Shall Gullible Gentiles Spill all their Business Secrets?

THE GENTILE business men of America have been graciously informed that they are quite at liberty to criticize the National Industrial Recovery Act, providing they do so "without animosity."

In a land of a supposedly free press, this indulgence is quite as bedeviling as to exactly what constitutes a true definition of "animosity."

Perchance it comprises any criticism of Judah for sponsoring it, or having Judah's western-hemisphere Prince as its deus ex machina. Jews are sensitive about such matters. They are "persecuted" so frightfully easily that even an editor never knows when—in consideration of the most clinical aspects of economics—he is going to be guilty of religious intolerance or promoting race hatred.

Be that as it may, there are several aspects of the National Industrial Recovery Act—more popularly known as the N-R-A—which it seems feasible to examine. Inasmuch as this national measure for recovery means, in the expressed opinion of many clear-sighted Gentiles, the putting of their signatures to their own business death-warrants, we hope to be indulged for a few minutes while we exercise a little of the remaining free speech that seems to be permitted us Gentiles in our own nation, and treat with journalistic license certain potentialities in the N-R-A, by no means allowed publicity to date in our Zionist-censored press.

If the "criticism without animosity" must be defined solely as a series of "yes" suggestions for binding a yoke of American Sovietism on western-world institutions, then the gaol of an American Chekka doubtless yawns for us.

Before we are hauled off, locked up, sentenced to be shot at sunrise, or give away our business secrets, let us consider hereafter a trenchant hypothesis.

WHEN a Chicago mobster desires to "muscle into" another mobster's territory, he has a direct-action method of driving up to the front of his rival's place of "business" entering with drawn machine-guns, backing that rival out to a car, and subsequently depositing his body out in the suburbs—the sentient soul having been extracted from the said body somewhere enroute to the spot of deposit.

Such elementary technique is known in the parlance of our times as being "taken for a ride."

When a coterie of international mobsters wants to muscle into the culture and resources of an entire nation, they may possibly be found using tactics quite as direct but decidedly more subtle.

It might prove to be a trifle awkward, not to say hazardous, to back a whole nation of business men out of their lawful premises and deposit their commercially-lifeless remains amid the ash-heaps of world industry. Herding such masses of victims into districts where they can be safely "given the works," offers too many chances for large groups of them to resist, and put in a successful riot call to the rest of the citizenry to take swift and terrible steps to rescue them. So a more sagacious program may be feasible, to "put the finger" on great industrial groups whose enterprises and their increments may be zealously desired by racketeers who operate in continents instead of in precincts.

A technique must be perfected for taking those industrial groups for a ride with their own consent, and in a manner that keeps them from recognizing just what is transpiring.

In other words, the muscling-in must be consummated with all the aspects of an urgently desired Business Renaissance, couched in such terms, trimmed with such window-dressing, and operated with such finesse, that the gullible business magnates being thus "snatched" consider that they are doing something highly patriotic in submitting to the mobsters' weapons and walking obediently out to the curb.

For it is always a simple matter to "get away with murder," providing always that enough victims are involved to make the murdering "an industrial crisis," a "war for the preservation of Christian institutions," or a "revolution to bring in Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity."

In view of this contention, therefore, and because we must obey the ukase not to exhibit animosity in exercising our American rights of Free Speech, suppose we suggest a few ideas hypothetically and observe how they stack up with events which the most insouciant among our citizenry should recognize as having occurred since 1907.

CERTAINLY it should not be dealing in animosities to submit that in the period between 1840 and 1907, the United States was a pioneering nation, predominantly Aryan, engaged in developing and accumulating its stupendous natural resources all out of proportion to the requirements of the numbers of persons who made up its census.

Fortunes of necromantic size had piled up from an era which can never come again in human history, because it witnessed the development of raw wealth which had lain in the planet's bosom since the beginning of all history.

Now this raw wealth, as the twentieth century opened, had come to be represented in commercial practices by gold and silver tokens called Money, or in bills of title that were misnamed Securities. It had not come from "profits," for there is truly no such phenomenon, excepting as one man's gain is another man's loss. It was wealth which had been taken from Mother Nature and piled up for myriad varieties of refinement and barter, called Manufacturing and Commerce.

Incidentally, however, it was a storehouse of substance so colossal that men forgot its true origin and essence—namely, the increment from a pioneering epoch that sooner or later must come to a close. Men took it for granted, as something that was as imperishable as the planet itself, that it was something that would always be in their possession for refining ever more and more cleverly, or swapping about, manufactured commodity for manufactured commodity.

They did not once grasp that it might also be a body of international loot so tremendous that its very size made it helpless in the face of spoliation, in the event that alien schemers took it into their heads to aggressively possess it, particularly if thereby those schemers could smash and obliterate those institutions, and that culture, which made it seem the property of all the populace!

A GAIN it should be an exemption from "animosity" to say hypothetically that the Aryans who had done the raw, hard, pioneering work of clearing the new-world forests and wresting that wealth from the soil beneath, may have forgotten that eternal vigilance is the price of possession of any commodity or hoard of commodities, or the enjoyment of the free institutions which gave them title to it—in that alien miscreants took note of its proportions and the opportunities which it offered to advance themselves racially.

Let us say, however, still hypothetically, that infiltrated throughout western-world society was a great, dark, predatory, exploiting Force that had long since determined to wrest all this virgin wealth away—as soon as its plans could be so perfected that such wresting could be done without physical reprisals of violence occurring to itself.

Let us assume for the moment that such a Force had been suspected as secretly operating in many Asiatic and European countries over countless generations. Let us assume that time and time again, as men thought they recognized it for what they suspected it, they "cut back" and "pruned down" the mortal exponents of this Force whenever and wherever their depredations were too open and flagrant.

Speaking racially, on the other hand, let us further assume that in the New World there were only national adolescents to cope with this Force, people trained instinctively to a code of good sportsmanship and esprit de corps that would not allow them to conceive that such despoilers could ever infiltrate among them wholesale and ultimately bilk them as a great and united people, hiding the while behind the terrible camouflage of a stressed and buttressed acceptance of racial and religious tolerance!

PAINTING the hypothetical picture in broad strokes, suppose we say that when the time is ripe for the springing of the spoliation—using the year 1907 to make our hypothesis understandable—the opening maneuver of the alien marplots is the precipitation of a minor commercial panic upon the nation, that a harmless-appearing Federal Reserve Act might find wholesale endorsement among the progeny of those pioneers about to be looted in the Conquest of a New Land of Canaan.

Let us accredit hypothetically that this new Federal Reserve Act, wholly originated and sponsored by agents of the spoliators, declares in substance: "In order that this dearth of currency with which to do business smoothly may never occur again, you should pool your fiscal resources into great centers for control, where they can be held in reserve against crucial emergencies."

Let us say that guillible industrialists, always adolescent in international chicane and still smarting from the effects of such a mythical 1907 currency stringency, are most eager to agree.

Let us say that it never dawns upon them that if they thus pool their resources in great fiscal hoardings, they may be making it still more difficult and impossible to have access to their resources in the event that the control of those financial poolings fall into the hands of those who secretly do not want them to have funds in their emergencies.

In other words, let us say hypothetically that it is quite possible for such a Federal Reserve agency to actually operate as a more terrible destructive force than ever in their affairs, in that it may serve to prevent men from getting money instead of making it available for use!

ALWAYS speaking hypothetically, let us behold the Federal Reserve Act being passed with naive confidence in its infallibility to have all the needful currency that bona fide and unsuspecting industry might require, on tap in convenient allocations against currency shortages.

But let us do some beholding further.

Let us behold the true officials and directing intellects of that hoard when so actualized, becoming subtilely and astutely the known agents for the international schemers, and adroitly manipulating funds so concentrated into cartels of finance that should put those funds beyond the reach of those American industrialists and leave them in a crisis facing ultimate ruination!

Of course, it is hypothetically and theoretically possible that this can be done without attention being called to what is transpiring, assuming that these same agents have perfected a commercial control over all known instruments of publicity—press, screen, and radio.

Will not the next step, theoretically, in this cabal, be the process of getting this whole vast hoard of Federal-Reserve wealth out of America literally, to provide against the ugly circumstance that such a plot may be recognized for what it is, and the nation of bilked industrialists and their dependent employees turn on the bilkers?

So trace these utterly theoretical machinations further.

IT WILL stand to reason that shipping literal dollars from that hoard out of the national jurisdiction of those to whom they rightfully belonged, may be extremely hazardous; open shiploads of departing dollars may be noticed, and a hue and cry go up from observers who have not hitherto suspected a cabal.

A way must be found to involve such wealth abroad.

How to do it?

What better way than an international war, particularly if such a universal and savage conflict pulls scores of other chestnuts out of the fire for the marplots, and gives them the opportunity to slide into stronger international positions than ever, in the actual control of involved but unsuspecting governments?

Will it not be entirely possible and safe for such a conflict to be precipitated on recommendations of the highest patriotism, arousing the most idealistic instincts of the dupes to be so compromised?

Of course this is all conjecture. But it does supply piece after piece of mosaic to work out an interesting jigsaw puzzle of a rainy afternoon—such infantile contraptions being the order of the day just now to keep the citizenry from thinking . . .

OF THE war period and its aftermath, it is not the purpose of this hypothesis to speak. Whether America is involved in that war from the motives so widely publicized, is not of moment. In this mythical jigsaw puzzle we are putting together, we have the circumstance that the United States did find herself in such a conflict, and that being a participant she had to draw on her accumulated resources not only to fight her own fight, but to show a neighborly compassion for her sister nations, and their post-war financial "plights" on foreign continents.

Thus under the camouflage of a manufactured idealism, we may theorize that golden wealth goes pouring out of America—or if not out of America, into "earmarked" consignments or deposits that thereafter are no longer to be a part of the theoretical federal treasure. True, vast cartels of the marplots see fit to keep tremendous amounts within the confines of the United States, but actual title to them has passed into their hands, and furthermore no one seems to know exactly where—and in what amounts—that appropriated wealth is cached. At least we may assume hypothetically that as a "reserve" for American industrialists, their pooled funds have ceased to exist or be a factor in their affairs.

Instead of remaining a treasure hoard for the general use of American Business, it becomes in substance a treasure hoard for the financing of the machinations of foreign governments, in turn directed by foreign money-bunds.

THAT millions of dollars were made by agents of the cabalists out of that war personally—or by racial groups—is not of consequence in this whole fantastic picture we are painting for our afternoon amusement. Something more pernicious now enters our theorizing.

Again we must conjecture that perspicacity functions, and these exploiters of the Federal Reserve and the United States Treasury perceive that eventually a roar of disillusion must go up from those industrial and banking groups of dupes who have been thus bilked. Something will be done about it. It is entirely within the range of possibilities that some obstreperous journalist may get the ear of the nation, call attention to the necromantic facts, and make popular the slogan: "Make the rascals give it back!"

What better way to forestall such an uncomfortable possibility than to proceed at once to subtilely alter the nature of protective legal institutions, and the general legislative structure, and see to it that an officialdom is set up whose functioning makes it impossible for anything drastic in the way of reprisals to be possible?

But again, should it not be done in such a way that it occurs as a "natural"—as advertisers say in merchandising—that is, in such a manner that men think they are obtaining certain results, and help toward their accomplishment, whereas in actual practice the results are neatly the opposites.

In other words, if Constitutional measures which had been purposely set up by the forefathers to protect their progeny against this sort of bilking, are to be discredited and successfully abolished, our conjecture will have it that the populace must assent to, and help in it under the illusion that it is going to be quite as remedial in their mysterious economic troubles as they suppose the Federal Reserve Act is, to begin with.

That deceit and chicane is being perpetrated upon them in a more satanic fashion than ever before, leading them to still deeper abysses, must never be discussed—or even whispered. To do so would be to employ "animosity." The full force of agencies of publicity must be turned upon the gullible citizenry and it must be convinced that the whole miasma of distress—and its correction—has been naught but "natural economic conditions" resulting from the recent carnage.

But before such institutions can be altered, it is submitted as part of our hypothesis that the public mind must be prepared in advance.

THE ITEM should be allowed in all of this silly nonsense that following the war, opportunity-on-opportunity must come for those who have muscled their way into all the embattled governments to facilitate their international strategizings by operating as chess players with the world for a board. We cannot see them working under the inhibitions of the restraints of laws and customs of individual nations, set up to preserve their integrity and "selfish" prosperity.

So then, most mysteriously to the uninformed but not at all mysterious in the hypothesis we are building for the enlightened, we find financial disruption following on financial disruption. The war has been of such magnitude, of course, that the industries of whole continents have been rocked to their very foundations. All of this can only have the effect of creating a state of great confusion and panic among the plain citizenry of the nations involved, and particularly in America. Men must be worn down in their thinking processes to where their sheer mental weariness with the complications of it all, render them incapable of thinking clearly. Then again, the size of the factors in the international situation can only have the effect of frightening and bewildering the plain citizens, who only pray for the chance to earn a decent living and be allowed to raise their families in peace. Bewilder and frighten them sufficiently and they will easily become hysterical and open to any suggestion that promises them a seeming respite.

NOW, let us say, comes the supreme moment for completing the real pillaging of the western world, whose wealth has first been "moved against" with the successful passage of the Federal Reserve Act of 1914.

Stupendous sums have been "loaned" abroad to rehabilitate world commerce—sums so gigantic that according to Ogden Mills, erstwhile Secretary of the Treasury, "the Federal Reserve broke down." It has been made of note—and therefore is not conjecture—in the Congressional Record, that without Congressional authority, without the rank and file of the unsuspecting citizenry dreaming of what was afoot, 320 billions of dollars were illegally, unlawfully, and therefore criminally, taken from the United States strongbox over a four-year period and segregated to the uses of the international cabalists!

Think of it!

Money which had originally been willingly pooled—back in 1914 and subsequently—for the protection of American industry in times of stress, was shipped instead, either out of the country or supinely handed over to agents of the alien money-bund, who obviously must have a racial interest to advance in what they were consummating, since they were already rich beyond the dreams of avarice. But to return strictly to hypothesis—

It is all so Gargantuan of size and concept that the average citizen cannot grasp it.

Of course not!

That too, is part of the cabal.

Therein lies the safety of the marplots.

IT IS logical to theorize that a period of industrial stalemate, will set in, mischievously called a Depression. This can be the better accredited if we include the surmised that along with a plotted shortage of money, a period of dizzy speculation is first encouraged and manipulated, so that the individual who has been risking his personal savings in a get-rich-quick orgy will be caught in a falling market and rendered financially supine in his own private assets.

With this speculation period terminated by a cataclysmic stock-market crash, Americans must necessarily find themselves under the necessity for turning back to industry to recoup their losses. Whereupon a sickening discovery will be made that truly insufficient capital is available on which to transact the nation's volume of trade. What has become of it? We saw it hypothetically shipped overseas, of course, or transferred into the banking houses of the alien cabalists—anyhow, safely removed from the jurisdiction of the ordinary business man or purchasing consumer. Getting it back by force will mean precipitating another war, and we may conjecture that Americans are too spent and bedeviled with the first war to rush purblindly into a second.

These foreign shipments, designated as "loans," suppose we conjecture as coming to maturity. As payment dates approach, let us imagine that policies of attrition are brought into play. Howls of protest go up from foreign "governments"—which we must remember have been effectively infiltrated long since by the cabalists' representatives—that they cannot make settlements without "upsetting the recovery of all nations" or "rending the fabric of international trade and credit."

The whole thing, we must conjecture, is timed and manipulated so that kingdoms and republics are educated to accept that settlements never can be made. In order that the marplots may keep their evilly-gotten lootings, a hue and cry must go all over the world: "Cancel the war debts in the interests of humanity!"

But here and there are those who see through the hoax and are insistent that something be done to make the rascals give it back. What expedient shall we turn to, in our hypothesis? Just this—

Change—as we have theorized—the whole character of officialdom and Constitutional government in the countries involved. Set up forms of "government" in which a bilked people shall have no protection or recourse to restitution.

And how to do that so we shall incur no reprisals or exposures?

How but the process of hammering down the economic life of the nation to such penury of its citizenry that it will assent to anything to have the status quo of livelihood restored?

And how to succeed in that successfully? Simple enough!

First place a Man of Straw, a Do-Nothing Official, at the head of officialdom. Then when his policies are emasculated and shown to be worse and worse stalemates, succeed him with a Man of Action, a Roarer and a Growler, who shall everywhere be heralded as Paving the Way to Salvation!

By that time is not our conjecture sound that the bilked populace will assent to most anything suggested, and docilely acquiesce to the Ship of State being piloted to the port that the marplots have planned from the beginning?

So let us theorize that Moratoriums begin to be the order of the moment—and the busy wheels of American industry turn slower and slower. As the Great Halt approaches, these adolescent and unsuspecting Americans begin to castigate the Man in the White House as a hopeless incompetent. Through four years of increasing dolor and confusion, he is libeled as a dunderhead or a pernicious obstructionist.

But remember we are hypothesizing that all of these tactics are part of the Plan!

Again we emphasize, if the Americans can be made sufficiently hysterical over a Do-Nothing-of-Consequence policy in high quarters over a sufficient period of time, in the exact ratio of their tenure will the victims leap with equal hysteria to support the policies of a successor, regardless of their Constitutional or economic soundness, and solely because they promise any sort of palliative.

Thus do we contemplate a new administration.

It will achieve Great Things. It will offer a New Deal. And if our hypothesis takes account of beautiful maneuverings and timings, we may expect a nation of unsuspecting Little Red Riding Hoods rallying about this new roster of officialdom, to support blindly—and with the aid of a satrap press, screen, and radio—any measures that will return conditions similar to those that maintained before the Beginning of the Bilking.

But it is not the avowed policies of a well-known political party with which the nation now has to treat. Let us interpolate here a so-called Brain Trust, recruited and coached for its role by representatives of the same scheming elements that have planned the nation's vassalage as early as 1907.

And what does this Brain Trust at once propose?

It proposes in effect a new form of government, in which representative Constitutionalism plays almost no part excepting to give a certain abstract authorization to the machinery of the change.

Examined clinically and eruditely, let us hypothesize that this "new" form of government is naught but camouflaged Sovietism, as Sovietism is understood and accepted at present by the political economists of the world in general.

It is government intrinsically by a bureaucratic industrial-committee system, responsible to no one but a little handful of dictators at its top.

In the American case, however, we may contend that we have altered the spelling of the word Bureaucracy, and that the word is now spelled Baruchracy.

"Hoorah!" cries the Business Adolescents. "Here at last is action!"

IT IS action. And what action! To get proper Soviet-Committee Systems properly set up, so that the shift from the Constitutional forms to baruchracy will be as painless and unnoted as possible, newspapers, motion pictures, and the radio are theoretically employed to manufacture hysterical acclaim for a national industrial recovery act. A domineering army top sergeant of the Gentile persuasion, is retained—in our conjecturing—to intimidate and bulldoze those recalcitrant industrial groups who might have gone along doing business quite efficiently and prosperously if a government infiltrated with alien schemers can only be made to keep its mischievous fingers out of their affairs and restore the loot from which these American adolescents have theoretically been swindled.

But let us go further—still in our theorizing!

It is conceivable in all this silly romanticizing that there may yet be reprisals to occur to the plotters when the shift is made—however, unostentatiously—from the republican forms of representative government to soviet industrial committeeships, all accountable to him who controls as dictator this American baruchracy.

For instance, we should not forget that despite the beggarings of millions of the common people by the attrition policies that have been, hypothetically, the order of the past 15 years, there are nevertheless thousands of affluent Americans of the Gentile persuasion still left in their positions at the heads of corporations and private businesses of size.

It should go without saying that these are a deadly menace—in the time of the Shift from Constitutionalism to Baruchracy—in that they not only command considerable wealth still remaining to them, but also the loyalty of tens of thousands of employees who are native fellow Christians.

These must be smashed, ruined, gutted, abolished!

In all America there must not be left one business magnate of prominence, able to command weapons financial or human to offer an obstructive front to the baruchrats. How to "get" them? As all of this is only theory, we are at liberty to let our imaginations run riot. Therefore consider this—

AS THE predominant originators and projectors of this national industrial recovery act of ours are obviously of one race, welded into the same solidarity which has characterized the cabalists from the beginning, let us theorize as follows:

In order that this incoming system of soviet committeeships may successfully check infractions of the stipulations laid down for the "recovery" of industry, weekly reports must be made to that committee-system: of number of machines in operation in manufacturing plants, numbers of employees engaged and the amount of wages paid them, amounts of goods made, sold, and shipped or not shipped—all the rest of the personal and private trade secrets that are the real ammunition in the competitive business fight in any line of industry.

This mass of business secrets of the most sacred character, formerly guaranteed inviolate under the Continental Fathers' brand of constitutionalism, must be submitted under penalty of the Chekka's brand of blacklisting and blackmail to this arising and strengthening baruchracy.

In the Soviet Committeeship for handling and compiling all this mass of the most intimate trade secrets from Gentile firms in every corner of the nation let us put a theoretical personage—say Dr. Alexander Sachs. About him let us build a great machinery of "statisticians," all of one racial persuasion—or at least Gentile "fronts" for statisticians all of one racial persuasion. Let us consider that no water-tight safeguards are created over the business confidences and Gentile commercial secrets—that they will be kept inviolate in the federal archives. The point for our conjecturing and theorizing must be, that a way is found to make those Gentile firms reveal weekly the extent of their business activities and the details of their traffickings. We need go no further than this for providing a way to undermine, emasculate, checkmate, sap, and ruthlessly pull down to personal ruin every Gentile business head who commands any fiscal or personnel resistance to imminent baruchcratic sovietism.

Less than one year should be required to utilize this reported information in such a way that there is not a single Gentile left in a commercial high-place!

Who then is going to be left to say that Constitutionalism shall protect the rights of the average American citizen, and that these Industrial Recovery Committees shall not continue to govern the country with all the resplendent success of their duplicates in Bloody Russia?

Who then is going to criticize this final working-out of the Federal Reserve Act of 1914?

Who then is going to criticize its "loanings" and shipments of funds abroad—illegally?

Who then is going to oppose "cancellation of the war debts in the interests of international amity?"

Who then is going to "make the rascals give it back?"

WITH this ruthless system of baruchracy in full control, our theoretical spoliation must be utter and complete.

No one can arise anywhere along the line to protest, because he can then be accused of working against the welfare of all the citizens and "retarding recovery." No one can ink a pen and write a pamphlet without violating the ukase that any criticisms of what has been achieved can only be presented "without animosity." No one can point an outraged finger at venality in high places without being guilty of sedition, or criminal defamation of pious officialdom. No one can call attention to the uniform nationality of the exploiters without opening himself to a blistering castigation for "race prejudice," "religious persecution" or "inciting to race hatred" . . .

The system is perfect!

No matter how one looks at this romantic hypothesis we have built up, it is triumphantly self-protective.

Of course there is one uncomfortable possibility which the baruchcrats may have overlooked: a great body of enlightened men who have "tumbled" to it all, and who may be working undercover to purge the whole land of one racial element which they "venomously" conclude responsible for much that has happened.

Time enough to cope with that problem when they confront it, however. The same elements coped with it in Russia—one million, eight hundred thousand cold-blooded murders being the means by which it was met.

However, to keep the general citizens terrorized against any possibility of stark anarchy—accepting baruchracy as the only possible alternative against chaos—there is always the Communist Arm of the baruchcrats held in reserve, financially supported for action as duress may be needed, made to appear the antagonists of baruchracy while all the time it is merely its spawn and sabotage offspring.

The populace will, of course, be utterly bedeviled in its wits, as to how this Communist Arm can prosper when its objectives seem paradoxical and antithetical to the best capitalistic interests of the baruchcrats. But that too, can be considered as the most astute strategy of all. Merely transfer the Communist leaders and sympathizers into the personnel of the various baruchcratic committees as now being set up, and thereby will the teeth of sabotage be withdrawn as the interests of the leaders and sympathizers may appear.

After all, they are only demagogues and ranters because they now are "out" and want to get "in." Give them full chance to get "in" and they need not be considered as factors worthy the loss of one night's sleep.

THUS have we hypothesized, thus have we theorized—all without the slightest "animosity," merely calling attention in caprice to some of the potentialities of the national industrial recovery program epitomized by placards of the Soviet Eagle now displayed in shop windows.

Of course an honest and impeccable federal administration binds itself to keep inviolate all the Gentile business secrets and data submitted weekly in the hysterically constructive Code Reports.

Some Gentiles who are "seditious" enough to withhold their signatures from these commercial death-warrants—as they angrily stigmatize them—may try to "get away with it." It is but a question of time, how long they can hold out against the official Big Stick. A representative assembly of the people's spokesmen had its federal patronage withheld, or those "representatives" were otherwise "persuaded" to give full "Democratic" support to the Administration, until they had conceded sufficient dictatorial authority to the Executive to make his ukases of import to these rascalitnant elements. That this might become possible when the baruchcrats wanted dictatorial powers that they might set aside the Constitution, was undoubtedly the reason why the Forefathers set up the Two-Party political system in America—so we can surmise.

But we do know that these Industrial Recovery Committees are now the real governing power in our democratic national domain, and anyone who says them nay finds retribution swift and sure—providing the increasing baruchcracy can find ways to "get" him.

To make certain that these Industrial Recovery Committees do have full baruchcratic powers, Gentile industrialists all over America are fairly falling over their own feet to get up to the federal table and agree to turn their most intimate business data and commercial secrets over to one whose analyses have largely governed conclusions, Dr. Alexander Sachs, late of the Lehman Corporation, or the Jewish Babson's.

So this, fellow Christians, is our pleasant persiflage concerning N-R-A.

Smart business men, these Jews! Gentiles take umbrage against them, and strive to work up race hatred, merely because they are jealous of Jewish success, premised purely on the assiduous attention Jews give to their business.

What more can be said?

Shall Gentiles spill all their business secrets to Judah? Is there any good reason why they should not, considering that Providence made Gentiles so gullible?

So we say with the friendliest of smiles on our faces: Step up at once, you Christian Egyptians, and put your John-Hancocks on the Jewish dotted line!

"Arise and Manifest" . . .

MY DEARLY BELOVED: We are truly together, there are none who do us mischief.

2 Those who fared forth to conquer are humbled, but let us not rejoice in their confusions; rather let us give them our loving help and sympathy.

3 I say to you, we have no concern with the bargainings of business: greater are the mischiefs afoot for our combatting.

4 There are those who make profits from martial equipments: I am ever desirous that they shall be humbled, I am ever concerned that they shall see that Peace is the watchword of the times and heaven detesteth the works which they do.

5 There are none to thwart them but me, my beloved: I am determined to show the world that Peace is that watchword indeed;

6 I am determined to show the world that those who gain wealth by the slaughter of men on fields of battle shall be mocked.

7 There are others who care not; they are a great army that standeth by until guns roar, and then bewaileth its helplessness.

8 There are others who seek after Peace by legislation: they believe that Law maketh Justice; they rant at law-makers, yet manifest no eagerness to make those statesmen do otherwise than make more and more laws, until the Law breaketh down.

9 There are still others who come to me crying: Master, save us lest we perish; yet they do no constructive thing to save themselves.

10 I am coming to them indeed, but not in compassion for their weakness; I am come to rebuke them sternly for crying a cry when performance openeth to them.

11 The world maketh mock of those who sincerely hunger after peace; it crieth: Weakness! Weakness!

12 It setteth brother against brother in disputation; it maketh the blind to be blinder and the sufferers to suffer the more.

13 I am coming to rebuke those who would loudly cry Peace! yet who make no effort to demand that it be actual.

14 I am coming to rebuke those who would loudly cry Peace! yet who only desire it that the enemy which they serve should arm himself surely.

15 Journalists there are who print words of Peace having war in their desires; preachers of Peace there are in pulpits who make a loud outcry when war cometh on them that the communities they serve may be spared from the enemy.

16 All, all, my beloved, are eaters of carrion: behold I am coming to make clean their banquet.

17 Those who wish for war shall be confounded; behold those who wish for strife for the sake of strife shall henceforth be numbered among the unclean.

18 Behold I shall prepare a holy banquet and deny it to those who say: Let us have peace, that he who maketh war

Q OUT of the vastness of Cosmos the Psychic Antennae tunes in on a Voice. If the Word was made flesh and spake once to men, how much stronger may be its pronouncements when the handicaps of the flesh are perished? If we cannot believe this, to Whom or What shall we look for authority of commitments like the following?

may make his preparation.

19 I am coming because I know mine own, and mine own know the love which I bear for their cleanness: I say they shall aid me;

20 Mock shall be made of the eaters of carrion.

21 Dearly beloved, millions there are who look to you for cheer in this darkness on humanity; they have no shepherd to lead them to waters of hope, they walk in dry places with tormented tongues.

22 Those who do watch from mountains of attainments know of their plight and send you to lead them.

23 Ten thousand times ten thousand have been the prayers addressed to my spirit, blessing you for ministering even as ye have ministered.

24 Think ye I have not smiled? think ye I have not wept? think ye I have not remembered our pact a thousand prayer-times, that ye be doing a work that is blessed?

25 Dearly beloved, know that ye do go from field to field; the work of ministering hath ennobled thousands; thousands have listened and known you for my servants.

26 Greatly have I smiled when I recalled the pact, that ye shouldst be those on whose heads my benediction is invoked.

27 Therefore, beloved, whilst the iron be hot and the work groweth stoutly, I remind you that the pact be but begun, that the work of Peace goeth forward to conclusion.

28 Arise and manifest! shew the faith that is in you! for verily, that is faith, that ye do the works of my Father who sendeth the rain on the just and unjust, that flowerings spring up where the rain hath a washing.

29 I beg of you, beloved, be warned and prepared: I do call on you for works;

30 I do call on you, beloved, to stand before kings: I call you to great documents that shew men your talents: I call you to stand in great assemblies and testify of me.

31 Your voices and pens shall inflame men's hearts to righteousness: peace shall come to earth and my people know good will from land unto land.

32 This is my message to you, beloved: that ye gird up your loins as I give you the means; I tell you concretely what must be done, who must be visited, what must be said.

33 I tell you where to go and find the men who shall place upon the world's statutes: War is accursed, carnage is ended, the Prince of Peace is prince of this earth and the warriors who live henceforth in men's hearts shall be those who do battle for the welfare of races!

34 I am your lord and brother and friend and comrade: we connive to save the world from itself: great is my joy that we be met together in this season, that ye know me for myself.

PEACE.

The Battle Score of Futile Baruchcracy . . .

WHENEVER you see an article in the Zionist-censored press, treating facetiously some news report that has come out of Germany, rest assured the report must have basis in some fact.

The latest is the story of the alleged Jewish Plot printed on Page 12 of the August 16th issue of The New York Times,—the international Cahilla's official apologist for Jewry in the United States—and guardian of Jewish morals generally in this Land of the Free for those who are Brave:—

Concurrently with this belated termination of an injustice, there comes today a new attempt to arouse the German public to the defense of Nazidom, which nobody except itself has threatened. The Nazi labor organ publishes a weird tale of an international Jewish plot against Germany.

In any other country such wild imaginings would evoke laughter. But not here. With appropriate photographs of the supposed principals it is spread over the front page of Der Deutscher.

Briefly, the tale purports to reveal an international plot against the Hitler regime, hatched by "Soviet Jews and International Masons." Just what the plotters are going to do, and how they are going to do it, is left to the imagination.

The plotters, however, are alleged to be Maxim Litvinoff, Russian Foreign Minister; Leon Trotsky, Russian exile and supposed enemy; Andre Tardieu, former French Premier; Bernard M. Baruch, "American Jew and authorized agent of Roosevelt," and I. Z. Suritz, Russian Ambassador to Turkey.

The plot consists of the allegation that M. Trotsky "secretly" met M. Litvinoff at Royat, France, a fortnight ago when M. Suritz also was present and at the same time that Mr. Baruch was taking the cure at nearby Vichy—which is at least 400 miles away.

M. Tardieu was said to have been at Royat about that time, which probably will be news to him, although it would not be remarkable, Royat being a popular watering place. He is the "Free Masons" in the plot and he is dragged in because French participation in any plot against Germany is obviously necessary.

What they all decided upon is not revealed, but Der Deutsche concludes its revelations of nothing, with the call to all good true Germans to "smash the plotters" and expose Russia's mendacious double-dealing, as exhibited by that mass-butcher, Trotsky.

The story may or may not be true, but we say again, we have our suspicions of anything which The New York Times treats facetiously. God's Chosen People are so little given to joking about temporal affairs, and take life with such a materialistic seriousness, that when they do drag in humor by the heels it is obviously an attempt to belittle an unpleasant truth which they do not know how to treat with otherwise.

We have every reason to believe that the American Disraeli went to Europe to meet Bronstein and Finkelstein. Whether Tardieu joined in their conversations is beside the point. Russia is reported to be on the verge of a mighty upheaval and massacre of all the Jews who in their own turn have been massacring to their heart's content since 1919 without accomplishing much more than pulling the country down to absolute chaos. Of course, if only some more money can be mulct out of the United States Treasury by devious routes, the Oligarchy of Blood may go on for a little while longer. But it must halt sometime. The ugly fact remains that the average American hasn't much more money to put into the United States Treasury, the Federal Reserve Banks, or the business tills of those eager tradesmen who assume that all required to bring back prosperity is to hang a card on his plateglass window containing the picture of a bird. Of course here and there are groups of Hebrews who do not seem to be encountering much distress in this Depression, and who think it quite worthwhile to load up with Uncle Sam's mortgages on his future, inasmuch as they plan obviously to become Uncle Sam Himself and are therefore quite safe in putting funds into his—and their own—pockets. . . . but otherwise the "Russians" can't get what Americans haven't got.

Yes, it's well worth the time of the American Disraeli to "take the cure" at Vichy and perhaps pow-wow with the heads of the Murder-Bund to see how the Imminent Retribution can be averted.

AND apropos of the Murder-Bund, we understand that Col. Raymond Robbins is back from Russia and hobnobbing considerably about the Bureau of Animal Husbandry in Washington . . . wherein lies a tale not quite ready for publication as yet.

This is the same Colonel Robbins who recently had an attack of amnesia and was found by a small boy living in a mountain shack half a dozen miles from Silver Shirt Headquarters . . . as Silver Shirts mayn't have had the story told them of exactly why Colonel Robbins is suspected of "losing his mind," consider the following interesting hypothesis on what happened:

Herbert C. Hoover, the "good friend" of Colonel Robbins, was running for re-election in a nation disgruntled by his inability to pull the nation from the miasma of penury into which it was being pushed . . . he wanted to carry certain Prohibition States in the middlewest . . . one Daniel Poling, who runs the Christian Herald for a heavy Jewish bloc of stockholders, apparently conceived a gorgeous publicity-stunt . . . the last man with whom Colonel Robbins is alleged to have talked before his "disappearance" was Alexander Gomberg—likewise known as Ginsberg and many other aliases as it suits him—former pal of Leon Trotsky when the latter's name was Bronstein . . . more about this Gomberg later.

Robbins waved adieu to Gomberg, turned about, walked to the street corner—metaphorically speaking—and vanished off the face of the Gentile earth . . . in the office of the Hebrew-financed Christian Herald, Dan Poling ordered an airplane warmed up, to go to and fro over the Prohibition States and make a frantic and piteous search for the "vanished" Colonel who was such a zealous Prohibition worker and therefore the "friend" of Hoover . . . every time Poling took a look earthward, "searching" for the Colonel, the Gentiles were to hear a blast of sentimentality about the touching Prohibition friendship for Hoover.

But somehow or other the whole thing misfired! . . . Prohibition Gentiles didn't get at all hot and bothered about the "missing" status of the Great Prohibitionist who was so deeply in Hoover's friendship, thereby making Hoover a Great Prohibitionist as well, for whom the Prohibition States should whoop it up at the ballot boxes . . . the Prohibition Gentiles merely said: "Robbins missing, eh? Well, well!" and went out to feed their livestock on a surplus of corn that might better have gone into the bellies of hungry human beings . . . so a brilliant small boy "discovered" Robbins down in the Smoky Mountains, Mrs. Robbins was sent for, and after quite a spell the "Colonel" recognized her, took a shave, was whisked away in an automobile, and the next thing we hear of him doing is scurrying away to Soviet Russia, from which he comes back to hob-nob with the officials in the Department of Animal Husbandry.

Incidentally, along with this need for livestock in the Land of the Murder-Bund, watch your Zionist-controlled newspapers for reports of excessive amounts of livestock on American farms "for which food cannot be found" . . . the Associated Press carried a news story recently that 4,000,000 little pigs faced slaughter because of a "drought" in the particular section of the nation from which the report was forwarded . . . maybe it was true, but maybe too there's a Santa Claus . . . we choose to believe there is plenty of dirty work going on at the cross roads to denude American farms of livestock that they may find their way to the Land of the Murder-Bund, being of more consequence there than on American farms . . . and the American Gentiles continue to pay the bill.

All of which transfers the thought-wave to the Administration's brilliant scheme the first of the summer for Conservation Camps of our Youthful Unemployed . . . they made great material for News Weekly "shots" to help add to the President's "popularity," but has anyone heard anything of consequence about them, now that they have served their Boost-Roosevelt purpose?

THERE seems to be one element in our population who has heard plenty about those camps that were established—that is, those good American citizens living in the vicinity of some of these noble attempts at rehabilitation—and the following story ties in uniquely with the reality of the Jewish press censorship . . . the following letter from a Silver Shirt in Ohio tells its own sordid story—

I have recently had a striking demonstration of the very real press censorship that exists here in America at present. I received a letter dated August 2 from a good friend of mine now living at Virginia City, Montana. The "Madison Camp" referred to is a camp of the Citizens Conservation Corps located on the Madison River in the same Montana County in which Virginia City is located. I quote:

"Well, I will give you some information that you have not seen in any newspaper: an incident that happened over near the Madison Camp. A young Forest Ranger and his wife are located nearby and have been stationed there for several years. One morning about three weeks ago the Ranger left for a trip over his beat. Having forgotten something, he rode back home an hour later. On nearing his home, he heard his wife screaming. He ran into the house and found seven of these CCC toughs attacking his wife. With his automatic pistol he shot two of them through the head, two through the heart, and another in the chest. Two of them got away and have not been seen since, although he is still looking for them. The first four dropped dead in their tracks, the fifth died before he was removed from the house. This is not fiction, for the sheriff here in town returned here and filed this report with the County Attorney. After a hearing, I understood the Ranger was freed and voted a vote of praise by the entire population in the neighborhood.

Further on in the letter my friend said: "A peculiar thing about this shooting fray, not a word of it was printed in any newspaper, even locally. However, several parties here in town drove up there and saw the bodies being soldered up in sheet-iron cases for transportation back East to the "bad lands" from which they came.

On thinking over the excerpts from my friend's letter, it strikes me that the Ranger would doubtless have reported this affair to his superiors, who in turn must have reported it to Washington. Also it must have been reported to CCC Headquarters at Washington, so some scores of governmental officials of various grades must know all about it. They all talk privately of affairs that are supposed to be kept under cover and therefore one can be sure that their families and friends must have whispered it around into ever widening circles. Also the families and friends of these young "monsters" back East surely have talked. So I believe the newspapermen connected with many of the intimidated dollar-worshipping rags over the country know the facts. Yet not a line seems to have been published. Have we a censorship?

Inasmuch as I have not mentioned my friend's name (he has to live in Virginia City!) I see no reason why you should not publish in Liberation this incident so highly suggestive of the high-handed arrogance of the secret censorship and also of the way the unfortunate neighbors of these CCC camps are guarded. The discipline and control of these "high-minded young citizens" must be marvelous!

OF COURSE the CCC camps looked fine in theory, and much stress was laid on the fact that "the morals of the fine clean youth of America must be preserved" by returning them back to nature. But where was the agency that passed on the personnel of those allotted to the camps, and what possibilities did the camps possess of allocating gangs of strong-armed hoodlums in defenseless localities where later they might serve to intimidate the citizenry when the transfer from Constitutionalism to Baruchcracy took place in these torn and prostrate United States? Listen to another letter coming from Silver City, Idaho:—

The "boss" here was in Boise the other day when a train of the CCC was in town. He said that the biggest percentage of them looked like Jews or foreigners and that they acted like they owned the town, standing around and making remarks to most of the girls and women who passed and making his blood boil. He said he had a hard time keeping his hands off them. They also tried to crash several private parties there that night, so that the citizens had to call in the police.

TO SWING from Idaho back to Washington, D. C., suppose you watch a certain development in our United States Supreme Court . . . a new vacancy comes up this fall, and do you know who the individual is, alleged to be slated for appointment? . . . the gentleman is one Felix Frankfurter, "instructor" in economics in Harvard University, erstwhile Assistant Secretary of War, and now marked down as a "specialist" in the New Deal Department of Commerce . . . Mr. Frankfurter is also engaged in many other activities . . . he is the "angel" for the Popular Government League of Washington, which employs one Judson King to engage actively in what it pleases to call the "power fight," carefully preserving the power resources of the Unit-

A Match to the Fuse to the Powder Keg!

TELEGRAMS have been coming in to National Headquarters from irate employers in the field who fully realize just exactly what is meant by adherence to the N. R. A. Code. They are ready to refuse! Fines and imprisonment are staring them in the face. Are they patriots or are they not!

Thank heaven there are a few across this nation who will not submit to an alien domination. Do they see the N. R. A. as the setting up of Soviet Bureaucracies right here in America?!

Have they the personal evidence that the various N.R.A. bureaus are actually manned by a large percentage of Jewish Communists?

It is a matter of individual conscience, not a matter of "let George do it."

Many are asking whether or not it is merely coincidence that in the thirteenth chapter of Revelations there is the statement "that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark or the name of the beast?"

Those in the Silver Legion who have been conducting undercover research, have dynamite at hand a hundred times more potent than this magazine has yet revealed. A vast army of Christ men and women are rapidly organizing, determined that our country shall no longer be debauched nor pillaged, and that the rascals in high places shall be made to give the loot back!

The pulse is felt keenly at GHQ.

Free men cannot be shackled. As soon stop the waters of Michigan, Superior, Huron and Erie from their Niagara-plunge into the oceans of spiritual equality!

The Canadian Montreal Daily Star says in an editorial of August 9th. "Observers with any background of thought and study are simply stunned by the daring, the sweep, the bewildering multiplicity, the detailed definiteness, the dictatorial ruthlessness of the Roosevelt plans.

"They come so near to Russian executive control as to send shivers down the back of any old-fashioned laissez faire Britisher who may still be extant. Imagine telling a merchant how many men he must employ, what he must pay them, how many hours he may permit them to work, that, in fact, he must increase their pay while cutting down their—and his—output, that he may not advertise that he has better goods than anyone else, that—but for full particulars, see small bills."

"Imagine backing this with a threat that, if he either does not 'voluntarily'—no levity, please—submit his business to this intimate Government control or if he seeks to evade it, the Government will ruin him by canvassing the people from house to house to boycott him. If Washington hesitates to 'recognize' Moscow after this, it will surely be a case of one music teacher hating another."

In order to help take care of the expense of handling the large volume of new names which are sent in from the field for attention, it will help greatly if ten cents is included to cover the cost of mailing the necessary literature. Names accompanied by this small amount will receive first attention. Headquarters is overwhelmed with a tremendous volume of work, and with the financial condition as it is, this consideration from those in the field will help greatly in spreading the work.

A recent newspaper clipping states: "With the resignation of Secretary of the Treasury Woodin on September 1st regarded likely, it was asserted in the safest political gossip that his successor will be Governor Lehman of New York.

"Lehman was referred to frequently by the President as 'his right arm.' The tremendous problems facing the head of the Treasury Department make it understandable to the friends of the President why he is anxious to draft New York's Governor."

Dr. Anna Bogenholm Sloane draws attention to the fact that if you will look in the International Bankers Directory for 1932 which you should find in the Public Library, you will find that there are seven brothers or cousins by the name of Lehman, who hold important positions in as many of the International Banks in New York City, among them the House of Morgan, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the National City Bank, and the others that have been up for Congressional investigation. If you will look into the Jewish Who is Who you will find there are Jews by the name of Lehman in high positions in several Jew banks in Europe, who are connected with the said banks in New York City, among them the Morgan Co. of London. If you will investigate still further, you will find that it is due to these facts that President Roosevelt and Mr. Lehman were made Governor and Lieutenant Governor of New York State, and that Mr. Roosevelt was made President.

Even our Public Libraries are no longer the instruments of free speech!

There may be a private section of pornographic literature, under lock and key for the secret debauching of our youth; there may be a plethora of Communistic literature, but no Liberation, at least in Los Angeles!

One man writes: "Two of our public attaches have told me that the Library no longer takes Liberation because some people got into a controversy over it in the Library.

"I said: 'Why did they not throw out the controversialists, instead of the magazine?' But of course she who told me did not know. I shall ask the Library Board that question."—P. C. Los Angeles

Another complaint arrives at GHQ "Just when I am becoming interested in reading and introducing Liberation to others, by taking several copies at a time on my Library Card and loaning them to my relatives and friends, the 'powers that be' give the order to the Librarian, 'Liberation is getting too radical to permit it in this library any more.' Not a copy to be had. What next?"—G. Los Angeles

The question has come up from many of our leaders in the field—strong, ardent, organizers of the Silver Legion—as to whether this is a Spiritual or a political movement. It is easy to understand why such a question could be asked. Many think of Spirituality as consisting of fine-spun theories and sentimentalities.

For the benefit of those who want a clear statement from GHQ as to our policy in this matter let it be stated clearly and finally that the Silver Legion is a practical organization dealing definitely with the economic and political factors of our nation.

So that all may understand, it is even suggested that these paragraphs be included in the services of your next meeting.

The Scripts of the Liberation, out of which this practical work has grown were signposts calling the hosts of Christ to attention. Now we are buckling down to work. We are proving the spiritual fundamentals which have drawn us together. We know that Spirit which is of the Christ as an intimate alliance with All-Knowledge, penetrating as accurately into the core of humanity and the cancer eating thereon, as into the heart of any individual.

Orthodoxy of any shape or fashion has nothing to do with this fundamental basis of the religion which is Christ. It cannot be repeated too often that Great Love is firmly practical.

A few words from the immortal work of Thomas Lake Harris, the great psychic of the nineteenth century, aptly illustrates the point:

*The nearer to the practical men keep,
The less they deal in vague and abstract things.*

. . . God writes his thoughts

In facts, in solid orbs, in living souls!

His revelation is the concrete world.

. . . Oh had Jesus taught

In windy tropes, or veiled his burning thought

In unintelligible abstract phrase

He had not been the savior of mankind.

He spake as never man spake, clear direct!

His speech was logic set on fire with love;

Men heard him as the logic of their own souls!

The pedant talks to pedants like himself!

Mere theorizing is the idler's trade,

The madman's boast, the trickster's commonplace,

The dreamer's castle floating in the brain.

*. . . NO INTELLECTUAL FORM
IS ABLE TO RECEIVE THE DEITY
SAVE AS A CRYSTAL DRAWS THE

The Silver Legion is therefore a select group, composed of people who are no longer seeking spirituality. They have already found it deep within themselves and are not content with anything less than action, and action has to do with the practical factors of politics and economics. They have made it their business to conduct research into the facts behind the Christ Democracy as given by Mr. Pelley. They are energetically acquainting themselves with the international Jewish cabal, which has been growing in power through the centuries, and which has now fastened its tentacles upon every avenue of public life.

Theories, beautiful abstractions are the relics of their spiritual childhood. They are proceeding to actually help mankind, emulating that supreme epitome of practicality, Jesus' life in Galilee.

Hands of flesh and blood must take up the Scourge of Cords with which Jesus drove the money changers from the temple and wield it effectively in cleansing our nation of those who have debauched and pillaged the culture and civilization which those of our blood and race have reared.

We are dealing directly with the most complex and astutely complete organization on the face of the earth—that of the Anti-Christ—working down through the International Bankers in the literal “behind the scenes” control of our government; the complete control of all world propaganda through the press, the radio and the movie; the subsidization of the Federal Churches of Christ in America, the Republican and Democratic parties, as well as Communism and Socialism; the infiltration of subversive activity through our colleges; atheism, Buchmanism, and a hundred groups too numerous to mention.

All of it is a vast net-work inconceivable to the average mind who has yet to study the evidence, complete and staggering in its incontestable reality. Its most common disguise is a saintly purity, only slowly and adroitly maneuvering the unsuspecting Aryan gentile into doctrines that are subversive and destructive to the ideals of our forefathers and to the Spirit of Christ. It is a vast mosaic of knowledge which every member of the Silver Legion must possess, and which is integrally allied with the purely spiritual material given in the Scripts of the League for the Liberation. If you are a member of the Silver Legion in fact you will be helped to get it, at the behest of your own initiative.

Spirituality is a matter of degree. All people are Spiritual according to their breadth and depth of knowledge and understanding. From beginning to end, it is a dealing with Reality. It is a delusion and a snare that Great Spirituality can be built on mental abstractions or on anything less than constructive action, which must necessarily deal with the real issues. It has to do with the meat and marrow of life, as it throbs in the pulse of our beings, and as we discern it in the living essence which makes all things grow in ever widening degrees, until we catch it in the beating pulse of the great heart and soul of our Race, and then we peer beyond into the ecstasy of the living body of our God, the Father, with Whom we merge in Christ!

There is no other Reality and no other religion!
We make our lives the living flame of Christ!

ed States so they fall not into the hands of the predatory clique . . . one wonders where a mere college professor gets the financial wherewithal to “back” the activities of such an expensive organization as the Popular Government League . . . but with this suggested appointment to the Supreme Court, it is not difficult to add two and two together and discover they make four . . . Liberation has stoutly contended from the first that the American Jewish Soviet and its schemers meant ultimately to make our Supreme Court preponderantly Jewish . . . first there was Brandeis, alleged to have been appointed as the result of a situation in Mr. Wilson's affairs which millions of Gentiles would find interesting reading if they could get the details . . . then came Cardoza . . . now it's Frankfurter—if this aforementioned forecast has basis in fact . . . just suppose it were the Japanese who were thus succeeding to such Supreme legal jurisdiction in our nation? . . . suppose American citizens entered the Supreme Court to plead their cases before a bench on which sat three Nipponese Orientals! . . . how long would they stand for it? . . . the preponderance of Zionists, who have openly called themselves “a nation within a nation,” in this highest legal body is not only something to think about, it is something to indicate how inexorably the Jewish oligarchy is perfecting and strengthening its hold on America's institutions.

AND THIS calls up the question of just what the Jewish preponderance is, in the United States census . . . Hebrews let the Gentile citizenry believe that they comprise only 2.5 to 3 percent of our population, but why do they steadfastly fight all governmental attempts to have a Jewish census taken, or the United States census “broken down” to show accurately how many Hebrews are domiciled among us? . . . if this percentage of even 3 percent were accurate, that would mean, in a populace of 120,000,000 people a quota of only one Jew to every 40 Gentiles, taking into full account the great Jewish Ghettos of New York, Cleveland, Chicago, and other large cities . . . look about you on the streets of any American metropolis—or for that matter any representative town everywhere—and observe how many Jews you can recognize from their physiognomy or manners, and decide for yourself if there is only one person out of forty who is Jewish.

One of the outstanding phases in the life and career of the Zionist, Louis Marshal, the Jew who is alleged to have so “graciously” accepted the Ford “apology,” was his zealous endeavors to keep from having Jews tabulated accurately—just as Rabbi Stephen S. Wise has been most active in blocking any effective attempts at Alien Registration in this country . . . what facts which the Gentiles of America should know about, are being screened or suppressed by these determined attempts to keep the percentage of Jews in America unknown or unrecognized? Or is it possible that such a census would reveal how many Hebrews of foreign birth, who have never become naturalized, are in this country illegally?

That too, is something to tabulate on the blotter for future attention when Gentile America has come fully to its senses!

The Fight Gets Hotter! . . .

THIS is the first issue for the month of September, the season of fall has opened, Silver Shirts everywhere have vacations behind them.

Ruthlessly, inexorably, we approach the most eventful winter in the history of our Republic.

Make no mistake about it: as we approach the closing months of the year, with 1934 in prospect, we face the eventuality of a Great American Protectorate!

Understand us, we do not mean the brand of Jewish Protectorate which has crashed the gate into all our institutions and undertaken to "save" us from a plight which we believe and contend has been insidiously manufactured that its "cure" might be applied according to the megalomaniacal schemes of Bernard M. Baruch.

We are speaking of a Great American Protectorate of Christ Men that shall presently March openly in this nation and undertake the great purge of our debauched institutions, that true faith may be kept with the Continental Fathers who never meant that a haven of safety for the despised and oppressed of Europe should become nothing but a trash can for the human debris of other continents.

THE CROWNING absurdity of our age is the implication in any form that the thing which American Constitutionalism was supposed to mean in the world, should be set aside in these years from 1929 to 1936 for a system of Soviet Industrial Committees officered by adulators of the most pernicious syndicalists that modern times have projected.

These Jews forget themselves!

Who are they, to force their silly and pernicious theories on a mighty nation of 115,000,000 Christian Gentiles?

Have they ever governed themselves successfully?

What racial brain tumor impels them to shove themselves forward as general Fixits for the whole human species?

Because we Christians will not, as a race, stoop to the strategizings and maneuverings which have temporarily lifted them in a sort of nouveau riche aggrandizement to the present forefront of world affairs, how do they fancy themselves everywhere triumphant and the earth given into their hands in fulfillment of an ancient tribal prophecy?

They are slated to learn differently!

These Hebrews at Washington, and their servile Gentile eunuchs, may tamper with the machinery of the Ship of State and make it unseaworthy in the name of Recovery.

They may ridicule efforts at challenging them in the places of power into which they have intruded. They may jeer at organized efforts to unseat them and call attention to the impotency of such, because of an assumed financial impoverishment.

But it is not a battle of dollars which looms ahead—although dollars are by no means wanting from the Gentile ranks, if the disturbing facts could only be known.

Baruchcracy in this nation is going to meet its match, as the heavier and heavier demands made on various publishers throughout the world who specialize in anti-Semitic facts, attest to the investigation with an eye-opening attestation.

Self-respecting Hebrews who go about their business legitimately, and observe the laws of good citizenship, have little to fear from the Great Rumbling that is now becoming louder with each passing month.

But there is another caste of Hebrews whose activities are fully known to the utmost detail, who cannot hoodwink a growing army of intelligent and awakening Gentiles no matter what the ballyhoo and misrepresentation with which they are flooding the Zionist-censored press, who will presently be called to book in a manner which their present power-drunk arrogance will not let them suspect, much less accredit.

THIS American Government is going to be given back to its predominantly Christian and Gentile elements! It is going to be protected in its republican forms of true representation of the electorate, without any Grand-Orient Illuminism to assist in such representing. Our Constitution is going to be observed, excepting that a 20th Amendment is going to be added to it!

If the megalomaniacal Jews of the United States wish to see this 20th Amendment so worded as to make them aliens without voting or property privileges, let nothing halt them in their present baruchcratic program of camouflaged Sovietism!

Meanwhile, every loyal and outraged Christian patriot is called upon to double and triple the funds they have been placing at the disposal of their growing Christ Militia.

This is not such an admission of impoverishment as the incompetents assume.

It is a dignified reminder to dignified people that there can be no let-up in the flow of supply. Sovietism is not to weasel into America, camouflaged as committees for industrial recovery!

We are calmly purposeful to keep faith with the Forefathers!
