From the Editor

Dear Advance Mag Reader,

This issue of Advance! marks the beginning of two new series of articles.

The first of these is a new series of articles which throw a new light on Man's backtrack (history of Man's experience) on this planet. I think you will find it very interesting.

The second new series consists of articles edited from the fascinating taped lectures given by Ron in the early 1950's on the nature and capabilities of an Operating Thetan!

This issue introduces other new features in Advance!, such as a preview of next month's issue and a broad invitation for readership participation in this magazine.

Specifically, I would like to receive (and publish) various "Letters to the Editor" which you care to send me regarding your views on the magazine or points you might like to take up in the articles.

We have received numerous responses to the Advance Mag Reader's Survey included with Advance 12, the last issue. Your answers are being tabulated and will be published for your interest in a following issue.

This issue of Advance! contains an even more important survey.

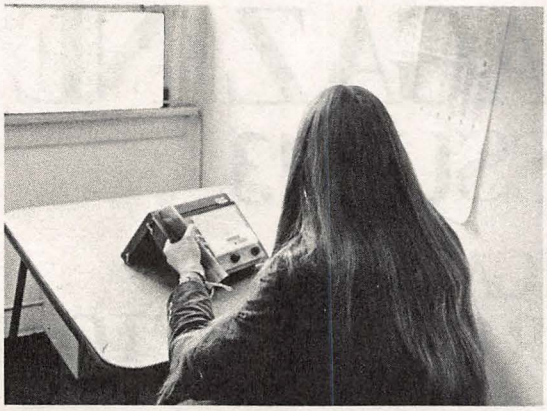

I would like each of you to fill it in and mail it back to me in the return envelope provided.

The key to Grade 6, Clear and OT

THE SOLO AUDIT COURSE BOOMS AT AOLA

The line-up at the AO is SOLO AUDITING: We produce excellent solo auditors who then audit themselves to Grade 6 Release, Clear and on up the OT levels.

The Solo Audit Course is a standardly run course. It has a Solo Course Supervisor introduces two new students to the class.

Course Administrator, who makes certain students have their materials, and a Course Supervisor.

The course is given in two spacious air conditioned blue carpeted rooms.

Most students finish this course—the Solo Audit Course—easily in three weeks.

And students come off the course flying and wanting very much to go and solo audit AND wanting to get more of Ron's great tech by going on to more training. Students who have come off AOLA's Solo Course have been uniformly good solo auditors and have had good results in auditing all the way through Clear and all the OT levels. The Course is producing effectively trained students.

After completing the Solo Audit Course the Grade 6 auditing section is studied in a special separate course room. On this Course the special films of Ron lecturing on the data of Grade 6 are shown. Once the student has passed starrate checkouts and knows the materials, he is ready to solo audit.

Now the solo auditor has his first experience of solo auditing. He audits himself to Grade 6 Release. Grade 6 Releases at AOLA RAVE about their attainment of the power to act on their own determinism and their freedom from dramatization!

To start the Solo Audit Course, the student must be a Grade VA Release and have completed the Primary (study) Rundown. The Solo Audit Course is available only at Advanced Organizations.

FIRST IN A NEW SERIES OF ARTICLES ON MAN'S SPIRITUAL HERITAGE

All up and down his track Man has tried to understand the puzzle of his own existence and rise to a higher level. He has never quit.

A study of Man's history also shows that materialism, the lie that all life proceeds from matter and returns to matter, only recently has had widespread popularity. The original and traditional beliefs of Man hold that there is a spiritual aspect of Man's existence.

Yet throughout history the effort of the forces of evil has been to reduce Man to matter – to attempt to compress him into a body or fixed position so he could not escape the grip of the enslaver. On the other hand, the forces of good carry forward on the idea that there is a spirit, that the spirit is individually itself and can be free of matter.

These latter beliefs are the primary ones of Mankind which, from the beginning, have inspired all Man's progress.

This is the spirit that wrote Man's philosophies, built the arching temples, laid down the principles of science, and discovered the moons of Jupiter.

This, then, is the spiritual heritage of Scientology. Advance Magazine will explore this heritage, as we believe its readers will be very interested in the historical background of the advanced levels.

The first of this new series of articles is on ANIMISM.

ANIMISM
The belief in the existence of spirits

DEFINITION OF ANIMISM

Modern science sneers at Animism. It has been characterized by social "scientists" as the superstitions of primitives and savages. Yet is this true—what is Animism?

Animism derives from the Latin word anima meaning life, breath, soul, and the English -ism meaning practice of or belief in.

Thus Animism is defined as:

> The belief in the existence of soul distinct from matter; the belief in spiritual beings such as souls and spirits.

Thus the word means, purely and simply, the doctrine of separable (capable of being separated) souls.

An examination shows that this was the primary belief of Man upon which religion later arose. Animism is primarily an explanation of observable phenomena rather than an emotional or religious attitude.

ORIGIN OF ANIMISM

How did Animism arise?

In the first place, we can assume that Man, unless suppressed by false education and propaganda that he is only a body, is naturally aware of his own spirituality.

Furthermore, it is possible that reflection on such phenomena as trances, unconsciousness, dreams and death led Man to decide there was a spiritual side of existence to explain such phenomena.

Thus the "primitive" view of Man assumed a soul in Man to account for his actions and apparent nature. Of course, the exact nature of the soul was not defined. In some societies, including pre-Christian Europe, it was identified with the shadow. For example, the Basutoes in South Africa conceived that if a man's shadow fell on a river that a crocodile could seize it and draw him in.

More familiar is the connection between the soul and breath. The word spirit comes from the Latin spiritus meaning breath, soul and life. This connection was also common in non-Western societies in Australia, America and Asia. The breath was conceived to house the soul or vital principle.

This led to the Roman custom, shared by certain American Indian cultures, of receiving the breath of a dying man to ensure his soul was transferred to a new body.

In animistic Societies the state of unconsciousness was often explained as due to the absence of the soul. Sickness was also often viewed as stemming from the absence of the soul, and remedies were undertaken to bring back the wandering soul.

For example, in some traditional areas of China when a person is at the point of death and his soul is supposed to have already left his body, the patient's coat is held up on a long bamboo stick while the priest tries, by various appeals, to bring back the departed spirit first into the coat and then back into the body.

Other phenomena primitive Man encountered lent themselves to a spiritual explanation.

For example, what went forth during sleep or the self imposed trance of the priest which visited distant lands and came back sometimes with actual details? The natural explanation was that something must have journeyed forth which wasn't the body!

ANIMISM AND DEATH

From this belief in the non-physical nature of the spirit it was obvious that the spirit survived the death of the body and lived on, either taking up a new body or remaining around the scene for various purposes—sometimes to help his friends find out who knocked off his body!

One of the most fascinating features of Animism in some parts of the world was the belief that the human body is the seat of more than one soul! On the island of Nias, for example, four spirits per body are distinguished: the shadow and the intelligence which die with the body, a guardian or leading spirit called "begoe" and another carried around the head, both of which survive the body.

The Dakota Indian tribe in North America also assigned the body as the abode of multiple spirits. Of the four souls of a Dakota, one is held to stay with the corpse, another in the village, a third goes into the air, and a fourth goes to the Land of Souls where its luck depends on its status in this life and the manner of death.

From the belief in the survival of the living soul after the body's death arose the practice of offering food, lighting fires at the grave, and other provisions such as putting a coin in the corpse's mouth so that the released spirit could pay the ferryman's expense across the river on his way to his next existence.

DEVELOPMENT OF ANIMISM

The animistic view of the world which saw the spirit as the causative agent led to or was part of a wider development of Animism. It was natural to consider that if Man had a soul then animals and plants, as living dynamic entities, also possessed or shared a soul. Spiritual entities were also conceived to reside in association with stars, stones, etc., or the wind.

This conception of spirits dwelling in inanimate (non-living) objects differentiates Animism from Animalism, the belief that inanimate objects have a form of life and are conscious beings. Animism should also be distinguished from Pantheism, which is defined as:

1. The belief that god is not a personality but that all laws, forces and manifestations of the physical universe are god; the belief that god is everything and everything is god.
2. The worship of all gods.

DETACHED SPIRITS

Side by side with the idea of souls dwelling in specific abodes, there also exists in Animism a belief in a great variety of spirits, unattached and independent of any body.

These subdivide into good spirits and evil spirits.

Among the "good" spirits is the guardian spirit. According to ancient Roman belief, each person is assigned a guardian spirit called a "genius" who accompanies him through life.

It is noteworthy that the modern use of the word "genius" meaning "a person gifted with a surpassing ability" demonstrates Man's intuitive knowledge that ability and intelligence basically derive from the spiritual nature of Man.

Evil spirits were handled in various ways including exorcism (forced exteriorization of an evil spirit from a body), as well as ceremonies designed to expel evil spirits from a whole community.

Animism, the traditional philosophy of Man, did not die at the dawn of civilization but continued as a vital doctrine right up to modern times.

For example, Shakespeare's ghosts in Hamlet and King Richard the Third have animistic origins. And when the neighbors place flowers before the graves of their dearly departed they are

Fantastic Advanced Courses Line up

The Advanced Courses consist of the Clearing Course and seven sections of the OT Course.

Clearing Course and OT levels are done with a study section and an auditing section.

The study section is done under the Advanced Courses Supervisor in special study rooms (one for Clearing to OT II and one for OT III and above) that are very comfortable. You receive your course study materials and checksheet from the Tech Services Chief and "go to work" on study.

Depending on the level, students get through the study section in a day or two. They are checked out standardly on materials so that no misunderstood words are passed. Method

4 Word Clearing is used on all students. They are checked out in a manner that ensures they can apply the materials to the level in auditing. Just as a note—this study cycle was not in prior to July of last year and many older students who took levels earlier than that date may not be aware of this excellent use of study on the levels.

To begin the auditing cycle of a level the students receive their auditing materials from the Tech Services Chief and go to their own rooms and audit the level.

Students report their auditing hours daily, though there is no minimum of hours audited, and can drop in to the AO and talk to the Solo Director of Processing or get a Solo Case Supervision any time during business hours (9am to 6pm, 7pm to 10:30pm).

Solo C/Sing on these levels, as for Grade 6 auditors, is very quick.

In "after service interviews" of students, there are many raves about the SPEED of service on Advanced Courses.

There is even a special comfortable Advanced Courses reception area just for students who are having folders C/Sed.

Because of our great line-up, all Advanced Courses students are, one for one, achieving the full gains from Clear and OT levels!

SUCCESS
BEYOND MAN'S WILDEST DREAMS

This is the first real course I ever had.

I recommend it highly to any solo auditor who has not continued or that doubted he could audit.

I cognited that I had a misunderstood on who was the pc in a solo session. I remembered that I was in sort of a panic about who the pc was or where he was.

I cognited the pc is me! Solo TR's and Solo Meter Drills really brought that point out.

I now have a pc to audit. I cognited that there are two roles to be played, auditor and pc. I had them confused.

This time things have really gone right! The Case Supervision is terrific—no invalidation of the auditor.

I did OT VII and, WOW, OT III is really flying along now! The gains are terrific!

With the current supervision and programming you can't help but win!

Toni Fuses OT III Expanded

My wins after doing OT III several years ago were really great. So many good things kept happening that I realized how satisfied I was with life.

Then OT VII came along.

I did that level and went on to OT III Expanded.

Immediately new horizons opened up and some fantastic experiences happened. Then I went on through OT IV, V and VI. The tech was beautiful and suddenly the whole Theta-MEST scene just fit together.

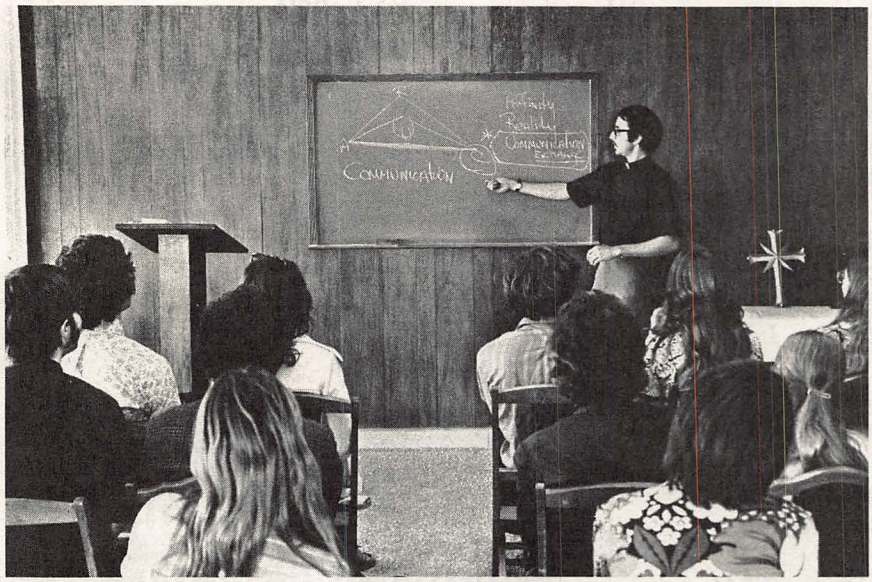

If I'd been aware of the terrific gains to be made beforehand, I'd have done it much sooner.

Since then I find life exciting and challenging.

Now I'm helping others to cross the bridge to freedom because I know it's the truly right thing to do.

THE WAY OUT TO TOTAL FREEDOM

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

The way out begins with your local Church of Scientology. There are 56 of these, located on four continents. All Dianetic and Scientology services, from the Introductory Lecture to Level IV on the Classification and Gradation Chart, are offered by your local Scientology Church. This includes Beginning Courses, Hubbard Standard Dianetics Course, Hubbard Dianetics Graduate Course (trains Dianetics Course Supervisors).

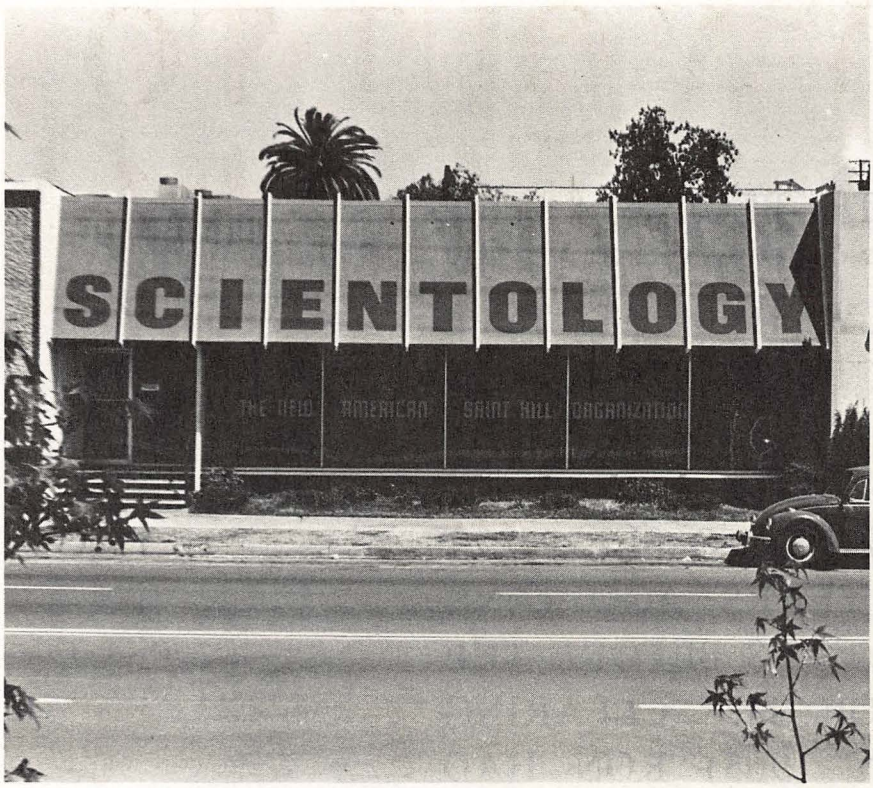

Above these services the local Church offers Academy training from Level O to, usually, Level IV, and Hubbard Guidance Center spiritual counseling including Standard Dianetics and Expanded Lower Grades

CENTRAL ORGANIZATIONS

There are thirteen Central Organizations. These are Washington, Los Angeles Day and Foundation, New York, Boston Day and Foundation, Toronto, San Francisco, London, Johannesburg, Denmark and Sydney. These are the original, traditional Scientology organizations in their area.

They offer all services a Local Org does, and also handle any cases a Local Org isn't able to fully handle.

SAINT HILLS

There are three Saint Hills—AOSH UK, AOSH DK and the New American Saint Hill Organization (ASHO).

In the United Kingdom and Denmark the AO's and SH's (Saint Hills) are combined under a single management while yet maintaining their separate service facilities and administration. In the U.S., ASHO and AOLA are only about a 10-minute drive apart. By having SH's and AO's in close proximity, faster service became possible.

Saint Hill level organizations specialize in Power Processing (prerequisite for the Solo Audit Course and Grade VI at an AO) and all upper level auditor training, including the famous Saint Hill Special Briefing Course (Class VI), Class VII, Class VIII and Class IX.

THE ADVANCED ORGANIZATION

The Advanced Organization is the most exciting place in the world—where the highest dreams of Man are exceeded through the regaining of native abilities and total freedom on the Advanced Courses.

The first step is the Solo Auditors Course, then Grade VI Release, and from there to Clear and then OT I, OT II, OT III, OT VII, OT III Expanded, OT IV, OT V, and OT VI in that order.

THIS IS RON'S BRIDGE TO TOTAL FREEDOM STARTING AT YOUR NEAREST CHURCH, THROUGH SAINT HILL TO YOUR ADVANCED ORGANIZATION. SEE THAT OTHERS FOLLOW THIS ROUTE—FOLLOW IT YOURSELF STEP BY STEP TO OT VIII!

THIS MONTH BEGINS A NEW SERIES OF ARTICLES FROM THE EARLY 1950 OT TYPE TAPED LECTURES BY L. RON HUBBARD.

IT IS AMAZING TO SEE THAT OVER 15 YEARS AGO (AND OVER 10 YEARS BEFORE THE RELEASE OF THE CLEARING COURSE IN 1965) RON HAD EXPLORED AND EXPLAINED TO US IN GREAT DETAIL THE STATE OF OPERATING THETAN.

IN FACT, THESE EARLY LECTURES FORM THE MOST COMPREHENSIVE STATEMENT AVAILABLE OF THE ACTIONS AND CAPABILITIES OF A THETAN.

IT IS WITH GREAT PLEASURE THAT WE PRESENT TO YOU THE FIRST ARTICLE IN THIS GREAT SERIES.

By L. Ron Hubbard

THE HIGHEST LEVEL

edited from LRH taped lecture of 2 Dec., 1972 "The "Q": The Highest Level of Knowledge"

There is a whole series numbering about five above the level of logic and the Dianetic Axioms. I've been calling these things the "Qs" which is just a mathematical designation without further significance.

To differentiate them from other things "Q" could actually be defined in this way: it is the level from which we are now viewing which is common denominator to all experience which we can now view. In other words, this is the level from which we're viewing all experience, which acts as a common denominator to all that experience and which is the highest level from which we're operating. These Qs then would stand behind everything else that we do.

The first Q can be put in italics about 125 feet tall because it took a long time to get it but what you can do with it is phenomenal. The first Q can be stated as follows: self-determinism out of theta is the ability to locate in space and time energy and matter and to create space and time with which to create and locate energy and matter. That is also the knowable level we now have of the definition of theta.

Let's look more closely at what theta is. It is something which has no wavelength, no position in space – any space – no position in time, and which hasn't any form or shape but which has an individuality for the individual, its own ability to be its own beingness and which can locate things in space and time. By "things" I mean energy and matter. And it cannot only do that but it can also create space and time in order to create energy and matter.

This isn't everything theta can do. But we do know with certainty that from the plane we're operating on that theta could or does create the space and energy and matter which is the mest universe and can move the energy and matter around in the mest universe and that at the same time it can create space and energy to make another universe. We know these two conditions exist—we can see them and experience them.

Thus, this Q can be seen to be a potential and a capability.

TYPES OF UNIVERSES

Actually, the first Q can produce various types of universes. For example, it can produce universes along very definite lines such as the mest universe or produce universes of completely ephemeral lines or not produce one at all. And a universe can be patterned to have eight dynamics as this one, but you could also have one with 82 dynamics or 16 dynamics and twisted space. In fact, you can make a kind of space for anything you can draw a mathematical symbol for.

I also know of three frames positively outside this universe. There's a universe outside this universe and there's a universe outside that and its set of universes, and there's a universe outside that universe and I know of another one beyond that. And they're not necessarily getting thinner or more unsubstantial, but they don't run according to the same laws.

I also know that every individual is perfectly capable of making one. But in order to produce a universe you would first have to be pretty able to handle one.

IDENTITY AND INDIVIDUALITY

Our first Q then expresses our highest level of attack – which is above the level of survival and action as well as above the level of beingness. Oddly enough, it is also about the level of identity as such although it is way up at the top level of individuality.

People have had the idea that there was just a main body of theta and everybody became one when you got to the top of the tone scale. Fortunately that isn't true. In fact, when you go down tone scale everybody becomes one.

That oneness is mest and there is no individuality whatsoever in mest. For example, a chair does not care who lifts it around. Anyone can move it. It doesn't say "excuse me" or anything of the sort. It is the true brotherhood of the mest universe.

It does however have an identity: it is a

Q1. Self-Determinism is the common denominator of all life impulses.

(a) Definition of Self-Determinism: The ability to locate in space and time energy and matter. Also the ability to create space and time in which to create and locate energy and matter.

(b) The identification of the source of that which places matter and energy and originates space and time is not necessary to the resolution of this problem at this time.

chair with a particular location, and it has a color. But it's just an identity with no individuality.

Individuality depends on being able to make identities.

Take a little kid who runs around – he's Buck Rodgers now, a few years back he would have been Jesse James, and before that somebody else. I imagine in Rome the little kids were running up and down, even without wooden swords in their hands, being Julius Caesar. But they'd be Julius Caesar this afternoon, Tiberius tomorrow, and Caligula the next day.

In other words the little kid doesn't care how many identities he has, but if you asked him if he was an individual he'd be very positive in telling you he was. In fact, the greatest amount of individuality a person ever has in homo sapiens' life span is when he's a child.

We're talking here about an ultimate individuality that is attainable. And by ultimate I don't mean absolute. There's probably a lot of individuality left as we go on up.

THE THREE UNIVERSES

The Q we have described evaluates the data of any universe. And, fortunately, we have a very large number of universes available. For instance, you have three universes available to you right now: the mest universe, your own universe, and somebody else's universe.

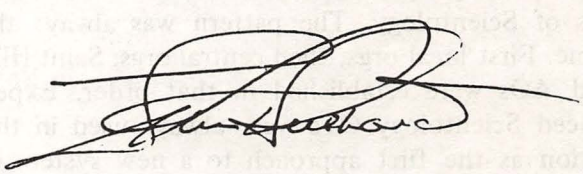

Of these three the most important one is your own – because you can be certain of it, and 100 percent in control of it. And if you just start working up to 100 percent in control of your own universe, the other two universes fall into line as a category.

But what's standing there at the center of the three universes? The capability of theta as we have described it!

You can experience this with your own universe and as you go on up the line you start to experience it more and more broadly, until all of a sudden you say "Well, I don't know what capability I might be able to obtain but I certainly have this low level capability of being able to manufacture in any space, energy, matter and objects and to manufacture space in which to have energy and objects. I wonder what's above that level?"

So you see theta is not a nothingness. It just happens to be an exterior thing to this universe so one couldn't talk about it in this universe's terms.

Nevertheless, as far as this universe's terms are concerned, we have defined it and it's just a little bit of a triumph to tell you the truth.

"That the influence of Scientology spread so rapidly throughout this sector of the universe may not be as astonishing as it appears when one realizes that Scientology was the first workable technology this universe has ever seen which was developed to actually free a thetan and rehabilitate OTs.

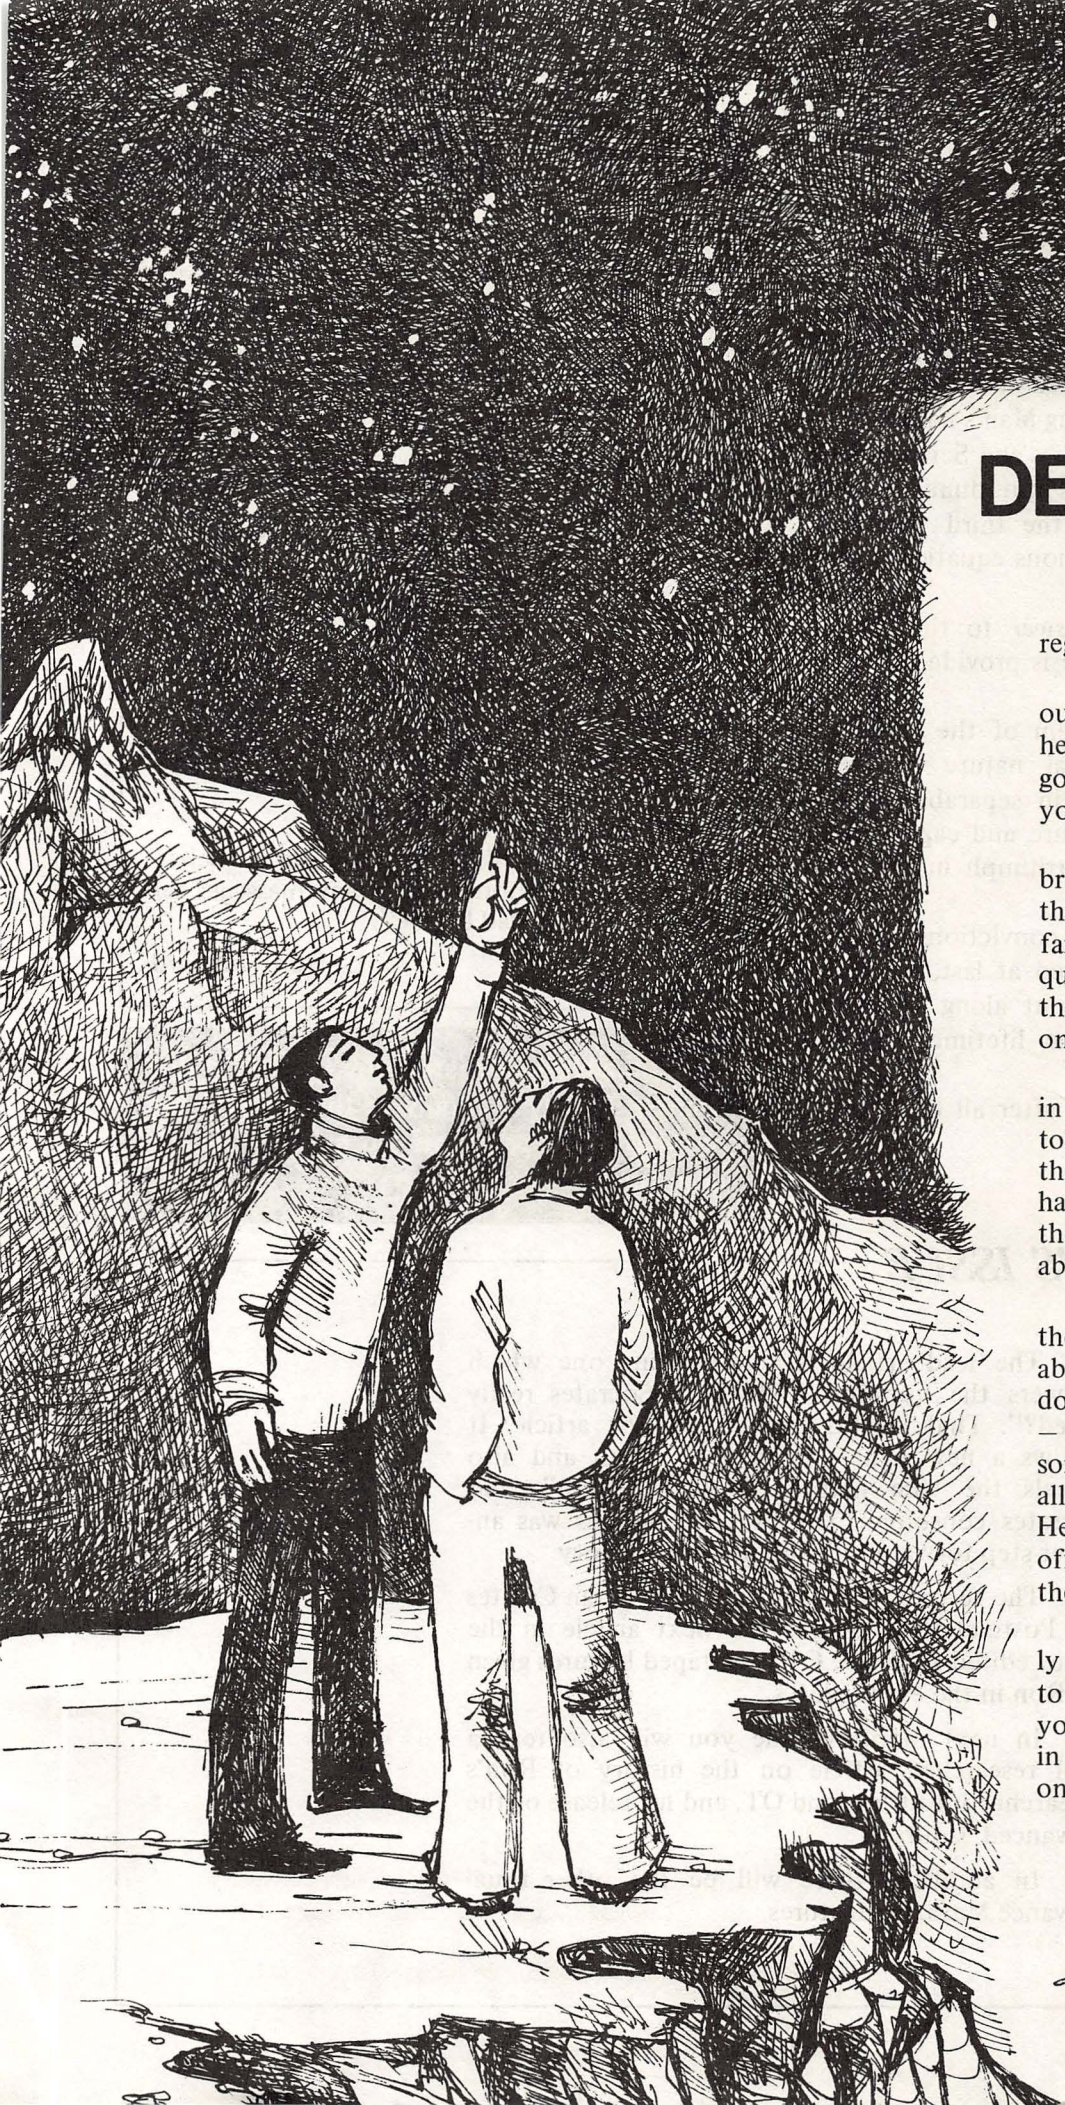

Another feature of its expansion was its fantastic organizational tech. This factor was so strong that its planetary administrators were as eagerly sought as its auditors. Moreover, no planet was too small or its people too isolated to receive the benefits of Scientology. The pattern was always the same. First local orgs, then central orgs, Saint Hills and AOs were established in that order. Experienced Scientology OTs were always used in this action as the first approach to a new system or planet could be highly critical.

In this way, irresistably, dirt by galactic shovelful, our sector was civilized.

Certainly, one of the most remarkable aspects of the appearance of Scientology as a sector-wide influence, is that it represents the first significant expansion that has occurred in our history without commercial or military designs or associations. Its empire is one wholly of wisdom and truth and the freedom of the spirit."

I had just finished reading the above passages from the new best seller, "A Short History of Civilization" when the planetary approach light flashed on. Automatically, I reached for the deceleration lever.

Looking out through the night-filled space port, once again the familiar sight of the galaxy's first cleared planet welcomed me—Earth!

DEPTH IN SPACE

BY L. RON HUBBARD

People do fascinating things with regard to space.

For example, one person can go out and look at the stars and see the heavens in three dimensions. He has a good idea of space and can point out to you the furthest star.

This has nothing to do with the brightness of the star because some of the very bright ones are actually quite far away and some of the dim stars are quite close. This person can actually see that a bright star is further than the dim ones.

In other words he can see depth in space. And you can look up what he's told you on an astronomy chart and find the same dimensions. Of course, he'd have to have a pretty good concept of the dimensions of this universe to be able to do that.

Some other fellow goes out and those same stars appear to be floating about a foot above his head. He just doesn't have any distance to them at all – they all look flat to him. And then somebody else goes out – to him they all appear to be tipped some other way. He can plainly see that the heavens run off that way and as you get further to the south, why, they're going up.

You can observe this more closely if you ask a few people how stars look to them. If you asked them searchingly you would find that there are differences in the observation of space. That is the only point I'm making here.

repeating an animistic ritual that in many societies was done to speed the soul on to its next abode.

THE RIDDLE

People have been looking for thousands of years to solve the riddle of Man's nature, the riddle of their own beingness.

Animism correctly viewed that Man was a body with a soul, thus explaining Man's nature as a dualism. It remained for Dianetics and Scientology to show that Man's nature is not dualistic but three-part, and to supply as the third part the missing factor in all Man's previous equations: the mind.

Of course, the full answer to the riddle which Animism sought to solve is provided on the Advanced Courses.

There, the final problem of the mind is resolved and the full spiritual nature of Man revealed. The animist's belief in separable souls, and his description of the nature and capabilities of the soul has its crowning triumph in the OT levels.

Thus the earliest, innate convictions of Man have been completely vindicated at last, and the full route has been mapped out along which a being can advance, during one lifetime, to the highest states of existence.

We've made it, at last, after all these ages and ages!

IN NEXT MONTH'S ISSUE

The lead article is a fascinating one which answers the question "Why was Socrates really killed?". That is also the title of the article. It throws a new light on Socrates' death and also reveals the true nature of the "demon" who Socrates consulted. The life of Socrates was another step forward in Man's spiritual history.

The second great feature is "A Thetan Creates by Postulates" which is the next article in the series edited from the OT type taped lectures given by Ron in the early 1950's.

In next month's issue you will also read a well researched article on the history of Ron's researches into Clear and OT, and his release of the Advanced Courses.

In addition, there will be the other usual Advance Magazine features.

We are making the WORLD'S FINEST AUDITORS – We want to make more!

SEA ORG AUDITORS ARE THE WORLD'S FINEST.

First of all, when an Auditor joins the Sea Org he has an opportunity to get his Sea Org basics in, such as doing the fascinating Sea Org Member hat and raising his ability to confront and handle the physical universe.

He then would be posted as an Auditor at a Sea Org Org such as Saint Hill (ASHO) or an AO. Any rough spots in the Auditor's previous training are first thoroughly handled. Then he audits in the exciting upper level tech atmosphere of a SH (ASHO) or AO.

The best of these auditors have a chance to go to Flag to join the Class X Internship and ultimately become a Class XII Auditor.

As a special bonus, any Class VI auditors (or above) joining the Sea Org are immediately flown to Flag at Sea Org expense and enrolled on the Class X Internship.

At Flag, Ron's home, an auditor can achieve his full and ultimate potential to help his pcs by a perfected ability to apply standard tech. Flag auditors are world famous for their flawless auditing.

ADVANCE AS AN AUDITOR BY JOINING THE SEA ORG.

See the Personnel Procurement Officer of your nearest Sea Org Org or Unit.

THE ATTAINMENT OF POWER OT

OTTO ROOS, A FLAG CLASS XII AUDITOR, RECENTLY GAVE THE FOLLOWING SUCCESS SPEECH.

"Once upon a time I said that you had to be a Class VIII to make it all the way. Now I must say that you have to be a Class XII to make it all the way.

"The fact that I have attained this case state (Power OT) is very nice but of minor importance. It is the ability to give it to others.

"We must remember that what we are working toward is that old valuable final product—and that's the fellow holding the cans. That's what we're working for.

"So this is addressed to those people in there (he points to the internship room) and others who are coming up the line, and you all who will all make it.

"It is the ability to give it (meaning this case state) to others that is what is of highest importance." (He points to Class XII's Tommy and Liese Klingvall.) "I remember when they came aboard and wanted to be in the Engine Room, and see them now!" (Pointing to one of Flag's finest Case Supervisors.) "And he used to be a Cow Milker . . . and is now one of the greatest auditors.

"So this is the route for all of us as pointed out by the Master Specialist upstairs (points in the direction of Ron's Study), as he gave all and a person is only as OT as he can do that."

SUCCESS BEYOND MAN'S WILDEST DREAMS Part 2

This is such an extraordinary level, and I had hundreds — maybe thousands of cognitions while doing it. But the end result is so beautiful!

My eyesight improved quite dramatically and everything is so clear, clean, sharp and bright, and my space is limitless!

Thank you all AO people and thank you Ron.

This was a benefit I never expected when I came into Scientology!

Mary Wernicke OT III Expanded

Today and the past few days have been most wonderful!

I know what some people are going to tell me before they say it. Today while my car was being serviced, I knew when the service station attendant was going to tell me something and what it was he was going to say. And it sure came out just like I knew!

Thank you all and especially Ron!

Stephen Boyko OT III Expanded

I bounced a few planets around this afternoon and then restrung the stars for Christmas lights!

Thanks to Ron and each of you who makes things go right.

A zillion viewpoints dancing through Eternity! What a ball!
