RESPONSIVE CHORDS.

Good morning! 1909. "A Happy New Year!"

Truth is Divine; so is that Divine which manifests Truth.

God speed the old year's leavings and bless the New Year's favors.

Over the bier of 1908 lay garlands sweet, While turning about and 1909 to greet.

A master in Truth is a master in Deed; it's the lack of Truth that defeats a master design.

A good book is often the making of a character and the first step in the unfoldment of a Soul.

Fanaticism leads to error; error leads to wrong; wrong leads to crime, and crime is next to hell, for remorse is hell.

"Straight is the line of Duty,
Curved is the line of beauty;
Follow the first and thou shalt see,
The latter ever following thee."

We defy nothing that's good or for the good; we do defy all that's of evil or for the evil, provided it proposes to fool with the edges of our buzz saw.

The spirits of the great and small,
Like dim spectres flitting everywhere,
Remind us, only, of what we shall all
Some time, some day, be glad to share.

Enter the New Year with firm resolve, earnest purpose, and let content become your happiness and riches, and honors may resolve that you are a suitable and fit object for consideration.

A resolve, we make, too great to break;
Such resolution made, no need of a brake

To check the downward speed, or stay
The rapid pace that leads us astray.

Push and grit wedded to vim and grin,
With pluck and laugh, and will and win,
Are worth a thousand "I can't's" and whines;

A million "I wishes" and monkey-shines.

A real stayer and a mighty poor quitter makes business thrive and all endeavor a final success. Not what we were, but what we are, is the thing that determines our present worth and station.

He that hath the Word backed by Divine Will infused with Divine Spirit, has Life. Life is then a principle; life is continuous; life is unchanging; he that has life has then the spirit of the Word which is life.

Spirit Divine, illumine all for success and health;

Bless all the poor, the sick, all mankind with good;

Bless each traveler here, with Love and wealth;

Cast out all gloom, bring in joy and bless our food.

Take good care of the body and the body will take good care of you; as we care for the body so do we determine our real innate disposition as to character and general daily habits; the body will never lie; it tells its truthful story, right out in meeting.

Brave life's difficulties as you would a wintry storm; prepare for thorns amidst the roses; rocks along the way, and do so just as earnestly as you prepare for winter's cold or hunger's demands. Haphazard methods and work is the undoing of most well-meaning people.

"A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men."
A little smile the while, 'tis said,
Brightens each face, raises the dead.
A little house with a little love,
A little comfort from heaven above;
A childish voice or two—all is said.

Money and friends usually flock together; keep enough of the first to pay your daily way and you will seldom lack for the second adjunct to human progress. It's well to keep on the right side of the dollar as a requisite to worldly success, but this should not mean to make the dollar our only god.

Godliness is Spiritual unfoldment and growth; a principle, not a creed, a form or an ism; godliness is life, truth and love, energy's transmutation, transformation and uplift for health; health is godliness because health is Life, Truth, Love in actual expression, in process of growth and unfoldment unto perfection.

The damage done to poor people and general business, by the eternal croaker about hard times, is more than a billion dollars annually, in the United States alone. Fear is the most frightful monster that ever entered human realms; reason, common sense, everything bows in abject horror before this inhuman demoniac condition of man's mentality.

If the wealth of the world
You would seek and foreknow;
Let loose your grip of greed
Your clutch on earthly "dough."
Heaven blesses, in full need,
The generous, in time of need;
No foe totally bad but self
And selfish greed that toils,
To undo, the nobler other self.

Inspiration is the jewel of the soul, the solace of the intellect and the binding of earth to high heaven; inspiration is the final triumph of Spirit over matter, of soul over flesh; it is indeed the result of that unison and accord of Spirit and mind, which completes the rounds of the infinite as possible of utilization and manifestation through the bounds of the finite.

I would rather believe and know than to doubt and fear; I would be far more pleased to have it said he loved well, felt deeply the Spirit's presence and revealed wisely Infinite Thought and Divine Truth, than to be counted a multimillionaire or the wisest of earth's sons and be void of credit, of having the Indwelling Wisdom, as manifest of The Divine Spirit.

We, as Occult, like the great Musician, are skilled in the manipulation of the keys of the instrument upon which we must perform our magical Art. Our instrument is the Brain and Nervous System of our patron or patient, or the unraveling of the skeins of the Soul's of men and women, with but the same object as the skilled musician, the bringing into expression Divine Harmony.

Nothing there can be but has its good if used as purposed; nothing evil is there but what contains the good if transmitted into health, love or uplifting energies, or vibrations for growth. The over-zealous make evil out of religion and godliness, while the broad of mind transmutes selfishness and unrighteousness into a religion of godliness.

‘Tis well that two days of each year are devoted to renewal of life's energies; the one in Clarity of Mind and Heart toward the young and in rejoicings over Spiritual Re-birth, and the other as the day of new resolution and the beginning anew the year of hope and success. Blessed Holiday Season! how often have we refreshed our manhood and started on brighter and happier walks of life as a result of your annual advent.

Watchman! what of the world, its woes and tears?

Of the poor, the wretched, the toilers of years?

Have they no solace, no comfort, no power that cheers?

Have they no God, no Spirit who quiets their fears?

Watchman! speak! for a Voice from the deep is here,

Demanding, from thee, a reply at the birth of a year.

All people should respect the laws of the universe and the just laws of their Country, State, County and City; but no man should prove a sycophant, a groveler, a sniveler; bow the knee to nothing in heaven, or in the air, or on the earth; stand erect; read good literature and good books; let dime novels, the curse of two-thirds of our modern youth, alone; be manly and womanly, but not snobbish or foolish; both God and man respect such citizenship.

Perhaps we may live many years, even though abusing the functional organs of our physical selves; perhaps we may succeed in covering up our debauchery and wrongful use of God-given privileges and health promoting functions; but the man who can see will not be deceived; he will know whether we are all we pretend, as to correct habits and ways; the face and eye and very walk will speak, in tones unmistakable; we may deceive ourselves, but never humanity at large.

The one LIFE is that from which all forms are infilled with life; there is but the one LIFE no matter how many forms manifest it. Continuity of Life does not comprehend nor infer Life, but rather being, making manifest Life and imbibing of the One Life and existing solely in the One Life.

If lovers should never disagree; if man and wife would ever remain as lovers free; if all the world would only solve Love's great decree; if, like the stars of night, the world's in space all so true, to their eternal courses, we should prove; if like the Sun, radiating life, light and heat, a blessing to all that around him circles, we, too, might be; and like the moon a mellowing, softening power of reflected light we all might strive, in sorrow's night to be; what a grand true world of Love and Unity this planet would shortly show.

Many in Higher Spiritual Vocation or Profession say we should pay no attention to Money or Money Making; we say Money, as a means of exchange, must be dealt with and must be considered, hence, we advocate enough care for Money, simply to make man's possibilities come to him free from the anxiety caused by insufficient supply of the means of exchange; no man can be his greatest who is crowded and pinched to meet his daily obligations, of a financial nature, and none are free, or care free, who are not free from such anxiety.

The Soul of man is that which, as a factor of the great Over soul, is in correspondence with all that represents Soul throughout the vastness of all the Universe; but until illumined of Divine Spirit, the Soul as an Individuality is out of correspondence with the Word and The Will of the Creator of the Universe, and also with all soul factors of the One Great Over Soul; Spirit is the principle which places man, as a Soul Entity, in correspondence with all that is, whether as to individual factors or atomment, as to the Universal Whole.

From out the depths of infinite peace springs all that's good; from out the shallow precincts of Senses Objective, springs the Demon Desires that in appetite, lust, greed, false desire of heart and mind, bring sorrow, sickness, poverty, devils of hate and envy and jealousy.

Man builds for good or ill as he accepts from these two sources, the good or ill; his future path is made, alone, by himself, as is his future residence, throughout for eternity; blame no one, you your own SELF are MASTER of ALL you ARE, or MAY be, or CAN be.

Nothing can equal the all-inspiring scene of a bunch of little ones the morning after Christmas Eve; if there was no other good in this yearly revival of an ancient festival, we could ill afford to let its awakening energies die out; we are children twice it is said, once as the child, and its hopes and imaginative concern, and again, when at ripe old age, we join these happy little ones around the Christmas toys and joys. God bless the inventive genius who gave us Santa Claus and the Birth Season, which keeps the day of good old Santa as a yearly festival.

Worth in talents rarely fails to get representative worth in Money, the present measure of all values in exchange; yet we do find worth sometimes sorely defeated through injustice of friends or meanness of rivals and the chicanery of people who strive to lie all worth out of its own; in these cases it's a duty for brotherhood to assert itself and help such worth to get the proper opening for expression; all men possess talents, but it will, at times, happen that opportunity fails to permit expression; real charity here asserts itself, in the helping of such an one to help himself.

Make divorces hard to get; no, make marriage hard to get, and you will strike at the very root of the evil; the educative Institute must correct the blunders being daily committed by improper, unnatural and ill-matured marriages. The grand Institutional, in its triune significance of Political, Religious and Educative, means evolutionary processes at work for the correction of all evils arising in the community of interests; but, in most cases, correction of evil seems to begin at the top instead of at the root; at the outer effect instead of in the inner cause.

The stock-taking season is on; let us include among other things our present resourcefulness and resources of mind and spirit, as well as of worldly goods; let us not fail to check up very carefully and, if leaks or weakness show up in the stock-taking, let there be immediate striking of a balance and a restoring of the rightful conditions for correction of any defects discovered by our annual inventory of talents, health, mind and spirit. Soul qualities and Mental Stamina are worth more than gold, because these things, or energies, produce that which, as worth innate, shall attract the gold.

Some men may live with no conception of Spirituality; but no man is ever truly great without soul inspiration, and hence an acknowledgment of the Spiritual Nature. We may deny the reality of the Omnipresent Power of First Great Cause, as Spirit indwelling the Soul of us, but our every thought, word and deed will tell how much of God Attribute and how much of The Universal Spirit is expressive in and through us; no man can cover up innate quality as inspiration or as life; the genius of the soul so differs from the genius of the mere physical mentality as to bely all attempts to defeat Spirit from manifesting power.

Are you a child of desires, or unable to see aught else but gratification in all that belittles, enchains, breaks health, credit and name? The abuse of your body is sin most foul, the harbinger of most all the ills of life; shame to him who cannot rise above such foolishness and turning functional desires into organic health-producers, free himself from life's countless ills. Is this for Health, not is this for my detriment through gratification of false and feverish desire? This alone should be the great question asked in reference to every thought, act or desire to be gratified; if not for health, beauty and growth, cut it out.

The plaudits of men; the good will of our kind; the knowledge of having kindly thoughts sent our way is well; but better still is the wisdom of God and His Healing Power, that through Divine Grace we may better the conditions of the sick, the unfortunate, the separated, the worried and flurried of the human race. "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God;" meaning blessed are the wise of purpose, pure of intent and active in wisdom's spirit, for they shall see, as of The Spirit, which reveals God and His works to, and in, and through us, unto our own and other's salvation and saving health and, in the All-Good, prospers our handiwork.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you;" this means, get the Spirit of right and truth and absolute good thoroughly within the Soul of you, and health, success and honors, and all that's right and uplifting, true or good, shall be yours; this actualized good in growth as consciousness of good.

Who has the right as a consciousness within him will neither wrong others nor himself; he will be justice within himself and hence, justice to all others; this is all there is to higher attainment or perfection in law. Godliness is a matter of innate consciousness, nothing else.

"No boat can sink that carries the great Caesar;" no army can fail with the might of Washington, or the stolid, silent power of Grant; neither can any cause fail that has The Spirit of Christ, in the active Faith and Trust of a Soul devoted to GOOD.

Vast in its resourcefulness is the Genius of the man whose Soul is a Microcosm of all that manifests power of Love, Truth and Spirit, in the Macrocosm, or Universe. Such a Soul, as Microcosm, becomes a minor reservoir of all the Intelligences, magnetic and electrical currents, and Spirit powers, and Divine Energies of the Macrocosm; who then shall hope to overcome, delay, or defeat the work of such a Soul, in action, as a great white Magician?

Some people wonder what ails their business? Why they do not prosper? Why their credit is so poor and measly? If they would look at home, within themselves, and see themselves as the great broad world beholds them, then would their answer come in truth; and obedience to truth, right and purity, in mind, purpose, deed and act, would restore all they complain of as lack. "With the pure Thou art pure, with the foul Thou art foul," said the Psalmist thousands of years ago, of his God. The Spirit knows, and the Spirit rules, and the Spirit speaks out in meeting; you cannot fool the Spirit of Light, pure Love and Life, in purity, which is healthy and righteous purpose, in action, instead of mere gratification of desire and sense control.

Live to self if you can, but remember to self alone no man can live and be true to his mission or his own betterment. Countless living, vibrating atoms, living intelligences, swing daily around, about each one of us; to live is to breathe, and to breathe is to imbibe of these living, moving atoms; we are indebted to the very atmosphere for every breath that gives us life, and live as we may, we, too, give back our share to the all-life of a universe; no man can hope to live to himself, try as he may, without incurring such an indebtedness as to require aeons of time to repay; pay as you go is the highest accomplishment in material matters, and even so, is it in spiritual matters. Each life lives by the sacrifice of other lives. We are all vampires in some particular way.

Will always into being, form, or expression what you want to be, the outline, the state or condition.

After having willed anything, stay with what you have willed until accomplished and results are as you willed them to be.

Do not attempt to will what is contrary to Law, to Good, to Truth or that is unreasonable or unjust, to self or to fellow being.

Will for others as you would have others will for you, and will as if your will were the exact continuity of Divine Will.

A Concept or Ideal must first be created, projected and be thoroughly held in Mind, and rightly so held with understanding, as an image built up of airy Form, in the Objective Mind, ere will is of any consequential effectiveness in Creative Work.

A Concept is the Clothed Bundle of Creative, Soul Ideas; these Ideas are made up of Creative Words; to be Creative these Words must be Spiritualized, made Live, Illumined, Expressive Symbols from a Divine Origin, because Spiritualized or Quickened of The Divine Spirit, within the Subjective, or Soul Mind, the second phase of expression of Divine Mind.

Without these Creative Words, rightly quickened into Living Symbols, there can be no reality in Creative Thought, neither can there be, then, any reality of Creative Concept as a bundle of Creative Ideas, thrown, as an Image, upon the Camera of the Objective Instrumentality, the Brain, through which this fundamental process will is of consequence in action, because void of substance with which to act.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, and without the Word there was nothing made that was made;" again, "The Word was made flesh," so says St. John, first chapter. God willed this Word into Form and into visible and invisible manifestation, expression and action; but before the Word could become anything, God also Breathed into this Divine Word His Spirit, The Spirit of The Father, The Divine Spirit, and it was then, and not until then, a LIVING SOUL, UNIVERSAL.

So even in the Creation of a Universe, Will necessitated a Substance, infilled with Spirit, as Life (activity within itself), The Word, The Way, The Truth, manifest; hence, Will, Word, Spirit: Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The Concept, or Design, as Divine Thought or Image of the Universe sprung into Being, within this Original, Primogenital Body, or Word, and the Underlying, Original Will, Propelled this Concept into shape, to perfect itself per Growth Process and, thus we say, God Willed and It Was as He Willed, because, once He Willed It, He never withdrew His Original Will or Purpose, as Willed.

The foregoing is exactly the Process and Method of Procedure required of man, as Super-man, or Soul Illumined, or Quickened, Creative Man, as a New Creature; within the Soul, the Real Ego, lies the Word and when quickened by The Divine Spirit, it Propels a Concept, which becomes that which man Wills it to become, after once Objective Mind grasps with understanding the same as formed, as an image upon the Camera of the Brain.

There is nothing under heaven wrong if rightly used; it's the abuse and not the use that determines the ill; no Code can determine what is right beyond the Code of Spirit, Truth and Love, which always proves out in perfect Health; yet it is not always willful violations of laws of being that destroy Health; parents before us, even grand parents, may have transmitted their violations of law down to us, or else we may have been harmed by accident or overwork; in such cases get Health and stop the evil by restoring the good; your duty is to BE HEALTH no matter what the violation of law or other cause which brought the ill to you; but in over-indulgence lies the greatest cause of all ills that flesh is heir to; stop it now and live for growth unto perfection in Health and you will soon reap a rich reward in Spirit, Body and Mind. It's never too late to build anew.

White are our fields and hills; cold and crisp our usually balmy air; yet we would not give up these wintry days and nights for all the world were we to be denied, ever again, enjoying such a change of seasons.

'Tis the change of scene and season gives contrast sufficient to overcome the ennui of too constant sameness; while 'tis the mixing of good and evil, warmth and cold, that aids in the enjoyment of the good and the realization of the warmth; all things are then to each of us as are the reflections of the mind or the mode of reception. The same Spirit gives life and glow to all, it's only in the taking and the manner of receiving and sending forth, again, as to whether it be well or ill with us.

Life is much as we make it, and things are very apt to seem as we view them. Winter, then, is a glad some season to him who so accepts it, and a reinvigorating time to all who choose so to appropriate its crisp and snapping air.

Man makes a sad mess of many good things; in the by-ways, in rooming-houses, in shanties, and lowly shacks, upon the public highways, all about us are to be seen the wrecks of once promising manhood and proud womanhood; some are the victims of other people's follies or abuses; others are the robbed and fleeced of other kind and noble specimens of the "do all others or they'll do you." get rich by any means, foul or righteous class; while still others are the remnants of parental negligence, chicanery, selfishness, starved from the cradle in all that goes to make manhood or womanhood; some are the victims of a system which has thrived as the vampire of modern civilization, upon the brain and brawn of mankind; but the saddest of all are these poor wretches who having enjoyed every advantage of money, training, food and raiment and peace, comfort and plenty, have succumbed to passion's and evil habit's undoing influences, and thus deliberately sold their birth-right for a mess of pottage.

The man who, through fear or greed, hoards up money, keeps it buried or out of circulation, or in any wise refuses to utilize God-given possessions, is a PARASITE, a DRONE, a MISCHIEF and UNDOER, and should be forced to ACT, or else his MONEY forced, by public decree, into useful and ennobling fields of industry and thrift. Over two-thirds of the Actual Money of the world is constantly rusting away in hoarded sums. Not Socialism, but USE of MONEY in the world IS what we need to break up lack and poverty everywhere. If men must hoard, then TAX the stuffing out of IDLE FUNDS and COMPEL the disgorging, or else the EATING UP of these hoarded up sums which so CURSE present economies. Idle Money, not IDLE hands is our most MENACING TROUBLE right NOW and HERE, in this day of the world's progress. A millionaire is no disgrace provided his MONEY is constantly sent forth as BLOOD to the BODY of the great COMMERCIAL and SOCIAL FABRIC of the Secular Institutional. New LAWS are NECESSITATED ere we can hope to stop man's worship of the HOARDING PRINCIPLE in matters of the Almighty Dollar. Money is the means of exchange, not a god, to be kept housed in gilded vaults or piled up in glittering piles. Drive it into circulation.

'Tis said, there is a house in Philadelphia where, once upon a time, a janitor's family resided; that since the janitor's death, no living person has ever been enabled to pass out of basement carrying any article in the hand; that numerous people have carried an article in without a sign of molestation or hindrance; but upon attempting to pass out with the same article, they were knocked down at the door, or passageway; the haunted basement seems to have a power, or spirit force, or something posted there, that proposes to bar all removal of anything once deposited within the premises. It is claimed skeptics, as well as believers in spirit manifestations, are all treated with the same courteous knock down, if undertaking to pass the doorway with anything, no matter what it may be, as a package or article touched by the hands of the party coming out; a policeman bet a crowd, so the story goes, that he could go in with his club and no spook would dare to molest him as he returned with club in hand; he passed in all safe enough; but alas, when attempting to return, he was knocked flat and remained some minutes in a dazed and unconscious mood; friends had difficulty in managing to reach him with fire hooks, as all who tried to drag him out were knocked down and out, by the shade or spook, and even the hook used was knocked about in savage mood. The spirit is still champion of the basement.

The shot of a pistol rings in the air,

A man cries out, a murderer turns away;

A scream, that of a wife in wild despair,

A hurrying of men marks a sad affray.

Be sure, and make sure, that he's dead,

Stammers a voice in accents of power,

As the criminal coward fires at the head

Of the lifeless form, dead at his door.

A mountain can hold a million squirrels, but one squirrel can utilize a dozen mountains and still be free; both are matter in form; both are manifestations of the same substance, as retarded motion; both can be penetrated by sharp instruments; but delving into the mountain leaves the mountain still a permanent institution without visible disturbance, while, with the squirrel, its death to form and disintegration. What's the principle that determines the difference, if all is Spirit and matter is not? Why didn't the mountain groan and squirm and then die and decay, as did the squirrel? If pain is not, then what was the matter with that squirrel that it twisted and quivered and died?

"For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaketh in you." Matt., 10:10. "Therefore speak I to them in parables, because they seeing, see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand." Matt., 13:13.

Thus mentalism may possibly relieve aches and pains; but without The Spirit of your Father, chronic disease and sickness, poverty, etc., is not overcome and cast out, and healing, per growth process, per indwelling Spiritual Consciousness, is not a fact, neither is health a possibility, as a new Consciousness. Beware of that condition that so deludes you through hallucination, as to permit the organ of mind to so become another mind as to permit you, through denial of the existence of disease, to die by inches under the sweet tutelage of some other fellow's mentality.

Obsession is a disease of itself, and Mesmeric process of healing is all there is to pure denial of disease, and such treatment is obsession as to process.

"It's only a step from the sublime to the ridiculous," yet the multitude seem to forget.

When a hen lays an egg, she usually cackles, and the world hunts the egg. What's the difference between the hen and the egg?

OUR WESTERN LAND.

The Star of Bethlehem rose o'er fair Galilee centuries ago and the Voice of the Great Creative Spirit spoke to men the Message of Divine revelation; it was the beginning of that inspiration which, first finding followers in the distant East, has westward wended its way, until to-day it finds here, amidst these everlasting hills, like sentinels of the Eternal City, its highest manifestation among the sons of men. Westward, like a magic spell, has been the spiritual advance. "Westward the star of empire has taken its way," but to carry with its effulgent ray, the "glad tidings of great joy" first whispered to shepherds two thousand years ago.

A child was born in far-away Bethlehem whose name, like a benediction of eternal Spirit, has lifted the lives of men from the brink of sunken hopes, a last wail of despair, into the ecstasies of Faith. Hope and the assurances of a resurrection of the Soul. "The Way, the Truth and the Light" was made manifest by the birth of that One, and man was set free from despair, despondency and death. Empires, both great and small, have since arisen, lived out their usefulness, lost in the dread conflicts of time and fallen beneath the decay of neglect, and scourge, and man's inability to govern man; yet The Spirit brought to light, in that far-away cradle of the birth of "The Prince of Peace," has lived to thrive, and thrived to grow, until millions of human Souls acknowledge its all powerful Light and Life, and rejoice to sing the everlasting Hymn of Creation's triumph and the redeeming Spirit's Power. The Codes, the Ethics, of other men have risen, flourished for a day and then become a thing obsolete and forgotten; the religious sentiments of the great of all the Empires of the Ancient, Middle and Latter days have had their sway, failed to prove the solace sought, declined and faded away, but Christ's Code and Spiritual Revelation stands with greater power, more radiant lustre, more perfect manifestation, as the ages roll on in their relentless sweep of the span betwixt man's earthly career and his celestial Kingdom.

Yes, "westward the star of Empire takes its way," and westward the Star of Bethlehem speeds its Luminous Light, o'er hill and vale, through rock-ribbed fastnesses, o'er plain and valley, into millions of homes, and The Spirit of Christ breathes into millions of human Souls, as 'twere into great Temples of Light, the Vibrations, set in motion, by Him these centuries past. Here, in this Western Land, where the brave Spirit of the Indian Savage, the spirit of a race, whose god was Nature and whose hope was those far-away clysian fields, "the happy hunting grounds" of Nature's worshipers, the most healthy and fearless race that ever made manifest the great spirit of indwelling trust and faith. Here, still farther towards the realms of the setting sun; here in our radiant home of repose and ease; here is that broad bivouac, "the encampment of the soldiers of a night," as first believed a trackless desert; here has been founded and established an empire that ushers into dawn an epoch, before which the magic of the sages of the ancient East shall become as simple things and pass away, as 'twere a star that had served its age and burned out its sheen, but to be driven back that the new and brighter orb might illumine the stretch of space before it in its stead. From out the realms of infinitude, Master minds of world-wide fame, the seers and prophets of every Creed, Sect, Faith and Ism; men with souls illumined with the Spirit of Progress, Light and Faith; men of every stripe and type; New Thinkers, Orthodox and Scientists, all are entering this land of sunshine, health and fortune, marshaling the forces "that like an army," shall conquer the elements, overcome Nature's impediments, make glad the desert tracts with teeming harvests, and, delving deep beneath the rock-bound surface of our hills, pluck from their dark recesses precious minerals that shall enrich a world; men who shall regenerate mankind, heal the sick and raise above want and care the poor of every clime. Fortune, home and fame are here, blest land of far-famed freedom and Spirit's Light. Here are we free from dread famine's spectre; safe from the cataclysm's awful fate; free from seismic quiver and volcanic lava, fire and smoke; proud may be he who claims thee as home of the Soul, domicile of the body, birth place of true genius, and that inspiration which guarantees continuity in all that aspires to greatness of soul or achievement of mind. Here our Spirit's free; here we are as God intended we should be; here are we, Sons of God indeed; children of the great new dawn.

HALLEY'S COMET AGAIN APPROACHING EARTH.

The great Halley Comet, the Monster of dread to Ancient peoples, is again approaching our atmosphere and by May, 1910, will be in full and magnificent power of expression to the earth's people. This Comet returns to our environments in about every seventy-four years; it is one of six Comets that belong to Neptune, the god of waters and Spiritual manifestation. This great Comet, now approaching us at a tremendous rate of speed, should, even now, be visible to telescopic view. Before July of 1910 its Nebulus beauty should fill our atmosphere with a grand and awful brightness, and carry with it that which inspires admiration for the wonderful of Nature's mighty travelers, through immense space.

Heretofore the visitation of this Comet has marked periods of Famine, Death, Destruction, Wars and Eruptions in Nature and the Social Fabric.

It was about the year 205 B. C. the first recorded presence of this planet was followed by the Fall of Greece and the Ascendency of the Roman Empire over that Ancient Babylon of Art, Literature and magnificent expression of Physical Power in the physique of the people; again in the period of history recorded as of 131 or 130 B. C. this Comet traversed the earth's atmosphere and the brilliancy of its Nebulæ outshone that of the Sun, and the death of the far-famed and famous Mithridates took place, as the people thought, as an evil result of the Comet's visitation at this time; the P. S. A. Bulletin for November, published by The Advance Thought Publishing Co. of Portland, Oregon, says of this visitation: "Its tail was so long it took four hours to rise and set," and "there were a number of well authenticated appearances of this Comet to 1230 A. D. That year the Mediterranean Sea was frozen over; in England there was a famine which took twenty thousand people, and it was considered to have caused an electrical storm which continued for fifteen days." Again, "during its appearance in 1305, the Baltic Sea was frozen over for fourteen weeks;" "its appearance in 1466 was coincident with the fall of Constantinople and it filled all Christendom with such dread that they added to The Ave Maria the prayer, "Lord, deliver us from the devil, the Turks and the Comet."

"There is no doubt that it possesses a powerful influence, which in the past was dismaying to the unenlightened, but have we not attained now a development which will enable us to utilize this great Energy for GOOD?"

We will answer who has the Spirit of this Vast Universe, whether of himself or through the instrumentality of a man, as a Divine Leader, Psychic or Occult, need not fear; for during the past thirteen months of Fevers, Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever and Contagion, and a period of high death rates and suicides, NOT ONE CASE HAVE WE LOST AMONG OUR LONG LIST OF PEOPLE SCATTERED EVERYWHERE, and not ONE CASE OF CONTAGION HAS ENTERED OUR LISTS; GOD has BLESSED OUR HEALING AND OCCULT WORK beyond measure.

So let the Comet carry his swift destruction where he please. OUR OWN PEOPLE we SHALL guarantee shall go through unharmed and with perfect safety in ALL things GOOD. We know the LAW that OVERCOMES disease, distress and ALL Elementary Evils, and KNOWING we are POWER to save, uplift and restore.

GREETINGS TO 1909. A FEW PREDICTIONS.

With the year 1909 we enter again the period of twelve months ruled by the Planet Saturn. This means a year of tremendous opportunity, serious conflagrations, and unusually good for most portions of the earth for bountiful harvests; yet beware of famine and suffering in other portions of our great sphere of crowded peoples. Good for America, both North and South, but inopportune and disastrous to large portions of the far Eastern Hemisphere. Great storms at Sea, Cataclysms by land; something frightfully and overwhelmingly to some Island Districts and some Tidal Wave Disasters are almost a certainty during this year of extraordinary changes and history making. Three great cities within the borders of our own United States seem destined to some catastrophe only to become the greater, however, after the conflagration or catastrophe; that is, each time the cities will rise with renewed strength and beauty from out the ruins; man's works will prevail over the elements, even though, temporarily, the elements crowd themselves with hideous grandeur and assume a position of awe inspiring power. This will be a year of stupendous new undertakings, of rapid advance and evolution in all new undertakings and invention, as the influence of Saturn, while evil in many respects, is that which assures slow, sure, solid growth to all matters begun under its year of rulership.

To the daring, the brave, the poised of Soul and balanced of mind, this is THE YEAR of tremendous awakening of Genius and the lead for new undertakings that, if begun now, will grow, and prosper, and thrive for years to come, and, especially so during the year 1910—that of Jupiter; 1911 being the year of Mars, the God of War and Battles will require special notice, fore-preparation and cautious plans as to world movements and political and economic, as well as Psychological developments and changes, sure to come with that already marked year. If we fail not in our Pre-vision, the year 1909 will close with less of a world population to the census lists credit than it opens with; but that is one of the methods employed by God and Nature to clean house and restock and reinstate as well as reinvigorate the human races. We advise immediate investments in all that you desire to win remunerative returns from; to hesitate is to lose opportunity and not to again see like chances until after 1917. 1909 is the year for the rise of small investors, the farmer and the individual merchant; be ready and be fearless and go forth to conquer now, or forever hold your tongue and cease blaming fate or opportunity for your dilatoriness and cowardice. Bank deposits should be immediately withdrawn and the MONEY put to work, now, not next year, but now, at the right year of sure, certain growth of all that means after sustenance and good to your purse and substance. To those inclined to sickness we say beware; this year, delays will prove fatal; get under the care of some proper Psychic Process and stay under it through the year, or else failing, do not blame us for the lack of timely warning. January, April, May, July, August and September be watchful of heart, lungs, liver, kidneys and stomach and the tendency to cancers, tumors and contagion. Those under our personal supervision need not fear, as the past six years have been proof of immunity to OUR PATIENTS, so will this YEAR OF SATURN prove. In Stocks, be careful of the shyster and small skin-game promoter this year; it's the year for their harvest, but not so for the fish caught in their net; we have already said this is the triumphant year for personal and individual effort and, particularly so, for small investors. Very much as we are enabled to overcome, per the Higher Nature, the difficulties of the Lower Nature, so shall 1909 prove a blessing or its reverse; never, in all history, has there come a time when Spiritual Therapeutics coupled with Occult Forces, will prove of such tremendous and vital importance to mankind, especially so, in the case of the sick, the poor, the disconsolate and the ill-fortuned; master Saturn, per Higher Powers, and he is the god of Harvests; leave him alone to Physical man and his influence is that of Death, as he is termed the Planet of Death, and to those out and away from the pale of the GREAT SPIRIT OF LIFE we can only say, BEWARE! while to those BELIEVERS and OVERCOMERS of THE HOLY SPIRIT'S REVELMENT, we can heartily say, IT IS NOW YOUR HARVEST OF PEACE AND PLENTY. To ALL WHO believe, Trust and Receive of this Spirit, 1909 is indeed a mighty year of power and Success and Progress.

REMOVE THE SPOTS THAT SIGHT MAY REVEAL PERFECTION.

Sun spots upon the Sun of our system interfere to the extent of their size with the perfect radiation of the Solar Light and regenerative life-giving rays, so is it with the radiations of the central energies and regenerative light of inner being with man when the Soul is, in any wise, interfered with, or darkened by imperfections in development or attainment. There is that which is the Spiritual Sun of being as well as that which is the material sun of a system; there is also that which is the Great Central Spiritual Sun of Being, the Spiritual Center of all Spiritual or Soul beings, as minor centers, just as there is somewhere, in far distant space, some great Central Orb, or Solar Center around which revolve countless minor Suns as centers of minor systems of worlds. Light is essential to generation, as is heat and radiation; the law of vibration holds good, whether in the larger controlling orb of a material Universe or in the Great Primogential Orb of All that is in existence, as First Great, Creative Cause. There can be no material effect without a Spiritual or indwelling cause, neither can any effect spring from any cause with less than a center from which radiates all sustaining life, light and substance. The electrical, material radiation, remains negative; while the Magnetic, life-giving and life-sustaining, remains forever and forever Spiritual or positive; yet the Negative is as essential to manifestation as is the positive, and a center of control, from which energy radiates, is essential to both negative, electrical and positive energies; there is, too, within each phase the Magnetic, or Spiritual, and the Electrical, or Physical, or Material, also the same two phases of positive and negative polarities or opposing centers; hence we have system within system, acting according to law within law; destructive as well as constructive radiating vibratory forces. A right understanding of law permits intelligences to so unite as to form a perfected unison of the opposite polarities, in action, in such manner as to produce equalized, healthful or harmonious vibrations or co-active, interactive and counteractive radiation in such proportion as to produce harmonious effects, the outcome of which is proper creative energy and healthful, constructive creativeness and after growth, unto perfection, in expression, on up to the completest and most perfect unfoldment. Psychic Phenomena deals with the supposedly unseen, invisible productions of the Spiritual; while material, or physical Phenomena has to do with the seen or material phase of Universal expression.

Nature furnishes man the manifestation of all that is possible of expression, as to radiation of heat and light from Solar Centers, and also the Spiritual, as the principle, invisible, of life and growth radiations from the Spiritual Center of Life. Without Spirit there is no Life or growth principle possible; without Solar radiation there can be no Material unfoldment, as permitted of manifestation, in Nature; God without unfoldment, as per material Form, as seen in Nature, is incomprehensible; while Nature without God is simply, and absolutely, impossible of understanding and comprehension; there must be a positive, invisible though it be, that which, as Cause, permits Life and promotes growth unfoldment as well as a Negative as an effect, receptive and expressive of the indwelling positive current or energy; aside from this primal division of forces, as to positive and negative, Cause and Effect, there must be, still, other positive and negative, minor subdivisions, absolutely essential to proper continuity of unfoldment and expression, both as to life and growth, and as to currents, in action, after Form has become tangible and capable of material expression. There is a unifying, collecting, saving principle; so, too, is there a separating, disintegrating, and shifting or transmuting principle; where there is life and growth, there, too, is found its opposite, decay and disintegration or death, or change and transmutation.

The Soul of man is a complex manifestation of both material and Spiritual Intelligences and Energies; these complex manifestations, in fullest attainment, are expressive of all that a Universe holds in perfection; if unfoldment is incomplete or imperfect, there will be the evil effects just as sun spots upon the Sun of a Solar System prohibits perfect radiation and reflex action, and hence imperfection in power of expression and reception of all that radiates or maintains life and its concordant perfections. The Solar Sun gives forth that it may continue to do so by receiving back; so must it be with the Soul of man; "lest ye give ye cannot receive."

BE RESOLUTE AND FIGHT A GOOD FIGHT.

The giants of old were no mightier than the giants of today; the great leaders of ancient days led with no truer persuasion and nobler purpose than the men at the helm of things today; the orators of the first civilizations, whether Greek or Roman, Assyrian or Hindu, were no more masterful than men in the same line of expression in our more cosmopolitan population. Some people are forever casting backward for heroes and are eternally comparing the present day with ancient times, to the disadvantage of modern heroism. The world advances; science has advanced; religion has grown immensely more decent, tolerant and Spiritual; government method has out-tripped all of the greatest possible ideals of ancient statesmen; brute force of the good olden days has given away to intellectual and humanitarian progress in latter times, so much so as to absolutely make any comparison odious; prison reform and sanitarium service is one of the unheard of things of ancient days which modern philanthropy and Spirituality have made somewhat of a matter to be proud of as an achievement of man's progress. Slaves and human bondsmen were the mainstay of the earlier civilizations, and without such conditions the greatness of ancient buildings would have been an impossibility while modern inventiveness has enabled the breaking of all slave shackles and the chaining of the elements to do service, a thousand fold mightier to man's credit and good; inventive genius unknown and seemingly impracticable with older civilizations and more ancient culture, has in modern times revolutionized labor, conquered time and distance, united all earth's peoples in the closest commercial bonds, and made possible the distribution of all the products of earth to all its parts and among all its people. New systems of education; new means of communication all but add to the prowess and rich endeavor of modern men. The ocean has yielded supremacy, the earth has given up its treasures and been made a thing over which lightning expresses may fly; the air has given up its liquid lightning that man may flash intelligence from place to place per wire and voice; the fruits of the earth have been wonderfully improved and the harvests multiplied, and still we have not told the half in the long catalogue of gains of modern times over the much adored and worshiped ones of ancient lore. Be resolute and fight a good fight and mountains shall give way to man's inventive and creative genius; be ready and aspiring, willing and energetic, watchful, prudent and wise, and with right content and patience, no man need despair of final triumph over that which seems the impossible to overcome. The nature and the kind of giants have simply changed since our earlier civilizations; brawn and brute force have given away to brains and brawn: that is the all of it and man is so far superior in this wonderfully advancing age, to what those early giants could hope to be, as to preclude all possible goodly comparison; yet many prefer to worship the far distant and belittle the present in accomplishment. The next generation will undoubtedly conquer the air as to means of travel, so far superior to present methods, as to make our express trains seem like ancient ox carts, beside this new air-ship conquest. Spiritually, the coming races will speak, from soul to soul, as easily as man talks, these days, per telephone or wireless telegraphy: there is nothing in Nature or Material realms, but what is an imitation or prototype of Spiritual Realms. The silent deep of the Great Over-soul, will yet yield up the stored-up Infinite Intelligences, and the Magnetism of the Spirit, shall yet convey the currents of creative thought and life, from all portions of earth, per the factors, as intelligent Soul Entities, from one to the other; this, too, as easily as a wireless message is now transmitted from one station to another. The world progresses, but in nothing are such wonders apparent along the future lines of the horizon of things as the Spiritual Unfoldment of man. The power of wrong shall yet be given over to the power of innate Spirit and Creative Thought, and man will overcome evil as if 'twere in the twinkling of an eye, through a power so subtle and mysterious, as to dumbfound and confound present intellects. Today, here and now, gifted Occults Rule Mankind for good and defeat evil unknown, as to where, or from whence, proceedeth the hidden energy. The wise shall rise and the Tribes of Reuben and Judah, the house of rulership and that of commerce, shall rule; the one the seed of the twelve tribes, the other the law givers. God bless this blessed Spiritual Age.

HEALTH FARMS GALORE.

If we could possibly have a few more public charity institutions under the guise of saving young men and young women, plunging around begging merchants and everybody, with the slightest CHANCE on earth to make an honest dollar, perhaps, possibly one per cent. of us might manage to eke out enough surplus to get a suit of clothes once a year. This public Health Farm Business is an infernal nuisance. We pay to build up great institutions, permit them to adopt a system of charges that shut out the REAL DESERVING AND NEEDY ONES; then along comes the schemers with a Health FARM project; it is the BUSINESS of the STATE to furnish ALL the Health FARMS we need; keep ALL such enterprises under State Control; provide for the unfortunately indigent, and it seems to us, after the merchants of Denver have already furnished the city with fine quarters for purposes considered laudable, that these same merchants should, now, have a breathing spell, for at least a short season. We are well aware of the fact that it is DANGEROUS to refuse to DONATE, and bad policy to criticize, these PET SKIN-GAME FARM SCHEMES, but we are not afraid of the DEVIL, no matter if he does COME UP UNDER the GARB of CHRIST; we know him and speak out in his august presence just the same as if we were a thousand miles from his Money Nose. Health Farms are all right, but let the men who are so philanthropic DO a little Philanthropic Work themselves; any man can be a philanthropist if the public buys the land, builds the buildings, donates liberally for other necessities and then permits the promoters to reap a harvest in fat jobs, looking after the POOR DEVIL who is entrusted to his royal highness' care; get out and work as we have had to do; quit looking for public donations; leave to the State all Health and Poor Farm projects, and BE a MAN among MEN, and while you may not PRAY so OFTEN and FOOL the DEAR PUBLIC so many days each year, you WILL, at least, BE HONEST in what you DO say and DO. Our experience has been, the public builds the institutions, the fat-job crowd owns them, and the young man who can't pay the PRICE is UNWORTHY of SALVATION, or UPLIFT, and we DEFY any one to show us where ONE inkling of REAL Spirit Indwells One such Institution. God is TALKED about, SKIN-DEEP PRAYERS are repeated, BUT THE HOLY SPIRIT INDWELLING THE SOUL AND SPEAKING IN THE STILL LITTLE VOICE, if He should appear would create a PANIC and a stampede. God in His Omnipotence is unknown, hence real Spirit of Good is out of the question. No, build your own Health Farm and BE honest Once in your life. There are other things needed more than such institutions. Stop other FOOL VIOLATIONS of Divine Law and there will be no need of Health Farms: for the RIGHTEOUS, IN TRUTH, are NEVER SICK long, for THE HOLY SPIRIT HEALS, and if you have THE HOLY SPIRIT rightly at work, you CAN NOT HELP BUT GROW HEALTH OF BODY IN ACTUALIZED HEALTH CONSCIOUSNESS: the IDEA OF SICK PEOPLE CALLING THEMSELVES FIT TO RUN A HEALTH FARM, the SPIRIT OF CHRIST IS HEALTH, and if you remain SICK then something is wrong with your RELIGION, and you KNOW IT. The time is coming when the test of Faith, or Spirituality, will be HEALTH of BODY, and it will be a crime to REMAIN ILL OF

BODY, and that time is mighty close at hand.

The Sign of the Almighty is Health, and the Sign of The DEVIL is told by its opposite, for God's Spirit either takes the Soul, after Regeneration, from its tabernacle, or permits a Psychic Process, to bring that body into the beauty of the expression as of His likeness. Health Farms, no, but Spirituality, yes, is our way of seeing things.

We don't care what your religious Creed, your belief; but show us the Signs of Spirit as a fact of realization, in Health Consciousness, or else we shall doubt your Religious Good or the good of your belief.

Health Farms with skimmed milk, mountain air and rotten grub is not the royal road to Godliness, nor to Healthfulness—the only proof of Godliness. Aside from Places of Religious Worship, Institutions of Each Church Congregation's own Donation and building, Colleges and Hospitals; let all else be State Institutions.

Correspondence determines what we are as to life or death: we are alive to that with which we hold correspondence, and dead to that with which we have no correspondence; we may be alive to Denver and its environing population, streets, shops and dwellings and surrounding territory, yet at the same time be totally dead to all that is correspondence with New York City, Philadelphia, Chicago, or any other settlement. So when we depart this earth we enter correspondence with another environment, a Spiritual Kingdom, or atmosphere, and are termed dead to earth, because in losing correspondence with material environing things the body loses its power to be alive and is termed dead; the material body is dead, but the man, the Spirit, the real Life of the Soul, has simply changed correspondence and still lives to that to which it corresponds. Life continues as a principle, and immortality as a knowing also continues, and there is no real death, simply the change of correspondence as here noted.

HEALING DEPARTMENT.

Poise of Soul and balance of Mind means to keep on the even tenure of your way, with resolution in soul, wits wide awake and well equipped to meet any emergency.

Self mastery means to think what you want to think, as you will to think, not to think as your senses dictate, or other minds or circumstances will you to think; think to a purpose, will to think, constantly only the best thoughts, as required for the continuity of your purpose; change not your line of thought, so long as it is essential to the success of your purpose. Haphazard methods of thinking; the constant changing of lines mapped out as a purpose requiring active, creative thought unfits any mind for forceful, successful, consecutive work or final accomplishment. Concentrate and Concentrate your thoughts and your acts will bring results. Centralization, concentration and continuity of will, in purpose, is the only safe and royal road to success in anything.

The Master is the man or woman who knows, and knowing, utilizes this knowing for life's works and purposes. The good of the ALL in the ALL-GOOD, is the Highest and worthiest purpose, concept or ideal.

If health or any other laudable purpose is your concept, organize your Soul Forces, as Divine Energies, through Objective, Faculty dispensation, so as to channel them in the precise lines or along the exact avenues of distribution, required to accomplish what you have in view; keep these Divine Energies, constantly, so channeled; no matter if, at first, appearances and feelings pervert or fight against your efforts; stick to it just as a sculptor sticks to his block of marble, day after day, week in and week out, until you have completed the every outline or detail, unto perfection, in your original concept; this is the only method for assured triumph over obstacles, for successful endeavor; he who changes about face breaks his powers for accomplishment and is worse off than if he had left matters alone. The Occult is he who does this very work for discordant, chaotic and diseased or afflicted conditions, and he, if good at his profession, permits no wavering, half efforts, or falterings in his method of procedure or the continuity of his purpose, once undertaken; he succeeds, thus, in spite of obstacles.

The Divine Healer or True Occult, is a Soul awakened Individuality, expressive of Divine Spiritual Energies, set in motion by Will Energy, channeled by well trained Faculty and Thought Power; he makes this his constant profession and Concentration, and Centralization is his constant training; while utilization of Forces and Energies is his every day business; it is for this reason he succeeds where minds conducting other lines of work fail, in final attainment and gaining of results; it is his work, his profession, hence, he expresses rightly and receives rightly.

Best trust your case, no matter what the trouble, to the one who is an Adept, possesses the Gifts and Attributes and knows the how, thereby saving your own energies for your own vocation and making more sure of success just where and as you want it.

For information regarding the "Ancient Order of Cliff Dwellers," "The News-Times" and "The Denver Post" have full information, so we glean from "The Denver Republican," "The Republican" evidently being headquarters for The Society of "The Cave Dwellers."

Thirteen months without the loss of a case among those upon our sick or healing lists; thirteen months in which we have handled several hundred chronic cases with an absolute unprecedented success. While during this time we have not had a single instance of Typhoid Fever, Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, or other contagious disease attack any of our own followers or patrons. Will any one rise up and dispute the Consciousness of Divine Power that enables us to complete a period with such a shining record?

CONSCIOUSNESS.

Yield not to evil thought

One minute's power;

Consciousness hath dearly bought

Each moment's dower.

Who in thoughts of ill reflect,

Surrenders the gift,

Of Love Divine, for Death's effect,

Loses God's uplift;

Sells attributes of Mind Divine,

In self destruction's mart.

Lead, kindly Spirit, lead out today,

From foolishness of heart;

Lead, Oh Heavenly Dove, lead us away,

From evil's poison dart.

Safely guide, Oh, Spirit, with Thy Light,

That wearied mind be taught,

The magic might of righteous sight,

That restores from evil thought.

Health Consciousness, is all in all,

In each and every thought;

Consciousness of Truth sets us free

From all with evil fraught;

Consciousness of Love, as wealth untold,

Sets in motion Life;

Consciousness of Life, is to unfold

And rise above all strife.

A dozen new cases of people who have been through the entire regime of Healing Organizations and other treatments with no good apparent, have added their names to our regular Silent Treatment Hosts the past two weeks, as results of older patients sending them to THE REAL HEALING CENTRE OF DENVER; we WORK and we UNDERSTAND THE HOW AND THE LAW; why not get the BEST and STAY with it until you GET RE-SULTS, as others have. We do not pretend to infallibility, but we DO get RESULTS somehow.

A concept adhered to and kept under constant attention and continuous growth must bring results and will BE as WILLED if the manipulator understands Law in all its bearings, along with Spirit, as the transmitting and transmuting Intelligent Life, Love and Truth-revealing Power.

Oh, yes, we have heard of Black Art, but as Occult we have, too, hurled it back to the ones administering it with tenfold violence. We see, feel, sense and hear of The Holy Spirit, as an indwelling illuminating Power of the Soul; we are, therefore, pretty nicely equipped to catch the exact source and the precise persons from whom it emanates; and so doing, what sport when the band begins to toot, and the figits begin to rise, and the awful force returns manifold to its awful source?

Bless the sick who strive to overcome their trials and try to keep up a sunny face in spite of all their ills and aches; bless those who are willing to leave to The Holy Spirit, in the Healer, the way and the means of helping them to overcome and cast off their ills.

The same blessed Spirit which heals and uplifts those who seek for good, destroys and kills off all evil, whether of sickness, poverty, worry, fear, doubt, lack, hate, envy or jealousy; blessed are those who seek this revealing Spirit for good of selves and others; but undone is all who misapply its beneficent power.

What would you think of a telegraph operator who, when you wanted to send a message through of importance, was unable to transmit it? What of a lawyer to whom you applied to try a case and he did not understand the law enough to advantage you and would therefore, muddle and blunder your case to death and defeat you? What of an electrician who understood nothing of the law governing currents and the safety of their enclosure and proper transmission? What then of an Occult who depends upon Black Magic and knows nothing of Nature or Nature's laws? Who cannot read with understanding the simple childlike explanations of the great Magicians or of this little monthly Magazine? Who knows nothing of the Psychosis of Soul, Spirit and Mind, as in action, or of the simplest rudimentals of Psychology, or Physiology? What kind of a Divine Healing Process can such a Scientist utilize or use to effect? Psychology and Physiology and the Magic of Mind, Soul and Spirit must be somewhat known, ere any one is fit to claim any Occult Knowledge; the law must be understood; the keys must be familiar and the method a fact in Consciousness ere Success can be hoped for; it's a Profession requiring intense concentration, perfect understanding, and apt Insight, and Innate Creativeness and Spiritual Consciousness.

In the past two years we have endeavored to trace up some of the causes leading to dissatisfaction with home and home life; out of nearly 200 cases of married troubles we found 140 of the parties were inveterate CHEAP LITERATURE FRIENDS; CRAZY, WILD DIME-NOVEL INEBRIATES: WHAT WE TERM HEAD-IN-THE-LYE-CAN STYLE OF PEOPLE; all HEAVEN couldn't satisfy such TARNISHED FOOL BRAINS, as such reading is bound to make, and we advise all MEN and WOMEN who find such a person connected with their LISTS of possible Husband or WIFE to CUT them out, at once; no human being can LIVE with the NOVEL FIEND of the CHEAP TYPE; the other Sixty cases were people naturally and honestly unmated. Let the DIME NOVEL out, young man and young woman, if you really expect any earthly happiness or real SUCCESS; your brains will be mushy enough without adding this stuff to aid them on to worse mixed up or scrambled conditions.

We have one complaint against Astrology; everything in it seems to hunt up the DARKEST SIDE of man's existence and the predictions, while many are right, paint things so abominably BLACK as to fret human nature, so much so, as to put at work a very questionable process of Auto-suggestion. An Astrological forecast is for the purpose of marking out the POSSIBLE in man's life, and should be accepted as a CHART for GUIDANCE along the way; this editor so accepted it, and where he was marked for death as almost sure at 27th, 31st, 37th and 41st and 44th year, he deliberately prepared for those dates and set them aside by sheer WILL and the FAITH in his HIGHER, or Soul Nature, to overrule planetary influences, of evil aspect; you must do likewise should you get a horoscope cast, and remember, there is no EVIL STAR TO THE ISRAELITE, meaning to him who permits his Faith in the Divine Spirit, to bring to bear the Divinity of the Soul Self, to reshape and reform things about life's highways and byways. A horoscope is a useful CHART, just as is the mariner's chart, and we advise all people to get one, but do not accept, as BLIND FATE, the ILL set forth in the same.

Taste in reading is like taste in anything else; it's a matter of good sense and right object in view; no one should delve forever in one line of thought; neither should any one keep always at heavy, dry, hard philosophical, historical literary productions; variety is as essential in our reading as is change of scene or sunshine and cloud to health.

We either grow or else we decay; there can be no two opposing conditions at work for long, ere one or the other wins the mastery.

OUR METHOD.

SIXTEENTH LESSON—HIGHER POWER.

We have traversed far on the way; the Light has been turned upon the path; many months have been given to thoughts and reflections as to method and understanding of the how to reach unto soul attainment. Fifteen magnificent Lessons; a whole Library within itself and the Royal Road to Power made clear; back numbers three for 25 cents; all Copyrighted. This month we shall simply speak of Higher Power. "In the beginning was the Word (Logos) and the Word was with God and the Word was God, and the Word was made flesh," The Logos, the Word then was the beginning of all that is, and without this Word was there nothing that ever was, is or shall be. Around and in and about this Divine Central Substance, as the beginning of Primordial being, is forever centered all manifest Power.

Without this Word there can be no power made expressive; the word must be spoken ere anything is born into expression; without speaking the word no idea can be created, bred or sent forth; the word is that which is the symbol of all that conveys power. All thought is composed of words, as symbols of expression, ere they convey any idea as to the nature of that which represents a thing, an attribute or the spirit of anything. The word sets forth Will, desire, anticipation and spirit in actual expressiveness as Life, Love, Truth or health, or wealth, or any other thing, or substance, or condition possible of manifestation. The Divine Logos, then, contains within itself that which is all power; The Will, The Love and The Spirit; Father, Mother, Son, or the Divine Family manifest as the Original Primogenital Essence in Being, from which was breathed forth all that is, or ever shall be, in manifestation; from this springs into actualized Consciousness, all Power in being, in Life, in Love and Material or Spiritual things or beings, or substance. Actions are the result of thoughts and are carried into effect per the law of Will, per the Spirit of Law or Will.

Will and the Spirit of what is willed to be, must be symbolized in that which, as the word, afterwards becomes the idea, then the concept or form representing the association of ideas or bundle of ideas, ere there is power in actual Conscious expression and expressiveness. We cannot will a thing without shaping into form or concept and then, through action, permitting the Spirit of that willed to become a power of or for expression.

The word contains within itself, Will Energy combined with Spirit or Light or Life-quickenning Energy, all in conformity with original ideal or Concept; without this nothing is made that is made, or no act is possible of manifestation and power is not. To be what we Will to be, means to be what our word has made possible as an ideal or concept; but without the spirit that sets in and keeps in motion Will the word is void of power.

The spirit of Washington permeates the words, "American Liberty;" the spirit of Love which sets in motion Life permeates the words, I am Health, or else there is no power to beget and grow into manifest expression that form which represents health in form or body, or as actualized Consciousness; it is the SPIRIT of HEALTH that makes possible the LIFE of the Word Willed to be HEALTH. Law comprehends, Free Will as Willing the action of Spirit in Free Will in that which is Willed as the word, or substance, of that which is Willed to be. Who understands the law then understands the Rule of action essential to the expression of the Word, necessary to convey the idea, which later becomes the perfected Concept of that which is the finality of innate creativeness manifest as power. This is the only lesson on power and this compre-hends the only real road to actualized Spiritualized Consciousness as Power, for final good.

"Knowledge is power, and with all thy getting, get wisdom," which is Divine Power manifest as Soul or Divine Energy; without soul unfoldment and attainment, meaning the binding back to God, the Original Creative Word, as Source of Power in Being, we can have none of that which in reality is of Creative Power. Is it not worth the while to seek out and delve into those Divine Mysteries which evolve Soul Energies and give us of that Spiritual Excellence, which is all true power in us, in everything everywhere?

Family life is first in the institutional; around this hovers all that guaranteed perpetuation of the institutional; next must follow the educative in the institutional evolutionary process, and here the child must be taken from the parents to the school; next is involved the religious and ethical in the institutional, thus do we evolve from the family, the species, into the educative which fits for individual citizenship and on into the Political, Religious unto final perfection. Every child should be compelled to take a rudimentary course, at least, in the educative process of the institutional as a preliminary step from the environments of the family, as the promulgator of the species, into the next higher state, that of the Political institutional.

The religious and ethical will follow any course of earlier right family and educative processes, as to the final triumph of the institutional over separateness or individuality, as detrimental to the whole. Good schools, with right liberty of conscience and Free-Will as to God or Religion, are fully as essential to good manhood and citizenship as is the preservation of the family tree. The rightly educated will find their own mode of Spiritual Expression and search out their own means of connection with that which represents the Omnireligious Institutional.

Churches are important, but schools are of still greater importance.

Our cities stand out like Babylon of old, proud examples of man's genius and power; beautiful parks, grand illumined streets and driveways, magnificent residences, everywhere thrift and beauty, and plenty apparent; but what of the buried squalor, the worry, the fret, the debt, and the gaunt spectres that stalk abroad by day and by night? What of the thousands of half-fed, half-clothed school children and the other thousands of ill housed, poorly clothed, poverty-driven older ones of the human family?

Happy are they who live beyond the precincts of our great cities and know enough to steer clear of the maelstrom that each year adds hosts to its ever increasing and engulfing blackness. The country village may have its poor, the farming community its poor and unfortunate, but never do such human wrecks as infest our great cities find expression in these more favored and blessed outside districts. Country boys and girls, be content; stay by that which you know, guarantees freedom, at least, until you are sure the city offers you a certain and sure and secure residence and solid foundation for income.

You say you cannot understand this Magazine and its Spiritual trend; then you cannot understand Talmage, Beecher, Phillip Brooks, Ruskin, and all great preachers and public Spiritual lecturers and uplifters; you are not in touch with Emerson, Lytton, Scott, Dickens nor Henry Drummond, the most scientific of pulpit orators; you cannot read intelligently any great modern writer or poet; you are out of tune with all the great minds of the past 2,000 years; you cannot comprehend or even understand the New Testament; poor creature! how we pity your lack of discernment and total acknowledgment of ignorance of modern literature. Better learn the A B C's of modern thought and go, once more, over your third reader.

ASTROLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

THE TWELVE ZODIACAL SIGNS.

The Bible, beginning with the 29th chapter of Genesis, the 32nd verse, gives a very succinct history of the birth of the representatives of the Twelve Zodiacal Signs, as the Sons of Jacob, the progenitor of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. "And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben"—Libra, "who sees the sun, or a vision of the sun." The conservators of Psychic Force and Life Energy with Prescience, Prevision and Insight as prominent characteristics; the seed of the Twelve Tribes. "And she conceived again, and bare a son, and said because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, He hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Simon"—Scorpio, "that hears or obeys and that is heard," which is a characteristic of Scorpio, as they rule and direct, receive orders and obey, and put them into effect. "And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, 'Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have borne him three sons,' his name was Levi, "who is joined, is held or is associated," the most noted characteristic of Sagittarius people, because of their innate tenacity and stick-to-itiveness in social and domestic life. "And she conceived again and bare a son, and she said, 'Now will I praise the Lord;'" and his name was Judah—Capricorn, "the praise of the Lord;" law givers, teachers, great commercial and diplomatic people.

"And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, 'give me children or else I die.' * * * "And Rachel said, 'God hath judged me and hath also heard my voice and hath given me a son,' and she named him Dan"—Aquarius, "judgment or he that judges," a characteristic of Aquarius, in that great readers of human nature, keenness of judgment and wise judges are found in this Sign.

"And Zilpah, Rachel's Maid, conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son, and Rachel said, 'with great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister and I have prevailed;'" and his name was Naphtali—Pices, "wrestlings with God, or my wrestlings." This is peculiar to the Pices nature, as it seems to always wrestle with all life's problems. "And when Leah saw she had left bearing, she took Zilpah, her Maid, and gave her Jacob to wife, and Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a son; and Zilpah said, 'a troop cometh,' and she called his name Gad"—Aries, "armed and prepared;" characteristic of the mental control of Aries and its constant state of being prepared.

"And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a son, and Leah said, 'happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed;'" and she called his name Asher—"Blessedness or happiness." Intimating the happy, well satisfied self sufficiency and conquering mental power of all Taurus people. "And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived and bare Jacob a fifth son, and Leah said, 'God hath given me my hire because I have given my maiden unto my husband;'" and she called his name Issachar—"Price, reward, recompense." A characteristic of the rewards demanded and received for mental effort on the part of Gemini people. "And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son; and Leah said, 'God hath endowed me with a good dowery; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons;'" and she called his name Zebulun—"Dwelling, habitation." Very true of Cancer people.

"And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah"—"Beauteous, perfect." This is a deep, significant attribute of the Leo people; Spirituality, maternal Love, Intuitive tactfulness and the persuasiveness and sweetness of the woman; also the seventh child of Leah, gives the ideal number, meaning inner perfection, a metaphysical principle being here embodied. This being as representative of the interior principle, that of inspiration; Leo had to have the Objective, or Male manifestation and hence Joseph represents the outer of this Sign. "And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her and opened her womb. And she conceived and bare a son; and said 'God hath taken away my reproach;' and she called his name Joseph"—"Adding increase." This gives additional strength and metaphysical importance to the double manifestation of the Leo Nature; the latter or outer meaning "a Saviour of the people." For the twelfth son, we turn to the 35th chapter of Genesis, verses 16-18. "And they journeyed from Bethel; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath; and Rachel travailed and she had hard labor. And it came to pass as her soul was in departing (for she died), that she called his name Benoni; but his father called him Benjamin"—"Son of right hand or power." Virgo people well representing this final triumph of the travail of womanhood and the gathering of the fruits of the stalk, as the separating of the head from the stalk of wheat. Strong will; and yet sadness and timidity often apparent. "And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave; and that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day."

We have given this Bible History verbatim, and we trust the deep Metaphysical significance of man's powers, Spiritual, Mental and Physical, as here shown, as springing from many sources, may cause none to reflect a literal translation upon the sacred founding of the traditional Tribes as representative of the Twelve Zodiacal Signs of Astrology. To us, the sad termination and the beautiful tribute paid to Rachel, the Mother of Races, by Jacob, the Father of the same, is a lesson of more than passing moment, and is worthy of example from later generations of men. The world is only too lax in its appreciation of the virtues of Motherhood, and is growing too vulgarly apt in underestimating the importance of childish, as well as manly reverence, for this highest of all virtues. During the past year we have written full delineations on the peculiar characteristics of each of the twelve Signs, and any one born in any one of these twelve Signs can get a back number of this Magazine containing the same for the regular price, ten cents. We have received much praise for this branch of our monthly Magazine work, and shall continue a line of thought along these lines for each month the coming year.

Good night! 1908, with all thy tears and woes; with all thy fears and doubts; with all thy long list of dead and dying, rich and miserable, and poor and needy; with all thy changes and far-reaching revolutions and evolutions, in races of men, or in Nature's far-expanding domain; Good night! year of such unseemly things. Again, Good night! 1908, year of masterful progress, in all thy Healing, Spiritual Uplifts; in all thy Art, Literature, Science and Mechanics; in all thy blessed advances in Politics, Religion and Spirit of Evolution; in all thy far-away gleams of approaching mastery of earth's sorrows, sickness and cares, good night! Like some master Mind, that has grown into senility, and then flickered and passed out of earth's sphere, leaving behind the reflections of accidents, mistakes and doubts, along with great Truth and masterful achievement, we lay thee aside as we would a garment that has nurtured and carried us over the bridges of space, only to fit us for the new protection essential to our newer, environing circumstances and needs; good night! then, and not farewell! for we feel that what thou hast been is yet with us and will return again to greet us, whether for good or ill. Good night! old friend, tried friend.

To be a zealot in any cause is usually to be too narrow of gauge to permit of the broader and more useful views of life; narrow is he who fails to see the gleam of good in every view of Universal Truth or Good.

QUERY DEPARTMENT.

Query Department a feature of our magazine, for questions upon legitimate topics of interest to people in this line of thought.

All communications must reach the editor on or before the 15th of each month. Answers will be given in rotation, the editor to be judge of what may be properly entitled to answer.

Prof. Hines:

I have read all your splendid articles and have wonderfully improved in mind and general conditions; but why is it I cannot gain what you seem to have gained, that of mastery?

Denver, Colo., Dec. 6, 1908.

I. D.—

I am termed by a great many a Master; but oh, my dear aspirant, who can say where the student ends and the Master, in Soul Attainment and Mystic, Psychic and Occult understanding begins? The more I experience and pass through along the way, the less I feel, sense and seem to know, as weighed by my own severe test of judgment. You have gone far along your path, if you have gained as you state; and you will find, ere long, that your path leads in endless, thread-like continuity throughout eternity, the realms of earth being but the merest starting speck of a point, as compared with that incomprehensible vastness of space and infinite possibilities, in the realms Astral, Celestial and Ethereal, ere you have finally outgrown the uses and environmental surroundings of the Personal Temple, and traversed towards the Temple of Godliness, in that "Temple of Light," where the Choirs Invisible, to even the far progressed in Soul, sing "The Anthem of Creation." "The Temple of Light" on earth is the Divine Centre of the human Soul; wherein sits the New Creature, made manifest as the Healer Divine, the Ruler Supreme within the Human Form; when this Temple has been so raised, embellished and illumined as to permit all the sick, the love forlorn, the disconsolate, the lame, the halt, the blind, and the poor of attainment or of mind, or of purse, to come and be healed, advised, guided and uplifted, then have we attained the first degree in the point you refer to, that of the Master, as manifest in human kind; then Consciousness in the Absolute begins to manifest Divine Energy; then Truth begins to set us free indeed and in fact; then Love makes all brother Souls, of Light, or seeking Light, akin; then the first curtain between the seen and the unseen is rolled gently up and we behold, as with new vision and hear with new hearing, as one suddenly transformed to a larger and more extended field of influence, vision, hearing and comprehension; this work must lead to higher and still larger Consciousness in Material and Spiritual things; this it is that permits the knowing that reveals that man is of two worlds at one and the same time.

He shall not seek long in vain for opportunity whose purpose is the good of the all about him while he betters his own mortal and immortal selfhood. The world may appear blind, cold and indifferent, but never, in its history, has it been so solicitous for the welfare of the good, the true of heart and purpose and the honorable in endeavor.

In the presence of our own dead 'tis hard to reflect with other than sad heart and afflicted mind; sacred moment is such and none should be so indifferent as to cast upon such an hour of grief a thought less than that of sincere consolation. Immortality is the hope of the living and the consolation of those left behind by the departed one; let this sweetest of final consoling thoughts, then, creep silently, gently into the mind of each mourner without interference from those who are more distantly affiliated as friends or well wishers. True, there is no death, shape it as we may, but oh! the agony of the mystery in such a separation, how it does sink deeply, in spite of all our philosophy and spirituality. Words are useless, tears are consolation and hope is adoration and inspiration at such a moment. At each bier should be a new birth; in each grave should be planted a new life, and, as we turn away from the final resting place of a loved one, how much nearer should seem the Spirit of the Eternal One who gave and who taketh away. The spirit of the just shall live and the way of the true shall be clear as the dawn of a bright new day; this is our hope and this shall sustain us though the earth bury all that may be near and dear. All shall be one, somewhere, in some bright sphere, and on some good day.

Saturday afternoon meeting for the accommodation of all desiring Advice. Price 25 cents to all.

Write five questions on One Sheet of Paper, same as in the evening circles, as to signatures, etc. Place one article up for Psychometric Test.

We answer no Test Questions; deal only in present and future except as revealed otherwise per CLAIRAUDIENCE (the Silent Voice of the Soul), by Vision, Prophetic and Spiritual, as Soul Sight; by Clairvoyance and per Psychometry. This Saturday afternoon meeting will be from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock, and the number of questions allowed gives almost a reading for the small price of 25 cents. Three questions at night, and five questions at Saturday afternoon meetings; the first 15 cents, the second 25 cents. Topics suggested: Travels, Changes, Journeys, Sickness, Finances, Business, Real Estate, Mines, Insurance, Buying and Selling, Estates, Marriage, Law Suits, Divorces, etc.

BOOK EXCHANGES OR REVIEWS.

Book Reviews, conducted by the Editor of this Magazine, and with an eye single to Worth and genuine Merit, regardless of Class or Type or Creed or Other distinction.

The latest work turned out by the pen of that brilliant luminary of Modernized Spiritual Thought, of our city, Mrs. Grace M. Brown, "The Word Made Flesh," is right up to the usual excellence of Mrs. Brown's fluent effulgencies. The little booklet is handsomely printed and neatly bound, and at its price should find large and ready sale among students of the New Thought School; it, too, we assure our readers, will prove of rare interest and merit, as well as of timely uplift to all types of Spiritual and Up-to-Date people. The Lessons on healing are unique, pointed and helpful as to Method, Suggestiveness and Inspiration. Price, 50 cents.

"Through the Valley of the Shadow and Beyond" is one of the most fascinating and, at the same time, interesting volumes we have as yet had the pleasure of reading; a book of four hundred pages, beautifully bound in cloth, containing Psychic Pictures of unusual interest and far reaching importance. It is filled with direct revelation and the most exalting and instructive experiences of "Rose the Sunlight," a beautiful character, and others, in the realm of Spirit; be whom we may, whether skeptic, orthodox, Spiritualist, Spiritist, New Thoughter, Emersonite (as this editor is), or Hindu, or any other Cult, Creed or Sect or Ism, this wonderfully descriptive story of the Psychic Realms, the Ethereal Flight, the far distant Home of the Soul, as revealed by those who have passed through the Valley of the Shadow of earth, termed death, and have entered the Realms of Eternal Progress in the Invisible, to Mortal eyes, carries a world of interest and convincing proof of the Immortality of the Soul.

"It conveys a wonderful message of hope and encouragement to earth-bound souls; it lifts the veil between the present and the future and identifies this life with the one just beyond the border land; it illumines the path and makes clear the untraversed highway of life; it tells how the model of the Temple of Light was handed down to earth, to those selected by Higher Powers to carry out their wishes;" it did us a world of good; it will do all who read it the same sweet service; with love for all humanity and especially our own Psychic Field, and those who may read this Magazine, we rest assured we could add no greater blessing than to speak for the reading, by every one, of the book, "Through the Valley of The Shadow and Beyond." Save the three dollars, its price; lay it aside; if it takes you weeks to collect it, do so, even if but ten cents at a time, and get the greatest, most wonderful, most inspiring and most exciting and interesting work of modern times. It WILL make you and also make others through you; as no one can read it without being encouraged and also filled with a desire to encourage others.

Address all orders to The Psychic World Publishing Co., 1119 Washington St., Kansas City, Mo. Remember price, postpaid, $3.00.

NOTES.

Psycho-therapy for the Scalp and Hair, per a special process now being employed by Mrs. Jennie Crowfoot, has stopped the falling out of hair, brought a complete new growth to several who had become bald, and healed the scalps of all, whether men or women she treats. This editor is among those whose hair was rapidly disappearing; in two months treatment the scalp has been renovated, loosened up and a new growth of nice hair brought into manifestation. We recommend everyone to try her method; it's A-1 and she is faithful, and has the Right Method and is willing to use it for success, Place of business, 1427 Tremont.

When teeth is the question, not the price so much, as safe work and quality, should govern. Try Dr. Lewis, Suite 209 Symes Block.

Ella H. Griffith, M.D., 222-23 Temple Court, is recommended by this Magazine.

If you really desire real progress in piano playing, get Mrs. Adelaide Wolcott's teaching for yourself or for your children. Remember, music is in you and of you, and must be evolved, brought out of you, and Mrs. Wolcott knows the HOW to bring your music out, and the HOW to execute after it is brought out. Her prices are reasonable. Information at 1438 Tremont Place.

Leon A. Freeman, of 1315 Cherokee St., Denver, is owner of one of the greatest labor-saving conveniences out, as a patented article. It is a clock device for turning on and off the lights, electric, at fixed hours, and will do its work perfectly. Can be set for any given time for turning on the light, and, at the same time, is the same clock set for the switching off of the light, thus saving all over-time and nuisance of a man running all over the city to attend to these important matters. Here is an INVESTMENT opportunity, as Mr. Freeman cannot place it himself. The Keystone Law & Patent Co. of Philadelphia has the matter in charge for sale.

THREE ADVANTAGES OF MAGAZINE ADVERTISING

1. ITS PERMANENCY

The life of a magazine advertisement is long. It remains effective for many months, often for years. A magazine is read, passed on, reread, goes to hospitals, to the army, navy-abroad, and is at last put on sale in the secondhand book stores, and begins a new life. No other form of advertising has this longevity.

2. ITS PUBLIC.

The magazine reading public is the live, up-to-date, busy, enterprising, inquisitive public. The magazine is the business man's and the housewife's literature. It is the recreation of the leisure hour, and the mirror of the world's events when these have been sifted from the chaff of rumor and mistake. Magazines are cheap enough to reach all intelligent readers, good enough to command their attention. The magazine public is the material upon which to build permanent advertising results.

3. ITS COMPANY

The great magazine advertisers are the prominent successes of the business world. To be associated with them in the public mind is to secure the very best publicity—to enter the aristocracy of advertising.
