THE PICTURE OF THE CENTURY

DEMATERIALIZATION PHOTOGRAPHED!

Nationally known journals and pictorial weeklies have, for many years published what they call "The Picture of the Week."

In each instance these pictures are rare, unusual, thought-provoking and of general human interest. They are chosen from thousands received during the seven-day period and are selected, in the main, because of their clarity. The fact that seasoned newspaper men know that a picture always tells the story only brief explanatory captions are necessary.

Words fail and their meaning falls into oblivion when compared to these picture stories and so, on this page there appears what could be classified not only as "The Picture of the Week" but also the PICTURE OF THE CENTURY . . . at least as far as psychic research is concerned.

In the past, Spiritualists themselves have been relegated to the background insofar as the scientific presentation of phenomena was concerned. The scientists and some of the staid psychic researchers always seemed to look "down their noses" at the way Spiritualist magazines presented their phenomena—always claiming that they (the Spiritualists) are not scientific. But now, Spiritualists can say they are presenting concrete evidence, facts and cases backed by pictures—pictures that could have been obtained by most of the psychic research societies on both sides of the water. However, their smugness has long been apparent and prevented them from getting any modern-day evidence.

Have the efforts of the British and American P. R. Societies crystallized? We have only to look at the record. What have they done since the days of Myers and Hyslop. Absolutely nothing except try to prove what everyone knows, who has made a study of the case—that mental telepathy and clairvoyance are now more or less "scientific facts." They have also dabbled in marble counting and dice rolling in an effort to prove something or other.

At Chesterfield

The picture published on page 24, enlarged on this page, was the first taken when a group of Spiritualists assembled at Chesterfield, Indiana, February 17th. The medium, Rev. Fanchion Harwood agreed to sit and as an experiment have pictures taken of the phenomena. The group assembled, called together by me, was made up not only of people from the vicinity but many traveled thousands of miles to take part in these experiments. H. F. Miller, a medical doctor from Odessa, Texas, was one of the principal participants.

The photographer, David Payton, 1023 Broadway, Anderson, Indiana, was engaged to take the pictures. Most of the story was told (March 25th edition) and this sequel serves as a fitting climax for results obtained.

We have already described how the pictures were taken, that the negatives were immediately developed in another portion of the Harwood residence at Chesterfield and that all the sitters were permitted to see these negatives one half hour after the seance ended.

Story Behind The Story

The picture (this issue) clearly shows that Dr. Miller's daughter Helen, appeared in such a way that no one could doubt the authenticity of this photograph. The fact that the lower portion of the spirit is partially dematerialized positively proves this phase of phenomena.

And now for the story behind the story. This picture was purposely withheld and not published until now for the reason that the editors of this journal felt it best to wait and see what the reaction would be to the picture published on page 24 of our March 25th edition. This picture appears again (right) and shows the same spirit, Helen, the daughter of Dr. Miller, fully materialized, the doctor being only several inches taller.

The other photograph of Helen, partially dematerialized, shows her father over a head taller. This was due to the fact that dematerialization was taking place during the time this photograph was taken. Time elapsed between the taking of these pictures but the features of Helen are definitely the same.

Never Can Tell

When the group inspected the negatives after the seance, the one showing the dematerialization did not look as if the experiment had been a success. Of course, after prints were made, we could see that for evidence, the picture of dematerialization overshadowed the second as far as evidence was concerned.

At the time, Dr. Miller thought it best to experiment again and see if he could get a better picture of his daughter. The result was the full form materialization and since printing this full form materialization of Helen (March 25th) numerous letters were directed to this office asking us to ex-

Upon close scrutiny, the meticulous observer will notice that the right edge of the picture frame is not exactly at the proper angle if it were a "double exposure". Rather the right edge would be perpendicular.

When an experienced commercial photographer was asked about this, he said this could happen when the reflection from the glassed framed photograph on the piano was picked up by the lens and projected

Answering Our Critics

WHAT THE PHOTOGRAPHER SAID

When the picture (below) was published in Psychic Observer, March 25th, 1950 issue, page 24, one of the severest controversies ever waged among Spiritualists was experienced. Some thought we had been taken in and said so. This picture was taken February 18th, 1950, after I had left Chesterfield. I was present only when the picture, page 24 this issue, was taken, February 17th. The reason for the second picture was that Dr. Miller thought the negative,—all present examined after the seance,—was not clear in that Helen did not seem to show up in a satisfactory manner. As it turned out the first picture, Helen dematerialized, was and will remain as a classic in the field of psychic research for years to come.

In answer to my letter to Dave Payton, the photographer who took both pictures of Helen, I received a full explanation. In his letter to me, Mr. Payton said: ". . . regarding the picture on the wall and appearance of the picture on Dr. Miller's shoulder. I used a tripod under my camera, just as I did when you were here for the first pictures, only I failed to release the press catch on the shutter. The press catch is a button that holds the shutter open while you focus on the ground glass.

"Then the white lights were turned off and I pulled the slide out of the camera, making it ready for the first exposure, but did not know that while they were getting ready, my camera was actually taking a picture of the frame on the wall, as it was the most white object in view of my camera.

This photograph is property of Psychic Observer and cannot be reprinted without special permission.

Picture Starts Argument (See enlargement, Col. 4)

impugning the honesty of the medium (Fanchion Harwood) nor questioning the good faith and competence of the investigators. I merely wished to draw your attention to the peculiarity in the photograph which inevitably will draw criticism . . .

"Unfortunately the effect is not unprecedented. If you have a copy of 'la Photographie Transcendental,' turn to page 55 and over the title 'L'homme transparent,' you will see the exact effect as is seen in your reproduction. It is certainly very strange."

And so, Payton's explanation should clear up the cause for not only Mr. Wright but all readers of this journal.

Helen Materialized

This photographer said this would happen when "the angle of incident equaled the angle of reflection." This photographer's name is Lewis H. Holmes, 20 East Third St., Jamestown, N. Y.

Now, read the photographer's explanation (left) this page.

Many experienced photographers will tell you that many times, the explainable is inexplainable and that things happen during the course of their profession for which there is no explanation, but even so, by no stretch of imagination, can anyone positively say that this is a "double exposure". This photographer who took the picture had no axe to grind, in fact, he was the only skeptic in the room.

The argument was put forth by one of our readers that there were two snaps made on the same negative, and that Dr. Miller was not in the first exposure. Eighteen sitters and myself know that at no time would Dr. Miller allow himself to be involved in anything of this sort. All these arguments fade into insignificance when the pictures themselves are offered in evidence. "Could be's" are NOT facts!

Much We Don't Know

Some ask why books were placed under the legs of the piano seat. When Helen, who materializes and plays the piano, asked to have the seat raised, the books were placed there. At this experiment everyone hoped she would play again, but evidently, the spirit collaborators had other ideas.

Another point that may be raised by the casual observer. Why are Helen's features, during the time she was dematerializing, clearer than when she is fully materialized? I do not know. There is also evidence that dematerialization is taking place (see black portion throughout Helen's left upper arm). Since dematerialization is taking place why do her features remain intact? I do not know.

Then, there will be those who, when witnessing dema-terialization, have seen the upper portions of the body and then the head near the floor.

Fanchion Harwood—her features in no way similar to Helen's—proving spirits can and do build bodies separate and apart from the medium.

The fact that Helen is gradually becoming shorter is sufficient reason to rule out the certainty of the exact location of any portion of any dematerializing form at any particular time.

Those who pondered over the apparent "double exposure" over Dr. Miller's right shoulder, will find no such discrepancy in the picture showing the form dematerializing.

I have been accused of being belligerent and intolerant toward those who are continually finding fault with certain types of phenomena. Possibly so, but I don't mean to be. I am always willing to have our readers write in and present their case, state their arguments, but when they do that, they should back them with an equal amount of evidence and not a lot of "could be's" and "but's, and's, if's" and a lot of statements which cannot be proven.

Nothing Ever Happens

I have also been told in no uncertain terms that the pictures already printed of the Harwood demonstrations bore no evidence but was not told the reasons. It seems to me that during the last 25 or 30 years, these same old-time psychic researchers have had plenty of opportunity to present what they think would be evidence but nothing has happened.

How people can argue about the pictures especially when they were not there is beyond me. The sitters assembled. The doors were locked. No one entered or left the room during the demonstration. And even so, had there been a continual parade going in and out, that would not account for the dematerialized form. As far as "double exposure" is concerned, let somebody come forward, who can walk around in the flesh-dematerialized!

Hydesville Camp Opens June 24

The Hydesville Spiritualist Camp will open June 24th and close Labor Day according to Rev. Margaret Lewis, president. This will be the third consecutive summer session of this unique Spiritualist Camp located on Hydesville Road several miles south of Newark, N. Y.

During the past years, especially during the celebration of the 100th anniversary of Modern Spiritualism, thousands have visited this hallowed spot where the Hydesville Memorial "marker" designates the spot upon which the original Fox Cottage was located.

Physical Mediumship

Today, Hydesville Camp is fast becoming a representative center for Spiritualists—modern hotel accommodations and an auditorium, all surrounded by superb landscaping.

The official program for 1950, now being assembled by Rev. Lewis, will include services daily, 2 P. M., and 8 P. M. Public and private demonstrations of direct-voice and occasional materialization seances will be held daily at 4 P. M.

Many outstanding speakers and mediums have been invited to serve during the 1950 season: Rev. Pearl Ashbrook, Denver, Colorado; Rev. Emma Roney-Rohlfing, St. Louis, Missouri; Juliette Ewing Pressing, Jamestown, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Van Duyzers, Bradford, Penna.; Rev. Ivan Hutchins, Rev. Jean Windle, and Daisy Hand, Toronto, Ontario, Canada; Rev. Harry Sutton and Dorothy Sutton, Elkhart, Ind.; Mildred Leon, Columbiaville, N. Y.; George Guilmotte, Albany, N. Y.; Rev. George Wood, Rochester, N. Y.; Rev. Nellie Carter, St. Louis, Mo.; Rev. Roland Henry, Buffalo, N. Y. and many others.

Few Know

For 1950 programs, write Rev. Margaret Lewis, Hydesville Spiritualist Camp, P. O. Box 146, Newark, N. Y.

Although the President of Hydesville Spiritualist Camp is well known in the field of Spiritualism, having conducted a church in Albany for many years and submitted to various tests of her physical mediumship before groups of scientists in that part of the state, yet, few know she has demonstrated her mediumship in Albany's executive mansion at the request of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Rev. Margaret Lewis

She is a direct-voice and materialization medium.

A clipping from the Albany Evening News, dated February 17, 1932, reads: "The voice of Fawn, spirit control of a Hampton Manor medium, has joined the chorus of political prophets predicting that Franklin D. Roosevelt will probably be the next President of the United States.

"For the first time in her life, Mrs. Roosevelt consulted a Spiritualist. Governor Roosevelt, preferring to hear the revelation second-hand, remained outside the room.

"The occasion of an experiment with the supernatural was a party given at the Executive Mansion for the staff of the executive department. As a last-minute inspiration, the Roosevelts invited Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Hampton Manor to give Spiritualistic readings.

"While professional ethics prevent Mrs. Lewis from discussing more questions asked her by Mrs. Roosevelt, she was willing to explain the reason for the cheerful smile the Governor's wife wore when she re-joined her guests.

"Mrs. Roosevelt's first question was whether her husband will receive the nomination for President and if so, whether he will be elected.

"The reply was that there will be two other strong contenders for the nomination, but that Governor Roosevelt will probably get it. Fawn and the other spirits seemed quite confident that if he obtains the nomination he will be elected."

Rev. Lewis was referred to as "the Hampton Manor medium" because she resides in the section of Albany known by that name. Her address is the same today, 55 State Road, Rensselaer, N. Y.

Medium's Escort

When asked about this incident, Rev. Lewis said that Eleanor, not only invited her to give clairvoyance, but sent a 6 ft. 2 in. state trooper, two police cars and a limousine so she would be properly escorted to her destination. This is the only case on record where a medium was invited to the Governor's Mansion in Albany. The Albany Evening News item included a picture of the medium, Rev. Lewis, standing beside Mrs. "F.D.R."

LET ME TELL YOU

Juliett Ewing Pressing

... how Rev. Clifford Bias thrills large audiences by presenting the astounding phenomena of precipitated writing on cards. Seals on a package of 5x7 filing cards are broken before the audience and the cards are passed out for examination. In a wicker basket, the cards are collected and given to two persons, unknown to the medium, who are called to the rostrum to assist in the demonstration.

Precipitated Writing

A dozen or more colored crayon pencils with sharpened points, are examined by a committee. In this instance, I was one among twenty persons selected. Two ladies held the basket. Rev. Bias put his fingers on the shoulders of the ladies and asked: "Can you hear a rustling of papers?"

Dora Shepard, an assistant, replied: "Yes."

Then, Rev. Bias asked the audience: "Can anyone else hear it? Come forward, some of you, so you can hear."

About twenty went forward. A faint rustle of paper could be heard. Rev. Bias then said: (to his spirit collaborator) "Sylvia, rap on the basket."

Then a tap, tap, tap could be distinctly heard by many in the audience. About fifty spirit messages were received. I asked for statements from those who received the cards. Amongst them were: Jennie Lewis, Manchester, Iowa, who received a message from her husband, Leslie Webster, in his own handwriting.

Testimonials

(1) "Through the card writing of Clifford Bias, August 6th, 1949, in the auditorium at Chesterfield, I received a card with my mother's own handwriting." Bertha V. Taylor, R. R. 5, Tipton, Indiana.

(2) "My card was a loving remembrance of the time my husband was laid away. It is evidential." Henrietta Murton, 1356 Harrison St., Philadelphia 24, Penna.

(3) "My grandfather who has been in spirit for many years, through card writing wrote these words, including a drawing of his monument, which read: 'To Ella Brady, Love and all good cheer, Granpa Miller.'"

(4) "Drawing is perfectly accurate. It needs no questioning as on my grandfather and grandmother's tombstone reads this inscription: 'Not Dead, But Immortal.' This message and drawing proved to me, without a doubt, that it was my grandfather." Ella Brady, 807 N. Solvay Ave., Detroit 9, Mich.

On some cards, the writing was so small, a microscope had to be used to read it. Reversed writing, known as mirror writing, also was demonstrated. All of this demonstration takes place within a few minutes. Amazing, incredible, but true! These testimonials can be checked by anyone who is interested. After the demonstration, I examined the pencils. Some of the crayons had been used. Spirit chemists evidently use the physical material to draw from in order to produce this phenomena.

Bias At Jamestown

Rev. Bias is scheduled to demonstrate various phases of mental and physical mediumship here at Jamestown, N. Y., May 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th. He will be sponsored by The American Foundation for Psychic Research, Inc. His course of lectures and demonstrations will follow the pattern presented each year at the annual Spiritualist Episcopal Church convention, where, as Dean, Rev.

Bias conducts what he calls: "A Survey of Psychic Phenomena."

While at Jamestown, this survey will be divided into four parts. All classes at 8 P. M. are open to the public, members and non-members. Private direct-voice seances and clairvoyance daily by appointment.

Rev. Bias' complete evening schedule of classes:

May 9th—"Introduction to Psychic Phenomena"; Premonitions, Dreams, Telepathy. Psychic interpretation of dreams and experiments in Telepathy.

May 10th—"Mental Mediumship"; An analysis of the 'modus operandi' of mental mediumship; demonstrations of clairvoyance, psychometry and billet reading.

May 11th—"Physical Mediumship"; A summary of facts known about physical phenomena; demonstrations of raps, table tipping, spirit writing and direct voice.

May 12th—"Non-mediumistic Psychic Phenomena"; ghosts, hauntings, scrying, hypnotism; followed by dark seance symposium by spirit teachers.

Where You Least Expect

Let me tell you about an interesting reproduction of an early sketch I saw in Jamestown's most exclusive interior decorating and furniture store, Wellman Brothers.

In 1854, Hannah Cohoon executed the drawing with the following explanation:

City of Peace,
Monday, July 3, 1854.

I received a draft of a beautiful Tree penciled on a large sheet of white paper bearing ripe fruit. I saw it plainly; it looked very singular and curious to me. I have since learned that this tree grows in the Spirit Land. Afterwards the spirit showed me plainly the branches, leaves and fruit, painted or drawn upon paper. The leaves were checked or crossed and the same colors you see here. I entreated Mother Ann to tell me the name of this tree which she did October 1st, 4th hour P. M. by moving the hand of a medium to write twice over, Your Tree is the Tree of Life.

Seen and painted by Hannah Cohoon.

Probably "Mother Ann" refers to Ann Lee, the leader of the Shaker movement. It gave me quite a thrill to see acknowledgement of spirit in such a sophisticated store. I must, at some later date, write freely about Jamestown and the surrounding country. It is an ideal vacation spot. We hope that many Psychic Observer readers find their way to our headquarters during the forthcoming summer.

Lest We Forget

Edward Lester Thorne gets around since he passed into the spirit world. Recently he made contact with a very characteristic message to Vernon Hendry, 2508 N. W. 28th St., Oklahoma City (7) Oklahoma. While on earth, Ed rarely traveled far from his New York City church and apartment. He was the most conscientious medium I've ever known. His public and those who depended upon him were always placed first.

Only A House

In a recent release, Alton L. Blakeslee, Associated Science reporter, quotes Dr. William C. Menninger, president of the American Psychiatric Association: "For one thing, we forget that the human body is only a house in which a person lives and not the man himself. We assume that when we see the physical being of a man, we see the person. We should pay more attention to the personality within the body."

Science and Spiritualism's proof of immortality of personality are growing closer and closer together. Spiritualists know that the body is merely the vehicle through which personality and individuality express, because the "dead" have come back and proved their identity after the body of flesh is buried into the earth. Jesus, the great scientist demonstrated this fact over two thousand years ago.

The Rev. Elvina Johnson Colburn, minister of Concord Mission, 1934 30th Street, San Diego (2), California, demonstrates a unique phase of mediumship. Her hands are controlled by spirit while she moulds in clay, busts of spirit entities. (See picture: "Ready To Atone"). Frequently, the likenesses are so clear that they are instantly recognized. Rev. Colburn never worked in clay until this odd phase of mediumship came to her.

Good To Know

Leslie and Mildred Faith of Paducah, Kentucky, met me in St. Louis" and afterward wrote: "We enjoyed the meetings at the Roosevelt Hotel and feel that these programs are a great help and inspiration to seekers for truth and proof. Keep up those heart to heart articles. Report the truth — simple, direct and firsthand. It is always greater than fiction."

Mr. and Mrs. Faith, enthusiastic Spiritualists in my native state, Kentucky, have formed a home circle. Results in development are beginning to manifest. Sometimes, I wonder if the public really likes the first-hand direct reports of seances. Many letters encourage me to continue this practice. For those who already are convinced, perhaps, the records are a bit boring, but we should all share our experiences. There is always someone who never even heard that the dead live and can communicate. To establish a balance of power so that we can have a better world, we must reach the many.

Prayer — Music

From a reader, Lola Gwin Smale, 2902 Benvenue Avenue, Berkeley 5, California, whom

I met at the Hotel Biltmore in Los Angeles a few years ago, I received a copy of a beautiful little prayer. The words by Emma Dickinson Avery were set to music composed by Mrs. Smale. The size of the card fits into a hymn book. For copies, write direct to the composer.

Ever Guide Us

Charles A. Bailey, Cresthome Apartments, 621 W. 4th St., Washington, D. C., sent me a printed card bearing these words:

FOR MEMORY'S SAKE

Would you increase your happiness?
Would you be loved by everyone?
Would you your life prolong?
Then listen to my song.
Forget your neighbor's faults, my friend.

Forget what you have been told.
Let kindness and unselfishness
Win those whose hearts are cold.
Forget peculiarities.
Their good points keep in mind.
Forget old strifes and histories.
Sad memories leave behind.
Blot out what happened yesterday.
Begin a new clean sheet,
And write thereon for memory's sake,
Things Lovable and Sweet.

If we want brotherhood and peace, we should follow the suggestions.

After Thirty Years

Elder W. S. Townsend, Box 746, Guthrie, Kentucky, fervently prayed to God and asked that a sign be given him. The following day, a copy of Psychic Observer came and in it, was an article written by Vernon Hendry. I quote from Townsend's letter: "After thirty years, I find my boyhood friend, Vernon. I wrote to him and he replied. Glory be to God, spirit friends must have had a hand in our reunion."

Perhaps, nothing happens by chance: God works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform.

Avenues of Expression

Mediumship may be expressed in many ways. Some students think that development is registered only when we can give definite test proof messages from a spirit. Last summer, a charming lady, a student of psychic science, called to see us. She was from Canada and had recently published a song, "Lovely Lady" for which she said she received the lyrics and music direct from spirit. This song was sung at one of the American Foundation meetings

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS

With God, distance is no object. "Ask and ye shall receive" is God's beautiful promise to His children. People want to be healed, not just helped.

"The cases of spinal meningitis, cancer and cripples I prayed for were healed. I have written affidavits." Write your troubles; receive healing prayer and instruction. Enclose stamped envelope and love offering.

The Picture of the Century

When the first photograph was taken of Helen, spirit daughter of Dr. H. F. Miller (See Psychic Observer, March 25th, 1950) numerous letters were received—asking for an explanation of the double exposure over the Doctor's right shoulder.

The photograph, this page, rules out any accusation of this sort. In fact this picture of a dematerialized spirit is definitely perfect in that no criticism whatsoever can possibly be forthcoming.

The taking of this picture by Payton was witnessed by nearly 30 persons, including the editor of this journal. Fanchion Harwood, one of America's foremost materialization mediums sat in the cabinet back of the black curtain. All present have already vouched for this photograph. The negative was developed 30 minutes after this seance ended. A committee of three, followed photographer Payton and, in an outer room, watched the negative being developed.

There are records and pictures showing that Sir William Crookes was photographed with the materialized spirit, Katie King,—walking arm in arm with her but through the mediumship of "Florie" Florence Cook, there is no photograph on record showing a partially dematerialized spirit on the floor with Crookes. Nor is there a picture showing medium Cook—with a materialized spirit.

Many of the Crookes photographs were destroyed. It seems that records and rare pictures of an evidential type have an uncanny way of disappearing when those who spend a life-time in research leave their findings in the hands of those opposed to the case for personal conscious survival. When the evidence is too good, certain die-hards become enraged but if there are apparent loopholes, these same intellectuals become masters of the situation by talking about red herrings instead of the actual phenomena produced.
