THE COMPLETE DREAM BOOK.

WE shall begin this work with the explanation of dreams, which have always a reference to some transaction that is about to take place; for if a man was narrowly to watch his dreams, he would find that he was always forewarned of the occurrences about to happen in those moments, when both the body and mind seem lost in the soft slumbers of oblivion. For the sake of enabling our readers more readily to refer to them, we have arranged them alphabetically.

ONEIROLOGY;

Or, the science of foretelling future events by Dreams.

ABUSE.

To dream that you are abused and insulted, is a certain sign that some dispute will happen between you and some person with whom you have business; therefore, after such a dream, you should be particularly careful of yourself and be as gentle and mild as possible, that you may not give those with whom you have dealings any advantage over you—if you are in love, be assured that some one has attempted to injure you with the object of your affections, and that they have in a great measure succeeded—you should, therefore, after such a dream, be particularly complaisant and attentive; by this means you will eradicate the unfavorable impressions that have been made against you—if you have a law-suit, keep a sharp look out after your attorney, for such a dream in that case denotes, that he is endeavouring to sell your cause—avoid, after such a dream, taking a journey by land, or a voyage by sea, for eight and forty hours, because such a dream forebodes accidents by travelling.

ADULTERY.

To dream of the commission of this sin, forebodes great troubles and misfortunes—if you are in love, you will certainly fail in marrying the object of your wishes—if you have a law-suit, it will certainly go against you, by the treachery of those who pretend to be your friends—if you are in business some heavy loss will happen to you. Such a dream announces that you are in great danger of losing your liberty—and if you are about to take a voyage by sea, omit it for the present, for you will never reach the destined port. To dream you were tempted to commit this crime, and that you resisted it, is an happy omen—every thing will flourish with you—be sure it is a good time to begin trade after such a dream—if you have a law-suit all will go in your favor, with credit to yourself and confusion to your opponents—if you are about to take a long journey, it will be pleasant and successful to your object—if you are going to sea, you will have an agreeable voyage, fine weather, and a quick arrival at the port of destination—if you are in love, press the object of your wishes for they will be gratified.

ABEL.

To dream of this second son of Adam, the victim of his brother's vengeance and jealousy, and the first man that stained the earth with his blood, is a favorable omen, portends future elevation and grandeur—if you have a law-suit, it will terminate in your favor—if you are in love, the mistress of your heart will be kind and faithful—if you are about to commence trade, your business will thrive, and you will become rich—if you are a farmer, be sure of good crops the ensuing season—if you are about to undertake a journey, it will be prosperous to you; in short, expect to rise to honours, dignity, and affluence: observe one thing, that should he speak to you in your dream, you should be very careful to mind what he says, as otherwise you may mar all your good fortune, and reverse every benefit that fortune has in store for you.

ABRAHAM.

To dream of this patriarch is favorable to the person who dreams; it in general denotes accumulation of riches and of honours; in a woman, it denotes, that she will have many children; if you are in love, it denotes you will have many rivals; if you have a law-suit, it forebodes that many difficulties will occur—if you are in business, then it portends a great increase of your business, and that you will employ many hands to conduct it; you must also be very observant of what he says to you, for he will perhaps inform you how to avoid some misfortune, or how to attain to riches and honors.

ADAM.

To dream you see this father of man, this inhabitant of Paradise, who was betrayed by Eve into sin, is an happy omen ; if he looks pleasant be sure you will succeed in whatever you undertake—if you are in love, expect your mistress to smile on your love, and to reward your constancy—if you have a law-suit, expect it to be given much in your favor by the judge—if you are a farmer, expect an abundant crop, and that your pigs, poultry, and cattle, will increase very fast, and be of a good kind, and fetch the best price at market—if you are about to quit your native place, abandon the idea, for depend some benefit is in store for you in the place where you had birth—if you have already quitted it, I would advise you, if you can, to return, for there lies your fortune and prosperity ; do not undertake journies unless absolutely necessary, for although they will be successful, yet you will still be more fortunate by resting at home—if he looks displeased and angry, then you must use great caution in all your dealings, for some mischief is intended you, but you will get the better of it ; but on no account undertake a voyage by sea, neither borrow nor lend money, for at least a month or two, because, if you do, you will lose what you lend, and what you borrow will bring you into trouble ; be careful, if he speaks to you, to mind what he says, and observe it as faithfully as you possibly can.

ADVERSARY.

To dream you meet with an adversary denotes that you will overcome some obstacle to your happiness—if you are a lover, you will conquer some powerful rival, and be happy in your love; it also denotes, that your affairs are going on well—if you are soliciting a place, it portends you are about to get it; if you are in trade, it forebodes some good orders, and an increase of business; if you quarrel, and he overcomes you, it is a good sign, for you will conquer all obstacles to your promotion, happiness, and fortune; but if you conquer him, then it denotes that you will never rise to any great preferment by the means you are at present adopting; that many things will miscarry with you, but in general you will be fortunate—should he draw blood of you, you will surely lose your liberty for a time, but will afterwards be flourishing and happy.

ACQUAINTANCE.

To dream you quarrel or fight with an acquaintance is an unlucky omen; it forebodes a division among your own family, much to the injury and prejudice of the dreamer—if you are in love, your mistress will prove unfaithful, and marry some other man that she has told you she most hates—if you are in business, some heavy loss will befall you; you will disagree with some of your best friends on the most trivial matters, which will end in an open rupture; if you are a farmer, expect a bad crop, the murrain among your cattle; that your pigs and poultry will fail, and not fetch good prices—if you have a law-suit, depend, that your attorney will neglect you, that your witnesses will be tardy and backward, and that finally you will lose your cause. Do not for some time undertake a journey by land, or a voyage by sea: enter for the present into no new undertaking, for you will be unsuccessful; quit, if you can, your present place of residence ; and above all, avoid lending money, for you will surely lose it, together with the friendship of those to whom you lend it.

AGUE.

To dream you have an ague, denotes nothing very particular, more than you are in danger of becoming a drunkard and a glutton. If you have any relation or friend that is ill, it denotes they will recover. And if you have a law-suit, that it will be settled in your favor. If you are in love, it forewarns you, that if you do not immediately marry you will lose your mistress. If you dream another has an ague, then it denotes a variety of fortune, that you will sometimes be rich, and sometimes poor ; that you will have much trouble, lose your liberty, and die before you are fifty. To dream your sweetheart has an ague, is a lucky omen, it shews you are beloved, and that you will be happy with the object of your wishes, but never very rich.

AIR.

To dream of the atmosphere, has a variety of interpretations, and depends entirely on the different appearances it has. If you dream the sky is clear, of a fine blue, calm and serene, then it is a good omen ; you will be successful in your enterprises ; if you are soliciting any place or preferment, you will surely obtain it—if you are in love, you will surely marry the object of your affections—have you a law-suit ? you will gain it—are you in trade ? it will flourish and be profitable—are you a farmer ? good crops will attend you, your cattle will increase, your pigs and poultry will be abundant, your commodities will fetch a good price at market ; are you married ? you will have many children, and they will be dutiful and do well. Are you about to undertake a journey? it will answer your utmost expectations; are you going to sea? you will have a pleasant and prosperous voyage; are you in debt? you will speedily be enabled to extricate yourself from it; are you in prison? you will shortly be set at liberty; are you going into business? you will succeed, and have many friends; are you in poverty? riches will quickly drive away its remembrance; have you a quarrel? it will soon be made up to your advantage; in short, whatever point you aim at, it will be crowned with success.

To dream it is streaked with white, denotes that many severe difficulties will befall you, over which you will eventually triumph; you will perhaps go to jail, but you will come out again shortly with honor and credit to yourself; it forbodes that many enemies will attack you both openly and secretly, that they will appear to have the advantage over you for a time, but in the end they will be routed and overcome by you; your children will get into troubles, out of which you will extricate them; if you are in love, many crosses will happen to you, and for a time you will appear to lose the affections of your sweetheart, but in the end you will marry and be happy, and have fine children; if you have a law-suit, you will have much trouble and vexation, but you will gain it after all; if you are in business, many difficulties will occur, which friends will remove, and you will at last be prosperous; if you go to sea, you will be cast away, but get safe ashore, and be favorably received by the inhabitants of the country; if you borrow money, you will be much slandered and abused by the person who lends it to you; if you lend money, you will have great trouble in recovering it; it portends, that you will have a light illness, but your health will be much better afterwards.

To dream that it is full of thick, dark, and heavy clouds, is an unfavorable token; you will fall sick and perhaps die; disappointments will attend your business; if you are in love, you will not marry the person you intended; if you have a law-suit you will lose it; if you go to sea you will have bad weather, meet with storms and shipwreck, and lose all your property; you will lose some friend, or near relation by death; many friends will desert you; you will grow melancholy, and every thing will cross your expectations; therefore, after such a dream you should change your situation, be what it may.

To dream that the sky is streaked with red, and looks fiery, denotes, that in love you will be successful; in business not so; it also forewarns you that some friend or relation will be killed in battle, and that sickness will attend your family; if you have a son he will get into many difficulties, and narrowly escape losing his life; a journey by land will injure your health and pocket, but a voyage by sea will be prosperous, and conducive to your health—if you are in prison, you will remain there sometime—if you owe any money, I advise you to pay it immediately, otherwise it will bring you into trouble—whatever you lend you will loose; but if you have any hopes of getting a place, you will, after some trouble, succeed, and it will turn out lucrative—it also denotes that the next woman you meet, not of your own family, will be your enemy and endeavour to do you an injury; this you may prevent by being very civil and obliging to her, which will allay her resentments against you—if you are a farmer you will have but indifferent crops, and will lose some of your horses by sickness or accident—if your father and you are at variance, depend it will be speedily made up, and that he will befriend you; but be very cautious of quarrelling, for you will have the worst of it—you will get some small matter by legacy, but it will not do you much good.

ALTAR.

To dream you are at the altar and receiving the holy sacrament, is a very unfavourable omen and denotes many heavy and severe afflictions, and that you will be very unsuccessful in your pursuits, and have much trouble in overcoming your difficulties. If you are in love, your sweetheart will die before you marry, or else be removed very far from you forever—if you are in business, heavy losses will attend you, and you will with great difficulty keep from going to prison—you will lose many friends by death—sickness will come upon you and your family, and your children will be undutiful and turn out bad.

ANCHOR.

To dream of this emblem of hope, denotes some good to the dreamer; it forebodes many unexpected successes. If you are in love, it warns you to be assiduous and attentive to obtain the object of your wishes, otherwise your passion will not meet with success—if you are in trade, then it forebodes success at a distant period, after you had nearly given over all expectation of doing well; expect shortly to see some friend who has been at sea, and that he has escaped some perilous situation—it forebodes, that lawsuits will attend you, in which you will not gain much, although you will not be much injured by them—beware of some friend who pretends you more than ordinary attachment, he will deceive you, and endeavour though vainly to harm you; you will have many children, chiefly girls, and the third born will be the best off in this world.

ANGELS.

To dream you see angels in your sleep, is a sure sign that some one is near you—therefore be mindful of the rest of your dream, for it will come to pass pretty accurately; should you only dream you see nothing but an angel, or angels, then it denotes health, prosperity, and much happiness, with many children, who will all turn out good. If a woman with child dreams of them, she will have a good time and perhaps twins—if you are in love, nothing can be more favourable, and all your undertakings will prosper, and be advantageous to you.

ANGER.

To dream that you are in a passion and angry with any one, denotes you have many enemies, and that some evil design is formed against your happiness and security—if you are in love, be sure that some dangerous rival is slandering you to your sweetheart—if you are at law with any one, depend that secret attempts are making to sell your cause; if you are in business look carefully after your servants, for you are forewarned that they are about to plunder you, and do you an injury; be careful whom you trust, for some swindler will attempt to defraud you, and without great care on your part will be successful. If you are going a journey, avoid travelling by night or alone in bye places; for such a dream denotes, you will be robbed and ill treated—if you dream you see another in a passion with you, it is rather more favorable, but still forebodes some very unpleasant misfortunes about to happen to you; if you are in love, your sweetheart will fall sick and experience some heavy loss. If you are in business some creditors will become very troublesome to you, and perhaps arrest you; if you have a lawsuit, you will find great difficulty in getting money to carry it on; if you are going to sea, storms will arise, and you will have a very dangerous passage; if you journey by land, you will fall sick on the road and be unsuccessful in what you are about.

ANTS.

To dream of these industrious little insects, hath a variety of interpretations, and depends upon the manner in which you dream of them; if you see them running about, it denotes that you will be a great loser by some plan that you will undertake for gain, and that you will be considerably the sufferer by an avaricious disposition; if you are in love, too great a regard to the dower of your intended wife will break off the match; if you are going to sea with merchandize, you will be taken in when you most expect to make a good bargain. If you have a lawsuit, you will lose it, although circumstances may appear much in your favour. In short, some speculation by which you expect to make much money, will go very near to ruin you. If you dream you see them busily employed laying in their winter stores, it is a good omen—things will prosper with you; if you undertake a journey, it will turn out well; if you are in love, your love will be crowned with success;

if you are in business, your affairs will prosper, and you will grow rich, get many friends, and arrive at considerable honors in the state; if you are a farmer, plentiful crops of corn will gild your fields; your hay harvest will be abundant; your cattle will multiply; your sows will have large litters; your hens will hatch many chickens; your poultry in general will increase very fast and your commodities will fetch the best price at market. If you go to sea, you will get money by it; if you are married, you will have an affectionate wife and many children, with ample means of supporting them; in short, your concerns will prosper, and you will be very happy. If they appear to be devoured by other animals, and otherwise injured and trodden upon, then it is a bad omen; secret enemies are compassing your ruin; some bosom friend will deceive you; your sweetheart will be unkind and perhaps unfaithful; your business will be unproductive, bad crops will attend your cultivation, and your commodities will not fetch a good price at market. If you go to sea, misfortunes will attend your voyage; if you have a lawsuit, you will surely lose it by the perfidy of some pretended friend; if you journey by land, you will be attacked by robbers, and robbed of whatever you have; if they are entirely destroyed, you will get into prison, your business will fail; if you are in love, your sweetheart will not reward your passion; if you are a farmer, your cattle will die of the murrain, and your crops be unproductive; if you go to sea, you will be cast away and lose your all; if you expect a place you will be disappointed; and if you are in a good place, you will surely lose it; sickness will attack you, your thread of life will be cut short; your children will die, and your wife become unfaithful; in short, the most dismal reverse will happen to you, and disaster attend all your attempts; if you dream of these insects when you are sick, you must expect to recover very slowly, and to be a long time before you are able to work.

APES.

To dream of these mischievous animals, forebodes no good; they are a certain sign of wicked and secret enemies, who will seek by many devices to injure you, be therefore upon your guard, for some one who pretends to be your friend, is about to deceive you, and you are very near losing your liberty; after such a dream a change of place is adviseable; if you are in love, do not attempt to marry your then sweetheart, for he or she will prove unfaithful, and involve you in much trouble; if you have a law-suit with any one, make it up as soon as you can, otherwise it will injure you greatly: if you are in business, be extremely circumspect in your transactions, for danger is near; you will lose some friends by the malicious persecution of a pretended friend of your own.

cel of goods you purchase you will lose by; if you are a farmer, beware what company you keep when you go to market, for sharpers will lay wait for you, and endeavour to cheat you; if it is hay time, look well to your hay ricks, for such a dream denotes that a rick will take fire, and be burnt to rubbish; some quarrel will ensue between you and a friend, which will end to your disadvantage.

If you dream you are walking in an extensive wood, it denotes that you will quickly fall in love, and also that you will be often married.

Wool—To dream you are buying or selling of wool, denotes prosperity and affluence by means of industry and trade ; to the lover, it is a favorable omen, your sweetheart is thereby shewn to be of an amiable disposition, very constant, and deeply in love with you. To dream of having wool on your head instead of hair, betokens a severe fit of illness, and unpleasant news from a far distant country

Wounds—To dream you are wounded is a very favorable omen, especially if it be with a sword; to the lover, it denotes success in your amours, and with an agreeable partner, who will be faithful and affectionate ; to the tradesman, profit and increase of business ; to the farmer, an increase in his cattle and plentiful crops ; to the sailor, a profitable voyage, with unexpected success in love.

Wrens....To dream of these pretty little birds, denotes great happiness and content through life ; to the lover they are particularly favorable, they shew your sweetheart to be of a kind and amiable temper, much attached to you, and one that will make you very happy in the marriage state.

Having now disposed, under general heads of the various interpretations of dreams, we wish to remark, that where ever we have made use of the word LOVER, we mean it to apply equally to the male and female. We also flatter ourselves, that the explanations will be found sufficiently copious to answer the expectations of all our readers, who will find them in comparison far beyond any thing of the kind ever yet published. Indeed, unless they were to pirate this work exactly they can never produce more than a mutilated and defective account of the science, because we are well assured, that the original manuscripts were never seen by any person in England, except the translators ; we shall therefore conclude this article with advice how to obtain a clear and decisive informatioe upon any particular dream, which is as follows.

When you dream of any thing that you want to have duly explained write the subject dreamt of, on a piece of fair paper, fold this paper in the form of a heart, get a gill of red wine, dip the paper in it, and lay it under your pillow ; just as you are going to bed you must drink of the wine at three draughts.

By following this mode punctually, you will in your next dream have the full explanation of your former one. This mode also will enable the lover to dream of your sweetheart, by writing the name of him or her on a small piece of gilt paper, and observing the instructions above directed ; mind the sir and christian names must be written at full length, also the age.

NÆVIOLOGY ;

Or the science of foretelling future events by Moles.

THESE little marks on the skin, though they appear to be the effect of chance or accident, and might easily pass the unthinking for things of no moment, are nevertheless of the utmost consequence, since from their color, situation, size and figure, may be accurately gathered the temper of, and the events that will happen the person bearing them—as our philosopher who was a most excellent anatomist, made these signs, from a very particular branch of his studies, the result of his great labors and long experience, will, we doubt not be found very agreeable to our readers, and we shall accordingly proceed to give them a faithful translation of his observations. To enable them to turn more easily to the definitions, we have arranged them under heads in the same manner as we have before observed in the expounding of dreams.

A MOLE

On the wrist, or between that and the finger ends—Shews the person to be of an ingenious and industrious turn, faithful in his engagements, amorous and constant in his affections, rather of a saving disposition, with a great degree of sobriety and regularity in his dealings. It shews a comfortable acquisition of fortune, with a good partner and beautiful children, but some disagreeable circumstance will happen about the age of thirty, which will continue four or five years. In a man, it denotes being twice married; in a woman only once, but that she will survive her husband.

Between the Elbow and the wrist—Shews a placid and cheerful disposition, industry, and a love of reading particularly books of science—it foretells much prosperity and happiness towards the middle of life, but after having undergone many hardships, if not imprisonment—it also denotes that your eldest son will rise to honors in the state, and marry a woman not of his own country, who will bring him much riches.

Near either Elbow—Shews a restless and unsteady disposition, with a great desire of travelling; much discontented in the married state, and of an idle turn—it indicates no very great prosperity, rather of a sinking than rising of condition, with many unpleasant adventures, much to your discredit—marriage with a person who will make you unhappy, and children who will be disobedient, and cause you much trouble.

On the right or left arm—Shews a courageous disposition, great fortitude, resolution, industry, and conjugal fidelity—it foretells that the person will fight many battles, and be successful in all; that you will be prosperous in your undertakings, obtain a decent competency, and live very happy—it denotes that a man will be a widower at forty, but in a woman it shews that she will be survived by her husband.

It denotes a life not much varied either with pleasures or misfortunes—they indicate many children, and moderate success in business, but dangers by sea.

On the right shoulder—Shews a person of a prudent and discreet temper, one possessed of much wisdom, given to great secrecy, very industrious, but not very amorous, yet faithful to conjugal ties—it indicates great prosperity and advancement in life, a good partner, and many friends, with great profit from a journey to a distant country about the age of thirty-five.

On any part from the shoulders to the loins—Shews an even and mild temper, given to sloth, and rather cowardly, very amorous, but unfaithful; it denotes decay in health and wealth, with troubles and difficulties in the decline of life, and much vexation from children.

On the nether jaw—Shews a woman that she shall lead her life in sorrow and pain of body which shall hinder her from attaining and bearing of children. If a man shall have the form of a mole on his tongue, it doth demonstrate that he shall marry with a rich and beautiful woman.

If a man shall have a mole in a manner behind the neck, it doth demonstrate that he shall be beheaded except God (through earnest prayer) prevent the same.

If a woman shall have a mole on the throat, it doth signify that she shall marry both with a wealthy, and very fair, or comely man, it also signifies she will have many children.

On the right thigh—Shews the person to be of an agreeable disposition, inclined to be amorous, and very courageous—it also denotes success in life, accumulation of riches by marriage, and many fine children, chiefly girls.

On the left thigh—Shews a good and benevolent disposition, a great turn for industry, and little inclined to the pleasures of love—it indicates many sorrows in life, great poverty and unfaithful friends, and imprisonment by false swearing.

On the left knee—Shews an hasty and passionate disposition, extravagant and inconsiderate turn, with no great inclination to industry and honesty, much given to the pleasures of Venus, but possessed of much benevolence—it indicates good success undertakings, particularly in contracts, a rich marriage, and an only child.

On the right knee—Shews an amiable temper, honest disposition, and a turn for amorous pleasures and industry—it foretels great success in love, and the choice of a conjugal partner, with few sorrows, many friends and dutiful children.

On either leg—Shews a person of a thoughtless indolent disposition, of an amorous turn, and much given to extravagance and dissipation—it denotes many difficulties through life, but that you will surmount them all—it shews that imprisonment will happen to you at an early age, but that in general you will be more fortunate than otherwise; you will marry an agreeable person, who will survive you, by whom you will have four children, two of which will die young.

On either ankle—Shews an effeminate disposition, given so foppery in dress, and cowardice in a man; but in a woman it denotes courage, wit, and activity—they foretel success in life, with an agreeable partner, accumulation of honors and riches, and much pleasure in the affairs of love.

On either foot—Shews a melancholy and inactive disposition, little inclined to the pleasures of love, given to reading and a sedentary life—they foretel sickness, and unexpected misfortunes, with many sorrows and much trouble, an unhappy choice of a partner for life, with disobedient and unfortunate children.

On the right side of the forehead or right temple—Shews an active and industrious disposition, much given to the sports of love—it denotes that the person will be very successful in life, marry an agreeable partner, and arrive at unexpected riches and honors, and have a son who will become a great man.

On the right eye brow—Shews a sprightly, active disposition, a great turn for gallantry, much courage, and great perseverance—it denotes wealth and success in love war and business; that you will marry an agreeable mate, live happy, have children, and die at an advanced old age at a distance from home.

On the left eye brow, temple or side of the forehead—Shews an indolent, peevish temper, a turn for debauchery and liquor, little inclined to amorous sports, and very cowardly—it foretels poverty, imprisonment, and disappointments in all your undertakings, with undutiful children, and a bad tempered partner.

ably varied by pleasures and misfortunes—in general, it foreshews that poverty will keep at a distance.

On either cheek—Shews an industrious, benevolent, and sober disposition, given to be grave and solemn, little inclined to amorous sports, but of a steady courage and unshaken fortitude—it denotes a moderate success in life, neither becoming rich nor falling into poverty—it also foretels an agreeable and industrious partner, with two children, who will do better than the parents.

On the chin—Shews an amiable and tranquil disposition, industrious, and much inclined to travelling and the joys of Venus—it denotes that the person will be highly successful in life, accumulating a large and splendid fortune, with many respectable and worthy friends, an agreeable conjugal partner, and fine children—but it also indicates losses by sea and in foreign countries.

On either lip—Shews a delicate appetite, a sober disposition, and much given to the pleasures of love, of an industrious and benevolent turn—it denotes that the person will be successful in undertakings, particularly in love affairs—that you will rise above your present condition, and be greatly respected and esteemed, that you will endeavour to obtain some situation, in which you will at first prove unsuccessful, but afterwards prevail.

On the nose—Shews an hasty and passionate disposition much given to amorous pleasures, faithful to engagements, candid, open, and sincere in friendship, courageous and honest, but very petulant, and rather given to drink—it denotes great success through life and in love affairs, that you will become rich, marry well, have fine children, and be much esteemed by your neighbors and acquaintance—that you will travel much, particularly by water.

On the throat—Shews a friendly and generous disposition, of a sober turn, given to industry, extremely amorous, and much inclined to indulge in the joys of Venus—it denotes riches by marriage, and great success afterwards in your undertakings, with fine children, who will go to a far distant country where they will marry, grow rich, and return to their native land.

On the side of the neck—Shews a meek and sober disposition, moderately inclined to the pleasures of love, but firm and steady in friendship, rather given to industry—it denotes much sickness, and that you will be in great danger of suffocation, but that you will rise to unexpected honors and dignity, receive large legacies, and grow very rich—but also that your children will fall into poverty and disgrace.

On the right breast—Shews an intemperate and indolent disposition, rather given to drink, strongly attached to the joys of love—it denotes much misfortunes in life, with a sudden reverse from riches to poverty—many unpleasant and disagreeable accidents, with a sober and industrious partner; many children, mostly girls, who will marry well, and be a great comfort to your old age; it warns you to beware of pretended friends who will harm you much.

On the left breast—Shews an industrious and sober disposition, amorous and much given to walking; it denotes great success in life and in love, that you will accumulate riches, and have many children, mostly boys, who will make their fortunes by sea.

On the bosom—Shews a quarrelsome and unhappy temper, given to low debauchery, and exceedingly amorous, indolent and unsteady; it denotes a life neither very prosperous nor very miserable, but passed without many friends or much esteem.

Under the left breast over the heart—Shews a rambling unsettled disposition, given to drinking, and little careful of your actions, very amorous, and much given to indulge indiscriminately in the pleasures of love, in a man. In a woman it indicates sincerity in love, industry and a strict regard for character; in life it denotes a mixture of good and bad fortune, the former rather prevailing; it denotes imprisonment for debt, but not of long duration; to a woman, it denotes easy labors and children who will become rich, live happy and respected, and marry well.

On the right side near any part of the ribs—Shews an indolent cowardly disposition, given to excessive drinking, of an inferior capacity, and little inclined to the pleasures of love; it denotes an easy life rather of poverty than riches, little respected, a partner of an uneven and disagreeable temper, with undutiful children, who will fall into many difficulties.

On the belly—Shews an indolent slothful disposition, given to gluttony, very selfish, addicted to the pleasures of love and drink, negligent of dress, and cowardly; it denotes small success in life, many crosses, some imprisonment, and travelling, with losses by sea, but it foretels that you will marry an agreeable partner of a sweet temper, have children who will be industrious and become very respectable in life.

On the privy members or parts—Shews a generous, open, and honest disposition, extremely disposed to gallantry and the joys of Venus, given to sobriety and of undaunted courage: it denotes great success in the latter part of life, but many and severe misfortunes in the former which will be borne with fortitude; it also foretels an happy marriage and fine children who will be happy, thrive well, and grow rich and respectable: in man it shews that he will have natural children, who will cut a great figure in life, but he will experience much plague and vexation from their mother.

We shall remark to our readers, that it is of much importance to be particular in ascertaining the exact situation of the Moles, its form, whether it be round, angular or oblong; also its size and color, because these variations add or diminish the degree of those qualities and events which our author's explanation has attached to each; for example, if the mole be perfectly round, then it denotes much good fortune, if of an angular form, a mixture of good and bad fortune, if oblong, then a moderate portion of good, a kind of happy medium; the deeper the color the more powerful will be either the good or bad fortune indicated; the lighter in color either will be in a less degree; as our author has uniformly spoken of a mediate color neither dark nor light; if it be very hairy, it denotes many misfortunes, but not so if only a few long hairs grow upon it, for then it shews prosperity in your undertakings: again, the larger the mole is, the more serious will be either the prosperity or adversity predicted; and the smaller it is, the less of either will fall to your share; our author has taken the middling size.

Persons who wish to avail themselves fully of our author's information, should not suffer an overstrained bashfulness to prevent their obtaining accurate information with respect to the situation, size, form and color; especially as in women a mole is frequently so situated in those recesses which modesty conceals from view, as not to admit of being discovered but by another; and yet to have a mole so placed is the most fortunate for them.

CHARTOLOGY.

Or, the science of foretelling events by card-tossing.

AS many of those events about to happen may be easily gathered from the cards, we have here affixed the definition which each card in the pack bears separately; by the combining them the reader must judge for himself, observing the following direction, in laying them out: First, the person whose fortune is to be told, if a man, must chuse one of the four kings to represent himself—if a woman, she must select one of the queens, then the queen of the chosen king, or the king of the chosen queen, will stand for the husband or wife, mistress or lover of the party whose fortune is to be told, and the knave of the suit for the most intimate person of their family; you must then shuffle and cut the cards well, and let the person whose fortune is to be ascertained, cut them three times, shewing the bottom card; this must be repeated three times; then shuffle them again, let them be cut once, and display them on rows on a table, taking care always to have an odd number in each row, nine is the right number, and to place your cards exactly under each other, after this consult the situation in which the person stands by the definition we have here annexed to each card, and after having repeated it three times, form your conclusion, remember that every thing is within your circle as far as you can count thirteen any way from the card that represents the person, his wife, or her husband, and their intimate friend; and also that the thirteenth card every way is of the greatest consequence; either the whole pack, or only the picquet cards may be used.

Another mode with the picquet cards is to shuffle and cut them, take three cards from the top; if there be two of a suit, take out the highest card, if three, take all; when you have gone through the pack: shuffle and cut the remainder, and do as before, and repeat the same a third time, then take a general view of all the cards drawn, and next couple them, a top and a bottom card, then shuffle and cut them into three heaps, laying one apart in the first round to form a fourth heap; the first heap at the left hand relates to yourself entirely, the next to your family; the third is the confirmation of the former two; you must proceed a second and third time, adding each time one to the single card, and then three single cards given the connection of the operation ; observe you must add the card which represents the person whose fortune is consulted to the three, if it be not there already.

The ace of clubs—Promises great wealth, much prosperity in life, and tranquility of mind.

The king of clubs—Announces a man who is humane, upright, affectionate, and faithful in all his engagements ; he will be happy himself, and make every one with whom he has connection so if he can.

The knave of clubs—Shews a generous, sincere, and zealous friend, who will exert himself warmly for your interest and welfare.

The ten of clubs—Denotes great riches to come speedily from an unexpected quarter ; but it also threatens that you will at the same time lose some very dear friend.

The nine of clubs—Shews that you will displease some of your friends by too steady an adherence so your own way of thinking : nor will your success in the undertaking reconcile them to you, or procure you your own approbation.

The eight of clubs—Shews the person to be covetous, and extremely fond of money ; that he will obtain it, but that it will rather prove a torment than a comfort to him, as he will not make a proper use of it.

The seven of clubs—Promises the most brilliant fortune, and the most exquisite bliss that this world can afford ; but beware of the opposite sex, from them alone you can experience misfortune.

The six of clubs—Shews you will engage in a very lucrative partnership, and that your children will behave well.

The five of clubs—Declares that you will shortly be married to a person who will mend your circumstances.

The four of clubs—Shews incontinence for the sake of money, and frequent change of object.

The tray of clubs—Shews that you will be three times married, and each time to a wealthy person.

This card will equally answer for a woman's being kept by three rich men according to her station.

The deuce of clubs—Shews that there will be some unfortunate opposition to your favorite inclination, which will disturb you.

The ace of diamonds—Shews a person who is fond of rural sports, a great builder, and a gardner; one who delights in planting and laying out groves, woods, shrubberies, and other such amusements; but that his enterprises of this nature will have success or disappointment according to the cards that are near it; it likewise signifies a letter.

The king of diamonds—Shews a man of a fiery temper, preserving his anger long, seeking for opportunities of revenge, and obstinate in his resolutions.

The queen of diamonds—Signifies that the woman will not be a steady and industrious house-keeper; that she will be fond of company, be a coquette, and not over virtuous.

The knave of diamonds—However nearly related, will look more at his own interest than yours: he will be tenacious of his own opinions, and will fly off if contradicted.

The ten of diamonds—Promise a country husband or wife with great wealth and many children; the card next to it will tell the number of the children: it also signifies a purse of gold.

The nine of diamonds—Declares that the person will be of a roving disposition, never contented with his lot, and forever meeting with vexations and disappointments, and risks a shameful end.

The eight of diamonds—Shews that the person in their youth will be an enemy to marriage, and thus run the risque of dying unmarried; but that if they do marry, it will be late in life, and then it will be with a person whose disposition is so ill assorted to theirs, that it will be the cause of misfortunes.

The seven of diamonds—Shews that you will spend your happiest days in the country, where, if you remain, your happiness will be uninterrupted; but if you come to town, you will be tormented by the infidelity of your conjugal partner, and the squandering of your substance.

The six of diamonds—Shews an early marriage and premature widowhood; but that your second marriage will probably make you worse off.

The five of diamonds—Shews you a well assorted marriage with a mate, who will punctually perform the Hymenial duties, and that you will have good children, who will keep you from grief.

The four of diamonds—Shews the incontinence of the person you will be married to, and very great vexation to yourself, through the whole course of your life.

The tray of diamonds—Shews that you will be engaged in quarrels, lawsuits, and domestic disagreements; your partner for life will be of a vixen and abusive temper, fail in the performance of nuptial duties, and make you unhappy.

The deuce of diamonds—Shews that your heart will be engaged in love at an early period; that your parents will not approve your choice; and that if you marry without their consent, they will hardly forgive you.

The ace of hearts—Signifies merry making, feasting and good humor; if the ace be attended by spades, it foretels quarrelling in your cups, and ill temper to your family while you are in a state of intoxication; if by hearts it shews ordiality and affection between the parties; if by diamonds, your feast will be from home, perhaps in the country; if by clubs, the occasion of the meeting will be upon some bargain or agreement; if your ace of hearts is in the neighborhood of face cards of both sexes, with clubs near, it will be about a match making, if all the face cards are kings or knaves, or both, it will concern the buying or selling of some personal property, if all queens, it will regard conciliation between parties, and if queens and knaves, it will be about the reconciliation and reunion of a married couple.

The king of hearts—Shews a man of a fair complexion, of an easy and good natured disposition, but inclined to be hasty and passionate, and rash in his undertakings.

The queen of hearts—Shews a woman of a very fair complexion or of great beauty, her temper rather fiery, verging on the termigant, one who will not make an obedient wife, nor one who will be very happy in her own reflections.

The knave of hearts—Is a person of no particular sex, but always the dearest friend or nearest relation of the consulting party, ever active and intruding, equally jealous of doing harm or good as the whim of the moment strikes, passionate and hard to be reconciled, but always zealous and warm in the cause of the consulting party, though probably not according to their fancy, as they will be as industrious to prevent their schemes as to forward them, if they do not accord with his own disposition.

You must pay great attention to the cards that stand next to the knave, as from them alone you can judge whether the person it represents will favor your inclination or not.

The ten of hearts—Shews good nature, and many children ; it is a corrective to the bad tidings of the cards, but may stand next to it; and if its neighboring cards are of good import, it ascertains and confirms their value.

The nine of hearts—Promises wealth, grandeur, and high esteem ; if cards that are unfavorable stand near it, you must look for disappointment and a reverse ; if favorable cards follow these last at a small distance, expect to retrieve your losses, whether of peace or of goods.

The eight of hearts—Points out a strong inclination to get intoxicated, this, accompanied with unfavorable cards, will be attended with loss of property, decay of health and falling off of friends ; if by favorable cards, it indicates reformation and recovery from the bad consequences of the former.

The seven of hearts—Shews the person to be of a fickle and unfaithful disposition, addicted to vice and incontinence, and subject to the mean art of recrimination to excuse themselves, although without foundation.

The six of hearts—Shews generous, open, and credulous disposition, easily imposed upon and ever the dupe of flatterers, but the good natured friend of the distressed.

If this card comes before your king or queen you will be the dupe, if after, you will have the better.

The five of hearts—Shews a wavering unsteady disposition, never attached to one object, and free from any violent passion or attachment.

The four of hearts—Shews that the person will not be married till very late in life, and that this will probably proceed from too great a delicacy in making a choice.

The tray of hearts—Shews that your own imprudence will greatly contribute to your experiencing the ill will of others.

The deuce of hearts—Shews that extraordinary success and good fortune will attend the person, though if unfavorable cards attend, this will be a long time delayed.

The ace of spades—Totally relates to the affairs of love, without specifying whether lawful or unlawful.

The king of spades—Shews a man who is ambitious, and certainly successful at court, or with some great man who will have it in his power to advance him; but let him beware of reverse.

The queen of spades—Shews a person that will be corrupted by the great of both sexes; if she is handsome, great attempts will be made on her virtue.

The knave of spades—Shews a person who, although they have your welfare at heart, will be too indolent to pursue it with zeal, unless you take frequent opportunities of rousing their attention.

The ten of spades—Is a card of bad import—it will in a great measure counteract the good effect of the other cards—but unless it be seconded by other unfortunate cards, its influence may be gotten over.

The nine of spades—Is the worst card in the whole pack—It portends dangerous sickness, a total loss of fortune, cruel calamity and endless dissention in your family.

The eight of spades—Shews that you will experience strong opposition from your friends, whom you imagine to be such—if this card come close to you, abandon your enterprise and adopt another plan.

The seven of spades—Shews the loss of a most valuable friend, whose death will plunge you into very great distress.

The six of spades—Announces a mediocrity of fortune; and very great uncertainty in your undertakings.

The five of spades—Will give very little interruption to your success—it promises you good luck in the choice of a companion for life, that you will meet with one very fond of you, and immoderately attached to the joys of Hymen, but shews your temper to be rather sullen.

The four of spades—Shews speedy sickness, and that your friends will injure your fortune.

The tray of spades—Shews that you will be unfortunate in marriage, that your partner will be incontinent, and that you will be made unhappy.

The deuce of spades—Always signifies a coffin, but whom it is for, must depend entirely on the other cards that are near it.

The Wheel of Fortune, and what is meant by it.

When any one desire to know a question, state any number not exceeding 30 to that let the number of the day be added and the first letter of your name, which perhaps may prove a figure letter, and let the number be divided by three, and if the division comes out even, then expect a good issue of what you require, whether relating to love, business or the like; but if broken, and odd, then the success will be bad, if not altogether unfortunate.

Several Queries resolving in Matters of Love and Business, by throwing a Die. or pricking at a Figure, after the form and Rules of the following Table.

What number you throw, or what number or letter you prick upon, they being covered with a piece of paper, through which you must prick, go to the same number and letter in the following solutions, for a true answer.

A	2	3	4	5	6
B	2	3	4	5	6
C	2	3	4	5	6
D	2	3	4	5	6

As to what kind of a husband a Widow or Maid shall have.

- A handsome youth be sure you'll have,
Brown hair, high nose, he'll keep you brave.
2 A man unto thy lot shall fall,
Straight but neither short nor tall.
3 An honest tradesman is thy lot,
When he proffers slight him not.

- 4 Fair, ruddy, bush-hair is thy love,
He'll keep thee well, and call thee still his love.
- 5 A widower, tho' rich thou'lt marry,
You for a husband won't long tarry.
- 6 Proper and gay will be the man,
That will thee wed, my pretty Nan.

Whether a Maid shall have him she loves.

- 1 BE not too coy, he is your own,
But thro' delay he may be gone.
- 2 He of your wishes does not know,
He'd soon comply if it were so.
- 3 Come set thy heart at rest I say,
He will but plunder and away.
- 4 Fear not, thy neighbour is the man,
And he will have thee if he can.
- 5 Show him more kindness he will speak,
His heart with silence else will break.
- 6 Sigh thou no more, he does relent,
And his inconstancy repent.

How many Husbands you may expect, &c.

- 1 COME, in the town thou first shall wed,
A stranger next shall grace thy bed.
- 2 With one well lov'd thy life shall be,
And happy days in marriage see.
- 3 The stars three husbands do presage,
And thou shalt die in good old age.
- 4 Wed thou betimes, or else I fear,
Thou wilt not much for wedlock care.
- 5 Too much pride will make thee tarry.
Yet after all that, thou shalt marry.
- 6 Accept the ring thy love doth give
For long in wedlock he'll not live.

Whether it be best to marry or not.

- 1 DON'T fear, thy husband will be kind,
And it is one shall please thy mind.
- 2 If he be of complexion fair,
For thee that man I do prepare.

- 3 Come never fear it will be well,
Or say I can no fortune tell.
- 4 Pray lose no time, for if you do.
Age will come on, and you may rue.
- 5 If this match slip, you may long stay,
Then take kind Will without delay.
- 6 Cupid commands thee now to do't,
Then prithee make no more dispute.
