THE NEW PSYCHIANA

By Dr. Frank B. Robinson

STUDY-LESSON NUMBER TWENTY-ONE—A

When I awakened the following morning, which was Monday, I knew that I had been through something very unusual during the night. What I experienced was not a dream. It was not a vision. It was a direct act of God in taking me out of this plane and putting me, for perhaps half an hour right in the heart of another plane, which, while it was a spiritual plane, was not the Realm of Eternal Life, which plane I visited on several occasions and at later dates. What I had seen, had it been a dream, would have vanished with the coming of the morning's light. Had it been merely a vision, that too would have vanished as the days and weeks went by. But this experience, the reality of which there can be no doubt, has lived with me for more than forty years. It is just as vivid today as it was that night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Welch, on O'Hara Avenue in Parkdale, Toronto, Canada.

We all arose at about the same time in that household. We ate breakfast together. Mr. Welch was a jeweller's assistant and he had to be at work at eight o'clock. Effie, the daughter, stayed at home. She was a violinist and a good one. She and Val made some good music in that house. At breakfast that morning, while I was still filled with the elation which comes to all who are favored with such an experience, I was rather quiet. I noticed that all were looking at me intently. Mrs. Welch asked me if anything was wrong. Val asked me "What is that strange peaceful look on your face, Frank?" Effie said there was something about me that morning which she had never seen before. I did not tell them anything at all about what had happened during the night, as the imperative need for secrecy had been impressed upon me. I was given to understand that at some future time, I should be called on to reveal what I saw and experienced in this realm "beyond the tomb," and, although I have written books on what happens there, I have never to date recounted what I am about to relate here. I see plainly now that the time was not ripe. The fact that I must now reveal these things, is, I repeat, significant indeed. It presages the end of this dispensation. I do not mean by that, the so-called end of the world. You will see how that will happen in coming Lessons. This world, by the way, will never end. It will be changed as you will see later on. May I impress upon everyone studying these Lessons, the absolute necessity of drinking in every word I write. There is much at stake. As you know, there is much of spiritual Power in the simple things I write to you. Forget me then, and drink in every word I write to you, for I have never, in twenty years, sat down at my typewriter unless I knew the Power of The Spirit of God was with me, dictating to me every word of my writings.

I go for months and even years, not writing a thing. Then, the urge to write will come upon me, and you benefit by what I write. These days, I feel constantly the urge to write and write. As I write this, the tips of my two forefingers are quite sore from constant writing. At noon today, I'll tape them up, and probable the rest of this Lesson will be written with both forefingers taped up. I cannot use eight fingers and two thumbs. I do just fine with two. However, I don't care about that. What I am interested in, is in revealing the Truths of God to as many people as possible, before the events, which are of stupendous importance, begin to happen. They have begun to happen already. There never was the hunger for the things of God there is now. Whenever or wherever a leader appears who knows God, people rush to hear that man. The pity of it all is that the church leaders are not abreast of the times. Pre-war theology will not meet the needs of a post-war civilization. People have changed. The atom-bomb, with its devastating effects, is making millions of people afraid for the future. Religion, rather should I say, theology will have to change. Religious leaders will have to first get in tune with the Power of The Spirit of God. Then, after that has happened, they will have to demonstrate that they have been with God. After that, it will be their duty to bring to men and women a concept of God which appeals first to the reason, then to the soul. This is the first time in these Lessons I have mentioned the "soul." Even now, I do not mention it in the accepted and orthodox sense of the word, for that concept is very erroneous. As you progress with me in this and other Lessons, you will see how very clearly and accurately what I saw in this region beyond, dovetails in with what I have written.

I have been very earnest in my attempts to impress on you the fact that The Spirit of the Living God actually exists in you. I have told you that this Spirit was given to you at birth. You know by this time that the actual motivating Power behind your life is the very Life which is God. You now know that there exists a direct connection with you and the Realm of The Spirit which is God. You know that you can draw upon this shimmering, Glory-Power any time you choose to. I said "CHOOSE" to. On the other hand, you can decide to reject this Power. Instead of living your life "in The Spirit," there is nothing to prevent you from living it in "the flesh," completely rejecting everything I have said to you, and everything that may have been said to you by other religious leaders.

You may have wondered what becomes of those who depart this life without knowledge of The Spirit of God. There are murderers, criminals, degenerates of all kinds on the earth, and there have always been. Then are these men to Inherit the Kingdom of God as you and I shall inherit it? I think not. None shall ever enter the Realm of Eternal Light, who, having once seen the Light, chose to reject it and live out the balance of their lives according to the desires of the mortal man in whom The Spirit of God has lived. Now do not misunderstand me here—The Spirit of The Living God lives in every man who was born. "This is the True Light which lighteth EVERY MAN which cometh into the world." But there is something else too which has to be taken into consideration here. You may have wondered why I have not alluded to it before. Well I wanted to hold off on that vital point until I began to relate what happens to those who pass over, not having recognized The Spirit of God, or made any steps towards that Great Spirit. It would be foolish to think that the degenerates, the criminals, the whoremongers, the drunkards and the dissolute shall ever enter into the Realm where God is. They will not. This Lesson will tell you where they go, and it will document itself by an experience which has been given to few people.

Dante, some years ago, attempted to paint a picture of what happens to the "lost." He had them suffering the torments of the damned forever. Some of these human beings' souls were frozen in ice. The "devils" were stabbing at them with pitchforks. Others were baking, roasting, frying in flames that were unquenchable, and many other permanent tortures were being inflicted on them, as Dante sat it in his "Inferno." But of course, nothing like that happens.

The Roman church tries to have us believe that the souls of these God-rejectors, or rather "Church-rejectors" go into a place which they call "purgatory." The funny thing about that theory is that only priests of the Roman Catholic Church have the right or the Power to get them out, and that usually costs money. It becomes at once evident what a powerful argument that can become to frighten those who either have no ability to think out their own salvation, or are too lazy and indifferent to do it, preferring to leave their entire future life in the hands of some human-made church, or its priests. Needless to say, that theory is quite as impossible as is the Dante theory. According to the Roman Catholic Church, a man can be a devil all of his life, and then, on his death-bed, a few drops of "holy-water" will give him a passport into heaven. Well, I feel very sorry for those poor deluded souls who believe that. I feel equally sorry for those other poor deluded souls in the Protestant church, who believe, or say they believe that any and all who do not believe that Jesus was God incarnate, shall suffer the torments of hell-fire, about the same sort of hell that Dante tried to depict. The one is just as preposterous as the other. All these stories were put into "sacred writ" for it was to scare men and women into believing in their respective religious organizations. Jesus Christ was the greatest Spiritual Prophet this world has ever known. He was crucified, according to Christian literature. But He was not crucified FOR the sins of the world, HE WAS CRUCIFIED BY THEM.

The message Jesus, and a dozen other prophets came to this earth to bring, was, and still is, a simple plain message that The Spirit of God, the True Light, lights every man who cometh into the world. He came to proclaim to the human race that through the indwelling Spirit of God, complete victory over the "world, flesh and devil" could be achieved. But the church-people of that day, as today, refused to accept that teaching. It was opposed to their concept of God. So they crucified Jesus, and His message has gone all unheeded until now, when, for the first time in 2000 years, its true meaning is being revealed to this world. Let me instruct you, whoever you may be, that there is no such thing as "last minute salvation." If you have lived a life of drunkenness, or greed, or degeneracy, or unbelief all your earthly life, THAT IS THE WAY YOU WILL ENTER THE NEXT PLANE OF EXISTENCE. ALL THE PRIESTS AND PREACHERS THIS SIDE OF THE TOMB CANNOT ALTER THIS FACT. It is, of course, possible for one to be honestly sorry for a mis-spent life, but even if that is so, it can make little difference. The life has been lived. The Power of God has been rejected. The Spirit of God has been rejected. The life has been lived. It is the deeds done in the body while we are here which decide our destiny after death. Remember this, and go to work for God right now.

I must also state at this point, in order to be true, that this same thing applies to many who have pinned their faith on their belief in Jesus as an individual or a God, forgetting the message, or ignoring the message Jesus came to bring to humanity. This was a message which has the Power to restore man to God. Now it makes no difference what your belief about Jesus may be. It is an utter impossibility, as you will discover, for anyone, Christian or otherwise, to enter the Kingdom of God through a belief ABOUT JESUS. You may have attended your Christian church for fifty years. You may have given freely to the church. You may have prayed and prayed, and sung and sung. You may have stood on the street-corners telling men and women that "the blood of Jesus can wash away all your sins." But unless you have absorbed the message Jesus came to bring, and, through that message have FOUND THE POWER OF THE INDWELLING SPIRIT OF GOD, your chances are as bad as the chances of they who seek to find reprieve from a Godless life on their death-bed.

You see, beloved, this thing called eternal life is not something God bestows upon some, leaving others out in the cold. Nor is it something which any theological "belief" can bring. IT IS SOMETHING WHICH YOU MUST EXPERIENCE ON THIS EARTH, AND PLEASE BELIEVE ME, IF, WHEN YOU PASS OVER, IF YOU DO, YOU KNOW THE INDWELLING SPIRIT OF GOD, YOUR WORRIES ABOUT THE FUTURE WILL ALL BE OVER. BUT IF YOU HAVE NOT MADE THAT SAVING CONNECTION, ALL THE CHURCHES, BIBLES, AND PRIESTS CANNOT SAVE YOU. NOT EVEN GOD HIMSELF CAN SAVE YOU, BECAUSE, WHILE YOU HAD A CHANCE, YOU DELIBERATELY REJECTED THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD, THE ONLY POWER UNDER HEAVEN AND OVER HEAVEN AND IN HEAVEN WHICH COULD HAVE SAVED YOU. "As the tree falls, so shall it lie."

The thought comes up here, and the question will undoubtedly be in your mind: "Well will there not be many who will be lost?" The answer to that is: "Yes there will—there will be far more men and women lost than ever will be saved, but their loss will be of their own making."

God Almighty will never damn any man. He placed you on this earth. You did not know you were coming to earth. You did not ask to be born. But you were born. At that birth The Almighty gave you Life. He gave you His own Life, and throughout your earthly life you have always had that Power available to you. Whether you accepted it or rejected it has been purely up to you. You had the choice. You were so constituted that you could say "Yes" or "No" to Almighty God. Whichever one you said will determine your future. Not through the eternal ages, because if you do not have the qualifications for Life through the eternal ages, you just simply won't be there. You won't boil in oil. You won't be frozen in ice. You won't be in "purgatory" for that is a fabrication of the Roman church. You won't be anywhere at all.

This brings me to the subject-matter of this Lesson. I have refrained from mentioning this thing in you which is the deciding factor as to what you do or do not do with The Spirit of God. There is something else in you besides The Spirit of God. That Spirit is your Life, and you can make no motion without it. But there is also your consciousness. In that consciousness lies your will. THIS CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE ENCLOSED WILL, IS NOT A PART OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD. IT IS A PART OF THE PHYSICAL BODY IN WHICH THE SPIRIT OF GOD HAS TAKEN UP ITS ABODE. But it is not now, and never has been part of God. It is something which came to man when he received his physical form, away back there when his spiritual eyes were closed, and his physical eyes opened. In the Land of Eternal Life, they have no will power and no conscience. They have no need of these things, for God Himself is both the Light and the Life of that Realm. But there is a realm in between, and it is this realm I was in on this first translation in Parkdale, Toronto.

May I try to explain a bit further how your ultimate life forever with God, or rejection of God is a matter which you must decide here on earth. You will either decide it intelligently, or you will reject it, either knowingly or unknowingly. I cannot conceive of anyone deliberately rejecting the Power of The Spirit of God. Yet there are many who do. Why—I cannot understand. Now this thing called "consciousness" and "will" are the two which either accept or reject. And they have the ability to do that. They have the ability to accept also. Is it not then, strictly up to you, living consciously, to make the decision which forever settles your future? It is. You can never blame anyone if, after having had the True Light brought to you, you deliberately decide to reject that Light, following out the desires of the temporary, mortal body, instead of The Spirit of The Living God. You are the only one who can make that decision.

If you neglect to make it, or if you decide wrong, do not blame God, for that is something God has not one thing to do with.

Some may ask me if it is not a terrible thing for so many to be lost? I don't think so. I don't believe there is anything terrible about it. Your physical body has been buried anyhow. That can never be recalled. At death, The Spirit of God in you goes instantly back into the vast ocean of Life from whence it came. So there is nothing terrible about that. The only thing left then, is that thing called "consciousness," and although this emanates from the physical and not the spiritual part of you, IT DOES NOT DIE AT DEATH. IT EITHER DIES OR LIVES FOREVER SHORTLY AFTERWARDS. BUT IT DOES SURVIVE THE DEATH OF THE PHYSICAL BODY.

Now it was into this realm that I was translated from the little Welch home in Toronto, Canada. But before I detail to you exactly what I saw there, I believe I had better clarify a bit the situation as it exists, so that you may better understand just what sort of beings I saw here, just what they were doing there, just why they were there, and just where they went to. I desire very much to make this whole scheme of "salvation," about which there has been so much said, very plain, very scriptural, and very logical. You see, Almighty God cares little what you do with the Power He has offered you. He has loved you with an everlasting love. He still does. That is why He gave his own life to you at birth. That is why there has always been a way by which you can secure eternal life, being sure of that eternal life now. So let us together, without any thought of religious emotion, with no allegiance to any denomination or creed, and without any religious belief at all save for our belief in the Power of Living God, quietly talk this thing over. It makes sense. There is nothing in the Realm of The Spirit of God that does not make sense. The only think does not make sense is why the human race, endowed with Power from On High, as it is, deliberately chooses to avoid that Power, choosing in its stead, the fleeting pleasures of what we may well call "the flesh." That is something I cannot understand.

Of course, when you understand that religion is a growth into God—an evolution—one may partially understand it. Our religious leaders are to blame for not having brought these plain simple truths to man before. Why did they have to wait. When the Christian Church institutionalized itself, it at once became mercenary. It lost its concept of God. It changed from an invisible body of God into a vast physical organization, bearing the name of God, but having none of the power of God in it. That is the reason John said God would spue it out of His mouth. He will do just that, and I'll show you now how God will do that.

Almighty God, I repeat, does not care one jot or one tittle what happens to you, my friend. He has made plain the plan whereby you may inherit the earth, manifesting eternal Life from God. What you do with that, is your business. God does not stand to lose. But you do. You see, at death, the body, which contains only a few cents worth of minerals, goes back into the ground from whence it came. It is over 90 per cent water anyhow. That dies. There can be no argument there. Also, The Spirit of God, which was the life in that body so long as it lived, instantly goes back to God, where it belongs, and from whence it came. Now God has lost nothing so far. The life has gone back to Him and the body has rotted in the grave. Neither of these will ever return again. Then what is left? There is that thing left into whose hands was given the deciding of whether or not you choose to accept eternal Life from God, or eternal death from the flesh, for that is exactly what you will do. You cannot remain neutral. You will consciously make the choice, one way or the other.

I have stated that the consciousness you now possess, together with the will you now possess, do not die with the death of the physical body. That consciousness remains alive, and this it is which first makes its journey into the land of eternal death or eternal life. There, the decision is made as to what disposition of God you made, while on the earth. If you were "born of water and the Spirit," which simply means that you were born of a physical body which is 90 per cent water, and The Spirit of God, you will never see death in any form. If, however, you were born of water, which, of course, we all were, and have not been born of the Spirit—ON THIS EARTH, then there is no possibility of your ever being born of The Spirit after your physical body has left this earth. Of all the impossibilities I know, that is the most impossible impossibility. It just simply cannot be. It is not.

Let us ponder a while at this point, to make sure that you and I are born of the Spirit. At the beginning, we are born of "water" which means our physical body, and we have too the Breath of God in us. At the end, we have made our decision just what our future shall be. We may not have known it, yet we did know it.

For all through this life, The Spirit of God in us has been calling, calling, calling us to the higher life which is in us. Most of us have passed that calling along, deciding that "some other time" we will pay attention to it. If we did that, and died in the meantime, we are lost.

I have repeatedly stated to you in these Lessons that the Realm of The Spirit of God is a Realm of absolute silence. You may have wondered how I know this. Now—you will know how I know it. I have been there in the Spirit, not once, several times. I shall probably be taken there again soon. In the Realm of the Eternal God, where you and I shall inherit Eternal Life, the most outstanding characteristic of that Realm is the Eternal Light of the Eternal Day which illumines the whole scene. In the realm I am now going to tell you about, it is twilight. Absolute silence reigns. Forms are there. They are not forms of flesh. They are what may be called "spirit-forms." Those who depart this life immediately show up, in "spirit-form" in this region of which I am speaking, and which I visited. These "spirit-forms" are only one thing. They are the consciousness which, along with The Spirit of God, inhabited your body of flesh while on this earth. So you are a "trinity." You are flesh, Spirit (The Spirit of God) and, if you care for the word, you are "soul." But this third part of you is only your consciousness and your will, which of course is included in your consciousness.

As these forms manifest, they come up from what seemed to me to be "below." They are grayish spiritual forms, and absolute silence, a silence which you can cut with a knife, pervades the whole place where these darkish "spirit-forms" are. I stress their semi-darkness because the spirit-forms in the Land of Eternal Day, are brilliantly light. As I tarried in this land of the departed consciousness and will, I was led by a spiritual body from the Realm of The Spirit of God. That is the Land of Eternal Life in which The Spirit of God not only dwells, but lights up and gives the Life to everyone fortunate enough to enter that Realm.

These forms, as soon as they enter this realm of the Great Grey Silence (I suppose Christians would call this the Judgment Day) form into a long line. Not a word is spoken. It is an eerie scene. It is a sacred scene. It is a scene which is full of despair for most, but of hope for some. As these forms which formerly occupied human bodies stand there, in line, several of the supremely white forms, true spiritual forms of the absolutely "redeemed" walk slowly in front of these gray semi-earthly forms. In the right hand of these from the Land of Eternal Life, is a piece of white material. Chalk maybe. Anyhow, these redeemed spirits walk slowly along the lines of the departed dead, and a white mark is placed silently on the forehead of certain of these forms. As these Heavenly Bodies, all arrayed in white pass along, those having the mark in the forehead pass along while those grayish forms of consciousness which fail to receive the mark, instantly disappear. They do not disappear into hell or purgatory or anywhere else. They just simply disappear. They are negative spirit-forms, and they cannot stand before the Light of those White Spirit-forms which have found the Power of The Living God whilst on this earth. There is total and complete annihilation for these forms. They just cease to exist. They are blotted out, and that is the end of all who have lived on this earth; throwing the Power of God back into the face of God.

As I stood there watching this process, I saw on the spirit-faces of the greater number, not a look of terror, but a look of apprehension. On others, I saw a look of supreme joy. Each one knew that total annihilation, or total salvation lie just ahead. Each one knew how very just it would be to blot out absolutely they who choose to ignore the Power of God while on this earth. That is a sinister scene. The thing that impressed me most was the fact that nine out of every ten who appeared there, were blotted out. Later on, when I was translated into the Land of Eternal Bliss where lives The Spirit of God, I was amazed at the small number there. Here, I was shocked when I saw how very few had really accepted The Spirit of God while on this earth.

Line upon line of them. The spirit-forms of men just like you and me. These spirit-forms, I again explain, are simply the "consciousness and the will" of every man who was ever born on this earth. It is not the Spirit of God at all. It is not the body. It is that part of man which had the ability to accept or refuse the eternal salvation which comes only from the "CONSCIOUS" abiding of The Spirit of God in man. You will recall here how many times I have used the word "conscious" in these Lessons so far. In your "conscious mind" as many choose to call it, lies the responsibility for accepting or rejecting the Power of The Spirit of God. So long as you live you can make the decision either way. But—after your physical body has been separated forever from The Spirit of God which lived in it—THE DIE IS CAST. THERE CAN BE NO

RETRENCHING. YOU ARE EITHER SAVED OR LOST FOR ETERNITY. Not in the old "hell-fire" sense of course, but you are completely blotted out, even to your consciousness, from the face of the Living God once and for ever.

I saw other things there too. Those things I cannot reveal now. I shall reveal them later. If I were to reveal them now, it would start a spiritual calamity which I do not want to take the responsibility for. So I have only revealed as much as God wants me to reveal at this time. After I had been there for I guess half an hour, although there is no Time in that Realm, the "angel" or whatever it is those white-robed beings are called, beckoned to me. I followed. I was shown a glimpse of the Land of The Living God, where, throughout the countless ages who have united themselves with the Power which is God, shall live with Him forever. I am eagerly looking forward to coming Lessons in which I shall describe in detail, that Realm of Eternal Life. I saw very much more there than I saw in this Twilight-zone, which, by the way, I never want to enter again. The hallowed sacredness of the scene will never leave me. Thank God the effect of being there has been neutralized by later sojourns in the Land of The Spirit of God. Glory to God.

Now this is an authentic picture beloved of what actually happens to what we know as "the dead" after this life has ended. There is no question about the authenticity of this experience. I am not the type to indulge in wild flights of the imagination. Nor am I the type which would deliberately write to you things which are not true. Neither do I allow myself ever to be carried away into the heazy realm of either the esoteric or the meta-physical. There is value in both. But if you knew me at all, you would know that I keep both my feet solidly on solid earth. I am not swept off my feet by religious emotion or anything else. There is just one thing which can sweep me off my feet, and that is The Power of The Living God. I just love to be swept off my feet by that Power. Fortunately, it is not given to many of us to be swept off our feet by that Spirit. Too much of the Power of God manifested on the earth in any life would automatically snap the chord. Man cannot live in the Realm of The Eternal Light and on the earth at the same time. You see, beloved, the sense of the physical, which came to man when he lost his glory in the spiritual, completely blots out the glories of the Realm of God. Once in a while it is possible to tear the veil asunder, but that is not given to too many. Wherever you find one who has had the experience I have related to you, you may be sure that one has been tried in the fire, and his faith has been found to be whole. The Spirit of God is very close to me as I write these Lessons. I do so want you to be in earnest. I am trying to awaken Christianity to these deep and precious truths. I am trying to get the Christian church to awaken to its opportunities. I trust I succeed. But whether I do nor not, there is coming to this earth spiritual visitations which portend the end of this dispensation. Things will not go on as they are. They cannot. Man cannot elevate himself to God. Man can accept the Power of God which is in him so long as he lives, and that Power can do the elevating. But it is an utter impossibility for man to live his earthly life following after the carnal things of the consciousness, rejecting The Spirit of God, and, later on, have all his "sins forgiven" and live forever with the Pure God. That cannot be. That will not be. That is not. The priest or preacher or religious organization has not been born yet which can have the slightest effect on anything after this life on earth has ended. It is blasphemy to say they can. The place for these men of God to manifest is on this earth. There is only one message they should have, and that is the message that The Spirit of God lives in us all—NOW, with complete ability to give to us eternal life here an now, and in addition to that, to give us the witness of that Eternal Life.

If I should be asked how many living on the earth today will see God throughout eternity, my reply, based on what I saw in the "Twilight-zone" would have to be "Not very many." I have tried to explain how man's ultimate salvation lies in his own hands. It will be settled during the short span we live on the earth. There is but one job the priests and preachers and rabbis have before them. That is, to tell men and women that they can find the Power of The Spirit of God in their lives, here and now. Once found, their eternal destiny is sealed forever. Lost at death, or undiscovered at death, their eternal doom is sealed forever. This doom consists of complete absence of any sort of consciousness, physical or spiritual. It is total annihilation. And why should God insist that these who denied Him here should live forever with Him up yonder? They wouldn't be happy even if they could enter. No, beloved—there is a great gulf fixed between "believers" and "unbelievers" and by that I do not mean believers in any church dogma. I do not even mean belief in Jesus Christ, for there were millions of human beings on this earth who lived before Jesus was born, and they could not possibly believe in Jesus. Jesus, as a marker for God, is the greatest Spiritual Prophet the world has yet seen. But Jesus as the complete totality of God, upon whose name or personality we must depend for salvation, is not in keeping with the facts as I knew they exist. You can find the Power of God through the teachings of Jesus. You can find God through the teachings of Buddha. You can find God through the teachings of Mohammed and you can even find The Spirit of God through the teachings of that worthless Frank B. Robinson, and many others. In fact, you can find God without any of these teachings. The Spirit of God IN YOU will lead you into all truths of God. The main thing is not Jesus, or Mohammed, or Buddha, or any other religious leader. The one main thing is to find the Power of The Living God while you live, thereby sealing your soul through eternity. If one is a true religious leader, he will do exactly as Jesus did—humiliate himself, deny his own power, and give all credit and glory to the Infinite God, who gave us all life and before whom we must give an accounting. What a terrible calamity befell this earth when well-meaning, but blind religious leaders told the world that unless it believed in their particular God, it was lost. That cannot be. There is one thing and one thing only which matters, and you are the only one who can have any say whatsoever about that. That one thing—the greatest thing in this life is just simply this—WILL YOU ACCEPT OR REFUSE THE POWER OF THE LIVING GOD? If your answer is that you will accept, you are eternally safe. If your answer is that you “don’t care,” or “maybe,” you are eternally lost. But banish from your mind the thought that beyond the tomb there is a place where there is “weeping, wailing, and gnashing of teeth” for I assure you there is no such place. However, your duty is to get busy, awaken, and help me tell others something of the Power of The Living God. The next Lesson will deal with a subject much more beautiful than the things I spoke of in this Lesson. I did not want to write this Lesson, but it is of God, so I had to tell it.

Let us give special thought to the Christian church. Your spoken word, charged with the Power of God, can work miracles. Now may the Infinite Peace of The Eternal Light, be abundantly upon you now and forever.
