THE EMERALD TABLETS OF THOTH THE ATLANTEAN

By
DR. M. DOREAL

When the time came for Thoth to leave Egypt, he erected the Great Pyramid over the entrance to the Great Halls of Amenti, placed in it his records and certain mechanical devices. He then appointed from among the highest of his people, guards to protect his mighty secrets. In later times, the descendents of these guards became the Pyramid Priests while Thoth was deified as the God of Wisdom, the Recorder, by those in the age of darkness which followed his passing. In legend, the Halls of Amenti became the Under-world, the Halls of the Gods where the soul passed after death for judgment. During later ages the ego of Thoth passed into the bodies of men in the manner described in the Tablets. As such he incarnated three times, and in his last incarnation he was known as Hermes, the Thrice-born.

The Brotherhood publications has produced a most attractive binding of Dr. Doreal's translation with a cover design of the original Tablets. The demand for this book on the Atlantean Mysteries has been so great that it is in its eleventh edition.

Spiritual Realization And The Guru

By

DR. M. DOREAL

The Spiritual Consciousness of man is the manifestation of the Divine Spirit in his nature. With this understanding the neophyte can begin to unfold his true destiny - attunement with his higher nature. He is ready to pass beyond the regions of reason into the realm of realization. When this state is reached he does not need to think, he senses.

In this state of high spiritual realization he sees God, feels God and enjoys God. There are those in the world who have attained this great realization, and to them the eternal interests of the soul are of higher value than the fleeting interests of the mundane life, to whom the gratification of the senses is but like the thoughtless play of the baby. To them, God and the love of God form the highest and the only utility of human existence.

Every soul is destined to be perfect, and every being in the end will attain the state of perfection. Whatever we are now is the result of our acts and thoughts in the past; and whatever we shall be in the future, will be the result of what we think and do now. But this, the shaping of our destiny, does not prelude our receiving help from outside; nay, in the vast majority of cases such help is absolutely necessary. When it comes, the higher possibilities of the soul are awakened, spiritual life is quickened, growth is animated, and man becomes holy and perfect in the end.

The quickening impulse cannot be derived from books. The soul can only receive impulses from another soul already awakened. We may study books all our life and become very intellectual, but in the end, we find that we have not developed spiritually. It is not true that a high order of intellectual development always goes hand in hand with a proportionate development of the spiritual side in man. To quicken the spirit the impulse must come from another soul.

The person from whose soul such impulse comes is called the Guru, the teacher, and the person to whom it comes is called the Sishya, the student. To convey such an impulse, to any soul, the soul from which it proceeds must possess the power of transmitting it. In the second place, the soul to which it is transmitted must be prepared to receive it. Such alone are the real teachers and such are the real students. All others are only playing with spirituality.

There is a danger that the receiving soul may mistake momentary emotions for real religious yearning. Many times in our lives, somebody dies whom we love; we receive a blow; we feel that the world is slipping between our fingers, we want something surer and higher, and we feel the need for leaning on a higher power. In a few days the feeling passes and we are left just where we were before. We are all of us often mistaking such impulses for a real thirst after truth. So, whenever we are tempted to complain of our search after the Truth that we desire so much, proving vain, instead of so complaining, our first duty ought to be to look into our own souls, and find whether the craving in the heart is real.

The conditions necessary for the taught are purity, a real thirst for knowledge, and perseverance. No impure soul can be really religious. As to the thirst after knowledge. It is an old law that we all get whatever we want. None of us can get anything other than what we fix our hearts on.

The teacher can only give to the disciple what the disciple has made himself ready for. The receptivity of the neophyte is the only criterion of the amount of knowledge the teacher will give. If you desire great knowledge hold yourself in the mental state of consciousness which will make it possible for this knowledge to come to you.

Spiritual realization is the most important objective we can work toward at the present time. What you are depends on what consciousness you hold. Seek to realize the high, noble, beautiful, harmonious and spiritual and you will approach this consciousness.

Let us repeat: Mighty Spirit of health, of life, of love, of harmony, descend on me and enfold me in the arms of Divine Protection. Banish all negation, all inharmony, all sickness, all hate, all anger and all fear from my being. Make me a quiet pool of wisdom in which the Divine in me can manifest. So Mote It Be!

The Brotherhood Newsletter

Dear Students and Friends:

We were happy to welcome Helen Hadsell from Irving, Texas, and Marcia Musel from Colorado Springs, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Hadsell and Miss Musel are both Brotherhood College Members.

The Shamballa Community has been saddened by the untimely passing of Robert Morrow on Saturday, April 15, 1972. He is survived by his wife, LaVern and son, two year old Douglas Robert Morrow, his parents, Drs. John and Dora Morrow and brothers and sisters. We feel that Dr. Robert Morrow has been called to serve in a very special place elsewhere for he was far on the Path of Light.

We now have a very good supply of Incense which has been blessed in the special way to infuse it with vibrations of harmony.

We can no longer supply the brass Buddha Incense burners as we are unable to buy them from the wholesale house. We suggest to those of you who wish incense burners to look in the stores in your local communities or in antique shops.

Our Shamballa weather has been very beautiful and spring-like interspersed with sunshine and showers.

The Staff of the Print Shop and Office have been very busy with the usual rush of Spring-time activities. The Brotherhood has had a steady increase in membership and in demands for Dr. Doreal's books. We are all very desirous of spreading the teachings of the Brotherhood to every person in the world who is ready to receive.

In Cosmic Harmony,

Dr. W. Whitby
