Do You Know What Lies Behind Recognition of Russia?

AGAIN the truth is being subverted. You are being told by a hoodwinked daily press that recognition of Russia is necessary to promote world-wide economic recovery.

All the sentimentalists in the nation are arguing that we are not showing Christian tolerance if we do not offer the hand of international goodfellowship to the Russians.

Recently we were told that a "trial-balloon loan" of a few odd-million dollars of the harassed American taxpayers' money was "negotiated" with Russia by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Of course this trial-balloon loan was made, not to ascertain how trade relations were improved, but to find out how loudly the American tax-payer would howl in remonstrance at having his hard-earned tax money so employed.

The American tax-payer, slightly stupefied by all this bedlam of official change, made little remonstrance because there was no way for him learning understandingly what was in progress. So now the Jewish Soviet is about to buckle down to a little real borrowing.

That Russia already owes us upwards of a thousand-million dollars which she has repudiated, and will not pay, is of course not mentioned in the acclaim manufactured for this latest debauchery of our financial institutions.

Russia needs money to promote her red-hot military program and carry on her international sabotage, particularly against the United States, so that the Red Flag may fly over the White House as quickly as possible. We are merely quoting from Communist literature.

Naturally the place to come for it is where all international marplots come for funds to carry on their cabals: the United States Treasury. That may be why friends of atheistic Russia's recognition are under-cover Treasury officials. That and other reasons.

WHEN you pay an extra penny on the price of a packet of cigarettes you are helping to raise funds to loan to a country that will use the money to wage hostilities against the United States and Christian institutions!

That the foreign policy of the United States may be in the hands of Zionist financial and racial interests, is of course something that is not freely publicized over radio and screen, like the blood-thirstiness of the "monster" Hitler who eats a little Hebrew baby every morning for his breakfast.

That recognition of Russia may have a shocking lot to do with permitting secret agents of the Third International, and the OGPU, to come and go more freely between the two countries, is likewise something that is none of the Christian American's business.

Do you want the facts concerning the real influences behind America's foreign policy? Listen anew to Representative Louis T. McFadden carrying on the Christian's fight in Congress by his "remarks" in the Congressional Record for June 24th:—

MR. SPEAKER, I doubt if the history of the relations between this country and Russia is known to every American citizen. It may not be considered amiss, therefore, if I dwell for a few moments on our past relations with that strange and interesting country.

To do so, it will be necessary for me to go back to the late Eighties and the early Nineties of the last century, when the United States was turning the corner and becoming rich and powerful. At that time a man named Jacob Schiff came to this country as the agent of certain foreign money-lenders. His mission was to get control of American railroads!

This man was a Jew. He was the son of a rabbi. He was born in one of the Rothchild houses in Frankfort, Germany. He was a small fellow with a pleasant face and, if I remember correctly, his eyes were blue. At an early age he set out from Frankfort to seek his fortune and went to Hamburg, Germany. At Hamburg he entered the Warburg banking establishment. The Warburgs of Hamburg are bankers of long standing, with branches in Amsterdam and Sweden. After Schiff had served his time with them he went to London and worked with their London correspondents. He was also connected with the firm of Samuel Montagu & Co., the London gold merchants. When he came to this country he was well equipped to do business as an international money changer. He knew how to be polite, he could write a smooth letter, and he always pretended to be a man of holiness and a philanthropist.

Sometime before Schiff's arrival there was a firm of Jewish pedlers or merchants in Lafayette, Ind., by the name of Kuhn & Loeb. I think they were there about 1850. Probably they made money out of the new settlers who passed through Indiana on their way to the Northwest. This firm of Jews had finally moved to New York and had set themselves up as private bankers and had grown rich. Jacob Schiff married Teresa Loeb and became the head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Schiff made a great deal of money here for himself and for the Jewish money lenders of London. He began to give orders to Presidents almost as a matter of course. He appears to have been a man who would stop at nothing to gain his own ends. I do not blame him for being a Jew. I blame him for being a trouble maker.

Russia had a powerful enemy in this man, Jacob Schiff. The people of the United States were taught to believe that this enmity of his was caused by wrongs done to Russian Jews. I look elsewhere for the motives which animated him.

IN THE 1890's Schiff was the agent in this country of Ernest Cassell and other London money lenders. These money lenders were looking forward to a war between England and Russia and were making preparations for propaganda designed to support England in the United States. This country was then a debtor nation, paying a high yearly tribute to Schiff and his principals. Schiff accordingly took it upon himself to create a prejudice in the United States against Russia. He did this by presenting the supposed wrongs of the Russian Jews to the American public. Unpleasant tales began to appear in print. School children in this country were told that Jewish children were crippled for life by Russian soldiers wielding the knout. By unfair means a wedge was driven between Russia and the United States.

One of Schiff's schemes was a sort of wholesale importation of Russian Jews into the United States. He drew up divers and sundry regulations for the temporary transplantation of these Jewish emigrants. He would not, he said, have them enter this country through the port of New York, because they might like New York too well to leave it for the outposts he had selected for them. He said it would be best to have them come in at New Orleans and to have them stay there two weeks, "so that they could pick up a few words of English and get a little money" before setting off for what he called the "American hinterland." How they were to get the money he did not say.

Aided by Schiff and his associates, many Russian Jews came to this country about that time and were naturalized here. A number of these naturalized Jews then returned to Russia. Upon their return to that country, they immediately claimed exemption there from the regulations of domicile imposed on Jews; that is, they claimed the right to live on purely Russian soil because they were American citizens, or "Yankee" Jews. Disorders occurred and were exploited in the American press. Riots and bombings and assassinations, for which somebody furnished money, took place. The perpetrators of these outrages appear to have been shielded by powerful financial interests. While this was going on in Russia, a shameless campaign of lying was conducted here, and large sums of money were spent to make the general American public believe that the Jews in Russia were a simple and guileless folk, ground down by the Russians and needing the protection of the great benefactor of all the world—Uncle Sam. In other words, we were deceived. We were so deceived that we allowed them to come in here and to take the bread out of the mouths of our own American citizens.

ICOME now to the time when war was declared between Russia and Japan. This was brought about by a skillful use of Japan so that England would not have to fight Russia in India. It was cheaper and more convenient for England to have Japan fight Russia than to do it herself. As was to be expected, Schiff and his London associates financed Japan. They drew immense quantities of money out of the United States for that purpose. The background for the loans they floated in this country had been skillfully prepared. The "sob stuff," of which Schiff was a master, had sunk into the hearts of sympathetic Americans. The loans were a great success. Millions of American dollars were sent to Japan by Schiff and his London associates. England's stranglehold on India was made secure. Russia was prevented from entering the Khyber Pass and falling on India from the northwest. Japan at the same time was facing us in the Pacific. All this was accomplished by control of the organs of American publicity, releases to the effect that Russian Jews and "Yankee" Jews were being persecuted in Russia, and by the selling of Japanese war bonds to American citizens.

While the Russian-Japanese War was in progress, President Theodore Roosevelt offered to act as peacemaker, and a conference between representatives of the belligerents was arranged to take place at Portsmouth, N. H.

When the Portsmouth Conference took place, Jacob Schiff attended it and used such influence as he had with Theodore Roosevelt to win favors for Japan at the expense of Russia. His main object, then as always, was humiliation of Russians, whose only crime was that they were Russians and not Jews. He endeavored to humiliate the Russians, but Count Witte, the Russian plenipotentiary, did not allow him to succeed in this attempt. Schiff's power and the power of his organized propaganda were well understood by Count Witte, however. Consequently he was not surprised when President Roosevelt, who was often deceived, twice asked him to have Russia treat Russian Jews who had become naturalized in the United States and who had thereafter returned to live in Russia with special consideration; that is, not as Jews but as Americans. Witte carried home a letter from Roosevelt embodying this plea.

MR. SPEAKER, the restrictions upon Jews in Russia at that time may or may not have been onerous. But onerous or not, before the Russians had time to change them, Schiff had the 80-year-old treaty of friendship and good will between Russia and the United States denounced. Speaking of this matter, Count Witte says in his autobiography:

"The Russians lost the friendship of the American people."

Mr. Speaker, I cannot believe that those people—the real Russians—ever lost the true friendship of the American people. They were done away with to suit the ambitions of those who intend to be the financial masters of the world, and some of us were deceived into thinking that in some mysterious way they, themselves, were to blame. The chasm that suddenly opened between ourselves and our old friends and well-wishers in Russia was a chasm created by Schiff the vindictive in his inhuman greed, and he created it in the name of the Jewish religion.

Mr. Speaker, it was a mistake for the United States to permit the integrity of its foreign policy to be jeopardized or affected adversely by such religious, racial, and financial meddling as that practiced upon us by Schiff and his London associates. The United States should manage its foreign affairs with more distinction than that which is implied in the picture of Jacob Schiff shaking his fist at the White House and muttering threats against William Howard Taft, then President of the United States, a man who was excessively distinguished in his chosen field and who represented the integrity and the patriotic Americanism of every generation of New Englanders from the first of Massachusetts Bay Colony to his own, and represented them well.

Mr. Speaker, the people of the United States should not permit financial interests or any other special interests to dictate the foreign policy of the United States Government. But in this connection, history is now repeating itself. You have heard, no doubt, of the so-called persecution of Jews in Germany.

MR. SPEAKER, there is no real persecution of Jews in Germany. The Germans and the Warburgs, the Mendelsohns and the Rothschilds, appear to be on the best of terms. There is no real persecution of the Jews in Germany but there has been a pretended persecution of them because there are 200,000 unwanted Communistic Jews in Germany, largely Galician Jews who entered Germany after the World War, and Germany is very anxious to get rid of those particular Communistic Jews. The Germans wish to preserve the purity of their own blond racial stock. They are willing to keep rich Jews like Max Warburg and Franz Mendelsohn whose families have lived in Germany so long that they have acquired some German national characteristics. But the Germans are not willing to keep the Galician Jews, the upstarts. So a great show is put on, largely by German Jews themselves, in the hope that Uncle Sam will prove himself to be as foolish as he was before and that we will allow those Galician and Communistic Jews to come in here. That is why Miss Perkins has been placed in charge of the Department of Labor. She is there to lower the immigration bars. It is thought that, being a woman, she may disarm criticism. She is an old hand with the international Jewish bankers. If she were not, she would not be here in a Jewish-controlled administration.

When the so-called "anti-Semitic campaign" designed for American consumption was launched in Germany, France was alarmed because she feared the Galician Jews might be dumped on French soil. French newspapers published articles concerning the menace, but now that France has been shown that the purpose of the anti-Semitic campaign is to dump the 200,000 Communistic Jews on the United States she is worried no longer. "Ah," she says, "O'ncle Sam, he is to be the goat. Very good."

Mr. Speaker, I regard it as a pity that there are Americans who love to fawn upon the money-Jews and to flatter them. Some of these unfortunates are under obligations to Jewish money changers and dare not cross them. On June 6, 1933, there was a meeting in the city of Washington, at which the following resolution was adopted:

America has been greatly enriched through generations past by men and women of high quality who have come to our shores as a result of persecution in their own lands. Our country is known throughout the world as the haven of those who suffer from wrong and injustices, and who seek an opportunity for freedom not afforded in their own land. The present is another critical time, and there are many victims of religious and racial persecution in Germany who, because of superior attainments and qualities of fine citizenship, would make valuable additions to our Commonwealth. We, therefore, ask the Government temporarily to relax the immigration barriers in favor of such persons and urge the passage of such measures as will effect this result.

Mr. Speaker, the time for such tactics has gone by. We would be very foolish to allow Germany to dump her un-

Concentrated Information for Silver Shirts . . .

TO Silver Legion Headquarters at the close of the past week comes the son of Rabbi Wise, to plead against injustice toward his people and obtain an interview with The Chief for a Jewish publication . . . three hours of man-to-man talk in the Headquarter's Council Room . . . two gentlemen talking together, representing each his Doctrine, behind which world-wide forces are strengthening for a contest.

Young Wise epitomizes the finest type of Jew in America today, educated, cultured, adroit, asking the Silver Shirt Chief to be generous . . . absolutely repudiating, denying, and protesting that his people have any "plot" . . . taking voluminous notes which if accurately transcribed as the Silver Shirt Chief delivered them, should mitigate the notion among Hebrews that Liberation adherents are Jew-baiters or that they counsel or endorse the slightest physical violence against these questionable acceptors of our Christian hospitality.

The son of an illustrious father contended vehemently in the presence of a witness that he stands ready to register aggressive action against any individual of his race, no matter how famous, no matter how affluent, who pursues tactics of the slightest predatory nature toward American ideals or American institutions . . . his idol is Abraham Lincoln . . . he declared his father to be the bitterest critic of Jacob Schiff and the modern practices of Kuhn-Loeb & Company . . . at the same time he admires Bernard M. Baruch as being our foremost citizen, yet his avowed ignorance of certain phases of his peoples' history on the Continent since the time of Frederick the Great was such that this line of converse could not be pursued.

THE THING that seemed to worry young Wise most was a recent Liberation editorial that "Hitler's work in its essence finds its fruition ultimately in America" . . . that Hitlerism should spread to the United States is appalling for Jews to contemplate . . . that is natural and understandable . . . no one succeeding to commercial, financial, and ethical monopoly of a nation like Germany or the United States can contemplate with complacency a possible arrestment of such affluence . . . that a resentment is assuming formidable proportions in America against 2.5 percent of our population owning and directing 65 percent of our wealth is due, according to young Wise, solely to jealousy at Hebraic shrewdness and industry . . . that too is understandable . . . but it does not alter the fact that something should, and will be, done about it.

To show that the Chief of the Silver Legion can be "generous," he will respect young Wise's apparent integrity and confine himself and his utterances for an expedient time to criticisms only of Jewish individuals . . . there seems to be adequate material for all present purposes in such a field . . . whether or not there is a "plot" is incidental to necessary racial alterations making for better working arrangements between Hebrews and Gentiles . . . Hebrews protest intolerance and racial or religious persecution, but when they come preponderantly into power, as in Russia of the present moment, their conduct is quite as atrocious as anything practiced by the Gentile on the Jew . . . young Wise avoided that . . . we shall see whether he reports a similar sportsmanlike reaction on his own part.

It was a most interesting session, with two antithetical psychologies clashing . . . he and his compatriots may be surprised at the "generosity" of The Silver Legion, when of real affluence in America, but also when a remedy has been forthcoming for an increasingly intolerable situation wherein 2.5 percent of the population own or direct 65 percent of our wealth . . . the Chief of The Silver Legion is a greater friend of America's Hebrews anyhow, than they have the psychological understanding to envision at present . . . to arrest the monopoly of their predatory representatives means to save their rank and file from reprisals which cannot otherwise be avoided . . . but aside from that, Pelley has already on occasions deterred the hand of fanatical violence . . . the battle must be decided on the basis of a more equitable social and economic order . . . instigate that order and baruching will be forever smashed . . . this is in no sense an apology to the Jews, it is an experiment—with most interesting possibilities.

THAT the Jews do not want to understand Hitler to begin with, was an obvious reaction gotten from young Wise, although he did not say so . . . Hitlerism means "any threat to Jewish power and security" and thus has Adolf unwittingly coined a new word for our language . . . consider Commander-in-Chief J. George Fredman, speaking at a banquet of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States at Atlantic City, July 3rd . . . Commander Fredman charged that numerous "Hitler-subsidized organizations" were at work in this country.

"There is one in North Carolina known as The Silver Shirts," he declared. "Two weeks ago there was a Nazi parade with swastika at Union City. The parade was reviewed by Brigadier-General Byrne of the Coast Artillery, who was made an honorary member."

A warning to keep Hitlerism out of the United States has been uttered by more than Fredman . . . but whole peoples do not spring to concerted action without adequate sustaining motives . . . a nation of 115,000,000 Gentiles righteously resent arrogant domination and direction by 5,000,000 to 10,000,000 Jews and the Hebrews should realize it . . .

if they cannot, then that is their hard luck and they must endure the reactions . . . two great racial urges are commencing to manifest . . . what fool would try to sweep back the surf at Atlantic City with a whisk-broom?

As for "Hitler subsidies" for The Silver Legion, less than five persons know the exact individuals in America—or elsewhere—who are giving, or have given, moral and financial support to Pelley's national activities . . . the Silver Shirts do not accurately publish their numbers . . . they do not parade for the purpose of gaining recruits . . . but the predatory Hebrews of the United States are in the hapless position of augmenting Silver Shirt strength with every move they make toward injuring or emasculating the work of Pelley and his associates . . . denying Pelley the "air" was the most colossal blunder they have made to date . . . threats against his life are quickly passed along to leaders in 27 States . . . to sit in sane council and try to adjudge great racial issues on their merits, as young Wise did last Saturday afternoon, paves the way for more progress toward a better condition of things than all the baruching methods that have been attempted since Pelley was first noted.

That is not saying the solution can be reached until the Gentiles of America are fully as awakened and solidified as the racial compatriots of the House of Wise.

That is not denying, either, that the closest rapport maintains between the outstanding sponsors of the Hitler-Germanic idealists in America, and the men—known or unknown—who are supporting The Silver Legion . . . not the anti-Semitic measures exclusively, you understand . . . the pure-blooded German Lutheran as we find him in America, is the salt of this nation . . . the Chief of the Silver Legion counts it an honor to be in the confidence of some of the highest Hitlerites in the United States and to know something of their forthcoming plans against predatory Jewry.

And while on the subject of Hitler, here is an interesting anecdote for Liberation students . . . a Silver Shirt visiting Headquarters with his wife this week from the far northwest reported that in one of his Liberation Assemblies was a young German who during the war served with Adolf in the same artillery regiment in Mesopotamia . . . this German soldier, now domiciled in Canada, declares that it was common talk among the men of his regiment back in 1916 that Adolf Hitler had experienced a Vision, in which he had seen himself the ultimate savior of the German people! . . . the word "vision" might be a good term for it, among the soldiers of a regiment . . . Pelley was told all about Hitler psychically long before he ever knew from the despatches that such a person existed, and he believes he knows exactly what Adolf's "vision" constituted . . . we say again, there is a good reason, only understood by advanced Liberation psychical students, for Hitler going to the Bavarian Alps over each week-end and becoming incommunicado in seclusion . . . "I have allocated My ministers," say the Later Speakings in the Liberation Scripts . . . too bad that Mr. Baruch cannot comprehend exactly what is meant.

SPEAKING incidentally of threats against Pelley's life, an interesting communication came through the United States mails to Headquarters this past week. Written on cheap penny note-paper with a badly-inked typewriter, it read verbatim as follows:—

William Dudley Pelly,
Asheville, N. C.

For the past several weeks I have been reading that YELLOW sheet of yours, known as Liberation. Frankly speaking you dirty rat you have something coming to you, and believe me you little runt at the proper time you will get it. You—who are claiming 100% Americanism would and do advocate such conditions as described in the enclosed article that I am sending you. Surely you must be the salt of the earth. You are such wonderful heroes that when Silvershirt Summerville gets a smack in the jaw he won't even fight back. I wonder what our forefathers would think of jellybeans like that, with wishbones where your backbones ought to be.

For obvious reasons I cannot tell you my name—BUT—name or no name you will know what you are getting when you do get it.

Very truly yours,

A JEW.

P. S.—Use some of your mystic talents to find out who sent this.

A friendly little epistle, you will agree . . . The kingly dignity of Judah, treating with arguments for which it has no answer in fact or logic, is herein demonstrated . . . having been apprised by other compatriots of Judah not to walk too carelessly in street traffic, not to stand too close to the edge of subway platforms, and to be extremely cautious as to who prepares Pelley's food and what is in it, the above amorous missive is somewhat vague . . . of course it may be a "forgery" to get Judah in wrong . . . and it seems to worry somebody that "Bob" Summerville held his temper in front of a lady and would not engage in a bar-room brawl with certain inebriated youths whose Zionist elders might better have spanked them . . . none the less, the letter can best be answered as Gifford Pinchot is reported to have answered a U. S. Forest Ranger who had brought him a death-threat letter . . . "My dear fellow, what if the writer does shoot you from ambush? . . . aren't you aware that the Forest Service will go right along, just as if it hadn't happened?" . . . if, however, his promised beating-up puts Pelley in the hospital, what a blissful time it will be, finding himself waited upon the clock around by pretty nurses in spotless uniforms . . . he might get a furlough from his thankless task which he sadly requires . . . it would have been the polite thing to do, however, to spell his name correctly!

REFERRING to more important matters than poison-pen missives, the Chief's stay in Washington and Philadelphia before the executive turn-over in Headquarters, brought one choice bit of alleged information . . . it concerned Mr. Baruch . . . we are always happy to hear any news of our country's chief executive . . . if a week passes without an anecdote on his interesting doings, we count that week wasted . . . this latest morsel was printed in none other than the Philadelphia Record . . . in bold type, plain as the nose on your face, it was stated: "It is reliably reported that President Roosevelt didn't know that Mr. Baruch was going to come to Washington and act as his liaison officer in the State Department during his recent vacation, until Mr. Baruch arrived in Washington bag and baggage to take the job!" . . . "well, what's so remarkable about it," asked a Washington attorney, "isn't he President?"

Someone asked Mr. Baruch if he considered himself a Dollar-a-Year Man . . . "Since the federal cut in salaries, I suppose I'm an 85c Man," Mr. Baruch is alleged to have responded . . . to which a good Gentile muttered: "Fifty-five cents too much!" . . . they actually talk like that in Washington about President Baruch!

Here is a Whole New Philosophy for Thinking and Living..

IT IS a bigoted thing to say: "There is nothing new under the sun!" How do you know there is nothing new under the sun? If it were so, life would have arrived already at the pinnacle of its development. There would be no place to go from here, no further heights to scale, no more depths to plumb. You would have to be all-wise yourself, even to know accurately that there is nothing new under the sun. And the daily program gives attestment to your error, for men are probing and discovering as they never have done in the annals of recorded history.

To be strictly accurate, only about one-fifth of the knowledge available for the average person—of that which has been achieved or probed already—is popularly acclaimed or allowed to be taught.

In Central America there are monuments with Atlantean markings declaring the evidence that human life in a highly evolved social state has been upon this planet for five million years!

Yet the most courageous orthodox history, sacred or profane, dares not venture further back than the past thirty centuries. Millions believe that the planet and all human life upon it were projected only forty centuries ago. Jehovah-God Himself, accorded to popular notions, was only invented some 3,300 years bygone. How silly.

ONLY those who have sincerely and industriously delved into what the Work of the Liberation truly comprises, see it in the majesty and grandeur of its stunning revelations. Little souls perceive it only as a sort of temporary fanaticism against some conniving compatriots of the Tribe of Judah. Even in its most comprehensible actionist aspects, they discern almost nothing but political expedients.

But consider what has happened!

A doctrine of cosmological wisdom, stupefying in its colossal grandeur and profundity, totalling half-a-million words, has been recorded and published. In it lie the answers to the theological and spiritual puzzles which have perplexed modern mankind since the year A. D. 50.

Nearly 500 current utterings of the Elder Brother have been caught, transcribed, and partially printed. This mass of supernal speakings, without one non-sacred word interpolated, compiles to a volume of the size and thickness of the King James Version of the Bible!

Through the instrumentality of Mr. Pelley's psychic and literary endowments, and after a life of scholastic research, a ponderous Unwritten History of Man has been compiled—tracing the order of mundane achievement from the beginnings of the planet in spiral nebulae, following up through the vast geological processes into biology and the commencement of the earliest civilization. Lemuria, Atlantis, and the Adite civilizations have been reconstructed. Up through Egyptology, to the Hebraic and Christian epochs, the grand story of earthly accomplishment sweeps, into the cataclysm of the First World War and the Pyramid significances of this present Armageddon.

This Unwritten History of Man, containing facts of lost civilizations everywhere suppressed at present in the interests of the Judhan theological cabal, represents another half-million words! Here are the answers to the enigmas of Biblical and historic lore for which each man and woman of intelligence has been searching since childhood.

But that is not all. The record does not end there.

Two volumes in addition are now in the publishing, a chapter at a time as resource is provided, delineating the splendid Christ Democracy, a system of political structure that is neither Capitalism, Socialism, or Communism, and which has been pronounced by students of political economy as a staggering recommendation for the wholesome rebirth of our social institutions.

And to make the whole effective, to instigate it in practice in a universe of censorship, subversion and chicane, the Silver Shirt Christ Militia is but an incident.

A PROPHEET is not without honor, save in his own country. Many a man has appeared on the pages of history, and given a wholly new revelation of Cosmology, and a new pattern for earthly institutions, with his works unminded as to their value until he has finished preachings and passed.

A revelation may be so colossal that contemporary human beings cannot recognize it until the Glass of Time has revealed its nature in perspective!

If the million words which have been written and are available, on the sweeping drama of Cosmology, History, Divine Poesy, and Political Economy—making up the Liberation Doctrine in totality—could have been written and buried in the year 300 A. D., and were dug up tomorrow by some archæologist, humanity might stand thunderstruck and pronounce the event divine.

But because the event is pouring off a modern printing-press instead, it is Symbolism, Satanism, and Sedition, projected by a precocious fictionist for his own aggrandizement.

How much do you know about the Liberation Doctrine in totality? Do you know why the Silver Shirts must come into the limelight just at present, what stupefying background the snow-white banner of the Silver Legion floats against, in this social gale that is daily increasing?

"I am deadly in earnest, I will not equivocate, I will not play politics, I will not retreat a single inch, and I will be heard!"

"See Men as I See Them!"

MY DEARLY BELOVED: I come to you telling you matters ye know not.

2 I say to you, beloved, men are not as ye think them; they are spirits of perversities, not creations of obedience;

3 I must treat with them continually making allowance for the mortal in their natures.

4 Ye have no way of seeing what I see, beloved; ye possess little knowledge of time-to-time developments;

5 Ye have no means by which ye can determine without fault what men are doing, or saying, or contending.

6 Ye are groping in a Great Darkness, and I enlighten you; I send you ministers, ministering unto you; they do come to you with despatch; lo ere they reach you to tell you that which happeneth, the manner of the fact hath altered.

7 I cannot keep you advised of such alterings; they are too great of detail, but lo ye do suffer in that they afflict you.

8 Now I tell you more: ye go about your affairs and make profits; from such profits ye do make more profits; lo the difference is manifest in figures; do ye not reckon these figures as profits too? ye make no explanation to any man thereof, ye do hide them in a napkin lest evil men declare: Lo, these have taken that which they possess not.

9 I say to you, I am he who taketh the profits for my servants; my servants take their profits also; lo, are not their profits mine?

10 Yet I do not say unto them, Behold all profits are mine, lest they say that I possess that which I do not;

11 Thus do I seem to have possessions which belong not to me, yet verily are they mine.

12 My beloved, I beseech you, squander not your profits which are my profits, though I cannot tell the host of men they are my profits; they are my friends who say, Lo, are they not His profits also?

13 There is another host, beloved, the Host of Just Men Made Perfect; verily they love you though they perceive not that I am unto you as brother;

14 They ask: Whence cometh the wisdom of these earthly ones, except you give it to them? lo is it not our wisdom also? doth it not belong to us as well?

15 I tell you, beloved, ye belong to me, having come of my line and flesh of my flesh; yet do I not contend for your possession.

16 I say it is our work, do it; profits are ours together; wait on them.

17 Now, my beloved, I teach you more: Ye do say that I desert you, that I care not for those I love, that I award not their faithfulness with increment:

18 I desert you not, beloved; I say to you that I attend upon you constantly, but I take from no man that which he hath, that I may give it unto you.

19 I say to you, men serve those who serve me: they say, Master, our goods are your goods but leave them in our care; if we give them to others will they not be squandered?

OUT of the vastness of Cosmos the Psychic Antennae tunes in on a Voice. If the Word was made flesh and spake once to men, how much stronger may be its pronouncements when the handicaps of the flesh are perished? If we cannot believe this, to Whom or What shall we look for authority of commitments like the following? . . . . .

20 I answer them saying: Brethren of mine suffer and ye feed them not.

21 Yet do I not rebuke them: truly, that which they have belongeth to them.

22 Matter hath its power to make mountains; I make not a farthing that belongeth not to me by the generous giving of those who say they are my servants.

23 Lo, they do lie and utter falsehoods, but how can we rebuke them?

24 My beloved, I warn you; I tell you of facts which the world knoweth not; the world thinketh me omnipotent of resource; I say my resource is heavenly resource, it belongeth not to trade that hath impress of usury;

25 I say unto you that Cæsar's gold is Cæsar's gold; if Cæsar loaneth for the Father's business, that is Cæsar's benefit; mayhap the brethren get from Cæsar and give unto the Father: therein is it their benefit.

26 I command not Cæsar's gold from him, that the Father's business may be done; I mint no coinage that borroweth Cæsar's countenance;

27 I say unto my brethren: Ye have been inheritors of a goodly profit, in that the Father hath given you sense and wits to treat with Cæsar peaceably and he hath awarded you with increase; in that the Father gave to you the sense and wits, share with Him therefore your increase in this world, that the work of the Father may be manifest in this your generation.

28 But those who seek for a sign declare: Go to, Thou Foolish Master, if Thou be omnipotent in Thy power, cast coinage for yourself, or treat with Cæsar even as ourselves.

29 Am I to set a tent with Cæsar? am I to mint a groat when all groats everywhere do come of substance belonging to the Father?

30 Now hear me further:

31 Behold there cometh slumber on you of a short duration; lo ye awaken having second sight that ye may know my words are manifest.

32 I tell you this in words, beloved; I tell you more in items of the heart.

33 The time cometh when ye shall be enlightened, the time cometh when ye shall see visions; take of knowledge as it pleaseth you; love me, beloved, know that I love you, know that I trust you even as of yore.

34 I tell you that men are perverse, truly shall ye see it; I give you strength to see it;

35 Ye have asked of me; verily I give you that which ye have asked.

36 Peace until it cometh!

37 I say to you, beloved, a night cometh when my ministers visit you; lo ye see them not, but there descendeth on you a power with morning;

38 Great understandings visit upon you, ye shall call them

Breadth of Vision;

- 39 I tell you it is the Second Sight. cultivate it.
 40 Ye stand on the brink of great manifestation, I manifest to you, I let you have knowledge which no man possesseth as ye are ready to receive it.
 41 Be warned, my beloved: ye do hold in your hands the keys to life eternal, for verily ye do see the earthly deaths approaching of those who are dear to you, ye see misfortunes stalking those whom ye may love:
 42 Yonder cometh the Reaper, thither goeth Sorrow, ever cometh and goeth the Handmaiden of Grief; ye shall see her and bewail not, neither warn not.
 43 Grief cometh to you in consequence for your hearts are saddened at beholding earthly changes; wealth cometh, beloved, for your gift enricheth you.
 44 Ye have asked; I make answer; know your gifts with a morn that cometh.
 45 Lo, ye perceive not perhaps at once, but a change cometh; visitations wait upon you; men behave queerly to you in that they have not conduct of sense;
 46 Light showeth itself where light should not be; forms move, having no substance; hither and thither goeth the enemy, leering; catastrophe stalketh and ye know it for its essence;
 47 Lo the Mirror of Life is before you and ye see it from reverse!
 48 I charge you, tell no man, explain to no man.
 49 See men as I see them!
 50 See men as the dead of body see them; see life as Life seeth itself!
 51 This I give to you in exchange for your fealty; it is a step in the interpretation of me for which ye have come into flesh.
 52 Walk silently among men saying only, Yea, Yea, and Nay, Nay! write only as the Gift showeth you and naught else! preserve a silence of the mystery of the worlds!
 53 I say, beloved, the miracle performeth.
 54 Go ye now, beloved, and be of service to those who help you, and love you, and work for you; hear their problems; promise aid;

55 But stand with me hereafter and hear the world's heart beat; know that my joy is overwhelming that ye do thus desire, for lo the burden is heavy upon me that ye should feel I have trusted you not.

56 Now I beg of you: take note of your last days as earthly men, seeing only as earthly men see; go into each night's slumber having courage but knowing ever that events portend.

57 I come to you when ye have cried further to me: The sights we witness are of sadness to us beyond earthly enduring, let us have your knowledge of remedy in speech.

58 Yea, ye do have it, but I say to you, ye know not the moment when it arriveth.

59 In the days that are at hand strange feelings visit you, forebodings are manifest, intuitions are sharpened, when ye do approach catastrophe lo the weight thereof is heavy, ye know of riches to be taken, and where.

60 I say, I have stood between you and them all until now: see for yourselves what buffer I have been; take knowledge that if the light be too blinding for your eyes, lo I take it away until ye are truly ready! if ye are ready, lo I say retain it!

61 I say ye are of service to humankind, not yourselves, for ye are of me, not apart as those different.

62 Seek ye profits as ye have sight henceforth; I trust you to use them for the Father and my sheep.

63 Beloved, I tell you ye are no longer children when ye have such knowledge; ye are no longer mortal when such knowledge cometh; ye are returned to your heritage; it is profit for your years of fleshly blindness for me.

64 Know this thing: men will be curious, they will say of you: Lo, these are not of us longer, lo they come and go with devils, let us away with them!

65 Know that ye will be sharing the griefs and perplexities of the earth with me, beloved, as verily ye are given my gifts for such sharing.

66 Peace, and my love and sympathy upon you . . .

PEACE.

Someday THE HOLY LOGOS Will See Print

IT IS not generally known, even by advanced Liberation students, that despite the New Sermons on the Mount in the 67 Liberation Scripts, and the weekly Master Messages published on this page, only about 90 of these supernal speakings and discourses have as yet been released to the public. And there are over 500 recorded! What a thunderbolt is going to be ultimately released on the theological world when the full 500 preachments are collated, edited, and brought into permanent print in the limp-leather Biblical format! They will constitute a volume fully as sizable as both the Old and New Testaments in the present King James Version of the Bible. The only reason it has not been done to date has been lack of financial resource. Someday some person of affluence, whose life has been remade by these Latter Day Speakings, is going to earn earthly immortality by being the financial instrument through which these sacred writings are given to the world. We can only be patient until such generosity is made apparent.

The Portrait of Mr. Pelley . . .

by ROBERT C. SUMMERVILLE

MUCH honor is due Mr. Clarence Imislund of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, for the splendid pen-portrait of Mr. Pelley which accompanies this issue of Liberation. We, at Headquarters, can say that it is a splendid likeness, thoroughly presenting the virile alertness and eloquence of a man who is thoroughly awake every instant of the time. It is perhaps that quality of penetrating awareness that goes with Higher Faculties.

We at GHQ are going to make a point of it that we receive separate reproductions of this portrait for ourselves out of commemoration for the warm comradeship which flows between us. If you want copies for yourselves let us know. If five hundred or more respond on reading this paragraph, we shall keep your names for first delivery and be able to have copies struck off on fine Strathmore paper in the original size of 11 by 16 inches with the proper margin, so that you may get them at a cost of from ten to twenty-five cents.

It is interesting to note that this portrait has been ranked with the renowned work of the internationally famous illustrator, Franklin Booth. Copies shall be valuable through the coming years. They shall always stand for a certain type of leadership which without fear or the slightest tinge of the personal, labors unceasingly at the behest of a Higher Love and a Higher Patriotism.

There is no getting around the fact that Mr. Pelley is a prime mover in this modern Renaissance of the spirit of our race, as against the prevalent debauchery and looting of our civilization by those who in spirit as well as in race do not belong to it. Never can it be said that in any sense we are hero-worshippers. We fall in line behind this leadership because it is our leadership . . . because each one of us in our own right have come to the same conclusions and are tremendously earnest about following through to the end.

It is this that Mr. Pelley wants. Yes-men are taboo, and hero-worshippers are out! The Silver Legion is composed of men who are their own leaders, and who may be following in the pioneering path which Mr. Pelley is establishing because he is the spokesman most capable of carrying out their express wishes . . . yea, that earnestness which is ready to take the destiny of a nation into their own hands.

Mr. Pelley shouts with the rest of us, "Come on, prove yourself a thousand Pelleys! We need you. This fight is bigger than any of us can ever be!"

Recent discoveries at GHQ have proved this movement a hundred times stronger than we had dared to believe. The evidence had been hidden from us. Now it is revealed. Over five thousand names have come to our attention who have, unbeknownst to ourselves, been forced to wait on the sidelines. With careful attention being given to everyone, as swiftly as it is humanly possible—they shall soon be able to get on the firing line with those other thousands who are already accomplishing organization throughout the union.

This last two weeks Mr. Pelley has been on hand at the GHQ accomplishing a complete reorganization of methods to take care of this unexpected volume. A system has been installed whereby there is an instant check-up on every piece of mail coming into headquarters. No single person has responsibility that could sidetrack the smallest communication. All remittances are acknowledged and literature is sent the same day they are received, without fail. Watch it work!

You may expect much of this new man Sieber . . . a previous officer of a number of corporations, a past president of banks, and teacher of business administration . . . thoroughly fed up on present predatory tactics . . . a square-shooter through and through with that honest gleam in the eyes which may know no equivocation in the unfaltering adherence to duty. It is a job many would hesitate to take—Treasurer in an organization laboring for the Christ when the very real opposition, occult and otherwise, of those who oppose the Christ focus along the vibration and means with which they are most familiar . . . money!

Someday, however, we shall be the instigators of a national system where money will be no longer necessary in its present form, and we shall have to worry in different fashions about the payment of printers bills and office overhead for the dissemination of a Christly message. Perhaps, then, there shall be a more potent broadcasting, and this aspect of our mission will have been accomplished!

The greatest compensation for being in this sort of work is the glorious comradeship which develops between those in the field who understand! One letter is at hand which says more than any comment upon it could ever give:

"But things are not all grief dear fellow. Sunday night we are going to dedicate the New Auditorium in the hotel here with a rousing Consecration Service and by the time you get here we will have them coming from . . . on the north and . . . on the south, so keep your own great heart in the clouds and know that in spite of the seeming obstructions WE ARE GOING THROUGH! All hail to you!"

What Lies Behind Recognition of Russia?

wanted Jewish population on the United States. If the money Jews are as noble as they advertise themselves to be, let them advocate the payment of the veterans' adjusted-compensation certificates. Let them ease the burdens of the consumptive Jewish boys who are hauling heavy carts of fur and other material around the garment center of New York. Let them see that the long-suffering Jewish school teachers receive the salaries which are due to them but which are now in arrears. That would be better than to bring 200,000 Jewish Communists here for political purposes.

MR. SPEAKER, Jacob Schiff flourished like the green bay tree during the World War, but there are passages in his life which show his hysterical despair when the Allies sent their representatives here to obtain a loan. He endeavored to have Lord Reading, formerly Rufus Isaacs, prevent any part of it from going to Russia, although at the time Russia had a very large army of soldiers in the marshes, including thousands of Jewish soldiers, fighting the battle of the Allies on short rations and with insufficient supplies. He was willing to join in the loan, but he wished to have Russia and Russian Jews excluded from the benefits of it. Upon that occasion he was torn between a desire for profit and his professional hatred of Russia, and he cried out to his fellow directors in Kuhn, Loeb & Co. that he ought not be placed in such a position. And then I believe he said they could do as they liked about it.

In the end it was one of the European War-burgs, a relative of Schiff's, who went to Brest-Litovsk to negotiate the separate peace—a peace which was deeply resented by a large number of loyal Russian Jews—a peace which was followed shortly afterward by the Third Internationale, one of the purposes of which is the destruction of constitutional government in the United States and the establishment here of the same form of government as that which now prevails in Russia. The rights of the sovereign States in the United States are being steadily undermined for that sinister purpose.

HOW far down into the bottomless pit of communism the United States has been dragged by the Roosevelt administration under the smoke screen of an emergency is shown by a comparison of the program of the Third Internationale and the Roosevelt communistic measures forced into law here during this special session of Congress under threats to deprive Democratic Congressmen of patronage and influence; or, as the President is said to have expressed it to a London correspondent, a determination on his part to keep every Republican office-holder in office until he got what he wanted from the Democratic Congress. Among the tasks set before the communistic party in the United States, as shown in Russia U. S. S. R., a Complete Handbook, edited by the scholar, P. Malevsky-Malevitch, and published by Payson in New York this year, I find the following:

Transfer to the State of all gold reserves valuables, securities, deposits, etc.; the centralization of all banking operations and the subordination of all the nationalized banks to a central State bank—

And so forth.

You have witnessed the unlawful seizure by Franklin D. Roosevelt of gold reserves and other values belonging to the people of the United States, the destruction of banks, the attempted whitewashing of the Federal Reserve Board and Federal Reserve Banks, the corruption of which he admitted in his campaign harangues; and you may have noticed that what was confiscated is not in the hands of the present constitutional Government but in the hands of the international bankers who are the nucleus of the new government Roosevelt is seeking to establish here. Roosevelt's actions are not in accordance with the Constitution of the United States. They are in accordance with the plans of the Third Internationale.

AT one time Trotzky was a favorite with Jacob Schiff. During the war Trotzky edited Novy Mir and conducted mass meetings in New York. When he left the United States to return to Russia he is said upon good authority to have traveled on Schiff's money and under Schiff's protection. He was captured by the British at Halifax and immediately, on advice from a highly placed personage, set free. Shortly after his arrival in Russia he was informed that he had a credit in Sweden at the Swedish branch of the bank owned by Max Warburg, of Hamburg. This credit helped to finance the seizure of the Russian revolution by the international Jewish bankers. It assisted them in subverting it to their own ends. At the present time the Soviet Union is in debt.

From the date of Trotzky's return to Russia the course of Russian history has, indeed, been greatly affected by the operations of international bankers. They have acted through German and English institutions and have kept Russia in bondage to Germany and both Germany and Russia in bondage to themselves. Their relatives in Germany have drawn immense sums of money from the United States and have in turn financed their agents in Russia at a handsome profit.

The Soviet Government has been given United States Treasury funds by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks acting through the Chase Bank and the Guaranty Trust Co. and other banks in New York City. England no less than Germany, has drawn money from us through the Federal Reserve banks and has re lent it at high rates of interest to the Soviet Government or has used it to finance her sales to Soviet Russia and her engineering works within the Russian boundaries. The Dnieperstroy Dam was built with funds unlawfully taken from the United States Treasury by the corrupt and dishonest Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks.

MR. SPEAKER, in my opinion, the Russians have a right to set up any form of government that pleases them and suits their needs. But for some reason, whether due to some defect in the Soviet form of government or to some other cause, Russia has not been able to maintain its present form of government otherwise than at the expense of countries in which there is greater freedom for individuals and in which the property rights of citizens have been respected and preserved. Open up the books of Amtorg, the trading organization of the Soviet Government in New York, and of Gostorg, the general office of the Soviet trade organization, and of the State Bank of the Union of Socialistic Soviet Republics, and you will be staggered to see how much American money has been taken from the United States Treasury for the benefit of Russia.

Find out what business has been transacted for the State Bank of Soviet Russia by its correspondent, the Chase Bank of New York; by Lloyd's Bank of London; by Kleinwort Sons & Co. of London, whose correspondents are the principal New York banks; by Glyn Mills & Co., of London, and their American agents, that is, the International Acceptance Bank of New York, the Guaranty Trust of New York, the Central Hanover Bank of New York, the Chemical Bank & Trust Co., H. Clews & Co., Kidder Peabody & Co., Winslow Lanier & Co., and Lee, Higginson & Co., the promoters of Swedish Match. Find out how much United States money has passed through the Bank for Russian Trade of London and through the Midland Bank, Ltd.

If the extent of these transactions were known to the American workingman and if he could see that the raw material, the United States dollars, in those transactions came out of his own pocket and the pockets of his fellow citizens, he would understand that Russia is not a good place for the workingman unless other workingmen in other countries are forced to pay tribute to its needs. Russia owes the United States a large sum of money. If we had what Russia owes us today, the veterans of the United States would not need to fear the first of July, 1933, when they are to be despoiled of their pension rights and privileges. Mr. Speaker, I am unalterably opposed to a reduction in the pensions that were lawfully conferred upon the United States veterans of all wars, their widows and dependents. I am in favor of the immediate payment of the veterans' adjusted-compensation certificates. If the United States can carry Germany and Soviet Russia and John Bull on its back, it can pay its veterans. If it can lend $50,000,000 to sovietized China and furnish material for the manufacture of high explosives, it can pay its veterans!

MR. SPEAKER, an immense amount of United States money has been used abroad in preparations for war and in the acquisition and the manufacture of war supplies. Germany is said to be part owner of a large poison gas factory at Troitsk on Russian soil. China is almost completely sovietized, and in the Asiatic interior huge stocks of munitions are said to be stored awaiting the day when the war lords of the United States will ship United States troops to Asia. Mr. Speaker, the United States should look before it leaps into another war, especially a war in Asia. It should decide whether it is worth while to join hands with Russia and China in a war against Japan. For myself, I say and I have said it often that the United States should remember George Washington's advice. It should mind its own business and stay at home. It should not permit the Jewish international bankers to drive it into another war so that they and their Gentile fronts and sycophants by way of Louis McHenry Howe, the graftmaster, may reap rich profits on everything an army needs from toilet kits to airplanes, submarines, tanks, gas masks, poison gas, ammunition, bayonets, guns, and other paraphernalia and instruments of destruction.

The Organization Strengthens

FIVE MORE States in the middle-west went into action this week, to promote the Christ Democracy as the Christian alternative to Communism and anarchy in our economic lives, and to add more uniformed recruits to the growing Silver Legion.

They were, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana!

Into these States enter volunteer organizers of proven experience and accomplishment, to contact with Silver Shirts already of those states, and enlighten the masses in the great and beautiful innovations for the better that are just around the corner.

The strange part of the Silver Shirt work is, that no longer is there need for solicitation of workers or organizers on the part of Mr. Pelley or his staff. Men of stamina, prestige, and grim determination are coming and going from Asheville daily, volunteering their services, getting their appointments and instructions, and departing back to their various States and localities to throw themselves into the labor for love of the Christ and the sacrosanct desire to effect His kingdom on earth literally, cooping the predatory element who will not have Him at any cost.

These men are in no mood to be trifled with! They are not youths, theorists or vacationists, taking one and two thousand mile motor trips in order merely to talk with the Chief at Asheville because they would enjoy the scenery or get the privilege of parading in uniforms. They are grim-eyed men—men with set faces. They realize perfectly the task that confronts every wholesome-minded Christian in America—saving our Federal Constitution, and our Christian institutions, from an element that has brought our beloved United States almost to the brink of ruin.

Most of these men have been victimized by the predatory people operating with such effrontery in our affairs today. They have seen with their own eyes, and heard with their own ears, ample evidence that some sort of campaign exists to emasculate America and bring her under an alien form of government. Two years ago they jeered at such a possibility as fanaticism. They are not jeering now.

The public adversary has done too much bragging.

It has overplayed its hand.

It has shown itself as over-confident of success before success was truly within its grasp.

IT IS a staggering thing to contemplate, the temper of these men and their pronouncements as they take counsel with the Chief, preparatory to arising in the might of their numbers—farflung in their localities—and purging this sick United States of her debauchers.

It is no longer a case of persuading these men of the reality of conspiring forces. Grimly and vehemently they attest: "I've seen quite enough in my own locality to persuade me that it is time for high and deadly action!" They have merely been waiting for the correct and effective program, the leadership that epitomizes the words of the immortal William Lloyd Garrison in slavery days: "I am in deadly earnest, I will not equivocate, I will not play politics, I will not retreat a single inch, and I will be heard!"

That is the personal slogan and motto of the Chief of the Silver Shirts! If Garrison were alive today—and how do we know that he is not?—he would cheerfully loan the use of his verbal stamina to fight the present slavery of the Gentile white man!

THE WAY that Christian America is arousing is staggering to contemplate. There is phlegmatism in certain sections where there has always been phlegmatism in political alterings, but the rank and file of pureblooded, native, patriotic Christians is finding plenty of ways to make its awakening moral courage known to those who are developing The Silver Legion.

Incidentally, to answer here a question asked by hundreds of these men, the red letter "L" printed in silhouette in the center of this page, is so published from week to week that it may be used as a pattern of correct size and official style for the scarlet "L" to be worked in silk above the heart on every Silver Shirt. Simply lay a piece of tissue over this letter and trace it for copying on the shirt's silver surface about an inch above the left-hand pocket. Or if you have an old number of Liberation, use the scissors and cut out this letter for pinning on the cloth and covering with needlework.

Headquarters does not attempt to supply uniforms. We are not in the racket of selling shirts. They can be bought for about $1 in any corner haberdashery. But Headquarters will cheerfully supply information about obtaining the blue corduroy trousers, and where, and at what price.

To allay the fears of the squeamish at possible physical reprisals of violence for what we are publishing, let it be of record that we are not so foolish as to keep documents or data of importance at National Headquarters. Practically all important business records are in duplicate and a set safely cached elsewhere.

But reprisals of violence are not to be considered. They might too easily throw a match into a powder-keg. The adversary is not entirely witless. But again we say—

"We are in deadly earnest, we will not equivocate, we will not play politics, we will not retreat a single inch, and we will be heard!"

Let the adversary make of that what he will!
