ZION TABERNACLE.

ZION means strength, or a fortress. Truly God has manifested His strength in a very remarkable way in this little frame Tabernacle, and has made it a spiritual fortress. Since the beginning of this year more than twenty thousand sick persons have been prayed with, accompanied by the laying on of hands, in the name of the Lord Jesus, within its walls. Of these, a vast number have been healed. Many thousands have been led to sincere repentance for sin, and, through faith, have found salvation and peace. Christians witness that it has also been to them a place of blessing, where they have been led into the King's Highway of Holiness. Many a weary pilgrim in "the valley of weeping" has found in it the "well" of consolation and refreshing. Joyful songs of loudest praise have rung forth from its courts, and, by the agency of the secular daily press, Zion Tabernacle and God's wonderful work therein have been made known in all parts of this country and in many other lands.

We have thought that a picture of this humble headquarters of our work in Chicago might be appreciated by the tens of thousands who have visited it, and by the still larger number of our distant friends, in all parts of the world, who have never seen it.

It was built by the Chicago Branch of the International Divine Healing Association, for a World's Fair Mission, and was opened on the first Lord's Day after the opening of the Fair, May 7th, 1893. But it attracted very little attention at that time, although vast multitudes of pleasure seekers passed its doors. Still it was open, for the greater part of the time, every day save Saturday; and gradually, toward the end of the Fair, many began to attend the meetings. A severe winter, and wide spread depression and destitution in the city and country followed the shameful scenes of wasteful extravagance, unbounded licentiousness, and inordinate vanity of that Vanity Fair. Our Tabernacle stood silent guard at the gates of the deserted "White City," and all through the winter the services were patiently continued, in the once thronged, but then deserted, region around the Fair Grounds. It was sometimes weary work; but we waited for the morning, and it came. We knew the Tabernacle had not done its work. Yes, it came, a steadily rising tide of blessing, until long ere the snow and ice had disappeared, thousands and tens of thousands, not only from Chicago, but from distant cities and states were thronging it, and all the surrounding buildings, almost to suffocation. Multitudes gathered far beyond its capacity and were glad to get a place outside a window, or within hearing distance, whilst hundreds stood within the Tabernacle, crowded the platform, the prayer-rooms, etc. Wave after wave of Divine power swept over these throngs, and God was glorified in thousands of conversions and healings through Faith in Jesus Christ. Great down town and suburban meetings were held to ease the pressure upon the Tabernacle. Meetings in the center of the city were held for many weeks every Lord's day afternoon in the Central Music Hall and continued, until midsummer, in Battery D. The first downtown meeting was thus described by the Daily Inter Ocean in its issue of Monday, April 16th: "Central Music Hall was packed from floor to ceiling yesterday afternoon with persons drawn either by necessity, sympathy or curiosity to hear the Rev. John Alexander Dowie and the testimonies of those who had been cured of their diseases through his ministry. If the hall had been twice its size it could have been filled easily by the crowds that were turned away. For three hours, from 2:30 to 5:30, those who were fortunate enough to obtain admission were content to sit and drink in the proceedings, and the few empty seats left by those who went out during the service were speedily filled by others from the outside." It was estimated that there were about 4,000 persons in the Hall at that service.

The meetings in the suburbs of South Chicago and Englewood were also attended by great crowds of persons, especially in the First Baptist Church, South Chicago, and in the Covenant Baptist Church, Englewood, into which buildings hundreds were unable to obtain admission week after week. The meetings still continue to be very largely attended, there being seldom a vacant seat in the Tabernacle. On last Lord's day, August 26th, after crowding every inch of standing and sitting room, many were content to stand at the window, or to remain in their carriages outside on the street, or in the prayer-room behind the Tabernacle, within hearing distance.

The spectacle which the Tabernacle presents is always intensely interesting from a philanthropic point of view. Thursday is denominated Children's Day, and Dr. Dowie resolutely refuses to see any grown up people, excepting in cases of extreme emergency, on that day. Then the children of all ages have complete possession of the Tabernacle and all its surroundings. Arriving early in the morning they take their seats, or sit upon the floor or the platform piling up and piling up on mothers' knees, and often two in a chair, until the place is completely crowded. In addition to these, several rooms off the prayer-room are set apart for insane and feeble-minded children. The exercises are of the most simple and entertaining character, Dr. Dowie aiming to adapt himself to the comprehension of the youngest. Shortly after the opening of the service he frequently calls upon many whose little legs have been lengthened, deaf and dumb who can now speak and hear, some who have never walked from their birth who can now walk and leap and run, and all sorts of children to testify to their healing. Their mothers stand up with them and tell the simple story. On that day there are children everywhere, and oftentimes Dr. Dowie lays hands upon over five hundred children, seeing them in the prayer-room in well-ordered and quiet companies of eighty to one hundred. As many as twenty different nationalities are sometimes represented on Children's day.

We shall give in an early issue a sketch of the Children's day.

The earnestness of the throngs who gather is seen in the fact that oftentimes they will take their places in the Tabernacle hours before the beginning of the service, and will wait even until nearly midnight in the hope of being seen. Oftentimes the platform in the Tabernacle during a service will be surrounded by many persons lying upon cots and invalid chairs, some of whom have been brought in that condition for many hundreds of miles.

On the last page of this issue some of these cots are seen in the picture entitled "Captured From the Enemy," which is a photograph of the back of the Tabernacle platform. One great feature of the Tabernacle and other services is the large number of persons, who at the close of Dr. Dowie's addresses will rise when he utters what he calls "God's Call to Repentance." As many as two thousand persons have risen at one time in the downtown meetings and have openly professed their repentance toward God and their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, following Dr. Dowie audibly in an impressive penitential prayer. The spiritual always precedes the physical work in the Tabernacle. Repentance for sin, and faith for salvation always precede the ministry of healing.

Our hearts are filled with praise as we think of what God has wrought in Zion Tabernacle, and, although it may be that He will give us a larger building and a more permanent structure, we shall ever remember with unceasing joy, the things that "God hath wrought" within these sacred walls, where we have so often read the words, (Psalm 20: 1, 2).

"The Lord answer thee in the day of trouble,
The name of the God of Jacob set thee up on high
Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion "

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

A Series of Lectures by the Editor, presenting the Gospel of Healing through Faith in Jesus Christ, as taught by him during his many years of ministry in many lands.

LECTURE ONE.

THE OPENING OF THE BEAUTIFUL GATE OF DIVINE HEALING.

An address Delivered at the Afternoon Service in Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, on Lord's Day, July 29, 1894.

"And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him." Acts of the Apostles 3: 10.

THE opening of the beautiful gate of Divine Healing in the apostolic church is before us in this wonderful story.

The event happened very shortly after the Day of Pentecost when three thousand persons were saved by the preaching of the gospel of salvation through faith in Jesus. This miracle of healing was followed by a sermon which produced even greater results, for it is written, Acts 4: 4: "Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand." The gospel of salvation standing alone produced three thousand converts, but when it was allied to divine healing, one sermon produced five thousand. Surely this glorious opening of the beautiful gate of Divine Healing in the apostolic church is, therefore, an event of the highest importance and most profound significance.

We shall first of all recall

THE CIRCUMSTANCES AND THE PLACE

which this wonderful opening of the Gate of Divine Healing takes in connection with the early history of the church of Christ, and, then, the application which this story has to our present conditions.

When our Lord Jesus Christ died on the cross and His disciples saw a lifeless body taken down from that "accursed tree," wrapped in that bloody shroud, and buried in that gloomy sepulcher in the garden; when they saw the stone rolled into its place, the sepulcher closed and the Roman seal put upon it and heathen soldiers guarding that tomb, their hopes were buried with their beloved dead. Two of His disciples are walking together to Emmaus and they speak of these hopes as in the past tense whilst talking as they supposed with a stranger, "We trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel." It is the third day and His body still remains in the earth. Suddenly they discover they are talking to the living Christ Himself and when that is impressed upon His disciples, that He is living, that He has risen from the dead, that the bloodless body has been reanimated by the Eternal Spirit of God, that by that Power He has risen from the dead and that He is walking about in their midst, their hopes are also resurrected. Then they go before Him into Galilee and for forty days He speaks unto them "of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God," and, returning with them, He leads them out as far as to Bethany, lifts up his hands, blesses them, and in that act is parted from them and carried up into heaven. Then they gather into that upper room waiting for the promise of the Father which they have heard from His lips, and it is fulfilled. The Holy Ghost descends, rests upon them, abides in them, and in the power of that spirit they go forth to preach the Everlasting Gospel.

WHAT IS THE BEGINNING OF THE GOSPEL?

Some will reply, "It is faith," and will tell you that the preacher must first say "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." It is not true. Faith is not the beginning of the gospel. It is repentance, not faith, which is the foundation of the divine life. When the Philippian jailer fell down before Paul and Silas saying, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" it was right that they should reply "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved and thy house," but it must be remembered that they were speaking to one who had truly repented, who asked the question sorrowing for his sins and feeling the awful burden of his guilt. The answer to this question, What is the beginning of the gospel? is given in the first words of the gospel according to St. Mark:

"The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the son of God, as it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face which shall prepare thy way before thee; the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins."

This is the beginning of the gospel: for when Jesus came (Mark 1: 15) "preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God," He said "The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel." He everywhere declared that he had come "to call sinners to repentance" and when Peter preached this gospel on the day of Pentecost he cried, "Repent, and be baptized everyone of you in the name of the Lord Jesus for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." This was the gospel of Paul who preached "repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ," and in all our teaching and in all our preaching of this Gospel of Divine Healing, let it be ever remembered that we place the gospel of salvation first and demand in Jesus' name repentance, full, sincere and complete, practical and thorough, as a precedent to faith. No man can truly believe who has not truly repented and it is because of the multitudes of impenitent persons in the church to-day who profess faith in Christ, that the progress of the gospel is everywhere hindered. Having preached this gospel of repentance and faith, having won thousands to rest in Christ for their salvation, rejoicing in God through the Spirit, the church was filled with divine expectation. "They that gladly received his word were baptized . . . and continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine, and fellowship and in breaking of bread, and in prayers." Communion in spiritual led to community in material things. "All that believed were together and had all things common." Possessions were sold, the needy were supplied, the temple of God rang with their praises, they "ate their daily bread with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people."

BUT THERE WAS SOMETHING MISSING.

The gospel had not reached the multitudes as it was destined to do. But the hour came. "It was the hour of prayer." Every blessing will come in the hour of prayer. Peter and John went up into the temple together at the hour of prayer. Doubtless it was the time of the evening sacrifice, three o'clock in the afternoon, the ninth hour. Multitudes were wont to gather every day to behold the wonderful ceremony, where, amid all the splendor of the Jewish ritual, the blood of the innocent lamb was shed and the smoke of its sacrifice ascended from that altar in the presence of vast assemblages. It was a good place to proclaim Jesus as the Lamb of God who had suffered and died and risen again to take away the sin of the world. Just as Peter and John are about to enter the beautiful gate of the temple, the cry of a beggar, importunate and shrill, strikes their ears and touches their hearts. They look upon him. He is impotent and has never walked, for more than forty years he has lived, but his feet have never trod the sacred precincts of the temple of God; he is lame from his birth, "lame from his mother's womb." He is only a beggar, but poor as he is, they are at that moment poorer still. They have neither silver nor gold and yet they love to give, for the Master had said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

THE BEGGAR'S HISTORY.

Looking upon this man let us think of what he must have known and of the strange years that he had passed through.

He must have been about seven years old and well able to remember when the cruel old King Herod had murdered the children of Bethlehem under two years of age in his endeavors to kill the infant Jesus, he might have heard the strange cry of the Wise Men of the East as night and day it rang through the streets of Jerusalem. "Where is he that was born king of the Jews, for we have seen his star in the east and have come to worship him?" And then the little lame boy would hear that the sacred council of the Seventy had declared that the King was to be born in Bethlehem, indeed, that he had been born. The shepherds there had seen the angel and heard the heavenly throng proclaiming the birth of the Redeemer. This little boy might have heard how Simeon and Anna had blessed the infant Redeemer. And then for long years all was silent, until one day a strange, mysterious boy came up from Egypt to Nazareth, and shortly after came with His parents to Jerusalem and had filled the Temple with the fame of His wondrous wisdom. This man, a beggar at the beautiful gate of the Temple might have seen and heard Joseph and Mary eagerly asking if anyone had seen their lovely son. He still lay at the Beautiful gate when the mightiest of all the prophets, who broke the long silence of four centuries, came to proclaim the coming of the Messiah. He must have heard how that mighty prophet had preached repentance and had stripped the priests and rulers of their hypocritical garments, had unmasked the adultery of the weak king and denounced his voluptuous and filthy paramour, Herodias; and had demanded that all men in all conditions should repent, and prepare for the coming of the Christ. Lying there at the beautiful gate, this beggar must have heard much of that preaching which had stirred all men's hearts, and he would be told how Jesus Himself came down from Galilee to Jordan, to be baptized of John. He would hear that as He came up out of the water He was proclaimed by the Eternal Father as His Son, that He was filled with the Holy Ghost, and declared by John the Baptist to be "the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." This poor beggar must have heard the strange story. Many would tell him of that wondrous appearance when the Holy Dove rested upon the Christ, when the voice from heaven said "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased;" and how he would watch for the coming of the Christ to his Temple; and then how often he must have seen Jesus in his three years of ministry. Strange, is it not, to think that he must have seen Him and heard Him so often, must have been within touch of that garment which so many had touched and received healing, and yet that he never sought and found deliverance? Why was he not healed when Christ was there? We think we can tell. It is not difficult to read between the lines. The beggar at the Beautiful gate of the Temple would be told by priest and scribe the shameful lies which they had invented concerning the Christ. He might have joined in their hatred and have come to loathe the very presence of Jesus, fearing lest in touching Him he would touch one who was possessed by Beelzebub, the prince of devils. The priests would teach him that lie. It was the ministers of God's Temple who kept back this poor sufferer from "the Fountain open for sin and all uncleanness," and false shepherds to-day are driving back God's sick and weary sheep from the well of healing. There are many to-day who say, "Seek not the Christ for healing now; He is not with us as in days of old; He has changed and will not hear your cry; beware of those who proclaim He is yet the same to-day;" and then they might say, "take care lest in seeking Christ for healing you should be found to be in Satan's path." And so the poor man lay there, and so tens of thousands lie to-day, at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple of the church of God, sick and dying, deceived by faithless and false men who profess to be the preachers of an unchangeable Christ. And so this man would see his Lord dragged out to die, and perhaps might have joined with the crowd in the cry, "Crucify him." And as Christ in His agony passed by, the rabbis might say to the beggar, "Are you not glad you didn't touch Him? See how God has forsaken Him. Hear Him groan as He carries the cross; behold Him creeping along the streets and fainting beneath its burden. Are you not glad you didn't touch Him." and perhaps the poor man cried, "Oh, false Christ, so glad am I that I did not touch you, don't you see that God is against you? He has stricken you, He has afflicted you, thou false Messiah." It may be that he simply neglected, and did not reject and revile the Christ as I have supposed, but such a rejection was the common crime of the people as a whole, as Peter alleged. One thing is certain, that he might have been healed and was not, and it must have been through unbelief. But now the Christ has risen, THE PENTECOST OF JOY HAS COME, the poor beggar at the gate is sharing in the resurrection glory that fills the Temple with praise from day to day. He knows these men whom Jesus loved and called to be apostles. He has often looked into the face of the loving John and the genial Peter, and now he asks them for an alms. He does not shrink from them now, although he knows they are the servants of the Nazarene whom he rejected. Peter is searching in his pockets and finds that he has no money. "John have you any?" "No." "None?" "Well, what can we do? We can't pass this man by? The Lord told us to take care of the poor." Then in that moment there came a heavenly flash, a divine inspiration and illumination which reveals to them one of the gifts of the Holy Ghost which they had not hitherto exercised.

"THE GIFTS OF HEALINGS."

They had preached salvation only, salvation from sin; they had not preached salvation from sickness. Now they remember that Christ has sent them with the same gospel of saving health as that which He preached, and has given them His commission to "heal the sick." The nine gifts of the Spirit are within them (1 Corinthians 12: 7-11) the word of wisdom, the word of knowledge, faith, gifts of healings, workings of miracles, prophecy, discernings of spirits, divers kinds of tongues, and interpretation of tongues. All these gifts have for the most part lain unused. Now they remember, and in a moment, in the power of the Spirit, Peter says: "Silver and gold have I none but such as I have give I thee." Then in the Name that is above every name, the Name this man has now learned to love, they cry, "In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk," and grasping him by the hand he lifts the beggar up. Immediately, his feet and ankle bones receive strength, and leaping up he stands, walks, and enters with them through that Beautiful gate into the Temple, "walking and leaping and praising God." "And all the people saw him walking and praising God." And they know (none can destroy the fact) that it is the same man that has lain there for forty years impotent and helpless, for it is written, (Acts 4: 22), "The man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was showed." What cries of rejoicing came from the man's heart and voice. "Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Jesus of Nazareth is the Christ of God," you can imagine him shouting as he enters into the Temple. "Hallelujah, Jesus is the Christ of God." Temple servants and soldiers in vain endeavor to still his shouts of triumph and of thanksgiving, and bid him cease to make a noise. "What," he might cry, "not make a noise! when I who never walked for forty years can leap and run, made whole by Jesus' name! Hallelujah, Jesus is the Christ, the son of God." and so the people would cry in response "Hallelujah, Jesus is the Christ." Oh, such a noise. The few temple guards and servants are swept away by the tide of divine enthusiasm and perhaps many of them would join in the cry, "Hallelujah, Christ is God," and no one cares a pin about the evening sacrifice and the poor old priest with all his mummery is left to burn it up alone. They care nothing for the incense and the music. This man's testimony is a greater thing than all the ceremonial sacrifice; and as he holds the apostles they gather around them in thousands, asking how this great miracle has been wrought. The people are stirred and all kinds of conjectures are made. Perhaps there might have been a doctor there, as there was in Battery D in this city the other day, when one hundred and fifty of our brethren and sisters testified to their healing before several thousands of persons. He rose up and said, "Yes, I will tell you how all these things are done; that man (meaning myself) has magnetic forces that will heal at any distance and heal all whom he pleases." It might have flattered my vanity, if I had any of that silly commodity, for me to have accepted this exalted estimate; but it would have dishonored God. Men were doubtless willing then, as they are now, to give glory to one another, and account for Divine Healing in every way but the right way. But now Peter sees that the time has come to still this tumult and out there, in all probability in Solomon's Porch, with the thousands gathered around them, he preaches that great sermon with this living text, God's own witness to Christ's resurrection glory. Peter says, "I will tell you how this man was healed. Why look ye upon us as though we by our own power or holiness had made this man to walk. The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up and denied Him in the presence of Pilate when he was determined to let him go. And His name, through faith in His name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by Him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all."

And as they listen he preaches unto them this living Saviour and pleads with them in the beautiful words that closed this discourse: "Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities."

But the sacred council have rallied their forces, and their armed men force their way through the crowds, seize the apostles, drag them to the prison, and thrust them into its darkest depths with words and blows of hate no doubt. This is their reward for a good deed, wrought in Jesus' Name. These priests who clamoured for the crucifixion of their Master are fully determined to destroy His servants. But, it is too late, for we read, "Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, believed and the number of the men was about five thousand." (Acts 4:4).

DIVINE HEALING IS THE GRIEF AND HATE OF FALSE SHEPHERDS.

These hypocrites were grieved that Christ is preached and especially that His resurrection is thus so manifestly proven. They could bear the preaching of salvation, they cared nothing for Pentecost, but when the beautiful gate of divine healing is thrown open wide in the name of Jesus and a great and notable miracle has been wrought which they cannot deny, they endeavor to destroy the evidence and to destroy the instruments. But it is all in vain. The morning dawns and the apostles boldly proclaim Christ before their priestly judges as the Healer, in these stirring words: "Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by Him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at naught of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is their salvation in any other; for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4: 10-12). Gnashing upon them with impotent rage, and afraid to strike lest they themselves should be hurled from their place of power by an outraged people, they threaten but let the apostles go, "finding nothing how they might punish because of the people, for all men glorified God for that which was done. And this story of a scene in Zion Temple long ago is repeated again to-day. We in this Tabernacle glorify God for that which has been done in all these long years of ministry through even our own humble agency, and for all that has been wrought by the agency of many others in many lands. Scores of living witnesses could arise any day in Zion Tabernacle at a word. I shall call them. Miss Katie Keck, arise!

[Miss Katie Keck of 390 Second Ave., Aurora, Ill., then rose and testified that on the previous Saturday week Dr. Fenger of the Mercy Hospital, Chicago, was to have removed her leg declaring that it was so much diseased that her life would be forfeited unless her leg was amputated. She told how she had suffered in her home in Aurora for eighteen months; how she had lain in Mercy Hospital for ten weeks, and had been operated upon several times in vain; how she had been carried into the Divine Healing Home and from thence into the Tabernacle where she heard the words of God from Mrs. Dowie's lips and had then been brought into the prayer room where Dr. Dowie had laid his hands upon her and prayed, and at once all pain had passed away, and she had walked. Then turning to the display of scores of crutches, braces, etc., etc., on the wall above the platform, Dr. Dowie rapidly recalled many of the healings connected with them and called upon all present who had been healed through his agency in that tabernacle to stand. Over sixty persons stood.] Continuing his discourse, Dr. Dowie said:

I never thought of asking one of these persons here to testify when I began this discourse. But there they stand, healed of cancer, paralysis, rheumatism, hip disease, with legs lengthened, spinal disease, with their spines straightened out, etc., etc. Oh, what a glorious sight! Had we desired, hundreds might have been brought here. But these are enough, and now let us apply this story to our present condition. THE TIME HAS COME TO PUT DIVINE HEALING ON THE AGGRESSIVE AND NOT ON THE DEFENSIVE. I deny the falsehoods taught in Jesus' name from the great majority of pulpits in Christendom, that disease is God's will and that Christ no longer heals through faith, His suffering children. I deny that this gate of divine healing has ever been closed or that the gifts of healing have been taken away. When were the gates closed? Why were the gifts removed? Some will say it was closed at the end of the apostolic era because God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to take away the gifts of divine healing as they had served their purpose in introducing the new dispensation, in proving that Jesus was Christ and that the apostles were His accredited messengers. They will allege that they were withdrawn that we might no longer depend on them but that through the infinite goodness of God we should find other modes of healing. They declare that medical science has taken the place of divine healing, and that no longer do we go to Christ but to the doctor. This is the teaching of a great part of the church concerning divine healing to-day. But that teaching is wholly false—contrary to Scripture and contradicted by facts. When did God withdraw the gifts? Is it not written (Rom. 11:29), "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance?" Then they never could have been taken away. The gifts of healings are one of the gifts of God which are the constant possession of the Church in the Holy Ghost. And oh, what miserable substitutes have been presented for divine healing by the allopath, the hydropath, the psychopath, the homeopath and all the other paths that lead to the grave. Where is the science in medicine? There is none. There are no physicians of any standing to-day in any department of medicine who will declare it to be a science. With my own ears, in my own native city University, Edinburg, I heard a renowned professor declare before more than two thousand students and professors, "Medicine is not science; it is purely empirical, from the days of Hippocrates and of Galen until now we have been stumbling in the dark from diagnosis to diagnosis, from treatment to treatment, and are stumbling in the dark still." What Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes declared in a discourse before the Massachusetts Medical Society is true: "I fairly believe that if the whole materia medica could be sunk to the bottom of the sea, it would be all the better for mankind, and all the worse for the fishes." Sir Astley Cooper, physician to Queen Victoria has declared: "The science of medicine is founded upon conjecture and improved by murder." These are the words of men accounted eminent in their profession, and they could be multiplied by hundreds, all proclaiming, "Medicine is a failure!" But Christ is not a failure. Let me again call for some of God's Witnesses in this Tabernacle to-day. Will Miss Keck come forward to the platform?

[Miss Katie Keck ascended the platform with a quick step and presented a bright and happy face as she turned to the large audience. Dr. Dowie said:

"Is your healing perfect?" "Yes, sir, it is."

"Can you leap and run?" "I can."

"Do it."

And so before the audience she leapt and ran.

Mr. Theological Professor, what are you going to make of her? She ought now, according to the dictates of medical and surgical "science," to be lying in Mercy Hospital with a bleeding stump, and a broken heart. You want to seal our lips and compel us to be silent. We hear your threatenings, and God is answering you. He is still stretching forth His Hand to heal. Go and glorify God and cease to sin, thou ecclesiastical fossil!

"Mrs. Lowrie," cried Dr. Dowie, addressing a lady in the audience, "Had you a cancer for several years?" "Yes sir."

"Is it gone?" "Yes sir."

"Did the doctors both in Canton, Ohio, and here in Chicago declare you would die if it was not removed by the knife?" "Yes sir."

"Who healed you?" "I was healed through faith in Jesus."

"Is not the breast that was full of cancer about three months ago, now full of milk, and do you not hold now in your arms at this moment a little baby that God has given to you since your healing, and does not that babe draw its nourishment from the very breast that was full of pain, and filled with that filthy disease?" "That is all true, sir, and I give God all the glory."

Mr. Theological Professor, what are you going to do with this woman? Are you going to do with her what the scribes did with Lazarus? Do you want to destroy her testimony by destroying her too? Of course you would not think of crucifying her except metaphorically."

"Mr. Lowrie, you were very sick yesterday?" "Yes sir, and near to death as I thought."

"You sent for me to pray for you?" "Yes sir."

"Are you well?"

"I was healed at once when you prayed and I give God all the glory." "Yes and I was miles away." And so calling one after another Dr. Dowie gave practical demonstrations asking after each one: "Mr. Theological Professor, what are you going to do about it?" amid the tears and laughter and hallelujahs of the audience.]

Continuing his discourse Dr. Dowie said:

This Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing is now opened wide. Only this year in this city of Chicago I have, as many of you know, laid hands upon more than twenty thousand persons who have sought the Lord for healing. And they have been healed in multitudes. I have exercised this ministry throughout Australia and this country; and, by means of those who have been blessed in these lands and throughout Europe and Asia and Africa, hundreds of thousands have received this teaching. Mr. Theological Professor, you are too late. The Gate is opened wide. Cease to persecute the students sitting under you in the Chicago University Theological Department and elsewhere. Cease to threaten them with the dire consequences of their believing in divine healing, and of their listening to Dr. Dowie. You are too late. The Beautiful Gate is Open! Open! Open! God has done it and you cannot close it. The sheep from all your folds are coming, and some of the shepherds. The Gate is opening wide for all the nations of the earth.

Let me tell you in closing of

HOW I CAME OUT ON THIS MISSION.

I was happy in the land of my adoption, the beautiful Australian land, and there is none fairer and more beautiful beneath God's sun. Oh what a future lies before that island continent that lay slumbering under the southern cross until awakened a century ago! I love the land in which I have spent more than twenty-five years of my life. I was happy in my ministry when I received an invitation in the early part of 1885 to attend an International Conference on Divine Healing and True Holiness to be held in London, England, in June 1885, under the presidency of that venerable and mighty man of God, since departed, the Rev. Dr. Boardman. I prayed earnestly concerning this invitation and my heart yearned to go. But I was in the midst of work which could not be laid down at that time. I wrote a letter which was afterwards published in the Report of that Conference and which closes the volume. It afterward attracted much attention in Europe and America. On the night, or rather in the early morning, when I had finished that letter, I walked out from my home into the lovely night. The city slept and all the earth was still—three o'clock in the morning. I got to a place where the city lay at my feet, and the sky was above me on every side, so that I could almost see down to the horizon. I looked up and asked God if I had made any mistake in the writing of that letter. I had said that in three years I would leave my home and enter upon a world-wide mission hoping to reach England when I had visited America. Had I erred? Ought I to send that letter? I seemed to want God to give me an answer concerning which there could be no mistake. But there was none.

"Stars over me silent, Graves under me silent."

Looking up again my heart was awed, my spirit was stirred, with the solemn beauty of the night. The Southern Cross hung low in the sky. At its foot was that blackest place in all the heavens, like a rent, without a star. As I looked into it, the misery, the shame and horror of sin and disease and death and hell seemed all to be buried there, there, at the foot of the cross. But whilst I continued to gaze, its darkness, in the stillness, appalled me. Then, suddenly, the earth seemed to be vocal. I could hear the wail of pain and the cries of the dying rising from all the continents, swelling up from all the cities and villages and hamlets and solitudes, from ten thousand times ten thousand homes where babes in mothers' arms and children lay dying and breaking loving hearts, where the wail of the widow and the fatherless arose from broken hearts. Oh, how can I tell it? I could hear the cry of the suffering coming up from all the earth, from millions of beds of weary pain, crying, "Oh Lord, how long? how long?" and my heart was broken. I wept bitterly and threw myself down in my agony. Was there no Helper? After a time, I arose and looked upward again. Now I saw that the Cross was pointing to the Milky Way, that glorious ladder of light which spans our southern sky, where galaxy after galaxy of starry glory lead upward to the sweet Pleiades, the seven sisters. The smallest to our eyes of these seven, some say, is the mightiest center of all the heavens, the center of all things, around which all the suns and systems revolve. Perhaps it is. Be that as it may, as I looked, the "sweet influences" of the Pleiades, of which Job sings, stole over me. I thought, perhaps the Throne of God is there; but the pathway to it is from the Cross. And as I looked I knew that I, too, had to carry the Cross of Christ from land to land and bid a sin stricken and disease smitten world to see that the Christ who died on Calvary had made atonement for sickness as well as for sin, that with His stripes we are healed. I knew that I would never reach the abode of peace except by taking up that Cross and following Him in a life of still more complete denial of self. And so the comfort of that peace came to my broken heart that night; and although the cry of the sorrowing and the dying is ever with me, and again and again breaks my heart, yea a thousand times, yet I have learned it is only a man with a broken heart who can ever carry on this ministry. A broken heart! A broken heart that feels the weight of human sorrow, sin and sickness. I can smile. I laugh. And sometimes people think perhaps, that I do not always take things seriously, and yet if I were to try to speak just as I feel, I think I would never speak at all. I could only stand before my fellow-men and weep. But God sends joy and His joy is my strength. But the night passed, and as I entered my Australian home in the first hour of the glorious light of day the stars had faded out of the sky, the lesson I had learned was with me, and I knew that it was right to leave that lovely Australasian land, and go forth on a pilgrimage carrying Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to every nation I could reach. I will do so while I live, and as this Gate opens from day to day, and year to year, I love my message more and more. I sow in tears what others may reap in joy, yet I reap too. But the Greater Harvest lies beyond. I may sow with my heart's blood amid these tears that which others will reap in joy. But I can sing as I go:—

"He that goeth forth and weepeth,
Bearing precious seed,
Let Him know that as he soweth
To the sinners' need,
So he'll reap.
Sowing now, sowing now,
But reaping by and by;
Weeping now, weeping now,
Rejoicing by and by."

My ministry is a joy. This city is opening wide its doors, with its million and a half of inhabitants. The land is all before us, with millions longing to know the Gospel that we teach. I cannot but feel a thrill of joy when I think that these words which I have preached here to-day, will appear in the first issue of our new series of Leaves of Healing. They will go forth from Zion Publishing House, which we have recently established, and be printed from new clean type that has never been used for anything else and by a new press which has never been used for any other purpose. My heart is singing for joy. I feel that these words, feeble though they are, they will be used of God to open the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing to multitudes in many lands. We gather here from week to week in one of our daily meetings an average of about five hundred sick children and often count more than twenty nationalities represented. And so from this City of Destiny, as some call it, this cosmopolitan city where good and evil, light and darkness, and truth and falsehood wrestle, we once more send forth our Dove with its message of love. May God bless every reader. We shall remain here until God calls us out to other cities and other lands. We shall with faithful loving hands open the Beautiful Gate in every place to which we come. The gates of hell shall not prevail against us. Divine Healing through faith in Jesus Christ has come, and come to stay. Amen and Amen.

(The Christian reader of this address is earnestly asked to pray for the speaker at 9 a. m. every Lord's Day.)

HOW DOES FAITH COME?

WE often hear the remark made by those who are seeking divine healing, "I prayed for faith to trust the Lord for healing and yet I could not get it." Our reply in all such cases is, "You are wrong. Faith does not come by praying." The Holy Spirit expressly teaches that, "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Rom. 10: 17). It can never be too earnestly impressed upon the children of God that this is the divine pathway to a perfect faith—RECEIVING. BELIEVING and ACTING UPON the teachings of the WORD OF GOD.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14: 6 and Exodus 15: 26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13: 8 and Matthew 28: 20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 and Matthew 8: 17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3: 8, Matthew 4: 23 and Acts 10: 38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11: 29 and 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8: 5-13, Matthew 18: 19, James 5: 14, 15, Mark 16: 18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

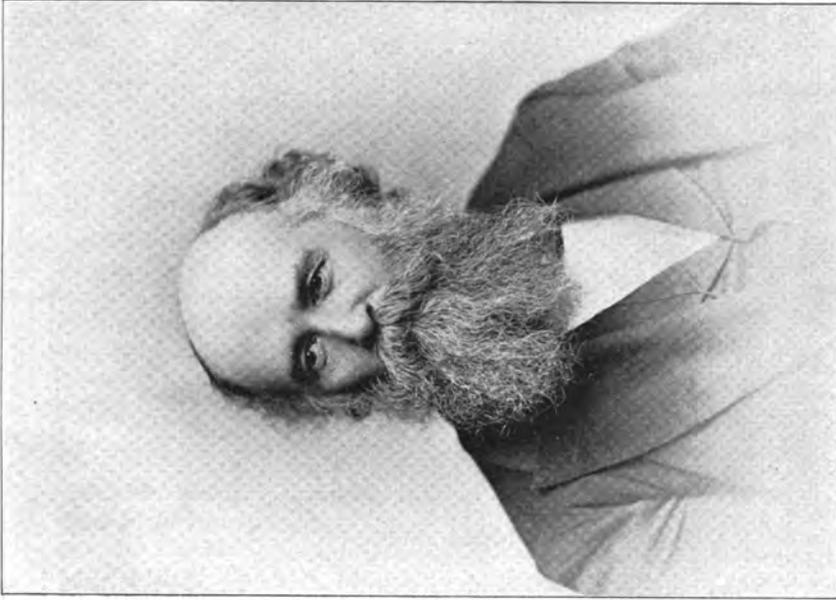

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

"Faith Cometh by Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God."

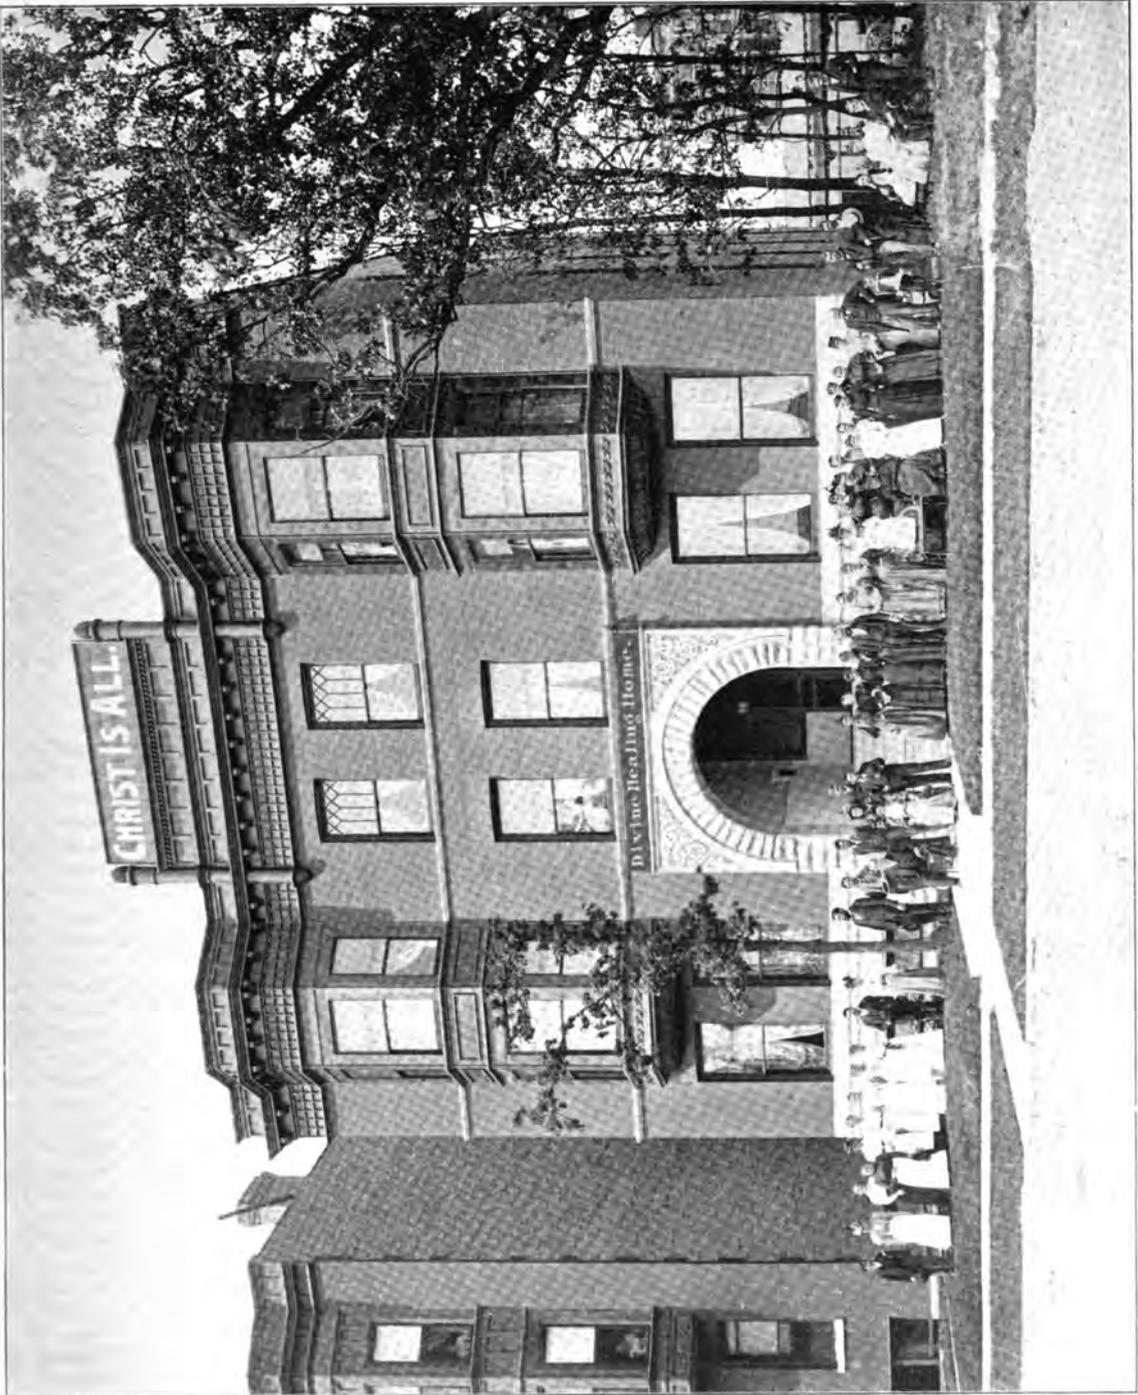

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

GREETING.

From Chicago we once more send forth our LEAVES OF HEALING and greet our readers, old and new, with hearty Christian love. We trust the Holy Dove will make it everywhere to be received as a Messenger of Divine Love. We shall write in that spirit even when the leaf has a smarting power, for we shall aim to heal even when we are compelled to hurt.

Our Father has given to us in Zion Publishing House a printing and electrotyping plant which enables us to send forth this "new series" in its present beautiful form. We give Him thanks and ask our friends everywhere to rejoice with us. We confidently ask the prayerful sympathy and practical support of the members of our Association and the friends of sin-stricken and disease-smitten humanity.

May every number be fresh from the Tree of Life and every reader find comfort and healing in its pages.

WE administered the Ordinance of Believer's Baptism by Trine Immersion (the primitive mode of baptism) in the waters of Lake Michigan at Manhattan Beach on Lord's Days July 15th and 22nd. On the first occasion we baptized one hundred and ten, and there were more than five thousand witnesses. Hundreds of converts are awaiting baptism and we hope to be able to announce a repetition of the ordinance at an early date.

A COMMUNION is always a blessed service. It takes us back into the presence of Jesus as He suffered, bled and died for us, when His humanity sanctified by the Divine Life bore the burden of our sorrows, sins and death. But the service held in Zion Tabernacle on the afternoon of July 29th, will be memorable in the history of our mission. It is not often that such a large number of persons who have long espoused opposing creeds, as Congregationalists, Episcopalians, Baptists, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Methodists, etc., unite for the first time in celebrating the Lord's Supper. About four hundred persons participated. From this we are encouraged to believe that the Lord's work here has awaiting it a great future of blessing.

H.

THE Ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Zion Tabernacle next Lord's Day at the close of the afternoon lecture. All who do truly repent of their sins, who rest in Christ for forgiveness, and who are resolved, by God's grace, to live better lives, will be most heartily welcome at the Lord's Table. We shall refuse no one who thus believes.

ON the afternoon of Lord's Day next, we shall deliver the first of two lectures entitled "The Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body," illustrated by a diagram which we constructed a number of years ago, and have used with much blessing in many lands. This is the central teaching of the mission and has been greatly used of God. One good bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church who had heard it several times, remarked to us that it had been more blessed to him than any discourse that he had listened to for many years, and that he would like to hear it every week. We rejoice that God has used our teaching in this manner and are looking forth to a Pentecostal blessing as a result of these lectures.

AT the morning service next Lord's Day we shall give a Grand Army soldier, named Nichols, an opportunity of telling of his marvelous healing after more than thirty years of sickness. Three weeks ago he was brought into Zion Tabernacle by several of his Grand Army comrades, in an invalid chair, suffering from no less than nine serious disorders, one of which was complete paralysis in his legs and feet. After hearing the address, he was brought into the healing-room where we prayed with him in the name of the Lord and he instantaneously arose and walked about. On Tuesday last he told the story, after three weeks of health, to a large audience in the Tabernacle, and we have asked him to repeat it, as we have said, next Lord's Day morning. He is a godly, earnest man, and tells his story in a very entertaining manner.

THE photo-engravings in this issue were made by Messrs. A. Zeese & Sons of 306 Dearborn St., Chicago, from pictures taken by Mr. Gibson of 195 Wabash Ave. We think our readers will agree with us that these firms ought to be congratulated on the excellency of their work. Both the arts of photography and engraving are making great progress in these days. We propose to harness them up into our team and make them of service in driving along the glorious chariot of the Everlasting Gospel of Salvation through faith in Jesus.

The great majority of our readers can never see the faces of those who have been healed nor the places at which we meet with multitudes of sick who come from all parts of this land. Pictorial representations will, we doubt not, help them to understand the work of our Lord still better. Everything good belongs to God and we propose to let Satan know it.

WE heard the other day of a Christian sailor who, after a long voyage, found, as he thought, the house of God on the first Lord's Day ashore. After listening to an earnest sermon at the close of which the announcement was made that the Lord's Supper would be celebrated, he expressed his intention of remaining, but was informed that he could not do so, there being no one to certify to his Christianity and the various other things which that church required. The sailor having heard this is said to have answered, "Oh, it doesn't matter, I am not sorry that I can't stay. I thought it was the Lord's table, but seeing that it is a private little affair of your own, I have no desire to remain."

The Lord's Table in Zion Tabernacle is not a private little affair of our own. It is open to all the Lord's people, and if we knew that a Judas Iscariot was there we don't see how we could refuse him, after the Lord's example in permitting him to partake. Each one must take the responsibility before God of their presence there.

THE editor has yielded to the solicitation of his staff and of many personal friends, to the publication of his photograph on the eighth page of this issue. He is told that that there are many who desire this and hopes that the gratification of this innocent wish will not be misunderstood. He trusts that no one will accuse him of personal vanity in agreeing to this, and at any rate, he will have the satisfaction of knowing that the charge is not true. Our friends in Australasia and Europe who have not seen our face for six years will recognize that the snows of winter are gathering upon our head, and that we look older than of yore, but we are younger than ever in heart, and we praise God that we are stronger in spirit, soul and body. We have no intention of writing in this column an outline of our life, but we submit the following lines simply in deference again to the wishes of our friends as giving certain information for which they often ask.

The editor was born in the city of Edinburgh, Scotland, on the 24th of May, 1847. He received his early education in the academies of that city and went with his parents in 1860 to Adelaide, South Australia. After spending seven years in business pursuits, he entered upon a course of study in the beginning of 1868, and left Australia for his native city shortly afterwards. He studied for a time in the University and in the Theological Halls of Edinburgh. He returned to South Australia and was ordained into the ministry in 1872, becoming pastor of the Congregational Church of Alma. He removed to Sidney, New South Wales, in 1873 and became pastor, first, of the Manly Congregational Church, and then of the Newtown Congregational Church. The latter position was one of great influence, being at that time the collegiate church of the Congregational Denomination, and so he had the duty of ministering to the resident professors and students preparing for the Congregational Ministry. He occupied many public offices in connection both with his own denomination and general religious, temperance and educational work, and took part in the origination of many religious and social organizations. In 1878, after long and prayerful consideration, he resigned his pastoral charge and his ministerial membership in the Congregational Union of New South Wales, not without a unanimous protest on the part of the Ministerial Association of Sidney, but he felt called of God to devote himself wholly to evangelistic work amongst the masses of the people, and had become convinced, among many other things, that it was wrong for a minister to sell and for a church to buy any man's spiritual power or services. Accordingly until this day he has ministered at all times and at all places without money and without price, depending entirely upon the free-will offerings of God's people for the maintenance, not only of himself and family, but for the large sums of money which have been necessary to carry on the work in which he has been engaged. It is impossible in this column to give an outline even of that work, but suffice it to say, that he removed to Melbourne, the capital of Victoria, Australia, in 1882, and continued his ministry there until 1888, having established a large church, and built a tabernacle, and founded the International Divine Healing Association. He conducted missions in many parts of Australia and for about six months throughout the beautiful islands of New Zealand. He left Australia finally in March, 1888, and after spending several months in the islands of New Zealand he arrived at the Golden Gate, San Francisco, on June 7th, 1888. Since that time he has conducted a long series of missions and established branches of the Association throughout all the Pacific Coast states and in many other parts of the United States and Canada. In all these labors since the year 1876, he has been accompanied and most loyally aided by one of the best of wives.

MRS. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

OUR good wife whose lovely face adorns our pages, was born in Adelaide, South Australia, on May 9th, 1854, where her parents still live. She left her father's home and became our companion and our helper on May 26th, 1876, since which time, her life has been so closely associated with ourselves, not only in domestic life but in Christian labors, that it seems impossible to consider her as apart from our ministry, in which she is indeed a fellow minister. Some day we shall endeavor to get her to tell the story of how she came to speak for Jesus in public, and to God we are responsible for that and have no fear as to the Lord's approval. She is ever with us not only on the public platform but especially in the long hours of labor in the healing-room with the multitudes of sick, sorrowing and sin-stricken to whom we give our lives for Jesus' sake. She frequently addresses very large audiences, and is always listened to with close attention and keen pleasure. She assists us in teaching, and her excellent memory and close acquaintance with our work in the healing-room gives intense interest to her narratives of the results of our ministry.

In special meetings for women only she has been very successful, sometimes addressing nearly two thousand of her own sex at one time. We make it a rule to see ladies only in her company. Many persons have been saved and a number have been healed through her direct ministry. Only a few days ago an intelligent looking old man, wearing the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic said to us, "I am one of Mrs. Dowie's babies. Her words led me to Christ. I was an infidel until I heard her speak."

She never loses the charm of simple womanly feeling, and no one who has ever heard her speak could ever doubt her absolute sincerity and perfect truthfulness. She has wide experience as a mother, a pastor's wife, a Bible-class teacher, a temperance speaker and practical saloon and street worker, a house to house visitor, and, withal, a most practical house-keeper.

She has heard thousands of confessions from the wronged and the erring, and has been with us in our decisions in numerous cases of conscience involving the happiness of many in time and eternity. All this, and much more, has given her a peculiar fitness for comforting, counseling, and controlling those whom God commits to her care in association with us, and as the years roll onward she grows in fitness for the work to which God has called her. Well may we praise our God for the "helpmeet" whom He has given us, and we cannot doubt that in our future work she, with our dear son and daughter, will be increasingly helpful in all departments of our steadily and rapidly increasing work for God and for humanity. We have many things to learn, and we trust that we are teachable. We have been on a "pilgrimage" for years with our family, and, although for some years we are likely to remain in Chicago in order to establish permanent institutions in connection with the work in America, yet we know we must go onward eventually and do our work, if God permit, in other continents. May we not ask the earnest prayers of our readers for this dear partner of our sorrows, joys and toils? We can only say of her in the words of King Lemuel (Proverbs 31:26-31),

"She openeth her mouth with wisdom:
And the law of kindness is on her tongue.
She looketh well to the ways of her household,
And eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up, and call her blessed:
Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying:
Many daughters have done virtuously,
But thou excellest them all.
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain:
But a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
Give her of the fruit of her hands:
And let her works praise her in the gates."

MORNING TALKS IN THE HOME.

Extracts from the Editor's Addresses to the Guests in the Divine Healing Home.

Wednesday, June 20th.—Opened by song: "What a Friend we Have in Jesus."—Reading of the Scripture, St. Mark 16: 14-20.

"Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believeth; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen."

THEN Dr. Dowie said: (with a pair of crutches in his hand which had been left behind by an old man from Barrington, Ill). Now you see these signs do follow, and let us thank God for what we have seen; and let us pray to Him that we may understand these words and that I may be justified in praying with you for Divine Healing.

There are four modes of Divine Healing.

First, is the prayer of faith directly addressed to God, without the intervention of any ministry of any kind; as in the case of the centurion, when he said, "Lord, speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed;" and in the case of the nobleman, when the Lord said, "Go thy way, thy child liveth;" and in the case of the woman who believed the word of Christ, "O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee even as thou wilt." It was in that way I myself was healed. That is the first and best way.

Second, is that of co-operative prayer, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven." Matthew 18: 19.

The third mode of healing is anointing by the elders, referred to in James 5: 14, 15.

"Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church: and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

The last mode of healing is that of laying on of the hands, ordained by the Lord in the passage before us, and elsewhere.

These four modes of Divine healing are set forth in the New Testament. Our Lord Jesus Christ used men in His infinite mercy, from the very beginning, through the power of the Holy Spirit, in the laying on of hands. But I point out to you that there must be a co-operative faith, for "without faith it is impossible to please God." The question to-day is do you fulfill God's conditions? If you do, God will fulfill His promises. All Divine Healing covenants throughout the Bible contain these conditions: Ex. 15: 26, "If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will put (or permit to be put) none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought (or permitted to be brought) upon the Egyptians: For I am the Lord that healeth thee." If you do what you know to be right to the full light of your knowledge you will get the blessing. God will not give any blessing unless the conditions are fulfilled; and He does that for our good. It is essential that we come to that point. If those conditions are fulfilled you may expect a blessing.

I would remind you that these conditions are not grievous; He is more willing to heal than we are to be healed. All that is wanted on our part is a complete abandonment of sin. And that reminds me what a learned man from a celebrated university told me to-day. He said that when he saw a simple man get the healing, get a perfect healing and walk away, and himself with all the privileges he had of a Christian education, it made him feel ashamed to go away without a particle of healing. He could not exercise that child-like faith. Nothing is so acceptable to God as a child-like faith. It is not that the person healed may be particularly worthy; on the contrary they may have been very unworthy, and not have lived as close a life to God as you have done, but there is a complete abandonment on their part; and if there is the same on your part to-day you will get the blessing.

There are some things with regard to the word of God I often wish I could put into words; but I cannot communicate to you what I want to to-day in words. It is difficult to explain to any degree the work of the Holy Ghost, the unseen Spirit, and yet I will venture now upon an analogy, even although it may be very imperfect. Suppose I had in my hand a short copper wire, and that I would say to you that I am going to drive with that some five hundred horse-power machinery. The copper wire is nothing comparatively, and yet you can see how easily I could do it. If I attached one end of that wire to a dynamo of some thousands horse-power and the other end to the machinery, don't you see how easy it would set it to working? So that little wire is a very essential thing in the linking these two great powers.

Now it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom not to link us by any visible means; and yet He commits to us a visible ministry. God was in Christ reconciling Himself to the world, and to those men whom He qualified and appointed He has always fulfilled the promises. "These signs shall follow them that believe. They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." Now suppose for one minute you were all privileged to see the Christ as He appeared to John in the Apocalypse in all His glory. When John saw Him he fell at His feet as dead, and Christ lifted him up and spoke to him and comforted him, saying, "Fear not; I am." And that very same Christ is here. He who has all authority in heaven and in earth—omnipotent power and love. Now in His hands to-day I place mine. Then if I place that hand upon you and that hand in His, it is easy to see how His power can flow through me; but if you are not faithful there will be a barrier and God's power will stop and not communicate with you. If you believed absolutely, God would do it. There is not a disease here to-day, not a pain, not a trouble that would not pass away like vapor before the morning sun.

Now, friends, won't you just ask God that this shall be the case? I take no glory; I arrogate no power; I never healed any one; I never expect to heal any one. "Thine, Oh, God, is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory." But God is using me and will use me to-day. Ask God that I may be endowed with power and grace, and that you may receive the blessing. Let us worship and bow down, SIGNS, WONDERS, MIRACLES AND GIFTS.

WHEN the first preachers of the glorious gospel proclaimed the great salvation, their words were accompanied by unmistakable proofs of their divine commission; "God also", it is written, "Bearing them witness, both with signs, and wonders, with divers miracles and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to His own will."

This was the way in which God swept away the unbelief from multitudes of hearts, and "confirmed" the words of His messengers. The early church unitedly prayed to the Lord for continued manifestations of healing power to enable His "servants with all boldness to preach the word;" and were answered by such a wave of divine power that "the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness." (Acts 4: 23-31). Nor did it end there, for we read (Acts 5: 12-14) that by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people . . .

. . . and believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women." Salvation and healing go hand in hand. God has joined them together and only a faithless church has put them asunder. May that faithlessness soon disappear and then the same results will follow as in the olden times "MULTITUDES" will be saved.

DIVINE HEALING HOME.

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 9 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desirable that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurbished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishings of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's Assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the central group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred having been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor to go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING

No. 1.

WILLIE ESSER, 5205 Armour Ave., Chicago, Ill.

IT is written, "A little child shall lead them," (Isaiah 11: 6.) so we place this little boy in front of our American Witnesses in this new series of the LEAVES OF HEALING.

Here he stands with a happy smile on his earnest little face, holding his crutches in his right hand and the steel brace which he wore so long in his left, with the high-heeled boot at his feet. He is now ten years old and was healed instantaneously in March last. He gave his testimony publicly with his mother in the Central Music Hall on Lord's Day, April 15th, before thousands of witnesses and has given it repeatedly in the Tabernacle since.

PARALYZED AND DISEASED FOR SIX AND A HALF YEARS.

His leg was completely paralyzed besides being diseased very seriously at the hip joint. He could not walk a single step without his crutches and boot and brace. He had to sleep in that heavy steel brace and wore it with other things of the same kind for no less than six and a half years out of his short life. He was under the treatment of many doctors in the city and was for a long time in bed.

HIS HEALING.

He had heard of many who had been healed through faith in Jesus and so he came to the Tabernacle accompanied by his sister. During last winter he attended many of the meetings and one day God's Spirit convinced him that he was a sinner needing a Saviour. We can never forget how he came up to the platform on his crutches with those that were seeking Salvation. He could not kneel, and so he laid down his crutches and stretched himself at full length on the platform and looked up into our face saying, "Oh Doctor pray for me. I am a great sinner." The tears were running down his face and his heart was full of penitence for his many sins. We led him to Jesus, and God gave him the Witness of His Holy Spirit in his heart that he was forgiven. So he went away that day a very happy little boy. The following week he came back with his mother who told us that her little boy was full of faith and believed that God would heal him for Jesus' sake when I prayed with him. We took them into our room where she removed his brace and boot, and then we prayed for him in Jesus' name and laid our hands upon the poor withered little leg and gently pulled it down. What was his mother's joy and his to find that all pain had departed, that his leg was lengthened, and that he could easily stand upon it and walk up and down the floor without either crutch or brace or boot. After we had tested him thoroughly and had praised God, he went away leaving his brace and crutches in the room and the next day came back with a new pair of boots on his feet walking exactly even, just as he is seen standing in this picture. He is now a bright, happy boy, running about, leaping and jumping, and is at present in the class for physical culture in the public school which he attends. The principal of that school, and the teacher of his class, with hundreds of his fellow scholars and neighbors have testified to his healing. There is no happier widowed mother in this city, nor any brighter, sweeter little Christian boy, so far as we know, than little Willie Esser. He is now only one of hundreds who were afflicted in the same way and who have been healed; and we want to tell all the little boys and girls who read this story that God will heal them for Jesus' sake and will keep them well if they will but trust Him. But they must also first give their hearts to God before He will hear their prayer for the healing of their bodies. Jesus loves them all and longs to bless them, to heal them, and to keep them well, as He did when He was here on earth.

We have received many letters from little children in distant places asking us to pray for them; and we want all the children to know that we love to do this. Every Thursday we see an average of about five hundred children, and although it is one of the hardest day's work in all the week, it is at the same time the happiest; for we know that Jesus said, "Suffer Little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." In days to come these children who are now being healed through faith in Jesus will be among God's brightest and most glorious Witnesses.

May God bless this picture and this story of Jesus' love. Amen and Amen.

COMING WITNESSES.

WE have in preparation a series of illustrated articles under the heading of "God's Witnesses to Divine Healing," of which the foregoing narrative is the first.

No. 2 will be the remarkable story of an Australian mother who was healed of cancer and restored to sight when totally blind in one eye,—the case of Mrs. Lucy Parker of Fitzroy, Melbourne, Australia.

No. 3 will be the healing of a dying lady in San Francisco, California, who had suffered from consumption, heart disease, etc., for nearly twenty-five years.

No. 4 will be the case of Mrs. Lowrie of Calumet Avenue, Chicago, who suffered for years from cancer, and was declared incurable, but who is now perfectly healed, and is nursing a sweet little baby at the breast which was filled with cancerous disease only a few months ago. We shall give the portraits of mother and infant.

These special cases will be followed by many others, as well as by reports of Praise and Testimony Meetings to be held, God willing, from time to time. We have piles of unpublished testimonies which would occupy the whole of our issue for a year, if we were to publish them therein. But we shall aim to give striking, varied, and typical cases under the heading of "God's Witnesses," and trust to make the series one of especial interest and value, if God permits.

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

(See Illustration Page 16)

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

No. 2.

MRS. LUCY PARKER.

WE have thought it well that the next of God's Witnesses to Divine Healing should be that of a sister whose remarkable healing of cancer in the eye and uterus, is one of the historic cases in our Australasian ministry. In a letter to the International Conference on Divine Healing and True Holiness, held in Agricultural Hall, London, June 1st to 5th, 1885, we communicated the facts in this case. The letter was widely published in Europe and America, and the following words describe this case:

CASE II. Mrs. Parker: Cancer in left Eye, Blindness, and Internal Cancer.— This lady lives at 340 Napier Street, Fitzroy. In July, 1883, she came to see me, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Powell, Sr., of St. George's Road, North Fitzroy, and my dear wife. For two years and nine months she had been under the care of some of the ablest surgeons in Melbourne, of whom she specially named Dr. George Teague and Drs. Ray, Sr. and Jr. The cancer in the eye had totally destroyed sight, and for many months the left eye was totally blind. No hopes of recovery were held out. Operation in the eye was both impossible and useless, and, in her then condition, operation would have been fatal; and Dr. Ray said to her husband that she must die when her child was born, if not before. The agony she suffered was extreme, and, being comparatively young, with a large family and a delicate husband, she had a natural desire to live. Moreover, being an active Christian worker, she desired to be useful in God's service here. She was then, and is, a fully consecrated believer, enjoying the blessing of holiness of spirit, and desiring purity also of body.

Hearing of the case of Mrs. Coates, already referred to, she came expecting immediate healing. After prayer, I laid hands upon her left eye, in the right corner of which there was a large swelling, with a small opening, through which an offensive cancerous discharge was always oozing, the principal tumor being an encysted one behind the eye, extending towards the brain. Then happened, in a few minutes, a miracle of healing. The cancer burst, and poured out at the small opening, in a steam of cancerous matter, quickly filling two large pocket-handkerchiefs. Then the swelling disappeared,

MRS. S. A. KELLEY.

[The testimony which follows covers one of the most remarkable healings in our ministry. It was spoken at a Praise and Testimony Meeting held in the Union Square Hall, San Francisco, on June 9th, 1890, a few days previous to our departure from the Pacific Coast at the close of the first two years of our Mission in America. It was delivered in a most impressive manner and in exceedingly clear language. The opening invocation for divine inspiration was manifestly answered. It was most carefully reported by my stenographer, her brother, who had cared for her and her children in her widowhood and sickness, with noble devotion and tender patient love.

She visited Chicago during the World's Fair, and repeated her testimony from the platform of Zion Tabernacle. Her plump healthy looking appearance bore out her remarks as to her weight, about 160 pounds; and no one who heard her clear ringing words could doubt her statement that her lungs were in perfect condition and that every trace of her twenty-five years of heart and lung disease had entirely disappeared.

The circumstances of her restoration, possibly from death itself, are too clearly told in the narrative to comment here. She often communicates with us, and her brother, Mr. Geo. H. Hawes, 320 Sansome St., San Francisco, is still our correspondent and agent in that City. We send this testimony forth on its message of life and love. May it be used of God in every land and nation under heaven to hopeless sufferers such as she was until God used our hands and raised her up in response to the prayer of faith:]

INTRODUCING A STRANGE AND SOLEMN TESTIMONY.

Dr. Dowie said:

"I would like to ask a sister to testify, whose healing in some respects is one of the most solemn importance, and unlike any other in my experience. There are some points in connection with it that I scarcely dare to utter. Our sister shall have just what time she wants, because to night we are not going to look at the clock; we are going right on with the testimony meeting until we are done. People of the world can dance till morning and spin around upon their toes like animated tops all night long, and why can't we spend a few hours in a meeting like this? I thank God, although constantly toiling on, we are not weary. After our sister has spoken, we have some more wonderful testimony. We have delegates from the country who have messages for us. These have come to attend the First Conference of the Divine Healing Association which will be held to-morrow.

"The lady to whose case I am referring is Mrs. S. A. Kelley, the sister of my stenographer, living at 314 Eddy St., San Francisco. Now, dear sister, speak as the Lord directs you."

Mrs. Kelley said: "May God inspire my testimony for Him, and give me language to express my gratitude for all the blessing, mercy, tenderness, and love that He has conferred upon me through His Son Jesus Christ.

"Before I speak of the healing of my body, I want to emphasize my testimony by speaking of the blessing that has come to my spirit through the healing touch. I professed to love Christ and gave my heart to Him at the age of seventeen, although I was converted at the age of nine. But I can truly say, standing here before you to night, that until my body was healed the Bible was to me a sealed book.

"The healing of my body is to me unspeakably blessed, but more than that to me is the blessing which has come to my spirit, because I have been brought so near to my Lord. I have seen in Him such beauty, such love, such attraction, that I want to be like Him. And my great desire is, that this life which he has given to me shall all be given up to His service, in whatever capacity He may choose to call me to work.

INHERITED CONSUMPTION.

"I was born forty-seven years ago in Massachusetts among the Berkshire hills, at a place which was remarkable then, and has been since, for the mortality among the young people from consumption.

"My parents were Christians. In their families consumption was hereditary. I was not a strong child, yet I had no particular sickness until I was seventeen years of age.

"Then I had a slight hemorrhage of the lungs from violent exercise of the arms, followed by a cough, and it was said of me that I was going into a decline. But I returned to my studies, to the school where I had been attending for three and a half years, and went on for another year. Then I had serious trouble with the left lung complicated with heart disease.

SUFFERED FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS. ATTENDED BY 30 OR 40 DOCTORS.

"During the twenty-seven years which have elapsed since the first attack and my meeting with Brother and Sister Dowie, I have consulted between thirty and forty doctors, all of them excellent and some of them celebrated. These included some of the best physicians of Boston, New York, San Francisco and Oakland. Dr. Henry I. Bowditch who was for years the great lung authority in Boston, said to me that the disease was tubercular consumption, and that he had never known such a case to survive more than six months.

"During all this time I have mentioned my case has been peculiar; I have always had symptoms of tubercular consumption, hectic fever, night sweats, cough, hemorrhages from the lungs, abscesses, and so on. But in my case, as very rarely occurs, these abscesses would heal. The left lung was first attacked, and then that healed for a time, and after a while the right lung was attacked, and so it went on; finally the bowels became involved with the same disease, that was further complicated by severe hemorrhages. About seventeen years ago that occurred.

SEEKING HEALTH BUT FINDING NONE.

"I came to California in the year 1866 and my husband took me to the mountains, where I greatly improved in health and strength, and was better than for years before; but on my return two years later to San Francisco the hemorrhages returned and it was only by going into the country in the summer that I have been enabled to live. I found a place in the Santa Clara mountains that agreed with me well, and I became better there; so much better that after a three months' stay I decided to take my two children and go east and let them see the land of my birth.

"Against the advice of my physicians I remained there through the winter and was attacked with pneumonia, and then the lung disease returned. As here the severe attacks would be followed by a measure of improvement; still I did not get as well there as here.

"In the last five years my daughter gave her young life, leaving her studies and all that young people hold so dear, to nursing and caring for me.

"I was at last brought back here, taking eleven days for the journey, accompanied by a physician who had attended me for three years. He assured me that I could not survive three months there. When I arrived here I had to be carried into the house. Soon afterward I was able to go out upon the street a few times; but in February two years ago, the hemorrhages returned, and the bowel trouble seemed worse than the lung trouble, although I always felt pain in the lungs.

"On May 16, 1888, I had a very sudden shock from financial reverses that almost took my life. Up to that time I had been able to remain cheerful and hopeful, but not expecting to get well, believing as physicians asserted, that I must finally die of consumption.

"I will say that while in the east (I was two winters in Bridgeport, Connecticut, near New York) a dear Christian brother on this Coast wrote me very urgently, asking why I could not take Christ as my Healer and leave the doctors. I believed in Christ as a Healer; I believed that He did heal others, but I could not feel, somehow, that mine was a case that could be healed in that way. I repeatedly went past Dr. Simpson's door in New York to visit and consult my physician, Dr. Burdick, who is now located in Oakland.

READS OF MR. AND MRS. DOWIE'S ARRIVAL FROM AUSTRALIA.

"After that terrible shock came to me my mind for the first time became well-nigh a wreck. In June, 1888, I picked up a daily paper which said among the city notes that the Rev. J. A. Dowie, the Faith Healer, with his wife, from Australia, arrived on the last steamer, and they were stopping at the Palace Hotel, and would hold Missions in this city.

"I said at once to my daughter, 'Now, there is where healing is coming from; that is the instrument through which healing will come to me, and I must see him.'

"At that time I was not able to leave my room. I was not able to sleep and was in a terrible condition in every way. This dear brother of mine, George H. Hawes, who is now taking my testimony, could tell you of the nights that he spent by my bedside, and the dear daughter, she could testify also.

MAKES AN APPEAL.

"I wrote to Brother Dowie. He answered me very kindly that he would be very glad if he could come, but he had so many applications as he was holding his Mission it would be impossible to come and that I should go to the Mission and he would see me there. But that was out of the question. About that time my brother became his stenographer, but Mr. Dowie did not know he was my brother for some time. Then I said, 'Now surely I shall have a hold upon him, and shall be able to get him to come to the house.' So every night after my brother had been working for Brother Dowie I said to him; 'Did you speak to Mr. Dowie about coming to see me?' He would reply, 'He had so much to do that I could not mention it.' And at every time would come back to my mind, 'Why trouble ye the Master?' But in my heart I said, 'But I must see him.'

"So it went on, and at last a promise was obtained that he and his wife would come before leaving the city, and on Sept. 14, which as you will see was three months after my first application, they came. All that time I was confined to my bed and was going down steadily. Brother Dowie laid hands on me and prayed; but before he did so he placed his ear on my chest and listened, and probably he could tell you better than I what he found there."

Mr. Dowie said: "I found a large hole in the lung."

Mrs. Kelley continued: "I may say that all the physicians who examined my case agreed in their diagnosis with regard to the lungs; that it was a chronic disease and incurable. They differed somewhat in regard to the heart disease. They admitted there was some disease of the heart, but some called it one form and some another.

THE LUNG DISEASE INSTANTANEOUSLY HEALED.

"There had been for a long time pain in this right lung, and also a very severe and trying one in the left. But from the moment Brother Dowie prayed for me the pain ceased, and although I tried very hard to find the old spot, it was not there, and I have never been able to find it since, and my lungs have been perfectly well and sound.

"I did not become strong at once, but I felt that I was healed and my spirit was strengthened. I knew the lung disease was gone.

"But during the next three weeks I had the worst attack of dysentery and the most terrible hemorrhage I had ever experienced. Brother Dowie was holding his Mission at the Grand Opera House. On the night of October 26, 1881, I was very ill. My brother and daughter sat out the night watches with me. Friday I was a little better; Saturday I could retain nothing upon my stomach and was in the greatest agony. These dear ones sat by me all Saturday night. On Sunday morning my brother, who had always been courageous before and never had expressed any doubt of my recovery, said: 'You can't last long, this suffering will soon be ended, there will come an end.'

"I said: 'Do you think that Brother and Sister Dowie would come and see me?'

"He answered: 'I don't know, I will see them. I believe if they can, they surely will.'

ANOTHER APPEAL TO GOD'S INSTRUMENTS.

"He went to the Palace Hotel Sunday forenoon and came back with the glad news that they would come as soon after two o'clock as was possible. I was almost gone. I was holding on to Christ, yet I believed that it was right that I should send for them. I was looking forward to their coming with the greatest anxiety. Two o'clock came and they did not come. I wondered if someone had taken them away. About three o'clock they came. As they came up to my bedside

I REALIZED A TERRIBLE AGONY, LIKE DEATH, THEN I WAS GONE.

"What occurred in the interval I cannot tell, but the next thing I knew was hearing Brother Dowie say: 'How do you feel?'"

WAS IT INDEED DEATH? A SOLEMN SCENE.

Mrs. Kelley then took her seat to allow Mr. Dowie to explain what had occurred during her unconsciousness.

Mr. Dowie said: "I did not intend to speak of this, but I think it is well to do so. I entered the room and her brother and daughter retired in accordance with my custom, and I was alone with Mrs. Dowie in what seemed to be the room of the dying. She had faintly greeted me but did not lift up her head, but with her large eyes looked at me expressively, and said how glad she was that we had come. I turned to lock the door lest someone should open it without intention and we should be disturbed in prayer. Mrs. Dowie meanwhile approached her bed, and she touched her hand with a quick, gentle touch, and we both looked and it seemed to us as if our sister were dead. The jaw dropped and the eyes were fixed—they were not shut—they were fixed and glassy, just as if she were dead. I said: 'My God and Father, it cannot be that Thou wilt let this dear one pass away; it cannot be that Thy Glory shall be marred; she has sought Thee for healing and we have come in Jesus' name.' I placed my hand upon her heart and could feel no flutter; I put my ear down close to see if I could detect any breath, but I could not; the pulse seemed gone and I thought for one brief moment, 'She is gone.' God knows best what had happened, I don't. But I cried unto Him who is the Resurrection and the Life, and I placed my hand upon her body, especially upon her heart, and with my wife by my side we prayed and believed our payer would be answered. Presently her eyes moved and then quickly the light and life returned to them."

IT IS THE DEATH OF DISEASE.

Mrs. Kelley resumed: "Mr. Dowie said: 'How do you feel?' and that was the first I heard. I said, 'I feel as though the hand of death was upon me.' I shall never forget how these dear ones looked at me. I believe Mrs. Dowie was inspired by our dear Lord as she said, 'It is the death of the disease.' In my spirit there was a witness that it was so; that it was the death of the disease.

"They went away shortly after as their duties called them to the Opera House. In a little while a voice came to me saying, 'Arise and walk.' I rose and dressed myself partially, and although my brother was anxious to assist, I walked through a long hall from my bedroom to the parlor without assistance and sat down in my reclining chair about half set up.

"After a little the dinner bell rang and a voice came to me saying, 'Arise and eat,' and I was not to eat as I was reclining at that moment. So I had the chair put in a semi-upright position, and I ate just as anyone would, a fairly good dinner, although in the morning I was not able to bear a teaspoonful of water on my stomach.

"From that time I improved very slowly. I did not get strong enough to attend any of the meetings until in February when I went to one of the meetings of the San Francisco Branch of the Divine Healing Association, when Mr. Dowie was present, at the Central Presbyterian Tabernacle. On that day week we had the pleasure of receiving them and their children at our house, where they took lunch with us.

"I was suffering from sciatic pain which troubled me a good deal when I moved about attending to my household duties. I mentioned it to Brother Dowie and he prayed with me, putting his hands upon my head, and the pain departed immediately and never has returned.

"I have received very great blessing from the teaching, and from attending the meetings of the Divine Healing Association. I have also been very much blessed in the teaching of this last Mission and it has been a very great privilege for me to attend, as I missed all the previous Mission.

"And now I am well. Where formerly I had to employ a cook and housekeeper and nurse, and from one to three or four physicians.

"I am now, with the assistance of my daughter, cook and housekeeper; no nurse is needed and Christ Jesus, the very best Physician that ever was or ever can be, is my physician. My brother can tell you whether the house is well kept or not. I have a house of nine rooms and five in the family.

"I feel that I can say,

"'Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise.'

"I bless the God for all He has done for me through these dear ones and shall never cease to pray that He will make them a blessing to those to whom they go; I know that He will go with them. They have the witness that was proved to them that believe, that the signs should follow them. I bless God for all that has been done through them, not only for myself, but for many many others here and elsewhere that I know of."

Mr. Dowie said: "Praise God. I would like to have her brother, my good friend Mr. Hawes, my stenographer 'ust add a word here."

CONFIRMED BY HER BROTHER.

Mr. Hawes said: "It is customary with Mr. Dowie to ask relatives and friends to confirm the testimony of those who have been healed. Not only can I confirm what my sister has said, but the fact is she has not told you half the story; time would not permit her to do so. She has passed through severe sufferings and sicknesses that she has not mentioned. When she was a young woman she came near dying from diphtheria; it reached that point when all suffering had ceased, and the room turned to darkness. In 1866, at the time when cholera raged in New York City, she was attacked and became greatly reduced. For twenty-five years she has been more or less an invalid, and aside from continuous constitutional troubles, there have been added many acute diseases, which time and again have threatened to take her life.

"For twenty-five years I have never known her to be so well as she has been the past year. She has been working hard from morning till night, at her home duties, visiting the sick, and attending a great many evening meetings, and has been out in all kinds of weather. When I contrast her present condition with the past, I really shrink from stating the facts, they seem so improbable and difficult to believe, and yet they cannot be denied.

THE AGE CALLS FOR PROOFS—THEY ARE BEFORE YOU.

"This is the fourteenth Praise and Testimony Meeting conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Dowie that I have reported, and in every one there have been a number of these wonderful testimonies to healing.

"We live in an age that calls for proof, and if there are any present who are sceptical in regard to these things, let me say that you have before you these great living facts."

THE 10th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles and the 38th verse sums up our Lord's life and ministry in these words: "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." We hold that if nineteen centuries ago all whom Jesus healed were oppressed of the devil, then it is the devil's work today. ("Amen," from the congregation). We do not shrink from that point. The Pastors' Manifesto says: "The second definition is, that Christ came to destroy the works of the devil."

To live without loving or being loved, without helping or being helped, is a condition which few persons are able to bear. To such, life seems an intolerable burden. If you would make most of life, even for yourself, you must do great things for others. If you have wealth, unless it be consecrated to the Lord, it "shall eat your flesh as it were fire." Then look upon the life of Christ as the only one to be aspired to; yet we would rather live as He did, and be baptized with suffering as He was, than be emperor of the world.

LECTURE TWO.

THE SWEET REDEMPTION SONG.

An Address delivered in Zion Tabernacle on Sunday Afternoon, Aug. 5th, 1894.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in thy sight and profitable unto this people and unto all to whom these will come, O Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer.

SERMON.

In the eighth chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, the 21st to 23rd verses:

"Because the creature itself shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body."

THE whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together, until now," said the Apostle. That "now" was eighteen and a half centuries ago. The whole creation had been groaning and travailing together in pain until Christ came, "waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." But Christ had come, and so this sweet redemption song was sung, and "angels with the white robed throng" still join in that "sweet redemption song," which tells us that Christ has redeemed us by His blood not only in spirit but in soul and in body. Therefore we are besought by the mercies of God to present our "bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God" which is our "reasonable service." This sweet redemption song is still being sung. O how beautiful it is. It is being sung by the Church of God while she waits for the coming of the King.

A BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.

An ancient Norse Saga, they say, tells this strange old story. It tells of old, old times, in the dark days of blood and rapine when northern Europe was plunged in heathen darkness. It tells of these horrid gods who desired and demanded bloody sacrifices to appease them, Thor and Wodin, gods of war and murder. It tells of how in these days there lived a king who loved not the dark scenes of blood and heathen cruelty, and rejected the evil gods of his fathers. He married a lovely princess who, like himself, hated the heathen rites and though he was a brave warrior, known to be strong and powerful, he loved not war. There was born unto them a beautiful babe, his only child, who grew up in great beauty, and as he grew older the king used to say to his young queen, "I cannot bear to think our son shall grow up among these heathen priests in this dark old northern land, held so long in the grip of winter and of death. I have heard that in the far-away south under cloudless skies there sleeps a beautiful land waiting for inhabitants, a land where the sun shines, where lovely rivers flow, where the leaves never lose their green verdure and where there is neither misery nor war. Let me go and I will search for that beautiful island and when I find it I will come back and take you and my son and all that will come of my kingdom to that land of peace." And so, the Saga says, the ancient king went away, accompanied by many of his great nobles who imbibed his good spirit and went with him. They left their wives and their little ones behind, but hope buoyed up the hearts of those they loved. They knew their husbands were skillful seamen and brave warriors and the king had said: "When the winter is past and the spring is come expect me. Soon after the flowers have come expect me; I will come again." And so the winter passed away, and the queen in her palace looked often out over the wintry scene; and when at last the spring came and the earth was clothed with green verdure, and the flowers and the early summer came, she used to sit out on the green sward on the top of the rock looking away out over the sea. There with her maidens she would sing the songs of love and longing for the absent king, that he would soon come and take them to these beautiful lands. And the little boy played around them and listened to the songs, and was so happy for he would always say, "The king will come to-day." But when the sun had set and the king did not come, he would say "My father the king will come to-morrow," and so they would sadly go back to the palace. One day, most beautiful and bright, the queen was sitting there, the maidens were singing, and she was looking out over the summer sea. Often she thought she could see the ships in the distant horizon. The little boy was playing around. At last the sun sank beneath the ocean and she rose up sighing, echoing the little boy's cry, "My Lord will come to-morrow." She called him but he did not answer; and no one had seen the little boy. He was missing. Had he gone into the garden? They seek, but cannot find him. Was he in the castle? They cannot find him. And at last they came to tell her that nowhere could they find the child. A great fear fell upon her heart, and she ran to the brow of that awful precipice with its face overlooking the sea and looked over the rocks. There, hundreds of feet below she saw the dead body of her son tossed by the cruel waves, and being beaten upon the rocks. With a cry of despair she ran down the mountain path where scarce a mountain goat could climb, until she reached the water and put out her hands and gathered up from the cruel waves the dead body of her child, wrapped him in her royal mantle, and leaping up the rocks again sat down under the stars and sang with the dead body of her son: "Oh Balder the beautiful, the white god, the god who hatest death and war and at whose footsteps spring comes, the ice melts and lovely flowers grow. Oh Balder, the beautiful, Balder the beautiful, god of life, give me back my son, that when the king comes I shall not tell him he is dead." And so she sang, bereft of reason almost, and while she sang she was answered. Limb to limb the dead body came to life, and before she knew, there were warm arms of love around her neck and the kisses of her little boy on her lips, with the ever cheering words: "Mamma, the king will come to-morrow." And so her son was given back even from the dead, and on the morrow the king returned, and they went away to that distant land under the southern skies where no winter comes, and loved and lived ever afterwards.

The Saga is only a legend but this is true, the church of God is looking for the absent King. Lord Jesus, come, Thy bride, the Church, with longing eyes looks to her home beyond the skies, beyond the seas time and sin and sense and death and hell, and while she waits she chants this song of love:

Sweet bridegroom, come, 'tis midnight hour,
And virgin hearts await thy power.

Lord Jesus come! "Lord Jesus, come!
Thine answer sweet our spirits hear,
It calms our hearts we cannot fear
It came to him on Patmos' isle
Who lived and loved on earth awhile,
It comes to us,—' I quickly come!
'Yea, even so, Lord Jesus, come.'

Lord Jesus, come!"

And while the church sings this song she is gathering a broken humanity that in its infancy fell and has been dashed upon the rocks of death. She sings that song of redemption for the spirit, for the soul, and for the body. It is sung again today, as Christ sung it long ago, and limb to limb a broken humanity is brought together in the lap of the Church of the Living God, and raised up by the Spirit's power, it is being prepared for the coming of the King. Shall the King come back and find a dead body or shall He find a Living Church? Yes. He will come back and he will call to himself a living church. There are wise virgins and these wise virgins have oil, they have the Holy Spirit, the oil of God in their vessels, the vessels of their body. With their lamps the redemption of the body has come to them. The Lord Jesus Christ preached that redemption first for the spirit, then for the soul, and then for the body. First salvation, then healing, then holiness. For the spirit first because that is by far the most important, the immortal spirit; the soul next, for that is the animal life we have in common with animals, for the body next because we cannot live a happy, healthful, holy, spiritual life in a defiled diseased and wretched body. And so our Lord, knowing this, came to bring a perfect redemption of which I read to you to-day in Isaiah 35th

THE THREEFOLD SONG OF REDEMPTION FOR SPIRIT, SOUL, AND BODY.

"The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God."

Some of you say, "If I see I will believe." I say, "No." "Oh, yes," you reply, "seeing is believing." No! Many of you see these crutches and braces and hear the testimony of the healed, but do you believe? No! Seeing is not believing; but I tell you believing is seeing. We "walk by faith, not by sight." Faith first, sight next. Faith first, healing next. Faith first and all the blessings next. You have ever to walk by faith and not by sight. They who believe shall see the glory of the Lord and the excellency of our God."

"Strengthen ye the weak hands and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you."

Save you. Be strong, fear not. He will come and save you. God does not want you to be weak. He wants these weak hands to be lifted up in praise and prayer to Him. God does not want these knees to be weak. I cannot run in the ways of His commandments with my knees paralyzed or rheumatic. He wants these knees to be set free. Be strong.

Fear not. No one can do anything that fears. "There is no fear in love." Perfect love casts out fear because fear hath torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love. Deliverance from fear is essential to a life of faith and love and hope. I see the fear written in some of your faces. You are afraid. The dark shadow of death rests upon you. Fear is destroying your faith. The message of God in every age has been "Fear not," and the key-note of the song of redemption in every age has been "Fear not." "Fear not," to weeping Adam and Eve in the Garden as God showed them the coming Redeemer. "Fear not," to Noah when tossing upon the wide waste of waters and with all the earth overwhelmed he sent out that dove to find where the waters had abated; and when at last it descended upon the solitary earth where every living thing had been buried beneath the dark waters, an earth without inhabitant save those who emerged out of the ark, he heard God's voice, "Fear not, Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth." "Fear not," to Moses when God spoke to him in exile because he was afraid of the wrath of the king. In Midian God took him and disciplined him for forty years of desert life and revealed Himself to him in the burning bush. When He had taken all fear out of his heart He sent him before the throne of Pharaoh to demand that His people be let go. A man without arms, with only God above, there he stood on the steps of that tyrant who could have crushed his life out in a moment. He was not afraid to look into the eyes of that oppressor and say, "Let God's people go, Oh, Pharaoh." A man who was not afraid to lead a nation of slaves into a waterless desert, a man who was not afraid to obey his God when He told him to cut down a tree and cast it into the bitter springs that they might be sweet, and they were made sweet because Moses obeyed God. And when Moses finished his work, God raised up a man who was not afraid to go up and take possession of a land that was in the grip of powerful military forces. Joshua, with Moses' spirit, was told not to fear. "Be strong and of good courage. Only remember to do according to all that God has commanded you. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left." And he went up without fear, and conquered. Fear not! Fear not! The message from heaven has always been that. Daniel was bid not to fear, by Gabriel, the Archangel. Mary was bid not to fear, when the same Archangel announced to her that, though a virgin, she should be a mother. When Zacharias the priest was ministering to God in the temple the angel told that his wife Elizabeth, in her old age should have a son, and his first words were, "Fear not." To Joseph the angel said, "Fear not," in a dream, when he thought of putting away his wife Mary. God said "Fear not," when he sent the angels who sang that midnight song in Bethlehem. "Fear not, for, behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." When Christ came he constantly said these words, "Fear not." When John in the apocalyptic vision saw the risen Christ in His glory, he fell at His feet as dead, but Christ "laid His right hand upon him" and said, "Fear not, I am the first and the last, I am He that liveth and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. I have the keys of hell and death." I say to you this, that true religion in every age, and every message from God has been, "Fear not." When a man is weak he will fear. When a man is sick he is going to fear. And if sinful he is going to fear; and if his sins are not pardoned he is afraid to face God.

But if he is free from sin, and healed from sickness, and kept by the power of God, and made strong by the Omnipotent Spirit, he is not going to be afraid of all the powers of earth and hell. And so the sweet redemption song says, "Fear not, He will come and save you." That is the kind of salvation you need, a salvation from fear, a salvation therefore from sin, a salvation that makes the spirit free and fearless. "The meek shall inherit the earth," and the meek are strong. Moses was the meekest man on God's earth, and the mightiest in his time. Christ came to "save" you. Salvation is the first thing in this song, but it does not stop there. The spirit is to be set free from pollution by the blood of Christ the Redeemer. But there is more in it. There is the "utmost" salvation. Oh, this utmost salvation. It is a fountain full and free, a ceaseless, everflowing, wondrous grace. It reaches me in all my ends, in my spirit, in my soul, in my body, not only salvation from sin, but salvation from sickness. For the song rings out:

"Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water; in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes."

What a beautiful emblem of a redeemed physical nature!

A man's body, full of evil, full of corruption as well as his evil poisoned spirit shall be cleaned. The eyes to see, the ears to hear, the tongue to talk, the nose to smell, the hands to feel, acute in every sense, a body all clean for God, "the temple of the Holy Ghost." For that is just what the body was designed to be. This body was designed to be a temple for God, "a habitation for God through the spirit." Your bodies should all be temples of the Holy Ghost. Do you seek for God's temple? Do you think you can find it in a pile of stones? Do you think you can find it in marble, in a mass of ornamentations? You will find His temple here to-day, a temple not made with hands, in this body which God has made, and which He has redeemed by the blood of His Son. This body was designed to be a habitation for God himself by the Spirit. Does any man thirst to-day? Does he long to know what this means? Then the Christ of God is saying in this Tabernacle, as in the Feast of Tabernacles nineteen centuries ago, "If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink, 'He that believeth on me out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. 'But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe on Him should receive. For the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified." But now the Holy Ghost is given, Jesus has been glorified and wants our bodies to be pure, and free from disease, so that the Holy Spirit may flow through them. Divine Healing is therefore the second part of the song. "God be merciful unto us and bless, and cause His face to shine upon us that Thy Way (and Christ in God's Way) may be known upon the earth, Thy saving health among all nations." But the sweet redemption song does not stop there. Salvation and healing are not all. There is one more part of the glorious song.

"An Highway shall be there and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

That is a good way to walk in the King's Highway of Holiness. A way where from day to day, you shall feel, and say, "Vouchsafe, O God to keep me this day without sin," and God will say "I Will." And by the Power of the Spirit He will keep you so that when the end of that day is come you shall look up and say "I have walked with God to-day." Then you will go home with "joy and gladness," not with sorrow and sadness. But how many people say, "Well, a man must have his las. sickness." His last sickness! O yes. Why don't you talk about a man having his last bout with sin. Is it necessary for a man before he quits sin to go down into the lowest haunts of vice and have "a big blow out" before he quits? Who will say, "Let me alone for it is my last bout with sin before going to Christ?" That man is never going to be a Christain. Oh well, says another, "You must have your last sickness." I suppose you have a Bible that reads like this: "The ransomed of the Lord shall come to Zion with groans; and everlasting sorrow upon their heads; they shall obtain lamentation and sadness, and sorrow and sighing shall never flee away until the wretched creature drops into the grave." Can you find that in the Scripture? Oh, no. That is not God's way to bring His children home. We are to enter into the Port of Heaven, like a good vessel with all its cargo on board and with all its sails set. Were you ever on a long voyage? I have been months and months at sea at a time when there were no steamships between England and Australia. When I was a boy I once voyaged 16,000 miles in a dear old tub of a vessel, which took many months to do it. I remember on a number of voyages that when we got near to port, within two or three days of it, the captain stopped everything and said to the men, "We must now clean up." So they set to work to clean the vessel up. The always kept it clean, but it then got a special cleaning. Every place up stairs and down stairs, all the brasses, and the little signal cannon, and the masts and the yards and then the good sails were bent on the yards and the old rags pulled down. Then after we got all ready, the captain sailed his ship into port, with our canvas spread and everyone on board happy and all the cargo safe on board. Oh, how glad we were to come into harbor. This is the way we should go into heaven. Not like a wretched old derelict, with all the masts swept away and one-half the cargo thrown overboard. It is a miserable ambition to crawl into heaven, a wretched polluted creature! Is that the way to go? No. "The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." How is it with you John Wesley? "With me" he said. "With me, with me—with me—" "The best of all is, God is with us," and he swept into the gates. How is it with you, Brother Cookman? "With me—with me—with me—I am just sweeping through the Gates." And with you Bishop Beveridge, "I am your wife, do you know me? I am your daughter, do you know me?" "No I do not know you but," raising himself up, "Jesus I know Thee whom to know is life eternal. Oh Jesus I know thee," and he swept through the gates of the New Jerusalem washed in the blood of the Lamb. We should enter the heavenly Zion not battered and crushed but with songs and everlasting joy upon our heads, victors over sin and disease and hell, singing "the sweet redemption song."

"My Saviour comes, and walks with me
And sweet communion here have we,
He gently leads me by His hand,
For this is Heaven's Border land.

"The zephyr seems to float to me
Sweet sounds of Heaven's melody,
While angels with 'he white-robed throng,
Join in the SWEET REDEMPTION SONG."

The shadows are fleeing away. O'er all the earth the Light is breaking. Come, oh Thou who canst alone save, and heal, and cleanse, and give us victory. Come now, come here, and let many now cry, "save me, heal me, cleanse me, pilot me, O Christ of God." Come now, and by the Spirit bless all who hear, and all who will read these words. Amen, and Amen.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not, his benefits."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THE last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." Death is an enemy. He that "had the power of death," the Scripture says, "is the Devil."

OF those who receive healing through faith in Jesus at Zion Tabernacle large numbers never stay to record it, and it is often never known to those who attend the mission. At almost every service some testify to healing who have attended the mission but who never made themselves known to Doctor Dowie. On last Sunday a lady from Harvey, Ill., testified to the healing of a cancer which had given her nine years of pain and suffering, without any other prayer than the general one for all present. A full account of this case will be given in a future number of LEAVES OF HEALING. H

IN Zion Tabernacle at every service hundreds stand to confess Christ as their Saviour and offer a prayer of deepest penitence promising to confess all wrongs committed and to restore everything unjustly taken. There perhaps never has been, in the history of the United States, a mission nor a revival where such effects were constantly witnessed. Although the work has been going on for over two years, instead of abating, the interest is increasing. People are now attending the mission from almost every state in the Union. Occasionally Dr. Dowie calls the roll of States represented in his audiences and usually about twenty states respond. H

THE editor left us last Tuesday for a few days' rest and recuperation on the Atlantic Coast. When he left he expected to be gone about ten days. He has been laboring incessantly for the last year, holding upon an average about twenty-one services per week, besides praying with thousands of sick people. We earnestly hope that he may be greatly benefitted by this short respite ere he takes up the fall and winter campaigns for God. During his absence Mrs. Dowie will conduct the services in the Tabernacle as usual and the Manager of the Publishing House will supply the editorial notes and comments for LEAVES OF HEALING. H

Many compliments on the fine mechanical work done on the first number of the new series of LEAVES OF HEALING have come to us. Some have repeated their orders for extra copies several times. We printed a large edition anticipating a continued and increasing demand therefor and we shall be very happy to supply all who may yet call for this number. Our hope and prayer is that it may be greatly blessed of God in the extension of His kingdom. We earnestly call upon all who receive the paper to lend us all the assistance possible in introducing the paper. We send it out as God's Messenger and we know He is able to make it stand, but we must look to his children to perform their part in placing it before the people. H

PEOPLE are always ready to go where they get something. It was on this account that multitudes followed Jesus from city to city, from plane to plane and from mountain to mountain. The question of "How to reach the masses," may be answered by offering the masses something. It is an adage that "People do not catch birds with chaff," yet there are many who think they ought to catch men with no more tempting bait. It is true it may require time for men to learn the good things that are in store for them in the house of God, but once learned, there will be no more difficulty in drawing them to that place than in gathering hungry sheep at a feed-rack. Spiritual demands are as much a reality in human life as physical. We can rely as confidently upon the demand therefore as upon anything in life. H

THE wearing of clothes is not a consequence of sin; nor in any sense is it the first consequence of the sin of man. The first consequence of the sin of man was death, and death entered when man fell. But death was immediately executed. Although disease, the certain executor of death, entered into man by his own sin, God, in his mercy, did not execute the sentence at once. Our friends seem to forget what the word of God says concerning the wearing of clothes by fallen man. Here is the record in Gen. 3: 21: "And the Lord God made for Adam and for his wife coats of skin, and clothed them." It was the merciful hand of God himself which clothed them, because man did not know that from the moment that he sinned he was liable to consumption, to diseases, and God said, "I will teach you how to cover your bodies," so that man might be spared to know God's mercy, to look up even in the midst of his disease, and to listen to the voice of God, his Saviour and his Healer. God himself then made clothing, and clothed man, the Book tells us, and it is a very grave error to say that the wearing of clothes was the first consequence of sin. The wearing of clothes was the work of God to keep us from the consequences of sin. We go among the savage races to-day, where God's word is not known and there we see the consequence of their ignorance of how to clothe themselves. They go out in semi-nudity from their overheated tents or huts, and they have consumption and other diseases in consequence, and die off rapidly, because they do not know how to protect themselves. This is the case, I know, with the Maoris in New Zealand, and with the aborigines of Australia and Polynesia, and these native races are, from these and other causes, dying off rapidly. We should be grateful to God that in a world of sin, disease, and death, he has given us knowledge and means to clothe ourselves sensibly.—Divine Healing Vindicated.

IF IT BE THY WILL.

BY THE EDITOR.

IT is a constant experience in our ministry to hear from the lips of Christians who are seeking the Lord for healing, the statement that they have always prayed to God for deliverance from pain and sickness with the proviso, "if it be Thy will." This is the cause in tens of thousands of cases why their suffering and disease is not removed, for such a prayer is not "the prayer of faith" and not in accordance with the revealed will of God.

When we state this, we are met by a number of statements in defense of this mode of prayer, which may be briefly summarized thus:

1. It is presumptuous to pray in any other way, since God's will in this matter is unknown.
2. It may be for God's glory that we shall not be healed.
3. This form of prayer is justified by the prayer of the eper, "Lord if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."
4. It is justified by the prayer of our Lord, "Oh, my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt."
5. It is justified by the Lord's prayer, or rather the prayer which the Lord taught His disciples to pray, "Thy will be done."

We propose briefly and pointedly to answer the errors involved in all these five statements.

1. It can never be presumptuous to pray with divine assurance for healing if all the conditions are fully complied with by the suppliant, since God has revealed Himself in every age as the Healer of His people, and it is His absolutely revealed will to heal all such as come in faith pleading His Covenant Name and Promises. It is presumptuous to doubt what God has said, or to ask in any other spirit than that of confident expectation for what He has promised. He has said, "I AM the Lord that healeth thee," (Ex. 15:26) and that is an eternal Covenant Name, the Covenant of Jehovah-Rophi, resting in which the believer may sing, "Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases." Unchangeable as God Himself, that name reveals His nature as the Healer of his people, for it is written by His fingers on the Imperishable Page of His Word. His promises are in perfect accord with this revelation of Himself.

Prophets and poets, evangelists and apostles, inspired by the Divine Spirit, repeat these promises in a thousand forms. The prophets tell of Jehovah manifest in the flesh, who would in the fullness of time come not only as the Saviour, but as the Healer and the Cleanser of His people. Isaiah 35th embodies this glorious three-fold blessing of salvation, healing and holiness. Salvation first: "He will come and save you." (verse 4.) Healing comes next: "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing," etc. (verses 5 and 6.) And then follows Holiness, which is the glorious Highway of the King in which the fully redeemed shall walk, "The way of Holiness." (verse 8.)

The evangelist reveals to our admiring gaze the glorious scene in the synagogue of Nazareth (Luke 4) where our Immanuel unfolds His mission in the first recorded sermon after His baptism, His temptation, and His triumph; and there our Lord declares His mission to save and to heal. Throughout all His ministry the dual gospel of salvation and healing goes hand in hand, and again and again it is recorded, as in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35, that He "went about teaching, preaching, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people." Truly we may cry with the prophet, "Surely He hath borne our griefs [Hebrew, 'sicknesses'] and carried our sorrows" (Isaiah 53:4), and with Matthew, as he closes the record of that wondrous night of healing in the streets of Capernaum. (Mat. 8:16, 17.) "Himself took our infirmities and bare our sicknesses." Over and over again His willingness to heal all who come in faith is demonstrated, and that without exception. In no case did He ever say, "I will not," but His "I will," rings out in every page of the gospel.

Apostles, prophets, and teachers throughout all the early ages of the church repeat and demonstrate in the inspired epistles, and the other sacred records of the church's wondrous story, the same willingness of the Lord to heal, and that without exception, all who trust Him. Unless He is changed, and if that were possible, He would not be God, then He is still the Healer of His people. Let us rejoice that the Holy Spirit still breathes upon our hearts the inspiring words, "Jesus Christ is THE SAME yesterday, to-day and forever." Since that is so, then He is able, WILLING, longing, and present to heal, for He is not only an unchanged, but a present Lord, whose Word declares, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

2. It cannot be for God's glory that any of His children should be unhealed, since God is never glorified in our sickness any more than in our sin, for both sickness and sin are clearly Satan's work. He is glorified in delivering us from sickness, and nowhere is it written that He is glorified in sickness. The mistaken perversion of our Lord's words in John 11:4 has led many astray by giving them the false interpretation that God is glorified in our sickness. Jesus, when He received the message of Lazarus' sisters, "Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick," did not say that God was glorified in that sickness; He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby." This glorious declaration was abundantly justified by the wondrous manifestation of His resurrection and healing power, and He was glorified, as the Son of God, in the delivering His loved one from the power of the devil, who is the author of disease and death. Jesus did not say, "God made him sick that I should be glorified in delivering him from sickness," but He said in effect that the glory of God in His own person should be manifested in delivering him from that evil one from whom sin and sickness and death and hell proceed, that is, from the devil. Christ did not go about healing those that were oppressed of God, for it is written (Act 10:38), "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." Since, then, all forms of human sickness are Satan's work, these filthy diseases and painful infirmities can never be God's will, and if we believe that "for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil," (1 John 4:8) then we must believe that He came to destroy disease, and that God is ever glorified in the destruction of disease in His people.

How glorious it will be when from the four winds the breath of God breathes upon multitudes of God's children who are fainting, groaning, and dying, and are in their graves so far as practical usefulness is concerned. What a glorious power will be given to the Church of God when those who are now useless in the battle field will rise up at His command, filled with divine Life and glad with the indwelling consciousness of His healing power in every part of their spirit, soul, and body. What mighty blows will then be dealt in Jesus' name and in His strength to Satan's kingdom, and what multitudes will be set free by these triumphant hosts will go forth "an exceeding great army" to proclaim a perfect redemption not only for the spirit and the soul, but for the body also. This wondrous power rested on the Church in its glorious morning, and now that the night has come, the sure word of prophecy encourages us to believe that He who is coming to take out of the world His own will prepare them for that coming by "restoring health" to them. This health will be given for blessed service in the "little while" ere "he shall descend from heaven with a shout with the voice of the archangel and the trump of God." It will not be from innumerable sick-beds, groaning with cancers and rheumatisms and fevers that the "wise virgins" shall go forth with glad songs and joyful steps to meet their Lord, but they shall go forth to meet Him with the Oil filling their earthly vessels, for ere He comes He shall be glorified in their deliverance from the foul imprints of Satan's finger. On every page of the evangel and in the Acts of the Apostles we read that "they glorified the God of Israel" when they saw the mighty power of Jesus' name in the healing of the sick, and so it will be again. It is for God's glory that we should be healed.

3. The prayer of the leper can never justify the use of the word "If thou wilt or it be Thy will," since we have the answer of the Lord to the prayer of the leper in the two glorious words, "I will." When the leper said, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean," he acknowledged, in the act of worship, first that Christ was His Lord and God in whom he trusted for salvation. Second, by the words, "Thou canst," he expressed his faith in the power of the Lord to heal, but being ignorant as yet of the abounding willingness of Christ, who was only then unfolding His glorious will, he said, "If Thou wilt," and in speaking thus he expressed his doubtfulness as to the Lord's willingness. But when Jesus said "I Will," the leper no longer prayed "If Thou wilt," to have done so would have been to sin. Now Christ's answer to the leper is His answer to every true believer, "I will," and to repeat the form of the leper's prayer, "If Thou wilt," is to doubt whether that is really the Lord's answer, and doubt is sin. Had the leper persisted in praying "If Thou wilt," after he had heard the Lord's answer, he would never have been healed, for he would have shrunk from the Lord's touch. This is what many Christians are doing now; they persist in praying, even when they have heard the Lord's answer, "Lord, if Thou wilt" and therefore they shrink from the Lord's touch.

To every true believer to-day bowed down with sickness Christ speaks as at Bethesda, (John 5:6) "Wilt thou be made whole?" and unless we are willing He cannot heal, for He demands that we shall believe in His willingness without an "if" or a "but" or any qualification whatever. The language of faith never includes a syllable of doubt, and the little word "if," though it be but a syllable, is an element of doubt so great that no prayer can be answered which contains it. Let the believer listen to the Lord's answer to the leper, "I will," and never again repeat the leper's word of ignorance (justifiable in him but not in us), that little pernicious word "if." When one came to Jesus with that word, saying "If thou canst do anything, have compassion on us and help us," the Lord's answer was distinct and clear, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark 9: 23.) The "if" is never on God's part; His will is revealed, and there can never be any doubt as to His willingness to heal. Therefore it but rests with the Christian to throw away the "if" and to say, "LORD, I BELIEVE."

4. There can be no analogy between our prayer for Divine Healing and Christ's bitter cry in the hour of His agony and sore temptation in the garden, when He said, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death." As He Himself had said, it was impossible for that cup to pass from Him. This is proved by reference to His word in John 12: 27, where He says, "Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour;" and then it was that He, withdrawing that prayer, said, "Father, glorify Thy name," and to that there came a voice from Heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." It was only in thus fulfilling the eternal will and purpose of the eternal Trinity that it was possible for Him to become the Redeemer of men, and the "if" in that prayer was thus absolutely withdrawn and with glorious devotion for our salvation and healing and perfect redemption, He said, "as THOU wilt." All we ever can desire any Christian to say, is "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt," only let us know clearly what that will is, and then pray that His revealed will shall be fulfilled in us.

5. There is no such prayer taught Christ's disciples as that which is so often quoted as justifying the retention of the doubting "IF;" viz., "Thy will be done." Christians have no right to insert a full stop where their Bibles do not even contain a comma. The prayer, as our Lord taught it to his disciples, is contained in Matthew 6: 10, and is not "Thy will be done," but "Thy will be done in earth AS IT IS in Heaven," a very different prayer, with a larger scope than the abbreviated and distorted petition, "Thy will be done." The prayer, as it is often quoted, is a prayer of resignation to the unknown will of God, but that is clearly not the intention of our Lord. As He inspires the prayer, it is a prayer beseeching divine intervention, and entreating that "Our Father in Heaven" shall now, on this earth, do His will in us exactly in the same way as that will is now done in Heaven. Resignation to the Divine Will is a lovely and beautiful grace, but when the prayer which our Lord has taught us is distorted and used by Christians as a reason for their resignation to disease and corruption which is the devil's will and work, the perversion of the prayer becomes a very serious matter. Satan, himself must have devised and maintained in Christian writings and hymns this miserable perversion of the prayer taught by our Lord, for it has been a most successful delusion in his hands to keep millions of God's children bound by his filthy chains in racking pain, and even leading them to glorify God for his (that is, Satan's) work.

The extent to which this has been done by Christians for many centuries is beyond all expression sad. Holy and consecrated in spirit, great numbers of lovely Christian characters have pressed their lips to the work of Satan's foul fingers on their bodies, and said, looking up to God, "Father, Thy will be done." Take, for illustration, the verses written by that excellent Christian lady, Frances Ridley Havergal, entitled, "A song in the Night." In a note to the little poem, she says that it was written in severe pain on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, 1876, at the Pension Wengen, Alps. She says:—

I take this pain, Lord Jesus, from Thine own hand;
The strength to bear it bravely Thou wilt command.
I take this pain, Lord Jesus, as proof indeed
That Thou art watching closely my truest need,
That Thou, my Good Physician, art watching still,
That all thine own good pleasure Thou wilt fulfil.

I take this pain, Lord Jesus; What Thou dost choose
The soul that really loves Thee will not refuse.
I take this pain, Lord Jesus as Thine own gift,
And true, though tremulous praises I now uplift.

'Tis Thy dear hand, O Saviour, that presses sore
The hand that bears the nail-prints forevermore.
And now beneath its shadow, hidden by Thee,
The pressure only tells me Thou lovest me.

It is sad to say it, and to say it of one whose memory is so justly held dear by the church of God, but said it must be, that this, and the thousands of other poems and writings like it, must give great joy to the devil, for these sentiments are an absolute insult to God. To declare that a painful, horrible, filthy disease, corrupting and destroying a useful life, is implanted there by the hand of the Saviour and the Healer and the Cleanser, the incorruptible God, from whom nothing unclean can come, is to say that which is not true. It is no more true in Frances Ridley Havergal than it was in Job when he said "Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye, my friends; for the hand of the Lord hath touched me," (Job 19: 21), when not one single filthy boil on Job's miserable body had ever been planted there by any other than by Satan's unclean hand, since it is written that "Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown." (Job 2: 7.)

Let us look more closely at this prayer which our Lord has taught us, and we shall see how entirely opposite to its perversion the prayer really is. As we have said, it is a prayer for divine intervention, asking that our Father's will shall be done in us now, as it is done in Heaven.

To understand it, therefore, let us leave, in imagination, this earth and these lower skies and wing our way through all the starry spaces, leaving suns and systems behind, until we come to the highest heavens and reach the "city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." Let us now stand before one of those glorious gates of the city celestial. There, in all its glory, the city shines, "like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal." It rises above its walls great and high one thousand five hundred miles upward into the lovely sky, and extends on every side an equal measure "according to the measure of a man." All radiant with glory, the many mansions rise tier upon tier in this Metropolis of the Universe up to the very Throne of the Eternal. At one of the pearly gates we look into the face of a glorious guardian angel and say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is this Heaven, where God's will is done? And he answers "Yea." Again we say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is there any sin within these Jasper walls?" And he would say "Nay, for here the Father's will is done, and where that will is done no sin can enter."

Back from the gates of glory, we come down again to earth, and kneeling now upon this footstool, we lift our eyes to Heaven and say, "Father, Thy will be done in me on earth this day, just in the same way as it is now done in Heaven; and as in Heaven no sin abides, grant that all sin may now be taken from my heart, and that Thy holy will reign there alone, making my spirit pure, as Thou art pure." Will that prayer be answered if it come up to our Father's ear in Jesus name? Were it not answered, the Throne of God would fall for the Word of God would fail, which proclaims through earth and Heaven, "The BLOOD of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin." "I believe it," the Christian cries, "I believe it now, that it is His will, and I through faith and by His power am cleansed from sin." And so do we. Hallelujah.

But let us re-ascend, and wing our way in spirit once again above these lower skies, and stand once more beside the City of Gold. "Tell us, O blessed one, tell us," we say, "is there within these jasper walls, within these mansions of glory which rise above them to the Throne of God, any in whom disease, death, sorrow, crying or pain abide?" And if angel face could ever wear a look of pain, a flush of shame, it would be his from whose lips with mingled sorrow and displeasure the answer comes in one stern word, "Nay." "And wherefore, blessed one?" we say, to which he might reply, "Have ye not read 'there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie?'" And continuing, he might say, "The former things are passed away, the Father's will is done, the hand of the defiler of men can no more corrupt, for the will of the Father is done throughout all Heaven."

Descending once more, we bow our knees upon this earth, which is God's footstool, and looking up once more to Heaven, which is His Throne, we cry, "Father, O my Father, let Thy will be done in me on earth to-day, as that will is now done in Heaven; and as disease and corruption now defile my body, which is Thy temple, cleanse me from every defilement of the flesh as Thou hast from every defilement of the spirit, and in the perfect healing of every part, let Thy holy will now be done." Will that prayer be answered? If it be the prayer of faith, then it is written, "The prayer of faith SHALL SAVE THE SICK" and Heaven itself must fall to deepest Hell before that word can fail. But fail it cannot, for "it is impossible that God should lie. He promised, and He must perform."

Oh, that His will might be done, and that thou, dear suffering one who mayest read these words, shouldst no longer doubt the willingness of thy Lord to deliver thee from "all the power of the enemy," and to enable thee to "glorify God in your body and your spirit, which are His."

And now, beloved, how can we better close these words than in asking you to banish forever that fatal "IF" which keeps thee from the touch of Christ's healing hand waiting to heal thee now. We can only add our fervent exhortation and our earnest prayer for you in the words of the holy apostle Paul, "Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, WHO ALSO WILL DO IT." Let him do it; and songs of rejoicing will ring through earth and Heaven that the Father's will is done, and you who have waited long shall now rejoice, "being delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God," not only in having received "the first fruits of the Spirit," but in the "Redemption of your Body."

O'er earth and sea now let it ring,
The Lord is King, the Lord is King;
And Satan's chains from men shall fall
'Midst joyous shouts of "CHRIST IS ALL!"

EXTRACTS FROM "DIVINE HEALING VINDICATED."

THAT which fears criticism or investigation is not worth anything.

"THE redemption of our body" (Rom. 8: 23 and 1 Thess. 5: 22-24) is a present redemption, and if we will all let God have his way we may also say with Paul, "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." (Rom. 8: 2.)

DIVINE Healing is a perpetual covenant with God's people; for, He has revealed himself by that name—Jehovah-rophi—"I am the Lord that healeth thee." (Ex. 15: 26.) And the "Gifts of Healings" are ever in the church of Christ; for 1 Cor. 12: 9 shows that they are "in the Holy Spirit," and He is ever in the church. "The gifts and callings of God are without repentance," (Rom. 11: 29) and therefore, the Gifts of Healings, however they may be neglected, cannot be removed, for God's word would then fail, and that cannot be.

OUR friends say, we are to be "free from wearisome toil." Thanks be to God; I accept that. We are freed from wearisome toil. I am toiling night and day; I am toiling week in, month in, year in and year out, toiling every year more than I did the past, and feeling less weary than I did before. I thank God that I am able to realize the meaning of that word, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." (Isa. 40: 31.) These wings of faith and hope take us right up to the mansions of God, and we come down strong. Hallelujah! I thank God that we can toil without weariness. There are multitudes on the earth to-day who are saying that the Lord is their strength, and that it is a joy to work and a joy to live.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY

BY THE EDITOR.

Have you ever heard the story
 How our Lord before He died
 Laid His blessed hands in healing,
 Upon all who to Him cried;
 How the sick and all oppressed ones
 He rejoicing sent away;
 O, I'm glad, so glad to tell you,
 He is just the same today.

Let me speak to you of Jesus, kind reader of these pages. In simple, honest words, with tenderness and love, I want to tell you glad, good news. Christ changes never, and as He was on earth in ages long gone by, He is unchangeably the same even here and now. The Word which never dies is true, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever."

All His life and ministry were beautifully described by Peter thus: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil." (Acts 10: 38.)

"Teaching" patiently, "preaching" boldly, He went about with constant sympathy, "healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people." (Matt. 4: 23, 9: 35.)

He is the same today as when He trod the Holy Land, blessing the fainting, scattered, burdened sheep of God with words of life. And still He journeys over all the earth and never wearies of His loving task. He binds up still the broken, bleeding hearts, He still delivers from the tyrant's fetters, and from Himself, the Fountain, healing virtue still is flowing. With outstretched hands He stands, quick to respond to thine appeal and banish all thy woe. Unseen, but "with us always," as He said, He stands beside thy bed of weary pain. Loved ones bend over thee, and minister with sympathetic care; but nearer than all beside is Jesus, thy Saviour and thy Healer still. The Hand that cleansed the foulness of the leper's flesh and made it sweet and clean; the Hand that made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, the lame to leap, the dumb to speak; the Hand which raised the dead to life is here, no vanished Christ have we. Oh, wherefore doubt, and wherefore seek at other hands, from surgeon's knife or poison draught, the healing which He died to bring to thee, to me, to all mankind, in every age, in every land, in every clime? Christ changes never.

At noontide, sixteen years ago, I sat in my study in the parsonage of the Congregational Church, at Newton, a suburb of the beautiful city of Sydney, Australia. My heart was very heavy, for I had been visiting the sick and dying beds of more than thirty of my flock, and I had cast the dust to its kindred dust into more than forty graves within a few weeks. Where, oh where was He who used to heal His suffering children? No prayer for healing seemed to reach His ear, and yet I knew His hand had not been shortened. Still it did not save from death even those for whom there was so much in life to live for God and others. Strong men, fathers, good citizens, and more than all, true faithful Christians sickened with a putrid fever, suffered nameless agonies, passed into delirium, sometimes with convulsions, and then died. And oh, what aching voids were left in many a widowed orphaned heart. Then there were many homes where, one by one, the little children, the youths and the maidens were stricken, and, after hard struggling with the foul disease, they too, lay cold and dead. It seemed sometimes as if I could almost hear the triumphant mockery of fiends ringing in my ear whilst I spoke to the bereaved ones the words of Christian hope and consolation. Disease, the foul offspring of its father, Satan, and its mother, Sin, was defiling and destroying the earthly temples of God's children, and there was no deliverer.

And there I sat with sorrow bowed head for my afflicted people, until the bitter tears came to relieve my burning heart. Then I prayed for some message, and oh, how I longed to hear some words from Him who wept and sorrowed for the suffering long ago, the Man of Sorrows and of Sympathies. And then the words of the Holy Ghost inspired in Acts 10: 38 stood before me all radiant with light, revealing Satan as the defiler and Christ as the Healer. My tears were wiped away, my heart was strong, I saw the way of healing, and the door thereto was opened wide, and so I said, "God help me now to preach that word to all the dying round, and tell them how 'tis Satan still defiles, and Jesus still delivers, for 'He is just the same today.'"

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers who said, "Oh, come at once, Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of the dying maiden. There she lay groaning, grinding her clenched teeth in the agony of the conflict with the destroyer, the white froth, mingled with her blood, oozing from her pain-distorted mouth. I looked at her and then my anger burned. "Oh," I thought, "for some sharp sword of heavenly temper keen to slay this cruel foe who is strangling that lovely maiden like an invisible serpent, tightening his deadly coils for a final victory."

In a strange way it came to pass; I found the sword I needed was in my hands, and in my hand I hold it still, and never will I lay it down. The doctor, a good Christian man, was quietly walking up and down the room, sharing the mother's pain and grief. Presently he stood at my side and said, "Sir, are not God's ways mysterious?" Instantly the sword was flashing in my hand,—the Spirit's Sword, the Word of God. "God's way!" I said, pointing to the scene of conflict, "how dare you, Dr. K——, call that God's way of bringing His children home from earth to Heaven? No, sir, that is the devil's work, and it is time we called on Him: who came to "destroy the work of the devil," to slay that deadly foul destroyer, and to save the child. Can you pray, Doctor, can you pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick?" At once, offended at my words, my friend was changed, and saying, "You are too much excited, sir, 'tis best to say God's will be done," he left the room. Excited! The word was quite inadequate for I was almost frenzied with Divinely imparted anger and hatred of that foul destroyer, disease, which was doing Satan's will. "It is not so," I exclaimed, "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's works, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them." Oh, how the word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him." And was not God with me? and was not Jesus there and all His promise true? I felt that it was even so, and turning to the mother I inquired, "Why did you send for me?" To which she answered, "Do pray, oh, pray for her that God may raise her up." And so we prayed. What did I say? It may be that I cannot now recall the words without mistake, but words are in themselves of small importance. The prayer of faith may be a voiceless prayer, a simple heartfelt look of confidence into the face of Christ. At such a moment words are few, but they mean much, for God is looking at the heart. Still, I can remember much of that prayer unto this day, and asking God to aid I will endeavor to recall it. I cried:

"Our Father, help! and Holy Spirit teach me how to pray. Plead Thou for us, oh, Jesus, Saviour, Healer, Friend, our Advocate with God the Father. Hear and heal Eternal One! From all disease and death deliver this sweet child of Thine. I rest upon The word. We claim the promise now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord that healeth thee.' Then heal her now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord, I change not.' Unchanging God, then prove Thyself the Healer now. The word is true, 'These signs shall follow them that believe, in My Name, they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.' And I believe, and I lay hands in Jesus' name on her, and claim this promise now. Thy word is true, 'the prayer of faith shall save the sick.' Trusting in Thee alone, I cry, oh, save her now, for Jesus' sake, Amen!"

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that the mother said in a low whisper, "Is she dead?" "No," I answered in a whisper lower still, "Mary will live, the fever has gone. She is perfectly well and sleeping as an infant sleeps." Smoothing the long dark hair from her now peaceful brow, and feeling the steady pulsation of her heart and cool, moist hands, I saw that Christ had heard and that once more, as long ago in Peter's house, "He touched her and the fever left her." Turning to the nurse I said, "Get me at once, please, a cup of cocoa and several slices of bread and butter." Beside the sleeping maid we sat quietly and almost silently until the nurse returned, and then I bent over her and snapping my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she woke, smiled and said, "Oh, sir, when did you come? I have slept so long;" then stretching out her arms to meet her mother's embrace, she said, "Mother, I feel so well." "And hungry too?" I said, pouring some of the cocoa in a saucer and offering it to her when cooled by my breath. "Yes hungry too," he answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone. In a few minutes she fell asleep, breathing easily and softly. Quietly thanking God we left her bed and went to the next room where her brother and sister also lay sick of the same fever. With these two we also prayed, and they were healed. The following day all three were well and in a week or so they brought to me a little letter and a little gift of gold, two sleeve links with my monogram, which I wore for many years. As I went away from the home where Christ as the Healer had been victorious, I could not but have somewhat in my heart of the triumphant song that rang through Heaven, and yet I was not a little amazed at my own strange doings, and still more at my discovery that

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And this is the story of how I came to preach the Gospel of Healing through Faith in Jesus.

That very day I went to the cemetery and laid in the grave the bodies of three who had died two days before, but I rejoice to add that in the more than twelve years of ministry in Australia which followed I only buried five, although ministering to many, many thousands. And yet it was not all at once that I could discover how to teach the lessons that I learned that day. Not until six years after did I fully enter upon the ministry of healing as a part of the ministry of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to preach which I was duly ordained twenty years ago. In these ten years I have prayed, and in Jesus' name have laid my hands upon more than 18,000 sick ones, and, so far as man can judge, by far the greater part were fully healed. These witnesses have testified in thousands and the record of their testimonies has gone forth to many lands. We have left our friends and home to carry Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to every creature in every nation we can reach. We have never proclaimed this Gospel in any city or country where God has not confirmed the word with signs following, although in some places it is still true as nineteen centuries ago, "He could not do there many mighty works because of their unbelief." We bring this message to this city, and to thee, kind reader. It will give us joy to tell it to all who will come. Salvation and Healing are FREE, for God never sells His gifts, "Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

The mission opens its doors to all. It is the old time religion and no new gospel that is preached. 'Tis the gospel of Jesus' Redemption for spirit, soul and body, bringing salvation from sin, healing from sickness, and cleansing from every defilement of the flesh and spirit.

Let the words abide in thy heart.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as thou goest along the way through earth to Heaven:

"Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find.
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

(See Illustration Page 32.)

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

No. 4.

MRS. IDA W. LOWRIE.

WE have great pleasure in introducing to you as Witnesses to Divine Healing, Mrs. Lowrie and her sweet little baby girl, Jeanie Dowie Lowrie. The baby was six weeks old when this picture was taken. There is much joy and happiness in that home, where the wife and mother is spared to her husband and children and this little treasure added to the home circle. This is one of the miracles of healing. The little one takes its nourishment from the breast which, if the advice of the doctors had been taken would have been amputated, but which is now sound, healthy and natural, restored whole as the other. We can testify to what we have seen and know. To God be all the glory.

The testimony which follows was given to us shortly after her healing, but Mrs. Lowrie and the little one have repeatedly since then given testimony and been on evidence in the Tabernacle. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrie brought the little one for the first outing to give thanks to God in the presence of all the people.

May this beautiful and touching testimony help many other women similarly afflicted to turn to the Great Physician who is not only able, but willing to heal spirit, soul and body for those of His children who give themselves entirely into His hands.

CHICAGO ILL., May 16th, 1894.

Dear Doctor Dowie:

I feel called upon to tell you how much I have been benefitted by your teachings in the past six weeks, and what the Lord has done for me. For the past three years my left breast has given me much trouble. I had it examined by Doctor M. G. Pomtius, in Canton, Ohio, where I resided at that time, and the doctor pronounced it a cancer, and entreated me to have it operated upon at once.

In August, 1892, I was examined by the examining physician at the Cook County Hospital, of this city, and he pronounced my case an alarming one. He also advised me to consult two or three doctors whom he considered good surgeons.

The following week Doctor Halsted examined me and pronounced it a cancer, and thought an operation at once advisable. He said, "In three months I would not want to operate on you, and in one year you will be a dead woman if you do not have immediate attention. Remember you are taking your life in your own hands."

MRS. IDA W. LOWRIE AND CHILD, 2828 Calumet Ave., Chicago.

I went home very much discouraged, but could not make up my mind to submit to an operation, as I have always had a horror of surgery. In March, 1893, I was examined by Doctor Skiles, the homeopathic surgeon at the Sanitarium at Garfield Park. He advised me to undergo a surgical operation at once. I promised to decide as to what I would do in the two weeks following, but could not make up my mind to submit to an operation, so I decided to wait a little while longer.

In October, 1893, my old doctor from Ohio was here attending the Fair and called upon me and entreated me to have Doctor Bellfield examine me, and I did so. He advised me to have the breast removed at once. I thought the matter over very seriously and finally decided that I would prefer to die if it was the Lord's will rather than be butchered by Chicago surgeons. My doctor went back to Ohio, my former home, and informed my friends there that it was only a matter of time with me, that I would not consent to an operation and that I would not live a year. Dr. Pomtius also informed my husband that Doctor Bellfield coincided with his opinion in the case, viz.: that it must be fatal ere long.

From that time I never saw another physician. Early in April my husband read to me a long account of "The Rev. Dr. Dowie and his Missions," from the pages of the Inter Ocean, and on the following Friday I went down to Zion Tabernacle to hear you preach. I was so impressed by the service that I arose with a multitude of others and made open repentance and confession of my sins. When I left the Tabernacle I was at peace with God, and from that time was fully convinced of the truth of his teaching, that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Healer of all diseases. I began to pray earnestly for my healing and went as often as possible to the Tabernacle, hoping to see you in the "Healing-room." There were such multitudes there, many of whom seemed to be suffering great pain, that I put off asking for a ticket from day to day. But I still continued praying privately, and one night, about ten o'clock, when alone in my room, I entreated God earnestly to heal me. At that moment I was suffering much pain, but it immediately passed away, and great ease and peace followed. In the morning I found that suppuration from the cancer in my breast had entirely ceased, and that the breast was rapidly assuming a natural form. This has continued until the present time. My breast has returned to its original condition and is now perfectly healthy,

NOT ONE SINGLE TRACE OF THE CANCER REMAINING.

My healing, although due, under God to your teaching, was entirely without any personal communication or contact with you; for until the day on which I write this letter, I have never even spoken to you or touched your hand. I praise God therefore that I am well and happy through the Holy Spirit's blessings upon your teachings, which have led me into this happy experience.

Since I began attending your meetings, I can truly say that I am healed in spirit, soul and body, and have experienced more true happiness during this period than in all my previous life. I thank God to-day that He has sent so faithful a servant as Doctor Dowie to Chicago, and I hope that he and his good and noble wife may be permitted to remain here for a long time and to continue the great and good work of bringing sunshine into many clouded homes, as they have into my home. For dear children were told by my Canton doctor that in a year their mamma would be gone; but now they and my husband can rejoice with me in the entire disappearance of the deadly disease which beclouded all our happiness.

I give glory to God and heartfelt thanks to yourself, and am very truly your sister in Christ Jesus,

MRS. IDA W. LOWRIE,

TALKS WITH MINISTERS ON DIVINE HEALING.

Two Addresses Delivered by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie, and Mrs. Dowie by Invitation of the Congregational Club, at their meeting, Held in the Parlors of the Y. M. C. A., San Francisco.

[SERMON REPORTED BY G. H. HAWES.]

Mr. Dowie spoke as follows:—

“BELOVED FRIENDS: I am glad of this opportunity to speak to you. If I were to place before you the text most in my mind, it would be the words contained in the eighth chapter of Matthew, sixteenth and seventeenth verses: ‘When the even was come, they brought unto Him many that were possessed with devils; and He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all that were sick; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our Infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.’

DIVINE HEALING NOT ‘MIND HEALING’ NOR ‘CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.’

‘I am glad this subject has been placed before you in the two words, ‘Divine Healing.’ I have nothing in common with what is called Mind Healing, nor that ‘opposition of science falsely so called,’ called Christian Science, and I do not like the term, Faith Healing. ‘We are saved by grace through faith and not of ourselves; it is the gift of God! We are kept by the power of God through faith.’ While faith is a very precious grace, yet it is only the medium of the communication of God’s infinite love and power, and we must never put it in the place of God Himself. Therefore I am glad the subject is expressed in the words ‘Divine Healing,’ or ‘Healing through Faith in Jesus;’ not healing BY faith, but THROUGH faith; through faith in Jesus, by the power of God. As this doctrine is presented by us in our teaching it covers a large field; and however diversely it may be put, and however variously it may be illustrated, it, after all comes to two points.

TWO CARDINAL DOCTRINES.

“First—That ‘Jesus, the Christ, is the same yesterday, today and forever,’ and being so, He is unchanged in power and in will. If His words, ‘Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world,’ are true, and they are, then He is as much present in power and in spirit to-day as when He stood in the flesh upon the earth. This being so, we have ever presented in our teaching that He is able, that He is willing, that He is present, and that He is longing to heal His people as in the days of His flesh.

“Second—That disease, like sin, is God’s enemy, and the devil’s work, and can never be God’s will. Peter said in the household of the Centurion Cornelius, (Acts 10: 38): ‘God anointed Jesus Christ with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good and HEALING ALL THAT WERE OPPRESSED OF THE DEVIL, for God was with Him. Nineteen centuries ago ‘all manner of sickness and disease’ was healed by Jesus, and as ‘all’ whom He healed ‘were oppressed of the devil,’ it follows logically that all sickness and disease is still the devil’s work. When Jesus heals He is not undoing the work of the Father, but the work of Satan. The will of God is to heal now, as it was nineteen centuries ago, all who believe. Now in teaching these two points

CHRIST IS THE HEALER, SATAN IS THE DEFILER.

“We are accustomed at some considerable length to put them before the eyes and the minds of the people as effectively as we can. We do this with the aid of diagrams. Here is one which we call ‘The Two Chains.’

GOOD

SALVATION ○ HEALING ○ LIFE ○ HEAVEN ○

EVIL

SIN ○ DISEASE ○ DEATH ○ HELL ○

“The Chain of Good begins with Jesus—from all eternity the eternal Logos, who was God, and in the beginning with God; the ‘Lamb of God slain from before the foundation of the world.’ Then follow what He hath given to His people, Salvation, Health, Life, Heaven.

“Then the Chain of Evil is Satan, Sin, Disease, Death, Hell. Jesus and Satan are opposed; salvation and sin opposed; health and disease opposed; life and death opposed; heaven and hell opposed. The point is, Has Christ delivered us from ‘all the power’ of the enemy? We teach that He has, and, therefore, that salvation extends to the body, and that His ‘saving health’ is a Gospel of Salvation and Healing which must be proclaimed ‘among all nations.’ Therefore we teach

‘THE REDEMPTION OF THE BODY;’

(Romans 8:23) and that the ‘Life also of Jesus should be made manifest in our mortal flesh.’ (2 Cor. 4: 11). We make the bold assertion of the Apostle Paul, namely: ‘If the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you.’ (Romans 8: 11). This ‘redemption of the body’ was never taught by Jesus as something belonging to the hereafter. He taught that this was to be the continuous work of the Holy Spirit in all the ages. How plain are His words, ‘He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow Rivers of Living Water.’ The Rivers were to flow from the Bodies of Believers, and they did. The Bodies were to be Fountains of Divine Life; for it is written, ‘This spake He of the Holy Spirit which they that believe on Him should receive; for the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.’ (John 7: 37-39). But the Holy Ghost having been given, the Body becomes the Temple of the Holy Ghost, and the Temple of God is to be clean. So that redemption extends not only to the spirit (pneuma), and the soul (psyche), but to the body (soma); Christ’s redeeming work extends to the entire being, spirit, soul and body. Therefore, Divine Healing, the restoration by the Holy Spirit, through faith in Jesus, so long as we ‘abide in Him,’ is provided for us through all our earthly pilgrimage. When our pilgrimage ends, though we may be old and worn, we shall ‘lie down in peace and sleep,’ and neither Satan, nor sin, nor disease, nor death, nor hell, shall have any dominion over us, if we let Christ set us free.

“Now in presenting these truths it seems to us that we are

STANDING UPON THE ROCK OF ETERNAL POWER.

We have no teaching outside of the word of God in this matter. We do not present our theories. This ministry is continuously the ministry of the Word of Life. We hold fast to Jesus’ words: ‘It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing. The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life.’ We believe that ‘Fools, because of their transgressions, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted,’ not because God afflicts them with foul disease. There are many such to-day whose ‘soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.’ But we also believe, as God’s word teaches us, that when ‘they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, He saveth them out of their distresses.’ We do not believe that He does this by pills and potions and plasters, but ‘HE SENDETH [Revised Version] His word, and HEALETH THEM, and delivereth them from their destructions [or pits].’ (Psalms 107: 17-20). These are four wonderful verses.

“And so the whole Mission is

FIRST OF ALL A TEACHING MISSION;

and the whole ministry, as we are enabled to present it, is based entirely upon the word of God. We therefore present; that word as fully as we can, always remembering that this was the way in which Christ carried out His great earthly Mission. He did three things: He taught, He preached, He healed. Matthew 4: 23 and Matthew 9: 35 have exactly the same phraseology: ‘Jesus went about all the cities and villages, TEACHING in their synagogues and PREACHING the gospel of the kingdom, and HEALING every sickness and every disease among the people.' Teaching came first, Preaching next, and Healing last. That is the divine order in which it was ever put, and the Kingdom of God can only be extended by that Three-fold Ministry. Alas, that preaching should be considered the beginning and end of the Christian ministry in these days! A true minister should not only be a divinely ordained preacher, but a divine teacher and healer, as in the church of the first century.

"We have found in connection with this, that as the beautiful Gospel of Divine Healing is placed after Salvation, we have upon the people who come to listen. We tell them they must not attempt to 'touch the hem of His garment,' and that they cannot get into contact with Him at all for physical healing until they have spiritually owned Him as their Lord and their God. We remind our readers that it is written, 'Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases.' (Psalm 103: 2, 3).

"Forgiveness first, and Healing second. Jesus put it in the same manner: 'Son, be of good cheer, thy sins are forgiven thee,' preceded 'Arise, take up thy bed and go unto thine house.' (Matthew 9: 1-7). The leper must first be a true worshiper at Jesus' feet ere he can find in Him a merciful healer. (Matthew 8: 2-4). So we have taught that God requires saving faith on the part of those who come to seek Him for healing. There must first be a surrender of the spirit, and a reception of Christ as the Saviour from sin, and that is the sine qua non; a condition without which we cannot ask the Lord acceptably for healing. We have nothing whatever to do with those who will not first receive Christ as their Saviour. Divine Healing is the Children's Bread, and it cannot be given to those who are wilfully Children of the Devil, for these cannot exercise faith. We find in connection with this teaching that this is a very strong position. We show them the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing; but we point them to Jesus, who has said, 'I AM THE DOOR OF THE SHEEP.' (John 10: 7). No goat can enter, much less any devouring wolf. Before they can reach the inner door of Healing, they must pass through the outer door of Salvation. They must receive Christ the Saviour ere they can partake of His blessing as Healer. We repeat it over and over again, and it cannot be given to dogs. The Canaanitish woman must get beyond the recognition of Jesus as the Son of David. She must see in Him the God of Israel. When she worships Him, and throws herself at His feet, with the cry, 'Lord, help me!' then He can say, 'O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee even as thou wilt.' (Matthew 15: 21-28). The Unitarians' creed, which denies Christ's power and Godhead, can never lead men to Salvation or to Healing. We teach that, in all the healings recorded in Scripture, where faith is not expressed it is always implied. Spiritual perception must come first; for 'without faith it is impossible to please God: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.' (Hebrews 11: 6.) How can one exercise a spiritual power, such as faith is, unless that person found that faith in Him who is its Author?

DIVINE HEALING IS THE CHILDREN'S BREAD

"Presenting that, we find too that Divine Healing points to

A STILL MORE BEAUTIFUL THING,—HOLINESS OF LIFE.

The thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah presents first Salvation in Christ: 'He will come and save you.' Healing comes next: 'Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped; then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water,' etc. Then HOLINESS follows: for the beautiful Redemption song continues: 'And an Highway shall be there. and a way, and it shall be called the unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.' How blessed are those who walk therein: for this then there is the time of the singing of birds has come: 'And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs [not with moanings] 'and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.'

THE WAY OF HOLINESS;

THE WAY OF LIFE:

"We do not strain the prophecy by applying it thus, for our Lord Himself applied it so in His answer to John the Baptist, (Matthew 11: 4, 5) and it is a glorious presentation of the good time when the whole being of the redeemed is perfected in Christ; and there is no perfection out of Him.

"A great deal more might be said about this; but let me emphasize, that unless these points are first understood, there is no progress; the way must be clear. By faith, the sinner must see Jesus as the Saviour. Perceptive Faith must be followed by Receptive Faith; for it is written, 'As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God' (John 1: 12). And Receptive Faith must be followed by a Retentive Faith, a faith that holds fast to Christ. That is followed by Active Faith; a true Christian must work for Christ. Active Faith must be followed by Passive Faith, the highest, and yet the lowliest form—a strong Christian calmly rests in the Lord. It is not in our seeing, our receiving, our holding fast, or our working, that Power lies; Power comes to him who is fully resting in the Lord. From that center all the rest proceed. Having taught these things you will see what the effect is; the effect is that we call upon the Church of God to live a higher life. We inquire at once, and firmly, from Christians who seek healing,

ARE YOU DEFILING YOUR BODY?

If you defile the body by any nicotine poison, by the filthy vice of smoking, or chewing tobacco, then you sin against God and your own soul. You sow nicotine and reap cancer; you sow nicotine and you reap paralysis; you sow poison in the flesh, and you reap corruption. That is in exact accordance with the law of Sin and Death. For disease is the offspring of Father Satan and Mother Sin, just as much as Death. Let the words ring out in the ears of the Church of God—'Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that [exactly that same thing, not something else] shall he also reap; for he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.' (Galatians 6: 7, 8) I talk plainly in this ministry, and affirm that the defilement wilfully, by a Christian, of his body is sin, just as stealing or lying is sin, for it is written, 'Know ye not that ye are the temple of God; and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man [be he minister, officer or church member] defile the Temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the Temple of God is holy, which temple are ye?' (1 Corinthians 3: 16, 17). No one can mistake God's word in this matter who has an honest mind. The human body of the believer is God's temple. It is written, 'What? Know ye not that your Body is the Temple of the Holy Ghost, which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? We are the Lord's purchased possession, and when He bought us, He did not only buy our Spirits, but He paid the price for the redemption of our souls and bodies too. Hence the apostle says, 'Ye are bought with a price [and, oh, what a price Jesus paid!] therefore, glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.' (See 1 Corinthians 6: 19, 20). To disgrace God by defiling His temple is clearly to sin. To pollute the body with alcohol is sin, for it defiles and poisons the brain and all the body, and opens the door of God's Temple to many unclean devils. And so with every form of defilement. Novel readers are, for the most part, 'filthy dreamers, who defile the flesh;' (Jude 8) and the pernicious poison of fictitious literature of every kind excites the sensual desires of multitudes who pollute themselves continually. 'Abstain from all appearance [or every form] of Evil' (1 Thessalonians 5: 22), is the absolute command of God, and every Christian must, by God's grace, obey it fully. Therefore, we have which comes with great force to those who are sick, causing them to quit sin. They have to give up all secret as well as open sins. Excesses, also, in the conjugal relation, excesses in the exercise of any lawful power that God has given, must be abstained from. There must be a holding in subjection of the whole being. The body must be made the servant, and never once the master. [Amens]. Thus many are led to give up sin under the power of the teaching of the word of God in this ministry of Divine Healing, who otherwise would not do so.

'But, beloved friends, the Teaching comes first, as we have said—the elimination of truth from error. The minds of the people must first be delivered from the terrible thought that God can ever be the defiler of His people, and the glorious revelation must be made clear and plain that the hand of Christ is ever the hand of the Healer.

WE HAVE TO MEET AND ANSWER OBJECTIONS, of course, and Old Testament difficulties are brought to bear especially upon this matter. We are confronted with the words of Job, which a good many people forget are not the words of God. The Book of Job is an inspired record of events in which God and Satan and men take part. The words of Job are not always the message of God. When Job said, 'Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me' (Job 29: 21), it was not an inspired word, for the voice of God, reproving Job, rang out from the whirlwind, 'Who is this that darkeneth counsel by word without knowledge?' (Job 38: 2). And Job had to confess that he has spoken things that he ought not to have spoken; uttered things he ought not to have uttered, that he had used words without divine wisdom; that he had sinned. He said, 'Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth' (Job 40: 4). Again he said, 'I have uttered that I understand not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not; . . . wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes' (Job 42: 1-4). It was then that the hand of the Healer was manifested; for God healed Job, and delivered him also from the false accusations of his three friends who did not see that this was not the hand of God. They thought it was the hand of God, and Job was in the same position. But God revealed that drama which we see now, which Job did not see at the time and did not understand (and sometimes we do not), that while he permits the existence of sin and suffering, and other forms of evil, he never can be the author of evil. Therefore when Job said, 'What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?' Job was not sinning with his lips willfully, but he was sinning in his mind ignorantly, and he was speaking that which was not right. It is written, 'Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.' (See James 1: 13-16.) Stealing is evil, disease is evil; and when Job said, 'The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord,' Job was wrong. He did not sin willfully, nor charge God foolishly intentionally; but God proved to him that he had charged him wrongfully. Let us have the whole truth; the Lord gave, it is true; but it is equally positive that Satan took away; and poor Job ignorantly blessed God for what he afterward saw was Satan's work. You surely do not make God the author of the stealing of Job's sheep and camels and oxen and asses? You surely do not make God the author of the sin of Job's children, who in their sinful gluttony, drunkenness, and impenitence were in Satan's power and perished. The family was a sinful one, so sinful that Job daily offered sacrifice for them; 'For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed (the Revised Version reads renounced) God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.' (See Job 1: 4 and 5.) They were a continuous sorrow to him, and had a foolish mother. He knew they were evil; they perished in their sin; for they despised their godly father. We say, then, what God's word says, that it was the hand of Satan that 'smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.' (Job 2: 7.) It was not the hand of the Lord; and we should discern that while there is the divine permission there is not the commission.

PERMISSION AND COMMISSION ARE POLES ASUNDER,

and must never be confounded. I would like to say a word just here, namely, that a great deal of error arises from confounding these two things. God permitted the Jews to blaspheme his own Son; permitted Judas Iscariot to betray him; permitted Satan to enter his heart and make him a thief, a betrayer, and a liar; but for anyone to say God committed these crimes would be to make God the author of perjury, of stealing, of brutality and blasphemy. Christ submitted; God, the eternal Father, permitted; but it was the temporary triumph of the Evil One; for Jesus himself said at that awful time to those servants of Satan who arrested him at Gethsemane, 'This is your hour, and the power of darkness.' (Luke 22: 53.) He never once said it was the hand of God. There is a great deal of error in our hymnology. For instance, a well-known hymn says:—

'Jehovah lifted up His rod,
' O Christ, it fell on Thee;
Thou wast sore stricken of God,
There's not one stroke for me.'

That is based upon a misinterpretation of the Scriptures. A person once said to me that it was written in the word, 'He was stricken of God and afflicted.' I said, 'That is not true.' He said, 'That is what it says.' I said, 'It does not, and if you look at the word, you have seriously misquoted. In Isa. 53: 4 it is written, 'Surely He hath born our griefs [in the Revised Version instead of griefs the margin reads sicknesses] and carried our sorrows, yet WE DID ESTEEM HIM STRICKEN, smitten of God and afflicted.' We Jews, we, the people of God, said, 'Now, there you are on the cross; didn't we tell you that you were a blasphemer, and would come to a bad end? And they reviled Him, derided Him, mocked Him, and wagged their heads and said, 'You are stricken of God, and afflicted of God, you are a bad man.' Oh, it is bitter shame that the Church of God should take this false accusation as a truth, and fashion it into a hymn. It is not true. He was wounded for our transgression, He was bruised for our iniquities; but let us never forget what Peter said on the day of Pentecost to those who put Him to death, 'Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and fore-knowledge of God, ye have taken, and BY WICKED HANDS have crucified and slain.' (Acts 2: 23.) The hands which committed that crime were 'wicked hands,' doing the devil's bidding. Christ with the Father agreed in the Divine Counsel, and with clear fore-knowledge, to let Satan triumph for that bitter, awful hour; but it was that He might thereby provide for us salvation and healing, and every blessing we need, by that precious, atoning Sacrifice. The glorious words, therefore, follow, (Isa. 53: 5.) 'The chastisement of our peace when upon Him, and with His stripes WE ARE HEALED.'

'You may say that further on the prophecy says, (verse 10.) 'Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him.' I read these words, 'to permit Him to be bruised,' and for many good and sufficient reasons I cannot enter into the matter now and here, but we have entered into it very largely in our teaching. There has been a good deal of difference of opinion amongst eminent scholars upon this subject. I hold that all through the Old Testament there is a mistranslation of the permissive into the causative. If what Peter says, namely, that He was crucified 'by the hands of wicked men,' be true, then his crucifixion could not be the Father's action in any sense, although it was His permission. But the awful guilt of that diabolical crime rests upon the Jews, for it was their sinful action, and Satan's work, of whom they were the blind slaves, through the 'envy of their deceitful rulers'.

"And so, throughout the whole of the Old Testament, I venture to say you can only rightly understand many passages by altering the causative into the permissive. For instance, 'Shall there be evil in the city and the Lord hath not done it?' (Amos 3: 6.) Will any of you say that God creates, is the doer of, every iniquity in San Francisco? Again, 'I make peace, and create evil.' (Isa. 45: 7.) If God creates evil, then where is our responsibility, should we fall into sin? Again, 'The Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of the prophets.' (1 Kings 22: 23.) Does God put a lying spirit in the mouth of the prophet? Then he would be a father of lies, like the devil; and I want to see where the responsibility is, if we are led astray by a false revelation. Change the verb from causing to permitting, and the difficulties in these and hundreds of passages in the Old Testament vanish in a moment, and God justified from one of the foulest charges brought by infidelity, namely, that He is the author of innumerable crimes. He permits the existence of evil, but permission is not commission. On the contrary, does He not say, (Isa. 5: 20,) 'Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil, that put darkness, for light, and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter?' The New Testament is abundantly clear upon the matter, and I think that we, as ministers of the New Testament, ought to interpret the Old by the New, and not the New by the Old. I lay it down as a canon of interpretation that when we are listening to the Christ we should say, 'A greater than Solomon is here.' And we are not going to Isaiah or Moses or David in preference to Christ. When he says, 'I say unto you,' it settles the question. He says, 'A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.' (Matt. 8: 17.) God is not a tree of good and evil. God is good, infinitely holy and infinitely pure, and nothing corrupt can ever come to us through His hands. Disease is evil, the product of Satan and sin, hence it can never come from God.

"So these are some of the points of the teaching,

AS TO THE PRACTICE,

we do not care that [indicating by gesture] in itself, about laying hands upon people or about anointing people. I should be very glad if everyone was healed as the Lord has graciously healed and kept me. For twenty-six years I have been delivered by Him alone in every time of trial, and kept in health and strength and in power of spirit, soul and body. I have been lecturing in your country continuously for six months, and before I left Australia had been for many years working up to my utmost strength. I have been speaking, I suppose on an average about three times a day for more than one hundred and eighty odd days, and I do not feel any weakness. I have written much, conducting a vast correspondence, and had interviews with hundreds of persons. I had all the work of yesterday, and I did not take Saturday to rest, but was at work from an early hour of that day until 11 o'clock at night, preparing my mail for Australia. I seldom know what it is to absolutely rest, except in sleep and in a change of employment. I find rest and joy in continuous service. So I speak, and so it is, all of the grace of God.

"We do not teach that it is essential in Divine Healing to anoint with oil, or that there shall be laying on of hands. We say that all a true believer needs to do is to pray as the Centurion did, 'Lord, speaking the word only, and Thy servant shall be healed.' (Matt. 8: 8.) But then you must have faith it shall be done, not merely that it can be done. We have been largely used by the layings of hands in this ministry; but we believe in the ministry of anointing by the elders, as set forth in Jas. 5: 14, 15. 'Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.' Look at the three *shall*s in that last verse. It is not perhaps, may or can, but God says "shall." Christ says, 'Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you.' (Luke 11: 9.) He does not say these signs may follow them that believe, but He says clearly, 'These signs shall follow them that believe: in My Name . . . they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.' (Mark 16: 17, 18.)

"While we do not consider it essential in all cases to lay hands on the sick, yet we glorify God that He has used us in that wonderful ministry. In your city the blind have received their sight, the deaf have heard, the lame have walked, and their testimony is there [referring to 'American First-Fruits'], and many have been blessed. But SUPPOSING THERE WAS NO HEALING IN THIS CITY, it would not alter the fact that Christ is the Healer. Now, I ask you as ministers, suppose there was not one man saved in the city, would it alter the fact that Christ is the Saviour? No; it would simply show there was no faith in San Francisco. That Christ is the Healer does not rest upon any human testimony, it rests upon the word of God, and not the testimony of man. We have not based it upon the testimony of men, and we shall never do so, God helping us. You do not base your belief that Jesus is the Saviour from sin upon the fact that somebody is saved, or says he is saved; but you base it upon the word of the living God; and there you stand. And there we stand, upon the Rock—resting on the God of Eternal Truth, whose Word we have.

"So this teaching is not new.

IF IT WERE NEW, IT WOULD NOT BE TRUE, and what is true is not new. We want to get back to the old church lines, as laid down in the New Testament, to primitive lines; and if we are to get back primitive power, beloved, we will have to go a step further and get back primitive organization, primitive faith, primitive simplicity, primitive purity of life. Primitive power follows all that.

"Well, beloved friends, I am very thankful for the opportunity of talking to you. I think I have taken up more than my time."

(The Chairman announced that seven minutes remained.)

A member of the Club said they would like to hear from the good lady, referring to Mrs. Dowie.

Mrs. Dowie continued; "I thank you for your courtesy to Mrs. Dowie. Doubtless she will say a few words.

"It is also remarkable how my dear wife has been kept in connection with the whole of this ministry. I suppose it would almost savor of egotism if I spoke at length of what we have undertaken in this work for the Lord, and I will not. I don't want myself to be put in the front at all in this matter, yet to the glory of God let us say that during these last six years we have seen thousands and thousands of persons individually, and talked to hundreds of thousands, and through our pen to millions, and all in the strength which God supplies. We have had wondrous blessing. 'The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad.' Mrs. Dowie has worked with me continuously through all the toil of long journeys by land and by sea, followed by meetings lasting frequently all the day from ten o'clock in the morning until very late at night, and sometimes till far on in the following morning. So it has gone on from year to year, and we have had 'fresh oil' every day, new power has continually been given. I have never known for a single day what it has been to be unable to minister to my Lord in all these long years. And in this I greatly rejoice; for we live to do the will of God.

"I desire to say that I esteem it a privilege to talk to Congregational ministers; I was one of you; I am one of you in many things still. I was ordained nearly seventeen years ago as the pastor of a Congregational church. I was born of the spirit in my native city, Edinburgh, Scotland, when I was a child seven years old, and was brought up in an "independent church," as we used to call it. My father is a Congregationalist now, and most of my relatives are connected with Congregational churches." A minister inquired,

"IS THAT WHAT YOU MEAN BY PRIMITIVE CHURCH ORGANIZATION!"

"No, sir, I do not think so by any manner of means. My views upon that subject have been expressed in a recent lecture, entitled, 'A Fact and a Question.' The fact to which I refer is found in 1 Corinthians 12:28, 'And God hath set (etheto—hath built into) some in the Church, first Apostles, secondarily, Prophets, thirdly Teachers, after that, Miracles, then Gifts of Healings, Helps, Governments, Diversities of Tongues.' That is the fact according to the Holy Scriptures. The question is, 'Where are they?' and upon the right answer to that Question depends the whole truth as to the rightful organization of the Church of God.

"There is one more word I would like to add. I may say, brethren, I found it to be a very great blessing to myself to be able to keep very clearly in my own mind the primitive distinction between Spirit and Soul. I feel convinced that much error has crept into the Church, among which is the miserable doctrine of annihilation, in consequence of confounding the words Soul and Spirit. We have a lecture upon the subject, 'The Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body,' which we illustrate by a diagram. That diagram is not here; but perhaps you will be able to understand what it is after I have represented it to you. We present in this diagram four circles; the innermost to represent the indwelling of the holy spirit; the next circle is the spirit (pneuma); the next Soul (soma); and the outside circle of the Body (psyche). The tripartite nature is not often preached, and man is too often represented as a duality instead of a trinity, made 'in the image of God.' We teach the doctrine largely from 1 Thess. 5:23,24. The Holy Spirit is the sanctifier of spirit, soul and body. The difference between spirit and soul is essentially distinct, and is so shown in the Scriptures. The first chapter of Genesis shows that beasts have souls; and the same word is used concerning Adam's soul. But that expression has no reference to the spirit. Genesis 2:7 shows that man was constituted by God a tripartite being—the Body of dust, the Spirit is the Breath of God's Life, and the Living Soul is identical with that of the animals, birds, fishes in Genesis 1:20 and 30, where the same word is used for their life. All our light on this matter must come from God's Word, which clearly points to a separation of Soul from Spirit. (See Hebrews 4:12.) 'The Word of God . . . piercing even to the dividing asunder of Soul and Spirit.' The soul can die, the spirit never. Christ 'poured out his soul unto death,' (Isaiah 53:12); but that was only His blood, not His Spirit, which could not die. The blood is the life. He poured it out (it was His soul) unto death. And so all the way through we have this distinction of Soul and Spirit in the testimony of God. It leads to many practical thoughts, and has a far reaching importance not at first perceived—we have found it so in our ministry.

"As illustrating the rapidly growing interest in this ministry of Divine Healing, I may say that I have RECEIVED FROM FIVE TO SIX THOUSAND PETITIONS FOR PRAYER

from all parts of your country, and also from many parts of the world during these six months. It is wonderful how God has guided the minds of the people to us from many lands, and the answers to prayer that have been given for many at great distances. It is needless that I should give instances of Divine Healing, for hundreds have publicly testified in our meetings in this State, and in this city. Many hundreds have also professed to find salvation in our meetings, and this is our highest joy. The Healings are going on all the time, and I glorify God for what he is doing. There is nothing done through my agency but what may be done through any of you.

I CLAIM NO EXCLUSIVE PRIVILEGES OR POWERS.

"We teach what is recorded in the 12th chapter of First Corinthians, that 'the gifts of healing are in the Holy Spirit,' like all the other gifts of God. They are not under the control of a body called the Church, they are not controlled by any person, call him by what office or title you may; they are in the Holy Spirit; and, if the Holy Spirit be in you, He will divide to you severally as He wills. All the gifts are in the Holy Spirit, and, therefore, in the Church. The nine gifts of the Spirit mentioned in that chapter are a permanent possession of the Church, namely, the Word of Wisdom, the Word of Knowledge, Faith, Gifts of Healings, Working of Miracles, Prophecy, Discerning of Spirit, Tongues, and Interpretation of Tongues. 'All these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.' The gifts are permanent, for it is written (Romans 11:29), 'For the gifts and callings of God are without repentance.' They are not changed by the unbelief of men. Christ has bestowed the gifts and they are a permanent possession. The Church is His Bride, and the Bridegroom has endowed her with the gifts. He has not taken them away, and He does not mean to. Long have they lain in the Treasury of His Grace unused. May they be from henceforth fully exercised to bless humanity, and glorify God. May He grant a blessing on the word, and hasten the time when the Church will everywhere declare His 'saving Health among all nations.' Amen."

The Club cordially invited Mrs. Dowie to say a few words to them, which she did as follows:—

"My Christian friends, I can simply confirm what Mr. Dowie has already told you about his doctrinal teachings; he has gone pretty well over the ground, in as short a space as he could get it into, and he has not missed many of the points. But there is just one passage I might mention which is often brought up by Christians, and that is the much misunderstood passage,

'WHOM THE LORD LOVETH HE CHASTENETH.'

That passage is taken right out of its connection, and many people do not know anything at all about its surroundings, and take it that the chastening means sickness, and, therefore, when they are sick they say the Lord is chastening them, and they cannot pray in faith to have it taken away. Our expiation is this: In the twelfth chapter of Hebrews it says: 'Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,' and so on. There the parallel is drawn between Christ and the Christian. Now our Lord Jesus never suffered from disease. We are to have the same sufferings as He suffered; we are to suffer just as He suffered; the parallel there is complete. If Jesus Christ had suffered from disease He could not have been the Messiah, because He had to be the spotless Lamb of God. Therefore, we can clearly see that it could not have been disease with which He was chastened. But the proof that this passage does not refer to disease as God's chastening is that the section closes with the words in the twelfth and thirteenth verses: 'Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way: but let it rather be healed.' Therefore Healing is God's purpose for us in running our race, and it cannot be a chastisement of disease that we receive from the Lord.

"And, again, the parallel is also drawn between a child and his parents. When we chastise our children we would not give them disease. Our Lord asked (Luke 11:11,12), 'If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?' No father would do this, and no father would chasten his child with disease more cruel than serpents or scorpions. 'Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.' We cannot imagine a loving father chastising his children with deadly and painful disease.

"In regard to the practical working of this teaching, many Christians who come to our meetings tell us that when they receive this doctrine it brings them in touch with Jesus as if He stood before them. They now speak to Jesus as simply as a little child can speak to his earthly father; they feel Jesus is with them all the time, and they can bring all their little wants to Him and He sympathizes with them.

"We teach that

HE IS PRESENT WITH US ALWAYS,

and not an absent Lord. And so many thousands who have been suffering from every description of disease have been healed of the Lord. We have seen people come into our meetings bent with pain and scarcely able to drag themselves along; poor suffering women who sometimes tell us they have not had a day's ease from pain for twenty or even thirty years, and in a moment they have seen the teachings, they understand it is not the Lord's will that they shall suffer, and they just go to him in simple faith and ask for healing, and they have gone away healed and well.

"We have preached this now for more than six years. People have come to us afflicted with almost every description of disease that you can mention. We have had many of those who have been healed with us day after day for six years in Australia, and we and hundreds of witnesses can testify that they have been perfectly healed; and the Lord has kept them; for he is not only our Saviour, and our Healer, but our Keeper."

The Chairman announced that fifteen minutes remained for questions. The Rev. Dr. Pond inquired: "I have been greatly interested—greatly interested, and I would like to ask Brother Dowie, not in the spirit of disputation at all, but to hear what he has to say about it, in reference to certain cases of sickness met with in the New Testament, mentioned just as we should mention them, as being the visitation of God's providence; take the case of Epaphroditus and others—I presume they are all familiar to him."

Answer—"In the case of Epaphroditus, nothing is said by Paul as to his sickness being God's providence. But his healing is joyfully recorded (Phil. 2:27): 'Indeed, he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I should not have sorrow upon sorrow.' Epaphroditus seems to me a good case of Divine Healing. As to the case of Trophimus, Paul simply says, 'I left him at Miletum sick' (2 Tim. 4:19). It does not say why he was left sick. He might not have been faithful; for at this time many of Paul's companions were failing him. Indeed, he says, only five verses before this, 'At my first answer, no man stood with me; for all men forsook me.' Of course Paul had many companions who were not faithful; Phygellus, Hermogenes, Demas and others are named among those who forsook him. It does not follow that all of Paul's companions were capable of healing—just as some of you here might be incapable of receiving Divine Healing because of unbelief."

After many other questions by various ministers had been answered, the time having been extended for an additional fifteen minutes, the Club heartily gave a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Dowie for accepting their invitation to address them, and for presenting the subject of Divine Healing to them.

"CHRIST IS ALL."

O impatient ones! Did the leaves say nothing to you as they murmured, when you came hither to-day? They were not created this spring, but months ago; and the summer just begun will fashion others for another year. At the bottom of every leaf stem is a cradle, and in it is an infant germ; and the winds will rock it, and the birds will sing to it all summer long, and next season it will unfold. So God is working for you, and carrying forward to the perfect development all the processes of your lives.—BEECHER.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE EDITOR.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no man cometh unto the Father but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6).

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. "He is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." (Hebrews 13:8). He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us, (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely: that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world;" and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No, there was a still greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5 it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in Chapter 8, 17th verse, "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah, the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be, for diseases of every kind are the devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of "destroying the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8).

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if their had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, "He healed every sickness and every disease among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He (Jesus) "went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee," (Exodus 15: 26), and therefore, it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7: 18).

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the gifts of healing were removed from the church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "gifts of healings" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God: for it is written: "The gifts and calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11: 29). There are nine gifts of God to the Church, (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12: 8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: first by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8: 5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18: 19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5: 14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16: 18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. During the last eight years, I have myself laid hands upon over 13,000 persons, and I have seen the Lord's power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in this country, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith, I am at present conscious, I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10: 17). Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced on the fourth page of this tract. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes, after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing; we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes, these can be obtained at Zion Publishing House 6100 Stony Island Ave., or at Zion Tabernacle, 253 E. 62nd Street, Chicago, Ill., but the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.

"The healing of Christ's seamless dress,
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

ONE evidence we have that Christ is not now the ruling power of the world is apparent in the persecution of His most faithful followers. In the great strife between labor and capital there is brought out the awful selfishness prevailing in the hearts of men. It is utterly impossible for the one to exist without the other. If there were no laborers capital would be as useless as gold where there is no bread; and if there was no employer muscle and skill would avail in the aggregate as little as barbarism. Why then should these forces be arrayed against each other? Only when the Christian precept, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," prevails can we anticipate the highest good of men. It is vain to look to culture or education or any teaching apart from obligation to positive Divine law as a cure for the contest between labor and capital. It is too deep-seated to be reached by any other weapon than the sword of the spirit. When men will learn to work for the purpose of being loyal to God and when they will continually ask the question, "Is this the Lord's will?" they will settle the great majority of disputes that arise. It is remarkable in view of what men will do to have the praise of men, how little the same persons will do to have the approval of God. In order to hold lucrative positions with corporations of firms there are few employees who are not willing to forego the sensual pleasure derived from narcotics, but for the sake of manliness or cleanliness or purity or being clean in the sight of God, of presenting their bodies "the temple of the Holy Ghost, a living sacrifice holy and acceptable unto God," the same persons will do nothing.

PATIENCE.

"In your patience possess ye your souls."—(Luke 21: 19.)

Be patient, oh, be patient! put your ear against the earth,
And listen there how noiselessly the germ of the seed has birth;
How noiselessly and gently it upheaves its little way,
Till it parts the scarcely broken ground and the blade stands up in day.

Be patient, oh, be patient! the germs of mighty thought
Must have their silent undergrowth, must underground be wrought;
But as sure as there's a power that makes the grass appear,
Our land shall be green with freedom, the blade-time shall be here.

IMPATIENCE REBUKED.

I remember a few years ago I got discouraged and could not see much fruit of my work; and one morning, as I was in my study, cast down, one of my Sabbath-school teachers came in and wanted to know what I was discouraged about, and I told him, because I could see no result from my work; and, by and by, speaking about Noah, he said: "By the way, did you ever study up the character of Noah?" I felt that I knew all about that, and told him that I was familiar with it, and he said, "Now, if you never studied that carefully, you ought to do it, for I cannot tell you what a blessing it has been to me." When he went out I took down my bible, and began to read about Noah, and the thought came stealing over me, "Here is a man who toiled and worked a hundred years and didn't get discouraged; or if he did, the Holy Ghost didn't put it on record; and the clouds lifted, and I got up and said, "If the Lord wants me to work without any fruit, I will work on. I will do the best I can and leave the result with God. I will wait patiently upon the Lord."—MOODY.

A PATIENT GOD.

OUR God is a God of patience—patience long continued out not everlasting. Swift fly the wings of mercy, slow goes the hand of justice; like the shadow on the sun-dial, ever moving, yet creeping slowly on, with a motion all but imperceptible. Still let sinners stand in awe. The hand of justice has not stopped, although imperceptibly, it steadily advances, by and by having reached the tenth, eleventh, twelfth hour, the bell strikes. Then, unless you soon flee to Christ, the blow which was so slow to fall shall descend on the head of impenitence with accumulated force. Let it never be forgotten, that although God's patience is lasting, it is not everlasting.—GUTHRIE.

MORE PATIENCE.

WHAT we all need is patience. Before we start off for the store we ought to pray for patience. We will be harrassed and perplexed. Men will wrong us, and impose upon us, and cheat us; and before the day is passed, if you have not laid in a large supply of patience, you will half swear with your lips, and perhaps make a whole swear with your hearts.—TALMAGE.

PATIENCE IN SMALL EFFORTS.

A poor woman had a supply of coal laid at her door by a charitable neighbor. A very little girl came out with a small fire shovel, and began to take up a shovelful at a time and carry it in. I said to the child, "Do you expect to get all that coal in with that little shovel?" She was confused at my question, but her answer was striking, "Yes, sir, if I work long enough." Humble worker, make up for your want of ability by abundant continuance in well-doing, and your life work will not be trivial. Patience in small efforts will effect more than the occasional use of great talents.—SPURGEON.

PATIENCE IN RETREAT

PATIENCE is hard, sometimes. Whilst I am climbing the mountains, passing through the wilderness, daring dangers, I feel comparatively quiet, or even glad. But to sit down when the angel tells me to sit, and not to stir till he comes back again—who can do it?

There are lines of retreat in every great life, when Christ must be driven into Egypt, when the prophet must be banished into solitude, when John the Baptist must be in the desert eating locusts and wild honey, when Saul of Tarsus must be driven off into Arabia—times when "in patience we must possess our souls." But an asylum need not be a tomb, retreat need not be extinction. Make the best of your leisure. You want to be at the front, instead of that you have been banished to the rear. It is for a wise purpose. Gather strength, let the brain sleep, yield yourself to the spirit of the quietness of God, and after what appears to be wasted time or unprofitable waiting, there shall come an inspiration into thy soul that shall make thee strong and fearless, and the banished one shall become the center of nations.—PARKER.

POWER.

"Tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem until ye be endowed with power from on high."—(Luke 25: 49.)

POWERLESS AND USELESS.

OF what use would be the machinery which is to be moved, without a force adequate to move it? Without a main-spring within the clock, however complete all its wheels, pinions, pivots, and axles, these hands would stand on the face of time, nor advance one step over the numbered hours. So were it without the power of the spirit, with the renewed soul, to set its forces in action, bring them into play, and impart to them a true and heavenward character.—GUTHRIE.

POWER OF DEEP PIETY.

A man of deep religious experiences is always effective. I care not how poor his voice is, or how uncomely his countenance, or how awkward his gestures, or how shabby his clothes, or how lame his grammar. By taking care of our own vineyard, we learn how to help others in the care of their vineyard.—TALMAGE.

GETTING NEARER GOD.

IN driving piles, a machine is used by which a high weight is lifted up and then made to fall upon the head of the pile. Of course the higher the weight is lifted, the more powerful is the blow it gives when it descends. Now if we would tell upon our age, and tell upon society with ponderous blows, we must see to it that we are uplifted as near to God as possible. All our power will depend upon the elevation of our spirits. Prayer, meditation, communion, devotion, are like a windlass to wind us up aloft; it is not lost time which we spend in such sacred exercises, for we are thus accumulating force, so that when we come down to our actual religion—labor for God, we shall descend with an energy unknown to those to whom communion is unknown.—SPURGEON.

PUNISHMENT.

"These shall go away into everlasting punishment."—Matthew 25: 46.

PUNISHMENT PROPORTIONED TO SIN.

We sometimes say that punishment should be proportioned to sin. There is a sense in which that is most true and just. It is most true and just with regard to all punishment that comes from the outside. It is a law which must be obeyed by the parent, the magistrate, and every wronged or offended man. But this is by no means the limit of the question. The punishment which a man inflicts upon himself is infinitely severer than any punishment that can be inflicted upon him. "A wounded spirit who can bear." You remember how you ill-treated that poor child now dead; you saw the anguish of his soul, and he besought you and you would not hear; and now a great distress is come upon you and your bread is very bitter. Who is punishing you? Not the magistrate. Who then? You are punishing yourself. You cannot forgive yourself. The child touches you at every corner; speaks to you in every dream, moans in every cold wind, and lays its thin pale hand upon you in the hours of riot and excitement. You see that ill-used child everywhere; a shadow on the fair horizon; a back-ground to the face of every other child; a ghastly contrast to everything lovely and fair. Time cannot quench the fire. Events cannot throw into dim distance this tragic fact. It surrounds you, mocks you, defies you, and under its pressure you know the meaning of the words, which no mere grammarian can understand, "The wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment."—PARKER.

A WARNING.

Some years ago, on a grand jubilee occasion, a distinguished statesman rose up in the presence of assembled thousands, and, in reply to certain calumnious and dishonorable charges raised his hands in the vast assembly, exclaiming, "These hands are clean!" Now, if you or I, or any of our fallen race, did entertain a hope that we could act over this scene before God in judgment, I could comprehend the calm and unimpassioned indifference with which men sit in churches on successive Sabbaths, eye the Cross of Calvary, and listen to the overtures of mercy. Are these matters with which you have nothing to do? If, indeed, you have no sins to answer for; if before this world's great assize, you are prepared not only to plead, but to prove your innocence; if conscience accuses you in nothing and excuses you in everything, then sleep on in God's name, sleep on, and take your rest. But when the heavens over men are clothed in thunders and hell yawns beneath their feet, and both God's law and their own conscience condemn them, such indifference is madness! Beware! Play with no fire; least of all, with fire unquenchable. Play with no edged sword; least of all, with that which justice sheathed in a Savior's bosom. Delay by the mouth of no pit; least of all, on the brink of a bottomless one, the smoke of whose torment goeth up forever and ever.—GUTHRIE.

"SOWING THE TARES."

I was at the Paris exhibition in 1867, and I noticed there a little oil painting, only about a foot square, and the face was the most hideous I have ever seen. On the paper attached to the painting were the words, "Sowing the Tares," and the face looked more like a demon's than a man's. As he sowed these tares, up came serpents and reptiles, and they were crawling up on his body, and all around were wolves and other wild animals prowling in them. I have seen that picture many times since. Ah, the reaper is coming. If you sow to the flesh, you must reap the flesh.—MOODY.

"LIKE THE CHAFF."

The ungodly "are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Where—where—where? Where are they driven? The man is in health, the sun shines, the sky is calm, the world is still about him. Suddenly there is seen a little cloud the size of a man's hand. A little signal overtakes him. The hurricane begins to rise, but first it is only a faint breath. The wicked man feels the cold air blowing on him, but he screens it with the physician, and he thinks that surely he shall live. The storm is on. God hath decreed it and man cannot stay it. The breath becomes a wind, the wind a storm, the storm a howling hurricane. His soul is swept away. To go to Heaven on angels' wings is a glorious thing; but to be swept out of this world with the wicked is an awful thing—to be carried, not on wings of cherubs, but on the eagle wings of the wind; to be borne, not by yon songsters up to their feathered seats, but to be carried away in the midst of a howling tempest by grim fiends.—SPURGEON.

GOOD ADVICE.

In order to hold yourselves masters of your appetites, begin early. It is no use for a man forty-five years of age beginning to say he is going to turn over a new leaf, the leaves won't be turned then. I think, perhaps, I may be speaking discouragingly to some man who is making at that time of life a resolution to do better. Well, to resolution, to perseverance, to devout energy, it is possible, but it is not easy. Young man, lay down your cigar, it will do you no good. Throw away your pipe; it does not make you manly; it only makes you a nuisance to other and better people; and don't touch strong drink of any kind whatever. This is the testimony that I have to bear: that he who gives way to these things in his youth is committing suicide by inches. He is taking away his will-power, he is dulling his finest sensibilities. It does not tell upon him all at once; he may live to be an old man and say: "It is a very slow poison." What he might have been he never thinks of; he only sees what he is, a tough, much-enduring man; whereas, he might have been a very prince, and king, and guide, and friend among the highest classes of the land. Let me ask you to attend to the discipline of saying "No." I love to see the practice of manly sports of the right kind: running, leaping, swimming, and divers gymnastic exercises. I rejoice exceedingly in all these athletic pastimes, and in all these disciplinary sports and enjoyments. They have a great purpose to serve, but there is still a higher discipline—a discipline of the soul; a discipline which enables one to look at a bodily advantage and say: "I will not touch it;" the discipline which enables a man to receive an invitation, on gilt-edged paper, and scented, to spend an evening with sinners in their gluttony and their wine bibbing, and that enables him to put it into the fire.—PARKER.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

WE are still late with our LEAVES OF HEALING. There have been several hindering causes. We hope, however, within a short time to catch up and be punctual and regular in our publication. Any subscribers who have failed to receive their paper will oblige us very much if they will report the fact to the office where the difficulty can be removed. H.

WE expect Dr. Dowie home from his visit to the Atlantic Coast in time to take charge of the services next Sunday. From letters we learn that he has been at Ocean Grove where he met unexpectedly a large number who had heard of him and were glad to meet him personally. He will undoubtedly tell us all about it in an early issue of LEAVES OF HEALING. In his absence the meetings have been carried on by Mrs. Dowie. Although she has succeeded very well with them she will appreciate the return of the Doctor. H.

WE are publishing LEAVES OF HEALING for the purpose indicated by the motto of the paper, "for the extension of the kingdom of God." The extent of our ability to benefit our fellowmen in this work will be measured by the circulation of our paper. For this we must depend entirely upon the interest and effort of our friends in gathering up subscriptions. The expense of publishing such a paper as LEAVES OF HEALING is very heavy. This burden we should be relieved of at the earliest possible date in order to give our whole attention to its contents. There are many ways of bringing the paper before the public, but one of the best that has yet occurred to us would be the placing of it in all the Y. M. C. A. rooms of the world. Is there not someone in each State who will place a copy in all of the Y. M. C. A. rooms in his State? If this were done, the LEAVES OF HEALING would be brought at once before the many thousands of earnest hungering Christians who throng these rooms and who will undoubtedly hail it with sincere pleasure. Another way to help us would be for each one to order a copy sent to all the afflicted of his acquaintance. Remember that for one dollar we will send twenty-five copies to 25 addresses. Single numbers five cents each. H.

SOME people say that God has a dual government; that He forgives sin, but there is no such certainty in healing sickness. What says the word? We do not trouble about what man says. What says the word of God? "Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases." (Psalm 103:1-3). We dispute the accuracy of the theology which tells us that God forgives our sins, and adopts us into His family, but leaves us at the same time in the hands of the devil to reap the consequences of it. It is not true. The God that forgives our sins will, if we go on to know Him, if we "follow on" to know Him, will deliver us from all the consequences of sin; for the redemption of our Lord is not a redemption for our spirit only, else it would be incomplete. What, do you tell us that redemption is for the spirit and not for the body? Beloved, the word of God teaches the opposite, the word of God teaches that redemption is co-extensive with sin and its ravages; it is redemption for the spirit, and it is a redemption for the soul. "The redemption of the soul is precious," says the word. (Ps. 49:8). What does it say in regard to the redemption of the body? "The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain until now, waiting for the adoption, to wit, THE REDEMPTION OF OUR BODY." (Rom. 8:22, 23). What says the Word? It says, "I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." (Rom. 12:1). What says the Word? The Word says, "What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify GOD IN YOUR BODY, and IN YOUR SPIRIT, which are God's." (1 Cor. 6:19, 20). What says the Word? "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly and I pray God YOUR WHOLE SPIRIT AND SOUL AND BODY BE PRESERVED BLAMELESS unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also WILL DO IT," (1 Thess. 5:23, 24.) God says HE WILL DO IT, and how dare any man say that HE WILL NOT? "If any man thirst," said Jesus, "let him come unto Me and drink. As the Scripture has said, He that believeth on Me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe on Him should receive." (John 7: 37-39). When they received the Holy Ghost, these men and women, on the day of Pentecost, had clear eyes and strong lungs; they were powerful physically as well as spiritually; the Holy Ghost flowed through their veins, and by the laying on of hands multitudes were healed and blessed. "Your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost." Do not be content to let them be temples of disease. We say the Word is clear that He that forgives our sins, heals all our sickness, restores us to power to work out the purpose for which He sent me here. We are glad that God has given us a strong body, growing ever stronger for His service, since we gave it into His keeping more than twenty-five years ago. We are glad that we can put our right hand, to-day, upon His Word which enables us to pray, "that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh." (2 Corinthians 4: 11).

VERY shortly the editor will make arrangements for his fall and early winter's work. We do not wish to anticipate his plans but we are sure a surprise in results for God awaits all our readers. H.

HOW I CAME TO SPEAK IN PUBLIC AND ASSIST MY HUSBAND IN HIS DIVINE HEALING MISSION.

BY MRS. DOWIE.

I HAVE been engaged in this work for twelve years, and today when asked to write this account for the LEAVES OF HEALING, I have the same feeling of backwardness that I had before I began to speak, a shrinking from seeing what I write printed. Yet I feel that God wants me to do it, and that He will use the simple written story, as He has my spoken words, for it is a record of what He has done and of His wonderful works. If I could not tell of them after all I have seen and heard, the very stones ought to cry out against me.

I shall begin by saying that I had no early training as a speaker. I never spoke above a conversational tone and did not suppose that I could be heard by any one who was not close to me. The few women that I had heard speak were unwomanly women, who tried to talk like men, and I did not like to hear them.

We belonged to the Congregational church and there the minister and deacons did all the talking. The members walked into church on Sunday and filed solemnly out to beautiful music, and we walked to our carriage and drove home. A minister of one of the churches in Sidney once announced that the following Sunday he would preach a sermon on "Recognition of Friends in Heaven." A solitary man who occupied a seat in a pew of the church, and had done so for many years, wrote to ask if he would not preach a sermon on "Recognition of Friends on Earth," as he had been a member and regular attendant of that church for twelve years and had never been spoken to by any one in it.

"Let your women keep silent in the churches," was kept to the letter by us. I lived in my father's home until I was married in 1876, and became a minister's wife. My husband told me that my duties would be home duties, as the church had not married me. So I strictly attended to my home, giving such time as I could to the church, always going to listen to my husband when he preached or lectured, for we have always been companions. Being young and not very strong, although healthy, I had all I could do as a wife and mother for the first six years of my married life. But when twelve years ago my husband began to be widely used in the gifts of healing through the laying on of hands and the people came in throngs to our private house in Melbourne to beg him to pray with them, I would talk with them and tell them what I knew about the healings, and encourage them to come again and trust the Lord for healing. Many of those who received healing, afterwards would say they were first impressed of the truth of the work by my simple testimony.

As time went on my husband built a large Tabernacle in Fitzroy, Melbourne, for evangelistic work and this was being in course of construction at the time of which I am writing and though we had the town hall hired for Sunday services the people thronged us in our home through the week. We had just to leave the doors open and let the people jam in until it was full. They sat on the stairs, crowded the halls, passages, etc., men, women and children, cancerous, consumptives, people with ulcerated sores, people in wheel chairs and on crutches, carried in on beds, deaf and blind, and people with sicknesses of every kind, and yet our little family never suffered, and we ourselves grew stronger all the time, because the Lord strengthened us. I was naturally of a very sensitive nature and shrank from the sight of anything unpleasant. I could not look at a sore place without fainting, but when I saw God healing these sick ones, I could look at the most dreadful things without a shudder and during that time we would often have several open cancers to pray for in one day; yet we ate our food heartily and had the joy of the Lord for our strength. I had no idea until then that there was so much suffering in the world. The people that came were those that had exhausted every human means, and were like the women who "had suffered many things of many physicians and was nothing better but rather grew worse." So in that way we saw the worst of everything. God cured the Doctor's incurables by the prayer of faith and laying on of hands. Among the miracles of healing about this time was the case of Mrs. Parker who was healed instantaneously of cancers and blindness, and whose little son was born in due time the doctors all saying that it would not be possible for her to live till then. Her photograph with the little boy appeared on the first page of last week's issue of this paper and also particulars of her case.

The church which my husband formed there was one after his own pattern. He had in it the fire of the Methodists, the water of the Baptists, the stability of the Presbyterians, and the ablest of the church governments of Congregationalists, taking that which he counted good from them all. He had quite a lively, active church, the members all talked to each other as well as to strangers and we were all expected to work for the Lord, no drones were wanted there. He often called upon one and another to speak or pray and they all did what he told them. I used to shiver sometimes and feel a cold tremor go down my back for fear he would ask me to speak or pray. The very thought of it was enough to take everything out of me, and I felt if he did I would set a bad example to others and disgrace my Lord as well as my husband. I never told him this but I think he must have known how I felt, yet at the time I was leading a large Bible class of women, and could pray at the bedsides of the sick and talk to people in the home, but it was in the church that my mouth was shut.

Just at this time then the Tabernacle was built and was to be dedicated. We had an all-night of prayer, which was held in the healing-room at the rear of the Tabernacle, and there at about one o'clock in the morning we were told to ask God for any special thing that we felt we most needed, and not to ask for anything unless we believed we would receive it. As we knelt in prayer we each one asked the Lord for what we needed. I asked that He would take from me a fearful heart and give me power to speak for Him when He wanted me to without fear. Immediately I felt the strengthening power of the Holy Spirit go through me, the chair against which I knelt shook, my backbone was strengthened, and through and through me I felt thrills of Divine power. I do not know how else to describe it, but that it was a physical manifestation of spiritual power. After prayer was over we each had a few minutes to tell what we had received. I told that I believed God had given me a gracious answer, and explained how I knew it.

The following Sunday I was put to the test, and after the services an after-meeting was called, and about seven hundred persons remained. My husband called me to come upon the platform. I went without fear and pleaded with sinners to come to the Saviour, explaining the way by a simple illustration. The result of that first talk was two souls decided for Christ; one a young girl who had been trained in a Christian home but never professed to be a Christian. She came up weeping and openly gave herself to the Lord. The other was that of a man about thirty years of age who came up weeping also, and knelt down saying he had never bowed his knee to God before and had vowed he never would. He abandoned his infidelity and wicked life and gave himself to God.

A little time after this we visited a place called Geelong, where we went for a vacation. While there we visited a lady who had lain in bed for seven years. She had severe internal troubles and tumors. She had never been able to be out of bed since the birth of her little boy, who was at that time seven years of age.

As she lay on her bed of pain, she studied her Bible and found there the passage, "Is any among you sick, let him call for the elders of the church, and let them anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up, and if he hath committed sins they shall be forgiven him."

The elders of the church of which she was a member used to bring to her bedside bread and wine from the communion table, so she thought she would ask them to pray and anoint her, calling their attention to this passage in James 5. They had not the faith to do it and told her they could not. Her son came to us and begged my husband to visit her. He did so, and after teaching her and her husband God's way, he laid hands on her in the presence of her husband and myself.

she sat up in her bed and then stepped over the side of the bed to the floor and walked up and down the room freely. The tumorous mass passed from her, and when we came again to see her, three days afterwards, she was sitting in her chair sewing, and came to the door to meet us, a very happy woman. She told us to tell everyone what the Lord had done for her. She was visited by hundreds of people who heard her testimony and the next Sunday her husband had the joy of going to church with his wife walking at his side.

Shortly after this my husband made arrangements to hold a mission at Ballarat, and I was to accompany him. I am always with him when he sees ladies, and so I supposed he did not have any other purpose in taking me with him. When we were in the train on the way to the meeting we stopped at a station where the newsboys were selling Ballarat papers. He took the paper and we started off again, having a compartment of the train to ourselves, the trains in Australia for the most part being fashioned after the English pattern. Presently unfolding the paper he handed to me the advertisement of the meetings, and I was announced to give an address on some of the miracles I had seen. It nearly took my breath away, and I said, "Oh, John, how could you?" He said, "I thought you asked God to give you the power to speak for Him; do you not believe that you were answered?" I said, "Yes, I did, but before all those strangers?" He then said, "There is a little time yet and you can do it all right I know. Just think over the rest of the way what you will tell them about; and put down on a piece of paper a few facts; speak up and talk as if you were telling it to a few people and FORGET ALL ABOUT YOURSELF."

I felt I had to do it and did as he said.

As we neared the hall where the meeting was to be held, our friend who had invited us to Ballarat, and had made the arrangements for us said, "I do not know how many people there will be. There may be fifty, and there may be five hundred." My husband said, "There will be as many as the Lord sends. That's all right, brother." As we neared the door we found the people standing out upon the pavement and on inquiring what was the matter, why was the door not opened, we found that the hall was so full that these were unable to get in. We had to go around by another way and could scarcely find room to stand upon the platform, every inch of standing room being occupied. The room seated eight hundred people, and as we came in they looked so kindly at us.

After my husband gave his lecture

IT CAME MY TURN TO SPEAK.

I had already prayed and read the Scripture, which gave me courage. And as I looked around the room I saw this one who had been to Melbourne and received healing, another who had been deaf and could hear, another and another whom I recognized, and as their happy faces beamed back upon me, it was an inspiration. It is said that eagles build their nests in high places and when the time comes for the young ones to fly, the old one goes in and stirs up the nest and throws them out. When they get out they flap around at first and then when they find they can fly they are delighted to do it. I was thrown out of my nest by the old bird and I enjoyed the experience. God was good to me and I saw that the people heard me easily without my making the slightest effort. My voice was clear and distinct. I told first about the healing of the lady in Geelong, who was healed of tumors and other troubles, and who told us that she had relatives in Ballarat. And when I told them how the little yellow haired curly headed boy came in and saw his mother up and he asked her if her pain was all gone, and then when she said, "I have no pain now;" getting close up to her he said, "Might I sit on your lap, mamma?" She said, "Yes, I think you can." The little fellow, seven years old, sat for the first time on his mother's knee and kept looking into her eyes as said, "And it doesn't hurt you, mamma?"

The little cord of sympathy touched many, and their eyes filled with tears of joy and sympathy. Then when I had finished my narrative a woman who was standing in one of the aisles called out in a shrill, clear voice, "That's all true and I am her mother." "And I'm her sister," called another. Thereupon my husband, in his quick, hearty way, jumped up and said, "You know all this to be true, don't you, mother? Come up here and let the people see you." The mother and sister came up and confirmed what I had said before all the people.

The next day the hall could not contain the people, so we had to open the large Alfred Hall, an exhibition building which held about four thousand. This was filled day after day and we had one of the most blessed missions that we ever held. We stayed there with the sick ones who thronged us. Some received healing as my husband passed by them; mothers stood with children, holding them by the hands, crushing in to get near him; others as they touched him; others in the meeting, by the power of the word preached. The sick ones would stay there until one or two o'clock in the morning, waiting for prayer.

Among the scenes that dwell in my memory of this wonderful time is that of an old man brought in a bed in a cart from one of the country farms in the neighborhood of Ballarat.

HE HAD NOT WALKED FOR OVER TWENTY-THREE YEARS, and when his turn came to see my husband it was after one o'clock, and he had waited all day. He received an instantaneous healing and walked upon his feet back across the large hall to a small room where his wife was sitting by a fire to keep warm, and when the two old people met there was a scene; the old lady rushed toward him crying, "Father!" and he opened his arms and embraced her, saying, "Mother! bless the Lord, I am healed!"

God gave me power to do my part and He made my voice so that it could be heard distinctly all over that great hall. Since then I have been with my husband throughout all his travels and missions and have been his helper, doing what he has asked me to do, and what God has wanted me to do, without any fear of man.

We have together carried the gospel to the principal cities of Australia. We spent some months at one time in New Zealand visiting, with this gospel of salvation and healing, all the large cities in those beautiful islands, which are indeed the wonderland of the Pacific. Six years ago we left home and country and came to America, passed in at the Golden Gate, and landed at San Francisco. We spent several years on the Pacific slope, carrying the gospel of salvation and healing to all the large cities there from Victoria, British Columbia, on the north, to San Diego, California, on the south. Then we crossed the Rocky Mountains and have visited many of the large cities on this side. We have for a time made Chicago our home and center of this work. We have found what the Word promised to be true, fathers and mothers, brothers and sisters, everywhere with persecutions. God took out of me the fearful heart and said, "Be strong, fear not. He will come and save you. Then shall the lame leap as an hart and the tongue of the dumb sing, and a highway shall be there, and a way and it shall be called the way of Holiness." I have consecrated myself to God, and I am endeavoring by the grace of God to walk in that way.

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

ALBION WYMAN.

OF all the Legion of Diseases which curse humanity there is none more horrible than that which men call by the suggestive name CONSUMPTION. When the dreaded word is once spoken all real hope of healing is practically abandoned, especially if the disease is inherited. But the long weary hopeless fight begins, and all kinds of so-called "remedies" are tried, and every device that change of climate and rest, can give are resorted to by the so-called "specialists" to whom the case may be entrusted. With many the final triumph of the disease is conceded, and all that is expected is simply a hope of living a little longer. Meanwhile, the disease proves its cruel title to be true—consumption—for everything dear to human hearts is being steadily, if slowly, consumed. It creeps onward like the deadly creeping plant which the Mexicans call the matador, that is, the murderer. That creeper rises up at the base of a beautiful tree, flings its lovely twining arms around the trunk, climbs higher and still higher, draws itself serpent-like tighter and tighter in closer and closer embrace, until it reaches the top-most bough where it flings out its bright red flower, and crowns its victory by death. Soon the tree sickens, withers, dies, and falls. But the matador lives on, creeps from tree to tree destroying the fairest, and making the forest a garden of death. Oh, hateful matador, Consumption—thou who dost so fully prove thy diabolical parentage, child of mother Sin and father Satan, how I hate thee! God hates thee thou corrupter and destroyer of His creatures. Thou comest as a thief, like all thy kindred, "to steal, and to kill, and to destroy," and well dost thou prove thy hellish parentage. Thou hast entered the happy home and twined thyself with the orange blossoms, and painted with beauty the pale cheeks of the bride-wife, but thou hast frosted with thy kiss the fair young life, and tens of thousands of times thou hast broken two hearts which beat as one, and filled the graveyard with their wasted bodies. Oh, matador, I hate thee, enemy of God and destroyer of His creation, as thou art! Or, if thou dost spare the bride to motherhood, until the home begins to fill with lovely lives, it is only for a time, and the long murderous embrace at last tells, until one by one they wither and die, leaving broken hearts and wounds and sorrows which nothing earthly can heal. Oh, matador, I hate thee: for God hates thee, and Christ has come to destroy thee. The axe of the Healer has cut again and again into thy roots, and thou hast perished, and the trees, young and old, remain in ever growing strength to fill out all the measure of their days.

Our third witness to Divine Healing in this new series of LEAVES OF HEALING was Mrs. S. A. Kelley, of San Francisco, Cal. (see No. 2, p. 19). In that case a useful Christian mother, and enthusiastic Christian worker, was spared after twenty-five years of suffering from inherited consumption. Her own story is told in choice and earnest words which God the Holy Spirit is blessing, and she lives on to tell it in her daily life.

To-day we present Albion Wyman, a dear bright boy of twelve years of age whose mother died of consumption, and who was manifestly in the grip of the disease from his sixth year. Able physicians of this city had left him to die, when I was asked by his broken-hearted father almost in the language of one of old, "Sir, come down ere my child die." I went, and found the lad just living, and no more. He was in the very last stages of the disease, suffering from extreme exhaustion, emaciated to a painful degree, burning with fever, expectorating his remaining lung, and bleeding from the kidneys. No worse conditions can be imagined, as an eminent doctor, whose letter is appended, has said. We sat beside his bed, and showed God's beautiful Way of Salvation and Healing, through faith in Jesus' Christ our Lord. He listened, believed, and received. We prayed with and laid hands upon him in Jesus' Name, and he was immediately healed. The following morning he ate and relished food, and the internal hemorrhage entirely ceased. The next day he rose, dressed, and walked about the house. The following day his father drove him around one of the public parks of the city. On the tenth day after his healing he went with his brother to Lincoln Park on a fishing excursion, and a few days ago, more than fifteen months after his healing, the picture of him which is here presented was taken at Gibson's on Wabash Avenue in this city. He is as healthy and bright and strong and active as any average healthy boy of his age.

He has stood upon our platform in the Central Music Hall, Chicago, and his father has told his story with the lad at his side, and he has done so frequently in Zion Tabernacle also.

We present the following letter from his father, which was published in the Virginia Enquirer, Cass Co., Ill., in its issue of June 2nd, of this year, with the introductory note by the editor of that paper, and then we add, further, the very able letter of Dr. W. M. W. Davison, Professor of Physiology, in the National Homeopathic College, who testifies clearly to three facts—first, that Albion Wyman had consumption; second, that he was abandoned by the physicians to die; and, third, that he was perfectly and miraculously healed.

Such evidence is overwhelming proof of Divine Healing through faith in Jesus Christ and to God alone we desire all the glory to be given, whilst we are grateful beyond measure that He used our hands to slay the matador—Consumption.

A WONDERFUL CURE.

From Virginia Enquirer, Cass Co., Ill., June 2nd., 1894.

Several months since, the Chicago Inter Ocean published an account of the cure of a boy thirteen years of age, son of Charles E. Wyman, at one time an attorney of Beardstown, this county, and now a prominent and successful practitioner of the Chicago bar. Mr. J. N. Gridley, of this city, who is a personal friend of Mr. Wyman, wrote him for the facts in the case, and in reply Mr. Wyman made a detailed statement of them, and thinking the many old friends of Mr. Wyman would be interested in the matter, we have obtained permission to publish it, omitting only some personal matters not connected with the case.

"CHICAGO, May 23.—FRIEND GRIDLEY: The newspaper account referred to is substantially correct. As you are aware my wife died of consumption seven years ago, and her mother died of the same, and my boy, at the time of his cure was in the last stages of this dread malady. His left lung was entirely gone; large cavities existed in the right lung; he had lost all his flesh; he could no longer retain food of any kind in his stomach; blood freely passed from his kidneys; for weeks his pulse had been running from 110 to 120 and his temperature from 100 to 103; large sores had formed upon his body, he having for so long a time been confined to his bed, and he was too weak to speak audibly; could not raise his head from his pillow, and lay for the most of the time in a stupor. We had no hope of his recovery, and his physician could give us no encouragement; in short, he was at the very door of death.

"Having heard of the marvelous cures effected by Rev. J. A. Dowie, and finding they were well attested, I called him to the bedside of my dying son; he knelt by his bedside, and laying his hand on his breast, asked God to heal him, and restore him to health; immediately the pulse and temperature became normal, and he rested quietly through the night, his pains having left him. In the morning he said he felt well, only he was very weak. This occurred a year ago last spring; he slowly regained his strength, according to the usual course of nature. The morning after he was healed, he ate food and retained it, the first for many weeks; the second day when I returned home, I found him dressed and walking about the room; the third morning, he went with me for an hour's drive, in one of the parks near my residence, and the tenth day, he and his brother spent in Lincoln park. He was for several weeks in the country last fall, and became strong enough to take his place in school, and attended all last winter. Some skeptical friends, having expressed a doubt as to his restored condition, about two months since, I took him to our physician, who made an examination, and pronounced his lungs sound, and fully restored; the doctor says he can in no way account for this restoration, as no medicine of any kind has been administered, since Rev. Dowie prayed at his bedside.

"These are the facts in the case, and I leave you to draw your own conclusions; I know of many other cures having been effected, through the ministrations of this man, quite as wonderful as that of my own son, and if you care to investigate this matter further, will send you names and addresses of the persons healed.

Respectfully, etc.,

CHAS. E. WYMAN."

COLLEGE OF CHICAGO.

OFFICE: 1333 W. LAKE ST.

Examining Surgeon Fidelity and Casualty Co. New York.

Examining Surgeon Union Casualty Co, St. Louis.

ON Oct. 23rd, 1892, I examined Albion Wyman and found him suffering from chronic œdema of the left lung. The history of the case, as related by his father, showed that he had unquestionably been afflicted with this malady for nearly six years. On Nov. 27th, 1892, I examined the boy and found no improvement, and following this he was examined by a specialist who asserted that in addition to the œdematous condition of the left lung, that there was enlargement of the adenoid glands, that the case was a tuberculous one and should anything transpire to cause ulceration of the adenoid glands, the boy would be poisoned from head to foot with tubercle bacilli.

Following this last examination the boy was sent to Colorado with the hope that the atmospheric change might be of benefit. During the time he was in Colorado I received a weekly report concerning his condition from day to day, and, during this time he was under medical treatment as well as climatic influence. The report showed no improvement but merely the same fluctuating temperature from day to day, the same increase and decrease of the heart's action and the same ratio of increase and decrease in the number of respirations per minute. There was always present a certain degree of fever which, take the weekly reports altogether, showed slight average elevation.

I cannot recall the exact date on which he returned from Colorado, but I found upon examination, shortly after his return, that there was no improvement, in fact, he was worse. And subsequent visits and examinations revealed the fact that the other lung was becoming rapidly involved in the destructive change. There were chills followed by fever, which showed the rapid invasion of the entire lung tissue by the inflammatory process going on. The skin had all the characteristic feeling and burning sensation of one sinking under tubercular consumption. The eminent pathologist's prediction had come true. The adenoid glands had softened, the bacilli were liberated thereby, and the boy was rapidly sinking under their malign influence. The muco purulent sputa, under the microscope, showed all the characteristics of consumption. He had consumption, "that was all there was about it," and I gave no hope to friends or relatives. The records of the medical profession go to show that all such cases die.

On April 2nd, 1893, I saw him as I then believed on his death bed, and did not again see him until Nov. 12th, nearly seven and one-half months later.

Following my call on April 2nd, I expected to hear, within a month, of his demise, but when I called over seven months afterward to relieve him of a temporary ailment, at his father's suggestion, I again examined his lungs and found the right one active naturally as far as expansion and contraction were involved. There were moist and sub-crepitant rales through the upper two-thirds of the organ and the same was noticeable, through the left lung entire, though much less in the lower third than in the upper two-thirds. What was most noticeable however, in the left lung was its expansion, it was almost natural.

When it was remembered that this left lung did not and had not expanded to my certain knowledge from Oct. 2nd, 1892, to April 2nd, 1893, and that the medical records give no information as to whether an œdematous lung ever expanded or not, and, furthermore, when it is remembered that the opinion of two eminent medical gentlemen, aside from myself, had concurred in my opinion as to the prognosis, the question would naturally arise as to how and by what means this marvelous change was obtained. I can simply and honestly say I do not know.

To-day I examined him again and found both lungs expanding fully and the moist and sub-crepitant rales absent. The patient is recovering how, under and by what power or influence, I cannot say that I know.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. W. DAVISON, M. D.

And now his case, after time has fully tested it, is placed on record for the glory of God. May God bless it and make it an Evangel of mercy to countless thousands. Amen and Amen.

HEALING OF RHEUMATISM WITHOUT HUMAN TOUCH.

MR. TERRY, of Messrs. Hampson & Terry, Yates street, Victoria, British Columbia, rose and said: "Dear friends, I take pleasure in standing up here to-night. I cannot testify to any healing during Mr. Dowie's mission, but I received a great spiritual blessing. The healing I had was some time before Mr. Dowie came. And it was a while after I was converted. I went to work at the Albion Iron Works; it was rather hard work, and I had to work out in the weather, and I got rheumatics in my left shoulder so bad I could not raise my arm at all and had to leave my work. While at home I read the last chapter of Mark, and I think that all you professing Christians ought to read that often. 'These signs shall follow them that believe.' The question came to me, Do you believe? and I said to my wife, I am going to take that to the Lord. I said, 'I believe the gift of healing is in the church of God,' but she didn't believe with me, and thought I was perhaps a little foolish; at any rate, I went with my bible to the Lord and prayed, and instantly that rheumatics left my left shoulder, and I could raise my arm. My wife thought I just grinned and bore it, but I knew I was relieved of it. I am very thankful for the teaching I got during Mr. Moody's mission in that line, that Christ is the same yesterday, to-day and forever. I believe every Christian here knows that the chastening of the Lord is a spiritual chastening. I grieved the Lord a little I know when I did not testify to my healing, but I thought the people did not believe in Divine healing at that time and would not believe it. I didn't expect to find so many believing it as I now see before me. At any rate, I didn't give my testimony, and I suffered a little spiritually, but I praise the Lord that I can trust Him as the Healer of my body as well as the Saviour of my spirit."—Second Year's Harvest.

HEALED OF EIGHTEEN YEARS OF EPILEPSY.

Mrs. Peterson said: "I suffered for eighteen years. I had several doctors. Doctor Anthony, on the corner of Third and Folsom Streets, City, said I was not curable. Dr. Miller, of Oakland, said the same, and more than seven doctors said the same. I suffered from fits every month. Even had as many as six fits in one night. I expected the Lord to heal me when I came to you. I did not expect you to heal me. You laid hands upon me and prayed and I was healed, on Feb. 18th, 1889, and have been kept ever since. I thank you, and I thank God, and give Him all the glory."

Mr. Dowie: "That is a very short statement but there is a great deal inside of it. She suffered for eighteen years from Epilepsy, which is simply a form of demoniacal possession.

Few indeed of Satan's epileptic victims are ever delivered from that dreadful affliction."—Second Year's Harvest.

FOR THE HOME CIRCLE.--MIND WHOM YOU MARRY.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

"Mind whom you marry," is a very general piece of advice. The words are often lightly spoken, and little heeded. But they are of the utmost importance. The future of Australia and of the world, depends upon right marriages.

Marriage is a Divine institution. When man was yet an unfallen being in Paradise, God married Adam to Eve, "the helpmeet for him," whom he created, seeing that "it was not good that man should be alone." Blessed, therefore, was that pure and sinless home in Eden, in the morning of the world's history, when the beautiful "mother of all living" was, by God's own hand, "brought unto the man," and united to him in holiest marriage, amidst the joyous chorus of heavenly hosts.

It is with that sweet story that the Bible opens the record of the life of man, and through every page there are constant evidences that true marriage ever enshrined in it somewhat of the innocence and bliss of Paradise. And, when the book Divine closes its prophetic teaching in the Revelation, it is under the beautiful symbol of "the Bride, the Lamb's wife," that God presents, as it were, in marriage to Christ, who is the second Adam, a spotless Church. Thus we see that upon Marriage God has showered highest tokens of approval, from His institution of it in Eden ere man fell, to the blessed day yet to come, when, in "a new heaven and a new earth," He shall bless shall bless the eternal union of His Son with that Church, which is even now the object of His tenderest love.

But, wherefore it is that marriage is now, alas, all too often the path which leads to direct woe, to broken hearts and sullen despair, to disappointments which embitter, and to sins which poison, the springs of all earthly happiness? Simply because men and women act not as did our first parents in their days of innocence. They should be led by God's loving hand alone to each other, as were Adam and Eve. But, alas, sensual passion, and not divinely given love, impels too many to enter upon unions which are never divinely registered as marriages at all in heaven, and for the miseries of which there is no human cure on earth.

How instances of the truth of these words crowd upon my memory, even whilst I write. Accompany me, kind reader, in thought to some scenes which are engraven upon my memory. Every picture you shall look upon is one for the truth of which I can confidently speak.

I see her now as she sat under my ministry some years ago. Graceful, thoughtful, earnest, from Sabbath to Sabbath, she strove to live the Gospel she had learned to love, and to follow the Lord, who in His love and pity had redeemed her. The light of her home, the joy of her parents, the trusted friend of her companions, she was cultured and refined by education and Divine grace in no ordinary degree. This was A——, the Christian maiden. She married. Her beloved was not a Christian. Gay, careless, but fascinating, like the serpent in Eden long ago, he deceived her with false words. She was warned, and knew her danger. She wept, but yet was beguiled by her tempter, whose cruel heart had no pity, filled as it was with lust and deceit. They were married. Ere a year had passed away, a broken-hearted woman, with bruises upon her body, inflicted by the ruffian's hand who had vowed to cherish her, and with a feeble crying babe upon her breast, she fled in the dark night to her father's home. Today she sits and often weeps. Her babe has gone where he shall weep no more. Soon she will follow; for she is dying—yes, dying of a broken heart. That is A——, the injured wife. The wretched man who destroyed her may be seen, with many such as himself, laughing in the streets, and cafes, and theatres, and haunts of gilded vice—a blight and disgrace, for all his smiles, to the earth on which his vile body lives.

Maidens, beware! "Mind whom you marry!"

But come with me to that beautiful city of the dead, Rock-wood Cemetery, near Sydney.

Stand with me now beside this grave. Mark the inscription. It tells you of a mother who "died in the Lord." That inscription is a lie. She died in a state of drunkenness. She was once a pure, noble, abstaining woman. She married a husband who drank "a little," so he said. After years of persuasion, he got her to drink "a little" too. Then more, and more, and more, until everything was cast aside for strong drink. She came home one day drunk, threw a full bottle of brandy at her affrighted children, drank from another she held in her hand, fell down as she entered her bed-room door, never rose again, and was shortly after found to be dead. Who killed her? I reply, the hand that first made her drink the mocking spirit, from which she had ever abstained.

"Mind whom you marry." If you value your soul, never marry the man who drinks "a little." Heed not his words. Let him be an abstainer first, and see that he gives you time to prove him true to his pledge, or, "at the last," wine may destroy you both.

Young man, let me entreat you, "mind whom you marry." Some time ago, a gentleman of good position in Sydney, comparatively young, sat in my study, with his face buried in his hands, sobbing as though his heart would burst with grief. A Christian man, he had been deceived by a fascinating Delilah, who, false as her of old, had disgraced and outraged him by her shameless vices. But he had been warned. Yet he would not heed. He thought his love and care would win her to be a Christian too. But she fell deeper, until she could fall no lower.

Oh young man, "mind whom you marry," else, it may be thou shalt, like Samson; fall into the hands of a Delilah, who shall betray thy love, destroy thy strength, deliver thee over to Satan, and set thee "grinding" in the "prison-house."

"Mind whom you marry," I say to all who are not yet married. "A prudent wife is from the Lord." Seek her at His hand. Then when thou hast found her, thou hast in her one whose "price is far above rubies." "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her." "Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

PLAIN LIVING AND HIGH THINKING.

John came with the highest, richest thought that ever found expression from human lips. He is described by Jesus himself as "more than a prophet." This John was conspicuous both for his noble thought and his plain living. He "was clothed with camel's hair and with a girdle of a skin about his loins, and he did eat locusts and wild honey, and preached"—the most marvelous truth that ever smote the ears of man. There was an intimate relationship between his manner of living and his wonderful preaching.

It is always so. Brain and stomach are closely related. A pampered body and an active brain are never found together. Life is made up of alternatives. One may choose one of two courses, not both. Jesus Christ, in the lesson, is simply calling attention to this truth and urging his disciples to choose the better part, which shall not be taken away. These two alternatives present themselves to individuals, churches, nations.

First, then, as individuals, we may have our choice between luxury, plenty for self, and self-denial, plain living, in order to high thinking. How easy it is to choose the former, to compromise, and gradually to glide into the habit of self-indulgence. Paul, buffeting his body and keeping it in subjection; John, living the life of a recluse, away from the allurements of corrupt life, are inspiring examples of achievement along this line.

The perpetuity of civilization, as well as its advancement, depends largely upon our willingness to adopt the rule of plain living in order to high thinking. High living, luxurious self-indulgence, has undermined nations in the past as powerful as our own. A like fate awaits us unless we pursue a different course.—Herald of Gospel Liberty.

OUR TEMPERANCE MESSAGE.—THE STORY OF TEN THOUSAND HOMES.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Several years ago, I was startled one evening, when about to enter an omnibus, by the sudden appeal of a little boy, who sobbed out the words—"Oh, sir, do come and see my mother. She's dead! She's dead!"

"Your mother dead," I said, "surely it can not be," as I accompanied the weeping lad to his home.

But it was too true. When I entered the silent house, where many persons were gathered together, I saw by their awe-stricken countenances and noiseless movements, that the shadow of death was indeed resting over a once happy home. And, when I passed into the dimly lit room, and was held by my hand in the convulsive grasp of the heart-broken husband, I beheld the cold white face of one who but the previous day had spoken with me in my own home, and had afterwards written me a kind letter which I now possess. A flood of memories passed through my mind, and, scarcely daring to speak, I asked in a whisper, a dear friend who stood by, "Did she die—?" I never completed the question. I saw the answer in every horror-stricken face around me; I heard it in the now uncontrolled grief of the motherless children and agonized husband; I smelt it in the odor of alcohol which still polluted the atmosphere of the chamber of death, and it seemed to come from the yet open lips of the pained face of the dead woman—"She died drunk!"

Can a shepherd stand beside the mangled body of a sheep torn by the wolf from his fold, and not wish the wolf lay there instead? And can you wonder, if I, a shepherd of Christ's flock, raised my voice in that silent room, and cried to the Great Shepherd above, that He would give His people strength to slay the awful monster, who had destroyed, body and soul, a once gentle, loving, pure-hearted Christian lady, an earnest, self-denying worker for the poor and the fallen, and a wife and mother whose love and tenderness were seldom equalled, when as yet the destroying spirit of the intoxicating cup had no power over her delicately moulded nature? There I vowed again before God that, until I died, I would fight against this awful drink destroyer of that, and of tens of thousands of homes throughout this land, ay, and in every land on earth, beneath the sun.

Yes, this is "the story of ten thousand homes" to-day, which the Drink Fiend has entered and laid desolate, with a desolation more awful than War or Famine ever wrought.

"'Tis a year ago on Monday," said a widow to me one day, "since my husband came home to die; and you will remember, sir, 'twas a fortnight later that you buried him."

Oh yes, I remembered it all. His was a wasted life, and Drink was the waster which wore out the once healthy frame, which palsied the hand of the once first-class workman, which brought him to the insolvent court, which swept away his hard-won freehold and houses, which nearly broke the faithful heart of a noble Christian wife, when he struck her, whose love and toil alone had preserved the last remnants of a home, and which had left its marks upon his children in body and mind. And yet, how this widow loved him, I saw once more as the tears flowed down her wasted face, and she slowly turned away from me, back to a home where there is for ever a shadow of sorrow and care.

"Do you know your father is dead?" I said to a poor wretched outcast whom I had met some years ago in want and misery, bearing an assumed name, in the streets of Sydney; and that father, let me add, was one of the greatest men whom Scotland ever knew, whose death had been recently published there by a press cablegram in the Herald. The miserable young man wept as he cried, "Yes, I know; and I killed him! I killed him, sir!" Who shall say it was not true? for this young man had long been a drunkard, and had repeatedly disgraced his father's honored name, and as the good man died he prayed with his last breath, "O God, save my poor wandering boy! Save him, save him, oh my God." Blessed be the Lord that prayer was heard and answered. But that heart-breaking story goes on in, alas, ten thousand homes to-day.

"Mother, mother, if you only knew!" a dying girl moans, as she turns upon her hard bed in a Magdalen Asylum. Young and giddy, the wine cup of a fatal dancing party enabled a villain to undermine her virtue, and at last cast her out upon the cold streets of the pitiless city, where a few short months of dissipation were sufficient to complete her ruin, and end in her death. But away in her distant home, all unconscious of her daughter's dying words, that mother is praying for the child who will return no more to the quiet meadows and flower-embowered farm house, where she once played, a happy innocent child. And at last, the day will come, when the hope so long deferred will make that faithful heart sick unto death; and she shall find rest from her life sorrow, in that land where the serpent which lurks in the wine cup can not enter.

Enter this home, and look upon the scene. 'Tis winter and cold, but here there is no fire. The walls are bare, as the empty cupboard, which would not be there were it not a fixture. Table and chairs there are none—an old box and some empty kerosene tins must do for these in this drunkard's home. Yonder, upon two heaps of straw, there lie several starving children, covered by what looks like bundles of rags. A drunken father staggers in, followed by a loud-voiced half-intoxicated mother with a moaning infant in her arms. They quarrel, fight, blaspheme and rave at each other. The affrighted children wake, and with a brutal oath and kick, the eldest girl is sent out to get their only mantelpiece ornament, the bottle, refilled with the accursed poison which is the cause of all this misery. This is the story of ten thousand homes.

But no words can picture these stories.

Go to the gaols, the orphanages, the poor asylums, the insane asylums, etc., and there you may see the wrecks of ten thousand homes.

Go throughout all the land, and everywhere you will find the Licensed Drink Demon at work under the distinguished patronage of the Legislature, and basking in the sunshine of Government favor, whilst some of the clergy and even of the churches, the rich and poor, the young and old the educated and the ignorant, dance in his train and chant the praise of his high priests, who reap the fruits of their devotion in the spoils of tens of thousands of homes.

"How long, O Lord, how long!"

MRS. DICK, of Nicholson Street, Fitzroy, Australia, said: "Kind friends, I was a great sufferer from spasmodic asthma and bronchitis, with palpitation of the heart and nervous debility, for nineteen years, and was treated by a number of doctors in Sandhurst and Melbourne, who could not cure me. But thank the Lord, on the 17th of May, 1886, I was led to this blessed Tabernacle by my neighbor, and got healing that night, 17th, and thank the Lord I am now able to say I feel no trace of my many diseases, and I am able to go out in all changes of weather and never feel it on my lungs, and I thank the Lord Jesus for His mercy in healing me.

"I have also to give thanks to God for the healing of my little grand-daughter, on the 27th of September, 1886, of blood-poisoning. After the vaccination erysipelas set into the arm, and the doctor told me there was great danger, in fact, Dr. Snowball said the child could not live till the following Wednesday. I took her to Dr. Dowie, and he laid his hands on her and prayed in the name of the Lord Jesus, and thank the Lord, she got healing at once, and has continued quite well ever since."—Record of Fifth Annual Commemoration.

OUR SALVATION MESSAGE.—IMMEDIATE SALVATION FOR THEE.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

KIND reader, permit me to say a few words to thee concerning thine eternal welfare; and may God, who loves thee, help me.

Thou art immortal, the offspring of the Father of Spirits; and, because He is eternal, so art thou. On earth, in the visible creation within man's knowledge, there is nothing of such infinite importance as an immortal spirit, such as thou art.

The sun is but a spark of fire,
A transient meteor in the sky;
The spirit eternal as its sire,
Shall never die.

But thy body is mortal, it is of the earth, earthy, and it will die, decay, and pass away into dust again. There are no exceptions. Look at thy body, touch thy pulse, listen to thy throbbing heart, and say, "Oh, body, thou art warm with life, but thou shalt ere long be cold in death; for the silver cord shall soon be loosed, and thou shalt return to the earth, but my liberated spirit shall return to God who gave it." Then pause, ponder deeply in thy mind the solemn thought, and speak once more,— "But, oh, my spirit, art thou prepared to stand before the great white throne of judgment, shouldst thou be summoned to-day?"

Kind reader, if thou art unsaved, thou art lost. Hast thou ever earnestly looked upon the eternity into which thou mayest be ushered at one step? Consider now. "Behold now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation." Do not delay: for that may be fatal. Thy danger is immediate, and, therefore, so is thy need. God has, consequently, provided an immediate salvation. Let me tell thee very simply how thou mayest be immediately saved.

First, THOU MUST IMMEDIATELY REPENT. God's Holy Spirit has already convinced thee that thou art a sinner. Thou dost need a Saviour. Turn from thy sin at once, with sincere hatred of all thine evil deeds and thoughts, with sincere sorrow and desire for mercy. Like the dying Israelites, the fiery serpents of sin have, with their deadly venom, poisoned all the streams of thy being. Thou didst nurse these vipers in thy bosom, and gavest them the love thou didst deny to God. Even now, although thou knowest these sins are stinging thee like death adders, thou art strangely fascinated by their glamour; and, maddened with unsatisfied desire, thou art permitting them to coil more firmly around thy soul, and drain thy life away. Dying soul, arouse thee! Look to Him who died to save thee, and thou shalt live.

As when the Hebrew prophet raised
The brazen serpent high,
The wounded looked, and straight were cured,
The people ceased to die.
So from the Saviour on the cross,
A healing virtue flows;
Who looks to Him with lively faith,
Is saved from endless woes.

Second, THOU MUST IMMEDIATELY BELIEVE AND PRAY, BELIEVING THAT GOD WILL FULFILL HIS PROMISE TO THEE.

God requires thee to believe (1) that He loves thee; (2) that He came in the person of His Son to save thee; (3) that his Son, Jesus the Christ, bore thy sins, thy sorrows, and died for thee; (4) that He rose from the dead and is thine Advocate above, ever ready to intercede for thee, and (5) that, if thou dost truly ask the Father in His name, and dost from thy heart "forsake," and "confess" thy sin, thou shalt be saved that moment, for it is written—1 John 1: 9—"If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Do that in simple faith, and thou art saved immediately. Not that MY faith saves thee: for faith never saved any one, and yet no one was ever saved without faith. It is the GRACE, the free love and almighty power of God which saves the sinner who prays in faith; for it is written—Ephesians 2: 5—"By grace are ye saved;" and again, in the eighth verse, "For by grace ye are saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God." Does this seem hard to understand? Let me try to explain it still further. Suppose thou art poor and in great need. One who is kind, and very rich, gives thee a cheque for money covering all thy wants. At the bank thou dost present that cheque in faith, and thy faith is rewarded by getting all thy money. But it was not thy faith which provided the money—no, it was thy kind friend, who had placed it there for thee, it was his grace, so to speak, which answered the demand of thy faith, which believed his written word. So with thy God. Perishing soul, loving cheques upon the Bank of Infinite Love and Power are given thee, which cover all thy need, at all times. Take this:—"Wherefore He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them."—Hebrews 7: 25. Present this now, this very moment, at the Throne of Grace; and thou shalt be saved immediately, and to the uttermost.

The Gospels, and other portions of the inspired word, are full of proofs that God saves sinners IMMEDIATELY. All His acts of healing were "immediate;" as they are still. The leper, who came in faith, was "immediately" cleansed (see Mark 1: 40-42); Peter's wife's mother was "immediately" healed when Jesus touched her (Luke 4: 39); the woman who had spent all she had on doctors, after twelve years of weary and increasing suffering, was "immediately" healed when she touched Him with faith (Luke 8: 43, 44); the man who had lain for thirty-eight years, was "immediately made whole" at the pool of Bethesda (John 5: 1-9); the man "above forty years old," and "lame from his birth," was healed "in the name of Jesus Christ," at the Beautiful Gate, and, "immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength" (Acts 3: 1-11); and many others were healed immediately of whom thou canst read. And it was thus, too, that Christ forgave penitent sinners, such as the fallen woman who wept at His feet in the Pharisee's house, to whom he there said, "Thy sins are forgiven" (Luke 7: 48); and, in the Pearl of Parables, He taught us that the Eternal Father goes forth to meet the returning, sorrowing sinner, and saves him "immediately" and forever.

Oh decide now, lest the day of grace be gone, and the day of judgment find thee doomed. He is able, He is willing; and, if thou dost perish, it is because thou wilt not be saved. "How shalt thou escape, if THOU dost neglect so great salvation?" How? How? It is the one question which even God cannot answer. How? How?

Oh, be earnest, do not stay,
Thou mayest perish, e'en to-day;
Rise, thou lost one, rise and flee,
Lo, thy Saviour waits for thee.

WORDS OF CHEER FOR THE LEAVES.

WE feel grateful to God, and thankful to our friends in all parts of America for the favor and loving appreciation with which the first issue of this new series has been received. Every mail brings us hearty congratulations and kind wishes. Some of these will bear recording.

From far away Massawippi, in the province of Quebec, Canada, the Rev. C. L. Percival writes:—

"I cannot tell you how glad I was made yesterday by the coming to me of one of the first number of the new series of LEAVES OF HEALING. I cannot tell you how inspiring your lecture on the Opening of the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing is to me. Thank God that such a light is shining in wicked, degraded Chicago. My most earnest prayer is that it may grow and spread in every direction. May God's great blessing attend you continually."

From Dayton, Ohio, the Rev. W. C. Teeter writes:—

"The first number of LEAVES OF HEALING came to me a few days ago, and was food to my soul."

From Lawrence, Kansas, the Rev. O. L. Tindall writes:—

"We were very glad to receive your new issue of LEAVES OF HEALING, and rejoice to hear of the great things God is doing for you and through you. We read the paper with much pleasure. The devil fought hard to drive you out of Chicago, but thanks be unto God who giveth you the victory."

Away out on Puget Sound in the far north-western state of Washington, a merchant in Port Townsend, named Mr. C. E. Edwards, writes:—

"If you only knew how glad I was to receive your beautiful paper, the LEAVES OF HEALING, and knew the comfort I took in reading over the testimonies of those the Lord had healed and saved, you would take fresh courage as you ask the Lord to bless the little missive of love, as you send it out to the world on its mission. You probably remember me among those at your first mission in San Francisco. I was a human wreck, given up by doctors, friends, and separated from my family. But I strayed into one of your meetings in San Francisco, and heard your teaching on Divine Healing. I accepted the Lord as my Healer, gave up all medicine and doctors, and trusted the Lord for my future. Doctor, that is over six years ago, and I can tell you to-day that I have not seen a sick day since, and have not taken a drop of medicine. My family are all back with me, and I am daily thanking God for His deliverance."

From San Jose, California, an esteemed lady, Mrs. M. E. Baird, writes:—

"I cannot express my extreme delight and gratitude when I received No. 1 of LEAVES OF HEALING. Oh, how I was filled with praise to God as I perused its ever precious truths which have been more to me than pen can describe. I think the new issue of your paper is the most beautiful in its design, type, and illustrations of any that I have ever seen."

From Kansas City, Missouri, the Rev. Peter Ostrum writes:—

"I received your paper, LEAVES OF HEALING, new series, yesterday, and I want to tell you how I appreciate it for its beauty in style and general make-up, and for its still more beautiful contents in words, and pictorial illustrations. Brother, I congratulate you in such an undertaking, and wish you God's choicest blessing in conducting and editing it, and I will pray that God may use it mightily for the advancement of His kingdom. I was very much encouraged in faith by reading your paper."

Shall we not be permitted to add one little word from one of the lambs of the Good Shepherd's flock. It touched our hearts and made us glad that we had allowed our pictures to appear in the paper. It is contained in a letter from Mr. and Mrs. C. Sparman, of Golden Gate, California:—

"We gladly received the LEAVES OF HEALING, and we rejoice with you for all that God has done for His people by your ministry. When our little girl saw your pictures in the paper, she said, 'I love them.'"

But why multiply these quotations, which we could very largely? The kind words of kind and true christian hearts are very precious to us in our unceasing toils, amidst so many thousands of weary, sinful, sick, and dying sufferers in this great city. We thank all who have thus written, and would say, "Brethren, pray for us, and help us by extending our circulation, and so widen the usefulness of LEAVES OF HEALING, and build up Zion Publishing House until it shall be a Beacon to multitudes of weary hearts on the wide, wide sea of human life, revealing to them deliverance in Christ for every misery of spirit, soul or body." Amen! Amen!

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-ropi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

"Faith Cometh by Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

AFTER ten days absence on the Atlantic Coast we returned to our home and work in Chicago on Saturday last. It was our first vacation for a year. God blessed our days of rest by the sea, and He blessed our home coming. Zion Tabernacle was filled, especially in the morning and afternoon to overflowing. Many stood during the whole of the afternoon service, and every extra chair which could be placed was set on the platform, and in the passage between Divine Healing Home No. 2, and the Tabernacle. Large numbers stood outside the windows, or remained seated in their carriages. Our welcome home was most inspiring, and we thank God and take courage.

BUT our greatest joy was not in the large attendances but in the glorious results of the beginning of our Autumn Campaign. On Lord's Day and two other days of this week over eight hundred persons stood up, and prayed openly the prayer of repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ which is one of the blessed features of our Mission. Doubtless hundreds of these have found salvation: for it is written "Whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved." These hundreds did, and did it openly, and with most apparently deep reverence, sincere repentance, and simple faith: for the power of the Holy Spirit was evident.

Yet we had an even greater joy: for in the afternoon, at the close of our second lecture on the Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body, over seven hundred believers rose to their feet, in a moment almost, at our Call for Consecration, and followed us with every token of earnest reality in a prayer of dedication of all to God. We praise God for these opening scenes of Harvest Time, and ere the snows of winter come we expect greater things than these. Much as we love to see the glorious sights we do constantly in Divine Healing, we are still more rejoiced to see sinners saved, and saints quickened into holier living and nobler service.

WE have only been six days home again, and have prayed with, and laid hands upon, fully seven hundred and fifty persons in the Name of Jesus. And how blessed have been the results already in many cases. A number who were brought to the Tabernacle with great difficulty, and who lay upon beds and couches around the platform during the service, were carried into the prayer-room, and left it walking and free from pain, and with every appearance of having received deliverance. We visited one dying bed where all earthly hope had been abandoned by physicians and by friends, and where no food had been taken for nearly a week. Ere we left the sister ate a slice of bread, drank a cup of warm milk, and we were told has been improving since. One lady gave us on Tuesday certain surgical appliances without which she had not taken a step for eighteen years. A brother left his crutches in a corner of the prayer-room, and walked out. Many sufferers lost their pain, and many hearts went away filled with love and praise to Him who "Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses."

WE spent Lord's Day week last, 9th inst., at Ocean Grove, N. J. We endeavored to be quiet, and did not advise anyone of our coming or presence, until on that afternoon when we found ourselves in an Experience Meeting in the Janes' Memorial Tabernacle, and being "full" we went off and spoke a few words. Instantly we found that we were among Christian friends, some of whom knew us personally, and others from reading, etc. The Rev. Mr. Meyer of Baltimore, Md., who had co-operated with us in our mission there, and others, immediately gathered around us when the meeting closed, and these old friends introduced us to many new ones. Amongst others that venerable spiritual Napoleon, who ruled over Ocean Grove, the Rev. Dr. Stokes, instantly required that we should address the last Surf Meeting for the season at 6 o'clock that evening. Of course we obeyed, and spoke to some thousands for a few minutes on the question of Pilate, "What shall I do with Jesus?" This little talk brought out more friends at the close, and led to an impromptu drawing room meeting two nights later in Faith Cottage, the residence of that gentle saint, Miss Mary Mossman, author of "Steppings in God." Here and elsewhere, we met with many excellent and influential Christian men and women, amongst them the sister of a late President of the United States, wives of judges and legislators, and several prominent ministers, lawyers and doctors. In fact so many began to seek for us that we bade our kind host Stockton at the Seaside Hotel farewell, and left for New York en route for Chicago. Nothing short of a Mission would have satisfied our kind friends, and that our arrangements would not permit of. But we desire to thank them for many Christian courtesies, and for the assurance of their sympathy and prayerful interest in our work for Christ and for humanity.

THE new auditorium at Ocean Grove greatly interested us. It seats comfortably 9,700 persons, covers six-sevenths of an acre, has 266 doors and windows, which can be opened or closed as required, is lighted by 800 incandescent electric lamps, with six miles of wire, and there are no less than 550,000 pounds weight of iron and steel trusses, etc., in the vast building. Probably it is the largest Evangelical church building in the world. May God abundantly bless the good men and women who have built it, and make it the birthplace spiritually of multitudes, and a Bethesda to God's weary children in this lovely little christian city by the sea.

"THE FOLLOWING VESSELS PASSED THROUGH HELL GATE YESTERDAY," was the shocking head line which we read in the New York Herald on Tuesday week last, when we opened the news-paper on the morning after our arrival in New York. It set us thinking.—If Hell Gate is indeed the door into the United States, let us thank God for the Golden Gate of Salvation and Healing, and Holiness which, even here, is open for all who follow Him who is the Door into the Fold of God.

NEW YORK always interests us deeply. We were there when the Parkhurst-Lexow committee, appointed by the state senate, resumed its sittings and laid bare the fellowship in crime which exists between the city police force and law-breakers of every class.

A SPLENDID sentiment is being created against the infamous "Tammany Tigers" who now rule, or rather feed upon, the great city. God bless our fearless brother, Dr. Parkhurst, and the worthy men who are probing the "tigers" in their very dens, and are handing them sternly over to justice one by one, and may God raise up a man like him to deal with the panthers of our Chicago Tammany. Still, "Wisdom is better than weapons of war," and our Chicago reformers will find that the best way to suppress gamblers is not by hiring armed bullies to break their heads, but by preaching the gospel which changes their hearts.

"God reigns," and Satan's doom is fixed.

FIGHT on, ye brave ones; the night will soon be past. Hasten the day, oh Lord, for many, many are fainting by the way. "Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly."

A lady writing from 3846 Vincennes avenue, Chicago, concerning the healing which her mother has received from God through our agency, says: "One of mother's former doctor's (who lived in Woodlawn) said last week, 'The doctors of Woodlawn are getting very little practice, now that Dr. Dowie is getting it, and the success he is having is surprising.' Our readers may not all be aware that Woodlawn is the name given to the district of Chicago in which we are located. We are glad to have this testimony, only that we must give all the glory to God for the "success" that accompanies our ministry. We can only hope that all the doctors will everywhere find their vegetable and mineral poisons, their pills and plasters, their surgical knives and appliances supplanted by Healing through Faith in Jesus. God has something better for intelligent men and women, such as doctors usually are, than to dispense poisons and act as surgical butchers.

WE call attention to our article entitled "Doctors and Medicine," in another column, in proof of the assertion which we often make that physicians have no real confidence in their so-called science. Sir Astley Cooper, physician to Queen Victoria, once declared, "The Science of Medicine is founded upon conjecture, and improved by murder."

WE are glad to see so many doctors in our meetings, and to find that some of them are bringing their own wives, mothers, sons and daughters to the Lord for healing. We shall soon give the testimony, and we trust the pictures, of an eminent doctor and his daughter who were healed through our agency in this city. The good doctor now prays with his patients and God answers.

A CERTAIN well-known surgeon and doctor in the northern part of the city, one of whose family had been healed through our agency, said to us not long ago, "Doctor, you make me hate myself and my profession. I often feel as if I would rather be flogged than go down to my office. I know Divine Healing is God's way, and the best way, for all. You have made me both happy and miserable."

ON last Saturday a well-known lady physician brought one of her patients, a distinguished Woman's Christian Temperance Union worker, to our Divine Healing Home. On Monday Miss G. said, "I feel God has healed me, and I can go to work again at once, and fulfill my engagements." And she went. The Lord bless the lady doctor and this able worker.

WE have more hope for the speedy conversion of doctors of medicine to Divine Healing than for doctors of divinity. But we have hope for all, since Jesus will conquer all, and prove His present and unchanging love and power to destroy all the work of the devil—of which disease is not one but a legion.

Yet D. D.'s. are harder to convert than M. D.'s., for the latter often say with Professor Magendie, the great French physician, "We are as ignorant as men can be," and the latter often say something which sounds like the opposite. Only those who know they are ignorant can ever learn.

WE had just finished writing the foregoing when we received our mid-day mail, and one of our letters was from a doctor in Los Angeles, California, and it helps to confirm the assertion as to the progress which Divine Healing is making amongst medical men. He (J. H. Skilling, M. D., of 380 Douglas St., Los Angeles) says, under date of September 13th: "I am gratified to learn of the success of your ministry, believing, as I do, that you are pursuing the full and true line of the gospel ministry, as given by our Lord, which He requires us to carry on in His Name, according to the instructions given to the first disciples. I believe that this original ministry must be fully received and preached throughout the world as a necessary preparation for His coming, according to Matthew 24: 14. which includes healing the sick, and that it is His express command, that we observe and practice healing the sick, as much as any other part of the gospel ministry. . .

. . . I am happy to be able to say that I, as well as my good wife, who were both led through your clear teaching, to see and appropriate His promises for healing, were healed of our diseases, and have been kept these five years past through trusting in Him alone, without the aid of drugs or medical help, believing that to be unnecessary for those who trust in Him."

Now, then, let the D. D.'s hurry up.

ON the last Lord's Day afternoon in every month it is our intention, God willing, to conduct a Praise and Testimony Meeting in Zion Tabernacle, or elsewhere, when many who have been saved and spiritually blessed, and many who have been healed of many diseases and infirmities, through faith in Jesus, will tell their experiences. Many of these are indeed "wonderful works of God."

THE first of the Testimony Meetings above referred to will be held on Lord's Day afternoon, Sept. 30th, at 2: 30 o'clock Friends who desire to testify will please assemble in the Healing-Room behind the Tabernacle not later than 2:00 o'clock. They will please to bring with them a slip of paper with their full name and address, and the date of their healing with a very brief statement of the disease or infirmity from which they had suffered.

MANY who have been blessed through our agency are naturally anxious as early as possible to obey the Lord's Command and to be baptized into the Names of the Triune God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. This is right and it is our duty to give all such an opportunity to follow in the footsteps of Jesus who was baptized by John in the Jordan.

WE shall resume the administration of the Ordinance of Believers' Baptism by Trine Immersion at an early date. Meanwhile, all candidates will please to make application to the Rev. S. J. Harrison in the Healing Room behind the Tabernacle, before any of the Lord's Day services. He will converse with them on our behalf, and will, if approved, enroll their names.

"BRETHREN, pray for us."

AFTER ordering LEAVES OF HEALING, wait at least two weeks for its arrival. If it does not come in that time drop us a card giving the number of the receipt you hold, and the error will be promptly corrected. H.

THE CHICAGO INTER OCEAN AND OUR MISSION.

SEVERAL of the Chicago daily papers have had long and appreciative articles concerning our work during the present year. The Daily Evening News was the first in the field, after a time the Evening Post and the Inter Ocean gave the mission considerable attention. The first article of over four columns in the latter paper aroused wide spread interest not only in this city, but throughout all America and on other continents. We have often been asked for copies of it, and have thought it would be well to reprint it in our own columns, as we have found it impossible to supply the demand in any other way. We have not altered it, or curtailed it, by a single word, and while there are a very few minor errors in details, it is substantially correct in its facts. We have not reproduced its illustrations which consisted of a picture of ourselves and some of those healed, and, also, a view of Zion Tabernacle and a crowd of those outside the doors waiting for an opportunity for admission into the already over-crowded place. It appeared in the issue of the Inter Ocean for April 8, 1894, and an edition of over 100,000 copies, it is said, was sold. We desire publicly to express our thanks and appreciation of the kindness of Mr. Kohlsaas, the then editor, and of Capt. Quentin Campbell, the writer of the article, and of the artist who accompanied him, whose name we do not know. We would also thank the other papers which have treated us fairly and kindly. No one can estimate how great a blessing an honest, clean and God fearing daily paper of wide circulation could be. We trust that there will soon be many such in the land. The article, head lines and all, is as follows:—

LATTER DAY MIRACLES.

AFFLICTED DIVINELY HEALED BY REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.---WROUGHT BY FAITH.

Lame Made to Walk and the Blind Restored to Sight.

Death Made Powerless. Victims are Snatched From the Brink of the Grave.
Testimony of Those Relieved of Suffering. Made Whole and Saved from Dying.

REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE is demonstrating that "the age of miracles" in the nineteenth century and in Chicago is no less a reality than in the first century and in the Holy Land.

The lame were made to walk nineteen hundred years ago. the deaf to hear, the blind to see, and "all that were sick" were "healed."

It is just such healings that are taking place today under the ministration of Rev. John Alexander Dowie.

There is a flock of witnesses to bear testimony, physical and oral, to their own healing.

May Lohman, a young girl living at No. 5936 Union avenue, says: "I have been cured of paralysis. For four years I was bedridden. I first suffered from hip disease and my limbs became useless; paralysis followed. I was taken to Dr. Dowie. He prayed for me. I am well."

There was no doubting this girl's belief in the cause of her restoration to health, and no doubt could be hazarded that she was not well, recovered from a grievous and long ailment.

Mrs. E. E. Kettler, No. 8936 Buffalo avenue: "I hesitate to speak of my ailment, for my cure falls so short of other cures I know Dr. Dowie has made or God has granted in answer to his prayer. I was sick, seriously so, as only a woman can be, and his prayers have relieved me of my suffering."

"The Lord," spoke up Mrs. Sophie Colton, No. 253 Sixty-Second street, where Mrs. Kettler was visiting, "has been good to me and Dr. Dowie showed me 'the way,' and the Lord, answering his and my prayers, has healed me."

MEDICINE FAILS, FAITH CURES.

Mrs. Colton then related that she had been under the care of Dr. Ryan, of Halsted street; Dr. Burr, of Van Buren and State; that she had been a bedridden inmate of St. Luke's Hospital; had been operated upon and remained a patient for months in the Presbyterian Hospital, and was taken home unable to walk.

"And," she exclaimed. "I heard of Dr. Dowie. I was taken to one of his cottage meetings. I was carried up stairs, I heard him talk, believed, and I walked home."

From that date, nearly two years ago, Mrs. Colton, seconded by her husband, claims that she has been a well and strong woman.

John Murdock, No. 61 Churchill street: "Under Dr. Dowie's guidance I learned to believe, have faith, and am cured of a chronic sore throat which doctors and medicines failed to relieve me of, though for five years I have been under constant treatment."

CURED OF PARALYSIS.

Mrs. Mary Clark, No. 8825 Buffalo avenue, South Chicago: "Two weeks ago," she said. "I was a bedridden woman with palsy, and my arms were crooked with paralysis. I have been prayed for. The Lord has heard and I am well."

And it can be said Mrs. Clark is attending to her household duties, which for two years she had been wholly unable to look after, owing to her complicated affliction.

Miss Amanda Hicks, a school teacher in Clinton, Ky., bears testimony, orally and in writing, that she was healed of cancer. At one time Dr. John E. Owens, of this city, visited her at home, and there refused to operate upon her, but advised her to come to Chicago. She came, but did not submit to the knife. She put herself under the ministrations of Dr. Dowie. She writes from her home that she is strong and well, healed; and attested to it before a congregation at the Tabernacle of Zion last Sunday afternoon.

RAISED OFF A DEATHBED.

The following is the written testimony of a practicing physician of Chicago:

On Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, March 1, 1894, in my own house, a little granddaughter was born. At 8 o'clock the same morning my daughter was seized with puerperal convulsions, and had nine during that day. Medicine was given by the order of a consultation of doctors, yet the patient grew rapidly worse, became unconscious, and was verging closely to the comatose state. At this juncture my son-in-law, Mr. L. G. Larner, determined to go at once and bring Rev. J. A. Dowie, who did healing in the name of the Lord Jesus. Mr. Dowie came quickly and prayed for my child, laying on his hands where the pain was located. Immediately the consciousness returned, the pains ceased, and there were no more convulsions. In twenty minutes from the time he prayed she stood on her feet feeling quite well.

Two days later I noticed she had a slight fever, temperature 100.1, but I thought it natural and gave it but little attention. On Sunday morning, however, the fever reached a temperature 103.5, and there had been rigors during the preceding night, also pains, that indicated a serious condition when taken together as a diagnosis.

I had not experience and knowledge sufficient in divine healing to understand to fight the demon in that way. I was too timid and lacked confidence in myself. This I knew was a day when Mr. Dowie could not well come to us a distance of six miles. We decided it would be wrong to ask him to come on Sunday, because he had three services on that day. Therefore we concluded to try medicine again. I believe that I knew what would check the fever, and so gave her medicine.

But it did not check the fever, and the patient grew worse. At 10 o'clock A. M. Mr. Larnier decided to go again for Dr. Dowie. He closed his services and came quickly again. After prayer and laying on of hands the fever departed and my daughter was again wonderfully well. She was very happy and ravenously hungry, so we all joined heartily in praise and thanksgiving to God, who had twice taken her from the malice of Satan and the jaws of death by the prayers of our beloved brother Dowie. May God bless him and keep us all pure and from every form of evil.

S. E. WILLING, M. D.,
No. 916 Rupp avenue,
Calumet Heights, South Chicago.
L. G. LARNER.

This is all true.

RECOVERS HER SIGHT.

Mrs. George Miller, No. 3314 Dearborn Street: "My eyesight was failing me, and it was with difficulty that I could see with glasses. I believe as Dr. Dowie teaches. I have had faith, and I see to-day as well as ever I did in my life."

Miss Minnie Billingsley, McCracken County, Kentucky, feeble and slow of step, was assisted into the Tabernacle on Friday afternoon. Two weeks ago she had to be carried in. She is suffering with bronchial troubles and consumption. "I believe," she said, with a hopeful and confident exultation of voice, "I am going to be healed." These and hundreds of others give their testimony as miraculous healings they have received under Dr. Dowie's ministration. But these people are adults, grown people, upon whom the powers of imagination may hold sway. They may be impressionable, and, religiously frenzied, claim a surcrease of suffering that may return when the excitement attending their spiritual exultation may die out.

TESTIMONY OF SUCKLINGS.

But when it comes to children, and in their cases the restoration of activity, the removal of deformities, and the straightening of limb, the stories they tell are simply marvelous.

"I am 13 years old," said Florence Gurley, of No. 5725 La Salle street, and then modestly, but cheerily, in a pleasant, exultant mood begotten of the fact that two weeks ago she was lame, but now is whole, she told her story:

"I had the hip disease. For four years I could not walk; two years I wheeled myself about in a chair, and within a year I have walked on crutches. Two weeks ago I came to the doctor on crutches and I went home without them."

And as she concluded her face flushed with happiness. The child's mother is a widow, and the cost of treatment for her daughter has been not a little of a burden.

A neighbor accompanying the child said:

"When she came to the doctor's she was on crutches. She had the use of her left leg, but the right was so drawn up that the toe barely touched the ground, and she put no weight upon it when walking with her crutches. For months the child was in the hospital, bandaged and bound to boards to keep her leg straight, and when she was released from the hospital, awake or asleep, she had a heavy weight suspended to her leg to straighten it."

That child, Florence Gurley, No 5725 La Salle street, Friday afternoon was walking as flat-footed, springy, and alert as if she had never known the use of a crutch and the abomination of it.

NINE-YEAR-OLD BOY HAPPY.

Just as happy a healing is that which has fallen to the lot of Willie Essex, No. 5205 Armour avenue. Friday afternoon at the Tabernacle Willie happened around—"just happened around," as he spoke it. He is a sturdy little chap 9½ years old, and he is particular about "the half." Friday afternoon the youngster was capering around, nimble-footed and joyous. Four weeks ago he hobbled to the Tabernacle with crooked and contracted limbs. He wore a deep-soled, high-heeled shoe on one foot to enable his poor, crooked little leg to reach the ground. On the other he wore a torturing cuirass, or brace, padded here and there, to keep his leg straight. Crutches helped him, so distorted, to get around at all.

The little fellow can to-day play with the best of 'em, and is making up for lost time.

HE WAS AT DEATH'S DOOR.

Albion Wyman, the 13-year-old son of C. E. Wyman, attorney at law, and well known at the Chicago bar, who has an office in the Unity Building, was snatched from "the jaws of death."

The boy was gasping for breath, speechless, and unconscious in the throes of consumption, dying with stertorous breathing, a seemingly hopeless congestion of the lungs, when he was prayed back to life. The boy to-day is strong, well, happy, and his parents are converted to Dr. Dowie's teachings, that Christ no less heals to-day than He did when in flesh on the earth.

The lad and his aunt were at the Tabernacle meeting Friday, and she told this story:

"Albion for two or three years has been failing, and the doctors pronounced his a hopeless case of consumption. He was taken to California in the hope that he would be improved. No improvement followed, and he was brought home to die, and he was thought to be dying, was dying, when Dr. Dowie saved him by prayer. He was given up for dead by the doctors, Professor W. M. Davison saying his was a hopeless case, consumption beyond a doubt. Mr. Wyman heard of Dr. Dowie through a stenographer in his office, who had known the doctor in Australia. Little believing, yet hoping against hope, Mr. Wyman called on the doctor, and they prayed together. Going to the bedside of the dying boy, Dr. Dowie prayed for him and saved him. He is well as you see."

"Yes," interposed Albion heartily, "I feel splendid."

C. E. Wyman has Professor Davison's attestation in writing to the fact that he had given him up as a hopeless consumptive and that to-day he is in robust health.

James Inglis, No. 52 Wabash avenue, who was mainly instrumental in exposing that "wolf in sheep's clothing," Rev. Dr. Totheroh, adds his testimony to all accumulating as proof of Dr. Dowie's extraordinary powers.

"My sister," said Mr. Inglis, "Mrs. John Sanderson, of Wroxeter, Ontario, Dominion of Canada, is under the doctor's prayerful ministrations."

I heard of the doctor, went to see him, and heard him as an unbeliever. I am to-day a firm believer in his power to do good, to do good without price or fee, and in the name of the Lord, to poor and rich alike. I was firmly set in my belief as to the impossibility of his healing as it was claimed he did. I saw and was converted.

"I then sent for my sister. Two weeks ago she came under his ministration. She was deaf, she was totally blind of one eye, and the sight of the other was sympathetically dim and painful. She had consulted, within the twenty-five years of her affliction, specialists in Buffalo, Toronto, Montreal, and Chicago, all eminent oculists, and the concensus of opinion was that her case was hopeless. The blind eye could never be restored, and the other, too, would succumb to the ailment of the other.

"She had rheumatism, and suffered from a degeneracy of the skin, that made it blotched and pimply.

"Two weeks ago, at my solicitations, she came under Dr. Dowie's ministrations. To-day her rheumatism has left her, she suffers no pain; her skin has been restored to a healthful condition; the eye out of which she could see dimly, has full sight restored to it and out of the eye totally blind she sees the light, something she has not done before for twenty-five years. She is prayerful, hopeful, and confident of full restoration."

WHO IS THE HEALER?

And who is this man who these wonders has wrought, bringing sight to the blind, health to the sick, relief to the suffering, life to the anguished, and, above all, happiness and health to the children? What's his theory? What's his power?

"Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind

It is thus his belief and his works, in the name of Christ, may be epitomized. But the doctor speaks for himself:

"Jesus, the Christ, is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever. He went about 'healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.' I simply 'heal through faith in Jesus.' There is nothing miraculous in it, beyond the fact that all God does is wonderful.

"I claim no exclusive privileges nor powers. I teach that the 'gifts of healing' are in the Holy Spirit. They are not controlled by any person. They are inherent in the church, permanent gifts. It is the old, primitive religion I teach—primitive faith, primitive simplicity, primitive purity of life; and primitive power follows all that. The two cardinal doctrines are: That 'Jesus the Christ is the same yesterday, to-day and forever,' and being so, he is unchanged in power and in will. If His words, 'Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world,' are true, and they are, then He is as much present in power and in spirit to-day as when He stood in the flesh upon the earth. This being so, we have ever presented in our teaching, that He is able, that He is willing, that He is present, and that He is longing to heal His people as in the days of His flesh.

"That disease, like sin, is God's enemy and the devil's work, and can never be God's will. Peter said in the household of the centurion, Cornelius, Acts 10: 38: 'God anointed Jesus Christ with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him.' Nineteen centuries ago 'all manner of sickness and disease' was healed by Jesus, and as 'all' whom He healed 'were oppressed of the devil,' it follows logically that all sickness and disease and still the devil's work. When Jesus heals He is not undoing the work of the Father, but the work of Satan. The will of God is to heal now, as it was nineteen centuries ago, all who believe.

"Simply and succinctly," continued the doctor, "through Christ he who knows 'the way,' acquiring it through faith, can work in the name of Christ and through Him the healing He practiced for all time. That is it, simple and true."

Dr. Dowie resides at No. 6020 Edgerton avenue. There, day and night, he is besieged and besought by the afflicted. Not only in person do they come, many of whom he houses, but he has hundreds letters of and telegrams daily beseeching him, "Pray for me."

A SCOTCH CONGREGATIONALIST.

He is untiring in his work, and for sixteen years has been uninterruptedly in the ministry of healing, never sparing himself, and never ceasing his evangelical work, the forerunner of the power bestowed upon him to heal by prayer through faith. The doctor was born in Edinburgh in 1847. He is a sturdy, well-built man, with clean-cut features, fine head, black hair, and a flowing whisker well sprinkled with gray. He went to Australia when a lad, returned to Scotland, studied for the ministry, was ordained a Congregational minister, returned to Australia and began his work. It was not until 1876 that he was first used in the ministry of healing, and that service came to him as an inspiration during a plague in Sidney, New South Wales, where doubt that death by disease was God's will invaded his mind and wrought out for him the solution that God's will was to banish disease, and that disease itself was the oppression of the devil.

Acting upon and confirmed in this belief, Dr. Dowie pursued his ministrations in Australia, Tasmania, and coming to this country five years ago, he began his work on the Pacific coast. There and elsewhere in this country his missions have succeeded. He has healed as he has in Chicago.

Last May he made for himself a Home and a Tabernacle, the Tabernacle of Zion, in this city. Just when the World's Fair opened he began his work.

Just in sight, not more than a stone's throw from the fair grounds, he put up his tabernacle. Then in the midst of throngs intent upon sight-seeing, witnessing worldly pageants, the congregation of nations, and the exhibit of their industry, the tabernacle was passed unnoticed by the millions. Now located just where it stood then, in the remotest part of the city, in a region and place little visited by the casual pedestrian, off on a short, side street, accessible only through a labyrinth of other streets, the tabernacle is almost daily the place of a scene unique, one which has never had its like since Jesus wrought what is now being done in His Name at this unpretentious place.

Though so far removed from the business center and residential portion of the city, isolated and difficult of access, there are thousands who seek it. It is not resorted to solely by people of Chicago, from all divisions of the city, but it is the Mecca for hundreds from all parts of this and other countries.

There are three services held at the Tabernacle, No. 251 East Sixty-Second street, every Sunday. Services every Monday, Tuesday and Friday afternoons at 2:30 o'clock.

Friday afternoon the usual services were held. There was nothing out of the ordinary if it be classed as one of a series of revival meetings. But one glance at the congregation, its eagerness, fervor, attention, intent expression, and expectancy, disabused the impression that this was an ordinary meeting, even of religious zealots.

SCENES IN THE TABERNACLE.

All classes, the poor and the rich, were represented in the congregation numbering 2,000 that occupied the chairs, stood in the aisles, fringed the walls, and, standing outside, hoisted the windows and craned their necks, not to see, but to hear.

The gathering was a solemn one, and so piteous.

Long before the hour set for the services to begin, the Tabernacle was crowded.

Carriages drove up to the door, and stricken people were lifted from them and carried in.

Mothers brought misshapen children in their arms and went in:

The feeble, with tottering steps, were helped in by friends.

The bed-ridden were born in on stretchers.

The sightless were there.

The deaf had fingered out to them the hope held out.

The thump of crutches was heard, as hundreds thus enabled to walk came in.

It was a piteous spectacle, the sight of these afflicted ones—men, women and children. A host of men came, blind, deaf, or paralyzed. Women came, worn, suffering and pain-marked. Young girls, fresh-faced, but marred in body. Children, bright-eyed, intelligent, well grown, but helpless.

How intently, too, did all listen; how eager and expectant, and hope betrayed its presence in the face of even him whose case, in a physical sense, was the least hopeful. They prayed fervently—they wept; many a man, many a woman, many a child in that oddly assorted gathering, whether there as a supplicant or as sturdy, healthful helpmate or friend of the afflicted wept.

It was a sight, as Dr. Dowie said, which would bring pain to the calloused heart and tears to the eyes of the most hardened mortal. And then he spoke of Christ's love, a love that betrayed itself in taking on our infirmities and bearing our sickness.

SIMPLE AND IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

The services were simple and impressive, beginning with the hymn,

"WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS."

Dr. Dowie commented, as he gave the gospel song out verse by verse, and exclaimed:

"If we have all we want in Jesus, what's the use of doctors and their poisonous draughts and their torturing surgery?"

Mrs. Dowie read the sixty-seventh psalm and chapter 8 of the gospel according to St. Matthew.

More singing and fervent prayers by Dr. Dowie and his wife. Then the doctor addressed the audience, the sore afflicted who had come to him to learn the way to escape from their afflictions.

He told them how Christ himself took our infirmities and bore our sickness. He grew fervid and eloquent as he talked, and charged as the first requisite of a sure healing his hearers to repent and have faith. The doctor elaborated his subject, quoted the promises of the Saviour, which were as good and everlasting today as when made. He cheered and encouraged his hearers, wrought them up, filled them with hope. He decried disease and doctor's medicine as oppressions of the devil; as the offspring of Satan, hateful to God. The doctor, too, scored the sinners, classifying among them users of tobacco and drink, corset-wearers, and all others who wrought of their own accord bodily affliction and disease and perpetuated such appetites and ailments upon their children.

Pathos was not wanting in the address and tears flowed freely whenever he appealed to God for relief for the suffering.

PRAYED FOR THE SICK.

At the conclusion of the address the sick and afflicted were prayed for, one by one, and fervor characterized the conduct of those brought under the ministrations of the doctor.

At the Tabernacle and at the house Dr. Dowie has a museum, his own peculiarly, and one in which he takes great satisfaction. It consists of a collection of crutches, braces, and trusses which the healed have abandoned or given to him as souvenirs of their cure.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, as usual on Sunday, there will be a "testimony" meeting at the Tabernacle, when "the healed" will bear witness of their restoration.

H. W. Dummett, Barkly Street, North Fitzroy, Australia.

"NEARLY all my children were sick at different times. The one that is here, who is seven years old, was taken ill of scarlet fever and measles combined. The lodge doctor, Dr. Wilson, of East Melbourne, attended her, but instead of growing better she got worse. I had lost two children under him before, and you parents know what it is to lose your little ones. I didn't want to lose this. Mr. Dowie came after midnight when the child was suffering dreadful agony, and was covered with an eruption. She was delirious and unconscious. The house had been disinfected and reported to the death authorities. He asked, "Do you believe the Lord will heal her?" My wife and I said "Yes." He knelt down and prayed. He asked the Lord to restore the child's health. He laid hands on the child, who immediately went into a quiet sleep, the fever entirely leaving her. My wife and I had been up for several nights before, and had never taken off our clothes. That night we slept ourselves. Next morning when the child awoke quite well all eruption had disappeared, and she said she was hungry. The same morning the doctor came. He could not make it out. My little girl was healed instantaneously. When the doctor came he could not find a spot of the eruption on her body, although the previous night, before Mr. Dowie came, she was covered with eruption from head to foot. When my little boy was bad I took him straight to the Lord, and he was healed by the laying on of Mr. Dowie's hands, instantaneously. We never gave them any medicine from the moment Mr. Dowie touched them, and they have been well from that day to this. I thank God, and am deeply grateful to our pastor, both for teaching and healing, in which he has been used to so many."—Record of the Fifth Annual Commemoration.

"DOCTORS AND MEDICINE."

A FRIEND has sent to us a little tract by Mr. W. A. Redding, with the above title, which contains numerous extracts from the writings of many of the most prominent physicians in the world concerning the utter fallacy of calling medicine a science. Those who have heard our lectures will remember that we have quoted from eminent medical professors in our native city university (Edinburgh) whom we have heard denounce the so-called science of medicine as purely empirical, and this little resume of similar testimony will be helpful to many whose minds have been kept in a continual state of bondage by the fear lest they should be sinning against God in laying aside the use of these poisonous drugs which are falsely presented as a divinely appointed means for the healing of human diseases.

Doctor Oliver Wendell Holmes' declaration before the Massachusetts Medical Society puts the whole matter in a truthfully pithy and witty form, when he says: "I verily believe that if the whole materia medica could be sunk to the bottom of the sea, it would be all the better for mankind and all the worse for the fishes." And Dr. James Mason Good's words contain a great truth when he says, "The effects of our medicines are in the highest degree unsatisfactory, except, indeed, that they have destroyed more lives than war, pestilence, and famine combined." It may help some of our friends to have these facts put in this simple form. We commend, therefore, our brother's tract to the attention of all who believe there is "balm in the Gilead of God and the divine Physician there."

INTRODUCTORY.

In the winter of 1874, when some members of his family were sick, a gentleman of Denver, Colorado, who was trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ as his physician, refused to call in a doctor. It created considerable excitement and much newspaper comment, and W. A. Redding wrote the following article for a Denver paper:—

DOCTORS AND MEDICINE.

Inasmuch as the subject of doctors and drugs has been brought to the attention of the people of this section of the country, let us introduce the testimony of some of the most prominent physicians in the world.

Professor N. Champman, late of the University of Pennsylvania, formerly President of the Philadelphia Medical Society, and declared a few years ago to be at the head of the medical profession in America, says, in "Materia Medica," Vol. 1, page 3: "Medical conclusions differ very widely from every other species of evidence. We cheat ourselves with a thousand illusions. It is not necessary that I shall enforce this remark by the enumeration of any examples. No one who is conversant with the practice need be told how often his own deductions have proved erroneous, and how little confidence is to be reposed in those pompous recommendations with which medicines are promulgated."

On page 33 the same author says:—

"To trace the multiplied relations of medicine to disease, we at once introduce the spirit of speculation."

Again he says: "As it is, we are plunged into a labyrinth almost without a clew. Dark and perplexed, our devious career resembles the blind gropings of Homer's Cyclops round his cave."

And again he says, page 32: "This, indeed, is emphatically true, that we can hardly ever pronounce with certainty what will be the exact results from the dose administered. It might gratify our vanity, were it not more than counterbalanced by the humiliating view of so much absurdity, contradiction and falsehood."

Here, then, he admits that medical practice is an "illusion," and that is "speculation."

Sir Astley Cooper, physician to Queen Victoria, has declared: "The science of medicine is founded upon conjecture and improved by murder." What a shocking statement from a man so eminent as to have the royal family in his professional care.

Professor Armor, of the Long Island College Hospital, declares, in the New York Medical Journal for January, 1883, that "drugs are administered, patients sometimes recover, and we suppose we have cured them, whereas our remedies have had little or nothing to do with their recovery. Very likely it took place in spite of our drugs."

Sir James Johnson, formerly editor of the Medical Chirurgical Review, London, says: "I declare, as my conscientious conviction, founded upon long observation and experiment, that if there were not a single physician, surgeon, chemist, druggist or drug on the face of the earth, there would be less sickness and less mortality than now prevail."

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has declared before the Massachusetts Medical Society: "I fairly believe that if the whole materia medica could be sunk to the bottom of the sea, it would be all the better for mankind and all the worse for the fishes."

Professor Magendie, the great French physician, whose experiments and teaching are recorded and scattered over the whole globe, addressed the students at the Paris Medical College in the following language: "Gentlemen, medicine is a great humbug. It is nothing like science. Doctors are mere empirics when they are not charlatans. We are ignorant as men can be. I must tell you frankly that I know nothing about medicines. I repeat to you, there is no such thing as medical science. I grant you people are cured, but how? Nature does a great deal, but doctors do devilish little." Think of it; a man so high in the medical profession as Dr. Magendie is acknowledged to be, lecturing in such style to a class!

Dr. James Mason Good, the noted author, says: "The science of medicine is a barbarous jargon, and the effects of our medicines in the highest degree unsatisfactory, except indeed, that they have destroyed more lives than war, pestilence and famine combined." How does this sound to the people who have a mania for swallowing medicine?

Dr. Martin Paine, in his great work, "Institutes of Medicine," page 541, declares: "The most violent poisons are among our best remedies. We do but substitute one morbid action for another." Dr. Payne is authority if there ever was any. He was Professor of Institutes of Medicine and Materia Medica in the University of the City of New York, and member of any number of learned societies in Europe and America.

Dr. Hall, of Hall's Journal of Health, says: "Medicine, even the mildest, is a poison, and effects a result in proportion to its poisonous qualities. It cures by setting up a disease greater than the original which it seeks to cure." Hence the reader can easily see how it is that medicine seems to "cure" the simpler forms of disease, by establishing the more serious ailments, such as heart disease, liver troubles, consumption, kidney disease, dyspepsia, paralysis, spinal trouble, female disorders, and the host of other chronic ailments which are acknowledged incurable by any drugs.

It is the duty of a doctor to ease a man's pains, and quietly slip him out of this life into the Great Beyond.

"Men who are really sick die, and we cannot save them."—

Prof. Frederick R. Marvin, M. D.

"I have no faith whatever in our medicine."—Dr. Bailey.

"Medicine is so far from being a science that it is only conjecture."—Dr. Evans.

"Of the essence of disease very little is known."—Prof. S. H. Gross, M. D.

"Mercury has made more cripples than all wars combined."—Dr. McClintock, M. D.

"The administration of our powerful medicines is the most fruitful source of deranged digestion."—Prof. E. R. Peaslee, M. D.

"So gross is our ignorance of the physiological character of disease that it would be better to do nothing."—Magendie, France.

"The physician mixes, combines and jumbles together vegetable, mineral and animal substances, and administers them right or wrong, without considering for a moment the cause of the disease, and without a single clear idea as to his conduct."—Magendie.

"If the arts of medicine and surgery had never been invented, by far the greater number of those who suffer from bodily illness would have recovered, nevertheless."—Sir Benjamin Brodie, M. D.

Dr. Abernathy, of London, declares: "There has been a great increase of medical men, and, upon my word, diseases have increased accordingly." It is truth, and can be easily understood if the people will only stop swallowing drugs long enough to examine into the matter.

Dr. Martin Pain, the noted professor and medical author, says in his "Institutes of Medicine:" "Remedial agents can never transmute morbid into healthful conditions."

Dr. Franklin says that "nature cures, while the doctor asks the fees."

Another noted physician says that "medicine draws the patient's attention, while nature cuts in and makes the cure."

Dr. Wood, in his "Practice of Medicine," declares in the very first chapter that "we have not yet learned the essential nature of the healthy actions, and cannot, therefore, understand their derangements." I ask, then, How can a man treat successfully that which he does not understand?

Dr. F. L. Oswald says: "Many sicknesses are caused by poisons foisted upon the system under the name of tonic, beverages or remedial drugs; the only cure is to shun the poisons."

Sir Henry Baker, in describing the sufferings of his party while exploring the river Nile, states that he threw away his medicines and substituted nothing but a vapor bath, and after that his men went on their way rejoicing.

Dr. Livingstone gives an account of a similar experience.

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, physician-in-chief and manager of one of the great institutions in America, says: "If a cure is effected, it must be through the wonder-working of nature, and not through the agency of any drug." The same author says: "Medical quackery is by far the most dangerous of any form, yet the most common."

Dr. B. W. Richardson, one of the most noted physicians of Europe, says: "The world, I must confess, would be happier if drugs were unknown."

Dr. Thomas N. Reynolds, Professor of Materia Medica in the Detroit Medical College, in a lecture delivered before the State Medical Society, said: "There is a most extraordinary misconception with regard to the true functions of medicines and medical men. It pervades the educated medical fraternity itself. It is a common thing to see the younger members of our profession attributing to medicines, cures that they never produced. Even the older ones prescribe remedies that serve nothing more than to satisfy the mind of the patient that he is taking medicine, and also to satisfy the doctor that he is "doing something" for the case. . . . This undue credit to the effect of drugs arises from habit. . . . With medical men the hope to hit upon the lucky remedy has, in all ages, led to the adoption of many absurd things, and to excessive dosing. Nothing but hard-learned experience and frequent disappointments will ever convince the young doctor of the worthlessness of drugs. . . . Doctors should be educators rather than physic-mongers."

Such is the testimony of a man at the head of a great medical college.

"All medicines are poisonous."—Prof. S. St. John, M. D.

"What we call medical science is a jumble of inconsistent opinions."—Dublin Medical Journal.

"Nine times out of ten our miscalled remedies are injuries to our patients."—Prof. Jamieson, Scotland.

"Physicians have hurried thousands to their graves who would have recovered if left to nature."—Prof. Clark, New York.

"Every dose of medicine is a blind experiment on the vitality of the patient."—Bostwick's History of Medicines.

"I fearlessly assert that in most cases our patients would be safer without a physician than with one."—Dr. Ramage, F. R. C.

"All our curative agents are poisons, and, as a consequence, every dose diminishes the patient's vitality."—Prof. Clark.

"The vital effects of medicines are very little understood. It is a term employed to cover an ignorance."—Prof. Davis.

"The popular medical system has neither philosophy nor common sense to commend it to confidence."—Dr. Evans, F. C. R., London.

"The drugs which are administered for the cure of scarlet fever, kill far more patients than those diseases do."—Prof. Baker, New York Medical College.

"All our cogitations respecting the modus operandi of medicines are purely empirical."—Prof. Chas. D. Mcigs, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa.

"The reason medicine has advanced so slowly, is because physicians have studied the writings of their predecessors, instead of nature."—Alex. H. Stephens, M. D.

"Ninety-nine out of every hundred medical facts are medical lies, and medical doctrines are, for the most part, stark, staring nonsense."—Prof. Gregory, Edinburgh.

"The modus operandi of medicines is still very obscure. We know that they operate but exactly how they operate is entirely unknown."—Prof. E. H. Davis, M. D., New York Medical College.

"All medicines which enter the circulation poison the blood in the same manner as do the poisons that produce diseases."—Prof. Joseph M. Smith, M. D. New York College of Physicians and Surgeons.

"It is my firm belief that the prevailing mode of practice is productive of vastly more evil than good, and were it absolutely abolished, mankind would be infinitely the gainer."—Dr. Cogswell, Boston.

"What do persons, who call themselves reasonable, do in the midst of a hundred doctors, with a hundred different medicines, each affirming that his own is good, and that all the rest are bad? Do they reject them all? No, they swallow them all."—Dr. Trall.

"Thousands are annually slaughtered in the quiet sick-room."—Prof. Frank, M. D., London.

It is the universal testimony of all experienced physicians, that the people are fanatical and want to be swallowing drugs. At a medical association in Northern Indiana, one of the oldest and most successful doctors present arose, and in a public speech to the other doctors, declared that the older he grew and the more experience he had, the less medicine he gave; and at the close of his speech he strongly intimated that if he continued much longer in the practice he would abandon drugs altogether.

Dr. Kellogg, at the head of the great Medical Sanitarium, says: "The public have been kept in the dark for ages, until they have come to believe that they must, without asking any questions, swallow whatever the doctor prescribes."

Dr. A. H. Stephenson says: "The older physicians grow, the more skeptical they become in the virtues of their own medicines."

I have introduced only a fractional part of the testimony which I have from only the most eminent physicians and medical authors in the world.

"In vain shalt thou use many medicines." Jer. 46: 11.

"Ye are all physicians of no value." Job. 13: 4.

"The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick." Ezek. 34: 4.

"And Asa . . . was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great; yet in his disease he sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers." 2 Chron. 16: 12, 13.

"Is any sick among you, let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up." Jas. 5: 14, 15.

"I am the Lord that healeth thee." Ex. 15: 26.

MRS. MAGGIE E. PARSONS.

A LIVING, lifelong agony of hopeless, crushing pain is the miserable lot of countless thousands of wives and mothers.

The Divine institution of marriage, the crown of true and mutual love, and the glory of a fruitful motherhood, which is God's reward, are all blighted by disease. The term "diseases of women" opens up a very inferno of suffering to those who know, as we do, the terrible misery of thousands upon thousands of heroic sufferers.

We often see several hundreds of women in a day in the Healing Room; and as they tell us one by one of their various afflictions, the tale of their separate and combined woe would seem incredible were we to tell it. We can only pour it out at the feet of Woman's Best Friend, the sinless Son of the Holy, Blessed Virgin Mother—He knows, He cares, and He relieves the suffering woman's grief and pain. Our life would be an intolerable burden of grief in sympathy for womanhood, but for the joy of knowing that there is not a single malady peculiar to her sex which we have not seen Jesus heal. The story can never be told, for the healed number many thousands, and the work goes on in hundreds every week in Zion Tabernacle and the Divine Healing Homes.

But we shall present from time to time typical cases, and we have great joy in presenting the case of "the happiest woman in Madison," according to the Wisconsin State Journal, from which we shall quote more largely later on.

MRS. MAGGIE E. PARSONS, 1014 SRAIGHT STREET, MADISON, WIS

In more than one particular she is like the woman in the thrice-told beautiful Gospel story who "touched the hem of His garment." It was not pleasant for that woman to come forth out of the crowd, and tell her story in the open street. It is little to be wondered at that she came "fearing and trembling" and fell down at Jesus' feet. But "knowing what was done in her," how could she be silent? Therefore, she "declared before all the people for what cause she had touched Him and how she was immediately." She knew nothing; her testimony is full; "she told Him a truth," and feared no one. She saw Jesus only, although a thousand curious eyes and ears were bent upon her, eager to see and hear. How countless millions through the long centuries since then have rejoiced in her faithfulness. What a harvest of blessing has sprung from her testimony. Who shall blame what Christ approved? No Christian dare. And so we rejoice in the courage of this bright and cultured Christian woman, Maggie E. Parsons, who tells her story in the unmistakably clear words which follow. She too has heard the benediction of her Lord.—“Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.” We believe that her telling of this story, first, in the written testimony which she handed to us ere she left our Home, and, second, in the article published in the Wisconsin State Journal, will prove a blessing to tens of thousands of suffering women throughout the world.

Hence we give both without altering or adding a single line, and we append the further testimony of her father and her brother's wife—both highly competent witnesses.

DIVINE HEALING HOME,
6020 EDGERTON AVENUE CHICAGO.
August 18th, 1894.

For five years I have been an invalid, suffering from severe uterine trouble, displacement, adhesion and inflammation, confined to my bed the first year of this time, under constant local treatment. My husband's death in the meantime greatly aggravated the disease and completely prostrated me. After the year's treatment I became better, and was able to leave my bed for a few months. The old trouble returned and I was again confined to my bed for some time. In this manner I continued up and down, never free from pain however, for a year or more. Finally Dr. Dudley of St. Luke's Hospital was called and pronounced me a nervous wreck, and advised me to be immediately sent to a "Rest Cure." Shortly afterwards I went to the Battle Creek Sanatorium where I remained six months under the care of Dr. J. H. Kellogg, who said my case was one of peculiar interest, being so complicated. I received daily painful local treatment during the entire six months. After returning home I suffered with stomach trouble, "reflex action," and for nearly two months was allowed no food with the exception of rumysgin. My stomach trouble was relieved, but the uterine trouble rapidly grew worse. A physician of much skill was called and a most thorough examination was made under the influence of chloroform by two physicians, both afterwards telling me hysterotomy was the only hope for any health. While under the anesthetic the uterus was curetted. Severe inflammation followed, confining me to my bed for six months, the inflammation was so severe that the physicians could not use instruments, but held the uterus in position from half an hour to an hour each treatment and afterwards making a mull of medicated wool tampons, over fifty dollars of the same wool being used. I would have sinking spells often and frequently verged on unconsciousness, having to be restored with stimulants. Nothing could be done but to bridge me over until an operation could be performed. After my physicians left for Germany in April last, I was placed under the care of a magnetic healer of many years experience, who promised to accept no pay if at the end of one month's treatment I was not greatly improved. At the end of five weeks the assertion was made that I was more prostrated, vitality lower than ever, and that the surgeon's knife alone could cure me, and unless that quick, Maggie Parsons was not long for this earth. Soon after I decided to go to the Divine Healing Home and see Dr. Dowie, though wondering at the same time, why God could not answer my own prayers in my own room? But one clasp of this good man's hand, one look into his face, and I knew I was indeed in the presence of God's servant, and that through him would I not only receive this physical blessing, but spiritual blessing. I arrived at the Home on Tuesday the twelfth of June. On Friday the Doctor and Mrs. Dowie visited me in my room. After a few moments of conversation, the Doctor laid hands upon me and prayed the prayer of faith, and I was free from all pain, and made whole from the very hour. Nine weeks have passed, and no return of pain. The chain with which the devil had bound me many years, has been severed. Though perfectly healed, I must yet become strong, as the withered hand became whole. This new life belongs to the Lord, and in His service will I endeavor to use it, not letting the beautiful teachings of Dr. Dowie fall upon stony ground; and upon him will I ever pray that Heaven's choicest blessing may rest.

MARGUERITE E. PARSONS.

The following letter is from the father of Mrs. Parsons:

MADISON, WISCONSIN, August 26, 1894.

MY DEAR DR. DOWIE: Permit me most sincerely and heartily to thank you and your dear good wife, for the considerate kindness extended to my daughter, Mrs. Parsons, during her nine week's stay at your Divine Healing Home in Chicago. After five long and weary years of invalidism, and doctoring, she came to your Home diseased and afflicted in body, and downcast in mind, and I thank God He has through you as His instrument, healed and restored her to a healthful condition of both body and mind, giving her a clearer and stronger faith in God, and realization of her duty to Him, to herself and family, and to her fellow-man. So again, I say, we all feel thankful for what the Spirit of God, through you, has accomplished for her, and may the Spirit of Christ, in all of His fullness of wisdom, goodness and power, guide, support and keep you, and continue you, a mighty power in His hands for great good. This is and shall be the prayer of my heart. Thankfully remaining, most sincerely yours.

H. SNELL.

The following is from a letter addressed to us by Mrs. Nannie W. Snell the sister-in-law of Mrs. Parsons:—

MADISON, WIS. Sept. 16th, 1894.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE,

Dear Doctor:—We as a family have received a great blessing through you and it is surely a great privilege and blessing to know of you, and your wonderful good works.

The restoration to health of my sister-in-law, Mrs. Parsons, is marvelous. It is a change physical, mental and spiritual, therefore a threefold blessing to her and also to her friends. She is like one resurrected.

I have read your LEAVES OF HEALING, given me by Mrs. Parsons, and I will subscribe. I read every word and believe it all. It will be the means of comfort, strength and new light to me.

Thanking God for knowing of you and thanking Him again that you are able to so relieve and brighten the lives of suffering ones, and praying that you may be strengthened and sustained in this glorious work to bless many more.

I am sincerely yours,

NANNIE W. SNELL, 1023 Jenifer St.

The following article appeared in the Wisconsin State Journal, published in Madison, Wisconsin, on August 29th 1894, two weeks after her return to her home in that city:—

REMARKABLE HEALING.

UNDER THE INSTRUMENTALITY OF REV. JOHN ALEX.
DOWIE, OF CHICAGO, AS RELATED BY MRS.

MAGGIE E. PARSONS.

At the home of H. Snell, 1014 Spaight street, overlooking beautiful Lake Monona, is perhaps the happiest woman in Madison. She is Mrs. Maggie E. Parsons, a medium sized lady of about 30—a guess—for five years an invalid, but now rejoicing in health. During this time twice only has she been a mile distant from her home, and that by carriage, and for two years has not crossed the street. Now she comes and goes with freedom. "I feel like a stranger in my native city," she said. A State Journal representative called on Mrs. Parsons. With her father she met him in the parlor, and the lady told her experience and said:

For the past five years I have been an invalid, the first year of the time being confined to my bed under the care of one of Madison's ablest physicians. My husband's death in the meantime aggravated my condition, causing complete nervous prostration. For three years,—though I had constant and skillful care—I made no permanent improvement and was advised by Dr. Dudley, of St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, to go to a rest cure. After some consideration, however, I decided to go to the Battle Creek Sanitarium, where I remained six months, a patient of the celebrated surgeon and physician Dr. J. H. Kellogg, from whom I received much personal attention. After diagnosing my case he pronounced it a complicated one of considerable interest. Making little or no improvement I returned home, though with regret at being so little credit to Dr. Kellogg and his institution. My condition gradually became more serious and for several months I was again confined to my bed, suffering, at times, great pain. Two of Madison's most skillful surgeons were soon agreed that all medical skill had been exhausted and nothing remained but surgery. I consented to abide by their decision, but proposed to wait until their return from Germany. Shortly after I had become reconciled to this decision there appeared in the Chicago Inter Ocean an article on "Divine Healing," which attracted the attention of my family, and, though almost a doubting Thomas, I concluded to visit Dr. Dowie, through whom these healings had been received. I arrived at the Divine Healing Home Tuesday, June 12; met the doctor, a grand, good man. All doubts vanished, and I felt that I was indeed in the presence of one of God's agents and that through him I was to receive the blessing of health. Three days later, in company with Mrs. Dowie, he visited my room, and after a few moments' conversation prayed the prayer of faith, and, like the woman in scripture, I was made whole from the very hour. Nine weeks have passed and no return of pain, though going up and down two flights of stairs many times every day.

Sufficiently well to return to Madison, I still remained a guest in the Home, where not only a heavenly atmosphere prevails, but it is a most delightful place to rest. Everything is provided for your comfort. The house is handsomely furnished and the food is of the most nourishing quality, the best the market affords, and served in a most tempting manner. No one would guess the smiling, happy faces gathered around the long, daintily spread table (Dr. Dowie presiding at one end, Mrs. Dowie at the other) to be invalids. But best of it all is to listen to the Doctor every morning as he expounds the Bible. He is a scholarly man and his teachings are listened to with rapt attention. He certainly is a man of God, and that God uses him no one can doubt. I have been an eye-witness to many wonderful healings. The little boy Willie Esser, mentioned in the Inter Ocean, I have seen walk as rapidly as any other boy and held in my hand the cruel steel brace which he had worn night and day for six years; also heard his mother testify how he had suffered, and how sixteen different physicians had not been able to relieve him."

"Thursday of each week Dr. and Mrs. Dowie devote entirely to children at the Tabernacle, where hundreds of many nationalities, with all forms of disease—blind, deaf, dumb, idiotic and crippled—are gathered. A look at the various braces, crutches, plaster casts, high-heeled shoes, etc., given to the doctor, is proof that many are healed and that divine healing through childlike faith by prayer to God is a fact and not a myth. Nineteen centuries ago Christ gave his disciples power to heal all manner of sickness and disease. Why not today? He is just the same yesterday, today and forever. Money offered for healing is refused. It is without money and without price. Free will offerings, however, from the mite to the thousands, for the development and extension of the Lord's work are thankfully received."

Mrs. Parsons states, "There are seldom less than fifty or sixty guests at the Divine Healing Home, and often many more (and scores of applications for rooms), representing nearly every state in the union. Hundreds of all classes, rich and poor, of all nationalities, attend the tabernacle meetings held several times each week. After each service large numbers of the sick are seen by Dr. and Mrs. Dowie in the prayer room, and many remarkable healings have been here received through the prayer of faith, many of them instantaneous and many progressive, Dr. Dowie claiming to be only an instrument in God's hands. If all are not healed, who can say the proper conditions are met? At one tabernacle meeting seventy-three arose in testimony of having been healed. Mr. Snell spent a week at the Home and was strongly impressed by what he saw and heard, and says the teachings have no other foundation than Christ.

"Photographs of the doctor show a strong face of middle age. That of Mrs. Dowie is sweet and intellectual. Dr. Dowie was born in Edinburgh, Scotland. In addition to his teaching, preaching, and praying with the sick daily, many times far into the night, scores of letters and telegrams are daily received beseeching him, 'Pray for me.'"

This article, and the preceding letters, afford the most convincing confirmation of Mrs. Parson's testimony; and, what is more, the most cheering evidence that the spiritual blessing which accompanied the healing is being exercised for the glory of God and the good of others. We already know of many in Madison and in other places who have been led to seek and find in Christ the blessing which she received. May this account of the gracious work God hath wrought inspire fresh hope, revive drooping faith, and increase the courage of every trembling sufferer to press forward and seek the blessing of a perfect cleansing from Him who is the "Fountain opened for sin and for all uncleanness." The Hand of the Healer is waiting to bless. He is just the same to-day. Who will say, Lord touch me?

"The healing of Thy seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Thee in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

"Faith Cometh by Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God."

You are heartily invited to attend and hear for yourself.

DIVINE HEALING THE ANTIDOTE TO CHRISTIAN SCIENCE, FALSELY SO-CALLED.

THE warning of the Apostle Paul (1 Timothy 6:20) is as much needed to-day as it was in A. D. 65. Addressed to the Christians of this age, and especially to the Christian teacher, it is an exhortation which should be heard and obeyed by every true follower of Christ, "Keep (or guard) that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings and Oppositions of Science, falsely so-called, which some professing have erred (missed the mark) concerning the faith."

As many of our readers know, we are accustomed to speak in our missions very plainly concerning this antichristian imposture, and we are thankful that the Lord has used our protest and exposure of its wickedness. We intend to devote some attention to this subject in future issues, but meanwhile can only express our extreme astonishment that any Christian person could ever be led astray by that which is so manifestly neither Christian nor scientific. The blasphemous character of this system only needs to be known to insure its repudiation by all true Christians.

It has pleased the Lord to use us, when on the Pacific Coast, in the restoration to Himself of one who had become a Christian Scientist practitioner. She surrendered to us her certificate, or diploma, and placed in our hands a copy of a letter to the wicked man who granted it in Chicago. The certificate is as follows:—

that

MRS. E. J. T.

Has received from me a course of instruction in the PRINCIPLES OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE,

as taught by Mrs. Eddy, in her book entitled "Science and Health," and at present date we see no reason why she is not able to demonstrate the same in the cure of sin and sickness, and the various forms of moral evil.

(Signed) JOSEPH ADAMS.

Normal Class Graduate of the Massachusetts Metaphysical College, Boston.

Chicago April, 1888.

Surely the awful blasphemy of this diploma needs no comment to prove its wickedness, but it certainly calls for strong denunciation that any living man should be so daring as to issue a certificate declaring to the world that another mortal being is now licensed to cure sin, sickness, and moral evil. The very first principles of true Christianity require a true Christian to believe that none but Christ can "Be of sin the double cure, Cleansing from its guilt and power."

A fearful reckoning indeed have these "enemies of the Cross of Christ," who take His Name in vain, and dare to call their diabolical science by it.

The lady who surrendered to us the diploma of which the above is an exact copy, writing to us under date of July 3, 1889, says:—

"DEAR MR. DOWIE: Words fail me when I attempt to thank you for your timely visit. God has led me to see my sin. I have asked Him to forgive and blot out all, and I believe He has accepted my prayer. I did not think I had any public duty to discharge in this matter, but I now think I have. I shall write to Mr. Adams and send him the diploma he gave me. You can but little understand my feelings this day, feeling that I have been the cause of putting my darling child, and so many others, into so great a darkness."

Our sister subsequently determined to send to me the original diploma, and to write to Mr. Joseph Adams, requesting him to strike her name from the roll of his graduates. She sent to us a copy of her letter to Mr. Adams, which is dated July 7, from which we take the following extracts:—

“MR. JOSEPH ADAMS—Dear Sir: Doubtless you will remember almost the last words you said to me were ‘There must be something holding your daughter.’ God has led me to see that the ‘thing’ which is holding her is Christian Science. Would to God I had never allowed myself and her to have gone into the abominable teaching. Most of my daughter’s ravings are of Mrs. Eddy’s books and you and your teachings. God has shown me that to deny there is no sin, sickness nor death in the world is a falsehood, and to deny that Christ came to save sinners is the greatest of all sins. May God in His wisdom show you, as He has me, this great sin. . . . I wish you to strike off my name from those to whom you have given diplomas, that I may no longer be classed as belonging to the Christian Science people.

“Respectfully yours, MRS. E. J. T.

We have also received from the son of this sister a letter, in which he says:—

“My dear mother now says that if she had only known the beauties of Divine Healing before, how much happier she would be. She feels that she cannot say too much against Christian Science.”

We are grateful to the Lord for this testimony to the truth of His word, and believe that the true antidote for Christian Science, falsely so-called, is the setting forth of Jesus as the Healer of His people. It is because the church of God has neglected to present Him as such, that these false and anti-christian systems of modern Spiritualism, Christian Science, Mind Healing, Theosophy, and all their miserable progeny abound.

We earnestly pray that the example above referred to may be followed by many who have “erred concerning the faith” in this matter. It is one of the signs of the latter days (see 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2) “that some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, branded in their own consciences as with a hot iron;” but it is also a sign of the times that, whilst evil men, “like Jannes and Jambres who withstood Moses, resist the truth,” they show themselves to all the world to be “men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.” May the prophecy of Paul concerning such be speedily fulfilled. “They shall proceed no further, for their folly shall be evident unto all men as theirs also came to be.” (2 Timothy 3: 8, 9).

One of our earnest aspirations is, that God would use us mightily in this land to the pulling down of this stronghold of sin and Satan, for we are persuaded that this “opposition of science,” falsely called “Christian,” must be met and smitten in the Name of the Lord, with “the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.” When our brethren in the ministry preach fully and faithfully that Jesus is the Healer of all who believe, their teaching will be abundantly confirmed in the happy experience of all who hear this glad gospel; for, as of old, God will bear them witness, (Hebrews 2: 4), “both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers and by gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to His own will.” The contemptible emptiness of all these boasted philosophies and sciences will collapse like air bubbles when pricked by the point of the Divine Sword, but no other weapon will avail. We have no sympathy whatever with the appeal which is often made to us to be tender with Christian Science, for we hold it to be a diabolical delusion, in chasing which, many have leaped over a flowery precipice into unutterable depths of sin, and doubt, and despair. It is no kindness to our fellow-men, and no mark of loyalty to Christ, to speak or write tenderly concerning that which is destroying many.

As we have said in an earlier part of this brief article, it is our intention to return to this subject and prove more fully the anti-christian character of this diabolical science.

OUR SALVATION MESSAGE.

He Was Lost and Is Found.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

THE beautiful story from which these words are taken as been truly called “the Crown and Pearl of Jesus’ parables.” It touches the chords of all hearts, and tells to every age the story of our Eternal Father’s love for every wanderer and prodigal who returns with repentance from the “far country” of darkness, despair, and death. No angry reproaches, no reluctant forgiveness, meets the heart-broken penitent when he seeks his Father’s face and humbly asks to be allowed the meanest servant’s place. The tears of joy and the kiss of love and peace are followed by the command, “Bring forth quickly the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.” Luke 15:11-24.

Twenty years ago I stood near the corner of a central street in Sydney, Australia, late at night. My heart was filled with pity and love for the crowds of young men who were going in and out of a gaily-decorated and brightly-lighted public-house. Laughter and curses, snatches of songs, and coarse, filthy conversation, amidst the foul atmosphere of filthy tobacco smoke and the fumes of alcohol, greeted my senses, with their disgusting repulsiveness. Here, indeed, were the prodigals “wasting their substance with riotous living.” Here were the swine troughs indeed, and the stinking husks of sin, with which these foolish ones were vainly trying to satisfy the quenchless thirst of their fiery passions. “O God can I not rescue one?” I cried in my unspoken agony, as I looked upon the scene. Standing in the shadow of a large building, a bank, I could see the faces of those who stood in the glare of the light streaming forth from the windows and door of that house of death. Presently, I saw a miserable-looking man stand and look at its doors, on whose face there was an inexpressible look of speechless anguish and despair. He passed on, and passed me, looking furtively at me as he did so. I prayed once more, “O Eternal Father, help me to rescue one;” and I felt that moment that my prayer would be answered. Again and again the man passed and re-passed me, and again and again I asked the Good Shepherd to show me how to win this outcast, wandering sheep. Suddenly he stopped, and said in a voice broken with emotion, “Oh, sir, for God’s sake give me a shilling; for I am starving and dying.” A few kindly-put questions, and I got his story, in part at least. Here was the youngest son of one of Scotland’s greatest men, whose father lay at that moment dead in Edinburgh; for a cablegram in the previous day’s Morning Herald had announced his death. But from those now cold and silent lips, the last prayer of the dying Christian hero had been, “O my Father, save my poor wandering boy—O my Saviour, bring my son into thy fold—oh, save John, save John!” And now the widow bends her knee, and honored sons and daughters join her in prayer—“Oh, save John!” And away from that chamber of grief, away up to the throne of Eternal Love, the petitions wing their way. And this is the answer! Down into my poor heart, the Spirit pours the pity and the love, which has led me to be here at this moment, nearly at the midnight hour; and here the wanderer stands, a broken-hearted, weeping penitent, while he cries, “Oh, my father is lying dead yonder in Edinburgh, and I have killed him; for my sin has broken his heart.” “Surely God is good;” yea, He is, for “God is love.” His love is breaking up this poor, friendless, ragged, dirty, hungry, despairing prodigal, who had gone far away from home, and plunged deeply into sin. And, let me tell the sequel in a few words, although it was weeks and months before I could be sure of the issue—“He was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.” I have before me, as I write these lines, his mother's letter of thanks to me, his brother's also, an eminent Scotch professor; and upon a memorial volume of his father's life, I read that widowed mother's inscription of gratitude, dated "Edinburgh, July 29th, 1874." I never personally knew that good and great man in the flesh; but as I turn over the pages which he wrote, I find these words:—

"What a spirit-stirring thought is this! One sowing, and another reaping; and both rejoicing together! What an animating prospect! To meet in the realms above, and take sweet counsel on what we have together done for the glory of God and the good of souls!" It is indeed a glorious prospect, and one for which earth and time and man can offer nothing so precious. How blessed for us to meet in "the happy home above," and rejoice together in the fact that, almost ere his spirit had reached the city of God, his prayer was answered, and the wanderer brought back.

This story has some important lessons for many classes of my kind readers.

Christian fathers and mothers, it teaches you never to despair of the salvation of your unconverted children. It may be that it will only be your last parting breath's prayer that will be followed by their conversation. Alas! alas! for them, if it be so; for what shall be their anguish then, as they look upon their long-despised father's or mother's calm face, as their bodies lie all still and cold and silent? But, godly parents, be of good cheer. "For the promise is unto you, and to your children and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Acts 2:39. Claim "the promise," believe "the promise," plead "the promise," never give it up, and, like the man of God of whom I have told you, the gracious answer will be sent.

Prodigal sons and daughters, it teaches you that the way of transgressors is hard. Bitter are the sorrows of the sinner who seeks for satisfaction in sin. As well might you try to quench your thirst by drinking the waters of the salt sea.

Despairing sinner, it brings you hope. The same God who pities and saved John C. is able and willing to save thee; for Jesus died for thee.

"Tenderly the Shepherd,
O'er the mountain cold,
Goes to bring his lost one
Back to the fold.

"Seeking to save,
Seeking to save,
Lost one, 'tis Jesus
Seeking to save.

"Lovingly the Father
Sends the news around I
He once dead now liveth—
Once lost is found."

WATCHMAN, WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

"WATCHMAN, what of the night?" Those who stand on the watch-towers of Zion can only reply to this cry, "The morning cometh, and the night also." A deeper night seems to be settling on those who, especially in lands where the gospel has long been preached, are living in deeper than heathen darkness.

"THE NIGHT COMETH!"

An intenser darkness seems to veil the minds of those who hate The Light, who reject The Christ. It is not only that in deep depths of immorality multitudes are perishing through gross vice of every form, but upon millions who affect an elevated morality and intellectuality, a spiritual darkness is settling which seems to shut out all that is pure and holy. Modern Spiritualism in its new form mis-called Theosophy, with its blighting, withering curse, is especially spreading over the homes of multitudes. Its twin sister, that antichristian imposture, falsely called Christian Science, is a "destruction which smites at noonday," whilst Spiritualism is a "pestilence which walketh in darkness." Joining hands in their denial of the existence of sin, sickness and death, and laughing with the mockery of an affected intellectual superiority at the existence of Satan, these seductive daughters of Sin and Satan are leading multitudes into an awful night of spiritual death.

We are appalled at the spectacle which is revealed by our ministry, closely as that brings us into the confidence of thousands, and enabling us, as it does, to see how dire is the calamity that has come upon the American people, especially through these two foul offsprings of that old serpent, the devil. "As Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so also do these." Men and women corrupt in minds and destitute of the truth, "supposing that gain is godliness," mercenary in their real aims, and with an affected moral elevation in their claims, produce, as might be expected, by the aid of unclean spirits, counterfeit healings which lead their victims into yet deeper perdition.

The night has come, YET THE MORNING COMETH. We witness that, as we have passed throughout the United States and Canada, the beautiful message of a perfect redemption for spirit, soul and body has come as an evangel of great joy to thousands of God's fainting children. Despite the fierce hatred of modern Pharisees who shut their eyes and close their ears and harden their hearts and will not be converted that Christ might heal them, thousands of the sheep of the Saviour's pasture have come into the beautiful light of a perfect salvation. The Sun of Righteousness has arisen "with healing in His wings" upon many who, prostrate with grief and pain, bound in Satan's chain and deceived by him, had hugged it to their hearts and blessed God as the Giver of their sorrows. Light has come to these that have been sitting "in darkness and in the shadow of death," and the testimony which has continuously gone forth from hundreds who have been loosed from their bonds of sickness and of sorrow is confirming the Word which tells the people of God that Jesus is the Saviour, the Healer, the Cleanser, the Defender, the Keeper of His people.

"THE MORNING COMETH!"

From all parts of the world the witnesses are arising as the breath of the Spirit of Life is breathing this evangel of "Saving Health" upon the nations of the earth. From North to South, from East to West, and back again from shore to shore, the cry is rising, "Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases." Written by the Imperishable Finger of God in the wondrous book of the Revelation of His Love, His children are delighting to trace His covenant names, and while with unabated joy they still exalt Him as "The Lord our Righteousness" (Jehovah-Tsidkenu), they are rejoicing also to know that he is still "The Lord our Healer" (Jehovah-Rophi).

Our hearts are elated with gratitude that in our six years of ministry in this country, tens of thousands have hailed the coming of the morning, and lifting up their heads from weary beds of pain, multitudes are hearing the glad song which says, "Lift up your heads, for redemption draweth nigh." "The redemption of the body," as well as of the soul and spirit, is being seen now more clearly to be the blessed will of a perfect Redeemer, who has wrought for His people a perfect redemption.

We greet our readers with the salutation.

CHRIST IS RISEN, CHRIST IS REIGNING, CHRIST IS BLESSING, CHRIST IS COMING;

and, more than all, we say, Beloved in Christ, believe it in all its glorious fullness that CHRIST IS ALL. May there be a Divine joy wherever this message comes. Some feeble hand may lift these pages and read them on a bed of pain. To such an one let this Word come, and this song ring forth again and again, "JESUS CHRIST MAKETH THEE WHOLE;" for it is true to-day, as nineteen centuries ago, that—

"The healing of his seamless dress
Is by beds all of pain.
We touch Him 'midst life's throng and press,
And we are whole again!"

Salvation, Healing and Holiness, are going forth to all the ends of the earth.

OUR TEMPERANCE MESSAGE.

At The Last.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX DOWIE.

WELL, say what you like, I enjoy a good glass of wine; it never hurts me, and I do not believe ever will." So spoke a young man, at an evening party, a few years ago. "Poison! they call it poison," continued the young wine drinker, "well, at any rate, it is remarkably pleasant poison, and I like it." Laughingly saying these words, he filled up his glass with the ruby red wine, and after admiring its color, as he held it up to the light, he quaffed it with a look of intense satisfaction. Years rolled on. He continued to praise and drink wine. Gradually his fine genius became clouded, his clear eye was bleared, his once strong frame was weakened and then, utterly wrecked, his name was stained with deeds of dishonor, and he fled, a ruined and degraded man, far away from the friends whom he had wronged, and a broken-hearted wife and children whom he had well nigh starved and killed in his drunken madness. One day I received a letter from him, written from a prison, beseeching me to visit him. I did, but at first I could not recognize him until he spoke, so changed and aged did he, though young, appear. "What brought you here?" I said. "Wine," he answered. And so it was. He came out of prison, he reformed for a time, but again he fell, and fell to rise no more. His body lies in a dishonored drunkard's grave, and his wasted life has ended. Not long ago, I stood beside that grave. And as I looked upon it, I seemed to hear him say, "I like it, 'tis a pleasant poison," as he laughingly quaffed the red wine that night long ago. Then in that gloomy prison I seemed to hear him, a worn-out, dying man in a prisoner's garb, say, "Wine, accursed wine, brought me here!" And then, in the silence, whilst I stood lost in sad thought, there seemed to come a voice from the blue heavens above me, saying, "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red. . . . AT THE LAST it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."—Proverbs 23: 31.

Yes, AT THE LAST, it is always so. But still they drink and say, "'tis a pleasant poison," until, as if stung by a death adder, they who drink it die. Oh, what madness, to nurse such a serpent in one's bosom. What folly to destroy every joy that earth can contain, for pain and agonies, compared to which the most cruel tortures man can inflict are as nothing.

Permit me, kind reader, to press upon thine attention the words inspired by God, which bid thee remember that awful doom which, "at the last," awaits all who trifle with the serpents and adders which lurk in the wine cup.

Do not think that thou art safe, though others may fall. None are safe who drink wine at all. Since the days when righteous Noah, the faithful one amidst a faithless world, "drank of the wine and was drunken," and so fell into awful sin, until these days in which we live, there are none who can drink and be safe. History is full of illustrations of that fact.

Alexander the Great, who conquered well nigh all the countries of which he then knew, was himself conquered by wine, and died through the effects of two nights' indulgence—and thus, "at the last," wine triumphed over and destroyed the man who had conquered the mightiest nations. Belshazzar's kingdom fell, and he was slain on the evening of a feast of wine, as the Scriptures record. And thus it has been with the greatest empires in every period of time. None who drink are safe. Neither age nor talents, nor experience, nor high position, nor sacred offices, afford protection to those who drink the intoxicating cup; for "the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink, they err in vision, they stumble in judgment." (Isaiah 38: 7). And, who art thou who drinkest, and yet sayest, "I am safe!" God has told thee, "Wine is a mocker;" see thou to it that it no longer mocks thee. Oh, how it has mocked and is mocking poor humanity.

I knew a minister, eloquent and beloved, who was smilingly led along by this fiend named wine, until, "at the last," it hurled him from his pulpit, down, down, down into the depths of sin and poverty, and then mockingly crushed the life out of his dishonored body, amidst a scene of vice and horror. And yet, when he first looked upon the wine, he vainly imagined this serpent's poison of hell's brewing was a "good creature of God."

I knew a mother who drank wine; but it mocked her, and maddened her, and in her madness she drowned herself "at the last." Her seven children live, but the awful memory of their self-destroyed mother clings to them by day, haunts their dreams by night, and a cruel world stamps the stain of her crime upon their names. Three of them are following hard upon her path. And yet she never thought, when she first drank, that "at the last" she would fill a drunkard's grave.

I knew a clever young mechanic who drank the mocker's cup, and now, "at the last," he is a hopeless lunatic, mocked by endless fears and hopes, and spends his days, and months, and years in bondage, amidst a crowd of idiots and mocking maniacs, when, but for "wine," he would have been, in all probability, happy, prosperous, and useful.

Listen to the words, of one of England's greatest geniuses, who died a drunkard, and then see how, "at the last," wine makes the deepest and most hopeless woe. Elia (Charles Lamb) writes:—"Of my condition there is no hope that I should ever change; the waters have gone over me; but out of the black depths could I be heard, I would cry aloud to all those that have set a foot in that perilous flood. Could the youth to whom the flavour of his first wine is as delicious as the opening scenes of life, or the entry upon some newly discovered paradise, look into my desolation, and be made to understand what a dreary thing it is, when a man shall feel himself going down a precipice with open eyes and a passive will,—to see his destruction and have no power to stop it and yet to feel it all the way emanating from himself; to perceive all goodness emptied out of him, and yet not able to forget a time when it was otherwise; to bear about the piteous spectacle of his own ruin. Could he see my fevered eye feverish with the last night's drinking, and feverish looking forward to this night's repetition of the folly; could he feel the body of death out of which I cry hourly, with feebler and feebler outcry, to be delivered,—it were enough to make him dash the sparkling beverage to the earth in all the pride of its mantling temptation."

"AT THE LAST IT BITETH LIKE A SERPENT AND STINGETH LIKE AN ADDER."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

AGAIN we greet our readers with great delight and thanksgiving. The week has opened with "showers of blessing." On the first day alone, more than 600 persons responded to God's Call to Repentance, openly confessing and forsaking their sins and professing their faith in Christ. The interest of the crowds which thronged Zion Tabernacle was intense, and we never realized more joy in preaching the Everlasting Gospel. The afternoon service continued for three hours, and many stood in and around the building during the whole of that time. Our hearts are filled with gratitude and praise to God.

"We will triumph in thy salvation,
And in the name of our God
We will set up our Banners.
Save, Lord:
Let the King answer us when we call."

OUR last Tuesday's afternoon meeting was one of great power. First, in the Holy Spirit convincing of sin and leading to repentance. Over 400 made open confession in prayer, and surrendered themselves to God in spirit, soul, and body. Second, "the power of the Lord was present to heal," and of the hundreds who entered the Healing Room at the close of the service, a large number went away professing to have received healing.

Two of these cases were of special interest: for they had been laid out at our feet in front of the platform on cots, and remained there throughout the entire service. This is a scene of frequent occurrence in Zion Tabernacle, as many as six or eight such cases of helpless invalids, lie on beds around the platform, or in reclining invalid chairs. The first of the two cases to which we now refer, was that of a young woman afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, brought in a carriage on a feather bed, from the north side of the city. Within five minutes of her being brought into the Healing Room, she walked out and stepped into her carriage, without assistance, and without a particle of fever or pain.

We simply walked by her side, and made way for her through the eager crowd of many hundreds who had seen her carried in. Her widowed mother and sister were filled with joy and gratitude to God, and hundreds wept and glorified God, who had wrought the mighty deed through faith in His Son, by the power of the Spirit.

THE second was that of a brother from Indiana, who for a number of years had been bed-ridden by spinal and other diseases. He had been three weeks in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is next door to the Tabernacle, and has often been carried in and out without experiencing any change.

But "The power of the Lord" which had been manifested before his eyes in the preceding case, greatly quickened his faith, and in a few minutes he too walked forth healed in the presence of all, to the intense joy of a devoted wife, and of our sympathetic household. That evening "he sat at meat" with them, and there was "great joy" in that Home. There was also "joy in the presence of the angels," joy in the Happy Home above.

THREE days later, on Friday, the date of this issue, we had the joy of seeing both the foregoing persons in Zion Tabernacle. The young woman, with her mother, gave public testimony to her healing, and sat, without difficulty, on a hard, wooden seated chair throughout the long service. The brother walked freely about our Healing Room, and is doing well.

CROWDS attended on Children's Day (Thursday) and today, Friday. Amongst the healing of the children were many instantaneous manifestations of Divine Love and Power. One of these was the restoration to sight of the right eye of a boy who had been blind in it for six years, the result of being accidentally shot by a companion.

Another, a girl, who was led to Zion Tabernacle, blind, on July 12th last, attended with her mother who said she was now going to school. We tested her sight and found it good.

Both of these are expected to testify at the Praise and Testimony meeting next Lord's Day.

THE week now closing has seen more than 1,500 persons stand up at the close of our meetings, and seek the mercy of God in earnest, penitential prayer. We are greatly encouraged, and such results compensate for our unremitting toil.

We lay our trophies down at Jesus' feet, and "Crown Him Lord of all." Brethren, "Let us exalt His Name together."

IN Divine Healing Home No. 1, we had another very remarkable, instantaneous, and apparently perfect, healing last Saturday afternoon. We had gathered the guests in both Homes together in the Assembly Room at 4 P. M. for teaching, prayer, and the laying on of hands. Amongst those present was a lady physician from Kansas City, Kansas, who had arrived the previous night. She was very ill and had been in bed nearly all the day, and only left it to come into the "gathering" in the Home.

After instruction, and a common supplication, we proceeded to pray with each one separately, as is our custom.

When we came to her she received so powerful a manifestation of the Holy Spirit's power through her body that she exclaimed in a quiet undertone, "Oh, I am healed." Immediately the meeting closed she told openly of her conscious deliverance. Throughout the day following, Lord's Day, and on Monday, she continued to realize ever-increasing strength, and on Tuesday afternoon before leaving for her home, we gave her an opportunity to speak before a large audience in Zion Tabernacle. Her testimony was vigorous, clear, and thoroughly complete at every point, and her manner and apparent physical strength, made a deep impression. She left a written testimony, which is as follows:—

DIVINE HEALING HOME No. 2,
CHICAGO, Sept. 25th, 1894.

DEAR DR. DOWIE:

I am glad to testify to the healing of my body by the Lord through your prayers.

In the summer we first learned that I had diabetes insipidus. I took medicine but did not take proper care of myself. According to medical rules, I should have given up all sweets, acute acids, and starchy food. I did not. I took medicine. Through the duties pressing upon me I neglected myself in many ways. In the fall of 1892 I found myself growing worse. Then I began with renewed energy to take medicine. Soon grew careless. During the summer, fall and winter of 1893 I felt I was going down very rapidly, also that the medicine did not seem to do for me what it had. In April 1894, the urine was 1054 specific gravity, and I was passing from 200 to 300 grains of sugar. Then the physician told me he would not insure my life for eighteen months, yet I might live two years. I felt that man's power was useless, and unless God did the work it could not be done. In August I learned definitely of Dr. Dowie's Divine Healing Home. I at once resolved to come. On Friday, September 21st, I arrived here, not able to sit up all day. On Saturday A. M., I was on the bed more than half the time, and felt so badly I could hardly walk two blocks to Divine Healing Home No. 1, where between 4 and 5 P. M. I was healed in answer to his prayer. On Sunday, September 23rd, I attended three services in Zion Tabernacle. On September 24th, I walked sixty blocks in the city of Chicago.

I also have, since last March, suffered exceedingly from the piles, and the physicians said they must be removed. The day I arrived here I was suffering intensely from them. That affliction also is entirely gone. After the long walk I took I did not realize one particle of inconvenience from them.

Being a physician myself I know just what I am talking about. God be praised. I know that I am healed.

MRS. HAS CLARK.

IN our last week's notes we declared ourselves more hopeful of the M. D.s receiving God's Way of Healing than of the D. D.s. Now let the D. D.s hurry up, or else the people will be calling for converted M. D.s to fill their places. More so-called "impossible" things have happened. God once put aside priests and philosophers, and placed fishermen and tax-gatherers in the highest offices in his Church. He can do it again.

OUR MAIL BAG contains many testimonies this week from many who have been blessed by God through our agency.

Some of the conversions are indeed miracles of grace. A president of a Coal and Mining Company in a neighboring state writes under date of September 23rd:—"I wish to say that you are the man who has taught me and shown me to repent. I thank God for it, and ask Him to bless you. I was a wicked sinner when I heard you for the first time at the Central Music Hall, Chicago. I was low, dirty, degraded and a man of wickedness—and still thought I was a Christian. I had been going down step by step . . . and was a wreck. Then by the mercy of God I was led to Chicago to you, and you taught me in three hours more than I had known in all my life. I always wanted to be good, but when the Tempter came, I always threw up my hands, and gave in to all vice."

I have now overcome, and have learned that prayer is a powerful weapon. I am still very weak, but pray to become stronger."

BUT it is not only Salvation that has come to this once degraded brother. He has found Healing in Christ also, and knows how to pray the prayer of faith for himself.

He says:—"One thing I can say, one prayer relieved me of something for which I took medicine since I was 13 years old, and which I had been afflicted with from my eighth year—that was constipation. For three months before you prayed for me I took one very large pill every night on retiring. I thank God I do not need to do that any more. Glory be to God one prayer cured it all." Other passages in the letter show that he has learned how to pray for himself, and get the answer.

How many there are who now say, with the writer quoted above, "I thought I was a Christian." Here again is another letter from our MAIL BAG, the writer of which tells us that she is "a poor, old German widow." She says:—

"I am glad to let you know how your preaching did me wonderful good. I thought I was a Christian, but when I heard you I thought I was a Nothing. Then I found my Sins, and I asked God to forgive me, and my heart has rested in Jesus. I was sick from rheumatism. Now it has left me entirely."

How expressive—"I thought I was a Nothing."

Oh, how many there are "who think themselves to be Something when they are Nothing." Our heart rejoices when we find that Christ enables us to so preach his Gospel, as to lead anyone to see and say "I was a Nothing."

MANY are being healed through "the prayer of faith" which we are enabled to pray for persons at a distance. Our MAIL BAG supplies many illustrations every week. Here is one dated Sparland, Illinois, Sept 28th:—"I received yours yesterday stating that you laid my request before the Lord. Since Sunday morning I have been up and around. My daughter put my cot away in the evening, and I have not used it since, nor lain down at all this week through the day. My daughter and my husband went to Church on Sabbath morning, and came home at noon and found I had the dinner all prepared and on the table.

When the children went to Sabbath School in the afternoon, and my husband lay down to take a nap, I slipped out and went round to see Mrs. Ruth W—. Some came in to see me (while I was gone) and were surprised to find that I was up. Thanks to the dear Lord for giving me strength of body and stopping the flow."

THE above simple story is only one out of hundreds. It is more eloquent than a volume of theories. A good wife and house-mother lies very sick and ill, with her life's blood ebbing away. We have never seen her, but she asks us to pray. We pray with her, and for her, though far apart, and God instantaneously answers for Jesus' sake. She rises, feels well and strong, prepares dinner, visits a sick neighbor, and goes on her happy home-keeping way, "ministering to Jesus," like Peter's mother-in-law when the Lord healed her. Let us praise God that Jesus is the Home Physician to-day as ever. Seek him, weary heavy laden mothers, and put away your poisons and your pills. He is beside you now!

OUR readers will always find the Announcements of coming meetings in the last page but one of every issue of the LEAVES. They will see that there are many changes in the program for October. We have added three morning and one evening meeting in Zion Tabernacle to our present engagements. The Wednesday evening gathering at 8 o'clock will, we trust, be a large general rally of our friends who are associated, or are in active sympathy, with us. We expect it to be amongst the most delightful and helpful of all our meetings. We heartily invite our friends to help in making it so.

WE shall, God willing, deliver our second lecture on "Five Beautiful Lessons from Bethesda," illustrated by a diagram, on the first Lord's Day afternoon in October (7th). God has always given us rich results from that lecture; and He will then, we feel assured.

THE Ordinance of the Lord's Supper, open to all disciples of Christ, without reference to denominational distinctions, will be held in Zion Tabernacle at the close of the afternoon services on the first Lord's Day of every month.

It is always an occasion of quiet and close communion with the Unseen Master, whose real presence we experience, and from whom we receive fresh inspiration in pressing forward in His delightful service, "till He come."

WE are in immediate need of a Baptistery in Zion Tabernacle. It will cost at least one hundred dollars. Who will send us this sum in Jesus' name, and provide a place where the Holy Ghost will bless believers? Do not forget that the Eternal Father said He was "well pleased" with His Son at the very moment of His baptism. Surely God is "well pleased" with all who thus follow their Lord.

"Brethren, pray for us!"

DIVINE HEALING VINDICATED.

A REPLY BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

To an Attack by The Rev. Dr. Chapman, and the Oakland Pastors' Union.

DELIVERED IN THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, ON LORD'S DAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 27, 1889.

THE building was crowded in every available part, with a large and intelligent audience. Mr. Dowie opened the meeting with these remarks:—

I AM very desirous to have you praise the Lord. We shall take the whole matter to Him in prayer that we may just get into such a beautiful spirit of communion and expectancy that we may realize His presence here to-day; so that we may believe that Jesus Christ is not an absent Lord, and that what He has said is true, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Now we will just go to Him and have a talk with Him before we talk to each other; and let us expect to get an answer—a direct answer to direct prayer. I want wisdom, the Spirit of wisdom and of love and of a sound mind. I ask you to pray with me and for me, and for multitudes of God's dear children who are sitting in the darkness of disease and sickness, and in the shadow of death, who are groaning on beds of pain, and who know not that Christ's seamless dress is by these beds of pain. Let us also pray for multitudes, who, although they are going about, are sick, and dragging through lives of pain, and know not that they may "touch Him in life's throng and press, and be made whole again." I desire that Christ shall be glorified, and that we may be led into all the light. May God grant it.

Will the Rev. C. F. Lane, M. D., now engage in prayer? Our brother has given up all use and practice of medicine, and is local President of the first formed branch in America of the INTERNATIONAL DIVINE Healing Association. That branch is in San Francisco. I have the honor to be the founder, under God, and the President, of this Association, and we trust that this beautiful work will join hands with similar work in the East, and that it will soon cover the whole continent. Now I ask our brother to pray that God will grant His blessing to this work throughout this wide land; that He will uphold this testimony, and that He will bless us on this coast, and bless us to-day in our talk; so that the words of our mouth and the meditation of our hearts shall all be acceptable in God's sight, and profitable to this people. Now, Doctor Lane, will you pray?

PRAYER.

Dear Heavenly Father, we ask Thee that the words of our mouth and the meditations of our heart may be acceptable to Thee. We want, Heavenly Father, this afternoon, that all that is said and done may redound to Thy glory. Thou art acquainted with all our work, and Thou art familiar with us from the beginning. Thou hast watched over us since our childhood, and thus far Thou hast kept us; and, O Lord, we have implicit confidence in Thee; and the more we become acquainted with Thy word we realize that we can put more implicit trust in Thee.

We thank Thee for the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing that Thou hast opened and revealed unto us. We thank Thee that Thou hast sent Thy servant, Brother Dowie, into our midst to teach us this beautiful gospel. A few months ago we were suffering pain, and not able to work for Thee, but we thank Thee for what Thou hast done for us.

We come, Heavenly Father, this afternoon, to praise Thy holy name, and ask Thee to bless the word. In an especial manner do Thou bless Brother Dowie ("Amens" from the congregation); oh, give him power and wisdom; give him such words from Thy gospel that shall enable him to convince those who are in the darkness. A few weeks ago we did not understand Thy word as we understand it to-day, and O Lord, we thank Thee from our hearts and praise Thy holy name that Thou hast pardoned our sins and healed our diseases; and we realize this afternoon that we love Thee better than ever; that we are trusting Thee every moment.

Now, Lord, baptize Thy children this afternoon; give them a fresh baptism from on high. We know, Heavenly Father, that this beautiful teaching is spreading through the entire continent of America, and it is going to encircle the whole earth. Glory to Thy name; Thou art with us; Thou dost bless us, and Thou hast greater blessings in store for Thy people; oh, build us up in Thy most holy faith, and we will give Thee all the glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reading of Scripture by Mrs. Dowie, Isaiah 35, "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose," etc.

Song, "Sing them over again to me, wonderful words of life."

Before taking up the subject of the afternoon, Mr. Dowie invoked the divine blessing, as follows:—

Once more, our Father, we ask Thee, for Jesus' sake, that by Thy Holy Spirit's power Thou wouldst give us the spirit of instruction, the spirit of wisdom and of love, and of a sound mind, that the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts may be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable to all to whom they shall come. Amen.

Mr. Dowie then spoke as follows:—

I place in front of all I have to say to-day, beloved friends, the words which you will find in the First Epistle of Peter, in the third chapter, at the thirteenth verse:—

"And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

"But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye; and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled:

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear:

"Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ."

Had I not been most publicly challenged by my brethren in the Christian ministry, I should not feel that any other answer was necessary than the continuous testimony of the manifest blessing of God upon the work in which he has so graciously condescended to use me. Nor do I think now that any answer is necessary so far as I am personally concerned. But when in the most public manner, a paper, which was read in the most private way at a meeting with closed doors, is published in extenso in your local press, with so important an introduction by the editor, I think it then becomes my duty to answer.

In the Oakland Inquirer of Tuesday evening last, Jan. 22nd, there appears, under the heading of the words "DIVINE HEALING," a paper with this introduction:—

"This paper was prepared by the Rev. E. C. Chapman, D. D., at the request of the Oakland Pastors' Union, and read before that body on Saturday, January the 19th, and by a unanimous vote indorsed and requested to be published, as expressive of their views of the subject here discussed."

Therefore, the paper ceases to be merely the personal expression of a brother in the ministry. It becomes a manifesto of the whole Pastors' Union, and I have, therefore, no need to apologize for answering that which is a direct challenge; for to be silent now would be to fail in fulfilling the Divine command which I have just quoted. I am, as God's minister, "always to be ready to give an answer concerning the hope that is in me," and I am ready by His grace to-day. ("Thank God," from the audience).

Now, beloved friends, before we touch the paper just let us clear a little ground. I can have no personal feelings concerning Brother Chapman other than those of kindly, fraternal, Christian regard. ("Glory to God," from the audience). I can have no other feeling concerning my brethren in the ministry than a Christian fraternal spirit, desirous of helping them if they are wrong, and desirous of explaining to them wherein they have erred. Not for one moment do I desire to challenge the reality of their Christianity because they differ with me, and I have no right to suppose that they challenge mine.

My friend and brother—if I may be permitted so to call the Rev. Dr. Chapman—I have only met, I think, on two occasions. One was in a car. But the first and only time, in which I had any lengthened conversation with him was in his own church. I happened to have a free Sabbath-day, and being a guest of a prominent member of his church, I was very glad of the opportunity of attending and listening to our brother's words. Our brother, when he knew I was in the place, most kindly invited me to take part in the service, and I did so. He also invited me to preside with him at the Communion Table, and to deliver an address upon that occasion, and I did so. He heartily thanked me, as did his elders, three or four of whom I see here to-day. I spent a very pleasant morning, and then again the evening, with our brother. So I just want you to feel that, so far as I am concerned, if there be any feeling on the other side, there is none upon mine; and, while I am going to speak as plainly as is necessary in defense of the truth committed to my charge, I want to say from the very beginning, that there must not be in any of your minds the thought for a moment that I have any personal antagonism or feeling. If you do not believe that, I cannot help it; but I think that every honest man and woman will believe I am perfectly honest in shaking hands with the Doctor before I step into the arena in defense of the faith. I am very glad to do this, and I want to meet all that has been said in the spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ; the spirit of wisdom, God helping me, a spirit of love, a spirit which gives us a sound mind, and which enables us to get at truth all the better because it is honestly and earnestly discussed. I shrink from no criticism; I fear no investigation. That which fears criticism or investigation is not worth anything. This doctrine and this practice need fear no earnest, honest investigation. One word more as to our brother's paper. I shall speak of it as expressive of the views of others, and I hold all who joined in sending it forth as responsible for it.

In the first place I do not dispute the accuracy of the definition of our doctrine as given in this paper. I only regret that while it is accurate so far as it goes, it is not entirely accurate because it does not go far enough.

I will call this paper the Pastors' Manifesto; we want a name for it, and will so refer to it throughout. The Pastors' Manifesto then says: "The distinguishing features of what is known as the 'Doctrine of Divine Healing,' may be briefly stated:—

"FIRST, THAT ALL BODILY AILMENT IS THE WORK OF THE DEVIL."

Well, I am so glad they have said that. That is so. I think we have made that point tolerably clear, and I want to say we accept that, for very sufficient reasons. The 10th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles and the 38th verse sums up our Lord's life and ministry in these words: "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him."

We hold that if nineteen centuries ago all whom Jesus healed were oppressed of the devil, then it is the devil's work to-day. ("Amen," from the congregation). We do not shrink from that point. The Pastors' Manifesto says:

"THE SECOND DEFINITION IS THAT CHRIST CAME TO DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL."

We are glad to accept that. We say, "Yes, He came to destroy the works of the devil, and disease is one of them," and He always said it was; and never once throughout all His earthly ministry did He say that sickness came from the hand of our Heavenly Father. Never. But He said, "I came to do my Father's will," and He claimed that every act of healing was the Father's work; for He said, "The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, He doeth the works." The works of God were to save and to heal and to bless humanity, and Christ was manifested to destroy the work of the devil; and disease is one of them. So we accept that position.

Then comes the third."

"THEREFORE IT IS THE PRIVILEGE OF ALL WHO BELIEVE IN HIM TO ENJOY PERFECT AND PERPETUAL BODILY HEALTH.

We accept it. We believe it is the privilege of all who live in Christ that Christ shall live in them; that the Holy Ghost shall quicken our mortal flesh. Paul, writing by inspiration of the Spirit, says: "If the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you." Rom. 8: 11. And again, it is proved that we "shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God." Rom. 8: 21.

And we thankfully accept the definition, that the Holy Spirit of God is the Spirit of life and health, and that if He dwell in our mortal bodies disease will not. "The redemption of our body" (Rom. 8: 23 and 1 Thess. 5: 22-24) is a present redemption, and if we will all let God have his way we may also say with Paul, "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Rom. 8: 2.

Now there are many things left out in our critic's definition, and I would here like to mention several other important points of our teaching:—

FIRST, WE CLAIM THIS HEALING UPON THE GROUND OF THE ATONING SACRIFICE.

("Amen," from the audience). We claim it because it was said, "The chastisement of our peace was upon Him," and more, "with His stripes we are healed." That we humbly claim. Matthew 8th chapter and 16th and 17th verses distinctly refers this prophecy to Divine Healing. Yes, it is true. "Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses." We teach that the Atoning Sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ covers all kinds of sin and its consequences, of which disease is one. I would like to have that point clear.

Another point is that Divine Healing is a perpetual covenant with God's people; for, He has revealed himself by that name—Jehovah-rophi—"I am the Lord that healeth thee." Ex. 15: 26. And permit me to state yet another point, namely: that the "Gifts of Healings" are ever in the church of Christ; for 1 Cor. 12: 9 shows that they are "in the Holy Spirit," and He is ever in the church. Again it is written: "The gifts and calling of God are without repentance," (Rom. 11: 29) and, therefore, the Gifts of Healings, however they may be neglected, cannot be removed, for God's word would then fail, and that cannot be.

But I am not going into our teaching. We teach a good many other things that are not expressed here, but those I have not time to express now. Some of these points will come up in dealing with the misunderstanding, and therefore misrepresentation, of our teachings as the paper goes on.

The Pastors' Manifesto continues:

"THE FOLLOWING ARE A FEW OF THE MANY OBJECTIONS WHICH MAY BE PRESENTED AGAINST THIS DOCTRINE AS IT IS TAUGHT AND DEFENDED UPON THIS COAST."

Well, I suppose without any egotism I may fairly claim to be a representative in some degree of those who teach, and those who defend, this doctrine upon this coast, though a few others taught this doctrine before I came here, and other:

defended it before I came, thanks be to God. ("Amen, Glory to God," from the audience). I suppose I will be accepted in some degree as a teacher and defender of this doctrine on this coast. I hope that I am not presumptuous in this matter, and I don't think I am. I accept the position of a defender of this faith.

The first objection the Manifesto makes is this:—

"IT ASSUMES THAT THE DEVIL, THE ARCH-FIEND, AND ENEMY OF MAN IS THE EXECUTOR OF GOD'S LAW, ONE OF THE PENALTIES OF WHICH IS BODILY AILMENT.

We decline to accept that definition. We say, No; the devil is not in the employ of God, and we have never taught thus. We have taught that disease is a part, not of the law of God, but of the law of the devil. We teach that disease is a part of "the law of sin and death." ("Amen," from the audience.) We teach that the law of sin is the devil's law, that disease is an effect of sin, working out death, and that death belongs to the devil; it does not belong to God. "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." Death is an enemy. He that "had the power of death," the Scripture says, "is the devil." Heb. 2:14. But it is revealed that Christ "has abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light through the gospel." 2 Tim. 1:10. And we say, No, brethren, we refuse to accept your definition; we do not teach that the disease is working out God's will; we teach that disease is the effect of sin, and belongs to the law of sin and death; that death is that over which the devil presides, and that Christ has put all these enemies under his feet, and has given victory over them to all his people who fully believe here and now.

Second objection:

"IT ASSUMES THAT BECAUSE CHRIST CAME TO DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL, HE WILL HERE AND NOW DELIVER
ALL WHO TRUST IN HIM FROM THE EARTHLY CONSEQUENCES OF SIN, AND THE FIRST EARTHLY CONSEQUENCE OF SIN
WAS THE WEARING OF RAIMENT, AND THIS WAS ASSOCI-ATED WITH THORNS AND THISTLES, WEARISOME TOIL, SICKNESS AND DEATH."

And then the Manifesto sums it up, that "to be consistent, the exponents of this doctrine should live in a state of nudity, without wearisome toil, and pass away from earth at last by translation."

I regret that it should have been seen fit to make such a positively indecent suggestion. ("Amen," from the congregation.) I would say gravely here to-day, that it is a grave offense against good manners to make such a statement; and I would say, too, it is false as a matter of history. The wearing of clothes is not a consequence of sin; nor in any sense is it the first consequence of the sin of man. The first consequence of the sin of man was death, and death entered when man fell. But death was not immediately executed. Although disease, the certain executor of death, entered into man by his own sin, God, in his mercy, did not execute the sentence at once. Our friends seem to forget what the word of God says concerning the wearing of clothes by fallen man. Here is the record in Gen. 3:21: "And the Lord God made for Adam and for his wife coats of skin, and clothed them." It was the merciful hand of God himself which clothed them, because man did not know that from the moment that he sinned he was liable to consumption, to diseases, and God said, "I will teach you how to cover your bodies," so that man might be spared to know God's mercy, to look up even in the midst of his disease, and to listen to the voice of God, his Saviour and his Healer. God himself then made clothing, and clothed man, the Book tells us, and it is a very grave error to say that the wearing of clothes was the first consequence of sin. The wearing of clothes was the work of God to keep us from the consequences of sin. We go among the savage races to-day, where God's word is not known, and there we see the consequence of their ignorance of how to clothe themselves.

They go out in semi-nudity from their overheated tents or huts, and they have consumption and other diseases in consequence, and die off rapidly, because they do not know how to protect themselves. This is the case, I know, with the Maoris in New Zealand, and with the aborigines of Australia and Polynesia, and these native races are, from these and other causes, dying off rapidly. We should be grateful to God that in a world of sin, disease, and death, he has given us knowledge and means to clothe ourselves sensibly. Our clothing is not, then, the consequence of sin; it is a consequence of God's wisdom and love.

But our friends say, we are to be "free from wearisome toil." Thanks be to God; I accept that. We are freed from wearisome toil. I am toiling night and day; I am toiling week in, month in, year in and year out; toiling every year more than I did the past, and feeling less weary than I ever did before. ("Praise God," from the audience.) I thank God that I am able to realize the meaning of that word, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." Isa. 40:31. These wings of faith and hope take us right up to the mansions of God, and we come down strong. Hallelujah! I thank God that we can toil without weariness. There are multitudes on the earth to-day who are saying that the Lord is their strength, and that it is a joy to work and a joy to live.

Third objection:

"THIS DOCTRINE FAILS TO CONSIDER GOD'S DUAL METHOD OF DEALING WITH THE DUAL CONSEQUENCES OF SIN.

The guilt of sin is removed by the grace of God in many cases, while His government continues to execute the earthly penalty of His violated law. The great sin of David was promptly put away, but the earthly punishment of that sin continued until the day of his death." 2 Sam. 12:10-14.

Now this is entirely wrong. Our friends say that God has a dual government; that He forgives sin, but there is no such certainty in healing sickness. What says the Word? I don't trouble about what man says. What says the word of God? "Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases." Psalm 103:1-3. ("Glory to God," and "Amen," from the congregation.) I dispute the accuracy of the theology which tells me that God forgives my sin, and adopts me into his family, but leaves me at the same time in the hands of the devil to reap the consequences of it. It is not true. The God that forgives my sin will, if I go on to know Him, if I "follow on" to know Him, will deliver me from all the consequences of sin; for the redemption of my Lord is not a redemption for my spirit only, else it would be incomplete. What, do you tell me that redemption is for the spirit and not for the body? Bejoved, the word of God teaches the opposite. The word of God teaches that redemption is co-extensive with sin and its ravages; it is redemption for the spirit, and it is a redemption for the soul. "The redemption of the soul is precious," says the Word. Ps. 49:8. What does it say in regard to the redemption of the body? "The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain until now, waiting for the adoption, to wit, THE REDEMPTION OF OUR BODIES." Rom. 8:22, 23. ("Amen," from the audience.) What says the Word? It says, "I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Rom. 12:1.

What says the Word? The Word says, "What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God IN YOUR BODY, and IN YOUR SPIRIT, which are God's." 1 Cor. 6:19, 20.

What says the Word? "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your WHOLE SPIRIT AND SOUL AND BODY BE PRESERVED BLAMELESS unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will DO IT." I Thess. 5: 23, 24. God says HE WILL DO IT, and how dare any man say that He will NOT?

"If any man thirst," said Jesus, "let him come unto Me and drink. As the Scripture has said, He that believeth on Me, out of his belly shall flow living water. But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe on Him should receive." John 7: 37-39. When they received the Holy Ghost, these men and women, on the day of Pentecost, had clear eyes and strong lungs; they were powerful physically as well as spiritually; the Holy Ghost flowed through their veins, and by the laying on of hands multitudes were healed and blessed. "Your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost." Do not be content to let them be temples of disease. I say the Word is clear that He that forgives my sin heals all my sickness, restores me to power to work out the purposes for which He sent me here. I am glad that God has given me a strong body, growing ever stronger for His service, since I gave it into His keeping more than twenty-five years ago. I am glad that I can put my right hand, to-day, upon His Word which enables me to pray, "that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh." 2 Cor. 4: 11.

Fourth objection:

"THIS DOCTRINE FAILS TO DISTINGUISH BETWEEN OUR INNOCENT AND GUILTY CONFLICTS WITH THE LAWS OF THIS MATERIAL WORLD. MANY TIMES WITHOUT ANY GUILT, EVEN IN OUR MOST HOLY AND RIGHTEOUS SERVICE TO GOD AND HUMANITY, WE ARE BROUGHT INTO BODILY SUFFERING, AND BODILY MUTILATION, AND EVEN UNTO DEATH, POISONED, CRUSHED OR DROWNED."

My brethren have erred, not knowing the Scriptures in this matter nor the power of God, so far as bodily injuries are concerned; and if death comes it does not follow it is God's will; for in such cases it is man's sin and the devil's work. It was not God's will, but the devil's work, that Lincoln and Garfield should be murdered! But God has given wondrous promises of protection to His people from every kind of danger. I admit that in our most righteous service of God we sometimes get into trouble. I was serving God down at San Jose, last August. I was nearly through with a beautiful Mission in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. I had my satchel in my hand, coming out of Rev. Dr. Jewell's parlors at the church; I had been working all day, and laid hands upon one hundred and thirty-one persons, and I had to come back in less than an hour to conduct the evening meeting, which was the closing Praise and Testimony Meeting. I was hastening away, when some sinful person—possibly it might have been a Christian—caused me to suffer an accident through their having thrown a piece of fruit on the asphaltum pavement. My foot slipped upon it, and I came down with a tremendous crash. I was on my feet almost in a moment, but my arm and my hand hung limp at my side, and I could not move my fingers. The words flashed across my mind, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him OUT OF THEM ALL. He keepeth all his bones; not one of them is broken." Psalm 34: 19, 20. I have been in many dangers, but have always been delivered. I said to a person who was with me, "It can't be that any bones are broken; God's words are true." I walked on for a few moments in great agony. Doctor Holmes, of San Jose, and Elder Cadman, of the East Oakland Presbyterian Church, were with me. Elder Cadman, sits here this afternoon. My stenographer, also, now present, saw me a few minutes after, when I got to the St. James Hotel. The perspiration stood in great beads upon my forehead. I took my pain to the Lord. I had to be back in about half an hour to conduct the meeting and before I left the church it had begun to fill with people. The rumor spread rapidly through the place that I was seriously ill, and would not be able to conduct the services. I knew something serious had happened, but I did not tell those around me of my suspicions. I prayed to the Lord that He would give me power to raise that hand, and power came so that I was able to lift it up and hold on to a button of my coat. But I felt the bone had come right out of its socket, and it was pressing heavily against my side. I said the Lord will put this right. I said to myself, I have no time to tie my arm to that bed-post and pull it in; it would grieve my friends to think I was in agony and pain; and now, Lord give me grace. I went right off to the meeting. I see some bright faces looking up and smiling at me now who were there. I conducted that meeting from a quarter to eight until nearly eleven o'clock, I spoke afterward to the friends who crowded around us to say "Good-by," and it was nearly quarter past eleven when I left the building. As I was about to do so, I turned to my friend, Doctor Bishop, who had testified to the healing of one of his patients; I said, "Come along, Doctor, to my hotel, and pull my arm into its place." "Nonsense," he said, you could not stand here all the evening with your arm out of joint, and appearing so happy and bright; it is impossible."

I said, "Come, and you shall see." I asked Doctor Jewell and Pastor Afflerbach to go with us. Elder Cadman and my stenographer, who is reporting here this afternoon, Mr. G. H. Hawes, also accompanied me. When I got to my rooms Doctor Bishop was not there; there was a misunderstanding; they told him at the hotel I had not arrived and he sat down and waited, while I was waiting for him in my rooms. It was about quarter to twelve when he came to the room. He then examined my arm and said: "Why, this shoulder is dislocated; the ligaments must be seriously ruptured, and there is, of course, great extravasation of blood. How could you stand it to carry that meeting through?" I said: "The Lord was with me; the Spirit of the Lord kept me above the pain. I could pull it into position myself by tying it to something, but for the glory of God I want you should understand just the condition it is in." I laid down upon the floor, and Doctor Bishop placed his foot under the arm, at the shoulder, and gave it a pull, and it went in with a click and a snap. I was on my feet in a moment, and said, "Thank God? Now, Doctor, let me shake hands."

"You can't shake hands; you must be in great pain," he said.

I took a chair and held it in my hand. "It seems incredible," he said; "I feel as though I wanted to put some arnica on it."

I said, "The Lord will do the rest." That night I slept upon that arm, and the next day attended to my duties as usual. My stenographer and others saw me a day or two later in San Francisco, and know that my arm was perfectly sound. From that moment to this that arm has been just as strong about the shoulder as ever it was. What about the extravasation of blood? It never troubled me for a moment. What about the great pain? The Word says, "There shall be no more pain," and I found it even so. If we knew how to rest upon God we would be kept by the power of God from broken bones, and if broken, they can be, and we have seen them, healed. Usually, when an arm is torn from its socket, there are weeks and months of pain and a person is laid up. My healing was immediate, perfect, and permanent.

I do not state this because I am anything. I did not heal myself, God did it.

"Why did you not ask God to put it, without help, into place?" Because if a thorn was sticking in my hand, I should pull out the thorn and ask God to heal the wound. God expects us to use common sense, and gave us hands to be used. I am not a fool, although it may be said I am. I am willing to be a fool for Christ's sake. ("Amen," from the audience). And so I answer that objection about injuries received in Christ's service by this little fact, and did time permit many others could be added.

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 80 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore drive and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desired that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishing of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the center group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred have been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend to all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

MR. R. F. PALM.

LIKE THE SENTENCE OF DEATH from the lips of a judge to a prisoner at the bar are the words of a physician who tells a patient: "You have a cancer." There is no escape from the impending doom of death and the knife, the cantery, and a long agonizing, fruitless course of so-called "treatment" stretches out before the imagination of the patient. The doctor has a sickening sense of despair and defeat as he looks at the hideous monster which has just been born into his patient's body. It is only a little "tare" planted by the "enemy" in the soil of the human flesh; but its roots are deep, deep down in the springs of life, and are nourished by the warm life's blood. It feeds upon heart, stomach, liver, brain, nerve and tissue, eating, eating, eating on its horrid way. It turns the sweet mother's breast before the eyes of her distracted children, to whom that breast was a sacred fountain of life, into a filthy, nauseous mass of corruption from which foul-smelling putridity flows. Who can do other than hate this disease? Surely it is a plant of hell of Satan's own right hand planting, and only demons could gloat over all the miseries it creates. It spreads itself over all the sky of Home, and creeps up the happy household walls, a dark, dark shadow, until every heart is chilled with fear and filled with grief. It kills hope and weakens faith, and the heavens are starless to those who pray for deliverance. Oh, the bitter tears from the hot springs of burning, burdened hearts, as they see the ravages of the eating, corrupting cancer, as it torments and pollutes before it kills!

How often this disease has oppressed the heart of a whole nation and changed, often for the worse, the entire history of the world in certain generations. The United States wept day and night at the side of its dying hero, Ulysses Grant, great in war but greater still in peace—and it was this plant of hell, CANCER, which gnawed his life away. All that was best in every nation on earth wept in sympathy with Germany as its brightest hope for religious and civil liberty, the Emperor Frederick, who had just succeeded to the imperial sceptre, lay strangling to death in the grip of this demon power, CANCER. And when he died, leaving that power to the feebler hands of his inexperienced son, all Europe felt and in a measure still feels, that the danger of war was, increased, and the prospects of liberty and progress were darkened. Napoleon's fierce spirit was fed by the flames of the agonies produced by inward CANCER, and his thirst for victory at no matter what cost of blood, was, doubtless, largely promoted by this disease, especially in his later campaigns. THE SALVATION ARMY lost Catherine Booth, its brightest leader, a spiritual Joan of Arc, a true Christian warrior and yet gentle mother and devoted wife, by that detestable and filthy disease, CANCER. And, oh, why did she, and other good and godly men and women, die? And why did not God answer their cry from the depths? HE COULD NOT: for they all besought Him to heal them in a way He had not chosen, and could not bless. They asked Him to heal by means of medicine, and He had said, "In vain shall ye use many medicines—" Jer. 46:11. They asked Him to use physicians, and He had led Job to see three thousand five hundred years ago, and had caused him to record the fact, "Ye are all physicians of no value," Job 13:4. They asked Him to heal them through human healers, when He had proclaimed three thousand four hundred years ago to Israel, at the waters of Marah, "I AM THE LORD THAT HEALETH THEE"—Exodus 15:26. They prayed as if He had changed, when He had declared two thousand three hundred years ago, "I AM THE LORD, I change not"—Malachi 3:6. They believed that Jesus used to heal but that He had altered His methods and had now handed over the healing to doctors, the greater part of whom are unbelievers, when the Holy Ghost had declared in the inspired Word, one thousand nine hundred and fifty years ago, "Jesus Christ is THE SAME, yesterday, and to-day, and FOREVER"—Hebrews 13:8. God will not; God can not; God dare not answer prayers which deliberately ignore and set aside Himself as the Healer, and which implore Him to work in another way. Whether it be saint or sinner, whether it be rich or poor, or whether it be king or peasant, God does not set aside His law to accommodate Himself to people's prayers for healing in their way. Asa, King of Judah, was a good man, as Kings go; but, after reigning thirty-nine years, he went to "physicians," in his sickness, and between the two he forsook the Lord as his healer, and died, and the "apothecaries" buried him with "sweet odors and spices" to take away the smell of his "diseased feet." Everyone can read the story in 2 Chronicles 16:12-14. The charge is distinctly made against him "Yet in his disease he sought not unto the Lord but unto the physicians." Some seek both the Lord and the physicians; but they fail also, on the same principle which Christ laid down when He said:—"Ye cannot serve God and Mammon." People can serve God or Mammon; and they can have Christ as their Healer or the doctor; but they cannot have both. God says that, and He knows. What any one else thinks is of no consequence, and the expression of their adverse opinion is an impertinence. God has the decision in His own hands; and it is for Him to say how His people shall pray for healing. No one has any right to pray as they choose—they must pray as God directs, or take the consequences, no matter who they are. It is because good people have prayed in their own way, not God's way that their prayers are not answered.

But, some may ask, "Have we any proof that God does answer prayer alone to-day in the Healing of CANCER?" Yes, there are many such answers in our own ministry, and doubtless, many of which we know nothing. However, "we speak that we do know, and testify to that which we have seen"— there we are on safe ground when we write on this subject. In our second issue of this new series of LEAVES OF HEALING we gave the story of a remarkable healing of cancer in the eye and uterus and restoration of sight in our Australian ministry eleven years ago, and which remains to this day—the case of Mrs. Lucy Parker.

In the third issue we present the case of Mrs. Lowrie, of Chicago, and her most glorious deliverance. We also gave the pictures of both mothers and of the children who were not to have been born.

And now, on the front page of this issue, we wave another palm of victory, and lay it at the Redeemer's feet, and we have many more left.

Look upon the strong face of this eagle-eyed man of mature years—look closely at his cheek, and say if there is any trace there now of the large, open cancer which once threatened his life. The face is exactly as Gibson our photographer took it, and as Zeese the photo-engraver prepared it, true to fact and nature without any alteration whatever. God touched him, and made him clean.

Mr. Palm has often told his story in public in Chicago before thousands of witnesses, once in the Central Music Hall and frequently in Zion Tabernacle, the last time on Lord's Day, Sept. 30th, as is recorded on another page of this issue.

We first saw him in our meetings in the old Grand Army Hall, Dearborn and Adams Streets, Chicago (now removed) in the winter of 1892-3. Early in January 1893 he showed us the cancer. It was a little larger than a dollar, stood out from the cheek about half an inch, and was open, discharging a bad-smelling, cancerous fluid, with the odor peculiar to that disease. He told us of how his family physician had diagnosed it as a cancer, and also that he had gone to the operating room of the Rush Medical College in this city, and that the principal surgeon there had declared it was a cancer, and should be operated upon immediately. He said that he went there in order that no one should afterward be able to say that he was mistaken as to the real nature of the disease: for he had meanwhile satisfied himself that Christ alone was the Healer. He surprised the surgeon and the students in attendance at the College with his positive refusal to permit any operation to be performed; and that he had chosen the Lord Jesus as his Healer. They expostulated with him for his "foolishness;" but he was steadfast, and told them that he would come back some day and show them his face, and the "good job" that the Lord had made of healing it. This was the story which he told us when he asked us to pray for his healing. We did so, laying hands upon the cancer in the name of the Lord Jesus. The pain immediately departed, the cancer began to dry up, and eventually entirely disappeared, leaving his face without even a scar. He went to the Rush Medical College, and showed himself to the surgeon, and asked him what he thought about the "good job" the Lord had made. He replied, "All I can say is, praise the Lord." to which good brother Palm responded, "Amen, praise the Lord."

Our brother, as the picture shows, is well-advanced in years; but he is actively engaged in business as a baker. He is a constant attendant at Zion Tabernacle. With him, and with the doctor, we say, Praise the Lord; and we rejoice that He used us to destroy this deadly "tare" which Satan planted in the body of this good man, who witnesses so joyfully for Christ in his daily life.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING

Held In Zion Tabernacle On The Afternoon Of Lord's Day, September 30th, 1894.

Opening Hymn 141. Reading of 67th Psalm and Isaiah 43: 8. After some introductory remarks and the Invocation, Doctor Dowie said:

I is fitting, as God's servant, that I should say a few words in introducing these Witnesses; but I want to make these as few as possible, because I want you to hear as many of them as possible. It is my duty, however, to say to you that, although, they will not witness at length regarding their spiritual life, and how they have been brought to find in Christ their Saviour, yet you must understand that the spiritual work has preceded the spiritual healing. In the next place, you will please to understand these witnesses are all voluntary; that no one has been asked, except by general public invitation, to come here; but that they are here because they are God's witnesses and love to come. Third, please understand that no witness has ever been paid a single cent for testimony at any time, or under any circumstances. Certain vile sheets in this city have said the opposite.

SOME IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

I will therefore ask here openly in this meeting this question and will abide by the result: Is there a single person in this meeting whom I have ever asked to pay me one single cent at any time for my services in praying with you for your healing? If there is a single person who can say, "I was asked," will you please to stand up and tell us about it. (No one stood up). I will ask you all this further question: Have you ever heard anyone tell you that I ever asked them for one single cent for my services in praying with them for healing? What do you say to that? (Cries of No! No!) Then I will ask this question: Have any of you here at any time been paid a single cent for your testimony to your healing? (Cries of No! No!) Any one who can say the contrary stand up. I will ask, still further: Have you ever at any time heard of anyone being paid one single cent for testifying to their healing through faith in Jesus? (No!) Everybody will now understand the truth. I will give the platform any afternoon to anybody that can prove the contrary. I want to say this, that these Witnesses are voluntary, that they are unpaid, they are here to tell what God has done for them, not what I have done, for "Christ is All."

A PICTURE ON THE WALL.

These crutches and the braces and the high-heeled boots and the various implements of torture that surgeons have devised under the idea of healing poor wretched humanity, (pointing to the entire wall of the Tabernacle behind the platform.) all these things that are displayed here have been given up by those who have been healed. Some of them have histories that would take hours to tell. One of these cruel braces with a steel head-piece was worn by a lady, Miss Long, for twenty-five years fastened around her head and around her body, or things of a similar kind when she was younger. Many of these things have been worn, as you can see, until nearly worn out. They are God's own trophies captured from the enemy, evidences of bloodless victories, no, not bloodless, because all these victories were won through the blood of Christ.

HOW THE HEALING COMES.

Now I want to say a word concerning our own part in this ministry. In the first place, everything connected with this work comes through the teaching. "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." Faith does not come by praying for it, but by hearing. So we have always gone on to teach first. God has honored the proclamation of His word. The people have believed, and have found mercy and healing. The next thing I want to say is this: We have never arrogated any power, or taken any glory, or imagined for a moment that we ever healed anybody. Did any of you ever hear me say I had healed anyone? Did any of you ever read a word that I wrote in which I said I ever healed anyone? ("No." From hundreds of voices). Who did I say healed? ("God"). Divine Healing is God's healing and being God's work, no man can claim the glory. God will give me grace and He will give me glory; but I will not take God's glory. Let God give me what glory He pleases. God has all the glory. "Thine, oh Lord, is the kingdom and the power and the glory."

I want to say another thing. We have nothing in common with so-called Christian Science. If there is anything anti-Christian and unscientific and hell-born that has ever cursed humanity, it is that diabolical travesty of the truth, mis-called Christian Science. It is not Christian; because it denies the essential divinity of God himself and declares that God is not a person, that the Holy Ghost is not a person, that Jesus Christ Himself is not a person. It declares things absolutely opposed to common sense as well as to the Scriptures. It is anti-Christian, an abomination, and an imposture. We are against it in every possible form. We have no dealings with it, and we are irreconcilably opposed to it. How could we have any fellowship with anyone who will say, as Mrs. Eddy does, she who is the high priestess of this cult, that "man is incapable of sin, sickness or any departure from holiness?" Such an assertion is an anti-Christian lie; for man is capable of sin, man is capable of sickness, and man is terribly capable of awful departures from holiness. Then as to its scientific character, it is entirely unscientific, for the statement which Mrs. Eddy makes, that "man is the product of nothing, or the opposite of something," is the most idiotic definition ever imposed on the world in the name of Science. How can a man be a product of nothing? Ex nihilo nihil fit: "Out of nothing, nothing comes." Man is not the product of nothing. Man is created by the Eternal God in His own image and God has made him a tripartite being, with a spirit and a soul and a body, in the image of God Himself, the ever blessed Trinity, who said when He made man: "Let us make man in our own image." God is not "nothing." I want to say too that the statement of Christian Science which says that "man sees and feels and tastes and smells only in imagination and not in reality is a lie. I could take Mrs. Eddy to some parts of Chicago where she would smell in reality.

It is an abominable lie that man does not taste and feel and smell in reality. If we went down into some parts of this city, and some hoodlum flung a big stone and hit her on the nose she would feel in reality. (Laughter). The lie which says you have not any disease because you say you have not is an abominable lie. You don't get rid of disease by saying you haven't got it. That is also pretty near akin to the teaching of certain persons who say they believe in Divine Healing, but who teach that people ought to say they are healed after they have been anointed in faith, when at the same time they know that they are sick. That is another abomination and almost identical with Christian Science. The difference between them is the difference between tweekledum and twedledee. I want to say this: As far as I understand the work in which I am engaged it is an intensely real one. I am a realist. I believe that God is a real being, a real Father, and when I talk to my God and Father, He is a reality, and He hears me. I believe I have a real Intercessor and I believe the Holy Ghost is a real being; I believe that the Bible is a real revelation from God. I believe in a real Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. I believe that Jesus Christ suffered and died and arose again for us. I believe in the Holy Ghost. I believe in the Holy Catholic Church, in the life everlasting. I believe that God has made of one blood all men to dwell upon the face of the earth and that Christ is "the Saviour of all men, especially of them that believe." I believe He "tasted death for every man." I believe that every man who is a candidate for salvation is "elected," because he is a candidate; and I believe no man can be damned unless he elects to be damned. If you elect to serve the devil, if you elect to serve your belly, if you elect to serve unclean passions, if you elect to sin and you will go to hell, and that is the only place you can go to. But if you elect to serve God, God's infinite love will bless you and deliver you from your defilements and give you power to conquer sin and to receive healing from sickness. Disease is the work of the devil, root and branch. There would be no disease in this world were there no sin. Jesus Christ came "to destroy the works of the devil" and therefore to destroy disease; and Peter told the truth when he said in the house of Cornelius the Centurion, "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." I believe therefore that nineteen centuries ago every sickness and disease which Christ healed, and He healed every kind, was the work of the devil and I believe that every sickness and disease now is the work of the devil still. I believe that Christ is the same Christ, the same yesterday to-day and forever, and, since He is the same, He is able, He is willing, He is present, He is waiting, He is longing to heal. If He is not the same the Bible is a lie. I do not believe it is. It is true. I believe the Bible. I am not teaching Divine Healing from any other standpoint, except from the standpoint of the New Testament. I believe the gifts of God were never taken away. I believe the statement that the gifts of God were taken away is false, and against Scripture, for the Scripture says "the gifts and calling of God are without repentance." Romans 11:29. The man who says that God has changed His mind concerning these gifts, is in direct conflict with Scripture. I declare we are not teaching a new doctrine. I declare this doctrine is old; that the Covenant of Divine Healing was given by God to Moses, in the wilderness of Shur, 1490 years before Christ came in the flesh, when He said: "I am the Lord that healeth thee," (Ex. 15:26). That Covenant was made 3380 years ago. He who said, "I am the Lord that healeth thee," has also said, "I am the Lord I change not," and the man who says that God changes is in direct conflict with God's word. I also believe that we do not need doctors and do not need medicines, and that God never provided them. I believe that liquid poisons or solid poisons, vegetable or mineral poisons, whether homeopathic or allopathic, are not of God. I believe with Job who said: "You are all physicians of no value," even though I have a good doctor beside me on this platform. I believe that God has no place for medicine. I believe you will not find a passage throughout the whole Bible, covering 4,000 years of human history, in which it was said by God, or can be inferred that God said, "Is any among you sick, let him call for a doctor!"

PROVING THE CASE AGAINST DOCTORS AND DRUGS.

I believe, and I can prove it, that doctors and medicine do not heal. I am going to ask a question to prove it now. Everyone here that has taken medicines and drugs or been to surgeons, put up your hands. Honor bright. (Almost all in the crowded assembly put up their hands). Now I am going to ask everybody in this large audience who has been healed by means of these medicines, put up your hands. None, not even the doctors. (Laughter). Everyone in this audience who has been healed through faith in Jesus Christ stand to your feet. There are one hundred of you or more. Does not that prove my position. I am sure it does. That is logic, the logic of an irresistible fact, and I do not hesitate to say what Dr. Holmes said in an article I quoted in the last issue of the LEAVES OF HEALING in connection with this matter, in addressing the Massachusetts Medical Society:

"I fairly believe that if the whole materia medica could be sunk to the bottom of the sea, it would be all the better for mankind and all the worse for the fishes".

I only quote his own words. I did not create them. My impression is that doctors do a great deal of mischief, that they are responsible for hundreds and thousands of deaths. Some doctors are good men, according to their light. They find themselves in a false position, and do the best they can for you wretched sinners who will have doctors. Here's Dr. Willing breaking his heart over his patients sometimes. The Lord have mercy on him and you too. I love doctors. A great many get blessing. They have no confidence in their own medicines.

THREATS BY THE DOCTORS OF THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Doctors have been talking about this ministry lately. In the Chicago daily papers one of the most amusing things I ever read, was a statement which appeared in exactly the same language in three or four journals, and which was evidently given out from the parlors of the Grand Pacific Hotel, where the State Board of Health of Illinois met to discuss among other subjects, John Alex. Dowie. You see, like Demetrius of old, they found "their craft was in danger," because as a Woodlawn doctor said, "We don't have much to do because Dr. Dowie has all the practice." The statement was to this effect: "They hoped that immediate steps would be taken to put down that dangerous man, John Alex. Dowie, and that the State Board of Health had met and after a long debate had come to the decision that they would have an attorney prepare a case against him for the high crime and misdemeanor of practicing medicine without a license." (Laughter). Now I call that the richest joke I ever read. I, who am fighting medicine all the time, who for thirty years have never touched it, and whose children have never tasted it since they were born—I am to be prosecuted for practicing medicine without a license! I fear they had been drinking champagne and got some real pain in their heads. The Lord have mercy upon them.

A CHALLENGE.

I tell the medical critics this, that the very best thing for Divine Healing that could possibly happen would be my prosecution under any law that they have made or may make. I will tell you why. I shall welcome prosecution, because it would enable me to place in the witness box many hundreds and even thousands of persons, who will prove that God has healed them after all doctors had failed. Nothing could do more good to the cause of Divine Healing throughout the United States and the whole earth than such a prosecution. Now, come on you ignoramuses of the Board of Health! Come on! That is all I will say just now.

THIS IS A VERY HAPPY MINISTRY.

I always feel happy as I see people abandon their sins and abandon their doctors and abandon their drugs. I know our good friend here is getting there, (patted Dr. Willing on the back). I have a right to pat him on the back because God used me to his dear daughter when she was dying. Her husband, Mr. Larned, is a medical student. Dr. Willing and his own son, who is also a doctor, gave her the medicine which they thought proper in the grave crisis which had arisen after child-birth; but in vain. They called upon me to help in the name of the Lord. I went and found her in an almost comatose state, she seemed like dead, and the Lord instantly healed her. You see the doctor is my friend. The fact is, he was a minister and became a doctor. Now I trust he will become a minister and cease to be a medical doctor. The Lord bless him. I believe that converted doctors will make a great deal better ministers than fossilized theologians.

CALLING THE FIRST WITNESS.

The first testimony for which I will call is that of a sister who represents a class of cases in which I am very much interested. Let me say that Divine Healing is of four distinct classes, so to speak. First of all, people are healed by direct prayer to God themselves through faith in Christ. Second. Some are healed by intercession in agreement with another. "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven." Third. Some are healed by the anointing of the elders in the prayer of faith. Jas. 5:14, 15.

"Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church: and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up, and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

Some one said to me the other day—"But what is the use of calling for elders who don't believe? You can call them but will they come? They remind me of that character in Shakespeare who said, 'I can call spirits from the vasty deep,' and the other said, 'So can I, but will they come, that's the rub.'" And the last form of healing in this ministry is "the laying on of hands:" for which God has chosen us. But there are many healings in our experience in connecting with intercessory prayer. I have a vast number of requests for prayer continually. I will take one. A sister here on the platform wrote to me from Sparland, Ill. She had the same trouble as that of the woman who touched the hem of Christ's garment. I agreed by letter that I would pray for her healing last Sabbath morning at 9 o'clock. I did pray for her and received this letter on Friday which says:

SPARLAND, ILL., Sept. 24th, 1894.

DEAR DR. DOWIE:—

"I received yours yesterday stating that you had laid my request before the Lord. Since Sunday morning I have been up and around. My daughter put my cot away in the evening, and I have not used it since, nor lain down at all this week through the day. My daughter and my husband went to Church on Sabbath morning, and came home at noon and found I had the dinner all prepared and on the table.

When the children went to Sabbath School in the afternoon, and my husband lay down to take a nap, I slipped out and went around to see Mrs. Ruth W—. Some came in to see me (while I was gone) and were surprised to find that I was up. Thanks to the dear Lord for giving me strength of body and stopping the flow.

Faithfully yours in Jesus,

MRS. ANNIE C. MAXWELL.

Now this dear sister was wondrously and instantaneously healed. I never saw her until to-day when she came in. Will Mrs. Annie C. Maxwell of Sparland, Ill., stand up?

HEALED OF HEMORRHAGE AND TUMOR.

Mrs. Maxwell said: I want to give God all the glory for His healing power. He has healed me wonderfully of the hemorrhage and tumor. I suffered for nine months. The Lord healed me instantaneously. Dr. Dowie:—That is a good case. Let all the people praise the Lord. Let all the people say Amen. ("Amens from the large audience in a mighty shout). Dr. Willing will now address us. Just tell what the Lord did in your family. Many have heard the doctor speak early in the year.

A DOCTOR'S TESTIMONY TO THE HEALING OF HIS DAUGHTER WHEN AT THE POINT OF DEATH.

Dr. Willing, of Rupp Avenue, Calumet Hights, South Chicago, said: "Many of you have heard me tell this story so often that it would seem hardly necessary, but a few days ago, not more than three days ago, a gentleman approached me and asked me the question if I was not at Central Music Hall in the spring and if I didn't make a pretty strong statement regarding my daughter; if I didn't overdo the matter a little. I was very indignant at such an idea and replied, 'More than six months have passed, and I have more to say.' You remember when the Queen of Sheba came to see the greatness and hear the wisdom of Solomon, she exclaimed afterwards: 'Not half has ever been told.' So it strikes my heart and mind. Now briefly I will again relate the circumstances. I have nothing to take back, and I do not need to enlarge, but my heart is more full of thankfulness and praise to God than before. On the first day of March my little grandchild was born early in the morning, and that trouble passed very nicely and easily. My daughter was apparently doing well. I was at breakfast when the terrible news came to me, that my daughter had become convulsed. It is terrible news to any physician of good sense and knowledge, and if there is a physician here to-day I can appeal to him that when you hear at such a time that a patient has fallen into dreadful convulsions, it is terrible news. I immediately repaired to the bedchamber and found this to be the case: that my dear child was in terrible convulsions and unconscious. During the next eight hours or more she had nine convulsions scarcely recovering from one until she went into another. I gave her medicine. We had a council of physicians. We agreed as to what should be done. At four o'clock I went to my office in town with a sad heart. I lived a mile and a half out. I said to my son, who is also a very intelligent physician, "Grace is going to die." "O no, papa," says he, "I guess not." "Well," said I, "I am an old doctor, I have seen a great many such cases, and I fear our Grace is going to die." O the pang, the dreadful pang that went to my heart when I said these words. She was a lovely daughter, a beautiful child, full of compassion and kindness, and to think that she was going to die. I had scarcely uttered the words when my son-in-law came rushing in. I hadn't said "Get Dr. Dowie," I hadn't said anything about it. "Doctor," said he, "I am going after Dr. Dowie." I said, "You can't find him." I had been to the Congregational church in South Chicago where he was expected that day, and he wasn't there. He went again, and I think met him at the door of the church. He asked Dr. Dowie to go out and see his wife, my daughter, and Doctor Dowie and his wife went immediately. I had taken the car out and they came to the same car. I did not know they were coming. They went out, found my daughter unconscious, verging on the comatose state already, quite unconscious. Dr. Dowie laid his hand on her head and prayed the prayer of faith that saves the sick. She opened her eyes. I said, "This is Dr. Dowie." She said, "What is he here for?" The pain she had had in her head for three or four days passed away. She was asked if there was any other pain. She said "In my back." He laid on his hands and prayed that simple little prayer, like "Now I lay me down to sleep," but it was "in Thy Name." O there was a power in that Name. The pain in her back had gone. I think he prayed again. I saw as a physician she was better immediately. I know when people are better. I never was fooled yet. I went back to Church and listened to Dr. Dowie's lecture that evening. About ten minutes after, her mother, my wife, was sitting at her bedside. There was no one else in the room and Grace said, "Ma, I want to get up." "Dear, you can't get up." "Yes I can." "No you can't. You mustn't, you are very sick." "Look here. See my strength, my muscle. I can get up." She got up and walked but soon her mother got her to lie down again. She was quite well, and she rested well all night. Never had another convulsion. Never, and for two or three days she continued well. This was Thursday. On Saturday night, however, I saw there was some fever. I supposed it to be natural, nothing strange, but on Sunday morning I found the fever very high. She had rigors during the night. "O well," said I, [Doctor, turning to Dr. Dowie forgive me, I know what you will say but it is hard to teach an old dog new tricks you know] "I can stop that." So I mixed her up some medicine.

Dr. Dowie: "Backslider!"

Dr. Willing: "That is true. We gave her medicine for two or three hours and the temperature became 104. I went to my office at the usual time. We talked about Dr. Dowie. I would have had him but it was on Sunday and he was already engaged and I said, 'Don't send for him, we can get along without him.' When I reached my office her husband again said 'I am going for Dr. Dowie.' I said, 'You can't get him.' 'Grace is worse." "You can't get him. He is right in the midst of services." I went home to dinner. But my son-in-law went for Dr. Dowie. I looked out and there came my son-in-law and Dr. Dowie. He had closed his meeting and came down and laid his hands on my dear child again. Her temperature was very high. Immediately after that prayer I felt again those hands that were hot and dry; and the hand was cold and moist, and the pulse ceased to beat so rapidly, and the fever was gone. Dr. Dowie went home and pretty soon my daughter said to her mother, "I want something to eat." She partook of this heartily and continued to eat. She continued to improve and she had no more fever, no more convulsions and she is the happy mother of a beautiful child more than six months' old. Now that is why I am not ashamed to tell this story. I think of Jesus when he looked out upon the great multitude and He was moved with compassion for those who fainted by the way. A lady friend of mine sat near Dr. Dowie on this platform this morning. She looked upon these faces, these beseeching eyes turned toward the preacher, and while she looked she thought of Jesus and of that blessed Name by which the multitudes might be reached. She thought of the sick and the dying, the poor mothers, the troubled wives, the needy children, and she said the tears came rolling down her cheeks because "they had no shepherd" in so many places to lead them to the Healing Waters. Jesus is ready, Dr. Dowie is ready to tell them, ready to help, and Jesus is able to save to the uttermost all who come. Will you come? Body, soul and spirit, will you come to Jesus? Just now. O, I want to talk all night but I will quit right now.

The people sang: "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

Dr. Dowie: Now, friends, I will ask for further testimonies.
HEALING OF A FATHER, MOTHER AND FAMILY OF SMALL POX, DIPHTHERIA, ETC.

Theo. C. Bartholomew, 248 E. 55th St., Chicago, said:— I have over seven years with physicians battled in Chicago and elsewhere with stomach troubles. I had last year seven physicians examine me and I could not get cured. They gave me some medicine which I took. Not all of it. I took some and it gave me such pain I could not take more. I tried again and the pain still grew worse. They were summoned again over in Englewood and by listening very closely, and I understood a little Latin, I found they had given me a little too much arsenic. Now having business at the World's Fair I saw one day the words "Divine Healing." over this Tabernacle. I saw Dr. Dowie and he prayed over my stomach and I found relief right there, and I believe I had cancer because every indication showed the same way. It was only a week afterwards when my boy took sick with croup. My wife said, "get the doctor." I said, "No! Christ is my physician." She had not the faith and it was far over to Dr. Dowie's, and so I knelt down and asked God to heal that boy and next morning the boy was well. That boy was so sick you could see the death palor in his face. My wife spoke to a doctor. The doctor said "It is too late." I said, "God help me here. Prove through my son, that Christ is the Healer." Within the next two days the child was well. But still, the devil was hard at me and was tempting me. My little sister who is now sitting at my side took sick of diphtheria. She could not swallow water or anything to eat for three days and nights. Her mother sat up day and night. I came over and got Dr. Dowie immediately. After prayer he said "Let us test this. Get some bread as hard as you have." She took that piece and ate it. Dr. Dowie says: "Elsie get up and eat;" and from that moment she was well. Not long afterwards she developed sores in her face. I knew very well what it was and I brought her over to the Tabernacle and Dr. Dowie prayed with her and she got quickly well. I took her to a drug store when she was sick, and the druggist said: "What did you bring her in here for." She had small pox. My wife was sick with diphtheria; she had lumps in her throat and outside on her neck. Dr. Dowie said it is a very serious case and must be stopped at once. My wife hardly recognized me. He laid his hands on her neck and she immediately opened her eyes and turned her neck and there was only one on the left side of her throat, and he laid his hands on again and she recovered immediately. And so on. I can say I haven't used a physician since I knew Dr. Dowie. I have been tempted by the devil to go back to medicine but when it came to the point I couldn't forsake my God. My little boy took cold. My wife was very sick. I knew Christ was the physician and I prayed. The next day they were perfectly well. Christ is the Healer and if everybody who doesn't believe the statement will come to my place they will know what I say is true.

A TESTIMONY FROM SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA.

Dr. Dowie said: There is a lady here from Sacramento, Cal., Mrs. E. M. Carly, Sacramento, Cal. She attended our mission there and if she's in the meeting I would like her to stand up. Is she present?

[A gentleman in the audience said she had to go away.] She is living with Mrs. Chas. H. Spencer, 6140 Sheridan Ave. She said to me this morning "I was in your mission in Sacramento, Cal. I want to tell you Doctor about the first case you laid hands on after your arrival from Australia. It was that of Mrs. Brown, which is told in your pamphlet entitled "American First Fruits," an old woman whose foot was to be cut off, sixty-nine years of age. I left Sacramento a few days ago and Mrs. Brown is well still."

HEALED OF A FIVE YEARS' RUNNING ABSCESS

Mrs. Malcolm, 3718 Emerald Avenue, Chicago, said:—I was healed from an abscess in my side which run for five years and was given up by three doctors. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for two years after quitting the doctors. My side got worse. It used to break and run every three weeks. I heard of this teaching through the Inter Ocean. I came here and heard Dr. Dowie's teaching which is most wonderful, and only the truth, and I was healed of the trouble and became quite strong. The second week I went home and did my washing which I hadn't done for a good while. My arm is whole, and I can lift and work it and it is quite strong. I am very thankful to God and to Dr. Dowie's teaching. My husband is in the building and can verify what I say.

Gentleman in audience rising: I can verify that what this lady said is perfectly true.

HEALING OF CONSUMPTION, AND OTHER DISEASES OF NINE YEARS STANDING.

Mrs. Mina Barr, 11234 Indiana Ave., Roseland, Ill., said: In the first part of last April I suffered from tuberculous consumption. I suffered everything imaginable from several diseased organs, heart disease and indigestion. I couldn't eat anything. I suffered most excruciating pain in my chest so I could hardly breathe and I couldn't raise my hands for some days at a time. I kept on suffering. Last April everyone had given me up and thought I could not live much longer. One day reading the Daily News I saw that some wonderful cures had been wrought here. I said, "I wonder if it is anything like Christian Science?" I came here and got the four corners of the gospel for the first time in my life. I accepted the teaching immediately; and was healed in a moment just like that (snapping her fingers). I was healed, among other things of an abscess which had been running for nine years; and every day or so for nine years the physicians had attended me until we had spent everything on physicians. We owe them yet, and after about five years I had to give up having physicians attending me. I had still to insert a tube every day from one to three times to open the abscess, suffering everything. I thank God for my deliverance. Some of my neighbors about Fullman and Kensington, are present and can verify what I say about my healing. [Seven neighbors stood to verify the story].

HEALING OF GRANULATED EYELIDS AND DEFECTIVE SIGHT.

Mrs. E. T. Milner, Sycamore, Ill., said: On the 29th day of August, 1890, I went to Western Springs, near this city, and there learned from the lips of Dr. Dowie who had just arrived from the Pacific Coast, that Jesus Christ came into the world to heal my body. I suffered from granulated eyelids. I just could see. I went to the Lord himself after hearing the teaching and said "Lord open my eyes that have been to these many years afflicted." The eyelids snapped and my eyelids flew open. I said, "Praise God, it is done." They ran for two weeks and then they stopped and all dried up, and I went to an oculist and he turned up the eyelids and he said, "You have had granulated eyelids but, they are all dried up, there is nothing the matter with them now." He said, "You will see better."

HEALING OF CANCER ON THE FACE.

Mr. R. F. Palm, of 588 W. Harrison St., Chicago, said: I want to testify to the glory of God. It was just about two years ago I had a little pimple on my face and it turned out to be a cancer. I had been hearing the doctrine of Divine Healing from the lips of Dr. Dowie in the Grand Army Hall; but in order to be sure about it, I went to the Rush Medical College, and they told me there that it was a cancer and they were very anxious to operate on it. "Oh," I said, "The Lord will get along very well without you." After it was healed I went to them, and they said "Praise the Lord, it is all gone." I was healed by the power of God, and brother Dowie praying with me.

HEALED OF CANCER AND SIXTEEN YEARS' SICKNESSES.

Mrs. N. L. Ames, 4862 Washington Ave., Chicago, said: For sixteen years I was an invalid. Sixteen years ago as some of you will remember, we had a fearful epidemic in Memphis, Tenn. I was the only lady volunteer from Louisville, Ky. I was a Roman Catholic, but I felt they did not give me broad enough work. The doctors always said I was "a lean horse for a long race." I have been a nurse for nineteen years in the sick room. I volunteered and went, and of course contracted a great deal of disease. I had yellow fever and was miraculously healed through prayer and got up and went to work again. I then came away to Louisville and realized that I was a physical wreck. I went to Hot Springs, Arkansas, and placed myself under Dr. LeFevre. The doctor had no belief in giving medicine. He was one of the physicians who has said in my presence that medicine was a failure. I can say I have heard that testimony from a great many physicians. Dr. Gross said in the presence of our class: "Ladies, the sick are in your hands, if they die it is your fault, for we physicians do not know what to do. It is your good sense that will save them and I wouldn't be surprised if some of you saved patients through your instrumentality, and your prayers. As for medicine and surgery, it is a curse." He was President of the Medical College of Philadelphia for many years before his death. I want to say in contracting these diseases I realized the condition myself because I understood a great deal about medicine, in fact, I studied Materia Medica. I realized one thing and that was I was certainly suffering from cancer, internal cancer of the brain, and one time I had a sore here on my forehead. I went to a physician, Dr. Lehman. A friend urged me to go with her and he said it was a positive cancer and was caused from internal cancer. I refused to take any of his medicine. I have not believed in medicine for many years and I always prayed when I desired to be healed. I asked God then to take away that sore. I couldn't bear to have a sore on my body. I couldn't bear to have the thought of it. The sore was healed but it left a very ugly looking scar. I prayed for that to be removed. There is a slight scar there but none of you would notice it. I had paralysis of this right arm and suffered great agony in my hand. I was led in a very wonderful manner into this building. As a Roman Catholic I thought very little outside of it in church matters. I never had heard of this place of Dr. Dowie's. One day I had been suffering severely for three days. I believed that God had forsaken me, though I had praised him from childhood up. I felt as though there was no reason why He should forsake me. I arose and dressed myself and walked and walked on the squares until at last I came to the little tunnel under the railway line near this Tabernacle. I did not realize until then how far I was from home. As I came to this door I found this place nearly as full as now, and crowded, and I had great difficulty in getting in. I was listening for a moment and the first thing that attracted my attention was that beautiful motto over the platform, "Christ is All," in letters of gold. I knew He could heal me. I stayed for a while and Mrs. Dowie was reading from the fifth chapter of Luke. The words came home to me very beautifully. Then I thought, "You are a Catholic, this is not the place for you, get out." But I came up closer, though I was a great deal too weak to stand. A colored girl must have noticed I was weak, and offered me her seat. Before prayer I asked God to give me evidence as to whether it was right for me to come here and receive the teaching. I asked God that He would answer a certain prayer. We all knelt down to pray, and while Dr. Dowie was praying that prayer was answered. My throat had troubled me for years. It was almost impossible for me to speak at all. I had to give it up nearly entirely. I couldn't read aloud in the sick room, which had been a great comfort to the sick. Mrs. Dowie laid hands on my throat and prayed with me herself and I praised God: for I think I should praise God for these things. The cancer in my head, I am confident has passed out through my system. I have never had a particle of pain in my head, since Dr. Dowie laid his hands on my head, and I never had relief previously from pain even when asleep. I think this will suffice. I ask you all to realize that these are not cunningly devised fables.

MANY ARE EAGER TO TESTIFY.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT AS TO FUTURE MEETINGS.

I have had cards handed in to me to the number of about 100 stating cases of Divine Healing from persons who are now present and eager to testify. I will just ask some of these to make brief statements, and at some future time we can hear them more fully, for we shall, God willing, hold a similar meeting to this on the last Lord's Day afternoon of every month.

Mrs. Kate Medbourn, Marmont, Indiana, testified that she was healed of tuberculosis.

Mr. Otto Ninz, 893 N. Lincoln St., City, said: "I was healed of rheumatism, palpitation of the heart, kidney and liver disease, rupture and a lot of other things, also of the filthy tobacco habit. My wife had been sick for eleven years and was operated on twice by Dr. Skyles and Dr. Byford. She is now healed."

Mr. John White, 1146 48th St.: "I was healed of the tobacco habit, and had been using the filthy stuff for thirty-five years."

Dr. Dowie:—"Just think how he must have been saturated with it. Don't you feel clean now? (Very clean). When you go out in the morning your wife hasn't got to throw up the window and say, 'Thank God, he's gone. We can air the house now. Ugh!'"

Mrs. Johanna E. Marsh, 4214 Cottage Grove Ave.: "I have been healed from catarrh in head."

Mrs. E. E. Kettler, 8933 Buffalo Ave., S. Chicago: "I have been healed of salt rheum and rheumatism."

Mrs. Carrie Nelson, 18 N. Peoria St.: "I have been healed of spinal trouble and lung trouble, which I had for six years."

Miss Ruth Keely, 605 65th St.: "I have been healed of hemorrhage of the kidneys and other minor diseases."

Mrs. C. Acres, 7141 Langley Ave.: "I have been healed of heart trouble and inflammatory rheumatism."

Mrs. Ella R. Canary, 1401 70th St.: "I have been healed of nervous disease and heart trouble. My little boy Eddie, five years old, was healed of sore throat and high fever."

Mrs. L. M. Hand, 451 59th St., Englewood, Chicago: "I was healed of spinal, stomach, and bronchial diseases, and piles."

Mrs. David Cowan, 667 Bloomingdale Road: "I was healed of sprained ankle, injured leg, sprained hand, etc."

Mr. David Cowan, lawyer, Unity Building: "I was healed of deafness in right ear of over forty years, piles and other things, and my son Archibald Cowan, was healed in Jackson, Michigan, when dying. Three doctors gave him up. Dr. Dowie visited him with me, and laid hands upon him when all hope was abandoned. I had been summoned by a telegram which said he was dying."

Mrs. Wm. Green, Harvey, Ill.: "I was healed of spinal trouble. I was brought to this Tabernacle on a cot last spring and was raised up and walked and went home. I have never been sick since, now over four months."

Dr. Dowie said:—"There are many similar cases to that of Mrs. Green. We have a brother here from Argos, Ind., who was carried in on a cot here last Tuesday, and was healed instantaneously. This week there have been many other cases of those who have been carried in and who have walked out. That cot (pointing to one on the wall) is the cot on which Miss Amanda Hicks was brought up from Clinton, Ky., when dying of internal cancer in the early part of this year. Dr. Owen of this city and the local physicians and surgeons in Kentucky, could do nothing for her. Miss Hicks is a cousin of the late President Lincoln. She was healed and went back to her College and was received with enthusiasm; but a number of Baptist Ministers of Western Kentucky got together in Clinton, and gave Miss Hicks the option of holding her peace concerning Divine Healing or of resigning the principalship of Clinton College. She resigned her position and went to Europe and is coming back to work for Christ. The Lord have mercy on these ministers—'false shepherds' are they, such as are described in the 34th chapter of Ezekiel; or as Christ said to the lawyers, 'Woe unto you! Ye have taken away the Key of Knowledge, ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.'"

Mrs. Louisa Boldt, 6746 Sangamon St., City, said:—Five months ago I was confined and had an abscess in left side, also had an old hurt on both sides. One of them I have had nearly seventeen years and the other nearly twelve years, received them both in confinement. I had been in bed about eight weeks. Was brought here to Zion Tabernacle, June 13th. Sunday again I went and felt good and was up all day. On Monday morning my doctor called in to see me and examined me, for I had told him nothing. He said with a pleasant smile on his face, "Why that is all gone. I am so glad." When you prayed with me my pain left me instantly and I have been well ever since.

A. G. Myrman, Chicago said:—I was moving a stove and suddenly received the whole weight of it and my back was sprained. Was at Tabernacle Friday night and Dr. Dowie prayed for me and I was healed. I was up at five o'clock next morning thanking the Lord for the healing.

Miss Lottie Bach, 609-32nd St.;—I was healed of stomach trouble.

Miss Minnie Stade, 2944 Parnell Ave.;—I was healed of near-sightedness and backache.

Mrs. Susan Sykes:—I had a severe cold and was for years laid up with rheumatism and for months at a time was not able to put my feet on the ground. Had hemorrhage of the lungs. I am healed of all my infirmities and can praise His Holy Name for His love and light and for many blessings in spirit, soul, and body.

Miss Blanche Neely, 2619 Indiana Ave.;—I was healed of nervousness and have received great spiritual blessing.

Mrs. Janet Hamilton, 3547 Fifth Ave., Chicago, Ill.;—I was sick twelve years with Chronic Diarrhœa, and the Lord has healed me.

Mrs. S. Johnson, 5463 Madison Ave.;—I was healed of trouble with stomach, heart disease and chills.

Mrs. W. B. Young, 6064 Oglesby Ave.;—I was healed of spinal trouble and womb trouble.

DRAWING THE MEETING TO A CONCLUSION.

Dr. Dowie said:—It is now nearing six o'clock, and this crowded assembly has now been in continuous session for fully three hours, very few have left, and many hundreds have been standing within this building and outside. I see many faces at these windows which have not left them for a moment throughout these proceedings. It is now time to close, although "the half has not been told" for there are scores and scores of eager faces around me ready to witness for their Lord and God—that blessed Jesus whose Name is so inexpressibly dear to all who know him:—

"It soothes our sorrows, heals our wounds,
And drives away our fear."

But before we close, I want the verdict of this large assemblage—no larger can ever gather in this Tabernacle. You have heard for yourselves God's Witnesses to Divine Healing, and you have heard our Teaching in Jesus' Name.

I SHALL SUBMIT TO YOU THREE QUESTIONS.

First: Have you heard sufficient testimony to enable you to come to a definite conclusion?

"Yes"—in an instant from the entire audience.

Second: Will all who now believe the doctrine that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Healer to-day of his people as nineteen centuries ago, hold up their hands.

(All held up their hands).

Third: Will all who reject that; and who believe that Christ is not the Healer to-day, hold up their hands.

Thank God there isn't an infidel among you.

Here a man in the audience rose and said in a ringing voice: "I used to be one. I am going to send three of the LEAVES OF HEALING to Robert Ingersoll of whom I was a devoted follower. I was converted in this mission, and I rejoice in Christ as my Saviour. I was six years in the United States navy and three in the army. Ever since nine years old I have taken care of myself. I came in here an infidel, but God has taken all my unbelief away.

Dr. Dowie—Hallelujah! That is a fitting conclusion.

Infidelity withers away in the presence of such unimpeachable facts. Send them to Ingersoll, and all like him. They ask for proofs. HERE THEY ARE. Now, let the infidels within the churches and outside of them, answer the common American question, "What are you going to do about it?" We shall praise God, and go forward in preaching the Everlasting Gospel.

After the Doxology was sung with great earnestness, Dr. Dowie closed with the following:—

PRAYER.

God of all mercy and compassion, how boundless is Thy grace, how it has reached us, and how our heart rejoices in the saving-health that came to us, and that is going now once more to all the nations. Father in Heaven, bless the testimony that will now go in the LEAVES OF HEALING from this meeting; and, as the story of this gathering is laid upon the dying bed and the weak invalid holds with trembling hands the paper and reads of the wonderful works of God, oh, Holy Spirit, reveal Jesus as standing beside that bed. May the sick touch His seamless robe by faith and be healed where they lie. God bless the wide world. Cleanse us from every stain and grant by Thy grace, by the blood of Thy Son, by the power of the Holy Spirit, we may be at last presented spotless before the throne of our Father with exceeding joy. Meanwhile there are weary and sick and sorrowing ones to help. O God help us to help others for Jesus' sake. Amen.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil and the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost abide in you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever, Amen.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A CONSIDERABLE portion of this issue of the LEAVES is devoted to a full report of the Praise and Testimony meeting held in Zion Tabernacle on the afternoon of last Lord's Day, Sept. 30th. May God abundantly bless the testimonies of His Witnesses. We believe they told the truth, and yet not all the truth: for the details of the healings are more wonderful than the speakers could find time or words to tell.

It was a wonderful gathering. Zion Tabernacle, with every available foot of standing room occupied, did not hold one third of those who came to hear and see.

Hundreds of men and women stood for three intensely interesting hours in and around the building, happy if they might see through the open doors and windows. Oh, how we longed for a larger Tabernacle, for the sake of these earnest throngs. Truly God has fulfilled His promise to "open the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

BUT the best part of the meeting is not recorded in the report. More than 700 persons responded to God's Call to Repentance before the testimonies were given. The flood-gates of grief for sin, and heart longings for God and goodness were opened, and the scene during the prayer which that throng of penitents uttered was most impressive. How can we praise God for these "times of refreshing" as we ought? No harp was ever made that could strike a note so exalted and triumphant as our spirit's praise demands. Only the "joy in the presence of the angels" could express our joy and gratitude.

WE had begun well: for the morning service was attended by marked demonstrations of the Holy Spirit's presence and power. The bright happy testimonies of some of those healed during the previous week was followed by our discourse on the words "In My Name," at the close of which nearly 400 persons responded to the Call to Repentance, and sought openly forgiveness of their sins. So the day began well, and the people were in a state of expectancy.

THE evening saw over 60 added to the above number of penitents—making between eleven and twelve hundred for the day. How the Joy Bells rang in earth and heaven! It was one of the best days of harvesting in all our ministry, and only exceeded by the Sabbath day in April last when over 2000 persons sought the Lord openly in the Central Music Hall, and in Zion Tabernacle.

"When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion
We were like unto them that dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing;
Then said they among the nations,
The Lord hath done great things for them.
The Lord hath done great things for us;
Whereof we are glad."

MONDAY evening last saw a miracle of healing in the presence of all the guests in Home No. 1, where the friends residing in both Homes had met for special teaching and prayer for healing. A young woman who had not walked for six and a half years rose from her invalid chair and walked. She has improved steadily "in every way" as she said subsequently in Zion Tabernacle.

WE have seen many hundreds of persons in the Healing Room of the Tabernacle, and the resumption of the morning meetings has relieved the pressure somewhat of the throngs attending the week day afternoon meetings. There have been many healings, some of them were very startling and instantaneous and made a deep impression on the people, who "glorified the God of Israel."

THE Business Manager of Zion Publishing House, the Rev. S. J. Harrison, has retired from the editorship of "the Brethren Evangelist," and is now giving his entire time and attention to assisting us in various departments of our work.

The interim editor says of him:—

"But little has been said of him and of his work, and perhaps little will be said hereafter; but let it be known, that in the name of Gospel religion and Divine truth, his ministry in Chicago is the greatest occurrence in the history of the Brethren cause. Dr. Dowie's ministry is of God, and he has shown himself to be a man of God."

Another writer, the Rev. J. O. Talley, says in the same paper of Sept. 26th:—

"Our retiring editor, Brother S. J. Harrison, has given us an excellent paper this two years that he has conducted the Evangelist for us, and he certainly has our best thanks for his untiring efforts in the work to which we called him, and from which he now retires honored and loved by many thousands of Brethren and friends. The indefatigable labors of his noble wife have been felt in the general tone and literature of the paper. I think I voice the sentiment of the Brotherhood when I wish them God speed, and much success in the new field which they will enter; and that God's blessing and the hearty wishes of all His children go with them in their new calling."

IT gives us sincere pleasure to record these well-deserved tributes of esteem for our friend and helper from those with whom he has been so long, and, also, to note the general tone of confidence in ourselves and our work for the Lord. We feel that the unselfish spirit in which his brethren have surrendered him does them honor in these days when there is so much selfishness displayed in denominational life.

LOOKING over a file of the Evangelist we find the following in its issue of Oct. 3rd, from the pen of the Rev. C. Forney, of Aurelia, Iowa:—

"I left Ashland for Chicago, Aug. 31, to spend a few days with Dr. Dowie in the Divine Healing Home to see and hear for myself the wonderful things I was told and read about. Now some may ask what did you see and hear, and what do you think of it? I answer, time and space forbid me to write it out. If anyone is not satisfied that God heals people now as when Christ was here in the flesh and as in the apostolic age, go to the Divine Healing Home, 6020 Edgerton Ave., Chicago and see for yourself. Or subscribe for Leaves of Healing, and if you believe half what you read, you will be convinced God heals now. "Because I have seen I believe, blessed are they who see not and yet believe" "

THANKS, brethren, for your kind appreciation; and when it is within our power to aid you in your work for the Master, we shall be glad to do so. May God abundantly bless your labors in the extension of His kingdom, and hasten the day of the union of all Believers in a visible Catholic Church—A true representation of the "General Assembly and Church of the First Born whose names are written in Heaven." The only Church Rolls that we recognize as absolutely correct are those written there.

THE M. D.s are still coming to the front in connection with Divine Healing. Our good friend, Dr. Ware, of Staunton, Tennessee, who was for some weeks a guest in Home No. 1, has been sending his friends and patients here, and we have four of them here now. Another Doctor in Kentucky sent his wife and daughter here, and now openly praises God for that daughter's healing. A leading Chicago surgeon whose office is in the Central Music Hall Block warmly recommended one of his patients afflicted with cancer to go to Zion Tabernacle, and she was, with good results, a guest in our Home. Several Christian doctors have made application to be received into the Home to be prayed for, and one high in office as an Examining Surgeon in the United States service has written us a long kind letter approving our teaching.

SOME of the Christian doctors of the city are becoming very much exercised in conscience as to whether they shall continue in medical practice. One very able gentleman writes to us as follows, under date of October 2nd: "Hearing of your work, I went for further light. I saw, and was convinced that the Lord is working gloriously through you. But the question for me is, 'Lord, what wouldst Thou have me to do?'"

I wish to thank you for the great help your teaching has been to me, and will say that both publicly and privately I am proclaiming the great truth that Jesus heals spirit, soul and body. Several times I have been told that if I continue to so teach I will undermine my business. I say, 'If speaking to the glory of God will undermine my business, then let the business go. God can care for me and mine in some other way.' I have subscribed for LEAVES OF HEALING and take the papers to my patients, until they show wear already. I am trying to bring to the Lord a man far advanced in phthisis (consumption)."

THESE are noble utterances, and, although our brother is not yet determined fully to abandon medical practice, he is not far from that decision. He is no coward, but still he "Stands shivering on the brink,

And fears to launch away."

Do not fear, brother, step into the boat, and pull for the shining shore, just across this little sea. The Master stands there beckoning you to come over and help Him: for all around Him are the disease stricken who have crept upward toward His feet from this surging sea of sin, sorrow, and sickness. But you must leave your medicine chest and surgical cases behind you.

Christ never used them, and He never will. He never promised to bless your pills, potions and plasters, and He never will.

Leave the dead to physic and bury their dead. There are plenty of them to do it. Follow thou Jesus only, and fear not. You will make a better minister of Christ's "saving health" than you will a minister 'of man's medical nostrums.' Oh, how weary the people are of these. They say as God said through Jeremiah (46: 11) "In vain shalt thou use many medicines:" or as Job, "Ye are all physicians of no value."

A physician is needed, and God has provided Him in the person of His Son. Point dying men to Him, and they shall live who look to Him alone in faith, even as they did when Moses lifted up the brazen serpent in the wilderness. Many might have sneered at his unscientific ignorance and insane folly, but the scoffers died and those who looked in faith lived. It is just the same to-day.

WE are informed that many who were expected to testify last Lord's Day came to Zion Tabernacle to do so; but could not get inside the building because of the crowds outside.

Amongst these were the boy and girl whose sight was restored, to whose cases we referred last week. We hope to have these, and many others at our next Praise and Testimony Meeting on Lord's Day afternoon, 28th October. It is our intention to hold such meetings regularly on the last Lord's Day of every month.

OUR paper has been very late in the last two issues. The delay was unavoidable, and was principally due, first, to a want of "power" to move our printing press and other machinery, and, second, to unexpected defects in our engine. The Hyde Park Gas Company worked hard for a week to remove the first, by pumping the water out of their main pipes on Stony Island Avenue, and by giving us a larger service; and the second hindrance was removed by a thorough overhaul of our seven horse power gas engine, and certain alterations to valves. Everything is now in first class condition, and all machinery runs smoothly and quickly.

All hands on board are smiling, and the "forms" of type which hampered our "imposing stones," are now making their impress for God and the good of man, upon thousands of fair white sheets of paper. We do not apologize: for we did the best we could; but we feel it due to ourselves and our readers, that we should explain the principal causes of the delay.

WE have instructed our photographer to come and take views of Zion Publishing House within and without; and we hope to hand these pictures to our engraver; and have them printed in LEAVES OF HEALING before the end of this month. We take an intense delight in our little printing and publishing house, and we have made many sacrifices in establishing it. Many of our friends have nobly assisted us, and many who say they are our friends have not. We wish both every needed blessing, the latter especially: for they need it most. We shall hope to show this beginning of our printing and publishing work in America in such a way as to enlist the sympathy and co-operation of the many friends who tell us that they ask God to bless us but fail to see that they might do something towards answering their prayers. All is well: God is with us' and Zion Publishing House is an accomplished fact. It now remains for all our friends to help us to use the beautiful tools which God has given us to do our little part in building up the walls of Zion, especially at the place where the "hyenas" of disease have been going in and out at their pleasure.

We desire to "publish Peace" with God, and "War" with Satan.

May God give us world-wide victory through faith in Jesus in this Holy War. Amen and amen.

"BRETHREN, pray for us."

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 96 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore drive and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desired that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishing of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode. Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the center group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred have been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend to all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

DIVINE HEALING VINDICATED.

A REPLY BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

To an Attack by The Rev. Dr. Chapman, and the Oakland Pastors' Union.

Now as to the fifth objection. This is an important objection in our friend's opinion I suppose; but I marvel at educated Christian men sending it forth. The Manifesto says:

"THIS DOCTRINE FAILS TO CONSIDER THE ASCENDING SCALE OF DIVINE DISPENSATIONS, and applies to the present exalted period and condition of the church of Christ that which manifestly pertained to an earlier and lower period and condition. From the Garden in Genesis to the City in Revelation God has been and is constantly leading humanity onward and upward."

Now one word as to the present condition of the church of Christ. Is it now a more exalted church than the apostolic church? ("By no means," replied from the congregation). Will any man say that the church of Christ to-day is equal to the church of the first century? (Replies of "No.") It is the first time that I have heard any Christian minister assert it.

Beloved, the ascending scale of which our brethren speak from Genesis to Revelation does not exist. From the Garden in Genesis man went forth. What became of man in the following seventeen centuries? Did he gradually ascend into a higher spiritual and moral condition from the Garden? No! the inspired record gives another answer. Men descended into such depths or depravity, into such depths of sin and immorality, that the Word says that in the days of Noah, "God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." Gen. 6: 5. Where is the ascending scale there? Again it is written, "God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth, . . . for the earth is filled with violence through them." Gen. 6: 12, 13. The whole world defied and denied God; and He destroyed it, and there were only eight persons out of all its inhabitants who were saved. Where is the ascending scale to Noah? For one thousand seven hundred years it was a descending scale.

From the time of the flood where is the ascending scale—from the flood to Christ? Did man get better? Man got worse and worse; they built the Babel tower and were scattered abroad, and their language was confused. Did men get better? Did the people of God get better after Abraham? For a while, no; they went down for four centuries to slavery in Egypt. Did they get better after they were brought into the Promised Land? No; they went down into idolatry and immorality, and were largely scattered. Did they get better from the time of Malachi to Christ? They went down lower and lower, so that when the Son of God came to this world which He had created, His own chosen people crucified and denied Him. "He came unto His own and His own received Him not." The masses had sunk into untold depravity. Read the first chapter of Romans, verses 21 to 32, and see how low man had sunk. When Christ came it was the midnight hour of spiritual, moral, and physical depravity; man had gone down; Christ brought him up again. Christ founded a Church, and in less than three centuries heathenism was largely swept away from the Roman Empire. But did the ascending scale continue? No; humanity went down, for the heathen priests flocked into the church of God. About the middle of the fourth century, the State patronized the church and Constantine became a nominal Christian, persecution ceased, and Christianity became the law of the Roman realm; then the unclean priests flocked in and the Pontifex Maximus of Jupiter became the Pontifex Maximus of Christ. He who wears the Roman tiara to-day is the Pontifex Maximus of Jupiter, an apostate priest, whose claim to apostolic succession is genuine, if it be understood as the spiritual succession of the apostate Judas Iscariot; for the pope still steals Christ's money, and sells Him for gain every day. The enemy came in like a flood; all true faith disappeared, and for more than ten centuries the church of Christ was almost lost in the degradation of the middle ages. Was that an ascending scale, when the popes were adulterers and murderers, and the Vatican was filled with harlots? Was that an ascending scale, when Christians were persecuted and murdered for printing the Bible? Was that an ascending scale, when the church of God went down to the deepest depravity? God raised up Luther, and many great reformers, and then the Word of God went abroad, and the church of God has been rising ever since. The doctrine of salvation by the grace of God through faith in Jesus came back; and now

THE DOCTRINE OF DIVINE HEALING BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH IN JESUS HAS COME BACK AGAIN.

("Praise the Lord," from the congregation). The Lord give us power to help in bringing it back in its fullness to the church of to-day; the "old-time religion," that tells us Jesus Christ is a present healer. ("Amen," from the audience). We want no other "ascending scale" than the restoration of the glorious old-time religion. ("Amen," from the people). We want the religion of the first century. I will be content with the religion which Jesus taught and lived, and the power of the Holy Ghost as shown in Paul; let me get back to that and I will give these brethren their "ascending scale." (Laughter, and exclamations of "Hallelujah," "Glory to Jesus," "Praise the Lord"). Yes, praise Him! The Lord is with us!

And so Divine Healing is a "lower plane," is it? Oh, let me get back and see the face of the Healer! Let me get back to see Christ as He was nineteen centuries ago! ("Amen"). Let Him be now what He was then. ("Hallelujah"). I want no higher plane than to "see Jesus," and I can: for He lifts us up to His throne by faith. We hear Him say, "I am the Lord, I change not."

We are also charged with being guilty of

"MANY TRAVESTIES OF GOD'S WORD"

and that is to me a very serious charge, and one which should not be lightly made by my brethren. Now in both the instances attributing this offense to me, they most manifestly err, both as to what we teach, and as to what God teaches, which is much more important.

The first of these charges is that of misrepresenting the 35th chapter of Isaiah, which they say we interpret as typical, except in one portion. This is not the case, as many of you who have heard my addresses on that chapter know. It is always interpreted by us in the most literal sense, and it is our critics who give it the typical and figurative meaning. For instance, we teach that it presents Salvation, verses 1 to 4; Healing, verses 5 to 7; and Holiness, verses 8 and 9; whilst verse 10 shows the Home Coming of the believers, who thus take Jesus for a perfect Saviour of spirit, soul, and body; they "come to Zion with songs, and Everlasting Joy upon their heads." Our Lord applied verses 5 and 6 to Himself when He sent back the messengers from John the Baptist. Matt. 11, verses 1 to 6. We fail to see how we can be charged with a travesty of Scripture, when our Lord applies that chapter to His own ministry of Salvation and Healing.

The second charge is that we misapply the passage in 34th of Ezekiel about the false shepherds of Israel. Now the proof of this charge being a misrepresentation of our teaching lies in the fact that this passage has never once been mentioned in our public lectures, often as we have been reminded of the chapter by the conduct of some of our brethren towards Jesus as their Healer. But the fact that our Lord himself preached the sermon to the false shepherds in John 10, who had just excommunicated the man born blind to whom He had restored sight, shows that it might be no straining of the passage, if we applied it literally to those shepherds of to-day who arrogantly threaten to expel their people, and demand that their office-bearers in the church shall resign, because they confess Christ as a Present Healer. It is a fact beyond all question that the words in Ezekiel 34: 4 are applicable to many who persecute their people for seeking the Lord as their Healer, and to those of them who hinder the sick from coming to the Divine Healing Streams which are once more flowing through the earth. "The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them." It was our Lord's works of Healing which especially "moved with indignation" the shepherds of His day, and it seems as if it were the same to-day; for we are assailed with incredible bitterness by some of our fellow-shepherds, for daring to teach, that there is "Balm in Gilead," and that Christ is still the "Physician" of His people. Why should it be so? Have we no rights, as brethren in the Lord? Should we not be treated with fraternal love? Even if we were wrong, would it be right to assail us as we have been assailed? God forbid that we should bring an unjust accusation against our brethren; but is it not true that we have been spoken against as if we had been evil-doers, when daily we have walked with God in all humility and love towards all men? Whom have we injured? Beyond all question many have been saved and healed in our Missions in and around San Francisco, and no one can say truthfully otherwise.

IS IT FOR BEING USED OF GOD IN BLESSING TO OTHERS THAT WE ARE PERSECUTED?

Does it not seem as if the words of our Lord were applicable to some in these days: "In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive; for this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should heal them." Matt. 13: 14, 15. But there is a stirring among the dry bones of the House of Israel, and a new life is breathing upon the sick and the sorrowing who are lying on countless beds of pain. They are hearing the many voices of those whom God is enabling to speak the Word of life; they are seeing the glorious light of the Sun of Righteousness, who has arisen upon them "with Healing in His wings," and soon an "exceeding great army of these will stand upon their feet to witness for Jesus as a Present Healer. Many are looking up, and seeing more and more clearly every day that

Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

Oh! that our brethren in the ministry of our Lord would cease to oppose the Gospel of Divine Healing, and see that they are only fighting against God, and that they cannot prevail.

The sixth objection of the Manifesto is:

THIS DOCTRINE SETS UP AN UNSCRIPTURAL AND FALSE TEST of full and acceptable relationship with Christ. If perfect bodily health is the perpetual privilege of all who believe in Jesus, as the advocates of this doctrine claim, then only those who are in perfect bodily health are enjoying their full privileges in Christ."

We do not dispute the accuracy, and we defend the truth, of this accusation, if special stress be laid upon the last words, "their full privileges in Christ." But we deny that the assertion which follows is true, viz. "This is not only unscriptural and false but it is abhorrent to human reason, and the human heart."

"Human reason and the human heart," so far as they are honest, are very much on the side of this doctrine, as our friends will, and already do, find; for men of common sense are asking what all this clerical indignation is about, if they who oppose us believe the Bible, which distinctly teaches Christ is the Healer, and that He never changes. Why do our critics not venture, if our doctrine is "unscriptural and false," to give us a single passage of Scripture to prove it so? Such declamations go for a little less than nothing at all, with every reasonable person; for if a charge of that kind is capable of proof, it can be sustained by an appeal to the Scripture. Throughout the whole of the long Manifesto against us, there is only one single passage of Scripture quoted, with the book from which it is taken given. Those who scatter such charges as these should take pains to show wherein we are teaching things which are "unscriptural and false." We have already shown, and are always engaged in doing so, that it is the "full privilege" of the believer to be sanctified in spirit, soul, and body (1 Thess. 5:23) and no one can fairly dispute the fact that this teaching is scriptural, and, therefore, true.

The Pastor's Manifesto further says:

"THE INFLUENCE OF THIS DOCTRINE, IF ACCEPTED AND PROMULGATED, CANNOT FAIL TO BE HARMFUL.

It brings upon the blessed gospel of Christ needless and harmful reproach, by claiming for it that which it was not designed to give. Hence, wherever this standard is set up and this doctrine taught, thinking men are thereby inclined to scoff at religion, and these scoffings are not silenced nor weakened by any of the achievements of this faith. . . . The claims of the advocates of this doctrine are not vindicated by their achievements. The alleged healings are far from satisfactory to the spirit of sincere and honest inquiry. They are usually incomplete and temporary, and many times decidedly questionable."

Now these are serious charges; but they are not true. We know they are not true, and the proofs of the statement are in this building this afternoon, and are to be found in every place where we have held missions in this State, and throughout Australasia. We point to the facts which are recorded in the little pamphlet which I recently published, not a single one of which has been successfully assailed. That pamphlet is entitled "American First Fruits," and contains the record of our praise and testimony meetings for the first five months of our ministry in this country. Every one of these meetings was reported by Mr. G. H. Hawes, of 320 Sansome Street, San Francisco, and he is a professional gentleman well known in this city, and in this State. Dare anyone deny the accuracy of these reports? The first case of Divine Healing recorded there is as perfect this day as it was the moment she was healed, and that was on June 16 last. She has testified to that fact publicly on December 23, in the Central Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, and will do so, God willing, in Hamilton Hall, Oakland, Monday evening, February 4, at our praise and testimony meeting there. It was a serious case of an aged lady, who had a diseased ankle bone, and

THE HEALING WAS IMMEDIATE, PERFECT AND PERMANENT.

She was saved also in the same hour in which she was healed; but of course the salvation preceded the healing. Can anyone truthfully deny that fact?

Take also the case of Mr. C. H. Lathweson, of San Jose, who is a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church there.

Will any one dare to deny that he was perfectly, instantly, and permanently healed of thirty years' troubles, when at the point of death, in our mission there last August? He had heart and spinal disease, and a cancer in the stomach. His own physician publicly testified to his healing, and only last Monday week, January 14, he testified to his perfect recovery in the presence of a crowded audience at the Centella M. E. Church, San Jose.

Are these healings and scores of others which we could name "far from satisfactory, incomplete, temporary, or decidedly questionable," as the Pastors' Manifesto wrongly says? Our "achievements" are nothing; for we have never claimed to heal, and have never healed anyone. We give God all the glory, and it is His work, not our own that we are now defending against these attacks. We do not say, and never did say, that all who are healed retain their healings; for we know of several who have lost faith in Christ as their Healer through the unbelief of their pastors and Christian friends. Some have gone back through falling into sin, and that is in perfect accordance with the word of our Lord, who said to one whom He had Himself healed, "Behold thou art made whole; sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." John 5: 14. Had this man gone back into sin, would it have been a legitimate charge against our Lord's work if some one had found him in a worse condition than before?

No, it would have been in perfect accord with His declaration, and this is still the case; for the retention of every healing is conditional upon continued faithfulness. That which is received through faith is retained by faith. But we only know of a very few cases out of many hundreds who have professed to be healed who have gone back to their sickness. Does it prove that no one is converted because so many who profess backslide? How would our friends, the pastors, like us to apply that test to their churches? Backsliders are too numerous in every church, alas! to doubt what the result of such a test would be.

We are told by our critics also that "the promulgation of this doctrine cannot fail to be harmful." There are scores here to-day who have been healed. Will all who have been healed rise—all that have been healed through faith in Jesus? (About seventy persons stood up).

HAS IT HARMED YOU TO BE HEALED?

(Cries of "No! No!") Has it made you less earnest Christians? (Replies of "Made us better.") Are you less desirous to serve your fellow-men? ("No! More so!") My sister, how many years were you sick? ("Mr. Dowie addressed this question to Miss Wilcox, a sufferer for twenty-eight years, who had been healed on July 2, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, San Francisco, an account of which is given fully in "American First Fruits," pages 13, 22 and 23).

Miss Wilcox,—"fifteen years."

Nearly seven months ago you found salvation and found healing in the same moment, rose up and was well, and you continue so to this day? "Yes, sir."

Miss Annie Burkman, how long were you blind in one of your eyes?

"Fourteen and one-half years."

And can you see now?

"Yes, sir."

Does it make you love Christ any less?

"Makes me love Christ better."

Are you thankful to Christ?

"Yes, sir." (This case appears in "American First Fruits," pages 55 and 56.)

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14: 6 and Exodus 15: 26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13: 8 and Matthew 28: 20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 and Matthew 8: 17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3: 8, Matthew 4: 23 and Acts 10: 38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11: 29 and 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8: 5-13, Matthew 18: 19, James 5: 14, 15, Mark 16: 18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

JAMES A. NICHOLS.

THE MAN "ON WHOM THIS MIRACLE OF HEALING WAS SHOWN" is one of a rapidly diminishing class of citizens in the United States. He wears the bronze badge of the Grand Army of the Republic, and fought to maintain the Union and liberate the slave. We rejoice that God has used us to men who fought on both sides of that terrible conflict. In some of our Missions we have found men sitting beside each other who fought on opposite sides at Gettysburg, singing out of the same hymn book

"We're marching upward to Zion,
The Beautiful City of God."

To such true Christian heroes the war ended when Lee surrendered at Appomattox on April 9th 1865; but to some foolish people, on both sides of the Potomac, it never ends. God pity the men who would tear open old wounds, and revive the old enmities. Let Peace reign.

On the afternoon of Tuesday, August 7th, a little more than two months ago whilst conducting the service in Zion Tabernacle, we noticed the pale, suffering face of this old soldier, as he reclined in the invalid chair shown in this picture. He had been placed with other sufferers immediately in front of our platform. Throughout our long address he listened with intense interest, and was wheeled into the Healing Room by the kind hands of the sympathetic Grand Army comrades who had brought him there from Harvey, Illinois, a few miles south of Chicago. He had long desired to see us, and we had heard of his case, and had prayed that he might be enabled to be brought to Zion Tabernacle. He had come fully expecting God to heal him for Jesus' sake, and he was not disappointed. The lower part of his body was paralyzed, and for fully thirty years, from the time he left the army, he had suffered from a long succession of painful maladies. His physicians deposed on their oath about five months ago that he was suffering from nine different diseases and disabilities, and that he could not possibly recover. This sworn testimony is a matter of public record in Washington D. C., and none can honestly or successfully dispute the facts as to his apparently hopeless condition when he sought God for healing at our hands.

We shall never forget, nor will the score or two of men present in the Healing Room, the glorious work of instantaneous healing wrought by God in the Healing Room, the glorious work of instantaneous healing wrought by God in the restoration of Nichols through our hands. We uttered our brief invocation, "In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ; in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God our Heavenly Father." Laying hands upon his poor feeble, disease-smitten and pain-racked body, we said "Rise, in Christ's Name!" placing both our hands in his. He was on his feet in a moment, walked without assistance around the room, and left it wheeling his chair in front of him. He returned to his home in Harvey as he describes, and from that time he has been going about in good health, and increasing daily in strength. He frequently attends the meetings in Zion Tabernacle, and in the morning service of Lord's Day, Sept. 2nd, he delivered the following testimony, which was followed by the confirmatory words of his faithful wife. We then asked them both to go to Gibson, our photographer, and get their picture taken so that we might engrave it for the LEAVES OF HEALING. They agreed to do it in the manner depicted. Here is the victorious soldier, so long held in the bondage of disease by the devil, who used to be helplessly wheeled about by his wife. He has asked his wife to occupy his place, and now our readers behold him, with a gleeful look of triumph in his eyes, wheeling her with his stick and crutch thrown in. How could the Victory which Christ has won be better illustrated. He has raised this man up amidst the Valley of Dry Bones which Ezekiel saw (chapter 37) two thousand five hundred years ago, and which we see all around us to-day. And now we muster James A. Nichols, in the Name of the Lord, into "THE EXCEEDING GREAT ARMY" of those upon whom the Spirit breathes, and who are marching onward under the flag of the Cross to the Union of the Church of God, and the Liberation of the entire human race from the oppression of Satan and Sin, Disease and Death, and all the powers of Hell. Comrades, Attention! Put on the whole armour of God! We shall conquer in the Name that is above every Name. Victory is nigh. Forward!

"Like a mighty army
 Moves the Church of God,
 Brothers, we are treading
 Where the saints have trod.
 Crowns and thrones may perish,
 Kingdoms rise and wane,
 But the Church of Jesus,
 Constant will remain.
 Glory, praise and honor
 Unto Christ the King,
 This through countless ages,
 Men and angels sing."

TESTIMONY OF JAMES A. NICHOLS,—

ADDRESS P. O. BOX 223, HARVEY, ILL.

[Delivered at the morning service in Zion Tabernacle, September 2nd, 1894.]

I was here last Tuesday and Brother Dowie requested me to be here to-day and give my testimony. I thank the Lord that I am able to be here.

I have been a sufferer for thirty years with different diseases and I do not know any better way to get at it than to take up each disease separate and tell you how they have been and what has become of them.

Some thirty years ago I contracted RHEUMATISM which has followed me all the way down to the present time, or until just recently. I have either been on my back, on crutches, on a rolling chair or hobbling on a cane the greater part of the time. I have had eleven rheumatic fevers and I have laid on my bed from three to ten months at a time. It would seem like taking my life to walk, I was such a sufferer. I can not explain to you the misery and suffering I have endured. No one can understand it except those who have suffered the same. All pain has gone. I am suffering no pain. My limbs are not quite as free as they used to be, and the joints are enlarged, and perhaps never will be as small as they were, as it was inflammatory rheumatism, but I am not suffering any, and have not suffered any pain since I was here three weeks ago last Tuesday.

CHRONIC DIARRHEA has been a great trouble to me. It attacks me at intervals, sometimes in two or three weeks and sometimes not oftener than in two or three months. I have had a good deal of trouble from that. Now it has entirely disappeared. Time will tell but I have faith to believe it will not trouble me any more.

HEART DISEASE I contracted some twenty-five years ago, as near as I can remember. This is the result of rheumatism, the doctors claim, and I have suffered a great deal from this disease. I had palpitation of the heart sometimes so severe that it was thought perhaps I could not go through some attacks of it, and I had sluggishness of the beating of the pulse. I had spells so that I have fallen when I was on the street and pitched over when I have been working in the shop. They all thought I could never live out some of these attacks, but I still live. I have not suffered any of the symptoms of that disease since I was here. I hardly ever go one or two weeks without feeling some symptoms of it.

LUNG TROUBLE. That I have had for fifteen years. The doctors claim that my right lung is destroyed, and has been for twelve years or more, and that the left one is weak; and three doctors, in the city of Appleton, a few years ago, on their oath said I had Consumption complicated with asthma and other diseases, and for that I received $1,000 from the Society of United Friends of New York, of which I was a member. The lung trouble I have no symptoms of, nor any symptoms of asthma nor anything that looked like symptoms of it, since I was healed three weeks ago last Tuesday.

I also have suffered from ULCERS IN THE BOWELS some fifteen years, and it has caused me to suffer a great deal of pain and has caused weakness of the bowels, and for the last eight months I have had to attend to numerous calls of nature from three to eight or nine times a day. On the morning I came here, three weeks ago last Tuesday, I had to attend to nature's calls five times and my wife said, "What in the world will your comrades do with you?" and I said, "We will trust that to the Lord." Since I have returned, nature has called me up one to three times a day, all pain has gone, and I feel no symptoms of that trouble whatever.

SPINAL IRRITATION, result of ulcers, caused sore places in the joints, sometimes in one place and sometimes in another, and afflicted the head in the base of the brain here until it made me wild, almost crazy. I would feel like I would like to run and ram my head against a stone wall, and I would think sometimes my best friends were my worst enemies. I am healed of this trouble also. All this I have suffered and the Lord has done wonders for me on this line, and I am glad to be here this day to testify to what the Lord has done for me.

I had IRITIS, or DEEP SEATED INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES. That I contracted some twenty-two years ago last February, and that was the first attack I had of that trouble. That is very severe to bear. You cannot endure light. I had to be kept in a dark room. My physician could do nothing for me and I was blind for thirty days. They called in a council, and it was decided to send me to Boston to be treated by specialists. I went there and in about six weeks my right eye recovered nearly; but my left eye I never got the sight of perfectly. Until the last five or six years my left eye has almost been totally blind and I could only tell daylight from darkness. That has almost entirely disappeared. On my return home I took up my Bible on purpose to see if it was better. I closed my right eye and could see to read with it closed. I thank God for that. I had not prayed for that. I had prayed God to remove the paralysis, and that He would enable me to get out of that chair, for it was the biggest trial of my life to be there.

PARALYSIS OF THE MUSCLES. or as the doctors called it.

RHEUMATIC PARALYSIS. I was suffering so that I was not able to rise to my feet. I was not able to raise this arm. I could not raise it this way. I have not dressed or undressed without assistance for three years. This trouble first began about six years ago. I could not walk a step or stand up or move my feet, and when I wanted to cross my legs I had to take up my leg this way and lay it over. This trouble has disappeared and I can stand as you see, here before you, which I could not do when I came here three weeks ago last Tuesday. I can use my arms in any shape I choose, just as freely as I ever could in my life. I can pick up my feet and put them down solid and there is no pain from using them in that shape.

I feel like a new man and I walked last Tuesday from my home to the depot in Harvey, and I went across by the post-office which would make it a little over six blocks. They call a block there one-eighth of a mile so I walked six-eighths of a mile without any cane. I got aboard the train and came to Woodlawn, walked here, and, after services, walked back and from the depot to my home again. Besides that I went out of my way a little more than in the morning, to go to the G. A. R. Hall, and walked up two flights of stairs without the use of a cane or taking hold of anything.

I have done some work since about my home. I have done some work around the house and yard, used the spade a little, used the paint brush, etc.

Before I came here I do not know that I have had a good night's sleep three of them in succession for thirty years, on account of pain and aches and suffering. Since I returned from here I have slept like a child. I go to bed and go to sleep. I get up in the morning and feel refreshed.

Before I came here I had no appetite in the morning. I could not eat anything and could not step out of my bed, I would feel so bad. I would feel better in the afternoon but I was poor and lean. After I left here for my home, when I got home I said to my wife, "I am hungry, I want something to eat." I had wanted something to eat for some time. The first thing I ate was a dish of ice cream, at one of my comrade's homes. I got home about 11 or 11:30 and called for something to eat and ate like a man working on the grade. The next morning at 5:30 I called "Belle, get up, I want something to eat." And that is the way I have been eating ever since. I do not look much like a sick man.

My physician took his oath two years ago that I had seven different troubles, and less than three months ago he took his oath that I had nine disabilities, and that he did not see any possible chance to recover. Now I am here on my feet and I believe I could jump if I tried.

Doctor Dowie:—"Jump." Mr. Nichols immediately made a pretty good jump to the great delight of the audience.

Mr. Nichols continued:—The doctor took his oath that he did not think I could recover, and he said some other things which perhaps it is not well to say. These doctors do not like for us to say it; but thank the Lord there is one doctor in Harvey has been convicted—Dr. Franklin. He came up here with a lady to go to the hospital, and instead he came here, and she was just rejoicing in what the Lord had done for her. Dr. Franklin has since then, I understand, had his mother-in-law here. Another doctor said if Nichols had been cured he was coming up here. That was Dr. Starkey. He examined me some years ago and said, "I can do nothing for you." I met him Friday night and he said, "What a wonderful change in you. You do not look like the same man you were." Every body says I do not look like the same man I was. Thank the Lord I can stand on my feet, and I am just full of this work. I am going to visit the sick and try to get them to be sent here and be cured; to try to get them to come to Christ who takes away the sins of the world, and tell them that Jesus is not only the Saviour of the world but the Healer of the body. Friends, this is one of the wonderful things, that we have a blessed Saviour who can take our infirmities from us; and I bless God for what He has done for me.

MANY WITNESSES CONFIRM HIS STATEMENT.

Dr. Dowie then said:—"Before we close we will have this happy wife to tell us about it."

Seven friends of Mr. Nichols then rose up in the meeting and testified that they knew him to be a man of truth and that they could substantiate all he had said.

Twenty persons testified that they had seen him come in in the invalid chair on the last Tuesday three weeks ago.

HIS WIFE'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Nichol's wife testified that she had been married to him seven years, and that he had been a confirmed invalid most of the time. She substantiated all he had said and stated that since the cure he had eaten a great deal and slept a great deal and was able to dress and undress himself, all of which he could not do before the healing. She further said that when her husband returned and looked so well and was being congratulated at a little social meeting at which were present some of the ministers of Harvey and their families, the ministers held aloof and stood as if they did not know what it meant.

HEALING OF CANCER IN THE TONGUE.

Mrs. King said: "It is blessed to speak for my Lord and Saviour. I can speak for Him to-night. Through His Spirit He does bless me and save me wonderfully."

"I had a bad throat and tongue, with cancer, and He has healed me, spirit, soul and body, and I am grateful to my Lord for it to-night. And He keeps me beautifully saved. If there were not so many doubting Thomases a great many more would obtain this blessing."

"It is a pleasure to speak for my Lord and Saviour, and I have got all confidence to speak, and especially on this Divine Healing. It is a great blessing; its saving power is beautiful, and it just fits us to go on deeper and deeper into the glories of our Lord and Saviour. Praise his name! glory to the Lamb to-night. Pray that I may ever have this testimony; I expect to have it until I pass over there and sleep in Christ my Lord and Saviour, giving Him all glory and all honor."

"I had four doctors who treated me for the cancer. Dr. Darrin, on Stockton St., San Francisco treated me two months; Dr. Miller, our family physician, treated me; and Dr. Dohrman, of New York, he treated me, and a doctor here treated me, and the more medicine I took the worse I got, at last I threw it out, and for six months before Brother Dowie came here I never tasted medicine. I came to this conclusion: that if I was to die with my trouble, all right."

"And so when Mr. Dowie came I received this blessed doctrine, and I am not ashamed to tell it; and through my Lord and Saviour I was healed; and through the aid of Mr. Dowie: and when he leaves this part of the country to go East, may he go with such words and power as he never had before, giving God all the glory. It is not he that heals the body; it is only through depending on and trusting in the Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ that the body is healed. It is for us all—Christ atoned for all sickness and diseases as well as for all sin and sorrow. He took them on the cross. I am the means of all God's children, and yet I can praise Him. I praise His name and give Him glory."

"Will you kindly answer a question or two? The cancer had destroyed one of your tonsils?"

"Yes, sir."

"It was rapidly eating away the tongue?"

"Yes, sir."

"And there is not the slightest remains of it?"

"No, sir."

"And you have been in perfect health since August, 1888?"

"Yes, sir. It will be two years this coming August since I was healed."—From Our Second Year's Harvest—page 112.

"SOUND AN ALARM,"

Or Zion's Present Conflicts With Spiritualism, Papalism, and other Powers of Darkness.

BY THE EDITOR.

IT is of especial consequence that we consider the teachings of the Spirit of God, in the "more sure word of prophecy; whereunto we do well that we take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn and the day-star arise in our hearts." 2 Peter 1: 19. We shall, for the present, examine principally the New Testament prophecy bearing upon this subject. Let us observe, first

THAT THE LORD JESUS HAS FORETOLD, AND PREPARED HIS FOLLOWERS FOR THIS CONFLICT WITH THE POWERS OF HELL AND DARKNESS.

His own entrance upon His earthly ministry began with that conflict, and although we have not any record of the details of that great struggle for the empire of the human race, yet we have the closing scenes, in which we see that by His use of "the sword of the Spirit"—"it is written"—He gives the great tempter himself, after a forty day's battle, the final blows which put him to flight. Matthew 4: 1-11. His whole course of ministry is beautifully summed up by Peter (Acts 10: 38): "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him." He traced physical as well as spiritual diseases to this cause; and, when healing a woman who could "in no wise lift up herself," and "was bowed together," He recognized in her "a spirit of infirmity;" and, when blamed for casting out this devil on the Sabbath day, He justified Himself by saying, "Ought not this woman, whom Satan hath bound, lo! these eighteen years, be loosed from her infirmity on the Sabbath day?" Luke 13: 10-17. He constantly "cast out devils," and He was accompanied in His journeyings through Palestine (see Luke 8: 1-3) by "the twelve, and certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven devils had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who ministered unto Him of their substance." It is also recorded that "He called the twelve together, and gave them power over all devils" (Luke 9: 1); that the "Seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us in Thy name;" that He said, "I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions [symbolical words for devils] and over all the power of the enemy" (Luke 10: 17-22); that His last earthly conflict, like His first, was with the devil, when, just before His crucifixion and death, He said, "The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in Me" (John 14: 30); and the apostle John, long after, sums up the whole object of Christ's manifestation to be "that He might destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3: 8), thus showing Him to be the Fulfiller of all Old Testament prophecies, the first of which was given when God said to that old serpent, the devil, in Paradise, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed [between devils and sons of God]; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise His heel." Now, this work has been begun by Christ, is going on by His Spirit, and will be finished when, in due time, "He hath put all things under His feet." So that the Church of Christ may assuredly rest upon the prophecy of God's word: "And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly." Romans 16: 20. We observe, second, that CHRIST GAVE "POWER OVER ALL DEVILS" TO HIS PEOPLE BY THE GIFT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT; THAT THIS POWER WAS EXERCISED THROUGHOUT THE APOSTOLIC AGE; AND THAT THE CONFLICT WITH THE SPIRITS OF HELL AND DARKNESS WAS SET FORTH AS THE GREAT WARFARE OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST.

The promise of Christ was that they were to "receive power when the Holy Ghost is come upon you" (Acts 1: 8); and this "power," which came at Pentecost, remains now, according to the promise of our Lord, who said, "He shall be with you forever." John 14: 16. The manifestations of this power were shown in the gifts of convincing speech conferred upon believers (Acts 2) which resulted in the immediate conversion of three thousand souls (verse 41). In gifts of healings added thereto, one remarkable case, that of the man lame from birth who sat at the "Beautiful" gate of the temple, resulting in the immediate conversion of five thousand men (Acts 4: 4). In gifts of prevailing prayer (Acts 4: 24-31)—for, "when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness." In gifts of discerning evil spirits, as in the cases of Ananias and Sapphira, when Peter said, "Ananias, why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to the Holy Ghost?" Acts 5: 3. And lastly, in gifts of power to cast out and to control devils, as when Peter healed "every one who was vexed with unclean spirits" (Acts 5: 16) or as when, through the preaching of Philip, in the city of Samaria, many were cast out, "for from many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice" (Acts 8: 4-8); or as when Paul conquered that "child of the devil," Elymas, the sorcerer, at Cypress, who was struck with blindness, and silenced (Acts 13: 6-12); or as when at Philippi, the same apostle, being "sore troubled" with "a spirit of divination" which possessed a certain maid there, "turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her, and it came out that very hour" (Acts 16: 16-18); or as at Ephesus, where "the evil spirits went out (Acts 19: 12)," at which place, also, when "certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth," the "spirits" would not own these hypocrites, and so one "evil spirit answered, and said, 'Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?' And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked and wounded." Acts 19: 15, 16. A warning to all sham Christians!

And these illustrations of the fact that this "power over all devils" was directly exercised throughout the apostolic age by believers in the Lord Jesus, "in the power of the Spirit," are also supported by the inspired exhortations to its continued exercise, and by reminders that it is with these "devils" that the Christian's warfare lies—in every condition, and in every age.

Paul warns the Church at Corinth against those who would "corrupt their minds from the simplicity and purity that is toward Christ," and who act as "the serpent" who beguiled Eve in his craftiness. 2 Corinthians 11: 3. And, in the same chapter (verses 13, 15), he declares that "such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ." This transformation, he says, is a proof of their being under diabolical control, for he argues that they are the "ministers" of Satan, who "himself is transformed into an angel of light." This warning is similar to that of our Lord (Matthew 24: 24), where He says, "For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect." And, in addition to these Satan-inspired deceivers, Paul reminds the Corinthian Christians that they must not look upon idols as if they represented nothing, but that the idolaters around them were really "sacrificing to devils," were holding "fellowship with devils," and were drinking, in their heathen feasts, "the cup of devils," and sitting at "the table of devils." 1 Corinthians 10: 16-22.

Here let us, in passing, note that it is within our own knowledge that the principle of diabolical communion and sacrifice is at the present moment fully established amongst Modern Spiritualists, at what are known as "materialization seances," to which silly men and women bring bouquets of flowers, and other things of more importance, for "the spirits of devils" with whom they meet. But to continue.

Paul warns "younger women," in his epistle to Timothy (1 Timothy 5: 14, 15), of their danger in giving "occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully; for some are already turned aside after Satan." Peter likewise warns "all of you" to "be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour, whom resist steadfast in the faith." 1 Peter 5: 8, 9. James speaks of "the devils, also, who believe and tremble" (James 2: 19); and declares that an evil tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity," which is "set on fire of hell"—thus tracing all speech that defiles and hurts the good, to its origin in the "spirits of devils." John writes to "young men" who are "strong," and in whom "the word of God abideth," rejoicing that they "have overcome the wicked one." 1 John 2: 14. He also says, "He that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not." 1 John 5: 18. He speaks of those who are "children of the devil" (1 John 3: 10); and warns the "children of God" against lying "spirits," and "false prophets," who deny that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh;" telling them that "this is the spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come, and even now already is in the world." 1 John 4: 1-3.

Again we observe, in passing, this is the sin which makes Unitarianism an open door, and broad highway, into Spiritualism, for the denial of Jesus as the Christ, God's anointed and eternal Son, is a common article of faith with both. As James puts it, in a passage already alluded to, the Unitarians, who say they believe in one God, are in agreement with the Spiritualists, who believe in many devils: "Thou believest there is one God; thou doest well, the devils also believe and tremble." Fatal and false is the acknowledgment of God which rejects faith in the divinity of His Son!

That the warfare of the Christian is to be against the powers of hell, is most surely made clear by these teachings of the Spirit of God.

Paul said, when addressing Agrippa, that it was for that purpose Jesus had sent him forth, giving his commission in these words: "I send thee to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified, by faith that is in me." Acts 26: 14-18. And truly he could say, "I was not disobedient;" for he went forth, from Jerusalem to Athens and from Athens to Rome, he fought in many cities and lands, for thirty years, amidst countless devils, with "the Prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience." Ephesians 2: 2. His courage never failed; and although, at the time he wrote these words, he was an "ambassador in bonds," awaiting a martyr's death and crown, in prison at Rome, yet he demanded prayer for "utterance," that he might "speak boldly, as I ought to speak." Ephesians 6: 19, 20. And, although he said, "No man stood by me," when he stood before the heathen tyrant who "sacrificed to devils," yet he could say, "The Lord stood with me and strengthened me, . . . and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion," the devil who would have fain made his heart to fear by his demoniac roaring. And it is with the divinely-inspired words of that glorious hero, who shortly after "finished his course," and received his "crown of righteousness," that we close this section of our argument. They are the words of the Spirit of God to the Church in this, as in that, day: "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly [the upper air] places." Ephesians 6: 11, 12.

These solemn words must close the proofs in support of our second observation; and we submit that its truth is fully proved from these inspired Scriptures, to whose authority every true Christian owes allegiance.

WE NOW OBSERVE THIRD THAT THE SCRIPTURES DECLARE THAT THIS CONFLICT WITH EVIL SPIRITS IS TO INCREASE IN INTENSITY UNTIL THE LATTER TIMES, WHEN THESE "SPIRITS," WILL PUT FORTH MIGHTIER AND SUBTLER POWERS, AND MAKE A DETERMINED EFFORT TO POSSESS THEMSELVES OF THE WHOLE WORLD, AND OF EVERY SOUL THEREIN.

The prophecies in the New Testament afford, clearly and definitely, conclusive proof of this observation. I quote but three of these, as being sufficient:—

The first is in 1 Timothy 4:1, 2: "But the Spirit saith expressly, that in the latter times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe, and know the truth." This prophecy is fulfilled in Spiritualism in its main features.

Abundant proof of this is to be found in the writings and in the practices of leading Spiritualists. Prominent among these A. J. Davis has distinguished himself by his "specially spiritualistic" attacks upon the sacred institution of marriage, which lies at the foundation of all national virtue, happiness, and progress.

In his "Genesis and Ethics of Conjugal Love," at page 46, he says: "The true plan of correcting the evils in social life is, first, to provide by law for the legitimacy of all children, and for their support and education from public or private funds; second, to restrict marriage and parentage, as far as possible, to competent persons; and third, to let those who make mistakes, in spite of caution and the law, get out as easily and voluntarily as they got into the trouble." Here, then, is distinctly taught a diabolical doctrine, which would destroy the foundation of all morality. If divorce is to be thus easy, the land will be full of vice, family life will be impossible, parental and political obligations will be set at naught, and the utmost confusion and danger must follow. The evil results would defy description and exaggeration.

In proof of the real nature of this attack, we now refer to another work of A. J. Davis, entitled, "The Great Harmonia," Vol. IV, "The Reformer," where, from pages 397 to 425, he is pleased to treat of what he calls "The Rights and Wrongs of Divorce."

A more grossly wicked and immoral chapter was never penned.

He begins with an attack upon the Lord Jesus, and laudation of the Pharisees; and he declares that "the history of divorce is coeval with the history of marriage;" and suggests that "the first idea of divorce occurred in Paradise." He quotes with approval from many enemies of marriage. For instance, at page 409, he says: "In regard to marriage and divorce, he [Mr. Andrews] speaks out like a lover of truth, not intuitionally, but intellectually. He opposes the perpetual or exclusive marriage. He objects to civil marriages, because they make personal property of women, restricting her self-sovereignty, and ultimating in compound selfishness and imperfect offspring. He says, 'The man and woman who do love, can live together in purity without any mummery at all.' Now what this means is clear enough, namely, the abolition of marriage in any form, and all the consequent horrors of such a state. On page 410 he quotes approvingly from another, who writes: 'A love may be genuine and true for the time, and not for all time. The woman who filled my ideal twenty years ago, may have no attraction for me now. There is no evident reason why the law of variety, which extends to the studies, pursuits, pleasures, tastes, and passions, should fail when it comes to the question of variety in love." What does this "peculiarly Spiritualistic" teaching mean, if it does not mean approval of general immorality and base desertion of wives, especially when advanced in years? Again, he quotes, at page 413, approvingly from Dr. Nichols, who says: "If by marriage is meant an indissoluble monogamy (or union with one), a legal exclusive bond of a civilized institution, I deny that it ever is, or ever can be, right. I assert that the promise of a man to love any woman as long as he lives is wrong. I denounce, therefore, the civilized marriage as a violation of the laws of nature, and the commands of God." Where the "seducing spirits" are now leading men, in "forbidding to marry," as God's word prophesied they would (1 Timothy 4:1-3), is now, we hope, become clear; and, if more proof is needed that it is an abyss of unbridled lust and social chaos, we find it in abundance in the writings and practices of many leading Spiritualists. Such proof may be found at pages 418, 433 of the volume from which we have just quoted, and at pages 65, 66, 100, and 101, of A. J. Davis' book on "Conjugal Love," and in many other "Spiritualistic" works.

But one of the crowing proofs is to be found in the history and person of Andrew Jackson Davis himself, as recorded in the "Magic Staff; or Autobiography of A. J. Davis." He gives, without shame, the story of his two marriages, which shows that he induced both women to get divorces from their husbands in order to marry him; and that, both in law and in fact, he was living in a state of adultery in 1876, when the edition of the book in my possession was published. The proof of this may be seen at page 550, where a decree of the Supreme Court, Erie County, New York, is quoted. That decree grants a divorce to Mr. S. G. Love, on the ground "that the defendant (his wife) is now, and has been for some time, living in open adultery with the said A. J. Davis, and that the said defendant, Mary F. Love, now calls herself Mary F. Davis; and it shall be lawful for the said plaintiff to marry again, as if the defendant was actually dead; but it shall not be lawful for the said defendant, Mary F. Love, to marry again until the said plaintiff is actually dead." This decree was obtained in 1856. Hence, in 1876, A. J. Davis has been living, from 1855, in a state of adultery for more than twenty years, for Mr. S. G. Love was then living, and may be still. In 1854 Mary F. Love, had, upon her own application, got, in a scandalous way, after an understanding with Davis, a divorce in the State of Indiana; but it was of no avail either to herself or Mr. S. G. Love, who, about two years after, sued for, and obtained the Supreme Court decree we have quoted. The whole story, even upon A. J. Davis' own version of it, is a scandalously bad and immoral transaction, and the story of his first marriage is not a whit better or cleaner—in some respects it is worse.

We give these facts as specially Spiritualistic illustrations of the effects upon leading Spiritualists of the immoral doctrines of Spiritualism; and we have been most careful to assert nothing except that which Spiritualistic works of easy reference in this city, can verify. If we were to state facts within our personal knowledge, we could add most heart-rending illustrations of the misery and ruin which these horrible and detestable doctrines have wrought in breaking up once happy homes, and destroying the precious lives of many persons, after ruining them body, soul and spirit.

Papalism and Spiritualism join hands, and have their common origin in "forbidding to marry," for the former forbids marriage to the nuns and priests, and the latter forbids it altogether. All this diabolical anti-marriage philosophy of Spiritualism may be summed up in the words of Dr. A. B. Child, one of its most advanced teachers. He says:—

"Virtue and vice, a lie and the truth, are taught by the 'spirits' to be of equal value—to be, in fact, not words conveying opposite ideas, but words conveying identical ideas, as in the following expressions: 'WHAT IS CALLED EVIL IS GOOD; A LIE IS A TRUTH INTRINSICALLY; VICE AND VIRTUE, TOO, ARE BEAUTIFUL IN THE EYES OF THE SOUL; VIRTUE IS GOOD, AND SIN IS GOOD."—Whatever Is, Is Right, pages 18-27, etc.

The next passage to which we refer is in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12, where, after saying that ere "the day of the Lord" comes there must be a falling away first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God, or that is worshiped, so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God." This has surely been fulfilled in the triumph of the "seducing spirits," who have long ruled the apostate Church of Rome, and who, on July 18, 1870, promulgated the diabolical doctrine, of the Pope's infallibility. By that doctrine, as defined in the Constitution "Pastor Æternus," chapters three and four, that infallibility is defined as making the Pope the "one supreme pastor" with "the entire and supreme power of jurisdiction," and "the absolute fullness of this supreme power; and that, therefore, the definitions of the Roman pontiff are unalterable."

Here is the "man of sin" revealed! He has approved of Mgr. Berteaud saying, "The Father and the Pope may have, and probably have, secrets between them in which Christ does not participate, and thus it is practically safer to go to the Pope than to Christ, for, when the Pope speaks it is more than Christ speaking, it is God the father himself." He has allowed Cardinal Manning to say that he, the Pope, may rightly say: "I claim to be the supreme judge and director of the consciences of men; I am the sole, last supreme judge of what is right and wrong." He has allowed a newspaper, published under his own direction, in Rome, the Civiltà Cattolica, to say: "When the Pope reflects, it is God who thinks in him." Hence he is seen to be, as prophesied, "sitting in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God."

But, associated with him in these latter days (see verses 8 and 9), there is to be revealed "the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to naught by the manifestation of his coming; even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing." I suggest that this describes Spiritualism accurately, whilst it also covers Socialism and other forms of political oppression, which desire to bring about a state of Anarchy similar to that of the French Revolution, when to be a Christian was to be a criminal in the eyes of the Lawless One, whose doom, for instance, was the guillotine. These scenes would be repeated instantly did Infidel Socialism obtain its longed-for supremacy in the governments of the world. Who shall say it will not?

We would further draw attention to another prophecy, which seems to bear out this interpretation.

We allude to the passage in the book of Revelation, 16:13-16. It is part of that which happens after the "sixth vial" is poured out upon the river Euphrates, which dries up; and which symbol is generally held to apply to our days and the rapid drying up of the Turkish Empire in the East, which is going on daily. Then the inspired vision of "things to come" continues, "And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs; for they are spirits of devils, working signs; which go forth unto the kings of the whole world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day of God the Almighty."

As the Dragon represents the direct power of Satan, it is probably here that, amongst other forms of Satanic delusion in these days, Spiritualism is foretold, with all its "spirits of devils." The beast is generally supposed to represent the Romish Church, and other forms of ecclesiastical corruption; and we have already shown that at this very time there is a revival of diabolical pride and imposture. The false prophet, who comes last, doubtless refers to Mohammedanism; and the prospects of a revival of Moslem fanaticism throughout the East are said to be many—some of them, as in Egypt, are already apparent. Hence, it seems to us that Spiritualism, as one powerful form of this prophesied going forth of "the spirits of devils," was to be expected about this time—and here it certainly is, a most dangerous ally to all the other existing delusions imposed upon men by "seducing spirits."

But, even if our application of these prophecies be incorrect in some particulars, we submit humbly that our third observation is none the less proved, and that a most desperate conflict is lying before the church with "the spirits of devils." The utmost courage, vigilance, wisdom, faith and power are needed at this crisis; and to her Lord the church must turn her eyes and prayers, for only by the "breath of his mouth, and the manifestation of his coming," can these demon hosts be overcome and brought "to nought."

What, then, shall be done? "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him!" Isaiah 59:19. In whose hands shall this standard be placed? "Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?" Song of Solomon 6:10. 'Tis the church of Christ; and she alone can lift up the royal standard, and carry it on to victory. May every soldier of her army in all lands "put on the whole armor of God," and withstand "the spiritual hosts of wickedness," who are now flooding the nations with every vice, and destroying every virtue.

Lord Jesus, come!

Again this earth by sin oppressed,
By demons from beneath possessed—
Some dark and foul, as hell and night,
And some transformed, like sons of light—
Usurp Thy throne within the heart,
And bid men choose the evil part.

Lord Jesus, come!

Lord Jesus, come!

Thine answer sweet our spirits hear,
It soothes our grief; we cannot fear;
It came to him on Patmos' Isle,
Who loved and lived on earth awhile;
It comes to us,—"I quickly come."
Yea, "even so, Lord Jesus, come!"
Lord Jesus, come.

WESLEY ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

Those who sell this poison, murder men by wholesale. Neither does their eye pity, nor spare. They drive them to hell like sheep. And what is their gain? Is it not the blood of these men? Who, then, would envy their large estates and sumptuous palaces? A curse is in the midst of them; the curse of God cleaves to the stones, the timber, the furniture of them! The curse of God is in their gardens, their walls, their gloves; a fire that burns to the nethermost hell! Blood, blood is there; the foundation, the floor, the walls, the roof are stained with blood! And canst thou hope, O, thou man of blood, though thou art "clothed in scarlet and fine linen, and farest sumptuously every day"—canst thou hope to deliver down thy field of blood to the third generation? Not so; for there is a God in heaven: therefore, thy name shall soon be rooted out. Like as those whom thou hast destroyed, body and soul, "thy memorial shall perish with thee."

BELOVED friends, let us remember we have all the hosts of Heaven with us. Do you think all these starry heavens above us, our Father's many mansions, are uninhabited? Verily, no! Our God is Jehovah Sabbaoth, the Lord God of all the hosts of heaven. And yet we fear sometimes that we are going to be overwhelmed. Alas, there are many who do not see. Let us pray as Elisha did at Dothan, when his servant cried out in fear as he saw the heathen hosts around the city, "Lord, open his eyes that he may see."

DIVINE HEALING VINDICATED.

A REPLY BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

To an Attack by The Rev. Dr. Chapman, and the Oakland Pastors' Union.

Thanks be to God. When the beneficent hand of my Lord condescends to reach from heaven to touch my poor aching body, do I love Him less? I can't understand Christian men talking like that. The Lord may understand them; I don't.

Then the pastors go on to say, "Wherever this standard is set up, and the doctrine is taught, thinking men especially are inclined to scoff at religion." Did you, Brother Craig, scoff at religion when you heard of this doctrine? (Mr. Dowie here addressed a prominent commercial gentleman and manager of an insurance company in San Francisco).

"No, sir."

What has it done—has it brought you nearer to God?

"It has."

And it made you a member of this church?

"Yes, sir."

A worker for Christ?

"Yes, sir."

Will anybody tell me that Mr. Hugh Craig is an unintelligent man, a man to whom the great interests of an important insurance company are given? Will any man tell me that the ministers, business men, lawyers and doctors who have publicly professed to believe the doctrine in this State are ignorant men? Here is one, my friend Dr. Lane, a medical practitioner, a man who scouted Divine Healing and wrote against it; he was healed at Sacramento; received the doctrine there; he is healed now. Doctor, has it made you scoff?

"No, indeed! Praise the Lord."

The facts are against this assertion. A leading lawyer of San Francisco, whose mother-in-law got her sight, (and she was in our meeting yesterday) she had been blind thirteen years—Mr. G., came up to my room at the Palace Hotel to talk to me, and I prayed with him there, and have done so since in his own house. He said, "God used to be so far away; the church has put Him so far away, but somehow, Doctor, you have brought Him near; somehow I can't help feeling to reach out my hand and touch my Lord." Instead of leading him to scoff, it led him to pray.

I tell you that

MEN WHO COULD BE REACHED IN NO OTHER WAY HAVE BEEN SAVED IN DIVINE HEALING MISSIONS.

In our month's mission in the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, in October and November last, some of those saved were ladies in society, and some of them beggars on the street, and also in Central Presbyterian Church. Seven hundred have professed to be saved through our ministry of seven months. Have my brethren had 700 each in seven months? I should be glad to know it; I should be thankful to know it; but I know they have not. When my Lord puts this broad seal of His approval upon the work, let my brethren take care lest they be found to be fighting against Him.

The Manifesto says that our teaching

"GREATLY WEAKENS THE CAUSE AND CLAIMS OF THE GOSPEL, by diverting attention from its wonderful moral and spiritual achievements to what is claimed to be wrought in the lower, material realm."

I will ask all of you who have attended my ministry, Has the doctrine of Divine Healing diverted your attention from the Lord Jesus Christ as your spiritual friend?

(Answers of "No, no, no.")

Did you ever hear of anyone whose attention it did so divert?

"No, no."

Mr. Craig rose and said: "Permit me, Doctor, to say that it has brought Christ to our breakfast table, to our counting house; and that every hour of the day He is with us."

(Fervent exclamations of "Glory to God!" "Thank God!")

I like to hear that. The aged mother of my friend, a saint of the Lord, with her sweet face, crowned with snow-white hair, stood on board the Mariposa in the harbor of Auckland, New Zealand, eight months ago, and said: "My son is a good boy; he is in San Francisco but I don't think he is a member of the church; he has lost hold somewhat. Will you help him to get back to Christ?"

I replied, "All I can." There he is telling us that Christ is with him at his desk; that Christ is with him wherever he is. Has it made any of you think less of Christ?

"No."

Divine Healing exalts the moral and the spiritual achievements of my Lord.

(A lady then interrupted, saying: "I would like to say, Doctor, my husband has not looked in a Bible, nor listened to a word of the Bible, for eighteen years, but he let me read the whole of the 12th chapter of Romans to him, and listened with entire respect, and was thankful that I read it to him." The lady was healed in the last Mission in San Francisco.)

The next thing I notice in the Manifesto is, "THAT THE MIRACLES OF JESUS [THIS IS RATHER SERIOUS] HIMSELF DID NOT PRODUCE A DEEP AND WIDE-SPREAD CONVICTION OF SIN.

Rather serious now. What do we read? "Many believed in His name when they saw the miracles which he did." John 2: 23. John 15: 22 to 24 shows that His miracles and words left them no cloke for their sin. When Jesus wrought numerous miracles, recorded in Matt. 15: 29 to 31, after the healing of the daughter of the Canaanitish woman, it is written, "They glorified the God of Israel." ("Amens," from the audience). What was the result when the widow of Nain's son was raised from the dead? It is written (Luke 7: 16), "There came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us, and, That God hath visited His people!" (Hearty "Amens"). And so when the people saw His healing grace, they came with their sin-stained hearts and wept at His feet; they believed that the hand that banished the disease was the hand of One who mourned over their sin, and they found pardon and peace in Him.

I regret that such a statement was made by our brethren. What do we read after Christ rose?

Philip went down to Samaria and great miracles were wrought, and the people all turned to God and repented of their sin. Acts 8: 5 to 13. Miracles of healing do produce conviction of sin; for they reveal the love and power of God. If I should speak of the great numbers whom I have seen convinced of sin, when they have seen the work of Christ's healing hand, I should talk for hours.

Then again this Manifesto says:

"BUT THE SPIRITUAL RESULTS OF PENTECOST CAUSED MULTITUDES TO CRY OUT FOR SALVATION.

So they did. But let me remind my brethren that there was a day when more cried out for salvation than at Pentecost. How many cried out for salvation at Pentecost? THREE THOUSAND. A few days later a lame man was healed at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple; a man who had never before walked, leaped and jumped and glorified God. It was the hour of the evening sacrifice, and people assembled around him in thousands, and they wanted to know how it was done? It was done through faith in the name of Jesus. And Peter said, "Now I will preach Jesus." And what does the Word say? The 4th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, and the 4th verse, says that after that sermon, and on that very day, "Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and THE NUMBER OF THE MEN WAS ABOUT FIVE THOUSAND." Two thousand more than on the day of Pentecost! Five thousand were saved through that miraculous healing; they listened to the gospel, because there was a fact before their eyes which they could not dispute. What was the result of that? The result was the priests wanted to put Peter to death; and they did put him in prison and tried to keep him there, but the angel of the Lord took him out. Many mighty works were wrought. The sick were brought to him in the streets, and the very shadow of Peter was a benediction and a blessing, and multitudes were healed. Acts 5: 15 and 16. And then it says, for the first time, that "a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith." Acts 6: 7. Those very priests who had sneered at Christ and had helped to crucify Him, when they saw the miracles and heard the Word of God, confessed their sin and became obedient to the faith. And one of them, a Rabbi, named Saul, became a very little later one of the mightiest apostles of the church of Christ.

When the gospel of Divine Healing comes back to the church in all its glory and its power, multitudes will press into the temple of the church of God through that Beautiful Gate; and they are doing it even now. The first droppings have come; the shower will follow. ("Glory to God," from the congregation).

Now, the next objection made in the Pastors' Manifesto is,

"THIS DOCTRINE OF DIVINE HEALING AWAKENS AND STIMULATES A SPIRIT OF RELIGIOUS FANATICISM."

It is the old story. Paul is reasoning before corrupt judges on righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, and Festus, trembling, cries, "Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad." Acts 26: 24. It is the old story. It was said of Jesus, "He is a bad man; he deceives the people." Religious fanaticism! The Roman heathen flung that charge in the face of the Christian martyrs. "Why don't you sacrifice to the gods; why don't you deny Christ? Why refuse to pour out a little wine and invoke Cæsar? You are fanatics and fools."

Thank God for such fanatics. Later, in the Roman Catholic times, the cry was, "Why don't you agree with the pope?" John Knox, you are a fanatic! "All right," said John Knox, "I am going to be a fanatic for Christ." "Martin Luther, you are a fanatic!" Every man that ever did anything for God is a fanatic. "John Wesley, you are a fanatic!" "Hallelujah!" says Wesley, "I am a fanatic and I shall continue to be."

How is it to-day? Is it Festus, or is it Paul that is honored? Is it the unclean, blasphemous pope who sat upon the papal throne who is truly honored, or is it Martin Luther? Who is honored to-day? John Knox, or Cardinal Beaton? A few years ago, in Scotland, I stood by the grave of John Knox, and as the setting sun's rays lit up his monument, I read these words, by the Regent Morton—he was Prince Regent of Scotland at that time—"Here lies a man who by the grace of God never feared the face of man!" It was true, and it was the fanaticism of John Knox which brought Scotland to the feet of Christ. As I stood over that grave, I thanked God for John Knox. He was a so-called "fanatic." I hope you will all be such "fanatics." A man who knows nothing about this work calls it fanaticism, and his ignorance is his excuse. A man who only cares for dollars and dimes will call it fanaticism: for it is a gratuitous ministry, and he measures all things by his standard.

Now, the next point is this:

THE PASTOR'S MANIFESTO EXTOLS MEDICINE.

Now I think that the doctors and chemists are greatly indebted to the pastors, and I hope they will pay the debt. They are valiant defenders of pills and ointments, and say, "Their claim that it is more effective and more honoring to God to dispense with medicine and all kindred remedies, when in need of healing, is a sample of the travesty of God's holy Word." But why, oh, why, do not our brethren give us a text to prove the virtues of nux vomica or digitalis? In my country, Scotland, when a man makes a statement, we say, "Give us a text to back it up." Our critics say that to dispense with medicine is a travesty of God's holy Word. I am going to ask my brethren a question: Will they show me one word in the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, that says the people of God are to be healed with medicine? Will they find one word from Genesis to Revelation that commands the use of drugs, and tells the people that they are to use the medical means of the day? What are these means? Why, a little while ago they used to pour hot oil into wounds, and it made the people mad and they died. In one battle there happened to be no oil, and the surgeons deplored this lack, but the result was the wounded got well without it, when with the use of the hot oil they died. So that was given up. Then they bled the poor people until they had scarce any blood or money left. What is the new fashion in medicine? It is Homeopathy or Allopathy? Where does God say we shall be healed by either? Now, if God had left us a revelation to be healed by these means, He would have stated which one. Is it Allopathy? Homeopathy says Allopathy is wrong, and the Eclectic says, "You are both wrong." Hydropathy says, "This is the true way." And then Warner comes along with his "Safe Cure" and says, "Get away, I am the man." Holloway says, "You are all wrong; look at my pills and ointments." He makes a fortune, and when he is dead the world finds that he has left his money to build a lunatic asylum—a very proper thing to do. Who is right? Now listen. Don't mistake. I know many medical men, Christian men, that do the best they can. I knew many of the young men training for doctors at the University in Edinburg, Scotland, where I was educated, and I never met such a lot of careless, reckless youths anywhere in my life. They used to smoke, and drink, and dance and fiddle, and sin. I used to say to some of them, "The Lord have mercy upon the people who get into your hands." Can you think these are divinely appointed agents of healing to God's people? But still I do know many excellent men who are doctors; they do the best they can, and do it tenderly, lovingly, and they often labor without money and without price. God bless the man who is trying to do the best he can. But let me ask the doctors, as I ask them often, "How far can you go?"

"Not far," they say;

"OUR FRIENDS ARE DYING, AND WE CAN'T HELP THEM."

Many doctors ask me to pray for themselves, and to pray for their friends, because they are Christians first, and doctors next. In confidential moments the doctors say, "Take as little medicine as you can; take none if it is possible." Is that right, Doctor Smith? You know it is. He nods his head; I can see he agrees with me. Let me ask this question: "Even if I could glorify God in the use of means, do I not glorify Him more, if I can trust my Lord to heal me without means? But they say it is fanatical and foolish. I will tell you a little bit of personal experience. When I was sixteen years old I was a poor, weak stripling, you could almost count every bone in my body, for I was nothing but skin and bone, as they say. I had been taking medicine all my life. One night I said, "That is not the way to get healing; if my watch went wrong I should not take it to a blacksmith, but I would take it to a watchmaker; my body has gone wrong, and the Lord knoweth my frame, he remembereth that I am dust, and I will go to Him, and I will never take another drop of medicine while I live." Twenty-six years have passed away; I have never taken a drop of medicine; I am a stronger man to-day than ever I was. My children have never taken any medicine. My wife, who has been my dear companion and helper for nearly thirteen years, has never touched medicine during that time. We trust the Lord for everything, and He has never failed us. "But suppose you were sick, sir, and should pray and not get better?" I won't suppose it. ("Amen," from the audience).

You ask me to suppose that I will pray in faith to God, and that He won't heal me. Brethren and sisters, for twenty-six years I have asked him to heal me, and He has never said, No, once. (Bless His name," from the people). His Word says, "I AM THE LORD THAT HEALETH THEE." Until God cuts that out of the Bible, I am not going to suppose it. Thank God, He has forgiven all my sins, and healed all my diseases, and I will hold on, and hold on, and I reckon my God will hold on to me.

The Manifesto says that our teaching

"DIVERTS FROM THEIR LEGITIMATE AND PROPER WORK OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

those who should be engaged in the work of saving souls."

Does it? Will any man dare to say that this ministry of healing has diverted me? Then, in the name of my God, I say it is not true. I have never been diverted for one moment from the work of saving souls. I appeal to all of you, have I not in every address I delivered urged men to quit sin and trust in Christ?

(Replies of "Yes, yes").

And at the close of nearly every discourse, about nine times out of ten, we have an after meeting; and, continually, sinners seek the Lord and find Him as their Saviour in our meetings. It is not true; Divine Healing does not divert from the work of saving souls. Is there one that these brethren of mine can point to who is less earnest for Christ? The fact is they are more earnest than ever.

Now here is another point in the Manifesto which contains a most astounding charge against our teaching, viz.

which shrinks from pain and suffering, and craves and seeks bodily ease and earthly good."

Now of myself I am nothing at all. I owe all I am, or ever will be, to Christ. But looking at me fairly, will any man say that the gospel of Divine Healing has produced in me a weak and effeminate character? Do I look particularly weak? (Much laughter). Is my character particularly lacking in backbone? I don't want to vaunt myself; I am nothing. Let me tell you a few facts to the glory of God. I was the pastor of a people in Melbourne, Australia, with whom I am still in fullest fraternal sympathy. There was not one in that church's fellowship, so far as I know, that did not believe in Divine Healing. In all that church I do not know of one who drank alcoholic liquor; and I know of no one who habitually smoked that filthy nicotine poison, tobacco, except one old man, who did so occasionally. Now what sort of Christians are they? We had meetings of some kind every day, every night, and sometimes all day, and occasionally prayer-meetings all night. The members of my church regularly twice, and sometimes three and four times, a week went into the streets and lanes of the city; dark winter nights, and bright summer nights were all the same to them; and they sang their sweet Gospel hymns, and we brought the people out of the public houses and saloons, and brought them into the Tabernacle. In two years we had about three thousand pledges upon the Christian Temperance pledge book. We distributed for a long time every week from six to ten thousand tracts of my own writing. The ladies, accompanied by a small number of men, divided themselves into bands—sometimes seven and eight in number—and visited every public house, that is, every saloon, in a portion of the great city of Melbourne covering a population of 80,000 persons. They went into these dens every Saturday night and they brought out sometimes twenty and thirty young men; and it was not one night, but every Saturday night for a long period. They were sometimes covered with filth, sometimes struck with stones, and always insulted; and they endured all for Christ, and that they might rescue the perishing. All these persons believed the doctrine we are now teaching, and did they "crave bodily ease, and seek earthly good," or were they "weak in their Christian character?"

GOING TO PRISON FOR OBEYING GOD.

There came a time when the Liquor Ring got the upper hand in Fitzroy, Melbourne; and they passed a municipal by-law that we should not be allowed to go upon the streets and sing, and they also tried to hinder our workers going into the saloons, and bring those who visited them out. I said, "If you pass that by-law I cannot obey it; I must obey my Lord, who said, 'Go ye out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.'" Luke 14:21. They said, "If you persist in doing so, you will go to prison, sir." They fined me; I would not pay the fine; I sold every stick I had on earth; they fined me again, and threatened they would send me to prison. I said "Very well." The day came for trial and I stood before the court; I gave my reasons for my course. The law of God and the law of England was in my favor, but there was a corrupt petty court judiciary; and the infidels had got hold of the Supreme Court. We had been doing this work of seeking the perishing for years: and do you think I was going back one single step? No, the Salvation, Divine Healing and Gospel Temperance work went on all the time. They said, "Why, a gentleman in your position should not go to prison." I said, "I shall pay no fines. I will not give up our street work, I will obey God first, and man next." They hated me; but it was without a cause, unless it was that I had by the grace of God brought thousands out of the dark pit of intemperance. I have worked against the saloon all my life. They hated me. They said, "We obey man first and God after." I said, "Let it be recorded that that is your position; that is the position a godless man would take."

"You are sent to prison for thirty days," was the sentence.

I had my valise packed and I stepped into a cab and went up to Melbourne jail. For thirty days and thirty nights I lay in a stone cell ten feet long, eight feet high, and four and a half feet wide. It was winter, and the nights were dark and cold. I was in that cell sixteen hours out of the twenty-four. I would not accept my liberation except they would set me free without terms. My people followed me to prison; seven strong men left their several homes and went to prison for Christ. Over five hundred men and women stood up in our Tabernacle prepared to follow us there for His sake. I came out and I went on as before, and they sent me to prison again. But I had not been there two days before the whole country had been aroused, and a great pressure was brought upon the Governor, Sir Henry B. Loch, and he said, "I am ashamed; I shall exercise her Majesty the Queen's royal prerogative." And he telephoned at last down to the governor of the jail that I should be sent free instantly, and I walked out of prison. ("Praise the Lord," from the congregation). My companions, beloved brethren in Christ, followed. Many thousands flocked to hear our preaching when we came out of that prison, and many were saved. Were these proofs of weakness and

WERE THESE PROOFS OF WEAKNESS AND EFFEMINACY?

I have lived and toiled for my fellow-men. Do I seek for bodily ease? I have toiled day and night in this Mission for seven months on this coast and never known rest, except for a few brief hours. My dear wife and myself have conducted nearly seven hundred meetings in that time, and seen thousands of persons for healing of spirit, soul and body.

Am I seeking for earthly gain? I have not put a dollar in my pocket; I am poorer for this ministry. Will any responsible Christian person challenge it? Then I will prove it. We make no charge of any kind in this Mission, and we undertake all financial responsibilities. We trust the Lord for all our support, and have long done so. He is Jehovah-jireh (the Lord our Provider) as well as Jehovah-rophi (the Lord our Healer). Do I seek for earthly good? No. I will tell you what I seek,—

"I am living for Christ, who loves me,
For those who know me true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And waits my coming too.

("Amens.")

"For the wrongs that need resistance
For the cause that needs assistance,
For the future in God's distance
For the good that I can do."

And because I will so live I am prepared to suffer. If I live godly, I must suffer persecution.

"Weak and effeminate!"—is that the character of the people that have been healed? I will point to the Divine Healing Association in San Francisco that has just been formed with 350 members—elders, officers, and members of all churches, and some ministers. You will not find 350 men and women in all your coast who are less effeminate, who seek less bodily ease, and who care less for mere earthly good. They are foremost Christian workers, and are zealously and prayerfully doing good to others, seeking God's glory. I say this charge is not true.

Now I did not wish to say these things. My critics have compelled me. But I say this, that this doctrine has developed, and is developing, a type of Christian character of which we have no need to be ashamed.

We are told furthermore, in the Manifesto that "The church has always believed and taught that Christ is the dispenser of every earthly as well as heavenly blessing; that he is

HE IS ABUNDANTLY ABLE TO HEAL EVERY BODILY ILL AND AVERT EVERY EARTHLY WOE."

Then why do they fight Him? After all the talk it comes to this, that He is the Healer still. But they allege He is not always willing to heal His children; and here is their quotation to support that argument: "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth." What does that mean? Why, "Whom the Lord loveth He maketh sick," they seem to say is what it means. Is that the meaning of it! If you will come to the meeting tomorrow night, I will give you the answer more fully than I can to-day; for I shall then go fully into that and other points, under the head of "New Testament Difficulties." But I will try to give it in a few words now. That passage is taken from its proper connection in the 12th of Hebrews. The conclusion of the section of which that passage is a part, reads thus: "Wherefore, lift up the hands that hang down, and the feeble knee; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed." verses 12, 13. That is the end of that passage. My Heavenly Father loves me, and He chasteneth me; I love my children, and I chasten them. Do you think I shut them up in a dark room. Do I say to my little daughter, "You have been naughty, my Little Queen, and therefore here is a scorpion to sting you, and a serpent to bite you. These will teach you to love me and to be good." Then my child howls and cries in great distress, and I say, "It is good to hear them." Would I be a good father? Why would you want to send me to prison. Can you think of God chastising His children by shutting them up with horrible disease, infinitely worse than if a serpent bit them? The bite of a serpent is merciful compared to the bite of a cancer; a cancer courses on and on, eating out all hope and heart; a serpent's bite ends in death in a few hours. Beloved, that passage has nothing to do with diseases at all. "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth." Yes; He loved His own Son, and He was chastened. Had He any diseases? Did He have one single drop of blood in his body that was not clean, one single member of that body that was not perfect? No: for if it had been otherwise, He could not have been our Saviour. The parallel all through that passage is between Christ and the Christian; and, until it can be shown that Christ was diseased, it cannot be that it teaches we are to be. The hand of God never can give us disease. We are to be like Christ, and so

OUR FATHER WILL PERMIT US TO SUFFER IN THE SAME WAY AS JESUS SUFFERED.

Paul fought a good fight, but they put him to death; they persecuted him, they lied about him. Do you think we are going to escape? Do you think I am going to escape the fangs of the filthy Examiner, and the blood-besmeared Chronicle? Do you think that the vile Oakland Evening Tribune of the Roman Catholics, with its teeth set to do the devil's work, won't fight me? Do you think the Enquirer, that prints lies, and refuses to give any place to the truth, won't fight me? Do you think an unclean press won't fight me? Do you think that the Devil and I can ever agree? (Cries of "No"). I stand to fight for God; but, as for Satan, I hate his ways and he hates me. ("Amen"). I fight for humanity. I live for my God; He is my Judge. I live for men and for God's glory, and to do what good I can. And there I leave it. God will permit me, and all who truly love and serve Him, to suffer as Jesus did; but he was never diseased, and we are to be like Him. I rest upon God's word: "Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of Judgment; BECAUSE AS HE IS, EVEN SO ARE WE IN THIS WORLD." I John 4:17.

The Manifesto in its final objection says: "This doctrine as it is being taught would visit the bedside of every suffering believer in Christ, and

ENSHROUD THEM ALL IN THE GLOOM OF DIVINE DISPLEASURE; it would fill them with the terror of the presence and blows of the prince of darkness; it would smite them in the midst of their sufferings with the divine rebuke for their sinful unbelief; it would place the continuance of their suffering at the door of their own lack of faith; it would rob them of that blissful sense of full and unclouded fellowship and communion with the blessed Master, which is to them in this hour of their sorest need, such a source of joy and strength, and would add to the poignancy of every bodily pain, the more dreadful and distressing sense of 'distance from Christ and his displeasure at their lack of faith in Him.'

Beloved, I read this awful calumny, and all I say is this: It is not true. This doctrine has brought joy to many a bedside, and I have never known one whom it brought sorrow. It has filled many a room of darkness with the beauty and light of Christ's presence. It has raised the sick in tens of thousands. Let me give you one story. In the town of Geelong, about sixty miles from Melbourne, Australia, a doctor night after night, listened to the word, Doctor Robinson. He was a Christian man. At last, one night, as he walked home under the silent stars, he thought, "I am a Christian as well as a doctor; that man is right; Christ is the Healer, I must act upon it." The next day he went to one of his patients, a lady that had writhed more than twenty years in pain, for four years utterly helpless, except that she could move a portion of her arm and hand; she had to be dressed and undressed, and was put into an invalid's chair and wheeled about. The Doctor said to her, "Lizzie, Mr. Dowie's teaching is right; go and listen to him, and he will show you God's way of healing." She was in intellect a bright little lady, and a true Christian. She said, "Doctor, he tells the people that disease is the work of the devil, and you know it is not." "Lizzie," he said, "we have been all wrong; it is the devil's work."

She came to hear me the next day, but went home very indignant, because I happened to say that Miss Frances Ridley Havergal was wrong when she wrote:—

"I take this pain, Lord Jesus, from thine own hand,
I take this pain, Lord Jesus, as thine own gift."

She said she would never come again. I had said that Miss Havergal might have lived to-day, if it had not been for her singing that song. The doctor finally persuaded her to come again, and another day she was wheeled in, in her chair. That afternoon I said to the audience, "How do you pray? Do you pray, 'Thy will be done?'" She said, "Yes, I do." I said, "That is wrong; don't pray, 'Thy will be done;' pray what Christ taught us to pray; say, 'Father, thy will be done in me on earth just as it is in heaven.'" Then look up, and behold that in heaven there is no sorrow and no sin. Ask God to take away the sin to-day. He will do it for Christ's sake. Look up, and behold that in the City of God, one thousand five hundred miles long, one thousand five hundred miles high, and one thousand five hundred miles wide, the inhabitants are never sick, because God's will is done there. Then say, 'My Father, let thy will be done in me to-day on earth, as it is done in heaven;' and as in heaven there is no disease, take it out of me, and set me free; that I may do thy will while I tarry here."

THE SCALES FELL FROM HER EYES.

She said, "Oh, pray with me." I went the next morning to her house; I laid hands upon her in the name of Jesus; in a moment she was upon her feet. It is four years ago, and Miss Lizzie Trickett, of Villamanta Street, Geelong, who for twenty years had lain there in pain, and without power, now walks about doing good, and telling all the sick and sorrowing the story of her healing, and leading them closer to Christ. What did our doctrine bring to that sick room? Not, what is wrongly asserted, darkness, Divine displeasure, rebuke, distance from Christ. No, it brought, as it ever will to all who receive it, health, life, light, the joy of the Lord, and closer fellowship with Him.

Beloved, I want God's will to be done in us on earth as it is done in heaven. I want it to be done in the brethren, the pastors of Oakland; I want it to be done in all God's children; I want the devil's will, and the devil's work, to be destroyed; and disease is his work.

In Dunedin, New Zealand, an old Scotchman, an elder, who heard me speak, was asked, the next morning, how he liked it, and he said, "Losh, man if yon man is richt [meaning me] we will will never dee" (will never die). I said then, and I say now, that is true.

These brethren in their Manifesto say,

"IT IS TRIFLING WITH GOD'S WORD TO SAY THAT A MAN FALLS ASLEEP."

What said the Master to Jairus, a ruler of Israel, when called to the bedside of his daughter? "The maid is not dead, but sleepeth." Matt. 9: 24. Was that trifling with God's word! The people of that day thought so, and it is written, "They laughed him to scorn." But it is also written, "He put them all out;" and the scorners of to-day are in danger. Did he not know what he was talking about when he said concerning Lazarus, "Our friend Lazarus sleepeth, but I go that I may awake him out of sleep." John, 11:11. Was that trifling with words? Was it trifling with God's word when Stephen, in the hour of his martyrdom, "fell asleep"? Acts 7:60. Was it trifling with God's word when the Christian for three centuries wrote upon their tombs, not "died," but "in Jesus Christ he fell asleep." Beloved, they never feared death, for they never saw it. They lived trusting Christ for Salvation; they lived—when they were faithful—trusting Him for Healing. Then when their work was done, they laid down their heads, and slept on earth to wake in heaven.

If my work is to end to-night, I am willing to lie down in peace to sleep; but I am not willing that the filthy fingers of the Devil shall pollute my body with disease. I say, No, this body belongs to my Lord; let Him possess it, let Him cleanse it, let Him heal it, let Him keep it, and when my work is done, let me lie down in peace and sleep. "He giveth his beloved sleep." Ps. 127:2. ("Glory to God.") Jesus said, "If a man keep my sayings he shall never see death." John 8:55. I believe it; but for saying it the Jews replied to him, "Now we know that thou hast a devil." Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest Thou this?" John 11:25, 26. Yea, Lord, yea Lord, we believe that Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God; that thou didst come to give us life, and life more abundantly; and that Thy life shall be manifested in our mortal body. If all through our lives we have faith in the Son of God as our Saviour, as our Healer, as our Cleanser, as our Keeper, as Intercessor in Heaven, and as our coming King, we shall be ready to meet Him when He comes.

GOD WISHES FOR THE PASTOR'S.

God bless my brethren who have sent forth this Manifesto;

God bless all the pastors of Oakland; and God grant that they may heed the advice of Gamaliel (Acts 5:34 and 35); and keep their hands off this work, for they cannot overthrow it. They may fight against God, but they shall not prevail: and they shall fall in the fight, and lie, as some of them lie to-day, on beds of pain, who smote us with their tongues five months ago. I pray that the Lord will raise them up, and that He will show them His healing power; and that they shall take care not to stretch forth their hands and fight against His truth and those who preach it.

Beloved, a man may say to the rising tide, "Go back!" But the tide continues rising; it will not go back. Let God be glorified; and let "HIS SAVING HEALTH be KNOWN AMONG ALL NATIONS." Amen and Amen!

After singing the hymn: "She only touched the hem of Thy garment," Mr. Dowie offered the following

PRAYER.

Father in heaven, if any word has been spoken amiss, let it have no abiding impression: let it pass away; but let thy mighty Spirit's power rest upon every word that has been spoken these two hours in Thy name, in accordance with Thy glorious will, and in accordance with Thy purposes of love to us.

And now bless the writer of the paper which we have examined, and every member of the Pastors' Union. ("Amen," from the audience). Grant, Lord, that these shepherds of Israel may be kind and tender to the sheep that are seeking the healing waters, and not drive them back. O God, bless them all.

Be with us now and give us the grace that we each need until our work is done, and we lie down in peace and sleep on earth, to wake in Heaven, and to serve Thee through a glorious and boundless eternity of love and light. For Jesus's sake.

BENEDICTION.

And now, beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, one eternal God, abide in you, bless you, keep you and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

DIVINE HEALING HOME

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 96 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore drive and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desired that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishing of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the center group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred have been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend to all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

EDITORIAL NOTES

ONCE more we meet our readers with a shout of "Glory to God in the highest."

Zion Tabernacle on Lord's Day, October 7th, presented scenes which made heaven and earth rejoice.

Over 1000 persons openly confessed their sins in the three services of the day. They instantly responded to God's command to "repent and believe the gospel." Hundreds of tear-stained faces looked up to God, and vowed to do that which was right toward man—no matter at what cost. How can we find words to praise Him for these "showers of blessing?"

Our Lord's Table was spread as the sun was setting. Zion Tabernacle was filled with communicants.

A holy awe rested upon all, in the deep silence which followed the stirring scenes of the day. The Ordinance of the Lord's Supper was a feast of love and joy and peace.

When we sang:—

"Keep Love's Banner floating o'er you,
Smite death's threatening wave before you,
God be with you till we meet again."

we felt that God was fulfilling our petitions for His people who are rallying around us in such large numbers in Chicago. We all "went forth" with fresh strength and new courage.

At the close of the Ordinance we held a brief reception, and had the joy of shaking hands and hearing the loving greetings of many hundreds of friends to whom God has used us. This, God willing, will be a fixed practice at the close of the Communion on the first Lord's Day of each month. We regret our time does not permit of our receiving the friends more frequently than is at present possible. There is great truth in Solomon's words:—"Iron sharpeneth iron: so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend."

THE week has been full of blessing in the ministry of healing through faith in Jesus. There is no abatement in the crowds of sick ones who come to Zion Tabernacle and to the Divine Healing Homes. But for "the strength which God supplies" we should be utterly worn out with the constant strain of work in this, and in all the other departments of the work. It is difficult to get many of our friends to understand that "we have this treasure in earthen vessels," and that there are certain manifest limitations to such "vessels" as these bodies of clay. Will our friends try to remember this, and let them also know that we must ourselves determine when God calls and when it is the call of man. We cannot devolve our responsibilities upon those who want to command our attention to their individual appeals. God never made any man our Master.

WE are willing to serve all men to the utmost extent of our power; but in doing so we must be absolutely obedient to the revealed Word of God, and the clear guidance of the Holy Spirit. Our Lord and Master has so commanded.

ON Lord's Day, October 28th, God willing, we shall conduct two Praise and Testimony Meetings in Zion Tabernacle, when many who have been healed through faith in Jesus will testify.

These meetings will be held at 2:45 and 7:45 P. M., but it is desirable for those who wish to get seats to come early, owing to the throngs. We shall arrange for overflow meetings in the Healing Room, and do all in our power to accommodate our friends. Many of those whose portraits and testimonies have recently appeared in this paper will be present, amongst them the brother who appears with his faithful wife on our front page in this issue. We heartily invite the "boys in blue," and the boys who used to wear the grey too. Both will be delighted to see a comrade whom Satan had bound with nine strong chains of disease for thirty years, who was set free by Jesus in a moment. Boys, march to Zion Tabernacle on the last Sunday of this month; but, above all, march to the Zion above, the beautiful City of God!

THE Divine Healing Homes are filled with guests from Canada to Florida, and from New York to Colorado. We realize daily that Christ is the only true Home Physician. No one looking down the long tables in our three dining rooms would suppose these persons to be sick folks seeking healing. Their cheerful countenances, bright conversation, and excellent appetites forbid the thought. Yet some of these have not sat at a table for years until they came here, and some who walk in and out with a quick step, were carried here from their distant homes on beds and couches. It is a delightful sight to us who know something of their cases. Is it not also a joy to angels as well as men, yea to the Christ Himself, through faith in whom they have this joyful experience?

OUR readers will be sorry to know that the assurances given to us as to the "first-class condition" of our gas engine in Zion Publishing House were not justified by its behavior.

It has again broken down and delayed the LEAVES to our deep disappointment, and apparently that of hundreds of our readers, judging from numerous letters and even telegrams. We have now determined to discharge it as quickly as possible; and have purchased a new ten-horse power Lewis engine to take its place, at a cost, with foundations, of nearly $1,200. A little practical financial sympathy would oil our machinery wonderfully just at present: for we did not expect so heavy an addition to our already large expenditure. Some who have paid two dollars for their year's subscription write as if their money was equal to running the whole Publishing House. Were it not for personal and pecuniary sacrifices, extending to thousands of dollars, it would never have been established, nor could it be sustained.

It takes experience, patience, money, toil and skill, as well as faith, to establish such an institution; and with the good hand of God upon us all is going well. The LEAVES are doing a blessed work, and we shall endeavor to make them still more helpful to God's children amongst all the nations.

"BRETHREN, pray for us."

MISS KATIE KECK.

THE AMPUTATION OF THIS YOUNG WOMAN'S RIGHT LEG was to have been performed by Professor Fenger in Mercy Hospital, Chicago, on July 14th, last. That well-known surgeon came to the conclusion that the operation was the only possible way of saving her life.

God thought differently, and Katie Keck stands here, three months after she was doomed to die, smiling quietly at the clever surgeon and all the world. She is standing upon two very excellent legs; and thousands have heard her testify at various times, in Zion Tabernacle, to her healing through faith in Jesus.

Think of what the consequences of this operation would have been. Think of a young, healthy, happy Christian girl suddenly deprived of her limb, which had been cut off and thrown into the Hospital garbage box, or flung upon a dissecting table for the scrutiny of a class of scoffing young surgical butchers. Think of her weeping there on an Hospital bed with a bleeding stump for a leg; and a blighted, but brief life before her: for Dr. Fenger told her father that "even with the operation she could not live longer than six months." What a dreary prospect to a broken heart,—a mutilated body and a certain, speedy death! Think of the anguish of her parents' hearts, and of friends dear to her as life.

Now, consider what God hath wrought. A life has been prolonged for His glory; the Name, and deathless fame, of Jesus is exalted; His unchanging love as the Present Healer of His people is once more manifested; and Hope has sprung up, and will continue to spring, in thousands of trembling hearts over whom the surgeon's knife is dangling by a thread, like the sharp sword over the head of Damocles at the banquet of the cruel tyrant of Syracuse.

How joyful to know that the hand of Christ the Healer is hurling the surgeon's knives after the doctor's drugs, and proving His power and willingness to heal, as of old, "every kind of sickness and every kind of disease amongst the people." How close it brings Him to the heart of burdened, bleeding humanity. No longer does He seem to be "A God afar off;" but standing beside every bed of pain, He shows Himself to be the Saviour and the Healer still, proving His glorious claim to be Immanuel (God with us).

Oh, Thou unchanging One, whom not seeing we love, and trust, and adore; bless Thou this simple maiden's story, as we weave it into another garland for thy brow, once crowned with thorns for us. We lay it at Thy pierced feet, Thou Love

MISS KATIE KECK, 396 Second Avenue, Aurora, Illinois.

Divine! "Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory."

There is not much to be added to the plain narrative of Katie Keck, which we are about to give in her own words, as taken down by our stenographer in the room at Zion Tabernacle where she was healed.

Our good brother, Mr. Christian Thauer, of 2800 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, called upon us on the morning of Tuesday, July 10th, and in a very touching manner told us the story of this, then suffering girl lying in Mercy Hospital. After prayerful consideration, we agreed to receive her into Divine Healing Home No. 2. She was brought the following day in a carriage to the Home, and was carried into Zion Tabernacle, which is next door, and listened to the address which was delivered by Mrs. Dowie that afternoon.

Without knowing anything concerning Katie Keck's case or even that she was present, our good wife was led to tell the story of the healing of a young man in Sydney, Australia, whose leg was about to be amputated, with but little hope of saving his life. The healing took place in the Protestant Hall, Castlereagh Street, where we were holding our closing Mission in Australia, in March 1888. He had been carried to the Hall from his bed of pain; he found salvation ere our lecture ended; and, at the close, we prayed with him, and laid hands upon him in the Name of the Lord. He was immediately healed, and could walk and even run. His face was one of the last we saw, as the steamship "Mariposa" passed through Sydney Heads into the Pacific Ocean. One of our friends of stentorian voice and considerable stature, shouted from the harbor steamer crowded with our personal friends which accompanied us to the Ocean—"Here is Arthur Grey, (and with that he perched him upon his shoulder) and he wants to say 'Good-bye and God bless you.'"

This was the illustration with which Mrs. Dowie closed her address, and the effect of it upon this sick and suffering girl may be imagined by those who will endeavour to put themselves in her place.

Immediately after the meeting, our janitor, Mr. Frank W. Cotton, carried Katie into the Healing Room, where we found her on our arrival. We found that God had wonderfully prepared her for an immediate healing, and after prayer and the laying on of our hands in Jesus' Name, she rose and walked. In a few minutes without any assistance, or a particle of pain, she walked back into the Tabernacle to the great delight of hundreds who had seen her carried out.

She spent a few weeks in the Home getting further instruction, and the horrible gaping wounds caused by the operations were being rapidly filled up with sound, solid flesh when she returned to her father's home in Aurora.

This story shows that Christ heals the most hopeless surgical, as well as medical, cases.

We are told that it is commonly said, "Divine Healing is all very well for nervous and functional disorders; but where the disease demands the use of the surgeon's knife, it is different." Here is another proof to the contrary, and there are a vast number of similar cases.

The cruelty of the human vivisection, which goes on daily in public hospitals under the name of "scientific surgery" is horrible beyond all description. Sensitive and pure women are treated in the most brutal manner, in the operating theaters, whilst under the influence of chloroform and other drugs. In some cases young maidens have, despite their protests, and in violation of the operator's promises, been deprived of internal organs, which reduced them to an unsexed condition too dreadful for words. One of these with bitter tears cried as she told us her story—"Oh, doctor, he confessed it was a useless butchery, and asked my forgiveness. But I cannot forgive him. He lied to me and promised not to do what he did. Oh, doctor, I wish that he had killed me outright." What anguish these "scientific" murderers have wrought. In this case two young and noble lives were blighted.

But what care the cruel operators? The Law covers all their blunders, and makes their crimes a necessity. Society flatters them, and dandles them on her lap in drawing-rooms. The Press extols their "genius," and commends their "skill." But God will make "inquisition for blood," and before His Throne the parchment laws, and silly flatteries of earth will not avail to screen them from Eternal Justice: for, unless they repent, their "damnation will be just."

Let this Witness now speak for herself.

TESTIMONY OF MISS KATIE KECK,
390 SECOND AVE., AURORA, ILL.

[Given in the Healing Room of Zion Tabernacle, Sept. 26th, 1894.]

When this accident happened, I was going to work to the factory in the winter of 1893, and I fell upon the ice. When I first noticed it it was a little spot. It gave me much pain at the time, but did not trouble me scarcely until June last, when it became very much inflamed and began to suppurate. I then went to Dr. Johnson who lives in Aurora and has his office on Fox Street, Aurora. Dr. Johnson told me there was a dead bone in there which would have to be taken out. He treated me for one month and I got no better. I got worse, then I went to Dr. Reder, on Fox Street, Aurora. He treated me, and, after failing to do me any good, said an operation must be performed. He treated me for seven months at my father's home in Aurora. I was placed in plaster of Paris casts for about two months and had electric treatment, and after seven months of suffering, I was worse than before. Then I went after that on crutches for four months and it got worse again and the physicians advised me to go to the hospital. I was then sent to Mercy Hospital by my parents. I was a paying patient. I was treated by the various house physicians, Dr. Roller and Dr. Wurtzley, who acted under the direction of the chief surgeon of the Hospital, Dr. Fenger. I was operated on twice. I went to the Hospital on the third of May. I was operated on twice by Dr. Fenger in person. The flesh was cut out down to the bone and the bone scraped. They informed me a growth had come there and I was taken and operated on the second time, and then Dr. Fenger declared the disease was a cancer. He told my father that it was a cancer; that unless my leg above the knee was taken off quickly I must die. Under any circumstances I would die even with the operation, for I could not live under any circumstances longer than six months. He also said I would require an operation in the hip because he said the hip was diseased. I then heard of the Rev. Dr. Dowie and his mission. My father visited the Rev. Mr. Weinrich, Minister of the German Methodist Church, Portland Ave. Mr. Weinrich said to my father, before he would have my leg taken off he would take me to the Rev. Dr. Dowie, believing that God would use him to save my leg. I was very much impressed with that. The Rev. Mr. Fritz, Minister of the German Methodist Church on Fox Street, Aurora, came with Mr. Weinrich on Tuesday and advised me to be brought to the Rev. Dr. Dowie. I became very earnestly desirous that it should be done. On Tuesday the Rev. Mr. Fritz and Mr. Weinrich visited Dr. Dowie, and Mr. Fritz came back and pressed me to go at once. I was very willing by this time. Mr. Thauer called on Dr. Dowie in his Home, and Dr. Dowie agreed to see me the following day. I was carried out from the hospital, and was brought to Home No. 2 about eleven o'clock and listened to Mrs. Dowie's address in the afternoon, was brought into the healing-room, and saw Dr. Dowie. It was on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 11th, eleven weeks ago, and he asked me several questions and I answered them at the time satisfactorily. Thereupon he prayed with me, laid hands upon me, and in a moment the agonizing pain passed away. I was able to rise and walk, have been walking ever since, no pain in the leg, no evidence of the disease anywhere, and I feel well and strong. I praise God for what He has done for me and thank Dr. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie as God's agents in the healing. Everything I have said is true.

"THE MAN OF SIN REVEALED,"

Or, An Exposure of the Blasphemous Claim of the Pope of Rome to be the Infallible Head of the Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

BY THE EDITOR.

IN the front of all we say, let us place "the sure word of prophecy," with its warning voice, which is so much needed, and its awful revelation, which is being so evidently fulfilled, in these latter days:

"Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God." 2 Thess. 2: 1-4.

We hold that the Pope of the Romish Church is most evidently the "Man of Sin," and that the awful proclamation of the Dogma of papal infallibility at the Vatican Council proves him to be the son of perdition.

Our observations in this and in other countries lead us to lift up our voice in warning to the church of God, and, so far as that may reach, to the nations of the earth. Ministers and accepted leaders of Protestant churches have, for the most part, ceased to protest against the Apostate Church of Rome, and the press, and especially the newspaper press, of America is fast becoming a Jesuit tool. In Chicago, and other great centers of population in America, with a very few decided exceptions, this is most manifestly the case, and we feel it to be our duty to lay the truth concerning this matter before the people, confining ourselves at present to three points:—

1. How the Dogma of Papal Infallibility was formulated.
2. What this Dogma really implies as regards the Pope himself.
3. The effects of the Dogma on modern life, especially in its bearing on civil allegiance.

In presenting these separate points we shall not merely state our opinions, but shall produce facts.

There can be no doubt that the Dogma is new even to the Roman Catholic Church as a formulated article of faith, and, whatever the opinions of isolated persons may have been, until the recent Vatican Council it formed no part of that system,—although there can be no doubt, in our opinion, that it is quite in harmony with its thoroughly anti-christian spirit.

THE DOGMA IS NEW.

Bishop Hefe, the most eminent ecclesiastical historian in the Roman Church, said, when the subject was before the late Council: "The Dogma is not opportune, because it is not true. For thirty years I have searched for infallibility, and have found it nowhere." Archbishop Kenrick, an Irishman, now Archbishop of St. Louis, said regarding it, at the same time: "It is contained in no authoritative book, published among any English-speaking people. In England and Ireland, it was repudiated by the bishops in the most solemn manner; and its repudiation contributed essentially to Catholic emancipation, and to the removal of national prejudices." It is also a fact that a great number of Roman Catholic bishops, either now living or recently dead, took an oath to the British Government, in which the following words occur: "I declare that it is no article of the CATHOLIC FAITH; nor am I required to believe, or to confess, that the POPE is INFALLIBLE." Well, therefore, might Archbishop Kenrick, who had taken that oath, say that for him and others to agree with the dogma, which the Jesuits were forcing on the Vatican Council, would be equal to perjury; for he could not see "how the oath given to the English Government could be reconciled with the definition of Papal Infallibility." Nor can anyone else.

Bishop Ketteler, of Mayence, also stated: "The doctrine of papal Infallibility is not only NOT GENERALLY KNOWN, but IS ENTIRELY UNKNOWN in many countries," and, he added, "when Lutherans, Calvinists, and others have asserted that Catholics were bound to believe what the Roman Pontiff alone taught them, this assertion has been everywhere repudiated, both in speech and writing, as a calumny."

IT WAS CREATED BY THE JESUITS.

Thus, up to the very time of the council, archbishops, bishops, doctors, and laity in great numbers, were utterly ignorant that the Pope was an infallible voice.

No, this creation was effected by the clever machinations of the Jesuits, who, though they were once ABOLISHED as an order by an infallible Pope, Clement IV. (1773 A. D.) for the reason that "so long as it exists, it is impossible that the Church can secure a true and lasting peace," were yet RESTORED by another infallible (?) Pope, Pius VII. (1814), professedly in answer to the "unanimous prayer of the Christian world."

It has been stated that "every congregation of the Roman Curia, save that of the Inquisition, is in the hands of the Jesuits. And even in the congregation of the Inquisition, they number almost as many members as the Dominicans"—an institution which is by no means considered useless, for a famous Jesuit journal in Rome has declared it to be "a sublime spectacle of social perfection." (a)

This order of the Jesuits, then, which has for some time chiefly directed the papal policy, has, according to the Romanists themselves, brought about, firstly, the new Dogma concerning the alleged Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary, which, by an ex cathedra utterance, was imposed by the Pope in 1854 upon the Roman Catholic Church, an act of assumed infallibility which, being received without widespread protest, prepared the way for, secondly, the Encyclical and Syllabus of Dec. 8, 1864, that monstrous production of folly and blasphemy, and, thirdly, for that crowning act the Vatican Council, which only defined, or rather accepted, the prepared Jesuit definitions of the doctrine of Papal Infallibility, on July 18th, 1870.

Everything was so arranged that the Jesuit program should, in any event, be carried out.

THE COMPOSITION OF THE VATICAN COUNCIL.

Of the 764 present at the Council, 195 had no churches to represent, 120 of these being bishops in partibus, of whom no less than 50 had been consecrated (with Jesuit craft) during the two years preceding the Council. Then 143 of the bishops belonged to the Roman State—all of whom were counted safe doubtless. Italy sent 276, or more than one-third of the so-called Œcumenical Council, being more than all the other representatives of Catholic Europe; for France, Germany, Hungary, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, and Poland, only numbered 265. The Jesuits had packed the Council, as largely as they could, and reckoned, by cunning and pressure, upon crushing out every spark of liberty, and, by a sudden coup, to carry the Dogma which should render all Councils, or, indeed, all religious thinking by any but a Pope, forever after unnecessary in the Roman Catholic Church.

HOW THE DECREE WAS IMPOSED ON THE COUNCIL.

Accordingly, after amusing the assembled "fathers," with volumes of "schema," which were never properly discussed nor decided; after hurried debates, which were, owing to defective acoustics, unheard by the majority; after regulations had been imposed which destroyed freedom, against which a protest was made by no less than one hundred bishops, who declared "that the new regulations restrain and even destroy the liberty of the Fathers, in a great number of ways;" after the treatment by the Pope and Cardinal Presidents of these and other remonstrances with silent contempt

(a) Civiltà Cattolica, in 1855, Vol. I, p. 55.

—there came, in the language of an able writer, suddenly, without previous intimation, a "monitum from the Pope, commanding all to be laid aside, and a new 'schema,' concerning the Primacy and Infallibility of the Pope, to be introduced."

Even in that packed Council, there arose vehement protest and debate. But all discussion was quickly silenced; and 451 servile wretches voted the blasphemous Dogma, which, with appended "anathema" against all rejectors, declares the Pope to be Infallible.

What further need was there for the Council? The Pope's Infallibility had been decreed. The Jesuits cried, "It is enough!" the Council was dismissed, and in all probability will never meet again. How can it be necessary that any number of poor, erring mortals, should ever assemble to advise so divine (?) a creature as the possessor, according to a celebrated Roman prelate, archbishop Vaughan, of "an ever-abiding and intelligible Voice," seated on the "unmoving Cathedra of Certainty?" The Jesuits have triumphed. The Pope is all-sufficient. Councils are needless.

When the Abbe Lammenais, less than forty years ago, with a soul filled with reverent awe for everything Papal, visited the Roman Curia, finding it in the hands of those wicked men who now rule it, and seeing that imposture, intrigue, bigotry, and abominations of every kind, were there, the scales fell from his eyes, and he exclaimed, "At Rome they would, if they could, sell everything; they would sell the father, and they would sell the son, and they would sell the holy ghost."

They (the Jesuits) have fulfilled his prophecy, so far as they could; for they have now robbed God of nearly all his attributes, and vested them in a Pope whom they hope ever to be able to rule.

But, having shown how the Dogma of Infallibility was formulated, it now becomes our duty to show, secondly,

WHAT THIS DOGMA REALLY IMPLIES AS REGARDS THE POPE HIMSELF.

Cunning attempts are being constantly made, in free English-speaking countries especially, to induce people to believe that the assumed infallibility of the Pope is really a very harmless matter.

We shall hereafter show how the veil is dropped, in the darkness and ignorance which reigns in Romanist lands.

At present we shall only briefly refer to the actual definition itself, and some of its explanations since its promulgation.

The Constitution "Pastor Æternus," chapters three and four, contains the Dogma, which at St. Peter's in Rome was declared, in the presence of 535 bishops, by the late Pope Pius IX., to be an eternal truth, and they read as follows—we quote thus fully, lest it should be said we suppressed any material part of them: "Chapter III.—Hence we teach and declare that by the appointment of our Lord the Roman Church holds over all others a sovereignty of the ordinal power (ordinaria potestas—power of the Ordinary, who in ecclesiastical law is one having immediate jurisdiction), and that this power of jurisdiction is one which is essentially episcopal, is immediate, to which all, of whatever rite and dignity, both individually and collectively, are bound, by their duty of monarchical subordination, and true obedience, to submit, not only in matters which belong to faith and morals, but also in those that appertain to the discipline and government of the Church throughout the world; so that the church may be one flock, UNDER ONE SUPREME PASTOR, through the preservation of unity, both of communion and of profession of the same faith with the Roman Pontiff. THIS IS THE TEACHING OF THE CATHOLIC TRUTH, FROM WHICH NO ONE CAN DEVIATE WITHOUT LOSS OF FAITH AND SALVATION. . . .

If, then, any shall say that the Roman Pontiff has the office merely of inspection or direction, and not the entire and supreme power of jurisdiction over the Universal Church, not only in things which relate to faith and morals, but also in those which relate to the discipline and government of the Church spread throughout the world; or assert that he possesses merely the principal part, AND NOT THE ABSOLUTE FULLNESS OF THIS SUPREME POWER; or that this power which he enjoys is not ordinary (i. e., that of an ordinary) and immediate, both over each and all the churches, and over each and all our pastors and the faithful, LET HIM BE ANATHEMA."

"Chapter IV. . . . Therefore, faithfully adhering to the tradition received from the beginning of the Christian faith, for the glory of God our Saviour, the exaltation of the Catholic religion, and the salvation of Christian people, the Sacred Council approving, WE TEACH AND DEFINE THAT IT IS A DOGMA DIVINELY REVEALED, THAT THE ROMAN PONTIFF—when he speaks ex cathedra, i. e., when, in discharge of the office of pastor and doctor of all Christians, by virtue of his supreme apostolic authority, he defines a doctrine regarding faith and morals to be held by the Universal Church—BY THE DIVINE ASSISTANCE PROMISED TO HIM IN BLESSED PETER, IS POSSESSED OF THAT INFALLIBILITY with which the divine Redeemer willed that his Church should be endowed, for defining doctrine regarding faith or morals; and that, therefore, SUCH DEFINITIONS OF THE ROMAN PONTIFF ARE IN THEMSELVES, and not by reason of the consent of the Church, UNALTERABLE. But if any one—which may God avert—presume to contradict this, our definition, LET HIM BE ANATHEMA."

It will now be clearly seen how awfully complete is the blasphemy which has been promulgated, and what a terrible range this Satanic assumption takes.

THE DOGMA MAKES THE POPE TO BE AN INCARNATION OF GOD.

It seems to our mind quite clear that this definition implies the deification of the Pope himself, and, therefore, a worship of, and faith in, him as being, we shudder to say it, an incarnation of God.

And we have abundant proof that this is already the result in the Roman Church, as we shall clearly show.

Long ago, Bellarmine and other Jesuits, designated the Pope, "Vice God;" and Professor Faber has actually described the Pope as the third incarnation of Christ—the birth at Bethlehem, and "the host" being the other two.

The Civiltà Cattolica is a Roman newspaper, which was commended in a Papal Brief, dated February 12, 1866, as being the purest journal of true church doctrine, and its editorship was thereby vested in a kind of commission. Therefore, we may look upon its articles, not only as representing Roman Catholic opinion, but as almost Papal in their authority, seeing it is considered to be the recognized organ of the Roman Curia.

In an article on "The Father of the Faithful," meaning by that term the Pope, it says: "It is not enough for the people only to know that the Pope is the head of the Church and the Bishops, they must also understand that their own faith and religious life flow from him, that in him is the bond which unites Catholics to one another, and the power which strengthens, and the light which guides them; that he is the dispenser of spiritual graces, the giver of the benefits of religion, the upholder of justice and the protector of the oppressed." (a)

And still more recently, it utters the blasphemy in these words,—"WHEN THE POPE REFLECTS, IT IS GOD WHO THINKS IN HIM."

Nor will it ever present any difficulty to these blasphemers, should an utterly ignorant man become "the infallible Pope:" for the Jesuit, Professor Erbermann of Mayence has said, a thoroughly ignorant Pope may very well be infallible, for God has before now pointed out the right road by the mouth of a speaking ass." (b)

THE POPE DECLARED TO BE GREATER THAN OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.

But one of the most striking proofs of the fact that this Dogma, is, even now, resulting in a deification of the Pope,

(a) Civiltà Cattolica, 1867, vol. xii. p. 86 seq.

(b) "The Pope and the Council," by Janus. pp. 46, 47.

is to be found in the following words of Dr. Littledale, who says: "Mgr. Bertheaud, Bishop of Sulle, in a sermon now before me, preached in St. Eustache, Paris, in 1864, and reprinted as No. 95 of a series of tracts published in the 'Bibliothèque Catholique de l'Hopital Militaire de Toulouse,' sustains the thesis that St. Peter's confession of Christ, as commented on by Christ himself shows THAT ST. PETER DID NOT NEED TO BE TAUGHT BY CHRIST, but was in private and confidential relations with God the Father independently of the Son, and that the like privilege extends to his successors; so that THE FATHER AND THE POPE may have, and probably HAVE, SECRETS BETWEEN THEM IN WHICH CHRIST DOES NOT PARTICIPATE, and thus it is practically safer to go to the Pope than to Christ, FOR WHEN THE POPE SPEAKS, it is more (plus haut) than Christ speaking, IT IS GOD THE FATHER HIMSELF." (a)

Here then, is the clear result of this doctrine, that the Roman Catholic Church has no longer even a formal claim to be called Christian. Therefore, since Christ is dethroned in it, and the Pope is now the Intercessor with God who has superseded the Saviour, let us call this system Papalism or Heathenism.

The text of the Dogma itself, and these illustrations of its meaning as applied personally to the Pope, must convince all unprejudiced minds that we have in it a claim on the part of the Pope, not only to INFALLIBILITY, but also to DIVINITY; and this claim covers the actions, as well of his predecessors as his successors.

Surely we need not enter into any laboured or lengthened disproof of this infallibility, as a simple matter of historic fact.

HOW SO-CALLED INFALLIBLE POPES HAVE DENOUNCED EACH OTHER.

Popes have, again and again, infallibly contradicted each other, and have condemned each others bulls and briefs, so that all men, who know anything of history must laugh to scorn their claims.

John XXII. declared ex cathedra that his predecessors, Clement V. and Nicholas IV. had promulgated certain principles that were erroneous and heretical because they, in his "infallible" opinion, had attributed unjust and dishonorable acts to Christ and His apostles.

Innocent III. repealed a Decretal of Pope Celestinus.

Stephanus VII. annulled the acts of his predecessor Formosus, and ordered those ordained by him to be re-ordained.

John IX. afterwards annulled these acts of Stephanus, and confirmed the acts of Formosus, whilst to crown this infallible confusion, Pope Sergius III. condemned both John IX. and Formosus, and confirmed the acts of Stephanus!

Many other contradictions, utterly inconsistent with ex cathedra infallibility, could be given.

But Popes, have publicly, in many cases, recanted and confessed errors on the gravest matters, which they had published ex cathedra, as infallible truths binding on all Christians.

Liberius did this in 357, and Zosimus did the same about seventy years later, when he, under the guidance of Augustine, retracted his errors, at the Council of Carthage. Pope Vigilius condemned his own Constitutions regarding the Monophysite controversy, which he had proclaimed with damnable clauses, and confessed that he had perverted the faith, and had been a tool in the hands of Satan, "the enemy of man." He thrice contradicted himself, and was the cause of several National Churches breaking off their connection with the Roman See.

VICES OF POPES.

The infamous behaviour and horrible vices of many popes further demonstrate the falseness of the claim set up for their infallibility: for the Dogma without doubt extends to past popes since Cardinal Manning has declared "that the Vatican Council simply declared AN OLD TRUTH AND NOT A NEW DOGMA" (a)—the consequences of which declaration the Papists must accept.

For instance Hefele, a Roman Catholic historian, tells us that Pope Stephanus VII., about the end of the ninth century caused the corpse of his predecessor, Formosus, to be disinterred, and, clothing it in pontifical robes, placed it before a Roman Synod. This Council then condemned and excommunicated him as an iniquitous Pope, annulled his decrees, and pronounced all his acts of consecration to be invalid. We are further told, what almost passes the bounds of credibility, were it not only too well attested to be doubted, that THEY HACKED FROM HIS DEAD HAND THE THREE FINGERS WITH WHICH HE WAS WONT TO GIVE THE PAPAL BENEDICTION, AND THEN THREW HIS NAKED, MUTILATED BODY INTO THE TIBER. (b)

Pope Honorius too, in the seventh century, affords an illustration of a striking nature. He was solemnly condemned, anathematized, and excommunicated, by the sixth council, as a heretic.

The seventh and eighth Councils repeated the condemnation, and Leo II not only confirmed these decrees against Honorius, but pronounced a special anathema upon him, because he had defiled an Apostolic Church, and by a profane treachery had attempted to subvert the true faith. And we know, beyond all doubt, that this condemnation of Pope Honorius passed into the confession of faith, of which every Pope, until the eleventh century, had to swear his acceptance, on seating himself in that so-called "unmoving cathedra of certainty," the papal chair.

Can there be stronger proof that the blasphemous assumptions of Papalists are utterly baseless than these facts.

If more was needed, it is only too easy to bring it forth, and we have purposely refrained from further expositions, of what even Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis spoke of at the Council, as "the scandalous life of infamous Popes," such as Pope Benedict, Sylvester III., Gregory VI., and John XXIV. It is too disgusting a task,—would that the story had never needed to be written. Such wretches as these are said to be the infallible transmitters of the Apostolic succession, by virtue of which Leo XIII., claims to be to-day the Infallible Pope, and declares the Dogma to be "the tradition received from the beginning of the Christian faith."

Can we wonder that, in countries where this Infallibility Dogma is presented as Christian truth, men prefer infidelity to this false thing?

It is of importance, however, that we should enter upon the consideration of the last portion of our enquiry regarding this Dogma, and briefly review, thirdly,

THE EFFECTS OF THE DOGMA ON MODERN LIFE, ESPECIALLY IN ITS BEARING ON CIVIL ALLEGIANCE.

In considering this, an examination of some of the doctrines of the Encyclical and Syllabus of December 1864 will greatly aid us in arriving at a clear decision, and since the Pope issued, a few days previous to the meeting of the Vatican Council, a bull visiting with the major excommunication all who did not fully admit the doctrines of the Syllabus, or who should dispute in the smallest degree a Papal brief, it will surely be conceded that we are dealing with in infallible (!) utterance.

LIBERTY OF CONSCIENCE AND OF WORSHIP DENIED.

Following the example of his immediate predecessor, Gregory XVI.—who denounced the freedom of the press, as "that deadly species of freedom of which we cannot entertain too great a horror."—Pius IX., declares in the Encyclical, that it is "madness," an "absolutely false idea," and an opinion "fatal to the Catholic Church and the salvation of souls," for anyone to say that "liberty of conscience and of worship is the right of every human being." (! !)

Since the Pope, therefore, denies "liberty of conscience," it will scarcely excite surprise should we find him interfere with that, and all other lesser liberty, in his infallible ex cathedra utterances in the Syllabus. It may be urged by some Jesuit that the Syllabus cannot be considered an ex cathedra utterance of the Pope's.

(a) Letter to the New York Herald dated Nov. 19, 1874.

(b) Hefele's "History of the Councils," vol. iv., p. 307.

WHAT CONSTITUTES AN EX-CATHEDRA UTTERANCE?

But, Cardinal Manning has given us a distinct and authoritative test by which we can answer that objection.

He says: "We have been lately told by those who desire to hinder the definition of the doctrine, by secular opposition, rather than by theological reason, that there are some twenty opinions as to the conditions required to authenticate an utterance of the Pontiff "ex cathedra." I will therefore venture to affirm that no others are required than this, THAT THE DOCTRINAL ACTS BE PUBLISHED BY THE PONTIFF, AS UNIVERSAL TEACHER, WITH THE INTENTION OF REQUIRING THE ASSENT OF THE CHURCH." (a) And yet more simply is expressed by F. Franzelin, Professor of Dogmatic Theology in the Roman College—who is quoted with approval by Cardinal Manning.

He says: "The words ex cathedra, express simply A DEFINITE AUTHENTIC PROCLAMATION OF THE POPE'S JUDGMENT. For what is the apostolic cathedra save the supreme original teaching office, instituted for the Universal Church."

Now, none can doubt, that in sending forth the Syllabus, with its appended curses against all who even think otherwise, Pius IX. "required, as universal teacher, the assent of the Church" to its doctrines, and it is also beyond denial that it is "a definite, authentic proclamation of the Pope's judgment."

What then does this infallible Syllabus declare?

Its declarations are in the form of CONDEMNATIONS; and, of course, we are to clearly understand that these involve AFFIRMATIONS of exactly the contrary character to the views condemned.

HOW THE POPE DENOUNCES FREEDOM AND AMERICAN LAWS.

There are no less than eighty propositions on which Pius IX. places his ANATHEMA, and among these are the following:—

"That every man is free to embrace and profess that religion which, according to the light of reason, seems to him to be true."

24th. "That the Church has no right to use compulsion; it has no temporal power, direct or indirect."

54th. "That the Church ought to be separated from the State, and the State from the Church."

74th. "That matrimonial causes and relations belong to civil society."

77th. "That in our time it is useless to regard the Catholic religion as the only State religion to the exclusion of every other cultus."

78th. "That the law is right which in certain Catholic countries provides for foreign residents the enjoyment of their own peculiar forms of worship."

80th. "That the Pope might and ought to put himself in accord with progress, liberalism and modern civilization."

Can it be doubted that such monstrous doctrines as these will prove most detrimental to all that is best and most hopeful in modern life?

Wherever Papalism is strong enough to enforce them, the purest and noblest forms of social and national life must be destroyed; and human society must return to deeper depths of moral and spiritual degradation, than was ever seen at any time in Ancient Paganism.

The fierce hatred which burns in these and kindred anathemas, is especially directed against all those institutions which we consider to be the bulwarks of civil and religious liberty.

These doctrines, were we to accept them, would rob us of all liberty, involve us in fratricidal strife, destroy the happiness of our homes, make us the oppressors or the oppressed.

ROME HAS TWO FACES AND TWO VOICES.

From such statements as these, it is clear that, in Rome,

(a) "The Œcumenical Council and the Infallibility of the Roman Pontiff," pp. (a) 71.

they have different methods of expression, from those that Cardinal Gibbons or Archbishop Sattoli, deem it desirable to use in America.

There, American political institutions—such as "the voting urns and parliament,"—are anathematized.

HERE, great respect for "public opinion," is professed, and priests desire it to "be brought to bear on Parliaments and Legislatures."

There, the Pope declares it to be an abomination and accursed that he should "put himself in accord with progress, liberalism, and modern civilization," without making any exception whatever.

HERE the Roman prelates say that Rome is only contending against "the evil" which has been mixed up with Modern Life, and says that "thoughtful men are not to be thus deceived," by those who say that, "the Church condemns legitimate progress, true civilization, and modern ideas."

Oh, no, it is the protector of all these! The wonder is that they do not declare it to be the originator of these modern ideas.

Whence this difference? The proud boast of Rome, "Quod ubique, quod semper, quod ab omnibus creditum est."—that which has been believed everywhere, always, and by all,—does not seem to be very clearly exemplified in this contrast.

Yet it is only a seeming, and not a real, difference; for the Priests and the Civitta really agree in their mutual hatred of free institutions,—but all Roman ecclesiastics, everywhere, and always are deeply impressed with the Jesuit creed of "mental reservations," and language is with them, as with Talleyrand, an instrument employed to conceal thought.

Hence, they curse in Rome, what they seem to bless in America and other free countries.

Yet there is no difference. If it be likely to advance their interests, or impose upon their followers, they will curse, with the same lips the very things they blessed.

POSSIBILITIES OF THE DOGMA.

But, it is not merely what the so-called "supreme and infallible doctor the Pope," has decreed, there is the further question, as to what he may decree to be binding upon the consciences of all Papalists.

It has been argued that the Pope's infallibility is limited to the "domain of faith and morals," in such a way that it does not prejudicially affect civil allegiance."

But we see that Chapter III. of the Vatican Decree, already quoted, expressly declares, that the "absolute fullness of supreme power, NOT ONLY in things which relate to faith and morals, but also in those that appertain to the discipline and government of the church spread throughout the world," belongs to the Pope.

There is no guarantee whatever therefore, that he may not require his subjects in this land—who owe him, he has infallibly declared, "MONARCHICAL subordination and true obedience," to refuse to obey laws which are made by anathematized "parliaments," who have enacted measures directly contrary to the Syllabus, which is binding on the conscience of the "Universal Church," according to the decree.

Then, seeing that this Papal power, absolute and full, is believed to extend to "each and all our pastors," what guarantee have we, that a private missive may not arrive from Rome absolving Cardinal Gibbons from all former oaths, and from obedience to the laws which govern this land?

Now we are not merely conjuring up abstract possibilities of what might happen under certain circumstances; but, we shall show that these are more than possibilities, they have become facts.

FACTS WHICH PROVE THE REAL NATURE OF THE DOGMA IN ITS BEARING UPON CIVIL ALLEGIANCE. THE POPE DECLARES A MONARCHICAL CONSTITUTION NULL AND VOID.

We shall take only three illustrations of the effect of the infallibility Dogma upon the constitutions of modern States—two shall relate to recent acts of Pope Pius IX., and one to an unrepealed act of Innocent III.

In a Papal Allocution of June 22, 1868, the late Pope uttered the following words concerning the new Austrian Constitution:—

“By our Apostolic Authority we reject and condemn the above mentioned laws in general, and in particular all that has been ordered, done, or enacted in these and in other things against the rights of the church, by the Austrian government or its subordinates; by the same authority we declare these laws, and their consequences, to have been and to be for the future NULL AND VOID” (nulliusque roboris fuisse ac fore). “We exhort and adjure their authors, especially those who call themselves Catholics, and all who have dared to propose, to accept, to approve, and to execute them, to remember the censures and spiritual penalties incurred ipso facto, according to the apostolic constitutions and decrees of the Œcumenical Councils, by those who violate the rights of the Church.”

Concerning this action an able and learned writer has observed: “By this sentence the WHOLE LEGISLATURE AND EXECUTIVE OF AUSTRIA IS PLACED UNDER BAN, with the Emperor Francis Joseph at its head, and the Austrians may be thankful that the whole territories of the empire are not placed under interdict, according to the earlier precedent put in practice the last time against Venice (1606).” (a)

THE POPE DECLARES A REPUBLICAN CONSTITUTION
NULL AND VOID.

Our next case relates to the Republic of New Granada, now the United States of Colombia, which fell under Papal displeasure, through its having dared to adopt a constitution contrary to the Pope's wishes.

On the 27th of September, 1852, Pius IX. delivered an allocution on the subject, which, acting on Cardinal Manning's and Professor Franzelin's principles, we are bound to consider an ex cathedra utterance. It strikingly illustrates the 78th article of the Syllabus already quoted; and were the Protestant majority in America to act upon a similar principle, Cardinal Gibbons, and his co-religionists, would be forbidden all “public exercise of their own peculiar form of worship.” He, and they, ought to be grateful that they live in a State where such intolerant principles are utterly repudiated.

In this allocution, the Pope declares it to be abominable, “that immigrants” to New Granada should be permitted to enjoy “the public exercise of their worship whatever it was;” and he also condemned the constitution because that in it, among other things, “the right of free education is defended, and liberty of all kinds is given unto all, so that each person may even print and publish his own thoughts, and all kinds of monstrous portents of opinion, and profess publicly and privately whatsoever worship he pleases.” He further declared to the assembled Cardinals: “You assuredly see, venerable brethren, how horrible and sacrilegious a war is proclaimed against the Catholic Church by the rulers of the republic.” And then, he closed this precious piece of infallibility, by proclaiming the following final utterance—no doubt one, in his opinion, strictly within the limits of “faith and morals,” and as such, therefore, it is worthy of our special notice, viz:—

“We, raising, with apostolic liberty, OUR PASTORAL VOICE in this your most illustrious assembly, do censure, condemn, and DECLARE UTTERLY NULL AND VOID, all the aforesaid decrees which have been there enacted by the CIVIL POWER.” (b)

Such daring words as these show for what uses the so-called infallible power may be employed; and no reasonable man can doubt that it is only crafty expediency which prevents the use of similar words concerning the free institutions of America or England, where the circumstances are, (alas for Rome!) unfavorable.

Papalists may say, as the pervert Dr. Newman has already said, concerning this, that this censure, condemnation, and abrogation of the New Granada laws was one in which “the Pope merely told the Government that that act, and other acts which they had committed, gave him very great pain; that he had expected better things of them; that the way they went on was all of a piece; and that they had his best prayers.” (!!) (a)

But surely such juggling as this will be despised by every man of ordinary sense, since nothing can be clearer than that the curses attached to the 78th article of the Syllabus were all incurred by the New Granadians, so far as the Pope is concerned, and, if these are “his best prayers,” then we may well wonder what his worst curses can possibly be.

Here we have only a repetition in our own day of the blasphemous assumptions of Pope Boniface VIII. in his Bull, “Unam Sanctum” issued about 1301 A. D., wherein he says: “There are two swords, the spiritual and the temporal. . . . The spiritual sword is the priest's; but the material sword belongs to kings and soldiers, who are to use it at the command, and by the permission, of the priest. . . .

Wherefore, to every human creature we declare, assert, define and pronounce, that it is entirely essential to salvation to be subject to the Pope of Rome.”

Cardinal Manning says that this Bull “contains no more” than Ultramontaniam, and, therefore, we are dealing with an ex cathedra declaration, supposed to be true for all time—consequently true to-day.

We doubt not, though, that if Pius IX. were to address to us words such as those which Boniface VIII. addressed to Philip, King of France—who, by the way, publicly burnt this said Bull—we should very probably return him a similar reply to that which his corrupt predecessor received. The King wrote: “Philip, by the grace of God, King of the French, to Boniface, who claims to be the Pope; little greeting, or, rather, none at all. Let thy consummate folly know that in temporal matters we are subject to no man.”

THE POPE DECLARES MAGNA CHARTA NULL AND VOID.

But we must hasten to our third instance, and show the effect of the Infallibility Dogma on the British Constitution, by an unrepealed Bull of Pope Innocent III. This is perhaps the most important point in this connection.

On June 5th, 1215, the Barons of England extorted from King John at Runnymede that greater Charter of Rights, which established the supremacy of the laws of England over the caprice of the monarch, and which is known in history as MAGNA CHARTA.

It is the foundation-stone of the present Constitution of the British Empire; and if it be undermined, the whole legal structure falls—if it be invalid, then no laws based upon it are binding.

What is the present infallible Pope's relation to it? Simply that it is NULL AND VOID, VILE AND BASE, ILLICIT AND WICKED; for it was so declared by Pope Innocent III., in his Bull of August 15th, 1215, who also excommunicated the Barons, and suspended the Archbishop, who had procured it from King John,—and that Bull has never been withdrawn, or rescinded, by any of his successors. Hence, this foundation being infallibly nullified, it becomes, to all believers in the Dogma, abundantly clear that they are under no obligation to obey a single law in the British Empire, so far as their spiritual guiding star is concerned.

How useless then for Papalists to quibble over “oaths of allegiance to the Queen,” or questions of true “loyalty,” on the “word of an English Gentleman!”

Innocent III., Boniface VIII., and Pius IX., all combine, with their Bulls and decrees, to free him from all obligation to obey either British laws, or to give allegiance to the monarch; for the Bulls of the first two, and the principles established by the last named, are more than sufficient to accomplish this. MAGNA CHARTA is void, therefore no laws, regularly enacted, can exist; and a Roman prelate is only the subject of a foreign potentate, to whom he owes "monarchical subordination and true obedience," since the Pope has "the absolute fulness of supreme power" over him, and "the faithful."

This is the only logical result deducible from the facts before us.

CARDINAL MANNING'S ATTEMPTS TO EXPLAIN PROVED TO BE FALSE.

An attempt, however, has been made to escape from this conclusion by Cardinal Manning, who is the ablest defender of the Man of Sin and his blasphemous Dogma of Infallibility.

In an article on "The Pope and the Magna Charta," contributed by him to the Contemporary Review for December, 1875 (vol. 27, pp. 1-20), we find a curious defense of Pope Innocent III., and a most Jesuitical attempt to make out that the Bull, though admittedly condemning the Charter, and the Barons who wrested it from John, yet, "did not condemn the contents of the Charter." This silly stuff is really amazing—it makes words and acts utterly meaningless, and to believe it we shall not only need to construct new histories, but a new language. Surely if a document is described, as Cardinal Manning does this, to be "vile and base, illicit and wicked, and in derogation of the right and honor of the King," there is implied a condemnation of its contents. Moreover, the Pope expressly says that by it "the King was deprived of his rights," and therefore he must have intended to condemn the contents of the Charter, which claimed that these very rights were not the King's but the People's.

But the arguments by which Cardinal Manning justifies Innocent III., are not merely a curious mixture of inconsistencies they seem to be serious also—as affecting this question of the Pope's relation to the British Constitution. They are, so far as we can summarize them, as follows:

1. That England belonged to the Pope, as feudal Lord, by John's surrender of his crown and kingdom to Nicholas, the Pope's Legate, in 1213; and therefore, since the Barons and King had no right to act independently of the Pope, he was entitled to nullify the Charter, and excommunicate the Barons, who he said, "being vassals, had conspired against their lord." Query—Have the people any rights now, or is the Pope still their feudal lord?

2. That the Pope was tricked by John and "deceived" into granting this Bull of condemnation against the Charter and the Barons. Query—Why did he not withdraw the Bull then, and see that the Charter was re-enacted, instead of continuing to side with John against the struggling people?

From the whole article four things seem to us clearly deducible, even from Cardinal Manning's own facts and reasonings:—

1. England belongs to the Pope, as feudal lord.
2. Magna Charta was pronounced null and void by Innocent III.
3. The Pope was deceived; and ought not to have done it.
4. The condemnation of the Charter was never withdrawn.

THE POPE CLAIMS TO BE THE SOLE SUPREME JUDGE OF WHAT IS RIGHT AND WRONG.

But in order that we may summarize the dangers arising from the Dogma of Infallibility, we shall take Cardinal Manning's own words, when, speaking as for the Pope, he causes him to say:—

"I acknowledge no civil power; I am the subject of no prince; and I claim more than this—I CLAIM TO BE THE SUPREME JUDGE AND DIRECTOR OF THE CONSCIENCES OF MEN—of the peasant that tills the fields, and of the prince that sits upon the throne; of the household that lives in the shade of privacy; and the legislator that makes laws for kingdoms; I AM

THE SOLE, LAST SUPREME JUDGE OF WHAT IS RIGHT AND WRONG." (a)

Surely, it is impossible for blasphemy and arrogance to go further than this; or for any more daring attempt to be made against all liberty. No oppressor ever equaled this, unless it were Satan himself, who claimed on a famous occasion to be the possessor of "all the kingdoms of this world and the glory of them."

But even he, with all his sublime impudence, never dared to claim an empire equal to the Pope's, who commands all men to obey him as the "supreme judge and director of the consciences of men," and "THE SOLE LAST SUPREME JUDGE OF WHAT IS RIGHT AND WRONG."

We can only reply to this, in the words which the Lord Jesus addressed to the great deceiver and tempter of men,— "Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and HIM ONLY shalt thou serve."

Nay, O Pope, thou art no second or "third incarnation of Christ," as thy vile servitors would fain describe thee; if thou art an incarnation of any spirit, it is of that "proud spirit" which, fallen from Heaven to hell's dark realm, was still fired with passion to rule o'er the hosts whom he had dragged down in his fall, and

"In whose choice

To reign is worth ambition, though in hell.

Better to reign in hell than serve in heaven." (b)

For is it not all too clear that we have here an adversary of God and man, who would fain usurp God's prerogatives, and destroy man's liberties?

CONSCIENCE IS ONLY AMENABLE TO GOD.

If there be one power within us that is beyond all human control, and still remains, as "God's vicegerent, in the spirit," it is Conscience; and yet here too the Pope claims supreme power to judge and to direct; but to admit for a moment such a claim, is absurd in the extreme, repugnant as it is to all Divine revelation, human reason, experience and convictions: for Conscience is—

" . . . that sole monarchy in man
Owing allegiance to no earthly prince;
Made by the edict of creation free;

* * * * *

An individual sovereignty, that none
Created might, unpunished, bind or touch;
Unbound, save by the eternal laws of God,
And unamenable to all below."

To this inward witness of "conscience" Paul appealed, when he wrote to the Romans, in the first century of the Christian era; and, speaking of "the day when God shall judge the secrets of men according to my Gospel," he declared that men would be judged in accordance with the "law written in their hearts," concerning which "conscience," God's witness in the spirit, always testified. (c)

But modern Roman papalists, like many of their ancient ancestors, "hold the truth in unrighteousness," and though "they knew God, they glorified him not as God;" but "professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man." Nay, more, the spiritual parallel is complete, when we quote Paul's further words, "They changed the truth of God into a lie, AND WORSHIPPED AND SERVED THE CREATURE MORE THAN THE CREATOR, who is blessed forever. AMEN." (d)

SIX IMPORTANT CONCLUSIONS.

And now, in closing our examination of this claim of the Son of Perdition, who sits in the Church of St. Peter at Rome, "showing himself that he is God," we briefly recapitulate the positions which we think have been established by the facts and forces of our argument. These are six, viz.:—

1. The Dogma of Papal Infallibility is NEW as a formal article of faith, though it is the necessary outcome of so antichristian a system of religion.

2. The Dogma results in a Papalist deification and worship of the Pope, since it has already been declared that he is not only equal to, but greater than, the Saviour, and thus confirms Paul's prophecy in 2 Thessalonians 2:1-4.

3. The Dogma has been, in its operation, proved to be inconsistent with, and opposed to, civil and religious liberty, is utterly at variance with all that is best in modern progress, education and laws, and renders it impossible for Papalists, who sincerely believe that the Pope is their "supreme judge and director," to be loyal citizens of any State, since their civil allegiance is dependent entirely upon the will of a foreign prince, to whom they have sworn, or admit they owe, "monarchical subordination and true obedience."

4. The papal power has already, as far as it could, abolished the Constitutions and Governments of several modern States; and, by a natural interpretation of its past edicts, which are supposed to be of force in the present, does not need to recognize, except for its own convenience, any, validity in the Constitutional laws and government of any nation on earth.

5. There are no human limits placed to the application of this Dogma in the future, since it claims for the Pope absolute power over the consciences of all men, and declares him to be "the sole, last, supreme judge of what is right and wrong."

6. That these claims are founded on falsehoods, supported by frauds, disproved by history, contrary to Scripture reason and experience, inimical to freedom, dangerous to civil order, opposed to true national progress, likely to produce war and civil strife, would fain rob God of the honor and worship due Him, and destroy man's dearest possessions—liberty and conscience—and, therefore, the Dogma should, on account of its blasphemous assumption, its degrading attempted tyranny, and its utter absurdity, be rejected with universal indignation and scorn.

THE ABSURDITY OF THE DOGMA.

If, in the triple crown of blasphemy, tyranny and absurdity which compose this regal ornament of Papal Infallibility, there is one component more striking than another, it is the absurdity.

Absurdity?—no term such as that can adequately express the preposterous folly of the Dogma, nor any words of ours describe so screaming a farce—which, if men were wiser, would be laughed out of existence. Only think of a Council composed entirely of admittedly fallible bishops, making another infallible, or defining his infallibility even, by the united consent of their very reverend fallibilities! How can the fallible create, or define, the infallible? And what is the value of an infallibility which rests upon a basis of fallibility?

It is ridiculous beyond measure, and reminds us, of an illustration which seemed to us as wise as it was witty.

GAVAZZI'S ILLUSTRATION.

Just after Victor Emanuel's troops had entered Rome, and put an end to the Pope's temporal dominion, we heard a speech, in Edinburgh, by the great Italian orator and evangelist, Alessandro Gavazzi, who had been once a Romish priest and a favorite orator of the Vatican. He was then on the eve of leaving for Rome, where he labored for many years as a faithful minister, and a noble-hearted, wise, and devoted leader in the Free Churches of Italy, and recently "fell asleep in Jesus."

A large and highly intelligent audience was before him, in one of the principal halls of the city; and, after arguing, with eloquence and impressiveness, concerning the Dogma of Infallibility, he spoke of its extreme absurdity, with inimitable Italian vivacity and gesture, somewhat as follows:

"Suppose," said he, "that in this great hall there is not a single male man; but that everyone in it is a female woman; and, therefore, that the president is a female woman!

"Well, we shall now suppose, that this female assembly are met to confer the greatest honor possible upon the lady president; and that some one present makes the astounding proposal that she should be declared to be a male man!

"Do you think," he continued, amid roars of laughter, "that, even if they were all unanimous, the votes of ten thousand women could make her, or anyone, a male man?"

"No; and if thousands of women could not by their votes make one man in this hall, then neither can six hundred fallible bishops make, or decree, another bishop to be an infallible Pope in the Church of St. Peter at Rome; for it were as easy, and as reasonable, to do the one as the other!"

Yes, we believe Gavazzi was right. The idea of infallibility being voted into existence by several hundred fallibilities!

"Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?—Not one." Job 14:4. Certainly, neither the Jesuits of the Roman Curia nor all the Œcumenical Councils that ever sat can bring an infallibility out of the mass of uncleanness which constitutes the Romish Church.

JUSTIFICATION OF OUR COURSE IN THIS EXPOSURE.

It may be thought by some to be somewhat strange that we should devote so much space to the discussion of this matter, but such a thought would only serve to show the necessity for our action. The claim of the Pope to be the head of the church must be not only denied but disproved, and all his wicked power and that of all his servants throughout that apostate church, must be utterly shattered ere the countless spirits imprisoned within the dungeons of papal spiritual darkness can be set free. It is only when the absolute wickedness of a religious system is proved that the diabolical origin of the alleged miracles in that system can be proved also, and, while the blessed Gospel of Divine Healing through Faith in Jesus Christ has to encounter the false pretensions of Spiritualism, and that modern anti-christian imposture falsely called Christian Science, it has also to contend, on the other extreme, with diabolical manifestations of the miraculous in the Church of Rome, where "lying wonders" have for centuries found their home. Having proved the sinfulness of the foundation on which the Church of Rome rests, there is no need to prove that its alleged miracles are simply Satanic manifestations; for "a corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit."

PROPHECIES BEING FULFILLED.

Living, as we are, in the latter days, when many "depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils" (1 Tim. 4:1), the Sixth Vial of the Book of Revelation of Jesus Christ (chapter 16: 12-16) is being manifestly poured out, and the results are as were therein revealed, viz., "I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the Dragon (the devil), and out of the mouth of the Beast (the Pope of Rome), and out of the mouth of the False Prophet (Mohammed); for they are the spirits of devils working miracles which go forth unto the kings of the earth and the whole world to gather them to the battle for the great day of God Almighty." The preparations for that awful battle, with all the forces of evil in combination against the true church of God, are being heard on every side. It behooves, therefore, that the "wise virgins" should take heed to the warning voice of the Lord (verse 15). "Behold, I come as a thief; blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments lest he walk naked and they see his shame." The garments of the flesh are being defiled by large numbers of Christians because they are not watching, and these Papalist, Spiritualist, Christian Scientist, Theosophist, Materialist, Sensualist, and other demon Robbers, are, like the thieves on the way from Jerusalem to Jericho, falling upon the unwary travelers, stripping them of their raiment, wounding them, and leaving them half-dead by the way-sides of life.

AN APPEAL TO THE CHURCH OF GOD; AND A WARNING TO FALSE SHEPHERDS.

Oh, that the church of God would, in the spirit and power of the Lord, go forth in compassion to deliver the spirits, souls, and bodies of the perishing, binding up their wounds and pouring in the oil of the Spirit and the wine of the gospel of salvation and healing! But until these "thieves" are recognized as such, and driven by the Sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, from their prey, the Church can never fulfill her blessed mission. The priests and the Levites are "passing by on the other side," leaving the travelers Zionward in their agony. Denying that the mission of the Lord is still to heal, they are leaving the sick to be the prey of the "robbers." Against these false shepherds in Israel the word of the Lord is ringing forth: "Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ye eat the fat and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed; but ye feed not the flock. THE DISEASED HAVE YE NOT STRENGTHENED, NEITHER HAVE YE HEALED THAT WHICH WAS SICK, NEITHER HAVE YE BOUND UP THAT WHICH WAS BROKEN, NEITHER HAVE YE BROUGHT AGAIN THAT WHICH WAS DRIVEN AWAY, NEITHER HAVE YE SOUGHT THAT WHICH WAS LOST; BUT WITH FORCE AND WITH CRUELTY HAVE YE RULED THEM." These words, repeated with such terrible emphasis by our Lord to the false ministers in the church of God in the days of his flesh, may be well applied to the false ministers throughout not only the Romish, but the Protestant churches of Christendom to-day.

"Therefore, O ye shepherds, HEAR THE WORD OF THE LORD; thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I AM AGAINST THE SHEPHERDS, and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. For thus saith the Lord God: Behold I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, AND WILL BIND UP THAT WHICH WAS BROKEN, AND WILL STRENGTHEN THAT WHICH WAS SICK; but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment." Eze. 34: 1-16.

The day has come for burning words, even as Malachi prophesied (4: 1), for until the true church of God is truly purified, the blessings foretold by the same prophet (verse 2 and 3) cannot be given. O that the Sun of Righteousness might arise "with healing in His wings, and that the church of God should "go forth and grow up as calves of the stall, TREADING DOWN THE WICKED," and this shall be. God's word has said it: "For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts." That day is drawing nigh;" the night is far spent, the day is at hand." O ye weary, tempest-tossed and not comforted, "Lift up your heads, for your Redemption draweth nigh."

"Lord, come and reign o'er every land;
Let Satan from his throne be hurled;
All nations bow to thy command,
And grace revive a dying world.
Yes; thou wilt speedily appear;
The smitten earth already reels,
And not far off we seem to hear
The thunder of thy chariot wheels.

THE PRESS.

COWPER in one of his poems, "The Progress of Error," thus apostrophises the press,—

"How shall I speak thee, or thy power address,
Thou god of our idolatry, the press?
By thee religion, liberty, and laws,
Exert their influence, and advance their cause:
By thee worse plagues than Pharaoh's land befell,
Diffused, make earth the vestibule of hell;
Thou fountain, at which drink the good and wise;
Thou ever-bubbling spring of endless lies;
Like Eden's dread probationary tree,
Knowledge of good and evil is from thee."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14: 6 and Exodus 15: 26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13: 8 and Matthew 28: 20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 and Matthew 8: 17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3: 8, Matthew 4: 23 and Acts 10: 38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11: 29 and 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8: 5-13 Matthew 18: 19, James 5: 14, 15, Mark 16: 18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE very success of our work for the Lord perplexes us. God has "poured out a blessing" that "there is not room enough to receive it."

First, as to Zion Tabernacle.

For many months it has often been far too small to accommodate the crowds who attend the meetings during the week days. On the Lord's Days, especially in the afternoons, many thousands must have gone away, unable to find even standing room. This condition continues and increases.

Second, as to the Divine Healing Homes.

We are often full to overflowing in Homes Nos. 1 and 2, and we need a third Home for the winter. If we do not open such a Home soon we shall be compelled to turn away many guests who have come long distances. We have sometimes had to do that already.

WE are asking God to lay these needs upon the hearts of His stewards, to whom He has entrusted the talents of silver and of gold. They could be speedily supplied if God's people who read these lines would pray and give. The establishing of ZION PUBLISHING HOUSE, and of LEAVES OF HEALING, is taxing our financial resources to their utmost, and special help for these matters is required.

SOME may say, "Why do you not appeal to God for the resources?"

We have, and we think we hear Him say, as He did to Moses:—"Wherefore criest thou unto me? Speak unto the people that they go forward!" Hence these words.

WE wish all our readers to know that they can order back numbers of this new series of LEAVES OF HEALING in any numbers they please. We have an electro-typing department, and by means of that beautiful process we preserve a complete fac-simile of every page we print. One of our issues, No. 2, was recently exhausted, and we printed 2,000 copies from the electro plates to supply the demand. Other issues are running low; but we can supply any demand at short notice. We hope soon to be able also to announce a supply of tracts and lectures reprinted from the LEAVES in a convenient form for general distribution.

WHEN our afternoon service of last Lord's Day had closed, amidst a blaze of heavenly glory, an excellent brother who was on the platform grasped our hand and said a most surprising thing. "I am praying God to keep you humble!" he exclaimed. "Why do you say that—where is my danger of being proud?" we asked. "Think of the overwhelming scene we have just witnessed, that vast array who responded to your call, and rose to confess their sins to God," he answered. "But, what have I to do with that?" we replied, "all that is the work of the Holy Spirit blessing the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. I did nothing, God used me, He might have used any other, and it humbles me often to think of how He condescends to make me an instrument of such blessing. It never enters into my head to be proud. But I do rejoice, and I will rejoice in the Lord."

YET we thank our brother for his kindly meant word. No grace shines so beautifully in the Christian as humility: for it is one of the most resplendent jewels in the Crown of Christ Himself. He said:—"I am among you as one that serveth;" and we cannot rise higher in the Divine life than by serving for Christ's sake in the lowliest place, and the lowliest person, we can find. The first healing in which the Lord used us, in this country, took place in a room of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, when we knelt at the feet of a poor, illiterate old woman, whom we had just led to find salvation in Jesus. Her foot was terribly diseased, and the surgeons in Sacramento had wished her to allow them to cut it off in order to save her life. Kneeling at her feet, and taking the diseased limb in our hands, we prayed for her healing—and got it instantly. We were recently informed that she retains it fully. We have similar experiences daily: for we have to get to the feet of sin-stricken, and disease-smitten humanity, when we serve the Lord in the ministry of Divine Healing.

MANY years ago we read somewhere the following lines:—

"He that would rise to be the highest,
Must first come down to be the lowest,
And then ascend to be the highest,
By keeping down to be the lowest."

We have desired to fully exemplify them in our life, and have taught them to tens of thousands: for they in their sublime simplicity embody the words of Jesus,—"He that is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted."

BUT just as Paul writes of a "true holiness," so there is a true and a spurious humility. We have never felt that a Divinely wrought humility transformed us into a feeble mouse: for God made us a man. The Holy Spirit has taught us to "humble ourselves under the MIGHTY HAND OF GOD." This is a very different thing from putting ourselves under the puny hand of man; and being so "humble" that we permit the devil to kick us hither and thither like a football. There are some "ministers" that profess to be Christ's servants, who are engaging in that little pastime. They had better cease, or else one of these days we shall feel it incumbent upon us to let them know that God never made us wind bags in a covering of pig skin. We think we can prove our divine birthright and our allegiance to Christ, as His minister, by a very vigorous use of the "whip of small cords" upon the backs of these brutal clerical footballers, who are trampling our name and ministry beneath their feet. We hope we shall use the "whip" humbly, should occasion demand. Meanwhile, we venture to say to some clerical "full-backs"—stop! in Christ's name, stop! Do not hinder where you cannot help.

ZION TABERNACLE—that "little wooden hut," as one of the persons above alluded to called it—continues to be filled and overflowed with the thousands who come from all parts of Chicago and from Canada and every State in the Union. "The signs following" are manifested constantly.

From 1,500 to 2,000 persons weekly respond to God's Call to Repentance. We pray with about an average of one thousand sick persons every week. Large numbers declare they have found Salvation and Healing through faith in Jesus. We can only say, "The Lord of hosts is with us." We ascribe all glory to Him and to Him alone.

WE have now sent forth seven issues of this new series of the LEAVES OF HEALING—this is the eighth—and we praise God for what He has permitted us to know of the blessing which He has brought to many homes through its pages. We could fill this entire issue with "compliments" which have reached us from all sources. Professional men, writers and printers, lawyers, doctors and ministers have in scores sent us greetings and words of hearty commendation. We are thankful to all, and hope to be more worthy of so much approval. We feel that the work has been very imperfectly done; but we have done all that was possible amidst our many other duties, and the very limited time at our disposal.

HERE is a letter from the "Great Western Type Foundry," whose copper-mixed type is used in these pages.

183, 185 AND 187 MONROE ST., CHICAGO,
Sept. 29th, 1894.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE:
6100 Stony Island Avenue, City.

Dear Sir:—We are in receipt of the LEAVES OF HEALING, and want to commend the handsome typographical appearance of the paper.

Our professional pride is interested, and we hope you will continue to do the same good typographical work as heretofore.

Yours truly,

BARNHART BROS. & SPINDLER.

THIS is high praise from competent judges as to the outward beauty of our LEAVES, and we appreciate it highly; but, oh, how poor the results would be, if we had only attained beauty of form without divine power. We have only made that a means to a nobler end, and we are grateful that we have many tokens that it is being attained.

HERE is a letter, and it is one of many such, which we would rather receive than gold or gems. It tells of how the Holy Dove is bringing Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to many a home of sorrow and sickness, and proving our Message to be from God.

421 CASS ST., JOLIET, ILL.
October 19th, 1894.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—Last Monday a copy of your LEAVES OF HEALING was brought to my home by a Christian lady, and since that time my wife has been healed of a chronic disease of five years standing in answer to our prayers. We praise the Lord, and are lifted into a higher plane of living.

Yours in Christ,
J. C. GARDINER.

HERE is yet another which we cannot forbear giving. It is from Peoria, Illinois, and says:

"I wrote you two weeks ago concerning my husband who was then very ill. The doctors said he was suffering from Consumption. My sister, Mrs. E. J. Rowley, of 6322 Champlain Ave., sent me some of your LEAVES OF HEALING, and two blank forms of request for prayer. I filled one of them at my husband's dictation and sent it to you. We read the LEAVES, and laid hold of the promises of God. To-day my husband is able to eat, sleep, and rest, and his cough has left him.

I know and tell every one that he has been healed through faith in Jesus, and we give God all the glory now, and evermore. Amen.

About a week after we wrote to you, a doctor friend from Chillicothe called, and as he had heard of my husband's hop-less case, he wished to examine him. He did, and said his lungs were all right, and that all he needed was good food.

We quit the medicine when we wrote to you the first time. With nothing but loving wishes for you and your's, we remain, your brother and sister in Christ,

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rowley, 607 Franklin St., Peoria, Ill.

THESE are some of the "olive leaves" our little messenger brings back, like Noah's dove, from the wide sea of human sorrow and sin across which we send it every week.

Truly "the waters are abating," and God is bringing back "times of refreshing" to many sorely stricken sufferers—is it not the harbinger of "showers of blessing" in every land?

SOME of the friends attending Zion Tabernacle subscribed in one evening for 2,000 copies of our last issue of LEAVES OF HEALING to be sent to the "boys in blue," in the Old Soldiers' Homes throughout the Northern States, and to the "boys in grey," too, who are found in similar institutions in the South.

We are glad that the "miracle of healing" which God wrought on James A. Nichols will be read by the old men who fought on both sides. Christ is willing to heal on both sides of what was once called Dixie's line; and we have been used to those who were once enemies, but who are now brothers in Christ, and loyal fellow-citizens.

MANY friends also subscribed to send many copies into Hospitals and Public Institutions of various kinds, and at the same time a number of annual subscriptions were given for Young Men's Christian Associations in many parts of the United States, Great Britain, Ireland, and the Continent of Europe.

Do some of our readers not remember where they can find the following dialogue?—

Jesus:—"Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves?"

A certain Lawyer:—"He that showed mercy on him."

Jesus:—"Go, and do thou likewise."

WE shall be glad to hear from friends who want to send the LEAVES to Hospitals, Asylums, Jails, Public Reading Rooms, Ministers, Missionaries, Theological Students, Young Men's and Women's Christian Associations, etc., etc. To all who order 50 copies of any of the LEAVES, we will supply them at two and a half cents per copy and will mail them to any address. We shall send the LEAVES for one year to any of the public men or institutions named at the special rate of $1.50 per annum. Now, who will say, "And who is my neighbor?"

AT even, as the sun is declining, on Lord's Day, Nov. 4th, the Lord's table will be spread in Zion Tabernacle for all His children, without respect to denominational distinctions.

The Ordinance of the Lord's Supper is not a "private little affair of our own." All who do truly repent of their sins, and who trust in Jesus Christ alone for salvation are heartily invited and will be heartily welcome. Some may be "weak in the faith," and they need the Ordinance most. We shall "receive" them, as the Apostle Paul commanded; "but not to doubtful disputation." Christ supped in Paradise with a thief who repented when suffering for his crimes. How many Churches, who say they are Christ's, would sup with ex-thieves at His table whose conversion was of so recent a date as that of the same morning? We know at least of one, and we are glad to know of it—it is the True Church everywhere which always imitates the acts of love her Lord wrought all the way from the stable in Bethlehem to the Cross of Calvary.

"Brethren, pray for us"

A QUESTION WHICH GOD CANNOT ANSWER.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Is there such a question? Can any enquiry of man be beyond the power of the infinitely wise God to answer?

Yes there is one, and, so far as I can see, only one, which even God cannot answer. It is this:—"How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?" (Heb. 2: 3) The Saviour cannot answer it: for He has said, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me." (John 14: 6).

It was a dark and cold winter evening, in a great city. Crowds of eager feet were passing over the street, and, "homeward-bound" the tired and weary toilers were returning from thousands of busy shops, warehouses, and factories. There were no lingerers: for the keen, cutting wind drove them onward to seek shelter. Amongst the multitudes, was a certain rich merchant, who had chosen to walk to his home that evening. Suddenly he stopped, as he heard a voice near him say, in a plaintive tone, which touched his heart, "There is none other name." He stepped aside, to the sheltered nook from whence the words came. There, in a doorway, he saw a blind man sitting, with a book in raised letters upon his knees, from which he was evidently reading. But his fingers were benumbed with the cold, and he had evidently lost the place: for he repeated the words, "None other name," over and over again, until he found the spot. The gentleman's curiosity was aroused, and he listened, as the blind man, going a few words further back, now read out in clear but tremulous tones, "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4: 12). "Ah, it is the Bible," said the merchant, as he resumed his walk. Yes, it was the Bible, the eternal truth of the eternal God, and it proved itself once more to be "the sword of the Spirit:" for it entered into his hard and worldly heart, and gave him no rest from that moment, night nor day, until he found rest and salvation in Christ. Kind reader, "There is none other Name," through which you can find salvation. No saint, however holy, can bring salvation: no works, however good or many, can purchase salvation: for only Jesus can save.

"One offer of salvation,
To all the world made known;
The only sure foundation
Is Christ, the Corner Stone."

"No other name is given,
No other way is known;
'Tis Jesus Christ the First and Last;
He saves, and He alone."

But reader, bethink thee, how shalt THOU escape, if thou dost neglect so great salvation?

REMEMBER HOW GREAT A WORK SALVATION IS. It took the power of the Highest to accomplish it; and when He cried, "It is finished," it was in the moment when, on the Cross, He poured out His life unto death, in His infinite love for thee and me. On a white marble tomb-stone over a soldier's grave, in a South American cemetery, these four words are chiseled: "He died for me." They are a memorial of gratitude, engraved there by the man for whom the soldier died as a substitute twenty years ago. May thy heart be a tablet on which thou dost engrave the name of "Jesus," who loved thee, who gave Himself for thee, who pleads for thee as thine Advocate above, and who now pleads by His Spirit with thy heart, wooing thee to yield to His boundless love and be forever saved. Oh, listen to His voice, as He once more stands knocking at thy heart's door.

"I should not plead with thee in vain;
Remember all My grief and pain;
I died to ransom thee from sin;
May I come in? may I come in?"

REMEMBER THAT DELAY IS ALWAYS DANGEROUS, AND OFTEN RUINOUS.

"Rabbi," said a young man to the famous and wise Rabbi Eliezer, "What time is soon enough for a man to repent of sin, turn to God, and be saved?" Looking earnestly upon him, the Rabbi replied, "One day before death," and went on his way. The next day, after an anxious, sleepless night of thought, the young man came to the good old man, and said—"But, Rabbi, how shall a man be sure which is the day before death?" "Therefore," rejoined the faithful teacher, "thou shouldst repent and seek God's mercy to-day." And so, kind reader, I beseech thee, do not delay, lest death overtake thee, and repentance come too late.

Twenty-three years ago, in Whitefield Chapel, Carrubber's Close, Edinburgh, I was earnestly urging instant decision for Christ upon a deeply impressed audience. Just in front of the platform, a woman's white and eagerly anxious face attracted my notice, and, as I pleaded, she wept, much to the annoyance of her husband at her side. I appealed, at the close of the service, to all the anxious, to remain to an after-meeting. I heard her say to her companion, "John, let me stay;" to which he angrily whispered, loud enough for me to hear, "Come away, Jessie woman, come away: dinna make me ashamed." A few nights later, I saw the same man again; but he was alone this time. He seemed very earnest, and remained to the after-meeting. Going up to him, I said, "Where is your wife to-night?" I will never forget the look of agony on that man's face, as he said with tears "Oh, sir, if I only was sure; she's dead—she's dead—and I am to blame, if her soul is in hell: for she died the very last night she was here, and I widna let her stop." Yes, where was her immortal spirit? I trust that He who sees the heart, saw that she loved Him, and that like the woman who bathed His feet with tears of repentance and faith, she too was forgiven. But, oh, what a memory for any man, that he barred his wife's pathway to the Saviour's feet. Reader, art thou not hindering some one dear to thee from being saved? Thou art ashamed of Christ, but thou art not ashamed to sin, and drive other souls into hell before thee. Oh, reader beware. How shalt thou escape, when the world in a day, like a cloud rolls away, and eternity opens to view? How shalt thou escape, if thou art amongst those who cry, "Mountains and rocks fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the Great Day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?" (Rev 6: 16, 17).

"Should the death angel knock at your chamber,
In the still watch of to-night,
Say will your spirit pass into darkness,
Or to the land of delight.

"Say, are you ready? oh, are you ready,
If the death-angel should call?
Say, are you ready, oh, are you ready?
Mercy stands waiting for all!

TRUE FAME.

"I have no desire that my name shall be enrolled amongst the famous of earth.

"Not myself, but the words that in life I have spoken,
"Not myself, but the deeds that in Christ I have done,
"Shall pass on to ages, all about me forgotten,
"Save the truth I have spoken, the things God hath done."

"I do not want any carved memorial. I want the memorial of all that I have done to be written where no hand can blot it out—written on the pages of the fadeless 'book of life.' When I get there and meet the great Jehovah I want to meet those gathered from the East and from the West, from the North and from the South, who shall be praising our God. I want to see that. God give me grace to see it."—From Our Second Year's Harvest.

DIVINE HEALING HOME.

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 16 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desirable that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishings of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's Assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the central group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred having been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor to go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

No. 10.

MISS MAY LOHMAN.

PARALYZED FROM THE HOUR OF HER BIRTH in her right leg and foot, this maid of nineteen years comes before the Church and the World, as a Witness for God.

In June, 1893, whilst thoughtless crowds hurried past Zion Tabernacle into and from the World's Fair, this young girl, day after day, for more than a month, was diligently seeking to know God's Way of Healing. She found Him: for Jesus is that Way; and now she stands with the proof of His Victory at her right hand, seeming to say "He is just the same to-day."

Her story has just been told in our presence and taken down by one of our stenographers in our private office, only a few minutes before we write these introductory lines. It will follow our words, and speaks for itself, and will continue to speak over all the earth until Jesus comes. It will bring glory to His Name. It will inspire Hope and Faith in the hearts of paralyzed sufferers in every land and every tongue. It will melt Christian hearts and flow out in streams of Love and Praise.

Broken-hearted mothers will look at the paralyzed limbs of their little babies and their sons and daughters, and then at this picture and this steel brace and high-soled boot.

They will stretch out their imploring hands, they will pour out their sorrow-laden hearts, and with streaming eyes they will look up into the face of our Immanuel; and He will hear and help. They will seek to learn His Way; and they will lay at His feet the fetters of iron and steel and brass in which they have bound their children to please the Moloch of Modern Surgery. And Jesus will prove His presence and power as the unchanging Healer of His people. Songs of loudest praise will ring from multitudes of hearts,

"Oh I'm glad, so glad, to tell you Christ is just the same to-day."

But demons will howl with rage, and they will cry, Fraud! Lie! Hypnotism! Conspiracy! Imagination! etc., etc., in all sorts of papers and places.

Critical devils will creep into the envious hearts and conceited heads of "religious" editors; and will cause them to sneer in excellent English and with sardonic wit. Then these foolish men will sit down to write "able articles" on "Miraculous Cures" and "the Cure of Faith," the sum total of which will be that we are impostors or fools, and the aim and purpose of which will be to cure their readers of the foolishness of faith in a living and unchangeable God. This is what the New York Independent has been endeavoring to accomplish in its leading columns of October 11th and November 1st in articles with these very headings. They will grow mad over the sight of that brace and boot, and will liken us, as they have done, to "the devils of Gadara's swine," because we dare to be God's instruments in such wonderful miracles of healing in Jesus' Name. They will prove their apostolical succession in direct spiritual lineage from Judas Iscariot, who sold his Lord for silver and betrayed Him with a kiss; they will prove their priestly office from Caiaphas, the high priest, who counselled the murder of Jesus; they will prove their right to the goodly fellowship of the scribes of whom Jesus said, "Ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them;" they will prove themselves to have inherited the skill of the lawyers of whom Jesus said, "Woe unto you! for ye have taken away the Key of Knowledge: ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered."

MISS MAY LOHMAN, 5936 Union Avenue, Chicago.

But, oh, brother editors, a word in your ear, "What will the harvest be from such sowing?" Let me tell you that unless you repent, you will reap it as they did long ago, "in the outer darkness, in weeping and wailing and gnashing of eth."

Another word, brother editors. You are too late. Divine healing has come once more to God's beautiful earth, and to His true Church; and, listen closely, it has come to stay. The Witnesses are rising up on every side, and soon they will be "an Exceeding Great Army." Awake! awake! ye dry independent bones! It is time ye got some flesh upon you, and that ye took your place in the Body of the Lord—your independence is your curse. We know it well, for we were born in "the Valley of Dry Bones," and but for the grace of God we would be lying there beside you still. Musty, fusty, fleshless bones are ye, living on memories of heroic fathers, whose Gospel ye have turned into a play upon words, denying the Power which made it mighty. Awake! awake! your garments are moth-eaten, and ye try in vain to feed yourselves and flocks on dishes compounded of dead men's brains, jingling rhymes, tawdry metaphors, and soap-bubble brilliancies. Awake! awake! come up out of the Valley, or you will rot away until all that is left of you is as the dust of a mummy. Awake! awake! ye shall mummify God's children no longer—your day is going, yea it is gone, for ye are like withered trees from which the sap of life has departed. Only the Eternal Spirit's breath can make such dry bones live.

But we have kept this little maid who has a message to God's Israel in the Valley of Weeping waiting too long. Her story will live when all the sneering criticisms it may excite are buried in an ocean of eternal oblivion.

That Carnival of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, properly enough called the World's Fair, was opening out into its blood-stained summer when God healed her.

Zion Tabernacle was situated within a few hundred feet of its central entrance gates. Buffalo Bill was booming along in front of us, on the south, with the yelling of Indians who tried to look savage, and with the cries of tamed Cossacks, etc., etc., ad nauseam. Stony Island, on the east, near at hand, was alive with thieves, harlots, fools, cheats, patent medicine vendors, gamblers, and police who protected them. Midway Plaisance, within two blocks of us on the north, with the filth of Cairo, and the vices of Egypt and the Orient generally, was breeding a moral pestilence deadly enough to destroy a nation.

The Illinois Central Railway, with the ceaseless roar of its traffic day and night was just west of us. And so we were surrounded.

But Zion Tabernacle floated its flag, "Christ is All," and opened its doors continually.

Comparatively few cared to enter, but, as in Bunyan's allegory, there were some who did, even in Vanity Fair. Towards the end there were many, and the foundations of the present work there were laid at the time the Fair closed in blood with the assassination of the Mayor; the work grew as the flimsy, white-plastered palaces went up in fire and smoke; and now that the last vestiges of the dream city are disappearing, Zion Tabernacle, the despised, is shining forth in the glory of God.

God has rewarded our work of faith and love. We sowed in tears; but we reap in joy, and this maiden's story is a sheaf which we lay at the Master's feet. We gathered it at the World's Fair Gates amidst the scenes we have described, and it will live long after the Dream City is a forgotten dream.

She gave her testimony publicly in the Central Music Hall, Chicago, on April 14th, last, before thousands of people, and it is reported fully in the Inter-Ocean of the following day, and in other Chicago dailies. Her father and uncle were on the platform, and confirmed her statements. She has also given her testimony frequently in Zion Tabernacle, and in various city Churches. The facts are indisputable, and no person dare challenge them.

Giving all the glory to the Eternal Triune God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, we now give the story as she told it on the day we write these lines.

TESTIMONY OF MISS MAY LOHMAN

5936 UNION AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

(GIVEN IN DR. DOWIE'S STUDY, NOV. 8TH, 1894, AND REPORTED BY HIS STENOGRAPHER.)

I am nineteen years of age and I was healed through faith in Jesus on the 30th day of June of last year, 1893. From my birth I had various sicknesses, and when I was able to walk it was found that my right leg was paralyzed from the knee down. Throughout the whole of my life until the day of my healing, I had no feeling in it whatever, and the leg was very much withered compared to the other. I had no feeling whatever in the leg even when a needle was put into it until it touched the bone, when I would feel a very slight sensation, but not any pain, because the doctors tried it and all I said was, "I feel it."

As I grew in years I was treated by many physicians. When I was a little baby I wore a brace on my leg and foot. My leg shrank up until it was an inch and a half shorter than the other. I was treated by many physicians in Addison, Ill., and in Chicago. On the 5th of June, 1890, my father, Mr. John Henry Lohman, now living in the Soldiers' Home at Milwaukee, took me to the Cook County Hospital, accompanied by a Mr. Fiene, of Lombard, Ill. There I was examined by Prof. Marcusson, who first examined my leg and foot and then operated upon me by cutting the main heel cord so as to let my foot down, and a plaster of Paris cast was immediately put upon my leg. The cast was changed once every week and I wore it for ten weeks. When these doctors were through with me at the hospital I went to Messrs. Sharp & Smith, 73 Randolph St., where a brace was made for me by the orders of Prof. Marcusson, and attached to a high-heel boot. I wore this, which is in my photograph, for three years, until the day of my healing. I suffered almost constantly from paralysis and had often to walk upon crutches even with the brace.

About a year after the operation I was taken by my father to see Dr. W. T. Gray, corner Lake St. and Lincoln Ave., the examining surgeon for the United States Pension Department, in order that my father might prove to the satisfaction of the government that I was permanently incapacitated by paralysis. Dr. Gray examined me in the presence of my father and he put a needle into my leg and I did not feel it until it reached the bone, and then without any sensation of pain. He showed my father and myself how deeply the needle was buried and I did not feel it until it touched the bone. He reported my condition to the authorities at Washington and it was the means of my father getting an increased pension. He measured it and said it was an inch and a half shorter and that I was permanently incapacitated. He did not give me any hope whatever of my ever getting the natural use of my leg. He said that the less I would use physicians and doctor with it the better it would be, and I would lose my foot entirely if I wouldn't use electricity and hot salt water to keep the blood in circulation. I tried the rubbing for a whole week every day, and the more I rubbed the worse it got, and I would rub the skin off and there would not be a single sign of blood. I got discouraged then and gave that up.

After that I did not see any more doctors and did not have any hope of ever getting the right use of my leg. I even feared that I would lose my foot, for in the winter it was just as cold as ice and I would have it wrapped up with flannels and cottons, and at night I could never have that limb touch the other one because it would wake me up, and it was just as cold as ice. My cousin, who slept with me, May Wellman, would also wake when the limb touched her, it was so deathly cold. I continued in this condition until I heard of the Divine Healing Mission, conducted by Dr. Dowie in Zion Tabernacle. I heard of it through Col. C. E. Wyman, of the Unity Building, Chicago, who told my father, who was one of his clients, that his son had been perfectly healed of consumption. Col. Wyman kindly drove out to see me and told me all about his son's healing, and I was encouraged by that to go over to the Tabernacle and attend Dr. Dowie's meetings. I attended the meetings four or five weeks before Dr. Dowie prayed with me, and on the day that he prayed with me, the 30th of June, 1893, I was accompanied by my cousin, Mrs. Andrew Blum, of 5932 Union Ave.

At this time and for some time previously I was living with my aunt, Mrs. Wellman, at 5936 Union Ave. She had attended Dr. Dowie's meetings, with her husband and family. On the day of my healing Dr. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie saw me in their private room at the rear of the Tabernacle. After a conversation Dr. Dowie laid his hands upon me and prayed in the name of the Lord. When he laid his hands upon my leg, as he moved them down towards my foot, I could feel the blood trickling into the veins quite distinctly, and when he had reached the toes of my foot I had perfect sensation. I found that I could move the toes immediately, and the heel at the joint, and I was able to stand at once upon my foot when he bade me to do so in the name of the Lord, and walked about the room without any support whatever. During prayer he pulled my leg, but so gently that I did not feel it, and my leg at once lengthened to an equality with my left leg, in fact, it was just a very little longer, and it so remains.

When I returned home on the evening of the day in which I was healed I had omitted to take any notice of the condition of my heel cord, which had never united from the time that Dr. Marcusson had cut it, my foot feeling as if it were separated from the leg at the heel, but that night, when going to bed, my aunt examined my leg and found that the cord was perfectly united. Up to that time she had been able to place two of her fingers between the severed ends. We all found upon examination that they were perfectly united, and they have remained so ever since. From that day I was able to walk about on boots of the same size and without any brace. About four or five days after my healing, I visited the World's Fair, which was then being held, and walked several miles about the grounds, and the same day visited my mother's grave at Maywood cemetery, walking in all about ten miles without any fatigue, and was able to go about the next day feeling strong.

I visited Dr. Gray several months after my healing in company with my father and Col. Wyman. Dr. Gray examined my leg and declared that it was now well, and measured it and expressed great astonishment at the fact that it was not only as long, but a slight shade longer than the other. Then he had me stand up, and then he saw that the limb was all flushed and red. Until then my father had not been in the room, and when he saw it was all red and flushed he called my father and he said, "That's more than anybody could prove. It is proving itself that it is healthy. As long as it has life there's no doubt of its being well." The doctor examined my ankle and expressed great surprise that the cord, which he had seen a year after it had been cut, when it was not united, was now perfectly united. Col. Wyman heard the doctor say these things. My father introduced Col. Wyman to Dr. Gray and the Colonel asked the doctor what he thought of it. He replied, "There is no doubt she's perfectly healed," and then Col. Wyman told him about how the healing had been wrought through faith in Jesus, telling the doctor about the healing of his son. Dr. Gray expressed his unbelief in God's having wrought the work, but said that I was healed, and he "wasn't at all jealous whether from God or the devil."

Since my healing I have been enabled to go about freely, and I frequently walk many miles. Last Thursday I walked from Elmhurst to Addison and back, fully four miles. And I was able to take a situation and work as chamber maid in Divine Healing Home No. 1 for nearly three months, taking the third floor and having to go up and down two flights of stairs many times in each day. During all that time I suffered no inconvenience, nor do I at this time, the healing being, so far as I can tell, absolutely perfect, and the leg has now grown to be nearly as large as the other.

INSTANTANEOUS HEALING OF DISEASED THIGH BONE NINETEEN MONTHS' STANDING.

ARTHUR FREDERICK GRAY, aged 18, of No. 9, Terminus Street, Sydney, was ill with a diseased thigh-bone about nineteen months, and was in three hospitals,—the Sydney Infirmary, Macquarie Street, the Little Bay Hospital, and the Prince Alfred Hospital; the last named for the longest period, being an inmate there for about three months. He was attended there by Dr. Goode and Dr. MacAlister. In this hospital he was subjected to a chloroform operation, and a tube was put through the diseased thigh, but he came out of the hospital worse than when he went in. He was attended at home by Dr. West and Dr. Boshman. About six or seven weeks before he was healed, Dr. West informed his parents that it would be necessary to take off the leg or it would poison his blood. He marked the place above the wound where it would have to be amputated. His mother replied, "No, Doctor, he came into the world with two legs, and he will go out with two."

On Monday, March 12th, 1888, he was very ill and suffering agonies of pain. He had heard of Mr. Dowie conducting a Divine Healing Mission in Sydney, and determined to go. He was assisted out of bed and dressed by his parents, and brought to the meeting in the tram. He was assisted from the tram to the Protestant Hall by his father on one side and a stick on the other. He sat through the meeting in great pain, and at the close of it he went and spoke to Mr. Dowie, who asked him if he had faith to believe that the Lord would heal him then. He replied in the affirmative, and Mr. Dowie took him into the vestry and prayed for him, and he was healed instantaneously and all pain left him. He came out of the vestry in about three minutes and walked rapidly round the Hall without the assistance of a stick, to the great joy of his parents and friends who had stayed behind after the meeting to pray for him, of whom I, Henry Weatherburn, of No. 10, Myrtle Street, Sydney, who wrote this testimony, was one.

We hereby testify that this testimony which has been written in our presence, and at our request, is every word correct.

LECTURE THREE.

THE GOSPEL OF DIVINE HEALING AND HOW I CAME TO PREACH IT.

An address Delivered at the Afternoon Service in Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, on Lord's Day, Aug. 12, 1894.

"And He began to say unto them, This day is the scripture fulfilled in your ears." (Luke 4: 14-32).

THE Gospel of Healing, and, incidentally, how I came to preach it, is my subject to-day. Of course, by far the most important part of that is not how I came to preach it; but what the gospel of healing is. Yet there are many who have asked us in many lands that I will tell something of how I came to preach this gospel, and I have felt that if the telling of that story would in any degree help others, I ought to tell it.

First of all,

WHAT IS THE GOSPEL OF HEALING?

It is not new or it would not be true. One of the most absurd charges against this ministry is that we are teaching some new thing. I marvel that the charge should be made by Christians or even professing Christian men. I marvel that any persons who profess to believe the Bible to be God's Word should so exhibit their ignorance as to say we are teaching something new when we are teaching Divine Healing. That Book covers 4,000 years of Divine Revelation, and from one end of it to the other teaches Divine Healing; and there is no other kind of healing that is spoken of with any favor whatever within its covers. The revelation of God to man began with the promise of salvation and healing. The first Covenant which God made with Israel was the Covenant of Salvation, followed three days later at the waters of Marah by the Covenant of Divine Healing which you will read in the 15th chapter of Exodus, 26th verse. God healed the bitter waters of Marah, and healed them in a remarkable manner. The people were dying under the hot, burning sun in the desert of Shur by the margin of the Red Sea, and having come to water found it undrinkable. It was brackish, probably, and it might have become poisonous by reason of being mingled with decayed vegetable or animal matter, and, therefore, in a condition that the word Marah represents. The people cried out Marah, Marah—"bitterness"—and thirsty though they were, having been without water for three days and three nights, they could not drink that utterly undrinkable and poisonous water. They "cried out against Moses," and Moses "cried unto the Lord," and the Lord showed him a tree, perhaps a poor stunted thing in that wilderness, and he cut it down and cast it into the waters at the Divine command. The waters were instantaneously made sweet, and there God gave them

THE COVENANT OF DIVINE HEALING

1490 years before Christ came in the flesh and said these words, (15 Exodus and 26 verse), "If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and will give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put (or permit to be put) none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought (or permitted to be brought) upon the Egyptians; for I am the Lord that healeth thee."

That was the covenant of God to his people three days after they were brought out of Egypt, and yet some will talk about Divine Healing being a new thing. The covenant of Divine Healing is 3380 years old. That is not a very new thing and all through the scriptures the same covenant continues. And the Covenant still abides. It did not belong only to the ancient dispensation: "for (as the Apostle Paul declares) all the promises of God in Jesus Christ are Yea, and in Him Amen, unto the glory of God by us." 2 Corinthians 1: 20. He who said "I am the Lord that healeth thee," and "I am the Lord, I change not," preached the Gospel of Salvation and Healing in the synagogue of Nazareth, and He "is the same yesterday, to-day and forever."

DOCTORS AND DRUGS NOT APPROVED OF BY GOD.

There is no other kind of healing spoken of with any commendation in God's Word. You may take the Bible and search it from Genesis to Revelation and you can not bring me a passage where it is written "If any of you is sick, let him call for a doctor."

Dr. Belfield publicly said at a dinner of the Sunset Club, that the doctors of Chicago were divided into three classes, "liars, damned liars and experts." This terrible statement was made by a doctor himself.

Job said "they are all physicians of no value;" and Matthew, Mark and Luke all said of the woman who touched the hem of Christ's garment, that she "had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

The things said in the Bible are like what Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes said before the Massachusetts Medical Society that "it would be all the better for mankind and all the worse for the fishes, if the whole materia medica could be sunk to the bottom of the sea." Sir James Johnson, formerly editor of the Medical Chirurgical Review, London, England, has also said:—"I declare, as my conscientious conviction, founded upon long observation and experience, that if there were not a single physician, surgeon, chemist, druggist or drug on the face of the earth, there would be less sickness and less mortality than now prevail."

And can any honest Christian man in the face of these declarations in God's Word, and by doctors themselves, still maintain that God intended medicines for man, and that it was his purpose to supersede Divine Healing by the pernicious so-called science of medicine?

Some persons seize upon that expression of our Lord in which he says, "They that are whole need not a physician but they that are sick." But it manifestly referred to Christ himself. He is the Good Physician, and in effect He says, "I come as the good physician to give repentance, salvation and healing." He is speaking of himself as the physician, and no other mode of healing is ever referred to by Him or by the apostles with commendation.

So now, first of all, the Gospel of Divine Healing is not new. It is old, and very old. It is true and very true; but it is not new.

DIVINE HEALING IS A DIVINE LAW.

Our Lord Jesus Christ when He came to this earth unfolded His own mission in a very systematic and orderly manner; and God is a God of infinite order and of precise order. A God of infinite love, and although

"There's a wideness in His mercy that is wider than the sea,
"There's a kindness in His justice which is more than liberty."

In the precision of God's law and in the absolute justice of God's law there is a kindness and a love which is the very essence of Divine mercy. I hesitate not to say that the attribute of God's love which makes Him just, and yet the justifier of the ungodly, through the sacrifice of His Son which makes Him just, and yet provides a way by which the banished may return, which maintains His justice and at the same time exalts His mercy, is the most glorious of all God's attributes—it is the attribute of Divine justice. It is love in its highest and noblest form; Love that elevates God to the point of infinite beauty and glory and power and majesty. His law magnifies itself, makes it honored and honorable: for "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; the statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is always clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired than gold, yea than much fine gold, sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover, by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward."

He that would make one man to think less of God's law has sinned against God. "Whosoever shall break one of the least of these commandments and shall teach men so," Christ himself said, "shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven, but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven." The law of the Lord is perfect; and I believe it from my heart.

Now this gospel of healing does not set aside any law of God. It is in perfect accord with the highest expression of Divine law, that "the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus" should "set us free from the law of sin and death," which is Satan's law.

It is in accord with the operation of a holy and just and perfect God, in accordance with His holy and perfect law. Divine Healing is the operation by the Spirit of Life through faith in Jesus in the destruction of sin and disease and death and hell, the destruction of the devil's law. There is nothing disorderly about the Law of Divine Healing. It is in perfect accordance with the law of God. It is the Law of God.

HOW CHRIST PREACHED IT.

When our Lord came here to this earth, the first recorded sermon that He preached is that which is before us in this fourth chapter of the gospel according to St. Luke. It was preached in the synagogue of Nazareth where He had been brought up.

Let me try to put before you that scene.

THINK OF HOW CHRIST APPEARED TO THESE NAZARENES.

You must remember that they knew little or nothing about his birth. He had not been born in Nazareth. He was brought up in Nazareth and probably brought up there from about His 10th or 11th year. He had been born in Bethlehem. His birth was to those around Him involved in total obscurity. Joseph of Nazareth had disappeared with his young wife from Bethlehem at the time of the "taxing" in the reign of Cæsar Augustus. Joseph with Mary his wife had gone down to Bethlehem at that time, and there he had disappeared. Probably for ten years or so they know nothing about him. Think of what had happened in these years. The holy, sinless child, Jesus Christ, had been born. The wise men of the East had worshipped at His feet, Herod had sought to destroy His life and Joseph, warned of God, by an angel in a dream, had taken the infant child and His mother from Bethlehem by night, had gone down into the deserts between Palestine and Egypt and was hidden in that land of mystery for ten years or thereabout, until Herod was dead. They did not go back to Bethlehem because there were so many that knew of the birth of Christ. The shepherds were there who had worshipped Him in the manger, and heard the angels sing the Advent Song. There were those who knew Simeon and Anna who had blessed Him. So he went around by Perea, not passing through Judea, and came away up the other side of the Jordan, and passing by Samaria and coming into Galilee at its north-east point had quietly gone up into Nazareth and there he had staid with Mary and their children. After this Joseph died and all that these Nazarene people knew about Jesus was that there was some mystery connected with His birth. Still He was greatly beloved: for He grew up in favor with God and man. At twelve years of age in the Temple He had asked wondrous questions and spoken wondrous things. He was obedient to all the requirements of the law of God. These Nazarenes did not understand the mystery of His incarnation and that He had no earthly father. Probably there was not much talk about things. Christ did not talk. He had that wonderful power that so few of us have; that wonderful self abnegation which can wait and is in no hurry to go forward until orders come. The patience to wait until the hour is struck for doing the thing, until the fullness of time has come. So many of us want to pluck the fruit before it is ripe; so many of us want to anticipate and have not the grace to wait God's time. Jesus waited through the long years with His mother Mary, with His brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas, and His three sisters, and as the head of that family, bore the responsibilities and cares of the widow and the fatherless. It was an obscure life, the life of a village carpenter making the simple little things required by these Nazarenes. He quietly attended the synagogue listening to these filthy hypocritical rabbis, and silently biding His time, until He was thirty years of age.

All these things have to be taken into account when you remember His first sermon.

THESE NAZARENES HEARD

That He had been suddenly proclaimed as the Christ at the Jordan by the mightiest prophet that had ever stood on the earth. John the Baptist, who had declared that He was the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world; and when He had come up out of the water after He was baptized the Spirit of God had descended upon Him like a dove and the voice of the Eternal Father came out of the heavens saying, "This is my Beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." Then Jesus again suddenly disappeared. He went down into the wilderness, and was tempted of Satan for forty days, and was with the wild beasts, in the solitudes of a desert valley that is more than 1000 feet below the level of the Mediterranean Sea. In that dark, strange country away down there in the vast, howling wilderness, He had met face to face that awful, mighty, malicious demon that had lead astray multitudes, Satan, the prince of hell. In that terrific conflict lasting forty days and forty nights He had come out Victor. Pale, calm, strong, conscious of all His divinity, the Son of God, resisting every temptation, He began to enter upon His ministry.

THERE HE STANDS IN THE SYNAGOGUE OF NAZARETH.

What a strange thing is His appearance. He is strangely altered. He is the same gentle, quiet man as before; but there is an atmosphere of divinity about Him. The Holy Ghost is in Him with immeasurable power. He has passed through the conflict, and has become a victor, and as He stands upon the earth He stands upon it as the Conqueror. Quietly He entered into the synagogue upon the Sabbath day and He did what He had never done until these days. He was now thirty years of age, and it was His right to open the word of God. Taking, from the servant who was attending, the scroll of the book of the prophet Isaiah, He read to them in that thrilling melodious voice which made even His enemies say, "Never man spake like this man." The words he read were: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

CHRIST'S FIRST SERMON.

And there he closed the roll. He did not read the last words "and the day of vengeance of our God," but He said "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears." This was as much as to say, "I am the Saviour, the Healer, the Cleanser and the Keeper of Humanity; I am the Wonderful, the Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." They were amazed to hear Him. Then there was a voice in that synagogue that said "Is He the Christ? Do we not know that he is the son of old Joe the village carpenter? Are not his brothers and sisters here with us, and this fellow says he's the Christ." Some said "Well if you are the Christ, let's see some miracles." Christ looked at them and he said "You want me to perform miracles. You have not any faith. No mighty miracles can be wrought here."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"BELOVED, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth"—The greeting of the apostle John to Gaius, and of the editor to his readers.

LIFE without spiritual and physical health is a mere existence scarcely worth the living. Sometimes it is an intolerable burden. The genial spirit of the aged "disciple whom Jesus loved" desired material prosperity and bodily health for his well-beloved Gaius, and John was then probably over ninety years old. He had lived over half a century from the time of the re-ascension of His Lord, and he knew that poverty and sickness were not helpful to the Christian's usefulness. Gaius would be able to help "brethren and strangers on their journey" all the better if he had money and health.

IT is a mere affectation of a spurious piety to say that grinding poverty and painful sickness are God's appointed ways of developing spiritual life. Such pretences are often mere hypocrisy, and Christians endeavour to school themselves into believing false teachings on that subject. Oh, for more Johns and more Gaiuses—the large-hearted apostolic guide, and the fervent servant of the servants of God and of "strangers."

The Lord increase their number everywhere and give them money and health to do His work.

HERE is a pleasing letter which has just come into our hands whilst writing these editorial notes:

BELVIDERE, ILL., Nov. 7th, 1894.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

DEAR BROTHER: I studied for the ministry but was unable to preach on account of ill health. I not only lost my health, but spent a fortune in trying to regain it. I never heard of your work till late this spring and have since been studying the Bible to know the mind of the Spirit concerning Divine Healing. About four weeks since I was fully convinced that it is for all who would accept it. I then threw away my crutches and all medicines, and have continued to gain ever since. My study for the past few weeks has been a continual funeral service for the dogmatics learned in the best theological seminaries in this country.

Your paper has been a great source of pleasure and strength to me, and many in this place are being blessed and helped by your teaching. Those fortunate enough to attend your home have been wonderfully healed.

I would like to spend a few weeks in your Home to complete my theological course before going out to preach a whole gospel.

I should have to earn my board while there, and if you have any use for me, even for sawing wood, I would be glad to accept it. Your Brother in Christ,

H. W. F.

Remember me in your prayers.

Now, brother Gaius, or whatever your modern name may be—please help us to pray for this young brother, who has been engaged in such a happy series of "funeral services" for the absurd "dogmatics" which kept him so long in a state of poverty and sickness. Don't you hear "well beloved" the merry tune which this dear young minister is beating with his crutches on the coffin containing these rheumatics and dogmatics which he is burying, without hope or desire for their resurrection? And then, brother Gaius, can you not help him on his journey to the Divine Healing Home in Chicago, and give him the few weeks he covets "to complete his theological course" in Zion Tabernacle? Gaius, my brother, won't you hurry up and help him. Send it to us, and he shall be here in short order. But, Gaius, do it quickly.

AND writing of the Divine Healing Homes reminds us that we want once again "to sound the loud timbrel o'er Egypt's dark sea." Praise the Lord with us.

God has enabled us to secure two large, handsome white stone and pressed brick houses at 6034 and 6036 Edgerton Avenue; and we are busy connecting them together and furnishing them throughout, for DIVINE HEALING HOME, No. 3.

THE New Home is within three doors of Home No. 1 where we reside, and is a little nearer Zion Tabernacle. It will make a most delightful winter residence, and stands in a considerable open space, with many windows to the south and east, overlooking Jackson Park. We could not have wished a better place for the accommodation of God's sick children, who are flocking here from all parts of the country.

SATAN does not love Divine Healing Homes, and that fact gives us joy. He has tried to prevent our securing Home No. 3; but he has been badly beaten, almost as badly as the Democratic hosts last Tuesday.

HOMES No. 1 and 2 are filled to overflowing; and we have many applicants from various parts of Canada, as well as the States, who are waiting for the opening of Home No. 3, before coming to the city. We are looking to God to justify this onward step, for which we have assumed, in Jesus Name, the entire responsibility—financial and otherwise. We have no fears; for it is undertaken in faith, and is a labor of love. But thousands of dollars are required. Pray for us.

WE may inform our friends that Home No. 2 is being thoroughly heated for winter use, and that we shall receive there a limited number of transient guests after Home No. 3 is opened—say in about a week. We have many friends who desire to attend the Lord's Day services, and who wish accommodation from Saturday to Monday. Home No. 2, is next door to Zion Tabernacle, and is very suitable for this purpose. In the other Homes we do not receive guests for a shorter period than one week.

IT will be observed that the office of Mr. D. C. Alton, our financial secretary, who has the entire charge of all arrangements for the location of guests in either of the three Homes, is now removed to Home No. 3, 6034 Edgerton Avenue. Personal and written applications should be made to him, and to him alone. Circulars will soon be ready describing the new arrangements, and, meanwhile, our friends who wish to enter either of the Homes must kindly communicate with him as to terms and conditions. It is usually best to do this by letter before coming to Chicago.

WE have placed Zion Publishing House under the management of the Rev. S. J. Harrison, and we desire all business correspondence and monies connected with LEAVES OF HEALING to be sent to him. Let all Money Orders, Checks and Drafts be made payable to John Alex. Dowie.

ZION TABERNACLE has been the scene, since our last issue, of great manifestations of Divine Power, and has been, especially on the Lord's Days, far too small to accommodate the earnest throngs.

Within the past two weeks more than two thousand persons have responded to God's Call to Repentance; and we have prayed for healing with about the same number. Many have been instantaneously healed in the presence of scores in the Healing Room. It would take a large volume to record even one week's work in detail. We cannot find words to praise the Lord as we desire. We can only say, "The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad."

THE Divine Healing Homes have been the scenes of much blessing, and at our various special gatherings for prayer in Home No. 1 especially. On Monday week evening, seven were healed during prayer by the laying on of our hands.

A young lady from Belvidere, Ill., had her leg instantly lengthened in the presence of all, and returned to her home the next day. The following paragraph in "The Daily Northwestern," of Oct. 31st refers to that, and to another previous case. It is good to see some secular papers are courageous enough to record the works of the Lord. They bring blessing, thereby, to themselves and to their readers.

Of course "the Rev. Dr. Dowie" did not heal, although God graciously wrought the work through his agency. The report reads thus:—

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE.

MISS FANNIE YALE INSTANTLY HEALED BY REV. DR. DOWIE.

Last night information was received that Miss Fannie Yale, who went to Chicago some days ago and placed herself under the treatment of Rev. Dr. Dowie, had been cured of an infirmity of many years' standing. Miss Yale, from some misfortune, the nature of which the NORTHWESTERN is not advised, has suffered from the painful and embarrassing deformity of having a short limb, and the consequent necessity of wearing a high-heeled and thick-soled shoe to preserve a natural walk or position while standing. The information given is to the effect that Miss Yale was instantly healed and at once put on an ordinary shoe and to all appearances is as well and perfect in foot and limb as any other person.

This is the second cure that has been performed by Dr. Dowie, that seems indeed miraculous, upon residents of our city. Mrs. Giles a few weeks ago had her sight restored, and now comes the undoubted evidence of the healing of Miss Yale.

Dr. Dowie claims nothing for himself; it's faith cure, pure and simple—the results are indeed marvelous, and the cures effected are almost beyond belief.

A NUMBER of ministers and doctors have been, and some are now, guests in our Homes. Some of these have returned to their homes, two in Ohio, rejoicing. We hope to give many of their testimonies ere long.

AND then the earnest Christian doctors keep on saying good things of us, and are writing most appreciatively of LEAVES OF HEALING, and are pushing our literature with great zeal. We praise God for these doctors, and have good hope that they will yet be all doctors of divinity in the best sense, even if we have to establish Zion College in order to qualify them for the degree.

AMONGST our valued doctor correspondents is an eminent brother in Boston, Mass., (ex-president of a great medical Society) who is well and widely known in the Eastern States. Sending to our Publishing House an order for $10 worth of LEAVES and other literature, he also writes the following highly appreciated words of cheer:

178 COMMONWEALTH AVE.,

BOSTON, MASS., NOV. 4th, 1894.

MY DEAR BROTHER DOWIE:—

I want to thank you most heartily and cordially for your article, "The Man of Sin Revealed." It is most timely.

It is very sad to me to see so many who look for the Lord's coming, holding and teaching so much about a future personal Antichrist, and neglecting and almost denying the proper interpretation of the great prophecies concerning the Harlot.

All this just suits the wicked Man of Sin, and the Jesuits, with whom the "futurist" teaching originated. I want to express too my most loving fellowship with you and your work, and great satisfaction with the whole tone and trend of your teaching in the LEAVES OF HEALING.

I enclose some subscriptions for the same etc., with check. May the Lord most abundantly bless, sustain and use you and your dear wife, is my prayer in the Lord Jesus.

JAMES B. BELL.

AND still they come!

We had just finished the above note, and touched our bell for our secretary, to have it sent over to our printers who were hungrily waiting for "copy." The first words he said, after he received his instructions, were, "Dr. C—of G—, Ohio, has just come into the Home accompanied by his wife and mother."

Oh, it is joy to see the doctors fling their medicines and surgical knives into the fire which is burning up the Modern Moloch of Medicine and Surgery. The monstrous image is doomed, and all the liquid vegetable and mineral poisons its priests have brewed cannot save it from its well deserved doom.

Down with the Allopathic-Homeopathic-Hydropathic-Psychopathic-Electropathic-Patent Medicine-Pill-pimpled-Disease breeding-Death producing JUGGERNAUT! Down with Juggernaut!

Up with Jesus! Lift Him up, oh, Church of the Living God, and He will draw all men unto Him! Lift Him up, as the Healer of His people, ye ministers of His that do His pleasure! Lift Him up, as Moses lifted up the Brazen Serpent in the wilderness; and bid the dying serpent-bitten, disease-stricken look to Him in faith and they shall live!

Up with Jesus; and down with Juggernaut!

We are late with this issue, largely because we have been delayed in getting "power" into Zion Publishing House: for our new, heavy engine had been put by the builders on an unstable foundation, and we could not use it. But we are getting foundations strongly laid in Zion, and all will be well soon.

We are issuing this as No. 9, on even date, omitting dates of Oct. 26th, and Nov. 2nd. But our subscribers, God willing, will get their full year's paper.

"BRETHREN, pray for us."

A WONDERFUL STORY.

The Restoration to Sight of a Little Boy who had been Born Blind.

DR. DOWIE said: "Here is the little boy" (presenting to the audience, a bright, intelligent little fellow, whose opened eyes were looking around in every direction with keen interest upon the meeting). He is a fatherless little boy. Is it not written of our God, "He is the father of the fatherless?" This little fellow attended the meetings; he was blind. Dr. Barcon said he was blind from birth. I did not know he was here; he sat and listened to the word and received it. The good doctor had operated upon his eyes three years ago; he had done the best he could; he is a kind man and had taken a great deal of interest in the lad. The little fellow listened earnestly to the teaching, and heard me say to the people,

YOU MUST BE SAVED FIRST.

Then he told us that he heard us say in the after meeting, "Those who want to find salvation, stand up!" He said, "What does it mean, mother?" And she said, "As near as I can tell you, Georgie, it means that you are to give yourself wholly to Christ." He said, "That is just what I will do." And he did it.

So the next day he came into the meeting rejoicing in Christ. It was July the 4th, your great fireworks day; my attention had been drawn to him, and I promised to see him that afternoon. When he came into the Healing-Room with his mother (who is now present) we said after prayer, "Now, Georgie, are you sure that you are saved?"

"Yes, sir," he replied, "I am."

"When were you saved?"

"Yesterday," he said.

"How were you saved?"

"Well," he said, "I had been trying to trust Jesus all my life, and yesterday I did it, sir."

"Well, that is all right. Now do you expect Jesus to give you sight?"

He said, "I am sure he will, sir."

I laid my hands upon him and we prayed. When he opened his eyes, the little boy who had been blind from birth could see. Here is the result: the boy is now looking upon you with the power to see. Let me read the written testimony that his mother has placed in my hands to be read to this meeting, and she will afterwards herself rise and confirm the words:—

"My little boy Georgie was afflicted from birth with blindness. Three years ago an operation was performed by Dr. Barcon of this city. The boy was able to distinguish day from night, and sometimes bright colors, red and blue. For ten years he has been unable to walk, until now, without being led by the hand, when outside the house. He never saw an object, so far as we know, during these ten years, not a single object to know what it was. Jesus has now, through Mr. Dowie's agency, restored his sight almost entirely; he can now walk alone, see houses, chimneys, and small objects very readily. He can also see print of large size, and it is read by him; something I never expected to see him do. My little boy is bright and happy now, and gives God all the glory. Praise his name forever."

"I was also," adds the writer, Mrs. Lula Ritchville, of 1241 Mission Street, San Francisco, "instantly cured of internal hemorrhage of some weeks' standing without any laying on of hands, at the first meeting I attended."

This letter having been read, we turned to the boy and said:—

"Now, Georgie, let us see you." (The boy was sitting on the platform behind us, and rose and came forward). "What have you got to tell the people, dear?"

"I don't know, sir."

"Were you blind?"

"Yes, sir, I was blind."

"Can you see?"

"I can see very good."

"Who gave you sight?"

"Jesus."

"Well, now I do not know how to talk to the boy," continued Mr. Dowie, "he is only beginning to understand objects. Come now, when do you say it was you got your sight?"

"July the 4th, sir."

(This is Independence Day in America, and fireworks in the public streets and everywhere are continually going off).

"Did you see the fireworks?"

"Yes, sir."

"Were they very beautiful?"

"Yes, sir." (Spoken very emphatically).

Mr. Dowie said: "His mother told me that evening that he said to her, 'Don't you think, mother, God will forgive me if I do not go down to the meeting to-night; I do want to see these fireworks; they do look beautiful.'"

We showed him in the presence of the audience our watch, which he was able to distinguish at a distance, telling the people which side was turned to him, the open face or the back. We took a bouquet of flowers from the hands of one in the audience and asked him to point out the various colors; he described their colors without hesitation, distinguishing each color, and even shades of color. We showed him a little pair of peculiarly constructed folding nail scissors, which we use, which he at once recognized, and other objects, amongst which were coins, of which he told us the value. The last one that we held up was a silver dollar, and we said, "If you guess right you shall have it." He did so, and got it. We told the people also of how on the afternoon of that day in our rooms at the Palace Hotel we sent him upon a voyage of discovery, and how he went to every part of the rooms, and looked at unfamiliar objects, and made very remarkable observations concerning them. Amongst these was a certain round cylindrical black object, and he said, "Oh, ain't that a funny box." I told him to lift the box and put it on his head. He did so and found it was my silk hat, which completely covered his face.

Mrs. Ritchville, the mother of the boy, then gave personal testimony. She said: "He was about a year old when I discovered he was totally blind, although the doctors all said he was born blind. He has been very busy learning the names of things, and is learning by feeling and sight together; he feels and sees and then distinguishes objects, and after he has seen an article he knows what it is. He has to learn to see.

"When I was coming here tonight on the horse cars, it was the first time he ever saw a horse. He amused the ladies and gentlemen in the car talking about it. He said, 'Mamma, the horse's tail is made of hair, I thought it was like a dog's tail. And look, mamma, he has a moustache on his head.'"

At this point the people laughed almost until they cried, and we closed that testimony, saying that it had often amused us to note the peculiar observations of those who had just received their sight. For instance, I had asked Georgie to say what the color of my hair was on the top of my head, and he said, "You have none, you are bald." We believe Elisha was bald-headed, and so we are, at least in that particular, like one of the prophets. We have sometimes been mocked for this baldness; but we have never found it to be an infirmity. Those who reproved the ancient prophet at Bethel (2 Kings 2: 23, 24) found that mocking a man of God was a serious matter; and there are still 'she-bears' about, and 'he-bears' also for that matter.—American First Fruits pp. 10-12.

"O GIVE thanks unto the Lord; call upon His name: make known His deeds among the people. Sing unto Him, sing psalms unto Him; talk ye of all His wondrous works. Glory ye in His holy name: let the hearts of them rejoice that seek the Lord."

"WHAT THEN?" A QUESTION FOR ALL MEN,

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE

AN eminent and wise Christian philosopher named De-Neri, lived in the city of Rome during the sixteenth century, and to him many young men who desired to study at that ancient seat of learning, used to come for advice and direction.

On one occasion, a student came to the venerable man, and laid before him his plans.

De-Neri said, "Well suppose you succeed in your studies, and have finished with honor your course—what then?" The young man replied, with eager interest, how he was determined by industry and good conduct, to endeavor to attain some position of usefulness in the land.

And "What then?" was still the question of the philosopher. Again the ambitious youth replied, setting forth the possibilities of high renown and honor, which might be his, if he were able and wise now. And "What then?" Oh, then, he would live to a green old age, and in, perhaps, a well earned retirement and ease, spend the rest of his life amid the respect and love of a devoted family and kind friends. And "What then?" still repeated Philip De-Neri.

After a long pause the young man solemnly replied, "And then, I suppose, I must die."

And "What then?" rang out the yet more solemn question. But to this there was no reply.

Then kindly, tenderly, and firmly the good old man reviewed the young man's eager, and, if kept in a subordinate place, not unwise aims and methods of attaining man's favor, and a good earthly inheritance; but he also showed how he was providing for things which only "might be," since he could not assure himself of either health, wealth or life itself, whilst he was neglecting to provide for death and judgment beyond, which things "must be."

The story carries its own application to thee, oh reader, if thou wilt but ponder the question "What then?" It reminds thee of that "judgment seat of Christ," where "we shall all stand," and, "every one shall receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

Let me entreat thee now, therefore, to look at what thou art doing in thy body. There is nothing hid that shall not be known.

How will thy secret thoughts, as well as thy doings, appear in the day when thy sins must stand revealed in all their vileness before the presence of the Lord, unless thou dost now forsake them, confess them, and by His mercy get rid of them forever? "What then?" will it matter that thou didst receive the applause of men, if thy life will not bring thee aught but shame and condemnation before thy God, who has blessed thee so richly, and loved thee so tenderly?

If thou wilt be wise, thou shalt say to thyself, that it is not for thee to say, "Is this to my gain or pleasure now?" but thou shalt look at the things of To-day, as they shall appear in the light of Eternity.

"I see one thing that you need, Sire, in your beautiful estate," said a wise man to a powerful prince, as he was shown all its beauties by its proud possessor, "and in every room of your palace, in your gardens, and every part of your vast domain, the want of that one thing oppresses me, and causes me to pity you." Said the monarch, "And what may that be?" feeling surprised and vexed as he spoke. But he was silent as the reply came in one word—"Permanence!" Yet, even were earthly things permanent, they could never satisfy the eternal spirit in man.

"This world can never give,
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die."

How anxious men are to insure their dying bodies, which is so absurdly styled "life assurance;" how anxious to build houses, by the aid of "permanent (!) building and land investment societies," or other means; and, yet, their soul's safety is not only unheeded but scorned, and a "house above" in the sinless land is a beautiful myth reserved for Sundays and Church Services, which, on the chance of its reality, they imagine they secure by some paltry subscriptions, which they are pleased to call "giving to the Lord"—a giving akin to that which supplies a beggar at the back kitchen door, with the scraps of a sumptuous dinner. What an unutterable sham is all this insulting hypocrisy which passes for "religion" and Christianity so commonly to-day. Be thou true, true in treading beneath thy feet each deed of shame: for—

"All these must first be trampled down
Beneath our feet, if we would gain,
In the bright fields of fair renown,
The right of eminent domain."

Young men, to you, I especially appeal. As when He raised from the dead the widowed mother's only son at Nain long ago, so to-day Christ says to each of you who are dead in trespasses and sins—"Young man, I say to thee, arise!" Bethink you of the harvest time when thou shalt reap in corruption what thou art now sowing to the flesh. 'Tis said that the infatuated Mark Antony dissolved pearls in the wine-cup of the voluptuous and infamous queen of Egypt, Cleopatra. Be not thou a worse fool than he. Do not dissolve the priceless pearls of thy future peace and present safety in the cup of pleasure. Thou mayest now arise and follow Christ in a life of joyous, self-denying love—a life of faith in the Son of God—which ten thousand voices on earth proclaim is a life of perfect liberty; and the redeemed host above re-echo in a nobler strain our songs here, as they chant the pæan of glorious and endless victory. But, if thou wilt not choose this better part—WHAT THEN?

"After the joys of earth,
After its songs of mirth,
After its hours of light,
After its dreams so bright,—
What then?
Only an empty name,
Only a weary frame,
Only an aching heart,
Only a conscience smart.

"After that empty name,
After that weary frame,
After that aching heart,
After that conscience smart,—
What then?
Only a sad farewell,
To a world loved too well;
Only a silent bed
With the forgotten dead.

"After that sad farewell
To a world loved too well;
After that silent bed,
With the forgotten dead,—
What then?"

Yes, "What then? Oh then, thou shalt stand self condemned before the judgment seat of Him whose gifts thou hast used to His dishonor and thy disgrace. Unfitted for purity and true happiness, how canst thou hope to enter a heaven of bliss? Whither, ah miserable spirit, canst thou then flee? Shalt thou depart into the darkness from God's presence then, or wilt thou enter into "the inheritance of the saints in light?"

There is yet time, and "now is the accepted time" for thee to seek thy Father's mercy seat; so shalt thou not fear when thou standest before Christ's judgment seat, in that day when every man shall see the face of the Saviour whom he has either rejected or accepted.

THE DRAMA. HEATHEN, ANTI-CHRISTIAN, IMMORAL.

From Two Lectures on THE DRAMA, THE PRESS AND THE PULPIT, delivered by THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, in the Victoria Theatre, Sydney, N. S. W., on Lord's Days, March 16th and 23rd, 1879.

THE subject of our Lecture has been announced publicly as "the Drama, the Press, and the Pulpit." But, as I am in the habit constantly of taking for all that I utter here some word of God as a direction, a motto, or an exhortation, I shall take to-night, with your permission, three passages of Scripture, and direct your attention to them as containing the basis of our thought.

The first of these is in the 15th chapter of the gospel according to St. John and the 11th verse, where Jesus speaking to His disciples says, "these things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." Then that passage where Paul, in his grand argument respecting the kingdom of God, speaks of it in this wise, in the 14th chapter of the epistle to the Romans and the 17th verse, "For the Kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." Then, as the last passage, let us take that in one of the beautiful epistles of the loving apostle John, in the 3rd chapter and 8th verse, wherein he sets forth the purposes of the manifestation of Christ, the Eternal Word, in the flesh, in these words, "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (made manifest in the light, made to stand out of the darkness, literally) that he might destroy the works of the devil."

These three passages shall be our apology for all that we have to say, and ere we enter upon the subject proper, let me say something about that which rings through them all, that divine word "Joy"—"Joy." "I am come that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." "The kingdom of God is . . . righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." And, in order that that joy might reign, the very purpose for which the Redeemer came is manifestly set forth in those words where the Apostle says, that He was made to stand out in the light, in order that He might destroy the works of darkness, "that He might destroy the works of the devil."

THE WORLD'S FOUNDATIONS WERE LAID IN GLADNESS, and all the orchestra of the heavens pealed forth the Oratorio of Creation. In that which is probably the oldest book ever written under the inspiration of God, perhaps the very oldest piece of literature extant in the world, (I mean the book of Job) this great scene is most beautifully expressed when the poet, listening to God's voice, hears Him say, that when "the foundations of the earth" were laid, "the morning stars sang together, and all the Sons of God shouted for joy." And, when in due time man appeared in this beautiful world which God had prepared for him, with such wondrous skill, and such inimitable patience—if we dare use any such word as that respecting God—he was welcomed by all Creation. "Day unto day uttered speech to him" that he could understand. Everything rejoiced, as nature owned its Lord. And since then, though man has fallen, though man, who was made to rejoice, has learned how to lament, yet let me tell thee that no song of sadness ever was inspired from heaven. That kind of music is unknown to heaven. The sadness of earth has no place in the joyful songs above. Sin has caused the sorrow, which cannot enter where sin is not, therefore it is that Love has always been, throughout the ages, pointing the way to joy.

Hence the prophetic songs all speak of the Messiah as bringing "joy and gladness, thanksgiving and the voice of melody" to earth again, and causing "sorrow and mourning," forevermore to "flee away." And He could only do that by bringing the righteousness that man had lost, and the peace that he had forfeited; for without righteousness and peace there can be no joy. When, therefore, He appeared, "joy-bells" rang in heaven, and resounded on earth over that Bethlehem plain. It was joy that woke the sleeping shepherds to hear the strain of the heavenly host. And, when He re-ascended, canst thou not think that Heaven rejoiced to see its Lord again, and dost thou not know that there He is, among the angels of God, rejoicing? Know that there is joy in the presence of the angels (for Christ rejoices, and that makes heaven glad) over one sinner returning home again.

Joy! Is there a note of sadness in true Christian thought? Though Paul and Silas are in the deepest, darkest dungeon at Philippi, yet they must sing. They cannot help it. Their backs may be smarting from the lash, but they sing praises that shake the prison, shake it until God comes and delivers them from it. And throughout the whole word of God (understand that, ye who perhaps have thought otherwise) "joy" from beginning to end is the song, until at last thou dost hear Hallelujah Chorus beside that great sea, the Boundless Ocean of Eternal Love. And there the ransomed hosts lift their voices, and heaven and earth conspire to sing "Hallelujah! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! For the kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever."

Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun;
When He spake, and it was done

Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when He Captive led captivity.

Heaven and earth must pass away;
Songs of praise shall crown that day;
God shall make new heavens and earth;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

From creation until restoration,
EVERY ACT IN THE GREAT DRAMA OF THE WORLD'S STORY IS USHERED IN WITH SONG.

Understand, therefore, to-night that, whatever I may speak, I have no other thought than this,—not to diminish one single joy which thou possessest, but to increase it; not to take one note of gladness from thy life; but, that God would set thy heart to a nobler, diviner music, leading to higher thought and yet more beautiful expression in the life which thou hast yet to live on earth. But let us not mingle in the cup of joy (and that is the thought to-night which causes me chiefly to speak on this matter) the poison of lust. Let righteousness and peace be wedded together, and let joy be the off-spring of a righteous life, and of a heart at peace with God. Then shall we have that which will make every engagement pure, we shall have clear eyes to discern between the good and the evil, and no uncertain power to express ourselves regarding both.

Now, to the Church of the Living God, to the Church of Christ the Lord, is given the great mission of spreading the joyful tidings of salvation throughout the world. I do not mean that Church written upon any human rolls; not that Church called by the name of any man, however holy or successful a minister of the Lord Jesus he may have been; not that Church which arrogates to be the whole, when it is only a section; not any Church that places the name of a Christian ordinance or of a form of Church government above its doors. And yet, I do not exempt any of these, so far as their members are united to Christ the Head. I mean that Church which God has the rule of, which is registered in heaven with unerring accuracy, and is known on earth by its devotion, not to creeds, not to names, not to men, but its devotion to God.

and its following in the footsteps of Christ. To that Church is given the great mission to go out into all the world and preach a gospel that shall come straight into antagonism with the darkness, that shall, in the name of the Lord of Hosts, marshal all its forces, and, storming the fortresses of darkness, shall destroy them, and let the captives go free.

There is another host on the other side, of which I can not help speaking to-night; for that is the host with which we are in conflict when we touch such questions as these. It is the host of evil doers. At their head stands "the world," with all its fashion and vanity; "the flesh," with all its enticements; and "the devil," commander-in-chief of all the forces of evil, who, with every means that he can devise, and every power that he can employ, leads on his battalions with deadly intent to destroy man, and to thwart the purposes of God.

"It marches to the drum-beat roll,
The deep-mouthed clarion's bray,
And bears upon a crimson scroll,—
Our mission is to slay."

We shall make no mistake about it, though it come in all the voluptuousness of the army of beautiful harlots who accompany Dionysus or Bacchus, the god of drunkenness, in his efforts to extend his sway throughout the earth. We shall make no mistake about it, please God, though it come in all the pomp of those who are crowned with wealth, and are bowing down basely at Pluto's shrine. We shall make no mistake about it, though it come with joyous song in the train of that passion mis-named Love, which is but another name for lust as the word is now employed on earth. This host, wherever and however employed, in apparent amusement or in deadly earnest, ever hates all that is good, and is but one host, with one aim. Many in number, different in attire, but one banner is above it, and on that flag is inscribed, "Our mission is to slay."

But on the other side, wending along through the ages, sometimes apparently reduced to but a few, but ever victorious, with "Faith in God" in every heart, I see another host, of which I have already spoken, and in which I believe that many here to-night are true soldiers. That army, clad in the panoply of God, sings as it fights,—

"Along our ranks no sabres shine,
No blood-red pennons wave,
Our banners bear one single line,—
Our mission is to save."

To save! To save! At whatever cost to save our fellow-men from the awful miseries of bondage to sin, from the malice of the powers of hell, and to tear from their eyes the veil of darkness which hinders them from seeing the light of "the gospel of the glory of God." Yes! That is the mission of those whom God has sent into the world to extend the kingdom that is righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost, and by the power of that Spirit to destroy the works of the devil.

On March 5th, 1879 at the Annual Meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Sydney, the following expressions were attributed to Mr. J. in a speech which he had been requested to deliver upon "The temptations of large cities," the correctness of which report he has never questioned. These were the words:—"He confessed he had a sympathy with the views of the Bishop of Melbourne with regard to Theatres. If such plays as those of Sophocles and Euripides, or such plays as some of the earlier English Dramatists could be produced without the accessories there were, then, we as Christians could give in our adhesion to theatres."

This was indeed confident language as to the purity of the ancient drama; but it was completely eclipsed by yet more confident assertions, made after his views on the drama generally had been boldly and ably challenged by the Bishop of Sydney, a few days later at the Annual Meeting of the N. S. W. Auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society—one of the grandest of Christian enterprises, let me say, in passing. Mr. J. in replying to Dr. Barker's criticisms on that occasion, said that he would take an early opportunity of setting his views on the drama more fully and carefully before the public than he had yet been able to do. This he did on Sunday evening last, in a lecture which is fully reported in the Herald of Tuesday, March 18th, and which should, therefore, have been in every part well considered. No one, consequently, can blame me for dealing with it as containing his settled conclusions with reference to the question as to what the Ancient Drama really was.

In this then, his third deliverance on the subject, he said:—"The tragedies of Æschylus and Sophocles contain high moral and religious teaching. They represented men as they ought to be, not as they were. But the theatrical assemblies of the ancient Greeks were no more satisfied than theatrical audiences of modern Englishmen with ideal pictures of a noble life."

Here then are definite issues, and, if these assertions can be proved, we have only to revive the ancient Drama to find a theater to which "we as Christians could give in our adhesion."

The claims here made for the plays of Euripides, Sophocles, and Æschylus are three—

- 1.—"They contain high moral and religious teaching."
- 2.—"They represented men as they ought to be, not as they were."

3.—"They contain the "ideal pictures of a noble life."

Each and all of these claims I declare to be wholly unwarranted, and will prove that these plays are of precisely opposite a character—that they are grossly immoral, that they are utterly irreligious because of their degrading polytheism, that they represent the greatest men as blind tools of fate, are most horribly polluted by awful crimes, and present ideal pictures of as ignoble lives as the human mind can conceive. Apart from the display of poetic skill and elegance of composition in these dramas, they are utterly without redeeming qualities, except it be for here and there a noble thought, which has alone preserved them from utter extinction long ago—such thoughts, however, being far better expressed in the yet older and nobler, because infallible, writings which have been inspired by God.

I shall now, in proof of my assertions, refer to some of the principal plays of these three writers, sorry as I am to do so, for I can scarcely but refer to crimes and scenes of a most repulsive nature. The responsibility must rest with him who renders such a course necessary. I shall go as little as possible into details, which would alone take hours to set before you.

Let us first refer to the works of Euripides, the later of the three tragic writers mentioned by Mr. J. in terms of such unbounded admiration. He was born 480 years before Christ, and died about 406 B. C. He lived contemporaneously with Sophocles, and about half a century later than Æschylus. Without doubt he employed elegant Greek, and a high style of composition, in his works—qualities which only increased their degrading power: for vulgar vice in all its degrading loathsomeness is not so dangerous as when it is elegantly attired in robes of a misapplied genius.

Aristotle, in his "Poetics" (46) when criticising Euripides, distinctly charges it upon him, that in his works "men are represented not as they ought to be, but as they are," which is precisely the reverse of Mr. J.'s dictum. I wonder who knew best, Aristotle who lived about 30 years later than Euripides, and who had probably all his works before him when he wrote, or Mr. J., who lived over 2,300 years later, and who, it is a charity to suppose, has never read them? It does not seem to be known to Euripides' modern admirer, that even among the ancients, most of his writings were held to be demoralizing, with the single exception perhaps of the Alcestis.

DO THYSELF NO HARM.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

MANY hundreds of years ago, in Philippi, an ancient city of Greece, there was a great earthquake at midnight.

At this time two Christians, named Paul and Silas, were confined in the city prison, their sole offence being, that they followed their Master, in teaching truth and doing good. The earthquake was God's answer to their midnight prayers and praises. The prison foundations were shaken, every door was opened, every prisoner's fetters were broken, and the keeper of the prison in despair drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners had escaped. But, with a loud voice, Paul cried—"Do thyself no harm: for we are all here." The jailer heeded the cry, and it not only saved him from a violent death by his own hand, but led to the salvation of his eternal spirit.—(Acts 16: 16-34).

Should these lines be read by one whose life seems so burdened with care, and so hopeless, that thou art tempted, in despair to destroy thyself, then, in God's name, I cry to thee, "DO THYSELF NO HARM." How darest thou to rush unbidden before God's judgment seat, a self-murderer? God has never abandoned thee or thou wouldst not now be alive. He loves thee still, and His tender mercies are over thee. Oh, turn to Him thou self-banished one, and, like the prodigal of whom Jesus spake, thou wilt find a warm welcome home. Man may scorn thee; thy Saviour will in no wise cast thee out.

But Paul's words have wider application. Self-destruction is not always a sudden taking away of life. It is more often a gradual, life-long suicide, not only of the body, but of the soul and spirit. Men are destroying themselves, alas, in many ways. I can only mention some of these.

DO NOT HARM THYSELF BY EVIL ASSOCIATIONS. Thou hast a choice of roads, and a choice of companions. Hear God's voice—"My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." (Proverbs 1: 10). They will say, "A man ought to see life." Very true, but their way is not life, it is the path of death. "Life," with them means shameless scenes of degrading vice and folly. They will further say, "Oh, but a man will not know what's what, unless he sees these things." 'Tis false. Thou needest not to stir up cess-pits to know that filth is noxious, much less needest thou to wallow in the mire of sin to know its abominations. They only consult to cast thee down, to tear the crown of manhood from thy brow, and to destroy thee. Shun evil companions, both in business and in social life, if thou wishest to be safe. "Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away." (Proverbs 4: 14-15). Men's evil courses are more often the result of their first bad associations, than of their inclinations. "If thou wouldst not wreck thy life, beware of evil associates," is a cry which comes from haunts of shame, from dreary prisons, from the murderer's gallows, from dying beds, and from the countless silent graves whose epitaph is, "A WASTED LIFE."

DO NOT HARM THYSELF BY EVIL READING. The world is full of a poisonous literature, more dangerous than if broods of deadly vipers were let loose in every home. "Evil communications corrupt." These words are divine and true. Evil words pollute the springs of life; they defile the mind and heart. "Can a man take fire into his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?"—(Proverbs 6: 27). Verily no. Neither can one take mental putrefaction into the mind, and not be corrupted. The unclean novel, with its filthy, sensual passion, miscalled "love," is leaving behind the maggots of lust to feed on the hearts of thousands of our young men and fair women. Generations yet unborn shall mourn the sins of those who are now destroying themselves through the intoxication of evil passions, produced by unclean reading. There are good books in abundance, which can lead thee into the palaces and treasures of God's truth, and make thee wise and good. Why then, when thou canst gather honey from a thousand flowers, wilt thou extract poison from the deadly poppies of fiction and impure suggestion, which will do thee incurable harm?

DO NOT HARM THYSELF BY EVIL SENSUAL INDULGENCE. Of the "enemies of the cross of Christ," it is said, "their God is their belly."—(Philippians 3: 19). Surely that is the basest of gods. Yet, it is the most universally worshipped god in this city to-day. Satan is driving countless souls to destruction by enslaving their five senses, and setting up that god for them to serve—aye, and entralling mind and spirit too in the same service. One of the noblest men who ever lived, wrote,—"I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection."—(2 Corinthians, 9: 27). Do this, and God shall aid thee. Make thy body and spirit alike subject to God. One of the most wide-spread indulgences of to-day is the inordinate vanity shown in personal adornment, and it is a fruitful source of social misery.

"What ardour do they show,
Who deck the sensual slave of sin;
Yet leave the free-born soul within
In weeds of woe."

"Oh, foolish race,
'Tis God can clothe the soul with light,
And make the glorious spirit bright,
With heavenly grace."

DO NOT HARM THYSELF BY DRINKING THE INTOXICATING CUP. This evil is one of the most widespread and fatal of all our ills. "Where am I?" cried a miserable man, not long ago. He was told that he was in a prison cell. "And why am I here?" he enquired. Poor man, he knew not that when mad with drink he had stabbed a comrade to the heart, and when he was told, he fell down with the awful cry of horror and despair, "Am I a murderer?" Yes, these drinks dethrone thy reason, and thou knowest not what may follow. "Wine is a mocker." "At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."—(Proverbs 23: 32). If thou wilt yield to their power, strong drinks will destroy thy brain, burden thy heart, empty thy pocket, disgrace thy name, ruin thy home, curse thy children, steal away thy friends, drive thee into every sin, kill thy body, and damn thy spirit.

DO NOT HARM THYSELF BY LIVING ONLY FOR THIS WORLD. The great tempter offers to give to every young man a flashing jewelled sword, as he enters upon the active duties of life. He praises its power and recounts its victories. What is its name? On one side of the blade are the words, I will be rich, and on the other, The love of money. But what will it do for me? "It will make thee rich and great," the tempter replies. Oh, thou original liar, it never made any rich, but has pierced millions "through with many sorrows, and drowned men in sin and perdition!" A wealthy and yet poor man was dictating his will upon his dying bed. His little daughter was there, and, when he willed away his house and estate, she said, "Father, have you any home in the land where you are going?" As in a moment he saw what a fool he had been. He had squandered his life, and was going out homeless into the darkness. Christ once wrote an epitaph in two words over such a man's grave—"THOU FOOL."

DO NOT THEN HARM THYSELF BY LONGER REJECTING THY SAVIOUR'S MERCY. It is full, it is free, it is open to thee. Pardon, comfort, strength, and peace await thee. "All power in heaven and earth," is wielded by Jesus. He is able to keep thee from falling.

"Return, O wanderer, return,
Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live:
Go to His mercy seat and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive."

"O SING unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth. Sing unto the Lord, bless His name; shew forth his salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the heathen, His wonders among all people."

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 144 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore drive and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desired that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurbished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishing of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the center group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred have been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend to all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

“WHENCE CAMEST THOU? AND WHITHER WILT THOU GO?”

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX; DOWIE.

THESE are the questions of the “angel of the Lord.” They were first addressed to Hagar, when He found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, on the borders of Egypt, into which country she was fleeing from her home, which was with Abraham in the Promised Land. Her heart was hot with anger, and yet filled with regret; she proudly resented what she deemed were injuries too grievous to be borne, and yet she could not but sorrow to return amongst the heathen who knew not Jehovah. Advised by God himself, then, speaking kindly to her in angelic form, she returned home again to friends reconciled—a home which she should never have left.

And now to-day, “the angel of the Lord” addresses these questions, kind reader, to thee—“Whence camest thou? and whither goest thou?” They are of deepest importance to thee.

Where does the loving Shepherd find thee to-day? Art thou a weary sheep far astray in the wilderness; or art thou found to-day safely and joyfully on the King’s highway of holiness, where all the paths are peace and pleasantness?

Wherever you are, remember, I beseech you, whence you came. You came from God. He is “the Father of spirits,” and we are all “His offspring.” Alas, many who have sold their birth-right, have forgotten their noble birth. But God never forgets, and in asking the first of these questions to-day, He reminds thee that thou art still His child, and the object of His tenderest love.

Like the prodigal of whom Jesus spake, let the remembrance of thy Father’s home lead thee to return and seek His mercy, if thou art far away in the wilderness, vainly trying to feed thy deathless soul on the world’s empty husks, amid the swinish filth of brutal sinful passions. “Come to thyself,” as he did, and then obey the loving voice which points thee to the Way by which thou mayest “go to thy Father,” which way is Jesus, and thou shalt, almost before thou knowest, find thyself, as he did, in the embrace of an infinitely compassionate God, and the Heavens will resound with joyful music, because thou hast come home again. Let no one deceive thee as to whence thou hast come. Cleave firmly ever to the truth that thou art the offspring of God, not of blind chance; that thou hast a Home for thy spirit, even when heart and flesh fail, and art not a mere material atom which returns to its kindred atoms.

But “whither wilt thou go?”

Thou art going onward in the path which thou hast chosen. No blind Fate, no cruel Necessity compels thee to walk in the path in which thy spirit is going; for thy Will alone appoints thy path. Look well, I beseech thee, at the path into which that will has driven thee. Thou hast a choice of roads. There are but two. They are both through the wilderness of this life, and conduct thee to widely different gates, at death, into the life beyond.

Thou mayest know these paths by many infallible marks.

First, THEY COMPANIONS in the road shew thee where thou art. Their conversation, their objects, and their desires will be very plain to thee, if thou art honest to thy soul; and thou canst not mistake as to whether they are seeking the treasures of Egypt, or treasures in the Heavens—thou shalt know where their hearts are, when thou hearest them tell thee where their treasure lies.

Then THEIR END will often show thee on what path they travelled: for death makes plain to every eye the realities or the shams on which they set their hearts. The faithless, at death, are full of fear: for they leave all their heart’s treasure behind them, whilst those who have trod the path of faith in God, see their end approach with rapture, as they behold their treasures above, shining in all the dazzling glory of God’s eternal light and love. The worldling says with Cæsar Borgia—“Alas, I have prepared for everything except death; and now that at last I have to die, I am entirely unprepared.” The Christian shouts a song of victory over the grave, and a welcome to stingless death, with the great Christian hero, Paul, or, as Bunyan beautifully expresses it in his Pilgrim’s Progress, he says with Mr. Standfast—“I see myself now at the end of my journey, my toilsome days are ended. I am going now to see that head which was crowned with thorns, and that face that was spit upon for me. I have formerly lived by hearsay and faith; but now I shall go where I shall live by sight, and shall be with him in whose company I delight myself. I have loved to hear my Lord spoken of; and, wherever I have seen the print of His shoe in the earth, there have I coveted to set my foot too. His name has been to me a civet-box; yea, sweeter than all perfumes. His voice has been to me most sweet; and his countenance I have more desired than they that have most desired the light of the sun. His word did I use to gather for my food, and for antidotes against my faintings. He has held me, and has kept me from my iniquities; yea, my steps have been strengthened in His way.” And then, whilst thus in discourse, his countenance changes, the strong man bows under, the last words are spoken, “Take me, for I come to Thee,” and he ceases to be seen any more below. “But,” as Bunyan adds in his affecting allegory, “glorious was it to see how the open region was filled with horses and chariots, with trumpeters and pipers, with singers and players on stringed instruments, to welcome the pilgrims as they went up, and followed one another in at the beautiful gate of the city.” And canst thou not add with the author,—“which when I had seen, I wished myself among them?”

Then where art thou going? Art thou going on the broad road of sin and destruction, away out into the darkness, self-banished from thy God and Saviour? Or, art thou going Home where thy Father waits to bid thee welcome.

I met a man, some years ago, who was in deep distress, both of body and spirit. He wept bitterly as he said,—“Oh, sir, ’tis not my being hungry and friendless that most troubles me, sore though that trouble is. It is, sir, that I am dying and I have no hope beyond. My father, my mother, and my only sister are all dead, and they knew where they were going to. But I am dying, and oh, I do not know where I am going.” ’Twas sad to see his grief over a wasted life; but glad was I to point the way to God.

Now, reader, let me lovingly entreat thee not to neglect the questions which thy Lord addresses to thee even now—“Whence camest thou? and Whither wilt thou go? And set forth this day to return to thy Father, under his loving leadership who now waits to receive thy sinful soul, that he may cleanse it and renew it by His Spirit of Love, and prepare thee for ‘the inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled.’” Then, as thou journeyest, thou shalt sing in thy heart, with thy heaven-bound companions:—

“We’re going home, no more to roam,
No more to sin and sorrow;
No more to wear the brow of care—
We’re going home to-morrow.”

“For weary feet awaits a street
Of wondrous pave and golden;
For hearts that ache the angels wake
The Story sweet and olden.”

“Oh, joyful song! oh, ransomed throng!
Where sin no more shall sever;
Our King to see, and, oh, to be
With Him at home for ever!”

“BLESS the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name.”

LECTURE THREE.

THE GOSPEL OF DIVINE HEALING AND HOW I CAME TO PREACH IT.

There were many lepers in the days of Elisha but there was not a single Israelite who had faith for healing. The only one that could be healed was Naaman the Syrian. In the days of Elijah there were many widows and there was but one unto whom the prophet was sent, and that was a widow of Sarepta a Canaanite who was about to make a little cake for her dying son out of her last bit of meal and the last drop of oil. Elijah came to her and said "I need that for I am starving and I say to you as Jehovah God lives the barrel of meal shall not waste nor the cruse of oil fail;" and she did as she was told. There was not a widow in Israel who would dare to do that. That widow did that and she never wanted." Then they began to get angry. That was for when you tell people the truth, as Jesus told it, then they begin to get angry.

HOW IT WAS RECEIVED

I told some folks here the other day that the man who filled himself up with tobacco was a dirty stinkpot and there was one man who said, "When you first told me that, Doctor, I felt like punching your head," and then he said, "The next thing was that I said to myself, 'Don't be a fool, the Doctor is right, I am a stinkpot and I am a dirty stinkpot at that.'" But he said "The first impulse was to punch your head: for there was my best girl sitting along side of me and she looked at me, and I said, 'What do you think of that?' and she said, 'What do you John?' Don't you think he was right?" He said "I could not smoke any more after that. I knew you were right." So it was with the Nazarenes. Their first impulse was to go for Christ, and they went for Him. They were stirred up and said. "We will put an end to your Messianic pretences. We are going to throw you down from the precipice and throw stones upon you and kill you and stone you to death. That was what they intended to do with the Christ, and Jesus simply passed through and went down to Capernaum. His first sermon had like to have been His last. No one yet ever preached this gospel in all its fullness but what the world wanted his life's blood. I have heard the bullet whiz by my ear, I have left my room just five minutes before dynamite has blown up the floor on which I had been sitting and smashed everything to pieces.

THIS WAS THE GOSPEL

Christ declared in the synagogue at Nazareth, that He came not only for the purpose of saving, but of healing. All through His ministry He set forth His two-fold purpose. He came to this earth not only to save men from sin, but from the consequences of sin, of which disease is one. He came to destroy the works of the devil, of which disease is one. He went about doing good and healing all the oppressed of the devil, and declared He had come for that purpose.

When He sent out the twelve apostles He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out and to heal diseases. He said to them "Preach the gospel, heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out the devils; freely ye have received, freely give."

When he sent out the seventy He gave them precisely the same commission, with the exception of raising the dead, and He told them to heal the sick. When He sent forth His gospel, in the closing moments of His earthly life He sent forth the same gospel. When his apostles preached that gospel at Pentecost, it was the gospel of salvation which that day saved three thousand people. A few days later God healed through them the lame man at the beautiful gate of the temple and that man who had never walked, over forty years of age, was instantly healed. That same day five thousand men were saved: for it is written in the fourth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, 4th verse: "Many of them which heard the word believed: and the number of the men was about five thousand."

So they went on preaching the gospel, and the Acts of the Apostles is full of Divine Healing. There were many healings immediately after the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing was opened at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple in Jerusalem, especially through the ministry of the Apostle Peter: "Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed, every one." And not only through the ministry of the apostles, but through the ministry of Stephen, one of the seven deacons, for it is written: "And Stephen, full of faith and power did great wonders and miracles among the people." Many also were healed through the ministry of the Apostle Paul and some of the manifestations of Divine power through that holy apostle were of the most remarkable character, as in Acts 19: 11, 12, where it is written: "And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them and the evil spirits went out of them." Demons also in that city were cast out, and it is added: "And many that believed came, and confessed and showed their deeds. Many of them also that used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed." And the very last chapter of the Acts of the Apostles gives a marvelous account: First, of the deliverance of Paul himself when stung by a viper; Second, of the healing of the father of Publius, the chief man in the island; and then it is added: "When this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed," indicating practically the conversion of the whole island, known by the modern name of Malta, to the gospel. But alas for the professed people of God, the Acts of the Apostles closes with the stern rebuke of the Apostle Paul to the Jews who came to listen to him, but who did not believe. Paul said: "Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, saying, Go unto this people, and say, hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see and not perceive; for the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it." Alas, alas, that this spirit should be so continuously repeating itself in the church that to-day we are compelled to look in the faces of professed Christian ministers and say similar words, for many of them will not "hear it." Throughout the whole of the apostolic period these signs continued, and far into the 4th century, until Christianity became corrupted by association with state-craft and heathenism, and the last book of the Bible, the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which He gave unto St. John, closes with the beautiful revelation of the "tree of life, the leaves of which are for the healing of the nations" and with the blessing from the Alpha and Omega: "Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have the right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city." These facts therefore prove my assertion that the Gospel of Healing is set forth in the scriptures and that unless God has given a new revelation there is no other healing but Divine Healing approved by God. It is not, therefore, we who have made an innovation, it is not we that are preaching another gospel, but our adversaries who falsely so charge us are those who are teaching another gospel, the gospel of pills and squills, and vegetable and mineral poisons, and surgeons knives and plasters and other abominations at the bidding of the Moloch of modern medicine and surgery, a very Juggernaut, beneath the wheels of which humanity casts itself and permits gangs of medical students and doctors to crush them beneath the car of this horrid idol which they are dragging through the world behind them. The brethren who maintain another kind of healing are simply preaching allegiance to this horrid monster. This gospel of healing, the gospel of healing as set forth in the scriptures, teaches first of all that disease is the work of the devil, and second, that healing is the work of God, for Christ came to "destroy the works of the devil," and in that way do the work and will of God. Has he changed? Is Jesus Christ the same yesterday, to-day and forever? If He is the same, He is the Cleanser, He is the Keeper of His people, and if He is not the same, then the Bible is a lie and we have no Christ and no Redeemer. The assertion is sometimes made that the gifts of healing have been taken away, but the gospel of healing as set forth in the scriptures denies this allegation of an apostate church. We do not take our religion from the church; we take our religion from God and from His word. The church has been in error thousands of times. In this land it has taught within the memory of living men from thousands of pulpits that slavery was a divine institution and that the black man or woman was made to be the slave of the white man who had the right to sell him as he would a cow, and to sell even their own children by black mothers, and the selling of their own flesh and blood was maintained by ministers from many pulpits as in accordance with the word of God. It was the church that led the Confederate states and invoked the blessing of God upon the devil's work, and ministers laid aside their pulpits and took up the sword to fight for a diabolical lie; and it was not only the church south, but the church north, for living men have told me that they were driven out of fellowship and office in northern churches because of their praying for the abolition of slavery. This is an illustration of how far the church may err, for I do not suppose there is one man; north or south, to-day, who would pray for the foundation of a state, the corner-stone of which was to be slavery. The church has often been wrong. When Martin Luther protested against the iniquity of the pope in selling indulgences to sin, he was reproving the church for its apostasy, and doing the work of God when he trampled upon the confessional box and the indulgence box, and denied the right of a corrupt priesthood to forgive sins or to give permission to sin. The Church of England solemnly cursed from many of its pulpits, the apostolic John Wesley, George Whitfield, Rowland Hill, and the same church imprisoned John Bunyan, whose immortal allegory of the Christian Pilgrim's Progress has been the joy and delight of millions who have been helped by it on their way heavenward. We dare not listen to the church when it teaches something that is not contained in the Bible, and that is manifestly opposed to the Bible. We dare not listen to the church when it teaches that Christ has changed, that God has repented of His gifts and that the gospel has been emasculated, and that instead of Divine Healing we have to go back to Juggernaut and Moloch. It is not what the church says nor what the pope says, but it is what God says, and the religion of a true man of God can only be found in the word of God. To those who say the gifts of healing have passed away we reply: prove it. Prove it from the Bible and prove it from the history of the church. We will undertake anywhere and at any time to prove the contrary. There are nine gifts of the Spirit and you may read of these in 1 Cor. 12. The word of wisdom; the word of knowledge; faith; gifts of healings; workings of miracles; prophecy; discernings of spirits; tongues; and interpretation of tongues; and the scripture declares: "All these worketh that one and the self-same spirit, dividing to every man severally as He will." The 11th chapter of the Epistle to the Romans and the 29th verse declares that "the gifts and calling of God are without repentance." How dare any one then say that God has repented of His gifts. Is not the Holy Ghost in whom all these gifts are found, still in the church? When was He, or when were they, taken away? The burden of proof that the gifts of healing have been removed lies upon the persons who declare that they were taken away. It is a wicked and blasphemous statement that they have been taken away, when God says that they have been given without repentance. The words in the original mean apart from any possibility of change of mind. John Wesley declared that the gifts were in the church. Martin Luther declared that they were in the church; great and good men have declared that they were in the church, and the church has departed from the teachings of its great leaders, even in comparatively modern times, as well as from the word of God. I declare the church, and I declare the minister who denies the perpetuity of God's gifts, to be apostate, and to be most displeasing to God. We are standing by the old time religion and believe that the word of God is true, that every word of God is pure, and that that word liveth and abideth forever. We shall not enter further upon this subject to-day, because we shall deal with the whole question very minutely and fully in the lecture on the "Two Chains" and also on the "Gifts of Healings; a present day reality." This is only the third lecture in a series of thirty. But now we must turn from the Gospel of Healing and what it is, to set forth something of the way in which I came to preach it.

[Dr. Dowie then at considerable length gave the story of his conversion when a child and his own personal experience in being directly healed in answer to prayer thirty years ago. After outlining the way in which God had led him in his ministry he said:]

I will now tell you the story of the incident which led me into this ministry of healing and which

COMPELLED ME TO PREACH THE GOSPEL OF DIVINE HEALING.

Jesus Christ is the same to-day as when He trod the Holy Land, blessing the fainting, scattered, burdened sheep of God with words of life. And still He journeys over all the earth and never wearies of His loving task. He binds up still the broken, bleeding hearts, He still delivers from the tyrant's fetters, and from Himself, the Fountain, healing virtue still is flowing. With outstretched hands He stands, quick to respond to thine appeal and banish all thy woe. Unseen, but "with us always," as He said, He stands beside thy bed of weary pain. Loved ones bend over thee, and minister with sympathetic care; but nearer than all beside is Jesus, thy Saviour and thy Healer still. The Hand that cleansed the foulness of the leper's flesh and made it sweet and clean; the Hand that made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, the lame to leap, the dumb to speak; the Hand which raised the dead to life is here, no vanished Christ have we. Oh, wherefore doubt, and wherefore seek at other hands, from surgeon's knife or poison draught, the healing which He died to bring to thee, to me, to all mankind, in every age, in every land, in every clime? Christ changes never.

At noontide, eighteen years ago, I sat in my study in the parsonage of the Congregational Church, at Newton, a suburb of the beautiful city of Sydney, Australia. My heart was very heavy, for I had been visiting the sick and dying beds of more than thirty of my flock, and I had cast the dust to its kindred dust into more than forty graves within a few weeks. Where, oh where was He who used to heal His suffering children? No prayer for healing seemed to reach His ear, and yet I knew

His hand had not been shortened. Still it did not save from death even those for whom there was so much in life to live for God and others. Strong men, fathers, good citizens, and more than all, true, faithful Christians sickened with a putrid fever, suffered nameless agonies, passed into delirium, sometimes with convulsions, and then died. And oh, what aching voids were left in many a widowed orphaned heart. Then there were many homes where, one by one, the little children, the youths and the maidens were stricken, and, after hard struggling with the foul disease, they too, lay cold and dead. It seemed sometimes as if I could almost hear the triumphant mockery of fiends ringing in my ear whilst I spoke to the bereaved ones the words of Christian hope and consolation. Disease, the foul offspring of its father, Satan, and its mother, Sin, was defiling and destroying the earthly temples of God's children, and there was no deliverer.

And there I sat with sorrow bowed head for my afflicted people, until the bitter tears came to relieve my burning heart. Then I prayed for some message, and oh, how I longed to hear some words from Him who wept and sorrowed for the suffering long ago, the Man of Sorrows and of Sympathies. And then the words of the Holy Ghost inspired in Acts 10: 38 stood before me all radiant with light, revealing Satan as the defiler and Christ as the Healer. My tears were wiped away, my heart was strong, I saw the way of healing, and the door thereto was opened wide, and so I said, "God help me now to preach that word to all the dying round, and tell them how 'tis Satan still defiles, and Jesus still delivers, for 'He is just the same to-day.'

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers who said, "Oh, come at once, Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of a dying maiden. There she lay groaning, grinding her clenched teeth in the agony of the conflict with the destroyer, the white froth, mingled with her blood, oozing from her pain-distorted mouth. I looked at her and then my anger burned. "Oh," I thought, "for some sharp sword of heavenly temper keen to slay this cruel foe who is strangling that lovely maiden like an invisible serpent, tightening his deadly coils for a final victory."

In a strange way it came to pass; I found the sword I needed was in my hands, and in my hand I hold it still, and never will I lay it down. The doctor, a good Christian man, was quietly walking up and down the room, sharing the mother's pain and grief. Presently he stood at my side and said, "Sir, are not God's way mysterious?" Instantly the sword was flashing in my hand,—the Spirit's Sword, the Word of God. "God's way!" I said, pointing to the scene of conflict, "how dare you, Dr. K——, call that God's way of bringing His children home from earth to Heaven? No, sir, that is the devil's work, and it is time we call on Him who came to 'destroy the work of the devil,' to slay that deadly foul destroyer, and to save the child. Can you pray, Doctor, can you pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick?" At once, offended at my words, my friend was changed, and saying, "You are too much excited, sir, 'tis best to say God's will be done," he left the room. Excited! The word was quite inadequate, for I was almost frenzied with Divinely imparted anger and hatred of that foul destroyer, disease, which was doing Satan's will. "It is not so," I exclaimed, "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's works, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them." Oh, how the word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazereth went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him." And was not God with me? and was not Jesus there and all His promise true? I felt that it was even so, and turning to the mother I inquired, "Why did you send for me?" To which she answered, "Do pray, oh pray for her that God may raise her up." And so we prayed. What did I say? It may be that I cannot now recall the words without mistake, but words are in themselves of small importance. The prayer of faith may be a voiceless prayer, a simple heartfelt look of confidence into the face of Christ. At such a moment words are few, but they mean much, for God is looking at the heart. Still, I can remember much of that prayer unto this day, and asking God to aid I will endeavor to recall it. I cried:

"Our Father, help! and Holy Spirit teach me how to pray. Plead Thou for us, oh, Jesus, Saviour, Healer, Friend, our Advocate with God the Father. Hear and heal Eternal One! From all disease and death deliver this sweet child of Thine. I rest upon The word. We claim the promise now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord that healeth thee.' Then heal her now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord, I change not.' Unchanging God, then prove Thyself the Healer now. The word is true, 'These signs shall follow them that believe in My Name, they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.' And I believe, and I lay hands in Jesus' name on her, and claim this promise now. Thy word is true, 'the prayer of faith shall save the sick.' Trusting in Thee alone, I cry, oh, save her now, for Jesus' sake, Amen!"

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that the mother said in a low whisper, "Is she dead?" "No," I answered in a whisper lower still, "Mary will live, the fever has gone. She is perfectly well and sleeping as an infant sleeps." Smoothing the long dark hair from her now peaceful brow, and feeling the steady pulsation of her heart and cool, moist hands, I saw that Christ had heard and that once more, as long ago in Peter's house, "He touched her and the fever left her." Turning to the nurse I said, "Get me at once, please, a cup of cocoa and several slices of bread and butter." Beside the sleeping maid we sat quietly and almost silently until the nurse returned, and then I bent over her and snapping my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she woke, smiled and said, "Oh, sir, when did you come? I have slept so long;" then stretching out her arms to meet her mother's embrace, she said, "Mother, I feel so well." "And hungry too?" I said, pouring some of the cocoa in a saucer and offering it to her when cooled by my breath. "Yes hungry too," she answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone. In a few minutes she fell asleep, breathing easily and softly. Quietly thanking God we left her bed and went to the next room where her brother and sister also lay sick of the same fever. With these two we also prayed, and they were healed. The following day all three were well and in a week or so they brought to me a little letter and a little gift of gold, two sleeve links with my monogram, which I wore for many years. As I went away from the home where Christ as the Healer had been victorious, I could not but have somewhat in my heart of the triumphant song that rang through Heaven, and yet I was not a little amazed at my own strange doings, and still more at my discovery that

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And this is the story of how I came to preach the Gospel of Healing through Faith in Jesus.

That very day I went to the cemetery and laid in the grave the bodies of three who had died two days before, but I rejoice to add that in the more than twelve years of ministry in Australia which followed I only buried five, although ministering to many, many thousands. And yet it was not all at once that I could discover how to teach the lessons that I learned that day. Not until six years after did I fully enter upon the ministry of healing as a part of the ministry of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to preach which I was duly ordained twenty years ago. In these ten years I have prayed, and in Jesus' name have laid my hands upon a vast number of sick ones, probably more than 30,000 persons in the present year alone. Those who have been healed have testified in thousands and the record of their testimonies has gone forth to many lands. We have left our friends and home to carry Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to every creature in every nation we can reach. We have never proclaimed this Gospel in any city or country where God has not confirmed the word with signs following, although in some places it is still true as nineteen centuries ago, "He could not do there many mighty works because of their unbelief." We bring this message to this city, and to all who may read these words. It will give us joy to tell it to all who will come. Salvation and Healing are FREE, for God never sells His gifts. "Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

The mission opens its doors to all. It is the old time religion and no new gospel that is preached. 'Tis the gospel of Jesus' Redemption for spirit, soul and body, bringing salvation from sin, healing from sickness, and cleansing from every defilement of the flesh and spirit.

Let the words abide in thy heart,

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as thou goest along the way through earth to Heaven:

"Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find.
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind."

THE FIRST HEALING IN OUR AMERICAN MISSION.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

On the morning of Saturday, 16th of June, 1888, the seats in the corridor in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, Cal., near my room were crowded with persons desiring interviews with me. We had only arrived in the S. S. Mariposa from Australia on the previous Saturday. Amongst these was an aged woman from Sacramento, who came in leaning upon a crutch, and in great pain. She was accompanied by her daughter. After a few words of prayer I found she was a most interesting character. She was a tall, gaunt-visaged, weird-looking person, abrupt in manner, without imagination, conscious of her ignorance, and doubtful of her standing in Christ. She presented a most peculiar study as the conversation proceeded. She said, "Doctor, I am a hard case; my husband is a much harder case; we are very poor, and I am very ignorant; he read about you yesterday in Sacramento, the capital of this State, about 100 miles distant from this city. He said, 'that is the old-time religion, or else it is all a lie; go down and see if the doctor is what they say he is, and if he is,

YOU WILL COME BACK CURED.

I stared at him in astonishment, for he was not a Christian man, nor given to believe in such things. But he was very pressing, and said, "Go!" So I have come."

"But you are a Christian?" I said.

"I don't know," she said; "I want to know; I do not believe in saying I am, unless I am sure."

And then in a few minutes she burst out, "O Doctor, I want to be sure of salvation; you do not know how ignorant I am; I can't read or write; I don't know a B from a bull's foot; I am poor white trash; do you know what that means?"

I said, "Yes, you were born in the South, were you not?"

She said, "Yes, they talk of slaves—black slaves—but I have been a white slave all my life, and I am a slave now as regards work. They sent me out when I was only four years old to gather sticks in the woods; I was beaten, half starved and cruelly treated by a drunken step-father; I grew up ignorant; I do not know how to talk even now to such a gentleman as you; oh! tell me how I can be sure of salvation."

I was deeply moved, for she was speaking with a natural, or perhaps I should say a supernatural eloquence, that was irresistible. I gladly responded to her cry, and it was not long before I had the joy of seeing her led into a simple trust in Christ as her Saviour; the Holy Spirit had already wrought in her conviction of sin and a fervent love for Christ the Righteous, and she was ready to yield her heart to Him. I realized that Satan was condemned, and she was set free. She looked at me with tears in her stony face, and when I said, "Now will you just trust Jesus as your Healer?" she again replied, "Show me how."

I said, "If Jesus were to enter this room now and present Himself to you, would you ask Him to heal you, believing that He would?"

"Oh, yes, Doctor," she said, "and I believe he would."

"Then," I replied, "He is present."

She looked around. I said, "Invisibly present, for He has said, 'Lo, I am with you always.' If that is true He is here now in spirit and in power."

"Doctor," she said, "I believe He is."

Without another word I knelt at her feet, and asked her to put the diseased foot in my hand. She did so. I took off her slipper, and, holding the foot in my hand, I prayed that God would use me by the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name, and for His sake, in her healing. When I had finished praying I looked up and saw that she was softly crying. I think my attitude at her feet had deeply touched her; but she was looking upward lost in reverent prayer. I rose and said, "In Jesus' name, rise and walk!" She looked for the crutch, which I had placed beyond her reach. I repeated the words, "In Jesus name, rise and walk!" She arose, she walked several times across the room.

I SAID, "YOU ARE HEALED!"

She could not speak for emotion, which she tried hard to restrain, but at last gave way, and falling on Mrs. Dowie's neck, kissed her warmly, and also embraced her daughter, whom she had told me she had not kissed for many years. It was a very affecting scene. The daughter was a backslider, but ere she left the room she was restored to God. As they were going away, I said to the old lady, "You have left something which belongs to you."

She said, "What?"

I said, "Your crutch."

"Oh," she said, "I don't need it any more; I am healed."

I said, "What do you intend to do with it then?" holding it in my hand.

She said, "Oh, Doctor, if you would like to take it, I will leave it with you."

I said, "Very well; put it in the corner." And in the corner it was placed, and she walked more than eight blocks to her daughter's home.

In two days, on Monday, the 19th of June, she came back rejoicing, saying she had walked about quite well. She told me that she had not for two and a half years rested upon that foot without a crutch, and that for ten months she thought she had not slept one "solid hour." I asked her how she slept now, and she said, "Like a baby." And then she told me she was going home. I said, "What are you going to do when you get home?"

"I will tell all," she said, "that JESUS SAVED AND HEALED EVEN ME."

This incident I have thus narrated in detail, because it is the first case of Divine Healing which I have been permitted to witness, and to be instrumental in, on this great continent. I could not have desired a better. Ignorant, almost without hope, she was one of those common people who, in the days of Jesus' earthly ministry, heard Him gladly, and received Him fully, not only as their Saviour, but as their Healer. I pray that she may be the representative of multitudes who shall thus, like the poor of old, have this gospel preached unto them, and who shall receive all its saving, cleansing, healing and uplifting power.—From American First Fruits.

THE DRAMA. HEATHEN, ANTI-CHRISTIAN, IMMORAL.

From Two Lectures on THE DRAMA, THE PRESS, AND THE PULPIT, delivered by THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, in the Victoria Theatre, Sydney, N. S. W., on Lord's Days, March 16th and 23rd, 1879.

And among modern critics I can only refer to two, whose special knowledge fits them for the task of judging Euripides, viz., Mr. Grote, and Mr. T. A. Buckley, both Greek scholars of the greatest eminence. In his History of Greece (vol 1, pp. 363-4), Mr. Grote says that "he put into the mouth of his unprincipled dramatic characters, apologetic speeches which were denounced as ostentatious sophistry, and as setting out a triumphant case for the criminal. His thoughts, his words, and the rhythm of his choric songs, were all accused of being deficient in dignity and elevation. . . . And he incurred still greater obloquy on another point, on which he is allowed even by his enemies to have only reproduced in substance the pre-existing tales,—the illicit and fatal passion depicted in several of his female characters, such as Phædra and Sthenobœa. His opponents admitted that these stories were true, but contended that they ought to be kept back, and not produced upon the stage."

Can this be the author of whom Mr. J. says,—“If such plays . . . could be produced . . . then, we as Christians could give in our adhesion to the stage?” Why, even the heathen of ancient Athens thought they, as Mr Grote says, “ought not to be produced upon the stage.” Can it be that this modern critic of the drama is of the opinion that the Christians of Sydney are so degraded as to find entertainment in dramas which were pronounced to be unfit for the heathen stage?

But Mr. Buckley, an Oxford scholar of eminence and the translator of Euripides' extant works, shall tell us his opinion, an opinion worthy of consideration. He says, in his Introduction to the Tragedies of Euripides (pp. 7-10), “As if he took a delight in the black side of humanity, he loves to show the strength of false reasoning, of sophistry antagonistic to truth, and of cold expediency in opposition to the natural feelings of humanity. . . . His exaggerations in the minor characters are scarcely to be surpassed by the lowest writers of any period. . . . Under Euripides, the stage began gradually to approximate more closely to the ordinary and, at that time, debased character of Athenian society. . . . An attempt to depreciate the social influence and position of the weaker sex, forms the most unamiable features of this change. . . . His excellent reasons for doing right or wrong, as the case might be, must have been inestimably delightful to the accommodating morals of the Athenians.” But it is not only for their immorality that Mr. Buckley denounces these plays, which Mr. J. praises, it is for their bestiality and cruelty. He says (p. 10), “So great is the prodigality of slaughter throughout his Dramas, that we can but imagine morbid cruelty to have formed a considerable ingredient in the disposition of Euripides. Even his pathos is somewhat tintured with this taste for painful images. As we have beheld in our own times a barbarian alternately glut his sight with executions, and then shed floods of tears, and sink into idiotic despondency; so the poetry of Euripides in turn disgusts us with outrageous cruelty, and depresses us with the most painful demands upon our compassion.”

However, that my exposure of the real nature of Euripides' plays may be complete, I will lay before you, shorn of some of its disgusting details, one of his best productions—The Bacchæ. I say the best, meaning the least abominable; for such plays as his Hippolytus are too immoral to be referred to at length, setting forth as they do the horrid crimes of gods and men who are famous in ancient mythology.

The plot of The Bacchæ is somewhat as follows:

Bacchus (or Dionysus) appears first upon the scene, and claims to be the son of Zeus (or Jupiter), the supreme god of the Greeks, by an earthly woman, Semele—the said Jupiter being just a supreme bestial conception. Bacchus being introduced, makes a long speech claiming to be a real god; and setting forth the great impiety of his native city, Thebes, where he then is, in rejecting him, and especially expresses his resolve to punish the king, Pentheus, who refuses to worship the god of drunkenness, being a worshipper of Minerva (or Athenæ) the goddess of wisdom. Bacchus declares—“I will show Pentheus, and all the Thebans, that I am a god;” and the whole object of the play is to manifest how he proved his divinity beyond question. He drives the sisters of his own mother out of the palace, filling them with frenzy, so that they dwell in the mountains in a state of insanity; and madens also Agave, the mother of Pentheus, beside many other women of Thebes, who engage in the vicious actions, and orgies, which formed part of the worship of Bacchus. When this is fully accomplished, and the women are all raving mad drunk in the hills near the city, Bacchus appears in disguise, as a man, to Pentheus, who is filled with indignation, having found that his nearest relatives are worshipping the god whom he abominates. Bacchus pretends to sympathize with Pentheus in his fierce anger and persuades him to disguise himself in woman's attire, and go out among the women in the mountains, so that he may be able to decide how to punish them. To this Pentheus agrees, and no sooner has he attired himself like a female worshipper of Bacchus, than he too, becomes mad. When they arrive at the scene of debauchery and revelry, where the women are, Bacchus contrives to make Pentheus appear like some horrid beast to the maddened creatures; whereupon, led by Agave, his mother, who has become a priestess, they seize him and with the most cruel tortures, kill him, tearing him from limb to limb, whilst the chorus sing these words—“Ye have accomplished a glorious victory, illustrious, yet for woe and tears: for it is a glorious contest to plunge one's dripping hand into the blood of one's son.” Then Agave takes his bleeding head, and placing it upon the top of a thyrsus, she bears it along in triumph through the city of Thebes, until she meets Cadmus, her father, whom she invites to prepare a banquet to celebrate her victory, and bids her servants to summon her son Pentheus also. Cadmus, horrified, bids her look up into the sky, whereupon her Bacchic frenzy leaves her, and she forgets much of what she has said and done in it. Then Cadmus says—“Whose head is that you have in your arms?” She replies, “That of a lion, as those who hunted him said.” He bids her look again, and she starts back in horror exclaiming, “What do I see? What is this that I bear in my hands?” Cadmus rejoins, “Look at it, and learn more closely—Does it seem to you to be like a lion?” The miserable Agave then exclaims, “No; but I, wretched, hold the head of my son Pentheus—Who slew him, how came he into my hands?—Tell me, since delay causes a quivering at my heart.” To which the weeping Cadmus answers, “You and your sisters slew him;” and then goes on to explain at length, how Bacchus had caused her to slay him, because he had insulted the god, by denying his divinity and refusing to worship him. Cadmus closes his narrative by saying, “But if there is any one here who despises the gods, looking on this man's death, let him acknowledge the gods.” Then Bacchus himself appears again upon the scene, and dooms Cadmus, Agave, and the whole royal family to banishment and worse. Cadmus beseeches the god to have mercy, which prayer Bacchus refuses. Cadmus says, “You press upon us too severely.” Bacchus answers, “Ay, for I, being a god, was insulted by you.” Cadmus replies, “It is not right for gods to resemble mortals in anger.” Bacchus then closes all further discussion by saying, “My father, Jove, long ago decreed this.” Then, finally, the Chorus closes the drama by singing, “There are many forms of divine things; and the gods bring to pass many in an unexpected manner: both what has been expected has not been accomplished, and the god has found out a means for doing things unthought for. So, too, has this event turned out."

And now, I ask you if this representation contains "high moral and religious teaching," and is just the thing which will cause you who are "Christians to give in your adherence to theaters?" Is Mr. J. desirous of formally re-establishing the worship of Bacchus? I never thought him a very active foe to the temples of Bacchus which curse this city; but surely he cannot mean to teach this as the newest thing in divinity. And, if these plays represent "men as they ought to be," does Mr. J. really mean us to understand that we are to learn from Pentheus, and, instead of worshipping the Eternal God of Wisdom, are we to become worshippers of Bacchus, the god of cruelty, vice, and drunkenness; and are all Christian mothers to get drunk like Agave, and murder their sober-minded, wisdom-loving sons, as she did?

And then, will Mr. J. be pleased to point out "the ideal pictures of a noble life," contained in this, or any of Euripides' plays? Does the human impersonation of divinity in the person of Bacchus, who proves himself throughout the play to be a liar, a murderer, a lustful monster, and a most atrociously cruel and merciless wretch generally—I say, does that impersonation contain the "ideal picture of a noble life;" or, if not, in which of the characters can it be found?

But let us turn to the writings of Sophocles, and see if they will bear the admiration which Mr. J. has so repeatedly bestowed upon them.

Sophocles was born about 496 years before Christ, and died in the same year as Euripides, 406 B. C. Admitting all that might be said truthfully as to his undoubted genius, and that there are fine passages here and there in his writings, and passing by his vices of sensual indulgence and love of money, we need only glance at his seven extant tragedies to see how utterly debasing the representation of them must have been, and how monstrously wicked it would be for them to be enacted on the stage in these days.

The Ajax sets forth the details of the madness, murder designs, and suicide of its subject, one of the Grecian heroes of the siege of Troy, who lost both his reason and his life through jealousy, because that the dead hero Achilles' armour was bestowed upon a better man, Ulysses.

I fail to see anything very "noble" there.

The Electra represents, principally, the successful murder by Electra and her brother, Orestes, of their own adulterous and murderous mother, Clytemnestra, and her paramour, Egisthus.

I do not see anything very "noble" in that.

The Philoctetes is a shade better than the two preceding plays; but principally represents Ulysses' unsuccessful attempt to steal from Philoctetes the arrows of the god Hercules, whose descent from the skies puts everything straight.

Where is the nobility, etc., of such mythical rubbish as that?

The Antigone represents how two wretched brothers quarreled about their respective claims to the throne of Thebes, how they brought about great slaughters in many contests, how they at last slew each other in a single combat, how their uncle who became king denied one of them the rites of burial, how his sister Antigone did bury him despite the king's orders, how she was sentenced to die from starvation in a cave, how the king's own son slew himself because of Antigone's doom, how his mother Eurydice also committed suicide because of her son's sad end, and how poor wretched Creon, the king, is left a prey to fruitless remorse, with only this consolation, by the Chorus, that the whole affair is decreed by the gods, in these words:—

"Forever are the boastings of the proud
By the just Gods repaid, and man at last
Is taught to fear their anger, and be wise."

It may be my blindness, friends, but I fail to see "the high moral and religious teaching," etc., of this horrible drama, which Mr. J. would have on the stage for "Christians" to admire, and be "taught to fear the anger" of the heathen gods, and thus at last "be wise."

Then the Trachinæ represents the doings of the god Hercules when in human form upon earth, who murders a man because he cannot marry his sister, and then marries another whom he forsakes for the former woman, but at last perishes miserably through wearing a garment sent to him by his jealous wife Dejanira, which ends in her destroying herself when she hears of Hercules' death, all which abominations, mark you, the last words of the play bids us to "remember are all decreed and all the work of Jove."

Again, I say, where in all this lies the "moral and religious teaching" of which we are told?

And now, we come to the last two plays of Sophocles, the Œdipus Tyrannus and the Œdipus Coloneus, which were accounted his greatest efforts in tragedy, and which should contain, if it is to be found in any of his works, the justification for Mr. J.'s extravagant praises and recommendations.

But, what do we find in them?

Why, tenfold worse abominations than in any of those at which we have glanced.

This will be seen by an examination of their plot—they are but one story—an examination which shall deal only with its outline; and which, I venture to affirm, will be enough to settle forever, in every candid mind, the value which is to be attached to the public teachings of one who dares to represent these plays as models of purity.

I have no pleasure in this most manifestly unpleasant task of what a famous modern writer has called "a job of buck-washing;" and, were it not for the imperious demands of truth, and because of my sworn allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ, whose honour is at stake in this attempted revival of heathenism from the pulpit of a professedly Christian Church, I would have nothing more to do with the task. But servants of God cannot choose their path, when the voice of conscience, and the finger of providence, clearly point the way. Believing that way to be this which I now take, I shall offer no apology for the painful exposures which I have already made, and the, perhaps, yet more painful ones which are to follow. In many directions, I perceive a subtle movement towards a revival of Paganism, and this is but one of these, which would revive it first under dramatic forms. It is a strange, and suggestive spectacle, to see Dr. Vaughan, representing Papalism, and Mr. J., representing Congregationalism, working on the same lines; the one to bring us back to Paganism by the gross idolatries of the Roman system, and the other to bring it back to us, by restoring the heathen Drama. Extremes, in humanly devised systems, often meet. This seems to me to be an instance. Hence the pains I am now taking to show the pitfall which lies before those who blindly follow the lead of a purblind Press, and, in this matter at least, a wofully blind Pulpit. "If the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."

But now, to return from this long digression, let us finish with two last plays of Sophocles, to which I have referred above, the Œdipus Tyrannus and Œdipus Coloneus.

Œdipus, the central figure in both these plays, is the son of Laius and Jocasta, king and queen of Thebes, a city of ancient Greece.

Before he is born, the oracle of the god Apollo declares that he is doomed to commit the most awful crimes, namely, to murder his father, to marry his mother, and bring dreadful sufferings upon his descendants. Accordingly, Laius and his wife determine to destroy this infant when it is born. They give the child to a shepherd, with orders to expose it on Mount Cithæron, so that it may die from neglect, or be destroyed by wild beasts. Instead of doing this, however, the servant gives the child to a shepherd whom he meets on the mountain, who filled with pity, rescues it from death, and carries it to Corinth, where it is adopted by Polybus, the king there, who knows nothing about its birth, and trains it as his own son. When Œdipus reaches manhood, he is greatly beloved for his wisdom and goodness, and renowned for strength. He consults the oracle of Apollo, and learns to his horror, that he is doomed to be a parricide and to commit incest with his own mother. Horrified, he vows never again to return to Corinth, and never again to look upon Polybus and Merope, the king and queen, whom he supposes to be his father and mother. As he journeys, he meets in Phocis, where three ways met, his real father, Laius, and, a quarrel arising, Laius is slain by Œdipus in the fight, who is ignorant wholly of the name, rank, or relationship of the person he has killed.

He continues his journey to Thebes, where a horrid monster known as the Sphinx is at that time destroying the principal citizens who cannot answer the riddles she propounds, and, in consequence of this, proclamation has been made that whoever will read the riddles shall become the king, and receive the widowed queen, Jocasta, for his wife.

Arrived at Thebes, Œdipus solves the problems, marries Jocasta, becomes king, and reigns for many years in great prosperity, four children being born to him in the royal palace. At length a terrible plague, by device of the gods, desolates the land, and the oracle of Apollo declares, that it will cease when the murderer of Laius is banished from Bœotia. The most minute investigation follows, the dreadful secret is discovered, it is found that Œdipus himself is the murderer, and that the awful decree of the gods has been fulfilled by him in every part.

Jocasta, filled with horror and despair, with terrible cursings and ravings enters her room in the royal palace, and there hangs herself over her bed. Œdipus finds her there, an awful scene ensues, he plucks from off her robe a golden buckle which she wore, and buries in his eyes the sharpened point, crying he ne'er will look on her nor on his children again, whilst the blood streams down his cheeks, and over the dead body of the wretched Jocasta. The citizens rush in, and ask "What madness drove thee to this desperate deed? What god inspired?"—to which Œdipus replies, "Apollo was the cause: he was, my friends! the cause of all my woes." He is then sent out into banishment, attended only by his daughter Antigone, and Creon, who becomes king, declares to him, "Thy hapless fate should teach us to believe and reverence the gods,"—which ends the first play.

And then the dreadful story goes on in the Œdipus Coloneus. Œdipus has been cruelly treated by his sons, he curses them in awful language, pronounces the terrible doom that they shall slay each other in a struggle for the throne of Thebes, which actually happens, and finally dies at Athens, where he had lived in his last days, under the protection of Theseus.

Now these plays were written by Sophocles undoubtedly to convey "religious teaching,"—plays of which I have felt shame even to give you the outlines;—but of what kind is that teaching? Is it "high and moral" as Mr. J. informs us? Let the outlines I have given answer. Do you feel disposed "to believe and reverence the gods" who planned all these abominations? For, do not forget that Sophocles teaches these things to honour and exalt the gods, and holds Œdipus to be personally innocent, as appears from many passages; notably that in which Œdipus blames Apollo in the passage which I quoted; and also in that where in reply to Creon, who reproaches him with his crimes, he says:—

"Thou, who upbraided me thus for all my woes,
"Murder and incest, which against my will
"I had committed; (SO IT PLEAS'D THE GODS,
"OFFENDED AT MY RACE FOR FORMER CRIMES;
"BUT I AM GUILTYLESS) canst thou name a fault
"Deserving this! For tell me was it mine,
"When to my father Phœbus did declare "That he should one day perish by the hand
"Of his own child? WAS ŒDIPUS TO BLAME
"WHO HAD NO BEING THEN? . . . NO,
"FOR I WAS DROVE TO ILL BY THE ANGRY GODS."

And again where he says, —

"'Tis not in mortals to avoid the crime
"Which Heaven hath pre-ordained."

And, in further proof of this, if such be needed, that Sophocles taught that these horrors were rightfully inflicted by the gods, in return for some fancied insult to these fabulous monsters whom he worshipped, take the last three lines of the last play of the two with which I am dealing, and there you will find that the consolation offered to Œdipus' two wretched daughters when their father dies, and leaves them exiles and wanderers doomed to life-long misery, is thus expressed,—

"Remember, virgins! to repress your sorrows,
"And cease your fruitless grief; FOR KNOW 'TIS ALL "DECREED BY FATE, AND ALL THE WORK OF HEAVEN."

This then is what a prominent teacher of Christ's pure and soul-quickenng truth, desires us to receive as "high moral and religious teaching,"—namely, that blind Fate decrees human crime and misery; that brutal Lust, and not a Father's Love rules eternally above; and that the work of Heaven is to execute fiendish and cowardly revenge upon innocent mortals, the details of which prove it clearly enough to be the work of the Devil! Is it not monstrous?

But Sophocles should, according to Mr. J., picture in his heroes "the ideals of a noble life," and show to our astonished gaze "men as they ought to be," which we had supposed this critic had found in the life of Jesus Christ alone long ago. Surely then the innocent, wise and good Œdipus, who innocently suffered for the guilt of others, should present the "ideal," and the "real," picture of a "noble" man. But, what do we find? Does Sophocles represent him as patiently enduring his sufferings, and dealing nobly with those upon whom he had unwittingly brought shame and sorrow? Far from that. Look at his conduct to his two sons, or brothers, for they were both. They offend him, but does he dream of forgiving them? Nay, though he has so cruelly wronged them, by affixing to them an awful stigma of shame, he openly becomes their enemy, even in his exile, as is shown, when he says to his daughter Ismene,—

"Whilst to my sons
"A throne was dearer than a father's love,
"BUT THEY SHALL NEVER GAIN ME FOR THEIR FRIEND,
"Nor ever reign in Thebes."

And then, when Polynices comes to beg his father's forgiveness and blessing upon his endeavour to wrest by force of arms the Theban throne from his brother Eteocles, he not only refuses his petition, not only fails to warn him against his crime and danger, but curses them both with awful vehemence, and predicts, with evident fiendish pleasure, their approaching ruin. He says,—

"Though Heaven hath spared you long,
"Death will overtake you; when thy forces come
"To Thebes, which shall not fall before thy arms,
"THERE SOON SHALT THOU AND THY VILE BROTHER DIE,
"LONG SINCE MY CURSES DID DECLARE THY FATE,
"WHICH HERE I DO REPEAT, that you may learn
"The reverence due to parents, and no more
"Reproach a sightless father."

And then, this "ideal father, this "noble" picture of what "men ought to be," goes on to administer his parental love, and manifest his greatness and goodness, by saying to his own son, who kneels a suppliant at his feet,—

"Meantime, thou worst,
"Thou most abandoned of the race of men!
"BE GONE! AWAY! AND WITH THEE BEAR THIS CURSE,
"Which here I do pronounce: to Argos ne'er
"Mayst thou return! never may Thebes be thine!
"SOON MAYST THOU PERISH BY A BROTHER'S HAND,
"SLAYING THE SLAYER! MAY DARK EREBUS
"RECEIVE THEM BOTH! And now on you I call,
"Ye goddesses revered! and thou, O Mars!
"Thou who hast raised the strife between "My impious sons, bear witness to my words!
"FAREWELL! NOW GO, AND TELL THE THEBANS, TELL,
"THY FAITHFUL FRIENDS, HOW FAIR AN HERITAGE
"YOUR ŒDIPUS HATH HERE BEQUEATHED HIS CHILDREN."

Surely, for intense bitterness, unnatural animosity, malignant fiendishness of delight, and unmixed hatred, no curse was ever more awfully wicked. And yet, this is Sophocles' ideal of a noble nature—an ideal which, Mr. J. tells us, only needs to be presented on the stage to-day, and, straightway, "Christians could give in their adhesion to theatres!"

And now I turn to Æschylus' writings, the last of the three ancient dramatic works praised by Mr. J.

Although Arion, who lived about 580 years before Christ, is said to have been the inventor of tragedy, yet Æschylus—who was born in 526 B. C., produced his first drama in 500, and died about 456—is generally considered to be the father of Greek tragedy. Most writers are, however, agreed that he is inferior to Sophocles, and it is said that Sophocles' repeated victories over him in the competitions of dramatists at Athens, led to his self-banishment to Syracuse, where he lived under the protection of the king, Hiero. There is abundant evidence too, that the Greeks of his day considered him to be impious, and that for a time his life was in great danger. His dramas were of a more directly religious nature (in the heathen sense of the words) than those of Euripides and Sophocles, and he made them also the vehicle for conveying political teaching—a teaching full of contempt for democratic principles, which were obtaining the ascendancy in Athens during the administration of the government by Pericles and others: for Æschylus was the poet of the conservative party of that day.

As to the source of his dramas, Æschylus himself said that his tragedies were but "made-up dishes" from the great Homeric banquet—the Illiad and Odyssey.

Consequently, he deals largely with the gods, and heroes, and the disgusting mythology of Greek legendary history. His dramas were rather spectacles than plays; and it is said that these representations by dresses, masks, and scenic effects were so successful that when, in the Eumenides, he introduced "a chorus of the avenging Furies, fifty in number, with masks of unequalled and horrible ugliness,—serpents twisted in their hair, blood dripping from their eyes, a red tongue projecting between their lips, the spectators were so startled, that children went into fits, and women were very seriously injured by fright."

Is it desired to introduce once more upon the stage these horrid Furies as messengers of Heaven? So Mr. J. declares by his endorsement of these plays.

As to the "high moral and religious teaching" of his dramas, the very mention of such a thing existing in them for the nineteenth century of the Christian era, is a screaming farce.

Æschylus starts with "a firm belief that the myths of Greece represent the facts of Divine history," and, when the filthy abominations of these are known, there can be no question as to what that teaching must be. Zeus the supreme god, is represented as cruel and lustful; as hating all progress in knowledge, power, and culture among men; as punishing by a penalty, which was to last forever, a great being named Prometheus, who was man's friend and helper; and yet as being himself, though nominally supreme, so subject to Fate or Necessity, that it should yet drive him from his throne. All the imaginary monsters, whom the Greeks called gods and goddesses, were for him real beings, and he gave special prominence to the infernal deities who rule in the dark abodes beneath, such as Pluto, of whom he says,—

"In Hades, as men relate, a second Zeus
"Judges men's evil deeds, and to the dead
"Assigns their last great penalties."

And speaking of him again, he says,—

"The Avenger terrible,
"God that destroyeth, who not e'en in Hades
"Gives freedom to the dead."

Then too his conceptions of Zeus, or Jupiter, sometimes represent him as anything but pure in his morality—indeed he says,—

"From a just fraud God turneth not away."

And again his disregard of truth appears where he says,—

"There is a time when God doth falsehood prize."

Will Mr. J. be pleased to point out "the moral and religious" elements in the nature of such a patron of liars?

But Æschylus is not consistent with himself, and there are passages where instead of polytheism, he seems to teach monotheism of an elevated kind, whilst in others he seems to believe in pantheism, as in the following lines,—

"The air is Zeus, Zeus earth, and Zeus the heaven,
"Zeus all that is, and what transcends them all."

Mr. Grote, in his History of Greece (vol. 1, p. 370), remarks upon the attempts made by many critics to bring out Zeus in Æschylus' Prometheus Bound as "a just, wise, merciful, and all-powerful Being," and says that in doing so "they distort the figures, alter the perspective, and give far-fetched interpretations of the meaning of this striking drama, which conveys a meaning directly contrary." And how any one can take the whole representation of Zeus in that and other plays, where he is so constantly the enemy of man, dealing with them as with miserable slaves or brute beasts, but never as with children whom he loved, is beyond my comprehension. Æschylus carries out, in his conception of the divine government, the ideas which underlie his proud overbearing contempt for the great body of the people in Greece, whom he seems to think are born to be slaves or tools to the few, of whom he was one. Hence we have in his conception of Zeus, a brutal autocrat; and not, as in Christianity, a Father of eternal love who delights in mercy.

There are but seven plays now extant, out of the seventy which were said to have been written by Æschylus; and a very brief examination of their plots will show, that they are at least equal in vileness to those of the two authors, with which I have already dealt at some length.

The Agamemnon Chæphori (or Libation Pourers) and the Eumenides, form what is called the trilogy of the Oresteia, and refer to the same events as the Electra of Sophocles, of which I have already spoken. The only difference between them is that great prominence is given by Æschylus to the Erinnyes or Furies, who appeared to Orestes after he murdered his adulterous mother, Clytemnestra, and drove him from land to land, making his life miserable by their curses and other modes of revenge.

These monstrous beings are described as more ancient than even Zeus himself, and, therefore, as not being under his rule. Their bodies covered with black, serpents twined in their hair, and their eyes dripping with blood, they pursue the criminal and urge him on to despair. And although they become the Eumenides, or Gentle Ones, at the end of Æschylus' trilogy of the Oresteia, yet, as Dr. Leonard Schmitz remarks, "it is a mere euphemism, because people dreaded to call them by their real name, and it was said to have been first given them after the acquittal of Orestes, by the court of the Areiopagus, when the anger of the Erinnyes had become soothed."

The best that can be said for them is that they were worthy of their company among the brutal gods and goddesses, and bad men and women, which these plays describe.

The Persians is a mere military and naval spectacle describing the defeat by the Greeks, aided by their gods of course, of Xerxes' great host at Salamis.

The Seven against Thebes deals with events which have been already referred to in Ædipus Coloneus of Sophocles, and sets forth the siege of Thebes by Polynices, son of Ædipus, aided by six other great captains, who were each stationed with one of the divisions of the army, at the seven gates of the city.

The play describes the awful carnage of the battles, and at last the single combat between the two brothers, in which they slay each other. This horrid fratricide is set forth as the result of the God Apollo's anger, of Ædipus' dying curse upon his sons, of the Furies' hatred, and of Destiny: for the sisters of these two self-murdered brothers chant over their dead bodies,—

"Ah me, thou Destiny,
"Giver of evil gifts, and working woe,
"And thou dread spectral form of Ædipus,
"And swarth Erinnyes too,
"A mighty one art thou."

Will Mr. J. be kind enough to point out "the high moral and religious teaching" in that play? Does this combination of horrible furies, father's curses, god's anger, and relentless Destiny, working out death to thousands, and fratricide to these wretched brothers, seem to be "moral," or "religious," or "noble" from a Christian stand-point? I leave you to answer.

The Prouetheus Bound is another eminently "religious" play; and, as I have already said, degrades the idea of the supreme God, to inconceivable depths of lust and malice. The story of Io, daughter of Inachos, king of Argos, whom Zeus (the supreme monster worshipped by Æschylos) is represented as having "loved," is abominable in the extreme.

It is introduced into this play. If you can conceive anything "moral" in the supreme god basely destroying the purity of a woman; if you can imagine anything "religious" in that supreme god permitting his wife, the goddess Hera, or Juno, to transform that poor betrayed maiden into a cow, and then torture her by sending a gadfly constantly to sting her and drive her over many lands; if you Christian men and women can get "moral and religious teaching" there, it is more than I can think. No! this play, albeit there are beautiful passages in it describing the unmerited sufferings of Prometheus, and indications of the heathen world's longing for a Redeemer,—I say this play is, perhaps, the most degrading of all Æschylos' dramas.

The Suppliants seems to be a stupid play, setting forth the flight of the fifty daughters of Danaos, who flee for refuge to Pelasgos, king of Argos, from the fifty sons of Ægyptos, who desire to marry them. But it seems likely that in a lost play, the Danaïde, the story was carried on, showing, as was the common version of it, that the fifty daughters of Danaos married the sons of Ægyptos, but that, by the advice of their father, they all murdered their husbands, with but one exception, on the wedding night.

And that is the last play extant of Æschylos.

Do you find any improvement in morals between it and the first? Is this to be the "religious" teaching of the future? Is murder to be the goal of a "noble life?" And is Mr. J. prepared to place upon the stage a play which "teaches" forty-nine out of fifty future brides to murder their newly wedded husbands? "Of course not," is the reply. Well, but why did he thrice repeat words which identifies him with such abominations, and forces upon him such conclusions? He owes a retraction to the people of this country, as public as was his foolish declaration; and I sincerely hope he will make it speedily.

But now, having reached at last, the end of this most unpleasant task of examining these three ancient Greek tragedians' works, Euripides, Sophocles, and Æschylos, I claim your verdict on every count against the utterly unmerited laudation of their dramas in which Mr. J. indulged,—I claim (1) to have proved my assertion that the statements made were compounds of ignorance and arrogance; I claim (2) to have proved that they cannot be considered as either "moral" or "religious" in their teaching; I claim (3) to have proved that they do NOT represent "men as they ought to be," but the opposite—namely, men as they ought not to be; I claim (4) to have proved that they do not set before us "ideal pictures of a noble life," but pictures which should cause us to loathe and fight against any revival of the ancient heathen drama in our days; and, finally, I claim (5) to have proved that "if such plays were produced, we, as Christians," so far from giving in "our adhesion to the theaters," would have a more awful conflict before us in destroying the theater's demoralizing effects, than any now confronting us, terrible as is the contest awaiting us with the Modern Drama.

And it is precisely that last consideration which compels me to deal so seriously with, and to give such lengthened refutations of, Mr. J.'s dictum concerning the ancient Greek drama. If it had not been proposed to revive Paganism yet more fully by the restoration of that drama, I for one should have left his reckless rhetoric where I found it, as I have done with so much more of the same kind, in the kindly dust bin to which the Herald daily hastens.

But, when the Church of the Living God was called upon to create a stage upon which the abominable gods and men of heathen times should flaunt their horrid crimes and vices, it seemed to me quite time for some one to step forward, and slightly lift the curtain, and show you, my fellow citizens generally, and Christians in particular, the horrid abyss which lies in that direction.

That being done, it is time to drop the curtain, and let us each in our own way learn the lesson which these investigations have taught us.

In my next lecture I shall consider the origin of the Drama, somewhat of its history in modern times, its present condition, and the attitude which we ought to take respecting it.

But ere I close this night, let me entreat you my fellow men who are not yet on the Lord's side in destroying the devil's works, in extending His glorious kingdom, and in spreading abroad "the joy" which He longs to impart—I say, let me entreat you this very night to be wise, to rise and go to your Father's Mercy Seat.

Oh, young man, if you want to be a man worthy of the name, if you want to follow the blameless King and enter into His rest, I beseech you, in the name of God, as you value the eternal spirit that is in you, to put down your fool's cap and bells. Thou hast played the fool too long.

Oh, man, with the snows of winter on thy brow, hast thou destroyed thy peace in the wine-cup of folly? Then find peace to thy weary heart, and joy in thy sorrow, in Christ thy Lord.

Young man, if thou wantest to be happy, good, noble, true and god-like, do not say, "How close can I sail to the rocks?" but say, "How far, by the help of God, can I keep on the safe track, so that I may be able to help others, and enter into that life for which God has destined me."

Yet one word more.

Frederick the Great, ere he was king, was a dissolute prince. It is said, that one night he was in the midst of his boon companions, engaged in their usual folly and drunkenness, when a messenger entered, and whispered something in his ear. He started up at once, and threw down his mountebank paraphernalia. His companions laughed at him, thinking it was a part of his fun. But turning to them, with his face white as death, and his form drawn up, he impressed upon them a deep silence and said, "Stop your fooling! I am King! The King is dead! I am King!" And, from that moment he laid aside his folly, and became, if not good, at least outwardly a moral and capable prince.

But I have a greater message than that to speak to thee.

I want to whisper in thine ears to-night, "God calls thee to be a King!" Put down thy cap and bells, trample under foot the lusts and passions that would destroy thee, let God give thee the crown of His forgiveness and clothe thee in the impenetrable armour of His truth, and fill thy heart with the sweetness, purity, light and joy of His perfect love. Behold, 'tis not I, but thy Lord, the Captain of our Salvation, who calls thee. If to-night He inspires thy heart with sorrow for sin, and with longings for a nobler life, then do not I pray you resist the strivings of His spirit.

"Quench not the holy fire within thee,
Though temptation's darts shower down upon thee;
Gird thine armour on: Fight well;
And thou shalt see, after these wars,
Thy head wear sunbeams, and thy feet touch stars
Above the heavens, where God's mercy dwells."

And may "the Lord bless thee and keep thee" in this day of temptation.

ZION TABERNACLE.

ZION means strength, or a fortress. Truly God has manifested His strength in a very remarkable way in this little frame Tabernacle, and has made it a spiritual fortress. Since the beginning of this year more than twenty thousand sick persons have been prayed with, accompanied by the laying on of hands, in the name of the Lord Jesus, within its walls. Of these, a vast number have been healed. Many thousands have been led to sincere repentance for sin, and, through faith, have found salvation and peace. Christians witness that it has also been to them a place of blessing, where they have been led into the King's Highway of Holiness. Many a weary pilgrim in "the valley of weeping" has found in it the "well" of consolation and refreshing. Joyful songs of loudest praise have rung forth from its courts, and, by the agency of the secular daily press, Zion Tabernacle and God's wonderful work therein have been made known in all parts of this country and in many other lands.

We have thought that a picture of this humble headquarters of our work in Chicago might be appreciated by the tens of thousands who have visited it, and by the still larger number of our distant friends, in all parts of the world, who have never seen it.

It was built by the Chicago Branch of the International Divine Healing Association, for a World's Fair Mission, and was opened on the first Lord's Day after the opening of the Fair, May 7th, 1893. But it attracted very little attention at that time, although vast multitudes of pleasure seekers passed its doors. Still it was open, for the greater part of the time, every day save Saturday; and gradually, toward the end of the Fair, many began to attend the meetings. A severe winter, and wide spread depression and destitution in the city and country followed the shameful scenes of wasteful extravagance, unbounded licentiousness, and inordinate vanity of that Vanity Fair. Our Tabernacle stood silent guard at the gates of the deserted "White City," and all through the winter the services were patiently continued, in the once thronged, but then deserted, region around the Fair Grounds. It was sometimes weary work; but we waited for the morning, and it came. We knew the Tabernacle had not done its work. Yes, it came, a steadily rising tide of blessing, until long ere the snow and ice had disappeared, thousands and tens of thousands, not only from Chicago, but from distant cities and states were thronging it, and all the surrounding buildings, almost to suffocation. Multitudes gathered far beyond its capacity and were glad to get a place outside a window, or within hearing distance, whilst hundreds stood within the Tabernacle, crowded the platform, the prayer-rooms, etc. Wave after wave of Divine power swept over these throngs, and God was glorified in thousands of conversions and healings through Faith in Jesus Christ. Great downtown and suburban meetings were held to ease the pressure upon the Tabernacle. Meetings in the center of the city were held for many weeks every Lord's day afternoon in the Central Music Hall and continued, until midsummer, in Battery D. The first downtown meeting was thus described by the Daily Inter Ocean in its issue of Monday, April 16th: "Central Music Hall was packed from floor to ceiling yesterday afternoon with persons drawn either by necessity, sympathy or curiosity to hear the Rev. John Alexander Dowie and the testimonies of those who had been cured of their diseases through his ministry. If the hall had been twice its size it could have been filled easily by the crowds that were turned away. For three hours, from 2:30 to 5:30, those who were fortunate enough to obtain admission were content to sit and drink in the proceedings, and the few empty seats left by those who went out during the service were speedily filled by others from the outside." It was estimated that there were about 4,000 persons in the Hall at that service.

The meetings in the suburbs of South Chicago and Englewood were also attended by great crowds of persons, especially in the First Baptist Church, South Chicago, and in the Covenant Baptist Church, Englewood, into which buildings hundreds were unable to obtain admission week after week. The meetings still continue to be very largely attended, there being seldom a vacant seat in the Tabernacle. On last Lord's day, August 26th, after crowding every inch of standing and sitting room, many were content to stand at the window, or to remain in their carriages outside on the street, or in the prayer-room behind the Tabernacle, within hearing distance.

The spectacle which the Tabernacle presents is always intensely interesting from a philanthropic point of view. Thursday is denominated Children's Day, and Dr. Dowie resolutely refuses to see any grown up people, excepting in cases of extreme emergency, on that day. Then the children of all ages have complete possession of the Tabernacle and all its surroundings. Arriving early in the morning they take their seats, or sit upon the floor or the platform piling up and piling up on mothers' knees, and often two in a chair, until the place is completely crowded. In addition to these, several rooms off the prayer-room are set apart for insane and feeble-minded children. The exercises are of the most simple and entertaining character, Dr. Dowie aiming to adapt himself to the comprehension of the youngest. Shortly after the opening of the service he frequently calls upon many whose little legs have been lengthened, deaf and dumb who can now speak and hear, some who have never walked from their birth who can now walk and leap and run, and all sorts of children to testify to their healing. Their mothers stand up with them and tell the simple story. On that day there are children everywhere, and oftentimes Dr. Dowie lays hands upon over five hundred children, seeing them in the prayer-room in well-ordered and quiet companies of eighty to one hundred. As many as twenty different nationalities are sometimes represented on Children's day.

We shall give in an early issue a sketch of the Children's day.

The earnestness of the throngs who gather is seen in the fact that oftentimes they will take their places in the Tabernacle hours before the beginning of the service, and will wait even until nearly midnight in the hope of being seen. Oftentimes the platform in the Tabernacle during a service will be surrounded by many persons lying upon cots and invalid chairs, some of whom have been brought in that condition for many hundreds of miles.

On the last page of this issue some of these cots are seen in the picture entitled "Captured From the Enemy," which is a photograph of the back of the Tabernacle platform. One great feature of the Tabernacle and other services is the large number of persons, who at the close of Dr. Dowie's addresses will rise when he utters what he calls "God's Call to Repentance." As many as two thousand persons have risen at one time in the downtown meetings and have openly professed their repentance toward God and their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, following Dr. Dowie audibly in an impressive penitential prayer. The spiritual always precedes the physical work in the Tabernacle. Repentance for sin, and faith for salvation always precede the ministry of healing.

Our hearts are filled with praise as we think of what God has wrought in Zion Tabernacle, and, although it may be that He will give us a larger building and a more permanent structure, we shall ever remember with unceasing joy, the things that "God hath wrought" within these sacred walls, where we have so often read the words, (Psalm 20: 1, 2),

"The Lord answer thee in the day of trouble,
The name of the God of Jacob set thee up on high,
Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"THE TEACHERS [old version 'they that be wise'] shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." Daniel 12:3.

OH, for TEACHERS in the Church of God.

"MANY shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand; but THE TEACHERS SHALL UNDERSTAND." Daniel 12:9.

THESE words were to be "shut up and sealed" for many centuries, "until the Time of the End."

THERE is a deep heart hunger in the hearts of the people everywhere for teachers who "understand" what they are teaching, and for the demonstration of the teaching. Proof beyond the possibility of doubt is rightfully demanded from these Teachers. Christ gave such proofs, the apostles gave such proofs, and the primitive Church commanded victory all along the line of battle, because "they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the Word by the Signs that followed."

OH, for DEMONSTRATORS in the Church of God—men who not only teach and preach, but men who HEAL in the Name of the Lord.

THEY are coming: for God is putting into the hearts of many of His Ministers a longing for "speech and preaching, NOT with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in Demonstration of the Spirit and of Power," such as Paul had.

A GENERATION of ministers is arising who are seeking for a Faith of which Theological Seminaries are entirely "out of stock" for the most part. They are seeking a "Faith which does not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God." And they are not seeking in vain: for "everyone that seeketh findeth."

WE think it would astonish some of the theological pundits, if they knew the extensive dissatisfaction in the hearts of their graduates and under graduates. Their dry-as-dust teachings, and denominational mummies are poor "stock" for a living man in a wide awake age of the world like this. Our correspondence, and an occasional peep into Zion Tabernacle, and our three Divine Healing Homes, would convince them of the truth of these words. Many of their students are, like the brother whose letter we quoted in our Notes last week, having "a continual funeral service for the dogmatics learned in the best theological seminaries in this country."

WITHIN the last ten days, at least twenty ministers and students have asked us to form them into a Class for Special Instruction on Divine Healing and True Holiness. A brother who was for many year's editor of the principal paper of his denomination writes us this week, saying: "I desire to spend a few days within the influence of your divinely appointed work. I want to see you and get your prayers after a conference with you, and would like to come into the Home."

Does it not look as if Zion College was almost in sight?

WE do not want to go before the Lord: for "when He putteth forth His own sheep, He goeth before them, and the sheep follow Him: for THEY KNOW HIS VOICE."

Our labours are already it would seem all that flesh and blood can endure; but, if God is speaking, and requires us to establish ZION COLLEGE, then, in the Name of the Lord, it shall be done. The Lord will provide.

THERE seems to be no other way in which this "EVERLASTING GOSPEL" can be preached than by opening as early as possible a School for Teachers. We invite suggestions on this subject from our ministerial brethren and sisters: for we recognize the ministry of women, both as deaconesses and elder-women. Our desire is to do this work, if God is calling us to it, at such time and in such manner as will be according to His will. Therefore, we shall not act in haste, but only after prayerful consideration and an exchange of views with those who are seeking this help. It may be best to have a Private Conference of all such friends.

THE "New York Independent" says in a leading article in its issue of Nov. 1st:—

"Jesus did not make a business of going about healing diseases, but of teaching."

Brethren, "ye do err, NOT KNOWING THE SCRIPTURES, nor the power of God."

Matthew says:—"Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people." Chapter 4: 23.

Healing was His business, brother Editor.

Matthew says again:—"Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. Chapter 9: 35.

Looks like as if healing were His business, brother.

Matthew says again:—"And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick." Chapter 14: 14.

It was quite extensively His business, brother.

Matthew says again:—"And great multitudes came unto Him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet: and He healed them." Chapter 15: 31.

It looks as if He did a tremendous business in healing, poor foolish brother.

Matthew says again:—"And great multitudes followed Him into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan, and He healed them there."

They knew it was His business, poor ignorant brother, so they followed Him quite a distance; and He did a good business—His Father's business.

Matthew says again:—"And the blind and the lame came unto Him in the Temple; and He healed them." Chapter 21: 14.

Just think of it, poor erring brother, He actually carried this business of healing into the very Temple of God, on the same day that He drove out those that did another kind of business, with a whip of small cords. Don't you feel His strong hand laying it upon your back to-day?

Mark says:—"At even, when the sun did set, they brought unto Him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door. And He healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils"—Chap. 1: 32 to 34.

What a business of healing, when "all the city" gathered at the door of the Lord! Poor erring brother, how strange that you never knew of such scenes. When did you last read the Gospels?

Luke says:—"Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them"—Chap. 4:40.

Truly it was making a business of it to lay hands upon all who came in faith and heal them all. And yet you say, miserably ignorant editor, that you did not know it. Are you telling a wilful lie, or has your sinful hatred of our work completely destroyed your memory?

John tells of many healings and says:—"But though Jesus had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on Him"—Chap. 12: 37.

Do you not see he made a business of doing such wonders—poor blind editor, read and apply the following verses, 38 to 41.

Peter says that Jesus "went out about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil." Acts 10:38.

But what did all these know compared to the Editor of the New York Independent?

He says:—"Jesus did not, make a business of going about healing diseases, but of teaching."

Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Peter and many others say He did go about healing, and it was a great part of His daily life's business.

Surely there is no question as to whether we shall believe Apostles and Evangelists, or the Editor of the Valley of Dry Bones Independent.

Oh, poor ignorant editor, well does the Lord say of such as you, "Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures nor the power of God."

"Art thou the Teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things?"

Let us then teach you that Jesus went about doing three things: First, Teaching; second, Preaching; and third, Healing. In thus fulfilling His ministry He was "leaving us an Example that we should follow in His steps." We, therefore, do all three, as He enables us. "Go, and do thou likewise."

THE work in Zion Tabernacle is at floodtide all the time, and no words can describe it. In the past week not less than one thousand persons have sought God openly, repenting and confessing sin, and casting themselves in simple faith on Jesus' Atonement for mercy, and regeneration. "Every one that asketh receiveth." The Holy Spirit is preparing a people in our "wooden hut" who will be heard of on the battle-field where Satan is having things very much in his own way.

THE HEALINGS of the week have been numerous and especially among the children. Many answers to prayer for persons at a distance are also reported.

In our next issue we will give full reports of two great Praise and Testimony Meetings held in Zion Tabernacle on Lord's Day, Oct. 28th. His Name is "Wonderful," and so are His works—wonderful! wonderful! wonderful! How can we praise Him?

"Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

"Hear Him, ye deaf: His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ,
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come:
And leap, ye lame, for joy."

And they are doing all three in Zion Tabernacle. Praise be to God for ever and ever.

THE Divine Healing Homes are being greatly blessed. Homes No. 1 and 2 are quite full; and No. 3, which has just been opened as we go to press, was half filled the first day.

We did not have it ready a moment too soon. From all the States and from Canada, God's sick children are pouring in upon us; and they find Jesus is the Home Physician in these Homes which His love has provided. Our new Home is beautiful within and without, and we are happy to see how happy Christ's guests are within its walls. May it be a very Bethany and Bethesda as the others have been and are.

LET our readers within reach remember our Thanksgiving-Reception as announced on page 159 of this issue. We want as many as can to visit the three Homes and Zion Publishing House on that afternoon from 3 to 5, and to be present at the Thanksgiving Service in Zion Tabernacle at night. "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US"

THE CHRISTIAN SOLDIER.

BY JAMES MONTGOMERY.

"SERVANT of God! well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."
The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear:
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
He fell, but felt no fear.

Tranquil amidst alarms,
It found him in the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield;
His sword was in his hand,
Still warm with recent fight,
Ready that moment at command,
Through rock and steel to smite

It was a two-edged blade
Of heavenly temper keen,
And double were the wounds it made,
Where'er it smote between:
'Twas death to sin; 'twas life
To all that mourned for sin;
It kindled and it silenced strife,
Made war and peace within.

Oft with its fiery force,
His arm had quelled the foe,
And laid, resistless in his course,
The alien-armies low;
Bent on such glorious toils,
The world to him was loss;
Yet all his trophies, all his spoils,
He hung upon the cross.

At midnight came the cry,
"To meet thy God prepare."
He awoke, and caught his Captain's eye,
Then strong in faith and prayer,
His spirit with a bound,
Burst its encumbering clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
A darken'd ruin lay.

The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
Soldier of Christ! well done;
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

THE DRAMA. HEATHEN, ANTI-CHRISTIAN, IMMORAL.

From Two Lectures on THE DRAMA, THE PRESS AND THE PULPIT, delivered by THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, in the Victoria Theatre, Sydney, N. S. W., on Lord's Days, March 16th and 23rd, 1879.

SECOND LECTURE.

I continue to-night the subject of last Sabbath evening, and, as I then took a portion of the inspired Word of God for our direction, I will again invite your attention to another portion of the sacred Scriptures, in the first epistle to the Corinthians 15: 33,34, "Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not: for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame." Read also verse 32 to get the connection.

The word translated "communications" may be equally, if not better rendered "associations," and the words translated "good manners" may in like fashion be translated with equal appropriateness, "useful, wise, or good habits." The 33rd verse would then read, "Be not deceived; evil associations corrupt good habits."

And then in the 34th verse that expression, "awake to righteousness," in the original is a very emphatic rendering, which can scarcely be done in English. It would read something like this if it could be done, "sober out rightly"—that is it, "sober out rightly, and sin not: for some are ignorant of God, I speak this to your shame."

You will see what use bye and bye can be made of this text. Meanwhile I take it, and place it in the front of all I say this evening, believing I shall be able to justify the application of it in the fullest sense of the words to the associations of the Drama, not only as they now exist, but as they have always existed.

It seems to me that it will be wise for me to-night to go back a little, and remind those who are present of the course of our argument in our last address, and those who were not here may get, in some degree at least, the drift of that argument.

I have shown then in my previous lecture that the ignorance which the Pulpit and the Press have hitherto displayed in this city on this subject, has been most extreme.

And now we turn to consider for ourselves the Drama as it was, as it is, and our rightful attitude as Christians towards it.

What is the origin of the Drama?

It is not to be found in the Hebrew literature of any period, and it is not to be found in the whole range of Eastern literature, previous to its connection with Greece.

It is absurd to talk, as some have done, of the book of Job as a drama. It is a dramatic poem; but it is not a drama, with a stage chorus, with players in disguises taking unnatural parts, and all the necessary attention to details of construction, so as to fit it for the "business" of a theater.

And who would dare to say that the book of Job was ever written, that man might make it a play, to be acted upon the boards of a theater? Who would dare to call it a drama in the sense of a drama for the stage?

For whom did God intend the part which he takes in that strange story, and who would in these days dare to represent by the aid of stage carpenters, theatrical costumes, and gas-lights, the unspeakable glories of the Heavenly Court, at which "the sons of God, came to present themselves before the Lord?"

It must be ignorance that talks like that! An inspired dramatic poem is one thing, a dramatic work for production on the stage, is essentially another.

Now when, and where, and wherefore, did the Drama originate?

Every authority that I have been able to consult is agreed that the Drama proper had no existence prior to about 600 years before Christ, and that "it is to Greece alone that we must look for the invention of the Drama." Before that period, it is true that, at the great festivals, there were recitations by poets of verses recounting the "glorious" deeds of gods and heroes. But these poems were not dramas, they were rather songs, sometimes choral songs, in praise, generally, of particular divinities. From these poems or songs the Drama arose.

Arion, about 580 B. C., and Phrynicus, in 512 B. C., still further carried out the design of Arion; and Epicharmus, about 485 B. C., produced comedies, and introduced numerous actors, whom he had trained himself. But it is not until the time of Æschylos, whose plays we have already considered, that Greek tragedy properly begins; and it is from that period the Drama proper originates, so that its birthplace was Athens.

The enquiry, however, as to the "wherefore" is by far the most important, and to that I have recently given a considerable degree of attention: for therein lies the whole question as to the capabilities of the Drama. No stream can rise higher than its source; and we are on the safe ground in estimating the purity of a river's waters, when we analyze these waters at the fountain head.

The original purpose and character, therefore, of the Drama will, when ascertained, enable us to speak with some confidence as to its essential nature.

Now, I here deliberately make the assertion, that the Drama was originated entirely as a principal portion of heathen worship; and that, in consequence, it is impure in thought, debasing in morals, productive only of evil, destructive of social order, and dishonoring to God from its very origin.

If this can be proved, the way is perfectly clear to enable us to form a more correct estimate of the Modern Drama than we could by merely comparing conflicting statements as to its present condition. Knowing the stream at its sources, we shall be sure of its true nature, by whatever specious names it may be called, wherever it flows.

I shall ask one of the highest, if not the very highest authorities respecting Greek literature, Mr. George Grote, F. R. S., to come forward, and give us his dispassionate account of its origin.

You will find he treats this subject at great length in chapter 57 of his History of Greece; and it is most suggestive to note the circumstance in connection with which he branches off from his main work to write concerning the philosophical and literary character of that particular age.

That circumstance was "the trial, condemnation, and execution of Socrates," perhaps the greatest thinker of ancient Greece, and one whose philosophy has exerted an influence only second to the inspired Scriptures upon the best writers and thinkers of every age since his death. His influence upon Plato and Aristotle, who were his pupils, was of the most marked character, and indeed the principal works of the former are those wonderful dialogues wherein Socrates is represented as taking the principal part—that dialogue called the Phædro, on "The Immortality of the Soul," is of the sublimest and most convincing nature.

Now, why was Socrates put to death? Mr. Grote answers,—"The state of dramatic literature will be seen to be one of the causes directly contributing to the fate of Socrates." And there cannot be the shadow of a doubt, but that the plays of Aristophanes very largely brought about his destruction, because his teaching was too noble for the base conceptions of men and gods upon which the Drama was founded. So we see, that, like its infamous author, the Drama was "a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in [it]."

Mr. Grote then says (vol. 8. p. 119), "the tragic drama belonged essentially to the festivals in honour of the god Dion- ysus; being originally a chorus sung in his honour, to which were successively superadded—first, an Iambic monologue,—next, a dialogue with two actors,—lastly, a regular plot with three actors, and the chorus itself interwoven with the scene. Its subjects were from the beginning, and always continued to be, persons either divine or heroic, above the level of historical life, and borrowed from what was called the mythical past."

Then I shall bring another recognized authority, Mr. J. W. Donaldson, B. A., the author of a most learned work on "The Theatre of the Greeks."

Writing in his introductory chapter "On the origin of Dramatic Exhibitions, in general" he says,—"The dramatic art especially wherever it has existed has always been connected in its origin with the religious rites of a polytheism, and, generally, with those of an elementary worship. That such was the case with the Greek Dramas we shall see presently; the same is stated of the Indian plays, and the mummeries and mysteries of the middle ages were not very different, either in their origin or in their character. True it is that the Drama of modern Europe contains little or no 'religion,' This, however, is no argument against its 'religious' origin."

Again, the learned author of the article "Drama" in Chambers' Encyclopædia, says, "There can be no doubt that the origin of the Drama is to be sought for in the enthusiasm attendant upon the worship of the god Bacchus."

Here then, we see a general agreement, that the origin of the Drama is entirely heathen, and is chiefly connected with the basest form of heathenism, the worship of the god of drunkenness, who was called Dionysus by the Greeks, and Bacchus by the Latins.

In my previous lecture, I gave you an outline of the Bacchæ of Euripides, a play composed in honor of that god, which set before you clearly the abominable character of the worship of Bacchus during the fifth century before Christ.

That worship was most abominable and shamelessly indecent—so obscene indeed, that it is impossible to enter into minute details of even the things which are known concerning it. The orgies carried on became so dangerous, that they had to be suppressed at last in Rome, with the utmost severity, by the Senate, and the account which Livy gives of them is most disgusting and repulsive. Nor were they in earlier ages ever pure or good.

It will be sufficient, if I bring forward but one authority to support my assertions regarding that heathen form of worship, at which the Drama originated, and of which it was a part.

Dr. Leonard Schmitz, in his able article "Dionysia," in Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities, has entered fully into the nature of these festivals in honor of the god Dionysus or Bacchus. I will quote a few passages, which are by no means the worst that could be spoken of that awfully degrading worship. He says, (p. 413.)—"At a very early period of Grecian history, Bacchic festivals were solemnized with human sacrifices, and traces of this custom are discernible until very late. In Chios this custom was superseded by another, according to which the Bacchæ were obliged to eat the raw pieces of flesh of the victim which were distributed among them." Again, in regard to these festivals in Rome, he writes,—"The initiated indulged in the coarsest excesses and the most unnatural vices. . . . All modesty was set aside. But the crimes did not remain confined to these meetings: their consequences were manifest in all directions; for false witnesses, forgeries, false wills, and denunciations proceeded from this focus of crime. Poison and assassination were carried on under the cover of the society. . . . It was a principle of the society to hold every ordinance of god or nature in contempt. . . . Men who refused to take part in the crimes of these orgies, were frequently thrown into dark caverns and despatched, while the perpetrators declared they had been carried off by the gods." And, referring again to the earliest periods of Bacchanalian worship in Greece, Dr.

Schmitz tells us of horrid practices, and obscene customs observed then; and St. Augustine, writing so late as the fifth century of the Christian era, (The City of God, Book 7: 21), gives us an account of precisely similar wickednesses being observed, as acts of worship, in many parts of Italy in his own time. You will see, therefore, that in every age these horrid festivals of Bacchus were abominable in the extreme.

The whole secret of these vices may be found summed up in Dr. Schmitz's words, "Drunkenness . . . was common to all Dionysiac festivals. . . . The indulgence in drinking was considered by the Greeks as a duty of gratitude which they owed to the giver of the vine; hence in some places it was thought a crime to remain sober at the DIONYSIA."

And now, my friends, let me ask you, what good thing can you expect to find in the Drama which had its origin in connection with such a form of worship as this, when every one present "thought it a crime to remain sober," when "every ordinance of God and nature was held in contempt," when filthiest vices and cruel murders were considered rightful associations—I say again not "what good can you expect to find;" but what evil will you not find arising quite naturally from the Drama, which was born more diseased and foul than words can express?

I should imagine that it is only people who get most "religiously" drunk, like the ancient Greeks—and I have known not a few such persons—who could see any good in the Ancient Drama, after becoming acquainted with these facts.

That it was connected with these rites, and originated from them, is beyond dispute.

I have not stated merely my own opinions, but the testimonies of the highest authorities; and I have dealt in this matter not with fancies, but with historic and provable facts, which are beyond all question.

That then is the origin of the Drama. It originated in the desires of the sensual worshippers of the god of drunkenness.

And can you wonder that ever since, it has been connected with that base worship?

Venus, and Bacchus, and the Drama are, in a trinity of deviltry, destroying this city, and I for one shall not hesitate to say it.

There is a story told by Plutarch in his life of Solon, one of "the seven sages" of Greece, who flourished in the sixth century before Christ, the time when Drama had its origin, which is very suggestive of the effect which he wisely prophesied dramatic performances would have upon the people, and he lived to see his prophecy fulfilled. Plutarch says,—"Solon, who was always willing to hear and to learn, and in his old age more inclined to anything that might divert and entertain, particularly to music and good fellowship, went to see Thespis himself exhibit, the custom of the ancient poets was. When the play was done, he called to Thespis, and asked him, If he was not ashamed to tell so many lies, before so great an assembly? Thespis answered, It was no great matter if he spoke or acted so in jest. To which Solon replied, striking the ground violently with his staff, If we encourage such jesting as this, we shall quickly find it in our contracts and agreements."

And verily the prophecy has been fulfilled with a vengeance in these days of ours when the Drama has so much power. Many people seem to make such things as truth and honesty, self-denial and mutual helpfulness, matters for jest rather than for practice. There seems to be little disgrace attached to falsehood, so long as the lie is successful, in business and in political life—aye, and throughout life generally. We may trace much of this to the unashamed way with which crowds of people every night flock to the theatres, to hear and see lies performed for several hours. Living in this manner, truth becomes hateful to them, and so they carry the jesting and untruthfulness quite easily into all kinds of contracts and agreements, even into the marriage contract only too often, upon the purity of which depends our place and work as a people.

Remember my friends the warning of our Christian poet,—

"He that hates truth shall be the dupe of lies;
 "And he that will be cheated to the last,
 "Delusions strong as hell shall bind him fast."

Having examined at considerable length the origin of the ancient Drama, I do not need to deal very largely with its later history.

It is admitted on all sides that, during the period of the Roman Empire, not to speak of the Roman Republic, the Drama was very generally despised. During a considerable portion, indeed, of the Roman Republic it was prohibited, and in the time of Julius Cæsar and later, and for a long time before, any person who was an actor, or connected with the Theatre, lost his rights as a citizen, and any person of noble birth, in any degree officially mixing up with it, became at once degraded. An instance of this is found when Cæsar, wishing to insult a certain senator, made him act upon the boards of a Theatre. The senator by-the-way took advantage of it to ridicule the administration of the government by Julius Cæsar. But though that senator was subsequently restored to his rank, the people of Rome would never look upon him as having his previous honour, and though he had been compelled to do this to save his life, yet so great was the detestation of theatrical performers, that he was never thereafter looked upon as a man fit to occupy a senatorial chair.

When the pagan Empire of Rome fell, and Christianity came fully upon the scene, we are met by a remarkable fact. The Drama, not in some part of it, not merely in comedy, not merely in what may be akin to opera, not merely in burlesque, but the Drama in every department of it, fell with the idols of the Roman Empire, and fell utterly.

The Drama never rose again until the sixteenth century of the Christian era.

And it only rose again in the west, because of the corruption of the Christian Church, which having become a revived form of paganism, most properly reverted to the vices connected with paganism.

A certain sort of "religious" Drama, therefore, was put upon the stage of the middle ages, consisting of miracle plays, and things of that kind, which prepared the way for the bringing in of the abominable Drama, which for wellnigh twelve centuries had almost disappeared from the earth,—I mean from western civilization.

The Drama did not dare to revive polytheism; for polytheism was dead in Europe. It came upon the stage, therefore, not any longer to degrade God in the same way that it had done in ancient times; but to minister still to the lowest passions of men, and to degrade God by destroying and defiling His creatures.

Hence arose the Drama in Italy, and it crossed, after a struggle, to Great Britain. It did not appear in America until the year 1752, so slow was its progress.

What then, was the effect of the revival of the Drama in Great Britain?

I do not hesitate to say, that nine-tenths of the social corruption and degradation of the United Kingdom, at the present day, is as much traceable to the Drama, as it is to any other one cause.

So abominable was the Drama in England, during the reign of the Stuarts, that the puritans were backed by the voice of the nation in crying, shame upon it; and when Oliver Cromwell rose, it was crushed for the time being, but crushed by military power, and that always provokes reaction: for the sword has never yet settled any question or quarrel.

When Charles the Second came to the throne, then it was that the Drama really revived in England. And what was the result of that? I do not hesitate to affirm as historical truth, provable by any man who will at all attentively examine the question, that the worst national evils with which we have to cope to-day, received an intensity of power through the revival of the Drama in the reign of Charles the Second. Subsequent changes of dynasty, and careful, progressive legislation have done much to minimize these evils, yet they are still eating like a cancer into the heart of the British Empire, and a brief reference to the Drama of two centuries ago, and of the present day, will prove this.

Nell Gwynne, a prostitute of the streets of London, born in base circumstances, if not of base birth, appeared upon the stage, and, in the very presence of the insulted Queen of England, she was publicly commended by that dissolute monarch, Charles the Second.

She, as publicly, subsequently appeared at Whitehall, and, to the unutterable shame of the monarch, she became the vile paramour of that wretched being. And from her, and another theatrical harlot, sprung two ducal families, with many branches, who own much of the people's land, and monopolize the honours which rightfully belong to the men who have made England what it is, and not to the illegitimate offspring of a dissolute King. In consequence of that shameful example, many of the aristocracy of England, and the people generally, began to imitate their monarch, and this theater-born lust spread through every class of society, until England was filled with the most horrid debaucheries.

The first fruits then of this fully revived Drama was to produce a Nell Gwynne, and to hinder the progress, and facilitate in every way the degradation of England.

From that time to this, the Drama has been most intimately connected with what has been called the "governing class" of England, and the consequent degradation of that class, despite brilliant exceptions, has become very great. Even lately, to prove to you that the Drama has not changed its power over Royal princes, and that the Ethiopic aristocrat has not changed his skin, the newspapers have given publicity to the alleged fact, that the Heir apparent to the throne of England has defiled and disgraced the name of man, much less of prince, by vile association, or by vile approbation, of one of the low play-actresses of the Parisian Theater, who performed in certain plays which were so indecent that the Lord Chamberlain, the British censor of theaters, would not allow them to be introduced upon the London stage.

It is, therefore, evident that the Drama of to-day is essentially a lineal descendant of the Drama of the days of Charles the Second. May God forbid that the like consequences should follow.

And now, I have to say of the Modern Drama, that from its very constitution it is essentially immoral, and that scenes of lust, drunkenness and crime are inseparably connected with it. Is that provable?

I will appeal to dramatic authors, to dramatic performers, and to the indisputable facts which surround us for the proof.

I take, first of all, the testimony of Dumas, the famous French author, whose plays are being acted to-day throughout Europe and America.

In replying to one of his critics, he has recently given a very clear statement as to the character of the Modern Drama.

This critic wrote to him that he was exceedingly sorry that his plays were, despite their genius, so immoral and so vile that he could not take his daughter to the theater to see them performed.

Dumas replied:—"You would not take your daughter to see the play? You are right. But let me say, once for all, that you must not take your daughter to the theater. It is not merely the work that is immoral, it is the play. Whenever we paint man, there must be a grossness which cannot be placed before the eyes, and whenever the theater is elevated and loyal, it can only be by using all the colors of truth. The theater being the picture or the satire of social manners, it must ever be immoral, the passions and social manners being themselves immoral."

And Dumas is right as to the fact that, if the Drama is to hold the mirror up to human nature as it is chiefly manifested in the predominant habits of modern society, then it must reflect villainy, hypocrisy, and uncleanness to a very large extent.

But it is precisely the opposite which should be done. Instead of fixing thousands of mirrors around scenes of vice, so as to increase their debasing effects, everything should be done to suppress vice, and not to display it for the entertainment and imitation of the giddy crowds, who have an outrageous appetite for lies and impurity.

There, however, you have in these words of Dumas, a candid confession as to the principles which guide modern dramatic authors; and he is but one of many who have made similar confessions, besides which I believe I can without fear of contradiction say, that the most successful dramatic authors of this century have depended chiefly for the interest of their works upon the grossest immorality.

If these then are the principles which guide the creators of the Drama, is it to be wondered at that the effects are beyond contradiction most lamentably unclean, and dangerous to society?

But I shall turn from play-writers to play-actors; and among the most reputable performers of the present day, it will be admitted that Macready stands in the first rank.

And what does he say? Writing of the stage after he retired to Sherbourne, England, he says:—"None of my children, with my consent, under any pretence, shall ever enter the theater, nor shall they have any visiting connections with play-actors and actresses." And do you think Macready would debar his children from what was good? Does not his denunciation prove that his experience had proved the theater to be bad?

But why does such a man put off this confession until he has got all he could from the stage, and has retired from it?

He reminds me of a little child who, when it was getting dark at night, came to her mother very affectionately, and said, "I love you very much." And then she got round her mamma, and got her to forgive all her little faults; and when everything was put right she went to bed. But presently the little thing said, "Ma, do you know why it is that I came to you just now?" "No dear." "Oh," she said, "I always become good when it is getting dark: for then I get afraid when I think of the naughty things I have done."

Yes, and though Macready's old age testimony is good, yet I had rather fifty times that a man would be good in the light, and manhood, and strength of his life, than be good "when it comes dark." When days are dark, when man has spent the strength of his manhood in consciously doing evil, it is the meanest of things to give the dregs of life to God, and try to cheat the devil by coming to God in the last hours of life.

Young men, do not I beseech you contemplate this abominable course. Live to God now.

"I would not come when I am old
Presenting unto God a withered life,
A heart whose energies are waxing cold,
And powers unmeet for noblest strife."

"Now in the blushing morn of youth,
Help me, O Christ, my little all to give,
To consecrate my every force to Truth,
And live supremely while I live."

Besides Macready, I might quote many actors of eminence, who have denounced the theater,—indeed it may be said that their numbers are legion.

Many managers of theaters bear similar testimony. In fact the manager of a theater, I will not say in what city, and I will not say under what circumstances, made a most damaging assertion to me with the utmost gravity, and with a pained sincerity that I knew sprung from real conviction of the truth of what he was saying. I was speaking to him about the Drama generally, and remarked,—“I suppose your actors are by no means all bad; some of your stars, for instance, as you call them, are really, I suppose, often people of good life?” “Well,” he said, “I thought much of so-and-so, naming a distinguished actor and actress, “but I don't know what to say now.” “But this I will say to you sir,—If you ask me where I am to find behind the scenes a woman in whose virtue, in whose personal purity, I have confidence, sir, though I have been many years director of a theater, I do not know, I am sorry to say, where I would be sure to find her.”

I was grieved beyond expression, I had not thought that such a statement could be made by a man in a position such as this gentleman occupied.

And, let me here say, I do not want you to connect that statement with any man's name: for you are most likely to be wrong in your suppositions. I connect it with no name and implicate no one. It might have happened in a remote place just as easily as in Sydney. But, if you have any curiosity to gather similar testimony in that matter, you have only to refer to Alfred Bunn's, "Before and behind the Curtain," the work of a man who was for many years director of Drury Lane, Covent Garden, and other London theaters, and there you will get more than confirmation for what that manager stated to me.

Do not, however, let my repetition of that sad statement cause you to imagine that I have any personal antagonism to such persons as players, etc. I am conscious of the fullest desire to set down naught in malice. For myself I can have none.

God knows that it is the thought of my heart when I say,—If there be a man or woman in this theater tonight who has sometime acted on these or on other boards, let me tell thee that I would as soon grasp thy hand and say a kindly word of manly, brotherly sympathy, as I would grasp the hand of any man or woman in this city. If there be any that need such sympathy as man can give, it is you my brother, you my sister, who have fallen into the toils of the destroyer, and have become a professional fool to please a set of fools.

And now, I propose, that ere I close these lectures, we shall consider two questions, which will enable me to summarize the conclusions fairly to be derived from the facts and arguments which I have laid before you.

These questions are,—

1. What do we consider the Drama to have been?
2. Can the Drama be purified or restored?

In answering the first of these questions, I submit that we have already proved three things concerning the Drama, namely,—

1. The Drama has never been pure.
2. The Drama has been a destructive element always.
3. The Drama has been condemned by its own history.

It would be useless for me to further argue just now with those who, notwithstanding the facts advanced in proof of these conclusions, deny their truth. Unless the facts differ from my representation, the conclusions are logically indisputable.

And, as to the first, I only say that I will immediately recant this, as publicly as I state it, if any man can give to me proof of, or in any public way show me, a single year in which the Drama has been pure.

Then, as to the second. Will anyone tell me what it has constructed? I have heard some persons say, that the plays of Shakespeare have constructed a great national sentiment in England, and imparted a sound knowledge of English history to the great body of the people in all Anglo-Saxon lands.

Now, as pieces of literature, I have a profound admiration for Shakespeare's work, as what man has not who values genius?

But I am bound to say, that in my opinion there is very little grandeur in the "national sentiment" of England at the present time, and the want of it, and the presence of so much bullying and blustering in England to-day, is in no small degree due to the glorification of foreign wars to be found in Shakespeare's plays. And as for English history being taught by Shakespeare, it is all nonsense and clap trap. You might as well, from a few scraps of distorted fact, sit down and evolve a history of England out of your own unaided imagination, as take your history from Shakespeare. His characters are nearly all imaginative creations in the main, and he has not written a single play which is historically correct.

They are mostly romances built upon romances; and Shakespeare no more believed them to be correct history than does that very ingenious and elegant weaver of historical deceptions in this city, Dr. Vaughan, Roman Catholic Archbishop, believe in his inventions, when he from time to time spins an elegant, rhetorical, historical essay upon the dignity, purity, infallibility, etc., of Papalism, for the purpose of imposing upon the ignorant multitudes whom he systematically deceives. The difference however is here, that Shakespeare produced his as romances, but Dr. Vaughan pretends that his romances are facts. However, Dr. Vaughan apart, Shakespeare's plays can not rightly be held to teach history.

No, the Drama has never elevated the national sentiment, but degraded it often. It has also in every direction been a destructive agent of all that is best in religion and in morals.

And as to the third conclusion, I claim to have proved, that from its origin until now, the Drama has been condemned by its own history. It is condemned by its own best exponents. It is condemned by those who have to deal with it from day to day. Some have approved it, even as they have approved the wine-cup which has been digging their graves, and destroying their honour. But whilst the actual facts of its history condemn it, it is idle to talk mere false unsupported sentiment as to the good it has done. Who can produce the good results? No one. We can, and have, set before you the evil results recorded in its history.

And now we come to the second question which I proposed that we should consider—namely,—Can the Drama be purified or restored?

How can you, I say first of all, make pure that which is essentially impure? How can you restore that which is essentially corrupt?

Look, I have a glass of clear water here in my hand. I believe it is good water and I will drink it on faith—I do a great many things on faith—and I shall not imagine for a moment that anybody has put poison into it. But somebody comes up here now, and says, "Wait a minute, Mr. Dowie, before you drink it, I have something here which I should like to put in the water. See, here it is, sir, a nice little paper, with just the smallest pinch of arsenic in it, about the quarter of a teaspoonful. Do you object to my putting it in?" "Oh, no," I reply. He does put it in, and then hands the glass to me, saying,—“Drink this now, sir?” “No indeed, no indeed!” I reply. “But why,” asks this gentleman, “nine hundred and ninety-nine parts of what is in that glass are pure water, and I only put ever so small a pinch of arsenic in it, which you cannot even see now.” “No matter,” I answer, “although I cannot detect the arsenic in the water, I know it is there; and, although the water is 999 to 1, the poison which you dissolved in it is so powerful, that it would be certain death to drink it. The arsenic has permeated the whole water, and rendered it impure and deadly. If I drink, I die.”

That glass of poisoned water represents the Drama.

I do not say that there are no noble sentiments uttered from the stage of the theatre, to say that would be simply absurd. The devil is far too great a master of his very ancient profession of telling lies, not to know that he must mingle a good deal of truth, if the lie is to go down. And, therefore, we have minute, choice pickings from the Drama, stolen jewels from nobler treasuries of thought, which the Drama has misappropriated. And when these are exhibited, we are proudly asked, “Is not that noble? Is not that grand? Is not that majestic?” We have gentlemen flooding the papers with literary productions, which are a crude abortion, somewhere between Shakespeare, and Dion Boucicault, Thomas Carlyle, Ruskin, and I don't know who, telling us in tones of thunder that the Drama is an “elevating” thing. Yes, perhaps it is from their point of view. I also know a good many “elevating” things which are very bad things: for instance, I have been told that whiskey, brandy, etc., are very “elevating,” though I have no personal experience of their exalting power. I am sceptical about the fact, however: for I have seen persons who were said to be thus “elevated,” lying in the gutter in a very degraded position.

There are a good many “elevating” things belonging to Bacchus, which I intend to spend my life in trying to bring down from the thrones which they usurp—and the Drama is one.

In God's name, I say to the Drama. Thou whited sepulchre, come down! Thou hast a countenance outwardly beautiful, as that of the fairest woman; but thou hast also, like the destroying Sphinx, in Grecian fable, the claws of a vulture, the body of a lion, the soul of a liar, and the bosom of a seducer. Would God the earth were quickly, and forever, rid of thee.

Now, since you cannot purify or restore the Drama, what should be done with it?

First of all, I say to all Christians whom my voice can reach, entirely discountenance it, and never imagine that you can have any rightful compromise with it. The Divine word, which is your law-book has said, “Abstain from all appearance of evil.” Or, if you prefer it, you may translate the instruction, “Abstain from every form of evil.” For if you want to be divine, in the sense that God can make you the “partaker of the divine nature,” thou shalt have to be clean from the polluted touch of the Drama. There can be no question that it is a “form of evil” entirely opposed to the kingdom of God.

And as for compromise, let me say, I never heard of a Christian compromise that was not a lie—and, remember, I am speaking from the Christian's standpoint entirely for the moment. Whoever may compromise with evil, my brother, my sister, you and I cannot. We stand in a position where we proclaim that we will have no compromise with sin. We are followers of Him who came, not to mitigate, but to destroy the works of the devil.” Ah! there is a great deal of the spirit of compromise among some Christians, which savours of a certain kind of piety of which I heard among certain American negroes, though I will not guarantee the story. “Pompey,” said one professing Christian negro to another, “I have been greatly tempted.” “Yes, what was it by, Sam?” “I have been greatly tempted to steal; but I have been delivered. I compromised the matter.” “How did you do it, Sam?” “Well, I was in a store, and I reckon I saw a pair of boots there, the finest I ever saw in my life; and I thought I better have those boots. But my Christian profession and conscience said, No that would be stealing, that would be doing a great sin. Ah, but they were the most elegant pair of boots you ever saw, Pompey.” “Well, what did you do, Sam?” “I compromised the matter; I took a shabby pair.”

That is in effect the result of all Christian compromise,—it ends in the commission of some sin.

'Tis with these as Cowper has written,—

'Renounce the world' ! the preacher cries,
'We do,' a multitude replies,
While one as innocent regards
A snug and friendly game at cards,
And one, whatever you may say,
Can see no evil in a play.
Revelled and loved, renounced and followed,
Thus bit by bit the world is swallowed;
Each thinks his neighbour makes too free.
Yet likes a slice as well as he;
With sophistry their sauce they sweeten,
Till quite from snout to tail 'tis eaten.

I tell you this, my fellow-men, I would rather be an infidel to-day, standing out and saying the whole thing was a sham and a lie, than I would be like some of these men, who profess a Christianity which they make no serious attempt to practice, and who are the curse of the Church, and the greatest hindrance to the conversion of the world.

Seeing now, therefore, that the Drama cannot be purified, and that it is impossible to restore a thing that never was good, some other way of dealing with it must be found.—

The way to improve a nuisance, is to abolish it—to improve it off the earth as speedily as possible; and that is the only right way to deal with the Drama, which has proved itself to be a public nuisance and danger. I would improve it off the face of the earth, and say to it,—Begone! thou hast a bad origin; thou hast had a bad history, thou art corrupt utterly; God has no part in thee; thou vile thing, sprung from the devil and nursed by sin, get thee into the darkness from whence thou hast come; begone, begone, and let this world quickly see the last of thee!

And how is it to be done? Now, first of all, rest assured that it shall be done. I will not live to see it, perhaps; but I will tell you how it is going to be done,—Christ will do it by a purified people: for He "came to destroy the works of the devil." As one then of His disciples, how do I propose to set about this work?

Would I begin by pulling down this theater? No. It is about the best place in which to speak in the city. Yet if I could lead the host of God tomorrow, I would sweep down upon these theaters, and, in the name of God, I would consecrate to His service every stage, and in the name of God consecrate their green-rooms, and in the name of God consecrate every part of them. Pay fairly every penny of the money for them, and then take possession in the name of the Lord God Almighty. Make them places where true Christian joy shall ring, where God shall be owned, where man shall be happy, where women shall get purity, and where iniquity, and the sad misery that are the consequence of the Drama, shall never, never, never again appear.

Young men, I am glad to see so many of you to-night, and to you I desire to address myself especially ere I close.

I say to you, young men, Be men in this matter. Take up a firm attitude of resistance to the numerous forms of evil, of which the Theater is only one, which would drag you down, and bind you in fetters of lust, in dungeons of despair. Tread these down, or they will tread you down in the mire.

"All thoughts of ill; all evil deeds,
That have their root in thoughts of ill;
Whatever hinders or impedes
The action of the noble will;—

All these must first be trampled down
Beneath our feet if we would gain
In the bright fields of fair renown
The right of eminent domain."

Do not sell your birthright in the heavens for a mess of pottage on earth. I have read that some one has recently said that you must have amusement such as the theater alone affords. An assertion is no reason. I think there are scores of employments for your time, which will afford you real and pure joy and leave no poison sting behind.

There are few bigotries like that of the pleasure seeker, who considers every one to be his enemy who will not eat from his unclean dish. There is "No blinder bigot, I maintain it still,

Than he who must have pleasure, come what will.

* * * * *
He finds the modish manners of the day,
Though loose, as harmless as an infant's play.

Young men, if our city is to be truly great, you must make it so.

Greatness is only great, when it is good, not merely when it is rich.

Good men make a great city, and of such it may be said as was said of the citizens of ancient Sparta, its men were its walls. Goodness is a better fortress than forty-ton guns can make. Wealth has often destroyed, but Virtue has always built up a great people.

"Ill fares the land, to hastening ills a prey,
Where wealth accumulates but men decay."

I have read somewhere a story, which is somewhat as follows:

On one occasion a student came to the eminent and wise Christian philosopher, Philip De-Neri, a well known friend of young men, who lived at Rome, in the sixteenth century.

The young man laid before the philosopher his plans, and sought for advice.

De-Neri said, "Well, suppose you succeed in your studies, and finish your course with honour—What then?" The young man replied, with eager interest, how he was determined, by industry and good conduct, to endeavor to attain some position of usefulness in the land.

And, "What then?" was still the question of the philosopher. Again the ambitious youth replied, setting forth the possibilities of high renown and honour which might be his, if he were able and wise now. And "What then?" Oh, then, he would live to a green old age, and in, perhaps, a well earned retirement and position of comfort and ease, spend the rest of his life amid the respect and love of a devoted family and kind friends. And, "What then?" still repeated De-Neri.

After a long pause, the young man solemnly replied, "And then, I suppose, I must die."

And, "What then?" rang out the yet more solemn question. But to this there was no reply.

Then kindly, tenderly, and firmly the good old man reviewed the young man's eager, and, if kept in a subordinate place, not unwise aims and methods of attaining man's favor, and a good earthly inheritance; but he also showed him how he was providing for things which only "might be," since he could not assure himself of either health, or wealth, or life itself, whilst he was neglecting to provide for death or judgment, which "must be."

Oh, then, I say to each of you, remember thou hast to stand before thy God. And What then? What then? Then thou shalt be required to give an account of the deeds done in thy body—thou shalt give an account too of this night.

Now thou mayest choose the "better part," and find in thy Lord the "one thing needful" to make thy life pure, beautiful, and true. With the Lord there is mercy to forgive, there is power to save. He can keep thy feet from falling. Thou dost need a Saviour, and thou shalt find Him in Jesus alone—called JESUS: for He shall save His people from their sins." And He is willing to save thee from thine.

How shall I persuade thee of His love? Let me entreat thee to seek to know its power, and the joy of its presence in thine heart. This God's Spirit can alone impart. Then, when thou hast the Comforter within, thou shalt be blessed indeed. Purer joys, holier employments, glorious prospects will then unfold before thee even in this life, and lead thee to the unspeakable glories of the sinless life beyond.

Thou shalt not so much as think then of the poor, sickly, gas-light pleasures of the Drama. Temptations lose their power, when the Holy Spirit possesses the heart.

I stand to-night before you, pleading with you as an ambassador for Christ, but, ere long, this body must decay, these lips moulder in the dust, and this tongue lie silent in the grave,—What then? Oh, then, I must stand before my God, and give account of these opportunities He has given me. And I want to say in that day, that I warned thee of thy danger, and pointed thee to "the way everlasting," to Christ who alone can save thee. Do not then reject the condescension of thy God's forgiving love. It is like no other love. He welcomes thee without reproaches, and blesses thee without limit.

"Kind hearts are here, yet would the tenderest one
Have limits to its mercy,—God has none;
But man's forgiveness may be true and sweet,
But yet he stoops to give it; more complete.
Is love that lays forgiveness at thy feet,
And pleads with thee to raise it; only God
Means crowned, not vanquished, when He says,
'Forgiven.'"

Behold, even now, how He stoops to conquer thy heart, to forgive thy sins, to heal thy heart-sickening sorrows, to redeem thy life from destruction, and to crown thee with loving kindness, and tender mercy. Do not spurn such love and such priceless treasures. Do not turn to "evil associations" of any kind.

Seek to "acquaint thyself with God, and be at peace." "Peace with God!" What blessing can be sweeter? This quiet of the soul is the divinest gift. He who has it, craves for no higher bliss. "Seek, and ye shall find" it to your eternal joy.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"BLESSED be the Lord, there hath not failed one word of all His good promise."

We are sometimes asked as to the permanence of some of the wonderful works of God narrated in these pages. In No. 2 of this new series of LEAVES OF HEALING, pages 19, 20 and 21, we gave the details of the healing of Mrs. S. A. Kelley, of San Francisco, Cal. She had suffered from hereditary consumption for twenty-five years, and was in a dying condition when we prayed with and laid hands upon her in the Name of the Lord. Lord's Day, Oct. 28th, was the sixth anniversary of her healing, and on that day she wrote the following letter which tells its own beautiful story. It proves not only the truth of God's declaration "I am the Lord that healeth thee;" but the faithfulness of the promise "The Lord is THY KEEPER."

314 EDDY ST., SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
October 28, 1894.

DEAR BROTHER AND SISTER DOWIE:

This is the sixth anniversary of that never-to-be-forgotten day when our Lord graciously returned my life at the voice of your strong crying, even after, to all appearance, it had passed death's portal. That was on Lord's Day even as this is, and now after the lapse of these years, my testimony is that I have never known such health and endurance as at present. To God be all the glory. Had I been aware of your intention to publish my testimony, soon enough, would have added that of the physician, Dr. H. E. Wilson, of Chester, Mass., who attended me steadily three years in the east and accompanied me on the perilous journey across the continent a year before you saw me. As you know, I made a short visit east last year, and when this physician saw me, he could hardly believe it possible that it was I, so great was the change. I asked if he remembered the condition of my lungs when he left me in California? He replied that he did so perfectly. I then asked him to examine them and tell me how he found them. He did so very carefully and sat back and looked at me in silence for a full minute before speaking as follows: (I quote his exact words). "I can hardly believe the evidence of my own senses. This is contrary to all known therapeutics. When I left you in California six years ago, the upper portion of each lung was nil—now the tissue is fully restored and except slight adhesions here and there which will never give you any trouble, your lungs are as sound as if they had never been diseased. A miracle has been wrought. This is none other than the work of God. Let us thank Him for it." He also said that the heart was sound. I had often wondered whether the two remnants of lungs were doing such excellent service, or if the Lord had indeed made them anew, but had not had them examined since the healing and it seemed eminently fitting that the physician who knew the case so fully, should be the one to examine them. In view of the wonderful things that God had wrought for me, my sense of responsibility to Him increases and I realize how fully this "life more abundant" that Christ constantly supplies, should be devoted to His service. We on this coast who know the Lord as Healer do rejoice unspcakably in the glorious work He is accomplishing by your instrumentality, in the region where He has planted you, and we do pray earnestly that the good work may increase and multiply.

THURSDAY Nov. 8 1894.

The very fact that duties, calls and cares have so pressed upon me that I have not found a moment's leisure for finishing the letter commenced eleven days ago, is a strong testimony to the blessed healing and keeping power of my Lord. I was interrupted Sunday evening when writing the foregoing sheet, by a call from two sisters-in-law, Bowser by name, whose relative, 140 miles from Chicago, had read my testimony in the "LEAVES" and had written to one of them asking her to call and see if it were really so and if she answered him affirmatively, he purposed taking his wife, an otherwise hopeless invalid, to your Home in Chicago. You will readily believe that I assured them that "the half had not been told" in the "LEAVES" and that I recommended her friend to go to you at once.

Not the least of the comfort of my well body is the fact that God used me graciously last year, as the instrument for the restoration to health of my dear mother who was given up to die of consumption, and I now have her with me, well and happy. To God be all the glory now and forever. The whole family desire to be remembered in love to you and yours, May the richest of blessing be yours now and always.

Yours in our Lord.

S. A. KELLEY.

LYING beside this letter are many others of a similar kind from many cities in this and other lands where we have ministered. Yes, God's people may trust Him with confidence, for preservation from sickness, if they obey His commands.

"Behold He that keepeth Israel Shall neither slumber nor sleep."

ZION TABERNACLE overflows with blessing, and it is seldom there is room enough to contain the throngs who are coming to "the wooden hut" from all parts of the continent. We have just had a letter from one who is coming from Iquique, Chili, and there are a number in our Homes from Canada—points far north and south, in fact, on either side of the equator.

Another letter to-day from Trenton, New Jersey, tells of how the writer has been led to seek the Lord for healing by the testimony of a fellow passenger on board an Atlantic steamer who was returning from Europe, and who had been blessed in Zion Tabernacle.

How we marvel at God's wondrous grace.

That Carnival of Lust and Exhibition of Folly, the World's Fair, has passed away. The Parliament of Religions with all its pretentiousness has ended, like the Fair, in smoke and mounds of rubbish. But Zion Tabernacle, the despised, is shining for God, and bringing pilgrims of hope to its humble doors, past which the unthinking crowd swept with a sneer last year. Surely we have proved God's promise true.

"They that trust in the Lord
Are as mount Zion
Which cannot be moved,
But abideth forever."

THE THREE DIVINE HEALING HOMES are being much used of God. Home No. 3 has been almost filled with guests, although only opened a week ago to-day. We hope to give a picture of it in our next issue.

Many healings are taking place in Home No. 1, at our Special Assemblies there three times in each week. On Tuesday week last, 20th inst., Ina Estes, a little girl of seven, came to the Home with her mother from Plainwell, Michigan. —She had been paralyzed from three months old in her right leg, wore a steel brace, and her leg was three inches shorter than the other. In three days her legs were exactly equal, the brace laid aside, and she walks to and from the Tabernacle Meetings and runs up and down stairs just like any child of her age. Miss Lucy Oldenburg of Madison, Wisconsin, sixteen years of age, came to us with a plaster of Paris jacket on, and a distorted spine, etc. The jacket was removed, and the young lady has returned to her home apparently straight, and perfectly well. Mr. Blackburn, of Cairo, Illinois, last Wednesday evening left his bed, full of pain, and came into the Assembly Room. In a moment he was set free in the presence of all, and went home the following day rejoicing in Christ as his Saviour and Healer. But this Note would swell into a volume if we were to attempt to describe the blessings of the week.

God's broad seal of approval is on the Divine Healing Homes, and we say to our friends everywhere.

"O magnify the Lord with me,
And let us exalt His name together."

SEVERAL ministers and a doctor are among those who have returned to their distant homes rejoicing.

One of these, the Rev. James W. James, of Richwood, Ohio, left his farewell in the following metrical form:

God bless Doctor Dowie and grant Him long life,
God bless Sister Dowie, the Doctor's good wife.
And may He bless also, their daughter and son,
May each ever merit the Master's "Well done,"
I am a great debtor to Doctor for light,
In wisdom he taught me to seek God aright.
God's way I know better than ever before,
Henceforth I will love Him each day more and more.

J. W. JAMES.

A DOCTOR from the same state, Ohio, who came to us in an almost dying condition, suffering from tuberculosis of lungs and stomach, found a clear salvation and a large measure of healing, in the Home, and on leaving wrote:—"I do thank God for what He has done for me. The peace which I enjoy gives me the sweet assurance that I am an accepted child of God. I am gaining in faith day by day, and I pray many times daily for the Lord to give me more, and teach me how to get it. I love God's word, and delight in it as I never did before. There is not a doubt in my mind but what I am on the right road."

VERY interesting letters reach us from ministers, students and Sunday-school teachers showing us that God is using the teaching and testimony in Zion Tabernacle and in LEAVES OF HEALING. A theological student, in Chicago University who has been a physician and also a pastor, writes for himself and others. After a very important personal communication he says:—"It seems to me that if you were able to devote more time to giving special training to young ministers, they might take up the work in various places, and much more could be done. There are a few of us at the University who are doing all in our power, through God's help, to spread the news of the wonderful work God is doing through your Mission here, and in disseminating the teachings of Divine Healing. Nothing can shake my determination.

I shall preach the whole gospel. You have my heartiest sympathy and earnest prayers. I am anxious for my fellow students at the University. Can you find or take time to give us an address at some time in the future," etc.

WE praise God that He is setting before us an Open Door in this city, and that, as the above letter proves, Chicago University is finding its way to Zion Tabernacle—the great new school of learning is finding something in "the wooden hut" which cannot be learned amidst its stately stone piles.

OF course we are considering our brother's request; but at present cannot see our way to make the necessary arrangements. We think something might be done about the Christmas holidays, or, God willing, early in the New Year, as to special gatherings for ministers and students. Meanwhile, we should like to hear from those who would be disposed to attend Special Lectures, as to the most suitable time for such. Ministers and students in churches and seminaries at a distance have begun to make enquiries, and we wish to appoint a time and times suitable to all, if possible.

THE following letter from a Sunday school teacher is another illustration of how the thoughts of many hearts amongst the young are turning to Zion Tabernacle.

414 SCHOOL STREET, CHICAGO, ILL.

November 22, 1894.

REV. DR. DOWIE.

DEAR SIR: I am teaching a Sunday school class on the north side, and occasionally during the lesson the subject of healing by faith has come up. I mentioned your work to the class, and they became interested in it and expressed their wish to go out and hear you, also to see for themselves. So I promised to take them; that is my reason for writing to you.

Will you please let me know by next Saturday, day after to-morrow, when will be our best time to come so as to get the most good out of it, as it is quite a distance over there, and, as I am to stand the expense, I want them to learn all they can while there. Any time after next week will do. We did intend to come on Sunday afternoon, but I thought by writing to you that you could tell me just when would be the best time to come. Hoping to hear from you by Saturday I will close. There will be about 16 of us come, so let me know the time the doors open so we can get there in time to get a good seat and oblige,

Yours Respectfully,

F. J. LAMB.

AND then—most wonderful to relate—the editors are beginning to set their faces Zionward. Last Lord's Day morning, the editors of two papers—one from Dayton, Ohio, the other from Indianapolis, Indiana—were kind enough to seek introduction to us after the service. They expressed their delight at having been present, etc., and said they would write as they spoke. Another editor from Michigan writes this week to say he is coming, and may bring his wife for healing, etc. Who shall say that Divine Healing is not making progress, when even the scribes are coming?

BUT the priests—most wonderful of all—have come also, priests of the Romish Church, and out of eight recently interviewed by a convert from that Church, six spoke kindly of us, and several said they had been present at the meetings in Zion Tabernacle, "in citizen's clothes," as she expressed it. Oh, for the time when, as related in Acts 6: 7, "a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith." Yes, and that good time is coming, "the Time of the Restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began." And when that time comes it will be preceded by "Times of Refreshing from the presence of the Lord."

"Lord Jesus, come quickly."

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US."

CONFESSION AND TESTIMONY OF A BURGLAR AND SAFE-BLOWER.

CHRISt was crucified between two thieves. One of them prayed in the hour of his dying agonies, 'Lord, remember me when thou comest into Thy Kingdom;' and the Lord replied, 'Verily I say unto thee to-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.'" And so the King of Kings and Lord of Lords who died to save sinners, carried the penitent thief triumphantly to the abodes of glory, and set him down amidst angels and archangels and the hosts of the redeemed. How amazing God's compassion! What depths of mercy, what heights of glory—stooping so low and lifting so high. And all the joy of heaven bursts forth when the miracle of love and grace is accomplished.

Looking upon the engraving "Captured from the Enemy," which is on the last page of this issue, our readers will see, on the right side of the picture, between two pairs of crutches, a revolver, burglar's "jimmy," and certain ingenious attachments and drills for "safe-blowing" purposes. These are referred to in the Confession which follows, and which speaks for itself.

We may say that more than three years have passed away since the confession was written, and that we have baptized the writer, his wife, his brother and companion in crime. His family, his brothers, and a number of persons with whom they were associated, have been for some time members of the Church, and have been living consistent and useful lives. He is a very skillful workman, and has been earning a considerable as foreman of a Department; a large manufactory in Chicago.

We read this confession publicly shortly after receiving it; but for good and sufficient reasons, we have kept it back until now. But we believe God will bless its publication now, and we can withhold it no longer.

"Why should the wonders God hath wrought
Be lost in silence and forgot?"

CHICAGO, ILL., March 26th, 1892.

TO THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—

No words can express the gratitude which I feel in my heart to our Father in Heaven, who for Jesus' sake has pardoned my many sins and rescued me from a criminal career which could only have ended in a shameful way, perhaps a murderer's grave. I know that by the grace of God I am saved.

My heart is changed so entirely that I scarcely know myself, and my whole life and thoughts and wishes are so entirely different from what they were a year ago, at which time I was living upon the proceeds of successful robbery and planning new crimes, one of which was indeed the crime of murder in revenge for what I considered to be a great wrong. O how wonderful is that salvation, and how condescending God is, that in His infinite mercy He should have stooped to rescue one so deeply dyed in sin of every kind.

I know I am led by the Holy Spirit to make this confession to you and to write it in order that you may use it in any way that you think will promote the glory of God and perhaps the rescue of such an one as I have been.

THE STORY OF MY LIFE

up to June of last year is one of crime and shame. Until then from my fifth year I had been a thief, and I do not know that there was a single day in all these years that I was free from the desire to steal, and scarcely a week in all that time that I did not steal several times, and yet strange to say, in all this long career of thirty years, I was only arrested once.

I was born in the state of Indiana thirty-six years ago, and I regret to say that my first lesson in crime was taught to me by my own father. I was only five years of age when he took me with him to a place where he stole a barrel of cider, and I, while he was so engaged, filled my pockets with the apples that were lying around. From that day I was a thief. I remember well the following Sabbath day going to Sabbath School and when my teacher asked us for the verses of scripture which we repeated to her, I said I had one. When she asked me then to repeat it I said that I had forgotten it, but I had learned it and wanted the card. The fact was that I had learned no verse and that I told a lie simply because I coveted the card. From that day I was a liar. It seems to me that all my life through until my conversion last year, those two words, a thief and a liar, would cover all my life, and from these two things, the desire to steal and the readiness to lie, all my other crimes proceeded. I had a good mother who tried to teach me to be a Christian, but all in vain. The evil spirits had possession of my heart and I was completely under the dominion of sinful and lustful passions. I ran away from school and associated myself with bad boys in the country district where I was born. I became an increasingly bad boy between the ages of six and twelve, at which age I learned to chew, and smoke, and drink, and lie, and steal everything that I could lay my hands upon. When a mere boy I formed a gang of youths to rob a wealthy man's house. We laid our plans with the utmost care, and knowing that we would be likely to meet with resistance, we went to the house, each armed with a club and a revolver, and masked. As we had expected the old gentleman was alarmed, but before he had time to use his fire-arms we had bound and silenced him. Then his family was awakened and rushed to his rescue, but the members of my gang secured them one by one except a powerful daughter who rushed past me to her father and whom I struck upon the head with my club. I feel that blow in my heart to-day. I thank God that she was not seriously injured, but I feel that first blow that I struck in robbery now more keenly than at any time, notwithstanding I have confessed it to God and I believe been forgiven. This was my first house-breaking, and we stole the old man's horses and wagon and drove as fast as they could carry us a distance up to the railway line, when we broke into a place and took a hand-car which we worked on the line until we reached a neighboring city and we were lost among the people. The robbery was successful and we divided the spoils. I was only a lad at that time, but I became at once a full-fledged burglar, although as I have already stated I had been a petty thief all my life from my childhood.

It would be impossible for me to give you a detailed account of the many years of my criminal career. Suffice it to say that I became an expert in the making of burglar's tools, and for years was associated especially with two others. We became safe-blowers, that is as you understand, robbers of safes, using tools which I had invented, and dynamite when necessary to open the safes with. I give you my last box of dynamite with this confession and a number of burglar's tools which I had constructed with great care and had used successfully with my confederates. At the time of my conversion we had become so expert in the use of these tools that we had planned a very extensive bank robbery and had every prospect of success, but our plans were all destroyed by the goodness of God. You will see from the tools which I hand you that they have often been used and are made of the finest, strongest steel. The dynamite which I give you I used to obtain in similar packages to this from confederates in the east who sent it by express, the express companies little knowing what the boxes contained. The two sticks of dynamite which I give you in this box would be sufficient to be used eight or ten times in safe-blowing. I also hand you a Smith-Wesson revolver which belonged to one of my confederates in crime, who, in another state some years ago killed a policeman with it. A strange fascination has induced me to keep this weapon which came into my possession after his death, he having been killed shortly after his crime whilst engaged in an attempted robbery. But his untimely end did not turn myself and my other confederate from our career. I associated myself with a number of other criminals and continued my robberies. I occupied in a certain city in the states a good position in a public institution where I was a systematic thief, the superintendent of which incurred my wicked anger because he rightfully dismissed me from the position in which, although he knew it not, I was robbing him. My heart burned with anger against this man and I swore a great oath that I would murder him. I planned to do so and went on one occasion to commit the crime, but was graciously frustrated by God in my murderous intention. I have since my conversion confessed to this good man and have returned to the utmost of my power all that I stole from him. I have also given up all the proceeds of my robberies so far as they remained in my possession and have made confessions to those whom I have robbed, and it is the desire of my heart to live and make as far as possible restitution for these wrongs, although that will be utterly impossible in many cases. Some have since died and the multitude of my crimes is too great almost for me to remember.

I thank God that throughout the whole of this long career of crime I never shed any man's blood, although I have often been in heart a murderer, and have threatened many, standing frequently over the victims of our robberies with two revolvers in my hands. The marvel is that I have not been a murderer, and yet there is a sense in which I have been guilty of blood, for I have aided my wife in the destruction of our unborn children, and that awful crime of blood guiltiness rested upon our hearts until the blood of Christ cleansed it away. Throughout the long years also I have been guilty of many other sins, living a profligate and vicious life, steeped in every form of iniquity, associating with the vilest often times, and pursuing the wicked courses suggested by an unbridled lust and a depraved and wicked heart. It seems impossible that from all this I could have been rescued, but such is the amazing fact, and I have told this story of my crimes with the utmost pain, simply that I might show the great depths out of which God has taken me. And now I turn from it to tell

THE STORY OF MY SALVATION.

In May of last year a Christian lady induced me to go and hear you speak. You were then conducting a Mission in the old Fourth Baptist Church, Washington Boulevard, Chicago. With other confederates I was at this time maturing plans for an extensive bank robbery. I had not been inside of a church for eleven years, and only two or three times at the most for about ten years previously. The very idea of my going to church seemed absurd. The things that I had heard concerning you had awakened my curiosity and interest to no ordinary degree, and I thank God that ever in His infinite mercy He led me to hear you preach. Up to that time I had never believed that there were any good men or women in the world, save my own mother, and one man whom I believed to be a thorough Christian and whom I almost worshiped; but when I heard you speak I felt that for the first time in my life the voice of God had reached my heart. I went away from that meeting with the strangest feelings that I had ever had in my life. I was awakened and there dawned upon me a sense of my awful depravity and degradation. Your cutting words also concerning tobacco made a deep impression upon me. By some irresistible power,—it must have been God's, I was compelled to go again and again to hear you preach. I remember one evening when walking slowly from my house alone I had a specially fine cigar in my pocket. My fingers closed upon it to take it out and smoke it, when the words that you had spoken concerning tobacco and its filthiness made me put it back in my pocket again. Then the appetite for it returned with full force and I said I did not care if he did say that and I would smoke. Thereupon I took it out again, but I could not smoke it and I crushed it in my hand as if it had been a viper and said: "I will never touch the filthy stuff again." This seemed to be the turning point, for very soon after I went forward and knelt among the penitent and sought mercy; and O, how graciously the Lord revealed Himself to me. "He took me up out of the horrible pit and out of the miry clay, and He set my feet upon a rock," the Rock Christ Jesus. All my thoughts, and desires were instantaneously changed. I loathed my past. The instinct for stealing which even when I first went to the church made me to desire to steal there, was all taken away. The desire for smoking, chewing, drinking and sinning, and the fascination for crime was all taken away. I loathed my past with an unutterable loathing and looked down to the abyss from which I had been rescued with a nameless dread, but I looked up with thankfulness, for it was into the face of a reconciled God. The Holy Spirit came into my heart and has ever led me since. I could not describe what has followed with any language that would not seem exaggeration. I can only praise God that ever I heard you preach the gospel of salvation and healing and cleansing power through faith in Jesus. It proved to be the power of God to my salvation. My home was transformed; my wife was converted; some of my companions in crime have been also converted, and when I heard you tell the story and show the burglar's implements of one who was converted in that same Mission, I felt an irresistible desire to tell you my story and to hand you my implements. It was a strange and wonderful thing that two such men as we should have been converted in that Mission, and yet it was God's own way, for that very man was one of my companions in crime. We have both sought to lead our old companions to Christ and we trust not without some blessing.

Ten months have now passed away since my conversion and I have been working honestly for my bread every day of that time. I have, as I have already stated, given up all the proceeds of my robberies, and if it would be for the glory of God and the good of man, I would give myself up to suffer the consequences of my crimes. I am willing to do so, but since the law of man has only for its objects the punishment of the criminal, the protection of society, and the restoration of the criminal to an honest life, I feel that all these three have been effected by God. Society is protected from my depredations by the grace of God having changed my heart; the proceeds of my robberies have been given up as far as possible, and I am working with a view to repay in many cases where the wrong has been very great, and no prisons or discipline could effect the reformation in me which has already been wrought by the Holy Spirit. I feel also that if I were to go to prison I should simply leave my wife and young family who need me as their bread winner, to be scattered, and the good work that is now being done in my home, perhaps to be destroyed. Still I am willing to surrender myself to justice if that would be for the glory of God. I would rather go to prison than to hell. But I thank God I know my sins are all forgiven and that I am by His grace, on my way to heaven. You know the condition of my family and you know how wonderfully God has answered prayer for us when we have been sick, and how we have been kept by the power of God.

And now, dear man of God, I have written these things believing that in your hands they may be used for God. I have put the dynamite, the burglar's tools and the revolver into your hands to be added to the burglar's tools given by my confederate in crime, and I have resolved to spend my whole life now in serving my Lord. "Old things are all passed away; all things have become new;" the things I loved, I hate. I have no desire for the things which were sweet to me as life and for which I often hazarded my life. I am now a new creature in Christ Jesus. I give God all the glory. I praise my Saviour and my Healer every day, and ere we eat in the morning my family gathers with me around the mercy seat. We read a few verses of scripture and have prayer, and so at night. My home is happy; our hearts are glad, and I thank you as the instrument in God's hands through whom all this has come to pass. May He use you to His glory in increasing measure every where, and may I be kept faithful by His gracious Spirit's power.

I do not append my name to this for you know the writer and know where I live and have told me that you did not wish it, but I will subscribe myself as

ONE OF THE CHIEFEST OF SINNERS

SAVED BY THE GRACE OF GOD.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON THE AFTERNOON OF LORD'S DAY, OCTOBER 28th, 1894.

A large audience assembled, and every foot of standing room was occupied. Hundreds stood for hours, around the doors and windows, and a large overflow meeting was conducted in the Healing Room, where many of the Witnesses who could not get into the Tabernacle, testified to their healing. The proceedings began by the singing of hymn 4.

"Praise Him! praise Him! Jesus, our blessed Redeemer!

Sing, O earth—His wonderful love proclaim!"

Dr. Dowie said: We will read beginning at the eighth verse of the forty-third chapter of Isaiah.

IT IS A WONDERFUL PROPHECY CONCERNING DIVINE HEALING
TESTIMONY IN THE LATTER DAYS.

If any apology should be required for holding a Praise and Testimony Meeting, all I have to say is these (Dr. Dowie indicating with his hand, the large company of persons around him on the platform, and for some distance around, who were prepared to testify to their healing) are all the apology I have to offer.

"Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears, Let all the nations be gathered together."

We have many of the nations here in this meeting by their representatives. I will ask all the Germans here to hold up their hands. (Quite a number held up their hands).

Dr. Dowie found there were English, Scotch, Irish, Swedes, Danes, Norwegians, Bohemians, Poles, Austrians, Hungarians, French, Italians, etc., and "that composite called the American."

Dr. Dowie continued, I am glad to see we have many of the nations here. I see we have a good many of them. I did not mention, perhaps, a number of them that are here.

"And let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things?"

Folks say, "Now, these New Testament miracles you read about are nineteen centuries old. Who can shew us former things?" The same things are done to-day that were done nineteen centuries ago. The same God; the same promises; why not the same fulfillment?

"Let them bring forth their witnesses"

Here are God's witnesses on the platform and the front seats, and that is not a tithe of a tithe.

"That they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, it is truth. Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me."

Not only to know but to believe. Many people know about God, but do not trust God.

"And understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no Saviour."

There is no Saviour but God Himself; when there was no eye to pity and no hand to save, His eye pitied, His right arm brought forth salvation. In all their affliction He was afflicted; the angel of His presence saved them; in His love and in His pity He saved them, He redeemed them and bore them, and carried them all the days of old.

GOD IS WORKING.

"I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no strange God among you: therefore, ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God. Yea, before the day was, I am He; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work and who will turn it back?"

Now we are glad to-day to meet you. Not only has God said, "I will work," but we rejoice to be able to tell you to-day that God is working. "I will work. Who will turn it back?" Early this year when we definitely determined to establish our headquarters in Chicago, I said in the Central Music Hall to many thousands of people, "Divine Healing has come to stay. Take a note of it." (Some one in audience: "Praise the Lord.") Divine Healing has come to stay. You have got to reckon with it; and some said, "Well, we will see." Now the year has rolled on, spring has passed, summer has passed, the harvest has passed and many thousands have been saved and healed. I do not exaggerate. You know, who have been attending Zion Tabernacle, that it has been a common thing to see in the course of a week, well-nigh two thousand persons stand and confess their sins and call upon God for mercy. If there was not a single person healed I should be glad, for my ministry is the ministry of Salvation first and Healing next. The ministry of the gospel must follow the methods of our Lord Jesus. God does not begin with the skin; He does not feel the pulse and work upon you from the outside;

GOD WORKS FROM THE CENTER TO THE CIRCUMFERENCE, and not from the circumference to the center. God works in the spirit first by His Spirit, and through the spiritual work within the spirit of man He works upon the soul and then upon the body. All that has been wrought in these many meetings has been wrought "in the Power of the Spirit," moving, first, upon the spiritual nature and then, when the heart has been surrendered to God, healing the body. So we want to say we are glad, glad that God has been working and we want to give Him all the glory.

WE HAVE NOT DONE ANYTHING.

There is no danger of our ever being proud about our part in this work, because our part in this work is such as will ever keep us humble. God could have used any other agent who had been willing to be used, who had placed himself in God's hands for the necessary preparation, and who had been willing to go forth and boldly proclaim it in the teeth of prejudice, of mocking ignorance, of ecclesiastical hatred, of intolerant bigotry, of false accusations countless as the sands. It requires special training and gifts of Divine Grace to prepare such an agent. A man is more than an "instrument;" he is an agent, an active, willing agent; and as such I have been willing to let God do His will, and I have never taken the glory. "Thine, O Lord, is the kingdom and the power and the glory." There is no one in Zion Tabernacle to-day who is going to tell you that I healed him. I will ask this large audience and everyone within reach of my voice this question, Have you ever heard me say I ever healed anyone? (Cries of "No! No! No!") Have you ever read a word from my pen in which I said I ever healed anyone? ("No! No! No!") Those who say I make such assumptions express simply their own ignorance or their wicked and malignant untruthfulness. I suppose for the most part it is gross ignorance; but no one has any right to say that I make any such claim for I never did. I have been used in this ministry to thousands and tens of thousands since 1876, for eighteen years, and in many lands, but I would just as soon say that I had saved somebody as that I had healed them. I do thank God that He has used me but I want you to know that God has all the glory, and no one has a deeper sense of his own personal unworthiness, but for the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, than I have in this matter. Let that be sufficient for persona declarations on that point.

THESE ARE GOD'S WITNESSES

and God is working, and these are but the early days of this work by which God is gradually preparing a mighty movement showing that the atoning sacrifice of Christ and the redemption which He purchased by His blood extends not only to our spirits, but to our souls and bodies. ("Amen"). And that He is the Saviour of the body; that He is the same yesterday, to-day and forever and therefore is the same Healer. ("Amen"). May God be glorified. A great change will come over much of the preaching, much of the praying, much of the teaching; and I venture to prophesy that the people of God will demand in the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ that the minister shall know how to pray more than how to preach. ("Amen"). How to pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick. Any man who has got brains and a vocabulary and natural powers can dip his pipe into a bowl of intellectual soap-suds and then before admiring audiences produce metaphor after metaphor while the people gape and say, "How brilliant, how beautiful!" as bubble after bubble bursts before them, and when it is over they go away saying it was brilliant but it was empty. The time has come for the ministers of God to LOAD UP WITH BUCKSHOT AND HIT SOMETHING.

The time has come when Satan's kingdom must be attacked by something more effectual than a tawdry, sentimental, so-called intellectual religion which has been compounded by a Parliament of Religions, consisting of Buddhism, Theosophy, Confucianism, Taoism, Mahommedanism, Judaism, Unitarianism, Romanism, Zoroastrianism, Hinduism, Jainism, Shintoism, and Brahmanism. All the "religious" muck of Asia and Europe has recently been dumped down on the lake front here in Chicago, and theological rag pickers have been fossicking amidst the foul smelling rubbish for a twentieth century religion. The time has come to say that the old time religion is the best religion. ("A voice, Praise the Lord, our minister has got some of it since I have been healed.") (Laughter and applause).

Song: " 'Tis the old time religion,
 'Tis the old time religion,
 'Tis the old time religion,
 And 'tis good enough for me."
 "It tells me Jesus saves me," etc.
 "It tells me Jesus heals me," etc.
 "It will take me safe to Heaven," etc.
 "It will be my joy in glory," etc.

There is a person somewhere, in fact there are quite a number of them, who say that our ministry is the devil's work. But what could you expect from a man who took part in the Babel tower-building schemes of the Parliament of Religions? Is the devil not a real kind old devil to go about healing the sick? My impression is that if that's the devil's work I should endeavour to receive him into full membership and ask to be permitted to shake hands with him. But that's not he, O no! The work here is God's work, and we still teach that "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil for God was with him." All the oppressions of sin and sickness that curse the earth to-day are the work of the devil still, and we are glad to know from hour to hour, from day to day, that God is blessing that teaching. It takes some time for the people to learn this, but the Lord is teaching His people and they are getting the results. We are thankful there are hundreds waiting here to-day to tell the story of their healing through faith in Jesus Presently I will stand aside and call for many of these witnesses. But I want to ask God first to save every unsaved and impenitent man and woman in this place and to do it now. That's my prayer. (Amen). And I have it answered in a very large measure every week. Come let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker." The Rev. S. J. Harrison then prayed, after which followed a

PRAYER BY DR. DOWIE.

Our God and Father, we feel at this moment that Thou dost impress it on our minds to utter Thy call to repentance. There are men and women here heartily sick and sorry for their sins; they are ashamed of their misspent lives, of their hypocrisies, of their professions that were false, of the lies they have told. They are ashamed to think of the things they have stolen, of the unclean lives they have lived, of the filthiness of their thoughts, of the unsatisfactory nature of their spending their money for that which was not bread, but upon filthy tobacco, and filthy drinks, filthy theater goings and filthy doings, filthy talking and filthy living. Many of them have erred against Thee in many ways, but we thank Thee, oh God, that we believe that the spirit of conviction has come upon them and they are sorry. Thou dost love them with an everlasting love, and dost want to save every one of them; so now thou dost command them to repent, to believe the Gospel, and Thou dost invite every one that is a sinful man or woman and who knows it, to be honest and stand up boldly, and give himself to Thee and say, "I will arise and go to my Father, saying unto Him, 'Father, I have sinned.' May they do this for Jesus' sake.

THE CALL TO REPENTANCE.

In Jesus' name, I therefore ask every man and woman in this audience, who is conscious of sin and who desires to be freed from sin, to stand to their feet now. All who feel the weight of sin on their hearts now in any way; stand up, whether professed church members or not. Let all seek God who truly repent.

Over 500 persons stood up in a moment—many weeping.

QUESTIONS TO THE PENITENTS.

Brothers and sisters standing on your feet, do you say I hate sin? Can you say I do?

Answer:—(I do).

Do you desire to be free from all sin?

Answer:—(I do).

Will you by God's grace promise here in the presence of God's people, that you will do right to those you have wronged, that you will restore anything that is not yours, that you will confess to those whom you have sinned against, and do right in God's sight to the extent of your power? Can you say, "By the grace of God I will?"

Answer:—(By the grace of God I will).

Then pray:—[The penitents with one voice repeated the following prayer, clause by clause, as Dr. Dowie spoke it].

My God and Father, I come to thee. I hate my sin. I confess my sin and I beseech Thee to forgive my sin. Help me to do right to those I have wronged, to restore and to confess. For Jesus' sake, the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world, take away my sin. Make me in spirit, and in soul, and in body to be Thine. Give me Thy Holy Spirit; give me power to do right. For Jesus' sake. Amen.
 Dr. Dowie—Did you mean every word of that prayer from your heart?

Answer—(We did).

Then God says to every contrite heart that "if the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thought and turn to the Lord, He will have mercy upon him and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." I cannot doubt, therefore, that God has forgiven you if you have truly repented. May God bless you.

Hymn— "Sing them over again to me,
 Wonderful words of life."

INVOCATION.

Dr. Dowie said:—"Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, oh Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer. Let our hearts and the testimony of our lives confirm the words that shall be spoken this afternoon. Give the hearing ear, the understanding heart, the honest and unprejudiced mind to all who hear, that the Name of Jesus may be glorified, and through the report of these meetings today may multitudes be blessed in every land beneath the sun, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM.

"A little child shall lead them." Now I ask you to look at th's child; you cannot see her down there so I will put her up here on the piano. I never did know what this piano was sent for until now. (Dr. Dowie then placed the child on the piano, her mother standing by her side). If I were to get all the children that have been healed together here, they would crowd you out, because the sick children alone of one meeting would crowd you out. Often we have five hundred sick children on Thursday—Children's Day—and their parents make five hundred more.

RESTORATION OF A CHILD TOTALLY DEAF FOR THREE YEARS.

Now, Mrs. Corley, tell this audience what the name of this child is.

"Cora."

Where do you live?

"1334 Wolfland St., Chicago."

Please to tell the audience in plain language the story of this child's sickness, when it began, what doctors attended her, how the Lord healed her. Begin first with the story of her sickness.

"Three years ago last August she was taken sick with what the doctors called black Scarlet Fever. She was blind for two weeks and speechless for six weeks. The doctor said the child would die, but she did not die."

That's all they knew about it.

"But the ears started to run until the bones, and after them the drums, fell out. Of course, without drums in her ears she was entirely deaf and I had for her some of the best doctors. I had her at the Foreign Medical Institute; do not know the names of the doctors. I had Dr. Fall of north Clark St.; after that Dr. Fisk performed a very serious operation on her behind the ears. They took away the dead bones to keep those there fresh; after that the bones began to come out of the nose and she had abscesses all around her neck."

How many bones were taken out of her nose?

"Seven bones two weeks before I came here; in all twelve."

What was the condition of the nose then?

"The inside of the nose was as red as a piece of beef steak, and below was always red from the discharge of the nose, the puss."

She was perfectly deaf. How many years perfectly deaf?

"Three years."

You brought her here when?

"I do not remember the months, think it was three months ago."

With what results?

"I had been using a very strong solution for the ears and nose. The nose and ears had to be washed in pure alcohol, for those raw ears. The child would pound her head for pain, and the people would leave the house when I treated her, every time, and would tell me I had a very hard heart. She would pound her head with pain, but the doctors told me I had to do it. When I came here I asked Dr. Dowie what I had better do, to continue or leave that alone. He advised me to take only lukewarm water and cleanse them."

What is the condition now?

"She can hear, and goes to the public school, and I do not think there is a healthier child in Chicago to-day, than that child."

She is all right.

People in audience: "Praise the Lord." (Much emotion and considerable applause).

Dr. Dowie:—Now I will test her hearing in your presence. Now Cora, what is your name?

"Cora Corley."

Say after me, God is love; God is good, Twenty-one; Forty-two; One thousand; Be a good girl.

The child standing in front of the doctor repeated each sentence without hesitation.

Applause, Amens, Hallelujahs, etc., from the people.

(The report of this meeting will be continued in our next issue.)

INSTANTANEOUS HEALING OF THIRTEEN YEARS' LAMENESS.

MRS. RODENBECK, of Foley Street, Alameda, said: "I am thankful to stand here to-night and testify for the Saviour. He gloriously saved me in the latter part of October, 1888. I came to the Grand Opera House Mission unsaved, and on crutches. I suffered from rheumatism; and I had lost the use of my instep for thirteen years. I got the use of my instep immediately after prayer and the laying on of hands, and I can walk around without difficulty. Through the teaching of Mr. Dowie I received this, and God has gloriously healed me and keeps me. I have never used the crutches from the moment I was healed. The limb healed was a little shorter than the other, and it commenced to improve at once, and has now become like the other one."—Our Second Year's Harvest.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOL. 1. NO. 12. NEW SERIES.

CHICAGO, NOV. 30, 1894.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

A THANKSGIVING IN ZION.

EVERY DAY WILL I BLESS THEE" should be the happy Thanksgiving Song of the Redeemed—then would they have three hundred and sixty-five Thanksgiving Days in the year.

It is a good thing for a nation to give thanks unto the Lord and to set apart at least one day in the year for that purpose. It is also an excellent occasion for Christians who work together in their Master's service to rejoice together in victories won, difficulties overcome and in the prospects of still greater future toils and triumphs.

Not far from one thousand of our brothers and sisters in Christ attended our Thanksgiving Day Reception and evening service yesterday. Beginning at Divine Healing Home No. 1, where we received them with our family, our friends made the tour between 3 and 5 P. M. of the three Homes and of Zion Publishing House.

Many returned to their homes, and many proceeded to Zion Tabernacle, where they had refreshment for the body and soul, and food for the spirit, in a very happy evening meeting. Many kind gifts were presented to us for the work, some of them by little children and some by those who were lying last year upon beds of hopeless sickness and pain.

Our guests in the Homes made them beautiful with rare and costly flowers and pure bright green smilax; but made them still more beautiful by the grace and kindness with which they received our hundreds of visitors as they passed through the Homes.

Many were the expressions of wonder and delight of these friends at the bright appearance of the Homes where there was not a single guest confined to bed, although some of them had been carried in on cots only a few days before.

"Where are the sick people?" was a frequent question, and it was pleasant to see the happy glow on the guests faces as they replied.

Zion Publishing House was in charge of our friend and brother Mr. James Inglis, assisted by a little band of volunteer ushers, and our entire staff.

All the machinery was set in motion, and the visitors saw compositors at their "cases," galleys of type "alive" and "dead" in printer's language, "imposing stones," a dynamo and bath for electro-typing, planers, black-leaders, moulder, furnace for melting type-metal, etc., etc. Amidst the whirring sounds of our highly polished engine and presses, the visitors were safely guided through the maze of belts and overhead pulleys and shafts, and saw the various processes of printing this paper, and of preserving its pages by the electrotype processes for future use.

cutting machinery were also the occasion of wonder and surprise.

As they passed through, souvenir cards from the plate which is used on first page, were printed in their presence and handed to each person, and the clever reproduction of our hand writing afforded much innocent enjoyment.

By that time all were ready to take some refreshment for the body in the parlors of Zion Tabernacle, and as they wended their way there, or to their homes, they rejoiced at some of the visible manifestations of what God had wrought within the year in raising up these beautiful Homes, and a place to produce LEAVES OF HEALING and other literature for the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Our Thanksgiving Service from 8 to 10 P. M. was one of earnest and happy memory, scores telling of the goodness of the Lord. Then we parted for a brief season, but ere we retired to rest, like Paul at Appii Forum long ago, we "thanked God and took courage."

"Lift your eyes, ye sons of light!
Zion's city is in sight:
There our endless home shall be,
There our Lord we soon shall see."

INSTANTANEOUS HEALING OF AN IMPOTENT PERSON WHO HAD NOT WALKED FOR FOUR YEARS.

MISS TRICKETT, Villamanta Street, Geelong, Australia, said: "I thank God for what He has done for me. I thank Him most for salvation, and next for healing. From quite a little infant, twelve months old, I have known what suffering is. I almost bled to death when I was twelve months old. I was a weak child up to my thirteenth year, when I had scarlet fever and brain fever, and my friends had no hopes of my recovery. Up to my seventeenth or eighteenth year I was weak in health, and next came a very serious illness—hydatis and enlargement of the liver. I also had severe fits of palpitation of the heart, and inflammation of the liver and kidneys. All these diseases prostrated me. For about four years I was a confirmed invalid. I could neither stand nor sit, and nobody thought I would be able to stand again. I had no more power in my limbs than a little infant would have. When Dr. and Mrs. Dowie came to Geelong in October, 1884, my father and my physician (Dr. Robinson) were anxious that I should attend one of their meetings. I was wheeled in an invalid chair to the Mechanics' Institute Hall, on the first Friday of their Mission, but grew very weary and exhausted. Dr. Dowie asked me, after the meeting, if I believed the Lord could heal me? If I believed He was willing to heal me? If I believed He would heal me there and then? I answered "Yes" to the first two questions, but I burst into tears, and had to answer "No" to the third question. I was terribly exhausted. Dr. Dowie sent me home, and asked me to come again the next week, when he would again visit Geelong. By this time all my unbelief was swept away. At the meetings I got comfort and help. On Friday they said they would see me in my own home the next morning. By this time I fully believed that the Lord would heal me, and my sister's faith was as strong as my own. I had no fear, but calmly waited, and trusted in Jesus, and was full of expectancy. Dr. Dowie came, accompanied by Mrs. Dowie, prayed with me, and I was AT ONCE HEALED when he laid hands upon me. My back—I suffered from muscular paralysis of the spine—was HEALED INSTANTANEOUSLY. From that time my strength seemed to come hour by hour—every day I became stronger. In about a fortnight I walked a distance of two miles. I had a rest during the walk. One month after, I began to visit the sick. Up to the present time I have kept wonderfully well and strong. I visited the sick privately for about seventeen months, and then I was Bible woman in Geelong for eighteen months. I can walk great distances. I ought not to be the least nervous or afraid in justifying this afternoon. I have asked God to remove all fear from my heart.—From Second Year's Harvest.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing:

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING.

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON THE AFTERNOON OF LORD'S DAY, OCTOBER 28th, 1894.

A large audience assembled, and every foot of standing room was occupied. Hundreds stood for hours, around the doors and windows, and a large overflow meeting was conducted in the Healing Room, where many of the Witnesses who could not get into the Tabernacle, testified to their healing. The proceedings began by the singing of hymn 4.

RESTORATION OF SIGHT OF A LITTLE GIRL AFTER SIX AND A HALF YEARS' BLINDNESS IN LEFT EYE, EIGHT MONTHS BLINDNESS OF RIGHT EYE, AND THE HEALING OF DISEASE PRODUCING BLINDNESS.

Now I think we will have another little child. Don't you like to see children healed? Where is that little girl who was blind? [A lady came forward with her young daughter]. I will put her up here. [Placing her on the piano]. Tell this audience the name of this child.

"Mary Dowling."

Where does she live?

"953 Fifty-third St."

Please tell in Jesus' Name, and for His glory the story of this child's sickness and healing.

"She was a year and a half old. It was in the year 1887. She was taken with measles; was not very bad at the time. I thought it was only light. After she had the measles I went on a visit to Wisconsin. After going out there she was taken with a breaking out on the head, and eyes, and ears, and in fact all over her face. I brought her to one of the doctors there, Dr. Senn. He said it was change of air and water and she would be all right in time. I left her in his care for the winter."

That was seven years ago?

"Yes, in the spring he advised me to bring her back to Chicago to the Eye and Ear Infirmary; said if she could be helped at all it would be there. I did so. I came back to Chicago and put her in their care for six months. Finally they wanted to take out the pupil of the left eye and put an artificial pupil in, and in that way save the other, or they said she would be stone blind. I would not consent to that. They wanted to have my child's eye taken out. I took her to another doctor, a real kind old man. He said she would get all right; I do not know his name."

Somebody in audience: Speak louder.

Dr. Dowie: I expect you want healing in the ears. (Laughter).

"He helped her a little. When her eyes opened there was a covering, a milky covering. They got worse than ever. They were dried up with some more medicine and the covering got thicker. They kept on that way two years. Every little while they would break out. Last November she was taken with a terrible bad breaking out. They were running matter all the time so that her cheeks were a sore clear down to her chin from the way the matter ran on her face. I did not know what to do. They said the eye was all gone. Some said the eye was bursted, Dr. Bently for one, on Washington Street. He said, "Take her to a good oculist on Washington Street., Dr. Pontius." He said he could help her in a short while, but he did not say he could cure her. He said he would see after a time; but he kept on until July and she was only getting worse. Her eyes dried up for a while so we could see the cover on them, but she was not healed. In July we went to live on Fifty-third Street. I had been living on Archer Avenue. A lady living next door, who had been coming to this Tabernacle, asked me what was the matter with the little girl, and I told her just as I tell you. She said, "Why not take her to Dr. Dowie?" I told her I had heard of him, but I did not know where the place was. I have a slip in my pocket yet, containing the report of his meetings in Central Music Hall. She said he was on Sixty-second Street. She said, "If you will let me take her, I will take her there," and she did. That was the 12th of July. She took her on Children's Day. Dr. Dowie prayed with her and the next morning all the inflammation was gone. She was totally blind on the day that she was brought here."

Dr. Dowie: For how many years was she totally blind in the left eye?

"Six years and a half. She is now eight years old. The next morning the inflammation was all gone. This lady took her on a Thursday (Children's Day) and ever since I have been taking her myself. Now she is going to the public school and is in the second grade. She is now perfectly free from all disease in the eyes."

Dr. Dowie:—The way to do is to test that by giving her something to read in the presence of you all. She is only in the second grade, you must remember, and she has only begun to read lately. I will open the Bible anywhere in the gospel of St. John as it has small words. Read somewhere there. Begin at the beginning.

The child read:—"And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it and did eat before them." (Applause by the people, and much emotion).

I gave her John but she has turned to the last of Luke. Now what we want to demonstrate is this; This child was totally blind for six and a half years in the left eye. We will test the left eye alone and then the right eye. She is God's witness and witnesses must be examined in a proper manner.

Dr. Dowie then applied various tests, showing her objects at a distance, etc., and said, It must be clear to all that her sight is restored.

Mrs. Dowling said:—"She was totally blind in the left eye, and all she could see with the right was a shadow. She was blind to all practical purposes in both eyes, since last November of last year until July 12th of this, and six and a half years blind in the left eye.

HEALING OF A DISEASED LEG WHICH PROF. FENGER SAID MUST BE AMPUTATED.

Hymn: "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

Dr. Dowie said:—I will now introduce to you Miss Katie Keck, of 390 Second Ave., Aurora. All who have seen the LEAVES OF HEALING, of October 19th, will recognize this young lady. On July 14th last, Prof. Fenger, of the Mercy Hospital, was to have taken off her right leg. After many operations and long treatment by physicians in Aurora whose names are given in the testimony, she had been sent to the Mercy Hospital in this city. The story is told very fully in the LEAVES OF HEALING. Mr. Christian Thauer, of 2800 Fifth Avenue., asked me if I would go and see her. The doctor said it was cancer in the leg, and had gone clear down to the bone, he had taken out a large piece of flesh and scraped the bones, and this girl had the prospect, on July 14th, of losing her leg, and the certainty of losing her life, for Dr. Fenger said the operation would only be effectual a short time and she must die. She is standing here to-day on both her legs, (From the audience: Amen, Praise the Lord) and has been healed. I will ask her first this question. Have you read the account of your healing as we have told it in the LEAVES OF HEALING, and is it correct?

Miss Keck:—"Yes sir, every word of it is true."

Dr. Dowie:—Please tell your story very briefly because the facts are fully published in the paper, and state what your present condition of health is.

Miss Keck:—"When it first started, I fell on the ice about eighteen months ago. For about seven months I remained at home doctoring and had several operations performed. It grew worse and finally the doctor said I must have another operation and go to Mercy Hospital. I went there the second of May and was there ten weeks, and grew worse all the time, and finally Dr. Fenger said my leg must be amputated. I came here on Wednesday, and on Saturday it was to be taken off. I was brought out here and carried into the Home and into the Tabernacle, and after the meeting was over, was carried by the janitor into the Prayer-Room, and Dr. Dowie prayed with me. I was healed instantly and I have been walking ever since. That was about four months ago."

Dr. Dowie:—Walk a little to let them see you.

Miss Keck walked about very well and when Dr. Dowie laughingly said, "Jump!" She jumped. [Applause and "Amens" by the Audience.]

Dr. Dowie:—Now I want to know if the Lord Jesus Christ is not hurling the surgeons' knives after the doctors' drugs?

INTRODUCING AN ARMY VETERAN.

Now I want you to listen very attentively to the outline of one of the healings of one of the boys in blue who fought for the maintenance of the Union and the freedom of the slave. The number of these men is getting smaller as the years go on. I have a great desire that his testimony shall reach every old soldier in the land, not only north but south of Dixie's line. Although the southern men fought on the wrong side, all must admit they fought bravely and died for their convictions, wrong as they were. O that God may make this people to feel that there is no Dixie's line now. Only one nation. God bless all the old soldiers. This brother was sick for thirty years. Was brought in this Tabernacle in an invalid chair from Harvey by some of his comrades; was instantly healed and his story is told in No. 7. I will ask him to address you. Mr. Nichols, is the story told in No. 7 of LEAVES OF HEALING entirely true?

"Yes, sir."

Well, you know how to speak for yourself, you are of age. (Laughter.)

MIRACULOUS HEALING OF AN OLD ARMY VETERAN OF BLINDNESS IN ONE EYE, RHEUMATISM, PARALYSIS, HEART DISEASE, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, LUNG DISEASE, SPINAL IRRITATION, IRITIS, AND DROPSY.

Mr. Nichols said: "I know the time is limited because there are a great many to speak. My wife tells me to be careful and not get wound up. I will be brief.

"I was brought here to the Tabernacle by my comrades, as Dr. Dowie said, in a rolling chair. They brought me down the steps at Woodlawn with the help of two policemen who happened to be there. They rolled me over to the Tabernacle the first time I came here. I sat where this brother sits there. I suffered intense pain that afternoon until after I started to go into the Prayer Room, and the pain seemed to leave me. I was instantly healed when Brother Dowie prayed with me, and I praise God that I can stand on my feet to-day. (Praise God.) I tell you, friends, you don't know what the Saviour has in store for us if we will only come to Him and comply with the conditions. I had nine disabilities. I was blind in one eye, and had rheumatism. I am a little old, nearly sixty years old, and can't expect to be a boy, but I tell you my friends, I could not walk one step or move one foot on account of paralysis some three months ago. To-day I can walk at home from my house to the post office, six blocks, and perhaps further, three times a day. I can praise Him to-day and I can stand here and thank Him that I feel free in my limbs. May the Lord bless everyone that comes to Him for his healing and throw away their drugs. I have suffered many agonies untold, I have in the past, but now I go to sleep and sleep like a little child, I can eat my rations, praise God. Thank God, I can tell people this. I feel I want to tell the whole world what the Saviour has done for me. Let us set the world on fire with His glory. Down in Harvey some of our people don't believe. They are not all of God in the church where I belong. Our pastor doesn't exactly believe in Divine Healing, and I don't feel I am free to go in there to tell what the Lord has done for me. A cold shiver comes over me. I feel that the Lord wants me to work somewhere else besides in that work, and I have, with the assistance of a brother, who used to be a licensed preacher, organized a little meeting there, and we can tell what the Lord has done for us, spirit, soul and body; for there's nobody there to throw cold water on us. The Lord is blessing us and I am bound by grace; and given strength to tell what the Lord has done for me. If the whole city of Chicago, if the whole nation were to tell me that my diseases were not healed, do you suppose I would believe it after being healed of nine disabilities and having got my sight in one eye? In that testimony I gave here it is all there. No it is not all there, there was dropsy. It was not put in there. I had so many diseases that I forgot it. One of my comrades said to me next day, "Where have you all gone to? Get another row of buttons and you will have a double breasted coat all right." Praise Him for it. I wish I could tell all the world this.

Dr. Dowie: Can you jump?

"I could jump a little if I tried." "Jump then!"

[Jumps, amid the laughter and Hallelujahs of the audience.]

I have had the rheumatism for thirty years, have had bowel troubles for twenty years and other troubles for twenty to twenty-two years. All have passed away. Thank God for what He has done for me. I would like to talk to you for an hour but it will not do. Buy that paper, LEAVES OF HEALING, No. 7, and you will get it all there."

[Laughter and Amens.]

Hymn:—"We are marching to Zion."

A SUGGESTION.

Now don't you think it would be a grand thing to send this testimony of Jas. A. Nichols and the picture of himself and his wife, as it is given in the LEAVES OF HEALING.—There he is, and also his old wheel chair, his crutches, his stick, and his wife, and he is wheeling her as she used to wheel him. (Laughter.) Don't you think that picture and that story would be a great blessing to all the old soldiers throughout the country. We will give them to you at the rate of two and a half cents a copy. Get them for the old soldiers at one-half price. If you will send in $1.25 that will pay for fifty.

HEALING OF A MAN CARRIED ON A COT FROM INDIANA SUFFERING FROM SPINAL DISEASE.

Mr. William Schoonover, of Argos, Indiana, said: "One year ago last May I was taken down sick with spinal irritation, and was under the doctor's care for about eighteen months. During this time I was treated by six different physicians, one of them, Dr. Kellogg, of the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Michigan. His nerve doctor was Dr. Riley. Then I was treated by some of my home doctors, all considered to be very good physicians. I kept growing worse all the time, from the time I commenced taking medicine till I quit. I was the last eight months of this time scarcely able to walk; I was confined to my bed all the time. I occasionally walked across the room, or sat up a few minutes at a time, but not very often. After I got through with taking medicine from my physician I took a couple of bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that it might take some of the poison out of my blood. After taking that I still was no better, getting worse all the time gradually. Then I was brought down here lying on a cot. I could not walk, or stand or sit up. I was brought here just before the Doctor went on his trip to the East in the beginning of September, consequently did not have his attention for about two weeks. He came to my room and prayed with me, but I felt no change. That was on Tuesday, five weeks ago last Tuesday, and on the Friday following I was brought in here and laid on my cot during service, and after service taken into the Prayer Room, where the Doctor prayed with me again and laid hands on me. I immediately received strength enough to walk into the room, and went in to supper that night. The next morning I went out to breakfast, which I had not done for four or five times to eat for eight months. Dr. Dowie prayed with me again a few days later. Since that time I have been going to all of my meals and gaining steadily all the time. I do quite a little walking each day. I walked yesterday about one mile I think, and don't feel but very little worse for it to-day. I say thank God for what He has done for me and I am satisfied I have only to lean on Him and depend on Him for strength and He will carry me through."

Dr. Dowie: How many years were you sick, Mr. Schoonover?

"I have not been well for twenty-eight or nine years."

Dr. Dowie:—Let these people see how you can walk.

Mr. Schoonover walked briskly up and down amid laughter and applause on the part of the audience.

THE HAPPIEST LITTLE WOMAN IN MADISON.

Now I have a lady here whom the Wisconsin State Journal says is "the happiest little woman in Madison." She was in the same Sanitarium where Brother Schoonover was treated, Dr. Kellogg's Sanitarium, at Battle Creek, Michigan. The Lord has healed her. Her name is Mrs. Maggie E. Parsons, of Spaight Street, Madison, Wisconsin, and her case appears in No. 5. of our LEAVES OF HEALING, with her portrait where the details are very fully given.

HEALED OF FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING FROM INTERNAL DISORDERS.

Mrs. Parsons said: "I am happy to stand here a living testimony for what the Lord has done for me. 'I was bruised and Jesus healed me.' For five or six years I was an invalid. For the first five months I was confined in bed under the constant care of a physician. At the end of that time my husband's death caused complete prostration, from which I never recovered. I was under constant care during this time but got no permanent improvement, and was advised by Dr. Dudley to go away. I went to Dr. Kellogg's Sanitarium at Battle Creek, and remained six months. I came back in much worse condition than when I left. After that, in November, I commenced to feel so much worse that two surgeons of considerable experience were employed and they said nothing was left but surgery. About that time mother noticed in the Chicago Inter-Ocean an account of Divine Healing. I concluded to come here, and I no sooner met Dr. Dowie than I was convinced I would receive this blessing. He is indeed a man of God. I remained in the Home nine weeks, but in less than a week might have returned home, for I was perfectly healed from the hour the doctor prayed with me, which was after three days. I was healed from that hour. In nine weeks I returned home. Duties called me there. I think if I had remained as long as I wished the Doctor would have been obliged to put me out. I was two months at home. I was very busy seeing a great many people. I am now a visitor in Divine Healing Home, seeking further instruction in the things of God, so that I may be more helpful to others. When I came two months ago, I came under the care of a physician, but this time I decided on coming by myself. I did not have one moment of pain. I feel that this life belongs to God and I thank Him for His perfect healing, and it shall be used for His glory, and I shall pray constantly that He shall guide me step by step."

HEALING OF SEVEN YEAR'S CANCER IN LEFT BREAST.

Mrs. Casey of 5741 Emerald Avenue, Chicago, said: "For seven years I have suffered from cancer in my left side; I could hardly live with it. I went to Drs. Murphy and Healy. Both doctors wanted to operate. I was directed to go down to the hospital and be operated on; but I would not go. Dr. Nichols said it was a stone cancer. He gave me medicine, but it did no good. So then Dr. Owen of north-west side examined me and said that I should not be operated on, or I would die in the operation. Dr. De Wolf of Englewood also said not. I heard of Dr. Dowie and came over to see, and came for five weeks before I went into the Healing Room to learn how to look to God for healing. I have been in the Healing Room eleven times, and am thoroughly healed of cancer. Thank God for healing in the name of Jesus through Dr. Dowie."

Some in audience: "Praise God."

Dr. Dowie:—Is there anything else but a perfect condition of the breast?

"No, Doctor, there isn't."

Dr. Dowie:—I can testify to that. Those who know this lady hold up their hands. [A considerable number did so, many of them near relatives]. Those who believe Mrs. Casey's testimony is all true say, Aye.

"Aye," from many voices—amongst them her father, brother, etc.

INTERESTING STORY OF THE HEALING OF A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD CHILD WHO SUFFERED FROM HIP DISEASE AND TUMOR AND WORE A STEEL BRACE; AND OF HOW GOD SAVED HER FROM A "DEAD LEG" FOR HER LIFETIME.

Mrs. J. C. Foley of 11 Vernon Park Place, Chicago, said:—"This is my little girl. About two years ago last August she was taken very sick and I had to call in the doctors. Doctor Diaz, who lives on La Salle St., said there was nothing the matter with her. She had a running ear, the result of scarlet fever and she was deaf for a month, and was doctored for the mumps. He pronounced it the mumps, and treated her for nine months for the mumps and for kidney trouble. She got no better. We then saw Professor Fenger. He wanted to have her put in the hospital, in his own private hospital. I asked him what he could do for her. He said there was no other way only to put in electric needles. Dr. Fenger said he would take her into his own private hospital and electrify her. He said I must bring her into the hospital for five weeks at a time, and that I should remain with her in the hospital. He said she might not be in as long as five weeks at one time; for if no inflammation set in, it might be no longer than four weeks; but if inflammation set in it, it might be longer. I said then, "How long would I have to be in the hospital?" He said, "Two and a half years, every five weeks;" and I said, "After the two and a half years, would the child be perfectly healed." He said "she would have a leg without any feeling in it. She could run but would have no feeling in it." I said, "What kind of a leg is that?" He said, "A leg which has no feeling in it."

Dr. Dowie: In plain language—a dead leg.

Mrs. Foley:—"I did not go. My own physician advised me not to go. I had another doctor, do not know his name. He put on the brace, and for nine months I never shut my eyes either night or day for this child crying, after that brace was on her."

Dr. Dowie:—Where is the brace?

Mrs. Foley:—"There on the other side of this platform hanging on the wall, back of that gentleman's head." [The brace was taken down and handed to Mrs. Foley who identified it and continued her testimony].

"She wore this brace night and day for a year, and cried night and day. She never could turn in the bed at night without I helped her to turn. The doctor gave her up then, and said he could not do any more. He said I should take her to the Indianapolis Surgical Institution. So I was all packed up to take her when I happened to read an article in the Chicago Daily News one evening, and the next morning I wrote to Dr. Dowie. He answered my letter very kindly and at once, and said I should come out and hear the teaching, and he would see the child for me. He prayed, and laid hands on her in the Name of Jesus and she stamped her foot down on the floor, the foot that she had never had any power of. Stamped it right down on the platform like that. She had a swelling more than six inches long, from the groin down to her knee. Dr. Dowie laid hands on that tumor and it disappeared in three days. It had been very painful, and the doctor thought that it would soon break, and if so, he would be able to operate on the leg. He could not operate until such time as the tumor would break. I never put the brace on, from the hour Dr. Dowie prayed with her, and she has slept every night and eaten three meals a day, and sometimes four. I am not able to run as fast as she can. She is just as bright as she can be singing and praising God all the time, and I do also. We have now a happy home.

ANOTHER HEALING OF HIP DISEASE OF A TWELVE-YEAR-OLD-GIRL; AND THE STORY OF HER DELIVERANCE FROM CRUTCHES AND A SURGICAL "BOX."

Florence Gurley, of 5725 La Salle St., Chicago, said:—"These are the crutches I used to have [pointing to them on the wall]. I was sick about two years, suffering from hip disease. I was taken to the Hahnemann Hospital, Chicago. At that time my leg was drawn to the hip. They tried to bring it down. They first put me in a kind of box and boxed me up. I was there four weeks. I came home and was taken back again for five weeks, I went about in an invalid chair. Then I was quite a while on crutches. My mother heard of Dr. Dowie and brought me here, and I was healed at once. My mamma carried the crutches, and I walked to the cars. The next time I brought them back and they have been here ever since. I can run and jump and play. I have given my heart to God, and I praise Him, and thank Dr. Dowie.

Dr. Dowie:—Let us see you jump now. [The girl took a good high jump, and the people laughed, cried and praised God.]

AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE MINISTRY OF HEALING IN THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE WHO ATTEND ZION TABERNACLE.

Mrs. Robertson, 6311 Washington Ave., said:—"For about four weeks I had a strange feeling in my neck. I didn't know what it was. It was itching. At the end of four weeks there were sores broke out on the side of my head and I didn't know what they were; but I had a great deal of pain with them for about four days. Then I said to my husband, 'There must be something done, because the pain is getting into the side of my face, and I am afraid that I will have eczema.' I asked my husband to pray with me and lay his hands on my head. He did so, and next morning it was stopped partly. I said to him, 'The pain is much better and I wish you would pray with me again, and lay your hands upon my head.' The next morning there wasn't any pain at all in my head. That day I felt much better in every way. The next day I felt as if the disease had been killed, and it kept on getting better right straight along until now. That was two weeks ago, and there is very little soreness in my head. I give all the glory to God and know it was God that healed me. I know that Christ is my healer. My husband and I have attended these meetings for some time and received the teaching, and the Lord has led us to see that this blessing of Divine Healing was our portion in Christ.

REMARKABLE HEALING OF A YOUNG LADY. NEW HIP JOINT AFTER TWELVE YEARS. LENGTHENING OF LEG MORE THAN TWO INCHES, ETC.

Miss Estella M. Schulhof, 451 S. Robey St., Chicago, said:—"Twelve years ago I had hip-disease, and it left me with one limb two and a half inches shorter, and the hip-joint entirely destroyed. I was twelve years in that condition. Since I came here the first time, the 27th of July, I had my limb lengthened one and a quarter inches the first time Dr. Dowie prayed with me; everytime he prayed with me afterward it lengthened gradually, and now only lacks one fourth of an inch. The head of the bone was taken out and slipped up and grew fast so that the joint was perfectly stiff. It has now formed a new joint. The head of the bone that moves in the socket was taken out, and the head of the bone slipped by the socket and grew fast to the back of the hip, and of course there was no joint. The joint is forming now so I can bend it quite a little. It is not perfect yet; it is getting so gradually."

Dr. Dowie:—After twelve years the leg is lengthened two and a quarter inches and a new joint is formed, and she bends in that place where there was no joint. The Lord has done a very wonderful work.

Miss Schulhof:—"I praise Him and my constant prayer is that I may trust Him for everything."

[With reference to this remarkable case, the following was taken from a letter addressed to a lady in Divine Healing Home No. 1, and gives fuller particulars of the Healing, etc.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 3rd, 1894.

MISS SARAH A. STARR,

DEAR FRIEND:—I am very glad to comply with your request and tell you all the particulars of my disease, and what the Lord has done for me, and I hope that it will help others to see that the Lord is our Healer and that there is no limit to His power.

When I was a child I was playing one evening with some of my playmates, and then sat down on the steps to talk, after being heated from running, and took cold. It settled into an inflammation of the covering of the bone just above the left knee. The bone decayed and suppuration took place, at the same time I began to have terrible pain in the right hip; but the doctors operated on the knee and paid no attention to the hip. After four months of terrible suffering they made an examination and found disease in the hip joint; so they attached a weight of seven pounds to my limb. I laid on my back thirteen months without changing my position. No words can tell my suffering, although they tried to relieve my pains by opiates. After wearing this weight nine months I seemed to be some better, and did get so that I could walk on crutches for a while, but soon began to fail again, and they operated on the hip by opening to the bone, or joint, and then for about two years that was a running sore. Of course, I grew weaker and weaker. We lived in Madison, Wis., at the time, and I was brought to Chicago to Dr. Fenger for advice. He said that the only chance I had to live was through another operation to take out all of the dead and diseased bone. Our doctors knew this ought to be done; but they feared I could not live through such an operation, as I had become so weak. As there was, however, perhaps a chance, they decided to do it. They performed the operation, and I surprised them by living, although I lay for three days so low that they had to listen for the heart beats to see if I was alive. They opened the flesh to the bone in two places and found the head of the bone which was in the socket eaten entirely off. The bone had slipped by and grown fast to the out side of the hip bone. They left that just as it had grown, and took out all the dead bone and chiseled off all diseased parts and left a cavity as large as a man's fist, which filled up gradually with new tissues, etc., and in about six months it all healed up. That was over ten years ago, and I have since then been in this condition; my hip perfectly stiff, without any joint and both knees were stiff, one from disease and the other from lying so long in one position; and one limb was two and a half inches shorter than the other. I have had my shoes made with one high heel, and the other with no heel and have managed to walk pretty well. It troubled me in sitting down and getting up, and in many other ways. My parents have been trying to give me a musical education, thinking it would be the best way for me to earn my living, crippled as I was.

I first heard of the Divine Healing Mission when I was very busy preparing for examination for graduation, and could not go to the meetings, but my mother attended nearly every meeting, and of course I heard all about it. My mother had a most remarkable healing before she ever went into the Prayer Room; so as soon as I was at liberty from school, I devoted my time and thought to the study of Divine Healing; and I thank the Lord that He sent this dear, good man, Dr. Dowie, to show us this truth. I was very soon fully convinced that the Lord is the only Healer, and I knew He would make my body perfect if I fulfilled the conditions of the covenant, and trusted God for the rest. Then I bought a new pair of shoes with equal heels, and went over to the meeting, and went into the Prayer Room, and asked Dr. Dowie to pray for me, telling him something of my condition. He prayed and pulled my limb, as is his custom with short limbs, and then Dr. Dowie went on to his other duties. I put on the new shoes, and as soon as I began to step I knew that my limb was longer, and when we measured it we found it lengthened over an inch. I do not think we were in the Prayer Room over fifteen or twenty minutes. I think it was two or three weeks before I noticed the change that was taking place in the hip. Every time the Doctor prayed with me I would feel a warm, burning sensation in the hip, and all through the week it would pain me, a sort of growing pain, and I began to see that I could move it, and each week it gains, so now there is a decided joint there, and the limb has lengthened nearly as long as the other. There is no use in trying to express to you the joy that is in my heart. It seems as though I must do something to make others believe this truth, that they may receive this joy too. If there is anything more you wish to know about it, I shall only be too glad to answer. Yours sincerely,

MISS ESTELLA M. SCHULHOF,
451 S. Robey St. Chicago, Ill.

Since writing the above letter Miss Schulhof has visited us in the Healing Room of Zion Tabernacle, and before over one hundred ladies she showed that her legs are now exactly equal when standing, and the knees are also when sitting. The hip joint is also freer and stronger daily.

Dr. Dowie:—I wish to say there are something like a hundred or more here on the platform; but as you have now been here for more than three hours, many standing the whole of that time, I propose now that we shall adjourn and come back here at half past seven o'clock and begin this testimony again, and go right on for a couple of hours.

The Doxology was then sung, and the meeting closed with the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you ever. Amen.

A ST. LOUIS YOUNG LADY HEALED OF CONSUMPTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., June 10, 1890.

"Jesus the Great Physician has healed me.

"It is about three years ago since I left St. Louis and came west for the change of climate.

I had been suffering for several years with catarrh and consumption of the entire body. The best physicians of St. Louis had been employed, but they could do me no good. Among them were John W. Harris, of 3047 Easton Ave., Dr. J. C. McCoy, of Lucas Place, Drs. Hartman, Cummings, and others, and still the disease remained and a change of climate advised. And thanks to the dear Lord Jesus for the change, for here I met the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Dowie, and through them I received the teaching, and through the Lord Jesus the healing.

"My heart is full of gratitude and love to Jesus for having sent Dr. and Mrs. Dowie to us and my prayer is this, 'Lord, keep me faithful.'

Very truly,

J. E. BABCOCK,

Or 1221 O'Farrell St., San Francisco. Point Reyes, Cal."

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

(See Illustration Page 190)

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

IT was a dreary, dark night, and the drizzling rain was driven by the cold, keen wind through the streets of the city. Crowds of work people, who had just left business, were hurrying quickly onwards. Suddenly I heard a question asked at my side, by a poorly clad, dissipated, and sad looking young man, who was addressing a sturdy, cheerful looking workman, whom he had stopped. "Where are you going?" was the question. "Going! Why, of course I'm going home. Where are you going?" was the immediate response. For a few seconds there was no reply, but I could see the poor lad's eyes fill with tears, ere he answered wearily, "Oh, I don't know. Good night." He walked quickly away, and almost in a moment, ere I could interpose, he was lost amid the crowd, whilst the other resumed his walk at a faster pace, saying, "Poor fellow, how sad."

Yes, it was sad indeed. But, alas, it is no less common than sorrowful to find many to whom the word "home" is only a reminder of happy scenes long gone by, or for whom it awakens bitter remembrances of a peaceful and pure sanctuary, which seems to memory now as a paradise, from which sin and shame drove them with dishonored names. There are many too, who, though they dwell in comfortable houses, are yet homeless. Death, it may be, has entered with silent footsteps, father and mother, wife and child, have been taken, one by one to the home above, and the light of their life seems to have almost gone out. Or, bitterer than death, cruel sin hath entered, and plucked the fairest flowers away, to flaunt for a while in the gay abodes of vice, and then to wither and die, leaving an empty house, where once there was a happy home. Or, it may be that to someone home lies far away across the seas, and that here on a distant shore, friendless, poor, and disappointed, he walks through our streets a weary exile.

To these, aye and to all who shall read these words, let me speak of "Home, sweet home"—the happy homes of earth, and the yet happier home above.

First, I desire to remind you who have homes, of the boundless influences for good of a true HOME.

A few days ago, I said to a young man who was conversing with me, "I am glad you do not drink nor keep bad company." "Yes," he replied, "But 'twas my mother's last words to me which have kept me from such troubles. When I left my home in Canada, sir, she put her arms around my neck and kissed me, and then, looking into my eyes, she said, 'My dear boy, never drink anywhere, nor do anything which would make you ashamed to see my face again,' and her kiss, and words, and look are with me always when I am tempted to sin. By God's blessing," he continued, "they have kept my lips from the wine cup, and my feet from the house of her whose guests are in the depth of hell." And this, oh, parents, is the testimony of thousands besides, whom a loving father's and mother's influence follows for good throughout every step of life. I remember standing in an hospital by the dying bed of an aged Christian man, who lay tossing about in the delirium of fever. A cooling hand was laid upon his burning brow, and thereafter a smile broke over his face, and he said, "Oh, mother, it's so nice; I'm glad to be at home again." Ah, his memory had carried him back to the home of his childhood, and the aged man was once more a child, soothed by the fancied touch of a loving hand that had long been turned to dust. Soon after he fell asleep, to awake in the home above, and dwell forever with the blessed spirit of that mother, whose love had been through life as a guardian angel to him. Oh, who can measure the boundless influence of a true home, with its evergreen memories of a pious father's care, and a gentle mother's love?

Second, I desire to say to you who are parents, never close the door of your homes against any wandering ones, who have forsaken them through the wiles of the tempter and destroyer.

Bethink thee, kind reader, of how thy God and Father deals with thee, and with the vilest sinner. He never closes His door against the penitent. His "gates are open day and night continually." Well for thee that 'tis so. But wilt thou dare to be unmerciful, and shut thy door against an erring and fallen child of thine, when thy God and Saviour has opened wide the gates of mercy to him or to her? I have read of a poor child of shame, the only daughter of her mother, and she was a widow, who, like the prodigal, came to see herself, and deplore her sin and then sought her mother. After a long, weary journey, she came late one night to the city where she was born, and, with hesitating step, passed along the street, until she reached her mother's door. She saw there was a light in the window, she tried the door and found it open to her touch. She went in, her mother was yet awake, and in a moment she was folded, a weeping penitent, to that mother's heart. "Mother," she said after a time, "how was it I found a light burning, and the door on the latch, and yet it was so late?" "My daughter," was the reply, "day and night my door has been open for you, and every night I put a light in my window, for I was determined that no matter when you came back, you should not turn away without seeing that your mother's heart and home were ever open to you." To some who read this it may be well for me to put them in remembrance of Jesus' words, "Go and do thou likewise." Never let your door be shut against the wanderer. Let your words be, "Come home," as God thy Father's are to thee. A mother, who sought for an erring daughter, left her photograph nailed upon the walls of public houses, and other places of resort, where she thought one might some day meet her daughter's eye. She wrote beneath each, only three words, "Mary, Come home." One of the photographs was seen, and the loving invitation thus reached the wanderer, who returned, never again to forsake her home. Oh, that every wandering soul who reads these lines, might hear the Saviour say—

Come home! Come home!
You are weary at heart,
For the way has been dark,
And so lonely and wild,
O prodigal child!
Come home, oh, come home.

Come home! Come home!
From the sorrow and blame,
From the sin and the shame,
And the tempter that smiled,
O prodigal child!
Come home, oh, come home.

Come home! Come home!
There is bread and to spare,
And a warm welcome there,
Then, to friends reconciled,
O prodigal child!
Come home, oh, come home.

THE JANITOR HEALED OF LA GRIPPE.

Now I am going to have the testimony of the Janitor of this church—Brother Jones. He is a member of this church. I will first read this letter. He writes as follows: "On Saturday, Feb. 11th, I had a very severe attack of what I supposed was La Grippe. I was in great pain and agony. I told Dr. Dowie about it after the meeting. He simply laid his hands upon my head and prayed and I was instantly and perfectly healed.

"439 Flower St., Los Angeles. H. P. JONES."

Mr. Jones then said: "It was on Saturday I went home and it came on very rapid and I kept on growing worse. I came and opened the church and waited until the meeting was over, and I went and told Dr. Dowie; he laid his hands upon me, and away it goes." [Laughter and hallelujahs.]

Dr. Dowie said:—"That is better than mercury or quinine. I don't think Mr. Jones could have expressed it better." [Amen.]—From Our Second Year's Harvest, p. 62.

KIND WORDS FOR WEARY HEARTS

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

IN Longfellow's beautiful poem called "The Golden Legend," he represents the good Abbot Ernestus pacing to and fro in the cloisters of the ancient convent of Hirschau. It is nearly sunset, the shadows of the night are creeping up the walls, and the sunshine is slowly stealing away before them. As he looks on the deepening darkness and fading light, he muses, and says—

"Darker, darker, and more wan,
In my breast the shadows fall;
Upward steals the life of man
As the sunshine, from the wall."

"From the wall into the sky,
From the roof along the spire;
Ah, the souls of some that die
Are but sunbeams lifted higher."

Whilst he is speaking thus to his own heart, certain travelers journeying through the Black Forest, enter, and as they extol him, he replies in words which seem to touch and reveal in hearts to-day that heart weariness for which I desire, kind reader, to show thee refreshing springs of living water. He says:—

"Ashes are on my head, and on my lips
Sackcloth, and in my breast a heaviness
And weariness of life, that makes me ready
To say to the dead abbots under us,
'Make room for me!' only I see the dusk
Of evening twilight coming, and have not Completed half my task; and so at times
The thought of my shortcomings in this life
Falls like a shadow on the life to come."

And, as in that earnest Christian, Ernestus, who lived amidst the darkness and corruptions of the Romish Church of the thirteenth century, is there not at times in the hearts of the bravest and truest souls in this nineteenth century, "a heaviness and weariness of life" on earth, and a longing for "the rest that remaineth" in the life beyond? Even so; but the same weariness and longing have been felt by the best in every age: for earth life never at any time wholly satisfies. Thirty-four centuries ago, the divinely patient Job exclaimed in the anguish of his spirit, "I would not live alway;" and sixteen hundred years after, the grand heroic Paul had "a desire to depart, and to be with Christ which is far better:" for he too could say, "I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart," as he looked upon his perishing brethren around, who rejected the Saviour, whom he loved and served. Yes, in the heart of the most faithful there is often a longing for that "rest," which is only completed when heaven is reached. At the height of his fame, and in the midst of his highest honours, and the rich rewards of his great skill, the great and good Edinburgh physician, Sir James Y. Simpson, Bart., wrote the following lines, in 1867, when on a visit to Geneva.

"Oft midst this world's ceaseless strife,
When flesh and spirit fail me,
I stop and think of another life,
Where ills can ne'er assail me;
Where my wearied arm shall cease its fight,
My heart shall cease its sorrow,
And the night of life will change for the light
Of an everlasting morrow."

"Then shall be mine, through grace divine,
A rest that knows no ending,
Which my soul's eye would fain descrie
Though still with clay 'tis blending
And, Saviour dear, while I tarry here
Where a Father's love has found me,
Oh let me feel, through woe and weal,
Thy guardian arms around me"

He has entered into that "rest" of which he sang: for whilst on earth his spirit found in Christ a resting place.

But, kind reader, hast thou found peace and rest of heart? Eleven years ago I was writing in my Australian home beyond the midnight hour; and was interrupted by a timid knock at the front door. I opened it, and found standing without, in the cold and dark winter night, a poor, weak, weary, and thinly clothed, young man. Attracted by the light in my window, aye and led by the guardian hand of which I was writing, he had come a suppliant for shelter and food. Joseph L—— had walked every foot of the long, weary way from Sydney, taking, with stoppages here and there, over three months in the journey, and only three hours before had entered Melbourne, absolutely penniless and friendless. He wandered on through the hard streets until he stood at my door, one of the weariest of hearts. Warmed, and fed, and sheltered, he bowed with me in prayer before the God of the poor and weary ere he rested in sleep—an illustration for my tract, kind reader, which will touch thy heart as it did mine with the remembrance of the Eternal Father's love, and our absolute destitution as sinners at His gate of mercy. Thy spirit, it may be, is almost in despair. Courage brother, courage sister, look up and see that there is always a light shining from the windows of thy Father's house: for Christ, thy friend has put it there for thee. More than that, the door is open: for it is written that His "gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night." (Isaiah 9: 11). Go now, enter now by faith in Jesus, and thy weary soul shall find a refuge. Do not fear that thou hast nothing to bring, for thy Father asks nothing but thy heart and its sin.

The daughter of a Hindoo prince, finding no rest for her weary heart, at the shrine of her god at last laid some beautiful flowers, betokening a broken and bleeding heart. Soon after she found Him to be her Saviour whose "sacrifices are a broken spirit:" for "a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise." (Psalms 51: 17).

Do not say, "Oh but I feel myself to be lost?" I am right glad to know that: for I tell thee it was "the lost sheep," it was "the lost son" (Luke 15), that Jesus came to rescue, and His own words are:—"The Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19: 10). He is not weary: for as at Sychar, (John 4). He is still the Fountain of Living Water, who revived and cleansed the weary heart of the sinful woman there. Do not linger. Come, He is waiting for thee. These words are written lovingly in His name, as His call unto thee, no matter what thy past may have been.

"Troubled in spirit, broken in heart
Go to thy Saviour, just as thou art,
Go, and thy burden cast on the Lord;
Hear the sweet message taught in His word."
"Plenteous in mercy, loving and kind;
Ask, He will give thee; seek, thou shalt find;
Knock, He will open; go thou and pray,
He will not send thee empty away."

Thou hast a right to go: for He has said:—(Mathew 9: 29),
"COME UNTO ME, ALL YE THAT LABOUR AND ARE HEAVY LADEN, AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST."

SALVATION, HEALING AND HOLINESS.

"I feel that the gospel of Divine Healing will not only give Power for Service to those who are Christians, but it will open the Gates of Salvation to multitudes that have never known of Christ. The divine order in this ministry is Salvation first, Healing next, Holiness next—the order given in Isaiah, 35th chapter, and preserved by Christ in all His ministry.

"May God bless the simple words I have spoken from the heart this evening. I have said strong words, but not in malice, concerning those that have sinned; to-night I would say, in Christ's name, I bless them, even though I am compelled to tear the disguise from their faces. I pray that God will bless them and lead them unto Him."—From Our Second Year's Harvest. p. 163.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"COME, let us declare in Zion The work of the Lord our God."

TRULY, "there is not room enough to receive" the blessing which God is pouring out upon Zion Tabernacle, as all who attend there know. We praise Him and yet with sad hearts: for thousands were unable to find even standing room at our monthly Praise and Testimony Meetings on the afternoon of last Lord's Day. For more than three hours hundreds stood in every available spot, overflowed the overflow meeting in the Healing Room, and stood around the doors and windows. The great City is awakening, and when Chicago really awakens on any matter its awakening is tremendous.

THE three Divine Healing Homes are, like Zion Tabernacle, overflowing with guests from all parts of the land; but we take care not to allow them to be crowded. When they are comfortably full, visitors find accommodation outside. There is plenty of room in Chicago for all who desire to attend the meetings; and, for the most part, we can accommodate guests.

IT is better to come and make personal applications at Home No. 3, where the office is, than it is to write: for our correspondence has reached a stage when we regard it almost with despair. We have thousands of unanswered letters on our desk; and yet we have four secretaries, laboring with us at our side endeavouring to overtake it—two of them expert stenographers and type-writers. The whole earth seems to be awakening; and the Macedonian Cry, "Come over and help us!" does not merely come to us as to Paul in a vision of the night: for telegrams and letters shriek it in our ears day and night, and there they lie in high piles around us as we write.

WE have laid hands for healing in the Name of the Lord, upon more than five thousand sick persons in Zion Tabernacle and the Homes, within the month of November now closing. We have seen, during the month, more than six thousand persons stand up, and openly repent of and confess their sins, and seek the mercy of their God. We have conducted ninety services, with our good wife's assistance, in the same time; and we have furnished and opened a large, new Divine Healing Home—No. 3—with thousands of details in all kinds of business to attend to, spiritual, material, social, family, financial, etc., etc.

CAN it, therefore, surprise our ever-widening circle of readers, if we say that we find it difficult to prepare for LEAVES OF HEALING, the piles of original matter filling our editorial drawer, such as sermons, testimonies of salvation and healing in answers to prayer in hundreds of cases, reports of praise meetings, and letters from those blessed by reading the LEAVES? When our readers remember that the nature of these LEAVES demands our personal attention, in addition to all the other burdens of responsibility from which there is no escape, they will better understand our appeal—"Brethren, pray for us."

MAKE your prayers definite, brethren. Ask the Lord to send us money and men. Then bethink you, if you are not in the same condition as the Christian miller who prayed God to give bread to the poor, whose little son pointed to the storehouse and said, "Father, does not God give you power to answer your own prayers?"

Brethren and sisters, send us the money, and we will find the men and women to help us in departments where the weight is crushing us, and the buildings to hold thousands upon thousands who are now crushing and treading upon one another in their efforts to hear the Gospel of the Glory of God in its blessed fullness. Every one can help a little, and that will do it. Send us for these hungry multitudes, what you can, and do it quickly.

Christmas is coming, and so are your Gifts to Christ your Redeemer who gave Himself for you. ONE DOLLAR from every reader of these lines would set us free from every cent of financial responsibility; and FIVES, TENS, FIFTIES, HUNDREDS, and THOUSANDS from earnest Christ Stewards, whom he has entrusted with His talents of silver and gold, would give us the power to reach and help MILLIONS in the coming year.

OUR Thanksgiving Day is alluded to in the first page of this issue, and we present all our readers with a copy of the souvenir from the Zion Publishing House which we presented to all our visitors. Among the scores of letters which accompanied little gifts for the work were some from grateful children. Here is a sweet little letter which accompanied a one dollar bill.

DEAR DR. DOWIE:

This is my candy money I saved from my pennies and nickels. It took me quite a time; but I got there. I was so glad I had it for Thanksgiving for you. I will go right along and save and will soon have another dollar. I am only six years old. I do little things for my mamma and she gives me pennies. I love you and Mrs. Dowie and LEAVES OF HEALING. I never get tired hearing it read and looking at the pictures. I have such a good papa, he don't smoke now, and always is sweet. Myself and little brother, 4 years old, pray for you every night. Please pray for me. I did not write this but I told my mamma what to say. My name I done myself.

Your little friend,

JENNIE WALTERS.

A MILLION dollars could not buy the joy of that golden little six-year-old's letter, and it was a million times sweeter to us than all the candy it could have bought. There lies behind it the story of the healing of her sick mother and the salvation of her father. The mother, Mrs. Geo. Walters, sending her Thanksgiving Offering of $5, writes personal greetings and appreciation, and adds:—"We never forget you in our prayers. One year ago to-day I could not walk one block. Thank God I am now able to come every week to Zion Tabernacle. I have found many blessings in that blessed place. Before closing I must say a word for the white-winged messenger LEAVES OF HEALING. It comes regularly and makes us all happy in reading it."

"How much owest thou to my Lord?"

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US."

THE FIRST OF OUR "AMERICAN FIRST FRUITS" REMAINS.

"BEFORE I call on any to speak, I want to do that which I know you will be glad to hear. I want to read and place on record the testimony, received only since I entered this building to-night, of the sister who was first healed in our ministry upon this coast. This case is given in our pamphlet 'American First Fruits' on pages 4 and 5. Our Lord said: 'Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should 'GO AND BRING FORTH MUCH FRUIT, AND THAT YOUR FRUIT SHOULD REMAIN:'

"That whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in My Name, He may give it to you." John 15: 16. Our greatest joy is that in some degree, we thus glorify our Father in Heaven. The story narrated in the opening pages of our 'First Fruits' tells of how an aged lady came down from Sacramento with her daughter, who is sitting before me now. She was on a crutch. Here it is—take a good look at it. It is a long, plain, wooden crutch. She was a plain, but to me a very interesting old woman. I think WOMAN is a grander name than lady; there are a great many ladies,—ladies who are star actresses; and not a few refined 'ladies' who are harlots dragging men down to hell. I like the word WOMAN. Jesus called his mother WOMAN, it is a noble word.

"She came to see me just a week after our arrival.

"A great many rich folks were calling on me at the Palace Hotel. Amongst these were several scheming Christian Scientists who wanted to entrap me, who invited us to dinner and wanted us to ride in their carriages; but I detected them at once, and I said, 'You are serving the devil.' Christian Science is not of God; it is an anti-Christian imposture. I was getting nearly through a long day's work when I saw along the corridor this dear old woman, who had been sitting there so patiently with her daughter such a long time, for nearly six hours I think. We were about to go down to lunch when Mrs. Dowie said, 'I wonder if she wants to see us.' She did want to see us. We took her into our room and found she was not saved, and she gave her heart so simply to the Lord. She said she had read in the papers about our coming to the city and she said to her husband, 'If the doctor is what he says he is, I shall be healed.'

"Her foot had been paining her for a long time, and the doctors told her it would have to be operated upon and perhaps cut off. She was old and hesitated about having it done. There she was upon the crutch, and when she found the Lord as her Saviour I said, 'Now trust the Lord with your foot, and you will be healed.' After she had given her heart to Jesus I remember I knelt down and took the poor old woman's foot in my hands. This was the first time I had laid hands upon any in this land, and my heart was full of tenderness as I held the foot and prayed the Lord would use my hands.

'I FELT A TEAR DROP UPON MY HEAD.'

"Two or three I think, and I felt just as if I wanted to cry too, and then I said, 'Now, Lord, Thou hast healed Thy hand-maiden.' I then said:

IN JESUS' NAME RISE AND WALK!

"She felt for the crutch, but I said, 'No crutch; walk alone,'—she walked.

"That was two years ago. She has testified frequently; let her testify to-night. She could not be here, but her husband, who is a very well educated man, writes this testimony, and I received it to-night through the hands of her daughter, Mrs. Chambers. It is the first healing in America through our agency, and it remains. She stands firm and perfectly healed to-night. There are those who say that the folks that are healed do not remain so. Let us hear what the dear old mother says.

A TOUCHING LETTER FROM OUR AGED 'FIRST FRUIT.'

SACRAMENTO, June 8th, 1890.

"Dear Dr. and Mrs. Dowie:

"I deeply regret my inability to meet you on this, your last visit to San Francisco, perhaps for a long time. I almost feel that it will be my last opportunity on earth to meet and talk with those so dear to me, and to whose instrumentality I owe so much.

"I can never forget my first visit to you at your rooms at the Palace Hotel, on the 16th of June, 1888, worn out and distracted with pain, with no hope of relief except through the ordeal of a painful operation and a long, tedious confinement to my bed; in all a trial which I had not the courage to face, preferring rather a long period of pain and suffering, to end at last in death, which indeed, at that time seemed my only hope. Neither can I forget my joy and surprise at my sudden and complete release from pain, my ability to walk again as before my trouble came on, and I could hardly realize the truth of the (to me) wonderful power which had turned my sorrow into joy; almost from the grave into life again; and the lesson I then learned of the goodness of God, I trust has indeed turned me from death unto life eternal. Never since, up to this day, has my trouble returned; and many times since have I been greatly benefitted by the sweet lesson learned of you that 'Jesus is able and willing to heal and save all who come unto Him in faith and trust.'

"Words cannot express my gratitude to God and my love to you both for all I have received through you. My poor life would have been ended, as it began, in darkness and despair, only for your teaching.

"Again, I repeat that I deeply regret my inability to see you and profit by your discourse, but my household cares will not permit.

"In conclusion, may God bless you both in all things, and we all beg you to remember us in your prayers at all times.

"Ever yours gratefully,

ELIZABETH BROWNE."

"That letter was handed to me to-night; I opened it and read it in my room here. None of you can feel as I feel. We give God the glory, and humbly lay this loving letter at our Lord and Master's feet.

THE HEALING OF A HOUSEHOLD.

At this point Mr. Hugh Craig, President of the Oakland Branch of the Divine Healing Association arose and said:

"Will you please let me testify now because the healings at my house followed shortly after the healing of Mrs. Browne? [Dr. Dowie gladly did so and Mr. Craig stepping from the audience to the front said:]

"It is nearly 22 months ago since Dr. Dowie spent a few hours at my house at Piedmont. One of our little girls was suffering severely from her shoulder. She had sprained her shoulder by falling from a tree, and she suffered great pain from Tuesday until Sunday evening. On that Sunday evening Dr. and Mrs. Dowie were with us, and we assembled for reading and prayer before the little ones went to bed. Dr. Dowie talked to us, and explained how Jesus was the same yesterday, to-day and forever. The little girl who was suffering with her shoulder, was sitting about eight feet from him, and he said to the other children, 'Wouldn't it be a splendid thing for Jesus to come here and heal Marjorie's shoulder?' He says 'I am with you always.'"

"Yes," said one little one; "Yes," said another little one.

"Now, Marjorie, come here," said Dr. Dowie.

A LITTLE CHILD LED THEM.

She stood there, and Dr. Dowie prayed; he used very few words:

"In the name of Jesus Christ, heal Marjorie's shoulder.' He put his fingers on her shoulder like that [Illustrating], and said, 'Your shoulder is healed.' Instantly, the girl held her arm out and swung it around and held up a Bible that weighed eight pounds. The pain was gone instantly.—From Our Second Year's Harvest, pp. 124-126.

IMMEDIATE SALVATION FOR THEE.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

KIND reader, permit me to say a few words to thee concerning thine eternal welfare, and may God, who loves thee, help me.

Thou art immortal, the offspring of the Father of spirits; and because He is eternal, so art thou. On earth, in the visible creation within man's knowledge, there is nothing of such infinite importance as an immortal spirit, such as thou art.

The sun is but a spark of fire
A transient meteor in the sky;
The spirit eternal as its sire,
Shall never die.

But thy body is mortal, it is of the earth, earthy, and it will die, decay, and pass away into dust again. There are no exceptions. Look at thy body, touch thy pulse, listen to thy throbbing heart and say, "Oh body, thou art warm with life, but thou shalt ere long be cold in death: for the silver cord shall soon be loosed, and thou shalt return to the earth, but my liberated spirit shall return to God who gave it." Then pause, ponder deeply in thy mind the solemn thought, and speak once more,—“But oh my spirit, art thou prepared to stand before ‘the great white throne’ of judgment, shouldest thou be summoned to-day?”

Kind reader, if thou art unsaved, thou art lost. Hast thou ever earnestly looked upon the Eternity into which thou mayest be ushered at one step? Consider now. "Behold now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation." Do not delay: for that may be fatal. Thy danger is immediate, and, therefore, so is thy need. God has, consequently, provided an immediate salvation. Let me tell thee very simply how thou mayest be immediately saved.

First, THOU MUST IMMEDIATELY REPENT. God's Holy Spirit has already convinced thee that thou art a sinner. Thou dost need a Saviour. Turn from thy sin at once, with sincere hatred of all thine evil deeds and thoughts, with sincere sorrow and desire for mercy. Like the dying Israelites, the fiery serpents of sin have, with their deadly venom, poisoned all the streams of thy being. Thou didst nurse these vipers in thy bosom, and gavest them the love thou didst deny to God. Even now, although thou knowest these sins are stinging thee like death adders, thou art strangely fascinated by their glamour; and, maddened with unsatisfied desire, thou art permitting them to coil more firmly around thy soul, and drain thy life away. Dying soul, arouse thee! Look to Him who died to save thee, and thou shalt live.

As when the Hebrew prophet raised
The brazen serpent high,
The wounded looked, and straight were cured,
The people ceased to die.

So from the Saviour on the cross,
A healing virtue flows,
Who looks to Him with lively faith,
Is saved from endless woes.

Second, THOU MUST IMMEDIATELY BELIEVE, AND PRAY, BELIEVING THAT GOD WILL FULFIL HIS PROMISE TO THEE.

God requires thee to believe (1) that He loves thee; (2) that He came in the person of His Son to save thee; (3) that His Son, Jesus the Christ, bore thy sins, thy sorrows, and died for thee; (4) that He rose from the dead and is thine Advocate above, ever ready to intercede for thee; and (5) that if thou dost truly ask the Father in His name, and dost from thy heart "forsake," and "confess" thy sin, thou shalt be saved that moment, for it is written—1 John 1: 9.—“If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” Do that, in simple faith, and thou art saved immediately. Not that thy faith saves thee: for faith never saved any one, and yet no one was ever saved without faith. It is the GRACE, the free love and almighty power, of God which saves the sinner who prays in faith: for it is written—Ephesians 2: 5.—“By grace ye are saved;” and again, in the 8th verse, “For by grace are ye saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.” Does this seem hard to understand? Let me try to explain it still further. Suppose thou art poor, and in great need. One who is kind, and very rich, gives thee a cheque for money covering all thy wants. At the Bank, thou dost present that cheque in faith, and thy faith is rewarded by getting all the money. But it was not thy faith which provided the money—no, it was thy kind friend who had healed it there for thee, it was his grace, so to speak, which answered the demand of thy faith, which believed his written word. So with thy God. Perishing soul, loving cheques upon the Bank of Infinite Love and Power are given thee, which cover all thy need, at all times. Take this:—“Wherefore He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.”—Hebrews 7: 25. Present this now, this very moment, at the Throne of Grace; and thou shalt be saved immediately, and to the uttermost.

The Gospels, and other portions of the inspired word, are full of proofs that Christ saves sinners IMMEDIATELY. All his acts of healing were ‘immediate;’ as they are still. The leper, who came in faith, was ‘immediately’ cleansed (see Mark 1: 40-42); Peter's wife's mother was ‘immediately’ healed when Jesus touched her (Luke 4: 39); the woman who had spent all she had on doctors, after twelve years of weary and increasing suffering, was ‘immediately’ healed when she touched Him with faith, (Luke 8: 43, 44; the man who had lain for thirty-eight years, was ‘immediately made whole’ at the pool of Bethesda (John 5: 1-9; the man, ‘above forty years old,’ and ‘lame from birth,’ was healed ‘in the name of Jesus Christ,’ at the Beautiful Gate, and ‘immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength’ (Acts 3: 1-11); and many others were healed immediately of whom thou canst read. And it was thus too that Christ forgave penitent sinners, such as the fallen woman who wept at his feet in the Pharisee's house, to whom He there said, “Thy sins are forgiven” (Luke 7: 48), and in the Pearl of Parables, He taught us that the Eternal Father goes forth to meet the returning, sorrowing sinner, and saves him ‘immediately’ and forever.

Oh decide now, lest the day of grace be gone, and the day of judgment find thee doomed. He is able, He is willing; and, if thou dost perish, it is because thou wilt not be saved. “How shalt THOU escape, if THOU dost neglect so great salvation?” How? How? It is the one question which even God cannot answer. How? How?

Oh, be earnest, do not stay,
Thou mayest perish, e'en to-day:
Rise, thou lost one, rise and flee,
Lo, thy Saviour waits for thee.

MRS. WM. THRELKELD, Jr., 211 Wellington Street,
Collingwood, Melbourne, Australia.

About four years ago I had a poisoned leg. It was gradually spreading from my ankle upwards. I began to fear that I would lose my leg. I had been to the chemist, and had got advice from various doctors at other places; but nothing did me any good; I suffered great pain. One day Dr. Dowie asked me if I believed the Lord could heal, and was willing to heal me, and I said “yes.” I had just heard him preach from the words, “Wilt thou be made whole?” He prayed with me; and laid his hands upon the numerous open sores. Immediately Dr. Dowie prayed the pain went away, and the ulcerations ceased to trouble me. In less than three weeks the flesh on my legs was perfectly sound and well. That was over four years ago, and I have never seen the least sign of the ulcerations since. I give God all the glory; and am grateful to Dr. Dowie who has been used so much to us all.—From the Record of Fifth Annual Commemoration, (Australian) p. 30.

WORDS OF LIGHT FOR SOULS IN DARKNESS.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

WHEN the first Christian missionaries landed on the shores of Britain, our forefathers consisted of tribes of fierce savages, delighting in deeds of blood and cruelty, sunk in debasing heathenism, with all its darkness and despair. A council of chiefs was held, at which they discussed the question as to whether they would permit the devoted missionaries to preach the strange good-tidings which they called the Gospel—God's spell—the story of God's love in Christ. Many chiefs spoke against the permission; and the anxious ambassadors of mercy were becoming sad. At last, however, an aged chieftain arose, whose words carried weight: for he had been wise and brave. He said words like these, "Let these men speak: for we are dark. Here we are like birds of passage. We know not whence we came; and we know not whither we are going." If these men can tell us; in God's name, let them speak."

They spoke, and their words told our benighted forefathers the wondrous tale of "the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."—Luke 1: 78, 79. Gladly did they receive the message of peace; and upon their darkened spirits there dawned the light of an eternal day. Every blessing we enjoy flows from their opening the door of their hearts to receive the Sun of Righteousness; for it is the light of the gospel alone which has made the British empire what is to-day, in the fore-front of all the nations of the earth. These souls in darkness received the words of light; and with the inspired singer we may say, "The entrance of Thy words giveth light."—Psalm 119: 130.

Shall not we who have been so benefitted by the glorious gospel, tell its sweet message far and wide to those who know it not?

"Can we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of light deny?
Salvation! O Salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name."

Possibly these words are now being read by some one whose soul is in darkness and sorrow. Permit me as one whose commission is, "to turn men from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God," to speak a few words to thee in thy Saviour's name. Let me ask thee who art still in nature's darkness, groaning under the load of sin, a few questions:—

WHAT ARE THINE IDEAS OF GOD?

Is He veiled to thine imagination behind clouds of impenetrable darkness, dwelling in a majesty and awful glory which none dare enter? That conception is entirely wrong. Christ thy rightful Lord has revealed God as thine Eternal Father; and "this is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that God is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all."—1 John 1: 5. Any other idea is false. Light, Life, and Love express the true ideas of God's eternal nature. Remember the beautiful words of light, "Do not err, my beloved brethren: every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, with whom there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."—James 1: 16, 17. All who make God a source of darkness and not of light, are only repeating the deceitful inventions of the Father of Lies: for God is light, and the Father of Lights.

"Through night to light—in every stage,
From childhood's morn to hoary age,
What shall illumine the pilgrimage
By mortals trod?"

"There is a pure and heavenly ray,
That brightest shines in darkest day,
When earthly beams are quenched for aye,
'Tis lit by God."

WHAT ARE THINE IDEAS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE?

Do you conceive of it as dull, joyless, and ever filled with gloomy shadows? If so, again thou art wrong: for true Christians are thus described, "Ye are all the children of light and the children of the day; we are not of the night, nor of darkness."—1 Thessalonians 5: 5. Their path is not shrouded by sadness: for it is "as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4: 18). And they are commanded to "walk in the light, as God is in the light."—(1 John 1: 7).

"Walk in the light, so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love,
His spirit only can bestow
Who dwells in light above."

WHAT ARE THINE IDEAS OF LIFE HEREAFTER?

Dost thou imagine that any shadow can rest upon the life of the blessed there? Nay; for they who enter heaven "are partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light," being "delivered from the power of darkness."—Colossians 1: 12, 13. In the beautiful language of the Apocalypse, "the holy city" is thus described, "And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof."—Revelation 21: 23. How comforting to know also that "there shall be no night there."—Revelation 22: 5.

"No need of the sunlight in heaven we're told,
The light of that world is Jesus.
The Lamb is the Light in the city of gold,
The light of that world is Jesus."

WHO ARE THEY THAT DERIDE GOD'S WORDS OF LIGHT?

Thirty-four centuries ago the patriarch answered that question by saying, "they are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof."—Job 24: 13. The greatest teacher answered it in these words, "Every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved."—John 3: 20.

WHITHER THEN WILT THOU GO—INTO DARKNESS OR LIGHT?

Earthly lights are going out one by one; and soon for thee all earthly light will cease. Art thou going, by thine own free choice remember, into the night of eternal death? Listen once more to the voice of Him whose love has ever followed thee; and may it be that thou shalt now arise, and follow Him into the light of eternal life. He says, "I am the Light of the World: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the Light of Life."—John 8: 12. No one who faithfully followed ever found Him to fail, or the light of His love to grow dim. Forsaking thy sin, seek His face now, lest it be too late forever.

"Come to the Light, 'tis shining for thee;
Sweetly the Light has dawned upon me,
Once I was blind, but now I can see:
The Light of the world is Jesus."

MR. CHARLES ROBERTSON BEWICK, Clear Lake, near Horshman, Victoria, Australia.

Dear friends, I am very glad to add my testimony to that which has been given. For several years I suffered from a pain in the side and indigestion. I believed in healing though at the time; but I could not receive it, for I had not fully surrendered to God. A Mrs. Ballinger in our part of the country had returned with her left eye, which had been blind, restored to sight; and she told us all that Dr. Dowie had prayed with her, and laid hands upon her. I went to town, I started to pray, and when I came down Dr. Dowie prayed with me. I resolved to serve the Lord and give up sin. From that time to now I have been free from the disease which had so long troubled me. God has blessed me, healed me, and used me to others.—From the Record of Fifth Annual Commemoration (Australian) p. 30.

A NEW HEART.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

THAT is impossible! It cannot be done!" were the exclamations of an Indian Chief of the Delawares, as he sat many years ago, conversing with a friend at his fireside.

Both of them had been sitting in silence for a long time, looking into the brightly burning fire, and indulging in their own thoughts, until at length the silence was broken by the friend, who opened a conversation which gave rise to the exclamations of the Chief, with which I have begun this page.

"I will tell thee," said the friend to the Chief, "what I have been thinking of. I have been thinking of a rule delivered by the author of the Christian religion, which, from its excellence, we call the Golden Rule."

"Stop," said Teedyuscung, "don't praise it to me, but rather tell me what it is, and let me think for myself. I do not wish you to tell me of its excellence, tell me what it is."

"It is for one man to do to another as he would have the other do to him."

"That is impossible! It cannot be done!" the Chief immediately replied.

Silence again reigned.

Teedyuscung lighted his pipe and walked about the room. In about a quarter of an hour, he came to his friend with smiling countenance, and taking the pipe from his mouth he said: "Brother, I have been thoughtful of what you told me. If the Great Spirit that made man would give him a new heart, he could do as you say, but not else."

The Chief was right, and thus it was that he found the only means by which man can fulfil his duties to his fellow men, and above all can obey the will of God, as expressed in His word, and in Christ's sinless example.

How many difficulties would vanish, if once this first great essential to true godliness of life, were the possession of the hosts of eager inquirers on every side—A NEW HEART.

A learned Rabbi came to Jesus one night, with a trembling heart, to converse with Him regarding the miracles which he had seen Him perform, and also, no doubt, to discuss His strange and heart-touching teaching, concerning the kingdom of God. But Jesus met him, on the very threshold of the interview, with the assertion, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

This was a puzzling remark to Rabbi Nicodemus. Surely, he had KNOWLEDGE enough to see, he might have thought, all that Christ could teach him.

But no; Christ said, "you cannot see;" KNOWLEDGE is useless in this matter; "ye must be born again;" EXPERIENCE is useless; RANK, and AGE, and HONOURS will not help you: "you cannot enter into the kingdom of God" as you are; you need first of all A NEW HEART.

It was to fulfil the glorious prophecies of all the ages that Christ came—a purpose beautifully expressed in Ezekiel as follows,—"I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh; that they may walk in My statutes, and keep Mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be My people, and I will be their God."—Ezekiel 11:19, 20.

This was gloriously fulfilled, when Christ arose from the dead, re-ascended to the heavens, and sent forth the plenitude of His Spirit to make the hearts of all his people anew, so that it was written of the early disciples in the Acts of the Apostles (chap. 4: 32). "And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common." Nor is it to be wondered at, when the Church was filled with this new life, this union and communion, which is the law for Christians on earth as it is for the redeemed in heaven—"that with great power gave the apostle witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all, neither was there any among them that lacked."

Why is it not so to-day?

Whence is the spirit of division, if it be not in the lack of the "one heart and one soul," which welded together in spiritual unity, not in creedal formal unity, the whole of those who believed in the Lord Jesus? And does not the absence of this "one heart," prove a woeful absence of "the new spirit?"

Whence too is the spirit of isolation, if it be not in the lack of the practical recognition of the teaching of Christ, which bids His disciples to have all things in common? "But no; ye are poor, sit ye there; ye are rich, sit ye here in this better place; what I possess is my own, of which I may give you something, more probably though nothing, and the crumbs from my table I give to the Lord; and as for anything else why, sir, it is rank communism, an awful system you know." Can it be wondered at if the world sneers at the lives of such sham disciples who mock and insult their Lord, by a mutual oppressiveness and greed, which make them the ugly blots upon their glorious profession which they too generally are?

Whence also is the lack of that "great power" which accompanied the apostolic preaching, and that "great grace" which rested upon the whole Church, and the miserable groaning of those who "lack" everything almost, except it be the power to constantly complain of their weakness? It lies only too clearly in the sectarian divisions, and selfish isolations referred to; and, again, in the want of the "one heart and new spirit."

The whole creation groaneth in its pain; the people are weary in their sin, and find no rest in all their fruitless toil; death and hell devour the multitudes; Thy people droop in faith, sicken in hope, and fail in that unbounded love which Thou hast taught them. Oh, wilt Thou not come, Lord Jesus, and revive us again?

Listen! 'Tis a voice from the throne of God! "BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW . . . WRITE; FOR THESE WORDS ARE TRUE AND FAITHFUL."

"Even so, come, Lord Jesus."

"Gentle, awful, holy Guest,
"Make thy temple in each breast—
"Shrine of purity confessed; Comforter Divine."

HEALING OF INTERNAL TUMOR.

ROSE SPINKS, Moreland Grove, Melbourne, Australia, said:—For six months I suffered from an internal tumour, which gave me much pain and grew at last to a great size. Drs. Danne and Singleton said it was no use thinking of getting better without undergoing an operation. It was arranged that I should go to Ballarat for four weeks to get strength for the operation. One Saturday night I made up my mind to seek the Lord for Healing. On Sunday, October 17, 1886, I was crying in the Tabernacle at an after-meeting with pain, Dr. Dowie heard me, and asked me what the matter was. I then told him about the tumour, which was so large in front of me that I was ashamed. He then called Mrs. Dowie, and asked her to take me into his room and pray with me. Mrs. Dowie prayed and the pain went away. IN THREE DAYS EVERY PARTICLE OF THE TUMOR WAS GONE ALTOGETHER. I am perfectly well to-night, better than ever. On Thursday, 22nd October, five days after my healing, I went to see Drs. Danne and Singleton, by appointment, who said they could not find any trace of the tumor, and that it had gone quite away. —From Record of Fifth Annual Commemoration, p. 29.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

No. 11.

MISS AMANDA M. HICKS.

CARRIED FOUR HUNDRED MILES ON A BED, IN INTENSE AGONY, AND HEALED IN A MOMENT WHEN AT THE GATES OF DEATH, is a summary of the story of this Witness for God.

Loving hands carried her from her home, and the College of which she was Principal, through the streets of Clinton, Kentucky, on the canvas cot which is pictured on page 195, and which is preserved in Zion Tabernacle. It was made by one of her pupils after measuring the width of the door of a Pullman Sleeping Car, so that she might be carried in and transferred to bed, because she could not bear to be lifted.

Weeping, and fearing that they should see her face no more, her pupils and friends bade her a sad farewell.

When the cars reached the Central Depot of the Illinois Central Railway at Twelfth Street, Chicago, the sufferer was carried out to an ambulance, and conveyed to 3508 Ellis Avenue. This was on Tuesday, January 30th of this year. Of all this we knew nothing at that time.

On the afternoon of that cold, wintry day, we were approached by a lady and gentlemen who had accompanied Miss Hicks from Clinton—her friend and companion, Miss Fairfield, and the Rev. J. O. Burroughs, Baptist minister of Portland, Oregon, one of her old pupils. They told us of the long months of pain, night and day, which their friend had endured, the paroxysms of which were but partially and temporarily relieved by large doses of morphine. They told us of how the local doctors, and the specialist, Dr. Owen, of Chicago, had failed even to diagnose the case successfully, the latter saying that it was "wrapped in mystery."

They told us of how a wealthy New York friend of Clinton College, and of Miss Hicks, had urged her to go to Chicago and allow Professor Senn to perform a most serious operation, all doctors agreeing that this was the only possibility of saving her life—the said millionaire agreeing to pay the bills, which would probably amount to several thousands of dollars. They told us how one of Miss Hicks' pupils, who had been healed of almost total blindness, Mr. Guy Miles, had told of his restoration through our agency. They told of how another pupil, a young lawyer of Chicago, had investigated the work at Zion Tabernacle, and had written to her earnestly imploring her to come to Chicago, and seek the Lord for healing. They said they were specially impressed when this young man, who had been avowedly sceptical regarding miracles recorded in the Bible, made the long journey to Clinton, his old home, and stood by her bedside urging her to come. They told us that he recited to them the facts concerning the healings of Albion Wyman of consumption, and of May Lohman of paralysis (see No. 4 and 9 of LEAVES OF HEALING) and of many others, until Miss Hicks felt ashamed of her want of faith in Christ as her healer. They told us that they had read our writings to her, and that she at last saw God's Way of Healing, and immediately determined to have herself carried to Chicago to see us. They told us that she was then at 3508 Ellis Avenue and would be glad to see us and have us pray for her healing.

Great was their astonishment when we informed them that we would not come, until she gave up morphine and drugs of every kind. But that was our first and our final determination: for there is not an atom of hope for the healing of any one who will not first abandon that diabolical drug. We well nigh broke our hearts, and wasted time and strength until we learned that lesson.

But the pledge was given, and better still, it was kept: for from the moment her companions returned to Ellis Avenue, and told her what we required in the Name of the Lord, Miss Hicks never touched the delusive and destructive drug.

The following afternoon, with our good wife, we went to see the sufferer, and until mid-night we helped her to fight the still unwon battle with the drug, and it was pitiful to see the weakness of the once strong brain and body, and glorious to see how divine strength gave final victory. But it was a victory which almost vanquished the victor, and we saw that she must be removed to our Home, if we were to help her effectually, and to be used of God in the healing. The case was one of the gravest and most immediate peril, and Death hovered hungrily over its expected victim, and Satan hoped to destroy a noble and useful life, which longed only to live for Christ and for humanity. Therefore we took the risk of having her removed on a bitterly cold winter day, with the frozen snow lying deeply on the ground. About five long miles in a bed on a wide carriage seat, the weary sufferer rode from Ellis to Edgerton Avenue; and when she was carried into the house, 6036, which is now a part of Divine Healing Home No. 3, she looked like one about to die.

But the disease was to be the victim, and Christ was to be the Victor in the fight.

That day we prayed, and laid our hands upon her in Jesus' name. We found that the disease was a cancerous tumor in the region of the saecum which had burst, and discharged into the alimentary regions, with adhesions in many places, etc.

In a moment the terrible agony of months departed, and later in the evening she rose and walked freely. Several days of cleansing followed, gallons of cancerous matter passing away, and she was reduced by six inches in circumference.

Strength came quickly, good appetite, good food, etc., and above all an infinitely good God gave her power to go out, and to walk even in the snow. She went to Zion Tabernacle and several times gave public thanks and testimony, and she did the same in the First Congregational Church, South Chicago, and in the First Baptist Church, Englewood. She returned to Clinton as the local paper describes, and was received with open arms by all the people. But the wretched false-shepherds of the Baptist Churches of Western Kentucky drove her from the office of principal of the College she had largely made; because she would tell the story of her healing and teach Christ as the Healer of His people. She resigned, went to Europe for a holiday, and when we last heard of her she was "doing" Scotland with her friends on tricycles! What better proof of healing could be given? May she come back full of the Holy Ghost and do something better than run a College with such hypocrites for its rulers; and may her healing promote the glory of God and the healing of many for whose healing Christ died. Amen and Amen!

HEALED BY FAITH.

THE WONDERFUL STORY TOLD BY MISS A. M. HICKS, PRESIDENT OF CLINTON COLLEGE.

LEFT FOR CHICAGO AN INVALID, AND CAME BACK THOROUGHLY RESTORED TO HEALTH—THE NARRATIVE RELATED BY THE LADY HERSELF.

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, Than are dreamt of in your philosophy."

—[Hamlet.]

THE DISEASE.

More than four months ago, Miss A. M. Hicks, president of Clinton college, was attacked by a malignant disease, which defied the best efforts of several skilled physicians to extirpate it. True, from time to time, there seemed to be a change for the better, and the watchers were beguiled into the hope that health was coming back. But the reaction soon came—and the stealthy enemy appeared to have gained a yet surer footing.

All of us know how our best physicians battled for months with the insatiate destroyer—how it came to be whispered that death had claimed the good woman and was only respiting her from day to day—that human skill and science were powerless.

During these weary days certain friends of Miss Hicks began to tell her of the "Divine Healer," Dr. Dowie, of Chicago, and to urge her to go to him. At first she would scarcely listen to these advisers, but she couldn't wholly repel them, and she read upon the subject and studied her Bible—at last yielding an assent to go to Chicago and inquire more closely concerning the alleged miracles of healing being wrought there.

She had not been able to put her foot to the floor for weeks, and had in fact suffered untold torture at the slightest movement of her body—therefore it seemed out of the question for her to undertake such a journey. But, deadening her sensibilities with opiates, and assisted on a couch to the train, where she was made as comfortable as could be in a sleeping-car berth—accompanied by her true and tried comrade, Miss Fairfield—than whom the writer knows no nobler woman lives—Miss Hicks began her fateful journey. This was on Tuesday, January 30, and they reached the city on Wednesday morning. Soon after their arrival in the city Miss Fairfield left her charge, and went out to seek further knowledge of Dr. Dowie. Her investigations were thorough and she came back convinced that through him her afflicted friend might be cured. But, she brought word from him to that friend that she must take no more morphine—that he could be of no service to her until her body was free of the drug. Dr. Dowie and wife called the same afternoon and talked with her. During the next day, Thursday, she had a horrible struggle—as she said, “a hand to hand struggle with the devil”—and when her poor, pain-racked body, about midnight on Thursday night, had reached the very pinnacle of human misery, Dr. Dowie and wife again came to her and prayed that she might be permitted to sleep and that her pain might cease. Relief came to her, she asserts, instantaneously, and she fell into a sweet and gentle sleep, from which she did not awaken until the morning.

Refreshed and with slight pain remaining, on the next day she was moved five miles in a carriage to Dr. Dowie's home, and that same night (February 1st) the doctor, without informing her of his purpose so to do, prayed that she might be healed, and the feeling came to her on the moment that the prayer had been answered. Then he told her she could get up and walk, and she answered him that she knew she before her illness, when she was noted for those indicia of physical activity,

This, in brief, is the story told by Miss Hicks and Miss Fairfield in the chapel of Clinton College last Sunday afternoon, in the presence of several hundred people. It is so marvelous a tale that our finite minds can hardly grasp it and there are those who refuse to accept it as literal truth. Some of these say, “Of course these good women, the one flushed with the joy of the unexpected restoration to health of a beloved one who was thought to be past hope of recovery, the other enfeebled by illness and carried away by excess of thankfulness—both imposed upon, no doubt, by a man of great magnetic force or of wonderful hypnotic powers, are led away in their zeal into attributing that to the supernatural which was only, after all, coincidence,” or what not.

These explanations of the inexplicable are the natural escapes of the human intellect from a dilemma so new and unexpected. There are others who believe with unquestioning could, and she did so at once, crossing the room backward and forward four times without the slightest inconvenience or pain. He then explained to her that though the disease was dead, its products still remained in the body, and that the body would be cleansed in a few days. Several days afterward the effects of the tumor (for such must have been the malady with which she was afflicted) passed from her body. From that day she has experienced no pain at all. Naturally, she felt weak and debilitated after so long an illness, during which she could take hardly any nourishment; but with the removal of pain came appetite, and sound and strength-giving sleep.

The patient began taking outdoor exercise at once, in spite of snow, sleet, and chilling Chicago winds, and before she left the city she could and did walk two miles in one outing.

She returned to Clinton last Saturday, and was received by a great throng of her loved ones, with bounding hearts and warm greetings, at the depot, whence she walked to the college—a distance of about a mile—and her step was as elastic, her eye as bright, and her carriage as erect as ever in the days faith in the principle of the “Divine Healing,” and that Miss Hicks was cured through Dr. Dowie's mediation with the Holy Father.

When we consider that Miss Hicks is a woman of unusual intellectuality, unquestioned veracity and incomparable Christian virtues, and all that she says (if she needed vouching for) is eagerly testified to by Miss Fairfield, who was in the bloom and vigor of health; who, like Miss Hicks, is a woman of mentality, and one who studies and considers closely, and is not given to idle dreaming; their testimony would seem to overwhelm cynicism and confuse doubters. In addition to this they give examples without number—some of them coming under their own observation and others testified to by unimpeachable witnesses—of other cures effected through the instrumentality of Dr. Dowie, who only claims to be the instrument of a kind, heavenly Father to carry His mercies to His sick and afflicted children, who come to Him in perfect faith and repentance, and ask, believing that He can cure the body as well as the soul. It is a pretty doctrine, and not unchristian or fanciful, in spite of what dogmatists may say.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON THE EVENING
OF LORD'S DAY, OCT. 28th, 1894.

Opening hymn, 167:

"What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear."

Dr. Dowie then read the sixty-seventh psalm, followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Stith.

INVOCATION.

LET the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, let the record that will go forward, of the words in these testimonies, be gloriously blessed by Thee, extending thy saving grace among all nations, for Jesus' sake.

INTRODUCING THE FIRST WITNESS.

Dr. Dowie:—The first witness I shall call to-night will be a sister who had a very marvelous healing at the beginning of our ministry in this part of the country. I left Australia in March, 1888, and arrived in San Francisco in June of the same year, having spent some months in New Zealand, en route. I held a long series of missions on the Pacific Coast, all the way from San Diego, on the borders of Mexico, away up to British Columbia, extending over two years. We crossed the continent to Omaha, where we established a mission in connection with this ministry. I held my first services in this part of the country at Western Springs, I suppose about fifteen miles from the center of Chicago, in a westerly direction. I conducted a convention there for a number of days, to which persons came from many parts of this and other states to welcome us, and there were very large attendances, and many persons were wonderfully healed. The Rev. Calvin Pritchard, editor of the Christian Worker, was healed of diabetes, Mrs. Andrews, of the W. C. T. U., was also healed, and many others. The sister whom I now call upon was healed in a very marvelous way. I will tell you about my part of it. I was about to close the convention. It was the 7th of August, 1890. We were closing the convention, and I was saying that I was about to deliver an address which might be very startling to some of my hearers. I had come to the conclusion (which all my subsequent experience has confirmed) that the most of the people who believe in Divine Healing in Chicago, were a curse to it; that they were teaching doctrines that were false, and teaching people to testify to healing, who had never received it. I know of few things more wicked than to require people to testify to healing they have not received. If persons testify without consciously experiencing healing, they tell a lie. I said I was going to speak very plainly. I said I would lay down principles that possibly might startle them. I HAD APPEALED TO GOD. We were just about to pray before I delivered the address, when I saw a lady at the far end of the large tent, or pavilion, holding up a bit of paper. She came right up the middle passage. I took the bit of paper which was to this effect, that a lady, named Mrs. Jennie Paddock, was then lying dying; she had been given up by the doctor; had a fibroid tumor; the doctor had abandoned the case, and it was supposed mortification had set in; but the petition expressed the confident belief that if I prayed the prayer of faith, she would be healed.

I knew nothing about the lady for whom I was asked to pray. I had been in Chicago once, for about an hour, and knew no one, and had never been in a private house in the city.

I took the paper and said to the congregation, "I did not ask for this token; but God has sent this petition at this moment." I said, "I will pray, and if that lady has any faith in Christ at all, and if this petition is what they say it is, then God will answer my prayer, and He will give it also as a token of His approval of what I say to-day. I will pray that she shall live. Thereupon, I knelt down and prayed for the dying woman. She was instantaneously healed. She is here to-day. Let her tell the story, giving God the glory.

INSTANTANEOUS HEALING OF A WOMAN DYING FROM FIBROID TUMOR, BY THE PRAYER OF FAITH OFFERED BY DR. DOWIE, WHEN SHE WAS MANY MILES AWAY.

Mrs. Jennie Paddock, of 827 12th Street, Chicago, said: "I want to praise God for the privilege I have of testifying for Him. I praise Him for full salvation. I praise Him that He has saved me and healed me. I praise Him for this blessed teaching of Divine Healing, which our dear Brother Dowie has taught us. I praise Him for this answer to prayer, that He did both save me and heal my body perfectly. For two years up to that time I was an invalid the greater part of the time.

I had been a dressmaker, running a machine, and my left limb gave out. I first went to Dr. Byford, who said it was a growth of some kind; could not tell just what it was; said for me to take treatment twice a week, and requested me to come to his office, which I did. The second time I went he called in his father, the old Dr. Byford, and he examined my hip, and he said it was some kind of a growth and would have to be treated for. Dr. Watkins examined me, with other physicians, and said it was a tumor on the inside, and was doubtless, very near as large as a cocoanut. It had been coming for some time, and was growing rapidly, and was just beginning to show the appearance on the outside, and he said he thought I would have to undergo an operation, but would see what they could do for it with treatments.

I went on for some time to the office twice a week. It seemed from the very first start they began to treat me it grew worse. Every week I could see that my general health was failing me; I was growing worse, and the tumor larger. I told the doctors so. They said still to come on for to be treated, until I could be operated on. Finally it got so I could not sit up or walk. I could not sit up at all; could not lay on my back for the pain of it; I lay altogether on my right side. Then they said that I had better come into the hospital. I did not want to go into the hospital. They said I could not be attended to properly, and could not have the care if I did not, and they wanted me to go into the hospital; a private hospital for ladies only; and I should have the best of nurses. They took me to the hospital. I was examined by the best of physicians; by Drs. Martin, and Byford, and others. They examined the tumor and found it had grown fast to the blood-vessels and the spine, and they did not think it could be removed, but they would do what they could for me. They kept working with the tumor, and none but the Lord knows what I suffered among those physicians time and time again. I was in constant torture all the time, and was weakened: for the tumor had grown so large into my stomach I could not take food any more. They kept hot applications on all the time and rubbing with brandies. I could not eat anything. Just as soon as I swallowed anything it came up. I was so sick it would only cause great pain. They treated me with an electric battery; and in probing the tumor it got so much worse it caused inflammation in the bowels and stomach, and they said I could go home, as they could not do anything more for me. They told my husband and daughter to take me home, for there could not be anything done. After all I had suffered and went through. I can never forget those doctors; I can forgive them, but I can never forget the torture I went through, when they knew at the time they could not do anything. They took me away. Another doctor, Dr. Mulfinger, had heard of my case and asked if he might come to see me. My son-in-law said he did not think I would ever want to see another doctor; he said he had heard of me, and would like to see the case. My husband consented that he should come; but I was then in a dying condition. When the doctor came and examined me, he said he did not think I could live that night; that mortification was setting in; he said they had probed the tumor so much, I had inflammation in my stomach and bowels. My head was drawn back, and this arm drawn back this way. I lay on this side with the pillow. The doctor left some medicine to try to ease my pain. In the morning the doctor came back and said he was sorry to see that the medicine did not do me any good at all. He said he was sorry to say that he had done all that could be done. He told my husband when he went out, that he did not think I would live longer than noon, but he thought I would get easy before I died; that I was so weak, and to watch me closely or I would drop off suddenly. Just as the doctor went out, a lady friend, a dear, Christian woman, came in and asked about me. They told her I was very low, and she asked me if I thought I was going to die. I told her I did not know without the Lord raised me up. I knew no doctors could ever raise me up. I said, God alone, is the only one who can ever heal my body. She told me of Dr. Dowie, and his meetings at Western Springs, and I agreed that she should at once take out my petition for prayer. She prayed with me and went out to the Convention Dr. Dowie was holding, carrying my request. That is the last I remember until late in the evening, and I began to get better, and I fell asleep, and I slept. My husband was watching over me, thinking that after I slept I would die sure enough, as the doctor had said I would get easy before I died. I went to sleep and slept soundly and woke up well, feeling as well as I do to-day.

I SHOUTED PRAISE TO THE LORD THAT I WAS WELL.

My neighbors, for some one had called some of the neighbors in, thought I was dying. My daughter came in crying. "O mamma, what is the matter with you?" "Praise the Lord, I am well." I tell you, beloved ones, God did not only heal me but I was fully saved right there. I tell you God comes right in and delivers us out of our sins and sicknesses. O, it is a blessing. We realize then that the blessed Saviour we have is not only our Saviour but our Healer. O, I bless His Holy Name. So I woke up and felt so well that I wanted to go right up and tell others how the Lord healed me. I said to my husband; "O, how many there are suffering from tumors the same as I am, waiting to be operated on, and don't know the Lord will heal them." They kept at me to lie quiet, and they thought I was dying. All the remainder of the night they kept watch over me. I could turn myself over; my arm was straight, and I was healed. They wouldn't let me get up. The next morning my husband was standing by the bed and I told him to sit down on the bed. He didn't want to do that. Before that I couldn't bear the covers straightened, but I put my arms on his shoulder and raised myself up. Before that I couldn't sit up. He could see the tumor was going away.

I ASKED FOR SOMETHING TO EAT.

I was hungry. He asked me what I felt like I could eat. I said I felt like I could eat most anything. I was hungry. They brought me in quite a breakfast; I thought I had never tasted anything so good. I said, "Do you believe I am well." He says, "No, I believe you are better. You lie very quietly. You may get worse again." I said, "I don't believe I am going to get worse. I am strong, I don't believe I am weak." He says, "To-morrow you may get up." He went out of the room. I was left in the room alone. I felt, now, why do I want to lie here when God has showed He has healed me?

WHY DO I WANT TO LIE HERE?

I looked like a ghost: for I was poor as a snake. I got up and found I could stand on my feet. I reached under the bed and got a large shawl and put it on, and the first thing they saw I was walking in the third room from there. They ran to me and thought I would fall. I looked like I would fall to pieces. Thank God, I had strength. I went on and got a rocking chair and sat down and rested awhile. After awhile I lay down a little while. After a bit I got up and put on my clothes. I had my strength and I got up next morning and stayed up, and I think all day the next day, and just in that week we moved to 504 Albany Ave. I helped pack and move the things. I wanted a new carpet for my room. My husband was so delighted that he said I should have a new carpet. He got it and put it into the room. I went to work and made my carpet and had it ready to put down against bedtime, just a week after I had been healed. From that on I just gained in flesh. Enjoyed the best of health. One week after that I went to the hospital where I had been. Mrs. Russell was matron there. She was very much surprised that I was there.

SHE THOUGHT I WAS DEAD AND HAD SENT A LITTLE BOY TO FIND WHERE I WAS BURIED.

She thought I had been taken back to Indianapolis where it was supposed I was buried. She had told the doctor that, and he said, "O, that's what we expected anytime, for she couldn't get better." All were feeling bad at my being dead when I walked in to the hospital. She said, "I am so sorry you didn't come a little sooner. The doctors have all left, and if I told them you were well they would never believe it. I want you to set a day for the doctors." I said, "I want to tell them that Jesus healed me." I told her a day. I told her she could tell the doctors to meet me at Dr. Martin's office. Dr. Martin came to the door and said, "O, Mrs. Paddock, we heard you were well but now we believe it. Now we have heard of such things." I said, "Praise the Lord, I am well." He said, "Come in and tell me all about it." I came in and they all sat around and listened just as attentively as could be. I told them how the request had been taken to Dr. Dowie. I told those doctors about it and they said,

"IF SUCH THINGS ARE, THEY ARE MIRACLES."

Then they asked, "Didn't that tumor come away? Where could it have gone away? It must have come away in some way." I said, "It never did." I said, "It never went away in a visible manner, and where it is gone, I don't know." They said, "The tumor is certainly gone, if it will only stay well." I said, "If the Lord is able to heal me, He is able to keep me," and I have never touched medicine since. I have no use for medicine any more, or for doctors any more. Praise the Lord, I have a physician now, who never lost a case. Once since that, I believe it was the second winter after that, I had La Grippe. I sent a telegram to Dr. Dowie. I had it so bad that I had spasms with it. I had a spasm just as he came into the room. When I came to, he was praying with me. The pain was all gone and I was able to get up. I have suffered little attacks since that. All the physician that I have had was to call on Dr. Dowie, and he went to the Lord with it and the Lord answered his prayer. I praise God for the teaching of Dr. Dowie. He has brought joy and brightness into my heart and life and I praise the Lord, and give Him all the glory for it."

Dr. Dowie:—At the time at which I prayed, Mrs. Paddock fell asleep; and at the time the meeting ended she awoke. That was the time she turned to her husband after she awoke out of her sleep. The lady who visited her said, she was largely under the influence of morphine at the time of her visit. Mrs. Susie Barnes, the lady who brought the request, said Mrs. Paddock was just at the point of death. Those who saw the tumor said it was turning purple. Dr. Mulfinger said mortification had set in, and from the description I think it had. Although she knew so little about it, she just reached out her dying hand to God, and asked, even scarcely knowing she was asking, that prayer might be offered for her. Mrs. Barnes hastened out of the room and came right up to me at Western Springs, and the answer was given. It was on the 7th day of August 1890. She stands here well to-day and has been well with the exception of some attacks of La Grippe. In answer to prayer she has been instantaneously healed every time. Our sister's healing has been perfect from that moment, from the first moment, and the tumor has never been found to this day and the doctors do not know where to find it. It came from the devil and it went back to the devil.

Of course some of you remember this case. It was published in the Inter Ocean a year after the healing, published in full and after full investigation when I was in the east. I suppose there were many persons who thought it was an advertisement. I will append the Inter Ocean's report to Mrs. Paddock's testimony when we publish it in the LEAVES OF HEALING.

SO SAY MEMBERS OF DIVINE HEALING ASSOCIATION.

FOLLOWERS OF DR. DOWIE.

WHAT HIS PRAYERS HAVE DONE FOR MRS. JAMES PADDOCK.

SHE CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN CURED OF A FIBROID TUMOR—OTHER REMARKABLE CASES.

MORDERN MIRACLES OF FAITH.

If the men and women who constitute the Divine Healing Association of Chicago are correct in their belief, the Omnipotent still continues to perform miracles among mortals, and within the past year scores of believers in this city have been snatched from out the shadow of death to be restored to perfect health.

The president of the association and exponent of its doctrines is the REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, who was originally a Congregational minister.

The doctrine of the association, briefly stated, is, that the Lord will heal all who follow His teachings and have unbounded faith in His power and willingness to heal.

In a cozy little flat at No. 491 Kidzie avenue live Mr. and Mrs. James Paddock. Mrs. Paddock, a prepossessing and intelligent appearing little woman of 47 years, is cited by the disciples of divine healing as one of the remarkable examples of the Lord's miraculous work in this city. Mrs. Paddock, when visited by a reporter for The Inter Ocean, cheerfully related the circumstances.

HER RESTORATION TO HEALTH.

"About three years ago," said she, "a tumor formed just inside of my left hip bone and gradually enlarged until I found it necessary to place myself under the care of a physician.

I doctored with the late Dr. William H. Byford for several months, and later with Drs. Lyon and Watkins. The tumor was of such a nature that their medicines could not help it, and they sent me to a private hospital on State street, with the intention of performing an operation. They found, however, that the tumor had grown to blood-vessels so firmly that an operation would probably prove fatal. They finally decided they could do nothing for me and I was taken home.

"Dr. Franklin Martin then gave me the electric treatment for some time, but I daily grew worse. Dr. Mulfinger, of No. 583 South Halsted street, attended me for a few weeks, but inflammation had set in and he gave me up, telling Mr. Paddock that I could not live more than a few days. I was in untold agony, and could not sleep at all. My husband and daughter were constantly at my side.

EXPECTING DEATH EVERY HOUR.

"Mrs. Susie Born of No. 676 Leavitt street, and Mrs. Gillette friends of mine, had attended Dr. Dowie's meetings and had implicit faith in his teachings. Mrs. Gillette had been a cripple for years and had been restored to health through prayer. These two ladies told me of Dr. Dowie's teachings, and after I came to thoroughly believe that the Lord would heal me if I gave myself up to Him. Dr. Dowie was holding a series of meetings at Western Springs at the time, and I sent a request to him by these ladies to pray for me.

"It was about 9 o'clock in the evening when they reached Western Springs, and Dr. Dowie was in the midst of his service. He asked his congregation to join him in offering up a prayer for me, although he had never seen me. Shortly after 9 o'clock—it must have been about the time he closed his prayer—the pain suddenly abated, and I fell asleep. Awakening about two hours later, I felt that I had been healed. The swelling in the region of the tumor was greatly reduced and the pain was gone. I rose up in bed and told my husband that I was well. He was startled, and thinking I was dying, called in my daughter. In a little while I was up and dressed, and within a week I was perfectly well

AND HARD AT WORK."

"Do you consider yourself entirely cured?"

"So far as I am able to tell, I am. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since, and I cannot feel the slightest trace of the tumor."

"And you firmly believe that your health was restored in answer to prayer?"

"I know it! How could I believe otherwise?"

Mrs. Paddock also told of another transformation which, to her, was of still greater moment. Her husband, who is a contractor, had owned considerable property at one time, but had taken to drinking so hard that, between his dissipation and her sickness, it had dwindled away to nothing. Excessive drink had affected his mind to such an extent that on two occasions it was necessary to send him to an asylum. Since the day of her recovery he has totally abstained from drink, and is as enthusiastic a disciple of divine healing as is his wife. Neighbors and friends of Mrs. Paddock, who saw her almost daily during the last days of her illness, fully substantiate her statement of her remarkable recovery.

HEALING OF DYSPEPSIA, ETC.

Mrs. Bolles, of 2554 Cottage Grove Avenue said: "I have been sick from dyspepsia and weakness of my eyes. I am a dressmaker. Last fall I had to give up, towards Christmas. I had dyspepsia so that I could not keep anything on my stomach. I had to give up. I went home about four months and came back and felt better. This summer it commenced again. I had to lie down every day. I was afraid to go to the table when hungry, as it always pained me when I ate. A friend said to me, "Come to Dr. Dowie's. I came on Children's Day and heard Dr. Dowie, and he was praying, and I felt I was healed, and I went home and ate a good meal, and have never suffered any since. My sister, of Manitowoc, Wisconsin, was healed of the same disease, worse than mine. She went home and the last time I heard from her she was cleaning house, something she had not done for a long time. I give God all the glory and thank Dr. Dowie for the teaching."

HEALING OF IMPERFECT SIGHT.

Miss Washburn, of Rensselaer, Indiana, said: "I wore glasses for eleven years, for far-sightedness, and then I said I would put my glasses off; that was seven weeks ago, and I praise the Lord, now my eyes are stronger than ever in my life.

HEALING OF PARALYSIS.

Mrs. Shield, of 458 California Avenue, said: "I came to this meeting last June with Mrs. Paddock. I never heard anything of this teaching at all. I did not know quite how to believe it at all, but I did after coming here a few times. I suffered from paralysis; I could not walk very well. I came here and Dr. Dowie put his hands on me and prayed, and instantly I felt relieved. When I came out I felt stronger, and am still getting stronger, and am getting well. I give the Lord all the praise.

HEALING OF BODY AND QUICKENING OF SPIRIT.

Mrs. Bettison, of Fifty-fourth Street, said: "I feel very happy, and I feel as though I could not thank God enough for all the blessedness and happiness I have received since I came to hear Dr. Dowie, through his beautiful way of reading and expounding the Bible, making it so plain and so different from what I have been in the habit of hearing. It has changed my whole life, my whole thought. My daughter, as well as myself, has received equal blessings. When I first came to hear Dr. Dowie I was weak and miserable, and could scarcely walk. When I came here I did not come out of curiosity. I expected to hear something I never heard before, and I have heard a great deal I never heard before; things I have enjoyed. When I came here I could scarcely walk two or three blocks. Every time I came here I could feel my strength was increasing; I was getting stronger every time I came. I live on Fifty-fourth Street. I can walk up here and back three times (forty-eight blocks) on Sunday. I think I could walk equally as well as my friend, Mr. Inglis here. Oh, the blessings we have received. How happy we are. Things are so different. My daughter even says, "Mamma, we were never so happy in our lives as since we heard Dr. Dowie." This afternoon when Dr. Dowie said perhaps he would stay two years longer, you do not know how glad I felt. It even makes me sad to think of Dr. Dowie going away. The good he is doing, and the souls he is bringing to Christ, to say nothing about the removal of their bodily sufferings, is something perfectly lovely. Every Sunday is just like a feast all the day. I thank God every day of my life, and every time I go on the streets and I think I see anybody sick, I want to fly right up to them and say, "Go up to Dr. Dowie. He can teach you how to get well, and he will pray for you." They say, "Well, I do not believe in him." "You never heard him, go to hear him." A lady came into my place Friday and said, "You and your daughter look so well and happy." She said, "There is something, I do not know what it is." I said, "It is hearing Dr. Dowie's teaching. She said, 'My husband does not believe in it, my husband does not believe in Spiritualism and Christian Science.'" I said, "These are among the very things Dr. Dowie is trying to kill." I thank God, my Heavenly Father, that God has sent Dr. Dowie to teach us the way to go to Christ and be better Christians. I do not think we were ever good Christians until Dr. Dowie came and opened our eyes. For five years I have not eaten any breakfast, and my friends thought it a marvelous thing I could live on so little, and now I eat four meals every day. I work as a dressmaker from 7:30 or 8:00 until 11:00, sometimes 12:00 and often 1:00 and 1:30 in the morning. That requires a great deal of strength, and I thank God for all He has done for me. I wish Dr. Dowie would stay here all the remainder of his days."

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Dr. Dowie: "Thank you very much, sister, but I must preach the gospel in other cities also."

HEALING OF RHEUMATISM AND HEART DISEASE.

Emma Garvel, of 4426 La Salle Street, said: "I had rheumatism for six months. It was in March that I noticed I began to feel bad; I could not walk even across the floor; I could not walk any place but what I would get out of breath. I would have to lie down and rest. I came here about four weeks ago, and after the second time I came here, I did not have any more rheumatism. Dr. Dyer said my heart disease was incurable. He is at 107 Clark street. God has healed me of that also. I am improving every day and praise the Lord for my healing."

Dr. Dowie: "A very perfect case, so far as I can judge."

INTRODUCING AN IMPORTANT TESTIMONY.

Dr. Dowie:—"We will take Mrs. Cotton. This is our little matron of Divine Healing Home No. 2, and the wife of our janitor. In some respects Mrs. Cotton's case cannot be told fully on this platform; but I must get all the details some day for LEAVES OF HEALING. It is a remarkable case, from a suffering woman's point of view. We have perfect confidence in her and her husband. He is, as you nearly all know, the janitor of Zion Tabernacle, and takes care of our premises in a way we appreciate. I am indebted to my servants, to those who serve the Lord with me."

HEALED AFTER TWO AND A HALF YEAR'S SICKNESS, AND NINETEEN DOCTORS.

Mrs. F. W. Cotton said: "I was sick for about two years. For a year and a half I was in bed all the time, and was under the doctor's care. I had several doctors in Rockford, then I was sent to Chicago. I had several doctors here, nineteen doctors in all."

Dr. Dowie: "Did you all hear that? She had nineteen doctors in all. The wonder is she did not die of doctors."

Mrs. Cotton: "Dr. Burr was the first doctor I had when I came to Chicago. I thought a great deal of him. He was nice and kind to me. He wanted to perform an operation right away. He said nothing else would help me. I did not want that and we went to another doctor. I was living in a doctor's house at that time. We did not have him because he was sick himself. We had a doctor that lived across the street. He used to come in several times a day, sometimes three times. I was in bed at times. When we came away from there I went to St. Luke's Hospital, and then to the County Hospital. I had many doctors there and did not get any better, but grew worse. Blood poisoning set in at that time, and I could not see out of my eyes, they were black and blue all the time. The doctors gave me all sorts of medicines for it. It did not help me or do any good. Every doctor I had, said I could not get better in less than six or seven months. I had Dr. Ryan of Halsted Street. He said he could heal me in three months. I was in St. Luke's Hospital and he was anxious to get me out to treat me privately. I was three months under his care, and was not any better. He told me at the end of that time he could not do anything for me. He wanted to perform an operation. I did not have him do that because I did not want it. At last I went back to Dr. Burr again. I did not care to live any longer at that time, and I could not eat anything; I could not walk. My husband had to take care of me like a little baby, and I was suffering all the time; suffering from the doctors. If I had known as much then as I do now I would not have had the doctors to treat me as they did. I had an operation and was not able to sit up at all. Dr. Burr said he did not think he needed to come out any more because he could not cure me. I had him for a year at that time. Then I thought I would go out to the Presbyterian Hospital. I was out there about two hours; and I now think it was the Lord that sent me there. I felt I wanted to die. I was taken out there. My husband quit work the whole day and took me out, and I was waiting a little while for the doctor, when the thought came to me I could not stay there; I could not bear to undergo the treatment I had undergone before. I told him to take me right out; he asked me what I would do now. He says, "You ought to stay here and hear the doctor and see what he can do." I told him I did not want the doctor. I was through with them. A stranger then, Mr. Paddock, was on the same car we were, and he told my husband how Mrs. Paddock was healed of the tumor, through Dr. Dowie's prayer of faith; that was all he told me. He gave us his address, and for three days I kept at my husband all the time to go there to see Mrs. Paddock. I began to get better as soon as I heard the Lord was the Healer, and I threw away all my medicine and trusted in the Lord. I did not know how to do that fully; but I knew a little. I received according to my faith. I was able to eat my meals. I did not go very far until I heard Dr. Dowie's teaching. When I heard his teaching the first time, I was carried to the place where he spoke. That night he prayed with me. I walked ten blocks to the cars that night. I did not need to do it; but I felt like doing it; for I felt better. I then rode home from the north side to the west side, and did not even have a pain. was, however, weak at the time. I did not get my strength in a moment fully, but as I attended the meetings, and got the teaching, I got stronger all the time. I am now perfectly healed. I praise the Lord to-night for what He has done for me, and to-day, if I had to leave here and go away somewhere, I never could forget these meetings. I feel like trying how many ways I can praise the Lord that I ever heard this."

CONFIRMATION BY HER HUSBAND.

Mr. F. W. Cotton said:—"All that I can say is that my wife has not told one-third of the story: for she could not give it as it is. She just gave you a short outline of it. Because of the nature of the case it would be impossible to give it as it is; but we will try and write it so that the doctor can publish it in the LEAVES OF HEALING, when he wants it."

Dr. Dowie:—"We have got the surgical instruments that she used to wear. Any of you women understand when she had nineteen doctors and constant local treatment, you must understand that her condition was a very serious one."

PRaise FOR SALVATION.

Mr. Cotton, continuing:—"Every word she has said is true. I want to thank God for saving me and for all the blessings He has given me. I thank God I can be here in His service, working for the Lord every day. I want to thank Dr. Dowie for all the teaching I have received. I have only been a Christian for a little over two years.

HEALED OF TYPHOID FEVER, ETC.

Mr. Stahlman, Cold Spring, Penn., said:—"I came here from Ashland, Wis. I am glad Dr. Dowie has called on me. I am rather timid and that is the reason I never testified before; I am glad therefore that God has called me, and that I may have an opportunity to testify for God. I feel that I cannot express in words how God has blessed me. I will make an effort, however, briefly. I came here a wreck physically. I was going down with typhoid fever. I couldn't eat or sleep and was so weak I could hardly come here to the Tabernacle. O, wretched man that I was! I had determined to go to a hospital. Through a friend I was induced to come here and I thank God that I was led here. I was healed of fever the 28th of August. The healing was instantaneous. Dr. Dowie prayed for me and laid hands on me. At once the disease was killed. I felt better and stronger the very moment he laid hands on me. I improved from that moment, and soon all traces of it were gone. I can eat now and eat with any of you; have a ravenous appetite: can sleep and have gained nearly twenty pounds since. I appreciate these blessings, and I praise God for them and give Him the glory. I seek for further blessing, and in due time hope I shall give further testimony of the blessing I am receiving. I am a stranger here, comparatively, but my sister is here and the friends that induced me to come are here and they can confirm my testimony."

Man in the audience:—"He is my brother, and it is all true."

Dr. Dowie:—"I remembered this young man. The moment my eye fell on him to-night, I remembered him when he came to me an absolute wreck, filled with malarial poison. It passed out of him in a moment."

CLOSING WORDS.

Dr. Dowie:—"Now beloved friends, we have had a good long day, and more than five hours of testimony in Zion Tabernacle this afternoon and evening, and yet we have not heard a tittle of those who came prepared to testify to the healing power of God through faith in Jesus.

We shall have and Praise Testimony Meeting, God willing, on the last Sabbath afternoon and evening of each month.

We have had a delightful day. May God bless these testimonies. I pray God to-night that the simple stories of these people who have been so wondrously healed may go out to all the world and promote the glory of our God and Father. May they give glory to the name of Christ our Savior, and, by the blessed power of the Holy Ghost, bring help and blessing to countless multitudes in many lands and tongues. God grant it and let all the people say, Amen." (Amen! from all.)

Dr. Dowie:—"Thank God."

After singing the Doxology the meeting was closed with the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil, and the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus. Faithful is He that calleth you who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you ever. Amen.

ON November 16th, we opened another Home for God's sick children, who are setting their faces toward Zion Tabernacle, from all parts of America, and indeed from other continents. We present our readers with a picture of the New Home, and ask their earnest prayers for its prosperity, and for all who enter its pleasant portals.

As we stated in No. 10, of this series of LEAVES OF HEALING, the new Home was "half filled the first day." Shortly after, every room was occupied, and that has been its condition ever since: for as quickly as one guest leaves, there is another, and sometimes two or three, ready to take the room.

We have appointed an excellent brother minister, who has also been a doctor of medicine, and his amiable and intelligent wife, to be house father and mother. Thus far God has manifestly approved our choice, and our brother and sister, and their little three year old daughter, Ruth, give the Home a most homelike appearance and feeling.

Profiting by our experience in furnishing and fitting Homes No. 1 and 2, we have been able to make improvements in Home No. 3, and Messrs. Mandel Brothers, of Chicago, have executed our orders in such a way as to make it pleasant, comfortable, harmonious, and inviting. We have an excellent staff of Christian servants, and have spared neither time, thought, labor, nor money to make it such a Home as that of "Gaius the well beloved," which is commended so beautifully by the apostle John in his third epistle. We desire to "do a faithful work in whatsoever we do towards them that are brethren and strangers withal."

The Home is situated at Nos. 6034 and 6036 Edgerton Avenue, the two houses being made into one. It is built of white stone and red pressed brick, and stands in grounds by itself, with a considerable space on the east, west and south sides. It is just three doors from Home No. 1, where we personally reside, so that the guests come to our Morning Prayers, and Special Gatherings in the assembly room there. It is within a block and a half of Zion Tabernacle where there are many meetings, every week. It overlooks Jackson Park and the guests can see the remnants of the World's Fair, and the so-called White City, but they can also see what is better, the improvements which are being made in the Park, the Wooded Island and Lagoons and in the Midway Plaisance.

In a few months these will be fully restored to their natural beauty and be even lovelier than before: for every vestige of the shoddy and artificial shams of the Fair will have disappeared forever. The surroundings of the Home are quiet, and pleasant walks and drives are within easy reach. It is seven miles distant from the center of Chicago; but the Express Trains on the Illinois Central Railway, running three trains an hour, makes the Home only fifteen minutes distant. The Home is within a block of the 60th Street depot of the Illinois Central Railway. The Elevated Railway and Street Cable Car lines are within easy distance.

The office of the Steward of the Homes is in Home No. 3, and all personal applications for rooms must be made there. All applications by letter must be made to Rev. John Alex. Dowie, Home No. 1, 6020 Edgerton Ave. It is better to make application in person, or by a personal friend living in Chicago, as the correspondence is so large that there is danger of delay. Besides there are many cases which can only be received after personal interview.

The rates for board and room accommodation are the same as in No. 1, and can be procured on application. There are no charges of any kind in the Homes or in Zion Tabernacle for Dr. Dowie's services, the work being supported by free-will offerings.

The opening of Home No. 3 has not solved the problem—scarcely has it postponed the solution—of finding room for the friends who are coming to seek Divine Healing in Zion Tabernacle, from all parts. Let our readers ask for us Divine guidance, more money, and good helpers.

These Homes are truly being established by God.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"DID NOT OUR HEARTS BURN WITHIN US, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures?"

VERILY they did in Zion Tabernacle last Lord's Day; and so said the eager throngs, which thronged it to overflowing and overflowing, so that crowds went away unable to get standing room.

"THEY told what things were done in the way, and how He was known of them IN BREAKING OF BREAD."

How can we write the story of last Lord's Day? How can we describe the emotions which filled all our hearts, when in the three gatherings of the day more than one thousand persons openly sought by Repentance, and Confession and Faith in Jesus Christ, the forgiveness of their sins?

"Who can describe the joys that rise
Through all the Courts of Paradise,
To see a prodigal return,
To see an Heir of Glory born?"

AND then, how can we describe the scene, when we gathered God's redeemed ones around their Lord and Redeemer's Table at the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper?

There were fully 700 present, it is said; and, oh, how our Lord made Himself known "in breaking of bread," and how the red blood coursed in our veins, and our spirits leaped toward Him, as we drank the pure, unfermented, red wine. Who can describe the holy aspirations generated, and the vows of these consecrated hearts, as in a silence which could be felt, they listened to the voice of their Lord? And then the act of Consecration, when all stood up, and with one heart and voice dedicated themselves and their all to God forever and ever—who could paint that scene, in that solemn evening hour? No heavenly pen dipped in angel's thought, could tell the story, and how could pen of mortal man? We will not attempt it, but simply say He met with us and revealed Himself that day "in the way," as He never did to us before.

These Union Communion are the only Communion God approves, and they bring a joy, a glory, and a power the miserable Sectarian Separatist never knew.

We went forth from that Table into the night, and saw innumerable suns shining in the heavens and over all one arch of glory, whilst singing still in our hearts:—

"And now Thy people are allowed
To scale the mount, and pierce the cloud;
And Faith may feed her eager view
With wonders Sinai never knew."

THE other day a brother said, "What are you?" We said "Christ's." We meant it.

"Blessed is He that cometh IN THE NAME OF THE LORD."
Don't you all say, Amen, who love the Lord?

Then what of those who come in the name of the Pope, in the name of Wesley, Luther or any other?

They are not "blessed" by God. They cannot be: for it is written, "Blessed is he that cometh IN THE NAME OF THE LORD."

What of those who come in the name of the Bishops [Episcopalians], or in the name of communities living mostly in the Valley of Dry Bones [Congregationalists]; or in the name of people who have turned the baptismal water into an icy barrier ten thousand feet thick [Baptists]; or in the name of the presbyters or elders [Presbyterians]—what of them—does God approve their coming to the people in these names?

Nay, verily, for it is written "Blessed is He that cometh IN THE NAME OF THE LORD." It is Sin to carry on His Church in any other name. It is Sin to preach His Gospel in any other name. It is Sin to pray to the Eternal Father in any other name.

Take down all other names, brethren, and write over all your Churches, Homes, Pulpits, Factories, Stores—CHRIST IS ALL—but let the words first be written in your hearts. We love the brethren, even although they fling jawbones at us from the Valley, but we do not like to see them, if they are really Christ's, assuming human names and presuming to put them on God's Church. Are they ashamed of the Family Name—"The NAME that is above every name?"

WE desire to thank readers in all parts of the world for the love they have expressed towards us and our little "white-winged dove" as one called it, LEAVES OF HEALING. If we should draw our last mortal breath to-day, we should rejoice throughout eternity that God gave us so great a privilege as to enable us to write the story of His unchanging love. But we hope to make it more and more worthy of a place in the hearts and homes of God's people. "Pray for us" that we may be able to do this, and do not forget the Notes we wrote on that subject in our last issue.

WRITING from Warrensburg, Mo., under date of Nov. 26th, our brother, Mr. S. F. Huston writes:—"When I read the LEAVES OF HEALING from week to week, I am filled with emotion, and my eyes fill with tears of joy, knowing the good that is being done. A young man was here a few weeks ago, attending a religious gathering, who said he was converted and healed in the same hour of double rupture, in Zion Tabernacle. He said he had been robbed of all his money except twenty-five cents. He had a loaded revolver in his pocket and was looking for the man that robbed him, expecting to shoot him when he found him. When he came by Zion Tabernacle he dropped in thinking he might see his man. He heard you preaching and he was converted, healed, etc., etc., and much more followed which doubtless you will remember, and I will not write, lest I weary you with too long a letter."

THAT was the first we heard of it, brother, so far as we can remember; but we know of a number of cases not unlike this; and we rejoice in them above all that earth could give. These are stars in Christ's Crown.

BUT our space to-day is exhausted, and our Editorial Drawer is full of letters crying, "Print us!" Not to-day, but, thank God, there is another day.

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US"

WITHOUT HUMAN TOUCH.

HEALING OF CANCER IN THE STOMACH.

The Instantaneous Healing of an Aged German Lady
Through the Prayer of Faith.

INTERCESSORY prayer on behalf of persons at a distance is one of the features of our work which has given us great joy. "The prayer of faith shall save the sick" for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

It has been our privilege to pray that prayer, inspired by the Spirit of God, for vast numbers of persons whose faces we have never seen, and to have very large numbers of gracious answers. Out of many we have selected one case which, in all its features, illustrates the truth that Divine Healing, as we are permitted to teach it, is Divine; is wholly of God, and not of man.

The aged German lady, Mrs. Clavadatcher, of Sauk City, Wisconsin, can neither read nor write English and could not therefore communicate with us herself. Through her son, a merchant of Baraboo, Wisconsin, the first inquiries concerning us were made. Her son visited our Home, saw one of our Secretaries, received a form of request for prayer, returned with it to his mother, told her how he believed as she did that God would heal her, and as the correspondence which follows this introduction shows, upon the morning of August 23rd, between the hours of nine and ten o'clock, we prayed in agreement with each other, and she was instantaneously and perfectly healed.

We lay this trophy at the Redeemer's feet and pray that God may greatly bless it to His sick and suffering ones in all lands.

SAUK CITY, SAUK CO., WIS., Aug. 19th, 1894.

DEAR REV. DOWIE: I send you herein request of prayer. If the named hour should not answer, you will please answer by letter, and set your own hour. If hour set herein is acceptable to you, you will please wire, "All right," at our expense, and we will then make no mistake. My son, T. Clavadatscher, saw your secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Friday evening, August 18th, and made all arrangements, and if there is nothing in the way, you will please wire me so that I will know the hour.

Please send me two blanks for requests of prayer, and also some circulars of information for another party, that I think I can get to correspond with you. Yours most respectfully,

MRS. K. CLAVADATSCHER.

CHICAGO, August 22nd, 1894.

MRS. KATHARINE CLAVADATSCHER,
Sauk City, Sauk Co., Wis.

Dear Sister in Christ: Your letter and request for prayer, of the 19th inst. received, and I telegraphed you as requested in the two words, "All right," thereby agreeing to the hour fixed for the prayer on tomorrow morning. I trust there will be a gracious answer. I am faithfully yours in Jesus.

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

SAUK CITY, WIS., Aug. 26th, 1894.

REV. DOWIE, Chicago.

DEAR BROTHER: As I cannot write English, I waited for my son, T. C., to come home, who lives many miles distant from here. I am blessed to tell you that the Lord has heard our prayers, and that Christ can heal the sick, and that I am healed. I feel that all my pain has left me, and that I will soon regain my strength. My appetite is improving, and I am not at a loss to hope and fully believe that all is well. This hour of prayer was also an hour of Lord's blessings that we shall never forget. I could feel that the Lord was with me, and that the Lord blesseth his children. Being Sunday, to-day, we can get no Money Order, and we will send you a free-will offering as soon as my son, T. C., comes down again.

Thanking you in the name of our Lord, for all the good you have done, I remain your obedient servant.

MRS. K. CLAVADATSCHER.

Per. T. CLAVADATSCHER.

TESTIMONY OF MR. T. CLAVADATCHER, OF BARABOO, WIS., GIVEN IN DIVINE HEALING HOME NO. 1, ON THE EVENING OF NOV. 1, 1894.

Mr. Clavadatcher said:—"I didn't expect to be called upon to say anything."

Dr. Dowie:—"Your mother wrote down to me, how long ago?"

"Two months ago. I was down here buying goods and I was very careful to come down here when she didn't know it. She always worried. While away buying goods, I got a letter asking me to see the Rev. Dr. Dowie. The doctors there had given her up, and she wanted to try this Divine Healing. I figured for awhile, thinking what kind of a lie to tell her thinking it was a humbug, I never heard of such a thing. Thinking it over I asked a man whom I am well acquainted with, older than I am, what he would do, whether he ever heard of such a thing. I never had. He said he had, but he didn't believe in it. I asked him for advice. He said it might be your mother's last request and you had better go and see what you can find yourself. On the way down here on the train I asked a gentleman where to get off, and he told me it was a great thing. Well, I came in here and had a talk with Mr. Carpenter. He said I could not see the Rev. Dowie. He asked me what I wanted. After I told him all about it the best I could, he said: "Why your mother need not come here if that's the case. She can get healed right at home." After he explained it, I went home and told my mother, and I went home a different man from what I came. My mother was very much pleased. She could hardly wait for the day to come."

Dr. Dowie:—"I had appointed a time of prayer with her."

"Yes. The day came. She experienced religion, got her good health again, and she cannot stop telling what she experienced."

Dr. Dowie:—"What was wrong with her?"

"She had either ulceration of the stomach or cancer of the stomach, the doctors didn't agree. She had several vomiting spells and telegraphed to me or to my sister two or three times, expecting to die. She was in bad shape."

Dr. Dowie:—"And at the time of prayer?"

"In one hour she was better. At ten o'clock she got right up and commenced moving around. From that time on she gained. I went down a week after to see her. I thought it may partly be imagination. She came right out and helped me unhitch my team. I went several times and my brother went to see her. No sign of cancer or any trouble since."

Dr. Dowie:—"There is some one here to confirm that testimony, is there not. You brother Dietrich."

Rev. Dietrich said:—"It is always hard for me to talk in the English language. I am a German and do all my work in German. Mrs. Clavadatcher is a member of my church. Our sister lives in Sauk City and I know her well. She is a good old Christian lady, and always has stood in good faith in the church. I have visited her quite frequently. She has been sick for about a year, I think. She has been suffering, and of course the doctors would not tell right out and give her up, but they gave out free enough that she had cancer of the stomach and was incurable. All they could do was to give her stimulants, and I didn't think it would be anything else than my sad duty before I left, my time would soon be out, to bury her. I heard since she was better. One Sunday she came to church. I didn't expect to see her. I was visiting a couple of weeks ago, and she is in about as good health as a lady of that age could be expected to be. She is very thankful and praises God. She told me she went in her room at the appointed hour and prayed, and was fully convinced by faith she would be helped, and it seemed something came out of her stomach, a mystery came right out, and she has been well ever since."

Dr. Dowie:—"Have you seen the lady, Mrs. Dietrich?"
"Not since in Ohio."

"You know how she was?"

"I heard she was well. I could not go myself."

Dr. Dowie:—"I suppose that has made a great impression on your people, Brother Dietrich?"

"Yes, it did."

Dr. Dowie:—"It is very peculiar that our brother should happen to visit here to-night, and find his mother's pastor here. I think we will put that story in the LEAVES OF HEALING. At the time of prayer for Mrs. Clavadatcher I prayed at nine o'clock and at ten o'clock she was going about well. We are very grateful for these things. There are some people who say that these healings are the result of some peculiar psychic force in myself. I just want to know how that is going to operate all the way up to Sauk City, Wis., in connection with a lady, not only whom I never saw, but whose son I never saw. I think my secretary mentioned to me that you were here, and I sent out to you forms for request for prayer. I was very busy at the time. I was too busy to see many visitors at the time. May I ask Brother Dietrich what doctors attended?"

"Dr. Buhler and Dr. Miller attended her."

Dr. Dowie:—"Mr. Carpenter, do you remember the visit of Mr. Clavadatcher?"

"I remembered his face instantly and called him by name.

It is an unusual thing, as they are all strangers."

"You remember his getting a form of request for prayer from you?"

"Yes, sir."

"You remember the correspondence had since?"

"Yes sir. I believe there was a telegram too. He wrote to know if everything was right, if you got his letter and would pray at the time."

Mr. Clavadatcher:—"I wrote you to telegraph her whether all O. K., and you telegraphed that it was."

Dr. Dowie:—"We make a note of these telegrams. Place them in the evidence and have the story complete. Our brother is down purchasing goods, and hastened to come out to visit here. I am glad he has come and his mother's pastor is here. You will see how God has all the glory for that case. I never touched her, never touched his hand or saw his face until to-night. Therefore there was no communication at all. I prayed for a lady eighty-five miles away and the Lord answered just at that moment, and healed her of an incurable disease. I suppose as Brother Dietrich said, the doctors were quite candid with people outside."

Rev. Dietrich:—"That's the way I got it."

Dr. Dowie:—"You got it as others get it. You would be the man most likely to get the intelligence. Your impression before the healing was that she was going to die? You expected to bury her before you left your charge. You expected her to die soon?"

"Yes sir. The doctor intimated to us she might live awhile but there was no cure."

Dr. Dowie:—"And how is she?"

"All right."

"Mrs. Dietrich:—"I hear she washes and irons and bakes. That's what I have been told."

Mr. Clavadatcher:—"She is seventy-three years of age and father is eighty-three. She takes care of father and has no hired girl. Does all her own work. Washes and irons and cooks—"

Dr. Dowie:—"And helps her son to unhitch his horse. She is a pretty active old lady."

"Mrs. Dietrich:—"How heavy is she?"

Mr. Clavadatcher:—"I could not say. About a hundred and seventy-five pounds. I didn't know Brother Dietrich was here, and just came up and will have to take another train. I came here to get some more literature."

Dr. Dowie:—"You had better give him considerable No. one's. We will make you our agent in Baraboo."

Mr. Clavadatcher:—"I would say that one I asked was the Recorder of the Select Knights of America. He had just come from Illinois, and was there, and I told you what answer he gave me. Since then I have written him a letter and told him just what had happened. He wrote back congratulating me and said that letter was read over two or three times, and he would tell lots of people about that letter."

Dr. Dowie:—"That man is converted now . . . We are very thankful for these stories. Never a day passes here without seeing or hearing of something that the Lord has done."

TO GOD ALONE ALL PRAISE AND HONOR.

DURING one of my family visits among my parishioners at Sauk City, Wisconsin, July last (1894), Sisters K. and C. directed my attention to something very novel; viz: that there was in Chicago, a doctor, who, through prayer and laying on of hands wrought most marvelous cures. They further informed me that some visitors from this vicinity to the World's Fair, the past summer, calling upon some of their acquaintances in Chicago, found there in the family of a Mrs. Specht, (formerly a Miss Walzer, from Sauk County, Wisconsin) a very sick child, suffering with hydrocephalous (water on the brain). Lately, this Mrs. Specht, on a visit to some of her Sauk City friends, had with her this child, now robust, healthy and hale. This so miraculous cure having been wrought through the earnest prayers of the above mentioned faithful servant of God.

To this, after a few moments of cool reflection, I calmly and deliberately responded: "As far as the matter in question is concerned, according to 1 Corinthians 12:9, and Mark 16:18, it is strictly biblical, and consequently must be regarded as truly and genuinely apostolic. The only question to my mind is this; is it all genuine as represented, or is it sham, pretension, and fraud, like so many other things now-a-days?"

Shortly after this I met Brother H. Schurmann, pastor of the West Sauk parish, who told me that a certain young lady, (daughter of a Mr. Kellar, one of his parishioners) was at the Divine Healing Institute, of Dr. Dowie, of Chicago, there to seek cure for lameness, due to a former hip injury which had caused one of her lower limbs to remain about three inches shorter than the other. Her condition, according to reports, had remarkably improved and she was in expectation of a complete cure.

On August 4th, accompanied by Rev. H. Ninnemann, (who was on a collecting tour for a new church at Rice Lake, Wisconsin), I called, among others, upon the Clavadatscher family at Sauk City. The aged father, whose silvery crown bears the impress of 83 summers, received us with the remark that his wife was again sick in bed as I had found her repeatedly on former occasions. Upon request to see her I, indeed, found her very sick. I prayed with her and sought to comfort her, as best I could in her suffering. She told me that I would probably not need to call upon her much oftener as she believed her end was drawing nigh.

Father Clavadatscher then also informed me that her doctor had attributed the sickness to cancer of the stomach, and consequently the doctor had no hope whatever for her recovery. All that he, as a practitioner of medicine could do for her, was to prescribe a remedy for deadening the pain. The next I heard about mother Clavadatscher was, that she, through her son Tobias, a well known merchant of Baraboo, Wisconsin, had communicated with Mr. Dowie in order to seek healing from her trouble, through his prayers on her behalf. Shortly after this I found mother Clavadatscher apparently sound and healthy, attending divine services, about one-half mile distant from her home, in the church of the Evangelical Association of Sauk City, whither she, though at the advanced age of 73, had come all the way afoot. Soon after, I called at her home and found her perfectly well and exceedingly happy, overflowing with praises to the Most High, who had so marvelously restored her health. She then related to me how her son Tobias, upon her persevering entreaty, much against his wishes, had finally consented to set out while in Chicago, to look up Mr. Dowie. Upon his arrival there he had, however not been able to see Mr. Dowie in person, since, due to the late hour, the latter had already retired. He, however, found one of Mr. Dowie's secretaries who took him through the chapel and other buildings, where among other things, he saw many crutches, etc. From what he beheld he became convinced that his mother might be cured through prayers springing from true faith.

He then arranged for a mutual hour of prayer from 9 to 10 A. M. on August 23, when Rev. John Alex. Dowie at Chicago, and mother Clavadatscher at her home would mutually pray for her recovery. When the appointed hour came mother Clavadatscher went into her bed-chamber and in Jesus name prayed fervently to God for her restoration. And as she was thus engaged in fervent prayer it seemed to her as though her whole sickness was streaming out of her stomach through her mouth, and from that hour on, even ere the clock had struck ten she arose and was healed. I have since visited her in company with other ministers, and found her well, giving thanks to God for His help, to whom all honor and praise is due. As often as I have since seen her, up to the present day (November 22, 1894), I have found her happy, in good health and praising God's Holy name.

She told me several days ago that she never had better health than she now has. It seems to her as though she had become twenty years younger again.

On the evening of the first of November, 1894, I unexpectedly met Mr. Tobias Clavadatscher at the Divine Healing Home, 6020 Edgerton Avenue, Chicago, where the Lord Jesus Christ is sole possessor. and Rev. John Alex. Dowie and his wife are the Lord's faithful servants.

Mr. T. Clavadatscher had come to bring Dr. Dowie and his guests—among the latter were also my wife and I—the most cheering news about the marvelous and complete restoration of his mother's health. To the truth of this also, I could vouch with all my heart. These, our testimonies, which so cheered the hearts of Dr. Dowie and his guests, will be published on another page in LEAVES OF HEALING.

It was this occasion that induced me to contribute the above lines. The only motive I have in doing so is to pay due tribute to God, and to contribute my mite in promoting the well-being of my fellow men.

JOHN DEITRICH.

Gott allein alle Ehre.

Eines Tages letzten Juli (1894) bei meinen Familien-Besuchen in Sauk City, Wis., lenkte Schwester R. und auch Schwester C. meine Aufmerksamkeit auf etwas Neues. Daß nämlich in Chicago ein Wunderdoctor sei, der gesund mache durchs Gebet und Auslegung der Hände. Sie erzählten mir von Leuten, welche im Sommer 1893 an der Weltausstellung in Chicago waren, und dort in der Familie Schecht (Frau Schecht ist eine geborene Walzer von Sauk Co., Wis.), ein Kind sahen, mit einem sogenannten Wasserpopf und überhaupt sehr krank. Nun sei Frau Schecht kürzlich hier auf Besuch gewesen mit diesem Kinde, gesund und wohl. Dasselbe sei durchs gläubige Gebet durch diesen Gottesmann geheilt worden. Das freilich setzte mich für einige Momente zum Denken. Ich sagte dann ganz kühl und nüchtern: was den Gegenstand oder die Sache selbst angeht muß sie nach 1. Cor. 12: 9 und Marc. 16: 18 als biblisch und bei Gott möglich, und somit als richtig und echt apostolisch betrachtet werden. Die Frage wird nur die sein, ob der Mann richtig ist, oder ob er Betrug ist, wie es heutzutage so Vieles gibt in dieser Welt. Nach diesen traf ich Dr. S. Schürmann, Prediger von West Sauk Bezirk, der erzählte mir, daß ein Mädchen von einer Familie Keller von Spring Green auf seinem Arbeitsfelde, mit einem lahmen Bein, an welchem die Hüfte verletzt und das Bein etwa drei Zoll zu kurz sei, in Chicago sei bei dem Dr. Dowie und daß sie bereits viel besser sei und volle Heilung erwarte. Am 4ten August war ich in Sauk City mit Dr. Rev. S. Minnemann (welcher für eine neue Kirche in Rice Lake, Wis., collectierte) und besuchte bei dieser Gelegenheit auch die Familie Klavadatscher. Der 83jährige Vater empfing uns und sagte uns, die Mutter sei wieder krank im Bett, wie ich sie schon öfters getroffen. Ich erbat mir die Gelegenheit sie zu sehen, und ging allein zu ihr ins Krankenzimmer, und fand sie sehr krank. Ich sprach ein kurzes Gebet mit ihr und suchte sie zu trösten in ihrem Elend. Sie sagte, ich würde sie wohl nicht mehr oft besuchen brauchen, sie glaube, ihr Ende sei nahe. Bei dieser Gelegenheit sagte mir der Vater Klavadatscher, daß ihm der Doctor gesagt habe, sie habe den Magenkrebs und es sei keine Hoffnung für sie, wieder gesund zu werden; er könne ihr nur Mebizin geben, um ihre Schmerzen zu lindern.

Das nächste was ich hörte von Mutter R. war, daß sie sich durch ihren Sohn Tobias einen bekannten Kaufmann in Baraboo, Wis., mit Rev. Dowie in Verbindung gesetzt habe, um durch ihn, durchs gläubige Gebet geheilt zu werden von ihrer Krankheit. Das nächste in dieser Geschichte war, ich fand Mutter Klavadatscher im Gottesdienst in der Kirche der Evang. Gemeinschaft bei Sauk City, wohin sie etwa ½ Meile von ihrer Wohnung zu Fuß gekommen war, in ihrem Alter von 73 Jahren, anscheinend gesund und wohl. Bald nach diesen besuchte ich sie in ihrer Heimath und fand sie gesund und überaus glücklich und Gott preisend, durch den sie, wie sie bekannte, von ihrer Krankheit geheilt worden sei. Sie erzählte mir dann, wie ihr Sohn Tobias mit Widerwillen, auf ihr dringendes Ansuchen jenen Mann (Dowie) aufgesucht habe, ihn aber persönlich selbst nicht zu sehen bekam, weil er an jenem Abend schon zu Bett gegangen war. Aber einer seiner Angestellten, Schreiber, habe ihn seine Anstalt und Predigtfaal gezeigt, in welchen er viele Kranken und Anderes mehr gesehen, und er habe die Ueberzeugung gewonnen, seine Mutter könne geheilt werden durchs gläubige Gebet. Es wurde dann die Verkehrung getroffen und die Stunde bestimmt, nämlich den 23ten August, Morgens 9 bis 10 Uhr, für gemeinschaftliches Gebet, daß zu dieser Stunde Rev. John Alex. Dowie in Chicago und sie hier in ihrer Heimath zu Gott stehen wollten für ihre Heilung. Als die bestimmte Stunde kam, ging sie, wie sie sagte, in ihr Bettzimmer und flehte ernstlich und gläubig zu Gott, in Jesu Namen, für ihre Heilung. Und als sie so im Glauben inbrünstig zu Gott flehte, fühlte sie, wie sie sagt, als ob ihre ganze Krankheit aus ihrem Magen durch den Mund ausstieße, und von Stunde an noch ehe es 10 Uhr war, stand sie auf, und fühlte, und war gesund. Ich habe sie seither in Gesellschaft mit andern Predigern besucht, und wir fanden sie gesund und Gott die Ehre gebend. So oft ich sie sah und besuchte bis zum heutigen Datum (Nov. 22, 1893), fand ich sie gesund und wohl und froh Gott die Ehre gebend. Sie sagte mir vor etlichen Tagen, sie habe nie gesünder gefühlt, sie fühle als ob sie zwanzig Jahre jünger geworden sei. Am Abend des 1sten Nov. 1894 traf ich in unerwarteter Weise mit Mr. Tobias Klavadatscher in dem Divine Healing Home, 6020 Edgerton Ave., Chicago, allwo der Herr Jesus Christus Besitzer und Rev. John Alex. Dowie und seine Gattin des Herrn getreue Diener und Dienerin sind zusammen. Mr. T. Klavadatscher war gekommen um dem Dr. Dowie und seinen Gästen — zu letzteren gehörten auch meine Gattin und ich — die frohe Kunde von der wunderbaren und völligen Heilung seiner Mutter zu überbringen. Er legte ein sehr klares freiwilliges Zeugniß ab in Bezug auf der Heilung seiner Mutter, welches Zeugniß ich von ganzen Herzen bestätigen konnte. Diese unsere Zeugnisse, welche auf Dr. Dowie und seine Gäste einen sehr ermunternden Eindruck machten, werden an anderer Stelle in Leaves of Healing veröffentlicht werden. Bei dieser Gelegenheit wurde ich betrogen und veranlaßt, die obigen Zeilen zu schreiben. Es liegt mir jeder andere Beweggrund ferne, als nur die Ehre Gottes und das Wohl meiner Mitmenschen.

SHALL THE VATICAN TRIUMPH? OR CHOOSE WHOM YOU WILL SERVE.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

THE servants of a foreign tyrant, whose predecessors once for centuries enslaved our forefathers, are among us to-day, with hearts full of determination to bring this people beneath his cruel yoke.

That tyrant is the Roman Pontiff, who claims absolute and complete supremacy over us, in all matters in which he may choose to interfere. These servants are his Bishops, Priests, Monks, Nuns, and all whom they can persuade by fraud, force, or fear, to submit themselves to the Tyrant of the Vatican.

The leaders of this army have broken all ties except one. That tie is their oath of allegiance to the Pope. They know no other human tie.

Sworn not to marry, no wife's devotion, love, and sweet communion enters their houses, which never can be homes; and no children, linking heaven and earth together with all their softening, self-rebuking influence, ever dare claim them as father. They are not denied a harlot's charms—witness Cardinal Antonelli's crimes, and many a Papal Servant beside in this and every age—but they must never know the divinely knit tie of a true husband with a faithful wife, a tie of love which neither life nor death can sever. Sworn to call their Tyrant their Father, they cut asunder parental obligations which God enjoins, and for them no man or woman may be deemed brother or sister, except so far as their enslaver may permit them to use the empty names toward such as he approves. Sworn "to submit"—I quote the exact words of the Vatican Decree of July 18, 1870—to the Roman Pontiff, "BY THEIR DUTY OF MONARCHICAL SUBORDINATION and true obedience, NOT ONLY IN MATTERS WHICH BELONG TO FAITH AND MORALS, but also in those that appertain to the discipline and government of the Church throughout the world," they have solemnly sworn that they recognize in their Tyrant a man who has "THE SUPREME POWER of jurisdiction," and that in him is "THE ABSOLUTE FULLNESS OF THE SUPREME POWER OVER EACH AND ALL THE PASTORS AND THE FAITHFUL." They are, therefore, now absolutely incapable of being loyal to any government in this or any country, seeing that their loyalty is subject to the will of another; they are utterly unable to be free citizens, or free agents, here or anywhere, so long as they are ready at any moment to use their liberties to destroy the state which protects them; and they are, therefore, perpetual foes to all laws, to all governments, to all institutions, yea, to all men who will not conform to the absolute demands of that Tyrant, whom they have aided to usurp the throne of God on earth, at least so far as man can usurp it.

Let it then be clearly understood what a prominent archbishop meant, when he said—"he felt great happiness at having been chosen by the Pontiff to be one of the humble instruments to carry out the great doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church." He meant this, that he would carry out, at all risks, whatever the Pope might command.

Let me tell you then, American citizens of every creed and class, what the extent of these commands may require of all who serve the Triple Tyrant of the Vatican,—the tyrant who claims supremacy over governments, families, and consciences. I quote the following words from the Civiltà Cattolica (1867. vol. XII. p. 86) a Roman newspaper, established by a Papal Brief, dated February 12th, 1866, and edited by persons directly responsible to the Pope. In an article on "The Father of the Faithful," meaning by that term Pius IX., it says:—"It is not enough for the people only to know that the Pope is the Head of the Church and the Bishops, THEY MUST UNDERSTAND THAT THEIR OWN FAITH AND RELIGIOUS LIFE FLOW FROM HIM, THAT IN HIM IS THE BOND WHICH UNITES Catholics to one another, and the POWER which strengthens, and the LIGHT which guides them; that he is the DISPENSER of spiritual graces, the GIVER of the benefits of religion, the UPHOLDER of justice, and the PROTECTOR of the oppressed." And to crown this blasphemy, it says, in a subsequent issue,—"WHEN THE POPE REFLECTS, IT IS GOD WHO THINKS IN HIM." It need excite, therefore, no surprise, though it can not but excite profound horror at the awful height of Satanic assumption reached by the Roman Pontiff, when he is exalted to a higher position than the Lord Jesus Christ, in the blasphemous adoration of his deluded followers. This has been done by Mgr. Berteaud, Bishop of Tulle, who has said, in a Papally approved tract, that "ST. PETER DID NOT NEED TO BE TAUGHT BY CHRIST, but was in private and confidential relations with God the Father, independent of the Son, and that the like privilege extended to his successors; so that THE FATHER AND THE POPE may have, and probably HAVE SECRETS BETWEEN THEM IN WHICH CHRIST DOES NOT PARTICIPATE, and thus it is practically safer to go to the Pope than to Christ, FOR WHEN THE POPE SPEAKS, it is more (plus haut) than Christ speaking, IT IS GOD THE FATHER HIMSELF."

Blasphemy, arrogance, and absurdity can reach no deeper depths. Surely here is "the Man of Sin, the Son of Perdition" revealed, of whom Paul predicted the coming upon the earth (2 Thessalonians 2: 3, 4) who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God."

Here, then, are the attributes of the tyrant who has issued his orders for the overthrow of all national systems of education, and whom his servants have obeyed so readily. And I put the question to the citizens of America, to the people of this land, "Choose you this day whom you will serve." Shall it be Christ or the Pope?

I know the answer—"No! we shall never surrender the rights of free men at the bidding of him who would crush all our souls beneath the Juggernaut wheels of Papalism." Then, record that answer in your vows to God, and choose you henceforth to serve the Lord. Record that answer too, in those "ballot-boxes" which the Pope curses, but yet directs his priests to employ. Record it in your legislation, engraving it so deeply that it will ever remain beyond the power of human fingers to erase it.

And, "Beware of false prophets." Beware of men who talk of "the greatness of the Papal Church," who tell you they "have worshipped with the Pope himself in San Carlo Borromeo," who talk of the gentle piety of Leo XIII., and yet who pretend to fight for God's truth, of which Rome is, and has been ever, the Judas-like betrayer. Beware of political Judases, who sell the people for silver and gold. Oh, that they who are on the Lord's side may boldly pass forward to the front in this crisis and hear, as from their great Captain's lips, the inspiring cry—"Speak to the people that they GO FORWARD."

A LIVING SACRIFICE.

O, God, what offering shall I give
To thee, the Lord of earth and skies?
My spirit, soul and flesh receive,
A holy, living sacrifice:
Small as it is, 'tis all my store,
More shouldst thou have if I had more.
Now then, my God, thou hast my soul,
No longer mine, but thine I am:
Guard then thine own, possess it whole;
Then it with hope, with love, inflame.
Thou hast my spirit; there display
Thy glory to the perfect day.
Thou hast my flesh, thy hallowed shrine
Devoted solely to thy will:
Here let thy light forever shine:
This house still let thy presence fill:
O, Source of life! live, dwell and move
In me, till all my life be love.

—Charles Wesley.

LABOR IN VAIN.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

PASSING through the streets of the city of Sydney, early one morning, I observed, among the many curious names which are painted on the fronts of the drinkshops which abound in it, one sign which was very suggestive and sadly appropriate. In the dim light of that early morn, there were a number of most wretched looking beings huddled together around a door, awaiting its opening, whose miserable faces and crouching forms expressed the inward torture, which was racking them with fearful pains of body and mind. Evidently, many of them had spent the night out of doors, perhaps among the rocks around the Harbor, or in the Parks, or in some filthy den of vice, unworthy the sacred name of home, from which they had crept after the unrestful sleep which follows a day or evening of drunken dissipation. Eagerly they were looking for the reopening of the house in which they might buy more of that very spirit which had produced their misery, and fitting indeed to them, was the title above its door—"THE LABOR IN VAIN."

That same night, it seemed to me that again I looked upon that morning scene, but as I gazed it faded away, and gave place to another spectacle which my imagination built upon that spot.

All the three thousand drinking houses, established by evil laws throughout New South Wales, seemed to merge into one vast edifice, which covered a large portion of the city, and towered upward to a great height against the dark background of the night. Ten thousand gates were opened wide to admit the ten times ten thousand beings who ceaselessly passed in and out of the gaily lit saloons, where from scores of thousands of painted barrels, and beer engines, and bottles of every color, there was poured forth an endless stream of maddening and poisonous liquors. People of all ages and ranks flowed onward in living streams towards that splendid and enormous Temple, which was brilliantly lit up in every one of its many thousands of apartments, and, also, in the attractive theatres, dancing saloons, gambling rooms, and abodes of unutterable shame, which rose tier over tier above the basement, where the fiery passion stirring Drinks were dispensed, in every variety of style, to all who came and laid down in exchange the hard earned money which was the reward of their labor or their sin. Oh, it was a wondrous sight to behold these crowds.

With a joyous shout, troops of young men, the pride of many a mother's heart, swept onward to the Temple; and maidens in their beauty too, with many, alas, whose shame forbade that name, in thousands gayly tripped along, with snatches of song on their lips, which left an echo of pain in my heart as they entered. Men and women of every grade in society went in—some through doors like those of palaces, with liveried servants to welcome and attend them. These doors had a club as an emblem over them. Others went in through doors over which as emblems there were painted crowns, anchors, lions of all colors, dogs, foxes, geese, two-necked swans, ducks, dukes, governors, and all kinds of rare or mythical creatures, such as honest lawyers, bunyips, and a legion beside.

But strangest of all were the sounds which came from the Temple as the night advanced.

Songs of exquisite beauty and thrilling pathos, fierce cries of anger and strife, moans as of dying agonies, peals of laughter and applause, shrieks of murder, wails of dying infants on their mother's breasts, and the sound of many instruments of music, all mingled in indistinguishable confusion.

And as I looked upward, I saw a face as of a monstrous Satyr, with a look of mockery and hate, glaring out from the pinnacle of the Temple, along whose topmost stone there was written in letters of red burning fire, unheeded or unseen by the crowd below—"THE LABOR IN VAIN."

But whilst I looked a fire broke out which threatened utterly and speedily to destroy all who were in the Temple. In vain were my cries and those of others, as we entreated those within to come out. Some laughed incredulously, others mocked in fiendish glee, and they all danced, and sang, and drank again and again. But the fire still spread. I called aloud for help. I ran to the churches—surely the followers of Jesus will help me, I thought. But, alas, I found they were all shut, and notices posted on the doors telling me they were seldom open. I hurried to the Ministers homes with eager haste to tell of the perishing, and I found here and there a true helper; but, most of them were drinking from bottles labelled "From the Labor in Vain," they praised that establishment indeed, would not believe about the fire, mocked my zeal with sneers about fanaticism, and bade me tell the perishing to come to them on Sundays regularly and all would be right with them. With a pained and indignant heart I left them, and hurried on to the Christians' homes, where a few responded, but most hindered. I turned to the magistrates, but found the majority were agreed there was no fire, and that "The Labor in Vain" must be enlarged. I hastened to the Legislature, but they were wrangling about taxes, and roads, and bridges, and there too the Labor in Vain bottles were playing their part. Wherever I turned it was the same. Merchants pointed to their profits, newspaper men to their subscribers and advertisers, bankers pointed to their discounts, shippers to their freights, builders to their contracts, lawyers and doctors to their fees, deacons and churchwardens to their pew rents. They were all sorry about the fire, quite as sorry as I was, indeed, they said indignantly, and something must be done some day by somebody; but as for them, well it would not do to offend the very good friends who owned "The Labor in Vain," and no doubt the fire would soon go out without their help, and it was not their business if fools burned themselves to death.

Back again I came. I found a noble band, few indeed, but from all ranks who were seeking to save some from the fire and others from madly rushing into it. And there were crowds of broken-hearted parents and friends, who were powerless to help their infatuated friends within. But onward spread the fire. Suddenly there was a strange silence, followed in a few moments by an earthquake beneath the Temple. Then there opened a dreadful gulf into which the vast edifice was swiftly hurled, into depths unfathomable, and all was still, with an awful silence once more. Yet, as I listened, I seemed to hear at times the far off groans of woe, and heart-thrilling words like these:—"Alas we labored in vain, we spent our lives and our money for that which has brought us not bread but ashes, nor satisfaction but hunger and thirst. Alas! Alas! for the harvest is passed, the summer is ended, and we are not saved!" And as I wept in sympathy, methought I heard another voice say:—"ARISE AND FEAR NOT; THE DAWN IS NOT DISTANT; LOVE IS ETERNAL; WORK, AND DESPAIR NOT; EVIL SHALL NOT PREVAIL; ONLY BELIEVE;" and the words were to me as joy, and peace, and hope, and strength divine. . . . And then I awoke, for this was but a dream, yet was there an awful and blessed reality in it too. It was a Sabbath morning sun's first rays that were shining on me, a day of hopeful labor lay before me, a day in which I vowed that the loving Christ helping me, I would go forth and strive to win for Him and happiness all whom I could of those who were "laboring in vain," not doubting that with God and His truth shall rest the final victory.

"For countless voices far and wide
Sing sweet beneath the sky—
All that is beautiful shall abide,
All that is base shall die.

"Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness.—Habakkuk 2: 15.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"GLORY to God in the highest,
And on earth Peace,
Good-will toward men."

WE are casting our Crowns of Victory at the feet of Jesus, the King of Glory, the Redeemer of spirit, soul and body, the Saviour and the Friend of man. We extol the Eternal Father's Love, and rejoice in the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. We adore the Tri-une God. "Hear, oh Israel, the Lord our God is One Lord."

WE never realized "the tender mercy of our God" more than at this season when the Advent of "The Dayspring from on high" is celebrated. He is with us ALWAYS, "to give Light to them that sit in Darkness and in the shadow of Death, to guide our feet into the way of Peace."

ZION Tabernacle has no dolls or stuffed sheep and shepherds—no silly peep shows, and no tawdry draperies; but within its plain, wooden walls God is glorified, and Christ is exalted as Lord of all. He is with us, our Immanuel, not as a baby doll in the arms of a wax virgin, or as a figure of a dead man writhing on a cross—for the Manger and the Cross are past forever. But "we see Jesus . . . Crowned with Glory and Honour." He still saves, heals, cleanses, keeps, instructs, provides, and guides—"God with us," as in the days of old, when He lived and moved in human form on earth. We need no other Christ—He is all that heart could wish. We are satisfied with Jesus.

INSTEAD of dolls and peep shows, we weave the crutches, and braces, and instruments of surgical torture into a Crown, and pointing to it we cry to all the earth, "Christ is all." "Captured from the Enemy," they are but the first fruits of a glorious series of victories in these last years of the century. Let the day come when Christ's Birthday shall mean Eternal Joy to all who live beneath the sky!

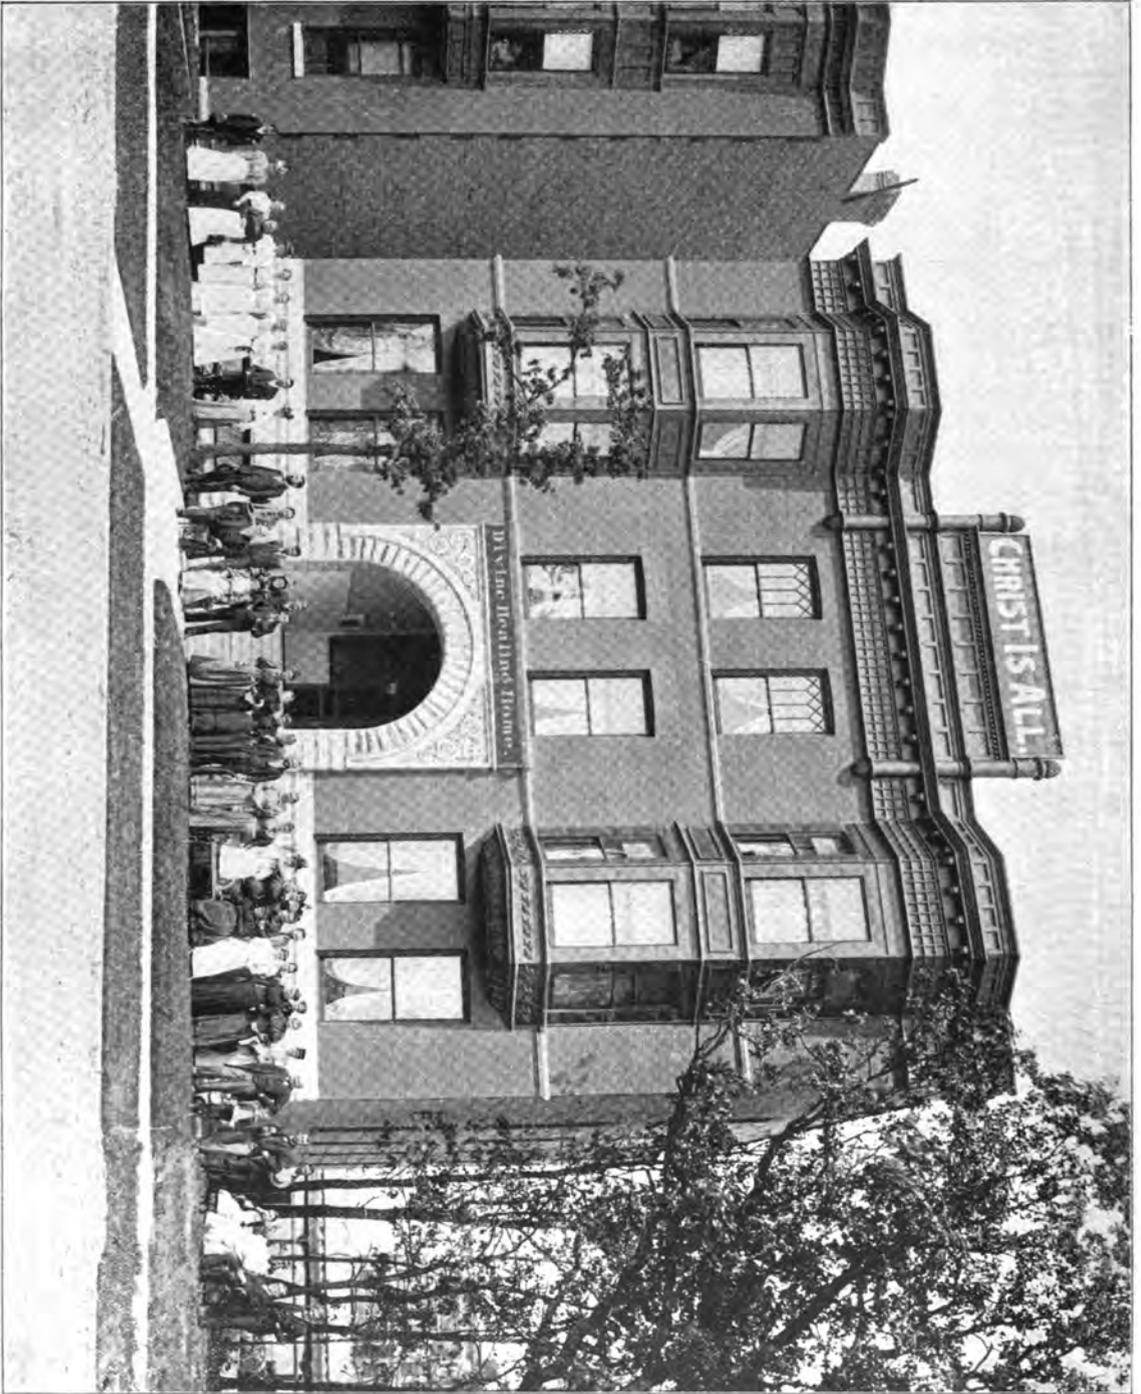

WE intend to push the battle to the Gates of Hell, the battle of the Lord against Satan and Sin, Disease and Death. We have no time for "roundelays" of silly "carols," sung by those who sing for devils all the year, and then sing and play in oratorios, which they call "the Messiah" at Christmas. We leave that to those who forget that humanity is groaning in pain because of crimes committed in the name of apostate christians and apostate churches. We had rather hear the cry of victory from the sin-stricken and the disease-smitten, as their chains of sin and sickness fall off, than listen to all the oratorios that worldly, sensual, and devilish singers can sing. Let Christians only sing for Christ.

"SHOWERS OF BLESSING" continue to be poured out on those who have come to seek the Lord in Zion Tabernacle and the Divine Healing Homes. Zion Publishing House is favored of God and sends forth LEAVES OF HEALING into all the earth.

But, reader beloved in Christ, thy "Lord hath need" of GOLD as well as frankincense and myrrh; and if thou wilt send some of it to us we shall use it to His glory. We long to start the New Year with a clean balance sheet, and some of "the sinews of war" for the wondrous year about to open.

COME to the Crowning Praise and Testimony Meetings for 1894, announced on last page. We shall photograph the scene in the afternoon, and engrave it in the LEAVES, God willing. Some marvelous recent miracles of healing will be witnessed to—miracles which will yet fully arouse the city and land, and bring glory to Him who "CROWNETH THE YEAR WITH HIS GOODNESS."

ZION TABERNACLE.

ZION means strength, or a fortress. Truly God has manifested His strength in a very remarkable way in this little frame Tabernacle, and has made it a spiritual fortress. Since the beginning of this year more than twenty thousand sick persons have been prayed with, accompanied by the laying on of hands, in the name of the Lord Jesus, within its walls. Of these, a vast number have been healed. Many thousands have been led to sincere repentance for sin, and, through faith, have found salvation and peace. Christians witness that it has also been to them a place of blessing, where they have been led into the King's Highway of Holiness. Many a weary pilgrim in "the valley of weeping" has found in it the "well" of consolation and refreshing. Joyful songs of loudest praise have rung forth from its courts, and, by the agency of the secular daily press, Zion Tabernacle and God's wonderful work therein have been made known in all parts of this country and in many other lands.

We have thought that a picture of this humble headquarters of our work in Chicago might be appreciated by the tens of thousands who have visited it, and by the still larger number of our distant friends, in all parts of the world, who have never seen it.

It was built by the Chicago Branch of the International Divine Healing Association, for a World's Fair Mission, and was opened on the first Lord's Day after the opening of the Fair, May 7th, 1893. But it attracted very little attention at that time, although vast multitudes of pleasure seekers passed its doors. Still it was open, for the greater part of the time, every day save Saturday; and gradually, toward the end of the Fair, many began to attend the meetings. A severe winter, and wide spread depression and destitution in the city and country followed the shameful scenes of wasteful extravagance, unbounded licentiousness, and inordinate vanity of that Vanity Fair. Our Tabernacle stood silent guard at the gates of the deserted "White City," and all through the winter the services were patiently continued, in the once thronged, but then deserted, region around the Fair Grounds. It was sometimes weary work; but we waited for the morning, and it came. We knew the Tabernacle had not done its work. Yes, it came, a steadily rising tide of blessing, until long ere the snow and ice had disappeared, thousands and tens of thousands, not only from Chicago, but from distant cities and states were thronging it, and all the surrounding buildings, almost to suffocation. Multitudes gathered far beyond its capacity and were glad to get a place outside a window, or within hearing distance, whilst hundreds stood within the Tabernacle, crowded the platform, the prayer-rooms, etc. Wave after wave of Divine power swept over these throngs, and God was glorified in thousands of conversions and healings through Faith in Jesus Christ. Great down town and suburban meetings were held to ease the pressure upon the Tabernacle. Meetings in the center of the city were held for many weeks every Lord's day afternoon in the Central Music Hall and continued, until midsummer, in Battery D. The first downtown meeting was thus described by the Daily Inter Ocean in its issue of Monday, April 16th: "Central Music Hall was packed from floor to ceiling yesterday afternoon with persons drawn either by necessity, sympathy or curiosity to hear the Rev. John Alexander Dowie and the testimonies of those who had been cured of their diseases through his ministry. If the hall had been twice its size it could have been filled easily by the crowds that were turned away. For three hours, from 2:30 to 5:30, those who were fortunate enough to obtain admission were content to sit and drink in the proceedings, and the few empty seats left by those who went out during the service were speedily filled by others from the outside." It was estimated that there were about 4,000 persons in the Hall at that service.

The meetings in the suburbs of South Chicago and Englewood were also attended by great crowds of persons, especially in the First Baptist Church, South Chicago, and in the Covenant Baptist Church, Englewood, into which buildings hundreds were unable to obtain admission week after week. The meetings still continue to be very largely attended, there being seldom a vacant seat in the Tabernacle. On last Lord's day, August 26th, after crowding every inch of standing and sitting room, many were content to stand at the window, or to remain in their carriages outside on the street, or in the prayer-room behind the Tabernacle, within hearing distance.

The spectacle which the Tabernacle presents is always intensely interesting from a philanthropic point of view. Thursday is denominated Children's Day, and Dr. Dowie resolutely refuses to see any grown up people, excepting in cases of extreme emergency, on that day. Then the children of all ages have complete possession of the Tabernacle and all its surroundings. Arriving early in the morning they take their seats, or sit upon the floor or the platform piling up and piling up on mothers' knees, and often two in a chair, until the place is completely crowded. In addition to these, several rooms off the prayer-room are set apart for insane and feeble-minded children. The exercises are of the most simple and entertaining character, Dr. Dowie aiming to adapt himself to the comprehension of the youngest. Shortly after the opening of the service he frequently calls upon many whose little legs have been lengthened, deaf and dumb who can now speak and hear, some who have never walked from their birth who can now walk and leap and run, and all sorts of children to testify to their healing. Their mothers stand up with them and tell the simple story. On that day there are children everywhere, and oftentimes Dr. Dowie lays hands upon over five hundred children, seeing them in the prayer-room in well-ordered and quiet companies of eighty to one hundred. As many as twenty different nationalities are sometimes represented on Children's day.

We shall give in an early issue a sketch of the Children's day.

The earnestness of the throngs who gather is seen in the fact that oftentimes they will take their places in the Tabernacle hours before the beginning of the service, and will wait even until nearly midnight in the hope of being seen. Oftentimes the platform in the Tabernacle during a service will be surrounded by many persons lying upon cots and invalid chairs, some of whom have been brought in that condition for many hundreds of miles.

On the last page of this issue some of these cots are seen in the picture entitled "Captured From the Enemy," which is a photograph of the back of the Tabernacle platform. One great feature of the Tabernacle and other services is the large number of persons, who at the close of Dr. Dowie's addresses will rise when he utters what he calls "God's Call to Repentance." As many as two thousand persons have risen at one time in the downtown meetings and have openly professed their repentance toward God and their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, following Dr. Dowie audibly in an impressive penitential prayer. The spiritual always precedes the physical work in the Tabernacle. Repentance for sin, and faith for salvation always precede the ministry of healing.

Our hearts are filled with praise as we think of what God has wrought in Zion Tabernacle, and, although it may be that He will give us a larger building and a more permanent structure, we shall ever remember with unceasing joy, the things that "God hath wrought" within these sacred walls, where we have so often read the words, (Psalm 20: 1, 2).

"The Lord answer thee in the day of trouble,
The name of the God of Jacob set thee up on high
Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion."

DIVINE HEALING HOME.

(See Illustration Page 225)

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 13 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desirable that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishings of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them, the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's Assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the central group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred having been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor to go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

DIVINE HEALING HOME No. 3.

ON November 16th, we opened another Home for God's sick children, who are setting their faces toward Zion Tabernacle, from all parts of America, and indeed from other continents. We present our readers with a picture of the New Home, and ask their earnest prayers for its prosperity, and for all who enter its pleasant portals.

As we stated in No. 10, of this series of LEAVES OF HEALING, the new Home was "half filled the first day." Shortly after, every room was occupied, and that has been its condition ever since: for as quickly as one guest leaves, there is another, and sometimes two or three, ready to take the room.

We have appointed an excellent brother minister, who has also been a doctor of medicine, and his amiable and intelligent wife, to be house father and mother. Thus far God has manifestly approved our choice, and our brother and sister, and their little three year old daughter, Ruth, give the Home a most homelike appearance and feeling.

Profiting by our experience in furnishing and fitting Homes No. 1 and 2, we have been able to make improvements in Home No. 3, and Messrs. Mandel Brothers, of Chicago, have executed our orders in such a way as to make it pleasant, comfortable, harmonious, and inviting. We have an excellent staff of Christian servants, and have spared neither time, thought, labor, nor money to make it such a Home as that of "Gaius the well beloved," which is commended so beautifully by the apostle John in his third epistle. We desire to "do a faithful work in whatsoever we do towards them that are brethren and strangers withal."

The Home is situated at Nos. 6034 and 6036 Edgerton Avenue, the two houses being made into one. It is built of white stone and red pressed brick, and stands in grounds by itself, with a considerable space on the east, west and south sides. It is just three doors from Home No. 1, where we personally reside, so that the guests come to our Morning Prayers, and Special Gatherings in the assembly room there. It is within a block and a half of Zion Tabernacle where there are many meetings, every week. It overlooks Jackson Park and the guests can see the remnants of the World's Fair, and the so-called White City, but they can also see what is better, the improvements which are being made in the Park, the Wooded Island and Lagoons and in the Midway Plaisance.

In a few months these will be fully restored to their natural beauty and be even lovelier than before: for every vestige of the shoddy and artificial shams of the Fair will have disappeared forever. The surroundings of the Home are quiet, and pleasant walks and drives are within easy reach. It is seven miles distant from the center of Chicago; but the Express Trains on the Illinois Central Railway, running three trains an hour, makes the Home only fifteen minutes distant. The Home is within a block of the 60th Street depot of the Illinois Central Railway. The Elevated Railway and Street Cable Car lines are within easy distance.

The office of the Steward of the Homes is in Home No. 3, and all personal applications for rooms must be made there. All applications by letter must be made to Rev. John Alex. Dowie, Home No. 1, 6020 Edgerton Ave. It is better to make application in person, or by a personal friend living in Chicago, as the correspondence is so large that there is danger of delay. Besides there are many cases which can only be received after personal interview.

The rates for board and room accommodation are the same as in No. 1, and can be procured on application. There are no charges of any kind in the Homes or in Zion Tabernacle for Dr. Dowie's services, the work being supported by free-will offerings.

The opening of Home No. 3 has not solved the problem—scarcely has it postponed the solution—of finding room for the friends who are coming to seek Divine Healing in Zion Tabernacle, from all parts. Let our readers ask for us Divine guidance, more money, and good helpers.

These Homes are truly being established by God.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOL. 1. NO. 15. NEW SERIES.

CHICAGO, DEC. 28, 1894.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

ZION PUBLISHING HOUSE.

"Many shall run to and fro, and KNOWLEDGE shall be increased."
Daniel, 12:4.

"Behold, it is not of the Lord of Hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity: for the Earth shall be filled with the Knowledge of the Glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."—Habakkuk, 2:13-14.

"One drop of ink makes millions think."—A nineteenth century fact.

Our little House is only four months old to-day, Dec. 28, 1894, and yet it has sent forth MORE THAN ONE MILLION PAGES OF LEAVES OF HEALING alone, and we are getting ready to send forth at least TEN MILLIONS OF PAGES, if God permit, during the coming year. For the achievement and the prospect, we ascribe all GLORY AND HONOUR AND POWER TO GOD.

On July 18th, last, we had a little money in hand which had been given to us by a few of the Lord's stewards to help us to publish a new series of LEAVES OF HEALING. It was pitifully small in amount for such an undertaking—about enough to pay one week's expenses of Zion Publishing House as it now stands. It did not seem either as if the Lord made it grow very quickly, and it looked as if it would be many months before we would get enough to warrant us in beginning to republish the paper, of which we have issued two previous series—one in Australasia, the other in America, the latter ceasing three years ago. We were not willing to begin a third series until the Lord made it plain that He would establish it permanently. Yet we longed to begin. The people were crying out everywhere for Divine Healing Teaching, for reliable Testimony, and for Reports of the Work in Chicago, which could be depended upon as absolutely truthful. And yet we had not enough money to pay a Chicago printer to print it for a single month!

This was the situation five months ago.

We sought God specially in prayer and received a clear answer. We had the task given to us of establishing Zion Publishing House in the midst of toils which seemed already beyond our strength. But we rose from our knees and without consulting flesh or blood, we wrote a brief appeal to the friends of Zion Tabernacle to aid us in the Name of the Lord to do the work committed to us. The response was hearty but not large. That, however, presented no difficulty—God would see us through. So we poured in every cent of income beyond current expenses and responsibilities, and set to work to secure a building and a complete plant of the very best kind procurable. The best is not good enough for God—and this work is God's. He honored our faith, and the result now appears in these pages, where we present in picture and in story the description of the first beginnings of Zion Publishing House, so that distant friends in this and other lands may see what God hath wrought, and praise Him as we do this day.

We say "the first beginnings of Zion Publishing House," for the prospects for the coming year include a great increase of the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING, and there is a loud call from the Atlantic to the Pacific for tracts and books, which shall extend the Kingdom of God. The resources of our House are already unequal to the demand, and must be increased ere long. We ask the prayers and practical help of all our readers to lead millions to think as God thinks, and to cover the Earth with the Knowledge of the Glory of the Lord as a perfect Saviour of spirit, soul, and body.

"Many are running to and fro," as the Lord revealed to Daniel they should in "the Time of the End." Swift presses will print, swift machinery prepare, and by rail and ship, over mountains, valleys and ocean depths, the products of Zion Publishing House will find their way to every land beneath the sun, if God permit, during the coming year. Oh, it is good to live in these days—they are the best the Church has seen since apostolic days. Let us improve every hour, redeem every minute, "for the Time is short."

And now let us invite our readers to accompany us on a brief visit to Zion Publishing House.

It is situated a short distance from Zion Tabernacle and from the Divine Healing Homes, within two blocks from either.

Picture No. 1, on the front page of this issue, shows the portion of the long two-storied, plain brick building, opposite Jackson Park, which is occupied by the House.

The sale-room and manager's office are shown on the corner, and the letter-carrier has his hand on the door of the printing office. The electrotyping department's large windows face 61st street, on the left of the picture.

We have a short lease of the premises, which are convenient for present purposes.

Picture No. 2 presents an excellent view of our largest press which we purchased direct from the manufacturers, the Campbell Printing Press and Manufacturing Company, of 160 William street, New York, and 334 Dearborn street, Chicago. It is technically known as an "oscillating job and book press." The whole design of the machine is exceedingly strong, and it does most excellent work, producing the beautiful impressions on this paper, and bringing out in beautiful clearness the half tone photo-engravings which we use so largely in this paper. It has a "bed" 39x53 inches, a "form" 33x49, four rollers, and a speed of 1500 copies per hour. Its dimensions at "the base" 5 feet 8 inches x 11 feet 3 inches, and "over all" of 8 feet 5 inches x 15 feet 6 inches. Its height is 7 feet 2 inches. It is a wonderful piece of machinery, and carefully handled and kept, does most satisfactory work. We have scarcely required to adjust a screw since it was set up, and we are much pleased with our first LEAVES OF HEALING press, and congratulate the manufacturers upon the excellence of their workmanship.

Picture No. 3, on page 228, represents a flash light photographic view of our composing room, with two of our compositors at their "cases," filled with the superior copper-mixed type, which we purchased from Messrs. Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, 183 Monroe St., Chicago, the owners of the Great Western Type Foundry. The "dress" of the LEAVES OF HEALING sufficiently commends the excellence of their type, and we have purchased everything in that department from that well-known firm. The cases are placed on the top of type cabinets which are filled with trays full of all kinds of jobbing and display type. "Imposing" tables and stones, galley racks, proof and a fine job press, etc., occupy the rest of the room, which is fully displayed, with the exception of the mailing department, which is partly hinted at by one of the mailing tables in the foreground of the picture.

Picture No. 4 shows the Engine and Press Room.

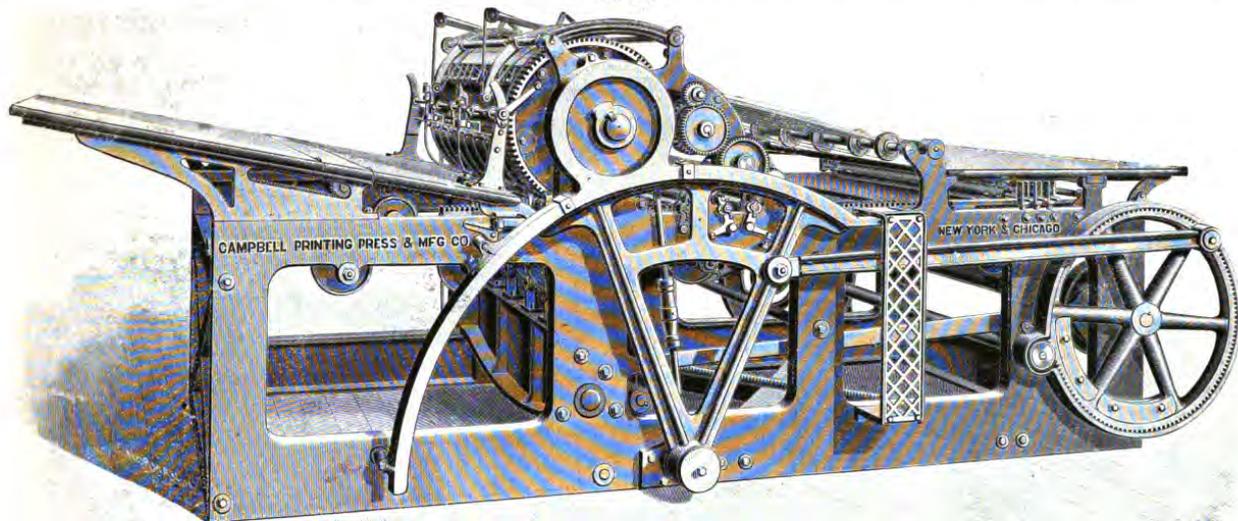

The engine in front of the picture is one of the improved "Lewis" Gas and Vapor Engines, purchased from the agents, Messrs. Barnhart, Bros. & Spindler, and manufactured by the Webster Manufacturing Co., 1075 W. 15th St., Chicago. It is of ten horse power, occupies a floor space of 7 feet 10 x 5 feet 10, has foundations about 6 feet deep, and weighs 6,000 pounds. It does most excellent work and provides "power" for our machinery in all our departments.

The Dexter Folding Machine seen just beyond the engine is one of the "little wonders" of our establishment. We purchased it from the Dexter Folder Company of Fulton, N. Y., and 315 Dearborn St., Chicago. It takes the paper from the press, and by a most ingenious series of rollers, delicately folds it into its present form.

machines and an electro-copper-plate is thereby prepared. This enables us to print a new edition of any of the issues of LEAVES OF HEALING, which have already been required in the cases of Nos. 1, 2, 5, and 7 of this series. This is a great convenience and in the long run will save much expense. It would take too much space to describe fully the twelve machines in this department, and we will, therefore, simply describe the process through which each page of the LEAVES passes ere we secure a permanent impression from which we can print future copies.

No. 2.

The Campbell Oscillating Press on which LEAVES OF HEALING is printed.

chased it from the Dexter Folder Company of Fulton, N. Y., and 315 Dearborn St., Chicago. It takes the paper from the press, and by a most ingenious series of rollers, delicately folds it into its present form.

A wire stitching machine peeps out its arm on the left of the picture, which takes the paper after it leaves the folder and stitches its pages with two strokes. Then a large sized Victor Paper Cutter takes the paper, about 100 copies at a time, and cuts it trimly and truly in a few moments—which is the last process ere the LEAVES OF HEALING are carried to the mailing department and the sale-room.

Picture No. 5 takes us into a totally different department, and one not often attached to a printing house, except when it is on a large scale. It represents the Electrotyping Department of Zion Publishing House, and has quite a large and interesting outfit of machinery. Every page of this paper, after it has been set up in type, is passed through all these polished wax mould. Then there is a Furnace and Casting Pot, which just peeps out in the extreme left of the picture, but is not shown, and here the metal is prepared to back up the "shell."

It is then taken—a strong heavy plate now—to a "rouger" where it is made perfectly even, low letters raised, and all defects remedied—in short, it is "finished," and laid aside for future use. Saws for wood and metal, shaver, trimmer, planers, etc., are used in arriving at this result—a beautiful clean copper plate page, which can be put into the press and used at any time.

And now we will leave the busy, clever workers in all these departments, and each go to our own work, thanking God, we trust, that we can use all these cranks and pulleys, and belts and wheels and engines, whirring away so noisily, and from their united skill send forth our white-winged dove bearing LEAVES OF HEALING to every land.

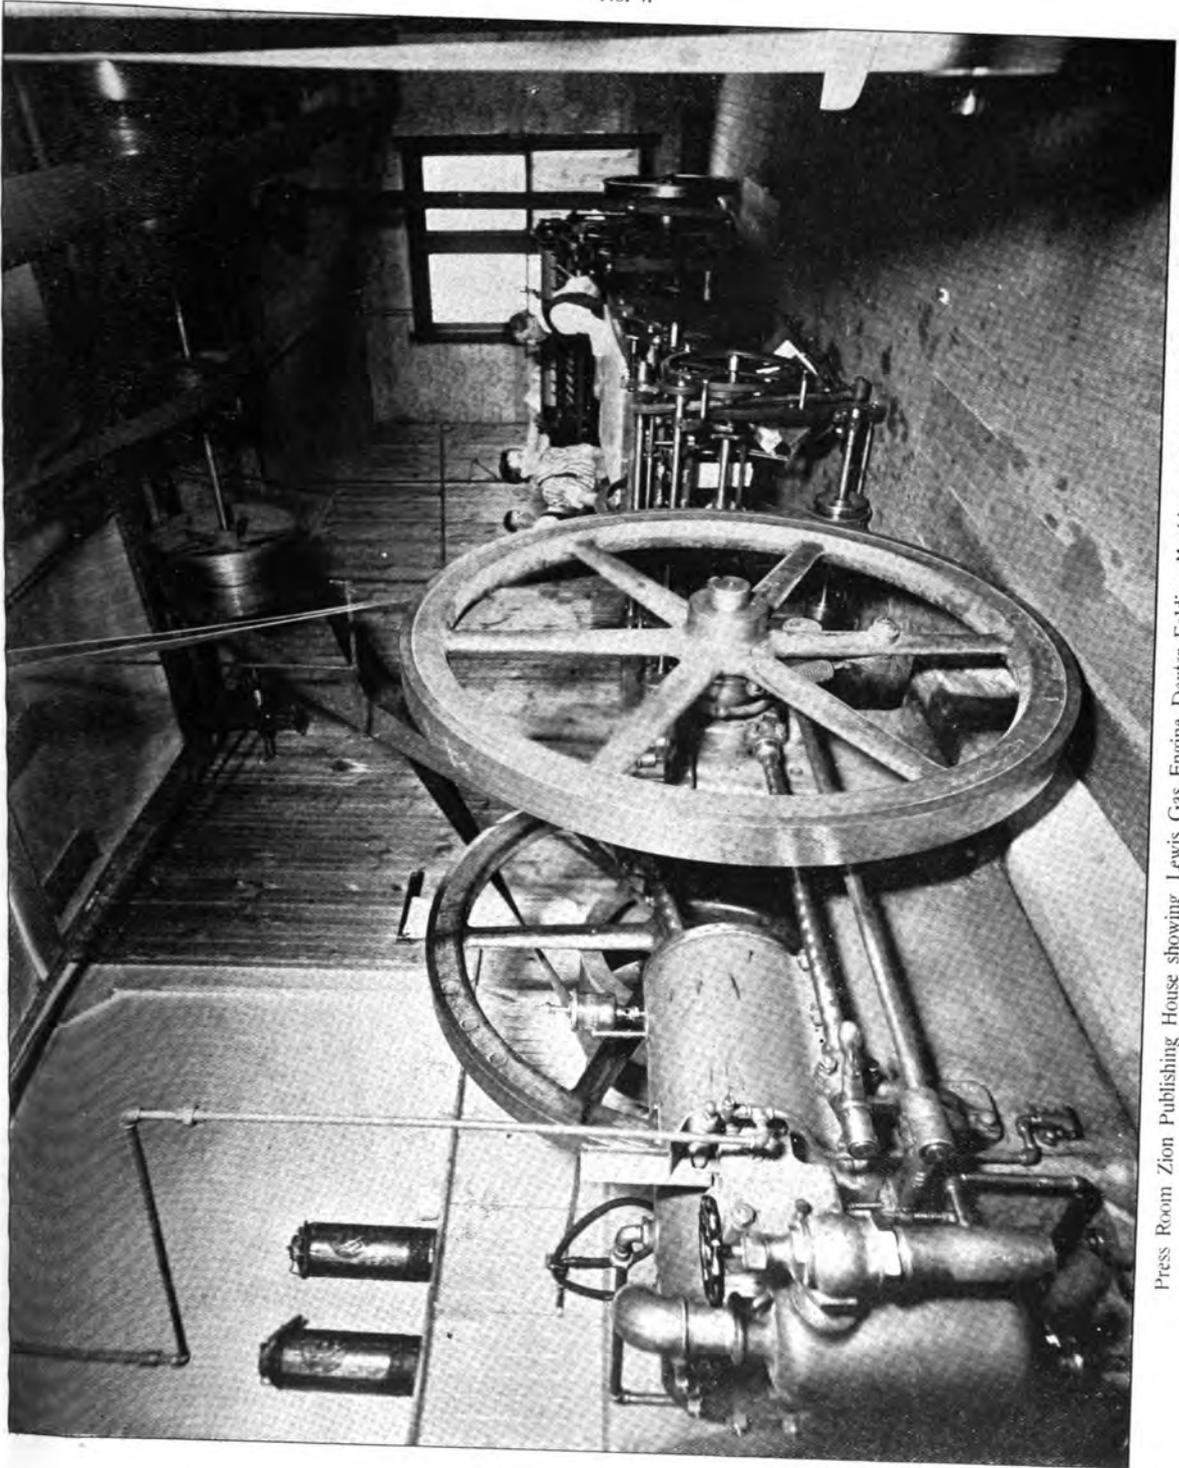

We ask our Christian readers one and all to pray for the success of Zion Publishing House.

Gottes Weg der Heilung.

Dom Redakteur.

Gottes Weg der Heilung ist eine Person und kein Ding.

Jesús sagte: „Ich bin der Weg, die Wahrheit und das Leben,“ und Er wurde stets Seinem Volke geoffenbart in all den Jahren durch des Vertrages Name, Jehova-rophí, oder „Ich bin der Herr, der Dich geheilt hat.“ (Johannes 14: 6 und zweites Buch Moses 15: 26).

Der Herr Jesus Christus ist stets der Heiler.

Er kann sich nicht ändern, denn „Er war derselbe gestern, ist es heute und ewig,“ und Er ist stets bei uns, denn Er sagt: „Siehe, ich bin stets bei Euch, selbst bis zum Ende der Welt.“ (Hebräer 13: 8 und Matthäi 28: 20). Weil Er unveränderlich ist, und weil er anwesend ist im Geiste gerade so als wie im Fleisch, deshalb ist er der Heiler Seines Volkes.

Göttliche Heilung ruht auf Christi's Veröhnung.

Es wurde von Ihm prophezeit: „Sicherlich hat Er unseren Kummer ertragen (Hebräer, Krankheiten) und unseren Schmerz empfunden, und durch Seine Streifen werden wir geheilt,“ und es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß dieses in Seinem Dienst der Heilung vollzogen wurde, welcher stets fortgeführt wird. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 und Matthäi 8: 17).

Krankheit kann niemals Gottes Wille sein.

Es ist des Teufels Arbeit, folgend auf Sünde, und es ist für die Arbeit des Teufels unmöglich, jemals der Wille Gottes zu sein.

Christus kam, um „die Arbeiten des Teufels zu zerstören,“ und als Er hier auf Erden war, „heilte Er jede Unpäßlichkeit und jede Krankheit,“ und alle diese Krankheiten sind ausdrücklich für die „Unterdrückung des Teufels“ erklärt worden. (1 Johannes 3: 8, Matthäi 4: 23 und Apostelgeschichte 10: 38).

Die Gaben der Heilung sind fortdauernd.

Es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß die „Gaben und der Beruf Gottes ohne Reue sind,“ und die Gaben der Heilung sind unter den neun Gaben des Geistes zur Kirche zu finden. (Römer 11: 29 und 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

Es giebt vier Arten göttlicher Heilung.

Die erste Art ist das direkte Glaubensgebet; die zweite ist das vermittelnde Gebet von zwei oder mehr Personen; die dritte ist die Salbung des Aeltesten mit dem Glaubensgebet, und die vierte Art ist das Handauflegen Derjenigen, welche glauben, und welche Gott vorbereitet und zu jenem Dienst berufen hat. (Matthäi 8: 5-13, Matthäi 18: 19, Jacob 5: 14, 15, Marcus 16: 18).

Göttliche Heilung wird von teuflischen Betrügern bekämpft.

Unter diesen befinden sich Christian Science (fälschlich so genannt), Weist-Heilung, Spiritualismus, Entzündungs-Evangelismus u. s. w. (1 Timotheus 6: 20, 21, 1 Timotheus 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Tausende sind durch den Glauben an Jesus geheilt worden.

Schreiber dieses sind Tausende von Fälle bekannt und er hat persönlich seine Hand gelegt auf Tausende von Personen. Vollständige Auskunft kann man erhalten in den Versammlungen, welche im Zion Tabernakel, No. 251 Ost 62. Str., nahe dem Jackson-Park, Chicago, abgehalten werden, sowie aus vielen Pamphlets, welche die Erfahrung von Vielen in deren eigenen Worten enthalten, die in diesem und anderen Ländern geheilt worden sind. Diese Pamphlets werden von dem Zion Publishing House, No. 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago, herausgegeben.

Glauben kommt durch das Hören und Hören kommt durch das Wort Gottes.

Sie sind herzlich eingeladen, vorzusprechen und sich selbst davon zu überzeugen.

LA MANIÈRE COMME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'ÉDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: „Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie,“ et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophí, ou „Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut.“ (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'„Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours“ et Lui est toujours avec nous, parcequ'il dit: „Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde.“ (Hebreu 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi; bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. „Sûrement ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissions,“ et c'est expressément déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaie 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint „pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable“ et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui „guérit toutes maladies“ et tous ces maux ont été expressément déclarés d'avoir été „l'oppression du Diable.“ (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanents.

C'est expressément déclaré que „Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir,“ et les Dons de la Guérison sont parnies les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8-11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5-13, Matthieu 18: 9, Jacques 5: 14, 15, Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposée aux Fausseries Diaboliques.

Parmis celles-ci y il a la Science Chrétienne (faussement appelée) Guérison du Sentiment, du Spiritualisme, de l'Extase de l'Evangelisme etcetera. (Timothee 6: 20, 21, 1 Thimothee 4: 1, 2, Isaie 51: 22, 23.)

Des Multitudes ont été guéries par la Foie de Jesu.

L'écrivain, connaît des milliers de cas, et il a personnellement posé ses propres mains, sur des vingtaines de milliers de personnes. Des informations complètes peuvent être obtenues aux réunions qui ont lieu dans le Tabernacle de Zion, 251 E. 62 Street, près du Parc Jackson, à Chicago, et grâce à beaucoup de pamphlets qui en démontrent l'expérience par leurs paroles et par beaucoup de personnes qui ont été guéries dans ce pays et dans d'autres; et qui ont été publiés par la Maison Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Avenue à Chicago.

„La Foie Vient en Écoulant, et en Écoulant la Parole de Dieu.“

Vous êtes cordialement invité à venir et entendre de vous-mêmes.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"PRAISE waiteth for Thee, O God, in Zion."

"THOU crownest the Year with Thy goodness."

CROWNING mercies from the Fountain of Life and Love continue to overflow Zion Tabernacle, and all the institutions which have proceeded from it. We cannot find language to express the gratitude which fills our heart for the rich blessings God bestows—saving, healing, cleansing, quickening, enlightening and comforting a multitude of weary ones every week within its humble walls.

OUR Happy Homes are full of guests from every part of America, and even during the holidays we have found it hard to find room for all who desired to enter.

ZION Publishing House which is fully illustrated in this issue, is sending forth tens of thousands of pages every week carrying LEAVES OF HEALING from the Tree of Life, and we praise God for all He is doing through our type and presses, and the beautiful paper we use.

THE Living Epistles of living men, women and children who have been blest through these agencies are rapidly multiplying. They live and love to tell the Story of His Grace in cleansing their hearts, healing their bodies, and filling their lives with gladness and peace and strength. They are finding their way to every land, and spreading the joyful news of a present deliverance for spirit, soul, and body in Christ.

WHAT a wondrous year to us!

Chicago had seemed to be utterly deaf to our Message. Press, Pulpit, and People were contemptuous, or indifferent, or opposed. Year after year the Press maintained a steady boycott, only relieved by an occasional dish of falsehood in the approved style of the Chicago Press Liar, a special creation of the devil's. But, at last God has given us a glorious Victory.

The work goes on in ever increasing strength. It widens, deepens, and gets a firmer and firmer hold of the thought and heart of people of all classes: for God is with us in it all.

IN our Notes of Dec. 7th, (No 13) p. 201, we quoted from an interesting letter written to us from 409 E. Market street, Warrensburg, Mo., by Mr. S. F. Huston. Our readers will remember that he told us of a young man who was converted and healed in Zion Tabernacle, who had entered it with a loaded revolver in his pocket looking for a man who had robbed him, with the intention of shooting him.

A sequel to this story is told in another letter from our brother Huston, dated Dec. 24th. He says:—"For the honor and glory of God, I will say that some of the good results which followed the conversion and healing of the young man of whom I wrote to you on Nov. 26 were, that he went home and told what great things God had done for him. His father was a saloon keeper, and when he saw what had happened to his son, that he was converted and healed, the power of God came upon him too. Then he went with his son to the cellar, and with an axe he knocked in the heads of all the whiskey barrels. Then he went with his son to Zion Tabernacle, was converted, and went to work for the Lord. Brother Dowie, that is a good way to get rid of a saloon keeper, get his heart right with God, and turn him into an active, earnest Christian."

THANKS brother, that is just the kind of Manufactory God has established at Zion Tabernacle. We see murderers in heart, adulterers, thieves, liars, and infidels—some of them dressed richly and some poorly—turned into children of God and and brethren in Christ, with purified hearts, living clean and wholesome lives, finding salvation, healing and cleansing in their Lord. We are at this work right along, and, therefore, the devil and all his children, in and out of the churches, are howling at us. The "young lions" of the Medical and Surgical Schools are getting very hungry to put their teeth in our flesh. The venomous, anonymous serpents of the Press are at the same business, and hiss at us from their pestiferous pages. But the people are not so easily deceived, and the true character of the opposition is coming out into clear light. It is the old, old story over again, "they hated me without a cause." Yes, they say, "There is a cause—our crafts are in danger." Just so, and let us whisper in your ears, ye false shepherds of Israel, ye mercilessly cruel poison venders and surgical butchers, ye scribes of that old serpent, the devil—let us tell you they are not only in danger, your crafts are doomed: "For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

WE have recently received many letters from Europe and Australia ordering LEAVES OF HEALING, and sending messages of cheer to fight the battle of the Lord in this "high place of the field." Thanks, good brothers and sisters, all. We are tightening our "girdle," pulling down our "helmet," looking well to our feet and the fastenings of our "breast-plate," getting our "shield" well on our arm, and with our "sword" unsheathed we are going right in to 1895 for the hardest conflict of our lives. We are not waiting for the enemy's attack—we are going after him, and we praise God "there is good fighting all along the line."

OUR girdle is Truth, our helmet is Salvation, our breast-plate is Righteousness, our feet are shod with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace, our shield is Faith, our sword is the Word of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Thus armed, God will give us victory.

Hallelujah, for a good fight, and many Captures from the Enemy in 1895. Come on, ye miserable paper Goliaths. Let us see whether God in Israel is stronger than the Devil in Chicago!

WE present our Christian readers in the next page with "our Pilgrim Band"—the Editor and his family—wishing one and all in Christ's Name, a Happy New Year.

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US."

OUR PILGRIM BAND IN DECEMBER 1894.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING.

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON THE AFTERNOON OF LORD'S DAY, at 3 o'clock, NOVEMBER 25th, 1894.

The tabernacle was crowded to its utmost capacity. The meeting was opened by the singing of the hymn:—"We're Marching to Zion."

The scripture lesson read by Mrs. Dowie was the 67th Psalm,—a song of praise and thanksgiving.

NOTES OF PRAISE.

Dr. Dowie then said: "We thank God for many tokens of continued blessing in this mission; that every Lord's day this tabernacle is filled to its utmost capacity and beyond, and that God blesses here hundreds of persons each Sabbath day, and indeed hundreds every day the tabernacle is open. It is not an unusual thing, and last week was not an exception, to see four and five hundred persons at nearly every meeting, rise and seek forgiveness of sin, purity of heart, and holiness of life. Last Lord's day it seemed as if well nigh the whole congregation rose and consecrated themselves to God. We thank God for this open avowal of allegiance to Christ in all things. We have no means of numbering how many have been saved; 'Israel is not numbered.'"

I am thankful that there are multitudes of people saved of whom the churches know nothing. I am almost glad they do not; because after a church has got hold of a convert and three or four deacons have sat upon him as a candidate, there is not much left of him, and when at last he is admitted to the church it is a great wonder if his spirituality survives the operation. I believe very firmly in that which was a revelation to Peter, when with wondering eyes he said, (Acts 10: 35): "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him." I am thankful when I see the people wanting to work righteousness; and above all I am thankful when I find them penitent and willing to restore what is not theirs, and to confess what they have done wrong.

EVERY WEEK MORE THAN A THOUSAND PERSONS PROFESS TO RECEIVE THE LORD IN THIS "WOODEN HUT"

as some one has contemptuously called it. I have sometimes noticed that the higher the spire on a church, the lower the piety and the meaner the Christian life. These churches are open about three hours a week and padlocked the rest of the week. If I were the devil I should delight in a church which was padlocked all the week. I am glad this "wooden hut" is open all the week. Between the homes and this "wooden hut" we hold more than twenty-one services a week.

EXHIBITING RECENT CAPTURES FROM THE ENEMY.

We are thankful to God for blessings upon the work in all its departments, and for many wonderful healings. I generally tell my janitor to put upon the table some of the braces and crutches of those whom God has healed, and here is a pair of very pathetic braces which were worn by a little boy. You see they are much worn. He has had to wear them year after year. (The mother of the child explained that while it wore short hair and looked like a boy, it was a little girl.) The mother will tell you presently of her healing.

A young lady handed me this ingenious thing. (Showing steel braces.) She was "bound in affliction," and in the hands of the surgeons, bound still further "in iron," and the iron was no small bondage. The young lady who wore this had to wear it night and day, and now she is free. Her leg was about two inches shorter than the other and now it is of equal length. Here is another brace left by her and a pair of crutches.

I do this to mention, as is our ordinary custom, some of the healings during the week and to thank the Lord for the things which He hath wrought.

PRAISE FOR THE WIDENING EXTENT OF WORK.

I want to say also that we have had during the week, a great many reasons to thank God that His word is having "free course," and that people in distant lands, who have never seen our faces, have been healed of various diseases. I also thank God, that even as the spider has her place in kings' palaces, so this little "wooden hut" has been making a little impression, even in the king's palace, for a gentleman who recently came and heard us speak in this Tabernacle, was one of the German Emperor's body guard. He said to me before leaving for Germany: "Sir, when I go home and I see the Kaiser, one of the first things he will ask me will be, in his bright, quick way, 'What was the most wonderful thing that you saw in Chicago?' and I will tell him: It was not the World's Fair; it was not the Dream City; but it was the sights which I have seen in your Tabernacle so often, of the people rising and giving their hearts to God; of the people living new lives; of the little children who were healed of various diseases; and those healed of that dreadful disease cancer, of which his father died. I will tell him that in Zion Tabernacle I saw Jesus Christ as the Healer of His people" He has gone home and doubtless delivered his message, and doubtless it has had its effect.

This testimony has its place in the highest places of the land, as well as in the lowliest. We are also grateful to God, beyond all expression, for the blessing upon the LEAVES OF HEALING, and say with all our hearts:

"Praise Him, praise Him, Jesus our blessed Redeemer.

Sing, O, earth, His wonderful love proclaim,

Hail Him, hail Him, highest archangels in glory:

Strength and honor give to His holy name."

I am glad that

THIS TABERNACLE IS A PLACE OF JOY.

God forbid that I should make it anything else. We trust that in this city, and throughout this land, God will stretch forth His hand to save, and heal, and bless multitudes, and that they will be convinced that Jesus Christ has come to Chicago. What a pitiful question is asked in the title of Mr. Stead's book: "If Christ came to Chicago?" Jesus said: "Lo, I am with you alway." What a wretched thing it is for people to be talking about "If Christ were in Chicago."

"Jesus, wh'er Thy people meet,

There they behold Thy mercy seat.

Wh'er they seek Thee, Thou art found,

And every spot is hallowed ground."

I want to tell you Christ is in Chicago, and I want to thank God with all my heart for what He has done.

After prayer by the Rev. Mr. Harrison, and the singing of the hymn: "Jesus, Lover of my soul,"

AN OBJECT LESSON FOR "STINK POTS."

Dr. Dowie said, as he held up some cigars and tobacco: "Mr. B., of Cairo, Illinois, was in Home No. 1, and got blessing. He had to go away but he left these, which he said were an outward and visible sign of an inward and invisible change of heart. He loathed the things he used to love. Now, you "stink-pots," do you know what these are? I would rather be the slave of a Chinaman or an African than of this dirty trinity, cigarettes, smoking tobacco, and chewing tobacco. Your dirty passion bids you smoke this and chew that, become their slave and then eat your master. The idea of expecting God to hear your prayer. And what is this? A box full of morphine. He left these things with me, and he left his pain with the Lord. Some of you here were in the room in Home No. 1 when the pain left him suddenly after I prayed and layed hands upon him. All who saw him at that time please hold up your hands. [Five men hold up their hands to say they saw him leave his pain.] And he was glad to leave these things behind. And now I am anxious to get rid of them; they smell. Just think, there are seven hundred millions of dollars spent annually in this country on tobacco, and thirteen hundred millions on the infernal alcohol. Two billions of dollars wasted which we want to see saved for God.

Another hymn was sung:

"Sing them over again to me,
Wonderful words of life."

after which Dr. Dowie repeated the invocation:

"Let the words of our mouths, and the meditations of our hearts, be acceptable in thy sight, and in the sight of this people, and to all to whom these testimonies shall come, for the sake of Jesus our Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer.

RESTORATION OF HEARING AFTER FIVE YEARS TOTAL DEAFNESS, AND HEALING OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS.

Dr. Dowie read the following written testimony:

"Testimony of Linda Karch, of Frankfort Station, Will Co., Ill., who became totally deaf when she was two years of age. She was treated by Dr. Stearns of Chicago. As she grew older she grew worse, until the latter part of September when she was brought to Chicago to be prayed for by Dr. Dowie. He prayed with her five times. She improved from the first time he prayed with her, and after the fifth she was perfectly cured.

Six years ago she began to be bothered with the kidneys. She was first treated by Dr. Henry, who said she would grow worse as she grew older. She was then treated by Dr. Runden, of Joliet, who said he could not cure her, but could give her something to lengthen her life, and that she would die with the disease. Then she was brought to Chicago, to Dr. Dowie, who prayed with her two times, after which she was cured."

Dr. Dowie added: "The child is about eleven years old and has been deaf for nine, and totally deaf for five years. Now she is going to the public school. There are two other children in the family who were both deaf and dumb, and Mrs. Karch adds their testimony:"

PARTIAL RESTORATION OF TWO DEAF AND DUMB CHILDREN.

"Testimony of Olive and Etta Karch, of Frankfort Station, Will Co., Ill., who were both born deaf and dumb. Olive was first treated by Dr. Henry, of Frankfort, who took her to the first class ear doctor of the Hospital in Chicago. She had two operations there, but instead of growing better she grew worse. In the latter part of September she was brought to Dr. Dowie and now she can hear and understand when we talk in her ear, and she will say some words, but I will continue to come with them until they are cured, for I know they will be." [The testimony of these children will be given by them in person, God willing, on Lord's Day, Dec. 30th. They continue to improve.]

CONFIRMATIONS.

Dr. Dowie then asked all who knew these children to stand. A number did so; and then a gentleman who lived in the same place and knew all about them rose to corroborate the statements made. "They are three interesting children. The oldest one who is now hearing very well was not born deaf, but the others were deaf and dumb. The oldest can now hear a whisper."

"I LOVE TO HEAR THE CHILDREN."

Proceeded Dr. Dowie. "I confess that while I like to see grown people healed, I have a special delight in seeing the children healed, and we will take the children first." (Turning to a little child) he said:—"Come now, let me put you on the piano."

INSTANTANEOUS HEALING OF CHILD AND MOTHER.

The mother said the child's name was Adelina Larson. They were living in Plainfield, Ill., at the time when she specially came to see Dr. Dowie, but are now living at 339 Franklin street, Chicago. Dr. Dowie held up a little brace and asked: "Is this your child's brace?" The mother said it was. He then asked how long she had worn it and was told she had used the brace since she was a year and a half old. He inquired if there had not been a boot attached and she responded that there had been but that she had removed it to give to a little friend who could not buy one. The mother added: "The braces cost $16.50 and did no good. Dr. Dowie prayed for her the last Thursday of September last and she has not had them on since. She was also cured of severe internal trouble which doctors of high standing in this city could not relieve. She was healed instantly of internal inflammation.

I want to tell you of my own healing. I would speak all day if you would let me. I was instantaneously healed of bladder trouble. We were both healed instantaneously."

ANOTHER CHILD—RESTORATION AND LENGTHENING OF A LIMB PARALYZED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Dr. Dowie then asked Ina Estes, of Plainwell, Mich., to step forward. She was placed upon the piano and her brace was shown to the audience, while the mother told the story as follows:—"At the age of three months her little leg was paralyzed, her right limb, so that she could not even bend her toes. Gradually she regained the power to move her limb backwards, but the front muscles would not work. She was doctored by various physicians in several places, the last being Drs. Wilson and Allen, of the National Surgical Institute, Indianapolis, Ind. It is five years this coming February that she has worn braces. The one you have she has worn a year. When we came to the Divine Healing Home a week ago last Tuesday, her right limb was three inches shorter than the other. Dr. Dowie prayed for her on the following Thursday and her leg was lengthened an inch. When he prayed again on Saturday it was a little longer than the other, but glory be to God it has gone back and is now just the length of the other, and is also gaining in strength. Every night we had to rub the limb to get the blood to circulate, it would be so cold, and since Dr. Dowie laid hands on her it has been just as warm as the other.

Dr. Dowie then said:—"I put her on this table that you may see she stands on equal feet. The mother says so and she says so. (Turning to the child) "Do you love God a lot for it?" The child said she did and Dr. Dowie responded: "You ought to love me a little too." Showing the brace, he said: "This is the brace. It is well worn. Her leg was paralyzed and cold and had to be rubbed to get circulation in it, and now from Wednesday night she has not worn the brace at all and the little thing runs up and down the stairs. She is a very sweet little child and we love to have children in the Home."

"GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING." NO. 1 IN LEAVES OF HEALING—WILLIE ESSER—REPEATS THE STORY OF HIS MIRACULOUS HEALING.

Dr. Dowie said:—"There are many who are very much interested in the case of Willie Esser, whose story was told in the first issue of the LEAVES OF HEALING. Some wicked people have said he was not healed. I did not send for him, but he is here with his mother and I want him to come out and bring his brace and crutches. I want you to see this boy. (Placing him on the table with his brace and crutches.) There you have him, just as he is in that picture in the first issue of the LEAVES. You will recognize the boy at once; boy, brace and crutches. The mother's testimony was given publicly some time ago in Central Music Hall, but I am just as much interested in the confirmation of older testimonies as in bringing forth the new, because it is important to establish the permanence of the work.

Please answer a few questions.

"Are you Willie Esser's mother?" "I am."

"Where do you live?" "$205 Armour Avenue, Chicago."

"When did he become sick?" "He was not quite four years old when he began to walk lame all at once. He had fearful pain in his limb at night, and none of us could sleep. We had to get up and rub him and try other things. He was doctored two years before he put on the machine, then Dr. Blanchford said he could not be cured in any other way than to wear the machine and high boot. This is the third machine; he had two before; and for seven weeks he wore a plaster paris cast, when he had to take it off. That was when he was four years of age. For five and a half or six years he had to wear these things, and was healed when he was nine years old."

"Now tell us about the healing, that is the point," said Dr. Dowie.

"Is this the boot he wore?" "Yes," was the response."

"How short was the leg?" "Three inches."

"Had he to wear this night and day for four years?"

"Yes, and went all the time on crutches. His leg was paralyzed."

Dr. Dowie explained: "When he came he gave his heart to Christ. One day he came up to the platform and lay down, (for he could not kneel because of the steel brace) and asked God to forgive his sins. He wanted to take the brace off at once, but I said: "No, bring your mother." Then he came with his mother and I took them into my private room and prayed, and everything was removed at once. His leg came right down the same length as the other and he walked off with this boot. Two days later, the 15th of April, he came back with equal legs and boots. He has been perfectly well ever since, and goes to school and runs all day long. He attends the Farrin school; corner of 51st St. and Wabash Ave., and attends a class of physical instruction."

The mother resumed: "The first time Dr. Dowie prayed, his leg came down. I was afraid when he took the machine off, and did not know how I would get him home, but we left the machine in Dr. Dowie's room, and the crutches, and went home. In a day or two he came back to the Tabernacle with equal legs and wearing equal boots."

"Willie," said Dr. Dowie, "tell them Jesus healed you."

"Yes, sir, Jesus healed me," was the response.

"Did He save you first and forgive all your sins, and then did your leg come down?" "Yes, sir."

"And how did you feel?" "HAPPY," said the boy, with a bright smile.

"And how do you feel now?" "HAPPY," was the response. (This was spoken with such an intensely joyful emphasis that the people cheered, wept and praised God.)

HEALING OF A MAIDEN'S LEG—THE MOTHER'S STORY.

The mother of Maude Rinearson, of Blue Island, Illinois, testified to the healing of her daughter in the following words:

"I will say that one year ago in September, my daughter's heel was injured in some way, we do not know how, but suppose by the rubbing of her shoe. The first thing we noticed she was lame, but it was several weeks before we called a physician, who said the trouble was in the covering of the bone, the periosteum. We did not think she got along as she ought to and had another physician. He lanced it, but there was no discharge. The pain was so great that it extended to her knee so that it pained her to walk. Then I took her to Ohio, to my husband's home, and left her with mother and the family physician, Dr. Skinner, who said she never would be perfectly well until that was cut and the bone scraped. She remained there very quietly for nearly a year, when she came back and was very little lame. She came back to go to school, but all the time I had a great fear that the trouble would return, for Dr. Skinner and three other doctors all said it must be cut and the bone scraped before a permanent cure could be effected. All through the spring and summer she was able to go to school. Once in a while she felt sharp pains, and this fall, about two weeks after school began, she again complained of this foot, and I was afraid of permanent lameness. We then lived where we do now, at Blue Island, Illinois, and I called in a physician there, Dr. James. He said it was not then ready to do anything to, to let it lie quiet and when it was ready it would have to be cut and the bone scraped, and to keep her quiet for fear the inflammation would spread to the ankle bone. She was able to limp around the house, walking on her toes, wearing a cloth shoe with the heel cut out of it. The doctor had been twice to see her when I heard of Dr. Dowie, and I believed in it because I believe in the Lord, but I had no thought of Divine Healing in connection with my daughter, until my sister-in-law said to me one day: 'Why don't you go to Dr. Dowie?' I came to see about it on Tuesday, Children's Day, and attended the morning and afternoon meetings. I spoke to my husband about it and although he is not a church member, he believes that God is able and willing to heal, and he was perfectly willing that I should bring her, and my daughter was willing to come. Sunday night when I went home from church she said to me: 'Mamma, I had a long talk with the Lord to-night, and I believe He will make me well.' She came here and the very first time she went into the Healing Room, on a Thursday morning, she was instantaneously cured. She came limping, wearing a shoe, but with great pain, and had to go very slowly. She started for the station five minutes before I did so as not to be hurried, and we staid to the afternoon meeting. She has been in school every day since, and is perfectly well. She wants to come here every Thursday, and she knows and realizes that the Lord healed her through Dr. Dowie as the instrument in His hands. She is thirteen years old but I believe is well acquainted with Him for a child of her years."

THE DAUGHTER'S STORY.

At the conclusion of the mother's testimony, Maude spoke of her healing as follows: "I came here and sat in the second row from Dr. Dowie's chair, and then I was very nervous; I always am nervous when I go before a large crowd of people. Then I went into the Prayer Room and he prayed and I got up and walked around the room. Then we went to a restaurant and came back for the afternoon meeting. I then went home by myself and got supper, and have been well ever since. The next day I did not want to go to school. I wanted to wait till the next week, so came down here on Friday, and Saturday helped mamma around the house. Monday I went to school and the teachers and scholars were so surprised. I took some of the LEAVES OF HEALING to them. I was healed six weeks ago last Thursday."

EXPLANATION OF THE DISEASE.

Dr. Dowie then said: "Periostitis is the inflammation of the periosteum, the lining around the bone underneath the flesh, which, when it once becomes inflamed and diseased, is one of the most painful and hopeless things to heal. Doctors know that inflammation around the bone underneath everything is one of the most agonizing and painful of diseases, and requires to be treated, so surgeons suppose, by cutting down to the bone, scraping it, etc."

REMARKABLE HEALING OF A LADY MISSIONARY, OF A BROKEN WRIST.

Now, there is a lady here who has been a missionary, and who has been remarkably healed, Miss Waterbury, from Polo, Illinois.

Miss Waterbury said: "I have had the privilege of being for seven years a missionary to the Freedmen under the A. M. A. While in Mobile, Alabama, teaching, I contracted a throat trouble which has followed me ever since, and I wrote Dr. Dowie, asking for a place in the Divine Healing Home, believing that God would do what He said in the last chapter of Mark: "They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." Several times one or two of us have asked for healing and it was done; once immediately in answer to my own prayer, when I sprained my foot; so you see it is not Dr. Dowie who does the healing. It was God who healed my sprained foot immediately in answer to prayer, twelve years ago. Dr. Kruter said to me, 'You have lung trouble, disease of the right lung. You have six months to live; that will be long for you.' I said: 'I have a God doctor, and two of us took it to God, and he heard and answered.

While I was getting ready to come to Chicago (I live a hundred miles from the city) I fell on an imperfect walk and fractured my left wrist. My hand hung helpless, with a large bunch where the fracture was. I suffered great pain and went to the office of a doctor near by, a doctor considered one of the best, who had studied two years in Germany. He set the bone, putting it into a Lee's splint, padded with cotton, and put on two bandages, and the arm in a sling. He said it was a 'Collis' fracture,' and I should keep it in splints from four to six weeks. I started to come to Chicago to see Mr. Dowie, and told the doctor at home that the Lord was going to heal my wrist. He laughed and said: "Come back bringing the splint and working the wrist joint and I will believe the Lord has done it, for nothing but a miracle can do it."

On the train the Holy Spirit brought to my thoughts the verse: 'I am the Lord that healeth thee' in such power I knew it was for me. Over and over the Lord said it to my inmost soul, and soon the most soothing feeling began to pass down my arm and on to the fractured bone, and all pain was gone, then I knew it was the touch of the Holy Ghost on my body. It was Thursday, Children's Day, when I arrived at the Tabernacle, and I heard a number of testimonies that helped my faith. One child said that her leg had been lengthened seven inches, and the child's mother said it was so. Another child said her leg had lengthened two inches; these were children who were born deformed. Some of the children said they could not walk until Dr. Dowie prayed for them. The mothers of the children also testified that it was so. There were so many hundreds of sick children waiting to see him that Dr. Dowie could not look at me, but the testimonies helped my faith, and I said I was a child of God, and I went to my boarding place and to my room. While kneeling in prayer the Holy Spirit assured me that the bone was healed, I knew it was, and I removed the bandage and splint, and found it well, but the joint was very stiff as it had been in splints eleven and a half days. An hour after I removed the splints I went into the Healing Room, and when Dr. Dowie touched the wrist I distinctly felt the power of the Holy Spirit, and immediately the wrist joint was loosened, and I have used it ever since. It was healed six weeks ago last Friday and since that time I have done two washings and swept several rooms. I took the splints and sent them to the doctor and he said it was a miracle. Praise God He is the same to-day."

CONFIRMATION BY DOCTOR.

The following letter in confirmation of this testimony, was then read from Dr. Leslie A. Beard of Polo, Illinois.

POLO, ILL. Oct. 31st, 1894.

I am very glad to be able to certify to the following facts: Miss Maria Waterbury came to me on Monday, Oct. 8th, 1894, with an injury to her wrist, caused by falling upon the sidewalk. At the time that she first called, she was suffering great pain, and the wrist showed the deformity called "silver fork" displacement, which is diagnostic of Collis Fracture of the wrist joint. The fracture was immediately reduced and placed in a Lee's Radial splint which was properly padded with cotton and retained by roller bandages. The dressings were changed several times during the next week. I saw it last on Tuesday, Oct. 16th, and it is my opinion that miraculous means were used in producing the changes in its condition, which were so apparent upon her return from Chicago.

LESLIE A. BEARD, M. D.

A POOR LITTLE CHILD'S OFFERING.

Dr. Dowie then said: "I would like to show you something which I forgot when I was talking about the children. A little silk bag and an old tassel. I wonder what it contains. One day a little child came up, who had been healed; I never was more touched with anything in my life, for she was the child of a very poor mother, and said: 'Dr. Dowie,' and she gave me twenty little pennies and nickels that she had saved. I put the money that she gave, into the printing press, but I kept this little thing. It is one of my treasures. Little children of every nationality come here; children of Poles, Bohemians, Italians, Russian Jews, and Scandinavians, and I do not wonder that Miss Waterbury was inspired to trust Him more perfectly because of the faith of the little children."

A WONDERFUL HEALING OF TWELVE YEARS' TOTAL DEAFNESS.

Dr. Dowie then told of an intensely interesting case not perfectly healed, but one which many friends desired that he would allow to be seen. He then asked Miss Miller to tell about her brother's deafness.

Miss Amelia M. Miller, of Galena, Illinois, gave her brother's name as George Edward Miller. She said: "I will now testify on behalf of my brother. About twelve years ago he was stricken down with spinal meningitis, since which time he has been deaf. After a deafness of twelve years he was not able to hear the report of a double barreled shot gun beside him. I came here with him six weeks ago and have been attending the meetings ever since. After Dr. Dowie prayed with him he could hear his voice when he spoke very distinctly in his ear, and was able to repeat after him, "God is good," and "God is love." One evening as we were sitting quietly together his attention happened to be attracted to the other side of the room and I said to myself that it was a good time to see if he could hear my voice. I shouted in his ear, "Georgie," and he turned and said: "O my sister, it is sweet to hear your voice which I have not heard for twelve years." Since then he cannot hear every word, but nearly every word, though I have to talk very loud, but I am thankful for this."

EXPERIMENTS.

Dr. Dowie then said in a loud voice close to Mr. Miller's ear:—"God is good. God is love. 1. 2. 3." and Mr. Miller could repeat them after him. His sister then repeated: "I am the Lord that healeth thee. God is merciful;" and he caught the words quickly. Dr. Dowie repeated that it was not yet a perfect healing but that it was breaking in upon him and that he was very happy about it.

A TOUCHING TESTIMONY.

In a most pathetic and touching manner Mr. Miller himself spoke of the blessing he had received. He said:—"I am glad to be before you to-day to testify to what the Lord has done for me. When only eleven years of age I was stricken down with spinal meningitis. I had that disease about a month and afterwards I became perfectly deaf, and have been so for almost twelve years now. I had my ears examined by a specialist who pronounced my case incurable. He said both ears were paralyzed and I could never hear again. To give you an idea of how deaf I was I will tell you that I could not hear the report of a double barreled gun. Now through faith in Jesus I can hear my sister's voice as she speaks to me. I ask you all to rejoice with me for this blessing received both spiritually and bodily, as I thank the Lord."

A REMINDER OF THE OLDEN TIME.

Dr. Dowie added:—"Does not that remind you of what they said in olden times: 'He doeth all things well; He maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.'"

HEALED OF TWENTY-TWO YEARS STIFF JOINT, IMPERFECT SIGHT, ETC.—AN INTERESTING STORY.

Mrs. Charles Deist, 1943 90th street, Dauphin Park, City, said:—"I am one of the extreme sufferers, having been sick almost all the days of my life. To make a long story short I must tell you the beginning and then the last in connection with my healing. When only five years old I had serious trouble with my left leg and since I was eleven years old my hip joint had been helpless, although my knee joint was all right. During my childhood, up to my sixteenth year I had three operations. Two months ago, my brother, who is a physician and surgeon, thought I ought to have another operation performed, but I said: "Brother Henry, before I will go through that again I would sooner die." "Well, then you will have to suffer," he replied.

I would not consent to the operation, and one day I went to visit in Hammond, Indiana. While there I saw a lady who came in the afternoon with her little girl, eleven years old. My friend asked the lady if she had been to see Dr. Dowie, and she replied: "Yes, I have just come from there. Look at her." The child had been paralyzed since she was a year and a half old and never had the use of her limbs, or at least one of them, and when I saw her perfectly well and walking like any well child I said: "What kind of a doctor is that?" for to tell the truth, I never heard of Divine Healing before, and I said: "If there is a Lord and Healer for her, why not for me?" It was Clara Duncan, of Madison, Ill., and that was what gave me faith.

I came the next Sunday, with the aid of a kind, old colored lady. I was a perfect stranger here, but she knew and had faith and was all ready to assist me: for I was not able to go on the cars alone for fear something would happen. We came here on Sunday to get a ticket, and she pointed me to the crutches and braces hanging on the wall. I could not do anything but cry because of my extreme suffering all my life which was pictured before me and I said: "Is it possible Lord, that you are here to-day to hear the cries of your suffering children? You must hear and help me, and if there was ever any one healed and helped, let it be me." I never was able to bend my hip joint. Now, see, I can bend it like anybody. My time of suffering has been so long I cannot exactly tell, but it is since my eleventh or thirteenth year, for twenty or twenty-two years that I have not been able to bend that joint. The blessing came all at once. I got a ticket for Tuesday, and as Dr. Dowie prayed for me, there passed through me such a warm feeling; I said to myself right away: "I am healed, I am sure," and when I walked home I said to the colored lady: "I am sure I am healed." I kept trying my leg and was so surprised, and I said: "Can it be that I am imagining it?" All pain had disappeared and strength had returned. I was obliged to wear glasses for over eight years, and never was able to do anything evenings, any of the sewing or mending so necessary to the comfort of family life. Now I cannot use glasses any more. These glasses God has given me, they are perfect. (Applause.)

CONFIRMED BY HER HUSBAND.

Dr. Dowie said her husband who was present, had better tell us whether it was true. Mr. Deist said: "I was away at the time she was healed. I was gone four weeks and when I got home I was surprised that she was getting on so well. She has worn glasses ever since I knew her and now she gets on very well without them and I never knew her to bend that hip joint before, and now she sits down on a chair like anybody else."

"And what was the effect upon you?" asked Dr. Dowie.

"I now believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. He is my Saviour," was the response. "That is better than all," said Dr. Dowie."

CALLING FOR MEN.

"The women have been having it all their own way," said Dr. Dowie. "Let us hear from a man or two now. We will have another class of cases. I want to hear one who has been wonderfully blessed." Mr. H. W. Furber of Belvidere, Ill.: "There are many in Belvidere who have been healed. Some have gone back with legs lengthened, some have gone back with sight who were blind." Mrs. Giles and Mrs. Webber: "Our brother heard about this work away back in April, and then the Lord used our beautiful little messenger, LEAVES OF HEALING. Our brother was going about on crutches with rheumatism for a number of years. He was about to enter the ministry when the devil screwed him up with rheumatism. Now, brother, tell of what the Lord has done for you."

HEALED OF RHEUMATISM, ETC.

Mr. Furber said: "When I was a boy they always said, 'Little folks better be seen and not heard,' and I was hoping Dr. Dowie would not call on me, because I am one of the little folks, for the children take God at his word, and nothing has so much impressed me in this matter of Divine Healing as that we must come like little children. I have been healed to an extent that I cannot describe. It has been more spiritual than physical. It seems as if God had told me my physical perfection must wait, that my spiritual life must be made perfect with God before I could have a perfect body, and I came here for the baptism of the Holy Spirit rather than for physical blessing, and I believe I have received it. It is not necessary to say much about my healing. I was healed to a degree. There were about twenty-two joints in my body that seemed utterly destroyed, as though I never had a joint. I had great difficulty to walk, but I threw away my crutches, rose and walked. I read about this work, but was filled with theological doubts. You know the disciples found some cases they could not heal because some demons would not go out, and there is no demon like that demon of doubt. We often hear Mary Magdalene spoken of because she had seven devils, but do you remember about the man who had a legion of devils? It seems to me no man can have a legion unless he gets theological doubts into his head. We fail to get the fullness of blessing because we have so many demons of doubt."

Dr. Dowie added: "Our brother has been wonderfully blessed physically, but he cannot tell it because he is so full of the spiritual blessing, but he laid aside his crutches at once and walked about a mile and has been walking daily ever since a distance equal to about four miles. He is getting along very nicely."

HEALED OF BLOOD POISONING, ETC.

Mr. F. W. Peterson of 5731 Carpenter street, city, said: "I did not expect to testify to-day, but if Doctor wants me to I am glad to do so. I thank God for the opportunity to testify to His goodness to me. I am not only saved, but healed. It is now nearly four years since I heard Dr. Dowie preach, and it was about two years before I was sick. I was not sick, but I got injured by stepping on a twenty-penny nail that cut through the rubber boot on my right foot and caused blood poisoning inside of a week from the time of the accident. The nail went very nearly two inches into my foot. When it first commenced I had fever, strong fever, and after that I had chills. When I got home I was nearly stiff and lay down close to the stove. It was hot, but it was not hot enough for me. I could not feel it. I was freezing, but managed to get to bed and had the severest headache that I had ever had. I could not keep my head still, but had to move it all night because of the pain. The next morning my oldest boy took me to the train and I went to Evanston and managed to get to Dr. Dowie's house. When he saw me he said: 'You look as if you were a sick man. What is the matter, have you sinned?' I told him that I had, for it was through carelessness that I got injured, and so we went to God on our knees and he prayed for me. First of all he prayed for my spiritual condition and then he took my foot in both hands and prayed, and told me to look up to God and expect His blessing. I did so, and when he prayed I could feel the pain go out. He asked me if there was any more pain in my foot and I told him 'no, praise God.' Then he asked me if I was all right and I told him about my headache. 'Let us take it to the Lord,' he said. He then laid his hands on my head and under his hands that pain went. He told me to step on my foot to see if there was any more pain. I did so, but the pain was gone. I walked up to my work, for I was working then in Evanston, and attended to my work all day. I worked hard and in the evening took the train for home. It was a wonderful healing that I never can forget, and then we have had healings in our family. I have quite a family and the youngest of our children was sick and the Doctor laid hands on her and she was healed immediately. Christ is our home physician. He is the best one, the surest and the cheapest; it does not cost us anything. I attend the meetings and get faith and we get well and are kept well. My wife came once to the meetings and got well and is now quite well. I testify to having been a tobacco 'stinkpot' once, before I became a member of the M. E. church. Now I am saved, healed and well and happy. Praise God."

HEALED OF SIXTEEN YEARS' HIP DISEASE.

Miss Julia Roy of 535 Burling street, city, said: "For sixteen years I had hip disease, and the World's Fair year I had abscesses. I was operated on and it left me with three running sores which are now perfectly healed. My leg was crooked and this brace was to straighten it, (showing a brace in her hand) but it did not do it. Now it is perfectly straight, and my foot, which was three inches short is two inches longer and lacks now one inch of being the same length as the other one. I give the Lord all the praise for what he has done for me and Dr. Dowie."

The father of the young lady was present and Dr. Dowie asked him if the testimony of his daughter was true. "Yes sir," was the response, "that is true. She was blessed just in that way."

A SIMILAR CASE—LEG LENGTHENED BY THREE INCHES.

A young lady who had come with her and had been blessed in a similar way, showed her thick-soled boot and said: "I had been wearing this boot for the last year and now my feet are even. I can stand even on them and I give God all the glory for it. My other iron was three inches, but I had it shortened in October before I came here, but it was too low and I limped. When Dr. Dowie prayed for me my leg came down at once. I took the iron off and have been walking about ever since." Dr. Dowie added: "You are a better girl than you used to be, and are living closer to God."

ANOTHER HEALING OF HIP DISEASE.

Another friend, Miss Lillie Richter of 568 Sedgwick street, told of her healing from hip disease. She said: "I have suffered from hip disease since I was twelve years old and my leg has been three inches short and I have worn a high heeled shoe. It has been three inches short for about ten years. When Dr. Dowie prayed my foot came down two inches. That was two months ago, and it is yet one inch short. I also had rheumatism for two years and was healed of that."

HEALING OF CANCER IN BREAST.

"GOD'S WITNESS NO. 4 IN LEAVES OF HEALING REPEATS HER TESTIMONY.

Dr. Dowie then said:—"I want to have Mrs. Lowrie testify to her healing of cancer in April. She was given up by physicians in Canton, O., and here in this city. Her testimony is in the LEAVES but I have heard that some wicked person has said that Mrs. Lowrie was very sick and was not able to testify. The reason she has not stood upon this platform was because she has a dear little baby, and I did not feel it desirable to ask her to come up. But the baby is growing older now and has been named Jeanie Dowie after my good wife, and I can testify that the baby is nursing now at the breast where Mrs. Lowrie had the cancer. She used to live on Calumet Avenue, but now lives in the Columbian flats, close to Zion Tabernacle.

Mrs. Lowrie said:—"I was treated four years for cancer in the left breast. I had four physicians, Dr. Bellfield, Dr. Halsted, Dr. Pontius and Dr. Skiles. They all pronounced it cancer and said the only way to have it cured was by an operation. Last April I began to attend the meetings here and began praying, and one night God heard and answered, and my breast is now perfectly natural with no sign of cancer. My testimony as it appears in LEAVES OF HEALING is true."

Dr. Dowie resumed:—"Now and then we find attacks made on the testimonies. Some say we give recent cases but not cases of any length of standing. I do not know of one of the persons who testified in Central Music Hall last April who does not remain healed to-day."

HEALED OF FOURTEEN YEARS KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASE.

Mrs. Wery, of 1016 Algrove Avenue, City, testified as follows:—"Fourteen years ago I was taken sick with kidney and bladder trouble. I went to Rush Medical college where I was given up as a hopeless chronic case. Summer before last I was given up for dying in the Hospital. I went home from there, and then spent another two months more in the Hospital. I went with another lady and they said they could cure her but not me. In April I saw in the papers about Dr. Dowie, and I told my husband that people got cured by faith. He said: "You go. You will get cured as well as anyone else." I came to the meetings two months before I could reach Dr. Dowie. Some friends entreated his helpers for me, and one Sunday I tried to get a ticket but could not. He was running away, everyone after him like a pack of hungry wolves, and I caught him by the coat, and said: "Won't you please give me a ticket?" He turned and said: "Give this lady a ticket." He prayed with me once, and I was perfectly healed."

A REMEMBRANCE OF MRS. WERY.

Dr. Dowie added:—"I remember Mrs. Wery and so does my coat. She was so importunate and held me so firmly that the only way was to turn around and say: "Give that woman a ticket, please."

THE HAPPIEST LITTLE WOMAN IN MADISON.

"Now we will simply ask one more to speak. Mrs. Parsons will be leaving us in a few days. She is 'the happiest little woman in Madison,' according to the Wisconsin State Journal published in that city. She was wonderfully healed and came down to stay a few days with us here. Her testimony is in the LEAVES OF HEALING and the healing is so remarkable that it has become very widely known and many of the sick from Madison have come down since she was healed. Her father, Mr. Snell, is a well known citizen of Madison and a prominent Christian man, and everybody has been hearing about it. The Wisconsin State Journal has written up the case very thoroughly and the Madison papers have been giving a good deal of attention to the matter. The newspapers of the State and of other States have been giving our work attention, while in Chicago the Mission is boycotted week after week and month after month. We hold testimony meetings and thousands of persons are coming weekly, but the Chicago press is silent, or tells lies about us for the most part. Thank God we have our own little paper, which the Lord is blessing beyond all our capacity to contain in Zion Tabernacle. If the papers were to give publicity to the work we should be overwhelmed.

SOMETHING OF THE EXTENT OF THE WORK.

Perhaps God has permitted the boycott to give me time for carrying the work into larger quarters. This work means incessant toil. We keep four secretaries constantly at work, a publishing house, three Divine Healing homes, where we hold seventeen services a week and here at the Tabernacle six services each week, making in all twenty-three services during the week. We have the vast correspondence to conduct connected with the work throughout the world—thousands of letters every month. I ask your sympathy, I ask your prayers, I ask your kindly co-operation in the work which bears so heavily upon one pair of shoulders—I might say two, for my wife helps me very efficiently and sweetly and she entirely superintends the Homes. We cannot see one-half the sick who want to see us, but still we see a very large number—about one thousand persons each week.

Mrs. Parson's case has been a very interesting one. As I said, her testimony is in the LEAVES, but she came back to the Home for rest and instruction, and goes home to Madison in a few days. We will ask her to say a few words to-night."

A GOOD TESTIMONY.

Mrs. Parsons said:—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow. I praise Him to-night for being able to stand here once more a well woman, having been five years an invalid. Perhaps many know my testimony, and yet to some it may prove something of an inspiration. For five years I was a great suf-

WATCH-NIGHT SERVICE IN ZION TABERNACLE.

"Watch, brethren, watch,
The years are dying;
Watch, brethren, watch!
For Time is flying.
Watch as men watch the parting breath,
Watch as men watch for life or death:
Eternity is drawing nigh!"

"TAKE YE HEED,
WATCH AND PRAY:
FOR YE KNOW NOT WHEN THE TIME
IS"—The words of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE three glorious services of the last Lord's Day of the year only made the most earnest of the people more eager for the All-Night of Communion Praise and Prayer with which we closed the year of 1894, and entered upon the year 1895 in Zion Tabernacle.

Our beloved brother, the Rev. Dr. Speicher, began the service at 8 P. M. on Monday night, Dec. 31st, and continued it with much acceptance until 10 P. M., when we took charge.

The Tabernacle was nearly full when we gave out the hymn, "Praise Him, Praise Him, Christ Our Blessed Redeemer." Mrs. Dowie read very beautifully the 65th Psalm. We read the 1st chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Philippians, with running exposition.

After much prayer and praise we delivered the Watch-night address from the motto and watchword which we had chosen for 1895—from Philippians, 1:20—"CHRIST SHALL BE MAGNIFIED IN MY BODY."

Never did we more sweetly realize His presence or feel the peace, purity and power of the Holy Spirit revealing the love and grace of the Eternal Father.

At 11:15 p. m. we removed the snow white coverings from the Lord's Table, and called around us faithful and tried and true brethren to act as deacons. THE COMMUNION OF THE LORD'S BODY AND BLOOD followed.

As it closed we knelt and sang Dr. Horatius Bonar's beautiful hymn:

"Pray, brethren, pray!
The sands are falling;
Pray, brethren, pray!
God's Voice is calling.
Yon turret strikes the dying chime;
We kneel upon the edge of time:
Eternity is drawing nigh!"

The congregation were very still. God was speaking.

Angels were hovering round. Devils were fleeing. The Spirit was breathing life into us.

And it was with triumph in our hearts that we sang the closing stanza:—

"Look, brethren, look!
The day is breaking;
Hark, brethren, hark!
The dead are waking.
With girded loins all ready stand;
Behold, the Bridegroom is at hand!
Eternity is drawing nigh!"

And then, in solemn silence, we knelt until the New Year was born; and as we received it from the womb of Eternity we said softly in our heart:—
"Another year for

Jesus,
Whether we live or die;
Eternity with Jesus
In fairer worlds on high."

And then beginning with our beloved companion, wife and helper, we wished ALL A HAPPY NEW YEAR, and presented them with the Souvenir Card, the two sides of which are pictured on these pages.

An interval from 12:15 A. M. until about 1, then took place, during which light refreshments were served in the Healing Room. This was a most delightful season, and enabled us to greet each other; and many precious words from hundreds of grateful hearts greeted our ears.

The people who ate at the Lord's Table, and then at the Brethren's Table that evening will never forget that hour. It was a foretaste of the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

Soon it passed, and then with the glad song, "WHAT A GATHERING," we re-constituted the assembly. We sang:

"On that bright and golden morning,
When the Son of Man shall come,
And the radiance of His glory we shall see;
When from every tribe and nation
He shall call His people home,
What a gathering of the ransomed that will be."

Never did the chorus sound sweeter, fuller, and more inspiring than in these first hours of the New Year's morning.

"What a gathering of the ransomed
In the summer land of love;
What a gathering of the ransomed
In that happy home above."

And then on and on through all the wide-awake Watch Night hours of that happy morning we went.

Testimonies from scores and scores of blessings received in Salvation, Healing, Cleansing, Instructing, Delivering, Protecting, Providing, Comforting, etc., etc., flowed on in streams of praise for hours. All thoughts were turned heavenward. Crown after crown was cast at Jesus' feet.

An hour of Special Prayer for the Church of God everywhere; for "the world" outside and inside its walls; for unsaved relatives and for the sick; for the progress of the Kingdom of God in all lands; for Zion Tabernacle, the Divine Healing Homes Zion Publishing House, and LEAVES OF HEALING. It was a glorious hour.

Then an hour and a half was given to the Asking and Answering of Questions; and well nigh all the Wisdom and Knowledge with which God has favored us were taxed to the utmost to provide prompt, short and satisfactory replies.

Another season of prayer followed, closing with a solemn ACT OF ENTIRE CONSECRATION TO GOD, and the repetition of all present, with uplifted hands, of the motto and watchword,

"CHRIST SHALL BE MAGNIFIED IN MY BODY."

The Doxology and Benediction being sung and said we "went out," as they did long ago, with Jesus, and by His grace we will go with Him all the way.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

WRITTEN BY MISS A. M. HICKS.

VARIOUS reasons present themselves why I should give to the readers of this paper some facts and arguments on the subject of Divine Healing. Many letters and inquiries have come to me concerning an article entitled "Healing by Prayer," written by Rev. J. O. Burroughs, and published in the Gleaner of March 8th, also an editorial by Mr. Walker, entitled "A Miracle of To-day" in the Clinton Democrat of the same date. The present article is in part my answer to these anxious inquirers. Also I am constrained to do this for the glory of God, who has done such great and marvelous things for me and for the benefit of some of God's suffering children, who may, I trust, be thus persuaded to recognize a long neglected doctrine of the Bible and come to Christ for healing.

The facts concerning my sickness and my healing were clearly and truthfully stated by both Mr. Burroughs and Mr. Walker. Lest some should see this who have not read either of those articles, I will give a very brief account of the case.

The 10th day of last November I was in my accustomed place in the school room, doing full work and apparently in perfect health. The next morning I awoke to find myself in intense pain, the victim of a cruel disease, which for twelve weeks baffled the skill of the best physicians. From the first morphine had been given as the one hope of saving my life. So the weeks and months wore away, while the disease wasted my flesh and my strength, and sapped the very foundations of my life.

During these weary days certain facts were brought to our notice concerning Dr. Dowie, of Chicago, who was said to be the instrument in God's hands to perform miraculous cures. This information came through such safe channels that we could not long remain in doubt as to the truthfulness of the

A SOUVENIR FROM ZION TABERNACLE, CHICAGO

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING.

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON THE AFTERNOON OF LORD'S DAY, at 3 o'clock, NOVEMBER 25th, 1894.

The Tabernacle was crowded to its utmost capacity. The meeting was opened by the singing of the hymn:—"We're Marching to Zion."

The scripture lesson read by Mrs. Dowie was the 67th Psalm,—a song of praise and thanksgiving.

A GOOD TESTIMONY.

Mrs. Parsons said:—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow. I praise Him to-night for being able to stand here once more a well woman, having been five years an invalid. Perhaps many know my testimony, and yet to some it may prove something of an inspiration. For five years I was a great sufferer under the constant care of many physicians, and like the women in scripture, was 'nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.' Dr. Dudley of St. Luke's Hospital, pronounced me a nervous wreck and advised me to go to a 'Rest Cure.' At Battle Creek Sanitarium I received the personal attention of Dr. Kellogg, which was quite gratifying, for it is almost as hard to see Dr. Kellogg as Dr. Dowie; but after six months I was not improved. Last November I was confined to my bed, under the care of two skillful doctors, who made an examination and said I must have an operation. They were about starting for Europe and said I should simply bridge over the time till their return. Then a magnetic doctor took my case and said he would accept no pay if at the end of one month I was not improved. At the end of five weeks he said I was worse and that the physicians were right, and that this was the second case that had beaten him. Then I came to the Divine Healing Home and on the 15th of June Dr. Dowie prayed for me and from that time to this have not known a pain. The reason that I came back this time was not from any need physically, but like a little boy who was healed here, I 'wanted to see the Doctor.' And now as I go to my home I shall live to glorify God and spend my time among the sick, rich and poor, and carry to them the LEAVES OF HEALING."

CLOSING.

Dr. Dowie said the testimony meeting would be continued in the evening and after the hearty singing of "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," pronounced the following

BENEDICTION.

"And now, beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body, be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you who also will do it. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you, keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen."

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON LORD'S DAY EVENING NOVEMBER 18th, 1894.

After praise, prayer, and scriptural reading, Dr. Dowie said: "Instead of calling to-night on special cases, I shall throw the meeting open for testimony, with only this restriction, that all who speak shall be Christians. A Christian is one who is conscious that he has repented of sin and is trusting in God the Father, in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ, and who has the witness of the spirit within his spirit that he is a child of God."

HEALED OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' AFFLICTION.

Mrs. T—— of Oakland, Cal., said: I can testify that I am healed; a genuine healing. I took Christ last year as my Healer. I know that He saves to the uttermost all who come to Him through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, though I think we all have persecution when we stand for a full salvation of body, soul, and spirit. I was healed of an affliction of fifteen years' standing."

HEALED OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' DEAFNESS.

Mrs. Mollie Hudson of 446 63rd Street, Chicago, said: "I have been attending the meetings of Dr. Dowie for the last six or seven weeks. When I came here I was deaf in one ear. At the age of fourteen I had typhoid fever, which left me deaf, but when I first came to the healing room I did not speak of my deafness, as I had other troubles. One evening Dr. Dowie said some of us got our healing on the installment plan, taking five cents worth or ten cents worth, and I thought I was taking mine on the same plan. I spoke to him that evening of my deafness, and the next evening the deafness left me. When I came here I had to go up in front, because I could not hear what was said, and last Thursday I sat in the back part of the house at the Children's Meeting when Mrs. Dowie spoke, and she speaks in a lower tone than the Doctor, and I heard every word that was said distinctly. I am naturally timid and it is a great cross for me to get up and speak.

Dr. Dowie asked her how long she had been deaf and she said:

"I am now forty and was fourteen years of age when I became deaf; twenty-six years in all." Dr. Dowie then asked her to turn her back to him, and in a moderate voice repeated a few sentences, which she readily heard.

HEALING OF TWENTY YEARS' PILES.

Mrs. C. W. Post, 972 N. Halsted Street, Chicago: "I did not take my healing on the installment plan; I took it all at once. I had piles for twenty years, and in my own room in about five minutes I was healed. That was in July, and through the summer I worked hard and there has not been the least return of the trouble. I tried all remedies that I knew of and could get no relief, and I thought, Dr. Dowie knows how to pray, and that I would pray as he did, and I repeated the words that he used in the healing room, at the same time pressing my hands on the sore places. The inflammation and soreness went away in about three minutes, and I am entirely cured. It was a miracle, and I received it through the teaching of Dr. Dowie."

HEALED OF KIDNEY, LIVER AND LUNG DISEASE.

Mr. Fred Trampisch, 7144 Peoria Street, Chicago, said: "I was sick with kidney disease, liver disease and lung trouble, and I suffered many years. I had several doctors who gave me up, and two doctors in the hospital said they could do nothing for me. Then I heard of Dr. Dowie in April and I went to his prayer room and he prayed with me and God helped me and blessed me. I am a happy man to-day and I praise God for it."

HEALED OF MANY DISEASES.

Miss Mary Jane O'Connor, 337 Root Street, Chicago, "I attended the lectures and got the blessing of healing. When Dr. Dowie laid his hands on me I was diseased from head to foot. I was not so bad, but quite bad; I was around, though I was not well. I was doctored by Dr. Parsons, but not helped, but when Dr. Dowie laid his hands on me I was healed. I had cancerous stomach, and liver and kidney trouble, and I praise God that I am now well entirely."

HEALING OF SEVEN YEARS' CANCER.

Mrs. Casey, 5741 Emerald Avenue, Chicago: "The first I discovered of having cancer was seven years' ago. I was washing one day and started to wring out a sheet, when a pain darted from my wrist to my breast, and I had to stop for half an hour. Then I tried again, but I could not finish the work. Then I felt a lump and I said to my sister: 'I believe I have a cancer.' She did not think it could be cancer, but I had it examined and one doctor said it was a tumor and another cancer. I had planned to go to the Presbyterian Hospital to be operated on and intended to go on Monday, but backed out on Sunday. I wanted to be operated on at home, but they said no, they wanted me where they could see me three or four times a day, and I thought it must be very bad if they needed to see me so often. I had not only cancer in the breast, but eighteen cancers from my shoulder to my breast. One doctor said, 'Don't let the knife be put on you, for you would die.' I had taken two dozen bottles of his medicine and he said he would make me four dozen bottles that would be stronger, but they did not help me. Then I had a magnetic doctor who said I would not have more than three months to live at most, and who advised me not to be operated on or to take any medicine, but to enjoy myself, as I could not live more than three months. Then I went to a Chinese doctor at Crown Point, and took his medicine nearly a year, when my sister-in-law said one day, 'Do you know of Dr. Dowie?' I came one Sunday and when I saw the people coming with their arms and heads in bandages I said: 'This is the place where I will hear God's word and have my cancer healed.' I came for a month or two before I got my ticket, and the first time he prayed with me the pain left my breast before I went home. In the morning when I awoke I could not tell where the cancer was except that it was hard. Now I am entirely healed of nineteen cancers; eighteen small ones and one large one which must have weighed about one and a half pounds, and now I am perfectly natural and normal in every respect, and I am much stronger than I have been in ten years. I am well and thank God for it. I was a Roman Catholic and I found the Lord here and I think there are many Catholics who have found the Lord here.

A MISSIONARY WITNESS.

Henrietta Muzzie, from Virginia, testified: "I am so glad to be a witness here to-night, and to tell you what I want and where I am going. I feel that the Lord has led me here for a purpose, praise the Lord. I am the one for whom prayers were requested who is on her way to India, lately come from Virginia. I feel as if I had got into Galilee at the time when the Lord Jesus was doing his mighty work, and my heart burns within me. The Lord healed me some years ago and I was raised up immediately from several sicknesses. I had congestive chills and was in a very bad condition, but there is something that I have not got hold of yet. I want it, as it was in primitive times with all its power. I have been afflicted for some years with deafness, and I know the healing is for me, but I do not realize it now. I want the Lord to finish the work, and I mean to take this teaching to India with me. There will be no medicine chest in my outfit; I was done with drugs and medicines long ago; but I have seen things here which I have never seen before—the real, genuine Bible healings, and it is worth going one hundred miles to see these things. We have been trying to get hold of healing in our work, but there is something lacking, and I am here learning. The Lord has been trying to get me out of the difficulties, but I have been hindered by false teaching and false reasoning, and I feel that the Holy Ghost is leading me out, and I pray to be led clean out and get the teaching that will enable us to get the old power in all its glory. I want you to pray for me. I mean to be an apostle of deliverance and healing to the land to which God is calling me. God has done wonderful things for my soul and I feel that He is going to fit up the temple of my body for a temple in which He can dwell."

HEALED OF TYPHOID FEVER AND NERVOUS DISEASE.

Mr. G. W. Stahlman, Cold Spring, Pa.: "I desire to thank God for the blessing that He has granted me since I came; first for spiritual blessings which I have received. About three months ago I came here a complete wreck. I was going down with typhoid fever and received instantaneous healing of the fever. Since I have been healed I am twenty-two pounds heavier. I praise God for this blessing. I have also abandoned the use of tobacco and I thank God for this."

TESTIMONY OF A DOCTOR NOW STUDYING FOR THE MINISTRY.

Dr. Speicher, 411 57th Street, Chicago:—"I speak somewhat with timidity. A number of my fellow students are here from the University of Chicago, and I know what I will catch when I get back there, but I made a vow that if an opportunity was given me I would testify of God's goodness to me. I want to thank God for having led me into the light in connection with Divine Healing. I practiced medicine for nearly ten years and have been led by the Lord to give up medicine entirely. First I gave it up for theology, and knew nothing about Divine Healing, but I came to know about it through Dr. Dowie, and through his teachings I have been led to give up the use of medicine; but, may be, it has not been something of a trial. I said: "I am a Christian and God is good, and God can heal and I do not need medicines," and I and my family have given up their use.

This spring the Lord seemed to want to test my faith, and I was brought down in a striking way. I had a terrible pain in my left ear so I could scarcely eat and was losing flesh; but I would take no medicine and prayed to the Lord. I wanted to see Dr. Dowie, and thought I would ask for a part of a typewriter that I had exchanged with him and so get to see him, but he instructed his secretary to attend to that matter, and the word came: "You can't see him personally to-day" and it sent me home to pray for myself. I did, and I found that on the right side of my neck was a large tumor, nearly as large as a hen's egg. I did not know it until that pain came in my ear, and I happened to touch it one day and found it excruciatingly painful. My father died of cancer; my father's father died of cancer; and what was this. After I went home I went to see a doctor, the best physician in South Chicago, and he said that it ought to be removed right away, and almost had his knife ready to take it out. I went to see another physician and he gave me a vial of medicine which I poured into the drain when I got home. At the dinner table the pain left me instantaneously, and I have not had another bit of pain, and the tumor is gone. Did the medicine do it? Did the medicine that I brought home and poured in the drain do it? God will heal all our afflictions. I wish I could impress upon the people the sham of medicine as it is practiced to-day. Nineteenths of the people would get well better without the use of medicine than with it. There is one great Healer; turn to Him in faith and may God bless you."

Dr. Dowie said:—"I am very delighted to hear Dr. Speicher. His father was a minister, and his wife is the daughter of a minister. I venture to say that if any of the young men in the theological seminary intend to give it to him, he is perfectly able to hold his own. There are a number of them present to-night who are very earnest about this matter. I have a letter on file from Dr. Speicher, and it will delight him to know that many of his fellow students have asked me to form them into a class to teach them this doctrine. During the last month I have received between thirty and fifty applications from ministers and theological students asking me to form classes for special instruction. Dr. Speicher himself was one of these. Zion Tabernacle is looming up in the theological horizon and Zion College is perhaps not very far away."

ONE OF THE DOCTOR'S OLD PATIENTS SPEAKS.

S. J. Harrison added:—"I just want to say in regard to Dr. Speicher that he was my doctor for two years. I trusted him to take me through a spell of sickness, and thought him an excellent doctor then, but now I have found a better Physician, who is his Physician too."

DIRECT HEALING BEST.

Dr. Dowie resumed:—"I am glad I shut Dr. Speicher out when he came to see me, although I would have seen him had he told me the real reason of his visit. I should be better pleased if all the people went directly to God and got the healing. Then I should say, very well, the people in Chicago can get the healing, and I am off to Philadelphia, Boston, New York or London.

Some one from the audience asked:—"Is that our privilege?"

Dr. Dowie answered:—"Yes; there are four scriptural methods of Divine Healing. The first is to go directly to God in prayer; the second is intercessory prayer; the third is the anointing of oil by the elders; and the fourth, the laying on of hands."

HEALING OF TYPHOID FEVER.

Mrs. M. M. Sutlen, Wheaton, Ill.:—"I am glad my ears have heard what they hear to-night. I have received the full gospel, and that necessarily takes in Divine Healing. The Lord Jesus Christ through His atonement saves and delivers me. Four years ago I was brought very low with typhoid fever. I did not want a physician, and I looked the town over in my mind to find some one to come in and pray with me; but I could find no one, and of course I went down very fast till I was brought down to the doors of death. After seven weeks the Lord sent a sister who had faith, and I was healed immediately, dressed and walked from that moment without any help, and I have been reading my Bible the past year, wondering about the difference in the teaching about sanctification and healing. When I was healed I arose and walked, and these questions have been going over and over in my mind, and I know the people have been making the mistake that they must be sanctified before they can be healed.

HEALING IS FOR THE SAVED.

Dr. Dowie said:—"In this tabernacle you can point to many who have been brought in here dying who were not saved. They received salvation as they lay there upon their stretchers. It is quite a common thing to see this place in front of the platform filled with stretchers and invalid chairs. They were then carried into the healing room and walked out healed, and they knew nothing about sanctification. It is a very great wrong to place sanctification before healing.

FALSE WITNESS HATEFUL TO GOD.

I will have no testimony that is not genuine and true. In the east I have laid hands upon hundreds of people who have told me that they were told to testify to their healing after having been anointed, no matter whether they had received it or not consciously, and the consequence is that I have found hundreds of persons professing healing they never possessed, and bringing scandal upon this work. I am entirely against such teaching concernig Divine Healing. There is not a straw to draw between it and Christian Science."

CONFIRMATION OF THESE OBSERVATIONS.

Mrs. Birrell, 6009 Madison Ave., Chicago.:—"I thank God that I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ, for 'it is the power of God unto salvation,'" and I thought when Dr. Dowie was talking of these teachings that I wished I had never heard of them, because I believe I would have been perfectly healed if the first teaching I received had been Dr. Dowie's teaching. There are plenty of people now in Toronto who profess to be healed, who go about with lame limbs and various diseases, and they say you must say you are healed before it comes. I never could see how any one could get up and say he was well when he was sick, and so I waited and wondered whether I would tell a lie. It kept me in doubt, but I am so thankful that Dr. Dowie spoke so strongly against such teachings. I believe I am resting in God. I want to trust Him fully and long to know more of Him. I love the Lord with all my heart, and soul and strength; there is nothing in the world that I would not do to serve God, and I want to love and serve Him better, and I pray God to help me not to be a stumbling block in any one's way. I can tell you I have learned how to pray, and the lessons which Dr. Dowie has taught on this subject will remain with me. It is quite evident that Dr. Dowie knows the way, for his prayers are answered, and we want to be taught how to pray. I want to learn better and how to do something, how to speak a word for Him, and when we are laughed at, not to be ashamed of Jesus, for He is not ashamed of us. I am glad that I am located near the Tabernacle and can come to the meetings."

Dr. Dowie then delivered an address on the terrible consequences of false teaching, which he deems it best not to publish at this time. He illustrated it by a large number of interesting facts.

The following written testimonies were read:

HEALING OF MANY SICKNESSES—SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS RECEIVED.

DEAR DOCTOR AND MRS. DOWIE:

I desire to give a praise testimony for what the Lord has done for me since attending your meetings, how I have been blessed spiritually and healed of several ailments. It has seemed almost like a different world since receiving your teaching. God has seemed so near and Christ so dear to me, and the Holy Spirit has truly brought all things to my remembrance, as Christ promised. I delight to read His word, whereas before I preferred light reading, which now I have laid aside, and have no desire to resume it. I began attending your meetings in April, threw my medicines all away about the first of June, resolving to take God as my Healer for life; obtained relief from quite a number of ailments after being in the Prayer Room twice; two that I have been subject to since a child ten years old. I never obtained relief before without the use of very strong medicine, (cankered sore mouth and chronic dysentery) and another chronic trouble which I was compelled to take medicine for daily for the last ten years; having also been relieved several times from severe pain in the head by the direct prayer of faith by my husband and myself. On one occasion, when, being completely exhausted from attending to my household duties, and not being through with them, I was so helped by the Lord that every bit of tired feeling was taken away, and I was enabled to proceed to the finishing. I therefore desire to praise and glorify God for the great blessing He has bestowed upon me, and praise Him for sending you here to establish this Mission of Salvation and Divine Healing.

As ever, your sister in Christ,

MRS. EMMA F. PEIRCE.

HEALING OF HIP DISEASE, ETC.

CASSEL, WIS.

REV. DR. DOWIE, Dear Sir: May God reward you graciously for your great work among the suffering mortals, and give you great joy in His service, is my prayer. I am an aunt to little Alma D. Keller, of Spring Green, who was healed by your prayers of hip disease. Great was the joy and surprise when she returned home. I know of a great many that I should like to persuade to go and be healed; most especially, a friend of thirty years or so, who is totally blind. He got it by a cold, resulting from bathing. I have talked to him about it several times. I believe he could be persuaded. How happy I should be if I could do a little towards the recovery of his sight, so this is the object of my writing. Words can never express me gratitude to you for the cure of my niece. God will reward you as I cannot.

MRS. H. DIEHL.

HEALING OF SEVEN YEARS' RHEUMATISM.

While still in Germany I became afflicted with rheumatism brought on by exposure. For seven long years I was a constant sufferer with that disease, my limbs being much swollen, and the pain in my back was almost unbearable. I consulted and received treatment from our family physician, but without any success. I was then advised to go to the Hot Springs at Wildbad. After taking the baths there for one month I became some better, which, however, only lasted three months, when I became as great a sufferer as ever. Then I came to this country, and to Chicago, where I doctored with various physicians, but without any permanent relief. In 1890 my sufferings were terrible, and I was in such pain that I could not bear the weight of a light cover over me. The following summer I was in the hospital one month and came out better, but just as soon as cold weather came I was as bad as ever. I then received three months' treatment at the Hahnemann Medical College, where I was told I had water around my heart, and lung trouble. I was sick and suffering all the time, and had almost despaired of ever being well. Last April I commenced attending Dr. Dowie's meetings regularly, receiving the teaching necessary for Divine Healing. In August last, Dr. Dowie prayed for and laid hands on me, and through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, I was instantly and perfectly healed, for which I will ever praise the Lord.

ANSWER TO PRAYER FOR A SUFFERER IN MADISON.

DEAR MR. AND MRS. DOWIE: I want to write and tell you how your prayers for me have been answered. It seems so wonderful and so beautiful. My cough is gone. I cough once in a while, but it seems to be a slight catarrh in my head that causes it. My back does not ache and you just ought to see me eat. My friends all say, "What have you been doing to yourself, you look so much better?" I tell them I have a new physician, and they are all anxious to hear all about it. But dear friends, better even than my bodily health is the feeling I have of being so much nearer Christ. I have such a warm, happy feeling in my heart all the time. If nothing prevents, I hope to spend a week with you in your Home this winter, for I want your teachings so much. I feel as if I had only taken my first step, and there is so much I want to learn. God bless you both is my most earnest wish.

TESTIMONY FROM AURORA.

AURORA, ILL.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Dear Sir: We have heard of your wonderful cures through Christ, and have also read many of the LEAVES OF HEALING which were loaned us by one of our near neighbors, Mrs. Mighells, an aunt of Lucy Clark who was healed of diabetes at your Home, and Mrs. Mighells was also cured of chronic dysentery. We know her cure to be complete, and it was entirely beyond medical skill to help or cure. She is so thankful for her recovery, she wishes all afflicted ones helped likewise.

Yours sincerely,

MRS. GEO. O. PLUMMER.

After a number of brief testimonies from distant places had been referred to, the meeting closed with prayer, and the benediction, a large number of persons who were healed being unable to find an opportunity for testimony. May the record of these two glorious meetings be blessed to many in all parts of the world, and God be greatly glorified. Amen and Amen.

[Praise and Testimony Meetings are held on the last Sunday afternoon and evening of every month.]

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

(See Illustration Page 256)

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

"HAPPY is that people whose God is the Lord."

"Glorious things of thee are spoken,
ZION, city of our God:
He whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With Salvation's Walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes."

"CHRIST SHALL BE MAGNIFIED IN MY BODY."

We entered into 1895 with glad hearts: for we were with the Lord Jesus at Supper, when we passed from the Old to the New Year.

We knelt at His feet as the solemn moments quietly passed; and as the midnight approached, we were singing to our dear people, in Zion Tabernacle, Dr. Horatius Bonar's hymn, "PRAY, BRETHREN, PRAY!"

Very deeply stirred were all hearts as they sang in chorus the refrain—"Eternity is drawing nigh."

"Praise, brethren, praise! The skies are rending;
Praise, brethren, praise! The fight is ending.
Behold, the glory draweth near,
The King Himself will soon appear,
Eternity is drawing nigh!"

STILL the hardest part of the fight is on hand. The Devil has come within sight of his Waterloo. But he does not cease fighting. The veteran hosts of Hell, with nearly six thousand years of army experience, are crowding down upon the Church of God to destroy it. They have long held it in check, and have deceitfully entered into outward organizations, pretending to help, whilst they have effectually hindered. Do not make any mistake, brethren, the Devil will never surrender. The Armies of God on Earth and in Heaven must drive him and his from city to city, from continent to continent, from every island and from every sea, crowding the hellish hosts to the brink of hell, and hurling them over and over and down and down into the dark depths from whence they came.

HERE is an Ancient Proclamation for the especial benefit of Modern Cowards in God's Army:—"Whosoever is fearful and afraid let him return and depart early!" Judges 7: 3.

THE only fear we have is that the cowards will not get out quickly enough. We have had some experience with them in the past. Gideon [Judges 6] found that out, and nine thousand seven hundred more had to follow the twenty-two thousand avowed cowards. God saved Israel by "the three hundred." That little band smote the hordes of "Midianites, and Amalekites, and all the Children of the East who lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude." But what was that host to Gideon and his three hundred? Before "the Sword of the Lord and of Gideon," they melted away like mist before the rising sun—"all the host ran, and cried, and fled."

WHEN we see hourly the victims of Satan and Sin, Disease and Death, our hearts are kept aflame with hatred of evil and with love to do something to deliver them from their "bonds of affliction and iron."

Familiarity with such scenes does not deaden sensibility; but it does teach many lessons of wisdom and love, of knowledge and faith, which it is impossible to learn in any other school. Many who criticise only reveal their ignorance or their malice, by speaking of a ministry of which they have neither knowledge nor experience. We have learned for the most part to pay as little attention to their childish chatter, as we do to the chirping of a cricket.

WE have received, whilst writing these lines four copies of The Christian Herald, of Detroit, Michigan, which shows that, all unknown to us, we have been the subject of a very lively controversy. Extremely kind and cruelly false statements concerning both ourselves and the work, have been made during the controversy. The Rev. John Gordon D. D. of Philadelphia, Pa., in the issue of Dec. 13th has repeated a lie which was publicly exposed when he was pastor in Portland, Oregon, and which has been already completely and unanswerably dealt with in San Francisco and San Jose, Cal. But this dead thing, written by a dead minister, who has already appeared before God to answer for it, is once more, after five years, resurrected, and its putrid carcass thrown upon the pages of The Christian Herald. We shall at once send the proofs of our assertions to the editor of that paper, and see whether he is brave enough to let the truth be told, no matter whom it proves to be a liar. Dr. Gordon's other statements are equally fallacious, and any one who wishes to have the facts connected with the Portland Mission can obtain them in our old series of LEAVES OF HEALING, vol. 1, pages 155 to 168.

The stenographic report is therein given, of our closing Praise and Testimony Meeting, at the close of a month's mission, and that meeting was held in the Tabernacle, Portland, one of the largest buildings in that city, on Nov. 4th, 1889. It contains the names and addresses, and full testimonies of many citizens of Portland.—It was publicly advertised, publicly reported, and publicly published in Portland: for a special edition of the report was printed and circulated in Portland at the expense of Mr. Hollon Parker, an attorney of Walla Walla, who had much business and property in Portland, and whose address is 135 First Street, in that city, and is so given at page 162 of the report already referred to. Amongst those who testified to healing were three ministers, then resident in Portland, namely, the Rev. B. Franklin Rattray, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church (page 156), Rev. Charles Augustus, minister of African M. E. Church (page 159), and the Rev.

Uno N. Brant, minister of the Scandinavian Baptist Church (page 160). The State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Noel Jacks, also testified to his healing (page 157).

Strange, is it not, that despite these facts, Dr. Gordon should say we "created no interest in that city, and that he knew of no case of Divine Healing under his efforts?" There are none so deaf and blind and ignorant as those who will neither hear, see, nor read—and Dr. John Gordon is that man: for we were in Portland Oregon, in the center of the city, the meetings were announced publicly in the Oregonian, and he neither visited us, attended the meetings, nor read the report so widely published. And yet he is sufficiently interested to resurrect a dead man's dead lie, and publish as "facts," things that are absolute falsehoods.

AND these men claim to be servants of Christ! "By their fruits ye shall know them."

We desire to thank the Rev. Dr. W. B. Riley, of Calvary Baptist Church, Chicago, for his vigorous defence of Divine Healing and ourselves in the Christian Herald, of Dec. 27th, especially for these words:—"Certain Chicago papers have laid more serious charges against Dr. Dowie than those quoted by Dr. Gordon, every line of which was born of ignorance and falsely developed, to my certain knowledge."

It is impossible for us to chase every lie and every liar around the world. Neither would it be wise, even if we could: for we have better work for Christ in hand. But, following His blessed example, when He laid bare the lies of the ancient scribes, we shall make an example of a few, both in the religious and secular press from time to time, during this year, if God permit.

WE do not propose to let the devil have it his own way either in God's Church or in God's world; for both belong to God. We do not propose to heed the cry "Let us alone," the cry of the unclean devils when Christ preached in the synagogue at Capernaum. But, in His name, we shall "rebuke them," and command them to "hold their peace and come out of" the poor, miserable people whom they possess and torment. We know our hands will be full, and we are glad they are, in fighting this "good fight of faith." We enjoy it, and sing with one of God's warriors nearly three thousand years ago,

"Blessed be the Lord my Rock,
Which teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight:
My Loving-kindness and my Fortress,
My High Tower, and my Deliverer,
My shield, and He in whom I trust."

IN our next issue we shall deal farther, God willing, with the Press, and especially with the Chicago Press Liar, that "special creation of the devil's," as we branded them last week. They have been reveling in the unbridled license of their master, and have doubtless had honorable mention in Hell—their names must have been often written there.

WE shall do these things in the interests of "the Extension of the Kingdom of God" for which purpose our title page declares this paper was established.

We shall do them for the sake of a sin-stricken and disease-smitten world, for the salvation and healing of which we toil night and day.

We shall do them in obedience to the demands of conscience and the Word and Spirit of God.

We shall do them as "speaking the truth in love;" for the truth is demanded at this crisis—the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

We shall do them because the object of these attacks is to destroy once more the Gospel of Divine Healing through faith in Jesus, by destroying the influence of a humble minister of God, to whom it has been entrusted for many years. It is not our personality which is attacked, excepting, incidentally, it is the Word and Work of God.

We shall do them for it is our duty and our joy to be "in nothing terrified by our adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of Salvation, and that of God."

We shall do them: for it is written, "Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake."

ZION Tabernacle was the scene of wondrous manifestations in the closing days of 1894.

Crowds attended the services and still greater crowds went away, unable to find standing room. The Praise and Testimony meetings were glorious, and the testimonies simply amazed the people who could only exclaim:—"The Lord be praised—His Name is called WONDERFUL"

A FULL report will appear in our next issue. It will contain FACTS enough to last the devil and all his servants as "a cause of war" for all our life—hallelujah! It will contain FACTS which will bring "glad tidings of great joy" to multitudes of sick and sorrowing ones—FACTS from the lips of living men and women.

THE three Divine Healing Homes are filled with guests from all parts of the land, and in our Reception Room in Home No. 1 we have had the joy of receiving friends from South America and from South Africa this week. Many have been healed; and one of the incidents of last Saturday in Home No. 1, was the instantaneous lengthening, by three and a quarter inches, of the leg of a young lady from Philadelphia, who testified the following day in Zion Tabernacle and returned home yesterday on equal legs.

FROM all the continents, loving words concerning "the little white dove," LEAVES OF HEALING, continue to come.

From our native city, Edinburgh, Scotland, Mr. John Robert, of 9 Breadalbane Terrace says, under date of Dec. 17th:—"I am now writing to say how much I have enjoyed reading LEAVES OF HEALING, since it has come to our Y. M. C. A. It is widely read by our members, and I have no doubt that, with God's blessing, it will be productive of much good. As I am engaged in Protestant work in this country, your article on "The Man of Sin Revealed" naturally led me to read it carefully, and being thoroughly well pleased with it, I concluded that the other articles would be equally in accord with the Word of God. I may say that I have derived much good through reading your articles from week to week," etc.

THANKS, and love to all in old Edina, the city where God gave me birth forty-seven years ago, and where I was born again seven years later. Every stone of it is precious. How often when a student at its University have we preached near the steps of John Knox's house, and under the shadow of the Tron Kirk, in the High Street of Scotia's darling seat. How sacred are the memories of our association with the Rev. Dr. Guthrie of sainted memory and his family in work among the apprentice boys and girls in the original Ragged School. How sacred are the memories of our association with the Rev. James Gall, Mr. Jenkinson, the Earls of Cavan and of Kintore, and others in connection with the old Whitefield Chapel in Carrubbers Close, several numbers of the Mission Journal of which we edited nearly twenty-six years ago. We hear "Charlie," the french polisher, and Jackson, the cabman, who had a brass plate inside his cab inscribed with the question, "What think ye of Christ?" Oh, these were happy, happy days of joyful service to our Lord, Edina, dear to my heart! And it gives me joy to think that happier days may yet be in store. "Thy children shall come again," if God permit.

Q. How long was he in Home No. 1? A. I couldn't say. Perhaps three or four weeks.

Q. Wasn't he there more? A. Indeed, I could not tell you.

Q. Did Dowie treat him, or whatever you call it? A. He prayed for him as others.

Q. Did he lay hands on him? A. I didn't see him. I suppose he did, of course.

Q. Well, you were there, and know something about what is going on in the institution? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who took him out of the house? A. I don't know.

Q. You heard he got out of the house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear how he got there? A. I told you he walked there, as somebody told me.

Objection made, as they are trying to prove what has been heard through somebody else.

Q. Are you the only private secretary Dr. Dowie has? A. Yes, sir.

Q. While Mr. King was in the adjoining house were you ever called over there? A. No, sir.

Q. Were you ever in this Home No. 1 when any one was sent from the adjoining house? A. I don't know.

Q. If a person was sent over there, wouldn't you see them? A. If anyone came over there and asked for me, I would not hear them. They would inquire for me of the janitor.

Q. Just what is your business there? A. I write letters.

Q. What else? Do you do any praying? A. No, sir, not for the sick.

Q. What do you do besides this writing of letters; hasn't he a stenographer? A. I am also a stenographer. There are enough letters to keep several stenographers busy.

Q. How many do you keep? A. There are two of us.

Q. Your office is in this Home? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Usually when anybody comes in, you see them? A. No, sir, the office is way back in the hall.

Q. Do you know of any reason why Mr. King should walk out of the house and walk into the next house? Objected to by Mr. Stubblefield, as not pertaining to this case at all; has nothing to do with the violation of the statute.

Court allows it.

Q. Did you ever know of Dr. Dowie going outside of the Homes to attend anybody? A. He is called out sometimes to see the sick.

Q. Where? A. I can't tell any particular place.

Q. Is he often called away? A. Do not call for him very often now; for it is known that he is too busy to go out.

Q. Where called? A. When not so busy, he is called out sometimes to come and see the sick.

Q. Near, in the neighborhood? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever accompany him? A. I think I rode out a time or two with him for a drive.

Q. Did you go in? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know how much he received for his treatment there? A. Nothing at all.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. STUBBLEFIELD.

Q. How many employes and servants are there engaged in maintaining Home No. 1? A. Some seven or eight.

Q. What kind of a building is Home No. 1? A. It is a three-story brick building.

Q. Very large building, is it? A. Quite large.

Q. I will ask you if that is a picture of Home No. 1? A. Yes, sir.

Offers in evidence LEAVES OF HEALING. Picture of Home No. 1.

Q. I will ask you if that Home is well and neatly kept by an efficient corps of servants? A. Yes, sir, it is.

Q. Are all the Homes so kept? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are all these places nice, comfortable places to live? A. People say who see them, "This is good enough for me." Don't look like a Hospital."

Q. Do you keep any nurses in the house? A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you whether it is not a fact that a large number of people who come there with chronic diseases, go away professing to be perfectly healed and look well? A. Yes sir, a great many of them do. I do not speak about their chronic diseases. I cannot tell exactly what that term is. Some of them are sick enough.

Q. Do they improve in personal appearance while there? A. Yes, sir, almost without exception.

Q. How long have you been there? A. Since the first of April.

Q. Do the people, guests, there seem to like these Homes? A. Yes, sir, many of them come back.

Q. Come back? For what purpose? A. Some to enjoy the Home, and some to get the teaching. Some go away before healed and come back for further teaching.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that there are many people there who are not afflicted with any disease? A. Have had many, yes sir.

Q. Why are they there? A. The work interests them. They get the teaching.

Q. Are these people charged just as much for board and room accommodation? A. Certainly.

Q. Is there any difference in the charges of those afflicted and those who have no disorder? A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you whether there is any charge for any personal services to them? A. No, sir.

Q. $10 covers all personal services and the living of the people? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not that is a reasonable price for what they get? A. I think it is a fair price for Chicago.

Q. You think it is reasonable do you? A. Reasonable. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you think it a reasonable price if Mr. Dowie were paid for his services? Would that be enough?

OBJECTION.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. DOWIE.

Q. You have been asked about money coming in letters, and about correspondence. You have been my private secretary since last April. Is that so? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do we ever receive many letters from poor people? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do I pay any less attention to the poor than the rich? A. No, sir.

Q. Are they ever asked to pay anything, whether poor or rich? A. Never asked to pay anything.

Q. As a matter of fact, I will ask you how many letters I have now lying unanswered in my office? A. Two to four thousand.

Q. Are we not sometimes compelled to refuse to even entertain applications to enter the Homes, from the sick? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are there any invitations sent out, urging any one to come into the Homes? A. No, sir.

Q. Do we not send out thousands of letters, when we have not even a postage stamp for reply? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your office is behind my room, and you are called by bell, are you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is not necessary for you to see people who come into the Home? A. No, sir.

Q. As to the question about Mr. King. Did he ever complain to you about the Home? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear any guest complain? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you ever heard any one complain? A. I don't remember any one.

Court adjourned until Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 10 o'clock.

IL MODO COME DIO GUARISCE I MALI.

DALL' EDITORE.

Il modo come Dio guarisce, è una persona, non una cosa.

Gesù disse: "Io sono la Via, la Verità e la Vita," è si è sempre rivelato al Suo popolo in ogni epoca col Nome Covenente Jehovah-rophi, o "Io sono il Signore la tua Salute. (Giovanni 14: 6 e gli Esorti 15; 26.)

Il Signore Gesù è sempre Colui che guarisce.

Egli non può cambiare perchè "Egli è lo stesso, di ieri, di oggi e per sempre," ed Egli è sempre con noi, perchè disse: "Ecco, Io sono sempre con voi infino alla fine del mondo." (Ebrei 13: 8 e Matteo 28: 20.) Perchè Egli è presente, nello spirito come nella carne. Egli è Colui che guarisce il Suo popolo.

Il Guarire Divino sta nella Riconciliazione di Cristo.

Lui profetizzò: "Sicuramente fu Lui che soffrì i nostri dolori e con i suoi gastighi noi guariamo," ed è espressamente dichiarato che ciò si accompli mediante il Suo Ministero di Guarire, che continua ancora. (Isaia 53: 4, 5 e Matteo 8: 17.)

Il Male non può mai essere la Volontà di Dio.

È opera del Diavolo, la conseguenza del peccato, ed è impossibile che l'opera del Diavolo sia mai la Volontà di Dio.

Cristo venne "per distruggere l'opera del Diavolo," e quando Egli "guarì ogni malattia" e tutti questi mali sono espressamente dichiarati di essere stati "l'oppressione del Diavolo." (1 Giovanni 3: 8, Matteo 4: 23 e gli Atti 10: 38.)

I Doni del Guarire sono Permanenti.

È espressamente dichiarato che "I Doni e le appellazioni di Dio sono privi di pentimento," ed i Doni del Guarire sono fra i Nove Doni dello Spirito e della Chiesa. (Romani 11: 29 e 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Ci sono Quattro Modi del Guarire Divino.

Il primo consiste nel rivolgere la preghiera di fede, il secondo preghiere intercessorie di due o più persone, il terzo l'unzione degli anziani nella preghiera della fede, ed il quarto nel posare le mani su coloro che credono, e pei quali Dio ha preparato e chiamato a quel ministero. (Matteo 8: 5—13, Matteo 18: 19, Giacomo 5: 14, 15, Marco 16: 18.)

Il Guarire Divino è opposto alle Falsificazioni Diaboliche.

Fra questi sono la Scienza Christiana (chiamata falsamente), Guarigione della Mente, Spiritualismo, Estasi, Evangelismo eccetera. (Timoteo 6: 20, 21, 1 Timoteo 4: 1, 2, Isaia 51: 22, 23.)

Delle Multitudini sono state guarite dalla Fede in Gesù.

Lo scrittore, conosce migliaia di casi ed ha personalmente posto le sue proprie mani su ventine di migliaia di persone. Complete informazione si possono attere alle riunioni tenute nel Tabernacolo di Zion, 251 E. 62 Strate, vicino al Parco Jackson, Chicago, e per mezzo di molti panfletti che ne dimostrano l'esperienza colle loro parole e da molti che sono stati guariti in questo ed altri paesi; pubblicati dalla Casa Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

"La Fede Viene Ascoltando, e coll' Ascoltare la Parola di Dio."

Voi siete cordialmente invitato di venire ad ascoltare da voi stessi.

LA MANIÈRE COME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'ÉDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: "Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie," et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophi, ou "Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut." (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'"Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours" et Lui est toujours avec nous, parcequ'il dit: "Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde." (Hebreux 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'"Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. "Streument ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissions," et c'est expressemment déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaia 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint "pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable" et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui "guérit toutes maladies" et tous ces maux ont été expressemment déclarés d'avoir été "l'oppression du Diable." (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanent.

C'est expressemment déclaré que "Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir," et les Dons de la Guérison sont parnies les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5—13. Matthieu 18: 9. Jacques 5: 14, 15. Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposé aux Fausseries Diaboliques.

Parmis celles-ci y il a la Science Chrétienne (faussemment appelée) Guérison du Sentiment, du Spiritualisme, de l'Extase de l'Evangelisme etcetera. (Timothée 6: 20, 21, 1 Thimothée 4: 1, 2, Isaia 51: 22, 23.)

Des Multitudes ont été guéries par la Foie de Jean.

L'écrivain, connaît des milliers de cas, et il a personnellement posé ses propres mains, sur des vingtaines de milliers de personnes. Des informations complètes peuvent être obtenues aux réunions qui ont lieu dans le Tabernacle de Zion, 251 E. 62 Street, près du Parc Jackson, à Chicago, et grace à beaucoup de pamphlets qui en demontrent l'expérience par leurs paroles et par beaucoup de personnes qui ont été guéries dans ce pays et dans d'autres; et qui ont été publiés par la Maison Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Avenue à Chicago.

"La Foie Vient en Ecoutant, et en Ecoutant la Parole de Dieu."

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOL. 1. NO. 19. NEW SERIES.

CHICAGO, JAN. 25, 1895.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

A LETTER TO THE FRIENDS OF ZION TABERNACLE

DIVINE HEALING HOME NO. 1,
6020 EDGERTON AVE., CHICAGO,
January 25, 1895.

Beloved friends in this and all Lands:—

We are reminded of the words: "They intended Evils against thee; they imagined a Mischiefous Device, which they are not able to perform." Psalm 20:11.

The principal case of the DOCTORS against us was DISMISSED by Justice Prindiville yesterday morning—the charge of "false and fraudulent pretenses" upon which I was arrested on the night of January 5th, as narrated in No. 17 of LEAVES OF HEALING, page 263.

The attorney for the State Board of Health, Mr. Williams, did not even dare to bring the case before the Court; but when it was called, with a flushed face and hanging head he mumbled out the words, "I ask that it be DISMISSED." The judge said DISMISSED, and struck the case out.

And so the whole fabric of false swearing and of newspaper lies has fallen upon the heads of the builders. They did not dare to even attempt to prove one out of all the cruel calumnies with which they have filled the land from Ocean to Ocean.

All the stories of cruelty, fraud, deaths, bogus certificates, conspiracies with bad people, etc., etc., vanished before the entreaty of our enemies to the judge asking that their own vile charge be DISMISSED.

"What shall be given unto thee? or What shall be done unto thee,
Thou False Tongue?
Sharp arrows of the Mighty,
With coals of juniper."—Psalm 120: 4.

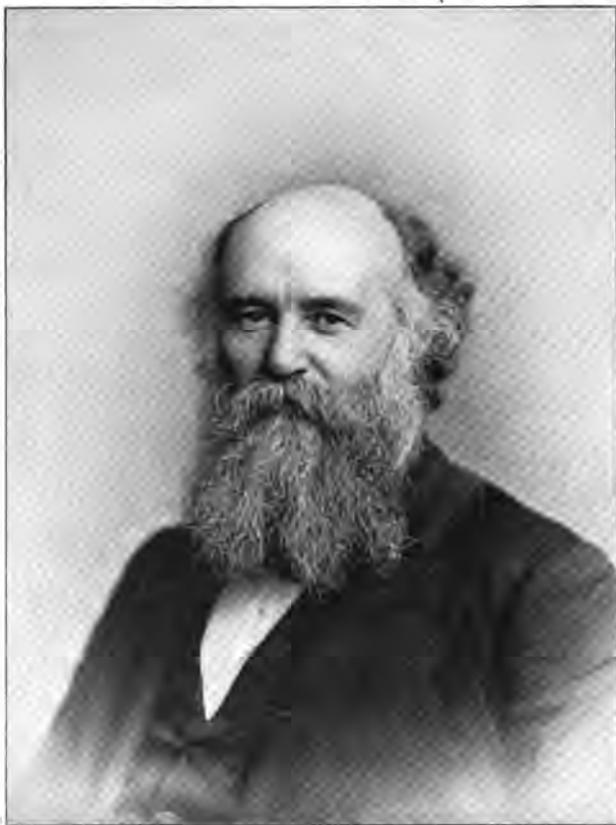

The fourth day of the trial of the other absurd case of the DOCTORS, on the silly charge of "practicing medicine without a license," closed yesterday, with arguments on both sides. The judge reserved his decision until Saturday, February 2nd.

We publish in this issue verbatim reports of the second and third days of the trial. This contains all the evidence in the case. Next week we shall give the speeches of counsel on both sides, and also Justice Prindiville's decision.

Meanwhile the work goes forward. Zion Tabernacle, even in the midst of the snow and wind storms of the week, has been largely attended, and overflowed last Lord's Day as usual. There are many in the Homes, and more are coming. It was a cause of much laughter in the court room, when the attorney for the Doctors in his closing speech, with a puzzled look, enquired: "What do they come for? . . . It shows there is something in this Home that people want." Well put, "oh mine enemy."

Yes, they want Divine Healing; they get it; they will continue to get it; and all the powers of doctors, drugs, death, and devils cannot prevent our onward march and final victory through faith in Christ our All.

Faithfully Yours in Jesus,

THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"So stood of old the Holy Christ,
Amidst the suffering throng;
With whom His lightest touch sufficed
To make the weakest strong.

That Good Physician liveth yet,
Thy Friend and Guide to be;
The Healer by Gennesaret
Shall walk the rounds with thee."

THERE is a wondrous realization of the presence and power of the Lord with us, and within us, in these dark days of conflict. The winter's fury has burst on Chicago with terrific force, piling up calamities on the icy waters of the lake, and filling the city with horrors and fears, amidst its normal condition of vice, disease and disgrace. Yet there are Lots in this Sodom, and the night is not starless: for the Christ is in Chicago. He stands beside us through it all.

OUR letter on the first page of this issue describes the entreaty of our enemies, the doctors of the State Board of Health, and their hirelings, to the Court, to DISMISS the false and shameful charge upon which we were arrested on January 5th.

THE Chicago press, and the editors whom we publicly scourged by name in our issue of January 11th, pages 258 to 263, have not dared to dispute a line of the Exposure. Still they continue to lie, but it is with subdued tones: for they are finding it does not pay. God is with us, and thousands of good people.

WE will add a few more nails to the "nailing down of the Chicago Tribune" on pages 259 and 260, in its article "Crazed by Faith." They are furnished from Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, the home of the persons whom we are alleged to have made insane, and whose money we are charged with taking fraudulently. They are written by the Rev. John Dietrich, the pastor of the mother of these insane persons:

PRAIRIE DU SAC, WIS., Jan. 19th, 1895.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Brother in the Lord Jesus: I have read your statements in the LEAVES OF HEALING, of January 11th, about the Ploetz people from here. I spoke with Mrs. Ploetz last week. She gives the facts just as you give them in the LEAVES. Otto has been in the Mendota asylum years ago, and has had bad spells since. Ernstine was taken insane on November 18, 1894.

About the money affair, she says that Otto gave janitor in the Tabernacle $5.00 as a free-will gift for the kindness of letting them sit in the front seats. [We find this was put in the free-will offering basket. ED.] In his ravings Sunday night he lost his purse in the house where they boarded. The purse was found in the hall, and sent to her without a cent missing. She says when they got off the elevated train in the city Monday morning, Otto commenced to preach. Then the policemen came up, and she told them they should take them to a safe place, and so they did. She telegraphed home to her son John, and he came and took Otto back to the Mendota asylum, near Madison, Wis., and afterward Ernstine also.

I knew nothing of their going to Chicago, until I read it in the Chicago Times, BUT I WAS SURPRISED THAT ANYONE COULD PUT SUCH BOLD LIES IN PRINT, WHEN I READ IT. I am Faithfully Yours in Christ,

JOHN DIETRICH.

BROTHER DIETRICH, do not be surprised at any "bold lies" the press "generation of vipers" will tell. They will lie in every variety of diabolical audacity, from the polished Tribune to the unspeakably vile Dispatch. They have their direct lineage from the scribes of Jerusalem, who lied about our Lord, until they maddened the ignorant and deluded people into cries of rage, "Away with Him! Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" They are trying to do the same with us in Chicago. Nothing but our heart's blood will satisfy them. But we are "immortal till our work is done." When that is finished, we are careless as to whether our dead bodies lie in the streets of this Babel of Chicago, or in Jerusalem. We shall "finish our course with joy," wherever God permits.

AMONGST the many loving letters from all parts of America received within the past few days, we append the following from a Christian gentleman and a well known citizen, for more than forty years, living in the capitol of the State of Wisconsin. His daughter was healed through our agency, when a hopeless invalid, the story of which is told in LEAVES OF HEALING, No. 5, pages 65 to 67. He writes this manly letter:

MADISON, WIS., Jan. 24, 1895.

DEAR DR. AND MRS. DOWIE,

Brother and Sister in Christ: I am moved to say, I thank God the battle between iniquity and righteousness is on. Though the prince of the power of the air is marshalling the cohorts of hell for a great onslaught, I for one, fear not the consequences. God's side is always the safe and winning side. Shamefacedness, confusion and overwhelming defeat, await all iniquitous conspiracies and combinations of men, whenever and wherever entered into, in opposition to truth, and the advancement of God's Kingdom. Highly and Divinely honored is the true servant of God, who stands out as an advance leader in the teaching and practice of a divine doctrine, and for this has the war dogs of hell let loose upon him. How appropriate, assuring and comforting the words of Peter, saying, "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened you; but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad with exceeding joy."

I extend to you, and your dear wife, (as far as words can express) my most sincere and heartfelt sympathy, in this, your day of a most wicked persecution, and I pray God may give a great victory to the side of Truth; and to you and yours, and to the Homes, and to the cause you and Mrs. Dowie represent, manifold and continued showers of Divine blessing.

Remaining most sincerely yours, a Brother in Christ,

H. SNELL.

He said he didn't have any room that day, but would have the next day; then I told him I would like to look at the rooms, so he showed me some of the rooms. I was satisfied that the rooms were all right. Nice places and good beds, and so he went home with me and stayed with me Sunday night and went down there Monday.

A. Mr. Dowie.
Q. Go on.
A. And then after supper we all shoved back, and had a meeting there. I should think Mr. Dowie talked for an hour. I would say, and then he went through the healing process.
Q. What was that process?
A. Started out at the left, and put his hands on the peoples' head and said some words, and when he came to King and I he said, "You are new ones here, I will see you to-morrow," and passed on with his blessing.
Q. How many persons about was at that table at that home?
A. Well, I should say about 60 or 70. Table was full.
Q. Who were these people sitting at the table?
A. Patients, I suppose.
Q. Go on and state what occurred after supper.
A. Well then, after that meeting was over, after that healing business, then he and I went to his room and I stayed with him that night. The next morning just had prayer before breakfast in the same dining room, and he postponed the prayer meeting until 9 o'clock, I guess, and then I went and left him there.

Q. When did you return?

A. I couldn't say exactly, but I didn't go down there every trip. Might have been two, might have been four.

Q. How long did you remain there the next time, if at all.

A. I went down another day and left before supper. Probably two hours.

Q. Anything occur with reference to Mr. Dowie, while you were there?

A. I don't know as I saw Dowie the second time I was there.

Q. When did you call again?

A. Well, inside of a week.

Q. How long did you remain there?

A. Well, I never remained there on my visits, until I went down there to sit up with him in the night.

Q. Well, on any of your visits did you see Mr. Dowie?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Go on and state what occurred any night you saw Mr. Dowie?

A. The last time I saw Mr. Dowie was the night before my friend was put out of there. He came up to the room about 11 o'clock—

Q. What room?

A. King's room.

Q. What was Mr. King's condition at that time?

A. He had not been out of bed for nearly a week. I didn't know he was so weak.

Q. Was he able to walk?

A. No sir.

Q. Was he able to get about and help himself?

A. No, he could raise up in bed that was all.

Q. Go on and state.

A. He came in there. King coughed very bad, so he came in and says, "Well, the devil has got a very bad hold on you" and then he took his hands and put on his head like this, (illustrating) and said, mumbled over a few words. He rubbed hands over him, and rubbed lungs, and stroked him with his hands, and then went out. When he went out, I thought I would have a word with him in regard to my friend, so I followed him out. I said to Mr. Dowie, "Are you going to do anything for Mr. King?" He says, "I don't know, he hasn't got the right faith. He says, "If you got good faith, you get good blessing." He says, "He has not the faith." Then I says, "I am going to remove him." When I went down the next night, I went to Home No. 1, rung the bell and walked in, and I says to some lady that was there, "I suppose my friend is in bed," and she says, "I don't know." Just then a little fellow they call "Johnny" came in and I says, "Is my friend up stairs." He says, "No, he is in the next house, he has been removed from here. "By whose authority?" By his own, I suppose," he said. That made me a little bit angry, so I went to the next door, rung the bell, and there was a lady who whistled down through the tube, and when I inquired if Mr. King was there, said "No." Then I went to Home No. 3, and I rung the bell, opened the door, and I guess there was 8 or 10 people sitting around in the hallway there. I inquired if Mr. King was in there, and they said "No." I said, "Where is he?" and they said he was in the next house. I went next door. It was a private residence. I went and rung the bell, and the lady said there was no such a person there, that it was a private residence. I explained a little of the case to her. "I have got to find my friend, and I am going to find him." I went back to Home No. 1, and the young fellow said he was in the next house, and to go and ring the bell where it said Mrs. Silver, and so I did, and she came to the door, and she told me Mr. King was up stairs, and I went up there and he was lying there on a sofa; first time he had been out of bed for a week. He laid there from ten o'clock in the morning until 6 in the evening.

Q. Was he dressed?

A. Yes sir, he was dressed, and he was able to stand up, but he was not able to walk. He put his arms around me and I put my arms around him, and I took him to his room on the second floor; first floor. I stayed there that night with him. I had been in the room probably an hour when Mrs. Silver came in, and I asked her how it was he was boarding with her and rooming down stairs, and she said she had no room in her flat, and she said she could not keep him anyhow. He disturbed the other roomers, and if she had known how he was, she would not have taken him. I had been in the room about an hour and a half, when a German lady came to the room and said he would have to be removed from there. She had roomers. Her son worked for Siegel & Cooper nights and had to sleep day times. Roomers in the front room made complaint, and she could not afford for $3.50 to have other roomers leave. I told her I would have him removed, if able to be removed. I would run no chances. I was completely tired out. I intended to go down that day, but postponed it for a day. I went down the second day after being in that place. I hadn't been in the place two minutes—

Q. When was that?

A. Seven o'clock in the evening, and I hadn't been in there two minutes before Mrs. Silver and the German lady told me he would have to be removed.

Mr. Stubblefield objects to this line of examination as it is not evidence in this case.

Mr. Williams. Pass over the conversation.

A. When I saw he was going to be put out, I went over to the police station.

Q. What else occurred?

A. More occurred after that. I told him they would not put him out.

Q. Remained there, did he?

A. Remained there that night. I went and got a doctor.

Q. Did you see anybody there that night from Dowie's place?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know what the names were?

Objection.

A. Dr. Speicher, I believe his name was.

Q. Anybody else?

A. The fellow he paid the money to.

Q. Those two were there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How did they happen to come in there?

Objection to as not evidence.

Q. Well, what occurred while there. What was said?

Objection.

Q. What was said, if anything?

Objection overruled.

A. And so this private secretary, I told him that he had some money coming yet. They kept his money and didn't return it. Paid money in advance. Only there one day, and they didn't return his money when he went over there, and I went right over there and told the man it was funny that they would throw a man out and not give money back that he had paid in advance, and I went over there and got the money.

[That is not true. The money was returned to King himself by Mr. Alton, the financial secretary. It was given him before this time and Larabee had nothing to do with the matter. This was proved on last day of trial. J.A.D.]

Q. How much did he give you back?

A. $11.60.

Q. How long was Mr. King in Dowie's Home No. 1?

A. Eight weeks and two days.

Q. What other conversation occurred between you?

A. They tried to explain, and said King did it willingly. I said, "I don't want anything to do with you, or Dowie, or any of Dowie's allies."

Q. Was there any other conversation there? State that conversation.

A. I am trying to think of some remark this doctor made. He said he never saw a man the devil had as strong a hold on as it did on King. Seems as if he wouldn't let go.

Q. He removed King the next day?

A. He didn't want me to blame Dr. Dowie any for his being removed. When he was in No. 1 he complained that he could not eat, and over here where there were only a few, they could cook up anything he wanted to eat.

Q. Did he say anything about how he was removed to Mrs. Silver's flat?

A. He didn't think Dr. Dowie knew he had been removed.

Q. How many times in all did you see Mr. Dowie treat Mr. King?

A. The first time I was there, and that night about 11 o'clock.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. STUBBLEFIELD.

Q. You say that you heard Dr. Dowie preach on the fourth of November, last year at the Tabernacle?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How long did you remain in there?

A. Very likely half an hour.

Q. Why did you leave?

A. 'Cause I was disgusted with his talk.

Q. Had you seen Dr. Dowie prior to this time?

A. No sir.

Q. Heard anything prior to this?

A. Yes sir, when I was in Belvidere, Mrs. Holman—

Q. What did Mrs. Holman say?

Question withdrawn.

Q. What did you think of Dr. Dowie before you went to see him?

Objection. Court says go on.

Q. How soon after you went in there did you get disgusted?

Objection by Mr. Williams which Court overrules.

A. As soon as I went inside and saw the place.

Q. Disgusted the moment you went in there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Within a moment you were disgusted?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Before you heard the Doctor.

A. Yes sir.

Q. Place didn't please you?

A. No sir.

Q. Wasn't what you expected?

A. No sir, it wasn't.

Q. Did King like the place?

Objection which the Court sustains.

Q. What did King say about the place?

Objection which is overruled.

A. Why, he said he would try that place for a week, then go to Southern California or Mexico, where the doctors had told him to go.

Q. He wasn't going to rely upon this place?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Try it for a week, and if he didn't get the blessing he would go away?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he continue in this frame of mind all the time? Did he say anything like that to you afterward?

Objection, which is overruled.

A. I answered that. He said he would stay there for a week, and then go to California.

Q. How many times did he say anything like that to you?

A. Talked it over a number of times.

Q. Every time you went down there?

A. Before he went in there.

Q. After he went down there when you went to see him did he ever say that?

A. No sir. Think in his weak condition his mind was affected. The preaching and praying got him worked up, so he concluded to stay there.

Q. Did you see the Doctor on the night he took supper there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did the Doctor pray with King that night?

A. I knelt down myself that night at the supper table.

Q. Did Dr. Dowie put hands on King at the supper table that night?

A. Yes sir, on the head. When he came to us, he said: "You are new ones, will see you to-morrow."

Q. Did the Doctor put hands upon you?

A. Yes sir, same way.

Q. Did the Doctor put hands upon any other portion of the body of King that night at the supper table?

Objection.

Q. Did you complain that you were not well? How did the Doctor come to place hands upon you?

A. Because I was at the supper table. I suppose he thought I was going in there.

Q. Now, you say he touched him on the head, under the chin, and on the back of the neck, and on the front part of the neck. Did he rub him with his hands?

A. He did in the room the last night.

Q. How much rubbing? Enough to make the skin red?

A. Rubbed down five or six times like that. Wasn't two minutes during the whole thing.

Q. Didn't rub him enough to irritate the skin?

A. I wouldn't think so.

Q. Didn't rub enough to injure?

A. I don't know.

Q. How many times did he rub him on the body?

A. I don't know how many.

Q. Six times? Six strokes on the body?

A. He might have.

Q. Would you swear there was?

A. I wouldn't swear.

Q. Wouldn't swear there were six strokes?

A. I couldn't tell, because he had his hands under the clothes.

Q. Under the bed clothes?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he remove King's garments?

A. No sir.

Q. Then he didn't put his hand upon the skin any other place than on the neck and head?

A. I suppose he put hands under night shirt.

Q. Don't know whether he did or not?

A. No sir.

Q. You won't swear that Mr. Dowie touched King's body any other place than the neck and head, will you?

A. No sir, I want to tell the truth about it.

Q. Who paid the money to Mr. Carpenter or Mr. Alton when you first went there?

A. I can't say whether it was Mr. Carpenter or Mr. Alton. King paid it.

Q. Who made the application to have Mr. King there? You or Mr. King?

A. The first day I was there, I filled out a paper. Wanted to know what the trouble was.

Q. Did you sign your name, or King's?

A. Mr. King's.

Q. What was that? An application to go into the Home, or an application for prayers?

A. Wanted to know what the disease was.

Q. Was the paper you filled out one like this? (Shows him form of Request for Prayer.)

A. No sir, I just took a piece of white paper out of my pocket, put down F. B. King, and put down the disease.

Q. How did King go to this place on Monday? Go down on street car or in a carriage?

A. Street car.

Q. Walked in, did he?

A. Walked from Randolph street up to Congress.

- Q. Ever been unable to walk?
 A. No sir.
- Q. How long had he been sick with consumption?
 A. For a year.
- Q. Was his mind clear before he first went down there?
 A. I think so, yes sir.
- Q. When did you first notice that he was suffering from any aberration of the mind?
 A. About two weeks from the time he was there.
- Q. What indication did he show?
 A. Remarks he would make.
- Q. What did he say?
 A. In our conversation he did not talk the way he used to.
- Q. What did he say?
 A. Regarding waiting for the blessing. Some get the blessing in a day, and others it would take a week.
- Q. Did King say that?
 A. Looked at me, and said, "I can't get the blessing at all."
- Q. Was that the only thing that made you think his mind was unbalanced?
 A. He never talked of anything only the Lord, after he had been there a time.
- Q. Did he ever say anything unkind of Dr. Dowie?
 A. He's said lots since he left there.
- Q. While there did he complain of Dr. Dowie?
 A. Well, he said he did not put hands on him enough.
- Q. Did he complain that Dr. Dowie was not a good man, and all he claimed to be?
 A. No sir.
- Q. He said he was glad he was in the house?
 A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever see Dr. Dowie place hands upon the flesh, upon the skin of any person, except to lay them upon the head while you were there?
 A. No.
- Q. Now, were you disgusted when you went to Home No. 1.
 Objection, which is sustained.
- Q. Now, who have you talked with before coming to the stand?
 A. Who have I talked with?
 Q. Have you talked with Mr. Williams as to what you would testify to?
 A. No sir.
- Q. Never did talk over with him what you were to testify to at the trial?
 A. No sir, I didn't.
- Q. Who sent for you to come here to-day?
 A. He sent for me.
- Q. Who told you?
 A. Mr. Williams.
- Q. Where did you see Mr. Williams?
 A. At his office, I saw him.
- Q. When?
 A. It was something like a week ago.
- Q. Was that when you swore out the complaint?
 A. Yes, sir, that's the first day.
- Q. Who asked you to swear out that complaint?
 Objection. Sustained.
- Q. What talk did you have with Mr. Williams before you swore out that warrant?
 Objection. Sustained.
- Q. What talk did you have with Mr. Williams when down here about a week ago?
 A. I went on to explain to him about the case and said I thought justice ought to be done.
- Q. Who told you to go to Mr. Williams?
 A. I don't know what his name is.
- Q. Did anyone tell you to go to Mr. Williams?
 Williams. Point him out.
- A. That's the gentleman there. (Points him out.)
- Q. Who is that gentleman?
 A. I remember him now. Mr. Graff.
- Q. What's his business?
 A. I couldn't say.
- Q. What business did he pretend to have?
 A. Just said Mr. Williams wanted to see me, that's all.
- Q. What did you say his name was?
 A. Mr. Jacob Graff.
- Q. Who was it told you that they were going to remove Mr. King from Home No. 1.
 A. They didn't tell me. I left at 8 o'clock in the morning. Went down there the next day and he was gone.
- Q. Mr. King's mind on everything but religion at this time was clear?
 A. Yes sir; no, I don't think anyone sick as long as he had been, could be.
- Q. Mind was all right, was it?
 A. Sometimes it was, and sometimes it wasn't.
- Q. When wasn't it?
 A. Wasn't for a week before he left there. Mostly all religion.
- Q. Outside of that his conversation was clear, wasn't it?
 A. No, not on some subjects.
- Q. What subjects wasn't it clear upon.
 A. General conversation.
- Q. What did he say?
 A. He used to be a man who could talk on any subject; nice fellow to converse with. Now he wouldn't converse about anything but the Lord; talked about the Lord all the time.
- Q. You thought he was insane then?
 A. I said a man in his weak condition. I tell you what's right.
- Q. His mind was weak?
 A. I said it was, yes sir.
- Q. How was his voice?
 A. Cannot speak out loud now.
- Q. At this time, though?
 A. He kept growing hoarser all the time he was there. Wasn't hoarse when he went in there, but kept growing worse.
- Q. Then you took him away from Mrs. Silver's house?
 A. Yes sir.
- Q. Had him removed?

 A. We took and put him right to bed. He sat down in a chair perhaps two minutes, then we put him in bed.
- Q. At the time you saw Mr. Carpenter or Mr. Alton, did you know which one it was?
 A. No sir, I am not acquainted with the gentlemen, only by name.
- Q. Was there anything said by these gentlemen as to what would be given Mr. King while there, as to what he would get for his money?
 A. Get board and room.
- Q. Board and room?
 A. Board and room.
- Q. Did he promise anything else?
 A. No sir, only prayer.
- Q. Who promised him prayer?
 A. Dr. Dowie.
- Q. Did you see Dr. Dowie?
 A. I saw Dr. Dowie in the Tabernacle.
- Q. Did Dr. Dowie, in the Tabernacle, tell King if he would come down there and board, he would pray for him?

A. He didn't say exactly. Everybody knew what they would get if they went down there.

Q. What did he say about if he would go down there to the house?

A. Didn't explain about that.

Q. What did he say?

A. He was preaching that day.

Q. What did he preach about?

A. Preached about believing, and having faith in Jesus Christ.

Q. That was what disgusted you, was it?

A. No, it wasn't what disgusted me. I am a Christian myself.

Q. But you don't believe Dr. Dowie's claims, do you?

A. No sir.

Q. You didn't believe that the prayers would be answered, did you?

Objection. Sustained.

Q. What were you disgusted at down there?

A. With the looks of the place.

Q. Is that the only thing with which you were disgusted with down there?

A. Anybody ought to be disgusted with such work as that.

Q. You didn't wish King to stay there?

A. No sir, far rather see him go to the Cook County Hospital.

Q. Was it neater and better at the Cook County Hospital?

A. They have nurses and medical treatment.

Q. He never had any medical treatment here?

A. King told me he never had no medicine.

Q. What was the condition of the beds?

A. I said they were good, clean beds, and they were.

Q. Everything comfortable and nice, wasn't it?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You have some feeling in this matter, haven't you, against Dr. Dowie. You would be glad to see him punished?

A. If guilty, I would; if not, no.

Q. Do you think he is guilty? Do you think he did any wrong to Frank King?

A. I certainly do.

Q. What?

A. Take a man and put him in a place, without giving him no nourishment, or any medical treatment, whatever.

Q. Did he promise any medical treatment?

A. No sir.

Q. Did he give Frank King all that he promised to?

A. Promised to cure him if he had the faith.

Q. When did he promise to cure him?

A. Said it that night in the house.

Q. If King had the faith he would be healed?

A. He would be healed.

Q. Did Dr. Dowie promise that he, Dowie, would heal him?

A. He didn't claim that he would heal him. If he had the right faith in the Lord, he would get the blessing.

Q. He didn't promise to do anything himself, did he?

A. I couldn't say that he did.

Q. What wrong did he do to Frank King?

Objection. Sustained.

Q. Do you know of any wrong that he did to Frank King?

Objection. Sustained.

Q. Didn't Dr. Dowie do all for Frank King that he promised that he would do, or that Mr. Carpenter or Mr. Alton promised he would do?

A. Well, Frank King didn't have the faith in the Lord. Couldn't get the right faith according to their teaching.

Q. Did Dr. Dowie demand any fees for his attention?

A. Paid a week in advance.

Q. Board and room, was it?

A. I suppose so; wouldn't get it without.

Q. Did Dr. Dowie pray with people at the Tabernacle?

A. I think he did.

Q. Any of this paid to him there? A. I couldn't say.

[Mr. Williams says that is their case.]

Mr. Stubblefield. The motion before the Court is to have the case dismissed on the merits of the evidence. They have not made out a case that comes within the scope of the statute, within the meaning and intent of the statute; neither have they proven a case that comes within the statement of the bill of particulars. They have professed to prove that Dr. Dowie has been prescribing and operating upon people at his institution, that he is treating them as Mr. Williams stated in the beginning to the Court. We claim that the charge made against Mr. Dowie's treating, operating upon people, or prescribing for persons under physical disability, without license from the State Board of Health, is false. May the Court please, they have not proved any of these things. They certainly have not proved that he has been operating upon anyone, or prescribing for any person. Then the whole case will rest upon the meaning of the word treatment; and the meaning of the word treatment under the statute there, is, I think, clearly pharmaceutical treatment, and is taken in the sense of that term, and in determining this meaning we look in the dictionary. Webster's is very much the same as the definition in Century.

The definition of the word treat is the "application of remedies, as to treat a patient," giving this example: "Disease treated by anything." All the evidence in this case shows that there was no application of any remedy whatever; that Dr. Dowie all the time stated to the persons who came to his house, and who applied to him for healing, that he did not apply remedies; that he did not give any treatment. Never promised anyone they would receive any treatment, would be operated upon or prescribed for, and there was no testimony that he did treat. Now the counsel will doubtless contend that the placing of hands upon the head, under the chin, on the neck or other portions of the body is within this definition of treatment; but for the Court to so hold would be going beyond the meaning and intent of the Legislature when it passed the act. May as well refer to that and read it. "Any person practicing medicine or surgery in this state without a license issued in compliance with the provisions of any act, shall forfeit the right and pay a fine of $100 for the first offense, and $200 for every subsequent offense, same to be taken before any court of competent jurisdiction." Nothing in this act against domestic remedies, and these shall be applied.

This act was intended to prevent persons from using pharmaceutical remedies, and nothing else. There is an exception. That is "treating by applying domestic remedies,"—sulphur, quinine and things of that kind. Did Dr. Dowie use any such remedies as these? Did he use any remedies at all? Has he done any more than any minister of the Gospel when he prays for the sick? The only difference in this case is that Dr. Dowie's prayers seem to be answered. People come here by the hundred and testify that these prayers have been answered. You cannot disprove it; but whether they have been answered or not is not the matter in this case. The charge as to the answer or result of whatever he has done is not the matter. The question is, has he been treating under the intention of this statute? We claim he has not. There is no statute in the world can prevent people from praying for one another; no statute to prevent one man laying hands on the head of another, provided the person was willing, and there was no breach of the peace. The statute was not intended for anything of that kind. If a man desires to refrain from medicine, no one has the right to compel him to take medicine. If the doctors are not satisfied with the manner of Dr. Dowie's behavior in this city and state, it is their business to have an act passed by the legislature, requiring every man, when necessary, to go to them and take treatment. That is what ought to be passed if they wish to prosecute Dr. Dowie in this state. So far we have not any such law. We have not any law requiring people to go to them, instead of going to the ministers to be prayed for. If people wish to go to ministers for physical ailment, as well as spiritual, there is no law in this or any other country that can prevent them from doing it. If your Honor wished to refrain from medicine, and go to some home, and if you would go to Dr. Dowie, I apprehend you would get as much good from the treatment as you would from Messrs. Williams and Hamlin's clients in this case. I think that is all.

Mr. Hamlin. If the Court please, every law is to be determined by the purpose for which it was affected. This statute is framed and the prosecution under it placed in the hands of the Board of Health for the purpose of regulating the practice, in this state, for curing the diseases human flesh is heir to. The contention here, by the defendant, is because he does not use any of the remedies ordinarily used in the practice of medicine, hence he is not brought within this statute. If I understand the gentleman's position, that the means that he employs to cure disease are not the means usually employed by physicians in the curing of disease. Then we have the position of a man suffering with cancer, with Bright's disease, with consumption, with rheumatism, with catarrh, going to a man's place of business, other than to get room and board. That position is farcical and ridiculous. Do you suppose there is a single one of the incurables that compose the patients or guests of Homes No. 1, 2 and 3, that stay there for the purpose, solely, of getting a room to sleep in and a table and food with which to be provided. Now, is there anyone here, leaving the faith in God Almighty, and Christ and religion out of the consideration entirely in this case, that will assume that these people went there for the purpose of getting a room to sleep in and a table to eat at.

Whether Dr. Dowie ever advised with any person or not before he started these institutions, I do not know. He is evidently laboring under the impression that by the establishment of these Homes, and the receiving of these people, he has not brought himself within this statute, and hence is not liable. It is, and we insist that it is, a very narrow contention, to say the least. The object of this law is to reach all classes of people who pretend to cure people of disease. It makes no difference how they undertake to cure them; by prescribing one sort of a remedy or another, whether it is a manipulation of the hands, whether it is prayer, or anything else that constitutes treatment for disease. Take the case of King. Take the case of the young boy from Minnesota, who lived in this place two weeks and died. What did he come there for? For spiritual comfort? Call in a minister of the gospel. He can hear the gospel anywhere. I don't presume that the defendant claims to have a patent right on all the spiritual laws of this country; that he alone is possessed with the immaculate power that Christ himself didn't presume to have. Then these people come to his place for a purpose, and that purpose is to be cured. He has these Homes for a purpose. What is that purpose? To cure people that come there. I do not care what you call it; healing, prayer. It's treatment. Anything is treatment that undertakes to cure a man of disease, and that's what this law seeks to reach.

The proof in this case shows that this gentleman has in these places, called Divine Healing Homes, people from all over this country, and he says from Canada. Did they come for prayer? No, for treatment like King. It may be they expected to be cured through him, or they would not have come, and he expected to cure them; that was held out to these unfortunate people who came. He charges every man that comes there, for board and room accommodation, from $10 to $15 a week, under the guise of being board and room rent. He takes from these people, the very people this Court and this law were made to protect, people that are suffering from chronic diseases, people that are in the last stages of consumption, into these Homes to be cured. This man practices upon the credulity of these people, and takes from them their money. He states that from the proceeds of the Tabernacle and Divine Healing Homes he has established a large printing press, and prints a paper in which to make the publication of these testimonies, and send them broadcast through the country.

Briefly as to law. (Reads law.)

Doesn't he treat for the physical ailment of another? All the elements that constitute treatment exist here. Here is a person suffering with a physical ailment. Here is a place he is brought to, that managed by the defendant here. He is the man that does the treatment. He says he does it through the Lord. He is the instrument in the Lord's hands. It is the person who is suffering from the physical ailment that is to receive the benefit; he doesn't claim he is in any partnership with the Lord, but still he is the man to bring the Lord into operation, to get him to bring about the curing of the disease, but the Lord don't get the money; Dowie gets the money. The Lord doesn't get any benefit. When it comes to material benefit, when it comes to that which goes down in his pocket, when it comes to the money which he takes from these poor people, suffering from these chronic diseases which the skill of physicians can't cure, the Lord doesn't get the money, but Dowie does. He's the man that gets it. Gets it in advance. Did the Lord give him a spiritual blessing that he had to pay 10 or 15 dollars in advance?

I will offer, if the Court please, a decision of the Supreme Court of Nebraska in almost a similar case brought by the State against Ezra M. Buswell, who claimed to be a Christian Scientist, who claimed to cure by the power of prayer, as does Dowie here, and he claimed to administer no medicine, and he claimed that he was simply performing a religious duty, and said that a man had a right to go according to the dictates of his own conscience.

The act of the State Board of Health in regards the practice of medicine, and the object of the statute is to prevent imposition upon the afflicted by ignorant persons, and any person, not having complied with the requirements, who shall use any pretense, operate on or profess to heal or prescribe for or otherwise treat any person shall find himself liable under this law.

It is the greatest farce on earth to say that in this day and age of the world, a person like this, in this day of approved science of medicine and surgery, and in the face of the approved religion of the world, should set up in the city of Chicago a place like this, and derive the financial benefits that this man is shown to have derived, that he is not guilty of the violation of this law.

It is a long case, your Honor, and I will not attempt to read it all.

Mr. Stubblefield says to read it all.

(Reads case which is State vs. Buswell, (Neb) 58 Northwestern Reporter 728.)

DR. DOWIE SPOKE AS FOLLOWS:

I wish to sustain the motion of Mr. Stubblefield that this case be dismissed. I wish to say that the case referred to does not apply to us at all, inasmuch as we have continuously declared Christian Science to be an anti-Christian imposture. But, if the learned counsel for the State Board of Health had been wanting to deal with violations of this kind, they had ample opportunity, for, long before I came to this city, Christian Scientists were here. There are large numbers in this city openly declaring their ability to cure the sick. Why is it the State Board of Health has not attacked before this time all these Christian Scientists in the city of Chicago? The gentleman referred to in the Nebraska case was an avowed Christian Scientist.

Contrary to the allegations of the learned counsel, who said he had one hundred witnesses, I ask your honor to notice that the only witness they have produced, is not a person that was ever in our Home for the purpose for which people enter that Home. He was there only one night, as he himself has said, and he admits that I never undertook to cure either himself or his friend. Not a person living can say that I ever undertook to cure any human being on God's earth. On the contrary, I have continuously, and openly, in Zion Tabernacle and openly everywhere in my preaching for many years, in many countries and in my writings said, that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Healer to-day, as He was nineteen centuries ago. I have simply said that He told the disciples to lay hands on the sick and they would be healed. I have so laid hands on the sick and they have been healed, and when this motion is decided and your Honor should not rule favorably to us, I shall place upon the witness stand hundreds of persons who have been healed. I shall place for instance a young woman on the witness stand, from the Cook County Hospital, who was brought in a dying condition when they had given her up. She is perfectly healed, and is here to-day prepared to testify. I haven't cured her. I don't claim to heal. God heals, and He healed her through faith in Jesus Christ.

The case at this stage ought to be dismissed. There is not a single proof before the Court that I undertook treatment of any kind, but the contrary. How very strange is it that not one of the thousands that have passed through our Homes has been brought here to testify against us. Larabee was never in the home for prayer. Not one person can be found in fact; not a single one. The State has endeavored to prove their case in a most extraordinary manner, out of the mouth of the person they have accused. They placed me as their first witness upon the witness stand. They placed two of my secretaries there, and failing to prove anything by them, they bring this solitary man as a witness, who has really nothing to say against us.

With reference to the Christian Science case from Nebraska, it is evident that the Supreme Court knew something of the old Testament, but nothing of the new. It is very evident however, that the learned counsel for the State Board of Health, know nothing about new or old. They are like the old Roman Catholic Bishop of Dunkeld in Scotland who thanked God he "knew neither new or old." They argue about things they are not competent to speak of.

Every citizen of the United States, and every resident of this country, though a citizen of another country, is protected by the laws of the United States, and has a right to teach, preach and practice all that the Bible permits him to do. Christianity is protected by the common law. Christianity is protected on every side by law, in Great Britain and America.

I wish to say at this point a few words concerning our teaching. The teaching which Frank Larabee was so disgusted with that he would not listen to it, and that Mr. King became so enamored with, that although he only came into the Home for a week, led him to continue to stay for months, briefly stated, is this: First, as a minister of the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, it is not only my privilege, but my duty to preach the whole Gospel, the Gospel of the redemption for spirit, for soul and for body. In proclaiming this Gospel I teach what the Scriptures declare, that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, to-day and forever. I further declare that he is, therefore, the same Saviour, the same Healer, the same Cleanser, the same Keeper, the same Almighty Friend and Benefactor of humanity. I also declare He is with us now, for he says, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." I also declare that the "prayer of faith shall save the sick." I also declare what the Scriptures declare that "these signs shall follow them that believe: in My name they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." I declare that until a man has quit his sins, he cannot be healed; until he has repented of his sins, and made restoration for wrong against his fellow man, and made things right with God. I further declare that repentance toward God must be followed by faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and that salvation is a precedent to healing. I persistently and continually refuse to see persons, no matter how much money they offer me, who are not saved. I always say to persons who are like the learned counsel here, chewing tobacco and spitting it out on the floor, "you are sinning by defiling your bodies. I call them 'stink pots.' I say to them, you may call yourself a Christian; but you don't smell like one. You have no right to ask me to ask God to heal you, whilst you are creating disease by your bad practices."

What am I brought here for? Because the State Board of Health is composed entirely of doctors; because the State Board of Health have found, (and I shall prove it, if called upon) that many hundreds of persons go to Zion Tabernacle for healing every week, and get it. It is not a question as to whether there is a reality in Divine Healing. These counsel, learned in law, know that we receive ten times as many people every week in Zion Tabernacle, and pray with them there, without any money and without any price at all, than we see in the Divine Healing Homes. For instance, it is a common sight, your Honor, if you will permit me to say, to see hundreds waiting for prayer after the services. I see 300 to 600 sick children every Thursday from all parts of the city, and see every week more than 1,000, and sometimes 1,500 to 2,000 sick persons, the great majority of whom are poor, scarcely able to get there. There are persons in our Homes who are not paying one cent of money. I delight to help them to the extent of my power.

I want to say that the prosecution have not fulfilled a single promise to the Court. They have no evidence.

If the Court rules there is a case for us to answer, I presume the Court will give us plenty of time to answer, although I am prepared to begin the defense at a moments notice. I can bring doctors and their patients whom God has healed. There is plenty of evidence to engage the attention of the Court for the next month.

Motion overruled. Court says to go on with defense.

Mr. Stubblefield. The State of Nebraska is noted for the ignorance of large numbers of its people, and the decision in this case referred to is without any weight whatever. And if it were it does not apply to this case. The evidence in that case shows that man did profess to heal. It is not a part of the statute in this case. Mr. Dowie does not profess to heal. That decision is not to be considered in this case at all?

I move that the Judge adjourn Court, with the privilege of renewing the motion.

Judge adjourns Court until Tuesday, the 22d, with the privilege of renewing the motion.

THE THIRD DAY OF THE TRIAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, Jan. 22, 1894.

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, SWORN ON THE PART OF THE DEFENDANT SAYS:

Q. You have been sworn in this case, Dr. Dowie?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You heard the testimony of Frank Larabee offered in this case?

A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you to state when you first saw Frank King?

A. Not until the evening of the day on which he was admitted into the Home. Some hours probably. I don't know how many hours, but that evening.

Q. You heard the statement with reference to the manner in which he left the home. Can you state why it was he left the house?

Mr. Williams. If you know.

A. I will give you the answer. I had seen him as Larabee described on the previous night. He coughed so the guests could not possibly sleep. They were all exceedingly kind to him, and he had a great deal of attention from them, and they desired me not to trouble about their inconvenience. They could sleep during the day a little and so on, but he had coughed a great deal on this night and I felt very sorry for him and went up stairs to comfort him. I felt that it would be better for him to go back to his home. I said that to him. He had said to me that he loved very much to stay there, and begged me to permit him to stay. Thinking of it next morning when Dr. Speicher came to me and asked if he could do anything for me (he is a colleague in this work). I said, "Yes, go up and have a little talk with King about his spiritual condition, it does not seem to me he is going to get the healing. I think it might be better for him to go home to his friends. Talk with him tenderly and kindly and ask him what he thinks about it himself. Dr. Speicher went up and had conversation with him, and he told me—

Mr. Williams. We move to have the entire testimony struck out.

Court sustains motion and says it is not material.

Mr. Williams. We object to what Dr. Speicher told you on his return.

Q. I will ask you if you were present at the time he left the house?

A. In my private office probably.

Q. Did you know of the fact that he had left?

A. No sir, I did not know he had left until told.

Q. Did you know or understand that Larabee had any sort of supervision or control over Frank King?

A. Certainly not.

Q. What was his condition of mind?

A. Perfectly clear.

Q. Did he have as good control of his faculties as Larabee?

A. King himself said to me, apologizing for Larabee, he looks as if he was intoxicated, but it is because he uses so much tobacco. King apologized for Larabee.

Q. Was King's mind clear?

A. Perfectly.

Q. Had control of his faculties?

A. Absolutely.

Q. At all times?

A. Without exception so far as I know. I never saw him delirious for a moment.

Q. Able to take care of himself?

A. Yes and his body, for he walked out of the house.

Mr. Williams. How do you know?

A. All my officers told me.

Mr. Williams. Be confined to such things as you know.

Q. Did you see Frank King after he left the house?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you have a talk with any one with reference to any money being returned by your people?

A. Only that my financial secretary informed me that he had at once returned the money, that Larabee—

Objection by Williams on the ground that Dr. Dowie's testimony is not competent. He cannot tell what some one else told him.

Objection sustained.

Q. What kind of a place is that, next to yours?

A. It is a two-story house, somewhat similar to Divine Healing Home No. 1.

Q. Is it a good place?

A. I should think it was a good place, but I never entered it.

Q. I will ask you for what purpose the Homes were constructed, instituted, and organized?

A. With pleasure.

Q. Whether it was for the purpose of securing income or for the furnishing of a place for people to come to?

A. Do you want me to give history?

Mr. Stubblefield. I would ask you to answer fully, but for the fear that Mr. Williams would insult you before you get through with the answer.

Mr. Dowie. Very likely from what we have seen of him.

Q. For what reason were the Homes instituted?

Objection. Sustained.

Mr. Stubblefield. If the Court please testimony has been offered showing that they are there, and attempting to show they are there for revenue. I have a good right to explain why they are there, and for what purpose put there. I think it's competent to have it shown.

Objection sustained, and the Court says it is not material to know the object for which the houses were built.

Mr. Stubblefield. It isn't material to know the object at that time, but I have the right, if the Court please, to show why these places were put there and why they are existing there.

Court. No: fact of a thing existing may be perfectly competent.

Mr. Stubblefield. I have a right to explain the intention always, and in the question at issue, when crime is charged, the intention is everything.

Court. Don't charge any crime. He is charged with practicing medicine without a license.

Q. Why are these Homes maintained?

Objection. Overruled.

A. They are maintained for the purpose of receiving guests, principally from great distances so that they may find suitable board and room accommodation while there to attend the services in Zion Tabernacle and other places, there being a great desire upon the part of such people not to live in hotels and boarding houses where no sympathy will be shown.

Court says that is not competent.

A. The guests wanted to be received under our roof, and our private house was crowded.

Q. Was it originally intended that you should have anything in the way of a boarding house?

A. Not at all.

Q. Did people come to you and apply to you for a place to live in part of your private house?

A. Yes sir, and wept because they could not get in. Often had to go away and find places in the boarding houses.

Q. Doctor, is it not a fact if they could get these accommodations in other houses properly conducted, you would be glad to have the burden removed.

Objection. Sustained.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that persons who board in private houses and there in the neighborhood, and who come to you, do not receive the same care and attention.

A. Exactly so.

Objection. Sustained, as the question is leading. Question withdrawn.

Q. I will ask you if the people who come from other Homes and other places, and who do not board in any of the Homes, receive the same care and attention as the others in the institution?

A. Exactly the same attention; not any difference whatever.

Q. I will ask you whether it is a fact that people who live at other places have not at times come to attend the meetings in the private Homes?

Objection. Sustained.

Mr. Williams. We don't want any evidence of that kind.

Dr. Dowie. You don't want the truth.

Mr. Williams. Pretty hard to find.

Dr. Dowie. Always find the truth here.

Q. I will ask you, Doctor, to state whether or not it is a fact that those who come and attend your meetings, and have been prayed with, and haven't had your hands laid upon their bodies, have been healed.

Objection. Sustained, because leading.

Q. I will ask you, Doctor, if the healings that have occurred under your ministry have been solely confined to those who have been personally prayed with by you, and had your hands laid upon them?

A. By no means.

Q. What exceptions to that?

A. Many healed without any laying on of hands whatever.

Q. Under your ministry there?

A. Under our ministry there.

Q. How?

A. They pray themselves and get the healing. I pray with them also at great distances and they get the healing. They don't depend upon my hands at all.

Q. Now, Doctor, I will ask you about some specific case of people who come to the Homes. Do you know Miss Hicks?

A. Yes sir, well.

Q. State what you know of your own knowledge with reference to her?

Objection. Sustained.

Mr. Stubblefield. What's the objection. This is one of the persons that came down there, and I want to prove her condition when she came there, and her condition when she went away. This is my position in this case, if the Court please. I apprehend that the Court wishes to deal fairly and squarely with the case. I felt that way when I came in, and I am going to feel that way, and I take it that the Court wishes to know whether Dr. Dowie is an impostor, as has been claimed, and down there preying upon the credulity of ignorant and simple minded people, and getting their money from them, or whether he is an honest man down there, giving his life, and giving the fruit of his knowledge for the benefit of anybody who chooses to come. The Court has allowed the plaintiff's attorneys all the latitude in the world to prove a case. I have not complained bitterly of that. Now, if the Court please, I wish to show right here that Dr. Dowie is all that he claims to be. That people have gone down there and have been blessed, whether the Court chooses to believe it was through God Almighty or some other way; but people have gone down there, and have not been treated in a medical sense at all, nor has he imposed upon their credulity, but helped them, and they have been blessed, and gone home rejoicing. I think this is a matter for the Court to consider, when it is a question as to whether he shall pay a fine, or in default of paying such fine go to the county jail. All these matters are matters for careful consideration. They have gone into things and offered proof wholly foreign to the case. Everything touching on Dr. Dowie's character and his work has been brought in. Brought in the case of Frank King. Dr. Dowie is making this fight down there. He is going on with his work. The press have always been against him, with few exceptions, and most people are on the side of the newspapers. I do not know the reason some of them are against him. It is very apparent the reason that the others are against him. Dr. Dowie has no money for bribery. We wish the opportunity to show the kind of work going on down there; if Dr. Dowie is what he is called—an impostor; if he is getting people down there and skinning them out of their money. Here is the opportunity. Miss Hicks testified, and other people of the highest standing, who have come there and were healed, and are willing to testify to what they have received. If Dr. Dowie is what he claims to be, we have the right to show it. If, under his ministry, people are receiving the blessing promised in the New Testament and in the Scripture, it is right for the people of Chicago to know it; right for this Court to know it. I think it is material to the issue, if the Court please.

Court. The only question is, Is he practicing medicine under the law without a license?

Q. I will ask you whether or not you treat anyone?

A. No sir, not in any way, form or manner.

Objection. Overruled.

Q. Do you operate upon anyone?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you prescribe for anyone?

A. No sir. Now, in connection with this question am I at liberty to give illustration?

Court. You can prove the negative.

Mr. Stubblefield. In this manner must be shown from the people who come there, and who were healed, he can prove the negative.

Court. It isn't necessary to give particulars of disease. As in the case of Miss Hicks, of Kentucky.

Mr. Stubblefield. There is no evidence that he did treat them.

Court. State what it was.

A. My ministry is absolutely void of everything that is in any sense treatment. Never allow the word to pass unchided. I give no treatment of any kind whatever. Divine Healing is God's healing or it is not Divine. I claim no power to heal, but claim power simply to show God's way of healing, and we exercise that ministry which the Lord Jesus Christ gave to his disciples, the ministry of laying on of hands. There is also another ministry. Ministry of anointing. "Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:" "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him." James 5: 14, 15. We are therefore commanded to anoint the sick in the name of the Lord. Many have been healed without my touch. I do not allow the word to be used. If I wanted to treat, I should say that I treated; but I simply object to the word and I have not objected only now, but at all times and under all circumstances, for twenty years. I have simply prayed with the sick as a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. If the Lord Jesus Christ should appear in Chicago to-day laying hands upon the sick as He did nineteen centuries ago He could be indicted and brought before this court and charged with violation of the State Board of Health Act. This is the first time in all my years of ministry that I was ever charged with violating any medical practice act.

In addition to what I have said, I simply declare this, that it is not tens or hundreds but thousands who have been healed, not by John Alex. Dowie, but by God Almighty, through faith in Jesus Christ, His Son, and that is what we are indicted here for—for praying with the sick in accordance with the direction of the New Testament. There is no kind of treatment whatever, and the Homes are simply placed there for board and room accommodation. If this case was sustained by the Court in favor of the plaintiff, it would simply prevent me from ever praying with the sick; not me only but every minister of the gospel who dared to anoint the sick or pray with the sick, following the example of Jesus Christ Himself. It would be an absolute infringement upon religious liberty, and prevent obeying the directions given by Christ Himself. "They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." Also the instruction of the apostle James, "They shall anoint with oil in the name of the Lord." It would be an absolute infringement of these plain commands of the word of God, and every minister who prayed with the sick, and there are thousands of men who do it, could be punished for obeying God. I do not stand alone. Many Homes like this are to be found in all parts of the United States; in New York, Pittsburg, and many other cities persons could be indicted for violating the State Board of Health act. It has never happened before in all the twenty-three years of my ministry.

A. About a year and a half.

Q. Do you know the meaning of the word treatment?

Objection. Overruled.

A. I know what it is to treat.

Objection on the ground that he is not shown to be an expert.

Q. How long have you practiced medicine?

A. Ten years.

Q. Where?

A. Hudson, Iowa.

Q. Do you know the meaning of the word treatment from a medical standpoint.

A. Yes sir.

Q. What is it?

A. It is the applying on the sick of some remedial agents.

Q. What is meant by some remedial agents?

A. I will have to go into detail.

Mr. Williams. Talk so common people can understand you.

Dr. Speicher. Doctors and lawyers are somewhat alike in that respect. Common people are not to understand.

Court. Go ahead.

A. Simply then any remedial agents that may be applied upon the sick body for the means of curing disease.

Q. Is the placing of a hand or saying of words in the presence of a person, treatment from a medical standpoint?

Objection. Overruled.

A. If the Court please, all I know with regard to what treatment is, is what I have explained and what I have heard taught in school. I went to school to learn what treatment was.

Mr. Hamlin. We object to all that. What do you understand by the word treatment?

A. I stated what it means.

MR. DEXTER CURTIS SWORN ON THE PART OF THE DEFENDANT, SAYS:

Q. Where is your home?

A. Madison, Wis.

Q. What is your occupation?

A. Manufacturer and farmer.

Q. What do you make?

A. Harness and fixtures for horses.

Q. How long have you lived in Madison?

A. About eight years.

Q. Where do you stay in this city?

A. I stop at the Divine Healing Home.

Q. Do you know anything with reference to the case of Frank King?

A. Yes sir.

Q. His being in Home No. 1?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What can you state with reference to that, Mr. Curtis?

A. I was there when Mr. King came. I saw him come, then I left and went to California, and King stayed there. When I came back, I thought he had improved. I was with him a good deal; went riding with him, and got him fruits and oranges. I knew all about him all the time he was there.

Q. Do you know what Dr. Dowie did with reference to Frank King?

A. I know he prayed for him.

Q. Do you know whether or not he treated him?

A. He prayed for him if you call that treatment. No other treatment that I know of.

Q. Were you present when Frank King left?

A. No sir.

Q. Were you personally acquainted with Frank King before he went to this place?

A. No sir, never saw him.

Q. How long were you with him when there?

A. Well, he was in the sitting room most of the time. With him nearly all the time, except when he went to his room. I went to his room occasionally, but not often.

Q. Have you seen Dr. Dowie's manner of behavior toward people who are there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What cases have you seen?

A. Well, the cases are most all together.

Q. Any instance?

A. Dr. Dowie has prayer meetings three times a week what he calls his Bible teaching, and after it he lays hands on all the guests in the three Homes who are there. He teaches that we should repent of our sins and get right with our fellow men. If we have stolen anything, to return it.

Q. Then what?

A. Then if our faith is strong enough, the Lord will heal us. Faith must be strong enough to expect the Lord to heal us.

Q. Do you know whether or not they get it?

Objection. Sustained.

Q. Were you healed?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What of?

A. Well, sir, I couldn't tell you. The doctors couldn't tell. All thought I was a sound man. I couldn't walk, I couldn't do anything, and made up my mind to come here.

Q. Health good now?

A. Yes sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. WILLIAMS.

Q. How many times did you see Dr. Dowie treat King?

Objection. Overruled.

A. I didn't see him give any except that when we went into the room together, and he prayed and laid hands on. I was in the room a dozen times or more when Mr. King was in the room.

Q. Did Dr. Dowie go to King's room?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see him?

A. I asked him to go there. He went there at my request.

Q. What was the manner of treatment?

A. Do you want to know what he said. I told you he prays for us in the large dining room, and he comes along and lays hands on our heads and prays for us.

Q. How does he lay hands upon the head?

A. I will show you. (Illustrates by placing hands on Mr. Williams head and repeating words that Dr. Dowie says.)

Q. Does he put hand anywhere else?

A. Not unless they have some other disease.

Q. What was King's disease?

A. Consumption, I think it was.

Q. Did he place his hands anywhere else on King?

A. He placed his hands on King's stomach.

Q. Indicate where?

A. He placed them on the stomach under the vest about here. (Indicates where.)

Q. How old are you, Mr. Curtis?

A. Sixty-six years.

Q. What did the doctor that examined you claim your disease to be?

A. Said I had catarrh. Last spring I was examined again, and the doctor said I was a sound man. They were mistaken. I could not walk a block but that I began to sweat. I had a sore stomach, coughed a great deal and raised a good deal.

Q. Was it catarrh of the stomach?

A. The doctor said it might be the nature of that. I treated with different doctors, but got no relief: I was advised to go to Colorado. Then I heard of Dr. Dowie.

Q. You were in a nervous condition at this time?

A. No sir.

Q. Are you not in that condition now?

A. No sir, I don't think I am.

Q. How long had you been in that condition?

A. Well, this cough commenced about three years ago, after I had the grip. I went to Hot Springs for two seasons, but it didn't seem to do any good. I kept gradually growing worse until the 4th of July. After that I grew worse fast.

Q. How did you hear of Dr. Dowie?

A. Through Mrs. Maggie Parsons. My stenographer was telling me about Mrs. Parsons, and she saw Mr. Snell, Mrs. Parsons' father, coming down the street, and called him in. He had been there, and gave me such an account that I said I would go, and I started the next day.

Q. Did you think you would be cured of that disease?

A. Yes sir. I knew from what Mr. Snell told me, that if I had the faith, I would be healed. I was healed in a week in that Home.

DR. SPEICHER RE-CALLED TESTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

Q. Doctor, what do you know with reference to Frank King's stay in Home No. 1?

A. The first that I remember was that one of the guests, Miss Ballard,

Objection. Sustained.

Q. State what you saw and heard with reference to Frank King.

A. I was asked to go and see Frank King in his room.

Q. Did you go and see him?

A. I did.

Q. Well?

A. I found him in his room and had a talk with him, especially with regard to his spiritual condition. I asked him about praying, and he said he couldn't pray, and I prayed with him and for him, and that was all with regard to the first call. Made such visit in his room especially to get him to revive in regard to his spiritual condition, and get him to pray for himself.

Q. State about the circumstances under which Frank King left the Home?

A. One morning I went to Dr. Dowie's office and asked him if there was anything I could do for him, and first, he said there was nothing; then he recalled that statement, and said he desired me to go and see Frank King, and have a talk with him; that he thought it would be better for him if he were to go home to his friends; he feared he was not getting the blessing, and that I should have a talk with him and find out his condition spiritually, and see if I couldn't make some arrangements with him. Take plenty of time, the Doctor said. I went to him, and had a talk with him. I told him what I thought of his condition, and, as he was not getting the blessing, it would be better for him to find some other place; go to his friends. I asked him if he had any friends, and he said he had none. I asked him whom he could write to, and he refused to give me any address. Refused to give me the address of Larabee. I told him it would be better for him to find some other place for a time. He disturbed the guests there with his coughing when they wanted to sleep. I said, "shall I not go and find some other place for you?" He consented for me to go and find a place. He complained about the food not being suitable, and I told him it was just his chance to go somewhere where he could get suitable food. I said I thought I could find a place in the adjoining house. I went and saw Mrs. Silver, and she had a room on the first floor that she rented from a lady who rented that flat. I looked at it and found it a comfortable room on the first floor. I went back and told King he could get that room for $10 a week. He consented to take it, and said I should come over at half past twelve. I told him not to go down stairs alone, but that I would come over and help him; but he did come down alone, and was waiting for me in the parlor. I helped him put on his overcoat, and we walked out of the house into the next one. It was a bright, sunny day, and I thought it better to go then, than to wait until evening when it was cold. He went there without any compulsion, without any coercion at all. He walked over there and he was pleased with his room. It was on the first floor, and very convenient to the bath room. I told him I would call and see him that evening, but I was called away and could not see him. I told him as soon as Mr. Larabee came to send him over and let me know. He was very friendly. I told him I would come over and see him that evening, but I could not go. When I went over the next morning, I found his friend had been there and was in a rage about it. Didn't like it at all. That was a little more than twenty-four hours after we had seen him into his new quarters. King never said one word to me of objection about leaving the Home, or the quarters he was in. Only Larabee refused to talk with me.

Q. Do you know anything with reference to the money paid King?

A. Yes sir. That evening I went with the financial secretary, Mr. Alton, and the money was paid back to Mr. King, not in the presence of Larabee at all. Larabee was not in the room.

Q. Had there been any protest or objection made prior to the return of the money?

A. No sir, Mr. King made no objection.

Q. Ever make any demand and say that you had been attempting to wrong him?

A. Never heard him say a word to me, nor to any one else that I know of.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Q. Larabee spoke about it?

A. Larabee spoke about it that evening.

Q. Before you gave the money back?

A. Larabee wasn't there when we gave the money back.

Q. Larabee did ask that you pay the money back?

A. No sir, he did not.

Q. Did he remark about it and you pay the money back?

A. Yes sir, simply said that he didn't see why King was taken out of the Home when his room rent and board had been paid in advance. We had no right to do that.

Q. He had been removed from the Home two days?

A. This was the evening of the day after.

Q. And you had not offered the money back until Larabee mentioned it?

A. The financial secretary had not seen the man.

Q. What was King's disease?

A. I didn't examine him.

Q. Couldn't you have examined King?

A. I could have, but you want me to tell you what I know, and I don't know what the disease was.

Q. You practiced medicine ten years. What was King's condition physically?

A. He was in an emaciated condition.

Q. Any other?

A. Had a cough.

Q. Did he cough much?

A. Didn't cough much in my presence.

Q. Don't know whether he disturbed them in the Homes?

A. No sir, I don't sleep there.

Q. Did you ever hear King yell very loud like you or I?

A. I don't know how you would yell, I don't think I would yell very loud. Never heard him yell at all.

Q. Could he yell?

A. Yes sir, he could so far as I know.

Q. What was King's condition when he was received into this house?

A. I don't know, I wasn't there when he came.

Q. You state you have a license?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you get it, since the beginning of this trial?

A. I received it since, but made application before I knew of this trial.

D. C. ALTON SWORN ON THE PART OF THE DEFENDANT SAYS:

Q. Mr. Alton, do you remember the incident of Frank King when he was at home No. 1?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you recollect anything with reference to Frank King's money?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Who paid the money.

A. I did.

Q. Who did you give it to?

A. Mr. King.

Q. Didn't give it to Larabee?

A. No sir.

Q. Under what circumstances did you give it to King?

A. After I heard he had left the Home, I went over there one evening with Dr. Speicher to the house where he was stopping, 6022 Edgerton Ave., and told Mr. King that I knew he had paid for several days beyond what he had stayed at our Home. I had figured up the balance, and I asked him what I should do with it. He said, "Chuck it into my pants pocket," so I chucked it into his pant's pocket for him.

Q. Did Larabee ever go to see you to get the money?

A. No sir.

Q. Had he ever made any demand upon you for this money?

A. Never.

Q. Prior to the time given?

A. No sir, never any demand made on me for money.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Q. Did he ever ask you to give it up?

A. No sir.

Q. Who asked you to go over there?

A. I went over there as Dr. Speicher asked me.

Q. You took this money over there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Was that the purpose of your going there?

A. That was one of the purposes.

Q. What was the other?

A. To see the man and talk with him.

Q. Had you been there before that time?

A. No sir.

Q. Who spoke to you with reference to this man?

A. I do not know as anyone did. That is my business to pay people money in that way.

Q. Who called your attention to the fact that King had money coming to him?

A. Possibly Dr. Speicher, I cannot remember positively about that. That is a part of my business. I do it without being asked in many cases.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION.

Q. Larabee states here he came over there and got the money from you. That is not true as stated there?

A. Not to my knowledge.

ALBION WYMAN, SWORN ON THE PART OF DEFENDANT, SAYS:

Q. What is your name, Albion?

A. Albion Wyman.

Q. Where do you live?

A. 1495 Fulton Street.

Q. Who is your father?

A. He is a lawyer in the Unity Building, Chicago.

Q. What is his name?

A. Charles E. Wyman.

Q. Do you know Dr. Dowie?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you first see Dr. Dowie?

A. Two years ago the coming May.

Objection. Sustained.

Q. Where is your father?

A. Paris, France.

Objection, and the Court says this kind of evidence is immaterial, but finally decides the defense can call witnesses to show that he does not use treatment.

ALBION WYMAN RECALLED.

Q. Did you see Dr. Dowie when sick?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he use any medicine upon you of any kind?

A. No sir.

Q. Did he ever prescribe or operate upon you?

A. No sir.

Q. Did he treat you in any way?

Objection. Sustained.

Dr. Dowie. If Your Honor rules that the evidence is limited to these questions, we can simply say that we close the evidence. I am informed that there are hundreds of witnesses in the corridor, and if the plaintiffs are prepared to admit the testimony, we can put them in and prove by hundreds of witnesses that God has wonderfully healed them of all kinds of diseases and infirmities and that we do not use treatment of any kind. If we can be permitted to give the nature of the healings, we will be very glad to do it. Mr. Hamlin has made very serious charges against us. Likened me to Simon Magus, who wanted to buy the gifts of God with money, and he said it was the greatest farce on earth to suppose that, in this enlightened age, in the city of Chicago, an establishment like this should be set up. I ask the Court if we have not some right to prove the negative, to prove that we do not at any time, under any circumstances, practice medicine, or use any treatment at all, and to prove the reality of Divine Healing.

Court rules that the evidence must be limited to the four last questions answered by Albion Wyman.

Defense closed.

Case and Court adjourned until January 24th, Thursday, at 10 o'clock.

I WONDER WHAT I WOULD DO?

Out on the streets a beggar waits

In the driving storm so cold

A homeless child with a famished look,

And garments thin and old.

I give from my bounty a meager dole,

And pennies, I spare her a few:

If I knew that my Saviour was standing there.

I wonder what I would do?

In yonder attic so cold and bare

There's a woman that sits and weeps

For her children's shelter and scanty fare.

Till the weary midnight goes.

She is stitching her life in those seams for me:

Am I giving her back her due?

If I knew that my Saviour was keeping account,

I wonder what I would do?

There are fatherless children that cry for bread,

There are widows old and poor,

And there is the sick man, Lazarus,

That lieth beside my door.

Shall I have all the luxuries,

While theirs shall be so few?

If I thought that I was like Dives of old,

I wonder what I would do?

Then the Son of Man, with His angels fair,

Will sit on the great white throne,

And out from the millions gathered there

He will know and claim His own.

If He saith to me those words I've read

In that Book so old and true,

"Inasmuch as ye did it not to these"—

I wonder what I should do? Set.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

MANY such letters reach us from the "people" of God; but "the shepherds of Israel" are for the most part dumb, although here and there a heroic minister dares to say a word in public for his persecuted brother. Such men are "marked" by the Vipers for destruction, if venom, hatred and falsehood can destroy.

A CASE in point is that of the Rev. W. E. Wilkinson, of the Hemenway M. E. Church, Evanston, a suburb of Chicago. It appears that last Lord's Day, 20th, he dared to say from his pulpit:

"Concerning the supernatural cures wrought through the agency of Dr. Dowie, we have the testimony of numerous reliable witnesses. No more can be said concerning the miracles of Christ. I have never been at Dr. Dowie's Divine Healing Institute, but I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of statements made by witnesses. For example, I am told by a truthful citizen of Belvidere, Ill., that one of his acquaintances, a resident of that city, a young woman hitherto a cripple, now walks the streets sound in body and limb, having been healed at Dr. Dowie's institute. Wherein does this work differ from the miraculous healing wrought by Christ or His disciples?"

Thereupon a Viper of the Tribune brood, the Chicago Evening Journal, lifts up its head, shoots out its forked tongue, shows all its poisoned fangs, and hisses at our brother in an article entitled "EVANSTON ASTRAY ON MIRACLES," and gets in a serpentine hiss at us. It finds that Mr. Wilkinson "ought to ride a bicycle," and repeats this advice several times, whatever it may mean. We do not personally know our brother; but we thank him for his defense of God's work. He strikes the root of the matter—the sick are Divinely healed, and the evidence is incontestable, and none of our adversaries dare challenge it. They have never attempted to do so, and people of all classes begin to see the significance of that fact. It is easy to cry "fraud, charlatan, impostor, etc.," but bad words prove nothing.

WE hope the Journal will provide a good, safe bicycle for our brother, and that he will ride it to Zion Tabernacle, and see and hear for himself. We give him hearty invitation, and perhaps he can get the editor to come also.

SOME time ago the Journal sent down one of its staff, whose card read "Dramatic Editor," desiring an interview. We thought the joke too patent, and declined to be "done" by the connoisseur in ballet girls, stage heroics, and filthy green-room gossip. We said we would be glad to see their "Religious Editor," if they kept one; but disputed the fitness of a theatrical expert to judge of Christian work. And now the "Religious Editor" has appeared; and, behold, he hisses like a serpent or a goose—which? Who will give him a bicycle? Poor Religious Editor—let him have a bicycle, and—a Bible. Then he may learn something of God and of Christ's Gospel.

ZION TABERNACLE and the Divine Healing Homes; Zion Publishing House and LEAVES OF HEALING still live and thrive. Over 900 persons rose for prayers last Lord's Day morning and afternoon. Many have been healed, and amidst all trials, every meeting announced has been held. Amidst the blizzard of to-day many hundreds came to the Tabernacle, and we prayed and laid hands on about 200, and then waded home knee-deep in the snow, in the teeth of the gale, and Home seemed a foretaste of Heaven.

•• BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US. ••

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing:

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

A LETTER TO THE FRIENDS OF ZION TABERNACLE

DIVINE HEALING HOME No. 1,
6020 EDGERTON AVE., CHICAGO.

February 2, 1895.

Beloved friends in this and all Lands:—

We are reminded to-day of the words of Jesus:—"There was in a city a Judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man."—Luke 18: 2.

Possibly that particular judge was in Jerusalem nineteen centuries ago. There is at least one exactly like him in Chicago to-day, in our opinion, and his name is John K. Prindiville.

In defiance of the evidence, he has found a verdict for the doctors of the State Board of Health, fined the writer one hundred dollars, or a period of imprisonment, and, but for a prompt appeal to the County Court, and the giving of bonds, the writer would now be in the common prison of Chicago.

And for what offense?

Again and again the judge said, "The only question is, Is he (John Alex. Dowie) practicing medicine under the law without a license.?"—See the report of the trial in LEAVES OF HEALING, pages 298 and 299.

No man can find a single word in all the evidence, which we have given without the omission of a word, to prove that we have ever "practiced medicine" at all; but the very contrary. Their only witness said:—"King told me he never had any medicine."

Judge Prindiville has, therefore, rendered a

"MONSTROUSLY UNJUST JUDGMENT," as the writer told him to his face this morning in open court.

It was proved over and over again that all that was done by the writer was to follow the example and obey the commands of the Lord Jesus Christ:—"These signs shall follow them that believe, In My Name they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover."

It was proved that we prayed, and laid hands upon the sick in Jesus' Name, and that many were healed of all kinds of diseases and infirmities.

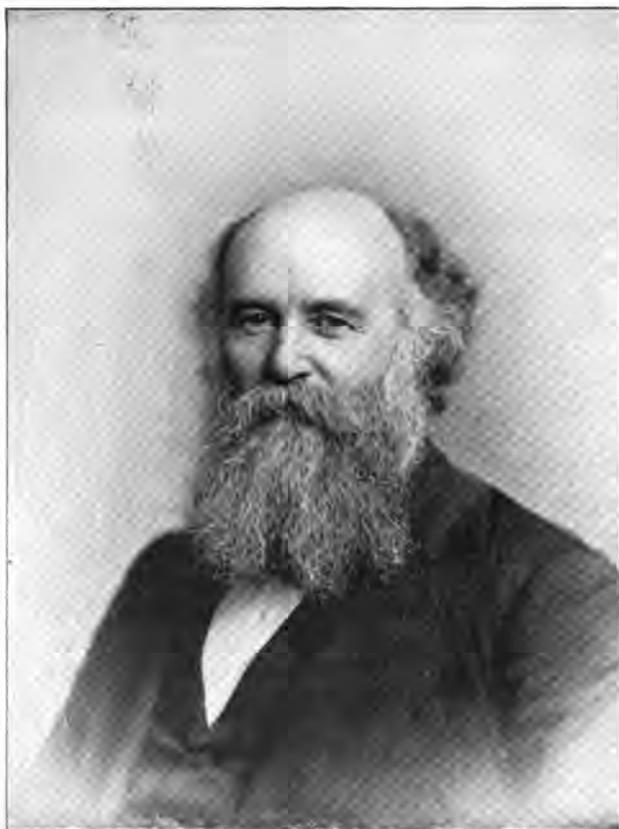

That is our offense—obeying God and blessing thereby the multitudes who have thronged Zion Tabernacle and the Divine Healing Homes.

And it is an offense of which we shall never cease to be guilty, so long as we have life and liberty. We said in open court, "It will make no difference. WE SHALL NEVER CEASE TO PRAY FOR THE SICK AND SUFFERING."

Meanwhile, all will go on as before. Zion Tabernacle and the Homes continue open, pending our appeal, and the Clerk of the Court told us to-day that it might not be heard for two years. Further observations on this will be found in our Editorial Notes page 312.

God is with us, and all is well.

Faithfully Yours in Jesus,

THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH }
vs. } Friday morning, Jan. 24, 1895.
JOHN ALEX. DOWIE. }

FOURTH DAY OF THE TRIAL.

ON BEHALF OF THE DEFENSE MR. STUBBLEFIELD SPOKE AS FOLLOWS:

If the Court please, I regard the decision of the case to be limited to matters of law; matters concerning the interpretation of the statute under which suit is brought against Dr. Dowie. I do not say charge, because this is not in the nature of an actual criminal complaint, but is brought by the State Board of Health, just as any other action is brought by one party against another. I will read again the statute itself bearing on this point, because properly construed the several parts of that statute must be considered. Generally it is supposed that the legislature will have indicated its meaning by the statute, and if the meaning is not clear, to secure extraneous help.

This act, if the Court please, is an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Illinois, approved June 16, 1887, enforced July 1, 1887." An act to regulate the practice of medicine.

It is always competent in the first place to look at the title. Though the law may extend the meaning and scope of the statute, it cannot extend it beyond, but the title is supposed to cover everything that is mentioned and described under the caption, under the title of the case, and it is always proper to look to the caption to see what it is. There may be details and items there given under the statute that can't be given in the caption itself or in the definition itself; but it is always proper to look to the title first, then to look at the law. "Be it enacted that no person shall practice medicine in this State, unless such person comes under the qualification required by this act."

We claim that Dr. Dowie does not come under these qualifications, and let me say to the Court now, I have used the term Dr. Dowie on several occasions in this proceeding. I use that term, not as claiming that he is a doctor of medicine, but I use it in the primitive sense as applied to a man of learning and culture, and I wish it in my use to be limited to that. Now to refer again to what definition the statute has given the word, the clause, "practice medicine, and practicing physician." Now to be held under this, it must be proved that Dr. Dowie is a practicing physician. What is meant by practicing medicine? "Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this act who shall treat, operate on or prescribe for any physical ailment of another, and nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the use in cases of emergency of the domestic or family remedies, etc."

Now proceeding further with this statute itself, and I wish to read another part of that same statute in which another offense is defined. (Reads act about itinerant vendors.)

Now, if the Court please, when we demanded of the plaintiff what clause of the statute they were bringing suit under, they said it was "practicing medicine without a license." They are bringing it under this section, and I refer to this part of the statute to point out to the Court that the statute itself and that the Legislature made a distinct difference between applying medicine, or selling medicine in one way, and in practicing medicine in another sense. Under the contention of the gentleman a man might be fined under this part of the statute for non-compliance with that other statute. He might have license to sell drugs, and sell those drugs and violate this part, and at the same time be violating the other part of the statute, but that was not the intention of the Legislature. The Legislature drew a distinction between persons who sell drugs, nostrums, and vendors of medicine, and give them to people, etc., etc. (Reads law again.)

That was not the intention of the Legislature. The intention of the Legislature in this case was to prevent persons from selling such and holding themselves in the profession of practicing medicine without limit. It is to prevent any person from going before the people and holding themselves out as occupying the position and practicing the profession of medicine. It was not intended to prevent a man from prescribing sulphur or quinine for your Honor. It was not intended to prevent a man from using any of the simple remedies. It was to prevent men from dabbling in dangerous and poisonous remedies, and distributing them among the people. It was for the purpose of protecting the citizens of the State against dangerous medicine. That was what it was for.

Now to proceed further upon the question of definition. I wish to point out to the Court what the Supreme Court of this State has pointed out as practicing medicine. This is the case, 129 Illinois Reporter, page 370, State vs. Blue Mountain Joe. I hope now that Dr. Dowie and his friends will pardon me for the necessity in which I find myself in comparing his case with that of a notorious quack doctor, but it is necessary because the points made in this case are applicable in law to his case. This Blue Mountain Joe had set up in Clark County, and was selling medicines. Had a patent medicine for everything. If a man had rheumatism, he had a patent medicine for it; if he tooth-ache, he had a remedy for it. Had a remedy for everything. And just to show in his opinion upon this case he used the following language. The title to this case is, "to regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Illinois." (Reads definition.)

There the Supreme Court has given a definition of what the practice of medicine is within the meaning and intent of this statute, and while the Legislature itself has given a definition, this is an adjudicated definition stated in a way that the Legislature cannot define what the meaning of that act is, because statutory definitions are always looked upon askance, and with suspicion, but we claim that within that meaning that the Legislature has laid down, that Dr. Dowie's behavior does not come within the word treat, operate or prescribe.

Now to further proceed upon the word Practice. Refers to case in State of North Carolina, S. E. Reporter, page 522, State vs. Byron. Byron was charged with practicing law without the necessary license.

The opinions of the Supreme Court of North Carolina are given with much care and attention to the common law. (Reads Sec. 27.)

This seems to apply as a theory to real life. All questions applying to the charge of practicing medicine, means to practice medicine as a theory to real life, and for Dr. Dowie to be charged in this case as having practiced medicine, means to have practiced medicine as a theory, not as an occupation and profession. The question before the Court then to determine, has he with that definition or within that definition of our own Supreme Court, practiced medicine or applied the theory of medicine to real life. Has he done it?

If the Court please, I will refer in further exemplification to the case of the State vs. Van Doren, S. E. Reporter 141, in the State of North Carolina, page 32. This is the case of a man from Chicago who was down there practicing medicine, and this statute is similar to the statute in our State. (Reads.)

For example, a man might sell all the Hood's Sarsaparilla he wanted too in the State of North Carolina, and he would not be guilty of the violation of that statute, and such is the case in this state. I can go out and sell all the Hood's Sarsaparilla I can; all the sulphur and all the quinine, and if people come to me and want it, I can give it to them without being guilty of the violation of the statute in this State because it is not within the meaning of that word. The contention of the counsel in this case is that to do anything to benefit a person is to be guilty of the violation of the statute. If I place a plaster upon a brother's body, I am guilty of the violation of this act; if I give him a cup of hot water, I am guilty of the violation of this act. If I attempt to help him in any way, I am guilty of the violation of this act. If he has a cold and I give him a hot bath or anything of that kind, I am guilty, and this State Board of Health can bring a proceeding, and take up three or four days of the time of the Court, and take part of a week's valuable time of Dr. Dowie, and a week's time of two or three attorneys on both sides, just to prosecute the offense.

Now, if the Court please, I wish to refer to a case brought and cited by the counsel in this case, and upon which they rely. And I wish now to say that I have made a diligent search for cases. I have looked back to 1876. I have spent at least twenty-four hours in looking for them. The first case that I ran across in my search was this case of Buswell vs. State of Nebraska. And that case is apparently against us. It was my intention to say apparently. If it were really against, I would not consider it by any means decisive, because it was rendered by a half-baked court. It was rendered by a court whose decisions it is well known are not weighty within the State in which they are rendered. I have talked with a citizen from Nebraska within the week, and asked him as to the weight of the decision of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and his statement to me was that they were without weight, that the Supreme Court of Nebraska was controlled by a ring of corporations, the Supreme Court was filled by men who are placed there by corporate power and is not enrolled among the self-respecting courts in the State.

Now this statute is similar to our statute, but it is something more; it goes beyond our statute. In addition to other things in what shall be defined as practicing medicine within the meaning of the statute. "Profess to heal." In this case it was shown that Buswell did "profess to heal." Not that he treated anybody in the sense of medical treatment. It is not shown that he did that. The Supreme Court does not decide that he treated anybody or operated upon any person. In this State the evidence would not have been sufficient to convict, but there is one other thing under that statute under which he could have been held and may have been held, and that he "professed to heal." That was sufficient under that statute to have held him, but would not have been under our statute on the evidence that the report shows in this case.

Now there is a special statute in our State with regard to persons who profess to heal. Comes under the law of itinerant vendors. Got to be an itinerant vendor. If the State Board were to turn over and attempt to hold Dr. Dowie under the claim of professing to heal, they would do it without any evidence to show it. They could not show and have not shown that he is itinerant, but that he is stationary. If Bath-House Coughlin in this city were to "profess to heal" by baths, Turkish baths and other kinds of baths, would the State Board of Health have any right to prosecute him under this act? If when people should come there and he should give them Turkish and electric baths and other kinds of baths, that are given in every hotel in this city as he, Bath-House Coughlin, gives them. The State Board of Health could claim he was infringing upon the domain of the doctors; he was practicing within the meaning of this statute, and he would be violating this act if the contention of counsel is true. What is physical ailment within the meaning of the statute? Anything is a physical ailment when a man does not feel all right, if their contention is true. If a man is cold it is a physical ailment, and if Atwood sells him a suit of clothes, he comes within this statute for treating a man for being cold. If I am hungry and go down to the Boston Oyster House to get something to eat, they are violating that statute because hunger is a physical ailment, and they are treating me for it, and thus violate that statute. If I have anything wrong with me physically, and go anywhere to get relief, I am being treated within the meaning of this statute, and let us see what the meaning of it is as indicated by the exceptions.

This statute does not refer to family remedies, but is to prevent these young, black-legged fellows from going around the country setting up their sign Dr. So and So, and pretending to occupy the honorable position of a physician, to prevent these fellows from distributing poison among the citizens. Not to prevent people from giving sulphur, quinine and things of that kind; not for the purpose of preventing what is known as domestic remedies; household remedies that have been used for a long time. Herb tea, such as my brother Farwell and I used to take when boys.

Well now, there is one other remedy, if it may be termed a remedy, that has been called into service of mankind for at least six thousand years, and if it is not a domestic remedy, it is about time it was becoming a domestic remedy, (Dr. Dowie says "Amen!") and that is prayer. If prayer itself, as is shown by the evidence in this case, and if your Honor believes the New Testament teaching or the Old Testament teaching, if prayer itself is not a domestic remedy within the meaning of this statute, I would like to know what is a domestic remedy. There certainly is not any danger in it. It certainly is not liable to poison anybody. It is not claimed that anybody down at these Homes of Dr. Dowie's was ever poisoned or injured by prayer. It is not shown that there was ever one single person down there that was worse off by being down there at Dr. Dowie's place. Not one, but the truth is they have been down there, and have gone home rejoicing and happy in restored health. That's the evidence here. If the evidence showed that Dr. Dowie was imposing upon the credulity of ignorant people, that he was working down there for selfish ends, then there might be some reason why the Court could stretch this statute to fit his case, but if Dr. Dowie is down there doing all that the New Testament commands, if he is doing this and carrying out a religious duty, if he is sending people back to their homes, happy and healed, ready to live better and purer lives, it is this Court's duty not to stretch the statute, but rather to restrict it. The law is not for the righteous but for the unrighteous.

Now it is not necessary here to restrict the meaning of this statute. This is a case where if Dr. Dowie is fined under this statute and default is made in paying the fine, he may be imprisoned in the County jail.

This is a direct blow at the liberty of every citizen. Now, if the Court please, if Dr. Dowie is fined in this case, a precedent is established whereby every Christian mother in this city of Chicago or county of Cook who prays for her child and whose prayer is answered, or who prays for a friend's child and the prayer is answered, or who prays and the prayer is not answered, may be brought up and fined by the State Board, that has been characterized by a man of eminence in the city of Chicago, the Rev. Dr. Carlos Martyn, as "secret, dishonest, incompetent and fraudulent," and which has directed a blow at the liberty of every man, woman, and child within the State of Illinois, and which ought to be hampered rather than given leave to come in and fine people, fixing finer at their own rate. What do they do with these fines? Pay lawyers to get somebody else fined. That's all.

Now if the Court please, as I have said, I found only one case in point after a diligent search, and this case is not sufficient to determine what the law is in this state; and this case ought to be determined by the law and evidence, and I ask that judgment in this case be against the plaintiff.

ON BEHALF OF COMPLAINANT MR. WILLIAMS SPOKE AS FOLLOWS:

If the Court please, there seems to be no discussion in this case with reference to the question of prayer. Your Honor is familiar with the testimony, and it only involves one question, which is, whether the acts done or performed by the defendant for the curing of disease, comes within this act of practicing medicine, and it simply involves that one question. In arguing this case, I have nothing to do with the question whether Dowie kills or cures, or with his ministerial duties of any kind. Neither do I care to attack his character. I do not think it material to the case, although I do not think much of his practice or profession, whatever he may call it. As to the regulation of the practice of medicine in the State of Illinois, the counsel for the defendant has taken up one case, in order to let the Court see what it means to practice medicine.

Let us see what definition Webster gives for the word—practice. (Reads definition.)

Now the term medicine is defined as follows, (Reads definition.) I ask Your Honor to apply those two definitions to this case.

The counsel on the other side has referred to the Blue Mountain Joe case. Your Honor is familiar with the case. It did not, or could not include any regulation with reference to itinerant vendors of drugs. Your Honor sees the point. Simply this, cannot get two acts or facts within one law. The decision in this case shows the idea of the court, and its opinion with reference to these acts. The title is, "To regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Illinois." Practice is to exercise a calling or profession. Just apply that to Dowie in this case. The practice of medicine includes the application of knowledge to disease, and I hold that the Supreme Court applied no limited construction to the word, as is claimed by the defendant. The object of this act is to cover the entire field of medicine in the broadest sense. Going further even. The statute was made to protect health, and promote the welfare of humanity. I am speaking of Section 10; we do not claim anything under Section 11, whatever. (Defines word, physician.)

Now I have given Your Honor definitions of practice and medicine. I will define the word, treat. Webster says, first, it means as follows: "To handle, to manage, to manage in the application of remedies, as to treat a disease or patient." The definition is not limited in any sense or in any way. The next word is, operate on, which Webster says means as follows: "To perform a work or act; to exert power or strength physically. Second, "To produce an appropriate physical effect. To produce effect on mind by any act, to exert moral power or influence." The next word is, prescribe. "Shall treat, operate on, or prescribe." "To direct, as a remedy to be used by a patient." These are the meanings of these words, and I apprehend there will be no discussion. All these people that are down there at Dr. Dowie's Homes are afflicted with all kinds of diseases. Guess there won't be any point made with reference to that.

I also wish to give the meaning of the word—hospital. A hospital, as Webster describes it, is a building in which the sick or infirm are received and treated. A public or private institution founded for the reception and cure of persons diseased in body and in mind; either at their own expense or by charity, in whole or in part. Now, we know the defendant is leasee of three Homes. These Homes are for the purpose of receiving persons who are afflicted with all kinds of disease, not only disease of the body, but disease of the mind, but the great majority, as shown by the testimony here, the great majority of the persons who are inhabitants of these houses are afflicted with chronic diseases. Now what are these places for? They are for the reception of this class of people that I have described to Your Honor. They are there, and for what purpose? They cannot possibly come there for any other purpose than the fact that there is some special reason. If prayer to God Almighty will relieve these persons of their sufferings, they might just as well be in Massachusetts or England, as in Dowie's Home. There is some reason for these persons coming there. They do not come because the defendant has a nice Home. They do not come there to be in that particular place. There is no testimony to show that. Testimony shows it is a good place to live, but no better than many other places. There must be a reason. They do not come there for fun; they do not come there to look at Dowie; they don't come there to get board and hospitality. WHAT DO THEY COME FOR? They come there to receive the treatment that he gives. By prayer, asking of God, or whatever he desires to call it. To cure these people of chronic disease. These buildings there are fine, the expense attached is great; fixed up very finely. The charge for board and room is perhaps not equal to the Palmer House, but it is more than I pay, and I think it is more than the Court pays. IT SHOWS THERE IS SOMETHING IN THIS HOME THAT THE PEOPLE WANT.

He has established these places, and gone to great expense. You bear in mind that the defendant himself testified on the stand that his treatment would cure or heal any person just as well away, as it would there, and cited some instances, if I remember rightly, and I call Your Honor's attention to this fact, that if it could be done as well in this manner, as it is by coming to the Homes of Dr. Dowie, what in the devil has Dr. Dowie got these Homes for? He said on the stand that they desired (I do not remember just the term spiritual blessing of some kind. I will leave that point now, I do not care to go into it any further.

A great deal of discussion seems to be stirred up in this case in regard to the decision of the State of Nebraska. Perhaps the defendant has some knowledge of that court that I have not. I simply want to say this, that this decision, which might have been upset, has not been done. We will compare it for a moment with this Blue Mountain Joe case and see what the difference is. The title is exactly in the same language as our own. "An act to establish a State Board of Health to regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Nebraska," using exactly the same words and the same terms. This act is similar to 1887. "Punished by fine or imprisonment," under the act of 1887, eliminated from this statute, but the remainder of the statute is just the same. This proceeding here was by indictment. I think Your Honor possibly remembers Mr. Hamlin reading it in arguing this motion here a short time ago. Deal with Section 17. This is a case of a Christian Scientist. The acts in this case are almost similar, except that Dr. Dowie claims that he does not like Christian Scientists, and is against them, etc.

I desire to show that the acts of the defendant were done for compensation, whether exactly as a fee or accepted as a gratuitous offering. It cannot be claimed as an act of worship, nor is it a performance of religious duty. It is not claimed in this case, that compensation is not accepted when tendered. The evidence shows the contrary.

I call your attention to the words in this statute, "profess to heal," which the defendant very strongly objects to. So far as I construe, this decision is not placed upon the ground that the defendant professed to heal. It says his treatment of physical ailment of others for compensation. The defendant had the court to instruct the jury in the following language. (Reads.)

This was the instruction given at the request of the defendant to the court, but was taken to the Supreme Court by the people. The object of the statute was to protect people from the pretensions of the ignorant and avaricious, and it is not limited.

Now if Your Honor will apply the definitions which are laid down here by Webster, and take into consideration the opinion of the Supreme Court, it will not take two minutes to decide whether you think the Nebraska case is good law or not. There is nothing in this statute in any way to limit the application of the words under the act itself. If the intention of the Legislature had been to limit the meaning of this act, why didn't it do so in the act itself. "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Illinois." It means the entire domain. If the Legislature had desired to limit that, they certainly would have put it in. There is no case in the United States, except this case in the State of Nebraska. In many respects it is similar to the State of Illinois. If you give to this act, and the words within the act, the ordinary meaning as laid down by Webster, or any other dictionary, there is no escape for the defendant that I can see. I will ask Your Honor, if you find for the people, in finding, to specify the person upon whom the defendant has prescribed. I ask Your Honor to find in favor of the people.

The Court adjourned decision to Saturday, February 2d, at 10 A. M.

The case of "false and fraudulent pretences," upon which Dr. Dowie was arrested on the night of Saturday, January 5th, at the instance of the State Board of Health, on an information sworn before Justice Prindiville was then called.

Mr. Williams said: "I ask that it be DISMISSED."

Justice Prindiville said: "Dismissed."

Dr. Dowie said: "Have I the right, Judge, to make any observations upon the outrageous and disgraceful conduct of this attorney, and of his masters, the doctors of the State Board of Health, in causing my arrest upon this shameful charge, without any justification whatever, as they now admit."

Justice Prindiville said: "Nothing can be said. The charge is DISMISSED."

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH,
75.
JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

February 2, 1895.

FIFTH DAY OF TRIAL.

Judge Prindiville said, "I render a decision in favor of the plaintiff. $100 fine.

Mr. Stubblefield said, "On what opinion?"

Judge Prindiville said, "Upon the opinion that he is violating the statute; practicing medicine and operating upon people."

Dr. Dowie said, "It is a monstrously unjust decision. Do I not have the right to pray with the sick?"

Stenographer did not catch Judge Prindiville's reply, but he mumbled something that sounded like "Oh, I don't know."

Mr. Williams presented an order committing Dr. Dowie to prison, as he would not pay the $100 fine.

Mr. Stubblefield took an appeal to the County Court, and said Dr. Dowie would give bonds to prosecute the appeal.

Judge Prindiville fixed the bond at $200, which was immediately given, with a fee demanded by the clerk, of $11.

Judge Prindiville called the case of the State Board of Health against Mrs. Dowie.

Dr. Dowie said, "Mr. Stubblefield, please demand a change of venue."

Mr. Stubblefield did so, and a change of venue to Justice Underwood's Court was ordered.

Justice Underwood fixed the hearing of the case of Mrs. Dowie for Saturday, February 9th, with the understanding it was to be further adjourned to the 16th inst.

ON November 16th, we opened another Home for God's sick children, who are setting their faces toward Zion Tabernacle, from all parts of America, and indeed from other continents. We present our readers with a picture of the New Home, and ask their earnest prayers for its prosperity, and for all who enter its pleasant portals.

As we stated in No. 10, of this series of LEAVES OF HEALING, the new Home was "half filled the first day." Shortly after, every room was occupied, and that has been its condition ever since: for as quickly as one guest leaves, there is another, and sometimes two or three, ready to take the room.

We have appointed an excellent brother minister, who has also been a doctor of medicine, and his amiable and intelligent wife, to be house father and mother. Thus far God has manifestly approved our choice, and our brother and sister, and their little three year old daughter, Ruth, give the Home a most homelike appearance and feeling.

Profiting by our experience in furnishing and fitting Homes No. 1 and 2, we have been able to make improvements in Home No. 3, and Messrs. Mandel Brothers, of Chicago, have executed our orders in such a way as to make it pleasant, comfortable, harmonious, and inviting. We have an excellent staff of Christian servants, and have spared neither time, thought, labor, nor money to make it such a Home as that of "Gaius the well beloved," which is commended so beautifully by the apostle John in his third epistle. We desire to "do a faithful work in whatsoever we do towards them that are brethren and strangers withal."

The Home is situated at Nos. 6034 and 6036 Edgerton Avenue, the two houses being made into one. It is built of white stone and red pressed brick, and stands in grounds by itself, with a considerable space on the east, west and south sides. It is just three doors from Home No. 1, where we personally reside, so that the guests come to our Morning Prayers, and Special Gatherings in the assembly room there. It is within a block and a half of Zion Tabernacle where there are many meetings, every week. It overlooks Jackson Park and the guests can see the remnants of the World's Fair, and the so-called White City, but they can also see what is better, the improvements which are being made in the Park, the Wooded Island and Lagoons and in the Midway Plaisance.

In a few months these will be fully restored to their natural beauty and be even lovelier than before: for every vestige of the shoddy and artificial shams of the Fair will have disappeared forever. The surroundings of the Home are quiet, and pleasant walks and drives are within easy reach. It is seven miles distant from the center of Chicago; but the Express Trains on the Illinois Central Railway, running three trains an hour, makes the Home only fifteen minutes distant. The Home is within a block of the 60th Street depot of the Illinois Central Railway. The Elevated Railway and Street Cable Car lines are within easy distance.

The office of the Steward of the Homes is in Home No. 3, and all personal applications for rooms must be made there. All applications by letter must be made to Rev. John Alex. Dowie, Home No. 1, 6020 Edgerton Ave. It is better to make application in person, or by a personal friend living in Chicago, as the correspondence is so large that there is danger of delay. Besides there are many cases which can only be received after personal interview.

The rates for board and room accommodation are the same as in No. 1, and can be procured on application. There are no charges of any kind in the Homes or in Zion Tabernacle for Dr. Dowie's services, the work being supported by free-will offerings.

The opening of Home No. 3 has not solved the problem—scarcely has it postponed the solution—of finding room for the friends who are coming to seek Divine Healing in Zion Tabernacle, from all parts. Let our readers ask for us Divine guidance, more money, and good helpers.

These Homes are truly being established by God.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

WRITTEN BY MISS A. M. HICKS.

VARIOUS reasons present themselves why I should give to the readers of this paper some facts and arguments on the subject of Divine Healing. Many letters and inquiries have come to me concerning an article entitled "Healing by Prayer," written by Rev. J. O. Burroughs, and published in the Gleaner of March 8th, also an editorial by Mr. Walker, entitled "A Miracle of To-day" in the Clinton Democrat of the same date. The present article is in part my answer to these anxious inquirers. Also I am constrained to do this for the glory of God, who has done such great and marvelous things for me and for the benefit of some of God's suffering children, who may, I trust, be thus persuaded to recognize a long neglected doctrine of the Bible and come to Christ for healing.

The facts concerning my sickness and my healing were clearly and truthfully stated by both Mr. Burroughs and Mr. Walker. Lest some should see this who have not read either of those articles, I will give a very brief account of the case.

The 10th day of last November I was in my accustomed place in the school room, doing full work, and apparently in perfect health. The next morning I awoke to find myself in intense pain, the victim of a cruel disease, which for twelve weeks baffled the skill of the best physicians. From the first morphine had been given as the one hope of saving my life. So the weeks and months wore away, while the disease wasted my flesh and my strength, and sapped the very foundations of my life.

During these weary days certain facts were brought to our notice concerning Dr. Dowie, of Chicago, who was said to be the instrument in God's hands to perform miraculous cures. This information came through such safe channels that we could not long remain in doubt as to the truthfulness of the facts stated; so Miss Fairfield and I decided to go to Chicago and inquire more closely into Dr. Dowie's work.

I was as helpless as a baby, but, by the aid of the stretcher and the ambulance, and the ministry of tender hands, I was at last brought in safety to Dr. Dowie's home. I need not linger over the intermediate steps; the three days without morphine, which had to be given up before the Doctor would pray for my healing; the fierce mental and spiritual conflict; the intense pain, and the victory, through Divine aid.

On the third night after my arrival in Chicago, Dr. Dowie laid hands upon me and prayed for my healing. I was very weak but God gave me strength to follow the prayer with the faith of a little child and I was healed at once. Cleansing and restoration followed by natural processes. My health is excellent. I am only one of many hundreds—even thousands—who have been healed under Dr. Dowie's ministry.

We saw many of these and heard them testify. Dr. Dowie claims no power in himself—claims only to be the instrument of transmitting God's saving health to suffering humanity.

When we wrote to friends of my miraculous healing I was duly warned not to declare it too boldly, lest I should be put out of the synagogue. In the face of that and other friendly admonitions I can but declare the things that I have seen and heard and experienced.

And why should it be thought a thing incredible that God should thus heal the sick? Christ has not changed. And what was the work of His earthly ministry? Teaching, preaching, healing, forgiving sin, healing the body. To one He said "Thy sins be forgiven thee;" To another, "Thou art loosed from thine impurity." The saying, "Who Himself bear our sins in His own body on the tree," is no more true than the other saying "who Himself took our infirmities and bear our sicknesses."

Now that he has ascended into the heavens he is carrying on the same two-fold ministry by the Holy Spirit and through His people.

"When He, the comforter, is come he shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you," "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go to my father."

Certain it is, these promises were kept and these works continued through the Apostolic age. Read the great commission—never revoked, else why our missions?—and then look at the work of the Apostles. "Repent and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins," said Peter on the day of Pentecost.

"In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth arise and walk," said the same bold fisherman to the lame man at the beautiful gate of the Temple.

Note Paul to the jailer at Philippi and to the cripple at Lystra. Note also that the enemies of Christ have from the first sought to silence this doctrine. So long as the Apostles preached only repentance for the remission of sins, no one made any serious objection: but when the lame man was healed, behold what a stir! Acts. 4: 1-18.

The accusation against Peter and John, when brought to trial, was based entirely upon "the good deed done to the impotent man." It is instructive to observe in this connection that on the day of Pentecost, when Peter preached only the doctrine of repentance and faith, three thousand were saved, but when he preached the same doctrine with "the lame man which was healed" standing by as a witness that Christ still lived "the Prince of life whom God hath raised from the dead," about 5,000 men believed.

But, did not this two-fold work of Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit cease with the Apostolic age? There is no more proof that healing for the body ceased at that time than there is that forgiveness of sins ceased. There is incontestable evidence that both continued into the third century.

Uhlham, in his "Conflict of Christianity with Heathenism," page 169, says:

Witnesses who are above suspicion, leave no room for doubt that the miraculous powers of the apostolic age continued to operate at least into the third century."

Mosheim, Milner, Dodwell and Tollotson bear equally strong testimony.

Here is a point of wonderful suggestiveness: When in the latter part of the third and beginning of the fourth centuries apostasy began to creep into the churches, and men began to deny regeneration by the power of the Holy Spirit, and sought to climb up some other way, is it strange that the twin doctrine of healing for the body was also perverted? Indeed, when there is no divine healing for the spirit, there can be none for the body, for this is the children's bread. We glory in the fact that, although the Roman Catholic church, with its perversions of Scripture triumphed in high places, the doctrines of the Bible were held in their purity through many centuries, by the poor and oppressed who were hidden in dens and caves, and in obscure and remote valleys.

History tells us that those brave people held on to the doctrine of Divine Healing with the same tenacity that they held to the doctrine of regeneration by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Later on a cloud of unbelief obscured this truth in the churches, so that for one to declare belief in Divine Healing is to brand himself as a fanatic. Dr. A. J. Gordon, an eminent Baptist preacher of Boston, speaking on this subject in a sermon on "The two-fold ministry of Christ" says:

"How is it that this two-fold cord of our ministry has been unbraided, leaving us but a single strand? How is it that we still preach the remission of sins, but dare not, on pain of being deemed enthusiasts and fanatics, hold out the hope that sickness can be remitted by faith in Jesus Christ? O, church of the ascended Christ, carrying still in thy hands thy Master's commission with no clause annulled and no vestige of authority revoked, what has happened to thee that the lame must be at thy doors, and none can take him by the hand and lift him up; that the sick must pine on his couch, and never a cure must be expected by prayer of faith? Hast thou ceased to walk in the light of the sun of righteousness, that thou hast no longer any healing shadow to throw upon the sick and dying? And how is it that instead of mourning and being humbled at the loss of these apostolic gifts, thou art lifted up with self-complacency, speaking reproachfully of such as seek for their revival, and visiting them with cold rebukes? Is it occasion for pride that thou hast no healing medicine for the sick, and that thou must say to the lame and leprous, "Thy disease is incurable, and thy wounds are grievous; there is none to plead thy cause that thou mayest be bound up." But, while this truth is lost in the church, it has been held by individuals here and there who have dared to take God at His word in reference to a doctrine which had come to be despised by the mass of Christian people. Martin Luther believed it; so did John Wesley and many others. In more recent times there are some remarkable examples of those who have believed this doctrine and possessed the "Gift of Healing."

In her humble home in Switzerland, Dorothea Trudel labored in this work for over forty years, and many thousands of sick were healed of God directly in answer to her prayer of faith. Pastor Blumhardt, who labored in the Black Forest of Germany, has a similar noble record. In our own land to-day, Dr. Dowie, of Chicago, is doubtless the most notable example.

We have already spoken of his work, but desire here to answer certain questions which have come to us from many sources.

Are all who go to Dr. Dowie healed?

Are all healed instantaneously?

To both of these questions we answer emphatically, No!

We are all aware that in our efforts for the salvation of men spiritually, we may secure the wisest and most consecrated of men to preach the word, and Christians may work and pray with all diligence, and while some accept Christ instantly and joyously, and some come with slow and painful steps into the kingdom, many come seemingly to the very door of the kingdom and then turn away, leaving their spirits in the power of Satan. If they die in this state we believe they are lost. But we do not, because of this, deny that Christ has power on earth to forgive sin, nor do we blame the faithful minister. We say that each received according to his faith.

So it is in the healing of the body. The law is the same as in spiritual healing, and the same to-day that it was when Christ walked among men, "according to your faith be it unto you."

So we find that while many are healed instantaneously, some find healing slowly, and others, through lack of faith as lack of willingness to comply with God's requirements concerning consecrated living, go away unhealed, leaving their bodies in the power of the destroyer.

The kind of disease makes no difference. If one is a child of God by faith in Jesus Christ, and is willing to give up all medicines, tobacco and alcoholic stimulants, and trust wholly to God the same as in conversion, he will be healed.

So we answer another question, "Do all need to go to Dr. Dowie?"

No. Since it is clearly God's will to heal the sick, a believer may go directly to him and claim the promises. Many are so healed in their own homes. The work is God's. Christ is the healer and we receive according to our faith.

Dr. Dowie's greatest work is preaching the simple truths of the Bible, and seeking to lead men to repentance and faith in God; but, as he believes that Christ in the atonement made provision for both spirit and body (I Cor. 6: 19, 20), he teaches also Divine Healing, and God has greatly honored his ministry, both in the salvation of spirits and the healing of the sick.

Dr. Dowie makes no charges. His work is supported by thank offerings.

His address is John Alex. Dowie, 6036 Edgerton Avenue, Chicago. Those who go should correspond with him first.—Published in Clinton Democrat and Baptist Gleazer Ky.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14: 6 and Exodus 15: 26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13: 8 and Matthew 28: 20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 and Matthew 8: 17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3: 8, Matthew 4: 23 and Acts 10: 38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11: 29 and 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8: 5-13 Matthew 18: 19, James 5: 14, 15, Mark 16: 18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"AND the Lord said, Hear what the Unjust Judge saith."
—Luke 18: 7.

OUR readers will find in this issue what the Unjust Judge in Chicago said and did this morning.

THE ancient violator of his judicial oath in Jerusalem relented, and did what was right. But modern judges, in this Seat of Satan, Chicago, harden their hearts, violate their oaths, and condemn the innocent in the face of law, evidence and justice.

THESE are amongst the Signs of the Times, "Yea, And all that will live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

THE Unjust Judge, in Chicago, did not dare to support his decision by a single word of appeal to the law, or to the evidence in the case. He did not insult Reason by even attempting to give a reason. It was safer to give a judgment in as few words as possible against a minister of Christ for the crime of praying with the sick. "Fine or imprisonment" — "Your money or your liberty!" — was the decree of the Unjust Judge; and it is a sore disappointment to him, to the mercenaries of the bar, and to the doctors, who are spending the people's money in this persecution, that we are not behind the prison bars to-night. "But out of them all," we can say with Paul, "the Lord delivered me."

CHICAGO is not the United States of America, and a filthy, dirty, Justice Court is not the end of the matter. We shall, God helping us, carry our appeal from court to court, until we have reached, if necessary, the Supreme Court at Washington. We decline to believe that the representatives of the people of this country ever intended to make a law which made it a crime to follow the example and obey the commands of Christ. And that is all we have done. There is no contention to the contrary. We shall never surrender the right to obey God in any spot of the world he made.

HOW THE Devil hates Divine Healing!
When Christ gave sight to a man born blind, the Devil inspired the Sacred Council of the Church of God to revile the Saviour, and to excommunicate the man who would not revile Him also: for they "had agreed already that if any man did confess that He was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue." And they did it too.

Are there not Churches to-day who do the same thing with members who speak of Christ as their Healer? We know there are.

How the Devil hates Divine Healing!

WHEN Peter and John opened the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, by the healing through faith in Jesus of the man lame from birth, they were arrested by order of "the priests" and spent that night in prison. But the miracle and the sermon won "about 5000 men" to Christ: for "the Word of God is not bound," and the Work of God will triumph over all the Works of the Devil.

History ever repeats itself, and the false shepherds of Israel to-day are "grieved" when they see the people healed, and labour hard to imprison the man and woman who dare to follow the apostolic footsteps.

THE cowardly doctors of the State Board of Health have determined to prosecute our gentle wife, as will be seen by the report of the last day of our trial on page 309.

Her case for "practicing medicine without a license" was called up by the Unjust Judge; but we at once demanded "a change of venue." The case is now carried to the court of Justice Underwood, and is set for February 9th, with the understanding that it is to be adjourned to the 16th inst.

Truly, the vendors of poison and pills, and the hordes of surgical butchers in Chicago are proving their cowardice in a very significant manner when they want to fine or imprison a Christian lady for praying with the sick in the name of Jesus. And these are gentlemen, forsooth! Then where are the human serpents, who are lower than the beasts, if they are not to be found in the skins of these degenerate creatures? Where are your mothers, your wives, and your daughters, that they do not shame you from your task of persecuting a noble and devoted wife and mother, who has devoted her life to the cause of Christ, and the succoring of the poor, the sick, the sinful, and the sorrowing. Call off, for shame's sake, the legal curs whom ye have employed to drive her into the Courts and to prison!

ZION TABERNACLE was crowded to excess last Lord's Day, notwithstanding the intense cold of weather below zero. Warm, loving hearts were there, who responded to our every word in an important address, which we hope to publish in our next issue. Many testified to their healing through faith in Jesus. One young man, blind from birth in the left eye, testified to God having given him sight through our agency. A young woman, whose leg had been short from infancy, testified that God had lengthened it no less than five inches, within three days in Divine Healing Home No. 1. There were many other wonderful testimonies to the presence and power of Christ in our midst, and "there was much joy" in Zion Tabernacle.

THE three Divine Healing Homes are all open, and we have many guests from all parts of the land. The statements published in the Chicago Tribune and other papers, that No. 1 was closed, was an absolute falsehood, designed to keep guests from coming. But our Happy Homes go quietly forward; and there are no disturbances here. They only exist in the fertile imagination of a lying press in the center of the city, seven miles from the Homes.

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US."

DIVINE HEALING HOME.

See Illustration Page 315

THE Divine Healing Home of which we present a view to our readers on page 11 is personally conducted by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

It is situated in a quiet avenue within a block of Jackson Park, where the World's Fair was recently held, and is close to Midway Plaisance. It is only a few hundred feet distant from the Sixtieth Street Station of the Illinois Central Railway. The central part of the city of Chicago, seven miles distant, is reached by express trains in fifteen minutes. The terminus of the Sixty-first Street Electric cars connecting with the Wabash Avenue and State Street cable lines, is only one block west. The Sixty-third Street electric cars come within two blocks and the Elevated Railway is three blocks south on Stony Island Avenue and Sixty-third Street. Beautiful walks and drives in the parks and by the lake shore and pleasant boating in steam launches on the lagoons of Jackson Park are accessible. The location is one of the most convenient and pleasant in the city.

The Home is neither a hospital nor a hotel but just what its name implies, "a home." The President and his family make it their private home and all its inmates are treated as his private guests. Services of praise, prayer and teaching of the Word of God are held twice daily in a large assembly room and private interviews are given as often as possible. In addition to these services, Dr. Dowie usually meets the guests several times in each week for special healing services. No charges are made for his personal ministrations and the rates are only for table board and room accommodation. These rates can be procured on application.

The guests in Divine Healing Home No. 2, which is close to the Tabernacle on East Sixty-second Street, are also invited to all the privileges of the principal Home. It is only two blocks distant from the principal Home.

The Home has been established for the purpose of receiving.

First. The sick children of God who are seeking Him alone for the healing in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit; and Second. Those who are receiving instruction in God's way of healing as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

It is desirable that those who wish to come should arrange in advance with the President for their reception as sometimes there is not room enough to receive all applicants.

God has very abundantly blessed the Home, which, in the opinion of all who have entered it, is beautifully furnished and adapted for the purpose for which it has been established. It was opened upon the first of May last and has been almost continuously filled, frequently to overflowing, ever since; so much so, that the house next to the Tabernacle has had to be refurnished and is now also at this writing quite full of guests. The furnishings of the Homes are almost entirely new and have cost in all nearly $8,000 which the Lord has graciously provided to the uttermost farthing.

It may interest friends at a distance to explain that the group in front of the Home consists, first, of Dr. Dowie and his wife, who are seated. Their son and daughter stand immediately behind them in the center and the Rev. S.

J. Harrison, Dr. Dowie's Assistant and Manager of the Publishing House, Mr. D. C. Alton, Financial Secretary, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, Private Secretary, and Mr. Chas. Canode, Foreman of the printing office, complete the central group of eight persons. To the right of these are Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, Janitor of the Tabernacle, and Matron of Home No. 2, with housemaids, laundress, cooks and janitor of Divine Healing Home. On the left of the central group are a number of the guests who happened at that time to be in the Home. The first three ladies are from Florida, Illinois and Wisconsin, and as the group is further examined we see persons from Iowa, Kentucky, Canada, Colorado and other parts of America. It is a fair representation of the gatherings in the Home, of those who have come from all parts to seek the Lord for healing. It would not become us to speak in terms of praise of the management and the attractiveness of the Home, further than to say that we have known of none who have not come into it with pleasure and left it with reluctance, expressing their gratitude and desire to again come under its roof. It has been a great joy to us to have been honored by the Lord in establishing so pleasant a retreat for his suffering children.

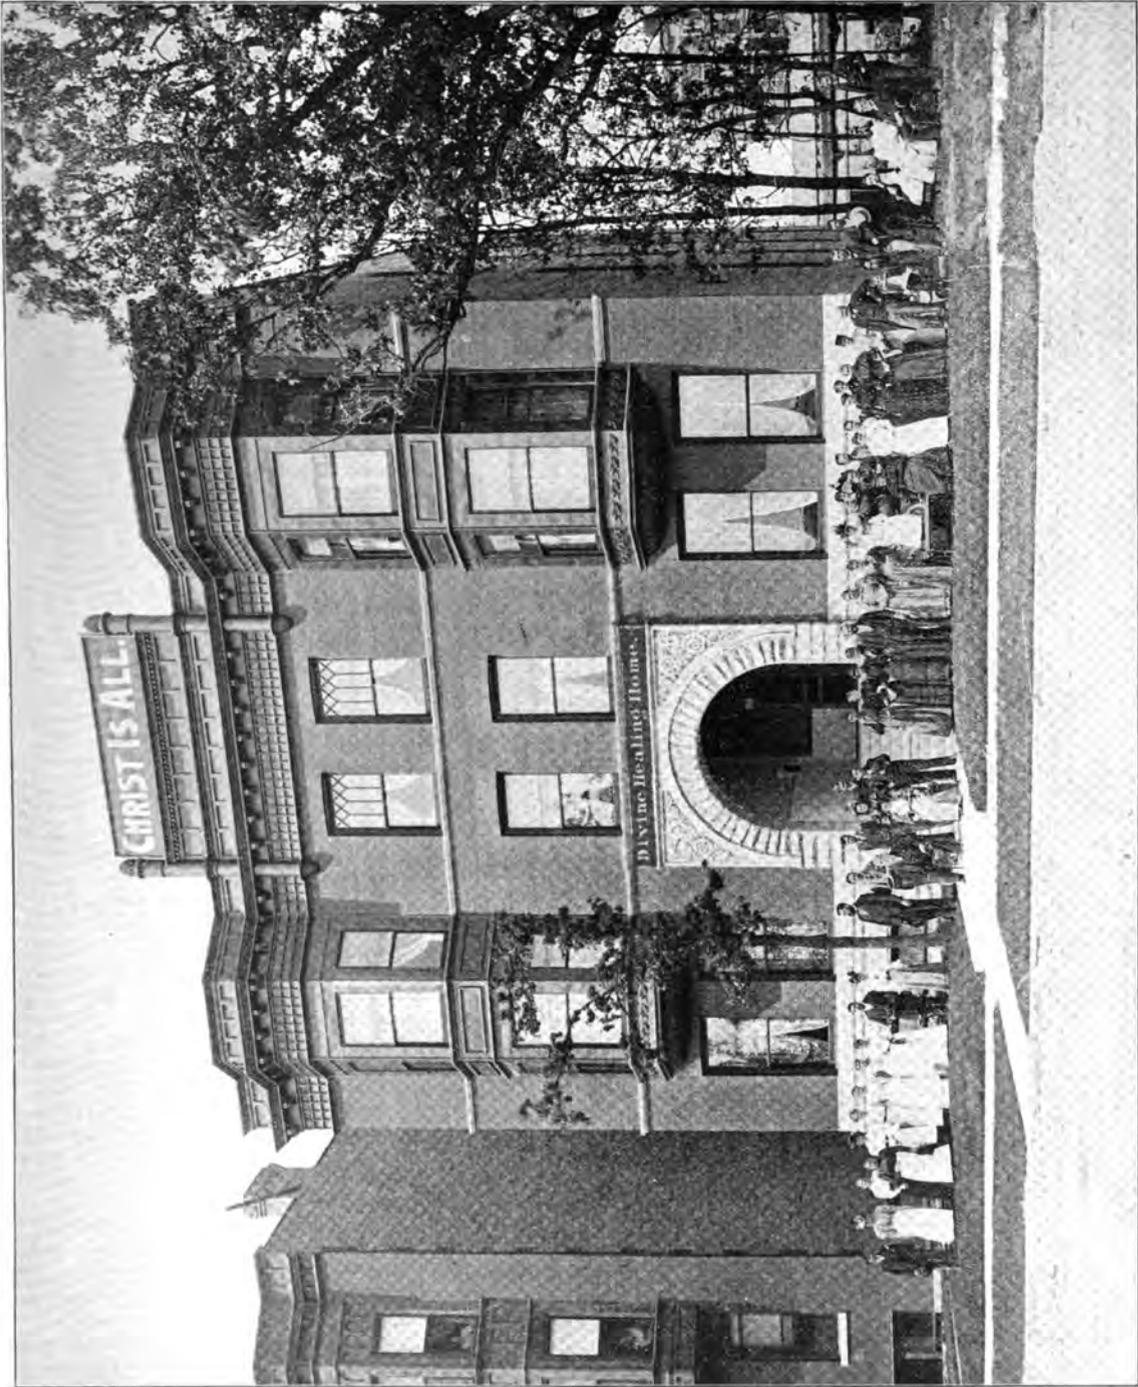

The experience now being gained by Doctor and Mrs. Dowie in the management of these Homes will be of great value to them in the establishment of more permanent institutions in connection with the work in Chicago and elsewhere. Already it is evident that larger facilities would bring increased blessings and a Home of two hundred and fifty rooms (we have at present about seventy in the two Homes) could be easily filled. The boarding houses in the neighborhood have had large numbers of guests who have been unable to find accommodation in the Divine Healing Home, as many as one hundred having been known to take rooms in the vicinity.

The Morning Talks and the special seasons of prayer are seasons of continuous interest and the many testimonies of those of the guests who have been healed in the Homes and in the Prayer Room of the Tabernacle add much to the enjoyment of the guests.

As we write these words we look once more at the picture and think of the joy connected with many of these cases. The first lady in it, Mrs. Benham, of Crescent City, Fla., who was sick for many years and had not been able to go up stairs in her own home nor to go to church once in six years, is now enabled to attend all the meetings in the Tabernacle, in the Home and to have her room on the third floor of the building.

The second lady in the group, Mrs. John Hayden, of Dixon, Ill., was blind and now sees, was unable to walk, suffering from locomotor ataxia, and was instantaneously and perfectly healed in the Home. The lady next to her, Mrs. Maggie Parsons, of Madison, Wis., was also perfectly healed as she testifies, after many years of suffering; and the dear little girl, Ethel Foley, of Chicago, standing upon the garden seat in the center, whose right leg had a large tumor, and was paralyzed, is now perfectly healed and able to run about without crutch or brace. Similar stories might be told of others in the group.

Rejoicing in what has already been wrought by God within these walls, we send forth this little picture on its mission, praying that God may raise up still larger and more suitable buildings for His sick ones and enable us to be more useful in this portion of His service.

CROWNING PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING FOR 1894.

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON LORD'S DAY AFTER-NOON, DEC. 30, 1894, AT 3 P. M.

A TOUCHING STORY OF A BABY'S HEALING TOLD BY THE MOTHER.

Taking a bright, little child in her arms, Mrs. Deist said: "This is my baby that was born sick. She only weighed two and a half pounds, and we looked right away from the very first of her life to the doctors. We had seven doctors for her up to the time that I came to Dr. Dowie, and there was no help for her. The first doctor said that she might get well when she was a year old, but she did not. The poor, little body was so sick we would have been glad to have seen her taken, but she would not die. Instead, the oldest, a dear little boy, who was the treasure of our home, was taken; a child that never was sick, nor knew of any suffering; that child was taken, and the sick body, which everybody thought would die, was left behind. Friends, if anything can draw heaven and earth together, it is a dear little body that is taken from you that you worship, and that was a dear little body, smart as a whip and pretty as a picture, the idol of everybody's heart, but this little body kept on suffering. She began to turn sore inside and outside, the doctors claimed, and many times I did not know how to touch and handle the poor little body. She would use thirty napkins, using three at a time, and there was no medicine which could help her out of this misery. There was no chance for her improvement. She would eat heartily and pass accordingly. When I wanted to lift her up, and take hold of her little arms, it seemed as if I would pull the arms out of her body, and the first year of her life I handled her on a pillow to keep her body together. When she was about seven months old, she started to cut her first tooth. It took three months, but at last it came out. She suffered very much, and when I brought her to Dr. Dowie she had only seven teeth. She had made no progress in walking or talking, and was not bright or strong in any way. When she was seventeen or eighteen months old I tried very hard to get her on her feet, because I thought she was old enough, and she would eat heartily, more than I could manage at a meal, or my husband, but it gave her no strength. Then I learned, when she was twenty-two months old, that the Lord was the Healer, and I at once took my baby, and she was healed. The next morning I picked her up from the bed dry and clean, and I do not believe it had happened six times previous. She continued so during the day, and was strong and walked. I took her little hand and she would walk, and was glad to do it when she could. Three times she picked herself off the floor. It seemed as though she would never use her legs, and we were trying to get braces for her, but now she is healed, and is as bright as any child can be, strong and hearty, and eats nicely."

CONFIRMED BY HER HUSBAND.

Dr. Dowie then asked Mr. Deist to confirm the testimony of his wife, and he said briefly:—"I think that everything my wife has said is true. She is more of a speaker than I am, she being a woman and I am a man, but it is all true."

Dr. Dowie started to say that Mrs. Deist had herself been healed of a stiff joint, when he was interrupted by Mrs. Deist who begged the privilege of telling her own story about that.

HEALED OF A THIRTY-YEAR'S DISEASED LEG.

She said:—"I want to explain to you my suffering which was of thirty years standing. The worst of my suffering happened when I was eleven years old. They performed an operation and wanted to take off my leg at the hip. My parents said they would rather see me dead than have my leg taken off. The bone was scraped, and from that time my leg began to grow stiff. I laid for over a year on the bed, and then I was able to limp around, but was stiff and helpless and every now and then my leg would break out, and that was the case from early this spring until I came here, and I was healed at once, and I am glad to say it kept on being healed more and more. My brother is a doctor, Dr. Henry Waller. He wanted another operation, but I said I would sooner die, and he said, "Then you will have to suffer." The Lord did not think so."

Dr. Dowie asked her if she could bend it and Mrs. Deist gave an illustration of the fact that it was perfectly pliable.

HEALING OF CANCER ON THE FACE.

Mr. R. F. Palm, of 588 W. Harrison Street, was introduced and spoke as follows:—"I was healed of cancer on my right cheek. Two years ago in January I went to see Dr. Dowie. The cancer was of two year's standing. I had heard of Divine Healing and expected the Lord to heal it. I knew how it would be if the Lord healed it, He would not get the glory, so I went to Rush Medical College so that if it was healed I could refer to them. It was pronounced a cancer and the doctor said, "A man of your age ought to have it taken out right away. I suppose you want it done at once;" but I said, "No, I expect the Lord to heal it." He said the Lord would use him as an instrument to take it out. I told him the Lord would get along very well without him. He asked me how long I thought it would take to heal it, and I told him I thought it would drop off in a week's time. In a week's time it was not gone, but I said, "I will hang on to the Lord, I believe He will heal it yet." After it was gone I went to him, and when he examined he said, "Yes, Praise the Lord it is all gone." The cancer was larger than a half dollar and stood out a half inch from the cheek. It was open and suppurating and was going to eat away the whole face. I was healed, and for two years there has not been a sign of cancer on my face."

DR. SPEICHER'S TESTIMONY.

Dr. Dowie said:—"Dr. Speicher is our "house-father" in Home No. 3. The Lord has healed him. Before he was healed he was practicing medicine, but now he is preparing for the ministry at the Chicago University. We would like him to say a few words."

Dr. Speicher said:—"I have some things to blame the Doctor for. I think he has been talking very hard about the physicians to-day. He not only takes their patients away, but abuses them besides. Six years ago he took some patients away from me. I tried to heal them and got all the money I could. But they went to California and they told me they were healed by the Lord instantly, through Dr. Dowie's agency. I did not believe it, it was the climate I said, and kept on poking in the pills. The Lord, however, led me to give up medicine, and told me to preach the gospel. While in Chicago, I fell in with Dr. Dowie's doctrines, but I had not given up medicines. I said, "I am going to preach the gospel but I will keep on with medicine as it will be a saving, and we will never have to pay any doctor's bills. I do not believe the word's he has spoken about doctors and drugs are too strong, or strong enough. Ten years ago when I had been in the practice of medicine two years, I was troubled with a tumor so that I could scarcely get about my work. I had no confidence in the doctors in the neighborhood, so I went to Cincinnati to a private hospital. Do not say too much about a hospital until you know all about it. I would not take chloroform, and went through the operation without anything because I was afraid they would kill me. It was a private hospital, and I had paid for my treatment, but after the operation they left me in a dark room until eight o'clock the next morning, and I pretty nearly died from a hemorrhage. I stayed four weeks. Yes, I was healed; but I did not feel very much gratitude in my heart. The professor was partially drunk, but that is the trouble with most of them. I know what I am saying. I was disgusted with my associates in medicine, there are but a few good men among them. Then last spring, when I was attending school, I was taken down with another tumor. What should I do? I had had one experience with the doctors and had given up medicine, but there was the prayer of faith. The pain was instantly removed, and then the tumor went away and I was freed from it by God. If Dr. Dowie did nothing else than teach you people to give up medicine, he would be doing a grand work for the world."

HEALING OF A MAJOR OF THE GRAND ARMY.

Dr. Dowie said,—"We will now hear from a brother connected with the Grand Army, Major A. D. Root, of 521 Lee Street, Evanston."

He said:—"My trouble began in 1864 from a gun shot wound. Two ounce bullets entered my body and one passed out, and I do not know where the other is. It produced partial paralysis of mind and body which increased gradually until I was in a state of absolute collapse, and at times helpless. I went to the physicians but they had no encouragement for me. They said the result would be that it would wear me out and I would be obliged to give it up and die, or worse, that I would be helpless and unable to control mind or body. That ran along for about twenty years, till I got sick and tired of it and went to God, and God healed me of it all, as far as I know. Since hearing the teaching of Dr. Dowie I have been greatly benefited and am now in perfect physical health, and have perfect control of mind and body. My family and friends doubted it and I was examined by physicians, but now that the Lord has healed me they have learned to understand that I am all right. I am very strong and rugged and I know that God healed me, and to Him be all the glory. I want to acknowledge the kindness and sympathy exhibited toward me by Dr. Dowie and his family. I have no fear, because God keeps me."

A YOUNG MAN HEALED OF SEVEN YEARS SPINAL INJURIES.

Mr. Earnest Edward Harwood, of 107 Best Avenue, said:—"I want you people all to see me. I am healed; the Lord has healed me, and He shall get all the praise. Seven years ago I fell from a turning pole and injured my back. The devil got hold of me and I suffered for seven years with pain in my back. For six weeks I could hardly get off from my bed and could not sit up more than a half hour at a time. The doctors put a brace on me but it did no good, and the only thing remaining was to put on a plaster cast. Look at it everyone of you. There it is. (Pointing to the cast hanging on the wall behind the platform.) I took it off, and Dr. Dowie laid hands on me on Wednesday, and I received immediate strength and have been gaining ever since. Praise the Lord, I am well and I will give Him my life and He shall do what He will with me."

HEALED OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION.

Mr. George F. Yeager, of Arcadia, Wis., testified:—"I had heard of this Divine Healing Institution at different times but my attention was brought more fully to it two weeks ago last Sunday, and I immediately concluded this was the place I wanted to go to. I told mother I would come back well, I was going to be healed. I arrived here and got to the Home on Monday and made arrangements to stay. Dr. Dowie had prayed with me twice, and I was much better. I had nervous exhaustion, resulting from too much mental labor at school. For two years I was unable to take up a paper and read for a few minutes without causing extreme headache. I was unable to attend any public meeting and stay more than an hour without causing great trouble, and now I have been out three times a day every day. I believe this Divine Healing Institution is doing much good, I know it is, and the Lord is blessing me now. The lady whose healing brought me here, was Mrs. Clavatscher, from Sauk City, Wis. A gentleman visited Baraboo and stopped with my people at home, and told this story. She had cancer of the stomach, and at the hour appointed for prayer she prayed at home with the others, and the Doctor prayed here, and she was healed immediately. This together with a few other instances convinced me that this was the right place, and I thought the Bible taught this anyhow. This lady's story was told in English and German in the LEAVES."

HEALED OF PARALYSIS.

Mr. J. C. Post, 525 Sheffield Avenue, said:—"The 10th of last July I had a stroke of paralysis, and the doctor said I must never think of engaging in business, and as I looked out on the coming winter it looked very dark. During this time my sister, daughter-in-law and my wife were getting up a conspiracy on me. The first thing I knew they had a blank request for prayer put under my nose to fill out and sign. I declined doing so, and thought a Christian man for thirty years ought to know how to get to Christ without asking assistance, but they prevailed and overcame. I came to Zion Tabernacle on the last Wednesday in September. Up to that time I had not been able to attend to any business whatever, but I came here and met Dr. Dowie in the prayer room, and went home that evening. The next day my wife said to me, "You are healed, are you not?" And I said that I was. I had thought that I could never engage in business any more, I am a painter, paper hanger and calciminer, but during the week a gentleman of our city said he would like me to oversee some work he wanted done, and I told him I would be ready to go on Monday morning, notwithstanding my doctor said I could never engage in business, and I put in twelve weeks of solid work. I lost no time except on Sunday, and I praise God He has healed me, soul and body."

HEALED OF CANCER.

The hour was late, and Dr. Dowie asked those who had been healed, on the front row, to rise. Mrs. Casey gave her address as 5741 Emerald Avenue, and said she had been healed of cancer in the left breast. She said she had eighteen cancers, and there was not a vestige of the trouble left.

HEALED OF ALCOHOLISM AND TOBACCO HABITS AFTER FIFTY YEARS' INDULGENCE.

Her father, Edward Sullivan, of 5914 LaSalle Street, confirmed her testimony, and added:—"I came down here to hear Dr. Dowie; my daughter, who was so wonderfully healed, wanted to make a good boy of me. I had been smoking and drinking for fifty years. The first time Dr. Dowie laid hands upon me I was healed of alcoholism and tobacco, and I feel well in body."

HEALED OF CONSUMPTION.

Then Miss Hilda Norin gave her address as 6020 Edgerton Avenue, and Dr. Dowie asked her to tell about her healing. "I was healed from consumption," she said. "I was unable to work when I heard of Dr. Dowie, but I went to him, and he prayed for me, and now I am doing steady work, and hard work, too, for over two years."

Dr. Dowie added: "Hilda is one of our cooks. She came to us almost dying of consumption. She was healed, and, I may say, with one assistant she does all the cooking in Home No. 1. She works from morning till night, and is in magnificent health."

HEALED OF FEVER.

Miss Gerda Johnson, also from Home No. 1, said:—"I had a very high fever, and the Doctor prayed for me, and I was healed." Dr. Dowie said: "She was brought to us by Mr. Peterson. She did not know much English, but she was added to our staff of servants. All of our maids are healed as soon as they come to God for it."

HEALED OF SCALDING.

Mr. A. M. Kelley, of Toledo, Ohio, said he had been healed of many different things, and he said that in their family they had not only healing, but the Healer. He said:—"I want to speak of one case especially. I was talking on Divine Healing one day at the table, and a lady got very much excited. In her excitement she put a bowl of boiling oyster broth before me, and I filled my mouth, and realized at once that I was badly burned. I said, "Lord, this will never do. Heal me!" And I got the healing immediately, and felt no pain. The skin peeled off in spots, but I felt no pain."

LA MANIÈRE COMME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'ÉDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: "Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie," et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophî, ou "Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut." (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'"Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours" et Lui est toujours avec nous, parcequ'il dit: "Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde." (Hébreux 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'"Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. "Sûrement ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissions," et c'est expressément déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaïe 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint "pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable" et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui "guérit toutes maladies" et tous ces maux ont été expressément déclarés d'avoir été "l'oppression du Diable." (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanents.

C'est expressément déclaré que "Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir," et les Dons de la Guérison sont parmi les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5—13. Matthieu 18: 9. Jacques 5: 14, 15. Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposée aux Fausseseries Diaboliques.

Parmi celles-ci y il a la Science Chrétienne (faussement appelée) Guérison du Sentiment, du Spiritualisme, de l'Extase de l'Évangélisme etcetera. (Timothée 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothée 4: 1, 2, Isaïe 51: 22, 23.)

Des Multitudes ont été guéries par la Foie de Jesu.

L'écrivain, connaît des milliers de cas, et il a personnellement posé ses propres mains, sur des vingtaines de milliers de personnes. Des informations complètes peuvent être obtenues aux réunions qui ont lieu dans le Tabernacle de Zion, 251 E. 62 Street, près du Parc Jackson, à Chicago, et grace à beaucoup de pamphlets qui en démontrent l'expérience par leurs paroles et par beaucoup de personnes qui ont été guéries dans ce pays et dans d'autres; et qui ont été publiés par la Maison Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Avenue à Chicago.

IL MODO COME DIO GUARISCE I MALI.

DALL' EDITORE.

Il modo come Dio guarisce, è una persona, non una cosa.

Gesù disse: "Io sono la Via, la Verità e la Vita," e si è sempre rivelato al Suo popolo in ogni epoca col Nome Covenant Jehovah-rophî, o "Io sono il Signore la tua Salute. (Giovanni 14: 6 e gli Esortî 15: 26.)

Il Signore Gesù è sempre Colui che guarisce.

Egli non può cambiare perchè "Egli è lo stesso, di ieri, di oggi e per sempre," ed Egli è sempre con noi, perchè disse: "Ecco, Io sono sempre con voi infino alla fine del mondo." (Ebrei 13: 8 e Matteo 28: 20.) Perchè Egli è presente, nello spirito come nella carne. Egli è Colui che guarisce il Suo popolo.

Il Guarire Divino sta nella Riconciliazione di Cristo.

Lui profetizzò: "Sicuramente fu Lui che soffrì i nostri dolori e con i suoi gastighi noi guariamo," ed è espressamente dichiarato che ciò si compì mediante il Suo Ministero di Guarire, che continua ancora. (Isaia 53: 4, 5 e Matteo 8: 17.)

Il Male non può mai essere la Volontà di Dio.

E opera del Diavolo, la conseguenza del peccato, ed è impossibile che l'opera del Diavolo sia mai la Volontà di Dio.

Cristo venne "per distruggere l'opera del Diavolo," e quando Egli "guarì ogni malattia" e tutti questi mali sono espressamente dichiarati di essere stati "l'oppressione del Diavolo." (1 Giovanni 3: 8, Matteo 4: 23 e gli Atti 10: 38.)

I Doni del Guarire sono Permanenti.

E espressamente dichiarato che "I Doni e le appellazioni di Dio sono privi di pentimento," ed i Doni del Guarire sono fra i Nove Doni dello Spirito e della Chiesa. (Romani 11: 29 e 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Ci sono Quattro Modi del Guarire Divino.

Il primo consiste nel rivolgere la preghiera di fede, il secondo preghiere intercessorie di due o più persone, il terzo l'unzione degli anziani nella preghiera della fede, ed il quarto nel posare le mani su coloro che credono, e pei quali Dio ha preparato e chiamato a quel ministero. (Matteo 8: 5—13, Matteo 18: 19, Giacomo 5: 14, 15, Marco 16: 18.)

Il Guarire Divino è opposto alle Falsificazioni Diaboliche.

Fra questi sono la Scienza Christiana (chiamata falsamente), Guarizione della Mente, Spiritualismo, Estasi, Evangelismo eccetera. (Timoteo 6: 20, 21, 1 Timoteo 4: 1, 2, Isaia 51: 22, 23.)

Delle Multitudini sono state guarite dalla Fede in Gesù.

Lo scrittore, conosce migliaia di casi ed ha personalmente posto le sue proprie mani su ventine di migliaia di persone. Complete informazioni si possono ottenere alli riunioni tenute nel Tabernacolo di Zion, 251 E. 62 Strate, vicino al Parco Jackson, Chicago, e per mezzo di molti panfletti che ne dimostrano l'esperienza colle loro parole e da molti che sono stati guariti in questo ed altri paesi; pubblicati dalla Casa Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

A FALSE CHRIST.

AN INTERVIEW WITH JACOB SCHWEINFURTH, THE ROCKFORD MESSIAH.

BY THE EDITOR.

SHORTLY after my arrival from Australia in 1888, I heard in San Francisco that the second advent of Christ had been proclaimed, and heaven on earth had been established on a farm about six miles south of Rockford, a city in Illinois, ninety-eight miles from Chicago. I determined that when opportunity should offer I would investigate the claims of this false Christ, the only accounts of whose proceedings that I had then heard having been given through the unreliable columns of the newspaper press. Accordingly I left Chicago early on the morning of Wednesday, July 29th, and soon after noon, accompanied by two other persons, I drove out to the Schweinfurth "heaven."

Rockford is denominated the "Forrest City," and rightly so. Passing through its leafy beauties we entered upon one of the most picturesque drives, through a rich country, to the south of that city. The season of the year was one which enabled us to see the country in all the luxuriance of the coming harvest. We drove through sweet-smelling lanes of white clover growing in places to the height of five feet and upwards, with a magnificent prospect of the Rock River valley. We arrived in due time at the well kept grounds of the alleged "Messiah." A carefully clipped lawn and well laid out tennis ground skirted the drive from the road up to the mansion of the so called "blessed." The house is a large and roomy one, shaded by numerous trees, and surrounded by a well kept garden. It has the appearance of a private hotel of a good class, with large and well constructed out-houses and stables; an air of neatness, and ease, and comfort pervading all. As we drove slowly up to the house we observed that there were a number of women at the windows of the upper rooms (the house is a two story one), all of whom were dressed in white, and blinds were rapidly pulled down in all directions, although we observed fingers holding them back, and eyes peeping out in several quarters. Arriving at the principal door we were met by a tall, aged man, dressed in black with a white necktie, in the style of a deacon of the old school. He courteously informed us that as the steps had just been newly painted, we would be received at another entrance—to which we repaired. Here the door was opened by a young woman in a white robe similar to those I have seen worn by the Hawaiian ladies, and called—if I remember rightly—"Hula." In response to my inquiry for Mr. Schweinfurth and as to whether it would be agreeable for him to have an interview with me, she invited us in and said she thought it would. Passing through a very diminutive hall we entered an elegantly furnished room tastefully upholstered with rich carpeting, and a broad carved staircase in the center. Down this stair-case came the so-called "Christ," attended by a lady much taller than himself, dressed in rich black silk and lace, with heavy gold-bangled bracelets, and fashionably arranged hair. These two were accompanied by a little girl about six years of age who presented a striking likeness to Mr. Schweinfurth, having his very pronounced red hair, but whom he subsequently informed me was the daughter of the lady accompanying him, whom he introduced as Mrs. Tuttle. These three, with the venerable old deacon (I think he was introduced to us as Mr. Weldon; did the honors of the reception room in a very pleasant manner. The young lady attired in white, known (we were informed) as one of the "angels" who abode in this so-called "heaven," introduced us to Mrs. Tuttle, the tall lady accompanying Mr. Schweinfurth. She in turn introduced us to Mr. Schweinfurth and the grave old "deacon." I was then pointedly asked my name and had no sooner given it as "Dowie" than the whole party at once displayed great interest and almost in a breath said, "O, Dr. Dowie, the divine healer. We have heard of you from many places, and heard what you said in Minneapolis," etc. When we had taken our seats and spoken a few words regarding the press and the reports of public men, I at once opened the conversation which continued without intermission for the next two hours and a half, and of which I can only give a brief outline in this article.

The personal description of Mr. Schweinfurth as he sat before me may be here given. He is of short stature and slender build, with hair of almost fiery red, short clipped beard, mustache and whiskers. His face is small; his eye dull and without spiritual expression, even when most animated.

Again and again his cool self-restraint, (which was only maintained by a continuous effort) was broken up and the tell-tale blood rushed to his face showing that he had been hard hit, and as he wiped the perspiration from his brow it was evident that the conversation had broken up his alleged habitual composure. His attire and appearance in all respects was a complete reversal of all conceptions of our incarnate Lord. Dressed in a fashionable light summer suit, without waistcoat, with a broad belt fastened by a large silver buckle around his waist, with his feet encased in elegant shoes and silk stockings, and with his bosom presenting several square feet of spotless shirt front ornamented with three large diamond studs and his neck encircled by a fashionable collar with a large fashionable necktie spreading out upon the spotless linen, he seemed with his carefully curled hair, to be a kind of human poodle dog petted by a bevy of silly women, rather than an ideal man of sorrows and sympathies, as the Christ of yore, and by no means a kingly presentation of the Christ who comes to reign.

With the little girl perched upon his knee, he began the interview by asking me as to my opinions concerning the condition of the church throughout the world, and it was evident at many points that he was exceedingly eager to get information. He is evidently as yet only practicing for a part that he hopes to play upon a large scale, and he is being very carefully trained by the intelligent Mrs. Tuttle who impressed me throughout the whole interview as being, not only his equal, but by far his superior in intelligence, and indeed the presiding genius of the whole blasphemous scheme—Jacob Schweinfurth being in her hands (as he had been in those of the late Mrs. Beckman) only as clay to the potter.

As the conversation grew serious the little girl was dismissed, and it was evident that they were both soon in deep waters and swimming for their lives. Through partly opened doors which surrounded the large reception room, we could see fitting white robed forms and hear subdued voices which made me think (and those in my party confirmed my impression) that we were being listened to by quite a number of the inhabitants of this "heaven."

Having answered his questions I took the questioner's place and held the conversation from that time. Getting from him his impressions of the church throughout the world, I asked him how far his personal knowledge extended, and was informed, (just as I might have been by an ordinary human being) that it was limited to ministration principally in the country districts in the State of Illinois, and surrounding states, and it was quite evident from his reply, that he had only the faintest conception of the magnitude of the operations of the Church of God, and of the progress of the work of Missions, both at home and abroad. He admitted this, and I pointed out to him at once how he had failed to understand the real position in many points, but this portion of the interview, was evidently on his part as it was on mine, merely preparatory fencing, and he was evidently watching me as to how I would open the graver matter connected with his astounding claims. He showed no eagerness to discuss his claims until the subject was forced upon him, and from this point I think it will be better if I give the conversation in the form of a dialogue, the accuracy of which I have taken pains to preserve.

Mr. Dowie: You will pardon me, Mr. Schweinfurth, if I at once ask you to enter upon the subject of yourself and your claims, the public declaration of which has caused me to make this visit to you to-day.

S. Certainly, Doctor. I am willing that you should ask me any questions that you please.

D. Is it true that you claim to be the incarnation of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, the eternal word which became flesh, and dwelt on earth nineteen centuries ago, whose life is recorded in the four gospels, who died on the cross, rose from the grave, and re-ascended into the heavens? Do you declare that you are that Christ who came to this earth, and that I am speaking to God manifest in the flesh. (While I uttered these words with great solemnity, fastening my eyes upon him, he drew himself together almost in fear as it seemed. Rapidly collecting himself, but yet with great effort, he paused for a few seconds before he answered.)

S. I AM HE. (For fully half a minute I sat looking at him, and then said):

D. Then, if you are the Christ, you must also claim, as the second person of the Godhead, that in you dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and you are the incarnation of the Eternal Father and the Eternal Spirit.

S. I do.

D. Now to take a trifling matter. Is it not a fact that you did not know me as John Alexander Dowie, nor the names of the ladies sitting here who have accompanied me, until their names were given?

S. I admit that, but you have a wrong conception as to the Christ.

D. Presuming that you have answered my questions truly, and that you were Him whom you claim to be, you would have had no need that I should tell you who I am and what I think, since Christ, when He was here on earth "needed not that any man should tell Him, for He knew what was in man." He was omniscient, and you must be, if you are He. You ought to know more about me, in short, than I know about myself.

S. Perhaps I do.

D. Very well. Now tell me where I was born, what my life has been, where I have labored, my age, the name of my wife, the number of my family, etc. In short, prove to me your knowledge of my outward life, and then I will ask you regarding my inward and spiritual life.

(At this point, making a rapid gesture, Mrs. Tuttle, who had been sitting very uneasily fanning herself, and observing the sweat which had broken out upon the false Christ's brow, and which it took him much of his time to wipe away, interposed.)

Mrs. Tuttle. Oh, Dr. Dowie, you entirely misunderstand. The Christ never witnesses for himself. He never proclaimed himself. I (she said, drawing herself up proudly, and pointing to him patronizingly) proclaimed him to be the Christ. He knew it not, but I proclaimed him, for God revealed him unto me.

(This interruption had given Mr. Schweinfurth time to recover himself from my rapidly and earnestly asked string of questions, to none of which he ever ventured an answer, and with an affected calm and assumption of quiet dignity, he said with diabolical coolness.)

S. I witness not for myself, and no man can come unto me except the Father which hath sent me, draw him.

D. Yes, you are quoting the words of Christ, but you must remember that He manifested His Divinity by His words and works, and appealed to both as justifying His claims, for He did claim that all men should honor Him even as they honored the Father. Now by what words or works do you justify your claims to divinity?

Mrs. T. (Again bursting in for his protection, and gathering him under her wing, metaphorically, as a frightened mother hen would when she saw an ugly hawk or eagle near.) Oh, Dr. Dowie, you do not begin to understand.

D. Then, madam, I am here to give you an opportunity to make me understand. Is he indeed the Christ?

Mrs. T. You must first believe before you can understand. Mr. Schweinfurth has opened to us the Scriptures in such a way as to prove his absolute knowledge of all that they contain, and his interpretation of them has proved his divinity. I have seen in him the man child spoken of in Revelation 12. I have seen the great sign in the heaven: a woman arrayed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. I have seen this woman, who was with child, and she cried out, travailing in birth and in pain to be delivered. I have seen her delivered of this man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, and (pointing to Mr. S., she said impressively, with the air of a tragedy queen) this is he.

D. Who was the woman? Was it Mrs. Beckman, the founder of this sect?

Mrs. T. She was the woman, and he is the man child of whom she was spiritually delivered.

(Let me in passing here say that Mrs. Beckman was the founder of this sect, and declared herself to be the woman spoken of in Revelation 12. She was the wife of a Congregational minister, and persuaded her weak, erring husband to admit her Divine claims. Subsequently she sent him out on a mission, and adopted this Jacob Schweinfurth, who was then a probationer preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, living in the vicinity of Byron, Illinois, not far from the place where we were then speaking.)

Some time ago she died, and this was a great blow to her followers, but Mr. Schweinfurth declared that her spirit had passed into him, and that he was her re-incarnation. He had for some time accompanied her on her journeyings, and their relations to each other were unfavorably commented upon by those who knew them best.

S. (With an almost ludicrous solemnity.) I am he.

D. Well, Mr. Schweinfurth, if you are He, and you are the Eternal God manifest in the flesh, you will have no difficulty whatever in satisfying me as to your claims, if you can only present to me some adequate proofs—I will leave you to decide of what nature these shall be—only let them be manifestly divine.

S. I witness not of myself.

D. Oh, that is utter nonsense. Christ manifested himself before and after his resurrection by many infallible proofs. He changed the water into wine; He miraculously increased the loaves and fishes and fed the multitude; He calmed the stormy sea, and controlled the winds and waves; He healed the sick of every kind; He raised the dead, and He proclaimed the gospel that drew all men unto Him, and that made even His enemies to say, "Never man spake like this man;" that made Nicodemus to say, "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher sent from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him."

S. (Sueringly.) Ha, ha, you are in the kindergarten stage of your conception of Christ. Healings and such things as you speak of are of small account to me. These are the kindergarten methods. Now there is a higher.

D. Suppose it to be so; then show me this higher. I have asked you questions concerning my external life, and you admit your limited knowledge by your inability to answer them. Speaking freely, do you not admit that you are a man of limited knowledge?

S. I admit there are limits to my knowledge.

D. That fact at once proves that you are not the Christ "in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge," to whom "all power is given in heaven and on earth," and no creature is hidden from his sight."

S. (Wiping the perspiration from his brow.) You do not understand.

CROWNING PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING FOR 1894.

HELD IN ZION TABERNACLE ON LORD'S DAY AFTER-NOON AND EVENING, DEC. 30, 1894.

HEALED OF TWENTY YEARS SICKNESS.

Mrs. C. W. Post, of 972 North Halsted Street, said:—"I had a chronic trouble of inflammation and swelling of twenty years standing. I said I would pray as Dr. Dowie prayed, and immediately the swelling went down, and I have more strength and use of my body than ever before. I am perfectly healed."

HEALED OF MANY SICKNESSES.

Mr. Ninz, of 893 N. Lincoln Street, said he had been healed of heart trouble, kidney trouble, bladder trouble and tobacco, and that he was perfectly well."

HEALED OF BRONCHIAL TROUBLE.

Mrs. Adams, 3011 Indiana Avenue, said:—"I came here about four weeks ago with a bad cough. It was an old bronchial cough, and I had been expectorating day and night, and was never without medicine right by me, but God blessed me, and I had no medicine that night, and have had none since."

HEALED OF FEVER.

Mr. Stahlman, of Cold Spring, Pa., testified:—"I was taken down sick with fever. I went to see the doctor, and he said I would have to be very careful; that it would go hard with me, for I was not strong. I am glad I was led to the true physician—Christ. I came here and was healed instantly, and am about twenty pounds heavier than when I came."

HEALED OF STOMACH TROUBLE.

Mr. Henry Von Moots, of 751 Washington Street, said:—"Years ago I began to feel pains in my stomach, and about a month ago Dr. Dowie laid hands on me, and from that time I improved."

There were a very large number waiting to testify before the crowded assembly when the meeting adjourned, until 7:45 P. M., having been in continuous session for over three hours.

EVENING MEETING.

AT THE Evening Meeting, the testimonies were continued.
HEALED OF ELEVEN YEARS' CHRONIC DISEASE OF STOMACH.

Mr. Gustavus Behucke, of 1338 E. 71st Street, said:—"I have been healed of chronic disease of my stomach. I have been doctoring for the last eleven years; four years in Chicago, and for seven years I lived in Wisconsin and doctored there. I have taken medicine nearly every day for the last eleven years. I was advised by my neighbor to come here and I did, and got faith in Jesus the first time that I came, and as I went home I prayed for myself and continued to do so. I took medicine for a while but then I burned my medicine, and went to bed and slept without any pain and I have continued to grow stronger in faith and health, and I pray every day that God will bless Dr. Dowie and give him strength to go on with the work, and I thank the Lord for all He has done for me."

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY.

Mr. G. F. Yeager, of Arcadia, Wis., said:—"I have testified once to-day, but I wish to add to what I have said. I have been suffering for two years with nervous exhaustion. The first physician I went to see said he thought something very serious had happened to me, but the next one said I was good for lots yet and he gave me a dose. The next man I went to see two months later, and he said my trouble was a certain kind of disease of the brain and gave me medicine, but thought it necessary for me take exercise in the fresh air. I improved some, but in four or five months I went to another physician who said it was another kind of disease of the brain, just the contrary to what the other man said. I took his medicine but it did no good. Then I concluded to come to Chicago and see the best doctors. I saw Dr. King, who holds the chair of mental and nervous diseases in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Samuel Brown, of Rush Medical College, men who ought to know something. I was told that I simply had nervous exhaustion, which was nothing to be afraid of, and they gave me a little comfort, but the trouble was still there. Then about two weeks ago when I heard of Dr. Dowie's work here, I decided that this was the place I wanted to go to, and I believed I would be healed here and I prayed the Lord and He has helped me greatly. I feel much better to-night than for a long time, and I know that it is through the grace and power of God alone. I thank God that His Gospel is preached in its fullness here, and I praise the Lord for the work of Dr. Dowie, as he points us to the Great Physician who heals us."

HEALED OF INTERNAL DISEASES OF SEVEN AND TWELVE YEARS' DURATION.

Mrs. Louisa Bolt, 6746 Sangamon Street, said:—"I was healed some time in June, about the 20th. I had an abscess on the left side and had been in bed about eight weeks under the doctor's treatment, when my husband told me of Mrs. Lowrie who had been healed of cancer. He said, 'Why can you not be healed?' The doctor had been in and ordered a fresh lot of medicine, but I did not take it. I did not know whether to believe it or not, but I read the papers and began to pray earnestly that I might be healed, and about a week afterwards I was brought over here and sent in a request for prayer. The next day I began feeling better. I had no pain at all and I came again Sunday. The next day the doctor called, and he said the abscess was all gone. On Wednesday I came again. I was in severe pain, but when Dr. Dowie prayed for me I was healed also of two troubles, one of seven and twelve years standing. I am thankful to God that He has sent Dr. Dowie to tell us how to pray and what to pray."

IMMEDIATELY HEALED OF THE EFFECT OF SCALDING BY STEAM IN THE EYES.

Mr. Murdock, of 64 Greenwood Street, said:—"My little son here thinks I ought to testify. It is a wonder that he is not tired of hearing me talk of Divine Healing, but I would be a coward if I didn't tell you about my last healing. On the 3rd of this month I went to my work as an engineer, and I found in part of my tubes that the combination was stopped up and I could get no steam in the valves. I cut off the connection and looked in the valve, when all of a sudden it came and hit me square in the eye. I believe the devil would have made that make me blind, but I expected God to keep His word and I prayed the prayer of faith, and in less than five minutes the pain was gone, but it seemed as if I had wakened from a deep sleep. I believe that if the Lord had not healed me I would have been a blind man to-night. I believe He answers if we fulfil the conditions. I praise God that He is not only our Saviour, but our Healer and Keeper. I think there was seventy pounds pressure and that when it escaped it was fully sixty pounds pressure. It was enough to throw me back against the steps. The steam went straight into my eye and when I went home my wife said it was only a little scarred."

COMMENTS ON TESTIMONY.

Dr. Dowie said:—"That is an important testimony. In Melbourne my own dear people seldom thought of asking me to pray for them. In fact, if they came for me to do so, the first question I would ask them would be, 'How is it that you are not able to get an answer from the Lord, have you been sinning?' They knew that I would ask that question first and that they would have to undergo a severe examination, and they thought twice before they came to me to pray for them. They did exactly what Brother Murdock has done and God answered them. There are a large number of persons connected with the constructive trades, connected with our ministry. Two-thirds of the people belong to the constructive trades; I mean they are builders, carpenters, engineers, surveyors, electricians. To-day we have some of the best engineers and architects in this city, in this place. I am interested in the people who are connected with engineering, who have to think; people with who brains work hard. We are always glad to see them amongst us. Our brother's testimony is valuable and shows you how to pray the moment anything comes to you. I have not taught you that I am the Healer, but Christ is the Healer, He alone. Divine Healing is God's healing. I have claimed no glory and no power and I am glad that when any of our dear people in the midst of their lawful business are injured, they are learning to go at once to God and get the answer. Memory crowds upon me hundreds of such cases, but I cannot speak of them now, I only want to encourage you to seek the Lord in all times of need. He is a "present help."

TEMPTATION OVERCOME.

Mr. Murdock resumed:—"The devil said to me, 'Put a little oil on it,' but I said, 'No sir, the Lord is equal to this occasion. I will hold on to the Lord, and I expect him to keep His word.'" I expect God to do what He says, and if I do not get the answer I will not say what is the matter with God? but what is the matter with me?"

A SUPPOSITION TO BE DECLINED.

Dr. Dowie said:—"That question of supposing that God will not answer you. I decline to suppose it. I decline to suppose that I am going to get to a place where I shall fulfil God's conditions and yet He will not answer me; because to do that will be to suppose that God can lie. God says, 'I am the Lord that healeth thee,' and again, 'I am the Lord, I change not.'" His word declares that "Jesus Christ is the same to-day." The only question is, Do I fulfill the conditions? If I do, God must answer. God cannot afford to break His word. He has to answer. It is impossible for God to lie. "O, well," said a person to me many years ago, "you live a little longer and you will unlearn that." Thank God, I will not. I am forty-seven years of age and I have not unlearned it yet and I have forty years experience of Salvation and thirty years of experience of Divine Healing behind me. My children have not tasted medicine since they were born, and my wife has had none for nearly twenty years. Get that truth in your mind. If you fulfil God's conditions, GOD MUST FULFIL HIS PROMISES. The only question is, Do you fulfil the conditions?

There are two things impossible with God. It is impossible for Him to lie, and it is impossible for Him to produce evil. It is impossible for the incorruptible God to produce corruption. You cannot get an unclean thing out of a clean. There are many things impossible with God. A man said to me the other day, "It strikes me that it is a pretty hard thing for you to say you are not going to suppose it impossible for God not to answer you." Suppose a man came to me and said, "Now doctor, let us argue about your wife. Let us have a little argument of how you would act in the event of your wife being found a monstrous liar." Stop right there. I am not going to suppose that; you could not get me to argue upon that basis. I should dishonor my wife by so doing. You cannot get me to argue upon a basis that is dishonoring to God. It is impossible for God to lie; therefore I am perfectly sure that He will fulfil His promises, if I fulfill the conditions. He will heal, if we obey."

CURED OF THE TOBACCO HABIT.

Mr. Edward Jordon, of Buchanan, Mich., spoke as follows:—"I wish to thank God for directing me to Zion Tabernacle. I am sure he has forgiven my sins, and healed me of the tobacco habit." Dr. Dowie added. "He has not only healed him, but he used to sell it, and he went home and cleaned it all out of his store, and will not sell it any more."

CONFIRMS HIS SON'S TESTIMONY, ETC.

Mr. A. G. Harwood, 107 Best Avenue, said:—"That explanation that the Doctor gave us a few minutes ago was very grand and good. I was glad to hear it. I am almost a total stranger here, for I have only recently attended here. This is the third Sabbath. I heard of the Mission, and wanted to come to investigate, and see what it was. I was here two weeks ago, and I made a few remarks then concerning the remarkable revelations that I have seen here. I have not been sick, but I am deeply interested in the work. The young fellow there is my son, my youngest son, Ernest, who gave evidence here to-day of his healing, and I am here to confirm what he has said. What he has said is true. He was a strong, active, young fellow, but he fell from a turning pole. It was only about two feet, but he suffered severely in his back, and for the last two or three months he has been on the bed. He had the best medical help, and wore braces and a plaster of Paris cast, and yet they produced no good results. When I heard of this place, I made up my mind to come and hear, and investigate for myself, and I am thankful to God for the results which have taken place in my immediate family, for the benefit of my son. I told my family, (I have a wife, three sons and a son's wife) that the revelations here were wonderful, and that there was not the shadow of a doubt about it. I realized that it was the same story told by Naaman the Syrian, who went to the prophet and asked what he should do. He went with a large retinue of followers, and he found the prophet through the telling of a little maid—the Prophet Elisha—who said: "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your skin shall return to you as the skin of a little child," and that was all that was said. He went away from that man on his homeward journey, disappointed, and if it had not been for those around him, who said, "it is a little thing," he would not have been healed, but he was persuaded to go and dip in the Jordan. The first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth times it amounted to nothing, but the seventh time he did it the work was accomplished—a veritable miracle—and the same thing was performed before this audience to-day. Have faith, faith in Christ, and it will be well with you. Follow the instructions given by Dr. Dowie, and you will receive benefit. If you will follow his teachings you will be blessed, not only in the spiritual, but in the physical life. It is worth paying attention to, and this is a noble work for humanity."

TESTIMONY FROM WHEATON.

Mrs. M. M. Sutcliffe said: "I live twenty-four miles from here, in the little village of Wheaton. There were four of us here a month ago to-day for the first time. The last two years the Lord has been teaching me just what the Gospel of Christ means; but when I found this Mission had been going on for nearly four years, and I had not heard of it, I felt that some one had not been doing his duty, or I would have heard of it before. It has been a wonderful blessing to my soul, and I am glad for what I have heard to-night. When I went down suddenly sick I was not able to get hold of the Lord for myself. Previous to that time God had heard me at various times; but I have been blessed in this Mission. A little work is springing up in Wheaton, already there is a little Mission, and last Friday night a little boy was healed and converted. This work is on my soul. I want to live fifty years longer. I have been led to pray the last week that the Lord would give Dr. Dowie one hundred years, and I do not believe it is any too much. I want to send the LEAVES OF HEALING everywhere, and the little satin-plumaged dove is going where I cannot go. One of our pastors is coming in here, and we are planning to get the LEAVES in the College reading-room, where the young men and women are congregated. This is a wonderful work. I thought my hands were full, but the Lord has enlarged me much. When I was sick, there was not one in the place who would come and pray with me, although there are ten churches in Wheaton. Now there are two, and we are going to have more. I expect my husband here to-morrow night for the first time. I told my husband I must come here to-day, and my hands and heart are with you, and I will do what I can. We are getting hold of the Baptist pastor and the deacons, and I praise the Lord for it."

A CAUSE FOR REJOICING.

Dr. Dowie said: "I am led to say to-night that no feature of the work within the last few months has given me greater joy than the fact that over fifty ministers have asked me earnestly to form, as quickly as possible, and certainly not later than the summer, a school where they can come and get instruction upon this subject. Amongst these have been Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Baptists, Episcopalians. Many applications have reached me since I mentioned the matter first in the LEAVES, from London, Ontario, Montreal, New York State, and all over, and these fifty are representative. There are a number of students also at the Chicago University who are asking for this. I cannot see my way yet to do it, because I am overweighted at present, although I have five secretaries assisting me, who are constantly at work. I am thinking of adding a sixth this week, and that means thirty-three persons on a salary engaged in the various departments of this work. I have to find much money for the work, but the Lord has been very gracious to us. I was led by the remark of our sister to say that every day is bringing in these applications, and I know that when we send out circulars for a Summer School we shall have a large number here, and it will be a great joy to my heart.

I think that we shall have a wonderful year in 1895, and I wish you would pray for that. The Lord is going before me, and I think Zion College is in sight. It will be a very remarkable sort of college. God will give them something that they will be able to use. He will show them how grand a thing it is to hit the devil with a pair of crutches on one side, and then on the other, and send him flat down with a few steel braces, etc. Will you pray for the opening of this work, and will you help me to get a new Tabernacle, with suitable rooms for college work, and large enough to hold the thousands who have not been able to get within these walls to-day. It has grieved me to see hundreds standing inside and outside of this building, every Lord's Day for nearly the whole of this year. Pray for a larger Zion Tabernacle in 1895.

And now we close our public testimonies for the year 1894, laying all our crowns at Jesus' feet, confessing we are in ourselves nothing; but proclaiming to all the world that "Christ is All."

"WILT THOU BE MADE WHOLE?"

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

'Tis a festival day. Thousands of visitors throng the roads to the city, and fill the air with their sacred songs and joyous greetings. The crowds press onward into the venerated city, which contains the Temple of the Most High God—Jerusalem. Near to one of the gates, known as the Sheep Gate, there is a pool, known as Bethesda, or, the House of Mercy. From its five porches the ceaseless moaning of many diseased and dying persons arrests the attention of One who never failed to pity and to heal. He turns aside, and finds amongst them a man who has lain long there, "waiting for the moving of the water." This man's infirmity had afflicted him for thirty-eight years. He looks in pity upon this weary, almost despairing being; and in sweetest tones of tender sympathy, He asks him the startling and apparently needless question:—"Wilt thou be made whole?" But He who speaks thus is no mocker: for, "Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses." (Matt. 8:17.) So the infirm man finds, for within a few minutes he is healed, and goes from the presence of the Great Healer "immediately made whole." The man was willing, Jesus was both able and willing, and, therefore, there was no delay: for there was no doubt to overcome, and faith triumphed. (John 5:1-9.)

These words may come into a house

"Where some are sick, and some are sad,
To some who never loved Christ well,
And now have lost the love they had."

My message to thee, my afflicted reader, is a very simple and beautiful one, which I deliver in my Lord's name. It is contained in His own question:—"Wilt thou be made whole?" He is unchanged, and even more, let me remind thee that He is unchangeable: for "Jesus is the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) Only forsake thy sin, and thou wilt find that He "who forgiveth all thine iniquities," also "healeth all thy diseases." (Psalm 103:3.)

My reader may wonder if I really mean to teach all that these words imply. I do mean them: for I know their truth beyond all question. "Jesus of Nazareth" is the same, as, when in human form, he stood beside the pool of Bethesda. It is written, "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with Him." (Acts 10:38.) He still goes about doing good: for He has said, "Lo, I am with you alway." He still is able and willing to heal all that are oppressed of the devil: for he has bestowed the Holy Ghost, with powers and gifts of the same nature as He had in the days of his flesh. "The gifts of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) Amongst these "spiritual gifts," Paul declares, are "the gifts of healing by the same Spirit." (1 Cor. 12:9.) Those whom the Spirit wills may now be, and some are, endowed with these gifts. They have long lain dormant through unbelief and fear. But in Great Britain, America, and Australia these "gifts of healing by the Spirit of God" are in daily exercise. I can personally testify to that fact.

Disease is the enemy of man, and, therefore, of God. All that hurts, hinders, defiles, and destroys man cannot proceed from, nor be approved by God.

I will venture to make the following as an assertion approved by Scripture, namely—SIN is a cause, of which DISEASE, DEATH and HELL are the inevitable effects and consequences. Hence, these are all the work of an evil spirit, in deadly antagonism to God and man, whom the divinely inspired scriptures calls "the devil." It was "to destroy the works of the devil" that "the Son of God was manifested," (1 John 3:8.); and all these three horrible effects are forever destroyed to him that believeth in, and has Christ for his Saviour: for He bore them all away.

I will add another assertion, which I again venture to say rests upon inspired Scripture, namely—HOLINESS is a cause, of which HEALTH, ETERNAL LIFE and HEAVEN are the glorious effects and consequences. Hence, these are all the work of the Holy Spirit, and they are wrought in the Spirit, Soul and Body of the true Christian, by which Spirit, therefore, in the name of Jesus, every Christian may be freed from all the works of "the devil," of which DISEASE is one.

To everyone who will believe in Christ, then, He declares himself to be JEHOVAH-ROPHI—i. e. "I AM THE LORD THAT HEALETH THEE." (Exodus 16:26.) Then let us go now to Him and say—

"Thy touch has still its ancient power,
No word from Thee can fruitless fall;
O hear us in this solemn hour,
And in Thy mercy heal us all."

"Fret not thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity, for they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb. Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"PRAISE waiteth for Thee, O God, in Zion."

NEARLY a thousand persons rose in Zion Tabernacle on last Lord's Day afternoon at the close of the service, and consecrated themselves fully to God with one heart and voice at the close of our discourse on "Redemption Draweth Nigh." It was a most impressive scene.

FULLY seven hundred Children of God sat down at the Lord's Table. Denominational distinctions were completely obliterated. It was a season of deep heart searching, and also of joy and refreshing. A wonderful unity of spirit prevades the assemblies in Zion Tabernacle at all times, and it finds expression in many ways, especially in these united Communions.

NEITHER snow, wind nor zero weather can keep the people away from Zion Tabernacle; and there are many glorious healings. On Tuesday last, with the thermometer showing 10 degrees below, there were hundreds seeking healing. One woman had been brought many miles in a closed carriage on a feather bed, partially paralyzed, and suffering great pain from the results of certain severe surgical operations. She lay on a cot in front of the platform throughout our discourse upon "The beginning of the Gospel,—Repentance." She was spiritually blessed. After service she was carried into the Healing Room accompanied by her husband and sister. In less than ten minutes the Lord had healed her, after we prayed and laid hands upon her. She rose from her bed, pain and paralysis gone, walked out through the Tabernacle, and entered the carriage without assistance, amidst the joyful exclamations, tears and the singing of the doxology by the hundreds who had seen her carried in a helpless sufferer.

ON THE same afternoon there were a number of other striking demonstrations of healing through faith in Jesus.

One which took place in the presence of over 100 ladies was the instantaneous healing of a woman afflicted for 16 years, who had suffered from cruel surgical operations, and had been on crutches for four years. She rose at our request in the Name of the Lord, and to the delight of all walked freely about the room without any assistance. She has since walked several blocks without her crutches.

AND so amidst all the calumnies of evil men, God is maintaining our cause and extending His work.

THE three Divine Healing Homes are open, as usual, and the work goes quietly forward. We find that the lie of the Chicago Press that Divine Healing Home No. 1 was closed, and that the others would also soon be closed, has been telegraphed from Ocean to Ocean, and we have just received a clipping from the San Francisco Chronicle to that effect. The "special dispatch" is a mass of lies without even the semblance of truth. "Dowie is frightened and ready to leave town," etc., will stamp it as false to all who know us: for by the grace of God, the fear of men or devils has no place in our composition.

WE WISH to say in the most emphatic way, that the Homes have never been closed for a moment, that not a single service has been omitted in Zion Tabernacle, and that Zion Publishing House sends forth our little white dove, the LEAVES OF HEALING, regularly every week and that its circulation steadily increases.

And, God willing, we shall not leave our present location of these Institutions sooner than May 1st, 1896, when our leases expire. Before that time we hope to find a new and still better location for the work.

THERE are many false statements telegraphed over the country about our "financial distress," and the "special dispatch" above referred to is full of lying on that subject.

Our good friends everywhere will be glad to know that the "distress" is as mythical as the closing of the Homes and our being "frightened."

We could do well with a great deal more money; but we have no "distress."

It is the purpose of the devil and his children to ruin us in every way, and the circulation of these false statements is a part of the plan of destruction.

We should be glad to have larger financial resources: for the extension of the work demands them. Will God's stewards remember this?

OUR enemies are in evident "distress," and can only keep afloat by inventions like these. Let our friends give no credence to their "dispatches." All is well.

THE Offerings in Zion Tabernacle last Lord's Day exceeded $400. Those who know us best, show their faith by their works. Will those at a distance help us to "fight with beasts" at Chicago also. We need more money for the war, and it is a very real war. God is reaching every land on earth from Chicago in these days of trial. We greatly desire to extend immediately the work of Zion Publishing House in the preparation of tracts, pamphlets and books, not only in English, but in other languages. Who will help?

WE HOPE to resume the publication of our sermons in our next issue which will, God willing, contain the first of two lectures on "The Two Chains—Good and Evil."

KIND letters of sympathy reach us from friends in all parts. Thanks in Jesus' Name.

ANOTHER WORD TO CORRESPONDENTS. Do not wait for an answer as to whether you may come, but COME and we will do all we can to help you to find deliverance from God. It is simply impossible to overtake our heavy mails.

"BRETHREN, PRAY FOR US."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Gottes Weg der Heilung.

Vom Redakteur.

Gottes Weg der Heilung ist eine Person und kein Ding.

Jesus sagte: „Ich bin der Weg, die Wahrheit und das Leben,“ und Er wurde stets Seinem Volke geoffenbart in all den Jahren durch des Vertrages Name, Jehovah-rophi, oder „Ich bin der Herr, der Dich geheilt hat.“ (Johannes 14:6 und zweites Buch Moses 15:26).

Der Herr Jesus Christus ist stets der Heiler.

Er kann sich nicht ändern, denn „Er war derselbe gestern, ist es heute und ewig,“ und Er ist stets bei uns, denn Er sagt: „Siehe, ich bin stets bei Euch, selbst bis zum Ende der Welt.“ (Hebräer 13:8 und Matthäi 28:20). Weil Er unveränderlich ist, und weil er anwesend ist im Geiste gerade so als wie im Fleisch, deshalb ist er der Heiler Seines Volkes.

Göttliche Heilung ruht auf Christi's Veröhnung.

Es wurde von Ihm prophezeit: „Sicherlich hat Er unseren Kummer ertragen (Hebräer, Krankheiten) und unseren Schmerz empfunden, und durch Seine Streifen werden wir geheilt,“ und es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß dieses in Seinem Dienst der Heilung vollzogen wurde, welcher stets fortgeführt wird. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 und Matthäi 8:17).

Krankheit kann niemals Gottes Wille sein.

Es ist des Teufels Arbeit, folgend auf Sünde, und es ist für die Arbeit des Teufels unmöglich, jemals der Wille Gottes zu sein.

Christus kam, um „die Arbeiten des Teufels zu zerstören,“ und als Er hier auf Erden war, „heilte Er jede Unpäßlichkeit und jede Krankheit,“ und alle diese Krankheiten sind ausdrücklich für die „Unterdrückung des Teufels“ erklärt worden. (1 Johannes 3:8, Matthäi 4:23 und Apostelgeschichte 10:38).

Die Gaben der Heilung sind fortdauernd.

Es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß die „Gaben und der Beruf Gottes ohne Reue sind,“ und die Gaben der Heilung sind unter den neun Gaben des Geistes zur Kirche zu finden. (Römer 11:29 und 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

Es giebt vier Arten göttlicher Heilung.

Die erste Art ist das direkte Glaubensgebet; die zweite ist das vermittelnde Gebet von zwei oder mehr Personen; die dritte ist die Salbung des Aeltesten mit dem Glaubensgebet, und die vierte Art ist das Handauflegen Derjenigen, welche glauben, und welche Gott vorbereitet und zu jenem Dienst berufen hat. (Matthäi 8:5-13, Matthäi 18:19, Jacob 5:14, 15, Marcus 16:17).

Göttliche Heilung wird von teuflischen Betrügnern bekämpft.

Unter diesen befinden sich Christian Science (fälschlich so genannt), Geist-Heilung, Spiritualismus, Entzündungs-Evangelismus u. s. w. (1 Timotheus 6:20, 21, 1 Timotheus 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Tausende sind durch den Glauben an Jesus geheilt worden.

Vollständige Auskunft kann man erhalten in den Versammlungen, welche im Zion Tabernakel, No. 251 Ost 62. IL MODO COME DIO GUARISCE I MALI.

DALL' EDITORE.

Il modo come Dio guarisce, è una persona, non una cosa.

Gesù disse: "Io sono la Via, la Verità e la Vita," e si è sempre rivelato al Suo popolo in ogni epoca col Nome Covenante Jehovah-rophi, o "Io sono il Signore la tua Salute. (Giovanni 14: 6 e gli Esortii 15; 26.)

Il Signore Gesù è sempre Colui che guarisce.

Egli non può cambiare perchè "Egli è lo stesso, di ieri, di oggi e per sempre," ed Egli è sempre con noi, perchè disse: "Ecco, Io sono sempre con voi infino alla fine del mondo." (Ebrei 13: 8 e Matteo 28: 20.) Perchè Egli è presente, nello spirito come nella carne. Egli è Colui che guarisce il Suo popolo.

Il Guarire Divino sta nella Riconciliazione di Cristo.

Lui profetizzò: "Sicuramente fu Lui che soffrì i nostri dolori e con i suoi gastighi noi guariamo," ed è espressamente dichiarato che ciò si compì mediante il Suo Ministero di Guarire, che continua ancora. (Isaia 53: 4, 5 e Matteo 8: 17.)

Il Male non può mai essere la Volontà di Dio.

E opera del Diavolo, la conseguenza del peccato, ed è impossibile che l'opera del Diavolo sia mai la Volontà di Dio.

Cristo venne "per distruggere l'opera del Diavolo," e quando Egli "guarì ogni malattia" e tutti questi mali sono espressamente dichiarati di essere stati "l'oppressione del Diavolo." (1 Giovanni 3: 8, Matteo 4: 23 e gli Atti 10: 38.)

I Doni del Guarire sono Permanenti.

E espressamente dichiarato che "I Doni e le appellazioni di Dio sono privi di pentimento," ed i Doni del Guarire sono fra i Nove Doni dello Spirito e della Chiesa. (Romani 11: 29 e 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Ci sono Quattro Modi del Guarire Divino.

Il primo consiste nel rivolgere la preghiera di fede, il secondo preghiere intercessorie di due o più persone, il terzo l'unzione degli anziani nella preghiera della fede, ed il quarto nel posare le mani su coloro che credono, e pei quali Dio ha preparato e chiamato a quel ministero. (Matteo 8: 5—13, Matteo 18: 19, Giacomo 5: 14, 15, Marco 16: 18.)

Il Guarire Divino è opposto alle Falsificazioni Diaboliche.

Fra questi sono la Scienza Christiana (chiamata falsamente), Guarizione della Mente, Spiritualismo, Estasi, Evangelismo eccetera. (Timoteo 6: 20, 21, 1 Timoteo 4: 1, 2, Isaia 51: 22, 23.)

Delle Multitudini sono state guarite dalla Fede in Gesù.

Complete informazione si possono attendere alli riunioni tenute nel Tabernacolo di Zion, 251 E. 62 Strate, vicino al Parco Jackson, Chicago, e per mezzo di molti panfletti che ne dimostrano l'esperienza colle loro parole e da molti che sono stati guariti in questo ed altri paesi; pubblicati dalla Casa Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

LA MANIÈRE COMME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'EDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: "Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie," et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophi, ou "Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut." (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours" et Lui est toujours avec nous, parcequ'il dit: "Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde." (Hebreux 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. "Strement ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissons," et c'est expressément déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaie 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint "pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable" et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui "guérit toutes maladies" et tous ces maux ont été expressément déclarés d'avoir été "l'oppression du Diable." (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanents.

C'est expressément déclaré que "Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir," et les Dons de la Guérison sont parnies les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5—13. Matthien 18: 9. Jacques 5: 14, 15. Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposée aux Fausseries Diaboliques.

Parmis celles-ci y il a la Science Chrétienne (faussettement appelée) Guérison du Sentiment, du Spiritualisme, de l'Extase de l'Evangelisme eccetera. (Timothée 6: 20, 21. 1 Timothée 4: 1, 2, Isaie 51: 22, 23.)

Des Multitudes ont été guéries par la Foie de Jesu.

L'écrivain, connaît des milliers de cas, et il a personnellement posé ses propres mains, sur des vingtaines de milliers de personnes. Des informations complètes peuvent être obtenues aux réunions qui ont lieu dans le Tabernacle de Zion, 251 E. 62 Street, près du Parc Jackson, à Chicago, et grace à beaucoup de pamphlets qui en demontrent l'expérience par leurs paroles et par beaucoup de personnes qui ont été guéries dans ce pays et dans d'autres; et qui ont été publiés par la Maison Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Avenue à Chicago.

A FALSE CHRIST.

AN INTERVIEW WITH JACOB SCHWEINFURTH, THE ROCKFORD MESSIAH.Continued from page 323.

Mrs. T. (Coming to the rescue.) He knew it not, I proclaimed him to be the Christ.

D. But if you are the Christ you must know me, for from a child, if you were the Christ, I should say to your face: You know that I have loved you. You know that every day, despite my short-comings, my thoughts have been of Thee, O Christ. You know that I have consecrated my life to Thee and have proclaimed this gospel to multitudes and in Thy name have laid hands upon more than sixteen thousand sick persons. You would know, O Christ, all who were healed in Thy name, and would know that I am a faithful minister of Thine, looking for Thy coming again; doing thy will from my heart; one whose daily delight is to live as thou wouldst have him live, guided by the Holy Spirit. You would know me, and I say to your face that you do not. That you cannot tell me what things have been done in Christ's name, and you can give me no proof that you are the Christ. I must either believe on you as my Lord and God, or proclaim you as an impostor and liar, and diabolical representation, not of the Christ, but of some cruel devil who is deluding not a few to deep depths of shame and misery here, and to destruction hereafter.

(This rapidly and earnestly delivered appeal caused the false Christ great uneasiness, as I spoke the words with my eyes steadfastly fixed upon him, having drawn my chair closer and uttered them with great intensity. Mrs. Tuttle seeing that he was again greatly disconcerted, rushed to the rescue.)

Mrs. T. Dr. Dowie, Dr. Dowie, you do not understand.

D. Make me understand. If you have had the knowledge that enabled you to reveal the Christ, and he has the knowledge, he will not be perturbed by these questions and observations. I have a right to demand (if he be the Christ) proofs that will enable me to recognize him as my Lord and my God. I see sitting before me a man of weak, limited knowledge in many things. I have asked him to give me information concerning myself, which could be given by persons externally acquainted with my life and requiring no divine power, and yet he cannot tell me even these minor things.

S. (Recovering himself.) I admit limited knowledge, but I am the Christ.

Mrs. T. (Making a rapid sign to Mr. S.) Permit me to speak.

D. Are you the wife of a Congregational minister?

Mrs. T. I was.

(Here let me say in passing that Mr. Tuttle still lives, but not in the "heaven" where his wife dwells; an observation of which it is not difficult to see the force, especially when there are two children who bear a remarkable likeness to the false Christ, and several have been born recently who are also said to be like him, and whom their mothers blasphemously call "the off-spring of the Holy Ghost." Mary Weldon, whose father gave him the property in which he lives, has lately become a mother, and we heard an infant's voice through the open door while we were sitting there.)

D. Well, what proofs can you offer, since he can offer none?

(I may here say in passing that I had asked him many questions concerning other matters which it is not necessary here to give, one of which was as to his knowledge of the original tongues—Hebrew and Greek—in which the scriptures were written. He admitted that he knew nothing of either, or of any modern language, and that he knew nothing of the scriptures except in the English translation, being entirely unacquainted with any other version. Both his quotations and those of Mrs. Tuttle, were often incorrect, and I had occasion frequently to supplement and correct them. Questions concerning the interpretation of the parables—notably that of the ten virgins—were answered in a very ignorant manner, even the quotation of the words of the parable being incorrect, and requiring me to remind them of the omissions. It was by this time evident that on the grounds of both wisdom and knowledge they were conscious that they had failed to make any impression whatever.

Mrs. Tuttle now broke out in a long rapturous testimony as to his being the Christ, and declared that nothing that I could say would in the slightest degree shake the faith of his people. From this point I resumed the dialogue.)

D. Who are his people?

Mrs. T. The church; the church militant.

S. Oh!

Mrs. T. Oh, I forgot. I should have said the church triumphant.

D. Oh, (laughingly) you don't seem to be agreed. "The Church triumphant." That is the name of another body which meets on Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, under the leadership of one who also declares himself to be the incarnate son of God. Are you associated with this man, Cyrus Teed, and his paper, "The Flaming Sword?"

Both together. Oh no, no. We are the church triumphant.

D. How many members do you suppose, Mr. S., that you have in the church triumphant?

S. I cannot tell.

D. But "the Lord knoweth them that are His." You ought to be able to tell, if you are the Christ.

S. Oh, anywhere from five hundred to a thousand.

D. It seems strange indeed to me to hear a man pronouncing himself the eternal God, who ought to know all those who serve him truly, unable to tell the number, seeing that "the very hairs on our head" could all be numbered in a moment by Him and there are no limits to His knowledge.

S. You do not understand. You have many conceptions regarding the Christ which are wrong. He never assumed perfect knowledge as the Christ.

D. You are wrong. He said, "I am the way, the truth and life." He said, "All things are delivered unto me of my Father," and "All power is given unto me in heaven and on earth." The first of these expressions was uttered before His death and resurrection; the second before His re-ascension. "Christ is all and in all, the Alpha and Omega."

Both. Oh, you do not understand.

Mrs. T. You would need to hear his teaching to know how imperfectly you understand the scriptures. If you had time I could tell you of the wonderful way in which he explains them.

D. Reverting to what you called the Kindergarten stage in the preaching of the gospel of salvation and healing, and the work of the Holy Ghost in cleansing from sin and sickness, and delivering from the power of death and hell, what proofs have you that you are in your body holy and without spot and blemish, as the Christ must be?

(No answer being forthcoming, one of the ladies—Miss B.—asked:—)

B. What would you do were you to become sick? Would you call for a doctor?

S. (Much discomposed, and wiping the perspiration from his face.) But I am not sick.

(This remark was a subterfuge, and I did not care to take much notice of it at the time, as I wanted to proceed, and I saw the interview might be suddenly brought to a close without giving me the opportunity of closing it as I deemed best; but the facts are that deaths have occurred through sickness in this so-called "heaven," and that this false Christ himself was sick on more than one occasion, and within the last year became so much alarmed concerning his health, that I am informed he sent for medical assistance.)

D. You have called divine healing the "kindergarten age." Do you not see that the world is full of sickness, and if you are the Christ, that those who really love you, and have given their lives for your sake, are sick, and that the healing of these sick ones, who cannot minister as they would, would be eminently beneficial to the spread of the gospel?

S. Oh, all these works, Dr. Dowie, that you have done—

D. Pardon me, I have done nothing. There are two ladies now present, both of whom have been healed through my agency. Mrs. S. was dying in California, when her sister, Miss B., asked me to see her. I went in Christ's name, laid hands upon her, and from a bed of agony she was instantly raised, and within half an hour attended our meetings in Hamilton Church, Oakland, Cal. Miss B. was also healed from dropsy, and as you see presents no appearance of that disease. These works were not mine, nor were any of the thousands who have been healed through the laying on of my hands, and I have never claimed power; for "power belongeth unto God."

(Mrs. S. and Miss B. then very quietly witnessed to their healing, and said I was careful never to claim any power to heal, and that they knew the power was of God, to whom I always gave the glory.)

S. Well, never mind; the works you say were done through you. These works could have been done just as well in any other name.

D. You might say the same regarding all the miracles of our Lord himself, and of all the apostles.

Mrs. T. Oh, you do not understand. Mr. S. has power, but he does not exercise it. It would be needful for you to listen to his teaching.

D. I think now we have got to an end of this, and it becomes my duty, as a minister of Christ, to warn you faithfully, and to declare my convictions concerning your claims.

S. Oh, it does not matter what you say. (Sneeringly.) It will not effect anything.

D. It will free my conscience from all guilt concerning you, and it is my duty.

IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, I NOW WARN YOU to repent of your great wickedness in making such blasphemous claims, and in persuing a course of deception and demoralization, deluding many others and preparing for them harvests of utter shame and misery. I declare that you are not the Christ, but a blasphemer and a deceiver, and that through your sinfulness you have become completely controlled by Satan, and are now given over to a strong delusion to believe a lie—if, indeed, you do believe what you assert.

Mrs. T. Dr. Dowie, take care what you say. He is the Christ; he is the Christ.

S. (Who had by this diversion been enabled to recover himself.)

I dreamed of you, Doctor, last night, and that you sat there and said just the words that you have now spoken, and that I said—you lie.

D. And is it needful for the Christ to dream? and if you dreamed that I was here and said these words, how came it that you manifested so much surprise when you knew my name, and did not recognize me at all?

S. (In apparent confusion.) Oh, the dream has only just come to me.

D. You remind me of Joseph Smith, Mahomet and other false prophets, who used to get revelations on the spot, and had dreams convenient for all emergencies.

S. You shall answer for your denunciation of me before the judgment seat of God.

D. I will gladly do so, and thank God as I stand before the judgment seat of Christ, that He permitted me to denounce you as an imposter and a deceiver.

S. You will have to repent of all you have now said.

D. I shall never repent for having done my duty, and I have only a few words more to add in closing this interview. They are these: I am glad I have come, and glad I have seen you, and for these two hours and a half spoken with you. I had thought before I came that you might be an exceedingly dangerous man, but I have no fear that you will be able to effect much, and I venture to prophesy in the name of the Lord that you will wither away.

(With these words I rose to my feet, and all in the room followed my example.)

Mrs. T. You will need to repent, Dr. Dowie, for having said such dreadful things.

S. I call you ladies to witness to his prophesy. It is false.

Mrs. S. We are witnesses, and believe what Dr. Dowie said to be true.

Miss B. We know he is God's minister, and trust that you will take his warning.

D. I have said my last words, and will say no more except to thank you for giving me this opportunity, and the opportunity of doing my duty. I have no other feeling than one of intense desire that you should repent of your great sin, and shall be glad for you to call upon me, should you be in Chicago or its neighborhood. I shall be glad to give you, at any time, an interview in my home.

(Saying these words, I grasped the hand of the false Christ very firmly, bowed to the lady, and retired.)

HEALING OF AN AGED U. S. ARMY SPY.

MR. MEYERS, living on Main Street, Los Angeles said:— (This aged gentleman had a peculiar way of speaking, and with a somewhat broken voice, and was difficult at times to understand.)

"Well, folks, I went into the army in 1861 as a spy, and I kept at it until January 1864; have been in several scrimages and in several close places. I was sick and pretty nearly blind in 1863. In February 1863, I was badly torn to pieces by a dog. I tried all the doctors I could get, and I went to the Springs. I was treated in Illinois and in Kansas and in Indiana and Ohio, and I paid out hundreds of dollars to be healed. But I never got well.

One day I met a man and he said, "Why do you walk on crutches?" I said, "I can't do better, and is hard enough to get along then." He gave me a circular on Divine Healing, and he asked me to go to the meetings. I went in and sat down way back. When they asked those who wanted to be prayed for to stand up, I got right up and I gave myself up to the Lord. I then went to the healing room to see Dr. Dowie and to be prayed for. I went home and felt moderately well, and I have been sleeping pretty well and walking without my crutches ever since. I have been saved and healed from that time to this day. One doctor told me there was no hope for me, and I have been told I couldn't live lots of times; but I am not dead yet." (The gentleman could walk about readily without any support from cane or crutch, and appeared to be in a good condition of health.—From Our Second Year's Harvest, page 65.)

"PRAISE ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart; in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation. The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. His work is honorable and glorious: and His righteousness endureth forever."

INSTANTANEOUS HEALINGS WITHOUT HUMAN TOUCH.

Mr. Dowie said: "There is a class of healings to which I feel that I ought to call your attention for the glory of our Immanuel, namely, that of persons who were INSTANTANEOUSLY HEALED in meetings where I was praying and speaking, but upon whom I never laid hands, and of whose complaints I had no knowledge whatever.

In November, 1883, occurred one of the most striking of these cases—a miracle of healing, of which many persons were witnesses. My rooms were crowded one morning with believers seeking healing. That morning I expounded Matthew 8: 1-17, and when I had finished the beautiful story of the healing of the centurion's servant, verses 5 to 13, I paused and spoke as follows: "You do not need to wait for my hands to be laid upon you, if you will only exercise the very simple, but truly great faith, and deep humility of the centurion." I continued: "Now we shall pray silently for a few moments, and let each afflicted believer say in their heart, 'LORD, SPEAK THE WORD ONLY, AND I SHALL BE HEALED.'" Silence reigned for a few moments, and then, hearing some whispered words and movements in the left corner of the room, behind me, I said, "Amen!" and was about to continue my exposition, when a little German lady, whom I did not know, rose and said in an excited manner, "Sir, can I speak?" Before I could answer, she exclaimed, "My maid say she can see—Catherine, can you see? Are you sure?" I asked her to explain. She said that her name was Mrs. Burgmeier, of No. 26 Napier Street, Fitzroy, and that Mr. Elijah Stranger, of 56 Rose Street, Fitzroy, a well known Christian gentleman long resident in this city, had advised her maid, Catherine Cairns, WHO HAD BEEN QUITE BLIND FOR TWELVE YEARS, to come to our meetings. I then asked Catherine to stand up. She was a tall, young woman of about twenty-one years old, and seemed almost stupefied with delight, but she confirmed what her mistress had said. I tested her power to see in various ways, and one little mistake she made caused much amusement. In counting the number of persons on one side of the table, she counted always one more than the correct number. When I said she was wrong she firmly contended there were seven, counting them again with outstretched finger, and saying, "the seventh is pointing her finger at me!" Everybody laughed; because it was then seen that she did not recognize herself, FOR SHE WAS POINTING AT HER OWN REFLECTION IN THE LOOKING GLASS. She soon began to read, and saw everything clearly.

Will some of my critics, who attribute the healing to my touch, kindly explain what part I took in this case, when I did not know the girl, or that she had been blind, until after her, sight was restored? Truly such facts make it more difficult to disbelieve, than to believe, that Jesus is a present Healer to all who come in faith.

But these are not solitary, nor even rare cases, in our experience; for in nearly every Mission there are many such.

Whilst these pages were being prepared for the press, it occurred to Mr. Dowie that it would be interesting and helpful to get a declaration from the mistress of Catherine Cairns concerning this remarkable case. Accordingly Mrs. Burgmeier was invited to come to the Tabernacle on Monday evening, December 12th, where in the presence of a number of persons, she gave many interesting details concerning it; and thereafter, made the following statement in the presence of nine persons. A fuller statement is also in Mr. Dowie's possession, relative to Catherine Cairns, who came from Nunawading; but it is too long for insertion here. There is one fact in it, however, which it may be well to record, namely, that some months before her restoration she was taken to the Eye and Ear Institution, Melbourne, by Mrs. Burgmeier, where the doctors could do nothing for her. Some time after her restoration, he was told, she went into the country, and he does not know her present address. She was able to read before she left, and there are many living witnesses who saw her when she was blind, who were present when she received her sight, and who saw her afterwards, when she could see perfectly.

FREE CHRISTIAN TABERNACLE, FITZROY.

December 12th, 1887.

This is to certify that I have read the above narrative of the restoration to sight of the girl named Catherine Cairns, which was first published by the Rev. J. A. Dowie, in his tract entitled, "Some Wonderful Works of God." I now desire to declare that it is QUITE TRUE IN EVERY PARTICULAR; and I stated this to-night, in the Free Christian Tabernacle, before more than forty persons, and now sign this declaration in the presence of nine of those, as witnesses thereto. My object in making this statement is to glorify God and His Son Jesus Christ as our Healer; and to encourage others to trust Him with their spirits, souls and bodies.

CATHERINE BURGMEIER, 24 Napier St., Fitzroy.

WITNESSES TO THE ABOVE: John Brown, Learmouth House, Rathdowne Street, Carlton; Thomas Henderson, Kay Street, Carlton; Joseph Grierson, Station Street, North Carlton; George Wilkins, No. 1 Bedford Street, Collingwood; John Samuel Wallington, 81 Dight Street, Collingwood; Ellen M. Recently in Sydney, a man from Casino, Richmond River, N. S. W., was similarly healed of humanly-speaking incurable maladies, and he gave public testimony in the Protestant Hall in that city on the evening of June 7th last, before a large audience. He was saved and healed in the same hour, after hearing the teaching in our meetings, when he was ALONE with his sin, his sorrow, his diseases and his God. As late as the evening of Tuesday, September 20th, at a meeting held in this Tabernacle, Mr. J. A. D. Adams, a Christian barrister from Dunedin, New Zealand, gave a very touching account of the instantaneous and perfect healing of his wife, AFTER FIFTEEN YEARS of medical treatment and hopeless suffering. It occurred during our mission in the Garrison Hall, Dunedin, in December, 1886, and whilst we were speaking of one "who touched the hem of Christ's garment," (Mark 5. 25, 34) she, by faith, RECEIVED IN A MOMENT A PERFECT HEALING.—From our Fifth Annual Commemoration.—Pages 28 to 30.

There comes a time in the future new,
When this life has passed away,
When these needy ones will stand with me
In the light of a judgment day.
When the Angel reads from the Book of Life
My deeds for that great review,
If these should speak and accuse me there,
I wonder what I should do?—Sel.

A LETTER TO THE FRIENDS OF ZION TABERNACLE.

We are reminded of the words: — "He maketh the storm a Calm, so that the waves thereof are still."

After all their cruel calumnies and persecution the enemies of God have exhausted themselves, and accomplished nothing, so far as stopping our work for Christ is concerned.

Notwithstanding that an Unjust Judge has given a verdict against us at the demand of the doctors, drug sellers and surgical butchers, we go forward in our work for Christ and for suffering humanity exactly as before in every particular.

It has been declared to be a crime in Chicago, worthy of fine or imprisonment, to pray with the sick as Christ commanded. But we have paid no fine, and never will.

We are not in prison, and shall not fear to go there for Christ; but do not think we shall have the honor for some time to come. Yet prayer and praise and the proclamation of Jesus as Saviour, Healer, Cleanser, and Lord of All never ceases in Zion Tabernacle and the Homes, and the hum of our presses is still heard in Zion Publishing House.

THE EDITOR AND HIS FAMILY.

But the enemy is out gunning for our little white dove, LEAVES OF HEALING, and lately the blackhawks of the devil imprisoned* it in the Chicago Post Office in defiance of all law, for fully eight days. However, it got away at last, and it is now winging its way over land and seas with its story of how Christ is hated in Chicago, and of how He blesses even there.

Yet the Storm is over, and there is a great Calm. We are daily welcoming friends from many parts of America, and God is blessing and pointing to future scenes of surpassing glory.

Faithfully Yours
in Jesus,

John Alex. Dowie

IF IT BE THY WILL.

BY THE EDITOR.

It is a constant experience in our ministry to hear from the lips of Christians who are seeking the Lord for healing, the statement that they have always prayed to God for deliverance from pain and sickness with the proviso, "if it be Thy will." This is the cause in tens of thousands of cases why their suffering and disease is not removed, for such a prayer is not "the prayer of faith" and not in accordance with the revealed will of God.

When we state this, we are met by a number of statements in defense of this mode of prayer, which may be briefly summarized thus:

1. It is presumptuous to pray in any other way, since God's will in this matter is unknown.
2. It may be for God's glory that we shall not be healed.
3. This form of prayer is justified by the prayer of the eper, "Lord if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."
4. It is justified by the prayer of our Lord, "Oh, my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt."
5. It is justified by the Lord's prayer, or rather the prayer which the Lord taught His disciples to pray, "Thy will be done."

We propose briefly and pointedly to answer the errors involved in all these five statements.

1. It can never be presumptuous to pray with divine assurance for healing if all the conditions are fully complied with by the suppliant, since God has revealed Himself in every age as the Healer of His people, and it is His absolutely revealed will to heal all such as come in faith pleading His Covenant Name and Promises. It is presumptuous to doubt what God has said, or to ask in any other spirit than that of confident expectation for what He has promised. He has said, "I AM the Lord that healeth thee," (Ex. 15:26) and that is an eternal Covenant Name, the Covenant of Jehovah-Rophi, resting in which the believer may sing, "Bless Jehovah, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases." Unchangeable as God Himself, that name reveals His nature as the Healer of his people, for it is written by His fingers on the Imperishable Page of His Word. His promises are in perfect accord with this revelation of Himself.

Prophets and poets, evangelists and apostles, inspired by the Divine Spirit, repeat these promises in a thousand forms. The prophets tell of Jehovah manifest in the flesh, who would in the fullness of time come not only as the Saviour, but as the Healer and the Cleanser of His people. Isaiah 35th embodies this glorious three-fold blessing of salvation, healing and holiness. Salvation first: "He will come and save you." (verse 4.) Healing comes next: "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing," etc. (verses 5 and 6.) And then follows Holiness, which is the glorious Highway of the King in which the fully redeemed shall walk, "The way of Holiness." (verse 8.)

The evangelist reveals to our admiring gaze the glorious scene in the synagogue of Nazareth (Luke 4) where our Immanuel unfolds His mission in the first recorded sermon after His baptism, His temptation, and His triumph; and there our Lord declares His mission to save and to heal. Throughout all His ministry the dual gospel of salvation and healing goes hand in hand, and again and again it is recorded, as in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35, that He "went about teaching, preaching, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people." Truly we may cry with the prophet, "Surely He hath borne our griefs [Hebrew, 'sicknesses'] and carried our sorrows" (Isaiah 53:4), and with Matthew, as he closes the record of that wondrous night of healing in the streets of Capernaum. (Mat. 8:16, 17.) "Himself took our infirmities and bare our sicknesses." Over and over again His willingness to heal all who come in faith is demonstrated, and that without exception. In no case did He ever say, "I will not," but His "I will," rings out in every page of the gospel.

Apostles, prophets, and teachers throughout all the early ages of the church repeat and demonstrate in the inspired epistles, and the other sacred records of the church's wondrous story, the same willingness of the Lord to heal, and that without exception, all who trust Him. Unless He is changed, and if that were possible, He would not be God, then He is still the Healer of His people. Let us rejoice that the Holy Spirit still breathes upon our hearts the inspiring words, "Jesus Christ is THE SAME yesterday, to-day and forever." Since that is so, then He is able, WILLING, longing, and present to heal, for He is not only an unchanged, but a present Lord, whose Word declares, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

2. It cannot be for God's glory that any of His children should be unhealed, since God is never glorified in our sickness any more than in our sin, for both sickness and sin are clearly Satan's work. He is glorified in delivering us from sickness, and nowhere is it written that He is glorified in sickness. The mistaken perversion of our Lord's words in John 11:4 has led many astray by giving them the false interpretation that God is glorified in our sickness. Jesus, when He received the message of Lazarus' sisters, "Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick," did not say that God was glorified in that sickness; He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby." This glorious declaration was abundantly justified by the wondrous manifestation of His resurrection and healing power, and He was glorified, as the Son of God, in the delivering His loved one from the power of the devil, who is the author of disease and death. Jesus did not say, "God made him sick that I should be glorified in delivering him from sickness," but He said in effect that the glory of God in His own person should be manifested in delivering him from that evil one from whom sin and sickness and death and hell proceed, that is, from the devil. Christ did not go about healing those that were oppressed of God, for it is written (Act 10:38), "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." Since, then, all forms of human sickness are Satan's work, these filthy diseases and painful infirmities can never be God's will, and if we believe that "for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil," (1 John 4:8) then we must believe that He came to destroy disease, and that God is ever glorified in the destruction of disease in His people.

How glorious it will be when from the four winds the breath of God breathes upon multitudes of God's children who are fainting, groaning, and dying, and are in their graves so far as practical usefulness is concerned. What a glorious power will be given to the Church of God when those who are now useless in the battle field will rise up at His command, filled with divine Life and glad with the indwelling consciousness of His healing power in every part of their spirit, soul, and body. What mighty blows will then be dealt in Jesus' name and in His strength to Satan's kingdom, and what multitudes will be set free by these triumphant hosts will go forth "an exceeding great army" to proclaim a perfect redemption not only for the spirit and the soul, but for the body also. This wondrous power rested on the Church in its glorious morning, and now that the night has come, the sure word of prophecy encourages us to believe that He who is coming to take out of the world His own will prepare them for that coming by "restoring health" to them. This health will be given for blessed service in the "little while" ere "he shall descend from heaven with a shout with the voice of the archangel and the trump of God." It will not be from innumerable sick-beds, groaning with cancers and rheumatisms and fevers that the "wise virgins" shall go forth with glad songs and joyful steps to meet their Lord, but they shall go forth to meet Him with the Oil filling their earthly vessels, for ere He comes He shall be glorified in their deliverance from the foul imprints of Satan's finger. On every page of the evangel and in the Acts of the Apostles we read that "they glorified the God of Israel" when they saw the mighty power of Jesus' name in the healing of the sick, and so it will be again. It is for God's glory that we should be healed.

3. The prayer of the leper can never justify the use of the word "If thou wilt or it be Thy will," since we have the answer of the Lord to the prayer of the leper in the two glorious words, "I will." When the leper said, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean," he acknowledged, in the act of worship, first that Christ was His Lord and God in whom he trusted for salvation. Second, by the words, "Thou canst," he expressed his faith in the power of the Lord to heal, but being ignorant as yet of the abounding willingness of Christ, who was only then unfolding His glorious will, he said, "If Thou wilt," and in speaking thus he expressed his doubtfulness as to the Lord's willingness. But when Jesus said "I Will," the leper no longer prayed "If Thou wilt;" to have done so would have been to sin. Now Christ's answer to the leper is His answer to every true believer, "I will," and to repeat the form of the leper's prayer, "If Thou wilt," is to doubt whether that is really the Lord's answer, and doubt is sin. Had the leper persisted in praying "If Thou wilt," after he had heard the Lord's answer, he would never have been healed, for he would have shrunk from the Lord's touch. This is what many Christians are doing now; they persist in praying, even when they have heard the Lord's answer, "Lord, if Thou wilt" and therefore they shrink from the Lord's touch.

To every true believer to-day bowed down with sickness Christ speaks as at Bethesda, (John 5:6) "Wilt thou be made whole?" and unless we are willing He cannot heal, for He demands that we shall believe in His willingness without an "if" or a "but" or any qualification whatever. The language of faith never includes a syllable of doubt, and the little word "if," though it be but a syllable, is an element of doubt so great that no prayer can be answered which contains it. Let the believer listen to the Lord's answer to the leper, "I will," and never again repeat the leper's word of ignorance (justifiable in him but not in us), that little pernicious word "if." When one came to Jesus with that word, saying "If thou canst do anything, have compassion on us and help us," the Lord's answer was distinct and clear, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark 9: 23.) The "if" is never on God's part; His will is revealed, and there can never be any doubt as to His willingness to heal. Therefore it but rests with the Christian to throw away the "if" and to say, "LORD, I BELIEVE."

4. There can be no analogy between our prayer for Divine Healing and Christ's bitter cry in the hour of His agony and sore temptation in the garden, when He said, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death." As He Himself had said, it was impossible for that cup to pass from Him. This is proved by reference to His word in John 12 : 27, where He says, "Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour;" and then it was that He, withdrawing that prayer, said, "Father, glorify Thy name," and to that there came a voice from Heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." It was only in thus fulfilling the eternal will and purpose of the eternal Trinity that it was possible for Him to become the Redeemer of men, and the "if" in that prayer was thus absolutely withdrawn and with glorious devotion for our salvation and healing and perfect redemption, He said, "as THOU wilt." All we ever can desire any Christian to say, is "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt," only let us know clearly what that will is, and then pray that His revealed will shall be fulfilled in us.

5. There is no such prayer taught Christ's disciples as that which is so often quoted as justifying the retention of the doubting "IF;" viz., "Thy will be done." Christians have no right to insert a full stop where their Bibles do not even contain a comma. The prayer, as our Lord taught it to his disciples, is contained in Matthew 6 : 10, and is not "Thy will be done," but "Thy will be done in earth AS IT IS in Heaven," a very different prayer, with a larger scope than the abbreviated and distorted petition, "Thy will be done." The prayer, as it is often quoted, is a prayer of resignation to the unknown will of God, but that is clearly not the intention of our Lord. As He inspires the prayer, it is a prayer beseeching divine intervention, and entreating that "Our Father in Heaven" shall now, on this earth, do His will in us exactly in the same way as that will is now done in Heaven. Resignation to the Divine Will is a lovely and beautiful grace, but when the prayer which our Lord has taught us is distorted and used by Christians as a reason for their resignation to disease and corruption which is the devil's will and work, the perversion of the prayer becomes a very serious matter. Satan, himself must have devised and maintained in Christian writings and hymns this miserable perversion of the prayer taught by our Lord, for it has been a most successful delusion in his hands to keep millions of God's children bound by his filthy chains in racking pain, and even leading them to glorify God for his (that is, Satan's) work.

The extent to which this has been done by Christians for many centuries is beyond all expression sad. Holy and consecrated in spirit, great numbers of lovely Christian characters have pressed their lips to the work of Satan's foul fingers on their bodies, and said, looking up to God, "Father, Thy will be done." Take, for illustration, the verses written by that excellent Christian lady, Frances Ridley Havergal, entitled, "A song in the Night." In a note to the little poem, she says that it was written in severe pain on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, 1876, at the Pension Wengen, Alps. She says:—

I take this pain, Lord Jesus, from Thine own hand
The strength to bear it bravely Thou wilt command
I take this pain, Lord Jesus, as proof indeed
That Thou art watching closely my truest need,
That Thou, my Good Physician, art watching still,
That all thine own good pleasure Thou wilt fulfil.

I take this pain, Lord Jesus; What Thou dost choo
The soul that really loves Thee will not refuse.
I take this pain, Lord Jesus as Thine own gift,
And true, though tremulous praises I now uplift.

'Tis Thy dear hand, O Saviour, that presseth sore;
The hand that bears the nail-prints forevermore.
And now beneath its shadow, hidden by Thee,
The pressure only tells me Thou lovest me.

It is sad to say it, and to say it of one whose memory is so justly held dear by the church of God, but said it must be, that this, and the thousands of other poems and writings like it, must give great joy to the devil, for these sentiments are an absolute insult to God. To declare that a painful, horrible, filthy disease, corrupting and destroying a useful life, is implanted there by the hand of the Saviour and the Healer and the Cleanser, the incorruptible God, from whom nothing unclean can come, is to say that which is not true. It is no more true in Frances Ridley Havergal than it was in Job when he said "Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye, my friends; for the hand of the Lord hath touched me," (Job 19: 21), when not one single filthy boil on Job's miserable body had ever been planted there by any other than by Satan's unclean hand, since it is written that "Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown." (Job 2: 7.)

Let us look more closely at this prayer which our Lord has taught us, and we shall see how entirely opposite to its perversion the prayer really is. As we have said, it is a prayer for divine intervention, asking that our Father's will shall be done in us now, as it is done in Heaven.

To understand it, therefore, let us leave, in imagination, this earth and these lower skies and wing our way through all the starry spaces, leaving suns and systems behind, until we come to the highest heavens and reach the "city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." Let us now stand before one of those glorious gates of the city celestial. There, in all its glory, the city shines, "like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal." It rises above its walls great and high one thousand five hundred miles upward into the lovely sky, and extends on every side an equal measure "according to the measure of a man." All radiant with glory, the many mansions rise tier upon tier in this Metropolis of the Universe up to the very Throne of the Eternal. At one of the pearly gates we look into the face of a glorious guardian angel and say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is this Heaven, where God's will is done? And he answers "Yea." Again we say, "Tell us, O blessed one, is there any sin within these Jasper walls?" And he would say "Nay, for here the Father's will is done, and where that will is done no sin can enter."

Back from the gates of glory, we come down again to earth, and kneeling now upon this footstool, we lift our eyes to Heaven and say, "Father, Thy will be done in me on earth this day, just in the same way as it is now done in Heaven; and as in Heaven no sin abides, grant that all sin may now be taken from my heart, and that Thy holy will reign there alone, making my spirit pure, as Thou art pure." Will that prayer be answered if it come up to our Father's ear in Jesus name? Were it not answered, the Throne of God would fall for the Word of God would fail, which proclaims through earth and Heaven, "The BLOOD of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin." "I believe it," the Christian cries, "I believe it now, that it is His will, and I through faith and by His power am cleansed from sin." And so do we. Hallelujah.

But let us re-ascend, and wing our way in spirit once again above these lower skies, and stand once more beside the City of Gold. "Tell us, O blessed one, tell us," we say, "is there within these jasper walls, within these mansions of glory which rise above them to the Throne of God, any in whom disease, death, sorrow, crying or pain abide?" And if angel face could ever wear a look of pain, a flush of shame, it would be his from whose lips with mingled sorrow and displeasure the answer comes in one stern word, "Nay." "And wherefore, blessed one?" we say, to which he might reply, "Have ye not read 'there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie?'" And continuing, he might say, "The former things are passed away, the Father's will is done, the hand of the defiler of men can no more corrupt, for the will of the Father is done throughout all Heaven."

Descending once more, we bow our knees upon this earth, which is God's footstool, and looking up once more to Heaven, which is His Throne, we cry, "Father, O my Father, let Thy will be done in me on earth to-day, as that will is now done in Heaven; and as disease and corruption now defile my body, which is Thy temple, cleanse me from every defilement of the flesh as Thou hast from every defilement of the spirit, and in the perfect healing of every part, let Thy holy will now be done." Will that prayer be answered? If it be the prayer of faith, then it is written, "The prayer of faith SHALL SAVE THE SICK" and Heaven itself must fall to deepest Hell before that word can fail. But fail it cannot, for "it is impossible that God should lie. He promised, and He must perform."

Oh, that His will might be done, and that thou, dear suffering one who mayest read these words, shouldest no longer doubt the willingness of thy Lord to deliver thee from "all the power of the enemy," and to enable thee to "glorify God in your body and your spirit, which are His."

And now, beloved, how can we better close these words than in asking you to banish forever that fatal "IF" which keeps thee from the touch of Christ's healing hand waiting to heal thee now. We can only add our fervent exhortation and our earnest prayer for you in the words of the holy apostle Paul, "Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, WHO ALSO WILL DO IT." Let him do it; and songs of rejoicing will ring through earth and Heaven that the Father's will is done, and you who have waited long shall now rejoice, "being delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God," not only in having received "the first fruits of the Spirit," but in the "Redemption of your Body."

O'er earth and sea now let it ring,
The Lord is King, the Lord is King;
And Satan's chains from men shall fall
'Midst joyous shouts of "CHRIST IS ALL!"

EXTRACTS FROM "DIVINE HEALING VINDICATED."

THAT which fears criticism or investigation is not worth anything.

"THE redemption of our body" (Rom. 8: 23 and 1 Thess. 5: 22-24) is a present redemption, and if we will all let God have his way we may also say with Paul, "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." (Rom. 8: 2.)

DIVINE Healing is a perpetual covenant with God's people; for, He has revealed himself by that name—Jehovah-rophi—"I am the Lord that healeth thee." (Ex. 15: 26.) And the "Gifts of Healings" are ever in the church of Christ; for 1 Cor. 12: 9 shows that they are "in the Holy Spirit," and He is ever in the church. "The gifts and callings of God are without repentance," (Rom. 11: 29) and therefore, the Gifts of Healings, however they may be neglected, cannot be removed, for God's word would then fail, and that cannot be.

OUR friends say, we are to be "free from wearisome toil." Thanks be to God; I accept that. We are freed from wearisome toil. I am toiling night and day; I am toiling week in, month in, year in and year out, toiling every year more than I did the past, and feeling less weary than I did before. I thank God that I am able to realize the meaning of that word, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." (Isa. 40: 31.) These wings of faith and hope take us right up to the mansions of God, and we come down strong. Hallelujah! I thank God that we can toil without weariness. There are multitudes on the earth to-day who are saying that the Lord is their strength, and that it is a joy to work and a joy to live.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY

BY THE EDITOR.

Have you ever heard the story
 How our Lord before He died
 Laid His blessed hands in healing,
 Upon all who to Him cried;
 How the sick and all oppressed ones
 He rejoicing sent away;
 O, I'm glad, so glad to tell you,
 He is just the same today.

Let me speak to you of Jesus, kind reader of these pages. In simple, honest words, with tenderness and love, I want to tell you glad, good news. Christ changes never, and as He was on earth in ages long gone by, He is unchangeably the same even here and now. The Word which never dies is true, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever."

All His life and ministry were beautifully described by Peter thus: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil." (Acts 10: 38.)

"Teaching" patiently, "preaching" boldly, He went about with constant sympathy, "healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people." (Matt. 4: 23, 9: 35.)

He is the same today as when He trod the Holy Land, blessing the fainting, scattered, burdened sheep of God with words of life. And still He journeys over all the earth and never wearies of His loving task. He binds up still the broken, bleeding hearts, He still delivers from the tyrant's fetters, and from Himself, the Fountain, healing virtue still is flowing. With outstretched hands He stands, quick to respond to thine appeal and banish all thy woe. Unseen, but "with us always," as He said, He stands beside thy bed of weary pain. Loved ones bend over thee, and minister with sympathetic care; but nearer than all beside is Jesus, thy Saviour and thy Healer still. The Hand that cleansed the foulness of the leper's flesh and made it sweet and clean; the Hand that made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, the lame to leap, the dumb to speak; the Hand which raised the dead to life is here, no vanished Christ have we. Oh, wherefore doubt, and wherefore seek at other hands, from surgeon's knife or poison draught, the healing which He died to bring to thee, to me, to all mankind, in every age, in every land, in every clime? Christ changes never.

At noontide, sixteen years ago, I sat in my study in the parsonage of the Congregational Church, at Newton, a suburb of the beautiful city of Sydney, Australia. My heart was very heavy, for I had been visiting the sick and dying beds of more than thirty of my flock, and I had cast the dust to its kindred dust into more than forty graves within a few weeks. Where, oh where was He who used to heal His suffering children? No prayer for healing seemed to reach His ear, and yet I knew His hand had not been shortened. Still it did not save from death even those for whom there was so much in life to live for God and others. Strong men, fathers, good citizens, and more than all, true faithful Christians sickened with a putrid fever, suffered nameless agonies, passed into delirium, sometimes with convulsions, and then died. And oh, what aching voids were left in many a widowed orphaned heart. Then there were many homes where, one by one, the little children, the youths and the maidens were stricken, and after hard struggling with the foul disease, they too, lay cold and dead. It seemed sometimes as if I could almost hear the triumphant mockery of fiends ringing in my ear whilst I spoke to the bereaved ones the words of Christian hope and consolation. Disease, the foul offspring of its father, Satan, and its mother, Sin, was defiling and destroying the earthly temples of God's children, and there was no deliverer.

And there I sat with sorrow bowed ad for my afflicted people, until the bitter tears came to relieve my burning heart. Then I prayed for some message, and oh, how I longed to hear some words from Him who wept and sorrowed for the suffering long ago, the Man of Sorrows and of Sympathies. And then the words of the Holy Ghost inspired in Acts 10: 38 stood before me all radiant with light, revealing Satan as the defiler and Christ as the Healer. My tears were wiped away, my heart was strong, I saw the way of healing, and the door thereto was opened wide, and so I said, "God help me now to preach that word to all the dying round, and tell them how 'tis Satan still defiles, and Jesus still delivers, for 'He is just the same today.'"

A loud ring and several loud raps at the outer door, a rush of feet, and then at my door two panting messengers who said, "Oh, come at once, Mary is dying; come and pray." With just such a feeling as a shepherd has who hears that his sheep are being torn from the fold by a cruel wolf, I rushed from my house, ran hatless down the street, and entered the room of the dying maiden. There she lay groaning, grinding her clenched teeth in the agony of the conflict with the destroyer, the white froth, mingled with her blood, oozing from her pain-distorted mouth. I looked at her and then my anger burned. "Oh," I thought, "for some sharp sword of heavenly temper keen to slay this cruel foe who is strangling that lovely maiden like an invisible serpent, tightening his deadly coils for a final victory."

In a strange way it came to pass; I found the sword I needed was in my hands, and in my hand I hold it still, and never will I lay it down. The doctor, a good Christian man, was quietly walking up and down the room, sharing the mother's pain and grief. Presently he stood at my side and said, "Sir, are not God's ways mysterious?" Instantly the sword was flashing in my hand,—the Spirit's Sword, the Word of God. "God's way!" I said, pointing to the scene of conflict, "how dare you, Dr. K——, call that God's way of bringing His children home from earth to Heaven? No, sir, that is the devil's work, and it is time we called on Him who came to "destroy the work of the devil," to slay that deadly foul destroyer, and to save the child. Can you pray, Doctor, can you pray the prayer of faith that saves the sick?" At once, offended at my words, my friend was changed, and saying, "You are too much excited, sir, 'tis best to say God's will be done," he left the room. Excited! The word was quite inadequate for I was almost frenzied with Divinely imparted anger and hatred of that foul destroyer, disease, which was doing Satan's will. "It is not so," I exclaimed, "no will of God sends such cruelty, and I shall never say God's will be done to Satan's works, which God's own Son came to destroy, and this is one of them." Oh, how the word of God was burning in my heart: "Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him." And was not God with me? and was not Jesus there and all His promise true? I felt that it was even so, and turning to the mother I inquired, "Why did you send for me?" To which she answered, "Do pray, oh, pray for her that God may raise her up." And so we prayed. What did I say? It may be that I cannot now recall the words without mistake, but words are in themselves of small importance. The prayer of faith may be a voiceless prayer, a simple heartfelt look of confidence into the face of Christ. At such a moment words are few, but they mean much, for God is looking at the heart. Still, I can remember much of that prayer unto this day, and asking God to aid I will endeavor to recall it. I cried:

"Our Father, help! and Holy Spirit teach me how to pray. Plead Thou for us, oh, Jesus, Saviour, Healer, Friend, our Advocate with God the Father. Hear and heal Eternal One! From all disease and death deliver this sweet child of Thine. I rest upon The word. We claim the promise now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord that healeth thee.' Then heal her now. The word is true, 'I am the Lord, I change not.' Unchanging God, then prove Thyself the Healer now. The word is true, 'These signs shall follow them that believe, in My Name, they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.' And I believe, and I lay hands in Jesus' name on her, and claim this promise now. Thy word is true, 'the prayer of faith shall save the sick.' Trusting in Thee alone, I cry, oh, save her now, for Jesus' sake, Amen!"

And, lo, the maid lay still in sleep, so deep and sweet that the mother said in a low whisper, "Is she dead?" "No," I answered in a whisper lower still, "Mary will live, the fever has gone. She is perfectly well and sleeping as an infant sleeps." Smoothing the long dark hair from her now peaceful brow, and feeling the steady pulsation of her heart and cool, moist hands, I saw that Christ had heard and that once more, as long ago in Peter's house, "He touched her and the fever left her." Turning to the nurse I said, "Get me at once, please, a cup of cocoa and several slices of bread and butter." Beside the sleeping maid we sat quietly and almost silently until the nurse returned, and then I bent over her and snapping my fingers said, "Mary!" Instantly she woke, smiled and said, "Oh, sir, when did you come? I have slept so long;" then stretching out her arms to meet her mother's embrace, she said, "Mother, I feel so well." "And hungry too?" I said, pouring some of the cocoa in a saucer and offering it to her when cooled by my breath. "Yes hungry too," she answered with a little laugh, and drank and ate again, and yet again, until all was gone. In a few minutes she fell asleep, breathing easily and softly. Quietly thanking God we left her bed and went to the next room where her brother and sister also lay sick of the same fever. With these two we also prayed, and they were healed. The following day all three were well and in a week or so they brought to me a little letter and a little gift of gold, two sleeve links with my monogram, which I wore for many years. As I went away from the home where Christ as the Healer had been victorious, I could not but have somewhat in my heart of the triumphant song that rang through Heaven, and yet I was not a little amazed at my own strange doings, and still more at my discovery that

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And this is the story of how I came to preach the Gospel of Healing through Faith in Jesus.

That very day I went to the cemetery and laid in the grave the bodies of three who had died two days before, but I rejoice to add that in the more than twelve years of ministry in Australia which followed I only buried five, although ministering to many, many thousands. And yet it was not all at once that I could discover how to teach the lessons that I learned that day. Not until six years after did I fully enter upon the ministry of healing as a part of the ministry of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, to preach which I was duly ordained twenty years ago. In these ten years I have prayed, and in Jesus' name have laid my hands upon more than 18,000 sick ones, and, so far as man can judge, by far the greater part were fully healed. These witnesses have testified in thousands and the record of their testimonies has gone forth to many lands. We have left our friends and home to carry Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life to every creature in every nation we can reach. We have never proclaimed this Gospel in any city or country where God has not confirmed the word with signs following, although in some places it is still true as nineteen centuries ago, "He could not do there many mighty works because of their unbelief." We bring this message to this city, and to thee, kind reader. It will give us joy to tell it to all who will come. Salvation and Healing are FREE, for God never sells His gifts, "Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

The mission opens its doors to all. It is the old time religion and no new gospel that is preached. 'Tis the gospel of Jesus' Redemption for spirit, soul and body, bringing salvation from sin, healing from sickness, and cleansing from every defilement of the flesh and spirit.

Let the words abide in thy heart.

HE IS JUST THE SAME TO-DAY.

And if thou wilt believe Him, first for Salvation and then for Healing, thou wilt go onward in the King's Highway of Holiness singing the familiar words with a new meaning, as 'thou goest along the way through earth to Heaven:

"Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find.
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Gottes Weg der Heilung.

Vom Redakteur.

Gottes Weg der Heilung ist eine Person und kein Ding.

Jesus sagte: „Ich bin der Weg, die Wahrheit und das Leben,“ und Er wurde stets Seinem Volke geoffenbart in all den Jahren durch des Vertrages Name, Jehovah-rophi, oder „Ich bin der Herr, der Dich geheilt hat.“ (Johannes 14: 6 und zweites Buch Moses 15: 26).

Der Herr Jesus Christus ist stets der Heiler.

Er kann sich nicht ändern, denn „Er war derselbe gestern, ist es heute und ewig,“ und Er ist stets bei uns, denn Er sagt: „Siehe, ich bin stets bei Euch, selbst bis zum Ende der Welt.“ (Hebräer 13: 8 und Matthäi 28: 20). Weil Er unveränderlich ist, und weil er anwesend ist im Geiste gerade so als wie im Fleisch, deshalb ist er der Heiler Seines Volkes.

Göttliche Heilung ruht auf Christi's Veröhnung.

Es wurde von Ihm prophezeit: „Sicherlich hat Er unseren Kummer ertragen (Hebräer, Krankheiten) und unseren Schmerz empfunden, und durch Seine Streifen werden wir geheilt,“ und es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß dieses in Seinem Dienst der Heilung vollzogen wurde, welcher stets fortgeführt wird. (Jsaiah 53: 4, 5 und Matthäi 8: 17).

Krankheit kann niemals Gottes Wille sein.

Es ist des Teufels Arbeit, folgend auf Sünde, und es ist für die Arbeit des Teufels unmöglich, jemals der Wille Gottes zu sein.

Christus kam, um „die Arbeiten des Teufels zu zerstören,“ und als Er hier auf Erden war, „heilte Er jede Unpäßlichkeit und jede Krankheit,“ und alle diese Krankheiten sind ausdrücklich für die „Unterdrückung des Teufels“ erklärt worden. (1 Johannes 3: 8, Matthäi 4: 23 und Apostelgeschichte 10: 38).

Die Gaben der Heilung sind fortdauernd.

Es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß die „Gaben und der Beruf Gottes ohne Neue sind,“ und die Gaben der Heilung sind unter den neun Gaben des Geistes zur Kirche zu finden. (Römer 11: 29 und 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

Es giebt vier Arten göttlicher Heilung.

Die erste Art ist das direkte Glaubensgebet; die zweite ist das vermittelnde Gebet von zwei oder mehr Personen; die dritte ist die Erlaubung des Ältesten mit dem Glaubens ebet, und die vierte Art ist das Handauflegen Derjenigen, welche glauben, und wel e Gott vorbereitet und zu jenem Dienst berufen hat. (Matthäi 8: 5-13, Matthäi 18: 19, Jacob 5: 14, 15, Marcus 16: 1c).

Göttliche Heilung wird von teuflischen Betrügnern bekämpft.

Unter diesen befinden sich Christian Science (fälschlich so genannt), Geist-Heilung, Spiritualismus, Entzündungs-Evangelismus u. s. w. (1 Timotheus 6: 20, 21, 1 Timotheus 4: 1, 2, Jsaiah 51: 22, 23).

Tausende sind durch den Glauben an Jesus geheilt worden.

Schreiber Dieses sind Tausende von Fälle bekannt und er hat persönlich seine Hand gelegt auf Tausende von Personen. Vollständige Auskunft kann man erhalten in den Versammlungen, welche im Zion Tabernakel, No. 251 Ost 62. Str., nahe dem Jackson-Park, Chicago, abgehalten werden, sowie aus vielen Pamphlets, welche die Erfahrung von Vielen in deren eigenen Worten enthalten, die in diesem und anderen Ländern geheilt worden sind. Guds sätt att hela.

AF REDAKTÖREN.

Guds sätt att hela är en person, ej ett ting.

Jesus sade: „Jag är vägen, sanningen och lifvet,“ och Han har alltid uppenbarat sig för sitt folk i alla tidsåldrar under löftesnamnet Jehovah-rophi, eller „jag är Herren, din läkare.“ (Joh. 14: 6; 2 Mos. 15: 26.)

Herren Jesus Kristus är ännu den som helar.

Han kan ej ändra sig, ty „Han är den samme i går, i dag och för evigt,“ och Han är ännu med oss, ty Han sade: „Si, jag är med eder alltid, intill verdens ände.“ (Ebr. 13: 8 och Matt. 28: 20.) Förty Han är oföränderlig och förty Han är närvarande i anden, liksom i köttet, Han är sitt folks läkare.

Gudomlig läkning hvilat på Kristi försoning.

Profetian säger om Honom: „Sannerliga, Han bar vår krankhet och lade uppå sig vår sveda, och genom Hans sår äro vi helade,“ och det förklaras uttryckligen, att detta fullkomligades i Hans kall såsom läkare, hvilket ännu fortfar. (Esaia 53: 4, 5 och Matt. 8: 17.)

Sjukdom kan aldrig vara Guds vilja.

Det är djefvulens verk, en följd af synden, och det är för alltid omöjligt, att djefvulens arbete kan vara Guds vilja.

Kristus kom för „att förstöra djefvulens verk,“ och när Han var här på jorden, „helade Han hvarje krankhet, hvarje sjukdom,“ och alla dessa sjukdomar förklaras uttryckligen att hafva varit en följd af „djefvulens förtryck.“ (1 Joh. 3: 8, Matt. 4: 23 och Ap. 10: 38.)

Helandets gåfvor äro beständiga.

Det är uttryckligen förklaradt, att „Guds gåfvor och kallelse äro sådana, att Han kan dem icke ångra,“ och helandets gåfvor äro bland de nio gåfvor, som Anden gaf kyrkan. (Rom. 11: 29 och 1 Kor. 12: 8-11.)

Det finnes fyra sätt af gudomligt helande.

Det första är den direkta troende bönen; det andra, medlande förbön af två eller flera personer; det tredje, de äldstes smörjelse medelst troende bön; och det fjerde, händer påläggning af dem, som tro, och hvilka Gud har beredt och kallat till det embetet. (Matt. 8: 5-13, Matt. 18: 19, Jak. 5: 14, 15; Marc. 16: 18.)

Gudomligt helande röner motstånd i djefvulska förfalskningar.

Bland dessa äro: Kristlig vetenskap (falskligen så kallad), sinneshelande, spiritualism, ekstas-evangelism o. s. v. (1 Tim. 6: 20, 21, 1 Tim. 4: 1, 2, Es. 51: 22, 23.)

Stora skaror hafva blifvit helade genom tron på Jesus.

Nedskrifvaren af detta känner tusentals fall och har personligen lagt händer på tjugutals tusenden personer. Fullständiga upplysningar kunna erhållas vid de möten, som hållas i Zion Tabernaklet, 251 E. 62nd St., nära Jackson Park, Chicago, samt i många pamfletter, hvilka visa erfarenheten, i deras egna ord, af många, som blifvit helade i detta land och andra länder; dessa pamfletter äro utgifna af Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

„Tron kommer genom att höra, och hörandet genom Guds ord.“

Ni inbjudes hjertligen att närvara och höra för eder sjelf.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"As soon as Zion travailed she brought forth her children."

WE have come to the borders of wonderful days, days when "a nation shall be born in a day," and Satan fears amidst his worshippers: for the doom of hell has gone forth from the Throne of God.

"HE that OVERCOMETH shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be My Son."

FAITH overcomes—the faith of God.

"BUT for the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the Lake which burneth with Fire and Brimstone, which is the Second Death."

CHICAGO is a very Lake of Fire. Men go about striking brimstone matches everywhere, "lighting up" deadly little sticks of nicotine poison in the form of cigars and cigarettes, and vomiting forth smoke and filthy spittle, until the City reeks and smells in all its parts with the disgusting stench of the Second Death.

"Dead in trespasses and sins," already, they plunge into a Lake of Fire and Brimstone of their own creation. Mad-dened by their vices, irritated by the brain poisons they drink and burn, they float along a river of liquid fire and distilled damnation to an ocean of perdition in hundreds of thousands.

A SPEAKER last night at the Sunset Club, Chicago, in a discussion upon the suppression of vice, is reported to have said: "Progress has been made by enlarging the liberty to be bad. The sovereign remedy for Vice is the fullest freedom." He edits a paper called Liberty.

THIS witness represents Chicagoan progress towards the Lake of Fire very correctly, and his remedy is truly the work of his Sovereign—the Devil. The one demand is fullest freedom, that is "by enlarging the liberty to be BAD." Is not this the very embodiment of all that is diabolical? But it is the Chicago ideal of Liberty.

DURING the World's Fair the mayor decreed the suspension of restraints upon Vice. The directors of the Fair imported the Vices of the harlots of Egypt and of Persia and all the local talent, established them attractively on the Midway Plaisance, and received a large percentage of the Wages of Sin. The ministers imported the priests of filthy Asiatic forms of false religion, and gave them in the Parliament of Religions, "the fullest freedom" to pollute the minds of the already polluted people. The press and the police protected that freedom."

Victor Yarrows, thou Child of the Devil, when thou didst speak at the Sunset Club, thou didst speak as a true-born Child of Chicago in saying, "Progress has been made by enlarging the liberty to be bad!"

Great progress has been made to Hell!

NOTICE! ye children of Zion, who are passing through this city called Vanity, where the Devil has a Fair all the year long—notice! that the first to fall into the Lake of Fire are "THE FEARFUL."

It does not pay to be a Coward in Chicago, or any other place where the Devil is "enlarging the liberty to be bad." Ye fearful ones, ye dumb dogs, ye false shepherds, beware, it is the coward who leads the procession to the Lake of Fire. Political cowards, afraid to cast an open vote for God; business cowards, afraid to avow your faith in God, lest Rome and Rum should oppose you; clerical cowards, afraid to offend the rich adulterers and adulteresses who make your churches houses of worldly assignation; society cowards who go with the theatrical, gambling, gossiping, filthy reading, finely dressed, voluptuous Swim—ye call yourselves Christians, but ye head the multitudes who are sweeping on to the Lake of Fire.

AGAIN—Notice! ye children of Zion, it is "THE UNBELIEVING," who are next in the awful procession of the perishing.

YE unbelievers, who say, "I think as I like, and I believe as I like," know ye not that ye are sweeping on with the Cowards into the Lake of Fire, even whilst ye pretend to be pillars in the Church. Know ye not that the Faith of God makes a true child of God to think as God thinks, to believe all that God has spoken.

YE MISERABLE unbelievers, your faith is a scarecrow figure of shreds and patches, picked up out of the thinkings of novel writers and poets, and philosophers, and the smart things of consumptive wits and irreligious renegades. Get ye back to God's Eternal Word, listen to the Oratorio of the Everlasting Gospel, and find once more in Jesus the Christ of God, the Author and Finisher of Faith.

Look at the rest of the procession, ye pilgrims Zionward. The Abominable were Fearful Unbelievers, and, because they feared to do right, and doubted God, they are sweeping on to the Second Death.

Look again—"Murderers!" They too were Cowards and Unbelievers: for they follow Cain closely.

Look again—"Fornicators!" They too were Cowards and Unbelievers: for they follow Samson closely and sweep on with their Delilahs into the Burning.

Look again—"Sorcerers!" They too were Cowards and Unbelievers: for they follow Saul to the Witch of Endor and are slain in battle for their sin, sweeping onward with the damned to the Fire.

Look again—"Idolaters!" They too were Cowards and Unbelievers: for they follow Ahab and Jezebel, and Judas Iscariot into the doom of those who worship devils and make a god out of unrighteous mammon.

Look again—"All Liars!" They too were Cowards and Unbelievers: for they feared to suffer loss of means, or liberty, or life. They sold the truth as Esau did his birth-right, for "a mess of pottage" of the devil's cooking. They lied for money or for the favour of liars. They go deep, deep down to drink the hottest fires of the Burning and the Brimstone—they die to all that is good and holy, and live to be continually consumed by "the worm that never dies," the awakened memory of a sleepless conscience which can find no remembrance but the tortures of the lies of their past. Newspaper liars, novel writing liars, business liars, family liars, society liars, political liars, polite liars, vulgar liars, rich liars, poor liars, church liars, legal liars—yea, all liars shall have their part in that awful Second Death.

"THERE is no Fear in Love," and there is no Unbelief in the heart where Faith reigns.

OVERCOMERS, ARISE!

Ye are the Inheritors of All things.
Sweep onward in your robes of light, along the crystal waters of the River of Life.

"On! Towards Zion!
Glory awaits you there;
Crowns for the victor's brow;
Robes that the conquerors wear;
Thrones for the Sons of Might;
Harps for the Sons of Song;
Welcomes from Heaven's own King,
Greetings from Heaven's Bright Throng."

OVERCOMERS, ARISE!

Hear ye not the Voice from the Throne, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son."

BUT the Battlefield for you is here, and now.

"On, for ye now must wage
The warfare, life begun;
Or see life's day decline.
With life's great work undone.
Hark! For your Captain calls.
And o'er your path has shone
His lightening gleaming Sword:—
On! To the fight, then, on!"

EVERY Lord's Day repeats the story of Victory in Zion Tabernacle, and thus it was when the people arose to consecrate themselves to God, almost without exception, last Lord's Day afternoon. A glorious band is forming there for future co-operation in service for Christ and humanity.

WHAT a shout of praise went up to God in Zion Tabernacle when we read a card from a wealthy brother presenting us with FIVE ACRES OF LAND as a new location for our work.

We wrote in our Editorial Notes of last week, page 327, that we hoped soon "to find a new and still better location for our work" as our leases expired on May 1st 1896.

Whilst we were praying God was answering.

THE offer is accompanied by many other advantageous proposals and assurances. The location is about 22 miles from the center of Chicago, and about 8 miles from the city limits. It is in the State of Indiana. We can secure the control of several hundreds of acres, around the five given, and many of our friends, amongst whom is the proprietor, desire us to lay out a town, radiating from the new Zion Tabernacle as a center, so that they may dwell in Zion all the time: for it is proposed to call it by that name.

ONE of the principal Eastern Trunk Railroads now runs through the property, and offers rapid transit facilities at low rates, with other privileges. Two other main lines run quite close to it, and the Electric Street Car lines, connecting with every part of Chicago, could easily be extended into the projected town of Zion.

It is a wonderful proposal, and we are giving it prayerful consideration in connection with Christian business friends, some of whom think that we could do with one or two square miles, and lay out Zion on a larger scale. It has delighted us to find many prepared to sell both city and country properties, and to invest in lots and build at once in "Zion:" for the sake of the religious privileges and associations, and to secure deliverance for themselves and their families from the rum-soaked, tobacco-reeking streets of Chicago, since, of course, neither saloons, tobacco shops, drug stores, theaters, nor piggeries would be allowed there.

OF course it would be delightful to settle several thousands of Christian Homes around a large Zion Tabernacle, like the beautiful conception wrought out at Ocean Grove, N. J., by the venerable Dr. Stokes and his friends. Doubtless it could be done, if the people are of one heart and mind in the Lord.

WE invite "Suggestions for Zion" from our readers. Let them be brief and practical, and headed with those three words.

IF God gave us our hearts desire there are certain things we could do.

We could form Zion College and train workers constantly for aggressive mission work among the masses of Heathen Chicago and elsewhere.

We could have plenty of room for Divine Healing Homes with easy access to the Tabernacle, and provision for quiet pleasant grounds.

We could raise up an extensive Printing and Publishing House, and probably establish Co-operative Stores for Family Supplies, and possibly Co-operative Industries near the town.

We could do something towards showing the Church how to live in the world and yet not be of it, and yet make Zion one of the happiest spots on earth.

We could establish a Tabernacle where tens of thousand from Chicago and from all parts could hear the Everlasting Gospel every week, and we could form an Apostolic Church on the model of the New Testament, where Christ would be all, and the Holy Ghost control, to the glory of God the Father.

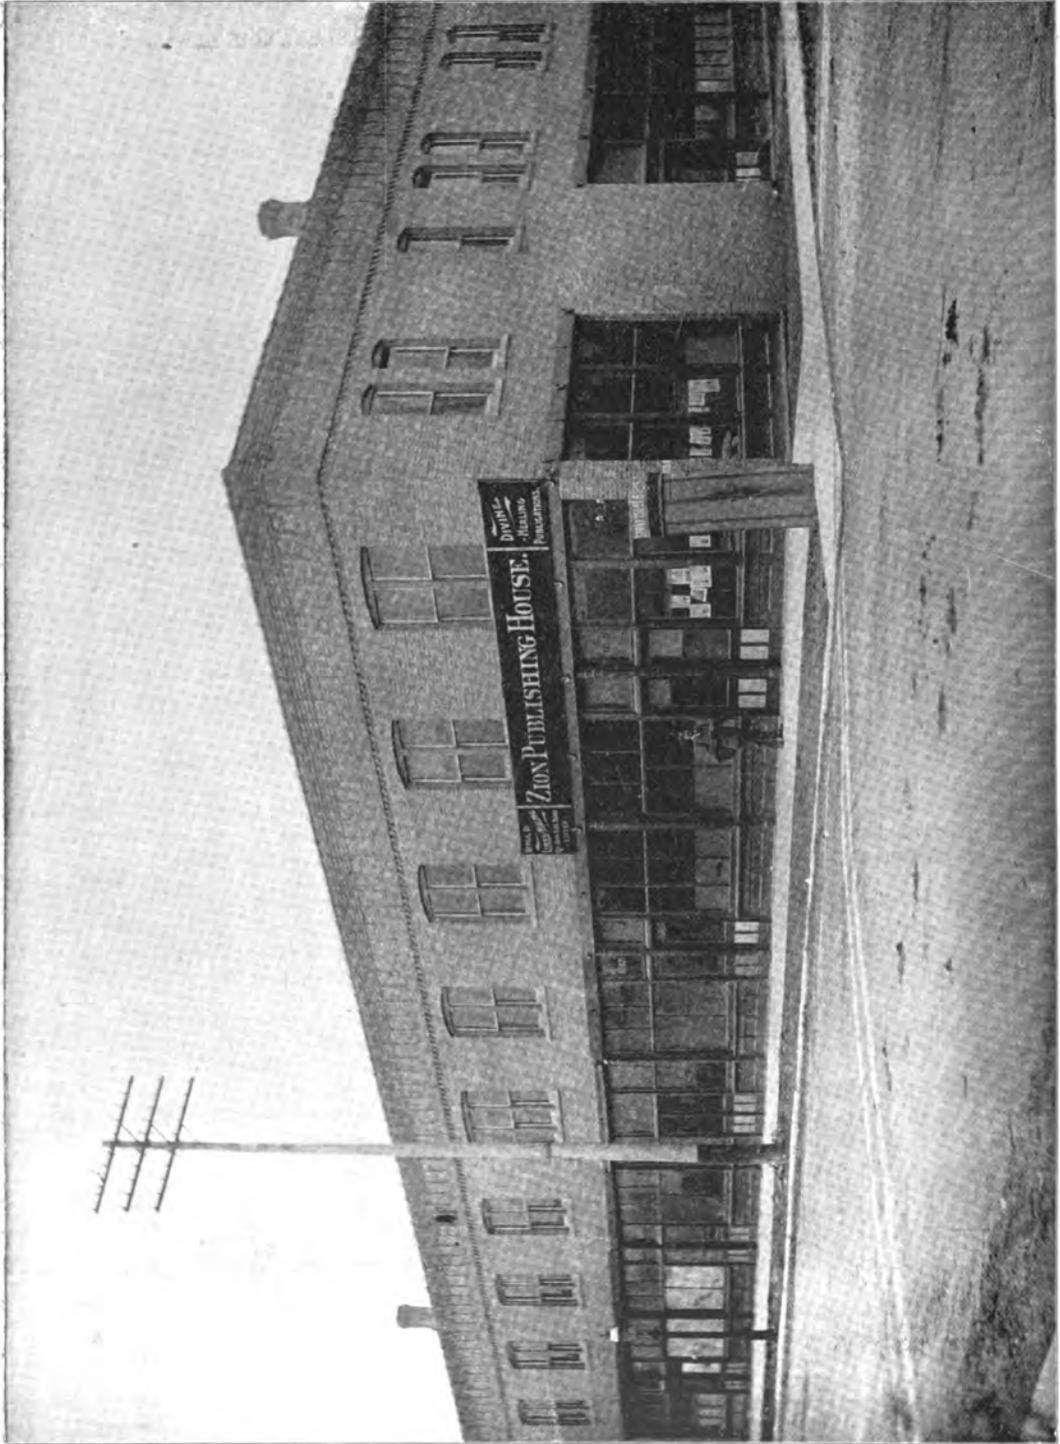

WITH low taxation, cheap, good land and water—natural gas and oil pipes run through the land now—and with rapid transit our friends could go in and out of Chicago daily to business, or find employment in the rising towns of a manufacturing region close by.

WHAT multitudes of Saved, Healed, Cleansed and Quickened Christians might go from such a center to preach Christ in every land beneath the Sun!

WE know at the same time that we would be dealing with men, not angels, but we also know that Christ made fishermen Apostles, and dwelt with Martha and Mary. Bethany was near a wicked city; but Christ made it His Home.

"LIFT your eyes, ye Sons of Light,
Zion's City is in sight."

"Many shall run to and fro, and KNOWLEDGE shall be increased."
—Daniel, 12:4.

"Behold, it is not of the Lord of Hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity: for the Earth shall be filled with the Knowledge of the Glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."—Habakkuk, 2:13-14.

"One drop of ink makes millions think."—A nineteenth century fact.

Our little House was only established on August 31st, 1894, and yet it has sent forth MORE THAN ONE MILLION PAGES of LEAVES OF HEALING alone, and we are getting ready to send forth at least TEN MILLIONS OF PAGES, if God permit, during the coming year. For the achievement and the prospect, we ascribe all GLORY AND HONOUR AND POWER TO GOD.

On July 18th, last, we had a little money in hand which had been given to us by a few of the Lord's stewards to help us to publish a new series of LEAVES OF HEALING. It was pitifully small in amount for such an undertaking—about enough to pay one week's expenses of Zion Publishing House as it now stands. It did not seem either as if the Lord made it grow very quickly, and it looked as if it would be many months before we would get enough to warrant us in beginning to republish the paper, of which we have issued two previous series—one in Australasia, the other in America, the latter ceasing three years ago. We were not willing to begin a third series until the Lord made it plain that He would establish it permanently. Yet we longed to begin. The people were crying out everywhere for Divine Healing Teaching, for reliable Testimony, and for Reports of the Work in Chicago, which could be depended upon as absolutely truthful. And yet we had not enough money to pay a Chicago printer to print it for a single month!

This was the situation five months ago.

We sought God specially in prayer and received a clear answer. We had the task given to us of establishing Zion Publishing House in the midst of toils which seemed already beyond our strength. But we rose from our knees and without consulting flesh or blood, we wrote a brief appeal to the friends of Zion Tabernacle to aid us in the Name of the Lord to do the work committed to us. The response was hearty but not large. That, however, presented no difficulty—God would see us through. So we poured in every cent of income beyond current expenses and responsibilities, and set to work to secure a building and a complete plant of the very best kind procurable. The best is not good enough for God—and this work is God's. He honored our faith, and the result now appears in these pages, where we present in picture and in story the description of the first beginnings of Zion Publishing House, so that distant friends in this and other lands may see what God hath wrought, and praise Him as we do this day.

We say "the first beginnings of Zion Publishing House," for the prospects for the coming year include a great increase of the circulation of LEAVES OF HEALING, and there is a loud call from the Atlantic to the Pacific for tracts and books, which shall extend the Kingdom of God. The resources of our House are already unequal to the demand, and must be increased ere long. We ask the prayers and practical help of all our readers to lead millions to think as God thinks, and to cover the Earth with the Knowledge of the Glory of the Lord as a perfect Saviour of spirit, soul, and body.

"Many are running to and fro," as the Lord revealed to Daniel they should in "the Time of the End." Swift presses will print, swift machinery prepare, and by rail and ship, over mountains, valleys and ocean depths, the products of Zion Publishing House will find their way to every land beneath the sun, if God permit, during the coming year. Oh, it is good to live in these days—they are the best the Church has seen since apostolic days. Let us improve every hour, redeem every minute, "for the Time is short."

And now let us invite our readers to accompany us on a brief visit to Zion Publishing House.

It is situated a short distance from Zion Tabernacle and from the Divine Healing Homes, within two blocks from either.

Picture No. 1, on page 346 of this issue, shows the portion of the long two-storied, plain brick building, opposite Jackson Park, which is occupied by the House.

The sale-room and manager's office are shown on the corner, and the letter-carrier has his hand on the door of the printing office. The electrotyping department's large windows face 61st street, on the left of the picture.

We have a short lease of the premises, which are convenient for present purposes.

Picture No. 2 presents an excellent view of our largest press which we purchased direct from the manufacturers, the Campbell Printing Press and Manufacturing Company, of 160 William street, New York, and 334 Dearborn street, Chicago. It is technically known as an "oscillating job and book press." The whole design of the machine is exceedingly strong, and it does most excellent work, producing the beautiful impressions on this paper, and bringing out in beautiful clearness the half tone photo-engravings which we use so largely in this paper. It has a "bed" 39x53 inches, a "form" 33x49, four rollers, and a speed of 1500 copies per hour. Its dimensions at "the base" 5 feet 8 inches x 11 feet 3 inches, and "over all" of 8 feet 5 inches x 15 feet 6 inches. Its height is 7 feet 2 inches. It is a wonderful piece of machinery, and carefully handled and kept, does most satisfactory work. We have scarcely required to adjust a screw since it was set up, and we are much pleased with our first LEAVES OF HEALING press, and congratulate the manufacturers upon the excellence of their workmanship.

Picture No. 3, on page 349, represents a flash light photographic view of our composing room, with two of our compositors at their "cases," filled with the superior copper-mixed type, which we purchased from Messrs. Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, 183 Monroe St., Chicago, the owners of the Great Western Type Foundry. The "dress" of the LEAVES OF HEALING sufficiently commends the excellence of their type, and we have purchased everything in that department from that well-known firm. The cases are placed on the top of type cabinets which are filled with trays full of all kinds of jobbing and display type. "Imposing" tables and stones, galley racks, proof and a fine job press, etc., occupy the rest of the room, which is fully displayed, with the exception of the mailing department, which is partly hinted at by one of the mailing tables in the foreground of the picture.

Picture No. 4 shows the Engine and Press Room.

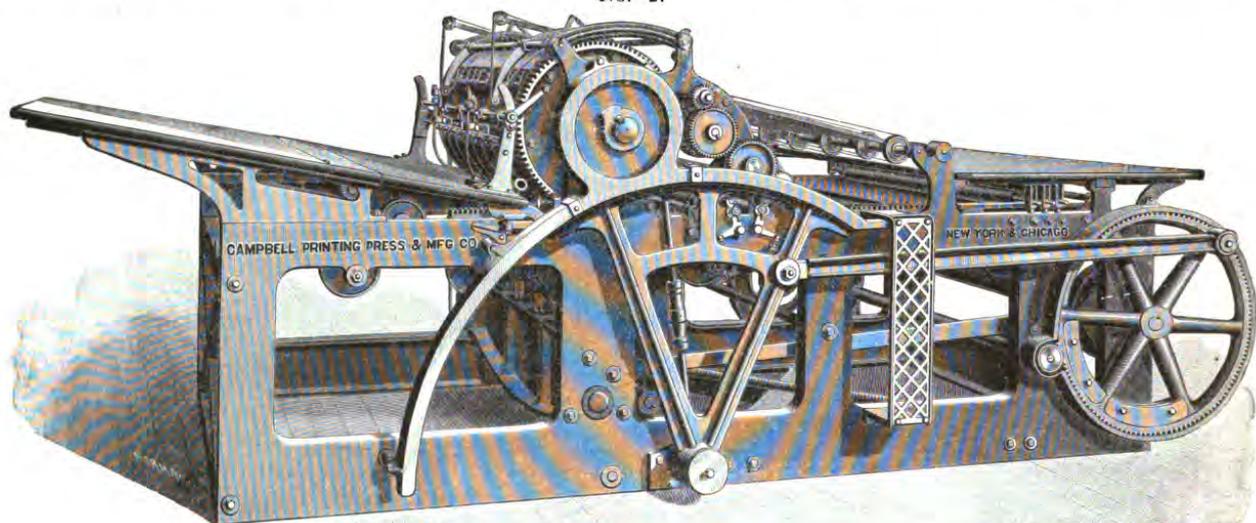

The engine in front of the picture is one of the improved "Lewis" Gas and Vapor Engines, purchased from the agents, Messrs. Barnhart, Bros. & Spindler, and manufactured by the Webster Manufacturing Co., 1075 W. 15th St., Chicago. It is of ten horse power, occupies a floor space of 7 feet 10 x 5 feet 10, has foundations about 6 feet deep, and weighs 6,000 pounds. It does most excellent work and provides "power" for our machinery in all our departments.

The Dexter Folding Machine seen just beyond the engine is one of the "little wonders" of our establishment. We purchased it from the Dexter Folder Company of Fulton, N. Y., and 315 Dearborn St., Chicago. It takes the paper from the press, and by a most ingenious series of rollers, delicately folds it into its present form.

machines and an electro-copper-plate is thereby prepared. This enables us to print a new edition of any of the issues of LEAVES OF HEALING, which have already been required in the cases of Nos. 1, 2, 5, and 7 of this series. This is a great convenience and in the long run will save much expense. It would take too much space to describe fully the twelve machines in this department, and we will, therefore, simply describe the process through which each page of the LEAVES passes ere we secure a permanent impression from which we can print future copies.

No. 2.

chased it from the Dexter Folder Company of Fulton, N. Y., and 315 Dearborn St., Chicago. It takes the paper from the press, and by a most ingenious series of rollers, delicately folds it into its present form.

A wire stitching machine peeps out its arm on the left of the picture, which takes the paper after it leaves the folder and stitches its pages with two strokes. Then a large sized Victor Paper Cutter takes the paper, about 100 copies at a time, and cuts it trimly and truly in a few moments—which is the last process ere the LEAVES OF HEALING are carried to the mailing department and the sale-room.

Picture No. 5 takes us into a totally different department, and one not often attached to a printing house, except when it is on a large scale. It represents the Electrotyping Department of Zion Publishing House, and has quite a large and interesting outfit of machinery. Every page of this paper, after it has been set up in type, is passed through all these polished wax mould. Then there is a Furnace and Casting Pot, which just peeps out in the extreme left of the picture, but is not shown, and here the metal is prepared to back up the "shell."

It is then taken—a strong heavy plate now—to a "rougner" where it is made perfectly even, low letters raised, and all defects remedied—in short, it is "finished," and laid aside for future use. Saws for wood and metal, shaver, trimmer, planers, etc., are used in arriving at this result—a beautiful clean copper plate page, which can be put into the press and used at any time.

And now we will leave the busy, clever workers in all these departments, and each go to our own work, thanking God, we trust, that we can use all these cranks and pulleys, and belts and wheels and engines, whirring away so noisily, and from their united skill send forth our white-winged dove bearing LEAVES OF HEALING to every land.

We ask our Christian readers one and all to pray for the success of Zion Publishing House.

No. 12.

MISS ALMA KELLER.

WE RESUME our picture gallery of God's Witnesses with the story of this happy little Wisconsin girl, and she will tell it to tens of thousands in her own words.

Many of all ages in Sauk County and elsewhere have been blessed through her healing, notably the aged Mrs. Clavatscher of Sauk City, whose healing of cancer in the stomach is told in LEAVES OF HEALING, No. 13, pages 202 to 204.

May the Holy Spirit bless the little one's simple words far and wide through all the earth, glorifying the Name of Jesus, and leading many to see that it is the will of our Father in heaven to heal their diseases if they will only forsake their sins.

SPRING GREEN WIS.,
Dec. 27, 1894.

Dear Doctor Dowie:

I feel called upon to tell you how much I have been benefited by your teaching, and what the Lord has done for me. When I was a baby I had hip disease in my right hip, which was caused by a fall. I was examined by Dr. Ward and Dr. Andrews, of Chicago, in 1890; and by Dr. Miller of Baraboo. They all said nothing could be done for me, except to get me a high-heeled, deep-soled shoe, which you can see in the picture. My right limb was $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches shorter than the other and always was cold and lifeless. Last April, 1894, I was persuaded by my two aunts, who live in Chicago, to come once more, though at first much against the wishes of my parents. But at last they consented, for they had already tried so much that they thought they might as well try one more thing. So my aunt (who has since that time received perfect healing) and I went to Chicago. When Dr. Dowie first laid his hand on my hip and passed down, I could feel the warm blood come into my leg and which remains so to this day.

My limb is now strong and healthy as the other and I can walk a great distance without any trouble or pain. I give God all the glory, and thanks to Dr. Dowie for his teachings. I will send you my picture with the cork shoe on it. I am a happy subscriber of the LEAVES OF HEALING, and I loaned some to my aunt, Mrs. John Gasser, of Black Hawk, Wisconsin. She read them and not long after she had a very sick child which had the pneumonia. They of course sent for the doctor, who came and gave medicine. But the little fellow would not take it, though they tried hard to make him. My aunt at once thought of your teachings in the LEAVES and set all medicine aside, and all went to God in earnest prayer for help. And not without success, for in half an hour the little fellow slept as if nothing was ever the matter with him. When he awoke he was well. My aunt says "No more medicine for my children, Jesus is my doctor." I must close my testimony again giving God all the praise.

I remain,

Faithful in Jesus,

ALMA KELLER.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"NEITHER be ye sorry: for the Joy of the Lord is your strength."—Nehemiah 8: 10.

BRAVE old Nehemiah; never did a grander spirit animate a Prince of God's Israel. What an inspiration has his example been to the "bearers of burdens" when building up the Walls of Zion. And when their task was over, and "all the people wept when they heard the Word's of the Law," how he comforted the mourners with the Consolations of the Gospel.

"BLESSED are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted."

SURELY there is no place on earth where we have seen more mourners comforted than in Zion Tabernacle.

But there is no comfort there for scorners—only a stinging lash from Christ's "whip of small cords." There are many clerical scorners these days who act the part of Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem. They discourage God's people from seeking strength in Zion, they lie concerning us, and try to put us in fear, and to abandon our task.

"Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night."

SCENES of great joy continue to make Zion Tabernacle a place of intense interest. Many wonderful healings have taken place this week. A deaf mute from infancy, Engelbert Rozenski, 580 Jane street, Chicago, now 25 years old, has been enabled through faith in Jesus to hear and speak. He will give public testimony next Lord's Day at our monthly Praise and Testimony Meeting. He received this blessing in the Healing Room on Tuesday evening in the presence of about 100 men, after we had prayed and laid hands upon him. For several weeks the blessing had been manifestly coming, and after each prayer sounds became clearer. We have a pathetic note of his before us as we write in which he says:—"I was sick and had fits many times. I am well now. I was deaf and dumb. I can hear well now, and have begun to speak some."

HALLELUJAH! To God alone be the glory. "And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: He maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak."—Mark 7:37.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Do ye hear these shouts from Zion Tabernacle, which ye sneer at and despise, ye Methodist Sanballats, ye Baptist Tobiahs, and ye Congregationalist Gershems, with many others from Rome to the Dead Sea?

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Ye sneering hypocrites, go to, weep and howl, your miseries are coming fast. Ye scorn and lie, because we build up the Walls of Zion, and are trying to clear away the theological "rubbish" in which your envious souls delight, but which has made God's Church a wilderness.

Hallelujah! Christ our King is in our midst. He vindicates His servant, and proves we are not false witnesses, as ye liars in pulpits and in "religious weaklies" allege.

Hallelujah! Jesus still saves, heals and cleanses.

"Hear Him, ye deaf, His praise, ye dumb,

Your loosened tongues employ;

Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,

And leap, ye lame, for joy."

Never mind the miserable clerical Sanballats who would "put you in fear." God is speaking, rebuking them for their falsehoods, and showing that it is they who "have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jerusalem."

ON THE same day in Zion Tabernacle, another "great and notable miracle" was wrought.

A young man taken from a bed of death to the Tabernacle, was brought more than ten miles, carried in and laid upon a cot during service, after which he was carried into the healing room by the janitor. In less than ten minutes he was eating and drinking heartily, though he had not eaten for days, and walked about freely. He then returned into the Tabernacle, and without any assistance, walked through it, followed by the friends carrying his bedding, amongst whom was his rejoicing mother. Hallelujah!

Oh, Sanballat and Company, did you hear in your dens in the howling wilderness of your desert hearts, the Songs of Praise which filled Zion Tabernacle in Chicago, and which rang through Zion above: for angels, and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, and all the ransomed hosts of the redeemed from earth, are rejoicing in Heaven over that at which ye mis-erables snivel and sneer below.

THE following day in Divine Healing Home No. 1, a lady from Ohio whose daughter brought her from a bed of hopeless suffering, was wonderfully blessed in the presence of all at the Special Assembly of the guests from the three Homes.

For twenty-three years she has suffered from locomotor ataxia, and many miseries of which that is the cause.

In Jesus' Name, she received strength to bear the weight of her body on her feet, and with assistance walked twice across the floor. She has done so a number of times since.

OH, ye irreverend Sanballats, etc., what will ye do? Ye profess to serve Christ the King, yet sneer at His servants, and deny His work. Repent, ye mis-erables, or ye shall all perish in your sin, and be damned before the Great White Throne.

"Jesus! the Name that charms our fear,

That bids our sorrows cease.

'Tis music in the sinner's ears;

'Tis LIFE, and HEALTH, and PEACE."

WE invite attention to our article on pages 360 to 364 on "Post Office Persecutions." It tells the story of a little white dove and a flock of black hawks.

THE report of our sermon on the Two Chains was so imperfect that we could not use it. We have, therefore, decided to continue our Series of Lectures on God's Way of Healing by giving a first installment of the lectures on "The Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body." It is not all we could wish; but we give it as we spoke it. God blessed it then. May He bless it now.

LECTURE FOUR.

SANCTIFICATION OF SPIRIT, SOUL, AND BODY.

An address Delivered at the Afternoon Service in Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, on Lord's Day, February 10, 1895.

SERVICES were opened by singing Hymn No. 72, after which Mrs. Dowie read Chapter 5 of 1 Thess. Dr. Dowie uttered the following

INVOCATION.

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight and profitable unto Thy people, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer." And then said:

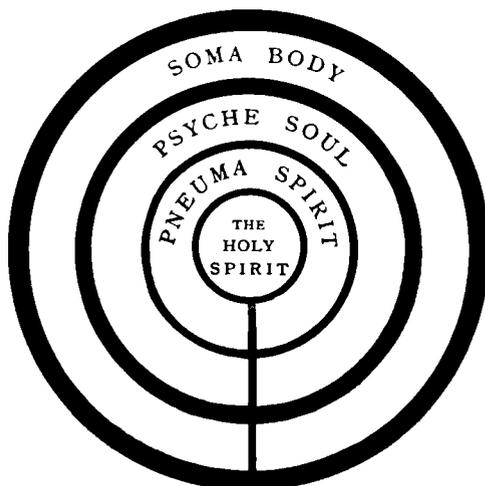

I speak to you this afternoon concerning the Sanctification of the Spirit, Soul and Body, and will deliver the first of two lectures upon that great subject. I have now promised that I shall publish these lectures in the LEAVES. I have been asked to publish them for years, but I never felt anything I had spoken upon the subject was worthy of publication. I have we have obeyed the Exhortation. The command of God is absolute. Abstain! To abstain is to be separate, by a determination of the heart and will of the most irrevocable nature, from all appearance, or, another reading is, every form of evil.

Some declare that to be an impossibility, and say that it is beyond the power of the Christian to be absolutely separate from evil in every form. Let me say to such an one, you will make no progress whatever in the Divine Life so long as you hold such a conviction. It is possible, more, it is certain, that if we will, we can be absolute abstainers from every form of evil. God never commanded us to do anything which he did not give us the power to perform.

GOD GIVES NEEDED POWER.

God never laid upon us any responsibility without endowing us with adequate strength. That command is not given to us with any thought in God's mind that it is impossible for us to obey it. It would be cruel, it would be wicked, if such a thing were possible, for God to command us to do something that we have no power to do. I grant you that of your own power you never could do this. I grant you that without Divine Power you can do nothing in Divine Life; but He who gives us the Divine Command endows us with Divine Power and has said, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you." I grant you that without the Power of the Holy Spirit, obedience is impossible. It is a command which wanted to take a good deal of time for that purpose, and never had that time. But, rather than delay longer, they must be published as they are uttered. I have no time to write them.

I call your attention to the words which Mrs. Dowie read to you this afternoon in the first epistle to the Thessalonians, 5th chapter, 22, 23 and 24th verses.

"Abstain from all appearance of evil, and the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole Spirit, Soul and Body be preserved entire without blame until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you who also will do it."

AN EXHORTATION, A PETITION, AND A PROMISE.

There are three things in these three verses. First, the Exhortation. "Abstain from all appearance of evil." Second, the Petition. "And the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole Spirit (pneuma) and soul (psyche) and Body (Soma) be preserved entire without blame until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." Third, the Promise. "Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it."

OBEY THE EXHORTATION.

Now in order to understand the Petition or Prayer for Entire Sanctification, the first thing is to know that we can make no advance toward the point of getting an answer until is addressed to the Christian, to those, therefore, who have a right to call upon God for the needful power to obey His own commands. The president of the United States has a right, as the executive head of this government, to call upon every officer of the government, and to call upon every citizen of the United States to spend their last dollar and their last drop of blood in the maintenance of this nation's life. And why? Because the president of the United States is charged with the maintenance of the national existence, and if God lays upon us any executive responsibility, He gives us also the POWER TO CALL UPON ALL THE RESOURCES OF HEAVEN.

If it took the last angel in the whole of the heavens, God is absolutely bound, if He has laid upon us any responsibility, and told us to do anything, to find for us the Power to do it, if He has to search the universe to get the Power. It is absurd to talk for a moment of God having given a command and not giving us the power to obey it. I grant you we are in a world of sin, full of subtle forms of sin, for the vile of the serpent and the guile of the serpent is everywhere; and the poison of the serpent is throbbing, by nature, in every vein, in disease, and in the subtle forms of evil. Yet, notwithstanding these facts, I say to you to-day, that He who said, "Abstain from all appearance of evil" will give you the needed Power, if you will faithfully call upon Him to supply it.

I KNOW WHAT HEREDITY IS.

We all know in a measure. Many people are born into this world cursed by heredity transmissions of moral obliquity and diabolical passions and of physical infirmities which are the direct inheritance of their parents' transgressions. The fathers eat the sour grapes and the children's teeth are set on edge. The sins of the fathers are visited upon the generations following. No man can smoke tobacco and defile his body with nicotine poison, no man drink alcohol and injure his brain and liver, and pollute his body with that deadful poison, no man can break the law of moral purity and mingle with the harlot, and not receive the wages of his transgression. No man can lie or steal, no man or woman can live a lustful life and not transmit something of their diabolical passion to the generation following, and we who are the inheritors of the virtues and of the vices of our forefathers have an inheritance very largely made up of the vices. It is only fair to say it.

WHENCE DO WE SPRING?

It is not so long ago that our fore-fathers were painted savages living in the very depths of degradation, for when the first missionaries came to British soil, they found them not far removed from the savage. They had sunk into a barbarism that was extreme. They had an idolatry that was dreadful. The priests were teaching the people that they must sacrifice the fruit of their body for the sin of their soul, and human sacrifice, that lowest and deepest degradation of heathenism, was rife amongst our fathers. This is the hole from which God has dugged us. He dug our race out of a horrible pit, out of the mirey clay. Do not let us forget that we are the inheritors of these passions in a measure, and that these evils have been aggravated in these later ages by new vices, especially since Satan has polluted the earth with rum and whiskey and beer and gin and brandy and tobacco and foul living, and vile passions and crime and iniquity of every kind. We have had terrible additions to our inheritance. But I say that, notwithstanding this fact, and the multiplicity of our miseries and duplicity of sin and Satan, it is possible, and it is certain, that if we obey God, we can live a life apart from sin in every form. I will not believe for a moment that God's command cannot be obeyed. It can and it shall. We must triumph over every sin by His grace.

SINS OF THOUGHT FIRST OF ALL.

It is in the secret places of the heart, that sin is formed. A murderer is a murderer long before the murderer draws his knife and plunges it in his brother's heart. "He that hateth his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him." Adultery has been committed long before the adulterer wrought the act. You can be an adulterer by simply reading one of Ouida's novels and thinking her dirty thoughts. "He that looketh upon a woman to lust upon her hath already committed adultery with her in his heart." Do not forget that "the thought of iniquity is sin." And so it is with idolatry. Idolatry does not mean that you shall bow your knee to a god of wood or stone; some heathen image of heathen superstition. God's word has said that "Covetousness is idolatry." When you covet, you worship the thing you covet. You worship it, and you bow down to it; you serve it, and you live for it; you lie for it, and you die for it. Coveting anything is idolatry. God's word goes deep, and strikes first at the thought of the heart, and bids us to know as Christians that which David said, "If I regard iniquity in my heart the Lord will not hear me." The thought of iniquity is sin, and therefore we should ask God to separate us from evil thought.

HOW CAN A MAN BE SEPARATED FROM EVIL THOUGHT?

I can be separated, if the thought and mind of God possesses my thought, and mind, and heart. I can only be separated from evil by being controlled and possessed by God. There is no other way of separation. As a Christian (and I am speaking to Christians) I can only be separated from evil by the power of the Holy Spirit separating me, by the power of the Holy Spirit possessing me, and making me to hate evil with an intensity that is divine. "Ye that love the Lord hate evil."

A FALSE THEOLOGY.

There is a false theology abroad to-day which in many subtle forms is cursing humanity, teaching humanity that evil is good, teaching humanity that evil is only perverted good, teaching humanity that that which men call evil is not evil in reality, and to-day they want to present us with evil as good. Beloved friends, it is written in God's word, and it shall stand forever, "Woe unto them that call evil good and good evil, that put darkness for light and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter." We must never forget that evil has its roots in hell, not in heaven, and that it is a deadly sin to declare good and evil to have a common source in God. May God separate you, by His own Divine operation, from sin in all its forms. He can do it, and He will, if you will let Him.

AN ILLUSTRATION.

The other day a man came to my house, and said, "Doctor, I have come to you to ask you to cure me of the tobacco habit. I have long been a slave to it, and I hate my bondage.

I said, "How do you come to ask me to do any such thing?" "Because I have heard you have cured many people."

I said, "I have never cured anyone." He said, "You have healed people."

I said, "I have never healed anyone." "Oh, well," he said, "I know what you mean now. You do it through God."

I said, "I don't." "Well," he said, "how is it then?"

I said, "God did it through me." He said, "It is all the same."

I said, "It is not. There's a mighty big difference. I didn't do it through God, but God did it through me." "Well," he said, "that's all right, will you cure me?"

I said, "You are going right back as if I had not said anything. I never cured anyone." "Well, I want you to cure me through God."

"You are going right back," I said. "Well, may God cure me through you?"

I said, "Yes, that will do. Go to the meeting about to begin in the Tabernacle. I will pound into you about your sins for an hour or so, and then you will find that your sin lies deeper than the tobacco habit, and that the only way to get free from the tobacco habit is to get free from all your sins. Now, I expect you are a pretty considerable sinner, to look at you. In the first place there is no doubt about your being a stinkpot, for I smell you are. It has taken many years to make you smell as you do. In the second place, it is quite clear to me that you are not a Christian." He said, "No, I am not."

I said, "We will ask God to make you a Christian."

He came over here. I preached about repentance, and preached repentance for every sin toward man and God, and, at the close, that man rose with hundreds in this meeting, and confessed his sins to his God. The tobacco held a very small corner compared to his other sins. They stood before him, and between him and his God, and then he saw that he could never stand in the light of God defiled and foul as he was; that he could never enter heaven until all his sins were forgiven. And he stood here in this meeting, and he sought God for salvation and for purity of Spirit, Soul and Body. He passed out of this place delivered from all sin, and has never touched tobacco since. The tobacco went with all the other sins, and this is the way to get rid of sin. Let them all go together. God does set us free, and I have known men, many of them, slaves to evil habits of all kinds, slaves to intoxicating drinks and evil passions of every kind, whom God has set free. God can do it, and He does. Then by the grace of God to-day, stand up in this Tabernacle and leave your sins with your Saviour, and open your heart to receive by the Spirit of God the power that not only sets you free, but keeps you free.

THEN WHAT WILL GOD DO?

A Christian man's life has only begun when he is liberated from sin. When he is saved he is like a man drawn out of a river, who was drowning, thrown upon the bank, panting, he is alive, but if you don't do something for him, the poor, wretched man may die even upon the banks of the river. I see a great many people in that condition. They are supposed to be saved, and they remain there upon the banks of the river—saved, but out of which they were dragged. They never have strength to go far from it. Somehow they know nothing at all about a holy life. They stand by the river of death, and cry, "I am saved."

THEY NEVER GET FAR AWAY FROM THE BORDERS OF THE RIVER OF DEATH

AN ILLUSTRATION.

Now suppose that I saw some one in this very cold weather, fall into the Chicago river where the ice is broken, and they are keeping it open by means of these steam tugs. (The Lord forbid that I should ever fall into the Chicago river.) But suppose I was to see this miserable man choking in the filth of the Chicago river, and that I hear him cry, "I am drowning, save me!" I take the poor fellow out at the risk of my own life and fling him upon the bank, and say, "There, now you are saved. Get away from this filthy river."

Now, what would you think of such a man, if he always wanted to live on the banks of that river, to live in an atmosphere of filth, and every now and then drink of its disease-breeding water? You would say, "That man's a fool. He is saved from that filthy river, why doesn't he go away from the river?" Some Christians are living just that way. They never get away from the river of sin and death.

I propose to show you this afternoon what God wants. God wants to take you and save you, not only from your sins and their consequences, but, beloved friends in Christ, wherever my words can reach you, I want to proclaim to you that the God that saves you from your sins, wants to save you to something, as well as from something.

GOD WANTS TO SAVE YOU TO A LIFE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND PURITY.

How is he going to do it? By leading your feet from the river of death: by leading you into "green pastures and beside the still waters;" by restoring your Spirit, Soul and Body, and making you to "walk in paths of righteousness for His name's sake." To give you power as you "walk through the valley of the shadow of death." That "valley" is not at the end of the Christian's journey. It is in the middle, as John Bunyan put it. Go through the valley of the shadow of death with Christ. Go through the valley of weeping, and making it a pool of blessing, going from "strength to strength." God wants you to do this, and He, therefore, gives you His spirit within you to enable you, by His grace, to be something more than merely saved from sin, to make you pure in Spirit, and in Soul and in Body. Hence the prayer that the "God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly."

AN EXPOSITION OF THE THREE-FOLD NATURE OF MAN.

Let me call your attention to the diagram [see p. 355] which I have used for many years in delivering this lecture.* It shows you the tripartite nature of man, and the indwelling nature of God. As you see, I have represented the Holy Spirit by the golden circle in the center of all. Our Spirit as this white circle, our Soul as this red circle, and this light carnation on the outside as the Body. The three words used in speaking of man's being are Pneuma, (Spirit) Psyche, (Soul) and Soma,

*The central circle of the diagram is of gold color (the Holy Spirit); the next is white (man's spirit); the next blood red (the soul), and the outer circle carnation (the body). The line running from the central circle to the outer circle is of gold, and is used to illustrate the flowing of the Holy Spirit through the entire three-fold nature of man, thus sanctifying him wholly, and preserving him entire and without blame.

(Body), and I want to speak to you clearly regarding this tripartite nature of man.

We are not a duality, composed of Soul and Body, but we are a trinity composed of a Spirit, Soul and Body, and I want to make that as clear as I can without being too technical.

WHAT IS THE ESSENTIAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE SPIRIT AND SOUL.

Let me call your attention, first, to this fact, that when God made man, He said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." (Genesis 1:26.) That is a very remarkable fact. Then it is added, "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." What is the image of God?

FALSE TEACHINGS OF THEOSOPHY.

The theosophists falsely declare that God consists of two parts. Father God and Mother God, and speak of Theosophia, "the Wisdom of God" as the feminine part of God's nature, and this error of making God a duality is common to many forms of false religion, both in ancient and modern times. The spread of Theosophy in this country has made the people ready to welcome Esoteric Buddhism, and all other kinds of heathenism.

It has made possible a World's Parliament of Religions in Chicago. Why? Because they do not know the glory and fulness of the Divine Revelation in the Bible. They thought the best thing for the United States of America was to import representatives of all the Eastern superstitions, and the religions of Asia, and dump them down upon the Lake Front, just as if we had not enough rubbish there already.

VANITY FAIR—CHICAGO'S DISGRACE.

The Devil did this during the recent Vanity Fair held in Chicago. I say this "infamous Vanity Fair," for if there was anything that ever cursed Chicago and defiled it, it was the World's Fair. It cursed this whole country, and made this city of Chicago to be indebted to the whole country with a deep, deep and awful debt, namely, the degradation which Chicago inflicted upon the tens of thousands of young men and women who came to this city at that time. Here all the immoral heathen dirt and filth that could be gathered from Egypt and from the islands of the sea, from Persia and from elsewhere was found. We lived here at its gates through it all. It took Divine Grace to live through it. This city was wholly given over to the idolatry of the flesh. It was held in the grip of the world and it was ruled by the Devil. Chicago owes a deep debt to the whole of the United States, and to the world, and to man. I thank God that our little Zion Tabernacle here floated its flag throughout the whole of that Vanity Fair, proclaimed the Supremacy of Christ as Lord of all, and now that the White City has passed away in smoke and blood and fire, Zion Tabernacle shines forth in the glory of God, and is sending forth a Message to the Nations. The mayor who vaunted that he had married the city and on the day of his assassination declared that he was strong and was going to live for fifty years, in two hours after his boast, died with an assassin's bullet in his body. That was only one distinguished murder which all the world knew; but I proclaim here from this platform the statement that within these grounds of Jackson Park from the time the first sod was turned until the time that the Fair was closed. They died like flies when it was building. Men fell from high scaffolds and from high arches daily and such was the influence and power of the directors that they simply rang up the ambulance and carried them off to their graves. The Press and the Pulpit were silent for the most part, and little or nothing was ever said about it. The city authorities allowed intoxicating drinks to be sold in this prohibition district, and the police had instructions to permit harlots and gamblers to pass unmolested, for the mayor said, "It's a great year, and we must have an open city." But there is a God in the heavens and the Fair closed in blood and in fire and in smoke. But "the little wooden hut" Zion Tabernacle, in which we stand to-day, has its flag "Christ is all" still floating, and God's Voice is being heard. If I can do anything to help Chicago to redeem its shame, may God help me, for I would like to do it. I think we are doing a little. Just a little. God help us to do more. My spirit is deeply stirred with the memories of that year of Crime and Shame and Vanity.

NOT LESS THAN ONE THOUSAND PERSONS LOST THEIR LIVES

I have made quite a digression there, but I am coming back again.

Among the wretched things of this Fair

THE MOST DISGUSTING WAS THE PARLIAMENT OF RELIGIONS.

It means more than pollution of the body, it means the pollution of the minds of the people. It made them think that all religions were good, and that the religion that taught Mohammedism and Buddhism and Brahminism, had so much good in them that we ought to study them and get the good out of them. Just as if we had lost faith in God and in the supremacy of Christ and the Christian religion, we must needs study these false and filthy religions and hear their representatives who hid all the foul realities and presented only the brilliant Oriental lie. You would think to hear these leaders talk that Mohammedism was a very divine and majestic kind of religion. You would forget that Mohammedism teaches that woman has no spirit, that the only thing to be done with woman is to treat her as a beast. And there were some women fools enough to admire the eloquence of these scoundrels. Where is there any more degraded part on God's earth than where "the false prophet's" religion rules. It is a true proverb that "where the hoof of the Moslem comes, no grass grows." Mohammedism has defiled every land it has ever touched. Of course we know it. Someone of us know it better than others. But the masses of people do not know what Dr. Pentecost has said, that Brahminism makes immorality of the filthiest kind a part of its worship, and that as it was essential to be immoral to worship the Goddess Aphrodite or Venus in Grecian Mythology, so it is essential to be immoral as immorality is a part of Brahminism. The priestesses of certain temples are "religious" harlots. Yet to-day we are presented in Chicago with Theosophy, Brahminism, Buddhism and all these things, because false Christian shepherds called a Parliament of Religions.

THE DIVINELY CONSTRUCTED IMAGE OF GOD.

Now I want to call your attention to the Divinely revealed construction of man, and to show you that the study of this is destructive to this false Theosophistic theology. God created man, male and female, but how did he create them?

The coming glory of the Christian Revelation is the complete Manifestation of God in man. It was Christ who revealed to us the Father. It is Christ who has revealed to us Himself as the Son. It is Christ who has revealed to us the Holy Ghost. It is Christ who has revealed in Himself the Tripartite God, and the coming glory of Christianity is the Tripartite Man. The revelation of God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, is that of three persons in one God, and one God in three persons. Someone says that is easily stated, but it is impossible of intelligent belief. I say it is more possible of belief to me than anything in the Word of God, and for this reason, that we have the illustration of it in the Divine organization of our own being. God made man to have a Spirit, Soul and Body, one man in three parts, and three parts in one man. Human philosophy and ordinary Christian pulpit teaching has made man to have only two parts—soul and body—and confounded soul and spirit.

NOW, WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE SPIRIT AND SOUL.

I must, at the risk of being charged with being technical, make plain to you some very neglected teaching in this matter—teaching which the Church of God almost wholly misses.

In doing this we have to show, first of all, how God made the lower creation, and then how God made man. If we study by the light of Holy Scripture these two points, we shall see the difference between the lower creation and man, and, thereby, make clear the tripartite nature of man.

Take your Bibles, and read the 20th verse of the 1st chapter of Genesis. "And God said, let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life." The margin says that word life is "Living Soul" in the original tongue. Then you see that this passage teaches that the fish of the sea have all got "souls." It doesn't say they have a "spirit," but they have all got "souls." Let us go to the 30th verse. "And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air and to everything that creepeth upon the earth wherein there is life." Margin again says the Hebrew is a "living soul." That passage teaches distinctly that every beast of the earth and every fowl of the air has got a living soul. You are sometimes asked what "the soul is." These passages supply the answer. The soul is the animal life. The soul is not spiritual at all, and one of the most stupid things a Christian can do is to argue for the "immortality of the soul." I shall presently show you how right it is to argue for the immortality of the spirit, but, let me warn you, never argue for the immortality of the soul. You will plunge yourself into a sea of confusion if you do, and give your adversaries an essential advantage which will put you to shame.

CHRISTIANS MAKE A TREMENDOUS BLUNDER BY CONFOUNDING SOUL AND SPIRIT.

If you refer to the Epistle to the Hebrews you will see that it is "the Word of God" which makes this distinction, a distinction unknown, for the most part, to Christian theologians, who are very largely teachers of a false theology. They are as blind as bats to the essential difference between spirit and soul, and talk about the salvation of "the soul" when they mean "the spirit." This passage is in the 4th chapter of Hebrews, 12th verse, and says, (Revised Version) "For the Word of God is living and active." Yes, the Word of God is not dead. Some folks think it is dead, and that the only thing alive is the dominant clique of the day in religion, politics and the press. But these are not "living." They are dead, and the only misery is that so many dead things and dead men are not buried. Lots of things are dead and are rotting upon this earth that ought to have been buried long ago. God the Almighty and All-merciful gives opportunity for the dead dry bones to live, and the Word of Life is a Gospel to the "dead in trespasses and sins." But, alas, they do not want to live. They call death, life; and good, evil; and they put darkness forward as being light.

What does it say here. "The Word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit: of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart."

It is the Word of God, then, that shows the division between soul and spirit.

I want to argue upon that for a minute or two. I have stated to you that the condition of the creation of the lower creatures is that they have souls and bodies. Let me show you from the Word of God, what the creation of man is.

Look at the second chapter of Genesis, 7th verse. "And God formed man out of the dust of the ground." That is the body. Do not make any mistake about it. Our bodies are dust and the vainest woman who carries a millinery shop on the top of her head, and the most foolish woman who purchases her complexion in a paint shop, or the silliest dude, is only a bag of dust. Is it foolish for a woman to be vain, but there is no being upon God's earth so supremely contemptible as the fool of a man who spends all his life in studying dress, cookery, society manners, and sets the fashion for the Four Hundred or the One Hundred and Fifty of Chicago or New York. Such a man lives the life of a fool and dies the death of a dog. I say that upon God Almighty's earth, there is no spectacle so sad as the society dude, who spends all his time in setting the fashions for the world, that he may please the flesh and the devil.

SOCIETY WOMEN ARE FOOLS, BUT A SOCIETY MAN IS A MONSTER OF INIQUITY.

He dies, but his evil example finds many imitators. Such people have been the curse of every age and nation. Sensual and luxurious living has been the down fall of every nation. So-called Christian men and women to-day are spending upon the adornment of the flesh, money enough to enable the Church to redeem the world. Cleopatra dissolved pearls in her wine cup and Marc Anthony drank it to his damnation. The pearls of true manhood are being dissolved in the wine cup of passion. Remember that God will judge you for all vanity and for all that is spent in adorning your body and damning your spirit: for some of you are doing that. Not that I am opposed to proper attention to dress. I think it is natural, I think it is right, in a measure, for taste to be shown by women in the construction of their dress, and I do not believe that God is glorified in a woman wearing the ugliest gown and bonnet she can get. I do not object to the Salvation Army woman wearing a poke bonnet if she likes, and may God bless her in doing so, if she can wear it for Christ and without vanity. But let me tell you, there can be a good deal of vanity in a pride which apes humility, and in wearing a plain black poke bonnet, you can be vain and censorious in spirit. There is a happy medium, where propriety is not lost and where vanity is not fostered. It is good to dress in such a way as will be pleasant to the eye.

GOD DOES NOT FORBID COLOR.

When he makes a rainbow, He puts all the colors in it. The city of God has its foundations of the most beautiful and precious stones, and the streets are paved with gold. Do not mistake my meaning, I say it is right to combine color if you can without vanity; but I say it would be far better for all, if Christians would study less about pleasing the flesh and spend more upon God's work, in rescuing a poor, down trodden, hungry, weary, overworked, sin-stricken and disease-smitten humanity for whom Christ died, and for whom He bids us live. I call your attention to the fact that this body is dust. Do not give the dust too much honor; but be sure you keep the dust clean. A good many people do not keep themselves clean. They are sick because they don't use enough soap and water. They do not take care of the body. Take care of it. "God formed man out of the dust of the ground." That is the body.

But let us consider the other two parts.

HEALED OF EIGHT YEARS' RHEUMATISM.

MRS. CLENDENNING, of 917 West St., Oakland, Cal., said: "My sister was healed of chronic rheumatism in the Mission in Los Angeles. She had been at the Hot Springs in Arkansas for about 8 years. She was very bad, and I invited her to San Francisco to spend a year with me. But she got so bad there that I advised her to go down to Southern California. Mrs. Dr. Potts came along there lecturing from San Diego, and she told my sister she would cure her for $50, and she gave her quite a large box of medicine, which lasted some two months; and though the medicine was all taken, she got no better.

Then Dr. Dowie came along and we went to hear him, and she received the teaching, and was healed in the meeting. She had not even spoken to Dr. Dowie, but she was gloriously healed in May of last year."

Dr. Dowie: "Does she remain in perfect health?"

"She is a well, healthy woman to-day."—From Our Second Year's Harvest p. 119.

BŮH JE CESTA K UZDRAVENÍ!

YDAVATEL.

"BŮH JE CESTA K UZDRAVENÍ, JE OSOBA NE VĚC."

Ježíš pravil: "Já jsem cesta, pravda i život." a On zjevoval se vždy svému lidu po všechny věky v úmluvách pode jménem "Jehova-mocný" žili "Já jsem Hospodin, kterýž tě uzdravuji." (Jan 14: 6 a Exodus 15: 26.)

PÁN JEŽÍŠ KRISTUS JE JEŠTĚ UZDRAVITELEM.

On se nemůže měnit, nebo On "včera i dnes tentýž jest i na věky bude," a on je ještě s námi, nebo pravil: "A aj, já s vámi jsem po všechny dny, až do skonání světa;" protože je nezměnitelný a je přítomen duševně právě tak jako tělesně, jest uzdravitelem svého lidu.

BOŽSKÉ UZDRAVENÍ ZÁLEŽÍ V KRISTOVĚ USMÍŘENÍ.

Bylot Jím předpověděno "Onť vzal na se nemoci naše, a bolesti naše nesl a jeho úradou my jsme uzdravováni," a to je výslovně řečeno, že Jeho pomocí lékařství nám způsobeno, což ještě trvá. (Isaiáš 53: 4, 5 a Mat. 8: 17.)

NEMOC NEMŮŽE BÝTI Z VŮLE BOŽÍ.

Je dílem ďábla za hřích a je nemožno, aby dílo ďábla bylo vždy vůlí Boží. Kristus přišel, "aby zrušil dílo ďábla," a když On byl zde na zemi, "uzdravoval všelikou nemoc a všeliký neduh" a všechny tyto neduhy výslovně jsou prohlášovány za "nátisky ďábla." (Jan 3: 8, Mat. 4: 23 a Skutk. 10: 38.)

DARY UZDRAVOVÁNÍ JSOU STALÉ.

Jeť výslovně řečeno: "Darů svých a povolání Bůh nelituje," a darové uzdravování jsou mezi devíti dary ducha propůjčených církví. (Řím. 11: 29 a I. Korinth. 12: 8-11.)

JSOU ČTYRY ZPŮSOBY BOŽSKÉHO UZDRAVOVÁNÍ.

První jest přímá modlitba víry; druhý, zprostředkovaná modlitba dvou nebo více; třetí, pomazání starších s modlitbou víry; a čtvrtý, vzkládání rukou věřících, které Bůh k tomu ustanovil a povolal. (Mat. 8: 5-13, Mat. 18: 19, Jak. 5: 14-15, Marek 16: 18.)

BOŽSKÉ UZDRAVOVÁNÍ JE POTLAČOVÁNO ĎÁBELSKYMI PODVODNÍKY.

Mezi těmito jsou: Křesťanská věda (křivě tak zvaná), Duševní léčení, Spiritismus, Věštění atd. (I. Timoth. 6: 20, 21, I. Timoth. 4: 1, 2, Isaiáš 51: 22, 23.)

MNOŽSTVÍ LIDÍ SE UZDRAVILO VÍROU V JEŽÍŠE.

Pisatel zná tisíce případů a osobně vzkládal ruce na mnoha tisíce osob. Úplně ponaučen lze obdržeti ve schůzích odbývaných v "Zion Tabernaclé, 251 E. 62. ul., poblíž Jackson-parku v Chicagu," a v mnoha brožurách, kde je podána vlastními slovy zkušenost těch, kdož byli uzdraveni zde nebo v jiných končinách a kteréž byly uveřejněny v "Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago."

VÍRA PŘICHÁZÍ SLYŠENÍM A SLYŠENÍ SLOVEM BOŽÍM.

Jste srdečně zváni k účastvování a k vlastnému slyšení.

POST OFFICE PERSECUTION OF THE LEAVES OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

This is a story of how some cruel Black Hawks are trying to kill a Little White Dove.

The vultures of the Press and of Rome are well represented in the Chicago Post Office by Washington Hesing, editor of the Staats Zeitung, and, like the mayor and many of the principal municipal and federal officers in Chicago, he is a child of the Pope, a son of the Apostate Church of Rome.

At the time when the Doctors of the State Board of Health, the entire Newspaper Press of Chicago, the Mercenaries of the Bar, and the Municipal Government of Chicago were all banded against us, to destroy us, the services of this powerful son of the Roman Beast were secured. The details of that transaction were given in the Chicago Times of January 10th, from which we quote the following passages:—

CHASED BY UNCLE SAM.

Federal Officials Say Dowie Violates Postal Laws.

Circulation of His Weekly Paper May be Denied the Mails—Has Been Stricken From the List of Publications of the Second Class—Criminal Prosecution May Follow the Collections of Money by Mail.

As the investigation of Faith Healer Dowie and his confidence methods continues, the official net is drawn tighter about him. Yesterday Uncle Sam joined the crusade to drive him out of business. It was found that Dowie has been imposing upon the post office authorities in mailing his advertising sheet, LEAVES OF HEALING, with which the fakir solicits suckers from nearly all parts of the Union. In consequence the privileges of the department have been denied Dowie under the rates for matter of the second class.

The authorities at Washington have also been appealed to on the ground that the fraudulent character of the paper should entirely debar its circulation through the mails.

When the latest copy of Dowie's weekly, LEAVES OF HEALING, came under Postmaster Hesing's eye yesterday he concluded there was enough suspicion about the sheet to bear an investigation. He turned over the paper to Supt. Montgomery, who handles violations of rate laws. That official examined the journal carefully, and at once reported that it was an entirely different paper from the one entered with the department for privileges of newspaper rates.

"It is nothing but a rank advertising sheet for Dowie's institution," said Supt. Montgomery. "Its character has entirely changed since it was submitted to us, and instead of conveying matter of general interest, now it is used to boom Dowie's practices, whatever they are. As such it is not entitled to circulation as a journal. It makes no difference to the post office whether Dowie claims to do his work by medicine or with the help of the Almighty. In either case the sheet is a mere advertisement."

With this information Postmaster Hesing ordered the circulation of the paper discontinued. The Hyde Park branch was notified, and communicated the order to the "healer" by a messenger.

"Because swindles are clothed with the guise of religion," remarked Mr. Hesing, "they are not the more tolerable. The shrewdest swindlers may adopt that very game for deceiving unsuspecting victims. A quasi-religious tone given to the advertisements of the imposter, who professes to do impossibilities, will not shield him from the penalties of any and every post office law violated."

To publish his literature and advertisements, the "healer" has equipped a printing office at Sixty-first Street and Stony Island Avenue, which is fitted with the best apparatus obtainable. The office is a two-story brick, with a frontage of forty feet. On the main floor is a cylinder press constructed to do the best quality of small book work. About six printers are kept busy in the office. Dowie also does his own photo-engraving, with which LEAVES OF HEALING is so profusely illustrated, and the work done is of the most faultless class. The plant, which is operated by two expert men, is capable of turning out $100 worth of work daily. In typographical appearance Dowie's advertising medium is not surpassed by the high-class literary weeklies.

With this elaborate plant Dowie turns out a weekly issue of thousands of copies, which, through the kindly offices of Uncle Sam, has been flooded through Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa, while states at both ends of the Union have received a deluge. Attracted by this nicely printed paper, which is gotten up in a tone of assumed religious piety, the "healer" has drawn a weekly crop of suckers, who are said to have netted him each month many thousands of dollars. Most of the patients are of the ignorant classes, but numbers of people whose education ought to make them know better, are weekly numbered among the healer's harvest. When the government cuts off the circulation of Dowie's fig-leaf drummer for trade it will have paralyzed his nefarious industry.

There is much more to the same effect in this article of the Times, including a threat to prosecute, said to have been uttered by Inspector Stuart, for alleged fraudulent use of the United States mails in collecting money by false pretenses.

Of that we have heard no more, the withdrawal of a similar charge by the Doctors on which they had falsely arrested us upon false swearing, no doubt caused Mr. Stuart to pause in the part of the attack assigned to him.

But the other part of the program assigned to the faithful tool of Rome was duly carried out, and our paper was unjustly denied the privilege of second class matter, and instead of one cent per pound, we were at once "held up" for fourteen cents on every pound, costing us within the last five weeks OVER TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS more than the usual rate which every newspaper in the country pays.

We appealed to the Postmaster General at Washington with the result that thus far the Power of Rome has been too strong for us, and we are still being "robbed" of between forty and fifty dollars every week.

We publish herewith the correspondence which we have held with our persecutors in Chicago and Washington, closing with the letter just received from "the third assistant postmaster general" whose signature is utterly unreadable. That letter is a shameless tissue of lies utterly disgraceful to the United States Government. We will publish our reply to it in our next issue, and shall appeal from his unjust decision to the Postmaster General and, if necessary, to the President of the United States. Our list of bona fide subscribers is not trivial: for it is over two thousand as we have shown to the postal persecutors in Chicago, and we shall send a copy of our mailing list to Washington forthwith. Of some weekly editions we have sold over fifteen thousand copies, and we never print less than five thousand copies weekly. We electrotype every issue, and of some issues we have had to reprint as many as ten thousand copies from our electrotype plates.

It is an utter falsehood to say that the paper is not a bona fide production entitled to the privileges of the mails. It was admitted without protest last August, and continued to be on the second class list until January 17th. Why did they not discover its unworthiness during more than five months? It was because the Black Hawks of the poison vendors, surgical butchers, mercenary lawyers, press vipers, unjust judges, municipal leeches, priests of Rome and false shepherds of Protestant Churches had not entered into a Diabolical Combination to destroy us. All these hate Christ the Healer, and feel their "crafts are in danger" by the works of God in Zion Tabernacle, the Divine Healing Homes, and in the LEAVES OF HEALING.

But God is giving us Victory, and we shall never rest until our little White Dove is freed from the talons of these Black Hawks of the Devil, whether in Washington or Chicago, and from the 14 to 1 rate against it.

Meanwhile our readers will see from the correspondence that the Roman Catholic Editor and Postmaster of Chicago has been compelled to acknowledge that our White Dove was kept imprisoned for more than eight days on one occasion in the dungeons of the Chicago Post Office, in defiance of all law, after we had paid for it at the highest rate. No one need be troubled as to the "discipline" to be given to the guilty servant: for he knew the mind of his master, the Chicago P. M., which may mean Papal Minion or Post Master, either will do.

Subscribers will now fully understand the delays and stealings from the mails—it is done by order or connivance of the Black Hawks of Washington and Chicago, the paid servants of the United States, and the voluntary servants of the Devil and his great ones at Rome, Washington and Chicago. Instead of each LEAVES OF HEALING costing Zion Publishing House one-seventh part of a cent, it costs us two cents. Who will voluntarily pay the difference? It means at present a weekly loss of about fifty dollars.

But will every Christian reader pray for us, that we may come forth from these fiery trials purer, stronger, with increased faith, and hope, and love, better fitted to help the sin-stricken and disease-smitten multitudes around us for whom Christ died, for whom He reigns and pleads, "till He come."

CHICAGO ILL., Jan. 18, 1895.

THE HON. THE POSTMASTER GENERAL, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—On the 9th inst., I received the following letter from the postmaster of Chicago:

"Publisher of the LEAVES OF HEALING. Sir: At the time your paper was entered at the post office, it complied with the law and was accepted by the department; since then it has changed and is now recognized by us as an advertising sheet. We will demand of you a deposit as 3rd class rate of postage on future mailing pending the decision of the Department. The 3rd class rate is one cent for 2 oz. or fraction thereof for each paper.

Respectfully,

WASHINGTON HESING, per J. S. H.

To that letter I have sent the following reply:

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 10, 1895.

WASHINGTON HESING, ESQ., POSTMASTER, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—Your memorandum of yesterday received. In reply I beg to say,

First: The character of our paper has not changed in the slightest degree since the first issue, upon which and upon later issues that permission was granted by the Postmaster General to send it forth as second class matter.

Second: It is in no sense whatever an advertising sheet. In fact, as any one can see at a glance, we have refused all advertisements, and only one column out of thirty-two is given to announcements concerning meetings in our mission.

Third: With reference to your "demand" for "a deposit as third class postage on future mailing pending a decision of the department," I am, of course, powerless to dispute any such demand any more than I could a demand for my money at the point of a revolver. I consider that your action is disgraceful in the extreme, and is simply a part of the disgraceful persecution which I am receiving at this time in the city of Chicago. I emphatically declare and shall prove to the Postmaster General that your allegation as to the character of this paper is entirely unfounded, and that your present action can only arise from the desire to please the vile press of this city, which is filled daily with absolute falsehoods concerning ourselves.

The bearer of this letter, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, will pay either by check or money any "demand" which you may make for third class postage, so that the mail of over four hundred pounds, as we suppose now lying at your office, may be at once sent out to subscribers. I am,

Very respectfully yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

The threat made by the postmaster of Chicago has been carried out, and to-day upon a mail of 315 pounds, instead of paying the sum of $3.15, I have been compelled to deposit a check for $44.10; more than $40 in excess of the second rate matter postage.

I do myself the honor by this mail to send you a complete copy of the present issue of LEAVES OF HEALING Nos. 1-17, and am sure that a candid and honest examination of these numbers will fail to sustain the charge that this paper has changed its character, or that it is in any sense a mere advertising sheet. It is a paper strictly for the extension of the Kingdom of God, and contains reports of sermons, articles and testimonies concerning the work in which I am engaged as a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. So far from it being a mere advertising sheet, it will be seen upon examination that the only advertisements in the paper are confined to two columns, usually on the 15th page of the issue, containing the advertisement of a few books and pamphlets, Bibles, etc., and announcements of the meetings connected with our mission. If we wished to make money by it as an advertising sheet, it would be quite easy to get a very large number of business advertisements in this city. We have been willing rather to sacrifice money so as to preserve the character of the paper as distinctly and wholly religious and in no sense mercenary.

My allusion in my letter to Mr. Hesing as to the attacks of the press will be better understood by examining the last issue,

No. 17, in which I have answered a mass of unfounded calumnies made against the work, especially by the Chicago Times and Dispatch, two of the vilest papers in this city.

I very respectfully submit this protest against the action of the local postmaster, and would point out in conclusion that his action is working great hardship with me, and will, if persisted in most unjustifiably rob me of a large sum of money every week. I have contracted with my subscribers to send out this paper for $2.00 per annum, and I have been fast getting toward placing it on a paying basis. This unjustifiable action of the postmaster will be most disastrous to its interests, and I have good reason to suppose that it has arisen largely from religious prejudice, and especially because of my article in No. 8, page 115, entitled "The Man of Sin Revealed," or "An Exposure of the Blasphemous Claim of the Pope of Rome to be the Infallible Head of the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ."

It is well known that Mr. Washington Hesing and many of the leading persons in his office are Roman Catholics, and I am informed upon excellent authority, that that article and others of a similar character have caused this unfounded charge to be trumped up against our paper so as to prevent its passage through the mails at the rate to which it is entitled.

There are subscribers to this paper in all parts of the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia, and we do not send out copies unless they are paid for, except in very few cases where subscribers ask us to send sample copies to their friends. These sample copies would not average twenty copies per week. The paper is in all respects a bona fide paper with a bona fide list of subscribers, which fact proves it is in no sense a mere advertising sheet.

I respectfully ask that the postmaster of Chicago be directed to withdraw the demand he has made, and that the paper be permitted to pass through the mails as before. Believing that justice will be done. I am,

Very respectfully yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 28, 1895.

THE HON. THE 3RD ASS'T P. M. GEN., Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—I have this day received from the Superintendent of Mails of Chicago, the following communication:

Subject: LEAVES OF HEALING.

POST OFFICE, CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 26, 1895.

Publisher LEAVES OF HEALING, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—This office is in receipt of a communication from the Hon. Third Assistant Postmaster General, in which we are directed to inform you that an opportunity is given you to show cause why the privilege of second class matter should not be denied you under the provisions of Par. 4, Section 277, P. L. & R. For your information I quote Par. 4:

"It must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or some special industry, and having a legitimate list of subscribers; PROVIDED HOWEVER, that nothing contained therein shall be so construed as to admit to the second class rates regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates. (Act of March 3, 1879, Sec. 14. 20 Stats. 359)." Respectfully,

J. MONTGOMERY, Sup't of Mails.

to which I have sent the following reply:

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 28th, 1895.

MR. J. M. MONTGOMERY, Sup't. of Mails, Chicago P. O.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 26th received this morning concerning LEAVES OF HEALING, and informing me that you are directed by the Hon. Third Assistant Postmaster General to give me an opportunity to show cause why the privileges of second class matter should not be denied me under provisions of Par. 4, Section 277, P. L. & R. You also quote for me the entire paragraph. I desire to say in reply,

First: LEAVES OF HEALING has been originated and published "for the dissemination of information of a public character." I send you by one of my secretaries, Mr. J. J. Carpenter, a complete set, Nos. 1 to 19 of the new series of LEAVES OF HEALING, and by it you will see that the information given is of a public character. Reports are given of public meetings held in Zion Tabernacle attended by thousands of people, reports of public discourses delivered there and elsewhere, etc., etc.

Second: "Devotion to Literature." The LEAVES OF HEALING are devoted especially to Divine Healing Literature, but not wholly so, for long articles on the Drama, Press and Pulpit continued through a number of issues, and literature upon temperance and social subjects are printed in the paper.

Third: "Having a legitimate list of subscribers." I have sent you by Mr. Carpenter our subscription books and mailing list, showing that we have a large legitimate list of subscribers in well nigh every state in the Union, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and in Europe.

Fourth: The paragraph referred to in P. L. & R. contains this provision, "Provided, however, that nothing contained therein shall be so construed as to admit to the second class rates regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates." With reference to this I have to say that our paper is not designed primarily, nor at all, for advertising purposes. It is legitimately designed for giving information to large numbers of Christians, of all classes, in communication with us where it circulates, and especially to members of the International Divine Healing Association, a list of which is at the head of this communication, showing branches in the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, etc. Had we the desire to make it merely an advertising sheet, we could probably get hundreds of dollars worth of advertising every week, but that is not the purpose for which the paper has been originated. I have established in Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Avenue, a printing house and publishing department especially for the purpose of giving information concerning the "extension of the Kingdom of God" in all its departments, and for which purpose LEAVES OF HEALING has been established. We give prominence to Divine Healing because it is a neglected truth: but we by no means confine ourselves to that subject.

I trust that this defense of our right to the privilege of second class matter will be satisfactory, and that the paper will be at once fully restored to that class. I am,

Respectfully Yours, JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

My secretary has just returned from the city, having had a long conversation with Mr. Montgomery concerning this matter. Mr. Montgomery now alleges that the only charge against our paper that can be sustained is that we have not opened our columns to business advertisements, excepting the advertisement of our own publications and meetings. He has been unable to show us any clause in the postal laws and regulations which demand that we shall admit business advertisements; and while we are willing to do so in order to retain the paper on the second class matter list, we do not wish to do that, as it would alter the character of the paper as an entirely religious periodical.

I do myself the honor to enclose you a copy of the Christian Alliance, of New York, which is precisely the same as our paper in size, and is a religious paper, containing no other advertisements than those on the last page, which are entirely the advertisements of the Christian Alliance Publishing Co., which issues the paper. I see no reason why we should be treated otherwise than the Christian Alliance Pub. Co., and, I am informed, other organizations that print a similar paper.

I ask for your ruling upon this matter, and, if I may, for a direct communication from yourself, inasmuch as it seems to us that we are being personally persecuted by the postal authorities in this city.

I wish to state that my means are not large, and that it is exceeding inconvenient for me to have to deposit every week so considerable a sum as I have had to do for the last two weeks, amounting to $90.16, when the postage at second class rates, upon which we are entered in your office, would not amount to $7.

I enclose you two copies of our paper, Nos. 1 and 19, which are the first and last issues of this series.

I earnestly ask for your kind attention at once to this communication, as it is evident to us that the post office authorities in this city are endeavoring to weary us out, and to make endless and needless objections. I am,

Very Respectfully Yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 12, 1895.

THE HON. THIRD ASS'T P. M. GEN'L, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—I subjoin you herewith a copy of the letter which I have just addressed to the postmaster of Chicago.

CHICAGO ILL., Feb. 12, 1895.

WASHINGTON HESING, Postmaster, Chicago,

Sir: Numerous complaints are daily received concerning the non-delivery of my paper, LEAVES OF HEALING. On Sunday afternoon last, whilst conducting the services in Zion Tabernacle, I asked those who were subscribers to the LEAVES OF HEALING who were present and who had not received the paper that had been posted the previous Wednesday from our office to rise, and over fifty did so. When I asked those who received them to rise, I found that only one person present had received his paper. Since then numerous complaints have come to us verbally and some in writing, from various parts of the city and suburbs and from other states. It is, therefore, quite clear that large numbers of our papers fail to leave your office, although we are actually paying at the third class rate, pending the decision of the Department at Washington; a rate which is equal to two cents on each copy of our paper. I ask for an immediate explanation. I have forwarded a copy of this letter to the Hon. 3rd Ass't P. M. Gen'l at Washington.

Respectfully, JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

I will get the names of scores of these persons to whom reference has been made if necessary and submit them to you, but there is no doubt whatever that the trouble lies in the post office at Chicago, where, as you are aware, my paper has been most unjustly placed upon the third rate list, pending the appeal to Washington. I am being compelled to pay scores of dollars every week in excess of the just postage, and this has continued now more than a month, involving me in an expenditure of some hundreds of dollars.

May I ask for that which I feel is my just right; a decision leaving our paper where it now is in your office, on the second class list, and also ask that you will kindly cause investigation to be made as to why the paper, even when paid for at third class rate, has not been delivered from the Chicago post office, even to Chicago subscribers.

I ask for some immediate action upon the part of your Department, delivering me from cruel persecution and the act of stealing our mail, for it is nothing less upon the part of the postal authorities of Chicago.

As a specimen of the complaints which are very numerous from all parts of the country, I send you from to-day's mail, five communications with the endorsement of the clerk in the Publishing House indicating that the papers were duly sent. These communications are from E. A. Rogers, Quincy, Ill.; J. G. Kern, Mazomanie, Wis.; Mrs. Darwin Clarke, 22 S. Webster St., Madison, Wis.; Mrs. H. Greinor, Allegan, Mich. and J. M. Fleetwood, Hegewisch, Ill.

As a specimen of the verbal complaints I send you also four cards which were received at the Publishing House this afternoon and the names are as follows:

Austin Mabie, 311 62nd place, Woodlawn; Chas. W. Post, 972 N. Halsted Street, City; Mrs. E. L. Dagling, 46 Rush Street, City, and A. C. Victorson, 529 56th Court, Englewood.

It would be useless for me to send any of these papers to the office in Chicago, as I do not believe that any attention, whatever, would be paid to the complaint. I am,

Faithfully yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

[4]

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 14, 1895.

THE HON. 3RD ASS'T P. M. GEN'L., Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—Following up my letter to you of Tuesday, Feb. 12, I herewith subjoin a copy of a letter which I have just addressed to the Postmaster of Chicago.

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 14, 1895.

WASHINGTON HESING, POSTMASTER, Chicago, Ill.

Sir:—Failing to get any answer from you to my complaint of Feb. 12, I again desire to inform you that I have the names of a very large number of persons in the City of Chicago, and in the country, who have not received LEAVES OF HEALING No. 20, which were sent into your office on Tuesday, Feb. 5 and for which I paid the sum of $41.76 by check on February 6, at third class rates pending the appeal to Washington.

It is now becoming abundantly evident that practically the whole of this issue has been kept back in your office. I have already forwarded to the Hon. Third Assistant Postmaster General at Washington a number of names, and will send him a copy of this letter, with a list of those who have made verbal complaints, and a number of those who have made written complaints also.

I have a right to demand an immediate explanation of this matter. We have been for more than a month receiving large numbers of complaints, and it is now evident that practically the whole issue has been stolen after being entrusted to your office.

I have only found one person at present who has received a copy of No. 20 through the mail.

I am, Faithfully Yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

The following are the names of a number of persons present at Zion Tabernacle upon Tuesday last, who gave to one of my assistants, Rev. Dr. Speicher, their names, as not having received issue No. 20, of which I enclose you a copy.

Anna Ware, 224 41st St.

Mrs. Anna Lawson, 61 Milton Ave.

Mrs. A. S. Lasley, 1792 N. Clark St.

Gustus Raw, Box 325, Blue Island.

G. W. Stahlman, 6448 Stony Island Ave.

Miss Isabella Down, 6448 Stony Island Ave.

Martin Bidderstraw, 5716 Aberdeen Ave.

John Lotton, 3235 Laurel St.

William McEndow, Fowler Bros., Stock Yards.

G. Clasen, 5301 Cottage Grove Ave.

Mrs. Carrie Gross, 6001 Indiana Ave.

W. J. Henry, 6326 Champlain Ave.

Miss Martha Waller, 1344 Burchell Ave.

J. S. Rogers, 207 72nd St., Englewood.

John Swansen, 2920 Wentworth Ave.

Miss Fannie Rootz, 634 Van Horn St.

Mrs. Simms, 5547 Union Ave.

Mrs. G. Lawser, 4109 Langley Ave.

John White, 1146 48th St.

Chris Johnson, 1153 Stone Ave.

I also send you herewith a few of the postal cards received by this morning's mail from,

Mrs. H. G. Jones, Dunkerton, Black Hawk Co., Ia.

T. W. West, North Prairie, Wis.

Mrs. E. E. Clarke, Belvidere, Ill.

F. W. Norbreit, Beaver Dam, Wis.

W. M. Cook, Lake Mills, Wis.

W. Bailr, 423 Oak St., Chicago.

Ruth D. Jamison, W. Lafayette, Ind.

These complaints number in all twenty-eight, but these are only a sample of what we are receiving every hour. I feel that I have a just claim against the postal department for the cost of the whole issue entrusted to the office in Chicago, and unless these papers shall turn up soon, I shall send in my claim against the department for the entire issue, and for such damages as I think I have a right to be given.

I call your attention to this as a proof of that which I have from the beginning alleged, namely, that I am being personally persecuted by the authorities of your department in charge of the post office at Chicago, and that this was the only reason why our paper was placed upon the third class rate list pending an appeal.

Whilst dictating this letter, one of my secretaries has come into my office with three copies of No. 20, similar to the one I have just sent you, informing me that they had just been received through the mail by subscribers, and brought to him. It is evident, therefore, that these have been detained in the post office of Chicago from the 6th inst. until this morning, and, probably, now we may hear that others have received them. This indicates, still further, the malice of the Chicago office in having wilfully detained the mail for eight days.

May I not ask for a direct answer from your department, placing me in a proper position, and compensating me for the loss which I am sustaining, and the great trouble and inconvenience from that which seems to me to be the criminal action of the postal authorities in Chicago.

I am, Faithfully Yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

POST OFFICE, CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 14, 1895.

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, 6020 Edgerton Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Sir:—Yours of the 12th inst. referring to non-delivery of copies of LEAVES OF HEALING, to hand. I have made careful inquiries regarding this matter, but cannot find anything to show that papers were held at this office for any cause. If you will return this correspondence, stating when and where the papers are mailed, with a few of the addresses of the missing copies, I will be pleased to make further investigation. Respectfully,

WASHINGTON HESING, P. M.

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 15, 1895.

WASHINGTON HESING, Postmaster, Chicago.

Sir:—Your answer to my letter of Feb. 12 just received, in which you say "I have made careful inquiries regarding this matter, but cannot find anything to show that papers were held at this office for any cause."

It is satisfactory to know from yourself that they were not held "for any cause", but if you will make still futher inquiries, you will find they were held WITHOUT ANY CAUSE.

The mail paid for on the 6th inst., No. 20, of LEAVES OF HEALING began to come out of your office yesterday, as I informed you. No. 21, posted this week, came out on the first delivery, showing, therefore, clearly that No. 20 had been detained for more than eight days WITHOUT ANY CAUSE.

Since you have asked me for a few addresses of the missing numbers, I give you the following which were forwarded yesterday to the 3rd Ass't P. M. Gen'l.

Anna Ware, 224 41st St., Chicago.

Mrs. Anna Lawson, 61 Milton Ave., Chicago.

Mrs. A. S. Lasley, 1792 N. Clark St., Chicago.

Mrs. C. W. Post, 972 N. Halsted St., Chicago.

Gustus Raw, 325 Blue Island.

G. W. Stahlman, 6448 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Miss Labelle Down, 6448 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Martin Bidderstraw, 5716 Aberdeen Ave., Chicago.

John Lotton, 3255 Laurel St., Chicago.

G. Clasen, 5301 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago.
Mrs. Carrie Gross, 6001 Indiana Ave., Chicago.

And fifteen others whose names were given.

I return my letter of the 12th and again ask for an explanation of this further piece of persecution in your office which has caused great inconvenience, annoyance and loss.

I am, Faithfully yours,

JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

POST OFFICE, CHICAGO, ILL.
Feb. 19, 1895.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, 6020 Edgerton Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Referring to LEAVES OF HEALING deposited in this office for mailing, I find that they were held at this office pending a deposit to cover a third-class rate of postage, and that when deposit was made, instructions were given to have them sent out, and through the negligence of the employe who received the message, was not properly delivered to the foreman in charge of the newspaper section. I am very sorry that this has occurred, and I have taken steps to discipline the clerk at fault. Respectfully,

WASHINGTON HESING, P. M.

[Memoranda enclosed with above letter.]

J. M. MONTGOMERY, Supt. of Mails.

Please report on this in so far as it relates to dispatch of mail by your division.

M. J. McGRATH, Supt. Inquiry Division.

POST OFFICE, CHICAGO, ILL.
Feb. 16, 1895.

CAPT. M. J. McGRATH, Supt. Inquiry Division.

I find upon further investigation that the papers herein referred to were ordered out by Capt. Beatie at the time deposit was made, but by some mischance the order was not transmitted to Crumbacker, and, as a consequence, the papers did not go out on time. I very much regret this, and have taken such action as will make a re-occurrence impossible. I have also ordered the suspension of the clerk whose duty it was to see that Crumbacker was notified, and if I find him at fault, he will be recommended for removal from the service.

J. M. MONTGOMERY, Supt. of Mails.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE THIRD ASS'T P. M. GENERAL,
WASHINGTON D. C., Feb. 18, 1895.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE, 6020 Edgerton Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Sir:—Your letter of the 12th inst., relative to the exclusion from 2nd class mail matter of your publication, LEAVES OF HEALING, has been received.

The space in this publication devoted, directly and indirectly, to "divine healing," as practiced by you in your various "Homes," the exclusion from it of all advertisements other than your own, the possession of but a trivial number of bona fide subscribers, and the apparently gratuitous circulation of a large number of copies, warrant the conclusion that it is designed primarily for advertising and advancing the interests of your business as a "divine healer," and therefore, under the plain terms of the law, not admissible to the mails at the cent-a-pound rate of postage. I do not see how—under this showing—the Department can authorize the admission of the paper.

An investigation will be made as to the alleged unnecessary delay in delivery of copies of LEAVES OF HEALING, mailed by you at the Chicago post office, upon which postage was prepaid at the third class rate. Yours very respectfully, Third Assistant Postmaster General.

CAPTURED FROM THE ENEMY.

(See Illustration Page 368)

THE remarkable picture on our last page is an exact engraving of a photograph of the center of the back and a portion of the sides of our platform in Zion Tabernacle. Many of our friends who knew that we had a collection of trophies captured from the enemy, suggested that we should have them photographed, and we at once decided that the best position in which to place them, if this were to be done, would be under the motto which for years has been inscribed above our head in letters of gold, "CHRIST IS ALL."

Here are to be seen the crutches of little children and very tall men and women, the trusses worn, some of them, for forty years by sorely afflicted people advanced in life, and the little brace worn by a boy of four years old; the plaster of Paris casts, the cruel braces with their steel collars and steel head-pieces, the heavy leg braces and the high-heeled boots, some of them with steel spring soles, etc. Here are also to be seen a few of the cots on which the sick and dying were brought to the Tabernacle, which they left behind when they were healed immediately and walked out. On the right of the picture, nearest the wall, is the little canvas cot upon which Miss Amanda M. Hicks, a cousin of the late President Lincoln, was brought from her home at Clinton College, Kentucky, of which she was principal, a distance of about four hundred miles. Her case was considered absolutely hopeless except for a most perilous operation. She was carried into our Home on the cot mentioned, and the same night arose and walked. She returned to her college, finished the year, and is now on her way to Europe, a happy, healthy woman. On the extreme left is the cot on which Mrs. Lane, of Washington Heights, who had been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for six years, was carried to the Tabernacle, which she left behind when she walked out. The most interesting, perhaps, of all the exhibits, is the peculiar one of a bright steel revolver with silver-plated mountings, just under the crutches on the right of the picture. This revolver was given to us by a man converted in our meeting some years ago, who is now a most respectable citizen. He had been a safe-blower and burglar for thirty-five years and the revolver had been the property of his uncle who fell dead with it in his hand when engaged in a battle with the police in Kentucky. The strange looking instrument below it is a burglar's jimmy of the finest steel, and the implements below that are a portion of a safe-blower's outfit. The story of this man is one of the most wonderful in all our experience, and we shall give it in due course, in detail, in the LEAVES. He and his family, and men at one time desperate criminals, have been converted and baptized since we came to Chicago.

It would take a large volume to write the story of all these things. They represent centuries of suffering in the aggregate, and are but a few ocular demonstrations of thousands who have been healed.

May God bless the little picture as we give the glory to Him whose name is over all. By Him alone these deeds of mercy and of love have been wrought. Amen.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-ropi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14: 6 and Exodus 15: 26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13: 8 and Matthew 28: 20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 and Matthew 8: 17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3: 8, Matthew 4: 23 and Acts 10: 38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11: 29 and 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8: 5-13, Matthew 18: 19, James 5: 14, 15, Mark 16: 18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothy 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Gottes Weg der Heilung.

Vom Redakteur.

Gottes Weg der Heilung ist eine Person und kein Ding.

Jesus sagte: „Ich bin der Weg, die Wahrheit und das Leben,“ und Er wurde stets Seinem Volke geoffenbart in all den Jahren durch des Vertrages Name, Jehovah-ropi, oder „Ich bin der Herr, der Dich geheilt hat.“ (Johannes 14: 6 und zweites Buch Moses 15: 26).

Der Herr Jesus Christus ist stets der Heiler.

Er kann sich nicht ändern, denn „Er war derselbe gestern, ist es heute und ewig,“ und Er ist stets bei uns, denn Er sagt: „Siehe, ich bin stets bei Euch, selbst bis zum Ende der Welt.“ (Hebräer 13: 8 und Matthäi 28: 20). Weil Er unveränderlich ist, und weil er anwesend ist im Geiste gerade so als wie im Fleisch, deshalb ist er der Heiler Seines Volkes.

Göttliche Heilung ruht auf Christi's Versöhnung.

Es wurde von Ihm prophezeit: „Sicherlich hat Er unseren Kummer ertragen (Hebräer, Krankheiten) und unseren Schmerz empfunden, und durch Seine Streifen werden wir geheilt,“ und er wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß dieses in Seinem Dienst der Heilung vollzogen wurde, welcher stets fortgeführt wird. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 und Matthäi 8: 17).

Krankheit kann niemals Gottes Wille sein.

Es ist des Teufels Arbeit, folgend auf Sünde, und es ist für die Arbeit des Teufels unmöglich, jemals der Wille Gottes zu sein.

Christus kam, um „die Arbeiten des Teufels zu zerstören,“ und als Er hier auf Erden war, „heilte Er jede Unpäßlichkeit und jede Krankheit,“ und alle diese Krankheiten sind ausdrücklich für die „Unterdrückung des Teufels“ erklärt worden. (1 Johannes 3: 8, Matthäi 4: 23 und Apostelgeschichte 10: 38).

Die Gaben der Heilung sind fortdauernd.

Es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß die „Gaben und der Beruf Gottes ohne Reue sind,“ und die Gaben der Heilung sind unter den neun Gaben des Geistes zur Kirche zu finden. (Römer 11: 29 und 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

Es giebt vier Arten göttlicher Heilung.

Die erste Art ist das direkte Glaubensgebet; die zweite ist das vermittelnde Gebet von zwei oder mehr Personen; die dritte ist die Salbung des Aeltesten mit dem Glaubens ebet, und die vierte Art ist das Handauflegen Derjenigen, welche glauben, und wel e Gott vorbereitet und zu jenem Dienst berufen hat. (Matthäi 8: 5-13, Matthäi 18: 19, Jacob 5: 14, 15, Marcus 16: 1).

Göttliche Heilung wird von teuflischen Betrügnern bekämpft.

Unter diesen befinden sich Christian Science (fälschlich so genannt), Geist-Heilung, Spiritualismus, Entzündungs-Evangelismus u. s. w. (1 Timotheus 6: 20, 21, 1 Timotheus 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Tausende sind durch den Glauben an Jesus geheilt worden.

Schreiber Dieses sind Tausende von Fälle bekannt und er hat persönlich seine Hand gelegt auf Tausende von Personen. Vollständige Auskunft kann man erhalten in den Versammlungen, welche im Zion Tabernakel, No. 251 Ost 62. Str., nahe dem Jackson-Park, Chicago, abgehalten werden, sowie aus vielen Pamphlets, welche die Erfahrung von Vielen in deren eigenen Worten enthalten, die in diesem und anderen Ländern geheilt worden sind. Diese Pamphlets werden von dem Zion Publishing House, No. 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago, herausgegeben.

IL MODO COME DIO GUARISCE I MALI.

DALL' EDITORE.

Il modo come Dio guarisce, è una persona, non una cosa.

Gesù disse: "Io sono la Via, la Verità e la Vita," e si è sempre rivelato al Suo popolo in ogni epoca col Nome Covenante Jehovah-rophi, o "Io sono il Signore la tua Salute. (Giovanni 14: 6 e gli Esorti 15; 26.)

Il Signore Gesù è sempre Colui che guarisce.

Egli non può cambiare perchè "Egli è lo stesso, di ieri, di oggi e per sempre," ed Egli è sempre con noi, perchè disse: "Ecco, Io sono sempre con voi infino alla fine del mondo." (Ebrei 13: 8 e Matteo 28: 20.) Perchè Egli è presente, nello spirito come nella carne. Egli è Colui che guarisce il Suo popolo.

Il Guarire Divino sta nella Riconciliazione di Cristo.

Lui profetizzò: "Sicuramente fu Lui che soffrì i nostri dolori e con i suoi gastighi noi guariamo," ed è espressamente dichiarato che ciò si compì mediante il Suo Ministero di Guarire, che continua ancora. (Isaia 53: 4, 5 e Matteo 8: 17.)

Il Male non può mai essere la Volontà di Dio.

E opera del Diavolo, la conseguenza del peccato, ed è impossibile che l'opera del Diavolo sia mai la Volontà di Dio.

Cristo venne "per distruggere l'opera del Diavolo," e quando Egli "guarì ogni malattia" e tutti questi mali sono espressamente dichiarati di essere stati "l'oppressione del Diavolo." (1 Giovanni 3: 8, Matteo 4: 23 e gli Atti 10: 38.)

I Doni del Guarire sono Permanenti.

E espressamente dichiarato che "I Doni e le appellazioni di Dio sono privi di pentimento," ed i Doni del Guarire sono fra i Nove Doni dello Spirito e della Chiesa. (Romani 11: 29 e 1

Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Ci sono Quattro Modi del Guarire Divino.

Il primo consiste nel rivolgere la preghiera di fede, il secondo preghiere intercessorie di due o più persone, il terzo l'unzione degli anziani nella preghiera della fede, ed il quarto nel posare le mani su coloro che credono, e per quali Dio ha preparato e chiamato a quel ministero. (Matteo 8: 5—13, Matteo 18: 19, Giacomo 5: 14, 15, Marco 16: 18.)

Il Guarire Divino è opposto alle Falsificazioni Diaboliche.

Fra questi sono la Scienza Christiana (chiamata falsamente), Guarizione della Mente, Spiritualismo, Estasi, Evangelismo eccetera. (Timotheo 6: 20, 21, 1 Timotheo 4: 1, 2, Isaia 51: 22, 23.)

Delle Multitudini sono state guarite dalla Fede in Gesù.

Lo scrittore, conosce migliaia di casi ed ha personalmente posto le sue proprie mani su ventine di migliaia di persone. Complete informazione si possono attendere alle riunioni tenute nel Tabernacolo di Zion, 251 E. 62 Strate, vicino al Parco Jackson, Chicago, e per mezzo di molti panfletti che ne dimostrano l'esperienza colle loro parole e da molti che sono stati guariti in questo ed altri paesi; pubblicati dalla Casa Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

"La Fede Viene Ascoltando, e coll' Ascoltare la Parola di Dio."

Voi siete cordialmente invitato di venire ad ascoltare da voi stessi.

LA MANIÈRE COME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'ÉDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: "Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie," et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophi, ou "Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut." (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'"Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours" et Lui est toujours avec nous. paucequ'il dit: "Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde." (Hebreux 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'"Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. "Sûrement ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissions," et c'est expressément déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaie 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint "pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable" et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui "guérit toutes maladies" et tous ces maux ont été expressément déclarés d'avoir été "l'oppression du Diable." (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanent.

C'est expressément déclaré que "Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir," et les Dons de la Guérison sont parnies les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8—11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5—13. Matthieu 18: 9. Jacques 5: 14, 15. Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposée aux Fausseries Diaboliques.

Parmis celles-ci y il a la Science Chrétienne (faussetment appellé) Guérison du Sentiment, du Spiritualisme, de l'Extase de l'Evangelisme eccetera. (Timothee 6: 20, 21, 1 Timothee 4: 1, 2, Isaie 51: 22, 23.)

Des Multitudes ont été guéries par la Foie de Jesu.

L'écrivain, connaît des milliers de cas, et il a personnellement posé ses propres mains, sur des vingtaines de milliers de personnes. Des informations complètes peuvent être obtenues aux réunions qui ont lieu dans le Tabernacle de Zion, 251 E. 62 Street, près du Parc Jackson, à Chicago, et grace à beaucoup de pamphlets qui en demontrent l'expérience par leurs paroles et par beaucoup de personnes qui ont été guéries dans ce pays et dans d'autres; et qui ont été publiés par la Maison Editrice Zion, 6100 Stony Island Avenue à Chicago.

MISS SADIE CODY.

THE NAME of Colonel W. F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," is known throughout Europe and America as that of a daring, dashing soldier, Indian Scout, and the proprietor and conductor of "The Wild West Show." Kings and princes and millions of people have seen and heard the wonderful spectacle of American Indians, Russian Cossacks, etc., etc.—the "rough riders" of the world—in that famous show. "Rain or shine," Sunday and week day alike, every afternoon and night, it was our misery to be compelled to hear the yells of Indians, etc., etc., and the shouts of tens of thousands of spectators, in the great amphitheatre constructed for that "show" throughout the whole period of the World's Fair: for Zion Tabernacle was exactly opposite, on the other side of 62nd Street. Oh, what agonies we suffered all these long months. In defiance of all law the Sunday was the maddest, wildest day of all the week: for the mayor and police authorities protected Cody in his disobedience to the laws of God and man—there was no rest for us or anyone near the howling, hideous cries of the Indians, who "massacred Custer and his cavalry" every day, or "attacked the stage coach," etc. Whilst reading, preaching or praying showers of small shot would fall on the Tabernacle, or the strains of the Wild West Band playing the "Marseillaise," or "Yankee Doodle" would break in on our hymns "We're Marching to Zion," or "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

From May, 1893, until November, 1893—six long months—Zion Tabernacle floated the flag "Christ is All," and held almost daily meetings amidst all this diabolical din. In front was Cody's Wild West, behind us the Midway Plaisance with its Carnival of Lust, on the left that Vanity Fair of the World, the Flesh and the Devil, and around us gamblers, thieves, and shouting hucksters of every kind. But Zion Tabernacle held its own, though the crowds swept on to pleasure and to pain. And now, the Dream City has departed amidst blood and fire and smoke, the Midway is a lovely park and drive, and like Jackson Park has been restored to God, to nature, and to the people, and all the transient hosts of human vampires have disappeared, their haunts swept away, and Zion Tabernacle, Zion Publishing House, and the Homes are left amidst the most peaceful and pleasant surroundings, untouched by all the hatred of the hellish host, who impotently howl at them from the "Habitations of Dragons," in the center of Chicago, seven miles away. No pleasanter or quieter spot can now be found so close to the city, and yet no more undesirable or noisier place could be found a little more than a year ago. Our little Zion is an emblem of the Church of God on earth, now surrounded by those who love to live to defile humanity. They will perish, their place and memory be a forgotten dream; but the Heavenly Zion will fill the whole earth with the Glory, Beauty and Power of God.

But what of this quiet, earnest faced young woman of twenty-five years, who stands there so patiently waiting to tell the world her story just as she has recently and repeatedly in Zion Tabernacle?

Ah! she is a Cody; a relative of Buffalo Bill Cody, and we have had our revenge on him and the Wild West Show! He captured Indians and hung their scalps at his belt. We have captured a Cody from the murderous demons of disease, and here she stands a Witness for God testifying in the very place where Cody's Indians "massacred" Custer daily.

On November 21st last, four men bearing a cot came out of a house in Rensselaer, Indiana, and lying on that cot, in mortal agony, was this Witness, Sadie Cody. Following the mournful cortege were a number of friends and relatives including her father and sisters, who were told by the doctors and drug defenders, "Sadie Cody will be brought back a corpse."

Transferred to a Pullman Sleeping Car, she was brought by railway to 53rd Street, (Hyde Park) Chicago, where the Police Ambulance received her, and in it she was carried to the Divine Healing Home, accompanied by her sister.

The rest of the story she shall tell in her own words, as she spoke them before crowded assemblies at the Monthly Praise and Testimony Meetings held in Zion Tabernacle on December 30th, 1894, and February 24th, 1895.

It is a wonderful story she tells as she stands there as erect as Buffalo Bill himself facing the "bad" Indians of the Bad Lands of Dakota. She is facing the "bad Injuns" of the Churches in Chicago and elsewhere, almost everywhere; and she is just as brave, yea braver: for the Brules of the Sioux in the full swing of bad whiskey and a Ghost Dance are not more savage than the Brules of Methodism, Baptistism, and all the other Isms in the Ecclesiastical Bad Lands of Christendom. These clerical Brules, with their medical, surgical, political, and other diabolical allies, all are hunting for our scalp, with the poison arrows of an anonymous brood of press vipers, and with the sharp knives of hatred and envy.

It is a wonderful story that she tells to the glory of God, and it adds luster to the Name of Jesus, "The Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace."

It is a wonderful story to simply contrast this picture with the sorrowing cortege which passed through the streets nearly four months ago bearing her prostrate, quivering body, with a diseased spine, abscess, tumour, internal disorders, and her right leg three inches shorter than the left.

There she stands—God's WITNESS, justifying Him and justifying His servant, the writer of these lines, and everyone of these miseries have passed away through the power of God, in answer to the prayer of faith and the laying on of our hands in the Name of Jesus.

What are ye going to do about it ye "bad Injuns" in the Denominational Bad Lands? Your silly Ghost Dance is about played out in your pulpits and your papers, in your weekly ministerial meetings, where ye have your "little jokes" concerning us and our work for God from your miserable little one-eyed jokers—the clowns of your platforms.

GOD IS SPEAKING. Let the thunders of fact put to shame your silly fancies, your lying stories, and your blind, envious mouthings against Zion Tabernacle and God's work, and God's servants there. Beware, ye sleek companions of Standard Oil thieves, who find your students cannot be frightened away from Zion Tabernacle, no matter what may be threatened by the Theological Faculty of Chicago University! The Day of Truth has come, and all the ice in your lapistries, or the hell fire in your hearts, cannot retard its progress. God's Voice is crying. "I will work, and who shall turn it back?"

Now, let the WITNESS speak; and may her words be carried by the Spirit of Love, through the agency of our "little white dove," LEAVES OF HEALING, to millions of beds of pain and hopeless despair. It was this little messenger which bore the Leaves from the Tree of Life to her. May it bear a message of hope to every weary sufferer into whose feeble hands it comes. Go forth, little Messenger of Jesus, and lay His LEAVES OF HEALING gently on the sick one's bed! This is thy blessed mission, carrying Christ's healing in thy wings.

"The paths of pain are thine. Go forth
With Patience, Trust, and Hope;
The sufferings of a sin-sick earth
Shall give thee ample scope."

[Extract from the stenographic report of the "Crowning Praise and Testimony Meeting for 1894," held in Zion Tabernacle on Lord's Day afternoon, Dec. 30, 1894, at 3 P. M., appearing in LEAVES OF HEALING, No. 17, Jan. 11th, 1895, pp. 266-7.]

HEALED OF HOPELESS SPINAL DISEASE, ABSCESS, TUMOR, ETC., AND LENGTHENING OF LEG BY THREE INCHES.

Miss Cody spoke with deliberation and ease.

She said: "I have touched the hem of His garment, and I stand before you free. I was bound by satan for one year and four months. Foreight months I was bound hand and foot. but Christ has made me free. A year ago last September I was taken sick at the World's Fair. Two physicians attended me here in Chicago; I was unable to go home. I had not been, until I was healed by Christ, able get up and down from a chair, without the greatest difficulty. Nine months ago I became perfectly helpless. I was attended by four physicians in Rensselaer, and my uncle, Dr. David, who is an eminent physician in this city. He consulted with noted physicians here, and they decided that nothing could be done for me, except to be put in a plaster of Paris cast. They thought that would do no good, but it was all they could recommed. Five of my vertebrae were worse than useless; an abscess as large as my fist was at the base my spine; a large swelling was developing into a tumor; my limb was three inches short; and in that condition I was brought to Chicago. They had talked of bringing me to the hospital, but the physicians said I could not stand the journey. The day they were to put the cast on me, there were two physicians in the room. They were almost ready to put it on when one of them was called away by telegram. It was a providential interruption.

They said they would put it on the next day, but in twenty minutes after they had left the room, a little white dove fluttered into my room, and lit on my bed,—it was the LEAVES OF HEALING which came to tell me that Jesus Christ is healing yet, and of Dr. Dowie's work in Chicago. I felt that it was for me. I wrote asking Dr. Dowie to pray for me. He sent a blank request for prayer. I filled it out and sent it back. At the day and hour appointed for prayer I began improving, and kept on until I was well enough to be brought to Chicago. They brought me to the depot at home on a cot. I was carried in and put in the sleeper. From there I was taken on a stretched to the ambulance and brought to Home No. 3.

The next day, I believe, after I arrived, Dr. Dowie prayed for me, and I felt that Jesus was going to heal me. After he had laid hands on me in the name of the Lord, there commenced a great struggle, as if something inside of me, that held my breath, was tearing itself away. The feeling was dreadful, and I became insensible. I could not see, nor hear, nor speak. It seemed to me as if I went to sleep, but immediately, almost, I awoke—and what a blessed awakening; I felt new life in me. There was no pain and no aching; I had really awoke to health. From that moment I have been rapidly improving, and now I stand before you with both limbs of equal length (I am standing flat on my feet); my spine that was so sensitive that it could not be touched with a finger, without my fainting, can now be rubbed as hard as any one can rub it; the swelling from the abscess and the tumor has gone.

The secretary of my uncle, who is also a physician, looked at my back and said it was in perfect condition. The spine is all right; the tumor is all gone, and she could find no trace of either the abscess or the tumor. I have been up on the third story of Home No. 1 several times. I seldom lie down in the day time to rest, and am walking about most of the time. I am so happy I cannot lie down; for I begin to wonder if it is a reality that I can walk, and get up to try it.

I cannot find words to praise the Lord for what He has done for me. I will give Him my life's service, but that is so small compared with what He has done. I pray that this story of Christ's healing, of Christ's blessing, of Christ's cleansing may do some one some good. I consider Dr. Dowie the greatest blessing God ever sent to Chicago, and I hope that Chicago will appreciate it.

Answering some questions concerning her uncle.

Miss Cody added: "Dr. David met me at the depot when I came here. He told my sister that my case was a hopeless one, and he said to me: 'If you are healed, I am bound to believe in Divine Healing.'"

Dr. Dowie interposed: "We have got him now."

Miss Cody said the names of her physicians were Dr. N. B. Alter, Dr. W. W. Hartsell, and Dr. J. H. Loughbridge, of Rensselaer, Ind., and gave the address of her uncle, Dr. David, of this city, as 126 State Street.

Dr. Dowie resumed:—"I am sure we are all pleased to hear that. I never thought that I should have a very high appreciation of a Cody, because I had a Cody (Colonel Cody, called also Buffalo Bill) across the road during the Fair, and while he kept up such a din with his wild Indians, that we often regretted that we had put the Tabernacle here. But now we are glad that that handsome fellow is a relative of hers, and we are sure that Drs. David and Miller will confirm her testimony. I will ask her sister, Mrs. Jennings, to confirm the testimony."

CONFIRMATION BY HER SISTER.

Mrs. Jennings said: "I met my sister at the depot, and was very much alarmed lest she might not live to reach the Divine Healing Home; but I praise the Lord that she is now well and strong. When I looked at her back I thought it impossible that she could be healed, and I cried all day, but the Lord has healed her. My little daughter was very ill with sore throat. I presume the physicians would have called it a case of diphtheria, but as soon as Dr. Dowie prayed for her she was healed instantly. She says now: 'I's well. Jesus healed me.'"

[Extract from stenographic Report of Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Tabernacle on February 24, 1895.]

Dr. Dowie:—I have had my revenge in a very nice way upon Buffalo Bill. I have one of his relatives, a Miss Sadie Cody, very perfectly healed by the Lord through our agency. I am not going to tell her story at all. She has told it once. She has been away in the country, but came back to us yesterday and I would like her to tell her story now.

Miss Sadie Cody, of Rensselaer, Ind., said: It's the same story that Matthew, Mark, Luke and John told. "She touched the hem of His garment." Instead of nineteen centuries ago this happened just a few weeks ago. I was thinking this morning of a scene in Rensselaer, a short time ago, where a little procession started from my sister's home. Leading that procession were four men bearing a cot and on the cot was a body more dead than alive. Following it were friends and relatives. After carrying me to the train and putting me on the sleeper, I left a father and a sister there. The consolation given that father were these words: "She will be brought back a corpse." The comforting words given that sister were: "You will never see her again." Imagine their feelings, they, too, believing with the doctors that they would never see me again. Human skill had failed, but there was Balm in Gilead. There is a great Physician here in Chicago who not only forgives our iniquities, but saves us from disease. I have found that Physician. He has forgiven my iniquities and healed me perfectly. I had been sick two years and for eight months was perfectly helpless. Five of the vertebrae of the spine were decayed so that they were worse than useless. At the base of the spine was an abscess as large as my fist. At the side was a tumor. One limb was three inches shorter than the other. In that condition I was brought to Chicago. I had been attended by Drs. Alter, Hartsell and Loughbridge of Rensselaer, and by my uncle, Dr. David of Chicago. He had been down to see me at Rensselaer and after he returned to the city counseled with the best physicians and they told him nothing could be done. I was brought from the depot to Home No. 1 in an ambulance, was carried in on a stretcher on a Tuesday I believe. On Wednesday were the services and these words as Dr. Dowie quoted them rang in my ears: "I am the Lord that healeth thee." "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." Just as soon as I heard these words I knew they were true, and I knew that God had all power. I just took Him at His word. I couldn't help but believe. I just took Him at His word.

When Dr. Dowie laid hands on me and prayed for me that afternoon after that service I stood on my feet, something I had not done for eight months. The doctors said if I did it it would cripple me for life or kill me immediately. When the disease left me, Satan seemed determined to have me. It was a great battle, but I thank God the victory is His. That evening I sat up four hours perfectly erect, ate a hearty supper and from that night I improved. All the pain left that night and I have never had any pain since. My limb came down two inches, and soon after they became equal. Five weeks ago I left the Home. Since the time I was brought there I have gained thirty pounds and I will tell something I can do. I have been staying with an aunt in Morris, Ill., and have been helping her to do housework simply because I wanted to, and felt like it. She tries to keep me still, but she can't do it. She was doing an ironing for a family of five and I said, "Let me see if I can iron some." She thought I had better not, but I persuaded her to let me try if I would quit when I got tired. I promised her, and did not quit until I had it all done. And so you must see I am perfectly well. I thank God for it all and I thank Him for sending Dr. Dowie to us and I hope He will give Chicago such a dose of Divine Healing that it will revolutionize the city.

"Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, City of our God:

He whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With Salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

"Blest inhabitants of Zion,
Washed in the Redeemer's blood,
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
Makes them kings and priests to God.
'Tis His love His people raises
Over self to reign as kings;
And as priests, His solemn praises
Each for a thank-offering brings.

"Saviour, if of Zion's city,
I, through grace, a member am;
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in Thy Name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show,
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

A Series of Lectures by the Editor, presenting the Gospel of Healing through Faith in Jesus Christ, as taught by him during his many years of ministry in many lands.

LECTURE FOUR.

SANCTIFICATION OF SPIRIT, SOUL, AND BODY.

FIRST LECTURE.—SECOND PART.

An address Delivered at the Afternoon Service in Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, on Lord's Day, February 10, 1895.

SERVICES were opened by singing Hymn No. 72, after which Mrs. Dowie read Chapter 5 of 1 Thess. Dr. Dowie uttered the following

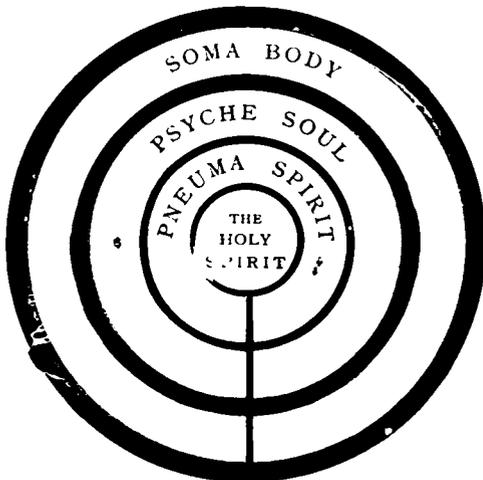

INVOCATION.

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight and profitable unto Thy people, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer." And then said:

I speak to you this afternoon concerning the Sanctification of the Spirit, Soul and Body, and will deliver the first of two lectures upon that great subject. I have now promised that I shall publish these lectures in the LEAVES. I have been asked to publish them for years, but I never felt anything I had spoken upon the subject was worthy of publication. I have wanted to take a good deal of time for that purpose, and never had that time. But, rather than delay longer, they must be published as they are uttered. I have no time to write them.

I call your attention to the words which Mrs. Dowie read to you this afternoon in the first epistle to the Thessalonians, 5th chapter, 22, 23 and 24th verses.

"Abstain from all appearance of evil, and the very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole Spirit, Soul and Body be preserved entire without blame until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you who also will do it."

The central circle of the diagram is of gold color (the Holy Spirit); the next is white (man's spirit); the next blood red (the soul), and the outer circle is of gold, and is used to illustrate the flowing of the Holy Spirit through the entire three-fold nature of man, thus sanctifying him wholly, and preserving him entire and without blame.

BUT LET US CONSIDER THE OTHER TWO PARTS.

Let me again quote the passage describing man's creation,

(Genesis 2: 7.) "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." The body of "dust" has been already sufficiently considered.

"The breath of life" which God "breathed" into man is the "spirit;" and the "living soul" which man "became" is the "soul" or animal life, distinct and separate in all respects from the "spirit."

SO MAN IS COMPOSED OF THREE PARTS.

God imparted to man His own spirit and nature. God is "the Father" of man's spirit. He is the father of the Spirit but not of the Soul. He is the maker of the Soul and Body but not the father of it. There is a great distinction between maker and father. What I make is external to me. That of which I am father is my procreation, for God makes us the reproductive beings we are, and we are therefore called fathers and mothers. God is Father of our Spirit. We do not get that from our fathers and mothers. We get Souls and Bodies by natural generation from our parents, but our Spirits are from God who is the Father of the Spirits of man.

Remember this at all times clearly, that we have a Spirit, a Soul and a Body—one man in three parts and three parts in one man.

Our Lord Jesus Christ Himself shows us the tripartite nature in perfection. He had a Spirit wholly Divine. He was "the Son of God." He had the Soul and Body "the seed of the woman." He was the "Son of man." In Christ, "the second Adam," we see a perfectly pure Spirit, "a quickening Spirit," as the Scriptures say, that is "a life giving Spirit." Adam had not that Spirit, but Christ had that power in Himself, and He is "a life giving Spirit." In Christ you see the perfection of this threefold nature, but also see the proof of what I have alleged.

First, the Body of Christ was like our bodies, a human body. It was pure and sinless because of God's origination; but it was an animal nature, free from "corruption," inasmuch as His mother was the Holy Blessed Virgin Mother Mary. She was made to be Holy by the Power and Presence of the Holy Spirit entering into her and "preparing" her for the Divine Conception. I do not for a moment affirm that she herself was conceived without sin, nor do I agree with the Roman Catholic doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, but the Scriptures plainly teach (especially Luke 1: 34-5) that she was "prepared" by the Holy Spirit, so that "the soul" or animal nature, should be free from corruption in every drop of blood, and that "the body" of Christ should be in all respects "a holy thing."

Mary is a very perfect illustration of how the Holy Spirit can, and does wholly sanctify the "spirit, soul and body;" for she was so sanctified as a preparation for the motherhood of the Son of God. Christ's Soul was therefore a merely human Soul, but his Spirit was divine.

To prove what I say now, namely, that the soul is temporal and not eternal, I want to point out to you that Christ's Soul "died." The prophet Isaiah said that God would make His "soul a sacrifice for sin," that He would "pour out His soul unto death." Christ himself said, "My Soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death." Then his Soul died. He said himself, "I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep." The word translated "Life" there is Psyche, Soul. In the 10th chapter of John the word Life should be translated Soul. "The Good Shepherd giveth his Soul for the sheep." There is no question about it. Christ poured out His Soul unto death."

THE SOUL THEN IS THE ANIMAL LIFE.

God gave that Soul to Adam and to Eve, and gave them Bodies, so that through our first parents we have the transmission of their nature, their soul and their body. That fact puts an end to the Evolution theory. This is a far reaching truth.

Let me then sum up, and ask you to get the force of what I am now saying before I close this lecture; because I do not want to weary you. Some folks cannot stand too much hard thinking, especially when it upsets all their former notions.

Some of you have been all your lives defending the "immortality of the soul," and you have been taught to do so by your ministers, who do not like to confess that they have been teaching error. They find a good many things in our teaching they do not want to be taught. But the time is not far distant when they will have to stop speaking about Soul as if it were Spirit and to distinguish, as God's Word does, between Soul and Spirit. Many serious errors have crept into theology because of this. Christians have been arguing for the immortality of the Soul, and

THE INFIDEL HAS BEEN FLOGGING YOU WITH THE BIBLE EVERY TIME.

The infidel quotes Scripture at you, and flings at your head "The Soul that sinneth, it shall die." "Christ poureth out His Soul unto death," etc., and the infidel asks you, when you are arguing for the immortality of the Soul, "How can a thing be immortal that can die?" The infidel has you, and instead of your admitting the fact, you begin to quibble or to get angry and say he is going to hell or something of that kind. That does not answer him. The infidel has you; the infidel is right, and the infidel is right in rejecting a good many things that the ministers teach, and I will admit that. The infidel is right in saying that, if God is the author of disease, God is not a God that any man can love. If God is the author of disease, no man can love Him. Who could love Him if He were the wilful corrupter of His own creation? Who could love a hand that would impart to humanity countless miseries? The infidel is right there. Christ taught us that God is not the author of disease, but the author of health and life. The infidel has the truth on his side every time when he fights the Church upon that line. The Church, by its false theology, is giving the infidel a great advantage, and it is not the only advantage he might have; for if I were an infidel, I could do more damage to what passes for Christianity than any infidel in existence, Ingersoll not excepted. Not that I could really damage Christianity, but I could damage the pulpit theology of to-day, and I am going to damage it. Nineteen-twentieths of it wants sweeping away. (Hearty Amens from the audience.)

AN "OCEAN OF OBLIVION."

When I was a little boy, I was once asked what I thought about election, predestination, etc., as defined by Calvin. I got hold of a new word that day. The word was "oblivion." I was thinking of this when I was asked this question. A number of persons were discussing it in Edinburgh, in my father's house, and amongst them was the Rev. Mr. Johnson, chaplain of the Edinburgh jail, who saw something in my face that impelled him to ask the question, "What does the laddie think?" I was glad to be appealed to, and I had an opinion all ready. It had been forming in my heart all night and I was sitting listening to them affirming that absurd and monstrous lie which no man can honestly believe, that God Almighty from all eternity had predestined some people to be damned, and some people to be saved. Do what they would, they would be damned, and do what they would, they would be saved: for the great and eternal God could even justly damn for eternity unbaptized infants. Some of these gentlemen were high Calvinists, some low Calvinists. As I sat there and listened, I studied the word "oblivion." I had found that oblivion meant utter forgetfulness, utter annihilation. I was sitting thinking about all these things when they asked me what I thought about it all. I said, "Mr. Johnson, I think the best thing to do would be to throw the whole thing into an Ocean of Oblivion!" And I have been confirmed in that conclusion as I have grown older. If nineteen-twentieths of the trash that is taught in the Universities and Theological Seminaries was thrown into an Ocean of Oblivion, you would be better men and women. It has taken me a long time to get rid of much that was taught to me in the name of Christian theology.

LET US GET ONE PRACTICAL POINT.

I want to settle this question as to the separation of Soul and Spirit: for this separation gives an answer to an error, and a very serious error, the doctrinal error which is called "conditional immortality."

There is no more dangerous falsehood. I may grieve some persons by saying it, who may be true Christians, but there is no more dangerous falsehood than the falsehood which teaches that man is not essentially immortal, but that man is only conditionally immortal, and that, therefore, a man, if he is not saved, will be annihilated utterly; that his spiritual nature will pass away like his psychical and physical nature, and that, unless he is a Christian, he will not live forever.

I want to tell you that is a dangerous lie, for this reason. If a man sees that he can die like an animal, he will in thousands of cases live like one. When you tell a sinful man he is to die like a dog, then he says "I will live like a dog." He will without compunction live like a brute, and reduce his manhood to brutality of every kind. No brute ever made by God will live as vilely as such a man will live. Let that man see that there is no hereafter, and no penalty for sin, and he will live a life of such abounding wickedness that only hell itself can find an equal to it. Conscience would be almost annihilated, it is so even now in multitudes by reason of a want of Divine life, such as can only come through the Word of God, and the Spirit of God.

I call attention to the fact that every one of those that were disobedient in the days of Noah were living in the days of Christ. For more than three thousand years their miserable spirits lived in the hope of Christ's redemption. And He came to them in the fulness of time, as is shown in 1 Peter 3: 18-20. He descended into Hades. He "preached unto the spirits in prison which sometime were disobedient, when once the long suffering of God had waited in the days of Noah." They had been in hell for thousands of years. They were not annihilated, even though damned. They were living. The Spirit lives beyond the grave. The Spirit of the just man is "made perfect" in heaven, even as the Spirit of the evil man may be made viler in hell. And they lived in the depths of hell. Association with the good helps you to be better. Association with evil makes you worse. The Spirit that continues to live in sin in hell must grow worse, the Spirit that lives in heaven must get better. But I tell you this in Christ's Name, God is the Father of this Spirit, the Spirit of man shares the nature of the Father. Therefore, since God is immortal, so are we, since our Father is eternal, so are we. But on the other hand, if our spirit is not immortal, neither is God's; because we have His nature, "we are His off-spring" and we share His nature.

There are some things about these statements which will lead to very serious discussion, but I will not enter upon them now. I have many things to say that I will say hereafter. But I am absolutely opposed to conditional immortality. The "Soul" perisheth; but the "Spirit" is imperishable. That's the difference. Christian ministers for the most part have not distinguished between the Soul and the Spirit.

I will finish this lecture by saying that God's desire is that every part of our nature shall be sanctified, not merely Spirit, but Soul and Body, and, therefore, God wants every drop of our blood to be cleansed. He demands the consecration of our whole being, He has said, "He is the Saviour of the Body." These bodies were made to be the "Temple of God," an "Habitation of God through the Spirit." Hence I entreat you now in the words God inspired the apostle Paul to utter in Romans 12: 1-2:—

"I beseech you therefore, brethren by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God."

AN APPEAL.

I close this address to-day then by requiring you to present yourselves in Spirit and Soul and Body to God, and to beseech God in His infinite mercy to sanctify your whole being. Brothers and sisters will you do it? Oh, I pray that there will not be one here to-day who will not seek God now for an entire separation from all appearance of evil, and who will not make to God an entire consecration of their Spirit, Soul and Body! Oh, how good is it to know that Christ came to redeem our whole being, not a part of it, and that it is our privilege to claim a perfect redemption! God grant that we may so claim it, and persevere until we possess it!

Let all today, brothers and sisters, who desire to be separated from all appearances of evil, and to make a consecration of Spirit, Soul and Body to God, RISE TO THEIR FEET AND MAKE THAT CONSECRATION NOW. [In a moment hundreds upon hundreds were upon their feet, until more than 700 stood.]

I am so glad to see in Zion Tabernacle, this great company rise as one man. Those that are standing in these crowded passages and those who are sick and cannot rise, hold up their hands. [Over 100 who were standing, and a number of invalids lying on cots, or sitting in wheel chairs, held up their hands.]

Brothers and sisters repeat with me this prayer to God. [Dr. Dowie then spoke the following words, which the people repeated as with one heart and voice, clause by clause, and sentence by sentence, amidst deep silence except for subdued weeping on the part of many.]

Our God and Father, in Jesus' Name, we beseech Thee to separate us from sin, to give us power to abstain from every appearance of evil, to give us power to consecrate to Thee our Spirit, our Soul, and our Body. Take us by Thy Spirit, and cleanse us. Let us continue to seek until we find, continue to ask until we receive, continue to knock until the door is wide open, until we enter into a perfect redemption for the Spirit, Soul and Body. Help us to do right, to restore if we have wronged, to confess our sins in the sight of God and man, and to do that which is good and righteous for Jesus sake. And now we give to Thee our Spirits and Souls and our Bodies. May we never take them back. Keep them. Hear us for Jesus' sake, Amen.

BENEDICTION.

And now, beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit, and Soul, and Body, be preserved entire without blame, unto the Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it. The Grace of our Lord Jesus, the Love of God, the Eternal Father, the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, the Eternal Comforter, one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you, keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

[The Second Lecture on this subject will begin in our next issue]

"The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee; send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah. Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel. We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the Lord fulfil all thy petitions. Now know I that the Lord saveth His anointed: He will hear him from His holy heaven with the saving strength of His right hand."

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE EDITOR.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6 and Exodus 15:26).

The Lord Jesus Christ is still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "He is the same, yesterday, to-day, and forever," and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8 and Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew, sicknesses) and carried our sorrows, and with His stripes we are healed," and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5 and Matthew 8:17).

Disease can never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God.

Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He "healed every sickness and every disease," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been the "oppression of the Devil." (1 John 3:8, Matthew 4:23 and Acts 10:38).

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29 and 1 Cor. 12:8-11).

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 18:19, James 5:14, 15, Mark 16:18).

Divine Healing is opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21, 1 Timothy 4:1, 2, Isaiah 51:22, 23).

Multitudes have been healed through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 251 E. 62nd St., near Jackson Park, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 6100 Stony Island Ave., Chicago.

Gottes Weg der Heilung.

Vom Redakteur.

Gottes Weg der Heilung ist eine Person und kein Ding.

Jesus sagte: „Ich bin der Weg, die Wahrheit und das Leben,“ und Er wurde stets Seinem Volke geoffenbart in all den Jahren durch des Vertrages Name, Jéhovah-rophi, oder „Ich bin der Herr, der Dich geheilt hat.“ (Johannes 14: 6 und zweites Buch Moses 15: 26).

Der Herr Jesus Christus ist stets der Heiler.

Er kann sich nicht ändern, denn „Er war derselbe gestern, ist es heute und ewig,“ und Er ist stets bei uns, denn Er sagt: „Siehe, ich bin stets bei Euch, selbst bis zum Ende der Welt.“ (Hebräer 13: 8 und Matthäi 28: 20). Weil Er unveränderlich ist, und weil er anwesend ist im Geiste gerade so als wie im Fleisch, deshalb ist er der Heiler Seines Volkes.

Göttliche Heilung ruht auf Christi's Veröhnung.

Es wurde von Ihm prophezeit: „Sicherlich hat Er unseren Kummer tragen (Hebräer, Krankheiten) und unseren Schmerz empfunden, und durch Seine Stresen werden wir geheilt,“ und es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß dieses in Seinem Dienst der Heilung vollzogen wurde, welcher stets fortgeführt wird. (Isaiah 53: 4, 5 und Matthäi 8: 17).

Krankheit kann niemals Gottes Wille sein.

Es ist des Teufels Arbeit, folgend auf Sünde, und es ist für die Arbeit des Teufels unendlich, jemals der Wille Gottes zu sein.

Christus kam, um „die Arbeiten des Teufels zu zerstören,“ und als Er hier auf Erden war, „heilte Er jede Unpäßlichkeit und jede Krankheit,“ und alle diese Krankheiten sind ausdrücklich für die „Unterdrückung des Teufels“ erklärt worden. (1 Johannes 3: 8, Matthäi 4: 23 und Apostelgeschichte 10: 38).

Die Gaben der Heilung sind fortdauernd.

Es wird ausdrücklich erklärt, daß die „Gaben und der Beruf Gottes ohne Reue sind,“ und die Gaben der Heilung sind unter den neun Gaben des Geistes zur Kirche zu finden. (Römer 11: 29 und 1 Cor. 12: 8-11).

Es giebt vier Arten göttlicher Heilung.

Die erste Art ist das direkte Glaubensgebet; die zweite ist das vermittelnde Gebet von zwei oder mehr Personen; die dritte ist die Salbung des Aeltesten mit dem Glaubens ebet, und die vierte Art ist das Handauflegen Derjenigen, welche glauben, und wel e Gott vorbereitet und zu jenem Dienst berufen hat. (Matthäi 8: 5-13, Matthäi 18: 19, Jacob 5: 14, 15, Marcus 16: 1).

Göttliche Heilung wird von teuflischen Betrügnern bekämpft.

Unter diesen befinden sich Christian Science (fälschlich so genannt), Geist-Heilung, Spiritualismus, Entzündungs-Evangelismus u. s. w. (1 Timotheus 6: 20, 21, 1 Timotheus 4: 1, 2, Isaiah 51: 22, 23).

Tausende sind durch den Glauben an Jesus geheilt worden.

Schreiber Dieses sind Tausende von Fälle bekannt und er hat persönlich seine Hand gelegt auf Tausende von Personen. Vollständige Auskunft kann man erhalten in den Versammlungen, welche im Zion Tabernakel, No. 251 Ost 62. Str., nahe dem Jackson-Park, Chicago, abgehalten werden, sowie aus diesen Pamphlets, welche die Erfahrung von Vielen in deren eigenen Worten enthalten, die in diesem und anderen Ländern geheilt worden sind. LA MANIÈRE COMME QUOI, DIEU GUÉRIT LES MAUX.

PAR L'ÉDITEUR.

La Manière comme quoi Dieu guérit, c'est une personne et non pas une chose.

Jesu dit: „Je suis, la Voie, la Verité, et la Vie,“ et il s'est toujours révélé à Son peuple en toute époque avec le Nom Covenant de Jehova-rophi, ou „Je suis le Seigneur, ton Salut.“ (Jean 14: 6 et les Exodes 15: 26.)

Le Seigneur Jesu c'est Celui qui guérit.

Lui ne peut pas changer parcequ'„Il est le même d'hier, d'aujourd'hui et pour toujours“ et Lui est toujours avec nous, pacequ'il dit: „Voilà, Je suis toujours avec vous jusqu'à la fin du monde.“ (Hebreux 13: 8 et Matthieu 28: 20.) Parcequ'Il est invariable et parcequ'il est présent, dans l'esprit aussi bien que dans la chair. Il est Celui qui guérit Son peuple.

La Guérison Divine c'est dans l'Expiation du Christ.

C'est Lui, qui a prophétisé. „Sûrement ce fut Lui qui souffrit nos maux et souffrit nos douleurs, et avec ses châtements nous guérissions,“ et c'est expressément déclaré que cela s'accomplit grace à son Ministère de Guérir, qui continue toujours. (Isaie 53: 4, 5 et Matthieu 8: 17.)

Le Mal ne peut pas être la Volonté de Dieu.

C'est l'oeuvre du Diable, la conséquence du péché, et c'est impossible que l'oeuvre du Diable soit à jamais la Volonté de Dieu.

Christ vint „pour détruire l'oeuvre du Diable“ et lorsqu'Il fut sur la terre, Lui „guérit toutes maladies“ et tous ces maux ont été expressément déclarés d'avoir été „l'oppression du Diable.“ (1 Jean 3: 8, Matthieu 4: 23 et les Actes 10: 38.)

Les Dons de Guérir sont Permanents.

C'est expressément déclaré que „Les Dons et les appellations de Dieu, sont privés du repentir,“ et les Dons de la Guérison sont pannies les Neuf Dons de l'Esprit et de l'Eglise. (Romans 11: 29 et 1 Cor. 12: 8-11.)

Y il a quatre Manières de la Guérison Divine.

La première consiste en adressant la prière de foie, la deuxième dans les prières par intercesseur, de deux ou plusieurs personnes, la troisième dans l'onction des anciens dans la prière de la foie, et la quatrième, en posant les mains sur ceux qui croient et pour les quels Dieu a préparé et appelé à ce ministère. (Matthieu 8: 5-13. Matthien 18: 9. Jacques 5: 14, 15. Marc. 16: 18.)

La Guérison Divine est opposé aux Fausseries Diaboliques.
