Editorial What Are You?

The glory of this world of ours below,
Rests not in what we do or what we know,
But dwells forevermore in what we are.

WE MAKE ourselves what we are, and nobody else is responsible for it. In proportion as we would resist, should anybody demand credit for what we personally have become, so must we refrain from blaming all we are not upon somebody else.

Assuming that you are a perpetual reader of these columns, and, therefore that you are a woman, let us ask you, "What are you besides?"

Effort in your own behalf is no longer considered selfishness. The theory of the development of the individual has been accepted; it stands fast. We learn (it has been truly said) by our failures, but we absorb through the experience of others.

It is only by realizing to the fullest extent the present-day ambition of working, pushing women that we can fit ourselves to bear the legitimate burden of womankind and to shun the load that makes a woman a doormat. Which are you? A privileged worker or a doormat?

Would you appreciate the difference between the two? There is no broader road to knowledge on this subject than such columns as these before you. Our pages for women abound in such thoughts, feelings, experiences, successes and failures as would indicate the trend of the women of to-day.

There is a cheering note for you if you are climbing upward, and if you have already reached the heights, you can tell your sisters in a quiet way what you have done, and what you know, and what you are.

Open the Door

Open the door, let in the air,
The winds are sweet and the flowers fair;
Joy is abroad in the world to-day,
If our door is wide open he may come this way.

Open the door of the soul, let in Strong, pure thoughts which shall banish sin;
They will grow and bloom with grace
divine,
And their fruit shall be sweeter than that of the vine.

Open the door.

Open the door of the heart, let in Sympathy sweet for the stranger and kin;
It will make the halls of the heart so fair
That angels may enter unaware.
Open the door.

The Race for Happiness

DON'T WORRY

In looking about us anyone with ability to observe will see that the entire life of every human being is nothing more nor less than a race for happiness. Why, then, do so few actually reach the goal? It certainly cannot be because of lack of sincerity or unfaithfulness to the purpose that keeps so many from attaining this object. It must be either because there is something wrong with the methods by which we hope to attain it, or because "happiness is not of this world," which is only a vale of tears. Are you one of those who do not believe happiness to be one of the earthly possibilities of man, or do you imagine you are too good to be happy among people so many of whom are "worldly" and but a few are saints. If you believe the former, let me assure you that you are wrong and that you may experience happiness, worldly happiness, if you but will. If you belong to the latter class I have but little patience with you.

It is true that happiness is a state of mind—a frame of mind—and therefore, one who possesses the ability to concentrate to an extent that will enable him mentally to withdraw from unpleasant conditions in his environment, may be happy—in his mind. Diogenes was an illustration of such happiness. Entirely ambitionless, he was satisfied to live in a tub and even threw away his drinking-cup because he discovered that he could quench his thirst by using the hollow of his hand.

True happiness, however, is more than a mere mental attitude. It is consistent with hard work and struggle in the conquest of circumstances, although such struggle may not always be crowned with victory. Let us determine the quality of our actions, both mental and physical, at the very outset. We derive neither pleasure nor benefit from the worry habit. It neither helps nor inspires us nor does it benefit our neighbor. Why then, bother with it, since it is only a barnacle—an impediment. Let us cut it loose from us and see whether or not we have added to our happiness. After all, Diogenes has taught us a lesson, crank as he undoubtedly was.

Most people's worry is caused by other people—so they say. They think that they would not worry if it were not for others. In fact, there are almost as many different causes for worry as there are people in the world. Some of the causes would be valid if worry was of any use, but by far the largest majority of them are imaginary. Imagination transcends minds in this particular. The cause, being imaginary, produces the mental state called worry, which again reacts upon the physical. Thoughts are forces, and as such will invariably produce effects which will be desirable or otherwise, according to the quality of thoughts producing them. The effects of worry are many. Wrinkles, gray hair, premature old age, nervous prostration, are some of the undesirable results produced by worry. Cultivate your WILL! Only people of strong will can be happy at all times. "Solar plexus" methods give instant relief and are excellent for the purpose of controlling the worry habit, but do not stop there. You cannot expect to achieve perfect freedom, not only from worry, but also of every undesirable condition, unless you train your mind in concentration and develop the strength of your will. Exercise it, then, in your attempts to conquer the worry habit. WILL to be happy. Do the best you can in all matters pertaining to yourself and your neighbors, and don't worry about the results. You may fail at first, but try—try again!

The Supreme Soul is without beginning; not to be called existent or non-existent; possessing every sense, yet separate from them all; apart from, yet within all, both far and near; not divided among beings yet as if it were.

Let OUR MAGAZINE come to you every month as a loving friend, giving you cheer, comfort and courage.

Let it travel with you in your search for Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

Inspired Thought Contest

Your life and my life banded together in the spirit of co-operation means an uplift in the lives of all other men.

Many a weary soul, faint under the burden of life, has been inspired and filled with new zeal by the potent suggestion of an idea, simply but forcefully stated in spoken or printed words.

These inspired thoughts may have been verses of Scripture, a stanza from some well-known poet or the simple saying of a parent or teacher. The effect is all the same—inspiration is in the soul inspired, it matters not the source of the thought.

We want our readers to send us the ideas that have inspired them and that they believe will inspire others. These may be original or quoted. If original, sign your own name (and address) only; if quoted sign the name of the author on the right and your own name on the left. No thought will be considered for publication that takes for its expression more than fifty words of prose or eight lines of poetry.

Send in the thoughts that have helped you. They will help others, too.

Address: Inspired Thought Editor, Magazine of Mysteries, 649 W. 43d Street, New York City.

Forget your wrongs, your troubles and your losses,
For with the tools of thought we build our crosses.
Love, hope and trust; believe all joys are yours,
Life pays the soul whose confidence endures.
The blows of adverse fate, by larger pleasures,
As after storms the soil yields fuller measures.

Let go the cross; roll 'self—the stone—away,
And dwell with Love in Paradise to-day.

The Wonderful Sale of a Simple Car

The Overland—the simple and trouble-proof Overland—now commands a larger sale than any other car in existence. And the demand is now growing five times faster than it ever grew before.

The Car That Sells Itself

The second year sale of the Overland was ten times as large as the first. And this year's orders are already five times as large as last year's.

Now we are making 140 Overlands daily. Last year at this time our output was from 20 to 25.

Two years ago we had one little factory. Today we have five factories employing 4,500 men.

But never before has the demand increased as fast as it is increasing today. The more cars we get out the greater the call, for the Overlands sell themselves.

The Reasons

One of the Overland's greatest attractions lies in its utter simplicity. It has fewer parts than any other car. It has none of the usual complexities.

And it has the pedal control. Push a pedal forward to go ahead and backward to reverse. Push another pedal forward to get on high speed. It is as simple as walking—so simple that a child can master the car in ten minutes.

Then the Overland is a most trouble-proof. Many an owner has run from 7,000 to 10,000 miles without even cleaning a spark plug. Any novice can handle and care for it.

It is a car which always keeps going. In the Postoffice service, where Overlands are used, these cars have been run for 500 days, winter and summer, without missing a trip.

The $1,000 Car

This year we are selling a 25-horsepower Overland for $1,000 in roadster style, and for $1,100 with complete toy tonneau.

It is not undersized, not under-powered, like the usual low cost car. The wheel base is 102 inches.

We are this year selling a 40-horsepower Overland, with single rumble seat, for $1,250. It has a 112-inch wheel base.

Overland prices run up to $1,500. Each includes magneto and full lamp equipment. Each gives a great deal more for the money than any other maker can give.

We have cut our costs 20 per cent. in the past year alone by the use of modern automatic machinery. Also through multiplied output.

Let Us Send All the Facts

Every motor car lover should know the facts about the most successful car in the world.

Think of the place which this car has gained in a little more than two short years. And the success is all due to each car selling others.

The men who are buying these cars—140 per day—are men who seek just what you seek. The car which they buy is the car which you'll buy when you know it.

Please send us this coupon and we will send you a book showing all of the styles and giving all of the facts. We will also give you the address of the nearest of our 800 dealers. Please cut out the coupon now.

The Right Kind of Success

THE right kind of success is the kind that makes you just what deep down in your soul you want to be.

Of course you have a picture of this successful self of yours, and it is always a picture fair to see. It looks exactly as you do in form and feature, only it is young, healthy and beautiful. It has no wrinkles. Its mouth doesn't droop at the corners, its eyes beam kindly upon everyone, and strength, grace and robust health are apparent in every motion.

This is your successful body. But is this enough? Oh, no; your mind is also connected with the picture. There could not be the smiling mouth, the beaming kindly eyes, without a happy mind. So in this ideal picture of this successful self you always imagine the happiness of the mind that animates the body.

Of course that goes with the healthy body, and in fact, with success in its fullest sense, there is also an environment of plenty. Plenty of friends, of food, of clothing, of money, of everything that makes life beautiful.

Then the all-round successful man or woman is the one who is healthy, happy and prosperous!

Whoever is not all of these is only on the road to success. It may seem a long road, but it is the only one to travel. Now friends, brothers, co-workers, let us talk this matter over face to face, and heart to heart. You know Our Magazine stands for pointing out this road, and just how to travel upon it. It stands as a guide not only to you, but to throngs and throngs of people all over the world.

But it wants everybody to understand that while its watchwords are Health, Happiness and Prosperity, it has little Helps all along the way. And these are Words of Instruction, of Guidance, of Personal Advice, of Counsel and General Explanation of the Particular Things to be done by every individual who wishes to reach the goal—the right kind of success.

The only way you can find these helps valuable is to practice them and so prove their value. If you were a florist and wished to introduce a new kind of flower to your customers, you would first have to know the conditions for cultivating it, and then conform to them. If you did this your flowers would be a success, and you could take orders a year or years in advance if necessary, and promise with certainty to produce them exactly according to request.

You know the reason of this. You know that the principle or basis of growth is exact, perfect—an absolute law—and that you only need to make the right conditions in order to let the law do its perfect work.

Now it is the same in this matter of success. The first essential is in knowing that you have the elements within yourself that make success, and the second is in knowing just how to make the conditions of growth and action perfect you as a man, a woman, and give you the right environment as a setting for your mind and body. Here is a little hint as a starter on the road.

Think upon what constitutes an ideal human being.

This will help you in seeking the ideal picture of yourself as you want to be.

Read carefully every word in Our Magazine, for there is not a line that will not tell you something about this Ideal Being.

Will you do this? Will you tell your neighbor to do it? Will you be Our Co-workers in this work of knowing and proving what is the right kind of Success, and how it comes to the right kind of man and woman? Heed these little hints that follow.

We Know You Will.

Look up, dear hearts. There are bright days coming—days when you will say: "It is good to be alive. I am so happy, so glad to be in this beautiful world."

And when you can gain even one little glimpse of your privilege of living, the storms will be over, the clouds gone.

Can you find time for a visit to your dear friend? Then why not to the Friend above all?

Listen you that are lonely and fearful of losing health or happiness! For this Friend says: "I, the Lord thy God, will hold thy right hand saying unto thee, Fear not, I will help thee."

O, Beloved, you are not forgotten, you are not left uncared for! Arise from your ashes of sorrow. Speak, breathe, pray words of faith and trust and praise.

Do you know your words are often the very things that have put manacles on your hands. Perhaps you have always said: I can't.

Put them out of your heart, and they will not spring from your lips. Say I can with the faith and joy of a little child. See what they will do for you.

To feel that each one of us has a place in the divine order; to find it and keep it; to obey the highest law of our being; to live up to the duty that lies nearest our souls—that is the talisman to keep us in safety.

—Henry Van Dyke: the Voice of Tennyson.

Science Changes a Wicked Monster into a Noble Woman

Wonderful Hypnotic Treatment of Dr. Voisin that Transformed Jeanne Sonere from a Criminal Lunatic To an Admirable Nurse

BY hypnotism a wild, vicious criminal, hysterical creature has been changed into a good woman. By suggestion good ideas were conveyed to her subconsciousness and finally conquered the evil habits that had been acquired from bad surroundings and early misfortunes.

The once-abandoned girl of the gutters is now an excellent, devoted nurse in a Paris hospital.

Her name is Jeanne Sonere, and the miracle of science has been wrought by Dr. Auguste Voisin, of the Salpetriere Hospital, Paris.

The history of the case is given in the medical publications of Paris. It is considered by doctors and psychologists to be the most remarkable on record.

Jeanne Sonere was born of the lowest class of parents in the rag-picking quarter of Paris, where the people live in plaster huts or shacks made of packing boxes and other refuse. It is a lower life than that of the animals. She saw little in her childhood but wickedness and brutality. She went from bad to worse, and finally found herself incarcerated in the Salpetriere, which is a combination of prison and hospital. She was in a deplorable condition—a criminal lunatic, filthy, with a life history of crime.

Dr. Auguste Voisin, one of the physicians of the staff at the prison hospital, decided to try hypnosis upon her, and on May 31, 1895, made his first trial.

She was at that time so violent that she could only be kept quiet by a straitjacket and an incessant cold douche on her head. While Dr. Voisin was with her she raved and spat at him like a wild animal. But he persisted, and kept his face near hers, just in front of her. She tried to avoid the gaze of his eyes as an animal would do, but the doctor persisted, tirelessly following her eyes with his. Finally his persistency won, and she fell at once into a deep sleep and then passed into a somnambulistic state. The experiment was repeated day after day. She became sane while in the hypnotic condition, but still raved when awake and showed all her evil tendencies.

Then another stage was reached. She commenced to accept hypnotic suggestion, and would obey trivial orders given her while asleep. For instance, she would obey an order to make her room tidy. She obeyed suggestions given her about her own personal cleanliness and dress and regarding her general behavior.

At last, while in the hypnotic condition, she was taught to feel regret for her past life and to form resolutions for reform. Gradually she not only expressed these ideas in the hypnotic state, but in her awakened condition. In the end she was made fully conscious of moral right conduct and what it meant to lead a good, pure, sane life.

She seemed as eager to do right after her transformation as she had been to do wrong before her better self was evoked. She took a pride in doing right for right's sake. She commenced to study and educate herself, and finally took the nurses' course of training and became a very skillful and successful nurse, particularly noted for her sympathy and earnestness.

In fact, she now displays qualities as marked on the moral side as she had upon the depraved side, and is a shining example of all that is good and fine. Her face has become sweet and intelligent, though always a little serious, as if she were constantly conscious of the terrible fate from which she was saved.

This case is important, because the hypnotic experiment has been carried out in a much more useful direction than that followed in the majority of cases on record.

In many cases of hypnotic experiment doctors have suggested to their subjects to commit minor crimes, saying, "Go and steal Dr. So and So's handkerchief," or, "Go and strangle the cat," and the patients have obeyed. This must have left its influence for evil on the patients as strongly as the suggestions of Dr. Voisin for good on Jeanne Sonere.

Let Go

By Bertha De Wolf James

COULD we tense Americans carry these two little words, "let go," into our lives, incorporating them in mind and body, a marvelous change would be wrought, spiritually, mentally, physically and materially.

Many striving most intensely to live the spiritual life seem to assume omnipotence in that they will not be led by the gentle spirit of love; taking time to relax and listen, but give their own wills full sway, when, too often, the peacock in man comes strutting to the front, demanding to be seen and felt above others, bringing only heartburnings and failure where true happiness and peace should exist.

Jesus, conceded by all to be an ideal man (if not divine), left this message: That He came into the world to bear witness unto the "Truth" that we should do nothing of ourselves; He would send the "Spirit of Truth," and He would "bring all things to our remembrance and teach us all things." Other teachers are willing to assume that the world did not "happen by chance." How can we receive instruction unless willing to let go long enough to relax to infinite mind for instruction?

Why can we not let go before the loss of loved ones, health, social position or financial disasters overtake us and grieve and chasten our souls into relaxation to a higher power than the seen, at last forcing us to seek happiness and health from within?

In Nature, God's counterpart, the rotting bulb and seed show relaxation, and most beautiful and beneficial results come forth.

Can we not accept the lesson of patient growth?

So many "thrifty people," "good housekeepers" and "business managers" are constantly reaching out and hanging on to the possible future and its "rainy day," instead of living in the now, and trusting to the divine within and present blessings for happiness. This is a mental strain, and its harm upon mind and body cannot be estimated.

Each day in our busy world brings enough joy and sorrow to fill it without crowding in more.

Give away the old clothes you intend to make over. Imagine yourself as at least rich enough to help someone poorer than you are.

Let go. Let your "soul be fat." Forget that a "rainy day" may come. Trust! Have faith! Enjoy!

Let go of fear when you eat. Don't be a plutton, but give Nature a chance, and indigestion will seek someone who has less sense.

You overanxious parents, let go of your children. Half their resistance is because they don't want to be "bossed," and is the stirring of the personal divine within themselves seeking a chance to grow.

Let go of your past illness as well as your children and other loved ones. Don't live it over, calling forth harmful as well as un-beautiful pictures on memory's walls.

Let go the slights and wrongs, imagined and unimagined.

FRESH AT NICET

If One Uses the Right Kind of Food.

If by proper selection of food one can feel strong and fresh at the end of a day's work, it is worth while to know the kind of food that will produce this result.

A school teacher out in Kans. says in this connection:

"I commenced the use of Grape-Nuts food five months ago. At that time my health was so poor that I thought I would have to give up my work altogether. I was rapidly losing in weight; had little appetite, was nervous and sleepless, and experienced, almost constantly, a feeling of exhaustion.

"I tried various remedies without good results; then I determined to give particular attention to my food, and have learned something of the properties of Grape-Nuts for rebuilding the brain and nerves.

"I commenced using Grape-Nuts and have since made a constant and rapid improvement in health, in spite of the fact that all this time I have been engaged in the most strenuous and exacting work.

"I have gained twelve pounds in weight and have a good appetite, my nerves are steady and I sleep sound. I have such strength and reserve force that I feel almost as strong and fresh at the close of a day's work as at the beginning.

"Before using Grape-Nuts I was troubled much with weak eyes, but as my vitality increased the eyes became stronger.

"I never heard of food as nutritious and economical as Grape-Nuts."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

True Accounts of Occult Happenings

Another Call

Frequently a yearning, drawing call will come from someone who is ill—perhaps sick unto death. Vitality, life-force, prana are needed, and are being requested by the ego of the sufferer or by spirit messengers. Much so-called telepathy is performed by spirit messengers. In this case the little boy received the love force, the life force from the dear girl who answered the summons, and this healing power is latent in everyone, only when its laws are understood and the power can be directed and projected, it becomes infinitely more valuable.

M. A. R. S., who sent this narrative, also sent a sketch of the little face that appeared from the Astral Plane and which she saw through what Leadbeater calls, "The Astral Telescope." And would that every baby had an Aunt Margaret. God bless her!

The Inner Self

"One day during the winter of nineteen hundred and five, a dear little cherub face (although miles away) kept looking at me from soulful brown eyes, pleading, pleading, for me to take him.

That dreadful death-like feeling came over me, and I felt as if I must go to the child. I told the father about it, the mother having taken the little fellow to visit his grandmother in an adjoining county. The father said take the sleigh and go over to see him. I decided I would go next morning. All night, when I would wake, that death-like feeling kept near me, and when I awoke in the morning I still felt as if I must go to the baby. The weather had turned very cold during the night, and when I spoke of going, the family thought I must be crazy to think of going out such weather, it being the coldest day that winter. The father of the child got the team ready and I bundled up in robes and hot bricks and started on the twenty-mile drive alone and with just an ordinary farm horse to drive. When I arrived at the home of the grandparents I found the little fellow ill, and that the grandmother, mother and doctor had worked with him all night, to save his life. The little fellow held out his hands for me as quick as he got his eyes on me. I took him and held him the balance of the day and evening. He was then about a year old. A few weeks ago he spent the day with his aunts and while here accidentally turned over a dustpan of dirt while I was sweeping, and as he did so he shrank from me, as if expecting a blow. I kissed him and said, "That is nothing, honey." He ran away to play; a few hours after he came to me, looked up in my eyes and said, "Aunt Margaret if I should stay with you a long, l-o-n-g time, then would you beat me?"

More Light

Here's an account that I gladly publish, and especially because the writer refused to become a medium. Often I have warned against this dangerous and destructive process—this acceptance of serfdom or slavery. This narrative will cause many to think—What is genius? How much that we do is of our own creation? I have dealt with these subjects previously, so will not enlarge further upon them, but I want to point out again that we can be in pleasant vibrations or harmony and happiness if we choose and earn and deserve. Or we can foolishly dwell in dis-eased, disordered, disorganized conditions. Life is what we make it. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. As for the "imagined" music, I used to play the organ in a church and frequently gave as the Voluntary, music I was simply repeating as I heard it. Sister M. Hoagland writes

BROTHER SERVATOR:
In answer to your request for true accounts of unusual happenings from the realm of the unseen, will send my own experience, which is true in every particular, and which for want of a better name I have called

MUSICAL ECHOES

As far back through the years of my life as I can remember, I have heard music, grand, glorious, inspiring harmonies or sobbing, pathetic minor melodies, according to the conditions of my mind and soul. The veil dividing our world from the spirit world was drawn aside and I stood entranced in the borderland, eagerly listening to angel voices chanting the Father's praise; a spirit singing words of hope and cheer and sending them on vibrations of love to the sorrowing ones in the earthly home; or instrumental music of such power and sweetness as to be beyond description with the words at my command.

When a child I heard it only once in a great while, but as I grew older the desire to hear such heavenly music led mama and me to pray earnestly that my ears might be opened to spiritual things and to go often into the silence and listen with the faith that the prayer would be answered.

It was Music, music of all kinds and descriptions, surrounded me constantly, scarcely giving me time to take the necessary sleep.

Speaking of this to a friend one day she said to me, "Why do you not ask for understanding and ability to reproduce this lovely music?"

"I have never thought of it," I answered, "but I will ask and I know I will receive that power."

Then followed weeks of prayer, hours of sitting in the great silence asking for instruction, hours of sitting at the piano attempting to play what I could hear plainer day by day.

But not to be wearisome I will go on to the hour of my triumph, when I realized what I had so long hoped for. I was working in the garden one day two years ago; suddenly I felt upon me that great peace that passeth understanding, surrounding me a dazzling light. In the distance, but coming nearer, I heard music, a march "T. umph" an unseen presence whispered. Then, plainly before me appeared a strong, masterful spirit, saying, "You can play that on your piano if you wish." I never stopped to hear another thing. I threw my hoe as far as I could send it, scattered the seeds I held in my hand to the four winds and literally ran with all my might to the house, touched the piano lightly and found the keys responding like live things. My fingers under the guidance of the spirit were bringing forth the melody of the march.

Then the spirit became visible, standing beside me, and spoke these words: "The Father has heard. Your prayer is answered and I am sent to teach you and assist you to accomplish your desire. At your wish the imprisoned echoes of the music of generations long gone to their spirit home will be loosed and you may hear it and hearing repeat it."

"The music of to-day that is vibrating round you will at your desire be plainly heard, and hearing you may repeat."

"By earnest prayer and faith even the music of the angelic hosts of heaven will become plain to you, and you may play it as nearly as possible on the instrument you have."

"Will you give yourself in trance condition to my guidance?"

"No," I answered firmly, "I will not. I intend to occupy my own body and pursue my study in a conscious state or not at all."

"That is your privilege, each soul has the right to choose," was the answer, "and my work will be to teach you the laws of harmony and how to place yourself at will into the music vibrations. This is the slower method of development, but if you will persevere and follow my instructions, you will succeed beyond your wildest dreams."

"Know that all things are possible with God, the creative force of all the universe. Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find; knock and the door of Spiritual Understanding will open unto you, and your desire be fulfilled."

The voice hushed—the vision faded—the music became fainter—ceased.

I sat there wondering, like the old woman in "Mother Goose" rhymes, "Can this really be I?" I gave myself one hard pinch to see if I was awake. Finding I was really awake and myself I bowed my head in reverence and thanked the Giver of all Good for making my dream a reality. I will not tell of each visit of the Spirit of Music to me, but will repeat some of the instructions given at the different appearances. The words are not mine but the Spirit's.

"In order to play the music heard spiritually, you must at the same time be in a negative and a positive state of consciousness. This sounds mixed, but it is true. A negative condition of the soul enabling you to hear and register the melody. A positive mental and physical condition, furnishing the thought force and muscular power to reproduce the melody registered. Before you as you play will appear visions of the scenes where the music was written or 'pictures' enabling you to better understand the emotions of the composers as they poured forth their soul in melody that echoes even unto the present day."

"So with this better understanding you will interpret more correctly and those who hear you will enjoy your effort much more."

"When you touch your piano shut out material things—go into the Eternal Silence of your soul—speak my name—tell me into which kind of music vibrations you wish to be placed; I will answer quickly and your wish will be fulfilled."

"By working in harmony each with the other, both with God, we will prove to the world what great possibilities exist through the friendship of the dwellers on the earth plane and the inhabitants of the higher Spiritual Realm."

"We on the Spirit side are not content with your seeking the knowledge that there is a life after so called death. We want your friendship and cooperation to make this world the perfect place it was always intended to be. We want to aid you to understand the Higher Life, thus gaining the Father's Blessing—an upward step in the Spirit's Home."

These things and many more has the Spirit of Music told me, and each time I touch my piano I am conscious of improvement under the teaching.

I wish to say I had only received about five months' lessons from earthly teachers scattered over a period of nine years, before receiving the higher truths of music from the Spirit.

Friends, who dwell too much in the material to even listen to spiritual things, say I have a remarkable memory for music, after hearing an apparently difficult selection. Others who know I do not have the written music give my imagination (Continued on page 34)

The newest wonder in Horticulture | Dividends For Generations

The saving of seven cents per day for a short period, or Ninety-Five Dollars in cash, will secure you an interest in the most wonderful horticultural development of the age. Let us show you how the investment of Fourteen Hundred Dollars in small monthly payments or in cash will produce for you an annual income of One Thousand Dollars, and this income will increase year by year unto the third and fourth generations.

Do not be stampeded into unbelief, but instead influenced into investigation.

We are planting together in a combination orchard two of the most profitable horticultural products of the world; one of them an absolutely new development, a creative industry, wonderfully rich and potential in profit possibilities; the other producing hundreds of dollars of profit per acre annually.

This investment represents the complete evolution of an entire industry; the changing of the source of the world's supply of a product of wide use from the present crude method of gathering this product from wild trees scattered in the woods, to the production of improved varieties twice as large, of infinitely finer quality, grown in orchards conducted under the most careful scientific horticultural management and conditions.

We are so sure that this orchard will produce immense returns—and quickly—that we ask for no share in these crop returns until you have been paid back in profits from the orchard every dollar of the money you pay for your investment.

Read this paragraph again.

Let us prove to you that ten shares in this orchard will make you independent; fifteen of them, costing only one dollar per day for a short period, will produce an income of One Thousand Dollars a year for you.

Nine tenths of the shares in this splendid orchard have already been sold. It is only a question of days when the few that are left will be gone. This is the last advertisement that we shall ever publish.

Send to us at once for our booklet, "Dividends for Generations," which will tell you the whole thing in a nutshell. It is FREE to you.

Prof. Samuels' Phenomenal Method Heals Like Magic

His Peculiar System of Healing Causes Enmity of Doctors

ARRESTED MANY TIMES

But Acquitted by Juries and Judges and Permitted to Continue in a Work That He Alone Can Do, as He is the Only Man in the World Using His System—Patients Make Startling Statements of His Successful Method of Treating Consumption, Bright's Disease, Kidney Trouble, Blindness, Fits, Catarrh, Heart Disease, Cataracts, Nervous Prostration, Dropsy, Hay Fever and Many Other Diseases that Baffle the Skill of the Ordinary Physician.

WICHITA, KAN.—The almost miraculous cures of hopeless invalids made by Professor Samuels of Wichita, Kan., have been of such a startling character that they have aroused widespread wonder, admiration and curiosity. Time and again he has taken cases pronounced hopelessly incurable by the medical profession and restored the patients to life and health in a most phenomenal manner.

There is considerable mystery attached to Professor Samuels' method of accomplishing these marvels, and it is known that he does not use the drastic drugs and medicines that doctors depend upon. He claims to have discovered, in his forty years of practice, that a certain law of nature has peculiar properties heretofore unsuspected, and that, by the application of this law there is no disease he may not cure. And it is a matter of proof that, with the mysterious system this discovery gives him, he has made the blind see and the lame walk. He has revived the flickering spark of life in bodies on the very verge of the grave, and restored to health men and women given up to die by doctors and specialists.

Professor Samuels came into note several years ago by his almost miraculous cure of "Blind Joe," of Topeka, Kan., who was well known in that city, having sold peanuts and popcorn on the streets there for years. He had been blind for ten years and had exhausted all the means in his power to be cured, but had given up in despair until he fell into the hands of Professor Samuels, who effected a cure.

Professor Samuels has been arrested many times for practicing his system without having a diploma. On being interviewed a few days ago relative to his many arrests, Prof. Samuels said:

"Yes, I have been arrested many times for practicing without a license, but in no case have I been convicted. Naturally, the medical profession are jealous of my success and are fighting me most of the time, but how are they going to convict me? Do you suppose any jury, when my patients come into court as they did at Alva, Okla., Newkirk, Okla., Ponca City, Okla., and other towns, and tell how I have cured them of all manner of troubles, do you suppose for a minute that any jury hearing these people and seeing with their own eyes what I have accomplished, is going to convict me? My trial at Alva was before a very able judge, Jesse J. Dunn, who is now chief justice of the State of Oklahoma; after hearing the evidence for and against me, I was acquitted. At Newkirk I was tried before Judge Hausley, a very able judge. Judge Brown, a noted lawyer, was the prosecuting attorney, and fought the case very hard, but I was acquitted. These persecutions were brought because I have no license. Being the discoverer and only practitioner of my system of healing, how am I to have a diploma? I can't issue it to myself, and the medical fraternity, trotting along in the same harness for half a century, too blind to accept my discovery, which accomplishes actual results, make it impossible for me to procure a license as a representative of any of the recognized schools. So what am I to do but to proceed in my own way to perform cures that astound humanity?"

The professor here laid before the reporter a reprint from the court records showing the proof of his assertions that the court had not convicted him.

Professor Samuels is a remarkable man. Bright, alert, progressive and, although sixty, he is straight and active and gives one the impression that he is much younger. He talks with such an earnest conviction and enthusiasm of his work that the listener must believe him and believe in his work.

"What is the nature of your treatment?" was the next question.

"That is a secret that has taken me many years of my life to perfect. I can only say that my results are obtained treating all diseases through the eye. I cure by dropping a colorless liquid which I prepare into the eye. Strange as it may seem, so-called incurable cases of consumption, Bright's disease, dropsy, epileptic fits, nervous prostration are cured in this apparently miraculous way. My system is based absolutely on scientific principles. The eye is the window of the soul. I have evolved a system of treating other bodily ills, based on the relation of the eye to the system as a whole. This may seem strange, but I back up my claims by results."

Thereupon the professor placed before the reporter his "Message of Facts," affidavits and letters in great numbers, many of them from responsible and well-known people, all bearing on his statements.

This proved that Mr. Frank Hoff, now in business at 240 North Main street, Wichita, Kan., had been given up to die of consumption. He had been treated by the greatest specialists in Brooklyn, N. Y. It was some seven years ago when he had tried everything else without avail, that he came to Professor Samuels and was cured. He is a large, strong man and weighs 240 pounds now, and, when called upon by the reporter, stated that he owed his life to Professor Samuels.

Another noted case of consumption was the case of Mary Agnes Selden, 1820 East Murdock avenue, Wichita, Kan. Several years ago she came to Kansas from New York on account of ill health. However, she began to decline, and tried numerous physicians, who said she had consumption. After she had practically lost all hopes, the case was taken by Prof. Samuels, who cured her. She was seen by a reporter, and she told of her remarkable cure. On her cheeks was the blush of health and her step was elastic. By her appearance none would suspect that she, a few weeks before, had been given up to die of consumption.

Mr. I. W. Shufelberger, living seven miles northeast of Wichita, who was almost blind and deaf, was led by his daughter to the office of Prof. Samuels, and was suffering a great deal of pain from his eyes. Prof. Samuels restored his eyesight after three weeks' treatment. He goes everywhere unattended and transacts his business and writes almost as well as he ever did in his life. After being entirely deaf in one ear for twenty years, he can hear the tick of a watch.

Miss Ida Garrison, who resides at 963 Roberts avenue, Wichita, Kan., was very low with tuberculosis and pronounced so by the very best authority. She tried all sorts of climate and the very best of doctors on lung trouble and was pronounced incurable by all. I took Miss Garrison under my treatment about seven years ago and she was treated about nine months and is now in perfect health.

Mr. B. R. Robey, who resides at 816 East First street, Wichita, Kan., brought his mother, Mrs. P. Spidal, to Wichita to be treated by Professor Samuels. She was unable to move hand or foot; she was even unable to speak. Her case was paralysis. Physicians had given her up and considered her case hopeless. She was brought into Wichita on a cot and taken in an ambulance to the home of her daughter. She is now entirely cured.

Mr. Harry Evans, a wholesale lumberman, located at 307 Winne Bldg., Wichita, Kan., had what the best physicians called Bright's disease. The doctors could not give him any hope and he continued to get worse. He was also losing his eyesight from what was said to be paralysis of the optic nerve. He took treatment from Prof. Samuels and began to improve from the very start. His eyesight came back and all symptoms of Bright's disease left. After taking Prof. Samuels' treatment he was examined by leading physicians and they stated he had not the slightest trace of Bright's disease.

Mr. Evans is known all over the country, a leading business man whose word can be relied upon, and he would be glad to write or tell anyone of his experience with Prof. Samuels.

The little seven-year-old daughter of G. W. Newcum, one of Kay county's most prosperous farmers, was afflicted with epileptic fits. Mr. Newcum says that his little daughter had been suffering with this supposedly incurable disease ever since she was one year old, and that he had gotten every conceivable thing for relief, but to no avail until he went to Professor Samuels a year ago in August. The professor told him he had cured epileptic fits before, and could do it again. Professor Samuels immediately began treatment through the eye, and the little girl has never had any symptoms of the trouble since. Mr. Newcum says she is now as sound and well as any child could be.

"Is it necessary for your patients to come to see you to be treated?" was asked. "No, I have perfected my treatment so that I can treat by mail. Many of my patients come to see me, but it is not necessary. I send my treatment to hundreds, and, in fact, am as successful in treating that way as though the patients were right here. To people from a distance who write me, I send an information blank to fill out. In this way I am enabled to send them the treatment properly prepared with full directions for its use."

"I should think with your ability to cure, you should be in a position to demand big money from your patients," remarked the reporter. "No, I do not do that now. My charges when the patients called on me in person used to be pretty high. I am getting old, and I feel that it is my duty in my last years to place my discovery in the hands of the poor as well as the rich. I believe that I owe a duty to mankind and that as many people as possible should be benefited by my discovery. I want all humanity, no matter what race or nationality, nor where located, to be benefited by my life's work. On this account, I have reduced my charges so they are within reach of the poorest. I am always glad to hear from anyone who is sick, no matter how poor they may be.

"My greatest aim in life from now on will be to relieve and cure the ills of humanity, and when death shall claim me, I have arranged so that my secret will not die with me, but will be known, so that men in all ages to come will reap the reward of my life's work."

Everyone who is sick, no matter what their trouble may be, should write Professor Samuels, Room 123, Samuels' Bldg., Wichita, Kan., for his "Message of Facts" and they will find something in it of interest to them.

Speech as a Destructive Power

Written Especially for Magazine of Mysteries

By P. Corning Edwards

In the reading-rooms of our public libraries, and in all places where persons congregate for the purpose of study or concentration, we find that talking is prohibited. This rule is made in order that those enjoying the privileges of the library may be allowed an opportunity for thought. Talking, then, is considered a hindrance in the use of our thinking powers. Thought may be compared to the wireless telegraph. It is the medium through which we receive from the universal intelligence the vibrations not perceptible to the senses, which bring to our consciousness only their expressions. The individual intelligence, or soul, may be likened to a wireless telegraph station, which both receives and transmits electric thought-messages, receiving through the attribute of consciousness, and transmitting through the power of will. To become receptive to the thought waves we must have our mental instrument properly adjusted, focused, to detect and register them. To permit the mind to be in such a condition that vibrations of different degrees of rapidity are being received simultaneously, would result in confusion. Ourselves, to the degree that the mind is favorably adjusted are we able to receive and utilize thought vibrations. Promiscuous talking creates such a disturbance in the mental atmosphere that we are unable to catch and record the finer vibrations of the world of thought. We must first receive the messages from the universal intelligence, co-ordinate them, and then send them out as dynamic expressions of the individual intelligence. Must first think (adjust our minds to receive) and then speak, or express (express the thoughts received). All progress, unfoldment, evolution, results from the combination of thought and action. Thought, then, is one of the tools with which we work to further our mental and spiritual growth. The condition most favorable to thought is silence. If one person in a library reading-room should keep up an incessant talking, he would greatly interfere with the others present whose minds are adjusted, focused, to receive data from the thought world, the realm of causation. His speech (thought vibrations in expression) would be inharmonious to the others, and so cause confusion. Similar conditions frequently exist in the home or neighborhood where, in the name of sociability, excessive talking of the most superficial nature is constantly indulged in, the prattlers little realizing that they are stumbling-blocks in the path of their own and another's progress. Those who are in the habit of adjusting the mental instrument, of using their minds, thinking, are realizing that much talk is detrimental to their unfoldment, and are learning the value of the admonition, "Think more and talk less."

When used as a vehicle for conveying helpful ideas, speech becomes a constructive factor and a power for good, and during these expressions of deep thought one is often so mentally in rapport with the great thought world, so susceptible to its vibrations so "in tune with the Infinite," that even while speaking flashes of wisdom may reach his consciousness. Talking is one thing and conversation quite another. Dr. Johnson once remarked of an evening spent in society that there had been a great deal of talk, but no conversation. A fluent talker is usually a thief who deprives us of time, leaving no compensation, while a good conversationalist gives us some of the results of his thinking, some ideas, which may be of value to us on our onward way.

Our impulses, faculties and powers are constructive or destructive to the degree which they are under our control. Progress, evolution, means increasing control and use of these essentials of our individuality. This self-control is in direct proportion to our knowledge; knowledge is acquired through the use of our thinking and reasoning powers, which powers are most successfully exercised in silence, or rather in the absence of inharmonious thought vibrations finding expression in the incessant talking of persons about us.

We who are desirous of furthering our evolution, as well as that of others, will do well to give this matter of speech careful consideration, with the view of ascertaining whether we are using it noisily or thoughtlessly, constructively or destructively, of seeing whether we are among those who should "think more and talk less," for he who blabbereth much retardeth not only his own unfoldment, but also that of everyone within sound of his prattle.

In Anger

- Put away the curt reply.
- Check the frown instantly.
- Place your sneering manner by—
• These won't aid the matter.

- More than ugly prattle.

FOR THE SILENT BROTHERHOOD

Thought to be Held at 12 M.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou hast made strong for thyself. — Psalm lxxx, 17.

Thought to be Held at 9 P. M.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee, and let such as love thy salvation say continually: Let God be magnified. — Psalm lxx, 4.

WHEN walking on a dangerous road, or facing a great trial, how comforting to feel the hand of a friend! "Oh, if I can but feel the touch of a friendly hand!" you so often exclaim in such moments, recalling the sense of security and strength that came at other times, under similar circumstances. Can you not then doubly appreciate this beautiful noonday prayer? And is it not a prayer for your very self, if so be you have consecrated yourself to God and His service? THE MAN OF THY RIGHT HAND—WHOM THOU HAST MADE STRONG FOR THYSELF. Whosoever WILL may come. This means whoever chooses to ally himself with God and place his talents on the altar of service, and his life at God's disposal, IS the man of God's right hand, THE ONE WHO IS MADE STRONG FOR GOD'S WORK.

LET THY HAND BE UPON ME THAT I MAY BE STRONG TO REPRESENT THEE AND ACT FOR THEE. Does this mean in a public way?

It means in the SIMPLEST DAILY DUTIES, in the VERY PLACE WHERE YOU ARE at this moment or any moment. It means that you, like Jesus the Elder Brother, have come into this world to glorify the Father, and that only as you LET THE Divine Hand rest upon you and guide you into the RIGHT WAY will you be made strong for Him, and so for yourself and the world.

Be faithful, be fervent, and for thirty days at the noontide pray this wonderful prayer.

Can you not see how it will fill your heart with love and your hands with blessing? And when the evening hour with its restful stillness is at hand go into your chamber with reverence and joy, and send out to your brothers and sisters in the far-off countries, in the islands of the ocean, in the towns and cities of your own beloved homeland, in the thronging homes of the city or in the quiet places of country and village, this Brotherhood prayer: LET ALL THOSE THAT SEEK THEE REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN THEE; AND LET SUCH AS LOVE THY SALVATION SAY CONTINUALLY: LET GOD BE MAGNIFIED.

The Power of Thought

I hold it true that thoughts are things
Endowed with body, breath and wings,
And that we send them forth,
To fill the earth with good results—or ill.

We awaken in another
Just the thoughts our minds contain.
If we're kind we win their kindness;
If we hate, they hate—gain.

We pass on to brother mortals
The vibrations of the soul,
And the knowing ones receive them
As they search from pole to pole.

We build our futures thought by thought,
Or good or bad, and know it not—
And so the universe is wrought.

Thought is another name for Fate;
Choose then thy destiny and wait—
For love brings love,
And hate brings hate.

In this world of sorrow there are some who know not the sweet peace of the indwelling presence of God. There eyes have become blind by the glare of temporal things; their lives are filled with the husks of the world. Here in this wide world of sin-sick souls the God in us should go out to them. Our Father would dwell in their hearts and lives as in ours. He would have them be "sons of God." But do they see the revelation of God in us? Are our bodies, our commercial transactions, our social circle such that men see the dwelling place of the Most High and covet the blessing we hold? God shows himself in a multitude of ways and yet is always the self-same Father. So will He manifest Himself in the varied ways of men, through a wide range of activities, from the cup of cold water given "in His name" up to the accomplishment of larger things for men. God revealed in us "to will and do of his good pleasure" is to bring men back to their largest portion. This revelation is in earthen vessels "through whom God aforespoke" and speaks to-day. If the night is dark our God's abiding light will enable us to scatter it. If the road be rough and dreary our God, who dwelleth in us, will assist us to make it smooth and plain. If sin has pressed our brother hard our God will provide a way of escape and eternal redemption.

Daisy

With little white leaves in the grasses,
Spread wide for the smile of the sun,
It waits till the daylight passes,
Then the leaves close one by one.

I have asked why they close at even,
And I know what Daisy would say:
"There are stars all night in the heaven,
But I am the star of the day."

I WILL GIVE YOU $1000 IN VOTING STOCK FREE, IN ADDITION TO YOUR SMALL INVESTMENT.

WHY WALL STREET RULES WITH THE PEOPLES MONEY

BOOK OF ELECTRIC RAILROAD FACTS

I BELIEVE I can show you the best electric investment opportunity that ever came to your notice. I firmly believe it and I have backed up my belief by a $100,000 investment myself. I don't want you to say "yes" or "no" until you give me a chance to talk with you a little while.

If you've got some money that you want to place where it will bring you big returns, or if you want to invest a little each month out of your income, just pin your faith to me for a little while until I can lay before you an investment proposition that strikes me as a great big money maker for the people, and the indisputable facts bear me out in my judgment—I want you to have all the facts and then I believe you will want to put your money where it will work for you and you only.

Now, the first thing to do is to send for my big 40-page "Book of Electric Railroad Facts," which I'll mail you free and at the same time also send you my other book called "Why Wall Street Rules With the People's Money." When you get these two books which contain all the facts about the Dan Patch Electric Railroad and about me, personally, then I'm willing for you to sit in the quiet of your home and pass judgment on the whole proposition.

I just want you to have these two free books that will open your eyes about the banks and Wall Street and investments in general; and when you get these two books I'll take my chances on whether you'll say "Savage is wrong" or "Savage is right," and it won't interfere with our feelings or friendship if you never invest a dollar or never write me again. I offer you these two books free—I want to show you how you can make your money work and earn for you.

Now just a minute, while I give you a few facts. Perhaps nine out of ten readers of this paper know me already, but to those who do not, I want to say that I've been doing a national and international business out of Minneapolis for the past 22 years.

My business is now the largest of its kind in the world—made so by the continued patronage of nearly three million thinking, progressive, hard working farmers and stockraisers.

These people are my friends and customers—many have already invested in my new enterprise—some from your own State and from every State in the Union and every Province in Canada.

I have built up a number of big enterprises here in the Northwest and now I'm building the biggest of them all. The Cars and rails are ordered; to be put in operation July 4th

Dan Patch Electric Railroad

Yes, the Dan Patch Electric Railroad, running from Minneapolis to Rochester, and back from Lakeville to St. Paul.

I am not merely "thinking" of building this Railroad. I am really building it now—grading on the first section is about completed and we have started grading on the last division from Owatonna to Rochester.

I am working to make this the best constructed and biggest dividend-paying Electric Railroad in the country. High-class Electric Roads from New York to Spokane are great money makers. I tell you all about it in my Big Book. This is the second time I have given the people a chance to share with me—my other enterprise paid 8 per cent. In less than one year—the dividend checks were mailed out on June 1st.

Now is your chance to share with me in this enterprise—the greatest of them all. I will give you $1,000 in voting stock in addition to a small investment. I want to send you the estimated net-profit statement, showing how a $5,000 investment grows to $17,280.00. How a $1,000 investment grows to $3,456.00 in a single operating year.

How a $500 investment grows to $1,728.00, and a $100 investment increases to $345.60 in a single operating year. This information is contained in my Big Book of Electric Railroad Facts. I want you to have it even though you never invest a dollar, and I am especially anxious for you to have my new Book, "Why Wall Street Rules with the People's Money."

Don't be backward about sending for these books. I want you to have them and they won't cost you a cent—they are free—some of these Wall Street secrets will open your eyes. I want you to see how the people's money works for Wall Street. I want to show you how to make your money work for you and for no one else.

Send for the two books now.

Heart Talks

By WILDIE THAYER

God might have given us the precious fruits which we need for sustaining life without first giving us the blossoms, thus expressing his love for us in a beautiful way. There really was no special necessity of his making the flowers of such dainty colors and it was not necessary that after the storm the rainbow should be so beautiful. Darkness of night may have come upon us suddenly without the prelude of twilight with its ever shifting lights and shadows and the glorious hues of the sunset.

These beautiful love expressions were not needed for existence, but God so loves us that he wants us to enjoy life to the utmost, he loves to give lovely expression to his love.

We may not appreciate these heavenly gifts nor understand the great God-heart that gives them to us, but all the same he will continue to express his love in beauty.

The truly God-like character will also express love in the little unnecessary ways which are for beauty's sake alone and will delight in so doing. It costs very little to tell your dear ones they are dear to you, to give some little word of appreciation, some look of love, flowers which make life fragrant to the living.

Give and life will be sweeter, richer, for the giving.

Another lesson which some dear souls need to learn is the gift of receiving. It is more blessed to give than to receive and no one should withhold the blessings of giving from another. Nothing wounds a sensitive nature more than to have their loving gifts received as unnecessary or refused, to some natures giving is a real need, just as it is necessary for the sun to shine and the flower to give its fragrance.

Always, wherever you are, whatever you do realize the ever constant presence of God, the father. To realize this ever presence is a great encouragement. All of us can recall how brave we felt when as little children father or mother was with us. We believed that they were strong enough to protect. We trusted to their protection. Much more fearless and faith filled would we be if we had the same realization of God's presence.

In order to let our light shine we must live very closely to God our light. Our light comes from him and we must keep the transmitting medium clear, pure, acceptable. What is the use of a lighthouse on a dark night if it does not shine? Uncover your light, for a covered light is polluting. Let your light shine.

Whatever you undertake to do realize that the Infinite is with you and that if it is right you will accomplish your desire. God with you, you cannot fail, though you may seem to do so. You do not always know what is best. You may think you fail because you cannot see the whole plan. Don't you know that the waves are failures, but that the great tide is a success? You may be failing every day and yet your life with its whole movement and meaning is never failing but succeeding if only you keep close to God.

You must learn and let God teach you. You can get rid of your past, by getting a future out of it. Nothing need be wasted. The sin of which you repent will be a stepping stone for you; it will make you more sympathetic with other sinners. The sin which you committed you will now guard against since God is with you and that very sin will be converted thus into a guardian angel.

Don't you know that many precious stones are the children of fire? The original substance was exposed to the action of fierce fires for prolonged periods. To convert the seemingly useless into the precious needed fire. Waiting was needed for the base substance to be transformed into the precious.

This is true with regard to the children of men who desire to become conscious children of God. There must be prolonged and fierce burning, months of endurance in patience. When the end comes "they shall shine as stars in the firmament forever and ever." It is more than worth while. Be grateful for all life's blessings, but never be proud. Never feel yourself superior to the lowest of God's children. Every unit of life is essential. No one is independent, each child of God depends on all the rest.

A blossom held its handsome head erect and sneering with its perfumed breath, shook its unsoiled petals as it said, "I despise the root which grovels in the soil. I have nothing to do with it for it is in a world beneath me, a lower class of creation." The root said, "Ah, pretty blossom, we shall see if you are independent when the storm comes."

The storm came. The blossom trembled helplessly as her petals were wafted away on the air and she cried out pleadingly, "Do not forsake me dear root, stand firm, lest I perish."

"Remember then, blossom," said the root as it clung firmly with its dirty fingers to the earth, that I, even I, a root, am essential to you, a blossom, do not despise me for I did I not work in the soil you would have no fragrance to give the traveler. Each of us is needed in the place where we live. Then the blossom asked forgiveness of the root and since each understood the other's mission they have worked in harmony.

We are all God's children and if we only do faithfully the work where we are placed we are worthy of our divine birthright, worthy to be called Children of the King of Heaven.

When you are happy and life is beautiful to you, you will see something good in everybody. Then is the time to talk about your friends. Never speak or pass even what you may call a just judgement when you are tired or in a storm of circumstances.

HOW MAE EDNA WILDER GOT RID OF A DOUBLE CHIN

Without Dieting, Internal Remedies, Face Straps or Physical Culture—An Interesting Story for Fleaey People.

"I removed my double chin and reduced my pounds in less than six weeks," says Mae Edna Wilder, who stands five feet high, weighs 120 pounds, and is a picture of perfect health. "I did this process which is my own discovery—a process of external application. I simply apply the treatment to any part of the body where the superfluous flesh exists and it vanishes as if by magic. It takes minutes, not other days or two weeks, and the time needed is one moment and one second. I need not keep anything about it. I am so grateful for my relief that I will give free advice to any one who suffers as I did. I consider a double chin one of the most unsightly physical defects and superfluous flesh is just extra weight that must carry with them everywhere and all the time. I feel, like you younger and a hundred-fold more active, more lost mine. Any interested person who will write to Mae Edna Wilder, Dept. 12 D, Rochester, N. Y. will be told how to find relief within two weeks.

When you are happy and life is beautiful to you, you will see something good in everybody. Then is the time to talk about your friends. Never speak or pass even what you may call a just judgement when you are tired or in a storm of circumstances.

The Soul Consoled by God

THE prayer of gratitude of the pardoned sinner is so sweet and fervent and beautiful that it reaches all parts of both earth and heaven.

It is then we see a soul, consoled, thanking God. "A soul in the state of grace is beautiful beyond expression; it is a brilliant image of God Himself; the Holy Ghost animates it."

If the MASTER, our Saviour, fasted, prayed and wept, why should not we mortals do the same? A sincere sorrow for our sins and a complete surrender to God and Christ and sincere, fervent prayers to live the Christ-life will carry us to God's arms.

Do not defer giving yourself completely up to God. This day, this hour, this very minute is the time. The Voice constantly calls and urges us to repentance, because it is man's only consolation. Be cautious to not delay carrying your sins to God and Christ and the Holy Spirit. "We cannot be to careful and cautious where immediate and eternal bliss is at stake."

The consoling power of God, after repentance and surrender, comes as the complete bliss after the death of the old and the birth of the new life within us. It is Divine Grace, the beginning of the new and beautiful life; the soul consoled by God.

The text-books tell us that the definition of the word Disintegration, in brief, is the "dissolving of parts." But what becomes of the parts after dissolution? Further than the claim that they are finally absorbed by the earth and the invisible elements, our physical scientific friends fail to give utterance; and they never will be able to give the world any further light until the subject is studied from a purely mental standpoint, says the Pathfinder.

Physical scientists are as far behind the times as are the doctors and preachers. They are all standing in the middle of the great highway of progress. But fortunately, outside of being mere stumbling-blocks, neither class referred to is capable of seriously impeding mental and spiritual growth.

Death, Disintegration and Reincarnation are "companion pieces" in the colossal scheme of life's evolution. There can be no separation of one from the others. And just as certain as Disintegration follows Death, just so certain does Reincarnation follow Disintegration; and equally certain is it that there is no such thing as dead matter; that all is life; that that which is commonly called Death is but another form of Life—or, rather, the same Life Principle manifested in other forms.

The idea that there is such a thing in all the Universe as dead matter is being disproved every revolution of this planetary sphere. It is being demonstrated every day of the year the world over, that every atom extant, from the lowest type of molecule to the highest type of man, contains a separate and distinct germ of life, governed and controlled by the Universal Law of Attraction—the Law of Life.

Basing then the proposition that Disintegration is the first step—after Death—in the direction of Reincarnation, upon the fact that every existent atom contains a life germ, it is easy to understand the process by which Reincarnation becomes a factor in every stage human development up to the point where Death has run its course.

Take the human body as an illustration. Every atom of the human body contains a separate and distinct life germ which is capable of working out its own destiny, assisted, of course, by the Ununiversal life forces. When Disintegration takes place (separation of the parts), each part or atom filled with an ever-present but unconscious desire to live and grow higher, attaches itself to some other form of growth in a little higher stage of development. In other words, it takes on a new form—a new body, as it were. This is Reincarnation. This process is continued uninterruptedly throughout every stage of development. Whenever Death takes place Reincarnation follows Disintegration. Not necessarily immediately but sooner or later must the letter of this inexorable law be carried out.

Every life germ, be it great or small, is a spark from the Infinite source of all supply. This spark has never yet been snuffed out, and it never can be. Man has scorched his fingers many times in the attempt, but it was a needed experience and one which has proved of invaluable service to the world at large.

Took Out Her Wrinkles

Mrs. Jennie Thompson, living at E. 1315 Admiral Blvd., Kansas city, Mo., removes her wrinkles by a simple process at home. They disappear in a few nights. It also cleared her complexion and whitened her skin. She has nothing to sell—she asks no money and will accept none, but says she will gladly tell anyone writing her what she used.

And so it is with the Soul life, which leaves the body of man when so-called Death takes place. Sooner or later it takes on a new body. It finds a new home for itself, and if this new home proves to have been imperfectly constructed, as was the old one, another physical death results and another search is made for a habitation which is perfect in all its appointments. Millions of years have been consumed in these fruitless searches, but never once has the Soul lost courage or faith. It knows that eventually the fulfilment of its every desire will be realized and that life's struggle will then have ceased. It knows, too, that just so soon as man perfects his physical body and brings it into perfect harmony with his Soul life, and recognizes the fact that his body and Soul are one and inseparable and must continue so to be throughout all eternity, and builds his physical and mental organism on these lines, Death, Disintegration and Reincarnation will have slept their last sleep.

Good Cheer

Romp and rollic, Laugh and frolic, Sunshine all the happy day; O'er the clover Hovers over Blue sky—morn is bright and gay.

Flowers are nodding, Men are plodding— O thou child, life waits for thee! Laugh and frolic, Romp and rollic, Strengthen for the years to be.

We should strive to be progressive in the formation of character, as well as in the more ordinary pursuits of life, and each day grow stronger and better able to smile at the lesser evils that beset our paths; to look at them calmly and philosophically, and so extract all the good we can from them, and profit from the experience and the lessons undoubtedly present to all who are willing to search for them, and to look upon the bright side of everything instead of weakly succumbing and caving in at every ill.

Have you done some little thing, some loving service for someone to-day? Then you know why your heart is light and your vision clear to see the beauty and goodness in the world. In the thought or act of love lies the secret of living in the kingdom of God.

A single gentle rain makes the grass many shades greener. So our prospects brighten on the influx of better thoughts. We should be blessed if we lived in the present always and took advantage of every accident that befell us, like the grass which confesses the influence of the slightest dew that falls on it, and did not spend our time in atoning for neglect of past opportunities, which we call doing our duty.—Thoreau.

Fret Not Thyself

The little, sharp vexations, And the briars that catch and fret, Why not take all to the Helper Who has never failed us yet? Tell Him about the heartache, And tell Him the longings, too. Tell Him the baffled purpose When we scarce know what to do. Then, leaving all our weakness With the One divinely strong, Forget that we bore the burden And carry away the song. Phillips Brooks.

Came for Help

For various reasons, people (insane and deranged), come into our path of duty. They are there for us to be helped—upon us devolves responsibility—and as I said, for various reasons—magnetic, karmic, etc. This account expresses symbolism again. The "hair-combing" was physical expression of a comforting, soothing, helping. The Astral plane opened momentarily to W. E. B., and she accepted the appeal and her sympathetic vibrations accomplished a good purpose.

"I was reclining on a sofa in the parlor, reading a very interesting book (my husband was sitting near me also reading). Of a sudden on the page of my book there appeared the dead face of a young woman, then the shoulders appeared. She had evidently been drowned as her hair, which was very long and thick, was wringing wet and terribly tangled. Then I found a heavy black comb put into my hand, and my hand began to move over the dead girl's hair and I was trying to comb it. I was horrified. I arose and put my book aside and went to the piano—and tried to play. Then once more on the pages of my music the face appeared and I continued to comb the hair. I did not finish it, but the face disappeared. I was very nervous and I told my husband about it. Well, that was not the end. In a few days the vision appeared again, this time one side and hand and arm were visible. The hair was partly combed. I started to comb it again, this time with less fear. It came the third time—and the last time the full figure appeared—neatly dressed in a brown suit. Her long hair was nicely combed, parted and braided in two heavy braids and lay across her breast. Then with a great sigh of relief I knew my task was finished. I have never seen the vision since—the face was strange to me.

Our Undeveloped Faculties

M. H. contributes a brief narrative showing how, during sleep, one often learns things beyond the possibilities of the normal waking consciousness. "My father's ring was lost. I dreamed that it was out in the yard and next day went out and found it lying exactly in the spot where I saw it in my dream."

True Symbolism

Here is a spirit parable sent by A. L. It shows that the Powers of Darkness cannot trouble those who come into the Light. The slower vibrations are instantly annihilated by the rapid vibrations. And the higher we go, the more rapid, the more powerful are the vibrations. I have been reading of visions and spirit messages in the MAGAZINE OF MYSTERIES and I am very pleased with them. I firmly believe in spirit existence. (So does every intelligent person who has honestly and truly investigated. SERVATRO.) A few nights ago I had a strange vision. I thought I saw a young man and woman together. The Evil One came toward them, when there suddenly appeared a ray of heavenly light. I gazed at the gentle toward this light and it seemed that Satan could not get near them then.

Stranger in a Strange Land

Sometimes the individual who has passed over is sorely perplexed and distressed. Conditions are so vastly different from what was anticipated that it takes a considerable period in which to attain realization. S. M. gives us the following account of her real self consciously leaving the body and communicating with a disembodied person. This communicating is done by many people during their sleep, but they are unconscious of it or retain only a blurred and vague impress. Simply because the physical brain has not learned how to receive the intelligence from the real ego. And S. M. gave the troubled spirit some excellent advice.

"I had an experience last December that was most beautiful to me. I had gone to bed and felt my spirit leave the body and go to a place about two miles from where I lived. There I met a very troubled spirit from the Spirit World. He met me wringing his hands and saying 'my poor body is lying there mouldering in the ground, pointing to the place where the body was. I told him not to grieve about the body, that he found himself still alive. I told him to pray that God would send some holy and wise Spirit to guide him on up higher. Then I saw a pleased smile come over his face, the eyes turned heavenward and he passed from my vision. Then came before me a scene of a murder, just as it happened. He was the one murdered and the body was thrown into an old well and the well filled up."

Astrally Informed

Mrs. L. W. sends the following as a dream that came true. Her Astral self received the information from that plane. "This happened about five years ago, but it is true. I dreamed one night that I saw in a paper that my husband's mother was dead, so the next morning at the breakfast table I told my dream. My husband's brother was staying with us at the time and after breakfast someone came and said there was a long-distance telephone call for my husband's brother. I said to them that it was about their mother and when I saw them coming back home I knew they had sad news by their looks. I said 'it is of [your mother]'; 'yes, she is very low.' In two weeks she died and we read the account in the papers."

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR CURE

Lady Will Send Free to Any Sufferer Secret Which Cured Her.

From childhood I was distressed and humiliated by an unwelcome growth of hair on my face and arms. I tried all the depilatories, powders, creams and other rub-on preparations I ever saw, of only to make it worse. For weeks I suffered electric needle without being rid of my hair. I spent a great deal of money on various treatments, until a friend recommended a simple preparation which succeeded where all else failed.

This simple remedy enabled me permanently to find entire relief from all trace of unwelcome hair and forever end all embarrassment. It is safe, sure and can be used privately at home, without fear of pain or blemish. It makes the electric needle entirely unnecessary. I will tell in detail full particulars to enable any other sufferer to achieve the same happy results I did. All I ask is a two-cent stamp for return address Caroline Osgood, 316 J., Custom House St., Providence, R. I.

YOUR LAST CHANCE AT THIS PRICE

The Small Investor's Opportunity

NEW YORK THE MOST WONDERFUL CITY ON EARTH. YOU CAN PROFIT BY ITS ASTONISHING GROWTH!

For one month longer we offer choice, guaranteed building lots—in the newly developing suburb of New York City—at only Forty Dollars a lot—on easy payment plan. Genuine bargains because of unusual circumstances. Our neighbors ask over three times as much for similar property. Every lot is good—on fine, high, dry healthful upland—Waldorf Terrace. Title guaranteed by United States Title Guarantee and Indemnity Co. of New York. A special combination of circumstances enabled us to offer such a real bargain. Some day it will be difficult to believe that such excellent property could have been obtained for only $40 a lot. We got a good acreage at remarkably favorable prices. We are fair enough to share this advantage with our buyers. This offer is made by reputable business men who would not sell undesirable land. Your bank can verify this for you. We want you to prove it. Now is the last chance to get in at the bottom price. Wise people have bought Waldorf Terrace lots, from California to Maine, from Canada to the South. Don't let the opportunity go by you. When we raise the price next month, no more lots at Forty Dollars. That's positive and final. Two dollars will hold it for you; provided you act promptly. A new suburban section to New York City is to be actively taken up by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. This particular section has been slighted up to now. Land stayed cheap because of poor transportation facilities. It has been waiting for good service. Now it is to get the finest rapid transit system in the world.

The Pennsylvania Railroad organization has officially, publicly announced the magnificent service this section is to get—and, work is already started. Think of it! A six-track road, also a four-track road, besides various branches. All for this section. What a magical change will come. What a boom there will be in building lots here before long. Sure as two and two make four.

EX-PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S HOME IS IN THIS SECTION

Mr. Roosevelt's return home will fix all eyes on the locality and help boom it. The present Mayor of New York City lives in this section. Everything favors it now—to atone for past neglect. We will select your lot at Waldorf Terrace, on Manhattan Avenue, or Lonsdale Avenue or Cleveland Avenue, and send you a plot map showing your location. Every lot good—title guaranteed. Note carefully! The giant Pennsylvania Railroad Company is spending millions to unfold and develop this suburban section. Building lots there will and must go up and up in value. Let all this work for you. The shrewdest, richest railroad men are investing scores of millions in this section. Let it all work for you! Reap some of the harvest! Use their good judgment. Profit by their certain knowledge. Get a choice building lot at Waldorf Terrace—at present genuine bargain prices—before the boom starts. That's the way money is made in real estate. Look ahead a little but act now. DON'T WASTE; DON'T LEND; INVEST WISELY AND WELL. A trifle each month and soon you will own a fine lot. Everyone ought to own a slice of the earth. Pamphlet, with full particulars, sent on request. Get it, but better send in your reservation at once. You at a distance may safely purchase. We handle good land only and are fair and most liberal with our clients. When the Pennsylvania Railroad system is operating, goodbye forever to real estate bargains in this suburban section of New York City. A southern acquaintance had a friend coming to New York recently. He asked this friend to investigate our Waldorf Terrace proposition. The friend returned from New York and reported. Here is the letter we received and orders for eleven lots from the writer, and he says several more to follow. The letter reads: "Mr. B. returned here Friday. The gentleman with whom he stayed (his wife's cousin) who is an official in the Tax Department of New York, made inquiries about the lots and found everything satisfactory and he strongly advised Mr. B. to get in on the ground floor and hang on to them as in five years they would be worth $500. Mr. B. tells me he expects to take five lots within a week or two."

We, the Protection Realty Company, a corporation duly organized and registered under the New York laws, do hereby guarantee: That Waldorf Terrace is high, dry land, every lot good, title perfect, backed by the Title Insurance policy issued by the U. S. Title Guarantee and Indemnity Co., of New York. PROTECTION REALTY CO., 104 W. 42d St., New York City

'Tis Better Far to Laugh
Laugh! it is better far to laugh
And fling life's cares away;
'Tis well to have a time to laugh—

Parents who neglect to give their children an opportunity for soul-culture are neglecting a grand and blessed opportunity.

Let go the worries about the future which, no doubt, will never materialize, then hustle in the present with renewed force that has not been wasted by useless tension.

Let go the possession of material things until they really possess you. When relatives pass on, don't worry because you fail to receive your portion.

There is plenty left in God's world, and all that pain and useless heartache for yourself and others may be avoided if you will only think so.

Let go of your business when you come home at night. Give your poor tired brain a change, and don't distress your wife, who has cares of her own.

In Nature, which is God's object-lesson and emanation, we can always go to school, for there is no graduation; and in Nature we find the greatest factor for growth in beauty and blessing to mankind in the inactive, passive, just plain dirt.

It brings forth everything to charm the senses of man and also gives him his sustenance.

The beauty of the flower, pleasing his eyes with shape and color and instilling its sweet fragrance into his brain, the lowliest herb, the grains, the luscious fruits and all the verdure of the earth with its grand forests, restful meadows and tropical jungles overflowing with color and life, draw their supply from this relaxed, restful source.

As the beautiful spring days draw on, when one feels all the wonderful result of the passive winter bursting forth into charming effect of bud, blossom, fruit and life itself, let us take time to let go and absorb the lesson placed before us.

Let us passively relax on old earth's bosom. Just on the common (?) dirt, and with God's sunshine over and within us we can grow to such a stature that we shall surely become 'Sons of God.'
