

April 12th 1882 Grant of £60. W. Richardson
ROYAL LITERARY FUND. Registrar

Form of Application for an Author. (1)

| Christian Name and Surname of the Applicant in words at length.   | Margrave Jennings -   |              |       |                       |  |
|---|---|--------------|-------|-----------------------|--|
| Profession, University, or other Titles.  | Studied in the Temple for four years under Sergeant Petersdorff, & C., for the Profession of Barrister.         |              |       |                       |  |
| Age, Date, and Place of Birth.  | Age 67. Born 10th of March, 1815, at Burton upon Trent, London.   |              |       |                       |  |
| Present Residence.  | Staying with my Brother, whom I am entirely dependent at his residence, Ambassador's Court, St. James's Palace. |              |       |                       |  |
| Whether Single or Married; and, if Married, or having been so, and having a Family, the Number, respective Ages, and Circumstances of the Children.   | Single - never having been married.   |              |       |                       |  |
| If relieved before by the Royal Literary Fund; and if so, how often, and to what amount on each occasion?   | never relieved before by the "Royal Literary Fund," or by any other fund or charitable source.                  |              |       |                       |  |
| Present Means and Sources of Income, whether from Salary, Annuity, Pension, or other kind of Provision.   | No present means of income whatever being wholly supported by my Brother.                                       |              |       |                       |  |
| The Amount of such Income yearly; and the actual Amount of Literary Earnings during the past year.  | income yearly or in any form.No literary earnings whatever during the past three years.                     |              |       |                       |  |
| TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.To be continued, if necessary, on the 4th page.   |   | No. of Vols. | Size. | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication.                       |
| "The Rosicrucians," the only work in English treating seriously of the claims to attention of the mystic cabalistic Rosicrucians, illustrated with upwards of 340 Engravings. This work was the result of 20 years' close study of the difficult and reluctant subject and its connections: - |   |              |       |                       | First Edition One Vol. 8vo. London. 1570.  |
| "The Rosicrucians," Second Edition, much enlarged. The subject greatly expanded -   |   |              |       |                       | Second Edition One Vol. 8vo. London. 1579. |
| "One of The Thirty." Many curious Illustrations. -  |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1573.                |
| "The Obelisk, Its Origin, History, and Purpose". -  |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1561.                |
| "Curious Things of the Outside World." -  |   |              |       |                       | Two Vols. 8vo. London. 1561.               |
| "Live Lights or Dead Lights."   |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1573.                |
| "Altar or Table?"   |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1573.                |
| "The Indian Religions; or Results of the Mysterious Buddhism". -  |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1557-8.              |
| "War in London" "Peace in London". -  |   |              |       |                       | One Vol. 8vo. London. 1559.                |
| In the case of an Application Founded on CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE, the Schedule in the next page must be filled up.   |   |              |       |                       |  |

Dated this 31st. day of March, 1882.

(Signature of Applicant.) Margrave Jennings.

[T.O.]

CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICALS.

| NAME OF PERIODICAL. | TITLES OF ARTICLES.   | PLACE AND DATE OF PUBLICATION. |
|---------------------|---|--------------------------------|
|                     | Hargrave Jennings has been a member of the Press and a contributor to newspapers and periodicals for very many years. He commenced his literary life by contributing in 1833 and 1834, when in his 17th year, to the "Metropolitan Magazine," then owned and edited by Captain Harry, R.N. He has written at various times, and in various manners, in nearly all the papers published in London and the country during the past time. He has contributed to, and been correspondent of, a large circle of periodical publications, whose pay, whenever obtained, has been usually long delayed and very scanty: among which are the following - "The Metropolitan Magazine." "The Monthly Magazine," to which H. J. was a contributor at the same time as the late Charles Dickens. "The Freemason's Quarterly Review." "The Freemason's Magazine." "The National Review." "The National Magazine." "The New London Magazine." "The People's Journal," to which H. J. contributed the now by authentic "Life of Jenny Lind" which has been ever published. "Once a Week." "The British Magazine." "Bentley's Magazine." "The Military Magazine;" and numerous others from time to time. Letter from the late Lord Lytton, May, 1842. "Sir Edward Bulwer writes to thank the Author of 'Stolfo' for the honour and pleasure conferred on him by the present of a poem full of power and beauty, and evincing talents which in subjects of more human interest." Letter from the late Lord Lytton, July 3, 1870. "Hargrave Jennings, Esq. Dear Sir, I thank you sincerely for your very flattering letter, and for the deeply interesting work with which this is accompanied. There are reasons why I cannot enter into the subject of the Rosicrucian Brotherhood, a society still existing, but not under the same name, nor under any name by acuteness, traced its connection with early and symbolical religions - and no better book upon such a theme has been written, or indeed could be written, unless a member of the Fraternity were to break the vow which obliges him to secrecy." "I am truly concerned to hear that your literary labours have been less productive of profit than honour; and should I hear of any one requiring a Secretary or Assistant I will not fail to recommend him to devote his aid your scholarship and talents. But I should deceive you if I held out any sanguine hope of finding a situation to suit you. Few public men employ Secretaries except when in office, and then generally select a secretary either from the office or their own relations. A secretarialship to a company is, I should imagine, a better thing, in itself, |                                |

and more easy to procure. I can only repeat that I shall be very glad if I can learn of such a place as you deserve - Believe me sincerely, Yours obliged.
Note. - Some time ago a sect pretending to style itself 'Rosicrucian,' (Lytton) and arrogating full knowledge of the mysteries of the craft, communicated with me; and in reply I sent them the cypher sign of the Order - and not one of them could construe it. - Lytton.

REGULATIONS

IN REGARD TO APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF.

I. This Form of Application must be accompanied by a separate Letter from the Applicant, stating the causes of his (or her) Distress, and any other facts relating to the nature of his (or her) Works or circumstances, which it may be considered desirable to communicate.

II. No Application for relief shall be entertained, unless the same shall have been sent in writing to the Secretary, at least seven days previous to a meeting of the General Committee; nor unless accompanied by letters from two or more respectable persons authenticating the merits of the case.

III. No relief shall be granted to any person who does not come under one of the following descriptions, to be proved in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the General Committee, viz.:—

1. Authors of some published works of approved literary merit, and Authors of important contributions to Periodical Literature, who shall be in want or distress, unless their published writings shall have been offensive to Morals or Religion, or unless their difficulties shall have been occasioned by their bad conduct: such Authors not having been previously relieved by the Society within a year of the date of the application.

2. Widows and Orphans* of Authors eligible for relief: such Widows or Orphans never having been previously relieved by the Society.

IV. All relief shall be given as a donation towards the removal of the distress of the Applicant, and not as a loan, nor for the completion of any literary work.

V. The literary claim of every new Applicant shall be affirmed by vote of the General Committee before the question of want or distress shall be considered. The Works upon which the Application is founded must therefore be submitted for examination.

* The term "Orphans" is understood to apply to children or unmarried daughters who are left destitute by the recent death of their parent.

The General Committee meet to receive Applications on the Second Wednesday in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, November, and December.

By the preceding Regulations, all Applications, Books, and Documents must be delivered to the Secretary on or before the First Wednesday in the month.

OCTAVIAN BLEWITT,
SECRETARY.

7, ADELPHI TERRACE, W.C.,
Nov. 1879.

** This sheet must not be torn off.

TO BE USED IF THE SCHEDULE ON THE FIRST PAGE BE INSUFFICIENT.

| TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.  | No. of Vols.          | Size.              | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication.    |
|--|-----------------------|--------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| "St. George". "A miniature Romance"."My Marine Memorandum Book"."The Ship of Glass; or, The Mysterious Island" and"Mcherley": - a Novel -  | Small 8vo.3 Vols. | Small 8vo.8vo. | London.London.    | 1553.1845,1846. |
| "The Opera: - Peeps Vines Before, and Peeps Behind the curtain.  | Small 8vo.            | Small 8vo.         | London.               | 1847.                   |
| "Stone the First at the Great Glass House"."To be completed in Six Stones", embodying certain ideas as to the probable consequences of the Great International Exhibition of 1557 - (anonymous). | Small 8vo.            | Small 8vo.         | London.               | 1857.                   |
| "Song in Prose to the Westminster Owl". (anonymous)."Mstofol". (Dramatic Poem.)  | Small 8vo.            | Large 8vo.         | London.               | 1558.1542           |

" 801. North Second Street, St. Louis, U.S.A. December 15th. 1551.
 My Dear Sirs - Will you kindly inform me whether you can furnish me copies of "Curious Things of the Outside World", and "The Indian Religions; or Results of the Mysterious Buddhism - both by Hargrave Jennings.
 "I make this application to you, because I have a couple of his works bearing your imprint, and thought it most likely that you had also published the abovesigned books, although I do not find either of them mentioned in any of the very incomplete lists which I have seen bound-up with some of your publications.
 "In common with other readers I am under great obligations to Mr. Hargrave Jennings, and therefore to yourselves as his publishers, for the wonderful mass of information on matters occult contained in the 'Rosicrucians, and one of the Thirty'. The more I familiarise myself with the contents of these two volumes, the greater grows my wonder at the research and subtle penetration into the very soul of things displayed by the author -
 Asking for a reply at your earliest convenience, I remain, My Dear Sirs, Faithfully yours,
 Elliot B. Page.
 Messrs. Chatto & Windus,
 Publishers, Piccadilly, Successors to John Camden Hotten."

March 31st. 1852.

To the General Committee of the
"Royal Literary Fund".

Gentlemen -

May I be permitted to ask your benevolent aid and kindly consideration,<sup>for a grant</sup>, as an old Author of many years standing? My life has been one of great industry and application in the walks of literature.
I commenced my literary life at a very early age, and contributed when I was a mere boy, (anonymously), a succession of papers, in regard of which the term of approval used was "forstbate" by both Captain Harryat and his Sub. Editor
Edward Howard, the Author of "Rattlin the Reefor" - to the "Metropolitan Magazine", then owned and edited by Captain Harryat, R.N.
also to the "Monthly Magazine", to which I was a contemporary contributor with the late Charles Dickens - then in his earliest days of authorship. I have been a scholar and student all my time, intent upon books and serious pursuits. I have been exceedingly moderate and economical all my life in my expenditure. I have gained very considerable has been high praise — sometimes it has been high praise — for my writings; but in regard to remuneration, or that continuity of remuneration which can alone maintain one, my gain has been exceedingly scanty. The pay was very difficult to obtain, inconsiderable in amount, ~~long~~ <sup>and</sup> protracted in receipt. My mother — my father dying when I was quite a child — placed me as a youth in the chambers of Sergeant Petersdorff, a lawyer, to study the law with a view of becoming a barrister. But heavy misfortunes in regard to the property of my family, and law-suits and losses from bad tenants — direction in my line of life changed the period, and supplementing literature, or attempting to do so, by some better and more profitable means of realising money, I attached myself to commercial occupations, and was secretary and auditor to a large public establishment for a course of time; but it has ceased its operations, and my connection with it came to a close some years ago.

Unfortunately, as far as my profit was concerned, the class of literature which I cultivated was out of the beaten track of money-making books. Antiquities and metaphysical speculations, puzzles and problems in philosophy, and in philosophical thought, do not repay. The foundations and connections of the ancient religions, the meaning of worship, the detection and the tracing of idolatries and the examination of all this side of <sup>life</sup> ~~life~~ observable both in the oldtimes as equally as in the new, all tending to the recovery, and the recognition, and the realisation of supernaturalism, as the basis of all nature — visible and invisible — revelation and <sup>any</sup> vision fact, instead of its opposite and despair — Then sublime themes treated of in books never brought <sup>They never brought</sup> money to me, to the writers. All the brethren of the pen — all the writers and the publishers and the booksellers — all these classes avow, to their cost, that explorations and writings of the above abstract and learned kind pass far over the heads of the crowd, and do not pay. Books of this kind do not sell in abundance sufficient to repay their producers. Few years of my best time of authorship went in the gathering-up of the materials, in their arrangement, in their verification, and in the completion of the first Edition of my "Rosicrucianus." The prices at which my Books have been sold, and my arrangements with my publishers, have precluded any reasonable return of money to me.

Under these circumstances I throw myself upon the generous consideration and kind interpretation of the Committee of the "Royal Literary Fund", assuring each and all the members comprising it that their grant — if conceded to me — will be most thankfully received, and that the need for it is indeed very great, very closely-pressing, and of a bitterness very & severe and long-enduring.

I Beg to Remain,

Gentlemen of the General Committee,

Your

Most Obedient, Humble Servant,

Hargrave Jennings,

(Author of the "Rosicrucians", &c., &c.)

---

Hargrave Jennings,

care of

F. W. Jennings, Esq.,

Ambassador's Court, St. James's Palace.

42. Crutched Friars.

(3)

London 29th March 1802

To the Committee of the Royal Literary Fund
Gent<sup>ls</sup>

I hear with regret that my old friend Mr. Margrave Jennings is obliged in his necessity to resort to you and I have known him for upwards of 30 years and I can therefore testify to his merits and deserts. From his character, attainments and labours
no one more strictly deserves any assistance you may be disposed to grant. Although his studies have been mainly in the direction of occult subjects, his am<sup>r</sup>. has always been to cultivate a love of Religion and virtue. I sincerely trust a man so suffering and so laborious will receive your thoughtful consideration.
I have the honour to remain
Gent<sup>ls</sup> Your faithful obedt<sup>ls</sup> son
R. Norton Crossland

Lynton Lodge,
Vanbrugh Park Road,
Blackheath.

March 30th
'52

Dear Mr. Blewitt,

I believe my husband wrote to you yesterday concerning our old & much esteemed friend Mr. George Jennings, but I know you will forgive me if I do not trouble you again with regard to him. I do not forget that this is not the first time I have pleaded for an applicant seeking assistance from the Royal Literary Fund,

but I never did so with more earnestness than on the present occasion. We have known Mr. Jennings intimated for nearly thirty years, and have ever admired the integrity of his character and his persevering efforts after independence. Many of his writings though they are most interesting and instructive ~~are~~
to the few, are conducive to the multitude - and in these days of cheap literature

it is the multitude that pays authors - those who write to suit its capacity. - But Mr.
Jennings, though loving literature for its own sake, never relied wholly on it for his support - devoting a great portion of his time to a quite unconventional employment
the remunerations for which barely sufficed for his very simple wants.
Circumstances have rendered
him poor, and his present ~~are~~ position is truly pitiable. - It would be a happy thing if he could find some regular employment suitable to his powers. I am certain he would thankfully enter on any duties he might be competent to fulfil -

and there are many confidential positions where his services would be invaluable. — I am sure your own kind heart will induce you to lay his claims before the Committee at the earliest opportunity, and that you will forgive the eagerness in drawing attention to them of
A. G. See Mr. Blewett
Yours very sincerely
Caroline Brotland

(5)

38 Leicester Square W.C.
March 31st 1882

Sir,

The applicant, and bearer of this note - Mr Hargrave Jennings, I have known for some years as a man of considerable literary ability - as an author of works detailing ~~much~~ very labour and carefulness
in searching through books
of a bygone age - in fact,
amongst quite forgotten -
authors; - take for instance
his "Rosicrucians," a book which caused him many of the best years of his life in its completion. I am very sorry to hear from him that, he is compelled to have to make this application for assistance,

as I feel sure, he would not have done so if, & he could have done without it.— But, at same time I trust he may be successful, & that, you will receive him in his most pressing need, as I consider him, in every way,
a most deserving person.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Thomas Toon
O'Blennitt Esq Bookseller.

(6)

April 7th. 1852.

Octavian Bennett, Esq.,

Esq. &c. &c.

Dear Sir,

I feel deeply grateful to you for your kind suggestion contained in your note of yesterday. I beg permission to assure the Committee that I have no debt whatever:— always making it a rigid rule through my life never to have anything for which I had not at in my hands at the moment, the means to pay. The feeling of the anxiety of debt I never could have borne. I have also lived, always, upon the most moderate moderate scale, as should befit a literary man and a student, finding enjoyment alone in books and thought.—

I should be most deeply grateful to the kind consideration of the Committee if they should see fit to accord me a monthly allowance for a fixed time to enable me to recover myself without anxiety —

Allow me to Remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours Most Obediently and Obliged,
Hargrave Jennings.

Carey F. W. Jennings, Esq.,

Ambassador's Court,

St. James's Palace S.W.

(7)

Lynton Lodge,
Vanbrugh Park Road,
Blackheath.

April 9th '82

Dear Mr. Blewitt,

I am afraid you must have thought me very negligent in not sooner acknowledging your kind letter of some ten days off and on I hope you know me too well to believe an intentionally careless and remiss. - The truth is I made a most stupid blunder forgetting the fatal day for Mr. Jennings was last Wednesday instead of rest, and so I waited till I should hear the result of his appeal to the R. L. F. - Last night however I had a letter from him w<sup>t</sup> created by mistake - and in which he speaks most warmly & gratefully of the exceedingly kind assurance in w<sup>t</sup> you received him when he called on you the other day. Believe me

dear Mr. Blewitt that whether the Committee consider his claims generously or not, both my husband & I will feel equally obliged to you for interesting yourself in our poor friend's behalf. Whatever the result of the meeting you will understand exactly what we feel. -

Now let me say how friend we were to hear to s<sup>t</sup> d in account of your health, and that of Mrs Blewitt. How much I wish we could meet sometimes - but see us we<sup>t</sup> at present to achieve anything of the kind. I only keep myself tolerably well by leading the quietest life imaginable — or rather the quietest life possible in this work-a-day world — "impossible" was clearly a slip of the pen.

(1)

Forgive this lengthy scribble and with our united kindest remembrances to yourself and Mrs. Blewitt believe me dear old friend

I am often obliged and most sincerely
Camille Corot

9 W. Hargrave Jennings

(8)

£60

Read May 10. 1882

Howard Martin
Registrar

My Lords and Gentlemen -

Permit me, with the expression of my deepest respect and gratitude, to thank you most earnestly and fervently for the extreme kindness and benevolence, and the high and noble feeling and manner with which you have relieved me from a very embarrassing and painful position - both of want and dependance. I could of all things desire to tender the expression of my gratitude to each of you - my Lords and Gentlemen - in person for the munificent grant of Sixty Pounds which you have made me; but as circumstances preclude this, I must rest content in this deep sense of grateful feeling which inspires me, and an eager wish that you may - each and all - in your own persons

persons and families enjoy the best health and the truest happiness!

Believe me — my Lords and Gentlemen — that these wishes are not only the sincerest, but are dictated by profound — very profound — feelings of obligation, and of thankfulness.

I beg to remain,
My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your Most Obedient,
and
Truly Grateful and Thankful
Servant,
Hargrave Jennings.

April 15th. 1582.

(a)

Harry J.

April 15.th 1852.

Octavian Blenitt, Esq.
Dr., Dr., -

My Dear Sir,

I send enclosed the most grateful acknowledgments of N. J.
to the Mastermen and Gentlemen of the "Committee of the Royal Literary Fund."

I owe to your kindness and warm-hearted sympathy every thing which has procured me so fortunate and happy a result
to my application. I feel that to you

to you personally, as well as to every kind and sympathising
"Member of the Committee"

I can never say too much, or evince fully enough my profound sense of your benevolent consideration, and of my deep gratitude —

Believe me,

My Dear Sir,

Your Most Obliged
and Obedient Servant,
Bargrave Jennings.

Ambassador's Court,
St. James's Palace.

(10)

W. Hargrave Jennings

Vouchers

£60

Read May 9. 1883

Middlesex

Registrar

W. Hargrave Jennings hand £60
ambassador Court St James Palace

Royal Literary Fund.

7, Adelphi Terrace

W.C.

1882

April 13. Received Five Pounds £5.-
Hargrave Jennings.May 11. Received Five Pounds 5.-
Hargrave Jennings.June 14. Received Five Pounds £5.-
Hargrave Jennings.July 13. Received Five Pounds £5.- Hargrave Jennings.— 27. Received Five Pounds per half month of August — 5.-

Oct. 12. Received Hargrave Jennings.

Received Ten Pounds for September & October — 10.-

Dec. 14. Received Five Pounds — Hargrave Jennings.

1883 Hargrave Jennings. 5.-

Jan 11. Received Five Pounds — Hargrave Jennings. 5.-

Feb. 15. Received Five Pounds — Hargrave Jennings. 5.- Carried on £50

Green

TO BE USED IF THE SCHEDULE ON THE FIRST PAGE BE INSUFFICIENT.

| TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.   | No. of Vols. | Size.         | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication. |
|--|--------------|---------------|-----------------------|----------------------|
| (Titles of Published Works - continued.)   |              |               |                       |                      |
| 1873. "Live Lights, or Dead Lights."Altar or Table?(Illustrated.)  | 1.           | 8vo.          | London.               | 1873.                |
| 1873. "One of The Thirty."(Full of Curious Illustrations.)   | 1.           | 8vo.          | London.               | 1873.                |
| 1877. "The Obelisk: - its Origin,History, and Purpose.(Being a Dissertation uponObelisks in general, containing -original deductions, andproofs from the AncientPhilosophers.)(Illustrated.) | 1.           | 8vo.          | London.               | 1877.                |
| 1883. "The Chiliasm and Brutalityof the Time."(Some Plain Truths in PlainLanguage -)   | 1.           | Large8vo. | London.               | 1883.                |

April 1882

(Co

109 of 40

11th July 1883
Margrave Jennings
R.L.F.

ROYAL LITERARY FUND.

Form of Application for an Author.

| Christian Name and Surname of the Applicant in words at length.   | Margrave Jennings.  |              |                       |                      |
|---|---|--------------|-----------------------|----------------------|
| Profession, University, or other Titles.  | Author.   |              |                       |                      |
| Age, Date, and Place of Birth.  | Age 68 - last Birthday - having been born on the 10 th March, 1815, at living with my Brother, and wholly supported by him, in his apartments in the Ambassador's Court, St. James's Palace. |              |                       |                      |
| Present Residence.  |   |              |                       |                      |
| Whether Single or Married; and, if Married, or having been so, and having a Family, the Number, respective Ages, and Circumstances of the Children.   | Single - never having married.  |              |                       |                      |
| If relieved before by the Royal Literary Fund; and if so, how often, and to what amount on each occasion?   | Once relieved before by the "R.L.F." Grant dated - last April I received monthly £ 12. April, '82. £. 60  |              |                       |                      |
| Present Means and Sources of Income, whether from Salary, Annuity, Pension, or other kind of Provision.   | None whatever.No receipts from any source.  |              |                       |                      |
| The Amount of such Income yearly; and the actual Amount of Literary Earnings during the past year.  | No income - nor any literary earnings during the past year - unfortunately.   |              |                       |                      |
| TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.To be continued, if necessary, on the 4th page.   | No. of Vols.  | Size.        | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication. |
| 1842. "Istolfo". A Dramatic Poem.   | 1.  | 8vo. London. | 1842.                 |                      |
| 1845. "My Marine Memorandum Book".(anon.)   | 3.  | 8vo. London. | 1845.                 |                      |
| 1846. "The Ship of Glass"."Atcherley".  | 3.  | 8vo. London. | 1846.                 |                      |
| 1853. "St. George. A Miniature Romance". 1.   | 8vo. London.  | 1853.        |                       |                      |
| 1858. "The Indian Religions; or Results of the Mysterious Buddhism". 1.   | 8vo. London.  | 1857.        |                       |                      |
| 1859. "War in London, or Peace in London. Remonstrance addressed to the People of England: - in regard to The National Defence."  | 1.  | 8vo. London. | 1859.                 |                      |
| 1861. "Curious Things of the Outside World". 2.   | 8vo. London.  | 1861.        |                       |                      |
| 1870. "The Rosicrucians: - Their Rites and Mysteries: - with Chapters on the Ancient Fire and Serpent Worshippers. 1. (Last Title)."(Second Edition of this Book in 1879 - much enlarged) | 8vo. London.  | 1870.        |                       |                      |

In the case of an Application Founded on CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE,
the Schedule in the next page must be filled up.

continued on 4th Page.) Dated this 2nd. day of July, 1883.

(Signature of Applicant.)

Margrave Jennings.

[T.O.]

CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICALS.

| NAME OF PERIODICAL.   | TITLES OF ARTICLES.   | PLACE AND DATE OF PUBLICATION.                                |
|---|---|---|
| Monthly Magazine.   | "Sketches of Life." - "Naval Narratives." - "King & New Kaartzen, a Tale, Continued." - "Sea Sketches off the Cape," - "Military Reminiscences during the Peninsula War." - "London in 1837." - "Future London in 1857." - "Battle of Talavera," &c., &c. | London.1833.· 34.· 35.· 36.· 37.· 38. |
| Metropolitan Magazine.  | (When edited by Captain Harry At) - (also in subsequent years) "Nautical Sketches in the West Indies," and at Sea. "The Devil's Dyke." Romantic Sketches, &c.   | 1834.· 35.· 36.                                       |
| Literary Repository.  | "Oakhampstead Hall." - Tales, and Philosophical Fragments.  | 1837.· 38.  |
| Once a Week.  | "On That." - chapters thereupon. - "Eccentric Stories." Occasional Notes. - Essays.   | 1870.· 71.· 72.                                       |
| Freemasons' Quarterly Review.   | "Philosophical Essays" - "London Platitudes." "Carnaby the First - a grand Multeccentric Extravaganza," &c.   | 1853.· 54.  |
| The Royal Military Magazine.  | "Pebblestones by Eregrise," in Chapters - "A Personal Account of the Battle of Waterloo." "Adventures of a Troop of Horse-Artillery." "Stray Chapters," &c.   | 1849.· 50.· 51.· 52.· 53.                     |
| The National Review.  | "The life of Mr. Punch - a physiological Dissertation thereupon." "Tales of a Student," &c.   | 1837.· 38.· 39.                                       |
| The People's Journal.   | (conducted by William Howitt and John Saunders). "Life of Jenny Lind, and authentic notices of her career." Sketches and Stories. "Germannicus." &c.  | 1847.· 48.· 49.                                       |
| The Journal of Fiction.   | Edited by Robert Bell, Tales and Sketches, Romantic and Eccentric, &c.  | 1843.· 44.  |
| and many other Reviews and Literary Miscellanies of the old time and the more modern time including - |   |   |
| Notes & Queries.  | "The Remembrancer of King Charles the First." "Curious Circumstances in the History of the Duke of Buckingham." "The Duchess of Kent, Mother of Her Majesty," and various antiquarian and other contributions.  | 1860.· 61.· 62.· 63.                              |

REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF.

I. This Form of Application must be accompanied by a separate Letter from the Applicant, stating the causes of his (or her) Distress, and any other facts relating to the nature of his (or her) Works or circumstances, which it may be considered desirable to communicate.

II. No Application for relief shall be entertained, unless the same shall have been sent in writing to the Secretary, at least seven days previous to a meeting of the General Committee; nor unless accompanied by letters from two or more respectable persons authenticating the merits of the case.

III. No relief shall be granted to any person who does not come under one of the following descriptions, to be proved in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the General Committee, viz.:—

1. Authors of some published works of approved literary merit, and Authors of important contributions to Periodical Literature, who shall be in want or distress, unless their published writings shall have been offensive to Morals or Religion, or unless their difficulties shall have been occasioned by their bad conduct: such Authors not having been previously relieved by the Society within a year of the date of the application.
2. Widows and Orphans* of Authors eligible for relief: such Widows or Orphans never having been previously relieved by the Society.

IV. All relief shall be given as a donation towards the removal of the distress of the Applicant, and not as a loan, nor for the completion of any literary work.

V. The literary claim of every new Applicant shall be affirmed by vote of the General Committee before the question of want or distress shall be considered. The Works upon which the Application is founded must therefore be submitted for examination.

* The term "Orphans" is understood to apply to children or unmarried daughters who are left destitute by the recent death of their parent.

The General Committee meet to receive Applications on the Second Wednesday in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, November, and December.

By the preceding Regulations, all Applications, Books, and Documents must be delivered to the Secretary on or before the First Wednesday in the month.

OCTAVIAN BLEWITT,
SECRETARY.

7, ADELPHI TERRACE, W.C.,
Nov. 1879.

30th. June, 1883.

The General Committee of

The Royal Literary Fund.

My Lords and Gentlemen:

In acknowledging, with a deep sense of gratitude,
the kind assistance which you — my Lords and Gentlemen
— afforded me fifteen months ago, by a grant — and which grant was the source of the greatest solace and relief to me at the time — may I be permitted, very humbly, to ask a renewal of your benevolent consideration in a small present help.

your munificent gratuity — my Lords and Gentlemen
— secured me repose and happiness for a year.

I took advantage of this great favour, and availed of the breathing-time thus afforded me to compose a book, in the hope of obtaining thereby a little profit by my exertions.

Thus enabled by your kindness, the greater part of the year went in the writing and the passing of the book through the press. But through my arrangement with the publisher being necessarily the usual, but the very uncertain one of "sharing-profits," the result has been unfortunate, and I am in the smallest hope of ever receiving anything.

Under these unfortunate circumstances, might I trespass on

on your kind indulgence — my Lords and Gentlemen — insoliciting, if possible, from your kind bounty, the all-important aid of a little temporary gratuity to enable me to look around, and to address myself to farther efforts with a more confident hope —
through your kindness — in the future.

I beg permission to sign myself —

My Lords and Gentlemen —

Your most Obedient

Humble Servant,

Margrave Jennings.

(2)

214. Piccadilly.
London, June 30th 1853

Dear Sir,

We have much pleasure in introducing to you our esteemed friend Mr. George Jennings, whom we have known for many years. If you can further his object in any way through the medium of your excellent Fund we shall be much gratified.

Yours, Dear Sir,

Provey faithfully

Shakspeare

Octavian Belote Esq
Royal Literary Fund

12. King William Street
Charing Cross
June 29th 1883

Having been informed by Mr Haugrave Jennings that he is sending an application for assistance
to the Committee of the Royal Literary Fund,
I have much pleasure
in stating, that having

Known Mr Jennings for more than 20 years I can confidently testify to his respectability and integrity, and have reason to believe that any success which may be rendered to him by the Committee will be worthy bestowed.

John Wilson,

(5)

6, Adelphi Terrace,
Strand, W.C.

Monday July 2nd 1883.

My dear Mr. Blenwill

If any letter of mine will strengthen the appeal made by that old, hard-working author Mr. Hargrave Jennings, <sup>to those</sup> in the bounty of the "Royal Literary Fund" I shall consider it has soon used for and sent to better purpose.

As long ago as 1837 we both contributed to the same periodical - "The Literary and Pictorial Repository" - published weekly price thruppence by Virtue in Paternoster Row - and since then I have had occasion to watch with respect his conduct in private life and reason to regard with admiration the scholarship and skill he has displayed in the volumes he has written treating of so many various and - if - the very subjects.

His position in Literature must be recognised by many but his long-continued poverty of resources became only known lately to a few of his old friends among whom may be ranked without any reluctance

Yours very faithfully
J. J. Blanchard

Ottawan Blewett by Secretary

Royal Literary Fund
1. Adelphi Terrace
W. C.
S

27

W. Hargrave Junr.

£ 40

Read Nov. 14. 1883

P. McLean Dr

Registrar

to The Lords and Gentlemen
members of The General Committee of The
"Royal Literary Fund".

14th July, 1883.

My Lords and Gentlemen -

I beg permission to thank you most profoundly, for the noble and magnificent grant of £ 40 which you
— my Benefactors — have just conferred upon me. To you — my Lords and Gentlemen — who are worthy the champions of distressed literary men of England — and I add with the fullest assurance — their only real and single-hearted
friends, I owe the relief, the consolations, and the happiness of a year, in the previous grant, by you, of the sum of £. 60.

What can I add, in the expression of my feelings, except the humble offer

of

of my deepest gratitude, with the fervent and assured hopes that you will — each and all of you, my Lords and Gentlemen — enjoy God's blessing of health and prosperity, with the certainty that you enjoy the esteem, regard, and respect of all; and especially of —

Your most devoted,

and humblest and

Most Thankful Servant,

Hargrave Jennings.

(7)

Octavian Blawitt, Esq<sup>re</sup>

He, He, He.

My Dear Mr Blawitt -

To you I owe every thing of comfort and relief ever since I had the happiness of knowing you personally. I have endeavoured, in the accompanying letter, to express my emotions of gratitude to my Lords and Gentlemen of the Committee; but I feel sensibly how short - how very short - I come of the sense with which I feel penetrated, of the signal benevolence as manifested in these two occasions of their relief, by these noblemen and Gentlemen. —

Relief and rescue so

so gracefully, and so nobly afforded through — you — my dear
Mr Blawitt —

Permit me to subscribe myself,
as their, (and yours) ever-indebted,
and profoundly obliged
and
Obedient Servant,

Margrave Jennings.

14th. July. 1583.

(8)

W. Hargrave Jennings
Vouchers
£40

Read Mar. 12. 1884
W. Hargrave Jennings
Registrar

2/131
2/69

W. Hargrave Jennings' grant. £40
1883
Aug 18 Received Five Pounds - £5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Aug 9. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Sept. 13. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Oct. 11. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Nov. 14. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Dec. 13. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
1884
Jan. 10. Received Five Pounds — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings +
Feb. 14. Received Five Pounds
Completing the grant — 5.-.
Hargrave Jennings + = £40.-.

TO BE USED IF THE SCHEDULE ON THE FIRST PAGE BE INSUFFICIENT.

| TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.   | No. of Vols. | Size.                                     | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication. |
|--|--------------|---|-----------------------|----------------------|
| Titles of Complete Published Works in Volumes. -1873. "Live Lights, or Dead Lights.Altar or Table." (Illustrated.)(or. B. This Book occupied Seven Years in composition and preparation.)                            | 1.           | <sup>(Illustrated.)</sup>8vo. London. | 1873.                 | 1873.                |
| 1873. "One of The Thirty."(Largely illustrated from original designs.)   | 1.           | 8vo. London.                              | 1873.                 | 1873.                |
| 1877. "The obelisk:- its Origin, History, and Purpose."(Being a Dissertation upon Obelisks in general, containing original deductions from the ancient Philosophers. (Illustrated).)   | 1.           | <sup>Small</sup>8vo. London.          | 1877.                 | 1877.                |
| 1883. "The Childishness and Brutality of the Times.Some Old Truth in Plain Language."  | 1.           | <sup>Large</sup>8vo. London.          | 1883.                 | 1883.                |
| In regard to these Books, I may be permitted to mention that "The Rosicrucians," and the subjects with which it is connected, are the result of Thirty-Seven Years' study, namely from 1850 to 1887, devoted to the examination. |              |   |                       |                      |
| J. J.  |              |   |                       |                      |

Nov 10' 1887

Grant of £20.

ROYAL LITERARY FUND.

B.M.Richardson
Registrar

Form of Application for an Author.

(19)

2131
69

Christian Name and Surname of the Applicant in words at length.

Margrave Jennings

Profession, University, or other Titles.

Author

Age, Date, and Place of Birth.

Age 72

Born at Burton Pescant, London, on the 10th of March in the year 1815.living with my only Brother, and wholly supported by him, in his Apartments in the Ambassadorial, St. James's Palace.

Single — never having married.

Present Residence.

Once relieved before by R.L.F.
Grant dated 12th April, 1882.
£.60 supplemented by £40 in the following year 83.Whether Single or Married; and, if Married, or having been so, and having a Family, the Number, respective Ages, and Circumstances of the Children.

None of any kind.

If relieved before by the Royal Literary Fund; and if so, how often, and to what amount on each occasion?Present Means and Sources of Income, whether from Salary, Annuity, Pension, or other kind of Provision.The Amount of such Income yearly; and the actual Amount of Literary Earnings
during the past year.Actual amount of Literary Earnings
during the past year — £.10TITLES OF PUBLISHED WORKS, in full.
To be continued, if necessary, on the 4th page.

| No. of Vols. | Size. | Place of Publication. | Date of Publication. |
|--------------|-------|-----------------------|----------------------|
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1842.                |
| 3.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1845.                |
| 3.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1846.                |
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1853.                |
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1857.8.              |
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1859.                |
| 2.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1861.                |
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1870.                |
| 1.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1879.                |
| 2.           | 8vo.  | London.               | 1887.                |

1842. "Astolfo". A Dramatic Poem.
1843. Earned the warm commendation of the late Earl Lytton. /
1845. "My Marine Memorandum Book".
1846. "The Ship of Glass".
"Atcherley".
1853. "St. George". A Miniature Romance.
1857. "The Indian Religions; or Results of the Mysterious Buddhism".
1859. "War in London, or Peace in London".
Remonstrance addressed to the People of England, in regard to the National Defence. /
1861. "Curious Things of the Outside World". 2.
1870. "The Rosicrucians. Largely illustrated". /
A Serious Treatise. /
1879. Second Edition of the above.
Largely illustrated. /
1887. Third Edition of the above.
Augmented and largely illustrated,
(with Three Prefaces.) In Two Vols.

In the case of an Application Founded on CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE,
the Schedule in the next page must be filled up.

Continued on 2nd Page.)

Dated this 11th day of October, 1887.

(Signature of Applicant.) Margrave Jennings

[T.O.]

CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICALS.

| NAME OF PERIODICAL.  | TITLES OF ARTICLES.  | PLACE AND DATE OF PUBLICATION.                                |
|--|--|---|
| Monthly Magazine.  | "Sketches of Life". - "Naval Narratives". - "Kuyp van Haarlem", a Tale Continued. - "Sea Sketches". - "Off the Jape". - "Military Reminiscences during the Peninsula War". - "London in 1837". - "Future London in 1857". - "Battle of Talavera". - "Historical Jottings", &c. | 1833.1834.1835.1836.1837.1838.London. |
| Metropolitan Magazine.   | When owned and Edited by Captain Marryat, R.N.Also in subsequent years. Nautical Sketches, When at Sea and in the West Indies. "The Devil's Dyke! Romantic Sketches, &c.   | 1834.- 35.36.   |
| Literary Repository.   | "Oakhampton Hall". - (Chapters thereupon). Eccentric Stories. Occasional Notes, &c.  | 1837.   |
| "Once-a-week"."Once-a-week"."Once-a-week".   | "On Rats". - (Chapters thereupon). Eccentric Stories. Occasional Notes, &c.  | 1870..71..72..73.                                 |
| The Royal Military Magazine.   | "Pebblestones by Peregrine", in Chapters. "A Personal Account of the Battle of Waterloo", in Chapters continuous.  | 1849.50.51.52.53.                             |
| The National Review.   | "The Life of Mr. Punch", displaying him as a much mistaken and injured character. A serious Treatise, argued biographically.Tales of a Student, - &c., &c.   | 1837.38.39.   |
| The People's Journal.  | "The Life of Jenny Lind", containing authentic notices of her marvellous career. Sketches Stories and Treatises.   | 1847.38.39.   |
| The Story-Teller, or Journal of Fiction. Edited by Robert Bell.                                | Tales and Sketches.Romantic and Eccentric Contributions.   | 1843..44.   |
| and many other Reviews and Literary Miscellanies of the old time, and of the more modern time. |  |   |

REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF.

I. This Form of Application must be accompanied by a separate Letter from the Applicant, stating the causes of his (or her) Distress, and any other facts relating to the nature of his (or her) Works or circumstances, which it may be considered desirable to communicate.

II. No Application for relief shall be entertained, unless the same shall have been sent in writing to the Secretary, at least seven days previous to a meeting of the General Committee; nor unless accompanied by letters from two or more respectable persons authenticating the merits of the case.

III. No relief shall be granted to any person who does not come under one of the following descriptions, to be proved in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the General Committee, viz.:—

1. Authors of some published works of approved literary merit, and Authors of important contributions to Periodical Literature, who shall be in want or distress, unless their published writings shall have been offensive to Morals or Religion, or unless their difficulties shall have been occasioned by their bad conduct: such Authors not having been previously relieved by the Society within a year of the date of the application.
2. Widows and Orphans* of Authors eligible for relief: such Widows or Orphans never having been previously relieved by the Society.

IV. All relief shall be given as a donation towards the removal of the distress of the Applicant, and not as a loan, nor for the completion of any literary work.

V. The literary claim of every new Applicant shall be affirmed by vote of the General Committee before the question of want or distress shall be considered. The Works upon which the Application is founded must therefore be submitted for examination.

* The term "Orphans" is understood to apply to children or unmarried daughters who are left destitute by the recent death of their parent.

---

The General Committee meet to receive Applications on the Second Wednesday in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, November, and December.

By the preceding Regulations, all Applications, Books, and Documents must be delivered on or before the First Wednesday in the month, to the

SECRETARY,

7, ADELPHI TERRACE, W.C.

(3)

My Lords and Gentlemen.

Permit me humbly to ask the alleviation of my present distress - and necessities. I have no ~~debt~~ whatever, but I have no means, nor any person that I could ask to help me in my daily maintenance. My only Brother - who permits me to add his address - would if he were able assist me, but unfortunately he has the needs of his own Family to provide for, and he does for me all that he is able to do.

My Lords and Gentlemen, on a previous occasion, namely in April, 1882, you nobly saved me from want by making a grant to me of sixty pounds, and afterwards increased the grant by forty pounds on the 5th of July in the following year.

This sum lasted me for Three Years, and was most rigidly economized.

I could of all things desire to tender the expression of my gratitude to each of you - my Lords and Gentlemen - in person. But as circumstances preclude this, I must rest content content in the deep sense of grateful feelings,

and an eager wish that you may — each and all — in your own persons and families
enjoy the best health and truest happiness.

My feelings are inspired by profound — very profound — sense of obligation and thankfulness.

The modern literary life is full of trouble and anxiety. It has to struggle, in the face of immeasurable competition, against the neglect of the Public, especially for the class of unusual philosophical subjects which I have mainly pursued. Your noble, benevolent Society seeks — and successfully effects —
the rescue of unfortunate literary men.

I Beg to Remain,

My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your Most Truly grateful and Thankful
Servant,

Hargrave Jennings.

11th. October, 1887.

29 ONDINE ROAD,

EAST DULWICH,

S.E.

7 Oct 1887

To the Committee of the
Royal Literary Fund

My Lords & Gentlemen

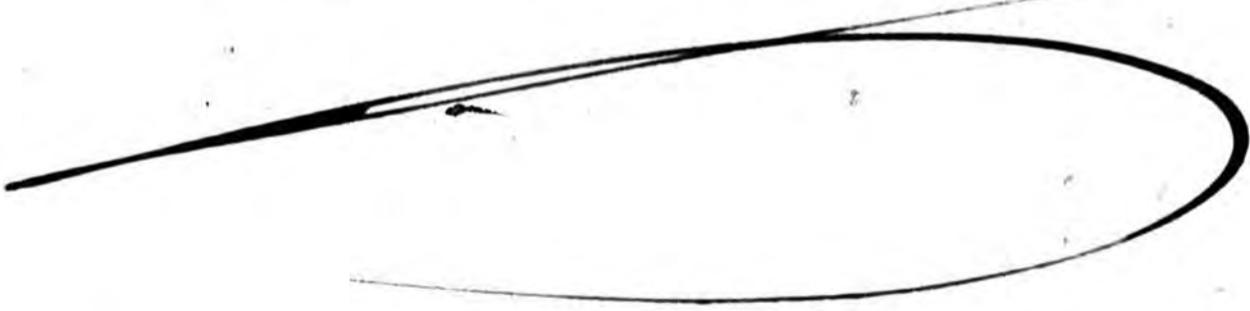

I feel much pleasure
in supporting the application of Mr Hazlitt Jennings
for relief from the funds
of the Society.

I can testify to his merits as an author

and the excellency
of his private character
— having known him
intimately for 35 years

I have the honor
to remain

My Lords & Gentlemen
Dear old Gen<sup>t</sup>z
Newton Crossland

(2)

12. King William Street
Charing Cross
Oct. 13. 1887

To the Committee
of the Royal Literary Fund

Gentlemen Having known
W Haygrave Jennings
more than 25 years I have pleasure in testifying to his position as an Author and to his high personal character.

I am Gentlemen
Yours respectfully
John Wilson

Received from the Committee of the Royal Literary Fund the sum of Twenty Pounds.

With many thanks
and Expressions of Gratitude from Margaret Jennings.
12th November, 1887.

(2)

51.

Dr. Hargrave Jennings

£ 20.

Read December 14th 1883

M. Richardson

Registrar.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Permit me most respectfully
to offer to you the heartfelt expression of my deep gratitude for your beneficent donation of £. 20. 0. 0

To each - and to all of you - my Lords and Gentlemen, my most grateful sense of your kindness is due. I speak
under the liveliest sense of your noble sympathy. I feel the inadequacy of my words to testify to my feeling of rescue.

The beneficence of the "Royal Literary Fund" is nobly exemplified by the Committee. They stand alone in the United Kingdom between the

the necessities Author and his bitter troubles.

With many - many Thanks,
I Remain,

My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your Most Obedient.

Faithful Servant,
Margrave Jennings.

12th November, 1887.

(2)

My Dear Sir,

I send you the enclosed for the Committee of Lords and Gentlemen of the "Royal Literary Fund." I hope you will deem that it will answer
its object -

I send you a receipt stamp
herewith for the gift. — and I

Remain, My Dear Sir,

Yours Very Deeply Indebted,
and Most Faithfully,
Harpane Jennings.

A. Hawtrey Roberts, Esq.