and earnestly. Make them believe your Message. Make them to know that they are perishing. You must believe it yourself. You cannot make a man believe, deep in his spiritual nature, that which you do not yourself believe. You must realize it, feel it, know it. You have to feel today that there are in Chicago some to whom God shall guide you, who may perish before midnight unless you do your part. You must realize that God the Almighty has given you something to do today; and if you do not do it, it will not be done.

Great Burden of Responsibility of Those Who Deliver the Message.

There are some despairing ones waiting to say in Chicago, when the Tempter has seduced, and who are nearing the Brink of Destruction. The beautiful river of life's pleasure was once so wide that they could not see the banks. The giddy dance, the laughter, the mockery and the worldly conformities made it more beautiful as it grew narrower. You got nearer and nearer, O child of sin, and, because there were so many there, you thought they could not all be wrong, —and now the river has narrowed, and the awful roar of the cataract is in your ear. Now the night has fallen and the chill, cold hand of Death is feeling for the heart-strings. The shrieks of those who, one by one, have passed over in the darkness come to that despairing one, between whom and death there is but one step.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

There is only One Strong Swimmer who can go into that Niagara, part its waves and grasp him who is drowning. That Swimmer is neither you nor I, but He who is Mighty to save—the Christ Himself. And He will do it: for whoever shall call on the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

Your work is to cheer, and through you He will save, and you must miss no opportunity. You have to feel that your Message today is one to a Despairing Spirit.

Picture of a Spirit in Despair.

There she is. I see her. She is leaning her head upon that poor stick of a table in that wretched room of vice. Sabbath bells are ringing in her ears, and there is nothing but Despair in her heart.

She is alone. There is no music, no dance, no flowers, no liquor which can take away the sting now. She is alone, and she is going over the rapids. It may be your knock at her door which causes her to pause. At last she creeps to the door of where she hears a voice that says "Peace be to this house," and she receives a Message. It is a knock which has stopped her. She listens to the Voice of the mighty Saviour, she calls on Him to save, and the Strong Swimmer is at her side. She is saved.

The Necessity of Self-Sacrifice.

Why can you not do it? How can you say: "Oh, it is a little rough; I have been working hard all the week; I guess I will take a novel or some interesting book and I will make an excursion away off this direct path, and go into the Doubter's by-path."

Yes, and before you know where you are you will have departed from the Way of Life. You were not willing to sacrifice. You were willing to work all the week for yourself, to build up your family interests and your home, but today you were not willing to help some one else.

It is too much trouble. It costs thirty cents! It actually costs half a dollar for you to go away and do that, and you cannot afford it! No, you cannot afford it, although there is one perishing yonder in Chicago whom you know you can reach with a Message of Salvation from Sin and of Restoration to God. You cannot afford it— but what will God say?

Even though you should get in at the Golden Gate, what will God say? No fruit. Nothing brought in.

You enter alone, scarcely saved, when you might have come with the Golden Sheaves of a Great Harvest; when you might have heard the Master's Voice saying: "Yes, I know you; thousands here know you."

"I know you and thousands on earth know you, if it is only one that you have won from sin." What is the use of saying Lord, Lord, and not doing the thing He says?

What is the use of a religion that finds its expression in singing and praying and talking Lord, Lord, and does not do? You do not do the things He says, you hypocrite.

Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord!

Lying to God at the Judgment Seat of the Christ.

They lied all their lives and they are going to lie at the Judgment Seat of God.

Did we prophesy by Thy Name and by Thy Name cast out devils, and by Thy Name do mighty works?

"We have been Christian-Scientists; we have done a great many things."

You do not fool God the Eternal Father. You do not fool Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God. You do not fool the Holy Spirit. You can fool yourself into hell, but you cannot fool God into letting you into heaven.

He will say: "I never knew you." That cannot be said of those who were ever used in His service.

If a person has won only one to Him; if he has helped to cast out only one devil; if God has wrought through him only one miracle in the Name of Jesus; if but one poor sufferer lost the weary load of sin and came into Life and Light and Love and Peace, and only one poor, demon-possessed man or woman had the devils cast out and God came in, He will never say in that great day:

"I never knew you."

He will say "I never knew you": for it would not be true, because He did know you once.

There was a time when He heard your prayer. He did use you once and He will never say "I never knew you," for it would be to belie Himself.

It can never be true regarding those who have ever known Him. He will never say that to them who were ever used by Him, even though they became barren and unfruitful and have ceased to do His work—alas for them that they can show so little when they might have gathered so many.

He will say it to the hypocrite who had only a talking religion, whose religion was only from the teeth; whose religion was a religion of catechisms; a religion of creeds said and sung; a religion of mere outward commandments repeated; a religion of mere talk; a religion of mere profession.

He will never say it regarding those who have laid hold of a perishing one, and have never given that one up until he was right with God. Never! Never!

God's Chiding of Those Who Wander.

If God has once known us, or has once had us, He will never leave us.

He will never forsake us.

He will never deny us.

We are His, and He will never say "I never knew you," but He will bring us back to Himself, although He chides us.

He will say: "Why was it that you did not do more? Why was it that you wandered away? Was it that your love grew cold? Why was it that you wanted to satisfy the flesh? Why did you not work while it was day? Why did you sleep?"

"The night was coming and there were golden days when you might have worked that autumn of 1902, but you thought you would sleep a little longer and rest a little longer."

That is what He will say to His children.

But I warn you that there are some of you to whom He may say: "I never knew you. You never brought one sinner to My feet. You were never the means of casting one devil out of humanity.

"You were a talker, and you did a great deal of devility in your home and elsewhere."

If there is such a one here today, repent and get right with God quickly, for you might have to face Death and Judgment ere the midnight chimes.

Who can tell whether this will not be the last day of earth for you, or for some one else who professes to belong to Zion, and should go with Zion Restoration Host into Chicago today?

If it be the last day of life on earth for you, my brother, would you like to go out of it without attempting anything for the Master; having done nothing for Him; having done nothing to win even one poor sinner?

My brother, my sister,

You Are a Worker of Iniquity, If You Are Not a Worker of Righteousness.

You cannot live to yourself. Your work today will be set down either as "Righteousness" or "Evil."

The time is passing, the moments are flying, Eternity is coming on apace. Multitudes are rushing to the Judgment Seat, and you and I will have to give an account of this day.

Do not let one of us miss the opportunities. Consecrate yourselves now to God, that He may bestow a blessing upon you.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Thou didst take me out of the weary wilderness, and the great Broad Way, and the River of Death, and Thou didst bring me to Thyself and set my feet in the Straightened Way. Help me now to help others. Help me not to throw away the golden hours of the golden day. Give me strength to labor for myself, for my同业; for the upbuilding of this City. Give me strength to labor for Thee, for sinners; to carry a Message, if it only be a cup of cold water to some perishing man or woman today. Forgive me that I have done so little. Give me grace to do better and more, denying self and lovingly seeking the perishing. Give me Patience, Wisdom, Faith, hope and Love that we may do Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?

Answer— "Yes."

General Overseer—Then live it, and this will be a glorious day.

CLOSING PRAYER.

Father, for Jesus’ sake help us. The night is coming when no man can work, but the golden hours of golden day. Let us all work, but it is called day, but do not permit us to come to Thee without a single sheaf gathered from the world’s harvest field. Help us all to do something, and make us all winners today. He who wins human lives, who wins the souls who are heavy-laden, who brings hope to the fainting spirits and health to the sick and weary bodies is wise. God bless this great company and all who are working today throughout the world in Zion Restoration Host. For Jesus’ sake.

Amen.

It is not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc. Does not the Bible teach in the Acts 3:19 of the Holy Spirit that the Holy Spirit is to teach us all things that the Lord has spoken? Or in the Acts 4:12, the Church contains all the gifts of the Holy Spirit. It contains the spirit of wisdom and knowledge, and the spirit of understanding.

Hence, it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases. (Isaiah 53:5.)

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION’S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

PRAYER

Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem;
Praise thy God, O Zion.
For He hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;
He hath blessed thy children within thee.
He maketh peace in thy borders;
He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

Psalm 147:1-4.

THANKSGIVING is always in the hearts of the people in Zion.
God overrules every trying circumstance, and continually hears and answers prayer and blesses multitudes in all parts of the earth.
It is not always immediately manifested just how prayer is being answered, but the evidences are soon brought forth.
1: I am very grateful today for a young man who came and told us and see how graciously prayer was an answer to Dr. Dowie’s prayer.
Up to that time we knew nothing about Zion.
We went to Seidenberg, heard and saw what God had wrought, and were fully convinced that that was the only and true way for us to seek healing.
I also was suffering from a very debilitating disease.
Without delay we requested Mr. Mose, of Budapest, to write to you for prayer, setting the time for May 15, 1902.

God graciously heard and answered.
I rejoice to tell you that I have enjoyed perfect health ever since, not having had the least symptoms of the disease, for I can run, leap and do all my work.
The same is true of my dear husband, for since you prayed for him his backaches and headaches are all gone.
We cannot but tell every one how glorious it is to be healed by the Great Physician.
He has not only healed our bodies, but He alone now rules in our heart and home.
We could no longer be without the precious Word of God.
Pray that we may be kept faithful as long as we live.

May God bless you a thousandfold, in the prayer of our hearts.
Your brother and sister in the Christ,

Florian and Franceska Krause.

A year ago this month a young man lay dying.
A few words were sent to the General Overseer, asking him to pray.
Now come a few words of testimony which tell how wonderfully God raised up the dying one.
He has lived a year from that time, and a few days ago he had the joy of becoming a husband to a Christian bride.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 30, 1902.
DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am dying last November, when I first heard of Zion and you.
I had friends write to you, and God instantly healed and raised me up.
I thank God for His love and mercy extended to me, and you for your prayers.
Your servant for God,

Archibald Clive.

An aged lady, eighty-six years old, believing that it was God’s will that she should not suffer from a cancerous affliction just below the eye, sent a request for prayer to Overseer Jane Dowie, a few months ago.
The readers of Leaves of Healing have in the words which follow, the story of how from the moment of prayer, manifestations were given which showed that the healing had commenced.
In a short time the cancerous growth had dropped out.

Even the aged have no need to suffer from the works of the Devil in sickness or physical distress.
Many at the eventide of life, through the teaching in Zion, are made to rejoice with overflowing hearts, because they have found God to be not only their Saviour, but their Healer, Cleanser and Keeper.
They look forward with no dread to the hour when the spirit leaves the body, but with joy they anticipate the glory it will be to see Him who has done so much for them.

HANDEX JUNCTION, OHIO, OCTOBER 30, 1902.
DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am eighty-six years old, and the Lord has preserved me that He is just the same today.
Faithfully yours in the Christ,

Mrs. Julia A. Campbell.

Even the medical doctors, who do not practice God’s Way of Healing, but who pretend that they and their medicines and operations are God’s way, are oftentimes brought to places where they are compelled to recognize that those who trust in God alone are receiving from a Fountain which is certain.

And sometimes they are compelled to say: "You had better stick to it."

Everett, Washington, October 15, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—In 1901 I sent a request to you from Cornings, California, that you pray that I might be healed of ulcerated bowels. I had been very sick for eleven weeks and was given up to die.

When the doctor said I could not get well, I told him the Lord would heal me.

He said: "It will take more than the Lord to heal you."

That disgusted me, and I had a lady write you to pray for me.

The letter had not left the office before I was up, praising the Lord!

The doctor was angry and did not come to see me for three days, while before he had been making three visits a day.

When he did come, I was up doing my work. He said: "Well, I guess it is a good thing you turned me off; you are looking so much better. If it is true that Science or what ever you call it, you had better stick to it, for it is doing a great deal for you."

I told him that the Christ was my Healer.

I was also healed on August 15, 1894 when you prayed.

All weakness and all pain left my body in a second of time.

In December, 1895, I received healing, but more gradually.

May God bless you and yours till Jesus comes, is our prayer. (Mrs.) Henry M. Rumohr.

Not only does God hear and answer the prayers of the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, but He graciously regards the petitions offered by many who have sat at the feet of His Servant, Elijah the Restorer, and listened to the teaching, and learned His Way, so that they, too, are able to offer a simple prayer of faith for themselves and others.

Many in whose lives there were no special signs of approval or positive evidences that God heard and answered their prayers can now bring forth many testimonies and proofs which show that their prayers are heard on earth and answered in heaven.

Morgantown, Pennsylvania.

October 31, 1902.

Dear Brother in the Christ:—It is with much pleasure and gratitude that I write at your request a testimony to my healing by Power Divine.

Thirty-one years ago our horse ran away, and I sustained a serious spinal injury, which rendered the succeeding years so full of suffering that even now I would gladly forget it if I could.

The best surgeons and improved spinal braces were tried without avail.

Sometimes I gained strength enough to enable me to walk, work, and ride.

The thought came to me: "What can I do that I have not finished praying that one short prayer, when the calf ceased his groaning?"

In fifteen minutes he was walking off after the other cattle, as though nothing had happened.

We thank God that He answers prayer, not only for ourselves, but also for our animals.

A short time ago I received a letter from the General Associate Editor, asking me if I was one of those who had promised God to secure ten new yearly subscribers to Leaves of Healing.

The thought came to me: "What can I do, so far from town, and where nearly all are bitter against Zion."

It seemed a hopeless task.

Then, like a flash, the words of our blessed Saviour came into my mind, which He spoke concerning the (faithful) servant who had gained five talents more than his Lord had given him, "Well done, good and faithful servant," and also His words concerning the unprofitable servant, "Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and cast it out into the outer darkness."

I then said: "God grant that I may not merit the unprofitable servant's reward. With Your help, I will do what I can.

I have enabled me to secure nine subscribers, four yearly subscribers, and five for ten weeks, and I have only been out a very few times. It is a blessed work, and I love it."

Praying God's richest blessings upon you and your dear wife and son.

I am your sister in Jesus' Name.

(Mrs.) Frank Hoege.

Child Perfectly Healed In Answer to Prayer.

F. H. Williams, of Litchfield, Michigan, writing under date of November 2, 1902, says:

Dear General Overseer:—I wish to inform you that we received your very welcome letter and that your much-appreciated prayers in behalf of little girl, Lena Belle, were answered.

She has not had a sick moment since.

We have traveled more than 1,000 miles by car and buggy since then.

She was so sick that we thought that we could not make the visit.

We thank you very much for your prayers and highly-appreciated letter.

We also thank God for His willingness to answer the earnest request of His believers.

Our baby two years old, who took poison one year ago and for whom you prayed, is a bright Zion girl.

Notes of Thanksgiving to Zion's God.
HOW beautifully this portion of Scripture sets forth the boundless Love of God!

Doubtless many, as they read it, will recall their own miserable condition when God sought them out.

There is no wilderness so barren that it can fitly be compared to the wilderness of Sin in which they were found.

There is no day so cloudy or night so dark that will compare with the awful darkness from which the Good Shepherd brought them, so torn and bruised from the conflicts with the wolves.

Today they rejoice because God, in His infinite Love and Mercy, sought for them until He found them.

He rested not until He brought them safely home and placed them in the pleasant pastures, beside the still waters, where they may rest in quietness.

Why it has pleased God to employ human agencies for the accomplishment of so Divine a task, we know not. Nevertheless we rejoice in the fact that He has conferred upon us, His children, the exalted honor of being co-laborers together with Him in this heavenly mission.

Hence, Zion Restoration Host is being trained in the use of the Word of God by our beloved leader, the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, under the direction of the Captains of tens and Captains of Seventies and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to go forth into the desert-places throughout the world and bring home the poor lost sheep.

Following is an extract from a letter from one of those poor wanderers who was recently led back to the fold as a result of the labors of a Zion Restorationist:

DEACON C. F. KELCHNER.

DEACON C. GAUMER.

DEACONESS GAUMER.

DEACON E. CHAMER.

Dear Elder Lee: — Peace to thee and Zion everywhere! I hope you will receive this letter in the spirit in which it is written.

Pray for me that the resolves made by me on this Lord's Day may always be fulfilled and that henceforth I may never do anything which will bring shame on the Name of our Lord Jesus the Christ.

Saturday afternoon I was taken very sick and remained so during the following night and a part of this morning.

When I picked up Leaves of Healing of November 1st and began to read, I felt that I would like to trust God for healing, as I had done some months before.

The Devil discouraged me until I came to the passage where mention was made of my accident with the gasoline stove, and of my desire to consecrate myself to the service of God.

I immediately went to Him with a bleeding heart, because of my unfaithfulness to Him.

I asked that I might be restored to health, and that the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart might be acceptable in His sight. God was with me and healed me.

I immediately arose from the bed on which I had been suffering such severe pain, without a pain of any kind in my body.

I praise God for this great blessing.

I am unable to express my thankfulness that He did not abandon me, but accepted my repentance and consecration.

I have several friends in Zion and believe they will rejoice and be exceedingly glad when they know that I have returned to the Father's House.

I hope you will remember me in your prayers, that I shall remain a loyal daughter to our King.

(MRS. L. W. Bowers.)

Sowing and Reaping.

Following is a letter from one who has toiled faithfully and long as a Zion Seventy, amidst great discouragements, but who, through her faithful seed-sowing, is now beginning to realize the joy of reaping:

HAYNE, MONTANA.

MY DEAR BROTHER IN THE CHRIST.— Peace to thee?

I have been praying about the Restoration Vow ever since the General Overseer announced it in Leaves of Healing, and had finally decided to write it out and send it, with my name, when your letter, with the Vow-card, came to hand.

I was so happy I went to Zion and read it to God.

She came in two or three weeks ago very happy, saying that she had found the Saviour, and had been living to live just as near Him the last week as she could.

She is learning to trust Him as her Healer.

She has given up pork.

Enclosed is my report.

I know that God will help me keep it.

I praise God for victory that is being won in the Name of Jesus, the Christ, by our beloved General Overseer.

Thanking you again for your prayers, and asking God's blessing on Zion everywhere, I am,

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) DORA BRADY.

Work in Kansas.

We give below some extracts from a very interesting letter from one of our faithful workers in the state of Kansas.
It expresses the joy which is being experienced by so many of these scattered laborers throughout the world:

Dear Elder Lee,—

Peace to thee.

Please send me a few forms of Zion Restoration Host Vow, if they are printed for those at a distance.

I cannot afford to give up the little work I can do.

The Lord blesses the feeble efforts in this great sea of unbelief and apostasy.

There are many distant ones who are earnestly seeking the Light.

I cannot keep enough Zion Literature on hand. Of course there are some who sneer, but we cannot stop for that.

I rejoice when I know of one spirit turning to God.

I am glad to tell you that, through Leaves of Healing, a young man, a Syrian, whose business is selling goods through the country from house to house, became interested in Leaves of Healing which he found at a lady's house in Pratt county, where I had placed them.

With her efforts in helping him to understand them, he became a Roman Catholic, he devoted, so to speak, every one he could get, and became dispossessed with Rome.

He got a Zion pin and proudly wears it.

He subscribed for Leaves of Healing, which he distributes wherever he goes.

He reads with the people to give up their tobacco, hogs and drugs, and turn to God.

He loves to read his Bible, and, although he cannot understand the meaning of some English words, I think he understands fairly well.

His talk to me convinced me that he understands much more about Zion than I had thought.

He desires to enter the fellowship of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, also to be in Zion City.

He will soon be twenty-one years of age.

Then he will bid goodbye to old Rome and his people.

His father is much worried over his turning against Rome and does not want him to go near Zion people.

Nevertheless God is leading him in the right path.

The good woman where he has been stopping has done much toward winning him to God.

He desires very much to have the literature of Zion printed in his own language, which is Arabic, so that he may give it to his countrymen.

He has been in this country five years.

The work which he does is chiefly in the country, living as I do, ten miles from the nearest town.

I am grieved that I cannot say more about him, as I am not with him.

Please send some Messages for our work.

Yours sincerely in the Christ,

(Mrs.) E. A. Hunting.

This week we introduce our friends to a group of Zion Seventies who were sent out during the summer months from the Philadelphia Branch.

We quote from a letter received from them concerning their trip.

These have all since joined Zion Restoration Host, having sent in their names concerning their trip.

Their field was Souderton, Reliance, Quakerstown, South Bethlehem, Bethlehem, Rittersville, where the Lehigh Valley company has a park.

We then went to Allentown, where the party separated, two continuing their work and two returning home.

We rejoice not only that "the devils were subject unto us," but that in Zion we have a Message to deliver, and because we know that our names are written in the "Book of Life." We are glad to be even on the picket-line of Zion, and are longing, with many others, to be in Zion City.

Yours, in the Christ's service,

(Deaconess) Any Robinson.

Zion Lace Salesmen, Restorationists.

A very interesting letter has just been received from one of Zion's lace salesmen.

He tells of the work he has been able to do for God in the scattering of Zion Literature after business hours, and of the many opportunities of witnessing for God and Zion.

Writing from the Nelson, Rockford, Illinois, on Sunday afternoon, November 16th, from which we are only able to quote a part, he says:

Dear Brother in the Christ:—I have been away from Zion City since Monday morning, and it seems like a month.

I miss so much the holy surroundings of Zion City and the lovely Christ-given salutation, "Peace be unto thee," and the reply, " Peace to thee be multiplied."

Praise God for the General Overseer and God's Message which he is giving out to the whole world.

I distributed this afternoon 120 Messages.

I went into one saloon where I found about fifteen men present.

They all listened attentively while I told them of Jesus, and of what I was at one time.

I told them how God's Messenger had reached me, away in London, and had led me to repent and repent.

The poor fellows who came in while I was in that gambling hell asked me for the leaflets, and the apparent owner asked if I was holding any meetings, stating that they would come.

I told them that I was a traveling salesman and that I did this Restoration work so that others might enter into the blessings which I have entered into.

May God the Father witness to His Word in every Restoration Message given today, and every day, throughout the world.

I see now what God wanted me for in Zion City.

I see what it means to go selling Zion lace.

A Freemason said to me in the presence of a Roman Catholic customer, who had bought our lace and received the truth: "Young man, you must not mix religion and business."

I looked at him and at my customer and said: "Will you tell me how to introduce and sell Zion laces without telling people all about Zion?"

He looked at us both a moment and said: "No, you cannot; you must tell them of Zion."

I have spoken to and given Restoration Messages and Leaves of Healing to about 500 persons, and that is a low estimate.

It is interesting to see how eager some of them were to see a real, live Zion man.

Some of the traveling salesmen in the hotels call me Dowie.

I do not mind what they do, so long as I can give them the Christ's Message.

One man, whom I have to see tomorrow morning, wanted to know if I would come in and tell him my goods today, Sunday.

I answered: "That is not Zion, sir."

Yours obediently in the Christ,

Andrew Taylor.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; But the Word of our God shall stand forever.

THE RESTORATION BEGUN IN CHINA.

No one should miss a careful reading of the subjoined letter of Elder Viking to the General Overseer, and of the striking testimonies from Mr. and Mrs. Tsiu and their daughter.

Surely in the power of the Holy Spirit there is now in unhappy China the beginning of the Restoration of All Things.

Other strong testimonies will appear in a latter issue of Leaves of Healing.

37 Quinan Road, Zion, Shanghai, China, March 21, 1902.

Rev. J. ALEX. DOWIE.

My Dear General Overseer,—It is with pleasure I enclose to you some wonderful testimonies to Divine Healing and to multitudes of blessings received by Chinese through Zion.

What I send you today is only a part of what we have. It is first written by the Chinese in the Ningpo dialect or in the Mandarin.

You will please to notice that we send you testimonies to healings of some time ago. We have not been in any hurry to forward to Zion. Perhaps we ought to have done so earlier, but the healings have now been tested, and stand. In each case the healings are practically instantaneous and remarkable.

The first testimony in the list, the one of Mr. Tsiu, gives a view into the conditions of denominational missions, and also a kind of history of the break-up of Cossum, Kennedy and Viking from their respective missions, from a native point of view. It is very interesting. We believe that these testimonies will be a great blessing to yourself and to all of Zion. Asking God’s blessing upon you and your worldwide work, I am,

Yours in the Christ, C. F. Viking.

TESTIMONY TO SALVATION FROM HYPOCRISY, BAD HABITS AND FALSE DOCTRINES.

Praise to God for Healing of Wife when Nearly Dead—Remarkable Healing of Daughter when Full of Disease—Joy because Elijah the Redeemer is Come.

The following is the testimony of Mr. Tsiu, translated from the Ningpo dialect:

Siograual Chua, March 13, 1902.

My Dear General Overseer—Peace!

I wish to express my thanks and give praise to the Triune God for all the blessings I have received in the Christian Catholic Church, for the teaching of the Full Gospel and for the healing grace that has come to us.

1. *Therefore hereewith give my testimony and praise to God.
2. I was a member of a Baptist church.
3. We have believed in God now for nearly three generations. My grandfather was the first native preacher in the Baptist mission in Ning-po.
4. My father was the first ordained native minister in the same church.
5. He has been a preacher and teacher for about forty years. At the present time he is pastor in Ning-po.
6. From my father I received the doctrines of the Baptist church and was led to believe these from childhood.
7. At twenty-one years of age I received single immersion, upon the confession of Repentance and Faith in Jesus, the Christ, and from this time I wished to work for the Lord, help the Church, and I gave testimonies to the Gospel of Salvation Gospel.
8. At this time I looked upon myself as a good member and soon I was voted into the office of deacon.
9. But, at the same time, I continued smoking tobacco, drinking wine, eating pork, taking medicine and calling physicians, as the Church did not say anything against any of these things.
10. But I saw others do, I did not thinking there was any sin in doing these things.
11. As to the communion, the church only gave it to those who were baptized by single immersion.
12. If any who had only received sprinkling came, they were looked upon as outsiders and could not have any part in the communion.
13. As to collecting money for the church, the standard was as each one pleased, little or much, not heeding what God wanted.
14. As to receiving of members, it was not so much according to the candidate's repentance as according to the will of the members of the church.
15. Whatever was to be done, the preachers and pastors had no authority, but they had to listen to the people.
16. As to the setting apart of preachers, the man's faith and life were not enough taken into account.
17. If the missionary wished to have a man, he was selected. Then came the question of salary for the preacher, and to him this was a business matter—so much work, what kind of work, so much money.
18. The preachers did not look much after the lives of the members: they looked after their own welfare; and if some members had trouble in business, then the preacher was called upon to help, and would in such case receive a gift for his help.
19. The preacher also wished to do work for people of the world, especially the bringing of lawsuits into court, and collecting debts, thereby getting fees.
20. But some preachers wanted to lead a little more honest life, and so, besides preaching, they took up the selling of medicine, acting as quack doctors, and leading good members into this as helpers.
21. As it was looked upon as a good thing to eat medicine, therefore this business was tolerated.

In the year 1892 I was Rev. C. F. Viking's personal teacher of language, he then being in the American Baptist mission in Ning-po. At this time Rev. W. H. Cossum looked after our church.

He did not like that pill business of the preachers and spoke up against it. I then began to understand and see things as they were.

Mr. Viking at this time began to receive leaves of healing, which the people then called Dowie paper.

He told me of the doctrines: that we could not do bad things, that every Christian ought to follow the Bible, etc. that God commands; that we must cut off wine, tobacco, pig medicine, false physicians, and then in faith ask God in the Name of the Lord Jesus for healing of all sicknesses.

Both that we must obey God in Triune Immeression, that all Christians could receive communion, that hell was not everlasting, etc.

This he explained to me was what you preached a Full Gospel.

From listening to what you preached, I began to wake up.

But when I read Exodus 13:16 I found it hard, because if we did not perfectly obey God, we could not get healing.

I did not come over fully on your side, and I did not then think the Baptist church as a church worth serving, so I kept on as before.

But I saw that Mr. Viking truly believed. His daughter took very sick of dysentery and he then gave no medicine, and the church criticized him harshly.

He also told me to tell the sick people to come and be prayed for, because God would heal them. I said: No, if a person wishes you to pray, all right; but do not invite people to come.

Later, Mr. Cossum took very sick with fever. He emptied all his medicine and silly books into the river. Then the people said he was crazy.

Still later, I also saw Mr. Kennedy, then missionary in the Presbyterian mission, when having a bell, take off the plaster and turn to God for healing.

Then another time when he took very sick, I called on him, found him not using medicine, but very sick. Miss Hopwood and Mr. Viking prayed for him and God raised him up.

From this time I fully believed God could heal our diseases, but I had not yet given up wine and tobacco.

But I had a desire to live a clean life, and I hated the bad condition in the church and the getting of dirty money.

Mr. Cossum, Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Viking had now all left Ning-po for America.

Our old church was greatly stirred up in so much that people began to criticize you, Dr. Dowie.

The people also began to laugh at me, saying: Why do you not follow Mr. Viking to the foreign country? You better hurry up and go to the Dowie church, etc.

After this I became Mr. Warner's teacher, and, together with him, went out to preach.

Then our pastor, Mr. Yiao, did some things not in accord with the doctrines.

Some disputes occurred among the members.
and the pastor fought anyone not in harmony with his work.

* Mr. Li Doueng then left the church and went to Rev. G. L. Mason in Houchow.

* My husband and myself had to go to the native official of the city and beg of him not to regard the pastor of the Baptist church or any of the preachers when they bring cases into court.

* From that time on, I was hated by all.

* Mr. Warner and myself cut loose somewhat from the church, although we continued as members.

* Then Mr. Warner resigned and went to America.

* I then went to Shanghai to sell tracts for a Bible society and also in hopes of waiting for some one to come to China from Zion.

* I also then wished to join the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

* The Elder you sent came.

* Then I began repenting in earnest and left the Baptist church for good.

* I thank God that He has prepared a Church for His people.

* In December, 1900, I received Triune Immersion, together with my wife, and we both joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

* We thank God that we have you, General Overseer, as our good teacher.

* I also fully believe that you are the one that, at this time, ought to come to the world to begin to Restore All Things to God.

* You are preaching the covered-up doctrines of the Bible, which no one has touched upon.

* Your teaching is very clear, and it has been God's will to reveal to us a company of people who know God's grace.

* How shall I be able to repay God for these blessings of a Full Gospel of Salvation, together with my wife, and we both joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, as well as to the Grace of being born again.

* For all this I wish to praise God.

* I also thank God for sending you to lead us to the Way of Life, as predicted in the Bible.

* I wish to tell what God has done for us, in order that all may praise God. Amen.

* Since receiving your teaching I have come out from the old church and obeyed God in Triune Immersion.

* We do not now use swine's flesh, medicine and the like. God has opened our eyes and we willingly obey.

* Last year, in September, when I was about to be delivered of a child, the Devil tried to kill me.

* God brought me back when I was nearly gone, and healed me of my sickness. Of this I wish to say a few words.

* Before my twin children were born, I felt at times very sick, as if I could not live; it was difficult for me to lie down, or to lie down. I could not eat and had no strength left.

* At this time Elder Viking was in Japan.

* When the moment came for the children to be born, I was as if dead.

* My people prayed for me; then I was delivered of one child.

* Half an hour later the second one was born. Both are girls.

* Then I was, as the Bible says, asleep. (John 11:11.)

* My husband then fell on his knees, asking God to bring me back to life again.

* It became then before my eyes, my body became cold as if cold water was poured over me; my heart and brain were dumb, I could not speak, and the blood flowed from my body freely.

* Before several members of the Church came to pray for me, but I would not have anything to do with them.

* I did not regain consciousness until in the evening, having been delivered, in the above described condition, from early in the morning until the evening of the same day.

* Not until then, did I know that the children were born.

* Then a strong fever set in, causing an awful perspiration, so that there was no use of changing clothes, with our limited supply, as they became soaked through at once.

* Then headache set in, as if somebody was boring with a knife.

* A loud noise, as of rushing of waters, was heard in my head.

* My hands and feet were still cold.

* I could not eat.

* I had no milk for the children.

* I was in this condition two weeks.

* The Devil thought he had me, as I could not eat. The only thing Iook was some tea.

* At the end of the third week, Elder Viking came back from Japan.

* We had been waiting for him a long time.

* He came to see me.

* He then prayed for me, asking God to forgive my sins, to Iam now free.

* The neighbors then said: 'Yes, the Heav* enly Jesus has healed her. In China we do not have such good doctors, because God has not sent them. But in America, where I live, God has helped us. I have been here two years, and I have had so many blessings which I have received, I praise God.'

* And as I have been healed from death, I wish to testify to His Love until He comes.

The Eleventh Hour of the Age Has Struck

And the End of the Dispensation is rapidly approaching. Already the Voice of God's Messenger, warning the Nations of the End, is ringing throughout the earth.

 Everywhere men are weary, worn, sorrowful, sick and dying, crying out in the darkness for deliverance.

’Tis the Voice of the Messenger which proclaims to their fainting spirits the Glad Tidings through which they are delivered from all their distresses, and prepared in their spirits, souls, bodies, homes, business, and nationally, for the Coming of the King.

The Voice of that Messenger goes forth to all the ends of the earth, on the snowy wings of the Little White Dove, LEAVES OF HEALING

In this Eleventh Hour of the Dispensation, those who have entered upon the work in God's vineyard can accomplish most for Him by devoting their most consecrated energies to the increase and extension of the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING.

Therefore every true child of God should join us in these closing days of the year, in prayer and in effort to attain the mark, which we believe God led us to fix as our goal, five months ago:

Leaves of Healing, 100,000 Yearly Subscribers by Jan. 1, 1903
BABY GIRL QUICKLY HEALED WHEN DYING OF PNEUMONIA.

AND HER DAUGHTER WAS HEALED FROM THAT HOUR.

In the dim light and painful hush of the sick-room, a mother strains her dying babe to her breaking heart. The little form is convulsed with pain. The baby features, which but a few short days before were wreathed in smiles, are now distorted with the death agony.

So faint is the flutter of the breath of life upon the little one's fever-parched lips that again and again it seems that the spirit has fled.

The physician has given his poisons, acknowledged his utter helplessness and gone away.

The father, his face white and tense with grief too deep for words or tears, watches with despair the death-struggles of his beloved child.

Loving and sympathetic relatives and friends are silently weeping, but they all, like mother, father and physician, stand helpless in the presence of the awful Mystery of Death.

All will soon be over.

The tiny fingers which have twined themselves about the very heart-strings, will be but icy clay.

The sweet baby prattle, which was sweetest music in parent ears, will be stilled forever. That little life, which has been like sunshine in the home, will have closed its brief day. And in father and mother hearts there will be a fierce, bitter pain; a void which will never be filled. Death's horrid victory is almost won. Such are the sad, bitter thoughts which fill the hearts of those gathered in that sick-room. But the Christ is Conqueror of Death. He came to "bring to naught him that had the power of Death, that is, the Devil."

His Holy Spirit leads the babe's grandmother to appeal to the parents to trust God for the healing of their little one.

All human agencies having failed, they turn to God as a last resort.

How many there are who do likewise!

And what a world of woe is there because they do not turn to God first! But God is exceedingly merciful.

He had raised up the Messenger of His Covenant to proclaim to His afflicted people that He was still true to His Covenant, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

His Messenger had been led in the selection and ordination of Elders to carry that same blessed Message to the ends of the earth, and to pray with the sick in obedience to God's command.

One of these Elders is sum-
LEAVES OF HEALING.

When he came he was very much surprised to find the child alive. He said: "This is wonderful, wonderful! What vitality this child has! Is the little thing living yet? But she is dying now, and I will not disturb her. She may die any minute, and she cannot live over an hour. Mrs. Davis, you must lose your little one. Mr. Davis can come after the burial certificate, and I will have it made out."

Mr. Davis said: "Doctor, I do not know a thing about burying a child."

The doctor said: "Get on your wheel tomorrow morning and come down for the certificate, and we will talk it over."

Wednesday the people of Zion prayed, and she changed for the better and kept getting better till she was well and strong again.

Last June she was again wonderfully healed. She had eaten some strawberry blossoms and peanuts and was taken very sick.

She kept getting worse and worse.

We sent for Deacon Kelchner.

He said that her side was paralyzed, and she could not have lasted much longer.

He prayed and she got relief.

She would bite like a mad dog and frothed at the mouth, but she did not bite her tongue.

After all left the room she went to sleep.

The next morning she was bright and much better, and in a few days she was running around again.

I thank God for this blessed teaching of Divine Healing.

(Mrs.) Mary Davis.

Praise and Testimony

God Blesses Those Who Are Faithful in Paying Tithes.

1027 Seminary Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, November 13, 1902.

Rev. W. H. Piper.

Dear Overseer:—I wish to add my testimony to the testimonies of those who have been blessed in paying tithes.

God has more than doubled my husband's wages.

It seemed hard sometimes to pay tithes, as we had a place for every cent, but the tenth was God's, and we would have been thieves to have used it.

I thank God for all His blessings.

Yours in the Master's service,

Viola Parkinson.

Blessed in Paying Tithes.

Milp, Ohio, November 9, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—With thankful-ness to God I write this short testimony about paying tithes.

Since I came into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and began paying tithes, my wages have more than doubled.

I give God all the glory and praise. His Holy Name continues.

Your brother in the Christ,

Sanford Frazell.

Blessings Come to Those Who Pay Tithes.

Dear Overseer Piper:—I write to tell you of the joy and blessings we have had since we have paid our tithes.

Our tithes have been increased four or five times.

We do thank God for our beloved General Overseer,

Lovingly yours in the Master's service,

ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD IN ZION, 1902-3

GENERAL OVERSEER'S OFFICE,
ADMINISTRATION BUILDING,
ELIJAH AVENUE,
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, U. S. A.,
December 6, 1902.

TO THE OFFICERS, MEMBERS AND FRIENDS
OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
IN ZION—BELOVED BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE CHRIST:
PEACE TO THEE!

Once more God gives to me the joyful privilege of sending forth my Annual Call to spend the ALL-NIGHT with God, and with all ZION, in Communion, Praise, Prayer, Teaching, Conference and Testimony, from Ten o'clock on the Night of Wednesday, December 31, 1902, until Seven o'clock on the Morning of New Year's Day, 1903.

The Second Year of the Twentieth Century has been one of great Progress in Zion throughout the world, and especially in the beautiful City of Zion, which God has enabled us to establish on the shores of Lake Michigan.
Amongst the Blessings of the year are:

(1) ZION'S GREAT DELIVERANCE FROM THE HANDS OF AN UNJUST JUDGE, who aided a per jured villain in his attempt to destroy ZION'S LACE INDUSTRIES. We never lost their control for a moment.

(2) THE OPENING OF SHILOH TABERNACLE,
AT ZION CITY on March 31st, which is ordinarily seated for Five Thousand, Two Hundred persons, and can ac commodate Six Thousand on occasion. The building has often been too small for the numbers attending.

(3) THE FORMATION OF THE THEOCRATIC
PARTY on Monday Evening, April 7th, whose Motto is WHERE GOD RULES MAN PROSPERS.

(4) THE LEGAL INCORPORATION OF THE CITY OF ZION on March 31st, and the ELECTION OF
THE FIRST MAYOR, ALDERMEN and CITY OFFI
CERS on April 23d.

(5) THE GREATEST PERSONAL SORROW
OF OUR LIFE, in the sudden departure of our greatly beloved daughter, ESTHER A. DOWIE, on Wednesday, May 14th, and the BURIAL of her body in ZION CITY on Friday, May 16th, in the presence of a vast conourse of sympathetic friends, thousands of whom knew of the story of her beautiful life and her final Triumph.

Blessed are they that wash their Robes,
That they may have the right to come to the Tree of Life,
And may enter in by the Gates into the City.

(6) THE GREATEST GATHERING OF GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING ever recorded
In the History of the CHURCH, when over Six Thousand persons gave Public Testimony on Lord's Day, May 25th, in the Chicago Auditorium.

(7) OUR SOLEMN DECLARATION ON THAT OCCASION, AS THE PROPHET FORETOLD BY MOSES, in Deuteronomy 18:15, and spoken of by the Apostle Peter in Acts 3:22.

(8) ZION'S SECOND FEAST OF TABERNACLES and GREAT ANNIVERSARY GATHERINGS from July 12th to 22d, which was accompanied by Wondrous Manifestations of the Divine Presence and Power of God.

(9) THE ORGANIZATION OF ZION RESTORA
TION HOST, amidst most impressive scenes, at SHILOH
TABERNACLE on Lord's Day, September 21st, when Thousands took the RESTORATION VOW; followed by a splendid Series of Weekly Visits to Chicago, Illinois; Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, and many other cities, by splendidly-organized Seventies, operating under Leaders, assisted by Captains of Tens.

Millions of persons throughout the World have been reached by specially prepared Zion Messages, and the Salutation of the fully Six Thousand Members of the Host, who go in twos from house to house with the Mes sage of the Christ:

"PEACE BE TO THIS HOUSE!"

(10) THE WONDERFUL GROWTH OF THE CITY OF ZION, which has now an estimated popula tion of about Eight Thousand, with large Public Build ings, and many hundreds of Private Houses, numbers of which are beautifully finished, and others in course of erection.

(11) THE VAST ASSEMBLIES, which continue to gather every Lord's Day afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium, to listen to our Messages as ELIJAH THE RESTORER, and their publication every week to all the world in the pages of LEAVES OF HEALING.

(12) THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ZION BANNER as a semi-weekly paper, THE VERY LARGE INCREASE IN OUR ISSUE OF LEAVES OF HEALING, BLATTER DER HEILUNG, VOICE FROM ZION, etc., by means of ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, and the sending forth, up to date, of over Two and a Half Millions of Rolls of ZION LITERATURE to all the World by means of ZION LITERATURE MISSION.

(13) THE VICTORY, after Months of Conflict with the Newspaper Press of the City of Chicago, which united with others in a desperate, sustained series of attacks upon ZION CITY and its FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

The final result was to establish in the public mind the solidity of Zion's Financial Foundations, and the great value of ZION'S ESTATE, estimated at nearly Twenty-four Millions of Dollars.

All these things have combined to absolutely silence the Press.

It often has been said in business circles that no other Institution in America could have survived that ordeal.

(14) THE STEADY, WIDE-SPREAD GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION by means of ZION MESSENGERS in EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA and AUSTRALASIA.

(15) THE LARGE ADDITIONS ON EVERY CONTINENT to the Membership of the CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

(16) THE WORLD-WIDE PROGRESS made by ZION'S HOST of WOMEN, led by Overseer Jane Dowie, who, in Dorcas Work, and through Zion Maternity Deaconesses, have alleviated the poverty of many thousands of persons, and maintained ZION HOME OF HOPE FOR ERRING WOMEN, and have done good work of every description.

(17) THE SPLENDID PROGRESS made by ZION COLLEGE, ZION JUNIOR SCHOOLS, ZION KINDERGARTEN and EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS generally, arrangements being made now for the care and education of over One Thousand, Two Hundred in the CITY of ZION alone.

(18) THE SPLENDID GROWTH OF ZION FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTIONS

(19) THE PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF ZION LACE INDUSTRIES in the completion of a beautiful factory with more than Eight Acres of floor space, the placing of Zion Lace Products with more than Three Hundred of the largest houses in America, and the absolute success of this vast and profitable industry, the proceeds of which, after due consideration to our employees, will be devoted to the EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

(20) THE UNITED PURITY, PEACE, STRENGTH AND STEADY PROGRESS OF ZION along all the lines of Christian Effort, and the Prospects of Immense Increase in the Coming Year, so that It is estimated that within One Year from this date the Population of the CITY OF ZION will be Twenty Thousand.

(21) THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION of the ENTIRE PEOPLE, and their loyalty and confidence in God and in us at all times.

(22) THESE, and many other Blessings more than we can number, call for our Gathering Together at this ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD, in a spirit of Gratitude and Wonder, and Love and Loyalty to God, so that we may present our Thanksgiving and Worship, recalling His Mighty Works, renewing our Vows to Him and to each other, and receiving Wisdom and Guidance and all needed Grace for the Coming Year.

Our Personal Sorrow has been "swallowed up in Victory!"

Death hath no Triumph where the Christ is Conqueror, and where His Faith and Hope and Love sustain the departed and the bereaved alike.

And so we rejoice with the Ransomed Host of the Redeemed in Heaven, that our Lovely One has entered into the Fulness of God's Life and Light and Endless Love.

We also rejoice in the Ever-present consciousness of His Presence, who said:

Lo. I am with you All the Days,
Even unto the Consummation of the Age.
DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days, of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing. Let us begin that subject this morning.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should either ask, WHO is God's Way? or the Way of Healing, which of the teachings or miracles of Jesus is a way of healing? A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for sickness, or disease, or sin, or the Devil, or Satan, or the world, and so forward.

B. But did He not use these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Messiah?

A. Yes; but more, I think. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to do not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

B. Is there not this difference, namely, that He is not as He was on earth, and therefore cannot work these kinds of miracles now. He is now in Heaven.

A. Yet, He has a body, and it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our diseases." According to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing.

B. Yes; and He was the Son of God. A. But did He not heal sick people in the world? B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Messiah?

B. Yes; but more, I think. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to do not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work? B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, the Chicago Avenue, at any Zion Tabernacle, or at Zion City Publishing House, corner Shiloh boulevard and Algiers avenue, Zion City, Illinois. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, and every page of the New Testament shows that sickness is a testimonial of the Holy Spirit, and an experience of God's command, and an example of God's will, and an evidence of God's power. A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, the Chicago Avenue, at any Zion Tabernacle, or at Zion City Publishing House, corner Shiloh boulevard and Algiers avenue, Zion City, Illinois. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, and every page of the New Testament shows that sickness is a testimonial of the Holy Spirit, and an experience of God's command, and an example of God's will, and an evidence of God's power.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. There is a way, and it is written, "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." A. Yes; after we feel satisfied that there are fully, resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see, pray, and do our part, and in due time receive the healing, for which we have prayed. In due time we are led to receive the healing, which is our part, and in due time we receive the healing, which is our part.

B. It is written, "Healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds," and, "Wilt thou be whole?

A. Yes; after we feel satisfied that there are fully, resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see, pray, and do our part, and in due time receive the healing, for which we have prayed. In due time we are led to receive the healing, which is our part, and in due time we receive the healing, which is our part.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"FOR ZION'S SAKE WILL I NOT HOLD MY PEACE."

The series of Restoration Messages, Unveiling the Apostasies, which God has given us to deliver in the Chicago Auditorium, has led us to make a very extended study of the historic facts connected with the birth, life, decay and degeneracy of the so-called Christian Organizations, which pretend so much and do so little.

It is hard to speak, but it would be harder yet to remain silent; for the Command of God to declare the Truth would make Silence a Crime.

We would much rather work in the Construction than in the Destruction Department of Zion, were it not that it will be impossible for us to Restore the Walls of Zion until we have cleared away the rubbish-heaps of what once were thought to be strong walls, built upon good foundations. But it has never been so!

The beautiful Campanile of St. Marks at Venice, one of the model towers of the world, though it had stood for a thousand years, in one brief minute suddenly crumbled into a great heap of dust. The catastrophe found its cause in the sudden collapse of the rotten piles upon which it had been built when they were strong, ten centuries ago.

It is thus with organizations that are not built upon the Rock of Eternal Ages. All their foundations decay and pass away; for "That only endures which is Eternal."

Digging deep into the foundation of these Apostasies, we discover the secret of their impotence and decay.

The Church of God can never rest upon any theological definitions, no matter how sacred the synod or council which passes them may seem to be.
SUCH ATTEMPTED definitions of the Infinite are foolish, because they are impossible.

THE CHURCH must rest not on verbal declarations; but it must find its Strength in the Realizations which Union with God alone can bring.

Many years of study and reflection upon their historic records, and of observation and experience of their present condition, have convinced us that the Downfall of the Apparently Strong Towers of the Apostasies is at hand; for the buildings are creaking in every direction, in a manner indicative of Impending and Sudden Destruction.

The Jewish hierarchy, with Herod's splendid Temple, and the venerable traditions of fifteen centuries of divinely organized institutions, seemed strong when compared with the seeming weakness of the Carpenter of Nazareth and fishermen of Galilee.

The prediction of Jesus that the destruction of the city of Jerusalem and its Temple, and the Dispersion of the Nation would take place within another generation, seemed to be too absurd for any serious consideration at the hands of the Political and Ecclesiastical Potentates of that time.

But the whole fabric was already at the point of complete collapse; for the Falling Away, the Apostasy, had eaten out, like a cancer or the leprosy, all that was sound and true in Judaism, so that everything was ready for destruction.

The battering-rams of Titus were scarcely needed to complete the ruin that had already taken place, although the shell still preserved the substantial appearance of ancient strength.

And it is thus today.

The original strength of the Roman and Greek Churches has preserved them far beyond all expectation; but the decay of the Eastern and Western Nations which these churches have controlled, including even Russia, which is corrupt to the heart's core, indicates that the Corruptors will soon share the fate of the Corrupted, and be dissolved.

This Doom will be more rapid and complete in the case of the Lutheran Church and the Church of England; for the reasons which we have stated at considerable length in our Messages, and especially for these reasons:

Both these Churches have been born of the Harlot Mother Church of Rome, and their fathers were vile politicians and potentates, such as Henry VIII. of England, and certain German Princes who had toyed with Rome and been approved by her.

But the day came when these rough fathers tore away from her bosom the Apostasies which they had helped to produce.

Today they show that they are the unmistakable offspring of both; for they retain the impress of Popery and Caesarism upon every part of their degenerate bodies.

One of the characteristics of the Twentieth Century, into which we have just entered, is the rapidity with which wrecking machinery can sweep away Decaying Exhibitions, and also the rapidity with which modern machinery can erect upon their site Solid Steel Frame Structures, such as it would have taken, a short time ago, many years to build.

And it is thus in Zion's Ecclesiastical work.

God has placed within our hands both the Wrecking and Constructive Machinery.

The Christ, the Destroyer of the Works of the Devil, is now, through His people, rapidly Constructing the Temple of God. It stands on the site where the ancient structure once stood.

Herod's Temple, which it took forty years to build, was burned up by Titus in less than forty hours.

And thus it will be.

The apparently impossible task of Destroying the Apostasies and building the True Church will be accomplished when the Hour has come, in a very short time. That Hour is near.

The Campaniles of Venice, Florence and of other Italian Cities may soon share the fate of that of St. Mark's. And the Campaniles of all the Apostasies, notwithstanding that they seem to continue as strong as ever they were, are ready to disappear. A few charges of Divine Dynamite by the Holy Spirit will hasten the process materially.

We have in these few Notes unveiled the thoughts of our heart.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

WE ARE NOT fighting uncertainly, nor as one that "beareth the air."
Every blow is telling.
The proof of this is that ugly black spiders and numerous other vermin are swarming out of their holes and nests in evident fear that something is going to happen.
They are right.
Something is happening.

THE KINGDOM of God has come!
The "Times of Refreshing" have come.
The Times of the Restoration of All Things have actively begun.

THE GROUND on which these Dangerous Old Apostasies stand is needed for more Useful Buildings, which Zion has a commission from God to construct.

ALL IS WELL!

THE MIDNIGHT HOUR will soon chime, from all the Turrets of Time, the Last Hour of the Dying Year.
But the Happy Bells will soon ring forth a joyous peal, for the Glad New Year that is coming, the Year in which the "Consummation of the Age" will be complete.

As we reach the solemn Midnight Hour, when we shall kneel, if God permit, with many Thousands in this beautiful City of Zion, around the Table of the Risen Lord, we know that He will there give us Power to See and Strength to Do the Mighty Work in the Coming Year, for which He has been preparing us and all Zion

And so we call attention once more to the All-Night with God in Shiloh Tabernacle, at 10 o'clock on Wednesday Night, December 31, 1902, to 7 o'clock on Thursday morning, January 1, 1903.

Trains to bring our friends to Zion City from Chicago on that Night will leave the Wells Street Depot of the Chicago & North-Western Railway at 7:30 and 8:30 p.m., returning the following morning, it is expected, at 8 and 9:30 a.m.

In the afternoon of New Year's Day, at 2:30 p.m., it is our intention to hold a Reception of All Officers and Members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion who will do us the honor to present themselves at the Administration Building, Elijah avenue, at that hour.

Our guests may, if they desire, pass through all the Offices of the Zion Land and Investment Association, of Zion City Bank, and Zion General Financial Department, on the ground floor.

Then, passing up the staircase at the northwest end of the building, they will be received by Judges Barnes and Webb, and their staff, in the Zion Law Department Offices, and by our own personal staff and officers in the northeast room, occupied by Overseer Jane Dowie; and through our own offices in the southeast room, passing out through the General Overseer's Council-room and Library, to the staircase at the southwest end of the building.

Friends at a distance will please to read carefully the following notice which has been handed to us by Deacon James F. Peters, Superintendent of Transportation.

It will be seen that we have secured a one and one-third fare return rate to many parts of the country; but in order to secure advantage of these rates our friends must closely comply with the instructions of Deacon Peters:

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Week has been one of hard and earnest toil in all departments of Zion at Headquarters.

Large gatherings in the Chicago Auditorium and in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, came to hear our Message from God, and we spoke to about Seven Thousand persons last Lord's Day.

Overseer Jane Dowie spoke in the afternoon to more than Three Thousand, and, at the other meetings in Shiloh Tabernacle, three in number, nearly four thousand attended; which, with the congregations in the various Tabernacles in and around Chicago, it is probable that more than Sixteen Thousand persons heard the Word of God from the lips of ministers of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Zion Restoration Host, going from house to house in Chicago, probably reached several hundred thousand with their printed and spoken Messages; and doubtless all over this land and in all of the Continents, and many Islands of the Sea, the beautiful Banner of Zion was raised, and the Everlasting Gospel proclaimed.

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather, we had a large Rally of the weekly assembly on Wednesday evening, and we had the joy of baptizing forty-three persons at a meeting before that gathering.

One of these was Judge Bethel Magness Webb, of Smithville, Tennessee, whom we have appointed Solicitor-general of Zion's Law Department.

He has occupied a very high position at the Bar in his own state, and was for some time Chancellor in Equity, which high office he filled with large success.

He refused recently a nomination for the Supreme Court Bench of Tennessee; and has come into Zion, from a deep conviction that our work is of God, and that he has been called not only by us, but by God, to take his part in establishing Zion.

We had the joy of introducing him to the people at the Assembly, after the Baptism, where he made a very able and judicious and thoughtful speech.

We have received today his first brief upon an important matter which we submitted to him, and have been charmed with his clearness and complete grasp of the important subject to which it referred.

Our General Counsel, Judge V. V. Barnes, has expressed both publicly and privately, his pleasure in being associated with so able a colleague, and in the prospect of sharing the sometimes heavy work of the Law Department.

Our friends must remember that our Legal Counselors also act as Judges of Arbitration, and Advisers of the City Council, and Attorneys for all in Zion who desire to place their legal and other affairs in our hands.

We rejoice to have two Christian men of such eminence to assist us in administrating the affairs of Zion, and to protect the great interests committed to our care.

We have always had the pleasantest relations with our Legal Advisers, and, while we welcomed, last Wednesday evening, most heartily our new colleague, there were many expressions of loving remembrance uttered concerning our late General Counsel, Attorney Packard, from whom we had just received kind messages through Deacon Judd.

Mr. Packard has still a warm place in all our hearts, and we are glad to know that he still loves Zion and the work in which we are engaged for God throughout the world.

It will give much pleasure to our readers to know that Zion Lace Industries have produced a fabric which is "upon the crest of the wave," so to speak, as a salable article, with a good margin of profit.

We have received orders from about 320 of the best dry-goods houses in the United States of America, in over 200 cities.

Some of these orders have already been duplicated, and even where there was some little prejudice against Zion, and almost unwillingness to look at our lace at first, the presentation of the beautiful fabric has disarmed all opposition, and sales have been made in almost every case where it has been shown.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

Saturday, December 6, 1902.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Gay's Way of Healing is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:28.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20.) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:18; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
AND JERUSHAL said unto me, . . . I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. And it shall come to pass that whosoever will not harken unto My words which he shall speak in My Name, I will require it of him. —Deuteronomy 18:15-19.

WE find, by searching the Scriptures, that this Prophet through whom Moses says God will speak to the people, and who will speak all that God shall command him, is to come in the latter days.

Peter tells us that he is to come in the Times of the Restoration of All Things. He also says that the Lord Jesus is to come in the Times of the Restoration of All Things. (Acts 3:21-25.)

Our Lord tells us that Elijah shall come in the Times of the Restoration of All Things. (Matthew 17:10-14.)

Elijah, as John the Baptist, was the forerunner of our Lord, and he is to come as the forerunner of our Lord at His second coming.

Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist, prophesied of John, saying that he should be called the Prophet of the Most High, for He should go before the face of the Lord to make ready His ways, or comings. (Luke 1:76.)

The Lord Jesus always spoke of John the Baptist as Elijah, and he usually mentioned his two comings, but distinguished between them by saying that his future coming should be to restore All Things.

The work of tearing down must precede the work of restoration.

The Prophet Malachi describes the Restoration work of Elijah in detail, calling him the Messenger of the Covenant (Malachi 3:1) and also calling him Elijah (Malachi 4:5).

Malachi shows us that his work is very severe, comparable to fire, which separates the dross from the precious metals, and to the soap with which the fuller cleanses the animal impurities from wooden garments.

The work of Moses was very severe in its character also, making no compromise with sin.

He, too, called out a people from under the rule of the flesh, to form a nation that should be ruled by God—a Theocracy.

They were given the power to take the kingdoms of those nations who would not serve God.

God gave to Moses first the Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, which became the new Covenant of the Christian Dispensation, when the Lamb of God took the place of the sacrificial lamb in it.

This Covenant is being taught to the world today by the Messenger of the Covenant.

Divine Healing was first formulated into a law through Moses—the law of man's normal relations with God (Exodus 15:25, 26). This is the Covenant of the Restoration of All Things. Hence, Moses began the work of the Restoration. Elijah will complete it. Jesus said Elijah shall restore All Things.

God provided Cities of Refuge for the people through Moses.

The same need exists today and is being met by “that Prophet” of the Restoration.

God met at different times and talked with both Moses and Elijah on Mount Horeb (Sinai) about their work.

In the Christian Dispensation we see them on the Mount of Transfiguration, where, with the three disciples, they were permitted to witness the Son of Man coming in His Kingdom, according to the promise of our Lord. (Matthew 16:28; 17:1.)

All who today hear and receive the words of that Prophet, who has come as the Messenger of the Covenant, receive blessing.

Multitudes can witness to blessing received because they harkened to him.

We ask you, dear Reader, to help Zion Literature Mission to send his Message, so full of life and blessing, over the whole world.

From Ballybriest, Cookstown, Ireland, a gentleman writes, telling how he was blessed through the Words of That Prophet of Whom Moses Spoke.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEEER:—I desire to thank you for your prayers for me. Thank God, they have been answered. I have been greatly blessed in spirit, soul and body, for which I thank God; and I pray that He will bless you as the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Forerunner, and the Prophet foretold by Moses, which I firmly believe you are.

God has greatly blessed your letters to me and your teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING, as through them He has led me to become a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I have also been led out of secret societies, eating pork and other evil things.

I pray God that through your teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING the Bible seems a New Book, and God a loving God whose mercy endures forever.

I learn that the Christ has made a full Atone-ment for spirit, soul and body—a salvation full and free for all.

Pray for my dear husband.

It is no different from that of the so-called Christian churches which are merely forms without power.

I pray He will enable you in your Restoration Messages to smash these organizations and set the people free and bring them into Zion, where Salvation, Healing and Holy Living are taught, and that all in Zion may have the spirit of Purity, Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding, that they may know and obey God in all His first thoughts that have the rule over them in the Lord, which I commonly desire to do.

Pray for me that I may be kept in health and serve God fully.

Recognizes Zion's Message as from God.

DEAR DOCTOR DOWIE:—Separated as we are at the extreme ends of the earth, your LEAVES OF HEALING has found its various Countries happy home, and filled our hearts with that Divine power and contentment which comes only from the blessing and help of our dear Lord and Redeemer.

I at first very skeptical in reading or believing that the Lord had sent His Messenger, Elijah, to teach and draw His people into Zion.

I have always been a God-fearing, but, I regret to say, indifferent Christian as regards attending churches and meetings, being well-read, with an independent, firm will of my own.

I saw so much hypocrisy and irregularities in the lives of those who ought to have been above all evil, that I learned to despise them, and formed a religion of my own, based on the New Testament.

My prayers have been to my God and my Saviour, Jesus, the Christ, and God in His loving mercy has been a loving Father to me.

My dear old husband, who has throughout life been a pattern of goodness, very religious, and who looked after me, is with God in Zion.

I have also been led out of secret societies, eating pork and other evil things.

As an organization, the Church of England, "by law established," is the most dangerous form of Apos tenty that curses the world today. In the first place, it inherits all the Apos tenty of the Roman and Greek Churches, veiled by an alleged Reformation which is simply a profound sham, and which is not only false but pernicious and inolent. . . . The contention of the Church of Rome for supremacy in England was absolutely successful until the middle of the reign of Henry VIII., when the Church of England assumed its present form; and if there is any more shameful story of base hypocrisy, perfidy and murder, in all the pages of English history, than that so-called Reformation in the sixteenth century, I know it not.

King Henry VIII. had received from Pope Leo X. the title of Defender of the Faith (Vindicor Defender) for writing a treatise against Martin Luther, which was violent in the extreme and which tended to equal violence in reply. That title was confirmed by Pope Clement VII., the successor of Leo X. Yet it was that King who tore away the Church in England from its acknowledged mother, the Church of Rome. And how was it done away?

Pope Clement VII., whether from policy or from principle—it might have been from either or from both—absolutely refused to grant King Henry VIII. a divorce from his lawful wife, and queen, Catherine of Aragon—against whose character there was no accusation even by the King. He had simply got tired of her and wanted to marry another woman—Anne Boleyn—whom he afterwards married, divorced and beheaded. That same process he afterwards followed with Catherine Howard—marriage, divorce, murder.

His marriage record is six wives—two murdered, two he divorced, one died, and one outlived him. The Roman Apos tenty did right, the King did wrong, and out of this was born the Church of England! Can any honest man say for a moment it was a Church of God?

No! It was simply the offspring of the Brutal Lust of a hypocritical, prepymated and murderous King, backed by cowardly priests and by aristocratic and parliamentary thieves, whose guilty eyes were looking for the spits to be got from their action in declaring that king to be from henceforth "the Head of the Church."

Can any one blame me when I say that the Church of England was conceived in Iniquity and was born in Sin?

It was Apos tent from its birth, and it is Apos tent still.

The illustration shows the origin of the Church of England through the Apos tenty of King Henry VIII.
ELIJAH the Destroyer and Elijah the Preparer both stood upon the steps of thrones and hurled the judgments of God into the very teeth of the royal voluptuaries who occupied them.

Scorning the sycophants who called themselves the priests of Jehovah, and yet fawned upon the kingly beasts who flaunted their shame in the faces of God’s people, the first and the second Eliejahs boldly and uncompromisingly called sin by its right name, and called these purple-clad enemies of God to Repentance.

The spirit and power of Elijah is stronger, purer and more faithful, and more courageous today than ever before; for God has given him his final, world-wide task to accomplish.

As that mighty spirit fills the being of Elijah the Restorer, it inspires him with the same terrific hatred of sin, whether it be found in the lowly toiler, in the prosperous tradesman, within the sacred walls of the House of God or upon the very throne itself, which actuated Elijah the Tishbite and John the Baptist.

As in the days of Elijah the Tishbite, and as in the days of Elijah the Preparer, John the Baptist, adulterers who sit upon thrones do not escape the purifying incandescence of that terrible Refiner’s Fire, the Messenger of God’s Covenant.

Lord’s Day afternoon, November 30, 1902, at the Chicago Auditorium, in Unveiling the Apostasy of the Church of England and Her Episcopal Daughters, Elijah the Restorer arraigned the royal head of that Church for his shameless life and hurled defiance at the priests and courtiers who have threatened him for his speaking the Divine Truth.

With historical accuracy and candor he told the sad story of the establishment of that church as the result of the shameless adulteries of that notorious ancestor of the present occupant of the throne of England, Henry VIII.

Very briefly he traced the damming influence of royal supremacy in the Church, and the terrible Apostasy for which it was responsible.

The time was too short for him to enter into discussion of other marks of apostasy in this church, but he announced that they would be taken up next Lord’s Day.

An audience of fully 4,000 people, a great many of them well-dressed, cultivated and intelligent strangers, heard this mighty Message of Elijah the Restorer, and showed their appreciation of the truth which he spoke, and of the fearless stand which he took, not only by frequent applause, but also by the great majority of them rising, at the close, and repeating with him and with the members of the Church present, the solemn Prayer of Consecration.

As a prelude to this Message, the General Overseer gave a very forceful and timely talk on the subject: “A Question for Thanksgiving: Will a Man Rob God?”

Clearly and conclusively he showed from God’s Word the present-day force of the command: “Bring the Whole Tithe into the Storehouse.”

Just as clearly and just as conclusively he proved that God was keeping the promise with which He accompanied the command: “And I will open you the windows of Heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.”

Then came his Call to Obedience, a call not only to each individual within the hearing of his voice, but the call of a God-sent prophet to the nation and to the world.

Following up that call, and making it definite and practical, he caused all who would promise to obey God to stand upon their feet, and register before Him a solemn Vow.

Thousands arose in that great audience, many of whom had been up to this time robbing God, and, with determined voices, took the Vow God’s Messenger gave.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ, the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.

Refrain—Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus,
Going on before.

Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod:

LEAVES OF HEALING

Saturday, December 6, 1908

We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.
Crows and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
Gainst the Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promises,
And that cannot fail.
Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices,
In the triumph-song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This thro' countless ages
Men and angels sing.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.
God be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause His face to shine upon us:
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations,
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.
All then joined in singing Hymn No. 44:
Oh, wondrous Name, by prophets heard
Long years before His birth;
They saw Him coming from afar
The Prince of Peace on earth.

CHORUS—The Wonderful!—The Counselor!
The Great and Mighty Lord!
The everlasting Prince of Peace!
The King, the Son of God!

RECITATION OF CREED.
The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.
The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heavens and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father,
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hast overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge:
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Sorcerers Are Druggists.

That word in the Hebrew is Kashaph.

Beneath it send My Messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me; and Jehovah, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, and the Messenger of the Covenant, whom ye delight in, behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:
And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver; and they shall offer unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness.

Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto Jehovah, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers.

Sorcerers Are Druggists.

That word in the Hebrew is K'ashap.

In the Septuagint it is translated by the word pharmaia (Greek φαρμακα) which is the word used throughout the New Testament for sorcerer.
It means a maker, a vender, a dispenser of deadly poisons. It means, in plain, ordinary English, a druggist or pharmacist, which is from the Greek word. There is no other meaning for it.

There is nothing that today is cursing this earth more than the transformation of the fruits of the earth into Liquid Fire and Distilled Damnation in every form. It is the Alcohol which you get in places licensed to produce every vice and destroy every virtue; licensed to destroy every power of self-control and madden until crime is easy; licensed to destroy food and create famine.

So with these drugs, which are composed largely of narcotics, to which class this alcoholic poison belongs. "In vain dost thou use many medicines," is the Word of God.

Bible Says Nothing Good of Poisonous Drugs.

There is not one kind word spoken for doctors or drugs throughout the whole Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. God is revealed as the Healer of His people.

There is not one kind word spoken for doctors or drugs; it is generally in terms of supreme contempt.

The woman who touched the hem of the Christ's garment had been twelve years. She *"had suffered many things of many physicians." She "had spent all that she had," and the result was just what it is today: She "was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse." (Mark 5:30).

Dr. Hall, of Hall's Journal of Health, said: "Medicine, of the mildest, is a poison, and effects a result in proportion to its poisonous qualities. It 'cures' by setting up a disease greater than the original which it seeks to cure. Hence, the reader can easily see how it is that medicine seems to cure the simpler forms of disease, by establishing the more serious ailments, such as heart-disease, dyspepsia, paralysis, spinal trouble, female diseases and the host of other chronic ailments which are acknowledged incurable by any drugs."

Nevertheless men will say that doctors and drugs are of God.

Three or four years ago the New York Medical Society, after seven years' continuous inquiry, published a report upon the condition of the medical fraternity in the United States. In this the allegation was made that twenty-one per cent. of the medical fraternity were excessive users, in fact, victims of narcotic poisons, alcohol, morphine, cocaine, and other deadly drugs which render men incompetent to think clearly.

Nevertheless men will say that doctors and drugs are of God.

Doctors Themselves Are Victims to Narcotic and Alcoholic Poisons.

In no age, at no time, has there ever been any unity among those who prescribe these drugs, or among surgeons who cut with knives.

No Unity Among Doctors.

Allopath and hydropath at daggers drawn. The homeopath says "Similia, similibus curantur" (like cures like), and the other fellow says "Contraria contrariis curantur" (the contrary cures the contrary). They both fight and call each other fools, and they are both right. (Laughter.)

What schools of medicine ever agree?

What right have these men to ask us to receive the last nostrum? They have denounced everything that has preceded them.

Sir Alexander Simpson declared, a short time ago, that if every book on medicine in Edinburgh University Library and every book in the library of the College of Surgeons and Physicians, which had been printed for more than ten years, were destroyed, it would be a great blessing to the world. Among them he would have destroyed all the books written by his uncle, who was considered in his day to be the greatest authority upon gynecology in the world.

Men who tell us that drugs and doctors are Divinely commissioned had better give us some proof of it.

Drugs and Doctors not Divinely Commissioned.

Surely they are not Divine in their diagnosis; for they do not agree.

A clever but rather unscrupulous young woman in New York took five twenty-dollar bills, called upon five physicians, got five different diagnoses of diseases from which she had never suffered, then had them all printed in the papers, and threatened to give the names of the physicians if the medical fraternity disputed it.

All their diagnoses were lies. She was not sick at all.

One said she had kidney disease, another said that she had lung disease, another said that something was wrong with her heart, a fourth said that she was in a very serious condition from a totally different thing, and I think the fifth was not quite sure, so recommended her to come back with another twenty-dollar bill. (Laughter.)

That a face!

In a neighboring city, about ten persons died of mysterious diseases. However, the doctors found names for the diseases, and the bodies were all properly buried.

The doctors who had given their certificates suddenly found that a baker had emptied some arsenic into his batch of dough, and that these persons had died from arsenical poisoning; yet there was not one doctor in the place who could detect it.

Where is the reliable diagnosis? Where is the curative treatment? Where is the divinity of the thing?

I have an aged doctor friend who said to me: "When I was a young man, I had a hundred remedies for every disease, but now that I am an old doctor I have a hundred diseases without any remedy."

Where is the sense of the thing? "Oh, we are finding it out now through microscopic observation of microbes," say the doctors.

The Stupidity of the Germ Theory.

That is the most stupid thing of all.

Some doctors have been rising up lately, saying: "Do not kill all the microbes, some of them are good."

The microscope has not yet been able to tell us which are good.

"Ah! But we can kill the parasitical masses of the bacteria of tuberculosis. At any rate, we can drive them away from the diseased tissue."

The late Professor Virchow said, when talking of Koch's lymph: "Oh, yes, that is true. His lymph does drive the bacteria from the diseased tissue into the healthy tissue and kill the patient twice as quick."

He proved it by more than twenty post-mortems.

Where is your remedy? Your remedy is in God who forgiveth all our iniquities, who heal eth all our diseases.

Your remedy is in the Christ, "the same yesterday and today, yea, and forever." He is the same Savior, the same Healer, the same Cleanser, the same Keeper. If He is not the same, the Bible is a lie. "Well, but can you prove it?"

"I would like to see some witnesses who would prove it!"

I have an aged doctor friend who said to me: "When I was a young man, I had a hundred remedies for every disease, but now that I am an old doctor I have a hundred diseases without any remedy."

He is the same Savior, the same Healer, the same Cleanser, the same Keeper. If He is not the same, the Bible is a lie. "Well, but can you prove it?"

"I would like to see some witnesses who would prove it!"

"Ah! I cannot show you that. I never cured any one. I leave it to the other fellows, who kill, to say that they cure. I never cured. I never saved. "So you cannot show us any one whom you have cured?"

No; for I never said I cured any one. I never thought it. I will tell you what I can do. I can show you people whom God has healed.

Three Thousand Witnesses to Divine Healing.

Those whom God has healed through faith in Jesus, the Christ, stand. (Several thousand arose.)

Now, take a good look at them, you who wanted to see them. There are perhaps two or three thousand standing. Did God heal you? Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—Were you healed through doctors and medicines? Witnesses—"No."

General Overseer—Were you healed through faith in Jesus? Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—Are you sure that you are not insane? Witnesses—"Yes."

General Overseer—Are you sure that you are not talking nonsense? Witnesses—"Yes."
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, December 6, 1902.

I have been at business ever since, with hot indignation for drugs, from which I had suffered a long time, until, after years of torture, I was healed through faith in Jesus when dying.

I have a lively remembrance of it, although it is thirty-nine years ago.

Doctors left me to die of the horrible sufferings of chronic dyspepsia.

If I were to compare that disease with the hellish torture of a demon pressing a seven times heated bar every now and then upon my breast, and binding it around me, I would say: Chronic dyspepsia is worse than that.

I never wondered at men who suffered from that disease losing their reason and destroying their lives when they had no faith in God, and had lost all faith in doctors and drugs.

Death at any time would be preferable.

God healed me instantaneously, when I saw it was ever His will to heal those who repented, believed and obeyed Him—and I did: for my prayer was heard and immediately answered. These people here who have stood up are good Witnesses.

They are intelligent, sane, honest, hard-working people, some of them merchants, lawyers and bankers—good citizens, whose word is everywhere believed, as even our enemies are compelled to admit.

Many of them are professional men.

A vast number of them are builders, for we have a great many belonging to the constructive trades in this Church.

We have people in all walks of life who have been healed, and in Chicago alone they represent no less than sixty different nationalities.

Sorcerers (Druggists) Have Their Part in Hell.

God will be a Swift Witness against the pharmakois, the Sorcerers.

Do you know that the druggist is among those mentioned in the Revelation, who do not enter heaven?

Among those who go to the Great Lake of Fire, we find, starting with the cowards (who are the “fearful”): the unbelievers, murderers, whoremongers, sorcerers (druggists) and all liars put together.

Here are the Words of “Him that sitteth upon the Throne”:

But for the Fearful, and Unbelieving, and Abominable, and Murderers, and Fornicators, AND DOCTORS (PHARMAKOIS—PHARSMAIKOS), and Idolaters, and all Liars, their part shall be in that Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimstone; WHICH IS THE SECOND DEATH.—Revelation 20:15.

We do not merely do without the drug, but we say that the drug is deadly and devilish, and that it creates madness, shutters, destroys, and sends down to posterity blighted, miserable offspring.

And I will come near to you to judgment: and I will be a Swift Witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against them that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

God Witnesses Against the People Who Think That They Can Do Without God.

You are the meanest man under the heavens, the meanest man out of hell, who think you can do without the God who made you, blesses you, and has a right to you.

God will witness against you, not for you.

God is against you.

For I Jehovah change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from Mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of Hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return?

That is the impudence of humanity to God Almighty.

Wherein shall we return? That is the way they treated the Christ, the Son of God. They talked impudently to Him.

Wilt a man rob God? yet ye rob Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings.

Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob Me, even this whole nation.

Bring ye the Whole Tithe into the Storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith Jehovah of Hosts, If I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

And all nations shall call you happy: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

Your words have been stout against Me, saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, Wherein have we spoken against Thee?
Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His statutes, because the iniquity of our fathers is upon us?

And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God and are delivered.

Then they that feared Jehovah spake one another: and Jehovah hardened, and heard, and a book of Remembrance was written before Him, for them that feared Jehovah, and that thought upon His Name.

And they shall be Mine, saith Jehovah of Hosts, in the day that I do make, even a peculiar treasure; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

For, behold, the day cometh, that burneth as a furnace, and all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith Jehovah of Hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

But unto you that fear My Name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and gambol as calves of the stall.

And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I do make, saith Jehovah of Hosts.

Remember ye the law of Moses, My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and judgments.

And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Remember ye the law of Moses, My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and judgments.

Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah comes.

And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

These are the last words of the Old Testament, and these are the last days, weeks, months, may be years, of this Dispensation.

May God bless His Word.

The Gloria Patri was sung by the Choir.

Prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which the choir and congregation chanted the Disciples' Prayer.

After the tithes and offering had been received, Elder Graves sang from the 8th to the 12th verse of the 9th chapter of Malachi. (See next page for words and music.)

When the Elder reached the 12th verse, the choir and audience joined him in the singing, first all together, then women alone, then men alone, and then, with great enthusiasm, all together.

The General Overseer then delivered the following prelude:

PRELUDE—A QUESTION FOR THANKSGIVING: "WILL A MAN ROB GOD?"

"Will a man rob God?"

I would like to know how many thieves there are here today. I do not know that you have all been thieves at one time. Everyone who all his life has given one dollar out of every ten to God, stand up. (No one arose.)

Then you have all been thieves at one time.

Every one who has prospered financially since you gave your tithes to God, stand. (Thousands arose.)

You have the historic fact that when Abraham was victorious, he gave Melchizedek, King of Salem, High Priest of God, who received the tithes from Abraham, the Patriarch of the Israel-

It is a neglected chapter because it brings in the ministers and the people as guilty.

This was the last warning to the people of God in the Land of Promise.

There was no prophet between Malachi and John the Baptist, who came in the spirit and power of Elijah. Four centuries rolled on without a prophet.

The people had robbed God, and they were cursed with a curse, for the whole Nation had robbed Him.

Today the Message rings out again to a nominally Christian people, in the United States of America at this Thanksgiving season—"Will you rob God?"

The question may be again asked, as of old, "Wherein have we robbed God?"

And the answer is the same, "In Tithes and Offerings."

God's Portion of the Year's Increase in the United States.

If the people of these United States were to give to God a tith of this year's harvest, and a tith of their profits from the great textile, steel and other industries of this country, I have figured it out that God's portion of that would be at least $500,000,000—Five Hundred Millions of Dollars.

The facts are that the people in general do not take God in account at all when it comes to dollars and dimes.

I do not know that I blame the people very much for not paying their tithes into the treasuries of apostolic churches that compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and, when they have made him, he very often becomes twofold more the child of hell than he was before.

I do not hesitate to say that there are many churches in this land, to become a member of which is a distinct detriment to a man's spiritual life.

It was far better that he remain in the Kingdom of God and outside of such churches. However, that does not take away the responsibility of every one to pay his honest debt of one-tenth to God, the Bountiful Giver of all Good Things.

Tithing Commanded from the Very Beginning.

God has commanded that a tithe should be set apart to be used in His service for the extension and maintenance of His Kingdom upon this earth, from the very beginning, as far back as Melchizedek, King of Salem, High Priest of God, who received the tithes from Abraham, the Patriarch of the Israel-}

You have the historic fact that when Abraham was victorious, he brought the tenth of the spoils to Melchizedek.

Through the thousands of years right up to now God has, over and over again, demanded His rightful share, and has fixed it, as a minimum, at one-tenth.

When a man, even a poor, feeble, flabby-conscienced kind of man like Jacob, promises to pay God his tithes and does it, he is blessed.

The people who have paid their tithes to God have always been blessed.

Great Prosperity of Zion Working Men.

The people to whom I minister have been wonderfully blessed in abstaining from alcohol, tobacco, swine's flesh, secret societies, gambling, theaters and scores of evil or foolish modes of squandering money.

The working man in Zion, after he has paid his tithes, is three dollars, out of every ten, ahead of the ordinary working man.

Men working in Zion have increased their prosperity so rapidly that it has been a perfect marvel even to those of us who have watched them for years.

They have not needed doctors or drugs, for they have trusted God.

They have not needed association with an evil people in secret lodges, for they have trusted God.

They have not defiled themselves with these deadly drugs and poisons; they have trusted God.

The consequence is that a people have been raised up who, under God, have done that which no other eight thousand people who were in their condition have done.

They have established the City of Zion, forty-two miles north of Chicago, on the shores of Lake Michigan, and are increasing its value every day.

They have prospered more solidly and rapidly than any community that I know of in the world.
MALACHI 3:8-12.

Robbing God Is the Cause of Failure of Christianity.

Look back upon Christianity during the nineteen centuries past, and you see a miserable, shameful failure. Great portions of the world that were Christian when the Apostles died, and within the first three centuries of the Christian era, are heathen and Mohammedan today. On the northern shores of Africa, where great Christian churches flourished, the Moslem now rules. Where many of the noblest Fathers of the Early Church toiled, suffered and died, to plant great Churches, there are none to be found today.

A great deterioration has taken place. It is one of the saddest things that of a population of a hundred millions, or thereabouts, there is nothing like a hundred million of real Christians who obey the Christ.

Nominally Christian countries are living in worse than heathen darkness. They are in great part robbing God. These United States pour into the Devil's lap nearly two billions of dollars every year for liquor and tobacco.

The money spent in vice, silly theaters and hurtful things all put together is at least another billion dollars. The waste is terrific.

On the other hand, what are those who are God's people doing?

I charge this Nation with being a Nation of thieves and robbers, robbing God, in tithes and offerings which are his Royal Right from each and all.

I charge the professed church with being composed of thieves and robbers, robbing God.

In the churches themselves, there is not a tithe of a tithe of the members' incomes given to God.

I Want All Thieves out of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

If there are any who are concealing themselves in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, who are robbing God, I want them to get out.

If I discover them I will put them out. I will not sit at the Lord's Table with a thief. If you do not pay your tithes and give your offerings, you are a thief; for God says it.

It is my duty to tell you that you rob God. I am determined, no matter what the consequences may be, to ask these questions every year, as long as I am in the flesh:

"Will a man rob God?"

"Will a Church rob God?" and

"Will a Nation rob God?"

If you are robbing God, you are rebuked and cursed, and your labor is in vain. While you are robbing God, your children, as well as you yourselves, are serving the Devil.

For the Devil gets away with billions of dollars every year, while God's work languishes. You are thieves and are cursed for this crime, and it is God who says so.

I never knew anybody to suffer from paying their Tithes.

Stories of Wonderful Blessing Through Tithe-paying.

This Church is full of stories that read like romances, of people who earned, when we first knew them, just two or three dollars a week, but who paid their tithes out of that pitiful income, and today have lots and houses in Zion City.

There are seven or eight hundreds of such.

There are many here, as you have seen by the answer to my question, whom God has blessed financially since they paid their tithes and gave their offerings.

It is common among us to hear our brethren say: "I never could save a dollar until I paid God His tenth."

The fact is there before you.

One of the Keys to Success is the Paying of Tithes into God's Storehouse, not the paying them into your own pocket, and then paying them out (perhaps) just as you think best. God's command—and it is an order which leaves you no choice except obedience—is:

Bring ye the Whole Tith Into the Storehouse, That there may be meat In Mine House.

I Do Not Receive a Cent from the Tithes and Offerings.

One of the lies that is told widespread throughout this country, and indeed throughout the world, is that I take largely from, and am personally enriched by, the tithes.

I would have a right to my portion of these tithes, would I not?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—But years have passed away since I have had one dollar out of the tithes.

For years before ever this Church was formed I gave $700 out of every $100 of my entire income to the cause of God, and lived upon two and one-half per cent.

I personally have not spent on myself and family more than about three per cent interest upon the entire sum of that which is mine at the present moment. The remainder is in Zion.

I do not touch the tithes at all, and, thank God! I do not need to. They all pass directly into the General Recorder's hands, and then are deposited in Zion City Bank to the credit of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which account is kept, and all checks drawn up upon it, in the Recorder's office.

They have been spent, and are being spent, for His work.

That has been publicly confirmed again and again by my General Financial Manager and Private Financial Secretary and by the General Recorder.

I do not need to call for the confirmation again.

I am the largest contributor to the funds of the Church, and that I have been at the head of this procession for many years, for which privilege I heartily thank God.

The fact that I have for many years often given as much as ninety-seven and one-half per cent. to God, and never less than ninety per cent. of all He gave me, is, I believe, under God, the reason why He has blessed me so bountifully.

My Interest in Zion's Vast Estate Is Five per Cent.

Ninety-five per cent. of it belongs in perpetuity to God, and is legally dedicated by my will to the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I am corporation sole, as it were—absolute owner while I live; but using all as a "steward of God."

I helped to create this estate under God, but I have no doubt that the liberality which He gave me the grace to exercise in giving has been the means of blessing to myself and to this whole people.

I am living what I talk, and as one who has had a long, wide experience in this matter, for Zion now extends over all the earth, planted on every Continent and in many Islands of the Sea.

Zion's Prosperity in Australia, in the Midst of Drouth.

Zion people prosper where other people perish. An illustration of that is in Australia, where the people have been suffering from a severe drouth.

During that time of drouth many of the Young Men's Christian Associations have been closed because the secretaries could get no salaries, and retired.

Ministers have left their churches and gone into secular pursuits, or left the country.

Salaries have been diminished in the churches to the starvation point.

The people have been much discouraged in the midst of that drouth.

I sent Wilbur Glenn Voliva, a very able man, graduate of several colleges, to Australia, with his wife and an Elder, also an able man and a college graduate.

I sent them there less than a year ago.

They have now had one year's experience.

They landed in Australia paying a certain sum of money in their hands. Their way was paid.
They were told to draw upon us if they needed it. They have never drawn a penny.

Today, in Australia, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion has, within a few dollars, the same amount of money in hand that they landed with. Yet we have established the work all over South Australia, Victoria, New South Wales, part of Queensland and New Zealand.

We have baptized many hundreds of people, gathered together churches, paid out a great deal of money, not taking a cent out of the impoverished country.

Our people have been enabled to do this, to live comfortably and to push the work of God on all sides. Many officers have been ordained. Splendid men have joined our ranks. Congregations of six and seven hundred people gather in our little Zion Tabernacles, and the work of Salvation and Healing through Faith in Jesus goes steadily on from day to day, producing the precious fruit of Holy Living in all the relations of life.

While other churches, that have been there for many years, have lost members and income, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion has secured a firm footing in Australasia and has been well maintained.

The liberal allowance which I instructed the Overseer to take from the funds has been used wisely. He had a call for, and so have the Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses who are working with him all over Australia. The same words are true concerning Zion’s work in Europe, Africa and Asia.

Zion’s Prosperity in the Midst of Chicago’s Disaster in 1893-1894.

We planted Zion in 1893, amidst the panic. In 1894, Zion grew, and Zion Publishing House was firmly established, from which LEAVES OF HEALING went forth to all the world.

In 1895, Zion became still larger, and Zion passed through many fiery trials triumphantly.

During that year of persecution, Zion grew and strengthened, and was able to do scores of things when churches were famished.

Today, in this city, Zion reaches every week more people every Lord’s Day, than any other one denomination, except the Roman Catholic—as was shown the other day by the statistics published by the Chicago Record-Herald, and republished in LEAVES OF HEALING.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion has the largest congregation in Chicago, larger than all of the Methodist churches in the city put together; larger than all of the Baptist churches put together; larger than all of the Presbyterian churches put together. I venture to say we are spending more money upon the people in beneficences than any one of these old and suppressed wealthy denominations is spending.

Zion’s Expenditures upon the People of Chicago.

We do not want to say too much about it, but Mrs. Dowie, who is Principal Overseer for Women’s Work in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the world, has more than 50,000 women working in this city, making clothes for the poor.

We have sent out, this fall, four or five thousand garments to the poor.

We have maintained a Home of Hope for Erring Women for years, in which continually about thirty girls and twenty babies, on the average, are cared for.

We have sent these girls to their homes in scores and hundreds. They have been restored to God and to society, married respectively in large numbers of cases, and are entirely reclaimed. We have not had five per cent. of them turn out failures.

I venture to say that we have a right to make a little boast in this matter, that we carry, by means of the Six Thousand Members of Zion Restoration Host, the Gospel to at least one million persons every week.

A people who can do this, and are doing it, who organized as a church only six and a half years ago, have been blessed by God because they have paid God their tithes and delight to do His will.

God has opened the Windows of Heaven and poured us out a blessing for which oftentimes, we have not had room. Our great Shiloh Tabernacle, in Zion City, built only last spring, seating more than this auditorium does, is overflowed frequently, as many as ten thousand persons seeking to enter at a single meeting.

On Lord’s Day mornings it is a common thing to see three thousand, and sometimes more, people gather at half-past six o’clock for prayer.

There were thousands there this morning, people who love God—bright, happy, intelligent, working, going right on attending to their business.

Cleanliness and Purity of Zion City.

There is not a single criminal, that we know of, in Zion City, not an erring woman that we know of, nothing to make our streets noisy; no blasphemy, no smoking, no filthy communications, no gambling halls, no theaters, no low women and worst men. When we find any there, we set them on the road to Chicago, or somewhere else, where people like that can live. They cannot live in Zion City, because we obey God.

I make my boast in the Lord.

We have proved this Word, that God does Open the Windows of Heaven and pour us out a Blessing, and there has not been room enough to receive it.

Every place in which we have preached in Chicago has been crowded out.

This great Auditorium is often crowded out, and would be every Lord’s Day afternoon if it were not so badly handled.

I do not hesitate to say the heating arrangements today are simply disgraceful and intolerable, making us to have the heat of mid-summer with the thermometer about eighteen above outside. It is a shame!

I have protested against it privately so often that I now protest against it publicly: for I see that thousands of you are suffering from this sweltering heat. I ask the chief usher to immediately inform the manager of this complaint. We have suffered severely from this cause.

There is no sense in the way this place is managed.

At Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Overseer Jane Dowie is conducting the service with a larger white-robed Zion Choir, and nearly as large an audience, as is now present in this Auditorium. Between the two places alone seven services will be held today, with an aggregate of attendances numbering about sixteen thousand. Besides which there are many other Zion Tabernacles in and around this city where many attend.

We have a right to boast in the Lord, and we do it.

We say that “Godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come.”

The Curse of Poverty Would Disappear from This Land If Men Did Not Rob God.

Every one who will give God a tithe and rob God no more, stand. (Many thousands arose.)

There are a number of you standing who were sitting before. Those who are going to continue to be thieves, sit still.

I would not sit there for all the gold of Ophir.

I want you to make a Consecration to God. (Those standing repeated after the General Overseer the following vow.)

Vow to Obey God in Tithing.

By the grace of God I will rob Him no longer. I will pay Him His tithe. I will give my offering. I will bring these into the Storehouse that there may be meat in God’s House, power to extend His Kingdom. For Jesus’ sake.

That is a Vow. Will you keep it?

Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—About three thousand of you earn perhaps an average of at least five hundred dollars a year; that is a million and a half; that would be $150,000 into Zion’s treasury for God from this congregation alone. We get large sums from this source all over the world, and they are constantly increasing.

UNVEILING THE APOSTASY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND HER EPISCOPAL DAUGHTERS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable to this people, and to all to whom these words shall come, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer. (Amen.)

My text is from the 3d verse of the 2d chapter of the 2d Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the Falling Away come first, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition.
APOSTASY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

For many weeks I have been dealing with the apostate churches.

In the introductory lectures I endeavored to make my position plain.

When dealing with Lutheranism, Roman Catholicism and Greek Catholicism I boldly made the admission which I again make, that within all these churches there are multitudes of earnest, godly Christians, to whom nothing which I say applies, except that they are greatly hindered by belonging to such churches, and will be guilty of conscious sin, if they continue to be associated with them, after being enlightened as to their apostate condition.

I am dealing with organizations, not with individuals.

Dangerous Character of Apostasy of the Church of England.

As an organization, the Church of England, "by law established," is a the most Dangerous Form of Apostasy that curses the world today.

In the first place, it inherits all the Apostasy of the Roman and Greek Churches, veiled by an Alleged Reformation which is simply a profound sham, and which is not only false but pernicious and indolent.

The Church of England endeavors to prove its apostolic succession by declaring that three British bishops (Eborius of York, Nestorius of London and Adelphius) were present at the Council of Arles in 314 and subscribed to the Canons.

They will tell you that it is very likely that some from Britain were at the Council of Nice in 325.

Beginning of the Church in England.

The Monk, Augustine, found, when he landed in Great Britain at the end of the sixth century, that there was no church visible. If ever there had been an ancient British Church it had ceased to exist or to be effective, and the Church of Rome had continued to be associated with them, after being enlightened as to their apostate condition.

If he conquered England the Church of Rome should get its part.

It took its part.

William the Conqueror and Rome made the agreement that if he conquered England the Church of Rome should get its part.

The conditions are sketched in a truthful way by Chaucer in his Canterbury Tales, and the Miracle Plays and immoral mummeries which were the mental and spiritual food of the people show the degradation of the Church.

They are terrible stories of lust and shameful degeneracy upon the part of those professing to be servants of God.

As the years rolled on, the degeneracy took a more subtle form.

Double-faced, good men lived, and the worst they knew, but they were so few and feeble that evil was continually triumphant.

The struggle between the barons and the king, which was ended for a time by his signing of the Magna Carta, led to struggles with the Pope.

When King John signed that instrument, England was put under the ban of the Pope, Innocent III., in his Bull of August 15, 1215, the Barons were excommunicated, the Archbishop was suspended, and the Great Charter was declared "null and void, illicit and wicked." That ban has never been removed, for the Magna Carta has never been annulled.

Such high-handed proceedings show how real the interference of the Church of Rome was in English affairs. The Pope went so far as to claim that "England itself belonged to him as a feudal Lord," on the ground that John had surrendered his crown and kingdom to Nicholas, the Pope's Legate, in 1213.

Origin of the Church of England in the Shame of King Henry VIII.

The contention of the Church of Rome for supremacy in England was absolutely successful until the middle of the reign of Henry VIII., when the Church of England assumed its present form; and if there is any more shameful story of lust, hypocrisy, perjury and murder, in all the pages of English History, than that so-called "reformation" in the sixteenth century, I know it not.

Prophecy was the title that was given to Martin Luther by the Pope, and the Church of Rome sought to impose on all England the faith which Luther had bought for the price of his life.

I am dealing with organizations, not with individuals.

Yet it was that King who tore away the Church in England from its acknowledged mother, the Church of Rome.

Cardinal Wolsey was succeeded by Sir T. Moore, Chancellor, who did a great deal to destroy liberty.

With the full concurrence of the King and Bishop he brought to the stake many of those who held with Luther; but eventually the King beheaded him for not repudiating the Papal and maintaining the Royal Supremacy of the Church.

This King was a murderer all the time whether he was a Roman Catholic or a destroyer of Romish claims.

Pope Clement VII., whether from policy or from principle— he might have been from either or from both—absolutely refused to grant King Henry VIII. a divorce from his lawful wife, and queen, Catherine of Aragon—against whose character there was no accusation even by the King. He had simply got tired of her and wanted to marry another woman—Anne Boleyn—whom he afterwards married, divorced and beheaded.

That same process he afterwards followed with Catherine Howard—marriage, divorce, murder. His marriage record is six wives—two murdered, two he divorced, one died, and one outlawed him.

The Roman Apostasy did right, the King did wrong, and out of this was born the Church of England.

Can any honest man say for a moment it was a Church of God?

No! It was simply the offspring of the Brutal Lust of a hypocritical, perjured and murderous King, backed by cowardly priests and by aristocratic and parliamentary thieves, whose greedy eyes were looking for the spoils to be got from their action in declaring that king to be from henceforth "the Head of the Church!"

Can any one blame me when I say that the Church of England was conceived in Iniquity and was born in Sin?

It was Apostate from its birth, and it is Apostate still.

Refusal of Divorce But for One Cause a Good Act.

If there is any Pope whom I profoundly thank it is Pope Clement VII., who was brave enough, I care not from what cause, to deny that divorce.

Refusal of Divorce But for One Cause a Good Act.

If there is any Pope whom I profoundly thank it is Pope Clement VII., who was brave enough, I care not from what cause, to deny that divorce.
forbidden by the Perpetual Head of the Church, our Lord Jesus, the Christ. It is absolutely forbidden by God, and no man can make right that which the Word of God declares to be wrong.

Any one who has a divorce for any other cause, excepting that of fornication, and is married again, is an adulterer.

He must repent and get away from the adulterous association, no matter what the consequences may be; and he must make proper and permanent provision for all who are the innocent victims of his lust.

Royal Supremacy the Crowning Apostasy of the Church of England.

Born in sin, conceived in iniquity, the Church of England, in its present form, showed its Apostasy at the start by subscribing to the supremacy of the Pope. The words of the law today in England are: “That the Church acknowledges the Supremacy of the Crown as that to which the chief government of all estates of the realm, whether ecclesiastical or civil, in all causes doth appertain.”

In the sixteenth century, when the first series of measures was passed by the three estates of the realm, when the vassalage to Rome was broken off, the supremacy of an adulterous, murderous, cruel, thieving monarch was thus substituted for the Supremacy of the Pope. It was leaping out of the frying-pan into the fire. This was the beginning of the Church of England.

The king demanded the acceptance of his claim to supremacy. He demanded a renunciation of allegiance to Rome, and in February and May, 1532, at two convocations, his demand was practically granted.

On May 16, 1532, the convocation promised the king that no new canons should be made or promulgated without his consent, and that a review of the old canons would take place by a body of commissioners, and then only ratified if the king should so hold good.

Thus the complete surrender of the whole code of Church Law was made into the king of England’s hands three hundred and seventy years ago.

Royal supremacy has been the great curse of England above all other causes since that day: for the Christ’s Gospel and the Church He purchased with His blood have been degraded by the numerous ungodly monarchs who have been blasphemously made “the Head of the Church.”

Disolute Character of Present “Head” of the Church of England.

Today a shameful spectacle is exhibited to the world. The present head of the Church of England was for many years a man of notoriously dissolute life as a prince, and has never repented.

If he has repeated he has never told his people of his repentance of the shameful life of abounding wickedness which made his good mother keep him and his set from her court.

I know whereof I speak.

All in England acquainted with the facts, however they may want to toady to King Edward VII., know that what I speak is true.

It is a shame and a scandal to think that a dissolute prince who has been an utter stranger to that Grace, and a trampler upon that Faith, should have been crowned the other day, in Westminster Abbey, with the title of “Defender of the Faith by the Grace of God.”

If there were nothing else, this would be a proof of apostasy. There is no other Head of the Church but Jesus, the Christ, Himself.

The making of all the chief ministers of that church dependent for their creation on that King who was for so long a dissolute prince, is a shame and disgrace intolerable to all true Christians.

But the Apostasy of the Church of England lies deeper than the Royal Supremacy.

I intend to take this matter up, and go into it thoroughly next Lord’s Day without prelude of any kind.

I thank God for the splendid men who have lived, and long suffered, in the Church in England; and who have so stilled and strangled their consciences that they are dead to the sin they have committed in acknowledging any man or woman as the head of the Church.

No one, however, can look at that conglomeration of Latitudinarianism, Evangelical Christianity, Ritualism and Romanism in the Church of England, and not feel that the safety of true religion and the extension of Christianity in the great British Empire, which holds nearly one-third of the population of the world, is dependent upon the destruction of the Church of England as an ecclesiastical and political organization.

Arrangement of King Edward VII.

The Royal Supremacy which Henry VIII. established Edward VII. maintains.

The present king is like his ancestor in many traits of character, as well as in physical appearance. He dares not attempt, however, to do what Henry could do in a darker age, and perhaps has not the desire to do it.

There is no doubt but that the King is an amiable gentleman personally, and very attractive in manner.

As a prince, however, he disgraced the good name that his father, the Prince Consort, Albert the Good, gave him.

I am glad he did not go on the throne as Albert.

Prince Albert was a true Christian, and a good husband, a Royal Consort such as the world never saw before nor has seen since.

Well might Queen Victoria mourn him in the eloquent and pathetic language that came from her heart when he passed away, and that continued to come until she laid down her head to pass away, with the glad thought that she would join him. She left a boy in Edinburgh at the time the Queen and the Royal Family used to spend some time nearly every year at the old Palace of Holyrood, Edinburgh, and, living near there and close to the Queen’s Park where they frequently walked, I saw them often.

I frequently had the loving smile of that good Prince as he walked in that park with his sweet-faced little Queen, who was always literally compelled to look up to him all her life.

I can never forget how good and true and noble that Prince was, and the pride which the Scottish people and the entire Nation felt in his gentle and large Christian spirit, ever striving to please God and do the people good. It was a joy to salute him, and to see the smile of real happiness which he responded, and, looking back, I think we boys put ourselves too often in his way. But he was ever the same. All England, and all Scotland, and all Ireland, and all the world knew him, not only for a noble, uncrowned King, but for a true husband and a wise father who trained his children well in paths of Divine wisdom and virtue. And when I returned to Edinburgh from Australia, years after his departure, I revisited the places where I had often seen him riding on horseback or walking—and it was a pain to think of him as gone.

We who were students in Edinburgh University and other schools of learning, who were desirous of living good lives such as God and all good men approve, felt all the burning sting of shame when the Prince of Wales was threatened by an outraged husband of high rank, at a London club, with horse-whipping, if he dared to express his disgust at the way in which his wife, whom he and his set afterwards ruined and whose name they made a synonym with shame in all England. The Lady Mordaunt divorce scandal made every decent man’s blood boil at the lecherous conduct of the Heir Apparent and his disolute mate, which was only aggravated by his probably compulsory appearance in the witness-box, to formally deny his guilt.

I never met a man who believed him to be innocent: for all the facts showed that he defied all decent conduct in the matter, and his many open amours were constant talk.

Warning of Mr. Gladstone to Edward When He Was Prince of Wales.

Every loyal heart responded to the closing words of an article in a great English newspaper, and day when the Mr. Gladstone, who was premier of the nation at that time. I committed the words to memory at the time, and unless that memory fails me they were to this effect:

Let Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, remember that England will never tolerate another George IV. or Charles II. on the throne, and if he pursues his present disolute course, it will become the duty of her majesty’s ministers to propose to Parliament a change in the succession of the crown.

These brave words were written and similar words spoken by the greatest and best statesman of all the Victorian era, William Ewart Gladstone.

Oh, that God might either give to that man who now nominally reigns as King Edward VII. a change of heart and a repenbence before all his people for the seas of shame through which he dragged us all for many years! May God, in His Infinite Mercy, destroy the Apostate Church that shamefully reverences him as "head," when its ministers well know that he is utterly incompetent to fill any such office.

These are words of one who has lived under the British flag for forty-one years of his life. While I felt it hard, while the Queen lived, to renounce my allegiance to that flag, the moment that she departed I was ready to renounce allegiance to that dissolved Kingdom, and I did it gladly. It was to be free.

Sin of Ministers Who Paillette King Edward's Crimes.

I do not hesitate to say, although they have threatened me in Canada and in England for speaking the truth concerning the King, that the minister of God who does not rebuke sin in high places is a traitor to his God. (Applause.) Instead of rebuking his sin in the Church of England they cover it.

Instead of dealing with him firmly, they have, for many long years, permitted him to do the things that are so shameful that, if I am provoked very much, I will drag out a great many facts concerning his past.

If I get any more impudence from Canada —let the words go across the border —if I get any more impudence from Ottawa, if I get any more impudence from London, from the Court, I will fly, and I will tell the whole truth before I am through. (Applause.) I have been told that LEAVES OF HEALING will be denied transmission in the English Mails, unless I am silent. That does not cause me to fear for a moment; because the Little White Dove could get in by many other windows.

I do not want, for the sake of the amiable Queen who has borne with his shameful life, and of some noble spirits connected with his family and court, to say all, but I am one, perhaps, of the few men who are able to say, and to say knowing them to be true, things that will help to shake that throne. You may be startled at words like these from one who has all his life been under that flag till lately, but I am simply going to voice in America that which is in the hearts of millions upon millions of honest, clean-living people throughout the British Empire. Alas! however, there are few brave enough to speak out.

As God's Messenger and Prophet, in the spirit and power of Elijah the Restorer, it is my Mission to put everything into the Crucible of Truth, and in the Fire of Love refine the Sons of Levi, until they offer unto Jehovah "Offerings in Righteousness." I will obey God, and deliver His Message, until it reaches "every creature," and "makes disciples of all nations," and leads them by Repentance toward God, and by Faith in our Lord Jesus to obey the Christ, and receive that Triune Baptism which is the Seal of the Living God.

I Uterted This Arraignment on British Soil, in London.

You say: "It is all very well to say these things in America; why do you not say them in the King's domain?"

I said them in Melbourne.

I said them in Sydney.

I said them in Adelaide.

I said them in Auckland.

I said them in Wellington.

I said them in London two years ago, in St. Martin's Hall, Trafalgar Square, within a few blocks of Buckingham Palace. That was partly the cause of the trouble there, too. (Laughter.) I did speak the Truth concerning this Apostate and Corrupt Church of England, and its wickedness in proclaiming its dependency by lying in the feet of the monarch, who at that time was the world-honored and venerable Queen Victoria.

May God help me to speak it while I live. (Amen. Applause.)

All who desire to do God's Will, and surrender your hearts to Him, stand and tell Him so. (The greater part of the audience arose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs; to stand for truth, to destroy the works of the Devil, to save sinners, to lead them to Salvation and Healing in the Christ, to do all my duty. Forgive me. Bring me into full fellowship with Thee. Give me strength bracingly to go on for the right. For Jesus' sake, (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?

Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Will you live it?

Audience—"Yes." General Overseer—Then sing the Doxology.

(After the Doxology had been sung the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the Benediction.)

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be your comfort and peace. Amen.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

The Great Physician Heals Hand Crushed Between Heavy Rollers.

749 Howard Street, Detroit, Mich., September 15, 1902.

Dear Overseer Piper:—It is my duty and privilege to add another testimony to the power of God to take away pain and heal a crushed hand when no thought of doctors or liniments is entertained, and God is fully trusted.

I thank God that He saved me and brought me into His Kingdom in the springtime of life, ere I had gone into the ways of sin.

I thank Him that I have learned to trust Him for spirit, soul, and body.

I was employed in a candy factory, and while preparing a machine for a batch of candy, I allowed the fingers of my right hand to touch the rollers which were in motion.

I had drawn and drawn in gradually to the wrist, before I could manage to press the lever that reversed the rollers. I did not hear bones cracking as the pain and thick part of my hand were flattened out.

With no feeling in the hand I turned to wash and make a hasty toilet to go home, when the pain became so great that half a dozen willing hands had to help me put on my coat and put my arm in a sling.

I refused their offer ofwich-hazel, for I knew that would not be trusting God, I knew so well that God would never fail those who put their trust in Him. He had helped me many times before.

I had to go two miles on the street-car to reach my home. I thought that the car had never made so many stops, I was in such agony.

Our first prayer was that God would keep all fear out of our hearts, so we could restfully in Him for an answer to prayer.

In James 5:13, 15 and 16, we read how much an Elder is used of God in the healing of the sick. In obedience to God's command my mother sent to Deaconess Lang, who is in charge of the work there. She was absent from the city, and distant about thirty miles.

My sister called her up by long distance telephone, and she prayed, asking God to manifest His mighty power and willingness to stay the intense pain.

Before my sister returned from the telephone office I knew she had prayed and was answered, for the pain was gone and never troubled me again.

Oh, what a relief it was! We praised God.

It is wonderful! By this time my hand was as large as two hands, and the fingers were spread so we had to open the cuff of my coat four or five inches in order to remove it.

The swelling extended five or six inches above the wrist, and was quite dark in color for a few days.

When Deaconess Lang returned, she came over and we prayed, and the swelling was gone.

My wrist mended rapidly. I was only absent from my work two and one-half weeks.

I have been told by a physician that my hand would either be amputated or lanced with injurious results, had I been trusting in the arm of flesh.

Thank God for our General Overseer who has taught us God's standing Covenant, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

Before coming to Detroit I was healed of what is commonly known as shingles, in answer to the prayer of Dr. Speicher.

I hope this testimony may prove a blessing to others.

I desire to give God all the glory.

Yours in Christian fellowship.

Earle E. Lee.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

REPORTED BY S. D. W., E. S. AND A. W. N.

THROUGH some wondrous alchemy all seasons are good seasons in Zion.

All weathers seem good to them that love God.
The slow-falling rain and gray veil of mist enveloping the world seemed but another beautiful manifestation of God's Love to His children as they wended their way in the early dawn of Lord's Day, November 16th, to Shiloh Tabernacle, there to receive the Message of the Servant of God, Elijah the Restorer, and to give praise to the Father, in testimony, in song and prayer and thanksgiving for His blessings, poured out with such boundless richness.

The ways in which God is manifesting Himself in these latter days were vividly impressed upon the minds and hearts of the audience, as revealed through the testimonies given, and the requests for prayer presented and responded to by the beloved General Overseer during this meeting. The testimonies came with such a rush that at no time were there less than several persons, and sometimes a score, standing upon the floor, awaiting an opportunity to speak.

These testimonies were given as men and women talk when deeply in earnest, straight to the point, simply and in a few words.

They were to Divine Healing received during the past week, of God's Keeping, Saving and Cleansing Power.

They were testimonies to His Grace in blessing body, soul and spirit. They were testimonies of thanksgiving for deliverance from the bonds of apostate churches and for God's guidance in temporal things, as well as spiritual.

Requests for prayer had come from almost every country and nation in the world; from many points in Europe, in Asia and Africa, in Australia and the Islands of the Sea, to all of which requests the Servant of God responded, asking that an especial blessing come to an enquiring one very near to a apostate churches and for God's guidance in temporal things, poured out with such boundless richness.

The whole question at issue between the Apostasy, which is fallen away, and the True Church, which abides upon the Rock, is the difference between saying, hearing, singing, talking, and doing.

He that doeth the Will of God abideth forever.
The Lord Jesus, the Christ, in summing up His own mission, said:

I am come down from heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the Will of Him that sent Me.

He was manifested to destroy the works of the Devil, and to do the work of God.

Mere theorizing about religion, even if it is a good theory, is, in itself, destruction.

Forms Devoid of Power a Curse.

Sound forms which are devoid of Power are oftentimes worse than grievous error.

A church which repeats sound creeds and sings glorious, inspired words, and which is not doing the Will of God, is a greater curse to the world than even an active but mistaken organization.

Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, in summing up His teachings on the Mount, in this wonderful parable of the two builders, presents to us and to the Church in all ages fundamental truths which must ever be kept in mind.

We must not only hear but we must do His Will.

Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the Will of My Father which is in heaven.

Those to Whom the Lord Will Say: "I Never Knew You" Liars.

He has just told us of the numbers who will be rejected in that great day, although they say:

Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by Thy Name, and by Thy Name cast out devils, and by Thy Name do many mighty works?
If the Lord Jesus, the Christ, were to do that, if there were no conflict—if nothing were done, but the people let alone, you know what would follow.

What you see today would follow.

The people have been left alone, and the consequence is that the city of Chicago, into which you are going, there is accommodation for only half a million of the people if every church, Roman Catholic and Protestant, were crowded, and there are more than 2,000,000 people in that city.

The people have been left alone.

It has been considered a proper thing for the Presbyterians to let the Congregationalists alone, for the Congregationalists to let the Baptists alone, for the Baptists to let somebody else alone, for the Roman Catholics to let the rest alone, and everybody to let the Roman Catholics alone; and the consequence is, everybody has been left alone; nothing has been done, and the people have been getting further and further away from God.

The more people are left alone, the more the Devil has control.

You are not to leave people alone—you are to arouse them with the words, “Peace be to this house!” And if they ask what it means, say: “It is a Message from God for thee!”

Zion’s work has been to dig deep, and to see that the foundations of the Christian Catholic Church are upon the Rock.

Zion’s foundation, the foundation of God, is always there.

It is the Unmoving Rock, the unyielding Truth of God.

Finding Jacob’s Well by Digging Deep.

“I believe,” said one traveling in Palestine, “that this is Jacob’s Well."

They dug, and dug, until they finally came upon the evidences of the well.

They got out the filthy mess of muck and mire which had been thrown into that well for generations.

It had been filling up for hundreds and hundreds of years.

At last they got the muck out and the water began to flow, sweet and pure.

Jacob’s Well then yielded just the same sweet water which was there when Jesus said to the woman at the well: “Give Me to drink.”

The well and the water were there.

It came up from those hidden springs under Mount Gerizim, and was as sweet in that field of Shechem as when it was drunk by the multitudes who stood there on Mount Gerizim in the olden time. It was sweet and pure and good.

We are not creating truth.

I am not creating new things, for that which is true is not new, and too often that which is “new” is not true.

Jesus, the Christ, the Eternal Rock.

Jesus, in His teaching, was getting rid of the rabbinical rubbish. He was getting away their foolish theorizing.

They speculated about what the Law meant—how far a man could walk on the Sabbath, and how far he could do; and what he could do, and what he could not do.

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, was dealing with none of these things, because He had come to set aside the whole mass of ceremonials.

A greater than Moses was there.

A greater than Solomon was there; and He dug deep, down below Solomon’s wisdom; below Moses’ wisdom.

He went deep down below the Law which was given at Sinai, and He got right down to the foundation and the Rock.

He touched the inner, deeper Spring of All Things, and revealed Himself as the Rock of Eternal Ages, upon which alone they could build.

Christianity means the Christ, when you get right down to reality. It means the Christ Himself, not creeds, not prayer, not songs, not forms of worship, however beautiful and helpful they may be.

If, after all your digging, searching and working, you are not led to the Rock, where you find you have a solid Foundation for your Eternal Hopes, then the whole thing is a mistake.

Jesus, the Christ, Must be the Foundation and Inspiration of Your Lives.

These wonderful words apply to us in Zion individually and collectively.

Each one must find in the Christ, and in the Christ alone, the Foundation for all his life.
Each one must find in the Christ inspiration for all his life. The spring through which you must be in Him, or else there is no power. This is true of the whole world.

One thing which God is doing in these latter days is causing me to dig a little deeper to find principles upon which alone God can bless Zion largely.

God's Command to Israel, "Thou Shalt Not Borrow."

In the Editorial Notes of the last issue of LEAVES OF HEALING I have taken the people right back to the inspiration which God gave to Moses in the latter days of his life, when, facing the Judgment Seat himself, he caused the people to stand upon Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal, and there in that Vale of Shechem, he gave them the Fundamentals of Life, the Blessings and the Cursings.

The people responded by going right down into it with him. They saw that these were great Eternal Principles upon which alone blessing could come.

That generation obeyed, and in consequence was successful as no other generation was.

The generation which followed got away from that, for they did not obey.

The consequence was that they violated the sound financial principles, with all the other principles, upon which alone God could bestow blessing.

I have come back to those principles now.

Although I have said it before, I now say it again, much more strongly, that in Zion we must rely upon God; we dare not rely upon the world.

There Must be a Consecration of All Our Intellectual and Financial Powers.

Therefore we must appeal to God. We must say to His people under our leadership: "Come, let us be one in God's work and let there be a consecration of all our intellectual and financial powers. All the money in outside interests must be brought in.

You will then see, in the concentration of all these forces in Zion, such a power as the world has never known.

Money which God can bless is not money borrowed from the hands of the fleshly and devilish people who use it for the extension of the kingdom of the Devil, but money honestly earned by people who are living for God.

Money honestly used must make Zion in these latter days, and quickly too, the greatest and most powerful business force in the whole world.

You can see that the contest is now in part a financial struggle. Great financial and business men are endeavoring to bring the whole world under their yoke.

By means of trickery, fraud, chicanery, evasion of laws, and all the powers which they can use to get law-makers and judges on their side, they want to so arrange matters that the whole power of the world will be in their hands.

J. Pierpont Morgan controls affairs to such an extent that if he is absent from home, even a few hours, Wall street trembles.

It troubles the whole financial world; for what would happen if J. Pierpont Morgan died?

The most rickety foundation upon which you can build anything is the life of any one man.

Zion Must Not be Dependent upon the Life of Any Man, No Matter How Great.

If J. Pierpont Morgan died, the people might raise another, but what would the world think then if such another man died? This Church must remember that the mere physical presence of him who now speaks is not the Rock upon which it is founded. We must realize that

The Strength of Zion is in the Ever-present Reality of God Himself.

Nothing less than this is the power. Although invisible, the Christ who was once on earth with His people is with us still in Spirit and in Power, and will be until the Consummation of the Age.

Let us in all things get down to the Rock.

Let us see that every hope that we have on earth, in time and for eternity, in every department of this work, is based upon God.

If there are persons in Zion who still say: "I would invest in Zion, and I would do this, and I would do that," if I were only sure that Dr. Dowie could live forever," they are in great error.

I cannot give you any assurance of my living forever in this little bit of clay.

Furthermore, I hope I will not.

I should be very much troubled if I thought that I would have to live forever in this two hundred pounds of flesh and blood.

I do not like that prospect.

I suppose that it is about as healthy a two hundred pounds as there is among the thousands here this morning in the house.

Nevertheless, it is a poor thing at the very best.

I have to sleep so much.

You may not think that I sleep very much when I tell you that I rose at 5 o'clock on Friday morning and went to bed at 7 o'clock on Saturday morning.

I did this so you could have LEAVES OF HEALING today.

This poor body has its limitations and one of them is that it must sleep.

The thing which Zion wants is that which has brought you here in thousands without seeing my face.

Zion's Power Spiritual.

It is the Spiritual Power of this work which draws its inspiration from the Christ Himself which alone can make it effective.

It was the foundation upon the Eternal Rock that brought you here.

This inspiration will continue whether I continue in the flesh or not.

However, I believe that it is needed that I shall continue for a little while longer in the flesh.

You must see, however, that if you are depending upon my life, your hopes are not on the Rock.

Zion wants something stronger than a man's life.

A man's life in itself may pass away, but if that man has established good, sound principles of government, the work continues.

Some of the greatest enterprises in the world today have not the bodily presence of the man who founded them.

Nevertheless, they are going on.

They are even stronger, and are growing still stronger every day.

Why? Because the man who founded them left good, sound principles, and these principles are being worked out by those who follow.

Remember that if you are not doing the Will of God, you will be swept away like that man who built his house upon the sand.

He that doeth the Will of God abideth forever.

If you cannot trust God, then Zion has no place for you.

We must trust God.

We must get down to the bed-rock, and having got there we must build continuously upon the Rock.

I Am Not Sorry That The Storms Have Come.

The winds will blow; the rain will fall; the tempest will come, and the darkness will gather.

The test for every one of us here must come.

I am not at all sorry that tests have come to Zion.

I am not sorry for the winds which have blown, and for dark clouds which have gathered a hundred times in Zion.

I am glad for these.

The World can see what the result has been.

The winds have blown, the storms have come, the great, swollen waters of all kinds of Iniquity have seethed around us, but when it has all passed and the rains have ceased our house in still standing.

(Appause.)

Thank God!

This is true because it is founded upon the Rock.

I feel that Zion stands by hills surrounded; Zion kept by Power Divine; All her foes shall be confounded, Though the world in arms combine.
LEAVES OF HEALING. 219

Saturday, December 6, 1902.

It is not because of John Alexander Dowie, but it is because it is founded upon the Christ, the Rock of Eternal Ages. (Amen.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Help me truly to repent, to bring forth all the fruits meet for Repentance. Help me fully to believe and to continue to abide in Thee and to do Thy Will. Bless Zion everywhere. Bless us as we go out to do Thy Will. Some go to the home to take care of the little ones and to do the work which is needed to be done. Some go into the streets and lanes, from house to house, carrying the Message. "Peace be to this house." O God, let the Peace be in our hearts, and let the Peace come to all to whom we speak. Be with Thy people everywhere. Grant that Zion Restoration Host throughout the world may be the means of bringing multitudes to God. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, Grant that Zion Restoration Host throughout the world may be the means of bringing multitudes to God. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, and let your whole lives be Thine. Restore these homes. Bless those who go from them into the homes of others. O God, the Message will come to thieves and harlots today; it will come to pleasure-lovers, and lovers of themselves. It will come to the self-righteous and the hypocrite. O God, wherever the Message of God from Zion comes today, let it be a Message of Peace, Purity and Power, for Jesus' sake. When the last storm comes we know that we shall be found in the morning of the Resurrection, resting upon the Eternal Rock. The day is passing by, Eternity draws nigh. Thy coming, O Christ, is not far away. Let us be ready. For Jesus' sake.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. — James 5:16.

The power of the Holy Spirit in saving from sin, healing Disease, and in cleansing and quickening, is daily being manifested in Zion.

After many years of sinful life, multitudes are finding in Zion the saving and quickening Power of the blessed Spirit sent from God the Father.

Furthermore they are being healed from the consequences of Sin.

A righteous man is teaching the Will of God, and praying the prayer of faith.

A merciful, loving and all-wise God is hearing and answering prayer.

It is He who is sending the Spirit in great power into the spirits, souls and bodies of the believers in Zion.

We cannot tell how it is done, but our Father in Heaven knows. We only know it is done.

How very great is the compassion and love of God, our Father, in giving Jesus, the Christ, to die for our sins and their consequences.

How wonderful is the Atonement which has been made!

How good of God to give us a man who could be so taught of Him and filled with His Spirit, that he is able to pray the direct prayer of faith and be answered, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Notes of Thanksgiving? Yes; page after page can be found in Zion.

As often as possible we like to send forth on the wings of the "Little White Dove," in printed words, telling the story, as best we can, of how the prayers of a righteous man in Zion, our General Overseer, are availiing with God.

It was because he faithfully taught the Word of God and thus inspired the prayer of faith, that words like the brief testimonies which now follow can be written:

Our daughter of eleven was healed of a severe attack of the grip in answer to your prayer.

I have been healed of a tumor, and my husband, who has had consumption and had a very bad cough for two weeks after coming here, has been healed.

To God be all the glory!

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, November 3, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:— Peace to thee! I will write you a few lines to thank you for your prayers for me.

Saturday evening, October 25th, I stepped on a big rusty nail, wounding my heel.

I picked the nail out, prayed for my healing, and put a clean cloth on my heel.

On Monday it was red and swollen and very painful.

Elder Dimnos prayed for me, but I could not walk except on my toes.

Tuesday I came to the Divine Healing meeting.

You laid on hands and prayed for me.

Five minutes later I could put my foot down and walk home.

My foot has not troubled me any more.

Praise God for the healing!

I thank you very much for your prayers.

Praying God's richest blessings upon you and your family, I am,

Your brother in the Christ,

THEODORE JENSSY.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, November 26, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Mother says she has great reasons for thanking God today.

She has had no pain in her hand since Monday evening.

The pus which had accumulated, making her hand of such enormous size, is now discharging very freely.

She thanks you, General Overseer, for your prayers, and praises God for her healing.

Praying God's blessing upon you and Zion everywhere, we remain,

Yours faithfully,

H. W. POTTER.

God has given the General Overseer a most faithful companion, who enters heartily into sympathy with him in the teaching, and loyally fills her place in Zion.

She, too, prays the prayer of faith.

The teaching which the General Overseer has given concerning the command of God in connection with tithes and offerings has been effectual.

In almost every mail testimonies come, telling how God has fulfilled His promises and blessed those who have obeyed the command.

KAUKAUNA, WISCONSIN, November 7, 1902.

DEAR OVERSEER JANE DOWIE:—I thank you for your prayers in my behalf and your kind letter of October 28th, 1902.

I was entirely healed of the terrible cough at the time I wrote you to pray for me.

Later I was healed of cramps at the hour set for Zion to pray for me.

We have also been greatly blessed in paying tithes.

When we began paying tithes Mr. Buckman was sick and out of work and we only possessed fifty cents and were greatly in debt.

We tithed our fifty cents, and when that was gone we had another fifty cents.

We never got lower than that.

Mr. Buckman soon got well and went to work for $1.50 per day, which was more than he had earned for some time.

Now he is making from $80 to $84 per month, and we are almost out of debt.

God has been good to us and blessed us greatly.

I do thank Him for the healings and blessings we have received.

Your sister in the Christ,

(MRS.) H. H. BUCKMAN.

Wondrous is it to read words like those in the following letter, which tells the story of how evil spirits have been cast out in answer to the prayers of the General Overseer, although the person be many thousands of miles away.

To God be all the glory, but we thank Him for His faithful servant.

SPRECHER, ZURICH, SWITZERLAND,

October 28, 1902.

DEAR OVERSEER DOWIE:—My heart is filled with praise to God for what He has done for me.

It is now four weeks since He delivered me from the oppression of a demon, which had made my life a torture for many years.

It was not a common demoniacal possession, but much worse than that, a real embodiment of a demon.

In 1884, after I had passed the final examination from the Theological Seminary, I gave my heart to God, and sought the association of Christian people.

Soon after that I was seized with convulsions, which returned every time I attended a prayer-meeting or prayed alone.

A man of God, a believer in Divine Healing, told me then I was possessed of a demon.

I knew that I was a child of God, but that "convention demon" had me wholly in his power, and was determined not to let me go.

Yet through all those innumerable, terrible spells I never lost consciousness, and knew what was going on about me and what was being said.

In November, 1901, the disease advanced to a new stage, for the demon from that time on not only tormented me with the convulsions, but continually spoke out of me, also making the most horrible noises, such as barking, howling and puffing.

Yet I never doubted one moment in God's Power to heal and deliver me, and I held on to His Promises.

If often looked as if the Devil would get complete victory.

I was losing strength physically and spiritually, being misunderstood by many of those who knew me.

Requests for prayer were sent to you, and four of our Zion members here united in praying for
NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD.

Saturday, December 6, 1902.

my deliverance, determined not to give up until the demon was cast out.

God heard, and in answer to yours and their prayers I am set free from the terrible oppression. Thanking you and Zion heartily, and praying God to bless you, I am

Your brother in the Christ, Ernst Kaufmann.

The telegrams come pouring in every week. Just a few words tell of how many are dying, and the prayers of the righteous man are sought, that the hand of death may be stayed.

The General Overseer enters into the presence of God through the prayer of faith, and a few days later a letter comes back which tells of how the unseen Power of God has worked and Satan's power has been destroyed.

Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, November 5, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—Your letter of November 1st received this evening.

In answer to your prayer, George E. Laury was healed by the Power of God.

Praise His Name!

I went to see Mr. Laury in his home Sunday morning, surrounded by his wife and five bright and happy children, and a happier man could not have been found in Stroudsburg.

Your explanations of God's Word have done wonders for that family. I thank God every time I think of you and your words, that He sent you to tell us of these wonderful Promises.

The Word is a satisfying portion to me in these days.

Eight weeks ago a little daughter was born to us and we named her the name of Esther. We are looking forward to the time when we can make our home in Zion City and be in closer fellowship with Zion.

Yours in love,

Chas. G. Mott.

Greenfield, South Dakota, November 14, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with a heart full of gratitude to our Heavenly Father that I write these few lines.

We have so much for which to thank God. Our little boy, Henry, four years of age, has been healed.

He began to grow better after we sent you the telegram, and slept well.

He was weak for a couple of days, but the disease had left him.

We do not know what the sickness was, for we do not have doctors. Nevertheless, our Physician understood all about it, and healed him, and we praise Him for it.

Our dear little son is only four years old, but he knew where to go when he got sick.

We prayed for him, and he himself asked Jesus to come and make him better.

We thank you for your prayers.

May God continue to bless you in the work you have before you, and may many be brought to the Christ.

Yours in the Christ.

(Mrs.) S. A. Benson.

How many times we read the words of testimony which record the mercy of God in sparing mothers to their families, when just at the point of death—doctors and their medicines and operations having utterly failed to do anything other than work a worse injury.

Zion rejoices in the words of the following letter:

2218 Oakland Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, November 16, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—Our little Helen is one year old today, and my wife and I wish to testify to our Heavenly Father's goodness to His children.

My wife had a wonderful deliverance, and we have a healthy child, for which we thank and praise God.

We think it a wonderful deliverance because four years ago, with the help of a doctor, we lost a child, and my wife would have died but for your prayers.

She was unconscious more than two hours and the doctor said that he had done all he could, and that there was no hope of her recovery.

Her mother sent a request to you for prayer, and at the moment you prayed the Lord answered, and she regained consciousness.

We praise God for faith to trust Him in all things, and for His keeping power.

Thanking you for your prayers, and asking God to bless and strengthen you in your labors, I am

Your brother in the Christ, W. B. Clausen.

The world rushes on, forgetting, to a terrible extent, to call upon God for His protection, overruling and controlling Power.

Nevertheless Zion is working. Little by little the truth is being spread, and more and more the people are understanding God and His will.

Every day is adding to the number of those who in all parts of the earth are turning to God with "true hearts" and with a "full assurance of faith."

They pray for themselves in many cases, and are answered.

When they do not receive a direct answer to their own prayers, they seek the cooperation of those of like faith, or they call upon the Church and its officers.

And so the work of God goes on with God and His will.

As soon as I had written the request for prayer she began to improve, and is now able to be about her work. Although I had persecutions to bear I left it with God, and He knew and understood my heart.

I am truly thankful that His Power is stronger than Satan's. I thank you for your prayers, and give God all the glory and praise.

May you be spared many years to work in the Master's service, in my daily prayers for your brother in the Christ. Rebecca Friend.

Baby Healed in Answer to Prayer.

Windom, Minnesota, November 12, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—I am glad to write you of the complete recovery of my baby. She began getting better soon after I wrote you for prayers. She is now well and hearty. Praise God! I do thank you for the interest you have taken so many times in praying and in writing encouraging words to me.

I praise God for His Prophet. Your sister in the Christ, Lettie G. Ward.

"If They Drink Any Deadly Thing, It Shall In No Wise Hurt Them."

Havre, Montana, October 13, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—The Lord has been very good to us all the way and I cannot praise Him enough.

About two months ago my little girl, Pansy, drank some deadly poison. I found her just as she set it down. Her father and a neighbor woman were near but I did not tell them anything about it, as I knew they would want to give her an emetic.

I took her to God and asked Him to deliver her. Praise His Name! In about twenty minutes she began vomiting.

Although she did not appear to be sick, she vomited at intervals for an hour or two and then was at rest again. Oh, if all mothers would only take their children to God, what a blessed world this might be!

Many God bless and keep you, dear General Overseer, and give you especial wisdom in the direction of the great Host you are sending forth. May God bless and strengthen Zion everywhere. Your sister in the Christ, our coming King.

(Mrs.) Matt. S. Weaver.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you never need allow your subscription to lapse.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

SAVED AND QUICKLY HEALED OF A TERRIBLE TUMOR; INSTANTLY HEALED OF INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

By faith in His Name hath His Name made this man strong. This is a story of the Power of Jesus' Name.

How wonderful is that Name! How precious to those who know Him!

In that Name the worlds were created.

In that Name the lowest and most sinful of God's wandering children may be saved, healed, cleansed and blessed.

With the Name of Jesus on their lips, martyrs have calmly and joyfully faced death by fire and sword.

In His Name, multitudes have lived their lives of service, cheerfully doing the daily round of common duties.

In the Name of Jesus the first lispings of infant hearts arise.

In His Name, the aged sing their evening song of praise.

The Name of Jesus has comforted and sustained broken, bleeding hearts in hours of darkest sorrow.

In His Name, the most glorious victories of Faith have been won. The Name of Jesus is all-conquering. It is the Name which is above every name; that in the Name of Jesus every knee should bow. That Name is called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. It was in that mighty Name that this man received the blessing of which he so simply and truthfully tells. He had not made his peace with God.

His body was terribly afflicted.

Under his right arm a huge tumor throbbed with indescribable pain.

In the Name of Jesus and by the Power of the Holy Spirit, he was convicted of sin.

In His Name he repented, confessed his sin and made wrongs right.

Through faith in Jesus, he received Salvation for his sins, and there entered into his heart that Peace which passeth All Understanding.

In obedience to the command of Jesus, the Christ, he was baptized "into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," by a Triune Immersion.

He had then fulfilled all of God's conditions: Repentance, Confession and Restoration, Faith and Obedience.

Prayer was offered for him in the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, in accordance with the Will of God his Heavenly Father. Quickly the terrible tumor, which had been sapping his very life, opened and discharged nearly four gallons of pus.

With that filthy matter his ailment passed away, and he was soon perfectly healed.

Soon, however, the Devil, who is the author of disease, as well as all other evil, attacked him again.

He was bound hand and foot by the excruciating agony of inflammatory rheumatism.

His swollen, tortured body was carried by four men into the prayer-room.

There God's Messenger laid hands upon him and prayed once more to the Father, in the Name of Jesus.

Then, in that All-conquering Name of Jesus, the man of God commanded him to arise and walk.

Instantly the Power of the Holy Spirit passed like an electric current through that diseased body.

With prompt obedience the Witness arose and walked.

He leaped!

With heart overflowing with joy, he praised God His Father, in the Name of Jesus.

He has been walking and working and serving faithfully as a Zion Guard and praising God ever since.

In the Name of Jesus we send forth his wonderful Story to all the ends of the earth.

That story tells the sinful, the sick and the sorrowing everywhere that Jesus' Name avails also for them; for God is no respecter of persons.

He is a loving Father.

It is His joy to save and to heal all who fulfil His conditions and trust Him in the Name of Jesus.

I attended the meetings in Central Zion Tabernacle on May 5th, and received deep conviction for my sins.

I saw that I must repent before the Christ could heal me.

I gave myself over to the Christ before the meeting was over, and felt that I was forgiven.

I returned to Zion Home.

After supper Elder Exceli came to my room and prayed with me, and I received more spiritual blessing.

On Wednesday evening, May 15th, I was baptized in Central Zion Tabernacle.

On the following morning, at 4:30 o'clock, the tumor opened and discharged about three and one-half to four gallons of pus.

In a short time I was fully healed.

During the first two weeks at Zion Home I could not sleep at all on account of the severe pain in the tumor; but God heard and answered prayer so that I was able to sleep.

I also thank Elder Dietrich for his kindness in coming to my room and praying with me; for God heard and answered his prayers and gave me immediate relief from pain.

After I had been at home two weeks, I took another severe chill and was taken down sick with inflammatory rheumatism.

My father then again sent another request for prayer down to the General Overseer, asking him to pray for me again, that I might be able to come to Zion's First Feast of Tabernacles.

My hands and my feet were swollen so that I could not put on my shoes, nor could I walk.

I was taken to the Feast.

Four men carried me on a cot, down to a Divine Healing meeting.

After the meeting I was taken into the prayer-room, and the General Overseer prayed and laid hands upon me.

He told me to walk in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

I immediately began to walk and jump, and went home rejoicing, thanking our Heavenly Father for all His wonderful goodness and mercy.

I pray that He may bless you and your wife, and keep you in this good work for many years to come.

Pray for me that I may be faithful in His service. Your brother in the Christ,

GEORGE SEEWER.

Healed and Blessed in Spirit, Soul and Body.

MEAFORD, ONTARIO, CANADA.

October 23, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—I have received your letter of October 3rd and most sincerely thank you for your prayers.

I thank God for His healing Power through Jesus, our Lord.

I received healing for spirit, soul and body about the time you prayed and such a joy filled my soul, praise His holy Name!

I received strength in my body and have been able to work since.

I give God all the praise.

I pray Him to give you and Overseer Jane Dowie every needed blessing.

Faithfully yours in the Christ,

(Mrs.) Jane McConnell.

Now the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually judged. — 1 Corinthians 2:14.
TO THE OFFICERS, MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION—BELOVED BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE CHRIST:

PEACE TO THEE!

Once more God gives to me the joyful privilege of sending forth my Annual Call to spend the ALL-NIGHT with God, and with all ZION, in Communion, Praise, Prayer, Teaching, Conference and Testimony, from Ten o'clock on the Night of Wednesday, December 31, 1902, until Seven o'clock on the Morning of New Year's Day, 1903.

The Second Year of the Twentieth Century has been one of great Progress in Zion throughout the world, and especially in the beautiful City of Zion, which God has enabled us to establish on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Amongst the Blessings of the year are:

1. ZION'S GREAT DELIVERANCE FROM THE HANDS OF AN UNJUST JUDGE, who aided a perjured villain in his attempt to destroy ZION'S LACE INDUSTRIES. We never lost their control for a moment.

2. THE OPENING OF SHILOH TABERNACLE, at ZION CITY on March 31st, which is ordinarily seated for Five Thousand, Two Hundred persons, and can accommodate Six Thousand on occasion. The building has often been too small for the numbers attending.

3. THE FORMATION OF THE THEOCRATIC PARTY on Monday Evening, April 7th, whose Motto is WHERE GOD RULES MAN PROSPERS.

4. THE LEGAL INCORPORATION OF THE CITY OF ZION on March 31st, and the ELECTION OF THE FIRST MAYOR, ALDERMEN and CITY OFFICERS on April 23d.

5. THE GREATEST PERSONAL SORROW OF OUR LIFE, in the sudden departure of our greatly beloved daughter, ESTHER A. DOWIE, on Wednesday, May 14th, and the BURIAL of her body in ZION CITY on Friday, May 16th, in the presence of a vast concourse of sympathetic friends, thousands of whom knew of the story of her beautiful life and her final Triumph.

Blessed are they that wash their Robes, That they may have the right to come to the Tree of Life, And may enter in by the Gates into the City.

6. THE GREATEST GATHERING OF GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING ever recorded in the History of the CHURCH, when over Six Thousand persons gave Public Testimony on Lord's Day, May 25th, in the Chicago Auditorium.

7. OUR SOLEMN DECLARATION ON THAT OCCASION, AS THE PROPHET FORETOLD BY MOSES, in Deuteronomy 18:15, and spoken of by the Apostle Peter in Acts 3:22.

8. ZION'S SECOND FEAST OF TABERNACLES and GREAT ANNIVERSARY GATHERINGS from July 12th to 22d, which was accompanied by Wondrous Manifestations of the Divine Presence and Power of God.

9. THE ORGANIZATION OF ZION RESTORATION HOST, amidst most impressive scenes, at SHILOH TABERNACLE on Lord's Day, September 21st, when Thousands took the RESTORATION VOW; followed by a splendid Series of Weekly Visits to Chicago, Illinois; Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, and many other cities, by splendidly-organized Seventies, operating under Leaders, assisted by Captains of Tens.

Millions of persons throughout the World have been reached by specially prepared Zion Messages, and the Salutation of the fully Six Thousand Members of the Host, who go in twos from house to house with the Message of the Christ:

“PEACE BE TO THIS HOUSE!”

10. THE WONDERFUL GROWTH OF THE CITY OF ZION, which has now an estimated population of about Eight Thousand, with large Public Buildings, and many hundreds of Private Houses, numbers of which are beautifully finished, and others in course of erection.

11. THE VAST ASSEMBLIES, which continue to gather every Lord's Day afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium, to listen to our Messages as ELIJAH THE RESTORER, and their publication every week to all the world in the pages of LEAVES OF HEALING.

12. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ZION BANNER as a semi-weekly paper, THE VERY LARGE INCREASE IN OUR ISSUE OF LEAVES OF HEALING, BLATTER DER HEILUNG, VOICE FROM ZION, etc., by means of ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, and the sending forth, up to date, of over Two and a Half Millions of Rolls of ZION LITERATURE to all the World by means of ZION LITERATURE MISSION.

13. THE VICTORY, after Months of Conflict with the Newspaper Press of the City of Chicago, which united with others in a desperate, sustained series of attacks upon ZION CITY and its FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

The final result was to establish in the public mind the solidity of Zion's Financial Foundations, and the great value of ZION'S ESTATE, estimated at nearly Twenty-four Millions of Dollars.

All these things have combined to absolutely silence the Press.

It often has been said in business circles that no other Institution in America could have survived that ordeal.

14. THE STEADY, WIDE-SPREAD GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION by means of ZION MESSENGERS in EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA and AUSTRALASIA.

15. THE LARGE ADDITIONS ON EVERY CONTINENT to the Membership of the CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

16. THE WORLD-WIDE PROGRESS made by ZION'S HOST of WOMEN, led by Overseer Jane Dowie, who, in Dorcas Work, and through Zion Maternity Deaconesses, has alleviated the poverty of many thousands of persons, and maintained ZION HOME OF HOPE FOR ERRING WOMEN, and has done good work of every description.

17. THE SPLENDID PROGRESS made by ZION COLLEGE, ZION JUNIOR SCHOOLS, ZION KINDERGARTEN and EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS generally, arrangements being made now for the care and education of over One Thousand, Two Hundred in the CITY of ZION alone.

18. THE SPLENDID GROWTH OF ZION FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

19. THE PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF ZION LACE INDUSTRIES in the completion of a beautiful factory with more than Eight Acres of floor space, the placing of Zion Lace Products with more than Three Hundred of the largest houses in America, and the absolute success of this vast and profitable Industry, the proceeds of which, after due consideration to our employees, will be devoted to the EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

20. THE UNITED PURITY, PEACE, STRENGTH AND STEADY PROGRESS OF ZION along all the lines of Christian Effort, and the Prospects of Immense Increase in the Coming Year, so that it is estimated that within One Year from this date the Population of the CITY OF ZION will be Twenty Thousand.

21. THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION of the ENTIRE PEOPLE, and their loyalty and confidence in God and in us at all times.

22. THESE, and many other Blessings more than we can number, call for our Gathering Together at this ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD, in a spirit of Gratitude and Wonder, and Love and Loyalty to God, so that we may present our Thanksgiving and Worship, recalling His Mighty Works, renewing our Vows to Him and to each other, and receiving Wisdom and Guidance and all needed Grace for the Coming Year.

Our Personal Sorrow has been "swallowed up in Victory!"

Death hath no Triumph where the Christ is Conqueror, and where His Faith and Hope and Love sustain the departed and the bereaved alike.

And so we rejoice with the Ransomed Host of the Redeemed in Heaven, that our Lovely One has entered into the Fulness of God's Life and Light and Endless Love.

We also rejoice in the Ever-present consciousness of His Presence, who said:

Lo, I am with you All the Days,
Even unto the Consummation of the Age.
Conscious of the Guidance of the Holy Spirit, we raise our Prayers and Songs in grateful praise to Him who hath numbered all our Days, given us our Mission on earth, and will, in His own time, receive us into Heaven.

He will enable us to fulfill, as God's Messenger and Prophet, in the Spirit and Power of Elijah, the Glorious Ministry of the "Restoration of All Things whereof God spake by the mouth of His Holy Prophets which have been since the world began."

The Times of this Restoration have gloriously begun.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B]:

A. What do you mean by, "Do you know God's Way of Healing?"

B. I am speaking of the evidence that God has revived the gifts of healing among us, and that therefore we have a way of obtaining healing.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. Several things. First, God's Word, for 'The Word is a ladder by which we ascend to God.' Second, the Name of Jesus, for "He is the Name which has been ordained for the healing of the people." Third, the Power of the Holy Spirit, for "If any man lacks grace to speak, let him bes silent, for he is not given grace to speak, but the power of the Holy Spirit." Fourth, the Blood of Jesus, for "He was wounded for our transgressions, He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows." Fifth, the cross, for "He was crucified, and we are made free; He was overcome and we are made conquerors." Sixth, the Church, for "The church is a hospital to sinners, and a temple to believers." Seventh, the Bible, for "The Bible is a medical book, and a healing medicine for the sick." Eighth, the Church fathers, for "The Church fathers were healers, and their books were healers also." Ninth, the apostles, for "The apostles were healers, and their books were healers also." Tenth, the saints, for "The saints were healers, and their books were healers also." Eleventh, the prophets, for "The prophets were healers, and their books were healers also." Twelfth, the angels, for "The angels were healers, and their books were healers also." Thirteenth, the angels of the Lord, for "The angels of the Lord were healers, and their books were healers also." Fourteenth, the saints who have lived since the world began, for "The saints who have lived since the world began, and are now in glory, were healers, and their books were healers also." Fifteenth, the saints who are now with God, for "The saints who are now with God, and are now in glory, were healers, and their books were healers also."

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses to many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Australia, and elsewhere.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious that I do not possess?

B. It is written: "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of the Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend for meetings which are being held at Zion Tabernacle, corner of Michigan and Elijah Avenue, Zion City, Illinois. All are welcome and there are no charges at any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the gift of God, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help, but the poorest, who have nothing to give, are as heartily welcomed as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them?

B. Yes; after we have satisfied that they are holy, we perform the ceremony in the name of the Lord with the laying on of hands. This is written: "For they lay their hands upon the sick, and the sick shall be healed." (Matthew 10:8.)

A. But are people healed in this way in the days of the apostles?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1000 Michigan avenue, at any Zion Tabernacle, or at Zion City Publishing House, corner Founder boulevard and Elijah Avenue, Zion City, Illinois. But the best that we can do is to write:

B. The Healing of Christ's seamless dress is by all beds of pain; We touch Him in life's throng and press.

Earnestly praying for you, one and all, on every Continent and Island of the Sea, wherever you are scattered, I am,

God's and Thine,

John A. Dowie.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

"O MY LORD, WHAT SHALL BE THE LATTER END OF THESE THINGS?"

AND HE SAID, "GO THY WAY, DANIEL; FOR THE WORDS ARE SHUT UP AND SEALED TILL THE TIME OF THE END.

THE WORDS OF GOD have been "shut up;" the Words of God have been "sealed," and are now being unfolded and revealed, for this is the beginning of the "Time of the End."

But "GO THOU thy way till the End be!" is still the Divine Message.

The promise to us, as to Daniel, is true:
For thou shalt Rest,
And shalt Stand in thy Lot,
At the End of the Days.

FROM EVERY LAND, well nigh, beneath the sun, there constantly pours into Zion City a vast correspondence.
From every part of the world voices are calling to Zion for help and for direction, in these days of unrest and impending world-wide conflict.

THE LONGING for a Salvation that really saves, a Healing that really heals, and a Cleansing that really cleanses spirit, soul and body, through faith in Jesus, the Christ, is becoming deeper and growing more intense every hour.

ONLY GOD CAN SATISFY!

IN the beautiful words of Saint Augustine, we also say:
Thou awakest us to delight in Thy praise;
For Thou madest us for Thyself,
And our heart is restless, until it repose in Thee.

LIVING, as we do, a life of incessant activity, it is our joy to know that every day God awakes us to praise Him.
Every hour and minute we find "repose" in Him for our otherwise restless spirit.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

IN COMMON with all who really love and serve God, whose lives are fully consecrated to His service, we are satisfied with the Divine Answer,

"GO THY WAY!"

God not only spake that word to Daniel, but Jesus loved so much to speak it when here on earth.

IT IS NOT God's Will that we should spend our time in asking questions concerning God's Purposes.

But it is God's Will that we should Go Forward and fulfil His Purposes until the Resting Place is reached, and we stand in our "Lot" at the Consummation of the Age.

ZION HAS BEEN going "through the Gates" of all the Earth and Sea continually during the year that is now closing.

We who are gathering here in this City of Zion have the joy of welcoming continually from all lands those who have come "through the Gates," East, West, North and South, into the City.

WE SHALL have several very important opportunities at the Close of the Year of reviewing the Way in which God has led us.

We have passed through many conflicts and have won many victories through faith in the Christ alone.

And, although it be with tears for loved ones gone before, we shall have great delight in answering the question :

"WHAT HATH GOD WROUGHT?"

We have many reasons for rejoicing in the Harvest which Zion has reaped and gathered "into the Storehouse," to be used in Divine Service in the days to come.

TIME FORBIDS our writing much at present concerning Present Conditions and Future Prospects.

But, since we began the Year with a great conflict with the Devil for the protection of Zion and her Industries, we rejoice to record that the Victory which we then snatched out of the hands of an "Unjust Judge" and a perjured Robber has been fully maintained at the close of the Year.

READERS OF LEAVES OF HEALING have no need for us to remind them that we are referring to the attack made for months upon Zion Lace Industries, at the close of last year and at the beginning of the present year, in the Court of Chancery.

SINCE THAT TIME the great factory buildings, with eight acres of floor space, have been finished, extensive machinery erected, and power from a large Power Plant has been continually produced.

Vast quantities of Beautiful Zion Lace have been produced. But, better still, we have received Orders from more than Four Hundred First-class Houses in many parts of the United States, principally in the largest cities.

Two Hundred Forty (240) persons are now regularly employed in the factory.

THE PRESENT position of Zion Lace Industries is well put in the following report of the principal officers, which we have received this week:

ZION LACE INDUSTRIES.
INCORPORATED.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Administration Building, Zion City, Illinois.

BELIEVED GENERAL OVERSEER:—We desire to call your attention to the fact that the very rapid growth of the Zion Lace Industries, and the success which has crowned the efforts of the managers and salesmen in disposing of the laces, will compel us at once to double the capacity of our factories.

The orders taken by our travelers have been phenomenal.

In the short space of eight weeks we have taken hundreds of orders, and many of these have been given by very large dry-goods houses throughout the United States, representing nearly every state in the Union, and many large cities.

Many large buyers, on seeing our goods, have been convinced of their superior quality and finish.

We are having, at the present time, a large number of inquiries for lace curtains; nearly every letter asking us to send samples of the Zion lace curtains, which we are now manufacturing to our utmost capacity.

We have found it necessary to establish a New York Office, because of the many inquiries from large merchants who handle laces and lace curtains in large quantities.

The demand for laces and lace trimmings is enormous, as indicated by the success that has attended Zion in her Industry; and it is quite evident, if we are to secure our share of the lace trade of this country, WE MUST AT ONCE SECURE ADDITIONAL CAPITAL.

Praying that God will continue to crown your efforts in the extension of His Kingdom,

We are faithfully yours in the Christ's Service,

ARTHUR STEVENSON,
Manager.

HENRY STEVENSON,
Assistant Manager.

CHAS. J. BARNARD,
Treasurer.

THIS REPORT speaks for itself, since it contains:

First—Proof that our lace has been successful in competition with all foreign goods wherever it has been shown, as being superior in quality and finish to the imported article.

Second—That the orders already taken by our travelers, and in sight, will compel us, if we are to execute them, to double the capacity of our factory.

Third—That we are warranted in calling for Large Additional Capital.

WE THEREFORE now present our call, first to all Zion, and, second, to all who are in sympathy with Zion, for the Subscription to our Zion Lace Industries' stock of Several Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Details can be obtained upon application to Deacon Daniel Sloan, Zion City, who is in charge of the Department of Zion Stocks and Securities.

We desire to say that our highest expectations in connection with this Great Industry are being fully realized. It is scarcely possible for us to imagine how it would have been possible for us to have done more within the time and with the resources at our disposal.

We congratulate our Manager, and all his Assistants in every department, from the Designer to the Finisher, on the excellent work they have done.

As to profits, we can and do say that, large as is the interest which we guarantee on Zion Lace Industries' Preferred Stock, we are much more than earning it in profits upon the beautiful fabric which we manufacture.

This is good news to thousands of our friends who have stood by us nobly from the very beginning, and especially during this year of suffering, in connection with these great industries.

We have been sorely tempted to borrow from the world, which has come to our door within the last few weeks with repeated offers to loan us very large sums upon the security of Zion's estate.

One of these was a sum of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars, another of Seventy-five Thousand Dollars; and had we been willing to consider such offers, doubtless many others would have been made.

But it is well known that we have resolved, notwithstanding the stringency in the money market, to receive only from those who are in Zion, or in full sympathy with us, so that the Capital which we invest will produce large incomes for godly people, who will use God's Money in ways that He approves.

The meetings of the week have been large, notwithstanding the cold and stormy weather, with the thermometer as low as four degrees below zero. Winter is now fully upon us.

Building operations, notwithstanding the cold, have gone forward in every part of the city; not only in the inside finishing, but also, in many cases, on outside walls.

It has simply amazed us to see the capacity of our people for work.

All goes forward quietly and without fuss. The City builds up as if by unseen hands, and is an amazement to all who visit it.

Best of all is the fact that the activities of the members of Zion Restoration Host, living in Zion City and in all parts of the land, continue in such a way that we are able to reach hundreds of thousands of persons in their homes every Lord's Day morning, in Chicago and many other cities.

The result of this faithful work is being seen in many ways.

Overseer Jane Dowie and her hundreds of Zion Deaconesses and Dorcas Workers have been fully employed in ministering to the wants of the poor, for whom they have prepared thousands of garments, boots, shoes, stockings, arctics, etc.

The Zion Maternity Deaconesses, at the head of whom Overseer Jane Dowie has placed Elder Abigail T. Speicher, have been doing splendid work.

Good news from far countries continues to come. We can truly say that, while we have many trials and conflicts, we have continuous victories.

Therefore we cry from Zion's Watch-tower, to All the Earth:

"It is well!"

God willing, we shall conduct a Christmas Morning Service in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, on Thursday, December 25th, at 9:30 a.m.

Officers and Choir will please to assemble in the Robing-room not later than 9 o'clock.

We are arranging some happy reminders of the season for our dear children in Zion, and also an entertainment of an innocent, pleasing and profitable character, on Christmas Night.

Concerning the All-Night with God, of which fuller mention is made in our General Letter, on pages 227 to 229, we are informed by Deacon James F. Peters, Superintendent of Zion Transportation Bureau, that several changes have been made by the North-Western Passenger Association for the All-Night Meeting on December 31st.

We therefore ask our readers to note the changes, which set forth additional advantages, especially for Canada, as far
Saturday, December 13, 1902.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

As Toronto, and an extension of time for the purchase of tickets.

Our friends who have read the announcement in our Editorial Notes of last week will please to let the following announcement supersede that of last week.

Friends at a distance will please to read carefully the following notice, which has been handed to us by Deacon James F. Peters, Superintendent of Transportation.

It will be seen that we have secured a one and one-third fare return rate to many parts of the country; but in order to secure advantage of these rates our friends must closely comply with the instructions of Deacon Peters:

RAILROAD RATES TO ZION'S ALL-NIGHT MEETING WITH GOD, DECEMBER 31, 1902, AT ZION CITY, LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Tickets to Zion City may be purchased at any railway ticket-office in the territory of the Western and Central Passenger Association, which includes North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Canada as far as Toronto, at the full fare one way, and may be purchased December 27th to 31st. Certificates are not likely to be honored for the reduced return rate if tickets are purchased after December 31st. Return tickets may be secured in Zion City at one-third of the full fare paid coming, any day after December 31st, up to and including January 5th.

INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT PURCHASING RAILROAD TICKETS.

When you purchase your ticket to Zion City, ask the railroad agent for a Certificate on account of the Convention of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which has been granted, at the rate of one fare and one-third to Zion City, by the above-named Association, which controls such rates, the one-fare rate to be paid coming to Zion City, and the one-third rate to be paid going home. All the railroad ticket-offices have the blank forms of their respective passenger offices to be filled out, signed and stamped, and have been notified in advance that such a rate has been given Zion for this meeting, and can get instructions by telegraph, if a mistake has been made in notifying them, or if they have mistaught their instructions.

Do not ask for a receipt, but insist on having a Certificate, and see that it is stamped and signed in due form by the railroad agent. If they refuse to give such a certificate, then secure one of the officially signed and stamped, ordinary receipts for purchase of ticket.

The first day, upon arriving at Zion City, present this Certificate to me in person, either at session of Convention, or bring it to my office, so that it can be arranged for proper indorsement.

The parties must call in person for their Certificates, January 1st, at my office, Administration Building, Zion City, between 3 and 6 p.m., and they will be given their Certificates, properly attested at the railroad depot, for return tickets at one-third of the full fare.

Those who call after this date will be directed where their Certificates may be obtained. Correspondence and information concerning railroad rates should be addressed to James F. Peters, Superintendent of Transportation.

We have need, everywhere throughout the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to come in Jesus' Name to our God and Father with a deeper Humility, a simpler Faith, a brighter Hope, and a purer Love. May He who alone can supply these Graces enable us to fulfill His Will, and to make such progress in the Divine Life as will give us power to receive, to retain and to use the Larger Resources of every kind which God is preparing for Zion in the Coming Years.

BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of Leaves of Healing or The Zion Banner we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that Leaves of Healing now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as Leaves of Healing had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

We are looking forward to Showers of Blessings upon the approaching All-Night with God in Zion.

All over the World similar Gatherings will be held, allowing for difference of time.
The Church of England, to a large extent, is a mere political machine run in the interests of the dominant party, whatever party that may be. If it is Tory, it is a Tory Church; if it is Whig, it is a Whig Church; if it is Liberal, it is a Liberal Church; if it is Radical, it is a Radical Church, so far as each can make it whilst they are in control of the machinery of Government. . . . Now, what is the fact today? Speaking, for the moment, solely from the political point of view, no words can too severely condemn the shamefulness of that Church pretending to be a Divinely-authorized organization. The fact is that in all its highest offices it is an organization that simply represents the predominant political power of the period, but in its lower offices there is scarcely a single living in the Church of England today that is not a reward for political or personal services or preferences, or that cannot be bought for money.

The "living," the "cures of souls," the "rectorships," etc., in the Church of England, are, in a vast number of cases, matters of secret purchase. How? Well, I will tell you. The right of presentation to these livings lies in the crown, or in the squire, or aristocrat dominating the district.

The people have nothing to do with it. The salary attached to that cure of souls is one connected with the real estate and the Church in that locality. We will say the Earl of Medebottom has ten livings on his various estates. When one of the incumbents becomes aged or sick there is a quiet advertisement put into a certain church paper to the effect that the advowson of a certain church can be purchased through ecclesiastical brokers.

It is alleged that this shameful traffic is going on today in the Church of England. I ask: "Is that the Church of God?" I ask: "Is that in accordance with the Word of God? Such a Church is an apostate, shameful thing, that ought to utterly perish as an organisation, for it is not of God."
ONE by one various so-called "Defenders of the Faith" and "Heads of the Church" of England were made to pass under the search-light of historical truth at the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day afternoon, December 7, 1902.

One by one, from the adulterous and murderous Henry VIII. to his profligate descendant, Edward VII., their records were laid bare. They were, for the most part, records of unutterable shame. As the procession of royal knaves and weaklings passed by, their characters portrayed by the vigorous and vivid word-paint-in of God's Messenger, the blasphemous absurdity of that apostate organization, the Church of England, in bowing at their feet, was shown with such convincing power that righteous indignation burned in the hearts of honest men and women who saw and heard.

Having thus unveiled the terrible apostasy of this church in its external forms and government and having promised on the next Lord's Day to lay bare its diabolically false doctrines, God's Messenger spoke briefly, but with a conciseness which covered a vast field of truth, of the scope and character of the True Church, a Church in the Kingdom of God.

As a prelude to this discourse, the Man of God had read and commented upon the 4th chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians, dealing especially with the subjects of Baptism, the Gifts of the Spirit and the Offices of the Church.

But it was in the Communion of the Lord's Supper that the thousands of Zion found their richest, deepest and most wonderful blessing of the day.

The time was far spent, night had fallen and but a few moments remained for the Ordinance.

But in that few moments there were crowded an outpouring of Spiritual Power; a mighty drawing together of the people by the irresistible cords of Love and of Unity of Purpose in the greatest work God ever gave any people to do; a realization of intimate communion with God, and with His prophet, and with one another; a deepening of Humility, a brightening of Hope, an increase of Faith, a renewing of Courage, a Gift of Divine Wisdom and Strength; a fuller and more complete Consecration to God, and a determination to Go Forward, whatever the cost, in the way in which His Messenger should lead.

Spiritual events silently transpired in individuals who participated in that memorable service, the influence of which will never cease to act in time or throughout all the endless cycles of Eternity.

The little company of three thousand people, gathered together in the holy calm of that Lord's Day evening, was a company of men and women living the Christ-life, working faithfully with hand and brain in their daily labors; but, above all, watching and praying and laboring for the Consummation of the Age, and the coming of the Christ to reign as King.

It was such a company, gathered about a leader sent by God Himself, that, after the parting hymn had been sung, and the parting salutation given, went from that place to their homes, to go forth in the days and weeks to come, to carry, wherever they go, the Message given them by Elijah the Restorer for all men everywhere, "Return ye unto God; the King is coming."

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, December 7, 1902.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the PROCESIONAL.

Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise;
Exalt thy towering head and lift thine eyes;
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day.

See along race thy spacious courts adorn:
See future sons, and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend;
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.

The seas shall waste, the skies to smokedecay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed His Word, His saving power remains;
Thy realms shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us:
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations.
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.
LEAVES OF HEALING.
Saturday, December 13. 1902.

The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.
The General Overseer then said:

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

Let us read in the Inspired Word of God, a portion of the epistle to the Ephesians, 4th chapter:

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling wherewith ye were called.
With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;
Giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling.
One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism.

One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism.
A Triune God, a Triune Faith, a Triune Baptism; Father, Son and Holy Spirit! One God!
Salvation, Healing and Holy Living! One great Triune Faith!
One Baptism into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit! A Triune Immersion.
The first council in the Church that ever permitted sprinkling was that miserable Council of Ravena in the beginning of the fourteenth century, if I remember correctly, 1311.
The man is not a scholar; he is not historically honest who denies the assertion that I make now, that up to that date there never was any authoritative recognition of any other form of Baptism for the whole Church than that by a Triune Immersion.
Sprinkling is an innovation.
One immersion is an innovation.
The Early Fathers, without exception, both in the eastern and western churches—Greek and Latin Fathers—knew of no other Baptism but by a Triune Immersion.

Any other form of baptism is not Baptism.
Sprinkling is not Baptism.
One immersion is not Baptism.
There is only one Baptism.
The spiritual signification of that Baptism, while its outward form must always be remembered, is not into the death of the Christ and remaining there.

Triune Signification of Baptism.

Some little time ago, in this Auditorium, I spoke somewhat earnestly on this subject.

A certain Baptist minister, a one-eyed joker, who has departed from this city, told an inquirer that if the Lord Jesus, the Christ, had died and been buried three times, it would be all right to immerse three times, because Baptism was a symbol of burial into His death, quoting from Romans, "Are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into the Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?"

"You can tell Dr. Dowie," he said, "that that is how we baptize: into His death, and there we stay."
I said: "That is exactly true. They do stay dead. That is just about it. A dead people than the Baptists do not exist."
Baptists know less about Real Baptism than any other denomination.

SCRIPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.

Why did my critic not remember that he only quoted a part of the passage? "Are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into the Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?"—but that is not the end of it.

The most wicked kind of a lie that can ever be told is a half truth, and that is only one-third of a truth.

Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into the Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? We were buried therefore with Him through Baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in Newness of Life.

For if we have become united with Him by the likeness of His death, we shall be also by the likeness of His Resurrection.

Do you not see the Three Things: planted into His death; into His Resurrection, and into the Spirit of His power; dead to sin, alive to God, and endowed with Power for Service? There are the Three Things in Baptism.

Better a Living God than a Dead Baptist. Better some Life than to rest content with Death. If the Christ had died only, where would we be?

The Three Things are linked, and it is simply the meanest kind of a sham to cut off all but the death.

The Triune Spiritual Power of a Triune Baptism lies just there with those who have truly believed and been truly regenerated.

The analogy is clear; the historic fact is there, too.

Those who fight on the other side have to remember that the Church has a history.

Historical Testimony to Triune Immersion.

For century after century there was no other form of Baptism known or permitted, except in such cases as Eunomius, the heretic, in the fourth century, who, in order to show his contempt for the Triune nature of God, declared that Jesus, the Christ, and the Holy Spirit were not parts of the Divine Being.

Therefore he baptized by one immersion. He was expelled from the Church, not merely for that, but for that which nearly always goes with erroneous doctrine, sooner or later, immoral practice. He was a bad man.

Dr. Marriott says:

"Triple Immersion, that is, thrice dipping the head while standing in the water, was the all but universal rule of the Church in early times. Of this we find proof in Africa, in Palestine, in Egypt, at Antioch and Constantinople, in Cappadocia. For the Roman usage, Tertullian indirectly witnesseth in the Second Century; St. Jerome in the Fourth; Leo the Great in the Fifth; Gregory and St. Gregory in the Sixth. Theodolph of Orleans witnesses for the general practice of his time, the close of the Eighth Century. Lastly, the Apostolical Canons, so-called, alike in kind of a sham to cut off all but the death."

That is a triune act by the very nature of the language.

The Christ's Command Means Three Dippings.

I take that handkerchief and say here are three vats—black, blue and yellow, and I will immerse that into the black, into the blue, and into the yellow.

I cannot do it without three dippings; and if there is to be a Baptism, and the form that the Lord Jesus, the Christ, commanded is to be maintained, "into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," it must be by three dippings.

It is just simply quibbling with words to say that one immersion fulfills the requirements of the Divine command.

It takes a Triune God to baptize us into a Triune Faith; because a real Baptism is not the form only, but the Death to Sin, and the Life in God, and the Power for Service.

I hold that Baptism is One of the Seals of the Living God upon a Living Church.

May God give it back to the Church. (Amen.)

I thank God that we have baptized more than 14,000 persons within five and a half years by Triune Immersion.

I also thank God that in this Church there has not been five per cent. of backsliders.

Those who received the Ordinance got a Real Baptism.

They meant it, and they have received what has come. A Real Baptism has a Real Power.

A sham baptism, in the Episcopalian, Greek, Roman Catholic and Lutheran churches teaches the lie of Baptismal Regeneration.

One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of the Christ.

Wherefore he saith,

When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive,

And gave gifts unto men.

The Gifts of the Spirit.

I would like to know how many Gifts He gave.

In that same conference of which I have been hearing this last week, one eminent theolog said about me: "And, you know, he talks as if the Gifts of Healings were a present-day reality. We all know they are not."

Yes, they do, every last one of them.

They have had no experience.

They remind me of another minister in this city who said:

"That man Dowie talks as if the Lord Jesus Christ were here in Chicago, and in this church we know He is not." (Laughter.)

Yes, that is true. Nobody ever found Him there.

But He who said, "Lo, I am with you All the Days even unto the Consummation of the Age," is with us all the days.

As for the Gifts, they are perpetual; 1 Corinthians, 12th chapter, makes that plain.

That chapter begins:

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

At a conference of ministers which I addressed a few years ago, I said: "You know, brethren, you are absolutely ignorant of the Gifts. How many of you can tell me of all the Gifts mentioned in 1 Corinthians, 12th chapter?"

There was not one out of several hundred ministers who could tell me the Nine Gifts of the Spirit, nor their order.

The Gifts are plainly set forth in the Word of Wisdom, the Word of Knowledge, Faith, Gifts of Healings, Workings of Miracles, Prophecy, Discernings of Spirits, Tongues, and Interpretation of Tongues.

There are Nine Gifts. When did God repent of them?

The Gifts of the Spirit Without Repentance.

I well remember when, in a great theological school in Edinburgh, a very learned Protestant, the late Dr. Lindsey Alexander coolly told us that a number of these Gifts had ceased to be; that the necessity for them had ceased, and so they were withdrawn.

I thought that a man, no matter how great and amiable and powerful he was—and he was all that—who knew so little...
Bible, could not be very much of a theologian. I asked leave to enter my caveat, and I entered it.

He had especially spoken against the Gifts of Healings as being in the church.

He said: "First Corinthians, 12th chapter, says that the Gift of Healing is one of the Gifts of the Spirit."

"Admitted."

"The Holy Spirit is in the Church, and all these Gifts are in the Spirit."

"Ergo! The Gifts must be in the Church still, because the Spirit is here still."

There is no getting around so simple a syllogism as that.

It is a long story; but remember that Jesus, the Christ, obtained for His Church is with His Church still.

The question is simply a question of the Consecration and Purity of Life and Faith.

We can call upon God and can qualify the man for the exercise of the Gift.

You will never get it by quibbling, by being afraid to speak out.

What God has said is set in the Church, built into it, is part of it, and is perpetual, just as the offices are perpetual.

Now this, He ascended, what is it but that He also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill all things.

The Christ Fills All Things.

Remember that the Christ with whom we have to do fills all things.

Do not forget that He is the Eternal Logos.

All things came into being by means of Him, and without Him came not into being anything that has come into being.

Of Him, and through Him are all things, and He filleth all things.

Do not bother too much about this babe in the manger business.

Do not bother too much about the dead Christ upon a cross business.

I am glad He was a baby.

I like the Sweet Story of Bethlehem, the loveliest kind of a story; but I am glad He did not stay a baby.

I am glad He died, but I am glad He did not stay dead.

The Christ Not a Babe, a Dead Man or a Bit of Bread.

Oh, what a miserable simulacrum is a church that only has a Christ in three forms: a babe in the manger, an image of that baby in a mother's arms, or a dead man on a crucifix; or, worst of all, a bit of bread.

If it is not idolatry to bow before that bread and say that is God, what is?

That is not the Christ we worship.

He has ascended up on high.

He has received Gifts for men.

He filleth All Things.

All Authority in heaven and on earth has been given unto Him.

He will come and sweep this miserable, dirty little earth clean and reign over it.

He will clean up all things. I would like to have a hand in it, too.

What a delight it will be when the Christ comes to reign in Chicago and clean out that dirty nest in the city hall!

What a delight it will be for Him to get down there to Washington, and send somebody to clean out those people who are drinking, smoking, stinking—doing everything but thinking.

I never was so disgusted in my life as at an opening of the Congress some years ago.

I was expecting to see an august and impressive sight.

I went in a little early and found a crowd of men tilted up in their chairs.

I was almost inclined to call the fire brigade to put out the fire. They were all smoking and spitting around the hall of the legislature.

Make no mistake about this, He filleth All Things.

Perpetuity of the Apostolic Office.

And He gave some to be apostles.

"Oh, yes," you will say, "He gave twelve Apostles, and they are all dead. There are no more. There never were any more than twelve."

Some of these theologs said that I was teaching that the apostolic office must be restored, and that there were only twelve apostles, and they had all died.

Such ignorance gets over me!

Only twelve apostles?

I can prove twenty-one without any difficulty at all.

After Judas Iscariot passed away, did not the Church meet together, and did not the Holy Spirit approve of the election of Matthias, and did not the Holy Spirit come upon Matthias?

Was not he added to the twelve?

The Book says so.

When some other apostles died, can you not see that James, the brother of our Lord, became an apostle? Paul says so.

He was not an apostle while Jesus lived, for he was not a believer.

Strange thing, that Jesus had four brothers, James, Joseph, Simon and Jude, and sisters, and none of them were believers until after. His death and resurrection, when we find His brethren with His mother, with the one hundred and twenty.

James, the brother of our Lord, is found by Paul three years after his conversion.

After he had been in Arabia he comes up to Jerusalem, and he finds Peter, and James, the brother of our Lord; no other apostles did he see.

Was not Paul an apostle?

Voices—"Yes."

Barnabas and Saul Made Apostles.

General Overseer—We had counted fourteen now; so we will put him in as the fifteenth; but you cannot put him in first, for the Acts of the Apostles says:

Now there were at Antioch, in the Church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, the fosterbrother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

And as they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said: Separate Me Barnabas and Saul.

Barnabas came first.

They were separated, and they were ordained, and they became Apostles from that time, eleven years after Paul's conversion.

Barnabas was an Apostle. The Book says it.

Now, you have sixteen.

Then you have Apollos, whom Paul calls an apostle.

He also calls Epaphroditus an apostle; it is translated Messenger, but the word is apostle. There are two more.

Then you have two more mentioned in the last chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, where Paul says:

Apostleship of Andronicus and Junias.

"Salute Andronicus and Junias."

What are they?

He says they are his kinsmen, and fellow-sufferers with him.

He says that they were in the Christ before him.

He says they are of note among the apostles.

If I said you were of note among the architects, or of note among the engineers, I would not mean that you were architects or engineers.

I would mean that you were architects or engineers.

If I said you were of note among them, I would mean you were one of them. There is no other meaning for it.

"Oh, but," you say, "we do not read much about them."

Do you ever read much about Nathaniel?

Do you ever read anything about Bartholomew?

Do you ever read anything about Thaddeus?

What do you read about the great majority of the apostles?

There is not a single word about them, not even in the Acts of the Apostles; but you do read about Andronicus and Junias.

You do read about Epaphroditus and his noble work as an apostle.

"Why do they not put it in Apostles, and not stick in the word Messenger?"

It is apostolos (apostolos), and was not so translated because these miserable translators were afraid of that miserable King James I., who would unfrock them, stand them on their heads, and perhaps take their heads off if they did not do exactly as he liked.

He was the Head of the Church, you know, you miserable Episcopalians.

The Apostolic Office is perpetual.

God has always had apostles, but the Church did not recognize them.
conscience and of God to speak the truth, impugn it who so go counter to our life perhaps.

...in love.

...willing soul would sit in such a frame as this, and sit and sing itself away to everlasting bliss.

...that is the way for the Devil to triumph.

...there is no love so perfect as that which is angry with sin.

...wield a Sword sharper than steel.

...Divine Anger is Pure Love.

...Divine Anger is Pure Love.
Gird your armor on and fight well. Speak the truth in love, and fight the thing out with the Devil every chance. Wherever you see evil raising its head, hit it.

Never Stand upon Ceremony with a Snake.

When I lived in countries where there were lots of snakes, I never stood upon ceremony.

One day while riding in the Australian bush, I met my first death-adder.

In a moment the horse was on his haunches and whirled around with me. If I had not had a tolerably good seat I would have been smashed.

The perspiration burst out upon that horse and ran down it as I beheld it trembling in every limb.

What was it?

I reined it up again, and it would not face it; jumped back again.

Then I saw a death-adder in the dust of the track in the forest, and I got my horse away.

I got a stout stick, and I stood upon no ceremony with the death-adder.

I smashed its head and hung it up there for everybody to see; to warn them to find out the nest if they could.

Do not stand upon ceremony with the Devil. Give him a lick every time he lifts his head. That is the Christian spirit.

Resist the Devil. Fight him.

Fight lies, no matter where they are.

Fight the Good Fight of Faith.

Faith is not junketing, beer and skittles. The Divine Faith, the Faith of God, means a fight, a Good Fight.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice.

There is a Divine Anger and a Devilish Anger. A Divine Anger never hurts anybody, but helps them. It smashes their sin.

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in the Christ forgave you.

Fighting Sin Does Not Mean Cruelty to the Sinner.

For years and years we have cared for scores and hundreds; nameless babes; got them names and homes.

We hate the sin.

A man sitting close to me now was a saloon-keeper. I hate the saloon and made him hate it, too.

He went out and closed up.

That man did what he was told. Now he is happy.

There is no happiness outside of obeying.

Obey God.

Christianity is not a thing to play with. You have to do it; you have to live it.

You have to do the thing God wants you to do.

May God bless His Word, for Jesus' sake. (Amen.)

Prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which all joined in chanting the Disciples' Prayer.

The tithes and offerings were received.

UNVEILING THE APOTASY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND HER EPISCOPAL DAUGHTERS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, be profitable unto this people and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus come again. Amen.

The words that I put in the front of each discourse are these in connection with the Unveiling of the Apocatastasis in the 2d Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians, 2d chapter and at the 3d verse.

TEXT.

Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man of sin be revealed, the Son of Perdition.

Last Lord's Day I spoke concerning the Falling Away in England in connection with the Church of England; after very briefly sketching the origin of the Church of England, I called attention to the facts which proved that it was born in sin; that it was conceived in iniquity.

I spoke of the most shameful travesty of religion that was ever perpetrated upon humanity, when that horrible monster of iniquity, Henry VIII, formed the Church of England.

CRIMES OF THE FIRST "HEAD" OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

Henry VIII. had six wives.

Four of them he divorced, and two of these were beheaded by his orders.

Of the other two, one died, and the other survived him.

Ahl! it is a horrible story! a shameful story!

Pope Clement VII. did right in refusing the divorce which Henry wanted from Catherine of Aragon, against whose character he never even uttered one word of reproach, because he could not.

She loved him with a wonderful devotion.

With a mass of pretentious falsehood, he sought for a divorce that he might marry the strumpet, Anne Boleyn.

He very soon got tired of Anne Boleyn, too, and got a Court to find her guilty of adultery.

He got another court to declare she had never been his wife, and he sent her to the block because she had been his wife and unfaithful.

Look at these shameful contradictions on the part of the Head of the Church and the Defender of the Faith!

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND MUST AND WILL FALL.

I have been taking pains to read into that period again; and I say, before God and man, that that horrible Apostasy must come to pieces; it must fall. It will fall ere many years have passed away.

If the Church of England does not apply to the Parliament of Great Britain for dissolution it will be dissolved; and, perhaps, in the thrones of a revolution. Disestablishment could be effected upon better terms now than in a few years hence.

I have said that the one thing above all others, that made it apparent, that the Church of England was apostate in the sight of God was that it was born apostate, and, immediately after its birth, it proclaimed itself as "the Church of England, established by law," a law of the British Parliament, which is a very different thing from a law of God.

At that time Parliament was practically whatever the King made it.

There was no representation of the people by voting, such as you have today.

A few squires practically settled the whole question of representation.

The King's command and the squires and nobility settled the question as to what Parliament was—a Parliament that would do anything the King wanted. If it did not, he would take care that their tongues would no longer wag in their heads; for Henry VIII. settled spiritual and intellectual difficulties by cutting off the heads of those whose brains did not work as he decreed, and by separating body, soul and spirit when men's spirits did not obey the murderous and lecherous spirits who possessed that monster of iniquity.

THE BEGINNING OF THE APOSTASY IN ROYAL SUPREMACY.

Think of that horrible travesty of Royal Supremacy! The Apostasy began in Royal Supremacy in the time of Constantine the Great, so-called.

There were some things in which he was great. He was more sensible than most of the bishops at the first Council of Nice in 325.

The first thing that they did was to send in complaints against one another. They were so numerous that the Emperor was disgusted, and would not read one of them.

When the Council convened he brought in a brazen fire lit in it, took all the complaints, unopened, put them right into the fire before the Council, and swore before the gods that he had never read one of them.

Then he besought the ecclesiastics to have some sense and to agree together as to what Christianity was.

Thereupon the Athenian and Arian parties went tearing at each other just as if it had been a Quadrennial Methodist Conference in Chicago, with Judge Horton calling for order, and threatening the delegates with the special attentions of the Police, as was the case on a recent occasion. (Laughter.)

The Absurdity of the Royal Title, "Defender of the Faith." Let us say a few more words about the Royal Supremacy, before we leave it.

It began in the Church of England, by Henry VIII. being recognized by Parliament as the "Defender of the Faith." Leo X. gave him that title; that Leo X., who went out Friar Tzetzel to sell indulgences; that Leo X., who outraged the conscience of the whole world by sending out a man to sell indulgences not only to poor sinners who had sinned, but to people who intended to sin.

He made the Church the laughing-stock of the whole earth. That wicked Pope gave Henry VIII. the title of Defender of the Faith, because of his ferocious attack upon Martin Luther and the reformations. Martin Luther got back at him. Luther says: "The King's book has been put forth to his everlasting disgrace. He was a fool for ever stuffing his book with lies and vitriol, reminding the world of nothing more than of Leo or his shadow, and of such fat swine as are mewed in the sty of St. Thomas. . . . Damnable rottenness and worm as he is—he knowingly and wilfully sets himself to compose lies against the Majesty of my King in Heavea." Pope Clement, his successor, who confirmed the title of Defender of the Faith, was the very Pope who uttered the "Supreme Head of the Church of God.

Parliament, however, voted him the title, independent of the Pope.

If any of you have studied the documents of that time, you have seen the ignorance of not only ordinary representatives to the House of Commons, but the ignorance of Peers of the Realm, like the Duke of Suffolk, who could neither spell nor write properly. As for their logic and good sense, it was about with their orthography.

That Parliament was looking out for the spoils. The Church of Rome was being spoiled at the time. That work of Cobbett's, wicked as it is, is a work that will have to be reckoned with yet. He shows what the spoliation was—a terrible story!

That foolish, ignorant Parliament established the Church by law, and declared that Henry VIII. was the Divinely-commissioned "Supreme Head" of the Church of God. Such was the origin of the Church of England! Its establishment was the work of a thief, a liar, a murderer, an adulterer, a villain of the deepest dye. Because the Pope would not brand with shame a woman who had been true to him, he tore the Church of England from its mother, the Church of Rome. In the very matter in which he asked the divorce, on the ground that he could not legally marry her because she had been already married to his brother, the king well knew that the marriage had never been consummated and that he himself had applied to the Pope for the dispensation which made that marriage with Catherine of Aragon.

Henry Willing to Have the Pope Give Him Two Wives.

And there is a worse piece of hypocrisy in addition to all this. King Henry VIII. delegated William Knight to get a dispensation from the Pope to marry again, constante matrimonio (that is, without any divorce from Catherine). Brewer in his history of this period brings out that fact, by the aid of secret correspondence to which he had access, and he adds these words: "Comment is needless." If the Pope would have allowed Henry to marry his niece, ... what then is to be thought of Henry's conscientious scruples?" Shocking! Horrible! Shameful!

Just think of that which has come down from Henry VIII. to Edward VI., and all the head it has ever had has been the monarch of the time. And what kind of "heads" were they? Think of it!

Farce of Edward VI. Being Defender of the Faith and Supreme Head of the Church.

Henry VIII. was succeeded in 1547 by his poor son, Edward VI., in whose name a great many things were done that he knew nothing at all about. He was only nine years old when he began to reign.

He was a sickly boy, and died in 1553, when he was only sixteen years old.

How could he be a defender of the Faith? How could he be a Supreme Head for the Church?

However simple and beautiful his private character might have been, how could he rule the Church of God?

When you get away from him what have you?

You have Mary, well called Bloody Queen Mary.

Restoration of the Roman Catholic Church in England by Bloody Mary.

She began her reign by beheading Lady Jane Grey, who had been proclaimed Queen by her friends. Young, innocent, beautiful and of high character, she was the first victim of Mary's thirst for blood.

But do not forget that Mary was Defender of the Faith and Supreme Head of the Church according to English Law.

You know, if you know anything about the history of the period, how within a few days of her accession, the Roman Catholic Church was re-established.

At every gate of the city of London there was a gallows erected, and it was kept busy. The fires of Smithfield were lit. They were kept busy.

The Tower of London was filled with the best blood of the noblest and purest men and women of England. London and many other cities ran red with the blood of those who died for the Christ, denying the superstitious lies of Rome.

Mary married Philip of Spain.

It was through her that the Armada to invade England took shape, because Philip claimed his right as King afterwards, in the reign of Mary's sister.

She brought about a revival of all the old persecuting nobles and bishops, and King Henry's Church of England very quickly became the Church of Rome.

It had never been really reformed, and nearly all its clergy were eager to submit to Cardinal Pole, do penance, and recognize the supremacy of the Pope and Church of Rome. There has never been any reformation in the Church of England.

During the five years of Mary's reign—1553 to 1558—the Church of England was conducted on Roman Catholic principles.

Where is the boasted continuity of the Church of England? She sent Bishops Latimer and Ridley, and Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury, to be burned to death at Smithfield.

During her brief reign, about three hundred persons were burned to death at the stake, and Burleigh says: "By imprisonment, by .orment, by famine, by fire, almost the number of four hundred were lamentably destroyed."

She destroyed the Church of England; but she was "Defender of the Faith." She was "Supreme Head" of the Church by law established.

What shameful lies these assertions of the Church of England are, and yet, if they do not, in effect, make them, they destroy the "apostolic continuity" upon which they so much rely!

Elizabeth, as "Head" of the Church, an Unutterable Disgrace.

When Mary died, that Amazonian, Elizabeth, an able woman, took the throne.

She was a daughter of Anne Boleyn, declared a bastard by law, on the demand of the king; for her mother was declared never to have been legally married to him.

Yet, when Elizabeth became queen she was "Defender of the Faith," and the "Supreme Head" of the Church.

Are you not ashamed to think of it, Episcopalians in America, who draw your direct existence from the Church of England? You glory in being a part of the Church of England.

Take the responsibility of it. Are you not ashamed?

Think of Elizabeth's reign, from a religious point of view.

Crimes of Elizabeth.

Think of that woman who cursed and swore, cursed a bishop of the time and told him that she could frock him, and she could unfrock him. She reigned from 1558 to 1603.

"Supreme Head" of the Church, was she not? Froude says of her, and he is also her admirer and apostolic as well as accuser, that "she was often insincere, often dishonest, often mean." He sums her up in these words:

Elizabeth never chose a straight road when a crooked was open to her.

For Protestantism Elizabeth never concealed her dislike and contempt... She represented herself to foreign ambassadors as a Roman Catholic, everything except in allegiance to the Papacy. Even for the Church of England, of which she was the supreme governor, she affected no particular respect for... As to the bishops, if they disported her pleasure she threatened to unrock them...

Obligations of honor were not only occasionally forgotten by her, but she did not seem to understand what honor meant.

Think of the woman who could lure Mary, Queen of Scots, to England, by deceit and lying, and then send her to the block!

Mary was not under her government. She had no rights over her at all.

Mary was Queen of the Scots, and should have been dealt with in her own country, if there was to be any dealing with her. Murderess!

Elizabeth hypocritically pretended that she was sorry that her secretary had sent the warrant for her execution, although she could not deny she signed it.

Take the whole story of that horrible reign, splendid from a business point of view, splendid in many ways; a reign when a great many more were made. Elizabeth had no more to do with it, however, than President Roosevelt has to do with the last harvest.

The whole of Elizabeth's reign was that of a subdued Catherine of St. Russia.

She was not openly vicious, as Catherine was, but any one who knows the history of the times must be ashamed to think of her as a Protestant and religious Queen.

But, Church of England people, she was "the Supreme Head" of your Church and "Defender of the Faith."

James the First, a Royal Fool.

When she died, the most conceited creature that ever sat upon a throne followed her—James I. of England and VI. of Scotland.

Do you know anything about him? Have you ever gone into his reign? He reigned from 1603 to 1625.

One of the saddest things is to read that dedication, printed with every copy of the so-called Authorized Version of the Bible.

The translation, full of shameful flattery, is dedicated to James I. by the translators, and they speak of that "bright Occidental Star, Queen Elizabeth."

It is a shame to talk about King James. We in Scotland know a little about him.

We in Scotland know what a murderous villain he was, wanting to impose his unrefined Church of England upon Scotland at the cost of civil and religious liberty, property and life itself.

He imposed it by force and fraud, making it a crime to worship God in any other way than with a Church of England prayer-book in your hand. This bore terrible fruit in later reigns.

Yet it also claimed that he was the "Supreme Head" of the Church, and the "Defender of the Faith."

The Utter Unreliability of Charles I.

When you get beyond him there is Charles I. who reigned from 1625 to 1649. Can any one who knows the facts imagine that man as really "Head" of the Church and Defender of the Faith?

Oliver Cromwell said truly, and many of the king's own supporters said so, that you could not believe one thing that that king said. He broke his word to his Parliament and to his people, to his couriers and to his God.

Tribute to Oliver Cromwell.

Take old Oliver Cromwell if you want an active Defender of the Faith, according to his light, but who recognized the Christ alone as the true Supreme Head of the Church.

You have a master there!

If you want good reading, read Carlyle's "Life and Speeches and Letters and State Papers of Oliver Cromwell," and you will get something worth reading.

That is a glorious book.

Forever and ever it has rehabilitated Cromwell.

His majestic figure stands up amidst all the wretched, miserable simulacra of kings and queens, as a man who knew how to rule in the fear of God. He was a true Protector.

For centuries the Church of England covered his name with obloquy.

It took that hard-headed thinker, that tremendously powerful, intellectual and patient historian, with a keenness of analysis, and a patience in research that has never been surpassed, to give the world a true estimate of Oliver Cromwell.

Young men who have historical reading for these winter nights, get Carlyle's Oliver Cromwell, and you will be enthused as you read the story of a mighty man, not without many faults. He ruled England from 1649 to 1658.

He was no king. He was lord protector for the time being.

Then, who came? Who came next to be Defender of the Faith?

The Unspeakable Debauchery of Charles II.

Are you not ashamed to think of it?

James II. and Nell Gwyn; Charles II. and a bevy of harlots at Whitehall; Charles II. whose name is a synonym for everything that is unclean and unwise.

He claimed to be "Defender of the Faith," and "Supreme Head of the Church of England." whilst he lived like a lecherous villain and brute, an open adulterer, a traitor to his country, and an irreligious hypocrite.

On his death-bed he received the sacrament from Roman Catholic priests, and he left two papers, in his own hand, avowing his rejection of the Church of England of which he pretended to be the Head and Defender.

Are you not ashamed to think of it?

I will not enter into his life; it is too shameful; it is too horrible.

His vices are unmentionable.

His degredation was so deep that all the waters of the Atlantic cannot wash the stain away.

His reign, from 1660 to 1685, was not so bloody as it was filthy, but there was blood with it, too. Scotland can tell you that.

Another Break in the Continuity of the Church of England.

Next came another Roman Catholic who reigned from 1685 until he was driven from his throne in 1689.

James II., a shameful, evil liver, a debauche, came to the throne.

Was he "Defender of the Faith" and "Head" of the Church?

William of Orange had to come over and settle him. Horrible! Disgusting! "Head" of the Church! "Defender of the Faith!"

He was ready to hand over England, bound hand and foot, to Rome again; but a Revolution drove him from England and his throne.

Then Came William III. and Mary.

They reigned from 1689 to 1702. As compared with many of the Stuarts, William of Orange was a good man.

Of course he would never have been on the throne, but for Mary, who was a Stuart.

You have no need for me to go into William and Mary's reign, if you know anything of the history of the times.

As for real, practical, spiritual religion, he did not pretend to have any.

Wickedness and Folly of Anne and the Georges.

Then you come to that extraordinary Queen Anne, who reigned from 1702 to 1714. I do not want to say much about her.

There is not much use bringing out the scandals of that reign. There were many in the Marlborough times.

And she was "Defender of the Faith," "Head" of the Church!

The Four Georges and William IV.

Then you come to the Georges. Then you come to the Georges.

What a mess you have there!

My time does not permit me to enter fully into the Hanoverian dynasty, which extended from 1714 to 1830.

George I. never knew any English, yet he was the "Defender of the Faith," in the English tongue.

George II. was never accused of any piety.
George III. was the best of the lot, and he was insane! (Laughter.)

George IV., a Liar and Debauchee.

George IV. was possibly the biggest liar that ever sat upon a throne. (Laughter.)

George IV. used to tell how he had led a charge of the Guards at the Battle of Waterloo, when the fact was he had never been there.

He created that fable, however, and it grew, and grew, and grew.

He was such an unconscionable liar, that he would go into it in great minuteness.

Then he would turn to the Duke of Wellington and say: “Now, Arthur, is that not true?”

(Laughter.)

That old general would say: “I have often heard your majesty say so.”

You know what he was. His history is too recent for you not to know what a debauchee and ruffian he was.

Surely the histories tell enough of the manner in which he treated Queen Charlotte.

And he was “Head” of the Church and “Defender of the Faith!”

Then you come to William IV., that old sailor,

Now, what is the fact today?

This man ever accused of him as anything is that he said it in a very short time upon the throne.

Good Queen Victoria—But Not a “Head” of the Church.

Then you have the best queen that ever sat upon a throne in any age, Victoria the Good, who reigned from 1837 to 1901.

She was the poor little girl, not out of her teens when she ascended the throne, “Defender of the Faith” and “Head” of the Church.

Did she have the power from God Almighty to rule the Church of God?

What a sham!

You all know, if you know the history of that reign, that the Church was in no sense ruled by her.

The Officers in the Church of England Appointed by Politicians.

The offices are matters of political appointment.

Although perhaps she sometimes exercised a personal pressure, as she was able to do, yet when Gladstone was in power, as Premier, he would select one class of men; but when Disraeli was in power, he would select another class.

The Premier of the day was the real, practical “Head” of the Church of England! What a farce it is!

The Church of England Now a Political Machine.

The Church of England is, to a large extent, a mere political machine, run in the interests of the dominant party, whatever party that may be.

If it is Tory, it is a Tory Church; if it is Whig, it is a Whig Church; if it is Liberal, it is a Liberal Church; if it is Radical, it is a Radical Church, as far as each can make it whilst they are in control of the machinery of government.

The story I have told of the Vicar of Bray is just the thing that covers it all.

These men in the Church of England are all consistent, perfectly consistent.

They are as consistent as that Vicar of Bray.

He had been a Roman Catholic under Henry VIII.

When Henry VIII. quarreled with the Pope, and could not get his divorce, the Vicar of Bray acknowledged the Royal Supremacy and preached against the Pope.

When Mary came upon the throne, and Popery was restored, he pitched into Cranmer, of whom he had previously approved.

When Mary died, and Elizabeth became Queen, he pitched into everything that he had approved in the time of Mary.

Somebody said to him: “You inconsistent rascal! Have you no conscience or consistency?”

He said he had a good conscience and that he was perfectly consistent.

“How can you be consistent?”

“Well,” he said, “I am consistent in this, that whoever is King or Pope, I am Vicar of Bray.” (Laughter.)

A Conscience Never Used.

I think his conscience must have been like one of which I heard last week, a man in Salem, Massachusetts.

He was doing some wicked things, and he was asked if he had any conscience. He said, yes, he had a good conscience.

“How can you have a good conscience?” he was asked.

He admitted all his sins, all his wickedness, all his oppressions and meannesses, but he said, “I have a splendid conscience.”

“What do you mean?”

“Well,” he said, “it is a perfectly good conscience. It is as good as new because I have never used it.” (Laughter.)

It strikes me that such is the ecclesiastical conscience these Church of England people have today; a splendid conscience, but they never use it, or consider the Apostasy of the Church.

The Shameless Purchase of Positions in the Church of England.

Now, what is the fact today?

Seeking, for the moment, solely from the political point of view, no words can too severely condemn the Shamelessness of that Church pretending to be a Divinely authorized organization.

The fact is that in all its highest offices it is an organization that simply represents the predominant political power of the period, but in its lower offices there is scarcely a single living in the Church of England today that is not a reward for political or personal services, or preferences, or that cannot be bought for money.

The “livings,” the “cures of souls,” the “rectories,” etc., in the Church of England, are, in a vast number of cases, matters of secret purchase.

How? Why, well, I will tell you.

The right of presentation to these livings lies in the crown, or in the squire, or aristocrat dominating the district.

The people have nothing to do with it.

The salary attaching to that cure of souls is one connected with the real estate and the Church in that locality.

We will say the Earl of Mudbottom has ten livings on his various estates.

When one of the incumbents becomes aged or sick, there is a quiet advertisement put into a certain church paper to the effect that the advowson of a certain church can be purchased through ecclesiastical brokers.

I desire now to speak carefully.

I know what I am talking about. I looked it up again lately when in London.

There is scarce a living in the Church of England that is not a matter of purchase.

You can go to a broker and purchase a living in advance of the impending death of the vicar, curate or rector.

Ministers of the Church of England Who Seldom Preach.

You can buy curacies for a young man who has been sent to Oxford, and who has taken holy orders, as they are called, although he may be a graceless scamp, as many of them are, who take holy orders; graceless scamps that can scarcely get through their examinations.

In England, when there are four or five sons, the oldest one gets all the property, and the next one they get into the navy, and if there is a fourth, the last one, the fool of the family, they put him into the Church. (Laughter.)

He is educated at Oxford or Cambridge, and gets so-called holy orders.

That young man's parents or guardians can buy for him a living of souls, and he can become rector of Mudbottom at an income of five or ten thousand dollars a year. The people to whom he is to minister have nothing to say about it.

He can put in a curate at a hundred dollars a year, and start off on his travels.

He can shoot, or hunt, or travel, or do anything he likes, and never preach a sermon.

He draws the salary, nevertheless.

You meet these "clergymen" all over the world.

You meet them aboard ship, in trains, in hotels.

These rectors and vicars never preach a sermon, or very, very seldom.

If they do, their sermon is cribbed.

Cribbing of Sermons by Church of England Clergy.

By the way, there are plenty of places in England where sermons are written and paid for by the men who preach them. Sometimes they are too ignorant not to know that these sermons have been copied out of the Judicious Hooker or Bishop Beveridge's works. It is alleged that this shameful traffic of the buying and selling of the livings of souls is going on today in the Church of England.

I ask: Is that the Church of God?

I ask: Is this accordance with the Word of God?

Such a Church is an apostate, shameful thing, that ought to utterly perish as an organization, for it is not of God.

I will not go much further today with the outward and political phase of the case.

I desire, however, before I close, to say that next week I will deal with the fundamental errors of doctrine of the Church of England, as expressed in its own words, in its own formulas. I will discuss the form of Baptism, the form of the visitation of the sick, and unveil the shameful lies that lie at the bottom of the whole system.

I will expose the error of declaring that a poor little babe, who is brought to the church by a sham godfather and a sham godmother and given a sham baptism by sprinkling a little water on its face, is regenerated by the act of a priest.

That falsehood lies at the bottom of the dishonesty and ungodliness which is the heritage of every Church of England child and man and woman.

May God defend the right!

May God help you to see just how far you American Episcopalians are in the same boat.

With very little alteration you are with the Church of England.

The Church of England Not Protestant.

I do not wonder that at a recent conference in one of the States they proposed to sweep away the word Protestant Episcopal.

The man who submitted that motion is right.

The Church of England has never been Protestant. It never had any Protestantism about it.

The Church of England never protested against Roman Catholic errors.

Henry VIII, protested against Luther and maintained the Pope; and the Church of England has never been reformed.

The Ritualistic or Romanizing party of the Church of England is the more consistent.

The people of England have no alternative. If they want to get a Protestant Church they will simply have to disestablish the Church of England.

Although they pretend to be Protestant, they have no right to the name.

They never protested against anything, in their beginning, except against the Pope's rejection of Henry's demand for an illegal divorce, and that protest was a disgrace.

I say these plain, simple words, because in America you have to want to get a Protestant Church they will simply have to disestablish the Church of England.

Every Episcopal Church in America is really a part of the Church of England.

Every Episcopal Church which owns the motherhood of the Church of England is a part of that Apostasy.

The fundamental doctrinal errors which I intend to point out next week belong as much to the Protestant Episcopal Church of America as to the Church of England in the British Empire.

Recognition of Slacircty of Many in the Church of England.

Remember I am not fighting men.

I am fighting systems.

I recognize, and I appeal to you to remember that I recognize, the scholarship, the Christianity, the integrity and the honesty, up to a certain point, of large numbers of persons in the Church of England.

They were born in it. They know nothing else. They have never considered the serious, shameful crimes that lay at its beginning, and the errors that are now in existence within it.

There are, as in the Church of Rome, multitudes in the Church of England who are seeking and finding God, and are endeavoring to live the life of God within these communions.

I am striking at systems, and praying God to destroy every organization that impedes the progress of the Kingdom of God. (Amen.)

If we should impede it, may God destroy our organization.

I am praying that God will help me to make this point clear.

I owe a great debt to the scholarship of many in the Church of England.

None of us who are readers of the great theological works of the past but are greatly indebted to the able translators and able investigators who have put before us the splendid result of their researches.

I am thinking now, especially, of the magnificent scholarship shown both by the Church of England and the Church of Scotland in connection with such work as the translation of the antenicene and postnicene fathers.

I think that alone constitutes a great debt, for which they are to be most highly commended.

All men must thank God for the great and splendid Christian scholarship of many in the Church of England, and their undoubted piety according to their light.

They are victims of a system into which they came by inheritance.

"The times of ignorance," however, "God overlookt, but now He commandeth" the Church everywhere to repent, to get out of evil organizations and to be honest.

Organizations and Systems May Perish; Principles Endure.

You cannot reach the people in any other way than by honesty.

Last week Zion spoke, through her various Elders and myself, to more than sixteen thousand people, and visited in the homes of nearly two hundred thousand.

At least a hundred thousand persons were reached in their homes today by Zion Restoration Host.

I heartily thank God for our organization, but I am not wedded to it.

I do not care a snap about the organization, no matter how good it may be, if it does not effect the purposes for which the organization exists.

"That form of government is best which is best administered." You may have splendid results in very defective organizations.

Of course, the nearer an organization approximates the Christ's own command and the apostolic practice, the better; but the man who would lead the people today to do the work of God must be no slave to past methods.

Principles are eternal; Modes of Operation change.

We now have powers to do what they never could have thought of doing in the olden time. We can carry that Message to the people by the printing press—and soon by the phonograph, and in a thousand ways.

I believe that these are the days when the Hidings of God's Power are being brought forth in many ways.

I will not be trammeled by any modes or forms that would weaken power.

Forms of Godliness that have no power are a curse.

Into every form we must put the Power; the Power that does the work and reaches the people.

The people must be saved. A people must be prepared for the coming of the King.

The Kingdom Is Greater Than the Church.

The Church of the Living God must remember that it is not the whole thing; that the Kingdom of God is greater than the Church; that the Church is, after all, only an ecclesia, that is a people gathered out of the Kingdom.

You cannot bring into the Church those who have not been brought into God's Kingdom, but the Kingdom is greater than the Church.

I thank God that there are multitudes of honest men who fear God and work Righteousness who are in God's Kingdom, as was Cornelius, and yet have never known of Jesus. The Power of the Gospel is coming to them, however, and men who are desirous to live in God's Kingdom and be under God's Rule are to be found in millions in this world.

Broad Scope of the Church.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion must reach them.

This Church must show them that those who belong to the Kingdom may likewise enter into the Church and share in the blessings that have come to us, who have entered into the Kingdom by Repentance, by Faith, by Holy Living.

Then let the Church be broader than ever it has been before; taking part not only in ecclesiastical, not only in the spiritual life that affects the family and the individual conscience and spirit, but carrying its activities into education, into commerce, into politics.
Let it be remembered that the Kingdom of God has to cover the necessities of man in every way and at every point. This we shall do, if God permit.

There are the Times of the Restoration of All Things, when the Kingdom of God is to be established. Before that Kingdom, everything else must go. A Pure Church can be the outcome only of the Restoration of the Kingdom.

The Gospel of the Kingdom of God is the great thing: Repentance, Faith, Holy Living. People can come into the Church which teaches and lives that Gospel, and be powerful. Then they can go forth into the great fighting hosts of the Church.

The Christ Came to Establish the Kingdom; the Church Is Secondary.

Great and powerful as the Church is, the Christ made little of it, compared to the Kingdom. He came to establish the Kingdom. In all of the Gospel according to John the word Church is not once used. In all of the Gospel according to Luke, the word Church is not once used. In all of the Gospel according to Mark, the Word Church is not once used, and it is only twice used in the Gospel according to Matthew. There it is used in the sense of the term, “gathered out” of something, the gathering out of the Kingdom of God of those who are founded upon the Rock, Jesus, the Christ.

The Christ’s parables and His teachings were all connected with the establishment of the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Church idea, great as it is, is narrow and small compared to that of the Kingdom of God. We are a Church, but we are a Church in Zion, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. Never forget that the word Zion stands, in all the prophetic Word, for the Kingdom of God. We are a Church within the Kingdom, but the Kingdom is greater than the Church.

May God bring us all into His Kingdom. All who desire to enter into His Kingdom, or, being there, desire to grow in His Kingdom, stand and tell Him so. (Nearly all arose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus’ Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may trust Thee, love Thee, serve Thee; in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

Now, did you mean it?

Audience—Yes.

General Overseer—Now, you must live it.

The audience was then dismissed, and those who wished to partake of the Lord’s Supper gathered on the ground floor of the Auditorium.

About three thousand Christians had thus gathered about the Table of the Lord, when the General Overseer, after a season of silent prayer and the soft singing of the hymn, “Close to Thee,” took up the Sacred Elements, and spoke as follows, while the people listened with the deepest emotion:

Unique Character of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I dare say, truthfully, that no more remarkable religious movement has marked the close of the nineteenth century or the beginning of the twentieth than that of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We have reason to thank God. Yet with a Deeper Humility, with a Purger Faith, with a Brighter Hope, with Increased Wisdom, with Greater Knowledge, with Greater Tenderness and Consideration for all who sin and sorrow and suffer, and for all who are the victims of the Apostasy, let us Go Forward.

While we smite the wrong, may God impress it deeply upon the world there is now a chance to win and bring children to their fathers, and fathers to their children, and to unite the Home with the Nation into Loving Obedience to God.

Effect of a Rejection of Elijah’s Message.

If this Last Message is rejected, then Jehovah comes with the Ban; with the Curse.

*The remainder of this Report has not been revised by the General Overseer.

I have nothing to do with the consequences, out I want to make my Message plain.

I am laboring to lay, in these Unveilings of the Apostasies, the foundation for many things that can only be said, if I prove my case: that Christendom, as a whole, is apostate.

If that is fairly proved by historical facts in the past and in the present; by sound reason; by the Scriptures; by that which appeals to all men, the Voice of unanswerable Truth, then, I will have the right to call the Nations to Repentance.

Then I will have a right to command the rulers of the world to bow at the feet of the Christ, the King, and prepare the way for his coming.

That we will do most surely, and we will not be content with doing it upon this Continent.

We will do it wherever we can get a footing with ’Zion Literature, and with our workers.

When the time has come and Zion City is well established, I desire in person to Carry that Message to All the Great Capitals of the World.

Oh, that God might help us to die to sin, and die to self, and anywhere any of us can better extend the Kingdom of God by our life or by our death, let us be ready at any moment.

May this spirit be in all the homes in all Zion everywhere. May God bless you all.

PRAYER BY GENERAL OVERSEEER.

Father, we present to Thee our dear people. They are Thine. Thou gatherest them to us out of the world. They have come from the east and from the west, and from the north and from the south, and they are only the forerunners of thousands and tens of thousands to follow.

O God, Thou art shaking the very foundations of thrones and of dominions. O God, there is so much to do! Help us at this Ordinance today, the last of this year, excepting at the midnight supper. O God, help us to consecrate ourselves anew in the dying year, the last hour of the twelve, while the sands of time are running out.

O God, help Zion reach the people in Chicago, in the world.

O God, send forth Thy Light and Thy Truth. Send it forth in the pages of Leaves of Healing.

Make us a self-denying people, willing to obey Thee, that many may get the blessing.

Now, Father, hear us. Bless us. Bless those who have recently entered into our fellowship, whom we shall receive formally at an early date. O God, greatly bless them. Bless Zion everywhere throughout the world, in all the lands. Let sin be put away. Let power to overcome be given. Make our young men and maidens, sons and daughters of Zion, as the Word of God has said, comparable to fine gold. God bless them.

Make us a pure people. Accept gratitude for the broken body of our Blessed Redeemer, broken for us; for the blood shed, and shed for us, and for the sins of the whole world.

Oh, what a love! that brought the Son of God into the son of man to bleed and die for sinners as we! We praise Thee for that love.

Let it ever increasingly reach our hearts and make us to be willing to love as He loves; to live as He lives; and, if need be, to die as He died. For Jesus' sake.

Beloved Brothers and Sisters, I thank God for the privilege of ministering to you today.

I hope God will bless the discourse of this afternoon.

I believe He will.

I am delivering these discourses, not merely for you, but for that wide audience throughout the world, which reads them in Leaves of Healing.

The Ordinance was then administered by the General Overseer, the Overseers, Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, the leader reading appropriate portions of the Word of God and leading the congregation in the singing of the hymns which Zion loves to sing on such occasions.

After a few brief words in closing, the General Overseer and his people sang the parting Hymn, “O God, be with you till we meet again,” and this never-to-be-forgotten service was brought to an end by Zion’s Salutation and Response and the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is that calleth you, who also will do the Grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

For the first time during the season the frost had left his icy breath on field and forest, and covered with white the ground; had shaken down the vagrant leaves and stilled the upspringing flowers; and skies seemed gray and cold and heavy with their portent of coming winter, as the people of God gathered in the early dawn of Lord's Day morning, November 23, 1902.

From every point of the compass they came, first singly, then in twos and threes, and then in groups, and finally a steady stream of people flowed into Shiloh Tabernacle, a thousand alone of Zion Restoration Host being present when the beloved leader of this multitude began the delivery of his Message.

And the sunshine in the hearts of these children of God, as reflected in their faces, seemed all the brighter because of the grayness outside.

"The frost has its message, as well as the sunshine," said the beloved General Overseer, seeming to look into the hearts of his people and reading them as one does an open book; and the happy "Peace to thee" was as cheery as when summer brightness flooded the earth.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois.
Lord's Day Morning, November 23, 1902.

Service opened by the Congregation singing Hymn No. 4:
Praise Him, praise Him, Jesus our beloved Redeemer!
Sing, 0, 0, 0, 0, Praise Him, His wonderful love proclaim!

Hail Him! Hail Him! highest archangels in glory;
Strength and honor give to His holy Name!
Let Him be praised for His goodness;
In His arms He carries them all day long;
Praise Him, praise Him, tell of His excellent greatness;
Praise Him, praise Him, ever in joyful song!

The General Overseer then read from the 7th chapter of Matthew.

After prayer had been offered, a number of testimonies were given, following which the General Overseer delivered the morning discourse.

INVICTION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, for the sake of Jesus, our Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer.

I desire to say something in addition to that which I have previously said in connection with the closing words of the teaching of our Lord Jesus.

The teachings of Jesus on the Mount were summed up in the wonderful, though simple parable of the two builders.

I am glad that we have light thrown upon it by Luke.

In all these discourses of Jesus we have but the briefest outline.

While the outline of Luke is even briefer than Matthew, there are several points in connection with that parable that are differently and in some respects better expressed in Luke's Gospel.

For one thing, the building upon the rock is not represented as if the rock were visible.

The Master said that the man who built his house upon the rock dugged deep.

These two houses might have been side by side.
The one built upon the sand and the other upon the rock.
The sand was over the rock.
The wise man wanted a foundation and dugged deep, that it might rest upon the rock, while his neighbor, the foolish man, mocking at his labor and pains, simply built upon the sand.

Digging Deep.

Digging deep is the thing I desire to talk about this morning.
You will not find the Rock on the surface.
You will have to dig deep in your own heart and life.
Digging deep represents a true Repentance and a bringing forth of fruits meet for Repentance.

One form of it is getting below the fakeness and the sins of a past life.
If you are to get to the Rock, you have to go deeper than the philosophies and religious systems which abound around us.
For the most part, very little is demanded of Christians in the majority of organizations calling themselves churches.

These are content with professions, and exceedingly slack in connection with practice.

I tell you frankly that there are a vast number of men in the world today whose morality is a great deal better than the Christianity of nine-tenths of the professing Christians.

Persistent Liars Who Profess Christianity.

There are bishops, for instance, in that Methodist church, who have told the most shameful and abominable lies about me, who pose as men of the highest piety.
Take, for example, Bishop Thomason, who recently told the most disgraceful lies concerning Zion and myself, and keeps repeating them, although he has been informed again and again, and knows perfectly well that they are lies.

One awful night of destruction the perilous floods came, the One called for destruction.
The law of its maker was written in his heart; and they were by the spirit of falsehood that lies at the bottom of all Evil.
It includes the spirit of deceit which causes you to attempt to deceive yourselves and to lead you to believe that after you are Christians you can do evil things and then obtain forgiveness.

Fate of Hypocritical Men, Institutions and Nations.

"Be not deceived. God is not mocked."
The man who willfully sins after he has received the knowledge of God, stands in a terrible condition, in awful peril.
If that man is saved, he is saved as by fire.
Usually a man who does that goes down, down, down, although he is still maintaining his outward profession of Christianity, until one day the profession goes, and it is found that his house has been upon the sand.
One awful night of destruction the perilous floods came, the storms beat upon his house, and the great fabric passed away.
It was founded upon the sand.
Empires and churches have risen and passed away, for they were not founded upon the Rock. Religious systems have been established and have gone, and all that you can find of them now is a few miserable, wretched monuments left in the deserts. Nothing will abide except that which is true. That only is eternal which is true. The thing that is false must perish. The man who tells lies must be damned. No man can go on in a life of lying and be saved. If it were so, then God would be the protector of liars. Peter said truly: Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness is acceptable to Him. That truth which our Lord Jesus, the Christ, spoke at the well of Sychar, He reiterates today. God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth. For such doth the Father seek to be His worshipers.

Seven Things God Hates.

There are seven things which God hates. I have put them in a very prominent place at the head of the editorials in yesterday's issue of LEAVES OF HEALING. There be six things which Jehovah hates; yea, seven which are an abomination unto Him: Naughtly Eyes; An Idolatrous Heart; A Lying Tongue; An Heart that deviseth wicked Imaginations; Feet that be Swift in Running to mischief; A False Witness that Utters Lies; And he that Soweth Discord among Brethren.

Solomon never invented that. Solomon, Divinely-inspired, wrote that, and it is true. Remember these seven things, which are an abomination to the Lord, and see to it that none of them are to be found in your life. You will see that there are six of these things which are common among professing Christians. However, no people can be guilty of these six, and the seventh, the shedding of innocent blood, not follow in one form or another.

Be Sure You Are upon the Rock.

My warning to you this morning is this, be quite sure where your house rests. You cannot rest short of the Rock. If your house is not upon the Rock, you had better let the house which you have built go, and start afresh. You had better reestablish your Christian character upon a foundation which is Divine, and get rid of the last bit of falsehood. I am perfectly persuaded that Zion's strength has never rested in anything but in God and in His Truth. The strength of this movement has been its essential truth. God has shown to the people that here truth was spoken and lived. I would not care if everything in connection with Zion were unveiled and opened to the whole world. I have done right according to my light. Truth is never afraid of investigation. I have carefully preserved, in connection with Zion's business, those things which are right.

Necessity of Concealing Plans from the Devil.

If I were going to establish another city in any part of this continent, do you think that I would be like General Booth, and in every city into which I went drive first to the press club and tell them my plans, and ask them to cooperate with me? Why, the thing is a perfect farce. If a man is going to accomplish much, he has to conceal his plans from the Devil. I do not propose to let the Devil know a single plan until I spring it upon him.

I am going to let the Devil know my plans by putting them in operation. Not until then will I let him know. God's plans are not revealed because it is Divinely wise that they should not be.

One of the foolish things is the idea of letting the world know your plans. A man is a fool who tells his enemies his plans. The Devil is our enemy, and all his children are our enemies. They are very numerous. There are some of them in Zion City this morning. If I had known it last night, they would not be here now. They are nosing around with an idea of finding out Zion's plans. You cannot find out Zion's plans by going to Elijah Hospice or Zion Administration Building. You have got to find Zion's plans right down here in this heart, and in this head, and you can only do that when I tell them to you. (Laughter. Applause.) Some of these reporters are around this morning, thinking they can pick up Zion's plans by talking to night-clerks in Elijah Hospice.

There is this one thing about Zion's plans; everything that Zion is doing is as open as the sky; but the things which Zion is going to do are locked up in this breast. I am glad that the plans which God has for us are locked up in His breast.

Let us be true. I do not believe for a single moment that any man is true who goes about the world, driving to press clubs and saying he is going to tell them all his plans. He is false, because there are many things which he does not tell the press clubs.

My Attitude Toward the Lying Press Is One of Open Hostility.

There is no man in business anywhere who would tell the press clubs all his plans, not even William Booth. Do not tell lies. I never shrink from stating my attitude to the press. I will tell them to their face that they are the worst and vilest institution in America. The Daily News hit it exactly when it said: "When Dowie gave his commission most of us will have to get off this earth." That is right. Unless they repent, they will have to get off the earth. If I had known that one of them was in the City last night, I would have gotten him off Zion's earth very quickly. We have no Hospices for stinkpots and beerpots. They can find them in Waukegan, Chicago and Milwaukee. We have no place at all in Zion City for people who do not serve God, no matter how wealthy they may be. People who want to do right and are sincerely desirous of doing right are welcome. Zion City is for God's people. There is not a foot of it in which I will allow a devil to rest for one single night, if I can help it.

Foundation Rock of Christianity Is Jesus, the Christ, the Truth.

The great thing in connection with this foundation is Truth. Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, said: For such doth the Father seek to be His worshipers. God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth. He said that the way to the Father was the Christ, who is the Truth and the Life. No liar can get to the Father, because Truth bars the way. He must repeat. He must come to the Christ, who is the Way, truthfully opening his heart, confessing his sin. The man who wants to conceal anything has his way barred. The Christ is the Way, the Truth and the Life, and you cannot get the Life until you have come to the Truth. Beloved friends, let us get Truth deeper into our hearts every day, which makes us sure of being on the Rock and sets us free. Ye shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free.

There Is Bondage Wherever a Man Is False to God.

Wherever a man is false to God he will be false to his neighbor. You cannot be true to God and false to your neighbor. If you are false to God you will be false to every one. This is what I want you to carry with you today. Ask God to make it quite clear where you are. Get right down to the naked Rock. There are some of you who are not sure of your position.
The fact that you are not sure makes you to be seekers after other things. When a man is sure, he does not running about the world searching for the thing he has.

Those Who Have the Truth Have no Time for Liars.

If you have the Truth, hold on to it, live it, and do not fool around with liars. You will find that that has a very practical application. Any one who has time to fool around with liars had better employ that time somewhere else than in Zion.

God claims from you and from me the consecration of all our time, and all our talents for Himself. He will not have us spending our time and our talents in fooling with the Devil, or in fooling around places where men tell lies. Men who go and deliberately listen to teachers whom they know tell lies, I class with those teachers, unless I can find some reason to the contrary. It makes me exceedingly dubious of any in Zion who, knowing where they were going, went to see a man whom they knew had lied, and lied about Zion.

He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth. He that thinks he can be with me and spends time with my enemy, I do not trust.

I am that kind of soldier that if I find that any of my soldiers have crossed the line during the night, and have been hobnobbing and getting tobacco from the rebels, they do not fight in my ranks the next morning. When I find that any of my people have gone across the line and have been hobnobbing with the enemy, I want them to stay on that side of the line. You may be true, but you have no right to be found with those who are false.

And they were astonished at His teaching; for He taught them as having authority, and not as the Scribes.

I teach you as one having authority today.

May God bless you.

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager.

---

The congregation rose and repeated after the General Overseer the following PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus’ Name we come to Thee. Take us as we are. Make us what we ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give us power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give us Thy Holy Spirit that we may be separate from sin and separate from sinners; that we may live lives of truth, and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of Darkness. In God, we have plenty to do without going into such paths. Give us power to do our work. Bless Zion Restoration House today and those whither it carries home, attending to duty there. For Jesus’ sake. Amen.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; that so we may be found at His coming in the glory of His Father, with all the holy angels.

Men who go and deliberately listen to teachers whom they know tell lies, I class with those teachers, unless I can find some reason to the contrary. It makes me exceedingly dubious of any in Zion who, knowing where they were going, went to see a man whom they knew had lied, and lied about Zion.

ZION'S LITERATURE MISSION

BY DEACONESS SARAH E. HILL

He sendeth His Word, and healeth them, and delivereth them from their destruction.—Psalms 107:20.

The sick are here told how to obtain healing.

They are not told to send for physicians or drugs for healing.

The Psalmist had been speaking of some who waited until they were at the gates of death before they sought God, who declares Himself the Healer of the people. (Psalm 107:19; Exodus 15:25.)

Then they came unto Jehovah in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses: He senteth His Word and healeth them. (Isaiah 55:6.)

The history of medicine traces its origin back to the worship of demons. The signs found on medical prescriptions was originally placed there as a symbolic prayer to Jupiter, the supreme god of the Romans, for healing. (See Webster's Dictionary, page 1926; Worcester's Dictionary, page 1775.)

After the world has for centuries grouped for healing in the darkness of pagan methods, the Sun of Righteousness has again arisen, with Healing in His wings, and His light is spreading over the earth through the teaching of God's Prophet, Elijah the Restorer. (Malachi 4:5.)

We ask you, dear Reader, to help Zion Literature Mission to send Zion Literature forth to carry the Word of God to the whole creation, as our Lord commands you.

Blessed by Walking in the Light of Zion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Gatele of Pretoria, South Africa, writing under date of October 20th, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel that I must write to you to tell you that I have also been blessed through receiving Leaves of Healing, through a dear friend and sister, Miss Roux, who first told us about Divine Healing. I am staying, and God directed me into the house two years ago.

First, my mother, Mrs. Passmore, accepted it, and a little later I also got this light. I was a member of the Salvation Army at that time, although I seldom attended the meetings since my marriage, which is now seven and one-half years.

As far as some of the officers came to see me, but lately that is, for three years or more, they never came near me.

I was not right with God all this time; I was very far from Him at the time I first met Miss Roux, but since I read Leaves of Healing, I have seen things in a better light.

I have repeated of and confessed my sin to God, and I believe He has forgiven me, and I know that I am now trying, by His grace, to live right.

I have never had a doctor since my first child was born, and God has always been very good to me.

It is now about ten months that I have not used any drugs for myself or children, and I do thank God for sending us the light, for I have proved it to be worth having.

May God bless you and all Zion.

Healed by God When Medicine Was Thrown Away.

Miss Sarah M. Roux, writing from Pretoria, South Africa, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—A few weeks ago a woman went with a medicine bottle to a chemist to have it filled again as usual.

On her way she passed the house of the friend of mine with whom I am staying, and God directed her to come to me.

I was out then, but came in shortly afterwards, and told her all about Divine Healing (as far as I could), and that there were Divine conditions to be fulfilled before we could receive the blessing.

I noticed her earnest eyes while I spoke to her. Then she left me at once, she got up and sent the bottle flying into the street.

She accepted the Lord and promised to put things straight. A few days later we went to see her. She asked us then to pray for her, which we did, and God graciously answered and healed her.

She had been suffering for five years.

The other night she told me that she is now able to scrub and wash, without even getting tired.

Physician Healed of Cancer of the Stomach.

Deaconess Rosa Schulp, Zion German correspondent, writes:

Physician, is wonderfully blessing Blatter der Heilung and the work of Zion's messengers in Switzerland.

A physician in Berlin who was dying of cancer of the stomach accepted Zion's Message in Blatter der Heilung and God healed him in answer to the prayer of Elijah the Restorer.

Mr. Arnold Tafi, writing from Spencerville, Ohio, under date of November 16th, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER—God has blessed this old brother in Salvation and victory over the use of tobacco, since Leaves of Healing came into the house two years ago.

His wife has been cleaned up of the tobacco habit, and the grace of God entered into her life.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

Jerovah will give strength unto His people; Jehovah will bless His people with peace.—Psalm 138:7.

WEEK after week, Zion continues her ministry throughout the world. The commands go forth to the sinner: "Repent," "Confess," "Believe," "Obey!" It is with Divine Authority and in the Power of the Holy Spirit that the Messages are sent out. They are, therefore, effective in bringing the hearts of the sinful and hypocritical to repentance.

These Messages are also accompanied by words which tell of God's tender love and compassion to those who obey, and of His willingness to save, heal, cleanse and keep them.

These Messages create a condition in the hearts of those who receive and obey, which makes it possible for God to work in them the Salvation and the Healing which is needed.

The petitions come into Zion, and the General Overseer, those whom he has ordained, and even all the Church, are sought to pray the prayer of faith. Gladly this request is complied with, and the great God and Father of all delights to hear and answer.

Not only do the testimonies come back in the written pages of letters, but from lip to lip it is passed along that God has graciously regarded this and that sinful, sick and sorrowing one, and has blessed them in spiritual, physical and even temporal matters.

Sitting in the General Overseer's room the other day, we heard him tell a very brief story of how much blessing one man had received who came to Zion a comparatively poor man. Not only had salvation been given, but faithful and diligent work and careful investment in Zion, had enabled him to realize many hundreds of dollars within a very short time.

This story was confirmed later by a letter, which cannot well be given to the public.

Again, sitting in our office a day or two ago, in a little conversation with a brother in the Christ, he incidentally mentioned the healing of one who had attended Zion's Second Feast of Tabernacles last summer and had received the healing of a cancer in the neck.

This story had never been printed, and the writer had never heard it until these words were spoken.

In a short time we hope to publish the story of how this man received the healing at the time of prayer by the General Overseer.

The cancer began to dry up immediately, and now the word comes that the last bit of it is about to fall from the neck of the one who was afflicted with it.

This same brother in the Christ said that his heart was overflowing with gratitude to God, because he had been enabled, during the summer and fall, to labor continuously and at such good wages that he was now well able to go through the winter, even if he did not have any more work.

The brother said that this condition had never existed before with him at any time previous in his life.

So, little fragments here and there can be picked up.

If the story could be fully told, it alone would fill the pages of Leaves of Health with testimonies from week to week.

We trust that the testimonies which go forth will bring inspiration and blessing into the lives of all who read them.

The peace and the strength which God is giving to His people in Zion is very real.

Instantly Healed of a Troublesome, Obstinate Cough.

H. E. Haggaard, of 153 South Western avenue, Chicago, writing under date of November 27th, says:

Dear General Overseer:—Some time ago I came to you, Doctor, and asked your prayers for a trouble that baffled quite a few of our so-called professors of medicine.

Some called it catarrh trouble, and some stomach trouble, and some said it was a cough that was brought on by exposure; and none of them did me any good.

You prayed and laid hands on me.

I have never had any cough since, and I am a well man today.

I thank God for God, and for the many, many truths I have learned in Zion.

I thank God for our much-loved leader, our General Overseer; and I pray that you may be protected and spared to us for many years to come.

God bless you.

Cough.

Badly Sprained Ankle Quickly Made Strong in Answer to Prayer.

Zion City, Illinois, November 24, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—I wish to testify to the healing of a very badly sprained ankle.

On November 1st a friend and I had been out for the evening, and coming home I made a mis-step, as it was very dark, and sprained my ankle.

We both prayed, and I got home with very little pain, but when I pulled off my shoe, my ankle began to hurt a little more.

I went to bed and went to sleep, but woke up with a pain so great that I had a hard chill, and it seemed as if I could not endure it.

Two of the ladies in the house got up and we all prayed, and the pain ceased so that I could lie down.

Early in the morning they sent for an Elder. It was Sunday morning, and I felt very sad because I could not go with the Host, as I had been accustomed to do.

Deacon Klein came and prayed with the laying on of hands. The soreness was so great that I could hardly get my feet to the front of the bed, but after he prayed I could move it back under the covers much better.

I soon fell asleep and slept nearly all day and night.

They brought me food, but I could eat only a little, as it seemed that I needed sleep and rest.

Monday morning I felt so well and thankful for all God had done for me, that about 8 o'clock I got up and dressed and came out of my room. I limped a little, but went from one room to another very well.

But that time Deacon Oppehagen came in on an errand and I asked him to pray for me.

He prayed with the laying on of hands, and I went on about my work.

In the afternoon I lay down about an hour.

It felt a little weak at night, but I was up early in the morning, and should hardly have known that my ankle was ever sprained.

I pray that you may be healed of all the glory and praise, and I thank all who prayed for me.

Yours in the Lord,

(Mrs. Amanda Looker.)

Healed at Zion's Hour of Prayer.

Chicago, Illinois, November 20, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—In reply to your recent letter acknowledging receipt of telegram, requesting prayer for my mother, I wish to express my gratitude to God for speedy deliverance.

Mother was very sick, unable to be about, when I sent you the telegram on the 5th instant, but on the following morning, about the hour of prayer in Zion City, she began to go about and became as strong as ever; for which I praise God.

Yours truly,

Alfred Stetebroth.

Immediately Healed of Smallpox.

Sedro Woolley, Washington, November 24, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—I have thought for some time that I ought to let you know about God's goodness to me.

Early last spring I was taken sick with some disease. Others had the same thing. The doctor called it smallpox.

I did not break out, but it went to my lungs, and I had a bad cough.

I wrote to you for prayer and was healed immediately.

I am greatly blessed and am paying tithes. I thank God that He has spared my life till these days of Restorations. May God bless and keep you and your family till Jesus comes.

Yours in Christian love,

B. F. Hathaway.

Maranatha, Prestwick, Ayrshire, November 20, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—God has healed me of constipation and chilblains, which I asked you to pray for.

Your brother in the Christ,

Anthony C. Herring-Cooper.

C. M. Caultkins, of Auburn, Wisconsin, writing under date of October 24th, says:

Dear Brother in the Christ:—I was healed of constipation when I gave up pork and prepared to the good Father, two and a half years ago.
REMARKABLE HEALINGS IN SHANGHAI

THERE ZION Elders in China have had wisdom from God in laying foundations.

Many applications for membership have been rejected because the applicants were probably only after the loaves and fishes.

The Elders have not published testimonies of healing until time enough had passed to show that the healings were real.

In the cases recorded below the reader will notice how the predictions and diagnoses of the physicians failed.

The “foreign” physician is usually an American or European.

Some are in private practice; others are hired by missionary societies to prepare the way of the Lord with poisons and cruel knives.

Most of them become angry when God heals without drugs, in answer to prayer.

Testimony to Healings of Fever, Dysentery, Crooked Back and Stiff Arm—Persecuted Because of Obedience to in God in Baptism.

(translated from the Mandarin dialect)

SHANGHAI, CHINA, April 3, 1902

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer—From the time I first heard Elder Viking explain the doctrines of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and also heard testimonies to healing from Leaves of Healing, and Stiff Arm—Persecuted Because of Obedience to in God in Baptism.

(translated from the Mandarin dialect)

SHANGHAI, CHINA, April 3, 1902

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer—From the time I first heard Elder Viking explain the doctrines of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and also heard testimonies to healing from Leaves of Healing, received the teaching with gladness.

Afterward I experienced God’s Healing Power in my own body.

I am now praising God because He has sent you at the close of this Dispensation to preach a Full Gospel.

I also thank you for sending officers to China to give us the truth, which has entered my heart and made me a true disciple and willing to tell others what the Lord commands.

The truth entered my heart, and from this time I came often to see Elder Viking in his place to receive more teaching.

But, as I was a teacher in a Methodist college, I was not ready to obey or freely testify to the truth.

In the autumn of 1900, I took very sick with fever.

My temperature rose to 105 degrees.

My youngest brother is a physician.

He gave me medicine to heal me, but without any success. When I was at once I thought of the power of God and the power of the Zions Elders I went to him to get him to come.

Elder Viking came, and, before prayer, the following conversation occurred between us:

“Have you any sins?”

“I have.”

“Are you willing to repent?”

“I am.”

“Are you willing to give up medicine?”

“I am.”

“Are you willing to throw out your medicine, so as not to have any in the house?”

“I am.”

“Are you willing to eat food?”

“I am.”

“Do you believe that God is able to heal you?”

“I believe.”

Then the Elder put his hands on my body and prayed.

All at once I felt relief in my stomach; things began moving, and I wanted to eat.

The fever left me, and from that time until now my body has been well.

When people criticized me I was able to say, like the blind man of old: “Whether he be a sinner, I know not; one thing I know that, whereas I was blind, now I see.”

INSTANTaneous STRAIGHTENING OF BACK.

My brother’s son, about eleven years old, was very sick of dysentery in its worst form.

He also had a fall six months previously, hurting his spine.

His back stood out like a hunchback.

He could not lie on his back and the dysentery reduced him to skin and bone.

Six physicians saw him, three Chinese and two foreign.

They said that when the disease reached his brain he would die.

The child, having heard about Zion, requested his father to send for the Zion Elder to come and pray.

The moment Elder Viking prayed for him his back became straight, the bones came down with a snap, and the next day all dysentery was gone.

He could then lie on his back and roll about in bed with ease.

ANGER OF THE DRUG DEVIL.

Another case is that of my own mother.

Her upper arm and shoulder were very badly injured by a collision with a carriage.

A foreign physician said the bone was broken.

It was very painful.

She could not move her arm, and both physician and friends said the arm would be stiff as long as she lived; she was sixty-seven years of age.

But she had heard the Gospel of Healing in the Zion Tabernacle at Shanghai, and so, one evening, she herself asked God for healing.

She wanted to comb her hair and could not.

The only other woman in the house had been called away for a few days.

My mother prayed and could then move her arm a little.

She prayed again, and moved her arm a little higher.

She got courage to ask more, and continued to pray far into the night, and raise her arm until she could move the hand freely over her head, and to her great delight, in the morning she could comb her own hair.

In this way she got victory.

The physician became very angry because my mother said God had healed her.

I have from youth believed God.

I had for years been an ordained minister in the Presbyterian church in Shanghai, but I never before witnessed such manifestations of the Power of God as these in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I believe that you are ordained of God to come before the Lord Jesus comes, and that you are here as the Old Testament Elijah and the New Testament John the Baptist.

Your name is John, and, like John the Baptist, you are preaching Repentance.

The Apostle John preached the Gospel of Love, John Alexander Dowie is preaching the Gospel of Repentance, with a heart full of Love.

Other men may be called John, but they do not come up to the Bible John as you do.

God gives you power, patience and works, and the Devil gives you persecutions such as they suffered.

In January, 1901, I obeyed in Triune Immersion, together with nine others.

Brother Cassius was one among them.

Before the day for Baptism came, the denominational churches were trying their best to hinder me from being baptized.

Bishops, pastors, elders and members came or sent persons to me, to persuade me to give it up.

Some even went so far as to shed tears!

Some became angry with me, but up to the last, by the help of God, I stood firm.

At this time I was a teacher in the Anglo-Chinese college of the Methodist Episcopal church in Shanghai.

Two of my sons were students in the same school.

Because of uniting with the Christian Catholic Church, I was dismissed from the school of the Methodists, in which I had, as a Presbyterian, been a teacher for some time.

My two sons were also dismissed.

But, thank be to God, He has given me courage.

I do not fear.

Elder Cassius (now at Zion Headquarters) was here at the time, and is able to testify to these things.

My daughter and son-in-law have also entered Zion.

I have several brothers who are preachers and teachers in the Methodist church.

Pray for them, I praise God for all these blessings.

Take my regards to all in Zion.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Thanksgiving for Teaching, Prayer and Healing.

Mrs. Hannah Sherk McCord, Walloon Lake, Michigan, writing under date of November 10th, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—1, too, with thousands of others, thank God daily for Zion and Zion teaching and for LEAVES OF HEALING.

I thank God for dear Mrs. Elizabeth Wilbide, who first told me of Zion and God's healing power, which was manifested there.

I also thank God for Mr. and Mrs. Cari F. Streu, who so faithfully answered my letters and thereby helped me on my way to God and healing.

I am very thankful for the many requests for prayer which the General Overseer so many times and so patiently presented to God in my behalf.

I could not begin to enumerate the many blessings I have received, both spiritually and physically.

Again I thank God for sending us someone to show us how to live, how to pray and how to receive healing.

God Answers Prayer for All Our Needs.

PLANKINTON, SOUTH DAKOTA, November 2, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—After hastening the weather set in very wet and our grain began to spoil in the stack very badly.

I wrote you, requesting you to pray that rain might cease, and that God might give us fair weather.

In less than two days the weather cleared up, and it has not rained any since to hurt anything.

On October 1st I sent you a request asking you, asking you, asking you, asking for prayer that the rain might cease, and that God might give us fair weather.

From about the time you received the letter I began to improve, and was at work in a day or two.

In May of this year, while in Zion City, I became quite ill.

I had such severe pains in my lungs that to lie down caused intense suffering.

Added to this, I suffered from night sweats, and became so weak as to be almost unable to move around.

Elder Brock prayed for me, and God gave deliverance.

God has also healed me of a severe cough, which I had for months, of abscesses on my eyelids, and several other ailments.

I thank Him for all of these healings and the many other blessings which I have received through Zion's teaching and prayers.

Praying that God may bless and keep you, Faithfully yours in Jesus, (Mrs.) W. C. Gould.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I am the most happy to tell you that our dear sister was cured of the hemorrhage the third morning after her letter had gone to you.

She has been well ever since.

Rain Ceases and Crops Are Saved in Answer to Prayer.

MCUNE, KANSAS, October 17, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Peace to all Zion.

I write to acknowledge our Father's answer to your prayers for fair weather.

It stopped raining here the night of the 4th of October, the day you received my letter.

The farmers have nearly finished seeding.

I give God all the glory for manifesting Himself to the sons of men as He promised.

The grace of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus, the Christ, be with you all.

The Prayer of Faith Brings Speedy Relief.

432 WEST FIFTH STREET, JUNCTION CITY, KANSAS, November 10, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—On October 27th we got in a stock of leather.

I laid hold on a bunch of sole leather, and drew it into the shop. It was very heavy.

I did not feel any pain in my back at that time, but helped to unpack goods.

In a few days I began to realize that I had sprained my back.

Friday evening I told my son to send a request for prayer to you,

That night I had great pain.

Then the Devil came to rob me of my faith in God, and said: "That's what you get for trusting in God."

Grand Processional of over Five Hundred of Zion Robed Officers and Zion White-robed Choir
ZION in Japan to Zion throughout the world: "Peace to thee." We rejoice to greet you again through the columns of Leaves of Healing, and to tell you that we are going forward in joy and victory.

The picture of Zion in Yokohama which we herewith present is the latest photo of our people there, and contains the faces of those whom God has called to go forward in the ground-work of the establishment of His Kingdom in the Land of the Rising Sun.

You have doubtless begun to recognize, by this time, our amiable and esteemed brother, D. Tokida, whom God called from the ministry of an apostate Methodism, who has been wonderfully blessed and healed and used in Zion, and who is now the faithful conductor of the Gathering in Yokohama. In the picture, he occupies the upper right-hand corner.

Next to him stands our loyal and beloved brother, K. Kageyama, an honored member of the Samurai class, the descendants of the feudal lords. No more interesting romance could be found anywhere than the rehearsal of this man's story. He stood his ground in the battles for the restoration of Japan some thirty years ago. I have heard him relate his story in his native tongue and it was a rare treat.

The predominancy of the soldier class in the early days may be seen from this single incident, which I heard from the lips of Brother Kageyama.

In the town where he resided when a young man, there was a very brutal, dishonest and shameful saloon-keeper. At last Mr. Kageyama and his soldier comrades became disgusted with the vile deeds of the saloon-keeper and concluded to punish him. So they went to his saloon and took the man out of the house and off to a neighboring forest. There they stripped him naked, poured whisky over his body to attract the insects, and, having tied him to a tree, they went off and left him to be eaten by mosquitoes all night. In the morning they found him nearly dead and they relieved him of his miseries by drawing a sword and cutting off his head. No one attempted to punish... the soldier boys for the act. This sounds like an American lynching story, but it is but a fair portrayal of the conditions which existed in Japan in those early days, and which have been practically wiped out by the introduction of the Gospel of Jesus, the Christ.

A short time ago, through a system of bribery and false witnessing, Brother Kageyama was deprived of his position as the head of the coal-yards of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the largest steamship company in the Orient. As we will need such a valuable man in the work of Zion in Japan, I presented the matter to the General Overseer and received his kind permission to employ Brother Kageyama and to send him some money right away. In answer to that message, the brother wrote me that he had been selling his company in the Orient. As we will need such a valuable man in the work of Zion in Japan, I presented the matter to the General Overseer and received his kind permission to employ Brother Kageyama and to send him some money right away.

In conclusion, let me present the testimony of our brother, D. Nakano. This man was an ordained minister in the Baptist Mission. He attended the Baptist Theological Seminary in Yokohama, and knows his Bible as few people whom I have ever met. He is a sweet, simple Christian. Some years ago he offered himself to the Baptist Mission to go off to Formosa, an island of cannibals, and establish a mission. The Baptists took the matter into consideration, and decided that they could not at that time afford to support such a work.

Therefore, Mr. Nakano said he would go on his own responsibility. He did so, and suffered innumerable hardships among that barbarous people. In a short time he acquired their language, and did noble work among them.

Just before I left Japan he came into Zion and is doing good and faithful work.

In regard to selling Zion tracts, I may say that it is not always nor often so hard, for I have stood up in the Japanese trains, and after a few words have sold hundreds of the Zion tracts, and Brother Tokida and I have done the same on the streets.

Let me ask you all to pray for Japan. Pray for the success of Brother Yamada's balloon business. He has suffered the loss of thousands of dollars because he would not make balloons for unclean purposes.

The following letter was written by Mr. Nakano to Brother Tokida some months ago:

HACHINOHE, MUTSU, JUNE 30, 1902.

Dear Mr. Tokida:—I thank God for His protecting care over you and your family, now that the weather is becoming warmer and warmer. I am thankful that I, too, am kept well. I have four boys, and I have been in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for nearly three years, and have had many answers to prayers for myself and family. I have been healed of nervous prostration and goiter since coming into Zion. In conclusion, let me present the testimony of our brother, D. Nakano. The following letter was written by Mr. Nakano to Brother Tokida some months ago:

HACHINOHE, MUTSU, JUNE 30, 1902.

Dear Mr. Tokida:—I thank God for His protecting care over you and your family, now that the weather is becoming warmer and warmer. I am thankful that I, too, am kept well. I received the tracts you sent the other day. I am going around into the neighboring villages selling them. Sometimes I preach to the people in the open air, and then sell the tracts.

But I cannot sell as many as I wish because there is not more than one in a hundred who can read such a tract. And they could not understand if they should read it, because they have never read any literature about Christianity.

Those who wish to inquire about Christianity buy them gladly, of course. Moreover, the people are in much trouble during these days, because there has been no rain for three or four months and it is greatly needed in order that they may plant the rice. The people are having frequent explorations for rain.

As a result of the drought the price of rice has raised thirty or forty per cent., and the poor people are suffering on account of it. I believe this has had some effect upon my sale of the tracts.

I have now quite a number of inquirers in the neighboring villages, to whom I am distributing the Zion Bible Lessons which you send me weekly.

When I moved to this place some time ago I distributed some tracts to the neighbors, and as a result some of them have become inquirers. I am now going through the villages each week selling the tracts. The five yen (a yen is 10 cents of United States money—T. A. C.) which you sent me some time ago was spent for traveling expenses.

Now that the people are suffering from the drought, I thought it a good time to ask for God's power and to show forth His glory to the people, and at the same time to help them out of their calamity.

And so I prayed God bravely, without fear, for rain, telling the people at the same time that I was praying for rain and that I hoped to show them that God is a merciful and powerful God. God heard my prayer and sent rain immediately. The common people think that the idols to whom they prayed sent the rain, but those who heard my prayer and saw me praying and those who are enquiring believe firmly that the true God sent the rain. Thank God for it!

Many sick people are now seeking healing. I pray for them for healing and the Lord always hears my prayer. I prayed for a person a few days ago who was suffering from eczema which covered his whole body, and who was not a bit benefited by the doctor's medicine. God heard my prayer and he was healed in a few days. Praise God! I thank Him.

Yours faithfully, D. NAKANO.

MOTHER SAFELY DELIVERED IN CHILD-BIRTH.

A CASE OF NERVOUS PROSTRATION AND GOITER.

538 MANNING AVENUE, TORONTO, CANADA.

November 30, 1902.

Dear General Overseer:—I thank God that I was safely delivered of a little son on September 24th last.

I was in hard labor only twenty-eight minutes.

I have been healed of nervous prostration and goiter since coming into Zion.

I have been in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for nearly three years, and have had many answers to prayers for myself and family.

When I wrote, it had become so bad and was spreading so rapidly that I could hardly rest nights.

I desire to say, to God's glory, that from the time you prayed for me, I have not had any fever in my body or in my mind, but have been well and gone into Zion City schools.

When I wrote, it had become so bad and was spreading so rapidly that I could hardly rest nights.

I desire to say, to God's glory, that from the time you prayed for me, I have not had any fever in my body or in my mind, but have been well and gone into Zion City schools.

I am sure God directed me to write to you.

Thanking you again, I will close, thanking that God's richest blessing may rest upon all Zion.

Your sister in the Christian Church,

HATTIE SHIELDS.
ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD IN ZION, 1902

LEAVES OF HEALING

TO THE OFFICERS, MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION—BELOVED BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE CHRIST:

PEACE TO THEE!

Once more God gives to me the joyful privilege of sending forth my Annual Call to spend the ALL-NIGHT with God, and with all ZION, in Communion, Praise, Prayer, Teaching, Conference and Testimony, from Ten o'clock on the Night of Wednesday, December 31, 1902, until Seven o'clock on the Morning of New Year’s Day, 1903.

The Second Year of the Twentieth Century has been one of great Progress in Zion throughout the world, and especially in the beautiful City of Zion, which God has enabled us to establish on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Amongst the Important Events of the year are:

(1) ZION’S GREAT DELIVERANCE FROM THE HANDS OF AN UNJUST JUDGE, who aided a perjured villain in his attempt to destroy ZION’S LACE INDUSTRIES. We never lost their control for a moment.

(2) THE OPENING OF SHILOH TABERNACLE, at ZION CITY on March 31st, which is ordinarily seated for Five Thousand, Two Hundred persons, and can accommodate Six Thousand on occasion. The building has often been too small for the numbers attending.

(3) THE FORMATION OF THE THEOCRATIC PARTY on Monday Evening, April 7th, whose Motto is WHERE GOD RULES MAN PROSPERS.

(4) THE LEGAL INCORPORATION OF THE CITY OF ZION on March 31st, and the ELECTION OF THE FIRST MAYOR, ALDERMEN and CITY OFFICERS on April 23d.

(5) THE GREATEST PERSONAL SORROW OF OUR LIFE, in the sudden departure of our greatly beloved daughter, ESTHER A. DOWIE, on Wednesday, May 14th, and the BURIAL of her body in ZION CITY on Friday, May 16th, in the presence of a vast concourse of sympathetic friends, thousands of whom knew of the story of her beautiful life and her final Triumph.

Blessed are they that wash their Robes,
That they may have the right to come to the Tree of Life,
And may enter in by the Gates into the City.

(6) THE GREATEST GATHERING OF GOD’S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING ever recorded in the History of the CHURCH, when over Six Thousand persons gave Public Testimony on Lord’s Day, May 25th, in the Chicago Auditorium.

(7) OUR SOLEMN DECLARATION ON THAT OCCASION, AS THE PROPHET FORETOLD BY MOSES, in Deuteronomy 18:15, and spoken of by the Apostle Peter in Acts 3:22.

(8) ZION’S SECOND FEAST OF TABERNACLES and GREAT ANNIVERSARY GATHERINGS from July 12th to 22d, which was accompanied by Wondrous Manifestations of the Divine Presence and Power of God.

(9) THE ORGANIZATION OF ZION RESTORATION HOST, amidst most impressive scenes, at SHILOH TABERNACLE on Lord’s Day, September 21st, when Thousands took the RESTORATION VOW; followed by a splendid Series of Weekly Visits to Chicago, Illinois; Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, and many other cities, by splendidly-organized Seventies, operating under Leaders, assisted by Captains of Tens.

Millions of persons throughout the World have been reached by specially prepared Zion Messages, and the Salutation of the fully Six Thousand Members of the Host, who go in twos from house to house with the Message of the Christ:

“PEACE BE TO THIS HOUSE!”

(10) THE WONDERFUL GROWTH OF THE CITY OF ZION, which has now an estimated population of about Eight Thousand, with large Public Buildings, and many hundreds of Private Houses, numbers of which are beautifully finished, and others in course of erection.

(11) THE VAST ASSEMBLIES, which continue to gather every Lord's Day afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium, to listen to our Messages as ELIJAH THE RESTORER, and their publication every week to all the world in the pages of LEAVES OF HEALING.

(12) THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ZION BANNER as a semi-weekly paper, THE VERY LARGE INCREASE IN OUR ISSUE OF LEAVES OF HEALING, BLATTER DER HEILUNG, VOICE FROM ZION, etc., by means of ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, and the sending forth, up to date, of over Two and a Half Millions of Rolls of ZION LITERATURE to all the World by means of ZION LITERATURE MISSION.

(13) THE VICTORY, after Months of Conflict with the Newspaper Press of the City of Chicago, which united with others in a desperate, sustained series of attacks upon ZION CITY and its FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

The final result was to establish in the public mind the solidity of Zion's Financial Foundations, and the great value of ZION'S ESTATE, estimated at nearly Twenty-four Millions of Dollars.

All these things have combined to absolutely silence the Press.

It often has been said in business circles that no other Institution in America could have survived that ordeal.

(14) THE STEADY, WIDE-SPREAD GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION by means of ZION MESSENGERS in EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA and AUSTRALASIA.

(15) THE LARGE ADDITIONS ON EVERY CONTINENT to the Membership of the CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

(16) THE WORLD-WIDE PROGRESS made by ZION'S HOST of WOMEN, led by Overseer Jane Dowie, who, in Dorcas Work, and through Zion Maternity Deaconesses, has alleviated the poverty of many thousands of persons, and maintained ZION HOME OF HOPE FOR ERRING WOMEN, and has done good work of every description.

(17) THE SPLENDID PROGRESS made by ZION COLLEGE, ZION JUNIOR SCHOOLS, ZION KINDERGARTEN and EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS generally, arrangements being made now for the care and education of over One Thousand, Two Hundred in the CITY of ZION alone.

(18) THE SPLENDID GROWTH OF ZION FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

(19) THE PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF ZION LACE INDUSTRIES in the completion of a beautiful factory with more than Eight Acres of floor space, the placing of Zion Lace Products with more than Three Hundred of the largest houses in America, and the absolute success of this vast and profitable Industry, the proceeds of which, after due consideration to our employees, will be devoted to the EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

(20) THE UNITED PURITY, PEACE, STRENGTH AND STEADY PROGRESS OF ZION along all the lines of Christian Effort, and the Prospects of Immense Increase in the Coming Year, so that it is estimated that within One Year from this date the Population of the CITY OF ZION will be Twenty Thousand.

(21) THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION of the ENTIRE PEOPLE, and their loyalty and confidence in God and in us at all times.

(22) THESE, and many other Blessings more than we can number, call for our Gathering Together at this ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD, in a spirit of Gratitude and Wonder, and Love and Loyalty to God, so that we may present our Thanksgiving and Worship, recalling His Mighty Works, renewing our Vows to Him and to each other, and receiving Wisdom and Guidance and all needed Grace for the Coming Year.

Our Personal Sorrow has been "swallowed up in Victory!"

Death hath no Triumph where the Christ is Conqueror, and where His Faith and Hope and Love sustain the departed and the bereaved alike.

And so we rejoice with the Ransomed Host of the Redeemed in Heaven, that our Lovely One has entered into the Fulness of God's Life and Light and Endless Love.

We also rejoice in the Ever-present consciousness of His Presence, who said:

Lo, I am with you All the Days.

Even unto the Consummation of the Age.
DO YOU KNOW GOD’S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV, JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B]:

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some special way of healing the sick and those who are oppressed with sickness and evil? I wish to know what difference there is between the way of God and the way of the Devil.

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God’s Way of Healing in every particular.

A. What is the way, as you conceive it?

B. First, let us see what God’s Way is. For the Way is a Person, not a thing. It is Jesus, the Christ, the Son of the living God, the King of Glory, the Saviour of the World. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life: none cometh unto the Father, but by Him. These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the King of Glory, the Lord of hosts, as He spake to John, the Apostle. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation.

B. Because He cannot change. He is the same yesterday, today, and for ever. (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came into this earth not only to save us from death, but also to save us from the devil. (John 12:32.)

A. So He did this when He had suffered death, then to return and establish His Kingdom, ushering in the Millennial Glory, towards which we are daily pressing forward.

B. You are right. We read of this in the Scriptures. The Times of this Restoration have gloriously begun. He is coming to receive from the World His Own, and to bring in His Kingdom with power and great glory. (2 Thessalonians 2:8.)

A. Do you know God’s Way of Healing?

B. You see that I am not going to answer that question. I am going to tell you about God’s Way of Healing, by Jesus, the Christ, the Saviour of the World. (1 John 4:9, 14.)

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey the command of His Lord, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Church prayed in Matthew 18:19; second, by the general intercession of the Church; third, by the anointing of the Elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18. I will, therefore, speak of these four ways.

A. Yes, I am ready to hear you. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and have seen their diseases removed. I have, therefore, no doubt that many can be healed through faith, but I wish to learn how.

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, at any Zion Tabernacle, or Zion City Publishing House, corner Sniloh Boulevard and Elijah Avenue, Zion City, Illinois. We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus the Christ, our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin. Through the intercession of many, Jesus has been able to help a great many, and to lead many readers to look to Jesus only. The Healing of Christ's seamless dress is by all beds of pain; it is by all kinds of sicknesses and diseases. The healing of the sick is by the presence of the Holy Ghost, who is the healing power of God.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present wanting?

B. It is written: "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of the Lord." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching truly the Word of God on this matter, and very briefly I invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacles in Chicago and other cities, and for Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois. All are welcome, and there are no charges of any kind for all God's gifts are free gifts. The salvation of the World is being obtained by the free will offerings of the people, who attend these meetings, and are being received into the Church, and the Lord leads to receive the healing, if there exists a faith to receive it. If there is no faith to receive it, the gift is not there. Salvation is diametrically opposed to this delusion, which is utterly antichristian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism, and are of no use, and are a snare to the soul.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes, but after we felt satisfied that they are truly resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, not as far as permits those who attend, but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any, for 'power belongeth unto God.'

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, at Zion Tabernacles, or Zion City Publishing House, corner Sniloh Boulevard and Elijah Avenue, Zion City, Illinois. We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, at Zion Tabernacles, or Zion City Publishing House, corner Sniloh Boulevard and Elijah Avenue, Zion City, Illinois. We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus the Christ, our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way that is right, your Friend, and your Comforter. (Psalms 143:7.) We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only as their Saviour from sin, and as their Healer from sickness, and as their Cleanser from all evil. (Psalms 143:7.)

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"WHERE IS HE THAT WAS BORN KING OF THE JEWS?"

Not in the Manger of Bethlehem!
Not on the Cross at Calvary!
Not in the Arimatheean's sepulcher hewn out in the rock!

ANGELS BADE the Shepherds seek the Babe at Bethlehem!

ANGELS at the empty Tomb said to the mourning women:
Why seek ye the Living among the dead?
He is not here, but is risen.

The sweet Story of His birth, the Unwritten Story of nearly all His Life until His thirtieth year, and then the mighty Drama of His three years' of glorious Ministry, closing with His Crucifixion, Burial, Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven, all compose, for us who believe, the most Sublime and Inspiring of all Events.

But in these Times of the End, in the Beautiful Dawn of the Restoration, we feel that God directs us, as Elijah the Restorer, to place before all the World our Answers to Three Great Questions concerning the Messiah:
WHERE IS HE?
WHEN WILL HE APPEAR?
WHAT WILL HE DO WHEN HE COMETH TO EARTH AGAIN?

It is right that the Children of God should rejoice on the Anniversary of the Birth of Him that was "born King of the Jews," the Son of the Most High, of whose Kingdom there shall be no end, and whose Advent brought Everlasting Hope and Good Tidings of Great Joy to all people.
In every right and pure manner the Evangel of Joy, the Fruit of Righteousness and Peace in the Holy Spirit, should abound in the home and in business, in church and in state.

He who said, 'Be of good cheer!' ought to be remembered as the Bringer of Righteousness and Peace and Joy—the Kingdom of God—to all the Nations of the World.

There is Joy in the Presence of the Angels:
It is the Joy of the Redeemer!
It is the Joy of the Holy Spirit!
It is the Joy of the Eternal Father!
It is the Joy of all the Heavens and all their Hosts, rejoicing over the Restoration of Humanity.

It will not be long until He returns to reign!
"He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry."

But a people must be "prepared" for His Coming.

Nations must be born in a day; and "the Mystery of God" shall be finished "according to the Good Tidings which He hath declared to His servants the Prophets."—Revelation 10:7.

And the Messenger which I saw standing upon the Sea and upon the Earth
Lifted up his right hand to Heaven,
And swore by Him that liveth forever and ever,
Who created the Heavens and the things that are therein,
And the Earth and the things that are therein,
And the Sea and the things that are therein,
That there shall be Time (Delay) no longer."

Events will succeed each other with accelerated speed; for "The Harvest of the Earth is overripe."

Still these are yet the Days of Preparation, and Zion must carry the Tidings of the Restoration to every Tribe and Nation ere the Glory of the Coming of the King shall be fully revealed.

We are filled with a solemn sense of the increasing responsibility of our Personal Mission, and of the wonderful people whom God is calling into the City of Zion from all the Earth: Sixty-six Nations being already represented in our population of eight thousand.

Racial lines are even already absolutely effaced among God's Children in the City of Zion, without any exception known to us.

The Unity of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion forbids the possibility of our tolerating racial jealousies or antipathies; and we should at once consider the existence and manifestation of such a spirit as a cause for the removal of the offender from our enrolment records.

Continuing to attract, as Zion will, those who have the Zion spirit, from all the Continents and Seas, we shall be able to prepare, in a very short time, thousands of Messengers from Zion to all the Nations.

We cannot doubt but that the Blessed Ones who have gone before into the Zion above, throughout all the Ages, and recently from our own hearts and homes on earth, are looking down with intense interest upon Zion's Onward Movement, as we close the Second year of the Century.

With quiet Joy and deep and abiding Faith, we know that the Work of the Restoration, which has been so gloriously begun, will rapidly proceed, and that resources will be granted to us, that we may prepare and send out vast numbers of Zion Messengers into all the earth.

The interesting picture on the front page of this issue, with its accompanying article by Elder T. A. Cairns, presents a little group of members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, principally in Yokohama and Tokio, Japan, who are waiting eagerly for the party which we hope to send forth to these beautiful islands, with a still larger party for China, early in the Coming Year.

We ask our readers to pray that much wisdom may be given to us in laying the foundations of Zion in these two great Mongolian Empires.

Doubtless in the coming time the Chinese and Japanese will affiliate more closely and cooperate more effectually in guarding the interests of their vast inheritance from the greed and heartless cruelty of which they have been victims at the hands of the European nations, which are only Christian in name.

OUR OVERSEER FOR CHINA, the Rev. George L. Mason, with Elder Cossum, and our Presiding Elder for Japan, Rev. T. Alexander Cairns, have been doing much to prepare the earnest band of consecrated men and women who will soon cross the Continent and the Ocean, to strengthen the hands and cheer the hearts of Elders Viking and Kennedy and their beloved wives in China, and of the various bands of Chinese and Japanese who are standing around the Banner of Zion in the Land of the Rising Sun.

As the year is closing, we rejoice to record that the work of God in Zion, in every Department, continues to move forward, steadily and strongly on all the Continents, and especially at Headquarters in the City of Zion.

We have found that the Annex which we built a few months ago, to Temple Cottage, was insufficient for the accommodation of our Personal Headquarters' Staff, and of our Council-room, Library, etc.

We therefore removed the Architectural Department and Municipal Offices to the Annex; and after considerable readjustment we have found excellent quarters for the very efficient officers who aid us in our direction of the work of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout this and all lands.

We have directed our private secretary to prepare a list of all the members of our staff, and the room number of their various offices, which is as follows:

PERSONAL STAFF OF THE GENERAL OVERSEER.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, ELIJAH AVENUE, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.

Room No. 1—Mrs. Jane Dowie, Overseer of Women's Work in Zion Throughout the World.
Room No. 2—Deaconess Ida M. Stern, Private Secretary to Overseer Jane Dowie; Miss Katherine Davidson, Stenographer.
Room No. 3—General Waiting-room for all Offices.
Room No. 7—Elder J. G. Excell, General Ecclesiastical Secretary.
Room No. 6—Stenographers under his charge: Miss L. V. Gage, Miss Laura Beebe, Miss Winifred Anderson.

Room No. 9—Deacon Carl F. Stern, Personal Attendant and Librarian.
Room No. 8—Assistants under him: Freeman Haehnel, David Murdoch.

Room No. 10—Deacon O. L. Sprecher, Private Secretary; Assistant, Oran Reece.

Room No. 5—General Corresponding Secretary, Deaconess Anna C. Reiff.
Room No. 4—Stenographers under her: Mrs. M. G. Townsend, Miss Willie H. Johnson.
Room No. 11—General Overseer's Private Office.
Rooms Nos. 12, 13, 14 and 15—General Overseer's Library, Council-room and File-rooms.
Room No. 16—Caretaker of Offices: Miss Sene Hansen. Assistant, Miss Annie Peterson.

We desire to say, by way of caution, to our numerous officers and friends, that it is quite impossible for us to see all who desire to do their business with us personally.

Interviews can only be given by arrangement, preferably by letter, but should the business be immediate and of great and pressing importance, we shall do our utmost either to give it our personal attention or delegate it to some of our principal officers.

It will, of course, be manifest to all who give the matter any consideration that it will be quite impossible for us to be accessible to all visitors at any time they might find it convenient to call upon us. And yet we have an intense desire to meet with our officers from all parts of the world, and those who have newly come into the City, from far or near, as soon as possible after their arrival.

We have therefore set aside, for the purpose of a Weekly General Reception, the morning of Wednesday of each week, from the hours of 10 to 12, except when absent from home.

It will be understood that we cannot give lengthened private interviews at that time, as the number of persons usually desiring to see us is quite considerable.

We desire to say that on all other mornings we must be left absolutely free for our important official work; and, except by special appointment, we cannot see any visitors on any other day.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

We have recently created the office of General Ecclesiastical Secretary, and have appointed Rev. J. G. Excell to that important position.

The Correspondence which used to pass through the office of the Overseer-at-Large—an office now abolished—is now attended to by Elder Excell.

He has general oversight, under our direction, of the Branches of the Christian Catholic Church throughout America and other Continents. We have directed Elder Excell also to prepare the article hitherto written by our General Associate Editor, Deacon Arthur W. Newcomb, entitled “Notes from Zion’s Harvest Field.”

We, therefore, now direct that all General Reports of the work, other than those of a Personal and Confidential nature, shall be sent to him.

Letters of importance intended for our own private attention must be marked, on the lower left-hand corner of the envelope, “Private and Personal.”

The Rev. J. G. Speicher, M. D., has been appointed Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for Zion City.

All matters connected with the local Ecclesiastical work of the City must go to him at his office in Temple Cottage, Elijah avenue.

The Rev. W. Hamner Piper has been appointed Overseer-in-charge of all Zion’s Educational Institutions, and can be addressed on these subjects at his offices in the Old Bank Building, on the southwest corner of Shiloh boulevard and Elijah avenue.

We shall hold a General Reception for officers of all ranks and for members and friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and their families at 2:30 on the afternoon of New Year’s Day, Thursday, January 1, 1903.

A full service will be held, God willing, on Christmas morning, at 9:30 a.m., in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City.

All Officers and Zion Choir will be robed, and will assemble in the robing-rooms at 9 a.m.

We call attention once more to our General Letter on pages 259 to 261, containing our Call for the Annual All-Night with God, at the Closing of the Old and the Opening of the New Year.

We trust, during the approaching holiday season, to have the pleasure of receiving very large numbers of our friends from outside.

The announcement of Railway Rates, etc., by our Superintendent of Transportation, Deacon J. F. Peters, will be found on page 266.

Officers of every Department in Zion City will be glad to receive our friends at the various Financial and Commercial Institutions, a visit to which, and especially to the Zion Lace Industries, will no doubt be of great interest and benefit.

We now ask our dear people in all the lands to pray earnestly for us, amid the constant toils of this world-wide and ever-increasing work.

We trust that by good organization we shall be able to adapt ourselves, and our personal and general staff, to the constant expansion of the work in Zion, which continues even in mid-winter.

Only the strength which God supplies; only "the Wisdom which cometh from above"; only the "All-sufficient Grace of God" can enable us to meet and overcome the difficulties which of necessity confront us, owing to our phenomenal growth in every Department of Zion.

But we rejoice again to declare, as stated in our Prelude to last Lord’s-Day Message in the Auditorium (see pages 271-274 of this issue), that God continues to sustain us in remarkable health and vigor.

We are not conscious of any diminution of power to fulfill our duties, and to enjoy our privileges, in every direction of the work of God in Zion.

But we are very conscious that only for continuous supplies, of special Divine Grace, and but for the "fresh oil," which God daily gives, we should never have been able to do what we have done, and could never continue to Go Forward.

But all things are possible with God, and to him that believeth in God and obeyeth Him with all His heart.
We are sure that our gracious Father in Heaven would never have laid upon us this great work without providing for us, at the right time and way, adequate resources of every kind, for every emergency.

All glory be to God alone, for all the past, for all the present, and for all the future.

Far and Near, o'er all the lands, we send the Master's words: 'Be of good cheer,' at this joyous Christmas-tide.

Brethren, pray for us.

Railroad Rates to Zion's All-Night Meeting with God
December 31, 1902, at Zion City, Lake County, Illinois

Tickets to Zion City may be purchased at any railway ticket-office in the territory of the Western and Central Passenger Association, which includes North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Canada as far as Toronto, at the full fare one way, and may be purchased December 27th to 31st. Certificates are not likely to be honored for the reduced return rate if tickets are purchased after December 31st. Return tickets may be secured in Zion City at one-third of the full fare paid coming, any day after December 31st, up to and including January 5th.

Instructions about Purchasing Railroad Tickets.

When you purchase your ticket to Zion City, ask the railroad agent for a certificate on account of the Convention of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which has been granted, at the rate of one fare and one-third to Zion City, by the above-named association, which controls such rates, the one-face rate to be paid coming to Zion City, and the one-third fare to be paid going home. All the railroad ticket-offices have the blank forms of their respective passenger offices to be filled out, signed and stamped, and have been notified in advance that such a rate has been given for Zion City, and can get instructions by telegraph, if a mistake has been made in notifying them, or if they have mislaid their instructions.

Do not ask for a receipt, but insist on having a certificate, and see that it is stamped and signed in due form by the railroad agent. If they refuse to give such a certificate, then secure one of the officially stamped, ordinary receipts for purchase of ticket.

The first day, upon arriving at Zion City, present this certificate to me in person, either at session of Convention, or bring it to my office, so that it can be arranged for proper endorsement. Parties must call in person for their certificates, January 1st, at my office, Administration Building, Zion City, between 3 and 6 p.m., and they will be given their certificates, properly attested at the railroad depot, for return tickets at one-third of the full fare.

Those who call after this date will be directed where their certificates may be obtained. Correspondence and information concerning railroad rates should be addressed to James F. Peters, Superintendent of Transportation.

God's Way of Healing Is a Person, Not a Thing.

Jesus said "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi, or "I am Jehovah that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:21)

The Lord Jesus, the Christ, is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said: "Lo, I am with you all the days, even unto the Consummation of the Age." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20) Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on the Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His Ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. The Christ came to destroy the works of the Devil, and when He was here on earth He healed all manner of disease and all manner of sickness, and all these sufferers are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38)

The Gifts of Healing Are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11)

There Are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders, with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18)

Divine Healing Is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally lain hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in the Zion Tabernacles in Chicago, and in Zion City, Illinois, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Printing and Publishing House, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and also at the Branch Office, Shiloh Boulevard, Zion City.

"Belief Cometh of Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of the Christ."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. Matthew 6:28.

OUR Lord taught living truths to the multitudes, from objects in nature, as they followed His footsteps over the hills and vales of Galilee.

As He looked into their faces He saw how troubled and anxious they were about their physical life, what they should eat and drink, and, for their bodies, what they should put on.

But He saw also that they felt little concern about the life of their wonderful spiritual being.

He directed their attention to the lilies which made the fields around them radiant with beauty, and He told them to consider these lilies, how they grow.

The questions of daily living which filled the lives of these people with anxiety are the same which are today troubling all who do not know how to live the life of faith by being rooted and grounded in Jesus, the Christ. (Colossians 2:7.)

If we desire to know how to live, we must consider the lilies as our Lord commands.

In the beginning the lily is a dry, unpromising looking root, giving little indication of the beautiful creation which lies asleep within it, ready to unfold under the proper conditions.

If placed in the earth, where it belongs, it soon begins to find nourishment and to fasten itself there by its roots.

But the earth cannot supply all of the needs of the lily bulb.

It must be supplied from above with the dew and sunshine and rain before the life principle within it can properly unfold.

It pushes its tiny stem upward through the dark earth, which seeks to hold it down, and unfolds its leaves in the light of heaven.

As it draws its food from the earth and from heaven it grows stronger, and it is able to meet the storms and the winds which sweep over it, unharmed.

All of its life-power is to culminate in its glorious bloom.

The splendid anemone coronaria, or crowned lily, is supposed to have furnished the Master with this beautiful nature-study.

Man also needs to be rooted in the earth, and to hold on there for the supply of the material wants of life.

The earth is a storehouse furnished him by His Heavenly Father, and out of it he may get food and clothing, and the means of extending God's Kingdom.

While man is taking root in the earth, its tendency is to cover him up in its darkness; but he also must rise above these material things—which will surely hide the light of heaven from him if he places them first—that he, too, may drink in the sunshine of God's Love and the water of Eternal Life.

It is the unseen, mysterious life-principle in the lily that pushes it upward through the earth which would hold it down. It is through this life that God shapes and feeds and clothes it in beauty as it rises to seek help from above. Man in the beginning, like the lily, gives little indication of the great possibilities which lie enwrapped within him, waiting to be unfolded in the likeness of God, if he would grow as the lily grows, according to the laws of his being. (Psalm 17:15; Romans 6:5; Revelation 1:12-16.)

Jesus told the people if they would seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, all food and clothing and all that relates to man's material needs would follow in its train. (Matthew 6:33.)

Man is to be crowned with a living crown if he lives right.

It is given to the one who endures temptation and stands when thus tested. (James 1:12; Revelation 2:10.)

There is danger of man having his crown taken from him. (Revelation 4:11.)

Paul tells us how he lived through the Christ living in him. (Galatians 2:20.)

Jesus tells us how to let God live in us. (John 14:23.)

Zion teaching is going over the world, showing men how to live and grow right, according to God's laws for spirit, soul and body.

Reader, will you not take a share in this great work of sending it over the world?

The letter which foll-ows was written to our General Overseer from a gentleman in Englewood, Cape Colony:

_Brought to See Jesus, the Saviour and Healer, through Receiving "Leaves of Healing."_

_My Dear General Overseer:_—I praise God that He has led me into Zion, where the Full and Everlasting Gospel is preached.

I can say with St. Paul, I the chief of sinners am, but Jesus died for me.

Only God and my dear parents know how wicked I have been.

But I am thankful that I have found the Pearl of Great Price, my Saviour.

I was brought to see my Saviour as my Healer by reading_Leaves of Healing._

I am determined by the help of God to lead a pure life.

I also praise God I have been able to give up the use of tobacco. I was a great smoker.

I have also given up my meat in my shop, and I will trust God for the results.

I can testify to God's wonderful healing power in me.

I was raptured when a little boy. Now I am thirty-nine years old.

After reading_Leaves of Healing_, I wanted to pray to God for my healing.

God heard my prayer and healed me.

I have not had occasion to wear my truss since, and that was eighteen months ago.

Before that I could not do without it; for if I took it off for a short time, I would get such pain in my side that I would be obliged to put it on again.

I thank the General Overseer, from a grateful heart, for _Leaves of Healing_, which has been the means of drawing me nearer to my God.

God also healed me of bad toothache and I have not had a touch of it since, and that was a year ago.

Through_Leaves of Healing_, the Bible is a different book to me.

Will Zion pray for me?

I am the only member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in these parts.

May God pour His blessing upon you and your dear wife and son, and give you many victories in your grand work for Him and humanity.

E. Heinrich writes as follows from Seidenberg, Germany, giving Thanks for Healing Through Zion Literature.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—Since you prayed for me I feel well and happy. I can do heavy housework.

I cannot praise my dear Heavenly Father enough for having restored my health, and I thank you for your prayers.

I will be faithful to God all my life.

You also prayed for my daughter, who had constant pains.

It seemed as if she never would be able to earn her bread.

I used many plasters for her, but when we got the little tract, "He is Just the Same Today," we began to trust the Lord.

Mrs. Frilla Seibt, who was also quite wonderfully healed through your prayers, wrote a request for prayer to you.

My daughter abandoned every plaster and treatment, and now she is healed.

I praise God for you.

I am a poor widow.

You have helped me.

I denounce, as false, the doctrine contained in that which is the first Ordinance in the Church of England, the Ordinance of Baptism, or the Ministration of the Baptism of Infants. I denounce it as being an ordinance absolutely opposed to the Holy Scriptures, to sound reason and to fact. It is not in the Church of England and the Episcopal Church, an Ordinance for unsanctified babies. No such ordinance is to be found in the New Testament. . . . The Order of Public Ministration of Baptism to be used in that church demands that a number of people called godfathers and godmothers shall appear, and that the godfather and godmother in each case shall stand with the baby, and have addressed to them certain words. . . . Where did the Scriptures give the Church the right to found such a rite? There are not his godfather and another, remember, but a godfather and a godmother. I will challenge any Episcopalian to find me one passage in the New Testament which says that there is to be a godfather or a godmother at Baptism. . . . Do the ministers convince themselves, even if they believe this to be a right mode of Baptism, that the men and women who are godfathers and godmothers for those babies are in a position to renounce the Devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world? . . . You know that the majority of godfathers and godmothers are full of the Devil. They do not renounce the Devil for themselves, and they do not keep, never intended to keep, and are never expected to keep their solemn vows. . . . What is the meaning of this lie? It means that the church which tells it is shamefully apostate. In the first place, such a church denies the Lord’s words. In the second place, it denies the Church’s teaching for thirteen centuries. The church which adopts this is a church which is introducing an innovation. This doctrine is opposed to historic fact and practical, personal experience, and it is, therefore, a shameful lie. . . . I will speak of another proof of the shameless apostasy of the Church of England. It is in the Order for the Visitation of the Sick. . . . When the minister comes, what has he to say? After certain prayers he charges the sick person after this form: “Dearly beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death and of all things to them pertaining, at youth, strength, health, age, weakness and sickness.” That is a lie. God is not the author of Death, Devil. . . . It is a lie to say that Disease . . . for the minister, resulting from the Prayer-book, says that it all came from God. His church demands that he shall say: “Therefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly, it is God’s visitsation.” That is a lie; for God’s Word declares that Disease is the work of the Devil. . . . The Prayer-book of the Church of England, in these and other evil Teachings, helps the Devil magnificently. Therefore, it is an Apostate Church. It is apostate in its fundamentals and throughout its entire organisation everywhere. May God destroy the organisation and save the people.” —The Voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord’s Day, December 14, 1904.
THE Church of England was put on the witness-stand against itself by Elijah the Restorer, at the Chicago Auditorium, on Lord's Day afternoon, December 14, 1902.

The arraignment was not general and indefinite.

Passing by other errors in teaching and practice, God's Messenger threw the force of his attack upon two vital falsehoods.

These were the lie of Baptismal Regeneration, and the lie contained in the Order for the Visitation of the Sick, prescribed in the Church of England Prayer-book.

As in the case of his every attack upon the apostate organizations and their errors of teaching and practice, the Weapon wielded by God's Messenger was the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Paragraph by paragraph the teaching of the Church of England Prayer-book upon these two matters was taken up.

Paragraph by paragraph it was hewn to pieces under the Divinely-directed blows of the Restorer.

Indifference was awakened to attention; attention was deepened into interest; interest was sobered to thoughtfulness; and thoughtfulness became conviction, as the Message was delivered.

When the man of God had closed his Message, his case was proved.

The Apostasy of the Church of England and her Episcopal daughters was Unveiled before the eyes of the world.

Although the day was cold and disagreeable, and there was a heavy gale from the southeast, the ground floor and boxes and a large part of the main balcony of the Auditorium were filled with thousands of interested listeners to the words of God's Messenger and to the splendid singing of Zion Choir.

Before delivering his regular Message in the Unveiling of the Apostasies, the General Overseer took occasion to demolish a few of the Malicious Lies which appeared in the Chicago Record-Herald of the Monday previous.

The great audience assembled, the splendid voice of the speaker, which made itself heard throughout the great building, and the intense and lively interest, which increased as the service progressed, were sufficient refutations of the lies of the Record-Herald, that he was a mental and physical wreck; but it was fitting that the unfair, despotic and wicked animus of that godless paper should be exposed.

It was also fitting that this hypocritical sheet should be held up to the ridicule which it merited, and the Auditorium rang with the contemptuous laughter of thousands as the General Overseer, with his clean, vivid wit, keen as a rapier, pierced the distended bubble of the Record-Herald's pretensions.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, December 14, 1902.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
He whose word cannot be broken,
Form'd thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of Living Waters
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters.
And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, while such a river
Ever flows thy thirst to quench;
Grace which, like the Lord, the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hov'ring,
See the cloud and fire appear
For a glory and a cov'ring,
Showing that the Lord is near;
Thus deriving from their banner,
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which He gives them when they pray.

Blest inhabitants of Zion,
Wash'd in the Redeemer's blood!
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
Makes them kings and priests to God.
'Tis His love His people raises
Over self to reign as kings:
And as priests, His solemn praises
Each for a thank-offering brings.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us:
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRaise.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 348:
Encamped along the hills of light,
Ye Christian soldiers, rise,
And press the battle ere the night
Shall veil the glowing skies.
Against the foe in vales below,
Let all our strength be buried;
Faith is the victory, we know,
That overcomes the world.

CHORUS—Faith is the victory!
Oh, glorious victory,
That overcomes the world.

REcITION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He arose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. had for five years in this city and which was crowded out so that we had to get strong police guards to keep the throngs out. But I have not had one single fair report of any of these discourses in the press.

I do not expect one.

If I should get one, I should think it so strange that I should be treated kindly by the Chicago press, that I should expect many of us to think that I had fallen from grace, and that I had in some way or another pleased the Devil.

I do not therefore complain with any hope that my complaint will in the slightest degree alter the Record-Herald.

"Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots?"

I have thought sometimes that scrubbing the Record-Herald could get it clean, but the only way you could get its unclean hide clean would be by skinning it. (Laughter.)

I do not for my own sake care to make the observations which I am about to make; but as there are, on this stormy Sunday, more than three thousand persons present here, I will read after the discourse, which is quite a respectable audience at any time.

Zion's Audiences the Largest in Chicago.

"You can tell that confidently because there is no Protestant church in this city large enough to hold this audience or that which was present here last Lord's Day, which they want to misrepresent as very small.

Zion Does Not Trouble about the Size of Her Audiences.

We are not at all troubled if the audiences do diminish. It would not trouble us a grain.

The fact is, however, that the audiences do not diminish, in any considerable degree, even although the winter is setting in with intensity and we have had the thermometer five degrees below zero with high gales.

What we have seen is that last Lord's Day or two is just the effect of sudden, extreme cold; but we have no fear about the audiences.

We are rested on the audience. We are resting in God. I never was troubled about the audience, and worked up in this city, from very small beginnings, week after week, month after month, and year after year, until my audiences have become the largest in America, perhaps in the world, under the continuous ministry of one man.

For years and years in this city of Chicago there has been no place big enough to hold Zion's audiences, as a rule. By the way, before I pass from it, let the Record-Herald search its own columns, and find how, a few weeks ago, there were six thousand one hundred nine persons, according to their own count, in this building, and that exceeded the entire number at all the Baptist and Congregational churches.

It exceeded the entire number at all the white Methodist Episcopal churches.

It exceeded the entire number of any one denomination, except the Roman Catholics.

We were in the front of that religious procession that day, and did not know that we were going to be counted, either.

The audiences that we addressed week before last numbered in the aggregate sixteen thousand attendances. There is not a week when they do not reach somewhere about the ten thousand mark.

I simply say this because this misleading and false paragraph which begins the report is utterly unwarranted and untruthful, and, in Chicago, it finds no honest, well-informed believers.

Slanderous Lie Concerning General Overseer's Health.

But the next sentence contains the principal calumny:

Whether or not this fact affected Dowie, his sermon was more than once interrupted from no apparent cause, and his speech at other times was of such a rambling nature that his most faithful followers wondered. His face looked worn and weary, and deeper lines than ever were under his eyes, which seemed to have lost much of their fire. (Laughter.) Dowie appeared to be ill, and to be speaking with an effort.

Now, when a man—(Applause and contemptuous laughter) —well, is that true?

Unanimous Denial of "Record-Herald's" Statement.

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—All who say it is true, say Yes. Anybody say Yes? (No response.)

Is it a lie?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Well, now what is the object of the lie?

What is the object?

A voice—"Masonry."

General Overseer—Masonry! That may be one thing: for there are a few foolish people who still cling to the worship of Baal, the sun-god, in the Masonic Lodge, and still pretend that they have more valuable secrets which we have proved to be disgusting and puerile inventions.

But I am now getting large numbers of Masons on my side, and the great majority, especially in and around Chicago, are ashamed to be known as Freemasons.

Masons Are Ashamed to be Called Masons Now.

Their wives say to them: "John, is what Dr. Dowie says true?"

"Did you enter that lodge with everything stripped off, except an old flannel vest, and an old pair of drawers, having one shoe off and one shoe on?"

"John, is it true you had a halter around your neck, and you were blindfolded, and led around like that?"

"Is it true, John?" (Laughter and applause.)

The fellow tries to dodge it.

He says: "What does Dr. Dowie know about Freemasonry?"

But he does not get out of it; for the woman says: "It is true, John, and I am ashamed to think you went through with that. You are still going through such performances, are you?"

If John does not stop adding to his degrees of infamy, he has not a pleasant life, for he has armed his family with full knowledge, and they keep on ridiculing the oaths and silly ceremonies of the Lodge.

It is a disgusting and shameful place for a professing Christian man or woman: for they must leave Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, outside.

You dare not name Him, but go through the mummery of Baal-worship, and the sham murder, burial and resurrection of Hiram Abiff, the mythical son of a Widow of Tyre.

Do not bother about the Masons; they are laughed out of existence nearly.

Recent manifestations in the Masonic Temple, Chicago, of their capacity for lying, stealing, and conspiracy to defraud, for which some of them are in the county jail, and others only escaped by the skin of their teeth, have settled them in their headquarters.

I ask wherefore is this lie?

Some Lies of the Press at the Close of a Previous Year.

Just about this time of the year, I notice that they start these lies.
Three years ago they said that I had gone to Ben MacDhui because I was sick and dying.

One day they reported me as sick.

The next day they reported me as dumb, voiceless, speechless.

The next day I was dying, and the fourth day I was dead. (Laughter.)

The whole thing was a lie.

I was in magnificent health, but I did what I sometimes do at this time of the year; I retired for a few days, because I had an immense amount of work at the end of the year, and I wanted to get a day or two of rest. I am so fresh and vigorous this year, however, that I do not take it, or at least not until after the year opens.

There is a reason for this kind of lying.

The reason is simply the thought that they can damage Zion; that they can inspire people in distant places with the thought that John Alexander Dowie is a very decrepit, old man, and so damage the ecclesiastical, educational, commercial and political institutions of Zion, and especially the City of Zion.

A Poem from a Well-known Public Man.

The other day I had, from a well-known public man, a very beautiful letter, with some original verses.

I read to you that he was seventy-five years young, and, he said, "I write to John Alexander Dowie, fifty-five years young." I felt it was true, so far as freshness and vigor of spirit, soul and body can make a man feel young.

I Am Not Old.

I am a stronger man today, in many ways, than I have ever been in my life.

This story of the Record-Herald's is a lie made out of whole cloth, a large stock of which is always on hand.

I scarcely know what weariness is, and it is not because I lie on a bed of inglorious ease.

I awoke on Friday morning at 5 o'clock and was in my office and hard at work within an hour.

I worked through all that day until 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, when I laid down my pen.

I took more than a few hours of rest, and then was at it again.

I took five hours and a half of rest last night, and I have been at it since 5 o'clock this morning.

It is now Lord's Day, 4 o'clock p. m., and if you will reckon from 5 o'clock a. m., Friday, you will find fifty-nine hours have elapsed, out of which I have been awake forty-nine and a half hours, working mostly at high pressure, with nine and a half hours of splendid sleep.

I am continually occupied in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, to probably from three to four thousand people.

I have thousands upon thousands of co-workers, all building up Zion as God enables me to direct them, without whom the work could never be done. Overseers, elders, deacons, deaconesses, seventy, and faithful men and women, youths and maidens, yes, and little children, all working, singing in Chorus—all helpers, the joy of my heart, without whose pay-rolls, so far as we know. Should such be at any time discovered, they will be immediately discharged and Zion will know them no more.

The next thing we hear of them is that they are "working with their mouths, as I call it, for the benefit of vile newspapers, or at some 'ministers' meeting,' etc. They annoy, sometimes, like mosquitoes, for a moment; but, like all vermin, they die unlamented, or go away out into the Dismal Swamps of the Apostate Denominations, where they torment each other.

I have thousands upon thousands of co-workers, all building up Zion as God enables me to direct them, without whom the work could never be done. Overseers, elders, deacons, deaconesses, seventy, and faithful men and women, youths and maidens, yes, and little children, all working, singing in Chorus—all helpers, the joy of my heart, without whose aid and cooperation I could do but little. God bless them all!

And with all that and more—much more—I am in excellent health, and am notumbering meaningless nonsense, as the newspapers well know.

Why did they tell the lie?

It was not intended for Chicago consumption; it was intended for the people who did not see me last Lord's Day, who did not hear me.

Tremendous Labor of Preparing Last Two Messages.

I will venture to say to you that, so far from that discourse being inconsequential—you can read it in the Leaves yourself—"it was the result and the product of tremendous labor.

The historic research in these last two Messages has caused me, for the first time, to realize the extent of the work I have done, and to appreciate the labor and resources involved in this tremendous undertaking.

The fact of the matter is that these miserable hell-hounds, this wretched generation of vipers, these miserable liars, these men who, as the Psalmist says, are "born speaking lies," are the curse of America today.

May God, in His Infinite Mercy, stop the mouths of those who speak lies. (Amen.)

I only wanted to make the protest. You have all stood by me in saying that the report is a lie, a shameful lie.

I am thankful that I can stand here today, knowing that there has not been one Sabbath day for many years on which...
I have been unable to preach, no matter where I was. I was able to conduct a series of services for nine months last year in this Auditorium.

I am taking nine months' series this year; that is to say, from September till the end of next May.

I am trusting that God, who has enabled me to speak His Message all these many years, may enable me to speak it still.

It would be no shame; it would be no wonder if the harp of a thousand strings did fail to keep in tune.

The wonder to myself has been that I have been enabled to do the work.

The Unfairness of the Attack.

It is only fair that a public man, representing, as I do, the great ecclesiastical, commercial, educational and political interests of Zion throughout the world, should not be lied about, and represented as a decrepit old man, when in the vigor of life.

I only ask to be fairly treated.

That lie was made out of whole cloth, and it was palmed off as the entire report of last Lord's Day's services in this Auditorium.

The intent was to weaken the work in every direction, and to spread abroad lies; for, of course, my life is of some value to Zion.

Thanks be to God, notwithstanding all her enemies, Zion today goes on holding her way, not borrowing a dollar from the world, and paying a hundred cents on the dollar!

Zion never compounded with her creditors at any time.

Zion is Strong Today and is Not Borrowing a Dollar.

So strong is Zion that last week when I was offered a loan of $475,000 I refused it.

Is that right, Deacon Judd? Deacon Judd—"Yes, sir." General Overseer—"Was one sum $75,000?" Deacon Judd—"Yes." General Overseer—"And the other $400,000?" Deacon Judd—"Yes, sir." General Overseer—"I declined the loan because, by the grace of God, I expect Zion to get through without borrowing a dollar.

Zion's Great, Beautiful Lace Industry.

I have hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of lace in my possession, that I am selling rapidly, all over this land, to more than four hundred of the largest houses, which are now duplicating their orders.

Our beautiful fabric is admitted to be cheaper and better than the imported.

People said to our salesmen: "Go away; we do not like Dowie, and we do not like Zion," but when they were shown the laces they said: "Oh, that is a horse of another color. Come in; let us look at them."

They bought.

The people who do not keep Zion laces will not have that trade, because we will have all of it by and by.

We command it now.

We have the best lace factory in the world.

We are making the fabric better than they do in Nottingham.

They have been telling that we had failed in that work.

Four hundred of the best houses in America as our customers at this early day, is the answer.

That is why they have been lying.

They had been telling everywhere that these industries had failed.

They failed to keep us out of this country. We fought our battle at four ports and got in.

Then the door was locked, and we have the key in our pocket. (Applause.)

That is what their opposition resulted in.

I thank God for the blessing upon the manufacture.

We have the possibility of from thirty to fifty million dollars' trade a year, with a profit so big that if I were to tell you about it, you would all want to push your money into my hand tomorrow morning and buy Zion Lace Industries' stock.

I never asked for money from the World, the Flesh, the Devil and the Denominations, with which to do the Work of God.

I never went begging those who had "struck oil," or "stolen steel," or lived evil lives, to help me.

I have helped Chicago financially since I came here, far beyond any help that Chicago has given me. I brought from time to time thousands and tens of thousands of good, honest, Christian people, many of them with considerable means, and millions of dollars' worth of trade in Chicago has been the direct result of my presence here.

And I am still a helper of Chicago, by trade amounting to a vast sum annually; besides the blessing of transforming thousands of people into sober, frugal, good, Christian, tax-paying citizens. Chicago is in my debt, and not I in Chicago; for Zion has done for Chicago what no money can ever repay.

Chicago never pays the expenses of this building. Zion pays the expenses every time.

I have never benefited by a single discourse I have ever preached here, for I have never charged you anything.

I have had the grace and the power given to me to pay my way.

Am Immortal Till My Work Is Done.

This Press vilification will not succeed in damaging myself or Zion permanently; but a day of Divine reckoning and vengeance is coming when the villains of the press will get the uttermost farthing of penalty.

Although I am in good health, I am conscious, as is every man upon God's earth, that there is but one step betwixt life and death, and perhaps my enemies would like that step taken today.

The grace of God has kept me in life, and He will keep me through fields of blood and death, if it were needful.

Through seas of blood and fields of death
We press with dauntless vigor on,
Immortal till God takes our breath,
Immortal till our work is done.

When my work is done and I have passed from this earth, you do not need to think you are rid of me, even then, because I will surely come back with Him. Then let these liars look out.

When the Lord takes possession of this earth, if He should, in His infinite condescension, give me Chicago, I know what I would do with the Record-Herald. (Laughter. Applause.)

As its twin, the Daily Spies, said the other night: "When Dowie gets his commission some of us will have to get off the earth." (Laughter and applause.)

That was true.

When God rules this world, He will set that pack of thieves and liars adrift.

Arrangement of the Press.

The newspaper press of Chicago is the most despicable, unpatriotic, unprincipled thing in existence.

Today there is nothing which keeps back Chicago more, nothing which injures it more, than this beastly, rotten, disgusting press.

I am not afraid of it, and they know it, too.

I shall live until my work is done.

I shall probably live to see the Record-Herald and the Daily News buried in the same inglorious grave with the Dispatch.

The Record-Herald is worse than the Dispatch.

The Dispatch, vile as it was, was not the hypocritical mass of lies which this paper is.

If they speak back, I think I will name somebody in connection with this.

Never believe anything against Zion or myself which appears in the press, unless you know it from some better source.

May God hasten the day when every newspaper press, and every other press in this land shall be captured for God, and run in the interests of Righteousness and Truth.

I have been greatly delighted to see the rapidity with which the subscription list of Leaves of Healing advances.

In one day, two thousand annual subscribers were recently received in our office.

Elder Lee says that this week there was received from Evangelist Cantel, in London, a list of ninety-two subscribers; from Deacon McKell, in Leeds, a list of fifty-three subscribers, and many from all parts of the United Kingdom.

Leaves of Healing lives, while the Record-Herald dies.
UNVEILING THE APOSTASY OP THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND HER EPISCOPAL DAUGHTERS.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in heaven and in earth, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus comes. Amen.

I desire to speak further this afternoon concerning the Unveiling of the Apostasy of the Church of England.

I have taken pains in the first two lectures on this subject to deal fairly and carefully with the origin of the Church of England.

I have dealt with the question of Royal Supremacy, and with the historic facts connected with the Church of England as by law established.

There is no question whatever that a fair statement such as I have made of these historic facts proves my position when I say that the Church of England was an Apostate Church from the beginning, and is an Apostate Church still.

I desire to deal with that Church today in some other phases of her Apostasy.

I will deal with several questions of Christian doctrine and practice, and prove that the Church of England and her Episcopal daughters in America and elsewhere are shamefully apostate on the ground of False Doctrine and False Practice.

The Church of England Apostate in its Ordinance of Baptism.

I denounce, as false, the doctrine contained in that which is the first Ordinance in the Church of England, the Ordinance of Baptism, or, to use the words of the Prayer book, "The Ministry of the Baptism of Infants".

I denounce it as being an ordinance absolutely opposed to the Holy Scriptures, to sound reason and to fact.

In the first place it is, in the Church of England and her Episcopal daughters, an Ordinance for Irresponsible and Unconscious Babes.

No such ordinance is to be found in the New Testament.

There is not a man in all the world who can find one single instance of a child having been baptized by the Christ or any of His apostles or ministers, so far as the records in the New Testament go.

If there be such a case, and any man here knows it, I would like to stop and listen to that man telling me where to find it. I have been acquainted with the Holy Scriptures from the time I was able to read them from my fourth or fifth year.

I have been able to read them from my fourth or fifth year, I have been a student of the Bible for fifty years.

I can read it in the Greek and Hebrew tongues, and have been, and now am, a teacher of teachers. I am told that hundreds of students are here today, and every Lord's Day and theological students in this place.

I have been offered chairs in theological institutions.

I know what I am talking about.

There is not one man who can find a single instance in which a baby was ever baptized either by Jesus, the Christ, or by any of His Apostles.

If any of you know otherwise I shall be very happy to be pointed to the passage.

I will wait for years for an answer. I will suspend this discourse and turn to the passage, to which you will please direct me, which tells of a baby having been baptized. [The General Overseer here made a long pause for an answer, but there was none.]

You cannot answer, because there is no such thing to be found.

Baptism is an Ordinance for Believers.

A baby believes in its mother, and that is about all.

It is a little animal, and about the dirtiest and most helpless one in the whole world.

Even a chicken can get out and scratch for itself after a few days.

A human baby sometimes cannot scratch for itself even when it is twenty-one years old. (Laughter.)

We have seen some spectacles of that lately in this city, in the disgusting things of which the press has compelled us to read at least the headlines.

You cannot glance at the newspapers without seeing how glad they are to unfold all the dirt and muck of the hidden immoralities of the best streets, such as Michigan avenue, and Prairie avenue and of the entire city.

How these stinking newspapers—these literary night-scarc—have disgraced this city!

My challenge concerning the Baptism of Babies cannot be answered. I know it cannot.

The entire institution of Infant Baptism has no support in Scripture and is false.

I charge, therefore, that the Ordinance of baptism of babies is a sham, a delusion and a snare.

I charge upon the Church of England and her Episcopal daughters that the Doctrines taught in this Baptismal service are absolutely false.

Chief among these is the doctrine of baptismal regeneration.

Lies in the Order of Public Ministration of Baptism in the Prayer-book.

The Order of Public Ministration of Baptism to be used in that church demands that a number of people called godfathers and godmothers shall appear, and that the godfather and godmother in each case shall stand with the baby, and have addressed to them certain words:

Dearly beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized; ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to receive him of his sins, to sanctify him with the holy Ghost, to give him the kingdom of heaven and everlasting life. Ye have heard, also, that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised, in His Gospel, to grant all these things that ye have prayed for,—

They did not hear any such promise from our Lord Jesus, the Christ.

There was not a single word of Gospel about Baptism read by the minister, not even the Command of Jesus to "make Disciples of all the Nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost"—Matthew 28: 19-20.

The only passage which the minister had read from the Gospels was the passage in St. Mark, 10th chapter, 13th verse, which tells how they brought young children to Jesus that He should touch them.

He took them in His arms, laid His hands upon them and blessed them.

That is the only portion of the Gospel which they quote.

There is not a word about Baptism in the passage.

The Christ was healing the sick at that time and the mothers pressed forward with their children for healing and blessing.

The disciples rebuked them, but our Good Shepherd, the Christ of God, rebuked the disciples, saying:

Suffer the little children to come unto Me; forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And he took them in His arms, and blessed them, laying His hands upon them.

It is a sham and a lie when a minister says that he has read to them what the Lord said about Baptism in the Gospel.

The Lord never said a single word about the Baptism of Infants in any of the Gospels.

It is not there at all, and they know it is a lie when they say:

Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in His Gospel to grant all these things that you prayed for: which promise he, for his part, promise by you that are his sureties.

I again challenge any one to prove that He ever promised any such thing.

Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, this infant must also faithfully, for his part, promise by you that are his sureties.

Unscriptural Provision of Sureties for a Baby.

Where did they get that?

Where did the Scriptures give the Church the right to find sureties for a baby?

These are not his own father and mother, remember, but a godfather and a godmother.
Where did the Scriptures say that? I will challenge any Episcopalian to find for me one passage in the New Testament which says that there is to be a godfather or a godmother at Baptism.

Now, hurry up. Tell me where to find it. You cannot. It is not there.

This error at a very early date in the Church, and apparently in a very simple way, by the Minister asking the heathen who presented themselves for Baptism to bring with them some Christian who knew them, and who would be sure for the fact that they were really converted. But even the most learned Church of England writers admit there is no Scriptural Authority for the practice. For instance, in Smith's Dictionary of Christian Antiquities, Volume II., page 1923, in an article on "Sponsors," by the Rev. Henry Browne, M. A., Vicar of Pevensey and Prebendary of Chichester Cathedral, the opening words are:

"Histor'y.—Though analogies and justifications for the institution of sponsors may be found in the Bible, yet there is no mention (in the Bible) of the word or thing.

This Order goes on to say:

"Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, this Infant must also faithfully, for his part, promise by you that are his sureties (until he come of age to take it upon himself), that he will renounce the Devil, and all his works, and constantly believe God's Holy Word, and obediently keep His commandments.

Farical Character of Godfathers and Godmothers' Promises.

Did you ever see an ordinary company of red-nosed godfathers?

Did you ever see a string of them standing before a Lutheran or an Episcopalian minister or a Roman Catholic Priest, scores of them full of beer?

Have you ever seen them?

Voices—"Yes.

General Overseer—Were you ever one of them?

Voice—"Yes." (Laughter and applause.)

General Overseer—I knew some one would own up.

Did you not tell an infernal lie when you promised to renounce the Devil and all his works for that baby?

Voice—"Yes.

The priest then asks: "Dost thou believe [and repeats the Apostles' Creed]?

"I do," is the answer from the godfathers and godmothers on behalf of the infant.

He then asks: "Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?"

"That is my desire," is the answer.

He asks: "Wilt thou obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?"

The answer is: "I will, by God's help."

Laxness of Ministers Regarding Godfathers and Godmothers.

Do the ministers convince themselves, even if they believe this to be a right mode of Baptism, that the men and women who are godfathers and godmothers for these babies are in a position to renounce the Devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, and the lusts of the flesh, so they will not follow or be led by them?

Does the minister believe that the men and women who witness in answer to this, "I renounce them all," are in a position to do it?

Do they not renounce the Devil for themselves, and they do not keep, never intended to keep, and are never expected to keep their solemn vows as sponsors.

You know that the majority of godfathers and godmothers are full of the Devil.

They do not renounce the Devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, and the lusts of the flesh, so they will not follow or be led by them?

Every one of you whose godfathers and godmothers prayed with you and taught you God's Way, and lived a holy life, put up your hands. (Two hands were raised.) (Applause. Laughter.)

I am glad that there are two.

I hope it is true. I am not going to say that it is false.

It may be that your sponsors did the best they could; but they were not required by God to assume any such personal responsibility.

For the most part, you know it was a lie, is not that so?

Voices—"Yes.

General Overseer—They were charged to do it, they promised to do it without any intention to fulfil their vow, and they did not do it.

That is the case all over the world.

This abominable sham of a godfather and godmother is a great stumbling-block to the world.

The minister, having got these answers from these people, declares that certain things now happen.

I Read from the Protestant Episcopal Prayer-book.

This Prayer-book from which I read is the Protestant Episcopal Prayer-book.

It is the book which is issued by authority, printed here in Chicago by the Chicago Prayer-book society in 1895, and is according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

I thought I would rather take the American form than the Church of England form, when talking to an American audience.

Episcopal Ministers Disobey the Order in Their Own Prayer-book as to the Form of Baptism.

After delivering a prayer—which I do not like to read because it is full of lies—"the minister shall" take the child into his hands, and then, naming it after the holy waters, he shall dip it into the water discretely, or shall pour water upon it.

When do they dip the child?

They never dip it.

When do they pour water even? They do not do that. They sprinkle a little water on the face.

Do you not see that even the American Protestant Episcopal Prayer-book says that the child is to be dipped?

I never noticed that until today.

The Protestant Episcopal church, in framing this Ordinance, had to admit that Baptism was Dipping. Why don't they always so baptize?

If it were sprinkling, the Greek word would be rhantisma (rhantrima) not baptismos (baptnma).

The Greek Word for Baptism Signifies Repeated Dipping.

Every Greek would laugh at you, because bapto (baruo) is to dip, and the Greek word baptismos (baruo) is to dip repeatedly. It is a word indicating not merely dipping, but dipping repeatedly.

That, you will find, is the statement in secular Greek lexicons. The idea of repetition is involved in the ending -ismo (ismo).

All Credible Testimony Favors Trinitarian Immersion.

There is not a scrap of scholarship to sustain anything else than Baptism by Triune Immersion, a repeated dipping.

It is dipping into the Name of the Father, and into the Name of the Son, and into the Name of the Holy Spirit.

That was the practice of the Church up to the Council of Ravenna, in 1311.

Pope Gregory the Great threatened to excommunicate any archbishop, bishop or priest who would baptize in any other way than by Triune Immersion.

Triune Baptist was the unchallenged teaching of the Church.
even after it was divided into the east and the west, and became apostate.

The Eastern, or Greek, church holds it today, and has never practiced any other form.

The Western Church went back on it at the Council of Ravenna.

That was not an Ecumenical Council.

It was not until a later council that permission was given in the Roman Catholic Church to baptize in any other way than by Trine Immersion.

The minister then declares that the child has been regenerated by this act of baptism, and received into the congregation of the Christ's flock:

Seeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this child is regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ's church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this child may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

The Doctrine of Baptismal Regeneration Proved a Lie.

I ask an honest question.

Every one who was sprinkled as a baby, so far as your knowledge extends, put up your hands. (Many hands were raised.) Did the sprinkling of that water regenerate your hearts?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Did you become a new man in the Christ, Jesus?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Were you converted?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Was it not a lie to say it?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—It was a lie—a shameful lie.

It is the lie which is at the bottom of all the infidelity of so-called Christian Europe, because no man believes it in his own heart.

The infidels fiercely and rightly reject it.

They say that it is a shameful lie to say that a priest can sprinkle a little water on a baby's nose, and have men and women, whether good or bad, make vows for the baby, and then declare that that baby's spiritual nature has been regenerated.

Every honest and reasonable man rejects it.

I asked that question in the Tribunal in Zürich, Switzerland. Zürich is in a German-speaking canton. I only found one person who said ja (yes); all the rest said nein (no).

Did you ever know of any person who really was regenerated and made a new creature when sprinkled with water by a minister?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Those who can say yes, say it.

There is not a yes in the congregation. There is not an honest man who can say it.

That is a deliberate and shameful lie.

It is not in accordance with the Word of God, and it is not in accordance with facts.

Apostasy of the Church Which Teaches Baptismal Regeneration.

What is the meaning of this lie?

It means that the church which tells it is shamefully apostate.

In the first place, such a church denies the Lord's words.

In the second place, it denies the Church's teaching for thirteen centuries.

The church which adopts this is a church which is introducing an Innovation.

This doctrine is opposed to historic fact and practical, personal experience, and is, therefore, a God-dehonoring and man-destroying lie.

Significance of a Real Baptism.

The Baptism set forth in the New Testament is the Baptism of responsible people who have repented and believed and are baptized, not to make them Christians, but because they are Christians.

They are baptized that they may receive the Seal of Trine Baptism, may acknowledge their faith in God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; may for themselves reject the world, the flesh, the Devil and the vain pomp and glory of the world. They are baptized that they may consecrate themselves, and by that Trine Baptism receive the spiritual Power which makes a man dead to Sin and alive unto God and endowed with Power for service.

A Real Baptism is the Seal of the Living God.

There is a Lie.

The Prayer-book Falsely Calls God the Author of Sickness and Death.

After certain prayers, he charges the sick person after this form:

"Dearly beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakness and sickness.

That is a lie.

God is not the author of Death.

"He that hath the power of Death is—"

(Audience—"'The Devil.'"

General Overseer—"By man came—"

(Audience—"Death."

General Overseer—"By man came also the—"

(Audience—"Resurrection."

General Overseer—"As in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive.

Death is the work of the Devil.

"For the Wages of Sin is Death; but the free gift of God is Eternal Life."

When this prayer-book tells me that God is the author of Death, I fling it back and say that it is a lie.

Death never was in heaven.

Death never came from heaven.

Death is caused by disease and sin.

This book says that all things pertaining to Death and Sickness are from God.

That is a lie!

There Is No Disease in God, Hence None Can Come from God.

If a sickness comes from God, then cancers, boils and all kinds of diseases come from God.

God must have a big storehouse of these in heaven. There must be a River of Death laden with disease, flowing from the Throne of God, if that be true.

But that is a lie!

Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed of whom?

Audience—"The Devil."

General Overseer—He came to destroy the works of—
Audience—"The Devil."

General Overseer—He destroyed disease, and whose work was it?

Audience—"The Devil's work."

General Overseer—It is a lie to say that Disease is the work of God.

A shameful lie!

Diseases Often the Result of Shameful Sin.

Moreover, many of the men to whom these ministers go have acquired disease by smoking, drinking, and by bad living.

Is God the author of their sins?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—Or of their sickness?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—Or of their death?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—No, it is a shameful lie!

A shameful lie!

I cannot say it too often.

A disgraceful lie!

A man who is an honest man, even if he be a sinner, may well look up and say: "Parson, tell me something that is true. I did not get this disease from God. I went to a harlot and got it. I went to a gin-mill and got it. I went to the Devil and I got my wages."

But the minister, reading from the Prayer-book, says that it all came from God.

His church demands that he shall say:

Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly, it is God's Visitation.

That is a lie, for God's Word declares that Disease is the work of the Devil. Take this passage, which covers every disease that Jesus removed when on earth:

Even Jesus of Nazareth, how that God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil; for God was with Him.

Have not many of you here been sick because of your sin?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Was that God's visitation?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Whose was it?

Voices—"The Devil's."

General Overseer—If I told you that it was God's visitation, would that be true or a lie?

Voices—"A lie."

Diseases Often the Result of Uncleanness.

General Overseer—Is not smallpox a disease of dirt?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is that God's visitation?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—The great majority of diseases are diseases of dirt.

If people keep themselves clean within and without they do not get these contagious diseases.

I have passed through this life and no contagious disease has touched me from the time I was healed by God nearly forty years ago.

I have laid my hands upon leprosy and smallpox.

I have laid my hands upon every foul disease known to man,
I think, without exception.

I have laid my hands upon vast numbers of smallpox cases, and I have never taken smallpox.

I have never taken a single disease.

God has heard my prayer for multitudes.

You who have been healed through faith in Jesus, put up your hands—"The Devil's."

(Several thousands held up their hands.)

There are thousands.

It is a lie, a shameful lie, to say that Disease, which is the Devil's work, is God's visitation.

What can be more dishonoring to God than to say that He is doing now the work which the Devil used to do?

The Prayer-book goes on:

If you truly repent of your sins, and bear your sickness patiently, trusting in God's mercy, for his dear Son, Jesus Christ's sake, and render unto him humble thanks for his fatherly visitation, submitting yourself wholly unto his will, it shall turn to your profit.

Is it not a mighty shame to say that the hand of God gave a man—I hate to say it—that foul disease, syphilis?

There are men in this city who are rotten from primary, secondary and tertiary syphilis, the most horrible disease, perhaps, known to humanity.

Was that the Fatherly Visitation of your God in heaven?

Voices—"No."

Disease Is from Father Satan and Mother Sin.

General Overseer—It is the visitation of the father of lies.

The father of lust, and the father of leprosy, and the father of syphilis is the Devil.

The Christ said that He came to destroy the works of the Devil.

It is a shameful lie to say that disease is God's visitation.

A man gets the Wages of Sin from the Devil direct, and it is a lie to say that they are God's loving visitations.

This is the reason why multitudes of common-sense men will have nothing to do with these churches which tell lies in the Name of God Almighty.

God has ever been the Savior, the Healer and the Cleanser of humanity.

The Devil has always been the defiler and the destroyer of humanity.

Apostasy of the Church of England Proved.

The Prayer-book of the Church of England in these and other Evil Teachings helps the Devil magnificently.

Therefore, it is an Apostate Church.

It is apostate in its fundamentals and throughout its entire organization everywhere.

God destroy the Organization (Amen), and save the People! (Amen.)

I have no fight against the men or women who are in that church.

My fight is against the lies which they have been compelled to swallow, from Henry VIII. to that bird of the same feather, Edward VII.

I want to see them set free.

There are multitudes today in the Church of England who know that this Prayer-book is a lie.

Nevertheless they continue to accept it because their bread and butter are at stake.

They are the worst kind of men, and the worst kind of women, who sell their Heavenly Birthright for a miserable little "Mess of Pottage."

Reform! Do right immediately! Get out of that Ecclesiastical Sodom!

All who intend to do right, God helping them, stand and say so. (Nearly all arose.)

Now pray.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am.

Make me what I ought to be in spirit, soul and body. May I renounce a false baptism. May I renounce a false doctrine. May I get out of false churches. May I do right, no matter what it costs. Forgive my sin.

Give me power to be a blessing to those whom I have sinned against, for Jesus' sake. Take my spirit, my soul and my body. Save me, heal me, cleanse me, keep me and help me so to live that I shall go to heaven. Help me to do my work for Thee on earth. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Now, did you believe it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then live it.

Receive the Benediction.

The service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the Benediction.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever.

Amen.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

ONCE more, on Lord's Day, November 30, 1902, did God give out His beautiful sunshine to the earth, even as He longs to fill the hearts of men with the blessed light of His presence.

Yet all weathers are good weathers to Zion, and those who wended their way, from every direction in the beautiful little city, toward Shiloh Tabernacle, in the glorious dawn of a perfect day, were hardly more in numbers than the multitude which gathers when days are dark and the clouds shut out the sun. Several thousand were present.

A thousand of Zion Restoration Host alone were there when the beloved leader of Zion, the Prophet of God, Elijah the Restorer, appeared in his accustomed place and gave the old, sweet, ever new Salutation to his people, "Peace to thee!" and received their loving Response, "Peace to thee be multiplied!"

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Lord's Day Morning, November 30, 1902.

Service was opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 414:
Do you see the Hebrew captive kneeling,
At morning, noon and night to pray?
In his chamber he remembers Zion,
Though in exile far away.

CHORUS.
Are your windows open toward Jerusalem,
Though as captives here a "little while" we stay?
For the coming of the King in His glory,
Are you watching day by day?

The General Overseer said:
For several months I have gone with you in these morning meetings, through the Teachings of Jesus in the 5th, 6th and 7th chapters of Matthew. It has been a very delightful exercise. I should like to go over them again, but I have felt that it would be best to give some extended consideration to some other department of Jesus' life.

Therefore I intend to speak to you for some time, God willing, in the morning meetings, concerning The Prayers of Jesus.

I wish that they were all recorded. Very few, indeed, are recorded. I will begin with the Last Prayer recorded, ere He went to Gethsemane. That and the Prayers on the Cross will come in their proper order, but, first of all, I desire to speak to you this morning concerning the Prayers of Jesus generally. The whole question of the Advocacy of the Christ should be considered here. We will first read the Lord's Prayer.

Not the prayer which the Lord taught the disciples to pray. That is the Disciples' Prayer. The Lord never could offer that prayer in some of its parts; He never needed to say: "Forgive us our sins." He never needed to agonize that He might be delivered from the Evil One.

When the prince of this world came at the end of Jesus' life he found nothing in Him that belonged to the World, Flesh or the Devil: for He was pure.

The Lord's Prayer is in the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John. The prayer in the 6th chapter of Matthew's Gospel is the Disciples' Prayer.

The Power of the Cry, "Father!"

That cry of "Father!" reaches through all the wildernesses the far countries where prodigals are wandering, and reaches the Throne of Grace, and the Father's face is radiant with Divine Joy as He hears it. The God who rules the Universe would, if it were necessary, reins up the stars and stop everything throughout the heavens.

to save His own child who cried from the heart: "Father!"
That thought was in the Christ's heart in this great last prayer, as He lifted up His eyes to heaven and said "Father!"

Prayer Should Begin with Thanksgiving.
That is the way to begin a prayer.
You must come to God with praise—the Avel the Hail! With a cry of delight, joy and thankfulness, He lifted up His eyes to heaven. The Hour had come to be glorified by, and to give Glory to, God the Father.

He knew that He was upon the eve of the awful conflict with all the Unseen Powers of Darkness and Death and Hell.
He knew that He had to go to Hell.
He wanted to save the people in Hell.
I do not know of any one who was ever good enough, strong enough, powerful enough, to be sent to Hell upon a Mission of Salvation there but Jesus, the Christ.

These things spake Jesus; and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that the Son may glorify Thee:
Even as Thou gavest Him Authority—

I think you might have been better occupied than in writing
Evil everywhere and all the time.
I have never believed for a moment that I should submit to the Devil.
I have not always been able to do as much damage to his kingdom as I should like, but I have always kept up a perpetual fight against the Devil.
I have always felt that I was quite willing to take a lick at All Evil Things, it did not matter how many there were.
Sometimes people say: "Well, how many things are there that you do not take a lick at?"
Very few, because there are very few of them that I do not need to take a lick at; because even the good is adulterated.
I take a lick at myself every now and then for a change.
Blessed is the man who knows how to take a lick at him himself.
As for you, my people, I take a lick at you, often, and you know you need it, too.
I never obtained any power or influence over you by flattering you. Never!
Nor would I wish to retain it by such means.
Power must be in the hands of a foolish man or a bad man.
I am not quite sure which is worse.

Danger of Power in the Hands of a Foolish Man.
I think that power in the hands of a foolish man is more dangerous than power in the hands of an actually, positively bad man, because he may have a wise head, be politic, and hence less dangerous.
Many a bad man possessing an absolute power has made a good use of it; so was he good, but because it was politic to do it, and so he has retained power for a long time, and done much evil.
A foolish man, who had not a bad heart, has gone away and made the most dreadful blunders.
It was a foolish king in England who lost these American colonies and drove them into rebellion.
It was a foolish king, with foolish advisers, who flattered his vanity and made him ten times a bigger fool than he was.
They drove him into war with a people who did not want to fight.
They loved their king and their country, and did not want to be rebels.
It was like breaking their heart-strings to tear away from the old land.
You must remember that the American of 1750-60 and '70 was a very different man from the American of today.

The great majority of them had only recently come from the old land.
They loved the old land.
They loved the King.
England was always "home" to them, just as in Australia we speak of England as home.
We say there: "Are you going home?" "Have you been home?"
That is how they speak of England throughout the Australian colonies and all other English colonies.
So it used to be in America until a foolish king, having great power with foolish advisers, lost this great empire.
He threw it away for a cup of tea, for a few paltry dollars of taxation, and then spent in war millions of dollars, many lives, great humiliation to the whole nation, a terrible misery to these colonies afterwards, and the wail of many children over her son, dead upon the battlefield, or rotting through disease, or, worse still, come home a moral wreck.

An Anecdote of George III.
Yes, this great realm of America was lost through a man who had great power but who was foolish, not bad-hearted.

George III. was a kind-hearted man and a simple-hearted Christian, according to his light.
Once a bishop came to him with a Vindication of the Bible to which he gave the Latin title Apologia, and he called it "An Apology for the Bible," and begged the king to permit him to dedicate it to his majesty.

George looked at it.
"A what?" he asked. "An Apology for the Bible? My Lord!
I think you might have been better occupied than in writing an Apology for the Bible."

"Who are these poor rebels in America, anyhow, that they dare to dispute my power?" was his attitude.

That foolish man Lord North and a number of other men wanted war.
That is the curse in a country where an army rules.
They want war and continual excitement.
They want war because there is then a chance for rapid promotion; and there are spoils.
So it has always been.
I would rather have power in the hands of a bad man than in the hands of a foolish, vain man.
A bad man, with a clear head, on the throne of England, would have seen that such treatment of the American Colonies was the height of foolishness.

Great Possibilities in an Anglo-Saxon Confederation.
If a different policy had been pursued at the beginning, the Colonies would never have left England.
I have often thought of what it would be if all the power held by the United States and by Great Britain were taken from one, and there were one great Anglo-Saxon Confederation.

It must come to that some day.
Every Nation shall be a part of One Great Confederation.
There must be a Confederation of the Best to prevent the absolute ruination of the world by a Confederation of the Worst.
If Russia could have her bad way, she would unite France and the Latin Powers under her flag, to crush Germany and Great Britain.
She would be quite willing to do it, for there is no religion in her leaders.
The most conscienceless rascals in existence are the bureaucratic rulers of Russia, both in the Church and State.
Their one aim is Empire, and their one method. Blood.
When the story of that empire is written, it will be a story, even a letter of which is written in blood.
It must fall, for

No Empire Can be Founded and Cementsed Together with Human Blood.

It rots.
It falls to pieces.
If certain nations could have their way they would strangle everything by a Bloody Hand.
They would crush America and her Free Institutions. One of the most foolish things is the notion of the Americans that the Russians are their friends. They are friends of none but themselves. Even the man cannot have the private friends he wants, and the Zarina's heart is breaking.

The shadow of insanity, misery and death hangs perpetually over that royal family. But the Russian Military Powers are not able to see that their doom is written. They will be cast down from the Roof of the World and smashed.

The prophecy concerning the Prince of Rosh (Russia), Tubal (Tobolsk) and Meshech (Moscow) will be fulfilled and they will be dashed to pieces as an Empire, and then the people will be blessed with the Banner of Zion, and in no other way. God bless all Nations, and the suffering Slav who has borne so patientely ages of cruel misrule.

And the Word of Jehovah came unto me saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: And I will turn thee about, and put hooks into thy jaws and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords: Persia, Cush, and Put with them; all of them with shield and helmet: Gomer, and all his hordes are upon the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes: even many peoples with thee.

Napoleon I., a Bad Man, Often Made Good Use of Power.

Napoleon I. was a bad man, but he knew how to use power. Oftentimes he used his power for the good of the people. He maintained his seat, and he held the hearts of the people—usurer, tyrant, dictator, oppressor, murderer, adulterer, thief as he was—by having the capacity to make the people understand that he could crush aristocracy and the old Bourbon power and found a New Order of Nobility from amongst the people.

He taught the soldier that he might have a marshal's baton in his knapsack. He made generals of barbers and bakers and gave "the tools to those who could use them," no matter who they were. He smashed the old customs on every side by having the sense to know that powers ought to be given to the man who could use them.

Therefore he won.

God governs on that principle—overturns an Ancient Priesthood, rich, learned, powerful—and founds His Church on "the Foundation of the Apostles and Prophets." He took fishermen to catch the world, and set aside philosophers. I am so glad, though, that that word Authority is there.

It is better than power.

Power may be in the hands of a fool, a bad man, a vain man, or a man who does not know how to attach to himself the right people in the right way.

Mere power is nothing in itself but a sharp tool which may be used for good or ill.

It has great value only when rightly directed.

If it is in the hands of any except those having rightful Authority, then it is a great danger.

Authority Belongs to the Christ.

The great thought in connection with the Christ is that He has not only power but exousia (Authority), the Right to Reign.

Sometimes His Power is denied and apparently set at naught, nevertheless His Authority and Power remain the same.

The fact that He has the Authority is that which will eventually establish the Power.

So He said in this great prayer:

> Even as Thou gavest Him Authority—

Ultimate, Complete Triumph of the Christ.

I would like you to look at your Bibles, please.

How far does the Christ's Authority extend?

Answer: "Over All Flesh."

Even as Thou gavest Him Authority over All Flesh, that whatsoever Thou hast given Him, to them He should give Eternal Life.

General Overseer—There is the ultimate—the Glorious God of all Redeeming Grace.

For as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall All be made alive.

And if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw All men unto myself.

For God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that He might have mercy upon all.

God... is the Savior of All men, especially of them that believe, beloved friends, when you make Theological limitations to God's Mercy, and put your poor little metes and bounds around Divine things, write under it: This Picture was drawn by a fool. Write under it: This Creed was written by a fool.

The Flattened Mind Cannot Comprehend the Infinite.

When you are able to define the Infinite, then you are bigger than the Infinite.

I am bigger than the thing that I can personally surround.

I cannot comprehend God.

I am thankful that He can comprehend me.

My poor, little arms; my poor, little spiritual nature, extend it though I may, can never put a ring around Infinity.

It is too contemptible to talk about.

Nor can a Synod or Council of finite men define the Infinite.

Here we have the great purposes of God defined, or rather declared Infinite, because even God cannot define them unless He could define Himself.

And this is Life Eternal, that they should know Thee, the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

"Hear, O Israel, Jehovah thy God is One God!"

One God and Father of all, above all, through all and in all.

from whom the Son and Spirit proceed, of whom the Son and Spirit are an essential part; a Triune God.

There is no separation in the Godhead.

There is no differentiation in the Godhead.

There is no difference in design, or in operation.

There is no place, perhaps, in the Bible where it is more philosophically put than in the Great Neglected Chapter; the 12th chapter of 1st Corinthians.

Look at it for a moment.

Fourth verse.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

And there are diversities of ministarions, and the same Lord.

And there are diversities of workings, but the same God, who worketh all things in all.

That, I think, is perhaps the greatest declaration of the operation of the Trinity by any inspired writer or speaker outside of Jesus, the Christ, Himself.

Jesus, the Christ, the Greatest Teacher.

You will find more in Jesus, the Christ, than you can ever find in Paul, and more in the Gospels than you can ever find in the Epistles.

It is the Revelation of Jesus, the Christ, that is the greatest thing.

That is why the last book in the Bible is the Greatest Book I read, and over which I pray and ponder, and which I almost shrink and almost tremble to expound: for it is the *Revelation of Jesus the Christ."

It is a wonderful book! God alone can make us understand it, through Faith in Him, His own Eternal Son, whom it reveals.

The Christ is praying, for us, and for all, that we may understand, and do, what His Will reveals in these Times of the End—the Restoration Times—when we must all in our places be Faithful Witnesses, and be prepared to do the work, and not shrink from consequences. Ponder and pray over this—"The Wise shall understand."

The Christ, the Righteous Advocate, the Propitiation for our Sins and for the Sins of the World, is praying to the Father, the only true God, from whom He came; to whom He returns, and from whom the Spirit has come and will come, until the Spirit returns.

One God, All in All, so that the Father represented in that wonderful introduction to the Neglected Chapter reveals the Unity of the Gifts of the Spirit, the Unity of the Works of the Spirit through the Son.

It represents the Eternal Oneness of God, the Eternal Father, who, in perfect accord and oneness with His Son and Spirit, reaches us by an incarnation of Himself.

The Priceless Value of Knowledge.

This prayer of the Incarnate Redeemer, "this is Life Eternal that they should know," is not merely see; it is not merely talk; it is Know. What do you really Know?
The thing which counts in this world is what a man knows, not what he talks about.

And this is Life Eternal, that they should know Thee, the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

You cannot know God any other way.

He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

The Way to Life Is Barred by Truth.

You cannot get to Life with a lie.

If you have a lie in your mouth or heart, you will have no Life.

You will be a poor, miserable skeleton, living with the Skeleton Armies of every kind, down in the Valley of Dry Bones.

Do you know that Jesus, the Christ, is the Way?

You do not get the Life until you get Truth.

Truth is the Search-light turned by God upon every one at the gate of Life.

You cannot get in unless you are true, unless you know the Christ as the Truth.

The Truth sets you free.

That they should know Thee, the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

Unless men know the Messenger whom God has sent, they never know God.

Unless they have power to discern between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not, they will be led away by those who were not sent with a Message from God, but from Satan the Deceiver.

They will go into the wilderness after many a false Christ.

They will go into the battle after a many foolish leader.

If any one but a Moses had led the children of Israel they would have perished in that desert.

He was God's Chosen Messenger, and He alone.

It was Death to dispute that fact.

Read the Story of Korah, Dathan and Abiram and two hundred and fifty Princes of Israel, "men of renown" who disputed the rule of Moses and the high-priesthood of Aaron. They all perished in a moment.

And if it be Death to refuse to recognize God's Prophet, how much more awful the doom of those who will not know the Christ?

You may make a mistake about leaders, but do you know Him?

The prayer of the Christ is that you shall know.

We are asking God to enable us to understand what our Advocate is praying about and what He means by His prayer.

Glorying God on Earth.

Do you want to get what He prayed for?

I glorified Thee on the earth.

It is a good thing when a man can say, I have glorified Thee.

Paul could say, with one hand bound to a Roman soldier, writing in a dungeon, perhaps ready to be martyred: "I have kept the faith. I have glorified Thee. Once I persecuted Thee, O Christ of God, but I have kept the faith. I have finished my course. I have glorified Thee on earth."

The Christ had no sinful period to look back upon.

He glorified God from His birth; from the cradle to the grave.

He was the only man living who could ever say it.

Some of us, perhaps, can say, in a measure, since we have known him: "I glorified Thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which Thou hast given Me to do;" but it cannot be in the full sense an "accomplished work" as was His, for His alone was perfect work.

Beloved friends, we all have some work to do.

We must work today, and every day.

We cannot afford to lose an hour; no, not a minute.

A Fisherman Is Not Losing Time When He Is Mending His Nets.

If he does not mend his nets, he will not catch many fish.

There is no loss of time in mending your nets.

If you are too busy to mend your nets before you go fishing, what a foolish fisherman you will appear when you come back from deep-sea fishing!

When you have gone out and caught the fish in your neglected nets, out through the unmended holes all the fish will go.

As they go sailing out, they will look back at you and say: "We got the bait and had a nice time."

The fisherman has an empty net, except for here and there a useless, fat fish which fishermen call "Baptists." (Laughter.)

A good fisherman will see that his nets are mended, and tested.

He will not go to sea until he knows this is done, else he may have nothing for all his pains.

I know a man who is an old fisherman on little White Lake, who very foolishly exposed his nets to danger, and failed to test them.

He thought they were all right, but they just parted and all the fish went out.

He was an old and experienced fisherman.

He came to me and told me about it.

"Ha!" I said, "it pays to mend your nets, does it not?"

"Yes, Doctor," he said. "It does not pay not to."

It does not pay not to test your net.

Do not think you are losing time when you are mending your nets, reading the Word of God, examining yourself and our family in a loving spirit, and putting things right.

Our Nets Must be Large Enough.

You will be no fishers of men without a good net.

Some of you cannot fish for men because you have no net big enough to catch a man in.

Your net is not big enough to catch a sprat.

You have to get a big net to catch many men.

I know a little about it. I have to throw my net out every week, every day.

I am fishing for men now.

It is not difficult to get "Baptists."

You know what I mean.

That kind of fish which swims into a net and annoys the fisherman.

He says: "Another Baptist!" (laughter), and throws it away.

Fat, greasy, nasty thing; it is no account at all.

I know a man who is an old fisherman on little White Lake, who is really saved.

He may err; but if he is saved, he will stay saved.

Why do you not get the kind of Salvation which stays?

A man who is really saved stays saved.

He may err; but if he is saved, he will stay saved.

Why do you not get the kind of Salvation which stays?

I think we have it in Zion; but some of you may not have Zion in you.

Beware! Be true.

The number of those who have been lost from our ranks in Zion does not come to anything like five per cent.

Thank God for that.

Zion's Great Work Just Begun.

A great work lies before Zion all over the world.

You have to do it.

Can we say that the work is already accomplished which Zion has to do?

It is just begun.

If I were to pass away now, I would not say that my work was accomplished.

I should say: "O God, I made a fair beginning, but it is not yet accomplished."

Ashes would be upon my head and on my lips sackcloth, if I thought that the end had come.

I would feel like the Abbot Ernestus in Longfellow's Golden Legend—

Ashes are on my head, and on my lips Sackcloth, and in my breast a heaviness; And weariness of life, that makes me ready To say to the dead abbot under us, Make room for me! only I see the dusk Of evening twilight coming, and have not Completed half my task; and so The thought of my shortcomings in this life Falls like a shadow on the life to come.

Let us do the work which God gives us to do today.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

By His grace, let us say tonight: "O God, I did only a little, but I did accomplish the work You gave me to do in Zion Restoration Host.

"I went to that hundred houses in the streets and lanes of Chicago, and I knocked at every door, and said, with my heart filled with Thy Love, 'Peace be to this house.'

"They listened, and they took the Message.

"O God, I did what I could.

"When I got an opportunity, I put my arms around the poor prodigal and said, 'Come with me.'

It is better to say "Come" than to say "Go."

Do your work while it is Day: for the Night is coming when no man can work!

Prayer was then offered by Overseer Piper and by the General Overseer. After some remarks by the General Overseer regarding the subject for the day, the congregation joined in the following

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

Our Father, in Heaven, we come to Thee. Take us as we are. In Jesus' Name, make us what we ought to be in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give us power to do right. Take away whatever of evil there is in us. Give us real Repentance, fruits meet for Repentance. Give us Holy Living, a Holy Power, a Holy Purity, and a Holy Zeal, such as Thou wilt approve.

Give us wisdom, patience and willingness to submit to suffering and shame and, if need be, death for Thee.

Help us in all ways to win men to Thee. For Jesus' sake

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager.
O God of our Salvation:
Thou art the confidence of all the ends of the earth.

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy House.—Psalm 65:5 and 6.

ZION is daily able to put before the world facts which are undeniable.
The fact is that wherever the Gospel of the Kingdom of God is presented by the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, it is effective in winning people from their sins and in causing them to live righteous lives.

The fact is that the sick are healed in large numbers day after day, week after week and year after year.

Loved ones are spared to each other.

Tears of sorrow are turned into tears of joy.

New life and courage come where darkness and despair were gathering.

It is a fact that the Holy Spirit has entered into the hearts and lives of those who are obedient to the teaching in Zion; and with new determinations and purposes they go forth into the world, and are a blessing in the midst of a faithless and unbelieving people.

All nations see the work of God in Zion.

The Kingdom of God comes near to them.

God and the holy angels and good men rejoice.

The Christ is seeing the fruits of the travail of His soul, and is being satisfied.

Those who have been faithful to the teaching of Zion, even though they may come to the valley of the shadow of death, do not doubt or become afraid.

They count it a blessed privilege to be permitted to pass into the presence of Him who has done so much for them.

Even then, when life is almost extinct, the prayer of faith is offered, and God often very wonderfully answers prayer and gives back life and sends it forth in the world, with new and holy purposes.

One beautiful Lord's Day morning, August 17, 1902, the General Overseer was seated in the little parlor at Ben MacDhui, on White Lake, near Montague, Michigan, surrounded by his household, explaining the Scripture and teaching them the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.

In the midst of the little service the telephone bell rang, and the following message was received from Zion City:

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Montague, Michigan.
Pray for Myrtle Sisson.

Very low.

W. O. DUNNIS.

A feeling of intense surprise and deep sympathy passed over the little assembled household.

We felt sure that God would hear the prayer of His servant, and would not permit Satan to take the life of the Christian young lady, who was so ill.

In a few simple words the General Overseer poured out his heart to God. He said:

Our Father, look upon the dear girl, whom we all know to be a pure, good girl. We pray Thee that Thou wouldst grant that every hindrance may be removed, and that she may look to Thee perfectly. God, help her; deliver her in Jesus' Name. Amen.

That was all we heard! That was all we saw!

The eye of faith looked up to God and expected Him to give the healing.

We recall the words recorded by the Apostle James:

The supplication of a righteous man Availeth much in its working.

We believed that the prayer of this righteous man would avail; and it did.

The hand of Death was stayed, and from that moment the life began to come back.

Today she walks amidst us in Zion City, as one to whom God has given a new life and a place of ministry in Zion Restoration Host.

He gives her the opportunity of carrying the Message of God's wonderful Love and Salvation.

Read the words which so beautifully tell the story of how, when the "spirit seemed to be in the border land of Heaven," God, in His infinite mercy, bade it stay in the world, and go forth in His love and in the power of His Spirit to win others to Him.

Prayer Answered for One Whose Spirit Seemed in the Borderland of Heaven.

2700 ELM AVENUE, ...ZION CITY, ILLINOIS. | December 5, 1902.

BELIEVED GENERAL OVERSEER AND OVERSEER JANE DOWIE:—I thank you for your very kind letter of December 1, 1902, acknowledging the telegram sent to you requesting prayer for Mrs. Logan.

I praise God that since last Wednesday she has been up, attending to her household duties. When I telegraphed you she was having hemorrhages of the womb. She had become very weak. I thank God and give Him all the glory.

I thank Him for sending to us the Messenger of the Covenant.

Praying that God will abundantly bless and keep you until Jesus comes, I am,

Yours in the Christ,
MYRTLE E. Sisson.

Testimony of One Who Was Wonderfully Healed Fourteen Years Ago.

In a letter written by Mrs. S. A. Kelly, of 552 O'Farrell street, San Francisco, California, under date of November 26, 1902, sent to the general associate editor of Leaves of Healing, she says:
I gladly renew my subscription to Leaves of Healing, and trust that it may always be my privilege to receive the weekly visits of the Little White Dove.

It, busy as I know you are, you have an opportunity to say a few words to the dear, busy General Overseer, assure him of my very good health.

My lungs are sound, fourteen years after my wondrous healing.

Assure him of my continued love for his family and of my prayers for the prosperity of Zion.

Mrs. Kelly's wonderful healing has been told in detail in several of the earlier issues of Leaves of Healing.

It is especially recorded in Volume 1, No. 2, and in Volume 4, No. 2.

It is a marvelous story of how God heard and answered the prayers of our General Overseer, even when the spirit seemed to have left the body.

To God be all the glory.

Our hearts go out in gratitude to Him for His faithful servant, John Alexander Dowie.

Hemorrhages Stayed in Answer to Prayer.

Miss Mary E. A. Bolton, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, writing under date of December 7, 1902, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I received your very kind letter of December 1, 1902, acknowledging the telegram sent to you requesting prayer for Mrs. Logan.

I praise God that since last Wednesday she has been up, attending to her household duties. When I telegraphed you she was having hemorrhages of the womb. She had become very weak. I thank God and give Him all the glory.

I thank Him for sending to us the Messenger of the Covenant.

Praying that God will abundantly bless and keep you until Jesus comes, I am,

Yours in the Christ,
MYRTLE E. Sisson.
power, praise God, I have experienced in my own body.

In 1858 I heard for the first time that God healed His people today just as in the days when our blessed Lord traveled this earth.

I thank God with all my heart for this wonderful teaching, which enables us to live pure, clean and holy lives. I have learned with the Lutheran church at the age of fourteen years, and was baptized, as the Lutharians call it, but was not saved.

I wondered if that was all it meant to be a Christian.

I was not satisfied, but was hungering and thirsting all the time for something more than I ever found in the Lutheran church.

I praise God today I can say: Hallelujah! I have found what my soul so long has craved!

Jesus satisfies my longing.

This His blood I now am saved.

I do thank God for leading and bringing me to Chicago, and for the privilege of being in Zion Hospice No. 2, where He manifested His power to heal and keep me.

On October 5, 1901, I was taken with chills and fever and severe pain in my head.

I was told to stop working and rest a while, but did not do so, and after three days I was compelled to give up work, realizing that there was a battle on hand.

I decided to go out for a ride, saying that I would be better soon.

I started for the home of a dear sister on the west side of Chicago.

Before reaching there I felt that I was going to faint.

I called on God to keep me till I could reach her home, and He did; but as soon as I reached there I felt the same again.

I asked the sister to pray for me, and, although I was too sick to pray for myself, I received a partial blessing.

I was still so sick, however, that I could not raise my head without sinking away.

In the afternoon I asked her to send for Elder Fickler.

He came and prayed for me.

I received a remarkable blessing and got up and ate a hearty supper, seeming to have completely recovered.

But I fear I did not watch as well as pray, for in the night the Devil broke through.

I awoke far worse than before.

I had a fever, and followed by high fever.

I was raging with pain and fever, gradually growing worse and becoming, at times, delicious.

On the following day the Elder came over again.

I felt some better and requested them to call a carriage and take me back to the Home.

There I lay for four weeks, more dead than alive, most of the time.

The first two weeks I could get relief, but was so weak in body and mind that I could not retain the blessing.

The third week the Devil was determined to have my life.

I was unconscious altogether, but thank God for the love that was shown my little boy and myself at this time.

He was cared for, a nurse was secured for me and every kindness and care possible shown.

In this condition I remained day after day, then lost my hearing and was unable to speak so they could understand me.

There was a continual roaring in my head.

This first week I knew nothing out of any one around me; but God was with me throughout it all.

While I was unconscious of everything around me, passages of Scripture often rang in my ears.

One, especially, I shall never forget: "Fear not, for I am with thee."

From the beginning I felt confident that God would heal me, but failed to exercise faith and receive the immediate deliverance.

On Saturday, before receiving my healing, I grew weaker and weaker all day, and at 7:30 in the evening those around me thought I had passed away.

They sent for Overseer Piper. Deacon Cotton came with him.

They laid hands on me in Jesus’ Name, and, in answer to the prayer of faith, life came back to my body.

I grew stronger but did not yet have a complete victory.

On the following Tuesday, about ten minutes past nine in the morning, when Zion throughout the world is praying (I had up to this time remained in my room), I received the immediate deliverance.

I was so sick that I could not raise my hands up to this time, but I gained in strength very rapidly; for I was perfectly healed.

All fever and pain left me instantly.

In just one week I was able to dress and sit up for an hour, and in ten days I was taken down stairs to the meeting in the assembly-room.

I was yet too weak to stand alone.

Overseer Speicher had charge of the meeting.

He prayed for me and I received a great blessing, so that I was able to walk alone.

I can scarcely realize that I was so sick, as I was delirious or unconscious most of the time.

I have been told by Overseer Speicher and those who attended me that I was nigh unto death.

Praise God, He is the Healer and Keeper of His children.

I can never forget the manifestation of the Holy Spirit, which came in such mighty power the morning I was healed.

I praise His Name for full deliverance and for this wonderful goodness to the children of men.

My only desire is to sink deeper yet and learn more of His love, that I may, in some little way, lead others into this glorious light.

I love Zion because God dwells in Zion.

I trust that this simple testimony will be the means of blessing to sufferers to whom the Little White Dove will be sent in answer to prayer.

Thanking you and all Zion for your kindness and prayers in my behalf, I pray that God’s richest blessing may rest upon you and your family.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) C. A. CAlDWELL.

"Leaves of Healing" A Great Blessing — Boy Healed of Stomach Trouble.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, December 3, 1902.

My Dear General Overseer: — I thank you for your prayers in behalf of my son.

He was healed of his stomach trouble and of a pain in his breast.

I give God all the honor and praise for his healing.

I am so thankful that LEAVES OF HEALING has been sent to me through some kind friend in Zion.

It has been a light to my way and food to my spirit.

Your sister in the Christ,

(Mrs.) Mary M. Reed.

God, the Family Physician.

KEDOM, IOWA, December 3, 1902.

Dear General Overseer: — On April 24th I had fever, and mamma and I prayed.

At once I was hungry and asked for some milk and crackers.

While mamma was getting them for me I was taken with a spasm.

My sister called to her, and when she came in they prayed for me, and again God answered their prayers.

We are all trusting the Lord for our spirits, our souls and our bodies.

Six years ago this April mamma first received the Light, and we do praise our Heavenly Father for it.

Mamma said she did not know what she would do if she had not had this blessed teaching, as she was always so afraid of sickness, but now we have our Heavenly Father to go to when we are not well.

Your little sister in the Christ, Ethel Long.
Immersion the Only Mode of Baptism.

1. Immersion is necessary to washing away. — Acts 22:16-17.
Baptism is a washing away.
A single dipping is not thorough cleansing.
A trine dipping is necessary.

2. There can be no cleansing without repeated dipping. — Mark 15:47.
Hands require repeated dippings.
Dishes are made clean by many dippings.
The word washing is the word baptism.

3. It stands as a sign of renunciation of sin, and as a sign of cleansing. — Isaiah 52:10.
Baptism is an act of cleansing.
The cleansing of God follows at once.
The word cannot be made to mean to sprinkle.

The word washing is the word baptism.
The cleansing of God follows at once.
The word cannot be made to mean to sprinkle.
Triune Immersion.
The word baptism is in three parts.
The command is to search for Life.

The cleansing of God follows at once.
The word cannot be made to mean to sprinkle.

2. It must be thoroughly done.
3. The word washing is the word baptism.
The cleansing of God follows at once.
The word cannot be made to mean to sprinkle.

The command is to search for Life.

Repent, be baptized, be cleansed.
The word baptism is in three parts.
The word cannot be made to mean to sprinkle.

The command is to search for Life.

Forgive those who speak evil of you.
Forgive those who crucify you.

We are to pray for a peaceful life.
Remission of sins is then possible.
Lay down your life as the Christ did.
God’s Holy People are a Command-obeying People.

The Lord our God is an Immersion-commanding God.

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS
Conducted by DEACON DANIEL SLOAN

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION’S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

A reference encyclopedia of Bible truth can be had by those who will make the proper use of Zion’s Bible Class Lessons which will be issued at the Presenting House at 151-142, North Clark Street, Chicago, during the days of the New Year, 1879. They open up wonderful resources of preparation for Zion’s Seminaries together with those conducting College Prizes, Meetings or Zion Gatherings. These studies have been issued also in the form of Numbers 8 and 9, and number about seven million. They extend over a wide range of Bible topics and subjects of practical use. They illustrate the full scope of Bible truth, concerning God, man, redemption, the Christian, a holy people, the church, the Christian Church, Christian life, the church in the modern states. These lessons can be clipped out of the paper and lasted in a book and indexed under the general subjects of which they treat. This will render the lesson ready reference and can be added to regularly. The subjects, with the varied methods of treatment, will appear in comprehensive and suggestive notes of Scripture from every book of the Bible, together with practical questions or remarks thereto, may be added to by the student. Observations and questions which will enable every one who devoutly studies and diligently uses them to rightly divide the word of truth, and thus in an increasing measure become meet for every good work.

How to study or teach a Zion Bible Class Lesson should not prove to be a difficulty to anyone, it is the intention to cover simply the vital truths and important doctrines of the Bible, presenting a phase of no subject in each lesson from a given point of view, with subjects of Scripture which have a plain and positive meaning, viewed from the light of Bible research. No commentaries are to be used, for they, in most part, are nothing but the interpretations of the elders of the Church, God. They may explain the translations of the Bible, give a dark meaning to God’s truth. They set forth lack of faith and show the low standard of spiritual conception as the day or the work was done.

The safe rule for all is to read the word of God in the studies of the Holy Scriptures, com- paring Scripture with Scripture. Let the concensus of Scripture tests on one subject give the true meaning of the words involved, determine the points of view from which the subject must be approached.

The third question cites the fact that people are in accepting new truths.
So used are they in an old treadmill experience, bound in walls of creeds and denominational teachings, that they cannot see that the Holy Spirit will ever cleanse the church. It is our chief object to cause God’s plans step by step through the ages.

Subscribers, Read This!

On every subscriber's copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or THE ZION BANNER we attach a yellow label bearing his name, address, and two numbers, the figures referring to the volume and number with which the subscription will expire.

Thus, should your label number happen to be XI—25, you may know that your subscription expires with Volume XI, Number 25. Also take notice that LEAVES OF HEALING now completes a volume every six months, or twenty-six weeks, that being the number of papers which we put into a bound volume. Earlier in the life of the paper a volume contained fifty-two numbers, as LEAVES OF HEALING had fewer pages in those days.

It is now our custom to give all subscribers notice of expiration by circular letter, about ten or twelve days before their subscriptions expire, and to discontinue the papers to their address unless renewal is received by the time of expiration.

By making yourself familiar with these customs and remitting promptly you need never allow your subscription to lapse.

Send money only by Bank Draft, Postoffice or Express Money Order, in favor of John Alexander Dowie, and address all letters intended for us to

LEAVES OF HEALING

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

SHILOH HOUSE, PRESENT RESIDENCE OF THE GENERAL OVERSEER AND FAMILY, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.
ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD IN ZION, 1902-3

TO THE OFFICERS, MEMBERS AND FRIENDS
OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
IN ZION—BELIEVED BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE CHRIST:

PEACE TO THEE!

Once more God gives to me the joyful privilege of sending forth my Annual Call to spend the ALL-NIGHT with God, and with all ZION, in Communion, Praise, Prayer, Teaching, Conference and Testimony, from Ten o'clock on the Night of Wednesday, December 31, 1902, until Seven o'clock on the Morning of New Year's Day, 1903.

The Second Year of the Twentieth Century has been one of great Progress in Zion throughout the world, and especially in the beautiful City of Zion, which God has enabled us to establish on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Amongst the Important Events of the year are:

(1) ZION'S GREAT DELIVERANCE FROM THE HANDS OF AN UNJUST JUDGE, who aided a perjured villain in his attempt to destroy ZION'S LACE INDUSTRIES. We never lost their control for a moment.

(2) THE OPENING OF SHILOH TABERNACLE, at ZION CITY on March 31st, which is ordinarily seated for Five Thousand, Two Hundred persons, and can accommodate Six Thousand on occasion. The building has often been too small for the numbers attending.

(3) THE FORMATION OF THE THEOCRATIC PARTY on Monday Evening, April 7th, whose Motto is WHERE GOD RULES MAN PROSPERS.

(4) THE LEGAL INCORPORATION OF THE CITY OF ZION on March 31st, and the ELECTION OF THE FIRST MAYOR, ALDERMEN and CITY OFFICERS on April 23rd.

(5) THE GREATEST PERSONAL SORROW OF OUR LIFE, in the sudden departure of our greatly beloved daughter, ESTHER A. DOWIE, on Wednesday, May 14th, and the BURIAL of her body in ZION CITY on Friday, May 16th, in the presence of a vast concourse of sympathetic friends, thousands of whom knew of the story of her beautiful life and her final Triumph.

Blessed are they that wash their Robes:

That they may have the right to come to the Tree of Life,
And may enter in by the Gates into the City.

(6) THE GREATEST GATHERING OF GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING ever recorded in the History of the CHURCH, when over Six Thousand persons gave Public Testimony on Lord's Day, May 25th, in the Chicago Auditorium.

(7) OUR SOLEMN DECLARATION ON THAT OCCASION, AS THE PROPHET FORETOLD BY MOSES, in Deuteronomy 18:15, and spoken of by the Apostle Peter in Acts 3:22.

(8) ZION'S SECOND FEAST OF TABERNACLES and GREAT ANNIVERSARY GATHERINGS from July 12th to 22d, which was accompanied by Wondrous Manifestations of the Divine Presence and Power of God.

(9) THE ORGANIZATION OF ZION RESTORATION HOST, amidst most impressive scenes, at SHILOH TABERNACLE on Lord's Day, September 21st, when Thousands took the RESTORATION VOW; followed by a splendid Series of Weekly Visits to Chicago, Illinois; Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, and many other cities, by splendidly-organized Seventies, operating under Leaders, assisted by Captains of Tens.

Millions of persons throughout the World have been reached by specially prepared Zion Messages, and the Salutation of the fully Six Thousand Members of the Host, who go in twos from house to house with the Message of the Christ:

"PEACE BE TO THIS HOUSE!"

(10) THE WONDERFUL GROWTH OF THE CITY OF ZION, which has now an estimated population of about Eight Thousand, with large Public Buildings, and many hundreds of Private Houses, numbers of which are beautifully finished, and others in course of erection.

(11) THE VAST ASSEMBLIES, which continue to gather every Lord's Day afternoon in the Chicago Auditorium, to listen to our Messages as ELIJAH THE RESTORER, and their publication every week to all the world in the pages of LEAVES OF HEALING.

(12) THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ZION BANNER as a semi-weekly paper, THE VERY LARGE INCREASE IN OUR ISSUE OF LEAVES OF HEALING, BLATTER DER HEILUNG, VOICE FROM ZION, etc., by means of ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, and the sending forth, up to date, of over Two and a Half Millions of Rolls of ZION LITERATURE to all the World by means of ZION LITERATURE MISSION.

(13) THE VICTORY, after Months of Conflict with the Newspaper Press of the City of Chicago, which united with others in a desperate, sustained series of attacks upon ZION CITY and its FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

The final result was to establish in the public mind the solidity of Zion's Financial Foundations, and the great value of ZION'S ESTATE, estimated at nearly Twenty-four Millions of Dollars.

All these things have combined to absolutely silence the Press.

It often has been said in business circles that no other Institution in America could have survived that ordeal.

(14) THE STEADY, WIDE-SPREAD GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION by means of ZION MESSENGERS in EUROPE, ASIA, AFRICA and AUSTRALASIA.

(15) THE LARGE ADDITIONS ON EVERY CONTINENT to the Membership of the CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

(16) THE WORLD-WIDE PROGRESS made by ZION'S HOST of WOMEN, led by Overseer Jane Dowie, who, in Dorcas Work, and through Zion Maternity Deaconesses, has alleviated the poverty of many thousands of persons, and maintained ZION HOME OF HOPE FOR ERRING WOMEN, and has done good work of every description.

(17) THE SPLENDID PROGRESS made by ZION COLLEGE, ZION JUNIOR SCHOOLS, ZION KINDERGARTEN and EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS generally, arrangements being made now for the care and education of over One Thousand, Two Hundred in the CITY of ZION alone.

(18) THE SPLENDID GROWTH OF ZION FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

(19) THE PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF ZION LACE INDUSTRIES in the completion of a beautiful factory with more than Eight Acres of floor space, the placing of Zion Lace Products with more than Three Hundred of the largest houses in America, and the absolute success of this vast and profitable Industry, the proceeds of which, after due consideration to our employees, will be devoted to the EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

(20) THE UNITED PURITY, PEACE, STRENGTH AND STEADY PROGRESS OF ZION along all the lines of Christian Effort, and the Prospects of Immense Increase in the Coming Year, so that it is estimated that within One Year from this date the Population of the CITY OF ZION will be Twenty Thousand.

(21) THE HEARTY CO-OPERATION of the ENTIRE PEOPLE, and their loyalty and confidence in God and in us at all times.

(22) THESE, and many other Blessings more than we can number, call for our Gathering Together at this ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD, in a spirit of Gratitude and Wonder, and Love and Loyalty to God, so that we may present our Thanksgiving and Worship, recalling His Mighty Works, renewing our Vows to Him and to each other, and receiving Wisdom and Guidance and all needed Grace for the Coming Year.

Our Personal Sorrow has been "swallowed up in Victory!"

Death hath no Triumph where the Christ is Conqueror, and where His Faith and Hope and Love sustain the departed and the bereaved alike.

And so we rejoice with the Ransomed Host of the Redeemed in Heaven, that our Lovely One has entered into the Fulness of God's Life and Light and Endless Love.

We also rejoice in the Ever-present consciousness of His Presence, who said:

Lo, I am with you All the Days,
Even unto the Consummation of the Age.
Conscious of the Guidance of the Holy Spirit, we raise our Prayers and Songs in grateful praise to Him who hath numbered all our Days, given us our Mission on earth, and will, in His own time, receive us into Heaven.

He will enable us to fulfill, as God's Messenger and Prophet, in the Spirit and Power of Elijah, the Glorious Ministry of the "Restoration of All Things whereof God spake by the mouth of His Holy Prophets which have been since the world began."

The Times of this Restoration have gloriously begun. So once more we cry "HALLELUJAH!"

JESUS, THE CHRIST, IS KING over ALL!

He is coming to receive from the World His Own, and then to return and establish His Kingdom, ushering in the Millennial Glory, towards which we are daily pressing forward.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B]:

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one end in view in healing, or is it possible that we may have His care in this, as well as in any other detail of our lives?

B. This is one of the most wonderful facts of God's ways. But I should know God's Way of Healing, as I have known it for many years past.

A. What is it, in your own words? "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me." These words were spoken by the mouth of Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, who is both our Savior and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

B. I always thought that these words only referred to Him in the Way of Salvation. How can we be sure that there is something more for us in the Way of Healing also?

A. "He will enable us to fulfill, as God's Messenger and Prophet, in the Spirit and Power of Elijah, the Glorious Ministry of the "Restoration of All Things whereof God spake by the mouth of His Holy Prophets which have been since the world began."

B. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

A. No; for He said: "Lo, I am with you All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age;" and He is with us now, in spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

B. Yet did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Eternal Son of God?

A. No, but to show the people that He was the Son of God, and to convince all men that the Messiah had come. He healed the sick, the weak, the deaf, the blind, the lame, and the leper; and all the diseases of men, which were caused by the sins of the fathers, and all the sins of the people, He also healed.

B. Yes; but was there not still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him to do so, and not for His own glory, but for the glory of God. (John 5:46-47.)

A. This is the great difference. There were many who came to Jesus, reading His words, and thinking only of the miracles. But when Jesus saw their faith, He said: "Verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also: and greater works than these shall he do; for I go to my Father." (John 14:12.)

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Printing and Publishing House, 103 Michigan avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God and the way of Healing, which are announced for Zion Tabernacles in Chicago and other cities, in which every individual, as well as the sick, may obtain the healing power of God, and the healing power of the gifts of healing. Notice of Removal.

Man is born crowned, but he has to win his Kingdom. He is nothing apart from God. He is God's highest creation. God could go no higher in the creation of man than to make him in His own image and after His likeness. (Genesis 1:26.)

God is the Trinity—God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit—three persons in one God.

When God created man in His own image, He made him a spiritual being, a trinity of spirit, soul and body.

The likeness refers more to man's faculties and powers which lie enfolded within him, waiting to be unfolded in the likeness of God, as man lives according to God's laws.

The Psalmist says:

I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with Thy likeness. (Psalm 17:15.)

His awakening begins with His regeneration.

When the flesh rules man he is asleep. A child may be made in his father's image and he may develop a strong likeness to his father, but the child never becomes the father.

A child can glorify his father by his life works. After God had created man a spiritual being, we are told that there was not a man to till the ground. (Genesis 2:15.)

God evidently intended from the beginning that man should cultivate the earth, and in this way develop his powers and glorify his Heavenly Father by his works.

A spiritual man could not handle matter. Therefore God clothed him in garments made out of the earth—the garments of his soul and body.

These constitute man an animal being. Every animal is a living soul.

And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. (Genesis 2:7.)

Man is distinguished from all other animals by being crowned with that wonderful triple crown—his spiritual being—which is capable of endless development and of communion with God.

God is the Father of man's spirit and the Maker of his soul and body. (Hebrews 12:9; Isaiah 57:15.)

Man must learn to control this Kingdom which lies within himself before he can learn to control that in the world without him.

When man lets the Flesh rule him, his spiritual being weakens, and he develops the likeness of the beast.

Man can only control this Kingdom within himself through the Christ dwelling in him. In the degree that he subjects himself to the Christ and lets the Christ rule within him, will man have dominion over the world within and around him. Man is a microcosm, a little world.

Man has in his body the elements of the earth.

We see resemblances to man in the lower animals.

In the vegetable kingdom we find resemblances to the various parts of his physical organization, showing that man includes within himself all the creation beneath him.

When man through disobedience fell from his right relations to God, the world fell also. They will be restored together. And thou didst purchase unto God with Thy blood men of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests: and they reign upon the earth. (Revelation 5:9, 10.)

Zion teaching goes forth to deliver man from the bondage of sin, and to break the fetters of vicious habits, and to make men free in the Christ, Jesus.

A great army of men and women are able today to testify that they have been delivered and made free by the Full Gospel teaching of Zion.

Zion Literature is carrying this to the ends of the earth.

We ask you, dear reader, to help Zion Literature in its work of sending out this glorious Message.

"I Cannot Afford to Lose One Copy of "Leaves of Healing.""

A gentleman wrote from Victoria, South Africa:

I am very sorry to inform you that I have only received two rolls of LEAVES. I cannot afford to lose one copy of my precious LEAVES OF HEALING, or a pamphlet. I give them out to my friends.

Then I feel happy if I have them to give to the needy.

We want them in Ditch also. Our Dutch friends do not have a chance to get above the old, half Gospel. I am not a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion yet, although I follow up the Divine conditions by the help of God. I want to get into the religion's pot, to cast any stone that may remain.

Only this evening we spoke about a small milepost we did some years ago. When we are a little closer we will come closer to you.

Later this brother joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and has gone to work.

He writes since:

I am having a glorious time for the Lord.

Last night at our meeting in my house I had a doctor and two chemists. The latter have given up business and the doctor seems troubled very much about it; therefore, we want to know all about Zion Literature, so that I can explain to my friends the teaching of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I have just as much to do with Dutch speaking people as with the English.

I read about the free literature being distributed. I wish I could get a portion of it.

There is a great future here.

The soil is rich, but there is no seed to sow. Kindly remember us in your prayers.

Pray earnestly for strengthening power for us, that we may yet spread the everlasting Gospel. May God bless Zion everywhere.

Led to Give Up the Use of Tobacco Through Reading "Leaves of Healing."

Gilbert Benjamin Edmunds, of Durban street, Uitenhage, Cape Colony, South Africa, writing under date of October 20th, says:

I hereby enclose my application to become a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

On September 10th I was reading a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING which was given to me by a friend of mine named G. Kostel, who is a subscriber to the LEAVES.

There I saw that Jesus, the Christ, was calling for me to give up my sins, and that he had been using in smoking and chewing since I was ten years of age.

I thought that I would never be able to give that up.

Now I can thank God that He showed me the way, not only to give up tobacco, but to give up all my sins, and everything else that is wrong.

I find that the way is very straightened.

Nevertheless I know that Jesus is always near, and when I call to Him to purify me and help me to keep from all temptation, He will hear me.

There are four of us. One is a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and three of us are sending in our applications this week; so you see we are weak as a body, but we do not forget that the Christ said: "Where there are a few gathered together in My Name, there am I in their midst."

Pray for us, that we shall always keep near to our Lord and Master, the Christ Jesus.

"FEAR GOD, AND GIVE HIM GLORY; FOR THE HOUR OF HIS JUDGMENT IS COME."

JUDGMENT AND MERCY are united in God.
But soon the Judgment of God against the impenitent and the rebellious must, in Mercy to all mankind, be executed.
Soon His "Strong Angel," the Angel of the Time of the End, Whose right foot is upon the Sea, And his left upon the Earth, will cry with a "great Voice," and as a "lion roareth."

THEN WILL the Seven Thunders utter their Voices.
Then the Messenger of the Consummation will fulfill his Commission.

AND THE MESSENGER that I saw standing upon the Sea and upon the Earth Lifted up his right hand to Heaven, And sware by Him that liveth forever and ever, Who created the Heaven and the things that are therein, And the Earth and the things that are therein, And the Sea, and the things that are therein, That there shall be Time [Delay] no longer: But in the Days of the Voice of the Seventh Messenger, When he is about to sound, Then is Finished the Mystery of God, According to the Good Tidings, Which He declared to His Servants the Prophets.

ALL THINGS are hastening towards the Consummation of the Age.

IT MAY BE nearer at hand than we think.
Yet we are still of the opinion that the Coming of the King in the Clouds to receive from the world His Own who will meet Him in the air, and to enter into the Rapture which must precede His return to enter upon the Glorious Millennial Reign, is possibly, and probably, at least Twenty Years distant.

But concerning the Times and the Seasons, Brethren,
Ye have no need that aught be written unto you.
For yourselves know perfectly that the Day of the Lord
So cometh as a thief in the Night.

The Church and the World are now receiving all the Warning they will ever get.
This Warning will continue faithfully until our witnessing and prophesying has closed.

More and more clearly do we see, as Time silently speeds us Onward to our Glorious Goal, that “the Time is short.”

Our people have listened with intense delight to Descriptions of the Homes and Haunts of Jesus, and to the Story from the Manger at Bethlehem to the Cross of Calvary, by Madam von Finkelstein Mounford.
She is a native of Jerusalem, and has most interestingly pictured, with the assistance of a number of students of Zion College and young people, by Oriental Costumes and surroundings, the actual conditions, as nearly as they can be ascertained, of the Times when Jesus our Lord and King walked on earth in the flesh.

A great field has opened before us for the representation of the work of God in ancient times and in distant lands in such a manner as will interest young and old in Zion, and inspire them with holy zeal to go forth when the time shall come, with great Companies from Zion Restoration Host, for the Evangelization of the Nations.

The Desire of All Nations shall come.

The Year is Closing with tokens of Divine Favor upon  every Department of our work for God and Zion.

On Christmas Morning, when delivering the announcements from Zion Tabernacle, we mentioned that we had received, within the last few days, subscriptions to Zion Lace Industries' Stock, payable during January and February, of fully Sixty Thousand Dollars.
In the evening we were compelled to confess that we had been incorrectly informed, and that the subscriptions exceeded One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

It will be seen from the following letter from Deacon Daniel Sloan, Manager of Zion Securities and Investments, who has just returned from a very successful tour in the West, that we have to increase the subscription to even a larger sum than we gave in our second statement.
The total number of shares recently applied for is One Thousand Five Hundred and Six, which shows that the Subscriptions have amounted to One Hundred and Fifty Thousand and Six Hundred Dollars.

But even while we write we think that we might have to make a fourth correction, and probably increase this sum; for the subscription to our stocks of every kind is becoming a rapidly flowing river.
We have waited upon God, and believed that every difficulty would be overcome without our having to borrow anything from the world, or to sell at too great a sacrifice some of our outside properties which we desire to dispose of.

We feel it will probably be helpful to many hundreds of our readers who are interested in Zion's Financial Institutions for us to quote the brief report, from Deacon Daniel Sloan, to which we have just alluded:

Office General Financial Manager of all Zion Institutions and Industries,
Zion City, Illinois, December 26, 1902.
Rev. John Alex. Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, City.

Dear General Overseer,—I find upon investigation, and compiling the record, that your statement of last night, in Shiloh Tabernacle, concerning applications for stock to the amount of $100,000, which have recently come into our hands, principally for Zion Lace Industries' Shares, is far below the actual amount of applications received.
Before going West, applications to the amount of two hundred and eleven shares were received, and while I was away, through the efforts of Zion's Special Financial Messengers, principally Deacon J. W. Innes, applications were received for twelve hundred and eighteen shares, and this morning's mail brings in applications for seventy-seven shares more, making a total of fifteen hundred and six shares.

In sending out the enclosed form of letter, which has been addressed to all of the investors of Zion, I did so with confidence that God would give us in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars; just at this time we have One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars of this amount, and in this morning's mail Seventy-seven Hundred Dollars.
The further mails of today yet to be added to this sum is but an indication of the rapid realization of the amount named.
How grateful we are to God for His hand which has been continually upon us, and for the good and great blessing which He has ever shown us.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Sloan.

The letter referred to in Deacon Daniel Sloan's report follows:

Office General Financial Manager of all Zion Institutions and Industries.

Zion City, Illinois, December 24, 1902.

Dear Friend:— We send you by mail under separate cover the "City of Zion" brochure with compliments of Zion Land and Investment Association, which shows but faintly the glorious results achieved, which you will welcome as a good report, we trust, of Zion's Commercial Stewardship.

You will also read with interest the enclosed "Many-Sided View of Zion," showing the comprehensive scope of Zion's work.

In view of the proposed advance at which all eight percent shares will be sold after January 1st, may we not solicit from you an application to increase the number you already hold?

The premium to be added will make the price of share $110, and will apply to Zion City Bank, Zion Land and Investment Association, and Zion Lace Industries Certificates, all of which now pay eight per cent.

We will enter your request for any number of shares of either of these classes at $100 per share, which can be paid for upon application or at any time before March 1st.

The satisfactory results you have already realized on these Certificates make it unnecessary for me to urge upon you the merits of these Securities and the excellent returns they give investors.

Hoping for an acceptance of this proposition, by your filling out the enclosed blank and returning it to us, upon receipt, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Sloan.

Manager Zion Securities and Investments.

The close of last year found us engaged in the Law Courts, in a fierce hand-to-hand conflict with an Unjust Judge and a Perjured Villain, who sought to destroy our Zion Lace Industries, and it was only by the Mercy of God, and His enabling us to tear the case from the hands of that Unjust Judge, that we were able to retain control of the Zion Lace Industries.

Everything was done to make it appear, far and wide, throughout the world, that we had committed some great wrong.

But as the clouds cleared away and all men saw the truth of the matter, Zion Lace Industries and our Financial and Commercial Institutions emerged brighter and stronger than ever.

But the last few months have seen what has been, possibly, the most tremendous assault upon Zion's Commercial Institutions ever made by the united power of a hostile press.

We, however, by the grace of God, have triumphed again, and everywhere throughout the United States friends and foes are praising the beautiful fabric which Zion has produced, and is producing, in millions of yards.

Beautiful Zion Lace Curtains are already adorning our Headquarters Offices, in the Administration building, Elijah Hospice and elsewhere in Zion City, and are being prepared for the general market.

The lovely emblem of the Little White Dove with the word "ZION" scattered all over the delicate and beautiful white net of our first curtains, has excited great admiration.

There is literally a rushing in upon us of orders from all parts of the United States, which, if not already, will very soon exceed our power to supply as quickly as our friends might desire; and with this our readers will see there is coming into Zion the capital that is needed to extend this beautiful, useful, and allowable adornment of the homes of God's people, and also the simple dress decorations of the King's Daughters in Zion.

Early in the coming year we shall address our readers in a special communication upon this question, and meanwhile we desire our friends everywhere to raise their hearts in praise to God with us for His Guidance and Deliverance, and rich blessing upon us in all Departments of Zion as the year closes.

More than all other things we desire a great increase of spiritual blessing.

The material blessing is flowing in upon us every day and hour.

We also have the spiritual.

But we want more and more of the Purity and Power and Presence of God, the Patience of Christ, and the Persevering power which will bring still greater Progress in every Department, by the Presence of the Holy Spirit in all our people.

Let all to whom these words come earnestly pray that the Closing Hours of the Year, and the Entry upon the Third Year of the Century, will be marked by Showers of Spiritual Blessing in Shiloh Tabernacle, which will flow in streams to Zion in all the Lands, and through Zion to all the world.

This, above all things, is our desire and prayer.

Brethren, pray for us.
The Christ who was born in Bethlehem lies in no manger. The Christ who died at Calvary lies in no tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, hewn out of a rock.

The Christ ascended into the heavens at Bethany, and He is there in His Celestial Body. I cannot tell you exactly when He shall appear, and yet I cannot tell you, because I am sent to tell.

"Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?" The scribes were right, and the Christ said it. He is the one prophet whom must come three times. First, He came as the Destroyer, in the person of Elijah the Sojourner of Gilead. Then He came as the Preparer, in the person of John the Baptist. Jesus said that He was Elijah, and that they had killed Him because He fulfilled his mission. If anyone in the Church of God does not understand it so, then they differ with the apostles to whom the Christ revealed that fact: for it is written in Matthew 11. And Matthew 17:11 as plainly as it could be—"The disciples understood that He spake unto them of John the Baptist." He comes in the latter days to fulfill the third office of that prophet of whom Moses spoke, of the Messenger of the Covenant, and as the Restorer. Jesus said, long after John was dead: "For Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things." He said it concerning that third manifestation. And I stand here today and say that I AM ELIJAH THERESTORER.

When the Lord comes, He is going to rule, and send forth those whom He brings with Him to take possession of the earth in His Name. What about the people who will not obey? They will either have to repent and submit to God or get off the earth. There will be no private property. There will be no municipal property. There will be no national property. When the Christ comes, you will either have to admit that you and all you have are His, or you will have to disappear, like Ananias. If you continue to lie, you will be rolled up like Sapphira and you will be buried. There is no room in two Kings. There will be one King—the King of Glory, The Coming of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to reign the King of Life. The powers of Death and Hell will vanish. Fire of God's wrath. You cannot defy God forever, you children of the Devil. This earth was never made by the Devil. If it was made by God and for good purposes, He will send forth His servants, and the Nation which will not serve God will perish. That Time is coming on soon.

... We are now living in the beginning of the Times of the Restoration and of the fulfillment of God's Promise in sending Elijah: "Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah come. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse?" So some scoffers will say: "That is talk. That is what they said when they were drowned in the Flood. That is what they said when Jesus foretold the destruction of Jerusalem. They said that not one stone should be left upon another. They did not say that when Titus, the son of Vespasian, with the armies of Rome, completely destroyed the Holy City, and put the people to death, except a miserable remnant who were carried into captivity. Nobody mocked then at the prophecy of Jesus. That will not mock long, because the Day is coming. The Time is short." When shall He appear? In the Times of the Restoration of All Things. What will He do? He will reign until He has completely controlled this earth, until every other form of government has perished; until the Kingdom of God is established from shore to shore; and until the covereth the whole earth as the sea. The land will be cleansed and the world will be cleansed by the...
ELIJAH

By J. GABRIEL EXCELL

Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the great and terrible day of Jehovah come.
And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.—Malachi 4:5, 6.
And He answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things.—Matthew 17:11.

Behold the sight! Elijah dares
The priests of Baal and prophets of the grove
Defy, and boldly mocks their prayers.
Hard to the hilt in Error's heart he drove His glit'ring Sword—
Jehovah's Word.
He stood the truth of God to prove.

In wrath divine this man of prayer
The pagan worship of infernal lust—
The Phallic mysteries—lays bare.
Priest, Lawyer, President and King, unjust,
He doth reprove;
Yet seeks in love
To save the creature of the dust.

Once more we see, by Jordan's side,
A prophet sent from God, who dares disdain
Phylactery and border wide
Of Pharisees whose hearts no love contain Nor Roman lord,
Nor fear of sword
The Baptist's spirit can restrain.

Masonic ministers of Baal,
Accursed sons of hell, why vainly try
Against Jehovah to prevail?
Will ye the Lord of Hosts Himself defy?
Ye rebels, Turn!
No longer spurn
Salvation's Message, lest ye die.

The Day of God—that dreadful day
Draws on apace! But ere the night be o'er
God's messenger prepares the way;
Elijah cometh all things to restore:
In this our day
Prepares the way
For Christ to reign from shore to shore.

He fights for God, bold Scotia's son,
And bids defiance to the hosts of sin.
His mighty battle-axe with one
Fell stroke, the skull of Evil crushes in:
Their leader slain
They flee in pain.
In ev'ry conflict God must win.

Be wise now, therefore, O ye kings,
Submit yourselves, ye judges, to his rod;
The Spirit of Elijah brings
Th' Almighty power of Elijah's God,
And bolts of wrath
Illume the path
Of him whose steeds with fire are shod.
Jesus said, "Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things."

Matthew 17:11.

Message No. 53

CHICAGO AUDITORIUM
Lord's Day Afternoon
December 21, 1902

 Twice in her season of decay
The fallen Church hath felt Elijah's eye
Dart from the wild its piercing ray:
Not keener burns, in the chill morning sky,
The herald star,
Whose torch afar
Shadows and boding night-birds fly.

Methinks we need him once again,
That favored seer—but where shall he be found?
By Cherith's side we seek in vain,
In vain on Carmel's green and lonely mound:
Angels no more
From Sinai soar,
On his celestial errands bound.

But wafted to his glorious place
By harmless fire, among the ethereal thrones.
His spirit with a dear embrace
Thee the loved harbinger of Jesus owns,
Well-pleased to view
His likeness true,
And trace, in thine, his own deep tones.

And since we see, and not afar,
The twilight of the great and dreadful day,
Why linger till Elijah's car
Stoop from the clouds? Why sleep ye? rise and pray,
Ye heralds sealed
In camp or field
Your Saviour's banner to display!

Where is the lore the Baptist taught,
The soul unswerving and the fearless tongue?
The much-enduring wisdom, sought
By lonely prayer the haunted rocks among?
Who counts it gain
His light should wane,
So the whole world to Jesus throng?

SO SANG John Keble, the Christian poet, fourscore years ago.

God has sent the mighty prophet for whose coming he prayed and of whom he sang.

Once more the fallen Church feels Elijah's eye.

Once more that Voice which hurled defiance at Baal-worshiping Ahab and called down the fire from heaven; that Voice which, centuries later, cried in the wilderness, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord," is ringing through all the earth.

Once more God's enemies hear with terror and dismay their doom proclaimed in fearless accents.

Once more God's people, who have wandered from Him, hear that warning voice, stern, yet loving, calling "Return ye unto God!"

Once more God's true people hear with joy inexpressible the Voice of that Prophet, proclaiming the Coming of their Lord.

But the Voice is now more powerful and more terrifying, and brings a deeper joy than ever; for it is being heard for the last time on earth.

It is God's Final Call to His people.

It is the Voice which proclaims the End of the Dispensation and the Consummation of the Age.

It is the Voice promised by God before His Great and Terrible Day, the Voice which must now be heeded lest He Himself come and smite the earth with a curse.

It is the Voice of that prophet foretold as the Restorer of All Things; the Voice of the great forerunner of the Christ before His coming to the earth in power and great glory, to clear it of all who refuse to acknowledge His Authority, and submit themselves to His Rule.

Aye, John Keble, your prayer is answered!

On Lord's Day afternoon, December 21, 1902, that prophet stood in the great Chicago Auditorium, and in the presence of three thousand people proclaimed his startling Christmas Message.

It was a Restoration Message answering Three Questions concerning the Messiah, which have agitated the world since the fall: "Where is He? When will He appear? What will He do when He comes again to this earth?"

Strange and startling as was this Message, it came with an unmistakable ring of Divine Authority.

It was received with joy and thanksgiving by thousands of Christians present.

It was heard with the deepest and most thoughtful interest by the others who were there in large number.

The scornful laughter, the jeers and the sneers of the apostate churches and of the world have long ago ceased.

The intelligent, respectful and earnest attention of thousands of strangers in the Chicago Auditorium last Lord's Day afternoon was but a manifestation of the intensity of interest which is being felt throughout the world concerning this prophet and his Messages.
They cannot pass them by lightly; for God is now, through them, calling a whole world to a decision of eternal significance.

Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day Afternoon, December 21, 1902.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

Crown Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem dawns
All music but its own;
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as Thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of Peace,
Whose power a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end,
And round His pierced feet
Fair flow'rs of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown Him the Lord of Years,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime:
All hail, Redeemer, hail!

Crown Him the Lord of Peace,
President of the Potentate,
The Potentate of Time,
His reign shall know no end,
And round His pierced feet
Rich wounds, yet visible above
At mysteries so bright.

The Choir then chanted the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us:
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations.
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 391:
Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious;
See the Man of sorrows now;
From the fight returned victorious,
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

CHORUS—Crown Him, crown Him, angels crown Him, Crown the Saviour, King of kings.

RECITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

RECITATION OF CREED.

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD’S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, or serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his servant-woman, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor’s.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, hath said, which may be called the Eleventh Commandment:

XI. A new Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.

To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory,
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The godly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter,
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself, to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hast overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge:
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance.
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then said:

Let us read several portions of the inspired Word of God, first in the book of the prophet Isaiah, the first eight verses of the 32d chapter, and the 65th chapter, beginning at the 17th verse.

In commenting upon Isaiah 65:18 he said:

For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

But ye shall rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

And there shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old, and the sinner but a hundred years old shall be accursed.

And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

They shall not build, and another inherit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of my people shall be, so shall the days of my servants be, and their offspring with them.

But be ye glad and rejoice forever in that which I create: for, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. Is. 66:22.

All Divine Creations are good.

All Diabolical Perversions are evil.

But be ye glad and rejoice forever in that which I create: for, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. Is. 66:22.

The General Overseer then read the first eleven verses of the 2d chapter of Matthew, the first nine verses and the 36th and 37th verses of the last chapter of Luke.

"Behold, a spirit."

Why should you be terrified and affrighted because you behold a spirit? I see several thousand spirits here. You are clothed in flesh, but it does not make any difference, you are spirits. Out of thousands of eyes spirits are looking.

Fear Is the Most Contemptible Thing in the Universe.

I have not a bit of sympathy with it. The Cowards lead the procession to hell all the time.

It is the Fearful and the unbelieving, the abominable, the sorcerer, or pharmacist (pharmakeus), and all the others, down to the liars—who are the last and meanest of the crowd—who go to the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the Second Death.

It is the Coward who leads the procession every time.

Wherever there is Fear there is Sin. You have something to be afraid of.

A little child, innocent and knowing no fear, trained amidst love, has no sense of terror.

A Beautiful Example of Childlike Trust and Fearlessness.

A naughty servant once frightened our beloved daughter who is now in heaven. It was the only time I ever knew of in all her life that she ever manifested fear.

We came into the room and heard her screaming. The servant had told her there was a black dog and a black man there, and that she had better take care not to open her eyes or she would see them, and they would take her. And so the wicked girl kept on crying out.

Now, why should a black dog or a black man be an object to fear? I like to see black people. The blacker they are the more I like them.

I am always sorry when I see a mulatto, quadroon or octroon, and I feel an ever deeper sympathy. I know it is for the most part, not always, a brand of sin—not theirs, but of our own race.

But why should there be fear in the color black? Black is a very good thing.

I love the light, but I am also glad for the night, and the darker it is, sometimes the better it is: for the stars shine more brightly when neither sun nor moon obscure their wondrous glories, their array of infinite beauty and solemn majesty.

We said to the little maid, "There is no black dog or black man here; there is nothing to fear. Only God and the good Angels are here. Jesus is here."

The little, convulsed frame and the sobbing breast were stilled, the tears were wiped away, and she said: "So Jesus is here. There is no black man, no black dog, and nothing to fear; Jesus is here."

She lay awake with her eyes brightly looking up.

The last we heard from her little lips that night were the words: "Jesus is here."

The next day her mamma found her with such a pleased and funny look on her face, peering into all the cupboards of the house, under the bed, here and there, especially when she did not think mamma was looking.

At last the mother said: "What is it you are looking for, Esther?"

"Well, mamma," she replied, "You know I saw Jesus last night; He was here, and I was wondering where He was hiding."

"Jesus is here!"

Seven months ago, in this city, when her spirit went out from earth, after twenty-one beautiful years of pure and lovely life, she said, just as sweetly as when a little child: "Jesus is here. When I pass through the waters, they shall not overflow me: for Thou art with me and I am not afraid."

You cannot fear when you can truly say, "I know that Jesus is here.

When you love Him you can never be afraid anywhere. You can never be afraid of anything, for "perfect love casteth out fear."

There Is No Fear in Love.

He that fears not is not made perfect in Love.

If I were afraid to tell you just what God has taught me, I should be a mean coward, utterly incapable of communicating any teaching that would be of any real value to anyone in this world.

The man who is afraid of any one or anything can never be an effective helper of his fellow men.

The man who would put another in fear or attempt to do so, is as much a coward as his victim.

They are miserable, contemptible cowards, full of fear, who are leading the procession to Hell. The Fearful! the Fearful! the Fearful!

It is because men are afraid to speak and live the truth that evil conditions exist in this world.

The Christ's disciples had been cowards. They had abandoned their Master in the hour of peril. They all forsook Him and fled.

They were very brave when they were talking.

When it came to doing, it was another thing. And as they spoke these things, He himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

And they were terrified and affrighted and supposed that they beheld a spirit.

And He said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do the weighings arise in your heart?

See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself: handle Me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold Me having.

There is No Blood in the Resurrection Body.

Not flesh and blood, for the blood had all gone. Head, hands, feet and riven heart were all parts of a bloodless body, pure as it had ever been.

The spiritual hath not flesh and bones. Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

There is no blood there.

All the blood was shed upon the Altar of the Atoning Sacrifice.

This earth is blood-stained, but there is no blood in heaven—no animal life.
The life of heaven is spiritual not psychical, and blood is a necessity of animal or psychical life. For a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold Me having. And when He had said this, He showed them His hands, and His feet. And while they disbelieved for joy—

302 Saturday, December 27, 1902. LEAVES OF HEALING.

And that remittance and remission of sins should be preached in His Name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Ye are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send forth the promise of My Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city, until ye be clothed with Power from on High.

Power Not Conferred by Men’s Votes.

What is the use of sending out men unless they have some real power? You cannot give a man power by a ballot-box. If he has not the power within him before you elect him, you cannot create the power by simply putting him in office. You do not make a legislator by electing a saloon politician, or a politician of any kind.

"You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow’s ear." You cannot make a legislator out of an ignorant law-breaker. I once ventured to say to a certain mayor of this city, when talking with him in his office: "Mr. Mayor, I stand upon the Common Law of England." "What have we to do with the law of England?" he replied. "Mr. Mayor, I never believed you were the right man for this office, and I am sure now that you are not." A man who is the chief magistrate of the City of Chicago, and does not know that the Common Law of England is incorporated by express statute into the laws of the state of Illinois—and, as far as I know, of every other state in the American Union—is not fit to sit there.

Zion Holds Balance of Power in Chicago Elections.

You could make that man mayor, but you could not give him capacity, real power, by so doing. He was the mere tool of a party, a poor little political trickster, who got there by Republican votes.

Zion in Chicago has kept that party out ever since. I did much praying over that, and quite a little working, too.

When it comes to voting in Chicago, Zion can cast the deciding vote between the Democrats and Republicans: for it does not take many thousands of votes to do that, since the parties are almost equally balanced.

We are the little boy in the middle of the see-saw, and they go up or down, just as we say. (Laughter and applause.) Zion can vote ten thousand, sometimes twenty thousand, which is the deciding power between the Democrats and the Republicans upon a straight issue.

If they do not know that, they had better learn it. The decision always lies with those who have the Balance of Power, especially if they do not make much fuss about it, but go ahead and do it. It is very foolish to fuss about it. If you are going to do a thing, do it. Do not fuss.

The most ignorant people in regard to politics are the machine-made politicians. They do not know how it is that the ballot-boxes do not show what they had arranged things for them to show. After all, Power does not lie in numbers.

The Power on High Is the Deciding Power.

Abraham Lincoln was not a very powerful man in himself. He never was very eminent as a lawyer. Nobody ever accused him of the crime of standing on the pinnacle of legal fame. He was a good, sound-hearted, sound-headed man.

Do you know what made him President? One day he spoke words to this effect: "It is written in an old Book that 'a house divided against itself shall fall.' The time has come for us to think that this Nation, divided into slave and free men, cannot stand.

"The division must cease, and all men must be free." That was the thing which settled the whole question. He got that out of the Book of God. He got that from the Teachings of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

One word of Power is worth the whole of all this chatter, chatter, chatter, chatter! At one time fishermen, tax-gatherers, obscure people, of no account socially, of no account ecclesiastically, of no account politically, a poor set of Galileans, held the Balance of Power.

It is so today.
No word of God's shall be void of Power.
"Go ye to Jerusalem," He said, "and wait there until you get Power from on high.
It will not matter what sort of hellish powers come from below, or what sort of hellish powers there are on earth, the Heavenly Powers will finally conquer.
That is the Power which is conquering all the time. Not might, but Righteousness. They live. They perish.
Those who have the Word which lives and abides forever, the thing which is true within them, always hold the Balance of Power.
One man with God on his side makes a majority everywhere. Majorities do not consist in numbers. They seem to for a short time, but the power lies in the man with God on his side.

Overturining Power of the Apostles.
That is why these men went forth and stirred up everything. They stirred up the Pharisees and Sadducees. They went right along.
They tumbled up all the philosophies and religions of the East and the West, until at last they got to be known as the people who turned things upside down.
That is the reputation which we have—that we turn things upside down.
I hope we deserve it. I hope we are guilty. I want that you shall be.
An old preacher of John Wesley's, who had received Power from on High, although he had never had any education in school, was often rather hazy as to where to find his text.

"This is my text: 'The men that have turned the world upside down have come hither also.'" [Acts 17:6.]
"Now," he said, "first, the world is upside down. Second, in order to be put right, we must turn it upside down. Third, we are the boys to do it." (Laughter.)

Why the Methodists Lost Power.
The Methodism of John Wesley turned things upside down. If they had only kept on in John Wesley's line, they would have been all right.
Instead they went to sea with Mah-hah-bone, they got into miserable Masonic dens, and they have consequently lost Power from on High.
They were seeking, and they are seeking now, for the living among the dead, to get strength from the widow of Tyre's son, and the bogus resurrection of his stinking carcass by King Solomon, and the omnific word Ma-have-you-got-a-bone (laughter) or something like that—Mah-hah-bone.
Ugh! I wonder that you are not ashamed of it.

There is no Divine power in that.
There was power resulting from that old fellow's saying: "The world is upside down; it has got to be turned upside down, and we are the boys to do it."

He felt it himself, and the people to whom he spoke felt it.
They turned things upside down in Cornwall, in Devonshire, and all over England.
They sent the cockpits, the cards and the gamblers flying.
The wife-beaters, dice-players, gamblers, cock-fighters and drunks were transformed into magnificent Christian men by such men as that preacher.
"May God give His Power, and the sublime Divine egotism which enables us to know that we are just the boys to do it when we have God's Power within."

There are scores of you here whom I did that to, are there not?
Voices—"Yes."
General Overseer—I know I did. It took lots of bumping to make you see, and to knock your ignorant conceit out of you.

There is Power in God, and in Zion, to turn things upside down until they are gotten right side up again.
I made up my mind about that in 1896, in this city, when that miserably wicked mayor wanted to do all kinds of bad things.
I said: "We will have him out of power at the next election."
We had him out, kept both him and his party out, and I think it will lie with us whether the party will stay out.
They smile at that, but they will not smile when it comes to voting day, because the Balance of Power is the whole thing, and the Balance of Power in this whole world is always with God.
I do not pretend for a moment to be indifferent in politics, and Zion will always cast her political influence where it will best promote Theocracy—the Rule of God. And Zion's thousands vote as one man; and they influence thousands to vote as they vote.
And He led them out until they were over against Bethesda: and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them.
And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He parted from them, and was carried up into heaven.
And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.
And were continually in the Temple, blessing God.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Piper and the General Overseer, followed by the Disciples' Prayer, chanted by the Choir and Congregation.
The announcements were made and the tithes and offerings received.

ANSWERS TO THREE QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE MESSIAH: WHERE IS HE? WHEN WILL HE APPEAR? WHAT WILL HE DO WHEN HE COMES AGAIN TO THIS EARTH?

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, be profitable unto those who now hear, and unto all whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time till Jesus comes.

I desire to read to you a few verses from the 3d chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, beginning with the 18th verse, which I put in front of all I have to say.

TEXT.

But the things which God foreshadowed by the mouth of all the prophets, that His Christ should suffer, He thus fulfilled.

And that He may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, even Jesus:

...whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began.

...unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

...unto you first God, having raised up His Servant—

I desire to point out to you the difference in the Revision here to the old Translation.
It is not 'having raised up His Son Jesus.'

All the misunderstanding of this passage gathers around this mistranslation.

The Revised Version has it correctly. Unto you first God, having raised up His Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

The Christ is not a servant. He is a Son. The servant referred to here by Moses is identical with the Messenger of the Covenant and Elijah the Restorer, spoken of in Malachi 3:1-3 and 4:6, also Matthew 17:11.

I have thought much upon the three questions concerning the Messiah, which I have set myself to answer this afternoon. Where is He?
When shall He appear?
What will He do when He comes again to earth? It is very easy to cull from the great realm of poetic thought concerning Christmastide, and deliver discourses of a pathetic nature concerning the little Baby at Bethlehem. They have their place, and the Story is ever sweet, and, although so old, it is ever new. However, we do not live in the past.

False Representations of the Christ.

The curse of the Church today is that large portions of the church represent the Christ either as a baby in a mother's arms, a dead man on a crucifix, or, as in the blasphemous idolatry of the mass, which declares that a bit of bread, stamped by the hand of a priest and focused-pocessed with his Latin, has been transformed into the body, blood and bones of Jesus, the Christ.

Such a Christ is not our Christ.

Neither the babe in the manger, the man on the cross, nor the idolatrous lie of the mass contains the Christ whom we know.

The Christ whom we know is that Christ who has revealed Himself to us by His Spirit, who is crowned with glory and honor; and who, having tasted death for every man, has received power from the Father—All Power in the heavens and in the earth.

I desire to speak of Him, not as He was, but as He is.

The Quest of the Wise Men.

Where is He?
The cry of the Wise Men, the Magi of the East, rang through the streets of Jerusalem day and night. It finally became a terrible cry. Perhaps at first few paid much attention to it. The Wise Men were accompanied, doubled, by their retinue of servants. They were doubtable venerable men of high rank and station in their own lands.

God's Word says that they were wise. He revealed to them in the yet further Orient that the Redeemer was about to come, the Messiah for whom all the Powers of Hell had apparently disappeared, and they were crying night and day through that city:

Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we saw His Star in the east, and are come to worship Him.

The people gathered around, but the Wise Men had no answers to questions that might be asked.

They simply asked this one question: "Where is He? Who can tell us where He is born King of the Jews?"

Thus night and day they went through the city. At last people began to laugh at them. The Jerusalem Chronicle, Tribune, Daily Speaks, and the contemptible Jerusalem Record-Herald, had they been in existence, would have bored contemptuously upon these men, and spoken of them with disdain and contempt.

Poor lunatics who had come upon a foolish quest to find a King!

Herod an Idumean Usurper.

There was Herod, was he not King of the Jews? He knew better. Herod was an Idumcan, and there was not a bit of the Jew about him. Herod was a usurper, and none knew better than he that he had no right to the Jewish throne. They began to think a little. Herod began to be troubled. The Sanhedrin, the Sacred Council of the Seventy, began to be troubled. The trouble spread into the Temple, into the market places, into the basars, into the schools, into the palaces, and into the hovels, until all Jerusalem was troubled with this cry.

Whenever a Divine Message Comes to a City There Is Trouble.

A man who has a Divine Message has to ask questions which make trouble. The Christ made trouble. He went for the Devil and for Herod, the King who pleased the Powers of Hell. He made trouble for Herod before He was born.

He made him trouble after He was born. He makes trouble for all the politicians. The Christ would not have knuckled down to your dirty politics, you wretched politicians, who are like cards, for the more they shuffle you the dirtier you get. You are badly shuffled all the time, and you get terribly dirty—a dirty pack.

Elections are only a new shuffle of the same old, dirty pack that goes on all the time in politics. You cannot get the Christ into that deal. You cannot get God's Messenger into that deal. He will not shuffle in your politics; he will do what is right.

There is trouble wherever a Divine Messenger appears. Men who have knowledge will ask questions, and questions are awkward things for people who have power without having legitimate authority. Faithless ministers tremble, as did the priests of old.

That question went on being asked until at last Herod called a council, and said: "You Wise Men tell me where the Messiah is to be born?"

They knew that He was coming, but they were trying to put off the question. They were like ministers of today who believe He is coming again, but are afraid to preach it.

Herod at last began to see that it would be best to find an answer from those who must know the Sacred Prophecies concerning the Coming of the King.

In his cruel, wicked heart he determined that he would find out where that King was born, would pretend to be a worshiper of Him and then strangle Him to death.

He would kill Him in some manner and thus put an end of His ever taking the throne and establishing the Kingdom of God.

Scholarly Character of Jewish Priesthood.

The Jewish priesthood has always been a very learned priesthood. I suppose that even to this day there are few better educated ministers in their way in the world, than in the Rabbinical ministry.

A Rabbi is not necessarily a priest. The Rabbi is a teacher and a preacher.

These Rabbis, Scribes, Priests, Teachers and Doctors of the Law had only one answer. They knew that the Christ should be born in Bethlehem. And quoted the prophecy from the prophet Micah, chapter 5. verse 2:

"But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, which art little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of thee shall One forth unto Me that is to be Ruler in Israel; whose going forth are from of old, from everlasting."

If they had gone on they would have had to say that He must be the Son of a Virgin, as is written in the prophet Isaiah 7:14—

"Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call His Name Immanuel."

That Name, being interpreted, is "God with us."

So far as the record goes, they simply gave the answer, only from Micah naming the locality, "Bethlehem."

That was enough for Herod.

He could surround Bethlehem and kill every child in it, and he did it.

It did not matter to that monster of cruelty how many parents' hearts would be wrung with awful anguish and unutterable sorrow all their lives.

He was determined to reign even if he could only do so by the Murder of Innocent Babies.

That same spirit of murder is in the world still, only there is a great deal more of it.

Murder is wrought now upon a larger scale.

War Is Murder on a Large Scale.

The taking of life in war is murder, for killing is murder everywhere.

War is murder upon a wholesale scale.

"Thou shalt not kill," is properly translated, as I read it.

"Thou shalt do no murder."

Murder meant very little to that king.

It means a great deal less to people now.

Abortion Is Cowardly Murder.

One day I shall get after a very common class of murderers. I have no faith that any state's attorney, or any city prose...
THREE QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Oftentimes in this country that is about all the use a wise is—a pillow for the wretched head of a debauched villain who comes home drunk, after spending his time, money, and strength with unclean men and worse women.

She is to be found everywhere, in cities and towns, in house and street, and in the secret lodges, and at the abominations of the secret lodge and subsequent banquet.

I said, come home, but he is oftener carried home.

The dirty, stinking, glutinous skunk gets a good, clean woman and makes her a place to lay her head upon!

Jesus Wafted Upon by Those Whom He Had Healed.

I believe that that expression, which is common in the Orient today concerning an unmarried man, no matter how wealthy he may be, is just what was meant in the Christ’s time.

The Christ Himself while He was yet alive was ministered to.

He not only had the original wealth which was given to Him at the time the Wise Men made those offerings, but in His after ministry, there waited upon Him and went with Him women who had been cleansed by His power.

The evangelist Luke—chapter 8, verses 1 to 3—gives us some insight into this. He says:

And it came to pass soon afterwards, that He went about through towns and villages, preaching and bringing the good tidings of the Kingdom of God, and with Him the twelve.

The men who do that kind of thing ought to be hanged by the neck until they are dead, if hanged is a good punishment. (Applause.)

What is to be done to the mothers and the fathers of such babies?

Do not talk with horror about the slaying of the babies at Bethlehem.

Herod, perhaps, did not kill more than fifty.

I will guarantee that in the city of Chicago there are at least five hundred slain every year.

Infanticide in Civilized and Uncivilized Countries.

Out of the river Seine at Paris, the dead bodies of ten thousand children are taken every year, who have been drowned by their inhuman parents.

In China there are great walled places, circular in form, in which they toss the bodies of the female children.

There they are eaten by vultures.

The moaning of these children ere they die can be plainly heard in these abodes of despair.

Herod is not a circumstance compared with the infanticides of today, both in civilized and uncivilized countries.

In this country the facts concerning this horrible crime are astonishing.

I should like to preach a sermon to you upon the statistics of Infantile Mortality in Chicago, and elsewhere, and the Causes and Consequences of Infant Murder. Some day I shall, God permitting,

if it were not for the foreign immigration into the United States of America there would be a diminution in the population shown by the last census.

Children are hated by those who lustfully procreate them.

Those who dare to raise a display of weeping over the Babe of Bethlehem, are many of them who have murdered their own unborn offspring.

The Christ was born and escaped Herod the murderer, and was taken down to Egypt, where He was taught.

The Story of the Christ is but imperfectly told in the Bible.
We have not been told about the sojourn in Egypt, and whether He was educated at Cairo or elsewhere.

We have not been told anything about the long years of family life during which Mary had four other sons, James,
Joses, Simon, and Jude, and probably three daughters.

We are not told when Joseph died, and when Jesus, the first born, became the head of the house and assumed the responsibilities.

We are not told of their circumstances.

Poverty of Jesus Only a Tradition.

We have had impressed upon us by a cunning and foolish priesthood that Jesus was very poor.

I fail to see it.

Jesus had received, at the hands of the Wise Men, gold, frankincense and myrrh.

He had received the costly robe which He afterwards wore,
the seamless dress of a King.

The presents which were made then were doubtless so large and rich and royal that the Christ could well be maintained by them.

I do not believe in the poverty which some see in the Bible, when they read that the Christ had not where to lay His head.

That is an Orientalism, which is said concerning a man, no matter how rich he may be, if he is a bachelor.

In the East he is said to have nowhere to lay his head.

When he gets married he has a place to lay his head.

...
For not in circling depths nor heights,
But in the consecrated breast.
Present to faith, though hid from sight,
There dath Thy Spirit rest.

All scenes alike engaging prove
To hearts impressed with God's own love,
Where'er they dwell they dwell with Thee;
At home, abroad, or on the sea.

Could I be cast where Thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot,
But regions none remote I call,
Than e'en the dearest earthly lie.

The Christ fills this earth everywhere with His Presence.
You cannot be where He is not.

The Christ's Glorified Body Is in the Heavens, Where He Is Our Advocate With the Father.

But if this question is asked concerning Him in the sense of a Physical Embodiment, there is only one answer for that.
He has entered into the Holiest through the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant.
For as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive.
When he was lifted up by the hand which he knew so well,
His glorious appearance was so wonderful that John fell at His feet as dead.
We say, therefore, that as a personality He is in the glorified body which He received after His reascension into the heavens.
He is there as the Mediator between God and man.

Where high that heavenly temple stands,
That house of God not made with hands;
He bends on earth a Brother's eye;
But regions none remote I call,
Than e'en the dearest earthly lie.

In deepest sympathy with all humanity, He is the Advocate with the Father, the High Priest for all mankind.
He died not for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
He died not for the righteous only, but for the sinner:
For as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ shall all be made alive.

His work goes on.
He pursues His Mighty Plan in heaven, preparing a place for the redeemed—a great schoolhouse, a mighty college, a wondrous city, in which He will train His people for Service throughout the Universe.
He is preparing places now.
He is now in the presence of God, an Advocate for us.
The Christ who was born in Bethlehem lies in no manger.
The Christ who died at Calvary lies in no tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, hewn out of a rock.
His dust is nowhere to be found in Syria or anywhere else.

A Foolish Mohammedan Claim.
There is one foolish man in India, a Mohammedan Messiah, who persists in writing to me saying that the body of the Christ is buried at Cashmir, in India, and can be found there.
He never says that he has seen it, but the poor, fanatical and ignorant creature keeps on with the raving that the Christ died in India.

The Christ reascended into the heavens at Bethany, and He is there in His Celestial Body.

When Shall He Appear?
I can tell you exactly when He shall appear, and yet I name no day, I name no week, I name no year.

But I can tell you, because I am sent to tell.
First of all, however, let me tell you a Story of the Christ and of the Elijah.

One day three of the disciples went up into a Sacred Mountain with Jesus.
Nine of them were left below.
Peter, James and John went up with their Master through the clouds, may be, to the great height of that wonderful mountain.

All at once, the Shekinah Light within Him burst forth, and His body and His garments were transfigured with the light within.

Suddenly there appeared with Him two others, Moses and Elijah.

The astounded disciples who saw that scene said foolish things, as men do when they see something very wonderful.
They suggested the building of three tabernacles on the top of the mountain, that the whole world might come and see this wonderful show.

They had forgotten that the Christ had not come to this earth to build tabernacles upon mountain-tops.
He had come to this earth to Tabernacle within Humanity, for God had made Man from the beginning to be a Habitation for Himself—for the Divinity through the Spirit.

A man can be restored only when the Temple of his Body becomes the Temple of God.

The disciples did not understand.

There are some people always wanting to build tabernacles in ridiculous places.

Tabernacles in themselves will not do the work anywhere.
Tabernacles and Temples are in themselves of small account.

The question is, who is in the Tabernacle?
What is the Message delivered in the Tabernacle?
Unless the Temple is Holy, and unless God is in His Holy Temple, it is a Temple of the Devil.

Attempt of the Scribes to Uproot Faith.
When the Christ came down to cast out devils the disciples said to Him, filled with fear at what they had seen:  "Master, why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?" referring to the coming of the Messiah.

The scribes were very busily about that time.

They were endeavoring to root the faith out of the apostles.

There are times when the scribes of the Devil are especially busy in endeavoring to root the faith out of God's ministers.

They succeed with some of them because they have very little to root out.

They have had seven religious principles to which they have religiously clung.

They must be best defined by calling them five loaves and two fishes.

Other principles they have none.

For them the ministry is a profession, followed for money.

A "call of God" comes from where they can get a larger salary.

It is a petty, mean, miserable business.

An Effective Protest Against Pew-renting.

I never bargained for a salary in the ministry in all my life.

Once a salary was guaranteed to me in a certain charge.

It was a very fine church and had some very fine people.

I spent three years there.

The second Sunday I began to understand something.

It made me very angry to see the church divided up into pew and the people paying so much.

The poor people who wanted to hear me had to stand at the door until it was certain that all the rich people who came in quite late, and at their leisure sailed up the aisles showing the best thing in millinery, cloaks and dresses, would have their seats.

Then the poor people were admitted.

I was angry.
I said to my deacons: "I will not preach again until you abolish these pew-rents."

"Oh, sir, your salary depends on that."

"Why is that?" I asked.

"Now, listen. Let me make a bargain. Abolish the pew-rents, and give me all the money that comes in, less the expenses."

"Are you willing to take that risk yourself?" they asked.

I replied that I was, and I received the largest salary any minister ever had in that place.

I never preached again with the pews closed.

"Never let me see that again," I said.

That was the only time I ever had anything to do with a place where the Devil had parcelled out the church and said, "You sit here, and you sit there." God never invented pew-rents.

Pews are always the delight of a lukewarm Laodicean place where the Devil had parceled out the church and said, "You sit here, and you sit there." God never invented pew-rents.

Elijah Must First Come.

I desire to show you that the question of the scribes was a proper one.

"Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?"

The scribes were right, and the Christ said it.

Elijah, the Tishbite, the Destroyer, passes on his way.

Nevertheless he is the Prophet of all Time.

He is the one prophet who must come three times.

There is not a man who is a Christian theologian who dares break a lance with me on that proposition.

There is not a man familiar with the Scriptures who would deny the fact that the Scriptures teach this.

Church of England theologians, and Methodist, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and Greek Church theologians, apostate though their organizations are, can be found today declaring the fact that the Scriptures teach a triple appearance of Elijah.

Elijah came as the Destroyer in the person of John the Baptist.

Jesus said that he was Elijah, and that they had killed him because he fulfilled his mission.

If any one in the Church of God does not understand it so then they differ with the apostles to whom the Christ revealed that fact: for it is written in Matthew 11:14 and Matthew 17:9-13 as plainly as it could be—"Then understood the disciples that He spake unto them of John the Baptist." But, Jesus said, "He comes again." He comes no longer as the Destroyer at Carmel; no longer as the Preparer at the Jordan.

He comes in the latter days to fulfill the threefold office of that prophet of whom Moses spoke, of the Messenger of the Covenant, and of the Restorer.

Jesus said, long after John was dead, "For Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore All Things." He spoke of the third appearance of Elijah in the Times of the Restoration of All Things.

Elijah Must Come as the Restorer.

The Rabbis were right.

However imperfect their lives, they were splendid theologians.

The Christ Himself said:

The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat: all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

No better interpreters of Moses' law had ever lived.

They were keen.

They knew just when the Christ should come.

They also knew that before He came in His final appearance as the Messiah, that Elijah must first come.

The Christ Himself said that.

He could not have said it of the Tishbite, who had been dead for so many centuries.

He could not have said it of the son of Elizabeth and Zacharias, who had been murdered by Herod, and had been dead for months.

He said it concerning that third manifestation.

And I stand here today and say that I AM ELIJAH THE RESTORER.

I am here to tell you that the Times of the Restoration have begun, and that the Christ will come when these Times are sufficiently advanced.

He is Coming in the Fulness of the Times, Not the Beginning of the Times.

There is a dawn before the sun is seen.

There is a glorious rising when the sun bursts forth.

Then it is no longer dawn, but morning.

Then follows a glorious midday, then a glorious afternoon, and then a glorious sunset.

Before that period called "the Times" is over, the Christ will come.

He is coming.

I know it, because if I were not Elijah the Restorer, Elijah would be somewhere on this earth and must reveal himself, and have the Signs of Elijah, which God has unmistakably given unto me in His infinite condescension.

Elijah must appear as the Restorer in the Times of the Restoration.

These Times have come.

All Christendom—to use a term I scarcely approve—is now looking at the City of Zion and the Prophet whom God has established there, proofs of which are afforded by my enemies, the Scribes and Pharisees of the twentieth century, who curse me from Dan to Beersheba, and lay traps for me by trickeries and falsehoods.

I will give one illustration.

I do not hesitate to say now something which I have never before said fully in public: for my lips are unsealed by the action of a prominent Methodist, who is both a Scribe and a Pharisee.

Betrayal of Faith by Dr. James M. Buckley.

Dr. James M. Buckley, of New York, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, in a very humble and apologetic manner, came with Dr. Berry, of this city, editor of the Epworth Herald, to see me in the summer of 1901, soon after my Declaration as Elijah the Restorer in this Auditorium on June 2, 1901.

He came very much in the same way the Scribes and Pharisees did of old, wanting to see and know for an evil purpose.

They obtained access to me at my offices in Zion building, Michigan avenue and Twelfth street, in this city, because they lied successfully.

They said that they had come in the spirit of Christian men, holding rank in their own church, on a purely private mission to see John Alexander Dowie, if I would see them as a brother Christian minister.

They said that if I would talk concerning myself and my mission it would all be private.

There message was polite and apparently sincere.

I said, very well.

I knew James M. Buckley to be the boss of the Methodist National Conferences.

I knew him to be one of the keenest controversialists of the day, with a very sharp sword, but an exceedingly small one: for he is, spiritually and intellectually and morally, only a miserable Lilliputian.

I had no respect for him; because he had traduced me shamefully for years in his feeble weekly Advocate, which is "neither cold nor hot" on any subject which does not affect the pride or prestige of James Buckley—then it is hot, with a fire that never came from heaven.

But the message was such that, as a Christian man, I was compelled to give him the benefit of every doubt.

He has chosen to break the compact made between us.

He has contributed an article to the Century Magazine, which, if I remember correctly, is an analysis written as if I were some new kind of beetle which was to be analyzed, and then, classified, with a pin stuck through it, and put up just where you would know where to find it.

I suppose he pleaded his own apostate Masonic-Methodist organization, so far as its degenerate ministry and worldly controllers from Secret Orders may be concerned, but by no means all of its members.

I think that I shall attempt and perform a classification and an analysis of him.

I do not know how much will be left when the analysis is over.

I shall wait until I go down to New York, and then have it out right upon the spot, giving him a fair opportunity for reply, every word of which I promise to print in LEAVES OF HEALING.

I am reserving that pleasure for another time.

He has broken the compact, by speaking in that article of his visit to me, which was a distinct dishonorable breach of faith.

Significant Admissions by Dr. Buckley in Private Conversation.

He lied about the conversation.

He did not tell his readers that after I had spoken for a long time I leaned across my table and said, "Perhaps you do not believe that," when he put his hand out, and, with tears in his eyes, said: "Dr. Dowie, I believe every word you have said."

He does not tell that we talked the Elijah matter over.

He does not tell that he and Dr. Berry were compelled to admit the significance of what John Keble sang in the Christian Year, on John the Baptist's Day, of Elijah's third coming.

I pointed out to him the theology of the matter with open Bible.

He does not tell what he ought to have told, to be honest, that he and Dr. Berry both said that the theology was all right. This, and more, they shall hear of again at a fitting time and place.

If he was going to break the compact, let him break it altogether.

Elijah must come before the Christ comes.

Whether I am or am not Elijah is another question.

The first question is, must Elijah come?

The next question is,

Is It Time for Elijah to Come?

I will ask any Jewish Rabbi, who is not a Christian. They will say—"Yes."

Zion and the Message of Elijah, the Restorer, are breaking up everything in the apostasies all over the world, as well as in the United States of America and Canada.

They are troubling all the Herods, all the Pharisees and all the Scribes, and the Fire of God in Zion is burning up the "wood, hay and stubble," and all the miserable vermin that had made the abodes in these dying structures.

I will tell you what Dr. Buckley did not tell you, that while I would not, and did not ask him to declare that I was Elijah, I said: "Will you prove that I am not?" and he said: "No; I cannot, for I know nothing about that, but your theology is right, and you are a man of God."

Why did he not tell that?

Why did he, for the purpose of getting a few mean dollars from the Century Magazine, write an article that is a disgrace to him, even in those parts in which he tells the truth?

If I am the able man he describes in one part of it—my capacity being such that I could be a mighty leader in politics or a general of an army, or anything else—where is the motive for imposture?

If I am as acute and bright as he says, where is the place for my insanity?

I shall give him now until I get down to New York, and there I shall leave him forever. (Laughter.)

I am going there some day, and then there will be a mighty ruction at Hell Gate. (Laughter. Applause.)

Mission In New York.

I do not know when I can spare the time for my long-intended personal Mission to the Great Metropolis of America, but I hope to do it not later than next Fall. I say this for the information of my own people in the Empire State. My arrangements for this Auditorium continue until the last Lord's Day in May. Then follows the Feast of Tabernacles, etc., in July; the planned work of August, and the Anniversary of Zion Restoration House in September. God willing, I shall give New York the entire month of October, and plant the Banner of Zion there to stay.

I hope to "destroy the works of the Devil," and, above all, to do the work of God in the salvation, healing, cleansing, and quickening of multitudes through Faith in Jesus. And this shall be done, should God permit.

I am in a position to tell you, coming as I have in the spirit and power of Elijah, that the fact that we have entered the Times of the Restoration proves that

The Christ's Coming Is Nigh. What Will He Do When He Comes Again to This Earth?

Before He comes to earth He will come in the clouds.

For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the Voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

That is the Rapture of the Restored.

That is the time when the Wise Virgins enter in.

That is the time when the foolish virgins will be left.

Somebody said: "What will become of Zion City, General Overseer, when you go into the Rapture?"

We will leave the foolish virgins to fight out our rights in the law courts and hold on to the property while we are away (laughter).

They will have a good title in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which cannot be upset by any law courts.

They will just have to stay there, with Beer and Babel to batter them upon both sides, until we come back again, for we are coming back.

The Christ is coming back to earth and the Restored will remain with Him to continue in the Millennium the work of Restoration until it be finally accomplished.

What will He do?

If this Bible is not a lie from start to finish He is coming back to reign and establish a world-wide Theocracy.

Do you understand what a Theocracy is?

A Theocracy is the Rule of God, not of political bosses of any kind or degree.

It is not the rule by votes.

There will be no voting in that day.

We have never had any voting in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

When we vote as American citizens—well, there is never any difference of opinion.

Everything is settled easily, because we arc of one heart and one mind in the Lord.

The Millennial Reign an Amplification of Many Features of Zion City.

When the Christ comes, it will be an amplification, and a great one, of some things that you see in Zion City now.

I do not say that when He comes to reign everybody will submit to Him at once.

The political bosses will fight like the Devil, who owns them.(Laughter.)

The denominations will fight like the Devil, who controls them.

Buckley will fight his Lilliputian best to retain control of the Bishops and Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He is a good little fighter, except when he runs away: for he is quite a controversial sprinter when he is almost cornered.

I do not say that God will let Him to reign everybody will submit to Him at once.

THREE QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

you and all you have are His, or you will have to disappear, like Ananias.

If you continue to lie, you will be rolled up like Sapphira, and you will be buried.

You will perish.

There is no room for two Kings.

There will be one King—the King of Glory, the King of Life.

The powers of Death and Hell will vanish.

However, there will be a fight.

It will be a very short one.

We shall not need a gun or a sword.

We shall need an eye that can see when a man has conspired against God.

You will need only to say: "Why hast thou conspired to lie against the Holy Spirit?"

That will be the end of it.

That will be the end of the Sapphiras and Ananias.

There Will Be An Immense Burial of the Enemies of God.

There is a passage in Ezekiel which tells how long it will take to bury some of them.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place for burial in Israel, in the valley of them that pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it the valley of Hamon-gog.

And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

I think it will take some time to bury all the saloon poli ticians in Chi cago. But it will be done, if they do not repent.

The land will be cleansed and the world will be cleansed by the Fire of God's wrath.

You cannot defy God forever, you children of the Devil.

This earth was never made by the Devil.

It was made by God and for good purposes.

If you do not fulfil God's Purposes you will perish.

He will cleanse the earth and proceed to rule over it.

He will send forth His servants, and the Nation which will not serve God will perish.

That Time is coming soon.

What shall the End of these things be?

Peace.

The Final Conflict, Then Victory and Peace.

Not, however, without that final fight with Gog and Magog.

Not without that final fight at the end of the Thousand Years when Satan is let loose for a while.

For one thousand years Satan will be bound, and cast into hell, and we will have peace for that Millennium.

Then one more fight and then the Perfection of the Victory, as it is set forth in the Revelation in chapter 20, verses 7 to 10.

God will be All and in All. There will be a "New Heaven, and a New Earth wherein dwelleth Righteousness."

We are now living in the beginning of the Times of the Restoration and of the fulfilment of God's Promise in sending Elijah.

Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah come. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

You will have no difficulty in finding that passage when I tell you that it is the last verse in the Old Testament.

Some scoffers will say: "That is talk."

Unheeded Warnings Which Proved True.

That is what they said when Noah preached, but they did not say that when they were drowning in the Flood.

That is what they said when Jesus foretold the destruction of Jerusalem.

He said that not one stone should be left upon another.

They did not say that when Titus, the son of Vespasian, with the armies of Rome, completely destroyed the Holy City, and put the people to death, except a miserable remnant who were carried into captivity.

Nobody mocked then at the prophecy of Jesus.

You will not mock long, because the Day is coming.

"The Time Is short."

When shall He appear?

In the Times of the Restoration of All Things.

What will He do?

He will reign until He has completely controlled this earth, until every other form of government has perished, until the Kingdom of God is established from shore to shore, and until the knowledge of the Lord covers the whole earth as the waters the sea.

Hallelujah!

These are Eternal truths! (Amen.)

All who believe them stand and tell God that you do.

(Several thousand arose.)

Pray.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may serve Thee. Purify me by Thy Spirit, that I may do right to all men, and in Thy sight. Make me one of Zion Restoration Host, that I may help to win multitudes to Thee in this time of probation, in this time of Restoration, the perfection of which will only come when Jesus comes. God help us. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Do you believe that?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you live it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—One word. Never forget that the Times of the Restoration go right into the Millennium.

After the Doxology had been sung, the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the

BENEDICTION.

Blessed, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.

The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Zion's Conflict with Methodist Apostasy.

This book of 200 pages, issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, in May, 1900, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of special value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church, the Property of the Masonic Order," " Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devility" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public exposure of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

Lord's Day early morning meeting, December 7, 1902, was a song, an anthem, a glorious hymn of praise and thanksgiving sung by God's children and set to the music of the beautiful white world outside.

From the opening words of the Messenger, the Prophet of God, Elijah the Restorer, thanking the Great Giver of Life for the beautifully glorious, ineffably sweet consolation of His love, for the gift of the Son, and the preservation of His Word which has triumphed over the wrecks of time and the overthrow of nations, which has passed through the fires of persecution, and down the ages until today the world is full of His Word, from the beginning to the end of the service there was but one note, a triumphant note of praise and thanksgiving.

As though locals to leave the golden sentences, the Messenger read again the chapter of the previous Lord's Day morning, the wonderful 17th chapter of St. John, which records the prayer of the Lord Jesus.

Filled with the Spirit of God, there fell from the lips of the Prophet a spontaneous outburst, a wonderful testimony, as to the grace of God as it has been manifested to him.

At its close, many other testimonies followed hard and fast, until the entire audience seemed to be united in one psalm of praise.

After brief comment upon the chapter read, and prayer for the blessing of God to rest upon the work of Zion Restoration Host in Chicago and throughout the world that day, the congregation sang the sweet consecration hymn and departed, hundreds going to the trains awaiting them, and proceeding to Chicago, there spending the hours until the service at 3 p.m. in the Auditorium, in going from house to house and door to door, leaving the Message and bestowing the sacred salutation, "Peace be unto this house."

The Prayers of Jesus.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord's Day Morning, December 7, 1902.

Service was opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 63.

The General Overseer read the 17th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John.

Prayer was offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which he said:

Thanksgiving for God's Goodness.

I am delighted, beloved friends, that we are gathered together here this morning to praise God.

I thank God for His grace to me this week, every day and every hour.

I thank Him for strength which is given to me for every day's work.

Sometimes these days are quite long. I endeavor, as far as possible, to limit my work to the day I rise, but it is not very often possible.

I praise God for an unwearied brain; for the vigor which enables me to find an intense delight in exercising every spiritual and intellectual power for the glory of God.

I arose on Friday morning at 5 o'clock.

I would have gone to bed about that time but for the fact that my good friends down at the power-house turned off the light.

They did not know I was awake, and no notice had been given to them to keep the current running.

I went to bed on Thursday night at 12:15 o'clock because I had to.

When I arose at 5 o'clock that next morning, I felt very bright.

I had had a good sleep.

I had a delightful period of labor before breakfast, communion with God, and prayer. I accomplished a good deal of work all through the day. I was enabled to keep out of the ordinary business of Zion, and concentrate my attention upon reading, to verify every statement I had made last Lord's Day.

You know what rivets I put in to fasten permanently and securely the words I speak in the Chicago Auditorium upon the Lord's Day. I pass them through the crucible again, fuse them by mental electricity, hammer them on the other side, make the argument strong, and the conclusion irrefragable and unanswerable.

I am always thankful that I was not a sluggard in my youth.

The Value of History.

I am thankful, too, that I gave attention to the history of the Church of God and of the Nations of the World, and that I read closely and thought earnestly.

Young men, you will never be a power until you first know the Bible—which is the most remarkable historical work in the world—and then read the best historical writings of all the ages. You must be acquainted with them in some degree.

They are all accessible.

You say, "We have no library here."

I never belonged to a public library.

I was never owned by a public library.

I was poorer than almost any boy in Zion City, but I bought books.

I would rather have books than clothes or bread.

Many a time I bought books, and read them, when I did not always agree with them.

I gave myself a good reason why.

I did not swallow a thing because a historian said it.

I wanted to find out whether he had erred or not.

I never open any book without expecting to find blunders.

I found the "Encyclopaedia Britannica" tripping this last week.

I followed up the point, and was able to know where it had made a serious blunder in a most able article.

I think that I can safely say that before I was fifteen years of age I read all the way from fifty to one hundred of the best historical works in the world.

The Need of Rapid Reading.

I remember when I sat down to Thier's "History of the Consulate and the Empire," and to his "History of the French Revolution," that some skeptical friend was heard to say:

I endeavored to learn French and English as far as possible, and I have found them both to be very valuable to me in my work.
8:30; got to bed at nearly 12, rose this morning at 5, and Chicago and bought a few books, came out again last night at good, honest and necessary employments, and, if you choose, you need never be anything else.

If any one here today is stronger than I am —well— I have half the story. You can learn to take in a page more quickly than some people can read sentences.

The more you sleep the more you want to, and the more

People Sleep Too Much.

You can have the thoughts which I give you, but do not put a thing down upon your pad at your side for a reference or some doubtful point which requires confirmation, or, it may be, rejection.

Never take the one book alone when you read as an absolute and final authority, not even the separate books of the Bible. Matthew is not always perfectly complete in giving a narrative.

Mark and Luke help him out. John has a great mass of material which Matthew, Mark and Luke have not a word of.

It is not that Matthew does not write correctly, so far as he knew the story; but he does not always start the story at the same place, or view the event from the same standpoint.

Take the story of the woman who touched the hem of the Christ's garment, and the resurrection of the daughter of Jairus. You can only make that story complete by reading the first three Gospels.

It is incomplete in each. It is only complete in all. If that is true regarding the Divine Historian, how much more regarding the human? I managed to get in a good day on Friday.

When I got through with it I had thirty or forty volumes open on my table.

I read and verified so much that I had to work at night again.

So you see I paid for it.

I arose on Friday morning at 5 o'clock, and laid down my pen at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, having worked continuously throughout the whole day and night.

I went to bed at 7:30; rose at 12, got my lunch, went into Chicago and bought a few books, came out again last night at 8:30; got to bed at nearly 12, rose this morning at 5, and if any one here today is stronger than I am—well—I have half a mind to test it by the work we do for God today.

I am profoundly convinced that

People Sleep Too Much.

The more you sleep the more you want to, and the more stupid you get.

Sleep while you sleep.

Make a business of it.

Have a real good sleep, as I do, but when you wake get up.

I did not get up for a quarter of an hour after I awoke this morning.

I did a little thinking.

I praise God for a sound mind and a sound body.

The Thinkers of the World Do Its Best Work.

You may be a hewer of wood, or a drawer of water—both good, honest and necessary employments, and, if you choose, you need never be anything else.

A man who is a mechanic does not need to be an idler in thought.

In my native country you walk along such great streets as that of Princes street in Edinburgh, and on every side you will see evidences of thought.

That Monument, for example, which rises to the memory of Sir Walter Scott is one of the most perfectly beautiful pieces of architectural design in the world.

Who made that design?

A man who worked with his hands from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, a hard-toiling mechanic. He was a mason at one time.

When he drew that design he sent it in to compete with some of the best architects in the world, but George Kemp, the self-taught architect, beyond all question entitled to the prize and, to the astonishment of all, he won. Many of his competitors were in the first class amongst British and Continental architects; but the plodder at home, with but few advantages, outstripped them all.

He had never attended an architectural school in his life, if I remember correctly.

Buy your own books.

Get all that a man can tell you, and do your own thinking.

You can have the thoughts which I give you, but do not take a thing in and pass it out undigested.

Digest.

Stop in the midst of your reading.

Pray.

Shut up your book sometimes, and think for yourself.

That man wrought in stone and wood every day, but he was thinking out designs.

When he went home at night he would study for hours and put the thoughts of his brain during the day on paper.

When that design was called for, a thoughtful workingman outstripped all the architects of Europe.

As people walk along the street upon which that monument is situated, they cannot help but stand back and look at it.

You can look at that monument from every point of view in Edinburgh—from the Castle, from the Calton Hill, and from the work—and it commands attention amidst the beautiful nature, and many striking works of ancient and modern architecture.

It was the work of a toiler whose library was a few books.

It is brains and patient effort that tell.

Men Who Toiled, but Thought.

The greatest geologist of Scotland, Hugh Miller, worked for fifteen years as a quarryman near Cromarty, Scotland; and he was not only a great scientist, but became a great editor and author of many most remarkable books, the last of which,

The Testament of the Rocks, shows how a great geologist could also be a great theologian, and a humble, sincere Christian.

One of the greatest naturalists of Great Britain was a shoemaker.

One of the greatest Hebraists of Scotland was a little boy, who walked a long distance into Aberdeen one day with bare feet, having only a few pennies in his pocket.

He went into a bookstore and asked for a Greek Testament.

The man laughed at him.

"Greek Testament," he said, "I will give it to you if you will read it.

He got the Testament, opened it and stood up in the shop and read: "Ἐν δρόμῳ ἢ ὕποπτος, καὶ ὁ ὕποπτος ἢ ὅπως ἢ ὅπως, καὶ ὅπως ἢ ὅπως.

Where did you learn that?" he was asked.

"Oh," he answered, "I am a shepherd laddie, and I learned it on the hillsides.

He had to learn Latin before he could learn Greek, because the only dictionary which he had was a dictionary of Greek in the Latin tongue.

He learned it without a schoolmaster, and became a great professor.

I do not want the youth of Zion to depend upon a public library and reading-room, although these, rightly used, have a high value, and, doubtless, we shall have such in good time.

Buy a book and read it.

Buy another and read it.

Chew it!

Digest it!

When you are working at something else be like a cow and ruminate it.

Think forever; and do not fear that your brain will wear out.

Most brains rust out: for they are almost never seriously used.

Your machinery was given to you for thinking.

I will tell you what disables the brain.

It is not work.

It is fretting and foolishing.

Work! Work! Work!

I delight to work, and I am too happy in working for God, for Zion, for the Restoration of man to God and of God's Kingdom in man all over the world, to find time for fooling.

I thank God for an unwearied and, I believe, a healthy brain.
I think that today, at fifty-five years of age, I am stronger and better prepared for life's work than at any other time in my life, notwithstanding all sorrows, all difficulties, all trials. I do not think that I would do right if I did not now and then take the opportunity of thanking God for life, because it makes me go on just as suddenly as my dear daughter's life departed.

I will continue on earth until my work is, for the time, done on earth. But the thought of returning with the Christ-consciousness of indwelling "Life and Incorruption" which God has "brought to light through the Gospel," which has "faded away with the seasons; that nature changes and decays, that the time.

The consequence is that they at last die of chronic intellectual dyspepsia. They have big heads with many empty rooms, which they never attempt to furnish. People have masses of accumulated ignorance that they call knowledge. They have digested nothing. They never digest. To know is to retain. To know is to work out. They never attempt to furnish. People have masses of accumulated ignorance that they call knowledge. They have digested nothing. Their consequence is abundantly gold, yea, as Pearls of Greatest Price.

This is Life—to Know. That is what we read this morning—to know the Father and Jesus whom He has sent; to know. To know is to see. To know is to hear. To know is to receive. To know is to retain. To know is to work out. The mere possession by the brain of certain knowledge in the case of multitudes who know only intellectually, is an incumbrance. They have big heads with many empty rooms, which they never attempt to furnish. People have masses of accumulated ignorance that they call knowledge. They have digested nothing. They never digest. The consequence is that they at last die of chronic intellectual dyspepsia. Digest! Put it into action. I do not care a pin for a man who, knowing God, is not godly.

To know God involves, of necessity, being partaker of the Divine Nature and of the Divine Energy, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. Thank God for vigor in spirit, soul and body, and the consciousness of indwelling "Life and Incorruption" which God has brought to light through the Gospel, which is the Greatest of All Books.

Let us all thank Him that we are alive, and that we do not fade away with the seasons; that nature changes and decays, shivers and wraps herself up in the garments of winter; but man can be just as fruitful, or even more so, in the winter as in any other time.

Death has all seasons, but so has Life. The Happy Day will come when Death shall die, and when Hell shall cease to be: for it is written in the last Book of the Bible—the Gospel of this Time of Restoration and of the Future Glory—and Death and Hades were cast into the Lake of Fire.

I like the lands where I can see all the seasons on one tree at the same time—summer, winter, spring and harvest. You can literally see the seasons there. The leaves that fade and fall are immediately replaced on the same tree by your beautiful leaves. I love the lands where life is abundant all the time.

Therefore it is that I love the Happy Home above.

An Inheritance Incorruptible and Unlimited, And that lasteth not away. Reserved in Heaven for you who by the Power of God are guarded Through Faith until the Salvation Ready to be revealed in the Last Time.

Let us rejoice that we are living in that Time. Now, pray; labor. What have you to say? Anybody a word of testimony?

After a number of testimonies had been given, the General Overseer delivered the early morning address.

Invocation.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus comes. (Amos)

We have been reading this Prayer again this morning. In my study I had to stop and think how every word of it was golden.

There are a great many words even in the Bible that are not golden.

In a great house there are vessels of silver and gold, pewter, beautiful vases, and I cannot understand why any one should decry the beautiful, even though we rejoice in the useful but less beautiful things.

It seems to me that

The Most Wonderful Thing in the World is the Beautiful.

It is wonderful, but all things are not equally beautiful. In this Bible there are many things spoken by common people in a common, simple way.

There is Much of the Bible that is Spoken by Fools.

I do not know any book that has more nonsense in it than the book of Job where these three fool friends of Job talked unmitigated nonsense for about a score of chapters.

God the Almighty rebukes them hard, hot, strong; tells them they would better get Job to pray for them, for Job had repented of his nonsensical talk—"words without knowledge"—and been forgiven.

God reproved him, and Job said: "Behold, I am vile. I uttered that which I understood not, things too wonderful for me, that I knew not. Wherefore I abhor myself, and I repent in dust and ashes."

Oh, what a blessing it would be today if every fool repented in dust and ashes, and talked no more folly! Just think what kind of an issue we would have tomorrow morning from the newspapers! Just think what a blessing it would be for judges to listen to no more trash from lawyers! Just think what a delightful world it would be if all the fools ceased to be fools!

But even the Bible has many chapters of utter nonsense which are recorded for our warning.

The Words of Jesus Are All Gold.

When you come to the words of Jesus, they are all as fine gold, yea, as Pearls of Greatest Price. They are not only gold, but they are jeweled, adorned with rarest diamonds in every sentence, and like the most precious stones. You cannot travel quickly for the riches and dazzling beauty of these Galleries of Glory upon Glory from God. What a Revelation of the Inmost Spirit of the Christ is this Wonderful Intercessor's Prayer in John 17th!

Oh, you can never understand how precious the words are, until you have blundered through the words of men, and had to go through continents of intellectual mud and mire, just to get at one fact, perhaps.

This morning when I read these words, the one thing that impressed itself upon my mind was just where we left off last Sabbath morning, and I really feel I cannot do any more than just tell you something about that today.

Jehovah Is One God.

This is Life Eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

Never forget that our Lord Jesus, the Christ, proclaimed what Israel must hear in every generation:

"Hear, O Israel, Jehovah thy God is One God!"

Never separate the Deity.

Never imagine for one moment that Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are aught but One.

This is Life Eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

His people sought but one sent from the Father, One speaking the words of the Father, One doing the work of the Father, One in whom the Father dwelt, in whom the Spirit dwelt, and One who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, without whom you cannot go to the Father.

You see, the burden of the Last Prayer of all is that they may know the Father, "that they may know Thee, the Only True God, and Him whom Thou hast sent, even Jesus, the Christ." You have to get to the Father if you are ever to know the Son.

Neither doth any know the Father save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal Him." You say, "Oh, I want to know all about Jesus.

Jesus, the Christ, Came to Reveal the Father.

Listen! It is only God the Father who knows all about Jesus. Great is the Mystery of Godliness—only God can ever know it fully. It is only God the Father who can tell you the secret of the Divine Conception.

It is only God the Father who can tell you how that Virgin bore the Sinless Child by the conception of the Holy Spirit—and you cannot know how it has ever been able to unveil fully the Mystery of Humanity—the human Conception.

"No one knoweth the Son, save the Father." "Neither doth any know the Father save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal Him."

Now, it seems to me increasingly that the great purpose of the Great Revelator, Jesus, was to show us the Father, to lead us to the Father, and help us to understand, throughout all the ages, that we are not orphans, that the Father is not out whom you cannot go to the Father.

He sends the Holy Spirit to comfort us, to carry the Message of the Father which we may know the Father, "that they may know Thee, the Only True God, that they may know Thee, my Father, the Only True God, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide, One Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

CHRISTMAS FOR ZION CITY JUNIORS

CHRISTMAS EVE at Zion City was given up to the pleasure of the Zion Juniors. The night was bitter cold, yet there were over a thousand children in Shiloh Tabernacle and as many parents.

Two large, beautiful Christmas trees decorated the spacious platform. These were laden with dolls, baubles, and other decorations, and were brilliantly lighted in an up-to-date fashion by a great number of differently colored electric lights. Great care and much toil had been expended in wiring the trees and making them things of beauty.

The front of the Tabernacle was festooned and lined with garlands and wreaths of evergreen. Immediately in front of the platform were two large tables, one of which was the entrance of the Junior Choir in each aisle, on this page. The service began by the able leader, Conductor Rice. The Juniors listened in attentive interest to the old, old story, so graphically and vividly read by the Elder. Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer, closing by chanting the Disciples' Prayer by the vast audience. Then came a volume of applause from the Juniors, and they were overjoyed to know that Santa Claus was their General Overseer.

He then wished them a Happy Christmas, and said that he was thankful to be able, with God's help, to be the Santa Claus of Zion City.

With a "Peace to thee" and a "good night," he retired. As his beloved figure passed out Overseer Speicher arose and said; "A Merry Christmas to Santa Claus," which was seconded by hearty applause from all.

The children then passed to the front and carried off the sweet bundles, and went home to dream of Zion City's lovely Santa Claus.

ZION PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HOUSE, 1306 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A.
NO ONE can read the above Vow, and then observe the enthusiasm with which the thousands in Zion have responded to the call of the General Overseer, without being profoundly impressed.

It would seem that no true child of God, who is looking for the "Restoration of All Things," as recorded in Acts 3:21, and the return of Jesus, the Christ, as recorded in Hebrews 12:8, as the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet foretold by Moses, and Elijah the Restorer.

No Gospel, to whatever extent of all my powers, to obey all right orders issued by him directly or by his properly appointed officers, and to proceed to any part of the world, wherever he shall direct, as a member of Zion Restoration Host, and that all family ties and obligations, and all relations to all human government shall be held subordinate to this Vow, this Declaration, and this Promise.

This I make in the presence of God and of all the visible and invisible witnesses.

In response to his call for a great Host to carry the full Gospel into all parts of the world, letters have poured in from people in all sections, declaring it to be their greatest joy to place themselves under his command to go anywhere, and to do anything, which the interests of the Kingdom might require.

Following we give some extracts from a few of the numerous letters which have recently been received:

From One Who Had Received Great Blessings in Reading "Leaves of Healing."

Jesus the Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever—Hebrews 13:8.

Dear General Overseer:—I am seventy-three years old, and in answer to your call, today sign the Vow, and wish to be counted one of Zion Restoration Host.

Although I can do so little in this great work, I wish to do my part.

I do the work for a family of six.

While the mother and eldest daughter are at work to support the little family, the little ones are in my care, so I cannot go as often as I would, but shall do whatever you give me to do.

I have read LEAVES OF HEALING since December, 1894.

It was given me at that time by Miss Addie Somers, who is now in Zion City, Illinois, employed as one of the teachers in Zion College. I was given up to die by the best physicians, but recovered after receiving your teaching in the LEAVES and sending to you for prayer. I suffered from liver trouble, hemorrhage of the bowels and inflammatory rheumatism. I was almost helpless, but had perfect faith that I would get healing if I only obeyed.

Now I am stronger than any of my daughters and can endure more.

We feel that God's will is our path, and so we have done everything possible to fulfill your Vow of Zion.

Pray for us, that we may all do more in this work and be strong to withstand all who oppose us.

With a heart full of gratitude to you and dear Overseer Jane Dowie, I am, Faithfully yours, (Mrs.) Kate B. Sooey.

From a Good German Brother, Led Out of the Baptist Church.

My Dear Brother in the Christ:—Peace to thee.

In answer to your letter, let me say that it is our hearty desire to become members of Zion Restoration Host.

I started to work for Zion the very month I decided to join the Christian Catholic Church in Zion by sending a great deal of Zion Literature to the preacher and in a number of members of the little Baptist congregation of which I was a member.

Since that time I have been treated by these people as a person who was afflicted with some contagious disease.

After this I began to speak with friends and coworkers in the shop in which I am employed, and have sent vast quantities of Zion Literature and LEAVES OF HEALING to about thirty addresses in this city.

We have a general knowledge of the Bible, but need to study it more systematically and commit portions of it to memory, as we desire to take up work in Zion Restoration Host.

I began to prepare about a week before I received your letter, by having our whole family begin to learn all the verses pointing to God's Way of Healing.

Even the youngest child, three years old, repeats the verses.

My desire is to some day see the whole family of ten in this great Zion Restoration Host.

We are praying especially for each day.

Our little Gustav has already begun to do some of this work.

He is attending kindergartens at the Baptist Mission.

At lunch time, a few days ago, the teacher handed him some pork.

He refused to eat it.

The next day she tried to give him a piece of ham.

He told her that he did not know about ham, but that he would ask mamma first, which he did.

About two weeks ago he overheard the superintendent talking to the teacher about going to the doctor on account of sickness.

Gustav interrupted them by saying: "The doctor will not do any good. When any of us at home get sick we pray to God."

I then told them how God had healed his mamma and little Freda, who had been sick with typhoid fever.

The teacher said: "In that why do you not eat any bacon, Gustav?" and he replied: "We do not eat any bacon because God does not want us to eat it. We read LEAVES OF HEALING, and that tells us all about it."

"If I knew that God did not want us to eat pork I would not do it either," she said, and asked him to bring her a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING.

She has since sent a message to Gustav's mamma saying that she enjoyed reading the papers very much, for they certainly contained a great deal of truth.

By it she has been led to give up eating pork, and said that she did not know before that the hog was such an unclean animal.

Pray for us, that we may be of good service for the Lord.

Yours in Christ, Charles Moos.

Zion in Paris, France.

We ask all Zion everywhere to pray earnestly for the young man who represents Zion Restoration Host in the great and wicked city of Paris.

Perhaps few realize the great difficulties with which one has to contend in that great city, so given over to all forms of wickedness.

Nevertheless, Zion has her representative there, as well as in nearly all of the important centers of the world.
LEAVES OF HEALING

Saturday, December 27, 1902.

It may be interesting to some to know that this young man, like the true Zion Restorationist that he is, in response to the call of the General Overseer a few years ago, had his trunk packed and was on his way from Chicago to that great city on only a few hours' notice.

A recent letter from him reads as follows:

DEAR BROTHER IN THE CHRIST:—Peace be multiplied upon thee.
I am very thankful for your kindness in having sent me the cards containing the Vow of Zion Restoration Host.

I am wholly convinced that God Almighty has called out a dearly beloved General Overseer, and that he is the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet foretold by Moses, and Elijah the Restorer.

With God's love in my heart I sign it, and promise God and our dear General Overseer to be faithful and loyal to Zion and to him until God takes me to the Zion above.

My prayer is that God may keep our dear General Overseer until Jesus comes.

Ever since I left Chicago I have not ceased to do seventy work, and, by the help of God, I never intend to stop.

In France it is very hard to do work for Zion, because almost everyone is against Zion teaching.

The greatest enemies here are the ministers of the Protestant denominations and the chief of all Sunday schools.

I believe that France is the most sinful Nation on God's earth.

It is impossible to tell about it.

Yours faithfully in Zion's bonds,

JULIUS G. RUGLI

A recent letter from Evangelist Cantel brought us ninety-two new names for Zion Restoration Host. The Evangelist writes as follows:

MY DEAR ELDERS:—Hereewith I enclose a list containing the signatures of those in London who have gladly made the declaration and taken the Vow of Zion Restoration Host.

I have advised Branches and members in the Provinces to do likewise.

You will doubtless hear from them shortly.

Our saloon work has been very encouraging for the last five or six weeks.

We have held open-air meetings in different localities in London.

Between thirty and forty of our members have attended, thus giving a good foundation to our meeting and thereby encouraging a large number of spectators to come and hear the Message.

At the close of these open-air services we circulate the Seventy Message and sell LEAVES OF HEALING and then re-assemble and engage in the saloon work.

Not many weeks ago one of our saloon workers sold a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING to a man who had just left a public house.

Upon his return home he carefully read it and the spirit of God mightily used it to convict him of sin.

The result was that he gave up smoking and drinking, after indulging in these habits for many years.

Not many days after his wife and daughter were converted in Zion. Recently all have been baptized and brought into full fellowship.

We feel greatly rejoiced by these evidences that God is giving power to the Message in Zion.

We continue to rest with deepest interest in the wonderful progress being made at Headquarters.

Although we are obliged to remain on this side of the water, yet more frequently than we can tell our spirit is with you all.

With hearty Christian greeting for you, and to whom we were privileged to meet at Zion Headquarters.

Believe me faithfully yours in Zion's bonds.

H. E. CANTEL

A good supply of application forms for Zion Restoration Host reached Evangelist Cantel soon after his writing the above letter.

The following letter will show that the work is growing at a most encouraging rate:

MY DEAR ELDERS:—Peace be to thee.

We are in receipt of a package from you containing application forms for membership in Zion Restoration Host.

Will you please see that you get at least fifty more, as the quantity sent will not be sufficient for London alone, and we have to supply the Provinces?

With Christian greeting, believe me, Faithfully yours in Zion's bonds,

H. E. CANTEL

Among the foreign mail recently received at the office of the recorder of Zion Restoration Host, was a letter from Deacon McKell of Bradford, England, in which he enclosed a list of names for Zion Restoration Host in Leeds, England, and intermediate points, making a total of fifty-three names in all.

His letter reads as follows:

MY DEAR OVERSEER:—I have a list of names of members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in the district of which I have the oversight, who have taken the Vow, declaring their purpose to serve under our dear General Overseer as the Prophet foretold by Moses and Elijah the Restorer.

You will find fifty-three names in this list.

I expect to have more to follow soon.

The delay has been caused by the difficulty of getting all the petitions in the wide district.

With Christian greetings, believe me, Yours truly in Zion's bonds,

R. McKELL

Reports from Other Sections Throughout the British Isles.

Names for Zion Restoration Host have been sent in from the following named places: Lincoln and Manchester, England; Edinburgh and Rossville, Scotland.

An excellent report has also been received from Thomas Clark of work done by Zion Restorationists at Durban, Natal, South Africa.

Thus, in addition to the thousands of workers who are going forth each week from Zion City to carry the Message to Chicago's thousands, we find by reports from all parts of the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia and Africa, as well as in the great island continent of Australia, that Zion Restorationists are going forth with the Message of Peace.

Many very interesting instances are being related of the marvelous way in which God is using these faithful workers in the spreading of the Gospel to earth's remotest bounds.

We remind Zion Restorationists in all parts of the world, that they are daily remembered by Zion at Headquarters, and our General Overseer, at the 9 o'clock prayer hour. We ask that God would give them increased power for the great work to which they have been set apart.

We desire the prayers of Zion everywhere, that wisdom may be given to those at Headquarters in directing this great movement.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

INSTANTLY HEALED OF SEVERE DISEASES AFTER MANY YEARS' SUFFERING—HUSBAND HEALED OF SERIOUS, LONG-STANDING AILMENTS.

SURELY HE HATH BORNE OUR SICKNESSES!

Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, bore our sicknesses! That is the Word of God through His prophet. Seven hundred years after that prophecy was written, that Divine Son of God appeared on earth and gloriously fulfilled it. Hear the words of the inspired writer of the Gospel:

And Jesus went about teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

And healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

Thus He fulfilled His Mission to the people of Palestine, nineteen centuries ago.

But His work was for all men, everywhere, in all the ages.

Upon Calvary's Cruel Cross, when His great heart of compassion was breaking, He uttered that great cry, "It is finished."

He had accomplished that for which He was sent.

He had purchased by His blood the free Gifts of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing for all mankind.

He not only paid the price, but He has promised to be with us All the Days, even unto the Consummation of the Age, the same loving, powerful, willing Savior, Healer, Cleanser. In accordance with that promise, He now stands, by His Spirit, with melting heart and laden hands, offering to all men everywhere these most precious gifts.

With what base ingratitude do men turn deaf ears to that Heavenly Voice; and how deeply they grieve Him, as they refuse the gifts He gave Himself to purchase!

Even those who profess to love Him and have accepted the Salvation of their spirits, turn away with indifference, scorn or anger, as He offers them the healing of their bodies.

Spurning His gifts, they turn to physicians and drugs, in a vain attempt to obtain healing from them.

But God has not one kind word to say for the physicians.

He never promised healing through their drugs.

When the Christ was on earth in the flesh, He never used their medicines.

On the contrary, God's Word says, "Ye are all physicians of no value;" "In vain dost thou use many medicines;" "She had suffered many things of many phy-
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 3, 1903.

It was eight years ago that God so wonderfully blessed me through the prayer of the General Overseer and through his teaching.

I found Jesus, the Christ, to be not only my Savior, but also my Healer.

I had been a sufferer from female trouble, constipation and urinary trouble.

I thank God that I was healed, for I had never been taught to trust in human means, but to trust in the power of God.

For many years I was practically an invalid, tortured by many diseases.

Hopeless misery, with no release except in death, seemed to be her portion.

The husband, too, was severely afflicted.

So-called remedies served only to increase his pain and weakness.

And then, one memorable day he saw the working of the power of God.

He called upon an aged woman, a member of his church (he was a pastor) expecting to find her very near to death, with cancer of the stomach.

He found her alive, perfectly well, going about freely and praising God for her deliverance.

A Miracle of Healing had been wrought.

In answer to his eager inquiries, he learned that God had healed this woman in the Name of Jesus, His Son, who purchased that gift for her, and in the Power of His Holy Spirit, by whom He is present at all beds of pain.

He learned that her healing was in answer to prayer of God’s Messenger, who was then preaching and teaching in Chicago, fearlessly proclaiming Jesus as the Healer, Cleanser and Keeper as well as the Savior.

Not long after, in answer to the prayer of that Messenger, with the laying on of hands in accordance with God’s command, his good wife was instantly healed of all the diseases which had so terribly afflicted her.

Soon the husband also, through trust in God and turning away from all human means, was quickly healed.

Eight years have passed since these servants of God received their healing.

Today they are stronger and in better health than for many years.

As Elder and Evangelist in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, they are spending their youth, which God has so graciously renewed, although the snows of winter are upon their brows, in telling of His mighty Love, and Power, and Willingness to heal as well as save and cleanse.

Their Message is delivered, for the most part, in the strong, expressive German tongue, and God is blessing it to many who hear.

Now they go to tell their Story, not to hundreds or thousands, but to hundreds of thousands, through the pages of the Book of Healing.

Is it not a wonderful Story which they tell?

Best of all, it is all true and can be substantiated by the testimony of many unimpeachable witnesses.

As they tell their Story, they proclaim the blessed truth that He who bore their sicknesses, bore also the sicknesses of every suffering man, woman and child in all the ages.

That means you, O weary sufferer, who read these words.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF EVANGELIST SARAH DIETRICH.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 27, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:— With a thankful heart I wish to give my testimony to what God has done for me.

Oh, how I longed to care for my dear family, for we had six children then. God has given us another dear little girl since.

In the fall of 1894 we heard of Dr. Dowie, in Chicago, praying for the sick and of their being healed.

I had become a little better, so that I could sit up.

In July, I had another very sick spell.

This one was worse than the one in April.

For some time I was not able to speak to the dear ones around my bed.

Dr. Buehler was again called, but I felt then that it was useless to put my trust in the arms of flesh.

The husband was again called, but I felt then that it was useless to put my trust in the arms of flesh.

As soon as I could speak I said to my dear husband: “Pray for me.”

I did not expect God to heal me, but I desired to be fully prepared to meet my Savior, as I thought that death was very near.

Up to this time I had never known anything about Divine Healing.

This sick spell caused my head to be so very weak that the softest pillow was too hard to lie on.

When I got some better and would try to sit up, my head would drop back on the pillow.

At this time Dr. Conger was treating me.

In this way the weeks and months of the summer passed away.

My life was but a burden.

Oh, how I longed to care for my dear family, for we had six children then. God has given us another dear little girl since.

In the fall of 1894 we heard of Dr. Dowie, in Chicago, praying for the sick and of their being healed.

I had become a little better, so that I could be up part of the time.

My dear husband was urging me to go to Chicago to see and hear Dr. Dowie.

I said that I believed that God could heal some diseases, but not mine.

However, the last week in October I consented to go.

Together my dear husband and I went to Divine Healing Home No. 1, and stayed one week.

Oh, the joy that filled my heart to hear the General Overseer teach the Gospel as I had never heard it taught before.

I then took my Bible and read and studied it more earnestly and eagerly than ever before, for it seemed to be a new Book to me.

My eyes were opened to the precious truths in God’s Holy Word.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 27, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:— With a thankful heart I wish to give my testimony to what God has done for me.
Saturday, January 3, 1903.

I believed Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday and today, and forever.

If He is the same and could forgive me my sins, He must be able to heal my diseases.

When the General Overseer prayed with me, I was completely delivered of these diseases.

I was wonderfully blessed in Spirit, Soul and Body.

I thank God with all my heart, to know that God is the Savior, Healer and Cleanser, and for sending the General Overseer to teach us these precious truths.

Praying that these words may be a blessing to all who read them, and that many a weary heart may turn to God and accept Jesus as Savior and Healer.

Yours faithfully in Jesus,

SARAH DIETRICH,
Evangelist in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF ELDER JOHN DIETRICH.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 22, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—With all my heart I confirm the testimony of my wife, and also add my own.

I feel that among the thousands who praise God in Zion we especially have reason to give God honor and glory for what He has done for us by calling and sending His servant, John Alexander Dowie, the Messenger of the Covenant, Elijah the Redeemer, and the Prophet foretold by Moses, who is to appear in the last days, before the coming of Jesus, the Christ.

In the spring of 1879, my wife was afflicted by an ulcer that caused lameness in the legs.

Her womb was full of ulcers, which caused lameness in the legs.

Her suffering in all those years cannot be described.

In April, 1894, she was stricken with nervous prostration.

In this illness I refer you to the article written by myself and published in Leaves of Healing of December 7, 1894, Volume 1, No. 13.

In our relation to the Church it appeared to us quite important to make a request for prayer to the General Overseer, and to go to Chicago.

We delayed but prayed God to lead us to God. God showed us by His Spirit, His Word and His wonderful work, that He would heal.

We prayerfully took our refuge in Him. I wrote a letter to the General Overseer, with whom I was not acquainted.

The answer came: Trust God and bring your wife.

I asked him again to pray for us to God for protection on our journey.

We shall never forget the day. Oh! how God so wonderfully protected us and brought us to Divine Healing Home No. 1.

Here we were very lovingly treated, taught and encouraged.

We learned to obey after the manner of James 5:16.

When the General Overseer prayed with the sick and laid hands on my wife, according to Mark 16:18, God fulfilled His promise and she was healed.

Indeed, God healed her so wonderfully that even the symptoms disappeared, as the fog disappears before the sun.

This was November 5, 1894.

After a week in the Divine Healing Home, we could make our journey homeward with much greater joy and happiness, thanking God for His great and infinite grace and love which He had revealed unto us.

In a very short time my wife gained twenty pounds in weight.

Her countenance was so changed that old friends hardly knew her. This was from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

I will give my own testimony in a few words.

January 16, 1896, I was converted to God by His grace and the power of the Holy Spirit, and was born anew, with clear evidence of my adoption as a child of God.

About eighteen months after, the Lord called me to preach the Gospel according to His Will and my conviction.

In October, 1879, I was smitten with typhoid fever and suffered for six weeks. All aid of doctors seemed to be in vain.

One of my friends went to a physician who said: I will give him something else; he will pay the Devil, anyhow.

Never shall I forget the time I swallowed that poisonous medicine.

God in His mercy spared my life, but, as a result of having that poisonousstuff in my body, there soon appeared an open sore and other evils. I consulted the best doctors, but all in vain.

I consulted experts such as Dr. N. Sears, Dr. William Fox and Dr. Sherman, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and many others; they were all physicians of no value (Job 13:4).

My own homeopathic medicine did me no good. In this misery and tribulation, over twenty-four years passed away.

But after Mother Clavadatscher and my dear wife were so wonderfully healed, I gained courage and faith.

At my second visit to the General Overseer in December, 1893, I told him of my troubles.

He was very kind, and instructed me by the Word of God how to believe and pray aright.

He prayed for me and expected my healing.

Here I will confess that it cost me the hardest fight of my life, a battle with my unworthiness and doubts, more than anything else.

After getting right with God and men as far as I could, I wrote to God for forgiveness. God healed me entirely, not only from the running sores, but also from other diseases in my body.

Praise be to Him! Hallelujah!

While I am writing this testimony I enjoy as good health as I ever had in all my life.

God revealed His Will and showed us plainly the way to come into Zion.

Now we are here in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in love and thankfulness to the General Overseer and Overseer Jane Dowie, to serve the Lord in accordance with His Will and our experience and conviction in spirit, soul and body as God will lead us.

For eight years we have practically lived up to Zion's teaching and the Word of God, putting our full trust in God alone.

His Word says, in Jeremiah 17:5: Blessed is the man that trusteth in Jehovah and whose hope Jehovah is.

Paul says, Philippians 1:6: Being confident of this very thing, that He which began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus, the Christ.

With a grateful heart, I am,

Yours in Jesus, the Christ,

JOHN DIETRICH.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. K. CLAVADATSCHER.

The following extracts from Leaves of Healing, Volume 1, No. 13, tell the story of Mother Clavadatscher's wonderful healing:

WUTHOUT HUMAN TOUCH.

HEALING OF CANCER IN THE STOMACH.

The Instantaneous Healing of an Aged German Lady Through the Prayer of Faith.

Intercessory prayer on behalf of persons at a distance is one of the features of our work which has given us great joy. The prayer of faith shall save the sick for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

It has been our privilege to pray that prayer, inspired by the Spirit of God, for vast numbers of persons whose faces we have never seen, and to have very large numbers of gracious answers. Out of many we have selected one case which, in all its features, illustrates the truth that Divine Healing, as we are permitted to teach it, is Divine; is wholly of God, and not of man.

The aged German lady, Mrs. Clavadatscher, of Sauk City, Wisconsin, can neither read nor write English, and could not therefore communicate with us herself. Through her son, a merchant of Baraboo, Wisconsin, the first inquiries concerning us were made. Her son visited our Home, saw one of our secretaries, received a form of request for prayer, returned with it to his mother, told her how he believed as she did that God would heal her, and as the correspondence which follows this introduction shows, upon the morning of August 23d, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, we prayed in agreement with each other, and she was instantly and perfectly healed.

We lay this trophy at the Redeemer's feet, and pray that God may greatly bless it to His sick and suffering ones in all lands.

SAUK CITY, SAUK COUNTY, WISCONSIN.

DEAR REV. DOWIE:—I send you herein request for prayer. If the hour named should not answer, you will please answer by letter, and set the hour for another hour. If hour set herein is acceptable to you, you will please wire, All right, at our expense, and we will then make no mistake. My son, T. Clavadatscher, saw your secretary, Mr. J. P. Carpenter, Friday evening, August 19, 1894. I made all arrangements, and if there is nothing in the way, you will please wire me so that I will know the hour.

I enjoyed as good health as I ever had in all my life.

God revealed His Will and showed us plainly the way to come into Zion.

Now we are here in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in love and thankfulness to the General Overseer and Overseer Jane Dowie, to serve the Lord in accordance with His Will and our experience and conviction in spirit, soul and body as God will lead us.

Dear Sister in the Christ,—Your letter and request for prayer, of the 10th inst., received, and I telegraphed you as requested in the two words, "All right," thereby agreeing to the hour fixed for the prayer on tomorrow morning. I trust there will be a gracious answer. I am faithfully yours in Jesus,

SAUK CITY, WISCONSIN, August 26, 1894.

REV. DOWIE, Chicago.

Dear General Overseer:—As I cannot write English, I waited for my son, who lives many miles distant from here, to come home. I am blessed to tell you that the Lord has heard our prayers, and that the Christian can heal the sick, and that I am healed. I feel that all my pain has left me and that I will soon regain my strength. My appetite is improving and I hope, and fully believe, that all is well. This hour of prayer was also an hour of the Lord's blessings that we shall never forget. I could feel that the Lord was with me, and that the Lord blessed His children.

Thanking you in the Name of our Lord for all the good you have done, I remain,

Your obedient servant,

(MRS.) K. CLAVADATSCHER.

PET T. CLAVADATSCHER.

The following is an extract from a communication, written by Rev. John Dietrich, published in the same number of LEAVES OF HEALING:

On August 4th, accompanied by Rev. H. Nimmo and (Mrs.) K. Clavadatscher, I, indeed, found her perfectly well and exceed-

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY

Wife Saved and Healed Instantly of Bone Tumor; Husband Saved and Healed.

741 COLBURN STREET, TOLEDO, OHIO.

Dear General Overseer,—I want to write you a word of testimony concerning the healing of myself and wife; for which I thank you and give God all the glory.

About five years ago my wife had a growth in her side.

The physicians called it bone tumor.

I had consulted two leading physicians, and they both advised her to be operated upon.

Oh, how I dreaded to see the day come, when an ambulance should stop to take her to some hospital.

I knew that their cruel knives would be used upon her body, and wicked, ungodly men would operate on her, and then have her brought back probably to die.

Thanks be to God, our Heavenly Father, I saw a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING.

I read it thoroughly and became very interested in Zion cottage meetings.

In a few weeks I repented of my sins and was converted.

A little later my wife was converted also.

We were taught that Jesus, the Christ, kept our bodies in good health through the Christ and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

When we wake Lord's Day morning we feel as bright as two new silver dollars.

My God richly bless you and all Zion.

From your obedient brother and sister in the Christ,

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. RIDGWAY.

God Answers Prayer When Filthy Swine's Flesh is Given up.

COLERON, NEW HAMPSHIRE.

November 4, 1902.

Dear General Overseer,—In 1897 I was very ill.

At that time I knew nothing of Zion or of its teaching.

When it was thought that I would not live, a friend who had heard of your work through LEAVES OF HEALING, sent a request to you for prayers for me.

You prayed on Thursday and God answered.

I was able to do my work the following Friday, Not knowing about your teaching I was sick again the next year.

I suffered much from stomach trouble and very severe headaches.

I was often confined to my bed.

I continued to be sick in this way until February, 1902.

At that time Evangelist Helen A. Smith came from Boston and held two meetings.

My husband, knowing I had once been healed, took me to the last service.

Until this time I had thought it was God's will for me to be sick.

After the meeting, Evangelist Smith told me about the beautiful teaching of Zion.

I filled out a blank for membership.

She laid hands upon me and prayed the prayer of faith and I was healed.

My sickness has never returned.

My husband was not a Christian.

When he saw that God had really healed me, he decided to serve God and joined the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

He had been in poor health for several years, at times raising and passing blood.

The doctors could not help him and he was discouraged about getting well.

After he was converted he asked God to heal him, but he was no better.

We were eating swine's flesh and kept two pigs.

We decided this must be the hindrance, so my husband threw away the pork and shot the two pigs.

Then the healing came.

He is now able to do hard work, which he had not been able to do for years.

Our friends told us we had done wrong to waste the pork.

We thought it was wrong to sell or give the pigs to other people.

They said we would suffer for the money, but we have not.

We have been more prosperous than ever we were before, as my husband is able to work all the time.

We praise God for Zion's Evangelist and for LEAVES OF HEALING which we can read here in New Hampshire.

May God spare you to send the Full Gospel all over the world.

Yours faithfully,

(MRS.) ARVILLA HALL.
NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

By DEACON O. L. SPRECHER, Private Secretary to the General Overseer

Healed of Cough and Sore Throat.
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 12, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I am pleased to tell you that I have received healing for my cough, sore throat and the pain in my left side, which I have been troubled with for several months.

I thank you for your prayers and for being so patient with me.

I am gaining strength all the time.

I praise God for all He has done for me in bringing me here.

I might tell of many healings for myself and others.

I was healed of stricture of the bowels four years ago, when I went in my application for fellowship in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. The physician had said that I might get help, but could never be entirely healed.

For four years I have been well. I give God all the praise.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) LIZZIE K. VIRDEN.

Child's Prayer of Faith Honored.
Plymouth, Indiana, December 16, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — Peace to thee.

I am a little girl eleven years old.

I thought I would write you my testimony.

Yesterday morning I found that I had a scarfulous sore on my face; it had spread all over one side of my cheek.

I showed it to mamma, and we prayed that God would heal it.

By the next day it was healed.

There were only two little spots like a pin-head to be seen.

I give God all the praise.

Yours in love,
FAY BAKER.

Baby Healed of a Severe Injury.
42 Vine Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, December 14, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I want to tell you how God answered prayer for my baby, who is fourteen months old.

I left him in the room with some toys, and in some way he fell on the iron dictionary stand and one of the prongs stuck up under his eyelid.

I heard him scream and ran into the room just as he pulled himself loose from it.

The blood was running down his face and I did not know but that his eye was put out.

After the first shock, I had such a feeling of thankfulness that I did not have to depend on man to heal his eye.

I telephoned to my sister-in-law, Mrs. B. G. Brown,

After immediate prayer she came over. I think the pain must have gone in a little while, though he cried for about half an hour.

Then he went to sleep and slept soundly for two hours.

When he got up he was just as bright as could be.

He ate heartily and never had one moment's pain, although his eye was swollen shut.

The next day it opened a little, and improved each day until, in less than a week, you wouldn't have known anything had happened.

He was never better than when his eye was swollen.

He was happy and playful all the time.

I had such a feeling of thankfulness all the time, for I knew that God would heal completely even when we could not see the eye.

I am so glad that God is our Healer, and is always near and cares for even the little things in our lives.

I pray that your life may be spared for many years to carry on the glorious work which you are doing.

Yours in Jesus' Name,
(MRS.) KATE C. BROWN.

God Wonderfully Answers Prayer for a Machinist at Zion Lace Industries.
Charles Phillimore, of Beach, Illinois, writing under date of December 19, 1902, says:

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I feel that I must testify to God's goodness to me at Zion Lace Industries this week.

On Wednesday afternoon we had a job to do in a hurry at the base of the motor of one of the lace curtain machines.

Three of us were working on about three square feet, drilling the cement floor, when, by some means, my elbow got too close to one of the machinists, who was coming down with a large riveting hammer, and received the full force of it. I almost fainted from the blow and became very sick and vomited.

Praise God, as soon as Deacon A. Stevenson prayed for me, the pain ceased, and I recovered and went on with my work.

The arm did not swell or get discolored.

Next day I used the saw and plane all day.

Praise God for salvation and healing and holy living in Zion.

Yours in the Christ, CHARLES PHILLIMORE.

The Great Physician Instantly Heals a Dislocated Arm.
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, December 6, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I feel that I have failed to do my duty in not testifying to the instantaneous healing of my daughter.

In September, 1901, while living in Garnett, Kansas, I was down town one afternoon and word came to me that Ruth had fallen and broken her arm.

My husband not being at home and no Zion members, I took her into the parlor, and taking her upon my lap, I talked to her about God's Healing Power.

I then prayed with her.

She stopped crying and sat up and asked me to take her sleeve off, which I did.

She asked for a drink and said she was hungry.

When the doctor came he examined her arm, saying that it was all right, but that it certainly had been dislocated.

He said several times that he did not understand it.

He further said: "I'll tell you how I know that it has been out of place. The cord is still out of place, but the arm has gone back." He said, to my shame, that I did not tell him that I understood it.

I enjoyed the knowledge and feared to arouse his anger by my confession.

Pray that I may overcome the devil of fear.

I pray God's richest blessing upon you in the great Restoration Work.

Yours in the Christ, (MRS.) E. RUSSELL.

Deliverance in Childbirth.
Hector, Minnesota, December 15, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I will now write to you to tell you that after sending you the telegram on the morning of November 4th, a request for you to pray for me, that God graciously answered.

Our little girl was born twenty minutes after 8 o'clock, a healthy child.

We are very thankful to God for all blessings, and that He heard and was near in the time of need.

We also thank you for all the prayers you offered in my behalf.

May God bless you and your family, and all Zion everywhere.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) A. G. BURGESS.

God, the Family Physician, Never Fails to Heal In Answer to Prayer of Faith.
Lyndon, Washington, December 3, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: — I wish to testify to God's goodness in healing us several times since we gave up medicine, which was about three years ago.

It is blessed to trust God for everything.

I thank God for the teaching we have received in Zion.

I will mention a few of the healings.

We believed that our little boy, then six years old, had diphtheria.

He was very sick.

We prayed for him and he was healed.

Last June he had scarlet fever.

Elder R. M. Simmons prayed for his healing in the Name of the Lord Jesus, by the Power of the Holy Spirit and in accordance with the will of God our Heavenly Father, and he was healed.

Our daughter, thirteen years old, also had the fever.

We prayed for her and she was healed.

They both were very sick.

They were in bed about five or six days, and then gained rapidly, and were perfectly healed.

Two of our near neighbors also had scarlet fever.

They had a doctor.

They stayed with them day and night, until there was a death in both families, and others left in a bad condition, then he left.

Last July my husband had a very sore throat.

He could scarcely swallow water or anything for a day or so.

We prayed for him and sent a request for you to pray.

He was immediately healed.

He ate quite a hearty supper, and ate some more before morning.

He was hungry after such a fast.

We have had many other healings in answer to our own prayers and the prayers of Elder R. M. Simmons.

We thank you for your prayers in our behalf and your kindness to us.

We praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Your sister in the Christ,
(MRS.) JENNIE E. HANDY.
GENERAL LETTER FROM THE GENERAL OVERSEER.

GENERAL OVERSEER'S OFFICE,
ADMINISTRATION BUILDING,
ELIJAH AVENUE,

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, U. S. A., JANUARY 3, 1903.

TO THE OFFICERS, MEMBERS AND FRIENDS
OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

BELOVED BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE CHRIST:

Grace to you,
And peace from God our Father,
And the Lord Jesus, the Christ.

I desire very briefly to thank the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the world for the Love, Confidence and earnest Prayer which has helped, by God's Grace, to sustain me and mine in the many toils and trials and victories of the year that has now closed.

I earnestly appeal to you all for a continuance of these supplications before the Throne of God, which is our Father's Mercy Seat.

He knows the way that we take; for we are only treading in the path which He clearly marks out.

I write this brief letter principally to communicate to you all, and everywhere, the Watchword of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for the year Nineteen Hundred and Three.

It is
"TILL HE COME!"

These three words are found, as our readers will well remember, in First Corinthians 11th chapter, 26th verse:

For as often as ye eat this bread,
And drink the cup,
Ye proclaim the Lord's death
TILL HE COME.

The great Proclamation of the Atoning Sacrifice which purchases a perfect and full and free redemption for the spirits, souls and bodies of all men, in all ages, past, present, and to come, is the most glorious of proclamations; for it is the Proclamation of the Spiritual Salvation and Regeneration that is the foundation of all Divine Life.

This Proclamation is the first of the three great divisions of the Everlasting Covenant, of which God has made us the Messenger, the Covenant of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, through faith in Jesus.

This Proclamation is the Basis of all Power in carrying forward the glorious work of Restoration of all things, which the Zion Restoration Host has been specially formed to accomplish, under our leadership, as God enables us to lead, in the Spirit and Power of Elijah, the Restorer.

This Proclamation is one that must be maintained in all our Branches; and the Communion, the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper, must be administered at least once in every month in every Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the world.

It is a Proclamation not only of His death, but of His Life: for in the glorious three words, "Till He come," the Christian Catholic Church in Zion proclaims its faith that He Lives, that He Pleads, that throughout Heaven and Earth All Authority is given unto Him, and that He is soon to return, and that He will reign from His Holy Hill in Zion at Jerusalem over all the Zion Cities, and over all the earth—every nation and people being subject unto Him.

His promise, "I will come again," makes us triumphantly sure that we shall see Him, and reign with Him, and love and serve and follow Him whithersoever He leadeth, throughout all time and all eternity.

Zion is Waiting "Till He come!"
Zion is Watching "Till He come!"
Zion is Working "Till He come!"

The cry is even now ringing throughout the earth,

"BEHOLD THE BRIDEGROOM!"

And soon the cry will come from the sky, illumined as it will be, in the glory of His coming in the clouds, "with great power and glory," to receive from the world His own.
That Cry will be, "COME YE FORTH TO MEET HIM!"

My beloved people, who are one with me in this glorious Time of Refreshing and these Times of Restoration, I beseech you to walk worthy of your calling, to manifest in your homes, in your business, in the Church and in all its upbuilding, outgrowing and aggressive work, the gentleness, the humility, the patience, the purity, the peace, the faith, the hope, the love, the wisdom that cometh from above; doing "good to all men as you have opportunity;" never forgetting that your first duties are to God Himself, in the rendering of daily sacrifice of praise and prayer upon the family altar, embracing in the spirit of love your entire circle, and leading them upward to God.

Never forget that "He that careth not for His own," and especially for those of "His own household" is "worse than an infidel and hath denied the faith."

But never forget also the claims of the entire "household of faith."

Therefore, see that your tithe is sent promptly—weekly if possible—into the Storehouse of Zion; that there may be "meat" in God's House, and that we may be able to send out scores, hundreds, thousands, of Zion Messengers to all the earth.

Never forget that your offerings are acceptable to God, in addition to your tithes, and that there is great need of millions of dollars in our Ecclesiastical Treasury: for we shall probably this year lay the foundations of that great Zion Temple which must seat at least Thirty Thousand people, in the City of Zion, and which will take years to build and millions of dollars to pay for.

Never forget that you each and all have your own part to do in the Restoration, but that this part can be best done by working in co-operation with the Zion Restoration Host, which already numbers probably more than Seven Thousand persons.

Never forget that the cultivation of your own inward and spiritual life, by consecration, prayer, meditation, reading of God's Word, and attendance upon the means of grace, are essential to growth in the Holy Life.

Never forget that we pray for you, not only daily, but that you are all and everywhere constantly in our heart, and, best of all, in the heart of our great Advocate with the Father, and in the heart of the Father Himself.

Never forget to pray for us, the sun of whose life seems to have for the time being been arrested, by special grace, so that it seems to be noontide with us all the time. But we need your prayers, my beloved wife and son and I.

We are standing for God and for His people, for Zion, and for her world-wide Work, for the Restoration of All Things to God, and the Preparation for the Coming of the King.

We are His witnesses, and by His grace we shall not fail nor be discouraged.

Yet we crave a constant interest in your prayers.

And not only for ourselves as a family, but for my great Official Family here in Zion City; for the splendid men and women, from the highest to the lowest, who are my fellow-servants and my friends; dear to me by a thousand ties of gratitude for their devotion, co-operation and love in the years gone by and now.

Pray for the more than one thousand employees in Zion, their dear wives and families, and for the patience and love needed by them and by us in doing the pioneering work of establishing this beautiful City of Zion on earth, and preparing multitudes for the glorious Zion above.

Pray for us, that we may be led on, and not diverted for one moment from the great and holy Purpose and Plan of God, which has so manifestly shaped our lives, even when we knew not.

And now we know; we see; we understand increasingly what that Purpose and Plan is; and by the grace of God, and your co-operation and prayers, we shall not fail, nor be discouraged, until God's Purposes and Plans are fulfilled.

And then we shall rest, "TILL HE COME!"

I am,

Faithfully your friend and fellow-servant in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord,
EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THOU CROWNEST THE YEAR WITH THY GOODNESS."

ZION'S ALL-NIGHT With God, in Shiloh Tabernacle, can only be described in one word—WONDERFUL!

FULLY FIVE THOUSAND persons were gathered when we ascended the platform at the close of the Processional, and lifted our hands to utter the solemn Invocation.

IT WAS a solemn sight to see that silent, reverent, eager throng awaiting the words:

God be merciful unto us and bless us, And cause Thy face to shine upon us: That Thy Way may be known upon Earth, Thy Saving Health among All the Nations. For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

THE WHITE-ROBED CHOIR of over Four Hundred Voices and several Hundreds of Ordained Officers, with vast numbers of Zion Restoration Host, and members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, gathered from many parts, filled the great Tabernacle almost to overflowing.

THE VOLUME of sound was most inspiring as these five thousand sang the opening Hymn:

Come we that love the Lord, And let your joys be known; And thus surround the Throne. Beautiful, beautiful Zion! We're marching upward to Zion, The Beautiful City of God!

FROM the first moment of the Holy Convocation to its close at 7:15 a.m. on the next morning, it was one long series of Delightful Spiritual Experiences.

WITH but a very few exceptions, the entire audience partook of the Communion of the Lord's Supper. During the celebration, at Midnight, we sang upon our knees, in accordance with our annual custom:

Pray, brethren, pray! The sands are failing; Pray, brethren, pray! God's Voice is calling; You terrors strike the dying chime; We kneel upon the verge of time.
EDITORIAL NOTES.

REFRAIN—Eternity is drawing nigh!

Eternity is drawing nigh! (Eternity is drawing nigh)
Praise, brethren, praise! The skies are rending;
Praise, brethren, praise! The fight is ending.
Behold, the glory draweth near,
The King Himself will soon appear.

Watch, brethren, watch! The years are dying;
Watch, brethren, watch! Old Time is flying;
Watch as men watch the parting breath,
Watch as men watch for life or death:

Look, brethren, look! The day is breaking;
Hark, brethren, hark! The dead are waking:
With girded loins all ready stand;
Behold, the Bridegroom is at hand!

It was very thrilling as the thousands of loving Zion hearts and voices sang the refrain softly with us:

Eternity is drawing nigh!
Eternity is drawing nigh!
Is drawing nigh!

THE LAST WORDS were sung within one minute to twelve, and then in Silence the Vast Assembly waited upon God as we passed into the New Year.

RISING FROM our knees we extended the New Year's Greeting to the thousands upon thousands of Zion who were present, and gave each an opportunity of greeting his neighbor.

WHEN THIS was over the Communion Service was resumed; and by the excellent organization of our Officers under the direction of Elder Excell it was smoothly, quickly, and perfectly carried out.

We venture to say that the distribution of so vast a quantity of unleavened bread, and unfermented wine, to so vast a number of Communicants, could not be excelled.

Then we announced the Watchword of Zion for 1903:

Till He Come!

This Watchword was the Theme of the brief discourse which we then delivered.

Then closing for the time, we made the announcements for the continuance of the All-Night, and announced the hour of Interval for Refreshments.

WE WERE ABLE, by the excellent organization of our Steward of Zion Hospices, Deacon Frank W. Cotton, aided by a splendid staff, to supply refreshments, in relays of 200, to the whole of the thousands present, within a little over an hour.

RESUMING, WE READ a large number of cablegrams and telegrams.

They had come from every Continent and from many Nations, as well as from all parts of the United States.

Time, however, failed us to be able to read all, or to read in detail the great piles of requests for prayer which had come in thousands, and which were piled upon the table.

BUT THE SEASON of Prayer was one of great power, as we presented our Thanksgivings to God and asked Overseers and Elders, especially, to present the various Continents and the work of Zion in each.

THE CABLEGRAM from Evangelist Cantel, in London, was especially interesting, covering, as it did, no less than sixty different cities and towns in the United Kingdom, Great Britain and Ireland, which had sent greetings of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

But it is simply impossible to attempt to give an account, in these brief Notes, of that Wonderful Night.

SUFFICE IT TO SAY, that large consideration was given in every way to the Four Principal Departments into which the work of Zion is divided:

Ecclesiastical,
Educational,
Commercial, and Political.

The Work of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of God's people was the first thing.

We led our people to see the need for Immediate and Full Confession of sin or shortcomings, and there was a wonderful response, so that at the end of the Time set apart for Confession, the whole vast audience arose beseeching God in prayer to receive their Individual and United Confessions and to beseech of Him a more Perfect Deliverance from evil in every form, and a fuller and deeper and more Perfect Consecration of every power and talent for His service.

This led the way to other Departments of Spiritual Life.
THEN the Educational and Commercial interests of Zion were spoken of and prayed for.

Then came the Glorious Ending when Intercessory Prayer was offered for the Unconverted; by husbands for wives; by wives for husbands; by parents for children; by children for parents; by friends and relatives for friends and relatives.

The mode in which this exercise is conducted is one that enables us to present before God every phase of human need.

It seemed as though a very Pentecostal Power came upon that meeting in its closing hours.

And then, when all was over and the glorious Doxology sung, the vast throng, thousands upon thousands, and thousands upon thousands, poured out into the Glorious Morning of an almost Spring-like day, to see the sun, now fully risen from the beautiful Lake, pouring its golden rays upon the lovely City.

Nothing could be more inspiring than the spectacle of that great quiet throng, who had gone forth with the Benediction of God's Peace, quietly wending their ways in all directions to their homes in the new and beautiful City of Zion, which is rising around us on every side.

For several days before the All-Night, friends had been pouring into the City in hundreds, and possibly in thousands, taking up their residences in the Zion Hospices and in the homes of their friends.

The latter feature was one of special interest.

A Train of Eleven Cars, containing over seven hundred persons, left Chicago at 8:30 p.m., and arrived at the City about 9:45, in good time for the beginning of the Convocation.

After refreshment, from 7:30 to 8 a.m., and sleep from 8 to 12, we had the joy of meeting large numbers of our wide-awake people at a Reception in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in our new Offices at the Administration Building in Elijah avenue.

We received an immense number of visitors, who, first of all, passed through the Zion City Bank Offices and the General Financial Manager's Department; and then, passing upstairs, went through the various Offices there, including those of the Zion Law Department, Overseer of Women's Work in Zion Throughout the World, etc., at each of which they were received by the chiefs and their staffs, and then, finally reaching our Private Office, Library and Council Room, where we received, they passed through the West Library Room and File Room, and thence down by a back staircase into the Zion Land and Investment Association, Zion Stocks and Securities Department, etc., and so passed out again at the large entrance hall.

We continued this Reception for two and a half hours and then after dinner resumed for two hours longer.

We do not know how many hundreds or thousands we received, but our right hand bears witness today that it was most kindly (and sometimes, cruelly) treated by the thousands of friends, some of whom forget that our hand is not made of steel.

And now we are once more launched into the Work of Another Year.

We have been working all day on Friday and far into the morning of Saturday, the day of publication of this paper.

We are rejoicing in the fresh supplies of grace with which God has anointed in this Glorious Opening of the Year.

We were greatly rejoiced to hear delightful tidings from many of our friends at a distance of the work of God through Zion in all directions.

When we remember how we began the year which has just closed, in a fierce conflict with our enemies, who strove to ruin our beautiful Lace Industries, and then contrast the condition of the City to what it is now, it seems almost impossible to believe that God has enabled our people to do as much in the time.

When we remember, also, the severe attacks through which we have passed in recent months, it is one of the marvels of the Closing of the Year to see what God has wrought.

He has opened the Windows of Heaven and is pouring out a Blessing, which, if it continues at the same rate financially, will in a few months almost overwhelm us with His goodness.

It almost seems as if God were now about to pour out "A blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it."

For some time to come, however, we rejoice that there is room for tens and even hundreds of thousands of people on the beautiful residence lots in Zion City, and millions of dollars of capital in Zion's profitable Industries.
OUR READERS who were interested, doubtless, in our Notes last week concerning the wonderful inflow of Subscriptions to Zion Stocks during the month of December, will be still more pleased when we tell them that, since the first day of December, 1902, up to the second day of January, 1903—a month and a day—our General Financial Manager reports to us that Subscriptions for shares in Zion's various Institutions and Industries received to the amount of Three Hundred and Two Thousand and Seven Hundred Dollars ($302,700).

WE RECEIVED yesterday evening from our General Financial Manager a brief report on that subject, which it may interest our readers to have in full:

OFFICE GENERAL FINANCIAL MANAGER OF ALL ZION
INSTITUTIONS AND INDUSTRIES,
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, JANUARY 2, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Administration Building, Zion City, Illinois.

Beloved General Overseer:—You will be glad to know that since the first day of December, 1902, we have received subscriptions for shares in Zion's various Industries and Institutions to the amount of $302,700; of this amount $24,600 was received yesterday and today.

These subscriptions are not confined to members of the Christian Catholic Church, but are received from godly men and women who have become convinced that Zion is a safe and profitable place to invest their money.

Your Special Financial Messengers, who have recently returned, report a growing interest in Zion City and her future welfare, and many persons, not members of the Church, rejoice to know that you have established and are building up a clean city.

Every one of the eleven hundred persons employed by you in Zion City have entered the New Year with joy and gladness in their hearts, and a firm determination to serve God and you lovingly and faithfully.

Praying for God's richest blessings to rest upon you, I am,
Faithfully yours in Christ's Service,
CHAS. J. BARNARD,
General Financial Manager.

WE HAVE ALREADY received a report from Deacon Daniel Sloan, who is in charge of Zion's Stocks and Securities—a part of the General Financial Manager's Department.

It may be well, also, to give this letter, prefacing it with a few words.

WE HAVE FOUND, during the last four days, that large numbers of our friends who desire to make application for Zion's Stocks before they go to a premium, are unable to carry out their intention until they have realized upon properties and securities of various kinds.

We also found that numbers of our friends had not noticed the announcement on this subject, that the Stocks would go to a premium of ten per cent. on March 1st, and that applications would only be received up to January 1st at par value $100.

We have, therefore, directed the Zion Securities and Investment Department to extend the time for receiving applications at the par value of $100 for another month, so that the whole of this present month of January will be given to our friends to make their applications.

The cash on these Stocks can be paid at any time up to March 1, 1903.

In special cases, where a good reason can be shown, a further extension of time will be given, but this will only be where special cause can be shown, and will not go beyond a further extension of sixty days.

We trust that our friends will take advantage of the opportunity now afforded them during this month, and enable us to see our way as to the fresh capital coming in by the first of February. We can shape our plans accordingly.

It will also be of very great value to us if our friends can pay for their Stock as early as possible.

OFFICE GENERAL FINANCIAL MANAGER OF ALL ZION
INSTITUTIONS AND INDUSTRIES,
ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, JANUARY 2, 1903.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Administration Building, City.

Dear General Overseer:—I thought perhaps it might be well for you, in connection with the Editorial Notes in this week's LEAVES, to make mention of the fact that, while applications have been made for several thousand shares in all the Institutions and Industries of Zion within the past few days, in order to give those with property and other interests an opportunity to become investors before the premium is added to Shares which have already reached the nine per cent. earning period, as stated in the advertising part of this week's LEAVES, we will receive applications during the month of January at the par value, and payment upon same can be made any time up to March 1st, or perhaps sixty or ninety days beyond this, where there is good reason for our especially giving this further extension of time.

I am sending a special letter to all Shareholders, thanking them for their co-operation, and personally telling them of this extension, so that they can either avail themselves of it or perhaps interest some of their immediate friends in the proposition now made.

Applications to the extent of about Twenty-four Thousand Dollars were received yesterday and today, and no doubt this will continue for the days to come.

We are praying that God may continue to flood in the blessing which has been turned into these channels.

Sincerely yours,
DANIEL SLOAN.
Manager Zion Securities and Investments.

We hope to be able during March or April to organize the New Association upon which so much will depend this year in Zion, namely: THE ZION CITY BUILDING AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION, of which we shall fix the capital at One Million Dollars.

We hope to raise at least Five Hundred Thousand Dollars of this sum not later than April 1st, and as much as possible before that date.

The shares will be only Twenty Dollars each, and this will enable our workmen to take a large number of them.

After making every proper provision, and a tithe of the profits being set aside for Zion, all the net profits will be divided in equal proportions between the workmen and the stockholders.

THE DETAILS of this project will appear in due time.
We shall probably have from Five to Ten Millions of Dollars' worth of buildings to erect in Zion City within two years.

MEANWHILE, we trust to be able to raise, as additional capital for Zion Lace Industries, Zion Sugar and Confection Association, Zion Milling and Baking Association, Zion City Laundry and Zion City General Stores, all of which are in active and profitable operation, the sum of from Five Hundred Thousand to One Million Dollars.

OUR DESIRE this year is to be in a position to buy on the best terms for Cash, lumber, hardware and every other requisite for building and furnishing.
Getting all the trade cash discounts will enable us to save much for the benefit of all our people.
Every dollar by which we can reduce cost means just so much added to the General Wealth and Prosperity of all our people, and enables us to have larger resources for the extension of Zion o'er all the Earth.

WE EXPECT, God willing, to have a phenomenally Successful Financial Year, and have no fear whatever as to this being the case, if God permit us to continue with health.

WE HAVE ENTERED the year of our Lord 1903, with remarkable health.
Mrs. Dowie is able also to continue her many duties, with an intense desire to glorify God and to extend His Kingdom, especially in connection with Women's Work in Zion Throughout the World.

FOR SOME TIME past very little concerning us has appeared in the Newspapers of Chicago, they having completely abandoned their foolish endeavor to destroy our Financial Standing.

AN INDICATION, however, that a New Series of Attacks may be made appears in the Editorial Page of the Chicago Tribune for the first day of the Year.

IT IS THE FIRST of the Editorial "squibs," as they are called, under the leading article on page 12 of that paper.
We feel it well to give it prominence, as we shall make it the subject of our Prelude at the Auditorium on Lord's Day afternoon.
This Editorial Liar says:
As a visible asset, Dowieism has shrunk somewhat in the year just closed.

IT IS WELL KNOWN that the Chicago Tribune is looked upon abroad as the most reliable commercial paper in Chicago.
We have for years, however, proved to our readers that when it deals with Zion it is not only unreliable, but absolutely villainous.
It has even attempted to incite its readers to our murder, as our papers have shown.

WE WOULD pass this miserable little lie with the contempt which it deserves, were it not for the fact that it is intended to prejudice the minds of conservative and careful investors, who do not know the facts, except as the Tribune falsifies them.

WHEN WE recall what Zion City was as "a visible asset" just one year ago, and the great buildings like Elijah Hospice, Administration Building, three large new three-story School-Houses, the first wing of the substantial brick and stone College Building, which is now being roofed over its fourth story; when we look at the extensive Zion City General Stores and Fresh Food Supply; when we look at the magnificent building, perfected inside and outside, and costing a vast sum of money, which we have built for Zion Lace Industries, and where we are now turning out the very finest lace of its kind made in the world, and competing successfully with similar articles manufactured in England and France; when we consider Shiloh Tabernacle, which seats five thousand two hundred persons, and think of the vast numbers who have gathered into a building which had no existence a year ago; and when we look at the hundreds upon hundreds of beautiful homes that have arisen in all parts of the City, costing all the way from a few Hundreds to more than Thirty Thousand Dollars; when we recall the fact that in the passenger and freight business alone we have paid to the Chicago & North-Western Railway, during the past year, One Hundred and Eight Thousand Dollars; and when we consider that millions of dollars' worth of buildings and improvements are quite visible; and when we consider many other things that it would be tedious to mention, WE WONDER WHAT CONSTITUTES "VISIBLE ASSETS" IN THE EYES OF THE EDITORIAL WRITER IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE!
Perhaps he never saw Zion City, or is blind, or manufactured the Lie for foreign consumption.
E D I T O R I A L  N O T E S.

T H E F A C T is that Zion's visible "assets" so far from "shrinking" have expanded so greatly that they have commanded the interest and attention of the whole world!

For proof of this compare this squib with articles in the Century, Leslie's and Munsey's monthly magazines, etc.

T H E C O N F I D E N C E of our own people, and of all who know of the phenomenal success which we have met in disposing of Zion Lace at a good profit to more than Five Hundred of the largest houses in the United States of America, added to the immense profits made by Zion Land and Investment Association, Zion City Bank, etc., has caused the wonderful inflow of capital within the past few weeks, already referred to in these Notes, a flow which is continuing day by day.

W E W O N D E R A G A I N as we look at these things what constitutes "a visible asset," and wherein the "shrunk somewhat" is to be seen!

We know it not.
No one else knows it.

It does not exist, excepting in the shameful lying imagination of this writer, who is not even honest enough to imagine it; for it is simply a malicious and baseless fabrication.

W E A R E S O R R Y to have to begin the New Year with an exposure of the base tactics of the Chicago Tribune.

But we give them and all our critics notice that, while we will not think of paying attention to all their lies, we shall every now and then, if they continue their malignant policy, do with them as we have done in the past, expose their wickedness and put their shame on permanent record before all the world on the pages of this paper.

L E A V E S O F H E A L I N G will live when the Tribune is dead, and buried and forgotten.

W E A L S O R E M I N D them that there is a point beyond which it will not be legally safe for them to go; and that they may well begin to ponder, as to whether, if we choose to force them into a Court of Law, they may not have to pay heavy damages for endeavoring to depreciate the value of Zion's assets "without any just cause."

W E D E F Y the Tribune to show any good reason for this mean and malicious little "squib!"

T H E Tribune is simply doing the Devil's work in the Devil's spirit; for, like him, though defeated constantly, the diabolical pride which controls it will not permit it to be honorable and to take back the lies and the lying policy which it has pursued toward us for more than thirteen years.

W E C A M E to the City of Chicago in midsummer of 1890, and our first maligner was the Chicago Tribune, as we have already set forth in a discourse on this subject delivered recently in the Chicago Auditorium, and to which the Tribune did not dare to take exception.

W E D O N O T F E A R these traducers; but we have a right to complain in the commercial interests of Chicago, and of the country generally, against newspaper writers importing their personal and editorial prejudices into their columns, to the hurt of the entire business community.

They have already lost much profitable trade to Chicago by their madness.

I S T H E Chicago Tribune very desirous that the Millions of Dollars of business which Zion City is doing every year with Chicago shall be diverted to New York?

W I L L I T P A Y to insult and outrage a good customer at the very gates of Chicago, who will have Millions of Dollars to spend this year in the purchase of supplies of every kind?

We think not!

And we know that all the decent and intelligent business houses of Chicago are heartily with us in protesting against the Chicago Newspapers injuring Chicago's business.

Moral sense they are utterly devoid of—have they even a particle of business sense?

B U T T H E appeal will probably fall upon heedless ears, even when it is based upon the principles of self-interest, which are generally considered to be the ruling passion of those who control the Chicago Tribune; for their hatred of Zion City and of ourselves is such that they would like to blot us off the map, and bury us a thousand fathoms deep beneath the lake.

This is the spirit in which they have written, and which our columns prove to have been their fruitless policy in past years.

W E D I R E C T the attention of our readers to the continued appeal of our General Associate Editor and General Manager of Zion Printing and Publishing House for 100,000 subscribers to Leaves of Healing.
WHILST WE HAVE added tens of thousands to our list during the past year we are still a considerable distance from the 100,000 asked for.

But if every reader of this paper will send in a subscription for at least one friend for the year 1903, and perhaps, where they can afford it, a number of subscriptions for friends, we shall very quickly reach the goal which our earnest workers in the Zion Printing and Publishing House so much desire.

During the present year we shall hope to build the first section of the buildings for the housing of our beautiful Printing Plant, which now occupies the whole of the large building situated at No. 1300 Michigan avenue, Chicago.

We are simply crowded out of that building and it is now high time that we should have our Printing and Publishing House Plant at Headquarters in Zion City.

It would be a great help to us in carrying out this necessary work if we could secure the One Hundred Thousand annual subscriptions so much desired.

When we remove our plant we shall also hope to add to it the first complete unit of the Printing Plant of a Zion Daily Newspaper, which indeed is much required even now, but which will be still more required as our population rapidly grows and our Industries rapidly extend.

We hope to get the substantial help and cooperation of our people in this enterprise, which will be so much for the promotion of the interests of Zion City, and of the Kingdom of God.

We believe that a Zion Daily paper will not only circulate in Zion City in large numbers, but in many of the surrounding towns and cities and also in Chicago.

The business ends of Zion City will demand it, and the clean and wholesome Political Platform of the Theocratic Party, whose motto is will be greatly advanced by it.

"WHERE GOD RULES MAN PROSPERS,"

The Theocratic Party which was formed last year in Zion City has excited much attention, and is being quietly organized in scores of large cities and hundreds of towns and villages throughout the United States and Canada; for the Party which stands for the Rule of God is not local but Universal.

Indeed these Principles are already beginning to make themselves felt in the politics of distant countries.

In a very few years the Theocratic Party will be the means by which the Christian Catholic Church in Zion can give effect to Municipal, State and National politics, to its principles in pushing forward the establishment of the Kingdom of God on this Earth.

We cannot find either time or space to write further. We have many things that we should be glad to set before our readers.

Yet we have, God willing, the whole year before us, and the privilege every week of addressing tens and hundreds of thousands of earnest and honest Christian readers throughout the world.

We thank our people everywhere for their earnest prayers and cooperation with us throughout the trials and conflicts and triumphs of the year that has gone.

We trust to welcome thousands of them from many lands as citizens of this beautiful little City.

By means of the capital which they and others will bring, we shall be able to push our Industries on every side and give remunerative and honest, clean employment to many thousands of earnest workers.

Above all we trust to build up the whole people, in the Home, in the Church and in the State.

To this end we shall give our very best endeavors, doing with our might what our hands find to do.

We expect during 1903 many great and glorious manifestations of Divine Grace in the Salvation, Healing and Cleansing of multitudes through Faith in Jesus, the Christ, our Lord and Coming King.

"Even so, Come, Lord Jesus!"

Brethren, pray for us.
MEN are now getting their Final Warnings. Through long centuries, men have openly rebelled against God, persecuted His true people, rejected His Messages and murdered His messengers; or, having professed to love and serve Him, they have fallen into darkness and error, denying God's Truth, and living lives which brought reproach upon His Name.

But God has been exceeding merciful.

Messenger after messenger has been sent with Divine warning.

A few have heeded in every age, but the many have gone on insolently mocking God and serving the Devil and their own evil desires.

But the "Times of the End" have come.

All the Signs of the Times point to the speedy Consummation of the Age.

A spirit of unrest, a grim, inexplicable foreboding of an approaching crisis, a nameless terror has seized upon men, and they are looking into the future with anxious, questioning eyes.

Prophecies which have been spoken by holy men of God since the world began are being fulfilled in these days.

Mysteries which have been sealed up in the Book of God for centuries are now being opened.

Streams of events which had their source in the dim, remote past are now converging in a mighty river of Divine Destiny, which is rushing on with irresistible swiftness to the End of the Dispensation.

God has sent a "Strong Messenger" in these Times, and has clothed him with power and authority to deliver His Message; to give to men, to organizations, and to nations their Final Warnings, ere the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah shall burst upon them.

Despite the sneers, jeers, calumny, persecution and murderous hatred of an apostate church and a godless world, this Messenger of God has gone steadily forward on his mission.

Enemies—personal, ecclesiastical, political, legal, commercial, state and national—have been put to utter rout.

God has placed upon every Onward Movement of His Messenger the broad seal of His Divine Approval.

The common people have heard him gladly and hundreds of thousands now await with eager anticipation every word from his lips.

One by one the prophet has been boldly and fearlessly, yet humbly, declaring the various phases of his mission.

An ever-increasing number of God's true people have joyfully received his Declarations, and heartily joined with him in the momentous work which he has been sent to accomplish.

Following each of these Declarations, there has been a Mighty Outpouring of God's Spirit, bringing greatly added power and blessing to all the departments of God's work in Zion.

Of the Declarations and Warnings uttered by this Strong Messenger of God, none has been of deeper significance to all the world than that spoken in the Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day afternoon, December 28, 1902.

Plainly and definitely the prophet declared that the time would soon come when there would be no further Respite, when the mercy and forbearance of God would cease, and when he, that Strong Messenger foretold in the Revelation of Jesus, the Christ, which He gave to His servant John, would stand where his Voice could be heard throughout the earth, and declare "there shall be Delay no longer."

Between four and five thousand people heard that momentous Declaration.

It was a bold Message to proclaim to a world and a church which have deceived themselves with the lie that the Christ will not come as He promised; that the Great and Terrible Day of Jehovah is merely the invention of fanatic dreams of centuries ago.

Yet the Divine Authority with which it was delivered was so manifest that none derided, none opposed, but all received it with intense, earnest interest.

At the close of the address, there was scarce an exception, as the thousands of people arose, and looking to God in sincere prayer, more fully consecrated themselves to the work of the Restoration under the leadership of His Messenger of these Times.

Before the General Overseer delivered his Message, Elder Mother Stewart, the aged saint of God who was the founder and leader, for many years, of Women's Christian Temperance Work in this and other countries, spoke briefly to the people.

Although nearly eighty-seven years of age, this wonderful woman stood erect, with the old-time fire in her eyes, and spoke with a voice that compelled hearing throughout that great Auditorium.

She was received with the greatest love and enthusiasm, the
The declaration of the Messenger was that there should be Time—perhaps best translated by the German word "Zeitfrist," meaning Respite or Delay, no longer. That is the Declaration of the angel who is very properly set forth by the best interpreters of this wonderful book as the Messenger of the Time of the End. . . .

These are "The Times of the Restoration of All Things." Standing in a position where he can stride the Continents and Seas, and be heard by the whole wide earth, the time will come when that Messenger will say: "In the Name of the Ever-living God who made the heaven, the earth, and the sea, and everything that is in them, there shall be delay, 'Zeitfrist,' respite no longer!" That day is coming very near. It is that Messenger of the Time of the End. I tell you, in the Name of the Ever-living God, that the time is not far distant, when, standing where I shall be heard, I shall say that there shall be Respite no longer. This is the Time for Delay. This is the time when God in His Infinite Mercy is pleading with His Church and with mankind.

Tonight it may be said to us: "There shall be Respite no longer." You may have to give an account tonight.

I know that God is merciful. There is not a man or woman here who will quit their sins and ask God for forgiveness in the Name of His Son and own Him Lord and God but will get a blessing.

There will be no terror then to you when the Messenger of God declares that there shall be Delay no longer.

—The Voice of Elijah the Restorer in Chicago Auditorium, Lord's Day, December 25, 1903.

ELIJAH THE RESTORER'S WARNING CONCERNING THE TIME OF THE END WHEN THERE SHALL BE TIME NO LONGER.
thousands arising and, with one heart and voice, shouting, "God bless Mother Stewart."

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the

PROCESSIONAL.

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright,
So, most Gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we with willing feet Ever seek the Mercy Seat.

As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring.

Christ, to Thee our Heavenly King.

Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthy things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright,
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
All our costliest treasures bring,
There forever may we sing Alleluias to our King.

At the close of the Processional, the General Overseer came upon the platform, the people rising and standing with bowed heads while he pronounced the

INVOCATION.

God, be merciful unto us and bless us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us;
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
Thy Saving Health among all the Nations;
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

PRAISE.

All then joined in singing Hymn No. 63:

"For God so loved!" Oh, wondrous theme!
Oh, wondrous key to wondrous scheme!
A Savior sent to sinful men—Glory to God, the Father!

RECITATION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth upon the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation reverently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

1. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.
3. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.
5. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
6. Thou shalt do no murder.
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
8. Thou shalt not steal.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.
11. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, God of Sabaoth,
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee,
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee,
The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an Infinite Majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter,
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin;
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God first in the book of the Prophet Daniel, the 12th chapter.
The General Overseer then read in the 10th chapter of the Revelation of Jesus, the Christ.

In introducing that reading, he said:

I desire all our dear people to heed my admonition in this matter.

Never Call this Book the Revelation of John.

The title of the book as given at the beginning of it is:

The Revelation of Jesus, the Christ, which God gave Him to show unto His servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass: and He sent and signified it by His angel unto His servant John.

John's part in this is that of a third party.

The revelation is given by Jesus, the Christ, and, for the most part, through a very wonderful messenger, who was so wonderful that he showed John all these marvelous pictures of things on earth, things in heaven, things which had come to pass, and things that were shortly to come to pass.

It is written that John fell at the feet of the angel who showed him these things to worship him.

The messenger commanded John to rise and said:

See thou do not: I am a fellow servant with thee and with thy brethren that hold the testimony of Jesus: worship God; for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

It was a Revelation in part directly by the Lord as in the first part when the message was sent to the seven churches of Asia, but after that it is a wonderful series of spiritual revelation unrolled in pictures which John saw, and which he recorded, and to see which he was led by a prophetic spirit.

All spirits are not prophetic.

The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His Messengers to show unto His servants the things which must shortly come to pass.—Revelation 22:6.

The Spirits of the Prophets.

Every prophet who has ever been sent to this world has had one or more attendant spirits who have spoken to him, led him and revealed matters to him, as in the case of Daniel and Jesus.

Elisha said to his servant of the angelic hosts, when he could only see the heathen host all around that little village of Dothan, and perhaps thought that his master had seriously blundered: "They are more for us than those that are against us."

Elisha prayed a brief prayer: "Jehovah, open his eyes that he may see."

In one moment that servant saw what Elisha had seen all the time: the chariots and horses of heaven wheeling around that city in countless hosts.

Perhaps if your eyes were opened you might see something right here today which you do not see.

I do not think I could pray that prayer in faith for you, because your faith is only going to rest upon some spectacular scene, it is not worth anything.

"Blessed Are Those Who, Not Seeing, Believe."

If you believe, you shall see.

The ridiculous proverb, that "seeing is believing," is a lie. There are a great many of you here who do not believe the fundamental truth of Salvation and Healing through Faith in Jesus. Do you believe because of the testimony of these thousands of witnesses? You are silent. The most of you who do not believe are unbelieving and godless, even though many of you may profess the opposite. No testimony would impress you. Seeing is not believing.

Voices—"Yes."

Did not the Pharisees see Jesus?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did they not see Lazarus who was raised from the dead?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—They went right out and plotted how they might murder Lazarus as well as Jesus. What! You tell me that seeing is believing?

You have seen thousands testify in this Auditorium today to the Healing Power of God and still you do not believe.

I know you do not. Witnessing like that does not help you.

It impresses for a moment; but it only proves in the long run how deeply your infidelity is seated.

God Answers Only Prayer of Faith.

You say that God never answered a prayer of yours.

Then you never prayed a prayer which God could answer.

God never failed to answer believing prayer.

The man or woman who prays for a mountain to be removed, and then rises in the morning and says: "Oh, there is that same old hill still. I did not believe it would be taken away," has not the faith which God can honor.

That is the kind of faith which some of you have.

Our Lord Jesus, the Christ, was right, as He always is, when He said: "Blessed is he who not seeing believeth. Martha, said I not unto thee that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God?"

Believing is seeing, but seeing is not believing.

Those who believe will see.

Those who say they will only believe when they see, as a rule never believe at all on such evidence.

Faith Resting on Sight of Little Value.

Moreover, I do not care very much for a faith which rests simply upon sight.

God has made me a reasonable being, and my faith cannot rest upon the evidences of the Five senses, although it can be confirmed by seeing, hearing, etc.

My faith must rest upon God; upon a reasonable consideration of the fact that the God who made me can certainly mend me; and upon a reliable Promise that He will.

I had to put that watch into the hands of the watchmaker who made it, I would expect that man to be able to mend it.

Many of you Christians, although you know that God made your bodies, the last Being in the Universe to whom you would take them, is God.

You go to a man who cannot mend his own body and never mended another's.

He looks at your body, feels your pulse, takes your temperature and shakes his head.

There is nothing in it—I mean his head—for he is completely ignorant in most cases of the disease and its effects, and is still more ignorant as to how to effect a cure.

He writes a prescription.

He does not know what on earth the medicine is going to do, but he tells you to shut your eyes and open your mouth and take whatever he pleases to give you.

You are so foolish that you do it.

When he finds that he has made a blunder, he says: "I made a mistake that time. I will change the medicine."

He changes it, and you are no better.

He will change it again and again; and, if you do not take care, his medicines will most surely change your place of residence from this world to another.

The whole thing is a perfect farce.

Medicine Not a Science.

It is guessing in the dark; blundering both in diagnosis and treatment.
SCRIPIRE READING AND EXPOSITION.

There is not a particle of science in the whole thing. Where there is science, there is not a particle of religion. If you do not believe in the Bible, do not believe in the world. You can pay your money and take your choice. You can listen to what they say about each other, and hear them call each other fools, and you will be quite safe in believing that they are both right.

The Faith of God does not come by seeing.

It comes by your quitting your bad habits and your godless lives, by your repentance and restitution in making things right with God and man, and your simple faith in God through the Christ for Salvation.

Then you can believe God and get everything which God promised.

There is nothing promised for the unbelieving.

Yes, there is, I beg your pardon.

There is a rod which does not comfort, a staff which does not support.

The man who leans upon the staff of medical science has leaned upon a staff which is shod at the end that he grasps with a spear that goes into his hand.

It does not comfort or help.

God is a Comforter and a Helper, and we know it.

In the 109th chapter of the book of the Revelation of Jesus the Christ, John says:

And I saw another strong angel.

And I desire to comment briefly upon this word angel.

The Word Angel Should Be Translated Messenger.

It does not mean necessarily a being of another world and order.

It may mean a good angel or a bad angel.

One is the messenger from heaven, and the other from hell.

The word is used in the Greek tongue to indicate, not a man or a being of any particular order or sex, but simply a messenger.

And I think that we do well to read the word messenger instead of angel.

The word angel, angelos (ἀγγέλος), is purely Greek and means a messenger.

Therefore I shall read it right through in this chapter, messenger.

And I saw another Strong Messenger coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth.

And he cried with a great voice, as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices.

And when seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write: And then you can believe God and get everything which God promised.

But it is the glory of God not only to reveal, but it is written that

It is the glory of God to Conceal a Thing.

One of the foolish things of this day and time is the determination to find out "all about everything."

The filthy press reporter, redolent with tobacco, beer, whisky, laudanum, cocaine and dirty, stinking essences to hide his rot

I see that certain persons, who were here recently, and my guests for months, and who left my home with words of love and confidence, said the vile things which are in that cablegram.

I do not believe one word of it.

I believe that it is quite possible that the entire cablegram was concocted in Chicago.

I have known of that being done.

While I was in Europe you were treated to a very large number of cablegrams coming from which never left London, Paris, Zürich, or wherever I happened to be.

They do not need to bother about that.

They can do it very much cheaper.

They can manufacture them in Chicago.

They are like the woman who sold brooms for a sixpence.

A competitor said: "I do not know how you can do it, because, to tell you candidly, I steal the handles of my brooms, and I can sell them for no less than a shilling."

"Oh," said the other woman, "I can sell them for a sixpence, for I steal both the broom and the handle." (Laughter.)

Sometimes they get a word or two in a cablegram from a distant land, and then they hand it over to the telegraph editor, who does the rest.

I have known of a cablegram of ten words coming out in a column and a half of padding.

The American Press a Horror to Decent People.

The horror of every decent man in this country is the unclean, mercenary, unspeakable and abominable press.

When the people are wise, they will demand of the legislatures in every state and of the National Congress itself that laws shall be passed bringing the press of America under the censorship of the United States court. (Applause.)

When that is done, then every man who writes an article will have to put his name to it.

When you see the names of the good-for-nothing dirty boys, and worse women sometimes, who write these articles, you will never bother yourself any more about them.

The press censor will take them and put them where such reckless criminals ought to be—in the penitentiary at hard labor.

It would do these people much good if they were sent to a prison where they would have to do considerable work for their living, and were fed upon bread and water for a time. Their health would be a good deal better on that diet too.

A Pigmy Baptist Parson's Foolish Attack.

A Peripatetic Baptist Parson from New York, whose name is too insignificant to mention, has been taken up by the press as having come to this city and studied me.

He has actually been out at Zion City once, and now he can tell the whole world what a fraud I am.

A few weeks ago I read of a certain prize-fighter, who used to be the heavy-weight champion, I understand, of these brutal brutes.

It is quite a libel upon the brute to class them with the prize-fighter.

The prize-fighter should be classed a great deal lower than the brute, because when the brutes fight they fight for some purpose.

I read that this big brute was in a saloon, and that there was a small brute, some light-weight or bantam fighter, who insulted him.

Some one said, "Why do you not give him a punch?"

The big fellow looked at him and mentally took his measure and said: "Well, he is not in my class; and if I should hit him, I might kill him."

I say that to Mr. Dixon of New York. (Applause and laughter.)

When he has done something to get into my class, I will give him a lick in the Name of the Lord, and for his good.

As yet he is not there.

Man must be careful when he has strength and power given him that he uses it rightly. I am less and less inclined to answer these foolish and false critics.

Ignorance of Some Things a Blessing.

Do not desire to know everything.

Believe me when I say to you that there is an ignorance which is a blessing.

It is folly to be wise in connection with many worldly things.

Do not be afraid to say No to the man who wants to make your wise as to what you can find in the levee, in the dirty dime museum, in the filthy theater, and in the house of her whose house is the gate of hell.

The dead are there.

Do not go.
Disgusting Practices at Washington.

One of the most disgusting things in Washington is to be asked to be the guest of a senator and attempt to eat where you do.

The mob are statesmen and the statesmen, drudges.

It is folly to be wise after the world's fashion.

You are wise who do not attempt to open seals which God has shut against the pure and the clean.

The woman who wants to open the sealed book of human infamy will become infamous.

Take care!

It is better not to see.

It is better not to hear.

Life is too short to spend in Museums of Hell.

There are too many good, beautiful, attractive, holy and Heavenly Things, inspiring in sweetness and purity and full of power, for you to go down and waste your life with devils in the levee or in the newspaper office.

Scripture Reading.

The General Overseer then read from the beginning of the fifth verse to the end of the Tenth chapter of Revelation, closing with the prayer,

May God bless His Word.

In making the announcements the General Overseer said:

God Does Not Answer the Prayer of the Unclean.

God will never hear your prayers while you smoke, drink and sin.

God will never hear your prayers while you smoke, drink and sin.

You think that that is a sin, do you not?

Ask your wives if you stink.

Ask your children what they think.

Ask any clean, decent man who does not smoke, what he thinks of you, you unmitigated stinkpot!

How you stink!

You who go about the world chewing, churning, smoking, stinking and spitting, oh, you wonder that your children do not like to kiss you?

Who would kiss you, you stinkpot?

You wonder that your children do not like to kiss you?

What woman likes to kiss a man whose mouth is an open sepulcher?

What woman likes to smell the "open sepulcher" of the smoker who is diligently cultivating cancer, ulcerations of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, amaurosis, paralysis, etc.?

I am glad to have some of you here and give it to you.

There are always some of you here in this Auditorium.

Every good woman in this country is on my side.

I do not care what she may say to you, every good woman in this place is on my side when I say that this is a bad, dirty, disgusting, filthy habit.

Women, is that not so?

Women—"Yes."

General Overseer—Now then, you fellows, did you hear your women? They are on my side.

You drinkers! You beerpots! You Bacchus worshipers!

You remind me of DeFoe's lines:

Slaves to the bottle, drudges to the pots.
The mob are statesmen and the statesmen, sots.

One of the most disgusting things in Washington is to be asked to be the guest of a senator and attempt to eat where these men eat, drink, stink and smoke in the Capitol of the Nation until you are sick.

It is a disgrace that the Capitol of the Nation should have a liquor bar.

I asked of you who are helping to spend two billion dollars every year in tobacco in this country, the dirty dogs!

You think that that is a sin, do you not?

Ask your wives if you stink.

SCRYPTURE READING AND EXPOSITION.

He wanted to get away from liquor, but he thought he would swear off gradually.

So he stuffed all his pockets full of tobacco, and took a drink.

Then he said that he wanted to go to Zion City.

He came to Zion City, but we smelled him instantly, and guarded him from evil for the night.

You cannot get past our guards, because they all have noses.

We had him in our early prayer-meeting this morning.

Sober and in his right mind.

I found that he had brought into the city fifty-nine packages of chewing tobacco, besides a quantity of other things.

He was going to swear off gradually.

He has sworn off suddenly instead, because he could not get there.

He looks very happy this morning, and is glad to be in Zion City.

I am thankful for those who have been blessed there.

Introduction of Elder Mother Stewart.

I was very much astonished when I reached Chicago today to be told that our dear Mother Stewart, who is also an ordained Elder in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, was in Zion Hospice No. 1, at the corner of Twelfth street and Michigan avenue.

I had the great pleasure of bringing the Mother down here to the Auditorium.

I found that she had brought her beautiful white silk elder's robe with her, and that she was quite desirous of walking in procession with us today; and so she came in with the Processional, and sits on my right hand.

She is nearly eighty-seven years old.

Mother Stewart is known to the whole world.

Her name and fame is a part of the history of the United States.

She was one of the brave women who went down to nurse the wounded during the War of the Rebellion.

The best work which she has done is that of the great Temperance Crusade in Ohio—except when she came into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. (Applause.)

I am delighted to say that I have had the honor of the friendship and the love of Mother Stewart for a number of years.

When she applied for fellowship in this church, some time ago, I was delighted to receive her.

I was delighted to have the honor of ordaining her as an Elder.

Although she is not able to take full part in her prayers, and can teach, and still has a wonderful gift of eloquent speech.

She has held some very important meetings recently in connection with our Branches in Ohio, where she resides at Springfield.

She likes to come to our All-Night Meetings.

I understand that recently she spoke two hours at one time.

Just think of that: a lady of eighty-seven speaking eloquently and wisely for one hundred and twenty minutes.

There are some of you who cannot speak two minutes for the Lord.

May God bless Mother Stewart, whom I am delighted to introduce to the four or five thousand persons now present.

Address of Elder Mother Stewart.

Mother Stewart— I am so thankful for this opportunity.

"When the General Overseer led me in, and I looked into the faces of these dear brothers and sisters, I thanked the Lord for this occasion."

"As the services have gone on, my soul has been filled with gladness.

I praise the Lord that He called me, a poor, little orphan on a sick-bed, from the verge of the grave."

"He set my soul free, and with it came the healing of the body. (Amen.)"

"At the same time my body was healed I was called to preach the Gospel."

General Overseer—But those miserable Methodists never ordained you.

Mother Stewart— "My Methodist friends, to whose church I have given seventy-one years of the best in me, would not pay me any such attention—I did not ask them to."
"Our beloved General Overseer, however, vindicated the Lord’s call about a year ago and ordained me as an Elder and minister of the Gospel in this Church of which I am a member."

General Overseer—I was delighted to do it.

"I am that Messenger of the Time of the End: for I am the Messenger of the Time of the End, and..."

THE DECLARATION OF THE ANGEL AT THE TIME OF THE END:

"There shall be time no longer."

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable unto this people, and to all to whom these words shall come. For the sake of Jesus. (Amen.)

The General Overseer read his text from the 10th chapter of the book of Revelation, the 5th, 6th and 7th verses:

TEXT.

And the Messenger which I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right hand to heaven, And sware by Him that liveth for ever and ever, who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, and the sea and the things that are therein, that there shall be time no longer:

But in the days of the voice of the seventh Messenger, when he is about to sound, then is finished the Mystery of God, according to the Good Tidings which He declared to His servants the prophets.

The Declaration of the Messenger was that there should be Time—perhaps best translated by the German word Zeitfrist, meaning Respite or Delay, no longer.

This Messenger is the Messenger of the Times of the End.

That is the Declaration of the angel who is very properly translated by Dr. Jacobs of Philadelphia, says: "The angel distinguished from other angels by the dAAov (another) and referring it to that first dXXov (another) with both substantive and adjective, translates it by Zeitfrist, Respite, no longer!"

The "Strong Messenger" is he who comes at the Times of the End, not Martin Luther.

Another interpretation is that this angel represents Martin Luther and the Time of the Reformation.

That has a good deal for it at first sight; for Martin Luther stood with his feet stretching across the continents and seas, a great colossal figure, swearing by the ever-living God; but he never took the oath before high heaven that there should be Zeitfrist, Respite, no longer.

That could not be the Times of the End, for that was the Time of the Beginning of a Reformation which, alas, did not continue as it began.

You can put that interpretation aside.

Dean Alford and many other learned commentators will tell you there can be no doubt that the angel or Messenger here referred to is he who comes at the "Times of the End." These are "The Times of the Restoration of All Things." Standing in a position where he can stride the Continent and Seas, and be heard by the whole wide earth, the time will come when that Messenger will say: "In the Name of the Ever-living God who made the heaven, the earth, and the sea, and everything that is in them, there shall be Delay, Zeitfrist, Respite, no longer!"

The "Strong Messenger" is he who comes at the Times of the End of this Dispensation.

Dean Alford, in his Critical and Exegetical Commentary upon the Greek Text of the New Testament says:—"We can hardly help taking ἄλλος (another) with both substantive and adjective, and referring it to that first διὸς ἡλεοῦ (strong angel or messenger) in chapter τ.ι.α.

And this consideration may serve to introduce the assertion, to me hardly admitting of a doubt, that this angel is not, and cannot be, the Lord Himself. When St. John means to indicate the Son of God, he indicates Him plainly—none more so.

Principal Randell, of Bede College, Durham, the learned expositor of the Revelation in The Pulpit Commentary edited by Dr. Spence, Dean of Gloucester, says: "There is not sufficient reason for supposing that Christ is meant. Wherever our Lord is referred to in the Revelation, it is always in a mode that cannot possibly be mistaken. God’s glory is reflected in His messenger, as it formerly was in Moses."

Dr. Diisterdieck, Ober-consistorialrath of Hanover, author of the Critical and Exegetical Hand-book of Revelation, translated by Dr. Jacobs of Philadelphia, Penn., says: "The angel distinguished from other angels by the ἄλλος (another) is, as little as the one mentioned in 7:2 or 8:3, Christ Himself. The very form of the oath, verse 6th, is not appropriate to the Christ."

This Day Is Coming Very Near.

There is Delay yet.

I am that Messenger of the Time of the End: for I am the Messenger of the Covenant, and Elijah the Restorer. I tell you, in the Name of the Ever-living God, that the Time is not far distant, when, standing where I shall be heard, I shall say that there shall be Respite no longer.

This is the Time for Delay.
This is the time when God in His Infinite Mercy is pleading with His Church, and with all mankind.

I am not speaking of the churches; most of them went to the Devil long ago.

Some of them were born in sin and conceived in iniquity.

Recently I have been tracing the history of the various apostasies.

What man is there, who has any common honesty, who can deny the current historical facts which I have put before the world of the shameful origin of the national Church of England.

It was born in sin, conceived in iniquity, the offspring of that foul adulterer and murderer, Henry VIII.

If ever there was a child, intellectually, who was the outcome of shame it is the Church of England.

But it is not different from other churches.

Many of those who came out of Rome have been as foul and sometimes more foul than Rome herself.

The Church of Rome had a Glorious Birth.

She was not born in sin.

The Church at Rome was the great Mother Church of the West.

It, at one time, was the only Church that maintained the Faith of God.

She has fallen now, and all the waters of the Atlantic could not wash away her foulness.

She has fallen into such shameful lying as makes every priest who has any sense ashamed if you ask him to defend the doctrine of that church.

Sad Apostasy of Rome.

Marotlary, the idolatry of the Mass, penances, purifications by means of scapulars, and, above all, the daring blasphemy that is an insult to the intelligence of the whole world, that disgusting and disgraceful, and unreasonable, and abominable doctrine of Papal Infallibility, are among her sins.

There is not an intelligent American priest, bishop or cardinal who would dare to discuss it.

He is only say, with the grand old Archbishop of St. Louis, Kendrick, who opposed it at the Council, “Papa duxit, ecclesia dixit” (the Pope says it; the church says it).

Archbishop Kendrick never believed it.

He declared straight out, at the Council, that it was a lie, that there was no such thing as Papal Infallibility.

The Church of Rome has gone down into the depths of Intellectual debauchery when it dares to say that any man in his senses can believe that Joachim Pecci, Archbishop of Nazareth, who now is called Pio Nono, died and left behind him a doctrine of Papal Infallibility, and that he never believed it.

You cannot make a man infallible by voting him so.

You might as well try to make a woman a man by voting her so. Shame!

The day is not far distant—when this mass of abomination must come to an end.

The Treasvy of Government, So-called, Must Come to an End.

Where is there a perfectly satisfactory National Government?

Not here in the United States.

Government of the people, by the people, and for the people, is a sham and a lie.

You say that the people are governed by the people.

It is a lie.

They are governed by tricksters, who get into caucuses, and give you a choice between two evils, or, at the best, two mediocrities.

Government of the bosses, by the bosses, and for the bosses would be the English of it.

It is a perfect sham!

Nothing is so disgracefully a failure, when it comes to voting, as Republican institutions.

You do not get the man of your own selection.

You can vote for the man of your choice, but he has got to be one or the other.

It must be a Republican Caesar or a Democratic Pompey.

You have no choice, but to vote for one or the other—at present no other can win in most places.

The people make no selections.

The current politicians, full of hypocrisy and trickery, and uttering unscrupulous, who care only for themselves, work the primaries, district, local conventions and national conventions in such a way as to give you no choice excepting to choose whom they please to put there.

Tyranny Through Primaries.

You will have to smash your primaries, or conduct them in a radically different way.

If you want even a semblance of government of the people, by the people, for the people, you will have to start it by the people nominating, not in nominations by bosses who control the primaries, to which you are afraid to go for fear you will get your head smashed.

You go and try to vote in some of the primaries in this city, and you will find that the plugul and brusiers and “ward-heelers” are there to fling you out.

They will crowd up people there to keep you back until it is too late to vote, unless you are with them and will promise, and they think you are safe.

The whole thing is a failure.

Government of this world by Man is impossible.

This world was made by God.

There is no government of this world possible unless God governs.

Aristocracy, Oligarchy, Monarchy, are all a miserable failure.

Autocracy and Democracy are equally failures.

The Only Effective Government a Theocracy.

The only possibilities for this world are in a Universal Theocracy, a Government of God’s own Words and God’s own Creation, by God and for God.

If we were not made by God, if we had no responsibility to God, if we were simply a set of animals, responsible only to each other, it would be possible to conceive that good Government could be man-made.

Indeed it would be the only government possible.

But God has forever made it impossible.

He is King over All, All the Time, and Everywhere.

The Gospel which He bear, and which the churches say that they bear, is called in this Bible the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

Zion is the only church which says that word plainly and means it—Kingdom.

You might think that the Gospel was the Gospel of the People or the Church, or of those who could pay most and vote most heavily.

It is no such thing.

The Gospel is the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

That is the Gospel which Jesus the Christ came to preach.

The Christ Never Talked Much About the Church.

I do not talk much about the Church.

The Church is a very small matter.

Zion—the Kingdom of God—is the great matter.

In the whole of the Gospel according to St. John the word Church is not mentioned once.

In the whole of the Gospel according to St. Luke the word Church is not mentioned once.

In the whole of the Gospel according to St. Mark the word Church is not mentioned once.

It is only mentioned twice in Matthew where it is called in Greek by the word “ecclesia” (ezechore), which means a gathering of people who are called out of something.

The Church at the very best is only a gathering of believers who are called out of the Kingdom of God to worship, to teach, to witness and to extend the Kingdom of God.

The Church is a very important institution, but it is only the outcome of the Kingdom.

There are multitudes of people who are in the Kingdom of God who never were in any Church.

I am very glad that they were not; because when the Devil wants to make a man twofold more a child of hell than he was before, he makes him a Methodist or a member of some other Apostasy.

Let him go to the Secret Lodge, where he strips himself of everything, and puts on an old dirty flannel vest, and a pair of drawers, has one shoe on and one off.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 3, 1903.

Is that not true, you who were Masons, tell me?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did you not come into that lodge almost naked?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—You had a rope around your neck, had you not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Were you not blindfolded?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Nice objects for your wife to look at!

Voices—"Yes."

I wonder you are not ashamed to think of it.

Get a man into a Methodist church and let the elder of that church be a Mason; they will tell you that Masonry is a very good thing and get you into it.

When you get into it you will find that you cannot mention the Name of Jesus, the Christ.

You will find that you have gotten into an organization where there is a Bible from which the Name of Jesus, the Christ, is cut out every time it is mentioned.

You know it, too, you worshipers of Baal.

You have taken away so many degrees, kept your wife at home wondering where on earth you were, while you were being dragged around a lodge room, naked, with a rope around your neck. (Laughter and applause.)

A nice fellow you were!

Make a man a Methodist, and you have made him what the Lord Jesus, the Christ, said:

"Compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he has made one proselyte, let him say to his master, Thy will be done; and let him rise up and take his share with his masters."

When he has made one proselyte, let him say—"Thy will be done; and let him rise up and take his share with his masters."

But you make him go to hell, and tell him that his master has no Christianity left, not a scrap, for there is no Christianity in Masonry."

Masonry Is Phallic Worship.

It is the worship of the Sun-god, the Phallic worship, the worship of Baal.

There is no difference between the priests of Baal of this century and the priests of Baal who were confronted by Elijah, the Tishbite, in the reign of Ahab, the king.

They also were ministers.

They were priests of the temple of the Most High God, Jehovah, but they had become what are now called Masons, until at last there was no place for the worship of Jehovah.

That was why that sojourner of Gilead got that name.

He was one of the prophets.

When they saw him they would say: "Eliyahu." Why?

Because he was always saying: "Jehovah is my God."

He cried, "I will have none of your Baal-worship in the Temple of God. Jehovah is my God! Eliyahu!"

Therefore they called him Eliyahu—Elijah.

He got that name as a kind of nickname, I suppose.

Who is there who has proclaimed Jesus, the Christ, in the Lodge?

Not the Bishops of the Methodist Church.

They do not dare to name Him there in straight Masonry!

You have a "mock resurrection" of Hiram Abiff, the widow's son, upon the five points of Masonry.

You have a mock omnicore word, Mah-hah-bone.

There is no sense in it.

They are all idiotic things; but their Vows and Oaths are: "Agreements with Hell and Covenants with Death."

The time has come when, if a man is to preserve his Christianity, he must come into the Kingdom of God, where he does not dare to name the Name of the Christ.

That which is called Government is a vast piece of humbug, with a small percentage of Reality somewhere.

That which is called Government is a vast piece of humbug, relieved by a transient Victoria or Roosevelt, who is very much a Reality, although a transient ruler in the White House.

When good presidents begin to know how in America, they are brusquely informed "Time's up! Get!"

It would seem foolish to an American business man if he were told to apply the same rule to a good business manager or bank president. Why not foolish when applied to the good president of a republic?

Present modes of Government must come to an end. Ecclesiastical, political, social and educational changes are impending with Reforms that will be Revolutions if you do not stop them.

People Will Not Always Labor in the Fire.

People will not always labor and not gather.

They are not always going to labor and build houses and not inhabit them.

They are not always going to labor and get nothing from all their toil except a bit of bread, while others get profits and go to Europe and spend it upon beer and skittles.

Hypocrisy of Freemasons Who Profess to be Christians.

The man who says, "I will glorify the Christ everywhere," and yet goes into a lodge where he does not dare to name the Christ's Name, is he not a fraud?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Yes, that is just what he is.

Let him dare to name the Name of the Christ; let him dare to call the attention of the lodge to the claims of the Redeemer and he will be told that he is violating the lodge rules.

He might offend the conscience of some Jew who hates the Christ.

He might offend the conscience of the Free-thinker—if he has any conscience.

The Jew does not ordinarily belong to these lodges; but it is a great place for the Free-thinker and the man who is utterly destitute of all religion.

The Jew has more sense. The Jew has a good deal more reality.

He may be wrong, and he is wrong in rejecting Jesus as the Son of God and the Messiah, but he is sincerely wrong.

There is very little sham about the religion of a real Jew.

I would rather have an honest Jew, who rejects the Messiah and knows where he stands, than a man who pretends he is a Christian, and yet goes into the lodges night after night, week after week and year after year, where he does not dare to name the Name of the Christ.

He is a sham, every bit of him.

I would rather have a Roman Catholic, whose priest does not permit him to enter a lodge, than a Methodist, who says that he is a Protestant, and goes into these lodges, where he is ashamed to name the Name of the Christ.

A Roman Catholic has some conscience.

He is not going to deny his Lord.

He is not going into a place where he does not dare to name the Name of the Christ.

He is better taught than that.

Although that Church is apostate he is not ashamed to name the Name of Jesus Christ anywhere.

Shame! Shame!

The people will stand up and demand what they have a right to, a fair remuneration for their toil.

I am thankful that in Zion City, where there are eight thousand people, ninety-five per cent. of them own their homes. Thank God for that good beginning.

The object of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is to extend the Kingdom of God.

Where God Rules Man Prospers.

You put your tongue in your cheek some of you, and say, "Do they prosper in Zion?"

I tell you they do.

I ask this people, have you prospered since God brought you into Zion?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Have you prospered since you paid God His tithe?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is it a fact that we are prospering in Zion City?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Thank God we have prospered, and are still prospering.

My people understand the position.

You people in the world are being lied to all the time.

I have received subscriptions to Zion stocks within the last few days amounting to $85,000.

I brought no pressure to bear.

The people knew what they were, that the capital was honestly invested, and that the stocks were going to a premium of ten per cent 1st March next.

The unmitigated lies of the press and of the churches have gone on, and are going on, but they are being found out.

It does not alter the fact that the press will not print what I say.

I would be ashamed if it did, unless it were to undergo a real change of heart.

The Friend of the Chicago Press a Disgrace.

I would be almost ashamed to do me justice now. It would look as if I had bought them.

They have offered me their columns for money.

They have even told me that they would report anything I said.

I would be almost ashamed if it did, unless it were to undergo a real change of heart.

The Specials from the Chicago Press.

They are published and sold for money.

They have offered me their columns for money.

They have even told me that they would report anything I said.

I would be ashamed if it did, unless it were to undergo a real change of heart.

The Chicago Press Held in Contempt Everywhere.

It has been far more severe than if I had used a sword or carnal weapons.

My words have made the Chicago press to be the most detested press throughout the world.

It has always been loathed, as Dana told it many years ago.

Nobody has ever had any use for it for many a long year.

I have never met a statesman in Washington of any rank who had any respect for what the Chicago press said.

I do not want to quote men and expose them to trouble, but if ever I should quote one-half of what has been said to me by legislators, judges, and men of rank in the public service, where I stayed in Washington, I should have to tell you that the press of Chicago is held in the utmost contempt by almost the entire legislative, judicial and executive powers of this country.

When they want a synonym for a tremendous liar they say he is as bad as a Chicago Press liar.

He is the biggest thing they can think of in the way of a deliberate and dishonest liar.

The press has become degenerate.

The time has come when

The Great God Will Put in His Claim Upon the World.

Has He not a right to it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Has He not a right to you?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did not God make you?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Have you not a right to yield to God?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—I stand here as the minister of God saying that God will say to you individually very soon: "There shall be Zeitfrist—Delay—no longer."

No Delay for Individuals.

How do you know that you are going to see the end of this year?

You may not see the midnight hour of tonight.

You may be going home in a car and be smashed.

There are many half-drunk fellows dashing about this city with the lives of people in their hands who do not care much what happens.

They are worked so hard and so long, that when Sunday night comes they, oftentimes, taken so many drinks that they are reckless.

They will dash across railway tracks in front of a swift express train. A crash and then what?

Look at the story from day to day.

Look at the story of death of yesterday, caused by the Chicago Press. A crash and then what?

The day is quickly coming for your punishment, do you hear?

You liars are going to be punished in the face of men, heavenly angels and devils.

I have been punishing you for some time.

You have had the whip brought down upon your backs and around your ears.

It has been a very sharp whip: for it was Truth, and every cord was Love.

The kind of talk that goes on in these smoking-cars is most disgusting.

Some time ago I saw a beautiful bride coming into the Pennsylvania Limited, on which I was traveling, in Ohio.

She was accompanied by her bridgroom.

There were many to wish them joy.

The bridgroom proudly came along the platform with his lovely bride in his arms, and the crowd treated her and paid her every attention, whilst the wedding party was looking on!

I watched that fellow.

I said to myself as I looked at him, I will give him half an hour to get into the smoking-car.

I was just a quarter of an hour too good to him.

Inside of a quarter of an hour I could see him talking soft nothings to the bride, making some request.

At last she gave him her assent, and he went into the smoking-car.

I went in about half an hour afterwards.

I found him still in the smoking-car.

I went in again about an hour afterwards, and I found him still in the smoking-car.

I found him telling a dirty, filthy and smutty story—the dirty dog!

I could have forgiven any one who would have stood him on his head and wiped the floor with him.

There was his bride, sitting weeping.

That fellow was nearly two hours by the clock in that disgusting smoking-car.

If I had had my wife with me, I should have said to her:—

"Go and put your arm around that girl and talk to her:"

I could not go.

She did not want anybody to speak to her.

She was ashamed.

One hour passed, and almost the second hour, and that dirty dog in there smoking, drinking, telling dirty, smutty stories.

I am not a man wanting to strike my fellow man, but I did feel that if I took him and dragged him along that car and bumped him considerably, that I would be doing God Almighty’s service. (Applause and laughter.)

No Place for Tobacco Users in Heaven.

Yesterday, thirty-five men, most of whom were in a smoking-car, went to heaven or hell.

That is not the place from which people, as a rule, go to heaven.

If a locomotive should strike your car tonight and your life be taken, there will be Delay no longer.

You will go to the hell to which you belong if you are a slave to some filthy vice.

You will not go to heaven.

There is no place for sinners there.

You cannot get any chewing plug there.

You cannot smoke and stink there.

You cannot continue lying there.

You cannot get any chewing plug in the City above.

That fellow was nearly two hours by the clock in that disgusting smoking-car.

If I had my wife with me, I should have said to her:—

"Go and put your arm around that girl and talk to her:"

There are covenants in the lease, and one of the covenants is that you shall never bring in tobacco and other bad things.

You and I Will Have to Stand Before God.

Tonight it may be said to us:—"There shall be Respite no longer."

You may have to give an account tonight.

I know that God is merciful.

There is not a man or woman here who will quit their sins and ask God for forgiveness in the Name of His Son and own Him Lord and God but shall get a blessing.

You shall go out of this year and into the next set free.

There will be no terror then to you when the Messenger of God declares that there shall be Delay no longer.

I shall be glad to hear the Command from the Throne which bids me Proclaim to all the Earth that there will be Delay no longer.

I shall be glad for God to put me where I can make that Message plain.

When God gives it to me all shall hear it.

When you hear it the whole earth will hear it.

Emperor William of Germany, Abdal Hamid of Turkey, Edward VII. of the British Empire, the Czar of all the Russias, every Potentate, and every Republican President will hear it when it is spoken.

I am sent to declare now that the Day will come, that there shall be Time no longer.

No more Time!

There is going to be Judgment.

You have been fooling with God.

His sentence is passed because He delays the execution of it, you go on doing wickedness.

There will soon be Time no longer.

The High Court of Heaven will issue its final mandate, and you had better get ready now: for God’s Sentences must be executed.

Every one here who is determined that they shall get right with God now, stand and make consecration to Him.

(Permission of the audience rose.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION.

My God and Father, in Jesus’ Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, and in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may be brave to do right, to speak the truth, and to love the truth. Help me to restore if I have wronged any, to confess, and to trust the Christ. Help me to obey Him, that I may be led by the Spirit and be truly Thine in the Kingdom of God, and in the patience of the Christ. For His sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?

Audience—Yes.

General Overseer—Live it.

After the Doxology had been sung, the General Overseer offered the

CLOSING PRAYER.

Father of Peace and of Love, we know there is no peace to the wicked unless they yield to Thee. Let very heart within this building now feel Thy power and yield to Thee. Let the Love of God prevail to save many from impending doom and future misery. O God it is impossible for the unclean to enter a pure and holy Heaven. It is impossible for the man who denies his Lord and lives in the shadow of death to enter Heaven. It is impossible for a man to be an absolute rebel against God and enter Heaven. Heaven is for those who are cleansed by the blood of the Christ, who have confessed and forsaken their sin. God bless this people. And now take us into Thy loving care. O God we pray that when we next have a long series of services in this city that we shall have a place in which we shall have a place in which we shall have a place wide enough for the people. Let us be able to get one or build one. Father in Heaven bless us. Bless us in the remaining services if we get to speak here for several long months, and let the sending of God come upon the city. And now be with us: take us all to our respective homes, we trust safely, but if anything should befall us which should mean sudden death, we thank Thee that for many of us it would be sudden glory. Let us all be ready. Now dismiss us with Thy blessing.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus the Lord of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Benediction.

I am directed by the General Overseer to warn our members and officers throughout the world against giving money to persons claiming to be members of the Christian Catholic Church. All benevolence must be given either from Headquarters or under the direction of same. Even though the applicant for benevolence be known to be a member of the Christian Catholic Church, financial aid must not be given except in extreme cases, and then only in small amounts. Requests for help must be made to the officer-in-charge. In cases where there is no such officer, request should be made direct to Headquarters, accompanied by recommendations from one or two members of Zion in good standing.
Early Morning Meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle

A CONSUMING FIRE was Lord’s Day early morning meeting in Shiloh Tabernacle, December 14, 1902.

As a white flame from heaven, came the words of the Prophet of God, Elijah the Restorer, as he addressed his people, a great concourse, gathered together in the early morning, ere the shades of night had fully given way to the light of the new day.

Under the scathing, purifying power of the Message, souls seemed to be naked and trembling, aghast at the revelation, speechless, defenseless, convulsed.

Yet Love was the theme.

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, Lord’s Day Morning, December 14, 1902.

Service was opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 183:

Thou my everlasting portion,
More than friend or life to me,
All along my pilgrim journey,
More than friend or life to me.

Close to Thee, close to Thee,
Close to Thee, close to Thee;

The General Overseer then said:

Appeals of Jesus to the Father.

The “Father” is addressed by Jesus, by name or personal pronoun, no less than sixty times in the prayer in the 17th chapter of John. It is a remarkable thing.

How wonderful it is that our Lord, in a prayer which covers only twenty-six verses, should make direct appeal at least sixty times to God as Father.

The thought which I desire to impress upon your minds by this fact is how the Christ glorified the Father, and presented the Love of the Father to sinful man through all His ministry.

We should remember, above all things, that He came to glorify the Father.

I will again read with you a portion of the prayer:

These things spake Jesus; and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, Father.

Father! Father!
Get that word Father into your spirits.
Not the word merely, but all that lies in it!
Ask God to give you increasing knowledge of its meaning.
You will never know on this Earth all that is in it, but you can know more and more.
It will take Eternity to unfold all that is in that Word.

Father, the hour is come.

There is a wonderful preparation in this Word, working up a thousand things to a Culmination, to a Consummation, to the filling up to the Fulness of Time.

Things Do Not Come Accidentally.

The hour comes when the grain is fully ripe, when the fruit, if it is not gathered, will fall from the tree.

All events are just a part of the ripening of a Divine Destiny.

There are hours and days, there are weeks and months, there are years and centuries, and there are eons upon eons in the Divine calculation.

There are Moments of Destiny which we sometimes understand even in our own individual life.

If we miss that opportunity it is gone forever.

These things spake Jesus, and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that the Son may glorify Thee.

Even as Thou gavest Him Authority over all flesh, that whatsoever Thou hast given Him, to them He should give Eternal Life.

And this is Life Eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus, the Christ.

I glorified Thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which Thou hast given me to do.

And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was.

The Power of Completion is Wholly Divine.

That was the triumphant cry of the Christ upon the cross at the moment of His spirit’s departure.

The conqueror’s cry: “Tetelesti” (τετέλεσθιν). “It is finished!”
More exactly, “It is accomplished.”

The idea is not merely that a thing is ended, but that it is rounded out perfectly.

That piece of work was Divinely Finished.

Nothing can be added to it.

The word of Koheleth, the word of the preacher in Ecclesiastes, comes with wonderful power in this connection.

I know that, whatever God doeth, it shall be forever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it: and God hath done it; that men should fear before Him.

It is that sense of Completeness which is wholly Divine.

When men say, “It is finished,” the world laughs at them.

The ink is not dry upon the page of a Constitution before many people are clamoring for an Amendment.

The law is not printed, oftentimes not signed by the proper authority, before defects are found.

What a cry of triumph there was when the work on the formation of a Constitution for the United States was completed! Tell me how many amendments you have?

Voice—“Fifteen.”

General Overseer—And it wants fifteen more. (Laughter.)

The fact of the matter is that it needs making all over again. A Constitutional Convention, when the people are wise, is perfectly in order in this country. There should first be a demand for the recognition of God in the first words of the Constitution of the United States of America.

One of the things which makes the Constitution of the United States feeble is the fact that it recognizes only the Rights of Man, and utterly ignores the Rights of God.

There is no recognition of God in that Constitution.

I am old enough to remember most vividly the great scenes in Paris preceding the Fall of the French Empire.

All the ambassadors of the great nations of the world were gathered around Napoleon III. in Paris on a certain day—the Fête Napoleon—in 1859, if I remember correctly.

Napoleon III. Deceiving and Faithless.

He was a man who kept up the delusion of being a very profound thinker and far-seeing man.

Original from
NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY
Europe did not quite know what to think of him.

For a long time Prince Louis Napoleon had been a discredited adventurer, a gambler, an exile when, as a result of the Revolution of 1848 and the expulsion of King Louis Philippe, he was elected president of the French Republic.

He took an oath to maintain republican institutions, and he violated it by plotting from the very beginning to strangle the Republic.

He did strangle it.

In 1852, when the streets of Paris ran red with blood, was the occasion of the destruction of that Constitution which he and all France had declared to be perfection.

The Constitution of 1848 was completely annihilated and military rule set up under the form of an Empire.

He reigned until September 1, 1870, when the Empire fell with a crash at Sedan, where he surrendered himself into the hands of the Germans, who had utterly destroyed his armies.

The seventies began in a very eventful way.

The Dogma of Papal Infallibility, the downfall of the French Empire, the reconstruction of the map of Europe, and the formal establishment of the Russian Empire, all took place within a very short time.

A Foolish Boast as to the Permanence of an Empire.

We felt in Great Britain as if we could almost hear the cannon boomed and the bells ring when the Emperor "crowned the edifice."

The prince imperial was declared to be the heir apparent to the imperial throne.

The delusion was kept up that the French were manifestly strong, the French empire rich and powerful, and the French Emperor a great, far-seeing man.

The bells had scarce ceased to ring, the sound of the cannon seemed to be still in one's ears, when, intoxicating by their vanity, the French Ambassador, Count Benedetti, demanded something of the old king of Prussia which, it was probably falsely reported, made him curse and turn upon his heel.

The insult was reported from Ems, and on July 15, 1870, France had proclaimed war against Germany and the troops were all in movement.

Then it was found that the French army was a paper army.

Downfall of Napoleon III. and His Empire.

The army could not get into position without clogging and friction of every kind.

The Germans marched upon the frontier with the precision of men upon the parade ground.

Before the French knew where they were, the frontiers were seized, and battle after battle smashed the great army under Marshal Macmahon.

Still the Emperor kept up the delusion.

He went to the front with his son on July 28th.

He held out the hope that defeat was to be turned into victory.

He retreated with his army to Sedan, and there, surrounded on every side by the great German Army, it would have been annihilated had it not surrendered, for there was no escape.

Within a few months of the time when he declared that the edifice was crowned, and that the Empire was now the perpetual formation of government, he was a prisoner in the hands of the Germans. The War had only lasted seven weeks.

The Empire had passed away, and the horrors of the War in France beggar description, especially the German Siege of Paris and the still greater horrors of the Commune.

Horrors of the Siege of Paris.

Two years ago, talking with very intelligent people who passed through that awful time in Paris, the horrors were recalled with a shudder.

A lady of rank and culture, my daughter's teacher, who was reduced to poverty and misery through that horrible siege of Paris, told of how, while seated in her house, a shell crashed through the roof and exploded.

Slightly hurt she looked upon the couch, and as the smoke cleared away, she saw the headless trunk of her mother.

Take the details of that story of Paris, surrounded by the Germans, in which the people were reduced to eating cats, mice, dogs, slugs, snakes—anything and everything—and realize that it all took place within a few months after the declaration that the Empire was completed.

It is a terrible commentary on the folly of such declarations, of which the pages of history in all time are crowded with similar pictures.

It all happened so quickly, event following event so rapidly, that it seemed impossible to be able to fasten upon one's memory the things as they occurred.

Then soon the Empire had passed away completely.

Not long after Napoleon III. died in exile, in England, and his only son perished by a Zulu spear in South Africa fighting in a quarrel with which he had no concern. An aged lady—the ex-Empress Eugenie—still lingered in England, sole survivor of that Empire.

So the kinetoscope goes on.

The things which men call finished are no sooner completed, in their eyes, than their utter incompleteness is shown.

Nothing Resting in Its Own Completeness Has Any Power to Be a Blessing to Humanity.

It is the recognition of its incompleteness and the recognition of the fact that progress towards completeness must be continued that will keep an organization fresh and young.

The moment an organization even of the Church, says now we have finished a creed, and writes under it quod erat demonstrandum—that moment the organization ceases to progress.

They say: "Let any one dare to interfere with that!

"This is the Creed.

"This is the Whole Truth.

"If you do not agree with this thing which we have finished, another; to the faggot, to the stake, to the cross, to the gal lows, to the prison, to death with the man that dares to inter fer with this finished Creed of ours!

"Throw him out!"

God forbid that, while it clings to the Finished Work of Redemption in Christ, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion should ever put metes and bounds around Divine thought!

The Work of the Christ Divinely Complete.

I want you to realize the completeness of the Divine.

What the Christ did was a complete, finished work.

Nothing can be added to or taken from it.

He accomplished the work the Father gave Him to do, and yet it was only laying a Finished Foundation of that Building which was to be built up throughout the ages.

It is far from being completed yet.

But the Foundation was complete.

He finished the work, and upon the altar of His own completed work which He had Himself erected, He laid Himself down to be the Propitiation and Sacrifice for the Sins of the Whole World.

It is finished! Hence it never needs to be repeated— "You may yet that He should offer Himself often ; but now once at the Consummation of the Ages hath He been manifested to PUT AWAY SIN by the Sacrifice of Himself."

I manifested Thy Name unto the men whom Thou gavest Me out of the world: Thine they were, and Thou gavest them to Me; and they have kept Thy Word.

Now they know that all things whatsoever Thou hast given Me are from Thee.

For the words which Thou gavest Me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from Thee, and they believed that Thou didst send Me.

The Christ's Appreciation of the Cooperation of His Apostles.

You see what a large, generous and loving appreciation He had of the cooperation of these weak and erring mortal men.

How all their faults and even the greater part of their errors are overlooked and cleansed, and how He presents them to the Father in the beautiful manner which makes them subjects worthy of the blessing.

If the Christ does not cleanse us, if the Holy Spirit does not cleanse us, we cannot come to the Father at all.

He cannot look upon iniquity and sinners by nature such as we have been but with horror.

He must hate the horrible depravity of humanity.

Unless we are presented by our Advocate we cannot be presented at any time blameless before the Throne of God.

Purity.

I had been thinking this morning of some words which deeply impressed me many years ago, and which I sometimes sing within my heart.
THE PRAYERS OF JESUS. 349

They have been with me all morning. It was dark when I arose.

There was no light of sun when these words came to my mind as I knelt before God, and asked for Purity, Peace and Power from above for the day's work here and in Chicago:

Eternal light! Eternal light!
How pure the heart must be,
When placed within Thy searching sight,
That it shrinks not, but with calm delight
Can live and look on Thee.

The Spirit that surrounds Thy Throne
May bear that burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
For they have never, never known
A faltered world like this.

Oh, how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
That uncreated beam?

There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode,
An Offering and a Sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God.

These, these prepare us for the sight
Of holiness above;
And sons of ignorance and night
Shall dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love.

The Christ Sees Beyond Our Weaknesses and Shortcomings.

We could never be worthy of being presented at all unless made so by the power of the Spirit, and through the intercession and all-sufficiency of the blood which was shed for us.

When you look at what these men were and know their feebleness, it is wonderful to see how the Christ transformed their feeble natures.

Even when He knew so well that in a few minutes they would all forsake Him and flee in the hour of His anguish and trouble, yet He sees beyond it.

He prays that their faith shall not fail.

He foresees the time when these weak men, a handful of fishermen and an ex-taxgatherer, endowed with the Holy Spirit, will go forth and overturn the religions and the political systems of the world.

Its philosophers and heathen Paganisms of ages will fall by the power of God through these simple men, for God in His Infinite Wisdom by the power of the Spirit, saves the world.

He foresees the time when these weak men, a handful of fishermen and an ex-taxgatherer, endowed with the Holy Spirit, will go forth and overturn the religions and the political systems of the world.

His philosophers and heathen Paganisms of ages will fall by the power of God through these simple men, for God in His Infinite Wisdom by the power of the Spirit, saves the world.

There are some of you who should be a blessing, who are a curse; because you go into your work in an unprepared spiritual condition.

You sometimes look out for other people, and, thinking of other people, you do not have any spiritual culture yourself.

You are miserable skin and bone, and spiritually feeble.

Get some power into yourselves before you undertake to instruct others.

Get some grace into yourselves before you undertake to instruct others.

There are some of you who should be a blessing, who are a curse; because you go into your work in an unprepared spiritual condition.

The most unselfish man is the man who first of all takes heed to himself.

You will never be of any use to others unless you do.

Get some food into yourselves before you undertake to work for others.

Get some grace into yourselves before you undertake to instruct others.

There are some of you who should be a blessing, who are a curse; because you go into your work in an unprepared spiritual condition.

Because there is a time when these weak men, a handful of fishermen and an ex-taxgatherer, endowed with the Holy Spirit, will go forth and overturn the religions and the political systems of the world.

And sons of ignorance and night
Shall dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love.

Begin Prayer With Yourselves.

Why did He pray for them and not for the world, in that Last Cry, ere He entered upon His agony?

Because there is a time when these weak men, a handful of fishermen and an ex-taxgatherer, endowed with the Holy Spirit, will go forth and overturn the religions and the political systems of the world.

There is a time for you to attend strictly to yourself, to your family, to your own business and the household of God.

You cannot be of any use to the world until you have attended strictly to your duty and prepared for those things which must always come first.

There are some people who begin by praying for the world.

That kind of prayer is of no use.

Why do they not start with themselves?

The first thing to be done is to obey the inspired direction, "Take heed to thyself!"

You will never be of any use to the flock, small or great, over which the Holy Spirit may make you overseer, unless you obey that command.

If a man does not take heed to himself, he will go to the Devil.

Look out for your own heart-cleansing first.

There Is a Divine and Wholly Righteous Selfishness.

See that your own heart is clean.

Give diligence to it.

Do not talk to wife or children, or any one else, until you have talked to God.

Seek every day the face of God before you see the face of man.

Be clean yourself.

"Take heed to thyself!"

The most unselfish man is the man who first of all takes heed to himself.

You will never be of any use to others unless you do.

Get some food into yourselves before you undertake to work for others.

Get some grace into yourselves before you undertake to instruct others.

There are some of you who should be a blessing, who are a curse; because you go into your work in an unprepared spiritual condition.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

Pray for yourself, and then pray for those nearest you.

Do not attempt to be a Zion Restorationist if you have neglected your wife and family.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

But that is surely theirs alone,
For they have never, never known
A faltered world like this.

Eternal light! Eternal light!
How pure the heart must be,
When placed within Thy searching sight,
That it shrinks not, but with calm delight
Can live and look on Thee.

The Spirit that surrounds Thy Throne
May bear that burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
For they have never, never known
A faltered world like this.

Oh, how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
That uncreated beam?

There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode,
An Offering and a Sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God.

These, these prepare us for the sight
Of holiness above;
And sons of ignorance and night
Shall dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love.

Then Pray for the Church of God.

Do good to all men as you have opportunity, especially to them that are of the household of faith.

The reason that Zion grows so rapidly is that we do attend diligently to the flock over which the Holy Spirit has made us General Overseer.

I have impressed it upon this people.

Let us, first of all, get right individually.

Let us get right in the family.

Let every one be saved in your family.

Do not attempt to be a Zion Restorationist if you have neglected your wife and family.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

Then, having attended to them, go out and look after the world.

"I pray for them," said the Redeemer in effect, "because He had to pray for them that when their faith was failing,

That is the reason why you should get the strength, the food, the health and the cleansing which will make you a help to others.

Pray for those to whom you are to go; but first pray for personal preparation.

Begin Prayer With Yourselves.

Why did He pray for them and not for the world, in that Last Cry, ere He entered upon His agony?

Because there is a time when these weak men, a handful of fishermen and an ex-taxgatherer, endowed with the Holy Spirit, will go forth and overturn the religions and the political systems of the world.

There is a time for you to attend strictly to yourself, to your family, to your own business and the household of God.

You cannot be of any use to the world until you have attended strictly to your duty and prepared for those things which must always come first.

There are some people who begin by praying for the world.

That kind of prayer is of no use.

Why do they not start with themselves?

The first thing to be done is to obey the inspired direction, "Take heed to thyself!"

You will never be of any use to the flock, small or great, over which the Holy Spirit may make you overseer, unless you obey that command.

If a man does not take heed to himself, he will go to the Devil.

Look out for your own heart-cleansing first.

There Is a Divine and Wholly Righteous Selfishness.

See that your own heart is clean.

Give diligence to it.

Do not talk to wife or children, or any one else, until you have talked to God.

Seek every day the face of God before you see the face of man.

Be clean yourself.

"Take heed to thyself!"

The most unselfish man is the man who first of all takes heed to himself.

You will never be of any use to others unless you do.

Get some food into yourselves before you undertake to work for others.

Get some grace into yourselves before you undertake to instruct others.

There are some of you who should be a blessing, who are a curse; because you go into your work in an unprepared spiritual condition.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

Pray for yourself, and then pray for those nearest you.

Do not attempt to be a Zion Restorationist if you have neglected your wife and family.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

But that is surely theirs alone,
For they have never, never known
A faltered world like this.

Eternal light! Eternal light!
How pure the heart must be,
When placed within Thy searching sight,
That it shrinks not, but with calm delight
Can live and look on Thee.

The Spirit that surrounds Thy Throne
May bear that burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
For they have never, never known
A faltered world like this.

Oh, how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
That uncreated beam?

There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode,
An Offering and a Sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God.

These, these prepare us for the sight
Of holiness above;
And sons of ignorance and night
Shall dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love.

Then Pray for the Church of God.

Do good to all men as you have opportunity, especially to them that are of the household of faith.

The reason that Zion grows so rapidly is that we do attend diligently to the flock over which the Holy Spirit has made us General Overseer.

I have impressed it upon this people.

Let us, first of all, get right individually.

Let us get right in the family.

Let every one be saved in your family.

Do not attempt to be a Zion Restorationist if you have neglected your wife and family.

That kind of man is of no account at all.

Then, having attended to them, go out and look after the world.

"I pray for them," said the Redeemer in effect, "because these men need praying for."

He was going away to leave them alone, and they were going to break down at the time of testing.

He had to pray for them that when their faith was failing,

Whilst He was attending to God's business in Hell that the Eternal Love and Light of Life would follow and bring them back to His Fold.
You do not know what trials and temptations your family are going to meet today.

Pray for them.

You do not know, when you part with them, that you will ever see them again, except upon the brink of death, or even not until they have crossed the River.

Pray for them.

You do not know what is going to happen.

Pray for them this morning.

Pray for the Church of God.

Then Go Out to Labor for Others.

Your labor for others will be powerful just in proportion as you have done your duty at home.

I pray not for the world, but for those whom Thou hast given Me.

The whole future of the Church of the living God, humanly speaking, depended upon how the Holy Spirit would use these twelve Apostles.

Only eleven of them would be left: for the Treasurer of the Apostolic College had sold out to the Devil.

Judas Iscariot would go to the Devil altogether, and, before the midnight hour, would be holding in his hand the price of the Master's blood.

Better out than in.

Pray for him.

Pray for the Church.

Are you praying for those in this place whom God has given us to be your companions in faith and hope and love, and in all the good works which flow from these, especially in the work of Zion Restoration House?

Are you ready to find a little fault with your brother and see only his deficiencies?

Pray for those nearest to you also, and never give up praying until you get the answer.

There Is a Divine Narrowness in Prayer.

You must be narrow.

The Gate of Life is narrow; but it leads out into Boundless Realms of Glory in the Life beyond.

The beginning of everything in connection with the Divine Life is narrow.

This Divine selfishness begins with yourself.

It does not end there when you are right with God.

Dare you go out, having neglected your duty, or dare you stay at home, having fulfilled your duty?

Go!

Go and get the blessing, but do not start with the world.

Start with yourself and God; then pray for your family, then for Zion City and the Church, and then for the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the whole world, and for the Restoration of all Men and all Things to God.

Do your whole duty to each other.

Pray for each other.

My first prayer and duty this morning is for you, not for the world.

I place great value upon the first hour of the week when we meet here, and I pray for you, and pour out my heart for you to God, and give such instruction as I can, because the key to the whole position in Zion is these first hours of the first day of the week.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer, after which all united in repeating the following

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

Our God and Father, in Jesus' Name, help us first to pray that we may be clean; that we may fulfill Thy Will; that we may be strong, so that the enemy shall not overcome us, even by our kindness and sympathy. Help us to be wise, strong, pure and good and overcome the evil, for Jesus' sake.

Make us this. Cleanse our hearts. Have mercy upon those who have sinned. Give us grace to be a power for Thee today, and let all be blessed who carry the Message of Peace to the homes of the sinful and have sinned.

Give us grace to be a power for Thee today, and let all be blessed who carry the Message of Peace to the homes of the sinful and have sinned.

Let the public service be blessed. For Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

The meeting was closed with the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever, Amen.

ZION’S BIBLE CLASS
Conducted by DEACON DANIEL SLOAN

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, JANUARY 21st or aad.

Though Disbelieved, Truth is Nevertheless a Reality.
1. Though men believe not in Salvation, it is nevertheless true.—John 8:12-14. Only the redeemed can say so.
The witness of man is true. The witness of God is greater.
2. Though men doubt God’s Word, it is true.—John 12:44-50. The word spoken is real. God speaks to every conscience. The Living Word goes where the written Word cannot.
3. Though persons receive not healing from every disease, Divine Healing is true.—Psalm 103:1-6. God is the Healer of every disease. Only one leper was healed in Syria. Every leper in Syria might have been healed.
4. Though men enjoy not a life of sanctification, it is true there is such a life.—Isaiah 55:8-10. The Way of Holiness is a real way. It has a full measure of real happiness in it. Only the children of God can talk of its joys.
5. Though men continue to be cursed by poverty, blessings from God are real.—Proverbs 10:14-22. It is not honorable to be poor. The Devil is the author of poverty. He wants His own to be rich.
6. Though women experience pain in child labor, salvation from it is a broad way.—Matthew 7:13, 14. Fear makes parturition hard. Ignorance entails serious consequences. Faith, love, cleanliness and thoughtfulness deliver one.
7. Though the churches have no power or effectiveness in evangelization, God speaks to every conscience. His wisdom is seen in every walk. Sickness is a gate to Hades, the grave. His presence is felt in every heart.
8. Though men talk against the existence of God, His Presence is true.—Psalm 14:1. God cannot deny Himself. His wisdom is seen in every walk. His presence is felt in every heart.

The Lord our God is a Faithful God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, JANUARY 23th.

The Way of the World.
1. It is a broad way.—Matthew 7:13, 14. It is a go-easy and go-quick way. One can stumble into it without thinking. Just follow the crowd and you will find it.
2. It is an evil way.—Proverbs 4:14-19. Evils that are vain. Evils that are secret. Evils that are devilish.
3. It is a dreamward way.—Proverbs 7:23-27. It does not take backbone to travel it. He who follows it never has to say no. Step by step, one loses self-respect in it.
4. It is a delusive way.—Proverbs 16:22-25. The Devil says “have fun,” but his advice is folly. The Devil says “be happy,” but grief is the reward of his follower. The Devil says “there is no harm,” but death comes surely.
6. It is a substitute way.—John 10:1-5. The world has a way out of sickness. The world has a way out of need. The world has a way out of need.
7. It is a go-easy and go-quick way.—Psalm 103:1-6. God’s Holy People are a World-Hating People.

Good Earnings and Profits are assured on these Investments.

DESCRIPTION: printed matter, with full particulars, mailed upon application. Correspondence solicited, and personal interviews invited.

DEACON DANIEL SLOAN, Manager, Zion Securities and Investments, Zion Administration Building, ZION CITY, ILLINOIS.
January 1, 1903, has come and gone, and while tens of thousands of yearly subscribers have been added to our lists, we have not attained the mark which we believe God led us to set before us.

We are going forward in the new year, however, with thanksgiving to God, with renewed hope, stronger faith, more complete consecration and a firmer determination to reach the goal, God helping us.

The six months' campaign just closed has been a seed sowing and preparation, very largely, and the harvest is just beginning.

Zion is praying, working, waiting, "Till He Come," and one of the most effective ways in which to hasten His coming is by the extension of the circulation of Leaves of Healing.

Therefore, let all Zion everywhere hold up the hands of the Prophet foretold by Moses, the Messenger of God's Covenant, Elijah the Restorer, the "Strong Messenger" of the Times of the End, by praying and working, every day of the year, for new subscribers to Leaves of Healing, which carry forth the Streams of Life from Shiloah to all the ends of the earth.

This work is of supreme importance in these times.

Keep ever in view the watchword:
ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND YEARLY SUBSCRIBERS TO LEAVES OF HEALING.

One Hundred Thousand Yearly Subscribers to Leaves of Healing
ZION IN SOUTH AFRICA

ZION'S GLORIOUS BANNER has been floating in South Africa for years. It was carried to that land of gold and precious stones, and planted in its cities, villages and hamlets, not by the hand of man, but by the Spirit of God Himself, working through that silent but effective Messenger, LEAVES OF HEALING.

Into the midst of its cosmopolitan population—men of every race and color and well-nigh every nation—the Little White Dove came bearing upon its wings the Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God, the Message of God's Covenant from His Divinely-commissioned Messenger.

The Message was one which appealed to the sturdy pioneers of that country, so full of resources and of dangers; for it was a Message full of vigor, virility and power.

Those who learned to love the Message began to meet together in many places for mutual help and encouragement.

Others who were interested began to meet with them. Gatherings thus formed became centers of distribution for Zion Literature. Sinners were brought to Repentance and Salvation; apostates were restored to God; the sick began to be healed in answer to the prayers of the faithful brethren and sisters, and in answer to the prayers of the General Overseer, besought by cable and by mail. Then the war-clouds began to gather. Husbandmen, miners and builders began to give way to troops of armed men.

The hum of peaceful industry gave way to the rattle of arms and the din of preparation for strife.

Through it all the Little White Dove continued its weekly visits, and by the mighty but gentle influence of the Gospel of Peace, hatred and the murderous passions engendered by war were kept from the hearts of thousands.

The awful storm...
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Through that Little White Dove these blessings came to thousands.

At last the war ceased.

The task of building up all that has been destroyed, of restoring the industries and agriculture of the land to their former productiveness, has been taken up with splendid energy and courage by the victors and the vanquished.

Families long scattered have been reunited, and Gatherings of the members and friends of Zion, broken up by the war, are being resumed.

Zion Literature and faithful messengers of Zion Restoration Host continue to extend the borders of Zion in South Africa.

New Gatherings are being formed in many places and former Gatherings are growing in number and power.

As is always the case when the true people of God go forward, the Devil is angry.

Those over whom he has control in the world and the apostate churches are fighting, but God is giving victory to Zion.

We present, upon the front page of this paper, a photograph of the members of the sturdy little Gathering of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Durban, and there follows these introductory words a letter from a former member of the Gathering who is now in Sweden.

The man standing in the middle of the line of those standing in the rear, the fourth from either end, is Mr. W. Larger, the writer of the letter which we publish.

The middle one of the three men seated on the ground in front is Mr. Thomas Clarke, mentioned in Mr. Larger's letter, secretary and treasurer of the Gathering.

The three ladies are Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Kennedy.

God has a wonderful future for the great Continent of Africa.

Through the great Anglo-Saxon nations, God's true Israel, the great gateways of that land are being opened up for the Gospel and for the work of Restoration.

The Cape-to-Cairo railway, so long planned, will no doubt be a fact.

The untold resources of mineral wealth, and the great possibilities of agricultural and industrial development in Africa have scarcely been touched.

Zion, as a great Industrial and Commercial Power; Zion, as an instrument in God's hands for the Restoration to Him, to whom it belongs, and to His service, of the wealth of this earth, is beginning to make itself felt throughout the world, just at this time, when that vast storehouse of treasure, laid up for so many centuries, is being opened.

This little Gathering at Durban, and many others in South and North Africa, are but the brave and consecrated outposts of a mighty Restoration Host, which will one day sweep through that land and restore it to God.

ZION IN DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA.

DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA.

My Dear General Overseer—God bless you!

Just a few lines to let you know the glad tidings that Zion in Durban is marching forward.

Glory to God!

Enclosed please find two applications, one for fellowship in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, the other one for recognition of Gathering.

My heart is full of praise tonight, in knowing that never has it not been in vain.

God is doing wonderful things for us and through us.

Many are beginning to listen to the truth.

Many are beginning to curse, howl and blame me, my beloved General Overseer, for being the cause of the trouble we are making in Durban.

Night before last at our open-air meeting we were almost mobbed by an angry crowd, but we came out rejoicing.

Hallelujah!

There are no devils got a black eye.

They howled fearfully.

The fighting has begun in earnest.

The Devil is very foolish.

This last disturbance will open the eyes of many honest-thinking persons to see that God is on our side.

At last week's open-air meeting, they acted on the same principle.

The result was that our brother, T. Clarke, saw that God was with us, and left the Methodist church at once.

Now he praises God for leading him to Zion.

He is in a man of God.

He has been one of the chief workers in the Methodist church.

Many will follow his example.

He gave his testimony tonight, in tears, saying that often he has spent the whole night with God, praying for help, but he says: God told me,' get out of the Methodist church, for the Methodist church is not the true church.

He is a man of God.

He has been one of the chief workers in the Methodist church.

Many will follow his example.

He gave his testimony tonight, in tears, saying that often he has spent the whole night with God, praying for help, but he says: "God told me, 'get out of the Methodist church, for the Methodist Episcopal church is dead.'"

Thank God for Zion!

The work of the Restorationists is also progressing.

Now we have six workers going out two and two.

I will leave South Africa next month, God willing, for Sweden first, and then to Finland.

God helping me, I shall lift up the Banner of Zion in those lands.

I intend to stay here as long as I have, but the Lord has kept me so busy that I could not go away.

Now I feel satisfied to go, for Zion is, by the grace of God, firmly established in Durban.

Thy God Reigneth! Hallelujah!

Pray for me that I may be led aright at all times and everywhere, till Jesus comes.

Yours in Jesus,

W. LARGER.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him.

To all that call upon Him in truth.

He will fulfill the desire of them that fear Him.

He will also hear their cry and will save them.

—Psalm 145:19,18.

ZION’S BIBLE CLASS

Conducted by DEACON DANIEL SLOAN

MONDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, JANUARY 28th or 29th.

Generating Vipers.

1. Whispers.—Proverbs 16:32; 33.
Whispers are as a diabolic whispering of a vulture.
Whispers break up confidences.
It is a wicked spirit that does this.

2. Slander.—Proverbs 10:11-12.
Blackening the reputation of a person is sin.
Uttering an evil report against him is wrong.
This is manifesting an evil spirit.

Answering the folly of a fool is folly.
When you want to speak against a person, do it in his presence.
Not to be willing to do this proves your wickedness.

Hatred is the deadly venom of the heart.
It charms by fair words only to sting.
This spirit shutthim out of heaven.

Why should we wish any one harm?
Evil will always slay the wicked.
It is better to pray for enemies than to curse them.

Anger is none else than the fire of hell.
It shows something wrong in the spirit.
Hasty words come from an evil heart.

A man full of madness is a fool.
What harm one can then do!
Destruction and death is in his way.

There are many wicked spirits.
A strife-maker is a bad person.
Who they who work sedition, work great harm.

The Lord our God is a tongue-warming God.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"MY PEOPLE SHALL NEVER BE ASHAMED!"

This is the Promise of God concerning His people in the Latter Days.

It is twice given through the Prophet Joel:

And ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied.
And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel,
And that I am Jehovah your God,
And there is none else:
And my people shall never be ashamed.

Zion rejoices every day in the fulfillment of this Divine Assurance and Promise.

We are not ashamed!
All the powers of earth and hell have never been able to put Zion to shame!

Be glad then, ye children of Zion,
And rejoice in Jehovah your God:
For He giveth you the Former Rain in just measure,
And He causeth to come down for you the Rain,
The Former Rain and the Latter Rain,
In the First Month.

We are realizing every day, although only nine days of the first month of this New Year have passed away, that "the Latter Rain" is indeed coming plenteously upon us.

First of all it comes in Spiritual Showers of Blessing,
We feel it right to say that from every side we hear of Great Blessing received by our own dear people during the All-Night with God at the closing and opening of the year.

The report of that Gathering appears in this issue, and we trust it will be blessed to multitudes throughout the world.

It is of course impossible in so brief a space to give in detail the many prayers that were offered at the various points of the meeting, the long telegrams and cablegrams and letters that were read or referred to, and the details of many addresses, which are only briefly alluded to.

But even this report will convey something of the nature of... the first of the great All-Night Assemblies held in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City.

Humanly speaking, it could not have been more successful, and, in its way, more effective for blessing.

The week now closing has been an exceedingly busy one in connection with the administration of Zion's affairs at Headquarters, in arranging large numbers of matters and in providing for future needs in many directions.

The Rev. William Hamner Piper, late Overseer-in-Charge of Zion's Educational Institutions, has been appointed Overseer in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion for the New England States.

He will leave Zion City, God willing, about Monday or Tuesday, January 18th or 20th, accompanied by his wife and family, whom he will leave for a short time in New Jersey to visit relatives.

He will at once proceed to Boston and take charge of the work in that city, and make it his Headquarters, extending his labors over the states of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.

He will deliver his first discourse, God willing, in Boston on Lord's Day, January 25th.

Accompanied by our excellent Presiding Elder for the same field, Rev. Daniel Bryant, he will visit a number of the Branches during the two weeks following, of which due notice will be given from the New England Headquarters in Boston.

The Rev. Daniel Bryant will take charge of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Cincinnati as early as possible in the month of February, after making a brief visit to Headquarters in Zion City.

The Rev. F. A. Graves has been appointed Elder-in-Charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

He will be accompanied by his excellent wife, Evangelist Vina Peck-Graves, whose healing is one of the most wonderful miracles of Divine grace ever recorded in these pages.

They will leave Zion City, God willing, on Monday, January 12th, and enter at once upon their labors.

The Rev. Harvey D. Brasefield, Ph. B., has been appointed Vice-president of Zion College and of all Zion's Educational Institutions, in the place of Overseer Piper, transferred, as above noted.

Professor Brasefield brings to this office the very highest qualities of mind, and heart and character.

He has for some time been a Lecturer and the Registrar of Zion College, and is thoroughly acquainted with the work which he has done so much to organize.

We welcome to Zion his bride, whom he has brought with him from his brief Christmas holiday, and who has had much experience also in Educational Work, and is well qualified to aid him effectually.

We have resumed, in our Restoration Messages, delivered on the Lord's Day in the Chicago Auditorium, the Unveiling of the Apostasies.

Next Lord's Day afternoon at 3 p. m., we shall deliver the first of a Series of Discourses, unveiling the Methodist Apostasy.

We shall deal with the Apostolic John Wesley, and the Beginnings of Methodism.

We come to this task after very many years of careful study of the whole subject, and of wide observation as to the present condition of Methodism throughout the world.

Our attention, however, will be principally given to the apostate condition of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Northern States of America.

Its degraded condition, bound hand and foot as it is to the Masonic order, to which the Bishops and highest officers belong, is one of the great causes of its terrible apostasy.

On the 25th of January, the last Lord's Day in this month, a Great Praise and Testimony Meeting will be held in the Chicago Auditorium, under the presidency of Rev. J. G. Speicher, M. D., Overseer over Zion City, of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

We desire all who have been Saved and Healed and Blessed, and who desire to Record their Testimony, to communicate with Overseer Speicher, and to fill up the Testimony Cards, which will be sent to all Zion Tabernacles in and around Chicago, not later than Lord's Day, January 18th.

On Lord's Day, February 22d, the Seventh Anniversary of the Organization of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, will be celebrated, as far as possible, throughout all Zion Tabernacles by Special Discourses on the words:

Jehovah hath founded Zion,
And in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge. (Isaiah 14:32.)

We shall deliver the Anniversary Discourse in the Chicago Auditorium on that day.

On the following day, Monday, February 23d, the legal anniversary of George Washington's Birthday, Special Excursion Trains will leave Chicago for Zion City to further celebrate the Seventh Anniversary.

A great gathering and full services will be held in Shiloh
LEAVES OF HEALING

Saturday, January 10, 1903.

Tabernacle at 2 p.m. on that day, and we shall speak on Zion’s Mission to All Men.

Return trains will leave soon after 5 o’clock.

IT IS EXPECTED that the large New Depot of the Chicago & North-Western railway at Zion City will be ready for occupancy on that day, and we shall hold a Consecration Service at the depot on the arrival of the first train from Chicago.

IN THE Editorial Notes of our last issue, Saturday, January 3d, we gave grateful thanks to God that He had “opened the windows of heaven” and was pouring out a blessing in connection with Zion’s finances.

WE THEN published, on page 331, letters from our General Financial Manager, Deacon Charles J. Barnard, and Deacon Daniel Sloan, Manager of Zion Securities and Investments, showing that, from the first day of December, 1902, to the 2nd day of January, 1903, subscriptions for shares in Zion’s various Industries and Institutions had been received to the amount of $302,700.

WE NOW have the joy of being able to thank God for still larger proportionate blessing in the fact that during the week we have received further subscriptions to the amount of $111,600, making the total, since the 2d of December, $414,300.

IN CONNECTION with this we subjoin the following letter from Deacon Sloan:

Dear General Overseer:

At the request of Deacon Charles J. Barnard, General Financial Manager, I hereby report to you that at the close of today’s business the total number of shares in Zion’s Institutions and Industries subscribed for since December 1st, amounts to Four Hundred Fourteen Thousand Three Hundred Dollars ($414,300), with constant accessions daily coming in.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Daniel Sloan,
Manager Zion Securities and Investments.

It is evident that our friends everywhere recognize that we have been fully justified in sending Zion Stocks to a premium of Ten Dollars per share from March 1st next.

WE SHALL continue to receive applications for Stocks of every kind, during this month of January, at the par value of One Hundred Dollars.

Should the remainder of the month be at the same rate as the first week in it, we shall probably be able to report subscriptions to the amount of three quarters of a million dollars ($750,000).

This, however, is with God, with our people, and with Friends of Zion; for the subscription-list is open to those who are friendly to Zion, even though not members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

OF THE Stock subscribed, the sum of $53,500 has been already paid, and we should be glad if our friends, whom it may not inconvenience, would as quickly as possible pay for their stock.

The 1st of March is the date set for the payment of all subscriptions, except where further delay is found reasonable and desirable.

WE DESIRE to put all our organizations on as strong a footing as possible before the Spring opens, and clear the way for the bringing forth of a new one, ZION CITY BUILDING AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION, to which we referred in our last issue, in the following words:

We hope to be able, during March or April, to organize the New Association, upon which so much will depend this year in Zion, namely: THE ZION CITY BUILDING AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION, of which we shall fix the capital at One Million Dollars ($1,000,000).

We hope to raise at least Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) of this sum not later than April first, and as much as possible before that date.

The shares will be only Twenty Dollars each, and this will enable our workmen to take a large number of them.

After making every proper provision, and a tithe of the profits being set aside for Zion, all the net profits will be divided in equal proportions between the workmen and the stockholders.

The details of this project will appear in due time.

We will probably have from five to ten millions of dollars’ worth of buildings to erect in Zion City within two years.

WE TRUST that our friends will give careful attention to some remarks that we felt it our duty to utter last Lord’s Day afternoon, after the conclusion of the Lord’s Supper, during which we usually have a brief friendly talk with our people concerning Zion in General.

WE ARE deeply convinced that the time for realization has now come, and that the condition of the money market will warrant our friends expecting good prices in the sale of their lands.

But these prices are not as good as they were nine months, or even six months ago.

They will not be likely to be better for some time, but probably lower: for agricultural real estate had reached its highest point, and probably even a little higher than was warranted.

We trust that there will be no holding out for the very highest price; for the profitable nature of the Investments in Zion will more than compensate for a little loss in price.
ALREADY MANY visitors are coming to Zion City, who are making arrangements for building.

A considerable number of houses is being projected on Shiloh Boulevard, which will cost from seven to twelve thousand dollars each.

WITHIN A VERY short time Shiloh Boulevard, from Edina Park to Shiloh Park, will be built up, except the portions which we have reserved for large buildings.

THE FOUR CORNERS, at the intersection of Shiloh Boulevard and Elijah Avenue, are being planned to be the sites of four great buildings.

One of these will be a fire-proof structure, of elegant design, in which will be contained the General Overseer's Offices and the Offices of the Overseer for Women's Work in Zion throughout the World.

Fire-proof vaults will be constructed, in which will be placed the Archives of the City of Zion, etc.

There will also be large Council Rooms, the office of the General Overseer's Private Secretary, and his Correspondence and Literary Staff; the offices of the General Ecclesiastical Secretary, and the General Recorder of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

It is probable that this block of Offices will eventually extend northward along Elijah Avenue for some distance.

It is expected that they will be of steel construction, faced with white stone or marble, and they will be one of the beautiful architectural features of the city.

It is hoped that a Public Library, Central Postoffice and a Building for Zion City Bank and Financial Institutions will occupy the other three corners.

A GENERAL PLAN is being prepared by Architect Paul Burkhart for beautiful ornamental features of this important location, and a beautiful design is being prepared for a Memorial Monument to our beloved daughter Esther, in the center of Shiloh Boulevard, with a Fountain of ever-flowing waters for the thirsty.

These plans will necessarily take some considerable time to carry out; but we love to have our people informed when any plans have been determined upon which will be for the convenience or beautifying of God's City, this lovely City of Zion.

The Memorial will consist of the ideal figure of Zion so well known to our friends throughout the world, and which,—it is now an open secret—was designed by our Zion Artist, Deacon Charles Champe, from a study of the features and form of our beloved daughter.

We have a strong conviction that the beautiful in art is permitted to us by God.

The commandment against graven images and their worship stands forever true.

It does not, however, apply to an unfolding of Divine beauty in marble when it breathes a pure and Heavenly thought, through forms that are but copies of Divine creations.

It is impossible to conceive of life without beauty, since God creates not only the things that are good, but clothes them with most lovely forms.

From the grass which He clothes with lilies to the blue vault of the Heavens above us, He adorns His Creations with the countless glories of galaxies of stars, where, although one star differs from another in glory, yet all are brilliant jewels in the sky.

O HOW WONDERFUL and beautiful is the creation of God, in all things Spiritual, Animal and Material alike, leading the thoughtful and reverent spirit to find Themes for Praise in All God's works, from the deepest depths of ocean to the highest peak of mountain.

Proclaiming, as all Divine handiwork does, the love and goodness of Him who not only creates things that are beautiful, but makes them Joys forever:

For countless Voices far and wide
Sing sweet beneath the Sky—
All that is Beautiful shall abide,
All that is Base shall die.

Much thought is being given by us and by our Architectural Department to designs for God's Temple in Zion.

We consecrated the Site on July 14, 1900.

We hope to lay the Foundation Stone on July 14, 1903.

This Glorious Temple of Zion will be the crown of Zion in every way.

It is that from which everything in Zion will radiate.

All the eight great Avenues and Boulevards of the city concentrate there.

Around it we hope to gather a pile of noble buildings, which will be used for the training and sending forth of thousands of members of Zion Restoration Host, of Zion Messengers to every land, and of Officers of every rank for the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

A School of Languages will be built, where Initial Training will be given by Native Teachers before sending Messengers out into distant lands, where they are utterly helpless until taught, and where they have to acquire the rudimentary grammar and vocabulary of languages under special difficulties.

Museums of Antiquities and Present-day Surroundings, illustrating Ancient Bible Histories and Modern National Conditions all over the world, will also be formed and grouped around the Temple.

Halls of Training for children, and youths, and maidens, in Zion Restoration work will also be constructed on one of the eight points at the intersection of the Eight Great Avenues which radiate throughout the City from the Temple.

But the Temple of God in the City of Zion is the greatest of all our projects: for there we hope to gather, within a few years at least, 30,000 worshipers at one time.

The solemn acts of Praise and Prayer and the Celebrations of the Ordinances of Baptism, of the Lord's Supper and of the Presentation and Consecration of Young Children to God, will acquire a higher, holier and more inspiring meaning.

The Church in all her great and solemn services, will more and more realize the Majesty and Glory and Beauty and Power of the Presence and Purity and Peace of God.

O Jehovah, God of Hosts,
Who is the Mighty One,
Like unto Thee, O Jehovah?
And Thy Faithfulness is round about Thee.
Thou rulest the Pride of the Sea:
When the Waves thereof arise, Thou stillest them.

The Heavens are Thine, the Earth also is Thine:
The World and the Fullness thereof,
Thou hast Founded them.

Thou hast a Mighty Arm:
Strong is Thy Hand, and high is Thy Right Hand.
Righteousness and Judgment are the Foundation of Thy Throne:
Mercy and Truth go before Thy face.
Blessed is the people that know the Trumpet Sound:
They walk, O Jehovah, in the Light of Thy Countenance.
In Thy Name do they Rejoice all the day:
And in Thy Righteousness are they exalted.

For our Shield belongeth unto Jehovah;
Even to the Holy One of Israel our King.

We are deeply convinced that the Temple of God, and its solemn services will be a Glorious Preparation for that Time and that Generation when thousands shall go forth from many Zion Cities to rebuild the Temple of God at Jerusalem, and to sweep away the Dome of the Rock which now covers the Sacred Site over which the Crescent flag of the False Prophet floats.

Political, Scientific, Financial and Military Events are now proceeding throughout the world with great rapidity, and they are forming themselves into combinations and conditions favorable to our Mission as Elijah the Restorer.

All things point to the preparation of a "People Prepared" for the Coming of the Christ our King.

Elijah the Tishbite as Destroyer, Elijah the Baptist as Preparer, must also find expression in Elijah the Restorer; for however mysterious and difficult to understand, these three are one and the same person, since Elijah is the Prophet of All Time.

It is a joy to live and toil and plan and work and bring about, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Events foretold by Prophets in all the ages, who have spoken of these Times in which we live—"The Times of the Restoration of All Things, which God hath promised by the Mouth of all His Holy Prophets, since the world began."

We know that God hath given us the Spirit of Wisdom and of Knowledge and of a Sound Mind.

We rejoice that we are able to apply these graces, which are all of God, to the conditions and circumstances and common duties, which must be performed in the round of our daily life and in doing the work committed to us, as the Leader, under God, of the Forces of Zion's Restoration Host, now in its formative stage.

It must very soon grow into an Exceeding Great Host, who shall go forth in vast numbers to win from every Kindred and Tribe and Tongue and Nation, multitudes to serve the King under the Banner of Zion.

From the Watch Tower we once more send forth the Answer to the cry: "Watchman, what of the night?"
It is the old and beautiful Answer:
The Morning cometh, And also the Night:
If ye will inquire, inquire ye; Turn ye, Come!"

Let the Answer to the Burden of Dumah to him who calleth out of Seir, come with Power in these Times of the Restoration.

The Burden of Dumah is the Burden of Silence.

We have long been silent concerning much that God has revealed to us.

But the Time for Speech has now come; the Time to demand that men shall everywhere "turn" to God, and "come" into the fold of the Christ, the Good Shepherd, who gave His life for the sheep.

We consecrate ourselves with a Deeper Devotion, a Calmer Faith, a Brighter Hope, and Puruer Love, to the Service of Him to Whom all our life and love belongs, and under Whose Banner we shall calmly go forward, doing His Will whatever betide,

Till He Come.

Brethren, pray for us.
"TILL HE COME," the Watchword of Zion throughout the World for 1903, was the subject of a very deeply significant and powerful Message from Elijah the Restorer, the forerunner whom God has sent to herald His coming, delivered in the presence of between four and five thousand people at the Chicago Auditorium Lord's Day afternoon, January 4, 1903.

It was a Message of warning to those who rebel against God and refuse to obey Him; to those who, full of self and greed, and the pursuit of pleasure, harden their hearts against Him, and pass by with indifference the claims of the Coming One; to those who, professing to love Him, refuse to believe His Word, "I will come again;" to those who, even professing belief in His coming, go about the ordinary pursuits of life, saying to themselves and to one another: "The Master delayeth His coming."

It was a Message of inspiration, consolation, encouragement and intense joy to those who have heard the words of His Messenger, who have recognized his Divine Commission, to whom God by His Spirit has opened the mysteries of Divine prophecy, sealed up for centuries, to those who are waiting, watching, and working "Till He Come."

It was a wonderful Message in the light of Divine revelation, and of the mission which He has given to the Messenger of His Covenant in these last days.

As the first Elijah stood amongst the apostate and Baal-worshiping priests of ancient Israel, and declared "Jehovah, the Coming One, is my God;" as John the Baptist, the second Elijah, stood in the wilderness and upon the banks of the Jordan amidst the apostate priests of his day, and declared, "Jehovah, the Coming One, is my God;" so this third and last Elijah stands in these last days, in a great modern metropolis, from whence his Voice goes forth to all the earth, and rings in the ears of Baal-worshiping apostates everywhere, "Jehovah, the Coming One, is my God."

It was this Declaration, fearlessly and boldly made, and proved from the Word of God, which made the Message of that Lord's Day afternoon such a mighty power in the spirits of those who heard.

As a prelude to his Message, the General Overseer took up and completely demolished the first editorial lie of the Chicago Tribune for 1903: "As a visible asset, Dowieism has shrunk somewhat in the year just closed."

With masterly skill the General Overseer marshaled his facts, showing clearly and convincingly the phenomenal, almost incredible, increase in the visible assets of Zion during the year 1902.

As the speaker produced fact after fact, figure after figure, his keen wit emphasizing the points he made, and exposing the absurd and ridiculous nature of the Tribune's lie, the great audience—members, friends, visitors and foes alike—were first indignant, then compelled to laugh at the liar with contempt and derision.

This contemptuous laughter reached its climax as the General Overseer, mocking his enemy like Elijah of old, invited him to stand upon the platform, taking advantage of an offer of protection and respectful hearing, and take ten minutes in an attempt to prove that there had been any shrinkage in the visible assets of Zion during the last year. At the close of his prelude, the man of God called upon all those who were in sympathy with him in his reply to the Tribune to rise to their feet, and there were so few exceptions that they were scarcely discernible as the people enthusiastically responded.

At the close of the Message, nearly three thousand people gathered, with their leader, about the Lord's Table, and partook of the Sacred Emblems of His broken body and shed blood, observing this Ordinance of Him, thus showing forth His death "Till He Come."

There was great spiritual blessing as the General Overseer, assisted by Overseers, Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, distributed the elements.

The General Overseer's post-communion "family talk," like all the other services of this memorable day, was full of rich spiritual food for his people.

Then the parting hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," was sung, and with the Benediction and Zion's Salutation, "Peace to thee," and Response, "Peace to thee be multiplied," the service was closed.

The services were opened by Zion White-robed Choir and Zion Robed Officers entering the Auditorium, singing, as they came, the words of the PROCESIONAL.

"Forward! be our watchword," steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 10, 1903.

The Holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

READING OF GOD'S COMMANDMENTS.

The General Overseer then read, very impressively, the Eleven Commandments, the Choir and Congregation recently singing the response, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
II. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I, Jehovah, thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy ox, nor thy ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

XI. A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

The Choir then chanted the

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father Everlasting,
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth,
To Thee all the Company of the Apostles praise Thee.

Our Lord is now rejected,
And by the world disowned,
By the many still neglected,
And by the few enshrined;
But soon He'll come in Glory,
The hour is drawing nigh,
For the Crowning Day is coming by-and-by.

Chorus—Oh, the Crowning Day is coming,
Is coming by-and-by,
When our Lord shall come in * Power*.
And Glory from on high,
Oh, the glorious sight will gladden,
Each waiting, watchful eye,
In the Crowning Day that's coming by-and-by.

RECITALION OF CREED.

The General Overseer then led the Choir and Congregation in the recitation of the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus, the Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost;
Baptized in the river Jordan;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate;
Was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father; Amen.

And the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine Adorable, True and Only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
Thou art the Everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin:
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants;
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine heritage;
Govern them and lift them up forever.
Day by day we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

The General Overseer then read in the Inspired Word of God, first the 95th and 96th Psalms, then the 14th chapter of the Gospel according to John, the first twenty-eight verses, closing with the prayer,
May God bless His Word.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer, after which the announcements were made.

Among other things the General Overseer said:

This Table is the Lord's.

This Table of the Lord does not belong to the Church but to God. If you are sure that you have repented of all your sins, that you are humbly trusting in the Christ for Salvation, and that, as God gives you grace, you are living a life of consecration to God, then this is your Table, for it is the Table of the Lord to which He freely invites all His children. I throw the burden of this upon every communicant. We do not desire any persons to remain, except those who will partake of the Communion.

We have no place for spectators and critics at such a time as this. The Lord's Table is a place for the Lord's people. It is not a spectacle or a show for those who are not His. It is an Ordinance instituted by the Christ Himself. When our Lord first administered it, the doors were shut, and He administered it to His own apostles. It is quite true that we also might have a Judas among us as He had among the twelve. Nevertheless, Judas was an apostle, ordained as an apostle, and doubtless had he not been greedy and a thief, he would have remained faithful.

He was the treasurer and a thief.

What a Foolish Thing it is to be a Thief!

There is nothing so foolish, because the man who steals knows that he stands upon the verge of detection at all times, and that his laughter may be turned into ghastly terror by the heavy hand of the law upon his shoulder. He knows that at any time he may be plunged into the darkness of the prison, and into disgrace, oftentimes worse than death. What a stupid thing it is for a man to steal, who, if he works honestly, can always get enough to support himself! If I were not honest because it is right, I should be honest because it is politic. For mere worldly comfort I should want to be honest. I, however, am honest, and I hope you are, because it is right. If there were no better way to put it, I should say that it is a stupid thing to be a thief.

It is a miserable thing, I should imagine, to be a thief. I never took much stock in the repentance of a thief, just arrested for his crime, who cried and made piteous appeals and wanted to be set at liberty.

The biggest thieves are never caught in the meshes of the law.

Many of the biggest thieves are to be found among the lawyers. I once made an offer of bonds for a very large sum to secure the payment to parties to my offer to lease a certain large building in this city for Zion purposes. We were frightened for their lives almost when they got that offer.

They represented the first mortgagee. The second and third mortgagees held an enormous interest in it, but the first wanted to steal it, and his representatives refused my offer.

Why? Because, if they had accepted it, it would have taken that splendid building out of the hands of the first mortgagee—a thief who afterwards got it, having frozen out the others. I could put my hand upon that lawyer and his client, but what is the use? It was all stolen under the forms of law. There is a whole room of these unclean devils down there near the Board of Trade.

Wait until I get my Zion Law Department in order. I think I will try some conclusions with some of them when they are trying to rob some widow, orphan, or stranger in Zion.

They are careful to keep out of my way. What a splendid field there is for fighting lawyers and other thieves of that kind—it is a "good fight" for consecrated and able Christian lawyers. I once saw this sign on a hotel in Australia, "AN HON-EST LAWYER." I looked very closely at it, and found that the honest lawyer was dead. His head had been cut off, and he was carrying it under his arm.

What a field there is for splendid lawyers who want to do right. What a splendid field there is, for instance, in the codification of the laws of the United States, which would enable the humblest citizen to know what the law was upon any subject. You will never get that as long as you have so many lawyers in the legislature. It would kill them, destroy their profession absolutely, if ordinary men of intelligence could understand the law. They want to have it so that no one on earth can understand it, and thus cause endless litigation.

A simple codification of the law on all the most important matters could be made within a year by half a dozen honest lawyers, and sweep out the whole of the muck of centuries. That would not pay the legal profession. They might have to dig potatoes, or do something else that would be honest. You will never get good laws while you fill the legislatures with lawyers. Still there are fine Christian men who are lawyers, thank God for that! We have some in Zion.

Thank God for that! Pray for us.

A Few Words About Mother Stewart.

I was very much astonished to find our good Mother Stewart here again today. She is not satisfied with three score years and ten, nor with four score, but she is demanding four score years and ten. She is nearly there now—eighty-seven. She may demand five score years. May God grant that she will get added blessing with every added year.

Mother Stewart—"I have plead more than one case in court and won every one, too."

General Overseer—If we had a number of good women for lawyers they would be far better than these dirty stinkpots.

"Laughter and applause."

Nice fellows they are to take your case in the morning after fooling around on a goat at night. Mother Stewart, I wish you were young—I would make you, if you were as good a lawyer as you are a true Christian, General Counsel of Zion.

I know of your old-time eloquence in advocating Christian Temperance. There would be comparatively little use for you in Zion City on that point, for all are abstainers there. But then we could go after the enemy outside our walls, as indeed we do.

Mother Stewart will come back again to the earth with the Lord, and she will be so young you will not know her. She is really the founder of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, although not usually given the credit that she ought to be given in the literature of temperance workers.

She led the great Christian Temperance Crusades in Ohio, and in this country years ago, preceding the origin of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Dear Mother Stewart has lived a long and beautiful life.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 10, 1903.

She has been with us in Zion for some years, and is an ordained Elder of this Church.

I am always delighted to see her.

I never miss a chance to have her say something to you.

However, before she speaks I want to ask you to say Amen to what I say.

God bless Mother Stewart!

Voices—"Amen."

A Few Words from Mother Stewart.

Mother Stewart—"I have but a word or two.

"I have ridden a hobby-horse for many years—the liquor question.

"Do you know that every time you smoke a cigar you rob God? You know it.

"Every time you drink a glass of liquor, you are robbing God.

"Ye have robbed God, saith the Word, this whole nation, for ye have robbed Him in tithes and offerings.

"If you would give God what you have been laying out for liquor, cigars and tobacco, we would have this Auditorium almost filled with dollars.

"Think of it! How the world is hungering for the Christ today!

"The doors are opening everywhere.

"If you will close out the liquor business and tobacco business, we will have ships laden with missionaries from among your young people here, carrying the Word of God to all the Nations.

"Then how soon would our Christ come.

"Through the long weary years He has brought me to this beautiful day, and He has brought me into Zion as the sunset of life is shining upon me.

"Thank you, my brother and son.

"Thank you, dear friends, 'Till He Come.'"

The tithes and offerings were then received, after which the General Overseer said:

Before I deliver my brief discourse today, I have a little prelude, which as you probably know, has been announced in the daily press, in these words:

PRELUDE—A FEW WORDS ON THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE'S FIRST EDITORIAL LIE CONCERNING ZION FOR 1903: "AS A VISIBLE ASSET DOWIEISM HAS SHRUNK SOMEWHAT IN THE YEAR JUST CLOSED."

For myself personally and for Zion, and indeed for Chicago, it is not at all necessary that I should take notice of this, but I sometimes speak regarding these attacks, which every one in Chicago, who has any knowledge, knows are lies.

I speak for the sake of my people in all parts of this continent and every continent beneath the sun.

The flag of Zion is floating on every continent, in almost every nation, and in many islands of the seas.

Purpose of the Lie.

The purpose of this editorial lie of the Chicago Tribune is to damage Zion in her Commercial Department throughout the world.

I therefore do not propose to take that impudence from the editorial liar, who wrote that immediately under the principal editorials of the first day of this year.

I desire to say a few words concerning that lie.

Doubtless it was manufactured entirely for foreign consumption.

If my answer will reach as far as the Tribune reaches and further, for LEAVES OF HEALING has a circulation in every part of the world.

My words are believed, whereas the Chicago press is universally discredited.

Nevertheless there are those who may be affected by it, and for that reason I desire to say a few words.

It gives me the opportunity for speaking which otherwise would be an impropriety, were this not thrust upon me.

"The visible assets of Dowieism."

If I were to stand upon technicality, I would say that there is no such thing as Dowieism.

I have never wanted my name to be upon this Church.

I have never put it upon the Church.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion is something that will live entirely apart from my name.

By the impudent word "Dowieism," the editor of the Tribune means the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and his assertion is that as a visible asset Zion in Chicago and in Zion City has shrunk somewhat during the year that is past.

I want to examine it thoroughly and find the shrinkage, if there is any.

The Ecclesiastical Work Examined for Evidence of Shrinkage.

Our Baptismal lists will show that in and around Chicago principally we have baptized 2,500 persons during the year that has just closed.

That does not look like shrinkage.

There have been added to Zion all over the world not less than 10,000 new members.

That is not like shrinkage.

New Zion Tabernacles have been opened, and new work done in and around our center. In fact, the greater part of the visible assets in Zion City have appeared within the past year.

"Shrinkage" of Zion Lace Industries.

Twelve months ago, had you visited Zion City, you would not have seen Zion Lace Industries Factory.

You would have seen a small section of about 100 feet covered with wood.

What will you see today?

You will see one of the best built and best appointed lace factories in the world.

I say that upon the testimony of lace experts, lace manufacturers, and lace machine manufacturers who have visited it and have said that there is no better factory in Nottingham or in Calais.

It covers eight acres of floor space.

Our lace enters in the form of common yarn and runs through all the processes and comes out the finished and perfect lace, ready for the market.

That lace has been put upon the market in five hundred of the largest houses in the United States.

We have excelled the English lace and the Calais lace by thirty per cent.

Yet we have made a magnificent profit.

The lace salesmen of New York, when they come into competition with our lace, simply throw their samples into their grips and go, saying that they cannot compete with it.

Mr. Editorial Liar, why did you not look at that visible asset which many thousands every week on the main line of the Chicago and North-Western railway, which passes through our city, see and wonder at, and of which pictures have appeared in American and European popular magazines, accompanied with long descriptions.

Surely a building which covers eight acres of floor space is big enough to be seen, even by your blind eyes. (Laughter.)

That is a very visible asset.

The Visible Asset of Homes in Zion City.

Had you looked at the site of Zion City a year ago you would have found perhaps forty or fifty houses, and they were mostly the homes of the people, built for them to live in while they were building their houses.

What will you see today?

You will see miles and miles of well graded streets.

You will see miles of trees planted in these streets.

You will see miles of residences which cost all the way from $1,000 to more than $10,000, and of which pictures have appeared in American and European popular magazines.

A little more than a year ago, had you been in Zion City, you would not have seen a single schoolhouse.

Now you will find three large, beautiful schoolhouses for the juniors, all well equipped and able to accommodate about 1,500 pupils.

You will also see the first wing of our college building.

This first wing alone will cost about $150,000.
It is built of solid stone, backed with brick made at our own brick-yards.
That beautiful, splendid building will bear comparison, so far as it goes, with any building on the University of Chicago campus.
We have not as much as they, for we have no help from Standard Oil thieves. (Laughter.)
We do not want any.
Where are your blind eyes, Mr. Chicago Editor, that you cannot see these very visible assets?
Had you been in Zion City a year ago, you would have seen a small hospice—hotel.
We prefer the word hospice, because there is no liquor in our hotels, and the word hotel always rhymes so well with hell, and they are so often hells, that I do not like it. (Laughter.)
You would have seen Edina Hospice with about two or three hundred hard-working men in it.
That is all there was and that was the principal building in Zion City a year ago, and by far the largest.
Now it is a dwarf, a thing which has no to be taken away.
It is not nice enough for the beautiful Edina Boulevard in which it is located.
If the Chicago Tribune Editorial Liar visited Zion City he would find what one paper has said to be the largest hotel and the finest in the State of Illinois north of Chicago.
That is the statement made by a paper in another city.
He will find Elijah Hospice beautifully lighted with electricity, heated with steam, and with accommodation for nearly a thousand guests.
Why does not that Chicago Press Liar see these very visible assets?
Perhaps he cannot see these stores, although they must be at least about five hundred feet frontage, perhaps more.
What is the shrinkage there?

Business and Personal Offices.

If you had come a year ago, you would have found our Bank, our Land and Investment Association, and all our offices squeezed into a little building which we now use as an express office, literature counter and telephone exchange.
If you can see now, you would find the Administration Building, the front of which is as wide as this Auditorium, or wider, with the most beautifully appointed offices, a large bank parlor, large offices for our various departments and my own personal offices.
I have telephones, telegraph facilities and everything at hand in my offices.
I could ring up the Tribune from my own office and ask them what liar it was, who wrote that paragraph.
We have a perfect system of telephones in Zion City, and we are not under the Chicago Telephone Company either. (Applause.)
It is our own system, installed and maintained by our own electricians and workmen.
We erected the poles, put up the wires, and all the rest of the work connected with it.
That man is blind who never saw a telephone pole in Zion City.

Zion City Commercial Institutions.

A year ago we had a little store, and eight people were all that were necessary to do the work.
Now, including the Zion City Fresh Food Supply and Zion
City General Stores, more than two hundred clerks are required, and they cannot always get through the work without working extra hours.
We have an immense trade with our own people, and the people around us for many miles.
It would make the Chicago Tribune Editorial Liar’s financial moutb water, if he only knew how good a trade it was.
He cannot see these stores, although they must be at least about five hundred feet frontage, perhaps more.
He cannot see them.
Everything has shrunk.
It has shrunk from eight clerks to two hundred.

The Great Shlloh Tabernacle in Zion City.

If he had been in Zion City a year ago, he would have found that the only place we had in which to worship was the freight sheds.

Last Wednesday night in Zion City when I came upon the platform, as I was about to raise my hands and pronounce the Invocation, I paused for a moment, and I saw more people, by more than a thousand, than are now present.
I saw fully 5,000 people, who had assembled at ten o’clock at night to spend an All-Night with God in Zion.
The place was filled.
Where did they come from?
The greater number of them came from our own city—the City of Zion.
You Chicago press liar, if you had come out there you would have seen how we had shrunk from nothing at all to a building big enough to hold 5,200 people.

Where are your blind eyes, Mr. Chicago Editor, that you cannot see these very visible assets?

You would have also found that our organization is such that at midnight within about an hour, we gave all of these people refreshments gratuitously, gladly, out of our own Church funds—for they were our own Church people.

Many Other Visible Assets of Zion.

I could go on for an hour or two with the “shrinkage.”
I could take you to where there is a Planing-mill which has been enlarged three or four times.
I could take you to the great Lumber-yards, where we have within the year had many millions of feet of lumber, which are now wrought up into hundreds upon hundreds of excellent homes.
I could take you to the great flowing wells which we have drilled at great cost into great depths for large and unfailing supplies.
We have gone down over 1,500 feet with three artesian wells, and have fine wells.
I could show you to Zion City Brick-yards. I could show you that we are making the finest building-brick made either in or around Chicago.

In Milwaukee and Chicago they are offering to buy all that we can make, but we have none to spare. We have not enough for ourselves, and have added continually to that factory until we can turn out scores of thousands of bricks in a day.

It is a very large plant, but it is a small thing compared to what it will be; but that is one of the shrinkages.

We can show you the beginning of Zion Sugar and Confection-ary Association, where some of the finest and prettiest and purest candies in the world are made under the direction of famous experts. Every ton we can make is eagerly purchased, and we have not been able to make enough to supply the demand; for already the fame of Zion candy reaches from Ocean to Ocean.

That is a very “visible asset.”

We can show you Zion City Milling and Baking Association where we make the bread for Zion City, the cakes and des-pies, and the rolls, and everything. No lard gets into any of it.
We can show you Zion City Commercial Institutions.

Many Other Visible Assets of Zion.

Where have we any shrinkage?
Nowhere.
During the past year I got as much money out of the lease of lots covering 320 acres of the 6,500 acres of land as I paid for the whole area; more than $1,000,000.
That is a part of the “shrinkage.” I put it all back again into the land, and more.

Zion City Bank has grown to large proportions. If I were to tell you its capital, and what it has done, it would amaze you,

Great Increase in Zion City Values.

To show you how this has been, we will show you the Zion City Bank.

Zion City Bank.

The bank is very large.

There is no doubt about that.

Great Increase in Zion City Values.
but I am not going to. That is a thing we do not talk about publicly.

Zion's only Difficulty Her Rapid Growth.

"Oh, but you know you were in difficulties," the Tribune may say.

Was it? Who said I was?

You said it. That is all.

Never borrowed a dollar from the world.

I think, if there was any difficulty at all, it arose from the fact that the little baby city had grown so big that instead of there being a question of long clothes and short clothes, I had to find a man's suit for it, and that we grew into a city within the year, with a perfect corporation, splendid little mayor, good council, and everything in perfect order as under the law.

We grew at least two or three times larger than the most sanguine of us had expected, and when that late crisis came, we could not realize rapidly enough upon our outside properties. We had just to wait a little, and make some other people wait a little until we were ready.

There were some people who said they would not wait.

I said, "You will have to wait.

"But we will not wait," they objected.

Some very foolish people sued us; but we never allowed a case to go before the law. We never borrowed a dollar from the world.

I would not borrow. I would not alter our valuable properties in a time of panic, when even the strongest Banks in America found it hard to weather the gale which had so suddenly burst upon the country.

You cannot scare me, nor can you scare our people in Zion.

When foolish papers and people howled and howled and howled and howled (laughter) like so many miserable Kill-kenny cats, I went ahead and did my work.

Today, I have sold and got orders for as much lace as would fit an ox or an ass without the "ets." (Ap- plause and laughter.)

I know you are around because you are building up a clean city.

Every one of the eleven hundred persons employed by you in Zion City has entered the New Year with joy and gladness in his heart, and a firm determination to serve God and you lovingly and faithfully.

Praying for God's richest blessings to rest upon you,

Faithfully yours in the Christ's Service,

Chas. J. Barnard

General Financial Manager.

Is that "shrinking"?

Where is the Editorial Liar now?

Perhaps some of the people connected with him are beginning to feel very uneasy, and wish they were where they could get a drink or a smoke, or something else.

An Invitation to the Chicago "Tribune" Editorial Liar.

I should like that Editorial Liar to stand up.

I will give him this platform for ten minutes to prove his case right now, and we will all be still and listen.

Come along, and let us hear you back up that statement.

Although it is the Sabbath Day it is a good thing to take an ox or an ass out of a hole.

Stand up anywhere. I know you are around because you know you were going to do it. I will see that you are listened to properly and respectfully. I will give you the platform.

Come along and tell us how the "visible assets" of Zion have "shrunk" during the year. You might not be able to show any visible assets of your own, but we would see a visible ass without the "ets." (Applause and laughter.)

Why do you not show up?

You may say you would not like to do it on the Sabbath. Well, I will give you the platform next Wednesday night in Shiloh Tabernacle, and will publish every word you say. I will pay your way, give you a good bed, provide you with good board, treat you kindly, and knock some sense into you.

Come along next Wednesday night to Zion City, send me your card, and I will see that you are properly protected, if your guilty conscience makes you fear.

You would better leave your tobacco and liquor in town. You have begun the year with a lie, you miserable!

Recapitulation.

The Church has increased, I believe, by 10,000 members. Its flag is planted on every continent.

Our schools have increased until there are more than 1,500 being educated in Zion City this year.

The county does not meet the expense, but this work of education is carried on at our own individual expense in Zion. Why do you not come and see something?
Why do you persist in lying? Some day I may come to you with a legal stick.
I would do it now if I thought there was a chance of getting an honest trial in Chicago.
After my experience of a year ago I have no confidence that I could get an honest trial of any case in Chicago.
Murray F. Tuley, an unjust judge, declared that a certain man was untruthful and unreliable, and yet gave him the verdict.
I told that judge a year ago, before fully 7,000 persons, in this Auditorium that he was an unjust judge, and I tell him so now to his teeth.
I never saw a judge who would back Tuley's attempted judgment.
He knew it was an unjust sentence, and he had to sit under the severest castigation that ever a judge got in this city.

All Our Enemies' Endeavors Have Failed.
I believe the Chicago press are all getting into deep water.
I believe you are going to drown before you are through.
It never pays to lie.
It is the destruction eventually of a man or an institution.
I say these things because I stand as the Protector of Investments amounting now to millions of dollars in Zion City.
I will not permit the Chicago press to injure, in the slightest degree, the great commercial and financial interests committed to my care by God and by my people. (Applause.)

Prosperity of Zion People.
My people are prosperous.
They have prospered on every side.
If I were to tell you the tale of that prosperity, it would sound like a fairy tale, but it is true.
There is Elder Graves, sitting near me on this platform.
I am sending him up to Minneapolis. This is his last Lord's Day with us for a while.
He calmly came to me the other day and said, "General Overseer, will you buy my house and lot?"
"Oh," I said, "you can sell it easily."
"Yes I can," he replied, "but I would rather you would buy it, if you will."
"All right," I said, "put in your figures." He did so the following day, and if he did not have the face to charge me $1,200 for the lot on which the house was built! It had only cost him $515 a year ago.
I sent the figures downstairs to the Zion Land and Investment Association, asking for a revision of them.
It came the next day, and Deacon Judd and the experts of that department told me that if I bought that land from him
I ought to pay $1,050.
He only had it a year and it has increased from $515 to $1,050, an increase of $535, or more than 100 per cent.

Large Increase in Wealth of a Workingman.
Another man came along and asked me how I would invest nearly $2,000 that he had made.
"Where did you make it?" I asked.
"I made it in Zion City. I bought one piece for $500, and sold it for $1,200."
"Then I bought another piece, put a house on it, and I have made a profit on that of over a thousand dollars, and I saved money out of my wages."
"My wife, who was healed, has had nobody to attend her, as she used to have.
"We have saved money. I have here over $2,000 for investment."
That is pretty good for a workingman, a wagonmaker, inside of one year.
Where is the "shrinkage," Mr. Chicago Tribune Editorial
Liar?
Why do you not bring up some proof?
I desire to destroy that lie printed in Chicago on the first day of the year.
I am thankful that my people have more money, not less, than a year ago. Here is Elder Dinius.
How much have you made on your lot on Edina Boulevard?
Elder Dinius—"I have not sold it, and I will not do it."
General Overseer—What were you offered?
Elder Dinius—"I would not take any offer."
General Overseer—What has been offered for similar lots in your neighborhood?
Elder Dinius—"From $1,200 to $1,500."

General Overseer—What did they cost?
Elder Dinius—"Five hundred and fifty."

General Overseer—There it is. Here is a man who could get $1,200 to $1,500 for a lot that cost $550 and he will not take it. What do you think of that for "shrinkage," Mr.
Chicago Tribune Editorial Liar?

Warning to the Chicago Press.
I will spank you and thrash you and bring a whip of small cords into this Auditorium every Lord's Day until I make you feel that you cannot lie about Zion with impunity if you will continue your evil practices, O Chicago Press Liars. Do you hear? (Applause.)
You may lie, but you will get it back in the Name of the Lord, for I shall defend my people and their interests.
You do not need to think that you are in the hands of one who is afraid of you.
I will win in this fight.
The people are with me, and I will ask this people to show it.
Every one of you who are in sympathy with me in this exposure of the lies stand. Let me see you. (With very few exceptions, the entire audience rose.)
Those who are not in sympathy keep their seats.
The time has come for judgment upon liars.
I stand here as a Judge in God's Israel.
I sentence you, in the Name of the Almighty God, to a speedy destruction, if you will not amend your bad ways.
My words are oftentimes very quickly followed by the execution of the sentence, even by death being permitted.
I say to the editor of the Chicago Tribune, that if he has a spark of honor he ought to put in a withdrawal tomorrow morning.
If he does not do it, then he has no honor and he is worse than a thief.
A thief like this who wants to smash the financial interests of thousands upon thousands of godly people is the worst kind of a thief.

My Witnessing Against God's Enemies Will Continue.
I shall be through with this place next May, but the echoes of what I am saying will never cease.
I will not be through with Chicago for I have many Zion
Tabernacles here, and I expect some day to build a large central one in this city.
Meanwhile, we will go on with our work in Zion City.
We are getting out plans to enlarge Shiloh Tabernacle to a capacity of ten thousand, and that will be quite full by the middle of the summer.
It often overflows now, although seating five thousand two hundred.
My good wife is preaching there this afternoon to a larger audience probably than I have before me now.
May God defend the right!
You may ask why I said this today.
I say what Jesus said: "Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a Sabbath Day?"
If the great interests of my people are going to suffer, have I not a right to defend them on the Lord's Day?

TILL HE COME!

INVOCATION.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable to this people, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer.
The General Overseer read his text from the 25th verse of the 11th chapter of the 1st Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians TEXT.

For as often as ye eat this bread and drink the cup, ye proclaim th
Lord's death Till He Come.

The Watchword of Zion for 1903 is these Three Words:

TILL HE COME.
LEAVES OF HEALING.

Saturday, January 10, 1903.

The Church for the most part has given it up. Vast numbers of our friends, the Jews, have given up all hope of the Messiah. It is far worse that the majority of professed Christians have given up all hope of His Coming again. In fact they do not look at the matter as a practical one at all. The average Christian smiles when any one talks about the Lord's Coming.

He is apt to put his finger up to his head to indicate that the man is just a little off. I am speaking now specially of many "liberal" Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, and all that class of people who profess to be abreast of the times. They are "liberal" with that which is not their own—the Truth of God. It is an easy kind of "liberality"—in human affairs it would be considered the "liberality" of a thief.

What right have you or I, or any one, to be "liberal" and to give interpretations which explain away clearly-revealed Truths of the Lord's Coming.

Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, and all that class hope of the Messiah. Archangel, with the trumpet of God, we believe it. Descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the last book in the Bible, leads up to the Return of "this Jesus," the Christ.

"This Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld Him going into heaven." The entire Book of the Revelation of Jesus, the Christ, the last book in the Bible, leads up to the Return of "this Jesus," the Christ.

The very last words of the writer are: "And some transformed like sons of light, and thence she chants her prayer of love:—And bid men choose the evil part, Usurp Thy Throne within the heart; It soothes our grief, we cannot fear, It comes to us—"I QUICKLY COME."

Lord Jesu, Come! (Rev. 22:20.)

Lord Jesus, Come! (Matt. 25:5)

Lord Jesus, Come! (Rev. 11:2; 20.)

We believe the Word of the Christ who said, "I will come again." We believe Him when He says, "I will not leave you desolate. I will come unto you." To doubt is disloyalty, sin, infidelity.

When the Apostle Paul says that the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, with the trump of God, we believe it. When he says that the dead in the Christ shall rise first; when he says that those who sleep in the Christ shall come with Him, we believe it. When he says that He will take them in that glorious Rapture back to heaven, and then come back to reign upon this earth, we believe it. We believe it because the Christ said it. We believe it because that Book has never yet been found in a lie.

If ministers or writers sneer at the Word of God and try to make it unreal they are infidels. They are not Christians.

As infidel is an unbeliever who flatly contradicts the Word of God. In Zion we have a Glorious Watchword for this year in these three words: "Till He Come."

With joy we tell the scoffing age; He that was dead has left the tomb, He lives above their utmost rage, And we are waiting Till He Come.

Every time that the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper is administered we Proclaim the Lord's death Till He Come. These are sweet words to us.

God Has Never Given Up the Government of This World.

If I did not believe in the Coming of the Lord, and believed that this world was to continue to be misruled and misgoverned as it is; that this vile and abominable press would continue forever to curse this earth, and that the best legislators we could get were those who are elected by tricky politicians, gamblers and evil livers at the primaries, I should despair of humanity.

I believe that it would not be very long before humanity would absolutely destroy itself

God has never given it up.

God reigns!

Righteousness and Purity, Peace and Power are in God.

There is nothing in the Devil but wickedness.

All that we are that is good is from God.

The Gospel which our Lord Jesus, the Christ, came to preach was the Gospel of a coming Kingdom.

Jehovah Means the Coming One.

That glorious Name by which God is known in the Old Testament, "Jehovah," is a name which indicates a Coming God.

The word Jehovah, the greatest rabbis will tell you, means the Coming One. Jehovah-Tsidkenu, the Coming One, thy Righteousness. Jehovah-Jireh, the Coming One, thy Provider. Jehovah-Raphih, the Coming One, thy Healer. Jehovah-Shammah, Jehovah-Nissi, and all these various names are Covenant Names of the Coming King, the Coming One.

When we speak of Him, we say, "My God is Jehovah." That is why they mocked Elijah long ago.

He was a poor sojourner of Gilead, but he was a true servant, and one of the prophets of God.

When the priests of God went into the groves and into the temples of Baal, he resisted them. When they spoke to him, he would cry, "Eliyahu! Eliyahu! Jehovah is my God."

That is what Elijah means—Jehovah is my God. The Coming One is my God.

Today, over all the earth, I cry, "Eliyahu! Eliyahu! The Coming One is my God!"

As Elijah the Restorer I declare the Coming of the King, and give this Watchword to Zion throughout the whole earth:

TILL HE COME.

Zion is waiting,
Zion is watching,
Zion is working,
TILL HE COME.

A Warning to Mockers.

Beware! It is easy to mock. They mocked Elijah for a long time. They told him that his prayers were not answered, and they were not. He prayed for the conversion of the people, and they were not converted. He prayed for the conversion of the priests, and they went with Ahab and Jezebel, and dragged the people down into the filthy worship of Baal and led them into vices of every kind.

At last he prayed that the merciful God would withdraw His kind hand, and that it should not rain for three years and six months.

His prayer was answered. Then they knew that there was a God in Israel. Then they knew that there was a God who heard the humble sojourner's prayer.
TILL HE COME!

They sought for Elijah everywhere, to destroy him, and they could not find him.

When the time came he manifested himself, and when that king asked him, “Is it thou, thou Troubler of Israel?” he smote him between the eyes with his answer: “I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the Commandments of Jehovah, and thou hast followed the Baalim.”

He said in effect to Ahab and all Israel—

“You have gone to the Devil.
“You have gone to the worship of the sun-god, Baal.
“You have gone into the darkness of the groves.”

There I tell the Apostate Churches they are going today.

The leaders of Denominations have gone there.

Enter a Masonic lodge blindfolded, and go to the Worshipful Master in the east, then to the south, and where the sun sets in the west, and after you have gone all around these things and taken the idiotic and shameful vows, you are initiated into the mysteries of a sham Resurrection, and in all this you have simply “followed the Baalim.”

Eliyahu! Jehovah is my God, I cry it today.

 Ministers of the Apostate Churches Have Gone to the Devil Through Secretdism.

Jehovah, the Coming One, is my God!

I smile you ministers of Baal who profess to be Christians and have gone into these accursed lodges.

You belong to the Devil. You are no ministers of God.

You have a Bible in the lodge-room but the Name of the Christ is cut out.

I blame you, I rebuke you and I cry once more: Eliyahu! Jehovah is my God!

I believe what He said.

He came to the earth once and He is coming again.

Then He will sweep you out, you villains and false priests who have abandoned His altars and sought the altars of darkness and death, damnation and falsehood.

You have made a covenant with Death and an agreement with Hell, but when the Overflowing Scourge comes, God will annul your false contracts.

He is annulling now your agreements with Death, and your covenants with Hells of youths.

There is death in all your oaths. You have no life.

You have sham resurrections.

You have a skull from which you make your devotes drink.

Secretdism is Anarchism.

You make them take shameful, disloyal oaths.

They are anarchistic, for they are disloyal to the constitution and laws of this nation, and to your God.

You have no right to impose penalties in your lodges which are unknown to the law.

You have no right to administer oaths, except in an open court of justice, and then you must be a properly qualified servant of the state—a judge.

We are waiting Till He Come.

We are working Till He Come.

When He comes, if you do not repent now, He will sweep you away, as he did those who “followed the Baalim” in olden times. There will be no place for you.

You would better go right now.

Zion Rescues the Fallen.

You must not imagine that this weekly talk in the Auditorium is all that Zion does.

There have been more than a thousand members of this Church working today from house to house in the streets and lanes of this city. These are only a part of Zion Restoration Host of between six and seven thousand, who go forth, two and two, every week to tens of thousands of homes with the Message—“Peace be to this house!”

When I came down from my platform in Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, this morning at the close of the last half past six o'clock Assembly, where I had met hundreds of my people for prayer, and warned and separated a number of new members of Zion Restoration Host, I was asked to see a young girl.

A Devilish Outrage Perpetrated upon a Pure, Innocent Girl.

I will tell you her story.

It is the story of a thousand girls in Chicago today.

She came an innocent girl, from a pure home, and from the arms of a godly mother and an upright, decent hard-working father. She and her mother were members of this Church.

She sought work in this city.

She worked honestly; a good, faithful, Christian girl.

She got into an infernal boarding-house. There are hundreds of them in this city.

There she met, oh, such a nice young man!

Perhaps that incarnate devil is here today.

May God the Almighty send to his heart what I am going to say.

He occupies a professional position.

He sings in a Presbyterian church choir.

Oh, he is a nice young man!

One night he won his way into her bed-room and there, almost choking and stifling her, threatening her, he robbed her of that which is more than life—her virtue.

The next night, after she had spent the day crying, he sneaked in and outraged her again, the monster! Now what?

He does not propose to marry her.

He proposes to leave her to her shame, but I do not propose to let him, for I have gone after scores of these villains in this city.

Warning to the Destroyer.

As I looked at her today and saw how, in three short weeks, that wolf had torn a lamb from my flock, I felt just as any shepherd would with a club in his hand, like beating out the wolf's brains.

I did not want to kill the man, but a shepherd when he sees his sheep torn from his fold wants to go after the wolf and kill it, and I want to get after that devil.

I want to make that villainous young scoundrel know that God has decreed that he shall not escape. It is written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith Jehovah."

I have reason to believe that he is in this Auditorium today, hoping to find her here. That girl is in our care.

I will place her under the care and protection of her parents who live in a country town of this state.

If her father gets hold of you, he will break every bone in your body, you villain!

Old man as he is, you would better not get within reach of his stick.

Sometimes I think that the best way to deal with villains of that kind is to tie them to the tail of a cart and whip them down State street.

It is too good for them. There is another remedy of which I cannot speak fully here. It is effective with brute beasts among the lower animals, and it would be a well-deserved punishment for the highest animal—man—when he throws away his heritage as a spiritual being, as the offspring of God, and degrades himself to a lower level than the brutes of the field or forests.

If that were done, it would stop these outrages in highly respectable boarding-houses, by highly respectable, professional young men, who sing in church choirs.

We were seeking through the streets and lanes of the city and stumbled upon this woman in this place.

My God! it seems to me sometimes as if some one clothed with legal authority ought to go through these boarding-houses and demand that the people who keep them shall not allow young men to visit innocent girls' rooms.

Astounding Hypocrisy of a Despoller.

There is no protection from the law for a girl who comes to this city.

They would say that they were old enough to know what they were doing.

She thought that she was dealing with a gentleman.

He was a singer in a choir and a professing Christian, who actually came up to her room and read the Bible.

After he had read the Bible to her he suddenly pounced upon her and outraged her.

That is the story which we have dealt with in scores of cases, over and over again, until the heart grows sick and faint; for it is the Story of Ten Thousand Lodging Places of the Devil all over the cities of this land—vea, in all parts of the world. What are you churches doing?

What Zion is Doing for the Erldag.

I will tell you what we are doing.

We have for years been keeping a home for fallen women almost entirely at my own personal expense. We call it Zion Home of Hope for Erring Women. I have never entered it since I provided it.

Deaconess Paddock—Have I ever entered that home?

Deaconess Paddock—"Never."

General Overseer—Have you been saved in a Masonic church?

Deaconess Paddock—"Yes, sir."

General Overseer—Have you, and all under your charge, been good enough to eat and to wear?

Deaconess Paddock—"Plenty."

General Overseer—How many girls have you now?

Deaconess Paddock—"We have over fifty."

General Overseer—How may poor fatherless babies?

Deaconess Paddock—"About sixty."

General Overseer—Do you hear?

That is what Zion is doing.

We have restored hundreds to their homes and to God.

You evil scribes who mock at Zion, what have you been doing for the fallen women of Chicago, and their offspring of shame?

Zion has been working and you fellows have been fiddling, drinking, stinking, lying and sinning while Chicago has been burning in the flames of Hell.

We have been doing what we could.

This year I am coming with a sharp stick after you Denominations which are misrepresenting Zion in your Synagogues and Pretending to be doing the work of God whilst you are dead in sin.

Masonic Methodist Episcopal Apostasy to be Unveiled.

Next Lord's Day I intend to resume the discourses upon the Apostate Churches, and deliver the first of a series of discourses upon the Masonic Methodist Episcopal Apostasy.

You Methodists are going to catch it. (Laughter.)

You have gone a long way to the Devil.

I sometimes think that the worst thing that could happen to a man is to be saved in a Methodist church.

I intend to prove it in my next discourse. As Jesus said—

Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, you make him twofold more a son of hell than yourselves.

A member of one of your churches said to me the other day, "Doctor, I had some religion before I professed any in the Methodist Church, but now I have gone through thirty-three degrees of Masonry and I have no religion."

"I went through them because my pastor told me it would be a good thing to become a Mason."

I am after you.

You will catch it this time even more severely than you got it from my lips in Central Zion Tabernacle when your last General Conference met in this city in 1900. The report of my addresses at that time have been read by hundreds of thousands of people—perhaps millions—in all parts of the world, and not one of you has dared to attempt an answer.

There will be no circumlocution about it, for I shall go straight.

You have been squirming for some years, but you are going to get it harder than ever now.

I am after Presbyterians next.

TILL HE COME!

The New York Mission.

I believe that as the year unrolls, and as we pay diligent attention to the business which God gives us to do, we shall be in good order next October to go down to New York. I am looking forward to these distant visits.

Tell your friends to hurry up and not have to pay glio for it. Some of the stocks would go to $100. I was right.

The value is owing to the way that we improve things.

We are creating industries which are honest and permanently profitable.

The Evil of Poisoned Candy.

We are making candy which will make all the little children throughout the whole of America healthier for eating it, not worse. The great mass of the common candies made today are poisonous.

We are going to save the lives of thousands of little folks by giving them good candy through the Zion Sugar and Confectionary Association.

That is also going to bring vast resources into Zion, for although the industry is in its infancy, the cry from everywhere is, “sell to us.”

So it is with our Zion Lace Industries. We will be able to add great resources when we reach the lake front and command a considerable portion of the lace trade of the United States, then of Australia, and then of Great Britain herself.

I will tell you frankly, I am not boasting, that we shall some day be able to cross the Ocean to Great Britain and undersell Nottingham on its own ground.

How? In the same way that the Americans are underselling Englishmen in electrical goods.

In our own lace factory we have better facilities, and though we pay high wages, we have everything more completely under organization in the manufactory.

We do in one factory what the English do in five.

We do with electricity what they do with steam.

We make a very perfect motion, and they make a rattletrap affair, which smashes threads all the time.

God has put us where we can make these beautiful fabrics and other things; and keep the money in America for many millions of dollars’ worth of lace which is now sent out to Europe and elsewhere.

We are going to make presently, I believe, a Zion organ, which is going to express sweeter sound because it is made in Zion. (Laughter and applause.) At least Zion people will think so.

Doubtless, on that day we shall be able to get $5 Zion type-writer; and I am informed of a most inventive brother who has a most astounding invention, that seems to be likely to take the place of the writing machines now in common use.

We intend to do useful and good things.

We will not touch anything that will make any human heart sorry.

We will do things that will help.

We will send out pure foods.

We will work hard these years and get Zion upon a strong foundation financially, and then

You Will Be Able to Spare Me for Half a Year.

Will that not be nice?

Voices—“No.”

General Overseer—Why do you not say Yes? I think you ought to.

Do you not think that China ought to get a bit of me?

Voices—“Yes.”

General Overseer—Do you not think it would be nice a few years hence to let Mrs. Dowie see the land of her birth, Australia, and her dear old mother?

Voices—“Yes.”

Prosperity and Plenty Will End.

I desire to say to my farming friends, through Leaves of Healing, that I am impressed to say that the days of prosperity for the farming community may not end this year, nor next year, but that as sure as the sun shines there will be a change before very long.

We are coming to that period of comparative drought.

If you do not part with your farms now, you will have to part with them for less by-and-by.

Therefore, I recommend you who are coming into Zion and who are waiting for high prices to sell now.

I will ask Deacon Judd if I am not correct in saying that farmers could have got more money six months ago than they can now?

Deacon Judd—“Yes, that is true.”

General Overseer—It is a fact which is very striking that the farmers in the neighborhood are very willing to leave their money with us.

Zion has created the value there.

Outside of Zion that value is not in the land.

The value is owing to the way that we improve things.

We are creating industries which are honest and permanently profitable.

General Overseer—Do you not think it would be nice for me to be able to preach the Gospel the whole length of the Nile, and perhaps pass from Cape Town to Cairo?

Voices—Yes.

General Overseer—Then, do you not think it would be nice for me to stay six months in the year?

Voices—Yes.

General Overseer—You did not all say Yes.

Voices—Yes.

General Overseer—I know that God will not be pleased with me, if, after Zion City and its schools, colleges and industries are well established, I do not carry the Gospel myself to other lands.

I cannot go to other places now; for there is much to do; but God has plans for me, perhaps, which I cannot see.

I refused for years to go to New York, but now I have promised it, and I am already beginning to make preparations.

I am going to New York, God helping me.

You all agree to that, do you not?

Voices—Yes.

General Overseer—Yes, because you can go with me.

(Laughter.)

To New York we shall go, next October, God willing, and it is very delightful for me to think that I will be able to take down a band of thoroughly trained Zion Restorationists.

Pray for us.

Do Not Get Discouraged.

We will have some raps and knocks, and the Devil will try to weaken the hearts of our people, but I do not believe there is any fear in Zion, because if we lost everything, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham, and He would give us everything back again.

Beloved friends, we do not want to lose anything.

We do not want to lose a cent or a dollar.

We want to use it, and even to increase it, for God; not lose it for the Devil.

Talents are not lost by proper use, they are multiplied.

Pray that this year we shall be able to establish Zion solidly and strongly, that when the fall comes, I can take that month, and know that I can leave Zion at our Headquarters in Zion City, strong and well-established on every line.

It is so now, but it must be still more solidly established.

Some of the industries, before they will yield large returns, will have to be largely extended.

I want you to help.

You Can All Be Financial Agents.

You can all tell your friends everywhere what we tell you now with great joy, that $300,000 have come in since the first day of December in subscriptions to stocks.

That is a large sum of money.

New capital has been coming in for more than a year at the rate of $10,000 for every day of that period.

Some days there has been as much as $80,000 subscribed.

I do not care a pin about the money for my own personal sake.

All my interest is it, as you know, only five per cent. and that I do not take out.

I keep it in.

I do not take out five per cent. interest per annum on my portion.

I take nothing out that I can keep in, because by keeping it in I strengthen Zion.

I take out less than three per cent. upon my own portion of the vast estate.

I leave the rest to the Christian Catholic Church in Zion forever.

If I died tonight, ninety-five per cent. of it would immediately belong to Zion.

I cannot do better than that.

I have been asked by many of my people to take more.

I say, No.

There is enough and to spare for my dear little family there.

We must not forget that.

We Must Keep On with Our Work Here.

We must win poor sinners to God.

Do you know when that poor girl of whom I have talked today, told me that story, it just broke my heart to think that she was one of the daughters of Zion.

Poor child, she was so shattered and broken, I cannot describe it.

O God, have mercy upon that villain, and bring him to repentance, and if he will not yield to Thee, let Satan be permitted to destroy his flesh.

Warning to Girls.

Girls! Girls! Allow no man, whether he is in Zion or out of Zion, to take any liberties whatever with you.

You have no right to allow any man to press your bosom, kiss your lips or caress you, until he is your husband.

If you do, you are opening the door to Damnation and Hell.

No gentlewoman would wish to do that.

Every Christian should be a gentleman.

Every workman in Zion should have the spirit of a true gentleman.

I was so pleased with one magazine article which said—and it was written by a person I did not know—that it was remarkable in going about Zion City to find how courteous, kind, considerate and genteel the people were.

I want that characteristic to be maintained.

I want it to be increased.

I speak strong words in public, but I am always, I trust, a gentleman.

I have to do my duty as God's prophet and minister.

Nevertheless, with the worst man in existence, I am a gentleman, and I want you to be gentlewomen and gentlemen.

No man with the instincts of a true gentleman, although he were not a Christian, would ever wish to submit you to the indignity which seems to be common in this country—kissing and slobbering of an unholy and improper kind.

May God keep you.

Promises of Purity and Modesty.

Girls, will you promise me that you will not allow these boys to slobber?

Voices—(From the girls.) "Yes.

General Overseer—Boys, will you be gentlemen?

Voices—(From the boys.) "Yes.

General Overseer—The women to whom you are kind and considerate and off whom you keep your hands, will increasingly trust you, and say: "I have a lover who is a gentleman and a Christian and who would not degrade me.

"He would do nothing improper; my mother could hear every word, and see his every act, and not be ashamed to see and hear how he treats me."

Do not have dark meeting places.

See your lover in the light.

See each other in the home of your father and mother, and do nothing that you should not like mother or father, or, best of all, God to see.

Then we will have pure men and women who will carry the stamp of their nobility on their faces and in their manners.

O God, give us this in Zion.

Young men, be gentlemen.

Be lovers in the true sense, "loving one another with a pure heart fervently."

Be good women and good men.

All day my heart has been so grieved since I saw that girl whom Satan had plucked from the Zion fold.

It has been literally sore.

She was not a Chicago girl, nor a Zion City girl, but a member of an outside Branch.

Now stand, and we will sing our parting Hymn.

After the parting Hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," the meeting was closed with Zion's Salutation and Benediction.

Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere. Amen.
All Night With God In Shiloh Tabernacle

THREE years ago, in the early morning hours of the last days of the New Year, the General Overseer unveiled in Central Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, maps and pictures, revealing the site of Zion City and prophesying its future.

At that time not one stake had been driven or one surveyor's chain stretched upon the site by Zion.

Last Wednesday night and Thursday morning, at the dying of the Old Year and the birth of the New, the General Overseer knelt, in the midst of that city of eight thousand inhabitants, with great industries—a city of hundreds upon hundreds of beautiful, happy homes, five thousand of his people kneeling with him, and thanked God for the wonders He had wrought.

That first All-night with God, in Zion City, was a most wonderful meeting.

Its story can never be written.

The outward deeds and the words spoken may be recorded, and a most inspiring record they make; but the mightiest and most significant events of that service transpired in the innermost spirits of the thousands present, seen and known of God alone.

They will be recorded, not upon written or printed pages, but in the daily lives of those who were present, in the days of the new year and of the years to come; yea, the record will never be complete, for the influence of those hours in Shiloh Tabernacle, will continue to work, in immortal spirits, throughout the endless ages of Eternity.

Those influences will not end in the spirits of those who were present, but will flow out from that Shiloah in Streams of Life to all men everywhere throughout the earth.

This was a company of God's children following the beloved leadership of His mighty prophet of the Times of the End.

They were gathered together in the opening hours of the third year of the twentieth century, their hearts full of joyful but solemn realization of the near approach of the time when their leader, that "Strong Messenger," would stand where all the earth should hear, and cry aloud "There shall be Delay no longer."

Their thanksgiving to God was more sincere, and their prayer to Him for wisdom, faith, courage and strength to do their part in the great work of Restoration, more heartfelt, and more earnest than ever.

Their consecration to themselves and all they possessed—time, talents, goods, money and life itself, if need be, to that great work, was more complete and made with a firmer determination than ever.

The thanksgiving and the prayer and the consecration and the consecration were all in the spirit of the watchword for 1903, announced by God's Messenger at the midnight hour, "TILL HE COME!"

The time announced for the beginning of this service was at 0 o'clock New Year's Eve, but long before that hour, happy people were streaming in from all sections of Zion City, many of them visitors in the city from all parts of this and from other lands, and filling the great, brilliantly-lighted Tabernacle, so that when, at about 0 o'clock, a train-load of seven hundred people arrived from Chicago, it seemed there would be no places for them.

All found seats, however, and soon the great procession of Zion White-robed Choir and Zion robed officers had begun.

First came the hundreds upon hundreds of little children of the Boys' and Girls' Choirs, their high, sweet voices floating out in the great stillness of the Tabernacle as the people prayerfully entered into that fitting and solemn opening of this never-to-be-forgotten service.

Then came the voices of the women, full-toned and rich, joining those of the children in the sacred words of praise and worship.

As the great choir galleries were filled with the white-robed singers, the voices of the men, deep and strong, filled out the wondrous harmony, and added to the mighty volume, which arose in a great surge of Divine Music, lifting hearts upon its crest to God on high.

Following the choir came hundreds of the officers of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in their robes of black, proceeding up the broad aisles in double formation, mounting the steps at the end of the platform, and filling the seats reserved for them in two sections in each of the side galleries.

As the officers took their places, the General Overseer, accompanied by Overseers Jane Dowie, Wm. Hammer Piper, John G. Speicher and George L. Mason, and by Elder Mother Stewart, and Deacon A. J. Gladstone Dowie, came upon the platform.

Elder J. G. Excell, General Ecclesiastical Secretary, and Elder H. D. Brasefield, Registrar of Zion College, were also upon the platform.

Then there was a hush, and the heads of the standing multitude were bowed as the Man of God, with uplifted hands, invoked the blessing of God in the well-known words:

God be merciful unto us and bleed us,
And cause Thy face to shine upon us,
That Thy Way may be known upon earth,
That Thy Saving Health among all the Nations.
For the sake of Jesus. Amen.

Zion's grand old marching hymn, "We're Marching to Zion," followed, sung with a spirit which made the rafters ring.

The recitation of the Apostles' Creed, the reading of God's Commandments with responses, and the chanting of the Te Deum, forms of godliness with a Divine power felt by all present, were followed by the impressive reading of the 90th Psalm and the 14th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, by the General Overseer.

This was followed by prayer by Overseer Jane Dowie and the General Overseer.

The tithes and offerings were then taken by the robed deacons who acted as ushers.

While they were being taken, Zion White-robed Choir sang the wonderful Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's inspired oratorio, The Messiah.

This majestic composition, as difficult as it is beautiful, was rendered by the great choir with smoothness, unity, harmony, depth and richness of expression and mighty volume.

Conductor Burt M. Rice and his hundreds of singers had surmounted great obstacles, and presented a production which would have been creditable even under most favorable circumstances.

After the singing of this Chorus the people all joined heartily with the General Overseer in the words of commendation of Zion White-robed Choir, its conductor and its organist.

The observance of the Ordinance of the Communion of the Lord's Supper was then begun.

Prayers were first offered by Overseers Speicher, Piper and Mason, and as the General Overseer knelt to offer thanks to God the Midnight Hour arrived, and while the great congregation knelt in solemn silence, the General Overseer's voice was heard singing that deeply significant hymn of Dr. Horatius Bonar, which he has sung at the passing of the year so often:

Pray, brethren, pray! The sands are falling;
Pray, brethren, pray! God's voice is calling;
Yon turret strikes the dying chime;
We kneel upon the verge of Time:
Refrain—Eternity is drawing nigh!
Eternity is drawing nigh! (is drawing nigh!)
Praise brethren, praise! The skies are rending;
Praise brethren, praise! The light is ending;
Behold, the glory draws near,
The King Himself will soon appear.
Watch, brethren, watch! The years are dying;
Watch, brethren, watch! Old Time is flying;
Watch as men watch the parting breath,
Watch as men watch for life or death:

Softly, but with the deepest of feeling, the people joined in the chorus at the close of each stanza.

Thus, while in the cities of the world the dawning of the New Year was marked by foolish noise, by drunken and glutinous revels and by sensuality and crime, the people of Zion, in Zion City, signalized the important moment by prayer and praise.

As they passed away from this Ordinance they sometimes sang a hymn like this:

Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Savior's breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best—
Good night! Good night! Good night!

We have had to say it this past year to those who passed away so suddenly.

"Good night. Until we meet again before the Throne clothed in the future's garb."

"God gave us His own until we know even as we are known. Good night. Good night. The night will soon be past."

The Morning Will Come.

"The darkness deepens. Lord, with us abide."

The night will soon be past, and the morning will come, and it will not be like the morning of this first day of January, 1903, however beautiful it may be, as the sun rises up out of our beautiful lake and floods the little city with its golden beams. It will not be a sunrise upon a winter sky and cold, bleak winds.

It will not be a sunrise upon a day that will have its ending, nor a year that will have its ending; for it will be an Endless Day, a Cloudless Sky when we awake in His likeness. Roll on dark stream.

We fear not thy wave.

He is coming, who, when we pass, will enable us to say, as one so dear to us said: "When I pass through the waters, they shall not overflow me, for Thou art with me, and I am not afraid."

It may be that the Master will stand some night gently and quietly by In the shadows dim, smiling perhaps in the dark to hear our sweet, sweet talk of Him as we are going down to the River's margin, and our feet touch the waters, and then we go with Him alone, and shut our eyes, and the Spirit passes over and upward and onward to the City of God to prepare for your coming.
TILL HE COME!

It may be that not far distant, some sweet night, some sweet day, we shall hear the wonderful sound of a Wonderful Host, the Voice of the Archangel and the Trump of God, the Christ appearing and the saints ascending.

We, if we are ready, in the twinkling of an eye we will pass out of the earth into the glory of the Rapture, and go with Him into the heavens

Even some of those who are saved, will not be ready—Foolish Virgins.

They will not have the Oil of the Spirit in their bodies; the earthen vessel of the body.

Why Some Will Not Be Ready When He Comes.

They wanted digitalis. They wanted nux vomica.

They wanted arsenicum.

They wanted the deadly drugs and the filthy poisons.

They could not trust God with their bodies, but they could trust the doctor and his knives and accursed drugs.

They are not ready; for those who are ready have Oil, the Oil of the Holy Spirit in their vessels.

The Holy Spirit has taken possession of their bodies.

May God grant that the Holy Spirit may cleanse the whole being, spirit, soul and body, so that, in Zion, we may be a people prepared for the Lord's Coming by having the Oil of His Spirit in the vessels of our body, and not be like the Foolish Virgins whose lamps are going out.

When the Bridegroom comes, and the Voice of the Lord is heard in the sky, they are not ready.

They must stay behind.

I have been thinking what good they would do.

I have thought that if there are any Foolish Virgins left behind in Zion City, we will just give them the title deeds of Zion to hold for us until we come back again. (Laughter.)

Tribulations of the Foolish Virgins.

They will have great trouble and sorrow.

I do not fear for the title deeds of Zion; for when we come back again, we will clean the Devil out of Zion and everywhere else.

I do not know any other good that you Foolish Virgins would be than that you should be left to pass through the Tribulation.

The door will be shut.

The ransomed and prepared will be with the Lord, and the rest left behind with the Devil, with the Lawless One, with the Man of Sin revealed in all his diabolical glory and with the world, one mass of anarchy and bloodshed from end to end.

Short will be that time.

Then the Lord will come back with us to reign a thousand years.

We will not only possess and repossess this beautiful little City of Zion, but the saints shall inherit the earth and shall rule it.

They shall judge it, and they shall drive the last demoniacally possessed man into hell, if he will not yield and get into heaven.

I am so thankful that I can see

A Few Years Work Ahead.

I can see the glory of a Triumphant Work in the reestablishment of the principles of the Kingdom of God in the building up of Zion Cities, and in the taking of the Holy Place and building it and its glorious Temple for the King.

It is all coming.

And it is a glorious prospect for every one except a miser and fellow who is afraid of his own shadow or of somebody else's.

I am grateful to God that the glory is coming in a measure, and that we see the dawn of the Resurrection Day.

Hasten it, O God! (Amen.)

Help me, as Elijah the Restorer, to do all I can now.

When I come back with the Lord, I am coming to take up my work, for Zion Restoration work does not end with this Era, but it goes into the next; and, O God, qualify me when I come back with Thee to drive out the Devil; to restore Thy Kingdom, and build it all up for Thee!

When the Lord returns He will destroy, with the manifestation of His Coming and the Breath of His Mouth, those who oppose.

We are working—

Voices—Till He come.

We are Working Till He Come.

We are Waiting Till He Come.

We are Watching Till He come.

If He came tonight, would we be sorry?

Voices—No.

General Overseer—are we ready?

Brother, can you say, "By the Grace of God, I am?"

Every one who wants Him to come and to be ready for His Coming, stand and tell Him so. (All arose.)

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me Thy Holy Spirit that I may do right to any whom I may have wronged; that I may repent, confess to Thee, my God, and to every man, and restore and do right to any, no matter what it cost, and live for Thee, and work for Thee; make money for Thee; be poor, if necessary, for Thee; die for Thee; live for Thee, and wait and work and watch until Thou dost come, O Christ of God! Father, help us so to live and love and serve Thee that the world shall be blessed everywhere, through the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. Destroy apostasy. Destroy organizations that hinder Thy Kingdom. Save them. If Thou hast to destroy our organization and to make it over, do it, O God, and save the people. Build up Thy Church. Restore Thy Kingdom. Win multitudes to Thee that they may be saved and healed and cleansed, and kept by the Power of God through faith; ready to be revealed when Jesus comes. Keep us till Jesus come. For His sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Now did you mean it?

Voices—Yes.

'General Overseer—are you going to live it this year?

Voices—Yes.

The choir and officers then passed out, after which the General Overseer pronounced the Benediction.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus, the Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.

The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever Amen.

This closed the first part of the meeting.

During the intermission of over an hour, thousands of people partook of light refreshments, served by Deacon Frank W. Cotton and a large corps of assistants, in the prayer-room.

After the intermission the service was resumed by the congregation singing Hymn No. 44.

The General Overseer said:

The work of Zion is divisible into four parts: Ecclesiastical, Educational, Commercial and Political. The Ecclesiastical work of the Church includes all the spiritual activities in the individual, as well as in the organization as a whole.

It includes the development of the spirit in the individual, in the family, in the business, and in the various organizations of this Church in all its ramifications.

There are forty-two different departments in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

In the Ecclesiastical there are many divisions. I have seventeen divisions in my own office.

It is the same throughout the other well-organized departments.

The Spiritual is the Center of Everything.

The center of my own being is my spirit.

It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the Words that I have spoken unto you are Spirit, and are Life.

If we speak the words which are spirit and life then there is power.

The spiritual is that which must be attended to first, last and all the time.

If you who are Christians on Sunday, in the Restoration Host, put off any of your Christian Saturday clothes and begin to haggle in the Fresh Food Supply, to bother in the stores, to find fault with your foreman in the work, or to envy somebody their better position, you know you are no use at all.

The Spirit of God goes with you into the daily work, it will not matter whether you are head or tail, you will do your work faithfully.

The man who does his work faithfully does not need to seek for a better position—the better position will seek him.

The office will seek the man, because the man who is capable will sooner or later prove his capacity.

He does not need to worry. If he goes on doing his work well, no matter what it is, the spirit in which he does it will insensibly elevate him.

The Spirit is Everything.

It makes a man sell goods over the counter with a loving smile, or hammer his nails as fast and steadily as he can.

It makes a man take care that everything is nicely joined together, and keeps him from spinning out the job.

Be spiritual in everything.

We must get right at the center.

One of the ways to get right is to obey the command to pour out your heart to Him.

And thou shalt call His Name Jesus; for it is He that shall save His people from their sins.

A Diabolical "Howliness" Fallacy.

You "howliness" people say that a man who has any sin cannot be a Christian.

You have one text which you use for a great deal more than it is worth.

"Thou shalt call His Name Jesus," because He shall save the Devil's people?

Voices—"His people."

General Overseer—From what?

Audience—"Their sins."

General Overseer—Do God's people have sins?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—that is so, notwithstanding the contemptible doctrine that no man can be a Christian who has any sin.

How many Christians will ever be in heaven then?

That teaching is an accused lie.

All Men Stumble.

As the Apostle says, in many things we all stumble.

The man or woman who never stumbles will please to stand up.

I will have a photograph taken of you, and when I get the photograph I will label it, "The biggest liar I ever saw."

Peter stumbled and so did Paul.

Paul shaved his head at Jerusalem for a vow.

He was fooling around in the Temple to please the "they say," and that is why he got into prison.

Beware of Those Who Say They Cannot Sin.

Brothers and sisters, if a man or a woman tells you that he or she has reached a place where he or she cannot sin, look out for your pocket-book. (Laughter.)

Look out for your wife. Do not let him have anything to say to your beautiful daughter, and never indorse his paper.

Have nothing to do with such people in business.

The Son of God Himself was the only one who could live without sin.

However, that is no excuse for stumbling every minute.

God is able to keep us from falling.

If we trust Him He will do it.

He will make us whiter than snow.

The moment we say that we can do this or that then we are mistaken.

If we say, "By the grace of God, I can do all things, through the Christ," then we can boldly say what I can say tonight.

I Have Never Known What It Was to Fear.

When people tell me they are afraid, I say: "How does it feel to be afraid? I do not know anything about it. I do not want to know by personal experience."

There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

There have been some fearful hearts in Zion. I thought once reading out the hymn:

Ye fearful hearts fresh courage take,

but that was not in my vocabulary.

Why should we have any fearful hearts at all?

I mean every one, myself included, when I say:

Search me, O God, and know my heart:

Try me, and know my thoughts.

Let God search, and let the Light shine in, and whatever you see, confess to God.

That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the Word of Life.

And the Life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the Life, the Eternal Life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us:

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus, the Christ.

I Want no Fellowship With Liars.

It cannot be fellowship with the Salvation Army.

I do not want fellowship with the man who thinks me important enough to attack in London, in Exeter Hall; who thinks me important enough to attack in a London paper, and in hundreds of private letters, but who is too dignified a person to take any notice of me when I round him up in Chicago for his infernal lies.

That is a mean lie.

He can say in London that I once was connected with the Salvation Army and left under disreputable circumstances, but when he is here and I round him up, and tell him that that is a lie, and I never was connected with the Salvation Army, he can affect such importance that he cannot afford to notice me.

I want no fellowship with that army, for it is led by a liar.

All liars, Salvation Army liars, Roman Catholic liars, Christian Science liars, board of trade liars, press liars, political liars, all liars shall have their part in the Lake of Fire.

It does not matter what they say about themselves, I have no fellowship with them.

I have no fellowship with the man who is a liar and who says that he stands for Jesus at all times.

A Few Words from Mother Stewart.

Mother Stewart came upon the platform and was invited by the General Overseer to speak.

Mother Stewart—"The Lord be with you, dear friends."

"May His blessing go with Zion this coming year, and perhaps before another coming together the Christ shall come."

General Overseer—May God keep you, Mother. (Amen.)

And I trust until Jesus comes. (Amen.)

General Overseer—I have no place for a liar anywhere in Zion.

I am going to keep back nothing.

The time has come when Judgment must begin at the House of God.

Let it begin here. I am God's house and you are God's house, and, dear Junior children, it must be in you also.

God must be in you.

You are little houses for God.

You cannot tell lies and belong to God, can you?

To whom would you belong?

Voices—"The Devil."

General Overseer—that is true.

Those Who Break God's Commandments Cannot Stay In Zion City.

Last night just as the sun was setting, I had to send two children to prison. One of them was ten and the other twelve.

They were little liars and thieves.

They were imprisoned until one minute to 12 o'clock, when I allowed their parents to take them home.

Tomorrow they and their parents both go out of this city, because that was not the first offense.

I will not keep naughty boys who lie and steal, do you hear? You know the commandments, do you not, boys?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—"Thou shalt not—"

Boys—"Steal."

Saturday, January 10, 1903.
General Overseer—I am not going to take any chances. No one shall commit adultery in Zion and stay one hour longer if I can help it. (Anns.) Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

If I catch you doing that, I will put you on the road to Waukegan or Chicago.

We are going to have a clean city, if it is only a thousand men and women, but I think we can get a hundred thousand men and women who want to do right.

We will now give you an opportunity to make practical confession.

Let us bow before God and listen to His Word.

And this is the Message which we have heard from Him, and announce unto you, that God is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

But if we walk in the Light, as He is in the Light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanseth us from all sin.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the Truth is not in us.

We neither deceive God nor man but we deceive ourselves.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Repeat the 9th verse.

(Audience repeats 9th verse after the General Overseer.)

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

The Sin of the Apostle John.

John, did you ever sin?

"Yes, I sinned."

Was it at the end?

"No, it was in the middle.

One day I told the Master that there were some people who did not walk with us, and I asked Him to call down fire from heaven.

The Master stood up and rebuked me.

"He said: 'Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of Man is not to come to destroy men's lives, but to save them.'"

John, did you sin then?

"Yes, I sinned, and Jesus put me right."

John, did you ever sin any more?

"Yes, on the night when I forsook Him and fled. I was a good sprinter, too."

I made good time in getting away from Gethsemane. Were you a coward?

"Yes, I was, and a number of us were; Peter and all." John, what did you do?

I confessed my sin. When I saw my Lord risen from the dead I said I had sinned, and He told me how the Father forgave.

The Need of Confession.

My brothers and sisters, I want you to get before God now and make confession, and let it be real. Let us pray.

A Season of Confession, Repentance and Forgiveness.

The General Overseer offered prayer.

While nearly all the people were on their knees, God's minister called upon all those who had committed sin against God, not yet fully repented of, to confess it before Him by rising. This call brought scores of those earnestly seeking forgiveness to their feet, and as they stood, the man of God earnestly prayed with them for their forgiveness.

Then came the call to all those who desired to confess to God that they had fallen short along the whole line of their spiritual lives to stand and confess that sin to Him.

With scarcely any exceptions, this brought the entire congregation to their feet with tear-dimmed eyes, seeking God's forgiveness, and promising Him a more perfect service.

There was a drawing nearer to God and an intense realization of the presence of His Spirit in mighty power as the sweet peace of a knowledge of forgiveness of sin came into the hearts of those thousands of God's children.

The General Overseer then said:

I asked God, when I poured out my heart to Him through the long night that I was in intercourse with Him concerning this meeting, to show me, and I believe I did get the white Light right upon my heart in a wonderful way.

I came here last Lord's Day morning determined to un-bosom myself, and I did.

I spoke the thing which had to be spoken, and I believed that from that moment God would still continue to bless me.

I had my policy criticised in a very important manner, in a very improper manner.

Not only one or two, but scores were talking, and I put my foot down very firmly.

I said then that the man who would adversely criticise my policy of not borrowing from the world would better go and find somebody whose policy he could approve.

I had made up my mind that no matter who he was I could afford to part with him.

I believe God brought everybody into line.

Let me tell you the result of our policy.

The Result of the Policy of Not Borrowing.

I had said, "I will not borrow from the world. I will hold on to God.

"I believe that my people will pour the resources into Zion; buy my bank stock, buy my land stock, buy my lace stock." I have the great joy of telling you that $273,400 has been subscribed for Zion stocks during the month of December.

Was I right?

Audience—"Yes!"

It was an exceedingly hard thing to do, but my General Financial Manager, Deacon Charles J. Barnard, like the true man he is, accepted the policy from the very start, and stood by the General Overseer. (Applause.)

I believe I will have half a million before the end of January.

It took a long time to knock things into the stupid heads of Zion people; because you are not bright by nature, many of you, and a great many of you never saw finance in this form before.

I do not wonder at your staggering a little.

Loyalty and Confidence of the Great Mass of Zion.

Some of you who could criticise somebody who did stagger, did not feel the pinch.

Deacon Charles J. Barnard was not the only one who stood by me.

Thanks be to God, many of my dear people who do not understand a bit about large finance, had confidence in their General Overseer, and were as true as he was, and stood by me right from the beginning in the matter.

I could always find a ringing cheer in the Wednesday night meeting—always.

I found the masses of the people all right.

They did not understand, they did not know how it could be done, but they were like the men who followed Grant.

They said: "Grant knows where he is going, and we are going after Grant."

They were like the people who followed Stonewall Jackson.

They said: "Well, we do not know where Stonewall Jackson is going, but we are going to follow Stonewall."

If Stonewall Jackson had lived a little longer he might have whipped you northern people, because he never lost a battle until the one in which he died.

However, he was on the wrong side.

God was on the other side.

He fought for what he thought was right, and God in His infinite mercy, heard the man's cry, who said: "I am glad it is over. Take me over the river, and let me rest under the shade of the trees."

What an awful blunder that whole war was!

Let there be no More Murmuring.

Beloved, I am going to wipe out with a sponge all the weakness and variableness which was shown by every one of you.

You have been to God tonight, and you are white and clean, but I do not do it again.

I winked at some things last year that I will not wink at this year, not one little bit.

I am going to have no more bother about some things, I have not time.
I am going to say: "Friend, just write up your account, tell me what you paid for your property; tell me what you think it is worth; I will appoint the valuator, and give you your check, and you can go out tomorrow."

That is right, but I do not want to have to do it.

I want to keep you all in Zion, and bring a hundred thousand more.

We must be united.

Why will people sin against their leader?

Why will they murmur against Moses?

Why will they murmur even against Jesus, the Christ?

It is in humanity.

An Appeal for More Loving Confidence.

Have you not a good many reasons for believing that I am guided by God?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Have you any for believing I am not?

Voices—No.

General Overseer—Then, you follow me.

The first time we meet with a great defeat, sympathize with me, will you not?

Audience—"Yes."

I think you will. If you do not you are a mean lot. You are worthy only of Gadara.

God has permitted me this year to pass through the severest trials of my life.

Pray for Overseer Jane Dowie.

She has done a wonderful year's work—wonderfull

Pray for my son.

By the very nature of things in Zion the responsibilities have to be borne by the little family that God called to found Zion.

Mrs. Dowie's name has to go on every one of your leases, for this reason, that if she does not sign away all her dower rights in this vast estate she could claim a vast amount.

She lovingly put aside all dower rights in that which I hold in fee simple, and has joined me in making as perfect a lease for 1,100 years as can be made.

The work of signature alone sometimes takes Mrs. Dowie and myself five hours' continuous work.

I have sometimes, as Deacon Barnard knows, sat down in the morning at eight o'clock and signed documents until six.

I cannot use a stamp, and, except in extreme emergency, I cannot impose that duty upon anybody else.

If I am passing from the country I can create a power of attorney. If I am present, there are dangers in doing it.

There is a toll about all the work in Zion.

Every day, I attend first to the spiritual then the educational.

Sometimes I work for hours with Deacon Barnard, who is at the head of the clearing house of Zion.

Everything comes into my office, for I am responsible.

Zion not a Commercial Entity.

Some of you have an idea that Zion is an entity commercially.

There is no such thing as Zion as a commercial entity.

That word, John Alexander Dowie, represents the entity, and I hold for God and for Zion the absolute control of that of which it is impossible to divest myself at this time without terrible consequences to Zion.

Do you think that $273,000 in December would have come into Zion if John Alexander Dowie had been six feet below the soil?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—You will not get any commercial men in Chicago to say it.

The day will come when it will not matter whether John Alexander Dowie is six feet, as to the body, under the soil or not, because, thanks be to God, I am aiming to put Zion upon a foundation where it will stand till Jesus comes.

When he comes I know it will be all right whoever is the controller for Him.

I am with you in the battle field, and the World, the Flesh, and the Devil have tried to tear us to pieces. They have not succeeded, but would, had I lost courage.

The spiritual work of Zion links so much into all the rest that you cannot disavow it.

A cablegram from Evangelist Cantel, in London, was read by Elder Excell. It gave the names of sixty places in the British Isles which sent greeting.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Piper for Australia, New Zealand and Europe.

Prayer was offered by Elder Braefield for Asia.

Prayer was offered by Elder Excell for Africa.

Prayer was offered by Elder Cossum for North and South America; prayer was also offered by Elder Cairns.

After prayer had been offered by the General Overseer, the congregation joined in singing Hymn No. 237.

The General Overseer continued, saying:

Some Important Changes In Zion's Educational and Ecclesiastical Work.

Beloved friends, we are having a "shake-up" all around in many things.

Our beloved Overseer Piper, who has done such good work in out-stations, and as Overseer-at-large, who is now in charge of Zion Educational Institutions, will talk about education. At the same time I have an important announcement to make.

I am starting him out now on his travels.

We are going to send him to Boston first of all to take charge of the work up and down the whole of the New England states, starting with Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island; then taking Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont. I am going down myself to New York, God willing, in October.

Overseer Piper will prepare the way in New York. Later Elder Hammond will prepare the way in the states to the south of New York, and Evangelist Kindle will be letting New York know.

Overseer Piper will have a most important charge.

I shall send him to Europe for two years, to the United Kingdom, a little on the Continent, for a year in South Africa, and for two years in Australia.

For the present I am marking time with regard to South Africa.

I have a series of inquiries going on, and I must have better information before I can send out parties there.

Pray for South Africa.

Overseer Piper, talk about the educational work. May God bless him.

Address by Rev. William Hammer Piper, Overseer-in-charge of the Educational Institutions of the Christian Catholic Church In Zion.

Overseer Piper—General Overseer.

"I made a speech on Tuesday afternoon about three hours in length on the subject of education, but I cannot make one tonight.

"I am willing to go anywhere; do anything I can to extend the Kingdon of God.

"Zion schools and college lie pretty close to my heart, but I believe honestly I can do better work for God in the ecclesiastical department.

"While it is a joy and delight, and has been, to have something to do with the beginnings of the educational work in Zion, after all the greatest joy in my life is to see a man born into the kingdom of God.

"Pray about Zion Educational work, and get interested in it.

"I thank you for the interest that you have taken, and the prayers you have offered while I have been in charge.

"By the grace of God, General Overseer, I will be as faithful to you as I have always been, because before God I have never consciously disobeyed a single thing you have told me to do."

General Overseer—One of the trials of the General Overseer is that When Men Develop Special Capabilities, We Have to Send Them Away.

There was dear Overseer Voliva.

He had won our hearts, and had turned around them.

We loved him and we intended him to take up the educational work, for which he was so eminently qualified.

However, Australasia had a terrible crisis, and I had to find my best available man for that work.

I had to take Overseer Piper from the position of Overseer-at-large and put him into the educational work, and send out Overseer Voliva.

These two splendid young men who are very dear to us, we have to send away.
ALL-NIGHT WITH GOD, 1902-1903.

Shiloh Tabernacle, Zion City, Illinois, December 31, 1902—January 1, 1903. 379

No one shall ever be longer away from Zion than five years.
It is difficult to make it plain to you what a cry there is from Great Britain.
Look at these sixty places; think of them.
Think of dear little Cantel, and the handful of Deacons and Deaconesses conducting work in sixty places, and doing it well, too.
May God bless Overseer Piper in this work. (Am'en.)
The Educational work will have, for its new leader, a man whom we have trained in it and whom God inspired from the beginning with a great love for it, Professor H. D. Braasefield.
( Applause.)
Professor Ellis will be the new registrar—God bless him.
Now, Professor Braasefield, stir us up about the educational work; tell us how to do it better for God. ( Applause.)

Address of Elder H. D. Braasefield, Ph. B., Registrar of Zion College.

Elder Braasefield—"I have never felt the responsibility of the educational work so much as I do at this moment, although for eight days I have known that something was likely to fall.
"If it was hard for Overseer Piper to say anything, I believe it just as hard for me.
"You have heard the General Overseer twit me, now and then, about how I tossed Zion Literature into the waste-basket.
"Perhaps it might be interesting for me to tell the story, if the General Overseer will give me the time, and that will get me limbered up. ( Applause.)

A Presbyterian Pastor's First Sight of Zion Literature.

"When I went into New Jersey three years ago last July to take up work in connection with the Presbyterian ministry, I came in contact with a man in Clayton, New Jersey, who, while an Elder in the Presbyterian church, had been led by the Spirit of God to see the Full Gospel. He had been led to Zion.
He had received much blessing in answer to the General Overseer's prayers.
"He had been the man, as I understand it, to give the first thousand dollars for the starting of Zion College work.
"He was the man who, the first Lord's Day that I spent in his Church as a candidate for the place as pastor, placed in my hands copies of Zion Literature.
"I put them in my grip. I went home, some eighty miles distant, and when I got home I unpacked my grip and dumped the tracts into the waste-basket.
"I went back two weeks later, on a second invitation. He gave me some more tracts. I went home the following Monday.
"The next week I received a call from that congregation, and decided to accept it.
"I entered upon my duties about the first week in August.

Presbyterian Policy.

"Several times, while I was in his study, which was at the rear of the church, he referred to Zion Literature.
"I said nothing.
"It would not have been very healthful for me to have said that I had dumped it into the waste-basket, for he was the most influential elder in the church, and he paid the largest part of the salary.
"Being among Presbyterians I had Presbyterian policy, and I was very careful not to say anything about this Literature; very careful to avoid conversation about it, for fear he would ask me what I had done with it, and I knew well enough if I told him I would drop ten or more points in his estimation.
"I did not want to do that, so I held off.
"About the last week in August he gave me some more.
"I went to my room, and came to the conclusion that it might be a good thing for me to know something about that Literature; for, sure as fate, one of these days he would give me an examination. I made up my mind I would get ready for it. (Laughter.)
"I started to read the tract on 'Permission and Commission.'

Zion Literature Conquers.

"I came. I read. And I was conquered.
"That tract sealed me for Zion.
"I re-read it.

"I obtained all the tracts I could. I do not know how many he had.
"I got all the bound volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING.
"I got all the current numbers that were not bound, and all I did was to read Zion Literature.
"My wife could not get me to my meals—could not get me to sleep.
"She said: 'Now, here you are just ready to settle down in this place, with a nice parsonage and a good salary, splendid congregation, and everybody in the Presbytery envy you because you have this splendid place, and you are reading this Literature and getting yourself excited. The first thing you know you will be off to Chicago.' (Laughter.)
"'I want to settle down; we have been wandering all over this earth.'
"I tried to get her to read it.
"I would get enthusiastic.
"I would read out paragraph after paragraph; she had to hear that. She preferred to listen rather than get away.
"The first copy of LEAVES OF HEALING, as I read it, having my appetite whetted with the Literature, brought me face to face with a statement in regard to Zion College work.
"I said to her that day—she remembers it very distinctly—'if I am led by God into that work I will go into the educational work.'
"About the last week in October we received a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING telling about Zion's Holy War and the lively times.
"I came with my wife to Chicago.

Coming Into Zion.

"I came, I saw, and I was conquered—completely conquered.
"At the end of ten days' visit, I walked into Dr. Speicher's office.
"I had never asked him anything about it. I never consulted with anyone at Headquarters. No one had said anything.
"I think they must have divined there was a good deal of mule in me, and if they said anything I would be liable to balk. Officers have told me since then that they were impressed to let me alone.
"I was there for business. God would do the rest; I went on progressing.
"The next day the General Overseer invited Mrs. Braasefield and me to go with him to the North Side.
"On our return trip from the depot to Zion Home, he said: 'There is a place in Zion College. I have been praying for weeks for the man, and you are the man. When can you come back?'
"'When do you want me?'
"'Just as soon as you can come.'
"I will be back a week from next Wednesday. I would like to stay a few days longer.'
"'He said, 'Very well. I cannot promise you anything. I will arrange to give you a little bread. I think we can find some butter to put on it.'
"Overseer Jane Dowie, who was sitting in the carriage, said, 'We will find you a little jelly.'
"The General Overseer said, 'We will give you a little money for laundry.'
"That was all there was to it.

Breaking with the Apophasy.

"I went back to New Jersey.
"I had written to Mr. Moore that he must get the church session together; that I would be there on Thursday, would meet them and hand over my papers. That would be the end of the business as far as I was concerned.
"I went down to the church. Thursday evening, and, oh, what a refrigerator I got into!
"The men who had been ready to cart me around the town and show me all their beautiful buildings, all their wonderful factories, walked out and left me alone. I never passed such a night in my life.
"Cut to the quick. I suffered agony untold that night.
"Inside of eight weeks, the very men and women who had packed me on the back and told me what a blessing I was to them, how much I had done for them, turned their backs upon me.
"The non-church-members of that community, in far larger numbers than the members of that very church, came to me and bade me good-by.

"I came to Chicago and got to work and have been working ever since.

"They know how to keep a man busy in Zion.

"I have always been intensely interested in the educational work. I saw in a moment that Zion Has the Educational Field.

"I saw in a moment that that which men were talking about and wishing for, and Christian men in the educational world at large were longing for, Zion had the possibility of realizing.

"I saw that plainly.

"I am an American born.

"The hardest thing for an American to say is, that he will obey.

"That was the hardest lesson I had to learn in Zion.

General Overseer: Is it now hard to obey?

Unanswerable.

"No, because, I have learned to love, and love always makes obedience easy.

"As soon as I got into the work I saw that which the philosopher had been dreaming about, and that which the educator had been planning for.

"Zion was the only organization in which it was possible to realize it.

"I said to God, 'I pledge myself to obey the General Overseer. I will do it if it takes my life.'

"I made that prayer, however, like the man of whom I heard praying with regard to a wife.

"He said: 'O Lord, I want a wife. You know just the wife, just the woman, that will make me the best wife, but, O Lord, give me Mary.' (Applause and laughter.)

"I think I prayed about this way: 'Lord, you know I will go to the uttermost parts of the earth. I will go to South America, but Father I would like to have a chance to work in Zion along these educational lines.'

A Period of Spiritual Conflict.

"Friends, you were rejoicing last September because the General Overseer had formed and started out the mightiest power that has ever been started in the history of the Church, Zion Restoration Host.

"I had a most wonderful experience on the Tuesday following the organization of Zion Restoration Host.

"My heart was deeply touched, and in its tenderness seemed to long for that conflict that was coming to workers that were being sent out, especially the band that was going to the Orient.

"I had during that morning to look God in the face.

"I said: 'Father, my heart yearns for that work. But You give me the Spirit of the Christ Himself, who came not to be loved, and I will go to South America, but Father I would like to have a chance to work in Zion along these educational lines.'

A Battle with Demons.

"I had gone through one three years ago this last December when I first came to Zion Home.

"I was down with what the doctors called appendicitis.

"I had a wonderful healing in answer to the prayers of Overseers Speicher and Mason.

"For weeks I fought a battle that is not to be compared with that battle.

"Perhaps some of you thought I was a little irritable as I went about my work.

"Perhaps some of you thought I was too hasty in some words that I spoke.

"I cannot put in words the battle I fought with the demons of hell, but God gave me the victory.

"The day came when there was peace in my spirit, and there is peace there tonight.

"I love the educational work—Why? Because I love the children.

"The hope of Zion is in the children.

"I love the children.

"I love to have to do with the training of the children.

"Much as I love the children, however, much as it appeals to me, if the day ever comes when the General Overseer thinks there is another place in Zion I can fill better for the glory of God, for the upbuilding of His Kingdom, for the saving of human spirits, he must put me in that place.

The Best Way to Talk About Education.

"The General Overseer has told me to talk about the educational work.

"I would rather let you see it worked out during the remainder of the year.

"I would rather have it show in the character of the young men and young women.

"I would rather do my talking in your children; that under the guidance of God I may so work that the teachers will be cheered, that you in your homes may know that those boys and girls are growing Godward. (Applause.)

"The only thing I ask is that you will pray for Zion Educational Institutions.

Tribute to Teachers.

"May the Spirit of God work.

"No nobler band ever worked in any institution than the men and women who are set aside for teaching in Zion College.

"May the Spirit of God help them to work with me during these days, and may we so work in prayer and under the guidance of the Spirit that the result shall be the unfolding of beautiful Christian character, the bringing up of men and women, now in boyhood and in girlhood or in youth, with strong bodies, strong minds and clean spirits. That is my desire.

"There is much to be done. We need your prayers.

"I will say this in closing: I would shrink from the responsibility of this work, to look after the training of at least twelve hundred young people in Zion City; I would shrink from it if it were not for the fact that I have prayed about it, and now that the General Overseer has called me to this place, I take up this in answer to his prayer.

"I think God has directed me to place the responsibility on my workers.

"God, I know, will give me the love, the Divine Love and Compassion; God will give me the Divine Wisdom; God will give me the Divine Power and the Divine Strength; God will give me the Spirit of the Christ Himself, who came not to be ministered unto but to minister.

"He will give me the spirit that will make me the servant of the children and of the teachers and of the community.

"In His strength I can and I will do my work until He sends a better man to take my place." (Applause.)

Prayer was offered by the General Overseer for the scholars and students of Zion City. The General Overseer said:

Zion's Great Financial and Commercial Present and Future.

I desire to give you some facts and figures, and to let you hear some of our beloved friends, connected with the great departments of Zion Financial and Commercial work.

I believe, beloved friends, that not many years hence Zion will have a Commercial Navy; that the flag of Zion will float in every Ocean.

I can already see a great trade in Chinese and Japanese commodities.

I can see an immense amount of money to be made out of these things.

I can see how we can grow silk—our dear little children in Japan and China feeding the silkworm, and we working it up in our factory in many of our beautiful laces.

I can see cotton grown by the sea-islander.

I can see a hundred things.

I can see Zion in America trading with Zion in every Continent throughout the world, and being at the top in commerce. (Applause.)

I know that is the way the money will come in to extend the Kingdom of God.

We are all workers, are we not?

Audience—"Yes."
General Overseer—If we were to attempt to give you, in detail, the story of Zion, it could not be done except in weeks of statements. Moreover, all the departments have been so busy in the stores and everywhere else with the great work of closing the year, that they could not prepare detailed statements. You have kept the stores busy night and day, and they have done an enormous trade. I desire to give you some figures as to the growth, so that we may pray over them and thank God over them. I have asked from Superintendent of Transportation Peters a report of that department. Deacon Daniel Sloan did the work so splendidly until a short time ago. God bless Daniel Sloan! (Amen.) He has been transferred by me to be the head of another very great department. We sent him out upon a special mission to the Pacific Coast the other day. In carrying it out, he had to ride horseback up the mountainside in a certain district. He weighs more than 150 pounds, and he had quite an experience; but he has come back, and there is no sign of any injury. He is just as sound as a good dollar.

We Have Had Delightful Relations with the Chicago & North-Western Railway. They are very much delighted with our progress, and feel toward us a personal friendliness. Expenditures for freights, tickets and demurrage from January 1st to December 31, 1902, by Zion Industries and Institutions alone were freight, $77,399, tickets, $30,967. We have actually given the Chicago & North-Western railway, in actual cash, $108,336. That is an astounding thing for the first year.

Zion's Great Pay Roll. The total number of employees, in all the departments, according to General Financial Manager Barnard, is 870 males and 288 females; 1,558 workers. The total amount paid in wages in 1901 was $256,000, and in the year that has just closed, 1902, no less than $354,000. In Zion Lace Industries we started with thirty-nine workers, or thereabout. We have now 249 employees. We have orders from 496 of the largest, most important lace houses all over the United States.

Increase in Retail Trade of the City. Zion City General Stores had only twenty-eight employees in 1901 and now has 106. The rate of the increase in the business can be shown by the fact that the sales on the day before Christmas in 1901 were $500: this year over $5,000. Zion City Fresh Food Supply shows an astounding increase. The third week in December, this year, shows sales amounting to no less than $3,600. The postal business of Zion is an indication of the intelligence and of the earnestness of the people. In 1901, we had but 15,000 letters received. In 1902 no less than 350,000. From being not anything at all at a rating last April, we are now equal to a second-class postoffice, and the next appointment as postmaster in this year will have to be a Presidential one. I hope that God will continue to give us a good Zion man. May God bless the good little man who is there now! He will have our support and confidence.

Great Business of Zion Hospices. I will give you an illustration of the number of persons coming in and out as guests in all Zion Hospices. There have been no less than 25,000 meals served to guests in all the three hospices, and with help, private and general guests, the number of say seven meals has amounted in the aggregate to 122,547! It seems incredible. These are a very few figures, hastily gathered. The accountants did not know what my wishes were until a day or two ago.

I have seen that business grow, until now our expenditure and income have frequently reached more than $250,000 in one week. Then the bank business is so prodigious that we really do not care to tell it. The stocks have been applied for, there has been a magnificent banking business built up, and every endeavor upon the part of the banks of Chicago to embarrass us, and, if possible, to destroy us, has been met by an immediate increase in the bank's business and in the confidence of our customers. I am getting ready to increase this $275,000 by the effective work of the new department, Zion Stocks and Securities, and the cooperation of Deacon Barnard and Deacon Judd, who have been from the beginning at the head of the two great Financial Institutions—Zion Land and Investment Association, and Zion City Bank.

Success of the New Zion Institution. Now, a new institution has arisen. It became a necessity. If we were not to borrow from the world, we had to make our splendid position better known to our people. Thus Deacon Sloan has, after long consultation with ourselves and his colleagues, set about the work. To his splendid efforts, and to the splendid efforts of the Special Financial Messengers of Zion attached to his department, this great success is largely due. Sometimes we attach Overseer Speicher to this department for a day or two. Sometimes we attach that able Elder, God bless him, Cyrus B. Fockler. He is really a magnificent Gospel Financier. (Applause.) If he had not been, I think he would have been in Africa many months ago. We love to send him out because he cannot only talk about finance but he can preach the Gospel, and so can all our messengers—more or less. Nothing is permanent in Zion. You may have to walk to Africa one day. I will keep them going, friends. They love it, too. They never know what is going to happen. The way I generally do is this: I drop upon a man and say to him, suddenly, "Can you show me any just cause why I should not send you to Timbuctoo or somewhere else in a week?" I say a few words, let him know what is in my mind, and send him home thinking. In about a week he comes back smiling: "It is all right, General Overseer." It is all very well for Overseer Piper to cry—I do not think he pretended anything—but he is not crying over it at all. He is all right. He sees it just as clearly as I do. I made him see it. But I have a splendid department, and you must not provoke me to say things.

Ability of Zion Special Financial Messengers. I have in the Special Financial Messengers of Zion splendidly able men. I may have to send some of these Special Messengers across the seas. I might have to send Deacon Sloan himself to Europe this year. I will not give away things, but Zion has considerable interest in large mining property, through her members. May God bless her. I am not sure I will not add an agricultural and dairying department; for it takes about two or three thousand cows now to give us milk. I cannot do everything at once, however. Zion Lace Industries are ably managed under our direction by Manager Deacon Arthur Stevenson and his brother, Deacon Henry Stevenson, who love and serve God so right heartily and loyally. They have been faithful and obedient officers, and have before them a glorious future, if they are calm, and wise and thorough, as I believe them to be. The department over which Deacon Sloan presides, is a subdivision of the General Financial Manager's, but of course is a thoroughly organized department that handles all the stock, all the securities of Zion.

One Million Dollars for Zion Stocks Before Next Feast of Tabernacles.

I now give Deacon Sloan direction to cooperate with me in the raising of one million dollars before Zion's Third Feast of Tabernacles. (Applause.)

Help me, and all be Zion Messengers.

What will we do with the money?

In the first place, we cannot get the vast results from our Lace Industries until we fill that factory with machinery and begin to add another, and another, and another unit, like the one now built.

Why Zion Makes Candy.

Then we have got that magnificent thing, Zion Candy and Confection Association.

Some people might smile at that, but do you know why I started that? I went into a store in Chicago one day and saw a quantity of candies with brilliant, flaming color.

I said, as I nibbled a piece of one kind and another, "there is poison in these colors; there is death in that candy."

There are thousands upon thousands of children who die every year through poisonous candy. They wonder why the children die.

That is at the bottom of it.

Overseer Spicher and others talked it over with me, and I found that if we were to preserve our dear children's lives, we must provide them with pure candy.

Somehow they would have candy. They got that from their fathers and mothers, who still want candies, too.

I thought what a sweet, pure confection we could make.

That splendid brother, Deacon Rodda, and his equally delightful comrade, Deacon Cook, had a talk with me.

Tribute from a Prominent Chicago City Official.

Another who had a talk with me, long before either of them, was the present treasurer of the City of Chicago, the Hon. C. F. Gunther, who has often stood up for me.

A few years ago, when he was alderman, when somebody said something against me in the city council, he jumped to his feet and said: "Gentlemen, I attend Dr. Dowie's ministry; I am not a member of his Church, but since he has come into Michigan avenue he has transformed the neighborhood, improved the property. There is a halo of glory around that Tabernacle.

You can laugh at Alderman Gunther if you like, but he tells you that Dr. Dowie is a gentleman, a Christian scholar, a great leader, and he is the prophet of a New Dispensation. (Applause.)

That was very good for a man who does not even profess to be a Christian.

One day I was going down to Washington, and he was going down to Atlantic City, and we talked for several hundred miles.

He said to me, "Doctor, when you establish your city, you will be a benefactor to the whole country if you supply your own city and the country at large with a pure Zion candy." (Applause.)

"You will make mints of money, and I know you can do good with it."

That stuck in my mind.

Great Future of Zion Candy.

Zion candy is going to be the means of advertising Zion throughout the whole land and world.

I believe it will come only second—perhaps not that—by-and-by, even to Zion Lace Industries. (Applause.)

I can see it now even.

They come from Waukegan and from Kenosha to buy our candies, and by Saturday night there is scarcely any left.

I want large capital to be able to increase that industry.

I intend to employ our dear Zion youths and maidens, men and women in the building, in the controlling and directing, and in the putting up of these beautiful goods of every kind.

How can I maintain this great population without immensely remunerative industries?

There are many; but we will not multiply factories where we come into keen competition with others who can do the work better than ourselves.

I do not intend to yield to your solicitation, who want to push me into a great many things.

By the grace of God I am going to do one thing well at a time. (Amen. Applause.) Then I will do two things well at a time. Then I will do three things well at a time.

Great Field for Zion Bakery and Laundry.

I will get Zion City Bakery into such good condition that no woman will want to bake her own bread.

Then I want to do all your washing for you. I do not see why any good woman should slave at the wash tub, when I can use machinery that can wring out fifty articles in about fifty seconds.

Why should my women kill themselves over the washtub when I can get machinery to do it?

You miserable fellows, why do you not help me to get it done in the laundry?

I know I must make it cheap enough, but if you will give me enough business I will do your washing.

The good women, with their washing and baking done for them, can keep your house like a palace, and make your children bright and bonny, and can train them.

I must ask you not only to approve of what I say but to back me up.

I do not want you to do with your hands what we can easily do with machinery.

We can take a great big wash and cleanse it in a few minutes.

Then you can preserve the youth of your wife so that when she is fifty she will look as sweet and fresh as when she was twenty.

It is the washtub that kills.

It is the baking that kills.

I will tell you what your wife can do.

She can do her home work first.

She can thoroughly train her children.

She can go to school herself, and she can be trained for work when the children are through with their schools.

You will find you have an educated Christian lady for a wife, and yet a good housewife.

I do not believe in my people slaving away their lives at wash-tubs when we have splendid machinery.

Pray God for these institutions.

I will have three men talk, Deacon Barnard, Deacon Judd and Deacon Sloan.

Address by Deacon Charles J. Barnard, General Financial Manager of All Zion's Institutions and Industries.

Deacon Barnard—"The General Overseer has said that he gives Deacon Daniel Sloan authority to raise one million dollars.

"Let me tell you an incident that happened less than three months ago.

"I was sitting in my home when there was a rap at the door.

"When I opened the door I saw the face of a good old mother who is here tonight.

"She had traveled forty-two miles to lend the General Overseer some money. It was not a large sum, but it was her money, and I thought then if every man and woman in Zion had the same spirit that that good old mother had, the General Overseer would have two million dollars.

"I say tonight, God bless the mother, and let every one do likewise.

"You have had a few facts given to you, but the story can never be told.

"I remember well how, on the first day of March, four years ago, Zion Financial Institutions started out with two men, Deacon Judd and myself.

"We were the whole thing.

"We did all the work.

"We received all the money.

"We paid out not all the money.

"God has wonderfully blessed Zion Financial Institutions under the General Overseer's direction.

"The hammering and the pounding that the Financial Institutions have received at the hands of a wicked and ungodly press would have crushed them as large a bank as the First National Bank of Chicago; but the fact that God was with us and with a mighty leader, and the confidence of the people, have enabled the institutions to come out stronger than ever.

"The loyalty of the people has been something wonderful.

Great Future of Zion Candy.
"We have felt, at many times, that while we were battling, trying to hold the hands of the General Overseer, that we had your prayers.

"We ask a continuance of your prayers in this year upon which we have just entered." (Applause.)

Address of Deacon H. Worthington Judd, Secretary and Manager of Zion Land and Investment Association.

Deacon Judd—"It is with gratitude to God that I come here to thank you for your prayers, and to praise him for the fact that I have had in connection with this great work, and also for being associated with our beloved leader.

"I have seen the hand of God so plainly manifested in connection with the responsibilities which the General Overseer has placed upon me, that it almost overwhelms me sometimes when I look over the past and see what has been accomplished, when we look back at the humble beginnings to which Deacon Barnard has referred.

"It seemed as if we were tucked off in a little corner, but we never lost sight of what God was going to do in connection with this great work; for we believed in the General Overseer. We have at least five thousand houses to build in two years. One thing more.

"This is the whole key to the position under God.

"Money answereth all things," and when God saves a man's spirit, his soul, and his body, he makes him a better workman, and a better business man.

"Not all are teachers.

There are very few who are teachers, but with the press we can send forth the teaching so that people can get it every week, and get it from the Fountain-head in Zion.

Our people will be magnificent builders, and we are creating a people here who, when this city is well established, I shall be glad to take in hundreds to plant new cities on both coasts and elsewhere, and then I hope to live to lead a vast army to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem. (Applause.)

"That is my crowning ambition: to rebuild in a glorious manner, and help to prepare that City for the coming of the King Himself. It can only be done by building up these cities and creating a people who can do it.

Then came that portion of the service which has always been of great blessing to thousands throughout the world, the requests for prayers for unconverted fathers, mothers, husbands, wives, sons, daughters and other relatives and friends who are unconverted.

As the hundreds and thousands of people rose at each call, and earnestly joined with the General Overseer in prayer that God by His Spirit might lead these unconverted loved ones to repentance and faith, a deep feeling of personal responsibility impressed itself upon all true hearts, and it was a deep pervasion of spirit that all softly followed the leading of the General Overseer in the soft singing of the words: "For you I am praying; I'm praying for you." (Applause.)

"Prayer also was offered for the sale of property.

The General Overseer then offered the CLOSING PRAYER.

Father, for Jesus' sake, bless every Overseer in Zion, every Elder, every Evangelist, every Deacon, every Deaconness, every member of Zion Restoration Host, all the Zion Junior Seventies, every worker in every department and place, the entire Church, and give us a glorious year.

"Father, bless me, O my Father, and Father, bless me, even me also, O my Father! Oh, help me, help me to do the work and not fail or faint or be discouraged. With this dear people I can do all things through the Christ who strengthens. Now may they all be wise. For Jesus' sake.

Now we begin a new year. We are not going to talk about the past. Everything is behind us.

Now we will watch Till He Come; we will wait Till He Come. Do not bother about anything. Start a fresh year with fresh courage.

The General Overseer called attention to the close of the campaign for the increase in the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING to 100,000 yearly subscribers by January 1, 1903, asking the people each of them to make a New Year's present to him of two dollars by sending out at least one yearly subscription to LEAVES OF HEALING.

When he called for the promises of those who would do so, there were thousands who gladly responded.

The beautiful morning light was, by this time, shining over Lake Michigan and stealing into the Tabernacle through every window.

The hour of closing had come.

Although the people had been in almost continuous session for nine hours, they were still wide-awake and loath to leave this place of wonderful blessing.

With clear, strong voices, and a high intensity of meaning, they sang the grand and beautiful words of the Doxology.

The General Overseer's voice, full of strength and vigor, with no note of weariness in its tone, notwithstanding his long hours of speaking to that immense audience, was heard in the words of the Benediction, and Zion's first All-Night with God in Zion City—the greatest, grandest, most glorious and most blessed of all the nine—closed, with Zion's Salutation, "Peace to thee," and Response, "Peace to thee be multiplied."

LEAVES OF HEALING
MOTHER HEALED OF INTERNAL DISEASES AND PARALYSIS AROUND THE HEART—CHILDREN QUICKLY HEALED OF VARIOUSAILMENTS.

AS THOU HAST BELIEVED, SO BE IT DONE UNTO THEE.

Into a little place in the Cascade Mountains, the Little White Dove, Leaves of Healing, flew one day, over four years ago. It found its way into a household, where suffering and sorrow were ever present. Disease with its unnamed torments, had cast its ugly shadow there.

The mother, she who is at the center of the home-life, and who gives the home its character, was weak, sick, suffering and dying.

So bitter had the Devil made her life that she scarcely cared to live. But for her children she would gladly have found rest from her tortures in death.

She was a victim to the terrible diseases peculiar to women. She had sought relief, not from God, her Father, but from physicians. Physicians are the direct lineal descendants of the sorcerers, against whom God's Word has ever witnessed, and concerning whom He has so clearly warned His people.

Today medicine is not a science, but a hopeless jargon of opposing theories. God has never promised to bless it or to heal His people by means of the poisonous drugs; indeed, He could not, for physicians do not agree amongst themselves as to either diagnosis or treatment.

This woman, like the woman Jesus healed of an issue of blood, had "suffered many things of many physicians, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

The poisons which she swallowed and applied in seeking healing, brought on a more deadly disease than any of the others. Paralysis was slowly but surely closing its icy fingers about her heart. One of her little ones was also a sufferer from disease. The defiling fingers of Satan had been laid upon her eyes. They were swollen and painful. For a time she could not see.

They were rapidly growing worse, and total blindness was threatened. Thus, mother and daughter were suffering when the Little White Dove came into their home.

Upon its snowy wings it bore a Message of Hope.

It told them that it was not the Will of their Father in Heaven that they should suffer from disease.

It proclaimed His Covenant, given so many centuries ago, "I am Jehovah that healeth thee."

It declared the Truth revealed in God's Word, "I am Jehovah, I change not."

It opened to their spirits that wonderful prophecy concerning God's Son, "Surely He hath borne our sicknesses, and carried our sorrows."

It pointed them to the wonderful record of its fulfilment in the life of Jesus, the Christ, who went about teaching and preaching and healing "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people."

They rejoiced to learn that that same

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. EDITH SPRAGUE.

214 EAST TWENTY-SEVENTH STREET,
TACOMA, WASHINGTON.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you some of the wonderful things which God has done for my children and myself. I say some, because it would be impossible to write them all.

Above everything else I thank and praise God for Zion teaching.

It has made a new person of me. It has taught me how to get right with God and how to live righteously. I have made mistakes but God has patiently led me along until I have lost my will in His.

When LEAVES OF HEALING first found me in a small place in the Cascade mountains, I was in miserable health, not able to do my own work. I was taking medicine, and sometimes almost wished to die.

Had it not been for my three little ones who needed Christian training, I should have preferred death to the existence I then led. I had female trouble about as badly as any one could have it and crawl around at all.

Had I gone to the doctors, I know they would have wanted to use the knife. I took treatment of Dr. E. B. Foot, of New York city. He promised to cure me in six months.

I took five different kinds of medicine, used two or three different washes and three different ointments regularly every day for six months.

At first I thought that I was getting better, but when the six months were up I was not better but had a new disease which was taking hold of me, which would soon have finished its deadly work—paralysis around the heart.

I was then taking LEAVES OF HEALING. Aileen, my second daughter, had only a short time before been healed through your prayers. I decided to stop taking medicine and trust the Lord.

I wrote to you to pray for me. The Lord heard and answered. I have not had any return of the disease that was over four years ago.

My other troubles did not go so soon. I had many things to learn, and to do and undo, which you will find an account in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume 11, No. 18.

Aileen was the first one to be healed in our family. She had sore eyes (purulent ophthalmia). There was about one week that she could not see at all.

The eyelids were so badly swollen that the lids could not be pulled apart; she suffered a great deal with them. We used all kinds of medicines which were considered good eye medicines, also every kind of poultice we could hear of; but to no avail.

They only grew worse.

As a last resort, I said: "I will telephone to Dr. Dowis to pray for her, and I will not use another drop of medicine in them."

I sent the dispatch on Monday morning, and by noon the swelling was all out of her eyes and she slept.

Before, she could not sleep, and are very little.

Saturday, January 17, 1903.

The next morning she opened them and came running to me saying, "See, Mamma, I can open my eyes."

I am satisfied that if I had not taken her to the Lord for her healing, she would have lost her eyes, as that disease completely destroys the eyes, when they are as bad as her eyes were.

Blanche was healed of worms.

She used to have very bad spells caused by them.

During the winter of 1900-1901, she was very sick and could not get up.

She caught cold and they would not come out. One night I thought that she was dying. I called on God, and He heard and answered speedily.

She was soon well again. The 7th of August, 1901, she was taken sick.

She showed symptoms of typhoid fever. As we have the best Physician, she was healed and back to school Monday morning.

She was in bed only one and one-half days.

I praise God for all He has done for me and mine.

It will soon be four and one-half years since I took the Lord for my Physician.

I have done all my own work, which is no little task, and taken care of a cow and chickens.

I try to go out once or twice every week with LEAVES OF HEALING. It has been such a blessing to me.

Before I read LEAVES OF HEALING I was spending fifteen dollars per month for medicine and twelve dollars per month for a girl to do my work.

Delbert was healed over three years ago of scarlet fever. He was healed almost instantly.

The children have all been healed of several different ailments. When they are sick they always want to ask God to heal them.

I ask Zion to pray for me and mine. I know that He is able to keep those which have committed unto Him.

My daily prayer is that God will use you to His honor and glory and to the blessing of many thousands.

Yours in the service of the Lord,

(Mrs.) Edith Sprague.

RECENT TESTIMONY OF MRS. EDITH SPRAGUE.

TACOMA, WASHINGTON, January 1, 1903.

DEAR BROTHER IN THE CHRIST:—Peace to thee and all Zion.

In compliance with your request, I will write you of God's goodness to myself and family.

Our dear Father has kept us and blessed us in many ways last year.

I have grown stronger spiritually as well as physically.

The Lord has kept my children in health, for which I am thankful.

My little boy had his arm broken last May, of which you will find an account in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume 11, No. 3.

Writing it, I took him to see the doctor, who examined it. He had to acknowledge that the arm was all right, but he said that if I pulled it out right.

I told him I did not. "Well," he said, "those things do not do them selves.

I told him that he was right; that God did it.

He got excited and angry, saying that God did not do those things.

I thank God that He does, and I want to learn more of His ways and live closer to Him.

I am more of His ways and live closer to Him.

I praise God for Zion teaching every day. It brings me closer to God.

Yours in His Service,

(Mrs.) Edith Sprague.
Dear General Overseer:

I praise the Lord for His goodness to me. My spirit sings praises unto God, because He has healed me. The Lord loves me, and has saved me from the pit of death. This kept on until Sunday when I sent for Elder Viking to come and pray with me. After this the disciples obeyed the commandment of the Christ. They went out to preach the Gospel; the Lord helping them, they performed miracles, thereby showing that what they preached was true. In our time the General Overseer is perfectly following the command of Jesus in this respect. Although I am young I have already experienced blessing at the time of laying on of hands in the Name of Jesus. In the summer of the year when eleven years old, I took sick with a fever which came on every day. My skin became very yellow and I began to get thin. At this time I was a student in the Baptist Boarding School for Girls in Ningpo. Although I am young I have already experienced blessing at the time of laying on of hands in the Name of Jesus. At this time I was a student in the Baptist Boarding School for Girls in Ningpo. I was immediately relieved, the pain stopped and I felt stronger. One hour afterwards I ate food, and then sat up for three hours. At 3 o'clock p.m., Elder Viking, Elder Cossam, and Mr. Se came to see me. All the disease had passed away. Many people were at that time sick with the same disease, and a great number had already died of it. Because of God's grace to me in sending the General Overseer to preach a Full Gospel, I received healing. I have testified in our Zion Tabernacle to these blessings, but now I give the testimony in written form, in order that many may know, repent, believe and be healed. I can testify to the fact that Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday, today and forever.

ZION IN THE ORIENT.

By Rev. Geo. L. Mason, B.A.B.D.

Overseer of the C.C.C. in China.

God Blesses Faithfulness in Paying Tithes.

SPAFFORD HOUSE, IPSWICH, November 1, 1902.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER: I should like to testify to the blessing of God received in paying tithes. In the eight months that I have been in Zion and paid my tithes I have had my salary increased four times. It has been the greatest blessing of my life, for which I thank God and you, dear General Overseer. I was next taken to a Huchow physician, Dr. Eubank, who said that it would be difficult to heal this disease. We had then come to Shanghai to the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and I wished that Jesus would heal me. In the beginning of November, at an evening meeting, Elder Viking laid hands on me in the Name of Jesus and prayed, and from that evening my cough and fever-sweats stopped and I was healed. From that time it has been my desire to quickly obey Jesus. December 7th Elder Viking baptized me. I thank my Heavenly Father that from the time I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, my body has increased in strength. My heart is very happy and now I am praying that the Lord may help the officers of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to work miracles in His Name in order to testify to the truth of the Gospel. I also hope that those who hear and read this testimony may receive blessing.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Jehovah shall open unto thee his good treasure."

The heaven to give the rain in its season, and to bless all the works of thine hand:

And thou shalt lend unto many nations; and thou shalt not borrow.

In the editorial notes of our issue of November 15, 1902, page 101, we declared that these solemn words of Moses, the leader of God's Israel, which are recorded in the 28th chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy, had become a matter of most earnest consideration and prayer, and had led us finally to the most important declaration of Zion's financial policy.

We wrote:

"We have determined to obey, God helping us, at all risks, the command, "Thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow."

We had scarcely made the declaration before we were subjected to very severe temptations. A very large sum of money was offered us on loan, upon excellent terms, and for several weeks it did not seem as if God were responding to our appeal in any very large measure, for the capital required to push forward the industries which has been so strongly and victoriously established in Zion City.

On the morning of Lord's day, December 28th, we clearly discerned the hindrance. In a very forcible speech in our great gathering at 6:30 a.m. in Shiloh Tabernacle, we declared our purpose of standing by the policy of not borrowing.

We demanded that all our officers and all our people should loyally support us in it, and repent of their past failure to do so in some cases.

God mightily blessed our words, and on the following day, Monday, December 29th, more than eighty thousand shares of Zion stocks in the various institutions, amounting to nearly one hundred and seventy thousand dollars, were subscribed.

Within that week, ending January 2d, subscriptions for shares of Zion stocks in the various institutions, amounting to nearly one hundred and seventy thousand dollars, were received.

The blessing has continued from day to day. In our issue of last week we reported that at the close of business on Friday, January 9th, the subscriptions for stock, from December 1st to that date, had amounted to $414,300.
The Daily Blessing still continues.

We have now the joy of announcing that, up to the close of yesterday's business, Friday, January 16th, the subscriptions to Stock, from the 1st day of December, amounted to the sum of Five Hundred and Fourteen Thousand and One Hundred Dollars ($514,100).

We therefore say, that God has in a marvelous manner justified our faith in Him and in His inspired Word to Israel, since in forty-one business days God has poured into Zion over half a million dollars, payable on or before March 1st. This is an average of over $12,500 per day.

When our readers remember the severe attacks of the press upon Zion's Financial Institutions, continued over several months, and the cooperation of certain powerful evil elements in the business world, these results are all the more remarkable.

The press, save for a few foolish remarks, such as the editorial squib by the Chicago Tribune, to which we directed attention on Lord's Day, January 4th, in the Chicago Auditorium, has now come to recognize the fact that the stocks in Zion Industries have advanced to ten per cent above par. They are commenting upon the announcements which we are enabled to make from week to week of the continuous pouring of resources into Zion.

Most of the misrepresentation and lying has now entirely ceased, and even our adversaries express unbounded astonishment.

It is also everywhere admitted that this confidence in Zion's Commercial and Financial Institutions is well founded.

All visitors to Zion City can see at a glance that God has indeed been with us, and that a substantial and powerful City is being strongly established.

We have received a very interesting report from our Manager of Zion Lace Industries, Deacon Arthur Stevenson, under date of January 12th. He informs us that our Factory is now supplying Zion Lace to over five hundred (500) of the largest retail dry-goods stores in the Principal Cities of the United States of America. He says:

Up to date we have taken 500 orders. 1 We had 500 in the old year, up to December 31st, and the 60 is the quota added to the new year's work.

Three hundred of these orders have been shipped; 37 of these being in the new year. Three hundred of these orders have been shipped; 37 of these being in the new year.

So you see that even now the orders come faster than we are able to get them out.

I am almost afraid to send out any more travelers, because I know they will take orders as rapidly that we shall not be able to make the goods and deliver them in time.

The spring business will be immensely larger than the fall, and with our present limited capacity we will only turn out enough goods to tantalize the market, whetting its appetite, and not being able to satisfy it.

As may be supposed, our manager goes on to plead for an increase of Machinery, and that additional orders shall be placed for new machines with English builders as rapidly as possible.

This we are doing.

In a few days a number of very large, beautiful and new machines will be delivered at the Factory; and with the increased capital coming to us, we shall be able to place larger orders this year than we had supposed likely.

Our English lace experts in the designing, drafting, making, dressing, bleaching and preparing departments, have all worked splendidly.

They have educated hundreds of Americans—men, youths, women and girls—who are intelligently going forward learning this beautiful trade.

Whilst we write we have in our hands some of the most beautiful designs that we have ever seen from our lace industries, and we do not wonder that they have been immediately purchased by the largest lace houses in the United States, who are eager to get their supplies quickly.

One of the convincing evidences of the esteem in which the product of Zion lace industries is held is the large space which dry-goods houses in various cities give to costly advertising in the public daily papers.

The firm to whom we have given the exclusive right, for the time being, in the City of Omaha, Nebraska, advertises Zion Laces in about one half of an entire page of the Omaha Bee.

Merchants as near to us as Waukegan, Illinois, have published expensive advertisements in the local papers there.

This practice is now becoming general, and the fact that merchants are prepared to pay large sums to advertise our Laces in their interests of their own trade shows their sincere business appreciation.

We have, also, a number of very appreciative letters from large houses in all parts of the United States.

Not having asked their permission to publish their names, we cannot do so; but we shall make some quotations to show how Zion Laces are received.

These letters are from many different States—North, South, East and West.

We will quote from only a few of them.

One large house in Missouri says:

Your laces are very satisfactory in values and styles. We would like you to send us samples of a few of your best values in Lace Curtains. Kindly have them come forward by express at once, together with prices.

The house from which this letter is written is one that extends over an entire block in the city where it has been established for many years.

---

ANOTHER LETTER, written from an important city in the State of Illinois, says:

We received your Laces and are very much pleased with them, and your promptness in filling orders.

We are interesting the people with Zion laces, and their praise is of the highest, in favor of the beauty and design of your laces.

We had a New York representative of a large lace house here who formerly sold Laces to us. He said he could not compete with Zion Laces, and packed his grip and left; so much for Zion Laces and prices.

We wish to buy our Lace Curtains from you this year.

Please ship a line of samples as soon as you have a complete line ready.

Please inform us how soon we can see them, as we are overrun with salesmen showing Lace Curtains, but we will not buy until we see your line.

Please keep us informed on the new things you make.

Give us your careful attention, and we will do our Lace Curtain and Lace Business with you.

We shall make a grand Zion Lace display in one of our large windows as soon as the weather permits.

---

ANOTHER large business house in Kentucky writes:

We have had one sample order of your Laces, and found same to be very satisfactory.

Would like to ask if you would send us samples of your Laces, that we may select and order such patterns as wanted.

Please send same at once, and oblige.

---

FROM A CITY IN TEXAS, a very artistic gown maker and high-class tailor, who is also an importer and dealer in laces, etc., writes:

Your laces are very pretty and good indeed.

---

A LITTLE INCIDENT told us verbally by our manager will also prove how well founded our statement is that we have completely captured the American market, and that our beautiful Zion Lace is more than a match for the European product, which has heretofore been all that Americans have been able to get.

A very large house in Chicago, which has bought thousands of dollars' worth of our Laces already, was very desirous to see some of our most recent designs, and asked the manager to come in and show them, which he did.

After making a very satisfactory purchase, the following incident was told:

They were apparently trying to find out whether their customers were buying the Zion Lace from curiosity or because of its superiority, and they took a very practical way to test it.

They removed all the Zion labels from the Laces, put on their own labels, and then mingled our Zion Laces in their Lace Hampers with the English and French products.

The result was that our Laces were all taken and the others were left.

This was an unsolicited and a convincing tribute to the undoubted superiority of Zion Laces.

---

WE THINK we have a right to "glory in the Lord" in these facts, when it is remembered what trials and toils we have gone through to establish this Industry.

It will be very satisfactory to our beloved people in all parts of the world to know that our success is apparently so assured.

---

WE HAVE ROOM in our present Factory, which we built in excess of our immediate needs, for a very great deal of machinery, and we shall now address ourselves to using the large sums of money which have been subscribed for lace stock, when we receive it, in the Purchase of additional new machinery, and in the pushing of the Industry in every possible way.

IT WILL not be long until we shall require to build another complete Zion Lace "unit" like unto the one that we now have, which is most perfect in every detail, and which covers eight acres of floor space.

We intend to keep on doing this as rapidly as we can get the Capital, and educate the people.

---

WE HAVE Scores of Millions of Dollars of Trade per annum in sight; and, notwithstanding that we are selling lace so much lower in price than the imported article, we are making large and satisfactory profits.

---

THE BEAUTIFUL Zion Lace Curtains, which are now to be seen in Elijah Hospice and the windows of our offices and rooms in the Administration Building, have attracted much attention in the novelty and beauty of their design.

---

EARLY NEXT MONTH we hope to place a very large quantity of these Lace Curtains in the market, but we have fewer Lace Curtain Machines than we have Lace Machines, and we are giving our attention principally to the latter, laces being more profitable.

These Lace Curtains can be had in all parts of the country, and also through Zion City General Stores, within a few weeks.

God has wonderfully favored us in being able to lay hold of a beautiful and useful Industry, which will enable us to give employment to tens of thousands of persons; not only in the manufacture of these Laces, but in other Industries which will naturally arise out of our great success.

We are somewhat amused, and also very much interested, in the unexpected demand which has arisen in all parts of the United States, and even in distant countries, for Zion Sugar and Confection Association Pure Candy Products.

The Purity, Originality and Workmanship of Zion City Candies is already so well established in our own immediate neighborhood that surrounding towns send in their buyers, and, with the demand in our own little city, we use up completely every pound that the Factory can make.

We trust to receive subscriptions to that Stock, so that we shall be able to build a large Factory in the coming spring.

Indeed, we have begun work upon the foundation, although the weather is not favorable for going on with the work as rapidly as we could wish.

We also need special capital for this.

It is clear to us that the fact that we are producing so beautiful and pure a Confection is being warmly appreciated by Christian fathers and mothers throughout the land.

The dangers, and often disasters, that follow the eating of many poisonous confections, is leading large numbers of retailers to urge us to push on with our Industry.

There is no doubt that with a well-equipped factory and plenty of machinery, our excellent brethren, Deacons Rodda and Cook, than whom there are no more experienced superintendents of candy factories in America, will be able to establish a large and remunerative business.

Zion City Laundry and Zion Milling and Baking Association are pushing forward their work rapidly, and they doubtless have a great future before them.

The lamer is being put upon a strong foundation, and we hope before the year is through to supply, not only Zion City, as we do now, and the neighborhood, but our friends in distant places.

Zion City General Stores have done an amazing business during the past year.

These Stores arrest at once the attention of all visitors to the City, by their magnitude, excellent arrangement into departments, splendid order, and good administration in every way.

Deacon Clendinen makes an able and efficient General Manager.

But it will be impossible for us to deal with the Stores in a brief Editorial Note.

It is our intention, however, to bring the Story of Zion up to date in our Anniversary Issue of February 28th, which will contain the report of our Anniversary Gatherings, and a Review of the whole work of Zion in all its four great Divisions — Ecclesiastical, Educational, Commercial, and Political.

We hope to prepare also a careful outline of the Progress made in Zion City, illustrating the Wonderful Story by a large number of photo-engravings of the Hospices, Tabernacle, College and School Buildings, Administration Building, Public and Private Houses, Factories, etc., actually visible.

These will probably require to be added as Extra Supplements to our Leaves of Healing from week to week for probably the whole of the month of March.

We shall do our utmost to give our friends everywhere a good View of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and of the City of Zion as they appear to us on our Seventh Anniversary.

We are gradually receiving detailed Annual Reports for 1902 from our various Institutions and Departments in Zion.

We shall give numerous extracts from these in the approaching Supplements containing the story of Zion.

We think, however, that it may be well to state some facts in connection with one Department to which we have given the control of many matters connected with Zion City; namely, the Zion Land and Investment Association.

Deacon H. Worthington Judd, in his Annual Statement of Business, shows that we have expended for the year 1902 on Buildings for Association Purposes, Teams, Equipments, Tools, Street Improvements, Grading, Genera' Office Expenses, Sidewalks, Horticulture, Forestry, Engineering and Surveying, Artesian and other Wells, Sewer Construction and Water Mains, the sum of One Hundred Sixty-five Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-five Dollars and Sixty-one Cents ($165,325.61).

In addition to this, a vast sum of money has been paid on account of Land Purchase, Dividends on Stock, Taxes, etc.

Our leasehold sales' account shows that we have received the sum of One Million Fifty-one Thousand One Hundred Thirty-one Dollars and Eight Cents ($1,051,131.08) from July 14, 1901, up to December 31, 1902.
When we call attention to the fact that the entire cost of the Land Purchase is only One Million Eighty-Five Thousand Three Hundred Eighty-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($1,085,382.50) it will be seen that we have received a sum in payment of Leasehold Purchases nearly equal to the entire cost of the whole area.
