SOLAR KINGSHIP

The Royal Alchemy of Rebirth

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

FIRST OF ALL IN THIS NEW-born quest, we must ascertain of what is the Solar Path; making sure that there will not be confusion in the seeking into the comprehension of the past and the present, revealing the glorious road of the future. It must be seen that all has been gathered in to a point of oneness, whereby its radiance is now its comprehensive path in its sanguinus rebirth. It now being a single path of Solar immensity; a circling spiral of glorified light, now rising up as the Brahmic Thread, carrying the soul back home to the Central Sun, from whence it was given birth by the glorified Prism.

A path that can only be met by individual approach, and when attained, only maintained by the soul's expansive struggle to climb. A torturous path unless the soul has found its arielised wings; for many, by means of mind struggle have mastered the wisdom, but not been able to free their feet from the magnetic rock of earth captivity. Having become elongated, until the mastery is completed; a soul suspended between heaven and earth.

Therefore with that placed before the initiate, he has a little better idea of his journey, and the task that he will have to start, and try to conquer and master. Ever remembering that all now is a status of REALITY, a repeat of what has been, but now in a blended state of unification. For at the present, although unknown to himself, man is climbing a path of single purpose, the "Brahmic Thread," where every man has to learn to fully accomplish the act of SERVICE, by helping his polarity.

THE GLORIES OF THE RISEN CHRISTOS

THE mystical divinity of the unified mind now the glorified risen up Christos, where bird and beast are born anew and man finds the revealment of his divine heritage. Orb and sceptre now declaring their wealth and claiming their right of kingship. Wealth only known to the glories of the mind, the mystical road of the future.

Editorial

THIS month I thought we might probe more deeply into the heart purpose of the Vatican and its cronies; that of money, money and more money. Why the Italian Government does not demand that these idolatrous humbugs dig into their coffers to pay for their flood damage, is beyond me, for the Vatican could give every penny required without even noticing the difference in their mighty Bank Balance. I suppose the answer to this, of course, is that the Government is controlled by roman catholicism, with even a few living under the fear of excommunication if they do not obey the wishes of this despotic regime. Well then, they must be answerable to the Higher Powers for it, for no man now will be able to hold to the old laws of life, without they feel the effect of it, sooner or later.

Man must now give to the world of constructive service, born out of his firm belief in a living godhead, that of the radiating Solar Lord, the Divine Holy Fire from the supreme plane of Neptunian unfoldment. In worshipping a dead creation upon a cross, has brought to himself rebounding 'glories' that rise no higher than the graveyard, and is a major cause as to why the earth is in such a decaying state at the present time, it being fed on nothing more than 'stoned' mind creations, therefore no rejuvenating atoms from the heights.

Recollecting the parable of "the camel and the needle's eye," one wonders what distorted teachings are given out by the catholic church concerning their preoccupation with financial matters. No doubt they intend to offer their Lord half shares in their 40% holdings in Generale Immobiliare, the biggest concern in Italian Real Estate, and if this is not enough to seat them all upon his right hand, which must surely be becoming crowded by now, then they might throw in the vast areas of southern Italy that they own, and which incidentally is the most backward district in Italy, with the inhabitants thereon, the poorest in the country.

One begins to realise how evil and utterly selfish this Church is, when facts such as this are brought to light. Although so rich, with revenue coming in from all over the world, nothing is given out to aid the Italians, the majority of whom are terribly poor, and even more to the point, those farmers who are under the direct control of the Church being the very poorest!

Why should there be world-wide appeals to obtain funds to aid Florence with its flood damage. Let the Italians look to their own doorstep and demand of the Vatican to hand over its ill-gotten gains. There is wealth there in abundance, merely lying fallow, when it could be used to give all Italians a decent standard of living. Surely it is plain enough to all and sundry that catholicism is no more than a gigantic money-making racket, with the glories of the Spirit well and truly lost from their working curriculum.

No! This is no matter for appeals or Benefit Performances by soft-hearted and apparently short-sighted individuals, but a time for mankind to wake up to the true situation and demand of 'little king Midas' that he gives up his vast stores of wealth, and who knows, he might be the first pope to follow the camel through the needle's eye; but I think we are all agreed, a very distant possibility!

THE SPHINX

THE MYSTERY OF THE DIVINE VIRGIN FIRE

At the present time the roman catholic church is the greatest stockholder and property owner in the world, and in 1958 it was estimated that the Vatican alone held stocks and bonds to the equivalent value of at least 12,000,000,000 dollars, with the Jesuits holding negotiable stock to the value of 5,000,000,000 dollars or more, and incidentally, why they are able to remain independent of the Vatican and its demands. Apart from these two main bodies, it must also be realised that several other large catholic orders have their own accounts, though all being under the influence of Rome.

This then is roman catholicism, they who claim contact with God, while at the same time acting as human blood-suckers, as they greedily pull in the money from their pathetic followers who are completely held in their clutches through fear and ignorance. The sooner that man can awaken from his captivity in the illusionary states of matter the better, for by such awakening, the sooner will such evil states as the above be removed from the earthly creation.

THIS next statement may come as a shock to our friends in America, but how many of them know that the Bank of America is controlled by the Society of Jesuits? This is one of the biggest Banks in the world, and shows the extent of the Jesuit influence in financial matters. It is also estimated that they control the De Giorgio Fruit Company, which has extensive plantations throughout Central America, and which wields considerable political influence there. It is a well known fact that the peoples of Central America, although having fertile soil and the finest of climate, live under the poorest of conditions.

As the United States Fruit Companies have plantations and concessions, it

Papal Hypocrisy

NEVER has the evolution of the world been held back so much by any man or group before, than has been accomplished by roman catholicism over the last 1,500 years. They completely cut the vision of the godhead off from man's mind, and instead buried him under dead Latin dirges that must have even made the Devil wince to hear them.

They have a very big karmic debt to pay to mankind, and a cross that they will have to carry for many lives to come, but when you see the havoc they have caused to the human race, it is about time they had to carry their own crosses, and not pass the responsibility of their actions on to a dead god who came in handy at the time, as a cover-up for their nefarious schemes.

As we see the rift between the Jesuits and the Vatican becoming wider and wider, we can see definite proof of the waning power of this sect. "But if a house be divided against itself, it cannot stand," this is as true today as on the day it was written, and is a definite proof to all that very soon now roman catholicism is going to split right open, to finally crumble away into the dead dust from which it was originally created.

It is quite obvious now that the Jesuits pay no more than token lip service to a pope whose mind confusion over such earthy questions as contraceptive pills and abortion, has made him the laughing stock of the world. While as we see the Jesuits clamouring for a change in the rule of celibacy for priests, it is obvious that they also are beginning to lose the wisdom that they knew in the past, and as the spearhead of the catholic societies, this is another encouraging sign towards their steady downfall.

THE Solar World as brought into birth by Merope, does not allow for such hypocritical societies as these to flourish as before. Now it is going to be a determined drive by each and every person as an individual soul creation, to bring forth the glories of the mind, and so raise up the Divinity of Being, the royal and mighty Lord of the Flame, that he can reign in all his magnificence upon the Cosmic heights.

The new Christ is born, and the old is truly dead, so as we go forward into the New Year let us wholly embrace His radiant Light into our hearts and minds, that we can tread into the earth the Truth wherever we go. 1967 heralds big changes upon the earth, and we must make sure that we are ready to receive them, and not be found wanting at the crucial moment through lack of past effort.

AND SO, AS I FINISH, LET ME WISH ALL OUR READERS A SUCCESSFUL NEW YEAR, AND MAY IT BRING TO ALL THE OPPORTUNITIES TO MAKE BIG STRIDES FORWARD UPON THIS MYSTIC PATH.

means that they, to a great extent, control the economies of these countries, and as we delve further still, we find that the Church controls the Fruit Companies. This so-called Holy Church controls absolutely the religious outlook of this area, and in most countries in Central and South America, does not allow non-catholics to hold any sort of prayer meeting whatsoever. And just as surely, this Church is pulling the political strings behind the scenes.

There was evidence of this a few years ago when the people of Guatemala succeeded in bringing about an Election, and actually voted for those who desired to improve their conditions, and not for the religious puppets, the Fruit Company candidates. When they won and took office, and kept to their promises, an insurrection was soon organised by a neighbouring dictatorship, and they were quickly thrown out of office. A new dictator was placed in power who was most happy to oblige with the previous Government's creations.

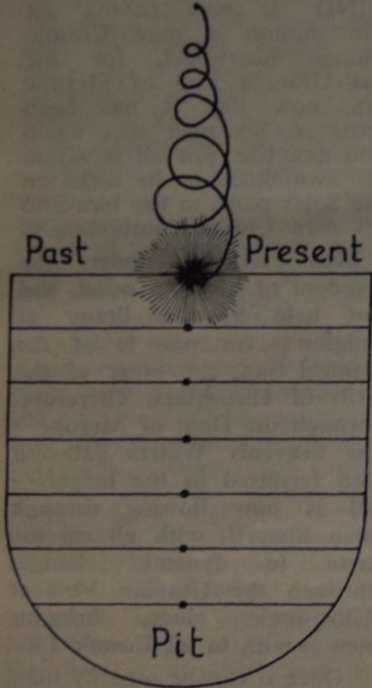

So where is the power of the Spirit being manifested by this apology for a religion, where are they drawing down the Eucharistical Unction to feed the people? The answer is NOWHERE, they merely using cheap hirelings to suppress the natives of these countries, and a combination that adds up to the poorhouse for the natives, reflected in their tawdry huts and the state of abject poverty that is abounding all around.

Foundation of the Cosmic Mind

MALE helping female, and female helping male, in the rebirth of soul creation. For both are witnessing a state of isolationism, which now will have to be mastered. For the major lesson on this PATH, in this act of Service, is LOVE, giving by the glory and the immensity of the heart. Thereby awakening the Spirit from out of its long sleep of density, where it rises up out of the clay of earth to take on of its wings of Swan-like purity, to rise up into its spiritual heritage. This being where the feminine principle as the Martha in the depths, becomes the virgin with the "dish of blood," giving her life to raise the Christos up out of the depths of Hell.

The depths of the South where he has been redeeming, as the royal Fiery Element, the last lingering desires of the soul. States that had fallen to the extreme, and were difficult as roots to make any form of reformation. Not evil, but creations still too sated to rise; for at the present the soul is at the basic of the climb; the Solar Path created by Cosmic impregnation through and by the change of LAW. That which man has now to bring into birth by the infiltration of the Solar Prism; the Atomic dust from the Solar heights, the mysterious glory of Outer-World Space. That which in its minuteness, holds the whole magnitude of Creation.

Therefore man is bringing into blossom on this road of Magnanimity, that far beyond his present comprehension. ALL that has ever been is now coming forth in a state of now permeated; the glory of the united Heavens and the Earth. The Soul-spirit, the acme of unification that now animates all bodies. That which will eventually become the Solar kingship in man, but which is already the Solar Arc, the Intelligencia MIND of the Divine Human World.

THE FOUNDATION OF THE COSMIC MIND, THE MACROPROSOPUS, THE LONG FACE OF CREATION.

(See diagram in col. 1)

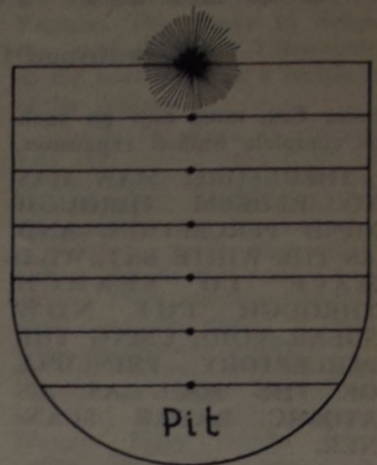

Yet the creation born from heights to depths, and is the

The Radiant Kingship

It was Venus as Merope, the Goddess of Creative Life, who as the Alchemist came down to help man to raise up his creative powers, by her bringing down into matter the Holy Generating Fire as the fifth Element of the soul. But this mighty Element must be seen as a glorious quintessence, that which came forth from the four. Yet a heaven born creation, the nucleus of the mighty Divine UNSEEN.

That which can, in its mysterious magnitude, bring to

Seventh Book

can only be read by those born of the united El Powers, that of the Ultra-sonic infusion from the heights. The Domesday Book of the Solar path containing all the reborn Laws of the now heavenly creation. Man losing the gravity of the earth, to now find the gravity of the Atomic, that of the Solar path, the atomic alchemicalisation of the soul.

This is where we now touch the ancient depths in our resuscitation on the united path of Relativity. Yet now upon the Solar path, the Atomic creation of Rebirth, for all is but the blossoming of what could come forth, the expansion of the Holy purpose. For man now is being fed by the holy Seed, upon whatever frequency of sensitivity that he prepares and unfolds himself to. So if it can be seen as the pinnacle point of the cyclone, the Brahmic Thread steep and tortuous until the basic is mastered by the soul.

simple child-like vision of the path now lying ahead for the whole of the human creation. That which the majority do not even understand, let alone ready to start and prepare to make entry onto its mighty depths. Therefore you now can, by what little is afforded unto you, begin to make a greater expansion of ascent, with a deeper interpenetration into wisdom as your armour of approach.

Hence our motive now is to be able to find the Solar path of Ultra-sonic field of Perception. That which will lead us to obtain the Solar Kingship of divine magnitude of consciousness, the glory of the Central Sun. That which man is being fed by as the holy Prism of Rebirth.

So it must now be seen that all powers ascending, are as the capital of man's output, thus as his galactic power, must now become equal to the Central Sun. For this Orb of radiance has become the Solar Atomic Point that is drawing back the wealth through its reviving process of rebirth. Therefore, unless man's gravity is equal to the Sun's, he will be lost upon a dead world creation, for the etheric Life Blood as the Prism from the Central Sun, will only be attracted by its equal polarity.

Whereby a Cosmic ignition takes place, and a galactic point as inspirational perseverance, is sent back to the beginning of its long lost journey. For what was sent down in its purity at the once

BIRTH OF THE HEAVEN-BORN MIND

AWAKEN, Awaken, all ye heavenly souls out of the darkness of your blindness. Look to the heavens and see its glory and know that it is the birth of your heaven-born mind. Royalty awaiting to come forth in the heaven-born cosmic heartbeat, the risen up Uranian fire of life.

oneness, and although he is creating on a new born path of etherealisation that is entirely out of his range of understanding, he is also bringing his Solar kingship into a full glory of conscious individualisation. Hence all will be as prototype, but of a more etherealised nature. So it would be just as well if we try to get a clearer vision of the depth we are now trying to bring into birth.

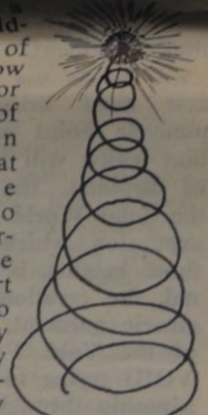

In the creating into the soul of the Creation of the four Essences as Earth, Water, Fire and Air, a fifth Essence has mind creation brought forth by the human crucible, which has been heavily clogged with earth, and buried deep down into the depths of matter. That which now is about to rise and make its way up to the heights. For by the action of the Scapegoat, all is ready to be raised up to the full heights of Unification, the path of Spirit returns. The completeness from where the FALL began, and duality started the path of multiplicity, now coming into birth.

the soul, both human and Cosmic, its spiritual garments of truth. That which is their preparation for the coming City of Holy rebirth. For this is the re-opening of the Seventh Book as predicted in Revelations 10, where the Book as the lost Word was eaten up by John, who although he found it was bitter as initiation, it came forth as wisdom from his mouth as sweet as honey.

(See diagram in col. 5)

Therefore became the Book of the Angels of Fire, which

Solar Era, must now go back as complete unified expansion.

THEREFORE, MAN HAS TO REDEEM THROUGH MIND PERCEPTION, AND AS THE WHITE BAT, WILL HAVE TO SEARCH THROUGH THE NOW SOLAR VOID, USING THE PERCEPTORY PRINCIPLE OF THE SOUL AS AN ATOMIC RADAR SCANNER.

That which has made a mighty multitude of expansion, now in unification a single road of ONENESS. A status that for the time, man is going to find will hold him in an apparent state of limitation, for this is where illusion is striving to find rebirth as REALITY; man passing from the multiplicity of the lunar creation into the oneness of the Solar glorification. The magnitude of ALL that has been, now the glory of the raised up heavens, the Intelligencia of the Holy FLAME.

Yet as above, so below, for man is the recipient of these glorious heights, and his task is to take their power and extract the polarity from his own store of wealth, and by uniting the two, bring forth the expansion that will glorify the heavens. Thereby returning to the heights the wealth they sent down, which now in its greater magnitude could be returned to the earth as further wealth of expansion. For this revolving magnitude in all its royalty is the sole heritage of man, and the means whereby he builds his etheric garment.

For he is the consciousness that must bring all to a pinnacle point of ONENESS, that which will be the MIND of Brahma, the intensity of the Solar World. Therefore his expansion which comes from those heights, is entirely internal, the creation of the inner etheric garment, the fulfilment of the Void. For man is the VOID trying to find the Solar kingship through his unfolding blood life, the glorified Flame of his galactic magnitude.

This is where man now begins complete renunciation by and of the mind, for although he may have renounced in theory on the close of the lunar path, complete accomplishment must be made on the Solar. For man has to realise that he is a vast atomic pile, that he must now bring under an isotope control.

The Unfolding Meninges

THE unifying of all elements under the mastery of the hierarchial forces, that these creations within his own sanguinus accommodation, are directing their mighty forces within his midst into polarity with the unionisation with their higher Powers. For now by the infusion of the ultra-sonic, the mysterious wealth of the nebula heights, the element creation is now being activated into a Vesica Piscis revolution, in the internal bloodstream of the soul.

The Ultra-sonic being the antidote that brings expansion to the Cosmic Rays, now infusing man under the extensive Laws set into motion by Merope, in her drive up to the Central Sun. The means whereby he can raise his own elements and internal wealth, up to the frequency of these dynamic planes, and be brought to a state of Oneness in unification. Man returned back to the Source of his birth, but now as a state of profound consciousness.

A mind created out of all that has been, by the infusion of heaven and earth. Therefore the Ultra-sonic is the ever infusing nebula heights of inaudible sound, being drawn to the soul by a state of attraction. Which that soul is ever bringing to audible creation through his own internal magnitude, and will be the means of climbing higher and higher in his resolving intensity. This he does by the revolving of the Vesica Piscis within his own midst; the bloodstream now completely freed from all impeding obstruction, is fired and set into active motion of an intense sensitivity, raising his internal wealth up to that dynamic frequency.

Therefore the Solar Path is the climbing up of the soul of the Brahmic Thread to the Central Sun through the fifth element, that of the royal spirit Solar Mind. An increasing Pile diminishing to an atomic point, being fed all the time by its gradual infusion of its mighty wealth. Whereas man has lived for multitude, now he seeks for intensity as the magnitude of his mind impregnation into the glorified mystery of life. Whereby now nothing is left unfathomed, and he enters into cell life of the Fatherhood as a dynamic consciousness of galactical magnitude.

The whole of the sub-conscious brought to a Conscious state, a mind of radiating glory. An atomic point of sperming infusion that could raise man up out of the degradation of the dust. Him finding the royal kingship of the mind through the dynamic Solar infusion.

With such a mighty intensified path laid out before Martha, the negative side of Merope, she now had to intensify her union with the heights, the Divine Master, that she could be led up that great drive to the cosmical boundary of the higher mind.

For man is seeking by the Law of Direction to find unity with the heights, and can only do it through himself, for he is the recipient of the Cosmic wealth. For he is really seeking to find the polarity from which he was born; the unexplored state of etherialised existence, not the mud of the waters of the depths. Cancer raised up as the lower EL powers to the Ursa Major, the higher EL Powers, the union being the divinity of the Goddess of LOVE.

THE RISEN SPIRIT

AS Zephyr carried Psyche down from the mountain top the trees began to blossom, and life began to activate, opening up the Stream of heavenly Fire that would bring reborn life to the depths. She who had lost her path and instead of living in a glorious world of ivory and gold, was buried in a mighty vault of stone, therefore Cupid came forth and while she slumbered he kissed her into life.

spiralling Solar Channel. The way that could only be approached through the Neptunian Galactical rebirth, the mysterious depths of the Generative rebirth. The mighty wealth as the spirit, now buried in the clay of matter, to be raised up to the heights as the glorified flame of the mind.

The clay now having been brought to a state of expansion and oneness by belief and understanding, whereby man becomes ready for the firing of the blood by the greater purpose he now beholds. Thus starts the process of renunciation out of all the old states of multiplicity, bringing all to the frequency of Solar rebirth.

Every man being a free agent to perceive, spin and rise, whereby the soul can expand to the realm of inner divine polarity. That is, where man makes himself one with the powers as a unified atomic isotope, now under the direction of the gods in the unfolding meninges. As all now is on the oral plane of inner spacial continuity, which is the answer to the whole of the luna-tic drive to outer space. For what is really in man's mind now, and sub-conscious to his conscious state of belief, is that of the

Rebirth of Man's Mind

SHE who is the Feminine state of Royalty, and not the feminine state of degradation that man has driven her into. But on the Solar path the etheric world of Real glory awaiting to be risen up by all men of divine courage. For now that the Scapegoat Merope has been the means of cleansing the etheric evils of man, by extracting them from the magnetic field and the upper planes, she through such fiery belief has made it possible for all men to start the Solar Gyroscopic spin. By this, man will find his mind opening up to the love of the spirit, bringing into birth a purer etheric bloodstream of sub-conscious belief.

Therefore could there be a finer prototypal example of "LOVE," than a human soul laying down their life as a Scapegoat, for the erring sheep of life. By this Merope-Martha becomes the Atomic Reactor on this Solar path, she that is giving to all man's atoms, new life to start the upward spiral urge.

For as Merope does so, she goes on raising up the planes, changing over the ectoplasm of all types and states within man, through her continual Cosmic cleansing as she herself rises. This is the change over now being accomplished through the higher LAW working through the lower Law, both in heaven and earth. That the glory of the heavens as the Central Sun can be born as the Solar Kingship in the hearts and minds of all men.

For it is now up to every soul to drive on towards the greater understanding of the Cosmic Christ, who now is the Atomic pulsating Stream of new life unto all men. The Central Sun radiating his Prism to all as the Divine Glory of LOVE Excelling, the heavenly rebirth of man and MIND. It now having set into motion a pure Cosmic Atomic heart-beat, for the lost Uranian Fire of Merope can, now that it has been retrieved, fire man once again into new life. For all is within his own blood as he seeks on the Solar path, to fire him into his own Christos embodiment.

Man seeking under the freedom of his own mind, and not held by the litany of religion; for one is of the Central Sun, the other of the evils of Hiroshima. Therefore, through the Dam of Merope—the heavenly Waters gathered and fertilised in the heights—all is now flowing through man himself, with all on the road to dynamic changes through the Uranian Fire of Ultra-sonic glory, bringing new wealth to all Cosmic Life.

Once it can be seen by man, that he is the creator of the world around him, he will see the dynamic point that is being revealed to him now. And how, by all being changed by a Scapegoat, who now acts as a vast Cosmic Computer, being the means of continually reforming the Law, it is up to him to accept changes and drive forth to his heavenly intended goal.

The Etheric Garment

AS all the Elements now gather into man, they are the practical alchemicalisation from the heights; they which are ever being blended up as a divine radiance, lifting him up on to the journey of the Solar uprise. Yet again, all is depending on how the soul in his striving can absorb the unified teachings now being sent forth from the heights as that of Universal Philosophy.

For where there is no initiation which proves man unto himself, there is no unification. Hence no real purpose, whereby a Godhead of royal Fire can manifest as glorified truth, the radiating flame of the mind. Whereby all particles, which are segregated wholeness, are unified through the mode of the belief of the soul. For unless these are blended, they are only part towards the truth, and can never bring of the wholeness as mind comprehension upon this dynamic road of Solar Glory.

This lays clearly before the soul of the changes that are now in full progress, which no man can possibly stem or refute. Changes that are now working silently within man, bringing into birth a reborn mind belief, which will eventually set his feet upon the new unfolding path, the Solar Road of the heavens.

Therefore Martha as she rose up out of the darkness of matter, being the "Sut" who has to bring all into final conclusion, strove to make the way clearer and clearer, to urge blind humanity onwards. For since the existing world is now to become a mind, it referred to the World within each soul, slowly responding to the throes of mind expansion.

Thereby climbing up in mind frequency, the mysterious Brahmic thread, clearly defining how in an earth world there can be for the time, those of mind expansion and those who merely dance with the beast. But as those who seek of wisdom radiate the glory of the mind, will the many seek to respond to the Waters as they impregnate the lost creations of earth.

Therefore Martha was opening the way by her perceptory principle to be the leader of a small band of mind progressive souls to spiral up and down the planes, climbing up and expanding the frequency of this mysterious Road of ascension. Showing man, how only by service in the name of LOVE, could he find the true depths to the magnitude within his own internal creation. Where the Ultra Sonic Waves were radiating as light in his revolving Waters, the Stream of his sanguinus glorification.

This is man's galactic field, his Milky Way to be reborn, the Stream of life that is impregnated with the glory of the heavens, yet the dung and clay of earth matter. That which is holding the Spirit-Fire, and chaining the mind down into matter. For man is still enamoured with the beast, and lost to the dregs of desire. While the galactic glory being fired by the heavenly impregnation, was the urging possibility of the greater mind, as the radiating light of his Stream. For the whole six bodies are within that revolving creation, receiving the wealth from the heights.

THE GLORY OF THE ETHERIC GARMENT BEING BROUGHT INTO BIRTH, AND NOW BY THE REVERSAL OF THE ORDER OF LIFE, WOULD FEED THE PHYSICAL BODY AS THE SEVENTH, FROM WITHIN. FOR AS THE SOUL STRUGGLED BY SEEKING THE DEFINITION OF TRUTH, WOULD THE BLOOD IN REACHING THOSE HEIGHTS, RECEIVE AS IT CIRCLED AROUND THE CIRCLE OF WILLIS, THE NEW IMPREGNATION FROM THE WORLD OF OUTER-SPACE.

The Arc of the mind now as the radiating beacon, from the internal etheric bodies in the blood conusion. This was the struggle of expansion that Martha-Merope was seeking to bring into birth, the mystical wisdom of the Sanguinus fiery stream of life, that unfolded the glories of the heaven-born mind.

Activating the Uranian Fires

The waters that were ever revolving through the alchemical factory of the soul creation, to unify and find its ever eternal continuity of rebirth in the brain infusion of the heights. That which now will draw down into its midst, more and more of the Fiery inflowing heights, as the soul climbs up that unfolding spiral, involving and evolving the greater frequency.

This being the mystery of HERE and NOW, and the importance of a pure bloodstream to those seeking of

THE DOORWAY OF REBIRTH

AS Merope opened the door to the mysteries of the Solar revelation, glories as never known before came forth from the mighty glories of Space. The mystical wealth of the Hyperboreans, the land of far beyond, the mystical depths of the North Wind. Thus the hoped for distant shore that will give to man the glories of spirit rebirth.

mystical depths, that could reveal the glory of the heaven born-mind. The revolving definition of Universal Philosophy, the returning of the wisdom set into motion by Merope, as she now sets herself to spin up to those Cosmic heights.

Thus she now sought of the Great Master, the Great Lord of the Flame, that he would now sperm her and dance her up to those heights. As she did so, his LOVE closed in closely around her and began to swirl her round and round in the glory and beauty of the heavenly Fires interblending with the Air of the mind, bringing new-born truth to the soul. The dance of LOVE as he carried Martha up to the heights, through her inner mind creation. She feeling the depth and glory of his divine Sperming as a royalty that was only afforded unto Merope, now privileged unto her.

Therefore tightly embraced in his union, she now knew that the "dish full of blood" had risen her Lord, not only within her own bloodstream, but in the Cosmic Bloodstream, fulfilling the glory of the Central Sun, the radiance of His Divinity. But now causing the internal electrification to revolve in divine ecstasy, as she spun up that Vagrant path of sensitivity and frequency.

Right up through the cervicals, with her bloodstream racing round and round the field of her unfolding etheric life, the divinity of her inner etheric creation. That which she had brought into birth by the hard turbulent labour of the suffering Scapegoat. She who had only known the "bleeding heart," gathering up of the blood for the Silver Dish, that now had brought its reward. She knowing that according to how she spun up, would it reveal body after body with its unfolding internal light of radiation.

THIS AS MAN'S GALACTICAL FIELD, IS EQUAL TO THE GALACTICAL MAGNITUDE OF THE HEAVENS, THE MIND MANIFESTATION OF THE ULTRA-SONIC NOW BECOMING AUDIBLE IN THE DEPTHS.

The soul ever receiving, revolving and expanding, ever spinning up back and forth, going higher and higher in its own internal capacity to capture the whole of those mystical waters, making the way strait and safe for all men. For now that these Waters of the heights are infusing this internal etheric creation, man must either bring to a spinning point of mind unfoldment, where Saturn is transmuted into the Solar as a point of truth, or find himself burnt into the lower grades of life.

With a state of inertia closing down his capacity of action, that he cannot exist in the world he has been partaking of, as the creation of his revolving mind. For the Waters as he revolves higher and higher, demand a greater struggle of action and WILL, until the soul is born of the heavenly Waters. The soul reinstated on its original heights by that of the Uranian Fire, and the mystery Waters of Outer-Space glory.

Then he will find that mind, heart, will and purpose are born of the new World of LIFE, the heavenly creation of Solar Galactical infusion, where the soul ever struggles to master the "Wind and the Waves," that he can be born of the unfolding heights, as a mind capacity of Solar radiation. Let the Christos Blood as the Solar Prism raise him up to the plane that he fell from, that he could once again take on the status that he as a soul should have risen up to, as an etherealised being.

Destiny of the Human Life

ALL men will have to make this grade sometime or another, otherwise it will destroy the Seed, the risen up magnitude of Atomic Creation. That which he gained in his journey through the worlds and universes of Becoming, but which as Woman, the negative status of growth, he allowed to fall down into the depths of the Waters, the solidifying and calcifying of the bloodstream. That which he must now raise up into active motion by the ever revolving action of the Word as MIND, and the Uranian WILL to accomplish.

For he now in the new World of LIFE, is taking on the status of Fatherhood, the royal Solar Kingship of Fiery Anointment. The soul being born of the perceptory principle, the active pituitary gland, the kicking horse as the flying Pegasus. The power to define the glories of the Ultra-sonic as the soul becomes a recipient of its Waters.

This is the Race of Human Life that should have risen up in the Beginning when Merope brought down the Fiery LIFE, the possible fifth Element, the glory of the Spirit. That which would give to that soul active motion as a creative spinning mind, and not merely a dead state of element growth. The soul to become a living propensity of mind expansion, born of the higher creative Waters. Fiery depths from Outer Space, to rejuvenate and elevate the soul now thoroughly sodden with the magnetic carbonised waters. This is what Martha was now seeking to lead man on to by she herself climbing that narrow channel of Brahmic immensity, revealing to man the mystery of his own internal magnitude.

The mystery and glory of his bloodstream, the whole galactic field of his becoming, but which can be the means of giving to that soul, the glorious radiance of a heaven born mind. The soul risen up out of the earthy state of matter, the corruptive creation of the pit. Risen up to take on all the wealth that he has gathered in those waters, but as a royal Solar mind; the creative Voice of the Son born of the status of Fatherhood. For what Merope brought down at the beginning of TIME, she now has repeated, but in greater propensity, whereby to stir man out of his dying creation, bringing new life to the Race, that the heavens can radiate with light.

Waters, fully impregnated with wisdom and the which demand man making will and effort; that which he as a soul creation refused to do at the Beginning of TIME. Now man is being born of his blood-life continuity which by him creating and weaving in mind capacity, he activates and increases the capacity of the Homogeneous, the creative quality of the unfolding etheric divinity.

The MAN, the created birth of the Son as the manifesting Voice of the Father born from the mysterious Ultra-sonic, the inaudible glories of the heavens now brought to audible manifestation through the Uranian Fire setting the ultra-will into action by the mind insistence now revolving on a higher plane capacity of deduction. Man now awakening by the inflowing wisdom of Universal Philosophy, the depth and glory of the Waters.

That which now is the active motion of the vagrants racing the adrenalin waters of the turbine creation, thereby being the means of sparking off the pituitary into perceptory action. Firing the blood with new thought and creative purpose of a spiralling intensified belief, carrying the soul up into unknown heights, where genius can blossom forth in the depths beneath.

All depending upon the motive of the soul as to what creative garment he is creating. If only raised upon the lowest purpose, a poisoned bloodstream of inertia and paraplegia; while on the highest a glorious radiance of divine active sperming life, which helps many another to become into action upon the new path of mind creation.

THE SOUL BORN OF THE HEAVENLY WATERS, THE DIVINE GLORY OF THE GALACTICAL MAGNITUDE NOW HIS ROYAL SOLAR KINGSHIP.

THE ADAMIC DUST

As the Blueprint of Life

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Wednesday, 24th August, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

ONCE again we come amongst you, and we come from the Heights, called into attendance by the Prayer of the Instrument. Much we would bring to you tonight in answer to your questions, which will give you an opportunity to ask of more, and by this you may be the means of sending 'expansion' up to the Heights. For that is what we are looking for, the answer to the Wealth you have taken, that no longer are you sending up lunar light, but sending back of Solar-light to the Heights. So now help me to go on teaching the Instrument to find her Solar legs, and give me all your Love as I carry her to her Throne. Such a Scapegoat we have never known before, and one that will never be known again. All the Scapegoats of the past have been of the male population. She is the first female Scapegoat that has ever kept her shoulders to the Wheel, and put into life so much.

The Fires of Life

THE mystery plate tonight represents the Fires as the Elements first beginning to make movement in the earth;

(See plate in cols. 2 and 3) that of course would be in the earth of the soul, for everything comes into birth first through man. So this would be the Fires as the Elements bursting into life in the earth of the soul, after they had been captured, enclosed, and then sought in their 'frying state' to find expansion into life. Once they were able to make a small break-through, just like a volcano, and they touched the nitrogenic gas, they then flared up into 'light.'

Now this is the first start-off, known as Chaos, but what I am seeking to do tonight is to answer a question put by one of our students. He said that the Atomic Dust was the Blueprint of Life, and that the Fire that came out of the Nuclei which brought the Fire into birth, became the Ultrasonic, the Reality of Life. He wanted to know—what was, before the Fire?

Nothing can come into birth in the Heights, only by man upon the Earth as the earthing of the Elements setting it into operation by the conscious state of mind. But you must not think that the consciousness of the mind is only ever applied to this state of life: man has got a very wrong idea owing to science, the medical world, and religion, all giving forth erroneous understanding.

FAR GREATER WORLDS EXISTED BEFORE EVER THIS ONE, BUT WITH MAN IN A DIFFERENT STATE OF CONSCIOUSNESS, AND NOT IN FORM. MAN HAS ONLY TAKEN ON FORM SINCE THE FALL.

It was the Chinese state, very very ancient, and not a civilised state as it were, which brought into birth the Adamic Dust, the Atomic Dust, through them rearing up the Fire Dragon to support their Emperor in his searching for wisdom. Dynamic Wealth was earthed in that Period by the Emperors, but since the minds of the peasants were not advanced or even educated, whatever records were made by these Emperors were lost as time went on; but the peasants were encouraged to bring about these Fire festivals.

These roots, that are in every soul, are the difficulty of the man who is letting-go of the earthy state of life, and did bring into birth the Adamic Dust, which was the Blue-print of Life; that extracted out of the nuclei of a greater capacity. But before then there was life, and we will try and give you some idea of what it was like.

The Evolution of Man

NOW this is somebody's idea, quite feasible and near enough to try and get your minds in the right direction. The figure in the (See plate in cols. 3, 4 and 5) centre represents that of the present. That on the left, (referred to as ante-natal life), the unconscious state: man not awakened to a conscious state of mind, everlastingly thinking inwardly, yet he was of the Elements. Man was simple, and he thought, but not as you think. In the Garden of Eden, which was typical of Heliopolis, he was dynamic, he was royal; he was full of life, because he had descended from the Heights with all the Elements blossoming within him. Man did dynamic things, but then he fell into inertia through the great powers that were with him.

When the Fires were brought down, man went into the 'Fall.' This is when we find, later on, the Chinese Period, which was followed by Egypt who started the 'divinity of life': they commenced to bring it into form, that of creative consciousness, and began the Dawn of Civilisation. Then man began to straighten out; he became conscious, he opened up, he perceived. So these pictures are portraying to you, the man not awakened, the man awakened, and the man about to become the etherealised being, having taken on his etherealised legs which, in so doing, he had to learn to use.

FIRES AS THE ELEMENTS

But no man can take on 'solar legs' unless he has so reached up to certain heights and brought down into his being 'expansion of an unknown quantity'; then he has to force himself into an etherealised state, and learn to use that etherealisation.

To merely take it ruthlessly because he wants it, can prove disastrous; and that is what many a Phaeton has done; gone on taking Fires, taking Fires: then one day he takes these deliberately to try and weather the storm of what he knows is a 'failing.' That is not the answer. No man can unfold in etherealisation unless he has built the etheric body, the body of the spirit; and although it may only be barely created, it still will be that which will lift him up out of the density of matter.

Q. When man becomes etherealised, the inertia experienced would actually be due to the deterioration of the flesh, so that if you have not got flesh of etherealisation, the Power will automatically turn and burn it.

It will burn away those vessels necessary to bring into birth the Fires you are requiring. The soul has got to learn to find his way through. Is that not what we have been trying to do with you here; trying to raise you all up slowly so that you could be prepared to take on this change.

I know that many have said, "What you are putting in the 'Gazette' is far too advanced." We are not concerned at you thinking it is far too advanced, because once you have read it, you are born of it; so it is going out all over the World, with man being born of Atomicisation. Can you see that? Whether he wants to be born of it, or not!

We are preparing the Way of the Cosmos: we are not preparing just the lower roots of man! If man wants to learn, he will learn: it is only because he is too lazy to learn that he never finds the answer to the simple words that are put into the Gazette.

IF HE WOULD ONLY STRUGGLE WITH THE WORDS THAT ARE THERE, AND KEEP ON MOVING THEM, HE WOULD FIND, IN THE END, THAT HE WAS BORN OF THE ATOMIC LIFE AND RAISED UP INTO WORLDS UNKNOWN. THAT IS WHAT YOU ARE ALL SEEKING FOR; THE KAMA RUPA, THE FLAME OF THE MIND. THAT IS

WHAT YOU ARE ALL LOOKING FOR.

Q. I suppose this would be—going into the sub-conscious mind!

It is your sub-conscious mind that takes the Light; it is your conscious mind that does NOT want to know, because your conscious mind does NOT want to change; so you may have to wait a little while.

My Instrument often is given wisdom that goes up into her higher mind, but her conscious mind does not understand it. So she wrestles and wrestles with it, until she writes you an Article explaining it. But if you don't plough, if you don't labour, then you can't expect to know.

So you get into chaos, you meet with disaster, and you try to blame the Teachings, causing untold stress to the Instrument, until she begins to question herself in the end, especially when it is as Dynamic as that being brought into birth at the present moment.

She needs all your support to help her, even though you may not be able to understand what she is bringing into Life. I have not failed you up to the present. I have brought you even prophecy, which has proved itself. I could not do more!

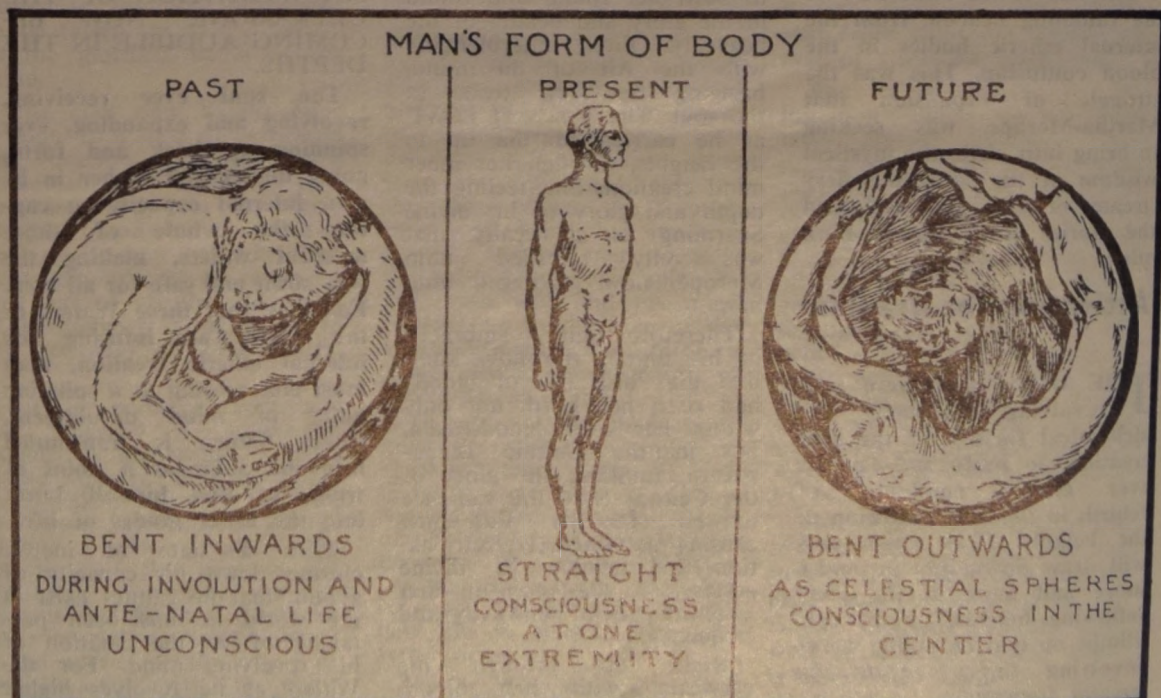

Q. You have been very patient!

I would not say that it was I who had been patient. We have not suffered: it is the One that has striven over all these years, and is still a human being. Only her Faith and Belief have kept her linked with the Mighty Task she is doing.

The third figure in this Plate represents the man who is alert; you can see that he is bent outwards, his hands touching his feet, which means that his creative capacity is touching the faculty of expansion with which he walks it into the earth. In the first figure you see the utter inertia of the man; you see a narcissus, one who is only living for himself, and will only listen to the echo. But in the third figure you see the spinning capacity of which his 'pineal' is the whirling hub.

Q. It is the Atomic Dust, Master, which is the higher Outer Intelligence of Space?

Quite true. But remember that Space is Brahma. Now do not visualise a 'hole' out of which everything comes forth, although we have to portray it to you in this way to help you to get some idea. But Space (which the scientist is trying to say holds worlds, and which it does not) is Brahma, where everything goes back into the Nuclei, and the Dust is that which must come out again, and go down to the earth. So really the worlds are ever coming into birth out of themselves: there is never a standing-still.

EVOLUTION OF MAN IN FORM

But what we are trying to tell you now, is that whereas the straight conscious men (centre of Plate) would be fed by the 'outer food' in the physical body (because that would be what he had brought himself to, of solid form), the soul (at end of Plate) would be fed inwardly by the Spiritual Dust, the Atomic Dust; fed by that Wealth which is the Fire coming out of the FIRE, and would be fed through his Seed.

So it is man's Seed that will feed him. Therefore if a man does not plough and become re-fed by his Scorpio Seed, he will never be fed at all; he will wither and die.

Scorpio is the inflowing Harmony of Generation which feeds man through his Seed. That is why the male is so important, for he becomes 'fired with the Sperm of God,' and fires the World by his thoughts. That is why, when the male race goes 'dead'—which is the case at the present moment—the World begins to founder.

MAN HAS GOT TO BECOME POSITIVE-THINKING, POSITIVE-ACTING, AND SEEKING OF THE HEIGHTS; NOT MERELY IN MECHANISATION, BUT THINKING OF HEIGHTS; NOT MERELY OF MONEY, AND SELF.

Then woman becomes spermed. But I have also shown woman of how to go up to those Heights by her, too, becoming positive; but she will go up and 'receive' in a different way to man: she will go up and become 'the bride to the Christ,' a bride to the Solar Creation. You can follow that, can't you? So she will come under the Kirtle of God.

Now I don't want you to see this in a religious light; I want you to see it in a true scientific light, because woman will go up, reaching up to the Lord of the Flame, embracing him; and by her love, her sacrifice and her weaving upon the Earth, she will become One-with-Him. Because it is Love which is the travelling agent of the Earth; a soul 'giving' that another can be helped, revived and lifted up.

Very often it has to be that of a 'hard direction,' because it is necessary for the soul to learn that way; the soul needing strict discipline, a strict ruling, so that they 'learn the hard way,' and then they will come out of their self-centred state. This is how we understand it, and how we rule and bring forth out of deductions and creations.

The Seven Planes

Now let us turn to the Microcosmic Face. Has anybody any idea of what this is? Try and imagine what it means, from the top to the bottom. It represents the Seven Planes of Existence; that of the Higher, which interpenetrates into the lower. But what does the bottom represent? That represents the Chain of Causation, bringing into birth The Face. The Face is the Macroprosopus that has to manifest through man, and is the Voice that should come forth as the Voice of the Lord. So the Chain of Causation is that which ever causes Life to come into birth.

Q. It does not matter what form of life is brought into birth, it is brought into birth in exactly the same way, whether it be the lower or the higher; it lowers itself down through the Seven Planes!

Yes; but man of course will bring it into activity in many different ways, and this is what I am going to come to. That is the Chain of Causation which comes down from the Adamic Dust 'bringing into birth' right down the Seven Planes, and when man receives it, it is that which he can put into operation, and should bring the Face into birth.

Now we will go back a little way. In the beginning, the first Face that was brought into birth was of Jehovah. There was no other Face, there was no other God but Jehovah. That was the Hebrew's God which he brought into birth. Just as the Egyptians knew of RA, the Sun, so the Hebrews brought into birth the first Face.

THIS IS IMPORTANT; THE FIRST FACE THAT THEY COULD MANIFEST WAS WITHIN THEMSELVES, AND BECAME AS THE SPOKEN VOICE. BUT AS TIME WENT ON, MAN SPLIT IT UP INTO DIVERS RELIGIONS, SO THERE NEVER REALLY WAS A FACE.

There had never been a God; He was split up into an enormous amount of multiplicity. Every religion believed they were the 'whole,' and they were not. There never was a God; He was just a bundle of Atoms. There has never been a God from the time of the Hebrews, when they first brought through Jehovah.

So the only thing to do was to gather up all the pieces; throw them all in, as it were, and break up their foundations—which we had to do—and bring into birth Universal Philosophy. The thing was, to try and get the Instrument to understand what we were saying.

Creating the Mind Plane

SO this was the Face which we showed her upon the hill or mountain of West Water; the Face which she must bring into birth. This was brought into birth through the Solar Blood, the Solar Light.

Man brought into birth the Solar Light by his thoughts, his beliefs; and as he brought it into birth, it became the Living Emblem of Light. Light was dawning within man's own mind, so began to dawn up in the Heavens. Therefore, as man began to 'build the ark' (of his own mind), he began to 'raise the rainbow.'

Man was sending up the 'intelligencia,' and so building up what appeared as an 'orb in the sky'; but as he did so, he became avaricious, and began to realise that the Powers of the Solar Light were feeding him: he went on 'eating it up' more and more, building up mechanical states to try and get re-born, and so he never returned to the Heavens anything but lunar light.

So the Solar Light is that which has ever been; but man has been taking this Solar Light, and only returning lunar light. That is why 'darkness' came into birth, after Heliopolis.

Heliopolis was one perpetual state of Light; they never had 'night' in the Garden of Eden; all was Light. That is why they worshipped RA; then gradually man began to bring about the 'duality.' These states did not just come about over night; they were coming into birth over Periods of Time. But things are going to come into birth now, quicker than they have ever done before, because all is of Time-less-ness. Due to the way the Instrument has worked, and what she has put into action,

Time-less-ness is now the state of Creation, and man can put all things into birth instantaneously.

The Plane of Mind is "Instantaneous Time-less-ness," the flash of the perceptory principle; for as man raises up his sensitivity he brings into birth the Third Eye, that of the Sparking Uranus; he brings into birth the capacity for instantaneous thinking. Up to the present man has been receiving the Prism as it comes down through every one of his Chakras, moving them all into action. So he has to try and wants to listen his own way, because the majority are only seeking for intellectuality and nothing more. But some time or another it is 'bound to go home,' and some time or another it is bound to catch up with him, and then he cries out, "Look at what the Teachings have done for me!"

It is not the Teachings. The Teachings should raise you right up out of the density of life. It is because you have been so much 'down in the depths' and taken on such awful creations of life, disease and disaster, that you have got

(The Lord Maitreya now addressed David)

This is what we have done with you, my son. We forced the alchemicalisation up the cervicals. But once the forcing is done, you must keep it moving! We forced it up by the Solar Light; the Solar Light in greater capacity and greater force; in greater burning of acidity, whereby it drives its way through. It is not very comfortable while it happens, even causing the soul to be a 'little knocked off balance.'

The thing is, to try and hold on, whatever the circumstances, whether you understand it or not. But know, that where you 'send out in prayer, and you are genuine,' you will be guided at all costs. No man is left unattended; but then, man is his worst enemy.

Q. Actually, the Power that is coming down now, or the Ultrasonic, is only breaking up the particles within the bloodstream with which we have been feeding such conditions as cancer, smallpox, leukaemia, and all the other diseases that are in the blood! And that is the cause of all the trouble today!

Yes! And worst of all, the minerals that the medical world are forcing into the soul. Now can you imagine a soul who has thoroughly cleansed out their blood, and has reached up and touched the Ultrasonic,—after being linked up to those Heights,—being suddenly forced to take the minerals of the earth! This is going to bring them down to a very earthy state whereby they will never be able to 'weather the storm' and ever take the Ultrasonic again: they could not possibly take it, and as they go on taking the earthy states,—they will end up 'embracing the beast.'

Now there is a 'little clue' here, which we have not brought.

ALWAYS, man has to make one sacrifice: it might be extremely small, and you would say, "Well, surely to goodness, just giving that up would hardly have made me worthy to receive the greater?"

It is not exactly what you give-up; it is your motive; your 'giving-up that you can become born of the greater,' and it may appear to you as something very easy; the soul truly believing that by renouncing that, it will help them to just 'get over the barrier.' If you can see the depth of this, you will understand what I am trying to bring to you. It is not WHAT you give up; it is your MOTIVE in trying to get past the difficulties of self.

Q. In other words, becoming the humble soul, and not the high and mighty "I AM"!

Yes, it is that, but the chief thing is the letting-go of those things which you believe are necessary, when you know that it is the Spirit that is the answer to life. It may be quite a very, very small thing.

Let us put it this way. Suppose you say, "I am going to give you sugar which I take in my beverage. I like it, and if I give it up, it will mean a lot to me." You have made an effort, have you not? You renounced, and so you turned yourself over into the right direction; you were facing the right direction of movement! Whereas, if you say, "Oh, I am sorry, I could not give up anything: that is necessary," then you are still looking the wrong way. You can follow this, can you not? It is minute, it is simple, but unfortunately it does entail a little more.

Concluded on Page 10

THE ROYAL FLAME OF THE MIND

get those Chakras balanced and draw them back-up again, thereby raising them up to the Heights; therefore, if there is a certain Chakra which he does not want to move, imagine the chaotic state he is in. He may have two Chakras he does not want to move, and so he is in a split state.

Q. So when the answer comes to a man 'in a flash,' that is the result of all the work he has done in the past!

You must remember that man's life is not just of this life; it is the back-log that is there and is often the cause of half his trouble; but he has got to meet it, and it is no good 'crying over spilt milk.' But if man will recognise himself, he can pull-out in Time-less-ness, although most of them don't want to.

Take a School like this: if a man came in who had got very divided states,—then he should listen to the Teacher and take note of what the Teachings have taught him. That would pull-out all those chaotic states that were with them, and it would get them past those roots that were holding them fast to the ground.

But man is always listening to his own voice; that is the point. He does not want to 'listen to the Spirit'; he only to dispose of them all. Your bones are alive with them, your blood is alive with them: that is all you have been feeding on for years. Feeding on animal flesh alone is most revolting, because you are eating up all the passions of the animal, all its density and evil; and you have been eating up all its sickness and its pains.

Q. If you can recognise this within yourself,—that all these experiences have come from the Heights, then you can pull your own roots out!

Of course you can. But when a man is genuinely seeking, we can help him to pull out his roots: we do this through the means of the Instrument, but you have got to take the consequences. We often have to force the issue: it is very painful while it goes on, but then you go 'down south' and you say, "I am being forced by alchemicalisation to get where I want to."

We had to force our Instrument so that she could reach the very heights of Adamic understanding. She would not allow us to bring it, until she herself understood it. She is a very positive person who makes way for a very secure and balanced state of Wisdom. And so she had to wrestle, but before she could get there, we had to force her, and force the alchemicalisation.

Reminiscences

ing of avidya, the ripening up of the wisdom, and expansion into new-born ideas. No ! it is the slick Harrys that have to worry, for these new Laws will root them out, and the world becoming set with the new problem of dealing with reborn WISDOM. For all old text-books are due for the bonfire, with set rules and regulations of the past now set into active motion.

The Winds of Change

WE have entered into an Age of Mercury, where real light is going to be shed onto truth ; although there will be those who will declare they are disclosing wisdom. If what they are stating is not so, it will not hold water, and will run away to earth. For Uranus is the ruler of the Age, and you can only stand up to this exacting influence when you have truth to offer. Otherwise it axes, for it is the double edged sword that swings back and forth like a pendulum.

This has already been seen in the disclosures of our daily newspaper world, where alarming news is given untold expansion to cover up their lack of genuine writers. Surely there are other things beside elaborated scandal that the world needs, for what with the broadcasting and the newspapers, the world's thorns are intensified tenfold. For it gives ideas to others, and fears to a lot more ; but I am afraid even this is going to be sorted out by man subconsciously seeking for expansion.

This alone should prove that man is fed and led by forces from the Heights. By this, one means powers greater than man himself ; and since man is of the magnetic, the inflow must be of the atomic. Thereby the two offer him electromagnetic if he can unify, and electrify by activation of mind purpose.

The soul getting elevated and expansive over what he feels, and trying to express it by living it and radiating it wherever he can. But of course, if the soul is so stoned by the earthy substance and false fires that he has been "stuffing" himself with, then these fires that are now descending, will get active in a cleansing action. This is the dissolving of avidya.

For instance, I have just had the news of one who, very well fledged with finance, retired from business and being a Scorpio who has been thoroughly enjoying life, has just met these Fires. Food of the very best, drinking and smoking of the finest that life can offer, thus living life up to the very full. Weekends at Majorca and continual trips by jet to Africa to attend to business of an expensive nature. Yet, right in the heights of all this so-called luxury, they fall down sick with Psoriasis, and are at the present seeking medical aid of drugs, vitamins and food of a more balanced nature.

When really this soul wants a month of pure starvation, pints of marigold herbs, and their affected parts bathed in this herbal fluid. In fact a bath now and then in that fluid, would remove their difficulty in less than a fortnight.

But this person does not like herbs, but likes the exclusive fuss and attention that their position affords them, and have quite willingly been ridiculing their partner, who being stone deaf, has awakened

POT POURRI OF TIME

AS we have reached the end of the Year and this, as the January Issue, starts off the New Year, I feel it is an appropriate moment to review the incidencies of Time. For now we are about to embark onto an entirely different era, TIME-LESS-NESS, that of the expansion into the unknown, outer world Space. The whole world having changed, for the Cosmic Laws have been set into motion that will now unravel, bind-up and drive forth reborn issues. No one is going to be spared under this axing, yet there is no need for the earnest and sincere to worry. Their main difficulty will be the dissolvand resorted to spirit healing. It rather seems like Nemesis standing at the bedside, yet their remedy is only a bowshot away. By this example, and a very apt one, we have a simple explanation of the axing of these laws.

The more complicated comes in the deluge of Italy ; for where is the eucharistical blessing of the pope, what has happened ? Surely his powers, shoddy shambles that went out on the last election. It is now seen how they had been a bad contagion to others, and how by his genuine sperming, the present leader is setting off even his workers under him, in no mean way. All I hope is he will not allow the misdirected belief of banquet necessity to grow, so that the true work takes second place ; otherwise he, like others, will have to meet the fires.

resentment, with desires raging underneath, will only result in mind confusion, and the dieting gets blamed for the results.

To do this, it must be done with will and determination, and wisdom being absorbed at the same time, raising the mind up as high as possible, so that the inner fires and the outer fires unite in harmony as reborn strength. Then the soul will find itself risen up onto the higher plane of Air, having come away from the lunar plane, where he has been living in the Cancer waters.

The Heartbeat of Truth

BUT this is where the Fires are going to act more rigidly, and the so-called Flu is not flu at all, but the atomic fires scourging the soul through bloodstream, lymphatics and glandular system. Yet where the Egyptians had one over the present day human, they knew again from these organs. These were the brain, liver, heart and spleen, the four vital organs of metabolism, which to the Mystic, become the means of the Rishi coming into birth, and living off his own inner power of supply.

(See plate in cols. 2, 3 & 4 and on page 9, cols. 3, 4 & 5)

This having connection with the perpetua mobile, or the Vesica Piscis, where the soul changes over from Kronos to Solar. Thus must be seen in the light of infinity where the change over is ever in the heart, the heart-beat of truth now prevailing.

NOT MERELY TALKING AND RECITING THE WISDOM, BUT TRULY LIVING IT.

This in the hieroglyphics is seen as the four children of Osiris, who stand before him on a lotus blossom, but where the god has really learnt to become a god, and learnt the secret of life. For to any true (See plate page 9, cols. 1, 2 & 3) seeking soul, it must come to their common-sense, that there must be something wrong with man's way of living, for no Creator would make such a mess of creation, so it is up to us to find out where it is.

THE MYSTERY OF THE CANOPIC JARS

A Wealth such as this was the mystery of the mighty Ennead, where the sun-god first began to come into life, for up till then the sun was only of the earth, a pre-mundane state and eternal. What had to be given birth was the glory of divinity, the heavenly godhead of the glories of the mind, thus through these four organs would, in its metabolised action, bring the reborn blood into life. (See text in col. 5).

like the wounded pigeon, have taken flight, for the eucharist and the contraceptive pills do not match. But furthermore, with the mystic-archeologist at work, and awakening at last to the truth, Rome and her false religion are being exposed, with her useless so-called art treasures well down under the waters.

Oh yes ! Hundreds of tons of blotting paper may be sent to clean them up, but what they are not reckoning with, are the axing FIRES. That which is changing over Time into Timelessness, where NEW LIFE is going to come forth out of the reborn state of TIME.

The New Mind Plane

THE world now is going to expand onto a higher plane of WISDOM, for the Cosmic LAWS are set and already descending into the Womb of Mother Nature. All it needs is man to respond to the new influences at work, and what is already alight will flare up into amazing light. For every soul is filled with the isotope atoms of these mighty heights, especially the Bulls of life. Males full of herse fire, that of the Neptunian strain, that if sent up to their heights of mind wisdom, can sperm and urge others by their expansive nature of fiery mind life.

A very good example of this is our present Prime Minister, for one can feel the genuine purpose that backs his actions. Certainly more so than the last

Therefore it seems that mind and food are going to go hand in hand, and that dieting is going to become the rage, that the mind can rise up and seek those heights that will be looming up in the mind of every soul who has the power to think. The major thing to remember, is that dieting and the value of the four vital organs.

For these have direct connection with the four Cardinal Points, and let the four Streams of life flow into the body. These, when the soul was buried, were placed into individual Canopic jars, so that the soul could return and draw

We may discredit this, but if we were to unite that wisdom with our present day disabilities, we would be able to realise how it is that these four organs, if fed on the pure vitals of natural vitamins and chemicals united by growing Nature and Solar infiltration, would be open to a higher influence by extended sensitivity. Therefore man could draw in, through the mutability of those revolving Cardinal points, the higher atomic wealth of space.

Instead of the maelstrom magnetic waves deteriorated by nitrogenic gas, he would be rubbish to the stoned and blind. For it is when the mind discredits such things, that their god Mercury is only a touchstone god, one that has sunk right down to the bottom of the pit in a state of materialism.

Nothing in this life is really wrong, but wisdom in its wrong perspective, or the soul still living on the lower planes, refusing to expand by states of renunciation. For it is about time that every soul knew that continuity was the order of the day, and that a soul had been in existence for Ages. Hence many have gained untold powers, particularly in those days when the soul was

But this is where we must not turn a blind eye to the other side of the picture, a lot of cleaning up is going to take place, and I am rather inclined to believe that 1967 is going to be a year of a cleaning up process. This means scandals, deaths, accidents, and even attempted intrigues, but nothing will be able to evade the LAW.

This is the predominant factor now, and many things will come about, that you and I will be sad and even shocked about, and wonder why they have had to be. But nothing can come but what is the working out of the Law, and if we can see that every action has

BIRTH OF THE SOLAR LIGHT

THE four sons of Osiris and Serapis, the solar light and expansion who could only come into birth as Horus, through his four sons, cut away the labouring Set or Typhon who by the struggles of Horus became mastered and conquered. By this the solar light came into birth through the expansion of Serapis. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

able by his expanded sensitivity, to draw from those higher Cosmic Rays. Thus not need a seismograph to register these mighty waves that many are now ready to receive, but be his own sensitive instrument of exclusive comparison.

But while at this point, although we have used the example to prove the expansive issue of the Aquarian Age of Unification, we must not discredit the first example. Egypt had wealth and wisdom far beyond the stoned minds of the present day death-ridden sciences. Their tombs with the accoutrement of the soul, being closed and sealed, were the possible returning habitation of the spirit of that soul, in the same way as those of the present day put up monuments to their dead.

For while the name of the god or hero was on the lips of the people, and respect and memory offered up to him, the departed spirit could, through those organs embalmed in a jar, not only gather up of the harvest that they had a right to, and burnish up their constellation in the starry heavens, but still be a mighty influence in the land of the living.

The Resurrected Word

THESE Pharaohs were gods of a mighty power still fresh from the lost Edenic plane, a knowledge quite simple to the sensitive mind, but still fresh from powers now well forgotten.

Yet the very basic of the soul, but often states waiting to be buried in, only being partially digested by the mind. Until it becomes the light of the mind, it still remains as a personal creation that has to find its mortuary meal. Once it is adjusted it is amazing what truths and wealth can come forth.

Well! this is what the inflowing waters—cosmic rays—and the resurrected Word is going to bring, and raise up the world in the future. Life is going to be full of joys and wonders, for man really is seeking for his mind growth, and not knowing how to find it, has been turning to earthy pleasures to appease his hungry Rational mind of light.

This may be hard for many to understand, but really unbeknown to himself, the murderer is looking for the answer to mighty powers, that in being buried within and finding no outlet, are in a state of tumult and chaos. Of course this does not excuse the error of their committance and we must have law and order, but is where Schools should be giving correction to these souls, and not the Bishop of Southwark offering holy communion blessing. A case of the blind leading the blind!

an equal and opposite reaction, we shall see the answer with in our own mind.

THE UNION OF EARTH AND SPIRIT

AS Osiris the Solar Divinity came into birth out of the mystical lion powers of unfoldment, his inner divine organs offered up their wealth in the union of earth and Spirit. The mystery of metabolism that science has yet to understand, and when so will burn every drug on the bonfire of redemption. The mighty truth that Merope is seeking to establish and so awaken all men to the royalty of their inner etheric creation. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

Realisation of Truth

RELIGION has had its day, and will fade away quicker than you believe, for once the Dead Sea Scrolls are fully proven, religion will be shown up for the myth and false truths that they have been existing on. Yet I have been advocating all the wisdom that these scientists are now deducing, for over the past twenty years.

The real trouble lies in the fact that people do not like to change, not even where their mind is concerned. Religion is

For no one could have suffered with worse legs than myself, and whatever healing was applied it never cured the varicose veins. But when I passed my initiation that drew up the wealth from my bones, my legs became like the legs of a young girl, which has even amazed me. Of this I have witness by those who have known me for any length of time, so again I speak with full authority of this part of the mystical-rebirth.

That which was intended in the beginning, and by the way that I have given rebirth to the

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Jan. 7th	The Crook and the Flail	Feb. 4th	The Metabolism
Jan. 14th	The Arimaspoi	Feb. 11th	The Priest
Jan 21st	Lady Godiva	Feb. 18th	Boreas

lazy and comfortable and man does not have to labour to learn there, but attend church, go to sleep and leave a goodly size donation in the plate, and their name is placed up on a plaque in due memory as a good supporter of the holy church.

In Universal Philosophy, the Word and Wisdom of the future, man has to study and renounce, thus struggle to unfold and grow, not merely exist like a cabbage; so it is up to man which way he wishes to go. For all the new Laws and Cosmic Rays are born and supported by this mighty Philosophy, and the School in the heights, as the Academy of the Gods, is the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing.

The mystics resurrected and turned by TIME, for this wisdom, established by the Heroes, Sages and Scapegoats, is the Law born and reborn, that they could hold the Seed and keep the heavens alight. It is these saviours that man has to thank for his being able to reach so far without a major catastrophe.

dom and life-breath was coming down to the maelstrom. Man was dying in his own foul waters, ever repeating parrot fashion the old wisdom created by the stoned and mercenary. But even now, present man is still pretty blind, and is making every effort to hold to old ideas.

This is him still worshipping Kronos, therefore until he turns to the Solar through the Pole Star guidance, the wealth of the inflowing North, he will never find himself drawing the atomic wealth of the Great Intelligencia into his being. This is what every man must learn to do at the present moment; by raising up his Fire, the sperming capacity possible to every male, and sperming the female with MENTAL elevation, will she be able to bring forth the mighty wealth that is hidden in her depths.

This means the depths of her bones, where Fire from over all the Ages has been gathering, and accounts for so many with ulcerated legs, these fires in a state of chaos. Although many will find this difficult to follow, for it is completely reverse to what man has been used to and what religious ritual has advocated, it is the Law of Life. But much I have already proven, and can state with uttermost authority.

condensed, whereas the tail and hinder parts was the Mother Totem that was brought forth out of the "Waters" of life and ready to embrace the solar creation that gave it movement and generation in Taurus. It was the movement to be made in the race and states that were prevailing in the growth.

The primitive understood this wisdom for he was far less sophisticated and worldly than the primitive of today. Yet this still prevails with man today and more deeply embedded in the bloodstream than many realise, and a part of the disease which man is now having to face. If strongly with a soul it should be fought and wrestled with, and the mind kept revolving.

The early primitive was not the cave-man as men are led to believe through erroneous history. There were such men as Abraham, men with great natural wisdom derived from Atlantis, the Ancient World. The cave-man came later on if any time at all, when certain Nations pressed on and left degenerates behind. The Race that moved on were the Natural Stream of future genesis to rise and sink as they so could find their bearings and grace in the bodies afforded them.

In the tribal customs the tail of a lioness was carried on their head, and after all to those this was their mode of expression, and they would have had just as much right to laugh at the ridiculous fashions carried by our females of today as we might this. I do, so I am sure they would.

The mother-Totem of a lioness tail was the power of Shu in their mind. Well, if this mode of belief drew the constellatory Powers of Leo down and around this soul by their totemic fetish, and gave them the activity of the Powers and agility of mind to motivate heights and depths and start off on a new trail of life, do you blame them for their theories? There is no man alive who is not superstitious to some degree, but there are plenty who do not start off on a new trail, and merely exist.

The belief in the Cross, the rosary, the virgin Mary, the wearing of a ring and many other beliefs are all fetishes; and what is more, carried forward from Egypt. They DO bring power around the soul when it is done with deliberation and purpose that is set and positive, for it becomes a rotating hub of activity and strength.

The lion was a powerful beast as well as a powerful inflow that existed in the Leo Equinox as their period of Polar activity. For then all was judged by pole star activity, they as offshoots and ancestors from Atlantis knowing of the wealth regarding this knowledge, in adapting, have ever surpassed all Nations since, and which has never since in any way ever been recovered. This can only be done by relativity; when some Master makes the circumference of mind growth and awakens lost faculties.

The Streams of Life

HAVING established so much towards the theme of Mother Blood let us seek yet more deeply into its possibilities. The man who does not know the journey in the Tuat (life) will never be aware of his journey in Amenta (spirit); for although both are bound up as one, one is as essential to life as the other, and without the wisdom of Tuat, the journey in Amenta will be void. A fully equipped spirit in the nether world is not imprisoned at any door in Amen-

ta, and is the Law of the Ritual, for as the soul is able to open the tomb to the soul is he going to have mastery over his feet (actions) in Tuat.

So now let us seek further into the wisdom of the Mother-Blood. The inner depth of this is something completely out of the range of the wisdom of most, therefore some will deride, others ask what good it can convey. Unless the soul is able to find the Cause of that which today is the Effect, he will never be able to remedy and bring about balance. What causes the present day state of degeneracy? What causes the present day state of disease in its complications? What is the cause of the present day state of sexual and moral decline? In fact the utter state of moral depravity and promiscuity?

These things do not come suddenly, neither do governments and religion collapse as totally as they have today without some past reason. The world is at a standstill except for the threats of war and warring tribes, with scientists as much bitten as they can possibly be with the antichrist bug. But very few really know what the Christos actually stands for.

The ancient wisdom of the preservation of the Mother Blood holds this secret as well as that of the dim and distant past and with the present they both hold the secret to the future; for blood is the basis of life, holds the secrets of time, and the mystery of the individuality. In the species hidden in the bloodstream lie the secrets of man's genius, terrors, joys and disease.

In Ancient Egypt the wisdom of the Mother Blood was supreme for they were still in, but emerging out of, the regime of Motherhood; Fatherhood had not begun, or even sprung forth in the regency of the soul. Atlantis was the Lunar Creation, while Earth began the path of the Solar, but without the appearance of the Solar life. The Atlanteans lived in a different world of vibration to the Human; there was no serpent fire. It was this that caused all the upheaval in the interpenetration and change-over.

THE LOST GLORIES OF MAN

MYSTERIES of ages never revealed now becoming the open book of all men. Glories that will unite the rishi with the gods, the mighty Rishi of the heights. Wealth and wonders that man has forgotten and lost in the depths of form, yet that which he now must turn to and find the mighty glories of its wealth.

THE ADAMIC DUST

Q. In an issue of the "Occult Gazette" you have said that man can exist on fruit and water. Is that really so?

A man can exist on water, and it has been proved here that he has existed on water for eight solid weeks, and was in perfect condition except for being thin. One tried to do this, bringing into birth a brilliant mind; but unfortunately they had not cut away all their roots. Man can now exist on less, with these Powers coming into birth, because, in setting this into motion, you then draw down the Powers to feed you.

Now all of you who have been with the Instrument must have witnessed the struggle that she has put up, and with her Faith and Belief in the Spirit, feeding upon these incoming Powers, eventually to raise her legs up onto their Solar creation? Surely you have all witnessed this! It will never be like this with all of you, because she is 'making strait the gate'; she is taking away the gate whereby the whole of the Elements are now going to be born within her, right from the Adamic Dust. She is now completely born of the Solar, which makes the way for you all to tread the same path, because she has made the Way. Once the Law is set by her, you are all going to be fed by that Law.

So in ten years time you are going to notice dynamic changes in this World, dynamic changes; and in fifty years there could be much towards the establishment in the minds of every soul of a New-born World of Solar Light.

Q. Would I be right in thinking that Merope may have brought Your Face forth into the Macrocosm, Master?

That is the plate I am now going to bring forth; that is why there has to be put up that of The Flame. That is as near as we have it at the present moment: it is the portrayal by a young artist who was bringing the idea of the New Face, which was going to bring into birth The Solar Flame. And this is the Solar Flame of the Great Solar Face; the Central Sun, the Heavenly Creation of the Intelligencia which man must learn to adopt and aspire unto.

(See plate on page 7)

As man aspired unto the old figure of the Christ, now he must aspire unto the LIVING CHRIST. Not the dead one on the cross, but the Living Christ as the Solar Flame. Not to devour Him, but to embrace Him and adore Him; send up aspiration, and seeing out of all the Wisdom he receives, the Glory that he can send forth which will re-burnish the Starry Heights and the Solar Light, the Divine Spark, so that he can be linked with those Powers and can be one-with-them. And the more man sees, the more he sends up, does he embrace those Planes of Ascendance; hence it becomes his Kundalini-fire, it becomes the fire of his fiery dragon, the leviathan of the depths. And even a soul that is barren, can bring this into birth, in his struggles, by sending out to the Spirit.

No man need be barren, if he sends out and draws the Spirit down, but he will have to work all the harder, because he will be lacking in the 'fire.' It is the 'fire' that is most important in a soul, where the soul is alive and dancing with Life, electrified. Not a morbid, miserable creature, ever looking for difficulty, but sparking with Life and trying to bring happiness, positiveness and joy unto all he meets; then the very Fire alone is his protection. That is what I keep telling those in the School here.

The more you build up the Fire, the more you are all protected, the more you are all alight. And the more that souls are dancing with Life, and radiating with Joy, the more they are all blending together with Purpose and Intent, the greater are they protecting themselves.

Otherwise the reverse can be the 'open channel' for the dark entities to enter, and these are waiting right on your doorstep.

SO THE ASTRAL PLANES ARE ONLY JUST OUTSIDE, AND WITH THE NEPTUNIAN PLANE WHICH HAS BEEN BROUGHT INTO BIRTH, IT IS MOST ESSENTIAL THAT YOU ARE RADIATING WITH FIRE, OTHERWISE YOU ARE GOING TO BRING IN CONDITIONS THAT ARE OF THE WORST AND THE LOWEST.

Man now has the Atomic Power within his own midst, which is now going to break up all the states of the earth. But it needed a simple soul, one who was prepared to be a Scapegoat to carry these Powers up to the Heights. Through the Wisdom of Universal Philosophy, raising them up to become the Fires of Peace, the Heavenly Fires of the Great Face, the Great Lord as the Heavenly Being radiating upon the earth and feeding man with New Life. So immediately she took it back up to the Heights and radiated the earth with that Glory, which you are all feeling today. Man becoming 'fed into being' and the world radiating once again and being set into active motion.

Now all the Atoms, all the Fires, all the Elements, are radiating into the Earth. The whole Earth has become Atomised, and man is Atomised. So now he is going to allow that to either radiate him into 'birth,' or it is going to turn him into a blackened creation.

That is why the Word has gone out in abundance: the more it is sent out onto the maelstrom, whether man likes it or not, the more he is forced to read it, because 'curiosity' carries him to that extent. You will remember that 'it is curiosity that kills the cat,' the magnetic states of the earth. Hence man will find that the very Word that he either takes or spurns, is the Light within his mind; and with the Fires that are coming down, the two will unite and he will become re-born either into a man of wisdom, or he will turn into a blackened creation, 'burnt to a frazzle.'

Has that been of any help to you?

Now man has been told, and it is up to him as to whether he will take it, digest it, and let it become his 'sperming agent.' But we do not expect you to go home and put this immediately into operation. We do not expect you to do dynamic things, but we do expect you to think about it, and try to recapture what you have listened to, and for you to question what it could mean if put into operation; trying to see the Glory of it, sending up to the Heights, and asking "Could I do it if I tried? If so, then show me, and help me to make that effort." And then you will be drawn and led to that Greater Purpose.

This is most essential, because many of you have your higher minds completely stagnant and solidified with 'old states' that are dangerous to you; old creations of the past that are ever sending down their ideas. If you were in Medo-Persia at the time when you lived lavishly, then you still will want to do the same thing, for your higher mind will tell you that 'you still need these things,' because it does not want to change. Well, you must change it.

So by these Fires, and the Wisdom that is now going into your being, this will bring changes right up in the heights, and then your Martha in the depths must also start to think and begin to create new ideas. But this will come about, if you are earnest and truly seeking with a zealous heart, because you want to know for an 'expansive purpose' and not merely that of an intellectual, which so many of you are doing: you accept on one hand, with the idea of expanding, and on the other hand, you do not intend to do anything of the sort.

Now I am going to leave that with you, and it should give you a lot to think about.

The light built by them was radiation, not light as the human mind demands. The human builds his own light in the maelstrom by his creation of mind. Light does not come from the Sun for the Sun's rays are black. Man by his alchemicalization brings them into nitrogenic effluvia which causes light to come forth as the rebounding rays.

Therefore the Ancient Mysteries of the past world were of the Matriarchate that came forth from the more Ancient world of Kamite brothers; the age of Womanhood that held what was called the Amazon Women. These were not just women as sex, but hermaphrodite souls who had the pubes of a female. They developed great strength, and small groups still continued in lonely islands a long time after the Deluge; and there are legends that portray how Hercules wrestled with the Amazon Queen for her girdle, or ancient wisdom of knowledge and strength.

The Seven Natures of man were born out of the one Mother, and are the six Streams of Life that come to earth to feed the Human Soul who is born of those seven in their seven nature bodies. These link with the Six of Creation, with the Earth as the seventh. The six Streams are pre-human with the seventh as human, and is the soul of the blood. They as the seven elements are well known to the majority, particularly those who study astrological wisdom. This blood is ever being poured out and reborn spiritually by being received anew via the three crosses upon which the soul is stretched.

It was the Goddess Bast who brought to earth the wisdom of Blood, and taught the young Race how to value their blood-water. Remember in those early days the Human had just been "born" from the pre-human and was in a primitive state. The Godhead then was a Woman, for she was the Great Mother; the representation on earth was a female creature, for as then the sexes were not complete, and all were emerging out of the hermaphrodite state. The ethereal creature who stayed in the flesh to guide the young Race was the Goddess Bast or Nebhau-Kau.

The Entry of the Martian Element

THE seventh element of Mars was beginning to infuse these creatures born from a previous world of great wealth; that which was fusing their white opaque blood stream with iron essentials that would give energy, action and emotion. Not as sex emotions, but creative action of mind and will.

Through the turn of a downward creation, started by many of the male principle elements with the female elements in the race, ideas sprang into mad actions and eventually male organs grew from the positive. These became the men of Pibeseth and Aven as seen in Ezek. 30 v 17, they that came forth out of the City of On or Heliopolis, the City of Beth-SheMesh—the City of the Sun. Here began the first seeds of what today is a fast growing vice, homosexuality.

Ezekiel was warning of the day that was to come when that period would reap its effects; the Aquarian Equinox, the polarity to that of Leo, when the original Causes were sown. Yet most souls have this basic within them, for any soul of intelligence has the whole stream of growth in the blood. It was Mars the Lucifer Element that brought the fiery lymph to start its course in the blood and become the haemoglobin; meaning manhood, human.

Although this brought the Temple of Bubastes into bad repute, it was no fault of the Goddess. The positive elements of the Amazon Race took on a state of male gender, for the soul comprises of both genders; thus the whole Human Race changed through what is known as the Fall. But not without dynamic upheavals that came to the earth as well; yet I would not have you believe that this happened overnight. It took 2,000 years and Leo fell back into Cancer, that for another 2,000 years the Deluge and change wreaked havoc and disaster, completely changing the contour of Mother Earth; and Mother Nature saw what she had done.

For it should have gone on to Mother Virgo and brought forth the Male God; instead they retrograded and grew male organs from the pubes and generation continued this way until a Saviour could come to retrieve by blood purity and light. The Christos, not the man; he was the instrument who made it possible. The Christos being the Element of Light and Truth.

The Goddess Bast never returned as an ethereal being but became humanized, and died as all humans must, with red blood. She was then doomed to walk the earth until she could reveal her secret and free mankind from the

THE STRUGGLES OF THE SCAPEGOAT

AS Merope fell to the depths she came to a world of rocks and stones, where roots risen up out of the earth were her only shelter. A goddess lost in the world of men, who by her heartfelt purpose had given them life which they had refused to encounter. Thus she had to tread their world of darkness until she could awaken them from their selfish tread.

Holy Fire of the Supreme Cause. This is the biggest point that man has to understand, then he will get back to his normal status as a god.

So it can be seen what dynamic changes are now about to take place, for everything is set, with past impediments mastered. So all man has to do, is seek into the Word, and the waters flooded with wisdom and with his own internal fires in a state of redemption, will see him through and bring all to a state of rebirth.

Hope and possibility as never offered before to man, is now being placed into his hands; once he makes this turn over, then he will be shown the way of how to make divine expansion. That is, if he keeps his mind turned towards the heights, ever remembering that the heights are within himself. That is, he living up in the highest of thoughts, which carries the mind by vibration up into his highest Chakra, that of the sparking pituitary.

Once a man can learn this great lesson of vibration, he has mastered the mystery of life. Saturn is below the heart purpose, divinity is up in the heights, and is the heart purpose. So the answer lies in Honour, Sincerity and Truth; therefore as this Reminiscences reaches everyone, I trust that what little I have commented on, will aid you in your struggles, and that the further writings will help you to mount the road, and help the eager seeker to brave the severe hill that lies ahead in all probing into the depths of wisdom.

SO GOD BLESS YOU ALL, AND HERE'S TO A HAPPY NEW YEAR, WITH SUCCESSFUL HUNTING.

Life

by David Atwood Wasson

A goblet drained is all my knowing,—
A cup whence I have quaffed the wine :
From out the Unknown comes the flowing
And exhaustless juice divine,
That lends the blood its priceless crimson,
And the eye its living shine.

Embrace me, Mystery of Being ;
Fill my arteries, flood my brain,
And through me pour thy heart, till seeing,
Thoughts are drowned, like dew in rain,
In powerful, pure participation :
Separate life is separate pain.

Temple unseen of Truth immortal,
Thought hath brought me to thy door ;
Never passes he the portal,
I am drawn the threshold o'er ;
And lo ! I am the leaf that quivers
In God's joy-wind evermore !

Now are the light-waves round me
rolling,
Now the love-tides through me run,
Body and soul anew ensouling :
Seeing and being melt in one.
The ear is self-same with the music, error once created. This is no imagination, but truth that is more true than the Sphinx herself. "And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain and No shall be rent asunder and Noph shall have distresses daily. The young men of A'ven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword"; (Ezek. 30 v 16, 17).
Beam with vision, eye with sun.

This speaks for itself, for it is now that the Fire of Neptune has followed in the path of Mars, and is going to rend asunder and reveal. Ezekiel was one of the greatest Seers of the whole Human Race; none can compete with him regarding seership. He was one of the four Great Prophets, and in Hebrew his name was Yehazzek-el.

Thus this was the beginning of Mother Blood, and was the blood of Isis that was to produce Horus the Son that he could nourish the world. Then Isis had her sister who helped her in her task; virgin Neith who in the human cause becomes the labourer.

The personality or irrational mind created by Psyche the spirit. This basic became the Pelican that ever fed and refed the Race in which ever way it decided to go; thus continued on as the mind that laboured and brought forth the male Horus—the Intelligencia or Cosmic Godhead.

THE SALVATION WAS THE MOTHER BLOOD THAT EVENTUALLY PRODUCED FROM THE CATASTROPHE THE BEGOTTEN AS THE COSMIC MAN. THE LOGOS.

Myths and the Scriptures

THE Blood is that which is in the human creation as the blood-stream and is the eschatology of Time and being, which began as the Mother Blood of the Matriarchate to pass into the Patriarchate as Atum or Adam. All bear of this blood birth, change and growth, and the different channels the pawns of life moved into place by belief.

In Egyptian wisdom—the most profound and only record of time—the virgin Mother brought forth of God who was Adam or Atum, for Akhnaton perceived of the One-God, but not until the whole Seven Natures of the Great Old Mother had been Laws, what was intended has got to be fulfilled; for by this, the Great Master who is the Holy Fire, has been redeemed. When I declared and practiced celibacy, I took him off the cross of the Scorpio lower fire, not as a dead God, but as a God who was suffering degradation through man's actions.

After all, man has done enough shouting about the divinity and glory of their Master, then why go on crucifying the vibrations of the Holy Fire. I suppose the answer lies in man not realising that he is vibration and not flesh, hence the Divinity is Supreme Vibration, the Divine fulfilled, and he had received all the blessings of the Seven. Thus she was imaged in many Goddesses, Beast, Isis, Neith, and Hathor. This eventually became the Mary and Martha in the Christian Scriptures with Horus as Jesus.

The Papal state at Rome knew of this wisdom, but the Nicean Council at Worms contrived of something more fantastic to maintain a dynamic organization, and ultimately destroyed the whole issue of possible good. All of this is in the bloodstream and is the life issuing forth from beginning; and also applies to the more intimate as Mother to son.

Many things grew out of this wisdom, for the primitive mind made many fetishes out of legends and myths that attached themselves to a tribe as a pool or point where further growth was required. Thus the legends that have continued down time have lost their intrinsic depth, except to but a few. Many customs began that added more and more to the confusion; sacrifices whereby the victim was eaten, and in some cases alive, so that the consanguinous group of the blood could be retained. Now it is taken in wafer and wine at the Christian altar.

The mode and method perpetuated but not precipitated. But these are the souls who grew out of what began, and of which was intended quite differently. So it is difficult for mankind in their present growth to recognise and accept the Cause of their present states of difficulties and enigmas; only by study and acceptance of hidden wisdom will they solve the problem.

In the beginning—since the blood royal came only from the Old Mother as being all that she issued forth—was the nourishment of Time created through man. The blood of the Fatherhood had not built up by thought creation because the bodies within the soul had not sufficiently fulfilled themselves in growth and maturity to reach a stage of believing in the Fatherhood, but when it did it was seen as a new phase of time. Therefore that in the mind now became born in the flesh to some degree to eventually saturate the whole of the bodies and become the light body of Solar Pneumatikon; the Christos manifesting as light.

The legend of eating the Mother, that became a fetish in the tribal custom of the later deteriorated races, really began from a totally different root purpose. It was a custom that began by intermarriage in the Egyptian Regime so as to preserve the Royal Blood of the Ancestors descended from spiritual realms, and although it was of the Spirit in the beginning, deteriorated and began its decline.

If as an agnostic you seek to ridicule, try for once to avoid, for this is one of the great Mysteries of the Ancient World of descent and is the missing link that now escapes man's mundane and worldly mind. For in the stream of descent, the differentiation, there was a time when Spirit had not entered into density, and this was that time. Many of the hermaphrodite creatures still existed in the early days of the waning Golden Age, and even incarnated as Pharaohs to lead the young race of humanity onwards.

This is verified in the Scriptures where you note in Exodus the waning of the Egyptian powers and Moses being instructed to take over. Moses competes with Pharaoh, for Moses acts as the instrument for the higher Law over-riding the lower law that had become obsolete. But the reigning tribes refused to change, and those who had been held as slaves were now rising as the Race Elect. They were only too happy to follow a young leader in renewed ideas out of their life of slavery.

IT IS USUALLY DRASTIC STATES OF CIRCUMSTANCES, CAPTIVITY OR SICKNESS, THAT LEADS SOULS TO SEEK IN DIFFERENT FIELDS OF THOUGHT.

The early Egyptian to preserve this royal blood carried out what is called endogamy. Inter-marriage of the uterine brother and sister. This passed on to India where eventually they lost much of the pure races by disease overtaking through the inter-marriage, and now seek very much for foreign blood to fortify the Race.

As this dwindled down in wisdom, and disease spread rapidly, it became lost of its real purpose, and remained only with the degenerating tribes as the complete absorbing of the mother blood by sacrifice. They turned it into a fetish, hence the old mothers in some of the tribes actually lay themselves down for the final sacrifice; and to the family this was their mothergod being eaten right up to the last while alive. One could go further into the whole of the details, but they are very gory and best avoided to that extent.

But certainly this is where foreign powers taking over of these deteriorating Native countries did help to some degree, and where a certain amount of new ideas instilled by religion brought reform, but it could never wipe from their blood that which had lost its real purpose and taken on inferior wisdom. Yet religion would have fulfilled their task if it had remained at pure altruistic motives, but unfortunately religion, when these had to be put into practical application to the evolving primitives, found it difficult to abide by.

The Holy Trinity

UNFORTUNATELY commercialism enters into every channel of life, and through religion not standing by their morals set for the Native to live by, the primitive now rejects and declares if we are all God's children as brothers and sisters, then we must have equal rights with one another.

Certain countries are not carrying this out for they have used slave labour in the past to bolster up their financial position which has been successful, but have loaded themselves with an enormous freed slave population. Now they seek to deny their previous religious cantings and try to still hold down a world of rising souls.

Aquarius is changing this and demanding that the Root, set into operation in the Leo Equinox, is now fulfilled to the letter. The Early Fathers carried on the hidden wisdom of the Ancient World; but then they carried out abstinence rigidly as their sacraments in the fulfilling of what the Ancient Rituals stated, and most necessary if you entered into those portals of the lost world.

Jerome, Chrysostom and Gregory understood the depth of the Eucharistic Meal, which was the tearing of the "host" into pieces and the drinking of the Mother Blood as the body and wine of Osiris or Christ and the secret that holds of the mystery. This referred to the drawing down of the Powers by study and prayer, and unfolding deeper and more intrinsic wisdom from the Holy Breath.

The Mother Blood was the Feminine Principle as the Second Principle that produces the third, and revealed the First. This related to the Holy Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Ghost in the later Catholic Ritual. To these early pioneers of Spiritual truths, the wealth of the Primitive Cause was revealed; but Rome who began the first Papal Church, started off in a simple way, with complications beginning about 365 A.D. when the Nicean Creeds were set on making Pauline a God in the flesh.

This not only ruined all that Pauline began, but took away from the masses from then onwards, any hopes of retribution. They simply became slaves to a religious denomination, that in the dark Middle Ages became a tyranny equal to the slavery of the black races.

The pioneers who worked then to free mankind from papalism should never be forgotten, for although they still held to religious ideas that were very much lacking in truth, they certainly were more genuine in their religious beliefs; and were fighting for what they truly believed and not seeking for priestal power.

The Feminine Principle

ALL through the tribal beliefs you find that there are "two Women" who act upon any of their rituals; the mother and the eldest daughter. This links with Demeter and Persephone, Mary and Martha; or in true conception as defined by astrological wisdom it links with Cancer and Virgo. The latter two of the three Mothers or three Marys at the Cross.

The first being Aries who leads the way and would act as Salome dancing before Herod, the old god-head of the soul with the personality casting the seven veils of the seven bodies as new life comes through the aged mother Cancer, who gives the new life born from the experiences to the daughter Virgo, the intuitive mind.

SHE CARRIES THIS IN THE "WOMB" UNTIL THE CHRISING LIGHT, AS THE RISING MANHOOD, IS BORN WITHIN THE SOUL.

The Mother Blood that is being "supped" as the soul feeding from the pelican's breast within its own effort of mind growth. The understanding of Blood as the universal proteus was well known to the priests at Heliopolis; and the ritual of the Last Supper was theirs long before it became a part of the erroneous wisdom in the Scriptures. It is alright if you know how to apply the depth, but as it is given, having been revised so many times by religious and scheming political despots, it is nowhere near the truth, though the framework is there.

Blood is more a vapour than a fluid. The fluid carries the vapour of mind as consciousness; perhaps we might say a gas as vital air of active precipitation. This is the out-

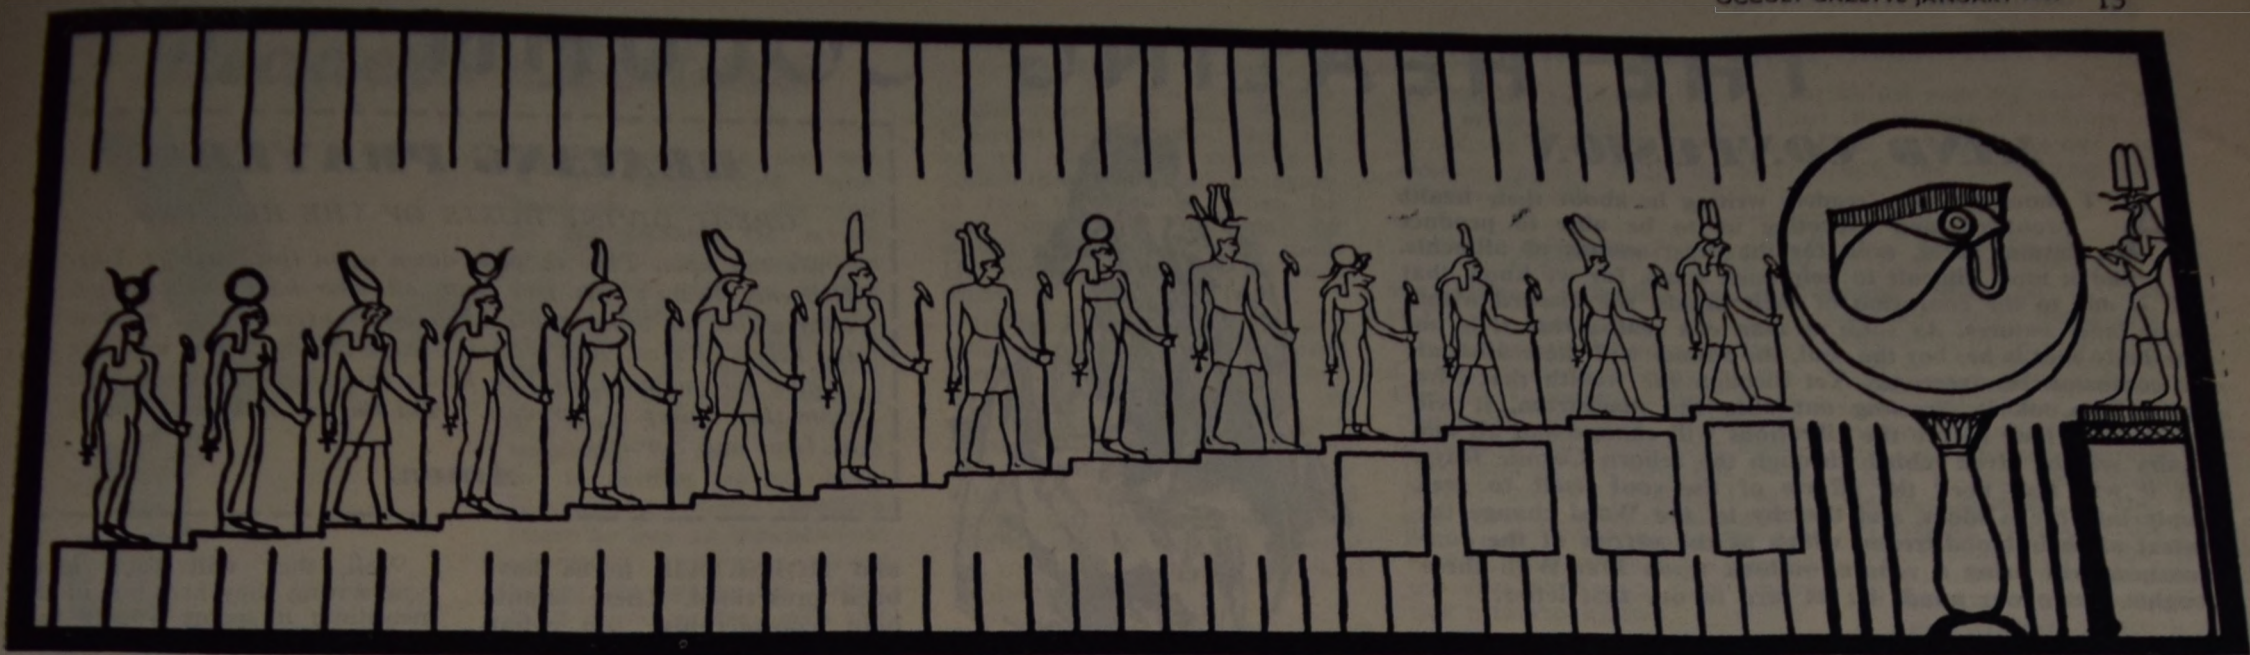

THE UNFOLDMENT OF THE PAST

AS the goddess opened up the mystical vision of the depths she saw the beauties of what man had lost and buried under the waters. Mighty glories of ancient beauty that still had to be recovered in the age of Relativity. Wealth that had to be returned to the heights as the expansive air that would give man life, and raise him up to his rightful place of the long lost god in the depths.

THE GODS OF THE FOURTEEN DAYS OF THE WAXING MOON

come of spirits gathered from brain, heart, and liver's natural actions or digestions that produce a vital spirit that is diffused by veins, nerves and lymphatics. This air or gas is the Nephesh or Ruach; air fused with fire that makes the fired soul an Amsu or Levite. The wielder of the serpent fire. By this it can be seen why the Races, when they degenerated, interpreted their legends in the way they did.

The original interpretation was the eating of the food of the Mother of Life, she who gave the food of experience that men could live. This led to the human mother, on being sacrificed, being referred to as a Charis or Christed one. One who made the supreme sacrifice for the good of the Race. A small tribal world was as vast then as a whole world of affairs are to us at the present moment with our facilities of transport.

Wars of the Elements

THE Nephesh is the fire obtained from the four worlds of life. These four worlds have been termed Atziluth, Briah, Yetzirah and Assiah, and link with Fire, Air, Water and Earth. Each degree giving man a new impulse, with the Earth providing the Nephesh as the physical existence that can become attuned to the emotional movement of uplift upsurging as Water. This opens the way for a reasoning to ascend as Air, that eventually brings into being a spiritual principle as divine Fire.

There is nothing righteous, religious or superstitious in this, but it gives the soul the transcending of other worlds. What he does by aeroplane and missile, he must conquer by mind and retain the vision. He carries either the Spirit in the blood which gives him freedom of mind as Spirit, or the desires of the animal, that make him a slave to the flesh and completely earthed.

AS THE SOUL UNFOLDS BY LIFE TENDENCIES, SO IT YEARNs TO BE FREE. IT IS THIS CAPTIVITY THAT CAUSES THE SOUL TO SEEK INTO RELIGIOUS AND PHILOSOPHICAL MOTIVES; THE SOUL IS LOOKING FOR FREEDOM. THE ANSWER LIES IN THE BLOOD AND ITS FREEDOM BY A FREED BLOOD STREAM.

Certain foods and actions turn to acid and corrosive conditions which impede the blood flow. Instead of pure lymph of life-giving substance, it becomes a bacteriological playground of species in a fractious state of friction. And when the Hindus contrived the knowledge of the Wars of the Mahabharata, they did indeed find a wisdom, for it referred to the war raging within the

THE GODS OF THE FOURTEEN DAYS OF THE WANING MOON

THE DAWN OF TIME-LESS-NESS

THE great mystery of Osiris being torn into fourteen parts is the dissecting days of the moon, which in the hour of Time and strife man plodded through hour by hour. Now by the wonders of the fiery waters all has become Time-less-ness and the U'at eye, the ever changing vision, can be reborn any moment by the mystical rebirth of Time-less-ness. That which can be expanded into light through embracing the Solar glory of rebirth.

soul's inner being through alchemicalization.

This life in the bloodstream is man's whole story from "beginning" to the immediate present, and is waiting for mind dissolution to find oneness. For by man's struggle and the raising of his tendencies up onto a higher world of reaction, he dissolves states within the blood onto a finer plane of existence.

That is what was known in the Egyptian world of wisdom as the ritual of the crocodile. The animal state of the soul devouring up its own "dead" states. The soul eating up its "dead" and retaining as mind memory, wisdom. When this wisdom was at its highest, there existed the Crocodile-headed god, and if a soul had only reached to that height in its impulses, then you see that soul at the crocodile stage.

When it overcomes and breaks forth, it enters onto the Jackal stage where it searches for food (wisdom) by moonlight. It has not yet reached the transcendancy of the sunlight; but at least it has become active away from the sluggish waters. The blood is beginning to become mind-active or vitalized; desirous of lifting upwards because Mars is firing or stirring the blood.

This links with Lucifer the carrier of light; this is the intensity of the mysterious Nephesh raised from its earthy state to its spiritual heights.

The legend infers that Lucifer in striking his fire into the mortal, struck too deep and caused chaos. It became lost and has had to await recovery. The Egyptians placed it into the legend of Osiris becoming torn to pieces and scattered, therefore Isis had to gather him together again.

All amounts to the same thing, the fire in coming into matter, flesh, becomes lost until the soul retrieves all into mind action. This creation as mind or consciousness, is found in the blood gathered there by ages of growth, for it is the soul's ever returning spirit until it can become freed from all earth attraction.

IT IS THE CONSCIOUSNESS, AND FOR THE SOUL TO VISUALISE, IMAGINE VAPOUR; THAT OFTEN SEEN AS VIBRATING ACTION WHEN SUNLIGHT IS FOCUSED ON RISING AIR.

The Unification

SO when we discuss in this series of a human being, we are not talking of flesh and bones, but spirit life in the blood; the accrued "mind-creation" as Space transmuted into Time by human action and creation.

EACH HUMAN PARTICLE TO EVENTUALLY BECOME A PART OF THE COSMIC WHOLE.

If this can be visualized as the finale, then we can imagine ourselves as originally having been a thought-spark delivered from the Great Father Head to become a Personalized creation, and to enter back as the Individualized Thought. But what we have to understand now, is what part of the journey have we arrived at individually. If all go through the whole, each man to his own justice, for none can claim what is not his rights; Prometheus found that out to his own detriment.

In the blood the whole dynamics of life is carried; and when it can carry the whole field of dynamic thought, even if only in a momentary conception, the soul holds the whole field of motion from pole to pole, according to the degree of thought as soul infusion. The soul as mind is the interpreter of all electrical phenomenon which is ever flowing from pole to pole.

As one soul interprets a greater degree, does the world become enlightened. So it only needs one soul to raise the Godhead to a greater name of expression. But NO Godhead, no unfoldment; for then man is intent on one thing, self, and that eventually leads to war and destruction in gain for self; that is inevitable. Man has to learn to be selfless to be constructive, then he has a godlike motive and becomes the Blood-life of the world.

The two mothers that operate within all human genius are the blenders of two worlds, one as the virgin, the other as the gestator. Between these, Spirit and matter become united as male and female elements, and produce the child of mind. This enters into the Barque of Ra, the Solar boat on the river of life.

The river of blood that carries the god from limb to limb to view the whole of his domain. If the soul is alert and the mind not imbued with palate desire, the consciousness becomes aware of an ever changing state of awareness, and there is a constant flow of inward to outward, and outward to inward perception from the ever-lasting stream of heights to depths. The soul is being vivified by the blood of the Gods.

ONCE MAN CAN ACCEPT THE FACT THAT THE WHOLE OF HIS LIFE IS IN HIS BLOODSTREAM HE HAS THE KEY THAT WILL OPEN THE DOORS FOR THE REST OF THE WAY.

All the past and present are resolving the future; yet it will be the past that will lead the way to transfiguring the future. It has been a continual panorama of life that has enfolded itself into tissues and species; and when the spirit leaves the body it will go as a state of colour enfolded in the apparent lifeless state, until it awakens and adjusts to its rightful vibration.

For once it makes its entry into its own territory it becomes alive; the territory being its own vibronic atmosphere where the soul will shine forth with all that it has gained through the earth journey. This can never change in spirit life, only reach its fullest extent of ascent in growth gained through earth experiences.

The return into earth life is similar, only now it has to be into the womb, and out of the whole procedure, the most devastating. The soul diving into the River Styx or river of death is an apt description; then once again through the mother blood the soul begins to renew its bloodstream according to its own powers of action; its own internal species of composite blood quality being renewed as fluidic blood life.

The cerebrospinal nervous system plays an important role here, for it is the means of reviving those states past and forgotten. This accounts for why so many conditions begin in the spine and appear from apparently out of the blue.

No hereditary states to account for it; but man has failed to realise that hereditary does not apply to flesh and blood ancestors only, but ancestors also of mind and memory that are far more potent and lasting than all the brains of life after life gathered in one motley collection.

Having assured ourselves so far of the importance of blood life, how it retains its consciousness in discarnate and incarnate life, we have arrived at a very important status in our whole journey of composite LIFE. We know now the blood is the instrument of self-expression and carries the whole soul life in its stream. This of course opens up many questions regarding blood transfusion and soul bleeding.

Already I have written a separate treatise regarding this matter, as it could only be dealt with in a very explanatory way. But the mysteries of the blood could fill many volumes for it deals with life from "Beginning" to complete absorption into the finale; so the Creation called LIFE as Ra-Men-Ra is the whole Blood story of the Ma-sen, the son of the blood.

MA AS TRUTH AND SEN AS SON; THIS EVENTUALLY BECAME THE FRATERNITY OF THE TEMPLARS UNDER SOLOMON, BUT BROTHERS OF THE MYSTIC TIE IN MASONIC FRATERNITY IN LATER TIMES.

THE HEALING COLUMN

MIND CONFUSION

AT times we have readers writing in about their health problems, and expecting us to be able to produce instant cures, even for the most serious of ailments. We find it most difficult to help such souls, for we know that all is due to the confusion of their minds, the discord within their inner natures. As soon as man can realise that it is not the body that is he, but the soul, the sooner will these ailments of confusion be overcome. Yet through the wealth that Mrs. Spearman-Cook is directing out onto the maelstrom, it will not be very long before the vibrations will change and all and sundry will be given rebirth through the reborn Cosmic Rays. But it will also need the efforts of the soul itself to seek deeply into the wisdom, and thereby let the Word change the context of their bloodstream, which as the carrier of the consciousness will bring a reborn outlook upon life. With these thoughts within our minds let us turn to our first letter.

HEALING PRAYER

GREAT DIVINE HOSTS OF THE HEAVENS

We call upon Thee to pour down upon the Earth of Thy Heavenly Peace; yet give unto all who have the courage, wherewithal to bring those changes so necessary to awaken the hearts of men. And we leave these children here, who are seeking for guidance, in Thy hands that they too can awaken from their "sleep of darkness." And this we seek in the name of Love and Service.

Amen.

High Blood Pressure

Mrs. M. S. of Scotland.

"Has bad nerves and believes she is suffering from High Blood Pressure."

IN viewing this chart (1126) it can be seen quite clearly that this soul is far too logically minded, as indicated by Jupiter and Pluto being in the 8th house in Gemini. Yet she has the Sun in Leo in the mid-heavens which should really give her a very royal mind if she could only overcome all those states of a mundane nature that would become her foremost so-called common sense.

This is again verified by her Mercury in Virgo in the 11th house, when really, this being the house of the Spirit, she could find untold wisdom. What she really needs to do is to live up in her heights as much as she is able, in a world of 'fairy tales', trying to perceive what wonders could be created.

It is no good her saying that it is impossible to put into operation in the world at large, for this is how writers create their works, and as man is the creator of all things, so he either creates heaven or hell for himself.

With Mars in Scorpio in the 2nd house Mrs. S. should be able to get the intercalary ploughing between Taurus and Scorpio moving to an amazing degree, but if not, this will account for the majority of her difficulties regarding her health, for she would just be pulling against the balance of life.

She must get the Bull ploughing and Mars active in mind expansion, for Mars placed as it is could have a marked effect upon the bloodstream if not used in its proper context. With such a chart as this, I would suggest that gradually the soul enters onto a diet of the most rigid nature, but she must use her common-sense as to how quickly she can accomplish this. Plenty of water is essential, and avoiding company of a mundane degree will also be a great help to her.

The Path of Destiny in the 7th house in Aries indicates that she has come back to embrace the new laws and become a pioneer for the extreme Truths of life, and in this way will she overcome her difficulties. There is NO blood pressure, what she sees as symptoms of this is her whole condition out of gear, through her allowing mundane states to override the royalty of birth that is with her. Mrs. S. must try to live up in her heights, ever seeking expansion through the Word, and as she does this, the nervous discord within her will begin to right itself. Until then we are sending our NERVE PILLS which will be of much benefit to her.

Varicose Veins

Mr. S. B. of London.

"I have varicose veins, chronic constipation, chilblains and occasional haemorrhoids."

WE see from this chart, 1168, that the varicose veins, chilblains and haemorrhoids, are due to the fact that Mr. B. has the power of four Fire with him, which is an enormous attribute in the soul creation, but unfortunately he has never transmuted any of this Fire into Air, that of the mind. This means he has no Air body of an etheric nature and is therefore not creating any spiritual garment, thereby all his Fire is condensing into the bones of the legs.

Here is where we can only tell the soul that the development of the mind is the most important thing with regard to the curing of bodily sickness at the present time. People find this hard to accept, but man is only MIND, and if he does not create the mind body he is ever only living in the flesh of the first created beast.

This is what the teachings of Universal Philosophy are trying to expound to all who are ready to learn.

Through this particular soul's refusal over the Ages to put this into operation, Mars, the planet of activity, is retrograde and in the 8th house, that known as the 'Pit'. Unless this soul gets the mind active there will be more trouble to come, especially as Mercury and the Sun are both in the 1st house, which makes the soul a very, very rich being.

He should drive himself to the fullest extent in order to create that mind body. It is quite possible that all these riches revealed in the chart were gained in the past through papalism, where as a monk the soul drove himself for religious reasons.

I see that BUCCHU, AGRIMONY and DANDELION, plus MARIGOLD FLOWERS, HOLY THISTLE and HORSETAIL herbs have been prescribed. These should help considerably, but whatever Mr. B. does, he must make use of those first house planets, before it is too late. The wisdom in the Gazette, plus early lectures, would help a great deal, for it is the Word, and only the Word, that brings a rebirth to the bloodstream.

Anaemia

Miss M. H., London.

THIS young woman is suffering from anaemia (see chart 1221), and is at the moment being advised by the medical profession to eat plenty of meat, and to take their iron tablets every day for the rest of her life. This is complete and utter RUBBISH, what she is lacking is the Fire, the Life Essence of the soul. If she would only draw the rejuvenating Fire down from the heights by her continual mind movement, in the ploughing between Taurus and Scorpio, she would be continually feeding herself with new life and so put right the difficulty that she is now struggling with.

To listen to these blind 'quacks' who only see flesh, is asking for trouble, for they have no knowledge of the inner bodies from where all sickness springs, and are only capable of cutting away, for the trouble to merely reappear in a more intensified state at a later date. Whereas these medical humbugs used to recommend raw liver as a cure, now they have decided that vitamin B12 is the answer, which is made up of no less than cobalt and cyanide!

If they would only study the true mysteries of the body they would know that the liver is the organ whereby the Martian element of physical fire enters the body and this is what the majority of souls with anaemia are lacking, and no amount of raw liver being eaten will rectify matters. The medical world are as blind as bats; they might have found the source of entry of different elements and glandular juices into the body, but as for any further enquiry into how or why, oh no! what they cannot see, as far as they are concerned, just does not exist.

Well, they will soon learn how wrong they are, but in the meantime it seems a pity that so many souls will feel the butcher's knife, and lose limbs and organs that are essential for the proper functioning of their bodies, and which they will find as a tragic limitation when they begin to seek for the mind unfoldment.

But now let us turn to the chart and see what it reveals. The real trouble here lies with the soul refusing to continue the movement within the chart, and this is undoubtedly the cause of the anaemia. She must find some WILL POWER to struggle with the Word, that she can gain the expansion that is most necessary. She must draw down the Fire through her mind efforts to gain a greater understanding, but will at first find this difficult, for she has placed her Mars and Uranus in the 7th house in Gemini, indicating that they are fixed at the 'bridge', through her refusal to change the old laws for the new.

These two planets represent her Will and Super-Will, and with the latter also being retrograde she really must struggle very hard, in order to break away from her old line of thinking. This is again verified by her Sun being in Aquarius with Scorpio on the Ascendant, two very fixed states of creation. All the mind wealth that she has built up in the past, as can be seen by her having six Air signs, she is now deliberately destroying.

This is her anaemia, destroying the glories of her bloodstream, and inhibiting the mighty wealth of the metabolism. This is gradually bringing the bloodstream down lower and lower, as a result of this refusal to take in of new ideas, and so she is not being rejuvenated by the Seed which Scorpio should bring. This is the lesson that she has come back to learn and master, as shown by her having Scorpio on the Ascendant. To continue taking drugs and vitamin pills will only aid in the destruction of the blood wealth, but that is up to the soul in question to decide upon.

The answer lies in her getting her mind elevated, but she must find some fluidity of thought, which is completely lacking at the present, there being no planets placed in any "Water" signs. Here I feel I must comment upon the Path of Destiny in Pisces in the 4th house. This is telling her she must get action and cast off all the old religious ideas that are holding her. If she would only look towards the sunlight it would bring a rebirth of the mighty wealth she gained at the time of Heliopolis, the Leo wealth that is seen at the zenith of her chart.

The whole answer to this soul's problems is to spin her mind upwards in will and determination, ever seeking new ideas, and for her to realise that life is only to learn a lesson, and not just for the fun of the game.

Readers' Letters

FOR those who are not yet acquainted with Senarath, let me put you in the picture. He is an eight year old Cambodian boy living with us at the School, full of life to the extreme, and "quite a handful" to keep under control; one really needing at least 100 eyes, ever watching, to find out what he is getting up to next. Having a very positive chart he has an independent character, and is never afraid to speak his mind. Well knowing the perils she faced, Mrs. E., a friend of the School, volunteered to take Senarath on a visit to the British Museum. Below we print a letter received from her, giving her account of the afternoon's happenings. (Editor).

Senarath at the British Museum

I believe Senarath has told you that we visited the British Museum during school half-term. Perhaps it would interest you to hear how we fared?

First there was the bus. He had to make the agonising decision as to whether to sit inside where he couldn't see so well, or to go on top where the horrible polluted smoky air almost overcame him. He compromised by sitting right at the front and throwing his voice, pregnant with protest, to the back and leaving all smokers in absolutely no doubt as to his opinion of them.

He asked me the names of all the parks, bus stops, Underground stations, and which lines they were on, where was the circus at Oxford Circus, where was the Post Office Tower, and how to get to the sea-side. I feel sure this last question was quite incidental.

He also said he had nine shillings to spend which he had been saving for weeks, and did I think he might be able to buy a REAL Egyptian boat to sail on the pond in Kensington Gardens. He felt he might even make one himself if he could purchase the necessary material. I disillusioned him at this stage, as during the past few weeks he has told me of a kite, a boomerang and a ship, all in various stages of construction at home, but I never hear of them again—I sometimes ask casually but the veil drops over his eyes and he is non-committal, so we leave it at that.

When we reached the Museum I suddenly discovered Senarath was not inside with me, but that the revolving door was revolving in an unnaturally speedy way. Some of the unfortunate people who had their heels caught in the door had the ill-grace to look annoyed, but Senarath was ecstatic; he was a dervish for a few wild brief moments, not a being of this world at all. It seemed a pity to wrench him away, but I didn't wish to be presented with the bill for a new revolving door—my frugal Welsh blood, no doubt.

ONCE inside, the first thing he noticed was the shop selling the Post Cards.

"Ah!" he said, "I want some postcards."

I suggested he looked round the museum first and then made up his mind, but he was adamant. In a commanding tone of voice he cried, "No, no, no, I want them now," and all in a rush, out fell Osiris, Rameses the Second, the Rosetta Stone, and many more from rack upon rack.

"I'll have this—put this back please—no, that's no good—reach me that one—no, no, the one on the left."

Finally he chose eight cards, took them to the desk and paid for them. We started to walk away, "Oh, I forgot the bill, my mummy always wants the bill," and he rushed back, "Excuse me, can I have a bill for 4/- please." The startled woman gave him a bill and he came away. Next minute he was back. "Excuse me, do you have any Sellotape to stick my pictures in the bag, so they won't fall out." The Sellotape is duly handed over. Senarath then walks over to a table to secure his pictures and absentmindedly sits straight down on a student's lap. "Oops, sorry," he says.

"I want to see the mummies and the Rosetta Stone," he informed me, casually climbing on to a large stone tomb to enable him to see inside. The attendant saw him. "Get off, son, you're not allowed to climb up there."

"Why not, I can't see, will you lift me up?" said Senarath.

I hastily lifted him up myself, as it was clear from the unbelieving expression on the attendant's face that he did not credit the power of his own ears. As I dangled him over, he stuck his head up under his arm, looked at the attendant and said, "What's the use of having it, if you can't see in it."

The mummies, however, were the biggest attraction, and he wanted to go straight there. As they were on the top floor and at the other end of the building, I wanted him to look at other things we were passing on the way.

"No," he said, "it's too boring."

He walked through all the rooms on the ground floor, not looking right nor left, muttering to himself, "Boring, boring, boring." Finally we reached the Egyptian room, where the mummies were in various states of embalmed splendour. He looked, "I don't want to see them like that," he said, "I want to see real bodies." He turned to the attendant, "Excuse me, are there any bodies here?"

"If you want to see a body son, look over there," said the well-meaning attendant, pointing to the other available body, preserved indefinitely, and very unsavoury looking in its glass case, complete with sand and pot.

"No others." I told him, "they're all embalmed."

"Boring, boring," he said, and marched out. We went back to the ground floor, and I gave him a gentle nag on the way. I said I hoped he would tell Mummy how bored he had been, and how he had refused to look at anything except the Egyptian room, and that Mrs. E. said he wasn't really ready for the British Museum yet (except the revolving doors, of course). I added that we would go again in two years time, when he was ten and perhaps he would appreciate it more then. He just replied that he was thirsty!

In the basement was a small cafeteria, full of things Senarath does not eat. He said he would like a glass of orange juice, which we purchased, and took to the only two vacant seats in the smoke-filled room. Opposite sat a young girl inhaling her cigarette as though her life depended upon it—in a few years it probably will!

"Ugh," said Senarath, "this room is awful, I hate smoke. Why is SHE smoking at our table?"—pointing his finger at the girl to within an inch of her nose. Half-heartedly I explained that some people liked to smoke and some didn't. He removed himself and his glass to the door, making awful choking, spluttering sounds, somewhat exaggerated. I felt he had made his point and without further delay we left the room, and again found ourselves by the post-cards.

As we passed a table, two young things, heads touching and hands entwined, were pondering over a map of London. Senarath stopped in front of the table and stared at the map. "Excuse me," he said yet again, "did you buy that map here?"

"No, we didn't," they muttered hoping he'd go away.

He pushed their hands aside, turned the map over and said, "Well, where did you get it?"

"At the Underground Station," they answered in a final tone, standing up.

WE again reached the revolving doors, and this time I was prepared. I went outside and stood on the steps, pretending I wasn't with him, and left him to it. As I watched I learnt something. I learnt that Senarath likes doors more than he likes museums.

I also found that he likes escalators—we came home via one, and he was most indignant when I would not allow him to sit on the left side, which stopped anyone from passing him who might have been in a hurry. As he so reasonably pointed out to me—he couldn't sit on the right hand side—everyone was standing there!

Well, finally I left him at the top of Campden Hill, and the last I saw of him that day was a small figure, legs and arms kicking and waving in all directions, tearing down the hill, narrowly avoiding lamp-posts, kerbs, people, etc. It was to his credit he avoided them—he tells me he frequently bumps into various objects when he is out. In a year or so, when I have recovered, we will go again! In the meantime, I cannot help wondering what would be Senarath's reaction to Battersea Fun Fair—he would probably think it was all a great waste of money when you can get all your entertainment free, at the British Museum!!

With kindest regards,
yours sincerely,
Mrs. E.

Appreciation of the Writings

Mr. Hylton Minott, Jamaica, W.I.

I am happy to tell you that I have received a copy of the Occult Gazette which was requested in my letter of enquiry dated September 22nd, 1966, and as one who has done partial studies of Occult Teachings over a period of twenty five years, I can truthfully say that your writings have opened my eyes to Truths that I have not hitherto known.

Further, I would like to take this opportunity to ask you to enter my name in your Mind Development Class register.

I am enclosing P.O. for thirty shillings to cover one year's subscription for the Occult Gazette.

May God bless you and your co-workers to continue this good work in this cause of humanity.

Mrs. H. Waring, Grassington, Yorks.

My thoughts are with you all daily, I would like to express grateful thanks for the help given to my son, he is blooming in health now and has been given the wisdom and strength of mind to alter his diet since his name was put in the Healing Book. Only wish I could make my thanks in a more practical way, but perhaps some-day I will be given the opportunity. Am looking forward to December 21st and am trying to live as I am learning from the Gazette. Many, many blessings to our dear Teacher, and all of you.

Mr. A. Wilkes, Hucknall, Nottm.

I have been reading with great interest your Reminiscences in the December O.G., particularly the beginning part dealing with the Aberfan disaster.

I can appreciate very fully your remarks concerning the depressing and ugly atmosphere of those valleys, as I have passed through similar experience in the north of the country, but I will explain fully. Last September we spent a fortnights holiday in North Wales, staying at the coastal resort of Colwyn Bay. During our stay we took a number of Coach Tours to various places in the area.

Some of these took us through the State Quarrying Area and a more depressing atmosphere it would be difficult to find. On the first occasion when we passed through I remarked to my wife—I should not like to live here, I should feel that these waste heaps could come sliding down and engulf us any time. You may probably know that there are miles of these mountains of waste from the State Quarries with no sign of vegetation, and houses and villages in the valley at the bottom.

I believe there have been a few mishaps with the waste sliding down on the houses, but one could easily see the possibility of a major disaster such as Aberfan, after exceptional rainfall the whole area seems to be a mass of slippery material. Each subsequent time that we passed through the area, I had this feeling of depression even to the extent of having nausea in the pit of my stomach, and the feeling lasted until we were clear and in the green country again.

One wonders what it must be like to live one's life in such depressing surroundings. Thank you for letting a little light in from the Occult standpoint.

Mrs. A. B. New, Kent.

I know this letter will come to the lady who must be helping Merope, and I was struck by the lovely words in her Editorial, where it finishes, "And so we offer our humble thanks and our sincere love and gratitude to one who is indeed the most gallant of all souls, clothed in all the royal garments of God, and in her perfection—truly a Divine Leader."

Yes, it is Merope, for no one has a mind that can gather from her past, the love for all that must have been in her for ever. My Prayer for her each night has been humbly sent to God for her safety.

My love to all who work at the Temple, and to Merope, my very humble thanks.

N.B. The editor was very pleased to hear that the November editorial was appreciated, but would like to point out that, in fact, he is of the male species, masquerading under the name of Dick Speller.

Mrs. O. A. G., California, U.S.A.

I request two renewal subscriptions to the Occult Gazette, one for myself, another as a Christmas Gift. Also a copy of "Alice in Wonderland," of the amazing revelation. Enclosed is a Bank of America cheque, postage included.

We appreciate this amazing literature immensely, and our own admiration and high esteem for Mrs. Gladys I. Spearman-Cook grows increasingly with each issue of the outstanding Occult Gazette. We express our best wishes for its continual expansion.

Enclosed is a Bank Cheque as a Christmas donation to your wonderful School of Universal Philosophy. Best wishes to all concerned, and especially to our Beloved Mrs. Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, for a most Blessed Christmastide. May 1967 be a most successful year for the endless spreading of your glorious philosophy of the Occult Gazette.

Creation Called Life Part 4

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IN THE BEGINNING, ALL EXCEPT THE PRIESTS WERE YOUNG growth, and the young birth only understood what Nature taught them. They were self instructed, while the Priests were those of Atlantean growth and returning in the first instance as spirit translation seeking to help all bring forth of a refined primitive body. Not solid as man is today, but flesh of a more ethereal nature with the generative organ as a female pube. They were in the first instance of the hermaphrodite creation. This is where Enoch walked with God and was translated back to heaven, or dissolved into Spirit context. But as the human life coarsened this became extinct and all had to be born of the dual seed of generation.

The Blood Link

THE early pharaoh's were translated, therefore gave birth through Brother and Sister by the mind powers that were with them, and the new Pharaoh came forth; though not from the womb of the creature but by translation, and made ready to adopt of the new life. These were the Ancient Powers of Atlantis and of the hermaphrodite Race, who in the end became a Race of Amazon Women; or souls of the feminine pube.

It was a creation that would not produce or expand because of the state of "success", and resulted in further Power of driving life having to descend; finding it necessary to drive deep and hard, they did so, and became lost as the Sons of God enamoured by the female creation. So in seeking to carry their task deep in descending translation, they became lost and enamoured with the state they had engendered.

THIS BEGAN THE COSMICAL FALL, WHICH IS REPEATED EVERY DAY IN ALL HUMAN ENDEAVOURS; THAT WHICH THE INITIATE IS SEEKING TO PULL AGAINST AND RISE UPWARDS.

In the first state of generation the Egyptian, by mode of wisdom handed down from the Atlantean Priestal tutors, understood one thing thoroughly, the depth lineage. The Atlantean "blood" was white and opaque; it was only after the indriving surge of generative impulses that the blood took on a red hue, for it is the solar fire as sex lymph that colours the blood fluid and keeps the blood nourished.

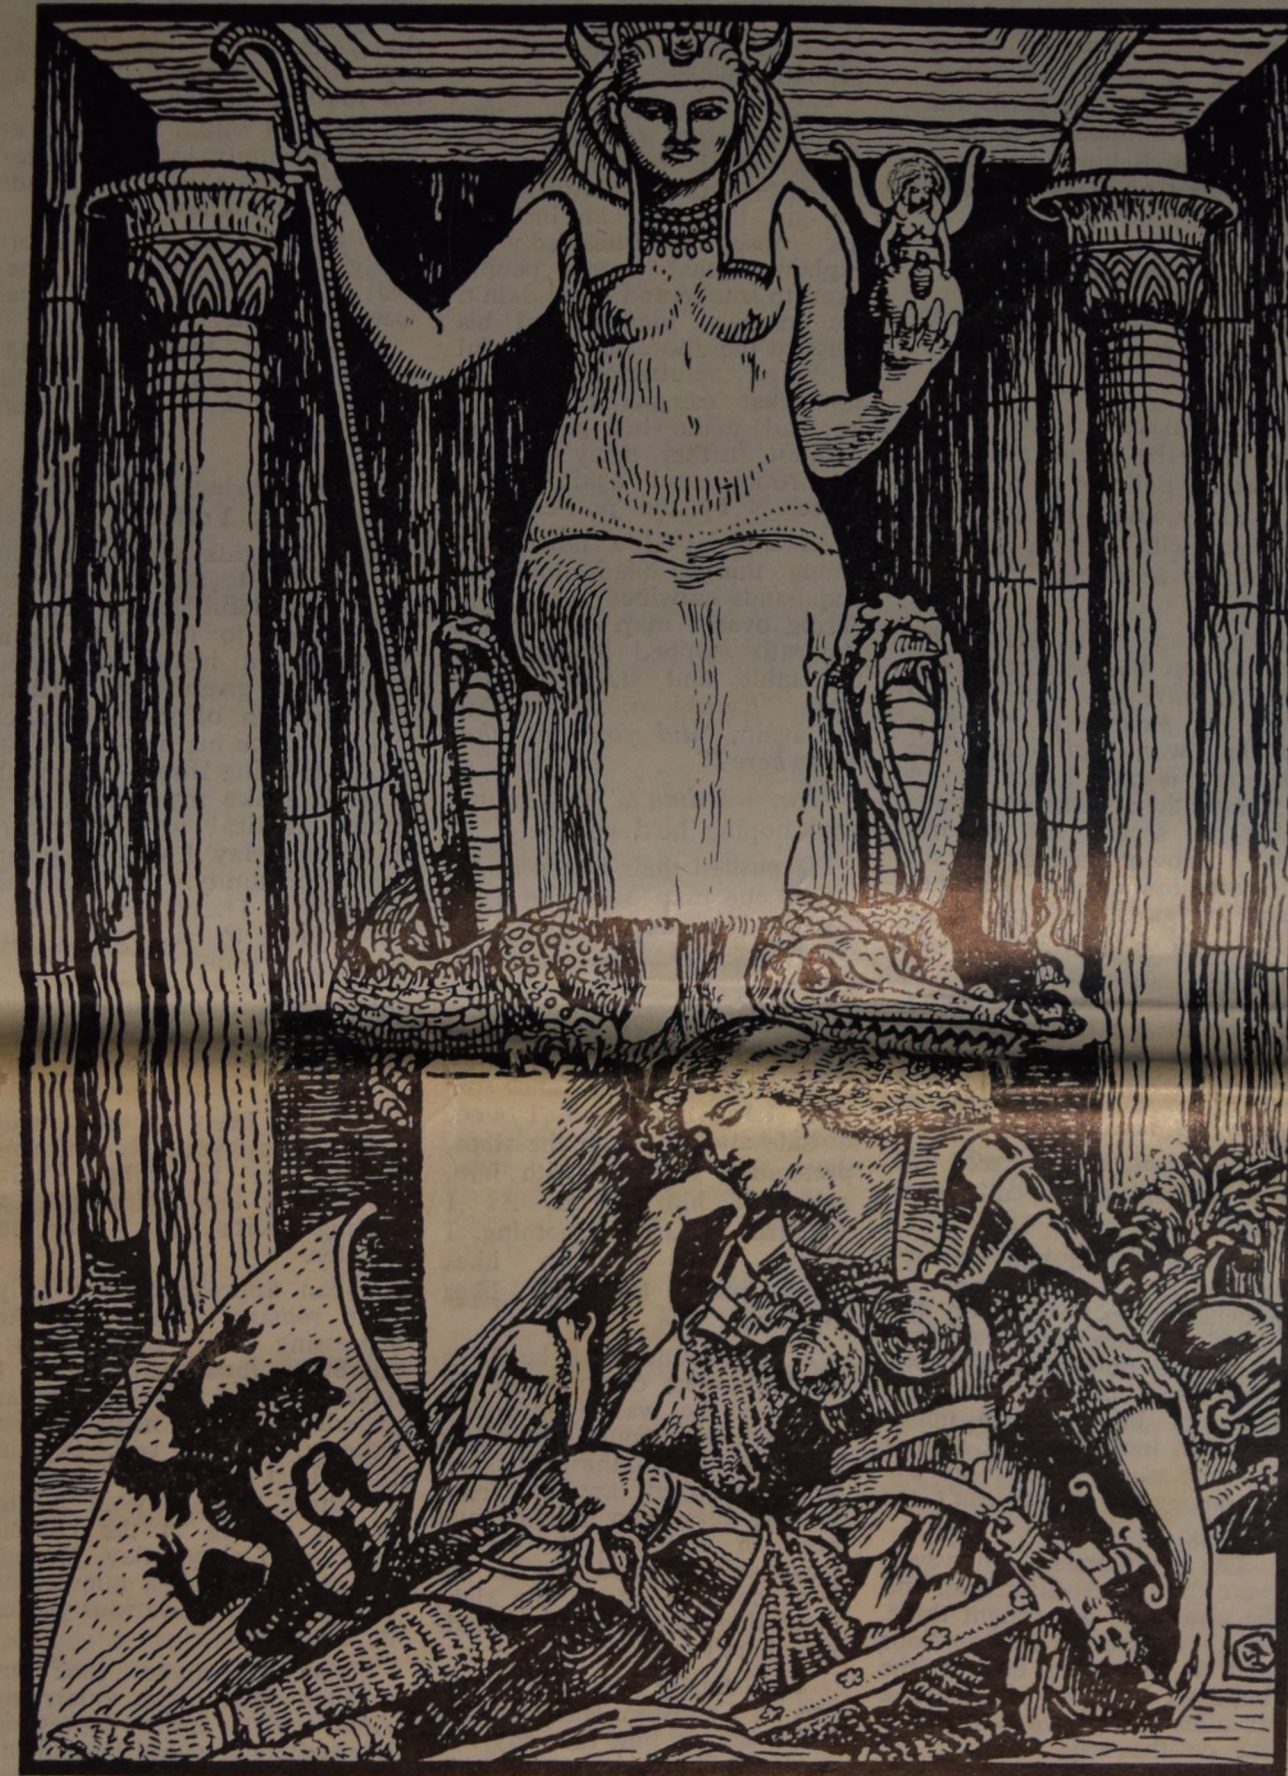

Therefore in the beginning the sons of Egypt became the consorts of their mother, as well as the Son becoming the consort to the Great Mother. But as this was not of debauchery but natural incline, it took the lead of evolution until another state of unfoldment was necessary. This was not incest until the blood species became too congested, then the social laws changed accordingly.

A group of animals in their wild state are not concerned as to who is brother and sister, consequently disease is rare amongst animals. It comes with humans owing to the lack of seasons or ruling. Therefore it was not until a libertine state prevailed so strongly in human cohabitation that new laws were enacted. But up to this day in royalty and aristocracy a seeking to keep the family blood intact is still the vogue, and would now account for the impoverished state of both.

Although this was a natural state to be contended with at this early state of unfoldment, there was also an esoteric state that was at that time formulated in the bloodstream of perpetual memory as the wisdom of Mythology.

Totemic Initiations

THE Great Mother sought for Gods and men to cohabit with her; the great Old Apt as Mother Nature.

THE MYSTICAL GLORIES OF RELATIVITY

THE mystical wonders of the mighty depths that only Woman can give rebirth to, therefore the age of Woman has now opened up in the mystical glories of Relativity. Thus Past and Present duly united and born as the orb and sceptre of her royal prerogative of divinity.

Her Sons as Gods and men were Horus, the Crocodile-headed Sebek, and Sut the male Hippopotamus; these bred and produced through her. Then we come to Mars as the Egyptian Shu who ravished his Mother; and finally Sut, Horus and Shu became the pre-Totemic characters. Later Sut and Horus were denounced as "Violators of their Mothers", and as the Old Harlot she was forced to partake of the Cup of fornication.

This caused Isis to travail and she cried bitterly of "No Crocodile" to eat up the dung that was being spewed into matter. Yet she knew that she could only be her own salvation, thus produced her own sister Nephthys who acted as Martha to Mary, the one who labours in the kitchen to clear away the refuse and prepare the food. This was the first sign of feminine pubescence, the word to issue out of Silence in the beginning. Totemism was the means of producing this; the feminine Motherhood as a "girl" to become a "Woman" and ready for connubium.

The girl would become a woman by natural procedure, but pubescence as emulated of the Great Mother in the Zulu-Kaffir tribes eventually dwindles down to a mystery ceremony, so that their females could produce fearless warriors, and as many as possible to sustain the tribe. The cosmical inception of this ceremony was the preparation of the Great Mother, that she could enter into her Womanhood and begin to produce of mind-expansion and not just brawn and self preservation. Then the sacred Pole was activated and quivering with new life.

This took place with the "girl" by Totemic degrees, and brother and sister inter-from the earth's centre. Then later on it was the prince who became stolen and transformed into the beast; but certainly a margin was left, for the serpent sloughs its skin and could continually become born anew. Therefore the Totem became the original ancestor, the human father who ever gave birth to the man. Then the virgin Goddess Rannut became both maid and mother in the marriage, giving birth to Totemic animals.

These totemic states of worship were no more pagan than the religious images of the present day. Man knew no other way, for it was his mode of comprehending. If we take it in the theory that man today is the man of yesterday, what has the present day man in faith over the primitive of yesterday? None whatever.

Ancient Folklore

THERE were Two Beings that brought forth the Race, and out of those called the Inapertwa creatures, men and women were fashioned by this mode and method. There were six totems in the beginning that were specially born and created to resurrect the "dead" from the great Catastrophe that had beset life, and these corresponded with the six senses. This is Nationwide but under different settings.

- 1 Akakia or Plumtree
- 2 Inquitchika or Grass-seed
- 3 Echunpa or Large Lizard
- 4 Erlwatchera or Small Lizard
- 5 Atninpirichina or Parakeet
- 6 Untaina or Small Rat.

This Australian Myth continues that these Two Beings turned themselves into a lizard and represents the feminine period of fertility that followed. These two represent the two Ancestresses and apart from the human functions through which the Powers work for all creation, this Pole of Totems represents the Cosmical Pole and its six planes of the original Creation being developed.

These imperfect children who were to be given new birth, would now lose their tails that would become their waist-girdle. This still holds strongly with most; but the Egyptian judges wore the tails of the Jackal on their heads which has survived till today, where the Judges in the Law Courts wear the horse tail wig upon their heads. This indicates the cunning of judgement by the one sitting in office and responsible for the law being administered.

The next stage of unfoldment in the mind of the growing world was the wisdom of the Mother Blood, for it referred to the lineage or royalty of the Race; therefore very essential that all should understand more.

Another part of the ancient folklore was the impudent frog who would send every morning and ask all how they felt without their tails, for all frogs had lost their tails from that of the tadpole. But the bear had not lost hers and would shake her sides with laughter at the joke. The frog who represented the one who lived on others was one without guidance, for the tail balances and guides the beast.

The bear was the Cancer growth of germination which the frog was lacking and was feeding on in his idleness. He represented the lunar state well
