SOARING TO CAUSE IN THE GOLDEN AGE OF TECH FOR OT

Attaining Willing and Knowing Cause by L. RON HUBBARD

The Total Freedom and Power of OT Awaits You at AOLA

Without question there couldn't be a more fitting way to start the Scientology Millennium than for every Scientologist to make it to OT this year. To bring anyone to the top of The Bridge to Total Freedom, LRH established Advanced Organizations so that each and every Scientologist can do so standardly and rapidly.

Week by week at AOLA, an ever-increasing number of people are doing exactly that. And if one discovery is common amongst them, it is this: that every block to their route to OT is simply a dramatization of the traps of this planet. They are, in fact, simply considerations. And by unleashing the total freedom and power on the Advanced Courses, not only do each of those considerations vanish, but the full and spectacular wins of each of the Advanced Levels are yours.

That's what is being accomplished every day at AOLA, where we have everything in place awaiting only your arrival: Our Advanced Courses technical delivery team – our Flag-trained Solo and Advanced Courses Supervisors, our Flag-trained Senior C/S – and each of the incredible breakthroughs on the Golden Age of Tech Solo Auditor Course and Solo Certainty Course checksheets.

And, with major developments in the debugging of stalled Clears – and yet another recent breakthrough in Solo auditor training (see our feature article on page 12 and LRH Film News on page 25), we are cutting right through the Q-and-A of the bank's dramatizations and are making perfect, Golden Age of Tech Solo auditors who move rapidly onto the Advanced Courses and up the OT levels. With all this, we now have the very essence of a huge OT boom in the making – and not "this millennium" or "in this new century," but right now.

LRH once wrote, "The ideal org would be an activity where people came to achieve freedom and where they had confidence they would attain it....

"One could look at this ideal org and know that this was the place a new civilization was being established for this planet."

We have such an ideal org awaiting you. So come in now and achieve freedom across all your dynamics.

Love,
The Executives and Staff
of your Advanced Organization of Los Angeles

IMPORTANT NOTE

While reading this magazine, be very, very certain you do not go past any words you do not fully understand. If the material becomes confusing or you can't seem to grasp it, there will be a word just earlier that you have not understood. Immediately go back, find the word and get it defined. There is a brief glossary on page 26.

ABOUT THE COVER:

Places of pilgrimage exerted a powerful attraction, drawing believers to their precincts in search of a higher consciousness or the ultimate truth. Turn the page to our Spiritual History feature, "Pilgrimages of Hope: In Search of Salvation" to read of their search.

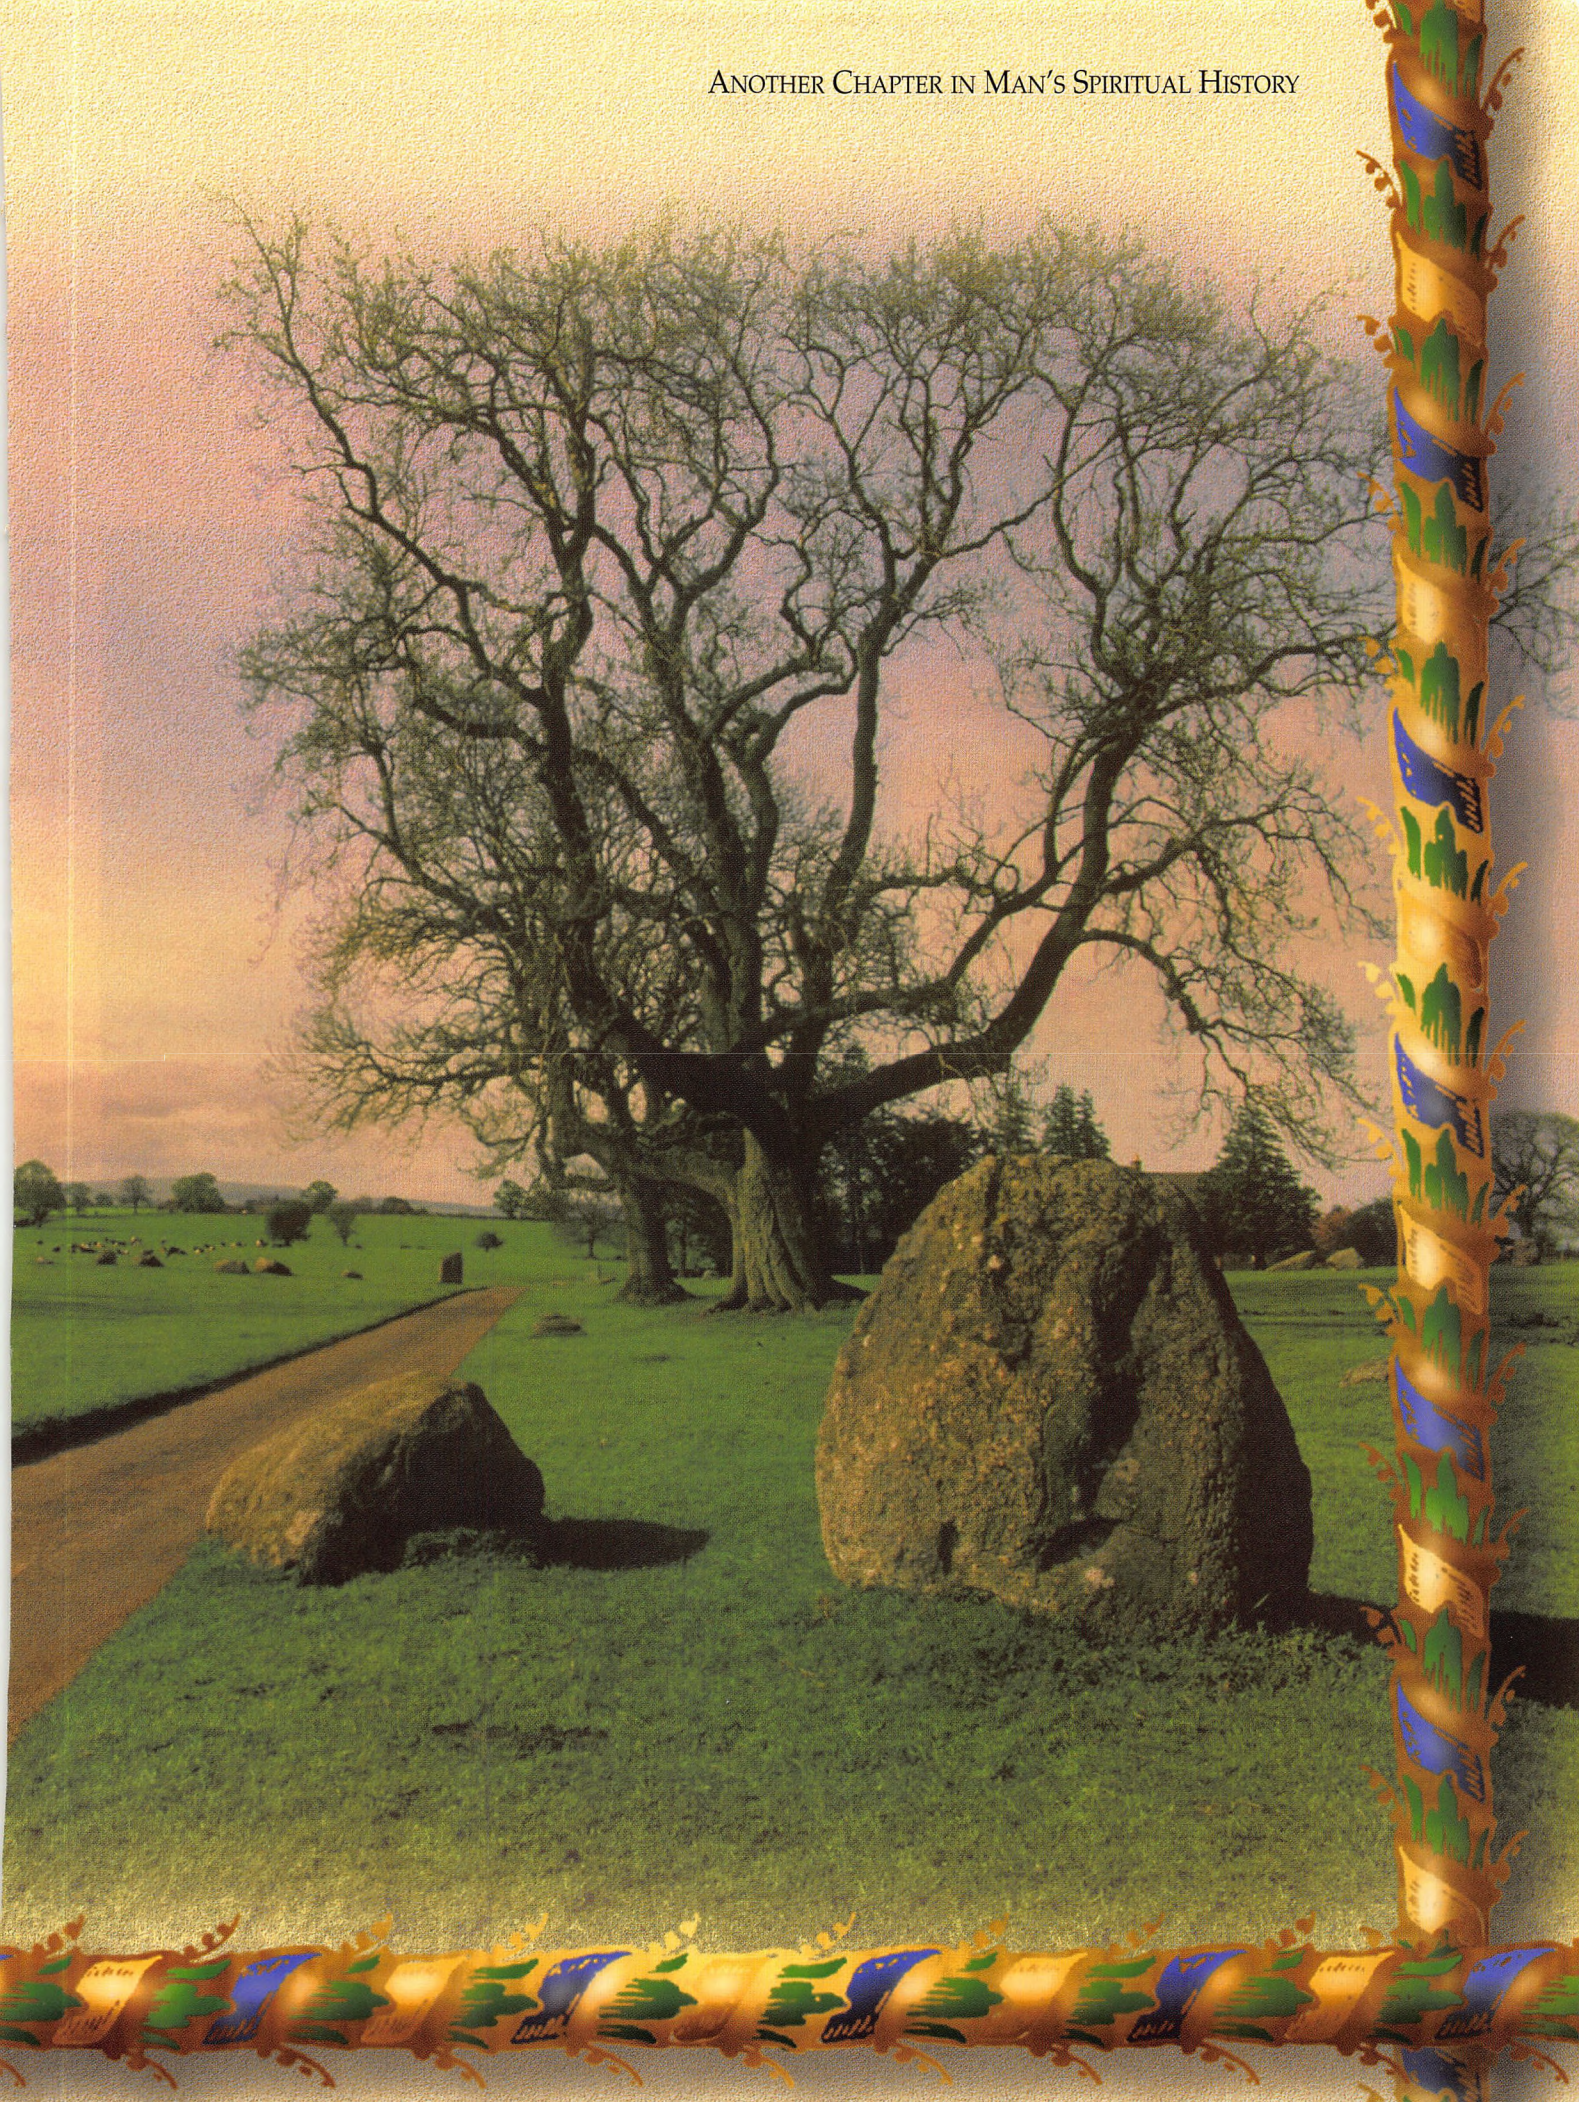

Pilgrimages of Hope

In Search of Salvation

In this Spiritual History article, Advance! rolls back the calendar to the millennia past for a look at what has been one of the most enduring religious experiences on this planet's track: pilgrimages of hope.

His trek would take him thousands of miles along uncharted routes – sometime on horseback, often on foot. But vast distance and crude means were not the half of it. Over the highest mountains and through the deepest canyons, through wind and rain, and then across desert, he persevered on a journey that was never without dangers, yet always with the most fervent purpose. Kindling this adventure was a conviction so personal he would overcome any obstacle to reach his destination. For his to attain, once he reached that destination, was perhaps a grander seat in the hereafter, or an indulgence earned, or a miraculous healing cure, or the fulfillment of a penance or a vow. And, while his impulse might also have been no different than one finds common today – to escape from the routine life and adventure off to far-flung lands – his senior motive was some form of spiritual betterment.

PILGRIMAGES: WHY AND WHERE?

While the word pilgrim is of Latin origin (meaning "stranger" or "wanderer"), the history of pilgrim travel dates far earlier than the fabled Christian pilgrimages of the last millennium or even ancient Rome. But this was no aimless wanderer. Be he a Phoenician, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu, Judeo-Christian or any of the countless religions that held such expeditions sacred, the religious pilgrim was drawn to certain sites where a deity or god or holy person was said to exercise a powerful influence. And so he traveled there in reverence of his god, to request assistance or favors, to give thanks or to ask forgiveness of sins.

In India, pilgrims have, for many centuries, traveled to dozens of sites where the Hindu god, Shiva – the dynamic power behind the endless cycle of birth, death and rebirth – has been said to have manifested himself. They have, as well, travelled to the Ganges, the hallowed river of Hindu belief, where bathing in the sacred waters has long been believed to bring about a spiritual cleansing.

Since the sixth century BC, one of these sites – the city of Varanasi (or Benares) in northern India – has been a sacred Buddhist destination as the site of Siddhartha Gautama's first sermon in nearby Sarnath (530 BC). Buddhists still, to this day, make pilgrimages by the millions to Varanasi and three other ancient sacred resorts – Kapilavastu, Gaya and Kusinagara, where Gautama was born, where he reached his highest state of enlightenment and where he attained Nirvana, respectively.

Pilgrimages to holy places were traditional throughout the Mediterranean and the Middle East well before the rise of Christianity. The Jew lived in hopes of one day seeing Zion, the ancient fortification conquered by King David, upon which he built the "city of David," Jerusalem. And, pious pagan Arabs, long before Mohammed, had traveled in caravans to the Kaaba, the cubic-shaped structure in Mecca which is said to have been built originally by Adam, and now houses the most venerated object for Muslims, the Black Stone in the holy city of Mecca. In Islam, pilgrimage reached a high point as one of the five pillars of the faith. Even today, every devout Muslim is expected to journey to Mecca once in his life.

Pilgrimage has also been practiced by the Syrians, Phoenicians, Egyptians, and, of course, the Greeks who travelled to Delphi and other shrines to consult the gods.

Whatever the personal motivation of these holy expeditions, they were both an undeniable social force and a personal quest that transcended anything the elements of the day could unleash on the faithful, particularly in Europe.

By the turn of the second millennium AD, Christian pilgrimages had established a long and enduring history. They had grown initially with the Christian community of the second and third centuries, then swept into broader popularity throughout Europe in the fourth, due largely to the complete remake of Jerusalem by Rome's first Christian emperor, Constantine. Gone were the pagan Roman shrines, replaced by those dedicated to Christ and the devotees who walked with him.

Thereafter, the principal pilgrimage routes grew from two (Rome and the Holy Land) to several, including Santiago de Compostella in Spain, where in the eighth century, the bones of Saint James (referred to as "the brother of Christ") were proclaimed to be found.

This movement survived the many political upheavals throughout the Roman Empire, then religious battles between Christian and pagan forces, then the disarray of the embattled empire and the moral erosion that beset the Church in the latter half of the first millennium. Through this tumult – and the all-out, centuries-long war with Islam – marched pilgrims seeking the space and time of the holy in hopes of their spiritual salvation.

But what exactly gave this movement the strength to stand up to the vast distances pilgrims would travel on foot or on horseback through fierce Alpine storms – no road maps and few sign posts? Or compelled them to sea routes, where the odds of shipwreck were so sharply against them that only a minority would once again see their homeland? What made pilgrimages rise above the politics, remain oblivious to the discord throughout the Church hierarchy and persist through a violence of the day characterized by one Middle Ages historian as "endemic and itself unremarkable"?

THE WORD PILGRIM HAS LATIN ROOTS. IT MEANS "STRANGER" OR "WANDERER." BUT THIS WAS NOT AN AIMLESS WANDERER. HIS GOAL WAS A SPECIFIC PLACE OR SHRINE. PILGRIMS — BE THEY CHRISTIAN, HINDU, MUSLIM OR ANY OF THE NUMEROUS RELIGIONS THAT HELD SUCH JOURNEYS SACRED — WERE DRAWN TO CERTAIN SITES WHERE A DEITY OR GOD OR HOLY PERSON WAS SAID TO EXERCISE A POWERFUL INFLUENCE.

SALVATION'S CALLING

To understand the circumstances and the pilgrim's resilience to the elements, one must first understand the nature of this voluntary undertaking. It was spiritual salvation he sought. But from what?

"One fundamental feature of people's religious drives was that they were conditioned by reactions to sin and an appreciation of its consequences," explained a noted historian of the 11th century. "No aspect of human conduct and social interaction was immune from the taint of sinfulness."

And, when it came to repenting one's sins, it was without question that actions, spiritually speaking, spoke at least as loudly as words of remorse. That a life of sin could be remedied through penances was deemed perfectly natural, particularly in close-knit medieval communities, where sin could so readily upset the equilibrium of a small world.

Penance was the agreed-upon way to maintain social cohesion, thus the personal drive to show one and all his repentance.

But why through pilgrimage?

A noteworthy feature of medieval religious culture yields the answer: the Christian's profound attachment to a sense of place.

And, where else but at the thousands of saints' shrines which dotted across western Christendom, could the benefits of religious commitment be better seen, heard and touched?

"Saints were a central element in eleventh century devotion and performed many useful functions," noted the medieval historian. "They enabled the Church to walk the tightrope of holding out the possibility of salvation to the sinful populace while asserting Heaven's rigorous entry requirements.

"Because saints had once been mortals themselves and so had an insight into human limitations, they were also able to act as intercessors in the heavenly hall of justice."

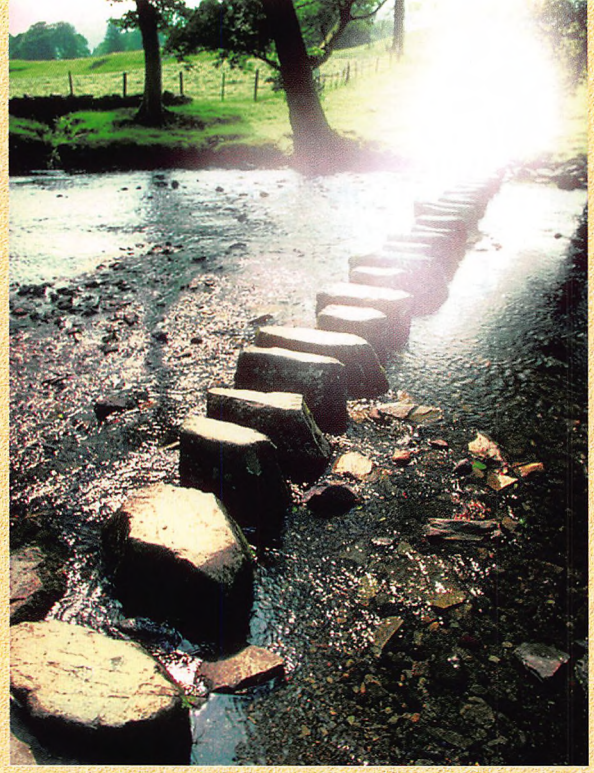

On Earth the physical remains of the Holy – and the relics associated with their lives – emanated a wondrous spiritual power which devotees could tap into. And, while the spirits of these saints were not restricted geographically, it was believed that at least a part of their power was.

So, it was this relationship between idea and location that drew Christians by the millions – a thousand years ago, as it does today – to the places where Christ and the saints had lived, traveled, taught, died and were buried. And, to make this trek was considered no less than the ultimate religious experience.

GROWING FERVOR

The outset of the second millennium brought an advance of communications through continental Europe, along with an increase in traffic in the Mediterranean.

Notwithstanding an Islamic sacking of Christ's tomb in Jerusalem in the first decade of the millennium, more Western Europeans than ever would satisfy their urge to journey to the Holy Land. And they did so in droves.

As they increased in number, the places for pilgrims to visit multiplied. Soon, places of prayer in the Holy Land were so numerous that it took several days to visit them all.

One historian-philosopher wrote of this movement, "The bravest pilgrims fared to distant Palestine, sometimes barefoot or clothed only in a shirt, and usually armed with cross, staff, and purse all given by a priest. In 1054 Bishop Liebert of Cambrai led 3,000 pilgrims to Jerusalem; in 1064 the archbishops of Cologne and Mainz, and the bishops of Speyer, Bamberg, and Utrecht started for Jerusalem with 10,000 Christians in their wake; 3,000 of them perished on the way; only 2,000 returned safely to their native lands."

Is it any wonder then, with these numbers and undaunting fervor, that Pope Urban II, would launch the First Crusade at Clermont, France, in November 1095? Many, he acknowledged in his sermon that touched off the centuries-long Crusades, had been to the East or knew those who had. And with that acknowledgement came the clincher: scare stories about Turkish defilement of the Holy Places that so many had personally experienced.

MIRACULOUS INTERCESSION

Whatever the political ramifications, it is also the many surviving accounts of miracles occurring at shrines that convey the religious sensibilities at the time. One perfect illustration was a story from the shrine of St. Winnoc at the monastery of Bergues in northeastern France.

"It was Pentecost (that is to say, early summer) and large crowds had been drawn to the monastic church. Some were local people, others outsiders attracted by St. Winnoc's reputation. One day, as the faithful pressed forward towards the shrine, a small blind girl, who had become something of a mascot to the assembled crowd, found herself isolated at the back. She was therefore passed hand to hand over the heads of the throng until she reached the front, where some of Winnoc's relics were being displayed to the crowd in a feretory, a portable reliquary [a place where relics are kept]. The people looked heavenward and prayed that, through the saint's intercession, God might grant the girl her sight. For good measure they added that they would become more assiduous in their attendance at the church should they be given such a sign. Suddenly the girl became convulsed and the sockets of her eyes began to hemorrhage. A short time later she announced that she was able to see."

It is this same mystique that has fueled pilgrimages through the centuries and to this very day. In modern locations on the European continent, more present-day miracles have given rise to shrines that have drawn millions of devotees throughout the 20th century and now into the 21st.

The origins of the pilgrimage to Lourdes, a town in the Pyrenees foothills of France, are perhaps the most celebrated example. This small town of 16,000 residents attracts an estimated four to six million visitors from more than 110 countries every year. Their destination: the shrine of Bernadette Soubirous – Saint Bernadette – who in 1858 at age 14, had numerous religious visions in a nearby grotto. In one of these visions, an apparition who would later reveal herself as the Virgin Mary, instructed Bernadette to "go tell the village to build a chapel here." Where Bernadette soon thereafter died, a spring appeared, and that sacred pool would become the site of many cases of verified healings in the century-and-a-half since.

ALL THROUGH MAN'S HISTORY, HE HAS BELIEVED THAT A PATH EXISTED WHICH WOULD LEAD HIM TO SPIRITUAL BETTERMENT.

LIFE AS A PILGRIMAGE

At least since Saint Augustine's early fifth century literary work, City of God, Christian thought has considered life in this world to be a journey to God. This concept is reflected, as well, in John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, Dante's Divine Comedy, and Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales.

In fact, all through man's history, he has believed that a path existed which would lead to true spiritual betterment. But most pilgrims, while hoping for miracles in the present life, thought that at least their travels and travails might count in the afterlife – one, they hoped, in which they would be spared from hell.

As grim as this might appear, this impetus was enough to take them through the MEST barriers of land and sea. But the barriers man could not overcome, until the emergence of Dianetics and Scientology, were those that haunt him on his journey every day. Hidden from man's view until LRH's discoveries into the mind and spirit are the barriers of the Reactive Mind that block the road to all man has been searching for in every millennium past.

Today, that path – over every last barrier and straight to OT – is yours to walk. And the highest states of existence are yours for eternity – on the Advanced Courses.

The tools to bring you to CAUSE OVER YOUR DYNAMICS...

...are contained in these books

The basic truths about the state of OT have been missing from all of man's writings down through history. Now we have these truths. The stable data man has always been searching for are contained in these four books by L. Ron Hubbard:

SCIENTOLOGY 8-8008
The meaning of "8-8008" is that one attains infinity (the symbol "8" laid on its side) through the reduction of the apparent infinity of the physical universe to zero and the increase of one's own creative ability from an apparent zero to infinity. Read this book and learn how to free the human spirit from the effects of the physical universe.

SCIENTOLOGY 8-80
The discovery and increase of life energy is a goal as old as man himself. Learn the truth of man's nature as a spiritual being that creates and uses the energies of aesthetics, thought, emotion and effort to operate in the physical universe.

SCIENTOLOGY: A HISTORY OF MAN
This book is, as LRH stated in the introduction, "a cold-blooded and factual account of your last sixty trillion years." Read it and discover the truth for yourself – including a description of the principal incidents on the whole track.

THE CREATION OF HUMAN ABILITY
This book charts the route to the ultimate human ability – operating as a spiritual being exterior to one's body. With more than 80 powerful processes, this book will show you how to rehabilitate your true abilities.

From the "Restoration of Knowing Cause, Clear to OT" lecture series.

Attaining Willing & Knowing CAUSE

BY L. RON HUBBARD

I found out the other day, quite by accident that I had audited somebody myself for about thirty-two hours, and I was tremendously amazed, yesterday, to find out I had made a Clear. We hadn't been investigating this at all, and this person required about two weeks to settle in to a digestion of what had happened. In other words, this person had not been aware of it or had spoken of it nor had I been aware of it particularly, but about two weeks after the fact, this person all of a sudden starts running around acting like a Clear.

Now, we've never discussed this thing – this person and myself – but this person's starting to give me the lowdown on things. And it's quite amusing – this person is starting to talk out of Scientology 8-8008. "Why don't people simply postulate what they want? I don't understand this," this person said yesterday.

That, of course, is an upper-scale symptom of Clear. So this procedure here is getting results that haven't been gotten before on a more or less routine basis. That makes about six that have been turned out here just in recent weeks.

The end goal of this procedure, then, is the state of Clear. And that is not the state of Operating Thetan. Please, please, please spring these things apart. Let's not go space opera, let's not do a defense department all-out on this thing and expect that just because we've cleared somebody, why, instantly the electric lights won't work in his vicinity or something of the sort. Let's not look for outrageous phenomena, because the Clear is understandable within the range of human phenomena. In other words, any human being could understand a Clear.

Well, that's not true of an Operating Thetan. An Operating Thetan would throw a human being into a state of terror, to say the least. The one thing a human being is afraid of is something like an Operating Thetan. Practically every prevention that has been taken by religion on any other activity for the last two or three thousand years at least has been to make sure that no Operating Thetans could operate. The Inquisition was simply an anxiety state that the church got into, and the Inquisition itself was simply an answer to this problem of "What do we do about a thetan in good condition?" One of the things they did in the Inquisition when they burned somebody was to pack the person's throat and chest area with ice, so that the exteriorization of the thetan during the burning at the stake would be delayed as long as possible, thus giving him the idea that he couldn't get out.

The degradation of a thetan. An organization, then, totally devoted to the salvage of the human soul is found to exist solely on the expertness that it suppressed one. Now, I'm not being facetious here, what I'm saying is actually – it's not just one of Ron's cracks; it happens to be true.

When a thetan gets down as low as a human being, he ceases to be able to understand or be able to cope with anything vaguely resembling an Operating Thetan. Now, that range then, is not one that you can broadly talk about. A Clear can understand one. And one of the benefits of Clear is that no state of terror comes about at the thought of somebody prowling around without a head. Now, that's probably its most interesting benefit.

When I'm talking to you about these states of Clear and Operating Thetan, I'm actually talking to you about very high-power material that man has been sweating over and slaving toward and abusing himself most remarkably, about here, for a number of generations, to say the least. Twenty-five thousand years is probably a more exact period. He's been articulating these problems since the earliest days of the witch doctor, one way or the other. And he hasn't been able to cope with them. In Africa, right at this moment – particularly the Belgian Congo, someplace like that – you will find that nearly all tribal customs are leveled at the solution of problems regarding the human spirit. Now, religion has been having a wonderful time trying to handle problems with regard to the human spirit. They finally got the final answer, and that is you simply suppressed all spirits to a point where they wouldn't notice. And you had it answered.

These are not brutal words; I'm just saying the material that I'm taking up here and the state that we're trying to attain is not new or startling to man. It has been a primary concern of man for many thousands of years.

Our answer is different than the answer which the Western Church assumed, but not too much different from that which the Eastern philosophies assumed. Long before us, somebody said suppressing everybody so they can all live really isn't the best answer. And Gautama Buddha said that in about 625 B.C., and worked along that line. He expertly saw that if you suppressed everybody, you wouldn't have anybody left – a point which other people seem to have overlooked. Now, everybody doesn't have to be low-toned in order to live.

This is not merely an historical footnote to this procedure. I'm telling you this for this reason, there isn't anyone here who hasn't been raised in the philosophy, knowingly or unknowingly to some degree, that the best answer is the suppression of the human spirit. This is the prevailing philosophy for the last two thousand years. You haven't liked it particularly, or you wouldn't be here, but some of that is on automatic. And as a result, an auditor occasionally makes a blunder which isn't a blunder. He's coming along fine. Clearly and analytically he's going to make somebody better, but right about the point where he would make him better, something happens and he, to be technical, louses up the case.

Now, how does this happen? Why does this happen? That's because of this philosophy I have just been talking about – please look upon it as merely a specialized philosophy, it hasn't any more reality than any other thing, it's just a bunch of considerations – that the way to get along is to have everybody in bad shape. "If everyone is weak, then we're all set. If everyone is totally degraded, we're all set," which stems from the idea that man is basically evil and, therefore, we have to have all men weak in order to have a civilization.

Well, a weak civilization based on that philosophy tends to succumb rather easily, and can be eaten up by somebody who has got a rather depraved viewpoint of some kind or another, so of course, the philosophy has been kicked along by all those who wish to make slaves out of everybody else. But in view of the fact that the making of slaves then brings about the dramatization of making slaves, we get into one of these vicious spirals without a bottom. And we get slavery being dramatized and so on, and nobody ever gets off the back of anybody's neck.

I am not saying that this has anything to do with your motives at all because you wouldn't be here. I am merely remarking the fact that we have had training in this society at this time that we have to do certain ornery, mean and vicious things to people in order to get along. Now, the frailty of that philosophy will become manifest to you as you go along. And right now I insult you by even inferring that you don't already know this. I'm just pushing this home and giving you some of its source. This is where this came from – the idea of everybody weak.

As soon as you get a preclear into pretty good condition he becomes ethical, which he never was before probably. If you're really successful with somebody, why, he starts to behave much more decently than before. And if you were unsuccessful he starts to behave rather badly. If you didn't do anything for him or if you messed him up a little bit here and there, why, he became less ethical and his behavior less acceptable. The other philosophy, of course, which opposes "man is evil," is that man is totally and only good. And this is folly, too, because naturally a man can be evil, otherwise he never would have had such a thing as a Spanish Inquisition. He can behave in an evil fashion.

Now, if he can behave in an evil fashion and if he can behave in a good fashion, what is he? Well, he is what he is. But he only reacts badly and antisocially when he believes that he is surrounded by evil and when he believes that he cannot handle or control evil. And then he is reduced to dramatizing this thing called evil; thus, he behaves badly.

His state can be improved more easily than it can be reduced, which is one of the beautiful things that has come up in Scientology. It's one of the more gorgeous things that we have found out. It's lovely. I mean, it's just accidental. We couldn't have asked for it to be better, but it's no fault of ours. And that is that you can improve an IQ much more easily than you can worsen one. To have made him better is so easy that it's a wonder nobody tried it. Now if somebody had tried it, they would have found out something quite remarkable: that it's very easy to make somebody better and it's difficult to make him worse.

As long as you audit, then, straight at the goal of improving him toward Operating Thetan, you arrive at Clear. And the definition of Operating Thetan, well-worded or not, but understandable, is: an Operating Thetan can be at willing and knowing cause over life, matter, energy, space and time. Now, you audit toward that goal – cause over these things – and you get what we've had before in all this: you get his self-determined action, the preclear has to do it himself. You get all these various odds and ends that we have been finding piecemeal and stressing for years, and they all sum up into this other thing, which is just the goal of Operating Thetan.

Clear is a more subjective version than Operating Thetan. I told you that there were four universes, or four areas of interest with which a person must become familiar, and those were the thetan, the mind (the mental image picture and so forth), the body (bodies and so forth), and the material universe itself. There were these four things. And there weren't any more than these four things, because if you took the thetan and blew him up to a total, which would be Operating Thetan, you would have God, so you have the eighth dynamic.

> "We know where we're going. We're going toward a potential cause, willing and knowing, over all life – this is the absolute – all energy, all matter, all space, all time."

So we haven't excluded anything. If we take body here, we might as well have the bodies of dogs as the bodies of people. As a matter of fact, the psychologist would much rather.

And over here we have the MEST universe. That's, you might say, the agreed-upon universe, and if it was some other universe than this universe, we were still in the class of universes – the inspected, agreed-upon universe seen by more than one person. All we're trying to attain here in the state of Clear is a very finite version of this: A thetan – the person himself – not in control of all thetans everywhere, but just slightly in control of himself so that he's not totally dependent in all directions.

And this universe called the mind – we're talking about his mind. We're not talking about all minds. This actually makes an auditor a higher state than Clear because an auditor controls other minds.

And over here, bodies – we're not interested in his wife's body, or the body of his pet or something like this – we're simply interested in his body. We're only interested in one body and we're only interested in this one universe – this thing that we're sitting in and around and that surrounds us and that's baffling the Atomic Energy Commission right now, how to get rid of it.

Now, here then we have this state of Clear looking straight at the person himself, not to make him a god or to make him a peer over all other thetans. We're just looking at himself, his mind, his body and the universe in which he finds himself. So the state of Clear is a singularity of each one of these four universes. You're just dealing with one thetan, one mind, one body and one universe. Got it?

Well, naturally if you audit toward all thetans, all minds, all bodies and all universes, you can't help but sooner or later shake out one body, one mind. It's very easy. The tougher trick is from Clear on. But you're already intellectually at a more advanced state than Clear in one sphere. You're controlling other minds. It's quite interesting.

I've often known this, you know – just sort of known it like you kind of know things – that being an auditor was a higher state than many states we are trying to attain in processing. I've known this, but I've never before been able to state it.

Knowing something and being able to state it to yourself is one thing, and knowing something and being able to state it to yourself and tell somebody else about it – boy, we've really walked up into the stars now. There's a big jump between those two things. You'll find that all the time. It's very interesting. You try to give somebody a piece of Scientology, and he says to you, "Oh yes," he said, "I knew that all the time," or "That is true, isn't it?" The goop! He never was able to articulate it, state it and he didn't know it. But you articulated it and he could then articulate it and he suddenly understood it and he gets this odd phenomenon of "I knew it all the time."

We know where we're going. We're going toward a potential cause, willing and knowing, over all life – this is the absolute – all energy, all matter, all space, all time. You're going toward a total absolute, and we attain willing and knowing cause over self, a thetan; mind, his own; body, his own; universe, the one he is in.

Restoration of Knowing Cause
CLEAR TO OT

The new Restoration of Knowing Cause, Clear to OT lectures are where you get the data to resume control of the game of life as a full OT. And that leads to restoration of self across all dynamics.

As LRH says in the first of 40 lectures in this series, "There's no material actually in this ACC that's been thoroughly and fully covered before. And a lot of you are going to sit there in this ACC, and you're going to say, 'Oh, yes, I've heard that, I've heard that.' Well, listen, listen twice, will you? Because you haven't heard these things. You only think you have."

You'll learn basic datums of Scientology with such depth, that it totally changes your viewpoint – and your life. Because here is where LRH unfolds how to take a being straight up to Clear and beyond.

You've heard them all and plenty more.

And, no doubt, in this and many lifetimes past, you've lived them.

But for many this lifetime – even with the nature of the traps of this planet discovered by LRH and the route to Operating Thetan fully laid out on the OT levels – those ramparts have seemingly grown to mythical proportions and life can bring on the torpedoes with untold fury.

But just when life's randomities seem to have built insurmountable walls between man's dreams and his only route to the total freedom and power of OT, a curious phenomenon has come into play: Clears once-stalled on The Bridge are right now discovering the exact actions required to get unstalled and moving.

And in droves.

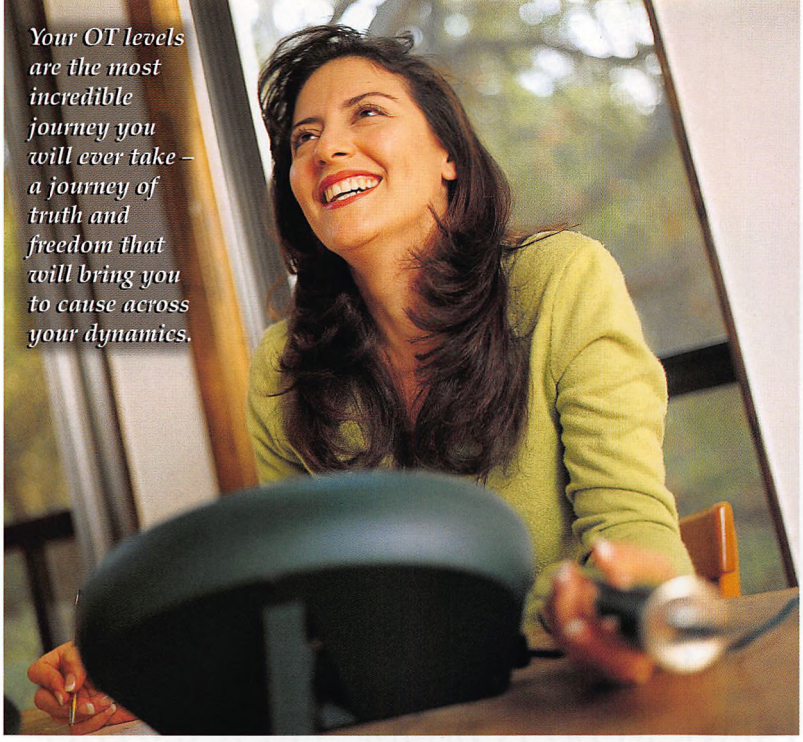

Instances are mounting, week after week, of Clears miraculously blowing through bugs and considerations to get moving onto the Solo Auditor Course. This remarkable turnabout hasn't "just happened," and Advance! has taken each and every element of this apart so, if you belong in this howling charge – or know and care about someone who does – you can take the exact successful actions that are today bringing people straight to their dream of OT.

THE GOLDEN AGE OF TECH FOR OT MARCHES FORWARD

The ongoing stampede to AOLA is rooted in Religious Technology Center investigations that led to Golden Age of Tech training, which today makes perfect auditors, and Golden Age of Tech for OT programs, which instantly created an OT boom at the top of The Bridge. (Just ask anyone in Flag's crowded Solo NOTs and Solo NOTs Certainty course rooms in recent years!)

Right behind that came the Golden Age of Tech Hubbard Solo Auditor Course

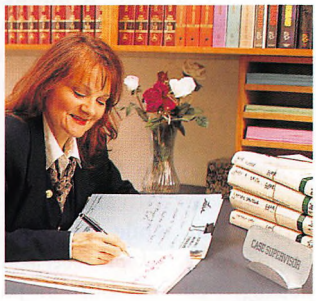

Your OT levels are the most incredible journey you will ever take – a journey of truth and freedom that will bring you to cause across your dynamics.

Our staff are totally dedicated to seeing you go free – as well as every other being in the Americas! That's why we're on an all-out crusade to call in all Clears right now, to get their 100% standard case program and get moving up to OT.

Our Golden Age of Tech C/S will review your folders and, using the precise LRH references on moving Clears rapidly up to OT, will program you for the exact steps you need to take to make it to OT, rapidly – and ONLY those steps.

The day arrives – you earn your Solo wings! And with Golden Age of Tech certainty, you know you're ready to soar up the OT levels.

checksheet. Then, in mid 1998, came another landmark: another RTC investigation to fully streamline case programming up The Bridge. And, with this came broad-scale unstalling of Clears – Clears who were no less Clear, but in LRH's terms, "still subject to the vagaries and pressures of life" until through the Wall of Fire on OT III.

But, with all this, there is yet another chapter to this story that has put the forward march of Clears over the top to OT: the training of org technical staff around the world to precisely program Clear cases and take the most A-to-B steps to ensure the most rapid progress possible to OT. Combine this with the delivery of Golden Age of Tech Solo Auditor Courses in Class V org course rooms around the world and the most recent development in Solo auditor training – the release of the new Technical Training Film, TR12, The Solo Auditor [see more on this film at page 25] – and there you have what's behind the buzz.

Or do you?

"SOLO STARTUP" – YOUR PERSONAL FLIGHT PLAN TO OT

In celebration of this huge juggernaut over all life's barriers and to full OT, AOLA has launched new programs that expand upon our already hugely successful consultations and services that are designed to get anyone to OT at no donation required. Our goal – and game, for that matter – is to get anyone, anywhere unstuck and moving up The Bridge to their Advanced Course levels this first year of the new millennium. Period.

The heartbeat of this crusade is our Solo Startup consultation service that AOLA makes available (no donation requested) to get cases unstalled and moving locally, as possible, and to ultimately get one to and through the doors of our Advanced Courses. And, if the Solo Startup service is the heartbeat, then the arteries are your local org, mission or field staff members who, working hand-in-hand with AOLA, have everything in place to save you critical time and money, and remove every last stop to your going free. AOLA has made it possible for FSMs, missions and orgs everywhere to help you secure your Solo-through-OT III package right in your home org or mission. In fact, we have a program in full gear right now to round up every Clear and make sure it's fully duplicated that getting to OT could not be easier: you get your Solo Auditor Course theory and drills at your home org; we get you your Solo wings and off the runway to OT here at AOLA.

AS-ISING EVERY BARRIER

"In order to best understand the ease with which you can blow through your barriers and speed your progress to OT, you've got to take your progress to OT into your own hands," advises one OT once stalled at Clear.

Your stable datum is knowing that it is easy to blow through life's barriers and go up the OT levels now. In addition to finding out about the Solo Startup program from AOLA or your Scientology org or mission, you must read Inspector General

Network Bulletin #39 YOUR PROGRESS TO OT (Arbitraries Cancelled!) [see Advance! 143]. With these tools – and Golden Age of Tech Solo auditor training – at your disposal, no matter where you are on The Bridge right now, you can be OT in a matter of M-O-N-T-H-S.

YOU'VE ARRIVED! MOVING ONTO AND THROUGH SOLO

When you make it through our doors and meet the staff here, you quickly discover an unmistakable "exuberance" in the air – and no more dedicated a team to ensure your swift and certain passage to OT.

A new Golden Age of Tech Solo auditor now on her Advanced Levels auditing reports that, while she was on Solo One, Supervisors "kept every course room flowing." Of one Sup in particular, she noted, "I swear she had the LRH reference for any question that could come up and always had lots of ARC for the students dealing with her. She always appeared calm despite any amount of randomity occurring in the course room or on the lines. I noticed her handling lots of situations with students – and she understands every aspect of her course room."

"AOLA's Solo Course Supervisor is the most excellent Sup I have had the pleasure of studying under," said a recent Solo Part Two graduate. "At this point of The Bridge, it means more to me now than it ever has before to get such standard and superb handling."

The critical importance of guiding Clears through the treacherous non-interference zone cannot be understated. That's why you hear the words 'care' and 'tone 40' so often from those moving through their Advanced Courses at AOLA, when they speak of those who service them here.

"When the Solo In-charge is on the lines of helping students from Solo One to OT I, there is a big increase in tone level and production," said one recent OT III completion. "On a first-hand basis, I saw him 8-C all terminals involved to focus in on getting the product of another OT. Without any duress on the line, he makes things happen!"

THROUGH THE WALL OF FIRE AS A GOLDEN AGE OF TECH SOLO AUDITOR

And, the rewards are many.

"This is for all stalled Clears: I was there too," says one Solo auditor who is now moving through the Wall of Fire on OT III. "Never had the statement, 'You have to be OT to go OT' been so real to me as when I decided to come to AOLA to go OT. I finally had to say 'enough' with the MEST universe trying to push me around.

Our Solo Course Room is completely set up to deliver this amazing course. Our Supervisors know exactly what to do to get you flying through your studies and winning!

"MY POSTULATES ARE PERFECT. ALL I HAVE TO DO IS DECIDE AND IT HAPPENS. AS AN OT, WHEN YOU INTEND SOMETHING, THERE IS JUST LESS CASE SITTING THERE."

"Then, on OT III, all the stops, barriers, 'can'ts,' 'don't want tos' and 'not sure I cans' get handled. I have become self-determined like I never thought I could.

"I know that everyone out there who is stalled is to some degree overwhelmed. That is handled on OT III – with no doubts or reservations.

"My postulates are perfect. All I have to do is decide and it happens. As an OT, when you intend something, there is just less case sitting there."

"In no uncertain terms, OT III will blow your mind," says another Solo auditor on OT III. "You will never look at man the same way again. You will know why people are in the condition that they are in. Your compassion will go through the roof. The data on this course gave me the most correct indication I've ever had spiritually. It was LRH direct to me on what's going on – very sobering, but it was a relief to know, and everyone has to get this data to survive. Everyone just has to have it, there are no options.

"I'm far more intelligent now than I was before. People can ask me a question and I'll come up with the answer. This is even with things like math- and business-related problems. I mean, I was good before, but I can solve problems instantaneously without effort. Sometimes I even know what it is before they say it. That really shocks people!

"My real OT abilities are coming back and the ones I already had are much sharper. I know where the people I am closest to are and what's going on with them. My postulates just come into fruition as a matter of course; the business has had two highest evers since I've been gone and this month is going to be another one. The comm lag on my postulates is far shorter than they've ever been."

And, another Solo auditor now on New OT V Audited NOTs, adds: "I am so completely different after my OT levels. I can now play any game I decide to. The automaticities of life are gone. Being able to have just me here is really something.

"And one of the biggest things I realized was how easy it was to go OT. All you have to do is show up. Just keep coming every day and you'll be OT before you know it."

BE OT RIGHT NOW

Find out how easy it is in this Golden Age of Tech for OT to get the full gain of all Solo audited levels, how easy it is to use the Solo auditing skill you need to make it through the Wall of Fire, how easy it is to get everything you looked to Scientology for, to gain standard results of applying LRH tech – 100% standardly to yourself and your life. In short, to be OT, and regain your native-state power and total freedom FOREVER.

With each development in Golden Age of Tech for OT case programming and Solo auditor training that now includes the new film, The Solo Auditor, it has never been so easy to get going and get soaring to OT. And, once you discover this for yourself, you are in for not just an experience of a lifetime, but of all the millennia past and future. Contact AOLA today, and we'll guide you straight to your cockpit!

WHAT HAS MADE SCIENTOLOGY THE FASTEST GROWING RELIGION IN THE HISTORY OF THE PLANET?

How did LRH research, develop and expand SCIENTOLOGY against any and all odds?

Who was trying to stop Scientology, and why?

And what does this have to do with your freedom, the freedom of your children, their children, and their children's children?

The full story has now been told, in a three-hour multimedia presentation by the Chairman of the Board RTC, including video interviews of those who were with Ron at the onset of DIANETICS, the first days of Saint Hill, the shooting of the first Tech Films, the Apollo and much more.

Now, every org on the planet is set up to show you a special video presentation of the New Year's 2000 Event – the event that launched the Scientology Millennium.

With many never-before-heard details, you will get the full picture of the first fifty years of our religion, and what it means to the future of mankind.

As a Scientologist, it is vital that you understand your religion and your part in it. Thus, this is a story you must know, and know well. It's your Scientology, and this presentation has everything to do with you achieving total freedom.

SOARING SUCCESSES

FROM GOLDEN AGE OF TECH SOLO AUDITORS

"I'M ON OT II NOW AND I'VE BEEN AUDITING ON IT FOR A FEW WEEKS. I'M STILL GETTING USED TO THE POWER AND LACK OF COMM LAG ON MY POSTULATES."

ROB CROSLEY

Originally from Austin, Texas, Rob was raised in Scientology. He manages several animal hospitals in Austin, and works at the field practice owned by his family.

"When I arrived just a few months ago, I had done all of the theory on Solo and gone twice through the meter drills. In three weeks full-time here at AOLA, I then did them, the remaining three times through, and all of the simulator drills. That's pretty fast. A major factor was the supervision. These Sups are only suping one course – SOLO. They know their stuff. If something is out, they show you the exact right reference and you drill it in. They can spot the exact drill that's out, and you get it in and then you fly. So I did more than half of Solo One in three weeks.

"My OT Preps and Eligibility program was very short and A to B. I did both of these actions in about three intensives. It was mostly my OT Eligibility and I only did a couple of very short actions on my OT Preps. Only exactly what was needed.

"I'm on OT II now and I've been auditing on it for a few weeks. I'm still getting used to the power and lack of comm lag on my postulates. Here is a funny example: I was looking at a catalog upstairs when I was waiting for my folder. I thought I might like to get a set of Philadelphia Doctorate Course lectures [PDCs]. About an hour later I came downstairs and walked through reception and the receptionist originates to me, 'Hey Rob, you should get your PDCs!' I was like, 'WHAT? Did I tell you I wanted to get them? Did I mention something?' Of course I hadn't said anything to him.

"This happens all the time. I'm still getting used to it. I can feel my intention getting better each day. I also know my responsibility has gone up quite a bit. I have a real sincere desire to help others and help them make it to OT.

"AOLA is a very special place, it's an OT org. They make OTs and the org itself is very OT. It's very theta and completely unenturbulated. It's the kind of space you want to be in all the time. I'm having an incredible time here going OT.

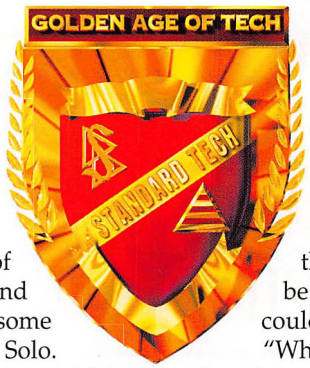

"From the time I arrived to the time I started on New OT I was only five weeks. All you need to know is that you get here and it's a straight A to B shot right to OT."

"I USED TO NEED A REASON TO BE HAPPY. OR SOMETHING WOULD HAPPEN THAT WOULD MAKE ME HAPPY. BUT NOW, I'M ALWAYS HAPPY."

VALERIE HEIFLER

A Scientologist for nine years, Valerie is a veterinarian who was introduced to Scientology through LRH Admin Tech. She attested to Clear six years ago. She recently received her Golden Age of Tech Case Program at AOLA and is now on New OT V.

"After attesting to Clear I had a lot of 'little' ruins I felt I needed to handle. I had quite a bit of PTS handling, did KTL and LOC and was always doing some Bridge action, but wasn't on Solo.

"I got in comm with my AOLA Registrar. She said I needed to do the Solo Course. So I came in and started. I hadn't had much training before the Solo Course, and it was my first Golden Age of Tech course, so I was very excited to do it.

"While I was on Solo, I got my Golden Age of Tech Case Program (when the issue from RTC came down regarding arbitraries on The Bridge). I was told I had virtually no OT Preps to do. The change in my pc program really motivated me even more to get through Solo fast. I realized that once I was through Solo One, it would be a matter of weeks until I could start New OT I.

"When I was finished with Solo One, I was not scared at all to go in session. I was very confident and had no attention on anything but the pre-OT. My first sessions, they were so fast! I was

GATEWAY TO OT – DO TH

DO YOU HAVE THE SKILL TO TAKE YOURSELF TO OT?

You want to reach Operating Thetan.

But let's get real: If you've never flown an airplane, you wouldn't think of trying to fly until you knew how.

Similarly, when you're flying Solo on your OT levels, it's vital to know your business. And a Solo auditor who is thoroughly trained on the Golden Age of Tech Solo Auditor Course literally can soar up the Advanced Courses to OT! In fact, this course IS the foundation from which you achieve case gains on the Advanced Courses – gains that restore your full cause across the dynamics forever.

"ON SOLO LEVELS YOU DESERVE THE BEST AUDITOR YOU CAN GET: YOU." – LRH

EARN YOUR WINGS – SEE

thinking, 'Wow! It's just me!' It also made me more responsible. Here I was with all this powerful tech, using it perfectly and getting my pre-OT through the OT levels. That's a pretty big thing and it carried over across my dynamics.

"On OT II, chunks of charge blew. The first few times I experienced this, a very funny phenomenon occurred. I would leave my auditing room and head to the Examiner and I'd be looking around for something. Was it my purse? No, I had that. What was it? Then I realized it was whatever I had just blown! I was so used to the mass in my space, that when it was gone, I was looking for it in the physical universe! This was the first time I had ever experienced such huge amounts of charge blow from my case. It was amazing.

"I can't even really put into words the difference in me before OT III versus after. Unwanted reactions to situations are gone. Sure I can get mad, but it's for a good reason and it handles very quickly. My husband and I used to fight like cats and dogs. We have disagreements now, but they are valid and we use two-way communication. They are not reactive.

"New OT IV was the icing on the cake. I had no real this-lifetime drug case really, but this is an OT Drug Rundown. I blew something major on this level on the third dynamic. I had been very individuated as a group member. I blew this to such a degree that I am going to be joining staff at LA Foundation.

"I really got the magnitude of how bad off this planet is. None of us are going to do well unless we all take responsibility for it and turn things around.

"I'm now on New OT V. The best way I can put it is that there are situations I have been tip-toeing around for many, many lifetimes that I have now handled. I even knew when I was five years old that there were subjects or areas that I wouldn't look at because they were trouble. I was constantly gearing my life around trying not to key in areas of charge. Now they get blown in seconds.

"There is something I want to make sure people are aware of in terms of getting onto Solo, and then staying on it and on the route to OT. Some days I could think of fifteen 'very good' reasons why I couldn't stay on course. These were 'very, very good' reasons. But I knew that if I went into agreement with them, things would get worse. They would get very solid in the physical universe if I granted them too much beingness. Now that I'm on New OT V, I really know why this is. I'm glad my knowingness told me to just disagree.

"I'm just happy. I used to need a reason to be happy. Or something would happen that would make me happy. But now, I'm always happy. And it's been like this for long enough for me to know it's not going away."

THE REGISTRAR TODAY!

A few days ago I had a deadline I needed to meet that involved getting an approval from another party before I sent the documents. The approval terminal was late coming in to the office to authorize the documents and time was ticking away. Someone went to his hotel to get the authorization.

Upon arrival at the hotel, he had some questions and didn't want to sign until he got clarification on these points. So the person returned with the documents unsigned.

I kept waiting for him to come in, but the deadline was getting dangerously close. Almost an hour later, he still hadn't appeared. By this time I literally had 15 minutes to contact him again via phone, answer his questions, get the authorization over the phone and make the mailing cut-off time.

I called his hotel room. There was no answer. I called to the front desk and they'd seen him just moments before heading toward the hotel restaurant. I had them connect me to the restaurant and he'd just been there two minutes earlier. I asked the person that answered the phone if they knew where he went, they said they saw him get in his car, but that he mentioned stopping off to buy something on his way in.

We wouldn't make the cut-off time unless I got ahold of him within minutes. And there was no way these documents were not going to make it – so I just got my intention in. I picked up where he was going to make this purchase. I called the store and described the man, gave his name and asked if he was there. The clerk said, "No, I don't see anyone like that. But if I do...wait, hang on..." and I could hear her ask his name. She got back on the line and said, "He just walked in!"

He got on the phone, and said in shock, "How in the world did you find me here?" I now had exactly two minutes to get this done.

"Intention. Now, about your questions..." I answered his questions, got the authorization and sent off the documents just in time! Intention is cause! – T.Q.

Doing a Repair of Past Ethics Conditions cycle, I needed to get in touch with an old friend from college. I knew she'd gotten married, but we had fallen out of touch and I had no idea what her married name was. I tried the obvious and called Directory Assistance looking for anyone with the same last name (it was very unusual). But there was nothing listed within several local area codes.

I even tried calling some mutual friends who I did have numbers for, but nothing. I wasn't sure what to do. I really needed to reach her to complete the condition I was doing, so I just decided that within the hour I would reach her.

All of a sudden I remembered a number. It was her parents phone number. I hadn't dialed the number in about twenty years. I called the number and her mom answered the phone. I introduced myself and she was shocked to hear from me. She said, "It's so interesting that you called. Janet (my friend) had just spoken of you out of the blue just yesterday. And if you had waited even an hour longer to call, you wouldn't have reached us. We are moving (they'd lived in that house for almost forty years) and the phone was getting disconnected." I got Janet's phone number, contacted her and handled what I needed to handle. – J.P.

I was inspecting a home to prepare a report for a real estate agent. It was a very large, nice home in the Hollywood Hills, four stories plus the basement. The agent was showing someone around upstairs, so I started in the basement. I looked around, and as I was heading up the stairs, I felt someone right behind me. I turned and looked and couldn't see anything, but I knew someone was there. The sensations were as if they were pushing me.

I went upstairs and continued my inspection. After the agent was alone he asked me if I had inspected the basement yet. I said I had. He smiled and said, "Did you see any dead bodies down there?" I said, "Why? Did someone die down there?" He said that someone was killed down there. That's who was there.

The very next day I was on another inspection at another house. There was an almost identical incident. I was walking down a hall, stepped into the master bedroom and there was someone in there. I kept my TRs in, walked out and approached the agent, "Did someone die here?" He looked at me, shocked, and said, "How did you know? Who told you?" I said no one told me. I asked what had occurred and he said that the previous owner had committed suicide in his bedroom.

I went back into the bedroom and told the being that I knew what had happened, but I wanted him to leave the house. There was no reason for him to be there and he was probably scaring people. I had more work to do, but he could follow me out the front door when I was done. I let him know I was leaving.

I went back once after this and found no sign of him. – T.P.

I was staying at a friend's house and I'm typically a light sleeper in an unfamiliar environment. For some reason, I woke up in the middle of the night and heard something, like someone on the phone. I decided to check it out because someone on the phone in the middle of the night is usually bad news.

I went out the bedroom door and could see someone talking on the phone near the kitchen at the end of the hallway. I went back inside the room, grabbed my robe and headed out...but now there was no one there. So I went back to bed.

The next morning, I asked my friend and her roommate who they had been on the phone with. They kind of looked at each other, comm lagged and proceeded to tell me about how the house was haunted – the story behind the phone caller.

Someone had been killed in the house and this person was calling for help. I thought this was interesting, sounded like a Hollywood screenplay. I asked if either of them had seen this ghost caller, and they had on separate occasions. They knew I was a Scientologist and asked if I could handle it.

Later that day I was the only person in the house and I sensed "something" and had a name for it... "the creeps". I thought there was someone around, but invalidated my knowingness. Then I thought, "What the heck!" And I proceeded to speak out loud to this being that I thought was in the space. I wasn't sure if it was better to think it or just say it, but it felt better saying it out loud.

I said that we knew why he was there, but it was too late. He couldn't help the person that was killed. I said even though he wasn't doing much harm, he was scaring the occupants, and wasting time not getting on with life, he needed to get a new body and I went on to explain how to do that. By the way, the ghost said he didn't know anything about anyone being killed there (I knew it was too "Hollywood"), he just wanted to call a loved one to let her know he was okay.

When my friend got home, I told her what happened. She was skeptical to say the least. I told her to just keep in comm with me and let me know if the ghost caller ever showed up again. Of course, he never did. – R.R.

At my desk the other day working away, I had the thought that I should call my family in Israel. A few minutes later my cell phone rang. I answered, "Hello?" There was a comm lag, then I heard a voice answer from what sounded like a distant location, "Hello?" I said, "Who is this?" It was my nephew calling me from Israel. I said, "Wow! What a surprise, I was just thinking that I should call you!" My nephew responded, "But you just called me..." I said, "No, my phone rang and I answered it...."

We went back and forth a few times and what apparently happened was that our phones rang simultaneously.

I was still skeptical and asked to speak to my brother.

My brother got on the phone and he confirmed that the phone rang there and my nephew answered it.

The clincher was when he said, "...besides, I couldn't call you if I wanted to. Your cell phone number is in my phone book in my desk at work. I don't even have it here at home." – A.G.

"Go OT" events put Clears on the Route to OT

To ensure all Clears move up to OT, we regularly hold events and briefings in our Atrium that provide the LRH tech to put one at cause over the MEST universe. The goal is nothing less than ALL CLEARS IN THE AMERICAS ON THEIR OT LEVELS NOW. To that end, we celebrated a milestone – the 35th Anniversary of the Solo Auditor Course – with a series of events in our Atrium, hosted by AOLA's OT Committee and featuring briefings by our Senior C/S, Griffee Blythe.

First, the OT Committee and its "OT Crusade Committee" co-hosted our "Especially for Clears" event, where the Senior C/S' briefing to a full house focused on the power of the Advanced Courses – and the precision Golden Age of Tech Solo auditor training that unleashes that power for every single Solo grad. Several OTs then gave their personal stories of breaking through the brick walls to their Advanced Courses.

Senior C/S AOLA Griffee Blythe presents the trailer for the newly released LRH Technical Training Film, "The Solo Auditor", at a briefing especially for Clears.

Valuable Insights

Advance! met with one of the event's hosts, AOLA's OT Committee Deputy Chairman, Lynne Pembroke, who had these insights for those who may run into such walls on their way up The Bridge:

"First, I kept my eye on the mountain always," says Lynne. "Sometimes I'd get into hot water as a thetan or get into the complexities of life, so I'd stop and ask myself, 'Is your eye on the mountain?' If it wasn't, I'd shift my viewpoint.

"Second, I also always helped. I have been constantly active on the 3rd and 4th dynamics – a way I keep my exchange in with LRH and the group. And, I want a Clear planet and a new civilization, so I need to do my part to make that happen.

"Lastly, I always went to LRH for the solutions to my problems. I'd find the piece of tech I wasn't applying and then use it. Sometimes it would be as simple as going to the closest org and going into the Qual Library until I found the reference. Or I would take the course that applied. Some of these simple actions were the best things I've done in Scientology in terms of progressing to OT.

"We have so many tools here to help – like the Clear Case Analysis line, which is free. Or an extension course for the books on the Solo Course as your first step to OT. Plus, any OT Committee member will personally help anyone with ethics, an admin scale and whatever is necessary to help connect Scientologists up to AOLA. I guarantee, if you are bugged on your Bridge progress, it won't be that way for long."

AOLA's "Admin Scale and Finance Workshop" is definitely hands-on, with practical exercises, as laid out in "The Scientology Handbook" booklet, "Targets and Goals."

On-Source Direction

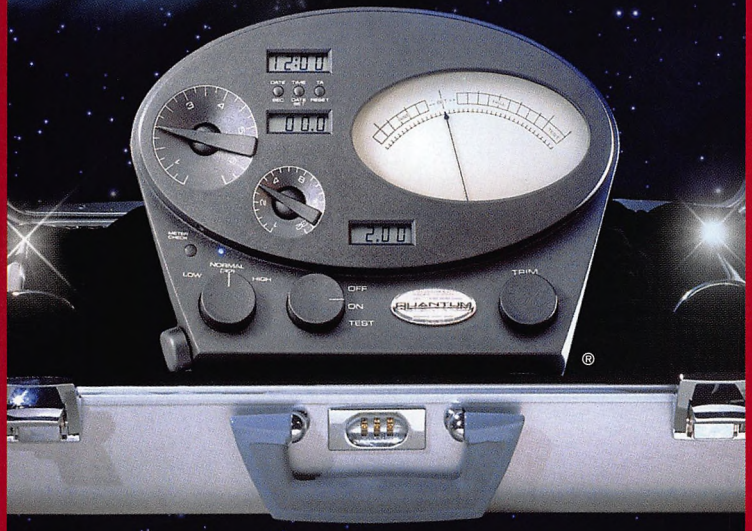

Lynne was also joined by the AOLA OT Committee at its "Key to OT" Event, where a panel of OT VIIs and VIIIs detailed how they had successfully made it to OT – and provided the exact LRH references they used with every decision made and action taken.

These events are regularly held, and the questions OTs throw at them are non-stop: How did they afford the time to do it, with kids, work and the pressures of daily life? How did they get the energy it takes to overcome plain old Q&A?

Anyone from any point on The Bridge can ask these questions – and they'll get some very frank, "Here's the tech" or "Here's the LRH policy to follow" answers. Be at the next Key to OT or "Especially for Clears" event, and you'll have these answers, too!

Admin Scale Workshop

Also inaugurated as a warm-up to the OT millennium was AOLA's "Admin Scale Workshop" – one brought into existence by popular demand and now a regular series by even greater popular demand.

Incorporating LRH basics of Be-Do-Have and the Admin Scale – as found in The Scientology Handbook booklet, "Targets and Goals" – was Kevin Burke, Solo NOTs Auditor, who has helped countless Scientologists "find the firm ground of solvency and soar to the heights of OT."

Kevin also walks attendees through basic LRH principles in the "Ethics and Conditions" and "Investigations" booklets to give practical and immediately applicable ways to dismantle the brick walls that, for some, seemingly crop up everywhere.

If you find those bricks piling up on you, you're welcome – nay expected – at our next "Admin Scale Workshop."

"In Session" on L. Ron Hubbard Way

"We are extending to you the precious gift of freedom and immortality – factually, honestly.

"You are a spirit. You are your own soul. You are not mortal. You can be free." – LRH Question: Where is case gain available on a Sunday morning?

Answer: The same place it's available anytime: in auditing. This is exactly what has become a reality for thousands who regularly attend our Sunday Services on L. Ron Hubbard Way. Because the words they now hear at these services are: "This is the session."

Why? Sunday Services are now conducted using the brand-new book of our Church, The Background, Ministry, Ceremonies & Sermons of the Scientology Religion, which contains powerful LRH Group Processes. Our minister delivers these Group Processes each week; and whether they be veteran Scientologists, new Scientologists or people who have never before heard of Scientology, those who participate are coming away from Sunday Service with higher awareness, ability and case gain.

Here are just some of the hundreds of wins heard on L. Ron Hubbard Way after Sunday Service:

- "What a way to share Scientology!"
- "It brought me fully into present time – I am able to control perception and am aware."
- "I am brighter and my postulates will stick!"
- "It's awesome how everyone came uptone."

Rev. Heber Jentzsch, President, Church of Scientology International (right) was AOLA's honored guest minister for our first Sunday Service of the new millennium, as thousands attended service in three different locations on L. Ron Hubbard Way (below). And the AOLA Atrium has been packed every Sunday since! (bottom)

- "People have to experience it to believe it."
- "It's an absolute must. Great way to start a week. Must come!"
- "It's an experience you can get nowhere else."
- "Once you come, you'll never be the same again."

The uniting of Scientologists as a religious community has been attracting a huge number of Scientologists who are most appreciative of the weekly opportunity to connect up, and are rededicating themselves to moving up The Bridge to Total Freedom. "I felt very excited to take a giant step toward Source," said one.

Attend Sunday Service at AOLA. And if you live outside of Los Angeles, gather up your friends and family, go to your nearest Scientology Church or Mission, and be a part of a congregation like no other on Earth!

COME TO

SCIENTOLOGY SUNDAY SERVICE

AND RECEIVE

GROUP PROCESSING

"I'm in present time." "I feel alive!" "I went exterior!"

These are just some of the wins regularly heard after Scientology Sunday Service. That's because every Sunday Service now includes Group Processing!

With processes like "Cause and Effect", "Control", "Tone Scale" and "Communication and Enchantment Processing", you can spend Sunday mornings raising your ability, alertness and tone level – and getting case gain.

Plus, with sermons containing fundamental LRH tech – the ARC Triangle, Man's Contest with the Machine Age and the Basics of Ethics – each Sunday you'll learn a vital piece of tech you'll own forever. In fact, just by attending Scientology Sunday Service every week, you will ultimately learn all the basics of life itself!

Dealing with daily life can be an enturbulating experience – and Sunday Services are your handling.

THE SOLO AUDITOR

SCRIPT BY L. RON HUBBARD

CLEARS! GET ALL THE GAINS FROM YOUR OT LEVELS

SEE THIS NEW LRH™ TECHNICAL TRAINING FILM ON THE HUBBARD® SOLO AUDITOR COURSE.

A pilot must know how to operate the controls of his aircraft so he can swiftly take off and smoothly guide the plane to his destination. The same goes for the Solo auditor – he must have the exact level of certainty and competence to take himself to his destination – OT.

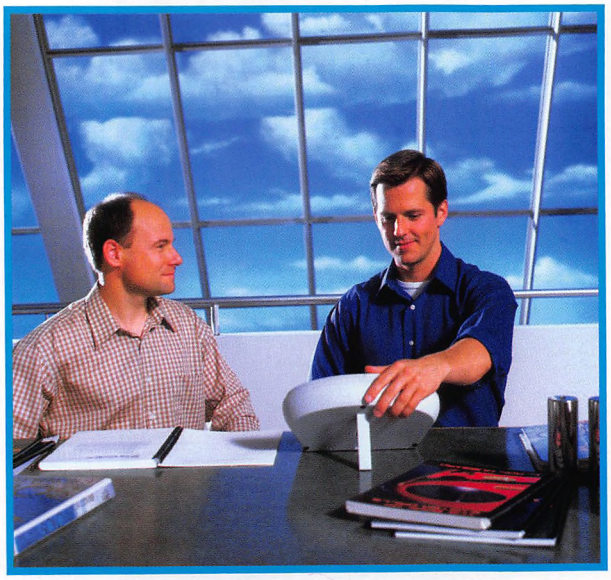

That's why Ron created the Solo Auditor Course. And that's why he wrote the film The Solo Auditor – to show you exactly how to Solo audit.

As LRH wrote, "If the Solo auditor is so all-thumbs with his papers, meters, platens that they distract him from his own bank, he is not likely to as-is or cognite."

This film demonstrates every part of Solo auditing skill, so you gain certainty that yes, you can Solo audit. And your ability to audit is your guarantee that you will make all the gain there is on the OT levels.

START THE HUBBARD SOLO AUDITOR COURSE PART ONE, SEE "THE SOLO AUDITOR" AND SOAR TO OT!

New LRH Tech Film shows how to fly to OT!

At AOLA and in orgs around the world, Solo students are viewing the latest LRH Technical Training Film, TR12, The Solo Auditor, just released in 11 languages: English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Danish, Dutch, Swedish, Norwegian, Portuguese and Hebrew.

What makes this film new? First, while it has been available in English, it's never before been available in other languages. Second, it incorporates all the elements of the Golden Age of Tech for OTs – the Standard Tech Drills, Drills Simulator and Quantum E-Meter – and shows exactly how these are used in making a perfect Solo auditor.

The film was written by Ron to ensure the Solo auditor would understand exactly how to set up and run a standard, by-the-book Solo session. Why is this so important? Solo auditing is fast – a Solo auditor has no time to be distracted by the mechanics of conducting a Solo session when confronting the magnitude of the OT levels.

And judging by the responses from those who have already seen this film on their Solo training, they've definitely got the point:

"If you've never been a Solo auditor, even if you've trained as an auditor, when you find yourself on the other side of the E-Meter you're faced with questions like, 'How do you do this? How do you handle your case and operate the meter and run a session, all at once and flawlessly? Bottom line, how do you make it to OT?'

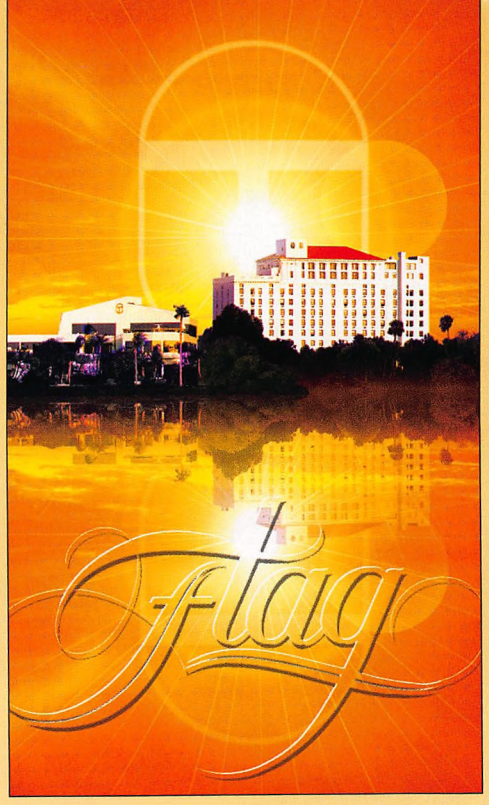

"Well, I found all of the answers in the new LRH Technical Training Film, The Solo Auditor. This film blew me away because it showed me exactly how it all goes together. You have the ideal scene right there on the screen. Ron shows you each part and then puts the whole together. And then you're away, certain and confident ... soaring to OT!" – G.A.

"The Solo Auditor film shows how you move from being a green Solo auditor at the very beginning of your Solo training, to utter competence as a Solo auditor when you are done. When I first saw this film I was definitely the person at the beginning of the film, the Solo auditor in training who had a lot to learn!

"During my Solo training I saw this film a number of times. From it I learned a lot about the various skills you need and also the beingness of a competent Solo auditor in session. These are things you actually need to see to duplicate, and that is the vital importance of this film.

"The last time I saw The Solo Auditor – just a few days ago – I was the guy at the end of the film. I knew I could audit Solo flawlessly and that I was ready for the adventure of my life – flying to OT. Now I'm doing just that on New OT I!" – B.B.

Come in to AOLA or go into your local Class V Org, and see the trailer for this brand-new LRH Technical Training Film. Then enroll on your Solo Auditor Training and soar to OT – across all the dynamics!

DEFINITIONS

Advanced Courses: those courses above Grade VA, specifically dealing with materials of which one has to Solo audit in order to attain the stable gains of the grade.

Bridge, The: the route to Clear and OT, which we call THE BRIDGE Classification, Gradation and Awareness Chart. It is a term originating in early DIANETICS days to symbolize travel from unknowingness to revelation.

Clear: the name of a state achieved through auditing or an individual who has achieved this state. A Clear is an unaberrated person and is rational in that he forms the best possible solutions he can on the data he has and from his viewpoint.

Dianetics: man's most advanced school of the mind. The word comes from Greek dia, through, and nous, soul. DIANETICS is defined as what the soul is doing to the body.

MEST: the physical universe. A word coined from the initial letters of Matter, Energy, Space and Time, which are the component parts (elements) of the physical universe.

Operating Thetan (OT): a thetan exterior who can have but doesn't have to have a body in order to control or operate thought, life, matter, energy, space and time.

Org: (SCIENTOLOGY slang) an organization that delivers DIANETICS and SCIENTOLOGY training and processing.

OT Committee: A committee formed of the OTs in an organization's field, who work with the organization to achieve the purpose: TO HELP LRH ORGANIZE AND CHANNEL OT FORCES, INTERESTS AND RESOURCES FOR THE GREATEST GOOD FOR SCIENTOLOGY.

OT Preparations: a tailor-made auditing program designed to handle any case areas that could cause one difficulty on the OT levels.

OT Eligibility: eligibility for the OT levels is determined by passing a False Purpose Rundown Confessional for which one is awarded an "Eligibility for OT Levels" slip. This Confessional step is often called "OT Eligibility."

Rundown: a series of steps which are auditing actions and processes designed to handle a specific aspect of a case.

Theta: energy peculiar to life or a thetan which acts upon material in the physical universe and animates it, mobilizes it and changes it; natural creative energy of a thetan which he has free to direct toward survival goals, especially when it manifests itself as high-tone constructive communications.

Thetan: the person himself – not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind or anything else; that which is aware of being aware; the identity which is the individual.

Whole track: the moment-to-moment record of a person's existence in this universe in picture and impression form.

LATEST IN THE Ron SERIES

"I won't take a photograph of anybody or photographs for anybody unless I feel it will do them some good." – LRH

Gain a new understanding...

and a deeper insight of RON through his writing with light.

Here is the newest issue in the RON Series, giving an entirely new insight into Ron's life and breakthroughs, into his passion for "writing with light" – as he described it, a passion carried forward from his early years and throughout his life.

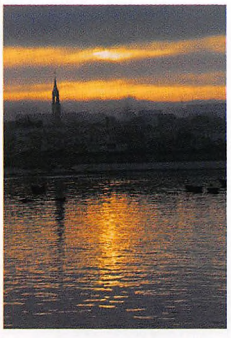

This new issue takes you on a fascinating 63-year journey of exploration into Ron's photographic art, from his snapshots as a Boy Scout to advanced studies of man and nature at his Creston ranch in California.

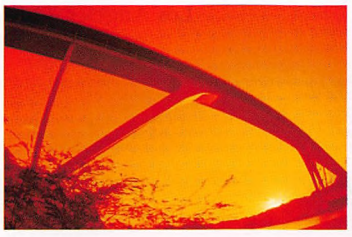

It reveals a facet of his life and research that very few knew about – bringing one even closer to Ron, to his vision of the world and people, as he captured them through the lens of his amazing collection of cameras.

From the first page to the last, you will be engrossed in Ron's journey as you experience his incredible love for people, nature and all things alive and the photographic art as a tool to communicate this.

This easy-to-read magazine, filled with LRH quotes, is a must for every Scientologist, for professional and amateur photographers, and a good gradient for students and scholars in the field as well as anyone with the desire to know more about Ron's life, and thereby gain a deeper insight into how he accomplished all that he did.

The only route to total freedom and power is through the Wall of Fire

Throughout history, man has travelled many miles and taken many roads to attempt to reach spiritual freedom... but with no tech, he always ended up at a dead-end.

No one penetrated the traps and lies laid in on you and your fellow man until L. Ron Hubbard did so with the breakthrough of Section III OT.

LRH laid the way out for you – to the full power and freedom of OT – on the Advanced Levels of Scientology. All you have to do is walk that closely-taped path. And in the Golden Age of Tech for OT, you will travel it with total certainty, as a perfect Solo auditor.

Your decision to go OT now, will ensure you make it.

And here at AOLA we will back you up, every step of the way.

This is your one chance to go free.

Avail yourself of it.

NOW.

CLEARS! TAKE A SMOOTH SWIFT FLIGHT TO OT

SEE TR INSTRUCTION FILM #12

"THE SOLO AUDITOR"

A pilot must know how to operate the controls of his aircraft so he can swiftly take off and smoothly guide the plane to his destination. The same goes for the Solo auditor – he must have the exact level of certainty and competence to take himself to his destination – OT.

As LRH wrote, "If the Solo auditor is so all-thumbs with his papers, meters, platens that they distract him from his own bank, he is not likely to as-is or cognite."

This film demonstrates every part of Solo auditing skill, so you gain certainty that yes, you can Solo audit. And your ability to audit is your guarantee that you will make all the gain there is on the OT levels.

START THE HUBBARD® SOLO AUDITOR COURSE PART ONE, SEE "THE SOLO AUDITOR" AND YOU'LL SOON SOAR TO OT!

SCRIPT BY L. RON HUBBARD

TECH FILM NEWS

GOLDEN AGE OF TECH SOLO AUDITORS DO IT EXACTLY "BY THE FILM"

You've heard of doing it "by the book." Today's Golden Age of Tech Solo auditors take it the next step – just as LRH intended – first by seeing TR12, THE SOLO AUDITOR, then drilling – drilling – drilling Solo session procedure until they're fully at the controls, soaring to OT.

Defying the barriers and traps of the MEST universe and rocketing to your goal – OT – is like nothing ever experienced in this or any other universe. Yet that's only the start of your journey, because with every Solo session you give yourself on your Advanced Courses as a Golden Age of Tech Solo auditor, you gain greater and greater confidence that you can confront and handle any whole track charge looming on the horizon. That's the power of LRH Solo auditing technology – power that enables you to zero in on whole track charge, large and small, and obliterate it forever.

But power needs a base from which to generate. So, what is it that creates the base for that power?

The answer, pure and simple, is the LRH Technical Training Film #12, The Solo Auditor.

And for good reason. On the Solo Auditor Course, you must master no less than 89 separate actions you will need in order to Solo audit with total certainty. When you're in session, and looking face-to-face with the kind of force the track can hurl at you, it's no time to fumble with the mechanics. That's exactly the point of The Solo Auditor film – getting every session basic in right from the start.

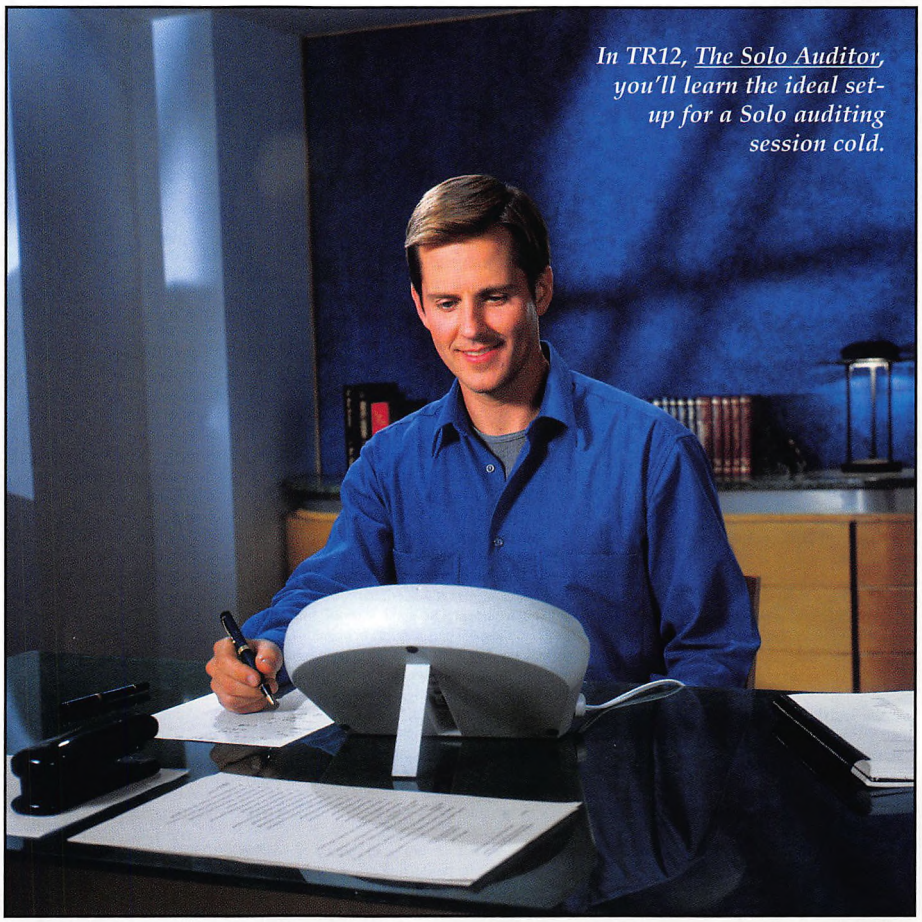

In TR12, new Solo student Charlie Todd quickly learns exactly what LRH meant when he wrote, "If the Solo auditor is so all-thumbs with his papers, meter, platens, that they distract him from his own bank he is not likely to as-is or cognite... A poor Solo auditor does not cognite, as his attention is on the tools, not his bank... Cognitions in Solo auditing depend upon the ability to use the tools of auditing so well, they serve no distraction in Solo session."

Like Charlie, there are now Solo students all over the world who won't get caught mid-air, all locked up with their basics out. That's because this film is now playing in 12 languages at every org on the planet.

"TR12 eliminates the wrong ideas of what a Solo session should be," says one. "It took away the mystery and I know I will be able to achieve this level of skill," says another.

The wins go on. And so do the Solo Course grads who know this film inside and out – straight into the Solo auditor's chair, flying with utter confidence and certainty to ALL the gains of their Solo auditing levels. By enrolling on the Solo Course, their wins – and Charlie Todd's – will be yours, as you take off to OT.

In TR12, The Solo Auditor, you'll learn the ideal set-up for a Solo auditing session cold.

SCIENTOLOGY® TECHNOLOGY
PROTECT IT
IT IS YOUR FUTURE
Report Matters of RTC Concern

For the first time ever, only because of the legacy of technology LRH left us, man has the means to reverse the dwindling spiral and return to Native State. Moreover, achieving that state is possible only to the degree we apply the tech just as LRH intended. And as LRH has stated, Keeping Scientology Working is a responsibility shared by all members of the Scientology religion.

The vast majority of Scientologists earnestly study and work hard to increase their knowledge and improve their skills to standardly apply Dianetics and Scientology to all areas of their lives.

At times some unintentionally misapply a technical or administrative procedure and fail to achieve the expected results. That is easily corrected. More rarely, ill-intentioned people deliberately alter standard procedure (known as squirreling) or attempt to prevent application of the technology entirely. Behind such activities is always the intention to prevent others from going free. That must be gotten off the lines.

Knowledge Reports exist to provide Scientologists with a communication line to report any off-policy, out-tech or out-ethics situations they may encounter. Such reports are sent to the Ethics section of the organization concerned, with a copy to the person the report is about. The Ethics section receiving the report is responsible for dealing with the matter and creating a safe environment in accordance with policy so those honestly seeking spiritual betterment are not hindered.

Such reports also are invaluable to Religious Technology Center and its Inspector General Network. As the owner of the Scientology trademarks, RTC is the protector of the Scientology religion. The Inspector General Network of RTC is an independent investigatory and policing body whose function is to keep Scientology working by ensuring the pure and ethical use of Dianetics and Scientology technology.

There are certain matters of particular importance and concern to RTC as provided here on a detailed list. Whenever these occur, copies of your reports should also be sent to RTC. RTC's Inspector General Network uses such reports to help locate hidden suppression, infiltration, subversion or corruption within and external to Scientology Churches, Missions and other Church organizations – to protect The Bridge for all.

In some cases, had alert and caring Scientologists not reported a situation to the Inspector General Network, it could have taken longer to detect a suppressive. But thanks to reports received, suppression often has been more rapidly detected and rooted out, and Standard Tech and policy restored.

You may communicate directly to RTC about such matters. Many public and staff members do so, and they also write in about good results they have received through standard application of tech and policy. All such communications are valuable to RTC.

Please send your reports to the Reports Officer RTC at 1710 Ivar Avenue, Suite 1100, Los Angeles, CA 90028, USA. Telephone: (323) 663-3258. Fax: (323) 667-0960.

Since time immemorial, man has asked the same eternal questions.

Only L. Ron Hubbard's breakthroughs provided the eternal answers.

No question: Your journey to the power and ability of OT gives you those eternal answers.

But behind Ron's breakthrough of OT are the real-life experiences and encounters that led to those answers.

In RON The Philosopher: The Rediscovery of the Human Soul, you'll learn how Ron forged the philosophy of Scientology and what that philosophy means to this world.

The sixteen fascinating articles in this 96-page issue include five that have never before been published. When you read them, you will experience the unfolding of the philosophy that is the truth about life, death and self.

You must have this information and pass it on to others so that they, too, can know and understand the Source of the technology that will bring them the power and ability of OT.

DEFINITIONS

Advanced Courses: those courses above Grade VA, specifically dealing with materials of which one has to Solo audit in order to attain the stable gains of the grade.

Bridge, The: the route to Clear and OT, which we call THE BRIDGE Classification, Gradation and Awareness Chart. It is a term originating in early DIANETICS days to symbolize travel from unknowingness to revelation.

Clear: the name of a state achieved through auditing or an individual who has achieved this state. A Clear is an unaberrated person and is rational in that he forms the best possible solutions he can on the data he has and from his viewpoint.

Dianetics: man's most advanced school of the mind. The word comes from Greek dia, through, and nous, soul. DIANETICS is defined as what the soul is doing to the body.

MEST: the physical universe. A word coined from the initial letters of Matter, Energy, Space and Time, which are the component parts (elements) of the physical universe.

Operating Thetan (OT): a thetan exterior who can have but doesn't have to have a body in order to control or operate thought, life, matter, energy, space and time.

Org: an organization that delivers DIANETICS and SCIENTOLOGY training and processing.

OT Committee: A committee formed of the OTs in an organization's field, who work with the organization to achieve the purpose: TO HELP LRH ORGANIZE AND CHANNEL OT FORCES, INTERESTS AND RESOURCES FOR THE GREATEST GOOD FOR SCIENTOLOGY.

OT Preparations: a tailor-made auditing program designed to handle any case areas that could cause one difficulty on the OT levels.

OT Eligibility: eligibility for the OT levels is determined by passing a False Purpose Rundown Confessional for which one is awarded an "Eligibility for OT Levels" slip. This Confessional step is often called "OT Eligibility."

Rundown: a series of steps which are auditing actions and processes designed to handle a specific aspect of a case.

Theta: energy peculiar to life or a thetan which acts upon material in the physical universe and animates it, mobilizes it and changes it; natural creative energy of a thetan which he has free to direct toward survival goals, especially when it manifests itself as high-tone, constructive communications.

Thetan: the person himself – not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind or anything else; that which is aware of being aware; the identity which is the individual.

Whole track: the moment-to-moment record of a person's existence in this universe in picture and impression form.
