Preface to 1906 Edition.

It gives us some pleasure to know that our efforts to compile a List of Occult Practitioners periodically is appreciated in many directions, which encourages us to spare no effort to compile it as accurately as possible.

It has been our endeavour to compile the Directory as complete as possible, including Occult Practitioners of all grades—good, bad, and indifferent, and it would be impossible for us to guarantee the genuineness of every person herein named; but those who are Members of the British Institute of Mental Science, and honoured with an italic a to their names, we know something of, and recommend them to the public.

Occult Practitioners as a whole seem to be continually changing their address. This accounts for the fact that many addresses are omitted, the persons in question failing to acquaint us with their present abodes, applications from us to them being returned “not known,” “gone,” etc.

If the reader happens to be a Character Reader or Occultist, amateur or professional, and finds his or her name and address omitted, we hope our attention will be drawn to the fact, to ensure correction in next issue.

Our readers can be of great service by sending the publishers a List of all the Occult Practitioners they know who reside in the same town as themselves. Correct lists will be paid for.
