O. S. & L. N. FOWLER.

PHRENOLOGY PROVED, ILLUSTRATED, AND APPLIED, Accompanied by a CHART, Embracing a Concise Elementary View of Phrenology, with Forty-three Illustrative Engravings. Thirty-sixth Edition, enlarged and improved. 12mo. Cloth, $1 00; leather, $1 25.

"This is a PRACTICAL STANDARD Work, and may be described as a Complete System of the principles and practice of Phrenology. The authors have taken great pains to illustrate the Science by an innumerable number of facts, which they have accumulated after years of patient investigation. Besides important remarks on the Temperaments, it contains a description of all the primary mental powers, in seven different degrees of development, together with the combinations of the faculties; also the location of the organs in the head, with a view of the moral and theological bearings of the Science. In short, we regard this work as not only the most important of any which has before been written on the Science, but as indispensably necessary to the Student, who wishes to acquire a thorough knowledge of Phrenological Science."—New York Review.

O. S. FOWLER.

HEREDITARY DESCENT: ITS LAWS AND FACTS APPLIED TO HUMAN IMPROVEMENT. A new and improved Edition. Illustrated with Twenty-five Engravings. 12mo. Cloth, 75 cents; paper, 50 cents.

"That the physical, mental, and moral qualities are transmissible, no one will deny. How important, then, that we understand the conditions of the body and mind, which produce either favorable or unfavorable impressions on the yet unborn. The importance of this subject is immense, and should be examined by all."—Literary Messenger.

"This work develops those laws which govern the hereditary tendencies of our nature, and classifies under their appropriate heads, the diseases which are frequently transmitted from parent to offspring, proving conclusively, that Insanity, Scrofula, Apoplexy, Consumption, and other diseases, as well as Vices, Virtues, Talents of Various Kinds, etc., etc., are inherent throughout families and nations. The object of the work is to show how to improve offspring, by producing qualities the most desirable. Every parent should possess a copy."—Daily Globe.

DR. ANDREW COMBE.

THE PRINCIPLES OF PHYSIOLOGY APPLIED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EDUCATION. To which is added NOTES and OBSERVATIONS, by O. S. FOWLER. From the improved Edinburgh Edition, with illustrations. 8vo. Cloth, 75 cents.

"This work has received the highest degree of approbation both in Europe and America that it is possible for man to bestow. Messrs. Fowler and Wells deserve much credit for bringing out the new and improved Edition, which is by far superior to all others. It is printed on large type, and should be read by every Man, Woman, and Child in the land."—N. Y. Tribune.

O. S. FOWLER.

RELIGION, NATURAL AND REVEALED: OR THE NATURAL THEOLOGY AND MORAL BEARINGS OF PHRENOLOGY, Including the Doctrines Taught and Duties Inculcated thereby, compared with those enjoined in the Scriptures, together with a Phrenological Exposition of the Doctrines of a Future State, Materialism, Holiness, Sins, Rewards, Punishments, Depravity, a Change of Heart, Will, Foreordination, and Fatalism. Tenth Edition, enlarged and improved. 8vo. Cloth, 75 cents; paper, 50 cents.

"The momentous inquiry, 'What is the true religion?' is answered in this work, by showing what religious creeds and practices harmonize, and what conflict, with the nature of man, as unfolded by this Science. If ever our various religious opinions are to be brought into harmonious action, it must be done through the instrumentality of Phrenological Science."—Christian Freeman.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

PHYSIOLOGY, ANIMAL AND MENTAL; APPLIED TO THE PRESERVATION AND RESTORATION OF HEALTH OF BODY AND POWER OF MIND. With Twenty-six Engravings on Wood. 12mo. Cloth, 75 cents; mail edition, 50 cents.

"This will be found a more valuable work for the use of the people generally, than any other which has yet been written. It is free from technicalities, and may be easily understood and applied by every individual. The whole subject of Physiology is thoroughly examined, and all the necessary information relative to our physical well-being imparted.

"The author takes strong grounds against the use of Tobacco, Tea, Coffee, Liquor, and stimulant ingredients generally. Those portions relating to the effects of different kinds of food on the body and mind are particularly valuable. The causes and cure of Consumption should be read by every youth in the land. By understanding the laws of life and health contained in this work, much agony and suffering might be avoided, and many valuable lives prolonged. Although but recently published, this work has already passed through several editions."—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

SELF-CULTURE AND PERFECTION OF CHARACTER; INCLUDING THE MANAGEMENT OF YOUTH. Improved Stereotyped Edition. 12mo. Cloth, 75 cents; paper, 50 cents.

"SELF MADE OR NEVER MADE," is the motto of the author. This is a capital work, and in our opinion the best of the kind in the English language. It is really a gem. No individual can read a page of it without being improved thereby. We wish it were in the hands of every young man and woman in America, or even the world. The great beauty of this work consists in the fact, that it tells us how to cultivate or restrain the organs of the brain, and establish an equilibrium. With this work, in connection with PHYSIOLOGY, ANIMAL AND MENTAL, and MEMORY and INTELLECTUAL IMPROVEMENT, we may become fully acquainted with ourselves, (they being related to each other,) comprehending as they do, the whole man. We advise all to read these works."—Common School Advocate.

O. S. FOWLER.

MEMORY AND INTELLECTUAL IMPROVEMENT:
APPLIED TO SELF-EDUCATION AND JUVENILE
INSTRUCTION. Twentieth edition, enlarged and improved.
 With twenty-six engravings. 12mo. Cloth, 75 cts.: paper, 50 cts.

"The subject of Mental and Physical Education is beginning to attract public attention. Many of the old-fashioned systems have already passed away, and no more plausible or reasonable plans have yet been adopted than those presented by Mr. Fowler. The science of Phrenology, now so well established, affords us important aid in developing the human mind, according to the natural laws of our being. This, the work before us is pre-eminently calculated to promote, and we cordially recommend it to all. A good memory cannot be overrated."—Democratic Review.

MRS. L. N. FOWLER.

FAMILIAR LESSONS ON PHYSIOLOGY AND PHRE-
NOLOGY: DESIGNED FOR THE USE OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH IN SCHOOLS AND FAMILIES. Illustrated with sixty-five engravings. Stereotyped edition. 12mo.
 Cloth, $1: school edition, in boards, with embossed leather back, 75 cents.

"The above are the titles of two distinct books, each complete in itself; yet being but parts of one great subject, they may be appropriately classed and studied together. These works are prepared for, and adapted to, the comprehension of children, and we hope to see them immediately adopted as text books in all our common schools. The natural language of each organ is illustrated by beautiful wood cuts, and the books are brought out in a style well adapted to the family circle, as well as the school room."—Teachers' and Parents' Companion.

"We acknowledge having drawn many precious hints from their pages, by which we have been enabled to correct some important errors. A single leaf from these works is worth a million yellow-covered novels."—Vermont Phoenix.

☞ The price of Physiology, cheap edition, is 25 cents; Phrenology, do., 50 cents

L. N. FOWLER.

MARRIAGE: ITS HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY;
WITH A PHRENOLOGICAL AND PHYSIOLOGICAL
EXPOSITION OF THE FUNCTIONS AND QUALI-FICATIONS FOR HAPPY MARRIAGES. Twelfth edition, amply illustrated with engravings. 12mo. Cloth, 50 cents:
 paper, 37½ cents.

"It contains a full account of the marriage forms and ceremonies of all nations and tribes, from the earliest history, down to the present time, some of which are curious, and extremely interesting. As a matter of history, we deem it worthy a place in every public and private library. Besides the history, a phrenological and physiological exposition of the male and female organizations are fully given; also, illustrations showing what temperaments are by nature best adapted to each other. Those who have not yet entered into the matrimonial relations, should read this book, and those who have, may profit by a perusal. An excellent present for either sex."—N. Y. Illustrated Magazine.

DR. J. G. SPURZHEIM.

EDUCATION: FOUNDED ON THE NATURE OF MAN; WITH AN APPENDIX BY S. R. WELLS. Containing an illustrated description of the Temperaments, and a brief analysis of all the Phrenological Organs. With a portrait of the author. 12mo. Embossed muslin, 75 cents; mail edition, 50 cents.

"We regard this volume as one of the most important that has been offered to the public for many years. Every page is pregnant with instruction of solemn import; and we would that it were the text book, the great and sovereign guide, of every male and female in the land, with whom rests the responsibility of rearing or educating a child."—Bost. Med. and Surg. Jour.

"It is worth its weight in gold."—Evening Gazette.

"We hope soon to see it introduced into all the libraries, public and private. The beautiful style in which it is published, renders it in every way suitable for a PRESENT, nor could a more VALUABLE one be given."—N. Y. State Journal.

APPROVED BY FOWLER AND WELLS.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL BUST. DESIGNED ESPECIALLY FOR LEARNERS: Showing the exact location of all the Organs of the Brain fully developed, which will enable every one to study the science without an instructor. It may be packed and sent with safety, by express, or as freight, (not by mail,) to any part of the globe. Price, including box for packing, only $1 25.

"This is one of the most ingenious inventions of the age. A cast made of plaster of Paris, the size of the human head, on which the exact location of each of the Phrenological organs is represented fully developed, with all the divisions and classifications. Those who cannot obtain the services of a professor, may learn in a very short time, from this model head, the whole science of Phrenology, so far as the location of the organs is concerned."—N. Y. Daily Sun.

REV. JOHN BOVEE DODS.

LECTURES ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF MESMERISM AND CLAIRVOYANCE. With instruction in its process and practical application. Illustrated with a likeness of the author in the act of producing magnetic sleep. New and enlarged edition. 12mo. Muslin embossed, 50 cents: cheap edition, only 25 cents.

"The MERITS of the work may be inferred from this fact: an audience of OVER TWO THOUSAND PEOPLE, composed of the most intelligent citizens of New England, was held six evenings in succession, chained in the most profound silence, listening to these truly philosophical lectures, and witnessing surgical operations without pain; and other experiments, at once convincing, and full of great practical utility to every human being.

"This work has been recently re-published in England, and has been favorably received by the most scientific men of Europe."

O. S. FOWLER.

LOVE AND PARENTAGE: APPLIED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF OFFSPRING; Including important directions and suggestions to lovers and the married, concerning the strongest ties and the most sacred and momentous relations of life. 12mo. Illustrated. Price, 25 cents.

"To all who have ever tasted the sweets of LOVE; or felt its sting, or consummated its delightful union, or who anticipate its hallowed cup of tenderness, or expect to fold its "DEAR PLEDGES" in parental arms—more especially to WOMAN, the very embodiment of this angelical emotion—to ALL who would enjoy its heavenly embrace, avoid its pangs, or render their prospective children HEALTHY, and TALENTED, and LOVELY, I dedicate these love-inspiring pages."—The Author.

"As the title indicates, it is a work of great importance, relating, as it does, both to the present, and the rising generations."—N. Y. Emporium.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

AMATIVENESS: OR, EVILS AND REMEDIES OF EXCESSIVE AND PERVERTED SEXUALITY; Including warning and advice to the MARRIED and SINGLE. Being a Supplement to "Love and Parentage." 12mo. Price, 12½ cents.

"The object of this work is to spread information in regard to the regulation and legitimate exercise of one of the most, if not THE most important faculties of the human organization, the perversion of which has produced more misery than can possibly be estimated."—Publisher.

"While a prudish delicacy has covered up the subject, and seemed shocked at the bare mention of it, this under-current has been wearing away the health and happiness of individuals and the community, till it absolutely forces itself upon our attention, and calls loudly for a remedy. Silence and ignorance have been tried, and they are found to favor the evil: the only reasonable course, then, is to diffuse knowledge in regard to the matter. Let all have light; let the evil be thoroughly exposed, and proper motives be brought to bear against it, and its prevalence will soon be sensibly diminished. The object of this work is, to aid in spreading such information as may serve to prevent disease and restore health."—George Gregory

TEMPERANCE AND TIGHT LACING: FOUNDED ON THE LAWS OF LIFE, as developed by the sciences of Phrenology and Physiology; Showing the injurious effects of stimulants, and the evils inflicted on the human constitution, by compressing the organs of animal life. Illustrated with appropriate engravings. 8vo., one volume. Price, 12½ cents.

"NATURAL WAISTS OR NO WIVES," "TOTAL ABSTINENCE, OR NO HUSBANDS," are the mottos of the author.

"This is not only the most profound Temperance document we have ever seen, but its principles will apply with equal force to every thing heating and stimulating in its nature."—Journal of Health.

"These works should be placed in the pews of every church throughout the length and breadth of the land. The two curses, intemperance and bad fashions, are destroying more human beings yearly, than all other causes; to arrest which, these little (great) works will render effectual aid."—Dr. Beecher.

O. S. FOWLER.

MATRIMONY: OR PHRENOLOGY AND PHYSIOLOGY APPLIED TO THE SELECTION OF CONGENIAL COMPANIONS FOR LIFE. Including directions to the married for living together affectionately and happily. Illustrated. Octavo. Price, 25 cents.

"The object is to show the influence of the domestic affections over the weal or woe of man; the nature and conditions of true love, how to make a proper choice of husband or wife, how to conduct courtship, and augment the affections of a companion. Were this work more generally read, and its principles applied, much matrimonial discord would be prevented."—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

"Judging from the popularity of the work, (rising of 60,000 copies having been sold in the United States, besides having been republished in London,) we can only say, no man or woman, married or unmarried, should fail to possess a copy of the work."—Saturday Visitor.

This work has recently been republished in London, and several editions sold.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

SYNOPSIS OF PHRENOLOGY: DESIGNED FOR THE USE OF PRACTICAL PHRENOLOGISTS. Amply illustrated. Of which one hundred and seventy-five thousand copies have been sold. 12mo. Price, single copy, 6¼ cents.

"THE PROPORTIONATE SIZE of the Phrenological organs of the individual examined, and, consequently, the relative power and energy of his primary mental powers; that is, his moral and intellectual character and manifestations, will be indicated by the written figures, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7: figure 1 signifying VERY SMALL; 2, SMALL; 3, MODERATE; 4, AVERAGE; 5, FULL; 6, LARGE; 7, VERY LARGE.

In order to render the indications still plainer, these figures will be written in the table opposite to the organs marked, and in the perpendicular column headed "Full," "Large," or "Small," according as he has the organs full, large, or small. Adjoining these written figures will be references to "Phrenology Proved," &c., where he will find not only his individual faculties described in that degree in which he possesses them, but, also, the result produced by their combined action—he reading as descriptions of himself, those combinations which he is found to possess."—Preface.

L. N. FOWLER.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL AND PHYSIOLOGICAL ALMA- NAC. PUBLISHED YEARLY. Containing illustrated descriptions of many of the most distinguished characters living. The annual sales of which are 200,000 copies. Price, per do- zen, only 50 cents: single copy, 6¼ cents.

"This is a comprehensive year book, containing all the usual chronological matter, together with the application of Phrenology to some of the most interesting characters of our times, and is the richest annual for six cents we ever saw."—Chronotype.

"We heartily recommend it to every family, being as good an Almanac as any and possessing a valuable collection of Phrenological facts."—World's Index.

"It contains an amount of reading equal to many a half dollar book."—N. H. Oasis.

MRS. HUGO REID

WOMAN: HER EDUCATION AND INFLUENCE; WITH A GENERAL INTRODUCTION BY MRS. C. M. KIRKLAND. Illustrated with thirteen portraits of distinguished Women. 12mo. Cloth, extra gilt, 75 cents: paper, 40 cents.

"CAN MAN BE FREE, IF WOMAN BE A SLAVE?" is the motto adopted by the author.

"To improve and elevate woman, is but to elevate and improve man. By nature, our rights, interests, and privileges are one. For either to assume the supremacy would be only to degrade the other.

"That our spheres are different, no one will deny. Woman is the natural educator of children; and if it be a FACT that "education forms the common mind," then the question as to who exerts the greater influence, may at once be solved. How important, then, that woman be properly qualified to discharge this most responsible obligation.

"Multiplying books on this subject will have a tendency to facilitate the great cause of human progression and advancement.

"This work has been translated into the principal European languages, and has gained for the author an enviable reputation. Mrs. Kirkland's introduction, together with the beautiful illustrations, are decidedly great additions to the work, and will render it much more interesting to the general reader."—Introduction.

"WOMAN wields the Archimedean Lever, whose fulcrum is childhood, whose length is all time, whose weight is the world, and whose sweep is eternity."—American Phrenological Journal.

CHEMISTRY APPLIED TO PHYSIOLOGY, AGRICULTURE, AND COMMERCE. With additions by Dr. JOHN GARDNER. Large octavo. Best edition, paper, only 20 cents.

"It contains a vast amount of chemical information relative to almost every department of industry and wealth."—New England Cataract.

"No farmer, mechanic, or manufacturer should be without it. Its extreme cheapness places it within the reach of every individual, and notwithstanding its low price (only 20 cents), it is printed in the very best manner."—Scientific American.

"It illustrates the necessity of a knowledge of Chemistry to advance and perfect Agriculture, or the Arts and Sciences generally. It may be sent by mail at a trifling postage."—Star of Temperance.

JUDGE E. P. HURLBUT.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND THEIR POLITICAL GUARANTIES; FOUNDED ON THE MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL LAWS OF OUR BEING. Phrenology adopted as the true philosophy of mind. With NOTES and an APPENDIX by GEORGE COMBE. New and enlarged edition. Cloth, 75 cents : paper, 50 cents.

"This is the production of a distinguished Phrenologist, a strong mind, an honest judge, and a man of great moral worth. He is a PHRENOLOGICAL judge, and of course, being also a man of uncommon natural capabilities, takes comprehensive and correct views of human rights. Soaring infinitely above the petty technicalities of legislation, he describes—as none but a legal Phrenologist could descry—the inherent, inalienable rights of humanity; and being most happy as a writer, it's easy to see why and how his work becomes possessed of uncommon merits. No Phrenologist can read probably a page of this work without literally exulting in the truths it embodies. It might be called condensed truth. Our laws are faulty: He shows wherein. The inalienable rights of humanity are by no means all secured, and many of them are tyrannically violated, by our laws. He shows what. He shows how to secure them.

Especially, he shows woman's constitutional rights, particularly as regards retaining the control of her own property after marriage. His strong sympathy, and still stronger reasonings, in behalf of down-trodden woman, will at least secure him a reading by the advocates of "woman's rights." Indeed, no true republican should deny himself the rich intellectual and moral feast he serves up."—Amer. Phren. Jour.

Mr. Hurlbut is now Judge of the Supreme Court in the city of New York.

DR. JOHN B. NEWMAN.

FASCINATION: OR THE PHILOSOPHY OF CHARMING. ILLUSTRATING THE PRINCIPLES OF LIFE IN CONNECTION WITH SPIRIT AND MATTER. 12mo. Improved and stereotyped. Beautifully illustrated in the highest style of the art. Cloth, extra gilt, 75 cents : paper, only 40 cents

"The author, (a medical man of some eminence,) pretends to have established the truth and utility of Magnetism, on the natural laws of our being. He proves conclusively, the fact, that the mind may act independently of the body, and states numerous cases where Clairvoyance has been produced by artificial means, and many of the most wonderful experiments performed, and is the most interesting work on the subject of Mental Electricity."—Southern Patriot.

L. N. FOWLER.

SYMBOLICAL HEAD AND PHRENOLOGICAL CHART IN A MAP FORM. Designed to convey at one view the natural language of each organ of the mind. Price, 25 cents.

"This map is highly ornamental, and in every way suitable for framing. Every parlor and office should have a copy of this beautiful and instructive picture. It is a lithographic print, executed in the highest style of the art. Each organ is illustrated by a familiar design, which conveys a correct impression of the functions of each organ. For example: Firmness, No. 14, is represented by a mule whipped by one man, and pulled by another, but obstinately refusing to go either way. Veneration, No. 18, by a person in the attitude of prayer. Benevolence, No. 19, by the good Samaritan."—Express.

FOWLER AND WELLS' PUBLICATIONS.

O. S. FOWLER, EDITOR.

AMERICAN PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL AND MISCELLANY: DEVOTED TO PHRENOLOGY, PHYSIOLOGY, MAGNETISM, SELF-IMPROVEMENT, AND GENERAL PROGRESSION. To be published monthly, each number containing thirty-two large octavo pages, and illustrated with portraits of distinguished individuals. Terms, per year, in advance, only $1.

"No mother who is rearing a family should be without this work."—N. E. Cataract.

"It occupies a place which is filled by no other work, and has acquired a reputation which nothing but real worth can secure; and what is more important, its articles are perfectly ADAPTED TO THE WANTS OF SOCIETY."—Primitive Expounder.

"Messrs. Fowlers & Wells, the celebrated Phrenologists of New York, probably understand the science better than any other men now living, and the promptness with which they fill all contracts, leads us to believe that bump No. 15 is well developed."—O. Tocsin.

GEORGE COMBE AND ROBERT COX, EDITORS.

MAGAZINE OF MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL SCIENCE, AND EDINBURGH QUARTERLY PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL. Containing Essays upon Phrenology as a department of physiological science, exhibiting its varied and important applications to the most interesting questions of social and moral philosophy, to legislation, medicine, and the arts of life. 8vo. Each number will contain ninety-six pages, beautifully printed, with illustrations. Price, per year, in advance, $2: single number, 50 cents.

"It will be remembered that this is the first periodical ever commenced, devoted exclusively to phrenological science. It has already been more than twenty years before the public, and may be regarded as the phrenological pioneer of the old world. By the republication of this profound and philosophical work, the American public will be brought in a close and regular mental communication with the leading Phrenologists of Europe."

DR. JOHN BURDELL, DENTIST.

THE TEETH: THEIR STRUCTURE, DISEASE, AND TREATMENT, WITH THE CAUSES OF EARLY DECAY. With directions in relation to their care and preservation. 12mo. Illustrated with one hundred engravings. Bound in muslin, gilt, 40 cents: cheap edition, in paper, only 12½ cents.

"This work is designed to convey all the necessary information relative to the Teeth. It is adapted to the use of every individual—MAN, WOMAN, and CHILD—who may, by careful usage, preserve, until a good old age, those indispensably necessary organs. The suffering and excruciating pain now so common might be avoided by due attention to the Teeth."

"It is a scientific, practical, thorough, and popular treatise on the useful and ornamental organs of mastication, which are now too frequently suffered to become a disgrace and a nuisance in many a 'human face divine.' Read this book, and neglect your Teeth, if you dare."—Boston Daily Chronotype.

L. N. FOWLER.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL GUIDE: DESIGNED FOR THE USE OF STUDENTS OF THEIR OWN CHARACTERS. Containing the first principles of the science, together with an illustrated description of the temperaments. Twenty-fifth edition. 12mo. Price, 12½ cents.

"Most of the organs are illustrated by two engravings, showing each organ large and small, also a representation of a perfect male and female head and body. An excellent work for beginners, who will usually read a small work, rather than a larger volume. We cheerfully recommend it, especially to students."—Island City.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

SYNOPSIS OF PHRENOLOGY AND PHYSIOLOGY: COMPRISING A CONDENSED DESCRIPTION OF THE BODY AND MIND. Also the additional discoveries made by the aid of Magnetism and Neurology. Small quarto. Illustrated with forty-two engravings. Price only 12½ cents.

"This work is calculated for, and adapted to, those who are yet unacquainted with their phenological and physiological organizations. It is written with a view to instruct, and teach us how to apply these principles to ourselves and others. The simple and familiar manner in which it is written, will render it easily understood, by all who read it.

PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATIONS, WITH VERBAL OR WRITTEN DESCRIPTIONS OF CHARACTER, GIVEN WHEN DESIRED. Including directions as to the most suitable occupations, and the selection of partners in business and congenial companions for life. Price, for a verbal description, with a chart, $1 00: for a full written opinion, $3 00.

"These examinations will be found most valuable, as well as exceedingly interesting. The advice given in relation to health, regulating the propensities, appetite, habits, and so forth, is worth more than many times the cost of the examination. Probably in no other way can a small amount be spent to an equal advantage."

THE PHRENOLOGICAL CABINET AND MUSEUM, NEW YORK, CONTAINS A VAST NUMBER OF PHRENOLOGICAL SPECIMENS, and is always FREE to visitors, by whom it is continually thronged.

"This collection consists of a great variety of skulls, both human and animal, from all nations and tribes, amounting to several thousand, to which a constant addition is being made, by travellers in our own, and voyagers to other countries."

N. B. Any works named in this Catalogue may be ordered and received by return of the FIRST MAIL, at a trifling expense, by enclosing in a letter the requisite amount, and directing the same, POST PAID, to
FOWLERS AND WELLS,
131 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

Small coin, from six to fifty cents, or several bank notes, may be enclosed in a letter, and sent by mail to the publishers, without increasing the postage.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WATER-CURE JOURNAL AND HERALD OF REFORMS.

VOL. VII.

FOR 1849.

(PRIESSNITZ, FOUNDER OF THE WATER-CURE.)

JOEL SHEW, M. D., EDITOR.

It will be the object of this Journal to explain, in a manner suited to the capacity of all, the new and celebrated system called HYDROPATHY, or the WATER-CURE. This new system embraces a wide range of particulars, all of which may be stated in the general term,

THE PHILOSOPHY OF HEALTH.

Bathing, Clothing, Air, Ventilation, Food, Drinks, Tobacco, or whatever tends to the preservation or the destruction of the body or mind, will be treated in this Journal.

THE WATER-CURE,

now well established, is peculiarly favorable in the treatment of all the maladies, both chronic and acute, to which the human body is subject. We hope, also, to teach our readers the best modes of preventing disease. Reforms, of whatever kinds, we shall promulgate; and we shall endeavor to adapt our Journal to the wants of society.

THIS JOURNAL

will be published monthly, (commencing in January, 1849,) containing thirty-two octavo pages of the best matter with reference to the application of this system, on the following
