WHAT IS SCIENTOLOGY?

An applied philosophy dealing with the study of knowledge which, through the application of its technology, can bring about desirable changes in the conditions of life.

WHAT IS A SCIENTOLOGIST?

One who knows he has found the way to a better life through Scientology and who, through Scientology books, tapes, training and processing, is actively attaining it and is willing to help others do the same.

WHAT CAN SCIENTOLOGY DO FOR ME?

Improve your ability to communicate
Enable you to handle life's problems
Give you relief from the hostilities and sufferings of life
Give you freedom from the upsets of the past
Give you the ability to face the future and to change conditions

WHERE CAN I FIND OUT MORE?

Scientology organizations exist on every continent. Each one consists of a Hubbard Communications Office and the main organization. Each Organization is a Hubbard Guidance Center and an Academy of Scientology, with both day and evening services available.
These Scientology Organizations and the International Headquarters of Scientology located at Saint Hill Manor, East Grinstead, Sussex, England, are there for a better world, for changed conditions, for you.

DOES RELEASING CANCEL THE NEED FOR TRAINING?

by L. Ron Hubbard

To answer the important question "Does Releasing cancel training" all you need to do as an auditor is release someone without training him and then say to him, "All right. Go out and release people."

You'll get a blank stare.

Why?

Because Auditing skill is a discipline in living and a know-how of the parts of life which is in itself something new in the universe. Even OT's don't have auditing skill since there have never been auditors behind them.

There is such a thing as learning. There are such things as data.

The fact is, that a released Zulu is a released Zulu. A released advertising man is a released advertising man. A released Zulu is not a released advertising man.

Now a Zulu unreleased has scant chance of becoming an advertising man. But a released Zulu would probably be able to become one rapidly. And there's the difference.

Being released gives one the potential of being and makes the being rather easy, and fun. Further, being released makes it possible to continue to be something. There's nothing wrong with being released. A person ought to be. The state is so valuable several hundreds of millions of people in the past 2,500 years have concentrated on nothing else.

But how about getting released and staying released forever? The auditor alone with his data well learned could manage that.

Remember-you were a release once--trillions of years ago. Why didn't you stay that way? Because the traps were well designed and you had no anatomy of traps.

Well, Scientology does have the anatomy of the traps, the axioms, the discipline and know-how necessary to handle and control the laws of the universe. Scientology is the data necessary to live.

If everyone were now to concentrate only on how to get released and forget all about how to stay released, we'd be back in the soup in a century.

Oddly enough the best time to study auditing is when you're aberrated--when the thing looks impossible, when you can achieve subjective reality on the grimness of it.

The best things a person can do are to (1) get trained and (2) get released. Auditors will always be senior to releases. Always. That became very obvious in the 19th ACC. People who weren't released created releases.

If a person gets released first, he can, of course, learn very rapidly how to be a good Scientologist. If he is to be a very good being he will be both a good auditor and a release. That combination cannot be beaten.

If we had only releases and no auditors we'd have another slump ahead. Scientology is not in the experience of anyone's back track. It is itself. It is the one thing senior to life because it handles all factors of life. Scientology could not have happened earlier because there was not enough livingness to study. We have arrived near bottom.

There are people getting released now all over the world. Just remember that you share the agreement of the society in which you live. You'll have to be able to audit to skillfully handle aberrated persons. And it will take a lot of auditors to have a released society.

Right now it's all right to keep your eye on that first dynamic and get released. You should. But when, suddenly, you find you've achieved release remember when I tell you this one thing:

There are eight dynamics.

You cannot stay released unless you solve things by the equation of the optimum solution: The greatest good for the greatest number of dynamics. Failing to so solve things dug you in to where you were in the first place.

Scientology got you out.

Stay out by knowing Scientology well.

I look forward to seeing your bright, smiling face, released or not, in the Academy in D.C., New York, Los Angeles, Twin Cities, Miami, or at Saint Hill.

A Released World to be needs you as a good and skilled Scientologist.

And that's how you're going to help me.

Okay?

P.S. When I solve a case I always ask the pc for one un-named favor. I've never called these favors in. The favor I tell you now for the first time: Whatever else you are, be a good Scientologist and help me clear these Earth people.
