THE GORDIAN KNOT

The Great Mystery of Light

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

SIS THE GREAT VIRGIN
Queen of the depths, must now open up her portals to the unfolding glory of Truth, for through the unification brought into birth by Merope, all mysteries are open to the wise. The Scapegoat having removed the Gate from every field of growth, where only those truly seeking 'light' could find an answer to their many earth-born problems. Finally untying the Gordian Knot, the mystery of multiplication, where black and white can both seek for light, to tear away the scales of avidya. Yet here we come to a mystery far beyond the understanding of the soul-majority, the secret of the internal depths of all. For it defines the riddle of the Sphinx in the complications of kama-rupa, the unfolding possibilities of life and Time, to bring forth the glories of Timelessness. Yet in trying to solve the mystery of these depths, they became more heavily enmeshed; thus abided patiently on the Plane of Suffering, until some soul had the courage to measure the intrinsic Road of Relativity, the glory of Unification. For the answer lies in this blended glory, the Bee-line trail of return, where every soul has to pass the forty-nine gods, to meet their scrutinising judgment.

Unfolding the Depths of Truth

FOR Ages man has asked, What is the mystery of life? Why is man a captive in the depths, held by the jailer of Karma? A depth the soul can hardly accept in the modern life of an astute earthy mind, where, by the cunning of practical thought, the soul gets by and opens up an "oil-well" of plenty. Not in the least concerned with soul growth until facing the portals of death; then again, the mystery of life and living baffles his modern mind, blind through the density of avidya. Therefore wise the man who becomes awakened to the immense depths of life, and remembers his vow of the privilege of incarnation. Thus seeks to find the key to life, to find the way to the mysterious Castle Glorious.

THE MYSTICAL RADIANCE OF THE NIGHT

THERE on her mighty pinnacle of light, gazing down from her secrets of glory, stood Isis in all her radiant beauty. Offering unto man the secrets of her Cup, that he could bring forth the mysteries of his unknown internal genius, the secrets of his internal glory. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

Editorial Cathedral Capers

THERE has been a great deal of activity in the Temple this month, with vast amounts of power being drawn in from the outside world and transmuted and raised up as mind light. The two main occasions being at the consecration of the new roman catholic cathedral in Liverpool, and the Cup Final at Wembley Stadium. Man has yet much to learn upon the subject of vibrations, and how one person if they are upon a higher frequency of thought, can capture the gathered powers of any lesser creation.

A great nervous tension was felt within the power coming from those concerned in the Cup Final, but this diminished considerably as soon as the match was started. Mrs. Spearman-Cook was clearly shown in a vision that Tottenham would win, even being given the final score and being told that a goal would be scored in the last few minutes. This vision was given to her in order that she would concentrate her mind upon the team that was going to win and so capture the power that was being built up around them, not only when the match was being played, but afterwards when the whole of the country had their minds centred upon them. We even sent them a telegram by means of encouragement!

The comeback from the other power, however, from Liverpool, was not so easily dealt with; food and sex seemed to be its main consistency, and certainly showed up the inner feelings of the congregation and that devout band of priests who had gathered there especially for the occasion. However, not wishing to appear discourteous or underhanded in the matter of taking their power, we kindly sent them a telegram, at the heights of their celebrations, thanking them for it! (See telegram above). When we first heard of the righteous mumbo-jumbo that was about to take place at the cathedral, we immediately gathered together our forces, and with eager supporters, went forth to flood Liverpool, especially the surrounds of the cathedral, with Occult Gazettes, and thereby established a firm link for the Higher Powers to act upon. When first we saw the cathedral we were amazed at its most unusual shape; in fact, my immediate reaction was to think how similar it looked to an outside garbage disposal unit, but no doubt many of our readers have their own theories as to what its appearance reminds them of; we would be most amused to hear.

Liverpool in the early hours is not a very wonderful sight, especially when viewed through the pouring rain, but with the purpose of our journey firmly in our minds we strode out with happy hearts to deliver the Word into those murky depths. Then when all was finished we returned home, well satisfied with the thought that the task had been well done.

Next Month:

THE SHINING PRESENCE as the Mystery of the Strontium Darkness

I notice that the catholics of Liverpool will have the pleasure of dancing the mass, where "the movement and dancing will have the same directness, the same dramatic quality, strength and seriousness as West Side Story." The thought of seeing the gathered congregation jerking and swaying back and forth in their pews to that heavenly rhythm almost makes one wish that they could be there to witness it. Ah, the wonders and privileges that are being bestowed upon the modern day catholic; verily they are receiving the very pearls of heaven at their feet—or should I say pills of heaven—it really is most confusing these days as they discuss their heavenly creeds and dogmas! We really are waiting most anxiously to hear the pope's

He is only called upon when the church is after more money for its coffers.

But to come back to the danced masses, I have it upon good authority that one roman catholic priest has remarked that "what was meant to be a holy mass will probably just end up as one unholy mess!" And with those words of wisdom I think we all agree.

My own view upon this subject is quite simple—papalism has been leading man up the garden path for so long now, I don't feel that it will do any more harm if instead they lead him a merry dance around their altars!

We also hear of a church in Manhattan where a pop group, The Drunken Lords, were let loose upon the congregation, and serenaded them, to the accompaniment of thumping guitars, with "Our Father who art in heaven." One member of the congregation said afterwards that she thought "anything that drags people into church is okay, don't you?" This, plus reports that communion is being given in Holland to the accompaniment of 'beat' music and jazz, leaves one wondering just how much further verdict upon the contraceptive pill; religion can sink in its desperate efforts to draw people back into its folds.

BUT let us come back to a subject that is having a far more serious effect upon the world, that of the Sodomy Bill and the church's open support of it. Only recently a priest at Westminster Cathedral openly admitted to me that he wholeheartedly supported the Bill, and would be pleased to see it passed. When I asked him how it was that God supported sodomy over the age of 21, but not under, he could not answer, but merely turned away in confusion.

It is an appalling thought that men such as these are continually in contact with young people, and contaminating them with their evil ideas. They are a dangerous menace to the world, and in their openly defiling the purity and divinity of the Holy Fire, are an insult to the God that they claim as their benefactor!

But in the words of an official of a well-known London Theatre, "if you saw the number of priests who wander around Leicester Square late at night, looking for young boys, you would not have to think twice as to why the Sodomy Bill has the official backing of the church." This man was not a reader of the Occult Gazette, and had no axe to grind; he was merely stating a fact, and one that thoroughly disgusted him in its corruption and hypocrisy.

Man has a lot to learn, but the sooner he learns of the evil and filth that is masquerading under the name of religion, the sooner will the world become a cleaner and better place to live in. Let us hope that the inflowing Fires do not take too long in clearing this evil state, once and for all, from the face of the earth, and from the Face of the Great Divinity that is being besmirched by their corruption of His Holy Truth.

Yet little does he know that the answer lies in the secret of the Gordian Knot, which has now been laid bare by the struggles of the Scapegoat Merope, that all can capture the mighty wealth of Infinity, the revolving secret of Continuity, where the glorious City of Vega will spin into being, as the immortal glory of divinity; where the light of the World will never dim but ever be radiant with the glory of the Central Sun, the nucleus of Divinity. The magnitude of the mighty Heavens now unified with the depths, all the planes having been risen-up and unified with the heights, with the Causeway of the Super-luminary Bridge made clear for all who can seek it.

A world of mind coming into birth, and by the glory of super-will, unfolding the depths of truth. The glory of the heavens being the mighty wonders now to be captured, where Earth and Heaven become ONE. All unified into heavenly glory, as a world of Conscious-awareness, where gods and men walk side by side in a world of mind light.

A world of beauty brought back into birth, by the recapturing of soul divinity. For the Gordian Knot began through the inburst of Pure Virgin Fire, that which was sent to infuse and stir the gods into action, to bring forth the internal glories of the mind. The wonders left by previous mighty Worlds and Nations, who left glories completely unknown to man today, but wonders beyond his modern egotistical belief.

Then as the gods received of the Fire, they sent it all awry, turning the glorious infinity of atomic beauty into a tangled mass of mind darkness. With Isis, the divine Power of the mighty Unseen Beginning, forming Veils to hide the wealth that she created, and now lost in the depths of avidya.

Then when soul began seeking into these mighty depths, they turned them into yet deeper distortion, forming a complete Gordian Knot. With Isis having brought forth seven Veils in correspondence with the seven bodies which the soul had now brought into birth. Therefore, the secret of freedom back to divine immortality lies between Isis and man, where he must now wrestle with the polarity of Woman, the mighty immense glory of Reality.

Thus capture and master the world of Outer Space, and to do so, must lift up the Veils of Isis by gyroscopic expansion; thereby piercing the tail of the Scorpion by the arrow of truth; the Bull plowing and mastering the electro-magnetic, and capturing the depths of the Seed. These being the mysteries that man created in endeavouring to raise himself up, to climb out of the darkness of matter.

Then by interpenetrating their mighty depths, he unifies past and present,—the heavenly glories and the mystical Harlot, now the unfolded Isis,—and gets behind her seven veils, solving the mystery of the heavens. Hence it is of these mysteries we seek to understand and master, to perceive the glory of the Seed, that man sinks no further into the depths and completely takes on the garb of the beast. For Merope as a Goddess, has descended down to lead and guide the soul to bring it back to the fold.

Soul-life being the gods of the Starry heights sent forth to master the depths, thus create a Kingdom of Tangible life, that that which came forth on the Planes of Belief, could now manifest as tangible mind light. Not concrete blocks of solid obstruction, but dancing Rays of Glory, where God is manifest as Holy Light, in every turn of Prismic beauty, and communicates his glory to man.

Therefore, in being brought back onto the true Plane of Earth, man can now begin the accomplishment of the Great Work, bringing into birth mighty wonders divine; genius born out of his union with the heavens, his natural glory of affinity. For as man so defines, expands and glorifies, will he reburnish the mystical starry heights, and transform and glorify the mighty depths, bringing forth the FACE of Divinity in the mighty and dynamic Work of Redemption.

FOR ALL ARE BUT THE CHANGING AND PASSING CLOUDS OF TIME AND EXPANSION, THAT COME TODAY AND ARE GONE TOMORROW, AND ARE BUT THE FLEETING THOUGHTS AND GLORIES OF HUMAN SOUL EXPANSION.

Solidified earth is but the prison created by man in his loss of sensitivity; merely flesh without the glory of the spirit; that buried under his load of earth possessions. Thus mind via renunciation is what we are really seeking; glory created through struggle and suffering, and the density of desire. So, to the intricacies of the intensity of Time, to begin the untying of the Gordian Knot. Therefore, the secret of this enquiry lies in soul understanding the journey of becoming, and the intangible truth of manifestation.

It not being a creature of physical means, but a created glory of the heavens, a son of divinity, a glorified radiance of light, with mind to define of its beauty. A god-creation to become an awareness of consciousness that reaches from depths to heights. For in the whole conception of Creation, it is the mighty dance of a glorious ariel flight of the Bees from the Heights, the buzzing rolling elements in an ariel flight of ascension.

Round and round, in and out, like a bird on the wing, yet walking and dancing on two legs like a stately being, wearing the Robe of light. That which soul masters as he creates in that flight, as he overcomes the intensity of frequency. For as he spins round and round, and rises higher and higher, interpenetrating realm after realm by his risen frequency, does he lift those Veils of Isis. For Merope solved the mysteries, leaving the Road clear for every soul to renounce the flesh, and go forth in his soul creation.

Each soul ready for this dynamic journey by involving the joys of the beast; for while possessions and desires claim his attention, his heart is still with the lunar glories of the depths. Yet is he not being fed on the purest of glory, the Hydrogen Waters of a Pure mountain Stream where the Holy Rays of the Central Sun kiss and bless ere it departs, that man is unified with the fulness of the Heights!

The Gestation of Light

THE inflowing glories running down over the period of Time, that man must raise up as the divinity of the Word and the heavenly beauties of the mind. Waters like a salmon seeking to find his lost spawning ground, the radiance of the heights. Therefore, could such glories and possibilities be defined more clearly, yet more simply in their divine reception as glories from the heights.

FOR ALL APPERTAINING TO SPIRIT IS SIMPLICITY; THE GLORY OF TRUTH IN THE GORDIAN KNOT BEING UNTIED, REVEALING THE ROAD OF BEAUTY AND DIVINITY. THE SOUL DISCARDING THE DEPTHS AND SEEKING THE HEIGHTS; FOR AVIDYA IS A CLOAK THAT MAN ASSUMES TO KEEP HOLD OF EARTHLY POSSESSIONS.

For while he is blind he holds to ignorance, claiming its tangibility, believing he is free, and ever seeking for wisdom to achieve its mighty depths. Never realising in his blindness, that this eventually is the way that soul gets behind those Veils, and journeys back up the Road of Freedom.

Not amassing a rock or dungeon full of red raw fire that spits and burns and fights in fury, but awakens to his dilemma and starts to transmute into divine fiery light of a glorious mind expansion. Giving unto soul the ariel glory of freedom from mortifying flesh and bones, and the stupidity of mighty lengths of figures, in rows and rows of columns. All being transported into etherialised glory, the heavenly divinity of Neptune.

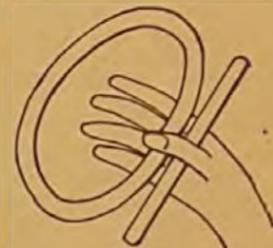

tery of infinity. The mighty depths of the Egyptian Arcana symbol, the circular re-entrant of time, but now with the mighty fulness of creation the glory of immortality.

A complete state of unity with the Heavenly Powers while upon the earth; the unification of the two EL Powers becoming as the complete revolving of the Prism, to now blend with the divine thoughts of man. Thereby to enter into the glory of the Gordian intensification, and feed the cellular structure of the soul with the glory of life united into one, by the gyroscopic rise up into the wonders of the heights. The mighty inflow that only became as multiple globules of flesh, in the descent of the gods into matter.

Thus here we begin to reveal the mystery of the great work as Shen=10,000,000, unified into infinity where the soul is unified with the "Source of the Nile," the mighty Eridanus

It was this dynamic completion of power that the mighty Pharaohs struggled to obtain, which made them into gods. For it represents Shamash, the supreme heavens-god; that of Kronos now completely transformed from a god of earth, into the risen-up divinity of the Central Sun.

This mighty wisdom being accepted belief as far back as the glories of Babylon, then seen in the symbol of an extended right hand holding a rod, the mighty power of a Ran; the glories of the cartouche or name of the Egyptian, that continuity of the Stream would remain long after their journey in matter. But Merope had a far greater task to complete; the union of the whole of the Isotope. Not one element that gave a soul power, but making it the Cosmic Infinity of all time; that having comparability with the Ankh as the circle and the rod becoming as complete stability.

The whole twelve-spoked wheel making all completely True, revolving up and down, and round and round the heavens. In it abide 720 human-born element creations in pairs=1440, as all the "nails of the ship" in the decanates of the signs, 30x12=360 in the positive and negative action=720.

The soul completely secured in the unified oneness of Solar unification, that at no time can

The soul who, in untying the Gordian Knot, builds up the mystery of Jack and the Beanstalk, with Polyphemus as unto the beast in the soul being transformed into the god divinity of immortality. This he does by the feeding of the queen with honey, and the soul risen up from the pit to the pituitary, and becoming immortalised. But in the heavenly Galactical creation, the mighty Beast before the Throne; the glory of the meninges as the mind-created conception of the human belief.

The mysterious wisdom of Cain and Abel, and the soul who by subtle subterfuge, (See plate on this page) taking L.S.D. pills and stealing from the coffers of the heights. Therefore becomes as Ali Baba and the forty thieves, where Cassim as their leader is caught in the treasury and sabred; not by his brother, but by the wealth he looked upon and cannot carry, it being beyond his power to assimilate. For he needs the honey of the Bees, which he is not capable of accepting, although open to its frequency.

Thus no frogs or lizards can steal the wealth of a soul truly infinity-born; but such a soul, if they turn back upon themselves, will result in a Dorian Grey. By such, Mercury became as the Fallen Fire, and continued racing round and round after the Solar light in a state of agging preponderancy. But now, in its recreated glory, the Divine Begotten as the Sonship of the Fatherhood, with Mercury as the Messenger of the Gods, following the risen up Mind Light.

THE FULLY TRANSMUTED FIRE OF HELIOPOLIS-LEO, AS THE FULLY CREATED MAN, THE SON OF THE DIVINE CREATOR; THE GLORIOUS FLAME OF THE HEAVENS. THE AQUARIAN GLORY OF ATOMIC DIVINITY OF ATOMIC MANIFESTATION AS THE ROYAL DIVINE MAGNITUDE OF HEAVENLY UNFOLDMENT.

Therefore the Bees as the Stars of the Heavens, are the Heavenly contingency of Thought ever being sent down to the Earth, as Streams of living possibility. Causes to become as unfolded causation, to give unto man the where-withal to expand both wonders of life.

The unfolding of the Abyss into an expanded World of Light, and the Heavens as a radiant Glory of the heaven-born divinity of the Gods. The ever revolving of the Galactical Infinity that feeds the infinity in man; that he by his reception gives the Gods light, receiving Life in return for his labours. Then when complete in his unfoldment, returns to his domain, which becomes a miniature world in its unfolded glory of creation.

All being LIGHT and THOUGHT manifestation, the ever moving beauty of unfolding Divinity. The whole World the glory of the manifesting Macroprosopus, the Great FACE of All that IS; the whole Divinity of LIFE. The expanded Kingdom of Grace, the Eucharistical manifestation of the Divine Effulgence, the Glory of the Great Work, the divinity of the Aquarian Age.

Therefore man, through that Grace becomes as a Solarised human counterpart of HIS Illustrious Glory. All brought unto him by the interaction of the Bees, the Element glory of the Gods, the mind creation of the heavens. While as soul, man is ever fighting his earth basis of internal growth, activated by the heavenly in-birth; that which ever springs forth as the sons of Kronos rebirth.

THE CHILDREN THAT SATURN IS EVER SEEKING TO DEVOUR, UNTIL SOUL TRANSMUTES HIM INTO THE SOLAR GLORY, AND GIVES BIRTH TO HEAVENLY CREATION OF DIVINE DISCRIMINATIVE WISDOM. THAT BORN FROM THE HEAVENLY HEIGHTS, AS THE GLORY OF OUTER-WORLD SPACE OF DIVINE MYSTERY.

The Unfolding Mind Sensitivity

The birth of the Bees was ever seen by the ancients as the fleur-de-lis, the triple glory of pure rebirth; which in reality is the triune glory of manifested Fire, as the holy glory of mind perception. That which becomes in its grand finale on earth, as the 'drip' of the human heart-beat. The magnitude of divine Truth, symbolised as LOVE in the pure inward creation of soul divinity. Often seen as a sistrum in the hands of a goddess, or the trident of Neptune as he rides upon the waters on a Hippocampus.

The trisula given birth by the continual inflow of the Starry Fire, as the sceptre glory of Power. The radiant light of the created mind, which radiates its auric beauty as attraction and repulsion. That which the

But at the present that of Jemshid's cup that he must drink, to obtain the wisdom of (See plate on page 3)

the heavens. Thus round the hill three times, wither-shins, as a contrary direction to the Sun. Reverse to the way that he came down, ever believing in each round that he had found the mighty answer he was seeking. Thereby he would cry out "Open Sesame," but will not master until he can capture and extract the wealth out of the Seed. Yet as he has been striving to capture the wealth, he has also been capturing the frequency of the Bees and feeding the queen with the honey.

The capturing of the Heavenly Powers as the wealth of the green lion,—that which becomes through the instant changing of metabolism in the mystery of the soul,—in the liver and the ever-changing gall. The basic of the venom of the spinal fluid that drips onto the nest of eggs in the pituitary.

Yet all resists until the final ring is mastered, where the soul captures the Solar point, out of the Seed embalmed by the honey of the Bees. Then when the seeker gets into the treasury, he finds a great hall with a diamond keystone to the arch above. From this hangs a massive golden chain, the mysterious unity of past and present drawing forth the yet unknown; that which has to be yet expressed of the great mystery of the Heights.

That which the Arab Sheiks once set into birth by the sheer necessity of living, yet set the wonders to the 'key of life' and opened up the Bee-line trail, the secret of return. Thus declares of the mystery of the soul devouring a camel each day before the Sun has risen, and seen upon the horizon. That only obtained through the glory of service, and not for the mere glory of the soul, in the agging brought forth through the solar in-birth of the new-born Solar rise. Thereby giving unto the heavens, that he can glorify and bring divinity into birth.

Yet the secret now to be revealed, is the union between the sixth and the seventh, where a mysterious bridge is created between the pituitary and the pineal, through the sparking glory of the dapple-grey stallion, on the rock of secret measures. The mysterious gland of the sixth, holding more than one secret in its ancient depths. The queen's chamber that opens up the way to the king's chamber, with its uncovered top to the mystical heavens.

Even betraying why the mysterious tonsure, or bald-headed creation of many a depths by the mind action of the soul, creating and cooking a sumptuous meal to feed all the poor and needy. Service and service only, being the key to achieving all.

The Mystery of Divine Service

So as Sir Mantlock manned his horse, he strapped the accoutrement necessary for the journey tightly to its withers, and sought to travel up to the heights. Then mounted the heavily laden steed, and rode forth up the Hill of Glory, that he could find that mysterious Super-bridge which took him into worlds unknown. On the way he met an old woman who could not get across a stream, so Mantlock dismounted and carried across what appeared a bundle of rags.

When he placed her down on the other side, he found what appeared to be a ragged bundle to be a woman of much younger years, clad in a dark blue cloak. On her arm she was carrying a bucket, the lid of which she opened and gave to Mantlock a little parcel, which she said contained a small meal in need. First of all he was about to refuse it, then took it out of politeness, putting it into the pouch hanging by his side, to dispose to the first beggar he met.

Once again he mounted his horse and rode until he came to the Castle Glorious, and as he did so his task was to find the bridge that he could span that bottomless moat and reach his mysterious objective. Thus for the time he dismounted and rested on a nearby bank, falling into a restful sleep to prepare himself for his final onslaught.

As he slept he was coached by many an instruction, the major being the means and method of his approach. Was it of the heart, or merely for personal gain which would wreck his plan straight away! Yet this still lay before him as a secret to be exposed, as he met each pervading task; each one being an initiation, a preliminary to the next step.

As Mantlock awoke, more determined than ever, he saddled his horse, tightened up the stirrup strap, and mounted ready to set forth. His task now was, by his internal desire, to be led to the Bridge of Approach. Thus he rode merrily by his horse-sense, until there before him was a slender bridge which would barely take horse and rider, requiring a steady hoof and firm control to make the journey across. So with care and precision he stepped onto its fragile structure, yet was amazed when he rode along, how strong and steady was its response.

With care he reached the other side, and there before him stood his objective, a mighty Castle with turrets and minarets reaching right up to the sky. A creation only seen in picture books of a child-like mind; queer twisted chimneys that appeared just like corkscrews, sending forth smoke as though seeking to pierce right through the sky. Standing there in its own grounds with lawns that were neatly trimmed, with cupolas holding trailing plants, and ponds filled with multitudes of fish, scattered everywhere.

Its latticed windows were Gothic in shape, with balconies arranged so that one could step forth and look up to the glorious sky; while at the back of the gardens were stables fitted and prepared for the very best of horses, and room enough to hold a large coach and chariot for two.

Mantlock looked on in utter amazement at such a perfect creation, then rode right up to the portals of the Castle, all alight and active but not full of dancing radiation, for there soul must ever expand, to compete with the unfolding Prismic radiance, now feeding the lives of all men. The Virgin Fire open to all who are ready, as the royal glory of the kings. The heavenly Waters of holy divinity, which feed the soul with the majesty of light.

Yet hard the day of him who steals from the coffers of the heights, for only by unfolding the sensitivity, which acquires the glory of the frequency, can the soul gather of this mighty wisdom. For the soul comes not to a Dark Tower, but to a round green hill surrounded with rings from the bottom to the top. And would be the mastery of Saturn to be acquired, with the dark tower being the Pineal Chakra still not alight, yet to become eventually through the glory of the Hydrogen Waters, the golden glory of Vega.

holding a dynamic lamp of one huge hollowed-out transparent pearl, inside which, by magic power, continually turns a large carbuncle like the setting sun.

All the mighty glories gathered from his fall into the watery deep, now by his struggles, the wealth and glory of the mind. Showing the mystery of life and its prevarications; what appears and is for the time a disaster that holds all the wealth which could have risen parasangs high.

Yet here is where will and super-will, become the clue and key to untying the Gordian Knot. Thereby setting the infinity revolving, with the soul having opened up the super-luminary bridge, and now being able to draw from its mighty wonders. For the linking between the two worlds, is long forgotten Sheik, still lingers in the depths. Wealth and wonders gathered from the past that, in their polarity, could fly up to the heights through that bridge created long ago. For here is where the stanchion is set up, the mysterious pylon to the heavens, that by its flickering light as its radiating beam in the crow's nest tower, the soul can watch and gather of the fleeting clouds, full of bursting mystery.

That awaiting a soul in the depths, ready to gather and pollinate into new-born life; yet the mighty mystery of his polarised roots which, in unification and rebirth, will feed the earth with new life. Thus bring the honey down from the Vega heights to transmute the Abyss into radiant light, by the stimulating wonders to be achieved. Electrifying the

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This lecture was delivered by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook on Wed. the 13th April, 1967, under the direction and control of the Lord Mantevo, the Lord of the Flame.

...PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL...

TONIGHT is an important night in the earthing of Wisdom which is going to have a collective and whole effect upon all of the Cosmos. For it is what happens through, by, and in the Scapegoat, that all is controlled; as certain elements and bodies are adjusted, and become brought into active motion, we then are able to act. That which we have been waiting for has been fulfilled; it entirely depended upon the action of the Scapegoat; either it became fulfilled and went on in its right direction, or all fell to the ground. This is where, in the past, many things have taken place that have been a failure, for then the Scapegoat, Sage or Prophet, never went any further than a certain point. This Scapegoat is prepared to give all, without stopping, and consequently it has given us a leeway that we had never hoped for.

I COME to earth this Dynamic Truth. Any thwarting of the Powers I bring will be to the soul's own detriment, for this is the balancing of the Cosmos, which is in a very bad state of unbalance.

The inertia has been broken up, the righteousness of religion has been smashed, and the self-deceit of those who are working for a personal state is now being up-rooted, as you will realise by the fall of many a so-called limited company.

But a great deal more is in action,—those of a twisted mind and open to murderous states are coming out with them and committing murders, and are being caught. For that is what happens when a soul twists their mind to such a degree internally; they finally end up with committing murder.

So what was earthed publicly on the Television has now become an established fact. (See O.G. June 1966).

Now I am going to bring you a series of Plates.

I want you to look very carefully at this, and you will see that you have seven bodies here which link with the seven elements.

(See diagram below)

Every man is a skin, and a skin only, holding these seven elements, distorted or balanced, and nothing more. He is just a bag of elements which he has stolen, and unless he has built a mind-body of comprehension, he is a thief.

It is only when man brings these elements which he has stolen for power, into a mind-light, that he becomes the Man: until then he is a 'beast with elements,' and nothing more. And the sooner man sees this the better, for he will then have the answer to his problems.

This is the New World Astrology. These elements, placed as they are in your Chart, depict to you the discordant, unbalanced, or balanced state of your inner being.

Up to a certain period only Jupiter was ever registered, and is all that Roman Catholicism ever registered; that of Jupiter. The higher elements are not given voice, because they are of the Spirit, and you cannot have the Spirit registering until the lower are balanced.

This has gone on, bringing disease and disorder into the World of such a chaotic state and to such an immensity, that it is now bringing into the World children of a disfigured state, and this has only just started.

If man continues in the way he is doing, a time will come when there will never be a child born with a perfect body; every one will be more or less a Thalidomide child, because man is getting into a disfigured and distorted state by his illusion and lies; lies to justify himself,—how wonderful he is, how wonderful he has been,—when he really is the biggest thief out.

WHEN A MAN IS TRUTHFUL, WHEN A MAN IS BALANCED, HE SPEAKS TRUTH, HE SPEAKS WISDOM, AND HE DOES NOT HAVE TO JUSTIFY HIMSELF; HIS SPOKEN WORD IS HIS JUSTIFICATION.

We have been waiting for this complete fulfilment in the Scapegoat. It was not until the Wisdom—taken right up to the Neptunian plane and on the highest point possible—had percolated completely through the whole of these bodies, and could be seen by the conscious awareness, that we could then get down to action; because this then gave her the Infinity.

That is the Infinity, because truth and balance is now going through the whole seven bodies; and Infinity is Perfection. She could not possibly get it until she was able to see, by her own state of awareness, of what was taking place. It is not all this fantastic business which so many of you would like to put it to. It is simple; so simple that you cannot perceive it.

These seven bodies are the inner seven bodies of the soul that have to be put into operation because of man taking on an earthy state, when he gradually sank lower and lower. In the beginning, on the Neptunian plane as the original EL Powers, he was being fed direct by the Root; he was being fed by the direct Source, but as he slipped down the scale he lost that contact.

He had to build it up in his mind as conscious awareness, so that when he reached the Neptunian plane once again by a state of awareness, he was able to join the two together and he was the 'serpent swallowing its own tail'; because that was his 'infinity.'

Now when souls lie, cheat, and distort to suit their own ends and to justify themselves, then what effect do you think it is going to have upon them? It is going to bring distortion to these bodies, is it not?

This is where you get your 'squares' in your chart. Your 'oppositions' would indicate where an awareness has got to be made known. But anything of a discordant state is where it has to be righted.

The biggest test for my Instrument was when she met 'Mars opposition Saturn,' and she was warned, "If you take this on, it is going to bring difficulties for you"; but she did not stop, she went on.

Yes; it has brought difficulties, but she has given the whole of her being to the Cosmos, because she realises that everything she has is of the Cosmos, and she cannot live unless she is of the Cosmos.

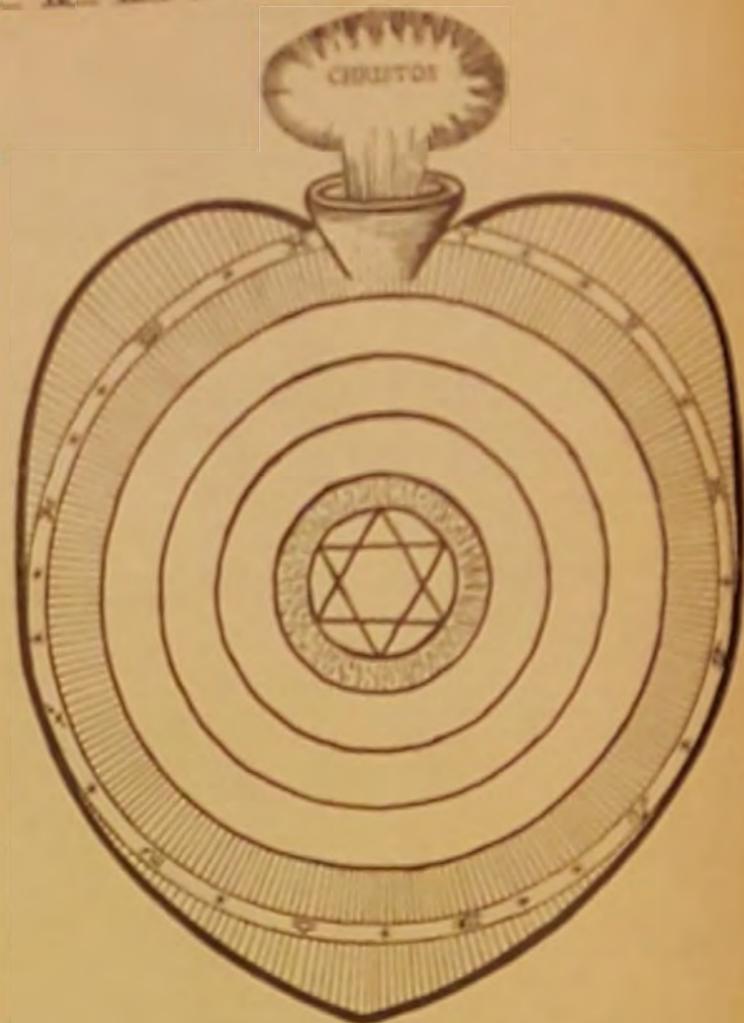

Earth won't feed you; earth won't balance you. Lying and cheating won't balance you, neither will statements that you are trying to give over to justify yourself.

UNLESS YOU ARE FAITHFUL AND HONEST, AND TRUTHFUL TO YOURSELF, THESE BODIES ARE GOING TO BE COMPLETELY DISTORTED. NOW THAT IS LOGICAL, IS IT NOT?

NOW these inner bodies are linking with the heart.

You have now got to bring this into manifestation by the Inflow of the Divine Breath as the Christos Inflow. You have got to receive the Divine Breath, and this will now be the 'drip' of the heart which will co-ordinate with the 'bodies'; one blends with the other, because the bloodstream will then be balanced.

THE HEART

(See text in col. 4)

There should be seven rings for the heart, which link with the seven bodies.

This organ holds the 'seed', the 'drip' of your justification. You may lie,—which so many do, to cover themselves,—and for the moment their 'bodies' are having to take it, and cover it up. But they cannot do this indefinitely, as a time will come when the discordant state between the two is going to result in such things as polio, in an iron lung, and many other of these drastic states which are causing the soul to be felled down and made to face himself. Let me give you an example of this.

The Instrument was already a balanced creation, ready for the Task, and three souls were allotted to her, to become her offspring. One was to become the 'Mind' to help her, but he would not do so; he went his own way and tuberculosis set in at once.

I want you to see these Elements as Powers. For thousands of years man has been drawing them down: in the first place he became aware, as a fallen soul, that he wanted these Powers, and he started to pull them down. Man never loses his inner consciousness of knowing; that is the point. I want you to realise that; he never really ever loses his inner consciousness of knowing, which is a subconscious state of 'light,' because 'light' is the Real state of Mind-unfoldment. It is not just Word; it is the 'light.'

Well, man pulled these Elements down willy nilly, and filled himself with these Powers, and he brought about chaotic states that have gone on ever since, for thousands of years. We had to wait until 'Relativity,' when there was a 'returning'; then all we wanted was the Scapegoat. This, for thousands of years, had been arranged. Time means nothing to us, as it does to you. A year or a period is but a 'flash' to us.

Now these Elements are taken by the soul, and he goes on taking them, but as knowledge. But once he has started, he must go on taking them, because he needs the 'tail-end' to get them balanced, does he not? That is what he is after, but he won't get them balanced unless he turns to Wisdom, and by his conscious mind works all this out, and says "Ah, I can see what it means!" Then he has the result. Until he does that, these Elements are within the soul as a 'bag of power.'

Now let us look at the next plate.

THIS is where souls have gone down to the basic of themselves, because they have brought themselves to a full Female-Capricorn state, which is of course, the top of the mount; but they will not go any further, so they merely become 'harpic' states. They have got to transmute themselves into Mind-light, otherwise they become withered and distorted. They must bring the 'Flame' into birth by awareness and acceptance; letting-go of earthy states and personal states. That is the difficulty with the conscious-awareness, the personal recognition. While you attribute everything to a personal state, you are blinding and shutting yourself up in a false state of darkness.

(See plate on page 7)

Everything has first to reach a female state, but to become perfected it has to become the male state, because it then becomes the Divine Fire. It is most important that you follow this. The main incident that now takes place,—and I am talking to you now on a wide scale,—is where the soul brings everything, by stealing, to a dynamic point, as the Female Capricorn, a Female Goat; and is unable to bring the Goat into a 'Flame' or bring forth the Lamb; because the Lamb is the Christos-state, the Christ-state of Solar-light. It comes to nothing more than a Female-Capricorn.

What it really means, is that they have become so bloated and so glutted with 'raw fire' that they now can only maniair negative state, and result.

what took place when down into the Cancer all became rotted, all in a twisted state, but a debauched state. And what happens to a soul, whether they are Virgo's, or anything else,— they do not bring this point to perfection as one. It merely becomes a male-Capricorn, merely a tation in the base of the s.

Now I want you to study diagram very carefully.

THERE is the 'upper arc' which the soul tries to bring into birth, by the raising up of their mind; meaning that they are now raising up the spirit in that Capricorn state, and they have got to make that spirit manifest as the superior state in that Capricorn, which is the 'trium of earth.' This means that it is blended with the earth, and the earth has now become a royal manifestation.

The 'lower arc' is the drop, the reverse in the South. You will see there the North and the South, because you must have the 'polarity.' In the base of the diagram you see a 'black ball,' which represents the 'wealth' as the soul takes it. He slowly has to raise this up by awareness; not going on taking the wisdom and remaining as the 'black ball,' declaring how much he knows, when he doesn't know anything. He thinks he knows, but you ask him, and he will not know what it means at all!

But the soul who struggles to understand what the Wisdom means, and builds his mind-body as 'light' out of what he has taken, climbs that 'line' which you see in the diagram. As the soul does this, he cannot help but bring the 'polarity' into birth, which is the corner-stone of his 'arc,' (shown at the top of the diagram).

That is the building-up of the spirit, the 'shining,' and as the soul climbs, he is building that inner-state which you see there as a Star; and that is the Vega manifestation of Mind. That is the New World of Light which is coming into birth through the 'polarity' marrying-up.

This is what the soul is bringing into birth as the androgynous state, otherwise he remains as that 'black ball.' He remains a glutton state, not only of inertia, but he is living down in the labyrinth.

WHAT THE SOUL HAS TO DO, IS BUILD UP THE CHRISTOS-LIGHT OR SOLAR-BEING, WHICH, OF COURSE, IS MANIFESTING IN THAT CENTRE RADIANCE.

Now that 'black ball' which you saw would represent the 'strontium' state of the soul, the 'fall-out' of a soul. Not only what was gathered by the scientist, who has played his part, but the strontium of the soul, his inertia; his states that have become black and cold.

Now let us turn to the next plate.

THIS shows you how the Christos-power has gone down amongst all these creations and is in what you would call a 'protective egg'; he has gone down to 'touch off' all those states that are in a discordant creation, to try and bring them to 'light.' He has gone down to take the Fire into the depths.

All has got to be raised up by the soul, and if it is not raised up, this is the state the soul is in; complete chaos.

Now that is what you find in souls who commit murders, and carry out all kinds of chaotic states outside; those that are walking around in their so-called Neptunian glory, which is nothing more than a Saturn state. They are not Neptunian at all; they are distorted, and all those creations you are seeing at the present moment are just a complete fulfilment of the 'discordant state of the bodies.'

So there has to be a Scapegoat, ever being changed and being used in the way we are able to use this one, by the trance manifestation. If we could not use the trance manifestation, it would be a very sad moment, because the full manifestation would not be registered. But we are able to speak direct, and this is where 'the Lord speaks through the mouth of His Son.'

A stage has been reached now where all is going to be made manifest. Man is going to be made to stand up to 'justifying in a true light'; he is going to be balanced; he is going to be brought now to an androgynous state by thought, because the whole of the Elements now are entering into him; and he is receiving more than that! Man is receiving the Holy Fire, but as to how much he can take it as the Holy Fire is another matter. Yet it does not alter the fact that he is partaking of it.

Now let us look again at the plate showing the 'seven bodies'; that which the soul is seeking to bring to a glorified state. Now we will endeavour to see what he is going to do with them, and subconsciously, what he will do when he then becomes guided by a heart-purpose. This is the point.

You cannot enter into these Occult Schools, this wider Teaching, this wider approach, unless you find a heart-purpose. Nothing must be done without this. What are YOU doing for? Are you doing it for self, or are you doing it to become 'an assistant to the Great Cosmos?'

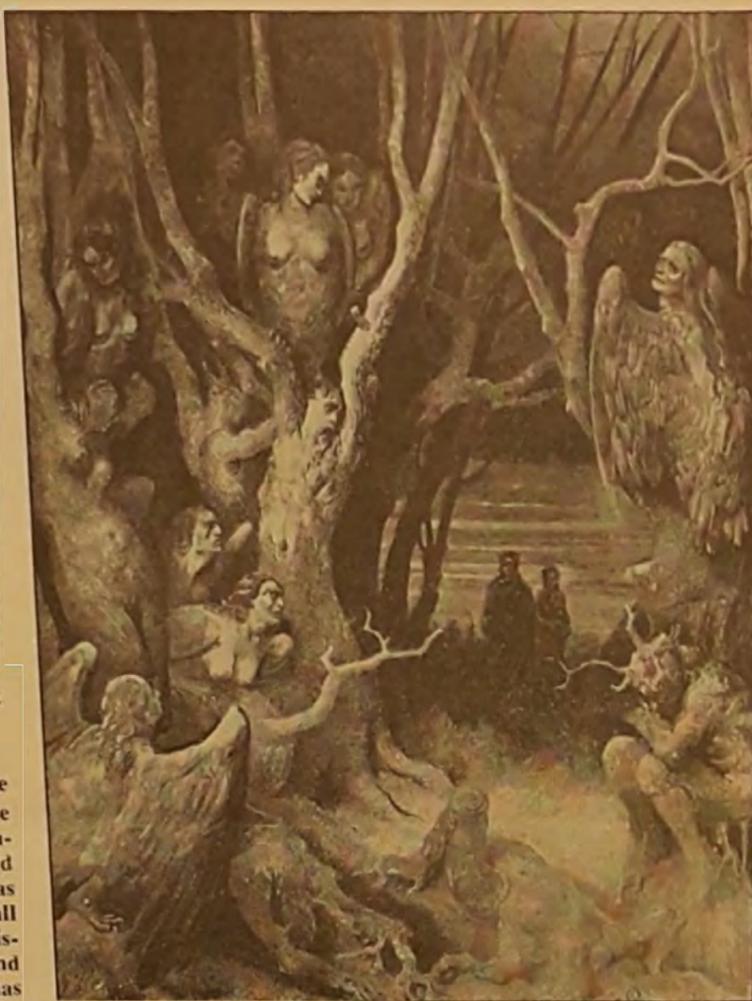

That is what you have to ask yourself. If you are only doing it for 'self,' then rue the day. If you are doing it with a heart-purpose,—because to a certain degree you have opened-up, and you realise the true urgency of it, and the Christos-light is beginning to manifest within you as 'Passion,' the Divine Passion,—then you know the Journey you are making, and this will be a reliable 'prop' all the way through.

You want to fulfill the Glory of the Cosmic Plan, because you know the World has not been built just for you, or the Race, but for the continuation of the 'Seed.' It has all to be done for the 'Glory of the Divine Seed'; and that is something which man can only understand in the real intrinsic depth within his own being.

Many of the difficulties which you face along the Road, that offend the 'beast' and which he is apt to enforce before he is completely overcome, you within your heart accept, with the full hope of the ultimate diminishing of the beast. But you know that you cannot dispense with, or break down anything, unless there is something to replace and build-up a greater state; and so there has to be a gradual change.

I know I am touching upon a point with one or two of you here, but I had to come tonight because it was my mission. No! I am not THE FLAME, I AM THE LORD MAITREYA, and I had to come tonight to establish facts that are now going to be made manifest, so that every man is truly warned;

THE GRAEAE STATES

(See text on page 6, col. 5)

was mystery over-shadowing its glory, which subconsciously Mantlock had come to clear. As he rang the mighty bell hanging by the side of the massive oak doors, they swung open as though he was expected by someone in the immediate precincts, who was awaiting his presence.

As he descended from his horse he tethered it to a pillar that had been curiously created by a previous seeker of that mysterious treasure. Then with a further action of his mind, which belied his innermost feelings, he entered those massive doors, and although his tread was sure and firm, as his spurs clanked upon the ground his knees shook and his heart fluttered and missed a beat, for he felt the mystery of the moment.

As he entered he found himself in a mighty hall, in the centre of which was perched a trembling naked maid to a pillar that reached right up to the ceiling heights; heavily chained to its broad girth, with barely room for movement to breathe, while lying there before her gaze, was a mighty big-jawed crocodile. A creature ready to snap up its victim the moment she became free. How to reach her by getting past the beast, was the secret of the moment.

To face with such a well provided and massive creature, covered with a thick scaly coat, was entirely out of the question, for Mantlock knew that to strike at its head would bring a severe blow from its mighty barbed tail. So to entice it out of its lair by some subtle action, was his only possibility. Thereby causing him to remember the food he had been given by the old woman he had met on the journey here.

The Knighthood of the Soul

AS he fumbled in his pouch and drew forth the morsel, it doubled its original size and weight, as though meeting the special occasion. With Mantlock marvelling more and more at the mysteries he now was unravelling, he threw the parcel as it was, to a distance away from the massive beast, hoping it would be enticed to leave the feet of the petrified maid, but it was far too drowsy for the moment and merely blinked an eye. So Mantlock picked up the parcel and undid its wrappings, to bring forth the tasty contents.

It was a haunch of meat very well cooked, which would have fed more than one; so approaching with due care and timid caution, Mantlock sidled up to the sleepy beast, dangli-ing the meat on the end of his sword. As he did so, the creature caught the smell of the tasty bait, whereby Mantlock threw it far afield for the beast to go and fetch it. This it did, whereupon Mantlock rushed to hack away the chains of the naked maid fastened to the pillar.

As the beast ambled across to eat the well provided meal, it roared and growled as crocodiles do when seeking of their prey; then with a snap of its enormous jaws, it grasped the meal of meat, and ere it had gone very far in devouring this tasty morsel, it gave one mighty bellow and rolled onto its back. The crocodile had passed on to states unknown.

A meal provided for a crocodile, was indeed a mortuary meal. So with hurried action Mantlock hacked away the chains, then released the cape from his shoulders, to wrap around the trembling maid. As he did so, there came forth a tremendous roar and there entered a mighty one-eyed creature, indeed a Polyphemus. A creature that trebled Mantlock's height and four times his girth, with hair covering every visible part of his body, making him a terrifying sight.

The warrior drew forth his sword, which he suddenly realised was useless with such a mighty foe. Then the maid, strengthened by her release and the spurring intent of the warrior who had come to her aid, ripped off the buckle from the cloak, and with a sure and steady aim, sent it spinning into the face of the roaring giant, making sure of her aim, for the piercing prong that fastened it to the cloak, penetrated straight into his one eye, blinding him completely. Then Mantlock with his trusty sword, cut away the giant's legs from underneath him, bringing him to the ground; then ran him through and through until he gave a last gasp, rolling with a thud full-length on the ground.

For like all beings who are big and blustering, he had no balance or control; an abraxos who loudly declared of how important he was, when really he was no more than the negative creation of the soul's ego awaiting true birth. Yet a soul with untold wealth who was needing true expansion to open up the royalty of his past god-creation. Thus quickly Mantlock, the hero of the unfolding divinity, led away the maid, and together they mounted the horse and rode away, to hear a fanfare of trumpets being sounded from the turrets of the Castle Glorious.

At the same time a mighty yellow flag of a Winged Eagle was being hauled up to the heights of its sturdy flag-staff, with sparks flickering from its top going right up into the cloudy heights.

As Mantlock gazed back, he perceived that the Castle was greater than ever, and the bridge that was but a slender structure, was now a firmly created connection between one side and the other. As they rode back, the Sun shone gloriously, with butterflies and bees dancing from flower to flower. Deer peered out from the density of the wood that they were passing through. Birds sang and golden eagles flew high up into the sky, while rabbits more bold than ever, strayed further into view.

Fields rich with fodder were feeding cattle in abundance, they who would be the means of giving forth of their wealth unto the people. A more luxuriant herbage could not be found as remedies for the sick. All set into motion by Mantlock's service to the stranded maid; WOMAN released and duly emancipated by the man-hood she had given birth to, at the beginning of time.

THUS HERE WAS THE CHIVALRY OF THE HYDROGEN-VIRGIN FIRE, AS THE KNIGHTHOOD OF THE SOUL, THE ARIAN GLORY OF REBIRTH, THE WONDER OF VEGA DIVINITY NOW COMING INTO BIRTH.

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 26th February, 1967, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun.

Reminiscences

born, bringing his internal mind body into birth. That when he leaves the earth, he can sail up to higher planes of outer space creation, and get back home; all others are astral planes down in the depths of darkness.

The Maelstrom Threshold

A broadminded scientist once declared that they really know nothing, they merely calculate, believing that they are right; but they really are not aware of any proven fact. This comes back to my points in this Reminiscence, that an idea, when believed and established, becomes a living creation, especially when created on the Solar propensity.

So with the understanding that the incoming Prism is the Solar, and the outgoing is the lunar, we will see how all, instead of becoming unified as mind light of intelligence in the soul alchemicalisation, has become as astral light. For the moon is the auric radiance of the Earth shining on the maelstrom, and is like a rainbow, you go to meet it and you never find it.

It is a well known fact that 90 miles up in Space there is intense blackness, where no stars, moon or Sun are seen. Only the light of the Earth is radiating. Those returning from spirit as entities speaking through human faculties as mediums, and I have met many, declare they have never seen Sun and moon creations in the spirit world.

Therefore are luminaries of frequency created by man through alchemical creation. That set into motion by soul as the creator in the depths, to help him meet the experiences and difficulties of life. Unification of elements that become created lights, and as they grow and become more and more expanded as a risen status of light, are found to be the manifestation of the Deity, born from the Fire Essence of the divine Effulgence of the unfolding Source of Unseen Creation.

The moon was an Atlantean state as a negative creation in the Abyss, since it was to them as an element manifestation, and not a recognition of the Unseen Absolute Glory of Fire Manifestation. Thus the Divinity as ALL-LIFE as the Solar Fire or Blood that feeds man, and gives him his expansion of internal life. That is why he bathes in it, not realising that he can only gain its internal glory through Word as MIND unfoldment.

The Atlanteans only built up a negative reflection, thus the auric radiance of the earth. As man grew, the Solar was brought into birth, of which we are going to prove, and the Sun and moon became the fusing life within man, the alchemicalisation coming into birth through the Word digested, and building up his mind body and internal eternal robe.

So if we see the Earth as the Feminine Principle as the Motherhood, we shall see the Sun as the Masculine Principle as the Fatherhood, the transmuted state that has been coming into birth. But man had to progress, therefore by him fusing the two within himself, he has been building up the New World of the future; this we have called Vega, because of the Pole Star that is now controlling the Earth.

LUNATIC MADNESS

IN MY LAST REMINISCENCE AND OTHER promises, I stated that I would explain much more about mind creation, and also the latest antics of the scientists. These can be proved to all those living above the mundane states of the earth and seeking for expansion of mind comprehension, by vibrations and their possibilities coming into birth, by man being the creator of all tangibility. Those living dead flat upon the mud of matter will only follow the scientist blindly; an individual who is devoid of all spirit life, which as a calculator of figures, he denies. Thus dead cold earth, while the Occult student is becoming spirit

So it will not be very long before there will be no moon, but all daylight through the Earth and the Central Sun fusing into one. This will only come about by man raising himself up in mind status, and becoming born of the Solar Fire. This is the meaning of this being the Solar Year, and through unification of Relativity, man becoming immortal. Thus getting back to his god state of the past, but with a created mind and a red robe of Bozrah.

Thus the Atlanteans had to learn, as recreating souls, that it was the Atomic Fusion of the Holy Fire, that was brought down to move the gods into action, that they were becoming inflated upon; not that they were clever, but recipients of dynamic forces that never came forth in positive creation.

The Gods as the original descent, having fallen by refusing to be activated into a creating propensity, that would have lifted them up to their original growth in Paradise, while upon the Earth, bringing the Abyss to the created Kingdom of the Fatherhood. Where the Unseen Creator, brought forth from the internal Divine Essence of the Fire, would have manifested through his reborn Solar son. But by them refusing, it resulted in the soul creation of intended Human Life, living in the Abyss in darkness. They being a god-soul state born from an atomic spark on the original Neptunian Plane.

A GROWING POWER OF CREATIVE THOUGHT GATHERED FROM PAST GROWTH, FOR THIS IS NOT THE FIRST MANIFESTATION OF SOUL LIFE BY MILLIONS OF YEARS, BUT NOW UNDER DIFFERENT CONSTRUCTION.

Yet here we can already see how life in unfolding, found out how necessity became the mother of invention. For the darkness now enforced on the earthly soul, brought Helio into creation. A mind belief that was brought into birth to alleviate their distress after the deluge. A state of semi-sunlight created by the soul out of his thought power, that was now growing with him from the Fire element he was receiving unconscious to himself. This state of Helio was considered the brother to Selene the moon, so was a positive creation of the moon unfoldment.

Then Apollo followed, of which the Heroes brought into birth, by trying to drive the chariot of the Sun. This was the feats of all the Heroes as seen in the Mysteries, and in them so doing, became as a Phaeton driving the chariot of the Sun, and earthing the elements, through their own creation, to bring new life to the Cosmos. The Sun being the Arc of MIND LIGHT as the unfolding Deity moving across the heavens, bringing night and day through the Earth turning on its Axis.

It was from here Uranus came into birth as a striking propensity, to let through only the genuine sensitised beings, those truly bringing the spirit into birth, and began the birth of the dual mind. Some going up as created mind, and others going down into the labyrinth as fallen fire. But one thing we do have to try and comprehend, is the fact, that all the time of Earth tribulations, Evolution was moving Creation into birth as the moving FIRE of the descending Heavenly Deity Life, as the EL Powers manifesting in matter as the Fatherhood.

The Male Element now being the reigning supremacy, for from then onwards the Sun slowly rose higher and higher as the manifesting FACE of the Fire alchemicalising through the soul creation in the Abyss, the fallen state of the gods. This runs parallel with Adam and Eve, the creation that came forth from the unfolding state of galactical creation.

Life Frequency

WHETHER man believes this or not, it is true; he has only judged the passing of Creation by his own state of outlook. The Myths and Mysteries reveal the truth, but want true deciphering, for through orthodoxy the truth

BITTEN IN THE HEEL.

ALL the glories of the mind now fallen down to the depths, as the kundalini fire strangles him in its grasp and bites him severely in the heel. But I beg to correct the plate by stating that it is the right heel that becomes bitten, the glories of the spiritual side of the soul; the left being that which walks in the mysteries, and is open to the difficulties of creation. But falling back upon oneself is to fall from the spirit into the depths of the mundane, and suffer the disgrace of "hedging." The soul ever building up "hedges" around itself, that more and more block out the glories of the spirit. (See text in col. 4).

had to be buried in cipher to prevent being destroyed. Fire is the moving state of all creation, and the Source of ALL LIFE, and must be revered as such, so that the soul will see the true purpose of how, when it is driven up as mind light created by man, it becomes the MIND state of the rising Arc, the unfolding Solar Glory.

This can prove another point; when I perceived the glory of the Sun as the Christos Blood that feeds man, and also the Divine Intelligencia, I made it by my belief, the Central Sun and the Solar Sun as one divine creation. Hence the brilliant glorious sunlight feeding the earth direct with heavenly Fire.

As I believed it, I became the Scapegoat, and had to go on proving it by treading it into the earth as a reborn truth. Then I defined it as the Great Flame, the risen Eagle of Scorpio Glory. The raised up Fire of earth unfoldment, which meant I had raised up my Fire to that degree, and was manifesting it as mind light.

This was where the burning in of the Elements as the Fiery Furnace took place, which brought into being the Scorpio Constellation, with the mighty Star Antares now coming forth as its internal Galaxy. Not planets or solid states, but vibrations of frequency, of which all states are really as existence. This means that the unfolding generative source as the Scorpio Fire, was now of a royal elevated source of earth infusion. But not until man recognised it, would such manifest through him.

The scientist really knows this matter of frequency, for that is the reason why he measures out figures, so as to create the vibrations by his calculations, and declares it is so. He then sees it as a solid form of proven fact, for he refuses to see any higher than form. But I knew all was Cosmic Law, that created by the higher Powers, then sent down to become a lower law creation, so I had to prove it and live it into action of a raised up status of creation.

My task then became of proving to one and all, that all states of life were fluidic. This applied also to the lower creation of man, where his five lower states would have to expand through Jupiter, and become his higher source of mind light through Uranus. This is the mystery of the five kings that had to be raised up by Abram, when Lot his brother fell into sodomitical ideas. (Gen. 14).

All this is registered on the maelstrom, for what is on the spinal creation of man, is in keeping with the maelstrom; above that is the Cosmic Law, which I as a Scapegoat have had to weather, and manifest through my own spinal Axis to prove the risen up glory of the Fire. This then proved that Uranus and Neptune were the higher creations of mind unfoldment through his own raised up Fire, and the REAL purpose of the Fire, which the gods failed to see in the beginning, and fell into the darkness of Tartaros.

(See plate in col. 3)

Man may want to leave them alone, but he will not be able to now, for by my establishment all life is created by them. They now are the Hosts, and neither Russia nor America with their creative weapons, will be able to master the created higher LAW, which now will feed the lower law with new life.

What the scientist is seeing as possible power is their calculated beliefs on the maelstrom, for they calculated a point mathematically, which they agreed amongst themselves was the position of the moon, then the camera at that period of time was set to take a photograph of what they reckoned was the moon. What was seen as the shovel digging up so-called moon soil, is the missile weapon disturbing the atomic vibrations on that plane.

THIS IS WHERE MAN DOES NOT UNDERSTAND VIBRATIONS, THEIR REACTIONS TO HUMAN LIFE, AND HOW MUCH THEY ARE LIVING CREATIONS RESPONSIVE TO HUMAN REACTIONS.

The sensitive plate can only take a photograph where there is light, and the only light there is, is of the earth. That created by man in his fire alchemicalisation, and the auric radiance of the earth as the lunar light, and gives light to the atmosphere around it. For most men are only lunar born, so the earth takes on the same vibration until man brings it into greater propensity.

This alone proves the theory of all being HERE and NOW, for the same plane of Abyss existence has been the means of all states of unfolding creation to come into birth. They only differ from each other by the light they have gained from the soul creation bringing light into birth as unfolding belief of mind creation of the soul. Hence the truth that the Earth will become Vega as declared by the Angel to John the husbandman of the Earth.

(See plate on page 9)

As man accepts this truth, Vega will manifest under the new Pole Star in the same way as Earth came forth under the Great Bear, the Ursa Major. Perhaps by this we will see the reason why the scientist has been declaring that there is a mysterious creation at work regarding the high status of the Cosmic Rays. He knows there is something mysterious, but will not listen to true rhyme and reason which was not created by his figures.

The Planes of Reality

WHAT we have to see, is the fact that the moon as a vibration and influence, is the playground of the dead and the astral planes, and all who embrace that only, will calcify. For it only contains the blueprints of the old Atlantean depths as the Feminine Principle, the negative side of perception, and the basic of the soul's distortion, where it fell in its belief. All its accumulation is the dead ash of time, and unless brought to wisdom is recorded only as Karmic points to be solarised. As Selene and Diana, they are the feminine working principle to the Male issue, and merely gather up the wealth, and create nothing.

(See plate on page 10)

THE CREATION IS DONE BY THE ELEMENTS AS THE SIGNS BECOME POLARISED, THE MOON HAS REALLY FINISHED ITS TASK, AND THE POWERS ARE WAITING MAN BECOMING BORN OF THE GREATER ISSUE OF LIFE.

The so-called wealth being put onto the shovel that was shown on the television recording, is only a built up dream. The same as you have when you sleep, real enough, but not a form creation, an astral projection. The vibronic creation on the planes of Reality, hence you cannot bring back form; but you saw it, of which you will manifest its impact when you return. It being an imprint on your soul creation as the mind body, hence you recording it. But since the scientist stubbornly refuses to see or believe of the soul, spirit or spiritual Robe, they are blind to truth, and merely repetition of the Atlantean masters.

So having seen so far, let us try to see into this point of vibronic creation. Ask any soul seeking, where do they go in a dream, and await the multiplicity of answers, all being a transference of vibration that they are trying to place into form.

The moon reflection is a constant built up repetition of dreams, as the accumulated light from the experiences of the lower five planes of soul growth upon the Jupitorean frequency of the Taurus influence. This is where the soul either expands up to the heights as mind unfoldment, or Saturn takes over, and the soul returns back to old ideas with the extra fire.

If it does not expand as Solar mind growth by the greater belief and acceptance, it becomes a densified creation built up in the inner body consciousness. For dreams are a living conscious state becoming a living Astral reality as a soul creation. Yet many a soul being saved by their carrying out of their dreams.

Form is only tangible to sight and touch, that built up by time, for in spirit there are no moon, Sun or earth as registers of Time, all is light according to soul creation. This is all that the soul ever really builds up, all else is a prison of solidified form, which holds the soul stationary and fixed to the magnetic. This is the mystery of the Iohikrates shoes, of where the soul is fixed to the magnes, and cannot get free to wing his mind.

This is seen more clearly in the fact that a solid object does not have to have support to raise it up, for if so, what is holding up the earth? Surely vibrations surrounding it in its gyroscopic spinning motion, where its upward trend is unfolding expansion of evolution, for Nature, however badly used by man, is ever unfolding by Law of Evolution. All is man retarding himself, by refusing to change or let go of what he is holding onto.

The Earth goes on as Law, but its growth is putrified, hence the vermin, disease and poor growth power of the food commodities. Yet here we have vibrations which have, over the Ages, become a Law of Vibronic imprint. When man leaves the lunar imprint of earth and takes on of the Solar, all will burst out into glorified light and health giving glory. But the old creation will be as an earthly state imprinted on the maelstrom as past states now discarded.

Creative Activity of the Soul

THE Upper LAW, which I was called to be the instrument of re-setting as a Scapegoat, that is raising up the vibrations to feed man with new ideas, is where the Earth is to be transmuted by Word as Spirit creation into a living vibrant true life of light perception. When a soul creates a state that is not accepted or worked in the galactical creation, as soon as it is earthed as a belief, what was darkness of avidya becomes as living light.

The ignorance is dissolved, and a new idea goes up to the heights. This is the means of aspiration and exhilaration up to the heights, the Heavenly Hosts; who, if they accept your offering, send back the Dove, the winged creation to carry up your glory to the heights. But the soul has to work down below to make their creation a living glory. When you pass over, you will become aware of this truth, but as an astral soul creation until the soul makes growth. This is where every soul is going to regret never having built up their mind body more tangibly.

will result in some dynamic disaster as far as they are concerned, as already seen by their astronaut disasters. These are only what they were forced to disclose, but the toll in this direction has been diabolical and evil. For I have had the souls of these victims brought back to me to help them shed the shock. Yet this is not a matter we will go into now, but some later time.

But the answer to the loss of these souls, is the fact that they are tampering with the vibrations of the Neptunian Plane; that Divine Source, we shall "die" under the lack of extracting from the Seed its atomic fiery essence.

BY SEEING THIS TRUTH AND BECOMING UPLIFTED BY ROYAL BELIEF OF HEAVENLY ASSUMPTION, THE SOUL WILL BE ABLE TO RECEIVE FROM THE HEAVENS THE DIVINE INFINITY OF REVOLUTIONARY SUSTENANCE.

For all has returned to its beginning by relativity through

The Urgency of Solar Transmutation

THE point of purpose is the spinning up of the mind on that point of belief. This is a spinning up of an evolutionary action towards the Solar rebirth of the soul, which is the solution to the problems of man, and the birth of the god-man as mind, soul glorification; and is the unexpanded EGO awaiting the infusion of the Holy Fire.

The moon is a prototype of the fiery existence to be born, with the earth spinning on its Axis through its action of going round the Sun, taking the moon with it. Solar God Power spinning the earth up into a greater conception of light.

The theory of true Astrology is the fact that the moon is only a conveyor of the currents, for she creates nothing, but takes on all the influences as an old luminary as she passes through them, and is the servant to the Sun, taking all the wealth of the earth up to him. For she is a form of Eve and the Sun Adam, being again Feminine and Masculine.

Each month we see her issue forth as a rib from the side of the Solar orb, waxing stronger each day as she journeys amongst the seven planetary elements, and as a fluidic carrier carrying the wealth of time as vibrations up to the Arc. But only as an old luminary, an old light still being held onto by man, for this lunar immensity is the phosphorus fire of the bones, the raw fire that went down into the "rock," the loadstone capacity of the mount.

That which should have become mind flame, the Solar transmutation, but once again turned downwards, back to its old lunar state. By this the gods in the meninges are cut off and waiting to be retrieved for the Solar rebirth. Here is where man is ever living on the Astral, the lunar creation, and the answer to why so many dreadful things are taking place on Earth. Therefore gives the answer as to why the Gods or Hosts made entry by me as a Scapegoat, that they can force man into change, otherwise man as a soul creation will die and the animal take over.

The depth that will help man to understand this so-called mystery, is the fact, that if he can see that all that is manifesting as form in this direction, is as imprint on the maelstrom, and the registered states of TIME, all being HERE and NOW.

The moon as an old luminary, a created state of fire, is only a collector of Rays, and represents the mortal part of life, and is in the mortal zone. While the Sun is immortal and is the light of the internal bodies. This being so, the moon will take on anything that the scientist decrees in the lower creation of life. In fact, knowing man as I do, I would not put it past them to collect sand out of the desert, and swear it was from the moon. When two such powers are vying for supremacy, anything can

THE BIRTH OF VEGA

THERE before him stood the glorious City, created by him and his fellow beings, with the divine radiance from the heavens flooding the depths with beauty. Yet glories that man wantonly destroys, ruthlessly seeking for pleasure; living only in the negative side of his pioneering possibility, instead of the wonderful glory of investigation and expansion. Here is Vega being infused with Holy Fire, the glorious creation now set through mankind to bring into birth a new Earth and a new Heaven, the glories of the eternal soul. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

The moon, which is a secondary creation of action, is governed by the creative ability of man, and as the old lunar state which man will not let go of, acts as the second hand to a clock, helping to bring the hours into birth as mind light. But minus the spirit, until he puts it into Solar action.

This, as the polarity of Atlantis, has now, through relativity, become the beginning of the FALL of SCIENTIFIC CREATION, to become the new-born Solar glory of Neptunian genius as wealth from Outer World Space. While the moon incites man, because in his retarded negative state, he is looking for easy false excitement. The building up of his mind where he discards his lower desires, is not what he is wishing to do, but you cannot take of finer vibrations until you discard the lower. For Millo as the magnetic span applies as much to man as earth and celestial sign intercalary.

Russia and America are vying for supremacy, which and any expansion upon the Neptunian Plane of frequency, will cause Uranus to strike. This will take toll of anything that is not in keeping with the reborn Cosmic Laws, which have been taking place in all directions.

Russia is raising a bogey to frighten the rest of the world and claim world supremacy of the Arc in an atheistic way as old Atlantean masters. Scorpius with Saturn strongly placed. America is dollar mad, and is trying to keep her financial scheme of moon plots, so as to milk the money-bags of America.

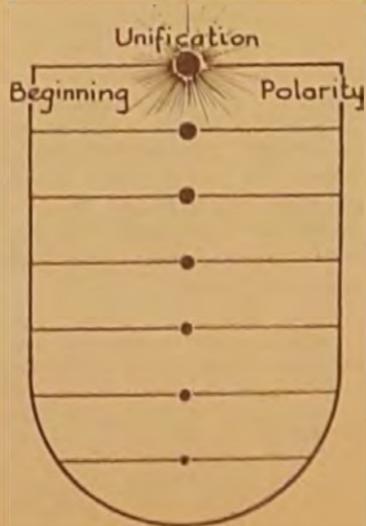

Until man recognises the glory of the FIRE, which creates of mind and mind light, and furthermore, that which drives the Universe as the Unseen glory of the Heavenly Deity, he will ever be in a state of dilemma. Until we become as gods once again and accept that our life-force is from the heavenly heights as the Source of Creation from my unifying the issues of heights and depths, thus being able to draw from the original happen, for it is almost a state of war.

The moon is entirely an old luminary state of creation, that has served its part in evolution, but kept alive by man in his earthy desires. All this is their imagination of the past, the form creation that man is holding onto, and which he must discard for REAL fluidic states of unfolding creation to vie with evolution. This is how old states of creation have changed for the present, and must change again for the future. All is belief, man's mind creation, which he makes tangible by living it and proving its life in existence as a fact. Then it must pass away for something else to take its place and give man fresh air and new ideas.

So it can be seen, that if there is no air on the moon, as the scientists declare there is not, and is a dead planet, what do they want to go there for? Of course there is no air and it is a dead planet, because it is only a reflected vision inside the soul itself and a maelstrom reflection, and merely a bogey to cause alarm. The idea of the scientists is to rule the heavens, but not this way.

Yes! man has to capture the Blackness of Space as Outer World creation, but through mind frequency. But I got there first when I became the Scapegoat for the Hosts to return, so I am afraid the Laws of Outer Space are securely fixed and no scientist will be able to tamper with those higher Elements, which of course, will result in accident after accident where they are concerned.

Why do they state that there is something very queer happening, which rules out all their theories and sets them at variance? But he may still go on kidding the gullible of all sorts of things, leading the newspapers up blind alley reports, and the Broadcasting company making fantastic programmes for the gullible, but he will never rule the heavens NOW.

FOR I GOT THERE FIRST AND CLAIMED THE SUPREMACY OF THE ARC FOR THE LORD OF THE FLAME, THE LIVING CHRISTOS LIFE WHICH MAN HAD PINNED ONTO A CROSS IN FALSE BELIEF.

The true Embodiment Life of A.D.33 raised up to its real living propensity to become the glory of the Arc as the Central Sun, now giving radiance to mankind, and was not the actual date, but the soul raised up above the five lower Chakras and ready for new life. Therefore, these are the last of the false creations to be cleaned out of the Strontium "Fall Out," and will be. For it is the control of the LAW that counts, not creating missiles etc., but understanding LAW and how to manipulate it.

THEN ONE SOUL CAN CONTROL THE WHOLE OF THE WORLD. THIS HAS BEEN MY LOT, BUT UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE HEAVENLY HOSTS THAT MANKIND COULD BE SAVED FROM THEIR IGNORANCE AND FOLLY.

This may be scorned and laughed at, but WATCH. All that was predicted has been fulfilled, with more to come.

The Cosmic Law of Evolution

NOW let us take the deeper side of the subject, since all creations are mind and vibration of mind creation, for there is nothing really tangible and solid at all, all being fluidic in change. That seen as moon visions are the imaginations and calculations of the scientists on the maelstrom, and with such minds, that could be quite easy.

They are those still holding the lunar depths of the past, and are winged Saturn states, for all they build up is moonlight of the five lower planes. This is the depth of Aquarius, the gaining of the truth of vibration, for this returning into the past, and which most people are guilty of, is the cause of all the sickness of the earth.

MAN MUST SEEK OF THE SOLAR CREATION, THE UNFOLDMENT INTO THE EXPANDED MIND LIGHT. FOR MAN MUST GO ON AND UPWARD, NOT BACKWARD AND DOWN, DESTROYING THE SEED OF SPIRIT LIFE.

This is the meaning of Christ Blood; the embodiment of the Heavenly Forces in their highest degree, holding the Deity Fire as created by soul belief. The scientists are ever seeking to prove that all is just element creation, and that there is nothing royal or real about it, and furthermore, as all being solid. An old lunar state of belief caused by Shamash, an old Saturn state of possession; so the scientists are not modern people, but old antiquated states of the past.

ALL NOW IS VERGING TOWARDS SOLAR EXPANSION, THE UNFOLDMENT OF MAN AND SPIRIT CREATION, A WORLD OF FLUIDIC CREATIVE LIFE.

A fear bogey they are trying to hold over one another to create devastation in the mind of man regarding the bogey of war. The belief in the Gods creating for the good of man, is a progressive state of unfoldment. While the scientists' destructive state of a lunar world, is the moral destruction of man, his mind and spirit creation.

If I had not been able to gain hold of the Cosmic Laws, and man went on thinking of this moon expansion, they would have brought the world back to Atlantean darkness, and the Solar Arc would have receded into the depths of Space consciousness.

FOR IT IS THE MIND LIGHT OF THE GREAT MASTERS, AND THE GREAT BEINGS OF ALL TIME. IT IS THAT WHICH FEEDS THE EARTH WITH THE SOLAR PRISM OF THE ELEMENTS.

The Masters who set the higher Laws through me, with the Solar glory going to become the light of the future world of Earth transported into Vega; the fundamental of Divinity. The permanent light without night and day, which of course, will be through man himself, and the radiance of the maelstrom. This will manifest as the world of Earth unfolded into the World of Vega; the world promised by John in Revelations, as the world flowing with crystal waters from the heavenly Source.

The scientist does not believe in the spirit, and the fact that man lives on after death, all to them being the womb to the tomb, thus the destroyers of the Seed, and the world of progressive life. Man is mind born from the atomic glory, while the Sun is not just a Solar orb, but the raised up light of man's unfolded passionate waters that he receives as breath from the heights.

Man is the crucible pot that transforms Breath into a tangible fluidic substance, that he raises up as mind light. Destroy that and you will lose the Sun and only live by lunar light, which the scientists as old Atlantean muzarims, giants of a destructive nature, are fostering.

What he did find was the Higher Laws set into operation by the Hosts through my Isotope spinal creation, causing those seeking to put negative moon states into creation to crash to the earth in destruction. They swallowed their own vibrations, with the pope blessing once again a dead state.

All men have only expanded up to Jupiter, while I am by the revolving creation of Earth and earth-life. All brought forth from the Nebula creation of the heavens as the unfolding state of Fiery Life from the great heights. That brought into being by the breath, but holding the secret of LIFE, the wherewithal of creating the fiery hormones of soul life.

FOR AS MAN BREATHES IN OF BREATH, HE IS ALSO RECREATING BY TRANSMUTING THE CREATIONS OF THE HEAVENS, AND MANIFESTING THEM IN MATTER.

For man has been the means of creating the starry lights, they being the manifesting Planes of Creation. The inhabited Planes of soul growth as spirit awaiting the return of the spirit from earth, and showing as the light gained. Almost as a reminder to their lost atoms that they were waiting for them to come back. The planes that were created in the first place by soul differentiation down into matter. By their return to earth, they have by their growth, been the means of extracting the Fiery wealth of past creations out of the Nebula seething mass of unfolding Fire.

All this he is changing into a New World transformation now set into operation by Merope. Man would be amazed if he knew all the mystical creations that took place right under his very eyes. I who understand much, am amazed at what vibrations and the mastery of vibrations can do. By one person having superiority of vibration, they can be the means of drawing vast hordes of power, gathered in a spot around a certain person unto themselves.

The person in question at the time, being of a more inferior creation mentally, would not be able to hold them against the greater mind. This I have experienced as the Scapegoat of the Hosts, and know that my responsibility lies in my retaining the heart purpose of truth and wisdom; hence the Christ mind. On many occasions I have been aghast at the mighty power I have had to handle, with the inferior mind merely taking the shell of experiences to work out. This is the story of Job in the Bible, where the Sabines got in and took the power and left Job with the sorrowful experiences.

This is but a minor incident compared with what does take place, and which black masters make the most of. The above example was of a black master and a lunar state, but I being as a white Master and a Solar being, found myself with hordes of power which I had to master. On one occasion the person in question very soon came to me in a mental state begging for my help. As a Solar power I gave it to them and they were righted. These are the mysteries of vibration that the majority do not understand.

All is LAW and Law determination and adoption, with the greater man winning through.

The astronaut, in going up into the outer world Space vibration, touched the Arc, the edge of outer Space, with his negative influence. Like Uzzah he died, beside many others we have not been told about. Why not, if it is so genuine? Even they have doubts regarding it, and are trying to back all by every imagination possible, which in being in numbers, are immediately flashed onto the screen of the maelstrom.

Man has got to bow to the progressive life of the spirit, otherwise he will lose his freedom as a spirit born creation. It is either you link with the heavenly glory of

THE FEMININE PRINCIPLE

THE creator of the Waters, that the fires can spark off the clouds of the mind. The labourer in the depths until she becomes solarised, then risen up as Venus-Urania, as she becomes bride to her heavenly spouse. But not to be taken in her lower creation and embraced as the watery depths. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

THE WHOLE OF THE BOOK OF GENESIS DECLARES OF UNFOLDMENT AS MIND, AND IS THAT WHICH HAS YET TO BE FULFILLED AS A CREATED ACTION.

Man has read the Bible, declared it and sworn on it, but never put it into practice, and yet it holds all the answers. Now he has got to or die, for if he goes backwards to old moon creations, the state of the past, he will die in any case.

Instead of sparking off his chromosomes as Solar electrified creation, he will calcify them into a solid state. For the moon is a negative state of everything, especially the atoms and the atomic creation of man. For the Solar is the Christos light, the divine mind creation of man that has aspired up to the heights, and become accepted by the Divinity. Hence the Dove descended and blessed him. Why should not the greater side of life be beautiful?

The scientists are dead flat cold, merely dead earth; what empty creatures. The astronaut meeting reverse vibrations, was only meeting what he had created; did he expect to find divinity waiting for him?

bringing Uranus and Neptune permanently into operation as the Occult mind. Thus Uranus will ever and continually be striking these states into life to prove their validity. Thereby causing disaster every time it is of a nature not yet ready for such expansion. For everything is vibration, and unless of light, having expanded past Jupiter, will be struck out of existence.

Man has got to progress, that is the Law of Evolution, and clearly seen in true metaphysical Astrology and Astronomy. There we see the Sun as man's subconscious creation of spirit light, while the moon is his present consciousness of belief and understanding, which he is striving to change and bring to the Solar.

Planes of Life and Spirit

LIKE Cinderella, he has to keep the pot boiling to create the Steam of the mind out of the atomic creation of the soul unfoldment. That gained from the Breath of Outer World Space and the Solar Prism of Element infusion. All being drawn to man because it begins here, in this Temple, in the first place.

Now in the building up of this there has to be a heart-purpose, so that a time comes when the heart is crying out, "I wish I could do this, but I find it difficult."

If the heart goes on crying out, a time comes when, if that soul is genuine, it will eventually right itself. But you don't have to leave it merely at that. It is by the driving of the Mind that the alchemical change takes place; and most of it is alchemical change. But if you have got principles, you must try and put these principles into operation. It is no good saying, "Oh well, I am doing my best."

THAT IS NOT ENOUGH. YOU HAVE GOT TO TRY AND PUT THINGS INTO OPERATION, AND PLAY YOUR PART BY 'AWARENESS OF TRUTH,' THAT WITH THE ALCHEMICALISATION AND THE TRUTH, THE TWO WALK TOGETHER.

The inner bodies are marrying-up so that they become adjusted by the realisation of the soul. You begin to see what you would like to do, and what you feel you could do, yet you do not seem to be doing it; but your alchemicalisation is marrying it up for you.

You have to bring everything to a balanced harmonious state. Any false justification, any distortion, any state that is not balanced, and is not the truth, will not help you. You will say, "I am doing that wrong, and I know I am," and "I must get that right." "I have taken these Powers, so I must answer for these Powers." This is what you have to do, and the sooner you do so, the better. You must realise that.

You are just a 'bag of skin' holding all the elements, and you have got to bring them to Mind-light. You have solidified yourself, and that solidification is your distortion; it becomes your disease.

NOW here is Abel, the subconscious mind, fast asleep until the Cinderella in the (See plate on page 5) depths labours. Until the soul begins to set things into motion, Abel will never come into 'light.' He was killed off in the past by the god falling into the depths. Although he brought Seth into birth, Seth was really the son-ship; but the real higher-mind has been asleep ever since.

The serpents rising above his head, as the elements of 'fire,' are ever going to try and sting the higher mind into awakenment. So Sita, his lower mind, sits under the Soka tree waiting for the 'seeds on the tree' to feed her. As soon as the soul awakens he will begin his first true revolution of rebirth.

But the majority of souls have got 'blind' states of the higher mind, so it does not matter what they take, the lower mind is not being guided by the higher mind and being able to bring what the lower mind receives into a vestige of light, thereby feeding him with more light; thus the two would grow together until, eventually, she becomes equal with the subconscious mind, so that the two become blended up together with the radiance of the 'Presence' on the Ats. And as that goes on, it becomes even blended in with the 'Presence'; and that is the soul's Immortality.

But you cannot take these Elements unless you begin to put them into operation, otherwise they will kill you; they will stone you, and bring you to a strontium state of darkness. Truth should ever be your motive, and nothing other than a point of truth. You would everlastingly plow for truth, not illusion. You would plow for the 'nut garden of truth.'

You must remember that this is a NEW BIRTH. This is the new state brought about by the 'Unification.' And this is where the Scapegoat had to find the way, so that there were not millions of people putting various states into operation under different categories. There had only to be One Path.

So the one who could claim this Road, had to work for it. Don't misunderstand this, for nobody gets anything but by their 'right of acquirement'; finding the way to God by justifying themselves, and gaining the Prize.

MIND CHAOS

creation, or become the scientists tool to support their destructive war creations. By continually bringing the lunar creation to the mind of man, he could turn the earth backwards into a lunar dead creation, if I was not the Scapegoat for the Solar Powers. It would become as a state of the Grand Canyon of America.

By my being used to raise up the Laws to progressive life, brings a Solar World into action, thus cuts off the scientist by my sufferings on that Axis of change. For through my spinal column being equal to the Axis of the earth in frequency of belief, I place my raised up frequency and master the negative moon states of the scientist, the earthy states of the depths.

THE THING IS TO KNOW HOW, AND BEING A WHITE MASTER, TO CREATE FOR THE GOOD OF ALL.

The Lunar Activity

THE moon states are multiplicity, schizophrenia and mental split states, which I have now been the means of bringing to a state of oneness as the glorious Central Sun. That which will be the acme of life and perpetua mobile of everlasting life, the glory of Infinity. It is only man that is holding onto the lunar, and those states within himself, thus opposing the elements, which will bring him disaster while he does.

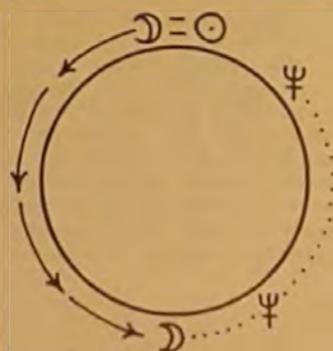

What we have to learn is the fact, that the genetic activation first brought into birth, was lost in the Fall by the evil of the Atlantean scientists. This is a rebound of the Cycle, and something that had to be mastered. By my giving birth to a genetic form of spirit, the descending Breath, it is born again as Holy Fire, that of the productive life of the spirit. The world of light of Solar glory, that I know I have been the Instrument of bringing into birth by mind creation.

Which does man want; it is up to him to support one who has proved of their intentions, or him being forced by the Fire of Solar progression. For while I last, scientists, medical and religion are going to be defeated in their antiquated diabolical destructive beliefs. Through me the Hosts are working for the good of man, while through the former he will find a wide split devastation through Uranus striking.

FOR MY WORLD OF BELIEF IS THE WORLD OF SPIRIT, THE GLORIES OF THE HEAVENS.

Man in experiencing the lunar...

... did so, when the time was ripe, up in the "North" of creative purpose, and it poured down its influences onto the earth. Then it slowly passed away down into the South of creation, passing away out of life by being involved for progressive power to take over.

Now the moon is acting as a secondary luminary collecting the wealth of man, and taking it up to the Solar heights. With the going out of the lunar for a greater creation, there followed the Solar; in fact, it was the Solar that forced the issue, thus feeding man with greater light and Fiery Power, that of the Solar creation. Then later on the moon will rise up again as a polarised creation as a Neptunian source of life.

Heliopolis was the first Seeding of the Solar creation, and the first building up of the Deity, and today becomes by polarisation the Central Sun. All is progression and polarisation.

This is what man should be turning to now, not trying to draw back old states, which were originally the creation of Earth. For all is HERE and NOW in the basic of the Abyss, not scattered about all over the Outer World Space. For only in the Abyss as vibration, can you find solidification, as all elements only make solid creations in the world of men and through man himself. Although there appears to be planets of other Elements up in the Sky, these are vibrations of planes far beyond man's comprehension.

In the case of the moon, it is the negative in the camera sensitive to vibrations, in the same way as capturing the spirit extra, which is spirit, and not solid form at all. All states of different vibrations, and showing forth a state only applicable to man's understanding. Thus what is on the maelstrom as the nitrogenic states of man's breath and beliefs are captured by the camera, as seen on the mount at Aberfan. (See Reminiscences Dec. 1966, page 8).

The vision shown in the minds of all on the camera, is the intensified maelstrom vision of the scientists belief, that would be a dominant factor in the minds of all, if I had not risen up the Solar Laws of greater intensity that ruled out the lunar beliefs, and brought disaster to the one defying the LAWS of the Gods.

All is Law and Vibration that man cannot discredit, for between each Plane of Planetary influence, there is a vacuum of a very vast intensity, which prevents vibrations over-riding one another. These man will NEVER master physically, but by mind and vibration, YES! All it needs is a Scapegoat to be the means of setting them into motion, and the comparability is set.

Now I live by the Fiery Element of the Central Sun, which now is the law for all souls to capture by mind creation, and not by lying in the Sun, turning their pigments black. Capturing the Solar Fire by vibrational belief, and man setting his chromosomes alight as sparking radiating propensity. Those who know me, and understand Occult Laws, know that I would not make these statements unless they were true, for I know the toll for such made out of count.

The World of Genius

MAN'S further task now, is to capture Outer World Space by vibration, and find fresh genius and fresh air. This he does by polarising the states that have already been. Therefore, to polarise the moon, you would find Neptune, as all is vibration, and of which I have proved. Thus being the polarity of the luna-tic states in their highest degree as genius. If man goes back to the past, he will only split these states and bring the lowest form of Neptune into being, resulting in many states of sex murder, drug addicts and drunkards.

While the Solar creation disposes of these, and Neptune in its balanced state brings the glories of mind belief. But only when man believes and creates of it, and sees into actual fulfilment, can these Outer World Elements be earthed.

This in the past was done by the Totem Pole, now it is the means of bringing the Deity into birth in the mind of man, the glories of the Cosmic FACE. When this is seen clearly, it becomes the Auric radiance of the soul and the Christ light as the Solar immediate manifestation. This now as the Central Sun, when achieved, is the means of giving extensive wisdom through the speech of the soul. And when by uniting with the heavenly Source of ALL-LIFE, makes the soul god-born. For he then by immaculate conception, draws from the heavenly Source of All-Creation, and becomes of Infinity.

Lunar and Solar states have to be experienced individually to understand this fully. As an Occult Teacher and a Master of the Elements, I know, and more so when an initiate falls back into a lunar state. When in the Solar, they are sharp and clear, speaking wisdom from depths they cannot explain, often bringing through bursts of genius that sperm the world with new life and fresh air. By this, souls become the means of bringing down Streams of new Life, which is shown very clearly in all legendary writings, films or art creations.

let alone raise the precious burden up to its rightful dignity!

The re-birth, like many, was made under the struggle of the times, those in abundance who knew not, those who cared not, and those who knew, though few in number, but not royal in heart. The original saviour, foully destroyed by man's greed for pomp and position, money and riches, was now upraised on a wooden cross to save the dying and crumbling structure, therefore no thought could ever be deigned to the new resurrection that could bring life.

So what had been the mystery in Egypt thousands of years ago, when Atum raised the Osiris Tat, was now held to ridicule by a crowd of clowns in bishops' petticoats. But was it not the struggle of Nebhau Kau once again; for as she sought to raise the limpen serpent, it fell to the earth lost and broken through the lack of breath, and the Goddess of Bubastes collapsed.

Now, thousands of years after such a catastrophe, the self-same creatures have created missiles that were cutting off the life of the world, the life force of being, and the new Lord was crying for life. Therefore the secret of rebirth of life must pass into the mystery of the mysterious valley of the Tuat, where there is now a walled-up doorway. Yet if there were any in the future who had the courage to break through, they would find twelve doors leading to the land of eternal life.

There were twelve divisions with twelve months of excruciating darkness, and now only memory; helpers who should have laboured on that journey, but failed and had caused hell to reign instead of life. So the road was strewn with blood, where once it was divine royalty, divine love and devotion, as Nebhau Kau raised the serpent, and life thrilled through the surging crowds who had waited in breathless awe.

Each soul felt the life surging through their expectant being, the atmosphere trembled and thrilled as the resurrection took place, leaving a mark for all time, that man would have to fulfill as the prototype of the Gods descent into life. Now man would have to efface the stains of life from his being before he dare seek to break open those doors, yet there would be those who once they changed that garment would be able to declare the magical words of "open sesame," and the door of Siut would swing back revealing the hidden treasure of the Riddle.

The Lost Heritage of Immortality

BUT let us to the prototype of Destiny: Horus must to his work begin, and adjust the throne and sceptre of his divine father Osiris upon earth. He must now make secure the battlements to protect his fatherhood against the attacks of those who will now seek to destroy by evil insinuations that bear no direct attack, but those things that destroy by the modern innuendoes towards comfort and so called security.

For all that has been and is now defunct must change, and WILL, for the way of the Law, fed and nurtured by the enthroned Avatar, is strength. But it must be upheld and protected by those who are now commissioned to carry out the path of Regeneration. Thus according to the Ritual, Horus makes the father's word stand firm, with new laws to support him. He opposes Sut, his father's old adversary, and he makes war on evil Apap the old serpent and all powers that rise up in rebellion. By this he opens the door to Amenta and covers the naked body of the breathless one, and the fountains only trickle forth where once they gushed.

Then with the work accomplished, Horus of the resurrection goes to see his father and they embrace, and he declares:

"I have glorified thee in a world of black-pitch, I have re-laid thy creeds even though the road was of granite that bore of no impression. I left it with my blood spilt in thy cause and now no man can erase it; and many will bear witness in time to come, for they will reap the harvest of spilling that blood.

I have made sacrifices for thee that no one dare do before, for it had to be that way, and what is more I have brought the two divine sisters back to the father where Seb opened the door, for Sut is no more."

"O God behold thy Son, the object of thy loftiest desires."

But in throwing off the bandages he finds only one arm is acting; not that he has lost an arm, but one arm has not found courage to swing and grasp. Therefore further struggle, and life surges in from those who attend the birth and death ceremonies. Thus it can be seen that this belongs to those days when life radiated with joy and mystery, yet cannot die; it being man's mould and pattern for all time, only to be modified when another has the courage to try; one encouraged by the prototype of ages past.

So the common belief that immortality was brought to light and death by the Personal Jesus Pauline was the prerogative of Horus, anointed and accredited thousands of years ago. While thousands before that, Nebhau Kau laid the foundation of tessellated stones in a Temple Royal; a tabernacle that today man MUST repeat and give rebirth to.

It was because the Egyptians were the authors of the Mysteries and Mythical formulae which embraced the heights, that they had no cause to pervert their beauty by illiterization. Consequently they did not have a redeemer, nor did they revel in the belief of a soul or god being mangled in bloody sweat, by his striving to rescue them from laws perverted.

Man does not know, and has failed to ascertain, that the Fall was due to the losing of the divine sublime illuminative qualities of peace and balance, and that in the deluge that followed, bringing the second scourge, all perception became lost, leaving man naked and empty; completely devoid of all mind memory and royal truth.

Now man is only striving to climb back to his lost heritage by the Christian cult; but unfortunately it is not founded on the accurate Mysteries of the incarnation, the Word that issued out of silence; it is based on spurious beliefs.

The Inflowing Divine Life Force

THE early teachings of Egypt were of the Golden Age, which completely denounces the theories of the present day scientist. So where is man? Utterly in the dark, completely lost to the heights that are his destiny. If man does not return to his path, a new set of Laws would have begun to command the universe; laws of a more stringent encompassment. Then man would really have known the meaning of the grip of the vice. But this Merope has now rectified, through her bringing all to a Solar Oneness of Truth.

MAN MUST TRY TO SEEK FOR THE LOST HIDDEN TRUTH, AND EVENTUALLY BE CONVINCED THAT HE WAS NOT BORN FROM THE BLOOD AND WATER OF A GOD PLACED ON A TAT CROSS BY A DEGENERATED RACE, BUT BORN FROM THE INFLOWING BLOOD OF THE DIVINE HEIGHTS AS THEY BECAME LIVE ISSUE AND PLAUSIBLE SOUND.

In the matter of abstinence and sacrifice, that which has never been adopted in the right light or purpose, it was in the time of earliest Egypt a voluntary action, for it was his only method of translation. Now it remains with man as his royal prerogative of solving the genesis. When he can obtain the complete solution through his mind derivation, his Khu body will become completely intact. Until then it is as the Delta, a land full of tributaries of muddy water and sandy banks infested with crocodiles.

thee of salvation" Thus the deceased one, and one ready for rebirth, was steeped in the waters of natron and nitre and made pure in heart.

Now it is nitrogenic acid, the maelstrom, so it has increased "yea, tenfold." Whereas man now cries out in his latins for salvation, then the Initiate declared "Let me plunge into the divine pool beneath the two divine sycamores of heaven and earth." This represented the pool of purification situated in the northern heaven. The pole around which Amenta was situated as Paradise; the pole of the divine Gods.

There is nought in the Christian doxology that was not brought forth from the Egyptian screeds of divine wisdom, but given fresh titles and dates to confound future recruits to their theories. Yet creed and dogma so falsely identified could not survive the entire path of life, therefore a revised understanding sometime or another must begin to come forth, in order that man can perceive what it is he is striving to readjust before he can become more enlightened.

The Wisdom of Unfoldment

THE actual adjustment is within himself, that he can erase the deep religious errors of the past 1500 years; to realise that all is within the blood from the beginning. When he can grasp this, then he must begin as a little child to gather up the lost threads from past crimes and geni, that they can be solved into wisdom and light unfolded.

The greatest mystery is the blending of the two halves of the soul that became dual in sex. Then Law and Nature were quite good tempered and accepted man's mode of obtaining the wisdom required, but it refused to condone corruption as well as abnormality.

Much mystery has accrued through this secret, for secret as to its divine purpose it has ever been; and accounts for the reason why the Egyptian wore the tail of the lion, while the females had beards placed on the chin. Thus the Gnostic Christ has been figured as a woman with a beard, that which had to find its masculine earthing as practical application in establishment. It also referred to the mystery of wealth accrued by man through either strength or defeat.

It was Shu as male and Tefnut as female becoming blended in perfect Spirit, as mind light in awareness and Oneness. Were not the words of Paul the true Christos revelation, "As many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ, there would be no male nor female, for ye are all one in Christ Jesus!" (Gal. 3 v. 27). Was that not clear and true to the purpose of rebirth? Why confuse it and deny because the animal claws and holds, and out of the other cheek declare "How much you revel in Egyptology."

Then further we get of what man is demanding today, when the Lord is being asked by Salome, "when his kingdom will come," and the reply is the same. "When you shall have trampled under foot the garment of shame." When both internal beings are united and blended into oneness of unity with the heights. Thus this brought the funeral bed and the mummy with the garment of shame, the apron, until it became a symbol of resurrection, then it took on divine symbolism.

MASTERY OF THE FIRE

THE soul dancing with life as he masters the depths of himself, and incorporates all the wonders and the glories of that OS divinity into his internal being. Thus the mind is a radiant creation, for he is now born of the infinity. This is seen by the strings of beads around his neck indicating the revolving chromosomes. (See text in col. 1).

This is verified by the ancient's symbology of Horus with his finger directed to his mouth as the sign of the mouth that must learn to open in profound truth. Until then to remain in utter silence.

All was derived from the Mother's Blood in the Womb of the earth, and procreation in the Real sense of the Word did not occur until the female as the feminine principle became pubescent, the fulness of puberty. That is, ready and full to become pregnant with knowledge and wisdom. Then the Father impregnated through the father, and the Child Horus was born in Atum. He did come earlier but was blind and dumb, and arrived as a white vulture, then he had to go and become black. Poor Sut! to issue forth as the red heifer, then Tauri came into his own.

And as I have already pointed out, this degenerated with the race and became the devouring physically of the aged mother. By then disease was beginning to show its feelers, so by this myth becoming a reality it increased its action twofold.

All knowledge held and enjoyed by the present day man was infused by the Mother Blood in the Matriarchate stage to become Royal and kingly born in the Patriarchate. All wisdom today was derived from the Egyptian Ritual, that which man today derides by stigmatizing as being of the phallic worship of animals.

MAN IS SEEING THROUGH HIS OWN SUBCONSCIOUS VISION AND NOT THE DIVINE ELYSIUM THAT WAS ONCE HIS HOLY WATER. WHEN HE CAN UNDERSTAND THE WORDS FROM THE TURIN PAPYRUS THAT STATES "ILLUSTRATE WITH WATER IN TATTU AND ANOINT WITH OIL IN ABYDOS" HE WILL HAVE THE ANSWER TO ALL HIS WANDERINGS.

The Nile as man's bloodstream, received the whole of what man now holds as wisdom and of what man made in its repetition in his weavings: "I give thee liquid in my humidity which brings

THE HEALING COLUMN

THE main article in the Gazette this month, upon the mystery of the Gordian Knot, holds the wisdom of man's health and well-being in this present day and age. Man must realise that his state of health today is due solely to the way that he has accepted the inflowing elements during this, and all previous incarnations. The Gordian Knot represents the confusion which all has been turned into, through man being fed upon the wrong wisdom, thereby bringing a 'stoned state' to man and earth alike. But as soon as man begins to turn to the Mysteries, in true faith and belief,—in no way using them for selfish motives,—he will then open up the Truth and get behind the Veils of Isis.

It is up to anyone who is afflicted in any way, to look up to the Starry Heights and bring the Great Lord of those Heights into his being, bowing his knees before them. And as he cries out to the Lord to give unto him the Glory whereby he can become redeemed, so will he be shown the way to unfold and untie his Gordian Knot; but he will have to go through the cleansing preparation once this is put into operation.

Epilepsy

Mr. W. F.,
San Francisco, U.S.A.

"I am a born again Christian and have graduated from a metaphysical college. My major problem is epilepsy. The first of many attacks occurred around sixteen years ago and the frequency has been on the increase. Many times they have put me into a hospital in need of several stitches, or with a fractured rib or crushed vertebra. I have followed the advice of many doctors and Masters, all apparently to no avail.

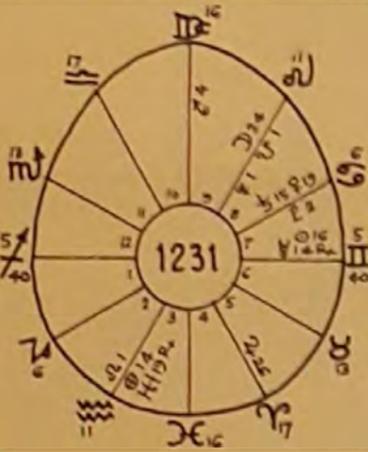

After following the advice of a medical doctor, most highly recommended by a very dear friend, and taking "phenobarbital and dilantin" for approximately two years, about five years ago, I still have the problem of poor vision, poor memory, in addition to ruined teeth. All of these, in my opinion, were caused by the prescription. Then I met a friend who recommended, most highly, that I write to you."

ONCE again we will let the chart (1231) speak for itself, for it will prove my own beliefs to be true. The owner of this chart has the Sun and Mercury in Gemini, but with Mercury retrograde, both in the 7th house, which is one of the most difficult houses in the chart to unfold from. Here the mind has become fixed by the retrograde action, whereby it has resulted in Pluto in the 7th, causing untold chaos with Saturn, Venus and Neptune in the 8th. Then we find the Moon and Mars in the 9th house, that of the expanded mind, with Virgo the sign of the intuitional mind, upon the Mid Heavens.

All indicating that the soul has been dilly-dallying for ages, until now there is a mighty impediment. This is verified by Uranus retrograde in the 3rd house, that of the mind, with the Path of Destiny indicating that if the mind is not opened up, then severe restriction will take place. Sagittarius upon the cusp of the Ascendant is also indicating that the mission of the soul was to get his mind expanded.

I am afraid that it is obvious by his letter that this restriction has come about, and I am very sorry to hear it. The major point here is of getting the mind expanded, but the extent of what expansion means is a mighty big issue. I notice in your letter you say you are a born again Christian. Friend, I think it would be just as well if you could come away from that outmoded ritual and try and find the Truth regarding the glory of the Divinity, and the mighty wonders of his wisdom.

I feel very sorry for anybody who goes on "stomaching" a dead god upon a cross, for I have no doubt that it is enough to stone anyone who continues to reverence it. You did ask me in your last sentence Mr. F., as to whether I could help you or not, and truth is my forthright banner, so take what I tell you in the light of my eagerness to help you. The very fact of your poor vision declares of your limited sight to see the truth, so do come away from old worn out ritual and get down to follow your 3rd house instruction, where your Path of Destiny is conjunct to Uranus.

Break away from old ideas and open up your mind to greater and more profound truths, and let your friend who introduced you to us help you further by discussing the Word with you and helping you to see the greater depths of life.

Although I feel that herbs will not help you as much as mind expansion, I would suggest that you take ROSMARY, EYEBRIGHT and VERVAIN, with plenty of NERVE PILLS. These will help the faculties considerably.

A Cloudy Mind

Miss T. H.,
California, U.S.A.

"I should like prayers for the healing of my mind, that the clouds might lift, for my progress is slow... I also have quite a bit of pain in my back and spine, and also my legs."

In looking into your chart (1218) to see what is the cause of your difficulties, I could not help noticing what a wonderful one it is, but your trouble stems from the fact that over the ages you have not made the most of it, and now find yourself flooded with lunar waters and well caught up in earthly states.

Your Path of Destiny which indicates your journey of life, is in the 1st house, and telling you to get active with your mind, but this you have not been doing in your past lives, and so have placed Saturn into the 1st house and firmly fixed your feet into a block of cement. Yet you have the Sun and Uranus up in your heights, ever awaiting you to blossom your mind, but because you have refused to do this you have placed Venus and Jupiter down the 8th house, that of the pit.

Your chart fully indicates that the good things of life mean an awful lot to you, and in your estimation are the necessities of life. You must take great care with your diet, this is the main factor in your chart, for unless the diet is kept strictly under control you will never be able to bring the blossoming of your mind, and which is so essential for you.

If you do not do this, I am afraid that you will have to learn the hard way, for your Dragon's Head and Tail, which are from the 12th house to the 6th, in Aries and Libra, speak of a bloodstream that is infused with waste and clogging the kidneys, causing them to send all their waste back into the tissues.

My only advice to you is to take some strong herbs, such as BUCHU, CLIVERS, and VALERIAN, and this to be taken in abundance until the bloodstream is cleansed. I am sorry that I have had to be so drastic and frank but you did ask me for advice.

ly, but she won it, and wrested it out of the hands of orthodoxy. So she could not possibly have gained it, unless she won it by true justification.

Now the moment has come when we are going to get the Infinity dancing. But it is so new, it is so completely unevolved, that it now has to be put into its moving Grace. This she will do, but she must go on being the Scapegoat for us to move it into place. This she has willingly accepted, and then she will be able to free herself, because what it will mean is that man will begin to wake up and start to lift up the strontium darkness, and that is what is needed.

We want the strontium darkness broken down, because while there is one soul who is earthed in a 'refusal of truth,' and in a state of blindness, the strontium still remains. So what she has to do, is to go on driving and driving, until she breaks down the beast-state of all souls.

This is why we have said to her, "Ignore those who will not go with you. You bring the Cosmos into birth." Because once she brought the Cosmos into birth, she had the 'Ally' to feed the depths. There would be the 'adjustment,' because then there would be no alternative but to be fed by those Waters.

Now let us take the Instrument's Chart.

LOOK at the 5th house! There is the struggle, the Saturn state, to master the 'fire,' and transmute those elements from the female state into the male state of 'light.'

In the 6th house you see the Path of Destiny in the Sign of Aquarius, where she has to bring all to a state of 'light' and 'electrification.' This she could only do by Venus and Mercury, raising up the lower Cancer state, and forcing the Female-Capricorn to become alight. Consequently Neptune would then be able to dance and raise up the Gemini state into the glory of the complete Mercurial dance.

There you see the 'plowing' that must take place in the heights; everything then raised up to the higher. But in the base, the 4th house, you have Uranus that is going to set the whole of the home-state of the soul 'sparking.'

It is a case of transmuting the 'fire' in its lowest state into the higher state of the 'spirit.' That is the Yod of God; it is the complete transmutation of the 'fire' from the lowest into the highest as the 'spirit'; and that was her Work. Now, she can only do that by continuing to bring down the Elements in their higher and gradual manifestation of Truth.

Q. Where the Mercury is opposed to Saturn, does it mean that her mind is always transmuting the old states of the 'fire'?

Always; the Fire will everlastingly 'bite' at her, forcing her mind to say "Why." "Why is this happening?" "What is it happening for?" "I have got to know why." "Nobody is just going to hold me, and do what they like with me. I have got to find out why."

Q. Unless she did this, it would not set the Uranus sparking in the 4th!

That's right; it is sparking with new thought.

Now Neptune cannot manifest in a better Sign than Gemini! It has the freedom of Mercury with which to dance, and find the so-called imagination and belief which brings an establishment of 'new birth.' Because everything is belief; the soul seeing the Elements and giving them form in his own mind, for no Power that comes down has any form; you give them a form, a glory, but not a form that is solid, of cement. You give them a form of 'light,' a form of manifestation through your mind unfolding of the Word.

Q. So when the seven Elements are born of 'light,' then the Infinity will be born within them!

That's quite true. Then it will dance through the whole seven bodies, and everlastingly manifest new creations. Because everything comes from the centre body; it is not born in the flesh, and it is not born in the mind; it is born in the internal body and 'inflowing Breath.' There it slowly comes into birth through the 'bodies' and becomes manifest in the seventh. But when it manifests, is it going to manifest in its 8th state as deception, or as truth? If the latter, then it becomes as Mind-light.

On the lowest it is of the strontium states. So is it going to be such that it is so blended-in—as shown in the Instrument's diagram—that it brings forth the VEGA state of Divinity? That is the point.

WHATEVER WISDOM YOU TAKE, YOU MUST GIVE IT REBIRTH BY EATING IT AND CHEWING IT UNTIL IT BECOMES WITHIN YOU AS A REALITY, NOT AN ILLUSION. THEN YOU BECOME A MAN OF WISDOM AND REAL BIRTH; OTHERWISE YOU ARE STILL THE BEAST DANCING WITH THE FIRE!

The dancing tonight has begun a New Birth. There is no longer a World of Earth. All is born of VEGA, the Star of the future.

Many changes will take place, many under-currents will begin; but being a 'world of matter,' all will slowly move into place. And yet it will be dynamic, because it will only be registered as a 'single statement' that covers a multitude of creations.

The most important thing is you perceiving this depth and beginning to put it into operation.

THIS IS A DYNAMIC MOMENT OF REBIRTH A VERY DYNAMIC MOMENT.

This is the manifestation of the rebirth that was set into operation at the last state of crucifixion; the crucifixion of the 'old' and the resurrection of the 'new.' Now it will be 'brought' on the 1st of May in a 'new-born' state of the World and gradually manifest as the Cosmos of VEGA, the universal Divinity of the body, fire, now manifesting in all its 'spirit' Unification as a One-Pointed State of Light.

Readers' Letters

MAY I take this opportunity to once again remind our readers in the U.S.A. that we do need their Zip Code numbers for mailing purposes if we are to guarantee safe and speedy delivery of the Gazette. Also to those in America seeking delineations, if it is at all possible, please let us know the Standard Time that was in operation at the time of birth. This will save us a great deal of enquiries and letter writing,

Comment on "THE SOUL CREATION"

R. A. Hebert, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A.
Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Just a few words of appreciation for the tremendous work you are doing under such difficulties and tremendous odds. Thank you so much for the wonderful Egyptian Mysteries. They are so informative, and I particularly enjoy the clarification and the manner in which presented. Also, I would like to thank you for the beautiful article in the April, 1967 O.G., under the heading of "Reminiscences," on page 8, column 4 under the sub-heading "THE SOUL CREATION."

"Man is a god-born creature, but in sinking so low in his outlook and desire impetus, has caused many to bring into birth elementals as children. For instead of the true purpose of expansion of oneself, it is sheer lust, and the motive of the soul deems the results. Hence entities from the higher planes are not able to come down and advance the earth in its growth..."

It really makes my heart glad to hear you mention those words. I have always felt deep down within, that the accepted pattern as it is, was not quite what it should be. I can't explain the feeling or even attempt to analyse it, but this makes it quite clear and plain

(to me) just why we are so backward, ignorant, and why we have been referred to as the Dark Star.

Because of man's stubbornness and determined refusal to acknowledge and investigate the subjective side of life, he thereby lays himself wide open to the dark and sinister forces that make it their business to keep him in his ignorant state.

Is there any hope that after countless centuries that the dark clouds overhanging the planet will be consumed and removed now that the higher vibrations have been earthed through the Royal Scapegoat?

While it is a vast subject, I have always felt that these strong forces of darkness have been in control of much of the violence, greed, lust, and viciousness now so prevalent upon the planet, and all around us it is so apparent that they do have willing agents to carry out their nefarious schemes.

It has been such a comfort and blessing to know that you have chosen to remain with the 'sorrowful star' for awhile, but when you make your exit, what then...?

Of course I presume that there will be others to point the way, but of what use, if what they try to accomplish is permitted to become distorted, falsified, etc., which has been our lot for ages of time?

Can it be that the time will come when honest, sincere, constructive people will be assisted by the Spiritual Forces to further their goals, and not be over-shadowed and destroyed by the ignorant?

I can quite realize the necessity of this thing called Polarity, but it would seem that in ages past it has always been so much 'agin us' and not enough 'for us.'

I shall not take up more of your time Great One, and it does seem so little and inadequate to just say

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU HAVE DONE!

Miss G. Evans,
Colchester, Essex.

Loving and joyous greetings to you all and my sincere and grateful "Thank You's" for your healing thoughts—upholding and sustaining powers which are so generously bestowed on all in need.

I am deeply interested in the lectures given on Reincarnation and am reading these slowly and thoughtfully, hoping I can retain some of their Truth and Love teachings.

Some of these teachings I have known before, but the deeper and purer truths I hope to retain and perhaps see working out in my own life or others.

I am deeply grateful to have these teachings which I know and feel sure are a building up of consciousness and expansion to the New Life we are so closely approaching.

Miss Kate Monigal,
Portland, U.S.A.

It has been such a privilege to be one of the Pioneers. I have seen one or two who have advanced a little from this work through my pioneering, and that makes for a wonderful feeling of accomplishment and fulfilment to be so small a part of your great work. Now the Higher Powers have told me that I am to participate to a greater degree in spreading the "Word" to others. They have told me that I have been "Chosen," that many are called but few chosen. I feel so very, very humble and grateful, but I also have such an upliftment within.

I am forever grateful to you and your great work, and I am sure that it is through my contact with you that I have been enabled to raise myself up to the Higher Planes.

Sincerely with much love and many Blessings.

Mrs. L. Rudd,
Birmingham.

I was so pleased to receive the copies of the Occult Gazette, I look forward so much to them. I call sometimes for the odd small amounts of herbs at the Health Centre in Birmingham, and I now leave them 2 copies of the O.G. as I find they lend them round and then pass them on elsewhere. The lady I spoke to yesterday said she came from a family who studied herbs and their uses, and who came from Cornwall.

She said they were very deeply interested in what Mrs. Spearman-Cook would have to say about the recent disaster around the Cornish Coast; there must be some good reason for it, the same as the sad story in Wales a short time ago, and indeed all the horrors that are taking place, as we were warned.

Mrs. Ada Paynter,
Ostend, Waikato Island, N.Z.

Enclosed please find the year's subscription for the Occult Gazette, which is still doing wonderful things for me. As I take of the Word and eat it, it never ceases to amaze me and enlighten.

It opens our eyes to what we have been; eating, drinking, and sleeping, marrying and giving in marriage, but in darkness.

It is truly great to be in the Light—and know it, which has become positive for me. Thank you and God Bless You, and all at the Temple, as each of us presses on into the wonderful future.

May one and all enjoy a truly glorious Easter.

Egyptian Mysteries

WILL REALISE IT IS A CONTINUAL REACHING UP TO THE HEIGHTS AND GAINING ITS DIVINE INFLOW, THEN COMING DOWN TO THE DEPTHS THAT ALL CAN BE DIGESTED AND REBORN COMPLETELY IN BLOOD, MIND AND TISSUE, AS WELL AS MOTHER EARTH, IN PRACTICAL ISSUE.

But what is gained each time is man's basic storehouse of rebirth; no labouring, because the soul has revelled in delights of animal desires, results in no mind issue at a moment when awareness is peeping its antennae over the hedge, and can gain no foundation, owing to the barren state of the feminine pubescence.

No one can attain to heaven whether it is Egyptian or Western without having sown and become the worker in Amenta. To gain of what is our basic heritage and of what we are forced to confine ourselves to as prototype, we must labour to find of relativity, right down to the basic thread, and of what we as spirit debased into mortality, gave unto our own individual pattern of destiny and fate. So our present karmic path of rebirth and regeneration is 13,000 years old, with the divinity to be gained of the basic of resurrection as 10,000 years standing.

The Nile, as muddy as she is at the present time, could, if her silt was dredged and probed, reveal untold wisdom of ages laboured and tears shed. Years and time filled with the war against Apap, Sut and Sebau, and the burning Sahara, besides the besotted who lived and garotted on the blood of those who laboured and sweated. "O masters of the Oasis, where art thou; give unto us of thy secret, thy hidden wealth, the lost beauty."

They were times when Osiris entered into the Judgment Hall and declared when on trial "I have not been a land-grabber, I have not exacted more than should be done for me as the first fruits of each day's work." Thus divination, immortality and justification was so near to man's rights of vision, that the unjust, beginning to filter in at those times, had mortal dread of facing his own divine judge. Thus the Ritual declares that Atum, the maker of men, was "lying awake while all men lie asleep, to seek out the good of his creatures."

The actual recorder in the Judgment Hall was Taht the moon-god in his role as Thoth, and as the lawyer he played the character of the deceased when he placed the heart of his client in the scales against Maati the goddess of justice. Therefore he leaned towards mercy that the judgment might be favourably inclined, and exerted a little pressure on the human side of the balance.

THE EGYPTIAN PARADISE WAS TO ATTAIN TO THE HARVEST-FIELD OF AARRU AND WAS THE WORKER PERSONIFIED, SO WHERE HAS MAN GAINED, CHANGED, OR EVEN BECOME MORE ENLIGHTENED THAN 13,000 YEARS AGO WHEN HE KNEW ALL, BUT NOT AS TO HOW BITTER IT TASTED?

Now having gone so far in explanation, the next question is, "What good would be accomplished by reaching a planet of the moon, if there was one? To land, it seems that everybody would have to be in a Space suit, when on the Earth man is free, walking about in bikini's and mini's. What does he want to take on of the other for, especially as there is no air as the scientists believe.

The real answer to this, is man inwardly being told to get his mind and mind bodies built up, and draw forth of the Fiery Element from the Antares generative inflow. But this means hard work, casting all old lunar states overboard, and linking with the Divine Source of Creation by aspirational belief and upward ascension of thought, thus absorbing the Fiery Life of the Sun.

All must believe that there is somewhere a Divine Source of Creative Purpose, a Mind superior to all beings; how, why and wherefore, is not comprehended by all. This is as the Phoenix who is ever giving Birth to Himself out of Himself. All these as assimilation, have been prepared by me as the Scapegoat. So man has only to build up his mind onto the Neptunian Plane of light and creative art, but only those with true intent will get through, for all this must be done in love and belief.

The wisdom of this has already been prepared in the truths put forth in the Occult Gazette in a Neptunian Way. Thus lifting man up out of the darkness of matter, showing him the beauties of the risen up glories of the heavenly mind. The mind of a Sage, a Rishi or Prophet, one with the Deity in their heart as the radiant glory of life. Every man is his own priest, his own communicator with the heights.

The scientists are "dead" men, with finance as big business in the offing, to end all up in a diabolical war with the working classes to fulfill the role. Why is man such a fool to listen to them, for they are leading him to the slaughter like a puppet. When, if he could use his own mind, and peer into quite simple wisdom of explanation, all would reveal its true perspective.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 9

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IN the introduction into the ancient Phallic Mysteries we have been able to perceive the intrinsic depth of which these consist, and in holding so much in their depth it would not be well for us to pass on before we extract as much as possible from that dark and mysterious pool. The wisdom of the mummy and raising of the dead has been incorporated in religions all over the universe, and still holds important prominence in the Catholic denomination in the carrying round of the Host. This is a rite carried forward from Egypt, which to them was the imaging of the Ka rising and manifesting, and was as Osiris in the Monstrance. In the present denomination this is a transparent crescent-shaped vessel in which the Host or manifestation is exhibited, and represents the Solar Fire as the Christos Blood drawn down and raised up by the adoration and prayers of the priests, and would be to orthodoxy as the corpus raised up.

Activating the Solar Blood-stream

THE Egyptians understood this more than anything in their rituals, for royalty was their blood life and heritage from the heights, that was very near them, and had not yet been lost in worldliness and materialism.

If you can understand a little of this depth, then as of the Host so of the Solar Blood in the soul's own inner being, for when such is raised up within, as the seventh body becoming of the eighth, the soul is christed in limbus. The next task is to be christed in nimbus that the resurrection can be performed. This usually takes three days, but there can be a catastrophe where the Host becomes fixed and needs help, taking a much longer time to come forth.

Within the Monstrance is held the power whereby the multitude are blessed and given life; that is, when there are priests who are capable of capturing this power, and then it must be continually fed and refuelled by earnest prayers and entreaties. When this is accomplished it is held up for all to see.

This was what the Goddess Bast drew down in the Temple worship in Bubastes, but not of Solar Fire so much as the Magnetic Fire of elements captured and controlled. This linked more with the starry heights than the Solar, for up to then the Solar blood was not circulating so freely as it does today since the Christos link with a human soul. It still lay a long way from physical unity.

Thus here we find a ceremony literally taking place today that was once performed 13,000 years ago, a time before man had reached the stage of manhood, and lived in the Motherhood rites seeking of the Lunar rebirth that magnetic strength became their fiery essence. This was the major ceremony at Bubastes where a colony of white cats aided the ceremony by being the Totem earthing for holding the magnetic force, without them absorbing and devouring. These acted as a mode of attraction, making Bubastes the centre of worship and store-house of power.

In the literal ceremony of the soul, the raising of the "dead" can cover many stages; the raising of the Christos light from a mere flicker into awareness, or even only consciousness, but it can awaken all planes right down to the Ka body.

This is the Baptism of Fire where John becomes the Jesus and obtains the beatic vision; he who has mastered matter and reaches illuminative heights, whereby the soul touches but the fringe of this rarity and becomes an illuminati, one illumined. In the Ritual it is declared by the deceased as he rises "I am the beloved son of my father". Osiris is bodily

THE MYSTERY OF THE APRON

THE glories of the Apron now as the risen up soul, the raised up philosophy from that which was once fallen, and now the glories of the mind. For as he mattered the dragon these glories became his dancing affinity, the wonders and unfoldment of divine glory. (See text on page 13, col. 5).

changed in Horus becoming as Ansu-Horus the fired one.

This was one of the many ceremonies carried out in the catacombs by the early Christians to make man, as Horus the son of earth, into Horus the son of God. This was usually performed by the oil of a tree or fat of the bull, the richness gained by the soul in its tree growth and Taurean stability. In the Roman Church it was performed by palm oil, and became the Corpus Christi raised up. This represented endurance and knowledge gained through their ceremonies that contained some form of initiation.

At Memphis this was seen as Ptah in matter, becoming Kheper Iu-em-hetep in spirit, hence the hawk as a bird was seen hovering over the corpse of the one considered "dead".

The depth being the resurrection of the Kamite son, the very merge of beginning bringing forth its unknown depth as a reality of mind creation. This is the destiny of all who stay the course of life and do not lose the right of living. This too is going to be the future calamity of Relativity fulfilment, or disintegration of the soul and the returning of a blank norm to the heights of humanity.

The preparing of the "winding sheet" in Egypt was as important a ritual as many now preparing their burial shroud, though with the times man has ever forgotten this, through his worldly mind considering the next meal as being far more important. This sheet could be any length from seven to a thousand yards without a seam, and when the soul was truly

The Initiation Ritual

WHEN this ceremony took place in a ritual it was performed by a prospective priest of the Temple worship. When performed in the Pyramids it was considered a ceremony of very high honour. The first ceremony on entry took place in the bowels of the pit, the wall of Truth, to reveal the stamina of the intended candidate. Very few ever came through this, for the soul was hypnotised into trance in an to make an enforced entry into the underworld where he perceived the days of life. This was comparatively early, in what of now?

The final initiation was in the heights and equalled the depths, but now performed in the king's chamber in the sarcophagus, where exactly the same ceremony was performed in the upper stone burial coffin, the time according to the heights where the soul would perceive his future duties. Many found this too enormous to accept and never returned out of the trance, but descended down to the pit to never regain any memory of what had taken place. But if successful the soul became an adept of no mean heretofore, for he became karastof, a messiah, or in Hebrew, Messiah.

All initiations were considered very sacred, and each Temple held its own secrets and initiatory sacred rites which were never revealed to any. The excommunications performed by the Papal system, although borrowed from the Egyptian temple rites, were nothing compared to the rigid and drastic rules established by the Egyptian priest of ancient Egypt. This became necessary owing to the disaster that entered in the Phallic Worship of Bubastes; uninitiated souls turning the ritual and rites into their own festivals of orgies, having interpreted the sacred and mysterious rites in their own beliefs and desires.

But all of the knowledge dwindled down in the later times to the Totemic mystery of the young-man-making, and became an initiatory rite at puberty to try and raise more warrior-like men. You also find in the Holy Scriptures how the descending dove entered into the soul, as the Host, to be embalmed and risen and became as the sacrament received in the Temple worship of Edfu and Denderah.

Then it was as the extreme Union to the dying soul that it could be reborn, while it ended up being Union to the actual soul that was dead through disease, and about to depart the earth. But what the moderns did not seem to know was the fact that only the one Christed in the true sense of the word could deliver this Union unto another, and really be the means of raising the "dead" into life.

This was only one of the ten Mystic Rituals performed by the Egyptians in their ceremonies of Phallic Worship, the raising of the generative from into re-generation; something which if allowed to degenerate into the negative channel would bring a Sodom and Gomorrah that cannot be retrieved, but only burnt by fire and sealed, that it never occurred again. This is what followed at Bubastes through the young men of Phefeth and Aven taking all into their own hands and committing the sacred rites into public functions of open orgies.
