

SONS OF GOD AND SONS OF MEN

by E. H. GILMOUR.

An original and scientifically sound interpretation of the essential facts of the Bible, revealing the goal of Creation and unveiling the mystery of the Fall and its power to-day; calling upon those who have illumination to unite in meeting the coming World Crisis. A new and eminently rational theory of virgin birth and the identity of Jesus Christ is put forward, and many other questions of moment dealt with.

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| Chap. 1 The World Crisis. | Chap. 5 Moses and the Prophets. |
| Chap. 2 The Creation of the Immortals or Adamic Race. | Chap. 6 The Incarnation. |
| Chap. 3 The Fall | Chap. 7 Jesus the Christ. |
| Chap. 4 The Chosen People and the Redemptive Scheme. | Chap. 8 Woman |
| | Chap. 9 The Second Advent. |
| | Chap. 10 Summary and Conclusion. |

"It is a sincere and in many respects an original contribution to Biblical interpretation, and one that is likely to provoke a good deal of discussion."—

Toronto, Canada.

"The Canadian Theosophist" was founded in 1920 on the formation of the Theosophical Society in Canada. This National Society has endeavoured consistently to maintain the policy of the T.S. as settled in 1882, and has declined to endorse the various offshoots associated with Adyar in recent years. At the same time it preserves for its members the broadest possible individual freedom under the Adyar Constitution, while recognizing Madame Blavatsky's works as having established a standard of Theosophic life and thought. Its note of independent thinking is almost unique in the Theosophical Society. Foundation Letters and Teachings By BROTHER XII

With an Introduction by
WILL LEVINGTON COMFORT

We are offering to the world in the above-named latest book of the AQUARIAN FOUNDATION what in our opinion is the greatest and most important Message given to man since that of Christ.

The new and startling statements in the Letters, as from a very high authority, opening up not only great Truths, but almost unbelievable Evils of which all but a very few are entirely unaware, and which are the chief cause of humanity's present seemingly hopeless state, is enough to make it the greatest human document of the age.

But the new and sorely needed Teachings given openly and of so practical and helpful a nature that all who read may profit and grow from their mere reading; as well as the remarkable prophecies in the Articles which will surely set the whole thinking world talking and pondering and sooner or later accepting their Truth—all makes this book one that must be reckoned with, one whose pronouncements will be discussed and, yes, fought over by earnest thinkers in all parts of the world and in all classes of society.

But within and above all this will be noted by every serious reader a Power and Authority in the telling of it that one is made to feel is Divine. It has that convincing quality which leaves no room for doubt, and one leaves every reading of it in amazement as if from a conference with a Teacher in a Higher World.

This is a book which, after reading, you will want every one of your friends to read.

The Universal Eclectic Association

Has transferred its Central Seat from Rome to Mexico.

Founded in Italy in 1917, the U.E.A. is a Philosophic Initiatic Academy pursuing the three following purposes:

1. To promote a synthetic, integral and universal orientation in the field of knowledge, thus realising the unity of truth in all its scientific, philosophic and religious manifestations;

2. To reconstitute from its scattered fragments in its primitive Unity the Science and Art of Right Living, and to teach it, in its different degrees, in the successive Sections of the Society;

3. To instaurate the Universal Language in its most perfect form—the unitive eclectic World Speech spontaneously arising among people of different nations having one mind, heart and aims.

THE ASSOCIATION SENDS TO ITS MEMBERS CORRESPONDENCE LESSONS IN THE THREE LANGUAGES—ENGLISH, SPANISH AND ITALIAN

MAN AND HIS DESTINY in the Light of the Védānta

Translated from the French edition of "L'Homme et son Devenir selon La Védānta," by C. J. Whitby.

Demy 8vo, cloth.

10s. 6d. net.

A scholarly but in no sense merely academical analysis of the philosophy of the Védānta. Among the vexed problems discussed are those of the nature of the self, the theory of reincarnation and the correlative doctrine of Karmo pardon by Yoga, and many others, the whole combining to form an illuminative contribution to contemporary Western expositions of the most metaphysical doctrine of the East.

THE ASTROLOGICAL TAROT

By GEORGES MUCHERY. Translated from the French by M. Vallior.

Large Demy 8vo, 320 pp.; with plates.

Approx. 15s. net.

An exhaustive exposition of a system of divination combining the advantages of Astrology and the Tarot. Profusely illustrated, and embodying a wealth of detailed instructions, this manual should enable the practitioner to apply effectively any latent faculty with which he may naturally be endowed.

THE SCIENCE OF NUMEROLOGY

What numbers mean to you!

By WALTER B. GIBSON.

3s. 6d. net.

The science of numbers is as old as mankind, and the relation of numbers to the lives of men has been a matter of investigation since the days of the Greek philosophers, centuries before Christ. It is only recently, however, that this absorbing science has again been applied to the affairs of men.

While this book is authoritative and adequately complete in its treatment of Numerology, it is simple and easily understood. The material is logically arranged. First the numbers and their meanings are taken up, and then the laws by which they are applied to the individual are explained. Several typical "readings" are given, and one chapter is devoted to an amazing account of the relation of numbers to the lives of many great men. A table of the combinations of numbers governing outstanding human characteristics is given, and the best numbers for many professions and occupations are listed.

THE WHITE BROTHER

by MICHAEL JUSTE. 7s. 6d. net.

This "White Brother" showed the author how, through spiritual exercises, he could visit those realms which to the ordinary man are forbidden lands. He showed him, for example, how to travel on the mental plane—how he could consciously project his double to vast distances, and bring back into conscious life the remembrance of such journeys. But the scope of the book is wider than this. Michael Juste elucidates many questions which perplex most thinking men and women.

OCCULTISM AND CHRISTIANITY

by HUGH ROSCOE. 7s. 6d. net.

Among the many problems dealt with are those concerning the Virgin Birth, Reincarnation and Immortality. The principles of occult and esoteric teaching are discussed, while a dignified plea for Christian unity concludes a study which holds great promise of help for the earnest seeker after Truth.

THE GREAT SECRET.

What is the Secret great that man for ever reaches out to know?
What is the Cosmic Power from which all forces flow?
What is the Name of the Great Master men to find use all their skill?
He lives within thyself, his name—the Higher Will.
What is the deeper Secret for which men ever yearn?
What is the wondrous power that makes men darkness spurn?
What is Her name whom all men try to meet?
That name, too, within thyself is Wisdom Sweet.
What is the deepest Secret that man will ever know?
What is the Power that lifts this world of woe?
Whom is it to that the Great Master bends His knee?

THE SCRIPTS OF CLEOPHAS

Written by the hand of GERALDINE D. CUMMINS. With a critical Introduction.
 Extra Large Demy 8vo, 304 pp., cloth gilt. Approx. 12s. 6d. net.
 One of the most remarkable manifestations of psychic power ever brought before the notice of the public is to be found in the production, by automatic writing, of the Scripts of Cleophas.

MAN AND HIS DESTINY in the Light of the Védānta

Translated from the French edition of "L'Homme et son Devenir selon La Védānta," by C. J. Whitby. Demy 8vo, cloth. 10s. 6d. net.
 A scholarly but in no sense merely academical analysis of the philosophy of the Védānta. Among the vexed problems discussed are those of the nature of the self, the theory of reincarnation and the correlative doctrine of Karma pardon by Yoga, and many others, the whole combining to form an illuminative contribution to contemporary Western expositions of the most metaphysical doctrine of the East.

THE ASTROLOGICAL TAROT

by GEORGES MUCHERY. Translated from the French by M. Vallior.
 Large Demy 8vo, 320 pp.; with plates. 15s. net.
 An exhaustive exposition of a system of divination combining the advantages of Astrology and the Tarot. Profusely illustrated, and embodying a wealth of detailed instructions, this manual should enable the practitioner to apply effectively any latent faculty with which he may naturally be endowed.

THE SCIENCE OF NUMEROLOGY

What numbers mean to you!

by WALTER B. GIBSON. 3s. 6d. net.
 While this book is authoritative and adequately complete in its treatment of Numerology, it is simple and easily understood. The material is logically arranged. First the numbers and their meanings are taken up, and then the laws by which they are applied to the individual are explained. Several typical "readings" are given, and one chapter is devoted to an amazing account of the relation of numbers to the lives of many great men. A table of the combinations of numbers governing outstanding human characteristics is given, and the best numbers for many professions and occupations are listed.

SELF-CONTROL AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT

by PHILIP HARRISON. Editor of "The Writer" and author of "Free-lance Fallacies." 1s. 6d. net.

Everybody admits the value, both spiritual and material, of self-control.
 But to attain it, even in a small degree, is usually regarded as almost a superhuman task. In this book, the author has endeavoured to show that anyone who practises the right methods may acquire, almost without effort, sufficient self-control for all practical purposes. A section of the book is devoted to examining the difference between true self-control and the many false varieties passing as such.

SIMPLE METAPHYSICS

By

HENRY THOMAS HAMBLIN

entitled

THE WAY OF ESCAPE

OR THE OVERCOMING OF EVIL AND NEGATIVE CONDITIONS.

2nd Edition.

14th Thousand.

"This little book is an attempt to put Truth into a simple form for beginners. Of necessity it is metaphysical in nature, for metaphysics enables us to understand the truth of Life and Being, thus paving the way to realisation of Truth, the ultimate goal of all seekers. Realisation comes through illumination, and illumination through the Spirit of Truth. Metaphysics, however, gives us a logical and reasonable ground for belief and faith, and shows us what must be the Truth, although this may be in direct opposition to the evidence of the senses and the wisdom of the human mind."

Preface. Chapter I.—Truth. Chapter II.—The Senses. Chapter III.—Life and the World a Reflection. Chapter IV.—The Problem of Evil. Chapter V.—The Truth about Evil. Chapter VI.—More About the Problem of Evil. Chapter VII.—The One Principle of Good. Chapter VIII.—Your Life is Perfect, or Resist not Evil. Chapter IX.—Reality and Unreality. Chapter X.—An Invincible Weapon. Chapter XI.—The Healing Power of Truth. Chapter XII.—The Life of Abundance. Chapter XIII.—The Life of Thanksgiving. Chapter XIV.—Sin and the Way Out. Chapter XV.—Reversing the Lever. Chapter XVI.—The Freedom of the Spirit. Chapter XVII.—Perseverance. Chapter XVIII.—Signs Following.

"If a man die . . . ?"

by

REV. J.

CAMPBELL MURRAY, B.A.

In this charmingly written and daintily produced brochure, the author has succeeded in bringing together with remarkable effect the testimony of a veritable cloud of witnesses bearing on the question of human immortality. Few, surely, who honestly ponder this presentation of the problem will be able to resist the conviction that man is more than the animals, not merely by the higher development of his intelligence, but in virtue of the spark of Divinity within him.

by

MRS. ST. CLAIR STOBART

Crown 8vo, cloth. 6s. net.

In an endeavour to reduce to the one common denominator of Spiritualism the religious beliefs which have characterised mankind through untold ages, Mrs. St. Clair Stobart brings forward from amongst the great company of the immortals, as bearing testimony to the immortality of the human soul, such august witnesses as Sophocles, Xenophon, Cicero, Iamblichus, and others. Incidentally, the reader discovers that the "either—or" leaves him no alternative between a belief in the divine origin of the soul, and—chaos!

Toronto, Canada.

"The Canadian Theosophist" was founded in 1920 on the formation of the Theosophical Society in Canada. This National Society has endeavoured consistently to maintain the policy of the T.S. as settled in 1882, and has declined to endorse the various offshoots associated with Adyar in recent years. At the same time it preserves for its members the broadest possible individual freedom under the Adyar Constitution, while recognizing Madame Blavatsky's works as having established a standard of Theosophic life and thought. Its note of independent thinking is almost unique in the Theosophical Society. Its news is not confined to the Theosophical Society, but deals with all the cognate societies and movements of interest to students and its articles treat of religion, philosophy and science.

Foundation Letters and Teachings BROTHER XII

We are offering to the world in the above-named latest book of the AQUARIAN FOUNDATION what in our opinion is the greatest and most important Message given to man since that of Christ.

The new and startling statements in the Letters, as from a very high authority, opening up not only great Truths, but almost unbelievable Evils of which all but a very few are entirely unaware, and which are the chief cause of humanity's present seemingly hopeless state, is enough to make it the greatest human document of the age.

But the new and sorely needed Teachings given openly and of so practical and helpful a nature that all who read may profit and grow from their mere reading; as well as the remarkable prophecies in the Articles which will surely set the whole thinking world talking and pondering and sooner or later accepting their Truth—all makes this book one that must be reckoned with, one whose pronouncements will be discussed and, yes, fought over by earnest thinkers in all parts of the world and in all classes of society.

But within and above all this will be noted by every serious reader a Power and Authority in the telling of it that one is made to feel is Divine. It has that convincing quality which leaves no room for doubt, and one leaves every reading of it in amazement as if from a conference with a Teacher in a Higher World.

This is a book which, after reading, you will want every one of your friends to read.

Apart from the fact of its being one more witness to the reality of psychic intercourse between the living and the disembodied, this volume of automatic script stands out from others of a similar character by virtue of the distinctively ethical tone which pervades the communications, and the prophetic nature of some of the sayings of the unseen Intelligence who chooses to be known as "Cephra." The contents of these pages should interest alike the general reader as well as the spiritualist or psychical investigator.

The Power of Thought

By

HENRY THOMAS HAMBLIN

5th EDITION.

50th THOUSAND.

"Mr. Hamblin is a Christian mystic who realizes the value of prayer and of that faith which says, 'I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me.' This little book, now in its 50th thousand, will suggest how our thoughts may be trained to turn away from unworthy things to the things that are noble, true and really worth while."

Great Thoughts, Jan. 1928.

"Simply and logically Mr. Hamblin states his case, and it is a convincing one. The book is now in its 50th thousand, and should find many more readers, for it is a fine antidote to pessimism and unhappiness."

Public Opinion, December 30th, 1927.

Light, December 31st, 1927.

T.P.'s Weekly, Jan. 14th, 1928.

This little book is not too advanced to put into the hands of beginners. It not only enthuses and awakens ambition of the highest kind, but it also is practical and shows how the thoughts can be changed, or the stream of thought directed into a better channel. By following these instructions the whole outlook becomes changed, and consequently the life transformed.

Dr. Moyle, a medium, and Olive, his associate, live in a lonely house by the sea, and it is around the psychic activities of these two that this strong novel of love on both sides of the grave revolves.

It was soon after their re-marriage, a spiritual one to last beyond the grave, that Sybilla, Noel's wife, is found dead one morning at dawn. It is the culminating point. Convinced that she is possessed by two demons, Sybilla finally comes to the conclusion that she can save her soul, but not her body. The result, uncannily foretold, is her death.

From then onwards we have the story of Noel's vicissitudes in trying to get into touch with his wife, of his marriage to Olive, under whose influence his psychic faculties increase until they well-nigh swamp everything, and of his final arrival in the safe harbour of the love and sanity of Alice Wentworth.

"The Canadian Theosophist" was founded in 1920 on the formation of the Theosophical Society in Canada. This National Society has endeavoured consistently to maintain the policy of the T.S. as settled in 1882, and has declined to endorse the various off-shoots associated with Adyar in recent years. At the same time it preserves for its members the broadest possible individual freedom under the Adyar Constitution, while recognizing Madame Blavatsky's works as having established a standard of Theosophic life and thought. Its note of independent thinking is almost unique in the Theosophical Society. Its news is not confined to the Theosophical Society, but deals with all the cognate societies and movements of interest to students, and its articles treat of religion, philosophy and science.

WHAT IS TRUTH?

It is the JEWEL of a thousand facets worn on the brow of DIVINE LOVE.

MYSTICAL CHURCH OF THE COMFORTER.

This CHURCH is upon the Celestial Plane. It has been known down the Ages by initiates as the ESSENE Rose-Cross Temple, and is under THE SEE and OBEDIENCE of the Holy Lipikas.

OBJECT.

To unite all nations in a bond of Love by showing them the way to the Arms of the ETERNAL MOTHER—THE ROSE OF THE WORLD—so that they may catch the radiance of Her Eyes reflecting Her joy, and hear Her song of Peace, breathed o'er Her children throughout the World.

KNIGHTS OF THE ROSE-CROSS DEFEND HER!

Her disciples are known by their poverty, chastity, and service throughout the world. She feedeth without money and without price those who seek Her.

O Beloved One, know that it is possible to find out, to see, to hear all of the greatest and deepest secrets and truths of thy inmost being. Yet will these secrets never be WRITTEN down for MORTAL eyes to read, nor are they put into mortal words. Only are they revealed in thy inmost sanctuary either during thy hours of meditation or sleep. ONLY THERE are they put into speech. So simple, so deep, so true, dear one, is the way to your Godhead. Lead a life of PURITY and TRUTH, then canst thou ask thy God within thee for light, and light will come.

The world is full of suffering and woe. What are you doing in a practical way to help mankind? Are you helping even one to realise his own Divinity? Do you know what Spirit is? If not, stop teaching! You are deceiving the people.

LOVE
HEAVEN.

UNIVERSAL
BROTHER-HOOD

IN HOC SIGNO VINCES
THE GREAT SECRET.

What is the Secret great that man for ever reaches out to know?
What is the Cosmic Power from which all forces flow?
What is the Name of the Great Master men to find use all their skill?
He lives within thyself, his name—the Higher Will.
What is the deeper Secret for which men ever yearn?
What is the wondrous power that makes men darkness spurn?
What is Her name whom all men try to meet?
That name, too, within thyself is Wisdom Sweet.
What is the deepest Secret that man will ever know?
What is the Power that lifts this world of woe?
Whom is it to that the Great Master bends his knee?
His-Her name is LOVE DIVINE—the Christos power in Thee. P. : P.

The Great ARCHITECT of the Universe has planned the Cathedral that embraces All Souls in a bond of Unity and Love.

The celestial organ in its midst streams forth its glorious sounds and enwraps every being both Angelic and Mortal in its rhythm. Rich and poor, bondman and freeman, educated and uneducated, have the power to hear its glorious notes within their souls. Hopeless ones feel fresh energy, sad hearts rejoice, hungry ones are fed, and tired ones rest from their toil. From its various windows stream the wonderful colours of the different rays of Teachings, for the Divine absorbs all and excludes none. Above the Altar the Light is so brilliant and dazzling that both mortal and angel veil their eyes as if in sleep, for they are lost in adoration. The Incense sweet is made of the highest aspirations in man, and the Chalice is filled with the Elixir of Life which is composed of the tears of the broken-hearted and the heart-tears of the Brethren toiling on the Path to carry the Universal Light.

The Voice of the LOGOS preaches here and IT penetrates to every Sphere and Kingdom, thus lifting all into a higher state of being, aye, even from the lowest step of the Personal God unto the heights of knowing of what Substances HIS-HER Spirit is composed.

Beloved Workers, do not work against each other, but allow each to work according to his or her light. Try to realise that all are striving to do their best according to their unfoldment.

Work with the ideal of doing your best to help others in finding the Divine Universal Centre of LIGHT, not in drawing them to your own particular surroundings. Leave them free to seek their spiritual food. Derive your pleasure in this world from relieving other people's pain.

The Egyptian School of Practical Religion

In conjunction with the Mystic Side of The Church of the Comforter a School is being opened shortly where Lectures will be given to enable seekers to open up the Powers that are latent within them. These Lectures will be under the Rosicrucian Ray, and will open up a wide field for study: the Church supplying food for the Heart and the School the food for the Mind. These will be the two Keys. Meanwhile classes are being held in the Church on certain evenings for those who can attend, and Lectures are sent by post for those living too far away.

All Lectures are carefully numbered according to grade. For further particulars write (enclosing stamp for reply) to:

Apart from the fact of its being one more witness to the reality of psychic intercourse between the living and the disembodied, this volume of automatic script stands out from others of a similar character by virtue of the distinctively ethical tone which pervades the communications, and the prophetic nature of some of the sayings of the unseen Intelligence who chooses to be known as "Cephra." MY MISTAKE IN THE CHURCH

By LUCY HAYES. 2/6 net.

Messages from the Spirit World to a Priest in holy orders who rose to a high position.

The book tells of the help given by knowledge of mistakes made on earth by those beyond the veil, and how communication of such knowledge to the earth plane may avoid repetition. A helpful volume specially commended.

The Canadian Theosophist.

26, Glen Grove Avenue,
Toronto, Canada.

"The Canadian Theosophist" was founded in 1920 on the formation of the Theosophical Society in Canada. This National Society has endeavoured consistently to maintain the policy of the T.S. as settled in 1882, and has declined to endorse the various offshoots associated with Adyar in recent years. At the same time it preserves for its members the broadest possible individual freedom under the Adyar Constitution, while recognizing Madame Blavatsky's works as having established a standard of Theosophic life and thought. Its note of independent thinking is almost unique in the Theosophical Society. Its news is not confined to the Theosophical Society, but deals with all the cognate societies and movements of interest to students, and its articles treat of religion, philosophy and science.

Price $1 a year—4/6 abroad.

SUCCESS

in Journalism and Story- Writing.

Journalism to-day offers as much to its devotees as does any other profession, and, begun as a hobby, Journalism and Short-Story Writing have provided hundreds, nay thousands, of men and women with a new outlook and an increased income.

FAMOUS AUTHORS WHO CONTRIBUTE TO THE COURSE:

Gilbert Frankau, Stacy Aumonier,
H. De Vere Stacpoole, Elinor Mordaunt and "Sapper."

The A.B.C. Courses (which include Free-Lance Journalism and Short-Story Writing) are conducted entirely by correspondence, but Mr. Whittingham Boothe, Director of Studies, is always willing to grant an interview and to advise would-be pupils. You may send him one of your MSS. (anything up to 5,000 words) and he will be quite candid, and he will tell you honestly what he considers are your chances of making good as a writer. Even if you do not send him a MS., ask for a copy of "Wordcraft," which gives you full particulars of the A.B.C. WRITER'S COURSE. Write to the Secretary,

WHAT IS TRUTH?

MYSTICAL CHURCH OF THE COMFORTER.

This CHURCH is upon the Celestial Plane. It has been known down the Ages by initiates as the ESSENE Rose-Cross Temple, and is under THE SEE and OBEDIENCE of the Holy Lipikas.

OBJECT.

To unite all nations in a bond of Love by showing them the way to the Arms of the ETERNAL MOTHER—THE ROSE OF THE WORLD—so that they may catch the radiance of Her Eyes reflecting Her joy, and hear Her song of Peace, breathed o'er Her children throughout the World.

KNIGHTS OF THE ROSE-CROSS DEFEND HER!

Her disciples are known by their poverty, chastity, and service throughout the world. She feedeth without money and without price those who seek Her.

O Beloved One, know that it is possible to find out, to see, to hear all of the greatest and deepest secrets and truths of thy inmost being. Yet will these secrets never be WRITTEN down for MORTAL eyes to read, nor are they put into mortal words. Only are they revealed in thy inmost sanctuary either during thy hours of meditation or sleep. ONLY THERE are they put into speech. So simple, so deep, so true, dear one, is the way to your Godhead. Lead a life of PURITY and TRUTH, then canst thou ask thy God within thee for light, and light will come.

The world is full of suffering and woe. What are you doing in a practical way to help mankind? Are you helping even one to realise his own Divinity? Do you know what Spirit is? If not, stop teaching! You are deceiving the people.

THE GREAT SECRET.

What is the Secret great that man for ever reaches out to know?
What is the Cosmic Power from which all forces flow?
What is the Name of the Great Master men to find use all their skill?
He lives within thyself, his name—the Higher Will.

What is the deeper Secret for which men ever yearn?
What is the wondrous power that makes men darkness spurn?
What is Her name whom all men try to meet?
That name, too, within thyself is Wisdom Sweet.

What is the deepest Secret that man will ever know?
What is the Power that lifts this world of woe?
Whom is it to that the Great Master bends his knee?
His-Her name is LOVE DIVINE—the Christos power in Thee. P. : P.

The Great ARCHITECT of the Universe has planned the Cathedral that embraces All Souls in a bond of Unity and Love.

The celestial organ in its midst streams forth its glorious sounds and enwraps every being both Angelic and Mortal in its rhythm. Rich and poor, bondman and freeman, educated and uneducated, have the power to hear its glorious notes within their souls. Hopeless ones feel fresh energy, sad hearts rejoice, hungry ones are fed, and tired ones rest from their toil. From its various windows stream the wonderful colours of the different rays of Teachings, for the Divine absorbs all and excludes none. Above the Altar the Light is so brilliant and dazzling that both mortal and angel veil their eyes as if in sleep, for they are lost in adoration. The Incense sweet is made of the highest aspirations in man, and the Chalice is filled with the Elixir of Life which is composed of the tears of the broken-hearted and the heart-tears of the Brethren toiling on the Path to carry the Universal Light.

The Voice of the LOGOS preaches here and IT penetrates to every Sphere and Kingdom, thus lifting all into a higher state of being, aye, even from the lowest step of the Personal God unto the heights of knowing of what Substances HIS-HER Spirit is composed.

Beloved Workers, do not work against each other, but allow each to work according to his or her light. Try to realise that all are striving to do their best according to their unfoldment.

Work with the ideal of doing your best to help others in finding the Divine Universal Centre of LIGHT, not in drawing them to your own particular surroundings. Leave them free to seek their spiritual food. Derive your pleasure in this world from relieving other people's pain.

An ANALYSIS of MAGIC & WITCHCRAFT

by C. W. OLLIVER, B.Sc. E.S.E. (Paris).

In setting out to explain the varied phenomena of Magic and Witchcraft in terms of modern Psychical Research, the author has achieved with marked success a task for which an intimate acquaintance with the many manifestations of the vast body of occult lore is obviously indispensable.

Alchemy divination, sorcery and the witches' Sabbats are examined, and chapters are devoted to Phallic worship, pseudo-morphic phenomena, and modern spiritualism. An extensive bibliography further enhances the value of this mine of curious lore.

The Power of Thought

By

HENRY THOMAS HAMBLIN

5th EDITION.

50th THOUSAND.

"Mr. Hamblin is a Christian mystic who realizes the value of prayer and of that faith which says, 'I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me.' This little book, now in its 50th thousand, will suggest how our thoughts may be trained to turn away from unworthy things to the things that are noble, true and really worth while."

Great Thoughts, Jan. 1928.

"Simply and logically Mr. Hamblin states his case, and it is a convincing one. The book is now in its 50th thousand, and should find many more readers, for it is a fine antidote to pessimism and unhappiness."

Public Opinion, December 30th, 1927.

❖ ❖ ❖

Light, December 31st, 1927.

This little book is not too advanced to put into the hands of beginners. It not only enthuses and awakens ambition of the highest kind, but it also is practical and shows how the thoughts can be changed, or the stream of thought directed into a better channel. By following these instructions the whole outlook becomes changed, and consequently the life transformed.

MAN & HIS DESTINY

in the Light of the Vêdânta

Translated from the French edition of "L'Homme et son Devenir selon La Vêdânta" by C. J. WHITBY, B.A.

A scholarly but in no sense merely academical analysis of the philosophy of the Vêdânta. In the light of the Upanishads and the Brahma-Sutras, the destiny of the human soul is shown to lie in the direction of Union with the Supreme by means of direct metaphysical insight—Gnana or Gnonis. Among the vexed problems discussed are those of the nature of the self, the theory of reincarnation and the correlative doctrine of Karma, freedom by Yoga, and many others, the whole combining to form an illuminative contribution to contemporary Western expositions of the most metaphysical doctrine of the East.

EYES

You can make them Strong Without Spectacles, Operation or Medicine.

If your Eyes are affected you need our Book on "Eyes," describing a harmless method by which you can strengthen the eyes and restore the vision without operation or the aid of drugs or glasses. It is in the nature of a gentle massage which stimulates the action of the blood in the eye arteries, with the result that natural sight is restored, and the eyes become painlessly and surely moulded to perfect shape. By this means near-sight, far-sight, astigmatism, and other defects are corrected and cured. You can discard your glasses and counteract headache and eye-strain by five minutes' manipulation daily in your own home.

See Nature with the naked eyes — not through

The BRONTËS & their STARS by MAUD MARGESSON.

Author of "Astrology in Epigram."

A new history of the Brontë family, the outcome of careful research by a capable astrologer. The Horoscopes of the five Brontës, of Charlotte's husband, the Rev. A. B. Nicholls, and of her friend Ellen Nussey, and of M. and Mde. Heger are given, with a clear and simple interpretation. New light is thrown on many problems which have perplexed Brontë students, such as the authorship of "Wuthering Heights" and Charlotte's feelings towards M. Heger; while students will note with interest the source of the peculiarly compelling power of their genius in both sisters and brother. Even by readers unversed in Astrology the working out of planetary vibrations upon the lives of these people can be easily followed; and the results are so remarkable as to add greatly to the interest of a story already absorbing.

CHRISTIANITY AND NATURE. By JOHN T. BIRD, C.M.G., M.A. The author indicates that a spiritual affinity exists between the human mind and the external world, to be found in its highest form in the personality of Christ, and manifested in His parabolic teaching, and that the advance of Science, while changing our conceptions of the Universe, does not destroy this spiritual affinity. 3s. 6d. THE HOUSE OF WONDER. By E. M. S., with a Preface by Dr. E. H. Worth and Foreword by "Dr. Beale." A Romance of Psychic Healing. 3s. 6d. Postage 3d.

A SHORT PSYCHOLOGY OF RELIGION. By G. J. JORDAN, D.D., D.Litt. The author of this book believes that a Psychology of Religion is inevitable. He insists that we need a psychology of religion, but that we must beware of making a religion of psychology, and he traverses the whole range of religious belief and experience with these ideas in his mind. 3s. 6d. Postage 4d.

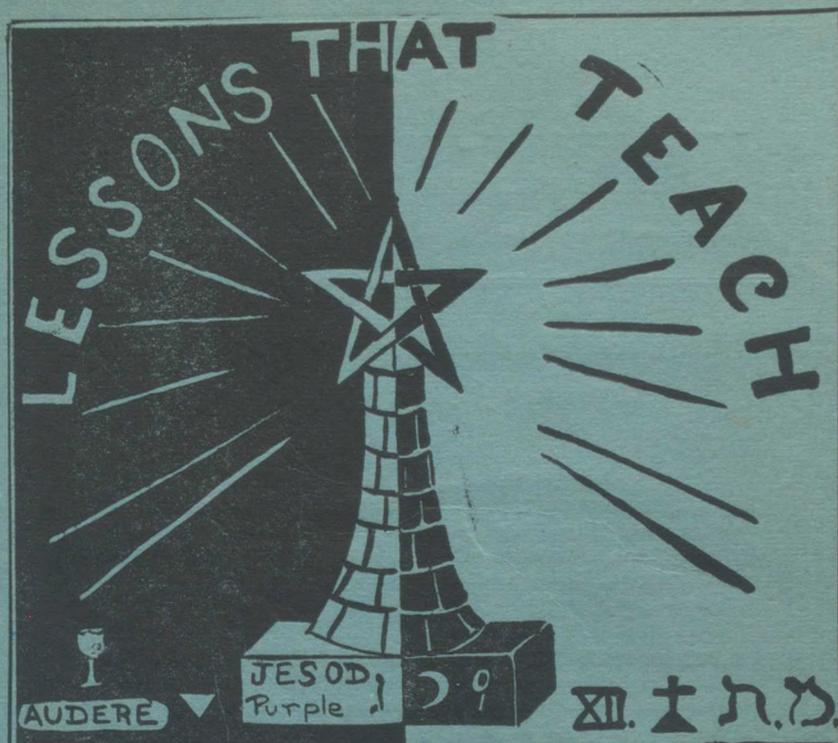

AN APPROACH TO THE PSYCHOLOGY OF RELIGION. By J. CYRIL FLOWER, M.A., Ph.D. The aim of this book is a psychological one, to determine what mechanisms are involved in religion and the religious response. 10s. 6d. Postage 6d.

MASTER YOUR MEMORY. By CHARLES PLATT. A practical guide, with original and interesting exercises designed to strengthen and bring to the highest point of efficiency the most vital mental faculties, without the artificial aid of mnemonic devices. 2s. 6d. Postage 2d.

HOW WE BEHAVE. By A. E. HEATH. An introduction to Psychology. 1s. Postage 1d.

THE RELIGION OF TIBET. By J. E. ELLAM. This book is an attempt to give as correct an account as possible of the religion of Tibet and adjacent countries for the information of the general reader. 3s. 6d. Postage 3d.
