the arguments based upon analogy & reason."—Pref.
This little book, the result of over ten years of study by Mr. Geo. E.
Wright, for many years the president of the Chicago Theosophical Society,

WHAT IS A LIBRARY CLEARING HOUSE?

The establishment of an institution to be to the literary & library world what the bankers' clearing house is to the commercial world, has been urged by librarians in their technical journals for the last twenty years.*

This demand resulted in the formation of the Library Supply & Clearing House, Inc.; which aims to sell for libraries & collectors their accumulations of duplicates or surplus volumes at an appraisal mutually agreed upon.

Commission consignments are solicited from both public & private libraries.

Booksellers, publishers & authors of privately printed books are asked to send us their remainders; the retail price fixed by them, or by us with their approval, will be absolutely adhered to.
