HOLY SPERMED MUTATION as the Gateway of Vega

by The Lord Hierarch of Scorpio

WE ARE NOW SEEKING INTO AN internal subtlety, that will require an extensive depth of acquired Occult Wisdom, that of Holy Spermated Mutation, that makes way for the Royal Light of Vega to manifest. For it having unfolded the intensity of Being, by soul perceiving the true conception of Divine Phallic Worship, that of Eleusinian Roots, we can now come to the profound audibility of Diapasonic Vibronic Rhythm, becoming sound. For here are the constant clairaudient depths of a Divine Central Sun awakening. That of a Spiritual Ego forged Brilliance, of a mind conscious Belief in the Full Atomic Hermeneutic captivation of the Breath, in Royal Phenomenal Glory. With the infinity revolving and spinning up into the heights, driving the electrolysis skywards.

For here are the corpuscular depths of the whole range of Theological rebounding resounding sensitised depths. That of the unrevealed harmonious acoustics of the Atom, now bringing the Great Divine Hermeneutics of Theocratic Neptunian quantum into Pubatory infinitisation. That ready to sperm and create into the glory of a woven garment of a Divine Mind fulfillment. A royal creation of Solar Beauty, shimmering with the heavenly light of Golden Chromolithmic Sun Beams. They patterned with the mighty magnitude of the Divine Hermeneutics, of rare Neptunian Divine Holy Beauty.

For now, all the Spermated Etheric continuity has become the personified etheric depths of Pleiadic Protonic fortitude. That now of the electrified unfolding Core of Divine Personified Priesthood of Holy Atomic sensitised Virgin Belief. Where Divinity, as the Divine Overshadowance, is the radiant Glory waiting to shine forth, as the mighty preambulance of the Divine audibility. That giving forth wonders never perceived or dreamt of, in all the Glories of Utopia. For Vega is a long lost World, a City of Dreams and Beauty, that waiting to open of its mighty emblazoned Gates, to let forth of its Diapasonic Wonders.

Now under the Fiery Solar Glory, all becomes revolved into the new continuity of the Etheric Solarised Glory. That of true Virgin concentrated Brilliance of Divine Holy Fellowship, where united harmony is the woven web of the Arachnoid mystery of the Pia Mater, The woven glory of depths to heights, in unified holy perception. For here is the full relativity depths, mastered and polarised with Neptunian possibilities. Those awaiting the continuity Breath, to set alight the infinity reverberation, of a Divine Virgin Royal Belief. Driving a causatory infusion into a World of created Wonders, that of Holy Divine Salvation. Leading the blind into Worlds of heavenly perception, and the deaf into acceptance of untold Beauties of truth.

All now is of the Atomic Waveband, which for the time being is the full emancipated depths of an Atomic creative Divine mind sensitivity. The all-prevailing birthright of a focalised Divinely Spermated YOD, of Virgin compassionate mind rebound. Where the infinitised octavial levitation carries the soul up into realms of Neptunian Glory, Planes of unbounding Beauty. A World of Samarkand polarised precisional wonders, woven webs of heavenly belief, spun into a garment of Light. With every strand glistening with Divine Jewels, fit for the Glory of a Queen, with an ornamented Crown of Heaven Spun Gold. Thus a rebirth of depths, risen up to the heights as a Holy spermated mutation. For this basically is the full Atomic sovereignty of a complete continuity, of a Holy revered Divine Virgin Breath.

THE SACRED MYSTERIES

(This lecture is part 4 of a series written by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook in 1961, under the direction of Ra-Men-Ra, and which are now being published that they might give to some a clearer understanding of the basis of the Mysteries. Editor).

TO CONCLUDE ON THE MANY ARTICLES DEALING WITH THE SECRETS OF the Cross and Serpent, the Manifestation of Grace and The Mysteries, the moment has come to reveal to the genuine seeker the path whereby the Sacred Mysteries are approached. For man can only make entry onto the outer precincts of the Mystic Path and never get very far in the Aquarian Age, unless he is prepared to undergo many sacrifices that demand his all. The first entry is through the wicket gate which tests the soul for endurance. Here the Steps and Degrees are reviewed, where man can become enamoured by the promise of the Man that can come forth. But very few stay the course beyond even this gate, for even here the first rule is renunciation. As the Egyptian candidate entered into the precincts of the Pyramid to finalise his journey under the deep bowels of the Sphinx, so would the present day candidate take the same vows as of those days of yore; for nothing alters. But whereas in the past they shut themselves away, man today must learn to fulfill this in living life; for what use is Spirit to manifest in mystery only. It must be practicable to all and sundry, otherwise that taken as Holy Fire to revive the earth has failed in its direction. That is the purpose of the Mysteries; new life let free to mankind as fresh Air and unrevealed Word, not sensation for a few.

Although it gives to the manifestor freedom, the obtaining of same is not a personal matter, but a filling up of the Tat or Waters of Life, ready for a new fertilization of the Maelstrom or Astral planes that have become stagnant. Therefore candidates who have survived to the stage of Adepts must be ready to receive and bring forth this new life. This usually entails a period of test through crucifixion, administered not by the man himself, but by those who often fail and act as Judas's, or public linked with enquiry.

Aquarius is an age where the rebirth of the Word of the previous Age must be demonstrated in manifestation. Thus Religion and Philosophy come under the same category; this is what the second Advent indicates, not a personal rebirth of the man Pauline. He was declared the successful demonstrator of the Word in the Piscean Period, yet we might ask, was he? For his actual teachings of the Mysteries have never been revealed, man only having received the imprimatur as Christianity demonstrated in the Roman Church Creation.

The inner Mysteries of Aquarius have never yet been revealed, for the Human Race has only just entered through the portals, and the first degree accomplished. Even this came in through cruel war and destruction, for since 1888, when this Age made its entry, many diabolical weapons of destruction have been created, these being the outcome of the scientific mind to the reaction of the incoming Fiery Life.

Hence the necessity for the Mysteries to be revealed, that royalty can be restored to the microcosm as human progenitor. For under the jurisdiction of this age, many types of microcosms are returning, and owing to the inconsistencies of the Race through corruption and abnormalism,—the heritage of the Fall called karma—much disaster is taking place.

For many a higher spirit has attempted to brave the earth life and has become lost in mental states brought about by succumbing to earthy desires, or by meeting the too earthy consistency of the bodies prepared for them. For man now looks upon child-birth as a personal state of indulgence, and not with the same awe and reverence as was intended; and with every effort being made to aid him in such by contraceptives, the joy of pure Motherhood is fast following the disappearing divine Bridegroom.

These higher souls were returning with the intent to rejuvenate the maelstrom by demonstrating and manifesting of the Mysteries via the greater wisdom of the Word, which in this age is fast becoming a byword. Their failure to meet the cloying conditions of the earth is proving a disastrous state, equal only to possible annihilation. For equal to their return are those of the lower Lunar Races who are well surviving the bodies prepared, and are taking on a state of degeneracy through the weakened resistance of the Race, and the many negative and erroneous conceptions of psychology.

But to add unto this, mankind must also face the fact of the fallen Church of Christianity, for owing to the antichrist state of the world, the Bridegroom has been taken away, and the Mysteries hidden but to the very few. Only by such catholicity be restored, for the Christos, the Power and Spirit of the Mysteries, is lost while mammon reigns. Is the world living again the time of Samuel, when Hannah cried "I-cha-bod; the glory is departed from Is'ra-el." The EL at the final of the word indicating that the Grace of God had departed.

Long before the Christos manifested were the Mysteries taught by communicants and celebrated in sacraments, for they were the rites of Osiris, Mithras, Iacchos, Zoroaster, Krishna, Buddha and many others. And when the story of the Incarnation was adopted by the Church of Rome, it was their theme of revealing the Sacred Mysteries; although this theme did not come into practice until quite awhile after their establishment. The Early Fathers, the real carriers of the Truth, never taught of such; while the mystery of the cross came into birth somewhere after Constantine.

The Incarnation and the manifestation of the Messiah, was the Light of the Christos made possible by the Adept Pauline of the Essenian Order, who prepared himself and walked the path of the Ancient Approach once again. This was taking place at the age of the demolition of the Arian Dispensation, therefore the rebirth of the Word was necessary.

But the Mysteries had long before Moses been the rights of the Abyss, for it was the demonstration to the microcosms of the Powers' descent into Matter, and the revealing of the Spirit. It was these Powers that brought about the manipulation of all creative matter on the lower planes; for it was their "in-thrusting" of the Action of Life in certain miracles that took place, which became the rituals of certain tribes.

When certain miracles were performed through adherents it became the continual breaking open of the 6th Seal, or the Ajna Chakra, where the winged mind could go forth in flights of freedom, and bring to the earth a renewed remembrance of the Celestial Sun. This had to happen continually through life to keep the Race moving forward in spiritual ways; for once it was made manifest, it could reveal to the starved world the journey destined for the blind human Race, and what is more, what was required to retrace the steps back to Grace. Then could the Heavenly Ones pour out their Vials, and man receive new life for them to prepare and accept the Christos Light.

Instead of dissipating in vulgar contemplation regarding the beauties of the Songs of Solomon, it would do well for such critics to seek diligently into the glorious mystery hidden in these words:

"Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth; for thy love is better than wine" or "For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; The time of the singing of birds is come, And the voice of the turtle is heard in our land".

(Song of Solomon. Ch. 1, 2 v 2, 11, 12).

These words were the singing of a joyous heart after the Initiations of Steps and Degrees had wiped away the searing of the Cross, and left the soul free. Yet their Real depth could only be revealed to the man who had trod that path and suffered, that Humanity could be helped. And it must be understood that the word Humanity holds a Cosmic inference.

The story of the Incarnation with the expectation of the Messiah, the annunciation by the angel, the conception by the Virgin Mary, the birth at midnight in a cave, the appearance to the shepherds of the celestial host, the visit of the Magi, the flight from the persecuting Herod, the slaughter of the innocents, the finding of the divine boy in the Temple, the baptism, the conversion of water into wine and other like conquests, with the triumphant entry into the Holy City, the Passion, Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension, are the journey of the manifestors of the Christos, and can be made by any successful adherent to the Path of Truth. Apart from the work of Universal Service, these also bring to the soul the right to complete freedom from the cloying matter of earth, and have been the same practices through all ages of Heavenly demonstration.

The Gospels, the Law and the Prophets, together with the Mysteries they embody, are precisely the same as previously inculcated in the Schools of all Ages and Nations. Therefore the Christian Religion has no claim to their monopoly, for the Divine Mysteries of Redemption are world wide, while the Church of Rome have placed their own construction of Creed and Dogma upon these Truths, obliterating their real meaning.

These were revived and restored, and received in a world wide scope through the adept Pauline, who, through his investigation became as an Jesus Christed. Jesus means Messu; the messenger of Truth that has been filling up through the ages, and now revealed by one who can carry the burden.

But it must be understood that in the sense of Awe that these reveal, there is a definite limit to the open revelation of these Mysteries; for these Shrines are but the outer forms and appearances of which the symbolism conveys. The Power and the Glory to come forth from the Divine Shaddai is Grace and Manna, and can be only known to the innermost precincts of the heart, and which can only blossom forth by those of pure intent, and then as the Coriander Seed.

So all who study the landmarks of the Path of the Mysteries, that known to many as the Cross and Serpent, will find to their own detriment that there is no presumption of going beyond the veil of external manifestation, and of which is permissible for the enquirer and novice to behold, until they are ready for serious interpenetration. All who have attempted to trespass beyond lawful bounds are weighed well in the balance, and have found their feet and hands peremptorily stayed, with disastrous results if they seek to rape.

The entry is usually through a severe test, which many who have attempted have failed to accomplish. Therefore it can be understood of Ra-Men-Ra (the symbol covering a very ancient Egyptian entity) whose advice has always been, "Judge them by the works they do."

Although Redemption is whole in itself, the process is manifold, and consists of a series of acts, spiritual and mental, as well as heroic, and which the adherent must accomplish for his own sake. For to try and bring Truth to a world imbued in delights of the flesh, and which are the rule as the materialism of the day, needs more than courage, it needs manifold conviction and endurance.

There is no easy way, and invariably the test and agony to be endured is not actually by the Mysteries themselves, but mankind's reaction to the

That of an Atomic radiating momentum, of a Royal Virgin compassionate Neptunian Quoit mastery, spinning up to the heights. Where a continual Stream of snow-flecked horses, wing their way across the Waters, fledging wonders of Divine Beauty, in the Divine Oyer-flowing wine-filled cup. With internal depths of Diapasonic Beauty ringing forth the Bells of Heaven, filling the World with harmonic Beauty, the heavenly Light of continual blended Holy Royalty. Where wonders lost and forgotten are awakened up from the depths of some hidden forgotten catacomb. Bringing into radiating light, the mystical root of some possible blossoming causationary Divine conclusion.

All now having become of Atomic Solar virility, that of a betrothed constitutional Breath, of a Divine Pleiadic purification of Holy Spermated mutation. Whereby the Atomic motivation can be the reward for a Vega Divine sensitised Belief, where problems that have passed by the board and defied the depths of detection, are now opened wide to the Solar Glory. They which now are duly solved, and in dancing forth, bring reborn light into the darkness of illusion.

This is the Holy Spermated mutation, as the ever opening Gate of Vega, where new Divine Species of thought are ever produced from octaves of Divine harmonic Glories. New themes of LIGHT and creative possibilities, that of the polarised wonders of Verne's fantastic Atomic mind. He who believed of wonders that could be, but who never dreamt of the aid of the Spirit, where Hierarchical infusion completely fulfilled the possibility, and brought this dreamer's dream fully into birth.

This now bringing us to the full forty-ninth Parallel, of Divine acoustic rebound. Whereby the heights have now become full Theocratic conscious reality, that of the unified trinity of the three running legs, of Divine Atomic compassionate magnitude. A spinning momentum of light-born aspiration, driving the consanguinity into aspired elevation, thereby being the infinitised magnificence of a Pube Atomic Oneness, of Holy revered Solarcratic fortitude. That of Divine compassionate Etymological Royal Reality, breaking through the Periphery of the forty-ninth Parallel, bringing heavenly mutations into birth. Where mighty wonders of Hierarchical Glory are the abounding depths of Divine Royal LIGHT.

This is where all virgin sensitised conscious fortitude is the Atomic Pace of the now Fired Breath of the Positive Divine Fatherhood. Whereby as Fired conscious Divine awareness, all is perceived through the One unification of Divine Holy Seership. Where out of the CORE of the Mysterious Source, new Divine Wonders are continually being born. Royal species of Vibronic Glory, where Harmonics of an unknown Frequency reveal their Diapasonic Beauty.

Now the draught of the Divine enceinte wake of the Mind, as the Virgin Divine conscious supreme sensitised Royal Virgin reality, has become the Atomic Beauty of the Virgin Theocratic Harmonious Divine Desire Body. That of the Theocratic conscious ordainment firmly established as Law, which is now the Solar satisfaction of a Divine conscious conception, born of Desire manifesting Prototypal Royal conscious motivating ministry. The decree of Cosmic Evolution and Cosmic growth, in both Heaven and Earth unfolding the wonders of Light.

For Solar Ministry is polarised Royal Virgin Phenomenal Glory, of Divine Dyophysite reality, that of God-born Royalty in HIS Kingdom of Holy LIGHT. That which now, as reborn conscious conception, is of the true Etheric Breath Hermeneutics, of a conscious Polarcratic constitution, of a Fired Divine Ego sensitivity. That of an ordained status, recognised as the Charter of LIFE fulfillment, opening up the Gateway of Vega.

Whereby the complete Atomised sensitised Royalty becomes the Divine parting Breath, of Holy conscious conceived Royal Mind awareness.

Thereby becoming that of Theocratic Theology of Divine Dyophysite Desire momentum, that of constant constitutional reality, of Virgin virile Voiced veridical Divine Atonement. Where only Divine Truth is fully established, that of true Divine Heavenly Reality, preparing the way for greater Divine infusion. For Atomic Veridical Atonement is the Theocratic Breath of Atomic infinitised conscious conception, as momentary Divine awareness of Royal acoustic Rhythm.

Where the audibility of the Unknown is making the soul master of the Winds and the Waves, that of a god-born son. The internal recipient of eternal establishment, with GOD being viricularised in the soul Divinity of Royal Hierarchical establishment. That of the permanent fulfillment of the treading in of LIGHT, in its Royal ascension up to the heights.

physite citizen, making ascension up to the heights, by the ever re-gyratory mind crescendo of the depths, spinning up to the heights in Divine mind creation.

The elevation of the passionate glory in its electrolysed spinning ascension, where all is as the constant fulfilling spiralling depths of a Communistos Virgin Voice acoustics. Whereby the Atomic descending Thread is now the ecliptic wonder of a Divine Dyophysite Warrior's spiralling elevated profundity.

For this is the ordained Dyophysite of the Atomic Divine ascending Mind of Theocratic prolific effulgence. That of the Altruistic depths of a Vega Virgin Voice, of royal crescendoing phenomenal Glory. Where the Solar sensitised Divine Desire becomes the gyrotory ascension of elevated Belief.

Now the Theocratic Thread of the Divine unfolding Glory of the enceinte Breath, becomes the full ascending measure of mind, awaiting his conscious re-awakening.

Therefore, under that Law, is awaiting the soul turning from illusion into Divine elevated spiralling Reality. Thus here we behold that of the etheric continuity, as that of a Theocratic Prototypal Divine Effluvia. Where the sensitised forged Atomic Breath has become a Vega Virgin Intentional Divine Breath of Atomic Royal constitution. Where all, blended in Diapasonic harmony, now is manifesting Royal Neptunian Wonders from those Arachnoid heights.

For the gods, now redeemed into Celestial Glory, led from those Mighty Planes of Ether magnitude by the Glory of the unified Breath, are leading the soul by the Golden 'Drip', filled with Helium wonders. Hence the internal depths of the forging of the Atomic isotope, can now become of the Dyophysite Divine Continuity. That of a Virgin Etheric Communistos virile profound Beauty, surging the ganglion chain with light and active propensity.

Here is where the Voice, that of the complete intentional Royal Galactical formulation, has now become of supreme inspired Diapasonic sensitised Breath, that of Royal Phenomenal Glory. Where its mighty Harmonic internal wonders are swelling in combustionable 'Fury', seeking to announce HIS Mighty Royalty to those primed and ready to receive and duly give forth. Hence is driving the blood with Diathermic intensity, spiralling all up to the heights in a mighty crescendo of swelling harmonic Glory.

Thus many will speak and know not what they say, for to them they be Words lost in the mystery of their own illusion. Yet Words awaiting the call of the Flying Swan, who will set the Phallic wonders abounding, catching all up in the revolving infinitised gyration.

Therefore this is the Atomic stencilled wealth of a creative indoctrinated depths, of a spiralling continuity, of a forming Divine Breath. Thus equal to the Etheric Atomic dancing pulse-beat, that of the aspirational intentional Virgin Prototypal majesty, of a created elevated Mind World of Atomic Virgin spiralling Desires.

For wealth from Ages forgotten, is now coming forth out of the Catacombs of the depths, holding of Mysteries completely unknown. Yet wealth, when polarised and gyrated up to the heights, which will fill the World with Causationary new-born Holy Wonders.

By this, we now come to the all Atomic Principles of the Theocratic FACED, he who has become as the enceinte Divine Betrothed. Where all the etheric Royal Supreme Justice has become the affinitised relativity, with the all Virgin Spermated depths of profound Atomic fortitude.

This is the Atomic polarised Virgin depths of Divine Virgin inspired re-spermated creative magnificence. That unified into a state of ONENESS, bringing the soul Betrothed of his central sun supremacy. For the whole of his being has now been raised up, with his Bull becoming the Driver of the Royal Golden Chariot, in the will now Preambulating around the vaults of the unfolding heavens. With the Atomic sensitised profound Breath, now revealing the Etheric Divine Radiance of the soul, by its spermating majesterial Divine virtue.

For all has now become the centralised full depths of Divine personified Etheric continuity, and will duly awaken the all prevailing inspirational accord of the Theocratic Divine Principled enceinte depths of a Theocratic Prototype. Bringing into birth of Divine Holy mutations, which the soul must now sperm, for it to lead

THUS the Snow Maiden, now the Orphan of the Storm, became nurtured into fruited growth by the young Warrior of Truth. No longer the Witches' Sabbath, but the Glory of the revolving Isotope, that of fulfilled Light. Whereby vibronic beauty is fruited into LIGHT, and GOD and man walk side by side; the manifesting Glory of Reality, where soul is born of Divine Holy Light, with a bird-like mind of crystal clear perception. (See text in col. 4).

For here is the Pleiadic fulfilled Royal Atomic Desires, the Atomic Word of the Theocratic majesterial mastery. The Vega Desired Desire creation, the basic of its Mind Ministry, now unfolding its Light into the depths. By such, the full unification has become the Mastered Divine Desired depths of established Solar LIGHT. That of Theocratic sincere Dyophysite continuity Desire, as the fulfilled harmonious aspirational infinity, that of Royal perpetuum.

This is the gyrotic attachment of Atomic infused Central Sun Infinity attunement, with the Ego-centric simplicity of Holy revered continuity, of compassionate choice. The fully established World of fulfillment, both in Cosmic and Genealogical growth, turning the trend of Evolution. With the Diapasonic Depths of the Theocratic Harmonies being born of the Atomic Totalitarian reactory momentum, of the Etheric Prototypal Divine Delevitated Light phenomenal Beauty. That of Holy Atomic sensitised reborn Pube spiralling continuity, that now will levitate the soul up into heights of new-born Belief. For now the Dyophysite depths of the Solar born Snow Maiden's Powers of the Atomic Planes, have become the full elevated Desires of a Dyophysite Divine Holy Command of the Etheric Ego spiralling virility.

For everything now is drawn back up to the heights, by the infinitised ganglion rotatory reverberation, completely altering the course of ascending vibronic fulfillment, from the Witches' Sabbath, to the glory of the revolving Isotope. Such Glories have never been known before, for the three Mystics have now come back into their own.

With the Atomic Breath now in the brain formation, as the mighty velocity of the blended Heights and depths. With that of the Theocratic Web now having become of the Atomic Dyophysite expanding polarising Phenomenal Glory. That of the enceinte profound inaugurated forged phenomenal gyration, which now has become as a sensitised enceinte established LAW, demanding glorified ascension to one and all. For every soul now is living up in his palatial heights, unbeknown to his conscious Thereby to establish its constitution as that of soul evolution, the Divine consciousness of ordained LIFE. Where the Etheric Reality, as the Atomic profundity, becomes that of a Virgin Positive Royal Profundity, of ordained Dyophysite soul creation. Thus the Power of a Pre-ordained Priest of Atomic Isotope Divine Desires of elevated unfolding Glory.

Here we perceive a perfect Cycle of an established Spermated mutation, where heights and depths are interblended into a World of Heaven-born LIGHT. Where the Vega Virgin verity of a Space Age Royal Atomic Oneness, now spins from depths to heights as a swallow in full winged flight. That of a Vega forging Dyophysite

THE ABSTRACT PLANE

AS the Wind blew and the heights murmured, the depths quivered, and the slumbering mind awakened to the Glory of the LIGHT that was filling their Divine abode. Glories and wonders, Truth and Light, were now the fructifying Stream that lifted up those depths, into the supremacy of knowing, and Divinity Shone in all HIS Royal Radiance. For GOD, the Essence of Magnitude, is the Seed, the Stem, and the Blossom of all that is, yet the wonder and Beauty of the FIRE. (See text in col. 1).

him through the Gateway, into the Royal World of Vega.

Therefore, as the dancing Neptunian Waves of Atomic full compassionate Holy Royal Virgin ascension forge their enceinte depths into Theocratic Chivalry, will the blood of all men change into the Crimson depths of Theocratic Husbandry. For here, as Neptunian Divine mastery, is the full dance of the Pleiadic sensitised Vega vocalised supreme Zenith consciousness, born out of that mighty Bull, Preambulating around the heavens. That now as the fulness of the Theocratic FACE, becomes the Atomic radiating Sperm of the Etheric enceinte creative ability, of the FIRE within the Fire. For GOD now, as that Divine Holy Royalty, is the radiating LIGHT within the soul, waiting to make its heavenly debut, through the Voice of the conscious unfolding mind.

All now having become of the Ekklesiastical depths of a Divine vast motivating Royal Holy Power, of Etheric enceinte sensitised Royal Phenomenal Majesty. Whereby the constant depths of Sun in Scorpio, in revealing its Holy Light, now shines forth with the Divine depths of the Etheric enceinte gestation. The mighty wealth of the Divine Promise, that was Prototyped unto Abram, that whatever be the task, either small or large, Divinity in all HIS Glory, would be his Shield and Protection.

Hence this mighty all-Atomic stimulus has at last brought forth the enceinte radiating dancing lilt of the honourable octavial Husband-etheric Betrothal Commis-ure garments of Divine Brethren wealth. That sent forth by the Royal Divine Fellowship, working up in the heights of the mind. Where the full Swallow Tail reverberating Rhythm, of an Atomic full gyrating Virgin Word, is now full Light Commis-ure radiating ONENESS.

Thus the 'drip' now filled with this mighty wealth, is leading the soul along the Path of Divine Heavenly ascension, opening up channels of LIGHT that have never been known before. This is where we perceive the true mystery of the Taj Mahal, for the mighty elaborate building was the illusion, while the reflection in the water was the Reality; darkness that has been turned into Light.

Here the whole Plutonic depths are converted into the Pleiadic Virgin virility of the Constitutional Breath, of the aspirational full Theocratic mastery. That of the Diapasonic Holy Driving Fire of Divine directive. While all the fulness of supreme etymological Atomic created might is now the full Theocratic depths of this Holy Seered enceinte Majesty. For the LIGHT of Lights is the Breath of this Ekklesiastical Brilliance, that of Neptunian mastered Genius. A royal Holy Spermated mutation, filled with the Glory of heavenly harmonic Beauty.

For the sensitivity is of the Etheric Fount Driven depths, that of a Pleiadic Divine sensitised prototypical conquest. That born of a Holy Virgin Dyophysite Royal Scorpionic Divine Belief, as he now is awakened to Theocratic Supreme justice. For the pure depths of Vega are duly making their entry, as radiant sparking rays of Brilliance, where all is LIGHT of Lights, the internal magnitude of heavenly Divine Beauty.

For mutation is the process of change, only according to the previous warranted application, which would now be as unto the Diapasonic inflow perceived, and the Spermated application applied. For now, being of Holy Spermated mutation, makes way for the Pure enceinte Relativity fortunata to manifest. That of the full Theocratic Brilliance of the Atomic Arc sensitivity, for all the germinating fulness of a Theocratic Overshadowance, has at last been granted a Pre-Diapasonic infinity gestation of Virgin Atomic wealth.

That of a Commis-ure internal correlation of Virgin Divine Overshadowing Central Sun Magnificence, where all is radiating with that Divine Inner LIGHT. Thereby radiating the whole of the ganglion chain with the mighty royal sperm-ing Beauty, bringing the soul to the fulness of the Universe.

For here is the Atomic Pre-Pube state, that of an etheric gyratic fulfillment, a Helium Spherical mutation of Divine sensitised motivating propensity. That of an Infallible Cycle of Constitutional Intuitive felicity, of virile Hermeneutic stability. Where all is Word Atomic vibration, and the soul is a full gyrating phenomena of Vega World manifestation.

sifying its internal Frequency, from the depths of its interpenetrating Core, unfolding mysteries deep down from the depths of Far Beyond. For Source to source is an infinity reverberation, which is progressive in its revolving attenuation, ever ascending upwards to the heights as pure Virgin LIGHT, through Holy Sperm 'mutatis mutandis', a new specie of Belief.

Now the Atomic Waveband Theocratic preordnance has become the Atomic Central Sun Phenomenal Glory, that of a constant Virgin Vega Theocratic Source. Whereby the Pleiadic depths of the inaugurating Stream of Divine Virgin Light becomes the full measure of Timeless pre-ordained Destiny. Thus the soul being fed by the expansive wealth that will levitate him up out of the lower Planes of desire, and of which he will establish on the now Fire-born Earth, as the established Glory of Cosmic Conscious Evolution.

Thus the all-Divine magnitude of the Central Sun enceinte depths is at last the full major propensity of Divine Theocratic commanding inspirational Virgin award. Whereby tinuity Reality. That of Divine Hermeneutic Virgin Virile perceptory Divine awareness, that will open up the Gates of Vega, the internal Etheric mystery. For what has been, has created the heavens, and now as re-spermated Infinity, will by unification, build up the World of Tomorrow.

Thus the Gates of Vega are the mind of the soul, blended into LIGHT by Diapasonic Harmony. That of Hermeneutic wealth, sent forth from the Central Sun Intelligencia, to manifest in the soul, to make it a well prepared vessel for Divinity to walk amongst men, and speak truths never heard before. Glories that will lift the World up into Heavenly LIGHT, the Holy Way of Continuity. For all now is through the soul itself, as it gyrates in its ever revolving infinity.

This is Atomic stencilled depths of a Divine Theocratic Royal Pleiadic Enceinte Theology. For now, all have at last reached the levitational depths of a Pre-Pasonic Priestal Power of Polarcratic guiding phenomenal Glory. This is the Dyophysite Royal Spinal sensitivity, of a Sun in Taurus unity, of Neptunian full Divine Blooded Belief. Whereby the full Atomic frequency has at last completely established a new FACE, has become the constant steadfastness of Vega Virgin Virile Vortex Reality. That bringing forth of the Holy Spermated mutations of the past, opening up the golden Scrolled Gates of Vega. As the first decanate of Sagittarius, it is the flight of the arrow to the crown of the Arc, which is followed up instantaneously by the conscious awareness.

Yet the Mystery lies in the fact that the whole depths of Sagittarius are the whole creation of becoming of the soul. The link lies between Gemini and Sagittarius, and will ever be the reverberating experiences of life, taking on of a new-born creation of becoming. This being the full unfoldment of the mind, from Ethiopia to Vega.

(See plate on this page)

This is where religion declares of the "Conqueror as Christ, is coming", which in reality is the soul in its conscious awareness, becoming born of the Solar Christos Glory. A complete upliftment from out of the depths, now unfolding up to the radiating Arc, in a crescendo of Divine Rolling Beauty. Yet the soul alight with Heavenly Radiance, a living torch of God-born manifestation, bringing into birth of the Glory of Light.

Here for the first time, is the Atomic Maiden Reality, in its ever unfolding sensitivity of Virgin Voice Phenomenal Glory. For as a god, reborn from the past lost heritage, the soul is now born of a Fired Mind, an ever awakening consciousness. Whereby the pulsating Rhythm of the Diapasonic inflow of Neptunian Waters, has now become the Atomic Torch of the Theocratic Virtue, of Chromolithic levitational crescendo up to the GOD-born heights. That of Divine continuity, as a Royal Atomic mutation, the Power of Atomic Principality. Where the soul is born of Divine Holy LIGHT, a soul with a bird-like mind, flying up and down the Dyophysite Sky, like the swallow on the wing.

For this is the Altruistic depths of the Theocratic Divine Belief, where the Etheric polarised momentum of a Virgin Pleiadic reverberating Atomic sensitivity is opening up to the Glory of the interpenetrating Solar Beams of Chromospheric magnitude. This is the Depths of the Spermated mutation, the unfolding Glory of the Heaven-born FIRE, that reveals the internal Mystery of GOD. For the mind is the Fire having taken on the Divine Glory of the Hydrogen Depths.

For the all-Atomic Chromolithic Light has now become the Atomic Spermating sensitivity, of a Pube Divine Radiating Dyophysite Destined Depths, of Pleiadic possibility. Where the soul awakens and perceives its own inner Glory, yet still out of its reach. Seeing the distance as from afar, yet the conscious mind not being able to bridge the span, only by the conscious mind shedding the illusion that blinds it to the Glory that is only just around the corner.

Thus the changing light of Vibronic rebirth, spinning up the electrified levitated frequency into the Brilliance of electrolysed LIGHT. This being the depths of 'mutatis mutandis', the ever changing depths unto rebirth.

The Closing Prayer

Holy Glory of Divine Beauty, manifest through the Divine Unity of Thy Sons; they who now are born of LIGHT, that I can be within their midst. That I can embrace them in the wholeness of My Beings, and bring them to the Priesthood of Divine Glory, that they can become the recipients of the Unseen Depths that will manifest Wonders and Glories into a world stagnant with illusion; a world that must be lifted up to unfold the magnitude of its intended magnificence. ADIEU.

THE Snow Maiden, now born as the Virgin, beheld, and howed before the Fount. As she did so, her heart leapt, and the FIRE of Divinity burst its bonds, shot up to the heights, and the whole of the World was flooded with LIGHT. For Divinity was now as Divine Continuity, the Royal Atomic Mutation, as the Power of Atomic Principality revealed the internal mystery of GOD. For mind is the FIRE having taken on the Divine GLORY of the Hydrogen Depths: GOD. (See text in col. 5).

An Atomic Pile of no mean measure, that now applied in its true conception, would open wide the Royal Scrolled Gates of Vega. This in its widest sense, is the intermation of Belief, a Divine World of Celestial retreat, but which becomes tangible, though undeniably painful, when truly KNOWN. Then it becomes of forged Atomic ONENESS.

Here is LIGHT phenomenal Glory of a Divine Dyophysite tranquillity reverberating frequency, that of Divine italic sensitised phenomenal reactionary Theocratic prototypical inspiration. Where Divine Wonders could now be born from the extent of the Diapasonic mutation assumed. For as the soul could so rise up in vibronic interpenetration, would the Frequency assumed, bring the hidden genius into birth. For all now is a matter of soul assumption and effort, to aspire to possibilities beyond its range of comprehension.

This now being the Atomic Cycle of a Virgin Theocratic Enceinte Royal Periphery of Theocratic supreme motivating Atomic control. Where all has become of Theocratic sensitised Desire, that of Virgin Pleiadic Divine ONENESS, a Royal motivating Glory of LIGHT. Where Light is inter-all becomes the Depths of the full Theocratic Prismic majesty of a Divine Etheric basic. Hence the Central Sun Breath, full of inspirational Virgin Truths, now becomes that of the Etheric basic, to feed the corpuscular heights with the 'drip'. That which becomes the ordained Destiny of the Race Elect, and the future Glory of Vega, as the soul expands into LIGHT.

By this the Depths of the Central Sun Vega aspirational Theocratic Royal Reality becomes the Etheric conscious depths of the now awakening Holy Fired Phenomenal Glory. For this is the tranquillity of a Divine Dyophysite correlating Atomic Source of Virgin Virility. That which became separated as depths and heights, now in their unity, by infinitised Breath, becomes blended into LIGHT, the Fired Glory of the MIND. Virgin Virility that knows no bounds, and holds the wealth of Christendom, the Glorified Solar unity, that of Divine Spermated mutation of a Divine harmonic octave.

Now the Atomic spiral of Theocratic Belief has at last Fired its all-Atomic Pleiadic depths of Plutonic stability, with the full emancipated con-

Virgin inspirational gyrating Voice, of hitherto untold depths. That of Vega Polarizable phenomenal Glory, held by the guiding Pole Star.

Where the mystery Constellation of Lyra will lead man to seeking into Realms of extremely ancient wealth, that is far beyond his present comprehension. But when polarised with the Ether Breath and his own internal effluvia of Etheric LIGHT, will he find his mind opening up the Gates to his Shangri-La, his World of Vega. For the Overshadowance now, is the soul's own Etheric counterpart, which has become the fulness of the Commis-ure.

It is the action of the conscious deliberations of the Theocratic Breath depths, that becomes the Enceinte Divine Holy Constitution of Vega Divine Virile versatility. This is the Sut or labouring donkey, that in its female consciousness, makes way to becoming the Orion Warrior of Positive masculine endeavour. Thereby bringing all to Atomic Desire, which is the Atomic where-withal to drive the infinity reverberating Atom, into a ONE Desired depths of Atomic Pleiadic Divine Belief.

For now the Theocratic itinerary of the Vega Atomic

The Polarised Works of Doctor Francois Rabelais Part 13

IN THE FEBRUARY DISCOURSE, WE HAD STARTED the journey of Preambulance by going down South, and had in our seeking, sought into the wisdom of the Fifth house, the rebirth of the Leonine Fire into the Holy Glory of the Spirit. Therefore, in re-embarking and passing on by the way of Lantern Land, the land of old light, Pantagruel had arrived at the Island of Ennasin. Yet the correct comprehension of this reformation is very essential for the purpose of this polarisation to be fully comprehended, and the means of having a better insight into the first page lecture. For such enormous Occult wisdom lies within Rabelais' Works, that if truly interpreted, can help and aid the Occult seeker of today. For the present Work of the Master, is to completely elevate the Holy Brethren, the Gods in the heights of the mind, that they can feed the conscious mind of the soul, with the Drip of slowly assimilated rebirth. Hence, this very explanatory Work of Rabelais, with the excellent Plates by the artist, can guide the soul into the union that their Divine Consciousness is seeking to bring about.

Therefore, we now find ourselves sailing on unto this Mysterious Island; but in everything here verging around the female state, gives us the understanding of the sixth house, the House of Women, Virgo. This is where the feminine state of the soul becomes reborn or married up to the seventh house, the house of rebirth of the Law. That which brings expansion unto the soul, the changing status of transforming it into a masculine issue.

This is where vibration must be fully understood, for these are states of Positive and Negative vibration, not gender. Therefore, the journey now is with the Wind S.W., and had been a whole day without this merry cortege making land. This indicates in the Occult vernacular, that the soul was not entirely focalised, so was not making a point of directive formalization.

This is where we can get a deeper understanding of generation and growth, of how all has expanded out into density, thereby taking on of experience and phenomenalisation. Hence, here we behold of how the Iliad and Odyssey are but a Grecian repetition of a very early perception of the change-over from the Spirit, into the meso-morphic drop into matter.

Even this can be seen in a better light, by perceiving that it was the infiltration into the depths of Matter, that brought the Spermic Seed into birth. Thereby bringing the Bull unto a driving force of creating the Neptunian Glory of the mind. From an Astrological standpoint, the polarity of Scorpio and Taurus, or Simon-Peter carrying the cross. The Le Ros dance up and down the Spine, battling the ball back and forth, until it becomes "Love-all"; the drawing of the Seed up to the heights.

So here we behold the Argo sailing on, and on the third day, flies began to rise some two or three hours after the Sun's rise. These would be the irritation caused by the erroneous states of the past, for as the new wealth began to take chromalisation, and the corpuscles make inter-change, these states buzzed and stung to try and hold their own.

But it was not very long before a triangular Island came into sight, a creation very much like Sicily for its form and situation. This was called the Island of Alliances, therefore seems to agree with our idea of the seventh house.

Rabelais refers to the people of this Island as carrot-pated Poitevins, they having noses like the ace of clubs. Thus he called it the country of Ennasin, for their flat noses gave them a snuffle, which we take to be the lack of sensitivity. In it being the first early changes of expansion, this would be through the sinus not having changed over from the earthy into the spirit.

Here Rabelais goes into profound description of inter-birth and degrees of consanguinity, for he states in thousands of men going to war and being slain, it resulted in those left having no form of relationship, and would be no other status than a degree of inter-birth. Whereby the chromosomes become duly united into a state of oneness: the blending up of the black and white states, which brings the protoplasm into a united state of one direction. Therefore, this point of compass was none other than the complete inter-blending in the degree of expansion.

Rabelais' dialogue upon this is certainly quaint, and would only be understood if the reader was versed in Occultism and its inter-blended unity. It was the foot referring to the female as his boot, another as the crumb calling him her crust, hence two states that had to compete for direct focalisation. Therefore, this country of Ennasin was a country of strange people akin to one another.

For this is where the law first takes on of the higher Law, and necessitates a complete renunciation of the old. It is where Venus takes on her second status, for it is the house of Libra, that of internal marriage. Where the Virgin, now ripe with mind-child in the womb, makes fresh vows before a round altar, so that she can get safely across the eighth house of Scorpio, and not fall down the pit. This is where Dan can fall backward off his horse; that is, drop his Fires, and lose the deal.

Thus they all landed, and made their way inland, where Pantagruel took good stock of the people as he gazed and listened. Then he made his way to a tavern, where he sought to take a cup of their good wine. Here a wedding was in process betwixt a female called Pear and a soft male called Cheese, which indicates that it is not always a union of perfect decorum, or profound precision, and is portrayed quite clearly by this plate, of the offspring that have been derived from the union.

(See plate below)

in following the Sun, they drove on and landed on the Island of Chely.

By Rabelais' description, we certainly have come to the shores of Byblos where Aphrodite arrived with the Wind blowing through her hair. This would be the eighth house, which either becomes the Fire of rebirth, or the pit of fall.

THE virgin was only taking on of a negative inflow of Fire, that would only result in offspring of a troublesome nature. For she was still abiding to the lower desire of life and not making a positive rebirth of Divine upliftment. Thus the results could never hope to make much expansion, and quite possibly never get through the seventh house or fall down the pit of red fire. She would never be strong enough to turn over the eighth house fire, into golden Solar Light rebirth. (See text above).

Then there followed a young brogue taking a young slipper for better or for worse, which would of course, bring finally into birth a being of an extremely weak character. All these states being created by the action of Venus, as she weaves the pattern on her loom of perception and belief for the first time.

Yet these states would be none other than the perception deducted by Pantagruel as he partook of the wine, which Venus had to activate while the Bull drove the issue up and down the spinal column. But at least, in being married up, was a state of union to be expanded, as the soul was fed by the Divine 'drip' drawn from the Breath by Pantagruel. Showing us of how one creation is the outcome of all twelve Signs inter-linking and inter-blending in the Preambulance.

Therefore Gods and limbs are akin to each other, and as the bloodstream, filled with this purpose, supplies each limb with fresh-blooded purpose, is there a rebirth afforded to each house and the Planets therein. While these planets are really rulers to all the signs, and would increase their value of status.

Thus Pantagruel in having partaken of the wine of this country, returned to the boat, and sailed right on before the wind. But in having passed through that house, he had become married up to a greater comprehension of the purpose he had set into motion. Thus as a being of all parts, he had forced the Bull into driving action of expansion. So now,

It was reigned over by king St. Panigon attended by the princes, his five sons, and as Pantagruel was conducted to his Palace, they beheld the queen and her daughters there to receive them. Panigon introduced them and directed her to salute Pantagruel and his men with a kiss.

While this royal custom was taking place, Friar John stepped aside and sneaked off among the king's officers, for no other reason than to fill the belly. But this has a far deeper significance, which we will be able to discern later on. Here we find that Panigon entreated Pantagruel to stay, but the Captain of this mighty voyage excused himself, upon the opportunity of Wind and weather. So took of some bumpers of wine and prepared to leave, for Pantagruel knew of the disaster of a delayed stay in the house of Scorpio, so sought to make for the fair weather acclaimed.

Therefore again it must be seen that all voyages forth on the waters and the going down South, are none other than the treading-in of the new-born wealth in the preambulance of the wisdom around the heavens, via the depths of the soul. Hence, whether by infinitisation or alchemicalisation, all is by such method of impregnation.

So when Pantagruel returned to Port to board the merry Roger, he found that Friar John was missing. When enquired into, Panurge could not find the means whereby to excuse him and would have gone forth to find him, when Friar John overtook them, merrily declaring, "Long live the noble Panigon," where as a monk, he had been stuffing and eating to his heart's content. For there he took of all he wanted and kissed ladies by galore. Even it seems, to some freedom of desires, which is explained in Friar John declaring "Beati immaculati in via."

This was where Friar John had used the 119th Psalm to suit his own ends, thereby had indulged at this delicate junction as a Hercules, fully performing the twelve feats without a strain of indiscretion. For here Friar John primes Venus both ways, and makes no sacrifice to gain the ascending point.

(See plate on page 6, cols. 1 & 2) Thus causing Venus to be over burdened, or was she to blame, since Panurge the Bull refused to fructify her with spermic light. It was obvious by the Plate, that Rabelais did not think so, but was the hidden religious state in the soul, that bore the tail of a demon, and would be the negative side of Scorpio. For upon all being gathered together, a discussion was set up as to why monks love to be in kitchens.

To the majority, this may sound foolish and childish, when in reality it had a deeper meaning, one declaring of difficulties to be avoided. To get through the house of Scorpio, having mastered the feats of Hercules, is indeed a feat of renown, whereby Taurus and Scorpio are blended up into potential expansion.

For Chely in Greek signifies lips, thus is the island of lips or compliments, a status very applicable to initiation, where the soul takes on of experiences, declaring it was necessary for the feat to be fulfilled, or offers the other cheek in a mistaken guise for sanctimonious goodness. When in reality is an action of cunning, to gain their means of purpose. This was the wrong moment for such an excursion, where everything must be truly embraced into the heights in a status of complete precision, that the arrow will be truly feathered and primed for the ninth house, to fly the beam of the Bull's Eye.

This was where Epistemon, the seeker of wisdom, went into the depths of the enigma, of how the Queen and the Princesses, had been instructed to salute Pantagruel by a kiss. Yet, while this was being performed, Friar John slinks into the kitchen, to partake of the culinary depths. Here we perceive the two extremes of Scorpio and Taurus, with weaknesses never captured, finding the means of expounding the wisdom in a way suitable to their own beliefs.

For this is where there is a sublimating of the Fires up and down the spine, as Taurus and Scorpio vie for the expansion

HERE was religious beliefs inciting the Venusian magnetic fire by adulation, but offering no wisdom to aid the expansion caused by the incitement. Hence the mind immediately resorts to food or lower desires to compensate the expansion. This was Rabelais' major complaint against religion, and as an Occultist and ex-monk, his complaint was fully justified, and had linking with the previous plate. (See text on page 5, col. 5).

of the Desire set into action. This is where the Diathermic heat, either expands all into the primed flying arrow that pierces the Bull's eye, or turns tail back into Taurus, into the lower desires. It either rises up as Spiritus Air, or turns back on itself as the waters in the depths. Hence Neptune is never raised up, and ever keeps Scorpio under the influences of the moon.

Thus with such a discussion fully accepted, they steered their course forward the next day, and passed through Pettifogging. A country all blurred and blotted, that one could hardly tell what to make of it. This is where we have to face up to facts as life presents itself at the present moment, for we have now arrived at the ninth house, where only earthy expansion has ever been applied, and still has the basic of the depths that it rise up from.

For all Signs have their polarity of Negative and Positive, thus Gemini is the basic of Sagittarius' possible expansion, that of the flying arrow. Therefore, the true expansion of Sagittarius is the Wisdom as now being offered to man, by the Hierarchical Powers of the Celestial Heights. For Lyra, the first decanate of Sagittarius is the seven-stringed Lyre of Vega. Therefore, when Pantagruel arrived here, they only found pettifoggers, those of rascally intent, catchpoles as bum-bailiffs, and rogues that would hang their father for a groat.

Here Pantagruel declares, "they neither invited us to eat or drink, but with a train of scrapes and cringes, declared they were at your service." Therefore, we do not have to go very far, before we recognise the ninth house, and those who have only gained their expansion by religious application. For the true expansion of these Celestial Signs has never been reached, but only expanded by religious dogma, through the Zodiacal manifestation of the signs.

This would be the lower degree of Jupiter in desire and earthy expansion of light. This also applies to the Sun in Sagittarius, yet also where the soul originally descended from, and is trying to send back to their Constellation, expansive wealth from the depths.

All expansion began from this basic, but only as the animal mind finding expansion through self-preservation. Hence its roots will be found to be Fauns, Satyrs, Centaurs and Pans, and since man will never turn to the three Mystics, these states often remain in the depths of a soul as a hidden status of undesirable weaknesses. These ever occurring when an aspect is made to a Planet inhabiting that house.

Only through Wisdom, such as Universal Philosophy, that is born from the Three Mystics, can such states be given their Mortuary Meal, and the way shown to the conscious mind, of how to obliterate such from their present status of growth and creation. Sagittarius is a Constellation that has not yet come up for its earth status of establishment, and when it does, it will come forth at a period when Vega will be reigning in the depths, as a Creation of Spiritual Benevolence.

As we go on into the intensity of our enquiry, we perceive a peculiar turn of belief, for Pantagruel in enquiring into their outlook, was told that where people at Rome gained an honest livelihood by poisoning, lambasting and murdering, the catchpoles earn theirs by being thrashed. Therefore, if they were long without a tight lambasting, the poor dogs with their wives and children would be starved.

To understand this better, if we perceive of how Sagittarius is ruled by Jupiter, which has relationship with Pisces, the Equinox of religion, we will comprehend what follows. Rabelais then goes on to explain of the monk who takes thumps and abuses, those who have affronted him impudently, and of which he endures in the name of religion. In this we will get a better comprehension of flagellation for Christ's sake, and the turning of the other cheek ribald theory.

This is where Rabelais refers to the Catchpoles as gyryn frogs, for by one applying their strength and energy to lash another, they are giving unto that one of their zeal and power. Thus as bastinadoes reap a harvest of introverted power, yet all being the tree growth of Sagittarius expansion, explaining more fully of how that born expansion, has not been of gyroscopic expansion, but earthy expansion of multiplicity.

Therefore now, the hopes of Sagittarian expansion are truly rich, for as one turns to the glory of Occult Wisdom, will they fulfill the Electrified Royal Wisdom of Neptune. The greatest expansion ever gained by Sagittarius has been that of dancing, which in the early ancient periods of Time, was perceived in its rightful purpose. For many Tribes and Sects performed dances around and before their altars, knowing full well that the frequency they were creating, would build up expanded vibrations that they could utilise for war and hunting.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.00 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

| Intelligencia | Apr. 8th The Power of Cosmic Control |
| Mar. 11th The Breath | Apr. 15th Theocratic Felicity |
| Mar. 18th The Profound Isotope | Apr. 22nd Vega Gyrate Sovereignty |
| Mar. 25th Theocratic Pace | Apr. 29th Cosmic Consciousness |

In fact the full understanding of this originated from the dance of the Stars through the heavens. While with the priestly college of the Sali, the ancient Roman dancing dervishes of Mars, there began the three dancing steps of the Arvalians, which became the three steps of the waltz. Which the Curetes and Corybantes followed in their sacred dances, with the Kabeiroi imitating the dance of the Stars, in those three steps being applied to their hymn-dances at their initiations. All this being the only expansion that Sagittarius has ever made, for mostly the Jupiter of Sagittarius belongs to the stock exchange or football pools!

But to comprehend more clearly of the wealth that was originally intended for Sagittarius, let us look into the words once applied to its possibility of expansion in Kubla Khan...

"Weave a circle round him thrice,
And close your eyes with holy dread,
For he on honey-dew hath fed,
And drunk the milk of paradise."

Then one can now perceive of what could be achieved by the true expansion gained from the Heavenly Vaults, from the full comprehension of Sagittarius. Where instead of merely being whirling Dervishes, becoming gyrate spinning-up minds in royal expansive belief.

So here we can see of what Rabelais was now seeking to convey to us, for Pantagruel in sailing from house to house in preambulation, on arriving at the ninth, only found of gyryn frogs, they who stole wisdom instead of seeking of their own expansion, by relinquishing old ideas. Thus literally, was the only heritage offered to him from his father Gargantua, therefore it was his task to expand it into true wisdom, gained by his own hard struggle of mind expansion and growth.

So this is where he must not be caught up by rebirth of its original, so Panurge and he get down to some deeper thinking, although we might perceive now of why Panurge was so steeped in fear of making expansion. It had reacted down through the four lower bodies, and saturated the earth with stagnancy. Therefore, Pantagruel and Panurge devise a scheme, whereby they are given a severe beating and are wedded up to a greater thought, which would be a greater expansion brought forth out of the wealth already gained.

Now this is where we have to see the twist that has to take place, so that the culprit deep down in the depths, is caught and brought to rebirth. Nothing must be destroyed, but reformed, buried-in by expansion and wisdom. So all the time, it now will be around monks and religious denominations, until the catchpole turns up, then they batter and bruise him until he is completely mortified, and his jawbone broken in three pieces.

This means, completely silenced, and would be the Gemini sign, the polarity to Sagittarius, coming out of its logical thinking, and embracing the expanded higher belief of Vega, the true Rhythm of the Diapasonic inflow. Thus, by this, the catchpole, all of a tiger-like stripe, crawled home and was buried-in. Here is a very limited rendering of the mortuary meal, but our task is not to go into multiplicity of detail but to see the depths in its true light.

Therefore the catchpole, naturally a vibration, is packed off on a blind Sorrel, whereby he called his 'one-eyed-mare', his lady and servants into the arbour of his garden, drank joyfully and told them the story. Even out of his limited expansion of failure, he rose up on the next Plane as a more exalted actor. For he took the name of lord of Basche and acted the high horse, for in the turning-in, this is what came out of its infusion. And although the religious catchpole was killed...

shown, for where in the establishment it was the Etheric, now it is being recorded in the conscious mind. In the Etheric it was Gargantua, the father of Pantagruel, who first began to break down the religious state in the Virgin mind for Occult truth to be established, so that the Virgin could be brought forth with child.

This was fulfilled, resulting in Pantagruel coming into birth as the Warrior. Now as that warrior, with Gargantua as the elevated fatherhood, Pantagruel now fully completes the change in the ninth house of Sagittarius. For by him making full elevation, he will pierce the Bull's Eye and set the Arc radiating with Light of true wisdom.

By the full understanding of such, will the conditions of Rabelais' period be completely polarised, with the Dove descending to bless the glory of the Royal expansion now being established. But as we further seek to expound and polarise the Works of Rabelais, we continue to see the changing states ensuing, as Pantagruel and his retinue make stay at the ninth house.

For many forms of nuptials are recalled and changes exercised, striving to ever find the precise point. That which is now found for the soul, in the molecularised lecture of the first page of the Gazette. For all wisdom taken is states of Law reformation, whereby the soul becomes reborn from starry light to Solar Glory.

Thus it seems that the catchpoles are a state of accumulated wealth taken as karma, but never truly defined, thus the soul ever in state of accumulating imprisoned knowledge, that causes the mount, the 10th house, to become a dump of multiplicity. Now by the help of the higher Wisdom afforded by the Spirit Teacher, we are actually given the Solar Point, which our own Divine Fellowship feeds us with, drip by drip.

So the next move, by this imprisoned Fire, was the catchpole taking down a swinging sneaker of Breton wine, as he took the thrashing of further reformation of belief, and declared to partially reformed Basche, "you do not give any mementoes of this wedding ceremony, you seem to forget all good customs. For we find the form, but the hare is scampered, also we find the nest, but the birds are flown. There are no true friends now-a-days."

Even tipping in the churches is stopped, that is, the affording of wisdom, which in the hare scampered and the birds flown, is the Law that the catchpole is demanding as the sensitivity, and the Solar Wisdom that could be returned to the heavens, both corporeal and Celestial.

Whereupon the catchpole turned, striking Basche and his lady, then her women and the levite with the reformation. Then all became a state of war in the rebirth, with the catchpole finally having his crown cracked in no less than nine places, as the Law was given its elevation into the Divine LAW.

While one of the bums had his right arm put out of joint and another jaw bone dislocated, and all retreated to taking fresh drink. But the whole affair was condemned to the "pit of hell", which was none other than complete rebirth for some, and partial comprehension for the others, as all descended down the descending colon, to be given rebirth into Spiritus Air of mind reformation.

Therefore a lesson was learnt, but the hard way instead of the first way intended, and now prepared by Hierarchical assimilation.

THE ripened blackberry, full of luscious Solar beauty.

Therefore the Sejan horse, the winged diathermic fire, became the answer to the congestion of illusion. But what little I can perceive of the depths, it has merely turned into common frogs and lizards, who merely steal wisdom for the sake of being worldly and clever. For it seemed, even after this revelation had died down, Friar John comes to the fore to seek for more.

Then Pantagruel declares, "This story would seem pleasant enough, but are we ever to have the fear of God before our eyes." "It would have been better," said Epistemon, "if those gauntlets had fallen upon the fat prior," for it seemed, that the wisdom found, was still tinged with religious turns of belief. For after much discussion of those who had gained some expansion in this direction, Friar John is still determined to seek into the truth regarding it.

So as he went on shore again, he declared in a loud voice, "Who will earn 20 ducats for being beaten like a devil." "Io, Io, Io," said all the catchpoles, "you certainly will cripple us, but the money is tempting." So one named Red-snout was chosen, who was unmercifully thrashed, then in receiving of his 20 ducats, got up and crawled away.

(See plate in cols. 3 & 4)

Then the rest turned to Friar John and said, "Sir brother devil, if you will beat us at less money, we are all at your devilship's command." While another called him Mr. Devil and reverend father in the devil, but Friar John had made a hasty retreat, and everyone learnt a greater lesson, as Friar John was uncovered and lost the day.

For the wealth gained received its supreme sensitivity and flew up into the Face of the Sun, and not back into the old religious state of Divinity. This being the Royal Glory of the Christed Divinity, the Mighty Glory of the Heavens. Thus the old religious root was completely cut out and buried-in, and Pantagruel became the victor as he pierced the Eye of the Bull.

THE Friar who took all and gave nothing in return, found he had over-stepped the mark, and what he had devised to gain more and more, now turned madly upon him. Thus the Law of Cause and Effect, demanding its toll in return

So there was no longer any pettifogging of the Law, by those who advocate one thing and carry out another to keep face with the neighbours. As all believed, so they carried out and went forth in the name of true Divinity. Therefore, after being cleansed and elevated, they all returned back to their Ships and set sail, this time to come to the two Islands of Tohu and Bohu, where a huge giant called Wide-nostrils lived.

By this, it is quite obvious that Rabelais was fully conscious of the drawing down of the greater Breath. Here it seems, this giant had swallowed every pan, skillet, kettle, frying pan and iron pot in the land, in lieu of windmills which were his daily food. Thus it is obvious that we now come to Capricorn, the swallower of knowledge, who utterly refuses to digest and bring forth of the internal nourishment, that will feed all with light and expansion.

For this is where all taken down into the depths to be alchemicalised into mind light, must now rise up to the heights, as the flying arrow in the ninth reaches its entire fulness in the tenth. Therefore, one day at the hour of his digesting, this greedy churl was taken very ill with crudity of stomach, his polarity of Cancer.

The physicians declared that although he could digest of pans, skillets and pots, he could not dispose of whole windmills. Therefore, by the hypostases and the amount of drink that he had taken, that was his trouble, and nothing could save him, for he had only swallowed in lunar perception and refused to make expansion up onto the Solar Plane of one-pointed truth.

Therefore, the famous Wide-nostrils died that morning of a strange death, that of the Solar creation. Yet it was predicted that it would be so, and although he fled to safety, in short Gaffer Wide-nostrils choked himself, with eating a huge lump of fresh butter at the mouth of a hot oven, and at the advice of the old physicians. Which was the diathermic heat enforcing expansion, and all the old states being buried-in.

But in reality, Tohu and Bohu literally means void and confusion, caused by taking too much knowledge, and not being able to bring it to elevated expansion that would bring the spirit into birth. Therefore it only resulted in the Fires 'frying and grilling' the soul through alchemicalisation.

AFTER all the struggle, the old religious beliefs were completely uprooted and turned over. Then Pantagruel, the Warrior seeking to establish the reborn Law, did so, raising up the heights of the Fatherhood.

The tenth house is where expansion must be made, and the Eagle soar up to the FACE of the Sun. Since all is created within the soul itself, this indicates that the knowledge taken and risen up as Fire, must be expanded into Light, so that it sails up to the heavens of the soul, and fills the Commissure with its Divine Elixir. This is where the Arc or Corpus Callosum becomes changed into electrification, and feeds the bloodstream of the soul with the drip of new-born life.

Yet where the mind becomes expanded, and a new crested warrior is ordained to go forth to tread the acclaimed wealth into the earth. But unless the soul has fully digested and assimilated the wisdom gained, no expansion will be made and all be a state of mind indigestion, causing chaos and confusion.

This would result in a state of 'stoning', sooner or later bringing a division, through all going down into the labyrinth, that of the twelfth house. Then with unfulfilled wealth, it would not be very long before the eighth house became inhabited, thus bringing a division between EGO and ego. Therefore, neither the mind nor the Arc are rejuvenated with sparking Uranian Fire, but badly engrossed with confusion.

Hence to help Gaffer Wide-nostril to get properly buried-in, he was given a lump of butter, or might of expansion, which completely expanded all and buried in the wealth consumed.

THE Solar Glory only found. In its preambulation, religious magnetic expansion, that in attempting to assimilate the royal Solar truth, became violently disrupted and badly shattered. Therefore in the 9th house of expansion, was a status of illusion ever trying to outwit Reality.

...he strode about as a gorballed prior. This was the only heritage bequeathed unto Pantagruel. But in being a delineator of Astrology, I know how true the intrinsic depths of this dissertation is, for these states are the underlying idiosyncrasies that are continually rising up out of the past, causing so much devastation to the soul who is struggling to master self. The only answer to this is the full understanding of Occultism, which shows the soul the way to truly bury-in these depths by mind expansion and polarisation of beliefs.

The Spirit Powers ever seek to rescue the soul, but unfortunately very few souls truly think, and are merely blind followers of others, therefore ever become a good prey to governments and thieves. When a soul stands upon its own two feet by vibronic struggle, they by the law of Growth, are nearer to God than they ever believe. For ever the struggle of expansion is the means to becoming, causing the internal Fire to ever become nearer and nearer to the full viricularised unfoldment of Divinity.

This to many will appear utterly ludicrous, but only because the depths of Sagittarius has never really been investigated; therefore Rabelais plays quite a lengthy dialogue upon this subject, striving to point out of the mistakes the egoist is prone to. For egoism is the subterfuge that many put into practice when they find difficulty in effecting expansion.

So it seems that where the catchpole took the lashings the way he did now in the expansion as lord Basche, he lived in luxury, but ever encouraged catchpoles to his house, whereby his wife and his steward lambasted him, and he took the effects. For as lord Basche, he sought into wisdom, but with a pious religious air of a religious bum; a stealer of power and kindly deeds to save souls and honour God.

SAGITTARIUS, ruled by Jupiter, was the final expansion that ever brought gorballed Priors into birth instead of Solar born Warriors of expansive truth. They who could uplift and expand the Sabbatical goat into the Aquilan Eagle. Thus bring the glory of the Solar Rays, infusing the depths of the soul.

This plate in itself, is now the relativity of that previously

WITH all being fully inaugurated, Uranus came forth and sought to test the depths of the Fire, that was now transmuted from magnetic into Solar, his would be the intrinsic depths of the Fire, as the FIRE within the Fire, coming forth to claim and take its hold in the Chromosomes of the blood. Thus the burning in of the new idea, that Neptunian expansive beliefs could come forth, as the 'Bow in the cloud'. (See text in col. 3).

THE NEW RACE ELECT

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

OWING TO CIRCUMSTANCES SET INTO MOTION in this Mighty Year of Establishment that LIFE, can be brought to a well prepared basic, we are doubling up the March and April issues of the Gazette, so as to keep the Word moving forth on the Vibronic Waveband. Therefore, to complete this effort, have placed into its Pages a part of a Dynamic revelation which THE MASTER has made known unto us. When seen in its intrinsic Depths, it not only makes clear much that has left us wondering, but also seeking earnestly to conceive. For GOD, the Supreme Source and Fount of ALL Being has been worshipped all through conceivable TIME, but never defined in any way, as to give the doubtful soul any tangible comprehension of what was truly that Mighty Magnitude. Yet one that covered all states of Thought, Belief or Sectual denomination. For there is only ONE Source which each belief defines in their way of perception, but what was that POINT from which Such sprang forth?

To be given the understanding that the Source was the Central Core of the Central Sun, with ITS Chromospheric Glory as its Intelligencia, was still very vague. But when we are given the understanding of such, entering our being as Breath of the Great Solar-Galactical Ether Glory, and becoming our internal Virility of Mind manifestation, we can understand a great deal better. "I and my Father are ONE". Therefore as I set this for the March-April Gazette, not only is Spring peeping through the unfolding Veil, but the 21st of March as the period of Abib, when the Green Ears first begin to come forth. Thus, what was the Divine Christ-Mass Rights, that were ours from the previous Year's endeavour, and became our rights of Horae Heritage, will now come forth within our own created faculty of an Atom, as Solar Mind possibility.

This means Easter is here, the time of all soul resurrection, but now moreso, for the Royal Atomic Fires are now interpenetrating every living being and created Seed. For the Royal Intelligencia, the Solar Glory, is filling every soul with New Life, and man is being born anew with Divine Atomic FIRE. For religion, with all its illusive nightmare of a god on a cross, died long ago, and man is now awakened to the truth.

This is obvious, by how many priests and nuns have abandoned its falsity, for it leaves soul with no answer.

Yet as the Great Master has advised up for some considerable Time, 1972 would be a memorable year, where a completely new Regime would be brought forth, and man perceiving the World from a greater outlook. To we who receive letters from all over the World, we know what people think, and what they are waiting for.

Well! here is a Dynamic Solution to this Great Mystery, which gives us our own independent means of achievement. But also solves the many major Points of our Principles as the School of Universal Philosophy, why these Principles MUST be rigidly obeyed, and the fact of a New World now born out of the old. That born out of Relativity of ALL that has been, bringing the Great Solution to Aquarius and its Mystical Atomic Sign.

With the ever confounding wonder of the Solar Orb as the New World in its constructive embracement of the depths, and the ever sought-for Mystery of Continuity. With the WHY of LIFE, and what we can and must achieve by struggle, endeavour and mastery.

Until man awakened to the fact that GOD was LIGHT, DIVINITY had never been born. All through the Ages man had beheld Deity, but never in the true conception, as Breath spermed and alchemicalised into LIGHT through the Brevity of man. Therefore, only saw Divinity in the light of Shamash, Saturn, the heart Chakra of wanting to believe and accept as far as they knew.

It was only when Merope was awakened and ready, that she perceived the truth, and declared Divinity as the Divine Solar Glory, the risen up Intelligencia of LIGHT. Hence rose her MIND up to the Solar Beauty, giving unto Mercury, who had been trailing the Sun, the Royal Glory of Solar manifestation as MIND. But to do this, she had to raise up the Spermed Cause in the Royalty of Plato, thus waited for Scorpion to Grace the Core of the Central Sun.

By this Divinity became the Glory of the MIND, as Merope assimilated the Holy Fire, forcing all men up onto their 6th Chakra Plane. This brought the Source to source being united, bringing the Cycle to a close by Relativity.

Thus Saturn, fallen Shamash, became transformed into LIGHT, and the Deity assumed its rightful place, as the Central Solar Galactical Glory. Whereby man, the son of GOD, as the recipient of mind, took the Breath, Spermed it into FIRE and became born of LIGHT. Hence by frequency lives up in the Glory of the Solar magnitude within his own Palatial abode, where this mighty FIRE now Sperms his depths, and is opening his conscious stubborn Saturnian mind, into awakening comprehension.

This is taking place through the reforming Genes, where the Commissure is filled with LIGHT from his revolving bloodstream, as it circles around the Circle of Willis.

This now is the motivation of the Liquor Sanguinis, Sperming the intelligencia of man into LIGHT. Here you behold the Genes taking on of the Parthens-Gemesis, the Glory of the Virgin son; he lifted up out of the animal state. This is where the Gene is taking on of the Protozoan state, whereby the red Fire of the magnetic is transformed into the full Solar Glory, that is filling the Commissure with LIGHT.

Therefore the Seed, the nucleus of the Fire, as of the Protozoa, is the unborn Fire, which holds the FIRE within the Fire. That which now in its Dynamic rebirth, via Merope's belief, is firing all the Genes into a GOD-born Race of Solar born Atoms. By so doing, the unborn states of past wisdom within the soul have been given their full status and have gone up into LIGHT and become cells of the Great Brain, the Solar Glory.

There in man, the Gene now, to the blood, is as the germ to the wheat, the fructifier. Whereby all the Praesepe Seeds, lost Phenomena Breath Element, of the intuitive Holy enceinte narrated frequency of the Holy Enceinte See, the Holy Glory of the Palatial Commissure. The Heavenly Glory of the in-born Divinity, now feeding the soul with Divine Holy LIGHT, of Beauties lost but now retrieved and GOD-born Virility Spermed, and spun up into Glory of the Divine Holy FACE.

This is where the Gene, as now the frequency of sound, has become of a one Voiced acoustic depths of a now Hereditary Virgin FACE Depths, of a Point Operative Unit, of Celestial full Atomic Radiant attunement. For now the Holy FACE is of Celestial Radiance, and the fully evolved Harmonious Hermeneutics have become the Forebear of the Positive state of Fire, as the Atomic pulsation now feeds the spontaneity with Sound Waves of Atomic Mind Profile Pre-ordinance

Here we behold the sun-flower Gene, that of radiational Uranian Fire, where the Holy Voice Box is the Timeless

ATOMIC GLORY

WONDERS untold, Glory Divine, is the message of this Royal Holy Easter, when Life anew is born to all, to gravitate to the Royal Solar Union. (See text in col. 1).

in the Cancer depths, are now finding rebirth. So he who awakens and perceives God as LIGHT, and that he is living in the Glory of Divinity, will find his Genes becoming his extra sensory perception. Unto Merope, her forming Voice box. Thus through her elevation in perception, all the Race Elect have been elevated up onto the Neptunian Plane.

Thus Merope became the Mother of GOD, for HE could not be born until HIS Breath and FIRE were elevated up into LIGHT. Until then, Saturn in his fallen state existed only.

This has now brought the elevated cosmic conscious depths of the Pube, the created being of this New World, into the whole Atomic mind creation of the Source. Where all is built upon the forged Heavenly Spheres, the inborn Virility of LIGHT. This is the true Atomic gestation, as the Gene now becomes radiationally a full Phenomenal Power Profile, an incentive enceinte reality of GOD-born LIGHT.

This now becomes of the profound durability of a Cosmic Chromolithic Breath Phenomenal Glory, to become the full FACE unification of the Voiced Radiational Seed momentum. Here is the Positive state of the FIRE, as the Bull drives the issue and the sun rises up between his Horns, becoming the Holy Glory of his Thalamic Ganglion.

Where his Pituitrin is filled with Holy LIGHT and his quiver is arrayed with arrows of the swiftest flight. While the stag as the unicorn now bounds across the Planes, and pierces the atmosphere with Divine momentum. For here is the FACE radiation, of Vega Virile Virgin Law. With each Sun-flower Gene as a Chariot of the Central Sun, feeding all with the Royal Effulgent Depths, of the Great Grand Man's Divine Heavenly Monstrance.

Where the Radiational Neptunian Waters fill the heavens with Holy LIGHT, and the Glory of the Earth with Virility. Where Divinity, the LIGHT of BEING, becomes the radiance of the morning, as Aurora opens the Azure Sky with the Glory of the Dawn. For soul is now born of immortal sensitised Solar Sun-flower Light, the Divine Magnitude of the Heavens.

Thus as Aurora dances across the heavenly Planes and sets the God-born frequency of Radiational Delight, does the Chariot of the Morn come into sight, driven by that God-born Apollo of the night. The Bull now Orion born, girded with the Sword of Truth, and the Golden Helmet of Eagle Plumes, the momentum of Holy Divine Flight.

For now the Breath, the Breast Plate of expansive Phenomenal Grace, has become the Atomic active Belief of the soul who is now in the Over-shadowing forged Depths, of illustrious Holy enceinte creative Virgin mind. Where the Gene-born glory Fires the soul into Heaven-born Light, the mystical Wonder of Divinity.

For all now has been granted a phenomenal Gyrate explosive virtue, of Supreme elevated Majesterial Presence. Whereby all has become of a sensitised Ethereal Breath contact, and the Holy See becomes the Gravitational ascending birthright, of all phenomenal Supreme abound.

For as the Virgin horses came bounding over the hill, they approached the Region of FIRE, there to drive into active momentum of a Virility of viricularising Light. Fructifying the corn into Royal Divine Germination, the mission of every true-born Priest. That as an agent of that Mighty Force, he can awaken the sleeping Serpent in the depths, that it can carry that Royal illustrious Pearl, up into its Casket of LIGHT. For now the Gene in its colourisation, is of the authentic reverberating Voice acoustic, giving forth of the Source of Sources.

Therefore, with wonders untold, Glories to be revealed that hold the Creme of the Mystery of Time, and why soul trod its Path. Why Gods rose and Gods fell, but man, the moving Pawn of active momentum, went rolling on like a bounding stone, gathering the moss of Life. The magnetic fuel that drives the Fire into a roaring gauge of heavenly ascension, spinning up as that Great Grand Dame, into the arms of the Great Grand Man, the Fired Glory of the heavens.

(See plate on this page)

There are many souls upon

ARISE O! MAN

OUT of the swirling darkness he beheld the LIGHT and his heart rose up to its Divine Call, where LOVE for the first time sprang up as the Flame of his awakened god-sleeping mind. (See text in col. 1).

the Earth who are of considerable growth, and could now open up, by this now inflowing Holy Breath. For this then would be the Length, Breadth and Depths of being and becoming, which formulates the Sperm of the Holy manifestation within that soul growth, whereby the Atomic Seed would now radiate his being, and soul become born anew. For all is continuity, where soul-life becomes and establishes the glory of expansion.

For here is the miraculous Depths of the now awakened Solstice Points of focalising Phenomenal Powers, as that of the Pure Octavial challenge of a Supreme Seer in the depths. He that could now manifest the Pure stimulus, through the radiating Seed, the Glory of unfolding Light; the mystery of Partho-genesis, that of immaculate conception. Where the full focalisation as that of a true radiational Phenomenal Glory of a forged fountain of true Etheric Desires, has now become of a Celestial Over-shadowance of Theocratic monumental Breath Depths.

He now of a Pure Pube Propensity, radiating its depths far and wide, as an Atomic Seeded Pulse-beat sensitivity of a conscious Desire-born deity. This is where the magnetic earthy mind now becomes the Solar born mind, that brought forth out of the impregnating Solar Breath unfolding that of the pitch-blended elements in the cells of soul's past growth.

This is where the ancient magnetic gene, that of the forming mind, is transformed into the Solar Gene, that of the Solar radiating mind. For in that Preambulatory drive, in passing through the 8th house, the house of reborn generation, either fully becomes Fired with Golden Solar Fire of Uranus, or fails to fully unify by mastery, and all falls into the pit of red Fire, that of the moon in Scorpio, the old past states intensified.

This is where the Genes either become of regeneration from magnetic to Solar in this Divine Rebirth, or merely bring forth of past generation. For the Genes now, under Solar rebirth are the Chromosomes' complex molecules, that now determine the rebirth pattern of hereditary unfoldment. Thereby causing a new Causationary Stream to start from past growth. What has to be realised, is that the radiation of the Solar Preambulation, now reforms the Genes and produces mutations, new species, or hobgoblins, according to the 8th house rebirth.

Therefore your task is to fire these Genes into an electrified state, by action of thought, and drive, augmented by spinal focalisation of the Bull, and bring the Pube into birth. This is the immaculate conception of Partho-genesis, that of the Virgin son. Whereby what was only once genes of Starry creation, now have become Genes of Solar creation, focussed by the infinity upon the Solstice of the radiating Commissure.

This is the ganglion infinity, that in its revolution, is ever in a radiating status of viricularisation, making way to continuity and immortalisation. For here in the Breath impregnation, has been born the Cosmic Conscious Desires of the free-thinking supreme intelligencia of a Christos celestial propensive mind.

announcements, which is the grand finale to the ministry beginning. When Moses in his day approached the Mystery of the Fire in the bush, he was warned beforehand to take off his sandals, "for the place whereupon thou treadest is Holy Gound."

This is very difficult for man today to understand, for the world has become so dense and worldly, holy places are beyond the power of their mental conception. In fact there are very few Holy Places left in a world so completely dyed red.

But to those who do understand this, they soon become fully aware that they cannot approach the sacred Mysteries without reverence and awe; then in this spirit the genuine disciple and candidate make their approach to where the invisible Fire burns perpetually on the Altar, whereby Holy communication is taken by those who can make the unity complete.

The mystery of the Fall is still with man as a mental and physical disease, for it is this which is ever re-occurring in greater degree, and which involved the alienation of the individual from the wisdom of the Godhead, and now renders the necessity of a reconciliation, for man to complete his destiny of life.

If this was not so, why do even the most biased of creatures cry out in their dire distress, and quite unwittingly, "God help me", if this was not the way. Unfortunately man only knows what religion has taught him, and this is the sole crux of the trouble; for if man had been given the truth from the beginning as the real outcome of Pauline's investigations, the world would have been an entirely different place today.

The knowledge of God is far more metaphysical than man realises, and if this wisdom could be approached from the more scientific and less religious, far greater understanding would result. Then those who were ready to enter into the Holy Place of Mystery would prepare themselves through the preparation made, and would investigate in the right spirit.

Actually there is really no Mystery, for it links with the innermost growth of man; the real Mystery is in knowing how to handle the Power once it is drawn down into man's innermost being. For once it is released it becomes his responsibility, and he must handle it; he cannot pass it on to another.

The particular act whereby this surrender is consummated and demonstrated is termed the crucifixion. If need be, it must be to the "death" of the old self and the birth of the new; then new life can come to the world. It must be performed without any opposition, even in desire on the part of the natural man; for without these steps there is no attainment. And if this is reasoned out logically, man cannot become one with the Spirit until he has utterly vanquished the "old Adam" of his former self.

Then you may say, "How can one soul make so much difference in the world?" As soon as anything is earthed, it becomes a finished particle as far as the Greater Powers are concerned, and must make a complete circumpolar return. Then immediately the vacuum must become filled, and new life is sent down to replace that completed. Although this has been placed into words of simple measure it is far more scientific than it appears, for it links with vibrations and Rays that measure and fill the universal maelstrom.

The Ascension which has seemed such a mystery to mankind, and with which the drama terminates, is that of the whole Man being absorbed into the "nugget of gold" being formed by the man as the philosopher and alchemist of life. That gained through hard struggle in experience, is now regenerated to the soul's own celestial kingdom within himself, and who becomes no longer a slave to matter and senses. But one who can wing his mind into heights of knowledge and find those joys which belong to the freed mind.

Many trod the Path of old, for man was less worldly then and more aware of what and who God was; yet ironically enough, not so near to God as the prodigal son is today. For then the journey was not consummated, in that the "way of life" was still unfathomed.

The Early Fathers were those who endeavoured to repeat the message of Pauline, and their deeds have formed not only religious themes, but many mystical legends have originated from their struggles. Therefore all old myths and legends should be carefully searched into, for they hold truths that are vital and living; the difficulty is in the deciphering, for much covers their message.

In the actual Gnostical teachings, which are very rare to come by today, you will find that the power and the resurrection to be gained by the soul, comes first through the action of innermost acceptance, that the path they are treading is not personal but cosmical. The preparation in the first place is far more physical than mental, and begins by self-discipline causing the Kundalini fire to rise and make a complete arc of the brain, whereby the soul fertilises to the full his own innermost solar system.

Here you have the mystical age of thirty-three years being obtained as the sacred Fire transverses the thirty-three vertebrae of the spinal rod. When this is complete in the fullness of its true meaning, the Jesus or Messu is born. Having been, in the mystical sense of terms, immaculately conceived, and born of a king's daughter.

This explains the mystery of Moses (the Law) being rescued from the waters. The lower law redeemed from the waters of matter and blended with the upper Law; all experiences baptised with water as understanding and fertility, and finally with Fire, that comprehension and complete acceptance takes place.

To fulfill to the full, the soul is tempted in the wilderness as a scapegoat, that the world can become enriched, and the weaker brother be given sustenance. Though usually it is the "Judas" that administer the crucifixion that follows. But here again the soul must learn to say, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do"; and many an hour, until fully established, will be spent in "crying over Jerusalem".

The soul now crucified and buried in density of suffering that new life can come into matter, bears the five wounds of the Cross he is carrying; and is more or less the five lower mundane senses being crucified to be reformed on a higher plane of existence. By this the soul has answered the riddle of the Sphinx; not in the mystery as the written riddle, but the mastery of the Bull gaining supreme stability. The man becomes Osirified as divine Apis, through the Lion-power being transmuted into the mind light as the redeemed Atoms of the Hierarchs.

That to be revealed as the inner Mystery of Aquarius, as the second Advent, is not the man Pauline returning, but the establishing by practice the religion that man has been reciting for 1,500 years. This is not chastisement, but the Law dispensed and fulfilling itself in the law made new. An "Eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" revised into "As ye sow so ye reap", or "not one jot or tittle will pass away until all is fulfilled", and now in its triune rendering as the Law of Relativity fulfilling itself through cyclic growth in the Aquarian Age.

The microcosm in its establishment into matter was a live, living essence with an inner consciousness of self, the lunar creation, called by many Atlantis. Since then he has been seeking the establishment of the solar creation where he can be transplanted into a living Reality and not a canting belief.

For God to man is within his own mind as his creation of the Vast Unknown, the Illimitable Heights; therefore establishes within his being the whole immensity of worlds and he becomes created in the image of God. But this necessitates more than just believing and is the prerogative of the Adept.

Draco the Royal Dragon

NOW AS PROMISED, WE ARE SEARCHING INTO the Dynamic depths of the Royal Dragon Fire. So to understand this Mystical Fire, we shall have to gather in many points from all directions to find the one-pointed answer of Cosmogony. Then we will have consumed a Nut Point from the Solar Glory, at the Solstice of Anthropogeny. I will try to make this as simple as possible, so that many points of Truth can be awakened in the student's mind. The first thing is to get a line up of what the Dragon's Head and the Dragon's Tail consist of. Actually they represent the Moon's Nodes, where the Path of the Sun and Moon cross one another, and the Planets that are touched on that Path, either become Fired into Solar Fire, or remain in the magnetic. Where the Serpent lies across your chart, will it denote the amount of conscious Fire consumed and your present lesson to be learnt, that you can become fully born of Divine Hierarchical Christed Grace.

This is the Mighty Fire of the Heavens in the Breath, that in coming to the Earth takes on of the Vibrations of the Word, and has to be mastered by the soul as he consumes the Breath, and be brought back to its Divine Glory, in its resurrected Divine status within the soul's Hydrogenised mind growth. This is the driving of the Chariot of the Sun by the Horned Solar Bull. To help this, let us take an example chart:

I have chosen my own Nativity, whereby I will be able to explain the point more fully and simply. The Dragon's Head is in the Fourth House in the third Decanate of Sagittarius, while the Tail its polarity, is in the tenth. The former, the Fire of mind and Spirit gained in belief, indicates everything to do with the Home in every direction, as well as new beginnings in the soul's efforts to grow. So it was reminding me that I had never operated such before, and was now ready to start; but if I did not, Uranus would strike and affect my legs. For with the positive there is always the negative, so you either fulfill your Destiny, or suffer.

Well, how true all this has been, for when a little girl, I used to sit with my young brothers at my father's knee, and listen to his superb wisdom. He was an artist, but most of all, a self-taught Philosopher, and not forgetting, a staunch Socialist. I suppose these days you would have called him a Theocratic Communist; but certainly memories I shall never forget, for they gave me a backbone which I never would have possessed but for him, and which has stood me in good stead all my life. For in those days, this was very daring and something that needed a lot of courage, but my schooling ground in this life, therefore a good parent.

Here I learnt all consciously that prepared the way for this School to be brought into birth, whereby through his guidance, I have helped many. But also a Creation that the Higher Powers accepted and made their Channel of Rebirth. Therefore, my father's Cartouche was the insignia of my endeavour, and an example I have ever tried to pass onto others.

This was my first move, my next move was marriage, which like all things was of the Path of Destiny, for here we learn by and through the Law of Attraction; never doubt this, and it will make things easier. Again it was a fight for existence, as indeed it was at my birth, where my mother had not wanted her coming offspring.

So again, here was another fight under Uranus, this time to maintain a fight for truth, or peace and quietness at any price. With Mars in the Mid-heavens, and the growth I had made, in fact prepared, to fall to be subjected to earthy luxury out of sheer comfort, was not in my vocabulary of comprehension.

So I performed my first task and cleared my Eye posterity, brought three sons into birth, who were ordained to serve me, and waited for the Higher Powers to find a way out of my very distressing opposition. But never once did I relax my belief, but found every opportunity to coach my sons in the Destiny that they had come back to fulfill, by the example set to me by my father. But the blood of their father was not "Grade A", and it did not match the blood of my father, to fulfill the task that they had come back to perform.

So here once again, was where vibronic right would have to prevail, that I could continue my objective. Thus the Home, where my Dragon's Node was situated, with problem after problem to be mastered. But by this time, I met one who was also seeking, and we became partners in the School, that began under the instructions of the Higher Powers. Here again, I followed the Direction of the Great Ones, which is very much reverse to our ideas of life, for they do not suffer with convention, therefore we are merely pawns of service, until we make ourselves indispensable.

Warranting myself worthy, and after many tests, the next move was to a greater house,

REBIRTH

THE intrinsic inter-birth and rebirth of the heights into the depths, where the soul masters the Dragon Fire, and transmutes it into mind comprehension. All being established as the growth of the Atom, as the being assumed mind brilliancy. (See text in col. 5).

time arrived when I was freed and considered primed enough to begin my objective, which not only justified my actions, which under Uranus are always stringent, but was ready to step forth onto the hard road that lay ahead.

All this being a further testing under the Planets of the fourth house, particularly the Dragon's head. For by now, much was being verified, and there was no doubt about it, the Higher Powers had singled me out as a competitor on a future Road as a possibility for rebirth.

After further testing, the big step began, but with only one son turning into the direction of service. But again, always taking place in the house of where a more evolved School began, but still in the Home. But this time, with the Greater Powers finding the wherewithal for this to be established.

It was then that I knew that there was more to my Dragon's Nodes than I fully was aware of. While the Path of Destiny was in the sixth house, close on the cusp of the seventh, which meant Intuitive Wisdom that would bring New LAWS into birth, if I could make it. While the new School being large enough for many to shelter under its roof and learn, with the Great Powers taking full control.

From here every religion, sect and metaphysics have been investigated, until the Great Master, born out of this New Path of Belief, formulated Theocratic Universal Philosophy. But never a Spiritualist school, but an Occult School, where the Ancient wealth was to be polarised and unified by Relativity.

It was here that the Divine Fire of Rebirth was going to be brought to the Earth, and the whole of the lower Planes lifted up onto the Higher Planes of the Abstract Mind. All lifted up, back onto the Plane of Neptune, with Uranus as the Sparking Arc. Thus what Noah put into operation at the beginning of time, I polarised in Atomic Fire, the fulfillment of the promise.

Then the next dramatic move on this journey, was where I had to face a very severe test; would I embody the Configuration and Polarise the Myths of the past. To do so, it would entail the discarding of all earth status, as indicated by my Uranus, so that by driving the Chariot of the Sun, I could eventually go back "HOME". To do so, I had to become a Scapegoat, and like Ixion, would have to go onto the Wheel of Divine Rebirth. Whereby I would become immortal and never descend back to the Astral Planes anymore.

Therefore, as the Prototype, I would make way for the whole of the Race to become gods once again. For I was given to understand through the Hierarchical Teachings, that only by going onto this Wheel, could any soul obtain Continuity and Immortality. Otherwise ever a status of death and rebirth in the hard labour of a physical body.

I had enough sense to know that the World was destined for a dramatic change, and I wanted to go with it, so I chose the Path which by now I knew was ordained for me. But as many know, the task was so dynamic, and the helpers few and far between, that the strain of the Change-Over on my Nervous Vascular system was enormous, for the son ordained to help me, was fitted for this task, but became a fallen Phaeton. Therefore, like Atlas, I am carrying the weight of the World on my shoulders, as the Hierarchs use my Uranian Power to change the Laws of the Earth.

So here was the Home with ever new beginnings, as the Karmic Nodes worked out the Path of Destiny. This took place as my Moon, my conscious self, activated the incoming Fire, with my thighs carrying the full weight and ruled by Sagittarius, taking the change over. But being a Scapegoat, that Divinity could be relieved from the Vicarious Atonement that man was applying unto him, a sacrifice had to be made, then the objective is Blooded by the willing sacrifice of one who believes in the Point being established.

Not the destroying of others, as exemplified by past religions in their sacred wars, but by the creator of such a belief willingly suffering, that it can live and enhance mankind. The outcome to this was my tenth house, where my mind would be raised up to its Solstice Point, then as a Woman I would be wedded to the Christos, the Glorious Solar magnitude.

I have gone into these details to not only prove my point, but also in compliance with the request of one who wished me to give yet further details regarding my effort to become fully initiated and established in the Wisdom being advocated by the Great Hierarchical Powers. For as the accepted Scapegoat, all Laws have been Atomically reborn and raised and established thereby. The one in question had proof of this, so asked that I would corroborate of what they have been advised by those attached to them.

In the past, particularly in the lore of the Eastern Myths, a quaint legend was established. It seems that Rahu, a demon, was esoterically the Danya Gura, an instructor of the giants. The lower part of the body of this Deity was said to be like that of a dragon. Yet Rahu the differentiating Higher Powers kept himself immortal, by robbing the gods of some of their Amrita, the elixir of divine life, for which they were churning the ocean of Milk.

This being the Akasa, the Primic Magnetic Cosmic Root substance, the generative fire of life. But unable to deprive him of his immortality, Vishnu the ruling god at that time, exiled him from the Earth and made him the Constellation of Draco, that of Lucifer in his negative state. His Head being Rahu and his Tail Ketu the polarity Nodes.

During an eclipse, it was said that he swallowed them, but in reality, it is the Power of the Celestial Heights descending down in its Solar Prismic Glory, that now coming forth from Scorpio as reborn Spermed Generative Breath, which escapes up to the mind of the soul, by the fluidic Breath becoming the embodied Word, and the diathermic Spiritus Air taking on of Divine Consciousness.

In other words, Saturn that Seythes away the soul, by and through the struggle of experience, that the Solar cosmic conscious Mind could come into birth. Only by such, can man be born once again as a god. But to lessen this difficulty, the Hierarchs devised a Scapegoat, who under their instructions changed the Laws, and raised man up, so that he only had to transform his conscious mind and not his Divine Consciousness.

This was being righted by the Breath, which the Scapegoat was bringing forth by re-establishing the Laws of the Cosmos. This is why there is so much chaos at the present moment, for Lucifer as T. Heath, is striving to make the old laws remain! While the Hierarchs are flooding the earth with the reborn Laws of Fire, breaking down those deeply embodied with Saturn states of possessiveness and lasciviousness.

These being the Dragon's Nodes that embody the chart of every soul, and of which he has to wrestle with, to transform the lunar mind of logical desire, up unto the Divine Consciousness, that of Intuitive Desires. This Plate is the description that goes with the Myth.

(See plate on this page)

The Elephant represents the Almighty Power of the Heights, while the seven headed white horse is the Virgin Cosmic Fire coming into birth, by Vishnu seeking to master the Dragon Fire. The Tortoise is the slow moving word being digested out of the Breath by the soul, bringing forth the manifestation of the mind. This would be the treading in of the Belief by alchemicalisation, until the soul is versed in wisdom, and finds instantaneous perception.

On one side is the Moon and the Four Cardinal Points of the Four Elements, becoming four-square, the soul building a four-square basic, that he can establish a trine, a pyramid of rebirth. Then to eventually polarise it from the etheric into the conscious, by placing the top on the Pyramid in an opposition of struggle.

Therefore, on the other side are the demons, good or bad, according to man and his weaknesses, but actually the Power in its opposition to man's idea of establishment. All taking place through the drive of the serpent fire, to become the Spiritus Air. This has to take place through the Horned Bull bringing the Solar Light manifesting between his horns.

The Lotus Pillar is the pillar growth, with Vishnu as the crowned Higher Mind directing the issue with reborn ideas. The Waters are filled with Lotus opportunities, while in the fore-part of the picture, are the male and female issues of the soul, who must embrace the winging bow, to be endowed by Vishnu through the Drip. This would be equal to the Holy Residence in our Commisure, yet in all this, we must not forget the golden horned bull, waiting to rise up, and get down to driving and activating the stagnancy of the Fire, for he is the activator of all life and its reborn problems.

Rahu the Dragon's Head can exert an influence similar to the Sun, but only when you receive such Wisdom as set by the Hierarchs through Merope, can the Solar Light in any degree manifest; but that can be well understood, since it is the Fire of the Heights, interblended with the Chromolithic Fire of the Sun. While Ketu the Dragon's Tail produces the outcome of what is set into motion by the Head, by laying eggs in the nest of the opposition.

In the Dragon's Head activating my fourth house, it produced my service in the tenth, but most of all my mind. Giving me royalty of Ascension through Pluto onto the Neptunian Plane through Neptune in the 11th house, the house of the Spirit. The latter had untold possibilities, anything from the risen Spirit unto the electrifying of the Arc, because of my Uranus in the 4th.

But what if I had failed to do so: for one thing Uranus in the fourth would denote divorce from all earthly matters in any case, with Scorpio upon the cusp of the fourth bringing womb trouble and severe strokes. As well as the loss of my mind through the striking; as it is, at the age of 71 I have my mind greater than ever before, the way and Power of Ascension, consequently Continuity. So it was worth all the struggle, and very satisfying once I became fully convinced of what I was achieving.

Yet very few will, or do understand this Great Message of the inbirth of the Solar Fire through our own struggle for life. Its great intensity is only truly understood by China, who in its Ancient past, held the secret of its infusion through their Fire festivals.

Yet it deals with the Mighty Mystery of Hiram Abiff, Osiris and Typhon, George and the Dragon, Paul's struggle in Ephesus, Siegfried and the Illuminati's struggle to become, while it incorporates all the seasons, the Festival days of the Gods, particularly Easter and Christmas, at the period of rebirth and the resurrection of the soul.

The next Point to fully comprehend, is how the third Decanate of Sagittarius becomes the Mighty inborn Fire of the soul. The ninth house is the house of mind expansion, where Pollux in Gemini, the 3rd house of the logical mundane mind, hands to Castor, the comprehension of the gathered Belief, that she can wing it up to the heights of Sagittarius.

I say "she", because it does not just go across the chart, unless you have gained instantaneous perception. But into the sixth house, where the harlot becomes the virgin with child, then from the sixth to the ninth, which are the hours of darkness and crucifixion.

Perhaps this will bring to many the full comprehension of how important it is to discard all false religious idioms, that destroy all of the wonderful truths of the early established roots. For it is from the 3rd to the 9th, the structure of the mind, that all our past states have been rooted. Where Centaurs, Pans, Fauns and Titans have rooted our base, and can only be buried-in by expanded Wisdom. This is where Sagittarius can produce 'con men or devout thinkers.

This as the ninth house of the chart is of Sagittarius the winging Archer, where the Eagle, or entombed elevated Fire, is waiting to soar up to the FACE of the Sun. But after, by sheer will and determination, the down-pointing Altar of the 2nd decanate, in feeding the depths with burning Fire, is turned upwards from outer darkness into light.

Now the moment comes, the archer wings the bow, and the arrow speeds forth, pierces the Eye of the Bull, and the new birth catches the Plumed Glory

This is the mighty joy that one feels when the hidden Point is struck, and the whole of the nervous system quivers with the joy of the octaval resurrection of the Spirit. For Draco is sent up to the heights of the mind, as winged elevated blossomed Solar Fire. This then necessitates going forth onto the Waters; that is, treading-in of the wealth that now is flooding the mind with Light.

Thus you preambulate the heavens by going down south, and the whole of the soul is born anew, as well as the revolving ganglions becoming the reborn infinity. For here is not only the conscious mastery of the Dragon, but also Cetus the Leviathan and the seven-headed Hydra. All can be completely reborn in the one swift stroke of the elevated Fire.

This is the message all through the Bible, of how to master the Holy Fire, and it being crucified into the Solar Glory. Where there will be a rebirth of the Seed of Woman, by the crushing of the serpent's head, that it can lay its eggs in the nest of the tail, as seen in the example chart. Then the feminine status of the soul is transformed into the Father-depths, as we and religion comprehend depths, but a going forth into expansion.

Where the soul should have embraced sensitivity, but fell in love with sensation. This caused the soul to forget its mission and vow of purpose, and lost its outlook of light. After a long period of Silence, the FACE of God, that created up to date by the gods, hovered upon the Waters, and the god, now an earth-born soul, began to rise up after that Fall, whereby the Loves came into birth.

These all being Feminine states of magnetic Fire born out of the differentiation into experience and matter. These would have only been of a mesomorphic creation, compared to what we are at the present moment. Yet, even in its captivity status of becoming, the Fire, already with the soul growth, could not remain idle, but it was not sufficient to start a state of expansion. Thus merely took on of Hermaphroditism, applicable to the Myths of Hermaphroditus and Salmacis. So Merope danced down the Fire from the Virgin Heights, so as to start the soul into a status of mind unfolding.

Here is where she drew the Divine Godhead into birth, yet that was now fast solidifying in the intense darkness that was with them.

But the Fire can never remain silent, if so, working in the darkness of secret places, causing those more adventurous than others, to begin seeking into creative expansion, for self-preservation was demanding life. By this activity, they began to lift up the darkness, by bringing the Starry Heavens into action, and the Stars began to dance. So much so, that they built up Solar Light in the heavens, through the Orion Constellation of the Great Bull Creator. Thereby slowly bringing light into the World, as the Occult Mysteries of the Past created their dynamic wonders.

Those Ancient Depths as Intelligences of that time, were being stirred by their internal heritage, ever reincarnating by ascension and differentiation of the lower Planes. For they still held their god-like growth that gave them a status of longevity, for the Ancients of the past were far greater than the foundation of Life.

Therefore, as they drove on, partly aware of what they were doing, they slowly brought into birth of potential mind and Spirit, which gives us a fuller understanding of Cain and Abel. For internal Fire was seeking outward Fire, of a similar status to their growth as gods. Then those, more adventurous than the others, sought yet deeper, looked up toward the heavens, and by their Desires became "hooked" onto the Solar Ray, the Divine inflowing Prismic Glory, and began to draw it into birth. For it is always like the soul, god or otherwise, to seek for something more, via the restlessness of the possessiveness of Saturn, which predominated over them as desire.

These souls, by their Solar Birth expansion, became termed the sons of God, growing an appendage suitable to meet their limited desires and beliefs. Hence as always stated by Merope, once a male always a male. Yet here was where the old adage came into birth, as the feminine state sought for that Fire to fortify them, 'the sons of God becoming married to the daughters of men,' a Lilith.

(See plate on page 12)
Here the whole of Creation changed and intensified, and gender took over, for with these intelligences growing the male appendage, humanised soul began coming into birth. Yet it is here where it must be seen of how this soul, now as a masculine creation, was born of the deeper intensity of the Breath, and was the being with the Gene, the Seed within their Solarised Sperm. Therefore, what had been the Eye in the heights, that of the Cyclops, had now fallen to the depths as the prostate organ and the Ray that pierced it only seeded it with physical generative life.

By this, woman, the feminine creation who had not reached forth sufficiently, became seeded in the polarity, holding the seed of the magnetic, the ovum, through the interjection of the Fire from the now male creation. For by interjecting them with the Seed from the Heights, it changed the Law in the depths, and woman became seeded by the Breath, but in a negative way. This is where Genesis 3 states that she must be beholding to her husband, and by her conception, bring forth children until she clears her karma.

Now let us look to how and why, all these states of the past have now become to what they are by this Atomic rebirth. First we have to perceive of how the whole of the body is made up of cells, and every one is full of Chromosomes brought

THE RISING SPIRIT

THE soul discarding the states of earth, that the royalty of the Spirit can rise, bringing the heaven-born mind into birth, where the Glory of the FIRE can truly come forth, and give unto the soul the basic First Breath of the declared Belief, in its Royal untrammelled Glory. (See text in col. 3).

as the Eagle is freed. Thus speeds up to the heights of the soul's Arc, sets it alight and enters into the starry depths of the Commisure, where the Solar Glory bursts forth.

The most profound Glory of this can be found in the 20th Chapter of Samuel, verses 33-42, where Jonathan the Fire sent an arrow forth and told the growing state to run and find it. But he must get there at the same time, otherwise it would be lost. Thereupon David rose up, bowed to the earth three times, and exceeded, finally stating, "the Lord be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever."

hood, the new-born Race.

But to do this, the Bull must drive as the golden horned Bull, that he can now draw the wealth up from Scorpio. Then the wealth in the Archives of the soul, the coccyx of the tail of the Spine, will give forth of its Ancient wealth, that all can go up as electrolysis to the heights of the mind, the electrified diathermed Breath and archived depths.

Now let us come to a more intrinsic depth, where we can witness the mighty mystery of Parthenogenesis, the immaculate conception of rebirth. Where firstly a clear understanding of the Fall must be conceived, not a fall into the creation that only she knew, for it was a Divine Belief that had to become a reality in soul Belief and Divine Adoration. This brought forth the Divine FIRE within the Fire, that came down, and pierced the heart of the soul who partook of it, bringing into birth an internal Seed Growth.

This was to be the intended incentive to set the encroaching cosmogenesis into active mind creation of anthropogenesis. But in setting the Diathermic heat into action, it turned into desire and not Desire. Thus the whole of the Race fell another seven fathoms into the density of Matter, with all turning into an Animal-Human. One lost in the lasciviousness of the flesh, about by the blood feeding these cells. These creations have within them molecules, which are the Genes, the genetical creation of the soul. These now are the roots of the soul, born from those distant states of past differentiation, which by the Word being molecularised, become given their mortuary meal and buried in.

This becomes the changing over of the heritage status in the Astro chart, in fact, the changing of the starry nucleus into the Solar mind unfolding, whose Pinnacle Point is now in the Solstice, or Commisuration Point in the third ventricle of the brain; the Thalamic Ganglion behind the eyes. The point from where the god-soul fell from, and became the Animal-Human, but ever remembering that all this is vibronic.

The secret of this Great Mystery being in the Breath, that set into action as Merope drew down of the Virgin Ether Fires. For by her, the Scapegoat, now drawing down once again of those Virgin Cosmic Rays through her mind, she brings down of more and more intensified Virgin Hydrogen Fire.

This causes the Breath to become Radio-active, the Breath alive with Uranian Sparking Fire. Thereby Atomicising the nucleus of all the cells consistent in the soul, bringing them to full active Atomic life once again, out of the dead state afforded them by religious dogma. They who only fed the soul on magnetic fire, in the same way as the 'moon fans' gave life to old dead states.

Therefore, only by taking the Word in its molecularised polarised state, can this cell become balanced up into a one pointed unity, in keeping with the growth of the soul, under Cosmical rebirth. That the soul could fulfill the Cause of the Great Plan, as set into operation by the Great Laws at the Beginning of TIME.

This was the only way that the Seed could be saved, returning it to ITS full Cycle, that the World of LIGHT Destined, could come into birth. Otherwise all would Fall yet greater still, into the density of Matter. This is what is taking place by the mundane constitutional government at the present moment, and why the Great Hierarchs, under the control of Uranus, are using the Powers of all, under Uranian influence, to break down this destructive influence of Moon in Scorpio: E. Powell having Uranus in the first house.

Hence, the Ray now entering through the elevated polarised Breath, brought about by the Beliefs of those under this elevated Influence, is changing the structure of the Genes, which is the Divine Mutation of the soul. For the whole of the Race has been reborn through these Great Inflowing Powers feeding the Race with Atomic Fire, thereby bringing a Divine Fellowship ONENESS of Pube god reality, unto the Higher Consciousness of every soul. Yet also giving new ideas to the Celestial Gods, now in the brain catacombs, that they can feed the conscious mind of every soul in the depths with profound light.

It is because man is awakening to Truth that he is not fully aware of, that there is the present state of rebellion. For Heath and his party are of the old world, and must be dislodged from destroying the Race.

Therefore, according to the Solar Fire you have taken, through seeking to build up your mind in the past, do the Nodes become positioned in the chart, and show what growth you have made and now must continue by conscious Atomic progression; therefore are you of the old world or of the New? If I remember rightly, Winston Churchill once said, "the World is changing under your very feet", and that was before the Hierarchs made me a Scapegoat.

So to bring this Mighty Fire into being as a mind status and not just cell multiplicity, which results in cancer growths and senile decay, you must be elevated up in Divine Gyrate Thought. The soul ever seeking for a one pointed state, capturing the nucleus of the Fire, and blending up the Chromosomes full of Prismic multiplicity; that of the black and white states into golden LIGHT.

It was through religion that the FIRE within the Fire was cut off, for this FIRE is the Mystery of the Ultra Violet Ray. The very nucleus of this Fire is coming forth from Scorpio, the Core of the Great Central Sun. This becomes as the Proton and Neutron, the nucleus of every cell, which now are a universe within themselves.

While the Dragon Nodes also are, in their consistency, that of the Proton and Neutron, and points out of what the soul must accomplish in this life, to fulfill its destiny and not lose its higher consistency of Divine Consciousness. For all has changed, and either you go on with the consistency of growth, or give up what you refuse to expand onto the MIND PLANE of LIGHT.

The Great Mystery of this mighty unfolding, is that both cells and Nodes 'eat' each other up, bringing into birth in the cell, that of an Electron, while in the Nodes, Fire of Electric consistency. Thus would be as a new mind child coming into birth, for this automatically causes the Nodes to become electrified, changing over the magnetic soul into the Atomic. The whole of being having changed to save the Race, every soul is born of its Divine Creation, thus every soul must seek to comply with its Dynamic Rebirth, which has saved the World from an Atomic War.

This can only be done through the MIND, hence the MIND WORLD now born by Fire infusion. While those who are seeking into this truth and striving to adopt, the True Race Elect. Those who do not raise up of the Atom onto this Mind Plane, the Fire now being taken will destroy the cells, forcing them to give up of their wealth in a blind way. For now it is a World of FIRE, and only by Fire can man exist.

Therefore, no longer the empty Water pot, but a soul Fired with Fluidic Grace, calling upon every soul to now turn into this mighty Direction of Truth, as a Warrior of rebirth. This is the fulfillment of the Exodus.

When woman also seeks to build up of her mind, she too will change her hormones in her Pituitary, by becoming wedded to the Divine Christos, the Divine Solar Ray. Whereby she also changes over of her chromosomes from magnetic into Electro-magnetic, then into Atomic.

To maintain this Fire, which everyone is automatically seeking one way or another, uncooked food, and very sparingly at that, is the best means of nutriment. For fruit holds the natural Solar Fire of ripening its sugar content. This is very important, for the descending colon is now an outstanding accoutrement, and only in its preservation, will true sensitivity be preserved to bring the soul onto this Mighty Dynamic Path of Rebirth.

Now every man is Breathing in of this Fire by the natural application set into operation by the Scapegoat. For by being the guinea-pig for the Great Solar Hierarchical Lords, Merope has raised up the Planes and changed the structure of the Breath. By this the Seed was saved, but has also uplifted and intensified man, who is now being forced to live up by frequency in the higher precincts of his cellular structure.

Those who perceive this truth and seek to put it into operation, become as the Race Elect. Those now crowned by the Divine Twelve, the insignia of the New Born Race, who can become the means of lifting up the whole of the Race all over the Earth, by their Waveband of thought swinging back and forth where'er they go.

Otherwise the whole of the Earth could be destroyed by

Therefore, while at this point, I expect you all will be seeking as to what is the outcome of the present chaotic situation.

Well, first of all, all this would never have come into being if H. Wilson had taken over and allowed the Hierarchical Powers to rule the World through his Neptune in the first house. These people back on the Earth are not here just by coincidence, but soul come back under a dynamic PLAN, that this Mighty Plan of Rebirth could be fulfilled. For a man with Neptune in the first house, could not have avoided such dynamic interbirth. Thus now it must be seen of how the Greater Powers have used E. Powell with a first house Uranus, to turn the situation into their direction.

These Great Powers are not subject to personal likes and dislikes as we are, but use any soul who offers them possibility. For E. Powell, whatever are his political beliefs, is a very forthright character, and happens to be treading on the grounds of that which the Greater Powers are sponsoring. When this happens, they surge round the

This applies just the same to the War in Vietnam, where enormous armament profits are being made, with their taxpayers, the ordinary citizens, paying enormous taxes to keep this diabolical war of savagery on the go.

All I can say, and I fully believe I say this on behalf of the Higher Powers, if man wants Utopia or Vega upon this earth, he must fight for what he knows is right. Then such fodder as Heath and Nixon will make good fuel for the Guy Fawkes bonfire. But Willy Hamilton, when you state a truth, stand by it, otherwise it will get you in return. Now to completely bring a higher synopsis of this dissertation, let us close with a direct Word from the heights.

This is where the true phenomenal Glory of the Pubeborn Parthenogenesis child of Celestial expanded Phenomenal wonder, now becomes of the Ego elevated sensitivity, of the Royal Pleiadic Virgin Fatherhood. Where the Pube, he of the Race Elect, now becomes as a Pitch-blended Child of the Sun, a being completely born of LIGHT. A Divine elevation of Holy Genius, where the unfolding heights now become the glory of the unfolding mind.

For this is where the captivated Gyration Points of elevated ascension, born from the mastered Dragon Nodes, becomes the Thread of Far Beyond. Where that of elevated supreme Genius, of a Theocratic enceinte compassionate Belief Desire, becomes the forging instinct of the newly created Virgin son.

This brings the Pube, the Atomic born son, to the now Atomic stimulus of a Virgin Virile Spermed interpenetration of the Holy Seed. Thus, by this, the Law of Supreme Communistos has become the Atomic Spear of Celestial expansive Phenomenal Desire molecularisation. Where the conscious mind can be raised up to the highest. This is where the Pure Royal Reality, of a Holy enceinte Blessing, now the Breath Hermeneutics, has become the all forged consciousness of a full Ego sovereignty.

Thus all now is Causation up onto the Theocratic Thread of a Pube pulsating Rhythmic Celestial Solstice expansion. That now, the all Atomicised incentive of Dragon Node mastery, has won through the forged fortitude of a focalisation of heights and depths, bringing into birth of True Divine inspirational potential Genius. Where the depths are blended up with the heights, and supreme new ideas of an Atomic expanded nature can come into birth.

Thus by this the Higher Powers have solved the Virgin difficulty of a pure elevated phenomenal gyration expansion, by interpenetrating the Seed with Hydrogenised Virgin Atomic Fire, which unfolds the depths within the soul. This is Atomic rebirth, immaculate conception of the virgin mind, bringing into birth of Parthenogenesis, the mastering and polarising of the depths of the past.

Thus the true motivation of a gyrate spin, is the true meaning of a Genetical reproductive assimilation in the interpenetrative Powers of the Heights, bringing that of the Power of instantaneous Perceptory awareness. This being the Genius of a Parthenogenesis Holy Spermed infinity, that of reborn truth, when the soul seeks into the Glory of the Word. Whereby the all Theocratic Virgin becomes the Holy established mouthpiece, of the Pure Phenomenal Gyropaedic transgression.

THE FALL

THUS she drew them down into the Waters, they who had found the glory of the Solar Beauty. Yet in reality was the feminine creation drawing the masculine down into the depths, when it should have been the feminine rising up to meet the incoming Fire. Thereby causing gender to come into birth, for as internally, so externally, becoming a creation of established form. (See text on page 11, col. 5).

Fire, as promised unto Noah. For as he raised up the Arc and saved the Seed from the flood of the lunar waters, Merope saved the Atomic Seed from Divine annihilation of the Atomic Hydrogenised Electrification. But this time, by so raising up the Arc, that God's Covenant, as a Sparking Uranian Bow in the clouds, would prevail for all time, (Gen. 6-8) as Divine Continuity.

Therefore, everything is now set for Divine expansion, and by this I do not mean a sanctimonious intellectual, but one crowned with Precision and Balance, and girded with courage and conviction. Then he is a truly born Warrior, one who has mastered the test of TIME.

The depths of this I have barely touched, but sufficient to get over of my Point, and most of it, trying to dodge the blackout, brought about by a party with NO POLICY, but a mad craze to make money, soul, using the Power I have built up here and give strength, verve and direction, to what that soul creates.

So the situation amounts to man learning to find his true manhood, through the direction of the Dragon's Nodes, fighting for what is right. Life and its experiences were not meant to be for the few to live in luxury, and the majority, the true Workers, living in dire poverty through excessive taxation. For Ted Heath, a brainless upstart, has no more idea of how to rule a country than the "Wops of Woddledom". In fact, he is merely a FACE for the financial tycoons to reap in their colossal avaricious gains.

For when a Prime Minister, such as he is, can put into operation a Radar defence system costing 120 millions and it falls as a flop, such becomes merely a coverage for those tycoons to reap in untold wealth by contracts ill-placed.

HERBAL EXPANSIVE HUSBANDRY

Part 5

WILD ROSE (Rosa Canina)

by David Spearman-Cook

WE HAVE THIS MONTH SELECTED A HERB OF an extremely rare nature, thus we must now deal with it in rather a so-called scientific manner, whereby we can, as it were, pre-select its wealth and possibilities upon a new Plane of Atomic growth. It must be very noticeable to those who have a little knowledge upon this subject of Wild Roses, that many species, and grades of growth, are measured by the applied nurturing of the individual seed, and the type of creation born and raised upon different lands, and humid densities of their immediate centres of growth. Thus we will choose the English Wild Rose, and its fruit the Hip, and build up a full synopsis of its causationary stream of Life. For here we have a seed of a fantastic nature, for it has been utilised so much so, that a complete abortivised creation has developed, but all this will be rectified, as the new Atomic Powers solve the nature life problems, and raise the herb and plant life up into a different embodied creation of existing phenomenal effluvia.

Within the strength of the Rose Hip we have a power, which will help the epileptic to regain some form of balance, through stimulative creative ability of the seed and the flesh, when they have captured the full power of the Universe, through the blossoming and eventual dying of the flowers. We must perceive that the Rose Hip is the nucleus of the growth of the tree, therefore it is from here we operate our searching, and gathering of frequencies which are the powers of its healing depths.

But we can also venture to say that this particular grade of English grown Rose Hip, is quite capable of bringing some of the aches, fatigues, and in some cases, sensitivity to an agreeably better status. This is through the power within the depths of the Wild Rose Hips, when consumed, focussing upon souls who are over-endowed with Saturnian desires, a strength which can assist to purify the layer gap of a soul's muscular tissue. Whereby the flexibility and muscle tone can break the Saturnian density, which has been built up as calcification of the nervous tissues.

For we must remember that Wild Roses are but the symbolic status of the roving fire, in its raw status, which must now be brought to a cultivated blossoming, as a mind tonic. For the Rose Hip flesh, that of the scarlet sweet outer casing of the seed berry, is the nourishing wealth which will feed the mind nerves with a secretion of potential stimulative rejuvenation. For now the seeds of the Rose Hip tree are fully charged with Neptunian infusion, thus can now inspire the nervous ganglion centres around the head, with a stimulant of an aromatic propensity.

This is where as a mind world agency of vibration attached to the individual countries, where the Wild Rose may now abound.

It is going to be interesting to see what will take place in regard to the English Wild Rose, for now much could unfold in many different spheres or areas of the land, where this rose abounds in large numbers. For it has, when growing in fairly close proximity, a power of a dynamic healing character, and one wonders just what results could now abound through the New Breath inflow. For everything has been so highly elevated that the air itself is literally electrified.

WILD ROSE

One could, if the Rose Hip was incorporated with the leaves, also make a very fine cure for the shingles, for here we would have a combination of strength to supply the blood with an intoxication of vibrance, to infuse into the blood a full dosage of forged fertility. For this particular creation consists of an elixir of a very fine fluorescent power, drawn from out of its own forming seed.

Thus when the seeds are washed of the very fine hairs, they could be successfully combined with the leaves to infuse their fluorescent creation into the internal depths of the soul, and add a form of natural electrified charge to certain ganglions, of as yet unknown depths. Thus one can see how Nature never loses the power of the lightning, and keeps all that is accumulated, within the depths of their creation.

It will be found that upon the taking of the fleshy part of the berry, and the tender leaves of its growth, if finely cut, can be kept for the evening meal, and if partaken of can offer unto the soul before their retirement a steadying draught, which will prepare them for a peaceful night's sleep. This will give a natural nourishment for the eyes, and also the nervous spasmodic ratio of the visionary areas of the mind visionary apparatus, in respect of a soul's perceptory internal awakening, as the soul through the changes, also begins to awaken to an Occult seeded state of mind. For many will now perceive inner visions which will startle them into sinking after the Occult sound.

When this berry's full wealth is prepared by the former method of cutting the leaf and skin, it will when incorporated with Buchu, act as a very fine stimulus to the vital in the depths of the bowels. For it is a well known fact in the Occult world that the will extracts the wealth out of what has been taken as wisdom to feed the mind. Thus the power of two united herbs can be of tremendous importance, until one is able to extract the wealth within the Breath alone, as a form of Celestial Bearing.

When an expectant mother is close to her allotted time of giving birth, a drink of the mixture mentioned previously will give her much of the stimulus required to help her through her ordeal, if taken two or three times regularly during the night or day. Thus she will find a flexibility of the extended muscles of her body, easing all in a miraculous way. Thereby producing in the negative, how this herb in polarity, can also as previously stated, help to give birth to a new change of mind when infused with the new inflow of sperm- ing Celestial Bearing.

Now let us turn to what is known about this herb in many other well known practices. We have touched much that has roused the intense strength of this particular frequency of power, but there are other items which are also remarkable.

It is a safe form of power for the very young, who are in the state of changing the blood from adolescence, into the virgin state of early manhood. This is where a lot can be accredited to Rose Hip's abilities, when it is used to forge the breaking of the virgin sensitivity, which will afford unto the fired Holy infusive Desires from the Breath, the ability to consciously hear the Voice of the Master.

For here is where Rose Hips are unique in their ability to assist the generative fires, to stealthfully supply the wealth of the soul with a stimulative frequency of active co-ordinating rhythmic harmony, of face to Face power. For now the Neptunian influence is of a greater intensity that one could possibly vibronically conclude.

We must also state that here is a wonderful opportunity for a soul to awaken a greater amount of their wisdom stored deep within their depths. For when Buchu, Rose Hips, and Agrimony, are applied to a vast amount of the awakening state of one's hidden depths, much will unfold unto these young souls of an Occult nature, which will be surely amazing.

Now that the Hierarchs are in charge of the co-ordinating and manipulating of a soul's individual character, it will be this form which will be mainly operative as the mechanism of Celestial change within the soul. Thus a large proportion of herbs will be adapted and used by many souls, who will be eventually pushed into the herbal mechanism as a form of sublimation yearning.

Although we have mentioned that the present known curbs of this herb are abortive, we must state that it really means it was not really intended for the states it was used for, for the particular sicknesses of man should have never been in existence. Man, who is a god, should never have fallen so far into the depths of the Abyss, for by doing so it completely changed the content of vibration.

This creation of the Wild Rose and many others are found in Europe, Northern Africa, and Siberia, and it grows amongst the hedges and brackets, thus is most pleasing when in flower between June and August. It is commonly known as the Dog Rose, and was called such in the allusion to the reputed effects of the root curing the bite of a mad dog. Here is where one can see its depilis, when in the Occult world a dog is the symbolical understanding of the mind.

The petals of the Dog Rose, as this Wild Rose is commonly known, when freshly gathered and distilled, afford a fragrant perfumed water, and the leaves when dried have been used as a substitute for tea. The hips have been used in various sauces on the Continent, thus is an abortive creation incorporated into the desires of man. It was also made into a wine by many of the Northern European countries, and the Russians of the Volga prepare a spirit from the flower.

The pulpy part of the fruit was used as a laxative, and the flowers were once used for diseases of the eye. Many have found the hip of extreme value for coughs and the spitting of blood, which of course entails consumption. It has also been used for the breaking down of the stone and eases a state of colic to a degree which is simply amazing.

To finally finish this article upon the Wild Rose we must mention that all the Roses are but a form of sensitivity, which were created by souls eagerly trying to perfect a creative aptitude of love and healing, but alas, they fell short in their emotional vibrational application, owing to the lunar powers consuming the Earth. Now that the Solar is predominant, healing is in the very Breath which one automatically breathes, thus all men can now feel the benefit of the expanded phenomena of a risen up herbal creation.

Next month we will search into the intricacies of the Blue Flag Herb, Iris Versicolor, and attempt to expand it as much as we can.

ASTROLOGICAL COLUMN

HERE WE ARE, WITH SATURN'S ENTRY INTO Gemini and ruling London with a gusto, and in having come out of Ireland, will now perhaps change the tables! But I have already warned in previous Gazettes, that this year was going to be a difficult one, for either the soul turns to building up of his mind, or he is going to face much disaster. The Great Hierarchal Powers are determined to save the Seed and bring as many of the Race as possible back to sanity, that they can find their Divine Heritage. For the whole of this country is riddled with venereal disease, drugs and sodomy, yet the very country that was intended to be the leader of the World. This they will not get out of, for they declared themselves the Mother Country of the bunch of colonies they stole, leaving those countries in a poverty-ridden state, after they had drained them of their wealth.

All this has to be answered for, as is seen in the Open Letter to the Press of last month on Page 15. There it will be seen of how George VI of England came back to declare of the disreputable state of the country, but more is attached to it than that. For as a King of this Country, he realised when he went over into Spirit, of where he had failed, although as he said, he was a very sick man. He now knows that a King and Queen are not just figure-heads, but beings who take on of a dire responsibility. To understand this, we only have to look back into History through the Bible, of how the Kings through those Ages fought through initiatory process to maintain the Power of their country: of the Pharaohs, and how they struggled to leave behind their cartouche, their continuance of service through the adulation of the people.

Since we declared our first experience to the public, we have been advised of every incident that has taken place, before it began, as well as Winston Churchill returning. This certainly was not by my wish, for I have never been a fan of his by any means, which proves more and more to me, of the validity of the Seance Circle we have raised. I would like to state, we have not reached the peak of our difficulties by a long way, and as they arise I will notify you, in the Gazette, of whether we were warned of such an incident.

I would like also to state, that I would not like to stand in T. Heath's shoes for anything on earth. But to show you how much the Great Ones protect their own, one of our readers and their family left South Africa to especially come over to be near the School, to train their young family of five, all ranging from 18 years to 6. Since then, they have entered the School and become a part of the group. This automatically has helped us to financially weather the storm, while the Tory Party and the Tycoons play ducks and drakes with the economy of the Country.

This month, in delineating the appointed charts, I intend to bring to the fore the mystical depths of the Moon's Nodes, known as the Dragon's Head and the Dragon's Tail. This is the Descending Fire, that in the depths becomes Draco the Dragon. That which becomes mastered, as the Archer in Sagittarius shoots the plumed arrow up to the heights, and strikes the Eye of the Bull into reborn vision. This takes place in Capricorn, causing Aquila the Eagle Fire, to ascend up to the Face of the Sun.

Since all created is in man himself, this would be the Starry depths of the Commisuration, being transmuted into the glory of a soul mind-born central sun. But since this subject holds of such intrinsic mythological depths, I will bring a more enlightened exposition in my Reminiscence. That which also has a further added explanation in this month's rendering of the Polarised Works of Rabelais.

But to fully pave the way for such rendering to assist the genuine Astrological seeker, let me state that this Fiery Dragon is the Equatorial Colure of the Sun. That which man draged down into the Zodiacal Ecliptic Sun's Path, by his ever falling state into materialism. Now all has been raised up onto the Atomic Celestial Colure, where the three Mystics play the most important part. Therefore, according to how man raises this Fire, and it becomes his journey of growth and ascension, will his Path of Destiny guide him also. But they are the Moon's Nodes to transforming the magnetic into the Atomic Solar Radiance, by the soul's mastery of his Destiny. Therefore now let us turn to our first Astro Diagnosis for this month.

Mr. L. H. Eastbourne, Sussex.

Well, friend, I have read your letter, for I understand from our secretary that a special question was being asked. I do not think that you are expecting the delineation that I am about to give you, for you sound very inexperienced in Occult Direction. Like many others, you think that the World and your experiences are closely related, and it dealt you out the wrong set of cards, instead of your coming back to assist the World and its Destiny to unfold, with you gaining your progression by so doing. No man comes back without he takes a vow of service, to receive in lieu of that effort, his direction towards the Road of Continuity.

You came back precisely to raise up the magnetic fire into the Solar, by transforming the wisdom you have taken, into mind light. This is judged by the triplicities, and most of yours lie down in the depths, while you only have one Fire. While your Dragon's Nodes go from the 7th house into the 1st. There in the 7th also, you have your Mars, your will, and your Path of Destiny, that you have come back to change.

The Nodes are in Libra to Aries, the sign of the warrior and his virgin mind, while Aries is the sign of Fire and Libra an Air sign of the mind. But the 7th house is the change of Law, ideas, where the soul leaves the old ideas behind and accepts the higher Law. Most people who get into this house by Planetary habitation, find it difficult to progress, for in their previous life, they have refused to move. This, according to the Old Testament, is where Dan falls backward off his horse, and it rather seems that this is what you have done.

Your specific vow would have been to strengthen your will, raise up your Fire, and render service to the Hierarchs, through your Uranus in the 10th house. This Planet and the Moon in the 10th would have afforded you considerable comfort and easy-going during life, but there were one or two cataracts in your life, that if you did not play your part, would at the latter end of life, become obstacles. These being Saturn going retrograde in 1909, Mercury in 1911, and in 1964, Jupiter your first house planet, also going retrograde.

If you had not met these by honouring your vow, Saturn in the 12th house would claim his toll, and as you say, it took place in 1970 and 71. I know it does sound cruel, but these are facts, and I could tell you something far more exacting than that. I have rendered service for 36 years, and that after my motherhood was finished. My task was to help man to raise up this Fire by my being a Scapegoat; by so doing, they took off the chains of Hephaistos and took the Christ down from their illusory cross, and put me on the wheel instead. Man is a cruel animal, having lost his real identity in his saturnine selfishness; until he honours the vows he has made in the Planes of Reality, he now will only reap its results.

Friend, you have untold wealth buried in your depths, and as I state this, I am being shown a Statesman of Rome, one well versed in wisdom, hence your Jupiter in the 1st, Mercury and Pluto in the 3rd, the house of the mind, shows what a subtle mind you have, but Pluto and Mercury are square to Jupiter, hence everything was turned to your own account. You came back into this incarnation, to try and rectify some of your mistakes, but also to become a channel for the Greater Ones to work through. Therefore to draw forth from your Venus and Neptune in the 4th house, the mighty wealth you have buried in the magnetic depths of Cancer.

You now have reached the age of 69, and the Planets have asked you to account for the wealth you have gathered in lieu of your Vow, in the name of Uranus and Jupiter. These two Planets alone made you powerful, but your gods in your own heights were crippled and could not help you, hence the results. So you had all the wherewithal to accomplish your task, but like many others, had lost the thread and the way.

This is the idea of the Gazette, that it can raise up our gods in our own heights, that they can lead us on the Road of our blindness. You could have been a great personage of Light in this World, if you had awakened, but your Moon in Capricorn kept you down to the depths of material knowledge. As a Taurus, I know that you are not going to be happy about this, for they are usually very stubborn souls, and take a lot of beating to come to the truth.

On your Ascendant, you have the 2nd decanate of Pisces; this is called Andromeda, the chained woman, which indicates that your conscious mind, your negative feminine growth, has yet to get free from limited ideas. But Pisces is a very rich sign, and one that usually is very rich with prophetic power, thus if it can only be freed from the restriction of old religious beliefs and open up to the Mighty Powers of the Solar Glory, its hidden depths, lost in old traditions, could enrich the world with untold benevolence.

I understand that you have been sent herbs, but you must not forget, you are very deeply riddled with drugs etc., from hospital treatment, therefore we are rather hampered. With regard to the other question, I am afraid you must accept the inevitable, it is a little too late to put that into order, for that is one of the lessons you have to learn. I do not think you could have grumbled about your life, you have had a very good run, and must now strive to open up your mind, onto the highest Plane possible.

Do not think this is a caustic reading, it is not, but one straight to the point to help you, for while I am doing this delineation, a lady is standing by me, one who loved you very dearly. When on the earth, she was very gentle and rather prone to tears, I think you will know who I mean. She is saying, "She wished she could have helped you more", but Uranus in the M.C. in Sagittarius demands rather a lot, and she could not meet it.

Friend, what you are seeking for in others, is really within yourself, and can only be gained by seeking into the highest Wisdom possible. So do accept this reading in its true light, for one so well breeched with wisdom from the past, could not be fed with pap on a spoon, I had to meet you on your own level!

Your progressed Moon, which activates the Planets into operative guidance, is now passing through your 4th house of home, and is passing over your Moon and Neptune, which you have come back to drive into active momentum. Therefore it is a very precise moment, while your illness would have come about when the Moon was passing through your 3rd house, where you have your Mercury and Pluto, verifying all that I have been saying. I beg of you to go on trying to read the Gazette, particularly the first article; although you may not understand it, read it, and it will feed your gods, and they will help you to rally round.

Miss J. L., Philadelphia, U.S.A.

Now we come to one, who has the well established lesson to learn of discarding old religious beliefs, for here the Path of Destiny is in the 11th house, that of the rebirth of the Spirit, with Neptune conjunct to it. This tells rather a quaint story, for since both are in Virgo, there is no doubt, here was a nun incarnation where the soul secretly sought into Occult wisdom. But again, brought her Mars and Uranus into the 7th house, and refused to allow the Mystical depths she was taking to go any further than mere knowledge. But the Moon is lodged in Aquarius, two wavy lines = which she now must blend up into electro-magnetic.

All this goes with the Sun in

Aries, for they are very defiant people, and listen to very little; so where in the past incarnation she did what she wanted to do, in this, she will be just stubborn. But what a pity, for her Dragon's Head is in the 3rd and the Tail in the 9th.

By ever going on driving the Fire in old logical conception, she will never get her mighty amassed magnetic fire in the 5th, up to the heights. For the 2nd decanate of Libra on the ascendant, brings Lupus into action, and Uranus will ever be striking at any opportunities you try to set into motion. Particularly around marriage, for this house links with marriage in all directions, with ever the possibility of divorce.

This is not a curse, but what the soul accepted when they came back, it being the trend of karma they had to redeem. Whereas in this case it was just karma to be righted, in the previous delineation, the soul was on the Wheel of Rebirth, for he had already started to serve in the previous life as a statesman. So it does not always signify the same with all, for the position of the other planets alters the situation.

This chart is powerful from the fact that the soul has taken a lot of Fire, which is only acting in the magnetic, consequently, the Sun is lodged in the 6th house. This would be inclined to make the soul get very weary and tire very quickly, although being in Aries, it would help considerably. There is still a very religious streak here, which is retarding the soul from bringing forth of past wealth out of her depths, and that activated in secret in her previous life. For she was able to get access to literature that no others were able to obtain.

Therefore she must follow her Path of Destiny in the 11th and awaken her Neptunian depths, whereby she will free all the wealth in her rock, and it will feed her gods in her heights with the wherewithal to help her to expand. This is imperative, for planets in the 6th can impair the health if not activated as mind expansion; for you must ever remember, man drives the issue and rules his Planets, that he can find growth and mind expansion. For as an Atom, he is only mind and nothing else, and as he brings this into birth as Brilliancy, he as mind-spirit, finds continuity and immortality.

As I am typing this delineation, I heard a noise, and there standing beside me, was a young man in soldier's uniform. I am sure he was not just a brother, but one whom you were very fond of; he just stood still as though utterly lost. But now I have made this known to you, if you should recognise him, please try to make contact with him, for he needs help, for I fear he was blown up by a bomb and is still in shock, not knowing that he is over.

Libra on the Ascendant would make you very sensitive, and could give you power of extreme sensitivity, for this sign rules the arts. Its ruler

Venus is extremely well aspected, and so is Saturn its decanate ruler, but unfortunately you ever find yourself retarded by fixed ideas from the past. This is shown further still by your Pluto in Pisces in the sixth, which indicates old religious ideas.

Until this state is shed, I am afraid you will not make the most of the powers that could come forth in your chart. Everything is hovering, waiting to become, and with both Mars and Sun in Aries, you could do wonders, but everything lies in your own hands. However, this is the trouble with Moon in Aquarius, there is always a dithering state, where the soul is apt to say one thing and do another.

As I try to delineate your chart, I can feel your conditions, and I find it difficult to pin-point myself. This is because your ancient past, resurrected in the incident I have quoted regarding the nun, is trying to come forth through your supreme higher self, and is continually sending down the "drip" to awaken your conscious mind.

This is added unto by your nodes in your mind polarity, but being in Capricorn polarity, the tendency is to be fixed more by stubborn resistance, than true belief. Being so free in my mind perception, I find this difficult to accept, but I do find, in all my years of Occult Work, that Aries souls are apt to be held by this restriction.

Your emotions are extremely attenuated, and by this very fixed outlook you quite possibly are half the cause of the many disappointments you meet. This is rather shown by your Jupiter in your house of the logical mind, where you have a grand square closely allied to your Path of Destiny in the 11th; the mystery of your previous incarnation.

Your progressed Moon is about to pass over your Dragon's Tail in the 9th house in May. It will be then that you may have to face up to some severe decision, which could entail having to put into operation, all that I have been advocating, including trying to make as much expansion as possible in your mind growth. I can only say what I said to the previous delineation, seek deeply into the Wisdom, let it feed your gods, and they will do the rest.

Miss J. R., Lanark, Scotland.

Now we come to a chart which denotes that the soul is extremely well advanced, with 4 Planets waiting to come to complete fulfilment in the 9th house. But Mars and Uranus down the 8th house can be more than just restrictive; in fact they could bring a catastrophe. This has linking with your Jupiter in the 12th house in Scorpio, whereby you would ever have to be careful of associates. Your Moon in Gemini might incline you to allowing yourself to be led in the wrong direction, so I do advise you not to play with Fire at any time.

Your Path of Destiny is in the 9th house also in the sign of Leo; this is where you have to make a very strong decision, and not allow the Scorpio influence on the first, with its ruler Mars down the 8th, to lead you away from the great wealth you have gathered up in the 9th, with Mercury and Neptune in the 10th. For your Scorpio Ascendant is in its 3rd decanate, and calls for the feats of Hercules being exercised.

But here again, we see how you allowed this very twisted state to prevail in your chart, for your Nodes go from the 7th to the 1st. You have your Dragon's Head in the 7th, with its Tail in the 1st, thus indicates of how you fell back off your "horse" in the previous life. Through this, you have come back to readjust some very severe karma, for with Virgo up in the M.C. you too were a nun sometime or another.

It was this that caused you to get your Mars down the pit, and with Uranus down there also, a state of death could have ensued. But your task in this life, is to try and get those Planets up in the 9th fructified, and although you will have to meet the karma of the past, get yourself out of one through the mighty wealth of the other.

Sometimes life is like this, a terrific entanglement, and how to get it disentangled is sometimes an enormous feat. Well! this is what the 3rd decanate of Scorpio is seeking to teach you. Mind you, you could find it hard to assimilate, with your Moon in the 7th house, and in it being conjunct to Uranus, some very unusual happenings could take place.

Whatever you do, ever keep attached to the higher Wisdom and do not allow yourself to be drawn back into old religious states. This seems to be one of the major difficulties in this life for many, for they have turned to the greater path, through past ancient influence, but fear to come away from religious states that have claimed them since. Your Dragon Nodes advise you to fight for the higher depths of Scorpio, which in its true denomination, is the Divine Mystic. This has something to do with an Egyptian incarnation, where great Temple Ritual was practiced by you.

This will be the trouble this year, where everybody is being sorted out and brought to some status of balance. This can be very trying while it takes place, and I know it will not make you very happy when I say that nothing happens in life but what we must meet, and make adjustment. But I think you will find that what appeared as a catastrophe, was not so bad after all, for it will bear its recompense in the love you will derive in another direction.

I never find that Scorpio is very easy for any woman to wear, for it is a sign that has to do with generation, and links strongly with pioneering work. Many doctors come under this sign, and where they are seeking into such dynamic needs from a science standpoint, they should by rights be turning to the Great Secret that Scorpio holds of Spirit healing.

Therefore, with Virgo in the M.C. with Mercury, Sun and Venus therein, you could make a wonderful healer. Then with Neptune in Libra in the 10th, your ancient wisdom of herbs could come to the fore, and help to rise up above your karmic debt of this life.

Your Moon has now progressed to your 5th house into the sign of Taurus, which is the polarity sign to your Scorpio Ascendant. This is a good moment to look deeply into your credit balance of your chart, and try to make up your mind as to what is really your outlook. Ever keep in your mind, that there is always an adjusting principle somewhere in life, even if it comes a little late.

Your Moon has a grand square, which means your debt was a heavy one, for it has linking with Jupiter in your 12th house, which seems to be the real difficulty. It squares many of your Planets in the 9th, including your Path of Destiny. It rather seems that your religious incarnation combated your wealth of your Egyptian past, thereby putting you onto the wrong side of Scorpio. As I said, Scorpio is a very stringent sign and only the very brave can wear its mighty Mystery.

If you make the most of your internal wealth now, the outcome of its dynamic possibilities could come to you in later years. But again I say, do not let your Moon in Gemini lead you astray, for this sign can tend to be dualistic and make false reasoning.

Miss N. K., U.S.A.

Now we come to a chart that takes a little different trend; here the Path of Destiny is in the 10th, where the soul is being instructed to raise their wealth up from Taurus into the true heights of Capricorn. Not just knowledge, but expansive wisdom, where the Eagle can fly up to the heights of the Solar Glory. It is very obvious that they have tried in the previous life, but landed up with Moon and Jupiter in the 12th in Pisces. There is no doubt you have taken much knowledge over the past lives, but never drove the Bull hard enough.

Again we find the Nodes from the 7th into the 1st, where your Libran love of life retarded your full adjustment. For you have taken over the Ages, but life and its riches have held you very much in their grasp. But for all that, I feel very confident that you could have made a very good medium, if you had had the courage to do so. For Uranus in the 9th is very powerful, for it is in the sign of Sagittarius, but like all these gifts, great sacrifice has to be made for such to materialise into full grace. By the position of your Planets you could have had some position of authority, such as a Sister in a hospital or a teacher in a school, for there is a great sense of authority.

Yet you would have had some profound difficulty in trying to manipulate your Moon in Pisces, for it would have ever tended to fluctuate, in all directions, and being in the 12th house, although you would have had many friends, circumstances prevented you from fully accomplishing your object. So you came back with Aries upon your Ascendant in its first decanate, that you could prepare the way to become a pioneer for all the mighty amount of wisdom you have taken. The peculiar part about your chart is, "you have and yet you have not." That is, all is there except the magic wand to bring your Fairy Godmother onto the scene to change things over.

But even you have had the under-current of religious traits, which played a part in retarding your movement to fulfillment, and by such becoming a little stuck, your Mars in your 6th in Virgo has left your health wanting care. You will have to be careful with internal difficulties, for Mars in the 6th is not easy to weather. But this is where we have to stand very much up to facts, and not be afraid to face them.

Your love of life in the previous lives, has brought you to the end of that road, and now you are being faced with the question of "are you now going to return to the heights the wealth you have taken". For Uranus in Sagittarius, and square to Mars and Jupiter, is seeking the return of those Atoms.

Hence your Saturn, now in the sign of Aquarius in the 11th, is demanding your active rebirth, so that such wealth can be returned. I am afraid you have got to do some rapid discarding of old ideas, loves and enjoyment, otherwise hospitals will play a big role in the later days of your life.

Your progressed Moon at the present moment, has just entered into your 6th house, into the sign of Leo, which means that in two years time, it will pass over your Mars in Virgo, which is intercepted in that house. It means you must turn with all your heart and soul, to expanding the wealth you have taken, so that Uranus in the 9th can begin to electrify the wealth taken.

I do not know whether this bears any comfort to you, but your Aries on the first house, your sign of rebirth, in being in its first decanate, is in the sign of Cassiopeia, the enthroned woman. That means, you are so well breeched, your conscious mind could, if so expanded, rise up to the heights of your higher creation.

This would not be in the direction of expansion, but in the amount of wealth you have taken and not expanded. But with Mercury conjunct to Pluto, you could either have a royal mind of belief, or have taken so much, and in dividing it into multiplicity, now find yourself in a state of confusion. This again can be overcome, if you too will let the Gazette work the oracle. Strive to comprehend the first Occult article as best you can, and leave the rest to your gods, the Fellowship up in the heights of your mind.

In your depths you are very rich, and if you could only bring yourself to find expansion, which is very often very difficult for a Taurus to do, you could go far. But let me leave this last piece of advice: although you may have good friends, do not let them turn you from your adjudicated karmic direction.

Mr. G. H., Arkansas, U.S.A.

Here we come to a most remarkable chart, the owner of this nativity only being 29, with nine positive and one negative, giving him 7 air, 2 fire and 1 water, and no earth. His aspects show a grand trine from Saturn in the 9th, with his signs in the first house, in the 2nd house sign. Thus would be from Gemini to Libra, giving him a brilliant mind.

He could quite easily in this life have much to do with the Arts, for it is obvious that in a previous life, he was a monk who studied deeply, but not just religion. Except for the fact that I know that Rabelais is still on the other side, I would almost believe that this was the re-incarnation soul of one such as he, for it is a dynamic chart.

His ascendant, which indicates what he must seek to achieve in personality rebirth, is the 3rd decan of Virgo, which is that of Bootes, the Coming One. The soul is ready

Health from Herbs

HERBALISM is the oldest healing art in the world. Its history can be traced back through the civilisations of Rome, Greece, Assyria and Babylon, and even beyond. Herbs are foods as well as medicines, and build up the general health at the same time as they cure any specific disease. Unlike drugs, which are inert, they are made from organic material instead of inorganic substances, and form an active or living medicine.

Here at the School we have a large quantity of loose herbs in stock, which normally will readily provide for all our requirements. However, we have listed below some of our more popular herbal pills, specially prepared for those who find them more convenient to take in this form, during the hustle and bustle of their daily occupation.

The Calydonian Hunt

Heights, which are the Cyclops).

In the mind of the ancient Philosopher, this was Capricorn the Goat bounding up to the heights; yet in reality is only the skin of the scapegoat who is as the aegis of the shield that now protects the realiser who has adopted the realisation, and absorbed the flesh in dissolving the animal parts to embrace of the Spirit. The Unknown dissolving the animal kingdom of incest, that it can be involved into the Kingdom of the Starry heights (translation).

(It is the whole round that has gone up to the heights whereby you, who have been the scapegoat, have got the realisation in your mind. That is the shield of protection, and the rising up of your mount. You have not just taken a goat; you have taken the skin, because you have placed upon yourself the skin of struggle. Now you seek into that, and you will find the very depths).

But this during the ages became confused in man's mind, and he only recognised of the intellect that brought the dry-boned professor into birth with the text-book and standardised degrees. Thus the Foot-race through the Calydonian Hunt is the chariot race for the prize. The sun and moon in contest that the hero is either the henchman of Selene (the Moon) or the Warrior of Apollo, as Phaeton who would now be able to drive the chariot of the sun.

Aegaeus is the surname of Poseidon, the sea-god who has his palace in the "depths" of the "sea", and from this man derived the name of the Goat; but only because man turned fornicatory in his ways. (So if that is the bottom of the sea and you only take the skin of the Goat, then it means that you have transmuted the sperm and entered into your own being the royalty of God: you have raised yourself up from the animal to that degree of God; the whole trend of heights and depths, and depths and heights, have been assimilated by you).

All during life Poseidon, Zeus, has been fighting against Cronus, crystallisation through materialism, and the Titans, the creators of commercialism (the desires of the soul). Therefore in the shape of a Goat, intellectualism, conventionalism and religion have ever held Jupiter, spiritual expansion through wisdom, at bay. And what is more, Briareus the Crab has been slowly brought round to the Goat's place by the revolutions of the Sothic cycle, thus the heights must expand: (man now has become the one point): they as the two brothers are in the grounds of the Cyclops, but the final entry into the Palace of the great God is in the autumn equinox when the soul translates the scorpion into the winging eagle.

One of the stories of the myths gives forth of how Briareus befriends Zeus, and on an occasion when Hera, Athena and Poseidon were all about to put Zeus in chains, Thetis, the marine goddess as Libra, called in the assistance of Briareus the hundred-handed. (She could not get over). He immediately ascended the heavens, seated himself next to Zeus, and so terrified his conspirators that they desisted. Thetis rose up out of the waters, and brought forth such expansion that Briareus flew up to the heights as the Goat in full flight. (Now you try and work that out and see if you can bring such expansion and cause all to fly up to the heights).

Through the calendar being badly twisted by man to suit his own mercenary ends, the Bull was placed at the solstice in the Zeus chart, desires and possessions, and it was intended that the chart as ways and ideas should remain unaltered whatever it caused in the way of recession among the stars. Which means that man was not concerned with them; in fact they were just phenomena and he merely lived.

So it can be seen that the counting of the spring equinox in Aries as the first point, is merely for convenience sake. But the Ram constellation has long moved away from the vernal equinox, so has the Bull; though it must not be forgotten that there is a corresponding event taking place in the summer solstice, which is the gathering of the harvest, and in the Lion leaving, the Crab has come in. The fire becoming emotional waters.

It has always been believed that the Bull was there, but the Bull was Zeus, the expander; that is why you are given to understand that Taurus as the Bull constellation rules the world at the present moment. But through the Agency of Thetis, Venus rising up out of the waters, it is revealed that Briareus, the Mother creation, is the actual unfoldment of the heavens. Mother Nature rebounding in man as the personality through the solar-plexus, is the sun-god as the individuality, the Man as the son of god being brought into birth.

(It is Mother Mem who is bringing the Solar light forward as the Sun-god, and in going up to the Heights is bringing into birth the God-head. She is the one who is the Mother of the Gods). The Christos MIND as radiant wisdom as Taurus is being brought into birth four-square through Aquarius as mind, through Uranus breaking down Saturn, and bringing him to the heights.

Zeus as expansion remained at the solstice alright, but circumstances forced him to accept the Ram as the pioneer, but we shall understand more of this when we come to Perseus the hero who cuts off the Medusa's head, the outcome of Taurus. What man does not understand in the myths, is the secrets of himself. Little does he understand that the lymphatics carry the nymphs or lymphs that labour and besiege as sirens, or as daughters of the sun-god, assisting the sun-god as the mind, to come into birth.

(It is the lymphatic waters that man destroys by so much waste entering in and killing it. If man would take a pure diet and not fill all the lymphocates with waste, these little lymphocates would be passing on the lymph: instead of that, man is filling them up with waste and bringing cancer growths into birth. So he now can perhaps understand why he can never get his solar light going up to the heights: it is continually being killed by the waste that he is infesting himself with. Keep your waters pure. Keep your life-lines dancing and radiating. Then you will find you will get your solar light coming in and giving you all the strength you require. Now that is simple knowledge).

But an important daughter of the sun in AEGA who, in the eyes of self important man became AEGaeon; she of the ancient heritage of the rushing waters.

The Bull represents stability, but until man can make it four-square, through Saturn becoming discrimination and not retention, will he ever be awayed hither and thither by the Sirens that call him on, through the waters of Cancer bringing no fertility. So merely becoming hogs devouring their own power.

Thus in his fight with the Titans, Zeus was commanded by the oracle to cover himself with the skin of the scapegoat born from her womb of struggle, which became his shield, and flashed terror and amazement. Through this AEGA the nymph automatically flew up into heaven as the realisation of the mind, and terrified all the Titans as to her dazzling brightness.

(The whole of the five sensory states were amazed at the sensitivity that became his right, through the translated state). But since we have gone so far to try and expound the mythical workings of the soul, let us look into Meleager and Atalanta, and seek into what is the Calydonian Hunt: (the hunt for this Truth; the hunt for the Power).

NEPTUNIAN GLORY

As the son of Light rose up, Saturn the beast of darkness and illusion, was transformed into LIGHT, and Adonis, crowned with the crown of Reality, became victor over Time and form. For the Virgin had opened up the Road of Truth, bringing unification to one and all. (See text on page 18, col. 1).

By this we will get some idea of what we are hunting, and how the myths are not classic intellectualism, but real live truths that have never been solved. With this we shall also eventually understand the meaning of the Olympic games and the torch bearer; he that carries the flame.

First we will take the Calydonian Hunt. This has much to do with the rebellion set into operation when the new goddess Artemis started to bring fresh ideas independent of Hera and Ares, and is in the vicinity of the winter solstice. (What man has brought into birth and now what is going to bring new life through the snows that are coming down. Hera is the earth, and Ares the activities of the pioneer).

These were ideas that caused the soul to move in expansion, which resulted in a wild boar being hunted, which was a sign that something was wrong: (a boar coming into birth through you getting out of control). The real cause of the trouble was the neglect which had been shown to the festival of Artemis (the Moon) and was the intercalary month that would have kept all well in the wealth of the calendar, if all had been activated in elevation. (The intercalary between Taurus and Scorpio was not in activity).

Instead of all turning to the wealth that should have come forth, the soul indulged in all those things of matter that brought dereliction of the spiritual inflow. (The Powers that were coming down from the North—coming down from Scorpio—came down into the Cup as the Powers of Taurus, but merely ran wild and created a boar).

The story regarding this breach was as follows:

Diana the moon, in her hunting regalia, was very offended at the neglect extended to her from Oeneus the king of Calydon, when performing his vows to the gods, he being the fatherhood of the kingdom. So she sent a wild boar to ravage his dominions and teach him a lesson. This in itself gives the reason why, for instead of honouring her, he spent the wealth and the hours in wine bibbing; so now the wild boar was running for Libra also is ruled by Venus. So she had gone right up to there, and was waiting to get over the barrier. So she was really waiting for Meleager as Ares to start moving the Powers as they came down to push her up).

Her father ruled the land of the bears (Cancer) and was very angry that such should have taken place, but really all was due to neglect in the honour of the calendar, and the gods found themselves derelict. Thus Diana in her hunt found no wealth to take up to Apollo.

As these things always do, it led to further complications, for the two uncles of Meleager, Plexippus and Toxeus, those who were given to weaving and archery (Gemini and Sagittarius), who also thwarted the prize of victory, were killed by him. So owing to that lax moment, all had been swept back considerably at the time of records. (The soul had allowed itself to go back badly).

Althaea, who was the mother of Meleager, and one who ever sought of the gods for healing powers, was filled with grief at their death. This was mother Mem, the house of home, who sadly upbraided her son with execrations; for she knew of the wonderful gifts that had been utterly wrecked through this addiction to wine bibbing, especially as the Fates had handed him the torch at his birth, and upon which the preservation of his life depended.

So Oeneus being affected was due to Ares running wild in delights, causing all the wealth gained by the soul to be completely wrecked by the boar that had got loose in the house of Taurus. Thus, is one of the whirling cycles of the soul, and the heritage in Aquarius where man no longer honours the gods; but he still is the vase and the vessel of the gods whether he refutes it or not. (So he goes on refusing to accept it; thinks he is so sophisticated, and now the boar is beginning to run wild).

Upon such a tragedy taking place Althaea, the mother of Meleager, immediately threw the torch, which she had been carrying for the gods, and had handed to her son at his birth, into the fire, and as soon as it was consumed, Meleager expired in the greatest torment, and the whole house fell into doom. The real tragedy lies in the fact that the two uncles tried to snatch the prize of the caught boar as it was being handed to Atalanta, the house of Libra, that it could go up to the heights.

Yet this has a curious twist, for Meleager was the sun-god as the will, Ares, and by the Queen Althaea casting all into the fire, there was a change of will and a renewal upon another cycle of birth, but in a very poverty-stricken state; and as Meleager's sisters mourned over his body, Diana changed them into birds; records of mind-memory. (No real growth at all, but he was forced onto the next Cycle and there he found a derelict state, and the soul would wonder why he had come back into a life full of karma).

The boar was caught in Arcadia, which was the land of ever verdant free-flowing waters, was nothing compared with the bulls Epirus possessed in the fields of Sicily; (meaning that he had untold wealth of herds). But the boar that was sent by Diana to outrage Oeneus, had eyes that shone with blood and flames, and would be to do with the powers encased in the two eyes on the spear axis, the pons varolii and the arbor vitae; (showing you the wonderful powers that were there and became lost).

For it was recorded that his neck was rough and stiff through refusal to change, as his tusks rivalled the tusks of India. While the foam, boiling from his fuming strength, burnt and blasted the foliage all around. This was due to the mighty strength and wealth of power that had been accruing under the rock, through the lack of renouncing the old ways, and the energetic endeavour on the part of the soul to change.

The territory of the boars was Cancer and Taurus, and they complemented one another as a Joseph and Mary with the child of Gemini. They who had the way open to travel to Bethlehem to establish their son, by going down into Egypt to pay their taxes and gain further experience. But as a Solomon was rich with wealth and knowledge, and allowed his son to become the victim of his idle ways; thus the whole soul was forced to re-orientate itself and enter onto the next plane with only the knowledge gained (and no wealth). For this brute had trampled down the corn and scattered the grapes, apart from venting his fury on the flocks and herds.

Therefore the husbandman laments and weeps and the shepherds are helpless, and as the people fly to the walls of the city for protection, Meleager the young hero of the soul, goes forth to wrestle with it, and is translated as he is in the act of mastering it. His mother sees the errors of the soul and enforces changes, although it entails going down into the depths to deduce the experience. (That is the harp of life who is prepared to go into these experiences, prepared to take them on. Says, "Very well, we must try and find the experience").

A very important point to be realised is the fact that these animals are mythical from a point of form, but in reality are more dangerous and powerful than if living, for they steal up upon the unwary soul and put him into captivity before he knows where he is. It applies in the same way as the Dragon of Wantage and that of George and the Dragon, with no evidence of fight in a literal sense, but an inward struggle that bears its results in the growth of the soul.

The Chimaera which seems to symbolise so much to the mystic, would be looked upon by the intellectual as utter rubbish. For although the story of Bellerophon is rich with wealth, so was the boar, yet it was allowed to create such devastation in a territory so rich with possibility. Yet who cannot say that heroes do not hunt such beasts as these: it would be impossible to investigate new lands and rich jungles without meeting these creatures of enormous propensity. The true hero is the scapegoat. (He knows he is going to meet them: he is going to wrestle with them).

(See plate on page 17)

Wild beasts were far more formidable in former days than now, for now if man goes forth to capture in the literal sense, he would have all the equipment possible; but from a point of mythical, would be so sceptical he would kill all possibility of belief. No! The Boar that killed Adonis was literally the raging darkness that was victorious over the whole six signs of the base of the zodiacal chart, thus completely numbing the whole of the soul's possibility to rise and build the arc.

The answer to this lay in the fact that Aphrodite then was goddess of the Dog-star and not the Virgin, therefore temptress and not the Isis with Adonis as the sun-god, the child beautiful squeezed out of the Horae. (You try and get your sun-god by continually sending up the powers to the heights. When you get a sun-god he labours for you, too, and he sends down wisdom, and you will find a remarkable difference).

The hunting of the boar is what takes place after the accounts have been rendered, and the Sothic Cycle—which amounts to 1460 years, and is a four-year period—returns into itself and was the establishment of the quadrature in the rock, the basic four of the cervical vertebrae. (It is bringing a four-square state, a substantial base whereby you have something to stand upon). Yet it could be even another calendar, for who is more unpredictable than the Boar, or even the goddess.

ROYAL WEALTH

AS the Divine Virgin brought forth, her maidens gathered round and marvelled at such profound Beauty. For as they uncovered the cradle, there was a cry of heavenly joy, as the new Belief expounded its wonder. Thus the Calydonian Hunt is the mastery of the beast, to capture his mighty wealth. (See text on page 19, col. 2).

The time that is being related to is of the Sothic Dynasty, a time of the twin brothers Pleuron and Calydon as the root of the square, and the time of the wild boars; and links with the twin countries under one monarch, Taurus and Scorpio, which fixed the rock, and Saturn ruling the Ares fire. Therefore was a time before the soul had completely separated by hardened belief, and both still had faith in the one equinox.

There was still the belief in the three golden apples that were to be captured, and which were in the keeping of the giant for the time being; the three former vertebrae that could only be reached by the serpent being mastered. So in the case of the two being under the one equinox, it was the vernal, for the story begins where one ends the movement for the winter solstice, where all had to be gathered in and accounted for.

Therefore the Sothic Dynasty ended with Aegyptus, that which was pleasant to the people, while Danaus his brother, one who was well stocked but only borrowed,—was of the Ares calendar and not the solar, and came back to do homage to Hera, Mother Earth full of nagas, and accounts for the hunting of the boar, and a boar that was so wild. No expansion. (As the soul came back into his body he had to start a new form of growth. All these states were building up in the soul, but no expansion took place).

(Now remember that all these states are within man; and it is all these states which man has within him in an unbalanced way that he is wrestling today. You may have such a state going back to the beginning of time, and it is still completely unbalanced. So by wisdom you force yourself to get into a balanced state, seeing the wisdom and where you are at fault. So you wrestle with yourself until you get yourself balanced. "Man know thyself").

All was connected to Oeneus not sacrificing to Artemis, it so having offended the goddess that she sent the boar to ravage his fields. This indicates that a Pasht month, an old idea, ought to have been sacrificed that the solar could enter, and it was not done. Consequently the inflow of the Sothic Powers as the fires of Uranus and Neptune were completely beginning to wreck all gained.

Meleager as Ares making sacrifice: (the will).

Thus the bear to be caught was in Taurus being stabilised and the scorpion caught, that the eagle could rise from the snare and be transformed into the phoenix, the bird of Paradise. So if you can conceive the boar beginning his ravages at the winter solstice where Scorpio makes action and Meleager wrestles with it until he is able to transform his pruning hook into a spear of Apollo the radiating phallus, you will have some idea of what the myth is indicating. So he must slay the animal, and would only be by the aid of Atalanta in the foot race, for she was a skilful runner, and one deft with throwing.

Thus she was as a Ruth when there was no seed for a son, but only a daughter to carry on the generation: (the fatherhood strong enough within the soul), yet we could not say Meleager was without riches; he was well stocked, and when it returned to Greece as the turn of the wheel, it brought untold troubles; and this is where so many legends and myths were established. For it was most necessary that records should be enlisted, otherwise there was no proof of the truth of psychological destiny.

Thus this brings Thestius into the picture: he was the son of Ares, as well as being related to Agenor; while Aegyptus his mother, ancient in lineage, was a queen of unknown origin. Belus and Agenor were the twin brothers, while king Oeneus and Althea will give you of the full genealogy of the whole family of quadrature when in full progress, whereby the intercalaries are successfully harvested. (The very depth of the Cancer state of the soul is untold and impossible to enumerate, because it goes right back into the ancient creation; and the mother always stays with the soul; she never alters).

This held record that Hera's method of the Daedala, as the lunar, was being exercised at that time as a festival every sixtieth year (the whole count of the six senses being drawn up to a fulness) with fifteen days to add to bring it up to the solar year. (Meaning that you had to collect the Horae to try and bring it to its full height. In the lunar you only bring some change at the end of the whole of the six senses being activated, but not so with the solar).

So it can be seen that Ares and his mother Aegyptus were only seeking into the wisdom of supplementing the year with the modification of 365 days, instead of the fifteen days required being adjusted every 60th year, or at the end of a cycle of the six senses being fattened. (Instead of waiting for the whole 6 senses to gather up the Horae, they were trying to gather the Horae at the end of the year. Instead of waiting for the whole to burst through, they were trying to gather it up quicker).

Curiously enough, being so much in agreement in their desires they failed to fence in debate and resided in the courtyard, merely revelling in the possibilities and only talking about it, but never doing it. Thus nearly preventing Apollo's birth at Delos, for all was being pushed into birth by the horns of the moon, and no solar inter-birth which is the life of Apollo. Thus once earthed, expansion automatically takes place. (So many of you just talk about the knowledge and never make it live, so you are only pushed into birth by the horns of the moon).

Therefore their delay was equal to refusal (it got cold); thus it was Artemis as Diana who hunted the quarry, as Meleager or Ares as a son of Thestius, was giving away to Atalanta the distinction by entering into the negative as pleasure and not victory. (It was the moon that was pushing it along by the vast movement that she was bringing. As she brought the action in your chart she was pushing it, but unless you start to wrestle with the actions she brings, you are never going to bring activity).

How many of you really study your charts, and as these states come up, say, "Now I must see how I can deal with it. What does it literally mean? How do I wrestle with it? Or do I sit back when I have a trine, and think I am just going to bring something in." Oh no! That is the wrong thing to do. Find out what you should be doing and wrestle with it. Otherwise, what is the good of this knowledge being brought to you?

For it must be seen that Atalanta was a half-sister to

(Your Venus may be ready to go over the barrier, but you have a lot of states from the past that have not been put into order and you are trying to hide them; you think they can remain there, so you try to blind yourself to the real cause of the trouble. You blame everybody else but yourself. Now, if you are really wanting to be a scapegoat, wanting to find expansion, you must do all you can to dispose of these states).

So Meleager gathered the heroes from all over Greece, and among them was Atalanta, who was as Zeus in wisdom bringing equipoise. In fact it was the wisdom that she was earthing that set the expansion into operation, and was none other than the feminine principle of the soul labouring diligently through the works of the cosmos, the goddess. But the heroes, the chiefs of the soul's own tribes, ancestors as his maternal uncles, refused to hunt with Atalanta until Meleager, who was in love with her, overcame their opposition.

This was a wrestle to master Scorpio the eighth, that that gained did not go down into the tomb, but brought the eagle up out of the trap it was caught in, that it could be freed and raised up onto its rightful status. Then by endeavour the hind legs of the horse could be cast, and the archer send the arrow of accumulative new life up to the king. But the main thing was but it was the feminine principle that was the strength. Thus Atalanta bewitched the boar and caused him to become enticed into the lost cause, for she was sister to the Melian nymphs who nurtured Zeus many aeons ago, for time has no real recording when being dictated onto the scrolls of posterity.

Atalanta was to be the scapegoat for this task, therefore when the skin was handed to her as the rights of the sister to the mountain king, the sons of Thestius stole it from her and Meleager slew them. But he now was fated to "die" by the throw of the discus returning to its place of birth.

This indicates the activity between Taurus and Scorpio, Gemini and Sagittarius, causing all other polarities to begin unity in action, and the alchemicalisation to drive forth, which resulted in what had dropped into the pool in the fourth, returning to the heights as the plumed serpent, and offering his lords renewed service. (The sperm that dropped down into the pool, now returned as the plumed serpent after the struggle). Thus when it is said, "he who first draws blood is the quarry", you will again have some idea that the dispute between Meleager and his uncles was caused by Artemis (the Moon) herself who brought action into birth.

This is recording the mixed variety that took place in the Taurus Equinox which caused so much damage to exist in the

Invocation to the Sun

by Briony

O Divine Light of Eternal Comprehension, Great Wonder of the Heavens, Shine forth so that we may draw down Thy Wealth to inspire Thy children lost in the wilderness of their dense ideals. All that we know, Thou art; ever glowing, ever pouring down upon us the drip of ages—allow us now the grace to churn this Ambrosial milk so that we may succour all nations with Universal Love. When they cry out in their now imminent anguish, knowing not where to look for hope, let us be the instruments whereby they will turn to Thy Light and then they too will be answered. Then Light will shine where now only hideous lust cowers in the shade under the hypocritical guise of love.

We feel one with Thee as we tread Thy Glorious Path, rejoicing in sharing Thy travail in Thy Great Mission of Compassion, ever understanding why we are dying to embrace Thy Face. Upon Divinity's manifestation, we kindred spirits became with Thee more one, and with ourselves, than we were ever conscious of before. This brought a waterfall of source to Source; the Realisation of the Profound Isotope, creating the Source Etherialisation that Thou hast ever been about. We seek that we may ever be worthy of our Divine Heritage, Thy Land of Light, Thy Home. Amen.

The Master's Temple

by Leo

From rock and dust it started up,
With the splendour of the Midnight Sun,
Rising in great wonder
Like clouds before the Thunder.
Until at last, erupting with a Mighty blast
Upon the Trumpet of Triumph,
And the Temple of The MASTER was born.

Now it stands above all other
In the Radiance of a MOTHER;
Spreading Her warmth and Love
With the Wings of a Dove,
Over the Mountain Streams
While the Sun-Light gleams in Its Radiance.
For all is the Service
And the mission of Man.

Dedicated to our Beloved MOTHER,

Far down in your innermost depths,
On the horizon of consciousness,
The Drip nearing to touch your past wealth,
Lighting up the depths with Divine Holy Light.

Rising up from chakra to chakra,
A floating fusion on golden wings.
Driving the Bull into Neptune,
Every cell of the brain afire.

AS a result of a number of readers asking for more information upon the various decanates of the 12 Celestial Signs, we have decided to once again repeat the above diagram. Next month, in her Reminiscences, Merope will give an explanation of their various influences, showing how they are all degrees of the soul unfoldment upon the Path of Cosmic Evolution.

the famous Huntress and daughter to the king of Arcadia who resides in the autumn equinox as Scorpio, and as Lot's wife was looking back to what had to be renounced. (The soul was looking back on what it had to renounce; it was not seeking as to how it could renounce, and go on and find greater strength and unfoldment).

It was rumoured that her father wishing for a son,—being disappointed at the birth,—handed her over to be suckled by a she-bear, which of course indicates the reflection of Artemis in the Lunar being fully embraced. (All going slowly backwards and backwards, by all these things not being embraced by the Solar light). Thus by being so hardened when young by such experience, she learnt to slay the centaurs, and accounts for why she played her part in the Calydonian hunt.

She was cast out and unmothered, thus left to the bears to nourish and suckle; the Melian nymphs. (One who had never brought any real expansion and so she was really a hardened soul). So she grew up a Pasht intercalary, as an old idea that should have been discarded and of Egyptian origin, yet of Zeus expansion; so was magnetic and ancient in her ideas, but full of power.

So much of the basic foundation of the Taurean depth comes from the wealth and stealth of Egypt, and it was a time when many corrupt creations began, as well as much in the way of the magician. (So you see there is much in your Taurus state that has got to be mastered). For Taurus was at that time reaping the wealth of Cronus, the Cyclops, and although the enormous wealth has been handed down with time, the corruption that was interblended was dynamic and never lost.

The matter of exposing children to die, is due to the first factor of the daughter being a disappointment for a son, for it is but the outcome of continual neglect. (Instead of bringing into birth a god-creation, they only brought a daughter creation, a feminine state). But sometimes it is even a son who is placed into a basket on the waters, as indeed was Moses; (cast out onto the waters to find his way through); but invariably a king's daughter or a shepherd's wife labours until a true parent comes forth.

Sometimes they live in obscurity for many ages and marry the peasant's daughter; then they bring forth pretty children, but their heritage is forgotten, until one day a son makes himself distinct in the field of valour, and he is declared worthy to lead the people for miles around.

It may be rather difficult to place this to the birth of the principles in the soul as they go from spiral to spiral; but as the interblending takes place and the births come forth, they are either welcomed with exhilaration, or born in poverty of the senses. So when Atalanta was handed to the bears to nourish, she was never given any life or purpose, and merely resided in the kitchen and back-woods of the estate, expanding through nature growth.

The soul was too busy with its own ideas, and failed to nourish and educate the soul through the daughter. So she merely attended all the witches' sabbaths as a wild reveller, and not an educated daughter being presented at court. Therefore when it came to catching a boar, Atalanta was fully capable, although at the time she was one full for expansion and often went to visit her sister Metis; for she was a daughter of the woods, and not one given over to the wiles of the court, and knew much of the wealth of Cancer and Taurus which houses wild boars.

Atalanta, being the motherhood that always remained, but merely translated, was of the root basis of Atlantis. (The royal state of Atlantis; the royal wealth). Alice wandering through the looking-glass. So you can see the wealth that is really in the Cancer labyrinth that is only turned into a Campe, everlastingly bringing its lower side up to reach the heights. The soul does not really know the wealth that lies in Cancer and Taurus, and that is what man is wrestling with today.

Now I have given you the key and the plan to the Lecture. So you wrestle with the words, and try and get expansion and build up the arc. Try and break open the wealth in Cancer and Taurus, and find what wealth you have in your Cancer and Taurus. I will go on bringing you this wealth and help you to understand yourself, and if you will wrestle with the words it will not be very long before you bring out your wealth, and you will find your Cyclops dancing. But you will have to labour and you will have to be willing to catch the boar. Yes! and

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you, and as we enter onto the earth-plane there are dynamic Powers entering into your midst, owing to the movement of circumstances. Great Life is flowing to the earth and many of you will feel these vibrations touching you. You must do all you can to try and deal with them: conquer them; do not let them overcome you, but wrestle with them, for you are the forerunners of this New Life that can flood the earth; but you must play your part. You are the ones that are going to weave it into New Life, and it can give you superb and supreme Life; but you must wrestle with it with all your might and do not let it run wild with you: hold it under control and thus prepare the way for further Life to descend upon the earth and bring a new force of strength.

Tonight we are going to deal with the knowledge of the Calydonian Hunt; the Ares power that enters into the soul and brings extreme activity. So I want all your attention so that I can help all of you tonight to understand a great depth. Do try to see that these are bringing to you extreme wealth, knowledge of how to break down those states of the past that have been gathered up over the Ages; states that man has no idea exist within him, but are accruing fast with him and going to bring great difficulty.

You are being privileged to be given the understanding of how to deal with these states. All you have to do is to have courage: be a pioneer; be one who takes both the horns of the Bull into your hands and wrestles with him; not that he runs wild with you, but you wrestle with the Powers, and the more they seek to overcome you, the more you wrestle with them. It is the man who sits down under life and allows life to rise above him that is the cause of all the difficulty. Do not allow this to come about with you, but master the states, and then you will feel proud of yourself, and you will find a strength and a zest coming within you that you have never had before.

This is what the present Age is going to bring to mankind. It is no good man sitting down and growing into a cabbage-state; he now has to learn to find bristling growth, otherwise the Powers will overwhelm the soul and the soul will be buried under them. Now you want to find an austere state whereby you have complete control over yourself; you are able to regulate yourself and you are master of the flesh. That is what the Aquarian Age is going to teach mankind: master the flesh and bring forth the soul. Tonight we are going to seek more deeply into this, and those of you who are truly seeking will find an answer, but only if you are truly seeking.

So now let us go on seeking into the CALYDONIAN HUNT, which refers to the creation of the soul, particularly the 1st house where the boar is apt to run wild; although you must realise that the whole of the bottom of the chart refers to CALYDON, that which was brought into creation.

The Cyclops must be given due consideration for they are a creation of wealth which many are denied through their lack of expansion as wisdom, but merely suffering them as turbulent giants. So naturally that soul would in time yearn for their strength, but would have to labour under dire initiation to bring it forth.

Yet who would be of greater possibility as wealth than the Cyclops, one Eye already prepared; those versed in thunderbolts and lightning (great powers of the past that could bring illumination), Pluto's helmet (great powers of the mind) that rendered him invisible, and even the trident of Poseidon (the axis rod) who shook the earth with his volume, were destined to prepare the Cup that would hold the Holy wine that was to receive the divine Dove that would alight and leave the ever-green sprig, in return for the Soma juice that would be carried to the Gods.

(The Solar fire that would go up as the spinal current that would go up to the Gods, and in return they would send down to man the green sprig. The Dove that would give them new life, new thought, new birth; wisdom that had never been earthed before).

(The Cyclops are the ancient heritage of the soul, and in the pineal gland you have the very essence. As the Solar light goes up it brings a subduing state to these Powers, so that when they return down to the soul as the Powers from the North they no longer are as a wild state but a state that is helpful to the soul; they can help you to master the old witch state, which again is the other extreme of the soul and would of course be the Cancer labyrinth that has to be mastered.

Man is a very complicated creation and he is thousands and thousands and thousands of years old: within his being he has enormous powers, some of which have never been dealt with from the beginning of time: he was as the 'spark' right from the beginning, and he was building up the creation known as 'the bodies'.

This wild and lawless heritage as soul creation which has been so foolishly disputed, is automatically associated with Zeus, expansion, therefore could now treble their wealth in coming under law and order, to become the foundation for a future creation. This is the road all men must travel, whether they deny or dispute; so they might as well be guided by the pointer-stones that have been left with humanity as a guidance when all was dark and lost. These creatures being of the hundred-fold, the hundred-handed of mutability, cannot help but produce: it would be impossible to have a Cyclops barren, therefore would turn to a black master if given wrong material.

In the beginning, after the war between them and the Titans (the five creations of the sensory state), the expansion produced construction and destruction of the Arian qualities as the personality basic of soul growth (a new state of unfoldment). Consequently they were placed at the gate of Tartarus, the issuing forth, to prevent the foes of Zeus from escaping, for the feminine spirit had to labour to bring forth the expansion and suffer to do so. (So Tartarus would be the 12th to the 1st house, where it either goes over, into the 1st, or goes down into Tartarus. So to prevent the foes of Zeus from escaping that had to go down, there had to be a watch over that gate).

DIVINE TRANSLATION

WITH the depths unfolding into the heights, the Glory of Divine Creation, man is born and born again, into the Magnitude of His Divine Aegis. Worlds of Light, Worlds without end, the Glory of Continuity, the unfolding wonders of man's mind. (See text on page 17, col. 1).

So this in time took another turn, for we find that Campe, the monster, appeared at the other gate (the 6th), and as the solar possibility, had been evolved from the involving spirit as a "caterpillar". This became an emblem of the turning post of a race course; thus was as the vernal equinox as the fire descended. The slowly translating state from animal to human through unity of heights and depths.

(Now what does the caterpillar do? Brings up its hind quarters to meet its front quarters. So that is the soul everlastingly bringing up its lower state to meet its heights).

Prometheus, who had the knowledge and the power, in not having used it wisely, in passing the vernal point, went down into Tartarus, and was forced to stay there until he could find the password of release. Eventually a small grub was found crawling on the belly, and it was found to be a caterpillar. The Fu had "died" and what came forth was the grub of the future truth. The experience of Tartarus then revealed the constructive element of the Arian entry, and the vernal equinox produced silkworms instead of raging tigers.

It was a turning point of a race where the spirit as the solar life, as sensitivity, was slowly coming forth in the light of the diaphane, (the turning point in the life of the human being). The Cyclops hurling rocks at the Titans was the opposition and confusion between Capricorn and Cancer, out of the disharmony and the unbalanced state of the soul forcing all to go down under the rock of Saturn.

To further this, and understand as a mode of progress, you have to realise that the

it can find re-generation, and bring forth the solar pneumatikon body from the spirit interwoven in the knowledge: (meaning that it just needed that extra push of the soul, and the soul would get through). This would be through the lunar in labouring, bringing forth the spiritual garment that would transport the soul to the heights, and the translation of the physical whereby it would walk and talk with God.

To further the explanation of the conundrum of evolution and growth, let us seek into what brought the Goat into being the expansive point in the etymology of wisdom. Briareus, one of the Cyclops, was the same as AEGaeon, and that is connected with the Goat, and the Goat with Poseidon. (The great powers of the Heights). This was brought about by a false calendar when all was not under law and order, for a half of a Sothic cycle brought the autumn equinox to the place of the spring, and the Goat and the Crab were in confusion.

A soul with power had used unwisely and brought much into disorder, and it is such as these incidents that have produced the chaos, murder and disorder that have taken place in history, and in human lives. (Somebody brought a creation, a new idea, a new birth, but they never put it into operation properly, so you have got the disorder within you, too, because it was placed onto the Cosmos). But when man becomes enlightened, such will be eliminated; he grows, and the world is a better place for his having passed this way.

(So you can see how important it is at the present moment that these Myths are entered onto the maelstrom with perfection, otherwise it is going to bring terrible chaos in time to come, because these are more dynamic than anything that has ever been earthed before. Up to the present it has only been one story. Now it is a whole creation, a dynamic issue).

When all is balanced, it means harmony within, then a balanced zodiacal foundation results, and the qualities of the Cyclops begin to come forth. Then it is found that they have not just three eyes on one side of the zodiac, but in polarity and harmony; not just bringing forth knowledge, but producing, living and infusing knowledge and wisdom in all directions. It is not sharp cunning practice that a man wants, and of which the Goat could produce, but wisdom that can enlighten and improve.

The story that has ever confused the world has in reality been expounded clearly in the religion of Papalism, and possibly that which has kept it alive so long, and is the point of Mary being the Mother of God. Right from the beginning of the birth of humanity, Cancer has been the mother creator; Mother Mem, who with her sister Mother Shin, produces the sun-god.

But the sperm of Life comes from the upper Waters of Poseidon, the unseen heights, which are the Cyclops who were banished by Zeus, and still are; for nothing is more possessive than man when he is called upon to discard and make growth. (The sperm that man wantonly uses comes from Poseidon, right from the Upper Waters, the unseen

Hecatonchieres did not always prove to be of a hundred hands, by the results that came forth in the autumn after struggle. And when it is spoken of as a hetacomb sacrifice, it did not comprise of a hundred oxen, but sometimes only twelve, or even only fifty rams (all that the soul could offer).

Yet in reality it might be only a crab that was demanded to sway the situation: (meaning, all it needed was hard struggle on the part of the soul, and all it needed was sacrificing a crab, one of those desires of self). So what appeared enormous and impossible to the blind, was in reality merely a turn of effort required. Therefore Campe, he who took on of sudden change, was the Chrysalis to come forth out of the changing garb, but for the time merely adopted the action of a caterpillar; growth that feeds on the Mulberry leaf, the royal leaves of wisdom that bring forth the silken garment.

The action of the caterpillar is to bend up its generative parts to the Phallic heights, that
