RESPONSIVE CHORDS.

Never stay in a rut.

If your hands are tied by associates,
drop into new associations.

There is nothing that downs the man that won't be downed but death.

There is nothing new nor nothing old
In blest realms of Light, we're told.

Wisdom's light shines for each and all; none need bereft themselves of its priceless good.

It's not charity when to help others you destroy yourself; because eventually you destroy all concerned.

While faith will bring Spirit to reveal the next state of existence, time alone permits wisdom to become knowledge.

Put spirit in every thought or act or deed of life and you will find growth a certainty, as well as success a sure attendant upon your work.

“Without love I am as sounding brass and tinkling cymbals”; without love I have no hope, no faith, and without these last two virtues I have no enthusiasm—the mother of effort, and, hence, must fail of high attainment.

Be not ashamed to bear the armour of
The Christ in Spirit and in Truth.

Goad a rattlesnake too long and upon himself he'll turn the venom of his will; goad fanaticism long enough and self methods are sure to kill.

Please do not forget that Spiritism is not Spiritualism or higher truth; remember Mystic is not Mysticism run into a rut for dollars and cents.

A copartnership which is so formed that none of the parties thereto can be of avail to themselves or each other, is a ship without means of propulsion.

It takes money and modern appliances, with push, energy, vim and brains, backed with optimism, to make modern business or professional life a success.

Over the waste and losses of days that have past away, how useless the pining and fretting and brain-racking worry and despond we only too often permit.

We should be free to say that we know; we should hold no duty well performed till we do know, and knowing, do as we know the truth would have us do.

If you want good luck, school with those who preach, advocate, act out and inspire as well as make a profession of good luck principles; there is power in every spoken, written or published word of such a human magnet.

"When the curtains of night are pinned back by a star," 'tis then the acts in the tragedy of life are reviewed and man's history writ as upon the tablet of the soul.

Be not like an ox in expectancy; but having the content, ease and sturdy willingness of the ox, add aspiration, vim, expectancy of the better and push ahead; it will pay you.

"Ring out the old, ring in the new",
For the world is waiting for the best;
Bring in the new, gracious consciousness;
Pass out the old hindering boyishness.

An ounce of inspiration thrown in with some good will and a patient and continuous endeavor to do about as we would we should be done by, is a fair starter for after good results:

Some time we'll know the reason why
The world misunderstands, passes by The Light of Truth and clingeth to
The Darker shadows, and wills to do
All that binds and ties th' nobler self.

Have but one concept, and that the good of all in the All Good, and bend all your mind, soul and body to the work required to maintain this concept, and you ARE POWER of The One Eternal Spirit, Soul and Mind.

In the midst of darkest gloom stand Erect;

In the hour of sickness be best of cheer;
In the throws of poverty rise in sheer hope;

No innings ever come by despairing thought.

We used to kneel and pray and pray and kneel; beg and draw out our face until it looked like a fence rail; but we starved to death; failed: lost two fortunes; was a decidedly back number everywhere; we changed and we are now able to do and to dare and to win.

If you are feeling ill, do not add strength to ill by permitting yourself to subside; turn the ill feeling into power by transmuting its energy; persevere in that which is the opposite of the ill; strive to rise up and out of it; do not wilt the first ill wind that strikes you.

If the world of men and women but knew the Spirit when He speaks within the Immortal Self; if all were willing to wait and know as of the Spirit Divine, how few misfits and mismates would mark the union of hearts and minds, because of the rightful knowing as of the Soul.

It is not good for man to go it alone; neither is it best for woman to despise the home; we have but, in part, a completed soul till the otherness shall make the whole in positive and negative polarity, the opposites, essential to vital unity in the thread of life, love and continuity.

If your present world of opportunity is cramped and too limited, get down into the Soul of you and create a new ideal world; throw it out before the Objective Mind's Eye; study it over and then claim it and enter into possession thereof; this is the only royal road to actualized success.

The best Christian we ever met was in a dive on Market Street, Denver; one of the girls had lost her baby by death; she had no money; this woman grabbed a hat; went through Con Keller's joint; returned to us in five minutes with twentieth-eight dollars. That was The Spirit of Christ manifest in Truth.

You have Divine Gifts, they are not yours, hence, you should give all the benefits free of any charges; beautiful philosophy hatched in some fool cranium not big enough to house a small sized mosquito; yes we have the Gifts and we have spent a life time to get into earning shape; we expect our recompense; we earn it and we get it.

"Go where you will, by land or by sea, I'll share all your sorrows and cares," may express the passionate infatuation of the heart; but go where you will the wide world over, I'll heal your worries, sickness and ills by Spiritualizing your Consciousness, as of my good, positive love vibrations; casting out your sorrows and cares, is of the Soul.

You cannot wholly amalgamate different races or different national customs; homogeneity requires tact and common sense management, and none can do well where discords, unnecessary to success to all, are permitted. We do no race or nationality injustice where love rules, in spirit and in truth, for the proper recognition of impassable barriers.

We are the rector of an organization, the Mystic Church of Christ, but we are not thereby wrapped in a "Holier than Thou" Cloak, unapproachable and impossible of conversation with any and all of God's little ones who may cast their lot upon the earth plain; all may find us, see us, hear us; be welcome to come and be one with us, regardless of station or place.

Creative thought lies deeper than the Objective; art is never a copy of the exterior; true expression in art, literature, music, healing or any other of the higher professional vocations, is now absolutely and necessarily of the Creative, the Soul Mind; all else is but imitation and will no longer attract attention. The Superman is here and the realm of the Soul is now upon us, while the Subconscious, as illumined of the Spirit, is a fact.

When I am strongest, 'tis often when it seemeth I am weakest; when I am just at the verge of despondency, 'tis, often then, that my real strength appears, as it were a ransom for myself. What to me seemeth weakness often my greater opportunity proves; to be weak is often to be strong; who can know the resourcefulness of the Almighty Spirit when once He has become the Master Light of Wisdom within the Soul.

We find that physical man unfolds, develops and fulfills in periods of eight years; yet people expect when once thoroughly sick to heal in a month. Once your system is thoroughly worn down and out of order it's good mechanical sense or logic to stop and overhaul and thoroughly repair the machine, in health matters; Spirit will repair, but a new character of health must be instilled ere any personal expression of form is whole.

We have written in the shadows, amidst the encircling gloom, but illumined of that Spirit which is the light upon the way; we have sauntered in fields anything but green and refreshing, yet ever held up by that Mystic Love of The Almighty One who knoweth well the intent of the inner man; we trust thus have we experienced much that our words may the better bring to bear healing, uplifting cheer to all who read our monthly efforts.

Hide not your virtues; those of the higher and better self; be not deceived into narrow paths of selfish attributes turned into mistaken self, physical destructive energy; listen a little more to truth's silent appeals and, somewhat less, to some conceited moralist's self-made code of righteousness. Health is the goal of every true philosophy, and health is always the test of righteous obedience to nature's laws.

Did you see it; did you read it; did you pass it on; we mean that magnificent issue, "The Golden Jubilee Number of The Rocky Mountain News"; a hundred pages, fairly alive with thrilling, awakening good news for all its readers; of course this editor feels somewhat proud that a column and a half was devoted to himself, therein, and we can scarcely thank our great big brother for the timely notice thus given to ourselves and our worthy work.

How on earth do you expect to hold your position when you are an eternal "Oh my, how poorly I feel; I am so tired and weary I can scarcely drag myself about?" Brace up; no employer will pity or long endure a whining, sniffling dispositioned employe. If not well, stay at home rather than risk dismissal through listless and whining ways. Grumblers and whiners are long since back numbers. "Laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone."

If I am willing to dwell forever in a hut, my attitude will cause all my genius and creative mind and spirit to construct everything in measurement, suitable to the mere hut environmental conditions; 'tis better far to live and fail to reach it with a mansion as my constant concept; this at least helps to enlarge and broaden my view point and mental capacity or range, as well as evolve creative thought; it, too, builds hope or expands expectancy; to expect the best is a good way to obtain the best.

When we send this little monthly visit or forth we do so with a week's earnest forepreparation for Right Vibrations and fullest and completest Spiritual and Occult Energy, for the good of all to whom it may go; nay more, we consecrate it to the success, health and wealth-giving powers for every house or family it may enter. Watch its effects and you will need no further argument in its behalf. A dollar a year for twelve success, health and wealth visitations is surely cheap enough.

Always permit reason to survey anything that comes up from a soul or spiritual source; the soul and spirit, universal, operating through mind, will produce thousands of ideals, as concepts, images or symbolical manifestations; but reason must select and determine their usefulness; a well-trained Objective Mind is essential to soul greatness. We can produce the riches of all the world for our listeners and followers, but unless they have brains and wills and reason, we cast our pearls before swine.

'Tis said the profession of a physician is becoming one of the poorest of money professions, because doctors are being ground out at a rate that far exceeds the demand. Civil engineers, electricians, mechanics of the higher capacity, are the best paid, because the supply of the capable in these lines is very limited; it takes work and brains to be one of the best in these latter honorable vocations. The trouble is, men are afraid of work and try to fit themselves for an easy way to coin money. Does this really pay?

Stick to a good thing until you are able to grasp a better one; do not worry over what is your next step; go into the silent precincts of your own chamber; there enter into meditation; trust the soul of you; invite its light of wisdom to divulge the concept of future undertakings; you may be surprised some day at the diligence of the soul in the grand, good concept it finally thrusts before your Objective Mind; this is what is termed the creative process, and is the only safe road to true worth and actual attainment.

Let nothing evil, on Time's immortal page

Remain as an after blot, for the light Of Spirit, in searching power, to assuage.

Clear thy Soul, now that thy Temple of Light

In other spheres may reflect jasper walls

Of love's blessed whiteness, in Truth.

A mansion fair, eternal light, sacred halls

Illumined of God, the One in all, forsooth.

Laugh and sneer as you will, Soul greatness is now the only true greatness;

materialism is a back number; we may be a little ahead of our age; but we are in the swim; it may pay you to read our magazine and get onto the band wagon, now. Success, health and wealth goes with the New Revelation; we are it—somewhat so, at least.

If in your yard, or by mail, should come

This little Soul-arousing messenger,
Just treat it kindly, make it welcome.
Blessings often come in peculiar garb,
Dressed, mayhap, in magazine's array;
Happiness and sunshine, success,
health

And Wealth, to those who throw not away

Spirit's inspiration, Mystic aspiration.
It may inform you of the Magic Art
Divine,

Wherein ills transmuted into good, and Poverty transformed, become ready Gold.

We have no weapon but truth, as revealed by The Holy Ghost; no knowing but as of the Soul; no power but as given of the Christ Nature; but beware if once it's permitted to enter creative shape in suggestion; something will transpire; for we have "the faith of more than a grain of mustard seed," and we know, and knowing, act and possess. We are genuine altruists.

We know not any religion but that of God and Him manifest, here and now, as of His Spirit, Word and Will, as our Spirit, Word and Will; that's our power, and besides this, we have none and claim none.

Never begrudge a successful man his hard earned and far reaching income; you can never know the immensity of his application; the hours, days and months, even years he has busied himself evolving the plans and ideals, ere work and constant application and deprivation has brought his well earned wages. Envy is the goddess of destruction. Never begrudge the price asked by the gifted;

they have waited years to be able to be real worth and value to themselves and mankind; they are worth or they could not claim a price as recompense; nothing is cheap that is worthless, neither is anything dear that gives value received.

Some people love art and music; but are only secondary geniuses therein, or else are unwilling to devote ten or twenty years in unfolding their latent Soul Gifts; success is impossible to any but the best, most truly developed, and those willing to wait, labor, practice and evolve, especially in the Artistic, Classical and Musical vocations. I would rather be a good plowman or good house wife with plenty than a starving nonentity as a half-evolved Soul Expression. Art and music is of the Soul and must be evolved as per Soul Development or Spiritual Process; do not forget this and it may save your after chagrin and failure.

When the curtain rises, the scenery fair Brings all you are before the sitters there.

Stage set to meet your designs and plans,
Play, brother, play your best, the hands
Correctly managed, the features aglow
With power and might, you are the show.

The band may serve its end and blow,
The lights do their part, all aglow;
The listeners, the critics are what They may become, in you is the thought:

In you are themselves created o'er, Oh,
But after all is said, you are the show.

Don't jump at conclusions; rally your mental self and con over all things; do not measure all things by your own habitual mental lineup; there are a billion and a half of Objective Minds in this sphere; perhaps no two know all the truth, and no two express or think, even on the same subject alike; all are not right, neither can all be entirely correct; yet the other fellow's thought lines may aid you to disentangle your own web of erroneous conclusions. A charitable attitude of listening is the wise man's greatest attainment; it is the road to wisdom and power; the fool condemns the other fellow's view point and oftener dies as he has lived—still a fool.

To enter a new estate without apparent change;

To alter ties, break some, enter others pure,

Without breaking a mortal law, to exchange

Position, in name, with no reflection impure

May appear a strange revelation to human ear.

"All is one in the sum of things," so 'tis said;

All is aspiration that creative, doth appear,

In mighty love and truth, as of God, the Head.

The recent terrible storms that passed through the central states and on the Gulf explains why, for the past eight months, in our Circles we have begged people not to travel through those sections from April 17 to June 7, and the same centering around August 19 in the neighborhood of which date, we fear, one of the greatest calamities of history; we have a map of North and South America, and its marked eras for disaster are proving absolutely correct in each and every detail. It looks like earthquake districts; yet, as we formerly have said, in an editorial, prophecy cannot name the exact nature, always, of earth's terrific disturbances, while the event comes just the same.

A cow is a good animal for the milker, but a mighty poor example for people to copy after in general; yet we have many cows in the human family; always furnishing milk for the other fellow, but seldom realizing anything but a beating for recompense; love is fine when rightly understood and put into operation, per the law of mutual exchange, but otherwise it is rather a lop-sided proposition. We may give in to be milked by some of our good friends, but we expect pay for the milk; do not feel hurt, then, if you in milking us, and forgetting to recompense us, find us a kicking brute, who may land you out over the front yard fence, milk, bucket and all, the worse for the misuse of well intended good.

Think of bank reserves increasing from fifty-eight million to nearly seventy million dollars, in Denver, alone, in less than eight months, and then cease to wonder what ails business and what causes lack of ready money; it's a very BAD OMEN and must be turned about face; money is the medium of exchange, not the medium of hoarding to the SOUL'S FINAL LOSS. Every man or woman who keeps a great hoarded sum of money out of circulation is guilty of wrong to self and fellow being. There is absolutely no sense in the present frightful cry of insufficiency of money; yet we hear it on everyone's lips, and worse still, it's not improving. Let THAT MONEY LOOSE; IT MUST COME OUT AND BE UTILIZABLE.

We have time and time again begged people to buy Denver real estate, but you couldn't club them into their own prosperity; Denver real estate has in some cases added 25, others 50, and even doubled per cent. since we began; the whole thing is, people will not act; they are filled with fear; they won't trust self, neither any one with fore knowing or even good business understanding and insight; opportunity waits at more doors than is dreamed of; but while fighting imaginary, or other ills, people lose their own chance and then blame anybody but self; it's the survival of the fittest from the God-Head down, and all nature and creation substantiates it; we begrudge no man his own, and none but fools waste time in begrudging and envying.

We care not for any man's modes or ways, so long as they are in accord with the law of right endeavor and uphold the mighty fabric of the State for the good of ALL and EACH of its constituent parts or units. We believe in centralized power; we desire right instead of force and might of a false revealment; we SHALL yet GAIN IT. The servant will act out the plans, spiritual schemes of his master; we so judge, then, the acts and doings of all in authority; the motive tells or reveals the power behind the throne, also, the whyness of any movement or act. Blame not the servants of the people; place blame where it belongs, and get right down into the cause, and there begin the cleaning up process; that is our method, and it is Truth's method.

A vocation that is selected because it promises a fine office, much money and fine clothes and easy work, is usually fitted to a person absolutely incapacitated to fulfill its requirements; the man who is unwilling to do what his faculty endowment makes him, regardless of where it places him, is usually a failure; first find your faculty talents, your natural self and genius, and then study to attain the highest and best in that calling to which you are naturally called, and you will do less whining and have less sickness, worry and failure as an after conclusion; there is no failure possible to the man who knows himself and applies himself in line with his own talents or genius. All life's failures are merely mistakes, errors, and the result of misunderstanding the real self; study thine own self if thou wouldst have success, health and wealth.

A bright, active looking young man was approached by one of our enthusiasts with the May issue of our magazine as a sample copy; he took it; saw the name; handed it back with the remark, "I am a Christian. I can't read such stuff as that." Since then we have been asking ourselves what is the meaning of the term, "I am a Christian." If it is what the above referred to young man thinks it is, well we don't want to be classed with the type. We read Tom Paine, Robert G. Ingersoll and Gibben and Hume, not because we agreed with their agnosticism, but because we desired to polish up our wits a little, and having an understanding of the wisest of the sayings on the other side of religious matters, be enabled to state with reasonable clarity and breadth of mind, along with intelligence, our own side of the matter. Who fears to read the opposite side is already damned; because fear is never Godliness, nor God love.

The most recent great COMBINE is that of seventeen million Protestant church members. What has brought about this combine? All the music and hymnals are already TRUST matters; the Bible Societies have a TRUST on the so-called Word of God, just as if our Bible alone contained ALL of God's Creative Word; from present indications, our Vision, as given in the article in this issue, under the title of "The Aquarian Age," is most certainly a prophecy. Why not the thirty million New Thought and Altruistic hosts form a gigantic combine; maybe it will be necessary yet, in order to protect ourselves against the LETTER of THE WORD run wild with the SPIRIT left to those who ARE of awakened Soul Consciousness.

We have no objection to religious combinations, provided the Spirit of Christ be the object; but we feel that is NOT the REAL IDEAL.

This is a commercial age and people must have bread and butter as well as Spiritual food; common sense tells us that we must accept humanity as it is, until humanity, by Spirit of love is quickened of the Soul, into better understanding of its own best good; you cannot beat, pound, or legislate people into Soul unfoldment; neither can you transmute evil into good by hate, the god of evil, and hate is the whole trouble at the bottom of all recent church moves, towards overcoming so-called evil; without evil there could be no understanding of good, and the Church would cease to be of further use. Church ethics and city government ethics can NEVER meet on any equal basis of operation; the Church ethics would make a desert of this city of Denver in less than ten years.

Neither can city ethics take the place of Church ethics; the two are separate factors, and both absolutely essential to human progress.

Yes, dear friend, whenever you get the food with exactly the rightly proportioned chemical elements to keep health, and you get environmental conditions, of house and sleeping apartment, exactly, correctly adjusted to bodily needs, and, then, get the mental organism and nervous and functional system perfectly in working order in the smallest details, everything working in harmony to a nicety; when you understand and apply all the principles of creative inbreathing and outbreathing so as to establish a lasting equilibrium between the within and the without; yes, then, you will need no healing or physician; but until then it's a fool's nonsense that keeps you digging away to save money, while the springs of your delicate, vibrating being are wearing out. For ourselves we prefer to chance things as they are here, for awhile, ere stepping off into something experience and age alone may make more clear, as to its environing futurity. The Soul knows, but experience will strengthen faith.

Remember the real ideal of all Spiritual communication is to forewarn, and thus forearm earth's children; when some one reveals for you a possible passing out of a loved one, or even of yourself, go home; rise at once into that state of prayerful meditation which shall bring you into rapport with the

ALL Spirit; do this daily and EXPECT THE SPIRIT OF LIFE TO PREVAIL OVER ALL THAT ITS OPPOSITE IMPLIES. We have known hundreds of such cases to be totally overcome, and a great calamity in each case to be avoided. There is no work in this world can do so much for humanity as Psychic and Spiritual advisory understanding, or foreseeing of events; but we must transmute the evil into our good and accept the good with faith and assurance to get completest benefits; never despair over any message, Spiritual or otherwise; so long as you move and breathe you are a beneficiary of the All Spirit, in the All Good, and may claim your heritage of abundance of LIFE.

The slaughter of Christians in Turkey is nothing but a true example of what any denominational religious combine would do under similar circumstances and like opportunity of power, almost supreme, in any given government or community; you can trust no set of religionists, anywhere, with too much numerical or State strength; it is said the Mohammedan followers are the youngest, most cheerful featured, happiest, most content, and at the same time, most faithful religionists on earth; there must be something, then, of a redeeming nature in their religion, for features, health and content is real expectancy of any good spiritual doctrine or creed; without these, religion is a failure; nothing so belies Christianity as the worn, worried, sickly looking faces and half-starved bodies representative of its membership. Christ was a Divine Master Healer; he brought Spirit into active health, beauty and life-growth expressiveness; his followers were healed and fed, not starved, worried, bled and made sick.

We judge a religion by the looks of its followers; we judge nature by the manifestation we behold; we judge God by the action of His Spirit.

EDITORIAL.

From Golden Jubilee Number The Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Colo., April 23, 1909.

PROF. FRANK D. HINES,

Offices 1438 Tremont Place.

Frank D. Hines, born October 21, 1862, in the old Georgia placer mining district on north fork of Clear Creek, Gilpin County, Colorado.

Father, John J. Hines, moved to Bear Creek, near Evergreen, spring of 1864, where mother died December 2, 1864.

Mother's parents were Hollanders, name Schwartzell.

Father's parents, father Irish descent, an Ohioan; the mother of Pennsylvania Dutch stock, born in Pennsylvania.

Left home at age of 12; entered Denver schools 1876, left East Denver High School at end of second year, June, 1883; health compelling him to leave school, spent two years in the woods as log contractor.

Served as County Assessor of Jefferson County 1888 and 1889, being a Wolcotite; split in party drove him out of politics, after a service of ten years; was editor of the Globe at Golden, Colo., during Harrison campaign, 1888, and stumped his county for his party. Served in the nineties for six years as Justice of the Peace of his own county; was an authority on tariff and monetary questions, sticking to the gold standard throughout the silver discussion.

Has studied Cooley on Torts; read Blackstone through and through, read the Illinois and Colorado Codes up to year 1897, and is considered well-posted and of natural decision and aptness on all business and criminal law; has been a life-long student of human nature, natural laws and phenomena; has delved in all the Egyptian, Hindu and Christian mythologies, mysteries, theologies, and there is nothing in the best histories of mankind he has not read.

Bulwer's works were his favorite classical novels.

Phrenology, astrology, psychic phenomena, psychology, anthropology, physiognomy for more than twenty years past have interested him, and few have reached a higher understanding, comprehension and application of the principles of divine and natural universal law than has he.

An adept, psychic-sarcologist, anthropologist, psychometer, clairaudient, seer and scientist of the Trinitarian faith, he stands without a peer in healing, advisory and occult work.

Founded and incorporated the Mystic Church of Christ at Denver, November 19, 1904, and has maintained it mostly at his own expense, with services at 1548 California Street, Upper Howe Hall, each Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m.; has made an enviable reputation for excellence of his lecture course therein; has married many couples and performed many funeral services within this organization.

In May, 1905, he organized and incorporated the Occidental Temple of Metaphysics, Philosophy, Psychic Research and Revelation Society, with a capital stock of $10,000. This is his greatest and most promising undertaking, and is growing rapidly as a success, health and wealth encouraging brotherhood and co-operative, ethical, educational and occult and healing institution. These two organizations accept the God-head as of the Christian revelation as the one supreme power indwelling all and consequential in and to and for all.

In October, 1907, he began the publication of the most practical and at the same time successful of magazines, THE OCCIDENTAL MYSTIC AND OCCULT, published monthly, and now encircling the globe, and admitted the most powerful of occult magazines published. The lessons on Soul development and unfoldment of the subconscious, as given in this magazine, have brought the highest comment from some of the most noted psychologists, metaphysicians and occults. They stand the test and absolutely undo old methods of evolving the genius of the real man.

The great contention of this man is that death in nine out of every dozen cases results from ignorance and carelessness, or overdosing. He has been amazed at the absolute inability of the medical profession to understand the temperaments, the cause, instead of the effects, and the wanton indifference to anything above the mere monetary end of the healing profession. He contends that but here and there is a born physician, and one who loves his art, instead of the money his profession may bring to his coffers. Professor Hines diagnoses disease, as every physician should, per prevision, psychometry, and the still little voice of the soul, clair-audience, and has never yet been proved wrong, whether the case be present or 10,000 miles away.

Find the cause and healing is easy, he says, and he does not oppose materia medica, but is an eternal enemy of doctor and drug trusts; he has repeatedly lectured and written for publication in his magazine against all kinds of grafts, whether public or private, and made a reputation on a poem published some time ago in his own publication against the long-practiced crime of undertakers paying commissions for human bodies which has been known to him for many years as a regular practice. His recent stand against the gun man has created a tremendous demand for his magazine, showing that even some of the American people are against cold-blooded murder, even though our jury system is making man-killing a popular diversion and our laws a complete farce. He says he has taken up magazine work because he proposes to clean up hypocricies of all kinds, whether of city, county, state, church, lodge or other institutional concerns, and his magazine now encircles the entire globe and is read by some quarter million of enthusiastic followers. He has met and advised and conversed with more than 100,000 good people during the past eight years in his present vocation, and his society members, readers of his publications and patients, as well as his corresponding clientele are in every land; the sun never sets upon his work; his head offices in Denver are like a great central magic orb or hub of concentrated and concentrated spiritual power, from which emanate constant vibrations of healing and occult energy.

Stern to severity, naturally high nerved, forcible and impatient of temperament, upon first meeting you he gradually unfolds to warmth and magic power and sympathy in nature as he delves into your very soul and dragging your dormant genius from its hidden recesses, triumphantly amazes you with a full, complete, masterful revealment of your own higher self and interpretation of your noblest and truest soul qualities; he believes and teaches that the soul knows, but the Holy Spirit illumines and reveals the soul's knowing, and thus the attributes of divinity are expressed in and through the real man, the superman, and thus man partakes "of that unction which is of the creative love power of the Father, the manifesting divine healing power of the Christ and the quickening power of the Holy Spirit." That I will to be I shall be, in truth, by becoming the willed word made flesh, and "when He the Comforter shall come, even the Spirit of Truth, all things shall be revealed," as of the subconscious, and all things shall be known in the true spiritual light of wisdom.

Christian mystic, divine healer, Trinitarian occult, none may fear to see and converse, or go to hear this man speak or lecture.

His name is made, his revealment is known, his eight years in Denver business and professional circles are clean and without a single flaw.

He does not advocate nor accept spiritism, fortune-telling nor any revealment lesser than that of the Holy Ghost, the only revealing Spirit.

Magnetic, intuitional, prophetic and gifted of insight, prescience and psychometry and prevision, his business is one of the largest and best paying in the West, and that, too, at absurdly low rates for gifted services. "Live and let live," help that you may be helped, bless that you may be blessed, is his favorite statement.

MEASURE THE HEAD AND KNOW.

Deeper than surface is sham; greater than size of body is Hypocrisy; broader than facial grin is vim of intellect; longer than most faces of sanctimoniousness run to seed, is God's Staff. Never in the history of this dear old world has humankind shown so little front and so broad a rear, as during the past two short, fleeting specks of time, 1908 and 1909. Heads in nine cases out of ten, wearing No. six or five and three-quarter hats, are massing together to run the world of Spiritual, Religious and Ethical affairs; not satisfied with progress, so assinine in its significance, as to cause unlimited humor to burst from millions of wise ones, these two-by-four heads, are assuming to enter the realms of the political. How can you expect Spirit in Soul Qualities without Brain Space, in Faculty Convolutions. No real power can ever be expressed with nothing for active playing ground, over which to traverse; there are finely textured brains, small in measurement, but they have been finely drilled and educated in good horse sense ideals; we find no fault with any man's small measurement of head, unless it gets side-tracked, as most large-eared craniums do, and undertakes to dictate to more generous and fitly equipped brain organisms; big heads are not an invariable indicator of good brain texture; neither do they, necessarily, imply superior gifts; but big heads do, usually, belong to big souls, and therein lies the better opportunity for broadness of view, along with fineness of texture and endowment of faculty to make the greater and superior man. Getting into an ideal that compels a man's brain to become the instrumentality of little, narrow, contracted, pinched-up spiritual, moral, religious and ethical codes, is the curse of these latter-day times. We are growing narrower and more exacting; we are striving to screw a commercial age of tremendous superior scope down into a measure of inferiority of expression, equal to an age of some 20,000 years ago; with laws, discriminating and regulative, so narrow gauged as to make us look like pigmy grafters, in an age of world-wide activity. Pessimism, so dogmatic, as to resemble a fleet of ancient sail boats with crews of paddle rowers, attempting to run amuck a modern commercial crew of ships, is making capital look about in anxious wonderment to see if there isn't a famine in the brain producing resourcefulness of modern men and women. Everything that smacks of development, progress, liberality, expansiveness, is being hampered by fiddlestick enactments of a nature so inferior to school-boy tactics, as to produce a fear among common-sense men, of an epidemic of restrictive insanity in law makers, of such a serious nature as to call for Alienists, by the millions, to discover the microbe that disaster to public good may be headed off. Kansas used to be looked upon as the incubator for every crazy fad and restrictive measure, hurtful and damaging, the United States at least might be afflicted with; but Kansas, after nine days, got her eyes open; yet the distemper spreads; it's left the political and economic, and branched off into the ethical and religious, and bids fair to stop railroads, Sunday newspaper publications, or even buying or reading thereof; make Sunday theatres, baseball games, in fact, anything that adds vim, life, pleasure, content, restfulness and health to over-tired toilers and workers, a criminal matter; laws closing down, shutting off everything and anything outside the pale of fixed, manipulated and compulsory pathways. The calibre of heads abroad, or else the texture of brain rampant, seems, absolutely, on the rise as to narrow, contracted theory and ideal; while the Spirit of the All Good, which MEANS HEALTH

BEFORE ALL ELSE, and MEANS TO GAIN HEALTH BEFORE ALL ELSE, the Spirit of All Light and Righteousness in Consciousness, Universal, as expressive of SOUL QUALITY, is everlastingly minus or totally lacking. God spoke the WORD; He WILLED IT into freedom of manifestation; He let go of it; it became what IS; He hampered nothing by anything defeating the Spirit of Growth, development, unfoldment and fulfillment of ITS purpose; Nature best manifests His Will as Free Will, the Concept of a Mighty Head, capable and capacitated to permit the evolution and unfoldment of ALL THAT IS, man included; His Spirit reveals the ideal as it should be copied, and not as IT might be hampered. Something is wrong; measure up heads, perhaps it might pay; quality is lacking; Soul is minus; Spirit is Nil.

What the world needs is more Good, Live Spirit; more vim in right endeavor; more life in brain of a character evolutionary, progressive and uplifting in its nature; big heads or little heads with faculty endowment able to express the innate and live and permit others to live; a horse or a boy, or anything else without Spirit, is useless to themselves and most anybody else. To limit is to harrass, and to harrass is to cramp, and to cramp is finally to undo and so on till death ensues. A good animal is essentially necessary for good soul; and also essential to good spirit in any successful endeavor; clean up the liver and polish up the brain, while letting loose a little Spirit of Life, as well as death breeding inspiration, and TIMES will become GOOD, instead of remaining BAD. The Olympian games need not be recalled, but suitable rejuvenating sports need not be shut out; all men are not constituted to enjoy or even think, drink or eat alike; measure up your heads and broaden out somewhat; so saith the Great Spirit, which is the Truth that sets free and makes for Thrift, Goodness and Health.

To bear the armour of The Christ does not condemn you to remain aloof from the publicans, nor does it imply a long face and do-as-I-do demeanor; it means to live and mind your own affairs, that you, setting a good example, may teach others to mind their own business and thrive best by attending well to their own, ere presuming to run another's affairs; The Great Divine Spirit makes no one a long nosed rooter into other people's modes of making ends meet; He teaches and instructs each one in the way and the how, to BE what others SHOULD BE, and thus, we are made instruments for the uplift of humanity, through BEING what is best for HUMANITY TO BE; this is the ALL of THE DIVINE SPIRIT'S REVEALMENT; too many people are wasting time and substance trying to compel others to BE as they teach, and, too often, as they, themselves, would not BE. Put the shoe on the other foot, and heavens, its awful oppression! it's schism; it's the devil's work; poor fools learn the Spirit's way, and then proceed in the Spirit and you WILL BE what you are not now, and WILL DO as the Spirit sayeth; MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS FIRST and BECOME SOMETHING that you would your brother man should BE.

Silent forces are ever at work about us, in us and for us if we but permit them to do so; millions of silent, merciful, gentle intelligences inhabit our daily sphere of action; no mortal being need be alone at any time unless he so chooses; but we can refuse to listen, accept or believe, and also choose none but the forces of ignorance as best suits us; man is a free will agent and has the choice of companionship, whether of mortal forms or of Spirits, intelligences and energies that inhabit the atmosphere of environment, as silent helps or undoers. Man be master of thine own realm as to what shall be thy helpmates, and as thou chooseth within thine self, so shall it be with thee for good or for ill.

HEALING DEPARTMENT.

Still we expand and grow in our usefulness to fellow being; the Divine Gifts inhibiting us from greater or lesser work than the Healing Art seems now a blessing of such tremendous scope as to become in others that Light, Health and Uplift which reveals the way of Nature.

People from near and far are finding our way and process the one that pays the greatest dividend on the least investment. God bless our faithful clientele in Success, Health and Wealth.

When in very soul, spirit and actualized Consciousness I am the I am required in him who lacks in that which I am, then I am, per the Universal Law of exchange, becoming worth in others that shall return their worth, in their mode of giving to me; thus are we all and each Opulence, each to each, in Universal Conscious expression of The All Good.

If I am Health Success, Wealth Consciousness, and know the Law, I can become what I am in those appealing to me for Health, Success and Wealth Consciousness; in no other way can I Heal, Uplift and Aid my fellow man, as a True Psychic, or Divine Healer, or Occult.

From out the darkness light is breaking

From out time's abuses the new age rises;

From past afflictions mankind is taking

On new conditions, while earth devises

Modes akin to Nature's unfolding ways.

Quicken thou me mighty Spirit of Love,

Infill Thou me with Life Divine;

Teach Thou me Truth to set free, as from above,

Myself, and others, in Consciousness
Divine.

To see, to feel, to know, and then become what I will to be in Self and then, in Consciousness of Love, Truth and Life to become in others the same, is to BE in TRUTH of the Psychic Process in Healing and Occult Art.

To be a successful man in a profession is to love with mind, heart and soul
the practice and art of your profession; to love the work, so much so, as to become, in actual practice, what the Consciousness of the work requires. Dollars and cents you must have to carry on your professional undertakings; but work for perfection in attainment first and then dollars and cents will not trouble you;
thus only can you attain to magic, worth and power, especially, in the Mystic, Psychic or Occult.

Those who read the Jubilee Number of The Rocky Mountain News, issued at Denver on April 23d, as in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of that enterprising daily, will need no better introduction or recommend to our work, method and process.

Be good because it pays to be good;
seek the truth because it sets you free;
rise in attainment because it unfolds your physical self unto perfection, in health, beauty and strength; copy Nature more, as in manifold growing, unfolding and expanding life it reveals the riddle of Love in continuous process.
Nature makes manifest God in growing, unfolding, developing and evolving process; as with Nature so with man; there is but One Life Principle, the same in all Creation; man is no exception to the rule of the One Life in continuous effort to express. Nature accepts the One Life as in completest supply, and thrives, unfolds and develops, in growth process, from the within, of itself outward; man is no exception to this same revelment, if he but understands, accepts, obeys and permits the Life Principle to act unimpeded and unhindered; this is true Psychic Process in actual practice. Health is thus a duty, and its process natural.

True, it takes attainment of soul, wisdom's Light as of Spirit and Illumined Knowledge along with constant study and experience to be an Adept in Nature's Process as a Life-giving and Healing Method; the manipulation and application of the hidden forces as Divine Energies requires so much as to make it man's duty to apply himself assiduously to that alone, or with lines adaptable to it, for real success. Yet all may apply themselves unto the attainment of these things for self help and unfoldment; none should neglect Higher Knowledge; all should strive to become the greater and better Nature. Growth is the law of all true process.

We can transmute all evil into power for good; we cannot pound evil down and out of any thing or any body; the soul must receive, by understanding how of Divine Spirit, the quickening power, ere man can evolve Spiritual Strength; a method void of this process permits no soul to become of "The New Creature," for health or any other degree of perfection, in being; Consciousness must be Spiritualized ere it becomes realization of any process of uplift or salvation, either as to soul or any other condition favorable to Higher Attainment; Christianity the oftener places the horse behind the cart than in right position; no man ever can rise by pounding down or belittling himself or his selfhood.

To save is always to heal; to uplift is to unfold; to spiritualize is to quicken; this is true Christianity as taught and handed down by the Christ. Law is ineffectual without Spirit to quicken ere law becomes applicable; the law of Life is of no avail to dead things.

The spirits of Light are the spirits of Characters made perfect, per Psychic Healing Process; there can be no other road to soul continuity as of quickened and awakened Consciousness; void of Spirit no soul ever can express as a spirit of Light; all else is to remain earth-bound, not of the healed until Spirit Divine has quickened Consciousness. The Psychic is always permitted of the Spirit to first arouse the soul; without so doing Healing work is of poor avail; this is the whole secret of true revelation in the Mystic and Occult way of bringing into fullest and completest exercise the Gifts of Higher Power. To come in contact with the true Psychic is often to but energize your own superior selfhood and thus, through his Love for humankind, to set in motion your own soul energies. Thus is it that the lectures of gifted Psychics become such tremendous spurs to luck, success, health and after attainment in the more magnetic Nature.

Good Circles prove the same beneficial law at work as Spiritual Consciousness operative for the healing and uplift of all attendants. This accounts for lecture courses and circles conducted by a Psychic proving so much more beneficial than many church services; the Spirit in active expression is the Real Power that does the splendid work, and through faith of the speaker and worker brings to pass the mighty good.

Spirit is catching, and Spirit attracts spirits or intelligences of Light and Power; these bring to bear the law of Love and Success, Health and Wealth Vibrations become features, expressive to each and all alike, making up the assembly or congregation. This is the why our followers are so unaccountably progressing and succeeding faster, than many others of the same community of interests.

When you arise in the morning thank God and the Divine Energies of The Spirit that have operated to your health, sleep and rest, as building forces within you, during the night; when you go to your daily meals bless the food by expecting the very best therefrom in good red blood and other chemical elements as builder's material for your body to utilize in its reconstruction or improvement; when you retire at night bless lungs, stomach, heart, liver, kidneys, and all functional organs for their health and strength-giving work of the day; bless your brain and nervous system for the good acquired through their splendid efficacy; think kindly of your entire tabernacle as the shell, the working machine of your own Selfhood; this attitude, alone, encourages every part thereof to work willingly and courageously for its own health, strength and endurance and in harmony for health and strength of the entire physical, or corporeal body; this is thinking, and being, and living in the right attitude of prayerfulness and praise.

Some people treat themselves and their physical organs as some fathers and mothers treat their children; eternally cursing, and finding fault, and whining over them, but never a word of thanks or praise; no wonder they curse back, refuse to act in harmony with mind and thought; a praise and kindly attitude towards all creatures, children, animals and the self, pays in big dividends, for success, health and wealth.

We repeat it again and over and over, do NOT EXPECT PERFECT HEALTH or any other GREAT GOOD to come in a day, a week or a month; everlasting vigilance in anything, on any plane is the price of Liberty. It was for this very reason this editor placed his prices so low; we understood this LAW of GROWTH, and PROCESS of UNFOLDMENT. Stay by your treatment; be a stickler; never quit till you ARE what you are treating to BE; all else is foolish waste of time and money. We have THE GIFTS, you are privileged to partake of their benefits; we CANNOT FORCE YOU INTO YOUR OWN GOOD, and more, WILL NEVER ATTEMPT SUCH SMALL FAKE METHODS; come and come of free will and STICK till HEALED or BLESSED; otherwise we PREFER YOU WOULD SAVE YOUR MONEY TO PAY DOCTOR BILLS SURE TO COME LATER, and of so much greater size than six months or a year with our Method as to shade it into mere nothingness. This editor IS HEALTH, but not yet PERFECTION in fullest VIGOR OF BODY; but he has faithfully worked sixteen hours daily for eight years for others, while during the same time striving to heal himself of old ills; besides he LIVES within THE LAW of self conservation of all his substance and energies. All who have any kind of an organism to build upon MAY BE HEALED, but ALL must stay with it and do so to maturity of Process.

If any Church can escape Fetishism and Sumptuary Law Ideals, working in accordance with its original, underlying principles and watch out for Gifted Revelers and True Psychics to gain their Occult and Healing, "Spirit's Breath," it bids fair to become THE CHURCH of modern times. Solomon was a REVEALER and OCCULT ALSO, A TRUE PSYCHIC and he RULED, almost, the whole world in his day and age.

The MORMON CHURCH IS GROWING AND GAINING TREMENDOUS POWER BECAUSE IT TAKES CARE OF ITS GIFTED REVEALERS AND TRUE PSYCHICS, that is ITS SECRET OF GROWTH AND POWER. This is the UNIVERSAL LAW, and WOE TO HIM WHO CASTS DOWN A TRUE PSYCHIC AS A TRUE SPIRITUAL REVEALER, with the GIFTS of "THE SPIRIT'S BREATH," the very LIFE of any COMMUNITY OF INTERESTS. We have been OFFERED ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR OUR ONE GREAT SECRET OF POWER; but ALL the GOLD of the known WORLD could not buy it of us, provided the BUYER was not WHAT THAT POWER IS; it's not saleable, not purchasable; it's INBREATHED AS OF THE SPIRIT; it IS SPIRIT; it is LIFE, and that's ALL there is to any SECRET possessed by this man; it works in, through and for, and of him for all that is, anywhere or everywhere; "It is Negative to God, His Son and the Holy Ghost, while POSITIVE TO ALL ELSE;" we cannot make it plain-er, except it be the Gift of Revelation.

Lack of faith and understanding has caused countless generations of men to weep and mourn. There is nothing evil but through understanding it, may also be good. The great overflowing waters of the ancient Nile were murky, filthy and death-breeding, but were also the enriching of the soil, necessary to after-feeding of the nation of the Egyptians; the dung from countless barns, in every large city is but filth and disease to city confines, yet transferred to field and farm become transmuted into the very substance that assures abundance in harvest and supply to hosts of beings, both of farm and city districts. It is understanding transmutation, transformation and faith, that alters the evil, transmutes it or transforms it into good. The pesky fly eats up the filth of crevice and dark recesses, while, too, depositing an egg that becomes the maggot, which may destroy healthy meat in pantry or kitchen, yet the purpose underlying this whole matter is the destruction of filth, in that the maggot, even was intended to remove the dead carcasses from earth's surface and thereby relieve atmospheric surroundings of a most deadly peril; we little know the whyness of things, hence we fail through lack of knowledge and understanding to transmute the ill to good. There is not one thing in all creation but has some purpose, in some way or somewhere and the moment the purpose is fulfilled or removed that which was created to fulfill such purpose dies, disintegrates or disappears, or is transformed or transmuted into good to serve a purpose yet incompleated; freshets and floods cleanse the mountain and the plain of rubbish which too long left to decay would fill mankind with the most dangerous of polluting breath, and "the breath is life." So is it with everything; we might go on ad infinitum and then still be short in the measurement of the purpose and the object of things that be; our understanding with faith, alone, prevails to transmute our ills to our Mightiest Good.

I may pray until I am old and gray; I may attend all church services for a life time; I may sing and shout until my life fades away; but until the Spirit of Truth has become a fact of my very Ego, as illumining light of wisdom, and the Soul of me knows the Christ as an indwelling saving grace, as consciousness, I am as nothing, in real Soul attainment or immortal Ego, capacitated to enter the realms of light, love and life; all must be unfolded spiritually, as a consciousness in and of the Soul, itself, ere I am true salvation and fully capacitated to enjoy the falcities of the next higher realms of life; be not deceived; you cannot enjoy until you know and realize; no Ego can go higher than its inner light of understanding permits of realization; so we say there are earth bound Christians, so-called, by the millions, because not yet unfolded, developed or of spiritual illumination or actualized Christ consciousness; there are mighty few who step immediately into a new heaven; because the new heaven is a state in us and of us, ere we can understand enough to enter it; it must enter us first as consciousness in knowing, after which we may enter its environments; environments are just as we in Consciousness are able to create them or know them, as good or evil; heaven is evil to the unillumined of divine spirit; because all such would not be at home in higher realms of eternal spirit, which is light of love and wisdom.

The first road that leads to cheapness and finally to poverty is the desire to obtain bargain or cheap produce; it cheapens the thought powers; it scrimps the ideal; it despoils the Soul of Riches and Creative Prosperity, Creative Thought Power; it unmans and finally makes cheap men and women. "I can and will have the best and can pay for the best," is true manhood and womanhood. This is not extravagance, but is right thought activity.

OUR METHOD.

21ST LESSON—PRINCIPLES AND THE PSYCHOSIS.

I am Love or I am its opposite; there are no two I am's possible; there may be a middle course of something yet nothing, for I am something in positive character, here and now, expressive as myself or else I am nothing as to self expressive qualities. The world loves the man who knows where he stands, and knowing, asserts his knowing in such manner and matter of fact way as to leave no doubt as to his position; in politics the most influential man is the positive, bold, assertive one; the most despised of political pretenders is the man eternally turning his coat; even so is it in all affairs of life; we respect an out-and-out disagreement of opinion far more than that which is so wishy washy as to have no point of view from which to rise into the lime light. My revelation as to Truth may seem absurdly inopportune to my esteemed contemporary of the same school and manifestation of Spiritual Consciousness, yet the fact that I am of something positively known and expressed in a positive manner must place my character above the question of quibbling nothingness and win and even command the respectable attention of such contemporary; it's a very small calibred mind or soul that fails to respect any honorably expressed faith in fixed principles, be they ever so antagonistic to the view point taken or assumed as its own faith or principles. The world is the expression of but two primal revealed forces; the one positive, constructive, evolving, and overcoming and fulfilling an universal growth and unfoldment scheme, the other a Negative, destructive, tearing-down, closing-up, or destroying process; the two must meet on equal footing; no middle course can be the outcome of the Plan and Purpose of Creation; a positive or a negative process must result, ere any force is possible in such a universal comprehension of power; it's the known position taken that permits detection, as well as expressiveness of power, or its character; extremes, as opposites must be, or else, the grand scheme of evolution is not a possibility.

Principles determine phases of discipline; principles determine character; but back of, underlying and indwelling all principles, must be the concept of that for which principles are formulated; back of the concept must be Will as Fiat, in purpose or concept, as purpose symbolized, or imaged and following in the wake, or as the result of Will, must be the Spirit indwelling Light and Life of the Concept as willed, in accordance with underlying principles; after Will and Spirit, as motive power, and Life, and Light of the Concept, must surely follow Love, which instills or creates and sets in motion, the ALL CREATIVE POWER as Working Enthusiasm to promote principles accepted as Truths, in Concept, as Symbol or Image and, thereby, set at work or put in operation an effort; this is a process fully set in motion, under way, towards consummation of purpose; principles must determine of what character shall be the entire process, whether positive or negative, in manifestation and expression, as the operative process; the unifying principle is termed the Psychosis, without which, equilibrium, the hoped for attainment, is impossible. Philosophy has to do with principles, their determination and differentiation and, finally, their application and the conclusive results that may possibly follow; Psychology has to do with Mind and Soul and Spirit and its Process; it further must have to do with the Psychosis, because, it must determine final unifying principle; Science as exact knowledge of principles, things and forms, must have to do with the differentiation, separation into their parts, and dissection, and classification of the Generic and the Genetic; it matters little how we enter the realms of knowing, but it matters much under which set of principles we enter, and with what Spirit we permit our real knowing to become of consequential good, or evil, to ourselves and fellow man; the I am, the Ego, must perceive the Objective, then, per apperception, make the Objective itself or knowledge within itself; it must then, utter itself as knowledge, as of itself, in image or concept, in accordance with fixed principles, positive or negative, constructive or destructive; there is no middle way of utterance of this self as knowledge, the process must express character of one or the other type, good or evil; in either process the Memory and the Will, combined with reason, must compel, too, the faculty of recalling events, stored away in the Subjective, to act for either good or ill; thus and thus only can the I am become what we will it to be, in uttered concept, or image, as a finality. The Concept or Image is what we build to; it is the result of innate conception and propulsion, as an utterance or judgment of the Ego, the I am, and we become objectively as we thus form for our own after building that which is the Concept, Image, or Design; this is the process; there can be none other; we need strive for none other; the soul as the Womb of Creative Spirit, alone, holds what we shall be or become; it is the source from which, knowingly or otherwise, man objective, appropriates the real of character as to what he is in actualized unfoldment; the smaller the possibilities of the Soul to express, the less the power of creative capacity and the less the gift of Wisdom or positive knowledge; some souls are so dead, or pinched, as to express but little, so bound as to be of none avail; while others represent the Soul in its half dormant state capable of creative power, but lacking the spirit of proper illumination, fail in attainment of real expressiveness in power, energy or wisdom; other Souls opening up the twelve gates of entrance, and accepting the guidance, control and illuminating power of the Divine Spirit manifest creative Power and Wisdom in all the beauty and Life and Love of the One Divine Source of Being and are termed, as of the Supersensuous, a masterful fulfillment in Divine Gifts and Power; knowledge is from without, while Wisdom is ever from the within of us, hence, Spirit becomes of tremendous importance as to final completion of the nature or character of man.

The spirit of the Negative operates never, strictly speaking from the within, or the Real Immortal of man, the Soul, yet drawing upon the objective, and per perception followed by apperception, appropriating the gleanings of the negative spirit's work, may become the I am of all that is negative in spirit and proceed to utter the evils thereof; thus we may become the I am of all Evil, destructive, sick, and undoing energies and proceed to make such conditions, our Symbols, Concepts, or Images, and, thereby, become builders to our undoing, as to the Objective, and the loss of the possibilities of immortalizing ourselves as to Soul Character; the I am is then the mere temporary I am, partaking of the spirit of the passing, the changing, the Objective phase of being alone; this is the final conclusive evidence of the appropriation, to ourselves, of fixed sets of principles and, once more, determines to which revelation we have clung and as to which factor of the I am we are allied. Disease, Failure, Fear, Doubt and all kindred conditions spring from the negative or outer spirit of the Universal, while Health, Prosperity, Success, Love in its reality, Truth, Longevity and Power and Poise spring from out the depths of the great Oversoul and indwelling the within of man, makes possible Life in the Universal as the Immortal Soul Essence, the New Creature, as a positive Consciousness, which is Creative in process and springs from creative Mind and Will, and as Spirit manifesting Creative Principles, as of the All Good; in the first instance we have a house divided against itself; the personal Ego unable to unite with the Individual or Soul Ego, defeating the Psychosis as the unifying and saving principle, the very finality of a Master or completed Ego.

This may seem complicated to our readers, yet we have tried to be explicit, in that there is a personal Ego which does not partake of Divine Gifts, which at the same time may partake somewhat of the Subjective; there is, too, an impersonal Ego, separate until per the Divine Spirit, it becomes an awakened, quickened Consciousness, as of Divinity, the New Creature, springing into being and expression as out and of the Universal and this may remain so separate, even after illumination, until per the Psychosis the unifying Process, as of growth, it so perfects the Objective as to permit of Universal Consciousness as Wisdom becoming the Light of Knowledge and thus perfecting the inner and the outer, per unfoldment and development, so as to unite the separate factors, into the One, the Ego or Imminent I am; in this manner a positive character is made an Immortal Entity a means of salvation in accordance with Divine Principles; this is the I am Love; the creative, the Superman, the Real Man in true conception and fullest revelation of Creative Purpose, Will and Process. As this is accomplished so is it thereafter with all that we, of the true Soul Self, conceive and carry into effect. The Psychosis, as the unifying principle, brings to pass true at-one-ment between the within and the without; the completion of the Process of all creation, both in Nature and in Man.

When, in the course of events, two Souls unfold into one and two forms containing the essence of love, unity and truth, are so thrown in mutual friendship of purpose and endeavor, as to make man and woman, one in truth, such is of the Revealment of, "Whom God joins together let no man put assunder." We as one in the Spirit of Truth, extend our greetings unto all our numerous family of followers, patrons, clientele, in fact all who may be interested in our well being. May the universal sea have no waves too strong for the journey, and the ship be so manned that no mutiny ever disturb its peaceful glide o'er the billows of life. Without spirit of love, in consciousness, higher than mere desire, and will superior to mortal undoing things, no such health, content and happiness as unity means, can long remain, in perfection, as creative, psychic energy, the fulfilling of the law. Bodies are often joined, as in all civil contracts, but seldom is it Souls unite with bodies, as but a mere incident to the holy union. Helen of Troy, as Mystic Queen, we trust, shall not repeat herself at this late day in this modern epoch of unfolding process of the Soul, mind and body. Ties that bind the body are necessary for human society's safety valve; but no such ties compel any one properly poised and gifted of understanding to waste gifts for other's good, in self and double self. Unions without the disuniting factor are rare; but such there are, and time will show it and prove it all.

Watch and work and be faithful, all liberal minded people; let no law detrimental to this grand commercial age and Spiritual New Birth enter the legislation of our modern law books. More than one nation has fallen as a result of religious TRUST COMBINES; no people can thrive long with dictators in the seat. Forever keep separate Church and State, and Church and Commercial, as well as political institutions. The Holy Spirit is NOT corralled, nor is it anything but broadest and freest liberty in and of the All Good. Recent events and legislation point to an undercurrent at work; something preparing to undermine and, afterwards, control all earth's institutional affairs; there is a false chord being struck in the grand harmony of things; there are hate and envy and jealous forces seeking power to undo Mystic and Spiritual progress, in love and truth; there are interests of a stupendous and undoing nature at work; we care not what it be, nor what its object; we do care for its defeat in its incipency.

ASTROLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

THE ACQUARIAN AGE.

The log will float until it becomes so water-soaked as to be weightier than the element which carries it, when it sinks and forever after the waters that carried it pass over it; human society floats upon the stream of service so long as it remains free from the additional weight foreign to its floating lightness. It is not always advisable for humanity to destroy its own identity with the surface of the stream of things, by imbibing too much of that, within itself which constitutes its means of conveyance along the river of eternal change of daily environmental and atmospheric surroundings and conditions; a soggy society is as bad as a soggy log, as regards floating capacity, or liteness and mobility. The signs of the times indicate a danger seemingly as yet unheeded; the stars of destiny seem leading to corrupt or soggy conditions, destructive to man's change and ever evolutionary forward move. A tendency to flee to legislation, already entering the soggy condition is now upon us; the same mode of procedure which made possible man's sinking beneath the stream of Progress and becoming in virtues of the higher Civilization a nonentity, dead at the bottom of his carrying stream of Life, especially so, as marked during the dark ages, is facing us, again, in this day of splendid triumph in all that Civilization promises.

Too much maternal care leads to too little self dependence; destroys impetus to mental endeavor; overcomes disposition to fight it out on lines of the survival of the fittest, per the law of best equipment and greatest attainment. Already we are lawed into cowardice; lawed into hate and antagonisms fatal to unfoldment and proper growth process; laws against appetite; laws against buying and selling, laws governing coming in and going out; laws against soul and spiritual uplift, unfoldment and expansion; laws to defeat liberty of choice in vocation, working or not working as we must and best can; everybody appealing to legislation to protect this or that clique to foster this or that idea; laws to offset this man's gain and that man's influence; laws to force brains to think, mouths to act, teeth to chew and stomachs to take, just as some fool society, church, board, or political schemer may feel it essential to have government control every thought, act or deed of the factors making up the fabric thereof; the body politic, religious and educational is becoming soggy, is drifting heavily, as a natural result of too much attention to force legislation and too little attention to evolutionary process and evolving principles. A man was never made from without; character is always evolved; and as man is so will be his creations and his features of manifest expression, as shown forth in that which expresses man, Society. To begin to law man into higher being per laws operative from the without of things and being, is to turn the log into a state too weighty to float upon the stream that carries it.

Society cannot run smooth with half its members soggy and sinking and thus impeding the free passage way for the other half yet able to float.

Law is a rule of action; its object is a rule that unfolds and develops that which it regulates; it cannot sustain itself as a rule of hate or coercion; such latter ideal would defeat its purpose by destroying that which it would regulate. Negative laws are the rage and the danger of present times; the signs of the times point to overdoing in that which, in itself, as a rule of action, for the good of all and uplift and development of all, may become the detriment of all and the cause of after disintegration, in stableness and ingenuity, as well as thriftiness of character. True, there must be order, cohesive force, Love or Life energy, as the Spirit in action, ambition to go forward, compensation to promote usefulness in spirit and endeavor, liberty compatible to the good of the individual while conserving the general thrift of the whole, as the objective, in any people's laws; to much moral discrimination with too little liberty of free will is fatal to any society; the free will of man must be left free so long as it bends to the necessities of the general thrift, success and wealth, as well as the evolutionary and educative uplift of the masses, regardless of any set of interests or classes.

In extremes lies all danger in legislative enactment or laws discriminating effects. Greed has its frightful degenerating influence; but nothing can so degenerate as laws unrighteously discriminative and unjustly defeating Free Will in a civilized Community of interests. We had a dream since starting this article; a dream that seems to have been essential to this dissertation: it ran as follows: we were in the city of Washington, D. C.; there we suddenly met Col. Roosevelt; we were in conversation with him; suddenly a band of music sent its vibrations of rhythmic sweetness over the place we occupied; presently a white-robed procession turned sharply the corner of the street just before us; a mighty Golden Cross loomed up before our eyes, then a man wearing the triple crown of Rome; Priests in thousands followed; next a Bishop of the Church of England and Priests and Laymen following; then preachers of all denominations, and women and children bringing up the rear of the great procession; banners, bearing sentences of various kinds were hoisted all along the line; at the head was a tremendous banner bearing the legend, "Mother Church, Christ's Vice-Gerent on Earth"; another further back we saw, "We demand all the earth to hear and know Christ and Him Crucified"; another read, "Direct Apostolic descension gives us authority over all earth's creatures in every land and of every tongue." Back among the preachers was a strange diamond-shaped banner bearing the inscription, "Down with Liquor, Red Light Districts, Sin in City Officialdom"; "The League of Christian Inspectors of Civil Affairs"; and strangest of all, was a stringer with letters in brilliant red, reading as follows, "More Stringent Laws for Sunday Closing; we demand Sunday Observance by closing of all theaters, ball games, newspaper publishing, or selling, or reading thereof, on Sunday; we denounce Spiritualism, Clairvoyance, ALL SCHISM, and demand LAWS TO STOP ALL PRACTICING of so-called Spiritual and Psychic Revealing." This stringer was surrounded by many torches and seemed the GIST of all the parade indicated.

We stood amazed, and turning to our companion, found he had vanished, slipped away; we were alone, and being suddenly noticed, or discovered, at this juncture, a great howl arose from the Laymen, and tail-end of the procession. We stood perfectly dauntless and fearlessly faced the howling and hissing mob, when, suddenly, a great Light seemed to FALL FROM SPACE and the ENTIRE PROCESSION FELL TO EARTH, AS IF SUDDENLY STRICKEN, and innumerable little RED DEVILS rose from the prostrate forms before us; the head of the procession we could not see, hence we knew not what had taken place beyond that, that was afflicting those with the unreligious and blasphemous stringer; we were so amazed to note carried by any Christian parade; minutes seemed hours when all suddenly cleared up and a new banner swung to the breeze in the stead of the blasphemous one, and as the people arose, it read, "Christ is. Here and Now, manifest in you as of the Holy Ghost"; "The Truth Consciousness is of the Soul"; "Revealers now, prevail"; "Respect them." Great joy and brilliancy of countenance had changed the former expressions of faces as from hate, passion, bigotry and limited mentality, into that of the Universal Consciousness, and the very atmosphere, became as if of the Sunshine of a nobler and higher revealment of Love; the Spirit of Christ had entered the souls of those people and they were, as of "The New Creature," in fact.

The dream ceased, and again we were, as formerly, slumbering away the hours of rest and recreation: we have produced this because it is strictly a Vision, or Revelation, of actual conditions, now approaching and the final outcome correctly delineated and set forth, as we shall prove, very shortly, as of the changes now under way in this, the Aquarian Age. The Spirit of God is coming to His own, re-entering the Soul of things, re-quickening the Souls of humanity and a new dispensation of the Universal Consciousness, as in and of men, shall bring about the Revolution, per involution and evolution, instead of former methods of bloodshed, law and oppression, as well as persecution. A more liberal moral code is sure to follow in the wake of this magical change in the soul of things and the Consciousness of men.

Sumptuary enactments, inhibiting edicts and prohibiting legislation will be looked upon as of the silly, the ignorant, the small, the unjust and unrighteous. Money, as the exchange of the people, representative of values, will no longer rule men as of old, but will be looked upon merely as the measure of intrinsic worth, and Divine Energies, as Gifts exchangeable in the divers avenues of commerce, and Vocation and Profession; Gifts will determine earning capacity and merit win according to capability and unfoldment and development of Soul and Mental Faculties.

In this Aquarian Age—Venus, Jupiter and Apollo assume material rulership, while Moon joins with its Imagery and portrayal added to Mercury in Mimicry and Chemism, to overcome the evils of Saturn, the king of death, and Mars, the king of guns, deadly weapons and cruelties of human nature. Follow us in our next issue, when the key of the vaults of the Soul shall be brought to bear for further illumination on the way.

We love humanity; the great throbbing, beating, acting world as it rises, day after day before our vision; we love it the better because we have been of its each and every phase of expression a partaker and actual watcher; we love the high, the low, the poor, the sobbing, the delighted, the gay, the don't-care-a-fiddle for anything or anybody, because it is all but that which is within our own bodies a counterpart; a continuous struggling, scathing, fighting, overthrowing and overcoming Psychosis at work.

What would the world be to-day were it not as it has been, is and shall, many generations still, continue to be a moving panoramic view of peoples coming in, playing a part in its tragedies, burlesques, dramas and melodramas, and then passing on and away, as a shadow of a night? Take out the Great Spirit of Love and Life, as opposed by its negative spirit of hate, envy, strife and death, and our work ceases to be of consequence, and the great school of struggling experience dies as a breath of the day and all is paradise, a state of impossible attainment amidst earth's turbulent scenes and nature's evolutionary process; the Psychosis is the unifying principle, and when all passes beyond its phase of usefulness the earth will have become and passed and died; we therefore love all that is, as it is, and find sweetest solace in doing, as best we may, our part in unfolding, developing and fulfilling the Soul's destiny here and now. The world is good to him whose concept of things is good, but evil to him who evil minded is.

To prove the law of expectancy, just let yourself get in the habit of permitting your house to run down in outward appearances; let your inner furnishing become old, tattered, ragged and disorderly; let your table become a thing of haphazard setting and poor, miserable food supply, and then note the loss of ambition; the decay of vivacity and vital energy; the complete collapse of desire to think or even exert the physical body for better things; you will soon have self-evident proof in sufficient strength and of proper effect to convince you that cheapness defeats manhood and womanhood. Keep up your appearances, if nothing but a new calico dress or ordinary but new furnishings and some paint for the house.

Once we sank into deepest gloom because a well-meaning gospel preacher took us to task for things of the past which he termed were soul killing and absolutely certain of sending us to hell; since then we have found out that these failings, when understood, were but acts necessary for our after strength and might of character; that they were the ruts and rough places along the way; that they were the trials which rightly mastered and booked as experiences, should prove the after means of helping brother associates out of the same conditions. The goody-goody stripe of boys we passed along the way are all either dead, or most of them in the penitentiary, or poverty stricken weaklings, donothings; too good to enter so-called evil environments in earlier years, inexperienced with the pitfalls of life, they later met these very conditions, but to be trapped and to fall by the way side; give me the man whose moral sinews have been well tempered by the pits and byways of life for after success, morality, and worth and merit, in all that implies spirituality and soul progress. If we had listened to the well-meaning preacher, who knew not soul salvation, nor the "Still Little Voice of the Soul," as it really teaches and leads us on, we would never have reached any greater station than has he, a fitness for a long career in earth bound realms, ere reaching that knowing which is of The Holy Spirit, made manifest, here and now, within the soul of us, as the higher, or Christ Consciousness. We would, too, be far behind as to Eternal Progress, and have several circles of earth sphere yet to traverse, in order to reach the great realm of the Spirits of light and love and life.

THREE ADVANTAGES OF MAGAZINE ADVERTISING

1. ITS PERMANENCY

The life of a magazine advertisement is long. It remains effective for many months, often for years. A magazine is read, passed on, reread, goes to hospitals, to the army, navy-abroad, and is at last put on sale in the secondhand book stores, and begins a new life. No other form of advertising has this longevity.

2. ITS PUBLIC.

The magazine reading public is the live, up-to-date, busy, enterprising, inquisitive public. The magazine is the business man's and the housewife's literature. It is the recreation of the leisure hour, and the mirror of the world's events when these have been sifted from the chaff of rumor and mistake. Magazines are cheap enough to reach all intelligent readers, good enough to command their attention. The magazine public is the material upon which to build permanent advertising results.

3. ITS COMPANY

The great magazine advertisers are the prominent successes of the business world. To be associated with them in the public mind is to secure the very best publicity—to enter the aristocracy of advertising.
