THE NEW PSYCHIANA

By Dr. Frank B. Robinson

LESSON NUMBER TWENTY-FOUR

This series of Lessons is drawing to a close. There will be only two more after this one. In all probability, this is the last set of Lessons dealing with The Spirit of God, which will be written by me. All told, during the past twenty years, I have written about five hundred different Lessons, and about seventeen books. The last book, as I write this on December the tenth, 1946, in my little bedroom-study, is in the hands of The American Book-Stratford Press in New York city. It should be ready for release in about four or five months. This is a fictional work, yet there runs through the book very much of truth. I leave it to the reader to decide which is fiction and which is truth. I deliberately did this. You will find much deep spiritual truth in that book, even though it is advertised as a work of fiction. The book is called "THE WANDERER."

In these last three Lessons, I want to sort of go over the truths I have given to you. There may be many points which you will miss on a first reading, so I suggest once more that you read, and re-read these Lessons at every opportunity, remembering that the study of The Realm of The Spirit of God is entered only by intelligent study. You first understand the basic fact that the motivating principle of your body is the invisible thing we call Life, and you understand further that this Life is the Life of God. It is God. God is Life—God lives in you—therefore you have at all times, just as long as you live, The Spirit of God actually living in you. That is the basis upon which this set of Lessons has been built. I am quite sure that I have given you more than enough instruction to enable you to go as far as you care to go into this Realm of The Spirit of God, which is, actually, your INVISIBLE SELF.

However, there is a point beyond which I cannot take you. You cannot be a baby in the Realm of God all of your life. The time has come for you to walk alone, and by this time you most surely should be well equipped to do this.

I assure you that this journey we have taken together has been very sweet for me. The Letters which have been received already from those who have studied just a few of these Lessons are gratifying in the extreme. One thing interests me very much. More and more church-members are coming to me and learning from my Lessons how to reach out into the Realm of the Cosmic Consciousness which is the Realm of The Spirit of God. They have been amazed when they first heard that all of God lives in them. They were incredulous, many of them. But they believed me. They started out to walk along this Pathway to God with me, and thought rather trembling at first, it was not long until they discovered that I know what I am talking about. These good people now know how to actually find and use the Power of God. To them, this is something marvellous. It is something they have never been able to do before. Many of them regret that they did not hear of this Movement earlier in life. However, that should not bother them too much. I was 42 years of age before I launched the movement. I am 62 almost now. That means for twenty years I have been leading men and women into a Realm so wonderfully radiant with Spiritual Power that their complete lives have been changed from impotent things into things of shimmering beauty.

This is a grand work. I give all praise and honor to The Spirit of God which, through many wasted years, followed me wherever I went, and then, in the proper time and moment, designed the path that I was able to tread. You see—all through those wasted years, I had been vainly seeking abroad and afar, something which I had always had within my grasp, had I but known it. When I discovered how very close God was to me, I could hardly believe my senses. But it was true. You will recall, if you have read my autobiography, how for years I pleaded with God to reveal Himself to me. You see—following the teaching of my father, a Baptist minister, I had always considered God at a distance. From earliest childhood until about forty years of age, God to me had been some unknown being, hidden away beyond the sky, just waiting for the day when we all died, so that He could pass judgment upon us all, sending the “naughty boys and girls” into an eternal damnation, while the “good boys and girls” played on harps in a city called the New Jerusalem, etc. Well—I have nothing to say about that teaching except that it has been responsible for more people missing the trail to God than any other religious teaching ever given to the human race. I do not blame anyone for attempting to offer such truths as of God. When one remembers the age in which these fantastic theories were born, one understands the mentality of those who originated them.

But life—or God—is an evolution. Yes—I said God is an evolution. The God who lives in you I mean. As man evolves so God evolves, and when, in the fullness of time, we know as we are known, and see as we shall then see, it will be found that man, united with God, will travel together into regions so very vast that the mind of mortal man cannot even begin to understand them. It will take The Spirit of God to do that. It has taken an understanding of The Spirit of God to bring these Lessons to you. They could not have originated in any other realm. There have been moments during the writing of these Lessons when your author has been completely lifted out of himself, and thrown into the arms of God, so to speak. There have been, and still are moments when the whole Realm of The Spirit of God opens up like a rose, and the beauties and glories of that Realm are viewed for one brief moment by this ignorant, humble, incompetent chronicler of Spiritual Truths. How else could I write as I have written?

But what I want you to know is that there are no heights to which I may have climbed which you cannot climb to also. There have been no showers of grace on me which you cannot have, and possibly in magnified and multiplied manner. The chances are that you are a far better and more competent vessel for the Truths of God to flow through than I have been, and am. I know this—I know that had it not been for the Power of the God in me, you certainly never would have heard of me. Someone else would have been given this vision, and would have passed it on to others, as I have endeavored so earnestly to do. In the day which lies just ahead, the mortal veil will be much easier to lift than it is now. It can be lifted. Every one of you can have similar experiences to those I gave to you just two or three Lessons back. I assure you I have not been picked out by The Almighty for any special revelations. If I know a bit more about God than the man on the street, it is only because I have been willing to work to that end, and apply the actual Power of God as I found that Power existing in my human life. My physical life that is—for that is exactly where God lives and is to be found by any and all who care to find Him there. It is a pity that what passes itself off a "religion" today is altogether a matter of "belief," here, with the results "up yonder." That reminds me of Alfred when he was about three years of age. I had bought him a swell baseball for his birthday. One afternoon, he had gone across the street to the school playground to play with this ball. I watched a few kiddies playing there for a while, then forgot them. In a few hours

Alfred came into the house with a large smile on his face, but no baseball. Seeing something in his little hand, I said: "Alfie—what is that thing you have in your hand—and where is the baseball?" Looking up at me as if I should have understood, little Alfie said: "Oh—this is a whistle Daddy—I traded the new baseball for it." Asking him to open his hand, I saw there a rusty old nut. Looking at the rusty old nut I said: "Why Alf—that isn't a whistle—it's a rusty old nut—it isn't worth anything." "Oh yes Daddy—it's a whistle, not a nut, you blow on it today and it whistles tomorrow." We never did get the baseball back.

Any religion which cannot reveal God, and all His Power now, is not a true religion. God will never be easier to disclose than He is now. When we find a religious organization which adopts the attitude that we are "guilty lost sinners, separated from God until after we die," you may be sure that system of religion knows nothing whatsoever about God. The chances are that it does not care to know anything about God, if work is entailed in the discovery of God. And so, while churches gather in "councils" and conclaves, adopting an attitude of remorse for the condition of the world, The Almighty stands hard by, in them in fact, ready and willing to redeem this world, but failing to find any religious organization which believes that God can do just that.

When the final curtain is parted, the ones to whom the greatest remorse will come will be those who, on this earth, took up themselves the name and garb of Almighty God, yet were farther away from God, in spite of their ecclesiastical accouterments than are they whom these clerics seek to save. However, it is our duty, yours and mine, to understand just why this world is off the track, and, while understanding the underlying cause, do everything in our power to bring to everyone possible, the actual truths of the existence of God as we have proven these truths to exist. Many have accused this writer of being too hard on the churches. I do not believe I can be too hard on them. As stated before in these Lessons, the error is one of method, not of intent. Away back yonder in the "Dark Ages," the foundations of present-day Christianity, and other major systems of religion were laid. Those foundations were based on fear and superstition. They were based upon an absent God. They have persisted down through the ages. There have been some slight modifications of course, but in the main, present-day theology is still based upon an absent God, utterly helpless to reveal any semblance of actual Power to anyone on the earth today. These systems of religion are based on the equally fantastic theory that man "stands in need of saving." Such is not the case. Man stands in need of just one thing—THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN HIS LIFE HERE AND NOW. If that idea can be put across to the churches, then, of course, there terribly pagan ideas about a "god" dying on a cross for the sins of the world will perish. When these fantastic theories have perished, what shall we have left? . . . why we shall have left all of God there ever was, and in addition to that, man will then be able to discover God in the only place God has ever been which is accessible to man—and that is in man himself. That is the secret of God. That is what I am trying to drive home to all men and women. This it is which has caused so many cases of seeming "miracles" to come along in the wake of this teaching. Just a few moments ago a letter came to my desk from a lady whose son was dying of polio. The attending physicians said there was not one chance in a hundred of recovery. She contacted me and I threw the Power of God against that illness. If it were not for the fact that this lady would be flooded with mail and visitors, I should give you the name and address. But you will please believe me, I know. Well, inside of two weeks from the day she received my answer, THE POLIO HAD DISAPPEARED AND THERE HAD BEEN A COMPLETE RECOVERY, LEAVING THE ATTENDING PHYSICIANS COMPLETELY BAFFLED. This is what I mean when I speak of the Power of The Spirit of God operating in a human body. I recall this particular request coming in. It stands out from the tens of thousands of similar requests which we receive. Some how or other, I knew that The Spirit of God would work instantly in this case, but I also knew that the mother would need some help, which I gladly gave. The marvel to me is these cases do not make the front pages of the newspapers and magazines. It is actually uncanny that this is not so. Of course, I try to keep them all from giving any publicity to them, because there would immediately be a greater rush to Moscow than I could handle, so it's just as well. However, when I tell you that instances like this are the rule, and not the exception, you will understand just what The Spirit of God is accomplishing in human lives throughout the world.

I know of no church which can do these things. Nor do I know of another organization which, in nearly twenty years, has had considerably over half a million such cases. Truly, The Spirit of God is working through this Psychiana Movement with a vengeance. When such cases as polio, considered hopeless by the attending physicians, instantly recover, when cancer cases, diabetes, and all other diseases disappear, you may be sure there can be just one Power which is causing these things to happen. It most certainly is not Frank B. Robinson, for he has no Power. But in the body of Frank B. Robinson, and in your body too, LIVES THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD. This it is which does these healings. I just know how I can use that Power, no matter who the party or how far the distance, and THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN ME, BEING THE SAME SPIRIT WHICH IS IN THE BODY OF THE AFFLICTED ONE, UNDERSTAND MY DESIRE THAT THE BODY OF THE AFFLICTED ONE BE HEALED, AND SO IT IS. IT HAPPENS IN ALMOST EVERY CASE.

Going back to the letter from the Navy chaplain, which still lies on my desk, let me quote to you what he said when he read a few cases of the instant healing of cancer, and these other diseases, by the Power of God. This is a very interesting remark, for every preacher in America possesses the same sentiments. They are sentiments of absolute unbelief and doubt, and so long as our preachers and priests, and our churches have such unbelief of God, this world WILL NOT accept their theologies. They are unreal. They limit the Power of God. Cases like this never come to the attention of ministers, because they know, and their congregations know that they would be utterly powerless to do one thing towards eliminating such diseases by the Power of The Spirit of God. But here is his statement quoted word for word:

“Instances of cancer being healed. Evidence of this? Medical societies would be set by the ears, and it would immediately become the sensation of the age, if demonstrable cures for cancer can be shown. Why not give up all medical research immediately.”

Of course, this “orthodox” chaplain believes in everything except the Power and Ability of God to heal the sick, and reveal Itself to men and women here and now, right on the earth where the Power of God is certainly needed as it never was needed before. I have for nearly twenty years, published the actual letters which have come to us, not in one cancer case, but in scores of them. The letters exist, and you may be sure we have them or we should not dare to publish them. But cancer is only one of the diseases which cannot withstand the healing Power of God. None of them can. And as far as the medical societies being "set by the ears," this gentleman does not know what prominent medical authorities are thinking. I was driving in Illinois recently with an outstanding physician—one who is certainly recognized as being one of the most successful practitioners in Illinois. She happens to be a lady physician. In the conversation I said to her: "Doctor R——— how does it happen you have so many remarkable recoveries?" This is her reply: "Doctor Robinson, I take every case I get to God, and I use the Power of The Spirit of God against that illness, and they all recover."

Another famous cancer specialist said to me not long ago: "Doctor Robinson, the physician who does not recognize the indwelling of The Spirit of God in all men and women is a back number." So you see, the Navy chaplain is a long way behind the times. He thinks that the healing of cancer and other diseases through The Spirit of God should make the front pages, and sometimes I am inclined to agree with him. Then, when I consider it, it seems to be more and more evident that these things are not only being done, but are being EXPECTED by the general public which, without doubt, is beginning to grasp nationally the truths I have been bringing to it for nearly twenty years.

In this letter there recurs time and time again, "if it be the will of God." This man is trying to limit the ability of God to heal the nations to His own will. In other words, it might not be the "will" of God at all to heal diseases or save this world. What a preposterous idea to attribute to The Almighty. Saving this world has always been the chief aim and desire and "will" of God. It is always the will of God to better human conditions. It is always the will of God to bring eternal life to the race. It is always the will of God to heal diseases and bring to men and women the world over, a superabundance of every good thing. Not only that, THE LAW WHICH IS GOD EXISTS FOR NO OTHER PURPOSE AND IT IS NOT THE "WILL" OF GOD WHICH DECIDES WHETHER ILLNESS BE HEALED OR THIS WORLD SAVED—BUT THE "WILL" OF MAN. Yet the church and the preachers insists that nothing good can ever come to this earth, or to us individuals, unless it is the "will of God." Usually, this "will of God" is used as an escape mechanism to hide their unwillingness to discover the Power of God in their lives. Instead, they chose to live a lazy life, loafing most of the week. Instead, they should keep their churches open twenty-four hours a day, and someone who can reveal the Power of The Spirit of God and heal diseases should be on hand every moment of the day and night, if needs be, for emergency cases. Instead, what do we find? Well I won't go into it for you know the situation as well as I. It is not of God. It is based on "UNBELIEF" instead of simple child-like faith in the existence and willingness and ability of The Creator to SAVE THIS WORLD NOW. But that, of course, would take away the need for these preachers, so they religiously attempt to refute either the Power or the ability or the "willingness" of God to operate in every life which recognizes The Spirit of God in the life, regardless of what church beliefs he or she might hold. So long as this morass of unbelief and denial of the Power of God exists, these churches will go by the board, finally becoming obsolete as they are fast doing. Every once in a while, a man like Dunnington of The First Methodist Church of Iowa City steps into the limelight. He comes right out and gives away affirmation of faith cards. He doesn't tell men and women that unless they believe that "Almighty God was killed on a cross for the sins of the world," they shall all be damned. He does not tell them that unless they believe in The Apostles Creed, or judgment after death, or hell-fire, they shall all be damned. Not a bit of it. He tells them that The Spirit of God lives in them and is available to them at every hour of the day or night. And what happens when those truths are taught from a Christian pulpit? . . . well Dr. Dunnington has to hold two services every Sunday morning to accommodate the soul-hungry crowds. One service at 9:30 and the other at 11:00 a. m. If very Christian priest and preacher would start teaching the actual Power of The Spirit of God in every human body here and now, forgetting completely all the ridiculous creeds, rites, rituals, and formalistic hodge-podge which the church has saturated itself in, they too would not be able to hold the crowds which would come to hear them. For men and women would instinctively know that when a preacher tells them that they can find all the Power there is in the Realm of The Spirit of God, and can find that Power here and now, that man is telling the truth, and they will flock to get that Power. It's as simple as that. But all of these foolish dark-age theories of Almighty God being born of a virgin, immaculately conceived, crucified on a cross, raised from the dead—all of that sort of tripe will have to be dispensed with before the churches and their ministers are even qualified to tell others about God.

This is plain speaking. But not too plain. It is the truth, and that cannot be made too plain. I realize that this means that the entire Christian structure will have to be revamped, and these very fundamentals on which it was erected, and which are supposed to be the actual truths of God, will have to be discarded, for it so happens that in the light of what we are discovering about the REAL TRUTHS OF GOD, what has been offered the people by these churches is not truth in any sense of the word.

I am not the one to sugar-coat spiritual truth, nor am I the one to put spiritual truth in a worldly capsule so that men and women won't know what's inside the capsule. These things I am telling you are TRUTH. Then it becomes my plain duty to tell you of these things without fear. I have been known not to have any fear of any sort in my make-up. If I had, I should not be the man for this job. Plain unvarnished truth will always win. There will undoubtedly be a fight against truth by those whose religious concepts are brutally jarred by the truth, but the wise man who is in the business of dispensing spiritual truth, will plunge right into the truths he has learned of God, and will fearlessly proclaim those truths to the world, no matter whether the churches ministers or priests like it or not. TRUTH will protect itself. It will make its own way. It will catalize untruth, even in high places. There is not a religious organization in existence which can survive on the doctrines it teaches today. If they will all follow Dunnington, and a few others, they will not only survive but they will send a band of spiritual hope and Power out into this world whose results will be untold and totally unexpected. This is a world in which religious untruth is rampant. This is the reason the world does not know God. This is the reason humanity stands on the verge of destroying itself. RELIGIOUS UNTRUTHS. So shall we all then, knowing what the truth is, boldly tell others, allowing the Truth of the message to win its own way around the world? That is exactly what I expect from YOU. I expect you to speak with others every day, sending me their names and addresses so that I can secure them for Members in this organization. We have achieved miracles so far. We must do much better in the future. I can, and shall do my part, but I cannot do your part. That—you alone must do. It may seem insignificant to you, but believe me it is your duty. You are not a Member of Psychiana just for your own edification. You have a bounden duty, and I want you to do it faithfully. There will have to be definite moments each day, set aside for an all-out and complete "Talk with God." You cannot get along without these moments any more than I can. If you try to do that, you will stand still, and to stand still is to stagnate and die. This experience of living with God is a progressive experience. There is no such thing as attaining a certain peak of Cosmic Consciousness and then sitting on your oars, taking life easy. You cannot lose the spiritual experience you have, but there's an awful lot of spiritual experience you can miss by not keeping your moments spent alone with God. I would no more think of beginning a days work without talking with God about it than I would of jumping off the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge. I just could not keep this Movement alive. Neither will you keep your spiritual experience alive and powerful if you stand on laurels already won, forgetting or neglecting to press on to higher heights and higher grounds than you have attained before.

With the world in the shape it is in, how can you let a day go by and not tell others about The Power of God? The churches do that, but look where they are. As I write this, there is a Convention of The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ going on a few miles from here in Seattle, Washington. YET—IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT OF THE POPULATION OF THAT STATE DO NOT AFFILIATE WITH ANY CHURCH. Do you know why? I can tell you. This is a convention of the churches of "Christ" in America. It should be a convention of the churches of GOD in America. To me, it borders on idolatry to worship Christ as God, for He Himself said that He could do nothing of Himself. He plainly stated that HE WAS NOT ALMIGHTY GOD. But The Christian church insists that it knows better than He did. It insists in worshipping Christ as God, and in doing that, it is, in my opinion, making itself an idolatrous organization.

I have pointed out to you before, and now point out again that IT IS THE MESSAGE JESUS BROUGHT TO THE EARTH WHICH WAS FROM GOD—NOT JESUS HIMSELF. That message is the very same message I am bringing to you now, and you know what that message is—THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD ACTUALLY LIVING IN YOUR BODY HERE AND NOW, WILLING, ABLE, AND ABUNDANTLY ANXIOUS

THAT YOU DRAW TO THE VERY FULL ON THIS POWER OF GOD FOR EVERY GOOD THING YOU CAN POSSIBLY NEED IN THIS LIFE. THAT WAS THE MESSAGE OF JESUS.

When He sent the disciples out, 2000 years ago, they healed all manner of diseases. They performed miracles. Yet today, ministers all over the land join hands with the Naval chaplain in DENYING THE POSSIBILITY OF THE VERY THINGS THE DISCIPLES WERE EQUIPPED TO DO, AFTER THEY HAD TALKED WITH JESUS. No wonder the Christian church is beside itself. No wonder it lies impotent while the world dies for want of knowledge of the Power of The Spirit of God. No wonder I say.

The question often arises, and I am often asked something like this: "Dr. Robinson—are there not certain limitations beyond which we may not go?" My answer to that one is invariably . . . NO—NO—NO. If there can be limitations to God, He cannot be God. If there are no limitations to God, and if The Power of The Spirit of God is instantly available to all men all the time, how can there possibly be limitations? Who can impose limitations on God? Shall I tell you just who can do that? YOU CAN. You cannot really impose limitations on The Almighty in you, but you can impose limitations on the volume of the Power of God you use. You may have been doing that. Now listen to me—I have cast off death four times. That fact can be verified by practicing physicians, Members of the A. M. A. I know whereof I speak. IF YOU HAD NOW, 100 PER CENT FAITH IN THE GOD IN YOU, THE RAISING OF THE DEAD WOULD BE A COMMONPLACE THING IN YOUR LIFE. But does such faith exist? I am afraid not. There are those who have come close to it, but you must remember we are creatures of heredity. We have been soaked in theological doubts and failure for so long that it may take some time before the human race can duplicate the works of Jesus, and those works included raising the dead. Jesus said: "THE THINGS THAT I DO SHALL YE DO ALSO." Either He meant that or He lied. I don't believe He lied. Do you? Then why cannot you and I duplicate the works He did? I'll tell you why. The representatives of Jesus (supposedly) have become so absolutely impotent as far as the Power of God goes that they do not even know what it is. How then can they teach others? How then can the works Jesus said we too should be able to do, be done when those blind leaders of the blind—ministers and priests—know nothing about the Power of God, and cannot even heal a headache through the Power of God, let alone a cancer or polio, or diabetes.

I think that Laodicean prophecy, to which I referred a few Lessons back, comes so very close to describing the position of the present-day church that whoever made it certainly was able to see 2000 years ahead, into the present day. Neither cold nor hot—so then, because thou art neither cold nor hot, I WILL SPUE THEE OUT OF MY MOUTH. That, my friend, is the condition of the Christian church today. I should like to do something to help it. Perhaps I can. But there will have to be a semblance of life among the dead bones first. Will that semblance come? It will in a part of the Christian church. As the Methodist Christian Advocate said, and as I quoted, Protestantism is divided into two parts. I expect the broader part to become still broader, and I expect the “narrow” part to become still narrower. This latter part we can discount. It can never have a part in the saving of this world. The “broad” half of Protestantism I have some great hopes for. I may be able to do something with that half. We shall see. But whether I am or not, my duty is first of all to my own organization, and that is where most of my efforts will be directed. With full cooperation of every Member of this organization, I see no limits to what we can accomplish for God and humanity. We should be able to do more than any other religious organization on earth to redeem man, and unite him to God. For, with us, is KNOWN SPIRITUAL TRUTH. We operate knowingly, and willingly, and intelligently through the actual Power of The Spirit of God. All I ask you to do is just your little part. If you will do that, I believe I can do whatever else may be necessary.

Many Members have caused to be inserted in newspapers, classified ads. asking other Members of Psychiana to get in touch with them. This has been very profitably done. Then, little groups are formed, and all details of the meetings are sent to me. If every one of you will tell another, then another, having these little group gatherings regularly, each week, I am sure we shall all be able to really get somewhere. It will not take too long before the country as a whole will take note that we have been with God, and I should not be surprised to see men and women flocking to us by the thousands. We probably see more of that now than any other major religion. But I am not satisfied. I want the whole world to know, as fast as possible, that the Power of The Spirit of God is on this earth, in them. More than that, I shall not be satisfied until I see a great national and international sweep to us. Then, when that has happened, you will find the Christian church will begin to revamp its doctrines and teachings, and when that happens, my work will be done. I shall then be very happy to lay down the weapons I have used, and get a little place, probably up at the head of the Snake River, and there live out the rest of my days, knowing that I shall have fought a good fight, finished my course, and that henceforth there will be greater glories than any I have known awaiting me. But let us not talk about that. There is much work to be done, and I want to be always on the job, doing my part. Don't forget—your quiet moments with God, plus a liberal use of the affirmations I have given you, will keep God, or rather the consciousness of God quite alive in you. And when the consciousness of God is alive, the POWER of God will also be alive, for the consciousness of God and the Power of God always go together. In other words, it is not possible for you to be conscious of the presence of God in you, and not have the Power of God in you too. Also, the Power is there, always. And when it is, there too, usually is the consciousness of God. God and you, consciously united, make an unbeatable team. These two can overcome everything and anything. So keep that consciousness alive, and you can do that if you follow my instructions for so doing.

There are only two more Lessons to come to you. I want you to study them carefully, and read and re-read them. Then, always make it a point to read one of these Lessons each day. When you get to number twenty-six, go back to number one, and go through the whole sequence again. I advise that. After all, what is there in this life which amounts to anything, except the Power of God? I hate to turn on the radio these days—the tales of misery, horror, and suffering are of such a nature that I don't even want to hear of them. Then, too, the misery there is in the nations of the world. I admire every attempt on the U.N.O. or any other organization to bring peace to the earth by plan and device. But I doubt that any such plan can work. IF THE CREATOR IS NOT TAKEN INTO THE PICTURE, HOW CAN IT WORK? THE GREATEST POWER IN THIS WORLD IS THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD, AND IF THAT POWER IS IGNORED IN THESE MEETINGS, HOW CAN THEY POSSIBLY BE A SUCCESS? They cannot. One atom of the Power of God is more powerful than all the armaments the United Nations possess. One atom of the Power of God could bring permanent peace, joy, happiness, and eternal life to this earth. But do we see this Power given a chance? Turn on the radio and leave it on for one day. What do you hear? Impossible claims for cigarettes. Soap operas. Murder cases and the rest of that stuff. But try to tell men and women over the air that the Power of The Spirit of God lives in them, ever ready, willing, and anxious to save this world from itself, and you would see the greatest religious inquiry ever to be known to man in this country. As it is, we have the Catholic Hour. Then the Mormon Hour. Then the Protestant Hour and the Lutheran Hour. Then a lot of religious racketeers who ought to be in jail. And while we listen to this hodgepodge of theological tripe, this world slowly but surely drives towards a holocaust which will, if not stopped, bring this civilization to the brink of doom. We are in the throes of a labor insurrection, almost, as I write this. John L. Lewis is defying the U. S. Courts. That's dangerous, but it is only one of many signs which tell those who know how to read them that the end of this dispensation is close at hand. I do so hope that something I can say or do can help ward off the frightful end which may be closer than many think.

Man without God could work out his own salvation if he knew how to, but he does not know how to. But if man tried that, before he got very far he would be forced to the inevitable conclusion that God already is in him. That is the point at which I drive. Man might think, at the start of such efforts that he could finally arrive at a place where he could work out his own salvation, without the apparent help of God. But if he did, when he really had things worked out, he would find that he had been using the Power of The Spirit of God and not knowing it. Many people do that. But how much better it is to know what one is doing, and consciously apply the Power of God for the manifestation of the specific things one knows one needs. Nothing blind about that, is there?

I know people who daily use the Power of The Spirit of God in their lives, yet, when I have accused them of using this Power unintelligently, they have denied that they know anything about God. Of course, what they mean is that they are not church-members, and know nothing about church theology. I agree that this is not of God. Yet these men do actually use the Power of God in their lives and businesses, and they do not know the nature of the Power they use. There are so many examples of this that they are all around us.

But as I say, you can use the Power of God consciously and intelligently, and that is far better, is it not? I shall bring this Lesson to a close with the thought that here is a good place for you to check up on your progress. Look yourself in the face with the question of whether or not you have a little group meeting in your home. Ask yourself when you sent me a list of people whom you have spoken to about the Power of The Spirit of God. If you have not, or are not keeping me supplied with these names, then won't you start now? Remember, these good people will be more anxious to hear these truths of God than you will be to tell them. Keep alone with God much of the time until your next Lesson comes to you.
