RESPONSIVE CHORDS.

Are you up and doing?
_____

There is a fountain that never runs dry.
_____

Get your soul in shape and receive of this fountain.
_____

Its waters are the waters of Life; its energies are of The Eternal.
_____

The Will of the Father, the Word of Truth, the Spirit of Life, is its Triune Source; and it is for eternity it plays its part.
_____

We are all invited to this fountain, invited to partake and be a part thereof;
the souls of men and women and children are the arms and feet and the spraying tubes which make up this mightly outlet of Life, Love and Truth.
_____

No pledge is asked greater than belief and faith and willingness to become an expressive factor of this fountain of Love, Truth and Life; it has been from eternity, it is now and shall ever remain as at the beginning.
_____

Time, never changing, always the same; it is the All Good in Conscio-ness and action.
_____

A light by the wayside, a lamp to the blind;
A word to the weary, a promise of rest-fulness,
Is work of the true in heart, spirit and mind.

"Knowledge is power," but knowledge must be rightly expressed in order to be of consequential importance in the affairs of life or the building for after Success and Health.
_____

We have a heart for brave men and true women, no matter where their lot or what their place in life; but we are as hearts of stone to cowards who kill because of hate, envy, jealousy or passion's decree.
_____

Down in the heart of every one Lies a chord that broken remains,
'Till some tender hand strikes
The strain that vibrates in tone
And unison, with its aches and pains.
_____

Complaining never built a house, nor plowed a field; complaining breeds contempt from neighbors, weakness of Will and Mind and Nerve Energy in the com-plainer; better work and grin, and wait and win.
_____

Have you an aspiration, a desire, keep it, be it and retain identity with it until you in actual feeling, sensing, knowing become it in expression, as Conscio-ness and you shall grow to it or build it up to your ideal.
_____

All the Universe is a development, unfoldment and fulfillment, per a growth process of a fixed and Immutable Purpose, and man is no exception to this law, when rightly endowed and permitted to follow out his natural destiny.

I have thought and planned, but to none avail says some tired one; yes, you have thought but you have failed to FEEL and KNOW, and thus EXPRESS.

Consciousness is this feeling and knowing and is the essential, too.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto;" this is real inspiration, blessed assurance as of the soul and divinity in real conscious manifestation; through this all things are mastered and all things may be acquired; this is real power.

All mankind is akin when it comes to great cataclisms and frightful seismic disturbances; when death and famine and dire distress is stalking abroad; for 'tis then that the souls of men arouse themselves and Love springs into being and the Spiritual side of humanity breaks the shells of provincialism.

If what you are engaged in is a failure, and you cannot seem to improve in it, change your vocation; sometimes we are misplaced and badly so; never stick to anything that you enter half-hearted or remain half-hearted in, as your field of endeavor; enthusiasm is the spur that inspires you to success in anything worth while.

A sour, jealous and envious mind is invariably followed by an upset and dis-tempered stomach, bad circulation, poor elimination of the poisonous substances of the body, and a complete loss of magnetic and electric power; is it any wonder misfortune in all affairs of life soon follow suit?

Bask in the sun so long as you please,
Upon the sands of the beach of Time;
Loll and stretch your form in ease,
Read, laugh, gossip, listen and chime,
With the insects about you, but begin
To move to higher ground and safer Abodes for action, when the tides roll in.

The radiant inward life must forever express through the outward drapery of beauty. The eternal expression of the radiant inner life, as of the soul, will ever express through the outward drapery of form, as Love setting in motion Life, which forever sheds forth in rays of living, vibrating Divine Energies, as health and beauty.

Faith is the all in all to true greatness, actualized worth and primal success; without Faith no man may ever attain to greatness or bring to bear true worth so as to enjoy the actual fruits of existence; get this Faith and BE this Faith and BELIEVE in the Spirit of Faith and you shall possess the earth and enjoy the fruits thereof.

Good tools make the work of any artisan easy; good brains and sound nerves make the building for health a task most comforting; good training, in any and all lines of endeavor or thought, is the prime essential to real excellence; good ideals will attract good associations and good associations make sure for success, while success breeds content, and content is true happiness.

If in love, and the other party to the matter fails to rightly respond, don't blame the other fellow, but get down into your own soul of you and see what's the matter with your own spirit of Love; wrong expression fails to magnetically attract, and you cannot hope to win or hold what you cannot attract. Love is harmony and harmony is law in action, and law in action brings its own as per the law of mutual attraction.

Muleishness and bigotry is not WILL POWER; true WILL POWER is ENERGY, and active, propelling energy at work, in and through all phases of Mind, Spirit and Being. Will a thing if it is right, energize it with will determination by putting in action means to accomplish that willed and stick to it until accomplishment is a fact. Will without act and action is a dead stubbornness of no consequence whatever.

A tree springs into being; it grows; it unfolds its foliage; it fulfills its unfoldment; it sheds its old foliage to rest a season and then unfold another season's foliage; this is growth process; this is true health, growth unto perfect unfoldment and final fulfillment of purpose; so must man develop, unfold, fulfill his mission and give unto Nature and unto Higher Life his benefits; thus shall he rightly grow in health and give forth in life and thereby receive, in turn, his final recompense.

God in man, as made manifest by His Word and Spirit, is Health, Beauty and Peace, and the face of His Revealer speaks louder than all words; there are no dark auras, no smokey, darkened, wrinkled, beastly countenance belying expressions, such as most revealers of earth-bound spiritdom show; let me see your face and I'll tell you your revelation without another means of determination; The Divine heals, creates, builds, all else tears down, destroys and defeats.

It begins to look as if the Orthodox Churches were soon to become Spiritualized and that the Soul of things would get an inning. We have held and do hold, that in less than ten years the Church will have admitted, again, the Spirit of Christ and that Revelation and Inspiration will have taken its place as a fact of actual practical Godliness. Healing as taught by Christ will again come into vogue and the people will know, as they have not known, the great secret of the real power of Divinity.

"An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," is never so well understood as in times when gaunt hunger strikes hosts of our fellowmen and the spirit of the evil spectre of the midearth breaks his slumbers and casts into ruin fair cities and blooming provinces; when the frailty of man is most apparent then, too, is his mightiness of Soul most active; it seems as if slumbering Spirit assumes its place only when called into expression by some overwhelming and crushing blow aimed at man's greatest and proudest achievements.

Man is essentially a Spiritual Being; but man very often withdraws from the Light of Wisdom and assumes the self-responsibility of leaning upon objective knowing alone, instead of spiritual illumination for his advancement and progress; violating his Spiritual and soul nature he is without the pale of Love's power to set in motion Life, and is therefore dependent upon chaos and fate for possible continuity of life, peace and health; a law violated or ignored is defeated as a rule of action and its benefits are rejected; the laws of the Spiritual are correct rules of action for growth in the All Good.

If you fear rivals, it's an acknowledgment, at once, of inefficiency or else lack of self-confidence; the great singer, orator, mechanic, musician or worker in any profession, vocation or calling believes in himself, fears no rival, claims his own, holds his own and is Success in his own field of endeavor in spite of all opposition, simply because his merit and worth withstands all assaults. Such a person or individuality co-operates with others in giving to the world the very best possible of manifestation and all the best at that to be had from others along with his own gifts or talents. Selfhood not Selfishness is his aim and end.

It has been proved beyond all question that the Divine Spirit is so far superior to the mere mortal mind in healing process as to leave no room for comparison. No mere mortal thought power in this world can hope to stand for any length of time against that wisdom which illumined of Divine Spirit becomes the Consciousness of that desired, for wisdom thus illumined is the light of knowledge and is a fact of realization, actualized substance in the word used or utilized, and is an emanation of Divinity which is the all powerful at work from the within of things, substances and forms; it is the substance, the builder and the building.

A cup of water representing thousands of drops of the same fluid is manifestation of the power of that unity and at-one-ment which makes for strength and health; separate it up into its myriad atomic parts and thus separated it, like the dew, is of little consequence, unless turned to destructive forces by congealing into frost; so with man's body and of everything in the Universe, unity means harmony and strength and perfection in expression and resistance; in separateness comes about chaos and evil. Yet each factor or individuality must, too, be of effective service to the other factors and receive and give in order to perfect the whole.

Within Self lies all power; within Self also lies all weakness and discord; get this thoroughly into your mind and you will then know how to overcome and correct that which defeats or dispossesses you. If you are unable to see your Selfhood thus, then get a gifted Occult to do for you that which necessity demands, and it will PAY YOU A BIG DIVIDEND.

Selfhood and the study of the Self is the highest science; none can excel lest this science be taken up and thoroughly mastered, or else the good physician, an Occult, is called in to right your own Selfhood, as to its defects. Healing is an Art, as well as a Science.

"God rested the Seventh Day," means in the Seven the number of perfection and completion in true revelation, He completed His Original Concept and having completed said concept, left it to growth in development, unfoldment and fulfillment; some church cults are striving to keep up an eternal wrangle and hate, the vilest and most damnable of sins, by teaching that this Seventh Day means a Sabbath, and that One Particular Day of MAN'S CALENDAR is THAT DAY; there are no DAYS in eternal measurement of TIME; to teach that which breeds hate is absolutely to be Anti-Christ, no matter upon what line of thought or what the topic.

The science of religion is the essential to the final triumph of the Higher Nature over the Lower, and the solving of the usefulness and realization of Spirituality; religion as a bundle of high-sounding mysteries has never yet healed a human being, and without health as a result of Spiritual Attainment religion fails of its primal teachings and its final completeness; the Christ taught for three years and in all his teachings kept in view this one high ideal of healing through Spiritual, or Soul Illumination, as of the Father, the Creator of the Universe; His teaching and performances were as the result of the science of religion, not as of its mysteries or any mystery.

On the third day of January, Dean Peck, at Trinity Church, Denver, created a sensation by simply stating that he had twice, to his knowledge, received revelations from God, or visions from God; what a strange thing to hear of a sensation in a rich and fashionable congregation, over the most common of matters among our followers and the Psychic people generally. Truth is seldom found where it is most expected, and it is an old saying that Truth is the heritage of the meek and the lowly of earth. The fact is, Truth is rarely expressed where it should be, and when expressed is looked upon as a phenomena and as a sensational statement.

Remember, there is but One Mind, One Soul, One Spirit in the great reality of true Being, and this One Mind, One Soul and One Spirit is all that is in real Power; all other minds, spirits, Souls are but outside the range of real power, and, like a mist, vanish before the One Mighty Divine Mind, Soul and Spirit of Truth. One Life is the life of all that is, no matter how many forms may express it; one Truth is the sum and substance of Creation, and hence, in the One is all Life, Love, Health, Opulence and Power; this is practical Occultism and nothing can defeat him who is centered, in true Faith, in this great axiomatic concept of the All that is, or can be, in actual manifestation of power.

An Irishman arriving at New York, discovered the way to the street of the skyscraper. At first he was dazed, but gathering his wits he rose to the occasion, and exclaimed: "Bejabbers, and they told me the temple of Babylon fell centuries ago, but if me eyes decave me not, somebody lied, and it's meself that's for gitting out o' this before the confusion o' tongues and the devil's own mix up," and spying the top of the new Singer Building, he dubiously muttered, "for begorra, there sits one of the imps already; look at his spiked tail, his cloven foot, if you plase, and the imp he begins to move; Oh, no, I'm afther gitting me out o' this, if the Lord'll have mercy on me poor soul." Thus the mighty often deceives us.

Private avenging of wrong with a gun is not excusable in Heaven's High Court; the Ghost of the poor, silent, sealed-lipped dead shall follow day by day and night by night, the one who cut short his Soul's means of development here; the taking of what we cannot give means the taking of what we shall also lose, but in a greater sense, eternal life and salvation; we rejoice that all murderers shall pay, to the last breath of the Spirit's Life, for the taking of a mortal Life; it's just, and justice and Truth against Cowards and Beasts that shall overtake each and every one; be not deceived, you will find no man-killer beyond the earth-bound in spirit, and none, whatever, in celestial realms. The Spirit hath spoken.

Some people are forever getting ready to act or getting in shape to do something; others are plungers and spring after everything in the most blind fashion; while still others, trusting neither God, man or the devil, spend all their fortune and waste their energies running around getting other people's opinion; the latter type are the most worthless of humankind and deserve what they usually arrive at—a pauper's grave. Be a man first, trust the soul of you secondly and then let the Spirit of innate Impression rule you, and nine out of ten ventures will prove right, provided you are wholesouled enough to remember that others must live as well as yourself.

The poorest rake on earth is the man who, when you offer him a good deal, must run all over town to gain other people's opinions of its worth.

If we can rise in our spiritual might upon great public occasions and overcome apparent defeat of Nature's mighty forces, why is it we are such pigmies most of our lives, in the ordinary daily affairs that beset our paths? In Love, in business, in Health, in all that concerns our real success how few of us really use all our resourcefulness of innate genius? We contend that within man lies dormant an energy sufficient for every occasion and all powerfully efficient for every service, and that is the Genius of the Soul. Trust the soul of you; let the Divine Man come forth into expressive power; believe in the Divine Spirit as Illumining Power and quickening Life Energy, and Wisdom's Light will illumine knowledge and make every man truly great and equal to every occasion.

Psychic Healers are born, and if able to heal, development will show up their gifts; spirits do not control them; they control spirits and compel all things.

even the very elements and planets, to obey their Will; because their Will is at-one-ment with Divine Will and the same with Divine Mind, per The Revealmnt of The Holy Spirit; they do not need to spout and brag and force their Revealmnt upon the public, neither are they crazy upsetters of ordinary affairs as they find them in the material realms; they attract their own and none can keep their own from them; they DO things and EARN their own way by BEING WORTH to people in general.

They are few and far between; but when one does arise all else vanishes as in comparison with his Revealmnt of Love, Truth and Spirit Divine.

All the great reforms of all the earth's progressive periods have been brought to bear, as a starter, through the despised and lowly and the inspired of soul; these giants of all ages have invariably arisen in advance of the times in which they lived, moved and preached and taught; it will ever be thus; time alone reveals the truth of a new epoch, or the worth of the work done by the forerunners of the races of men. No truly great man has ever been fully appreciated and understood by the masses of men during his actual period of life upon this planet; his works live after him and his inspiration continues to bless long after he has lost his earthly tabernacle; immortality of good works is man's highest tribute from mankind and his noblest gift to after generations; his only lasting epitaph should be and is his timely works for his fellowman.

'Tis said Prophecy belonged to former ages and is not practically effective at this late day; yet from many sources, during the past month, have come information of revelations which undoubtedly are direct and convincing, and especially so, upon the recent terrific earthquakes which devastated Southern Italy and Sicily; we have contended repeatedly that revelation is a fact of all ages; that God has reserved to no particular age this Divine Gift; that all ages possess

Revealers; men and women gifted with Prescience and Prevision; that there is such a thing as foreknowing any and all great events of the Universe; we know it; have established the proof of it, and more, have made people SUCCESSFUL by foretelling for them that which should aid them, and foremapping their affairs and their rightful career; it is done by us and thousands of others; it is the reality of Spirit Illumining Soul and permitting the Soul, which foresees and foreknows to express Wisdom in-nate.

The recent earthquakes are but one instance of the havoc and disaster to follow in the wake of this fateful year; yet too, this is to prove one of the most progressive and at the same time uplifting and inspiring years of history; where there is evil there is still greater opportunities of good and for higher advancement and timely improvement; evil is the forerunner of great good, and the advance agent which, through teaching and experience, paves the way to greater and mightier achievement; many must perish that man's selfishness may be checked and his nobler selfhood be drawn forth into manifest expressiveness and expansiveness; out of chaos sprang all that the world is, and out of tumult and strife has arisen our present splendid civilization; evil but makes manifest the after good, and evil is necessary to bring into action the good that lies dormant until thus aroused. Life is but one constant battle for the overcoming of the elements and the maintenance of the good; without strife and war, and upheavals, and famine, and sorrow, and death, there could be no evolutionary process; all things eventually work together and prove out as good.

Oh, if we dared to speak and write and print as we oft foresee the events about to come to pass upon the world's fair surface, how often then might believers escape the dire calamities that are happening from time to time; but to do so means often to forestall enterprise and to risk the contumely and hatred of all who have interests at stake in such localities; none are so despised as the prophet of warning and of truth; none are so belittled, cajoled and hooted as such wise previsors and adherents of a timely prescience and prophetic Spiritual Knowing. The greatest work done by man is that performed by Gifted Psychics for all mankind, and yet it is the least respected by a large share of humankind; thousands of people are annually aided and helped and healed by such truly gifted of Soul; yet they, too, stand back and fear the pointed finger of ignorance and bigotry. We of this Magazine have no apologies to make for our timely Gifts and Spiritual Vision; we know, and knowing, neither fear nor shrink from our brother men; we are open and frank; free and ready for any and all occasions to do good and are demanding our just recognition and are getting it.

Obeys the law, "Thou shalt not kill," in sentiment as well as act and thought; who pities a murderer is one of him, and his, and must pay the penalty; we pity NO MAN who EVER has, or ever WILL, KILL a fellow man, aside from compulsory self-defense.

We would judge from the manner in which the public behaves that a murdered man's family have no right to pity, favor or anguish of mind and heart; the family of the murderer, red-handed and black-hearted coward as he has proved, is all in all, in fool sentimentalism; the character of a dead man dare not be even sustained by wife or child; they lie, because the murderer has sealed his poor lips, stopped the throbbings of his poor heart, buried his blood-stained face and body, and knowingly, purposely, prearranged it all, so as to be able to berate his former acts as defense to cowardice, shame-faced pretense to honor. No; pity the family of the LOST SOUL, that which can never see another LIFE; but despise, abuse, misrepresent the dead one's family and bleed their hearts by a lying rehearsal of what the dead cannot deny, because purposely fixed so as not to be there to deny. Let the Holy Ghost pour eternal CURSES on all such cowards and cowardice, and let it BE NOW, in Christ. Amen.

There are a few Mediums who are controlled by highly developed Souls, spirits so termed, from the Ethereal Realms; these Mediums are always akin to the Revealer of Truth and show it in their works, their features, their daily acts and the healthy tone of voice, face and body; against these there can be no word of ill; but there are thousands who have never gone one inch beyond the 3d, 4th and 5th Circles or planes of the Seven Earth Circles for their spirit friends and messages; their very work and daily life, and especially their own features, tell the story; such work is undoing, damaging, unreliable and destructive, even to the Medium's health and longevity; all who enter the path may have to pass through this part of the work, but like a man going into the slums, he must come up and out again, or else become a part and factor thereof and perish; all is necessary to proper development, perhaps, and after experience, but go Higher, claim your birth right, become a master if good you desire to do; we have passed through all we here describe, but being, at least, ambitious and a Born Revealer or Psychic, we could not be held back by sirens of the earth-bound spiritdom; we came on, and up, and out, and away from their haunts and dangerous environments. We can go down among them, still, as a Master, and teach and aid them; but not otherwise.

To so speak and act as to convince all minds about one in such manner as to make each separate mind at-one-ment with the speaker's mind, thus in conformity with his acts and desires, is true greatness and actualized power; to so write as to inspire in readers the same reflections of soul and mind is Consciousness in action and the royal road to actualized success in composition.

The Spirit of the man is that which makes manifest the emanations of the man. To win in anything is usually but the Gift of Consciousness essential to establish at-onement between all states of Consciousness and thereby harmoniously blend together desires or necessities in expression, per the law of mutual exchange and mutual good.

Creating an interest in yourself and what you have is the first essential, and then to possess the power to portray the necessity of others possessing what you are and have to give is the only road to actual results for success in any line of thought, work, profession, business or vocation; supply and demand has much to do with our success; but Genius will create means for showing forth necessity and its supply, and thus offsets some of the defects of the law of supply and demand. You must have the gifts, the goods, but with these you must have the light of Wisdom to show them before mankind in order that you may meet the requirements of mutual good through mutual exchange; don't forget this important law.

If you are a first-class mechanic or first-class anything and you begin to unfold in what is termed spirit manifestation, remember, always, that any Spirit, Guide, Control, Voice or other inward or outward means of Illumination or uplift, is FALSE, WHICH DEMANDS YOU TO LEAVE YOUR OWN NATURAL PLACE OR POSITION OF EXCELLENCE IN EARTH WORK; the body is just as essential to Immortal Progress as is the Soul; the Spirit of Christ, when He comes and the Soul begins to awaken and "The Still Little Voice" of that Spirit speaks, does not ask you to leave off family, relatives, good earth position and go off on a preaching tour; man is a reasoning being, he has free WILL; in this sphere he has a body to maintain; he has a duty to self, to family, to society; no spirit that leads him astray or away from all normal self duties and duties to family and society is of any good; dismiss all such fool spirits, whether guides, controls or Voices and get right down to sound sense and reason and maintain your own Will; be Master of spirits and not spirits Masters of you; control spirits, order them to your service, and see that they obey you, and not you them.

The One Divine Spirit, alone, obey, and then only when you see, sense and know, it is the One Divine Spirit; The Divine does not change your plans of life; He sustains you in them; illumines your Soul and brings Wisdom to bear as Light of Knowledge and restores true Genius, and thus makes you a Master the superior man in all that you are equipped by Faculty and Nature to best do his entire revelation is that of Love.

A dog ran across the street; a Tramway car happened along at the same moment; results, a leg was cut off the dog; a mental healer happened to be present; "Poor little doggie, you are not hurt, you are not matter, all is mind, I'll place your leg back where it belongs; there, now"; and the dog gratefully wagging its tail, ran off as well as ever; so a good friend, the healer, told the writer some time ago, remarking, that if we had the same faith, we, too, could perform instantaneous healing; sorry, our faith is a little shy, brother, both as to the healing powers you referred to and the make up of your mental box. Maybe you were in a trance.

If from crime and its troubles you would escape, never encourage a wrong concept nor imagine an evil method of doing life's work.

---

Will, do, dare to be right, and then have faith in your own ability to accomplish and trust the spirit within you to guide you through.

---

Give me simple fare and plain attire, and a little place to call a home; with honesty and freedom from debt, I'll do the rest.

EDITORIAL.

YE GODS! AND DID IT PASS, AND NOT ONE "FRAID" CELLAR DUG UP BY THE ROOTS!

"I am surprised with an uncouth fear.
A chilling sweat o'ercomes my trembling joints; my heart suspects more than my eyes can see."

"And wonders greatly that man's face can fold, in pleasing smiles such wondrous tyranny."

"O, brother, speak with possibilities, and do not break into these deep extremes."—Shakespeare's Titus Andronicus.

"The profound psychologist and globe trotter," J. G. Leonard, we thus address;
"the profound psychologist and globe trotter," who has returned from his eighth whirl around the poor, dingy, old world, with the scalps of all the Hindu Fakirs, High Cast Adepts of the far-Eastern realms, outwitted and taken them all, and has, likewise o'ercome Christian Mystic and all of clairvoyant gifts in this Western Sphere; so we note from his statements made and published in The Denver Republican of Monday, January 11, 1909. Therein said he,
"this profound psychologist and globe trotter," that he had been eight times around the globe and had plenty with which to still go some;" that he had met all Hindu wonder-workers, and that "all clairvoyants were fakes," and all who pretended to spirit return, spirit messages, or spirit communication, "were either liars or cracked brains;" nay, more, he possesses, by fair or by foul means, we dare not say, "$1,000 that he will give to any charitable institution named, if he can't account for everything per natural law," and, oh, heavens! even duplicate each and every trick any person may perform; wonderful combination! something never yet beheld within the small frame of a speck of form amidst the billions of such specks, within the grasp of the mighty whole!
He thinks God made a mistake and "this profound psychologist and globe trotter" must be His Almightyness, "fell from high heaven" to surprise and awe all earth's hosts. Hallucination, in what unseemly ways, and through what measly things thou doest, oft, thy wondrous imagery portray! how deeply imbedded, in human shape, lies the fangless serpent and glistens the eyeless toad of that profundity which startles the long-eared "Rocky Mountain Canary family," per the loud and long-drawn-out brav of his wisest of brethren! the very elements rise up in wondrous surprise, while the heavens quake, the seas slink to tiny bowls of salty brine and the mountains and the very earth, itself, disappear in vapory effusion before the mighty, awfulness of "this profound psychologist and globe trotter," of a magician; and worse still, he claims his domicile in that windy spot, down by the great Lakeside of Michigan, Chicago. 'Tis said, too, when he is at home, that the lake rises in obedience to his magic name (not his presence); that the dead turn over and take note and sigh; that the trains coming and going reverse their trend, from the very contrariness of his awful breath, for 'tis mightier, still, than all the combined steam engines of earth. As to Psychics, Adepts and Mediums, why, dear sirs, they are but the tissue paper of his daily toilet; most wonderful genius, the last of a long line of terrible genii. Denver, my God, my beloved city, how I trembled for thee, when first I heard such magic stalked abroad in thy proud ways! how didst it happen thou didst manage on the map to stay?

What did our Mayor not hand out to still the blast of the nostril, that might have wiped everything up, buildings, people, parks, driveways, even city hall, and left not even a brick, or a bone, or a policeman, or "The Post," or "The News," to fight over who should tell of thy awful cataclismic demise? (Bones do speak, as well as papers, so our psychometry proves); but we are here, and the city is here, and so are the mountains, the valleys; the sun and moon even escaped; thank God, for His most bountiful Power having, really, been-at home, on those few days, and not, evidently, in the identity of this "profound psychologist and globe trotter," from the windy Queen City of the Lakes, who stands, "as one upon a rock, environed by a wilderness of sea;" "who marks the waxing tide grow wave by wave, expecting ever when some envious surge will in his brinish bowels swallow him."

TWO KINDS OF SPIRITS OR INTELLIGENCES.

Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven.—St. Luke, 10:20.

For if your name be written in heaven, not as slave driver, forcing obedience, but in Love, shall you rule and receive service among the millions upon millions of spirits, or intelligences, doing you service.

Spirits of air, spirits of fire, spirits of water and spirits of earth or material realms, all are at your ready bidding and immediate service, to do you favor or to do you ill, just as shall be determined by your own revelation as to whether of Love or Hate, Good or Ill, you are an emanation and manifest expression; who hates, envies, pollutes, is jealous or selfish, and is, therefore, of chaos and strife, will attract to him spirits of like undoing service; who is of Love, is of heaven, and will draw to his service spirits of Divine Light, as factors of the One Spirit of Light and Life, builders and healers and helpers; like attracts like, and our own comes to us as to a mighty magnet; for in the One Spirit of Truth lies the power to attract the spirits, intelligences of power; rejoice then, not so much because the spirits are subject unto you and work at your command, but because you being of the One Spirit, in Truth are able to draw about you spirits of Truth, of Love, of Life, millions of builders that aid you in building an immortal Temple that shall stand, not alone, the storms and disasters of this material realm, but shall endure throughout all realms and eternal time. As your revelment so shall be your service as received of the spirits; for good or for ill; for Life or for death; for creative and building work or for destructive and undoing work; "Seek ye first, then, the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you," for even the spirits that are subject unto you shall then become creators, builders of beauty, health, Love, Peace, Confidence and Wealth. Which shall it be?

POWER BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL SPIRITS.

One of the most difficult problems to overcome in teaching the unfoldment of Soul, Mediumship or Psychic Powers, is the first receiving of intelligences as classified messages; it is at this stage the beginner becomes involved between the power of the Good and that of the Evil Spirit intelligences; properly, no voice should be heard, except as from within the human organism, as of the Subconscious; this is termed real Clair-audience; but right at this opening stage a terrible conflict occurs between two opposing sets of spirits; each one that comes gives a name; each one claims supremacy; at this stage, the will of the party coming into mediumship or expression of the Subconscious is unable to shut off these inveterate talkers; the Objective Mind seems forced to listen; becomes tired and confused; sleep, or even ordinary conversation, seems impossible; the man or the woman in this condition, if not understood, is immediately considered insane; physicians making a terrible mistake right here are responsible for much after loss of reason; it is at this stage of the game a Master, a true Psychic, with the Gift of the Divine Spirit, must be called into service; his Will and Spirit must be exerted and treatment extended and continued until, per a Psychic Healing Process, the victim of spirit dominance is healed, strengthened of Will and the Subjective and Objective Minds brought to at-onement; if this is not done, the Evil and Material, destructive and tearing down spirits will prevail and it's difficult to overcome the lasting devastation thus permitted; no medicines, no confinements, no method under heaven, but the above, should be permitted or pursued. The cause of this trouble is two-fold; first, all that has ever been met with, all people, all sayings and doings, are recorded as upon a roll, as for a phonograph, within the Subconscious, and this must unravel and play until all is told; it is mixed with good and evil; it always comes forth as expressions of spirit voices; it carries names of those who have been in one's lists of friends and associates, some gone on, some still on earth; this deceives many; second, there are earth spirits who come, and they add to the general confusion; until this is overcome and the Divine Spirit comes, as Light of Truth, and Will and Reason is restored, chaos is the condition. In our class work this has never occurred, but we have had many cases to heal of late.

SELFHOOD AND SELFISHNESS.

None there are who have not the power to be something noble and true in this splendid field of industry and strife; none are so poor of mind, strength or purse but what contain within them some spark of Divine good and helpful truth; none are so richly endowed in goods, wealth or mind, but that may yet improve, through awakening and bringing into fullest and completest manifestation the divine Selfhood. Betwixt Selfhood and Selfishness there lies a most extraordinary gulf; true greatness lies on the one side, while mighty littleness occupies planes just across and over the waves which separate these peculiarly differentiated states of man's development, unfoldment and fulfillment of life's purposes. There never has been a small Selfhood when rightly fostered, neither has there ever existed real greatness wrapped up in a truly selfish nature. We cannot develop, unfold and fulfill as of the Soul of us unless we, too, partake of the One Mind, Spirit and Soul of the Universal; we cannot partake of this true at-onement unless we the larger grow and the more comprehensive be; we shall, through such a process, reach out and abroad into the vastness of all that is, and through this very process, behold all as one stupendous Unity of purpose, and thus beholding, become somewhat of that understanding which is of wisdom's might, and hence, for real greatness in the All Good; but without this proper development and unfoldment and wrapped up in separateness, usual to selfishness, we grow smaller, day by day, and more cramped as time passes away; we see all things through the small end of the reversed telescope, and measure ourselves and all that environs us by the smallness of our inverted vision; we fear rivals, doubt ourselves and all others; we are unable to reach beyond narrow and limited premises and thus defeat self ends by helping to defeat others; we are small in comprehension and still smaller in undertaking and mastering affairs of moment to ourselves and society at large; we are a bubble where we should be an all energizing stream of success, health and energy; thus are we lopsided, onesided, limited, defeated, and miserably wanting in the midst of great opportunity, peace and plenty. "As ye mete unto yourselves so shall it be meted unto you," is a mighty truism; for as we measure out to ourselves or others, so shall we receive, and lest we receive bountifully we cannot give forth bountifully, neither can we receive, on the plane of opulence, lest we give of opulence most unselfishly and freely; freely give that all may enjoy of that which you possess and, in return, that you may freely receive of that which others may have in exchange for your own good gifts; this is the final law; this is that which distinguishes real Selfhood from petty, limited Selfishness.

The great of soul fears no rivals, in that all true greatness is of the One Mind, and hence none other Mind can infringe upon the genius of the truly great and wise. Jealousy and envy arise from fear; they are the offspring of selfishness or limitation; their god is self interests fostered by objective desire; they are not of the soul, and hence are defeated by well-fostered soul powers as of true Selfhood. The sun of our system shines for all planets in his cycle alike, because, in his greatness, he is the One Light, Life and Energy that sustains all; so, too, the great Spirit illumines all within the Soul of things alike and each and every factor of the Great Oversoul shall surely receive if, forgetting all else, remembers alone the Light, Life and Energy encompassing and indwelling the whole; there is but One Mind, One Spirit, One Soul to the real Selfhood, whether of one man or a billion men. Who realizes, in Consciousness, this great Truth, has solved the whole mystery of Creation and Creative power, whether of God or in His Image—man, and has mastered all that is of selfishness and limitation in this comprehensive understanding of Selfhood.

PROPHECY—WHY IT FAILS.

The Spirit can only be interpreted by Spirit; the Soul must interpret the messages of Soul; what refers to the Soul of things must not be taken nor must we attempt to apply to it a literal translation; I may receive, per the Silent Little Voice, as from the great depths of the One Eternal Soul, a message as delivered by The Universal Spirit which, alone, illumines Wisdom and makes the message possible, a message stating that all the world shall change, that a new dawn shall break over the wide expanse of land and sea; that "a new heaven and a new earth shall now come into manifestation," and that "all former things shall pass away;" yet while, in the Soul of things, this is precisely what is to be and the Spirit thus interprets and intends it, it does not mean PHYSICAL, but SPIRITUAL regeneration, and a new earth arises in the sense of a new heaven, that of MAN, AS SOUL ILLUMINED, BECOMES THIS NEW CREATURE, a world unto himself, in which is made manifest, "a new heaven and a new earth." The moment a man becomes, in CONSCIOUSNESS, THIS NEW CREATURE, he has assuredly entered the state wherein Christ said, "heaven is not a place, but a condition, it is in you," and thus is the prophecy fulfilled in each and to each individuality and not otherwise. But man becoming a "New Creature," the awakened Subconsciousness, being used to OBJECTIVE interpretation and OBJECTIVE adaptation and reception of all things, forgets that Spirit is Spirit and that Spiritual things are not Material things and that the ALL GOOD is the within and not the without of things, even though the within does guarantee the perfecting of the without according to the original, underlying purpose of the Divine. Superman is a fulfillment of all prophecy within himself and of himself and material environing things are altered and changed to accord with his new powers and to his innate Will and Genius; not the world, at large, but each individual sphere of action is first improved, and then, by the final process of slow unfoldment, many individualities becoming Superman, the units becoming united, does alter worldly affairs, conditions and man's environing circumstances, per the perfect working of the law of evolvment from the within to the improvement of the without; this latter is true evolution and the outcome of true prescience, prophecy and prevision as Soul and Spirit Powers or Gifts.

The novice or initiate, must invariably beware of applying wrong interpretation to Visions, Prophetic, or Messages, Spiritual, or Prophetic, referring to matters, seemingly of a world wide application, and had best let long practical experience be the master determining force; much harm is made of great Wisdom and Good by forgetting that man is living at one and the same time, in two worlds as to reception and expression, and that man is a world, in miniature, within himself, while the unity of the many make the one grand world man; in the many lies the complete unfoldment of what lies within the

One. Man, as a Perfected Soul, or Superman, utilizes the elements, per creative Genius and Spirit, to his own advancement and brings harmony, Peace, Health and Opulence out of chaos and strife; but to do so he must understand Spiritual and Natural Law, and understanding, conduct all things in accord with Law, as his sole rule of action or expression; obedience is the sum and substance of proving capacity and bringing to bear superior Gifts and Powers. Beware of prophecy, unless fully capable and able to understand it; John of Patmus saw, "the new Jerusalem," "The Holy City," descending, but John only saw Man, the Ideal Perfected Man, as the final Grand Temple united, the MANY perfected Temples, becoming the typical city of perfected Being; yet, those outside of Spiritual interpretation believe he actually saw a material city, with streets of gold, and palaces and thrones, and all such contrivances as we might expect in a material Kingdom; what a mistaken view of Prophecy is only too apparent to any illumined Psychic or Mystic.

"FIFTEEN HOURS OF HYSTERICIS KILL YOUNG WOMAN."

"Physicians Unable to Check Shrieking and Nervous Twitching of Body."

Fifteen hours of hysteria killed Miss Alma Smiley, a companion of Mrs. W. F. Althoff, wife of a retired manufacturer who lives at 1159 Race Street.

Miss Smiley's death yesterday ended one of the most remarkable attacks PHYSICIANS ever have encountered. Only about fifty such cases are reported."—Rocky Mountain News, of Denver, Sunday, January 17, 1909.

The above, and a Psychic right here in Denver who has cured, or overcome more cases than the above list of the same kind, since he came into "Psychic-Sarcology," and Anthropology and Anthropogeny. THIS IS THE ACQUARIAN AGE; THIS IS THE SPIRITUAL AGE; THIS IS THE AGE IN WHICH THE SUBCONSCIOUS IS BEING MADE EXPRESSIVE; THIS IS THE AGE WHEN THE SUBJECTIVE MIND ARISES TO POWER; THIS IS THE AGE OF PSYCHIC-SARCOLOGY, AND PHYSICIANS MUST ADOPT IT.

Mental Science WILL NOT DO; MEDICINES ALONE WILL NOT DO; TRUE PSYCHICS ALONE CAN HANDLE THESE AWFUL CASES; THE SPIRIT, ALONE, IS EFFICIENT AND THAT MUST BE THE FACT OF CONSCIOUSNESS ILLUMINED IN ORDER TO REACH THE CAUSE OF THE COLLAPSE. Now we, this EDITOR, DR. F. D. HINES, or PROFESSOR, whichever pleases you, CAN, DOES, AND IS, HEALING ALL SUCH CASES; HAS NOW ONE THAT NO ORDINARY METHOD OR KNOWING COULD TOUCH; A PSYCHOLOGICAL CASE; but if he undertakes SUCH CASES he wants a PHYSICIAN who WILL NOT THROW THE CASE by overdosing, or any other means, to defeat God's Indwelling Spirit of Healing. No MENTALISM will do; it is WORSE than NO HEALING; it but excites; CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MUST KEEP AWAY IF OF THE MENTAL TYPE; we want no assistance but that of THE TRUE HEALER, whether PHYSICIAN or other type; WE DO, AND HAVE, AND HENCE, WE HAVE A RIGHT TO DEMAND THE PRIVILEGE OF HEALING SUCH FRIGHTFUL CASES; if YOU do not want US, then for GOD'S SAKE give DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVE and TRY, at least to HEAL. No one knows what these people ARE, but that which upsets them, and the well skilled Psychic, true Psychic, not a made thing, or a think-I-am thing. The good Physician wants health; he is not one who, alone gets his money and can write a death certificate to end his ignorance and inability; we stand hand in hand with the good Physician and always CALL ONE, if needed, and are not here to throw down Materia Medica, or good ea-

capacity, or ability and earnest LOVE of the HEALING of mankind; we cannot write a DEATH CERTIFICATE, even though we have beaten all records on healing of late years, and are to-day knocking disease of the chronic type endways.

Our helper is like ourselves, of the same revealment and similarly gifted; equally so with ourselves; she is an ex-subject of the worst type of hysteria; every Psychic, Medium and Revealer that ever saw her said five years ago, she could not live the year out; she had some frightful break-downs and seemed, at times, absolutely insane with hysteria; this man healed her. Wake up; DO SOMETHING, YOU DOCTORS; we are not AGAINST YOU, but want HEALING DONE and NOT TOM-FOOLERY to rule in the grandest ART of the AGES; and this is THE SPIRITUAL UNFOLDING AGE, and YOU MUST PREPARE FOR IT.

In the case of Miss Smiley, the Osteopath should have reversed her usual strokes; she should have laid a hand, the left fingers pressing in, just at the back of the neck, taking in that portion of the Trapezium; with the right hand laid across the LOVE CENTER, at Sternum, and then and thus permitted exercise of "the Sterno-cleido-Mastoid," and the Trapezium, action would have been immediate for the Brain and Nerves extending from and back to the same; then beginning from the fifth to the eighth Cervical and about, or at, the first Dorsal Vertebrae, lay the hands, with the left at this latter point, the right on top the head and use some dispersive passes; the Deltoid and the Lattisimus Dorsi as governing the arms should have also received immediate after attention, and thus manipulating with Spiritual Energies also at work, the patient would have still lived, most likely so; it's all in KNOWING what you have to do, and DOING IT.

The Deltoid muscle raises the arm; the Biceps flexes the Forearm; the Triiceps extends the Forearm and is used in striking heavy blows; this woman's right arm was kept in constant exercise; the left Lobe of the Brain was the affected upper or Cerebrum part, while the Basilar or Cerebellum, the Organ of Involuntary action, too, was affected; we have given a treatment that no Osteopath or Physician can afford to ignore. We know the human mechanism and are entitled to more than a mere M. D. Degree, even though we have not at our tongue's tip words a mile long to write a thesis.

"Truth can never be confirmed enough though doubts did ever sleep."

In case of Hysteria, all doubt, fear, confusion, must get hence; relatives bewailing, friends, nervous people must go; absolute will energy; positive, fearless knowing and faith must alone be present. Never compromise with Satan—evil, whether hysteria, disease, fear, doubt or murder.

We may hunt and kill our brother man while here and escape the just punishment we deserve, at the hands of mankind, but let us tell you, the Court's wherein the Holy Spirit's Light searches motives and illumines Souls shall mete out exact and everlasting Justice; "no murderer shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven." All commit murder who think it in their heart and Soul; and none are less the guilty who aid in its commission. They shall pay the full penalty and no prayers, repentance or anything else, can defeat the One Eternal Spirit of Truth.

Because a wife or a husband violates a sacred position, excuses no man, in the Spirit's Eye for Murder and releases no man from the terrors of after slavery of Soul and final loss of identity; man's laws are not the Soul's laws; neither are they God's laws. "Vengeance is Mine, saith the Lord." He, alone, gives life, and He alone taketh it away; you cannot kill the Soul, lest it be your own, through forfeiture of Life by taking another's mortal chance to complete a Soul Life here.

THE EATING INN.

Not a Religious Thing, a Test for Sin;
 Not a Gospel Mill, but food therein.
 Not a Hobos' Inn; not a Drunkards' Joint;
 Not a Loafers' Place, but a Feeding Point.

The jail for vagrancy or the poor farm, is no place for a temporarily busted and down-and-out starving man; not punishment, but succor until a change in circumstances permits a rise is the thing needed.

We are all able to rise to great public disasters like the recent destructive quake of Italy; we are all innately generous of spirit and man is humane and ready to come to the test when tremendous forces are wrought to call forth his nobler selfhood; but what are we to do about the numberless unfortunates who do actually travel and traverse our streets in abject distress, hunger and cold; we read of suicides from hunger and lack, and this, too, while wagon loads of good food is wasted daily at our large hostleries and every one of our restaurants; could there not be some system adopted for gathering up all this waste; that is the best of it, and the turning of it into a great good charity by having some place where all the actually hungry, regardless of cause, could come and be fed, until work or money relieved their distress? This editor was twice so caught, in the past, and once roamed the very streets of Denver without bed or food for three days and nights, and was too weak and undone to work, when he obtained a position, to do the work properly. Do not ask a hungry man to cut your kindling or carry up a ton of coal ere he eats; feed him and then let him do your service; we trust some scheme will find favor with some good, nonsectarian booster and philanthropist which can find a way to gather the tons of wasted food, good, wholesome food, daily thrown away in every great city, and thus alleviate one of the most crying, un-called-for and most far-reaching demoralizing things civilization has brought to bear. Feed the hungry first, then ask work of them. For God's sake let us find some plan and sustain it; charity should begin at home; we cannot ask individuals to do this; it must be a great public feeding station; a man can run around and keep warm; but no human being can stand up under starvation. The real deserving and honest man will starve before seeking out a charity organization or going from house to house to beg; we know because we have been there, and have known many others who were in like straits; it's no disgrace to get broke; the best man that ever lived is liable to do so in spite of his smartness; but it's a disgrace to civilization to permit such a man to get so weakened as to be compelled to starve for lack of power or strength to work a shift in order to get something with which to get a meal of victuals. The Spirit cries out let there be SOMETHING DONE. We are not asking the keeping up of a hobo inn; we are not expecting a place to be run for the man who will not attempt to rise; we are speaking for men who are not hobos, not natural do-nothings, and we are jumping right up in meeting for the hundreds and hundreds of good, well-meaning unfortunates who deserve a lift and should get it.

Man is not able to judge man's soul; neither can he with impunity disrobe a human soul of its mortal tabernacle. Beware, then, kill not lest ye be killed, not alone of body, but after eons of dwelling as slave to the murdered victim's soul, you then die the second death.

Dead men tell no story, appear before no earthly tribunal in defense of sacred honor; so all cowards see to it that their victim is dead and surely dead, for otherwise, it might defeat their plea of insulted manhood or insanity. Put all man-killers in confinement; let none escape; sane or insane, and killing will become less frequent and insanity mighty hard to find. There is no unwritten Law with God; for God is law actualized.

HEALING DEPARTMENT.

Many people wonder why it is we do not rush after them and their cases as most people in our line of work usually do; the reason is that it is right and absolutely just and proper that each and every person should select their own healing process, without hindrance or suggestion, especially from the true Healer; and again, "ask and ye shall receive," is the only true revelation; without this asking the Healer, who is of The Divine Spirit and utilizes Divine Energies as Soul Energies, is not at liberty and will not get like results if by any method otherwise than willingness to be treated with your own free will back of your request.

Ask our former patrons and patients about success of our Occult and Psychic Process, as we prefer to be so measured, and, if satisfied, do as the successful ones have done; enter our lists, pay your monthly treating price and results are pretty apt to prove satisfactory.

You are Health, Success and Wealth, Consciousness now or else its opposite; you are on the royal highway of opulence now or else on the great doubtful midway or in the rut of poverty; you are all that makes for beauty, happiness and strength now, or else you are on the list of withering and decaying ones; you are prosperity or failure even as you are in actualized Spiritual Consciousness stayed in the Soul of things or drifting of the outer surfs of the worldly sphere of action and life; all rests with you.

Some people laugh at us when we say for inveterate blood distempers get S. S. S., but never mind, a good remedy kills no one, and there are people who require that good remedy, even along with the very highest and best Psychic or Divine Process of healing, in that poison is thus the sooner eliminated and the length of rightful growth treatment shortened; some wonder at us when we tell them to go right along with any Physician's remedy they may be taking; remember we are at your service and want you healed, and whatever is essential to YOUR progress we let alone; if, after on our list, you discover the potency of the treatment and find it all sufficiency, you are at liberty to thank God, not us, that you have been led to His Spiritual means of Illumination, Soul Unfoldment, and physical perfection in all that assures a continuance of youthful beauty and healthful strength in after expression; all things work together for good under a true Psychic growth and healing process, and evil must be overcome and eliminated.

A million men can find sweet relief
From whom the One Truth, in Spirit, Mind and Soul emanates to set them free.

Yes, we grow younger in manifestation day by day, and we are freer, happier, and stronger to-day than ever before in all our years of labor, study and progress in this mundane sphere; we are, too, doing ten times as much work; putting in longer hours and standing it better than ever before in our history here; we are also gaining in name and fame, and building, always building for greater and mightier fields of useful endeavor; it is good to know, and knowing possess power to build for self while, too, doing likewise for hosts of other deserving ones; we live not to self, nor for self alone; therein is the great truth of real power and actualized success.

I am that I am in the mighty One;
No other Mind have I, but is Iis;
No lesser Spirit than The Holy Ghost
Infills and thrills the Soul of me.
One Mind in me is the Mind in all,
One Spirit illumines the magic whole,
And moves all, in the mighty Oversoul.
No other Mind, or Minds, shall there be,
Where this One Grand Mind ruleth thee.

OUR METHOD.

SEVENTEENTH LESSON.

Remember, what you want to be you must will to be, and then stay with what you will to be, until you have become what you willed.

Do not will anything until you are ready to pay, in full measure, the debt that sets you free. Will only thus, and once you have so willed, never recede from that which you will. Many people will to be Health, but the first pain, or ache, or set-back, or ill condition they feel approaching or seizing upon them, they throw up the white flag and surrender the will to that of the ailment. Disease, Sickness, Hate, Envy, Strife, Loss, Poverty, Ill Luck, Whining and all other Evils to which human flesh is subject, are mighty warriors and of powerful stick-to-it-iveness unless met by will performed by persistency of mind, spirit and action.

We could not heal a single patient were we not will eternally and all the time in action; grim, set, determined Will Action at work in spite of Whines, ill reports or anything else of a discouraging nature. Occult Work is no fun; it means forever at your guns, and that, too, with ammunition and energy to keep up constant firing.

Next a spirit, Possession is a power at work within or without the human organism; it is persistent; it knows no rivalry; it recognizes no law but possession of that which it has won or possesses; it persists in that possession, as of its own; this requires strong, firm, clear will and determination of superior Spiritual Power and Mind to cast out the intruder and, here, the Occult must be an uncompromising general in command of opposing energies; he must utilize all elementary forces or elements, as well as Spiritual Energies, as Soldiers of his Will, in order to win the victory, and if you of yourself, undertake the task of ousting these mortal-destroying forces, you must be as the Occult, an irresistable, uncompromising, eternally at Will Energy, until the work is completed and you stand undoubted Master in command of yourself and all that pertains to self and the kingdom of self; no giving way to impulses, pains, troubles or disturbances, or voices can be countenanced for one single minute, no matter how long the battle.

When once you have gone to a genuine Divine Healer, one of note, or an Occult, do so with but one purpose firmly fixed in mind, backed by Will to stay with it until Success has crowned everything with victory; pay your Occult promptly, freely, willingly, that he may be free to act unhindered and unworried; pay as you agree; don't whine; tell him the real truth of progress or its reverse, simply, justly, and then leave him alone to work out the problem; remember he is the worst tried and most bossed of the two; he must obey implicitly what the Divine Spirit compels him to do, say and perform; he must meet the powers that beset you and oppose him; he is a mighty general, yet a patient Psychic Process of true overcoming power and after growth for Health and Success, as permeating himself and becoming, in you, what he himself is, in Master Energy, backed by Continuous Will as Will in action; he cannot reveal how long this process must continue; he works and waits and grows, day by day, the new man or new body, as the case may be; or disconnects you with evil environments and their results, or evil spirits, thought emanations, etc.; as the case requires, and then restores you to that vigor and vital energy essential to your own Mastership in your own particularized sphere of action, reception and expression; this is work and requires time according to what is required; some buildings can be built in half the time that others can, and with one-half the expense and energy; so is it with mind and body building as done by the great Occult.

Running all over creation gossiping and telling your afflictions to this one and that one does more injury than all other things you can do; stay by one Occult, provided he is an Occult; keep your mouth shut as to him or his method; abide his treatment; trust him and none other; listen to none other; mind your own business and let gossips and gossiping out. This is correct law; the Occult has enough to do without fighting envious would-be's and hypocritical know-nothings and do-nothings, Hypnotists and Spiritists, and Black Magicians, and Mentalists.

A Dutchman with an eye to money-making, upon looking about, noticed the frequency of funerals. "Vell, I yust must set up dem funerals shops und mine wealt' is enormously much!" So he selected a suitable place and opened for business; the first day along came a friend, and this friend had just lost a grown son. "Vat you scharge for dem burials ceremonies wit' hearses und dree carriages und all t'ings vat went mit de tead?" "Fifty-five tollars will be de price, mine dear friend, und dat includes me own vork ober der remnants." The corpse was brought in and the Dutchman, desiring to make good his word as to personal supervision, entered the apartment termed the laying-out and embalming quarters. "Vell, Hans. I come to be mit der tead und to assist in dis undertaking." The two men set to work vigorously to prepare the corpse for the burial casket; they had succeeded in getting everything in readiness; the light was turned on in full, and all was stillness within the silent chamber. "Vot was dot noise, Hans, vat yust dis minute made der vall shook?" Hans didn't answer, for just at that moment a something rose up before the two men as if from the slab, or the body that occupied the slab; gradually it became more vividly apparent; at first it was as a vapory cloud, presently it became more like a peculiar filmy cloaked image, then an arm extended, a head took shape and a voice spake, "Mein froind und—"

but the sentence was not completed; Hans took to his heels and our Dutch undertaker's hair raised full length as he whirled to fly. "Ach, mein froind, ich bin nicht so gross, comin Sie hinein." The Dutchman's undertaking days had ended, a new venture to him was not to his hand; the corpse was buried by an older firm. Moral: never choose a business till you know its ins and outs and are aware of the ghost that haunts untraversed fields; another man's business, because appearances promise lucre, must be understood ere gold, the sought-for reality, passes the spectre that bows, alone, to knowledge and worth.

Stick to well-beaten roads until sure of better ones or the means accompanied with reasonable knowledge to traverse others.

Thousands are falling, day by day,
 Into the fathomless depth below;
 Crying for aid, for light on the way,
 While the Spirit in mighty glow,
 Infills a universe and the souls
 Of every living, breathing creature,
 Thing or emanation of the Oversoul.

Without Faith to heal or save,
 Countless hosts pass out and on,
 In limitless procession, the grave
 To fill with a mass of shapely
 Nothingness; with soul in pawn, Spirit earthbound, thus stately Man fooled, deceived, drops to decay.

In our Father's House are many Mansions, but how many are more like dungeons than well-kept places of thrift, Love, and Health and beauty; the world is broad and clothed with beauty; the skies are ever clear and of rarest blue; the sunshine and all that makes for life and its continuity is free to all alike; the mansions of God are, originally pure, healthful and filled with Spirit of Light and Love; but man, what an anomaly of discordances art thou, as the lord of thy mansion, given thee of the God of the Universe!

ASTROLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

We have in the first twelve back numbers complete revealments for each of the twelve Astrological Signs of the Zodiac, and all these numbers can still be had at the price of ten cents for any one, or three for twenty-five cents; the delineations therein are admitted up to date and full and complete. In as much as this month of February, up to the 19th, falls under the Zodiacal Sign of Aquarius, we wish to speak of the present grand Sign of Aquarius, in which the Solar System to which we belong is now located as to its present grand cycle of some twenty-three hundred or more years, having passed out of the Sign of Pisces, about the year 1881; the Christ was born in the last or Pisces Cycle, and that being a water sign, it was natural that during its continuity we should have conquered all the great water-ways and made all powerful the ships that traverse the seas; not this alone, but it was also natural that fire and water should be utilized, per combination, and bring to us the mighty era of steam power, now at its fullest and completest usefulness; but as we enter the new sign, that of Aquarius, we come into an Air Sign, an entirely different manifestation; instead of the spirit of fire and water as governing forces we shall now turn to the spirit of fire and air as the ruling energy and force in action, and air being more ethereal, we shall find a magical Spirituality creeping into the Constitutional make-up of mankind, bringing into revealment the Soul, Spirit and Mind forces and energies as never before in the world's long history; this, too, brings into play the era of law and law enforcement and respect for all laws of every nature and kind governing in the vast universal of things. If we thus stop to note matters we can readily understand the why of recent strides since 1881 of all electrical devices, of improved air manipulations and the recently successful attempts at traveling per airships; we can also see the reasonableness of the rapid changes in the Spiritual Unfoldment of the people, at large, and the why for that wonderful Psychic awakening which has so suddenly seized our entire world's population and the cause for the great metaphysical uprising that has the past decade taken possession of the people. No man may yet conjecture what this Aquarian Age shall bring to pass; none can rightly estimate at this time the wonders and achievements possible and coming to us in this wonderful time of the Air manifestation; the earth is already giving forth its first great evidences of the effects apparent by undreamed-of upheavals and divers quakes and revolutions and eruptions; this period has but begun, and this year 1909 is the beginning of what we fear will be world demarkations of time-honored and prehistoric landmarks. It may be that large portions of the entire earth's surface may give way to mighty eruptions, quakes and shakes, and while some portions sink, others will rise, so as to totally change the entire coast lines of our continents, in many places; the water Cycle has passed; the Seas give up their dominion; the air assumes control; the gaseous surmounts all opposition and fire at the grand center must reach out and combine with the elements of air which may account for unexpected and undreamed-of calamities, while the readjusting process is under way; in Chemistry and Medicine, the same change will necessitate new combinations, an adjustment to the new conditions and man's diseases being naturally changed as to trend, and nature will require new learning and somewhat different application of methods of healing; the same condition requires, too, the recognition of the new Spiritual Epoch surely at our door; for man has entered now and here a new dispensation and a new development, wherein the Soul must express its fire and the air its Spirit as in a combination of that Love which shall rule for Health, Longevity, Wisdom, Purity and Revelation. It is now the prophetic age, and history will repeat itself in many ways, and most certainly so as to Prophecy, Revelation, and Spiritual Attainment; it is the dawn of the power of the Soul, and Mind Innate rises to proclaim the identity of all with the One Supreme Source of Being in Truth; let us rejoice and be glad and rise to claim the new in all things, hoping for the highest and the fullest attainment possible to man as supreme ruler of earthly domains per the Spirit of the Father, as indwelling the Soul.

or causes which destroy and those which create and build, thus mastering the question of how long he shall enjoy his pilgrimage here as a preparatory period for the after life of his higher Self, that of the Soul. The possibilities of man overcoming and removing the evils that afflict and undo him here, should move him to the most far-reaching and stupendous efforts to become that power of Spirit, Mind and Soul which shall enable him to transform evil conditions that surround him and transmute all evil about him into his mightiest good.

Each personal life is bound up with that of others; upon society as a whole depends the solving of the great question of longevity, for all are personally affected on every side by the lives and conduct and thoughts of others; every true sensitive knows how much we are so affected; the institutions of society must be made to conform with man's nature, be patterned after his faculty desires and manifestations, fulfill his spiritual aspirations and overcome his economical disturbances, ere he can hope to live in harmonious accord with those Divine Principles and Elementary Forces which should build up, instead of destroy, vital energy. Laws will bring results only when obeyed by society collectively, or as a whole; the very stability of the earth upon which we dwell is assured alone by the perfect obedience of this orb or mundane sphere with Cosmic Laws, which in cycles sweep through endless ages and as with the world itself, so with man, obedience to Cosmic Laws as correct rules of action will alone enable him to resist those causes which work destruction to the body.

Man may never hope to escape the final decree of his destiny; he must be born to remain a season upon the earth; but he can change immensely the conditions, as environing him and seizing Nature's forces and natural elixirs, perform his mission here in health, happiness and perfect balance, as between those forces

Yes, I have traveled the road of probation;

Tasted the vinegar of ingratitude's gift;
My brow has been pressed by the thorns
Of despair; I have been stretched, outright,

On the cross of earth's ills, and swift
Has my blood traversed the veins tortured

By poverty's destroying and defeating might.

Law is a rule of action; obedience to law brings enjoyment of peace, life and content in every sphere of existence or expression; a character formed remains the same whether here or in a spiritual sphere of action, and obedience to law determines the stability of character as to its fitness for promotion, continuity, and final fulfillment of purpose. Who violates physical laws suffers physical punishment; who violates Spiritual laws must most certainly not expect to gain that which obedience assures.

In the molecules, cells and atoms of the human body lies the means for the expression of those Spiritual Energies which, working as intelligences, illumined, heal the tissues and re-create and build, as it were, anew the entire bodily organism; faculty direction is the one primal objective essential to correct appropriation of this healing process and recreating Spiritual Power. The Soul knows, but the Spirit illumines.

Prof. Hines:

What is the difference between Mental Healing and Psychic Healing? You seem to differentiate, and yet you say repeatedly there is but one Mind; if there is but One Mind why is not all healing of that One Mind and thus Mental Healing?

A PRACTITIONER

There is but One, Divine Mind in the reality of the All-Consciousness; this One Mind is the Original, Underlying, Creative Mind of the Universe; this One Mind is the ALL MIND of the WHOLE in the All Good; this One Mind is the Mind which indwells the Great Oversoul of the entire Universal; this is the One Mind of The Father, made manifest in The Son, by The Spirit of The Father, The Holy Ghcst; without The Spirit making manifest this One Mind none, not ONE can say I AM OF THE ONE MIND OF THE UNIVERSE; this One Mind, as made manifest by The Divine Spirit within The Divine Scn, is that which distinguishes the Christ Nature, as the New Creature as of and active Principle, as a Healing Energy or Power within the SOUL of man; this One Mind thus manifest within the Soul of man, as The Superjective, BECOMES, THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT, as THE LIGHT OF WISDOM making it manifest as Soul Illumination, expressive, after such Illumination has taken place within the Soul of man, as The Subjective Mind; thus The One Mind is made manifest, alone by The Divine Spirit and in no other way, becoming the Superior Mind, as per process here delineated and thence through the Illuminating and Regenerative powers of the Holy Ghost, passes as Love, Truth and Life, in Health Consciousness, per the Subjective Mind, as such Consciousness into the Faculty Channels of the Objective, there as a Concept to be made manifest as that which is to be what we have willed shall be, as of Creative Thought an emanation of The One Original, Underlying Mind of the Universe, which is Health Actualized to start with, as such concept of the Soul of man. This process is not Objective Thinking or Mental formulating, or Mental projection of Objective conception, creation or formulation. The Brain of man is not the Mind of man; the Objective Mind of man can be, or need not be, the concept of Creative Soul or Spiritualized Mind or Concept; the Objective thought forces or energies, may be or need not be of Divine or Spiritual origin; they may be of the One Mind or they need not be thereof; hence they may be indwelt of spirit, which is the Life of Mind, or they may be indwelt of mere mortal spirit, which is void of Divine Conception, or Divine Will, or Word, and thus be void of power to cast out disease and fertilize and grow new health conditions; the Objective Mind may be in conformity, therefore, with Divine Will, Mind and Spirit, or else be alone in conformity with the mere outward form of things, void of indwelling Love, Life and Spirit of Truth, the real Word made manifest as the very essence and substance of true Healing and a Psychic Process; Psychic meaning "Spirit's Breath," or Life actualized and expressive as from Soul to Soul as a fact of Possession in Consciousness. The difference between Mental Healing and a Psychic Process, is the difference in the leavened and the unleavened; the Life vitalized word and the dead and inexpressive and ineffectual word; the Spirit of life in action and the absence of the same; the presence of The Divine Will and its absence.

In Mental healing you compel a line of thought, a hallucination to operate as the Mind you yourself implant, as that of your patient, and this mind, working in the patient's Brain, does not necessitate a life awakening, reinvigorating, vitalizing Spiritualizing, life-giving, healing PRINCIPLE, as of the Life of the Universe, or as of Creative Principle, in Mind, Word and Spirit; your patient thinks, with your mind; thinks your thoughts; realizes nothing but another's idea or ideal of his own organism; is without his own mind to detect and declare weakness, sickness or anything else contrary to your mesmeric control, per your mental thought waves passing in and through his Brain as the instrument of mind expression; results, he thinks as you think; he discerns as you discern; he may be dying by inches, but the atomic parts, forming his mind, personal and individual, do not respond to the foreign mind working in his cranium and hence, refuse to report the real conditions existing within his own body, as a whole; his Soul, being a factor of the One Universal Soul, rebels and refuses Light of Wisdom as Illumined of Spirit, and thus he decays, wastes away while your Mind, mortal, thinks for him and through this hallucination, permits the wonderful enjoyment of walking around in apparent freedom from pain and aches, whilst the body decays and finally dies. We defy you to prove the falsity of these premises, as we can establish our proofs from data gathered from reputed physicians and hospital authorities as referring to mere mentalism.

There are Healers who heal, as they believe, by Mental Method; they know not themselves; they do injustice to their own innate Soul Powers and Gifts of Spirit as Life-awakening, Life-giving, Regenerative Principles; they think they are healing by a mere Objective Mental Process; they heal because enabled, by a still deeper Principle, as an indwelling Life-giving power, per creating an Auto-Suggestion, which becomes a Soul Force within the patient and operates as such Soul Force, as a creative, rejuvenating and clearing and healing Energy; but the moment this Process is operative your mind has lost itself in the Auto-Suggestion, here referred to, and the patient heals in spite of your Mental after production; simply, because the Soul, per the Subjective Mind of the patient, is greater than any mere Objective energy that might steal into the Brain Channels as an operative mind, and the Soul rules, in spite of all else, and hallucination cannot take possession of the Brain and Nervous system of the real Soul-ruled individuality or personality. The Objective Mind may design but it cannot build; all great Psychologists will so inform you; you may design, but the Spirit within the Soul, which is the Life of Word, and hence, of Thoughts, made of words, as the building material, must, per the Subjective conduct the process of building, and this is a Psychic Process, not a mere Mental Process. Finally, the difference between the Mental and a Psychic Process of healing lies in the One fact, that the mental is thinking Health, while the Psychic Process involves that Knowing, Feeling, Sensing, and hence, Actualized Consciousness, indwelling the Soul, which IS HEALTH and is that which BECOMES HEALTH when sent forth as a Divine, Spiritualized Energy to the patient and, so sent forth as of and in, The One Mind, the One Soul, made manifest by The One Spirit. The Divine Spirit makes manifest the Healing Power of The One Mind, and is, therefore, the vitalizing, awakening, quickening Principle, without which Life of Mind, in Word, there is no Health Consciousness. You may think a pain out, but you cannot build a new Constitution or a new Physical Body without the Spiritual Substance or Word. There is nothing to real mentalism but hallucination, for the principle that heals is creative, constructive growth and building principle backed by the Life Essence, indwelling the Magic Word.

Get into the spirit of all that surrounds you for your good; keep in this spirit and have a spirit in all your works and ways, and success, with health and happiness, will surely follow as a natural result. Spirit makes for thrift and energy and awakens life's chords in such manner as to cause all things about you to vibrate in unison; this is the law of harmony and accord and wins where all else fails.

As in the natural Ocean's estate of ill and good,
 So in the Sea of Life it is, beware the tide
 That turns to ill the every good that's stood
 The former storms and blasts and aided to glide,
 From tidal wave, that turns to death the form;
 The same power that breathes life, from within,
 May destroy the without, when the tides come in.

Patience and content with Faith and Hope is the necessity of true success in any one or any undertaking; it took ages upon ages for the Original Concept of this Universe to develop and unfold unto its present state of partial perfection; man seems to think that all laws may be violated, and then to expect immediate returns in everything undertaken.

Nothing great was ever achieved without time, patience, content, hope and Faith by any one; the writing of Gray's Elegy consumed a year to each verse; the painting of the grandest picture ever produced and now in the Vatican at Rome, consumed twenty years; no great lawyer, physician or statesman of any prominence expects actual success under ten to fifteen long years of constant toil and practice; it takes years to perfect the growth of a good-sized tree, and man, no matter who he may be, is no exception to this one eternal law of GROWTH and Development, Unfoldment and Fulfillment.

A great caldron; thousands upon thousands of struggling humanity therein, pulling and hauling, bubbling and puffing, all for first position, is the present mixed-up state of the greater portion of society; competition in legitimate channels along intelligent lines is the life of all that is; but competition as herein seen, of ignorance, greed, selfishness and crime is like a caldron of worms fighting and wriggling for space wherein to breathe and exist.

Saturday afternoon meeting for the accommodation of all desiring Advice. Price 25 cents to all.

Write five questions on One Sheet of Paper, same as in the evening circles, as to signatures, etc. Place one article up for Psychometric Test.

We answer no Test Questions; deal only in present and future except as revealed otherwise per CLAIRAUDIENCE (the Silent Voice of the Soul), by Vision, Prophetic and Spiritual, as Soul Sight; by Clairvoyance and per Psychometry. This Saturday afternoon meeting will be from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock, and the number of questions allowed gives almost a reading for the small price of 25 cents. Three questions at night, and five questions at Saturday afternoon meetings; the first 15 cents, the second 25 cents. Topics suggested: Travels, Changes, Journeys, Sickness, Finances, Business, Real Estate, Mines, Insurance, Buying and Selling, Estates, Marriage, Law Suits, Divorces, etc.

BOOK EXCHANGES OR REVIEWS.

Book Reviews, conducted by the Editor of this Magazine, and with an eye single to Worth and genuine Merit, regardless of Class or Type or Creed or Other distinction.

A. A. Lindsay, M.D., the gifted author of "The New Psychology," and "The Tyranny of Love," noted in former issues of this Magazine, has just completed "Mind the Builder. The New Psychology Continued," and we are ready to concede rare merit and intrinsic worth to this Soul-inspiring addition to the helpful and uplifting, as well as educative, works of Dr. Lindsay's fertile Soul and Mind. This latest production contains more than twenty thousand words within the scope of fourteen chapters, and one hundred pages of living, awakening, vibrating, Soul-inspiring food for reflection, and mental and physical unfoldment and growth; it strikes the key note in that which most students overlook—the importance of a building process as well as a creative and willing process; it is rich in comparison and simple in theory; it can be read with pleasure while giving, too, the most perfect scientific knowledge. It recognizes one phase—the Objective Mind as the designer, and another phase—the Subjective Mind as the Builder.

Unique in its all-sufficiency, liberal in its classification and terminology, it fills a special need in modern Psychological studies.

Do not fail to get in touch with Dr. Lindsay's works, all of them.

"The New Psychology," post paid, bound in cloth, price, $1.25. In silk binding, $1.50. "The Mind Builder," bound in heavy fibre, 50 cents. In flexible leather, stamped, $1.00. Address all orders and communications to The Lindsay Publishing Co., People's Bank Building, Seattle, Washington, or Selling-Hirsch Building, Portland, Oregon; or leave orders with the publisher of this Magazine, together with the price of book desired.

We accept with pleasure two copies of "The Adept," devoted to Astrology Evolution, Monism, and edited and published by Frederick White of Crystal Bay, Minn. Price per year, 50 cents. The delineations for January are particularly of interest to us, as they are very nearly in conformity with what we had reached by our own Soul and Spiritual Process, per Revelation, and show very emphatically the connection between the laws of the Inner Spiritual with the outer Astral realms.

The Kansas City Journal of Sunday, December 20, 1908, has a full page descriptive article upon the wonderfully successful work of Dr. C. H. Carson and his Temple of Health, and also a fine cut of his proposed "Temple of Light," now being planned and funds being gathered to build it. Dr. Carson is the publisher of "Through the Shadows and Beyond, by Rose the Sunlight," and which we reviewed in our January issue; for sale at $3 a copy by The Psychic World Publishing Co., 1119 Washington Street of that city. We were pleased upon reading The Journal's account of his work and undertakings, in that it outlines, very much, the ideal held by us for a similar Temple to be built and located here by and under the auspices of our own Incorporation and Psychic Temple Society, as officered and directed as shown under another page heading in each issue of this Magazine; we believe great good lies in such Temples, and not that alone, but it involves, in our case, a plan of Success, Health, and Wealth Co-operation which will assure benefits to many people in all the avenues of teaching, and healing, and Psychic and Occult work, as well as be the means of reaching the sick and needy in many States and many Cities. We congratulate Dr. Carson upon the success he has attained, as we do all uplifters in each and all Institutional Works. Specialized Psychic Work requires suitable Temples and environments to carry it on, and there can be no rivalries where Truth and Honor and Honesty rules supreme. God bless all Revealers as born leaders in such undertakings, for a Revealer means Life, Truth, Love expressive in Soul Energies and Capacity to heal, uplift and advise and aid all whom he meets or comes in contact with.

Pushing Forward, is a bright, uplifting Monthly Magazine published in Denver by The Pushing Forward Club, at 1.00 per year; We noted Miss Catherine H. Brady, our little authoress, among the contributors for January.

We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of "The Naturapath and Herald of Health," published in both English and German by Benedict Lust, N. B., at 465 Lexington Avenue, New York City; price, single copies, 20 cents; $2.00 per annum, regular subscription rates. This is a scientific publication of immense range and very extensive investigation and value.

We are pleased to acknowledge a copy of the January Issue of "The Blue Jay," and among the many Jays of Colorado Nativity, we welcome this Jay to our Sanctum: "A magazine of Irregular Therapeutics, published by Almo DeMonco, M. D., Commonwealth Building, Denver, Colorado; Price, single copy, 10 cents; per annum, 40 cents.

Dr. C. H. Carson, the eminent Anthropologist and Psychic-Sarcologist, the founder of the Temple of Health," and Organizer of "The Society of The New Revelation," as well as intended builder of the great new "Temple of Light," at Kansas City, has favored us with his splendid little manual, or Worship and Prayer, as formulated for his Society, also his most profound and instructive Work, "Compendium of Revealed Knowledge," "A Complete System of Anthropology," this latter work intended for his students and practitioners; we cannot express our gratitude in words; we shall only endeavor to offer our appreciation through that communion of Souls so effectually uplifting and helpful to the Adepts in Higher Truth and its fullest manifestation, the expression of the Graces.

Dr. Carson is the author of "Through The Valley of The Shadow and Beyond," by "Rose The Sunlight," which we hope every one may yet be able to purchase and read. The latter work is sold by "The Psychic World Publishing Co.," 12th and Washington Streets, Kansas City, Mo. Price, $3.00.

Do not forget Dr. Lindsay's Works of Portland, Oregon; his "The New Psychology," price, Cloth Bound, $1.25, Silk, $1.50, and his "Mind, The Builder;" Fibre Binding, 50 cents Flexible Leather, $1.00. Send all orders to "The Lindsay Publishing Co.," Sellings-Hirsch Building, Portland, Oregon.

Among our exchanges for the month we have the following list of magazines:

The Balance, Mrs. Olive A. Killin, editor and publisher; Prof. J. H. Cashmere, associate editor; 1143 Josephine Street, Denver, Colo. Price, $1.00 per annum.

The Swastika, 1742-48 Stout Street; Dr. McIvor Tyndall, editor; The Wahlgreen Publishing Co. Price, $1.00 per annum.

La Verdad (Spanish), Revista De Altos Estudios; Ciencia, Filosofia, Religion, Camparada y Ocultismo. Calle Bolivia 184, Flores Buenos Aires, Argentina. Price upon application.

The Modern World and Business Woman's Magazine, 1442 Arapahoe Street, Denver, Colo.; $1.00 per annum.

The Sister Republics, Frank Brady, editor and publisher, 205 McClelland Block, Denver, Colo.; 50 cents per annum.

The Liberator; The Liberator Publishing Co., 1322 Hennepin Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.; $1.00 per annum.

The Essene, Grace M. Brown, Editor; The Essene Publishing Co., Box 445, Denver, Colo.; $1.00 per annum.

The Open Road, Bruce T. Calvert, editor and publisher, R. F. D. No. 1, Griffith, Indiana; $1.00 per annum.

The P. S. A. Bulletin, progressive, scientific, altruistic. Published by The Advance Thought Publishing Co. of Portland, Ore. Yearly subscription, domestic, 10 cents; foreign, 15 cents. This little monthly contains brief delineations and pointers on the business outlook, per Planetary Influence and Natural Law.

The New Age Magazine, of 21 Madison Street, Boston; F. P. Fairfield, Editor. Subscription, $1.00 per annum. A powerfully good magazine for the Semi-Orthodox and Altruistic, as well as Occult and Mystic.

NOTES.

Psycho-therapy for the Scalp and Hair, per a special process now being employed by Mrs. Jennie Crowfoot, has stopped the falling out of hair, brought a complete new growth to several who had become bald, and healed the scalps of all, whether men or women she treats. This editor is among those whose hair was rapidly disappearing; in two months treatment the scalp has been renovated, loosened up and a new growth of nice hair brought into manifestation. We recommend everyone to try her method; it's A-1 and she is faithful, and has the Right Method and is willing to use it for success, Place of business, 1427 Tremont.

If you really desire real progress in piano playing, get Mrs. Adelaide Wolcott's teaching for yourself or for your children. Remember, music is in you and of you, and must be evolved, brought out of you, and Mrs. Wolcott knows the HOW to bring your music out, and the HOW to execute after it is brought out. Her prices are reasonable. Information at 1438 Tremont Place.

Leon A. Freeman, of 27 West 10th Ave., Denver, is owner of one of the greatest labor-saving conveniences out, as a patented article. It is a clock device for turning on and off the lights, electric, at fixed hours, and will do its work perfectly. Can be set for any given time for turning on the light, and, at the same time, is the same clock set for the switching off of the light, thus saving all over-time and nuisance of a man running all over the city to attend to these important matters. Here is an INVESTMENT opportunity, as Mr. Freeman cannot place it himself. The Keystone Law & Patent Co. of Philadelphia has the matter in charge for sale.

I have a secret, 'tis so good and pure,
The whole of humanity may guess it now;
It heals, it raises the fallen, the poor,
And blesses wherever it goes, somehow;
'Tis that of the Christ, the Spirit Power
Of All Good, the Father's gift of Love.
It fails me not in the hour of need,
It illumines the way with light from above;
It is light of wisdom, and power to read,
Human Souls, God's Mystic Symbols to unfold.

All who do not belong to this or that form of belief are doomed to hell, is the first principle in the assurance of hell for those so teaching; no Church that ever was formed has a monopoly on heaven or hell either; the Individual Members of this earth family are the factors who make for themselves heaven or hell, as the case may be. There is no Mother Church nor Father Church lest it be as the great Oversoul indwelt of the Spirit of the Father as made manifest by the Christ, after which, alone, men in congregations or church societies may pattern. Churches are essential to progress and Spiritual Teaching, but as such their monopoly of religion as Spirituality ceases. Man must save himself in the final test; he is the architect of his own character; he must receive personally and individually of the Spirit and know and experience, all else is to fail of final salvation.

THREE ADVANTAGES OF MAGAZINE ADVERTISING

1. ITS PERMANENCY

The life of a magazine advertisement is long. It remains effective for many months, often for years. A magazine is read, passed on, reread, goes to hospitals, to the army, navy-abroad, and is at last put on sale in the secondhand book stores, and begins a new life. No other form of advertising has this longevity.

2. ITS PUBLIC.

The magazine reading public is the live, up-to-date, busy, enterprising, inquisitive public. The magazine is the business man's and the housewife's literature. It is the recreation of the leisure hour, and the mirror of the world's events when these have been sifted from the chaff of rumor and mistake. Magazines are cheap enough to reach all intelligent readers, good enough to command their attention. The magazine public is the material upon which to build permanent advertising results.

3. ITS COMPANY

The great magazine advertisers are the prominent successes of the business world. To be associated with them in the public mind is to secure the very best publicity—to enter the aristocracy of advertising.
