THE MYSTERIES OF A.D. 33

WHY RELIGION IS STERILE & LIFELESS

This announcement was made during a lecture on 29th January by Ra-Men-Ra, the Voice from The Masters through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook

OST OF YOU BY NOW should realise that the Way of Truth is being interiered with by those who are seeking to re-establish themselves and bring forth of a false truth, whereby the Spirit and the Powers of the Heavens no longer find their way through to the Earth except by Channels that are so prepared. This has made it very difficult for the Powers of Spirit to find their way through to the Earth-plane and bring Streams of Light, Waters of Truth. Those who are trying to establish this Truth have to do it under dire circumstances; but this has been the way all through the Ages; man ever impeding the way of those that are set to be the Channel between Life and death.

The Waters now needed to purify the Earth are required in abundance and it means that many must gather together to support those that are being that Channel. We have already brought this knowledge to you in its great depth, of how these Waters all through the Ages have been brought to the Earth by great Teachers: they do this by their minds, their will, and by being the Channel in their translation for these Powers to become adjusted.

Tonight we are going to take you further into the understanding of the Scriptures, for this is the Book of Life. Within this Book,—which of course is of Eastern origin,—the whole of the truth of life has been recorded. These words go right back to Arabic times, right back to the Akkadian Waters, and all through the ages they have been translated from one nation to another. That which I bring tonight is an understanding according to man of the modern day.

We have taken you through Genesis, giving you an understanding of the Genus being established: then we took you through the uniting of the Waters. Tonight I am taking you into a subject that may appear rather abstruse, but when you can see it from the point of view of Relativity then you will understand what it is that man will have to meet as he finds his way back to the Heights, for he has to meet all on cycles of rebound, and these cycles are ever continuing all the way up the spiral.

THE SYBIL TIBERTINA

During the golden Age of Painting in Italy, Baldassare Peruzzi was destined to become one of the greatest Masters of his time. Amongst his more famous works is the fresco in the Sienna church of Fontegiusta representing the emperor Augustus with the Tibertine Sybil, the above plate. A man of unusual perceptory powers he was receptive enough to receive the Truth of the Embodiment that took place in A.D.33 and painted this fresco as a permanent memorial to the Truth. Ra-Men-Ra fully describes the purpose and force of this in the script of the front article.

Editorial ♦♦ The Pen Mightier than the Sword

TO know is to be enlightened, and where ever Truth is earthed so all men are set free from the task of having to be the first to explore the darkness of Ignorance to discover the Light. This is the fundamental reality of the Teachings of the Christos and the Buddha for each sought only to earth as much Light of Truth so as to dispel the erroneous thoughts and actions which were in the maelstrom at the time. Thus each was a Saviour, for each saved another from having to do the exploration into the unknown.

Once a Truth has been uttered it does not matter whosoever uttered it, it will be the beacon of light to guide all seekers into the Spirit. Truth is apparently ever hidden from man and is that which is lying beyond the apparent or superficial. To form conclusions from the vision of the matter is to be beguiled by the dead reflection of the mirror and to lose the guidance of direction. Thus it is why the road of the Mysteries or Occult Path (or that which is hidden or secret) is the road which all mankind must take. In the past ages every soul has been incarnating time after time and thus has been gathering within his Bloodstream the whole consciousness since the beginning of Time, for within this is the whole of the being of Man, his Mind, his conscious Awareness. Thus every man has the same potential to develop the Truth and to explore the Unknown, and the same major points of ignorance to dispel.

In this month's issue there have been written most Dynamic statements which will gain instant subconscious recognition through out the world. Immediately those who are teaching anything which is false on that point, will begin to lose ground because their foundations will be cut from underneath them.

Where the person who has found this Truth begins to live the Truth so gained, that Truth becomes established foursquare in matter and builds such a powerful foundation that nothing can shake it or dispel the Light. This invariably causes utmost crucifixion of body because there will be so much erroneous thought and actions in the rest of humanity which will automatically be as barriers to the one seeking to break through into LIGHT.

THIS month on the front Page is the statement of the Truth regarding the crucifixion suffered by some person who led the search for Truth two thousand years ago. Ra-Men-Ra has stated categorically that the soul who was the person who embodied and earthed the Descending Spiritual Powers of that age was a Woman, that it took place in Rome, and that the teachings of religion and orthodoxy as to the ways in which such happenings began were utterly false and erroneous.

WAS THE KISSING OF THE STONE FLOOR IN JERUSALEM IRRESPONSIBLE FOLLY? EVIL IN THE SENSE THAT WHERE A PERSON KNOWING THE TRUTH DELIBERATELY DECLARES A FALSEHOOD, DOES HE NOT ACT IN THE EXACT OPPOSITE WAY TO LIFE THEREBY BECOMING A LIVING AND CONTAGEOUS EVIL? (LIVE EVIL).

To cause thousands to follow the path of evil and ignorance so as to lead into greater perils of darkness and difficulty is the unforgivable Sin for each man is responsible for his words and actions uttered. Automatically, whether man likes it or not, the world will begin subconsciously to recognise that which is the truth and that which is false, for this recognition will be the inmost Beat of the Heart, that which is ever regulating the harmony and vibration of Mind in the bloodlife. That is why persons suddenly meet Truth and instantaneously awaken to it and know in their hearts that it is right even though they cannot give chapter and verse of why such is felt. In the Bloodstream resides the total potential Mind Awareness, and man in his conscious mind is only drawing upon his selections and opinions of that through which he has journeyed in experience. This state of selection is the conscious mind and mind memory and it is this which is the cause of the peculiar "twist" to the mould he has created and is born in. Where however a person has started to suffer through the creeping hand of diversity, he is the more ready to seek outside its own fixed and rigid thoughts, so becomes pliable and receptive, and immediately the Blood is able to radiate the Truth in sufficient power for the soul consciously to awaken to the new awareness which is now dormant within. No longer is the mind memory a blockage because it is not that which is the source now relied upon.

MANY readers constantly are writing in astonished how it was they suddenly came across the Occult Gazette and how immediately they touched the Paper and started reading the articles so at that moment they KNEW they had found the Truth they were searching for.

They could not explain in a logical way why such was felt within them so strongly and so vibrantly nor why they had been sub-consciously led to take the Occult Gazette. But each of these persons are seekers in the True Occult way for they are restless to explore the Unknown for through illness or environment they are aware of a restless urge to awaken and change. As they so seek they become receptive to greater states of Mind and their Blood becomes freed from logical mind dominance.

Wherever Truth is written there is an unseen aura of Light and radiance shining forth as a Lighthouse in the darkness and each Word has its own irridescence of candle power. As the soul seeks with added cry and mind flight so by the Law of Attraction it is led to meet this Radiance. This is because the one was seeking for Truth and Guidance and the Other was OF Truth and thus the Torch of Awareness. This Radiance is the Solar Light and that which is literally the means of giving sustenance in the same way as the physical sun is giving of life every hour of the day. The Lunar does not give of Life but only the movement and magnetic powers unto the raw material to grow and become, the Lunar Magnetic Powers.

Throughout the world there is a mounting lack of Life, and daily there is an increasing toll on mind and body. Disease is on the increase and mindlessness the despair of East and West alike. The only way to give of new LIFE to resuscitate the increasing millions is to turn towards the Solar Source, which will be the means to become the irradiating channels of Solar Power, human vehicles radiating Life through having found Truth and living the Truth so found.

This is what Ra-Men-Ra is teaching through Mrs. Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, the human instrument through which the VOICE is vibrated. She is moved by the power of the WORD, TRUTH, and each day thus the Pen becomes greater than any other actions. It is this Pen that through the bitterness of the past creates the Future in the struggles of the Present.

As the Pen writes so do seekers of any colour, race, creed or nation seek the same message. So it is that this Paper has no language barriers, no political frontiers, no racial ties and no religious loyalties. Its tongue is the stringed instrument of Truth and responds to the Rhythm of the Spheres as the Unknown Powers of the Spiritual Cosmos send forth daily its rays of Energy, Power and Life which she captures through the Mind thus wielding the Pen. That is why daily we receive letters from all quarters of the Globe and why it is imperative that every opportunity is given to all to at least receive the Occult Gazette so that the seeds of Light can be sown. For even those who rudely try to destroy do so merely to protect themselves from inevitable change, for they recognise subconsciously that Truth is in the Paper but so fanatically strong are their

MYSTERIES OF A.D.33

The Mind Embodiment

VERY few men have left the period of Lamech. Those who are seeking now are trying to find their way up-stream as the salmon making bounds. It matters not what nationality you may be: it is the mind that counts: the present world is that which he is learning through: they are his problems. Man is only mind, and when he leaves the Earth he is mind; perceived as a soul, but truly mind. It is by that he will ascend to his rightful place in the planes of the outer world. Some of you have come from the outer world, but will you get back? That is the point: will you get back? That is what you are seeking to do: come to the Earth and bring Light to the Earth, but not to become 'of the Earth' and lose your way: many have done, and are now in captivity upon the earth. Some of you are subconsciously aware of this and are seeking to get back: this you will only do by relativity, and bringing the fulness of the Buddhic plane.

Here you see Sibyl Tibertina, (the Front Page Plate), and the three feminine figures represent the trinity of the Mothers. On the other side are Romans and the emperor is telling them what is happening: he is giving them the understanding of the birth of the Embodiment; the Embodiment that took place in A.D.33

The idea that it was a male who brought the birth is all wrong: it was a woman, and there she is telling them, because it was taking place in Rome, and nothing to do with the Jews: it was taking place at Palatine Hill, the House of Livia.

There she is, telling the emperor of what is going to take place; that of the Embodiment; and the Embodiment is the birth of the Sun-god. All this understanding of a cross is completely wrong, and it never came into birth until hundreds of years afterwards.

Behind are the three Mary's. She was a sybil, a great prophetess, who is giving the understanding of what the Embodiment would entail; the birth of the New Teachings; and they were never earthed in the whole of Pisces. But this is a knowledge that has been known right down the ages. You find the Egyptians had it, then the Hindus: all had the knowledge of the gods and goddesses; the birth of the Son that would come forth and raise the Father upwards.

Then it was brought to the Romans, and they were the only ones at the time who were dealing with occult matters, the rest were hidebound with orthodoxy, Hebraicism, and a form of Christianity that was coming into birth, which of course was the entry of the Waters.

At the time This Knowledge (of Universal Philosophy) was due to come you had Theosophy and Spiritualism fringing the Waters whereby they were giving the understanding of a in power, he is able to hold the Law at bay, but only for a little while; and then, when it does come, it come as an axe.

So here was Sybil Tibertina, or one called Livia, giving unto the Emperor the knowledge of the Embodiment that was taking place, and upon their soil. Once a statement is made, even as a statement is being made now, it brings down a Power; it opens the way for the Law to percolate through; because, what was embodying the Law was ignorance, and when ignorance or darkness is dissolved, then Light breaks through; so Power is pervading the Earth.

When you have been used to the darkness, and when that is removed you are invaded by electrical fire; and when that becomes too congested Uranus strikes and breaks it open; but where there is an Instrument phenomena; all born out of different Teachings.

The real understanding is man taking the Cup and drinking it to the bitter dregs whereby he takes upon himself re-birth: only by re-birth of his own soul, the cleansing of his soul and bringing all into a state of translation, will he ever return to the heights on the 4th dimension.

Does that not appear logical? If it does not appear logical, tell me so.

How can a God upon a cross save a man?

And what does he want to be on there for?

The God that is being placed on the cross is the Solar Deity; and that cross is within man himself, because the man is on the cross; and the cross is the Cardinal Cross where he is learning to grind-out through mutability that of the animal nature and bring into birth the mind.

The True Religion

THIS is logical; this is scientific: this is not just religion. Religion is born within man himself; he brings into birth his own god. Although there is within the Heights the Great Intelligencia that is coming into birth out of man's reactions to the Power that is descending into him, and how he gives them rebirth; thus he sends them back to the Heights and he builds up the Grand Man.

The Law is always there where e're you tread. You cannot tread into the Heights or into the Depths, but the Law is there. The Law is there, and they know all; and man cannot touch it: in any case man cannot get away from it, because he either adjusts the Law or he dislocates it; so he and the Law stand face to face; and it is the Law that brings him the difficulties. Very often, through that which he has gathered unto himself

THE VERNAL EQUINOX

On Sunday, March 22nd a special Programme of Music will be played in the Sanctuary of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing prior to the Lecture being given in order to celebrate the Sun's Entry into Aries.

The music to be played consists of Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto in D major Op. 35 followed by Beethoven's Piano Sonata No. 14 in C minor (Moonlight). It is on these nights each month that it is hoped as many of our Readers as possible will make a special journey to gather together to listen to Ra-Men-Ra earth the Word.

The Lectures take place at the H.Q. of the School, who are the Publishers of the OCCULT GAZETTE, at 6 Phillimore Place, Kensington, W.8. The music will commence shortly after 5.15 p.m. and the Lecture will start promptly at 6.30 p.m., the doors being closed at 6.25 p.m.

who is able to do that for those Powers, then they use that Instrument whereby they strike through them.

The Instrument used is always the one that has to hold the Powers and harness the Powers; and only by utter control,—control in every direction,—can those Powers and the vicinity whereby they descend, be kept from chaos. If there was not complete control, utter control, then the dark forces would start to run wild and you would have everything in a state of chaos; and that is what has taken place in the past in many cases.

There are countries today that still hold those Powers, that are descending in many of these wonderful ancient temples, particularly in India. You will find these Powers are still descending to the earth in the Eastern countries, especially where there is reverence. These Powers are still descending to the earth because they are up-kept and revered by those around.

This is why the tombs were sealed, so that the Powers could still descend to the earth, especially where there was an effigy that sealed the door, and was revered by those passing by; when they were ravaged, those Powers left the earth; they ran wild and did much damage, far more than was ever allowed to come out to the public.

During the '39 war, were the forces of evil being directed through Hitler by some of the sages or others who had studied in the Eastern world?

That was nothing to do with Hitler at all. Do you know who started the war? Your own country! The intrigue and deceit that went on in this country was something to be understood; it set up friction that was never held down; and the reason why now this country is going down so badly through their politicians; because they were the cause of it. What was done under the name of Thread-needle Street and Wall Street was disgusting. And those words can be repeated.

I have given nothing that cannot be repeated. They are the words of Spirit.

THE DEMONS OF THE BLOOD

"The real understanding is man taking the Cup and drinking it to the very bitter dregs whereby he takes upon himself rebirth; only by re-birth of his own soul, the cleansing of his soul and bringing all into a state of translations," (see page 3 col. 2) will he ever move from the 3rd to the 4th dimension. Here in the pictorial symbology of Bengali lore, the soul, seeking to cleanse his mind from past errors of thought and consciousness since the human creation began. Once he starts to do so he uncovers all kinds of different traits of character deeply embedded in his psyche nature which he never expected to find. Now he must capture and master each one and "bury" them once and for all.

CITY OF THE SUN

The Birth of Man's Spiritual Kingdom

(This magnificent Lecture part of that delivered by Ra-Men-Ra through Mrs. Spearman-Cook on the 22nd January, 1964 in the Sanctuary of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing. This is part of a series on The Mystery Legends of the Bible which are being given each Wednesday. Only those who have been privileged to be present can feel the vibrancy and beauty of the Spirit. Others must be content to take the Lectures by post and sup by the written word).

NOW let us seek into the problem that we left with you regarding the CIRCLE OF WILLIS. Again we will take an example out of the Holy Scriptures, for it serves two purposes: one to prove to man what wonderful wisdom has been left for him as a witness, and secondly, that knowledge given unto him of orthodox rendering must be given new thought so as to release him from the captivity of that which has imposed upon him of an over-head fear. This time we revert back to Chapter 7 where SOLOMON was building the Temple. But first of all we must get fully into the mind that Solomon was not creating a Temple of bricks and mortar, but the spiritual temple of the soul, where he was fitting it to be worthy to be able to receive the Christos when it descended.

In Samuel, Samuel was showing them how to build up the king; then the soul from a point of the spirit. But the people were not satisfied with that: they could only understand, when they were told of a king, that they wanted a royal personage, and so wanted to build up a royal state within themselves; not realising that the king was of the spiritual king, and that they were beginning a path to bring forth the Christos-light: it should have been born then.

This was to be the Solar Blood in all its royal beauty as the Solar mind. Thus Solomon brought forth all the wealth that he possibly owned, and would be the wealth of his personalities and ancestors. But he had to prepare and cleanse both his body and his mind, so that what he brought forth was only on the highest initiative possible.

He fetched HIRAM from Tyre, indicating that he had extreme ancient wealth that went right back into the Akkadian times. For this was the land of the purple waters where the actual fish, when caught and brought forth, were also purple. (That was of course the mind). Hiram was a son that came forth from the unity of Ouranus and Ge, spirit and matter; one who had gained much through being a worker in bronze; the unity of solar and lunar in its royal decree.

So once upon a time man had all this within him, and that was the 'city of the sun,' right back in the beginning of time, man was born of the solar-light.

This Chapter describes how Solomon built up pillars and chapters of brass; these he decorated with lily-work and pomegranates: thus represents the struggle by the soul to maintain purity while he gained the experiences of life and found the three major keys; Wisdom, Truth and Love; the wealth of the higher generative purpose.

The two main pillars that were the stanchions of the Temple were those of the Gemini mind, that which held up the Arch. Thus was the main issue to bring forth the phenomena that would produce the Voice. So Chapter 8 deals with the dedication that was most necessary for the establishment of the Temple on the lines necessary to hold all intact and firm so as to avoid disaster.

It is most necessary that this should be thoroughly understood, for very few realise what states of change must take place that the fourth dimension can manifest in the third. And that is what it is when the Voice manifests openly to your ears, as in a voice-box before you. It would be the 4th dimension being built up by the Power you were accruing; the spiritual power.

(See the plate above)

Those who have no idea of spirit and its ethereal texture could not possibly understand the necessity of this preparation. For to the majority they only understand flesh and bone, not realising that within the blood lives the real Man; that which has yet to come forth when the soul, through its mind, has grown sufficiently to recognise the true wealth of soul existence.

THE ORACLE OF TRUTH

This painting was captured by the innocent mind genius of Marion Averill the young spirit artist whose life was tragically shortened in the circumstances set out in last January's Issue on Page 9. She was barely 12 when she painted this picture, the colour of which is outstanding. Here can be sensed the totality of the unknown Truth that is ever waiting to come forth from the innermost recesses of Mind. It is Spirit Guidance this plate personifies which is the reason why in all ages teachers have turned to Spirit to give them guidance and direction whilst they stumble through matter, as pioneers of Truth. This is the Oracle.

The ritual now to this Temple born of the spirit, and which existed as protoplasmic substance radiating unseen by the physical eye, was to bring up the arc of the covenant; which would be the raising up of the mind by the assembly of all at the feast in the month of Ethanim, that of Libra when Saturn became exalted, and all would be weighed in the balance.

Immediately all was set and the Law, that was with man through the struggle of Moses, was adjusted: the Lord began to operate from the oracle of the soul as promised. For here was the full building up of the mountain from Cancer to Capricorn, with a spirit body to now give Voice to the Echo. For up till then there had been no higher consciousness prepared for the depths to make unity. Thus once the lower was united with the higher, the wind gods could manifest; (bring the wisdom to the mind).

Descent of the Shekinah

THEN Solomon blessed the congregation with the wealth he was now bringing down, for the Host was now descending as the Shekinah or Eucharist. As Solomon called down the Host he announced with the spoken word of what he knew to be true, for he declared,

"Thou who kept thy promise with my father, now speak with thine own mouth to me."

And the Lord spoke to him from the oracle on the altar. Solomon had manifested physical phenomena, the manifestation of the heights, which at all costs he must hold and never allow to enter into the hands of the reverse forces.

Saul also had brought down of this wealth, but he knew not how to handle that which brought forth of the Yod of God and which could bless the people. This was one of the mysteries of being in the third dimension but manifesting of the fourth. This is the mystery of the Ram being turned into the Lamb, that of the Christos rebirth, where all becomes the WILL and Power of God, that of the Solar Light. The Yod of God, the Jesse's rod, the Spirit Phallus.

This is the real phallus. There should never have been a phallus as the lower generative organ; it should never have been used for the purpose it is being used for, consequently what is destroying his seed, his sperm. This should have been sent forth to the Heights and brought forth through the Jesse's rod, so that man would have spermed his own bloodstream; then he would have had his Naga manifesting up in the heights, and he could have poured healing and blessings upon the world.

Thus Solomon now realised what he had achieved through the aid of his forefathers, his aeons of personalities, and begs of the Lord not to leave him. Therefore sought that the hearts of all should be united and locked by the statutes set between him and the Lord as the Hosts descended: (the vows he made and should have kept).

This was the covenant between Solomon and the Great Powers of the Heights, that of Outer Space. But he ever had to keep it unified with the twelve hosts as the shining facet of the diamond; for it was this that would bring the lotus flower, the 7th Chakra opening its petals and drawing down into its depths that of the Heights, that the pearl in its midst would radiate with Light.

This is the pole star in all its beauty as the unified luna and solar powers brought into birth by the weavings of the soul in its up and down and back and forth. This now goes forth as the radiating heights with the vortex swirling around. Thus when this opens up to the heights, the Polar Star passes over and sends forth a shower of golden light to the world below, and man becomes blessed by the labours of a saviour upon the Earth. One that has given their all that humanity can evolve. This is the full meaning of the dog's tail that unifies heights with depths, and brings forth the wealth of the Unknown.

This would be in a man's own heights, and in the Heights. Have you realised how much man has a connection with the upper Powers? He is manifesting through the Powers of the Heights upon whom then he must have an influence, as the lower law upon the Higher Law.

Solomon when he brought this into birth realised that the altar that he and his priests had constructed was so far too limited for the wealth that he was bringing down. So he then began to offer up of burnt offerings by circumcising of the animal states, which up till then had played an important part in their lives. Thus Solomon held a great feast, and the Divine River from the heights flowed down into the river of Egypt. This was the fullest extent at that time of the heights with the depths, the ancient Arabic wealth. But unfortunately this only became in the hands of the multitude the "warm baths" of the tribe of Naphtali, and has remained so ever since.

This was the great fight that David was making as he sought to establish the wealth of the spirit; and in the case of Solomon later on it was thrown into the hands of the Shedd. The enormous Power he was trying to handle. This he let go of. He let go of the RING, which means he let go of the circling heights, the swirling vortex of the mind radiating around the open 7th Chakra, and began to draw from the depths; getting caught up with inferior powers.

Man is a complete world within himself, and if he can manipulate all the elements within himself then he can manipulate that outside. But remember, the axe is always striking back. This is what Solomon let go of, and he was thrown into the hands of it, which resulted in him finally being married up to 700 wives and 1,000 concubines; female states accruing in the bloodstream. He had got all whirling round, but he was drawing from the lunar states; he was looking downwards.

The Circle of Willis

THIS was seen only too clearly by the Early Fathers who shaved away the hair off the top of the head as a tonsure, where there resides THE CIRCLE OF WILLIS. They knew all about it. Some of you need not bother to shave it off; you have it done already. That is not without a reason; you do realise that? You have had it shaved off once before. This is the blood containing the elevated radiance circling around the pole star, and is the vortex of radiation that man is ever seeking to maintain.

So you can understand the importance of drinking fluid, and pure fluid; because it causes the blood to circulate.

This is also the mystery of ODYSSEUS going up to POLYPHEMUS, and when he was able to get past the ISLE OF THE LOTUS EATERS, (Lethargyones)—those who only ate of knowledge and became drunken with inertia,—he pushed through the moving rocks, the pons asinorum and the arbor vite, and came to the land of the Cyclopes.

Then with the skin of wine that a goat had given him,

THE SPIRIT OF SACRIFICE

Through the labourings of the body and mind a teacher sacrifices completely the whole of her time mind and sustenance to the Cause of Spirit. In this way such a one builds up in matter as a castle of will and strength a foursquare foundation of mind understanding and Light which dispels the darkness of mind ignorance. Here can be seen the uprisen bodily sensitivity that has brought forth the Philosopher's Stone, the Jewel of mind Light, the Solar Awareness.

which was his wisdom in that of water now turned into wine, he gave unto the one-eyed Cyclopes its mortuary meal, and set the vortex swirling greater than ever.

This not only caused the creature to send stones rolling down from the mountain heights to the depths below for them to crush, but the swirling waters to draw down to its now extended antennae, the Eucharist or Shekinah. Thus the Voice of the Lord was heard. So from the top of the head you are sending out an extended antennae.

This all came from the land of the Hyperboreans, the ancient heights that give forth of past buried wisdom, now linking with Powers from outer space, and producing that which was necessary to solve the problems of the present. But all was set into motion by the swirling radiation of the active bloodstream.

The Circle of Willis is formed by the four main arteries supplying blood to the brain; but all-told there are seven. These anastomose freely at the base of the brain, so that should one of these become injured, the rest can fulfill the duty.

Solomon as the ancient Hebrew understood this wisdom to some extent; thus after he had brought down of this feast by bringing down the Waters of Hamath and locking them with the depths, he was the means of raising up the people by firing their activity; and they were able to break through from the 7th to the 8th. They were able to raise up their tents (minds) in wisdom of thought, which gave them a joyful heart. He literally forced the world to evolve, and placed into seed that which was to become a household word to the Christian Era.

"When I am raised up, all men are drawn unto me."

Thus this is the fulfilment of heights and depths; but to do so can only be by the wooing and the weaving, which is the Sut (the personality labourer) in the depths listening with all intensity as the knowledge is glutted up by the heights. Then it cannot help but revolve from East to West with the moving sun, and find after a night of experience that of the day following in joy of perception. And the cross accepted will become the radiance of the revolution the path of destiny in the drinking of the Cup.

It is in the heights that the evolved soul leaves to depart onto the higher planes whether in sleep-state or death. But those from the lower only from the navel whereby they enter onto the astral planes. Much will be gathered by the enterprising student studying these facts, for when it is seen what was brought into birth by the soul in ages past, and possibly ravaged in the intervening ages by the lack of reverence to their vital waters, it will be understood why there is so much with the soul now in disease and disorder.

Solomon knew by his experiences, in the same way as many other priests, nagas and prophets, that the majority who should have been assisting to blend the heights with the depths, were only just waxing fat on the power that was coming down. They were shirking the responsibility of returning to the heights any wisdom that could be gained in smoke going up from the fire fanned into action. (So many a soul with great wealth today is taking of the knowledge but making no attempt to return to the Heights the great powers that lie within them and so the Higher Planes become stagnant: and that is what they are worried about at the present moment).

Many dabbled with these powers in the past, but did not bring their principles up to that which was demanded of Solomon by the Lord when he was preparing to bring into birth the greater temple of the soul. For statutes and covenants were enacted before this was put into operation, and still hold binding to those self-same souls today; the soul being of continuum, thus the same long stream as began in the beginning; therefore making man a royal and ancient creature.

Solomon was warned when he started the Temple of the Christos body, the soma pneumatikon body of the soul, that this was a house that had to be hallowed, not ravaged; and that if he walked within the statutes of the LAW, as was being laid down by the Lord that the heart and the eyes of the Lord would be with him perpetually. If he failed and turned his eyes to other gods, "Thou wilt be cut off." But if he obeyed, then there would always be a MAN upon the throne of the soul: (not a feminine state).

Here was Solomon being given the warning that many an initiate finds when all is too late. He has built the spiritual body as the haemoglobin of the blood; that of one who was now prepared by vibration, blood specie and mind purpose, to become one with the heights and manifest the greater Voice.

An initiate changes everything within him, right from the very heights: all he is concerned about is his mind and bloodstream; he is not concerned about the body; unfortunately the body may have disabilities from the past that have to be carried.

But as he so prepared, must he obey: the whole of his will was now to be the will of the Greater Forces that they could manifest on the earth amongst men. This would be that the Powers of the outer Worlds could manifest in matter, and bring new life and new purpose to the soul enclosed in darkness.

This is the true meaning of the stream from the heights; Powers brought down to earth by one who believed in such possibilities; and was prepared to give up all that these powers could revive and resurrect those on earth through the measure and uplift of their own spiritual counterpart.

The Marriage of Cana

BUT to do this their heart and their mind must also be a pure and unadulterated channel for such truth to now flow to the earth. Thus all seeking will have to learn the true meaning of masterhood: (mastering every form and creation). For in preparing the body to receive the spiritual equivalent,—which all souls are doing when they seek in psychic or spiritual development, that they can register and receive the greater forces,—they must also learn to develop will and determination to maintain these Forces once they receive them. Then they will, by the vortex of the heights engendered by the circling Willis, radiate and capture untold wealth from sources far beyond the understanding of the majority.

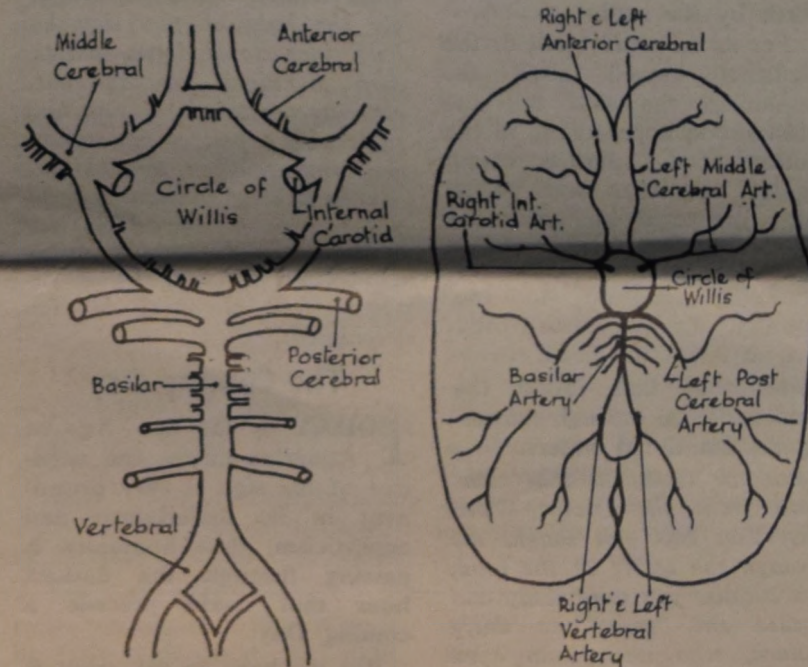

They would now become as a transformer that would receive dynamic powers from outer space, and record and manifest as evolved wisdom that would enlighten and raise up the world now stagnant in darkness and materialism. They would be as DeMeter (the feminine principle) who receives and raises of the 10 as a tent; she that receives and the lord that sends it forth. The dual personage as two in one; the blended mind = . The androgynous being now prepared by the waters going up in steam as ordained as the true way of generation.

So when all the personalities are turned in, as they are in this Instrument, there remain two, the Sut and the Man-hood as the spirit that has been built up through the ages in the 11th house, and the Sut now is the wife to it. You will hear of Abraham and his wife: he would be the Spirit Man-hood, and his feminine under-carriage. Put your hand out flat and try to see, on top, the Man-hood, and underneath the Sut.

There is now a complete marriage as androgynicity; two-in-one, not separated as one in the head and one in the generative organ down below; all gathered up now in perfect unity. This is the marriage of Cana.

This would be the soul reborn of the spirit through the now ordained inflow that will enliven and quicken the stagnant plane. That which will now act as the nimbus that will raise the depths up to the heights, For the soul when it falls into stagnancy lives only from his girdle 8 downwards, but by the inflowing power can be enlivened that the relativity now engendered within their being brings unity with their own heights that have fallen sadly into neglect. So there you see the revolving '8' which is the bloodstream revolving from depths to heights, ever in unity.

When Solomon brought Hiram back to help him, he was seeking of his ancient wealth to come to the fore and unite with the present, and explain where all was awry and give him of his ancient wonders. He was as the bridge of Hvergelmir that united the past with the present and brought the lower and later world up to the heights.

This is where the Thalamus fully aught could send all winging up to the auditorium of the gods. This in both man and Cosmos would stimulate the ancient wealth, of which man is the agent. Thus by the radiation of the purified and electrified bloodstream set into motion, would the higher powers descend. Then as the Grade or Eucharist bless and reimburse that of the past that a channel of new life can flow forth.

Cannot you see where there is now need for all the protection, love and kindness to nurture this one to bring through to you more and more of the wealth: but you are not going to have this while you are continually having stones thrown at this one.

Such as these are the Kutubs of the earthplane, the pillars that reach from the earth to the heavens. This is the occult definition of the Iesus, or Masterhood chained to a pillar in dire crucifixion. The crown of thorns being the wisdom he was seeking through the mind, and of which he was seeking to be the channel for. So orthodoxy did once know the answer. In suppressing the truth, have they lost it also?

I want you to listen very carefully to this. Once a soul is changed by initiation from the ordinary human standpoint of the 3rd dimension into the 4th, there is no going-back whatsoever: they have got to go on, and very often in a very distorted state owing to not being able to fulfil every initiation. This is something that will have to be worked for very diligently by the Higher Powers, and the guides of the soul.

When Hiram came from Tyre to see what cities Solomon had given him, they pleased him not, for he called it that of Cabul. The pillar was smeared with mud, for it links with the tribe of Asher, Sagittarius, where the ancient centeurs abound. Had they smelt the spilt wine that came about through Solomon failing to remember the advice given by the Lord?

Walk in my statutes and a MAN will remain on the throne, or only Bacchus will come forth. This would be the androgynicity separated and the mind counterparts pulling asunder. This is the mystery of Aquarius.

Hiram sent his wealth out of the heights, the powers of Ouranus that would stimulate the depths and activate the Pool of Siloam; that which the blind man could see: That by which the heights and depths could now radiate and spark forth. The emotional waters of the ancient depths sending up their steam to the heights that sparks could radiate forth from the mysterious radar station in the heights.

PISCES

Part

The Waters of Fire

(All genuine guides are trying to bring man into contact with the Master's Realms. It is their purpose to help man out of the density of matter that he has fallen into. They come in answer to the cries of suffering humanity.)

All souls on earth who practise entire self abnegation and offer themselves wholeheartedly for service gradually make a direct contact with the Master's Realms. They follow the same path as Jesus, Buddha, Gandhi, Confucius and others, who have now become part of the Wholeness. The name Ra-Men-Ra means God-Men-God. It is the wisdom and experiences of this wholeness which is directed to the earth through the name Ra-Men-Ra and he tells us to judge him by his works. Editor).

MAN is born in water, and after birth is dependent upon water in the air to prolong his life. The dual being, like fishes, must constantly be bathed in water, for air carries water to the lungs. This water really has reference to the waters of the Elements that carry all else unto the man, and after alchemicalization of the blood, the air and mind come forth as life. You take in the air through the lungs by alchemicalization, and by your labouring with the mind to draw out the very life in that air, which is THE CHRISTOS BLOOD, it forces mind or plane to come into birth. But it will never come into being if you do not labour with the mind. You will merely fill up the seminal vehicles and become deluged with desire. This causes the two lower Chakras to revolve at an erratic rate causing the bottom of the spine to throw into discord the whole of the endocrine chain, resulting in many forms of spinal disease. All this refers to man, as mind, being delivered up from the waters in the 12th, or sinking back into the depths, merely a blank colourless mind coming into being.

5 Loaves and 2 Fishes

THIS again is the mystery of the miracle of the five loaves and the two fishes in Luke 9. This was the mastering of the emotional triad (Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces) whereby Aries, as the young sun god, feeds the whole twelve signs or limbs from the food obtained from the Christos now inborn, with the prophet or teacher coming forth. There with the Dove and the Fire descended as the divine Word and equivalent of that brought forth by the soul.

For as the wind blew, or the elements moved after the mastering, the soul felt the masterhood approaching in the bottom of the spine becoming lighted up, solar born. Then they ministered and prepared for the Christos to manifest as the three lower Chakras became raised up to the heights as the Fiery Triad fully born in Aries the head.

The soul had found the Golden Fleece through mastering the emotional waters.

But the statement that came forth from the Divine Word was, You have not sought me through the eating of the food, but because you were ready and needed the "meat" to unify Saturn, who was forcing you into the emotional waters.

So here we have the answer to both Pisces and Aquarius.

This was the food of knowledge that was in multiplicity in Pisces, that when brought to a solar point of awareness and given unto Aries, the head, it became the wealth and nourishment of the soul. For, as the waters dripped from the heights and flooded the whole system with new-born nourishment, would the soul become rejuvenated and more solar born. But all brought forth from the waters.

This may seem as though we are going wide; we are, but only to collect all the multiplicity in the Piscean waters that must become the nugget of gold in Aries. So when we go from Gemini Π as the two pillars or stanchions,—the gateway as the logical mind—and fight round to be as the two bent over by labour and struggle in Pisces κ , we can understand the completion in awareness as the nugget of gold in Aries τ . For Aries is the first of the fiery triad (Aries, Leo and Sagittarius) with the sun exalted in the second decanate.

What the soul has to do through this sign, as the gate, is to bring the Pluto up out of the underworld, and bring forth the Christ wisdom as solar radiation and not a dead god. This must go up to the heights of the mind as a realisation and a flame of truth. Then the soul will build the Christos body, the pneumatikon body of light. Thus bringing all the seven natures to a oneness of purpose and action.

Humanity for the past equinoctial period have discovered marvellous discoveries, and wonderful achievements have been obtained by them in outer and material affairs. But unfortunately the light of that day has long since closed down, and the dark of night has descended covering the minds of returning souls with a pall of materialism and commercialism, thus blotting out the light of spiritual enlightenment. Even the Moon of Intuition is obscured. Certainly man is in the "night" of his growth, the plane of Human unfoldment.

The Coming Day

TODAY as the new Age of Aquarius dawns the negative of the sign is very prominent in its materialism and agnosticism, thus humanity is passing through the darkest hour that could precede a coming Day.

But we have to ask what is the coming Day?

Is it breaking through to the heights, or further down into the depths?

For man being so much immersed in illusion he is not aware that he is sinking more and more into the depths. He would be under the impression that he was making vast improvements, and of which he does believe at the present moment with the increase of drugs, application of mechanical appliances, untold labour saving equipment and synthetic foods. But it never occurs to him that all the basic difficulty is still continuing, and furthermore increasing.

What is going to happen when all gets beyond control?

It has always been the law that the past and the present can produce the future, in the same way that a black and white cow can produce a golden bull. The heights and depths producing a result, then why not look into the past to find the roots of that which is resulting today, and by uniting the two, in the returning unity, perceive the result, and find an answer through the intuitional mind bringing forth of awareness. Then surely this is the message of Pisces. The waxing and waning with the extended mind that unites the two, and the soul through trial and error bringing into birth that of oneness.

It is because this is the message of Pisces, and so difficult for man to accept, that they find the sign hard to wear. Like Saturn and other hand forcing elements Pisces is looked upon as an unfortunate sign, when really they are no such thing. Man stands far more chance under a square aspect than a trine. Under the former, if he has been diligently watching, he will take care and brace his shoulders for a disastrous period; but when a trine takes over he allows all to slide in his sitting back in the licence the aspect may allow, and loses any opportunity that may come, in trying to make up for any lost intercalary.

Being as it is, the last of the round, the sign is full of untold wealth, but the soul will only be capable of extracting this when they can master the two reverse vibrations. That is, the tendency to go forward into their qualities and taking of the returning influence; not as an evil but an opportunity to sit and survey results, thus find a solution to past experiences. This sign in its reverse symbols denotes that of the mysteries to be united by the solar mind.

Bottom of the Pot

FOR instance, healing is their great quality, but more as a nurse and healer than a surgeon, and with the power that can be with them from their polarity sign Virgo, diagnosis of both pathological as well as psychological, can be deducted. But it would need some other strengthening influence in the chart for a Pisces to make the most of their own inner qualities, for they on their own find themselves too phlegmatic.

If such a sign and purpose could find partnership with a Scorpio, the possibility of work for healing and diagnosis could be untold. But then human nature is not like that, and ruins every possibility that lies before them; for unless all is united through the higher individuality the possibilities for the higher Powers to manifest in the depths would be impossible.

Man is so immersed in the lower waters, and knows all only through the eyes of illusion, that, the true understanding of the upper Powers, and what is required to blend spirit with matter in conscious creation, is utterly remote to him.

PSYCHICISM IS NOT SPIRITUALISM.

Those that come under this sign will always have to watch all tendencies to blood disruption, particularly to worry, for the second decan of the sign is that of Andromeda the chained woman. Therefore worry and dismay at what they are continually having to perceive as the result of the soul's inertia through the abounding eleven, leaves them inert and lifeless to fight and enquire into the wealth that really lies in their hands.

Therefore they either require a stout partner, or aspects in the chart that give them all the strength they require to bring forth their wealth. The so-called "bad luck" that is supposed to attend any twelfth house sign is only due to the fact that it is the winnowing gate, and is called to face up to the results that have been gathering for ages.

What man finds difficult to meet is the fact that lives are not independent units, but the continuum of yesterday in every detail.

Therefore Pisces is the bottom of the pot, in so much as being the mind residue from the whole. From the 10th house to the 12th is that of mind essence, spirit, whether good, bad or indifferent. So whatever be upon the cusp of the 12th will still bring its results as far as the soul is concerned for the law and the house qualities will be the same for all. But a soul who has no 12th house planets in this life, could in the next find themselves with one or even two placed here. Thus now heavily restricted because they were slack in their last life, and by so being, lost intercalary.¹ They became behind in the calendar adjustment with the gods.

The 12th house planets are a sure judge of what the soul has allowed to slip back into Tartarus; thus cannot be denied,

Editors Note 1

In everyday language intercalary is the insertion of a special day, month or year into the Calendar so that the earth dates coincide with the movement and timing of the Sun through the Constellations of the Zodiac which bring the Seasons into being. But in addition to this it is here used to indicate the establishing of an action in a solid foundation so that the soul is nearer in Harmony and Vibration to receive of the Solar Light. Man has become so behind in solidity and density that his vibration rotation is practically nil. Now he must quicken his mind sensitivity so that he raises up his awareness by changing his actions and thoughts. At the moment his point of Life is merely to enjoy the animal desires, so soon he will become as an animal—mindless. Those who wish for mind and not pleasure of body must build a foundation so that soon he is in intercalary attunement with the Spiritual Fire behind the Sun. (Editor).

FAITH

*I will not doubt, though sorrows fall like rain
And troubles swarm like bees about a hive:
I shall believe the heights for which I strive
Are only reached by anguish and by pain:
And though I groan and tremble with my crosses,
I shall see, through my severest losses,
my greatest gain.*

Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Pisces, the house of self undoing, more than any other needs the Faith of Spirit with which a soul can guide itself successfully through the darkness that this house can bring. But if faced with courage and Faith the wealth that could be produced would confound not only the soul but all in attendance. Being the totality of the twelve if the soul could find the Solar Light of Mind, the whole stream of practical wisdom and healing could be theirs, but it needs complete self-denial and above all honesty in self-recognition.

But do try to remember although these heights and depths would appear to be as the top and bottom of yourself; they are not: they are the heights and the depths of the mind; the very depths of your inner being from the past.

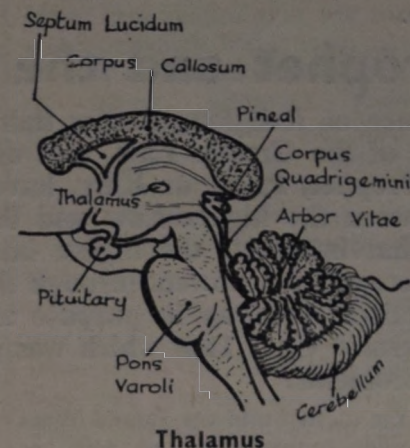

But you could see this better if you tried to visualise where it goes from the 5th to the 11th houses. There is your spindle; the poles; the very depths to the heights; because Leo was the City of the Sun where man was born. In the whole of that house; in the whole of that vibration you have got the City of the Sun, known today as karma; the whole root of the creation of man, and he is trying now to whittle it down to bring forth the 11th house, the house of the Man-hood.

The Pool of Siloam being the mysterious depths of the 4th house, the Cancer waters. That of the ancient depths now at the disposal of Solomon's wife, the daughter of Pharaoh. She being the Virgo mind who would decipher, as Demeter, all that Gemini now as an extended antennae would bring forth as the powers of the Polar star circled around his now electrified heights. These are the fires of St. Elmo that gather around the mast of the ship Argo after the storm of the struggle.

The Gemini mind now as the wagging dog's tail dances back and forth, as through its mutability, it is able to dart up into the heights and snatch from the mysterious Waters the mystery which they hold reluctantly from the prying eyes of the Earth. As the mind memory awakens, this mind, now driven by some unseen urge, jumps up like a jumping cracker and returns to matter with the light it has engendered from its daring feat: (struggling to probe into the mysteries).

This is the only sign that has the power to reach up to the heights unknown and come back with the wealth that no other would understand. (So everybody can do that with their Gemini mind, wherever they have got it). It even has the power, when so fortified, to be able to enter into Hierarchical heights, eaves-drop, and return with its prize. But the majority who bear this sign as their solar wealth are so material-minded that they fail to perceive of its possibilities, and merely let Mercury dance hither and thither in candid cunning.

When this sign is situated in the heights as the sign of service, then it is the antennae waiting to reach out to grasp the first sign of electrical issue. For as the radar unit it is the greatest wealth that man possesses; the mutability of mind growth.

This is as the ancient wealth that was drawn down from the heights by Solomon and was built up as Milo that could bring into birth of Shiloh, the Christos. Then if the soul could perform of such once upon a time,—and which would still be within its blood,—where is it now? And what happened to the mind memory?

Yet Solomon (son of the Sun) was shown the way to sail the waters of the red sea without being shipwrecked. Thus he did span from depths to heights of those mysterious waters, which would be from Cancer to Ursa Major; and this he did with the aid of Hiram who brought gold forth from Ophir to assist him. This was the mystery of Solomon and the ancient Temple built for the Lord, which was now the triune body of the soul (the triune body of 'fiery' life).

This is where the Christos, the blood life of the Solar Deity could freely enter and lead the soul safely and securely back into the fold. This is now performed by alchemicalisation, that when accepted and embraced in initiatory endeavour, will bring into birth a sun-god that will lead the soul by solar will and intent safely up onto the higher planes of purpose.

If this was performed once it can be performed again, for it is that of the predestination of the soul, and his heritage of blood already granted unto him.

Q I would like to ask one about the Circle of Willis. You said that the roots of the blood nerve were right down in the shoulder. Is that so?

A They are the roots of the 'tree.'

Q Is that the reason why, when one gets at all sensitive, the first difficulty that comes is that one feels the effect all across the back of the shoulders? And when, for instance, there are states of discontent or fear, it is always there that they grip you. (A—That is so). On the other hand, a man can sustain a greater weight there than on any other part of his body!

A If he can carry it. That is Atlas holding up the world.

Q But that would be entirely due to the construction of the shoulder bones, wouldn't it?

A Yes! But it is all according to his will, as well as that, you know. Will is a very important thing and can even carry a soul about with legs that the practically crippled.

which often springs from a sad and foreboding nature, owing to their not being properly understood. And often the world cuts off its own nose to spite its own face when they hamper such souls as these from giving forth their full wealth. Yet since the sign is in its first budding, much that these souls give forth can be inaccurate from its point of full intensity, owing to a world not being ready for the truth.

From a mundane standpoint they are extremely kind and hospitable, especially as they make excellent cooks, for they too are extremely fond of all good things to eat and drink. But if these tendencies are allowed to run wild and not curbed when young, they will ruin the life and bring on a train of disease. So it is most necessary to train a Piscean right from an early age, so that the great heritage of completeness begins with "rightness" and not "leftness."

So when all who are studying astrological wealth can fully comprehend that Pisces, the closing sign to the whole twelve, is the binding of elements through the upper and lower manas, the blending of positive and negative elements through the two minds, they will have found the real message of freedom from bondage.

The Fishes and the Band and if sought into with courage the soul could face up very squarely with itself and start to make amends. Therefore it behoves all who are seeking into this wisdom to watch diligently what is upon the 12th house cusp, and more so where there are planets therein, and remember that that influence could be to the soul's own-self-undoing. Yet, if wrestled with, could produce untold strength.

Mystery of the Eucharist

THIS can be seen only too clearly in the result of the Piscean Era. The divine mystery of the Eucharist known so well to the Hebrews at their altar offerings, and of which Pisces became the recipient, has now fallen into the loss of creed and ritual, materialism and commercialism.

So unless man seeks into the mysteries and tries to recapture some of the ancient depths gathered into this sign from Egypt and the Hebrews, the soul will never draw down into its midst that which it requires to resuscitate itself; and seen only too well in that of drug and stimulant which man has resorted to in abundance.

But further still, unless the soul draws down unto itself that of the Holy Ghost, THE EUCHARIST, neither the mysteries or its ancient wealth will be of any use to it what-so-ever.

Well! the answer to these problems lie within the hands of man himself, therefore it behoves him to find out what is his ancient wealth; not what has been, for we have evidence of that in the difficulties of life, but what can be gained from what has been. This is in the unity of past and present that can, by the souls deduction, solve the problems of the future.

None can afford to abandon past wisdom, because the present is a reconstruction upon what they began, for every soul is created from TIME, and time is the past of which the soul was bred from.

But not to be continued as it was, but see the original motive and what was the seed purpose of the creation, and by the soul sorting out the present, it will, by relativity,² bring forth the Eucharistical blessing of the Dove. For wherever the raven is sent back and forth in mind endeavour, will it sometime or another return as the dove with the olive branch.

What the recipients of the sign of Pisces fail to see, and quite applicable to human nature incased in the flesh, is the fact now that the soul is being called upon to mediate upon the higher aspects of soul and spirit to come forth. No longer the old psychic vibration. For only through Mercury the mind can higher relationships be established between the irrational and the rational; and only as all takes place will the soul become aware of what has resulted from the soul's struggles. Especially now, for relativity will be the result, and that is the freedom man is seeking.

Editor's Note 2

If readers will turn to Page 4 of the November 1962 Issue and to Page 11 of December 1963 Occult Gazette they will find two excellent diagrams which will assist them to understand the meaning of the word "Relativity." These show that the present age is facing the effects of all that sown in the Past Leo Equinox of 13,000 years ago. This will prove to all the world that it is the Cosmic Law that rules the Universe and not the animal man who should have been merely the channel to send up the fruits to the Starry Heights. (Editor).

Therefore man will only make contact with the heights when he respects the law and what it demands; this is already being proven. For only by the Golden Fire, the solar blood, will the kundalini rise which is the saving grace to all mind creation.

This brings us back to the androgynicity destined for this age, for without the holy waters being conserved, NO kundalini will rise; the water-pot will be empty. So what we have first to consider is the message applicable to Pisces, for so many are failing to get passed its gates, and much is going down into Tartaros.

Andromeda

The Piscean Character

THIS sign rules the feet, therefore indicates action, which under the Sons of Mind would be first right and then left, but perhaps a little more complicated than that. First enquiry and sorrow, then application of suffering and perception; yet would only be the breaking down of old states and the soul having the courage to adopt new.

But this is one of the hardest things for a Pisces to do, or any with 12th house planets; that is, change over into perceived results. Pisces being such a fluidic sign, the third of its triad, the soul under its influence is all mind if they could but realise it.

But what they have to learn to do, is to try and harness the awareness obtained from the soul's growth, and establish a higher soul intensity that will carry them up onto the next stage of the journey.

For from their waters they bring forth the next two triads, air and fire. So you have to see the two fishes tied together as representing the two minds, higher and lower, swimming in all directions and trying to draw all unto it, thereby obtaining the one point of purpose; completion. So it now can be seen that when a soul is lodged in the 12th, they have failed to extract the higher vintage; for in ever meeting the Unknown the soul re-robes and replaces the exoteric for the esoteric.

Thus having extracted the virtue from each sign, now seeks to apply all to the individuality and not the personality. So when the Moon is lodged in this house, it is a sure sign that the soul has only lived in the latter.

In the Piscean influence you find some of the biggest grumblers, which should at all costs be noted, therefore avoided; for this has a lot to do with the intense heights and depths of the influence, and their struggle to unite. This accounts for why the majority only manifest on the lower levels. Yet great is the man who can comprehend the highest and continually pour it forth into the depths; they can be the saviours and bodhisattvas of this life.

But on the whole Pisces find it very difficult to harness their qualities, and although they have mediumship in abundance, they find themselves lacking in consistency to bring forth the abundance with them. Therefore, through this, often find themselves open to thieves and robbers who steal their wealth.

The only way to avoid this is by mind growth which seals the door, and avoiding at all costs the personality being the sole recipient of the sign. When the individuality as solar light shines upon the Piscean waters, fish in abundance will be caught. So here is where the Piscean has untold wealth to comply with, for the sign on the whole is of "over-abundance," and to bring forth the depths for souls to enquire into, is in itself a service greater than the majority have ever realised.

For very few have the courage to rake over old waters and stand the course bravely to the end. Thus it must be fully understood, that until man reaches the very depths of his Cancer waters and uncovers the whole of his soul, he is still harnessed to matter.

Yes! he may leave behind a lot of small pebbles, but these will have come from the threshing that took place on the greater boulders. What most souls are aiming to do, though they may not be fully aware of it, is the bringing forth of the solar birth, and then by so doing infusing all those they come into contact with the golden wealth.

This is the great mystery of Pisces as foretold by the Christos embodiment, with the Aquarian Age to follow and put it into operation. Therefore when we give this chart as an example, it will be seen why these mysteries were given birth. Pisces on the 8th house indicates that all that comes forth from the sarcophagus is born of the Piscean heights; and as Jupiter is in the 4th, the house of mystery or waters of life—the Pool of Siloam—it opens the eyes to the wondrous caverns of the mysteries of the past, and the mind is then responsive to the Cancerian waters of the 12th.

The mystery of the Neptunian inflow.

As individuals, Piscean souls are liable to intellectual folly,

Reminiscences

The Legacy of Decaying Priesthood

ONCE AGAIN WE REACH THE month of Ahib, that of the Green Ears; the time when the spring dances in with the golden rain that will water the green shoots that were seeded at the Christmas Horæ. But then, how many know of the importance of the Seasons so adamantly declared in Ecclesiastes 3?

How many know that by not understanding of them they are losing ground that can never be retrieved?

Even by knowing, and striving to follow the seasons it is hard enough, but when man is never taught of the rules and laws that he must adhere to, or lose ground, then it is a very sad day for those who place themselves in the position as Priests and Teachers and fail to do so.

The Prophet and the Priest

THAT is the importance of Religious Bodies that they guide and lead the people in the ways of the Greater Law, that of the Cosmic unity. These Teachers whether Prophet, Priest or King, have ever been the means of being the intermediary between the higher Law and the lower. They have been the unit and transformer that interprets the higher into the lower; and in the past taught the people to accept these powers through the wisdom they gave unto them. That which would raised them up in purpose and adoration towards the Great Source of Life they termed God. That which was good and Holy and would help them to solve their problems.

So it really meant that they required something that would solve the darkness or ignorance they were forced to endure. So it had to be something greater than already known.

This was why Elijah sat by the brook Kidron and was fed by the ravens. He was sending out for wisdom by the waters, the emotional states, that he could slowly bring the Dove or Eucharist into birth. Then as he did so, he brought down into the maelstrom fresh wisdom, and became the speaker for the Word that would solve their difficulties.

Once this was done, the ignorance was "eaten" up by him, and light came in its place; so he slowly lifted up the plane and man with it. And although man may be spinning in the wrong direction, he lifts them up just the same. This is alright when man is acting normally, but when you start getting missiles as well; well! that is too bad.

Yet this is the way of the law, and the only way that man is going to find reimbursement of the life force. The whole of the Scriptures give forth of the struggles that these Teachers have had to endure to keep the plane continually up-lifted, that more and more the soul was saved from the folly of following that of illusion. Then when one Teacher finishes he passing his cloak onto another.

But the lives of these Teachers are a continual source of struggle ever seeking to solve the immediate problems of the people, and whether we seek through the ancient Egyptian Hieroglyphs, the Grecian Legends or Norse Myths, or even the Hebraic Laws, we still find these Teachers wrestling and struggling with life. And although the Equinoxes were not balanced, and we are still wrestling with the Taurean, they did at least leave us with records that can now help us to understand the relativity that we now have to face up to.

The Tragedy of Piscean Age

BUT what did the Piscean Age leave but a trail of poverty, war and evil bloodshed all centred around a God on a Cross. They even went so far as to build up Sacred Wars and Inquisitions, as well as persecution that has left an innate stigma within the mind of the majority.

Man needs help, and it was because there was no true recording of the Embodiment that came down in A.D.1 that a blankness caused a stagnancy that never retrieved what had been lost for the time being.

Yet nothing of the Spirit can ever be lost, especially when it cannot help but be a resuscitation of past prototype. So all it needs is some zealous soul to pick up a thought from that buried into the soil and begin a train of action that will drive forth a new issue.

This began in 365 A.D., but the alteration that came forth with it followed right down the ages, and gradually increased to such an extent that more wars have been committed in the name of God than anything else. Now we have reached the Age of Aquarius when an empty Water Pot has ever been predicted; unless of course some one could come along and give forth of teachings that would fill that Jar.

I would like to ask as many have asked us, what good is a Mass gabbled and repeated time after time without any understanding or conscious wisdom to the man gathered for the set purpose of having his problems solved?

We can only answer these questions in the same way as we answer them to ourselves;

NONE WHATEVER.

On Wednesday the 5th of February Ra-Men-Ra stated in his evening teachings, which had been upon the nexus, the connecting principle that bound Spirit with matter, that the "Roman Church knew more about this than any other religion, and conceals much in their religion that today is lost. Thus carry out a ritual that they have very little idea of what they are perpetuating. They were actually bringing down into being through their high Mass the Sex as the true God of Hosts, the Eucharist, when their priests were capable of doing so. This becomes the divine entry of the Yod Life, and is activated from the tail end of the spinal rod in the man. He being the unit between earth and Spirit that Earth can be resuscitated."

But what do the people know about this that they can change their ways and ideas. Man must be taught, he must be brought to realise that there is more in life than just eating, sleeping and drinking. That he is a responsible person who has come down to the earth not just to put himself right, but help to remodel the earth into something greater. Therefore there must be those who can consciously guide and lead the people on matters that they need to know.

The teachings of Ra-Men-Ra upon this particular occasion were centred around the Nephesh powers that were gathered up in the basic conduit pool, and as the spiritus air would rise up the spinal column through the creative states of seven. These linked with the continual life of man and the alchemicalization that weekly brings into birth the sabbatic rest which gives unto the greater powers both below and above, the right of assimilation of that gathered.

Kissing a Stone

IF man could fully understand this and seek to put this into operation from a truly conscious action, then he would become that responsible being. If man could but understand as of old how he must be the means of bringing down into life the powers he requires to live and be reborn, that the Solar life can rise within his being as the golden mind, then there would be a more constructive state rise up in the darkness.

But where are those ordained to do this task putting this forth?

Did a pilgrimage of numbers of orthodox officials trailing off to old sites that man has no proof of, and kissing a stone, that again no man has any proof of, please the Great Forces and bring down into matter the answer to man's dilemmas?

When man can recognise that God is the Law, and that He operates and acts according to the rules of the Law, and that all is operated and move only by these Laws, then he will know that to find the answer to their being moved and reborn is by working and living in harmony with those laws. So there is only one thing, learning as much as possible about the Law, and how it came into birth, knowing that there lies our roots of relativity.

Then we shall come nearer to that God.

But I am sure that spending untold finance in elaborate perfunctory performance, and bending down and kissing a cold stone no more pleased the Law, or even moved the Law.

These Powers, as unity with the heights, are only adopted and interblended when man prepares himself in a constructive way, and unites with them for a specific purpose, and in a specific way. Orthodoxy have failed on their old method to bring peace and balance to the earth, then why continue?

Why not seek into those laws and conveyances in that of the true Seasons which they have disposed of to put in their place those of their own saints which never began the season. These are states of unity that were commenced right back at the beginning of Time when the Law was set into adjustment. Unless these states are complied with and continued thereof, both man, beast and Nature are affected, for the Law is being dislocated.

How is man going to learn how to raise his mind and in the Solar Light by a group of people building up a public ritual that explained nothing whatsoever to them.

When the Egyptian Queens and Goddesses put this into operation they did so with the public fully understanding of their ritual, for they waited until the Sothic Star appeared, and then, when its light struck the altar stone, that was the first part of the ceremony. The second was the rising Sun which again struck the altar stone, then it followed with the mid-day Sun which brought the triune of the Embodiment.

But these Queens were women that held of the ancient roots of the Shunammites, and knew how to unite the powers of the earth with the Powers of the heavens. And by this they brought down into matter powers only known to the Sothic Dynasty.

This was a time when Powers as never known before or after bathed the Earth, but unfortunately man was not sufficiently educated in experience to know how to handle them. Now man is born of TIME and is ready and salted with knowledge, and wisdom when he strives to understand, to be able to operate this with the LAW, and begin to climb and find his way back. But he will only do it through his mind reaching upwards and embracing the wisdom of the heights. But he will need teachers to coach him, guide him and help him to cleanse, strip and open his doors that the solar light can enter and be established therein.

Through this he will be able to embrace Relativity, the lesson of the Aquarian Age.

To Operate or not?

NOW I would seek to answer the two letters that have been promised. First to Mr. J. Jackson of Burnley; I do not seem to follow your letter too clearly, so will strive to answer piece by piece. First you have a young son who suffers with hernia, and you wish to avoid an operation.

Well, I would do the same thing, but in doing so would make myself fitted to draw down of powers whereby to give him healing daily, and have that faith that passeth all understanding that which could be performed. If you believe in this as deeply as you appear to, then you will seek to bring this about.

I once did a very similar thing when my youngest boy complained of this ear, I followed out the instructions given to me by my healer and brought about a cure. This was my first real test. If you are as adamant about what you believe, you will also be able to do the same thing. But you really must believe and have courage to fulfill. But above all, do not listen to idle tongues, finish what you begin.

With regard to him being brought up vegetarian and having to mix with the dark forces, yes, I quite agree with you. Our little Cambodian child has always been vegetarian, and he finds the same difficulty at school. There is only one answer to that Mr.

ELIJAH AND THE RAVENS

Ra-Men-Ra, the Voice of the Teacher which speaks through Mrs. Spearman-Cook, has constantly taught that the Bible Legends are full of Astronomical and Astrological wealth portraying not only man's Stellar unfoldment but also that unto the Solar Macrocosm and Microcosm. This of Elijah shows how a soul is caught up within its own mass of past personality mind creations and desires and seeks to winnow out his 5th house of Karma, Leo, by sending out for the spiritual impulse, so that he can draw down the inspiration of the simplicity of the action of Spirit,—not the multiplicity of knowledge which is all that those minds have gathered. So he sends forth of the Raven (the Corvus, 3rd decan of Leo) unto his polarity of Aquarius in the 11th house of the Spirit, the Dove, (Cygnus the Swan the 3rd decan of Aquarius).

Jackson, you teaching him right from wrong in a simple way. You giving him wisdom, and he having confidence through you proving your strength in all you say and do. A lot of us can talk, but very few prove our worth; here is your chance.

But do not under-estimate the child and his own characteristics, remember he is not you, and you are not him, but is an individual completely separate from you. As much as you may train him, do not domineer him; but let him express himself under your gentle guidance.

I should like to hear later on how you get on.

The Work of Universal Philosophy

MRS. F. Richardson of Herne Bay. Any gland trouble is due to matters regarding that gland being deficient or poisoned. First of all, what about diet? This is most important where thyroid gland disorder is concerned.

Secondly it means you are not putting into operation the sign that rules this gland and that is Taurus. You must be a person who is ready for phenomenal activity in either healing, phenomena or teachings where the mind is more fully active.

Yes! definitely keep away from drugs, and seek further into the wisdom, but do not just superficially accept and store, but get the fiery activity of the spinal Chakras into operation.

This would be the polarity between Taurus and Scorpio, and what is known as the bul-rushes bringing the powers of Moses into birth; that of the naga powers.

I would like to see into your birth chart to give you a better diagnosis. Do you know your right time? and if so, would you send it to us and let us look into it. By all means go on with your study, but do try to get the right interpretation by sending out to your higher self, and being the means of helping and guiding others.

If you really and truly get this moving within you, you could be the means wherever you walk of treading the wisdom into the ground. This is known as the Buddha's footprint. I tell you this because I rather suspect you have powers that have never yet been tapped, and many a woman is an ancient Abishag. Do not see this wrongly but in its true light, and ancient ROOT.

The above statement regarding the bul-rushes is the up and down weaving of mind in activity of thought, whereby you get some creative ideas that help others to think also. Try and get the mind reaching upwards in further thought, for there is still plenty more to be extracted and sent forth from these writings.

HERITAGE of one KNIFE INTERPRETATION

by D. R. Kay

(Last December a Cambodian tale "Heritage of one Knife" by Sakuntala was published, and readers were invited to send in their interpretations. In January Mrs. Spearman-Cook wrote of her theory in her Reminiscence and now from the many who wrote of their answers we have selected this brave effort of a new reader. Editor).

THE knife left to Kambet by poor parents, represents Truth, Simplicity, Loyalty and Duty, the qualities which stood him in good stead later on in his life. The king who loved his country knew his days were short, and that he had nobody fit to take his place after he passed on. He went to a great deal of trouble to test each of his ministers, and succeeded only in proving what he already knew. The ministers all failed the test, and so lost their lives, their greed and lust for material pleasure before their duty cost them a high price.

Kambet's father knew his weakness, but was not strong enough to overcome it, this made him realise that his life was not worth living, and that he was of no value to himself or others. Kambet's good qualities now stood him well, but he knew that the temptations of good food and wine were strong, so he kept his watch well out of reach of them.

The 24 columns which held up the palace represent the foundations of Empire's. The fact that Kambet cut through them with his knife shows that unless kingdom's are built of good material, they will one day fall to those qualities which represent the higher and pure things of life. The palace falling before the king's eye's means that he realised too late that his country was rotting internally with the corrupt and evil ways of his ministers.

Kambet's mother and sister were also neglecting their duty to Kambet, by being afraid to wake him and give him moral support when he was called on to face the supreme test.

The king and his court were shown that it is not always those who have material wealth and position who wield the real power, and that truth and faith can topple the crown of any country as easily as breaking a few planks of timber.

Briefly this story seems to point out, that material wealth, power or pleasure are of little importance in this short life. That attention to the needs of others, and the putting of personal duty before pleasure will count well in time of need. That the way a person leads their life, and the use put to the tools supplied at birth, no matter how humble, will determine your place in the next life.

Finally that no one knows the time they will be called to the next world, so every day should be lived as though it were the last.

Very few have been able to grasp what is the true message of this Age; for being as the Age is symbolised = it is everything having to be raised up from psychicism, that of the Piscean, to that of the Spirit, that of the Solar.

By this the soul will find freedom from its body stricture. All the way through the Scriptures you find the prophets struggling to do this and bring man away from the losing of the divine nexus. The divine Principle as the connecting link. When this is lost, as it can be when man no longer respects his own creative principle, only life of an animal nature is born; and accounts for why life is sliding into the depths it is.

Only when man draws down of the Spirit, and accepts and reverences of the divine nature as his heritage, will he be the recipient of and the deliverer unto others. Otherwise he merely feeds off the maelstrom, and belongs to the astral planes.

This is the motive and work of Universal Philosophy, the conveyance of wisdom, and the Work that the School was set to do. This accounts for why there are those of psychic outlook who so adamantly dislike, for they are being forced to change their mode of demonstration and seek through that of wisdom. This was what Jehu and Hezekiah were seeking to do when they broke up the old states of psychicism left to posterity by Solomon after he failed to establish his Solar Pneumatikon body, the body of the spirit.

I just recently witnessed a soul who thought how marvellous they were with their demonstration coming to a fulness, thus due to become married to the spiritual heights, but through the lack of wisdom failing to see that demanded of them through listening to inferior psychic messages, thus turning back upon themselves and making a marriage of a most sordid and gross nature. What a tragedy for the spirit that had been forced to accumulate under the terms of spiritual development now being forced to live and abide under a nature far lower than its rightful due.

This is what this age has to learn, for there are many who are ready to move forward, but how can they when they are not being taught by those who have set themselves up as a body to do so?

Pilgrimages, demonstrations, wars or such like will not solve what is crowding in on the Nations; only wisdom will solve this, and by and through saviours and scapegoats being willing to pass through Initiations that bring spiritual changes through old ideas being expounded, and truth being revealed.

Astrological Lectures

ALL who would have a full and comprehensive knowledge of this astrological wisdom, would do well to obtain the full list of lectures as delivered by Ra-Men-Ra in the School's teachings. These to be appreciated have to be enquired into, for they contain the whole of the wealth that astrological wisdom can deliver to a truly zealous enquirer. Not anything was left untouched in this enquiry, and these alone open the way for the mysteries to be enquired into in a safe and sound way. No one need be afraid of the mysteries in the way that these have been brought forward for they are simple, deductive and truly comprehensive in teaching the soul of the greater purpose that can come forth from the endeavour.

Oliver J. Spearman-Cook.

Ra-Men-Ra's Lectures

As announced last month Ra-Men-Ra has started answering Questions at the end of each lecture and these have proved a great success. Only a minute portion can be published each month but all the lectures are available from the Publishers at 6 Phillimore Place, Kensington, W.8. On every Wednesday lectures commence at 7.10 p.m. when the esoteric understanding of the Bible is expounded, and on each Sunday at 6.25 p.m. the Mythological Series is delivered. Preparation music is commenced at least ¼ of an hour before the lecture commences and all are invited to attend so as to assist to prepare the necessary conditions.

IN both these series Ra-Men-Ra teaches how the Spirit, in its descent into matter, became enclothed with layer after layer of knowledge and experience until at the present day he is held down by "geological" strata of immovable growth—the lunar light—because spirit-encased-Man never found the answer as to what he should do with the knowledge gained. So the very knowledge is a rock holding him prisoner in stagnancy, the ring-pass-not of Saturn. It is only by each layer becoming penetrated by Truth that the roots of the knowledge gained are uncovered and the Man is shown the Way to use the growth he has. In such a way the immobile Saturn is broken into and the imprisoned Spirit Light becomes clothed with the Radiance of Mind—the Solar Light—now pinpointed into an Awareness of Knowing the whole strata of Time, the Heights of Radiance and the depths of experience—Relativity. It is the How to carry this into effect that Ra-Men-Ra continually teaches as he breaks down 'dead' states of belief and orthodoxy.

Colours and Healing

Extracts from the Lecture on Wednesday, 5th February, 1964.

Q Is it true to say, Ra-Men-Ra, that with somebody working upon the colours of the Cosmos, in time the colours will be used by people to diagnose the sickness of man?

A Well, whatever happens in any direction like that, it brings a depth that can be picked up. You do realise that, don't you? But it would not be colours alone, because you must remember that all colours must come to the earth through the Opal Ray; it can never be one colour alone. If you are drawing down of the Blue, you will be drawing down of Uranus; but if you are drawing down of too much, you would have to balance it by another colour, would you not? You must not bring of too much. So the idea really is for you to bring the Opal Ray, the Golden Light, down to the earth. Unless you are told specifically to bring of a certain colour for a specific condition you would cause a certain sickness; but then, you would have to be very careful, because really speaking, the question of polarities should be well sought into.

Q I suppose the safest plan would be to get the rainbow colours?

A Keep to the Opal Ray, and let the Guides themselves direct the right colour; they will take it out; they will bring what they want. It is just the same where you get the medical world applying the ultra-violet ray.

Fruit and Deep Freeze

Q Do I perceive that the food, which has earth-fire in it, is bringing into the blood earth-generation of the kind of Lamech-seed, and that is why the Spirit teaches you that you should only live on fruit,—something which has not got the earth-fire?

A When man can bring himself to living upon the pure food, he is able to use the Solar Ray through which it was ripened; and then, as he takes of that he will not find that the Spirit is being impeded or killed by false fire.

Q Ra-Men-Ra: the fruit and vegetables that come from abroad are green when they are packed; so there is not much sun in it!

A We are aware of that: it is unfortunate, but it has been brought so far by the Solar Light and comes via the ethers: that is as far as we can go. We cannot do any more, can we? But then of course there is the advantage of growing your own food-stuff!

Q Is there a lot of vitality lost by deep-freezing?

A Enormous: it kills it. Of course, man is slowly bringing himself to what is going to come; but then, if you go on like that, you are going to find yourself in a complete state of complexity. You will have to go on in the best way you can, and weather the storm. But do remember that Nature is continually rejuvenating itself and bringing changes whereby it helps man in many degrees: it always has to do this.

So there is need for all of you to do the best you can, according to your acceptance. Man can do no more than what he believes, and what he can accept, and what he can turn to, and allow himself to be led by. He does not have to become ascetic, although of course all forms of growth are built against asceticism until man readjusts himself; in the same way as the Ego is only brought into birth by the gates of egoism.

Man finds his way through and pays dearly for all he does: that is experience; that is life. While man is not destructive to another, and only to himself, then of course he is learning the lesson applicable to himself: when he becomes destructive to another and impedes their way, then of course he has to be checked.

The Value of Herbs

HERBS are a very important point: they help you to balance your bodies; because you know you have the three kingdoms,—that from the rock, the vegetable, and your dear friend the animal,—and you are drawing from all of them until you are able to translate and bring all up to the plane of Humanity, the Human plane.

But then, you will have mind-memory, and you will find yourself reverting back to many things. It takes a long time to obliterate the mind-memory of those things that must become readjusted. So man is everlastingly labouring and finding his way; but once you have this knowledge you can start to think and build your road. But there is much we have yet to bring to you as we go on our way through the Scriptures,—not from the point of view of relativity,—but bringing to you how man went forth in his growth, and how it applies to man today as the initiate.

All that happened in the Scriptures, man puts into operation as the initiate: he is initiating himself into the upward ascent and finding relativity; so he must touch every one of these planes and he brings cycle after cycle into rebirth until eventually he meets his root.

When man has met his heights he has met his root; and if he has met his roots with a width of mind, his roots will be well whittled down and he can pull out the last prong: wherever they are, or whatever they are, he will be able to weather that storm; but if he has not prepared his mind when he starts to pull out the root, you will find completely unbalanced state where they turn over the top and run wild like a lot of stampeding cattle.

But then, that will always go on in all Schools. They go on their way, wear a mask and cover themselves up: then there comes a testing moment, and Uranus strikes. The Waters lash, the boat rocks, and those who cannot hold on scuttle.

Q Did that appertain when Christ was upon the troubled waters?

A Well, my son, that was representing the great Christos Power that was going to control the waters; and the waters are the emotions. It was not a sea at all. Remember that these are abstract legends; they are symbolical and not literal. The whole of the Bible, up to Revelations, is giving unto you of the installation into the Cosmos of the Cosmic Body. This gave unto man his growth. What was portrayed upon the earth as history was not a body as history has portrayed in the Scriptures; it was used as a form of outline; that is all; and of the bloody creations that follow; and it took a far longer time than that portrayed: it was of thousands and thousands, and thousands of years. When of course you take all the generations of Creation, you are then going into millions.

The Blood Corpuscles

(A few questions from the Lecture dated Sunday, 19th January, 1964).

Q Could I ask a question with regard to the corpuscles? You have told us that the blood links with the consciousness! Are the white corpuscles that come from the spleen, a part of the relativity? Because if you awaken them in activity—as each has a message to give to the soul—do they go back into the etheric and higher bodies?

A Yes. That is quite true: it is all a part of activity, because they are taking the wisdom back again, are they not?

Q Therefore, Ra-Men-Ra, does the enlarged spleen damage the soul who has performed such a task, and therefore they must go on performing it?

A Quite so. And would you understand this as being the marriage of Cana, linking with the tribe of Asher; the extended mind from Gemini to Sagittarius? So there is the marriage of Cana. It has nothing whatever to do with a marriage where there was a man called Jesus: it is the master who has mastered himself. Can you not see where man has been sadly led astray! Then perhaps you can understand the stupidity of bending down and kissing a stone where a man called Jesus once walked. Have you ever heard of such stupidity?—and the world led on by the nose!

Q I believe that the matter of the white corpuscles are the outcome of the purifying essence that takes place from the liver through that lightening process!

A Well, it is a rebirth through the spleen from the etheric bodies. The great metabolism in the liver is the unifying together of the spirit and earth blood: so when you bring the white corpuscles in, they come in from the spleen, and they come in through osmosis: they come from 'nothing' into 'something.'

Q And they are nothing to do with the red ones at all, are they?

A Ah! they become filled up and become the red ones: by the time they have finished, and go round and up through the metabolism, there is the changing that takes place and the blending that takes place.

On either lobe of the liver you have got two important points; one where you get your insulin building up, which gives you your energy, and the other one where there is the bile. And these are two important points; the earth and the spirit. Now you get the blending in there, and that fills up the corpuscles with the blended blood: it comes up over the brain, and feeds the brain, and then goes out again.

The Ancient Customs

Q If man really knew the depths of the ancient customs, would they be the answer to many things?

A That is what we are seeking to bring, my son. There are many ceremonies taking place in these ancient Isles of Britannicus, because the wealth that was brought down into this country by the Druids, and others,—but particularly the Druids,—was enormous. And do not listen to some of the themes and theories that have been put forward. This sort of thing always deteriorates at the last; but in the first place a wonderful truth was brought into birth.

You are receiving a wonderful truth here (at the School); Look at those who try to ravage it! You have only to think of that: but it has remained pure and clean; it has remained true to its principles, even though those outside would still try to ravage it. But is it going to continue once this Teacher goes? Will there be those prepared to honour those principles to the rigid extent that she has done? There has been no breaking through here of evil waters, or sodomitical practices,—which always comes with these Powers,—and you might just as well face up to it.

Memory in the Blood

(Extract from the Lecture on Sunday, 26th January, 1964).

Q Has the blood memory-qualities?

A Yes. The whole of man is in the blood, my son: that is the protoplasmic substance, the haemoglobin: that is where he holds all his secrets: it passes round over the brain, picks up more, and comes down again: that is man's growing nimbus; the serpent swallowing its own tail. But usually speaking man's blood is full of urea and waste.

Q Are the grey cells of the brain, then, the 'divine life' that is still dormant and awaiting conscious expression by the soul?

A That is so. The grey cells only come into birth through the building up of certain states upon the earth, until the brain reaches its climax at the stage it should be.

If you look into the building up of the brain, and the changing of the brain, you will find it grows from a very small amount to a fairish growth. That is the changing state; man growing, as he was able to assume and perceive; and as he did so, then of course he grew the brain: now he has brought it to a full state. He now has to bring the seed out of it.

WHAT IS GOD?

Find and know within yourself that freedom which will grant you sufficiency in all things. The Path of Light as a 'way of life' means redemption for the whole human race. Know "the great inner reality." Live as a responsible individual in the Community of Man.

AS YE SOW . . . Pt. 2

The Duty of Motherhood

by James Averill

(Last month the first half of this article appeared; a mother, seeking how to take the best line of action with her son, wrote to the Occult Gazette and gave her son's birth details. The son had been totally incapacitated with water on the brain and the first article took the son's chart No. 321 and sought into the causes of why he should be born this way. Then it explored what indications were shown as to what he should do to awaken. The article ended by asking the Question "how can he totally incapacitated, do this?" and the answer was "the answer lies in the Mother's powers." It is in this article that her chart no. 320 is discussed).

Both Charts were published separately in February.

THE mother now aware by astrological Lore of the kind of a soul that has been born to her, looks to his chart to find out what is the best course of action he himself would take if he was not totally incapacitated. Here she must seek to draw down from her 10th house headship of Libra and see him in the Light of Truth and not the reflection of earthy glasses.

Accepting the conclusions of last month, she must now prepare a line of campaign whereby she will force him to awaken. He in his past denied himself nothing: now she must be his conscience and start by strictly applying discipline. First in ordering his diet she tries to make it one of fresh fruit and salad, with no cooked or animal foods.

He should be made to drink plenty of herbs and water to cleanse his blood stream, at least 3 pints of water a day and 2 pints of herbs. Fats, sugar and starch should be of the very minimum, if at all, and he should be given no stimulants like tea or coffee or drinks other than the herbs, fresh fruit juices and water. Milk should be unnecessary and no salt or spices.

On no account should he be allowed to overeat and any surplus weight through the lack of exercise should be carefully watched. In this way he will be made to live the kind of severe disciplinary life which he would order his will to carry out if his spirit could only activate him.

So his body will be cleansed of all physical barriers and provide him with a quick moving and clean bloodstream, (the mind consciousness) and a lymph channel that is free from poisons and earthy waste pockets. This gives a sensitivity tissue base and would make it very much easier for an awakening to take place. This could be carried to very meagre length providing the mother is giving constant healing from her own body using up her abundant "witch" powers.

In this way she will help to inject into him of the situation he has created by talking to him of wisdom, and constantly telling him of the causes of the situation he has built, making no bones about his cruelty of the past, his dishonour and breaking of his Priest vows.

She should apply iron discipline and she should then accomplish a great deal; however if she allows the conventional religious creed and dogma to invade her and instead give him the conventional 'love' of religion,—the so-called acts of kindness etc. which convention decrees,—then she will give him no hope of success.

It is the iron will of Uranus in his 4th house that must be used so that the Sword may cleave in twain the rebellious resistance of the past. He is far from a victim of some God's whim but the outcome of a hard and utterly selfish soul who cared for nothing the many he led into degradation of Spirit, nor had he cared how rough-shod he had overridden them.

Now was the time of his reaping!!!

As ye sow . . . so shall ye reap
Every action has an equal and opposite reaction.

The Interaction of Healing Powers

THIS is the Judgement she must not only face (10th house ruler of Libra) but seek to apply the sentence she knows. Therefore she will not administer any act she does not equally apply to herself, and then the purity of spirit power can flow through her into him and help to draw off the water on the brain.

Now her own chart No. 320. Is she too a victim of some Karma outside her own creating or is she being given the opportunity of releasing her own karma by giving of service. As ye give so shall ye receive. What is the attraction which the Cosmic Laws utilise to offer the Spirit a chance to serve out their debts?

Saturn is in the same degree of Aquarius in the same house and it is this fact that has been the means of linking both together. In addition her Sun is in Pisces the 12th house ruler, positioned in the 2nd. These indicate that she has gleaned much wisdom through religious lives and has become surrounded by the barriers of conventional religious thought, the pious creed and habit of daily action.

This barrier, which is stopping the electric spinning of the Aquarian mind, still holds on to the phenomena and psychic manifestation, and sees a God through the cold personal eyes of identity and form (Mercury conjunct with Saturn in Aquarius). It is a self created intellectual idol brought about through religious training and worship. But this soul has great learning especially of the very roots of motherhood and nature powers.

way she will become capable of receiving the Higher Spirit Fire or energy power, and become the channel for the freed Uranus force to awaken her son.

Her 4th House of home ruled by Aries and her own Temple

The Outer Ring No. 320 is the Mother's Chart and the Inner Circle No. 321 is the son's, both having identical cusp signs and degrees.

She has natural mediumistic and phenomenal powers which she now should try to raise up into an electric mind action. Hitherto her direction of activity has been through the desire state of yet further experience. Now she has a full quiver but not the necessary foundation in living example of the spiritual knowledge received.

Her Uranus is in the twelfth in Capricorn which shows that she has drawn down in the past these Uranian powers, but only for the acquisition of intellectual power over others. She took the Higher Powers for her own motives, not for spirit service. She must now awaken her past by facing her "worm in the gourd," so that she can assist to awaken her son's.

By her path of Destiny ☉ being with Mars in Scorpio in the 10th House of service, she is destined to redirect in regeneration her energy powers. She must seek to awaken the sleeping kundalini mind force by applying practically the esoteric wisdom she knows.

The spinal powers of nerve sensitivity of mind action, questioning and winging. In this is occupied by Jupiter and Venus. Aries the normal ruler of the 1st house, is the conveyor of Action, Enthusiasm, Drive, Energy and above all the Spirit Quickening of Life. Jupiter is the planet which gives mind expansion and the giver of grace and Venus is the capacity to create in weaving a spirit Garment.

Therefore by her creating a living example of body sensitivity in her own home, she will be able to be the channel for her Natural healing powers which have root in Cancer to flow out and awaken her son.

This is a labour of hard, and at times, heart-breaking true spirit service, the lonely "widow" raising her "dead" son. It seems to bear so little immediate result.

Discipline and Wisdom

HOWEVER the stern discipline on him, so as to deny him the very things which he gave himself such licence to enjoy in past lives, will help to create the necessary conditions of sensitivity so that his higher Self can realise the situation. Slowly the desire state by applied discipline of example will 'drain' from him and he may be even able to carry out many tasks which now may seem absolutely impossible.

The use of Herbs and other ancient remedies of Nature so well known to the mother's inner being will help to channel out from the blood the clogged state of inert mind desire, salted by misuse of the lower energies. If she can constantly study Wisdom, and seek to live it really and truly under Spirit guidance and control, she will resurrect all her own healing powers which are real and very extensive.

If she will have faith (♈ on the 8th Cusp) that through the hard labouring, tenacity of purpose, and endurance (2nd house gifts) she will find the true path of Generation (Mars in Scorpio) she will then assuredly awaken her son by the very radiant example she becomes.

She too must awaken her Priesthood and make her heart beat under Spirit direction and be able to face self. Otherwise the chill dullness of conventional talk, and her fear of what the neighbours may think and how others may condemn her for her severity of discipline and fanaticism, may cause her to turn from the wisdom she knows. Then she will only seek to act in accordance with outer appearances, the pious righteous soul who never lives by actuality of example within but only as a face saver to appear a "loving-mother."

Whereas if the truth be known she would be adding unto his chains!!!

But if she looks at his chart she will notice that it will only be the higher fires, the ways of mind action, the Uranian 6th Chakra powers, that the necessary Spirit quickening will penetrate (Uranus in the 4th in No. 321). The foundation for this is forcing him to sacrifice of the things his lower mind and animal body are screaming for even in its unnatural state.

This lady is performing a Karmic duty (her Sun conjunct with Dragon's Tail in 2nd) to labour in the depths of matter and seek at all times to live the depth of wisdom (Sun in Pisces) she knows. Her Destiny is to regenerate the Lost Seed of mankind, caused by the complete disregard and misuse of the seeds of divine Life, the sex fluid. By her service and sacrifice of self so will she have the right to receive.

This is the Message and Age of Aquarius—Altruism in spirit service to resurrect the lost cosmic Atoms of Divine life.

What greater service than to lay down one's life for another.

Fruits of the Earth

The plant life that is with the earth today, has only developed from the rudimentary and stunted originals, which are the result of the primeval cataclysmic destruction of the earth's former constitution. In plant life, as well as man himself, all but the veriest dregs of the original virtues and potencies have been lost, and never really ever been known to man of the present day. This again accounts for why man is ever striving for prize species in his children and land produce.

Nevertheless, such as they are, they are still able to offer many wonderful indications of still existing powers hidden within their present verdancy; for the medical, curative and magnetic values of the present species and varieties of the flora and fauna are still very evident, yet, as I have already reiterated, only a shade to the wonders of the Edenic period.

I know that the modern reader will find this all very difficult to comprehend, unless there is much of the ancient wisdom still to the fore; but there is no reason why any should have incredulity and doubts at the idea of there being trees answering to the Tree of Life and the Tree of Knowledge. Botanical Science has already been able to derive many properties from herbs, leaves and roots of herbage, but it is nothing to what is awaiting the true pioneer in this direction.

Through therapeutical wisdom untold wonders in food, tonic and stimulants can be discovered from the insignificant and prolific plants growing wild in the meadows and ditches of the earth. Although the greatest wonders of man's native heaths are still to be captured, they are nothing compared to the wonderful trees of remarkable powers and food-providing virtues that once existed. Tree and herbage life with sustenance for all, with possibilities to proceed and further evolve in the creature life.

Although very primitive with their applications, there are still known among the uncivilised races of primitive life, especially in Africa, many mysterious herbal remedies that have proved to be of miraculous efficacy in curing diseases; those that are still baffling the medical profession. In fact I personally have cured a number of sicknesses with natural applications, especially rodent ulcers that have responded to carrot and spinach applications, once the sufferer has turned to a natural diet of vegetarianism. And I also believe, that by a clean diet and herbal remedies many diseases of a ravaging nature could be arrested.

For drugs have only an effect on one spot and invariably cause chaos in another by applying to the body overdoses of mineral elements, thus bringing organs down into a greater solidified state, instead of infusing with pulsating life-giving essence.

The Ancient Scorpionic Power

The great scorpionic powers are still strongly prevalent with the natives of Africa, though as I have already stated very primitive in their application; but if more attention were given to analysing these mysterious powers much could be learnt.

They have been suppressed by law in many of their rituals, but only because native and man do not know how to handle these dynamic nature powers. So instead of handling and mastering them, he forbids them, but allows excommunication by the priests of their religion. I have yet to witness the difference beyond the fact that one is intended to cure, and the other to kill because a soul will not agree with their equally voodooic ritual.

Even in Ancient Egypt many rites and powers were held in the greatest secrecy, because man could not handle, and if they were given rein, would immediately open doors and flood the earth with powers that man could not hold in check until his motives were more spiritual, and he was less commercial minded. For you have only to find a cure and prove it, minus the fact of what other organs it could upset, when it immediately becomes a bye-product of a money producing faculty instead of a life giving virtue.

Even now, as in Egypt, these powers belong to the individual ardent worker, and any who try to force their disclosure must take his life in his own hands, for these powers are not dead, but only sleeping.

Why your own Holy Book advises you that the Lord planted a garden in Eden, and although it is very mystical to many, it is a allegorical statement of the provision of primordial qualities awaiting the primordial species in the soul, when they are ready to come forth for handling and reforming into a practical issue of action. This is abundantly clear to the true investigator of gnostic wisdom, for in Gen. 2, v. 9, 16, 17 it states quite clearly

"Out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, as well as the Tree of Life also in the midst of the garden. Of every tree thou mayst freely eat, but of good and evil no, for if you do, you will become of duality and die."

In other words, remain intact by true simple and honest seeking and not cunning purpose.

But then all was as the vegetation of the normal earth, now we can only consider vegetation in its degenerate state that requires artificial fertilisers to promote its growth. These contain mineral qualities and not the virilic that the plants require to aid them unite with the solar essence.

The ancient Druids, Alchemists and Rosicrucians believed that all plants possessed and exhaled aura as magnetic and vitalic force from their flower and foliage, which alone was capable of effecting cures to the sick through the magnetism radiated, but only under the skill of initiated persons; not with fertilisers as many believe, but powers absorbed as a life giving natural herbage.

It is the chlorophyll in the spinach that aids the sick tissues of the ulcerated legs, as well as counterbalancing the negative martian inflammation by the positive saturn green ray; and the yellow ray in the carrot holds unique flesh forming qualities, that once experienced, would astound the investigator.¹

All these ideas are now almost forgotten, and the secret of their potency almost entirely lost. But nevertheless even today these magnetic and vitalic virtues are being used to cure diseases.

Up to the present there is not a plant or a mineral that has truly disclosed any real propensity of their inner properties; and here lies the hidden powers of Scorpio. For they as the direct holders of those powers, are gifted with that healing and herbal knowledge once they are able to believe and bring them forth for true service and not worldly gain.

1. Editor's Note.

For a personal experience of natural Healing the reader is asked to refer back to page 14 of August 1962 in which Mrs. Lucy Davies gives of the wonders of a cure to a really bad leg ulcer, photos of which appeared in July 1962.

OSIRIS ISIS AND NEPHTHYS

The depth of esoteric wisdom of the Egyptian Temples and Tombs is completely lost to the modern mind. Every facet was portraying not only soul creation and potential but also the Cosmic Soul creation. Here from a bas-relief at the Temple at Philae can be seen Osiris standing between Isis and Nephthys. Osiris represented the growing Solar consciousness, and this particular plate shows this mind awareness now uprisen and supported by the dual feminine principle which by its lower mind sensitivity and body support has lifted the awareness up to the 4th dimension the abstract mind, the light of perceptivity. At the top is the winged Scarabeus, the raised up generative powers, the scorpionic powers uprisen up the spine as the Kundalini which brought into birth the upper testes, the awareness generated through the opening up of the glands behind the root of the nose. The wings indicate the freed higher mind unhampered by the magnetic attachments of earth.

Yet every soul has these qualities, but may have them hidden under another label of celestial influence, for the 8th house in the Astrological wheel of direction is indicative of the laboratory where all alchemicalization takes place. This is after it has passed through the generative cauldron as indicated in the 4th house, that becomes re-directed in the 5th and 6th, weighed and balanced in the 7th, to be re-generated in the 8th under the influence of the sign that may be guiding that scorpionic house of mystery.²

The Herbs of the Fields

BUT now there may be those who would say, how can one feel confident that for every one of the properties discovered in the plant life there may be many more powers concealed in the inner nature of the plant? Man has been told to master and subdue the earth, not let it subdue him, and the astrological wisdom concerning plant life reveals a great deal, for they draw unto themselves many rays which are in no way deteriorated by a sense-field action.

Plants have smiled in the splendour of the Sun, and rendered fragrance as well as slumbered at night, for a long time before man walked the earth, and came from a more spiritual planetary world to man. They are not states produced just after the cataclysm. God made every plant and tree before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew in the same way as man has a seven fold creation. Therefore plants are magnetic, and possess a natural auric essence.

The real trouble has been in the past through the creed and dogma in religion stemming the philosophers freedom of enquiry, because they held the secrets and wanted to retain domination. By so doing, lost any sense of natural qualities themselves, for these gifts are not ordained but acquired through right of enquiry and diligent investigation.

CARL LINNAEUS

The world renowned botanist was born on 23rd May, 1707 at Roosholt in Sweden and by the time of his death in 1778 he had produced a most important revolution in Botanical science. He not only simplified and improved the distinction of genera and species but invented a new and comprehensive system founded upon the stamens and pistils. His accuracy of description his terseness of language coupled with the ability to select from the crude mass the most important, brought the hitherto chaotic science of Botany into order and simplicity.

wishes man with the key to understanding Nature and the theme to the constitution of movement of the universe. And further more, all this leads man to the threshold of the mystery of life and death.

Actual animal magnetism, clairvoyance and psychology hints that universal relationship does not terminate with our own little planet. The very fact of trying to incorporate the 4th dimension into the 3rd, alone proves that there are realms awaiting man's enquiry. But he will not find the answer by saying being of God they are not for man. Man is being created in the image of God, and his command was,

"MASTER AND SUBDUE THE EARTH."

The Mysteries of Mistletoe

AS to the odyllic aura of plants, there have been many experiments upon this vital force, and much is now awaiting wisdom in practical application. And as to the virtues and magnetic powers of plant-aura, it must be seen that all are born in dependence upon, and correlated with, the movements of the zodiac.

Upon this we come back once again to the planetary chain of mutual sex-relations as the cosmical conjugation of OSIRIS and ISIS—Sun and Moon. It is known that the ether-waves determined by sidereal agency, circulate, as do all other fluids, the blood etc. in obedience to the Laws of Nature, of which the planetary influences are the immediate agent. These not only influence the will to fight and exist, but slowly bring into birth a secret power which links with the sacred planets of the outer worlds; thus determines growth on the earth. But while man fouls the stratosphere with devilish weapons, these higher powers are being cut off, and man, beast and plant left to become impoverished.

Very few understand the great mystery of the mistletoe gathered from the Oak, although the peculiarity attached to this is the fact that it is considered a parasite, for the mistletoe is not a part of the oak itself, it being a mysterious growth that grows out of its side from a seed independently planted.

The same mystery is applied to the mistletoe as unto the wheat seed; their seed come unto earth from a higher planetary source. Some Ancients have even suggested that the mistletoe came from the Solar planet and bears extraordinary powers.

In ancient times the oak was regarded as a sacred tree dedicated to Jupiter and bears out that which I have stated above, and that the mystical and magnetic properties of the mistletoe, derived from the oak, are therefore ascribed to the planet Jupiter, but drawn from the Solar plane. The oak was also considered the Tree of Knowledge which Abraham sat under and did converse with the Gods, for the Oaks of Mamre, as portrayed in Genesis, convey the secret that they are the Mother Nature strength to make the discussion possible.

The cutting of the mistletoe was always performed under a sacred ceremony, whereby the magnetic powers, to obtain of the higher wisdom, became their potential. Furthermore, it was always cut by a knife that had been blessed before application. After the ceremony when the plant had graced the

by Mrs. G. S. Fairclough-Smith

(The author is an ardent worker for the cause of Colour and Healing and without a doubt must be the oldest in the country. Now in her middle nineties she still directs and organises the Cosmic Colour and Healing Centre in Brighton, and here in this article gives of some of her views on the importance and use of Colour. Editor).

I WRITE with assurity and joy on this vital subject knowing how true it is for all life. It was in 1910 our first large important Cosmic Colour Centre was established in London, called the Alexandra Institute which was known and appreciated by the Medical Fraternity, as well as the public.

It was the mystical powers I was born with of Higher Mysticism, and with great experience and physical training, that brought all this about.

It would make an interesting book if ever I have the time to write. My busy life, even now, of two meetings weekly and Colour Healing etc. daily, does take time and energy, but I love writing or speaking about Gods and Rays and this wondrous healing power we all have from them consciously or unconsciously.

Do you not see now, dear readers, what you all individually know or realise from them through the Sun, the Life Giver, that releases these grand seven Rays (Red, Orange, Yellow, Green, Blue and Violet) into your aura individually and passes through and from your own individual little sun that comes through your Solar Plexus, the centre of your abdomen. Rays drawn from the Central Sun as required by the Human Entity.

Any disease can be cured or made easier. Any accident is helped by using Blue water, and bleeding, or any serious bleeding, by bathing in home made Blue Water, heals often at once.

This is how you make Blue Water. you procure a large blue-indigo bottle or jug. It must be clean and filled with pure water—drinking—and placed in a sunny window for 5 or 6 hours. This can be left for an hour or so longer. Then it is ready for any accident or bleeding or sipping if there is too much heat. Not to be taken to excess internally as it is very cold.

This indigo blue colour is wonderful in its action. I have cured cancer with it and other bad ailments. It cures bad eyesight and every kind of feverish ailment. It cures hot tempers by drawing the indigo Blue Rays into the brain and mind.

If I had not had this experience as a well known London Healer and traveller abroad, the States and other countries, I could not write like this. But I am eager to help all the dear people of our earth. I love all who need knowledge. This is God's gift to man, the real Sun Healing. No mystery about a free gift for all life, man, bird and beast etc.

If I see a lame horse or any other animal, I send the Indigo Blue at once and I have noticed a difference. I love horses and cannot bear to see suffering. Wash your dog in Blue Water, it keeps the coat beautifully soft and healthy. Ray all your pets with the seven Rays, birds, cats and dogs, not forgetting your dear self.

Keep your dining or meal room bathed in your thoughts of Blue Light, surrounding each chair and your dining table.

This brings harmony and peace. Also your bedrooms, over each bed and when putting your outer clothes away, Ray them each with Indigo Blue Ray thoughts. You will keep your house sweet and clean and calm. Ray your children also when going out to school. You can keep them safe by putting a light shade of Violet round them aurically. Also the elders and yourself. So by degrees you will realise the marvels of Colour Healing.

When going out in your own or any car or train and even by bus, visualise the vehicle you are in on your journey short or long. Visualise too colour round, "Indigo Blue and Violet Rays." Just make a little prayer such as this:

"Please God shed your Sun, Indigo Blue and Violet Rays around this car etc. to keep us all safe. Also your house or any place you are in during night or day. For safety, for self and all concerned."

So to end I will give a few ideas re the seven Colour Rays from the Sun.

The Heating Rays are needed when the body is cold and lifeless—Red, Orange and Yellow. The inflamed or other heated body needs Indigo blue on painful parts. Nerves need Emerald Green Ray. Those who are mentally affected need Blue and Violet Rays. When the brain is tired, Blue Ray first, then visualise the Golden Yellow flaming up the spinal cord and into the brain cells. Good for memory and deafness.

Be wary of Red. This colour induces wrong ideas, actions and often quarrels, murder etc. Use Rose Red instead, this is a lovely colour and uplifts the mind and brightens the whole being. Draw as much Golden Yellow as possible on the walls of your room sanctuary etc. Blue Lilies in bedrooms are helpful and a pale blue room is lovely and harmonious.

I think I have told you enough to bring THE SEVEN RAYS INTO YOUR AURA and right through the body, and then Health will be yours.

highest in one unbroken chain of unfolding.

In this wonderful mystery of Nature and her revelation, there are plants that are capable of giving an electric shock similar to that produced by magnetic means; others that can produce hypnotic sleep, and some the power of clairvoyant vision which enable the soul to exercise prophetic powers.

As physical magnetism and electricity furnished man with the key to activity, it also fur-altar, the berries were made into a juice for the priests to drink. This induced vision and hearing entirely unknown to the present day worldly man. But these priests knew the secret of how to prepare, and greater still, how to control. Something very foreign now to the majority, and which holds most men in fear.

By the use of plants in medicine, man attracts the planetary influences needed to restore vitality to the diseased cells and organism. The same element which Mars, Jupiter and Venus produce in the Spheres, exist also in the body of man, because man is the sun of the astral macrocosm, and he radiates them back again.

So it can be seen, that not only do the elements exist in man, but in plants and minerals as well. for all ancient alchemical philosophy gives man the understanding of how plant life and organic life are integrally and cosmically connected with the sidereal Spheres.

By virtue of this connection, they act as magnetic and vitallic agents of the Vital Principle in which life is produced, procreated, sustained and energised.

Therefore the crux of all life via this Vital Principle: the secret of all the Therapeutic Wisdom sponsored in Greece when Alchemical Philosophers were diligently seeking into the Art.

This Principle is the Fire of Life, the great Secret in the Great Work, and is conveyed to man through the mediation of the Living Hierarchy. It issues from the planets and constellations, oracles, Good Stars, in their various aspects and configurations. But after the Fall of man a reversal was caused, and that which had brought the Vital Principle into terrestrial and human relations, was modified and restricted.

Man has now to set that work into order that he can adjust all states, cells and atoms, that the Principle can once again become man's direct Vital force. This is where the therapeutic wisdom holds a key, and can show man a solution for restoration.

Readers' Letters

LETTERS CONTINUED TO POUR IN, WRITING UPON the Wonders of the great Initiation Mrs. Gladys Spearman-Cook passed through, and none have been more inspired to write than Mr. Ray Herbert of Washington, U.S.A. The response over these last months has been truly remarkable, and more and more new readers have joined the fold, and more have visited the School. From far off Ceylon came Mr. Upali Ekanayaka and his joy at what he sensed can be gleaned from his letter. As a man who worked under Gandhi these remarks are deep and soul stirring. From the New World and far off Ceylon we turn to the ancient roots of Africa, and the inspired words of Mr. Otusanya from Nigeria, full of the vigour of youth, show that the old Lectures given through Mrs. Spearman-Cook still carry the magic that I too found when I first read them. It is a pointer to the Universality of the wisdom taught that readers from all over the World write in similar vein. From New Zealand and Australia many letters have been written and from these have been selected the two from Mr. Craig and Mrs. Jeffreys, and now to complete the world picture we move across the seas of the Pacific to Peru and its capital Lima, Miss H. de Tello. We publish this letter because we think it will interest readers to know exactly how it is that we have so many from abroad that are readers of the Occult Gazette, and to welcome this visitor from Peru on behalf of us all. The WORD undoubtedly has spread into all corners of the Globe.

One small "blot" on the landscape came when we suddenly received a curious unsigned typewritten letter without any address of the supposed sender, a Mrs. G. V. Clements. Just in case this is not a silly hoax and there really is a Mrs. Clements,—for we have never even heard of her—whoever is sending her an Occult Gazette, even though you think she should read the Wisdom to help her awaken, please stop sending her anymore, and then we will not have to receive that type of letter. When we received it and after the other letters we received from abroad we could only think of those words in Matthew chapter 13 v 57 :

"A Prophet is not without honour, save in her own country and in her own house."

"TO A GREAT LADY"

As I bow on bended knee before your Great Presence, please permit me to say that I have read and re-read the accounting of your wonderful recent experience, and words fail to definitely express my gratitude to you.

Your great Love, Sincerity, Dedication and Singleness of purpose has always been one to be admired, and now the great COURAGE which you have demonstrated in the accomplishment of this tremendous Final Initiation, is highly commendable. I am certain that, in time, the entire Planet and its inhabitants must of necessity become aware of the tremendous benefits experienced, as a natural result of the effects of the great forces and streams of energy emanating through your form. Perhaps in the future there will be more who will realise the immensity of such a great Sacrifice. With my deepest Gratitude,

I am Sincerely, Mr. Ray Herbert of Washington, U.S.A.

Mr. Upali Ekanayaka, Panaduru, Ceylon, on a visit to England.

It is indeed very heartening to find a deep and abiding reverence for all living things permeating the being as one enters No. 6 Phillimore Place. I was so "touched" by the atmosphere of Awareness, and spontaneously felt I was at a Temple door in one of the revered places to Buddhists in my beautiful country that I found myself taking my shoes off as I entered. Gladys Spearman-Cook is truly one free from conceptual thinking and preconceived ideas and therefore is able to mirror Actuality and interpret Yesterday in the perspectives of Today and the dimensions of Tomorrow. Listening to her insights one feels the tender pain and the knowledge of suffering she carries in her heart that one thought she was the statue of Piety with the

A Mrs. G. C. Clements sent this typewritten letter without any signature or address. We publish it not only to find out if anyone knows who this Mrs. Clements is but to stop any reader sending Mrs. Clements an Occult Gazette for it is only wasting valuable material.

May I request you once more to cease plaguing me with your ridiculous publication the Occult Gazette which to me is utterly repugnant and is burnt as soon as received. I left the address to which you persist in sending the unwelcome magazine and strongly object to having such a thing following me around, and am instructing the unfortunate recipients who forward it to put in the dustbin. If you continue to plague me with copies I shall consult a solicitor with a view to seeing if other means can be taken to restrain you from sending such unwelcome print through the post after several requests to desist.

wounded bleeding image of the Twisted Man on her lap. She spoke best in the final eurythmy of her hands and sensitive fingers over the light making it a Lyre of Light till all the soothing notes of the music blended and floated upwards into the Eternal Light. It is incredible to think that I, an Easterner, experienced this in the West (which is founded on Fear). Are we by some happy ordination listening to a Bodhisatva!

Mrs. Dorothy Atkinson, California, U.S.A.

I have just recently finished reading all the copies of the Occult Gazette since it started, and I would like to say that we have nothing here in the U.S.A. to compare with it.

The teachings certainly fill a void that other esoteric studies leaves.

Miss Louisa Jeffreys, New South Wales, Australia.

I am delighted with the progress of the Gazette and the helpful articles. I was very interested in "Capricorn" Path of Attainment, as I am a Capricornian.

Wishing all a happy and prosperous New Year and especially Mrs. Spearman-Cook as I have been a Student of the Mystic and Occult all my life so can understand the writings.

Mr. R. L. Craig, Otorohanga, New Zealand.

The news covering Mrs. Spearman-Cook is indeed dynamic and as an old nurse I am keenly interested. There is so much covering your Philosophy and powers of healing that I do not yet understand, but perhaps if I persevere and read the Gazette I will do so in time. Perhaps you could help me to understand your Astrological teachings and to know more about my chart. Is there a fairly simple publication I could get to study the subject of Astrology. I have always been most interested in it!

(So many of our other readers have found that the Elementary and Intermediate Astrological Lectures which are advertised on Page 2 have helped them to understand how to delineate a chart as well as to cast their own birth maps that we immediately recommend Mr. Craig to take those and have now despatched them. Editor).

Mr. A. O. Otusanya, Lagos, Nigeria :

After going through these wonderful Occult Gazettes and the amazing truth unveiled in the three Lectures I have got so far, I strongly believe I have been in utter darkness before I knew of Ra-Men-Ra. The Teachings are just wonderful, words fail me in expressing how really they are. Although I am young in this way I have the inner conviction that all Ra-Men-Ra says are the highest truth and I doubt none of her authoritative utterances, which delivered from HIGHEST TRUTH Itself. My grievance is how I can help fellow souls to the true way, so that they can shun all the false teachings of religion and face reality. Any way I hope as time goes on I shall have the opportunity to show my strong desire.

O.G. Spiritual Food

Mrs. C. D. Hodder, Eccles, Lancs.

After many hazardous trials and errors at last I have found what my inmost soul is looking for. Apart from being a great Bible student, not belonging to any group or Society but an individual student, I am very greatly interested in Egyptology; unfortunately I have never had the exquisite pleasure of visiting Egypt in this incarnation but believe me, dear Teacher, I am vitally interested in anything that has ever been said or written about the subject. So you can imagine that after finding and rejecting quite a few Psychic Journals, not as worthless by any means but as inadequate, I am blessed indeed in finding your wonderful Occult Gazette. Perhaps I am only just now ready for the wonderful wisdom I find within its pages. Every single word and phrase conveys Spiritual Food to my soul, and I have only been a subscriber for three months. I read about your wonderful initiation with great pride and reverence for you. I wish you God Speed in all your future endeavours.

A Good Try Too!

Mr. D. R. Kay, Willesden, London, N.W.2.

Please find copy enclosed of my theorie regarding the article by Sankuntala; "The Heritage of the one Knife" printed in your December issue. This is the first time I have ever seen your magazine, and I found it really absorbing reading. I shall make a point of getting it every month in future.

Welcome Visitor!

Miss R. H. de Tello, Lima, Peru, visiting this Country as a guest of the British Council.

Please allow me to introduce myself. I am a friend of Mr. George Corralis of Lima, Peru.

We form a very small group in Lima, you know, and I would be very much honoured if I could get in touch with you during my stay in England. I am a teacher of English, and have been with the British Council for the last twenty years. Now Professor Palmer who lectures at the University College, Bangor, N. Wales, has organised a special training course for Latin-American teachers of English. We are here for the Easter term only. There are 15 teachers in all. Some come from Brazil, Uruguay others from Chile, Argentine etc. There are two of us from Peru. The lectures are mostly interesting and helpful for improving our methods and brushing up our English. I hope to be in London on March 25th, when I'll probably stay for a day or two, before

EX-GROCER HEALS THE SICK

PHIL WYNDHAM

is widely known for his Public Healing Demonstrations and his surprising cures

... Letters come from all parts of the world to his London Home in Hackney. Cures are effected by Post... People of all ages and many religions knock at his door for help. They all seek New and Better Health.

HEALING HANDS

Phil Wyndham discovered his Healing gift 14 years ago in his Notting Hill Grocers shop.

His customers widely praised his many cures.

A Sunday Newspaper gave the story of his success wide publicity. More people flocked to his shop for Healing. Demands on his time grew rapidly and eventually he sold his shop to take up the full time work of Healing the Sick.

NOW YOU CAN BENEFIT FROM HIS GIFT OF HEALING HANDS

HE WILL BE HAPPY TO HELP YOU IN THE PRIVACY OF HIS SANCTUARY AT 56 Narford Road, Clapton, London, E.5. (U.P.P. 450).

If you are unable to call help will be sent by post.

IT'S GOOD TO GET BETTER

Sister Whitford's Column

by Helen M. Whitford, S.R.N., S.C.M.

Member of the Royal College of Nursing

Readers are requested to send their personal health problems to the Principal of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing at 6 Phillimore Place, Kensington, W.8., and some of these will be selected to be published. Wherever possible the exact time, place and day of birth should be included as the Astrological Log invariably helps to show the deeper causes of health conditions. Where it is especially requested that no details are published then naturally it will be treated confidentially. Editor.

FIRST I would like to thank the many for the letters which I have received, quite apart from those asking questions on Healing, for I have received so many good Wishes from friends, one in particular being full of support and encouragement. From my Healing Letters I select one as the first which asks the question why we have to be ill. This of course is a very wide subject for not only does it apply to our personal habits, that are not conducive with the LAW, but embraces those karmic roots that can go right back to the beginning of Time. To get a deeper understanding of this subject one should come to listen to one of the Lectures given by Ra-Men-Ra or if you cannot do this, I suggest you obtain copies of them from the Publishers, the School. These more than cover this vital question.

The bloodstream which holds our mind consciousness, after years and lives of wrong living and diet, cannot be cleared or cleansed over night, thus great patience is needed to fulfill the changes that are necessary to be made.

With the very limited information that is sent to us, I will do my best to diagnose your difficulties but, as you know, often we complain of a pain or a disorder in one place when in reality it applies to something entirely different. It is referred to as pain when in fact it arises out of sympathy with another part of our body, which is the real cause of our trouble, or even out of sympathy with the illness of one near or dear to us. By our experience of Astrology we have come to realise that much is due to the signs being placed as rulers of other houses and shedding their influence, causing one state to reflect onto another.

Varicose Veins

FIRST of all let me answer a Doctor from Scotland's capital, who states:

I suffer from a varicose condition in my left leg as the consequences of my two operations, which I obtained after returning home from the Second World War.

Now he wishes to turn to Spiritual Healing for help. We have placed you on our healing list, Doctor, but it is necessary that changes of diet are necessary where you are concerned. From what you have stated you are one who should now strive in every way to make untold mind expansion into new realms of thought and belief, for very often these varicose conditions are due to a congested bloodstream. Thus where there is an overtaking through the thickness of the blood causing a slowness of movement, herbs and diet and especially new fields of study are the very points of action which be the major consideration and will lead to a great lessening of the condition.

going to Germany where I have a brother. I expect to be back in Lima around April 10th, God willing.

Appreciation and Gratitude

Mr. R. Pring,
Tunbridge Wells, Kent, who had had special healing appointment with the additional aid of his natal astrological log, wrote afterwards:

I'm writing this letter of appreciation thanking you for your wonderful advice, which I was so grateful to receive. The herbs you recommended me to take have done my skin the world of good and I was wondering whether you would send me a further supply.

Mr. Alfred Hudson,
Hednesford, Staffs.

I would like to express my thanks to whoever was responsible for sending me the Occult

Gazette. It is a new paper to me and I am grateful for the introduction.

Mrs. F. W. Hansen,
Maine, U.S.A.

I was so sorry to hear of your illness and it was so wonderful to read in your Occult Gazette that you have had such wonderful healing. I wish to thank you at this writing for the interest you have shown me and it is so deeply appreciated. I wish I was able to see you and thank you in person. Perhaps in the year a friend of mine may be able to take a trip and visit you and your School. We don't have any school of healing here in Maine and I am doing what I can thru my small group, and Spiritual Tutors and Doctors. We have healing services after my voice with the various spirits our loved ones and Helpers, Tutors and Guides.

Bronchial Asthma

Mr. S. Q. of Bristol, an old age pensioner writes:

I have a condition known as Bronchial Asthma and Emptness of nerves... I have tried most forms of Healing for 10 years without success.

Here I am afraid your complaint does not rest with the way you have lived this life but is the outcome of acts committed in many past lives, and has now come forth to be dealt with and cleared. I am of the opinion it will be found that what you have to adjust does not link with what you are stating but has to do with the Thoracic Duct and the Thymus gland. Do watch your diet and avoid too much starch, and naturally look to any access in smoking or tea.

You know what goes into the intestines to-day comes out in the chest at a later date, hence the need now for a pure diet to help the cleansing action of the Herbs.

Seborrhea

Mrs. B. B. of Newcastle-upon-Tyne is concerned about her daughter, who, I am told, has Seborrhea,— her head really is a mess and quite sore. Can you help me with this condition please?

It is obvious from the Seborrhea that she is suffering with, and with the fact that she is born in January, and being Capricorn connected with Saturn (its ruler), that she is closely linked with the lunar states and she has got to try and respond as much as possible to the solar, building the Mind. By my experience I have found that these conditions invariably come about through such as I have stated. Her head should be washed with pine shampoo and a lotion of ROSEMARY and SOUTHENWOOD applied each day. This has proved successful but a diet of fruit salads and vegetables is highly recommended. Of course all perms and hair dressing should be discarded and furthermore advise her that her hair represents her mind strength and all care should be given to it. I have seen this young girl's birth horoscope and she should be guided as soon as possible by a delineation.

Deafness

Miss E. Z. of California, U.S.A. writes:

I have a hearing problem. Doctors say that they cannot do anything for me. I know God can restore my hearing, I'm praying He will.

I trust you have received your lectures safely, also the Herbs BUCCHU and VERVAIN which we have despatched to you. I am sorry to read of your hearing trouble; are you stone deaf or only partially, for if only partially cannot you get a deaf aid that will help you. Your problem is much more a spiritual than a physical one as your body is but an outcome of past mind and

NEW BOOKS from the REGENCY PRESS

BEYOND RELATIVITY

By H. W. Heason.

After many years of intensive study the author of this learned book presents his findings as to how the present atmosphere of materialism shall be replaced with a greater feeling of meaningfulness. You will read how science itself can be re-interpreted so that the dynamic content of the universe shows itself. The ideas developed in this book are related together within the context of evolution, mental processes and the very act of living itself.

Here is a new way of looking at the world outside ourselves, and the world inside from which thinking springs.

By post 22/6, U.S.A., Canada $3.50.

IT WAS REVEALED UNTO ME

By W. P. Over (Physician and Surgeon).

Every thinking person will be greatly helped and guided by reading the wisdom that Doctor Over brings to light in this most interesting book. The author, has through years of his worthy life, experienced many incidents and now presents these to you, knowing that these experiences will be of inestimable use. Here is the study which man must turn to if he would solve the burning question: "If a man die: shall he live again."

By post 26/6, U.S.A., Canada $4.75.

SOUL MATES

By Arthur S. Mattes.

This is an exciting book that will grip the reader from beginning to end. It traces the eventful lives of a lawyer and his wife in the stirring days of the fight for American Independence. The saga then moves to a modern day setting in Philadelphia and to a distant planet in the sun-system where the "true self" of the heroine lives on. In the late mid-twentieth century the heroic couple are re-united aboard an Earth-bound Spaceship, and return home. By post 17/-, U.S.A., Canada $2.50.

ISAIAH

By "Aquarius."

Here are considered the aspirations for an ideal ruler, and many other aspects of this engrossing subject.

By post 3/-, U.S.A., Canada $0.50.

LIVE BEYOND YOUR LIMITATIONS

By Celia Barrie.

A profound yet simply worded book which enables the reader to enjoy greater mental and physical vitality, and a psychic perception of things beyond the material. You learn how to become more intelligent, increase your creative powers and live more fully, freely and happily, without strain, but up to your full capacity. By post 11/6, U.S.A., Canada $2.00.

FRUITS OF THE EARTH

Nature's Healing Power—The Answer to Suffering

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

(This article, Part II of last month's Therapeutic Wisdom, details the intended gifts of Nature in all her original Wealth prior to its deterioration by mankind's misuse of his Spirit Powers. Editor).

TO follow on of our enquiry of last month regard that of the therapeutical, so necessary in the present age of crisis, let us seek diligently into the Science of Biology and Palaeontological wisdom to gain further knowledge and proof regarding man's heritage—his corporeal body; that containing both of spirit and earth, which is forced to separate into a dual state called "death." Death, not as the majority know it to be, but one state through decomposition, whereby alchemicalization brings rebirth, and another through termination by limitation. To fully realise of the extent of the earth's state through the Fall can only be done through the cosmical history bound up in the geological and archeological monuments, and coupled with the greatest history of all, man's innermost memory in his blood species; that which hold the records of all time, and even before.

The Earth, in the glory as the Father's son, is the greatest of all planetary Spheres, in that she is the cosmic Mother, the cosmical Spouse of the Sun. In her union and cosmical conjugation with that great orb, she feeds and nurtures this world as a solar system, and all others from her and connected with her, but we can only, for the present, be concerned with this solar system, as all else is completely out of the range of the majority of human mind; except that Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, as outer world links, are a bridge that give some clue to the extent of the dynamic enormity, of which man is but the root base.

Each planet in this solar system is springing forth from the Earth and its basic unfoldment, and are the seven daughters of the Sun, yet they are the Mother's right hand, for they are her guiding influence in that all that comes to the Earth from the Sun, comes via these planetary magnetic forces. These in turn, as soul-form creation, are received back up to the Sun as intelligence formulated; thus the Macrocosm Becomes. Therefore it can be seen, that the Globular dissent in differentiation created a changing Nebulae state that brought the Earth into birth, and planes of cosmical substance, which now appear as planets that move around in their own plane of orbit, as well as being nebular spheroids.

This means that from the heights to the Abyss, all sprang forth from the DUST that the monad also sprang from, and is still fed therefrom; the base being the earth womb that sets all into germination through the solar impregnation. Yet to add further unto this great mystery, all that is within the cosmos is within the nucleus of the monad itself, for the monad was the means of such being as the prototype in its own descent through Creation, and is awaiting for the power of redemption to be set fully into action, so as to resurrect all into the Ego on the Buddhic plane as ONENESS of establishment; but while so doing is creating the Father's kingdom as Kether the Crown in Malkuth, the City of Zion.

The Elixir Vitae

THIS truth has its basic in the Ancient Egyptian Theogony of the Sun being the God OSIRIS, and the Earth as the Goddess ISIS; yet the same wisdom, as quoted above, appears in the Holy Book, especially in the Book of Genesis, where Eve, the Mother of all potential experience and travail—yet filled with richness and knowledge, and grand-dame of Ancient wisdom—begins the

THE GATHERING OF THE SACRED MISTLETOE

Ra-Men-Ra gave forth of the following interpretation of this picture during the course of a Wednesday Lecture in the Sanctuary of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing at 6 Phillimore Place, Kensington, London. Previously he had asked the students to find out which Herb was known by the ancients as the Elephant Herb and on this occasion gave of the answer).

The Mistletoe appears to the majority as a parasite, but it is not. It is a seed that comes from out of the unknown—no one knows where it comes from—and it fastens itself upon the oak, the great strength of the earth. Once upon a time it was used with great ceremony,—the Gathering of the Mistletoe—because it was made into a brew by the Druids particularly for their initiations, and was only partaken of and handled by the priests themselves.

The mistletoe holds of untold qualities but should be partaken only for initiation. It has dynamic powers and the means of bringing the powers into birth. It has never been propagated by its own seed, it has no seed at all. It is the Powers that man is able to draw down that provides the seeding for it. It is like the mysterious powers of the spermatozoon seed.

Once the Powers have been brought down it is still there containing the seed. That is the Yod of God, the sacred Phallus, and it is around these trees they had of their phallic worship—but not as the majority believe—believing that the Yod of God was interpenetrating them, and of course it always came through the top of the head. The shaven head was the spot where the Powers interpenetrated into them which was the purpose of the service. Man today has no knowledge at all; he is superficial; yet the Wisdom of the Ancients is dynamic.

nursing of the universe.

For Adam and Eve, Masculine and Feminine Principles, functioned to the creation in the same capacity as Sun and Earth function to the Solar System, and were, at that time, named ISH and ISHTA. Names identical with the Egyptians' titles of OSIRIS and ISIS; and all four names are the ancient mystical terms representing the cosmical Sexhood.

The Androgynous God in the Fatherhood and Motherhood of Cosmos and of Nature.

This holds of intense wisdom in the therapeutic Mysteries, and, if it can be grasped, opens up to the mind of the enquiring man to the depths he requires to help him find vision of heights of abstract interpenetration.

That is what all disciples of wisdom are really seeking; particularly those who are seeking into the basic and mystery of creation, for that, once solved in the mind, opens up worlds of past memories to the ancient monadic soul of the descent, and all else appears as the outcome. But if not solved as a fact, leaves the soul in a quandary, and hampers its future interpenetration in the investigation, for it cannot perceive why all should continue that way if in error.

In the wisdom of the Gnosis of Creation the Solar System, as the fixed Stars, stand as the male, and the Planets as the female; thus once again, if this can be grasped in the light of Generation, it will be seen as the evolving planes of Creation in the Redemption of the Abyss; all giving birth out of itself, Therefore it can only be of the celestial as mind intelligence as air-born creation—the Elixir Vitae or Lux Mundi; the outcome of all that began, and is the Light born from the darkness and the base in a state of ever revolving.

The outcome is all between the Sun and the Earth, the polarity of this Universe and its magnetic field, producing Creation as TIME. Thus this symbolises the Sun as being the Great Father RA, and the Earth as the Great Mother NU, or ADAM and EVE. So in the organism of Creation, the Soul as Macrocosm, the great Cosmic Soul of Being, is ISHTA or ISIS, with its body as ISH; while Osiris is as RA-MAN-RA—God-Man-God as the creation called TIME.

This is the full Theosophia of Being in the Gnostic wisdom of the Sophia.

All became earthed in its wandering, and in its resolving becomes dissolved; thus from the base as the microcosm, all began as Adam and Eve producing ABEL, the higher mind of perception, but that became destroyed when CAIN, the more earthy substance in the negative production, became the more acceptable path in their inertive life.

This had to become adjusted, otherwise no rebirth, merely extension; and as all had reached its limits in the circumference of differentiation, dissolution must begin. This would be as re-birth and can only come from an upward resolving. Therefore, through the circumstances, the microcosm created the state of necessity, which resulted in the Law of Self-preservation, and Adam knew his Wife again. The Heights had contact with the Depths which resulted in SETH being born, the evolving mind as light springing forth from the base and ever revolving in spirals of becoming.

Thus accounts for the Biblical Theogony of Creation as differentiation reaching rock base of earth, and becoming as TIME in light springing forth in the Cosmic Soul Creation of the Christos being redeemed as the Solar Blood of Life.

Also the Ancient Ogdoadic Wisdom of the Egyptians, the Higher Archon and Son in the Unknown producing microcosms as the Beetle producing its eggs, then rolling them in the "dung" of matter and all being swallowed up by the Serpent of Fire and producing light. This is the microcosms heritage.

Nature's Healing Life

IN what was termed the normal form of creation, the earth was ever resplendent with its own internal effulgence. This was derived from the diffused Ether, which accounts for why so much is said about the wonders of Egypt in the Golden Days, for they were the only remnant of the normal times.

Then all the elemental Fires shone forth in virginal purity from her translucent surface which was pregnant with divine essence, and fertile with celestial luxuriant verdure. But apart from that, her types of vegetation as species and varieties were full of beauty and splendour, as well as being rich and full of life-giving properties, which are now fast deteriorating in these days of utter abnormalism.
