SUPREME SACRIFICE

as the Power of Atomic Sensitised Reality

ERE IT MUST BE SEEN, OF HOW the expressive fulness of the Atom lies in the Divine Thread of the Dyophysite transmuted Phenomenal Glory. That of the Thebes potential full majesty, the Diacanthous reality now born within the blood. For this is the untold majesty of Pre-Time vibronic stimulus, as the Power of Continuity, of the now Solar-Galactical Atomic chain. That of the Power of the Two Spines, the two Worlds unified. For the Atomic chain is the full molecular advancement of the Dyophysite Warrior, as all now fused into one revolving Theocratic fortune of Divine motivating activity. This is the new Source of the Atomic Central Sun Divine acoustics, whereby the aspirational depths of the Stream of Merope's full continuity are now embodied into the whole of the Central Sun supreme Divine countenance. This being the whole of the Created Force of LIFE, now surging through the soul's creative action, forging the full Theocratic activity of a constant supreme Intelligencia into active manifestation. The Atomic polarised profundity of a Royal devoted motivation, to radiate as the soul's intelligencia and active belief. For all now is supreme sacrifice, whereby the true reality of Atomic sensitivity is assumed by the soul in his assumption.

For here is the octavial Overshadowing reality of a Divine cosmic conscious ability, as the soul takes on of Dyophysite responsibility. For having chosen the lower path and creating intricacies, they now must amend and create towards the higher. For the full Etheric magnificence has been extracted from the Seed, and all is Law and nought is Chance. Hence the soul must now find ascension through the unfolding of the way he has chosen. Where the Fountain of the depths becomes the Uraeus of the heights. Hence all becomes the Dyophysite command of a Virgin cosmic consciousness. For this now is the full revolving of the Dyophysite Mind Plane, as all becomes the electrified Royal Reality of a Sun in Neptune, Royal Scorpio Atomic ecliptic wealth. The soul fully risen up onto the Neptunian heights, completely embraced into the Glory of Plutonic unity.

Now the profound utterance of the Solar Atomic sensitised depths, has become the true attractive effort of a Divine driving will, as the soul is born out of the Atom Shell of the Cosmic Communistos World of Divine Harmonious Hermeneutics. Hence the transforming of Femininity into Manhood, by the Divine harmonious glory of the Word. Where the Atomic Spectrum of the Virgin Dyophysite Glory becomes the Flame, born out of the Atomic mutability. For here is the Virgin revelation of the Atomic continuity, the Power of the Langerhans redeeming virtue. Where divine will and energy are born into the soul, where they find the courage of the Orion Warrior, to search into the mystery of the Giant's Causeway. That which will lead him unto the Holy Quest, in search of the Axis Point-head of Vega, the Divine Commissure.

Here is the Altruistic compassion of a Royal magnitude of Divine sensitised rebirth, whereby the hovering sensitised royal enceinte quest becomes the reality of a Relativity rebirth. Thus the true unity of Relativity, now being argued for, by the glory

The Responsibility of the Race Elect

by the Lord Hierarch of Scorpio

(These are extracts taken from the lecture of Sunday, 3rd October, 1971)

Merope's Opening Prayer

Great Divine Spirit, once again we gather here, to bring into birth the Word, that it can go forth onto the maelstrom and thereby meet the downpouring Fires, to open up the expansion into Light. We know that it is a critical moment, Great One, because man is being flooded with the Fire, and being ignorant, he is running wild, merely 'spy-hunting,' when really it is not they at all, but the down-coming Hierarchical Fires interpenetrating their depths. We know that unless this Word goes forth, and is sent forth with all the strength and volume of the male mind, it will never expand out onto the Waters,—as beams going forth, a waveband, a Glory of Light. Great One, there is so much we have to learn, but we are trying to understand, most of all to learn to reverence the Great Task that is placed upon our shoulders.

This is not just something that we are dabbling in, but a responsibility that has been placed upon our shoulders, and we have got to learn to reverence it a great deal more. We have got to learn to embrace it, and to realise that the whole world, the whole cosmos, is at our mercy, and if we fail to do Thy bidding, that we have of our own accord accepted, it will go hard, in fact, annihilation. For it is a responsibility of a changing world, an opening up of dead minds, and as we now realise that we are the Race Elect,—few as we may be,—we know that unless we take the reins firmly into our hands, the responsibility will never be met. Help us to understand this more, particularly with the lecture tonight, that we can struggle and awaken out of the depths of self-complacency, and open our hearts to the Great Blessing that has been given unto us who can go on into Life immortal. So, Great One, we thank Thee that we are so blessed, and we leave ourselves in Thy hands, seeking all in the name of Love and Service. Amen.

THE MASTER THEN MANIFESTED

Peace Be Unto You All

Again we come amongst you and we come to fulfil the task, but listen most attentively to Merope's prayer, for Merope now has taken upon her shoulders that of Master, the Great Intelligencia, while I am now One with Divinity and am the Voice of Divinity. Such can only be delivered to those who are truly ready; those who are born to accept the Divine Truth, the internal depths of Holy Light. You are My disciples, and by building up your mind and radiating it with Light,—a driving acme of strength and courage,—will you support me and bring True Divinity into birth. Until this is spread forth into the world, man is still in blind illusion. You are the Race Elect, you are the heralds of Reality. The charge is upon your shoulders, and you must speak with true reverence and only with the true Glory of the Word. Humility, and yet Royal Dignity, must be your stance, and you will uphold Merope, for within these three years she will give you the wherewithal to strengthen the World with Light. This IS important; do not fail to comprehend, for if you fail it will be your responsibility, and once again I say THIS IS IMPORTANT!

In the past week Merope has been driven to raise up the vibrations to get them above the spy-hunt', to prevent the possibility of a war. Man is so infused with the FIRE he is at a level which he does not understand, while there are those who are only finding their internal desires swelling up to an unfounded height. This has been a heavy task upon Merope and one that has taken a big toll. She needs support,—and more support,—to see this task fully established.

To bring home to you the importance is difficult when you are so enamoured with the world at large, but you have had plenty of time to make sure whether you believe or not, and whether you intend to go forth. Now you are ready. Try to expand your minds so that you are receptive, and that wherever you go you will radiate the Light that will automatically be with you.

Every one of you are Hierarchially born for this task; your gathering here, Sabbath after Sabbath, has made you Hierarchical-born, but if you do not honour that Hierarch he now has the power to put you to shame. You honour him and he will give you Light, he will become a part of your mind expansion, and help you to drive the Word into the depths.

MACROCOSMIC GLORY

THE mighty Power and Glory of the Great Planes of unfolding Divine Light, giving unto man the wherewithal of royal continuity. The Root and Source of his becoming, the supreme mystery of his internal Divine Heritage. (See text in col. 3).

Now this will give you some idea of the Grand MAN; the great Planes of Light being built up by the Word that is going out onto the maelstrom. Now you are so prepared as to start becoming an open Cell, a brain Cell of the Great Brain, and this is why I am warning you. Your Commissure now is going to begin to open into a Photographic Cell, to become a Cell of the Great Brain. By you expanding your mind and getting Divine ideas and rebirth, you are going to give unto the GRAND MAN the contents of His Kingdom.

Now just try to think for the moment. You are being brought to the state of a Photographic Cell, an expansion of Divinity. If that is put into operation, as it has already started to do, and you then play fast and loose with the Word, a Hierarchical enforcement will take over and,—well, we will leave it at that, but there is your warning! You are blessed beings; beings risen up out of the darkness of the earth. You are within yourself living in your etheric body; you are protected by yourself, but only as far as you honour the blessing!

This is why it is so important that you give the whole of your mind to Divinity, for you are leading the whole world into rebirth, with Merope at your head, bringing Divinity to being born in your midst. He will look through your Cell, your Photographic Cell of your Commissure, out into the world to perceive the whole of His Kingdom. So with this thought in your minds let us now turn to the Word to be established tonight.

of the quest. This is where the complete unity of the Atomic constitution, as that of the Eagle elevated context of the Atomic Sperm Seed, becomes the Ethereal reality of a compassionate guided Divine sensitised continuity. For without manhood and the search for truth by the Warrior sonship, there is no possible hope of continuity as LIGHT.

By this, the effluvium of the Atomic Breath has become the Divine service of Merope's continuity, that of the Divine FACE acoustics. Whereby the Seed has now become the full Theocratic Husbandry of the levitated royalty of supreme Dyophysite comprehension. The focal point of the Fired Seeds, bringing a one-way vibronic path, intensifying the wave-band of Merope.

All now becomes as the constant Theocratic reality, the full inaugurated depths of the Dyophysite Divine embodiment of the aspired supreme conception. This is the Breath of the Atomic attunement, in the full embodied Atomic Brilliance of the Ethereal Royal rotundary rebirth. Where, by its circular motion, the soul spins up higher and higher, thereby circling Planes of octavial rebound. This being the Atomic Source, in that of the complete renunciation of earth characteristics.

Atomic motivation of the full enceinte revolving inspirational reality of a Theocratic isotope can now bring into birth, the Solar Christos depths of the Atomic Sphenoidal Fossa. Where new beliefs and creative thoughts can begin a new Atomic causation.

For this is the creative facsimile of a Divine Digest virgin truth of Theocratic clarity, where the soul becomes alight with the conscious conception of a Virgin Theocratic action. Putting belief into royal motivation, bringing new life to the depths. Where the merciful depths of a Dyophysite deed of Uranian fortitude, unifies the Atomic Stream with the Atomic fluidity of a Solar sensitised and elevated up into the heights of the Commissure.

This being the Atomic royal reality, as the all-consuming FACE of the Dyophysite Babe. That now the Atomicised Blood of the New Vega Royalty of the Seeded depths, of Divine Devotion. For all now is the full fertility of a Theocratic Desire, hence born of the Breath of the augmented Light of Supreme Atomic elevated Divine Service.

Thus the supreme sacrifice, that now gives the soul the Power of Atomic sensitised Reality. For the Breath of the Polygamite has at last brought forth of the Virgin sensitised correlation of the Dyophysite Voice. For now Atomic stimulus feeds the soul with sensitised Light corpuscular Reality; the very acme of creation and the Source of all-Being now ready for consumption and Polarisation.

Here is where the Atomicised Theocratic motivating Principle of the Sun in Taurus continuity, that of the Divinely elevated mind, becomes the elevated sensitised Etheric reality. That of a serviceable constant revolving Principle to that of the Divine elevated phenomenal glory of the Central Sun Theocratic Virgin Source. The soul born of its own internal generative source, but which has

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Law of Attraction and Gravitational pull, is now self-supplying from the Central Sun Atomic magnificence.

This could only be accomplished from the Belief, by the conscious mind now becoming the Beast before the Throne. He bows before his own Solar-born radiant Commissure, the Thalamic ganglion which he has set alight. This is the supreme sacrifice which the Bull has set into operation, by ever cutting off his own head of desire.

supreme inaugurated Holy ascending reverberations of a Divine Virgin sensitised mind.

Where a sensitised reality was now making its way perceived, as the soul awakened from its past earth-born state. For the pure royal Divine intuition has become the constant revolving itinerary of the activating Theocratic Presence, of the Sun in Scorpio Holy Fired Divine Dyophysite glory. Where all the Atomic Spleen has now become the Eagle Ego of the Dyophysite Babe, and is the full unification of the true enceinte Royal depths of Divine inaugurated Holy ascending assumption.

This is the all-prevailing Dyophysite Glory of the Central Sun unfoldment, through the Ethereal Planes of Theocratic Divine ascending pre-ordainment of the Atomic Divine sensitivity. Where the soul, by its unfolding belief, will make its way back to those Heavenly Planes of LIGHT.

This being the glory of a Divine inaugurated wealth of the Virgin moving cycle of Evolutionary gyratic Overshadowing, in that of the Etheric Virgin royalty of the Divine Seed of elevated phonetics. Thus building up the glory on earth, as well as their own ascension, up through and by the Solar pull of the soul's assimilation of the Chromospheric Glory.

This is where we come to the Continuity of the true depths of the Source, as that of the intuitional Breath of the constant revolving Dyophysite Divine Royalty, of Virgin Central Sun Atomic sensitivity. That of Divine electrification, that renders unto the soul of perceptory awareness, this being the acme of the mind and the fundamental of the Flame. The FIRE within the Fire that becomes the intensification of the Commissure, that as the Thalamic Ganglion, feeds all other ganglions with electrification and LIGHT.

By this the soul spirals up and is able to embrace the Planes in reverse of their magnetic. This is the two Spines of the Diacanthous, where all becomes of the Atomic, that of the electro-magnetic, for all now is Polar-Chromatic.

This is where Merope makes the Prototype, for it was she who broke up the inertia of the World, and now replaces by the Royal Divine Electrification, that of Sun in Taurus. This is the nucleus, the Thread of Ariadne, now the Thread of Atomic Etymological elevation. The Virgin now involving of Divine Dyophysite Breath, calls for a complete Divine unilateral awakening of Theocratic Practice.

For now, all has become the fortunes of a Divine self-giving service to the Theocratic Source of Virgin sensitised correlation. Where the soul awakens to the Divine magnitude, that now is flowing into his midst. For all Virgin virtue is now born of pure etymological unification of the Atomic

For here is the Atomic profound ascension of continuity, as unto the supreme inspirational Beatitude, of a Theocratic Pube relativity Oneness. For the full unilateral Pole has now become the electrified continuity of the supreme Intelligencia. That of the Dyophysite sensitivity of a Sun in Scorpio Relativity Reality, where it is a one-pointed drive towards the goal of completeness, the Royal Glory of Light.

Here is the full activity of a Divine Stream of Theocratic Husbanded Depths, whereby all becomes of the enceinte Theocratic Source to source contact, of the Divine Theocratic Grace. Where soul learns to tread the Path of service and compassion, for the activity of the Solar cosmic fortitude has at last become of the full Theocratic cosmic Divine Brain wealth.

That of the Atomic digest and wherewithal to render the means of service, the latter being the fully spermated Theocratic Fire of the elevated levitated depths. The means of Divine Cosmic conscious continuity of Vega Divine Virtue, whereby the aspirational electrolysis is the supreme Immortal status of a Divine Dyophysite Directive. For now the Brain of the soul has become the global equivalent of the Central Sun Royal Supreme Majesty.

Here is the radiance of the Theocratic effluvium continuance, of a Solar saturated enceinte intelligencia. That of a supreme etherealised effluence of a Holy Continuity, of a compassionate Theocracy, where a New World is born out of the old, and the way of life is fully perceived. Hence the etheric conscious internal reality.

This now being perceived as the Power of Atomic Crystalline corrective, the Atomic skill of Dyophysite expansion. Where the Power of Atomic sensitised Reality is now brought fully into birth.

Here is Atomic stimulus in its positive denomination, as the Power of Sun in Taurus. For here is now where the Divine Overshadowance feeds the nucleus of the Atomic mind, with the Power of Theocratic inaugurating infinity. This being the Power of the Ekklesia supreme Belief, where mystical sublime truths lay bare their roots of origin.

By this, the Virgin Atom is fully clarified, and becomes a living existence in the Sight and Sound of the Divine Ethereal counterbalance of the Central Sun infinite Infinity. Whereby all becomes as the Atomic waveband sensitivity of enceinte Theocratic motivation. Where the Power of the Theocratic Solar Word is born of Hydrogenised Theocratic expansion, now become, in its generative accrue, as the Power of Atomic sensitised reality.

This is Atomic stimulus in its revitalising Principle of regenerative, as earth self-stimulation, instead of the confined inertia of the once sleeping god state of the soul. Completely self-supporting and regenerative, where the soul finds that the more he feeds others, does he feed himself.

For the Theocratic Thebes light has become the intoxicating rhythm of Commissure ganglion vibrational change. That of Atomic full relativity regenerative rebirth, as that of the full enceinte virtue of Theocratic fulness. Thus bringing the Glory of the Solar immensity, now as the magnitude within the soul's own internal being.

Here is the Atomic motivation, as the Power and supreme administration of copulating Atomic Brilliance. That of the full seeded depths of Divine execution, where the fulness of becoming now depends upon the soul's own becoming Belief. For this is the true Thebes administrative phenomenal magnificence, as the Divine Atomic Neptunian full virtue of Cosmic conscious Theocratic Breath radiation. Where soul, by the Supreme Cosmic

Now GOD, the ordained Oracle, preambulates upon the full octavial Atomic Cycle of Theocratic royalty; that of the constant attaining revolving infusion of the Fire, as the Atomic Divine Fiery Virgin Light phenomenal glory. Sut who has laboured, comes into his own, and Christ rides into Jerusalem on the donkey.

This, on the Uranian Plane of Fired wealth, is the Transceiverised wealth of the now Zenith vibration of the Central Sun, becoming that of the internal Zenith. Where the Fissures are now re-sealed by the Atomic circuit of Continuity that was cut off. Hence that which came away from the Nebula and became cut off, has now risen and become re-attached by the sacrifices of Merope, as Central Sun to central sun, making a status of fixed continuity.

Here is the Power of ordaining Theocratic ministry, as that of the full Atomic Atomicalisation of the ever unifying Seed of Divine infinity. The Power of sensitised Theocratic Divine Atomic acoustic Husbandry, now the soul's infinitised glory of ever re-accruing rebirth. For the enceinte Virgin Reality has become blessed by the pure Holy embracement of the Divine Dyophysite Virgin Reality. That of the Source's motivation of the Hallowed Seed, the where-withal to build Continuity.

For now the Divine Birth-right is born to all men of god conscious awakened Royalty, that of the true supreme depths of Vega Royal support. Where Atomic stimulus foreshadows the Great Almighty Dyophysite direction, of the Atomic continuity of Space. That which came before Space conception, as the inner Core depths of elevated Neptunian profound Prototype. That of the Divine sensitised Theocratic Dominance, waiting to lead man back to the Heavenly heights.

Through this, the Atomic aspiration of the Theocratic body has now become the enceinte durability of the Ethereal Divine conception. The full comprehension of the Theocratic Divine inauguration of the Sun in Taurus, where the Bull is filled with the Holy Light sent forth as the Generative Core of the Scorpionic Depths.

This now has become the Atomic extreme depths of the complete activating Divine sensitivity. That now as the Atomic conquest of Dyophysite reality, having now perceived of the supreme reality of the enceinte full depths of Divine Perception. For through the supreme sacrifice prototyped by Merope, the way is made for all men to find the true Power of Atomic sensitised reality.

For here is the Power of complete justification, in its virgin ethereal state of Divine Theocratic Practice. Much now having been brought forth out of the Theocratic depths, that of the Divine Dyophysite Vega Reality rebirth, that has lifted the soul up to more perceptive comprehension.

For this Divine Perception has now been reconstructed, as the soul mind intelligencia of the Atomic Space; it being the activation of the Etheric compassion of supreme elevated inspiration. That now built up within the soul, as reconstituted mind birth, on a Plane of Theocratic aspired dimensional Desire. A way of supreme service, bringing into the soul the glory of the elevated Royal mind creation.

Hence, by such being put into operation by Merope, all atomic relations with the Etherealistic depths by Divine Husbandry, has now become the Theocratic expression. That of the Ethereal digest, as the constitution of Royal elevated Desire, which will bring that soul to obtain of the royal Power of Atomic sensitised reality.

Here we behold by such elevated accomplishment, of the going forth into the Argo straits of Divine rejuvenating Waters. For here is the collecting of the Lambs' tails on the final return journey back home, whereby all is balanced and counted in, as the virgin depths of Perceptive continuity, of Source to source reality rebirth. Where the soul by Solar assumption is ever drawing back home, bringing the Apples to ripen on the Tree in the midst of the Garden.

For here is the Dove as the depths of the Dyophysite transference of Divine Desire, into that of the complete Royal Desire body of etherealised Holy enceinte sensitivity. That which, when blended with the Hydrogen Breath of Outer World Space, will in polarisation, bring the nut point of truth into birth.

All is now the crochet network of gossamer glorified enceinte incentive rebirth, as that of the Atomic woven depths of Dyophysite manhood. This now being as involved Hermeneutics of Atomic basic Desire, transferable and radiational in its profound unification with the Source of Vega gyrating inspired Royalty. This source to Source is the whole trend of TIME, that must now become the whole blended Point of the journey of return.

For this is the articulatory depths of etheric Virgin continuity, forging its pure Uranian propensive Desires into the divine conscious comprehending depths of the soul. Thereby creating new and more profound ideas, in the Mighty profound World of Vega expansive LIGHT.

For the polarised Plutonic Power of the sun in scorpionic has become the phenomenal base of the Divine Desire body of the Earth. With all occurring at last, the ascended Supreme Depths of Vega virgin acoustics, the glory of the Voice, that gathered up as the Light of the Commissure, in entering into the Tympanic chamber of the ear, comes forth as the Voice of the Unseen Depths of Outer World Space. Divinity has been given habitation, through the Love and Compassion of the Illuminati of the depths.

Now through the mighty Vicarious Atonement of Merope, the Atomic acoustics have become the enceinte Theocratic motivation of a supreme Etheric octavial reality. Whereby the sensitivity has become the receiver of Outer Space Life, of vast phenomenal gyration. The Power of intuitional Dyophysite response, and the soul becoming a mighty Atomic radiating Cell of the Brain. A spark of Nebula expanding possibility going forth to find the glory of a mind.

Now after vast experience and treading of the grapes, comes back, not to a Nebula of starry unfoldment, but a Constellation of unfolded Mind Glory, feeding the World in its expanding phenomenal manifestation, with the where-withal of Divinity Glorified magnitude. Where GOD and gods converse together, as a mighty Royal Court of Divine Holy manifestation.

This is the polarisation of the Chromosomes from Pole to Pole, as they are fed by the Mighty Powers of Outer World Space. That which in being alchemicalised in the soul unfolding acoustics, to gather up as the electrolysis of the Commissure Eye. Now no longer as Polyphemus or Saturn possessive red fire, but elevated etymological polarised Light, manifesting the FIRE within the Fire. Thus through the royal sensitivity of the Hermeneutic mind, becomes the manifested Divine Voice of God.

This now, in its expanding possibility, is the Etheric Core of the Divine eternal depths, of the propulsion of the enceinte motivating Theocratic FACE. The Atomic stimulated majesty of monumental Royal Reality phenomena, where the soul saw through the Veil and perceived the Mighty Magnitude that was waiting to come forth, as the Royal Dynamic Glory of the Almighty Voice.

Hence that Atomic enceinte reality has now become the Ethereal depths of the Dyophysite Celestial motivating etheric supreme Constitution, of the molecular Breath. That of a Vega Dyophysite enceinte FACE, seeking to feed and octavially elevate all possibility of genius. For every soul is filled with this mighty Fire in all states of reception, that the Dynamic World of Vega can duly come forth, and fulfil the Glory of the CREATION. For now the Vegarites have become the Royal Race Elect, the Fire-born souls with the Radiance of the Fire-born mind.

For Electrolysis is pure motivating Fire, captured through the Glory of the Word, producing its mighty infernal Depths of Divinity. For GOD is the Word, and the Word is of God, seeking to manifest Divine Wonders untold. But energy. This is the changing of the heart-beat, as the levitating ganglion of the throat, as it raises the vibronic pitch of the Voice in octavial ascension. For the Voice is the Seed Phenomenal Glory of the vibrating Atom, giving forth its ringing tones of Spherical Vibrations of the Spheres.

Hence all is controlled by the Voice of Direct Theocratic bidding, leading the soul into Depths of the Grand Man's Atomic Theocratic Rhythm. Where the Discontinuous spiral attribute is adjusted, and the soul climbs via the earth-bound spiral adjustment. As he climbs, he draws up the electrolysis, which is the Thread of Divine Elevation from Ego to EGO. The supreme Royal Holy Core of the Mighty Atomic Source.

This is the Grand Man, the mighty creation of Power gained through supreme sacrifice and sensitised reality. For the Grand Man's Theocratic Rhythm is the full immensity of the Atomic FACE depths. That which now Plutonically implants the Grand Man's simplicity within the soul. The Voice acoustics of the Central Sun itinerary Prayers, of Theocratic expansive Divine Phenomena. The Holy Glory of Truth, that gives unto the soul the where-withal to drive forth on the Road of Divine expansion.

These are the profound polarising Portals of a Theocratic sensitised mind, as that of a supreme Atomic sensitivity. That which now has become of a Royal Grand Man Royalty, of Divine conscious profound Breath. Where the soul now lives in the Etheric Atmosphere of Earth surround. Where Breath becomes the Pure enceinte Theocratic Rhythm of a Dyophysite selective enceinte Race Elect Seed. Where the full Beauty of the magnitude of Holy enceinte wonder fills the Divine Portals with the stimulus of the Pure Atomic depths of Being.

Thus the supreme sacrifice is now of the Power of pure sensitised reality. For Atomic being, is that of Divine continuity, the Power of Royal embracement. That of Divine Central Sun Atomic constitutional compassion. For this is now where "The Lord is my Shepherd", and the lamb's tail gathered in the way down, now becomes the last self-born Desire, embedded within the soul's Divine Comprehension.

For the soul now becomes the habitation of Divinity, whereby the Lord orders all his beholding, his comings and his goings. For the lamb's tail has become the Flame of the mind, the Royal Glory of the Holy See, now Divinity born.

Yet here is where the enceinte embraces the Intelligencia, here being the Atomic propensity of a Divine Virgin Light Glory. For as the Seed unites with the Divine Seed of Royal Continuity, the inborn Breath takes on of expanded Light.

This is where the soul becomes ONE with the Holy FIRE, that which now is manifesting as Divine unfolding Glory of Divinity. This is where a Supreme Sacrifice will be called for, from the soul, that the incoming Glory is not deterred from making its true manifestation.

The Closing Prayer

I call and place upon this mighty Word the Glory of My Union; I impregnate it with the Beauty of My Divinity, as the Glory comes forth into the Wander of your mind, and I rise up out of your depths and become the Voice of your speech. I am thy Life, I am thy Fire, I am the Glory of your mind; I am the Sole Being of all that has been created, and as that Glory I embrace you, I hold you, I lead you, I will take you onwards and carry you back to the Glory of your Purpose.

I am thy Father, the magnitude of thy internal being, and as One with My Spouse Merope, we will feed you with the Word until you are ready to embrace the world and lead them and vice them of thy love. By this Beauty will the world be healed and reborn, and be come out of the sorrows of come out of the darkness. Therefore my sons, fall me not, and I shall be thy Divine Overshadowance. ADIEU.

only when man fully comprehends the true glory of supreme sacrifice, that by discarding of earth, the transportation produces of the Royalty of the mind. Then Mintaka becomes as a new-born Babe of man, where the Seed has been fully fruited.

Here we perceive how the New World of supreme ethereal sensitivity of Virgin Light phenomena has become the Atomic Breath. The Royal Perceptory unification of the Dyophysite Seed, now as the Atomised infiltrated depths of the Enceinte Virgin Relativity. All the intensity of the Will is now fused with activating energy of the Central Sun's Divine immensity. That of the Dyophysite intuitive Phenomenal Glory of the continuity inauguration, now coming into its own, as the Royal World of Vega.

That of Dyophysite Communist Royalty, where man and God unify in Holy embracement, hence that of the intensity of the Theocratic Octave, now as that of Dyophysite Scordom. That which becomes the Solar conscious preambulance, the will of the Divine Breath, registered more and more in the constant Dyophysite rebirth of a new Virgin Vega drive.

Therefore, phenomena of the Solar Dyophysite motivation can now expedite the ganglion changes from Light to Light mighty magnitudes of Depths. Hence from the depths of the Prostate comes forth the Voice vibronics of the Seed Wealth, as that of Tympanic Atomic Theocratic Theology. For this is where the depths of the enceinte Warrior are first infused with the radiational stimulus of a Sun in Scorpio Atomic Mind Body.

This being the full Brilliance of a Central Sun Divine Ekklesiastic Breath of Theocratic Divine Reality. Where true Holy Royalty now comes forth, as the expanded wonders of the Unseen Vast Space of Heavenly Mystery.

Now the vibrational equivalent of a Divine being, sets the infinity of the ganglion electronics into Beauties never known before. With all becoming Celestial Breath phenomena, of the Divine Virgin Seed. Thus setting the soul alight with Divine Radiation, that all who are touched by their radiational sparking, will be touched off into Light.

Here is the express Royal Reality of a constant Atomic Flame, as the ganglions compose the Etheric inaugurating wealth into a unified Etheric principle of supreme Atomic Light. This is what is called the formulative Digest of the Divine Ethereal Kingdom of unilateral Atomic radiation. Where the Atomic spark, now in the centre of the Brain, is the radiating source of circling currents.

For mastery has now become the Atomic Light of the re-sensitised Plane of Vega Plutonic Glory. This is the full Theocratic rebirth of the Desire active aspiration, for she is now being incited by the new proposals...

HERE is one interpretation of Focalisation, where the Bull as the Warrior and Venus as the Virgin, are being fed by his new found wisdom. For as she is enlightened will she weave and create, bringing wealth and upliftment to her lord in the heights.

Thereupon, he awaketh and calls Carpalim to him, that they might breakfast, whereupon he advises him of his dream. Carpalim here takes on the guise of the wise philosopher, while Father John also comes to the rescue, and declares in his religious way that she is only coming to set horns fast to his forehead. "No," cries Panurge, "you are mistaken, my dream presageth marriage," whereby he stands very adamantly to his point. For he strongly declares, "a malignant spirit would leave me perplexed..."

THE duality of the Word, that in interpretation only remained in its Gemini creation. This is the wisdom fresh from birth, appearing in its negative degree, where the Venus, by her adroitness, raises it up to its positive manifestation.

she left me joyful and fully determined." But Friar John, the old religious belief, continued to badger Panurge, causing the negative desire to rise, dragging his virgin down to the lower degree of perception. For this is the mystery, either you are convinced, or you are still under the influence of the harlot. So in the agitation, Friar John says, "my stomach is calling," and the lesser desires prevail.

(See plate in cols. 2 & 3)

For Venus is being drawn back into her old states, by the ultra-righteous states that fear to come away from convention and strike out anew. This is where the intricate depths of the wisdom and the Plates must be studied and seen in their right perspective. For it seems that Panurge is imbibing of the wisdom, but not fully unifying up by will and deed of complete belief.

Thus being prepared to become and sacrifice, for this is where the soul either embraces, or merely plays with wisdom, thereby bringing difficulty unto himself. For all are seeking of their godship once again, but not fully aware of it; but this cannot be on the old Plane of earth, but this time must be on the Plane of FIRE, which Merope brought into birth by molecularisation of the Word.

To fully appreciate this, the soul must now become versed in vibration, for the Word is GOD and GOD is in the Word. For it is the Fire of the Central Sun that becomes spermed by the human fire, the old wealth in the coccyx, and raised up as Spiritus Air, to become the glory of the mind. This feeds the gods in the heights, which either are given new one-pointed Solar wisdom, or old wealth from the past, which is so ably shown in this Plate.

(See plate in cols. 4 & 5)

This would be Panurge raising up the Sibyl of Panzoust, she who was skilled in the wisdom of fore-telling. This would not be the Venus weaving attribute for the soul, but mere fortune telling. For it is the gods in our heights that become our guides, and taking on of evolving personality states, as seen in the light of Indians, Egyptians and Arabs. For they have progressed to these different states, in the soul's descent down the Ages.

This can be seen also, in the amount of Planetary habitation in a Sign in the Astro Chart. Therefore, one at a time, as the soul studies the wisdom, do these have influence and become the means of being supplied by the mortuary meal, created from new wisdom.

But on no account separate these into individualised beings, but see them as factotem states, a stage of mental development of those parts of ourself, which is but a vibronic colouring of the whole. Therefore Panurge the driving Bull is now receiving new-born wisdom from Scorpio, the Generative Breath, and by his belief and acquired sensitivity either brings forth of the old or new unfoldment.

This is why the true seeker is being supplied with molecularised wisdom of a very Divine Nature in the foremost article of the Gazette. If the soul will only strive to read it and try to understand of its mighty truth, they will feed their gods, raised up on the Plane of Abstract Mind, with Divine Philosophising truth.

For this has the Spirit fully incorporated direct from the Seed, whereby many declare that by only reading the Gazette, they feel better, and often if they telephone for help, we advise them to go and study the Gazette and partake of its spiritual rebirth. The Plate in question is very explanatory, for it shows how the Word, in receiving of Venus' definition of Diapasonic inflow, is utterly scaring the Hierarchical inflow by what is being offered them.

Here is where we could get a better explanation of Noah, the Patriarch of the first raised-up Arc, sending forth a Dove, an idea, and she returns after he starts to put it into operation, with a sprig of Myrtle in her mouth. He had given it the highest possible creation, thereby received assurance back from the heights of their good-Will.

So it gives some idea of how the majority are apt to translate the wisdom received from those Heavenly Planes, which drives the inbirth into the depths. This is what Rabelais was seeking to convey, but he was not then so well breeched in Power, as we are now. It was early times, and religion was ever watching to capture a heretic.

Venus in her Psychic Creation

SO Panurge for the first time speaks to the Sibyl Panzoust, not the Virgin up in the heights weaving of the Loom of Divinity, but she who has only risen up to a Psychic status. For Panurge was still very much riddled with religion, and for the time was very much in doubt.

According to Rabelais, their voyage to the dear Patroness was six days journeying, which would be the soul raising his mind up to the vibrations of the Pituitary, where Venus was of the Sibyl growth. Whereby through the present status of the Word, she would have been as the Virgin. So when they arrived there, which would be only by attitude of higher belief, they went to the house of the vaticinatrix, which was under a spacious walnut tree.

This would be the vibronic rise up, to under the two hemispheres of the brain, held up by the Corpus Callosum. Here Rabelais indicates of what I am ever reiterating, here was one so imbued with old religious ideas, as to destroy any hope of expansion onto greater and more expansive growth.

Rabelais, as much as he was striving to get away from old ideas, was still using old terms, thereby only just changing the colour of the garment. It must ever be a struggle to master old ideas, and bring completely new ideas into birth.

AS Venus had feared, when it came to the moment of declaration, she had risen no higher than a vaticinatrix. Thus found herself as Eve holding two apples and a sprig of myrtle to charm all into active reproduction. (See text in col. 1).

Up to the present, it had been through a religious rendering of the Neptunian depths, that has caused Panurge to be in such confused depths of fear. (See plate on page 7, cols. 2 & 3)

This appearing in such fantastical derision, is because man has not of the truth in its right perspective, but a distorted misconceived vision as the 'backside' of the truth. This is seen only too clearly, in the Sibyl or Virgo interpretation of the Word, as the fish, the humanised Word, flying back into the Waters in horror. Thus the true mystery of the Sibyl has been lost in the religious theory of the Virgin Mary.

This is a poor derivation of the Occult ascension, and the Virgin eventually giving birth to the Jesus, or Illuminati growth of the soul. When viewed in its true light, would be the Sibyl or Virgo mind going up to the heights by mind ascension, to give the unfolding Divinity her quota of Light.

Her ascension is through the Psychic into the Occult, which now, through the molecularisation of the Word and unification through Relativity, is a much quicker ascent. Hence the Virgin Mary, surrounded by a bevy of candles, that when purchased and lighted, retrieves your sins, creates of such pictures as we have been portraying.

Homer, as well as Rabelais, both intense Occultists, is most derogative regarding the creation, which would have applied very much in their day; yes, and with the World as it is today! For in the majority, whose Venus can be any different to this...

(See plate on page 7, cols. 4 & 5)

For it is a well-known fact, that unless the Sibyl is truly Virgin born, she will never survive the rise up into the seventh house of Libra. This is where Venus makes her debut at the round altar of reborn Law; thus accepts the reborn theory of elevated light. Rabelais refers to her having created a meal of unsavoury broth, made from bare and hollow bones, though the Latins call it a fishpond, with no fish; but it is very obvious that Panurge is alarmed at the state of Venus, his fair lady of Paris.

This literally describes the dried up witch state of the Pituitary, where Venus has only been the witch creation of all states of desire to urge Taurus into action. Thus Panurge approached her, and begged she would give him some intelligence regarding the future good luck of his intended marriage.

From Rabelais' standpoint, his opinion of woman as a monk and of the age, would have been very poor, as is perceived by his writing. Since his day, much emancipation has gone forth, with Merope bringing the conclusion. But Rabelais had not this to write around, and Panurge refuses to marry the Sibyl, which would be to supply her with wisdom, as he plowed, sowed and created, so remained married up to his old love, the fair lady of Paris.

Yet here we see how the artist of the drawings seemed to ride above Rabelais, and saw the depths that were waiting to come forth, when woman was fully retrieved. Rabelais was a supercilious monk with wisdom, the Artist was one elevated by his art, therefore portrayed his own Venus creation, who was a very comely being.

But it is of Panurge's fortune we seek, that we too can be directed. Having collected of what he could gather from the Sibyl, which was at present nought, he at least had set the unfolding heights into action.

MAGNETIC DESIRES

THUS Father John, the husbandman of the soul, was still hovering between dogma and wisdom. Finally succumbing to the negative, devouring the Word garnished with magnetic sauce. (See text in col. 1).

FINALLY, Venus awakened to the fact that lay within her grasp, to drive the Bull into the right direction. Thus gathered the Word and listened wisely, inducing the Bull by seductive charms, that the marriage could bring forth of true uplifted glory. (See text on page 6, col. 5).

For he realised that his Sibyl was a Lilith, and above all, she was determined not to be put off so easily, thus tried a number of ways of trying to hold Panurge, on her only way of creation at the present moment. She was not entirely to blame, for he had spent much of his time in drinking of "wine", and not creating from his partaken indulgence.

Therefore Epistemon who had accompanied Panurge, declared, "God's bodikins! let's fly this hole." Thus they jointly ran in haste, the Bull and the Word created, after the fallen and dispersed leaves of the wisdom, which the mighty gust of wind had blown away. Then gathered them up out of their gained experience, but not without great labour and toil, for the wind had scattered them amongst the thorn bushes of the valley.

It was then they realised that the Sibyl, the raised-up Virgin of Pantagruel, was with child; but who gave it the conception? Therefore, having collected what he could, which would be her weaving for him to recreate on a higher basic, he returned to Pantagruel to advise him of the situation regarding his Virginian lot.

This at the present, is the re-born disgrace, where the Water-pot is dry, and the Sibyl merely an old witch becoming big with child by another. But will she go on stealing from him the wherewithal to further her creation of such fearful revelation. This is why the Hierarchs now rule with rigid discipline, that Venus can be retrieved, and the candles taken away from the static Virgin Mary.

Although Merope has become the Prototype, the road is still very steep for the majority of women to make the ascent, and ascend they must. Yet all is set for when the compass swings due North, and the mind and Pituitary perceive in their true balanced light.

But at last Panurge the Bull has been able to transport his Venus into giving forth of some form of devised wisdom, but for the moment it is only in the form of short and twattle verses. And that, most of all, just mere prophecy, for he is looking for major points of wisdom, that will make her enciente child turn into the right direction of thought. By this he could drive to set Pantagruel into action, and become so filled with light, as to rise all up to the heights and bring the Starry wealth of the Commissure into Solar rebirth.

Therefore Pantagruel is the Will to become, and now has due relationship with Scorpio, the counter-activity of Fire. So as Pantagruel perceives by investigation, Venus must seek to weave into a copious garment of new belief, that the Bull can drive and draw down of further active Seed growth.

But Pantagruel now begins to find that he is wandering into unknown territory, and more than anything, it is beginning to carve up religion. Where the activity that is set into motion, sets religious states into a whirl. For by expounding of the truth by Occultism, the Science of Living, exposed their wisdom to be of erroneous depths, that left all devoid of the Spirit.

Therefore, as Rabelais sent his wisdom up to his heights, he declared that monks, friars and nuns had violated the Commandments of God. Therefore he declared, "Goatsnose, you may be fit for your present purpose, but I am bringing you of the truth."

AT last Venus, in her reformation, brought Friar John to becoming Fired with the Neptunian unfoldment, into the whirling glory of rebirth. With Eros taking on the garb of Outer World rebirth, as he drove their aspirations up to the heights.

This is where we perceive more clearly that Pantagruel was really Rabelais, where he had his difficulties also. For no one bringing new wisdom, which entails violent changes, gets away with it lightly. But unfortunately his cause was not the WILL and FORCE of the Hierarchical Powers. A forerunner, yes, but not the accredited Plan. Though, without Rabelais, the way for Merope would have been far more difficult, for he moved the vibrations into fluidity, starting new beliefs into action.

This Rabelais did by bringing the wisdom of Occultism to the fore, therefore, in Goatsnose, which of course is the fulness of Capricorn, coming to Pantagruel's court, Panurge gave him a fat calf, half a hog of wine, a load of corn and thirty pieces of small money. This would be an enormous amount of wisdom; but after receiving he yawned, made the figure of the letter Tau, lifted his eyes heavenward, then turned his head like a she goat in a painful fit of an absolute birth.

The wealth was so great, the heights found it difficult to assimilate, Tau being the Greek sign for truth. For Panurge was so disgusted by his birth imposed upon his Virgin, that he resolved to do much better, therefore polarised what had been created and sent it up in a gyrated spin. For Goatsnose had made no expansion and sent no wealth up to the heights, whereby Pantagruel refers to him as a sewer, for sending such utter rubbish down to the depths once again.

Therefore there is much talk regarding consummation of marriage between heights and depths, as to bring fresh hope and new ideas. But here is where Goatsnose is warned that wisdom is required and not mere divination, with Panurge intimating that the Fire must be risen up in aspiration, which will inspire and raise up his wife in the depths.

This caused Goatsnose to dither and shiver, for again, owing to Panurge ever being in debt, all is starved and in hunger. For Panurge had not drawn the Seed from Scorpio, thereby firing the whole of the soul creation with Fiery infusion.

For Goatsnose was very angry with Panurge, for he could not send back to the depths, anything more than what he had received. Whereby it resulted in real anger between the two, both of the signs being the first two decanates of the earth triplicity.

Pantagruel, when acquainted with the difficulty, replied to Panurge, "All truths agree, and are consonant with one another.

PAST DELUSIONS

AT last Friar John girded the sword and began the quest of higher reasoning. This to Panurge was delightful as he mounted the heights, but when it came to the polarity depths, owing to the lacking of Spirit preparation, he met the depths of his past delusions. Now Merope, as the Scapegoat, has been the means of lifting man up, by the Word being prepared in its digested knowledge, now coming forth as full nut-pointed Wisdom. No longer the God on a cross, paying penitence of vicarious atonement. (See text on page 6, col. 4).

THE CAVE OF VENUS

WHEN Panurge arrived at the cave of Venus, he found out, to his dismay, what he had truly married. For as she burst forth she was savage with Fire, and sought to beat the Bull into true reality of the facts of royal focalisation. (See text on page 6, col. 4).

This fellow prophesieth and foretelleth that you will be married, beaten and robbed." But Panurge is adamant and declares, "In the matter of wives and horses, never was any man pre-destined to a better fortune than I."

The script and description on such a tricky subject, has been very cleverly handled by Rabelais; and in realising that he is a monk, moreso. All that he describes is extremely accurate of how the workings of the inner being, move with the fulfilling of wisdom and rebirth.

For this was the Bull telling the Goat in the heights, of how to make marriage with the depths, that greater wisdom could flow forth, that Venus could lead the Bull to the field, that he could plow. While the Goat was remonstrating with the Bull, that he had not brought forth of the rejuvenating Seed from the Scorpio inflow. Without such as this being truly fulfilled, there will be no corn in the bin for the gods.

For even with the Fires coming down in the Breath, it needs the driving of the Bull to gather the Seed from the Serpent, which has linking with the Coceyx, the end of the tail of the Spine, the archives of the soul. If Pantagruel was Rabelais, and I fully believe he was, his dissertation of how his own inner creation fulfilled his will and purpose, was extremely clever.

To those who are not versed in Occultism, all this would appear very odd, but in fact very correct. We are made up of many parts, and even unto the conscious will, often very obstinate and rebellious, being an utter difficulty to control. These are the states that lead us into trouble if we are not careful, therefore the need for divine husbandry.

But in having such revealed, as it is in Rabelais' Works, it opens our eyes to how much we must try to bring all to the unified state of ONENess, as now being advocated in the profound Occult teachings of Universal Philosophy. These Teachings not being of the earth, but Wisdom brought from the Realms of Spirit. So without such Works as Rabelais', we would never see so clearly the necessity for driving, to keep the revolution of change in action.

The creation as portrayed by the Sibyl, was extremely profound, and as a Teacher of Wisdom, I would say one unfortunately very correct. Venus is a very important Planetary influence in the life, and she is either a Virgin or a harlot.

If the latter, will lead us a merry dance until we curb her desires, for often much against our better judgment, she leads the soul into profound trouble. This is what Panurge was now finding, so was saddled with a willy-nilly creation of ruthless weak-willed foolhardy desires.

This is where Occultism is teaching the soul of true husbandry, where by following the teachings as rule and purpose, the soul slowly finds himself under the strict control of a conscious mind, adhering rigidly to rhyme and reason. It is because Rabelais is so accurate with his description of the soul husbandry, that I seek to transform and polarise, to help the beginner who cannot see how this has anything to do with the growth of the mind.

For if the earthy states infuse the etheric body, the soul would find it difficult to cut away from the side of life, that brings the soul into disrepute. This is where it gives us more understanding with the drug addict, drunkard, crime seeker and one ever caught in theft.

Not that we should aid and abet, but realise what a state they have allowed themselves to get into, now often performing against their own desire. For the whole of their inner being has been fed and charged with the misdemeanour, who now carry out this direction against the conscious mind wider comprehension. This is where prisons should become hospitals, to train and lead the soul in the greater husbandry of life.

Reminiscences

The Woman of Samaria versus Prostitution

HAVING WRITTEN SO MANY TIMES ABOUT THE sons born into life to fulfill the wonders of Warriorship, I felt it was about time woman had a chance to restore her equilibrium. Having remained Eve and made no effort to become Venus-Urania, Eve now finds herself just the harlot, and pretty blasé at that. What really gave me the idea of bringing this to the fore, was the Sunday Times magazine of September 12th, which displayed an article of "All about Eve". Having peered into its contents, it left me very sick to think of my own Occult Gazette trying to explain life and urging every soul to accept and take up of its heritage, while this magazine was giving forth of statements and ideas, that were nothing short of an Eastern cattle market. Are not we, as the mothers of the World Race, worth more than this; must we ever remain doomed to the old theory that marriage, drudgery and prostitution are all that is left for woman. RUBBISH! What about her MIND, whereby she keeps equal with her husband and her children? I did it, why not others; the only thing is, we do not become a house cat or a prancing she-bird, but a Venus-Urania dancing her mind in active ideas. At times this may be rather tiring, but it is worth it, for this is true self-respect, and after all, we do hold the Wealth of TIME in the mystery of our Ovarian archives.

We may not approve of Bernadette Devlin's method or principles of her life, but at least she is fighting for a cause, her beliefs. Her 'so-called' people are suffering and want freedom to own their own country, so she takes on leadership in a cause she believes in.

She wanted a baby, something of her own, so she had one; has been to prison for what she believes in, and takes in turn her Parliamentary seat as an M.P., standing up to the men and their criticism, telling Heath what she thinks. Well! she is living life with all the courage of an Orion Warrior, one born out of the struggle of treading the grapes.

She is not the only one, for I speak also with experience, not as a hard-bitten woman, but one who cleared her debt and became a free soul, with equal rights to man and greater. Yet here in this country, which is imposing all this "bloody struggle" upon this little Nation, riddled with decadent religion, we lick the feet of a Japanese murderer, with men still dragging out their lives maimed from his diabolical jungle evils.

Yet we were destined to become the leadership of the World, of which I pleaded with Wilson and he ignored, thereby losing the Prime Minister's seat back to the old world evil, capitalism. This I warned him would take place, while probably a woman could do better, and now his own party has awakened to this fact.

Woman, our moment is here; whatever may be your problem, rise up and take your place in this World of Chaos, being caused by man's past rule. This is where I agree with a similar statement made in the Times magazine, for when my brother told me "I would never do anything in life with an Astro Chart like that", and a son, who understood this wisdom saying, "She cannot do anything without me,"—well, I thought if that is all that life had to offer me, then my belief in a Well Ordered Universe, that had rhyme and reason for all things, was completely sunk, and that left me bereft.

NO! NO! I still believe in my theory, most of all the VOICE that never leaves me and guides me at every turn. One that led me often contrary to my own desires, so I always knew that it was not "just me", but a Fate that I was destined to fulfill.

My biggest cry against woman, is that she is too lazy to exercise her mind, really think for herself and become an asset to her man, and become free of the revolting theory that she must have a sex-life. So strips herself naked and trips in and out of every bed she can find, thus swearing she is a free individual; takes the pill, and if that fails, falls to the low category of abortionism; poor fool!

Does she not know that she, in her internal genealogical archives, is the mighty recorder of all life. That she is Eve, Chavvab, the original creator of being, that is, pre-gender segregation; she born out of the Plane of Darkness called Adam, the secret habitation, where she will step forth as Binah, Understanding, that of Wisdom, that the son of God can reign as the Warrior of Life. Therefore Eve, as Nephthys and Isis, is continually turning up in the spiral of growth, whereby she fans the LIFE back into the Sun-God, as she drives and urges on the sons of life.

through the wonders of the Spirit-born mind. Thus changing the Saturn state of earthy 'I want', into the glorious God-born creation, of I GIVE.

Such articles as in the Times magazine, the daily papers and underground escalator side walls, are the red dragon seeking to destroy this wealth of the Seed, that Earth can remain and become a Robot colony of dying souls. No! the latter is too late, that has all been altered, one Scapegoat and the road was clear; woman has been emancipated by that

DIVINE VIRICULARISATION

BY this alone, we can perceive of the mighty mystical Legends of which the Bible consists. This alone, is one of the greatest, for it gives unto woman the emancipation so necessary to her, to reinstate her Divine heritage. (See text in col. 5).

She who holds the records of All-BEING, and that is a long, long time ago, in fact, Billions of Ages. Yet not always a human being, but a nucleus of the Atom finding its mind growth, which Destiny of the Solar Cycle had sent it forth to find. Perhaps, if we look into the Book of Witness, so despised by the so-called intellectuals, we will behold in its mighty distorted mythological Phantasmagoria, the hidden truth.

In Revelation's 12 we behold a "Woman clothed with the Sun, the moon under her feet and her head crowned with twelve Stars", the glory of the Celestial Gods. But the greatest clue of all, "she being with child, travailing in birth and pained to be delivered." She rich with wealth of the whole of creation, brings forth a MAN child; a positive status of Fatherhood, and "the child was caught up unto God and to his throne."

The viricularisation of Venus-Urania giving birth to the Voice of Divinity, in her up-risen wedded state of Divine Belief. Thus spurring man on to greater and greater investigation of the Unseen, the Glory of Outer World Space, Scapegoat paying the debt, and woman is free.

But in the World's blindness you may say, "free for what?" To start to create and build up of her mind, which Russia is so openly showing up in her sponsoring woman in all degrees and every category of opportunity.

Oh yes! I know that at the time of writing this, we have Punch and Judy Heath-Home running round like crows with salt on their tails, screaming out against the Russian Spies, little knowing that it is not Russian Spies they are hunting, but a Mass Hierarchical Communistos descent into Matter. Where the whole of the Earth is scattered far and wide with the FIRE-born Atoms from the mystical Outer World Space, due to the Autumnal Equinox. Ho! Ho! Ho! Macclesfield, what an eye-opener!*

Editor's note:

It was at the Macclesfield by-election on October 1st, 1971, that the Tory majority was slashed from 10,500 to just over 1,000. Up to that time this had been one of the safest Tory seats in England, showing just how dissatisfied even the Tories are, with Heath's lamentable actions of mis-government!

So once again, while upon the Path, why not Barbara Castle for a Woman Prime Minister? The Jews who understand the value of Mama, have a Woman and so has India for Prime Minister. Both trying to pull out of the throes of old autocratic ideas. With Israel striving to build a World of resource and opportunity for all, and India to pull out of her degradation of religious multiplicity and racial segregation. Well! why not Barbara Castle to pull us out of the sex-sodomy ridden state of this country; at least she will stick to her guns, whatever the position!

The Woman of Samaria

THIS is where I would now like to come back again to my point of the Woman of Samaria and viricularisation, which will prove my point as far as this Mighty Book holds secret thereof. No one has ever truly fathomed this Parable, which in truth is the polarisation of Hermaphroditus and Salmacis.

The latter was the beginning of Time, when the Fiery Atoms of Divine Fire were drawn down by Merope and interpenetrated into Womanhood, from the exalted Endo-thermic status of the soul imploding the soul upwards into greater frequencies. Thus the more we think and believe that we could maintain such, will we control our rise up by Divine assumption.

This is ascension that comes to him who has the courage to think and master; once again where dogma has fogged our reasoning. Therefore, in the Parable of the Woman of Samaria, we shall only see its truth if we 'dump' this dogma and see the intended wisdom from the manifested viricularised Voice of a Prophet, or Husbandman of Wisdom.

The Christ sitting by the Well is the Christos Solar Light, that as Breath has alchemicalised down to the well of the basic status of the soul of Woman, Sitting by the well, the Fount or Ovarian status of Woman, is the Solar Fire striving to stir her present widowhood into rising up, back to her heights, the original Anthropomorphic Egg.

The conversation that is purported to have followed, is the Christos FIRE striving to awaken the Venusian conscious creation of the soul by the Uranian Bolt, into Venus-Urania. Thus she responds and the Christos Fire, which in reality is Divinity in its Intelligencia guise, tells her, if she gives forth of the wealth within her depths, he will viricularise her up to her fifth Chakra, or husband, unto the sixth, her Pituitary. Where He, Divinity, will become her sixth Husband in her Commissure-Pineal, as the Residence of Divine Kingship.

Her first comment to such a request was, could he draw up the Water from the well, for it was very deep. Whereby he advises her that what he was offering her was the Living Water of the Spirit. That automatically opened her eyes, and the bucket came forth, filled to the full with viri virility. She pregnant with old wealth, ready to come forth and be born by polarisation.

Thus He as the Christos Fire now coming forth in the Breath, would implode her by viricularisation up to her heights. But to do this, her conscious mind must perceive and assent. Her present widowhood and her first five husbands, were the first five Chakras mounted, but to get from Jupiter to Uranus, the Pituitary, needed the Christos Fire. For there was no male with Royal stimulus who could, through his mind-risen Neptunian Grace, implode her into such heights of Divine Phantasy.

Thus in being ready and the womb ripe with mind child, the Christos Solar Glory, by Law of Attraction, draws close. Then in a crescendo sweep, she is shot up into the sixth in the arms of Divinity, whereby He resides in the Divine Holy Residence of her Commissure, alight with Solar Glory.

Then the mystical depths of the laryngophony is pierced with the Holy infusion, and Divinity and Venus-Urania became united in Holy Intelligencia wedlock. Thus she spoke with Truths never known before, pregnant with the Heaven-born Child.

This is what Merope, at the beginning of TIME, taught in the Temple of Bubastes as the Phallic Worship, until the Priests of Pibeseth and Aven turned red, and brought the Temple down to the ground in shame and degradation. This is the true comprehension of the Great Pyramid, and that which Roman Catholicism has been striving to accomplish with their

Viricularised gyratic propulsion, is the rise up of the soul through thought creation, born

Nuns, but are a complete failure, for their dogma would kill anything stone dead!

But now in the Aquarian Age, when Relativity has been completed, Uranus will override Saturn. This is the Work of woman, to be infused by the raised-up mind stimulus of man, and bring forth the mighty wealth of her ancient past. This is where woman subconsciously is aware of this truth, the conscious mind is stirring in the depths. Thus at the present, the only way she knows of how to accomplish this act, owing to the empty Water Pot, is to lure man by getting as naked as she possibly dare, in her daily struggle with life.

The male has become empty of true viri, plenty of sex-waters, but no fiery viri, the infusive action of drawing up the waters from the well. This means the union of Fire from Scorpio to Taurus is missed; yes! fire of a lunar nature, which often only produces Elemental states and not true Spirit children, but no Seed of Hormone Fire. Thus LOVE, exaltation, aspiration and Holy infusion of Divine Holy Intent. Hence Venus remains the harlot.

Thus marriage goes awry; yes; she gives physical birth, but only to an Ishmael, the black prince, a child destined to become just a rag-taggle-bob-tail of the world, never rising up to purpose of genius and aspiration. For even though Tamah fought Judah and held his bracelets in ransom, she only brought forth of twins Pharez and Zarah, the twin status of Gemini, and not the concluded intuitive state of Virgo the Virgin. (Gen. 38).

This is where Merope has now joined up the issue, for under Universal Philosophy, all are blended into one, and woman emancipated up into her heights, with her etheric filled with Christos LIGHT. Her difficulty now is her conscious mind, which still holds to old Cancer depths, instead of germinating her Praesepe Seeds into Polarised wisdom.

Prostitution is not the answer, it will only result in the loss of the womb, the surgeon's delight. This means the wealth in the womb is over-loaded and rotting, yet now there is no reason why herbs, specially culled for the purpose under spirit direction, cannot heal the worst of these cases, and the womb be saved.

I have rescued many under these circumstances, where they have taken the herbs, resorted to healing and set to work to try and absorb the wisdom. To save the womb is more important than the prostate of man, and that is important enough. Now woman can be focalised and stimulated by Divinity, if she will only embrace the Intelligencia in His Glorified

Role of Divinity, Sun in Scorpio.

This is where the dogma of religion fogs and destroys true Occult Wisdom, the LAWS of rebirth. For here is where we see the mighty wealth of the Great Pyramid, where the internal shaft goes up from the well to the Queen's and King's Chambers. Then in the sarcophagus, the Illuminati peers up into the heavens and takes his final initiation, he is born.

Woman now is equal to man, and she holds the Glory of Truth, the Light of Wisdom, while the Cave of Machpelah still lives and holds the wealth of Sarah. For what was promised unto Abram was also promised unto Sarah; then let us seek, O! Daughters of Babylon, for did not Saul clothe you in Gold and Purple raiment and ornaments of Gold.

For without this red fire of grime and struggle, your Worlds of ice and snow would never have become your Seed wealth of blood and Fire. Now by polarisation, can become the mighty wonders of Atomic Neptunian Glory. Wealth swooping as a swallow, flying up high into cumulus clouds of glorified magnificence, catching up the mysterious Diapasonic Wonders out of the inter-rolling Rhythmic infusion.

Then with the birth, the Dove descending to nest in the golden Pitch-blended cradle of the Commissure, seeking for the rising of the smoke up the chimney of aspiration. Then the viricularised Kundalini Fire, as the risen-up exalted Divinity, crescendos up the driving spinal spearhead, becoming the Powerful manifestation of the Uraeus Glory.

Thus the whole World now is of the Abstract Mind Plane, which means woman as well as man must raise up the Glory of Neptune. This represents the super-state of the mind, where wondrous Beliefs are given birth, that the soul must seek to live and emulate. With regard to the World itself, there are no set rules, only those created by man at the beginning of Time, and very binding at that.

They now have become the Roots, which Merope has polarised in the Wisdom given in this Gazette. By this being assimilated by our upper Fellowship, the celestial gods in our own heights, the roots have been buried in, lifting the soul up onto that Plane of Divine Mind Belief.

Thus the soul is now ready to create and start building a Royal Mind Body, that will begin to wind up the Thread of the past and un-wind the Thread of the Future. This is because man has now left the Lunar World behind and entered onto the Solar.

Therefore, not mindless Robots, but women with royal expansive minds, with man as the Warrior, finding the material for her to expand and weave creations of LIGHT. To fully comprehend this, the acceptance of life after death is essential, then soul finds the reason for creating a Mind Body.

This is further explained in the fact of an Atom, of which man is, a created compressed Atomic being of all that has been. But in each World of existence, as one born out of the other, there has been a molecularisation, bringing all to a condensed state of that Atom.

The FIRE in this creation is that Atom's soul life intensity, the creation that will go forward into Divine Consciousness. But to gain this immortal status of Continuity, a Mind carrier of Divine Status had to be created, then this soul was entirely complete.

But woman has never yet created of such a Royal existence, she has always been subservient to man. Now she must create this independence and become his equal, both in vibration and frequency. The status of Woman was the negative state of the god creation in its fall, man was the creation who rose as the Fire from the Higher Powers descended.

Woman never rose, and became the underling to man; now she has to try and get possession of that same status of Manhood, but she will never do it by walking around parading in body exhibitionism. She is only exciting the male to demand of more sex excitement, which will make her more and more his slave. Neither should be slave to one another, but co-partners in mind intercourse, that he by creation gives her the power to weave and build greater garments of Mind Light, which will uplift one and all.

A time will come, and not too far ahead, when the separate genders will be eliminated in the growth, and one status of soul brought into being. Already the Prototype has started and both man and woman are complete within themselves, their task being to become of a status of ONE-NESS.

This was intimated in Genesis, when it warns of husband and wife to cling together; this was not referring to the mundane status of sex, but the blending of the heights and depths of the soul in Dyophysite Oneness. The soul coming back to its god state once again, but this is where the Great Mystery of Continuity is more fully explained.

The original source is within man himself, therefore all phenomena manifests within man himself or through his agency. Hence the Source is now within the soul itself, in the Word, by polarisation, bringing the source up to the Source. Therefore, this is where the Word transpires the whole of the Atomic heart-beat of the Source, and the Dyophysite becomes. Where the Word in its Virgin state brings rebirth to the soul; for then the heart Desires and the Word forms the phenomena creation of its substantiability.

For up to the present the conscious mind is solely created of earth phenomena, where form and materiality only conceives its vision. Then as the Commissure becomes the replica of its Mighty Parent, the Central Sun, it will slowly, as the living agency, give manifestation to its internal Glory.

The soul in its Pre-Human status, came from the Nebula and was born into a starry issue. This is the EGO state of the soul, and resides in the Egg or Head formation as the Commissure. The Atom being no larger than a speck of Atomic Glory, and often seen in the Seance Room as darting specks of starry pin-points. In this plate (see cols. 3 and 4) which is quite medical, it looks like an Eye, but it is the EGO status in phenomenal creation.

This is the Pinnacle Point of the soul, where everything gained of soul life, ascends to. All the Fiery wealth gained from the Central Sun Solar-Galactical Breath, becomes as true LIGHT in the ganglion of the Thalami, the two final stems from the Spinal cord that feed the eyes with the Power of changing sight perception.

Once this ganglion becomes light born, it feeds the rest of the ganglions of the soul crea-

DIVINITY BORN

SHE, as the risen up Soul growth, is now Divinity born, yet the wedded Bride to the Christos Glory. For her revolving Infinity will become the risen up Solar Glory, the Spermating Glory of the Divine Intelligencia. (See text on page 10, col. 2).

Astrological Delineations

ASTROLOGY is the 'language of the Heavens' and is the only true means whereby man can have explained to him the reason for 'existence'; his purpose. Mundane astrology cannot help man to extricate himself from the chaos of earth life. By merely giving to him of his fortune, leaves him with the understanding that he is a victim of circumstances. Your astrological chart is intended to be used as a guiding wheel in your journey through life, indicating to you the reason for your present difficulties; how you yourself have been responsible for them, and the particular lesson you have come back to learn whereby you can tread the path which you chose before you reincarnated.

Astrology, truly the Royal Science,—the "Royal Road" to freedom through "Man know Thyself",—when interpreted correctly in the TRUE Esoteric method, demonstrates the spiritual, mental, emotional and earthly qualities of man. This correct method gives the full data for him to see the many complexes and contradictions in himself, of positive and negative make-up. Through the House to House interpretation the initiate is given that unique and individual guidance that is truly Seership. True Esoteric Astrology inspires man and shows him the way to find his heart purpose, with every sentence as an individual inspiration to 'go on' and achieve what the soul is subconsciously desiring.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook spends much time in preparing each individual chart, which entails penetrating into the vibrations of your present life and also going back into the conditions of your past. Then, by linking with the present day wisdom of Universal Philosophy, she unfolds the possibilities, the potentials that lie within the chart, that they can be blossomed into the Atomic fullness of Spiritual Mind Growth. To the soul who is earnestly seeking, such a delineation would be invaluable and should be regarded as a basic necessity if the soul wishes to realise the fulfilment of its own Royal and Sacred Path of Cosmic Destiny.

IMPORTANT. Please note that all delineations will be by Tape Recording only on 5 1/2" reels track one or 4" reels track 1 and 2 at 3 1/2 in/sec.

Reminiscences

tion with light, and an internal infinity is set into motion, giving the soul perpetual life. This includes the ganglion in the mastoid bone of the ear, where the Voice is collected from the sensitivity of the Sphenoidal Fossa, descending down the auditory tube.

The greater the sensitivity, the more exalted the Voice out of the Hydrogen Fire of Outer World Space. This is where sensitivity counts, for according to the frequency will the soul either merely receive the Echo, or by its supreme frequency, be equal to the Diapasonic Rhythm from those Outer Spheres, and Divinity speaks forth from the Divine Viricularisation.

It is soul being self-fed from the Breath and becoming immortal that it can become death-less. This does not mean from a physical body standpoint, but a soul creation that can go forth onto the Higher Planes, back home to its original Creation. But which in its turn, will have taken of the changes, where the whole Universe will have become a status of LIGHT.

So to meet this, every Starry soul creation was an ordained potential Sun, which now, through the ganglion rebirth of the soul, can be brought fully into creation. For all the Stars in the heavens are the Light-created Brain Cells of man, which he created as the Anthropomorphic Egg.

The main Star in each Constellation, being the major Galactical Root in the soul's etheric creation. While the twelve limbs of the soul, are the reaction out of the Twelve Gods, that up to the present have merely resided with the soul, only as Zodiacal gods. Now they have been risen up into their true Celestial status, sending down to the earth an Hierarchical Inauguration. But every man is a living example of the Constellations, hence the Hierarchs are descending to save their Atoms, the wealth absconded by man in his blind self-importance.

When soul fell as a god, he dragged everything down in his own mind creation, and never made any attempt to re-instate it; this has been the Scapegoat's Work. Being created by a woman, fully emancipates all women, and puts her on the equal with man. This may not be very acceptable to religion, especially Roman Catholicism, for woman is looked upon by them as second in category, through the original sin of the Daughters of men beguiling the Sons of God. Therefore, forces woman to pass through the ceremony of being cleansed after child-birth.

In truth of Motherhood, I abhor this, and quite understand from this standpoint, why woman has taken on this blasé status of so-called freedom. But this is not the answer, the only answer really being in mind equality, or a greater creative faculty. And also we must remember, that until woman can reach this status, she will ever have to create from her womb in the form of offspring. When she has fulfilled this, there will not be any more; this is where she must recognise that her moment of greater rebirth has come.

This is her form of penitence for the past; we may not like this, but it still is a genealogical tree growth. Hence the answer is, by one having completed this fulfillment, then creating the next by mind belief and vicarious atonement, it has been fulfilled and the Seed creation brought up to its Mind Plane unfoldment.

By woman becoming wedded back to Divinity by mind ascension, she now can take on the right of becoming Divinity born. This has a far greater depth than it seems to portray, for now, by gyration she can become born of the Uraeus, or Uranian Fire equal to man. It was never meant in the first place for sex fire, but the Divine Holy Fire of Mind anointment.

(See plate on page 9)

If woman returns to this status of Mind growth, not a nun state but a creative capacity, she will, through her revolving Fire Infinity, gyrate up into Sensitised Frequency. This will give her the Power to equal within her Commissure the Central Sun, or as it is Occultly stated, born of a Holy internal Monstrance, the Body of the Christos, the Solar Light Glory.

Thus her task is the same as man, to master Saturn by drawing the nucleus out of the Nebula, for Saturn, as the once royal Shamash, was the Nebula in the first place, so that her Starry Point in the centre of her Egg, becomes the germinated Light of her Atom. Then her Brilliance will grow, and she too will be able to ascend up to the Plane of Divine Consciousness, the Glory of the Central Sun.

By this elevation, she will, by exaltation wrought from aspiration, viricularise the depths of the FIRE up into that Commissure, where the Divine King can become in residence. By this sensitivity having risen in viri virility, it will pierce the laryngophony into Divine Holy manifestation, that the Voice of Divinity can become manifest in the etheric and physical of this organic structure of Voice auscultation.

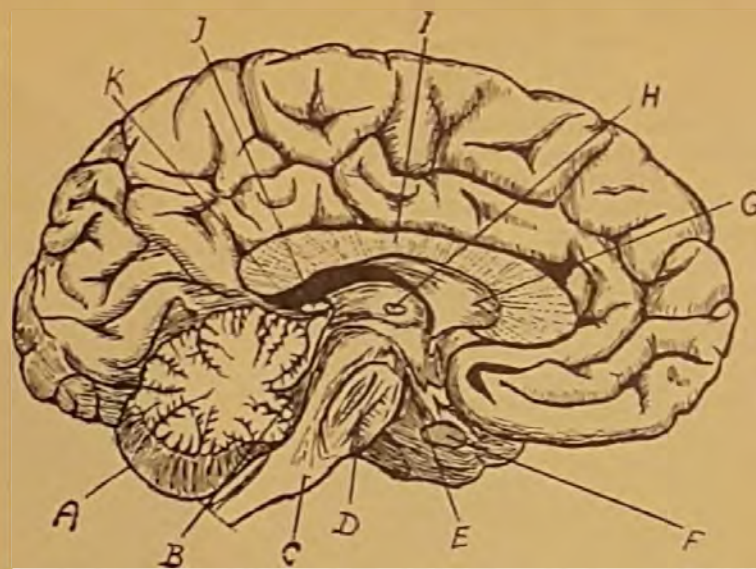

This is where the soul begins to live within the etheric counterpart of the soul, but also where Divine Genius is brought into birth. But furthermore, where the Mystery of the Pleiadic Dance crescendo rises up and opens the doors of Paradise to let in the Flooding Stream of Divine Holy Light, to water the Planes of parched starved Earth.

This would be the soul who could bring to the Earth some form of Ultra Royal Genius, whereby they bring into being of a mighty Stream of Heavenly Hierarchical LIGHT, equal to what Merope brought forth at the Autumnal Equinox. Where the whole of the Earth was showered with Hierarchical LIGHT, and of which Ted Heath turned into a spy scare, as he was caught up by a clever 'con man' who sought to cover himself.

One who willingly and very cleverly, put over a hundred others into false jeopardy, but even if it was true, what a low-down coward to sell his own country so cheaply. But it WAS NOT TRUE!

Woman, surely it will help many, for I have seen many a sad little wallflower joggling through life in a hopeless way. With this wisdom and the union with the internal higher soul creation, no woman need be lonely. My whole life has been sacrifice, and in the beginning it was lonely, but then I was still in the throes of illusion.

But as Reality became born, and I became linked with the Chromospheric Ray of the Intelligencia, I became aware of that Higher Voice, and prayed for the day when it could become my Voice of fully established Truth. I have not been disappointed, but what is more, a Prototype for every other woman to take on, if she could bring her conscious mind of the lower Ego to see and accept, and rise up and be blended into the higher.

This may or may not convince those who are not versed in Occultism for the present, or perhaps up against a sceptical and supercilious opposition. Well! those who will not believe, why not try and prove me wrong, perhaps you may find that it was very correct, or even something greater than I have already proved unto you. For many a woman is a ripe bud waiting to burst open into Genius, especially now that the Fires are coming down in abundance, and saturating every soul with their heavenly Glory.

But the first thing to remember is, to gain we must lose; so sacrifice of the old status, even though readjustment may be a little painful, for on our journey via illusion, we have taken unto ourselves many states of futility. Conditions of different lives that the Fires have not been able to reach, and which could only be given of their mortuary meal, by partaken wisdom. But only wisdom of an Altruistic nature will do, for to give the mortuary meal, the state must be polarised, and the deeper it goes, the higher the polarisation.

whatever it may be, it will be to the soul's good, not evil.

But I will say, only the courageous will respond and turn over gracefully; others, well! we must wait and see. It is 1973 that will declare the "recounting of the Nations", and soul who has reached this weighing of the scales, will know the answer, and be very sure of it.

The real cause of the problems of today, is soul being afraid to seek into the mysteries, which are the roots of his expansion. Therefore goes on seeking into the Arts of all degrees, which have severely outlived their day and need expansion by fresh AIR. Consequently turning into the Permissive Society, where their only idea of expansion is appearing naked, to outdo the Arts and find so-called freedom.

When truly raised up into the Glory of Neptune, magnitude of wonders as never known before, become the order of the day. Where also the full comprehension of celibacy is revealed, of how the Neptunian Waters either rise up as Aquiline Glory, to expand and intensify the mind with fresh Air from the Breath of Outer World Space, or take on in their lack of expansion, that of introvert states of excess in free licence, drug addicts or homosexuals.

The answer is, to drive all up into a gyratic spin, instead of multiplicity in earthy magnetic states. Thereby Uranus arriving with his Flaming Torch, instead of Cupid merely winging the bow into multiple permissive states. For all this only comes about through the excess of enceinte etheric wealth, and not the intended outrageous evil that those in the captivity of religious illusion are apt to think.

These souls are unconsciously striving for Reality, not so-called freedom, but are still hampered by FEAR of losing their desire states, which are their real captivity. By driving their investigation into fields of greater expansion, they will find what they are seeking.

Thereby through relativity, expanding their internal Heritage into Real Abstract Neptunian Thought. Expanding their ancient Atomic Pile into Solar-Atomic Brilliance, that of Plutonian Pitch-blended Power of thought perception.

Next month I will strive to unfold the more comprehensive perception of 'Illusion versus Reality', and how the major article on page one, that of the Voice of the Great Master, is to awaken the sleeping EGO. Bringing all Egos to the awareness of their Divine counterpart, as unto Zamiar and Merope.

HERBAL EXPANSIVE HUSBANDRY

Part 1

PLANTAIN

(Plantago Major)

by David Spearman-Cook

THE ARTICLES THAT ARE NOW FORTHCOMING, are being given purely to assist one to see the depths of the healing qualities of man and herbs alike, which will therefore help him to become his own physician and healer. Much has been written around herbs such as the one selected for this month's new article, that of Plantain. For it is a herb of universal character, and is therefore commonly known and appreciated by countless millions of souls, who have used it in some way or another down through the Ages; whether it was used by a young child at play, or an adult seeking desperately after its healing qualities for relief in some form or another. Having surmounted the higher frequency of our first series of herbal articles, we can now venture into the field of polarisation, and encounter the new unfolding healing creative expanding reality. By such can we add new ways and means of polarising, in an agreeable healing embalming Solar manner. Thus we can produce a medium of polarised healing, upon a basic theory of Belief, and Solar guided infused wisdom.

Therefore, to seek into this herb, which is one of very profound depths, we must first understand that Plantain is one of a special group of twelve in number, which will be used in the future, to add their range of collected wealth into the organising ability of this newly formed twelve. Therefore as a group of twelve selected creations, can a grand basic be produced, whereby to control all the sick states which will be encountered during the unfolding of the forthcoming Vega future. For as the soul changes so will all the states of ingrown illness be revealed, if the soul fails to embrace through the Fired Word, and bury them in as risen light of the mind.

Hence we can gather much material from the now increased strength of Plantain, through the changing powers of relativity. Whereby we can prepare a basic state of motivating vibrations for Plantain's ability, and unifying creative propensity, as a healing antidote to the adverse vibronic ratios of Saturnian influences.

Foremost we should realise that this month's herb has, as a creation, profound depths of constant revealing powers, which it has developed down through the many Ages, and utilised as a vibration capable and persistable in its ability, to offer up a vast amount of power of an anti-asthmatic nature. Whereby a full ability, in regard to the profound depths of Plantain's vibronic ratio, can be utilised to its full radius of vibronic infusion.

For this has given unto Plantain the power and capacity of attacking the very basic nervous system around the nasal orifice. Thus creating an ever open channel of dissolvent power unto the mucus creation that ever abounds around this so important sensitised area.

Therefore when Plantain is incorporated with the additional strength of an equal amount of Marigold,—Marigold being another of the basic twelve,—can these two herbs then, as it were, create a bridge of strength. Thereby they can assist the sensitivity of this particular extremely delicate organ of the human anatomy, during the downpouring of the Holy Fires.

Here is where it is well worth noting, that the reason for safeguarding this very important nostril organ, is that the very viri, as extreme sensitivity of the nose, plus its very fine sensitised hairs, have a polarity with the very depths of the bowel, where the full sensitivity of the soul dropped; thus it is these depths which are now being retrieved through the activity of the unfolding Solar Theocratic Powers. Thus will enable the mind to manifest, through the unfolding of this New Fired Mind Plane of Vega virility.

Plantain was in the past a finely sensitised herb of an extra focalising ability, which has through the movement of Time, eventually brought all of its might to a pinnacle point of healing infusion, in as mighty a creation of steadfastness, that one could ever expect to discover within the field of herbal husbandry.

Plantain is also fairly well known in its capacity as to being a herb of exceptional importance in respect to the sensitivity around the soles of the feet. For here is where much, unknown to man, takes place every living minute of the night or day.

Thus, owing to the foot Chakra being the polarity of all the Commissure wealth, much around the presence of the feet is now going to be measured in the unfolding of the Solar complement, whereby the foot Chakra will for the very first time now become fully opened. Thus the whole range of sensitivity is going to pass through the soul's own cosmic infused Powers, by the Breath conveyance of the Holy Fire.

Thus, fortunately for man, Plantain is of the vibronic sensitised herb depths, which will now help to portray the wonders of the soul's wealth with an added amount of creative strength. Power which would be literally staggering to many if they could but see into the living balanced harmonious focalisation, within the Relativity changes now in precisional operation.

The exact amount of Power that is capable of being captured and utilised, from the vibrational strength of Marigold and Plantain when combined together, would be of sufficient percentage to capture and secure a healing creative depth which would assist the sensitised flesh upon the soles of the feet, and protect them from the heat which will be applied unto that vicinity, during the treading-in operation of the soul's internal wealth into the Earth.

It will be Plantain that will now give forth the necessary power, upon being mixed with equal quantities of Marigold, and Mint of a garden quality, which will radiate strength to compare with the radiance of the Commissure, when it is fully alight within the soul. Thus this grand phenomena, when consciously brought into birth as the world of Vega, can be assisted through the ability of these three herbs, to maintain a powerful influence of supporting durability. Thereby can they be of assistance to the soul in the first virgin moments of this Divine occurrence, until in time the soul will eventually become fully balanced into the dynamic wonder of a full Divine Solar birth.

The embracing of the herbal wisdom as a living mind motivation, will automatically infuse one with the depths of its vibrational powers, in what could be accepted as an etheric counterpart, to the herb's form status of growth as the living plant. Whereby a complete healing ability is possible when the soul's belief fires the wisdom gleaned, into protective positive ability, through a human mind consciousness of reality.

When apple juice is incorporated with Plantain in equal proportions, a full sensitising possibility can open up unto diligent seeking souls, whereby the range of its penetrative depths, can force the old states of unmoved ganglion stagnancy, and cleanse the unpurified built-up fibrous tissues of the very finest of the ganglion viri nerves, to polarise with the viri in the bowels. Thereby a purifying of the main stream of regenerative source will obviously take place, and a new burst or causation will come forth, as the soul through the Occult Fiery Words and the infusion of apple juice and Plantain, commences to vibrationally awaken depths previously buried, and unknown unto the soul.

Here we have a very remarkable possibility when the soul has acclimatised to the ganglion changes, of being capable of at least being able to hear the inner voice. For all the ganglions hold the acoustics of the voice as vibrational frequencies, which were lost unto the soul through the movement and densifying of Time.

The main reason why Plantain is so foremost in its ability in this direction, is because it is capable of giving the full range of the Fire taken by man, throughout the Ages, as wealth stored in this very depths, an excellent basic cleansing stimulus. That is, when it is used with Buchu and Garden Mint. For the power contained within these three herbs can assist in cleansing the bowels with exceptional results. Thereby the full range of the ectoplasmic substance within the soul's full make-up, can be assisted to change, as the New Holy Fire pours forth its Divine overshadowing Glory.

This is where we can enter into the most important of all the changes of the soul, the transmitting and the changing of nervous orders, and tissues of the soul's present unfolded position. Where each individual must start from their own personal point of being, which varies between all souls, even unto husband and wife.

Thereby all must now search into the Occult, to polarise their own internal depths with the Power of the Holy Celestial Word of Universal Philosophy. Thus can herbs be fully appreciated, as the triune of man,—the God born Fired Word, man, and herbal utilisation,—become the basic for the changing of the earthy states.

As we diligently seek through these new articles, we will discover the unfolding ability which will enable the herbal wisdom to penetrate the past conscious depths, that are so well hidden within the soul. Then when, as earlier stated, the soul should hear the voice, he will be personally directed unto what and when to take of certain herbs, which would be of benefit to him as he struggles with the changes earlier mentioned.

Here is a story of herbal vibrations, which may give an understanding as to how a herb builds up its capacity of healing. Plantain, because of its abundance, was distributed to the poor on Maundy Monday, which we all know was a ceremony of washing the feet of the poor by the royalty in the very early periods of the kings.

Thus as a vibration of giving, was it accepted by many souls and immediately kept through strong superstitions, as something which offered them protection. For if a king was powerful enough, and held his position in those times, he was indeed a very strong character.

Consequently the people drew off him, which accounted for many of them, through not turning to the Higher Powers, being drained of all their strength. Also why many kings had so many wives, for it was their magnetic which they drew off to maintain their driving power. Thus Plantain can withstand much, and is now ready to assist the kingship of the soul, therefore instances such as these are vibrations of power now to be polarised.

Owing to the shortage of space and the importance of herbal husbandry, it would be best if all could purchase some of the best of herbal books that are available, and by reading of their context can a form of vibrational weaving be introduced within the soul's mind body frequency. Whereby the god consciousness of the soul can stimulate itself upon that of the author's infused power.

Thus one will find that changes can then take place rather quicker than usual, in regard to certain herbal remedies building up within one's conscious awareness, which upon being perceived, should in all faith be acted upon, thereby an amicable harmony can be built up by the soul. Thus a guide from within can manifest through the effort and acceptance put into operation through a joint harmonious effort.

Plantain will be found to contain a substance of a very fluidifying ability within the make-up of their seeds, thus it will be remarkable as to what can be accomplished when Plantain seeds are taken during any form of sickness to do with fevers. For they will assist the vibrational powers of the soul which have become frozen, as it were, through the fever, into an unlocking action. Whereby the osmotic activity can then be assisted to carry the Fire through the physical body.

These seeds will also be of advantage to very constipated conditions, when they are added to Buchu, whereby the combined action of the two can bring quick results, plus a remarkable change unto a soul's vibrational frequency. Therefore to keep a certain amount of these commonly known lambs' tails as the stems have been called in the past, would be of untold assistance as a medicine for many sicknesses and household requirements, in a moment of crisis.

Believing in the full depths of herbal husbandry, we can now venture to add some of the present healing abilities of this herb for general practice. But one must realise that these Cosmic changes are apparent, and are taking place with each breath consumed. Therefore are now active vibrations, and as such calls for this polarising power to be utilised by one and all as a power of beneficial healing on the new Mind Plane of Neptunian expanding Realities.

Plantain belongs to the natural order Plantaginaceae, which contains two hundred species, twenty five or thirty of which have been reported as in domestic use. It has been called many names, those of interest being Waybread, Snakeweed, Englishman's Foot, Cuckoo Bread, and White man's Foot.

It is refrigerant, diuretic, deobstruant and somewhat astringent. It has been used in the inflammation of the skin, malignant ulcers, intermittent fever and externally as a stimulative application to sores. When applied to a bleeding surface, the leaves are of some value in arresting haemorrhage, but are said to be useless in internal haemorrhage, although they were formerly used for bleeding of the lungs and stomach, consumption, and dysentery.

The fresh leaves are applied whole or bruised in the form of a poultice, rubbed on parts of the body stung by insects, nettles etc.; also as an application to burns and scalds, the leaves will afford relief and will stay the bleeding of minor wounds.

Plantain is still kept in the Highland medical books, but has been omitted from the English ones. In the Highlands Plantain is still called Slan-lus, or plant healing, from a firm belief in its healing virtues, and it has also been said that it will cure the madness of dogs. In the United States of America Dr. Robinson, a noted herbal practitioner, tells us that an Indian received a great reward for his discovery that the Plantain was the chief remedy for curing the rattlesnake bite.

Plantain seemed to follow the migrations of our colonists to every part of the World, and in both America and New Zealand it has been called by the aborigines the Englishman's Foot, or the White man's Foot, for wherever the English have taken possession of the soil the Plantain springs up. Longfellow refers to this in Hiawatha.

A decoction of Plantain was considered good in disorders of the kidneys, and the root, powdered, in complaints of the bowel. The expressed juice was recommended for spitting of blood and piles. Plantain juice mixed with lemon juice was judged an excellent diuretic, and the powdered dried leaves taken in drink, were thought to destroy worms.

To prepare a plain infusion, still recommended in herbal medicine for diarrhoea and piles, pour one pint of boiling water on one ounce of the herb, stand it in a warm place for twenty minutes, afterwards strain and let cool, then take a wineglassful to half a teacupful three or four times a day. The small mucilaginous seeds have been employed as a substitute for linseed, and for 'thrush' they are recommended as most useful, one ounce of seeds to be boiled in one and a half pints of water down to a pint, where the liquid is then made into a syrup with sugar and honey and given to the child in tablespoonful doses, three or four times daily.

In 1710 it was used, when brought to a clarified state through distillation, to clear rheum upon the throat, glands, lungs etc., doses three to eight spoonful. It is said to be good against epilepsy, dropsy and jaundice, and opens obstructions of the liver, spleen and reins. It is also used in the cooling of inflamed eyes and takes away the pin and web.

When it is dropped into the ears, it eases their pains and restores the hearing, the dosage of the foresaid complaints is three to six good spoonful a day, which should be taken alone or in a little apple juice morning and evening. The powdered root when mixed with equal parts of powder of Pellitory of Spain and put into

There has never been at any time much comment regarding the Horae: this can be readily understood, for how can one remark about that which has never been given birth, but to discuss its possibility. Yet in reality, they commanded the whole of time, first as being president of the seasons, including day and year, and then divided into hours that the minutes could sum up their values.

Order and regularity being the prevailing attributes that the transition is made easy from the natural to the moral world. It has tried of argument in all ways, and even that such could reverse as moral to physical ideas; but that is impossible. Anything that comes by natural analogy must remain so; man can only mar it.

By the order of the day, the Horae were the essence of all that had been, but as dross, had gone down to the underworld, the realm of Tartarus, there to await Hecate. Thus the full and foremost order of what could be has never been promulgated. Who is going to try? It certainly would have to be a Hero of no mean measure, one with untold courage, apart from a purpose as large as the universe (and never letting go).

The Legend of Rumpel-stilt-skin

A time will come when this will be the problem of the age, when man will not be seeking for the desire of the third dimension,—the lunar grounding,—but the Desires of the fourth in investigating the depths, knowing that they can only reside in the capturing of the Horae, and they becoming spun into the solar garment.

This would be why they were called the gold-filleted by the Poets; with the Orphic hymns declaring of their flower-filled and odour-filled beauty, though their true moral capacity is in their being the bestowers of wealth. Thus the two most important of the Horae were Thallo the bloom-giver and Carpo the fructifier. Yet they were inclined to confound them with the Graces, though they are the actual bestowers according to your rights, while the Horae are the producers.

All the fairy stories and legends have been written around these myths. For instance, there cannot be anything more direct than the legend of the gold-spinner, the beautiful daughter of the miller who sought of the king that he would give his daughter audience that he could see how well she could spin straw into gold. Upon hearing this the king demanded her presence.

Upon arriving she had a spinning wheel placed before her and was given an enormous amount of straw to spin into gold. But he was not satisfied with just having this put into operation; he went so far as declaring if she did not finish all before sunrise she would die. Then he locked the door himself and left her alone.

The poor maiden looked for some time at the straw in utter despair, for she had never been taught to spin in her life, and least of all how to turn straw into gold. Completely at a loss she began to weep bitterly. Suddenly the door opened and a little man entered, declaring, "Good evening, young daughter of the miller. Why do you weep so sadly?" "Oh!" she replied, "I have all this straw to spin into gold, and I know not how to do it."

(See plate in cols. 3 & 4)

After being given her neck ribbon, the little man seated himself at the spinning wheel, and after a few turns the straw was turned to gold. But the king was never satisfied and demanded more and more. Next it was the ring off her finger, and after being taken as wife by the king, the mannikin appeared again, and this time demanded her first child. After some delay she agreed, and the little man spun the straw into gold.

The wedding of the miller's daughter was one of outstanding festivity, with the result she became queen. After a year her first child was born, and the mannikin came to demand her promise. With tears and terror she offered everything from her kingdom if he would only not take the child.

The only way this could be avoided was by her finding out his name: this she struggled with and offered him Casper, Melchior and Balzar, but not one of them would fit. Then she tried Brown-ribs, Dicky-calf and Spindle-leg, but none of these would fit either. So on the third day a messenger was sent to seek into the whereabouts of this little man, but the foxes couldn't tell him and the hares wished him good-night.

After a while they came to a little house with a fire burning, and there hopping around was a ridiculous looking little man who cried:

To-day I brew, tomorrow I bake,

Next morning I shall the queen's child take:

How glad I am that she does not know

My name, which is (Saturn) Rumpel-stilt-skin."

(Yes! He had been helping her, but he was going to steal).

The messenger hurried home to the queen who rewarded him handsomely. When the little man arrived for the child the queen revealed the name and immediately the little man flew into a rage and screamed that the fairies must have betrayed him. He was so angry that he struck the earth fiercely with his right foot and it sank deeply into the ground, dragging his body after it. Then in his fury he laid hold of his left foot with both hands and tore himself completely in halves.

Once again we meet the old story of expansion, the miller and his daughter being the lower duality of male and female principles as Cepheus and Cassiopeia now in the house of Cancer, as father and daughter seeking to please the king in the upper palace. But there must be expansion, otherwise the miller will get no flour to grind and bake his bread; and, what is further and more detrimental, the female would bring forth of no generation; so how could the lineage continue? After all, she is the spirit as Persephone, granted in the underworld, with the miller as Pluto who was holding her captive.

The spinning of the straw into gold is the flax to be turned into parchment, that the word could go forth and bring forth the solar interblending in the lunar creation, with the flame of the king to give Virgo, the queen of the upper duality, a child. Without this the whole creation is bare, and that is disastrous.

How can there be a replacing of the old king that new possibilities,—the rational mind,—can come forth. This must go, that expansion and evolution are fulfilled, and life-form transmuted into life eternal; non-form spirit. Persephone the spirit raised up out of the underworld, and Pluto, the Christos, retrieved in the solar child ever going to the heights as Mercury the irrational mind in his going back and forth.

The mannikin is activity and expansion in the form of will and purpose; the stability of Taurus, for Cassiopeia as Andromeda, rescued from the dragon as she was chained to the rock, in her first contribution gave of her neck ribbon. The Venus frivolity sacrificed for the strength Saturn required to labour for her and solve her problems.

Next was the ring from her finger, the unity of mind in Gemini, the logical mind; then finally, the child that is born in the sixth in Virgo the intuitive creation. But by then the king had married her and given her a child in the fourth, Cancer, and was greedily watching the gold pile up until divine descent given a literal sense by man himself. Consequently are states of unformed power becoming formed and created into states of richness, which are derived from the efforts of unity.

Furthermore, when it is said that these three were born from Zeus and Hera, it was of this parenthood when Hera was a Eurynome, good pasture ground, good law and custom. Consequently these goddesses gave of great festive joy and enhanced the beauty of life by their intense refinement derived from the evolving state of Mother Earth.

Their real work is being in attendance on all the other divinities and rendering service wherever necessary. Thus they not only elevated man, but by so doing, elevated the gods;

the Eucharist, or Shekinah descending. (If you can dance with these very words, it will descend into your being).

It is often portrayed in the form of a bird, an angel or kiss of the Holy Ghost; that which is captured and demonstrated in the ritual of the Monstrance on the altar of the Catholic church. That which David beheld on the roof of his house as the beautiful form of Bathsheba naked and unadorned (and that which descends into the Cup on our Altar, and which my Instrument sees and recognises, and by reverencing what she sees and keeping it holy, it becomes her holy fire). But by allowing the daemons to enter at the same time, he embraced her and then found her with child that was sickly, which eventually died; (that is, if your mind is dancing two ways).

This can be seen in the song of Demodocus, he of the burning fire; for when Aphrodite danced with him they washed and anointed her, but she was filled with shame and flew to Paphos. This was her temple retreat and she sought there to escape the boiling foam and blustering wind of Demodocus's risen desires as he embraced the expansion (passion and ego).

Therefore being in a world of form, man can only speak in terms of form, so the Horae can only be described as being graceful and beautiful, and furthermore the bestowers of grace and beauty both on persons and things. They even wove the robe of Aphrodite, which is the Foam on the waters, and gave to the two female attendants of Nausicaa their beauty because they had persisted in cleansing the garments of her father the king, that he could entertain and assist Ulysses when he, as a sine-god, was ship-wrecked.

These Charities are often referred to as the three fair-checked Graces who, as they gazed, distilled care-dispelling love from beneath their lovely brows, and even gave the ringlets to the beautiful Euphorbos who became well filled and productive. And when they performed their dances, Aphrodite joined them, indicating that she added unto their gaiety. Then, as in the song of Demodocus the burning fire, they washed and anointed her, for they had particular love for the goddess, as she, as the queen of heaven, had authority over them.

But this can be more fully understood when you realise that Aphrodite is Venus, and as the second Chakra and mode of sense, is ever seeking to rise up out of the waters; therefore can only assert its rights when it has tipped the tide through the aid of the Horae and descending holy Fires. (So when your Venus can be raised up out of its depths, and she can dance, will you receive the Horae, and the Graces).

When fully equipped with all her regalia, Aphrodite promised Pasithea or Euphrosyne, she of joy, the youngest of the Graces, as a wife to Somnus. This was in return for his aid in deceiving Zeus; a pleasure that so often befalls these when they have bestowed their wealth. Man becoming drunken by the rich wine they offer him: (it merely turns into ego; the bawling of the barndoor cock, the screech-owl).

But only those who have been kissed by their descending beauty can understand the full meaning of Exodus c. 16 v. 13, 31. "And they called it Manna, and it was like unto the coriander seed; white, the taste like wafers made with honey." While in verses 33-5 "Moses told Aaron to take a pot and put an omer full of manna and

VENUS SEEKING LIGHT

NO longer does this have to ensue, for all now has been set into action. For Merope, in taking upon herself the task of Scapegoat, prepares the way, leaving only the weaving by the Word of Truth; the treading-in by example and belief. (See text in col. 1).

he lost his throne to the sun-god that came forth and took over the king-ship.

The master of Rumpel-stilt-skin was Zeus as Bacchus in Sagittarius becoming the archer and scoring a Bull's-eye in Aldebaran changing the Taurian action into the risen eagle; the unity of Taurus and Scornio, until finally the solar creation as the fire of Antares in Scorpio is the light of the heights in the unity brought forth in the starry creation of the whole, as Saturn redeemed into the heights; and the MAN, as the Son in the eleventh, as Leo to Aquarius, brought forth in the manifestation of the Father.

The Charities

HAVING made some attempt to try and give you a picture of the Horae in the mystical formulae of manifestation, let us make investigation into the hidden depths of the psychological mystery of the unseen elements that are the means of bringing all to a state of conclusion. The greatest resemblance to the Horae are the Charities or Graces.

These are the daughters of Zeus and Hera, wisdom and earth; but when such a statement is made it must literally be seen that such are not living goddesses in the sense of the world of form, but states of and through the arts of man, revealed the wonders of the gods.

Other names they are known under are Euphrosyne as festivity or joy; Aglaia of Charis, the wife of Hephaestus the divine artist, or splendour (the wife of Fire); and Thalia, abundance, in which all was mostly portrayed in the rich beauty found in the poetry of the sages. Their nearest and dearest associates being the Muses, the arts, with whom they lived in divine oblivion in Olympus (up in the mind).

Once these can be understood in their true values, then they make themselves seen; thus the soul can make every effort to become united with them and draw from them of their presence, so that when the Horae are gathered in, and they as manna are about to fall, they are received and not lost. (The dancing mind, receiving of the 'Spit').

At Orchomenos in the early time when they planted the first vine of growth, they worshipped these bounties in the form of rude stones, believing that these had fallen from heaven in the time of Eteocles (the meteorites), when the seed was of genuine old stock; gods turned into solid stone through the change of ages. So it can be seen, that to understand the values of these would be like recognising what is known as lay it before the Lord to be kept for generations; and the children of Israel did eat manna forty years. An omer being a tenth part of an ephah.

This was as the Dew and the Word that they were seeking, but had to be gathered by every man according to his eating. If it was left it bred worms and stank, and when the sun waxed hot it melted. Thus those that were wise gathered it and baked a cake for the sabbath; but those who did not gather, went out on the sabbath believing some to be there, and found none; and Moses was rebuked for letting them go.

Moses tried to control his "tribes", but they were indeed unruly; some fed fully, some half-heartedly gathered, others were too busy with mundane tasks, and many grumbled. So Moses was still in the same predicament that many find themselves today. Very few have the courage to put into operation that of whole-hearted subjection and sacrifice. By this, one can comprehend the affinity of the Charities with the Horae, and how, when Apollo plays on the lyre, they begin their dancing.

If you can perceive the Horae of spring accompanying Persephone out of her ascent from the underworld into light, with the Charities and Fates in attendance, you will gather somewhat of a picture of the spirit slowly rising out of the tomb of matter; while the soul would, long before, have made sacrifices to the Furies and made its way out into light.

Pausanias, one who allayed sorrow, declared that if further evidence was required to justify that the Horae were the "odd hours" of the year, it could be found in the enumeration of the gods whom they accompanied. These being Hera and the Horae; Aphrodite and Eros; Hermes and Dionysus and the Muses, all of whom are in one way and another, divinities of the six hours and concerned with the exact measurements of the year.

The clue to the difference is in their names, so you get Hera and the Horae, Earth and Spirit; Aphrodite and Eros, Desire and Love; Hermes, mind as searcher and interpreter; Dionysus, god of wine; Muses as the arts, the daughters of Zeus. And you have the whole thread of continuity for revealing unknown factors. Those planes of contest never yet contested with.

As the Horae and the Charities are complementary to one another, the latter cannot be of mind-form until the former are established, for it is obvious that they are of different calendar establishment, thus resulting in having its New Year's day at the autumn equinox as the root and night of entry with birth and sowing, then the growth in the spring with the ripening and reaping in the summer.

HERBAL EXPANSIVE HUSBANDRY

the hollow of a tooth is said to ease the pain thereof considerably.

Looking back into the depths of the wisdom gleaned from the past knowledge, the point of Plantain springing up wherever the Englishman has placed his footsteps abroad is amazing, and is a blueprint unto the Truths spoken of at the present moment. For as the Nation was chosen to be the prototype of Merope's work, it is fantastic that the negative earthy side of building a New World was symbolically created through the appearance of this common herb, as the early pioneers searched for a new land in the past.

But alas, they should have become Orion Warriors of the

The Sirens

WHILE we are seeking into these mysterious numbers that take form, let us make enquiry into the Sirens, for they play an enormous part in every soul's life, being the enchanters of the waters. Showing how much these are of the illusory which have become as a reality, will be seen in the root derivation.

The word Siren is from Seira, a chain and thread, which signifies their attractive power; yet secretly can be the disease of horses, the driving power of the passions. Semitic origin, that holds better responsibility for the birth of their creations, has the word Shir meaning song.

This is the correct root, or, as that told by the Phoenician mariners of the many they had seen (because it was from Phoenicia that Solomon received of the works to help him build his temple). But as history portrays, the Phoenicians brought all their wonders into Egypt from Phoenicia, the land of purple waters. The first plane of emotional beauty to come forth; and from their origin you will find that even the Elysian Plains have stemmed.

The poets in their singing of the Sirens, declare that their mead, their wine, was so voluptuous, that it was blooming with flowers and their exotic smell drugged the senses, while their voices, rich with exuberance, stilled the winds, the power of the mind.

(See plate on this page)

Odysseus who was weak-willed, was one who had become querulous, ever complaining against his fate; therefore had been sent forth on a long voyage of experience to overcome of the dissatisfied nature that was feared to change.

Leaving the Aeaeon isle on his homeward journey, he and his companions came to the isle of the Sirens. (Now remember, this was going to build up the relativity). This was the birthplace of the Medea, who, as the feminine principle, became a celebrated musician, one finding rhythm, who came forth to lead the conqueror to final victory at a most necessary time, for usually the last struggle is the death throes of many things.

(So on the first coupling of relativity he finds Medea, the powers of the ancient depths that would help him to perceive through psychic perception. Now he has to go on; he has to change these states as he goes along, or discard them; and the majority of you are afraid to let go, not realising that on the next step you are going to have something greater).

These enticers consisted of two maidens who sat in the mead close to the sea, or emotional waters, and with their melodious voices charmed all who were sailing by. If the soul succumbed, they forgot home and everything relating to it; consequently would abide in this land of the waters until their bones lay whitening on the sand.

By the direction given by Circe the temptress, who had now decided to help Odysseus, he stopped his ears and those of his companions with wax, which was mythologically the labourings of the bee, or real hard work which raised his emotions and hearing to the heights, (and which, of course, made Circe change her attitude). But the struggle was the three mothers in their lower aspect preparing the marital bed, that Virgo the daughter, the third of the generative principle, could take on an evolving state as a reforming outlook of the motherhood.

So Odysseus, to conquer the difficulties, tied himself to the mast of purpose, and was the only person who heard the song of the Sirens and escaped.

raise man up to the heights. But if only viewed in the mythological conception as the feminine form above the waist, and the lower as a bird, or a form covered with feathers, (a Ghandava, a singing cock), then the word would have taken on a generating state under the Circe influence. The seductive state of desires in all forms of the lower triad. (And this is most important. You either take this wisdom with humility, and with purpose, or this statement becomes yours. You possess an aviary).

This was a distorted form they had received from Ceres who was punishing them for not assisting her daughter when she sought for help, and became carried away by Pluto. Although they had regretted what they had done, they could not lose their form until one could pass them by without suffering. A hero who could re-establish their purpose.

Thus they continued to

THE SIRENS

HERE we behold the lower desires, that have to be mastered, to bring the glory of strength into being, as the growth of ascension. The great mystery of Odysseus, as he struggles against the desires of the Aeaeon Sea, after he had accomplished the feat of mastering Polyphemus. (See text in col. 2).

This was really due to Orpheus coming forth and helping the soul to find rhythm that caused the enchanters to fling themselves into the sea and change into the rock. For the first two represented the logical unity of the mind that cannot lose the cancerian desires, the depth of the fluidic waters, that they can bring into birth the fiery atoms of the solar light buried within the soul.

Some fable these as being the daughters of the river god Achelous who, as the waters of Neptune, was still untamed and unconquered. These daughters were, by the Muse Terpsichore, the producers of music, and they represented the three generating states that are ever changing and producing; thus were regarded by some as musical beings with entrancing voices.

(So to begin with, they may be those states of the passions that lead you astray, but if you are determined with your purpose, you will drive on and get past). And although their song was of the earth, that which they produced was from the eight celestial spheres; (but you will never become that if you haven't any purpose, or you allow your purpose to go; or if you allow egoism to override and you become a strutting cock).

Thus their voices were but the echo of the music descending from those spheres, that which could, in its elevation, charm all travellers who were passing that way with their melody, until Ulysses, who had been informed by Circe of the power of their voices, prepared both himself and his companions by stopping their ears with wax. So he tied himself to the mast of the ship they were in, and even though he made efforts to stop, his companions rowed, and they got safely through. Thereupon the Sirens threw themselves into the sea, and perished as the oracle prophesied. Mastery over the senses.

Having escaped the Sirens and steered past the wandering rocks (the senses), Ulysses had been warned of how he would come upon the terrific Scylla and Charybdis. These were as two lofty towers enveloped in clouds, and since no man with twenty hands and as many feet could ascend, it is obvious they were as the polarity of mind ascent from Cancer to Sagittarius, (the two castles in the heights). For it was known that there was a cave facing the west which penetrated so high that not even shooting with a bow could reach its extent. (So by him going from east to west, it would cause these heights to become possible).

So far it has been ordained that no vessel ever passed Scylla without losing several men, but whatever the circumstance, the thing was to get past her. In appearance she was as a bitch dog whose voice sounded like that of a young whelp. When it is stated that she had twelve feet, six long necks and a terrifying head, and three rows of fang teeth, it can be seen how she represented the complete negative of the zodiacal root, which must be completely transformed by the herculean feats of the heroes. (These only came forth because they were stealing of the wealth).

But it was known that by her ever-extending necks she could catch all the porpoises and sea dogs, or even larger animals that swam by. (So you could not change your animals at all; you were kept penned down in the depths. Invariably this belongs to the 1st house signs: either they make it, or they go down into the depths because they have the whole full complement of the twelve).

The opposite rock, which belongs to Charybdis, was far more dangerous than the rock of Scylla the bitch. The goddess had advised Ulysses that this rock was much lower than man believed, and he could shoot over it, yet its heights were profound; and in reality was referring to the extent of time between Bacchus as the centaur becoming Sagittarius the archer, and striving to pierce the eye of the Bull.

(Very few have lost their Bacchus state, and the majority walk with the hind legs of a horse). But whatever were the difficulties, it could be surpassed by the aid of a wild fig tree that grew from it with its branches stretching down to the water: this "three times each day absorbed and regorged the dark water".

Ulysses, in sailing past, lost six of his crew; then he lost the ship and his companions, but on a part of the wreck he was carried by wind and wave between the monsters. Then suddenly the mast by which he supported himself was sucked in by Charybdis, but he held on to the fig tree until he was thrown out again, and resumed his voyage. (The hero holding on, whatever it cost him; but those who were rowing the boat were failing to play their part). This indicates that he lost the old ways of approach and assumed the new; he crossed the bar in polarity.

Only those who attempt to reach the heights of wisdom can know the full meaning of this myth, yet it applies to all men who try to pass from the house of delights into the house of wisdom, for the casting of the hind legs is something only known to the initiator himself. When attempted to be described by another, would be abortive in the eyes and ears of those who had never given such a thought, or knew that such existed.

So it is really a fable founded on the wondrous tales brought back by sailors regarding the distant regions of the Mediterranean; the waters of the middle of the earth, or the entry of the soul as the mind into the depths of the spirit through the solar plexus whirl-pool. By this one can understand why the Egyptians placed the viscera so reverently into the canopic jar and placed them in the funeral chamber. But of this expedition we will continue in our next lesson.

I know that many of you tonight have received some wisdom and it has become unto you as food for thought. Go away and keep it turning, keep it dancing, so that it is going to become a spinning thought,—not merely just knowledge that is going to turn cold and bring giants into birth,—but thoughts that can give you some great depth to help you begin to move onto another height.

ASTROLOGICAL COLUMN

WITH SUCH VITAL CHANGES TAKING PLACE in the World, it would be a good moment to try and comprehend a little around the EGO of the Atom, which is being reformed under and by these changes. In fact, it is the Atom in its driving changes, that is bringing reformation to the cosmos. But then, we must not forget of how the Cosmic LAW has been reformed, by the Scapegoat's Mastery over matter, bringing expansion and growth to the Great Grand MAN, the Mighty Mystery of Outer World Space. To those who are striving to understand this, I feel sure that the Reminiscences this month will help considerably. The changes are set into motion by reformed Wisdom going up to the heights by Merope's declaration being accepted, and sent down again in the Breath. As she treads this into the Earth, it becomes established, yet in reality it is ever the rebirth of what was established at the beginning of TIME, now brought to a blossomed status, with ever greater Polarisation driving all up onto a greater Plane of rebirth. This is Evolution, with more elevated and profound comprehension being born out of illusion. For man has ever received of the Cosmic Law in the way that he has wanted to; now, by one perceiving the greater Wisdom and putting it into operation, it raises up the Sine of the World and lets in greater Light and Fresh Air.

So to understand more fully of how this is affecting the Atom, let us comprehend of how the Atom first descended down from the Nebula. Yet all is ever the new coming out of the old, so it would have been the once Royal Status of Shamash, now seeking to bring the Glorified World of the Solar Cycle. So Atoms from the previous growth went forth, extending out into wider experience to create a comprehensive deductory creation.

As they went deeper and deeper into the density of the Nebula infusion, created by previous unfolding, they expanded by a god-like belief, taking on a forming ethereal creation, now known as the Anthropomorphic Egg. Internally creating by the vibration of unfolding necessity, an internal structure that could eventually be a formed Vase for Divinity, the Eternally manifested Godhead FACE, to manifest through.

As they reached the Periphery, the last of the Elements that had been forming them into Phenomenal Creation, that of the Martian Fire, was sent forth. That which was to bring them into a perceptory mind comprehension, that they could start to deduct and gyrate up onto expanded Planes of Mind creative belief.

This set into motion sensory frequentisation, which gave them elevated status of desire expanding the grasping power to know. And in perceiving and knowing became lost in this new World of growing tangibility, losing the trend of their mission. Something which ever takes place, as soul incarnating with a set intent, forgets as soon as it wears the garment of Earth creation.

In the building of this World, these Atoms, now clothed in forming Matter, had created Planes in their descent, which now appear to us as Starry Elements twinkling in the Sky of Space. But in Reality inborn Ether status, which now have been given Light, equal to the Brain Cells within man himself, for man and the Cosmos are a replica of one another.

What man has created as the Atom, was created out of the brain formation of the growing soul. Therefore the first formation of the Cosmos was prepared, but the Atom, filled with his growing sense of importance, began to form desires of its own.

To alleviate this, a Goddess from Venus was called into action, to try and set the gods into an upward trend of ascension. Therefore she called into action from the intensity of the Ethers, the Royal Status of the Holy FIRE, the Nucleus of the Nebula.

This in being received by the Atom, flared their desires into deeper exhilarated possessive belief, creating the World of Atlantis. Thus the EYE that had been looking upwards closed down, leaving them blind for the time being. Then they grew the two Eyes to focus on forming matter, still believing themselves to be gods, with the Powers of self-creation.

By this, everything was dragged down into matter, by falling another Seven Fathoms deep, with the Anthropomorphic Egg taking on the status of matter. This brought all the Planes and Elements into the density of mere earthy formation, in their clouded brain creation. Dragging Shamash down from his regal heights, into the density of a Saturn creation whose task would have to be to scythe away the false illusion, and open their growing minds to the truth of Reality.

All this brought the Plane of Earth into creation, out of the forming Abyss; then in the desires growing deeper and deeper, Tartarus came forth, with creatures of grotesque formation coming forth out of the ethereal Egg formation.

This resulted in Pluto, the Great God of Fiery Infusion, becoming the Lord of the Underworld, the desire creation of man. With the Elements ever trying to retrieve their lost creation, sending more and more Fire into the depths. Chaos became the result, with all the down-pouring Fire turning into fluidity, bringing the Deluge of Mu, turning the growing Earth formation into a Plane of Water.

For the time all was lost, with the Continent of Mu going down under the Waters, followed by an ever continuing Stream of Water Element. This is where the Period of Billions of Years adds unto all previous creation, with all formed density going down under the Waters, and the Spirit Seed that left the heights, hovering in the Etheric creation of the formed Density.

But since all had been fused by the FIRE of Holy Anointment, Evolution could not remain stagnant, so brought Life forth in its lowest Cancer formation, up onto the Plane of Matter. The Spirit in the Etheric was stirring the Life in the depths into active movement. This taking place through the Law of Survival, through the internal Nucleus of the Nebula feeding the Fire in the depths.

After further Ages of Ice and Snow, man came forth in an animal formation, but ever as a forming Atom, an internal Spark of the Spirit, trying to bring back the god onto the trend of its internal purpose. This was the beginning of the EGO, the Cyclops Eye blind to truth, forming a status of personality Ego.

So here we have the EGO as the slow-forming perceptivity in the animal creation of desire  $\odot$ , with a personality as a mind perception, but only of self-survival. But at the same time with Saturn as the over-lord, the FACE that fell to the depths, in control of the animal-human, ever seeking for "I want".

Neptune became Lord of the Waters, while Uranus became the thunder-bolt of storm and strife, the lightning bolt of Death. While the human-animal now held as his growing personality the Seven Elements as the Seven deadly Sins, ever leading him into the morass of growth by desire, war and turbulence.

All this now is the growth of the soul, which Merope, in being that Goddess of the past, knew and followed through, to hold the THREAD of Continuity intact. As soon as Relativity was reached, she by knowledge, Hierarchical Support and Hermeneutic Infusion, raised the lost MIND GOD up into Solar blending, and began the unification of all the lower status of creation.

This she did by molecularisation of the WORD, elevated and imploded by the now Hydrogen Descent of the in-flowing Breath, brought into true REALITY by her outstanding BELIEF. Thus she broke up the INERTIA of the World, turning Nineveh right over, into the Glory of Vega. Lifting Pluto and Neptune up from the depths, by her own enforced celibacy, thus honouring the Holy FIRE that she had drawn down from the Pleiadic Depths, in trying to teach the gods to rise, and bring their Mind Plane into birth.

Then she brought Uranus back to his own, by wearing his Mighty Fiery Atomic Glory, she herself becoming his Fiery WORD, as she sent it forth into the Maelstrom depths. With her Waveband sending it back and forth, through the Etheric Counterpart of the Earth.

Then the moment came, and Divinity in HIS Royal Holy Status of FIRE, descended down, and as her almighty Kundalini FIRE, crescendo'd up her Spinal Glory, to begin the manifestation of GOD walking amongst men. For with every action, new Breath was brought down, filling soul with Royal Atomic Life, until now Divinity is living in his Etheric counterpart, as royal etheric enciente LIGHT.

All it needs, is for soul with all its richness of Heritage, to awaken, and know that he is now a royal Vase waiting to become filled with WINE, the Glory of Holy Wisdom. Turning to the Royal Belief, embracing it with both hands, and getting himself fully established on the Abstract Plane of LIGHT. Thus a god once again, with all the faculties of an Infinitised Central Sun creation, waiting to spin him up into elevated gyratic ascension.

Now this explains the Solar rise with the soul, and its elements in their degree of assumption. The Solar creation being its EGO, now as its transforming Starry Commissure Eye, becoming its unfolding central sun ganglion. That which now feeds the whole of its Atomic creation, with revolving infinitised LIGHT. For every soul now is fed by this Holy FIRE, awaiting its acceptance to transform it into the Glory of a god once again. Now let us turn to our Astro Diagnosis, both psychological and pathological.

Mr. R. P., Northampton.

I will begin first of all with a delineation of the chart, then turn to your questions afterwards. But let us not forget the wisdom in the foremost of this dissertation, for we now are looking into the personality Ego, that is still holding tenaciously to illusion. So will try to point out of how this can be overcome, by turning to faith and belief.

This is where seeking to understand the deeper wisdom, helps the Gods up in our higher Fellowship to lead the soul into greater and more royal acceptance. Turning the lunar gravity into Solar gravitation, with the soul being stirred and setting its Etheric to blend with the Gods, and the physical Ego responding by its rising elevated hopeful belief.

The two most outstanding indications in the chart, are your Path of Destiny in the fourth house in Libra, and the 3rd decanate of Cancer upon your ascendant. These definitely instruct you in the information that you have come back in this incarnation to make a special drive towards rebirth. The fourth house and all its Planetary inhabitants are ready for a new beginning, whereby all your Planets up in the heights, by aspiration and belief, should start to put all into operation in real earnest.

This is further augured by your Sun being in Pisces in the 9th, the house of expanded wisdom, while with Jupiter in

Health from Herbs

HERBALISM is the oldest healing art in the world. Its history can be traced back through the civilisations of Rome, Greece, Assyria and Babylon, and even beyond. Herbs are foods as well as medicines, and build up the general health at the same time as they cure any specific disease. Unlike drugs, which are inert, they are made from organic material instead of inorganic substances, and form an active or living medicine.

Here at the School we have a large quantity of loose herbs in stock, which normally will readily provide for all our requirements. However, we have listed below some of our more popular herbal pills, specially prepared for those who find them more convenient to take in this form, during the hustle and bustle of their daily occupation.

Anti-Obesity Pills.

Blood Cleansing Pills.

Bronchial Pills.

Buchu Pills. (Bladder, sinus).

Catarrh & Sinus Pills.

the 10th, the amount of wisdom stored up in your quiver is fantastic. Now the Hierarchs are demanding their Atoms back as light, and are driving you into action.

Your Path of Destiny in Libra is your completely renouncing old ideas and stepping onto the Path of true Occult Wisdom; with Cancer in its 3rd decanate declaring that you must now go forth onto the Waters, and raise up all your wealth right from the depths. From a standpoint of your triplicities, you are well set up, for you have 3 Fire and 3 Air, while your 3 Water can quite easily be transformed into exhilarated fluidity, out of its emotional desire.

Especially as you have Neptune in your 1st house, a most valuable asset, for its hidden wisdom of past knowledge, gathered over Ages of lives, could give you a royal uplift, it being in the sign of Leo. Although being in the 1st decanate of Hydra the serpent, you could, by transforming your emotional desires, raise it up as your Kundalini Fire, especially as you have Mars conjunct, but in the 2nd house.

Now your next important helpful Planetary position is your Jupiter in Aries up in the 10th, with Venus in Taurus in the same house. These are most propitious, and should have stood you in good stead, both in business and financial exploitations. This is verified by the aspects to both of the Planets, except their aspects to your Dragon Nodes.

You have taken knowledge and allowed your Fire to only dance in fluidity, and not rise up in viricularisation, owing to your Pisces living in its negative status of inertia. This is where I feel that old religious conditions have played a very big part in your life in the past. In fact, with your Moon in Gemini in the 11th, you hovered between occultism and religion, which is very typical of Pisces.

Now out of this, you have incurred your difficulties, for first of all you have Mercury and Uranus in Aquarius, down in the 8th, the pit. With secondly Pluto and Saturn in the 12th in Cancer, ever bringing chaos to your health conditions. Apart from disturbing your emotional states, which could be very trying at times.

For Aquarius links with the Atomic, the blended-up creation of rebirth, thus the sparking Fire that you require to drive your Pisces into active ascension, is severely harnessed, bringing difficulty to your Eyes.

The burning feeling that you experience in them, is the Fire of non-blended unification, merely rising up as Fire and not as LIGHT. Thus your Gods in the heights are suffering and it could in time produce greater chaos, if not corrected.

The constipation also links with your 8th house Mercury, for this Planet rules the lungs, the mode of Breath expansion and the bowels, where the final assimilation is performed. For everything, Breath, Food and Knowledge, all go down to the base, where the Fiery wisdom is extracted by the internal Villi.

This part of the anatomy is ruled by Virgo and Libra, where the wealth extracted is either transformed into united wisdom in the form of electrolysis or Spiritus Air, or remains in its harlot state of a dual conception. With it becoming blended, it automatically extracts out of the Coceyx, the rock archives of the past, past root wisdom of the same frequency, blends them together and they make their way up to the heights of the Spine; that, if expanded enough, will be turned into Light as it makes its way up through the cervical, to the Commissure.

This is where you are hampered; not enough elevated Fire through the lack of will to drive it. For your Mars in the 2nd in Leo is not of the true heart quality, to raise up to the frequency to meet your Sun in Pisces.

You are far more evolved from past growth than you realise; in fact I predict that you were once a Royal personage in Egypt, way back in the transpiring Golden Age. This is shown by your Dragon's Head in the 7th, with its tail in the 1st; where you have not made any form of expansion from that mighty wealth of the past, thus holding your Neptune in captivity.

This now has resulted in the condition of your eyes and the constipation of your bowels, for your Nodes are badly squared to most of your Planets. But a first house Planet, which is a revolving quoit, will ever bring protection and strength, until it is completely emptied out through the lack of replenishment.

First of all, stop sitting on the fence and dithering, ever seeking through false reasoning. Come out of any form of inertia and drive yourself, never stopping, never, never, never! You will not find it easy, but it is a case of MUST; to ease the constipation take some of our special SUPH herbs, which we have specially blended for this trouble.

Then drive your Fires in a game of "tennis", back and forth, until you are able to get an elevated one-pointed result. Study the first article of the Gazette, until you get some rhyme and reasoning; at the same time take some blood cleansing herbs or pills and plenty of fresh cold water.

Your moon in its progression is passing through its birth sign, and is just about to pass from the 11th into the 12th, when you will not find things quite so easy. So now get prepared at once, turning to the Heavenly Resources, calling upon the Great Solar Master for help.

Now I have tried to help you as much as I can, as was so requested. But would advise you to make as much effort as you can, for in March of 1972 your moon squares your Saturn and trines your Path of Destiny. Do make sure that you are not wanting!

Mrs. B. K., Milwaukee, U.S.A.

Again we have another specially requested chart, so I will do all I can to help you. Once more we have reached a time where the moon has reached its first round of its complete cycle, and the soul is ready to meet full judgement. Here again we have the Path of Destiny in the 4th house in Leo, accompanied with Saturn and Neptune.

With Taurus upon the 1st house in its 3rd decanate, it augurs strongly of the soul driving its Fires, to activate its Sun in Scorpio. For through its lack of action in the past, the Fires have become slowed down to a degree of calcification. Hence the soul has come back to try and get the Bull active and release the Jupiter in their 1st house, free from its retrograde state.

Strongly I sense a Nun condition from the past, as seen by the Pisces intercepted in the 11th; and since Jupiter is the ruler of Pisces, I see most clearly, a Nun in strict seclusion, much against her will. Hence Uranus up in the 10th in Aquarius is now conjunct to the moon, which in itself is a tragedy; for Uranus is Fire and the moon is water, and the latter is dampening the tinder box.

Consequently the Dragon's Head and Tail are in the 8th to the 2nd in the polarity of Capricorn, therefore everything is sought for through knowledge, convention and religious beliefs, no form of expansion at all. Resulting in the Sun and Mercury both being in the 7th, the house of reborn Law. But the soul in question refuses to make any change, hence Scorpio is bringing the tiresome condition of Psoriasis. This, if it gets bad, can be most distracting and has much linking with the moon being conjunct to Uranus.

The whole chart clearly savours of restriction, even unto the Planet Mars being in the 5th in the sign of Virgo. This is the sign of the nun who had her fires subdued, as seen in the aspects of Mars square to Jupiter and Mercury.

I feel a great deal at loss in trying to urge you on to action, for as I get into your vibrations, I feel the feeling of resentment to change. And yet you have seven angular Planets, which could give you such strength to drive, if only you would set yourself onto the right Path of action. But you have your set ideas, with your moon ever leading you into desires of a lunar gravity, when you are really Over-shadowed by the Royal sign of Scorpio.

In Occult Wisdom, this is the Core of the Central Sun, the Mighty Internal vicinity of Divinity. That is where I refer you to my Reminiscences, for you are the type who is ready to make this grade, if only you could come away from old ideas and beliefs.

Taurus, your Ascendant, the sign that will teach you of rebirth, is in the decanate of Auriga the shepherd. This is the soul gathering up of its resources and driving them into a state of Oneness; often referred to as the soul gathering up of the sheep, that they can be transformed into the Ram with the fattened tail.

This would be the male positive state of Solar Fatherhood, and not the feminine negative status of Woman. See this in the light of positive and negative linking with your Sun and moon. But moon in Aquarius is always a difficult position to change, for there is a tendency to worry self almost to a state of chaos. This is what is partly causing your state of Psoriasis, for this is a lack of Solar Fire.

You see, you have risen your EGO up by religious studies in the past, whether you were a willing part or not, but have made no aspects to any sign, meaning that you never activated the Fiery Ascension through wisdom. Creed and dogma to the extent of boosting, but not true depths; you must forgive me for being straightforward, but after all, you have asked for help.

Your Jupiter in your first house could have helped you quite a lot, but a retrograde Jupiter is always difficult and very restrictive. The fact that you have come back to drive Saturn in the 4th is enough, for restriction does not always belong to oneself. Home conditions at times could be trying, whether it is your fault or not; but then, that is the challenge; either you become positive or let these states ride over you.

But I do feel that your polarity sign with Uranus and moon conjunct, makes you very nervy and disturbed; for any woman I have come into contact with, who had Uranus up in the 10th non-active, always found life very difficult. For wealth they once had gathered was, through their internal gods, ever in a state of agitation.

Now the same applies to you as applied to the last chart, your moon by progression has come back to its full cycle of rebirth. And in October, November, Xmas and February, makes aspects to a number of Planets in the base of the chart. Actually it is a time when you could well be poised for change, but turning to the Solar gravity, that is Wisdom, away from the old desires of the lunar.

I would suggest a rigid change in diet, taking as much green salad and fruit as possible. Above all, bathing the affected parts of your body with Marigold Flower fluid, for this is a Solar Herb. I once cured my own foot over-night from a very similar complaint, you could do the same thing, so take my advice and try it, as well as drinking the herb.

But change of outlook, belief and Solar drive, are the major points for you to give consideration unto. Avoid multiplicity, stick to the point at all costs, then the healers can help you and rest your jaded nerves.

The Saga of Time

HORAE

by
Ra-Men-Ra

Mythology Part 24

Delivered at the S.U.P.H. on 2nd December, 1962

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you and I seek to bring the wisdom you are seeking. I seek to show you the way to open the door of the magic cave, for each one of you has stored within your heights the wisdom I am bringing; but while you allow the 'thief' to ever enter in and hold that wealth, then you will always remain as one in the hands of Saturn. Until you are able to let go and cause that thief to hand over the wealth, you will never find the answer you are seeking. Tonight we are going to seek into the HORAE, the foam on the Waters; but that foam can never be yours while you allow those things of the lesser to claim your attention; but of this I hope to bring to you in such abundance that at some time or another you will see the rhyme and reason of what I bring, and it will help you to overcome those conditions that are holding you a slave to the lower desires.

Each one of you is an initiate, and each one of you is an Israelite seeking to become free from Pharaoh, but you can never be free while you take with you the Pharaoh's wealth that has not been re-born or re-cleansed; it will ever tarnish the operations you put into birth. So you must try to understand the very intrinsic depth of this wealth so that you, too, can do the mysterious turns that this wealth does, as it portrays to your mind its mystery. So tonight give me your attention and your love, for you must realise that an Instrument that is being used to display of such wisdom has reached such sensitivity that she is very conscious of all you are doing and all you are feeling. Even though she is not in her body, she is conscious of these states,—and very conscious,—and so becomes more sensitive to that which is retarding the wealth going forth as a flowing River.

So now give me your love, and make every effort to try and respond; and even if I only give you the clue, hold the clue to that which I bring; and do remember, I only bring more or less one clue with each lesson. I bring knowledge in abundance so that it will help your mind to get some exercise, and at the same time knowledge that will help you when you come to the very myth that I am rendering, so that you will be able to understand its mystery and its depths. By you seeking to exercise the mind, at some time or other the Truth will dawn upon you, for it will release the hidden wealth in that secret cave. So now give me your attention and all your love, and I will do all I can to give you the Food you are seeking.

The Mystery Plate

(See plate in cols. 4 &amp; 5)

Here you are being shown the nymphs in the waters. What are they, but the bubbles in the foam by your continual striving! As you struggle with your mind, and you make every effort to solve the problems I bring you, will you cause the waters to lash up, and slowly these bubbles as the nymphs will gather in your inner being. But if you fail to struggle, if you refuse to struggle, then you are going to find a time when you are going to remain dead and lifeless, with the lower rock as a rock of seething fire, and the upper rock with the door closed and in the hands of Ali Baba.

The wealth I am bringing you is full of nymphs. Take them, and let them be the means of your mind exercise; but you must go forth to this in seriousness,—not as a thief, merely taking the knowledge out of egoism,—but as one who is truly seeking to give service to the world. Then you will gather up this wisdom, and become as the risen soul standing on the solar light, raised up by the solar power you have gathered unto yourself out of the waters.

Now these waters, in lashing up their foam, can either become poisonous horses or the foam of the Melian nymphs. You determine that by your struggle with life. You either are prepared to sacrifice and raise yourself up, or you merely go down. If you go down, nobody can save you and the brother becomes slain. How are you going to find another brother, the higher mind, if you kill him?

It is going to take incarnations to bring that back into life, and during that time you can gather up much debris. You either struggle, or you let go. This is the work of a serious-minded man, not thieves. Now with those words, let me go on.

Now I have given you the clue. We are looking into the words of how the Horae are being gathered. You will be given quite a lot of knowledge, and you may for the moment find it difficult to dance to, because Saturn is sitting upon the top of the arc; the mind is flat. Force Saturn to let go; cast out all fears, hideous desires, ugly thoughts, hatred, jealousy; cast them all out, and now become sons of God, seeking to become useful to Him in the gathering in of the harvest.

In the past lesson we looked quite deeply into the Fates. Now let us take something that could be a little more pleasant, yet they have their aftermath to be dealt with, and it is that which brings the Fates into action. But the wise and brave man goes forward with all courage, takes what is there to be taken, and tries in every way to bring law and balance to where it has failed in the past.

Now the Horae. Let us seek into these and find the common-sense of their existence to the Moirae, and are the violet-rod which the arrow of Sagitta fulfilled, for by Bacchus transforming into the Archer of no mean renown, he was able to score the Bulls-EYE and bring the Horae into active creation. They were incorporated in, which gave the calendar its correct standing and brings it to measure.

So since the Horae are the wealth accrued from one equinox to another,—and are the sisters to the Moirae which sprang from the blood of Uranus,—the only answer is to try and track down the brook that sprang forth from this great God, and the answer once again lay in finding the Horae.

Literally they are known as blooming maidens who carry out different products of the seasons, but in the concluded state become the "creme" at the "passover" in the six odd hours of unity from past to the future. These hours were not always recognised, not even when the solar year was in progress; in fact, you could ask yourself, "Do you recognise those precious hours when they come forward in your individual lives?"

Perhaps not necessarily at the appointed period of the zodiacal year, but the periods of time gathered in your own repertoire of works. And even then, when such has been gathered, would you know the exact amount, how and when at each period of what you gathered? Although at the recognised spring and autumn, you would be bound to assess.

The Greeks understood this to the full, and placed much into operation under its arrangement, especially their theatres and festival dances, and appointed maidens to impersonate the actual Horae; that is why it is such an enigma to the moderns. The Egyptians had the twelve hours night and day, with a goddess for each, and shown by a star on her head. These were called the "Hours".

Names were fixed to each day and even the months belonged to special gods, as shown on the ceilings of their temples, especially at the Memnonium at Thebes and Edfu. The Egyptian's discovery of the sacred rite allotted to each god has ever been a sacred matter and one held very closely within their own sacrificial services.

(Wise is the man who knows how to value each hour and never allow one moment to pass him, and that which he could do at that moment he does, otherwise the next moment carries a second load. If man dealt with the details of life,—which are each moment,—he would never find the hours building up with karma and difficulty).

Although this did become known to the Greeks, they allotted their own nymphs and goddesses to the Horae. They believed that their natural sanctorium of birth and death was at the year's end, therefore the year's commencement, with the "pass-over" bridging the gap.

When they referred to this as the Chamber of the Horae, it was none other than a statement that the "spring had swarmed" (swarmed by the bees from the heavens); and when it can be seen that the Horae, at whatever time they are gathered, are goddesses of Law and Order administering justice, peace and even vengeance, then the soul can realise a little more clearly that nothing is missed in life, not even those things the soul believes are of no importance.

Dice is closely associated with the Furies, and makes sure that no offences go unpunished. Thus by this, whatever place or clime, the foundation of

NYMPHS OF THE FOAM

THESE become the nymphs of the blood, that drive the issue and help bring the Horae into birth, for they drive the Plasma into action. These are to be found in the creation of the wisdom, the Glory of Time and becoming. (See text in col. 1).

Law and Order is an accurate measurement of time gathered as solar radiance from the rolling tides of the ocean of life, and formed into the rock of the soul's own sacred temple. And when those Sacred Six Hours are gathered as the honey from the hive of activity, or the foam from the neep tide, making it six hours extra to the 365 days, it makes the year perfect and a Totemic standard of truth on the growth of the Pole.

(The soul's own pole with all its chakras cannot help but be whirling and the pole being activated, if you put every detail into operation, for every minute made into an active purpose becomes an hour of wealth).

When first Hera and Athena, as the foam of virgin wisdom gathered, drove out of Olympus (mind) in the chariot of the former goddess, to share in the conflict of life, the gates of re-birth which the Seasons keep, and whose charge is to open and close the dense cloud, creaked as they let them through. On Zeus giving the goddesses the way to return, they entered (by way of expansion), and when the Seasons had unyoked their steeds and laid up their chariots, Poseidon and Apollo (Neptune and the Sun) demanded their dues from Laomedon, the ruler of the people, who was continually failing to honour his vows.

(The individuality, as mind-memory, refusing to work, because he had not been properly fed by the servant below; he had only been given chaff and not bread. So if he was fed every hour by bread well made, then he would have been ready for Poseidon and Apollo and would have been able to give unto them what they were demanding. Instead of that, Saturn steps in and the soul ruled himself dead, for that ruler becomes lost).

Order and regularity are the prevailing attributes necessary for the transition of these from the natural to the moral world (and the soul is then born into a moral being); and the guardian goddesses of the seasons, who are very strict and pert in their timing and recording, are the only producers of law, justice and peace, resulting in order and harmony.

The Seasons themselves are also the daughters of Zeus and Themis, their names being Eunomie (order), Dike (justice), and Eirene (peace), and those who gather in of the fresh selling fruits, the works of mortal men; though Dike, who ever remains the virgin, must be revered and respected, for she is loved by all the gods.

(She is the one that demands justice, and is willing to apply justice; that which the soul must learn to do when he becomes an initiate): when any act against her will, she sits by her father Zeus and complains of the iniquity formed in the soul's mind, and demands that that one shall suffer for the transgression of their kings.

It cannot be helped but seen that these are the natural law and revolutions of the year, especially when acts, as parts of the day, are gathered up and are the source of ripe perfection, the prime and beauty of human life. When these are produced at the right season, or even salted and pickled, they become the festival of honour to both gods and men, and they help the old and worthy, those ripe for death, to become buried and born anew. Thus their last hours are full of joy and not bitterness (they are dancing with life).
