PROF. WELTMER'S SAYINGS.

An experience is something we absolutely know and we cannot know anything but the truth.

Man acts only upon his individual beliefs.

The difference between psychology and religion is that psychology may embrace a hundred religions, while a religion is a single system of beliefs.

Christianity contains in itself religion, psychology and everything else that makes for man's success.

Christianity is not a limited idea.

Religion is limited by a few beliefs.

The only way to know anything is to do that thing.

Simple belief is the strongest attitude of the mind.

The mind, knowing its power and how to use it, may overcome all the obstacles that may be encountered during life.

Belief that a thing can be done renders its accomplishment a possibility.

The man who receives a dollar a day for his services, believing that he cannot do better, fixes his financial status by his own unbelief. If he did not believe that he could make a dollar a day he would be a beggar.

That attitude of mind that makes a Napoleon climb a mountain is not a superior, indomitable attitude, not a stronger physical force than other men possess, but that attitude, the belief that it can be done, renders him stronger than anything else except the expressed law of Deity.

Napoleon believed that he could cross the Alps, and he did, but it all came to naught, as will everything else, no matter how strong, that antagonizes the welfare of other human beings. The action of one man that antagonizes any other being on earth, will return and antagonize himself. We have past that period where strength alone conquers.

No matter how much you extend a man's environment and widen his possibilities, unless there is something which he believes, his actions will be no more effective than before.

Belief is an attitude of mind; faith is an activity of the physical man, growing out of this attitude, based upon his willingness to work.

Man's effort is his capital stock. It is the only thing he has to offer for any blessings that he may desire. They are added to him, not because he is entitled to them, but because the law that produced him, the God that created him, has promised that in return for his effort he will receive the thing he seeks.

President (Yale University) Hadley's statement that "Individual effort is hopeless and helpless" is the very embodiment of falsehood and will take all the strength and manhood out of every man who heard and believed it.

Man may be stripped of houses and lands and money and yet he is rich, because he starts from a life of helplessness into a life of success when he feels that he must use his own personal effort.

The power which propels your hand when you are driving a nail, ministering to the sick, handing to the poor something that will add to their comfort, or striking your fellow man is the power that brought you into existence, and acts when you give your consent. In any case no result comes except to the man who gives his consent and makes the effort.

The parts of my writings which seem familiar to the reader are those he can justify by similar experiences in his own life. Not that he has healed the sick by the laying on of hands, or has helped others to live lives of success and usefulness, but that there have been certain attitudes of the mind which complied with the law and brought similar results to both himself and to me.

WELTMERISM AND CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

In answer to the numerous inquiries from investigators and students, this brief statement of the salient points of difference between Christian Science and Weltmerism is given.

Christian Science is a religion, capable of scientific demonstration. Weltmerism is a science, capable of religious interpretation.

Christian Science, by implication, denies the existence of the forms of being. Weltmerism recognizes the forms of being.

Christian Science denies the existence of matter. Weltmerism recognizes the existence of substance.

Christian Science denies the existence of disease. Weltmerism recognizes disease as an inharmonious relationship in the organisms in which being manifests itself.

Christian Science does not distinguish between disease and injury. Weltmerism distinguishes between disease and injury and does not enter the field of surgery.

THE MISSOURI LAW.

In reply to the flood of inquiries from friends of the institution relative to the probable effect upon it of the medical law recently enacted by the Missouri legislature, we wish to say that the Weltmer Method of Healing, properly presented and thoroughly understood, is not in violation of any law. Consequently we expect to continue, and advise all our students to become so perfectly conversant with the subject that they may continue their business without let or hindrance.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Alexander, West Virginia January 12, 1901.

Up to May 4, 1900, I was a bundle of diseases. The doctors gave me up to die and my friends thought my time was short. As a last resort I tried your home treatment and I improved from the first. In three months I was entirely cured. I have waited this long before writing to see if there would be a return of any of my troubles and am thankful to say there is not.

Mary A. Liston.

CURED AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

Bentonport, Iowa, Oct. 25, 1900.

About a year ago I was cured of constipation of over thirty years standing by three months of your home treatment and have not had a sick day since. I was also cured of a very painful sore eye with one treatment.

Mrs. Volney Henry,

DOES WELTMER ANTAGONIZE MEDICINE?

That Weltmer antagonizes anything is a misapprehension. Weltmerism is a doctrine of forgiveness and agreement. So far as Weltmerism relates to the subject of healing, it depends for success upon perfect harmony between the minds of the healer and the patient.

Weltmer recognizes in every system of healing medical or otherwise, the intention to relieve human suffering. He believes that the intention of the physician or healer, acted upon from the confidence established in the patient, has a greater power in healing disease than either drugs or drugless manipulation.

In offering his assistance to the sick or afflicted, he simply adds whatever influence his method possesses to all other influences exercised by others who are trying at the same time to help the same patient. The intention to heal on his part and on the part of the medical physician is the same. Hence, in order to keep from antagonizing anything the physician may do, Weltmer offers his services without using any of the means employed by other systems of healing.

Any unprejudiced physician who will examine my method for two hours for the purpose of learning what I teach, will see that I do not antagonize medicine, but that physicians would be more successful did they but understand my methods.

THE MAYOR'S ENDORSEMENT.

Favorable Regard His People Feel for Professor Weltmer.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

Prof. S. A. Weltmer is universally regarded here as an honest and sincere man, and from quite an intimate personal acquaintance with him I heartily endorse the public sentiment.

My own health has fortunately been so good that I have never had any occasion to consult him as a healer, but from my own personal knowledge, the testimony of neighbors and friends who have been treated by his method, the evidence of strangers who have come here for treatment, with whom I have talked, and from letters I have received, I am satisfied that at least 95 per cent. of those who have consulted him have either been permanently cured or greatly benefited.

A. DUNCAN.

Who Meets All Trains for the Weltmer School of Healing.

WHEN YOU REACH NEVADA

And Step Off the Train Look For a Man Wearing a Silver Badge containing the Words "Weltmer Infirmary."

If you do not see him when getting off the train, step into the waiting room of the depot and watch for him; he passes through the depot after each train leaves. Mr. Duncan will furnish you free transportation to the Weltmer School of Healing, and thence to your boarding place.

Numbers of persons have come to the Weltmer School of Healing and said they had been in town a number of days and even weeks before they found the Weltmer School of Healing. They stated that they came to Nevada for the express purpose of coming direct to the Weltmer School of Healing but they had allowed persons who pretended to be going to the Weltmer School of Healing to pilot them and instead of being taken there, they were taken to other places where the pretended pilot would disappear and leave them in the company of another person who would proceed to further mislead them.

There is no danger, whatever, and we will positively guarantee your safe arrival at the Weltmer School of Healing, if you will follow our directions.

DON'T FAIL TO WRITE WHEN YOU WILL REACH NEVADA.

Persons who are coming to Nevada to take the class course of instruction at the Weltmer School of Healing should write us five or six days before leaving home, when they will arrive in Nevada, giving us information regarding the price they desire to pay for board, whether they prefer to board in hotel or private families, etc. Address

Weltmer School of Healing,

GENUINE TESTIMONIALS.

Prof. Weltmer has an iron-clad rule that none but genuine testimonials shall be published. In writing to any address he uses you do so with the absolute assurance of corresponding with a genuine person who has been benefitted by the Weltmer method. A book of a thousand pages would not hold the bona fide testimonials now on file.

To insure a prompt reply always enclose a stamp when writing to others for information. If you fail to receive an answer to your inquiry in a reasonable time, write to us and we will ascertain the cause of the delay. Your letter may possibly have miscarried, or your correspondent's address may have been changed.

OFFICE TREATMENT (Demonstration)

What is Called Office Treatment is Really a Practical Demonstration of the Truth of the Method of Instruction

Office treatment, as administered in demonstrating the Weltmer Method of Healing has always been considered by the author as an illustration of the law of agreement as applied to individuals for the special benefit of the individual receiving the instruction.

Whether mere suggestion or physical manipulation were used it should have in it the purpose of conveying to the patient's mind the particular idea which he should inculcate in order to control the physical functions of the body through an action or attitude of his mind.

Physical manipulation has always been considered by the author as a sign language and heretofore has been administered because a great number of those who have applied for relief have desired nothing except that which would be of benefit to the patient in his particular case.

It has been the constant aim of the originator of this method to build a science that will give to each person who comes in contact with it the full range of power possessed or claimed by its author.

The author has always maintained that knowledge alone is power:

That any person can do what he does, should they know what he knows:

To convey more clearly the author's meaning, that his method is a system or series of instruction, and to correct if possible the wrong impression in the public mind, that it is the treatment and not the instruction which produces beneficial results, the Weltmer School will discontinue giving what is termed office treatment except to Class Course students in demonstration of the truth of the propositions advanced.

When Professor Weltmer first began teaching his science in Nevada, he gave office treatment (demonstration) free for an indefinite period to Class Course students. Later the term of free office treatment (demonstration) was limited to a definite number of weeks, and recently this period was reduced to two weeks.

In order to make a proposition so reasonable and attractive that all can take the course of instruction and experience in their own persons its benefits, the Weltmer School of Healing now offers its thorough and intensely practical full four weeks' course of lectures, together with the Newly Revised and Illustrated Mail Course, and the handbook, "The Mystery Revealed," for $50.00, reserving the right to raise the price at any time without further notice, and in addition gives absolutely free to each Class Course student six weeks' Office Treatment (demonstration) and a beautiful diploma.

SUFFERED FOR FIFTEEN YEARS.

Two Weeks' Treatment Perfected a Cure Where all the Doctors Failed.

Winchester, Kas., Feb. 23, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

For fifteen years I suffered all the pain and agony incident to indigestion, rheumatism, torpid liver and lumbago. Was treated many times by different doctors without the least benefit. I finally decided to take no more medicine, feeling that it did not reach my trouble, and for years during the winter I had been able to sleep only in a chair.

I concluded to make one more effort for health and went to the Weltmer School of Healing at Nevada, Mo., on Feb. 8, 1901. At that time I could not walk without great pain and my limbs were so drawn I could not straighten them. The first treatment cured the rheumatism and indigestion and no young man in town can walk better or more briskly than I can now. Two weeks' treatment entirely cured all my ailments and I am well in every respect.

Fellow sufferers! Seek relief where it can be found. The Weltmer School of Healing can cure you as it did me.

FLED FROM THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

A Trained Nurse Cured of Cancer of the Breast and Lameness.

The Doctors Failed, but the Weltmer Method Succeeded.

Woodson, New Jersey January 10, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

There was a growth in my breast which the physicians diagnosed as cancer and advised that the entire breast be immediately amputated. Having seen many similar cases in my practice I knew that few were permanently cured by an operation. I have been lame since childhood. When I wore braces on both knees and for the last fifteen years could not walk without an elastic knee cap. I suffered great pain in my limbs and had tried many doctors, but received no relief, and saying the bones would be ankylosed. I suffered greatly from severe headaches and pains over my eyes. The glands of my neck had been sore for years. I also had constant back ache and pain in my shoulders and chronic diarrhea. The surgeons were to operate on October 13, I was losing three pounds per week, had no appetite and slept very little. I then heard of Weltmerism. On October 8, I started for Nevada, took personal treatment and in six weeks was entirely cured of all my troubles, and can walk without a brace. For the first time in my life I am in perfect health. I am by profession a trained nurse.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY HEALED.

Of Various Chronic and Acute Ailments by a Few Treatments at the Weltmer School.

Sumpter, Oregon, February 15, 1901.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that my daughter, Ethel Boothe, age thirteen years, had been very ill for some time suffering with inflammatory rheumatism; had been in bed five weeks before starting to Nevada, Missouri, for treatment and had to be carried onto the train when leaving home. After three weeks treatment at the Weltmer School of Healing (she was entirely relieved of her trouble.

My son, Miles Boothe, eight years of age, had suffered from rupture and indigestion. He took three weeks' treatment and was cured perfectly.

My daughter Myrtle Boothe, six years old was suffering from chronic indigestion and was cured in two treatments at the Weltmer School of Healing.

To any who are ill and suffering from disease of any kind I would cheerfully recommend the Weltmer method of treatment as a means of escape from their old troublesome ailments. Respectfully,

Mrs. Cora Richards.

MR. E. E. RICE.

WONDERS HOW HE LIVED.

Charleroi, Pa., December 19, 1900.

When I went to Nevada I had not enjoyed a good night's sleep for ten years. I had no appetite and did not relish what little I ate. I was so nervous I could scarcely hold a pen and was as weak as a child. I look back now and wonder how I lived.

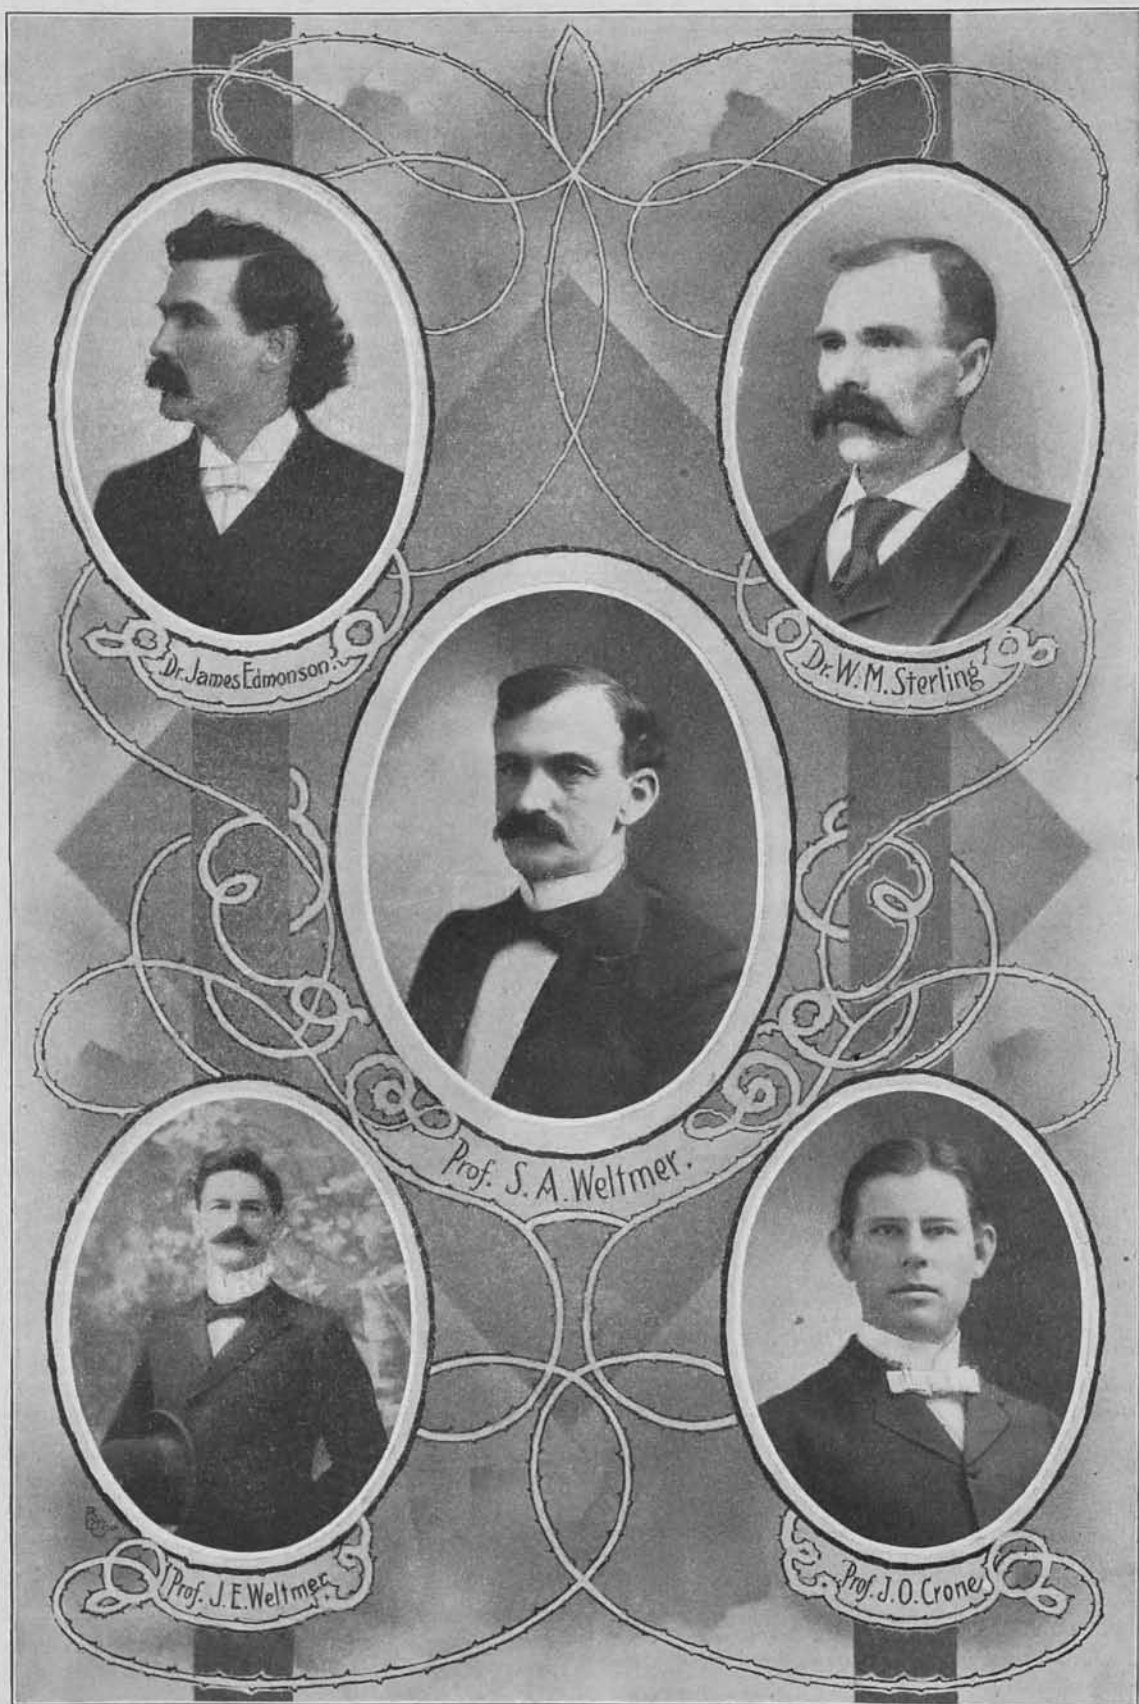

After my first treatment I could eat and enjoy a hearty meal. The second night I slept soundly and felt rested and refreshed in the morning. I gained eleven pounds in three weeks and never felt better in my life.

E. E. Rice.

FACULTY OF THE WELTMER SCHOOL OF HEALING.

CLASS COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Reduced For a Limited Time From $100.00 to $50.00.

Largely Increased Facilities Work Great Saving to Students.

Oral Instruction and Practical Demonstration Combined.

No other recognized science or profession is as easily, quickly and inexpensively acquired, or as profitable in practice, as the Weltmer method of healing. It can be thoroughly mastered at the Weltmer School of Healing in four weeks, at an approximate cost of $65.00, exclusive of railway fare.

As a result of learning this profession many of our students are now in active practice, healing diseases said to be incurable by medicine and other methods, and earning from $5.00 to $25.00 per day. Numbers of them have recouped their outlay in a few days. No other method pays so handsomely, because our students perform the cures and that gets the business.

In a four weeks' course of two lectures a day, delivered by Prof. Weltmer and his specially selected and trained faculty, every detail of the Weltmer method is made so plain that any one can comprehend its principles and obtain a working knowledge of their application.

Class Course students are not limited to four weeks, but may remain until thoroughly satisfied with their grasp of the subject, and are accorded the privilege of returning at any time and taking post-graduate work without further tuition fee.

About a year and a half ago, because of the crowded condition of our class rooms, the Weltmer Class Course of instruction was raised in price from $50.00 to $100.00, but now, with our new, large and convenient lecture hall, we can accommodate almost any number of students and have determined to reduce the price of the class course for a limited time from $100.00 to $50.00. In doing this we reserve the right to raise the price at any time without further notice.

At this price each purchaser of the class course is also given as a text book, a complete Mail Course, the Mystery Revealed (an encyclopedic hand book of Weltmerism), and six weeks of office treatment and a beautiful diploma absolutely free. This offer is made in order that, by combining instruction with demonstration, the student may acquire the highest possible proficiency and receive personal proof of the value and efficacy of the Weltmer method of healing.

This special offer is good only for a limited time and to insure acceptance should be taken advantage of at once.

Prospective students who are unable or unready to accept this offer at once should notify us of their desire and correspond with us regarding it.

No similar institution has ever made an offer even remotely approximating this in liberality. Our object is to make this proposition so valuable, attractive, reasonable in price and easy of attainment as to remove all possible incentive to patronize cheap imitators, and at the same time bring every honest and earnest investigator to this, the only live school of psychic healing now prominently before the public.

Graduation from this institution is a source alike of pride and profit. Its diplomas give prestige, otherwise unattainable, as they are evidences of thoroughness and efficiency in the only live and successful method of drugless healing.

The difference in the original cost of this course as compared with that of the many cheap and valueless imitations, is insignificant, when the satisfaction and profit consequent upon thorough preparation is considered. Aside from the inestimable advantage of close touch at all times with the Weltmer School of Healing, our graduates have the ever accruing benefit of the multiplied thousands of dollars constantly being spent in advertising Weltmerism.

Address, Weltmer School of Healing,

Nevada, Mo.

THE MOTHER AS A HEALER.

Many people who take the course of instruction in the Weltmer Method of Healing do so with the expectation of using it primarily for the benefit of their own families. They write that it not only saves doctors' bills, but prevents the suffering which in myriad forms is always menacing the loved ones.

The soothing hand of the mother and her loving kiss have assuaged more pains and brought more comfort to the children than all the drugs known to the materia medica. In her hands the Weltmer Method should always be a power for the prevention and elimination of disease. It is in its essence the development of those natural means by which she unconsciously heals the ailments of her little ones.

Don't forget Weltmer's newly revised and illustrated Mail Course. Page 11.

Do you realize that you are in possession of a power, which if properly developed and trusted will bring you your desires? Read The Mystery Revealed. See page 18.

MRS. MARY J. ECKERT, A PROMINENT WOMAN OF CRESTON, IOWA, HEARTILY
ENDORSES THE WELTMER CLASS
COURSE AND MAIL COURSE.

As a student of the Class Course of the Weltmer School of Healing, I take pleasure in stating that it is all that is claimed for it. Nothing can be more beneficial to the invalid or person seeking to know how to live in the higher atmosphere where they can enjoy all of the good things intended by a wise Providence for their use, than to take a course of lectures and demonstrations at the Weltmer School of Healing.

One cannot form any idea of the great amount of good that is being done by that institution, except by attending it and coming in personal contact with the many persons who have been cured there, after spending large sums of money in fruitless efforts searching for health elsewhere.

I was a sufferer when I went to the Weltmer Institute, and as such am acquainted with the suffering and anxiety of the afflicted to be rid of the ailments, the days of darkness and despair that blight their hopes and blast their prospects, and know that if they would take the instructions given at the Weltmer School of Healing and apply them as instructed, they would join me in saying that, as the beacon light directs the despairing and storm tossed seaman on a dark and stormy night to the peaceful harbor, so this institution directs afflicted and suffering humanity to health and happiness.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer's Newly Revised and Illustrated Mail Course, together with the Mystery Revealed are a pleasant surprise, as they contain so much practical information. They are so complete in every respect, and I am sure that every person who buys the Mail Course and book will be more than pleased with their investment. They not only learn how to heal others but are in possession of a knowledge of how to heal themselves and to keep their own bodies in a healthy condition.

They should be in every home. Its teachings do not conflict with any religion and they contain that which every person should know, being written by the greatest author and teacher that has for centuries blest mankind with his teachings.

I have studied other Mail Courses, but heartily endorse the one sold by the Weltmer School of Healing as being far superior to all others. Owing my personal health and happiness to the instructions received at the Weltmer School of Healing, I cannot too highly recommend it to others.

Mrs. M. J. Eckert.

Trotwood, Ohio, February 13, 1901.

I had suffered for twelve years from stomach and nervous disorders and I tried the best physicians with only temporary relief, so as a last resort I concluded to try Weltmerism.

I arrived at Nevada, Mo., February 16, 1900. After the first treatment I felt much better, and after ten treatments considered myself a sound man. I advise all afflicted with any disease to go to The Weltmer School of Healing as soon as they can get there.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

When you have read this copy of "Weltmerism," kindly give it to some one who is likely to be interested in the work which it discusses, or send us your friend's name.

We are in receipt of a great many letters asking if Prof. Weltmer is still in business. There are many people who do not understand the present situation, and our idea is to get in touch with them at the earliest practicable moment.

Our friends can be of great assistance to us in this effort.

You should have a copy of The Mystery Revealed. See page 18.

S. A. WELTMER MAIL COURSE.

Thoroughly Revised, Strictly Up-to-Date and Handsomely Illustrated.

For a Limited Time at $10.00—Less Than Half Price.

"The Mystery Revealed" and Two Months' of Weltmer Home Method of Healing Free.

Last September Prof. Weltmer offered his newly revised and illustrated Mail Course in his science of healing. From the first the demand for it has been strong and constant. No similar publication has ever received the unqualifiedly favorable endorsements given it by students and investigators.

It consists of fifteen exhaustive chapters, explaining clearly and succinctly the theory and practice of Weltmerism. It has as a frontispiece a magnificent, reengraved half-tone portrait of Prof. S. A. Weltmer, the originator and perfecter of the science, suitable for framing, and is further illustrated by fifteen full page half-tones, showing clearly the proper positions of patient and operator in the treatment of different diseases.

With each Mail Course is given the hand book of Weltmerism, "The Mystery Revealed," and together they form the most complete exposition of the science of healing ever attempted. This course and the accompanying hand book represent the mature results of years of labor and experience in an institution where thousands have been treated and thousands pronounced incurable have been cured. Nothing even approximating it in either scope or practicability has ever been placed on the market.

The method is so carefully and logically developed and the instruction is so plain that any person of average intelligence cannot fail to grasp the idea and do the work.

The Mail Course has been sold for $25.00, and at that price its sale for a single month reached the enormous total of $13,392.00, but in order that even larger circulation might be given to this, the greatest humanitarian discovery of modern times, the price of the newly revised and illustrated Mail Course, including the hand book, "The Mystery Revealed," and all desired supplemental information has been reduced to $10.00, less than one-half, and with every order at the present price we give free two months of Weltmer Home Method of Healing and a beautiful diploma.

This unparalleled offer is good for only a limited time and the right is reserved to advance it to the original figure without further notice.

This unprecedentedly liberal proposition is made in order that all who desire may not only learn a method by which they can restore and maintain their own bodily health, but may master a noble profession at small expense in the shortest possible time and the most effective manner by taking the instruction simultaneously with specific treatment for their individual ailments.

Both Mail Course and hand book have been made so plain as to be easily understood by even the casual reader, and yet for the diligent and scholarly investigator, they contain a vast store house of valuable knowledge.

It gives us great pleasure to make this offer to the public, and it is clearly to our interest that students of the Weltmer method of healing be thoroughly instructed in order that their success may not only redound to their own credit, but add fresh evidence of the superlative value of the Weltmer method as a curative agent.

Prof. Weltmer originated this science and has written this series of lessons from an intimate knowledge of the subject. He has injected nothing which he has not demonstrated by the most practical tests. A distinctive and peculiarly valuable feature of this course is the supplemental answers to any questions asked by students. They have only to write us their inquiries and they will receive by return mail any needed instruction, with no limit as to time. Without this no mail course is complete, as it is only in this way that all the perplexities of the student can be relieved.

There is now no need of anyone wasting money on cheap imitations, which would be dear at any price, compiled by persons unknown and ignorant of the science, when they can come to the fountain head of healing in this country and get this unequalled Mail Course at so low a rate as $10.00 for lectures, book, treatment and diploma.

No man can teach this subject from a smattering of the theory. Long and careful practice is absolutely necessary to convey any adequate idea to the student. There is absolutely no way to teach this science successfully, aside from that followed by the Weltmer School. All attempting to learn by any other method are sure to be disappointed.

Remember that in buying this Course you are a student of the Weltmer School of Healing, and as such are entitled to all the benefits appurtenant thereto.

Remember that you are a student of and in touch with the largest school of the kind in the world.

Remember that this science of healing, Weltmerism, has been advertised throughout the civilized world and in America is a household word; hence, a diploma from this school means profit, dignity and merit.

Orders at the present price to insure acceptance should be sent at once to

Cured Himself of Consumption by Studying Weltmer's Course

Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 12, 1900.

For ten years I suffered with stomach trouble and constipation. I tried many of the very best doctors and visited several good springs but they did me no good. I was told that I would die with consumption. Receiving no benefit from medicine I decided to try your method of healing and study your course of instruction, after which I cured myself of the above mentioned troubles and am now in perfect health.

NEW MAIL COURSE STUDENT CURES EVERY CASE.

Lockport, New York, January 30, 1901.

Four months ago I took your mail course, and am more than pleased with it. Money could not buy what I have learned from you. My wife had neuralgia in her head and suffered such great pain that she would tremble all over. She also has sore eyes and rheumatism, and after treating her she has gained in health and strength for the last two months so that she now has no more trouble. She wishes me to thank you. I also cured a bad case of rheumatism in two weeks, a case of heart trouble in four weeks, and indigestion. Every case I have undertaken I have cured. Weltmerism is a grand profession.

PROF. A. W. MAIN.

HEALED INSTANTLY.

Little River, Kas., Jan. 8, 1901.

Since receiving your course in healing a short time ago I have made a thorough study of your method of healing and consider it far superior to the courses being sent out by others. Your teaching is very plain, practical and logical.

I have never failed to give immediate and good results in any case I have treated, and some are healed instantly as if by magic.

A. W. Main.

WORKS WONDERFUL CURES.

A Mail Course Student's Phenomenal Success as a Healer.

Bearden, Arkansas.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

I have taken your Mail Course of instruction and consider the science it teaches something everyone should know as it not only enables them to relieve suffering but it causes them to lead nobler lives, gives them a clearer understanding of Christ's teachings and creates a desire for pure thoughts and right actions. I have read other Courses but yours is incomparably the best. I have had remarkable success in the practice of your method.

Among other cases I cured a lady of blood poison in her arm in one week after all other remedies had failed, her arm being sound and well under this treatment. One man who had failed to obtain a cure who had stomach and heart trouble, after three months treatment with a noted physician, I healed in four treatments. In one case of inflammatory rheumatism the patient, a lady, had not been free from pain for six weeks. She never thought of sleep except when under the influence of opiates and had to be turned in bed with a sheet. The doctors said she could not be cured. I reduced the fever with the first treatment. She slept well that night and after three treatments walked to the dinner table and ate her dinner. I cured one case of tumor that had been on an old lady's head for fifty years in three treatments. I cured one boy eight years old of congenital scrofula in one personal treatment and one month's absent treatment. I will cheerfully answer all inquiries if stamp is enclosed for reply.

WOULD NOT TAKE A HUNDRED TIMES WHAT THE NEW MAIL COURSE COST.

Palmer, Ellis, Co., Texas, Feb. 8, 1901.

I am practicing Healing as taught by you, and am meeting with good success. I have not had an M. D. in my house since I have had the New Mail Course. I would not be without it for a hundred times what it cost me. My doctor bills used to cost me from $50 to $300 per year, now I can save that much. I cannot say too much in favor of Healing as taught by you.

NEW MAIL COURSE THE BEST EVER READ.

Kansas City, Missouri.

The mail course was duly received, and after reading it very carefully I am very much pleased with it. I have read a great deal on the power to heal, by hypnotism and kindred subjects, by different writers, but have never yet read anything so clear and valuable as your mail course of healing.

Miss Josephine Vornhulz,

APPRECIATES WELTMER'S WORKS.

McAlester, Indian Territory, December 28, 1900.

The new course is complete. It is not only a full explanation of the science, but it is instructive in many ways. The truth is, I can't find words that will express my appreciation of any of your works.

A REAL THOUGHT EXPANDER.

Riverton, Conn., December 22, 1900.

RECOMMENDS PROF. WELTMER'S MAIL COURSE.

Brunswick, Minn., Nov. 16, 1900.

Since receiving your mail course of instruction in your science of healing I have studied it carefully and practiced the precepts therein laid down. I wish to say that I consider it the most complete, comprehensive and easily understood method of attaining and maintaining perfect bodily health that I have ever seen, and willingly recommend it to all seekers after health.

Louis Nelson, Probate Judge,

IS EASILY GRASPED.

Bonney, Texas, November 10, 1900.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

I have for some time been a student of the new thought and have read the best authorities on the subject. After reading your revised Mail Course I can say that it supplies something which all others lack,—a handle; not only a handle to what you teach but a handle to what nearly every other teacher of the new thought attempts to teach. The best metaphysicians have failed to give a handle to their fabric of ideas, and your revised Mail Course will make an extremely good handle to all the best master pieces of today. But it is more than a handle. It is a master piece in and of itself with a handle to it, and the only one I have ever seen that has a handle whereby it may be properly handled. I cheerfully recommend it to all searchers after truth.

NEW MAIL COURSE THE KEY-NOTE.

Fortuna, Ariz., Jan. 24, 1901.

I am well pleased with your mail course, and I think you have struck the keynote. I have made a study of the sciences for the past fifteen years, and must say that your mail course is the best that I have yet seen. You express the most in the fewest words.

A POWER UNDREAMED OF.

Is Revealed by the Weltmer Mail Course of Instructions.

Uniontown, Kas., Dec. 24, 1900.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

Since taking your Mail Course of Instruction I realize that there is a power for healing that I never dreamed of before. I have proven this in several cases, particularly that of my brother. He was a sufferer from stomach trouble and heart disease to the extent that he was compelled to sit up in a chair to sleep. By the use of your method I have restored him to health and he is getting better every day. If I could not replace your course money could not buy it. It has made a man and a Christian of me.

CLEAR, PLAIN, EASILY UNDERSTOOD.

These are the Salient Advantages of the New Weltmer Mail Course.

Cloutierville, La., Dec. 10, 1900.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

I received in due time your newly revised and illustrated mail course of instruction. I found it clear, plain and easily understood by anyone with ordinary common sense, and I recommend it to everyone who desires to cure or be cured of any disease. Since mastering it I have relieved and cured patients suffering from many ailments, some of whom had been bed-ridden for months and are now sound and well and will add to mine their testimony as to the efficacy of your method.

MORE THAN IS CLAIMED FOR IT.

A Mail Course Student Who Has Never Failed in a Single Instance.

East St. Louis, Ill., Dec. 3, 1900

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

I find your mail course more than you claim for it. In all my practice by your method I have never failed in a single instance. I can stop the severest pains almost instantly. I cured sciatic rheumatism and cancer of the stomach in six treatments, sciatic rheumatism and hip disease in seven weeks. Paralysis in two weeks. All of these cases the doctors had failed to relieve and had pronounced hopeless. I have one patient that had inflammatory rheumatism over twenty years, could not stand alone, and when lying down could not raise his head. After four treatments he walked fourteen blocks without crutches or a cane, and I have perfected many other marvelous cures. 132 N. 4th St.

WHAT A PROMINENT CLERGYMAN OF TEX- AS SAYS OF WELTMER'S NEW MAIL COURSE.

Ovilla, Texas, Jan. 23, 1901.

After four years of suffering from nervous prostration, erysipelas, carbuncles, rheumatism and use of poisons called medicines, which afforded me no relief but left me prostrated and emaciated to a mere skeleton, I recovered my health in two months by the use of your home method of healing. I then purchased your new mail course, have studied it carefully and by applying the principles therein laid down have kept myself in perfect health. Your mail course suits me exactly, it is plain, neat without ostentation, very impressive, intensely practical and easily understood. A copy of it should be in every home.

HACKED AND MUTILATED.

By the So-Called Best Doctors, with no Benefit,
Her Tumor Was Cured by the Weltmer
Method.

Mayville, New York, January 22, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

After being in a hospital in the city of Erie, Pa., for a long time undergoing treatment and submitting to an operation for tumor by the so-called best doctors of that state, after being hacked and mutilated by the surgeon's knife with no apparent benefit, I at last found a permanent cure in your treatment. While in the hospital I suffered untold agony and for a time was at the point of death. The doctors stated that after the operation my tumor would cease to trouble me but instead of that it grew faster than before. The money I paid the surgeon was really paid for being tortured instead of being cured. At first I had but little faith in your treatment, but my improvement thereunder was immediate. I was entirely cured and there is under the blue canopy of Heaven no more grateful person to you than I. All inquiries as to my condition and cure will receive prompt attention when accompanied by self addressed, stamped envelope for reply.

HEALED OF HEART DISEASE

By the Weltmer Method and is Now in Perfect Health.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 17, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

About two years ago I suffered the most excruciating agony for six months from a serious attack of heart disease. The best medical aid failed to give me relief. I despaired of recovery, but fortunately in my extremity tried Weltmerism as a last resort, and I am today in perfect health. Since being healed myself I have taken your new mail course and am devoting my life to healing the sick and suffering. I know from experience in my own case and in those of others whom I have successfully treated that the Weltmer method of healing is the greatest remedial agency known to mankind. Untold wealth could not buy your course from me if it could not be replaced.

Albert Willi.

ABSENT OR HOME TREATMENT.

A Definition of What is Termed the "Absent Treatment," Which Shall Be Hereafter Known as the S. A. Weltmer Home Method of Healing.

The purpose of this article is to give a clear and concise idea of what is termed the "Absent Treatment." I dislike the term treatment, and use it simply because persons suffering from bodily ailments have been educated to term whatever is done for them, or by them, to alleviate such suffering, a treatment.

I want it clearly understood that the Home Treatment is a series or system of instructions, which, if carefully and persistently followed, will change the condition of one's life in whatever way is desired. The proposition of Weltmerism is based upon the principle that the mind controls the body through the exercise of the WILL; that the WILL can be exercised only in one way, that is by relying upon it. Every effort of the WILL which brings to the patient health or happiness or prosperity is a compliance with Law.

The power to heal disease is not in man; there is a First Great Cause, an intelligent Creator, an Immutible Law, which governs the lives and actions of all beings and all things. This Law operates constantly through man, with our knowledge or without it. If without our knowledge, we are subject to all the adverse conditions that may assail us, and helpless so far as ameliorating these conditions is concerned.

A knowledge of this Law and perfect compliance with it give us mastery over disease, over adverse conditions, and this knowledge constitutes our power and compliance with it builds us up. However, in this Law 'we live and move and have our continual being.'

By a careful investigation we find that in everything there is a principle that we call Life. In the apparently inanimate rock, in the vegetable and animal kingdoms, of which latter kingdom man stands at the head, we find this Life that stimulates the body or plant in which it exists, but we note that the moment this departs from its habitation, that moment the body once occupied is dead. We call this Life principle the First Great Cause, the Creator, the Law, the Law of Nature, God.

Man uses this force either consciously or unconsciously all the time, and man is said to be created in the image and likeness of God. This same Law, operating through man, causes him when he exercises the executive part of himself, which is his WILL, to move about, to work with his hands or to think with his brain, and this we call voluntary action. Without his knowledge of how it is done, this law operates through him, keeping his heart in motion, his lungs inhaling and exhaling, the pores of the skin constantly exuding the impurities of the body and absorbing life, and this force we call involuntary force.

By fully understanding the nature of man we find that what we once considered involuntary force becomes Voluntary force. The purpose of the healer is to bring into action this law, to instruct the patient so he will know how to live in harmony with this law which, if properly observed, will enable us to use this power to the upbuilding or rebuilding of the human body. The peculiar feature of this law is that it operates regardless of man's knowledge of its existence, or of his knowledge of how it operates. Man has control of his physical forces, just in proportion to his understanding of this law, and its manner of operation. His body becomes stronger and healthier as he obeys the law and weaker and more diseased as he disobeys it.

The purpose of Weltmerism is to give an understanding of this Law and how it acts. This Law operates through all things, whether for the purpose of building up healthy bodily tissues, or for eliminating disease, or alleviating pain. Man, however having placed himself without the pale of this Law, finds it extremely difficult to get back again. Disease and pain are registered upon his physical organism and he can not think the thought that will set him free. Here is where the healer comes in. The healer, not being afflicted, can think the right thought. The sufferer can assume a receptive attitude of mind toward his healer. Then, when two minds agree, whatever is desired by them in the way of healing is done unto them of the "Father which is in Heaven." See Matt. 18:19. This agreement of two minds is the condition under which the Law takes effect, again having been transgressed. It is not the force that the healer sends out that does the healing act. The healer does not heal the patient. The patient does not heal himself. The Law (the Father) heals when the conditions under which it acts are complied with. This condition is the agreement of two minds as I have above stated. If it is asked, "Is it not the agreement which cures?" the answer is that the agreement may be regarded as the formal cause, but the efficient cause is the Law.

Whenever your attitude toward the power that can heal is the proper one, the results you wish for and ask for are attained. Whenever you agree to learn His teachings and live in alignment with them you have admitted the Father, you have admitted the Law that will bring to your body the health you desire. A knowledge of this truth and compliance with it and reliance upon it has been the means of bringing into the lives of thousands upon thousands of diseased, distressed and harassed human beings health, strength, happiness and prosperity.

Can you but understand the clear and explicit directions that we send you, and persistently obey them, there is no reason why entering upon this course of instructions, you should not be either greatly benefited or entirely relieved and cured of your ailments, or from whatever other distresses you may be suffering.

S. A. WELTMER.

S. A. WELTMER'S HOME METHOD OF HEALING.

Instruction and Demonstration Combined Render it the Greatest of all Methods for the Restoration and Maintenance of Perfect Health.

We have endeavored under the head of Absent, or Home Treatment to show that this method is really a series or system of instructions, which if carefully studied and consistently complied with, will enable the student to obey nature's laws and thus heal his own ailment.

Where for any reason it is impossible for you to come to the Weltmer School of Healing and take the class course and personal demonstration, they can be successfully instructed and treated in their own homes by the Weltmer Method of healing.

Thousands of people who have been restored to health and happiness by this method, gladly testify to its value and efficacy.

While this home method of healing has been extremely successful in the curing of disease, and had alone been given for $5.00 per month, payable in advance. Professor Weltmer has decided to give one month's home treatment free with each order for the book, "The Mystery Revealed," the price of which alone is $5.00. Remember, book and treatment must be sent to the same person, as the object in sending the book is to give our patients an opportunity to obtain a perfect knowledge of the method by which they are healed.

When it is considered that thousands of people who have spent large sums in vain efforts for a cure without even getting temporary relief, have by this method been restored to health at a cost of $5.00, it will be seen that the price is extremely reasonable and within the reach of rich and poor alike.

RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Tartar, Ky., Feb. 25, 1901.

I owe to you my restoration to health and happiness. Two months of your home treatment cured me, something which four of the best doctors in this country had tried for five months to do, but failed.

WELTMER MAIL COURSE SUPERIOR TO ALL.

Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, Dec. 25, 1900.

I have studied three different courses in healing, but consider your Mail Course superior to either and all of them. Since completing the course I have cured by the use of your method paralysis, inflammatory rheumatism, piles, deafness and inflammation of the kidneys. I healed one case of chronic dyspepsia and persistent headache of eleven years standing which had been unsuccessfully treated by twelve different reputable physicians.

Prof. Francis Ellis.

NOT FOR $1,000.

Harcourt, Iowa, September 28, 1900.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

For fifteen years I had suffered from rheumatism, heart disease and nervous prostration. A friend gave me one of your journals and I tried one month's home treatment. I was greatly relieved at the end of three days and at the expiration of the treatment was entirely cured. I am sixty-seven years old, but feel more like work than I did at sixteen. I would not take $1000.00 and be back in the condition I was before taking your treatment.

Rachel Howard.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS AND DOZENS OF DOCTORS FAILED.

Boulder, Colo., Nov. 13, 1900.

For many years I suffered from a complication of chronic female troubles for which I was treated by dozens of doctors and pronounced incurable. Your method of home treatment accomplished at a small expense what the doctors failed to do for an outlay of thousands of dollars and I have been restored to perfect health.

Mrs. John Chandler.

ENOUGH MEDICINE TO SWIM IN.

Failed to Cure a Case of Catarrh of the Stomach and Bowels, but it Succumbed to the Home Method of Healing.

Belt, Mont., January 9, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

For fifteen years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach and bowels until I was almost a physical wreck. I had spent hundreds of dollars, undergone various methods of treatment and taken medicine enough to swim in, all with no beneficial results. Two years ago, as a last resort, I decided to try your home method of treatment. Immediately after beginning the treatment I felt a decided improvement and in less than two months was entirely cured, with no recurrence of the trouble.

Wm. Mayo

ACCOMPLISHED WHAT DRUGS COULD NOT.

Neptune, Florida, February 12, 1901.

When I wrote you for treatment I was a physical wreck from indigestion, liver trouble and the sequelae of La Grippe.

Three months of your treatment has accomplished what drugs could not, and I am now enjoying better health than for ten years.

PROF. WELTMER'S BOOKS

Professor Weltmer's books, "The Mystery Revealed," "Regeneration," "Self Reliance," and "The Real Man," are the ripened fruits of a quarter-century of study and experience. Each is complete in itself and elucidates some phase of human life, and together they form a complete exposition of the Weltmerian philosophy. They are not theoretical, but are intensely practical and easily understood, and their value to the sufferer and earnest investigator cannot be over estimated.

THE MYSTERY REVEALED.

This book is the crowning effort of the work and thought of many years, in which Prof. Weltmer expresses his method of healing so simply that any one can understand it, and yet demonstrates its scientific accuracy so irrefutably that denial is impossible.

The wonderful, and in many cases apparently miraculous, cures to the credit of the Weltmer Method are the result of compliance with a certain natural law, and the power of compliance is inherent in every human being, but that power of compliance is of no use to one who does not know how to use it.

The subject of healing, which so long has been considered a mysterious one, is now reduced to a science by Prof. Weltmer and taught so clearly that all can learn.

Prof. Weltmer, as the discoverer and perfecter of this noble science, is the only man who has presented it in the proper light and scientifically demonstrated its truth.

It was for the purpose of treating more fully and with greater attention to detail this question of the power that heals, and the method of compliance with it, that this book was written. It is a supplement to the newly revised and illustrated Mail Course and is called a "Hand-Book" of Weltmerism, but it might, with equal propriety, be termed an encyclopedia of Psychic Healing. No other book ever written upon this subject can approach it in depth of thought, clearness of arrangement and beauty of expression. While it is an exhaustive review and a scientific expression of the Weltmerian philosophy it is also a masterpiece as a literary production. Prof. Weltmer's thousands upon thousands of testimonials from grateful patients and successful students are sufficient to convince any reasonable person of the truth of the proposition he advances.

Those seeking health or information along this line should by all means possess themselves of this valuable work. It is not alone the most elaborate treatise upon the Weltmer Method of Healing that was ever written but it is the most complete discussion of the relation existing between mind and body that has ever been given to the public. It enters into every detail of theory and practice and is peculiarly valuable to those who have taken instructions at the Weltmer School and those who are practicing the Weltmer Method of Healing. To those of the general public who are interested in the restoration and maintenance of perfect bodily health, its value cannot be estimated.

The original intention was to sell this book for $25, but Prof. Weltmer is so desirous of affording all possible information to the public at large as well as every facility to all who are teaching, treating or being treated with his science as a basis that he has placed it on the market at $5. In order that every purchaser of this book may, in connection with the instructions given therein receive practical demonstration of the truth of the statements it contains we have decided to give, with each order for "The Mystery Revealed" at the present price, one month of Home Method of Healing absolutely free. In this way, while taking specific treatment for his particular bodily ailment, the student is not only healed but is taught how he may keep himself in a state of perfect health.

"The Mystery Revealed" consists of 281 pages of large faced type, easily read, yet so arranged as to furnish a large amount of reading matter. The best of paper and cloth, gilt name, etc., have been used to make it perfect and a beauty in every respect. It is now ready for distribution and will be sent to any address, postage paid, upon receipt of $5.00.

"The Mystery Revealed" is Pronounced the Greatest Book Ever Written.

Grand Forks, Nebr., Feb. 28, 1901.

Baton Rouge, La., March 4, 1901.

Prof. S. A. Weltmer:

I consider your Mail Course of Instruction and the book, The Mystery Revealed, the most wonderful and sublime works I ever read. I have read them fourteen times and at each reading have gained new ideas. Every line is pregnant with meaning and the information derived from them is invaluable. I have four other courses, but I must give honor to whom honor is due. Your course is by far the best and most suited to everyone. It is not intended for professional men alone but should be in the hands of every thinking person.

If the preachers would read it and explain to their congregations your chapter on prayer in The Mystery Revealed, I believe the Lord would hear and answer more of their supplications. Your instructions are not sectarian. Men of any belief, creed or denomination can read and follow your instructions and thereby live more in accordance with Christ's teachings than they now do. Since studying your instructions I know God better than I ever did and I have been strictly taught to know him from infancy.

Prof. John O'Callaghan.

Pronounces the Mystery Revealed of Rare Scientific Value and Literary Merit.

Athens, Ga., Dec. 15, 1900.

Having seen all the mail courses worth seeing, and many of the other kind, I feel safe in saying that of the limited number possessing merit, your new course is far and away the best.

I have read the accompanying hand book, "The Mystery Revealed," with much interest. Aside from its rare scientific value, it possesses a remarkable degree of literary merit.

With reference to the Magazine I am sure that if it held up to the present standard, it is bound to lead the field in its line. It is the only periodical of the kind measuring up to the requirements of the cause.

REGENERATION.

BY S. A. WELTMER.

In its ordinary acceptation the term Regeneration imports purification of the soul, but in Prof. Weltmer's book of that name it is used to signify the upbuilding and rehabilitation of the human body.

Regeneration is totally unlike anything else in the English language. It deals with a new subject, which it presents so clearly as to establish its truth by the experience of the average reader.

This great work deals with the principle of sex. It is a pure book on an avoided subject and is the literary and scientific sensation of the age. In it man is treated as a sexual being and this delicate subject is handled strongly and clearly, plainly and simply, yet with that peculiar interest and strength characteristic of Prof. Weltmer's individuality.

It tells of his discovery of a force heretofore unknown to science, generated in the human body, which, properly controlled and intelligently put in action, will rebuild the body, prolong life and strengthen its vital organs, restore youthful vigor and make the old man young.

It discusses sexual decline, together with the re-establishment of vigor.

It has created a decided sensation among thinking people. Its sale has been enormous and it continues to grow in popular favor. People in every walk of life have admired its novelty and its thought. Every person who wishes to know how to obtain better health or to overcome sexual decline through sources within himself, or to teach his children how to live in perfect accord with nature's laws, should have a copy of this book. There is no other book like it in existence.

It is fascinating reading and is the sensation of the scientific world.

The revised edition is now ready. Price, in cloth binding, postpaid, $1.00.

A GRATEFUL STUDENT.

Genesee, Idaho, Feb. 7, 1901.

The books, Regeneration and Self-Reliance, and also the Mail Course, have been received. I have read Regeneration over twice and its teachings are beautiful, wonderful and something so new to me. The lessons are so simple in language that I think at last my mode of thought has entirely changed. I cannot express to you how grateful I feel for your wonderful teachings.

PROF. WELTMER'S BOOKS

POVERTY IS A DISEASE,

Or, rather, an outward manifestation of a perverted mental attitude. It can be specifically treated and definitely cured. Success is the result of proper application stimulated by a correct mental attitude. Failure comes from a lack of application arising from a wrong attitude of the mind. Every one desires success. No man intentionally fails. In every personality are elements which, properly directed, make for success, even though neglect, through ignorance, has brought the possessor to the brink of utter failure.

These conclusions were reached by Prof. Weltmer as a result of his search for the reason why in all ages, some men have succeeded where others have failed.

After years of patient investigation he found the key which unlocked for him the store house of knowledge, and made him one of the most successful men of the century.

It was to uplift the fallen, assist the loser and spur on the laggard in life's race that he inaugurated his Business Success treatment, which, by teaching them how to assume a proper mental attitude, enabled them to eradicate the disease by eliminating the cause. It met with instant success and was highly recommended by its users. Among the latest testimonials to its value is the following under date of March 4, 1901, from Mrs. Lucetta Seffel of Philippi, West Virginia, who says:

"One year ago last January I sent you $1.00 to treat my husband for Business Success, and since that time he has made $1200.00, has paid off the mortgage, we are straightened up and have plenty."

In order that he might cover the same ground more thoroughly and with greater attention to detail than was possible in the original course of treatment, Prof. Weltmer replaced it with his book

"SELF-RELIANCE,

The Key to Business Success."

This book is a practical treatise upon the elements of success, teaches their true character and uses and the method by which they can be most profitably applied. Earnest study of it cannot but increase the reader's self-esteem, spur his ambition and insure his successful entrance into otherwise unattainable fields of endeavor, and for this reason a copy should be in every home.

"Since reading your 'Self-Reliance,'" says Mr. A. G. Webb of Los Angeles, California, "I can see why you no longer treat for success. It is your aim to give to the people the key to all success and let each individual work it out for himself."

Parents particularly should possess this book, which will assist them to teach their children in early life the underlying principles of success.

Thousands are spent annually in educating young people along various lines. Many of them receive thorough professional educations, but prove financial failures for want of development in self-reliance. This could be obviated, money saved, and lives rendered more effective by a proper understanding of the principles enunciated in this book.

Its worth to the young man is clearly shown by the following testimonial of Prof. H. Delos Hughes of New York, one of the leading thinkers of this country, in which he says:

"After carefully reading your book, Self-Reliance, I have reached the following conclusions. Any unsuccessful or despondent young man should spend his last dollar, if necessary in order to get a copy. It would cheer him up, raise his hopes and put him on the road to success. It is not a mass of theory. It is a plain, simple statement of the truth."

Self-Reliance is a large 12-mo volume of more than one hundred and twenty pages, printed on good paper from large type and handsomely bound in blue cloth, with gold lettering. It costs $1.00 and is now ready for distribution. Order today.

"FILLS THE BILL."

What a Successful Practitioner Thinks of the Weltmer Mail Course.

Shubuta, Miss., March 7, 1901.

I received your Mail Course about a month ago and I have been practicing with good results. I have other Courses in Magnetic Healing, but they did not teach what I wanted to know. Yours "Fills the Bill," and expresses exactly what we must depend upon in healing, so I know now just what I must cultivate and practice. I shall advise anyone who is interested in this work to take your Course. Through my efforts here my interest in Weltmerism has increased, especially since I have so greatly benefited one case of Paralysis that the gentleman is able to be up and can attend to his business again: everyone I had failed on him before I had tried his case. I like the book, The Mystery Revealed, very much.

J. W. Whitehead.

SEXUAL DEBILITY.

Thousands of men throughout the world suffer from ruinous waste of the vital organs. This, medicine cannot permanently cure. Weltmerism properly understood and correctly applied is the only infallible method of strengthening sex force and restoring youthful vigor to manhood. Hundreds have been restored to their pristine health and vitality by the Weltmer Method.

Every reader of "Regeneration" will cheerfully attest the truth of the foregoing statements, if the book and its teachings are understood.

THE REAL MAN

BY S. A. WELTMER.

This book of Prof. Weltmer's is at once a primer and an entire statement of his philosophy of life. While it treats of man merely as he exists in the world today, and for this reason is not vitally concerned either with his primal origin or his ultimate destination, it collates the various theories of the origin of the race and traces its progress through prehistoric times to the finished product of Western civilization.

Arguing from the class to the individual, from the general to the particular, it treats of man as a physical, organic, intelligent being, with a certain definite constitution, bearing a fixed relation to external creation, and shows his dependence upon the immutable, independent and all powerful law of being.

It demonstrates that the real man is not the visible, bodily form, but that it is that indwelling intelligence or life principle which actuates and controls the physical being through which it has intercourse with the material world—that power which directs, operates and can regenerate the fleshy organism.

The real man is a crowned king—absolute monarch of his realm of clay, and of the intelligent life principle which inhabits it.

For the real man

"There is no death! what seems so is transition.

This life of mortal breath

Is but a suburb of the life elysian,

Whose portal we call death."

"The proper study of mankind is man" and mastery of the thought contained in this book gives man a knowledge of himself which qualifies him to start in life with that confidence inseparable from real success.

WELTMER'S NEW MAIL COURSE FAR AHEAD.

Canton, Texas, December 31, 1900.

I have been practicing healing for about eight months. I bought a mail course from another school and have had very good success, but yours is far ahead of it. Your course explains everything so plain that anyone can learn it. I would not be without it for twenty times its cost, even if I did not expect to use it as a profession.

Mr. R. L. Henson.

STUDENTS SHOULD BE TEACHERS.

One of Prof. Weltmer's greatest aims in the perfection of his Method of Healing is that every student of Weltmerism should become a teacher of the science. Ample provision for this purpose has been made by the Weltmer School of Healing.

SHOULD ORGANIZE CLASSES.

A class in Weltmerism should be organized in every community where we have a student. Humanity in general will be benefited by this work and the student first in the field will reap a golden harvest.

GRAVEL CURED BY HOME METHOD.

Butler, Ala., Feb. 15, 1901.

WELTMER'S MAGAZINE.

The Leading American Exponent of The New Thought and Psychic Healing.

The Most Brilliant List of Contributors Ever Retained by a Similar Periodical.

With the beginning of the Twentieth Century the Weltmer Magazine, a monthly periodical, devoted to the development of the Weltmerian idea and allied sciences, was launched upon the uncertain seas of journalism. The intention of its projector was to supply a high grade, regularly issued periodical which should be devoted to the exposition of the principles of the new thought in general, to psychic healing in particular.

It has for its policy the quest for truth and its management recognizes that the whole truth is not contained in any man made system. For this reason, honest convictions, founded upon reason, and respectfully expressed, are welcome to its pages. If this magazine should adopt a motto expressive of its policy, it would be: "Whoever knows may teach what he knows and all he knows."

Not only will mental science and all closely allied subjects be thoroughly treated by Prof. Weltmer and his immediate co-laborers and many other bright minds throughout the world, but it is to be a forum for the discussion of mental phenomena, and new thought will at all times be welcome to its columns.

Another object of this publication is to establish in the public mind the true character of Weltmerism and protect it from errors imputed to it by designing enemies or mistaken friends. This will render it especially useful to all who are practicing the Weltmer Method and the thousands who have been Prof. Weltmer's patients.

The reader will be kept in close touch with the head of the science and enabled to keep pace with its development. It will be readily granted, even by the superficial observer, that the present is a time of unrest in the domain of thought. Men are beginning to examine the foundations of old beliefs; and the supposed rock foundation, in many cases, has been found to be but sand. Doubt is cast upon the stability of those beliefs which remain; iconoclasts would destroy all; mercenaries, to sell their literary wares, would urge them on. Therefore, the conservative must stand vigilant, on guard, challenging, testing all things, holding fast to that which is good; admitting nothing because it is new, but admitting anything if it is true.

To this end the Weltmer Magazine will give to its readers the products of matured thought only. The Magazine has given universal satisfaction from the first. Subscribers are highly pleased with it, and its circulation is rapidly increasing. No one can afford to be without this, the greatest medium for the encouragement of those who dare to be independent men and women in both thought and action.

Although but four numbers have so far been issued, its list of contributors contains the names of some of the brightest men and women of the century.

Prominent among them are C. H. A. Bjerregaard of New York, librarian of the Astor-Lenox and Tilden Foundation Libraries, one of the leading Western investigators of the occult:

Dr. Alexander Wilder of Philadelphia, an erudite and scholarly physician who is an honor to his profession;

Helen Wilmans, of Sea Breeze, Florida, who has proven in her own proper person that poverty is a curable disease;

Paul Avenel, the sweet singer, deep thinker and polished essayist;

Paul F. De Gourney, Professor in John Hopkins University;

Dr. Geo. A. Fuller, of Onset, Mass.

And others of equal prominence in that republic of thought where brains are the only legal tender.

This list will be reinforced from time to time by the addition of pioneers in every line of advanced thought, and cannot fail to keep for Weltmer's Magazine the high place it has made for itself as the leading exponent of the new thought.

Weltmer's Magazine costs but $1.00 per year. Order at once and secure the back numbers from the initial issue.

WELTMER PUBLISHING CO.,

Nevada, Mo.

Volume 1, No. 1, of Weltmer's Magazine, January, has just been received at this office. Every Sedallian is conversant with the career of Prof. S. A. Weltmer. He is known all over this country and there are but few spots on the globe where the fame of the man and his treatment have not penetrated. The cures accomplished by his method are the wonder of the world and everyone realizes that there is but one Weltmer. The forty-eight pages of reading matter in this number of his magazine should be interesting and profitable to every intelligent man and woman in the country. Prof. Weltmer's leading article, "The Infinite," shows a wonderful philosophic depth of thought and research in the infinite realms that wonderfully portrays the insignificance of man and his futile efforts to fathom the mysteries of the Kingdom of God and his own existence. This periodical is bound to attain an extensive circulation throughout the world for it covers a new field that can only be covered by Prof. S. A. Weltmer, whose mind is stored with new and original matter that will never die.—Sedalia, Mo., Daily Capital.

Weltmer's Magazine, published at Nevada, Mo., is devoted to spiritual philosophy, the science of psychic healing and the advanced thought of the present day and cannot fail to interest the earnest student along the lines of which it treats.—San Antonio Texas, Daily Express.

A new publication, Weltmer's Magazine, has made its appearance among the numerous periodicals of our time. It is devoted to "new thought in general and psychic healing in particular." As a literary production it has claims to recognition, whatever may be thought of the views advanced. The subject of life and death, health and disease are important enough to command attention and discussion on these topics when conducted in a philosophical and scientific spirit are useful and interesting. Superstitions that have survived from the age of quackery are numerous and will in all probability remain until by the aid of such publications as this, the fundamental laws of life and death are more generally understood.—Deseret Evening News, Salt Lake City, Utah.

SAVED MY LIFE.

A Thousand Dollars Could Not Induce Me to Go Back.

Carrington, N. D., Dec. 23, 1900.

For years I had suffered from a complication of stomach, bowel and female troubles and was in a helpless condition. Finally I heard of your home treatment and tried it as a last resort. It has entirely cured me and I believe saved my life. $1000.00 could not induce me to go back eighteen months, before I began taking your treatment, as, but for it I would have been in my grave.
