CRITICISM, THE SPUR TO GENIUS; THE STATE THAT LURES TO VICTORY.

When Abraham Lincoln, long, lean, lank, homely, uncouth appearing, strolled through Illinois towns during the famous Steven A. Douglass debating contest, all the general public was filled with humor and criticism, of the most cutting character; but Lincoln soon silenced the ludicrous by his masterful poise, skillful initiative and brilliancy of intellect; the appearances of the man was lost in the Inspiration of the occasion, as made possible, only by the gifts of the mighty genius, indwelling the form of the man and the magic of his Insight, keenness of penetrating foresight, vividness of soul and heart, as expressed in all conquering Intellect; by one single public speech, before one single audience, this rough appearing, uncouth, ill-attired, country lawyer, wiped out the brilliantly attired and richly endowed Douglass, and wrested from him fame and name, while winning for himself a prestige such as is rare to any great genius. So all masterful and magical, and, at the same time general, was Lincoln's Superiority, that, in less than three hours' time, from the onset of the debate, the great audience, fired to a pitch of enthusiasm and admiration, absolutely, uncontrollable, triumphantly seized upon the formerly ridiculed form and carried it, upon strong shoulders, about the streets of the town. You can not defeat genius or innate quality; you may strive to ridicule and criticise it out of the way, but, sooner or later, it will spring into masterful expression and win the day. Giants stalk abroad in overalls while pigmies parade in broadcloth; it may be years ere the occasion proves the powers and gifts of a slumbering Superman, but stern necessity, either for personal or for public good, will bring out the rare genius, qualities and talents of the great in Soul, Heart and Mind, and reverse the state and place occupied by man. Some people never discover themselves, while others require tremendous forces against them to bring out the latent powers of their being.

Poverty is more often the school for rising genius than is affluence and wealth; like the forest tree, storms are essential to real strength.

This article has been called into being by the good graces of some of our esteemed readers, who have found the humorous and ludicrous side of things, in the vernacular and the English, used in the make up of this Magazine. To us it is a matter of pleasure to be thus noticed, even if ridiculed to a condition of supposed obscurity; to us criticism is but the spur that lends lustre to the sword, that pricks the mere form, but in so pricking it, arouses into mighty expression the fire of that Genius, dormant and latent within the Soul of us. We have a desire to discover ourselves and nothing so emphatically aids us in such discovering of ourselves, as the agony of those, so offended over our English composition, as to find moments to ridicule its peculiar phraseology, rythm and measure, grammatical, or rhetorical imperfections. In the words of Mine. Brillion, writing to Benjamin Franklin, let us exclaim, "To make an Academic Discourse, one must be a good grammarian; but to write to our friends all we need is a good heart." In our work, as an assimilation of the great and plastic possibilities, of all that Art, Creative, of a Universe would infer, we have undoubtedly fallen somewhat short of all that true genius implies; we have, as editor of this Magazine, never pretended to confine ourselves to high art, or to become a connoisseur of all the literary excellences of pure English; we have made but little effort to confine ourselves to the technique, rhythm, measure and perfected poetic exactness of style and finish, possibly, expected in most English composition; we have preferred the Spirit, heart and soul of things to that of the crust, shadow and form; we have simply undertaken to BE that inspiration of the ALL GOOD as the life and indwelling fire, magic and power, which through words and phrases, however expressed, or arranged, might become the inspiration of our readers; we have desired to reach the hearts and souls of the every day people, rather than please their intellects and, in so reaching them, convey to them some of the grace and Spiritual Illumination, which, acting in and through our own soul, mind and body, has enabled us to cast off and overcome disease, poverty and weakness and brought us to the first rounds in the ladder to soul attainment; we would comprehensively and concisely formulate and state principles, enumerating the aspects of condition and character as results of environment or hereditary preconceived possibilities, and in our own peculiar vernacular and wordology, state, per our own spiritual inspiration, methods and give demonstrations of the correction, of error through Occult and Psychic Process; we prefer the homely inspired version of things and principles governing them, given us of the Soul, rather than to conspicuously identify our writings and instructions, with technical perfections and obscurities necessitating nicety, in the art of literary composition; we would express that spirit which inspires and thrills, and heals, and uplifts, in spite of the word symbolisms, used as the clothing of creative thought; we would rather be ourselves, in expression, though accused of a few vulgarisms, than through literary excellence, as to finish and style, lose our identity amidst the sky rocket embellishments and effulgences of some limited Chesterfieldian circle of far-fetched elegances. Lacking the polish, the perfection of that precision and precise nicety, in composition, so much in vogue among the editors of the Classics and the works of review and criticism, we would ask our readers to accept us for what we are, wielders of that inspiration which leads on to Success, Health and Wealth. "Oh that our critic had written a book," then, might we hold him up before the mirror, that in so doing, we too, might draw out the genius innate, the latent powers of his soul and thus, in measure, return to him the same good he has, so unthinkingly, given to us, but we are constrained; for, "the thunderbolt is at the helm of the universe," and "like a torch in the night, man is lit and extinguished," while, "that everywhere surrounds us—yon great vault," in which is that Eternal All Pervading Spirit of that "Mysterious Being," who, to us, hast spoken, and, through us, hast made manifest His Attributes.

REACH OUT AND RAISE UP, OR KEEP SILENCE.

We should ever strive to regulate an evil rather than tear down every thing good for the sake of rooting out the evil. In our wild jumping at conclusions we often mistake our own righteous premises in the anxiety to correct an apparent evil. Something exasperating happens in the affairs of a community; we rise en masse and, instead of deliberative wisdom being permitted its sway, we rush into all sorts of foolhardy isms and advocate all kinds of wild methods and means for the correction of the matter in hand; people are like sheep, too often so, for the best interests and welfare of the general public; too often they flock to the standard of an unbalanced and chaotic leader; there is too little judgment used as to what is just and justice in the premises; this is not as it should be.

President Roosevelt, in his famous "Muck Rake Speech," and revised and published in the October, 1906, of "Putnam's Monthly and The Critic," very aptly put matters thus: "The wild preachers of unrest and discontent, the wild agitators against the entire existing order, the men who act crookedly, whether because of sinister design or from mere puzzle-headedness, the men who preach destruction without producing any substitute for what they intend to destroy, or who propose a substitute which would be far worse than the existing evils—all these men are the most dangerous opponents of real reform. If they get their way they would lead the people into a deeper pit than any into which they could fall under the present system." And again he states, "More important than aught else is the development of the broadest sympathy of man for man." "Spiritually and ethically we must strive to bring about clean living and right thinking."

"We appreciate that the things of the body are important, but we appreciate also that the things of the Soul are immeasurably more important."

"The foundation stone of national life is, and ever must be, the high individual character of the average citizen." These are the words of a statesman and a man of extraordinary understanding of the essentials to right and righteous government, as well as what constitutes the very quintessence of genuine citizenship. We have advocated, repeatedly, in our Magazine work, the rightful and normal education, per an evolving process, of the individual, so as to assure the best in the Institutional control of all matters of high concern to the people as a whole.

Reach out and raise up, or else keep silence, has been our motto; we can conceive of nothing more belittling than to be compelled to, forever, listen to pessimistic, tear-down policies; we can form no just idea of a theory that comprehends eternal undoing principles and no uplifting or creative, building ideals. The world has ever been under the cloud of evil intentions, evil actors and evil actions, but it has, also, ever stood firm through all its centuries, the same old world, ever and anon, evolving new and better conditions; out of the evils of the past have arisen most of the good of the present; out of the old must come the new and out of that which may have proved error and evil, alone, can we hope to gather, per experience, that knowing which guarantees better conditions. Evolution, not destruction, is the hope of mankind; overcoming evil by good is the salvation of earth's peoples. Awaken men's Souls; instil in them the power of brotherly love; beget in them innate power of creative thought; arouse the genius of each citizen's Soul Self and, ere many years, the problem of right, justice and equity to all from all, will have solved itself. Injustice and wrong can never thrive where the Souls of men are actually at work, aroused, quickened, awakened and expressive; a right Altruism will bring to bear a right Optimism which, in turn, will prove the death to a sinister or fault-finding pessimism.

THE NEW AGE, OR HIS SPIRIT WILL PREVAIL, ALL ELSE OF NONE AVAIL.

I am in the midst of thee; the glory of His presence is among men; the hour of Truth Revealed is here; the darkness of the long night is lifting; the mists of the final evening have been and the rays of the sun of righteousness is spreading o'er the land. Sing ye mortals on this clear, bright dawn of all the ages; rejoice in exceeding gladness, lift your eyes and behold "The King of Glory Coming in Raiments White," bringing with Him the new resurrection, that of men's souls; thwart no longer the awakening, quickening Power of the Divine Spirit; accept the One Eternal Life as revealed by Him and

His Spirit, here and now, unto all men everywhere, and be glad, while the gates of brass and bars of iron are being broken and liberty of Conscience is decreed.

Oh, Souls of men, how long have you slumbered! Rested amidst the surrounding gloom! The hour has almost waned; the clouds have rifted; the great God has issued His Fiat and Brotherhood of man unites in the Fatherhood of God, unto saving Health, Success and Wealth; all peoples are now mastering the elements about them and seeing light where, hitherto, naught but darkest Egyptian ignorance reigned supreme; the King has come again; not in person, nor personal form, but rather in Spirit of Truth, with power Divine, to claim and reclaim His own.

Storms of passion, of corruption, and corrupting organizations have broken over the land, both far and near; great corporations have risen, giant-like, as if to devour all the fruits of men and men's toil; giants in human form are stalking abroad; Gog and Magog are met in battle array; murders, rapine and suicides fill the air with vilest scents of coming doom; yet mightier still is the descending, indwelling power of that Spirit which is arousing mankind, as never before, to the good and protection of the masses as against the devouring greed and vileness of the evil classes. Great men, mighty men and true men, strong intellects, firm of mind and Spirit and soul are rising on every side; the day is coming in, the night is passing out; the old is swinging backward, the new is rolling in; the dead is dropping out of sight while the living springs into refreshed being; sickness, fear and doubt, worries and discords are things of passing power, while Love, Truth, Valor, Credit, Honor, Life and Righteousness in Spirit and in Truth is taking hold of Souls, Bodies and Minds of all earth's hosts. The new religion of the Soul is NOW; the old religion of BLOOD is no more; the Spirit of God is NOW an indwelling fact while the CHRIST NATURE makes of man "a SON of GOD" indeed.

Blest morning of the NEW REVEALMENT, yet not the NEW, but ever the OLD COVENANT made when first, "the morning stars sang together at Creation's dawn". Men, why stand ye idly by? Why refuse the glad tidings of great joy?

Salvation is of the Soul; is a FACT of realization in the Soul of thee; awaken now, while it is yet the accepted time and let "this King of Glory, Mighty and Strong, come in;" "Who is this King of Glory?" The Lord, (CHRIST) God with you, in you, here and now, "He is this King of Glory," and HE IS NOW in you, with you, made manifest by The Spirit, Universal, The Father's Holy Spirit. My eyes speak in rapturous, sparkling brightness as I feel, sense and Know I am, of Him, and He of me a fact, in Being; I reveal as His Spirit speaks within the great silent precincts of my Soul made perfect by His presence, here and now. There is no guessing, simply knowing, that is all; no seeking beyond reach of mortal vision or understanding, simply Being what He Is in actual manifestation, according to the WILL DIVINE. There are but two roads; but two revealments; one is that of LIFE, the other is that of death and the last enemy to be overcome is that of Death. There is but two choices to be made; there can be but one of the two prevail: it is LIFE or else it is Death; a Soul may awaken, become the Temple of the Living One, the King of Spiritual Life and thus BE LIFE, or refusing ALL, linger here for a brief span and, finally, drop back into the great Universal a lost Identity; which will it be? Life eternal, with an everlasting individualized character as living Soul, or else a Soul that slumbers out its mortal opportunities, and failing to accept the Spiritualizing, awakening, regenerative Process, lose its after identity?

The time has arrived; the age is upon us; the quickening Spirit is in our midst; the old is passing out and the new is coming in. The Signs are everywhere apparent; he who runs may read. God bless this blessed age and this more blessed awakening.

THROUGH THE SPIRIT OF WORTH, I AM DOLLARS.

Yes, I am DOLLARS right here and NOW; the world may move its own sweet way; all things abide as they have for thousands of years; nothing new under the sun; all as if nothing could be changed, yet I AM DOLLARS.

I am Dollars, not alone to and for myself but to and for ALL PEOPLE WHO SEE THE TRUTH OF MY PAGES; I am here before you, through these printed symbols, as letters and words speaking to you; back of me is the MIGHT of that Spiritual Power, THE ALCHEMY OF THIS UNIVERSE, which makes ALL THAT IS a FACT OF REALIZATION to, in and of man. Here before your eyes in your presence, I AM DOLLARS to YOU if YOU but CATCH THE SPIRIT in ME and accept its LIGHT and LIFE and LOVE as YOUR Spiritual indwelling Lamp of Being. Perhaps you fail to see me; mayhap you cannot comprehend the gist of things as presented to you by and from me; my topic may be too great, too subtle, too Altruistic; it deals simply with the missing Link, the lost chord of the SOUL of YOU, that which binds man back to God and His Righteousness; it solves but the problem of creative Genius; that Genius lying dormant within your own Soul; it is that of LOVE. Intellectual LOVE that which sets in vibrating MOTION ALL LIFE, ALL CREATIVE IMPULSE, ALL CREATIVE GENIUS and through the might of Creative THOUGHT enables man to WILL and to BE what he WILLS shall come to BE and to pass, as out from and environing himself, as a creative Selfhood. Solve this problem of SELFHOOD and self attainment, of YOUR own innate CREATIVE THOUGHT POWER and you have solved the riddle of man's potency and overcome his impotencies. It is the KEY to I AM DOLLARS, for I AM NOTHING until I BECOME just precisely what I WANT or WILL to BE; I am just what I am in KNOWING within my own SOUL an actualized FACT. I am Dollars, not Millions of Dollars, but needed, immediate supply of ready Dollars, not to me alone, but to ALL who SEE the SPIRIT here in ME and accept HIS MIGHT and EXPECT GENIUS in their own SOUL to respond to HIS illumining, awakening, quickening POWER, NOW, while you read, SEE, FEEL, SENSE, KNOW and EXPECT and YOU TOO ARE DOLLARS because YOU ARE, at last SOMETHING OF GENIUS, inspired expressiveness and hence WORTH to people around and about YOU. I am what people NEED; I am what the general public must have, otherwise I am not Dollars; this is the ALL in ALL to SUCCESS everywhere; I am Dollars but I am WORTH DOLLARS to ALL people desiring my services; the Soul of me has made me capable of producing and my productions are of myself, my innate creativeness; from my hitherto resourceless genius, NOW COMES FULL COMPLETE RESOURCEFULNESS.

My own innate genius produces that which is different from ALL OTHER innate geniuses, hence my own productions are not in competition with the productions of any other real genius; genius then, when awakened, becomes actual WEALTH because, per the LAW of supply and demand, I am Value exchangeable, per the Law of Mutual Exchange, for Value produced by all others about me and, ALL OTHERS, are incomplete without what I am, as a factor, in the make up of my community of interests, or as a factor, necessary to the completion of the whole. I am, then, what other people require and need and I am Dollars within myself, the actualized WORTH that represents Dollars, and Dollars being the means of exchange, I am Intrinsic Value exchangeable for my full, complete share and supply of Dollars. I am full supply of Dollars, because NO NEED, OR VACUUM CAN BE AS A FACTOR OF THE ONE, UNIVERSAL WHOLE; the Vacuum must be filled, or equilibrium ceases and equilibrium is essential to Progress; until I am an awakened, quickened Soul, I am nothing but a chance OBJECT among CHANCE CONDITIONS, without the pale of the ONE, UNIVERSAL OVERSOUL and form no part of Universal SUPPLY AND DEMAND; this CHANCE STATE precludes me from the benefits of the Law of mutual exchange, mutual necessity, mutual interests, or mutual supply and demand, and, so long as my Real Self slumbers, my Genius sleeps and my Soul lies dormant, and inactive, I am NOTHING BUT SHADOW floating restlessly, per the law of chance, among the countless shadow forms of a material kingdom, void of Spirit of Love, the only source of Creative Thought Power. I am, then, Nothing but what I can gather by accretion; I create nothing and I add nothing to man's good; I am then, lack of Worth or real Value, hence, I am, alone, what I CAN APPROPRIATE FROM ALL REAL SOUL, CREATIVE BEINGS. I may have Dollars, but I am NOT DOLLARS within my SELFHOOD, hence, LACK and POVERTY may arrest my progress at any time, in my flight among CHANCE FORMS; I am in possession, perhaps, of MILLIONS OF SOME OTHER FELLOW'S DOLLARS, but I am not, of Truth, a part, as yet, hence should I inadvertently collide with some other more powerfully attractive FORM of things, I may lose ALL I hold, per the law of mere CHANCE POSSESSION. Now, my dear reader, this latter state is the exact position occupied by most world people; they have Objective Form; they have Objective expression, in Intellect; they have shrewdness; they are keen manipulators, but at the same time lack creative WILL, creative THOUGHT, creative GENIUS and are, ever and constantly, facing CHANCE conditions for, or against themselves, as mere Objective expressions of Man.

Millionaires rise and fall, daily, even as do the tides of the Ocean; today, Dollars in plenty, tomorrow, Lack of needed Dollars; today on easy street, tomorrow, among the worry and fearful of mind, crowd, which is ever recruiting from the has-beens of the well to do class. Underlying this whole question is the Fundamental Principle of Worth; back of this principle of worth lies that of LOVE which governs brotherhood, or distribution, as to mutual interests and benefits; still back of this LOVE is WILL DIVINE, the propelling power of Mind; out from this latter springs Spirit, the illumining Light of ALL WISDOM, in everything and everywhere, the very LIFE of ALL that IS, or ever shall be. In touch with Creative Mind, Soul and Spirit, I am in touch with The Spirit of ALL that the vast Universe IS, or CAN PRODUCE; out of touch with The Spirit of Creative, Mind, Soul and Spirit, I am detached from the beneficial results of Universal and complete supply and I am but what I really express and nothing more; I am Dollars because I am the Soul, Mind and Spirit of ALL that IS; I am Dollars to myself and to my associates, because within the Law, I am a factor in at-one-ment with the SOURCE of ALL SUPPLY AND DEMAND; I am Dollars because I KNOW, and KNOWING, possess, and knowing and possessing, I am a supply STOREHOUSE within my own SOUL and what I am others are not, in REAL ESSENCE OF QUALITY, and what they, in SOUL ARE, I am, in REAL ESSENCE OF QUALITY not, hence I GIVE OF MYSELF, CREATED GOOD FOR WHAT others lack and receive, in exchange, my OWN REQUIRED NECESSITY OF THEIR GOOD, thus I am WORTH among that which is worth and I am Dollars, the means of exchange. In Truth there is all good; in Truth there can be nothing but good; in Truth there is no lack; in Truth I am free from every defect and every lack of real worth, intrinsic, abstract Value of good; in Truth I am ALL that "God and His Universal Kingdom of Righteousness" implies; in Truth I am, ALL in ALL, at-onement with the ALL that represents WORTH or VALUES; in Truth I am Dollars, for Dollars are but representative of Value, within myself, as the expression of ALL TRUTH, after once Truth indwells my Real Selfhood, the fount of Wisdom, Genius and Creative Thought. Get the Spirit of this ONE ARTICLE into your very SOUL and YOU will find the road to opulence opening up in ways hitherto undreamed of, and heretofore seemingly impossible of conception. Read ME, this Magazine, for One Year and YOU WILL BE DOLLARS, abstract Truth within YOUR OWN SOUL, and you WILL BE sufficiency of supply in every GOOD, whether of SUCCESS, HEALTH OR WEALTH and YOU will BE Dollars.

Attach yourself to a Circle of a Spiritual Kingdom; do it today; until you are so attached to such a Circle, you are a satellite, or maybe, a planet; be something of a SUN, or HIS POWER, if you would BE anything beyond a mere tool or non-success along the great highway of a Universe.

This Magazine met opposition from its inception, because it IS something above and beyond any other of its kind; it is opposed by ALL the Hypocritical NOTHINGS and Pretensions in ALTRUISTIC SCIENCE, because it elips their SOPHISTRIES, lays bare their NAKED, FALSE PREMISES, and wipes up the earth with PRETENDERS and FAKES; but this Magazine IS MONEY wrapped up ready for delivery to its Clientele, everywhere, and NO POWER, on earth, can stop its MAGIC, or its WORTH, or its Dollar-gathering and Dollar-giving Spiritual Inspiration; get in while the day is on; delays are but harmful to yourself; the world is onward moving; now is the DAY, not TOMORROW, for TODAY I AM DOLLARS or NEVER. Brains demand Dollars; Men and Women of rare capacity, attainment and ability are wanted and being in demand, they are Dollars. Great Intellects, commanding presences, poised individualities and balanced minds are in ready demand, hence they are Dollars, stock in trade. BE what the world wants and you are Dollars. All avenues are open to the great of Soul, Mind and innate creative capacity and ability.

THE SUPERSENSUAL GUARANTEES BUSINESS SUCCESS.

The great hope of all true men and women is Success; because success guarantees plenty; plenty fore-constitutes content, and content is the father of all happiness. Millions of human kind have lived and died slaves to ambition, yet sustained, throughout their mortal career, by an ever present ray of hope that their every ambition would be gratified.

Countless generations of men have leaned to religion as the one source of final triumph over adverse circumstances and untoward conditions; yet with all the Faith possible, and the daily utterance of earnest prayer, no seeming correction of distressing, undoing things ever arrived; their God seemed so far distant; so hard of hearing; so slow of action as to leave the final good until physical endurance had ceased and the Grave, like a welcome vehicle of escape, opened its silent vaults and ushered the fired-out form, of disappointed flesh into that incomprehensible vastness, entered but once, and the doors of which swing out and then back, never to open or close again. The religion of all the Centuries has brought man from ignorance, darkness and doubt far towards a solution of the mysteries that enshroud our Being; but with all this mighty advance, there still lingers a something undoing, unsolved, unsatisfying and unstable, requiring NEW LIGHT and NEW POWERS of UNDERSTANDING. Man, made in the IMAGE OF GOD; man the very representative expression of supposed God Powers, as such Image; man the heir to a Father's Dominions; man the Sovereign Lord of Earth and Earthly things and creations; man, given of his Creator, power over all these things, finds, after countless centuries of sojourning here, he is unable even to supply his own bodily needs; keep his own physical health; provide for his own welfare, as to content, health, happiness and plenty. Given an entire planet, appointed sovereign ruler over the same, with all things to his good, placed at his command, and every living thing, aside from himself, as subject to his management, rulership and control, still he is less free, content and happy than appears all other living creatures.

Religion, as thus far known and practiced, has done much good; but, as a business venture, it still slinks behind, shrouded in the gloom of stand-still dogmas; the Great Spirit of the Living Word has been lacking and the Spirit of Life, that quickens into power of creative expressiveness, in every day affairs, has either never been an active, Omnipresence, or else, man's Supersensual Nature has never been sufficiently aroused and made active in daily matters. Creative Power is of God; creative thought is from the One Mind of the Universe; Creative Spirit springs from the One Great Creative Source, as Central Orb of Being, and hence of creative power; man can be creative, in truth, only in so far as he is permitted of Creative Source, to imbibe of and express. Underlying, Original, Creative Thought, the source, alone, of all energy, force or life, that is or can be of consequence in the affairs of life; Power is of One Creative Source; Life is of One Life and knowing is of the One Mind. To know is to possess; objective knowing can attain to nothing beyond the relative, per comparison, until the Supersensitive Nature, that of the Soul knowing per Spiritual Illumination, permits Wisdom's Light to illumine the Dome of Intellect, the means of Objective Knowing and Expression; business success is a science founded upon fixed principles; business success requires thrift, energy, brain and push; but, with all these attainments, man is traveling blind paths, per the light of comparison and relative things; he possesses tangible things; he measures by surrounding conditions and by other minds and successes; he guesses, largely, what is possible, or to be; but prescience, the foreknowing, foretelling, foreseeing gift of the Supersensual, he lacks; his religion has never developed this mighty source of capacity, quality of knowing, innate reason, universally applicable, and that genius, the real of man, which is SUCCESS; hence, he gropes in darkness for lack of the real lamp to his feet, the Spirit of Success, given of the Creative Fount of Being, wisdom innate and Light of Knowledge, all assuring, and all conquering power of actualized Success. Awaken the Supersensual, and Business is Prescience, and this Prescience guarantees Success.

Our New Religion thus teaches and people are business Success, beneficiaries, per the Supersensual, of the Supermundane, as well as of the Mundane.

"A long period of peace, generally brings about a predominant commercial spirit, and along with it, low selfishness, cowardice and effeminacy, and debases the disposition of the people."—Kant.

A terrific storm may be a thing of horror or partake of the sublime just as we may be positioned, so relative to it, in our own safety.

People say that is beautiful, this is pleasurable or that is good.

The beautiful may appeal to all alike, it requires no special concept; the pleasurable is a question of individual realization; while the good requires a concept.

"It is said when two things are one, they are yet not one, for what we call a virtue in the merchant is depicted as vice in the Devil."—Ludwig Holberg.

When my day is turned to night,
Then it is, I seek God's Light.

OUR METHOD.

FOURTEENTH LESSON; THE DEFEAT OF BLACK ART OR HATE VIBRATIONS; OBSESSIONS AND POSSESSIONS.

We have a philosophy based upon the Fundamental Principle of Unity; it is not for the benefit of a class nor a type, but reaches out into the environing conditions of ALL THE PEOPLE in ALL walks and avenues of life. We seek to bring to bear the Continuity which guarantees progress along Universal Lines; we desire to unite and also to simplify life and expressive thought; evolution is but eternal unfoldment along paths universally leading upward and onward to higher, more powerfully expressive individuality, per change and growth process, as per the Law of Continuity.

Through Nature and Nature's evolving process, and per Natural Law, we unravel that which is termed "the unseen" and determine the relationship of the Natural to the Supernatural, so-called, of the Universe; through the Laws of the Natural, or material universe, we find the Forces of Nature but as the extension and continuance of the One Supreme, Divine Energy; we shall, of necessity, be compelled to understand the material universe ere we can hope to reach up to and bring down into our own manifest being the simplified Unity of the Immaterial; we cannot apply higher Laws until we perfectly comprehend and understand the laws of the material Universe, of that which is as Nature, found at our own doors, in our own sphere of expression and activity; who would apply the Higher Wisdom must then, first understand the application of earth knowledge; foolish, indeed is he who knows not the wonderful processes of Nature, and seeks to demonstrate the Laws and Powers, and Wisdom of that which must be sought alone, as coming down through, and expressive in, and of, and out from Nature.

People are in our work, ignoramuses, who never learned from Nature the simple means of self preservation, continuity of growth and unfoldment, or how to defeat and overcome storm, wind, tempest or other destructive forces, energies or agencies; how can such people hope or expect to reach success in the manipulating of higher and hidden forces if they remain outside the knowledge of the real, the first fundamental principles of that understanding which is the knowing that is absolute power. A molecule in the great mass must adjust itself to the common trend for the good of the whole ere it partake of the Magnetism essential to proper unity, protective to self, while the same to others making up the mass. Huxley says, "that science is but trained and organized common sense." Then Occult Science is but trained and organized Ethics, Religion and Economics, combined with common sense, for the purpose of growth, unfoldment, progress and attainment, unto that which is self-protective, self-energizing, self-evolving, self-organizing and self-attaining, as to the material and Corporeal, and Divine Unfoldment, Regenerative and Character Building, as to the Soul.

Divine Unfoldment solves the final riddle of the Universe, in that it permits man, through Wisdom and Knowledge, to grasp the Process of Nature through a process involving both Involution and Evolution and, per the Law of Biogenesis and that of Physiology combined with the Law of Continuity, proceed to master the elementary kingdom, per the eternal Divine Forces of both the elementary and the Spiritual Kingdoms. Now to Black Art; there are people termed Magicians, who having learned that forces exist destructive as well as constructive, derive special benefit and income through the manipulating of elementaries as agencies, for the undoing of human beings, in mind, fortune, health or other goodly conditions; they reverse the Laws of the Universe; out of Unity they attempt to create chaos; out of harmony they attempt to bring to pass discords; out of health they strive to transmute forces antagonistic or fomenting in general effect; out of mental harmony they would establish insanity, hurtful undoing mental thought waves; their work is that of destroying good; they deal with Demonism, chaos, strife, contention, hate, murder, Poverty Thoughts, Sick Thoughts, black spirits, diseased spirits, drunken spirits, hate spirits; they would promote Obsessions, take out a natural spiritual character for good and in its stead, implant a demon spirit of untruth, hate, worry, mayhap to be, absolutely antagonistic to all that belongs to the material or spiritual good of the victim. This affects victims in two ways, only, first as an Obsession, meaning affecting the mind, altering the mind, changing the mental trend of a person; second, by taking out the regular, normal spirit of the person and substituting another, of entirely different ideals and picked from anywhere and any source and of any old character; this latter state, has been proved a fact in so many cases, usually termed lost or changed identity as to need very little further elucidation. This latter state sometimes involves close relatives, where one passes out and a sister or brother shortly, thereafter, takes on the very expressiveness, in thought, mind and act, of the dead sister or brother, as the case may prove to be, and very often, this continues as a possession or changed character for months, or even years, when, suddenly, without any warning or previous notice, the party afflicted or affected, changes and becomes, once again, their former selves, seemingly, having no inkling of the condition under which they have, recently, been placed as to character expression, acts, etc. The first condition referred to, that of Obsession, is more apt to be felt as a very annoying and disturbing influence; the party afflicted, knowing the change is upon them, yet unable to account for the condition, the mental change or feeling, which ever it be, and unable to rid themselves of it or its evil effects. We have referred to this simply to place our students in shape to understand the difference between Obsession and Possession. There is another matter very often met with; a person, well, hearty and of good cheer and in prosperity, suddenly is seized upon by excruciating pains, sickness, or unaccountable fear and worry, also, may begin to fail in all efforts and, gradually, fall to pieces in all that belonged to their former good conditions; this latter is the common result and the most frequent outcome of Black Art; now as to remedies and remedial agencies; first, any first-class White Magician as Psychic, not a made-up Psychic, BUT A PSYCHIC, able to be the instrumentality of the Trinity as The Alchemy of the Universe, can overcome and cast out any of the forenamed conditions, or effects, of any kind of Black Art or Black Magic; second, if you understand the laws of Nature, as to growth unfoldment, casting off and overcoming processes and understand, too, the law of Occultism, i. e. that what you believe and what you expect, you invite; and what you sow you will reap; that each Spiritual Condition attracts its like and in the material opposites attract, then can you so manipulate as to transmute the evil, into powers of good, the ill into strength and good, the sick into health and sunshine; a center is all essential in any and all matters involving a process, hence your center must be that for GOOD or else its opposite, that of EVIL, as to your SOUL SELF; and your Objective Mind must be centered upon that which is Power for your Own Good, or else, be wide open to everything in the material realms, in the shape of outside thought emanations, good or otherwise. Hate will attract its like; Jealousy opens the doors to a million demons; Worry invites all the failure of a universe to take possession of your kingdom of Soul and Mind; Fear invites all that there is in chaotic and coward-producing conditions, hence, to FEAR is to tear down your fortress and bid all elementaries, evil germs, weakening, undoing thought waves and spirit weaknesses to come in and hold forth in your own realms of power and strength. You are the General in command; you are the Master at the helm; you are the only IT so long as you CLAIM your OWN, and Command your OWN, and DEMAND and EXPECT your OWN; to surrender is to meet defeat; if you fear a Black Art manipulator you are already surrendered to his influences and no longer able to resist his manipulations. If something unnatural comes over you, seek the CAUSE at once; set at work immediately to cast out the intruding condition; take up your arms of defense; shut the gates of your mind and Soul; prepare to do battle; command the soldiers, the Cells, Molecules, Atoms, or Electrons of your Brain and Nervous System, then of the Ganglia Brain or Nerve Centers, then the same of all the Tissues and entire Corporeal manhood, to get in line and keep them in line, and persist in your battle front being kept busy until all worry, hate, Jealousy, Poverty, Sickness, or Disease, or undoing things, thoughts, Obsessions, Possessions are cast out; this done, set at work LOVE INTELLIGENCES and SPIRITUAL ILLUMINATING ENERGIES and TRUST THESE ENERGIES AS THE GREAT, DIVINE ENERGIES AT WORK, even as actually of, and a fact in, your every Cell, Molecule, Atom or Electron, throughout your entire Physical being as to mind, body and spirit, and then, TRUST THE SOUL OF YOU, THE DIVINE OF YOU, to put in action and keep in action, a Psychic Process, Healing, Recreative, Uplifting and Spiritualizing, or more properly, Regenerative, and you SHALL WIN the VICTORY OVER ALL BLACK ART, SIN, DISEASE, POVERTY, DEATH-PRODUCING elementaries, Cells, Molecules, Atoms, etc., and SHALL prevail over ALL EVIL in whatsoever shape, form or condition it may attack you or be attracted to you.

THE BOY ON "EDITORS."

A little boy was given the stunt by his father to write an essay on Editors, and here is the result: "I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does for He haint got nothing to say about them and editors in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read of, and stayed in the bushes until after the flood; and then came out and wrote the thing up, and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies. I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty good one; but the editor goes without underclothes all winter and don't wear any socks, and paw ain't paid his subscription since the paper started. I ast paw if that was why the editor had to suck the juice out of snowballs in winter and go to bed when he had a shirt washt in summer. And then paw took me out into the woodshed and he lickt me awful hard. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung; but if a doctor makes any mistakes he buries them and people dassent say nothing because doctors can read and write Latin. When the editor makes a mistake there is lawsuits and a big fuss; but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfek silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot. When the doctor gets drunk it's a case of being overcome by heat and if he dies it's from heart trouble; when a editor gets drunk it's a case of too much booze and if he dies it's the jim-jams. Any old college can make a doctor; a editor has to be born."—Rapid River Rustler.

Love is the fulfilling of the law; Spirit is the Light of Wisdom; Truth is the Word of God made manifest, it being absolute.

GENERAL ASTROLOGICAL HOROSCOPE. SCORPIO.

All persons between the 24th of October and the 21st of November, inclusive, of each year are of the Zodiacal Sign, Scorpio; House of Co-action; Nature, exciting and dynamic; Astral Color, Scarlet. Of all Signs of the Zodiac there is none in which the people are so strenuous, political and dynamic. President Theodore Roosevelt and Ex-President Garfield are two magnificent types of the Scorpio Nativity. This is a water Sign, the second of the water Triplicity; it is fixed, reproductive, feminine and a fruitful Sign; it rules the privates and generative organs and governs male and Marriage, and is the House of Death as relative to the casting of individual Horoscopes. The ruling Planet is Mars and influenced, strongly so, spiritually by Neptune, the planet that determines or has to do with the Aura of man as to Soul expression. This Nativity is active, robust, independent, strenuous, dynamic and positive; dislike to be imposed upon; are war-like, determined, and seldom drop a fight or an undertaking, after once engaged in it, until all things have been cleared up and the field of adventure or operation is swept clean of opponents or opposition; will persevere even when others would deem such perseverance futile and often win by the doggedness of character thus shown forth; are apt as agents for others, and good leaders as well as capable government officials, as they will venture and dare where many another would fall short of undertaking or making an effort; are very apt to be fiery, quick-tempered and should be cautious when angered, as they are of the Tribe of Simon and often will harm, hurt or kill when under the impulse of anger. In love they are impulsive, ardent, aggressive and very jealous and should learn moderation and strive to curb their jealousy, as it is often upon the merest supposition that it arises and reaches, through the slightest suspicion, dangerous and ungovernable furiousness; so much so, that the nativity will strike, without warning a suspected rival or the one loved, as the cause of jealousy. This nativity can accomplish anything right, if but highly endowed, rightly poised and justly balanced of mind; they are naturally of the Subconscious, should unfold the Subjective Mind and strive for higher attainment, that of the Soul, to best succeed and best conduct themselves for their own good and that of humanity; it's, in fact a duty to so unfold, that they owe to themselves and human kind; yet we find many of the most frightfully materialistic and skeptic people in this nativity; they love military and exact sciences; literary work; civil and electrical engineering and contracting and architectural work; often are great successes, as merchants, dealing in manufactured products and as Lawyers, Statesmen, Literary and Corporation people. John T. Jerome of New York, is a good type of the Scorpio nativity as a Prosecuting Attorney.

They are most fortunate in places near water, also in large landed estates and cattle business, when turning to the agricultural lines.

Diseases are those of the generatives, Spleen, Liver, Kidneys, Head and Stomach, and they are extremely susceptible to poisons and accidents, especially by drowning, and are often ruptured. The people of this nativity have strong appetites, and are fond of the good and tasty things of life. They are dignified, so much so, as to be often accused of hard heartedness; they can be extremely deceptive when desiring to accomplish an object and are thoughtful and cautious in preparation for any and all undertakings; are generally respected; are good friends so long as it pays them to be such, but lose interest the moment things are not remunerative as the result of friendship or familiar ties; more Scorpio people are found in the Divorce Courts than all other Signs combined, as a rule, owing to the fact of fortune and self interest standing over and above every other consideration in friendship and other ties; they love luxury too well to long strive with poverty or poorly endowed people. Being silent, discreet, wise in defense and prosecution, and determined and dynamic, they are of the best of natiivities for government and military positions. When brought out in Soul and Mind powers, excel as workers in the forward move of civilization and often become of the first ranks as adepts in Psychic, Occult and Healing Professions. They should never permit jealousy, worry, fear, doubt or anger to possess them, for to do so defeats their every move and undertaking, and unfits them for any service, as they express just what they innately feel and sense; they should strive to trust other people more so as to be more favorably received and liked by associates. The Birth Stones are Topaz—Health and Friendship; and Emerald—Happiness and success in love.

These people should seek for marriage persons, as a rule, born in the Spring or Summer Months, and then take pains to select those of sturdy, quiet habits, owing to tendency to jealousy. They must too, select according to station and position in life, never going above or beneath their own station, or sphere, for to fail to do this means a sure road to discord and after-trouble, fights, quarrels and maybe worse; the best of people under right circumstances, but among the worst and most dangerous if otherwise. Love home and plenty in the home; will not remain long in any place not furnishing plenty of the goods and pleasures of life; best not marry until conditions are rightly favorable to the gratification of desire in all matters of life, and men should not marry a scorpio woman, unless able to furnish both plenty in the home as well as in the pleasures of life, in all details. Many geniuses are born under this Sign and when noted as such, seldom do aught but spoil it by marrying, as it is said, the wrong personality, and thus making a fool of themselves; usually must have a mate, however, and that too, early in life; yet it would be better for this nativity would it wait until at least, the thirtieth year has arrived before marrying. Noted people of this nativity, born in the past were: Martin Luther, the famous Protestant Reformer; Allen G. Thurman, Belva Lockwood, Anna Dickinson, William Cullen Bryant, James A. Garfield, Edwin Booth, Elizabeth C. Stanton, Robert Louis Stevenson, Marie Antoinette, Sir William Herschel, Ferdinand De Lesseps, Captain James Cook, Benjamin F. Butler, King William III, King Edward III, King Charles I, and Admiral Lord Lyons, while our esteemed and popular present President, Theodore Roosevelt, will add a name of lustre to this excellent list of the earth's notables born in the Sign of Scorpio. Go and do likewise.

“Money makes the mare go” is an old saying; how to get the Money is the awful question. Be what you want is the only answer. Be Worth and some one with the Money will become you long enough to make you Money in exchange for what you, in turn, become in that one, as the lack in his Being.

The difference between success and ill-luck is usually the difference between muddy water and good wholesome, sparkling, clear water; the one is not liked till cleared, and pollutes everything it touches, while the other is welcome everywhere and adds its share to sustaining life and brings gladness, beauty, health, strength and delight wherever it flows, or goes.

The higher up you ascend the cooler it is, but the more rarified the air and the greater the danger of sudden changes and storms; the higher up you go, the more the necessity for care and constancy and eternal watchfulness and vigilance. Do not forget with your rise upward you assume new and greater responsibilities and must toil the harder to retain your privileges; “the price of liberty is eternal vigilance,” in any sphere.

HEALING DEPARTMENT.

THE HEALER DIVINE.

The Art of healing is the most co-extensive of all arts; the power to assume a phase of Consciousness, and not only assume but actually possess and express such Consciousness is, indeed an art; to become actualized Consciousness of that which heals and uplifts and to be able to propel such actualized Consciousness, in such manner as to make it the Consciousness, in action, in another form self, is a high art; to Know and Feel and Sense the indwelling presence of the Healer Divine, in Consciousness, is the highest possible art. This amounts to true attainment; it is the attainment of all attainments, the most artistic and the most far-reaching. Christ, The Healer Divine, actualized, as Consciousness, is the art of all arts, the superbly sublime. To say Our Father, and to FEEL Our Father as an Omnipresent Fact of Consciousness, is to reach that art which of itself transcends all arts and can be felt and sensed and known, alone, as of that Consciousness of the indwelling Christ which is the art, expressive of The Absolute, through Soul Attainment. Who cannot feel, sense, know and express the Consciousness of the Christ Nature, as of and within his own Soul, has no conception of the high art of real Healing or Occult Power; he who is less than such a Conscious, feeling, sensing, knowing and expressing, is unfit for the high art of Divine Healing and should never attempt it. The Divine in man, is the result of an awakened Consciousness to the fact of the Christ as made manifest by The Omnipresent Divine Spirit; The Christ was ever and shall ever continue the Healing Power Divine in man; without His indwelling presence and Nature, as made manifest by The Holy Spirit, man is not and can never be, in fact, a Divine Healer.

No man can BE what a Nature or a Character IS unless he actually possesses within himself the Consciousness of that Nature or Character; the Art of Healing depends entirely upon this fundamental essential.

“Christ is the Healer Divine,”

The road to health and life.

All, in Love and trust resign

To His Healing Power, and strife

Hate, contention all pass away

Before the Magic Spirit Breath

Which, in Him, changes night to day.”

“As ye sow so shall ye reap,” said the Nazarene Centuries ago; “prove all things and hold fast to that which is good,” said another of the ones of ancient days. “Love is the fulfilling of the law,” comes from the same ancient lore. If we could but imbibe of these simple sayings all that they assert, as a principle, we should soon manage to put our Houses in order and terminate many of the ills that flesh is heir to.

A blighted life is like unto a blighted tree; the blighted tree must either be pruned and reinstated, as a healthy tree, or else, the gardner must cut it down and utilize it for other purposes than that of the living purposes of the tree. So too, is it with a blighted life, a sick body, an unawakened and slumbering Soul, something must be done, or else, a change of usefulness, in the garden of a Universe, must be the result.

What is Money, mere Dollars without Health or Power for expression or enjoyment? If you have Money and not Health and Soul Power to bring you into fullest and completest expression and enjoyment, is it not the part of Wisdom to exchange some of your Dollars for that which some one else Possesses, as a Gift, and thus BE both Health, Expression and Also Dollars, along with this Divine Blessing.

I am Health, yes buoyant Health; Every Cell in all my body is an assertion of Health; I am power Divine, innate, thrilling and Spiritualizing my every Living Cell and Atom with Vibrating Intelligence of constant, daily Health.

I am Conscious of the eternal presence of Spirit, the very Light of Wisdom, the fount of understanding, the All in All of Health.

TRUE HEALING A SPIRITUAL PROCESS
AS TO SOUL AND RENEWAL OF FORM.

True Healing is of necessity a renewal process; in order to continue a mutable thing, in form, it is but reasonable that, at intervals, it must be renewed; a readjustment of all the elements, atoms or cells of, or that from which a human form is composed, is a constant fact in a process involving the renewal and evolution of form; "there are four degrees of Spirit concerned with evolutionary growth, as spirit manifests itself in the various forms of nature—the mineral, the vegetable, the animal and the human spirit," so says Myron H. Phelps in "Abbas Effendi, His Life and Teachings," an excellent work published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York and London; The Knickerbocker Press, 1903.

Spirit is essential then, to all changes wrought by any proper process and without the Illumining Presence and Fire of Spirit there can be no real expression in action, as power of Soul; soul knows, but soul is not enabled to put in action its knowing until Spirit Reveals the Light of Wisdom and thereby permits that Wisdom to become an active factor uniting the form, as a self-conscious expression with Consciousness in the Absolute.

Matter, then, permits of the expression of spirit in certain degrees, in accordance with the principles of evolution, from the mineral through the vegetable, through the animal up and including man as an Immortal Being; Soul is the invisible, subtle substance capable of containing the wisdom, Love and Life of Being; but, in so far as man is concerned, remains incapacitated as to its fullest and completest expression, of Consciousness until Spirit, properly differentiated, as Light of Wisdom, Will and Love, makes possible the manifest expression of the Attributes of Divinity, as inherent qualities of the Soul. The Soul becomes capable of creative thought and Power of Healing, restoring Love, Wisdom and Will, only through the Omnipresence of Creative Spirit. Until The Divine Spirit Awakens and quickens the Soul of man and thus binds man, in Consciousness, back to God there can be no real Healing Process under way.

The Soul knows; yes it does know, but its knowing is of no power or conscious use, or utilization until Spirit Arouses its Forces and Energies and, very similar to the steam in the engine, forces creativeness, in Will Energy, in thought, in Love Intelligence, into proper activity and permits it, of the Wisdom of Creative Mind, to be an expressive factor.

Soul without Spirit may contain self Consciousness, the result of gathered experiences along the path in the earth sphere, but failing to attach itself, as an individualized factor of the great Oversoul with Consciousness in The Absolute, or Universal Consciousness, is unable to pass beyond past experiences, or knowing as gleaned on an earth sphere, as to superior power of expression; its character will be the character only as permitted it as of the consciousness of the earth man; its nature and character is then, simply that of the Objective permitted; its immortal Self-hood, as an individualized Character, can not be until Spirit has brought to bear the awakening process, that raises it up and out from mutable environing things, the darkness of material things, the land of Egyptian darkness and lack of knowing, into the sphere of the New Creature, that of the Universal Consciousness as a factor of Original Essence of Being. Self-consciousness belongs to man, as a physical expression, only, in being, and is of the mutable only and subject to the passing of the mutable; while Con-consciousness in the Absolute, is that of the Universal and Immortal, and Immutabile and is permissible alone to that Soul, Individual factor though it be of the Universal Soul, which asks for, receives and imbibes of the Light and Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Soul, in man, is the perceiving power of mind, able to prevail over all things, composed of matter; but until the Spirit of God indwells this Soul, permitting the knowing of God and His Love, Life Immortal, is not a fact and the soul, as an individualized entity, is not a living entity, is not a living soul, expressive of the Attributes of Divinity. Power is of the Spirit; the Spirit is the Life of Creative Genius; the Spirit is that which manifests Wisdom and Power Divine, which, alone permits us to become of Healing Power Divine; Spirit causes that undulation which permits Light of wisdom; Vibration is Life in Motion; but undulation, through Spirit Power, changes darkness into Light; therefore a Psychic Process involves Spirit and without Spirit, Soul does not heal or permit of Occult perfection.

He, the Spirit of Truth in you, doeth the work.

Occult, Altruistic, or Psychic philosophy that attempts to evade or gainsay the indwelling power, or Omnipresence of the Universal as made manifest by the Universal, or Divine Spirit, is a dead letter; it's the substance void of life; it's motion without undulation, and hence darkness.

All about us we find people striving to escape the Spirit, the very Light and Life Essence of all that IS or can BE, or that implies Immortality. Go where we may, in highest heaven, out into farthest space, into the very depths, anywhere in the wide universe, we cannot escape the Omnipresent Spirit of the First Great Cause; without that Spirit, all is as shadow, and but as of chance.

Wise ones speak and prate of Vibration, of motion, of Mind in action, but fail to say one word of the etheric undulation which, alone, guarantees Spirit in action, the only possible illuminating agency, which is actualized LIGHT; night bespeaks the lack of atmospheric and etheric undulation.

Have you an understanding of Law sufficiently so to enable you to regulate, command the changing of, and govern the sphere of motion, as required for the promotion of health growth in your own or other people's bodies? Can you utilize dynamics to such an extent as to permit Kinetic or Static conditions to operate as per the Will of your Super Self, the result of Spirit Knowing, or actual Spirit Illumination, the only actual Soul Knowing? Can you so trust the Soul of you, as Illumined of Spirit, to conduct a Process Evolutionary, uplifting, healing and positively renewing, as to partake of all the benefits of Universal Hidden Energies? Can you leave to The Divine Spirit all your worries, troubles, doubts and fears and permit Him to so act, in and through, the Soul of you, as per the Law of Continuity and Attraction, to daily renew your body and bring to you your sustenance or the means of obtaining constant supply of all your physical necessities? If so, then, are you on the way to power and becoming somewhat of an Occult.

The Soul of you, your real Selfhood, the within of you knows every hair of your head and the number of every hair, atom, cell or tissue of your physical selfhood, and when illumined of Divine Spirit knows what is needed and that which is needful for your health, preservation and the how to place you in right action for continuous and continued success. Can you learn to trust such a Soul Wisdom and such an Omnipresent power for your constant good? If so, you have solved the riddle of life's real SUCCESS, while here, and that of Salvation here and hereafter.

We do not pretend to great personal charms and magical mesmeric and hypnotic powers; but we do presume somewhat to Spiritual, Soul Powers and that understanding of the Law which permits of Genius and creative Soul gifts, essential to our own and other people's uplift, health and general success and good.

The real charm of existence is to BE a live center of Life giving resourcefulness; to receive of Life abundantly, that having received we may give unto others of our own abundance and still retain our own all sufficiency of supply.

Every human being possesses within the hidden recesses of the Soul a gold mine; it is there for his own enrichment; he alone, can patent it; none other can dig of its treasures; but he must discover the lead.

In Paradise we are told we shall be happy; "in the sweet bye and bye" we shall know no pains or aches, no anger, no jealousy, no sickness and care, and all shall be peace and LOVE, when in Paradise we shall find our home; well why not here and now get in the habit of enjoying some of these promised felicities? Why not begin here and now to be happy and free from jealousy, hate, sickness, worry and care? Is it not possible that Paradise may begin here instead of somewhere else beyond the skies?

Who can guarantee that things are any better there than here? What Soul has ever returned to say where Paradise began or ended? Not one single argument or proof of such an after condition have we, beyond the great saying of The Christ, "AS YE SOW SO SHALL YE REAP," and that SOWING BEGINS AND IS HERE AND NOW GOING ON. Paradise begins here and now, or we shall never enjoy any of its felicities; better commence paradise preparations while the opportunity is before us. We have conversed with some few hundred entities from beyond the veil, and, in every case, the intelligences convey to us but one thing, as you leave the body, as to Soul Attainment and LOVE, and HAPPINESS, and TRUTH, and LIFE, so enter ye the new phase of expression. There is no leaps and bounds under the Law of Continuity, or in that of Soul Progress, or as to the Evolution of man. Paradise begins now, or never; don't fool yourself by putting it off until you have killed all the time allotted you here and then expecting to enter, immediately, the realm of eternal Bliss. Billions of Souls have already discovered their awful mistake and we fear we shall do likewise if we fail to take up paradise, as our every day accepted condition, right here and now and keep the rules and regulations essentially those of Paradise, while yet in the body.

There is a power that rests never; that is ever continuous; that from the beginning of the Universe has never ceased its constant activity and immediate and remote co-existence; that power is the Spirit of this Universe in action. It is in ALL, in you, in me, in every living, vibrating thing; its eternal movement is that of the spiral, in and out, up and down, over and across, beneath and through and through; nothing escapes its Omnipresence; impossible to thwart is its ever present association with ALL that is or can be; it is LIFE in Motion, the secret of growth, the light of the Spheres and of the Soul of things, The WILL of the FATHER, the GRACE of THE SON, the MIGHT OF DIVINE LOVE, alone is made manifest by This Mighty POWER, THE HOLY SPIRIT. Do you want this Power Divine? Do you want this LIFE of LIFE? Do you want the Spirit's Breathing, true Inspiration?

If so come unto those who Know and Knowing possess the Key to the HOW to find HIM and HIS POWER and ASK and you SHALL FIND AND RECEIVE.

Do you want the HEALTH, UNITY, PEACE, THRIFT, SUCCESS and POWER guaranteed of this eternal Spirit and Know not how to gain it? Then seek out One who you KNOW HAS THIS SPIRIT'S BREATH, DIVINE and let him aid and lead you into that which you seek; such a one is the True Occult and he too, is Psychic and Mystic.

PARAGRAPHS.

To say the least it seems to us that the eternal strife among people professional bespeaks something far fetched in understanding, or also a lack of sincerity on the part of the practitioners themselves; the public cannot be expected to listen to Professional people who have nothing higher to prate of than the inefficiency of every one, aside from the one speaking; this has been the wonder of more than one person engaged in Altruistic Professional lines. We cannot ALL be True Psychics, neither can we ALL be Healers any more than we can ALL be musicians; so let us fill our allotted station as we find our capacity, and ability along with adaptability shall permit us and leave to the other Professional his own particular forte or method. There are a Billion or more actual phases of expressed possibilities unto perfection and no two can hope to Know, understand, sense, see or act alike. All the parts are essential to the whole and its final completeness. An Irishman can never become, in reality, a German, neither can a teacher always be, in actual fact, a worker-out of his own Theory. Some of the best teachers are absolute failures when it comes to the practice of what they teach. Some teachers who can explain every phase of Mystic, Occult, Psychic and Healing Processes are flat nothings in the attempt to conduct Healing, Psychic, or Occult Work; yet these very people are, usually the one's most ready to impose their inability to DO upon the public and make their inefficiency as practical exponents of what they splendidly teach, an excuse for abusing others who can DO the work, simply because their patients find it necessary to GO where practical, innate POWER is manifest and a FACT OF AND IN BEING. Differentiation along Psychic Lines is as much a fact as in any other Lines. Many good teachers of Law would prove utter failures if placed in actual daily practice and compelled to utilize their own magnificent gifts of teacher as prac-

tioner. We say it NOW that there is but here and there a Born Healer and Occult and that these so gifted men and women are so rare that there is but about one to every Ten Million People at this day and age. There will, eventually be a much greater percentage but until that time arrives it would be much better for TRUTH and ALTRUISM for the lacking of Born Powers to stick to their own GIFTS and leave alone the Healing of people. The larger the Gifts of an Occult, usually, the smaller the PRICES CHARGED and the LESS the NOISE made, and the smaller the Gifts the greater the GRAFT and the more the HURRAH and NOISE and the BIGGER the ADVERTISEMENT in the Daily Press.

Its the same principle as that of the Genuine and the Quack Doctor.

We should begrudge no man his success, his fortune, or his high position or noted name or fame, no matter who he be or what he be; for each man has equality according to talents and innate quality, alone, and no man may aspire to greater things than his fullest capacity and ability will guarantee; all else beyond that is simply chance, with the one exception that of circumstances being permitted to rule instead of man shaping circumstances. Each man has Omnipotent possibilities within himself; these possibilities are according to his Faculty combinations, as to position, place or business and having determined as to where his Faculties best position him, in the world's economics, he should at once permit the fullest and completest expression of creative thought and forces and energies, for his advantage and advancement along the avenues of his own particularized field of activity and opportunity; rightly positioned and with masterful self poise and energy behind him, any man WILL BE A SUCCESS in his own sphere and cannot fail of obtaining, in full measure, that which is his share of the Universal good; out of our own rightful position, as to Soul forces and Faculty expressiveness no man can best hope to obtain and BE what he, of right, is capacitated for and deserves as a recompense for his services towards the advancement of the Universal good.

No one should despair of attainment, provided he is wise enough to know himself, sufficiently so, to rightly position himself as relative to the general combination of all factors making up a given community of interests, as too, relative to progress of the whole; the trouble with most men is that of being in the wrong fields of operation, the wrong place for fullest and best expression of their own genius and gifts; no man can do best what is unnatural or the expression of some other man's genius or real gifts. No two men are endowed alike and no two men may express alike, therefore, if all men knew themselves and measured their gifts and talent as well as powers as to adaptability rightly, there would be fewer failures and more successes in life. The treasures of the Soul and mind cannot be stolen nor appropriated, they belong to but that one Soul for his good.

A boy came to this editor's house, sent by a firm to place a ton of coke into the basement. He began work by calling to his assistance another lad. The two fooled and talked and played from close to two o'clock up until almost five o'clock, afternoon, and still scarcely a third of the coke was placed away. The rain came on, the boy desired to leave the coke over until Monday to complete his task; the coke was at the alley way; the gates were open; in such a predicament it was not the safest proposition; we set to and aided him and encouraged him and finally, after delaying our own dinner hour and suffering untold annoyances, as dusk came on we managed to get the most of the coke stowed away. This boy expects and will receive the same pay as the man who had on a hundred other occasions done with quickness, neatness and promptness and without laziness and annoyance, the same work and that too, in less than 40 minutes time. The lesson is clear; the one person was worse than worthless while the other was WORTH MORE THAN THE PRICE PAID AND WE TIPPED HIM AS HE DESERVED. So is it with too many people in this world; they expect to share equally as do-nothings and baubles with those who are DOERS and ACCOMPLISHED AT THEIR DOING.

Something for nothing no man should expect or get; something must be given in order to have something receivable; the law of exchange holds good at all times, in all places and all undertakings. The Servant is worthy his hire, but the Servant must too be worthy of his work and BE what he is worthy of as his hire.

What are you doing for another? Have you one Soul to your credit? Have you given of your plenty in any measure for the good of another traveler along the great highway of eternal life? What of your own Soul? Have you sought your own Illumination and Salvation? Can you go into the Silent Precincts of your own Being and listening find there the answer to perplexing questions? If not, why not? The way has been found, the Temple is open upon the earth, the Spirit waits, and all is ready but for the coming of yourself to the Temple's Gates. Oh Mighty Spirit, descend here and now, into the Souls of men; Oh LOVE DIVINE, come, here and now, and arouse the slumbering, dilatory minds of men and instill that which shall set in motion the new, the higher LIFE, that ALL men may become of The New Creature, in Christ, here and now, Health, Success and Wealth.

Don't subscribe, don't buy, don't patronize this Occidental Mystic And Occult Magazine of Denver, Colorado; because to do so may mean Thousands, Hundreds, or Tens of Dollars to you; you might too, find SUCCESS.

HEALTH and POWER or even discover TRUTH by wasting a Dollar in such a forbidden way; then too, you might find out those who advise you to let us alone and the finding out might save YOU something; no, for God's sake, don't.

I have written my Magazine articles in words of fire, upon pages that time may fade and the elements destroy; but rest assured that every word you may read from these pages, no matter who you may be, or from whence you may spring, or of what revelation, shall remain, forever, engrafted upon the parchments of the Soul of you and, as living inspiration, awaken in you the fire of LOVE, the Light of Wisdom, the Spirit of Life. I have blazed the way for higher progress along the avenues of eternal Truth, and made possible the pathway to a healthier, happier, more peaceful and contented journey on your tour of the earth sphere; without price to hundreds of you, the past year, my words printed in this little 32-page messenger, have visited you, month after month, even though at times I worked after midnight hours in order to get to printers promptly.

No greater Love can we have than to labor on and on, content to do and to strive, amidst misunderstanding, contumely, falsehoods of rival and ignorant practitioner, with large expenses grinding upon us, day after day, and yet send out, without complaint, messages of health, success, joy and good cheer to those less fortunate still than ourselves. God bless you, you shall grow stronger, healthier, more youthful and more SUCCESSFUL, in spite of yourself, after reading each of our monthly issues, and this shall prove Truth to you.

A man with an idea worthy and ideals filled with sensible ideas for the solution of life's ills will seldom go begging for something to do or a place to sleep and eat; provided, of course, he has energy to push along his barrow.

If you would see the effects of the difference between a happy mood and that of disgust or worry, as depicted in the most telling manner, get one of George J. Kindel's Folders, lately sent out as an edict on "Try Kindel's Carpet Cleaning, Etc." 1618 Champa Street. It's a tremendous lesson, illustrative of our Philosophy, instantaneously seen; get one.

Stand up for the Truth that's in you;
Speak out for the world that's true.
Hold up your banner, march on recruits;
Claim your rights, in all life's pursuits.

WILL THE PHYSICAL BODY BE RESURRECTED?

To The Occidental Mystic and Occult:

Paris, Texas, Oct. 5, 1908.

There is an issue between Brother Shelton, publisher of The Christian and myself on the foregoing question, and as he publishes nothing but his own opinions I send this to your magazine in reference to some recent comments on myself and my position, as made in his October issue of The Christian; he calls me an ex-preacher and proceeds to ridicule the preachers for their ignorance. I respectfully decline the honor of ever having been a preacher and agree with him that the preachers, generally, are behind the age, but the doctors are still further in the rear than the preachers, because more materialistic. Although I have been an elder in the Christian church for thirty-five years, I have differed with the professional preachers on many of their Orthodox fallacies, including graveyard resurrection. The Universal Father is a God of order as well as of Law, and if it is a part of human science for the physical body to be immortalized, as Shelton maintains, then he is forced to the graveyards to lock up the dissolved particles of the billions of bodies that have gone down to the dust under the original curse. The fact that our bodies are changing all the time does not affect the question. If the physical body is ever to become immortal, it is the constituent parts existing at the time of the change that are immortalized, whether the change be death or resurrection. So we are forced to the cemetery, in all cases, when physical death has occurred. I have always differed with the preachers on physical resurrection, and believe that The Holy Spirit, in the Soul, clearly teaches that it is the Spiritual and Psychic that are resurrected, and Mr. Shelton concedes this in his comments in the following words: "But there is a body within the body which must be quickened by the Spirit;" this is my position; it is the Psychic Body which must be quickened and resurrected. Again, in reference to the transfiguration of Jesus, he concedes my position in the following words:

"This was before the resurrection, and shows that the dynamic body was in Jesus all the time. He simply kept it covered from eyes of men. In fact, that body is the man, for the immortal body can not be separated from being. It is the person. My dynamic body is myself, else I could not be regenerated or raised from the dead. As I have said, this body of the resurrection is hidden in the mortal body, like life is hidden in a grain of corn or wheat. It is our life. It is our mind."

This is my position exactly, except he calls the Psychic Body a Dynamic Body. The Psychic Body is the real man; the Body that is resurrected.

Let us see what the testimony of the Bible is about the Physical Body of man. When Adam was ejected from the Garden of Eden, the closing part of the judgment was as follows: "For dust thou art and unto dust shalt thou return." Gen. C. 2, v. 19. Thousands of years later when Solomon, the wisest man, lived on earth, he recognized this sweeping law of death as to the physical body, in these words: "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; the spirit to God who gave it," Ecclesiastes, C. 12, v. 7. After the resurrection of Jesus, the Holy Spirit speaking through Paul, recognizes the same universal law, in Second Cor., C. 5, v. 1, The Holy Spirit, speaking of physical death, uses this language: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens," evidently referring to the Psychic or Spiritual Body; and again, speaking of the resurrection the Spirit uses these words: "It is sown a natural body; it is raised a Spiritual Body; there is a natural body and there is a Spiritual Body." 1st Cor., C. 15, v. 44. The natural or physical body is sown in the grave and it is the Spiritual or Psychic Body which already exists that is raised or resurrected, as the new body; the physical body dissolved and returned to its original elements of earth and air and other natural gases.

And the quotation which Mr. Shelton makes from 1st Cor., forever settles the fact that the Physical Body can not enter the Kingdom of God, as follows: "Now this I say brethren that flesh and blood can not inherit the Kingdom of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption," and the language of Jesus which he also quotes, show conclusively, that when our Spirits enter the Psychic Realm, after physical death, they can not carry their flesh and bones with them, as follows: "Handle me and see, for a Spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have," the quotation Mr. Shelton makes from Ephesians, is an interpolation of the Roman Priesthood, who desired and largely succeeded in establishing a materialistic church and religion—besides Jesus the Christ is in Heaven, and the idea that He should there have flesh and blood is an absurdity, which no great philosopher and apostle, inspired by The Holy Spirit, as real man, would ever have been guilty of. I am aware that the New Testament teaches that physical death will, finally, be overcome: this will probably be by the body being dissipated and returned to its original elements, in the earth and the air without having to pass through the corrupting process of physical death: this will probably be at the coming of Christ, "when those living will be changed in the twinkling of an eye," and will appear in their Psychic Bodies, in the possession of all their spiritual senses; all will then be CLAIRVOYANT AND CLAIRAUDIENT AND WILL SEE AND CONVERSE WITH DISEMBODIED SPIRITS as many of the Prophets and Apostles did, and as Swedenborg and A. J. Davis did during a great part of their physical career and lives here on earth. The physical body is a temporary mold in which the Psychic Body and Soul is developed and the spirit is individualized: it is the spirit and the Psychic Body that is resurrected.

EBEN L. DOHONEY.

We publish the foregoing article without comment, as our own ideas have been fully expressed in all issues of this magazine, and we have the Query Column Department for any and all Spiritual Topics of possible interest and good to all people of every religious faith, creed, ism or Denomination, assuming no responsibility for any statements, aside from those of our own writing, as possible answers, etc.

EDITOR.

Prof. Hines:

I ask you honestly and with nothing but desire for actual truth, the following question. Can we hope, as is being taught here in Denver by some clever people, to ever reach a stage of such perfection, in our physical career, as to live eternally, in the physical body?

Denver, Oct. 19, 1905.

"No, it is absolutely impossible: it will never be possible: it is contrary to all Law. Mutable things MUST AND WILL CHANGE, all that is mutable is subject to change: no form, material, has ever evaded this Immutable and Necessary Law. Some assert that Moses escaped death: not so: if he wandered and died in some lonely place and was never found, as to body, is no fault of law: he died as all men have died, in the physical and to the material realms, and his Soul, above, continued to live in other realms.

Jesus died: not a man or a woman, lives today, who lived so short a time back as one hundred and seventy-five years: there has never been a violation of Divine, or Universal Law and never SHALL be such a conglomeration permitted. Dismiss the foolish idea and like Helan Wilmarz, the greatest of believers and teachers, along those lines, make sure, that in the end you

WILL pass on and leave behind your Physical Form. Quit wasting your forces striving to set aside the Immutable Laws of Almighty God and try and content yourself in OBEYING the same; you will be the better for so doing, especially so, when, per those Laws, your Soul must pass on to larger and more useful fields. Common sense is the best teacher and common sense will never permit an insanity of the type you refer to.

It is not only insanity, but, in a teacher, is absolute absurdity or else deliberate DECEPTION for the purpose of attracting attention or making money off Obsessed Brains. It's the same principle of saying the body NEVER NEEDS a Medicinal or other Remedial Agency; there is several Coza loose in the Brain of the Advocate; that's all.

Every man and woman has capacity and ability for something; every man and woman can improve the quality and raise the tone of their own innate being; there is nothing but what we may improve upon; Altruism teaches the HOW to attainment and the HOW to utilize SOUL forces, energies and creative thought, and in so teaching man his own superior ways and means, provides the method for superior expression and the utilization of higher gifts. Man and woman are a unit in all Altruistic Philosophy, separate as to personal polarity, but a unit as to the Soul of things, hence the general term man.

There is but one LIFE no matter how many be the forms or means of its expression. Biogenesis solves the question scientifically: out from the One Life springs all Life in everything everywhere: to say lives is absurd and incorrect when speaking of the life of Revelers, our DEAR LEARNED FRIENDS to the contrary: LIFE, Spiritual LIFE representing "Spirits Breath," or Psychic, is Of and Continuous as, the One Universal LIFE.

The tall man, the great man whose head stands far above most of those about him, is unfortunately in sight so much so, as to be apt to shade the little fellows and, of course, he must expect them to throw barkings and slurs his way, now and then: its human nature to dislike him who DOES things and DOES them right.

BOOK EXCHANGES OR REVIEWS.

Book Reviews, conducted by the Editor of this Magazine, and with an eye single to Worth and genuine Merit, regardless of Class or Type or Creed or Other distinction.

We are in receipt of the July, August and September numbers of Power and Poise; edited by Virgil English, M. D., and published by the Power and Poise Publishing Co. of 2183 East 74th Street, Cleveland, Ohio. We found two articles, among the many excellent contents, of rare merit. One entitled "The Theory and Philosophy of Drunkenness," by Earl William Gage; the other by the editor on "How to Overcome Bashfulness." If you have not read these two specially worthy articles and you have the price to purchase the magazine, get to front and buy a copy and sit down and read and digest the import of both articles; it will do you a world of good. The Price of the Power and Poise, is throughout the United States, 50 cents per annum; foreign countries, 75 cents, and per copy everywhere, 10 cents. We hope to list this valuable magazine among our regular exchanges, as we shall certainly profit by so doing, as it is devoted to health and character building—"to the development of well balanced men and women of high efficiency."

We do not often find it interesting to specially note the work of the daily press, but we desire to say without hesitancy, that the Denver Post, in its campaign editorials is not only bringing into fullest expression the genius, latent in the soul of Hugh O'Neill, but, is also, pretty nearly stating the right principles governing the issues at stake in the election of, at least a factor of the tickets to be voted upon in Colorado at the coming election. We would, however, suggest the elimination of all that might prejudice the selection of the electors for president, as the national candidate can have but little to do with the local afflictions from which we might suffer. Vote your national ticket first and vote it straight, then, if so disposed, scratch to suit the best interests of Colorado's future. William H. Taft will be ELECTED and if you favor TAFT so VOTE regardless of all Else. Duty demands that we DO THIS and NOTHING should swerve us from DOING our duty as we see it.

Among our exchanges for the month we have the following list of magazines:

The Balance, Mrs. Olive A. Killin, editor and publisher; Prof. J. H. Cashmere, associate editor; 1143 Josephine Street, Denver, Colo. Price, $1.00 per annum.

Mrs. Jennie Crowfoot, with her specialty—Psycho-Therapy and special remedial agencies along with it—has been astonishing the bald-headed unfortunates, with success almost phenomenal, in the producing of an absolutely new growth of hair; also per same process she stops falling out of hair and does away with thin or scattered conditions. Office and parlors at The Ethelyn, Colfax Av. and Tremont St., Denver. We feel assured she has a scientific process, and recommend her and her process to the general public. It's simply the application of Psychic or Occult Methods to a special work, and it does what no tonics or similar efforts, heretofore tried, seems to have accomplished. She advocates restoration of the cells and believes in cellular growth, and she is correct.

Ella H. Griffith, M.D., 222-23 Temple Court, is recommended by this Magazine.

Robert S. Goss having completed the special features in the work allotted him, for the Independent Order of Puritans, of Pittsburg, has appointed a regular State agent or organizer, and the good work will now go on. We have two policies in this association, and feel perfectly safe and justified in speaking for the success of the association in our State. The rates are as high as old-line company rates, which speaks for the assurance of the policies and safety of the holders thereof.

If you really desire real progress in piano playing, get Mrs. Adelaide Wolcott's teaching for yourself or for your children. Remember, music is in you and of you, and must be evolved, brought out of you, and Mrs. Wolcott knows the HOW to bring your music out, and the HOW to execute after it is brought out. Her prices are reasonable. Information at 1438 Tremont Place.

Leon A. Freeman, of 1315 Cherokee St., Denver, is owner of one of the greatest labor-saving conveniences out, as a patented article. It is a clock device for turning on and off the lights, electric, at fixed hours, and will do its work perfectly. Can be set for any given time for turning on the light, and, at the same time, is the same clock set for the switching off of the light, thus saving all over-time and nuisance of a man running all over the city to attend to these important matters. Here is an INVESTMENT opportunity, as Mr. Freeman cannot place it himself. The Keystone Law & Patent Co. of Philadelphia has the matter in charge for sale.

Anything we advocate or speak of in our columns will be known or, at least, worthy of looking into, or we shall not publish anything regarding it. Investors may find something worth while cropping out in our columns when they least expect it. Be on the lookout; it will pay you.

Be something; Do something; Earn something and Draw what you earn.

Give the best you can for the service required; expect the best wages as returns for that service and earn the wages expected and you will never fail.

THREE ADVANTAGES OF MAGAZINE ADVERTISING

1. ITS PERMANENCY

The life of a magazine advertisement is long. It remains effective for many months, often for years. A magazine is read, passed on, reread, goes to hospitals, to the army, navy-abroad, and is at last put on sale in the secondhand book stores, and begins a new life. No other form of advertising has this longevity.

2. ITS PUBLIC.

The magazine reading public is the live, up-to-date, busy, enterprising, inquisitive public. The magazine is the business man's and the housewife's literature. It is the recreation of the leisure hour, and the mirror of the world's events when these have been sifted from the chaff of rumor and mistake. Magazines are cheap enough to reach all intelligent readers, good enough to command their attention. The magazine public is the material upon which to build permanent advertising results.

3. ITS COMPANY

The great magazine advertisers are the prominent successes of the business world. To be associated with them in the public mind is to secure the very best publicity—to enter the aristocracy of advertising.
