

MESSAGES OF SPIRITUAL ENLIGHTENMENT AND TRUTH

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will,
and it shall be done unto you.

St. John xv: 7.

WHAT THE BROTHERHOOD TEACHES

It teaches you how to KNOW the causes behind all effects.

It teaches you how to use the laws of health and long life.

It teaches that there is nothing supernatural; that everything is natural and operates according to fixed laws.

It takes away the veil of mystery from the hidden things of life and reveals them as they are.

It solves the mysteries of life and death, teaching what each is.

It directs you along the path of light, so that you will eventually find the master within, and become an illuminated Sun of God.

The Brotherhood teaches the fundamental and natural laws of the universe and how to operate them, so that life, light, and power become the NATURAL THINGS in your life.

a thought for today

I have done at length with dreaming:

Henceforth, O thou Soul of mine,
Thou must take up sword and gauntlet,
Waging warfare most divine.

Life is struggle, combat, victory!

Wherefore have I slumbered on,
With my forces all unmarshaled,

With my weapons all undrawn?
Oh how many a glorious record

Had the angels of me kept,
Had I done, instead of doubted,

Had I walked, instead of crept!
Yet, my soul! look not behind thee,

Thou hast work to do at last:
Let the brave toil of the present

Overarch thy crumbling past;
Build thy great acts high and higher,

Build them on the conquered sod
Where thy weakness first fell bleeding,
Where thy first prayer was to God.

THE BROTHERHOOD NEWSLETTER

Dear Students and Friends.

Again we are blessed with a beautiful day. We have never seen Autumn so colorful. The early frost has turned the leaves to colors of rust, brown, gold and red, a panorama of falls gay splendor.

Mr. Roland Buechner from Mount Horeb, Wisconsin, a Brotherhood student, is visiting here for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Riffle, from San Francisco, California, visited with us for several hours last week. We are always happy to see sincere interest and spiritual growth.

New members are joining from all over the country and many plans are being evolved for the years that are ahead of us. The spiritually minded people of America are turning toward the Spiritual Truths and are preparing for their attainment.

Another work day is scheduled at the Temple this Sunday at 9:00. Contributions, no matter how large or small, will be received and blessed, and placed in the New Temple Building Fund. All checks contributed for this purpose should be addressed to the Temple Building Fund. Whatever you are able to contribute, your help will be appreciated, as we start on many of the final steps toward completion of this huge task.

We had the pleasure of meeting with yet another of our fellow students and workers, this week. Mrs. Sylvia Howlett and her daughter, from Saskatoon, Sask., Canada, dropped by for a very brief but most pleasant visit. They had driven all the way down from Canada especially to see our Brotherhood and Retreat, and must return home soon. We hope they will find it possible to come again soon.

At the Sunday evening lecture Dr. William Harth spoke on a quotation from the Bible, "Know ye the truth and the truth will make you free." Dr. Harth pointed out that everything contains some aspect of truth, and we must see the truth in all things. Also, he reminded us that we see reflections of ourselves in others so, we must look for the expression of God in all things. For are not God and Truth one and the same.

In Truth,

(3rd & Concluding Part)

Traveling from home, turn not back, for the furies go back with you. Jesus said the same thing in "No man having put his hand to the plough and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God." (Luke 9-62.) Pythagoras meant the same thing applied to an inferior purpose. It was an exhortation to his followers to pass honorably through every degree of his system, that they might attain to perfection.

Turn away from thyself every edge - use prudence, and abstain from ungovernable passion.

Take off thy right shoe first -this also denoted prudence.

Pass not over a balance - referred to justice and equality.

Wear not a ring-bind not your soul with the chain of ignorance as the finger is bound by the ring, but be initiated into philosophy, which separates the mind from terrestrial considerations, and fits it for contemplation of high and immortal things.

Look not in a glass by candlelight- Beware of the state of twilight which exists in superficial knowledge; for this is worse than absolute ignorance; but search in the light, that you may find the true nature of Deity, and estimate its infinite perfections.

Lay not hold of every one readily with the right hand. Try and prove every one before you admit him into your society as a friend and brother.

Eat not the heart. Eat not the brain. Do not rend asunder the social bond which unites your society, by unnecessary disputes or useless divisions.

Put not meat in a chamber-pot. Communicate not your mysteries to an idle or foolish person, for such an one will disgrace and betray you.

Sleep not at noon. Shut not your eyes against the Light of Knowledge at a time when its hidden stores are most clearly displayed before you, lest the remainder of your life be passed amid the uncertain shadows of twilight, or the shades of midnight darkness, the mists of imperfect information, or the dark clouds of total ignorance.

OVERCOMING FEAR

by

Harlan Cox D.C.

It is the experience of most of us that overcoming various fears is a long struggle, and complete victory cannot be achieved all at once, but is a continual work and struggle against all fear.

The most important weapon with which to eliminate fear is definite purpose and that definite purpose should be for improvement of character and higher development which leads to wisdom and understanding. One great aid to development is to work for the education and growth of our fellowmen. We find that we cannot grow very much unless we help others grow too.

To do this successfully, we must live exemplary lives, - and yet, "be all things to all men."

Whatever your line of work, be thankful for the opportunity to work; do your duty in a fine workman like manner at all times and be cheerful about it, as the job you are doing at present and the way you do it, determines your future. We have to start our improvement right where we are at this minute. There is no other place to start. When we have started, keep at it, and continue rounding out our lives constructively in all directions.

To overcome all fear there is no letting down anywhere along the path, because when we have conquered one fear, we are confronted with others, so we have to use our intelligence and virtues to grow stronger than all fear. And when we have done this we are real children of God, and realize fully what is meant by "the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

"Our grand business undoubtedly is, not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand."

Carlyle

"Man, by his power of will, can externalize his own fears and some of the illusionary images that come from within himself and which may frighten him, but they are only illusions, self-created by the individual consciousness which passes into that plane. That is one of the predominate obstacles that lie in the way of the student."
