The Fight Grows Dangerous as Judah Becomes Desperate

THREE TO SIX months ago, the Jews of the United States, big and little, thought they could dismiss the Silver Shirts with a jest. To their utter consternation, despite their fancied monopoly over most American agencies of publicity, the Silver Shirts "took hold" in every quarter of the land. The insolent depredations of thousands of Jews in individual localities, fattening financially and politically on the distresses of the Depression, awoke a resentment in Gentile hearts—and heads—to which Silver Shirt enlightenment came as a lamp in great darkness.

Failing to find any connection between the American Germans accused of being Hitlerites, and the Silver Shirt organization which swiftly sprang to national proportions overnight—because, forsooth there never was the slightest hook-up, financially or any other way, excepting as Chief Pelley chanced to know socially many pro-Hitlerites—Judah then took the stand that diatribes in Jewish publications should dispose of this obnoxious menace to its progressive program in American affairs.

But such diatribes missed fire. People who did not know Pelley and had never heard of the Silver Legion were curious to learn what had made so many Hebrews "all hot and bothered". They began writing to the Silver Shirt Headquarters and asking for literature.

Instead of rebuking Pelley and assenting in the Hebrew contention that he was Public Enemy Number One, they grasped with avowed shock that what Pelley had to tell them was exactly what they had wanted to know ever since the mysterious "depression" started, and the first real support to the Silver Legion program came in.

Judah thereupon sat up and took notice.

Something had to be done to get Pelley squelched before too many Gentiles became awakened and the Jews of America found themselves in the same plight as the Jews of Germany.

Tolerance meetings—so-called—began to be held all over the land. Catholics were aroused by scurrilous reports that the Silver Shirts were merely successors to the bankrupt Ku Klux.

But the Catholics began to find out that young men of their faith had not the slightest difficulty in getting into Silver Legion councils, providing they could qualify as sterling American patriots, sincere in defending the debauched Constitution. So Judah evolved what it considered a more practical scheme for dealing with the Silver "menace" . . .

This scheme consisted in nothing more, nor less, than sending Jews into Silver Shirt meetings, or in the vicinity where Silver Shirt meetings were to be held, and taking names and addresses of such Gentiles as were recognized. Wherever, and whenever, a Gentile was identified who owed money to a Jewish bank, or had a household mortgage owned by a Jewish loan-shark, or even in some reported cases, a suit on his back which had been bought on credit from a Jewish firm, he was adroitly informed that if he persisted in evincing interest in these nefarious and seditious Silver Shirts he would either be foreclosed upon, or end up in jail as an enemy of the President's.

Some of the Jewish reasonings in this regard were truly comic had they been less tragic to the intimidated Gentile.

But the effect of this strong-arm policy was exactly what any but a Jew might have anticipated. Americans have a constitutional dislike for being told what they cannot do, as witness the erstwhile Prohibition Law. To save their businesses from imminent calamity at the hands of Jews, they did cease proselyting for the Silver Legion openly. But the whole brilliant scheme of the Jews for sand-bagging America away from any attention to Silver Shirts really sent them under cover in their assemblings and discussings of the Protocol problem.

No matter what Judah has done to date to crush the Silver Shirts out of existence, she has contrived to make them stronger and sturdier than ever. And so violent has been the rage of individual Silver Shirts at times, over the arrogance and insolence in this regard, of this alien people—who came into the United States four million strong while America was sending the finest of her sons to fight a Rothschild-Jewish war in Flanders—that Chief Pelley has had to expel certain members from the national organization to keep them from starting what might easily develop into a wholesale pogrom all over the nation.

BUT power-drunk Judah has taken no warnings from all of it—none whatsoever. She still thinks that the way to stop this “Hitlerism”—as she calls it—in the United States is to go about censoring freedom of speech and the press, appointing bigger and more dynamic quantities of Jews to official positions, thrusting Finkelsteins and Rosenblatts and Apfelbaums down Gentile throats, wasting the public moneys in pro-Jewish congressional investigations, shoveling out the blither about the Jews being the world’s aristocrats from printed page, radio broadcaster, and movie screen, and seemingly doing every last thing she should not do to get herself favorably popularized.

And all that Silver Legion officials had to do was to sit back and let Judah do the Silver Shirt recruiting work.

So now Judah is desperate at a situation of her own making which has grossly misfired, which she can not control, and which bids fair to rise in a vast tidal wave and engulf her.

Threats of using the United States Department of Justice to investigate the Silver Shirt organization only bring an indignant laugh to those who know the facts: that the Department of Justice agents are quite welcome at Silver Shirt headquarters, that Pelley and his staff will cheerfully take them anywhere and show them anything—excepting a roster of the organization which purposely does not exist—that Pelley and his staff will even go so far as to buy them their lunch and that they do not need to skulk around back doors and come sliding down waterspouts at the behest of the American Jewish Committee, such procedures being rather undignified and unnecessary, if the truth should be told.

Threats to deny Silver Shirt publications the United States mails also mean nothing but a passing annoyance, in-as-much as the Silver Shirt organization is now so big that it can quite well contrive to distribute its publications without any assistance from the post-office whatsoever—in fact, it has made several changes in its publication plans with exactly that end in view, anticipating the early resignation of Postmaster Jim Farley and the appointment of James Warburg, for obvious reasons, in his place.

NO, THERE is really very little which Judah can do to the Silver Shirts excepting to kill Pelley as a leader of all the fuss and excitement, if that could only be contrived without precipitating reprisals from hundreds of fervent cohorts of the Chief. But as Pelley seems to be uncannily wise in the movements and decisions of Judah, that, too, might backfire equally fatally on certain specific individuals in Jewry who would seem to have most to gain by his demise.

Judah, brought to book by the cool steady pouring out of irrefutable arguments which the Silver Shirt publications have been printing and broadcasting over the past ten months consisting of statements of facts admitted or boasted of by Jews themselves, is now fairly beside herself with rage.

Of what good is it to perfect a well-nigh bomb-proof control over press, radio, and movie screen to serve her in such a crisis, to gnash and foam at Hitler four thousand miles away, to fill every important office in the Washington government with appointees named Finkelstein, Rosenblatt and Apfelbaum—and then to let an ex-scenario writer out of New York flat, head up a movement that draws in thousands of sane, intelligent, level-headed, Americans from Portland Maine, to San Diego, California, and watch it snowball into numbers that threaten to push the Finkelsteins, Rosenblatts and Apfelbaums into the North Atlantic?

Yes, Judah is desperate. Such things simply cannot happen—at least in Jewish psychology. Is this not a Land of the Free for those who have plenty of money to loan, and Gentiles to borrow it? Are not Sam Untermyer and Steve Wise on the job? What is wrong that something doesn’t happen to this man Pelley, who by all the laws of Jewish reason should have been laughed out of court or cast into durance vile long weeks in the past?

Yet all that Judah can contrive to do is line up members of B’nai B’rith along cigar counters and take names of Gentiles coming into back rooms to hear Silver Shirt speakers, or wob up Silver Rangers and cast them in the faces of street-corner news agents fifty years old!

Why doesn’t someone sue this Pelley, or these Silver Shirts, for something? Judah sued Ford and got away with it. Of course, these are not the times of the Ford suit. And besides, Ford didn’t have the men at his back that are only being held in check by Pelley by main force as he tries to do a statesmanlike job with Jew, as well as Gentile, while at the same time not letting up for one moment in telling Gentiles exactly what they should know as to Judah’s self-confessed plans and purposes.

THEN again there is always the chance that too much personal persecution of Pelley will make exactly the martyr out of him that thousands of Silver Shirts are aching to see happen—to turn the whole country Silver Shirts and effect certain badly needed reforms in the structure of the Washington government, giving that government back to the electorate.

But canny old Judah still has some cards up her sleeve. She can circulate with all the publicity weapons at her command absolutely false and fabricated statements about what Silver Shirt speakers are telling their crowds. As a last resort she can even dress up certain rowdies in Silver Shirts and send them out to attempt depredations against the lives of public men—to make the country think that Silver Shirts were responsible and bring them to disgrace.

But suppose those, too, misfire?

What of Judah then?

Anti-Fascist Faction Deals in Blatherskite Falsehood . .

F

OR INSTANCE, out in Los Angeles, a manifestly Jewish faction terming itself the Anti-Fascist Action, has swung into action indeed by issuing a dynamic monograph privately circulated all over that city, contained in a blue cover on which are the arresting words—

How Pogroms Are Organized by the Silver Shirts!

We want every Silver Shirt, and every sterling American citizen of the Christian faith in the nation, to know exactly the methods by which Judah operates to achieve its ends when there is no remedy available but acknowledging the guilt with which her own spokesmen charge her. Therefore we offer in the following pages a reprint of the contents of this enlightening monograph.

There are a little better than six closely typed pages of mimeographed material in the first communication which has come into the hands of Silver Shirts from the Anti-Fascist Action. And it reads as follows:—

POGROMS on a nation-wide scale, incited by translations from Hitler publications, weird “religious” ceremonies in which anti-Semitic “sermons” play a large part, and mob wrangling by adept and experienced agitators—all with the pogrom either openly announced or skilfully suggested, form the skeleton of all Silver Shirt Meetings.

“The headquarters of this American brand of Hitlerism is in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Santa Monica and Oxford Avenues. Here, every Sunday night, a meeting open to the public is held.

“The size and appearance of the audience is a matter to surprise those who visit here for the first time. It is composed of well dressed apparently intelligent, middle class Americans. The hall is usually crowded.

“The sermon is a clever compound of demagogic patriotism, vindictive Jew-baiting and Hitler “economics”, seasoned with a plentiful dose of pseudo-revolutionary agitation.

“At the meeting held Sunday, January 7th, the speaker—a former Socialist Party organizer with a profound knowledge of mob psychology—emitted a lengthy tirade which included such statements as that the present milk strike had been caused by low wages, for which the Jews were responsible, and that the strike had been started by the same Jews. ‘The surprising thing is that the low wages and the strike were caused by the same people—the identical people—the same Jews.’ After a somewhat lengthy ‘explanation’ of this point the speaker then proceeded to say that any member of the Silver Shirts who applied for a job at the Sheriff’s office the next day would be given a job, and deputized.

“At this meeting, as at all others, the audience was fed such ‘facts’, mixed with highly inflammatory rant about ‘bloody slaughter’, ‘deadly fighting’, ‘merciless killing’ and constant references to ‘the day’. This speaker also advised his audience: ‘Do not call every Jew you meet ‘a damned kyke’—be patient, stand solid—and await the day.’

“The audience was then told that the lights would be turned out for five minutes during which time they were told to ‘think of what you will do when the day arrives.’

“Five minutes of silence is like eternity under these conditions.

“Literature, some of which is translated directly from Hitler publications, and reprinted in Britain, is sold in quantities as is the newspaper edited by ‘the Master’ of his band.

“TO CHECK the effect of this ceremony on the members of the Silver Shirts, and the audience, we had a series of conversations with those present. Some of the statements made by them are difficult to believe unless one has actually heard them made. One member of the organization whose confidence the interviewer secured, was asked: ‘Will you boys really put over a revolution?’ He replied, ‘You bet we will, and when we do I’ll sure kill a couple of Jews myself.’

“Another, when asked if he owned a weapon said: ‘Of course; we all have arms. Ask any of the boys.’ The interviewer did ask five, all of whom CLAIMED to possess arms. All were firm in the belief that ‘the Jews’ were responsible for the present economic plight of the country and that prosperity would never return until after ‘the day’.

“No one of intelligence who attends these meetings will come away with the idea that this is a laughing matter. That it is not receiving the attention it deserves is due to the same psychology that prevailed in Germany during the early days of Hitler. There, as here, the whole procedure seemed so fantastic that no one could conceive of its eventual success. Germans now admit that had they taken Hitler seriously, earlier in his career, he could have been easily checkmated. That he was dangerous, was not realized until he had consolidated his forces. Then it was too late.

“The Silver Shirts enjoy the same advantage of public indifference in America, for the same reason. This is a mistake. The growth of the organization should be fought every inch of the way. It is skilfully organized, apparently well financed and boasts that it is in direct touch with Hitler, whom it contends is ‘the greatest man Europe ever produced’. To stop this movement after it has recruited formidable strength will be impossible.

“It is also a mistake to believe that it is entirely a dues-collecting racket. Anyone who says he hasn’t the money for membership will be admitted without charge. The quantity of literature circulated, and the quality of paper used, indicates extensive financial backing.

“THE speaker’s announcement that any member of the Silver Shirts who applied for work at the Sheriff’s office would be given a job, and deputized, was one that Anti-Fascist Action considered worthy of notice. Whether true or not, it promised to be an effective means of recruiting memberships. Even a remote chance of employment, under today’s conditions, would attract hordes of the unemployed.

“We did not believe then, and do not believe now, that the speaker had been authorized to make such an announcement—at least, not by any responsible person in the Sheriff’s office. Still, if a few Silver Shirts were employed there by some minor official, the damage would be done. Silver Shirt organizers would capitalize on the condition. It was through such means that the Klu Klux Klan succeeded in attracting a large part of its membership at the height of its success. Some small cities, and even entire countries, found themselves at the mercy of the Klan.

“With these facts in mind, Anti-Fascist Action immediately began a campaign to do two things:

Prevent the employment of Silver Shirts as deputies—

Discredit the organization by publicizing the fact that its speakers were offering jobs they could not deliver.

"We secured volunteer workers; put them on the telephone with instructions to call every influential person in Los Angeles and relate the details of the incident. We also called a meeting in a downtown cafeteria for the same night, for reasons to be explained later.

"The phone messages missed fire in some cases. A few thought them a political trick to discredit the Sheriff, although we stressed the fact that what we wanted to do was to stop the employment of Silver Shirts, and to discredit them by proving their promises of employment a fraud. We were under fire from two sides—the Sheriff's friends thought we were 'gunning' for them and his enemies insisted that we were trying to 'cover up' for him. We did not then, and do not now, believe he had any knowledge of the case. Our worst suspicion was that some minor official might have made arrangement for employing our enemies.

"We took advantage of this incident to demonstrate that any future effort to promote the growth of such organizations at public expense would meet with irresistible opposition. Frankly—we fell short of that mark. We were amazed to learn that among a large part of the Jewish population there was no interest in the matter. Apathy and indifference were the rule rather than the exception. Proportionately, Gentiles reacted with more energy and determination.

THE meeting called that night was expected to do two things—reinforce the telephone campaign and be a means of publicizing the fact that the Silver Shirts had been discredited; also to furnish volunteer workers for similar campaigns in the future if the need arose. One hundred and fifty reservations were made by phone, thirty people attended. Of those practically all were already engaged in some kind of anti-Hitler activity. Delegates promised from other organizations were not present.

"To add to our difficulties the newspaper refused to print one line about the matter. We needed wide publicity of the fact that no Silver Shirts were being hired—to completely discredit the Silver Shirt Organizers. One man who was a city editor of a Los Angeles newspaper for years told us—"You can't get a line in about anti-fascist activities, unless you can get some heavy advertisers to bear down on the advertising manager. The gag is on that news, though it ought to be front page."

"This interesting insight into the working of metropolitan press came as something of a surprise, and should be of interest to those of our supporters who are unfamiliar with the subject.

"To sum up then we secured one victory and scored three failures.

"We effectively blocked any possibility of the Silver Shirts getting a foothold in the Sheriff's office.

"We failed to publicize the unreliability of Silver Shirt organizers' statements.

"We failed to set up voluntary machinery for such work in the future, some of which awaits this machinery now.

"These failures were partly due to lack of funds. We could not resort to newspaper advertising, or the radio, either of which would have been effective.

WE KNOW that in the very near future there will be cause for another campaign on a similar issue. How are we going to deal with it?

"We are stretching our resources now to keep Silver Shirt meetings under observation, to 'plant' members in their ranks, to gather their literature and plan an organization that will combat it successfully.

"We have studied and analyzed their methods, compared them to Hitler's and find that there is no difference. In securing members, for instance, both organizations have drawn heavily from the middle class—both have used the same bait for the small merchant—the promise to eliminate Jewish competition for the shopkeeper—by pogroms. Here, as in Germany, the little merchant believes these promises.

"Conversations with members of these Hitler organizations have been recorded. Some progress has been made in unearthing the unsavory past of a few of the leaders. Facts are beginning to come to light which indicate the possibility of criminal persecution of some of the leaders involved.

"Other activities in which we are now engaged are:

"Furnishing speakers to clubs and other assemblies to combat the spread of Hitlerite ideas.

"We have available first person stories from all German concentration camps in which names of victims and tormentors, occupations and political parties which have felt the iron rod of Hitler's Storm Troops. This material would keep every Hitlerite on the defensive if circulated in sufficient quantities.

"Factual material proving the sad economic fate of the middle class business man in Germany is also in course of preparation. This should be circulated as an insurance against the penetration of this class by Hitler's agents in America. There is no better argument for the American than—"It has been tried, and it hasn't worked."

"Above everything else we should assume the offensive as quickly as possible, over a broad front. In propaganda battles, as in war, the first army in the field has the greatest advantage. At present, Hitler's agents have the field to themselves, and their means seem to be ample.

"To date we have carried on our work on a shoe-string, with volunteers, a large number of which are Gentiles. At one stage we could and did lean heavily on the radical organization of the American League Against War and Fascism, united them into a group with common interests and common aims. Since that organization came into the field we have acted upon the advice of our liberals and conservatives, and separated the forces completely. Having completed this separation we were surprised to find that these liberal and conservative gentlemen who demanded the separation so noisily were utterly indifferent to the practical problem of how we were to continue to function. Our files literally bulge with their offers of sympathy, advice, encouragement and approval, but they remain deaf to our suggestion that they share some of the labor and expense. The organizations that urged this course have offered neither to share the work nor divide the expense; the individuals whose assistance has taken a practical form are scarcely more numerous.

UNDER these circumstances, the work we are doing will have to be discontinued soon. We know of no other organization willing or capable of taking over this work. We do not say that other organizations are not working. They are—sincerely and capably, but along different lines, lines that we have studiously avoided duplicating wherever possible.

"The possibility of our continuing beyond February first lies in our finding new support. If that is done we can go on, otherwise we cannot.

"Our income is now, and has been since we started three months ago, smaller than our expense—although that has averaged less than $50 per month. That amount has kept up an office, phone, telegrams, meeting places, literature and paid for other activities.

"We have raised during that time about $500.00 for the aid of victims of German Fascism, which has been forwarded to France.

"We don't feel that any hysterical emotional appeal for funds should be made. Our work is valuable, necessary and not duplicated elsewhere. If there is no possibility of securing enough money to continue it by this plain statement of fact to those who have the most to gain by its continuance, it will have to cease.

"If, among the hundred men to whom we send this appeal, there are any who feel that our work should continue, and they are capable of contributing, or securing contributions to a monthly fund to keep Anti-Fascist Action alive, we suggest that they communicate with us without delay."

Did Benjamin Franklin Say this about the Hebrews?

AT the beginning of the Civil War many copies of the Private Diary of Charles Pinckney, of South Carolina, were to be found in that State.

Pinckney was one of the framers of the Constitution of the United States, and published his Diary for private distribution among his friends under the title: Chit-Chat Around the Table During Intermission.

By special order of Gen. William T. Sherman, very nearly all of the fine private libraries—the finest in the United States up to 1861—were destroyed, and among the rare books sacrificed was Charles Pinckney's Diary.

Among the few copies extant is one given by Mr. Pinckney to his daughter, who married Etheldred Hays, and with him emigrated to the recently opened land of the Creek Indians in 1817, in the extreme part of southwest Georgia. It is from this copy that the following extract has been taken.

Says Mr. Pinckney:—

DR. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, a venerable figure, weighed down by years and wisdom, leaned one hand on his staff, the other on the table and said: "I fully agree with General Washington that we must safeguard this young nation, as yet in its swaddling clothes, from the insidious influence and impenetration of the Continental religions which pauperize and degrade all countries and peoples over whom they hold sway. But there is a greater menace to these United States of America than the strictly Roman, because a large number of our citizens are descended from the men and women persecuted by that church, and they and their descendants will never forget nor cease to abhor.

"This greater menace, gentlemen, is the Jew!

"In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers they have lowered its moral tone; have depreciated its commercial integrity; have segregated themselves; have not assimilated; have sneered at, and tried to undermine, the Christian religion upon which this nation is founded, by objecting to its restrictions; have built up a State within a State, and when opposed have tried to strangle that country to death financially, as in the case of Spain and Portugal.

"FOR over seventeen hundred years the Jews have been bewailing their sad fate in that they have been exiled from their homeland, as they call Palestine. But, gentlemen, did the civilized world today give them Palestine in fee-simple, they would at once find some cogent reason for not returning. Why? Because they are vampires, and vampires do not live upon vampires. They cannot live among themselves only. They must subsist on Christians, and other peoples not of their race.

"If you do not exclude them from the United States in this Constitution, in less than two hundred years they will have swarmed here in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land, and change our form of government for which we Americans have shed our blood, given our lives, our substance, jeopardized our liberty, and put into it our best thoughts.

"If you do not exclude them, in less than two hundred years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish them sustenance, while they will be in the counting houses, rubbing their hands gleefully.

"I warn you, gentlemen, that if you do not exclude the Jews for all time, your children's children will curse you in your graves!

JEW^S, gentlemen, are Asiatics. Let them be born where they will, or how many generations they are away from Asia, and they will never be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's, even though they live among us ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this Constitution!"

Such is Benjamin Franklin's reliably reputed version and opinion of a question which now vexes 115,000,000 Gentile Christians, beset on every hand by exactly the same horde.

"We were greatly surprised," comments Pinckney, "at the words of Dr. Franklin, more especially as there were then only about five hundred of the creatures (Jews) in the country."

"I TROW," quoth Mr. Charles Cetesworth Pinckney, "Dr. Franklin may be right. For my part, I never see one of the unkempt fellows but that I would like to spit him on my sword. In less than two hundred years, if we admit them, the scurvy scoundrels may be calling us their ANCESTORS!"

Thereat went up a mighty laugh.

THE two hundred years prophesied by these forefathers have nearly passed. No heed was officially taken of Dr. Franklin's warning. This country as a "haven for the oppressed" allowing 500 Jews in 1789 to 137,000 in 1906.

Then during America's terrible war years came in 4,000,000 of Europe's Jews and today we behold our financial system in the control of a Jewish Federal Reserve, our President surrounded by a cabinet of Jews, our press, our stage, our transportation dominated by these Jewish "Asiatics".

Are the posterity of these mighty thinkers about to curse their forebears in their graves as Dr. Franklin prophesied? . .

Buckets of White-Wash for the Walls of Zion . . .

OUT in Los Angeles on January 17th appeared the new and revitalized SILVER RANGER, the Silver Shirt newspaper first published out of Oklahoma City, Okla.

This transfer to the Pacific Coast was made for two reasons. First, the furious pace with which Silver Legion work was expanding in California commanded an organ befitting the territory. Second, mailing papers out of Oklahoma City was rapidly becoming impractical owing to the appalling loss of copies mailed through the Oklahoma City post-office. Just who was specifically responsible for this last, LIBERATION does not purport to say.

The stern stark fact remains, however, that fully sixty per cent of the SILVER RANGERS mailed out of Oklahoma City failed week upon week to arrive at their destination and had to be supplied over again by other means wherever possible. THE RANGER could not stand a loss so costly.

The time seems to have gone past, apparently, when the United States mails are as sacrosanct from mischievous interference as our fathers boasted. But then, when our fathers boasted about the sanctity of the United States mails, this country and government was under the political control of its Christian citizenry, not under the control of the affiliates of The American Civil Liberties Union.

Obviously, in the case of the RANGERS mailed from Oklahoma City, it would only be necessary to flip a thumbnail under the bundle wrappers and make a small tear sufficient to render the city or town of destination illegible. Then it would be permissible to throw these bundles in the sacks going to Washington as "nixes", so-called by post office employees.

Whether this was done or not, in Oklahoma City or elsewhere, is not as yet charged. The fact remains that sixty percent of THE RANGER'S mail circulation had to be supplied all over again in specific issues. Silver Shirts can only draw their own conclusions. The publishers of THE RANGER did so, and located the paper in the 8-page, five column format, in Los Angeles.

THE HEBREWS of Oklahoma City, we understand, are crowing over the "expelling" of the Silver Shirts from the State because of this removal. Meetings held by Silver Shirt representatives were attended by the appropriate and expected representatives of Jewry and names and identities of Gentiles taken down on busy scratch-pads, for individual intimidation the following day or week.

So annoying did this practice become that public meetings under Silver Shirt auspices were discontinued. Whereupon those Oklahoma City newspapers that were under the financial or advertising control of local Jewry, took to publishing sneering editorials entitled: "What Has Become of the Silver Shirts?"

Well, since the question has appeared to worry them so mightily, let them be officially advised.

This time-worn and typically Judah expedient, the only expedient which Judah has at its command, has by no means crushed or demolished Silver Legion activity in Oklahoma City, any more than it crushes or demolishes the spread of Silver Shirt activity in other places.

It has simply driven Silver Shirt promotion, for the moment, underground!

BECAUSE a Gentile may owe a loan to a Jewish bank directorate, or a Jewish loan company may hold a mortgage on his house, or a Jewish clothier may have sold him the suit on his back for a dollar down and a dollar a week, it by no means follows that he is entirely happy at having Judah dictate to him what meetings he shall attend, what speakers he shall hear, or what they may utter as their discourses.

The average Gentile still perseveres in the illusion that this is a free country, and that the somewhat nebulous Constitution still gives him the right of free speech and lawful public assembly. If meetings in the interests of his race, his religion, and his aforesaid Constitution, are to be attended by Jewish pencil-pushers busy at census-taking for personal attention in these matters the following day or week, and duress be brought to bear against him for thus exercising his rights when they seem inimical to Jewry, he is going to hold his meetings in secret where no Jews can penetrate, and all hell cannot stop him.

It stands to reason, further, that the necessity for so doing is going to make him about seven times as angry against Judah as he may have been when he walked into an open forum of Silver Shirts to listen to what its speakers might have to tell him.

It is quite all right with the Chief and his staff, that the Jews fondly imagine they have "expelled" the Silver Shirts from Oklahoma City.

What has really happened is, they have forced the Silver Shirt meetings to take place in quarters and under auspices where by no possible chance can any pencil-pushing Jewish census-takers attend them and learn what subsequently progresses.

So Oklahoma City is another glaring example of how Judah blunders in its methods to its own worst interests. Certainly Judah has "expelled" the Silver Shirts from Oklahoma City. Go right ahead, Judah, and think so! . . .

BUT the lesson learned by the Legion officials in Oklahoma City will not be ignored elsewhere. Judah having no other means of control of the populace in the latter's thinking beyond the power of money—which is the power of the creditor over the debtor, a sort of polite slavery—cannot do otherwise than snoop around, find out who goes to Silver Shirt meetings, and in what ways they can be financially heckled in consequence. The answer is, for Silver Shirts to gather as quietly and unostentatiously as possible in neighborhood knots and groups in their own homes, drawing as many unenlightened patriotic Christians as possible into these circles, so long as a man's house continues to hold any semblance to a private castle.

We Christians gathered once in catacombs. The mighty power of Rome was forever blasted when we finally came forth. It should be no real inconvenience to assemble for purposes of similar fraternizing and Gentile enlightenment by the privacy of our own hearthstones.

Ways will be found for getting to such groups a personal message from the Chief, of which no Hebrew can know. Let the Public Despoiler live in his manufactured illusion of "victory", that by the power of the Gentile dollar he has broken the back of social resistance to his program.

The day will come when thousands of these Gentile doors will be suddenly thrown open, and a horde will appear of which Judah suspects nothing until the moment comes for effectively cleaning Christian America of an increasingly detested Zionist politbureau!

MEANWHILE, converts to Silver Shirt principles, already ensconced in rostrums, are standing forth and answering thunderously whether or not there is a need in the United States for the Silver Shirts.

Out in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles, the Rev. Dr. G. A. Briegleb had the splendid courage to declare himself publicly on the Silver Shirts from his pulpit on the Sabbath Evening of January 14, 1934.

This valiant clergyman, whom Judah will probably use every means in its power to try to discipline, preached a brilliant sermon on Silver Shirt principles—according to reports which have come to headquarters—full of anecdotes, among which the following is pertinent . . .

He stated that he recently found himself talking to a CWA employee who said that he was "waiting for orders from the Great White Father at Washington". Dr. Briegleb said that as he finished, a Silver Shirt in his congregation stepped up to him and asked if he knew that "the Great White Father at Washington" was being almost wholly advised by Jews. Then, he said, the Silver Shirt went on to explain to him the Jewish Plan as outlined in The Protocols. He said he then made it his business to get a copy of The Protocols and The World Crash as published by The Britons in London, and he cited quotations from the latter. After telling the foregoing, Dr. Briegleb left it up to his congregation to form their own conclusions as to the authenticity of The Protocols.

DR. BRIEGLER followed the above with mention of the Silver Shirts and the Silver Legion, and praised Chief Pelley highly. He wound this up by saying that we do need an organization like the Silver Shirts, and that if the name is not Silver Shirts it will be something else, but that such an organization we must have, as the country is undermined with Communism. He said that Communists are responsible for most of the strikes that are going on at present, and mentioned in particular the current milk strike in Los Angeles as being an outcome of Communist activities.

Dr. Briegleb told of being asked by a Hollywood motion picture executive if the public really wanted decent pictures and when he said "Yes, indeed!" he was told that Little Women was playing to empty houses. Dr. Briegleb was then invited to come and see the picture and four passes were reserved for him. Wanting a fifth ticket, the pastor said he had to pay $1.65 for it, remarking that it was thereby small wonder that the house was not filled.

Incidentally, Little Women in point of attendance has proved to be one of the big hits of the year. Theaters in Washington, D. C., were so crowded where it was shown, that it had to be held over at Keith's a second week. The Hebrews simply ask the public to take their word for it, that decent pictures do not pay. Box office records in the matter of this particular film at least, give them the lie to their faces.

In speaking of the Silver Shirt organization, Dr. Briegleb said that it should avoid two dangers: not to put it on the same basis as the KKK, as that was not a "fair" organization, characterized as it was by prejudice and lack of balance; and second, to be careful that its leaders are not after mere political preference.

But, according to the Silver Shirt doing the reporting of the sermon, Dr. Briegleb definitely put his O. K. on the Silver Shirts and on their leader, Mr. Pelley.

This church happens to be one of the largest and most prominent Protestant congregations in Los Angeles!

SPEAKING of Los Angeles, Hollywood, and picturedom, the West Coast film colony is "all hot and bothered" because NRA Deputy Commissioner Sol Rosenblatt is coming to the West Coast as President Roosevelt's purported representative to straighten out, by imperial ukase, most of the troubles of the film colony under the politbureau code.

Deputy Administrator Rosenblatt issued an interview in Washington just before leaving for the Coast which left Hollywood film officials gasping and disquieted. THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER, the daily newspaper of filmdom, in announcing the arriving of this sterling American, declared: "Full realization is coming that film executives now have a brand new boss whose activities are going to extend far beyond the purposes of the NRA, even to the possibility of picture and personal censorship. At least, Administrator Rosenblatt feels that they will. In the interview as published in The Washington Times, Rosenblatt said that the code gave him power to inquire into Hollywood's morals as well as its ethics. He was quoted further as follows:

"I hope to devise a feasible plan whereby all responsible organizations interested in the welfare of the motion picture industry will have a voice and be an advisory factor in production. That includes, of course, such organizations as the Federal Council of Churches and the International Federation of Catholic Alumni."

So these NRA codes give administrators with names like Rosenblatt the power to inquire into morals as well as ethics?

"Ye Have Me with You" . . .

MY DEARLY BELOVED: I speak in sober note; I say, Be not afraid, for even as they stoned the prophets before you, so do those who are of evil seek to stone my workers of the present.

2 I say, Be not afraid; ye do have me with you; I watch from afar and yet am at your shoulder;

3 I say to those who would work you an evil: Be at peace, desist, be of sense in your discernings, for lo a mighty wind ariseth in which ye are consumed.

4 Be of sense in your preachments, for behold that which is uttered of blasphemy cometh to him who uttereth it and rebuketh him with a madness in its wits.

5 Behold of olden time it was predicted that many should fall at your right hands, and it would not come nigh unto you; many should be slain, and one stumbling should be lifted.

6 Are promises for vain ears, in that they are uttered; or are they for eternity that those who know wisdom should abide in their knowledge?

7 I beseech you, beloved, that ye be wise in your discernments, uttering no blasphemies, rebuking not the doctrine, committing no false acts that have rancor in them, prostituting not your talents to vain longings, making no evil gestures that hatred reap a harvest.

8 Pursue a clean track, plow a straight furrow, abide ye in me and know the hope of the world.

9 For it cometh to me that many are stumbling and few would be lifted, many are falling and few would know patience, legion are they who do mock at the doctrine saying, Behold it saveth us not, it rebuketh us with license, it giveth us no surcease from this evil that is on us, it giveth us a stink in that it proclaimeth true righteousness and behold it cometh not.

10 These things are an abomination unto me, beloved; behold I eschew them, behold I give them no license to abide in my being, behold I say unto them: Thus do workers of iniquity exclaim, in that their practices of evil have found them in their lodgings;

11 But for the true worker in the vineyard behold a great peace groweth hourly, a great compassion is smitten on those who do proclaim a triumph, who walk with a conscience, who lift not their eyes saying, Where are the angels that were promised, to aid us?

12 It is meet that ye do know these things, beloved: It is the hour of evil men; it is the hour of darkness foretold in old scriptures; it is the time of sorrowing and of evil lamentation;

13 Would ye have it otherwise?

14 The great have been stoned; the evil beast hath lain down with the lamb; those with an evil on their countenance have raised a great cry, We are the forsaken!

15 Is it not meet that they be forsaken? whence cometh to

OUT of the vastness of Cosmos the Psychic Antennae tune in on a Voice. If the Word was made flesh and spake once to men, how much stranger may be its pronouncements when the handicaps of the flesh are perished? If we cannot believe this, to Whom or What shall we look for authority of commitments like the following them their succor? hath evil a succor for those who are evil

16 I tell you only the righteous man hath a succor and those who smite evil have a flame for their torches.

17 It is the Hour of Mighty Men, they are called up by the Doctrine, they labor in patience but their work is not lost they speak with a vomit unto those who are sodden, but to those who are pure their words are sweet music.

18 Behold, I have said it; I have watched you long, I have been as your counsellor, I have been at your elbow, I have stood with the throng in the busy street and marked you turn the corner, I have come and I have gone;

19 Behold I have seen you at your labors, purifying the multitude when evil men would wreck you, and I have said: Let it not come to pass, for in that there remaineth one righteous man to hear and profit from the doctrine, so shall ten thousand be saved for its preachments.

20 Hear my words and know wisdom; know my love and hear preachings; see my compassion working on the multitude and say to yourselves: It worketh! It worketh! Behold they are made clean of that which hath defiled them! so be it ever! behold He who was sent, hath made known to us His mission!

21 Lest it come to you that evil men do spring upon you in a dark highway, I say to you, Be wise: go not in the darkened way, neither know its coursings, pursue a straight street in sunlight and dwell upon it;

22 Lean upon a strong staff, pursue the strong clamor and follow where it leadeth you, give joyously to Mammon where Mammon hath a profit in the taking, be not of concernment if those of evil leanings make a gesture at your bowels;

23 For what have they of moment but evil gesturings, beloved? behold they are sodden in the mire which they have wetted, behold they are trapped in the mud which they have shoveled.

24 The righteous man maketh a great peace, yea he maketh it joyously; he giveth to Mammon Mammon's increase, he taketh from spirit that which hath ennoblement; he giveth and he taketh, and all know a profit.

25 Not so the evil man who hideth by the wayside; behold his sins do find him out; he commiteth a sin and performeth a blunder, he steppeth in a stink and slideth in a morass;

26 Whereupon he saith: These things did the fathers and thus am I pardoned, these commitments did the brethren and thus am I without a blame for that which I have suffered.

27 Be not alarmed, beloved: pray a pure prayer, draw a bright blade, give alms to the Higher Charity which saith: These are the commitments of man immortalized, therefore shouldst he suffer them, that his spirit may be humbled

BRAVO!--to the Silver Ranger

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS has just received your first California edition. It crackles! It is crisp with flashing intelligence. We congratulate you!

THOSE who have not yet seen the new Silver Ranger newspaper, as issued from California, should communicate with its office at once! With an entirely different editorial policy than the Liberation Magazine, it is the Voice of the Silver Shirts of America, speaking in hallowed and thundrous tones of what they are contacting and experiencing in this fight against the predatory money-bund.

If Liberation is a Sword—the Silver Ranger is the ordinance of a rapidly assembling army of Christ men and women across this land. It gives vent to the eloquence which has grown to a mighty vigor, because, until this moment it has never had adequate expression. In the Ranger the Silver Legion membership is expressing itself! Slumbering America arises!

No reader of Liberation can afford to be without the information it contains, showing the Jewish origin of subversive Communism, stretching into the halls of Congress and influencing not only our Government, but a hundred and one subversive movements, operating to emasculate, debauch and utterly dictate how free Americans shall live and die in their own land.

What the Silver Ranger comprises:

(1) The Silver Ranger is a weekly paper of news, recording local Silver Shirt developments as they are occurring across the nation. (2) The news items appearing in your daily newspapers are amplified with the real truth, which you have been denied. (3) There is a series of articles tracing every sequence of the International Conspiracy as it has stretched through the past decades. (4) It is a campaign weapon of brilliant effectiveness.

Every member of the Silver Legion is urged to buy bundles of 50 copies or more, for distribution in your local territory. Remember that it comprises the thousand-throated voice of your compatriots, whose hallowed sincerity and earnestness will support you mightily in your local campaign.

The Silver Ranger is News par excellence!

What Silver Shirts Think of Race Prejudice . . .

REPUTATIONS are not unearned. Wherever there is smoke there is fire. And there are over a million Gentiles in America who are quickly coming to the conclusion that you cannot fight a fire with squeamishness.

It is not a matter of Race Prejudice. It is a brutal contending with facts—long hidden from the mind of the average citizen who has not penetrated beyond the half-truths and balderdash fed him by the daily press. All of which is perfectly obvious. The full evidence is available to all those who will buy the books advertised from time to time in this magazine, or become members of the Silver Legion.

It is a vital mistake, however, to accuse a Silver Shirt of Race Prejudice. He has become a Silver Shirt because his own researches or experience have brought him face to face with facts which he cannot possibly ignore and remain a sterling American with any degree of integrity.

Even as the Aryan has always tolerated the Jews, granting freedom to "live and let live", his attitude is strictly one of tolerance, even unto the time when it is necessary to forcibly coop the depredations and debaucheries of those who have so forced themselves upon his attention.

It is impossible to have prejudice against an inferior, particularly when that inferior has forced a careful examination of his obnoxious behavior. Prejudice is the attitude of little minds for that which they do not understand.

It is, of course, a sign of weakness that the Jew raises the hue and cry of Race Prejudice and Intolerance. He cannot answer to the facts! He but shouts the inconsistency of his position. No man secure in the integrity of his righteousness stoops to the cry of persecution. He declares himself a coward.

The Silver Shirt is placed in the circumstance of the father who takes a whip to teach his son not to steal apples from his neighbor's orchard, because that is the only discipline which he will heed.

Indeed, the symbolic arms of the Silver Legion are represented by the Scourge of Cords, with which Christ drove forth the money-changers from the temple!

EVERYONE knows of the spoiled child who behaves like a paragon before company, meanwhile playing the snob to the other kiddies in the neighborhood, maliciously tantalizing the little girl across the street, pulling her hair, stealing toys, creating jealousies, starting fights and then running to mother for protection.

To see him on his good behavior, only the exceptional person would understand the evil reputation he has gained among the other children.

Sure, let us love the Jews who cannot point to an original or constructive contribution to our civilization, including the over-rated Einstein whose bubble has long since been punctured by hard-headed Aryan scientists, first, because of his plagiarism and secondly, because of his uselessness.

Let us be the Father to this parasitic race, but at the same time let us not be blind to its malfesancies. A good old-fashioned whip may still impart sense. Pain is only temporary and the only lesson some souls will heed.

THE JEWS have always played the part of parasites—a nation within nations, persisting in predatory tactics. As the diseased and brilliant Jew Nietzsche put it, "In order to be able to say 'no' to life on the up-grade, to success, power and beauty, and self-affirmation on earth, it was necessary for the genius of resentment to discover another world, one for which the affirmation of life could be regarded as evil and reprehensible. Psychologically considered, the Jews are a people who deliberately selected the part of decadence!

"I do not mean that the Jews were overcome by decadence, but they saw in it a method whereby they could assert themselves to the world . . . They have simply been obliged to take the part, so much so that with an incredible degree of histrionic genius, they have managed to place themselves in control of all decadent movements in order to make themselves stronger than the assertive forces of life." (Italics ours, of course).

Perhaps in the eyes of the Christ, the simile of the spoiled and intractable child is not so bad after all.

The Jew is like an individual who has refused to take cognizance of his own manliness and thereby fails to know the meaning of integrity to the God which he might have found within himself. Backward, sly and deceptive he always carries his hurt feelings on his sleeve, almost reveling in the persecution which inevitably comes as a result of his evil deeds.

Unless his punishment is severe enough, completely prohibiting a repetition of his misdeeds, like the spoiled child, he persists in his evil ways at the first opportunity.

Those of us who have used the brawn of our bodies or our minds and spirits to wrest achievement from Nature, find the spoiled child so inherently foreign to our temperaments that we cannot understand his machinations—until that point is reached where the insidious cleverness of his parasitic tendencies, in a fit of spleen of attempt at autocratic power, threatens to burn the house of our civilization.

Envy and persecution being the deepest instincts of his nature, nothing short of an iron hand will control his malevolent tactics. In the light of the ages he is only a spoiled child selecting predatory methods as an escape from asserting the brawn of constructive creation—and therefore must be curbed, not merely from the standpoint of his own good, but to preserve the achievements of our own dimly aspiring Godhood.

There are many Jews who are seeing the light today, and getting beyond the deeply rooted instincts of envy and the wail of persecution. Many such Jews leave the hatred of Christ and the doctrine of "doing" the Gentile taught secretly in their synagogues, to embrace the religion of Jesus. Sometimes they seem to know a fanatical fervor in His name. In rare instances they are truly philanthropists—who give without a "catch" attached to it—such kindnesses are particularly noted because they are so exceptional.

But while this, in a very small way, is true, the Silver Legion has yet to have called to attention a single instance where a Jew manifested the Manliness of the Aryan Spirit in doing something constructive as regards the real roots of the world diablerie!

The slim minority of those who have had the nature of the spoiled child brushed from their eyes have yet to encounter that integrity which will not countenance debauchery and with Jesus call evil by its rightful name!

It is because something is forever missing from the nature of the Jew which partakes of the Godhood in man.

As with decadent Aryans, even his acceptance of Jesus is ever an outward worshipping of that Transcendent Man—a seeking for an outer prop, support, something to cling to—a failure to face self like a Man, and be the God which might be in him in constructive creation!

He assimilates, takes on, wears the cloths of many colors, but cannot be true to himself because he is a parasite in his approach to the Higher Facts, as well as in everything else.

That greatest of all farces, the doctrine of the Vicarious Atonement, anathema to the Spirit of Jesus who bore the cross of the world like a Man, is an invention of the Jew, grafted on the purity of the original teachings of the Christ!

The greatest amazement to the Gentile is that the Jew who has turned from the debaucheries and chicaneries of his own people—that one Jew in a hundred thousand—will not stand on his own two feet like a man and do something about it.

The writer has encountered a number of Jews who frankly acknowledge a full and firm

To the Students of the Silver Legion Program

ON FEBRUARY 18, 1933, the Liberation Weekly was born. The Silver Legion came into public existence. In one week from today there will be 52 issues of continuous expose of the traitorous control of our Government and American institutions by the enemies of our country.

It has been a battle every inch of the way. Liberation has never been financed by other than the support of a sadly impoverished citizenry. Many were the times when it seemed impossible to buy the paper on which this journal is printed. Heavy sacrifices have been made in vital quarters that it might continue. But it has prevailed!

At this time, it is almost superfluous to say that every inch of this program has been under the counselling of Magnificent Wisdom—that through these pages shines an All-Prevading Presence which, to recognize, comprises an attunement with the Soul of the Aryan Race.

The Liberation Magazine has been making a stupendous Roll Call of those who constitute the flower, the cream and the bead of Christian manhood—arousing patriots to the tragic need of hallowed service to their God and Country—that a nation of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

With the first year of Liberation Weekly finished, National Headquarters is offering a complete set in two bound volumes of every issue. Many editions of the Liberation Weekly were completely sold out shortly after publication. But 100 copies of each issue were carefully set aside, and it is from these that the Complete bound volumes are being made.

Of these sets, only 90 are available. In years to come they will be the most priceless of historical possessions.

Needless to say, the research material contained in them, is of grave importance in the years immediately ahead—and they will be most valuable for constant reference.

They are made into a beautiful blue cloth stiff book binding. Fifteen dollars for two volumes. Single volumes are not sold. Order from Liberation, Box 2630, Asheville, North Carolina.

Volume One—26 issues, Feb. 18th to Aug. 12, 1933—inclusive
(Now Ready)

Volume Two—26 issues, Aug. 19th to Feb. 10, 1934—inclusive
(Ready about Feb. 20th)

realization that their brethren are perpetrating the greatest of crimes of all ages toward an absurd and megalomaniacal enslavement of the earth, that they may be "the Chosen People" in fact—but they will not do anything about it! They may know of the minute details of the Jewish seizure of the Federal Reserve System and the government of the United States, down to the loathsome and sordid details of certain occult societies masking in sheep's clothing, intertwined as agents in the vast plan for materialistic and Socialistic, Marxian revolution, but they lack the courage to take a stand!

Therein are they fulfilling their reputation of cowardice and the inability to sacrifice. They lack the nobility of integrity. They are fundamentally opposed to the spirit of patriotism!

And while the Silver Legion will protect the Jew who definitely proves himself as departing from the ways of his brethren, to the extent that he is an outcast and persecuted by them, it is absurd to think that a Jew could ever become a Silver Shirt!

He hasn't the intestinal fortitude!

As for Race Prejudice, let us recall that when the Jews approached Jesus with the hoax of "God's Chosen People" saying, "Abraham is our father," Jesus replied with the flash of a holy indignation in His eye and thunder in His voice, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do!"

Whoever said that the Christ was so narrow and so blind in His All-Embracing Wisdom as to be prejudiced against this vampire race?

This will certainly be news to Silver Shirts. And organizations like The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America are to be "advisory factors" in production! Reads fine to the ignorant and gullible layman. But Silver Shirts recognize the Federal Council of Churches as nothing but Harry F. Ward's Communistic organization to impregnate the Protestant congregations with the tenets of sovietism. And this is part of Rosenblatt's advisory council. Well, well, well!

Meanwhile, another juicy bit from Hollywood is the news that Al Rosen has most of the Jewish money in New York at his command to make the Hitler-defamation picture

"Those two statements formed the theme of a 'sermon' delivered by a man who was introduced as Dr. Dean Vaun, of Washington, D. C., at the Silver Shirts meeting held Sunday night, January 14th, at I.O.O.F. Hall, Oxford and Santa Monica Avenues.

"The introductory remarks of the chairman brought out the interesting fact that the 'Dr.' was a vaudeville actor of seven years experience and had been a hack writer. No mention of how he secured the title of 'Doctor' was made.

"With consummate skill this speaker dwelt on the theme above, although his subject had been announced as 'Was Christ a Jew?' That subject he touched upon once during the evening, when he explained that 'Christ was not a Jew—He was a Hebrew.' He made no effort to enlighten his audience as to the difference between the two words.

"This matter has progressed to the point where something must be done about it. Every week the performances are repeated—always by skilled orators, demagogic patriots or pseudo-radicals who attempt to associate their Jew-baiting with whatever prejudice the hearer already harbors.

"Today we are going to ask you to call this matter to the attention of every important individual in Los Angeles whom you know, and to bring it before whatever organization you are active in. We want to begin a campaign NOW to ORGANIZE an energetic opposition to this movement. Have your organization act with us, or have them act independently if they prefer—but have them ACT.

"And if you can spare time for volunteer work on this campaign send us your name and address and phone number. Mail it today. Or if more convenient phone me. Mu 4953.

The Mad Dog of Europe. Just when most of the Hitler diatribes had shot and missed, this Jew must come out and start the Jewish persecution wail all over again it seems, ignoring the sentiment gaining considerable ground in the United States that Adolf is proving himself to be quite a statesman.

But no, we must have the whole wail taken out again and millions of morons instructed as to what a beast he is, of course for smashing the Jewish racket in Germany. For this did Thomas A. Edison labor and produce the moving picture! . . .

This is No Mock War! . . .

SCARCELY a day now passes that some Jewish or Communistic organization—or its spokesmen—fails to blaze forth with vitriolic or venomous diatribes against the Silver Shirts, or propose thrice uglier tactics to smash their expanding numbers.

The very frenzy of these attacks, and the savagery with which counter-measures are proposed to stop Silver Shirt activity before it becomes a political power to be reckoned with in this bilked and suffering nation, reveals the strength which the adversary concedes that the Silver Shirts have gained in the past ten months.

It was only yesterday that the Jew, Walter Winchell, was slipping surreptitious little jabs at the Silver Shirts—meant to dismiss them with wise-cracks—into his column in the daily Hearst papers.

Today the great Sam Untermyer himself, and a whole phalanx of American rabbis, do not consider it beneath their dignity to cry from rostrum to rostrum across the nation: "The Silver Shirts in this country must be stopped, and somehow or other, ways will be found to do it!"

To get them smashed, that is the challenge to their wits and their resources . . .

BUT one scarlet thread of bewilderment runs through all their expressions toward this end. They simply cannot understand "where all the money is coming from" that makes Silver Shirt expansion possible from week to week, and from month to month.

Over and over again in Jewish and Communistic diatribes at the Silver Shirts, this line appears: "They (the Silver Shirts) seem to be supplied with plenty of money." The way in which this assertion is made contrives to carry the implication that great foreign antagonists of the Jews, like the Nazis in Germany, or swollen capitalistic interests like the Fords or the Rockefellers, must be pouring unlimited millions into the Silver Shirt coffers, else the movement would have long ago collapsed.

That hundreds upon hundreds of America's outraged Gentiles, located in every quarter of America, should be combining to send in thousands of periodic widow's mites and thus put a formidable sum in the accumulate at the disposal of the work, is something quite outside their sodden understanding!

They cannot grasp that there is any massed anger at the Jewish-Communistic program growing in America that is not being definitely motivated by "this man Pelley".

That thousands of people should spontaneously remit to Silver Legion headquarters the funds in small amounts that makes such a nation-wide showing when astutely expended is quite outside of their "triumphant" psychology.

OF COURSE, the only way to successfully put a stop to such devastating and hitherto uncontrollable support, to make a business of finding out who these specific individuals are, tracing them down through the various Jewish and Communistic locals, and contriving thereafter, in one way or another, to put them on an economic hot spot.

But there again, granted they were able unlawfully to seize every book and document in the possession of Headquarters, they would find themselves confounded still worse.

There is no way to trace the identities or locations of some of the most valuable Silver Shirt supporters, whether the adversary is willing to believe it or not.

The most truly valuable Silver Shirt supporters have been anonymous contributors and donors, of whose identities an address the Chief has no more ways of learning than the great Sam Untermyer himself!

SAM may not believe this, and no one especially care whether he does or not. Nevertheless, it happens to be the truth. Over and over again, especially during his travels in the far west, envelopes have been slipped into the Chief's hand by total strangers which when opened proved to contain bank notes; or postal orders and cashier's checks have been received without correct names having been given the issuing post-office or bank.

There is, just under the apparently calm surface of American affairs, a vast and mounting anger at the recognized infusions of megalomaniacal Jewry in high places all out of proportion to permissible racial representation.

From Boston to Los Angeles, the arrogant, insolent, and unethical methods adopted by the Jews themselves to intimidate those who do not endorse their custom of racial wailing or to suppress all literature making the true patriot's fight against the inroads of Communism, are arousing Christian Americans to do something tangible to show their hearty approval of the open fight which the Silver Shirts are making to restore our Gentile institutions to the hands of a Gentile electorate.

And, following the imbecilic attempts to investigate and smash the alleged Nazi Movement in this country, and the unerring appointments of Jews to places of officialdom as Gentiles resign or are forced out of the present Administration, this support is abruptly galvanizing.

This is no mock war, as is shown by the adversary's frenzy to have it halted by any expedient, ethical or unethical, before it blazes fatally. It will sweep forward in exactly the tempo that those thousands of small contributors keep munitions of war in the Silver Legion's War Chest. Your help is needed now as never before!
