

VALOR

A JOURNAL of INTERPRETATION for STUDENTS of SOULCRAFT

Volume I

NOBLESVILLE, INDIANA, NOVEMBER 18, 1950

Number 1

The Soulcraft Work Must Have a Publication to Acquaint Christian Students with Its Progress

WHAT is valor? Valor is grace under control. It is courage made articulate. It is the human soul pushing forward into the Unknown, realizing it is relying upon no strength but its own. It is doing the thing that one is afraid to do, with no help expected from any outside quarter. It is lifting the Curtain of Mystery and peering without qualm at what may lie behind.

It is significant and fitting that a publication devoted to the Soulcraft message—and spread of the Soulcraft work—should be called by the title: Valor. Soulcraft people are Ladies and Gentlemen Unafraid. Valor—especially in matters of Spirit—is their shibboleth and watchword. They are rising above archaic rituals and searching for New Truth in every aspect of Cosmos.

Modern psychical research began demonstrating back in the Eighties that human souls on quitting earthly bodies do not proceed to any grandiose heights of immediate bliss. They have given evidence of their survival right here on the same mundane planet they inhabited in life. And if this be a fact, then dogmatic religion has considered the After-Life all wrong. Ignoring the proofs of human survival developed nightly in a thousand seance rooms has come to be impossible. Has humanity been informed incorrectly about the great processes of Life and Death? If so, then the whole agenda of Christian religious concept must be revised.

Soulcraft students are engaged, earnestly and devoutly, in finding out!

THE STUDY of Soulcraft is the activity of investigating every form of spiritual research, particularly the employment of ESP—Extra-Sensory Perception—to arrive at the facts about spiritual survival. It breaks through the veil between Life and Death, to find transcendent intellects and mentors ready to supply stupendous information about the experiences of the soul after quitting the body, to disclose the truer nature of post mortem existence, to find the correct place of mankind in the eternal scheme of things, and particularly to determine the role and function of the Man of Galilee in the cosmic pattern, that the fundamentals of correct religion may be accurately re-established.

Behold a vast lore of supernal Information results from such exploring, relayed along to the rank and file of bedeviled mankind of today in the form of weekly "Scripts" . . .

The whole structure of orthodox religion bids fair to be revised in the light of these findings. Something far more profound and awesome than any tenets transferred to our species in the past, is being disclosed to its students. Earth-life is presented as a great University of Experience. Reincarnation is established as a definite fact of life. The program of mortal vicissitude in every phase and aspect, is revealed to the novitiate, and the place of The Christ becomes something logical and vital.

Thousands of open-minded students all over America are profiting from these findings, and suddenly experiencing an overwhelming peace of mind as the Plan of Life comes clear to them.

THIS Soulcraft publication, Valor, will come to those students all over America henceforth, informing them of the progress of this Movement as it expands, enlightening them in latest developments of such expansion, publishing corroboratory evidence from secular sources on the truth of its tenets.

The development of intellect in human life is now reaching that point where sights are requiring to be raised on Religion as on economics and ethics. The Armageddon of the Scriptures obviously impends. The "Abomination of Desola-

"Cloud No Bigger than a Man's Hand" May Be Disclosures Such as Soulcraft

Lore in Transcendent Scripts Turns Startling Light on Man's Past and Future

THE WHOLE solar universe whereon we dwell is proceeding under the constellation of Aquarius. In mystical lore, this means vast changes. We are swinging from under Pisces, a Water Sign, into an Air Sign, which accounts for our sudden progress in aviation, radio, television, and the crediting of psychical science in matters of thought. Religion itself must alter as we leave the Piscean Cycle behind us—when Purification was by baptism, Christ's disciples were chosen from among fishermen, when He walked on the water and ruled the waves, when the Christian Dispensation was distinguished by maritime discovery and steam was the great motive power for driving machinery.

The religion of the future will take the aspect of direct clairaudient communication with supernal beings in higher reaches of Space and Time—not to ignore the Son of God Himself.

Already the first vanguard of the Higher Religious Mentors have manifested themselves in modern affairs in an enlightenment coming to be known as Soulcraft.

The Soulcraft Disclosures first began "coming over" in 1928. They not only revealed in fullest logic Man's past history on this earth—so badly bungled in narration in the Old Testament—but began to disclose the reasons for the world's present turmoil.

The whole spiritual evolution and destiny of Man was transmitted down from Higher Levels of Life, till the lore at this writing totals 1,500,000 words!

THIS LORE is now put out in weekly "Scripts" that electrically give the earnest seeker after celestial truth new visions and new hope.

Humanity has had mystical teaching offered it before, but "in a cloud no bigger than a man's hand" an entirely new philosophy of life suddenly becomes of moment, transcending all the teachings of the past excepting the tenets of the Man of Galilee. Listen to what this new philosophy does for those to whom it comes—

First of all, Soulcraft takes away Fear and Uncertainty at confronting the enigmas of Life and Death.

It delineates and expounds precisely why the individual person is in life at all, why it confronts the earthly ordeals it does in day-to-day experience, what its sensations and reactions will be at quitting life and undergoing the major changes called Death, what the conditions and experiences of the so-called Higher Life will be, when it ultimately attains to them.

Facts are determined that go to show that there is no God waiting to pounce on the erring spirit and hail it to "judgment", but that earthly life is more in the nature of a University where the souls of men "go to school" for the length of their earthly lives, to gain definite increment from the rigors of experience.

The whole agenda of the life-and-death process is made clear by Soulcraft, so that worry over the death-change is removed and peace of mind substituted in respect to "eternity". It supplies you with a complete program of description of your mortal encasement and the destiny you are striving to fulfill.

It removes Worry from your mental processes, and brings you to regard Death as a natural and normal change into a holiday on the Thought Planes, where you can review your life's experiences and arrange for new lives, in the light of your spiritual needs. Men and women never fear what they fully understand. Soulcraft aids you in gaining to a comprehensive understanding of the average Life Cycle—and brings the attestments of modern and scientific psychical research to bear on Higher Life conditions.

SECOND, Soulcraft helps you to unlock the great repressed powers within yourself, making clear and understandable the supernal powers of Thought and how to use them, so that people and events tend to aid instead of opposing you, removing much of the petty harassment and tribulation of life and giving you enhanced advantages over the stupid and illiterate.

Third, Soulcraft introduces you to a great phalanx of Mentors on higher grades of consciousness who seem to possess the answers to all worldly complications, not overlooking explanations for why this world has fallen into its present economic and political turmoil.

The character of The Christ assumes major importance in Soulcraft. You get divine consolation and inspiration from it that you never supposed possible. The counselling of the Elder Brother is a literal and tacit instruction—offered by no other religious faith of today.

SOULCRAFT, in other words, is the answer to your spiritual quandaries you may have been searching for, for years.

The most abstruse enigmas in Holy Writ become clear to you when you learn the premise for all human life on earth. The real "sin of Adam" and the ejection from Eden, the true interpretation of the fiery destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, the mystery of where Cain got his wife, the inside secret of the Transfiguration and the Elder Brother's conversation with Nicodemus about being "born again", are all cleared up for you in Soulcraft.

Here is a teaching that has no peer in the religious schools or faiths of today.

Is it the "cloud no bigger than a man's hand" that ushers in the Second Coming?

SOULCRAFT'S "VALOR"

tion" apparently has to do with the forthcoming havoc of atom bombs.

Soulcraft students, from every demonstrated evidence, are the people in the rank and file of our citizenry who correctly "have the answers" to the enigmas of our times.

Investigate Soulcraft and learn that this is so!

Will the "Abomination of Desolation" Be Brought About by Atom Bombs?

Second and Ninth Scripts of Soulcraft Expound Reds' Role in Armageddon

YOU can't hope to understand what is happening throughout the world today, particularly behind the government of Russia, unless you're conversant with the Second and Ninth Scripts of Soulcraft. Men in their essences are spiritual creatures, and spirits who have no place in the earth-scheme seem to have incarnated within the bodies of certain Russian leaders, meddling in the Plan of Salvation, and striving to make humanity live under a cooperative system for which it's not spiritually prepared.

Great Wits in transcendent areas of Space and Time seem to have expressed themselves in respect to the identity of present-day Russian leaders, declaring that these are the spirits who may readily bring on the "Abomination of Desolation" foretold in the Scriptures, by the dropping of atom bombs throughout the earth.

But precisely what happens in the wake of the atom bombs, and does "our deliverance draweth nigh" from the signs and the portents indicating the reappearance of Christ?

WHAT the Recorder of the Soulcraft tenets has been doing over the past twenty years, apparently, is going directly to the fount of supernal cosmic wisdom and drawing down enlightenment in the form of Psychical Communications as to just what is being permitted to happen in the earth as viewed from the cosmic standpoint.

Would it surprise you to learn that Stalin and his cohorts may not be of this world?

To understand what the prophets of old meant by Armageddon, you must understand the "Abomination of Desolation", and you cannot understand the Abomination of Desolation unless you understand how, and why, the various races of humankind appeared upon earth, and what their functions were to be in the times now upon us.

The Key to the whole stupendous enigma is contained in the Second of the Soulcraft Scripts—what the real "sin of Adam" was, that made a "Redeemer Christ" necessary.

Equipped with this key to biblical prophecy, the phenomenon of Bolshevism and Communism comes clear to you.

That someone seems to have formed contact with Supernal Intellects in higher dimensions of Space and Time and brought down an intelligent interpretation of events now occurring in our earth-world, is news of transcendent importance. But the essence and logic of the information must remain the surest attestation of its source.

Soulcraft isn't a new religious faith, nor a mystical cult. It is a great gathering of higher-caste people, coming together Sunday night after Sunday night merely to receive and ponder upon the revelations made them. No one is obligated to join anything or subscribe to anything.

"All is of instruction" is the Christ Shibboleth as these vital days develop.

Soulcraft is instruction, nothing else. It proselytes no ism and is connected with no movement. It isn't organized for commercial purposes and has nothing to "sell" but enlightenment.

Get the real truth about the Russian leaders and the "Abomination of Desolation" in these stupendous Soulcraft Scripts.

A BEST-SELLING NOVEL

By William Dudley Pelley

THE FOG tells the story of the difficulties of an ordinary American boy, groping his way through the mists of adolescence to find his place in the world and overcome the handicap of a stupid, inhibited parentage.

FIRST published in 1921, it quickly became a best-seller for that year, going into seventeen printings and two foreign editions during 1922, including the Scandinavian. Later it became a movie starring Mildred Harris and Cullen Landis.

THERE was a reason for this overwhelming success. Critics called it the most scathing indictment of parental stupidity ever penned. "How not to bring up children" described its theme in a phrase. Thousands read into the experiences of Nathan Forge their own quandaries and harassments. And it offered a picture of small-town American life that can never come again.

THERE are 500 closely printed pages in The Fog, and the author bought the original plates and struck off a reprint edition in 1940. Of this edition 127 copies on white paper in grey cloth covers now remain. There are no esoterics in the theme of this book. It is purely and unabashedly a novel, but its uplift in its climaxes is tremendous.

Your Pelley bookshelf is incomplete without "The Fog" and you should include it in your next order. $2.50

GOLDEN SCRIPTS

THERE are 844 pages of them, done on Bible paper and bound in limp round-cornered covers. To those who have "discovered" them, they amount to new Sermons on the Mount, coming apparently from the Elder Brother's supernal intellect for His disciples in this modern generation. They cover every personal and ethical subject troubling spiritually hungry people of today. Originally brought out in New Bible form in 1940 there are 75 copies available at present, which are offered while they last for $5 the copy. They will probably not be printed again in this complete form again for several years. Send your order in quickly, or better still, telegraph it, without delay, that a copy may be saved for you. Copies of this work at private sale have already brought $20.

VALOR

VOL. 1 NOVEMBER 18, 1950 No. 1

Published every little while by Soulcraft Chapels at Noblesville, Indiana, and sent to students of the Soulcraft Scripts. Address all communications—

SOULCRAFT CHAPELS
Box 192 Noblesville, Indiana

Introductory

THIS FIRST issue of VALOR has been produced to try out a format and organize the staff at Headquarters for its publication with efficiency and punctuality. Until mechanical details are ironed out, it will be sent to all student-subscribers of Soulcraft without charge.

Liberation, its predecessor, ran for six years as a weekly with only one brief interruption caused by political controversies. Liberation was succeeded by Roll-Call, which continued for upwards of two years. As the Soulcraft Enlightenment grows and necessity dictates, VALOR will be published in the 16-page format and brought out every Friday.

For the present it must be regarded as the house-organ of Soulcraft. It will principally acquaint the Soulcraft student body with the current printings of the publishing house, and apprise them of such news of the Enlightenment as may interest the national roster.

Christmas Ahead!

SOULCRAFT sustains itself almost entirely upon its printings and publications. It seeks no enrollments for "courses" and makes no charge for its information beyond the regular monthly or yearly subscription for the Scripts. Electronic Recorder wire reels or tapes sent out to Chaplains of groups are loaned free of charge to responsible parties owning Recorders of either type, with free-will offering being taken up at each weekly meeting to defray actual expenses of making and mailing.

With the Yuletide Season approaching, the Scripts or books of Soulcraft offer the ideal gift for the relative or friend perplexed in his spirit by the enactments of the times.

Why not cast through the books and publications announced in the columns of VALOR herewith and make up a list of gift-books for Christmas presentation?

The 24-page Weekly Scripts, beautifully printed in deluxe form suitable for binding later into a priceless volume, cost $1 per month. Soulcraft Press will mail a Yuletide Card to any person whose gift subscription for any number of months has been paid for by others, announcing that they are the recipients of such a gift. It will go forth attached to the first Script mailed after December 20th.

Better still, go through the order blank for books sent with this issue and order a Christmas supply of Soulcraft volumes which you can mail for yourself!

Bookkeepers!

ELBERT HUBBARD of the Roycrofters once went poking through his storerooms and noted the numbers of books on its shelves. "My Lord!" he muttered. "We're not book publishers, we're book-keepers!"

Soulcraft Press doesn't want to be book-keepers, it wants to be book-circulators. A book on a shelf is of no use to anybody. Books are published to be read.

Mr. Pelley, on going through the Soulcraft Press stock of a recent morning, found nearly $22,000 worth of books on its shelves—counting the copies of the first volume of Road into Sunrise—402 pages—which the plant is just completing. In the process of printing as well are several hundred copies of a Second Edition of Behold Life and a choice edition of Golden Script selections which the plant is bringing out under the title: The Coming of the Elder Brother.

These books must be gotten out and into the hands of the public. Some of the first editions have brought as high as $40 a copy. People pay that much not because of the scarcity but because of the value of the contents.

Scan the list of books publicized in this issue of Valor and make your Christmas purchase accordingly. Soulcraft capital is tied up in these books.

It is needed for new numbers!

Students who want to help Soulcraft can do it no greater service than aiding in moving these book stocks.

Soulcraft Chapels . .

are now being held in 30 cities across America, and the number is increasing. Each is presided over by a Chaplain, and equipped with an Electronic Voice Recorder. Once each week the Chaplain receives a Wire or Tape reel from Soulcraft Headquarters, on which has been recorded the current number of the Soulcraft Scripts, interspersed with sacred music. Mr. Pelley's own voice comes from the machine, reading the latest number of the Scripts as he has prepared it, and having the effect of his being present in person. The readings require exactly one hour, and each Discourse in Soulcraft closes with a Master Message from the supernal Golden Scripts. The whole constitutes an inexpressibly beautiful semi-religious service, rich with new and startling truths about divine fundamentals. Anyone may start a Chapel upon the acquiring of a Voice Recorder. The wire or tape is merely threaded across the sound-head, the voice volume adjusted, and an hour of edifying discourse heard. Expenses are defrayed by free-will offerings . .

'The SONG OF THE NILE'

Did you know it came from the motion picture Drag, made from the novel by William Dudley Pelley? Drag was the first all-talkie movie made by Warner Brothers-First National, starring Richard Barthelmess. The only music throughout the film was Song of the Nile and it made motion-picture history. Mr. Pelley had taken all the humorous incidents happening to him in a decade as a newspaper publisher and incorporated them into one book, telling the side-splitting story of a naive young newspaper reporter, insufferably surrounded by relatives who demanded to be supported by him merely because he was successful—the common plight of thousands.

"DRAG"

may be secured in a reprint edition from original plates, done by Soulcraft Press, Inc. 800 copies are available at this date, in cloth covers, on white paper stock, and priced at $2.50 per copy. Include it in your order!

"Why I Believe the Dead Are Alive!"

DO YOU BELIEVE IN GHOSTS? Have you ever had any experience with manifestations of disembodied intelligence? If you are skeptical of survival of the human personality, what evidence would you require to be submitted to you, convincing you that human souls are more alive after shedding their bodies than they were while occupying them? Are you open to conviction?

EVER since boyhood, the man who later was to project the great doctrine of SOULCRAFT had encountered supernatural experiences in his life that could not be accounted for by rational explanations. With maturity these increased. The strangest of coincidences happened in his affairs. With the opening of World War I, he got his first irrefutable evidence of survival of a soul after death of body, when his deceased brother-in-law "communicated" with him after losing his life in the American armed forces. Since that episode, supernatural evidence of Survival has been constant and overwhelming—culminating in 1940 with the full-grown and substantial materialization of his oldest daughter Harriet, attesting to her identity by her knowledge of his life and intimate family affairs.

302 Pages of Manifest Evidence

FINALLY, in 1942, the author put the whole uncanny story between one pair of covers. Starting from his own skeptical beginnings in psychical matters he traced his progress in making himself familiar with all phases of the supernatural, not overlooking the cultivation of his own clairaudient powers that resulted in his recordings of the transcendent Scripts of SOULCRAFT. He called this frank and startling book: Why I Believe the Dead Are Alive! It is a book that belongs in the hands of every student of SOULCRAFT; that he may be thoroughly conversant with the mystical happenings that brought the SOULCRAFT doctrine into present-day human thought. Ignore its findings you cannot. It shares honors with Flammarion's Haunted Houses for its incontestable evidence and wealth of detail.

SECULAR history attests that every molder of religious thought from Moses and St. Paul down to John Wesley and Mary Baker Eddy was influenced in his or her life by supernatural happenings or transcendent clairaudience. The author of Why I Believe the Dead Are Alive has only been interested in such matters from the sacred viewpoint. He accepts that clarification of old-time religious faith is coming out of his findings. Read this book yourself before passing your opinion, however. Withal it is an entrancing narrative to peruse . . .

WE HAVE 164 copies of this book in deluxe leatherette binding for sale at $4 the copy, and 644 copies of the clothbound edition on white paper stock at $2.50 the copy. Address—SOULCRAFT PRESS, INC., Box 192, Noblesville, Indiana

The whole adds up to a unique religious service.

"Where Are the Planes of Thought Located?"

THE SUBJECT of the Soulcraft discourse and Script for the Soulcraft Chapels for Sunday evening, November 26th, is going to be: Where Are the So-Called Planes of Thought into Which People Graduate at Death Geographically Located?

Here is a great theme and a greater Script. It is an explanation from higher regions of Space and Time of the mystery that has hitherto perplexed millions: Where do the dead go when they die, seeing that astronomy has proven that heaven can't be a matter of altitude?

We know they go somewhere.

You will want the information propounded in this Script. It is typical of the Soulcraft Enlightenment that it supplies you with definite information on matters which orthodox religion either skirts or ignores. This Script is the 12th in the Soulcraft Winter Program.

Thos. A. Edison Had Help from "Beyond"

Andrew Carnegie Moved to Establish Libraries When Clairaudiently Told

THIS is part of a conversation which took place in Edison's laboratory between the scientist and G. Lloyd Preacher, a well-known Atlanta architect and graduate of Georgia Tech., as reported in the Atlanta Journal—

Thos. Edison speaking: "Don't give me so much credit for my work. The credit is not all mine. I mean only that I am merely the instrument through which a Supreme Intelligence carries on His work. I am pioneering in undiscovered country, and have been from the first.

"When I began this work, I knew nothing of electrical or mechanical science. My schooling covered little more than a year. If I had not worked under the direction of a Supreme Intelligence the work would never have been done at all." Edison worked days and nights without sleep. He was sustained by the Supreme Intelligence, he claimed. He was asked how and where he became aware of Divine Direction.

"It began when I was a telegraph operator—a night operator in a lonely, little mountain town. I became aware of messages, or directions, coming clearly into my mind, as I sat there through the long nights, and I began the work which I was directed to do."

"But why have you kept this to yourself, Mr. Edison?"

"Because my work alone was important. The world would have said, 'Edison is crazy', or, 'Edison has got religion.' What they say afterwards does not matter."

To one other person Mr. Edison revealed the source of his inspiration and guidance—Andrew Carnegie. Shortly after learning the secret of Mr. Edison's inventive genius, Mr. Carnegie, himself, began to hear voices instructing him, having suddenly become clairaudient in the inner ear. The result of this instruction: Carnegie took his money and established free public libraries throughout the world.

Carnegie tells of this in his 'Memoirs'!

Road into Sunrise

Mr. Pelley's big esoteric novel of 1951!

IN TWO VOLUMES - 900 PAGES

The First Volume Is Now in the Bindery

Road into Sunrise is the biggest work its author has essayed to date, being a two-volume esoteric story of what happened to Norval Grane's romance when he permitted a celebrated mystic to remove the veil on his fiancée's prenatal memory. Sophie's mind went back and "locked" on her most celebrated incarnation—although the theme of the narrative is more tremendous than that.

Grane, an archaeological excavator, became convinced that whereas Man first discovered the Universe, then God, then himself, he still had another fundamental discovery to make, although he couldn't consciously identify it. But he took a contract with a New York publishing house to write a book about it. Finally it was out of the tragedy happening to his sweetheart that the solution to the enigma came, almost prostrating him when he recognized it.

Here is a work that probes to the vital core of all modern metaphysical thought!

Its author's purpose in writing it was to present in dramatic form the completest agenda of esoterics possible, so that by reading a highly enthralling story, the reader might be made conversant with the most enlightening phases of metaphysics.

The plot is laid in New York and California of the present, and the characters are true to life, living their modern lives with scarcely an inkling of the stupendous forces to which they are giving themselves. The biggest person in the book is Melissa Codden Sheppard—a New York publishing executive—who champions Grane through the ordeal of amnesia in which he finds himself. Grane completes his quest but does not do his book, and the climax of the story expounds why.

This two-volume novel possesses everything, and you should reserve a set now! It is being done in two editions, one on deluxe paper in leatherette binding and another on white paper in cloth. Volume One has been completed and will presently be shipped.

Is it possible that Mankind did not originate on earth?

If you have not read

"Star Guests"

you are haplessly unaware of what the Ageless Wisdom declares happened back in Miocene times on this earth, when a great horde of migrating spirits came to this planet and began cohabitating with indigenous ape-forms, confronting Science with the enigma of—between the great apes and Heidelberg man. Here is a stupendous book of 320 pages, disclosing the true history of Man on this planet, and making it doubtful that the Garden of Eden ever existed on the earth as such. How a malign era of Sodomy was precipitated, of which the Old Testament speaks incorrectly as to time, is startlingly recounted; rationalizing the appearance of the Great Avatar—Christ—and the 144,000 Sons of Light, His disciples.

The Christian faith, for the first time, makes the most startling sense to you when you read this great book!

THIS MOST recent of the SOULCRAFT books presents solutions for theological and evolutionary mysteries that have baffled humankind for generations. The true mission of Christ as "redeemer" of the world stands forth as something grander, profounder, and more logical than the jargon of theology. You get a new basis for earthly life being what it is, the reasons for its problems and complications, the true place of religion in it, and the meaning of the phrase "our redemption draweth nigh" in the apparent imminence of the Second Coming. To have the explanations of this book in your thinking, means peace of mind in these troublous days on which the world is falling.
