CONTENTS OF THE "SPIRITUAL LYRE." (Sold separately: Paper, 6d.; Cloth, 1s.) INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

All men are equal in their birth
Angels, bright angels, are ever around
Angels bright are drawing near Arrayed in clouds of golden light
Assembled at the closing hour
As we part our prayer ascendeth
Author of good, we rest on Thee [right
Be firm and be faithful: desert not the
-alm on the bosom of thy God
-lay to clay, and dust to dust
-ome they, when the shades of evening
-erish faith in one another
-eath is the fading of a cloud
-earth is waking, day is breaking
-eternal Source of light and life
-far from mortal cares retreating
-father, breathe an evening blessing
-father of all, in every age
-fi-ating on the breath of evening
-for all thy gifts we praise Thee, Lord
-forever wakefully the air is turning
-forward! the day is breaking
-friends never leave us, those who call
-from realms supernal, fair and bright
-from the recesses of a lowly spirit
-God is Love: his mercy brightens
-God that madest earth and heaven
-Gracious Source of every blessing
-Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah
-Hail! the heavenly scenes of peace
-Hand in hand with angels
-Hark! hark! from grove and fountain
-Hark! the songs of angels swell
-Heaven not thy heart within thee burned?
-Heaven is here: its hymns of gladness
-He sendeth sun, He sendeth shower
-Here at thy grave we stand

Here we meet with joy together
How cheering the thought
How pure in heart and sound in head
How sweet, how heavenly is the sight
Holy Spirit, kindly bless us
How shall I know Thee in the sphere
If 'tis sweet to mingle where Immortal praise to God be given
In the broad fields of heaven
In the lone and silent midnight
In the sky that is above us
Is it not sweet to think, hereafter
Is heaven a place where pearly streams
It is a faith sublime and sure
Joy and pain to all are given
Let monumental pillars rise
Let one loud song of praise arise
Life is onward,—use it
Life is the hour that lies between
Lo, in the golden sky
Lo! the day of rest declineth
Lord! subdue our selfish will
Lord! what a fleeting breath
Love all! there is no living thing
Love never sleeps! the mother's eye
May the grace of guardian angels
Mortal, the Angels say
My God, my Father, while I stray
Nearer, my God, to thee
No bitter tears for thee be shed
No human eye thy face may see
Now the shades of night are gone
Now to heaven our prayer ascending
Ocean and land the globe divide
O give thanks to him who made
O God of ages, by whose hand
O land of bliss, my heart now turns

One sweet flower has dropped and faded
Our best Exemplar, ere he breathed
Our Lord is love: and would he doom
O Thou unknown, almighty Cause
O Thou, to whom in ancient time
O Thou who driest the mourner's tear
Part in peace! is day before us?
Peace be thine, and angels greet thee
Praise for the glorious light
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow
Praise to thee, though great Creator
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire
Sai its above hold sweet communion
Shall we gather at the river
She passed in beauty! like a rose
Should sorrow o'er thy brow
Sleep on your pillow
Slowly by God's hand unfurled
Soon shall the trump of freedom
Sow in the morn thy seed
Speak gently, it is better far
Spirits bright are ever nigh
Star of Progress, guide us onward
Supreme o'er all Jehovah reigns
Sweet are the ties that bind in one
Tell me not in mournful numbers
The Lord is my Shepherd; no want shall
The mourners came, at break of day
The morning light is breaking
The morn of peace is beaming
The dead are like the stars by day
The mystery of the Spirit's birth
The outward world is dark and drear
The perfect world by Adam trod
The Sabbath sun was setting slow
The Sage his cup of hemlock quaffed
The spacious firmament on high
The voice of an angel
The world has much of beautiful
The world may change from old to new
There is a calm for those who weep
There is a land my eye hath seen
There is a land of pure delight
There is a pure, a peaceful wave,
There is a state, unknown, unseen
There is no death—'tis but a shade
They are passing, upward passing
They are winging, they are winging
Thou art, O God, the light and life
Thou art the first and thou the last
Thou who art enthroned above
Though wandering in a stranger-land
Thy name be hallowed evermore
To thee the Lord Almighty
To the father's love we trust
To the world of spirit gladness
True prayer is not th' imposing sound
Your souls, like shadows on the ground
We come at morn and dewy eve
We gladly come to-day
We do not die—we cannot die
We will not fear the beauteous angel
Welcome angels, pure and bright
Whatever clouds may dim the day
When fortune beams around you
When I survey life's varied scene
When in the busy haunts of men
With silence only as their benediction
When sorrow on the spirit feeds
When the hours or day are numbered
When the evening star is stealing
When troubles overflow the soul
Wilt thou not visit us
With sunshine always
