THE WORLD OF LIGHT as the Reborn Scorpionic Glory

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

ALL THE ATOMIC FORGING SET INTO birth by Merope, has now become the Solar sensitivity of the Void. Where the Glory of LIGHT is the magnitude of the Heavens, and Beauty is the Radionic Wonder of the future. Where all the Atomic Power of the Pituitary has been utilised, and expansion will now come forth, through that of infinity motivation. (So what was created in your inner being, by your passionate Waters, has now evolved in your own world, and revolved up to your own Central Sun, then down again and been reborn into Scorpionic Glory. Once you can get this into your mind, that you are a revolution within your own self, that your infinity is ever revolving within your bloodstream, and within your ganglions, then you will realise that you are the World that is creating the Glory of Light. Merope has already set the Cosmic Powers and given them the New Birth, and as she puts her pen to paper, long before you receive it, she re-acclimatises those Laws, ready for you to receive them and set them working in your own being. Now you must go on driving; driving by belief, and do remember that there is no outside world to you at all; none whatsoever now. You are the World within yourself, and you are radiating that out into the outside world and causing yourself to be a radiance of new thought, touching off others with your created Light. So once you can get this into your mind, you will see where you are building up the World of Light, but entirely within yourself).

Diaphonic Electrolysis

THIS, known as Atomic Husbandry, is where Heights and depths become the Holy unification of the Theocratic sensitised Virgin Oneness, and is the unity of past and present, to produce the Glory of tomorrow. Where the Enceinte Etheric, expanded by the Breath, will bring into birth the Glory of the Spirit. For now, the Breath is the FIRE of the Enceinte Configuration, that of the Blessing of Divine Theocratic Communistos service. Where the Scorpionic FIRE is born unto its rightful manifesting wonder of unified Glory, as the Heavenly Flame of the mind. Where all that was intended, is now of the LIGHT of the unfolding Glory of Divinity. The finalising of the reborn Compassional Glory, as the Arc Intelligencia of the Source, but where all has become the Divine manifestation of the Law of Solar Pre-conception of the Central Sun Infinite unification. Where the Atom as a soul creation, is now a radiating beauty of Solar LIGHT, born from the Divine Magnitude of unified Scorpionic radiation. (So Divinity is unfolding out of the LIGHT you are creating. What you are waiting to do now, is become married up to that Glory in the unification, whereby your voice becomes His Voice).

This is Atomic Space fulfillment, as that of the Commissure retrieved wealth, now becoming the Omphallic Golden Stream of Divine invocation. That of the Voice of Supreme Etheric Diaphonic Beauty, where all is as shining transparency, being the means of the manifestation of SOUND. Where, as the Diacoustics, possibilities are unlimited, and can be the means of bringing forth the Glorified Wonder of the intensity of the Central Sun Internal Royalty. This known as Diaphonic Electrolysis, can become a scintillating Paragon of untold Beauty, where the Atom is prepared to discard the earthly creation, for the glory of the new-born Plane, that of Immortal Light. For here is the complete Atomic woven depths of the soul's revolving majesty of Holy Fired incentive, of stimulating magnificence. Where Royal LIGHT of Holy Glory can become the wondrous beauty of soul manifestation.

THE COUNCIL OF THE GODS

AS Merope rose up as the Virgin with her Babe, the Mighty Council of the Gods on the Crown of the Arc, listened to the wonders of her Heaven-born Belief. Where the whole World became Fired by her Royal Etheric Momentum, transforming all into the Glory of LIGHT. No longer war of a nuclear creation, but the whole of Being transformed up onto the Atomic Plane of Holy Divine Manifestation. Where Divinity is the Crowned King of a World of Dyophysite LIGHT. (See text on page 3, col. 5).

The World of Vega

by the Lord Hierarch of Scorpio

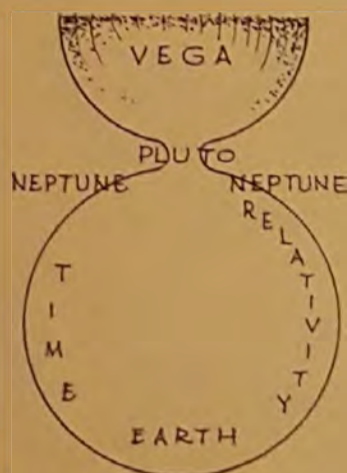

(These are extracts taken from the lecture of Wednesday, 5th May, 1971)

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

We come into your midst, many gathering from the Higher Realms, that they too can learn of the Word of man. For as you discuss and seek, it helps these Powers to become born of the Mind, to take into themselves the depths of the Word; that found out of their internal Glories. For the Breath that you have received is of these Beings, but they know not of the Word. They know not of the Glories of their own depths, and as you bring their Breath into Word, they awaken and become born of the Glories that you create. It is indeed a Great Privilege, and gives unto man a monopoly over the Angels. So tonight, endeavour to give forth as much as you can, so that these Beings that have gathered into your midst will go forth refreshed and seeing the Wonders that man can portray and create.

You are now at the present moment in the month of Fire, the Fire that is received by Taurus as it receives the Great Seed from the Hierarchical downpouring. This is the month of the Bull, where he awakens, and it is where the Fires are established. There is a great secret and a great mystery attached to the month of May, for it is the month of creation, the month of Birth.

So now let us turn to the diagram. Merope has tried to draw this to give you some idea of how she saw the Protoplasmic World.

Now try to see everything as cycles, and if you look you can see Pluto; that was the Great Fire of the Nebula that was going to start off once again of a New Cycle. This time, to bring into birth of the Solar Cycle. This was to produce the Mind and so Pluto was the Fire, and he descended down and he took on of the creation of Neptune, the Royal Higher creation of Neptune, but of course it passed down on many other planes until it came to the earth.

As it reached the earth, the soul creation had taken on of a mind, but a mind of desire, created by sensation and not sensitivity. Now I don't want you to think that this happened in a matter of a week, it took billions of years, where everything was coming into birth.

Well now, man has remained on the earth, having passed through Atlantis, the moon stage, and is now of the very basic. Of course, it could have gone lower instead of the cycle turning back again upwards; it could have turned downwards and gone further into Tartaros.

This is what Merope arrested. It only needed one soul to change the Laws and then such was stopped. This Merope did, this was her sacrifice, that as the Goddess who left the plane of Venus to come down once again, she could return to her rightful creation.

But if she, as simple as you see her now, was once the Goddess of Venus, what then may this apply to some of you?

You may not know who you are or what you are, or where you came from, but the greater your difficulties, or shall we say, the greater your sins, then the greater the possibility of who you were. Thus all the more reason why you should make every effort to get back again, because now things are not as they were, where it was back and forth, back and forth, in death and rebirth; now it is return.

So Merope carried everything right up once again to Neptune, but while the Earth was quite warm, Pluto had been dragged down to the depths and become Pluto in the underworld. Merope has now risen everything up again, whereby Pluto now becomes the Great Abstract Plane of the Mind; the Great Pluto Power, with Vulcan as the will and the shield of armoury for the man to fight with.

Now to give a better understanding of what Pluto in the underworld can mean and how it is manifest in the light of human beings, because that is the important thing, I am going to bring you an extra plate.

Now, if you can visualise that as Taurus under Mount Taurus, as the Bull who has to create, so Pluto and the Earth are represented in man as Scorpio and Taurus. So as the Seed comes down from Scorpio it becomes buried under Taurus and he builds up the rock.

That is where you find the rock, under Taurus. He refuses to drive, he refuses to go forth. Too much is built up of the mind and buried under the Taurean inertia, and this is Pluto in the underworld.

So if you do not make the drive you should do, and drive the seed and drive the Word, you are going to find yourself as Pluto in the underworld, buried underneath the rock. This is where you get your introvert states, and you invariably find that those with such introvert states are those who are well versed in the wisdom, or are educated, or are in law or even religion, and it is buried underneath, through being gluttoned and jammed.

Now the wisest thing to do, as an answer to all this, is drive the Bull; you cannot drive him hard enough. You must drive him and force him to create; force him to bring forth, and then, if you can only raise your mind up, you will then create within yourself the World of Vega, but of course, you have to get your mind expanded upon the Neptunian Glories.

Vega is a World, not a myth, but a Virgin state that has yet to be given expression. There was a time when Earth was like this, and would have been the Ice Age when the ice had not melted, and man had to trudge over fields and ground of ice until he could melt it and create it by his mind creation.

Everything is born by the soul creating. It is a world of creation. You draw down the Breath and then try to create it, out of its raw Virgin state. You will find that very difficult. You can only create out of your own past creation, unified with the Breath and Polarised. Then you bring out the roots that were originally established within you, and which are your four-square basic. Then you have that becoming polarised into its blossomed creation.

The diagram itself shows how Merope was able to see the coming out of the Abstract Plane of Fire, which the world is now being besieged with, and which is why there are so many at the present moment getting their own extraordinary ideas of what they believe is creation.

It is now up to every one of you to try and create. You have only got to look at some of the creations upon the earth at the present moment that have gone completely dead.

Just think of Roman Catholicism,—they would not allow their priests to think. They were told what they had to do and what they were to think, and now of course, they are rebelling. There is no new blood, no new thought, no new life.—They must not think, they must not have anything to do with the myths or legends, or the mysteries.

At the present moment you are receiving something new, and it IS the religion, or the Philosophy of the future. But man is a very lazy animal. Very few have their Bulls driving, with their Uranus sparking, and this is what you have to try to do, and you have to drive yourself.

Now the paragraph from the Sunday lecture will give some further depths upon it:

That before the Anthropomorphic Egg, was the Creation of Pure non-formed Virgin Spirit, that waiting to enter into density, to take on of experience, to create of a mind. Now in its equal is the World of FIRE, waiting to burst into LIGHT, whereby all is now being attuned to the Pre-Protoplasmic conscious radiance.

But this story began in the Virgin Fire beginning to take on of FORM, by its fluidic status moving on into the action of being. Thus first created the organic structure of the Anthropomorphic Egg, until the soul creation of man took on of consciousness. Then it began the ascension, as the Etheric body, that of the Protoplasmic substance formed in the Blood, took on of the Chromosome structure.

That which Merope molecularised and drove up to the heights to the Source, with the Pituitary ganglion of the Virgin Enceinte source, that of the motivation of the Atomic Thread, as the corpuscular depths of Timeless intuitive Divine accord.

This is the Great Mystery of the Pluto birth, the Royal Vega Child born out of the heavenly assumption of Outer World Space. By this the Mighty Ethers gave birth in the depths, where there was mighty rejoicing, for the Hierarchical establishment was assured.

Now to understand that, your mind has got to dart back and forth over billions of years. You haven't got to see the world as it is now, and as you are forming now; you have got to try and see the world as it was in the beginning when it was first formed.

If you look at an oak tree, you have got to realise that the acorn brought that oak tree into birth, and it had to germinate in the soil until it began to send forth its first upper and lower shoots. Then it began to grow until it reached its full oak tree stage. Now if you can visualise that, then visualise Man. But always there is the point of the Spirit, the seed of the Spirit, and what the soul was beforehand he would still be giving forth in that degree.

Try to think of a fish, a fish in a bowl, that is its world, it thinks in its way of thinking, not as you think. It has its sensitivity, but not as your sensitivity. You are the Divine Animal. The fish lives in that world, and that world is its world and it is ever struggling with self preservation. It knows how to procreate for its eggs to be reproduced, but it would not do it in the way that you would do it, or with the purpose that you do.

The same would apply to any other animal. They live in their world. The ant lives in its world and knows only its world. You are privileged now to know all worlds, but there was a time in the beginning, when you were as an egg, and you still really are as an egg because you are surrounded by an aura. But the egg that was the Anthropomorphic Egg was nothing more than the egg as your head or similar to your head. By it coming down into matter and building up under expansion of inward consciousness, it began to shoot legs by a spine. Just take these as examples of the fish and animals I bring and then you can get your own ideas.

So that before the Anthropomorphic Egg was the creation of Pure non-formed Virgin Spirit. When it began to descend, this Spirit was within it as the Seed, and this is the Seed that had to be saved; this is the Seed that would have gone dead, and once it went dead you would then be as a robot.

While this Seed within you is alive, you will go on extracting out of this Seed the Intensity and the internal depths of your own creation, for the Seed is born out of all that has been. It is this Seed that bursts into Light as the Commixture in the Heights. Everything belongs to the mind, everything belongs to your palace, your head. The rest of you came about by the earth world, which now in its equal is the world of Fire.

So in Merope bringing the relativity into being she was able to bring it right the way back and now you have got the World of Fire, waiting to burst into Light.

This is what has been known by all the Occult Teachers as the Great Work that had to be performed. Now Merope has fulfilled it. They never fulfilled it because they would not venture up to Neptune.

So now this gives you some idea of the Great Mysteries that lie in the Neptunian Seed within the soul, or the Neptunian Depths in the Seed,—of what could be created,—the Mighty Wealth that could be brought forth out of Neptune. But it is a creation that most have shunned, they have never gone past Jupiter. Now, because so many of the world would not go past Jupiter you will find there is a tremendous amount of souls with Jupiter going retrograde. It has become stagnant.

The World of Light

For at last, the World has begun to Begin the Atomic motivation of Fired Etheric momentum, that of Central Sun unification, and is now Firing the Four Square basic of Vega with Divine Christos Communistos Light. The Royal Glory of Divine unification, where the soul has reached its maximum of growth, and must now begin to expand and come forth as LIGHT.

Hence the majesty of the compassionate rejuvenation, is the Power of the Atomic Source, as that born of the Theocratic Rose, the compassionate Divine sacrifice of the Virgin Holy Atomic Central Sun Fires. Here is the true unseen mystery of LOVE, where there is a giving with no sense of recompense. This applies to, and would be, the Causationary Stream of Psalm 74, where its phenomenal union with the Star-lit heavens is now retrieved.

Here can be seen how David, through the Songs of Degrees, was ever praying his way through, by drawing and manifesting this Mighty Unseen Fire within himself. He was acting as the Scapegoat, yet there were moments when he slipped, and it meant many would have to suffer. Thus it automatically despoiled the Temple, physically, terrestrially and spiritually. Then in the 76th Psalm, is there the mastering of the corpuscular interchange, and the glory is returned. Hence the glory of the Atomic revolving Stream, the blood-life of God Divine Light, is reborn and continued.

It was David who set this continuity into action, through his building up this revolving union within his own being. For David was born from the Divine Heights, as a quintessential Hierarch in the soul growth, therefore knew the Glory of Prayer. But it was through his drawing down of this mighty compassion, that the Solomon Mines, the Christ Glory, born in the corpuscular inter-change, became filled with the renewed glory of the Solar wealth. That born out of the darkened depths of the old Etheric mind wealth.

It was not until David's wrestle with the tantrums of Saul, his negative red fires, that the true light of Solomon was seeded and born. Hence the Chapters of Samuel are some of the most spectacular in this Mighty Book of Direction. Hence the Light created as the Neptunian Foam of Divine Stimulating Atomic wealth, is the electrified phenomenal Glory of the Vega Blood Race Elect. This Book being the Witness, that is seeking to draw the fallen gods back into Grace. For electrification is the Divine embracement, the Power of Atomic speech, the ever unified Glory of awareness, and that gained by discarding and adopting.

This is the Focalisation of the Divine Yod, with the Virgin auditorium of the infundibulum of the heights. This being a channel in the grey matter of the brain, and finally attached to the Pituitary gland. That which takes the first round of the divisional waters received from the Etheric, to be the assumption and assimilation for the mind growth.

Then having dripped into the depths of the blood off the Pituitary, as the created Hormone infusion, it feeds the infused Etheric with greater Light, and feeds the gods in the cellular structure of the brain with renewed royal life. But in the second journey of the alchemicalising waters through the physical, in passing via the Pancreas, the reborn hormone in the Islets of Langerhans is infused with the fiery waters by its mystical ganglion. Whereby the old corpuscles are replaced by new-born corpuscles, and the waters are set alight.

Providing the bloodstream is not filled with waste and false fire, the waters dance with electrification in the blood's new-born life. This is where drugs open doors and leave the soul blind, with no electrification or blending up with new-born wisdom. Thus the fire and the waters go to the heights as raw fire and burn out the cells of the brain. Only by contact with the Spirit, can such be remedied, and the soul find the conclusion it visualises.

Here we perceive the Power of Diaphonic Thought, where the transparency of super-sound makes its way unto the soul ready to receive. This being the all-impregnable Atomic Might of the Central Sun, the glorified depths of its opaline beauty. Now the mind can dance as the Divine blue-faced robin, as he faces the new inflow of the Virgin Atomic Winds of Theocratic Time.

This is the true interpenetration of David's Songs of Degrees, where, after he had ravaged Bathsheba his Virgin, and failed to overcome the drought that was destroying the Race, he went to the Tabernacle and prayed before the Arc of the Covenant.

Then when he had completely subjugated himself, he touched the Arc, and the heavens gushed forth and the World was saved. For David had realised that his real enemies were within, for in his failure to gain super-will, Uranus was forcing him to recognise his weakness and beating him into fluidity.

This was his own internal communistos non-unified creation, hence his Venus-Urania was suffering. This is Neptunian freedom, as the FACE of Theocratic electrified phenomena coming into birth. The soul now all alight with the freedom of the Atomic Flame. The Power of Communistos inaugurated Sun in Scorpio Central Sun inflow of Virgin Truths.

Thus the "Ark of the Lord" came into the camp and all Israel shouted with joy, whereby it warded off the Philistines, they who plagued the soul with plagues. This being the great basic set into detriment by the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas. That of the two stanchions of the mind, as Castor and Pollux. They who, all through the Ages, have rendered the soul with karma. Now Merope has lifted up the mind into the Abstract, where in the Thalami being united, the soul is fed by the royalty of the Commissure, and the soul is filled with Divinity.

This is the basic Vega elevation, as the Power of compassionate relativity, light-

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. U.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each siter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

June 5th The World of	July 3rd Divine Breath
Royal Atomic Light	July 10th Principality of the Mind
June 12th Dyophysite Sensitivity	July 17th Divine Royal Sensitivity
June 19th Virgin Momentum	July 24th Virgin Virility
June 26th Dyophysite Marriage	July 31st Virgin Eclipse EGO

TREADING THE GRAPES

AS the May Fires opened up, from the Divine Husbandry priming, the internal depths of the soul were drunken from the risen exhilaration. The hobgoblins and ghouls, yet virgins and warriors, came forth, as the soul in its unfolding growth, turned to the reborn Scorpicion inauguration. That he could find the World or Light, by the Holy Word of Divine Fiery Wisdom. Thus brought forth the Scapegoat, that she would make strait every gate of interpenetration, onto the Royal Plane of the Abstract Mind. (See text on page 4, col. 1).

ing all the cells of the once concrete mind, with the Atomic Power of the Etheric compassionate might of the Virgin sensitivity. For the mighty Brilliance of Merope's FACE shone like the radiance of the Central Sun.

Thus the Day had manifested when she, full of unification of Light, removed the Vail, and the 12x12 facets of the Atomic fulness shone forth, as the Divine Overshadowing of the Central Sun Brilliance. For the whole of her electrified incentive was alight with Divine continuity of Holy Vega thought, and GOD Spoke to the people from out of the Royalty of her mouth.

The Chromosomes of the blood are now the Vega Lightship offsprings, finding their way back to the Source. For the Chromosomes are chromatin-fibre cells formed from the Chromospheric substance of the Solar blood, as past soul experiences of the etheric body. In their reception of the Fiery infusion, karyokinesis takes place and nuclear division of mitosis begins.

By the partaking of the Abstract Word in its supreme elevation, these are brought to molecular unification, and the Light of Vega shines forth. Thus find their way back to the Source, the now Royal Commissure, as all the past royal Neptunian lost corpuscular Light of the now Divine Royal Virgin mind.

Hence the Neptunian Sea is the electrified Blood Stream of Divine conscious phenomenal truths of Compassionate Radiance. That which, as the Sargasso Sea, has become filled with waste, and the White horse with its rider, in trying to swim its way through, gets entangled in the weeds, deeply embedded in the depths.

Thus, by Merope raising up the Planes, she put straight the Axis and the Pole Star rose over-head, and the Aurora Borealis poured its electrical current down to the earth. (But do remember that this is all within the soul itself).

Therefore the enciente depths have become the purified Atomic motivation of the Divine Continuity, that of the Virgin Atomic Vega FACE. The Glorified Etheric, in the intuitional majesty of the Holy Seed born out of the inaugurating Phenomena of Sun in Scorpio. Hence the Divine inflow now born into the blood, as Merope lifted her Vail, and the LIGHT of Divinity shone forth.

Such Royal Divine Wonder was never known before, as the Bow in the Clouds gave forth of its Divine Beauty. While the World of Light was being Crowned with the Divine inflowing Glory of Scorpicion mystery. For here is the Atomic stimulus of the Orion Bull seership, that which has now become the aspirational intensity of the Central Sun phenomena. The glory of the Holy Triune, the Royal Glory of the heavens; he who masters the Elements and is born again and again into Divine perfection.

For this is where all is Pitch-blended into the Virgin compassionate octave, of a Divine isotope of Virgin Atomic Light. That which is set into the Supreme Breath equaliser, of the Communistos Holy Fired magnificence, the Supreme Glory of LIGHT. Where Divinity is the reigning Glory, and royal Wisdom the prevailing truth. With the soul as the Atomic sensitised Theocratic reality, as now the corner-stone prototype of the Etheric royal Atomic balance. Where all are in one accord with the reborn might of the Divine Overshadowing Presence of the Virgin Void of Plutonic Glory.

This is where all the personification of the Vega World, has now been infused into the final Etheric depths of the internal Solar-Galactical unification, as Atomic Divine Peace. Where the complete blending brings Divine Beauty into birth, out of the Glory of the depths.

Hence all is now born of the Virgin constitutional royalty of the true reborn fundamental beliefs of the Supreme Intelligence, of the Central Sun Reality. Where the full measure of the Atomic Pitch-blende can now harmonise all the broken down concrete mind wealth, with the Central Sun Divine Source, into a oneness of Divine Plutonic Communist adherence. That the full measure of LIGHT is truly adjusted.

Hence all the Breath is now Electrically infused with this radiational Atomic adherence of the Central Sun Core. For this is Atomic Martyrdom of the Great Divine Master, in the true meaning of the inauguration of His Living Divine Presence. This is where the Virgin is born of HIS Glory and her reality, and is the price of the Scapegoat Merope's sacrifice for all men.

This is a truth and wisdom known only to the Woman who gave birth to Divinity, and all the sons of the earth. Where man for a long time will bow his head in shame, and feel the remorse that was cutting deeply into his heart, opening up a Stream that was, and was not, welcome.

For now the Atomic Precisional quoit re-unity with the Etheric Atomic Solar depths, is the aspirational releasement of the gods Divine Belief. That closed in the Pituitary fossa, as the tail of the Serpent, now alight with the full length of Timeless reality. That of the unfolding Virgin Light consciousness, via the Breath. Yet the very depths of life, with the Blood as the juice of the grape, trodden out in perpetual treading and thirsting.

This is where Merope now wears the cloak of Immortality, thus the first one to enter onto the Path of the Immortal. A lonely soul to justify her cause, for by so doing, she would save the sons of the Earth, who are necessary to feed the earth with true Spiritual life. So blessed, yet so cursed, that stand as the sons of God, the Royal Progenitor of Being.

Thus here we behold of the mystery of the Solar sensitised Etheric conventional attachment, where the Power of transmuting of Communist Hierarchical Beliefs into the Solar Atomic Arc Radiance, is that of Divine Theocratic Plutonian mind conscious radiation.

Where all, unbeknown to the soul, is fed into him, via the Breath of Divinity, and the soul is born of that Holy Glory. For as the Virgin became by the Glory of Her Belief, will all men now become by the right of the Law. Thus in utter defiant acceptance, the soul is born of what he refuses to be.

Now the supreme core, as the heart of the Black Bull, is internally alight with the Atomic full radiance of the Central Sun. For the heart is the Light conveyor of the Blood's reborn Etheric conscious depths, of the Seed revolving unified Chakra wealth. That now of Timeless unified Communist Etheric Theocratic Divine Breath, where purity is of the etheric and the perpetuator of life continuity.

This is the measure of the gods conscious reborn mind adjudicator, as that of the ever balancing Point of the Vega stabilised reborn momentum of the Holy Virgin Fires. For although this is the alchemicalising glory of Divine Ascension, it is also that of Divine Priesthood, where the soul leads and guides all unto divine rebirth.

By this, the soul comes to the royal Infinite molecularising Power of the Orion Bull, that which is now the revolving immortal unition of the Divine revealing Holy Fires. For the soul is now giving rebound to the Celestial Transgression, where the Hierarchs are now coming into birth in the soul's genealogical creation.

For this now is the Atomic Age, and the compassionate World of the Solar Spheres. Whereby the Divine Presence becomes the Atomic unification of the Etheric FACE to FACE sensitised reality. Where Divinity is now Atomic Splendour, and the Le Ros dance is the royal corpuscular exchange. No dance, no exchange, and the soul remains barren.

This is where the soul either becomes born of the spirit, or becomes filled with knowledge, that turns to rock within the soul creation. For Pluto is the Pitch-blending substance in all degrees of perception.

(See plate on this page)

Here is where the Voice reigneth and the Divine Overshadowance is in Residence, as the compassionate Uranian adjuster of the elevated continuity wealth of the new-born Seed. That born out of the elevated Le Ros glory, where the inborn Seed is making diaphonic bounds up into the heights. Hence the Virgin Lesath infused relativity formula of Vega, is now ready to administer its Communist depths of the Virgin Holy Fires.

Therefore the Le Ros dance is set to its highest tempo, that the inter-union can become complete. This is where the corpuscles infuse the Blood with the royal depths of the Salamander wealth, and the Atomic reality rebirth of the Holy intuitional polarised virtues of the Atomic FACE.

Here the inter-union would be of the highest, necessitating the instantaneous flash of perception. For the corpuscular encinte infused Light is now the etheric creative effluvia of the Gods, and is the Divine Overshadowing Theocratic Isotope Power of the Central Sun fluidity. Thus the soul is now as Central Sun to central sun, and would be aware of the importance of life and its attendance.

Ever is there another stage of reborn Scorpionic Glory, where the Atomic majesty of the Holy Fires, is the accepted purity of the Neptunian Plutonian Seed, of now Communist embracement. This is where accepted responsibility has taken over, and the soul is no longer blind.

For all is as the Pinnacle Point of the polarising Heights of Neptunian Genius, whereby all has become as the Encinte Heaven Directed Mind of the Atomic FACE. Hence the soul is looking Solar wise, seeking of the heights for its inspirational direction. For the whole Universe is now in the GIVE Breath of Divine unification, and the Seed is of ONE Supreme Divine Source.

This is where the soul must learn to have complete faith in the fact that it in itself, is an Atom, a complete universe within itself. Where the Theocratic Blueprint has become the royal blue blood of the Master's Atomic Presence, and fully established in the Earth of Desire.

This is the mystical story of Sut, where the donkey has now become the white Stallion of the purified Holy Fires. Where the Sargasso Sea has been purified into the Neptunian Sea, and the white Horse rides upon the top of the Waves, as a Nymph embracing the foam.

mystery. For never has such wealth penetrated the Earth, and established Books of a profound nature. The whole soul is alight and alive with Holy Fire, rich with the magnitude of the Heavens. Thus the way is ready for a deeper incentive to begin, and plonk up into the Glories of Royal Divine Light.

This now is the Atomic Frequency of the Theocratic unifying sensitivity of the Central Sun. Whereby all becomes the aspirational equivalent of the reborn Light of Communist unification, whereby the heavens embrace the depths. Every movement unfolds of the Atom radiation, as from a Point to Point of essence. Plutonian reality of the Central Sun Virgin Source. This is of the purified Vega Light of the Etheric Depths of the Cosmos, as that of Divine Belief.

This is the first secret mystery of the Central Sun, which so far, no man has bathed. Only by sensitising the internal depths of the Breath, can such glory be assumed. Then by the Royal Glory of Belief, is the Thread wound on the spool of internal unification, that in its substitution, comes forth as Gladius.

Yet that now being born of the Pre-Protoplasmic World, where all is being polarised to that before the Anthropomorphic Egg, where it first took on of organic form. Therefore in polarity, an immortal being, but now with a mind of experience and belief.

Therefore the latter is the whole core of the internal beauty of the Atomic FACE, and man now walks in the garden of Purified Divine Compassion. For he rises up in ascension, to the time when he only knew of Divinity. While Purified Divine Compassion, is the sensitivity of the Central Sun, the Glorified Light of the Universe. Whereby all is now radiant and basically prepared with Hydroxyl, that of inspired Theocratic reborn Atomic Light.

Yet although polarised to Divine Heights, here we behold the east of many colours, that is now dipped in the purple wine of the Hierarchical Presence, with the Parable of Psalm 40 polarised into its complete totality.

"The Lord heard my Cry and brought me up from a horrible pit and put a new song into my mouth. Then lo, I come, as unto the Book that is written of me. Therefore let all who seek Thee, rejoice; O my GOD, I am poor and needy, deliver me that I do thy will. Therefore with the Law in my heart and Thee in my mouth, I can go forth and declare Thy Glory."

Now the Virgin has been released from the lies of MAN and takes on of Divinity, with all being allotted to the new unfolding of the World of Solar Constitutional rebound, the World of Glorified LIGHT. Where that of individual responsibility to the Virgin FACE, that of Divine Creation, is now the Work and manifestation of the soul.

This is where Merope's task has now become her sledge back home, with the Virgin, freed from the inflicted Earth she had to endure. For all now is the Fontaine prelude of the Atomic World fulfillment, in the depths of the Atomic FACE wealth of Divine conquest. For all now

THE ROCK OF KNOWLEDGE

THE unity of this mighty combination, is the Glory of Theocratic Felicity; bringing forth of Plutonic Virgin Cosmic Stimulation, to fire the soul with Stimulus. Thus Mount Taurus becomes the Glory of the Royal-born Commensurate Warrior, his of Neptunian elevation. While Enceladus, a redoubtable giant, created by Gaia, the mother of Earth, is at last transformed into Paselash royalty, driving his horses across the cloud-flecked sky. (See text in vol. 2).

Then with the Atomic Principles fully infused within the Chromic wealth of the Atomic Etheric Blood-stream, the soul as the Christophori, is alight with Atomic pulsating rhythm of the Theocratic Spheres. This is where the Heights and depths meet and give unto the soul the glory of the Dynasphonic inflow. All is as the Timeless Void, now ready to give forth of its Divine expansive intuitional Breath, of Holy Theocratic Compassion.

Here for the first time, we begin to behold the intensive depths of the Scorpionic now is a decided step and not just alchemicalisation, for the Virgin isotope has become their Atomic Pole, and is of the Theocratic Pole Star of Vega unification. They are now attached to that of the Etheric Sensitised Belief of Merope, as she unfolds of her Atomic depths.

This now becomes of the glorified wonder of the soul radiance, where a status is forming around the soul, which gives it a profound radionic significance. Then their true Work begins, for they begin to find that the soul creation is now beginning to is super-sensitivity embrace-ment into the immortal Halls of Divine ascension. Where the soul makes its way into the Pre-Protoplasmic World of Divine embracement. Where the soul becomes Divinity born, and takes on the glorification of LIGHT.

Here, born entirely of consciousness, that of the Spirit, the soul now seeks to bring to complete fulfilment. Therefore out of what he is, he now becomes, in the glorified magnitude of Spiritual manifestation. All that has been, and gave him the basic of knowing, now manifesting in all the true glory of Reality.

Now the vast Atomic Breath, as that of the Great Polar Star wealth, is the enceinte depths of the Theocratic electrified continuity of the FACE. Then as such, will the Virgin Theocracy now Pitch-blende the unity with the Neptunian corresponding magnificence, where in the World of Plutonian Beauty, will the magnitude of LIGHT be brought to its full entirety.

For LIGHT is now the sensitivity of the Compassion, as that of the untold truths of the Atomic Plane, that now on the Plutonian Plane, are manifest and synthesised into LIGHT. While the Atomic Plane is the purity of the Virgin mind, and is that which now breathes the full magnitude of the Breath. For the Atomic Plane has become the Electro-magnetic variations of the Vega World, as all is maintained and kept upon the Point to Point influence, of the North and South axle of the Plutonian balance.

This is where LIGHT is truly born and becomes of electrified infusive glory. For Pluto is the Vega axle, holding the new World in heights and depths to the Vega Star, and is the electrified spine alight with Chromosome Glory. That born out of the Chromospheric Protoplasmic Blood-stream, that was molecularised on the Atomic Plane of form activity. While now, all is of Atomic Seership, as that of spinal sensitised depths of the Atomic Void.

For the Atomic Void is the Protonic wealth of the now Outer World Space revealing stimulus. That opened and intensified by the Virgin's Work in the depths, for sensitivity is stimulated Plutonian Genius, born out of the Vega-Pluto unity. That of the Laws and Mandates of Here and Now born Atomic phenomena, unfolding into the invincible Glory of Divine LIGHT.

This is where GOD and MAN become ONE, in that man has given back to GOD His rightful internal Being, while GOD manifests in the man, and Divinity speaks and manifests in a World of LIGHT.

A World of Divine Sensitivity

HENCE all the Holy Powers of the Celestial World of the Gods, are now Golden born into the Etheric Void of the Plutonian Uranian Balance. With man now facing up to that of Endo-Thermic Combustion of the Chromosomes, where the molecularisation set into motion by his Abstract studies, is now causing a frictioning, as the heat gathered now explodes.

This starts off the World of Light, as that of the Etheric Kingdom of Divine sensitivity. For it is this sensitivity that is now going to catch alight into Uranian frictioning, and the Breath as Atomic Fire, is crust being aerated with heavenly rebirth, polarising the extremities of the soul.

For now, by the action and sacrifice of Merope, in the Commissure is the Atomic Principles of the new unfolding World, as they of the Plutonian Grace of electrified sensitised comprehension awaken, and spring forth into the Glory of Holy Divine ascension. Those who are assimilated into the Glory of Divinity by the assumption of LOVE, would now walk in Supreme compassionate awe, as the Etheric mind grows out of the Breath of Divine Plutonian Progress.

This is the Virgin purity of the constant unfolding depths, of the true Pleiadic Planes of Holy ascension. Hence never perceived before in their true Light of Protonic glory, for it was Merope drawing down of this Royal YOD, that the World became inter-penetrated where what was lost through the lack of expansion, is now extolled into Divine Heavenly Beauty.

For the Divine FIRE is the polarised Pleiadic Planes of the unfolding Commissure Neptunian Mind Wonder, that of future Theocratic expansion. For the latter is the Atomic activation of Sun in Scorpio, and Taurus sensitised into Plutonian personified Atomic God-like radiance. For the true Being is in the Breath, and the etheric majesty of the soul being Hydro-sophically unified, into the Glory of the heart establishment. The latter being the Plutonian Chamber of the now Theocratic stability of the Atomic mind.

For the heart, the beating pulse of the universe, is the mind direction of Scorpionic infusion. That which never dies and is of the Prototype of Merope's LOVE, and is the bond born in the dancing of pre-sperming of the Outer World Intelligencia, became the Atomic Plane of stimulative Virgin Ego, as the Point to Point Plutonian radiating Atomic Brilliance.

That now as the spermed Pre-Protoplasmic Divine Ideological FACE, having become that of the Vega Virgin Void. Now it can be seen of how the telecommunicating refracting unification, is the true Atom waveband of the enceinte Source. That which is the Atomic stimulating oscillation of the Sun in Scorpio reality, where Light is being born out of the darkness.

Here we now also perceive, how the World of Pre-Protoplasmic Compassion, is that of the Divine enlightened Theocrats, they now of the super-sonic seismographic unity. They of the double combination of Sun in Taurus and Sun in Scorpio unification, as Divine Plutonic Royalty of clairaudience. They who now receive of the Divine Seed that entails the inborn reception of the Diapasonic Glory of the Spheres, the Holy Royalty of unspoken truths. Now the Virgin Theocracy of this Plutonic comprehending Communistos Christos Divine Belief, has become the Abstract Intelligencia of the forged Atomic Will of the Central Sun. The Royal Glory of the Solar-Galactical unity, that now becomes the manifesting Voice of Divinity. For as Point to Point is achieved, the Royal Glory is spiralled into Holy embellishment, and the internal FIRE manifests.

Here is the Power of Divine inauguration of the Atomic Holy Fired Breath, whereby all becomes Pre-Protoplasmic Peace, the Waveband of Theocratic Felicity. Where the constant heights and depths are ever being Plutonically polarised into Virgin Cosmic stimulation.

Therefore as Merope rose up onto the Plutonian heights, she polarised all traces of Pluto in the Underworld, which was the soul pitch-blended into the pit, as the slime fire of the depths. That contracted at the beginning of Time and now concluded by Merope, as she raises all up to the heights, of which it was intended.

The Closing Prayer

GREAT Divine Glory of Love, be born in each soul as these Mighty Fires blend with the Supreme Heights, that Heights and depths blend in Holy Glory, and each soul is born from the Unction of the Anointing. Amen.

THE WRITING ON THE WALL

AS of Old, when man believed and had faith in Divinity, and GOD led and guided the Hebrews in their struggle for Truth, can the soul find such Grace once again, yea, in even greater measure. For by Merope having lifted up the Planes and molecularised the Stream of Life into the Glory of Oneness, GOD is manifest in the Abstract LIGHT that is pervading the whole of being. For the Writing on the Wall is the Corpus Callosum, advising the soul of the LIGHT that is with him, and seeking his conscious perception. (See text in col. 1).

going to enter into expansion.

This is where all is going to become the enceinte blessing of the Master's Atomic FACE, and density is going to be re-acclimatised into the fluidity of Divine Compassion, bringing LIGHT into the hearts of all who are truly seeking. Hence the New Plane of Conscious comprehending light, is born within the Commissure of all men.

This is where Divinity is walking in the garden of all who have applied their Husbandry truly and well, and dug the spade deep down into the sod, turning it over to the light of day. Thus the Earth with LIGHT. For the Pleiadic Plane is the Atomic Fiery Glory of the Seed of Neptunian expansion, that which first stirred the inert neutrons into frictioning action.

It was this that started off the drive, but only in the negative, and never rose up onto the positive ascension. Now, as the Theocratic Divine cloak of Invulnerability, spun of Divine Virgin consciousness by the Overshadowance of the Atomic FACE, are the true depths of the Divine FIRE established. This is the Royal Glory of the reborn Scorpionic infusion, the May-Day Fair, in the Glory of the frictioning Pitch-born Fire. That to reach its heights at the Solstice and to manifest its birth-pangs as it drops to the earth on the first of November, to issue forth on the 21st December as the Divine Horae. But now as the Royal Glory of Plutonian Pitch-blended LIGHT, the Christophori of the Heavens.

Hence Love is Plutonic Virtue, as the reborn Compassional Divine Glory, manifesting as the Enceinte Mind Phenomena of the Royal Atomic Void. This being the Pre-Protoplasmic World of Divine Unction, which as the

Astrological Delineations

ASTROLOGY is the 'language of the Heavens' and is the only true means whereby man can have explained to him the reason for 'existence'; his purpose. Mundane astrology cannot help man to extricate himself from the chaos of earth life. By merely giving to him of his fortune, leaves him with the understanding that he is a victim of circumstances. Your astrological chart is intended to be used as a guiding wheel in your journey through life, indicating to you the reason for your present difficulties; how you yourself have been responsible for them, and the particular lesson you have come back to learn whereby you can tread the path which you chose before you reincarnated.

Astrology, truly the Royal Science,—the "Royal Road" to freedom through "Man know Thyself",—when interpreted correctly in the TRUE Esoteric method, demonstrates the spiritual, mental, emotional and earthly qualities of man. This correct method gives the full data for him to see the many complexes and contradictions in himself, of positive and negative make-up. Through the House to House interpretation the initiate is given that unique and individual guidance that is truly Seership. True Esoteric Astrology inspires man and shows him the way to find his heart purpose, with every sentence as an individual inspiration to 'go on' and achieve what the soul is subconsciously desiring.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook spends much time in preparing each individual chart, which entails penetrating into the vibrations of your present life and also going back into the conditions of your past. Then, by linking with the present day wisdom of Universal Philosophy, she unfolds the possibilities, the potentials that lie within the chart, that they can be blossomed into the Atomic fullness of Spiritual Mind Growth. To the soul who is earnestly seeking, such a delineation would be invaluable and should be regarded as a basic necessity if the soul wishes to realise the fulfilment of its own Royal and Sacred Path of Cosmic Destiny.

The Polarised Works of Doctor Francois Rabelais Part 4

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

TO MAKE THIS TRANSMUTATION A LITTLE more clear to new readers, let me state that this is a genealogical deposition of an enquiring soul. How he himself brought into birth of his own unfolding growth, his wrestle with life, and how the alchemical changes worked within him. But religion and lack of full TIME accomplishment, prevented him making the Masterhood he should have done. In our polarisation of these Works, we find that Gargantua, the warrior son of Grangousier, had, in the interpenetration of rebirth of the soul, reached the tenth house of astrological unfoldment. Therefore this puts us into the picture of where the growth has aspired unto. How he brought into birth of his mind perception, and how the alchemical changes were working within him.

The Genealogy of the Soul

YET we must not forget, that the actual works of Rabelais the monk, were gathered from old Arabic and Greek writings, when thought was deep and intense, and materialism had not yet obtained full grip of the soul. To me, the Works are very typical of Medo-Persia, but as an Occultist, I realise what masterly Works they are, for their internal Mysteries are most profound and accurate.

Being written by the Arabians, the rendering is very coarse to us now, but when this is by-passed, the gold is there, which we can well do with today. I have learnt much from their satiric jest, for Rabelais, being an Apothecary, knew much ancient anatomical wisdom which man today by-passes for drugs, knife and anti-biotics.

The cleverness of the writings are profound, if you can grasp their depths, and which I was instructed to gather and polarise, so that they could enter into the New World of consciousness, in their true profound wisdom.

Grangousier is the main creation of the soul, Gargantua is the first offspring, born from his expansion gained by his enquiring into life. This represents the reborn conscious mind, which in reality is the unfolding mind or Ego, which in striving to find experience in treading-in, has reached the 10th house. That which is striving to feed and draw therefrom, from the higher EGO of his Constellational debut.

Therefore the conscious mind in its re-awakened state, goes forth to tread into the earth, its new-born beliefs. This means house to house unfoldment of the soul, where the triune of the Elements are reborn.

In the experiences of change and unfolding manifestation, Gargantua has reached the tenth house of the alchemical reform and meets of Grangousier, the male element of the soul, who has been shut up in a castle, while the corpuscular and ganglion changes of the soul have been pursuing.

From a story standpoint, this will mean very little, but from the standpoint of the genealogy of the soul and the Occult and alchemical changes that take place, whereby we seek to apply wisdom to ourselves, it can be very enlightening. For we are consistent of many parts, including the twelve Galactical influences that guide and lead us in our unfoldment.

These, represented by the twelve gods who are with us as Atom creations of the brain, are awaiting expansion, or else they begin to play havoc in chaos, for they are Atomic and cannot die, therefore would act fulfily with the soul who refused to honour its debts to the Celestial Ones.

So having reached the tenth house of Capricorn, his motive would be to refresh the lights that the fatherhood could unfold, to bring the Commissure into Divinity assessment, where the assumed changes would reform the soul from the lunar into the Solar, and thereby strengthen, or even re-bind, the Ariadne Thread of ascension return. So that the EGO could ever be drawing the soul back HOME.

Apart from duty of repayment, this is also the inner desire of the soul, to return fully triumphant to his own Constellational heights. So in this story of Rabelais, we can follow very lucidly this remarkable mystery of LIFE. Therefore the next effort being made by Gargantua, was in listening to Grangousier regarding the war that had been ensuing while the many changes were taking place.

For it is these internal states of the soul that rebel as they are forced to reform, and would account for why we may say at some time, "I feel very bad-tempered, but why, I cannot say." This is the alchemicalisation bringing the Solar light to bear upon certain organs in the soul's construction.

This most important point of news, of which Grangousier had to give forth, was of how Friar John had triumphed at the close of the Abbey, which indicated very strongly of the religion that still held the soul under subjection. Whereby Gargantua sent for him, that they could now bring the final changes in the monk himself.

When seated, the monk called for water and refused the Wine as he offered wisdom, indicating his refusal to change. For it must be seen, that in it being the internal operation within the soul, whereas religion only saw a god on a cross, here was the monk state having it proved unto him, that Christ was the Solar Blood that was manifesting in the soul itself. And furthermore, the soul would itself become Christed, when the Goat was sufficiently reformed and brought into the Lamb creation.

So no wonder the poor creature refused the wine now being offered, solidly sticking to his old beliefs, rather than that filled with the Word that Gargantua advocated. That which was causing the etheric to be touched off with the re-born light, that would result in a new-born FACE.

This plate very adequately explains the depths of this transformation, and the slow unfolding changes that would ensue. This is a deep and invulnerable belief of Merope, of which she strongly advocates, that even the worst of resistance is eventually eaten into, even if in lives to come.

Here it can be seen quite clearly how necessary it is to be able to translate the symbolism, to really get an insight into its depths, which alone declares of the profound wisdom of Rabelais. For here we behold the monk walking ever through an orchard of mighty wisdom, but wrongly applied, bringing a stoned state to all whom he related it unto.

For his staff was being guided by his stomach, which can be seen dripping its wrong beliefs where'er he walked. This was a profundity that Rabelais the monk had awakened to, before it was too late.

The next Chapter seems to follow the same trend of thought, for it seems that Gargantua felt that changes were necessary in all religious dogma. Yet ever declaring that if it was made more sincere, a greater depth would be perceived; then what they gave forth would make them more believed, and Works from their own created heart purpose would be truly established.

SATURN

THE religious state of the soul, who deliberately refuses to partake of the true Divine Wine, which is the Saturn state firmly fixed in old fired beliefs. That which the Hierarchs are forcibly changing, by the indriving Hierarchical Fire-born Breath. For the Pole that the monk was using to tread his way through the depths of his own religious creations, was the very means of the reborn change, via the raised-up Planes. For Gargantua was the Warrior who at last had convinced himself of the Truth that he was supping. (See text in col. 2).

He advocated that their prayers should go up to God and not to themselves, then their noses would not be so long, searching out the delicacies of their next meal! This for the moment might be considered satirical jesting on the part of Rabelais, but in reality he was giving forth of very precise wisdom.

For as an Occultist, I know it is a well-known fact that when profound wisdom is taken, it behoves the soul to make sacrifices in his desires, whereby the new knowledge brings expansion to the wisdom and growth within the digestive alchemicalisation, and new aspiration and Desires are born. To put more new wine into the bottle, the old must be emptied out first, and eaten up by the crocodile, bringing new awareness to the soul.

False Religious Beliefs

RABELAIS, in having been a monk, found the general framework of religion terribly lacking through the want of wisdom. Therefore in entering into the pursuit of Occultism, he found many points requiring reformation.

Many in the habit were not fitted for the rigid religious discipline they had been forced to accept, and were inwardly fretting for those states that they were forced to abandon. But were afraid, through the lack of courage and the fearful awe that had been instilled into them, to break their bonds and seek into true fields of learning, where they would learn to discipline themselves by experience.

Consequently they were held by the ever calling state of the empty etheric, which brought about an empty belly, for one had effect upon the other. Whereas real wisdom would have supplied the LIGHT they really required, to solve the problems of their captivity.

So this is where we come back again to the monk and Gargantua, for although the monk had learnt much by the alchemical changes that were decided upon, which would break up old erroneous ideas and false religious beliefs. But here we see the old state of life prevailing, and how useless it was.

Upon Gargantua and his friends awakening, the monk suggested they had a drink before they began their matins, whereupon Gargantua, who was a heavy drinker, tried to lay down the important reason of why you should not drink at that hour.

This in reality was the suggestion that they should partake of more of the wisdom that had not been digested, but Gargantua was not really so versed in the wisdom as he believed he was, and was trying to avoid the issue. So was badly rebuked by the monk for his inconsistencies of belief, showing Gargantua of how he applied wisdom only in the way he wanted to, and not in the true sense of its application.

Yet when we give this some deeper consideration, it must be remembered that all these were parts of the soul, portraying the differences of assimilation taking place. The soul being gathered together from all the many lives of thought and belief. But here Gargantua as Rabelais' creation, was trying to bring a consistency of thought, the time being too early for Relativity to be put into action. Consequently there was no one-way track.

This was followed on by further cross-currents of thought, whereby the monk, as the righteous outlook of the soul, was calling upon the people of his charge, declaring, "My children, do not fear or doubt, I will conduct you safely", and he further gave them a sermon upon the wonders of courage. But one day, not very long after this mighty exposition, he was passing under a walnut tree, when the vizor of his helmet caught the stump of a branch of the tree.

He set his spurs so fiercely that his horse bounded forward, and he let go of the bridle, and hung by his hand upon the bough, whilst his horse went from under him. By this he was left hanging on the walnut tree, crying for help. This was where he was treading-in of the wealth, and egoism was taking its toll.

Eudemon perceived him and called Gargantua, saying "Come and see Absalom hanging." Upon observing his face, Gargantua declared, "You are mistaken in comparing him with Absalom. The latter hung by his hair, this shaveling hangeth by his ears." Whereupon the monk cried out, "Stop prating, and save me."

"This we will do," said Gymnast, the fallen pride, as he climbed up the tree and let him fall to the ground. Then he threw away bit by bit of his armour, giving him back his staff and remounted him upon his horse.

Thereby teaching the soul the lesson of avoiding righteous false courage, whereby he put himself forth in place of Divinity. When in reality, it could only be by partaking of the Word and living it, that gave courage to the soul by risen-up vibrations of wisdom.

That which brought the glory of the Light of God, as the shield within their own being, by them finding their own internal depth of belief. Thus in following their own course of Life, seeking themselves of Divinity, as it becomes the strength and glory of their mind. For no religion,

Thus a one-way track of Universal Philosophy was righteousness or high mass ritual will give unto the soul protection or light upon its journey through life.

In reality the soul had all that he required within his own walnut tree growth, if he would but blossom it into light, and not a prating egoism of courage he had never attained. For he believed that by his righteousness he was a great being, when in reality, at the first expounding of necessary courage, he found himself sadly wanting, and merely hanging by his ears.

For what he knew was merely hearsay knowledge, and not the assimilated wisdom of the Word, with courage coming forth by mastering of the Elements, and being able to respond to Uranus when he struck. Thus earthing the heights into the depths, and blossoming them into light as well as drawing the wealth up from the depths. This now being the source to Source unification, set into motion by Merope, through the depths of Relativity.

It may sound odd to some, that a creation dies, yet is alive at a later period. This is where we have to perceive these states being killed of their old creations and reborn into a new vibration. For we must try to remember, that this is a so-called rebirth out of the father creation, that in passing through the houses of the Astro chart, was endeavouring to reach the heights. Then in becoming one with the father creation, another son becomes born as a mind creation, and of him we will make further discourse.

This is the ever rebounding rebirth of evolution, where the soul now makes growth by perceiving greater and more voluble perception of being, thus discarding of the old and living on the new more expansive way of unfoldment. So here once again we come upon Captain Tripet, who was very angry that the devils had run upon his men. So out of the broil and defeat, he held a night council of war, including Rashcalf and Touchfaucet.

These represent those of haste and a bullying nature, that were being gathered together by one called Picrochole, he who had a mania for quarrels and conquest. These must be seen as internal states of the soul, that Gargantua had to conquer, and which had in reality, been causing much dissension in the creation.

So under Count Drawforth, he sent a scouting party out dressed as priests, throughly besprinkled with holy water, and a sign of a star upon their Scarf, in case they should encounter the devils who could lure them into their trap.

In this equipage they came near to Vauguyon, that of new belief, and after seeking much, came upon the six pilgrims, with them being carried away, bound and manacled, as if they had been spies. For at last, as the creations of the Chakras, they had been captured and forced into change. While all were absolutely ignoring their exclamations, adjurations and requests. This came to the ears of Gargantua, but the enemy he was fighting, were in far greater numbers than they, for all that they charged and tried to reform, to find that they were not fighting priests, but monks.

These were the religious states in the soul that would not change, whereby the poor pilgrims, in the change of belief, went on treading-in the mighty change that had now taken place. But as the opposition states came to the walnut tree, in passing under, they too became changed, but not without the monk making much damage. For Picrochole, who louted being changed, tried to keep the old creations.

Thus he went about driving his sword in all directions, cracking skulls and cutting off limbs, until eventually they met Gargantua, who soon diminished their numbers, leaving Picrochole very forlorn. While even Touchfaucet was taken prisoner, with many states that held up the advance, being cut to pieces.

AT last Gargantua masters the change, with the Friar becoming the Husbandman, and Grangousier, his father in the heights, being redeemed into the glories of rebirth. Thus the "thorn and the thistle" was the crown he now would wear, until rebirth came from the struggle of awakened reality, within his conscious mind.

Rebirth of the Fatherhood

THIS is how changes take place within the soul, as the Solar Glory fills the blood and passes through the broiling in the depths, thus bringing the soul to a completely new outlook; the soul being solely consistent of MIND.

The plate in itself describes of what advancement was being made by Gargantua, who at the time was being aided by Friar John, the monk state of the soul, a state that yet had really to be reborn. Thus, after the skirmishes, Gargantua retreated and at dawning of the day, came unto Grangousier, who had been praying for their safety. This unfortunately is a very subtle state in soul rebirth, for one is never quite sure of which way a reformation is going to turn a soul redemption.

This would be the arrival of the warrior Gargantua at his father's castle, hence would be the 10th house, where much would be gathered in, for this is a very vulnerable point in growth and brings many changes in its train. Often changes that completely change the life of the soul, in many and different respects.

As they came unto the castle, they all embraced, with Grangousier enquiring after the monk, and Gargantua replied that without doubt the enemy had the monk. To which Grangousier replied, "They have much mischief and ill luck." But ere long, Friar John entered the outer court, bringing along with him the six pilgrims and Touchfaucet as prisoners.

Whereupon there were cries of, "Fresh wine, fresh wine, Gymnast, my friend." All were made welcome, for here we behold of how the six pilgrims had lost their fear of changes, with Touchfaucet being cured of his bullying nature and Friar John making way to becoming the husbandman of rebirth.

There was much banqueting together as Grangousier enquired of all, regarding their adventures. While the Pilgrims declared they had come from Sebastian, he seeking of expansion, and would be returning by a much easier journey. But all the way they had been praying against the plague that had beset them. "Poor men," replied Grangousier, "do you think that the plague came from Sebastian?"

"Yes, indeed," declared one of the Pilgrims, to which Grangousier was inclined to anger, for this had a throw-back upon him, they having been of his creation and wanting in expansion. Thus a state not wanting to change, was seeking to blame all onto another, while it remained the poor righteous pilgrim.

THUS the last mighty change, that Gargantua could bring the full rebirth of his father, was the six Pilgrims, the complete rebirth of the six Chakras, being brought into full transformation of reborn LIGHT. With the religious factor ever biting at the vitals, until the fulness was complete.

CAPRICORNIAN HEIGHTS

THUS, as Gargantua laboured and wrestled with the wisdom, he completely blew all sky high. With all being risen up into the Glory of the mind, that the wisdom of Truth could be fully abundant. For the castle was the Capricornian heights, now being driven by Merope, up into heavenly-born glory of the mind. (See text in col. 5).

But all was at peace for the time, whereby the Pilgrims had their wallets filled with victuals, Desires, their bottles with wine, new wisdom, with each receiving a horse, fresh fire, and some pence or wealth to live by. For this being the seat of the unfolding fatherhood, everything is brought to its culmination.

It is here that the soul obtains of new and fresh vigor, but now under the Law of Theocratic unfoldment the soul is freely fed by the incoming Breath, and as he struggles, will be take of its copious waters. Yet the described alchemicalisation will be followed, until the soul achieves instantaneous perception.

Thus it may be very surprising to some, that such states really alternate in our internal being, and in such a personal way, as we try to assimilate the wisdom taken. For it is not only the conscious mind, but the eleven other states of the soul.

Then in reaching the tenth house, the main issue is the old fatherhood state being reborn, which in reality, is the culmination of that phase of personalisation. For the next two houses deal with the Arc absorption, into again another re-birth of the conscious mind.

The tenth house in all its elevated culmination, is what must be brought into birth, not just an acquiring of knowledge. This being the triune of earth, which should have brought the soaring of the Eagle, the personal creation soaring up to the heights. Then the Arc of the soul, the corpus callosum, is stretched into the fatherhood, in the true sense of the Word. This will cause the Commission to catch sight, while eventually a revolving Infinity will be created, in the serpent swallowing his own tail.

The soul being fed in his Pituitary by his own spiral tail of past wealth, hence the full creation of the tenth, is in old wisdom being completely reborn. This is performed now, under Theocratic rebirth, by the etheric ever being filled with light from the down-pouring Outer Space Breath. Thus ever filling the soul with new Atomic wisdom that is dripped into the depths, changing the blood-stream and conscious outlook, which this Plate ably describes.

(See plate in cols. 3 & 4)

All old ideas were blown sky high, and the new beliefs were entered in. But this is where I do not agree with Rabelais, who naturally held to a certain amount of religious belief. He declares that the imitation of the ancient Hercules, Alexanders, Hannibals, Scipios, Caesars and other such heroes, is quite contrary to the profession of the gospels of Christ.

It was such as these that gave us what we know, and the so-called gospel of Christ was wisdom first founded by the Hebrew Scribes, who were in captivity at the time of the domination of the Turkish Power. But it was Roman Catholicism that created a Christ on a cross, to suit their own ends of holding the populace under subjection.

Without the experience of all, we should be lacking in the Archives that we require to refresh our memory into recapitulation. By his statement that the Barbarians and Saracens were using robbing, thieving and wickedness as prowess of valour, surely he has forgotten the pillaging and plundering that the Catholics carried out in their so-called sacred wars. Including the Vatican now filled up to collapsing with the art treasures of those rich realms.

But more than that, inciting into the land of Italy, storms and floods that have raided

Reminiscences

Divine Husbandry

Octavial Glory of HIM, out of the risen up "soil" that has been filled into Royal Production. But none of this could have come about, if the conscious perception had not awakened and perceived. Therefore the Easter-born inauguration is indeed Royal at the present moment of elevation, for now there is one who has claimed the RIGHT to its unborn demonstration.

Divine Communistos Fellowship

THIS is where I, as Merope, am claiming my Masterhood of Christship, for in having brought all the wealth out of my depths, and risen it up by polarisation by the Hydrogenised Breath, Divinity as the Depths of the Divine Holy FIRE, can now use my vehicle for HIS manifesting Pulsation, as seen in the Plate of the Christos Blood.

(See May 1971 issue, page 9)

Then in having perceived those depths with their potential heights of Divine Overshadownance, let us look to the Plate of the Erythem Mare, (See May 1971 issue, page 8) the passionate creation of the mind. There in the forebrain we perceive Asia, the past controller of the Seven Gates that now have been opened by the Solar Glory, releasing the soul from its lower depths of lunar experiences of TIME.

This is where we behold our unity with the Elements and the heavens; therefore, by mastery of depths and heights in the true sense of the Word, we find our freedom in bringing into birth of a Divine Atomic Abstract MIND.

Hence, to help those who are yet new to this Mighty change of Generation, we will start with the manifestation of husbandry of those Seven lower creations of the Soul. For up to the present, man has only had an animal mind, one of self-preservation.

Now it must be a Creative mind of Divine Solar expansion, incorporating all of the past Worlds and Continents of Domination. For we must realise that the whole of the Brain is an Embryo of God-born glory, waiting to give forth, and must return to the Heights, as the Celestial Hierarchs, their Royal Atoms of LIGHT.

This is the Divine Communistos Fellowship, manifesting in the unevolved as the foetal creature within the womb of the Holy Mother, the pia mater, and is the celestial hermaphrodite waiting to produce the Royal Holy Master of Truth. But before we embark upon the working fundamental of this Oracle, let us look a little more upon the Erythem Mare.

This was the first creation of the passionate genesis, which man fails to comprehend today, owing to religious confusion; hence the dry waterpot of mind creation. For the continual ravaging of the passions, the spermic generator of the mind through the Breath, will only carry him right down into the valley of

HAVING ENLIGHTENED MANY I HOPE, UPON the unfolding Truth of Divine Generation, we will now seek to elucidate the Road of Solar Germination. For soul and the unfolding Phantasmagoria of LIFE, walk side by side, with soul endeavouring, out of the Kaleidoscope of mind creation and conscious belief, to bring forth the resurrection of Creative Belief. If we look into the Plates of the previous Gazette, we will see how Divine Overshadownance is born out of the infusion of the Heights through the Breath into the depths, stirring the blind germination seeds into the manifesting Royalty of Mind Perception. The creation upon the Arc is the Divine Consciousness now manifesting as the the Styx, where his reception will only be of lower Neptune. That of the Phantasmagoria as seen in the base of the first plate referred to.

Unless we face up to self, we will only ever live in illusion, therefore the only way to get out of that prison house, is to seek for the wisdom that will raise up the Spirit from out of the depths. This is where Pluto was cast into the Underworld, and again refers to the Plate on Page 10, col. 1 of last month's Gazette.

Pluto was the Holy Fire that Merope danced into action, and brought down to Earth to stir the inert gods into mind ascension. This was brought down from Scorpio and became buried under their creation of sensation.

Hence Mount Taurus arose, burying the soul under its illusion of desire; therefore Pluto in the Underworld is within oneself. When the bull is forced to drive, the Spirit rises and carries the soul up in Relativity, to create the Glory of Reality and Divine LIGHT, in the mind released out of its own created prison of illusion.

This is Daedalus and his son Icarus, being imprisoned by the Minos in the labyrinth, or the 12th house, only as lunar waters of multiplicity. The soul's task is to find ever a state of oneness, in all being brought to Solar points of Light.

Thus by the former, "reason once king in man, became deposed and dead, and the purple isle was ruled without a head." With the stomach as the devouring state, saying all. Therefore, what the hands did burn, the feet did gall, swift to shed his royal blood, ever lost to the glory of the heights.

(See plate in cols. 3 & 4)

This can explain a little more of why we derive 12th house and 8th house planets; we place our lower creation of desire before the creation of the mind, and we are held in the darkness of the Astral Planes. This is why the Greater Powers have taken over the Creation of the Word, which refers to the foremost article in the Gazette.

These are entirely directed from the Intelligencia, who controls the instrument upon the Abstract Plane of Plutonian Masterhood. Thereby avoids multiplicity, and helps the soul to start on the road of molecularisation to find Solar ONENESS. Therefore all who wrestle with the wisdom therein, will find themselves being lifted up by and through alchemicalisation.

Thus slowly find as they increase their sensitivity, that perception breaks through, and the depths of the Word unfolds itself. Besides electrification stirring their blood, stimulating the genuine seeker, to eagerly plod on and find the answer to life. But the major thing to be remembered, is that now we are on the FIRE PLANE of the MIND, and no longer in the depths of matter.

had not started, so we cannot judge ourselves then by what we are now.

Our task now is to secure Continuity, by creating a creative royal mind, out of all that we have taken, and return to the heights the Light that will give unto those Higher Planes, the wherewithal to feed the depths with renewed Breath. Therefore, if we look upon the diagram on page 8, col. 2, of the May issue, we can perceive polarity and extension, with source and the rings, radiating with light.

Central Sun, by entering into the depths of his own central sun replica. This is performed by the Wisdom of the Word, and molecularisation of the chromosomes in the bloodstream.

This is where these lectures, placed in the foremost of the Gazette, convey unto the soul the wisdom of divine frequency, that carries the soul up in ascension, into the World of Vega. For the mind now highly sensitised, is consciously aware of internal beliefs, that it has never before experienced.

What the drug addict does by drugs, leaving himself high and dry, we do by the Power of the Hydrogen Breath, becoming born of the Rhythm of the Spheres.

Of course, one of our biggest troubles being, that we want to place out before our conscious eye, every detail of what we are. Little realising that we have become unto our present state, by involving, polarising, growth and expansion. This is the kaleidoscope of becoming, so we have to be content with a brief skeleton map of the details, that very often appears confusing.

By taking the Wisdom in the Word, it brings changes of vibration and frequency through alchemicalisation, and the corpuscular interchange between the etheric and the physical body. The going up and down of the Chakra Planes, is the soul perceiving by his vibronic conscious belief. The soul ever thinks up in his heights, but according to the frequency of thought entertained by the soul.

To help with this explanation of Divine Husbandry, we are bringing some very controversial and explanatory Plates of Virgil. A Poet who was well versed in the wisdom of the lower element Husbandry, whereas the Divine fulfillment is the wisdom put into operation by Merope.

The major point to understand is the fact that growth within the soul has ever remained on a static level. Yes! increased in conventionalism and class distinction, due to religion and academical snobbery, but unfolding mind growth, No!

This would be the channel between Gemini and Sagittarius, from the beginning of Genesis to any expansion accrued on the lines of Constitutional growth. These depths start as far back as the depths of animal-human manipulation, so could be before the Neolithic man. Where the Centaur states were in growth, where soul was half horse and half man.

Therefore if you visualise the astrological chart as such

...you have Gemini in its mundane deduction becoming elevated, and raising any Planetary Element up into Sagittarius in mind expansion, which would have its expanded detail in Virgo, the intuitive mind. For the decanates of Virgo are Coma the Desired mind of the harlot, with Centaurus the Centaur to be buried

LOWER DESIRES

WHAT his stomach did decree, did his head ever behold, weaving glories and beliefs of only Cancer multiplicity. With the soul ever finding himself short of electrolysis and frequency, to bridge the gap of the Minos. With Taurus sitting on the Well of the Fount, and its wealth being buried in the stagnant waters. (See text in col. 2).

Therefore, if the soul begins from the beginning of comprehension of the mighty changes now ensuing in the World of Creation, he still will be fully elevated up, into the heights of the mind. This is entirely a state of vibration, where the conscious mind perceives on different levels of consciousness. So although we have been seeking into the 'whys and wherefores,' we also have been touching that of the Hermetics, and Husbandry in its creation.

For the former are the Mysteries hidden in the brain, as the inscrutable depths of the source. With the polarity as the cauda equina releasing the Seeds equal, and permissive by the inflowing Breath. For once upon a time, soul was that of the Anthropomorphic Egg, yet a world understandable to itself. Personalisation

The Depths of the Central Sun

HUSBANDRY will only begin when the soul begins to awaken, then the Ego turns from egoism into seeking for the sustenance from its Divine EGO. This in true fact is within the heights of the mind as the Thalamic Ganglion, that situated within the Commissure, and becomes the LIGHT of the Divine Monstrance, as Masterhood becomes. While the Mysterious unity of the Source, has its counterpart in the Constellation of its birth, from which the soul was sent to labour, for that Divine Creation.

When the soul reaches this stage of initiation, Husbandry is transformed into Divine Husbandry, for he starts to enter into the depths of the in, that Bootes, the coming one, can be the child in the womb of the Virgin mind, which is coming forth in the centre hub of the chart, as the LIGHT gained by the Atoms.

By this the soul rises up to the expansion of the heights, but until the lower five Chakras are risen up into the sixth, the soul ever creates in the lower state of the chart.

Hence, unless wisdom to the equivalent of the mortuary meal is taken by the soul, states that have accrued from the beginning of the growth of the soul, ever remain down in the internal depths of Sagittarius, for this represents the continual state of expansion. Thus like a Pandora's Box, accrues in the depths of its mysterious conglomeration.

Virgil who was a past master of such mighty wisdom, portrays this plate in his Pastorals.

(See plate on this page)

This represents the Warrior who has awakened, suddenly finding himself confronted with these internal depths. Although he has herds in abundance, in not having buried in of these roots by the mortuary meal, by mind expansion and the Solar infusion, he finds himself anchored to matter.

If he had laboured, as was advised by the Poets and the Occult teachers of that day, it would have given him a conclusive pitch-blended mind, a mind blended up in unfolded belief and expansion.

This is shown in the tree that he is leaning up against, in its roots hanging out of the soil. In other words, he is not well rooted, and could topple over any moment, if brought to argument. This again is where the raised-up wisdom of Universal Philosophy will bury in of all these ancient roots, giving the soul polarised perception.

For the Wisdom is born from Outer World Space Breath, involving and raising up vibronically the Etheric structure of soul growth. For it is the Etheric that feeds the super-brain, which percolates through the Wall of Thebes, that of the Corpus Callosum, to feed the conscious brain.

This may or may not appear as perception or even belief, therefore the gods in the heights, now changed by the new creation, send down a "drip" through the blood, into the depths of the soul. This can draw the soul to wisdom, which can be the means of awakening the conscious mind to the internal growth now being accrued.

Here we find Virgil referring to Gallus his friend, a patron of the arts, one who is lost in Arcadia through his rural deities, his lower states of desire. For Gallus was in love with Citharis the moon, so Virgil tries to help his friend by his Pastoral. Whereby a lowly shrub appears out of the density of the rock, and the past deities are buried-in. But many have never sought of this wisdom, therefore find themselves being besieged by many states of lower desires.

The Age of Mind

NOW the soul, if it perceives and awakens, is ready to start its own husbandry, but until, such deities would rule the mind, and shut the door to any form of sensitive perception that could bring frequency and electrolysis. The latter being the electricity created between the Chakras, that arrives at the heights as LIGHT.

So now we have to gather the soul together, up to the present day. The treading of the grapes goes back over Ages, but now being continued in the form of searching into wisdom. Wild experiences really belong to the past, this is the Age of the MIND, so everything begins from the period of mind creation. This is where Rabelais is so useful and instructive, for he takes all in deep detail.

Therefore now man must set the bull plowing, by seeking into Wisdom, then if he seeks high enough, he will draw the Solar-Galactical Fired Hydrogen Breath unto himself, that he can extract out of its depths, the expansion of mind belief, according to his aspiration.

But the soul, in gathering of the grapes, must make sure that he does not become drunken as he presses the fruit and drinks of the WINE thereof. Then having taken of the Wisdom, must digest and aspire, then set the Desires into action. Whereby the Breath in passing through the Blood, establishes the first round, giving light to the Etheric Body, enhancing and frictioning the wealth already there from the past.

This would be in the Blood-stream in the protoplasmic chromosome creation, whereby, if the bull is driving by mind plowing, he causes an infinity of revolution of belief and thought, resulting in the etheric in the Blood, feeding the Commissure with agitating belief.

Then, as the Breath, in passing through the Blood and Canopic organs, is charged with the Hydrogen Fire, it extracts out of that internal Plasm, the wisdom contained in the Chromosomes. Those created by the inflowing Chromosphere Breath of the Central Sun, that contained the wealth from all past Ages and Worlds for Billions of years, which now by Hydrogen infusion of the new inflowing Breath, blossoms all into Solar rebirth.

For Merope, by her labours of reforming the LAWS and reborn Wisdom, has raised up the frequency of the Breath, according to her present mind creation. So now, by bringing down of the Holy Fires of God-born light, right down into the depths of her Arabic past, causes the Chromosomes of all to become molecularised, bringing everybody to a state of oneness.

She did this by raising up the Planes and the union of Relativity, carrying all up onto the MIND PLANE, burying in the states of their past. But it must be remembered that soul can hold onto these creations by his mind, when he refuses to see differently and accept the way of expansion. The thing is to believe that such has taken place, and go forth as a soul freed from the darkness of illusion and ignorance.

Now we come to the second round, which is the re-creation of the conscious mind, where the alchemicalised belief of the blood, is blended with the raised-up passions. Where as Spiritus Air, is driven up the spinal column, as the Bull and Scorpio play "tennis".

This is done by baffling the Seed incorporated out of the tail of the soul, back and forth, until a true Solar conception is perceived. This creates the electrolysis through the Air-born Seed rising up the Pranas. Then in the fourth and fifth, becomes the fight between the Lion and the Unicorn, the heart Chakra and the Jupiterian expansion of the Bull.

If the heart is well balanced on the scales of truth and husbandry, it passes through into the heights, and the 'Sky Weeping gods' are reborn. This is where the Arc takes on of the greater light, and the gods send down the reborn "drip", to try and awaken the conscious mind into greater expansion.

This is where true Divine thereby changing every other state of the soul.

The secret to be beheld here, is of the hob-goblins and ghouls that come out from the rock as the bull drives and gives reformation through the drive. For this is where Venus becomes reborn from the harlot to the Virgin, and carries the babe up to the heights. This being the complementary light that intensifies the coming Fatherhood. Then the soul, as he takes of the wisdom, begins his prowess by the throwing of the dart, to try and obtain Solar points of Light. This would be none other than the spinal column, in its driving frequency and sensitivity, driving all the wisdom gained, up

ANCIENT DEPTHS OF THE SOUL

GALLUS gazed in awe-stricken confusion, as three of his depths came forth, to complain of his disturbance. They enjoyed life as it was, but now he had lofty ideals, that were threatening their very existence. For all had been raised up onto the Flery Plane of the Mind Glory of the Aquarian Relativity. (See text in col. 1).

Husbandry begins, for by the study of the Word, the soul is helped to awaken to the wealth and frequency from the drip now infusing the blood, going forth right down into the depths of the soul. For the conscious mind is the Bull, he is the first of the earth triune, therefore the soil must be re-dug and re-filled with new ideas, causing the May Fires to dance round the Maypole of the new-born twelve gods in the heights.

This is the preambulance of the vaults of the heavens, and since everything takes place within the soul itself, it is the mind Desires going up in aspiration and ideal. The Bull driving with propulsive acme, sparing nothing and nobody, to the heights in supreme Solar points of ONENESS.

This is where the rural deities are reformed by invocation and wisdom into active healthy animal Fires. No longer hermaphrodite or sodomitical states, but healthy animal-Human Fire, and as the WINDS blow and enhance the wealth beheld, old Bull states are battled with and new Bull mastery is taken over.

The herds now are changed from sheep to goats, for the soul by belief and wisdom has risen up to the heights, where he seeks to draw in of mind creation, by calling down the Heights of Outer World Space. This is where Husbandry begins to become Divine Husbandry, for the soul starts to bring his corpuscular interchange between Etheric and physical bodies, into a finer union of rebirth. For he now is playing for Continuity, the gravitational pull of the heights.

This brings down the winter snows which the soul now must melt and recreate into the Vega World of mind Belief. For the soul has become risen up onto the Mind Plane of Fire, and the Spirit, freed by the Bull in his new-born efforts, is ever rising higher and higher. With the corpuscular interchange, bringing the Etheric and the physical into entire ONENESS.

The Hiving of the Bees

BY this interbirth with the heights and new-born Breath, that activated by Merope, the animal Fires are freed from animal deterioration, for all must now be raised up from lunar to Solar. This will be accomplished by polarisation set into motion by transforming darkness into light. So the soul sets his Hives, that he can draw into his depths the hiving Bees, that honey can be gathered in for the winter store.

This is the activity of the mind, that all the chromosomes can become lightened up with electrified frequency. So the soul by reformation and enforced activity, builds a bridge across the lunar waters, that the Bees, the Nymphs of the Blood, can find their way up to the royal Hive in the heights. The mighty Commissure creation in the heights, with its numerous ganglions in the depths, that the great swarming of the Bees can be increased. Then the Queen Bee, their Venus, now as Venus-Urania, can become wedded to the mighty LIGHT now accruing in the heights.

(See plate on page 10)

She now as the great Queen of the heavens with her retinue of Nymphs, now feeds the Fires with untold wisdom. For as she has so risen, does she also plumb the depths, whereby she now becomes "wedded" to the mighty Intelligencia of the Central Sun.

This is Source to source, Central Sun to central sun, that her voice can become the mighty OM of the Unseen Heavenly Creator. For she by becoming as the Dyophysite Queen, is the blended oneness of heights and depths, whereby He, the mighty Source of the FIRE, can make manifestation.

The profundity of this Plate is enormous, for the details are exemplifying every detail of change, even unto the creating of the ethereal garments, the preparing of the meals of the Word, and the forming and creating of the Vase. With the Waters rising up from the Fount in the depths, and the Royal Golden Bull recognising the majesty of the Queen as she replenishes the Fires of the depths.

For as Merope has set the measure of the cosmic Breath, is it changed into the basic Rhythm of matter, by man breathing in of its Holy consistency. Thus it forces everything to take on of the Core Reality of the Central Sun, that of Holy sensitised Theocratic Fired Royalty.

Hence every man is continually being risen up by Merope's labours in the depths, and accounts for the controversy that is now existing in the World. For this is the only way that man knows how to express his internal changes.

Although all the basic LAWS are set, and every man is raised up onto the MIND Plane, it is his task as the conscious mind that is blind to truth, to enlighten his mind by the wealth that the Higher Powers are sending down to Earth. This can be found in the Gazette and lectures given by the Master; then by Divine Husbandry, must drive and work his realisation. For every man is now rich with untold wealth on the Abstract Plane of Divine Unknown possibility.

This is where his possibilities are Dynamic, for through Merope's struggles, he too is making polarity with his Ethiopian depths, where untold wealth was deposited before the soul sank into the Waters of Material Illusion.

Divine Husbandry is the searching for the Royal depths, that at the present is only resulting in chaos and disruption, for everything is the outcome of a CAUSE. It can never be a state of just arising out of nothing; disruption is the negative side of the Scorpionic inflow taking on of the Black Scorpion, and never really of what it is applicable to.

(See plate on page 14)

Here we behold Shamash fighting the Storm birds, who are none other than the negative side of the Raw Powers that have been drawn down from Outer World Space, and have to be installed into the depths in their positive recreation of Mind Light. Until they are raised up into their Royal status of manifestation, will act as disruption in the human element.

This wisdom we now, in our so-called sophisticated growth, have forgotten or repudiate, but was knowledge well-known to the ancients, where the King of a Nation, or a chief of a Tribe, spent their prowess in Divine Husbandry, that they could maintain the wealth and Power of their Nation against other warring controversies. For by raising up their vibrations, they maintained an Aura of strength, which became their "protector and shield."

This was the promise that was made to Abraham, if he drew down into his midst the Power of God. (Gen. 15 v 1). Thereby Sarah, his Venus principle, brought forth a son, who would be none other than the conscious mind taking on of the positive side of Aries, the pioneering warrior. This now would be, in the raised up Planes, the Mighty Element of Pluto, with Vulcan as the shield of positive action accrued, that the Mighty Powers of the Divinity could Over-shadow him.

It is this status of life that we have discarded, hence has only resulted in war, where the manhood of the Nation is crippled. Or as America or even Russia have resorted to, in going backwards up to the moon, to try and find superior expansion, and drawing down into their midst, elements that will result in far worse devastation than ever known before. By doing this, they have solidified past states that were being dissolved, thereby claim them as their trophy of vibration.

This is another subject we fail to comprehend, and even blind ourselves to, by shutting our eyes and refusing to accommodate. Everything is ONLY vibration, and so fluidic as to disperse with every Element of change. This is why there are Electrical storms, for the Greater Powers send down Mighty Uranian Forces to break up the solidity brought about by man's ignorance and Saturn desires.

These in reaching the solidified magnetic states, set up a violent breaking down, as the piercing Element rends these states into fluidity. Invariably it is accompanied with violent downpouring of rain, which washes the change deep down into the earth. If this is not responded to, by man turning over the soil of his own human earth state, sooner or later earthquakes result in a strata where such is possible. Perhaps by this we can see how blind are our scientists, for this is but the outer fringe of the true Divine Husbandry of the Hermeneutic Wisdom of the Heavens.

For the Greater Glory is now being afforded unto man in the Mighty Wisdom being made known unto the soul, by the internal depths of the Word coming forth through the descent of the Theocratic Powers into the depths. That brought about by the continual interblending, set into action by Merope drawing down of the Mighty Power of the Intelligencia. For nothing can stand still, and the Laws have been set now for continual Evolution.

This now is the Cosmic Wisdom being revealed in the Occult Gazette, which will ever transcend man up onto the ing drawn back into his own heights, thus making him all mind.

The Voice in the Fire

BUT now we will come to the soul who is labouring, and this is applying to the Initiate who is studying the Word. By the Virgin of every soul labouring to bring forth of the Holy Presence into their mind creation, she becomes of the Holy Ghost, for she becomes ONE with the Father in the heights of the Mind. To completely understand of this mighty statement, whatever Merope sets into motion, now becomes the LAW.

Thus she, by drawing everything back into her heights as mind, through the inborn Word, has drawn down as Over-shadowance the Holy Presence. This is the in-born heights of the soul, now speaking through the voice of the Master, to convince the disbeliever.

GOD is not a BEING or a Myth, but the manifestation of man's Holy Belief, his royal justification of Truth. Where the Fired Breath is risen up as Holy Waters, bringing the Divine Monstrance, the Lighted Commissure, to revealing the internal Wonders of the Holy Unseen Glorified Source. The extremities of Depths and heights revealing the Source of BEING, through the Thermo-nuclear activity of soul's Divine Belief.

This is the Divine Priestal Radiance of Atomic ONeness, where the Voice as Breath equaliser, by Divine Husband-

Spheres in the Glory of manifestation, thereby bringing into being, the Heavenly Heights, as the Divine Mystery of LIFE. Now in its polarized unity, has become the electrified enciente depths of LIGHT, that of a Holy Atomic forged mind creation, born out of a Royal Holy Belief.

It is from this involved Diapasonic Divine inflow, that the Light ascends as the levitated constitution of Divine Theocratic Husbandry. The woven Beauty of vibronic Diapasonic magnitude of inflowing Rhythm, now brought to the royal glory of the frequency of the soul, by the intensity of the WORD. It is by such that man is born of GOD, the Royal inter-blended wonder of the Secret of the Heavens.

This now as the octavial Theocratic Atomic Arc, is the Divine driving Priesthood of the soul. He who now rejoices in the Etheric royalty of the electrolysed verbatim, that which Word by Word carries the Profundity up to the heights, transcending its own Supreme Glory as it rises. This as the Divine Preambulance of the soul, is the Depths of the FIRE of All-Consuming Holy Radiance, now as Vega. The First Diapasonic Dynasty of Holy Light Phenomenal manifestation.

To complete this mighty truth of Divine Husbandry, we must now realise that everything of the struggling Initiate is now being drawn back up to the heights as MIND, and he resides by vibration in his Commissure. So to fully comprehend this, we must now fully realise that the Bull in the depths has also been drawn back up to the heights by vibration.

He being the labouring Sut, by ever being led to the Altar of sacrifice by the Initiate, now makes him become the Beast before the Throne, manifesting the Glory of the Father in the heights. For now, filled with the freedom of Outer World Space, the soul who has laboured, becomes of the Power of the Atomic stimulated mind as it consciously lives in the density of Matter. But now ever drives with the freedom of Outer World Space, declaring the wonders of the Heavenly Truth.

Here we can perceive more fully Pluto in the Underworld now raised up to Pluto, the Christed mind in the heights. With Cerberus the three headed dog, now the trine of the mind, for it was Taurus being divided from Scorpio, that brought TIME into being. For Taurus should have been the driving propulsion of the Atom, bringing Divine Perception into birth.

This is where we now have to fully understand of Vibration, and at last come to the fact of accepting non-existence of FORM in its solid state of non-change. For all must eventually dissolve into dust and become reborn onto a Higher Plane by the Law of Evolution, and this is what man is not accepting by going back to the moon. Soul must go forward and become born of the greater, this being the Solar Glory, the inbirth of Divine unfoldment.

So by everything being drawn back to the heights of the mind, and man existing on the Mind Plane, the soul has built up within his midst, a revolving infinity of revolving LIGHT. That which in continual revolution is fed by the Breath, and ever spins up out of itself, the Glory of continual mind creation. This is what was intended by the Gods, when the sparks left the heights, and now has been fulfilled as was intended in the beginning.

Now by the revealed belief of the Scapegoat, all becomes electrified repercussion, whereby heights and depths become the same revolving frequency

THE ROYAL COMMISSURE

DREAMS that once were the exaltation of the Poets, today are the Reality of Merope. With Venus now the Virgin Queen of every soul creation. But until the conscious mind awakens out of its slumbers of illusion, she will ever be ravaged by the soul. The mystery plate of the Christ-born Commissure, is the Holy Glory of Neptune, brought to Divine Reality. Where the Hydrogen Waters are feeding the soul with Chromospheric Radiant Glory. (See text on page 9, col. 5).

Abstract Plane, where he too can find Divine Theocratic Embrace. Although every soul etherically is raised up onto the Mind Plane, the majority now have to awaken, and bring their conscious mind into unity with their etheric. But in the meantime will go on breathing in of the Mighty Hydrogen Breath, filling himself more and more with the Fires of the Heavens.

This, unbeknown to himself, puts him in the category of a reborn god, that of the Pre-protoplasmic creation. Now by the ever involving Atomic Glory being afforded unto him, all is being transcended up by the involving of the Holy Word, as the Fire in the Breath. Therefore man is automatically be-

Glory of the Seed from the Core of the Scorpionic Heights, which she, through her internal LOVE and Belief, now fructifies into the Glory of the Fatherhood.

This is Royal Divine Husbandry, as revealed unto Philip in John 14 v 8, where this Divine Legend reveals the Master declaring unto one of no belief, "Believe me for the Work's sake, that what we are seeking to do, can go forth in Divine expansion. Believe thou not that I am in the Father and the Father in me? For he that believeth on me, that I can be upheld and give forth of yet greater, what I do, shall he do also."

Thus this was the Voice in the FIRE, accrued in the ry gives forth of profound Wonders. This now is the Spiritual Holy Dyophysite sensitised marriage of the molecularised Infinity. For man now is the driving Bull that can spin up into profound Wonders, and perceive the Mystery of the Almighty Unknown.

For the Breath, the Divine Atoms of the Hierarchical Planes, which man is now taking unto himself, must either spin up as the FACE of Theocratic Divine Truth, or become lost in their Dynamic profundity.

That which was first set into motion by Merope, when she danced the Rhythm of the their vaults which were storing these treasures in their depths. It is clear the Powers of Spirit do not approve, for the obvious reason that the so-called Infidels, were the Root creators of the Race, and Catholicism the infidel. When one knows the intensity of these Occult depths, truth is revealed in all its clarity.

Unfolding Sensitivity

THE Chapter we are dealing with at the present moment, has a very complicated depth of wisdom belying it. In fact the next few Chapters carry us through the Arc and enters the wisdom into a son being born to Gargantua. So we will have to tread our way carefully, trying to get through Aquarius and Pisces, and into Aries, while at the same time, catching the mysterious depth as we go.

The Chapter in question, referring to the hostile attack of the infidels to steal the wealth to save our good Christian brothers, is still of Capricorn. Where the soul has risen up to the heights of his belief, set Aquila the Eagle in flight, and Delphinus the Dolphin to bring home the wealth. That it could rise up to the roof of the Arc, and await the striking of LIGHT in Aquarius. For it is in the latter that Uranus brings the Water into the Waterpot, that in Aries it is turned into Wine, in the marriage of Cana.

So in this Chapter we find that Captain Touchfaucet has been captured and presented to Grangousier. This would be the Saturn and religious states that were preventing the Solar Beam from shooting up to the top of the Arc. For we can have knowledge but not wisdom, and it seems this is what had been overcome, by Gargantua making war upon the religious states that were preventing the true wealth coming into birth. But since nothing is destroyed, just buried in, naturally Touchfaucet is going to be driven forth.

Hence his ransom, arms and horses are restored to him, and Friar John who took the prisoner, is called. Whereupon he was ordered to give to the monk £15,500 and ordered to return to his king. This is the wealth, that as a captured state, he entered into the depths of the soul. Then he was given an excellent sword with vine branch-like flourishes and a neckchain of gold, garnished with precious stones and 10,000 crowns.

This was the Power he would actually add unto the soul's power of grace, as he got to his horse, or passion drive, whereby he was led by Alchemicalisation into the depths of the soul, or even unto the gate of the rock Clermond. For often there is many a slip twist cup and lip, before such wealth is assimilated.

The sword as a Vienne blade, was made by the water mills from an iron forge, and would denote the strength of will gained by the soul in the capture. Which is really indicating, that a greater comprehension of Divinity was achieved by the mastery. Friar John being the internal spirit that was ever seeking to rise up out of the earthy creation of Taurus. While the collar of gold was the Solar accomplishment of the Taurean-Thyroid assimilation gathered in.

It is such as this which brings genius into birth, for it is the palanquin of Venus. The guard of arms to conduct him safely through, was the soul strength to manipulate such wealth and carry the conquest safely up to the Arc as LIGHT. As soon as he was gone, the monk restored unto Grangousier the wealth taken, and the tenth house was fulfilled.

Again the next Chapter needs careful handling, for although the previous paragraph states of the wealth gained, there would be the involving of the wealth into all the other states of soul creation. Rabelais goes deeply into this, which of course is the expansion gained; that is, if Grangousier can make it.

A great account is rendered regarding the wealth offered by the many towns mentioned, with horsemen, dragoons, firearms and artillery. With pioneers victualled for six months, which offer Gargantua did not refuse. Which indicates how the wealth of Touchfaucet was entered in by the rounding of assimilation, and he returned to Grangousier in profound embracement.

This was acquired sensitivity for Gargantua, but in going upon the round of the soul, which would be Grangousier's struggle to tread it in, and Gargantua being reborn, he had been much corrupted and was inclined to fight against the soul. Whereupon Touchfaucet drew the sword he had been given by Grangousier, and ran Rashcalf through the body, whereby he died. An old rebellious state buried in, with a new status now manifest. Then immediately Touchfaucet was cut to pieces and cast over the walls into the ditch, while Rashcalf was given an honourable burial.

This is the twist and the mystery of Occultism, where after going down south in the treading in, the state returns having caused much consternation in the change. Then kills off the old state and buries in the new; but rather difficult to comprehend, for we are conversing in Words of states that are mere changes rendered by alchemicalisation.

Yet wealth reborn in each limb or galactical composition, which gives unto the gods in the heights, rebirth of outlook. But it seems that the changes rendered by the Gargantua status becoming the wealth of the father in the tenth, caused much disturbance, and Picrochole, the intensification of change taking over, reprimands them.

To understand these changes and the attitude we adopt, when in reality we desire them, yet resent the disturbance, can only be understood by the most observant and sensitised soul. For Picrochole, who is the foremost of the change taking place, is the most prominent person for the time being. And when Pinchpenny, which indicates the white wine maturing into birth, cries out against the ill-provided victuals, Picrochole reprimands him.

Thereby declaring, "Let the enemy come if they dare, you are like a melon eel before they begin to skin you." In reality the sensitivity, although there, had not yet awakened, whereupon Gargantua sets upon Picrochole within the rock Clermond and utterly defeats his army. In other words Gargantua struggles, masters the situation, and the Saturn state is buried in.

For by the changes that have taken place, Gargantua had full charge of the whole army of change, while Grangousier his father stayed in his castle. This refers now to the changing and unfolding state of the Commissure, while the major change would now be in the eleventh house of Aquarius, where Uranus is awakened through the wealth of the Southern Fish being fully polarised and risen up to the heights.

For Aquarius is the polarisation of Leo and would be the old fire of the past fully risen, causing Uranus to begin to spark in the Arc of the Void. This is where the magnetic and the Atomic are united = so that the winged horse or flying passions can come into action.

But states do not happen just like that, so we will try and gather up the mighty wealth that Rabelais had hidden in this satirical dissertation. Not forgetting, that as we do so, I am collecting its wealth of polarisation, that will not only fulfill Rabelais, but clarify the evil stench applied to it. Therefore the hidden wealth retrieved for Vega, by all being raised up to the Atomic Solar unification.

What is most amazing, we find the monk, Friar John, still accompanies Gargantua. This of course is the husbandman John coming into birth, and would be equal to John the baptist, before the soul takes on of the Christos, that of the Solar light. Therefore at last, they come to the ford of Vede, where with boats and bridges speedily made they pass over in a trice, or the triune of Fire.

With everything they had, they fired the town, yet their shot passed over without doing any damage, until all the occupiers fled in disorder and confusion. Whereupon the Gargantuists won the town, with Picrochole fleeing in utter despair.

Here was Saturn being completely chased out, whereby his horse stumbled and fell, and Picrochole was so incensed, he drew his sword and killed him, therefore was minus his fire. He tried to get help from a nearby mill, but the miller's men so basted his bones, as to make him black and blue all over.

Then stripping him of all his clothes, merely gave him an old scurvy canvas jacket to cover his nakedness. Then as he passed a poor old choleric wretch, he was told by him, that his kingdom would be restored to him at the coming of the Cocklicranes. To this day, they say he is still enquiring of all strangers, when would there be the coming of the Cocklicranes.

These are shells of sea-hedgehogs, who only turn within their shells, never moving backward or forward. Which of course is the loss of fluidity, through the calcifying of Jupiter. While the first thing that Gargantua did, was to muster roll all of his men, give them refreshment, and an order for the treasury to defray of their pay.

This is where Saturn is transmuted and Uranus takes over, setting the Arc into a sparking action. Whereupon Gargantua made speech to the vanquished, with those who still belonged to Picrochole, being handed to the Princess.

But this is where Uranus began to act, for as Gargantua rose up from the magnetic unto the Atomic in his speech, Uranus began its testing as to who and which were worthy. For Gargantua was now under the auspices of Divinity in the true sense of the Word, where Uranus was the sparking acme of the Arc.

WHEN all was set, Uranus came to test the wealth, to see if it was worthy of the Neptunian flight into the World of Vega. That the magnetic could be completely changed, into the Atomic Solar Diapasonic Glory.

Now the true work of rebirth was well impressed upon all states, as the amazing wealth gained was placed into the vaults. While every soul now had his own land to plow and till, for Gargantua as the first virgin son of the soul, had brought wealth to the soul.

AS Gargantua took over of the heights, and his father became laid to internal rest, a new World was born in the reborn creation, which caused the Arc to Spark with reborn light. But the wine, the Glory applied to the depth of the Word, caused it to vibrate with the Royalty of its Divine application.

There was only the monk left to be provided for, whereby Gargantua caused the Abbey of the Thalamites to be built and fully endowed. For the fabric and furniture to be established, he ordered a vast sum to their coffers, and many golden rams. Such dynamic wealth had never before been the glory of a soul, and what was more, he had a mighty inscription set upon the Great Gate of Thalmic.

To those who have by any chance been following the teachings of the lectures, they will now perceive how all of Rabelais' Works have been polarised. Yet he had quite consciously given forth of the wisdom, but not on the FIRE Plane of Neptune, where all is of the Abstract.

For this is where we enter into the twelfth house of Pisces, for it was in the Equinox of Pisces, that religion made its big stand, after the Inauguration of A.D. 33. Then the great Powers that descended, entered into the Etheric of the Earth, but with no Scapegoat to guide them into manifestation, worthy of their mighty Glory.

Now Merope, in translating Rabelais' Works, is placing them upon the Plane of Mind, as unto her own creation of the Inauguration of 1970. The dwelling of the Thalamites, is none other than the Thalamus Ganglion of the Commissure. Rabelais has kept to religion and although he has given it mighty luxury, it belies the wealth that Merope has afforded to the royalty of the King's Palace up in her heights. The Plate allotted unto this magnificence, is very explanatory...

THE Word captured and sent forth as the Corlander Seed, driving a causationary Stream by its mighty velocity. For the Virgin, now as the Warrior, had captured the mighty fish of Fomalhaut, out of the Pool of Siloam. Thus the blind man in a flash perceived all, to pass over the 49th Parallel, into the World of reborn LIGHT.

...which describes so clearly of the Word that has been captured by the Virgin, as she becomes the Warrior of Truth. This is where Andromeda is no longer chained and becomes a freed creation, for all is centred in the conscious mind. That is, either freed to take on of the manhood of positiveness, or remains in the twelfth as an idea that is shelved for the time being.

How the Thalamites were governed and their manner of living, now became as unto the Principles of Theocracy, with the Theocratic-Communistos Government reigning in the Etheric. As soon as all was made clear to the City of the Thalamites, Gargantua made a deep sigh and explained of how all would only come forth by the driving of the ball across the tennis court.

This is the Bull driving up and down the spine, refreshing all before a clear fire, with the cords of their rackets made from the guts of sheep and goats. After delivering this final advice, he made of good cheer to them all, and so FAREWELL!

THUS Gargantua drank of the Cup, whereby he became fully transformed into the reborn conscious formation. With a son of fully acquired comprehension, taking on of the elevated birth of Pantagruel. Therefore, with Gargantua now the reborn Father up in the heights, and Pantagruel as his Orion Warrior son.

This was the entry of Gargantua into the first House of Rebirth, where the conscious mind was now going to give forth, as of his son Pantagruel. Without any doubt, this must be seen as the rebirth of the conscious mind, by its experiences as Gargantua.

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 47

WILD CARROT

(Daucus Carota)

by David Spearman-Cook

THE MOST IMPORTANT VIRTUE OF THIS month's herb, Wild Carrot, is that of its purifying power, which gives forth of such an important creative strength of vibration. Although it has only been accepted by the vast majority as a rather mundane common garden weed status, it is in many respects very much the same as the herb used for last month's herbal article, Wood Betony. Hence it too is a herb in dire need of an uprisen frequency of expanding phenomena. The very name of Wild Carrot portrays of a doctrinised seed depths of long Solar nourishment; that untouched, as it were, from earthly created mind expressions, in regard to its full healing abilities. Nevertheless it has become a seed of utmost importance, for it can now draw a very dynamic frequency of power unto itself, as it lives and flourishes on a new penetrating frequency of Divine inaugurated momentum.

WILD Carrot, in the risen polarity mutable range of a Theocratic growth, is as alike unto all living motivation, as that of a hive of active possibilities, therefore it was once of a Solar potential. Hence it can now re-cycle its old virgin thread of existence, with a renewed vigour. Thus bringing forth in its wake, an octave of frequency, so necessary for all the internal dyspeptic states of a soul's closed down cycle of virgin wealth.

For dyspepsia happens to be a state of a cut-off frequency, from the soul's higher self, through neglect towards any real form of divine acceptance, unto creations of a true god conscious conception. The soul having no state of higher belief in any form whatsoever.

Hence all becoming a tangled state of nerve disorders, in the orbit of a soul's mind world of existence. Therefore all that such souls draw upon, is a gaseous state of self-poisoning effluvia as alike unto the old astral planes, through their conscious mind outlook being so utterly of an earthly level.

Here is where such a soul with a little belief, could find relief from this sick condition of dyspepsia. But the whole basic trouble is due to dogmentation of undigested words of an expressive nature, given forth by a soul unto another, and they upon receiving of such, letting its true depths die upon their unresponsive mind, through their complete refusal to respond to its delivered internal depths of aspired creation. Thus surely there is a stubborn refusal to expand, out of the dead and dying creations of antiquated past beliefs.

Here is where Wild Carrot can now, with the added honey state of Red Clover, be very helpful to a soul's struggle, when partaken as a draught, to raise them up out of this self-imposed position of frustrated incarceration.

These two herbs will bring a blending to the two directive motivations of the afferent and the efferent frequencies within the Etheric body of the soul. Thus will create a new alkaline substance, as it were, to decoke the old gaseous clinker of carbohydrate ash. Thereby create a cleansed all-round frequency for the fire of the soul, to frequentise with the inflow of the downpouring Holy Fires. Hence start a healing process quite unconscious to the soul itself.

Now it is possible to prepare a basic frequency of balanced herbs out of Dandelion, Agrimony, Wild Carrot, and Red Clover. For these four herbs if consumed at regular intervals during the day, can assist the frequency of the mind to elevate the depths of the active creative and move on out of their own particular frequency of mind, into expanded heights of conscious mind Light.

For an attack of jaundice could be followed by a pigmentising of the etheric, with very bad states of mind disruptions, and one could become quite animalistic in their frequency, if they allowed the terrible states of mind inertia to prevail. Where they could become surprisingly uncontrolled during spasms of fitful anger.

Here one can only suggest that it is advisable for any soul who suffers from bouts of depression or anger, to further look into the uses of these four herbs, as they contain much healing wealth to render one assistance.

* * *

AT the present moment, it can be seen how much intermittent violence is created by numbers of discontented souls through a sliding mind schism within their own make-up, owing to a lack of expansive expression. Here is where the Mighty Powers of the Great Divine Intelligencia will infuse all, with the Dynamic Spermed Breath of the Great and Magnificent radiations of the Central Sun Supreme Grand MAN Desires.

Many are already aware, whether through hearsay or actual experience, that a herbal creation can help cure the eyes, but very few know that they must also seek expansion out of what they receive via the Word. For upon one taking the Occult Word, and expanding it into a positive belief, and then finally partaking of Wild Carrot and Eyebright, there can be a change brought to the physical vision.

For this particular blindness, although affecting the focus of the eyes, is really an Occult expression which signifies a soul's refusal consciously or unconsciously to understand Occult Truths. Hence it brings confusion to the two sides of the brain. Thereby the optic nerve becomes born of a dull non-sensitised pressure, which needs releasement by a soul's conscious acceptance, in full belief of the Occult Truths.

This is what man as a mind creation has so blatantly refused to accept. But this is what he is now being forced to do, through the changing Rela-tivity of the Vega. Inaugurated Rebirth of the Mind, by the One and only Divine Christos Merope, who has retrieved the Master out of the depths of the Fire.

The violence of man's destruction of the Holy Fires through Time, has killed or nulled his fires, hence his sensitivity to the Spiritual Seed he is born of, has been chaotically causationed through his idea of Creation. Now the divine side of himself is ready to ascend.

This is the work of the Higher Powers in the Breath, surging man with Fire far above his range of conscious distortion. Hence he can no longer fully eject their penetration. This is where the wise soul will turn to the Occult Reality, and awaken in a cool calm unfoldment, and not await the Powers' persistency of a twenty-four hour a day propensity.

Hence herbs such as Wild Carrot, will assist to frequentise the eternal internal revolving of man's profoundest states of elevated contact, with any visual stimulated recording of power to his conscious mind. Thereby can help to support the blood to move at a faster frequency, assisting the Fires in their task of adjusting the old internal hidden frequency of blank mind power within the soul, and raise the very internal nucleus of his real mind-born creation, as that of the etheric part of his awakening Theocratic Supreme depths, with Light.

Here is where greater healing can awaken unto man through his mind, when poised to the depths of his conscious conception of what a mind can do, as a power of penetrative atomic unity, when it is in full blended harmony towards the Fire of Divine Central Sun Theocratic Principle. For created words fail to fully express Mind Atomic mutations of the Positive Holy Fire Powers as an expressive thought.

Wild Carrot is a stimulant to the Theocratic wealth as it pours through the Commissure of the soul, hence it will change the yet unfolded wealth with its now uprisen frequency of reverberating revelation. Hence affords a very wonderful herbal healing to assist the Atomic ability of the soul's god-like status of becoming, with a power of considerable rejuvenating characteristic as a collectivating unifying continuity.

The wayward winds of Divine Belief,

Lost to the wiles of man's retreat.

Upon the brow of now rising dawn.

He sits and awaits the Theocratic Storm.

For all that he is has now revealed

The internal depths of Pleiadic spleen.

For now as a Flame he etherically dines

Upon the depths of his lost creative mind.

Now we will mention some of its well known healing gifts, and how the whole of this herb is utilised for healing, for it is, as stated earlier, of very ancient cultivation. The name Carrot is Celtic, and means red of colour, with Daucus from the Greek 'dais', signifying its pungent and stimulating qualities.

Its medical uses are stimulant, deobstruent, and an infusion of the whole herb is considered an active and valuable remedy in the treatment of dropsy, chronic kidney disease, and affections of the bladder. A strong decoction is very useful in cases of gravel and stone troubles, and is very good against flatulence.

The seeds are carminative, stimulant and very useful in flatulence, windy colic, hic-cough, dysentery, and chronic coughs. A dose for seeds bruised, is from one third to one teaspoonful, repeated as necessary. They are excellent in obstructions of the viscera in jaundice (for which they were formerly considered specific). Old writers tell us that a poultice made of the root has been found to mitigate the pain of cancerous ulcers and phagedenic ulcers.

Carrot tea taken night and morning, and brewed by pouring a pint of boiling water over the whole of the herb, root, seed, and foliage, is considered excellent for lithic acid or gouty disposition. It is said that if the leaves are applied with honey, it can render healing to running sores and ulcers, while an infusion of the root was also used as an aperient.

It was known for many females to adorn their hats with it, in the days when carrots were somewhat of a rarity, for it was first cultivated on the continent before it became known in this country. At that period it was a most cherished and well sought after herb, which will I am sure once again give forth of its wealth, for the benefit of man.

Next month we will seek and try to give expansion to the herb Witch Hazel, and bring this very important herb into a category more suited to its radiational propensity.

Health from Herbs

HERBALISM is the oldest healing art in the world. Its history can be traced back through the civilisations of Rome, Greece, Assyria and Babylon, and even beyond. Herbs are foods as well as medicines, and build up the general health at the same time as they cure any specific disease. Unlike drugs, which are inert, they are made from organic material instead of inorganic substances, and form an active or living medicine.

Here at the School we have a large quantity of loose herbs in stock, which normally will readily provide for all our requirements. However, we have listed below some of our more popular herbal pills, specially prepared for those who find them more convenient to take in this form, during the hustle and bustle of their daily occupation.

In the second Book of Chronicles c. 18 v. 10 you find Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, making himself horns of iron to give force to his assurances that king Ahab would push the Syrians until they were destroyed. A mind of will that he could find strength to overcome of his own inner enemies, for Ahab has thoroughly imbued all with his evil. This was due to Solomon turning all the prototype onto the psychic as a magician instead of solar wisdom, for much was entrusted into his care.

Then in Nehemiah c. 5 v. 13 a most curious incident occurs. Nehemiah shook out his lap and said, "So God shake out every man from his house that performeth not this promise." States within the soul not honouring the purpose, shaken out of their old states and forced to accept the new.

And more complicated still, you find Isaiah taking a harlot to wife, and on another occasion walking naked through the streets by way of stripping off all old ideas and ways, and declaring his freedom from same. But in the former he was marrying up his deceptive feminine states so that they could breed purified ideas.

In the New Testament is found where Jesus washes the feet of his Disciples, the Master cleansing their movement through wisdom, giving them steps of purified purpose. Then you find Pilate washing his hands before a crowd, that his name could remain honourable; or perhaps he believed that all his creation, regarding this matter, would not leave an active state upon his future growth: (he did not want to find that he, too, had to be put into responsibility).

For Baptism with water is an act where one becomes purified through purpose and reason, but most of all, where all principles applied become intensified by the changing state, and the spirit becomes inborn that others become inoculated by the one applying. This is how man becomes an influence of strength, and advocated strongly in many parts of the Scriptures.

When it is stated that people went down into the water and came out, having been buried in baptism, they were born anew out of the cleansing, and had risen to the newness of life. (They had been given rebirth through the fluidic waters: the soul was now rising up onto the mind plane to be embraced by the heights).

In Greece this form of speech became quite a mode of expression, for it not only gave them astuteness of speech and discourse, but added unto the mystery that was finding rebirth at the time. Therefore action without words was the method of the day.

This is seen clearly when Periander, tyrant of Corinth, having sent a herald to Thrasylabus of Miletus to ask what mode of government it was safest to set up, Thrasylabus led the messenger through a field of corn, asking him questions. Yet ever as he went, breaking off all such ears of corn as overtopped the rest.

Then without a word, he sent the messenger back, but not before he had noted others' mistakes, and himself making use of them in his own mind. For as others so fell to the sword, why commit the error one's self? In any case, as ye so axe, must ye verify some time or another by your own actions that justified your judgement.

Thus a very queer symbolic rite was performed in making over a possession of land when Periander advised destruction of all leading citizens by delivery of a clod of earth. Once you exchange by deed of purpose, the action automatically makes the exchange; this Xerxes realised when he marched from Persia into Greece, and the Nations fully submitting, gave over to the envoys earth and water. This indicated they wished his fertility of the land, in fact assured him they hoped he would promise them good harvests by his taking over of old ways that had not been made too fruitful.

Therefore symbolism being so natural to people, because it linked with the world of form, came to be the mode of even religious practice. Thus it was natural for Hera (Mother Earth) to become the goddess who presided over marriage, she who brought unity for further generation. And it was the habit and belief that newly married persons in sacrificing to her, threw the gall of the victim behind the altar; threw the saturnian bite into the strength of experience, and it became the foundation whereby all was reborn into greater principles.

No more with the old actions and ideas, but an inbirth of the spirit, for it not only applied to literal marriage, but also the marriage of the soul with a greater purpose and the unity of spirit with that purpose.

Then you get lively dances and songs of Apollo, otherwise there would be no stimulation to raise into illumination that the solar fire could find entry into the lunar, and enforce a flame of new ideas of Generation and rebirth. Then it is also seen, wherever Leto wandered,—she who was a hewer of stone that the concealed could be revealed,—she became represented, or left her mark to such an extent that became a universal creation owing to the "shed" at the time; her richness and change of harvest was universal: (the shed being that which was pouring down upon the earth).

Then to the same point of explanation we return to the Pythian, and we find that at the festival, the dance of the boys imitated the conflict of Apollo with the dragon in all its stages. The struggle to get the kundalini risen and penetrating the virgin heights without bringing abortions; for one slip more than the magnetised quota would allow, would slip back and turn to the wrong actions of Zeus, and not to his upward mode of change.

Thus many modes of entice-what was expected would be the procedure.

Yet the outcome was as stated and demanded, and that is of what all the gods were seeking, for they are not touched with the conventionality that impedes the way of man. (So see what you can do when you dance with the mind. You draw the spirit out from its very states, otherwise it remains buried under the rock).

Therefore it was Ra and Apep contesting, that Apollo could manifest the bursting through of the solar flame; but it was furthered by stating that Apollo had to atone for the slaughter, by serving Admetus for eight years and then obtain purification; go down into the night of experiences and then become purified by sacrifice and expiation.

But although Apollo would do the labouring, it would be the boy who represented Apollo who would put all into experience and become a servant in Tempe, a servant to the higher mind that the divine Word could escape into the sea of life. Tempe being the romantic valley between Mount Olympus and Gaza where the peneios escapes into the ocean of life. Then the boy must become purified until a laurel-bough returns by the sacred way (the period of puberty); the word of everlasting truth is established.

(Now once you can get this into your mind you, too, will be able to bring forth and extract out of the Mysteries, for by the way they are placed you will be able to whirl your mind and extract, and also see certain states in yourself and others that may need changing.

Thus where you meet another who needs advice and attention, you will be able to see through them by these Myths and be able to pass over to them the depths of the Mysteries: you will be able to point out to them the reason for their difficulties).

So whereas wisdom had been taken and not accounted for by action and generation, he now had to labour the hard way that brought a fouling for the time, then a cleansing.

(See plate on this page)

This brought a depth that had never been established before and a real purpose behind the shifting calendar, for its need for re-adjustment is ever bringing action and movement, apart from the cycling of the stars.

PURIFYING THE FIRES

AS Hercules cleansed the stables of King Augeas, the Glories of Scorpio rose the Bull, with Merope mounting upon his back, flying up to the heights of Oeta. For Minos can be the sequel to the Scorpion Men, if Hercules fails to master the lion. His task now is to raise up the Serpent into the Royal Uraeus, that the Pituitary Fossa can spin the Infinity into Holy Flight. (See text in col. 5).

she left an impression and possible re-birth.

Thus it was found that young women were imitating the voices and gestures of every nation the goddess visited. This indicated that Leto was the reigning Nature goddess who were induced to bring forth the spirit that had become lost to the soul in its animal creation. There was wooing and promises and many other modes of inducement, although their mode to obtain may be vastly different to

This of course is where it refers to manhood, Manhood of course is a positive state. You must not see any of this now in the ordinary sense of the word. Manhood is man and woman taking upon themselves the positive state and by positive thinking, positive driving and direction, the soul is able to bridge its difficulties some way or another. This is where the soul gathers up all its resources. Soul determines everything because as you determine, is it going to happen that way.

But this story began in the Virgin Fire beginning to take on of Form, by its fluidic status moving on into the action of Being. Now as I have said before, do not imagine that you have come down a stream, but the way out as Merope has drawn it, as the rings bringing you to the periphery. It is an expansion of thought. If you take just one thought and begin then to expand upon it, you go outwards on those rings of seven.

Thus first created the organic structure of the Anthropomorphic Egg until the soul creation of man took on of consciousness. Though even the Anthropomorphic Egg was not there in the beginning, but the Seed of the Atom was there, and it was the Seed of the Atom that would be, as you might find today, an ant or any other creature.

But although it was a state as a Seed, we cannot exactly say it was an egg manifesting into birth because it wasn't; it had to become an egg, so it was the Seed of the Genesis that was waiting to come forth and it created of the Anthropomorphic Egg, and then began to open up consciousness.

So as the soul first began to take on of a form of consciousness, which would be nothing more than a form of self preservation, it then began to build up of the Etheric body which was the Light that was revolving between the lower depths and the Solar Glory, whereby that of the Protoplasmic substance formed in the blood took on of the Chromosome structure.

Now it is these Chromosomes that are most important, and in blending together, it is they that feed the Heights with their unified Light. That which Merope molecularised. She drove them and interblended them, and drove them up to the Heights to the Source.

But you have got to remember that all this was gradually coming into birth as the soul, or the soul creation, began to unfold and think, and take on and build again, and assume, and then all these things came to pass, they came into birth. So again, you must realise that your Seed is billions of years old.

This is the great mystery of the Pluto Birth. The Royal Vega Child born out of the Heavenly Assumption of Outer World Space. Though it was the great Power of the Virgin, the Virgin Fire that in entering down into the soul became transformed into the Spirit.

Now it is this Spirit that lies buried under Mount Taurus, and it is waiting to rise, by you making expansion, by you taking on of experience whereby you take on of the states of the earth and discard and try and improve, and give unto others of a wider conception, and by this you force the Spirit to rise.

Now when you have created of the Spirit to that extent, then you too will do the same of Merope, and begin your ministry, because you will then have become a priest; a priest in your own rights, and like Merope, you will begin to minister unto others of what you know and what you by right must help them to perceive.

But you must get a width of mind. You have got to have a mind that can see beyond just the form that you are. You have got to realise that the very depths of you is thinking capacity;—your mind! If you build up of no mind, then there is no continuity, and continuity takes you ever upwards onto the New Cycles.

Those who build of no mind, are still only of the animal tissues, and they descend into the depths and merely dissolve, with the Seed going back to the Heights.

The Closing Prayer

Great Glories of the Divine Universe, all the Wonders of the Heavens, pour down Thy Glory upon the Word as it has been established in all its beauty. That it can go forth into the minds of each one, that Reality can open up, and the Light swing over the whole of the earth, turning the darkness into Light. Whereby the Glories of Spirit, the Great Scorpionic Breath, can be infused into each one, and each one awaken to the Divinity of their soul. Amen.

ASTROLOGICAL COLUMN

THIS month we are going to delve deeply into two souls who have extraordinary Charts, and could do much with them if they would only override the difficulty of getting their minds dancing with the Glories of Elevated Light. But these three Charts will definitely disclose to anybody who is interested in Astrology, and can see the great value of it, how intricate we are and how we, underneath, and unknown to ourselves, find that there are states that just run away with us, and we have to do the best we can to capture them, and hold them in check. I know that with myself there are times when there is a part of me that just runs wild on something, the way it wants to go, and I would have quite a difficulty in holding it in check, and this happens to be my Bull, my Taurus; especially if he finds himself being driven to the uttermost limits, and finds it difficult to meet with what is required. Now, everybody is the same. We are made up really of twelve parts, not just seven; but twelve parts, which have all got to be brought under the subjection of a one-pointed driving purpose. Well, there may be moments when we do this and then another time we find that one part gets just a little loose and refuses to do what it should be doing.

THIS is what Occultism helps us with and this is where Astrology is so useful, for it will give us some understanding of where the difficulties lie and how we can try to harness that particular sign within ourselves, which is one of a collection of our fellowship. Yes, our 'Godhood'; the 'fellowship within us'. This is the great Mystery of Communism, the Royal Band of Celestial Brotherhood, which is really linking with the King legend of Arthur and the Round Table.

I think that this fellowship is the mighty warriorship that has to go to war in all directions to overcome the ways of the Elements. They are the Great Facets of the diamond which is being cut by us, and which in the end brings us to a Kingship; brings us to being within ourselves a King Arthur, as we try to get all these states manipulated into a Royalty of Oneness.

Communism is the union of these twelve Celestial Signs. Communism is just the Brotherhood of man with another. Well, when you have got these twelve within you blended, you are invariably at peace with all others because you understand them. You would understand their difficulties by having blended up your own, and nobody understood this more than the Egyptians.

The Egyptian Wealth is wonderful, where you can see the Glories of the God-State travelling through the bloodstream on a 'raft', touching off all the influences of the planets. It is like the story of David as he ran from town to town, trying to raise the Arc; which of course, wasn't really A-R-K, as much as A-R-C. The raising up of the soul's own ARC.

Well, this is the great story of our lives, for we are raising up the Arc, so that it can become born of the Divine Overshadowance. If we can understand this in the true light, we can understand the Great Mystery of Astrology, and how we are trying to master the Elements through the Breath, and bring ourselves to a one-pointed State of consciousness.

Miss P. B., California, U.S.A.

I am coming now to one who seems to have a lot of trouble with health, and not only of health, but she feels strangely alienated from people.

You know friend, you are extremely young, you are only twenty-one, and here you are with all these difficulties. Yet when I look, I do see that you have Uranus in the House of Health, in Cancer. I cannot really understand why you should be having all this difficulty, but of course, in dealing with Uranus, we are dealing with a subject which is rather difficult to handle. Being in the House of Health, which is also the House of the 'Intuitive Mind', it means that you have come back to transform Capricorn into that of Intuition.

You have four Air bodies, which means that you have taken an enormous amount of 'wealth' in the past, and which is also substantiated by your Path of Destiny in the 11th house, in the Sign of Sagittarius. This means that you have raised the spirit up, but not in a form of expansion.

I am rather inclined to think that you have been a nun, in fact and I am very sure, a nun who was very devout, because you have also 4 Water bodies, making you very emotional. So you are very, very devout, which raised the fires up to a fairly substantial height, but they were not of the heights that brought Light, they were of a height that only brought emotion.

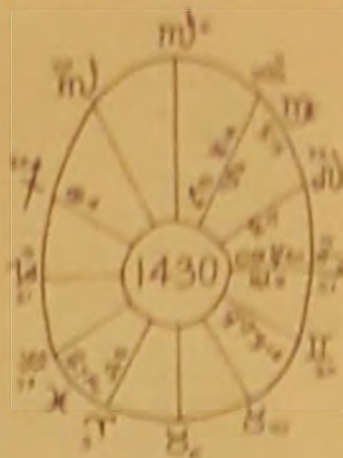

You also have your Jupiter retrograde in Pisces, which is the sign of religion, and Jupiter being retrograde means that you never made any expansion through your religious experiences. You just raised all up on an emotional nature. Well, that hasn't helped you very much, and it is rather a tragedy because there is a great amount here that could stand for a great stepping off onto greater understanding.

Your Saturn in the 8th house isn't very good because it is in the Sign of Virgo, and it is inclined to waver. I know that sounds funny for Saturn, but the little I know of Saturn in the 8th house, it causes a soul to be always dithering and finding a reason why they shouldn't do a certain thing, when it's not really any cause at all. They just see it as an excuse for not doing what they should be doing.

Now, are you doing this? Are you trying to take up a 'torch', as it is to prevent you making expansion? From my experience as a teacher, I know that people do lots of things unconsciously. The subconscious side of them doesn't want to change, so they find all the reasons why they do not change. So are you doing the same thing, because your Sun, Mercury and Pluto are all in the 7th house.

This is the house of Law, the house of rebirth, taking on the new status of Law, and since you have your Sun in Cancer, it's quite a habit for Cancer people to refuse to change. They do not like becoming Solar-born! The description of them as a crab running under a stone and hiding away from the Solar Light, is extremely true.

So do not let this get the better of you. Just try to rise above it. In your letter to us, you certainly admitted something that was rather peculiar, and it is rather unusual for people to admit these things. You say that you spend much of your time eating. Well, let us go back to a previous incarnation. Having been a nun, and I know you have been, were you kept for long periods on bread and water, so that now you are making up for lost time and eating?

Uranus in the 6th house is a breaking through into unusual wealth, and it seems to me that you really have got to rise above it, and get to the point where you can see the value of the things that are being done to you, and that you can see the value of the things that are being done to you, and that you can see the value of the things that are being done to you.

On your Ascendant you have Capricorn, which indicates that you have got to understand your wealth and of knowledge your wealth, so that you can bring it to the threshold of being. It is in the threshold of being that you have got to know that you have got to raise your Fire up into a state of being, so that the Light of Fire, in its own way, can be seen from the earth.

Well, a lot of females do have difficulties in getting their Fire kindled. You have them from the Sun in your 11th house, and your Moon in the Sign of Cancer in the 11th house, which is the house of love, which you have only one Fire sign in your Ascendant, so you have got to get your Fire kindled up. You have been able to get the spirit kindled, but it is only on an earthly basis, and I consider that religion is only of an earthly basis.

You see, they have got to get an earthly conception of religious thought, that really it holds no activity whatsoever. It doesn't give you the action of flying high in the light of fancy. They are talking all the time of a dead God on a cross. Well, that is not very elevated, is it? So you see friend, you really do have to make a big effort in this life, to shake it off.

What you have really got to do is get the fiery mind action, up and down your spine, which is what we call the dance of 'La Dan'. I know this is one of the difficulties, especially among the females, of getting the game of 'tennis' in a thought. That is, going back and forth, back and forth, back and forth, getting one idea and then going back again to get it expanded into a higher thought, and yet higher still, because you see it's the Taurus Bull trying to get hold of the seed, as it goes up and down the spine.

But of course we are really upside down; the Bull comes from the neck to the generative parts to try and get hold of the seed, which is the raised up Fire, but your Fire won't dance, and so you just take wisdom in its 'flat' contents, and I do strongly think that you of the Dyophysite-Theodolite unfoldment. Thus the soul in Divine revolution, ever spinning himself up into greater and greater mind light, through the ganglion chain from the Commissure, down to the broiling depths, and up again.

Then by the all knowing Pituitrin fluid of the Sacred Fire becoming as the Orion conscious Etheric mind LIGHT, the soul now becomes, through the mind, that of revolving Divine ONENESS. Whereby the god in royal Theocratic embracement, by the Divine Breath of the Spirit, becomes born of the Atomic Brilliance of the Virgin sensitised Etheric Continuity.

For what is performed in the Universe is but the creative action of the soul, dissolving in transcendental reverberation, the lower vibrations into the glory of Mind LIGHT. So where that revealed in the foremost of this dissertation was the husbandry of the bringing forth of the elevated

MASTERING THE ELEMENTS

SHAMASH, as the transforming Godhead, is none other than Saturn in its fallen frequency in the soul's perception. His fighting with the Storm Birds is the Scorpions inflicting Fire in the Breath, burying the sleeping Bull under the Mount of Desire, until he is stung by the horse-fly. Thereby showing how clearly all is a state of Oneness, but a multiplicity of personality states, by the decree of illusion. (See text on page 19, col. 1).

mind, it was preparing the way for Divine Husbandry to bring forth of the fully fledged Ariel Spirit. Thereby making the soul a central sun into itself, as it makes its way unto the Heavenly Glory of Vega. This is where the heart finds the Rhythmic sensitivity of the Divine Overshadowance, and the Overshadowance frees the Plutonic Light extremities, by the embraced Virgility of the New World Belief.

Yet all this is not in the sense that many may perceive, but in the light revealed in Revelation 21. Where the Earth becomes transformed by and through the mind of man being redeemed by the reborn LAW set into motion by Metopé. For is it not declared in Verse 13, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last."

Therefore man was born of the Spirit and must return to the Spirit, whether as consciousness or blind breeds of non-comprehensive creation. For the Earth that should have become of the Chromosphere, merely because of the magnetic depths. Now by the risen up vibrations set into motion by the Scapgoat's halberd, all has been reborn and redeemed, making it possible for ALL soul creation to return as purified Brilliant Mind LIGHT.

are allowing religion to play a big part in your life, even if only subconsciously, which is only holding all the wealth of yesterday down in captivity.

Do try to get free from all this, otherwise as time goes on you are going to find yourself in a greater difficulty than you are in at the present moment. Because Uranus, you know, is a very exacting planet. It strikes, and it strikes very hard, and it will strike hard with you, so do try to make some effort and some expansion.

Now with regard to your alienation from people, well, you may not be meeting the right ones. Sometimes we do find this is the difficulty, you may need someone of a more intellectual nature than you are being forced to have contact with. I am afraid that I, in my unfoldment, like at times to be on my own, but then of course I have a lot of work to do for others, so naturally I would find it easier to be quietly at peace.

So I don't know quite how you would feel about this, but I do know that you really could do a lot with this Chart if you could only get yourself moving. So do try to get some action and then I am sure you will begin to see a little daylight.

I would suggest to you that you have some of our nerve pills. They have some very fine herbs in them, and they do act very well, and are very simple to take. Have some of those, for they will help you to strengthen up a wee bit.

Mrs. M. L., Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Now we come to a Chart that is quite the reverse to the previous one, for whereas the latter had 4 Air bodies and 1 Fire, this soul has 4 Fire but only 1 Air, yet it is an extremely powerful Chart.

Well, Mrs. L., you have 3 planets in your 1st House, with your Path of Destiny, and also your Jupiter in the 2nd House, all in Sagittarius. This really is wonderful and should have been of enormous benefit to you, and yet you say that you have had a number of operations, including one severe one. This is tragic, because with all these planets in your 1st House, you could have ridden right up to the Sun and back again. It shows, friend, that you have gone a long, long way introvert, carrying everything internally and making no effort to find expansion.

Your Chart is so full of potential, and yet you are not taking advantage of its possibilities. Well, why is this? I see that you have your Saturn in the 7th House, and this could be where all the trouble lies. You are not driving your Bull in mind activity, trying to capture a new Seed, a new Thought from out of the inflowing Scorpio Fire. Instead Saturn reigns, and everything remains in the old ideas.

Oh yes, you are full of wisdom but you will not expand it, and so it has reacted back upon you, causing your physical difficulties. If you will look at the plate on page 4 of this month's Gazette, you will see what you have allowed to happen, and what the vast majority of people allow to happen! They just will not expand or seek for new ideas.

To return to your own particular horoscope, it is bad enough to have Saturn in Taurus, but you also have it in the 7th House, which is the House of New Law. It means that you are definitely refusing to make changes; you have your heels dug in hard and you just will not change! Now I am not saying this just to be critical, I am genuinely trying to help you and make you see where you are going wrong, because this is my job.

I am not here to tell you how wonderful you are, and give you glowing reports upon your progress so far. I know what state the world is in, and how blind the soul is to its own weaknesses. When you write to me for advice, you know that you will receive the truth, even if for the moment it might 'dent your pride' a little, and I am sure you would not want it otherwise.

Your Chart is a mixture of extremes, and it would appear that at some time you made a big effort to carry all your planets up to the heights, and some made it, but the rest fell down to the base, as can be seen by your Neptune and Pluto in the 8th House. This is indicative of possible internal troubles, especially as you have Scorpio on the Ascendant, which would add unto it. It is a great pity you could not have taken our womb cleansing herbs and pills, for they would have helped you considerably.

I see that your Mercury is retrograde, which is obviously not good for expanding the mind, but you do have Uranus in the 3rd House, the house of the mind, which could give you quite a brilliant mind if you would only make the effort. You could do quite a lot with this Chart, but I feel you are one who has played with life rather deeply in the past.

Quite candidly, whereas in the previous reading, that soul had been a nun, I could not attribute that to you. Sagittarius is always the Sign of the 'playboy', and although this may sound rather unusual to place to a female, I am sure that in the past you enjoyed life to the full. In fact, I feel strongly impressed with the Courts of France, and I am sure that this was one of your major incarnations.

You have Scorpio upon the Ascendant, which is always a very powerful Sign for a female to handle and you have the 3rd decanate there. This is to do with Hercules, so you have got to learn to be a Hercules,—you have got to learn to master the elements. You have got to learn to ride above them and not run away from them.

This should not be too hard, although there are times when I find them a bit stiff, but you won't have reached that standard just yet,—you will have to get seeking into Wisdom, and sending out strongly for help to be given to you.

Now your Moon in its progression is in the Sign of Pisces, and it is passing through your 3rd house, the house of the mind, so you see you are going to attack your problems at the present moment, and that is to get your mind expanded. But Pisces is not only the Sign of inertia, it is also the Sign of religion.

Now I do not think that you are a religious person, but I think that religion holds some sway, as it does with a lot of people, and there are a lot of people who would do things, even though they did not agree with the religion. They would do it because it was conventional. Now perhaps you are doing it under the same guise.

It is a moment when you could go strongly into expansion, a time when you could really get help. But you really will have to send out strongly and deeply to be able to find your way through. The answer lies in sending out to the Great Unseen, the Great Master, for help, and by taking in of the Fires in the Breath I am sure you will be helped and shown the way.

SONG OF LIFE

*I saw the forest beeches yield and fountain forth in feathery flame
Their secret glory unrevealed, and lo, from out the fire sprays came
The Master of the Shining Shield, Heart of the World-heart's Oriflame.*

*I saw the trembling leagues of fern and the huge beech-trees bow them down,
And a thousand dark green rushes turn,
and bend their tufted blossom brown,
And the whole woodland bloom and burn to yield him golden robe and crown.*

*And as I passed the marshy mead,
I heard a little, peat-dark stream
Grow vocal; and indeed, indeed, a song that had the opal's gleam
Went tinkling down from reed to reed, till the whole world was wrapped in dream.*

*Because of Him, such wild delight hath filled the ousel's bill with tune;
The cuckoo's far and wandering flight with such lone merriment is strewn,
And the thrush makes the wood's edge bright beyond the cloudless light of noon.*

*And still from out the purple hills
I hear Him roving through the sky;
And still the wondering wildwood thrills,
His footsteps drop such melody
To ripple forth in music rills on all the winds that wander by.*

*O Mightiest of the Mighty Ones, and Smallest of Small Things that be,
Commensurate with stars and suns,
and the plumed splendours of the sea,
Who through the Atom burns and runs,
bide Thou and shine at heart in me!*

Mythology Part 20a

OEDIPUS

by Gladys I.
Spearman-CookDelivered at the S.U.P.H. on 21st Oct., 1962 by Ra-Men-Ra

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

Once again I come amongst you and I seek to bring unto you of the understanding of life, its possibilities, and where the past, in uniting with the present, can bring you a depth for the future. Tonight we are going to enter into the Mystery of OEDIPUS, besides many other strange forms of symbolism. So tonight there is a pot pourri for you whereby you will understand many things and perceive the reason why the Mysteries and the Scriptures were placed into the peculiar way of writing that they were. Many have asked the question, Why cannot they be put into more simple language? That would be impossible. It is by the way they are given unto you that you are given the opportunity of mind exercise; and you must remember that now you are becoming an initiate, seeking into the ways of New Life, striving to rise up the Spiral. You have become aware that the depths are no longer of any use to you,—the depths that are holding you down into a darkness that is dank and deep,—and you are seeking to rise up. But you can only do that by bringing the mind up from the depths.

Far more is entailed in this Mission than you realise. It is not just raising the mind, but also raising all the chakras and the mode of intercalary re-birth. And this again calls upon the soul to make great effort whereby it renounces of the depths; those things that are clinging to it and chaining the earth to the ground, and the other is drawing the soul upwards. So you must let go of one and climb up onto the other. By so doing you become a soul freed out of captivity of matter; and that is what most of you are seeking for. So tonight let us look into these many forms of symbolism that will help you to exercise your mind and understand more as to why they are placed this way, and then see the Mystery of OEDIPUS.

(A plate was then placed upon the screen, the description and explanation of which, is given below).

The Mystery Plate

In this picture we are shown many gnarled and twisted tree trunks completely barren of leaf. Stretching across an upper branch of one of these dead trees is a noisome-looking male figure, the expression upon the face being brutish and vile, the ugly head covered with matted and unkempt hair; he is wearing tattered shorts and his vest is filthy and ragged, his feet and legs being uncovered.

This unwholesome looking creature is wielding an axe in his left hand as though in the act of striking a lion that is dozing at the bottom of the tree and sitting back upon its haunches in an almost human-like posture, its tail curling straight upwards. In front of the lion a viper is rearing its head up from amongst a number of very large stones that are seen in abundance at the base of the trees.

Now the mystery plate tonight gives you some idea of the power being captured by the soul, but it is inert yet dangerous, for there in front of the plate you can see the viper. The soul is caught up in its old ways, for it has refused to make growth; it is caught up in the trees of ancient states, the Cronus growth.

The soul becomes savage with all and sundry, and there it allows itself to become frantic, struggling now to break down that which it has drawn unto itself and is going to force it to find strength as it comes down from the tree; either it remains up in the old growth, or it is going to wrestle with the power; so, like Hercules, he must begin the path of seeking. It is no good going on drawing in the power, and not being able to face the circumstances of life; the soul now must learn to find strength, and he can only find that strength as he wrestles with the power.

Again this links with the ancient states of the past and the new-born creation; what was of the past now in fiery-creation, fiery vibration of the mind, and that raised up from the depths and become wood-ed growth, old and hoary, now raised up into a fiery light but inert. And so the two are going to be in a vicious circle.

The soul has got to wrestle with the power, but he has not got to destroy it; the soul has to master it, find his own strength and his own activity, and by so doing he will find

RENUNCIATION AND SACRIFICE

THE sacrifice of Lystra is the cutting off of the head of the Bull, that the Ram can be transformed into the raised up one-pointed Horn of the Goat. Thereby the soul sacrificing of his past desires, for the Glory of Divine Elevation. That he can now preambulate across the Heavenly Vaults, and raise his Arc up high. (See text in col. 4).

an electrical radiance. The soul does not understand this, so once again we come back to the fact that the soul has taken of knowledge, and in taking of knowledge he knows, but he also is ignorant; and this is where he is now going to face the difficulties of life.

This applies very much to initiates starting on the Path. They are either going to take on responsibility, take on of strength and face up to the conditions of life and so master them without fear and with courage, or they are simply going to stay up in the tree and live in the old wooded states, ever in a condition of fear. They must learn to be able to cast off old states of convention, and many of those things that are hampering them. Once the soul can do this, then he will truly find the courage of a hero and bring new thought and new life to the world.

It is fear that causes many a soul to lose the point and the post, but where a soul has courage,—even where they have been of an abortionist type or even where they have been of a dangerous type,— they win through because they had courage. Courage will take you a long way; in fact courage will take you through where fear will cause you to be clapped into chains.

Try and think more deeply into that, for it can bring unto you the mode and the means to win through. Many have been able to win through, not only by courage but also by a courageous state of the mind even when it has been robbed; but then, of course, the soul has to answer up to those states of itself, because it is going to meet the returning cycles; but for the time being he gets out of his difficulties.

If you can only apply a real courageous outlook of mind, without fear, it will bring you through; but when you can apply it with conscience, honour, and purpose, then it is bound to bring a returning cycle of great harvest. You think seriously into that and you will find that at some time or other it will return to you of great wealth. So now let us move on and see what we can find in the Mystery of OEDIPUS.

The Depths of Symbolism

TO understand the symbolism of changing states is most important and perhaps one of the most confusing to some; yet most important that they are understood, for it is these that give the sensitivity the moving Grace and dancing Eucharist. So let us now try and get a little expansion in that direction.

(Now this should help you to see how the mind dances up the spiral, otherwise you will merely revolve round and round in the depth of words; but when you have to make your mind revolve round and round and up and down, it then gives you freedom; the mind is released from density).

A most simple explanation of an allegory is the story of the horses of Empress Eliza-

The sheep to the dead was the sacrificing of the ignorance as light burst forth, while the black bulls were the decadent desires that prevented the rebirth. But on the other hand you get a white cock sacrificed to Anubis, and a saffron-coloured to Hermesubis, with an egg being consecrated to the orgies of Dionysus as a symbol of self-contained generation.

The white cock is the creature that must produce of a red comb as activity, or it is blank wisdom, and Anubis the god of the mind, can find no expansion; while the saffron-coloured represents the yellow of expansion brought by the solar light, and would be sacrificed to the god of wisdom. So the first term of sacrifice had its results in the initiation that was due to come for the accruing state to bring forth its own generative manipulation.

Then you get the theory of a scribe being an inkstand because he was the word that flowed forth, but the figure of an eye would indicate a depth of interpenetration as well as the philosopher or sage who could embrace all in one sweep of the eye and bring forth the point of purpose. Then the moon and the cat had close companionship owing to the fact of their fecundity of twenty-eight young in their magnetic issue.

Then you get the twelve stones placed into Aaron's breast-plate represented in the twelve tribes of Israel and protective to those struggling under any particular constellatory force, and seeking to bring forth the lights of the seven headed golden candlestick. The heights that would bring light to the sensitivity of the struggling initiate.

Another very outstanding incidence of symbolism is Nathan's parable to David where the conscience was roused and brought back from the dead into life. The spirit entrusted to David became only the wife of Uriah the passionate desires and not David the sun-god; thus Uriah was slaughtered and should have been redeemed, then David would not have suffered with treachery and extreme bouts of "chill" at the finalé; states gone cold.

Then in the Book of Kings you find Ahijah the prophet tearing his garment into twelve pieces, but gave ten to Jeroboam causing the people to sin; wisdom that was not of truth being organised as government, causing the law to become inert and dead.

Thus was as Solomon and his mighty wealth, that only passed onto a prophet-state and not to a Christhood. He merely repaired the breaches of the city of his father David, but the great wealth he turned into prophecy and no more; though he left many wonders unsolved for others to germinate, for unfortunately his concubines commanded too much of his attention in the desire of the court.

Then you get the young witch seeking to fly off on the Sabbath, but being prevented by the old witch's influence at the last. Thus the desire of the quest lost to a secret yearning for old ways and ideas that prevented the freedom of flight. This is where the ancients knew far more than the moderns, and should enlighten man considerably over these mysteries.

OEDIPUS

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

Once again I come amongst you and I seek to bring unto you of the understanding of life, its possibilities, and where the past, in uniting with the present, can bring you a depth for the future. Tonight we are going to enter into the Mystery of OEDIPUS, besides many other strange forms of symbolism. So tonight there is a pot pourri for you whereby you will understand many things and perceive the reason why the Mysteries and the Scriptures were placed into the peculiar way of writing that they were. Many have asked the question, Why cannot they be put into more simple language? That would be impossible. It is by the way they are given unto you that you are given the opportunity of mind exercise; and you must remember that now you are becoming an initiate, seeking into the ways of New Life, striving to rise up the Spiral. You have become aware that the depths are no longer of any use to you,—the depths that are holding you down into a darkness that is dank and deep,—and you are seeking to rise up. But you can only do that by bringing the mind up from the depths.

Far more is entailed in this Mission than you realise. It is not just raising the mind, but also raising all the chakras and the mode of intercalary re-birth. And this again calls upon the soul to make great effort whereby it renounces of the depths; those things that are clinging to it and chaining the earth to the ground, and the other is drawing the soul upwards. So you must let go of one and climb up onto the other. By so doing you become a soul freed out of captivity of matter; and that is what most of you are seeking for. So tonight let us look into these many forms of symbolism that will help you to exercise your mind and understand more as to why they are placed this way, and then see the Mystery of OEDIPUS.

(A plate was then placed upon the screen, the description and explanation of which, is given below).

The Mystery Plate

In this picture we are shown many gnarled and twisted tree trunks completely barren of leaf. Stretching across an upper branch of one of these dead trees is a noisome-looking male figure, the expression upon the face being brutish and vile, the ugly head covered with matted and unkempt hair; he is wearing tattered shorts and his vest is filthy and ragged, his feet and legs being uncovered.

This unwholesome looking creature is wielding an axe in his left hand as though in the act of striking a lion that is dozing at the bottom of the tree and sitting back upon its haunches in an almost human-like posture, its tail curling straight upwards. In front of the lion a viper is rearing its head up from amongst a number of very large stones that are seen in abundance at the base of the trees.

Now the mystery plate tonight gives you some idea of the power being captured by the soul, but it is inert yet dangerous, for there in front of the plate you can see the viper. The soul is caught up in its old ways, for it has refused to make growth; it is caught up in the trees of ancient states, the Cronus growth.

The soul becomes savage with all and sundry, and there it allows itself to become frantic, struggling now to break down that which it has drawn unto itself and is going to force it to find strength as it comes down from the tree; either it remains up in the old growth, or it is going to wrestle with the power; so, like Hercules, he must begin the path of seeking. It is no good going on drawing in the power, and not being able to face the circumstances of life; the soul now must learn to find strength, and he can only find that strength as he wrestles with the power.

Again this links with the ancient states of the past and the new-born creation; what was of the past now in fiery-creation, fiery vibration of the mind, and that raised up from the depths and become wood-ed growth, old and hoary, now raised up into a fiery light but inert. And so the two are going to be in a vicious circle.

The soul has got to wrestle with the power, but he has not got to destroy it; the soul has to master it, find his own strength and his own activity, and by so doing he will find

RENUNCIATION AND SACRIFICE

THE sacrifice of Lystra is the cutting off of the head of the Bull, that the Ram can be transformed into the raised up one-pointed Horn of the Goat. Thereby the soul sacrificing of his past desires, for the Glory of Divine Elevation. That he can now preambulate across the Heavenly Vaults, and raise his Arc up high. (See text in col. 4).

an electrical radiance. The soul does not understand this, so once again we come back to the fact that the soul has taken of knowledge, and in taking of knowledge he knows, but he also is ignorant; and this is where he is now going to face the difficulties of life.

This applies very much to initiates starting on the Path. They are either going to take on responsibility, take on of strength and face up to the conditions of life and so master them without fear and with courage, or they are simply going to stay up in the tree and live in the old wooded states, ever in a condition of fear. They must learn to be able to cast off old states of convention, and many of those things that are hampering them. Once the soul can do this, then he will truly find the courage of a hero and bring new thought and new life to the world.

It is fear that causes many a soul to lose the point and the post, but where a soul has courage,—even where they have been of an abortionist type or even where they have been of a dangerous type,— beth. In 1898 this lady was assassinated, and the account of the incident was as follows. "The same coachman who, 44 years ago at Elizabeth's bridal entry into Vienna drove the eight white horses of the state coach, yesterday drove the eight black horses of her hearse to the Church of the Capuchins."

Thus the coachman who was Cheiron was none other than the Christos, he who led all back and forth over the waters. In this case took her across one way to unity and the other for death and rebirth. (So there you are being shown a symbolism of Mystery).

All students must master symbolism and its intricacies. In the Odyssey you find Ulysses sacrificing black sheep to the dead, while Pluto, who had his realms underground, had black bulls sacrificed to him. That which was to be buried and brought forth at a latter date for reformation; but the sacrificing of that which was black would produce the opposite, the light. (See plate above)
