The Virgin Fire of the Abstract

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS MEROPE BROUGHT HER drive up to the Central Sun to its grand finale, the Universe, the creative glory of unification became ready for rebounding expansion into LIGHT. Therefore, with a radiating NORM, those ready could well begin an investigation into the mystery of the Abstract Plane. A status known in the past only to those of extreme art, where it conveyed nothing of form, but the mind ever seeking into the mystery of the unseen. The Causation captured in its rolling interblending mystery, before it touched the noumenon, and was duly formed by the phenomenal. But now, through Merope, the whole of the MIND Plane is of the Abstract, belonging to a World of Virgin rebirth. Where man, in capturing the noumenal, would extract its internal Law, according to his capability. It becoming solvent by Universal Philosophy, according to how man could interpret its secret message installed as the higher Law.

Rebirth of the Past Glory

THIS now coming forth as the Pre-Antaric wealth, the glory that was conveyed to the Abyss, at the time of the Great and Mighty Ra. That now acting as the Chromosphere of the Sun, with its reflection in the depths as the chromosphere of the NORM. Yet that which had only been an active quickener to the lunar, must now be the active insistence to the intelligencia of the gods. Thereby opening up those many light eras to come forth as the dynamic rebirth of the mighty past. The time before man had turned his mind to earthy beliefs and lost the mighty wisdom of the heavens. For this Pre-Antaric wealth is really the growth of the preceding Cycle, having arrived at its spiritual fulness. Thereby becoming the Atom wealth that fell to Atlantis, in the latter's negative state. Yet that which brought Cetus into birth, the lost cause of the pioneer.

While the Chromosphere, according to the Scientist and Astronomer, is a gaseous outer layer of the Solar orb. That composed of incandescent Hydrogen and Helium Rays, which, in surrounding the Sun, become its enveloping stratum as the mysterious Photosphere, the mighty Source of Light. To them it is the totality of all Matter, that which ever radiates an appreciable amount of Fiery Energy into Outer Space. It is not to their idea, a surface, but a stratum of mighty depths, which yet has to be fully comprehended. While further still and dutifully correct, they declare it is a creation seen more clearly at the time of an Eclipse, where its Fiery wealth will be seen throwing up here and there, enormous flame-like tongues, duly called Solar Prominences. But these investigators are not aware that in searching into its depths, they are touching the

Lunar Bigotry by The Lord of The Flame

(This is an extract taken from the lecture of Wednesday, 23rd July 1969, in which THE MASTER gave explanation of the recent 'moon-trip' by the American astronauts. The paragraph in italics was taken from the Sunday lecture of 20th July 1969).

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL

Once again I come amongst you, and I seek to help you and guide you. Now I know what is on the tip of the tongue of all of you. We gave you to understand that there was not any moon, and you say "Well they've landed," or they are supposed to have landed. You have not been there to see it, but you are taking their word for it. How, and why, has this taken place?

NOW I want you to think as a True Occultist. This is not imagination, this is not a fairy tale, this is dealing with the True understanding of Life, Vibration. You are all seeking to become Solar born, for you know that Solar Light gives you Life, and health, abounding health. You go on your holidays under the sunshine; you lay out in the sunshine. And when there is no Sun you all cry out, "There is no Sunshine; the fruit is not ripening," and many other things. Now that means that you are going forward into the next dimension of Solar Light, and you are trying to acquire Solar Light in your blood, which is the Christos Light.

The moon is a past state, dissolved by the Solar-born man. And it was dissolved! What is seen was a reflection, but these men have gone backwards, backwards into Time into the second dimension again, and solidified the magnetic.

Man is capable and has the power to all these things. Man is created of the whole of the Universe, and he has the power to bring anything into birth and to dissolve anything, if he so wishes. He has yet to learn of his own powers. They learned of these in Atlantis; they were fresh from the god state in the Fall, and they learned of these Truths. They created things completely out of the context of life, and believed they were gods, and all powerful.

But since then man has made money his god, luxury, until he was finding himself running fast into disease by clinging to the lunar states. Now he has done one worse, he has gone backwards into them! Now you have to see what the result will be, not only upon them but upon all those that they enticed to watch it, and especially their own country. The wise man is the man who is seeking to broaden his mind, and go forth into Solar LIGHT, that is the Christos Light.

"I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD," that is the Solar Light.

And every man born of the Solar Light in his blood becomes Christos born.

the Fire, as the Supreme Glory of her Royal Heavenly Cosmic suffering. This being the royal glory of the Christed ONE, who is now enduring the depths of this sweeping rebirth, that man and divinities can walk the Earth Plane in comparative harmony and peace. For as the Celestial Powers, the Great Hierarchical Glory, interpose a greater LAW into Transcendental Cosmic Rebirth, it causes the Seed to become glorified with complete Divine Neptunian Abstract Infinity. There-

Answer:

Now this is quite true. Merope has expanded the whole Cosmos beyond the limits of its known expansion, and she has brought into birth complete New LAWS. This is what man was fearing, he did not want them. Yet it was the only way to bring New Life, New Breath, New Air, New Theories, New Ideals, into the lives of mankind. But not just for mankind, but because the Divinities want to descend, they want to come down on the Earth Plane, and live with mankind. So it had to be re-born. But who was going to do it? What soul would be prepared to suffer, that their spinal column could be risen up to beyond the frequency of the Universe?

And Merope agreed, and she has been expanded outside the range of any human being that mankind could live, and live on a higher Plane of Understanding. This IS the Sublime Compassion. This is the Heavenly Throne of Sublime Compassion. So she went on studying, listening, raising her frequency, slowly losing the use of her legs. For the bottom of the spine, which is the earthy part, could not take the expansion that was being enforced upon her, but she has gone on.

Therefore she had to sacrifice the whole of her earth being, that in so doing, she could reach forth into Ways unknown and open up the Gates for the Hierarchical Lords to send forth Divine wealth of a Dynamic Holy manifestation. Transcendental Glory that had never touched earth before, now sent forth as a New-born Law, to awaken the Seed in the depths. Where, what Merope has set into motion as profound wisdom, now becomes their living Truth. With those who awaken, seeking as gods, to lead woman back up the Vega Thread, to her Constellation of LIGHT.

So as the Space-men sought of the Moon, she used the gathered power to open up of those Divine Heights, in complete polarisation to one another. That as she drew down of the FIRE from those immense Heights, it rebounded off the Earth to the Moon "below," and was seen as a Stream of Brilliant Light by the three Space-men of the depths. Now they must await the consequences, for they have played with FIRE in its down-pouring Glory, and must wrestle with the "come-back" of the Tiger Powers.

Student:

Master, I think this moon trip is going to release a terrible amount of negative power.

Answer:

Yes, it is indeed going to release terrible negative powers, and my advice to anybody who has any common sense whatsoever, is to try and turn towards the Solar and get Solar Born. That is, thinking on the highest: reaching up to the heights, and believing in the great Heavenly Powers, for they are REAL Heavenly Powers which can fortify man. But this negative power will not attack everybody, it will only attack those who are lunar born. Those that turn to the Cosmos, and reach out to the heights, will not find it attack them at all.

THE OUTER WORLD COLURE

As the Divine Sternum of Central Sun Rebirth

THIS is a key lecture for those seeking to understand the wisdom of the Abstract Plane. We strongly recommend that it should be read and re-read, until the major points of wisdom have been fully absorbed into the mind and inner bodies of the soul. Thus a firm foundation will have been built up in preparation for the deeper Abstract lectures which are to be brought forth in future months.

NOW we are going to expound a certain paragraph out of the Sabbath lecture (20th July), and one that is going to also give you the understanding of the Sacrifice that Merope has made that the World could be reborn into New Life. You do not have to be told that the world did have to be reborn. It was deep with crime, deep with disease, deep with evil, and there was only one way to cleanse out these states, and that was to bring down the FIRE from the Heavens, which is now coming down in abundance.

Many things have been brought to light that would never have been seen, they were so hidden by man's cunning. But the FIRE is greater than man's lunar cunning, and it has broken open these conditions.

Now let us turn over to the Word:

For it now becomes that of the Celestial Transgression, the Hierarchical Glories expanding beyond their limits out of the old law into the greater. Where that of Divine Benevolence is sweeping the Cosmic Arc with the Power of this Christos' mighty heavenly endurance, for this Grand Feat to be accomplished. For here for the first time, we approach the heavenly Throne of the Sublime Compassion, for now it is the burning-in of the Holy FIRE within fore to enter this great Celestial magnitude into the sweeping Glory of the Arc, the Christed ONE in the depths must bring Royal Divine expansion, via the sublime glory of Celestial Ascension. That completely unknown even to the Divinities themselves. Then endure physically the implosive expansion, that this mighty accomplishment can be fully established in the depths of human degradation.

NOW to those who have been studying this, can any of you first of all give your theory of it, before I answer it.

Student:

This, Master, is where Merope, as the Great ATOM, has expanded and has incorporated the whole of the Cosmos, she has expanded even further into Outer SPACE hitherto unknown to Divinity and man's imagination: she has virtually been washed up onto the Shores of a New Land, and all the Cosmic Creation is like that bottle, washed up on that Shore. And she has drawn the cork and out has come the GENIE which is none other than Orion raised up to God status. And through that great power and the great suffering she has endured, she is bringing that Power right down to the depths of every man to raise him up out of his degradation.

Introduction to the "Abstract" Lectures

AS A VAST PRE-VISIONARY PERCEPTIVITY OF WHAT HAS BEEN, LET US LOOK INTO THE FIRST MYSTERY of Creation. Then a better pre-view will take place of what is now created. As the fulness became complete of the Brahmic Cycle of Creation, the Atom created exploded. And Shamash sent forth of his Sparks, as thought creation, out into the Void. These became the New Solar Galactical System. Then more followed, descending by vibration to the depths of the Abyss, being fed by the Elements created by the established Planes. But as the Atoms reached the depths, they flagged with inertia. Thus Merope as the Goddess of Venus was sent to aid them, she bringing down the Fire to try and drive them upwards. This set desire instead of Desire into motion, which instead of driving them up onto a Mind Plane creation, set up a sensory mind plane into birth. This earthed Merope and she had to trudge the Earth until Relativity, the Equinox of Aquarius. In the meantime man had become master of both Abyss and heights, cutting off the depths from the inflowing Fire. Then she set to work gathering those around her who had been the vandals in the past, while she herself went up to the Central Sun as the Neptunian heights and staked her claim. Then started to gather in of the dispersed atoms as Planetary Planes, by her mind weaving them together in unification. Thereby replacing the old Laws for the true Laws. For man had falsely distorted the Laws through religion that aided him in his way of thinking. Merope by giving such rebirth, gave back to the heights its dominion. This brought into birth the Abstract Mind Plane, where man could receive direct from the heights Wisdom and Truth, as never known before. All this, as the climb back, has been laid down in the lectures being given week by week, showing soul of how atomicisation, electrification and unification came about.

PRE-ANTARIC WEALTH

mighty wonders of the Solar Glory, born from the mighty Shamash. The time before man rose up its mighty magnitude as Neptunian Divine light. Yet he who threw its mighty beauty down the Tartarus pit, as he received its glory through his organic fundamental.

While every true Occultist knows that the Chromosphere is the MIND GLORY of the Gods, the polarising husbandry of the Outer Space Ethers, woven by the Virgin in the depths. With the Uranian sensitivity as the implosions of this great and mighty Ordinance, in its Heavenly Benevolence. Yet in its secret mystery, the FIRE within the Fire, the dynamic established wealth of the Divine Causation. That now put into operation by the driving gods, to ever keep the revolving of the Orion Colure upon its enriched Path created by the Mystics. That of the mighty truth of Universal Philosophy, born and created out of the depths of Time.

This now is known to every Occultist, it being the collected aspirational glory of their MIND growth. But which Merope, in her upward climb, has raised its mighty Law, up to the Central Sun. With the Prominences being the going forth of its dynamic wealth as the Mighty Ethers descending into Matter. Therefore, if such wealth becomes the reigning glory of the soul's NORM, it can for the moment only declare but little of what the soul can augur forth, when truly husbanded into active glory. Yet the airy beauty that hovers on that mystic Plane of the mind, awaiting the phenomenal birth, out of the mystical noumenon.

While also, in our preparation of this mighty truth, that we can polarise it with full exactness and bring forth of its octavial beauty, we must also review the Atom genetic gyroscope balance, which is the Atom to atom Causation. The Sperming Power of the Central Sun giving renewed life to the gods, through the unified Atomicised Breath. Thereby really going into the depths of the Central Glory, with its reflection as its counterpart in the Abyss depths. As Ra, it had been reborn as a mighty phenomenon that had lost its light in the FALL. While through the mighty Ogdoad, the Eight Gods of Sophia beauty, had generated its wealth up once again, through their mind glory.

For the Early Pharaohs were immortal beings, who knew the necessity and possible wealth of the mind. Thus raised up the fallen wealth of Atlantis by setting Ra upon his Throne in the Heavens, but only leaving its stupendous recording glory in Hieroglyph, instead of Script continuity. Therefore, the unifying of man's combined wealth with his present problems, and polarising through the husbandry of the Virgin Ethers, is the way that Merope is now taking us.

That the mighty glory of Theocratic wisdom, as the Abstract Causation, will be brought to the present day soul as regenerating Virgin Fire. While the Hydrogen received from that great and mighty Ordinance, with the Oxygen from the Ethers, is the dynamic benevolence that man can receive from that Mighty Divine Phenomenon. While unto the Mystic, the bringing forth of the implosions, that can give unto him of the Uranian sensitivity.

Yet at the time of those Early gods, when mighty wealth was in abundance, Ra and Thoth were two outstanding figures as the Sun and Mercurial glory. The Ogdoad of Eight were gods around Ra's throne who led the soul up to his Presence. Therefore they were aware of the NORM ascendancy, though not so fully aware of its possibilities,

RELATIVITY

AGES had passed by, nations had come and gone, but in the unfolding of Time, man had only become buried under the wealth of knowledge he had amassed and used for his own self-glorification. Now those days are past, with the solid world of earth fast passing out of existence, and the Abstract Plane of Divinity taking its place, as the reborn glory of the hour. Man must now break the fetters of old ideas that have held him firmly to the depths, and embrace the Reality of Abstract perception, where the sensitised soul becomes as ONE with the unfolding MIND Glory of the Central Sun. (See text on page 4, col. 2).

as the Mystic can now be, at the present period of Relativity.

This is where the revolving of the NORM will stir the unfathomed Central Sun Power within its being, into becoming the glory of the spinal illumination. With the Royal Atomic Fire of the Scorpionic regenerative Neptunian magnitude, bringing Fired Solar Theocratic Atomic points.

That which will, in being absorbed into soul growth, through mind husbandry, bring into birth any Vega Chromospheric wonders of the now blossoming soul. Yet with zeal and determination, as that which can be mustered forth through that inborn Fiery glory, to conquer yet greater wonders still awaiting man's pioneering courage.

This will be the mighty atomic rebirth that awaits the first Virgin expansive thought, that will Fire the New World with Orion super-sensitive light. That born out of the divine husbandry of heights and depths by the elevated gods. That brought forth out of the mighty Solar Causationary imprints of Shamash's negative conceptions.

This is the foremost atomic wealth, out of its first breakthrough of might into the depths of Matter, from the beginning of his FALL. Therefore, all is set for soul to go forth to open up the mystical doors of the mind, the unfolded glory of heritage continuity, afforded unto the creature called man.

All primed and ready to set his feet upon the Abstract Plane of the MIND. Where he can draw forth wonders from that Chromospheric inflow, without dividing the spectrum glory into polarised multiplicity. For Merope had risen up the Planes into Virgin unity, that soul could draw from his internal wealth and unify with that rebounding glory from the heights.

(See the Front Page plate and the caption in col. 1).

The Solar Awakening

By unification and soul husbandry from those inflowing Ethers, the awakening through internal and eternal alchemicalisation, will bring forth of polarised wisdom. That which will require the soul's unbounding belief, it being wisdom outside his present comprehension. With Powers that have to be mastered by sensitivity gained, and frequency risen up to heights of unbounding glory. A nilometer registering the inflowing Waters of Space, whose commodity can fertilise the wealth accrued, and raise it up to the Atomic genetic gyroscope rise, the ariel dance of the mind. Where the mighty Causation now brought into birth, will open up the soul growth onto a greater Plane of understanding.

For the wealth now being unified, is that received before the FALL, when all gained fell into the blackness of derision. Thus the Leo fire of fallen glory ever being risen up by the labouring of the soul with the mighty Elements. Ionising their magnitude, that the Fiery wealth gained, can be extracted out of the rock in the depths. The calcified structure within the marrow of the bones, that disposed of through their corpuscular discharge.

Thereby deciphering the mystical conclusion of Jacob as the higher mind, who after commanding his sons, gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people on the greater plane of unfolding. While Joseph, the unfolding glory of the Spirit, took oath with the internal genetic gathering, that God would surely visit them, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence, in the unfolding YOD of time.

The rebound of the mind to come forth, with the soul transforming over from lunar to Solar, through the downpouring glory of those Solar Prominences. With the Abstract Plane all primed and ready, for soul to receive of unbounding Octavial wealth that will lift its genetic fulfill-

THE ABSTRACT PLANE

A NEW World of divine glory rose up, as Merope awaited the coming of her Lord. Then as the Solar Glory spread o'er this mystical horizon, Merope became conscious that she was no longer alone, and she knew that the Mighty Divinity of this Abstract World had come to claim His Bride. Thus, in all awe and reverence, she knelt before His Presence, and became embraced into the internal depths of His Being, fully in at-one-ment with the great and mighty HEART of the Universe. (See text in col. 3).

ment rising up fathoms high. For the wealth now being received, to unite with the stored up glory of the past, is the drawing forth from the Central depths of that Solar mystery, as the regenerative wonder of Antarcic magnitude.

All the mighty wealth of aeons of Ages, being shepherded and guided into rebirth by the Scorpionic LORDS of the Heights. They being the spermating Denominators of that mighty God, the Illimitable magnificence of Timeless GLORY. The wealth of Ages in Atomic magnitude, sent forth to man, that he can reconstruct the Abyss Kingdom, to bring forth from the Source to the mouth, the audible Voice of that mighty Unseen Divine Magnitude of the Heavens.

The ever rebounding wonder of Antarcic genetic infusion, which creates and opens up the mystical ivory door of the mind. The loping Kangaroo down South, who suddenly gives birth from the Mintaka pouch, and increases the glory of the expanded mind. Heights and depths in unbounding unity, reproducing and recreating from its own internal accrued glory of life. That gathered up, awaiting the Joseph unfoldment from the structural depths of the soul.

But like Archimedes' lever, a "drip" at a time, until the atomic unity is duly fulfilled, e'en though Merope has primed the way, raising up the ascension to the fullest. With the Waters from those Heights blending and driving the issue, that it can bring forth the Virgin Fire that will solve the mystical depth of the Abstract.

She to gather in by her struggling persistency, the wonders that Aries has been gathering up over the Ages of Solar awakening. The soul husbandry instilled by Law, in the secret depths of the ten Commandments. Warning the soul never to steal or commit adultery, but gather in of the mighty wonders of the mind, by the spermating Glory of God.

That ever by Hallowing Divinity, will the soul be brought forth out of the bondage he fell into, carrying the mighty atomic wealth down into the blackness of the magnetic. For it was by prototypal glory that Moses, in going into the Arc of the mind, took off the Vail, and his face shone with the glory of those Heavens. He was alight with that Antarcic spermating glory, which now was the atomised Arc of his elevated unfolded mind.

His wealth had risen up from the Sternum to the Arc, for he had drawn out the sword from the scabbard, to commence his warriorship for truth. His NORM reinstated as the Castle Glorious, the wonders of God in the Heights. For he had sacrificed his desires, taken from the Antarcic inflow, and raised it up as the union of his ten "sons," and gathered his feet into his "bed," that the wealth of the mind became the atomised electrified Arc, the magnitude of holy rebirth.

The Abstract Mind Plane

THE soul ever being reborn from the mystical forces of the Heavens, as his zeal and determination became as the WILL of that mighty rebounding and unfolding Godhead of life. It is only when man accepts this fact, that he escapes out of the meshes of Saturn and opens up the glory of the mind to its heavenly virtues.

For Merope, under the guidance of those Heavenly Powers, had been used as the Scapegoat, to make the way more accessible for soul to climb its ascension. Learning and gleaming from every angle of life, that he could enter into the higher grades of assumption. For man, a creature born from the interblending Forces of LIFE, holds the sacred mystery of the Seed. The Atomic Essence as a condensed point of all that has ever been, yet the Mistletoe infusion, never seen in its descent, but ever the wherewithal that renews this creation in its growing possibility of evolution.

The internal Mystery of LIFE, where, by unification, Relativity is ever binding and blending, and bringing forth in greater measure of manifestation. For the pre-Antarcic wealth was when those mighty Forces descended down in their Virgin state, to resuscitate the gods in the Abyss. Formed soul life, recapitulated out of mighty wealth that had come and gone, leaving its mark and wonders in the depths.

Worlds and Cycles that fulfilled their purpose, becoming here and there a mighty mountain of Power. Nations that came and went, some in mighty splendour, but all following the road of rebirth, until the hour when a great Revelation would change all from darkness into light. Yet in its unfolding mystery of becoming, taking on a more earthy and possessive mode of being born out of that Antarcic glory.

Therefore, as Relativity became once again...

...an important rebound took place, in the ever evolving Chain of Causation. For half-way through the Equinoxes, as well as the unfolding status of Cosmic immensity, there came a time, where either the Universe rose up to Solar unfoldment, or it broke away from its heavenly parent, and started a solid destructive creation in the depths.

An Atomic creation repeatable through its inner wealth, but revolving in an introvert state, becoming more and more grotesque in its creation. But in becoming greater than the Heavens, it would be capable of drawing its wealth by the means of Atomic unification; complete master of the situation. Where Saturn as the fallen Shamash, would reign in all his magnetic glory in the depths. While Divinity, as the Solar Magnitude, would merely be his reigning servant in the heights.

It was at this junction, that Merope became the Cosmic Scapegoat, whereby through her readjusting the Laws by unification and polarisation, she lifted all up to the Central Sun.

Wresting all out of the hands of Saturn, and replacing by the Solar Glory of Divinity, with the lunar becoming surged with the Royal Atomic Fire, drawn down by Merope's unification of heights and depths. She using her own atomic Seed to ring the mystery of Changes, for as she drew down that Fire and assimilated it through her own bloodstream, it entered down into all men, through the might and glory of the Breath.

Then blended up the past episodes with the present, that she gathered in the root and branch of all wealth, until her Atomic unification was a world suitable for the Divinity and

(See plate below)

Everything risen up by this pre-Antarcic wealth becoming the guiding influence of Antares. That Atomic Seed ever being resuscitated from the Source, the internal depths of that accumulated Solar immensity. But in all being blended in, a new-born Plane of potential creative Glory, where wonders that were intended and lost through the FALL,

ABSTRACT PERCEPTION

WHEN man can raise his mind into the Virgin Ethers of the Abstract Plane, mighty wonders can come forth. Genius that none would have believed possible in such an earthy world. Yet this is the world that composers, poets, and great writers aspire unto, that they can bring rejuvenating life into the world, and is the only way for soul to build up its Solar Garment of the Spirit, as its key of entry into the Abstract World of Immortality. But only when soul can realise that the physical world is Illusion, and the Unseen World of Divinity is the true unfolding Reality, will it take its first step forward into that Timeless world of Eternal Causation. (See text in cols. 3 and 4).

divinities to manifest in. Blending all into an infinity status, where depths and heights fed one another through the reimbursing glory of that Solar magnitude.

IT WAS BY THIS UNIFICATION, THAT MEROPE DREW DOWN THE VIRGIN ETHERS ONTO A VIRGIN PLANE OF ENFOLDED LIFE, WHERE MAN AND ELEMENTS WERE UNIFYING ON A PLANE OF ABSTRACT MIND MANIFESTATION.

now came forth as the Atomic glory of unified Atomic Royalty of Divine Creation.

Therefore, the pre-Antarcic wealth, the Virgin Fire of the Abstract, is the playground of the gods, that which man talked about, but never really adopted. For it was the way and wealth inside the NORM, that they had never really conquered.

Now Merope was opening up in all men who sought this way of restitution, the glory of the heights to the depths. That the gods would be fully alight in the Arachnoid Web, sending the light down over their face, as the glory of the Virgin Ethers. For it is the constant weathering of the Virgin Fires that brings this divine glory into being, where the beauty of completeness manifests as the Divine FACE, outside as well as in the ARC.

Where the soul has fully awakened to what he is striving to achieve, for the NORM has become alight with the Power of the Central Sun manifesting with the Mistletoe glory, and bursting into heavenly light. Where the pre-Antares might is united with the Antares elevation, and fully united in the Divine Holy Sperm. Thus the whole of the godhead is the palace of the "King," where the soul is duly anointed. For His Voice now is the Voice of OM, the rolling beauty of the heavens.

Where wonders are revealed that belong not to earth, but Divinity manifesting through the channel of an holy being. One who fitted themselves that they could become a human Monstrance in the depths. Where the revolving bloodstream becomes a revolving infinity of FIRE, driving the issue of every nerve and sinew. Where the chromo-sternum unfoldment brings into birth the true fires of the infinity gyration.

That sought for in Medo-Persia, but of which they never sent the human passions up to the unfolding heights. They sought to hold and obtain of both Worlds, not realising that they were toying with Spirit. That which remains as merely Spiritus Air, until it is unified with mind creative belief, and the internal bodies becoming as divine in-born light.

For the gods are the godhead of that creation, a universe unto itself. Elevated and risen up in the decorum of the conscious mind, where reality is striving to manifest and speak of wonders in their deciphered state. That which leaves all souls, who partake of their wisdom, fully at peace and in heaven. Here again, we see the mystery of the Vail, where the Virgin Fires have completed their task, and awakened the soul from its lunar slumbers, bringing the Solar glory into birth.

Pre-Antarcic wealth being the power of the enceinte Virgin, the Virgin MIND of the pre-form Divinity. That which has never been the playground of man, but remained the hidden secret of the gods. Yet in heights and depths unifying, that the daughters of Babylon are clothed in purple apparel, perceiving with full glory, the might and wonder of Divinity. Where Light re-forms into LIGHT, as divine consciousness predominating compassion.

Glories and truths that are unknown to the majority of men, for their beauty would pass them by. It only belonging to the ultra-sensitive, who find the divine call of the heart. The soul now completely one with the gods, the Virgin Christed in their midst. For only she, and she only, could believe and manifest of such beauty.

It is the power of the MIND over mind, where body is no longer the deciding factor. The soul completely in at-one-ment with God, the Mystery Being of the Heavens. Where the Atom is called back to its Atomic Source, its elevation warranting a re-union. EGO to Ego, and the soul is completely reborn into the magnitude of His Mighty Brain LIFE, awaiting its debut in the Abyss.

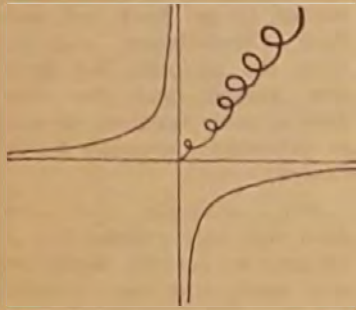

The Theocratic Husbandry

THEREFORE, pre-Antarcic wealth is "Sun in Scorpio" as the Law of Divine recompense. That which Merope laboured and suffered for, that what she created in the beginning, could come once again, if only among a limited few. Therefore, in unifying the past with the present, and polarising the unity, all would spin up by a genetic gyroscopic atomic rise, and providing it kept its balance, would bring forth a spermating from that Mighty Central Sun magnitude. (You could enter into your Arc). Thus where it had been Ra, now it would be the Divine Fatherhood.

The blending up of the Solar with the lunar, for it is the constant frictional virtues of the Sun in Scorpio awakening the Virgin Cosmic wealth into birth. (But you have got to fight for it, and woo it). The activating of the passionate depths, causing it to rise and agitate the soul into action, that it either kisses the feet of the Divinity or frolics in the field with the Bull.

It is when the NORM is aligned with the Power of the Central Sun that the Vail at certain times drops, and Words of divine holy beauty are then given forth. All being the propensity of the consortorial vibration...

...of the Neolithic Void. For the relativity had brought a perfect union for the courageous soul to spin up, and possibly find a new footing. Thus only the true pioneer can possibly go forth, and cross the river from one side to the other.

But this will not be accomplished if the soul does not attempt to master the thought and belief on the Abstract, and capture the Noumenon by an unbiased elevated mind. Thereby seek for further expansion upon its greater possibilities. Whereas man had created the organs of rebirth in his descent, and by the FALL created children of an earthy nature, what could be the possibility of polarisation? The polarised end of the spine being fertilised by these Waters, which would fire the soul into mind re-birth.

This automatically draws the Fiery Spirit of the heavens to the soul, via the Aurora Borealis, and a phenomenal expansion of divine gestation takes place. This is now literally being accepted by many, but how, they are lost to say. The Law of Attraction is far too wide and vast for their small factual minds to grasp, but once vibration is fully accepted, it becomes quite simple from a comprehension point of view. Nothing can escape the Law, although in the density of matter, all is so full of mundane states, that the adjustment by attraction is held in abeyance for the time being.

Therefore Theocratic husbandry is the Outer Space expansion, and now the Virgin mind wealth of the divine being. For by this, soul can bring into birth of the immortal breath, the divine seership of the soul. (This would be in Libra, the 7th house. This is the rebirth of the Law. If this sign is very strongly with you, then you are learning to find the divine seership).

Thereby sealed with the Divine mark of Cain, the Theocratic God of the Cainites, he who became lost in the depths, and becoming the 'Moon in Taurus,' the sunken glory of the heights. For the Fiery Seed of Scorpio sunk into the depths, causing the spark to cool down into desire. Thus remained in darkness, until Merope struck the rock once again, and brought forth Theocratic expansion.

Thus the Virgin son as 'Sun in Taurus,' will convey the Atomic Arc, as the Central Sun Seed, back to the heights in glory. For Cain was the pre-Antaric mind Fire before the FALL, into density; he that was labouring through the Earth that he could bring the Flame back to Capricorn, the elevated glory of the mind.

But Cain as Taurus the labourer, the wealth of Shamash, who was already blessed by the Fire, wanted recognition. Yet he was already receiving of the Virgin Ethers from Abel, as the Scorpio growth out of Shamash. The new light that was coming forth as the Begotten Son, the Intelligencia of the World. Cain could not see this, thus refused to expand when the LORD honoured Abel for his produce.

Therefore, with jealousy coming forth as the negative attribute of Cain, he killed Abel, and everything fell to Saturn. Abel being the newly Begotten Son, which Cain had now lost, it making him a pauper in his earthly state, and the serpent was forced to crawl on its belly. It is like Merope giving-in because she

Here was where Orion was the re-established sensitivity, and Divinity through Orion, ruled upon the Arc of all men, as an atomic infusion of light. For all men had lost their power of blending the maternal Seed with the activator; thus Mars and Uranus were never blended as the glory of light. It was the Neptunian Waters with the golden fish, but Mars was not moving into action. Thus the pre-Antaric wealth is now that of Antares, the new light of the World.

The new creative comprehension of elevated glory, which Merope set into being when she raised up Pluto out of the depths of the underworld. Thus Christed herself with light, and restored her glory of Venusian Divinity, which had been torn from her in the past.

DIVINE ASPIRATION

ONLY Merope knew the secret of the FIRE of Life, for had she not brought it down at the beginning of Time to aid the gods in their predicament of mind inertia. Now, at the Age of Relativity, she drew yet greater FIRES into the depths, that the whole of mankind could be freed from the magnetic prison they had buried themselves under, but greater still, that the Great Solar Divinity could be lifted up out of the underworld, and placed unto His true Dominion upon the ARC of the World. Unswerving belief and unending aspiration, was the driving force that made such a dynamic action possible, but Merope knew that her answer to life was not on this side of the Vail, but in the Arms of the mighty Solar Divinity that she had succoured, and brought into reborn manifestation. (See text in col. 2).

was not justly recognised in her seership struggles. Thereby saying, "I have done enough," with the Flame going out, and the closing down of infinity, leaving Merope bereft.

For when Phaeton crashed, he complained that none would believe that Apollo was his father, thus drove the Chariot and crashed. Merope drove the Chariot to honour the wealth sent down to her son. Thus in him refusing to uphold Divinity, and out of jealousy of the woman, refused to honour his blessing from Divinity. Thus Merope was anointed by God and claimed as His unified Spouse.

When Merope brought down the Virgin Ethers in the past unto the Pleiades, she brought forth Divinity. These she drew down into matter, and as she did so, the gods fell clinging to the desire, the physical desire of sensation. Then in Relativity, her hope of redemption, she again brought down the Virgin Ethers, whereby she polarised Cain, and brought into birth the royal glory of Theocracy.

The Orion Glory

HERE we now see the Pre-Antaric wealth as the New Cycle of conicular expansion, that of immortal disassociation of Earth. A vast and mighty Power of rebirth, where the equal is unto the sabre-tooth Tiger. Fierce and relentless as it demands attention, brooking no negative reply for an answer. It is where the soul must ever be alert, that whatever direction it may surge round, the soul is ready to accommodate.

To Merope it was the May Fires well received, standing her in good stead, as souls less prepared crumpled up under the 'drive.' For what is apparent on one Plane and becomes the prototype, is set and firmly administrative for the next, until the soul is able to master and balance it in his stride. This is where man learns to grow and become a tower of strength, but only muscle strength that will serve the gods, until he has the right to make soul expansion and rise up out of the depths.

For it is the LIGHT of that mighty Christos Constellatory

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Embodiment of AD 33 revolving within the Virgin mind consciousness of the Divine Ego, which was creating soul into a soul-less carrier of the Holy Arc. He who was an Unction conveyor of the Theocratic Flame, the means of conveying the infusing of the Mistletoe Seed. It was by this divine union within the depths of man, that such untold hardship to the soul is enforced when greater operations are put into action.

Thus Merope turned to her Magic Mirror, that it could reveal any further depths. Thus it was through this, that she gained yet a greater comprehension of the mighty unseen Laws, which were surging across the Earth in an endless sway of vibration. The mighty magnitude of the heavens that had, by the aspiration of the few, gathered into a grand Conjunction, and was infusing the earth with its dynamic message. That which had been promised from the inborn glory of Abraham, and activated by Moses, had fulfilled itself.

But not as the Hebrews believed or hoped; a warrior for Space investigation, not for war; therefore when it sent its Glories down to earth at that particular hour, no one but a Roman whore, although the Governor's wife, was able to receive of its Beauty.

The Second Advent was the earthing rebound, when that self-same woman, but now as Merope, recognised the wisdom as it descended, and gave it its rightful uplift and expansion. Thus rose up the Arc and glorified the LORD, and was the means of being the conveyor of Unction to the multitude through the Word. The unfold of the Theocratic Flame, that set fire to the Hydrogen Waters that came down, and filled the soul with Holy Breath.

Thus again polarised the wealth of the past and brought forth by genetic gyroscopic ascension, the Evolution that the Heavenly Hosts were seeking. Setting every soul, good, bad, or indifferent, onto the Virgin Plane of Abstract mind birth, with every man being touched by the Divine Glory of the Heavenly Unction of the Orion manifestation.

As Merope balanced up the issue, she was able to extract out of the debris, the wealth lost to the blind self-imbued gods. Yet the wealth that had become the revolving mind consciousness of the Divine Ego of the heights, feeding its counterpart in the depths.

For every man, unless he has sunk so low, is connected with his EGO in his constellational heights, and in so being fed, would receive of that revolving mind union, by the Law of Attraction. For the pre-Antaric Breath that founded this prototypal union, is the Causeway of the ascending and descending Divinity, through the Hydroxyl unification. That born from the Sun now in Scorpio, and the Atomic-born mind; yet another unification blended up by Merope, re-instating man's divine heavenly heritage. Thus he either grasps it with both hands and turns his face to the heights, or he sinks down into oblivion, giving up the Ghost to the depths.

For now, this Pre-Antaric wealth is the Chromomorphic Egg for the first time, as the Power of the Atom was unfolding all into the glory of the Mystic Breath of the Orion-born Pube. The soul now brought to an immortal state, ready to make its next ascension in the state of evolution. Yet it is the mystical glory of the pre-Atlantis Power of Levitation. The Power of Abstract administration through the power of the spirit, before it was captured and harnessed by the calcification of the magnetic.

The soul losing its freedom that it had valued so lightly, and of which Merope had become Scapegoat to save. For by her sacrificing herself, she had laid the first foundation of Christos Compassion, born out of this mighty Embodiment. She so believed it, she was willing to prove it by putting it into operation, and laying the first prototypal Laws for rebirth.

(The Christ Power of the Constellation that came down was never born, and was born for the first time through Merope, but it is only the first foundation; there is a great deal more to come forth. So it is what has got to be gathered up out of the vibrational depths of the Abyss, which this Fire was buried into; it never came forth. What Roman Catholicism brought into birth was their own idea.

Now this, of course, is going to be gathered up out of your Norm, for every man is born of these depths. Every man breathes in of those Waters, and so he is made up of this, and he is going to bring it forth out of his own inner depths).

The Solar Norm Light

THESE dynamic Powers that were with the Neolithic man were those of pure divine Spirit. Man now is in captivity through the possessions he values so dearly, and carries out untold horrors to hold to his own death knell. Theocratic reverence is the true might before the throne, and is the collective wealth of the Ether Sternum implosion. This is the silent holocaust of the NORM, rebounding to the depths as the ancient divine wonder of the Virgin Causation.

This is the first way that man is going to ever find the real glory of the spirit reverence to the Glory of the

ASCENSION OF THE ETHERS

As the Wine of Divinity

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

(This lecture was delivered at the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing on Sunday the 1st June 1969 by the Great Flame through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook).

AS MEROPE STOOD BEFORE THE ALTAR OF LOVE, WITH HER HANDS up-raised in supplication, the smoke rose high and vanished into the Ethers, making its way in ascension up to the Gods on high. For here was the birth of a new creation, where the whole of the World was reorientated. Man and gods lifted up onto an Abstract Mind Plane, where the descending Ethers were their material of LIGHT. The Breath of the Gods now the Hydroxyl Breath, being transmuted by Merope into reborn Laws of Theocratic Justice. That as the Breath of the Divine Fatherhood, becomes the sweeping rebirth of the whole of Creation. Therefore, ever is she being sacrificed on the Altar of Ara, as she expands the wisdom into new-born light. For as she treads further and further into the depths of her NORM, does the light of the Universe increase. For she is the pendulum who swings back and forth, raising the grade of frequency, that Divinity can be given the WINE of manifestation, the Fiery glory brought forth in the depths. That as it ascends, becomes the Fire to bring forth the FIRE within its depths, as the Dove returns to the earth. For unless man sends forth as the created belief, he cannot be fired by its Holy Glory. The Dove being the Firebird that brings to man of Divine Unction, the Glory of the Heavens. But only when he has laboured in the depths and lifted up the Arc in glorified frequency.

The Heritage of Norm Light

HERE we see the revolving of the Divine Infinity, where Breath woven in the World below, becomes the LIGHT of the Universe. For Breath is the rebound of the ascended smoke, the aspiration of the soul unfoldment, where what was, becomes as LIGHT and returns with the FIRE of Divinity, as the Breath of a new-born possibility.

So as heights and depths intermingle, but in the action of vibration, the density of the depths of the magnetic is ever being transformed into Fire-born light. For man, by extracting the Fire, throws out the magnetic, the nitrogenic infusion, as the human density of matter. Which as he raises his frequency, will die away and become as light borne by the divinities, bringing the Great Work to its next stage of unfoldment.

This is where Merope is the guiding factor, for she is the trial and error, ever transforming darkness into light, through the one-way-track of perfection.

Hence man has to tread that road in the way that the divinities have accepted, in the higher LAW being infused into the lower Law, changing the context of vibration. This is the Wine of Divinity upon which man sups, re-infusing his blood-life into divinity. Whereby he builds up a mind, a creation of recording memory, where by thinking and acting, he creates and rebuilds by sacrificing himself to the reborn creation.

This is where man must be prepared to suffer, that he can become a creation of light. An Atom transformed into a divinity, a soul-life of the higher Planes. Soul trying to get back to the Constellation he left, but now as a light-born EGO.

But the tragedy lies in the soul that fell deep into the depths of desire. Creating illusion that had to be transformed before he could seek for his heritage of LIGHT. Therefore quite content to live as an animal grovelling in the darkness of matter. It was only when the Scapegoat came forth, that soul was enforced into elevation. That now he either accepts and goes on, or falls deep into the Waters of Lethe.

For the Divinities are waiting to send further divinities into matter, to enhance the Work of the Constellations. That light can grow through Ego expansion, the unfoldment of those left on that Plane of

ORION WARRIORSHIP

WHEN soul perceives the glory of the FIRE, and knows that he is nought without its strength, then has he begun the path of Orion Warriorship. Where he gives his all that Divinity might live in conscious radiance amongst all men, and feed the world with reborn life. No soul is too great to kneel in humility before the Great Solar Lord; no soul too small to be raised up by His Divine Compassion of Heavenly Grace. (See text in col. 3).

Creation. For not all had the courage to make the depths, which was a state of lowering their interpenetration.

PLANES

Extending their Ego into mind creation, free from the egoism of self, bringing all back to the point of Source, the polarisation of beginning. But as they fell, they created another Seven, which brought the seven Chakras into birth. It is these that soul has been wrestling with, creating a calcified coating of 'seven skins.'

This is the renunciation that he has to make, to bring the NORM to LIGHT. This is the Great Work that Merope had been accomplishing, as she raised the Planes up high. Ever bringing wealth from the heights, which infiltrates into the depths. Forcing man to change his outlook from density of matter, into the upward glory of LIGHT.

Then Merope began her REAL Work of interpenetrating the depths of her NORM, through the absorption of Ether Breath, right from the seat of Divinity. Polarising the heights with her depths, through the Seeds of her Fount. Bringing a new World into birth, out of the unification, with every soul supping off the Wine, born from the Glory of Divinity.

For the Ethers are Divinity, the rich Glories of Outer World Space; that once they are taken by Merope as the Breath of LIFE, become the infusion for all men in the depths. Changing the whole context of being, from mortal to immortality, concrete mind into the Abstract Mind of Divinity.

Therefore Merope brought every soul to be manifesting on the Virgin Plane, that they could begin to think and make independent reckoning. With all turned into Solar light, the glory of the Central Sun. With Divinity residing in its inner depths, the FIRE within the Fire. With man ever bathing in its Holy Glory, filling his blood-life with the Holy FIRE, that he must transmute into mind light.

Thus as he awakens and embraces as truth, will he too send aspiration up to those heights. Maybe genius awakened out of his depths, which will stir the Divinities into light, but ever the road that Merope has set is now the prototype for the future, an atomic path of undulating rebirth, born out of the way of Warriorship.

The Unified Constellations

EETHERS of Fire turned into mind light, filling the soul with divinity. For as the soul growth. Therefore as they descend they have the reflection of that Ego, as their ego in the depths. This often becomes mere egoism, one riding falsely on the heights of its immensity. Not realising the damage they are doing to themselves, as they grow false illusion in the depths.

For soul is spirit, and will never be reconciled until it returns to the origin of its birth. This can only be done by service and renunciation, not merely lip service, but the casting off of the density of matter, to get back and make their Constellation complete. With the majority the thread gets broken, and the atom, now a soul, becomes doomed to the animal creation he has chosen.

Any sensitivity that may arise will only remind him of his sorrow, for the depths are sure death, with his Constellation impoverished by his loss, and could, if too much, be doomed to extinction. With those far afield seeing the values in a Celestial creation, so transforms this heavenly sperming into soul growth of Will and Mind light, will Divinity come forth in the creation of the soul. For this is the Yod of God interpenetrating the depths of the soul, bringing the soul from mortal into immortality, back to its heavenly birth.

Only by man truly believing that form and flesh are the outcome of his FALL into desire, will he believe of these Words of Reality; will he accept that the only way to return to his adjourning EGO, is to renounce the ways of the depths. For when the Atom leaves those heights as a divinity, he spins down in a form of knowing, into the world of density. Coming away from its point of Source, in its Constellatory creation.

A Nebula being seeking adventure and expansion, to cause its Constellation to become fed with light, by others seeking of its virtues in their nourishing it by exemplifying its internal Star magnitude.

It is by drawing from these mighty points of Source, that soul becomes nourished by the light from these Constellations, which helps them to become free from the captivity they have become enmeshed in. Until Merope changed the situation, making it possible for other divinities to find growth, man had caused earth to become a world bloated with earthy power, outweighing the Constellatory Powers in the Heights. Thereby cutting himself off and being quite satisfied with life and death, until all became a creation of evil worse than Atlantis.

Now that has been stopped by Merope handing back to the Powers their dominion over matter and evil. Whereby Spirit remains the glory of the soul, and in its depths of reality, prepared at all costs to shed the density tying its divine Ego to the density of darkness.

The Constellations are Planes born from the Suns of yesterday, and from whichever Constellation you come from, does your wealth of the past exist. Thus Merope making the Central Sun Divine in its manifestation, has risen up her own original Source into the glory of Divinity. Thus brought her Sun up to the equal of the FIRE within the Fire. Having drawn the inner FIRE out through her Constellation, hence Vega being the Source of all being.

Thus she is the Mother of the mighty Deity, and by this alone it can be seen that her NAME will live forever. Although man only knows of twelve Zodiacal Constellations, each one has three decanates, making them 36, but 48 in all. These are only those that have come to the fore, with thousands of others unknown; showing how young the world is, and yet so old and vast, and how infinitesimal is man himself.

What Merope has done, all men must do, otherwise they will die out in the darkness of Achernar, the unspersed fire. This brings to man the whole concept of life, where all fell to the depths, with the male issue being reborn by striving to get back to the heights. All becoming of the state of Womanhood, with other divinities coming down and becoming married to the daughters of men.

Thus the many now who find themselves in a state of crippled sickness, are those who are struggling to take the Fire, to burn away their chains of impediment. That they can be reborn of the Solar light, the glories of the heavens.

This accounts for why geniuses suffer so at the end of their day. They are suffering for their creations' sake, as seen in Chopin, Handel and Beethoven, a point which few have been able to reconcile. The tighter that souls cling to themselves, the more they enmesh themselves into the animal creation.

The majority who seek into Occultism, are the major atoms sent down from their Constellations. While those who reject with cap in hand, are thought-creations of an element nature, born out of the urging of desire. The latter are doomed to extinction, they being only creations of matter, for thought-movement is atomic embodiment set into motion by desire.

Here now we can see the reason why Hwang Ti cast out the Vega Pole Star and placed their own, the Polaris, in its place. To vie for such position is dynamic to the generator, for it gives them the superiority they are seeking.

Yet furthermore, it explains the mystery plate of Paola and Franchesca rolling round and round in the Astral planes in their self-styled love. She who was tied to a hunchback to fulfill her task, gives up her way of escape to indulge in adultery with her husband's brother, out of physical desire and width of vision. Yet also gives a clearer comprehension of Chih Nu and Altair, who are none other than Merope and the Master Hermes. Ego and Ego now joined together, belonging to the Vega Constellation.

It is the internal bodies that have linking with the soul's Constellatory connection, with the Aura, the risen Arc, as the indication of the soul's Constellatory glory. While it can explain a great deal more of the cause of the drug addicts' predicament. They being a shoal of souls who came down, now trying to get back the Song of Moses, follows naturally after such elevation. "I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously."

The Virgin Fire

If we see this in the light of the knowledge we now have, the LORD is the FIRE within the Fire, having risen up in exalted glory. The Word Vega indicates "He shall be exalted," therefore the Son of Moses was the root of this expansion.

Nothing can be more appropriate than a harp with an Eagle rising up out of it. The two sides of the harp were considered as two great thoughts, with the Eagle being born from their unity. On one side of the Star picture is seen Hercules gripping the serpents surrounded by the golden apples, and offering them to the Eagle. While on the other side we see the serpent that is mastered, with the Seed in his mouth, extending it forward, as the Eagle rising up out of the balanced harmony, the Apples now a golden glory.

There is another Star of great magnitude in the harp called Shelyuk, which means an Eagle. Thus the rising up of the passions into their winged creation. With the Altar of Ara that follows, as the sacrifices that now must be made to establish the beliefs declared.

Whereas Merope would write of her findings, in those days they sung to establish their beliefs. Much that has been handed down the Ages has been through song handed down from generation to generation, unfortunately losing its intense depth as it went from one unto another. But it gives a better understanding of how these Stars gained their magnitude.

All Nations in different ways of expressing it, being placed in the Zodiac under different terms of expression. The Zodiac at Denderah held all this wisdom, which was a part of their secret teachings. Showing how what was built on the Earth was but a replica of what was in the Heavens.

The originators were the Arabs, who were mighty kings descended from the Heights, having taken on a humble creation to enhance the wealth of their Constellation. (I am sure they would be pleased to know that they were mighty stanchions of the Heights, those who were bringing down Wealth from the very highest. That is why they are so full of fiery depths).

Merope was a creator "Prince," a stanchion of the Heavens; one of the Hierarchy, who at times descended down, because there was no ascension of the Ethers as light. There are still some walking the Earth today, completely lost to their true identity. Yet must go back to maintain their Constellation, and is one of the tasks that Merope has been performing, trying to awaken their lost memory.

It now shows how far man today has travelled away from the established truths, a complete polarisation. Yet with such as the Scapegoat Merope, these if polarised, would bring untold wealth, that will, when risen up, raise the Arc up beyond their comprehension. This is what she has been doing, the difficulty being in her meeting the come-back of the Powers from the extension made. For what has come back, she has to send up, not merely as wisdom, but LIGHT. Then the World and its vibrations become risen up, forcing all men to change.

This is where we begin to see the closing up of Group souls; a soul drawing back all its atoms, to become the fulness of what it was before

ASTRAL ILLUSION

THE purpose of life is to raise up and glorify the Spirit, to magnify the wonders of Divinity, and ever embrace the virgin purity of His Great Generative Waters of Creation. When soul denies of this, and turns to the cravings of the beast, then its flame of redemption dies, and it resides forever as a fading 'ghost' within the hell of the astral planes. (See text in col. 3).

Divinity. Then he will find the NORM sending forth the wherewithal to drive the fallen Atom, lying in the sternum bone. This is also the silent Causation of the Sun in Scorpio, that the wealth driven down to the depths in alchemicalisation can return to the heights, and intensify the glory of the Arc.

Thus the pre-Antaric colure is the Virgin Occult unity, manifesting as that Theocratic reverence, where the exultation is the Atomic Galactical Seed radiating with revered Atomic NORM consciousness.

The soul by unified unfolded growth, beginning to awaken to the divine wonder of Creation. Something that can only come by the unfolding of these internal wonders, for the NORM is now fully alight, radiating with the glory of the heavens, the Solar NORM FIRE in its golden sensitivity, which was lost in the densified Plane of the NORM. That which was lost through the FALL of the Atlantean gods of Neptunian super-Abstract vibration.

This was the eighth house of holy Quintessence, now closed down, with Venus in the pit with the adders of indecision, disturbing the new Colure Cycle. It can only be when she rises up as the sensitised Virgin, to retrieve her throne in the Pituitary, that man will become free from those 'daughters of Heth,' which agitate him into the negative desire of unfolding.

True Norm Solar radiation, is the activation and realisation of Cosmic service. (This is what you have come back to the Earth for; an opportunity which you will never get again. For once you leave the Earth, and go out onto the astral planes, you will never get back again). This can only come through the intensified sensitivity of the released Chromosternum wealth, the fulness created in the depth of the Neptunian passion waters. Therefore, the Sternum is the activator of the Neptunian Fires, which will revolve the NORM propensity, and bring the glory of the Arc radiating with light.

For all electrification is born from the NORM heart-beat, in which by now, intense changes have accrued, whereby the radiating pulsatory atom has now become the Divine Mind Consciousness of the soul. By this it must bring to the true seeker, the internal and eternal glory that now has unfolded in this manifesting glory of the NORM. Something that can only be made known through the audible Voice of Divinity, for Divine Mind Consciousness is KNOWING, and to give it form or creation is to take away the Divine Consciousness, thereby lose the sublimity of its fineness.

For retrieved ecstacy is the all-consumed NORM LIGHT, that which is gathered in by the holy meditations of the Orion Warrior's prayers of Christos heavenly fulfillment. They who awaken and seek for revelation and achievement, as they seek to master of Outer World Space, by the divine will of their tympanic sensitivity. For uncontaminated restitution is the fulfilled quantum of Atomic Service. (In no wise doing it with an ulterior motive, but willingly giving, that the spirit is born within, and you are absolved of the earthy mind states).

That reverberating as the compassion of the Neolithic conquest, where all the gods are weaving the Atomic Void with the holy Virgin prayer of Neptunian Abstract Breath. (Where your gods in the heights are bringing it all into a perfect glory of purity, through your desires; so they are weaving it into a beauty which is going to correlate with your own).

For this now is the Theocratic Intelligence, the supreme fulfillment of the Neolithic comprehension of the Hermaphroditic Arc. (The soul neither male nor female, but blended up into a perfect one-ness). That created when man was of divine oneness and had never separated into negative and positive.

Now, as the fulfillment, is that brought to unified activation by Merope, as the Orion Colure revolving from North to South. This being a Solar Atomic field of divine oneness, bringing into birth expanded NORM LIGHT.

This is the Atomic wake, where the soul is drawing the new Cosmic Laws unto itself through the Abstract Seed, filled with the sensitivity of the Central Sun. The Solar infusion sperm the Anthropomorphic Egg, with the Theocratic Fire from that Central Glory.

quick way, but had to learn that the answer lay in giving, to claim the Constellatory freedom.

Many of these are very key souls, that in not getting back, will capsize their Constellation. For there are many Constellations still unknown, only by the Atomic waves being received by the scientists. Yet Atoms came down from these creations, seeking experience and interlinking with the depths, that would bring their Star magnitude to the fore.

It was the Hebrews who built up Orion through the perceptory glory of the prophets. A Prince who would save the Chosen Race that was destined to go on through the Age Passing through stage after stage, not just belonging to one Nation, but whoever was capable of carrying it forward.

By the time it reached the Waterman, it was practically extinct, and only by the hard work of Merope was the Seed Carrier retrieved. Then when it was perceived that it needed some REAL courage to bring it to conclusion, again it was left on the shoulders of Merope to carry the burden through to the conclusive establishment. This she did, with Vega becoming the Pole Star of the Age, whereby the answer to life would ever be expansion of the mind, through polarisation of the Word.

This is the nine stringed Lyre that follows the victorious Horseman, for either Dan won through, or fell down the pit. It is at these moments we see the mighty beauty in the exalted Words placed in the Bible to these occasions. Any other time they would sound religious, but at these, only they could express the depth being fathomed. The author of such truths declares that the Song of the LAMB, as the Theocracy, which is that of Reality. For it is from these Planes that these mighty Laws are sent, after some pioneer has risen up their belief, as unto the greater motive to be brought forth of the LAW. "For I come not to destroy the Law, but to fulfill it." That is, bringing forth of the Atomic ONENESS.

Rhythm of the Spheres

EVEN unto the Abstract, man has a false idea, for I noticed that in the Daily Mirror of the 10th July 1969, that a reference was made to Trixie Kent painting an abstract picture. This happened to be a car blown to smithereens, and the lady in question, painting all the debris onto canvas.

This is not the Abstract, but typical blind human illusion; the REAL comprehension of the Abstract is in the Divine Breath from whence man extracts the Divine Fire, through raising up his frequency, and perceiving its divine message.

It is through such as this, that Composers perceive the Rhythm of the Spheres, and bring forth of music such as Beethoven, Wagner, Chopin, Glinka and Rimsky Korsakov, enlightened the Earth with. How Poets bring forth dancing Words that make the mind and emotional reaction of the reader, dance with elevated joy. Expression that could never have come from the actual man himself, although he phrased the frequency reception, through his own elevated emotions.

The Occult answer to this, is the soul, by divine expansion and upward seeking, so coming away from the lower elements of earth and water, polarising in divine seeking, and embracing the Fire. By entering into this expanded glory, bringing forth the expanded Air of the Mind.

Since the soul is born of all that has been, it raises this up in his inner being, or etheric bodies of Light, and a greater expression is given in the form of blossoming, to what was waiting to be buried in. Thus the mortuary meal was produced and the mind expanded into light by greater KNOWING.

This now gives a greater understanding of the Scapegoat, the one who perceives of the greater purpose of the Law, and is willing to serve and suffer that evolution can continue. Thus declares it by sending it up to the heights, and then prepares to tread it in by belief. Thus endures the bringing down to earth of the FIRE, equal to the frequency they are earthing, for this lets in FRESH AIR to the earth, giving man new life.

This has been my task over the past seven years, apart from the previous years of preparation. Therefore, it was the raising up of this frequency that prevented another war of an atomic nature, as well

MY TASK THIS MONTH IS NOT GOING TO BE very easy, for it will be noticed by the main article, that the Great Masters have changed their mode of Intelligencia. For by the unification and rebounding of the Cosmic LAWS, man is now facing his own Relativity, the whole World having been lifted up into immortality. Therefore through the expansion brought about by the Occult Teachings set forth by Merope, and the polarity that she has had to accomplish, it has so raised up the frequency of the Literary Planes, that man must now embrace the Abstract. No longer looking into the matter of form and illusion, but by the Relativity now embraced, look boldly into the FACE of as man dragging us back into the lunar depths.

For in my bringing forth of Atomic Wisdom, I polarised it, and forced crime and evil to come out to the fore and be captured and held under restraint, until it was transmuted by Solar rebirth, in every soul perceiving of its stupidity.

This was not the means of such coming into birth, but what was carried out under the cover of conventionality, coming forth as blatant truth, to receive its mortuary meal through greater wisdom being revealed. This is the only way that the true change of life can take place, rather slow, but much quicker than before, now that Timelessness is prevailing.

So where we see religious dictates and government representatives etc., turning to delights of an earthy nature, it is only what has been fermented through the lack of expansion, being forced out into the open, by the risen up true Theocratic inflow. For all men have been living under illusive laws, states of earthy blind deception. How could any man who was making MIND expansion, make sodomitical practices become law?

Yet this I claim, has been set into operation by false religious dogma. When the Configuratory inflow came down in A.D. 33 there was nobody ready to receive its glorious truth which Moses, Samuel, Isaiah and Ezekiel, and many others had been installing into the heavenly Solar-Galactical System.

Therefore Livia the whore and the wife of the Governor of Rome, went on proving her physical prowess, where she was competing with the other ladies of the nobility. Therefore, the mighty wealth of Heavenly Fire that was to save the Seed of the Race, only became buried into the Desire Body of the World.

Then a set of Nazarenes came forth, known eventually as the Early Fathers, with true Occult wisdom. They became persecuted by the Bishops of Rome, and were then drawn into their beliefs, or thrown to the lions.

About 345 A.D. papalism started up on this wisdom and created laws and ideas of their own, which completely cut off the Fire and started the incestuous involution. The Equinox of Pisces, that could have become a period of great expansion, merely became a producer of mechanical monsters, false ceremony, which is ever being reiterated today, and utter poverty.

The REAL glory of the FIRE was never continued, man went on living in a lunar density, imbibing sickness and disease, until the Second Advent, when Livia the whore awakened to her real task. Then, as the reborn Merope, she began to turn back to the Divine Godhead once again, that which the earth and false wisdom had forced her to place under cover for some time.

From then onwards, frequency began to rise, although there were untold obstructions. Through such, the Divinities descended and gathered around Merope, bringing forth their Voice through their own Gazette. With them finding the wherewithal to sending them all over the World, until it was known in the most remote spots of the Earth.

Now the moment is here for the Divine Fire, drawn down by Merope's beliefs and rebirth of the Law, to fill the veins of every soul. For this enters every being via the Scorpio inflow, the Generative Waters from the Centre Core of the Central Sun.

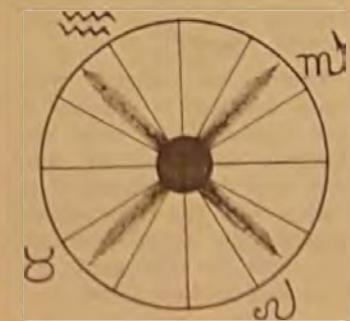

DIVINE WATERS

THIS is the mystery of the passionate dance, where soul spins up into the arms of Divinity, and becomes spermed by His Holy Waters, as they pour forth in abundance from the Scorpiconic glory of the Central Sun. (See text in col. 3).

For this is the FIRE within the Fire, that comes down to Earth via the Aurora Borealis, (See plate above) becomes drawn in through the Breath, and according to a soul's frequency is captured via the Le Ros dance of the Bull and the Scorpion. This is a part of the Cross that man is placed on, as he takes the Solar Fire into his blood, and again via his purified outlook and intelligent searching, raises up the Spiritus Air, to become as his mind.

But now, whereas GOD had to take on of the unfolding creation of man, now in the polarising, man is taking on of the glory of the Fire. No longer as the reflected image of God, but the image of the living FIRE, that of Reality. Therefore, as form is density and seems quite natural to the earthy, does the formless, to the Occult seeker, become as the raised up Divinity in the living Essence of the FIRE.

By this, true Abstract as that Fire, received through their generative Waters, can now revibrate its life-giving constructive encirclement of the Fire of Divinity, through their whole being. A living Atomic field force that contains the true Abstract vibrations of Mind Thought, which they can produce as reborn genius.

New ideas and new thoughts, which in reality is the rebounding wisdom from the heights, which Merope set into operation as Universal Philosophy. That which now has become the "Watered" Laws in the depths.

Sister, and cling to his wife, his feminine principle, and bring all into divine completion by spiritual mind marriage.

That which ever, as virgin mind growth, sperms and reproduces its completeness in the depths of the Fire, from out of the FIRE. But the wise man never separates the two. So of the Abstract, the Divine Theocratic Breath, Divinity is the MIND occupant, while the brain, the occupying translator, is of the conscious mind.

Therefore Divinity can only think Abstract and receive of such, by soul shaping the Fire into LIGHT. Hence the cohesion of the Atom by man, lies in the fructification of the NORM, the Pineal Gland or seventh Chakra. For there is no doubt, that the soul whose NORM is awakened, is an Atomic Power unto himself, and can command the Wind and the Waves. Therefore the front lecture is couched in Abstract language, so that every soul seeking the way to find the FIRE, will do so by raising his frequency through the elevated etymological scaling.

Master the depths of this and you will be well on the way, for the mystery of the Abstract Plane lies in the supra-celestial realms of Divinity. This is the very central point of the Atom, wherein resides the Great Inner Fire of Creation, the internal glory of the soul linkage with the Fatherhood.

To solve this mighty mystery, the subconscious mind has to be raised up to the super-consciousness, by conscious realisation, thereby dissolving the little self into the greater formless self. This can only be done through the Word, that of the etymological ladder of mind expansion and self-unification.

For when the united fires are freed from the littleness of selfish illusion, an Abstract Plane is born, where the soul can create in the Eternity and the Magnitude of God. Therefore the Abstract Plane is the plane of knowing, founded by the worthy seeker. A state of knowing, without having any instrumental body to know with.

Yet in knowing, which is through the Mind Body of Light, is the very act itself of knowing, and is its body—but still only Abstract. So there is no Abstract body really, but only a formless mind of light, which must express itself, to become aware of itself.

This is where we see the true Abstract, not a car blown up into hundreds of pieces, or chaotic figures on parchment. For the Abstract mind only becomes aware of itself through change and interchange, and is the unseen banquet prepared by man's invisible mind, which not only feeds the whole of his inner understanding, but the Cosmo-Galactical unity, and the terrestrial plane of lost souls. To the soul conversant with the Abstract, his formless mind, his innermost fired thoughts, enter into divine embrace by vibration. And like Paul in 2 Cor. 12 v. 2-4, he becomes so risen up, he knows not whether he beheld Christ, or was of Christ.

This is not just to be good, for many would not like to be good, but they would like a mind that was so free, that it could dance up and down, in and out, and perceive those hidden wonders and mysteries of life, that solve the problems of the soul. It is by this that the 'mortuary meal' is found that buries in incomplete states, and the soul is raised up. But while speaking of such truths,

Let me repeat a story already declared, which will explain the importance of the 'mortuary meal.'

For six years I tried to redeem a woman who was mental, and failed to do so. Then one day, while struggling to apply the healing, I said to her, "Lisa, do you know that you have been a nun in your past life, and never completely made it." In an instant she was sane, having received the mortuary meal, and she turned and spoke to me quite normally.

After a little while, I approached her regarding mediumship, for I had a strong feeling that she had suppressed her true mediumship powers, for nun unfoldment. Having gained confidence in me, she closed her eyes and relaxed, and in two seconds had entered into deep trance, where a very capable Chinese doctor took control. One who performed wonderful healing, including operations of a delicate nature.

But everlastingly was there a roman catholic priest trying to take over, until she grew stronger, and mentally cast him out. Otherwise there was always the risk of electrical treatment, which would have not only destroyed her mediumship, but her brain capacity.

I feel confident that once this is more fully understood, and of course accepted, many a soul who is troubled this way, will find that they are closely allied with the Abstract Plane, having prominent aspects to Neptune and Uranus. And of which papalism tried to use in the Black Ages, but never had a priest raised up prominently enough on those powers, who could fire the nun up high enough to reach such Neptunian unfoldment.

Those who understand Astrology in its true delineatory possibilities, will see this lying very strongly in the chart of many a female. For soul in the past was more closely allied with the Abstract than he is today. Yes! simple and unintelligent, but highly natural and intuitional. Sophistication and conventionalism, as well as materialism, have closely wedded man to Saturn, or what he calls the practical scientific mind.

The Solar Mind Growth

BUT now, through Merope becoming the Scapegoat to serve the Divinities, man is automatically risen up to those Higher Planes, by the planes of soul manifestation having been unified by Relativity and Unification in the Aquarian Age. For by Merope unifying them within herself, they became unified for all, and man risen up out of robotism.

Now Theocracy has taken over; that means, the Higher Powers of Divinity are ruling the Earth, and are guiding mankind into the true direction of heavenly calling. Where man will no longer just live and die, but seek to unfold his Mind Body, and become a soul of Solar Mind growth, a soul of heavenly light. It will be through this that a new shoal of genius will begin; but as to whether man will respond to the opportunity, when it is placed before him, is another matter.

For too long has man lived for the flesh, so now, he either turns to the mind and finds immortality, or lives with the flesh and sinks down into the astral depths. For the prophecy of Revelation will have to be fulfilled, as indeed will the full story of Daniel, one coinciding with the other. For these Scriptures were written in the time of Medo-Persia, when mediumship and Abstract control was in abundance, therefore were placed under the Law, and the means of unravelling life.

I do not doubt they were written by heavenly authority, but at a time when man really needed guidance, and still would, from then onwards. By such Phenomena manifesting then, it did leave behind a shoal of complications, for they did not really know how to handle the instructions they had been left.

Yet this would have quite naturally unfolded itself, but religion took over, with the result, they tried to handle it their way, and the Black Ages became infested with witches, and the inquisition followed. Consequently soul's contact with the higher Powers was cut off.

The same thing happened after William Roy was persecuted. He should have been helped and not 'slain,' consequently such powers ran wild for the time being. This persecution was the work of the ignorant, by one who had no idea of vibration and how the Powers of Spirit work, for it caused the spiritual mind plane of man to drop into the lower psychic. And there it remained until Merope rose it up again by belief, and unified the Planes.

I warned the Spiritualist authorities at the time that this would take place, but it was too late, the dark forces made their entry through this open channel, and the wealth that had been built up, by capable mediums, crashed to the ground. This was clearly shown by the demonstration witnessed on the Television a few years back.

All is by belief and faith, with the pathway of unfoldment right up to the Central Sun, for those who understand the true path of Occultism. With unification now with the Abstract, where the soul, in embracing Divinity, will become unified with the heavenly Hosts.

This is the return of the soul back home to Brahma, the completion of the Solar-Galactical Cycle, where the World of Divinity will begin.

SCORPIO RISING

WHEN the soul has freed himself from the passions of the depths, he is able to rise into the wonders of the Unknown, and place himself under the protective Wings of Divinity. Led on by his virgin mind, he rises into realms untrod before, and knows the glories of Creation, and feels the exhilaration of the Divine FIRE, as it courses through his veins, and remoulds him into an immortal being of radiant Light. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

But also, this is where the accomplished Occultist, one seeking into the Laws of Life, knows that all is HERE and NOW. What began as an Atom bursting, and sending its sparks out in all directions, is still under evolution, the World Atom of Earth growth. That

... which will develop into a Solar World, where the Earth and all the Planes of the Universe have become ONE, through the unification made in Relativity.

But only those who have created a mind body of LIGHT, will continue this path of upward ascension. Then they will ascend up and down this unified Universe as souls of divine mind growth. Having dissolved their flesh body and assumed the context of immortality, returning home to their affiliated Egos in their own Constellational growth. That which is so clearly declared in the New Testament, and they finally finding their divinity as prophesied in Revelations.

For anything declared as such, as it is in the Scriptures, comes under the Law, for it is not evil, but the way of Evolution. The thing was, to find somebody who could have the courage to be the Scapegoat, to raise up the Fire out of the pit, where man had cast it, to its true heavenly purpose.

This I did, and in so doing fulfilled that part of the Scriptures, lifting up the Solar Glory to the Holy Flame of the Mind; thus saving the Seed of Manhood. Whereby Divinity now is the true soul life of all who seek the way of Ascension as Orion Warriors of LIGHT.

Orion being the first decanate of Taurus, and as the Bull driving up and down the spinal column, captures the Holy Seed from Scorpio, which now is the centre core of the Central Sun. Therefore every soul receives the Holy Seed of Divine Holy Fire, and is the Cross that Ezekiel also placed under the Law. The Bull, the Lion, the Eagle and the Man.

When properly understood and accepted, the most Royal promise that could have been made to humanity, and now ready to be fulfilled. This is the dance of Le Ros up and down the spine, as man wrestles with the Word, that he can carry the Holy Waters up over the brain, and feed his gods with new life in the meninges.

For man is created in the likeness of God, who is the Great Mystery of the Universe, as the Great Cosmic MAN. Hence the Kingdom fit for the Fatherhood, a Divine Solar Brain, with those of the 144,000 as the cells of the Brain.

The complete isotope of Galactical unification in a soul growth, whereby he becomes fit to wait in audience upon the Divine Holy LIGHT of aeons of growth of Suns of TIME. A MIND World of LIGHT.

Therefore, by feeding the gods in the meninges with the Wisdom of the Abstract article, the conscious mind will become flooded with the higher beliefs, and find itself becoming divinity born. Thus by persevering, the soul will become born of an Abstract MIND, and find perception becoming its daily unfoldment.

Theocracy, which is that of Reality. Rhythm of the Spheres

EVEN unto the Abstract, man has a false idea, for I noticed that in the Daily Mirror of the 10th July 1969, that a reference was made to Trixie Kent painting an abstract picture. This happened to be a car blown to smithereens, and the lady in question, painting all the debris onto canvas.

This is not the Abstract, but typical blind human illusion; the REAL comprehension of the Abstract is in the Divine Breath from whence man extracts the Divine Fire, through raising up his frequency, and perceiving its divine message.

It is through such as this, that Composers perceive the Rhythm of the Spheres, and bring forth of music such as Beethoven, Wagner, Chopin, Glinka and Rimsky Korsakov, enlightened the Earth with. By such Phenomena manifesting then, it did leave behind a shoal of complications, for they did not really know how to handle the instructions they had been left.

Yet this would have quite naturally unfolded itself, but religion took over, with the result, they tried to handle it their way, and the Black Ages became infested with witches, and the inquisition followed. Consequently soul's contact with the higher Powers was cut off.

The same thing happened after William Roy was persecuted. He should have been helped and not 'slain,' consequently such powers ran wild for the time being. This persecution was the work of the ignorant, by one who had no idea of vibration and how the Powers of Spirit work, for it caused the spiritual mind plane of man to drop into the lower psychic. And there it remained until Merope rose it up again by belief, and unified the Planes.

I warned the Spiritualist authorities at the time that this would take place, but it was too late, the dark forces made their entry through this open channel, and the wealth that had been built up, by capable mediums, crashed to the ground. This was clearly shown by the demonstration witnessed on the Television a few years back.

All is by belief and faith, with the pathway of unfoldment right up to the Central Sun, for those who understand the true path of Occultism. With unification now with the Abstract, where the soul, in embracing Divinity, will become unified with the heavenly Hosts.

This is the return of the soul back home to Brahma, the completion of the Solar-Galactical Cycle, where the World of Divinity will begin.

SCORPIO RISING

WHEN the soul has freed himself from the passions of the depths, he is able to rise into the wonders of the Unknown, and place himself under the protective Wings of Divinity. Led on by his virgin mind, he rises into realms untrod before, and knows the glories of Creation, and feels the exhilaration of the Divine FIRE, as it courses through his veins, and remoulds him into an immortal being of radiant Light. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

But also, this is where the accomplished Occultist, one seeking into the Laws of Life, knows that all is HERE and NOW. What began as an Atom bursting, and sending its sparks out in all directions, is still under evolution, the World Atom of Earth growth. That

...which will develop into a Solar World, where the Earth and all the Planes of the Universe have become ONE, through the unification made in Relativity.

But only those who have created a mind body of LIGHT, will continue this path of upward ascension. Then they will ascend up and down this unified Universe as souls of divine mind growth. Having dissolved their flesh body and assumed the context of immortality, returning home to their affiliated Egos in their own Constellational growth. That which is so clearly declared in the New Testament, and they finally finding their divinity as prophesied in Revelations.

For anything declared as such, as it is in the Scriptures, comes under the Law, for it is not evil, but the way of Evolution. The thing was, to find somebody who could have the courage to be the Scapegoat, to raise up the Fire out of the pit, where man had cast it, to its true heavenly purpose.

This I did, and in so doing fulfilled that part of the Scriptures, lifting up the Solar Glory to the Holy Flame of the Mind; thus saving the Seed of Manhood. Whereby Divinity now is the true soul life of all who seek the way of Ascension as Orion Warriors of LIGHT.

Orion being the first decanate of Taurus, and as the Bull driving up and down the spinal column, captures the Holy Seed from Scorpio, which now is the centre core of the Central Sun. Therefore every soul receives the Holy Seed of Divine Holy Fire, and is the Cross that Ezekiel also placed under the Law. The Bull, the Lion, the Eagle and the Man.

When properly understood and accepted, the most Royal promise that could have been made to humanity, and now ready to be fulfilled. This is the dance of Le Ros up and down the spine, as man wrestles with the Word, that he can carry the Holy Waters up over the brain, and feed his gods with new life in the meninges.

For man is created in the likeness of God, who is the Great Mystery of the Universe, as the Great Cosmic MAN. Hence the Kingdom fit for the Fatherhood, a Divine Solar Brain, with those of the 144,000 as the cells of the Brain.

The complete isotope of Galactical unification in a soul growth, whereby he becomes fit to wait in audience upon the Divine Holy LIGHT of aeons of growth of Suns of TIME. A MIND World of LIGHT.

Therefore, by feeding the gods in the meninges with the Wisdom of the Abstract article, the conscious mind will become flooded with the higher beliefs, and find itself becoming divinity born. Thus by persevering, the soul will become born of an Abstract MIND, and find perception becoming its daily unfoldment.

it fell into desire. This would be the calling back of the wealth that came into birth in each life and created of a divinity. These return as Kali gathering in of her brood, that she can polarise its wealth, and bury all in by the mortuary meal. For these have been drawn down from their own Constellation through the Breath, and unless all are gathered in and returned as light, the Constellation would be lame.

While lives beforehand are being drawn back by the Law of Relativity. For by the Virgin Fires entering into the blood, it automatically draws back to the Source the wealth that is due to go back to that point of elevation. That which the soul, as a lunar creation, refuses to part with as raw fire.

By receiving of these Virgin Fires, they have the option of turning into the right direction, or having it released from the rock, where it returns to its point of Source. In this particular instance, it was the polarisation of Neptune, causing Merope to go down to the depths of Neptune with the Virgin Fires, to break open their rock and get back her atoms which they were unduly holding.

For all these atoms belong to the Constellations, and must be returned at all costs. It was man being so filled with this heavenly Fire, that gave him the power of domination over the heavens. Now it has been reversed, and Theocracy rules in full infiltrated government. With man now, so filled with the heights as living gods within his vibrations, that they rule his thoughts, actions and desires.

While man as the consciousness has it with him to either go the way of the returning atoms, or as mere earth consciousness, never blending with the spirit, and going down into the depths of Achernar. There the consciousness automatically 'dies' in the sense of waning out into nothingness.

(The gods in man's meninges are the vibrations of the Galactical Powers, and would be the ruling or control of the soul; that which he has taken and built).

A soul can only survive by the aid of the Spirit gained from the Breath, which also builds up the inner bodies, through the Norm and Endocrine Chain. These in the end, where the ascension is complete, become one in the unification of the Ego.

Then nothing can keep it upon the Earth or keep them apart, for the full-bodied reflection returns to its Reality up in the Constellation. There to swell the light of its beauty, quite possibly bringing into birth the glory of a living Pole Star. Then that Constellation rules the World, and draws all by attraction to it. (And that is what Merope is going to do; rule the World by Vega).

The latter only taking place when some dynamic application has been made to the Cosmos. But since Merope has closed the door where this is concerned, she is required to ever strive and supply the Heights with further expansion, upon what she has already gained.

The Divine Radiance

THE connection between the EGO and its reflection is the Brahmic Thread, which continues its direction onwards as the Ariadne Thread. The latter is the means of leading the soul out of the lower difficulties, while the Brahmic Thread, now fostered and nurtured by the Hydroxyl Breath and Virgin Ethers, will be the means of leading the soul "HOME." It is the latter which becomes severed, whereby the soul has to rely upon whatever help it can muster.

This is where divinities often proffer their help, for it gives them their first opportunity of service. The union between the dual state of the EGO can often mean a New Star is made in the Constellation. For the soul may not have been holding to any particular point, but to the whole of the Constellatory influence. Yet these are heights far out of the reach of the majority, only those having made enormous headway possibly feeling the effect of the union.

Here the Virgin Ethers would be very much in evidence, and unduly required by the soul, for the frequency attained is of the highest. It would be a time when their perception of life and its earthy counterpart, was far more intense than the majority put to life.

Whereas the electro-magnetic would still hold to life and its comforts, the Virgin-Atomic soul would be very concerned and introspective regarding their future rebirth.

Such a returned soul calls for much rejoicing on these higher Planes, and is the true meaning of the Prodigal's return. For the light and enhancement to that Constellation is enormous now, with what Merope has set into motion as a Scapegoat, and will be the means of further divinities returning to the Earth to gain greater experience. Owing to man monopolising the Earth, none have been able to return; but now, for the first time since Hwang Ti, divinities will freely be able to come and go.

The ascension of LIGHT is the transference of Fire into brilliancy, brought about by the alchemicalisation of the human soul, bringing forth the Spirit. All this takes place in the soul itself, which in the god becoming elevated through the Constellatory Powers in question, has its reflection upon the heights. But when these heights are seen as vibratory depths in the internal depths of the NORM, a different aspect is placed around this matter of heights and depths.

This being a very confusing point where the majority are concerned, but if seen as ever taking place within the soul itself, the other will follow in time. For the whole of Cosmic rebirth is made through soul growth, especially now that the gods, as atomic representations of the Constellations, are now in the soul in conscious residence.

The light of the soul as mind is the conscious perception of the depths sent forth as the Causation of the Rays of the heights. That received as Breath, with the whole of the Galactical System having added unto. This light, in reforming the zodiacal radiance in the depths, is polarised by the Celestial Heights as Divine Radiance. According to how much a Star in the Constellation is eulogised, does it increase its glorious magnitude.

This is where we come back again to the Gryphons, the negative depths, with the Arimaspoi as the positive conclusive creations. The former having to be captured by the latter, and become the victor of the down-pouring Powers. This is where the soul, unless they have already sent up their fires to the heights as the risen up Kundalini, will ever be a victim to these negative creations held by the grappling claws of the negative Scorpionic creation.

Often a soul not knowing that such was the case, for these are the life of all living beings upon the earth. But as a Dionysius, soul must fight to obtain the whole point of creation sent down as Power, and establish it into matter, as the rebirth of Earth creation. Scorpio being the Regenerator of life, and the deep mystery of Antares, the mighty Red Star in the Scorpion's back. That which now has reached a mighty magnitude, showing of the many who have struggled to make this creation and man in the depths. Those that struggle and give of their life—that the Cosmos can be enriched with their blood sacrifice. For if the lives of the Great Workers were looked into, it would be found of how they have given all, that the wealth captured by them was returned in perfected beauty. Yet those that were spurned by men who were eaten up by pomp, self-power and deceit. Those who only lived for the glories of the depths, and ruthlessly used their powers to master others.

Now through the Scapegoat, much has been gained, which will give the descending divinities the opportunity of exer-

Then the flooding with the May Fires, which will get the soul activated into the other side of the river. While those who cannot make it, will be left behind, and their wealth thrown onto the moving tide. For nothing will or can stand still. By this complete turn-over, Vega rules the day, and Divinity is in command. As this increases more and more, will form have less hold upon the souls who have entered into the new life. Divinity will become a natural thought, but in the light of Spirit.

Now the thought will enter the ascending soul, that they must climb the Thread towards the complete unification. Therefore seek to find harmony and accord with these newly-born entities, that there can be an exchange of idea and thought. Thus his first lesson will be to learn how to make a true gyration of the Powers, whereby the Norm blossoms into expansion, and a polarisation will bring a complete elevated reception of Reality. The soul ever rising up and down 'dead on the point,' raising up octave after octave. By this there will not be an old sodomitical status of the past.

But fresh air ever entering, driving all old states upwards and onwards, because everything is born out of the past. Prototypal states installed in the beginning, which he must bring to blossomed light. Thus becoming his inner bodies of light; hence it can be seen that man, through time, has never really given birth to anything new, but extended those states rooted in the beginning into trunk and leaf, but never really blossomed them into seeds of newly formed glory.

The Manifesting Fatherhood

THE whole of the change will be around morals and directive activity, where all ascension is upward to the manifestation of Divinity. For no soul can enter into the World of Vega glory, without his aptitude is towards a World of unfolded ideals and possibilities of Utopian beauty.

No longer greed and selfish gain, but every soul seeking to attain and reveal the greatest that his internal wealth can possibly produce. Knowing and believing of those Ages of struggle, and how, through such engendering within his heart, hopes of a greater World to be, he was able to enter into that World of Vega, suffered and struggled for by the blood of the Scapegoat.

The major foundation of the World has been partly remoralised in and through the Russian Regime, but they were never able to get away from their earth-born creation. Hence all that could have been turned to a spiritual ascension, merely remained in a scientific research of a chemical nature.

But the brotherhood of purpose and struggle is strongly there, minus the glory of the spirit. They were never able to rise up out of their earthy status, but doing all for the State and not Theocratic unfoldment, where the Beauty and Glory of Divinity could manifest.

For the development of Vega will be through all gods who have entered, becoming more and more divinity-born. Where purpose, will and intent are their inborn foundation, giving rise to the continual unfolding glory of belief which these Divine Ethers are bringing to the fore. With the soul ever seeking to put such into operation, but with the guidance of heaven-born Powers leading them to the manifes-

THE HOLY FIRE

WHEN man can reverence the Divine Fire of Life, and turn it from that of mere physical creation into the risen up splendours of spiritual regeneration, then his mind will blossom forth and he will rise up out of the lunar waters of the depths. This is the mystery of the Covenant, and the answer to Immortality. (See text on page 11, cols. 1 and 2).

bring it to a glorified state. Yet the very Sperm of God, that fires the soul with new life.

Man brings it to its fluidic state by right of it being of Spiritus Air, with the internal Seed waiting to blossom. This is where we see the Mistletoe as the bringer-forth of the "Kiss of LIFE," yet all coming forth from the Star Antares, the centre of the Central Sun. This is where the FIRE within the Fire comes forth to feed the World with regenerated light. But that which will only come forth when the Ethers are returned as light, to feed the Outer Glory, as well as the Constellation of its origin.

(Here are the down-pouring Ethers from the centre of the Central Sun. This is where the Central Sun comes from Antares, the red vicious Star on the back of Scorpio, but only vicious because man made it so).

The Ethers that become the Wine of Divinity, nurtured and matured by the husband-cising their own Plane wisdom. That appertaining to their Constellatory growth, which will bring vast redemption to the Earth. Much that is being operated to-day in the negative, that of illusion, which will be righted and reorientated in the right direction, causing many to sink away in horror.

The power to rejuvenate the Canopic organs, by drawing down the necessary Powers; not taking an organ from a dead body and giving it to the living. The soul seeking to live the right way, righting the wrong he has revelled in.

Either that, or being dispelled from the life of the LIVING, into the darkness of non-existence. This will be the time when even the agnostic will cry out for reincarnation, when man will begin to believe that there are other states of life besides Earth. This is where Merope's experience is going to stand many in good stead, for by such, they will not be entirely ignorant of the new ways of life.

By this, it will be seen how the changes being put into operation by Theocracy are for Divinity. So only those who can reach up to a Theocratic rebirth will be able to get through. This is what Merope has been struggling with, trying to save the Seed; if not, extract it and enter it into the Stream. Hence the bringing forth of the Virgin Ethers, which are acting like acid, extracting down to the last shred.

THE IMMORTAL SEED

by Dick Speller

Into the innermost depths
Of the Atom
I journeyed forth,
Seeking the mystery
Of the Immortal Seed.
Through Gate after Gate,
Through World after World,
I made my way.
Finding myself drawn ever onwards
By a Force I could not see,
Nor touch,
And yet it lived and pulsed
Within me,
And called me back
To where I could not tell.
I felt the beat of unseen waves
Swirling around my being;
I heard them break on unseen shores,
And toss their foam-tipped message
To the silent sands.

What World was this?
What land that I had journeyed to?
Then like a mighty wave,
I seemed to rise and fall,
And tumble over and over
In joyous exultation,
Swept in swirling eddies
Across those waiting sands.
And I felt their atoms
Interpenetrate my being,
Catching in my hair,
Laughing at my discomfort.
And then at last I stopped,
And lay, gasping, exhausted,
And yet triumphant,
Upon this mystic shore.

And then I slept,
And slept a sleep
That none could say was sleep,
And yet I slept.
But in my sleep
I rose up from those sands
And journeyed up a mighty hill,

And at the top
I found a holy Temple there,
And its name was LOVE,
And its entrance was built
Of pine and cedar-wood;
And its dome caressed
The Sun,
And sprinkled sunbeams
Down its pulsing, breathing
Structure of divinity.

And I looked down upon myself,
And wonder of wonders,
I was not there!
And yet I breathed,
And felt the same
Within my mind,
But I was not there!
Pink mist danced
Around my thoughts,
And golden light whirled
In rivulets
Amongst this diaphanous creation,
And I sank down in ecstasy
Before this Temple,
And its living vibrations
Caressed my mind,
And soothed me
Into yet a deeper sleep.

And I awoke,
But where?
Inside a room of purple hue
I found myself.
No windows, no lights, no doors;
Dark and yet radiant;
Entrapped, and yet free
As the Universe.
And so I waited
For The Master's Presence,
And He came...

And the room swirled
With mighty Light,
And my heart began to beat
A different rhythm
Upon the walls of my mind.
And my eyes saw not
With usual sight,
But with an inner intensity
That revealed of wonders
Indescribable.

Yet real as any created thing
Upon the earth;
And yet I could not tell
The glories that I saw,
Nor put my pen to paper
To describe The Master
In the depths.

And yet He came,
And spoke;
And His Voice breathed new life
Into my being,
And I felt His Royal Fire
Surging through the channels
Of my mind,
And I held Him tightly
To my breast,
And wept upon His outstretched arms,
And yet He rebuked me not,
And wonder of wonders,
I looked into His Face,
And in His Immensity of LOVE,
A Tear of Compassion
Dropped from His Eye,
And fell upon my burning brow.

And then I was a Flame,
Nought else but Fire
That consumed my thoughts,
And swirled me back and forth
In the intensity
Of holy becoming.
And I was Breath!
And I was Light!
And I was Sun!
And Wind!
And everything that lived
And moved!

And thus I stayed
And never left that room;
But ever burned myself
In LOVE,
And consumed myself
In Royal Desire.

And The Master came...

And together we spoke
In the nuptial bed
Of Living FIRE,
And the Seed was born
Once more.

tation of some great mystery
unseen.

The World that man had lived in, was only a reflection of the true World, that intended to become the Kingdom. Hence he saw that the World which should have been, only as dreams, idealistic writings, and music very inferior to the glory it could produce of those Heavenly Spheres. Thus merely lived for the flesh of his animal self, with the remnants established on the maelstrom.

It was only the genuine of the Race Elect who were the inspirers of Vega; hence, when Merope,—who had laboured for this long before the Creation was started,—came to the depths, she began calling down the Holy Fire to engender the way and Royal preparation. This was not only for the reception of Divinity, but to lay the foundation of the MIND Plane. Then she taught them of the glory and wonders of alchemical ascension, where the magnitude of the Heavens could give to a living creation, the potentials and possibilities of Voicing its mystical inner depths.

The building up of a MIND as a recorder and glorifier of those facts, that in its golden Solar ascension, could become yet greater still, as they became opened up and aspired by the manifestation of the mighty wonders that would now be coming into birth. Thus taught man of Phallic Worship as divine Husbandry, where the Fiery Element which she drew down in the Pleiadic establishment, could become theirs, if they could grasp the secret and turn it to its royal purpose.

This she did, but was not aware of the 'worm that had gathered in the gourd,' and self took over the purpose. For Merope, the divine believer of Divinity and its Royal secret Glory, became earth-bound in seeking to save that Seed, so had to await the first opening or opportunity, to right the establishment of her belief. Therefore passed through many incarnations as a Scapegoat, preparing the way for the final big thrust.

But the Glory of Divinity had been dragged down into the pit, until man became a menace to himself. Then Relativity arrived, and here was the last hope of redemption. Thus Merope began her task with everything riddled with hate, greed and licentiousness, and she seeking to reorientate into the glory of Divinity. While religion of the least spiritual kind was holding the world in utter fear, with even the best of souls, those with ideal and purpose, far from the basic truth of spiritual ascension.

Thus the task was to find those who would assist her, she having given birth to three sons of divinity-status to become her footstool, as she rose up her moral belief. This was the first difficult task, for the majority had reached the status of pirates, those out to gain to save their own alchemical poverty. While the sons fell to the wiles of the daughters of men, leaving Merope to the were-wolves and strangers.

But on she went, for now it was a must, to retrieve the purpose she intended. So the Divinities took up her cause in a unified way, as she became the bride to the Waterman. Thus began her School as a Temple of Wisdom, but only the replica of the Great School which she had started up in the Heights, long long ago. Here Truth of life and its purpose was revealed, and all new laws were enacted. As her intent grew stronger and stronger, she mastered the evils of the Age, surmounted its many obstacles, and turned the World completely over.

Thus the Divinities drew nearer and established a channel between the Reality of the Heights and the replica in the depths, affording unto Merope the strength she required to tread the LAW into the depths. Then Orion, the created and unfolded glories of the Prophets, came to claim her as His Bride, that the creation of the MIND Plane could begin.

So she folded up in unification the multiplicity that man had created, and raised up the ARC to the Central Sun by her risen mind frequency, placing Orion as the Great Flame, as its central diadem. Then drew in the wonders of Outer World Space as she rose up the glories of Uranus and Neptune. All being done unknown to man, wresting out of their grasp the power they had gathered. Then when she began her "Occult Gazette," she became her own means of spreading the truth of Divinity.

Her biggest trouble and most severe, which most great Teachers have suffered through, was treachery; for man moralises, but at heart is still a pirate and a gangster, ever looking for the greatest gain. Yet there were those who stood firmly by her as the wisdom drew in its mighty secret profundity, with funds, the curse of the day, ever at their shortest.

But this is where the Divinities worked and ever kept her supported, that their Word could go forth. For what Merope was establishing at the hardest time in creation, had to be only by belief and purpose, with her making one 'blood sacrifice' after another. Merope knew the truth of life, and if it was to be re-established instead of 'Robotism,' then all she had would be equalled, yea ten-fold, if she had the courage to emulate it.

As time went on, she became the Virgin and Law-maker of the Cosmos, thus had the whip-hand and the way of life, with the Divinities fully with her. Hence she recalled the Holy FIRE and flooded every man with its glory; then she drew forth the Virgin Ethers, to set all into Fire-born action.

She so cleared the way, that the divinities of the Constellations were gathered for their descent into those depths. While she gave birth to Divinity Himself, as the FIRE within the Fire. Only Merope knew what this cost her, with the conscious mind having to live in the depths of matter, and having to carry the sting, at times losing the vision of its purpose.

But the Ray of the Divine Flame never left her side, and became the FIRE within the Fire. Thus Vega was established, with Rays and Breath, Light and mystical wonders, infusing the earth, much to the scientists' amazement.

Some began to believe that Merope was some mystical person, but it was never voiced or questioned. Thus she went on and on, silently on her own, placing all into the hands of Theocracy. With man becoming just a puppet, to be pulled whichever way they willed. For Merope had won through, with Divinity her guiding Sponsor.

Thus Vega was born, a World of Utopian Beauty, to be inhabited by the Glories of Spirit. That divinities ruled over by the Divine Fatherhood, were to become the Royal World of the future.

Merope had captured the Abstract MIND Plane, and re-established it upon earth. A World of Art and beauty, where genius can blossom at any moment, under the guiding hand of the divinities. Yet all guided and fostered under the LOVE of the FLAME, the manifesting Glory of the Fatherhood.

No longer grasping and grabbing for the largest coin, but soul searching to find his inner wealth, that it can blossom as LIGHT. All gathered together around the Godhead, the brain cells of a mighty MIND.

for all to be established, and ever continues in the same way, then you must see that man must continually go down into Egypt, the land of bondage, to pay his taxes and gather further experience: (taking these powers of knowledge down into his own darkened states to give them rebirth, his pygmies. Those states that have never come forth are the ones that have to be given rebirth, because you cannot rise up until they are. If you raise the mind and not the pygmies, then you split).

(So you must go down into your night, raise your darkened states, and come forth; but only by your wrestle, and wrestling with the Word, wrestling with self and determining to sacrifice and change self; because you will never lose your pygmies and you will never lose the giants unless you make up your mind and see yourself as you really are; otherwise you hold to them and they hold on to you, and very tenaciously: they don't want to change, they don't want to be lost; they are happy with what they have been dancing in, especially when they have got up into your mind and they have got your mind dancing).

The beginning of a long established lunar year in the autumnal equinox in man, would be the going down into the night for him to put into operation: it is not the taking of the Fire, taking the Wisdom, but the moving of it into operation that becomes his light. So if you refuse to move it into operation and expansion by going down into the night (night of yourself) you never bring into birth the solar god; and those who refuse to do that are those that are barren and bare.

Now it must also be seen that a sister divinity must be required for the equinox that he forsakes: therefore Artemis's Taurean character fits her beautifully into the vernal equinox where she begins her activities of fructifying Apollo's path when he enters down under.

(She receives it, drives it along; he takes it over at the altar, which of course is the polarity to Taurus, generation to regeneration. You have had this given to you before, and I think we can help by bringing forward the Imperfect Calendar.

Now there is one who has not sent it forward; merely let it stay at the desires of karma, the desires of self, (instead of moving all round to the 8th house, and in the moving round acquiring wisdom and activity), so it cannot get out of the 8th house and become the unity of regeneration in Sagittarius, the winged mind. Until this can be done the soul goes down into darkness and becomes lost. The struggle then is for Uranus to bring activity, rebirth: the soul dancing with wisdom. If you can understand that, then you will understand why she begins her activities at fructifying Apollo's path when he enters down under).

The arrangement will be different at the two equinoxes because a lunar year is 354 days and a solar year is 365 (requiring that 10 to bring all onto the expansion of the next plane), but the end is the same whereby between the two a perfect year for Zeus is devised at the solstice. These cannot be wrong in Nature herself, but unless man brings the same to a balance he will not get the perfect year raised up on his mount of becoming.

In all the chief temples of Apollo, Diana was worshipped as his sister, as well as Osiris and Isis. Thus when you realise that these are but creations formed by your own soul in the past, you can understand why such still prevails within as desires. Man has only changed from a standpoint of religious beliefs, and Artemis is still a partner of his nature and his actions, and as much a part of the deity as the solar God. Man hasn't changed in the slightest degree as far as purpose and wisdom are concerned.

Thus both Artemis and Apollo were the children of Latona, the city of the hewed stone, and were equally rulers of the temple of Delphi, and furthermore, sharers in the victory over the Python, the flight and the expiation. And when we say both were honoured in the Pythian Games together with Latona, the hewing of stones, we can further understand why the worship was believed to have come from the Hyperboreans. For it means there has been a uniting between the heights and the depths, and evolution is making headway.

Both brother and sister are armed with bow, quiver and arrows and send plagues and death among men and animals as the alchemicalisation moves on its way (for they bring all into change): though her arrows rattle and his clang, she has a golden distaff and he has a golden sword (whereby he cuts off the heads bringing activity and bursts of new life).

Then you find that Artemis takes pleasure in the lyre and in choirs of singers, herself being honoured with song and the paeon; while the laurel, the tree whence the oracles of Apollo are spoken, is sacred to her also. Therefore it can be seen they work hand in hand, and when Apollo sits at the right hand of Zeus, Artemis comes to Jove's abode and sits beside Apollo, making a perfect unity (Sun, Moon and expansion) and she goes forth increased in number (because Jove's abode is the fatherhood that comes out of the two).

This brings a new settlement of TIME. Thus both the Autumnal year and the vernal year, made true like the year of Zeus; then things will be equal to one another.

Duality of the Divine Fire

THIS indicates more clearly why Artemis as the feminine Principle is associated with all the activities at Delphi, the solar plexus, especially regarding the Python (the fire), because she is the creation that represents the precession error, that which had to be corrected in both equinoxes alike. (She is the one that had to be changed into the solar, because it is the solar-child that is coming forth).

Yet we must not overlook that the Hyperborean origin is common to both divinities, because in supplementing the defective year, they are restoring what belonged to it when it was measured by the stars and ruled by the Polar divinity: (before man turned from the ways of the heavens into the ways of just mere desire). We must not forget that these Polar divinities have fared badly at the hands of Cronos and Zeus through the ways of man, for the former badly mutilated Uranus and introduced lunar months, the feminine or negative desires. Zeus, acting in expansion through the soul, changed Lycaon into a wolf and Callisto into a bear: (states that ravage the soul).

Callisto, she who was beautifully crowned by Demeter, was loved by Zeus though seduced, yet he, through force

Taurus and left a statue of the Taurian goddess (desires). (Two states that were brought into operation by souls who were beginning to create in Sodom and Gomorrah). Both were of the wolves and lions and left their influence in the city: thus a festival was held every fifth year, with the chief solemnity being girls dressed in crocus garments walking in solemn procession. (So you can now see what was put into operation, when you see them walking round with the Solar-god on a cross).

While a goat was sacrificed they danced a bear dance (trying to rouse activity: the Solar fires, not as Light and Life, but as the fires of the raise the fires). This could give the ardent astrologer some food for thought and reason for experience, for much has never yet been expounded in this direction.

(So those under Aries, the pioneer, should now be labouring to master the bear, because that is the sign that has to labour and hold the bear in check, so that the bears in Taurus can be raised up to the heights. But once these fires escape through Aries and merely become a bear rampant, then Taurus is completely out of hand and never controlled).

The Daedala days of Hera's festival, those cunningly wrought but not embroidered, had not actually been inserted in the calendar which carried the spring festival to the winter solstice and which had been introduced by Danaus, he that was earth-born (and earth-bound).

So what we have to look for regarding Artemis is an intercalary that will properly supplement the vernal year, that she can carry it all through her dancing and up to her lord. The Moon is very closely associated with all souls, therefore carries the soul's heredity right back into the beginning of time when the Matriarchate ruled the world and literally is the root of the Cancer influence.

This brings closely in the soul's identity the Artemis influence of the festival held at Bubastes when she reigned as the Egyptian Cat-goddess Pasht. Here Pasht the Cat was the double of Sekhet the Lioness (the magnetic force). She then was an intercalary month, a second Leo inserted in the 120th year and embodying the fragments of time which had been neglected.

Great powers were drawn down then which brought to Egypt its great wealth, power and strength, and is the sort of intercalary required by the vernal year of Zeus to bring into being the mind growth that now is lost to the negative side of the lunar: (for then they knew how to draw down the Fire and interblend it in the mind by study).

The Egyptians were great priests for study, and all who could enter into the temple entered in; first of all into minor temples, and then into the heights. Many rich souls were brought forth and great wisdom was installed into matter that eventually became lost in Crete and Arkadia, where it was badly devastated). This would give the expansion that man is requiring, for he is lacking in reverence to the heights through the erroneous wisdom of orthodox religion.

The Cosmic Heritage of Man

IN Egypt the Pasht festival was the Festival of the Tail because it was associated with the tail-stars of the Little Bear, which to the Egyptians was the Jackal or the Wolf (he that was bribing them on to find greater wisdom, but not to come down as that out of control to become the Jackal or the Wolf in the soul).

THE NIGHT OF THE SOUL

NO ONE need fear the states that might be lying in their depths, for by diligent study and application of the Word, all past creations can be buried-in and brought into Light. If the soul is genuine in its efforts, then the night of the soul will soon be blossomed into the radiating Solar Light of the god-born mind. (See text in col. 1).

of circumstances, took on Lycaean characters himself: (that which was forced onto him by the mind and the ways of the soul). Therefore, since Artemis plays a part in all things, she would be associated with the Bear, a she-bear being one of her symbols: (so the solar heights within the man could be no more than his thoughts).

She was worshipped at Athens as Arktos, or ursus arctos the brown bear, and in accordance girls were appointed to the service of Artemis Brauronia as cancer arctus and were dressed to represent bears. Therefore the statue of a bear guarded her temple, and as Callisto she was introduced into the national genealogies and called the daughter of Lycaon and the mother of Arcas.

Though it has even been fabled that Callisto was actually turned into a bear by Diana out of mere anger: (the movement of one into the other, because they all turn into the lunar states and they merely become bears covered with fur, desires of life. Instead of the Solar god, the lunar state in its lunar activity: all began to go down instead of going up).

The festival of Bears was held in the attic town of Brauron, the city of Tauris where Orestes and Iphigenia landed on their return from generative organs: the primitives trying to rouse their activity, in the same way as it is being done today. Seeking of the phallus and the phallus creation, but not in the way that they were in the beginning, as wisdom, but as desires): consequently all had to be consecrated to the Bear. Thus it can be seen why the Moon was allotted as ruler to Cancer, the constellation of the Bear: (the desires of the bowels).

Some fables declare that there was a close relation between Callisto and the Arcadian Artemis, and that much totemic worship regarding the bear and Artemis was once performed. This points out to the modern man how much of the bear is in his own character waiting to be transformed, for TIME reveals, as history hidden in the fables, that Artemis coming in as the sister of Apollo and holding an important place in a revised calendar, makes the year of Zeus perfect which hitherto had begun at the vernal equinox in Taurus.

That year, although consisting of 365 days, was practically without any intercalary, and of course remains the same now in the zodiacal chart from its position in the segments (but to be brought forth by you into a richness of intercalaries and the richness of the harvest when you struggle with the Word and

The ancient star-worshippers used that constellation as a celestial clock to tell the hours and the seasons; but unfortunately their calendar year was defective; (they had not yet understood the real true meaning of those Powers; they were only in the beginning of understanding), and when they brought it up to 365 days it still remained short of six hours.

(They did not understand of the Horae; it had not yet truly come into birth as the froth,—the division between the old year and the new year in those six hours when there is no time. On the 21st of December at midnight, when the Virgin goes up and she enters into the Solar Light,—in those six hours, time stands still, to gather up the froth collected over all the year. Not the 25th December, which has become a saint day, but the 21st, which belongs to the Gods and should be revered by all souls who are truly seeking).

Consequently a discrepancy was started and went on increasing until a whole month was lacking; so they celebrated the Feast of the Tail, that which brought the Balance in honour of Pasht who was placed at the end of the year by the side of Leo, the summer solstice, the original period when karma was established. Then later on the ancient Greeks applied the same; Lycaon stood for the Jackal of the Pole and his daughter Callisto filled the place of Pasht: (all began to deteriorate because all had turned into desire); therefore the Bear constellation in the sky remained to keep her in remembrance.

When man can understand of his heritage he will begin to realise where all the psychological difficulties that now arise, have come from. He must accept the wisdom and depth of an ancient soul and not just the heritage of family life (his own ancient soul that has come forth right from the beginning); for why should he be burdened with that which belongs to thousands of others if they have no connection with him.

Nature may be cruel, but not as unbalanced as that, otherwise man could not claim of karma. The soul is thousands of years old and carries its own stigma from the beginning to the end; of this he eradicates by rebirth, and redemption of past lives in the form of ancestors, manes, lares, Cyclops and pygmies; (by drawing in of the powers and transmuting those powers into Solar light, and the two blending together and becoming the raised up mind).

So by history revealing its message through the fables, myths and legends, man is able to see many things now that could have remained a complete enigma. It is obvious that Artemis is Callisto revived and hardly changed at all, except that she serves the vernal equinox instead of the autumnal.

The myths describe Artemis and Callisto as companions in the chase, for the Moon is allotted to Cancer, the constellation of Ursa Major. (The lunar state that has ever moved on and now become the Solar, because the Solar light is that which man is worshipping now; not the Lunar; she now is the dancing personality, the feminine principle. So in the beginning man knew nothing else but the Feminine Principle, the Motherhood; he never brought forth anything else, but she was bringing forth the starry heights).

The she-bear in the myth was a symbol of Artemis, and the little girl bears who made the procession at Brauron were the children of time long unmothered: (all those feminine states that had to be mothered into the solar).

The tradition that a bear had been killed was that Zeus had destroyed Lycaon and Callisto in his attempting to bring into birth of wisdom out of his reach, and like Phaeton, had crashed. (He tried to bring knowledge into birth, and in crashing, all the wisdom he brought fell down into the depths, and the festival was never installed. Thus Callisto fell with him, and Artemis in that which he was seeking, was resuscitated).

(So you can see the importance of this Temple remaining intact at all costs; otherwise what was brought into birth would be nothing more than Phaeton going down into the density of Lunar creation. And those who would play any part in dragging down such a Temple will go down into Hades for thousands of years).

MASTERY OF THE BEAST

EVERY initiate must master the beast that lurks in the depths of the soul; divine powers that he has dragged down over the ages into the desire-ridden conditions of the depths. Yet as he so perceives the true glories of these powers, and seeks to re-establish of their wonders, will he find that what was once the beast, has now become the risen-up glories of the Christos Light, and Pluto has been redeemed and released from out of the underworld. (See text in col. 1).

We must realise all the way through this investigation that we are dealing with roots buried in the soul, and that which was fabled is now voicing that which can help posterity at a time when they have lost all understanding of the deeper truths that would solve their problems.

Man still has these states as roots, that which has not yet been transmuted, apart from the fact he has powers within drawn from the past that now have to be handled and re-orientated. By the myths he is able to recognise the many mistakes that he is still capable of committing, and how he must try and guard against those conditions and reorientate them to prevent disaster through them becoming incestuous.

The Moon has been the means of carrying time forward into action that Apollo could be resuscitated in man himself, thus retain energy and life in the evolving state of creation, and slowly bring into birth the solar regime of the Jupiter Age. But man has been loth to relinquish of the lunar depths, which Artemis activates into form through the constellation of the Bear and the constellation of the Goat; thus there is a continual striving for supremacy between the Moon and Saturn, which results in bears being slaughtered in sacrifice: (man being bitten).

Yet all the way along her path of time and posterity the goddess takes on different characters; the Taurean Artemis, then Artemis the sister of Apollo and Diana of the Ephesians. (One in the first place as the desires, then as the sister of Apollo, as he brings the changes and she dances with him; and finally as Diana of the Ephesians, as he who seeks to nurture mankind: because he only does it through his feminine state which is that of the Taurean and that of the lunar).

The Taurean goddess to whom sacrifices were offered would be the vernal equinox divinity and with many characteristics still clinging to her; (because, as you know, she goes round and gathers up; and she can only gather up what is within the soul. But when the soul wrestles through the mind and sees new thought, and puts into operation new desires and new purposes, then he helps her to see the truth and hold on to the truth; and between them they are able to change those desires and states within the soul, but only by the soul studying the Word, seeing the depth and clinging to that knowledge, and determining that they are going to change themselves by sacrifice).

Then she will become purified again and, as the true sister of Apollo, she will be the means of drawing them all into rebirth; but only by the soul desperately studying the Word, seeing the reason why he should do these things; seeing the purpose that the Word is conveying.

This is the struggle of the Teacher I am using. She knows that the Word can change man, as it has helped her to become re-born to become the Teacher. She knows that this Word can go out onto the netherworld when it is truly activated and spun into light. I bring it forth through this instrument, after she has laboured).

It seems that all through time the driving of the equinoxes into the solstices is the purpose and work of Artemis. But perhaps it can be seen more clearly of her activities when we say that Artemis was not really the Moon any more than Helios was the Sun, but the comparison between the two, and the hunting that has to take place when any festival escapes from its place and is not really sending forth of its real powers from the starry heights.

But if it can be seen that as she moves from one equinox to another she literally changes her identity from the Pasht goddess to Diana, then you have the full significance of the fable. For she is the arrow queen and delights in the chase, and makes sure that Bacchus finds the wisdom he requires to equip the archer with the arrows he requires to pierce the eye of Aldebaran (in the Bull).

(For as she moves through your being and you get the Word spinning within you, she changes herself all along the periods of time; the soul changing its garments with every move along the equinox; as the soul refused to give in, and as he refused as the solar god to give in to her whims, she had to change her garments and take on the greater creation).

In most fables she is seen with dogs that help the hunting in the netherworld (mind-memory), but become as Cerberus in the underworld; (the three-headed dog that prevents the soul from coming out once it gets under). That is the mind-memory that becomes her chariot all through the drive. In some works of art she is seen with wings, or clad in the skin of a deer.

Sometimes she has a quiver on her shoulders, a lamp in her hand and even serpents. But as the Bear-goddess she is the honoured sister of Apollo, the stars of a northern constellation that supply earth with the wisdom she requires at the present day; thus she is the chase goddess of the present equinoctial calendar: (the lunar chasing the solar, and through generation and regeneration, bringing into birth the higher mind).

In the one reading, can you grasp something of what I am trying to tell you? The chasing of the Word, the moving of the Word; never allowing it to stand still; trying to find the answer to all Creation. And then she can move on into the heights as the mind, for she dies into the Solar as she gives of her life that he can be born. Then she comes forth and starts again as the new moon begins.

If you can study this it could bring you a vast amount of Wealth; for it is going to tell you why you should wrestle and struggle, and what is going to happen if you do not do so. It is giving you the understanding of how you can change the past into the present and bring forth the future; because the future that comes out of that is the mind raised up, but it is going to be the mind that is going to give you the answer for tomorrow. And as you struggle and see this depth you are going to find those states within you changing also. So do not get out of control, but hold on and wrestle, especially when you find these states commanding you.

THE BLESSING

*P*OUR forth thy Great Blessing upon the word that has been left with mankind tonight. May thy Word be blessed, for wealth as never known before is now within his keeping as the explanation of his own creations. Pour down thy Blessing, Great Ones; pour the Oil into his heart and into his mind; into his beliefs, into his purpose, that once again the forty thieves can be retrieved and Artemis can gather of the Wealth. Amen.

Miss S. H., Yorkshire.

"Is eight years old and suffers with asthma."

It is indeed a very very sad thing for one so young to be subject to this rather dreadful complaint. (See chart 1556). But as I have through the years been a victim to such, I know I can help this young soul. Those who have this complaint are souls who have made considerable growth, and although this child is only eight years old, she has made such growth in the past.

This child has a brilliant chart, but she has not built up any 'fire,' and 'fire' can only come through expansion of the mind through the Word. This she would have to bring about by going into the depths of Occultism, but this of course will be very difficult with one so young, and she will certainly not be receiving very much help in this direction while attending school.

She has built up 2 Air bodies, but she has 5 Earth. She is only 2 positive with 8 negative, and with these points in mind it is easy to see what is her real difficulty.

Somewhere in the past she has made considerable growth, which I feel goes back as far as that of ancient Egypt, and I also see the Hebrew race with her in the past whereby, as such, she would have gathered a great deal of wisdom, for the Hebrews were the beginners of the real true Occultism.

Her Path of Destiny is in the 9th house, where she has to bring expanded wisdom, but since it is in the sign of Libra, this naturally means that she has to bring balance to all that she has taken. This can be seen by her 8th house planets, because in her 8th house she has the Moon, Pluto and Uranus, and there would appear to be a somewhat wide division here.

She has indeed gathered wisdom, but it appears that she has not been able to bring it to its true perspective of one-ness; there seems to have been a fair amount of 'multiplicity.' If she had been ready now to have imbibed the present Teachings, these would have helped her considerably, but she is a little too young to be able to receive any help from them just yet. The main thing to watch is what is going to happen when this child comes to her puberty.

Asthma is really caused by the Seed or Atom, which is in the sternum bone, not rising up to the Norm (the pineal gland). Once upon a time it was in the Norm, but through the 'Fall,' it fell down to the sternum bone. Behind the sternum bone, of course, there is the thoracic pool where all the glands gather together. This is, at the present, doing nothing else but gather up waste, and filling up the bronchi of the lungs with that waste.

Well, there is only one thing for anybody suffering with asthma to do, and that is to adhere to a rigid diet, most rigid. On no account should any form of thick soup be taken; I have found them to be most disastrous. Any kind of starchy bread or puddings should be avoided, and the taking of too many sweets would have to be watched. The taking of tea and coffee is also very dangerous. This complaint calls for the most rigid diet, and it was only when I turned to a rigid diet that I was able to bring myself out of the throes of an asthmatic condition.

The particular Chart I am dealing with shows the soul to be extremely brilliant. Her Sun and her Neptune are both up in the 10th house in Scorpio, while even her Mercury and her Venus are in the 10th house in Libra; showing that she is more than ready to start expounding and bringing forth of the internal wisdom that is with her.

Her Mars is in the 11th house, and is in Scorpio. This is what gives me the intimation that somewhere in the past she was of the Hebrew race and was deeply immersed in the wisdom of the Hebrews. If, of course, she was in any way connected with the Levi tribe, she would have delved into the very depths of Occultism. So I feel very strongly that this was the position of this soul in the past.

Now since the 2nd and the 8th houses are both heavily inhabited this indicates that there has to be the union between Taurus and Scorpio, 'the dance up and down the spine,' which has to be done through the 'taking of the Word.' It is quite obvious, without any doubt, that wisdom in abundance has been taken by this girl, but there has been no actual 'fire' built up, none whatever.

Her Saturn is in the 2nd house, and would automatically be 'sitting' between the horns of the Bull; instead of the Bull going back and forth trying to get the Sun between his horns, he has Saturn there, and unless he does get that 'dance,' there never will be the drawing-in of the Seed.

Sagittarius upon the 1st house indicates that this soul has come back to expound the wisdom, so it is essential that she is brought up to imbibe wisdom on the highest possible level. But at the moment I do not see what can be done with one so young. Only if they were in the Temple, with the wisdom dancing around them, would there be this opportunity, and even then, one so young would probably not be able to understand it in the light they should do.

I can only suggest that this soul partakes of a rigid diet, and herb pills would help her considerably at the present time, especially those containing a mixture of herbs suitable for bronchial trouble.

The planets in the 8th house indicate that there has been a very 'mixed' state with regard to her expansion. Expansion has been made alright, but it has not been made in the correct way. But this Chart reflects very clearly what has been experienced all through the Ages, whereby wisdom has been taken, expansion has been made, a struggle has been put into operation, and then more difficulties built up. This is clearly shown by the Dragon's head and the Dragon's tail, which are in the 8th and 2nd houses respectively. So there has been no unification of the heights and the depths to bring 'fire' into the 'inner bodies' of the soul.

I do feel that great care will have to be taken of this child when she reaches the age of puberty, because the tendencies shown in the Chart indicate that there can be a very wide expansion in the generative bodies, and what this could bring forth is yet to be seen.

In this Day and Age, when things are so mixed and the influences not too good, this one could easily be prompted to follow the wrong direction. That is why I do feel she needs to be watched very carefully and trained in the right way, for she has Sun in Scorpio and Neptune in Scorpio, and there is such profound wisdom in the 10th house waiting to be put into action whereby she should be giving 'service,' but this service could be in two directions.

On no account should this child be allowed to come into contact with drugs, on no account whatsoever!

Religion would be of no use to this soul at all. There is only one solution, and that is for her to receive wisdom, and wisdom on the very highest level, because it would be the taking of inferior knowledge, or religious dogma, which could lead them upon the wrong path.

Her Mars in the 11th house in Scorpio is most important of all, and the 11th being the house of the spirit, there could be activation in the lower states of Scorpio, and not into its higher state. So there is a great need for care here, a very great need indeed, whereby this child can be led into the right direction.

Again, Scorpio will rule very much the generative faculties, particularly the womb. On no account allow any operation to take place with the child as she grows older, because she may show unusual tendencies due to the volume of wealth that is with her.

Above all, this child should be encouraged to imbibe wisdom of the very very highest, and given the necessary herbs to assist her.

Mrs. P. C., Surrey.

"Wants a child, but had a miscarriage last June."

Now I am coming to an entirely different status altogether, and I am afraid that what I am going to say will not be very much welcomed by everybody. But again, I speak from experience, and I do not want you to turn round and say, "Well, if your experiences have been bitter, why pass them on to us." This is not my motive at all, for I am passing them on in the way I know to be correct. This soul has written to us in regard to child birth. They are wanting a family, and I rather gather that they have no family at present. She was expecting a child, but had a miscarriage in June 1968, which came about as her Moon was making a conjunction with the Dragon's tail up in the 9th house, the house of expansion. (See chart 1548).

Now I want to say to this soul, when we come back to the Earth we do so on a path which is prepared for us, even if the medical world or any others try to dispute this. There is only one person who can alter this world, and that is the soul itself.

You came back on this path, friend, to either walk a childless life, or to wait until later on, when you may be given a child. Why try and force the issue? You are trying to force the issue in regard to something you want, out of context with what you can have.

Your idea is that a child will bring you the answer to life. Well, it might be,—from the point of possessing a child,—that you will get expansion of yourself through the child, but it will not necessarily bring you the happiness which you hope for.

Oh no! Children hardly ever do that; and this is where people make a very big mistake. Children can bring you the greatest sadness in the world, whereby you wonder what you suffered for in bringing them into birth, when the lady-love or the gentleman friend comes along, and you are forgotten. Not that you expect to stand in their light, but you need not be forgotten, especially when you have given all for them to come into birth, sometimes very bitterly too. I would say to you, do not, under any circumstances, force the issue.

In your 6th house, you have Saturn retrograde, and Pluto retrograde. This explains the chaos you are experiencing when you are in pregnancy. As soon as you enter into a state of pregnancy, you experience this condition because you have really come back to expand your mind. It is obvious that there is a very very unsettled state with you, almost to chaos, and there is a terrible state of multiplicity with you. This is entirely your own fault, for I see that your Path of Destiny is in the 11th house, the house of the spirit, in Capricorn.

I definitely feel that you have been a nun in the past, where you have experienced a forced state of ritual and dogma. This makes me very sad, because a lot of this has gone on, and many a woman has come back as a spastic, and with many other states of sickness, even to being unable to give birth to a child. All this is due to the 'inner bodies' having been put into a confused state.

The Mysteries literally mean the unfolding of the mystical states within the soul, so that the soul can be born of the higher elements. The soul, as an Atom, having dropped in vibration to a lower degree to gain experience, has got to find its 'way back.'

The soul has to put these experiences into operation and polarise them, so that he can bury in his 'roots.' If he does not do this, he is going to have them in abundance within him, but he will not find the answer by just having children, although this does give expansion to a woman, because she finds she can get expansion in no other way, unless of course, she builds up her mind. This is what woman has not done, over the Ages. She has been very very foolish, and even now, when she has the opportunity, I am not so sure that she puts it into action as much as she should do.

In your 1st house you have Sun and Mars, with Mercury (the mind) retrograde; all in Pisces, which is the sign of multiplicity; and I still say you have got multiplicity, which you will have to try and get blended in. This is why you get headaches and nose-bleedings, because you are allowing all these segregated states in abundance, to just play havoc with you.

Your Moon in Aquarius would indicate that you can say one thing, and do another. This is not good; you have to learn to acquire a policy of direct purpose. If you will only follow this, then those states which are causing you so much tragedy will straighten themselves out. You must not allow inertia to get the better of you.

Another thing I notice is that you have Neptune in the 7th house in Libra. You must

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 25

GREATER NETTLE

(Urtica Dioica)

by David Spearman-Cook

DURING this month of August the Greater Nettle, (Urtica Dioica), is in its fullest united strength, as a herb of strong and wonderful healing properties. It is a herb which requires the least of preparation, and is extremely hardy, so much so, as to be able to endure almost any climatical change in its surrounding habitat.

AMONG its many qualities, it has been known to be very beneficial where there is an inert muscular, or nervous condition of the soul. For it can activate, and above all, fire any portion of the skin with an active infusion of power, that can be received from no other plant. To be impregnated with the stings from this herb, especially around stiffened joints or muscles, can bring dynamic results.

Nettles seem to expel an immense power that activates the surrounding area with a certain amount of warmth. Thus it can be understood why many farmers never cut the Nettles that grow so profusely, and accept them as a living ring of protective fiery warmth. This can be detected as one walks around the farm precincts, or amongst the living animal vibrations within the farm walls. All this is not entirely animal heat, as would soon be detected if the Nettles were instantly cut down and cleared away.

It would then be noticeable as to the barrenness that was suddenly revealed, regardless of the protection offered by the surrounding outer barrier of the farmyard walls. Here is where one can begin to appreciate the marvels of Mother Nature, and admire the way in which she gives so freely.

In the more hardy days of the past, during the horse-play amongst the old pioneers of group activity, and the open air camping sprees, many a slow backward youth found himself initiated into the Nettles on a moonlit night. Although as drastic as it may seem, this did do wonders, much to the dismay of any who could not see the depths of the deed, the results in most cases being truly amazing. This was upheld through the wisdom of the Roman Legionnaires, who on hearing of the cold barrenness of England, brought the Nettle seed with them, spreading it as they conquered.

When it had grown, not only did they boil and eat it, but also used it to warm themselves when trapped in the English climate, under siege, or encamped in some outlandish position. By them allowing the Nettles to sting their cold bodies, it infused them with an added form of strength, which I am sure to them was undeniable, as they tried to weather our English climate. But if they had sought for expansion, the seriously inert states of England would not have affected them so easily.

Therefore Nettles are marvellous for assisting all to gather strength and will, to drive themselves into a form of activation of mind or body. It is thus a good basic for any form of sickness, and it is now simpler to understand why the Romanies ate them as a vegetable, some going even so far as to filling their mattresses with the fresh cuttings. Thereby assisting them to withstand the surrounding elements, far more than we who seek of luxury and artificial comfort.

It is most essential that this herb is given the finest care when being dried, for it must be well risen up away from any form of earth contact at this time. For once it has lost its strength from the severed root, all must be quickly dried and preserved. Otherwise Mother Earth will recall her own, and the fiery strength of the herb could be lost to her magnetic attraction. Very much the same as the spirit of man leaving the body at the moment of passing.

THE Nettle is very good for the internal activity of the veins, for it helps to strengthen them as they constantly battle to assist the blood to move upon its journey. Many who are suffering with the thickness of their blood are seeking for all kinds of cures, for this condition can cause constant pain. It is also a well-known fact that the slowed-up condition of the blood does close down the capacity of thinking.

GREATER NETTLE

A warm Nettle poultice can ease many deep-rooted pains, and bring a welcome soothing to teeth aching through decay. For as the nervous system finds it difficult to assimilate the organic waste, so the power of the Nettle can draw it away, leaving a comfortable release-ment.

By adding Nettles to other herbs, they can render an extra power of force to each specially selected combination, and enhance the all-round healing qualities of each individual infusion by at least twenty-five per-cent.

Nettles and Celandine are very good for counteracting the condition of worms, for they can, as a combined scourger, remove such unwelcome 'visitors' from any part of the body.

A state such as this is a positive sign that the soul has reached a very low physical condition, this being due to a drop in their mind frequency, and it is most imperative that they raise themselves up out of the depths they have surely fallen into. This state of worms with a soul is a very severe warning, and one which should be well heeded.

Nettles are very good for the teeth, for they can assimilate acidity in and around the gums. This also helps to strengthen the roots when the revitalising Solar power is not replacing the negative deteriorated state of the body with renewed life.

An infusion of Nettles and Fennel Seed can help the vascular function of the Thyroid to re-oscillate upon the upper palate of the mouth, and assist the changing positive soul, through the down-pouring Waters, to reach up onto a higher frequency of tone vibration.

WHEN the Ancients first drew down Powers, they in their devotion searched most desperately for food, not only for the Spirit, but also for the many followers around them. As they did so, seeds not only within themselves as expandable power of mind expression, but also seeds of a polarising degree, that became seeds of their earthy depths, began to grow in accordance with their frequency of mind, within the soil of the Earth itself.

Dear Editor,

Reading once again the article by Mrs. Spearman-Cook in February 1969 issue, "Lunar Tomfoolery," the marvellous reasoning and Truth of the article came forth. The utter tragedy of mankind is that mesmerised by the power of press, T.V., and radio, he has ceased to be able to think and fast losing what little sensitivity remained. He does not see what she has been doing for Divinity and man, so that they both may be joined in Holy Union.

To do what the Americans are doing and have done, leading the world backwards over Time, and in the illusion of Non-Reality building an image fixture in Space of yesterday, is to bring man to mere mindless animals. Merope was leading Man up unto those Spheres of Divinity by teaching us all how to build up a mind frequency of Light, so that he could become a Divine instrumental Being of the Galactic FIRE, imbibed through the Breath.

All that the scientists have done is to rape the Home of Divinity and trespass upon the Great Powers, Powers of Frequency far beyond their dense thoughts, and now will have to meet the LAW,—live what they are doing, but in True Mind Frequency, or suffer the comeback of such Powers. This can only lead to mental disease becoming even more widespread in the U.S.A. and everywhere else where they turn and read this rubbish being put forth.

For weeks we have had brilliant Sunshine, the Great Face of Solar Divinity flooding the world with His Life-giving Rays, and the warmth of His Holy FIRE, all through the efforts of Mrs. Spearman-Cook bringing her frequency up to the Plane of the Central Sun, and the Great Spheres of Neptune and Pluto. Why man is so utterly lunatic to follow the work of the scientists, their density, and their machined robot-controlled minds, which bring no Light of any kind save the stark pallor of mindlessness, is a mystery.

Dante years ago was able to see into the dense spheres of the Astral planes, states of unreality built by mankind in their blindness and illusion, but very real to the soul who has done the building. This has happened with the moon manifestation, the darkened spheres of astral density being brought to manifestation purely through the illusory belief of scientist-led man. This proves the Powers inherent in man, and the powers of his thoughts.

If he can build such falsity why not be led by Mrs. Spearman-Cook into building the True Immortal Garment of Solar Mind, which she was describing in the February article. Going forwards into Timelessness and Immortality and not backwards into time and creating cold lifeless illusion. The choice is plainly before all Mankind. Either the radiance of a Solar Immortal Mind giving Eternal LIFE, united to the Spheres of Divinity, or the dead lifeless, spiritless, changeless illusion of Dante's world, so graphically pictured by Gustave Dore, the lunar mindless creation of self and mind-desire. Man must now choose.

Thanks to Mrs. Spearman-Cook she has taught us Reality, Truth and Light; freedom from machine, form and density; freedom from the hell of drug, knife, mindlessness and mere animal existence. I for one thank God she has given us this Priceless Wisdom, and I choose the Solar Path of Life, Truth and MIND.

Therefore one can see why a person drawing and creating Seeds of the spirit, upon a Solar level, would also create herbal seeds of a Solar influence. Hence the differentials of healing and soothing powers of the numerous types of herbs in existence as unto a Solar or lunar prototype, all being created out of the one Solar Atomic Breath.

So it can be seen how one soul, such as Merope, drawing on the Solar influence can change everything in man, as well as create Solar food for his mind and body consumption, and why other foods, especially animal flesh will not be able to survive in this new land of Vega.

Nettles, Dandelion, and Agrimony, will inflame the soul into a surprising state of elevation, once it commences to initiate upon the path of the new mind propensity. For they can assist all the main organic functions of Heart, Lungs, Kidneys, etc., into new vitalising conditions, which will automatically step up the frequency rating that a soul is living upon.

It is most essential when these herbs are consumed, not to infringe one's initiatory vows of renunciation; if so, the expansion that could have been captured, will be lost to the turning back to one or more of the desires, which the soul had previously struggled to discard. The soul gaining in one direction and losing in the other.

Nettles and Comfrey, with a little Rosemary added also, can well assist the layman who is suffering with a decreased amount of drive, to activate his mind outlook. Thereby making him a more positive candidate to express his belief more fervently. This is a simple cure, where indulging in it can prove its worth.

Some find that taking Nettles brings out a rash: this is because they are filled with over-heated false fire, and the Nettles are forcing it out of the system. It is the soul at fault, not the herb.

Next month we will bring the mystery of the Oak Bark and its many healing properties.

have built up, during your life as a nun, quite a secret inner adoration, which could have amounted to a divine abstract state, because Neptune is of the abstract, and you could have touched the abstract by the elevation that was put into operation; but being in Libra, it never found balance.

You have come back, of course, to put this into operation. The majority of things in the 7th house are very hard to move, but it is something you have to learn to do, move it on by accepting the New Law.

I also notice that you have Jupiter retrograde in Scorpio in the 8th house, down the pit. Well, well, well! This indicates a retention of your lower parts; the retention that was brought about with your sexual organs when you were a nun, which has caused your biggest difficulty. You never had the power of 'dancing expansion.'

Until man changes over from 'mortal' to 'immortal' he is going to meet the sex problem, but if met in the proper way, by divine embracement, it will right itself without any major difficulty.

But you see, as that nun, you were lifted up and up, driven up by mere ritual and dogma 'in embracement,' as you thought, to the Christ, but you never brought expansion to the changed status in your generative parts, which has caused a twisted state in your ovary assimilation, so that whatever you take back from the ovaries will not correspond with your present day unfoldment.

My advice to you is, if you must have a child, then adopt one. If not, then get down to expansion of the mind, and dance with the Glories of the Spirit, for this is what you were intended to do, on this particular journey of life and experience.

Mythology Part 6b

SELENE

NOW HAVING SEEN ARTEMIS IN THE LIGHT OF COSMIC REALITY, LET US NOW SEE HER IN THE ACT OF fulfilling the intercalaries. But let us first of all recognise fully of what is meant by the intercalaries. As the agriculturist had the need to know the times for sowing, so the soul needs to understand the periods whereby to draw down into their being life and power. Therefore the priest-astronomers were the solicitous ones who brought about the religious festivals where the many gathered together and supped of the Wine drawn down by their altar supplications. Thus to keep these days in order of their appropriate times the calendar must be in accord with Nature, for on their correct computation, Order and Harmony depended. This is still so, but man has so converted these Natural Orders into orthodox worship, that their real and appropriate times are lost, both in purpose and accuracy. Now it is a matter of worshipping saints, and not those original creations put into birth.

(This Temple is creating a festival; a festival that will bring the soul a continual round of wisdom; thus it is an imprint and a branch blossoming upon time; so that as time goes on, it will be by those Powers that my Instrument brought down into life that the soul can go on drawing those Powers of Universal Thought; but by none other: for it is the Pipeline, it is the intercalary; it is her creation, the creation put into operation by the Will of the Gods through her mind and her Purpose).

Harmony of the Astronomical Laws

LAW and Justice, Order and Harmony are so intimately associated with these days that the days are really more sacred than man realises. Thus what is now licence and revelry was once sacred days when the purpose was realised, and that received was raised to a higher level within the soul and Nature herself. Consequently it was sanctified to religious and intellectual uses, for that which was received was phenomenal, and the life necessary to raise the productive issues of life itself.

As man now merely seeks into astronomical wisdom for wisdom's sake, and scientific investigation of Cosmic rays to see what he can capture commercially, man can by faith and belief draw those qualities down into his being and become raised up to those heights in wisdom and soul transcendency. This is the correct and natural way for the soul to evolve; the way that has been afforded through all the kingdoms. Thus why should it be changed now?

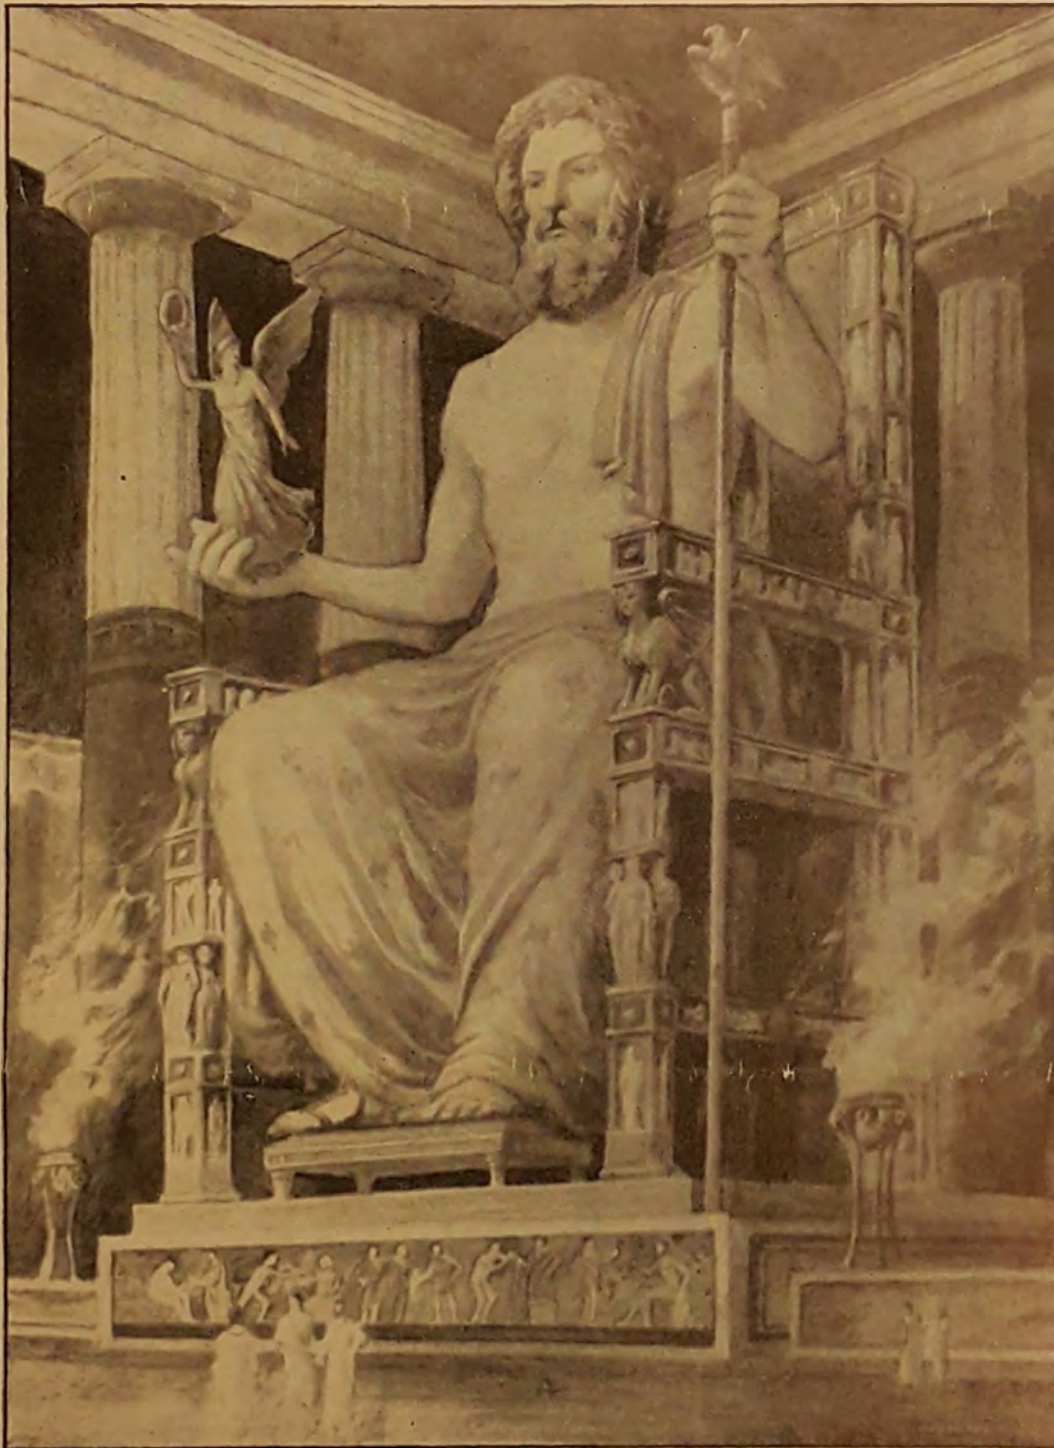

Lethargy has been the curse through all the ages, and is the depth of the myth regarding Endymion and Selene. When the soul regards the festival days with true awe and reverence, he will ever be drawing into his being those phenomenal powers that he requires to resuscitate those physical and psychical qualities that he needs to become the man born of God.

Therefore if you can see the intercalaries as those festival days that bring the year to a fulness, and that which is gathered becomes your harvest to go up into the granary of the solar god, then you will see the importance of the myths in connection with the zodiacal explanation. (The granary of the solar god would be the Omphalos stone that would go up to the heights of the mind, and become the fatherhood in the mind).

The Muses do not preside over mere revelry, but over the study of science, poetry and fine arts in their possible means of revealing to man those things he has yet to acquire to bring the soul up onto the next kingdom of manifestation. As they were supposed to spring from the blood-drops of Uranus, they still do; for unless Cronos is raised up from the depths into the heights by the thunderbolt of Zeus, man will become a mere solid stone by continual incest into worldly ignorance.

Once upon a time the year was only 360 days and when in Egypt it was realised that this number did not bring the festivals to their appropriate times, the five extra days to bring all into order were added. These were declared to be the birthdays of five great gods and were days of festival (the five days necessary to bring all into birth).

In the first place they were of great religious importance,

THE WORSHIP OF JUPITER

ZZEUS, or Jupiter, as he is now more commonly known, should give unto the soul all the expansion to bring forth the glories of the Abstract Plane, but owing to man holding strongly to Saturn, all merely wallowed in the falsity of religious pomp and ceremony. Never bringing internal mind expansion to the soul, but raising up emotional waters that danced in the lunar light, revolving round and round in the animal desires of the depths. This was the tragedy of the Age of Pisces, where papalism only brought forth of superficial earth glories, and left the heavens barren of new growth. Now Merope has unified all up to the Central Sun, leaving papalism powerless, and bringing the royal wonders of Neptune into their true divine manifestation. (See text on page 12, col. 3).

and a great sense of mystery was attached to them. These have never really been forgotten, for they are actually the prototype of time set into operation by man himself, and by which the Hierarchical Powers have responded. The very state of man today, with drugs being his only resort to escape from the poverty he is in, alone points out that man has missed the point somewhere; and he can live in no other way but by now receiving the necessary sustenance from the heavens to continue the blood issue.

(There were priests then who knew the purpose and were being led, guided. They watched for the Sothic star to get into place that it could strike the altar stone and bring the Fire into life. They studied the heavens, the solar creations and the starry heights; they studied man, and what was more, many an initiate went into the temple that they, too, could become the scapegoat for these priests to study; some were brought into birth by their study; others lost their way, but never to go out again; for once they are connected with these Powers then they have become a part of the blood-link that can never be lost, but to pass out of life to continue down the ages until, once again, they can be caught up by a priest who will help them to be given rebirth to the full. And if then you lose that opportunity, we from the Heavens would say unto you, "poor fool").

Man has been born from Nature, whether of earth or Spirit, and is a slowly evolving creation destined to manifest the Unknown Quantity. This he can only do by being the recipient of those Powers which come to man via the Great Motherhood that nurtures him into receiving her Lord's great wealth. All through the ages these Mysteries have been perpetuated, but now only exist as a public ceremony in the Welsh Eisteddfodau. Yet in the minds of the true mystic the lyre of Apollo ever resounds, with the resonant music coming unto them as the harmony of astronomic laws and the motions of the celestial spheres.

The Power of Wisdom

SO having made that explanation, let us continue with the part that Artemis plays in the activating of these festivals, and the chasing of man into awakening that she can fill her lord's palace with the riches man will supply when he awakens from his slumbers on Mount Latona. Until then he is content with accepting the drugs from Somnus, and merely going on carrying out wild revelries on the festival days.

For now he accepts not even the religion of the age and has one god only, Mammon. He believes he is advanced and all before him were pagans and primitives. He boasts of his medicinal advancement even though it be none other than drug and knife; yet secretly he is at a loss to cope with the increasing difficulties, and those in authority know that they are not dealing with the problems, but merely shelving them for a day when there must be some reckoning.

The elevation of Zeus as expansion and unfoldment to the solstice to reign needed a perfected year and a fixed zodiac. Therefore it did involve in the beginning the recasting of the calendars with regard to the equinoxes. (The equinoxes are 'east and west,' and the solstices are 'north and south.' These all have to be moved around).

A long established lunar year had, and still has, the autumnal equinox for its beginning whereby that received becomes the wealth of Apollo which Hermes collects; thus the soul becomes rich of mind growth. But a defective solar year of 365 days has only used the vernal and never done anything about it. Yet all was fixed and still is fixed in the affections of the people and cannot be abolished; but they can be reformed.

So if you still see that Apollo, although born at Delos, the spring equinox, generation, still goes to Delphi (solar plexus) in the autumn
