FOREWORD

SINCE the publication of Trails of Truth, a book dealing primarily with personal evidence of "Survival" (and of such a nature that the theories of the materialist-scientist and psychologist are absolutely refuted concerning the manifestations therein), there has been an ever increasing demand for more of the spiritual and scientific lectures which emanate from the same source.

During and since that publication, also, there has arisen in the city of St. Catharines, Canada, a tremendous interest in psychic subjects, second to none, perhaps, on this continent or throughout the world. This has been due entirely to the visits of Rev. William Cartheuser, whose highly endowed gift has blessed with knowledge and spiritual enlightenment many thousands of people.

One of the units born under this new impetus is that of the Radiant Healing Centre, which has an enrollment of absent members extending into widely scattered states and provinces, and includes an auxiliary organization in Springfield, Mass. For these members, and for all who seek Truth fearlessly and reverently, these lectures of LIGHT are printed. At present they will be given out quarterly; later, it is hoped, in monthly issues.

Membership in the Radiant Healing Centre can be secured through application to the editor of Progression. Daily withdrawal into the Silence, and a twice monthly concentration (simultaneous with the meeting of the Mother Centre), are the personal obligations asked of all members. A fee of one dollar per year is required, entitling the member to the quarterly issues of Progression, as well as to any helpful instructions that may arise during the year in the Mother Centre.

To the magnificent soul, LIGHT, and those associated with him in the Invisible Realms, and to William Cartheuser, Progression is dedicated, in appreciation of the love and humility, and scientific labours that have made these lectures possible.

Healing and Self-Unfoldment

by

"LIGHT"

Knowledge is always in the midst of those who seek it. Tonight, you have unconsciously prepared yourselves to receive its inflow. Your beautiful music is a natural channel for spiritual truths, and we are now enabled to manifest through a harmonious atmosphere, created by yourselves.

It is well that words of wisdom should be received freely and directly from their source. Better indeed, than that they should become ancient theories, the essences of which have been destroyed throughout the centuries by much boiling and reboiling. For today, as never before, millions of hungry hearts yearn for this truth of Immortality, unhampered by dogma or creed.

I have much to say concerning your self-unfoldment, for you dwell in, and are constantly tapping, invisible Oceans of Thought. It is wisdom that you first learn to comprehend the dormant possibilities lying within you, and your relationship to the great realities about you, and of which you are now unaware.

First Essential for Development of Psychic Gifts

And so I would have you follow me earnestly and sincerely, seeking first the inner spiritual truths. I would not have you phenomena seekers in the great psychic revelations ahead. Seek first the inner truths of your own spirit, before you worry about outward manifestations, either of your own or of others. Worry not about what psychic gifts you may develop. Dwell not in that thought, neither be curious concerning the phases others may have. For if you concern not yourselves about these things, you will more quickly reach that very goal you long for, a goal far higher than your expectations, happier and more fruitful. First seek ye understanding of the thought laws that govern your every action. Then, when the dawn breaketh, the glory of your missions will be unfolded, and the purposes of your souls revealed. Then will your attainments be a memorial to the cause of Immortality, the cause for which your Christ lived. I beg of you, seek fearlessly and reverently knowledge of your inner selves, that you may grow in beauty and love, revealing to the world the Kingdom of God that dwelleth within you.

Oceans of Thought

As we unfold the dangers and beauties of Oceans of Thought (and as you seek to follow these lessons), be not discouraged if you falter by the way. Rise up and fight again. Christ Himself grew weary many times. But He fought on. Knowing the laws of thought, He refused to withdraw from the ultimate victory. And so may you. Have faith, ye who tire in the struggle for self-unfoldment. Though there be clouds ahead, in God's cause they will always break above you. In God's name the sun of love will shine through. Sow seeds of Truth, and Knowledge will spring up. Clouds are ever necessary to feed the hungry and the harvest is sure. The sun of knowledge will break upon your heads in an everlasting crown of glory and peace.

What reaction did you receive when I announced the subject "Oceans of Thought"? "Indescribable," said one? You block yourselves by such expression.

The ocean is dangerous, full of turmoil. The ocean is troublesome, seething with unknown currents. The ocean is beautiful beyond words, even as the prayers of inexpressible gratitude that well from the depths of our beings as we gaze on the colour-glories reflected on its bosom. And upon this Ocean sails a ship, piloted by the great I AM. Waves beat high as it battles on, threatening to draw it into their depths—down, down, down, until it is in danger of being submerged into a seeming nothingness. But forget not. There is a pilot on that ship—yourself. You may learn to guide your ship of life safely to harbour through the roughest seas. But you must first understand how to manipulate the rudder—your WILL. And you must be aware of all the hidden reefs, uncharted by the world. You must indeed be skilled, fearless and intelligent.

Self-Knowledge Essential for Progression

How many set sail on the Oceans of Thought who are fitted for the journey? Oh, that the churches of today taught the true expression of Immortality! They live not in the light. Blinded they are to the knowledge their Christ brought humanity, two thousand years ago. For only through self-knowledge will dangers become as nought, and waves subside. Then will the ship of life sail on, majestically and untroubled, into the waters of true love—and victory.

There will be many sailing upon the troubled seas of life, who will note that your way lies in a path of light. They will sense the glory ever breaking ahead of you, and will try to attune themselves to the harmonious undercurrents of your soul. Come with us and learn the secrets hidden within the Oceans of Thought. Knowledge brings freedom, and dangers pass away. Come with us and reflect upon this ship, and its Pilot—the great I AM. Let us gaze far out into the western gates of Eternity, sailing onward and onward, until our souls rise up in gratitude to the Almighty Father who has shown us the enlightened way. Each wave we shall then understand, and the darkness will hold no dread. We shall fear not, for the sun of knowledge hath searched even to the depths of our souls' desire.

The world is awakening with intense desire for knowledge of the ways of God, and for solutions to His (man-called) mysterious ways. May the sun of knowledge pierce your hearts, broaden your desires, strengthen your wills, and unfold unto you greater understanding. May you sail from out the troubled waters into peaceful seas, resting at last upon Eternal Love, and rejoicing with the Angels for the truths God hath sent you from the heavenly spheres above.

Great things are ahead of you, if you weaken not. Keep your sails ever pointing to the rising sun. Absorb into your consciousness these lessons on Oceans of Thought. Learn to utilize the powers going to waste within yourselves, and awaken these same powers in others.

Thought Mechanism of the Brain

There are forces within you of which you are unaware. Within your brain are two separate poles, negative and positive, and of such a nature that so far no instrument of earth has revealed them. And, for want of a better term, you may call them "metres" or "regulators". Their duty is to regulate the different wave-lengths of thought attracted to you from out the atmosphere, even as you dial, through your radio, the stations you wish to hear. The atmosphere about you is charged with magnetic and electric thought forces. Bear in mind that you are not aware of these, and have been unconsciously, and carelessly, regulating these thought waves about you all your lives. You have the conscious power, it is true, but because of your ignorance, you have not exercised it. Consequently, you have a definite weakness in the functioning power of your brains. Your regulators, or metres, are not developed. Oh, how you neglect yourselves by your unawareness! You who have dynamic thought systems, throw your thoughts about heedlessly, mercilessly, giving not the slightest consideration to what is actually taking place, regardless of the fact that you can actually slaughter by your thoughts.

And, naturally, why should you care? You have not been taught these things in your churches. You know nothing about them, any more than people a hundred years ago understood the radio. How they would have scoffed, had someone told them of what today you take for granted! That is the reason we labour so patiently with you. That is the reason we strive to awaken in you knowledge concerning the Oceans of Thought surrounding you. For, if thoughts can save or destroy, is it not of the utmost importance that you apply your powers with intelligence and love? What the Angels of God could disclose to souls of earth if the doors of desire were opened!

Man's Thought-Relation to Lower Forms of Life

There are millions upon millions of thinking beings besides you humans. There are countless numbers of insects, beasts and birds. There are entities which the eyes of man have never seen, all sending out thoughts into the atmosphere. Thoughts from each of these creatures whirl round and round the world, thousands of times. Think of the accumulative forces about you. How staggering they are! And you have it within yourselves to choose the thoughts you wish to enter your own consciousness. You have been given thought-dominion over birds of the air, and beasts of the field and forest. How many of you use your powers constructively?

Heaven will be a reality on earth when men learn to dominate all living creatures with thoughts of love. Even the mosquito would not bite you, if you ceased to send forth thoughts of fear and hate. It may take many years to develop a thought dynamo of pure love, but the years must go by anyway. Why not work with them? The mosquito, sensing your hatred, hurries right along to rob you. If you were absolutely calm, and at peace, it would be unable to come close to you, for your radiations of love toward all life would be so intense, it would sense an uneasiness in approaching you, and pass on. But why, you ask, do mosquitoes bite innocent babies? My friends, realize the immense sensitiveness of God's creation. You magnetize your own children by your thoughts. Naturally, the baby takes on the thought vibrations about it, and especially those of the one most closely attuned to it—its mother.

Experiment, and you can prove without difficulty that you are broadcasting your thoughts daily. Think you it is accidental that different persons are working upon the same ideas of invention at the same time? This should prove to you that thought waves whirl constantly about your world. Thoughts of killing whirl from every slaughter house. I declare unto you, that as long as you continue to kill the animals, just so long will you have murderers and criminals in your midst.

Power of United Thought

Many thoughts permeate the ether—thoughts of turmoil, danger and fear, as well as love. The Oceans of Thought surrounding you are fraught with far greater dangers than your oceans of earth, and are infinitely more dynamic. Thoughts can raise mountains. Thoughts can destroy the world. Thoughts can beautify it into a paradise wherein Angels may walk hand in hand with you. Danger? Yes, in ignorance. For knowledge frees the soul until it rises, at last, to view its inheritance as a child of the living God.

If all the world were one brotherhood, and all were united in one thought at the same time; and if this one thought were of everlasting peace—what then? Friends, I declare unto you, the veil between earth and Heaven would be rent in twain. Angel hosts would dwell among you. Your united prayers would be granted, for united thoughts of desire are infinitely powerful. Yea, by the laws of attraction, you may create the very realities you visualize.

But in your world today there are many divided thoughts. There are Catholics, Presbyterians, Hebrews, Baptists, Methodists, and what not. And most of them distrust one another. What, then, can you expect? Did not Christ impart to His followers the need of harmony, when He said: "In one accord and in one place"? Did He not teach the dynamic possibilities of the powers lying dormant within you when He exclaimed: "The things that I do ye shall do, and greater things also"?

A Parable and Its Application

Once upon a time there was a blind man who was accustomed to bathe in the clear waters of a running stream. Time passed, and factories were built along its banks. The waters therein became dirty and unclean, but the blind man, seeing not, continued his ablutions daily. He undressed, put in his hand to ascertain its temperature, then, thinking no further, plunged right in. For years he continued this daily habit, and the accumulations of filth and dirt became deeply encrusted upon him. But he knew it not.

Just a year or two ago you were ignorant concerning the Oceans of Thought about you. Like the blind man, you bathed in the thoughts of fear and disease, seeing not. These thoughts penetrated your whole body. You realized not that poisonous matter was clinging and accumulating to you, which would eventually destroy you. And until someone told you, you never knew. Once you were blind, but now you see. You are awake to the realities of the Oceans of Thought surrounding you. You must try to bathe in the purest waters of life every moment, for now you know something of the unalterable laws of attraction. You know that by willing the purest, nothing but the purest can enter you. Fight on, fight on! You have the power to wash away the accumulated error of years gone by, even of hundreds of years, embodying many generations. You have the power to overcome all heredity and all disease. You are the great I AM of your own body, and through the power of your own thoughts can wash these things away forever.

Come with us. We will lead you to waters of peace—pure, sparkling and pleasant. And, in turn, you may lead others who are as blind as you once were. Be teachers, glorified in the love of God. Be protectors of the blessed truths of His Kingdom. Cleanse your thoughts daily with desire for Wisdom. It will lead you up the highlands to the fountains of faith, from which all rivers flow, far out into the Oceans of Eternity.

Fear, Disease and the Sub-Conscious Mind

You can actually recreate yourselves by denying disease exists. Never admit a disease condition willingly, or encourage others to speak of theirs. Pain is real because you, a spirit, do not know how to drive it out. You follow the easiest thought-course, the course of least resistance. I repeat, never admit a thought of disease, for there the subconscious mind comes into play. It is highly sensitive, and accepts it. If you have not faith that this can be done, then grow it subconsciously. You can deaden pain by faith. Repeat the law frequently to yourselves, and to others. "According to your faith shall you be healed." You see this law at work among the church people of earth. Through much repetition of creed and doctrine they have accepted things that are not logical, and cannot be proven, for they are not of the truth.

Understand the difference between the two separate things, your body and your spirit. Fill yourselves with the conviction that the spirit within you has no pain, and can absorb no disease. Attract no thought-waves but those of construction and purity, either from the visible or Invisible worlds. Exercise your own mastership over your body daily. Allow no thoughts of fear to enter therein. Then, and only then, will your body gradually cease to attract these things.

A Thought Formula and Its Application

Love is a force that radiates all healing and light. Upon this build your Will. Control this Will through an ever-developing power of Concentration. Combine these three. You have now generated a beautiful force of Radiation. All radiating forces have Motion. Through this motion your thoughts fly out upon their Mission, reaching their destinations upon which they were concentrated, providing you allow no adverse thought current to misdirect them.

Every thought sent out by you returns in accumulated force. It may not do so immediately. Thoughts may whirl about this world many times before they settle from whence they came. And in their course they influence people of like mind, even though they know nothing of the law. But thoughts do return, reinforced perhaps a thousandfold. The person who hates another does himself by far the greater injury.

You, as members of the Radiant Healing Centre, absent or present in body, are tonight united in thought through a silent concentration of healing. You have sent these thoughts forth upon their missions of mercy. Already you have created a dynamic, healing light. Many times have your thoughts returned to this Mother Centre, to be recharged with greater energy. You have established a permanent, radiant healing ray that will never cease to function. And until this wide world of yours is healed and comforted; until every seeking soul awakes to the knowledge of his own mastership over his body, these thoughts will accumulate in energy and power.

Use your will-power wisely. Enter upon this healing thought in a determined, positive, constructive attitude of mind. Create by visualization. Let your WILL energize that which you desire to create. Send forth healing thoughts to the one needing help, by visualizing that person perfect, well, all ailments gone. You can more quickly affect those who seek your help, for an open door blocks not the sunshine.

Let me give you a test, to ascertain your sensitiveness to the thoughts about you at this moment. Have you sensed that the absent members of this healing centre have ceased concentration? There is no more drawing from this class. When your united concentration first began, there was a whirling, drawing force, to which We, on This Side, were sensitive. We could see a mixed light going up from your centre, like golden arrows in a violet light, even as smoke from a chimney ascends. It is doing so no more.

Spiritual Anatomy and Thought Equilibrium

There are millions of cells within this body of yours, each a living, separate entity. Every cell is the material habitation of a lower form of life. Millions of them are invisible. It is their duty to respond to your Will. Your body is a universe, and you are its God. Your Will radiates a magnetic influence upon every dweller therein and they, in turn, are meant to be helpers, constructors and guardians. But if, through neglect, your Will is weak, what happens? If you have been permeating these entities with thoughts of fear, of distress, or of hatred, what must happen? Naturally, things go wrong. "Disease" steps in. These cells have grown formless, shapeless, and may even cease to function. You do not realize this, of course. Learn to intelligently control every cell in your body. Love will do it, through concentration. I do not expect you to accomplish this within a year. Nor do I expect you to be one hundred per cent while on earth. But I do expect you to begin to exercise the God-given powers within your own universe. When your body has finished its mission as a temple of your spirit, its cell life will progress into another stage of existence. You may even see them as tiny worms. The laws of God are beautiful and purposeful.

This is an old, old thought—that you, a spirit, are master over your body, and not your body over you. Command this body of yours to obey your orders. In time, you may even learn to disconnect any nerve that registers pain to the brain. This takes practice, of course. But it is possible. Learn to intelligently help yourselves, and your loved ones, in the sad days of need. Never forget that you are made in the image of God, that your spirit is pure and undefiled. You, a spirit, can kill any germs that have been allowed entry into your temple. For a few years only, has this body been loaned to you. Why let it be master?

Every thought expressed tonight leads to many others. You, as students, should bring your logic to bear upon them. Meditate upon them. No doctor of earth acquires his knowledge of the material body without years of study. And neither may you of the spiritual. Yea, you may master your bodies with knowledge surpassing that of the wisest doctor of earth. For you will have learned the inner laws, and how the spirit registers upon this body. English and grammar and much academic learning count not in this study, thank God. Your colleges have much to unlearn. On This Side of the veil, word expression is not a necessity. Thought is the only vehicle in the higher realms of life.

Death and Stubborn Minds

Your experiences of earth are lessons through which you must pass, in order to inherit greater understanding. There is no disease Over Here. But there are many, many stubborn minds. People come to us with earth-born ideas that have become part of themselves. You people of earth make great mistakes in not using your own reason. Children and adults alike should develop judgment. Take nothing for granted until you have reasoned with it. Shut not the door of your own thought to progression. Yea, thoughts of disease are brought to us Here by many people. We explain to them that their bodies are buried, and they believe it not. You can hardly blame them. They have lived on earth in the thought of disease. Their churches taught them nothing of the laws governing their own spirits. And they are just as human as ever—and just as stubborn. As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he. The casting off of the body does not change him. And with these interpretations of earth he passes on. We have schools of instruction for these souls, wherein we teach them to reason for themselves. We train them not to accept as final all they hear. We help them to keep their minds open, to use their own judgment, and to be willing to accept or reject accordingly.

The Sensitiveness of Children

You see how imperative it is that you teach your children to use their own reasoning powers. Make them aware of the Oceans of Thought around them. Early in life they can learn to tune in wisely, and to reject unfit thoughts as naturally as they dial beyond undesirable radio stations. Teach them that, to be happy, they must keep their thought-dial in harmony with themselves, and with the world. Prepare them even as you advance. Clothe your language in simple terms. A child, being imaginative, naturally absorbs the truths of the spirit.

The brain of a child is like a blank phonographic record when it enters the earth. But as soon as the child breathes, the dynamo starts, and the process of attracting and broadcasting begins. At this stage, of course, a child mostly attracts, for it cannot broadcast until something has been imprinted upon the brain. Think of it! Today most of you are wielding a tremendous force thoughtlessly. What a vision for the future generations when, some hundreds of years hence, every soul will recognize the laws of Cause and Effect—the eternal laws of thought reaction.

Oh, that the churches today would teach these truths! Leaders in the pulpits must themselves be reborn. They, like others, will be required to go through years of study on This Side, attending classes similar to this, so that they may learn to apply these simple laws, embodying the dangers and beauties surging throughout the Oceans of Thought.

Universality of Life

There is life in all space. There is life on every planet and star. And where life is, there thought is also. Life is in every ray, visible or invisible, to your human eye, which is but a limited instrument registering light vibrations. It matters not if life exists in other shapes or forms. It matters not if life exists without the flesh, as you understand it. By "life" is meant anything that thinks, radiates or moves about. That is life. Your newspapers announce, at intervals, that scientists have discovered life—LIFE. More and more, as years go by, there will be similar proclamations made by scientists, regardless of the fact that there are millions of different rays yet undiscovered by man, and ever shall be. And because these rays remain undiscovered, I suppose they simply cannot exist to materialistic minds of earth. You who read of these scientists' declarations will exclaim, "We knew of that long ago. Our communion with our Invisible Teachers depended upon the acceptance of that very fact." Yea, the search for "life" shall always be an eternal quest.

Radiations of Life

You need not the five clouded senses of the flesh to express yourselves, when you are advanced souls. There is thought-radiation—life—in rays that come from your eyes. You emanate magnetic rays all the time, from your toes, your head, your finger tips. Even from your veins and arteries. These rays vary in a thousand ways. They even vary in color. Everything that lives in, or around, your body emanates magnetic rays. Rays that come from the eyes of a woman, who gazes upon her lover, may be tested and analyzed for living entities. You radiate, not in a thousand, but in millions of different ways, even while you inhabit this body of yours. Every plant, insect, planet and star radiates. If you could be as we are, you could travel upon magnetic radiations that extend from other planets down to your own, and to each other; uniting them and causing them to revolve according to laws not even conceived by your scientists of earth. The whole idea is life—life produced by God, the Eternal Spirit-Mind; by God, your Creator, and His Angelic Assistants. Only They understand the secrets of life. They shape and form the histories of the universes. They guide the souls of all life up, up, on, and ever onwards, into an interminable progression, and unto the perfection of His Likeness.

Lesson on Thought-Mechanism and Control

Over Here our whole existence hinges on the power of our thoughts, and mental suggestion. Thoughts are realities—the only realities. Knowledge liberates the spirit while it dwells in the body. First master your own thoughts. Of what are you thinking? How did you happen to pick up that suggestion? Strengthen your own thought mechanism to such an extent that beautiful thoughts will be given an opportunity to enter your consciousness, which before were not attracted to you from out the vast Oceans of Thought. Tap the higher levels of Spirit. Develop an internal perception of the new force working within you. Acquire power to shut out all but wholesome, healthy, unselfish thoughts towards all the world. Visualize unseen audiences to whom your thoughts fly. Send all thoughts out, with the same dynamic exactness as you would were you talking through a microphone of earth. Believe you are doing so. That very visualization will aid you. If you were to broadcast to an audience of earth, would you not take pains to clothe your expression? You would realize very forcibly that many hundreds of people are ready to criticize and denounce you. You would practice before broadcasting. The same law works in greater force through your thoughts. Thoughts reach many thousands of souls, and harmonize with their kind. Are your thoughts weak? Are they deceptive? There are many people only too willing to be receiving stations for deceiving thoughts. Let your thoughts be creative, permeated with expressions of love.

Your prayers must be for humanity, not for self. I emphasize this. Learn to pray, "I care not whatever comes, for Thy will, not mine, be done." Selfish thoughts are buildings upon the sand. The waters always return and wash them away. Judas had developed his own thought forces before he went wrong. He knew their power. It is sad but true. He consciously shut off unselfish thought, and lost himself for a time. Christ understood. He had taught him these laws in a class similar to this. And soon the law did react. Remorse set in. The suffering he caused the Christ returned to him many fold. Let this be a warning. You must use your thoughts aright, especially after you have developed your own power. If you do not, you are in danger of great calamity. Attract selfish desires to fruition, if you will, but as fast as they be granted the law will react upon you. Your own spirit will be thrown into deepest darkness before you can taste the glories of the days to come.

Consider the Fledgling

A few more directions I would give you, friends, before we draw the curtains down, and shut out the vibrations of sound. Each member of the Radiant Healing Centre will possess a copy of these words, and many more to follow. Then, whenever the storms of life beat high, you may open and read. Lo, an invisible hand will open with you, and point unto you the message you most need. Be not discouraged. Consider the fledgling. It tries and ever tries again, rising at last; then abreast with its mother-teacher it flies on high, unto its goal. Small as you may be, you too can learn to fly. You can rise into God's great world of light and knowledge and draw many thousands unto you. There is no limit to the divinity within you, and the Angel hosts surrounding you are mighty. You are God's creation. He has made of you His disciples. You are His right hand. As you do unselfishly, so will you receive His guidance, His blessing and His promotion. Nor shall you want upon earth or in Heaven. In times of need you can recreate conditions, by bringing your powers of suggestion upon the problem. This is positively scientific. Be not impatient. Think not that results are slow. Apply the law in love—and wait. Gradually you will attain unto instantaneous power, even as the Christ lived and taught.

The Radiant Healing Light

There are many, many thoughts united this moment in this room. Mingled with Ours, they rush far up in a light of healing, with a radiation so bright that all thoughts of sickness and sadness may be consumed, where faith is. Some day you will have learned to concentrate with such force, that you can actually see this light. We now lower it to earth. Here it is, radiating and flashing. Closer and closer it goes into the bodies of those upon whom we have concentrated. It burneth away conditions of sickness; it healeth every part. We, on This Side, see this light. It is turning to different colours. It is battling away. But it IS winning the battle.

Rejoicing do we lift our heads unto Thy skies eternal,
Humbly do we bow our knees to Thee, Oh God
supernal;

With hearts and souls aflame with love, we ask Thee
from this hour

To speak through us, our thought and strength, Thy majesty and power.

Closing Prayer

Oh, Thou mighty Centre of Light, that radiates health unto this Radiant Healing Centre, and unto all those who are members in this thought, shine Thou upon Thy children this day, and forevermore. Bring unto them greater strength, yea, greater knowledge, that through them Thy radiation may go out into others, and bless them, and be acknowledged by all men. Help them to guide others who have lost faith, and have no understanding of the powers that lie within them. We pray unto Thee in the name of Thy eternal love—Amen.

Dawning

*Stars of midnight, cupped
By crowned mountain peaks,
Stilled in adoration,
My spirit speaks.*

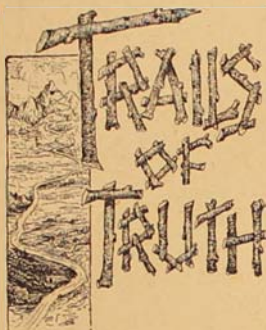

*Holy Angels, hovering
The silent earth above,
Winging to the weary
Ministries of love,
Grant each soul at dawning,
Slopes of Truth to gain,
Light the path of Reason,
Loose the creedal chain.
Wake the restless sleeper
To consciousness divine,
Children of God's image,
Every soul—a shrine.
Holy Spirit, teach us
The uselessness of strife,
May peace and love and service
Be sacraments of life.
Angels gently lead us,
Where thy feet have trod—
Brotherhood of Nations,
Fatherhood of God.*

*Stars of morning—dawning,
Humbly we pray,
Hark, the world is stirring
To glorious new day!*
