THIS ALBUM

IS LOVINGLY DEDICATED TO MY MOTHER, JANETT HAGAN,
AND THE MANY DEAR FRIENDS WHO WILL ENJOY LOOKING AT THE FACES OF THESE VARIOUSLY GIFTED AND WELL KNOWN WORKERS IN OUR GLORIOUS CAUSE. WE HAVE OFTEN WISHED, AS YOU HAVE, FOR A LARGE ALBUM IN WHICH ALL OUR REPRESENTATIVE PEOPLE IN SPIRITUAL-ISTIC WORK MIGHT APPEAR, AND FROM THAT WISH HAS COME THIS, OUR FIRST EFFORT, IN PART COVERING THIS GROUND. IF IT IS RECEIVED WITH THE SAME KINDNESS
BY WHICH IT HAS SO FAR BEEN SUPPORTED, WE CAN ASK NO MORE. ESPECIALLY ARE WE INDEBTED TO MR.
WM. F. NYE, HON. A. GASTON, J. R. FRANCIS, JOHN DAY,
MRS. M. E. WALLACE, GEO. W. TAYLOR, AND ALL WHOSE PICTURES ARE WITHIN, FOR KINDNESS RENDERED US.

JENNIE HAGAN JACKSON,

"Dear friends: This picture reflects
The form and features of me.
It is given to pay my respects
To all these good workers you see.

"But that which is hidden from view,
Not mirrored or seen in the face,
Is often more nobler and true
Than anything outward we trace."

J. FRANK BAXTER, 181 WALNUT STREET, CHELSEA, MASS.
LECTURER, VOCALIST AND PLATFORM MEDIUM.

"Justice is religion, and humanitarianism more than Christianity; therefore, while enacting any duty or pleasure, think less of "the glory to God" and ALWAYS of the honor to mankind, and do it not simply for "Christ's sake," but rather for the good of all humanity."

J. W. CO. VILLE, BOSTON, MASS. (CARE "BANNER OF LIGHT.")
