Track 1—Secrets of the Silence and When Trouble Comes

THANK You, Father. For we have come just to be quiet now, in Thy holy presence. We come in adoration and in worship, believing that the Christ Light is shining in us and all around us. We believe, Lord, that now we come in prayer, all Thy love is released unto us. We are ready now, Lord, to be healed in soul and mind and body, and during this time of meditation we shall indeed be quiet, and rest in Thy perfection, praying only that everyone else, everywhere in the world, may be Blessed in the love which you give unto us. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

“For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God or from the love of each other.”

AND the purpose of our coming together is simply to know the truth of that living Christ. We can best do this by letting go all our limitations, and being prepared to allow the Lord to take us and to lift us up into His consciousness.

The Spirit of God is the still centre of all creation. It is that peace of the all-power, resident as the life love within all life, and every manifestation of form, from the atom to the highest intellect of man. It is the peace, harmony and love, which every soul seeks in conscious reunion with God.

In these moments, you are centred in God, and the life of God is released in you. Therefore, during this time of meditation, behold yourself so filled with His love that you are in the image and likeness of Christ.

Let go all trepidation. Take this bold step forward right into the midst of the glorious Presence. Believe in such absolute love, such absolute perfection, that nothing can hold you back. For the Great Father moves now in the midst of you, soothing, healing, blessing, strengthening and making all things new for you.

I know that when we are prepared to let go the self and all the conditions which seem to hurt us, we can abide. Simply abide, even as we abide in the sunshine on a summer's day. Abide in the spirit of the Father, in Perfect Everything. Be still now . . . in Him.

(Silence)

Peace . . . harmony . . . and love. The perfection of the living Christ extended unto you. All the power, the glory, the joy, the health, and the strength of the Lord, now manifesting in the midst of you . . . And all your pains, troubles and tribulations fall away from you, and the light of the Christ illumines the whole of your being . . . Peace . . . harmony . . . and love.

And in that simple meditation I know that you could feel the wondrous Presence. I am sure that the secret of communing with God is to be still in the knowledge that He is doing the works. I am equally sure that we often do not recognise His presence, because we seek some wondrous illumination, or we are looking for some mystical experience, or wondering if the Father has come to us, or when He will vouchsafe to give us the answer to our needs.

Yet all the time He was there, revealing His presence in the peace—that deep peace which passeth all understanding, and which cannot be described. I am sure that when we learn to recognise the presence of the Father as the peace of the Father, and know that that peace signifies absolute love, absolute perfection, we will have taken the greatest possible advance to the experiencing of the presence of God and in watching, with delight, the complete transformation of our lives.

Now come into the Silence again. There is nothing to learn. You HAVE perfect faith in the Father. His love is the very life in which you live. You have no more to do with getting God to do something for you than you have to try to persuade the air to let you breathe it.

(Silence)

Be still . . . you are here with God. Now, do it in the Silence this time. You are with God . . . nothing else matters. And the deep, deep peace of God enfolds you . . . The peace that penetrates your soul. . . . The peace that penetrates your mind. . . . The peace which caresses your body, which soothes you, and holds you poised twixt heaven and earth. . . . The peace of the Holy Spirit. . . . You are experiencing the presence of God. . . . And in abiding in that presence, all the other things are added unto you. Already in these moments, tremendous transformations have already taken place in your life. The love of God, now manifesting in you, because we have dropped our resistance to Him, is producing for you the healing of soul and mind and body. All your circumstances are coming into states of harmony. Divine adjustment and every good thing is at this moment flowing to you on an irresistible tide of God's love for you. If you believe that, then you will be very glad to stand aside and behold the glory of the Father lavishing His gifts upon you, producing for you the perfect answer to all your needs.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Take this Silence once more. And feel that deep presence. The love . . . the peace . . . in which your soul is soothed with such grace. . . . The peace of the Presence in which all the beauty of your nature in Christ is revealed, until you are a shining light in heaven. . . . The peace that is perfection unto you, as promised by Jesus Christ. Thank You, Father.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Now you will notice that we have to use our imagination when we come into the presence of the Father. We have to lift our entire mind to Him with a complete belief in the absolute nature of God released. Only when we drop our resistance and cleave to the Almighty spirit of the Father can we expect the mighty works of God to be done in us.

I am sure that we find God in the Silence. But we have to bridge that gap between a sense of unreality and a knowledge of the absolute reality of the Presence.

For example, just imagine how you would feel if, when you went into your living room you saw a wondrous light shining in glory all round your favourite armchair. And suppose a voice spoke to you in the midst of this heavenly radiance and said to you, "My beloved one, this is the light of My holy spirit, shining now in love for you. Come now, unto Me, and abide in My love. From this moment I shall always be visible to you in all My glory around your chair. Whenever you wish to be still, resting in My love, I will instantly solve all your problems, heal every pain, revitalise you, inspire, guide and teach you all my ways. For all that I am is yours."

Can you imagine your way of life from that moment? Do you think you would need anyone to persuade you to come into the Silence to rest in the love of God? No, my beloved one, you would find being with the Father the greatest of all experiences, and you would be victorious in everything that came your way. You would never be sick, discouraged or in despair. You would arise in the power of the Living Christ, and go your way like a disciple of Christ, to reveal the same wondrous truth to everyone who came into your life day by day.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Now you see what true meditation is. It is just being with God, like this, in the light of the Christ. Believing in the perfection of the Father. . . . Think even now of all the glory of the Lord shining within you and all around you, and you, poised and centred in the midst of His perfection.

Thank You, Father.

(Silence)

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Be still . . . and know that I am God.

"When Trouble Comes"

BELOVED Father, we come before You as little children now, to rest in Thy holy spirit, and to capture a vision of all you would reveal unto us. Teach us Thy ways, quicken our faith, magnify our love, and in these moments of complete self-surrender, Lord, re-dedicate our lives to Thee, that we may become so filled with Thy life that everyone everywhere may be filled with the same Blessing. Take our lives, Father, for greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Teach us, Lord, to be Christlike, and through Thy grace help us to become love through Jesus Christ. Amen.

"In all these things, we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us."

AND of course, it is when trouble comes that we so often lose our way to the Father. It is most people's experience that when they are happy and gay they can meditate with a wondrous sense of conviction. But then the darkness, the despair, the misery, the pain, the problem, the disease, comes like a great thundercloud into our lives, and almost in fear and trembling we take our vision away from the glory of God and look at the awful cloud. And often begin to worry about what is going to happen to us.

Just at the time when we needed God most we turned away from Him. Or often, when we come in prayer at such times, we are so weak in our conviction, so lacking in love, so lacking in faith, that the Great Master Who would long to come and pour His benediction upon us, is kept outside, because we don't fully accept the truth that He will naturally make all things new.

Therefore, in these moments, let us understand that our only need is to be with God, and that we find God in the Silence, in the great peace. Let us experience Him now, and if you have any troubles or tribulations know that you have surrendered them completely to Him, and that nothing in this whole universe can stop the Father from producing divine and perfect adjustments. You are leaving the darkness of this world outside. You are now stepping into the light, the heavenly light, of the Kingdom of God.

(Silence)

Be still now, in the Father . . . And with the simplicity of a child see His perfection in the midst of any situation that has been disturbing you.

Behold yourself so filled with Christ that you are Christlike, because He makes you so. Peace . . . the deep, deep peace of God. The peace that is the very presence of God . . . the Father, Who loves you more than you could ever imagine, and Whose love for you is Perfect Everything. Thank You, Father.

Now that is a real experience of the presence of God. Feel it. It is still there with you. Peace . . . harmony . . . and love.

(Silence)

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

You see, life is full of obstacles and difficulties. There could be no form of self-expression were it otherwise. We live because we overcome. We have been conquering these seeming troubles from the moment we were born, and we have created our personalities through dealing with our day to day difficulties and events. We cannot run away from life and its great evolutionary laws. If we try to do so then, surely, the same problem or its equivalent will come before us again, ever inviting our co-operation, ever asking us to come to the Father to bring about divine adjustments.

You are an eternal spirit. And nothing in God's universe has the power or the right to harm you if you keep in the invincible consciousness of God's almighty power. When trouble comes, you need only His strength in every circumstance. For God's love can never fail you if you trust Him. When trouble or sickness or want next comes, be on your guard. In the weak personal self it is so easy to panic and go straight into the darkness and become lost. And yet that is the exact moment when your greatest need is to stand firm, and declare with the confidence of a little child that God's almighty presence is Perfect Everything, now manifesting to make all things new.

Take these troubles to Him in prayer. Release them to Him. Divorce yourself from responsibility for the outcome. Behold thenceforth the perfection, the perfect answer.

Be still and keep poised—like this—in the great Silence, in the wonderful peace.

(Silence)

For remember, peace is the surest sign of God's almighty presence. At this moment you are in the midst of Almighty power. As you abide in the light, the darkness will melt away.

Our highest experiences are often those which come through what seem to be crushing catastrophes. In the greatest darkness is the potential of the brightest light. Look for it! Expect it! Behold the perfect solution! Look at the situation calmly through divine vision, and refuse to contemplate the disaster. Then He, in His love, will bring forth perfection.

God is the perfect adjustment in every situation. He is with you now and always, leading you to victory. Thank You, Father, that it is so.

Track 2—Divine Supply: Forgiveness

THANK You, Father. For it is with true thankfulness that we come into Thy presence today, to be centred in Thee, and to become entirely dependent upon Thee for everything. We acknowledge in this moment that Thou art the provider of everything in heaven and in earth. And all that we have ever received in life has come from Thee. We thank You, Lord, for the life that has been given unto us. Thank You, Father, for peace and joy, fellowship and family. Thank You for the food we eat, for the homes in which we find shelter. And thank You for the promise of eternal life. Thank You, Father, for everything.

And even as we accept Thy divine abundance unto ourselves, may we be privileged in love, in prayer, in thought, in word and in deed to share these Blessings with everyone who comes into our pathway, day by day. Through Jesus Christ and His Grace. Amen.

“Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you. That ye shall go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. That whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My Name, He may give it you.”
“All that I have is thine.”

And those are the promises of Jesus Christ.

GOD is the source and centre of all life, and of all that exists in His universe of heaven and earth. We now have the opportunity to arise above all limitations, to depart forever from a belief in poverty or pain, sin or sickness, trial or tribulation and, as little children, to enter the kingdom of God and become established in His perfect love, recognising and accepting that He it is Who is bestowing all His gifts upon us. As you sit now in the presence of the Father, all that He has belongs to you.

Be still . . . and feel the peace which is the assurance of God's Presence. "All that I have is thine." Think of Jesus, the Christ, standing before you telling you how much He loves you, promising you everything you need. "Beloved one, all that I have is yours also. Let me give you these gifts from your Heavenly Father." Be still now, and receive them. Behold yourself filled with the living Christ, and all the abundance of the Father radiating to you and through you to Bless the lives of everyone else.

You are lifted up now, in the peace which is the presence of your Father, in the kingdom where all these other things are added unto you. Thank You, Father, for this beloved one who hears these words, it is so. And if we would constantly, day in and day out, find our divine source and centre, and establish a complete dependence upon God for everything, we should be in that wondrous position of witnessing the abundant life of the Father flowing to us and through us in mounting abundance.

If we are going to experience the divine way of life, knowing that all our good comes from God, we must lift our vision away from rigid and narrow human ideas, and live in a free consciousness of Christ power, flowing through the channels of selfless love, meeting every need. In finding divine abundance, we must first find God. And God is love. The more we love Him, the more can He bestow His love upon us. The more we can find self-forgetting in our loving relationship with others, the more surely can the abundance of the Lord be bestowed upon us.

If we would increase our knowledge, wisdom, power and material supply, we must first open the channels of love in our own souls in giving freely of our gifts of loving service, prayer, material help and whatever love decrees. Then the stream of Blessedness, through God's love, brings multiplying resources to meet every need. The more we love and give self away, the more secure do we become in every aspect of our lives. For God becomes our true source and centre of every supply in daily living.

For a few moments, think of yourself so at one with the Father that all He has is actually lavished upon you, and as you sit there in meditation in the Silence, think of all those good gifts from God going out in your own service to everybody else. Imagine yourself walking each day, as Christ walked the earth. Think of yourself going to some sick person, bearing words of love and courage and faith, and gifts. Imagine yourself always looking for people to help. Think of yourself in the image and likeness of Christ, bestowing God's gifts to the right of you and to the left of you as you go through the vineyards of daily life.

See yourself actually in possession of everything you could ever need, and actually bestowing an increasing abundance to everyone else in thought, in prayer, in word and in deed.

In this Silence, where the peace of God is come upon you, you are experiencing the abundance of your Heavenly Father. You are not of this world, you are not conditioned by human thought, you are not in bondage to human fallacies or to manmade sources of supply. You have been lifted out of this world into the kingdom of love. Be still, and listen . . . "All that I have is thine, beloved one. I shall bring into your life everything you need to make it perfect. I am with you now. I have been with you from the beginning. I am now leading you forward to the highest fulfilment of the destiny which I have prepared for you. Abide in Me. Let My words abide in you. Receive all that I would give unto you. And always know that whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My Name, He may give it you."

Imagine Jesus the Christ speaking to you personally, taking your lovely life and moulding it into a replica of His own life. Behold yourself in tune with the infinite spirit of God. Believe yourself now to be so filled with His love that you have become love in Him. That all your ways are made straight, that you are lifted up, held poised in the everlasting arms of God. Behold yourself a child of the Most High, born to be free, filled with Christ's goodness, a channel of His Love and of His abundance unto everyone whose life touches yours.

Be perfect now, even as the Father within you is perfect. And arise in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ in wholeness, in freedom, in abundant life. Be healed. Be free. Be perfect. And claim the inheritance which your Heavenly Lord has prepared for you, and which now belongs to you.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

The Lord Bless thee and keep thee. The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

“Forgiveness.”

OUR Father, Who art in heaven. Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, in us, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And leave us not when in temptation. But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WHenever we think of God, we must think of forgiveness. And remember, “to err is human, to forgive divine,” and we become divine when we forgive.

We all make mistakes. And none has passed through the world without sin. We are all like children, even the wisest amongst us, learning through trial and error how to rise through the conflicts of self in our daily experience. When we lose sight of our divine nature, the invincible and eternal perfection within, and descend into a consciousness of sickness, weakness, worry, frustration and resentment, we hurt ourselves and others. But when we become lifted up in love, trusting our Christ power, life is filled with happiness and success.

Now, one of the heaviest burdens we have to bear, and overcome, is the constantly recurring resentment which springs so easily into our minds when someone seemingly hurts us or condemns us, or when we have a job to do that we don't care much about, or when some situation comes bursting into our lives and we want to run away from it. We ourselves are often so quick to judge and criticise our fellows. Yet, whatever the cause of our resentments and angers, it is a fact that whenever we express such bitterness we seriously hurt ourselves, and those to whom we radiate these destructive power thoughts.

The vast mass of human disease is caused by them. Simple commonsense, as well as high spiritual law, demands that we shall cleanse our minds of this type of thinking. There is no better time than this moment to make our peace with all men. "There but for the Grace of God go I." If there be anyone on this earth against whom you know anger, resentment, hatred or bitterness, no matter what they have done to you, this is the healing moment to be lifted up in Christ's love and to behold the inner Christ in them.

Take them in the Silence into your own hearts, one by one, and release them unto the Lord. "There, but for the Grace of God, go I. I forgive you completely, and ask your forgiveness for holding anything against you."

(Silence)

O Great Christ, give unto me Thy grace and Thy power, that this may be done in Thy strength, and in my own love.

I forgive you, beloved sister. I forgive you, beloved brother. I forget all these things of the past as I now seek to make amends, as I seek to lift you before the Father, that His perfection may quicken your soul and your mind and your body. I will no longer hold anything against you. I will love you, and love you, and love you, even as I know the Father loves you.

Thank You, Father. All these things are forgiven and forgotten. Thy love is released unto each one, and all is well. Thank You Father, that it is so.

(Silence)

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

NOW you see, and can feel, that wonderful quickening in your soul. The greatest healing love that can ever come to you is there when you forgive, because that brings love into its full focus. If you be lifted up in a higher consciousness, it is your privilege to forgive the weakness in others. Let us be at peace with all the world. Let us always make the first gesture of reconciliation. Let us overlook the sins of the past, and build a new present and a new future on Christ-like foundations. And as we have forgiven those who trespassed against us, then we too can go to our Father and claim His forgiveness for our transgressions. The real virtue of loving is to see the Christ within those who as yet walk in darkness, for it is so easy to love those who love us.

Now Christ walks beside you. All your own sins and faults of the past are washed away in the love of God. The peace and harmony of the Father are with you.

Be still now in the peace of your Father, and know that His love makes you whole.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

“Lord, make me a channel of Thy peace. That where there is hatred I may bring love. That where there is wrong I may bring the spirit of forgiveness. That where there is discord I may bring harmony. That where there is error I may bring truth. That where is doubt I may bring faith. That where there is despair I may bring hope. That where there are shadows I may bring Thy light. That where there is sadness I may bring joy. Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort than to be comforted. To understand, than to be understood. To love, than to be loved. For it is by giving that one receives. It is by self-forgetting that one finds. It is by forgiving that one is forgiven. It is by dying, that one awakens to eternal life.”

(Silence)

I SN'T that a wonderful prayer? I believe it is the most wonderful prayer ever spoken. It is the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. It is divine healing. It is the way forward into the kingdom of the Father. It is the Christ way. And if each day everyone of us could see that truth and live that truth, everything in our lives would reveal all the glory of the Father in a crescendo of manifestation.

We need to remind ourselves, time and time again, "All that I have is thine." It flows for us as quickly as we believe it, and as much of it as we can dare to accept. When we ourselves break out of the crusts of unlovingness and find our true centre in the peace and the perfection of God, everything is changed for us.

So now, finally, for a few moments, let us go together into the real Silence, to be at one with God, filled with His perfect love, poised in that deep peace which is always the sign of His presence. Be still now, and let the perfection of Christ flow in your soul, your mind, your body and all your affairs.

(Silence)

Peace . . . the peace of God's presence.

(Silence)

“Be still . . . and know that I am God.”
