Putting you at cause on your route to OT

Decision & the Power of Choice by L. Ron Hubbard

The Prophecy of Metteyya

AVAIL YOURSELF OF RON'S LEGACY OF SPIRITUAL FREEDOM:

COME TO CAUSE - GO

Twenty-five years ago, Advance! magazine was privileged to make the first public announcement of Hymn of Asia, An Eastern Poem by L. Ron Hubbard, which he had originally written for presentation to an international assembly of Buddhists and published in book form in January 1975.

Today, it is our highest honor to announce the release of this powerful work in an art form that even more dramatically and aesthetically delivers LRH's message: music.

In this remarkable work, LRH defines exactly what it is we are accomplishing when we advance up the Grade Chart to Clear and OT. This new musical presentation brings to view a 2,500-year-old prophesy of Siddhartha Gautama, known throughout the world as "Buddha." The teachings of this extraordinary man not only would bring civilization to half the world's population, but also forecast the emergence from the West of a successor whose work will enable man to systematically reach total spiritual freedom in one lifetime. He identified this Westerner as "Metteyya," meaning simply "friend," and Hymn of Asia not only forwards the Metteyya legacy, it heralds its fulfillment in these words:

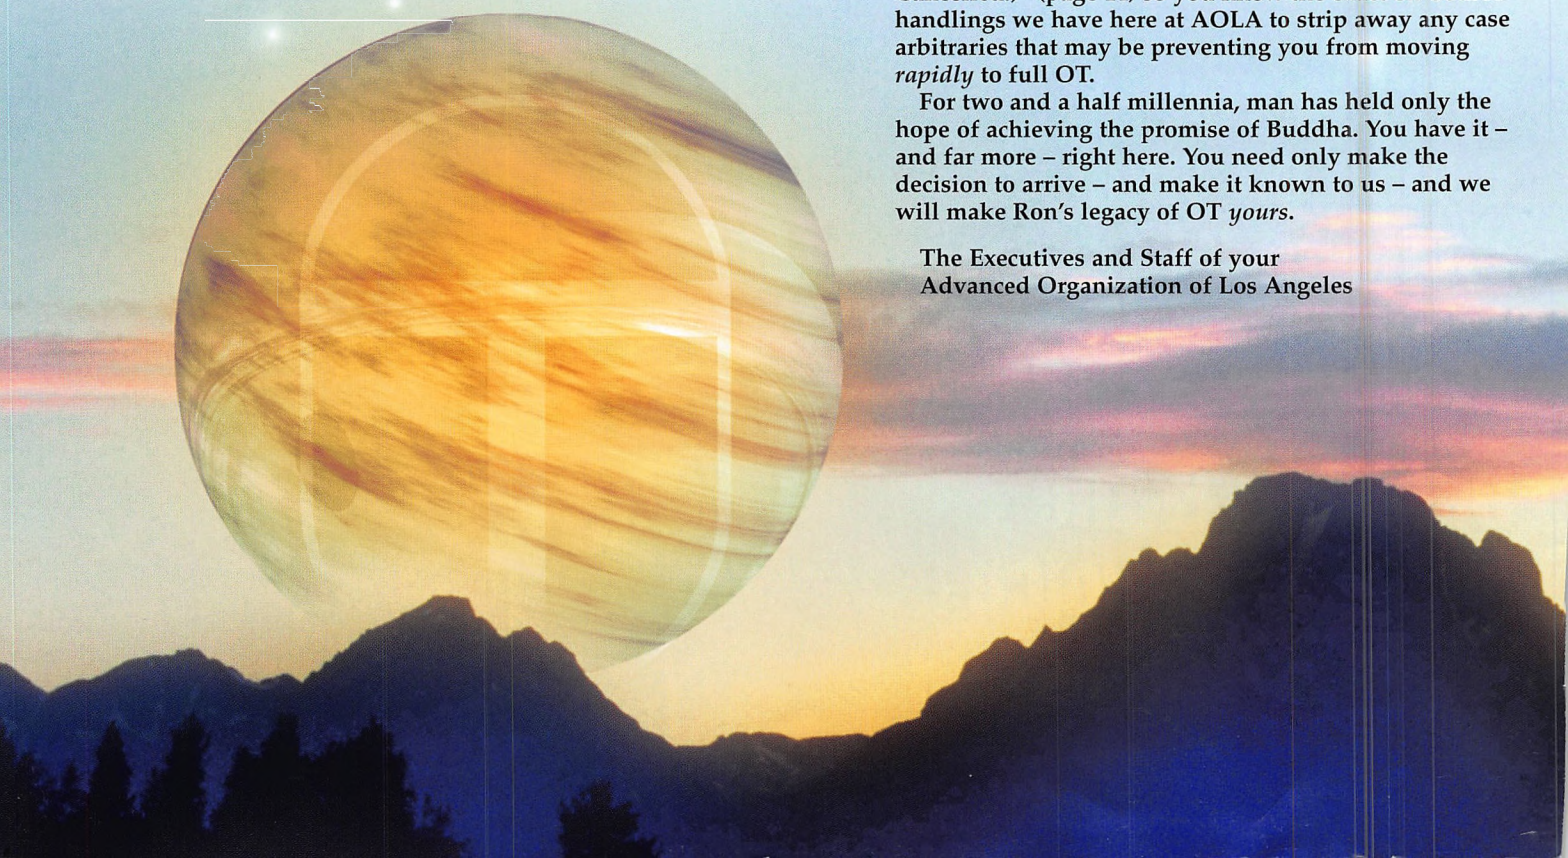

"We enter into a
Golden Age.
We are Golden Men.
We are the New Men
The new spiritual
Leaders of Earth."

AOLA's honor and duty is that of making this Golden Age a reality. To us, this means nothing less than guiding every single being in the Western Hemisphere to states of existence never before envisaged – even by the most profound of Earth philosophers or religious scriptures. Every day, we return beings to levels of enlightenment and awareness far exceeding what Buddha himself sought so diligently to accomplish – that of breaking the endless chain of birth and death and reaching true spiritual salvation. What we bring is a return to native state – to cause over all of life, across all the dynamics.

That's what this issue of Advance! is totally dedicated to. We trace the ancestry of man's search for the truth of his own existence (page 2) and the exact steps that will make this a reality for you – for your eternity (page 18). We specially include the entirety of the Chairman of the Board RTC's message "Your Progress to OT (Arbitraries Cancelled!)" (page 14) so you know the exact on-Source handlings we have here at AOLA to strip away any case arbitraries that may be preventing you from moving rapidly to full OT.

For two and a half millennia, man has held only the hope of achieving the promise of Buddha. You have it – and far more – right here. You need only make the decision to arrive – and make it known to us – and we will make Ron's legacy of OT yours.

ABOUT THE COVER:

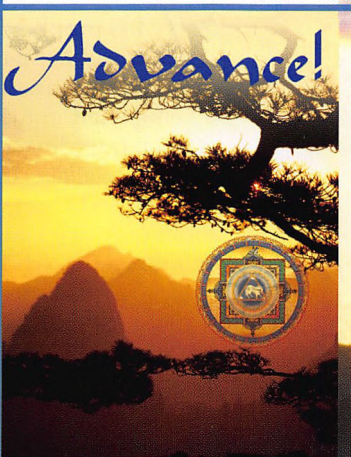

Ancient East meets modern West. The advent of Metteyya, Buddha's named successor, has for 25 centuries been heralded in virtually every language, liturgy and lore of the East. In this issue of Advance!, we reacquaint you with the prophecy that promises a new Golden Age on Earth.

The Prophecy Metteyya

මෙත්තෙය්‍ය

"When he shall be seen in the West, seated in the Western fashion, his hair like flames about his noble head, discoursing, then shall the inhabitants of the Three Worlds[1] rejoice, knowing that the emancipation of all sentient beings is imminent. Then it shall be called the age of the blessed because it will become commonplace to achieve emancipation in one lifetime."

This prophecy, relayed to the Asian world in Tibetan Buddhist scripture, encapsulates a 2,500-year legacy of hope left in the waning hours of the life of an extraordinary man known to the world as Buddha[2] (meaning "the Enlightened One"). He was called The Light of Asia – Gautama Siddhartha (ca. 563–483 B.C.), who at the age of 29 shed his

Buddha began his journey upon his white horse which became a Buddhist symbol of the search for truth.

Gautama Siddhartha's passing prophecy forecast the emergence of another Buddha who would succeed him and bring an even greater awakening to all beings of Earth.

comfortable family riches and left on his great white horse to find and reach the state of intellectual and ethical perfection known as Bodhi[3].

And, that attained, he dedicated the remaining years of his physical tenure on Earth to teaching others that they too could know the truth of their existence. With this knowingness of truth, each could attain spiritual salvation and liberate himself from the seemingly endless cycle of birth-growth-decay-death.

In essence, this was the promise of Clear and, while beyond the reach of many who sought it, the prospect of such an awakened, elevated state alone was a single civilizing factor for billions in the East and influence on religious movements for more than two millennia in the West as well.

But, even so, why has Bodhi been but a dream for most? What turned the key to Gautama's enlightenment that would lead billions since to the threshold, but not across it?

Therein lies the very heart of the Metteyya prophecy. For all the remarkable achievements of Buddha and the civilizing religious movement he founded, they represent but the beginning of a story for which the sequel is unfolding today. For Gautama Siddhartha's passing prophecy forecast the emergence of another Buddha who would succeed him and whose teachings would bring an even greater awakening to all beings of Earth.

Gautama foresaw widespread achievement of even higher states of spiritual freedom than that which he reached – and preached. But with this advance would come the ability to achieve these higher states in a single lifetime. He knew it required a technology of the mind and spirit to bring this off and, in recognition of this fact that his own work would not be complete until this was accomplished, he predicted and proffered the medium of a successor – so that his work would be done.

Thus the successor he called Metteyya, meaning "love" in Pali, the ancient language of early Buddhism. Best translated in spoken English, Metteyya means "he whose name is kindness" or simply "friend." And in the role of the ultimate emancipator, the fifth and final Buddha of an 80,000-year cycle, there could be no greater friend.

A Living Legend

Depending upon the version of Buddhism interpreted or the sect one calls upon, the Metteyya's succession would take place anywhere from 2,500 to 30,000 years after Gautama Siddhartha's passing. And even the physical fact of a human successor depends on what form of Buddhism one consults. As one modern Eastern scholar points out, the Japanese Metteyya prophecy differs from that of the Pali canon as its focus is not so much that a person will necessarily return as it is the arrival of a means by which man can, as Buddha unquestionably prophesied, return to his free, native spiritual state. In fact, this scholar points out, there are many religions in Japan that have been waiting thousands of years for such events to evolve.

Through the ages, whether the anticipated succession has been a physical or philosophical one, it represents a transmigration[4] and evolution of the truth of Bodhi. But what does that mean?

For the best analysis of this state, we turn to an essay by LRH in which he defines Operating Thetan – and relates it to the Buddha's own discoveries:

"For thousands of years men have sought the state of complete spiritual freedom from the endless cycle of birth and death and have sought personal immortality containing full awareness, memory and ability as a spirit independent of the flesh.

"The dream of this in Buddha's time was called 'Bodhi,' being the name of the tree under which he attained such a state.

"But due to the unknown presence of the reactive mind and its effect upon the spirit as well as the body, such periods of freedom were difficult to attain and were, as we have found, temporary.

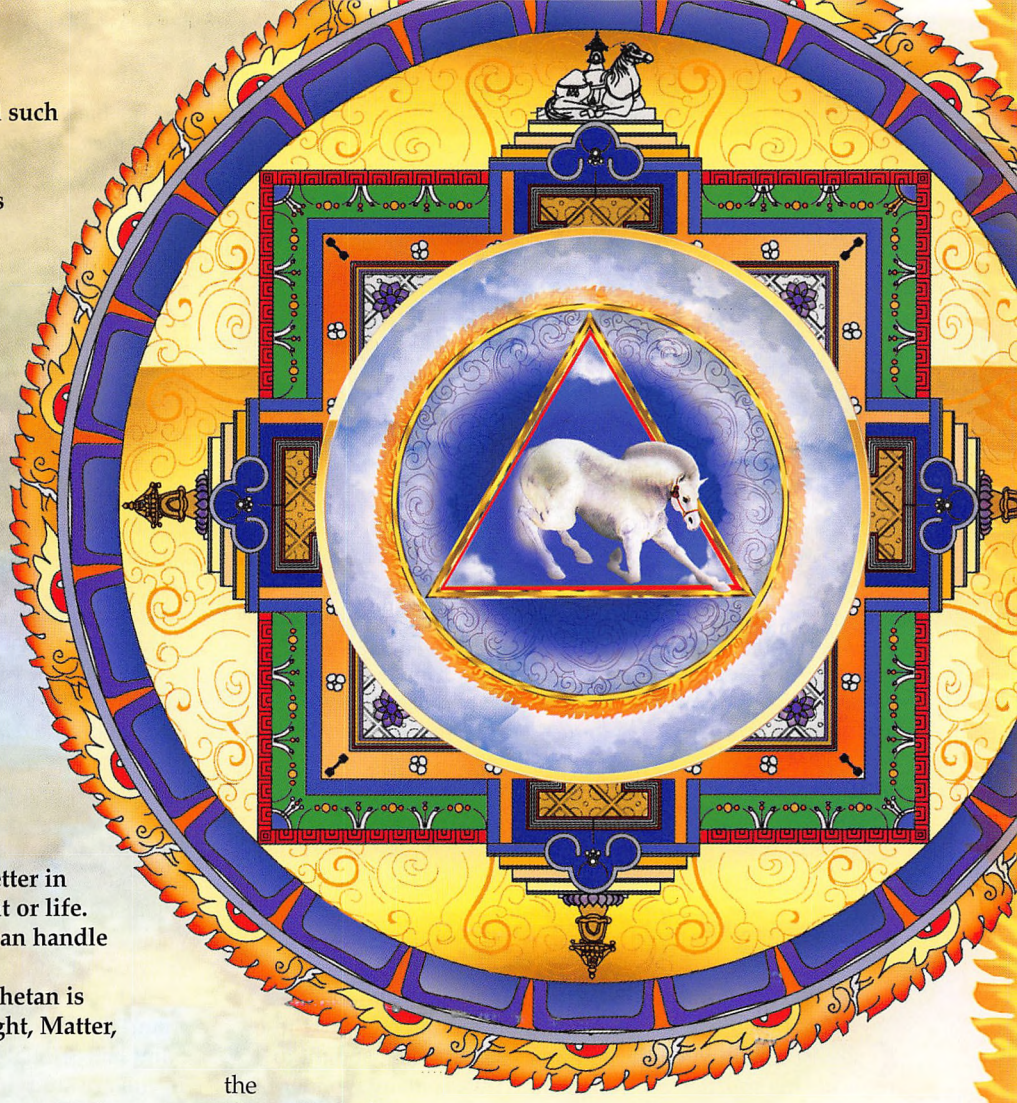

"Further, few could attain even this temporary state and those who did acquired it at the cost of decades of self-denial and personal discipline.

"In Scientology this state has been attained. It has been achieved not on a temporary basis, subject to relapse, but on a stable plane of full awareness and ability, unqualified by accident or deterioration. And not limited to a few.

"By eradicating the reactive mind we not only achieve in the state of Clear an erasure of the seeming evil in man, who is basically good, we have overcome the barriers which made it so difficult to attain total spiritual independence and serenity.

"We call this state 'Operating Thetan.' To operate something is to be able to handle it. Thetan is from the Greek letter 'theta' the traditional philosopher's symbol (from the letter in the Greek alphabet 'theta' θ) of thought, spirit or life. Thus it means a being who as a spirit alone can handle things.

"The definition of the state of Operating Thetan is 'Knowing and willing cause over Life, Thought, Matter, Energy, Space and Time.'"

The Transmigration of Truth

While lacking the technology to produce this state, man for man, being after being, Gautama was completely cognizant of the eternal existence of living beings. This acute awareness of the transmigration of the soul, lifetime to lifetime, is told in more than 550 stories in the Pali canon, the basic scriptures of Buddhism. This volume, called the Jataka (translating to "belonging to, connected with what has happened" or, simply, "birth stories") popularized Gautama's personal experiences on the whole track. As a basic Buddhist text, it has traveled the world and enormously influenced the non-Buddhist world of the East and West. These lifetimes were depicted as leading up to the final life of a 27,350-year cycle that culminated in his attainment of Bodhi.

But, as Gautama himself was not ready to pass on to the purely spiritual state of Buddhahood that would no longer subject him to endless cycles of body life and death, he carried on after reaching bodhi, operating with a body not only in that life, but in a later lifetime in which he developed Lamaism, a Tibetan form of Buddhism that sought to develop techniques of exteriorization. It is critical at this juncture to note that, while not broadly known, particularly in the West, the intent of Buddhism and the development of Bodhi was, in fact, the attempt to effect and control exteriorization. And what took place in this latter lifetime of Gautama was a milestone in that quest.

Lamaism's crude "technology" of exteriorization was embodied in the Bardo Thodol, known to the Western world as the Tibetan Book of the Dead. Where earlier forms of Buddhism had fallen short of a technology for exteriorization, the Bardo Thodol would evolve just that. It was a manual for use by Tibetan Lamas to take advantage of a natural period of exteriorization that any being encounters – death – to assist a being in achieving a stable, serene state of exterior.

Bardo is liberally interpreted to mean "liberation by hearing on the after-death plane." In more familiar terms, call it between lives. Gautama reincarnate, through the Bardo Thodol, sought to take advantage of a being's between lives period to convince him that his newfound liberation could be stabilized. And, once accomplished, his own Buddhahood could be guaranteed. Unencumbered by a body, the being, in theory would be far easier to work with, far more receptive and able.

The ministering Lama reads from the manual to the being, starting just prior to the being's death and continuing on for a period of 49 days, when the final instructions are given to assume another body. These intervening 49 days are, of course, fraught with visions, hallucinations and dramatizations which have long been unrecognized as a quantifiable reactive mind – until LRH's discoveries of Dianetics and Scientology. What's more, with an inviolate 49-day "session," any attempt to avoid the crashing interiorization of the being into the next body failed to anticipate or prevent the equally counterproductive overrun that would more than likely materialize.

Tibetan Buddhist monks paint intricate sand mandalas, in which images of deities or their attributes are represented in a mosaic of geometric figures. As each is completed, it is immediately destroyed by its creator. The lotus flower (below right), often seen at the base of Metteyya images, is the Buddhist symbol of spiritual enlightenment. While rooted in mud, the lotus rises through the water and opens in the air to receive the sun.

Legacy of Hope

As intriguing as these developments were, they nonetheless shared common shortcomings to those encountered by Gautama when he first sought to replicate his spiritual advancement. Thus, is it any wonder that the eyes of those enlightened by the Buddha – or even those spectating and speculating upon his work – would turn in hope to his prophecy of a successor?

What they turn to are those parting words he uttered to his principle aide, Ananda in 483 B.C., words recorded in what is called The Book of the Great Decease.

"Who shall teach us when thou art gone?" asked Ananda.

"And the Blessed One replied: 'I am not the first Buddha who came upon earth, nor shall I be the last. I came to teach you the truth, and I have founded on earth the kingdom of truth. Gautama Siddhartha will die, but Buddha will live, for Buddha is the truth, and the truth cannot die. He who believes in the truth and lives it, is my disciple, and I shall teach him. The truth will be propagated and the kingdom of truth will increase for about five hundred years. Then for a while the clouds of error will darken the light, and in due time another Buddha will arise, and he will reveal to you the self-same eternal truth I have taught you.'"

"How shall we know him?" Ananda asked.

"The Buddha that will come after me will be known as Metteyya, which means 'he whose name is kindness.'"

And, in his discourse on "War, Wickedness and Wealth," in the Pali canon, Gautama predicted:

"At that period, brethren, there will arise in the world an Exalted One named Metteyya, Arahant[5], Fully Awakened, abounding in wisdom and goodness, happy, with knowledge of the worlds, unsurpassed as a guide to mortals willing to be led, a teacher for gods and men, an Exalted One, a Buddha, even as I am now. He, by himself, will thoroughly know and see, as it were face to face, this universe, with its worlds of the spirits, its Brahmas[6], and its Maras[7], and its world of recluses and brahmins[8], of princes and peoples, even as I now, by myself, thoroughly know and see them. The truth, lovely in its origin, lovely in its progress, lovely in its consummation, will he proclaim, both in the spirit and in the letter, the higher life will he make known, in all its fullness and in all its purity, even as I do now. He will be accompanied by a congregation of some thousands of brethren, even as I am now accompanied by a congregation of some hundreds of brethren."

Ancient Tibetan scripture was even more descriptive. It reveals that the Metteyya would emerge a red- or golden-haired man. Thus in countless images of the successor seen today in Tibet and other Buddhist regions, you will see statues and relics of Metteyya not seated in the classically Eastern cross-legged seated position, but rather standing or sitting "western style."

For 2,500 years the promise of Metteyya's coming has kept the spiritual descendants of ancient Buddhism alive with hope. And nowhere is that hope more vibrant than in Scientology, where Clears and OTs who avail themselves of this legacy are achieving higher states of being and greater advances to total spiritual freedom than this planet has ever known.

"What is Scientology? How does it fit into the framework of man?" LRH posed in a 1966 lecture to students on the original Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. "Truth of the matter is, is you are studying an extension of the work of Gautama Siddhartha begun about twenty-five hundred years ago. He sought to end the endless cycle of birth and death and birth. And this death-birth cycle led into an effort to show men that they were a spirit and did not have to be a body and did not have to go on being clay."

"Buddha predicted that in twenty-five hundred years the entire job would be finished in the West. That's in the Pali canons. Well, we finished it."

So when you hear the words "Golden Age of Tech for OT," recognize that it represents the means of putting that legacy squarely in the palm of your hands. It is the means by which every being who has, wittingly or not, been caught up in the endless spiral of birth and death, can move out of the trap and back to native state and OT ability not just "sometime this life" but in a matter of a few months to a very few years. LRH entrusted the Advanced Organizations to be the bearers and custodians of that legacy. Man may not recognize that his wait for Metteyya is over. You have the proof – total spiritual freedom – at our door. For you, there's just no sense in waiting.

1. Three Worlds: in Tibetan scriptures, Body, the physical world pertaining to the body, its operation and life; Speech, the world of communication between entities and things; and Mind, one's own world of one's own creation.
2. Buddha: a title applied by Buddhists to someone regarded as embodying divine wisdom and virtue.
3. Bodhi: one who has attained intellectual and ethical perfection by human means. The state is called bodhi as it is said to have been first achieved under a bodhi tree (fig tree) by Gautama Siddhartha.
4. Transmigration: passing of the soul at death into a new body or new form of being.
5. Arahant: variation of Arhat, one who has attained spiritual perfection.
6. Brahmas: plural of Brahma, from Hindu terminology, a term signifying the personified creative aspect of a spiritual absolute.
7. Maras: plural of Mara, literally "death"; the personification of evil.
8. Brahmins: members of the Indian priest caste.

Discover the key to achieving spiritual freedom

Since ancient times, philosophers searched for, but never found the secrets of the untapped power of the mind and human spirit. L. Ron Hubbard lays bare the basics of life in a codified series of laws that anyone can read, understand and use to achieve spiritual freedom.

This book reveals for the first time the power of an individual's own thoughts and decisions in shaping life.

Find out exactly how you've been granting others power over your life – and how to gain that power back.

No matter where you are on The Bridge, here are the steps to an OT life.

Hymn of Asia

An Eastern Poem by L. Ron Hubbard

Ages ago a Golden Age for man was foretold. That Golden Age has found its realization today in Scientology.

Discover for yourself
- The 2,500-year-old message of hope
- The fulfillment of the Orient's cherished prophecy
- The long sought goal of spiritual freedom

Now on compact disc, a vast and joyous musical experience, beautifully packaged in hardback with the 1,062-line poem fully illuminated.

Stunningly performed by the Golden Era Musicians with special guest artists. Music that offers what your innermost self desires – your basic purpose to be free.

The new spiritual Golden Age on Earth and you

As Scientologists we inherit the role of spiritual liberators, the heritage of the only man to define the state of Operating Thetan – and provide the only technology by which any one of the six billion inhabitants of this planet can achieve, in this lifetime, their basic purpose as beings to be free.

In 1955 that man, L. Ron Hubbard, asked of the Buddhist world, "Am I Metteyya," the fulfillment of Gautama Siddhartha's prophecy that a man from the West would emerge at a time of planetary degradation with an emancipating technology to bring about a spiritual Golden Age on Earth.

In 1975, LRH released that 1,062-line poem, the Hymn of Asia in book form. Today, 25 years later, its powerful message of spiritual freedom, of wisdom and compassion now resonates throughout the 21st century world in musical form. And it does so with a splendor that knows no parallel in any literature, scripture, music or verse. Most importantly, it heralds the fulfillment of Buddha's 2,500-year-old search for wisdom and hope.

After 25 centuries, the long sought goal of spiritual freedom is attainable in Scientology. Listen closely to the Hymn of Asia music on CD – and use it to get yourself and others on The Bridge to OT now.

DECISION
& the Power of Choice

Power of choice is one thing, but postulates and decisions are far higher and do much more. Remember, they're quite senior to this.

If you can make a postulate, you can have an energy mass appear out in front of you that you can see. If you can make another postulate, you can unpostulate it and make it disappear. The ability to make postulates – nothing to that. But that depends on decision, just above power of choice; and above the decision we, of course, have the postulate itself without any choosing. So between power of choice and postulate, we have this interim grade that we call decision.

Now, maybe you've talked to government employees and you've asked them for a decision. And they've comm lagged and comm lagged and comm lagged and comm lagged and muttered and given you something out of the files. There wasn't any reason why they couldn't make the decision, nobody would shoot them if they made a decision. And yet they didn't seem capable of making a decision.

The wife runs into this all the time when she asks her husband about something her husband never moves around in space; cooking pots and pans and groceries. The husband moves stuff off the plate into his mouth and into his GE, that's that. But he doesn't move food around. He moves paychecks around or maybe bales of hay or something, but as far as the food he eats is concerned he doesn't shove it around. And she says to him, "Dear, what do you want for supper tonight?"

And he says, "I don't know, uh – any old thing."

"Now dear, please tell me." (She's doing this with malice aforethought. She's trying to get a contract with him that no matter what she serves him he won't have the right to complain because...)

Now, where we get this kind of a chitchat going we actually have power of choice being least exercised about those things which the person has least moved around in space. And you can count on that as a rule. If you want an individual to regain power of choice on any object, you get him to move that around specifically from spot to specific spot in space for a while, and he'll regain his power of choice on it.

The very simple example of this for a fellow to have control of a car, we have him drive the car around, start and stop it. He regains his power of choice over the car first by deciding he wants to drive a car. And then he recovers his power of decision (something else) by simply positioning the car here and there. Quite interesting – fascinating, nice, neat, easy operation.

It's a little less easy to see this in some other measures of life. We look at somebody who is supposed to make decisions all the time about things which he never really sees. Let's take an executive and he's asked time after time where he should lay down this bale or that bundle or this delivery or that package or something of the sort. He's just asked to make decisions about this. He never touches these things, he just says, "Put them here, put them there, put them someplace else," and eventually he becomes an old man with ulcers.

He is making decisions all the time but he never knows if he's right, he doesn't even know if the location exists. He's subjectively ordering things all over the place. He's not himself positioning them. That's still better though than having to make a decision about something you have never even made a decision about.

OUTPOSTULATING EARTH

I want you to decide right now at what moment Earth is going to start turning the opposite direction. Interesting question, isn't it? You know that's beyond your power of decision. Why is it beyond your power of decision? It's just because you've never decided it. You've never positioned Earth.

I doubt very few of you have been out there with a little pinky giving Earth another twist so that it'll turn faster or slowing it down or something like this. And I haven't seen any one of us, at least in the last week, putting Earth a little closer to the Sun or a little nearer spring.

So, we make a decision on the subject of the position of Earth and we say, "That's just idle." If we can't make a postulate on the subject, it becomes very difficult to make a powerful decision about the subject, and one loses his power of choice.

Immediately, I have not seen anybody in this room tonight sitting four feet (with his body) off of a chair, in the air, unsupported. I just have not seen anybody sitting in that position in this room tonight.

In other words, gravity has some effect upon your body. Now, why does it have an effect upon your body? Here you could will your body to be four feet in the air, and maybe if you had a lot of processing, you'd accomplish it.

But ordinarily in human concourse if we ask the bank manager downstairs or some of these chaps to sit four feet above his chair, he might have some doubts about okaying our loan. But what is it that makes it impossible for him to sit four feet above his chair?

Well, for one thing he hasn't made a postulate about Earth for a long, long time. He certainly has made no decisions concerning Earth. He hasn't said to himself, "Oh, I'm bored with this place, I think I'll go live on Venus for a while. I've heard about the girls up there." He hasn't said this, hasn't remarked any part of it, and as a result his power of choice about moving away from or close to Earth totally depends on Earth. And Earth says to him, "You're right here fella, sitting right in this chair and that's where you are." That's all there is to it. Now, mentally, that's all there is to gravity.

That thing which has totally overthrown one's power of choice, of course, is something about which he has made no decisions and which he knows definitely he could not affect with his postulates.

Now, the number of postulates we've thrown at Earth lately have been very few. We haven't said, "the Sun will now travel (apparently because Earth is going to move differently) north much faster and get rid of this winter weather." We just have not said that, any of us. Well, except myself, I ask people why they haven't done it. That's one of the things that throws people (if you ever saw embarrassment), but they're always flattered. Say, "What are you doing turning on weather like this?"

And the fellow says, "Oh, I..." And they fall right into it, "Well, I really didn't mean to turn it on this bad," or something like that.

In other words, he can accept into his realm of action the actual factor of postulating weather. He can imagine this. He, himself, wouldn't seriously postulate it; he can merely imagine postulating it.

But his power of choice about the weather is horrible. He hasn't said, "Tomorrow it will be seventy-two degrees, and the Sun will come up at 5:32 and there will be nice white fleecy clouds all day long." He hasn't said this for a long time. He's hoped that it would be, maybe, but that's as close as he's come to it.

Well, then he goes outside and it's cold, and the weather makes him cold, or it's hot, and the weather makes him hot. In other words, he's subject to these decisions called weather because he hasn't decided any weather. And it's been a long time since he's made any postulates about weather.

So, in every line of endeavor we get those duresses to which the individual is subject, and over which he has no determinism to be those duresses, about which he has made no decision, and earlier than that, about which he has made no postulates. And there's gravity, and there's why a guy stays on Earth. There's all sorts of odds and ends of mechanisms. A fellow who has been positioned continually by his body, and has not done any positioning of the body, has no chance of exteriorizing, he's dead in his head.

A thetan would have to regain to some degree his power of decision.

CREATING AND UNCREATING POWER

Now, what do we mean by power? Naturally, it's a figurative term used by people working in the field of the mind because they don't have another word for it. They talk about "willpower," "personal power"; they talk about "magnetism," talk about all kinds of things, you see, with this word power mixed up in it somehow. Well, they've never forgotten the tradition, but that's about as thin as it is these days.

When we talk about "power of choice" we are using the word very advisedly. We mean amperes, volts, terminals and bolts. We actually mean energy traveling through space having measurable current. How can we possibly generate such an energy? Well, we already know we can generate it. We can mock up mock-ups can't we? We can stuff them into this fellow and make him weigh thirty more pounds. (You ought to conduct that experiment sometime, that's a ball – I mean, the preclear gets so uncomfortable. You have to do it for weeks to get him up thirty pounds. But you can actually stuff enough mass into a good preclear in an afternoon to make him sink if he looks at a dishpan.) Here, however, we are talking about energy in space. And if we're talking about energy in space, and we're talking about a thetan creating energy or uncreating energy we certainly must be talking about watts and volts and amperes and all the rest of it. We are talking about power of choice.

Now, how about this fellow that everything caves in on? How about this preclear? You say, "All right. Now, let's go back two years in time and look at your engrams. Now, come up to present time."

And he says, "Gawww." Can't do it. Well, the energy has sort of caved in on him. The energy finds him to be a sort of a vacuum.

"So between power of choice and postulate, we have this interim grade that we call decision."

He's not putting out anything to resist that energy, he's incapable of it. The energy wiggles, he wobbles. That's the end of that.

He's got an engram of his mother bawling him out. He's walking down the street, it also has a telegraph pole or something in it and a mailbox, in the engram. And he's walking down the street and he sees a telegraph pole and a mailbox, and he all of a sudden feels sheepish like a little boy. And he kind of asks himself, "Well, I certainly feel young today," something like this, and never questions it any further than that. What happened?

He had a mental energy picture of the telephone, the mailbox and his mother bawling him out. He saw the telephone, the mailbox, that called the mental energy picture into view on a sort of a copy or duplication basis and it got into restimulation and he reacted to it.

Why does he react to it? Because his power of choice is gone.

We go into an insane asylum, we tell some insane person, "Move that bench." And he's just as likely to dump a wastebasket on our heads. He can no longer differentiate from object to object much less do anything effective. More importantly, we ask the bulk of them to come up to present time and they stick right where they are. They cannot handle energy masses. This is the one common denominator: their spaces are off and they cannot handle energy masses. This we know about them. Well, then a sane person must be able to handle space and energy masses; I mean we can draw that conclusion and we look it over and we find it to be true.

Where does this go? It's the rehabilitation of the power of decision, that's about all there is to it; rehabilitation of the power of decision.

Well, where is decision missing, if an energy bank like the reactive bank can cave in? Where? How can an individual get these mental image pictures caving in on him or not caving in on him, simply by power of decision? It must be that there are some energy masses in the individual's ken, or knowledge, continually, which overcome his power of choice. He must be continually overcome and handled by mass, energy, in predetermined space and time. And he's being totally positioned all the time, totally positioned all the time. He never has any choice about it.

If you want to go to a restaurant, you walk down to where the restaurant is. The last time you picked the restaurant up where it was and sat it where you were was a long time back, and I bet the proprietor was mad too.

CONQUEST OF MEST

What does he do? He's depending on other sources now for his power of choice and for his decisions mainly, and so he starts to depend on them for his energy and he stops making any more energy. And after a while he makes the idiotic statement like, "Conservation of energy: no energy can be mocked up or destroyed." Wow. That's way down track, isn't it? Boy, is that down Tone Scale.

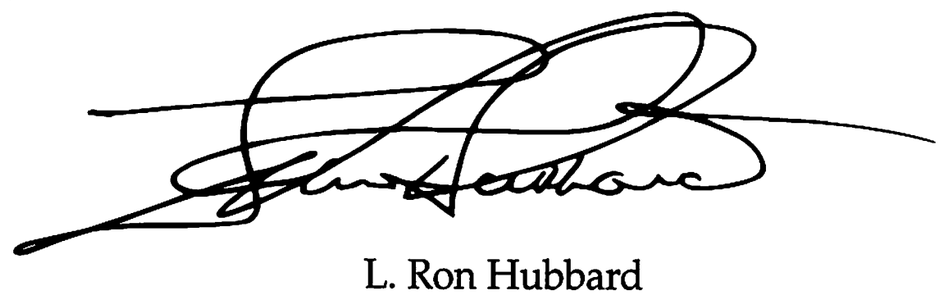

But all the time, what's happening? The investigator particularly is drawn into this and made to feel the weakness of his position. He says, "I wonder what is wrong with this? I think maybe it is so-and-so and so-and-so," he says, about this piece of apparatus. "I will hook this up to this and see if the MEST universe decides to work that way." And it doesn't, so he hooks it up some other way and he finds out whether or not something happens.

But look at it this other way: "Finds out whether or not the MEST universe decides to work that way." Is that the decision of the MEST universe? Is it terminal one to two or is it two to one? Which is it? Well, the MEST universe is going to decide, it's going to be energy and mass in space that's going to decide how it works.

So, a fellow works and works and works and he gets a terrific, oh, an awful lot of stuff here, laws and rules, he makes all these postulates and so forth. And when he gets all through, what's the first question we ask of him? We say, "Does it work?" In other words what we ask is, "Does the MEST universe decide this to be a fact?" And we wait before we draw our conclusion to discover whether or not the MEST universe agrees with the decision, at least. That's the least we would do.

But people in general simply let the MEST universe decide. And they let it decide and they let it decide. They let it decide that its postboxes will be here, and its stores will be there, and you have to take an airplane to go to where, and you have to walk in order to get someplace else, and you will move in order to be around in it. And that's what it decides. It decides how far you've got to go, it decides how long you've got to be on the way; this is all decided by energy masses operating in space. Fantastic! You mean to say somebody can stand up to this?

Well, not only can somebody stand up to it, but they can also whip it.

The exact procedure for rehabilitating one's power of choice is the subject of the new LRH lecture series "The Game of OT, Exteriorization & Havingness," from which this article was excerpted.

Become CAUSE over the game you're playing

Get the Game of OT lectures

No matter what you as a thetan are doing, you're playing a game. You can play it at any tone. In any mood. At any level from the very bottom of the scale to the highest levels of OT.

But how do you become cause over the game you are playing? How do you gain the ability to choose the game you want to play? And how do you get out of a game you may not even be aware you're playing?

In the new OT lecture series, The Game of OT, Exteriorization & Havingness, LRH blows the top off the false datums that have been passed down the track which effectively blocked a being's ability to be totally self-determined.

You'll hear the 17 lectures of the London Auditors' Meeting, where LRH revealed the processes which immediately restore ability and creativity – and give one a completely causative viewpoint in life.

Get this vital OT hatting direct from LRH and use it right now to assume a state of self-determinism over any and all games.

CLEARSOUND® STATE OF THE ART SOUND TECHNOLOGY

Since the launch of the Golden Age of Tech and the Golden Age of Tech for OTs, thousands of Scientologists have discovered the ease with which one can now move up The Bridge to OT. Indeed, you have read in many issues of Advance! magazine just what these breakthroughs have meant in terms of miracles-as-usual results, all the way up to the highest levels of Operating Thetan.

You have also read about the subsequent investigation by Religious Technology Center that resulted in the discovery of arbitraries on case programing – and the fully on-Source handlings that have made speed of progress up The Bridge a rocket ride.

To give you the true magnitude of these findings and what they mean to you making it to full OT, the following Inspector General Network Bulletin, originally published in Advance! 143, is reprinted here in its entirety.

Read it – then take your next step.

INSPECTOR GENERAL NETWORK BULLETIN NO. 39

YOUR PROGRESS TO OT

(Arbitraries Cancelled!)

The announcement of the Golden Age of Tech marked a watershed in our application of the tech. It placed into all our org Academies the ability to train perfect auditors at the speed necessary to actually create planetary clearing for real.

Where auditors have completed this lineup, the results with their preclears are nothing less than spectacular. That's not because the auditor is responsible for the pc's gains and is now doing something "special." It is because Golden Age of Tech auditors deliver the tech exactly as LRH intended.

With Golden Age of Tech training programs now in place, and commensurately higher standard of tech application, a review was conducted on case programing of Scientologists up the Bridge to OT. This review discovered numerous arbitraries which may have affected your rapid progress up the Bridge.

The first thing to understand is that LRH worked for four decades to make the Bridge to OT FASTER and EASIER. It was LRH's intention that every Scientologist make it up to OT and that the route be QUICK!

If you are a stalled Clear and have not moved on to OT rapidly, there are exact LRH recommended case actions all geared toward getting you to OT. A review of random folders across the planet found several instances where false data had been entered into standard case programing. In many instances this resulted in Clears being programed DOWN the Bridge. The fact is, Clears should be rapidly gotten UP to OT.

If you have been stalled in any way and have not been debugged, it is pretty certain that the exact steps you need have not been delivered. If you are Clear, haven't moved up, haven't energetically pushed yourself up to OT, no matter the apparent "barriers," you are absolutely the adverse effect of factors that LRH described in HCOB 27 Mar. 84, STALLED DIANETIC CLEAR: SOLVED.

"But where the person in this zone is moving slowly or stalled, there is a technical factor which must be known and taken into consideration:

"Dianetic Clears who do not go up the Bridge are still subject to the vagaries and pressures of life.

"The definition of Clear is:

"A BEING WHO NO LONGER HAS HIS OWN REACTIVE MIND.

"Postulates and considerations can stand independently of mental mass." ...

If you have attempted to move forward and have not made it up to OT, it is also quite possible that some steps you were previously programed for – quite lengthy in nature – are unnecessary and that you could be gotten up to OT far more rapidly than you are even imagining.

For lower-level pcs, there are precise rundowns meant to be delivered at the lower levels of the Grade Chart which were specifically recommended by LRH for the purpose of making progress through the Grades and up to NED and Clear as fast as possible. An omission of one or another of these rundowns would actually act as a slow on moving through the Grades and NED. That is, hours you may need on these rundowns would actually benefit you in saving two to three times the hours you would otherwise need in making it through the Grades and NED if you did not have these rundowns!

LRH gave the Religious Technology Center this purpose:

To protect the public by seeing that the powerful technologies of Dianetics and Scientology remain in good hands and are properly used.

With the Golden Age of Tech, we placed in the hands of every org in the world the ability to train superlative auditors routinely and in quantity. Indeed, only with the discoveries that led up to the Golden Age of Tech and with the resultant bigger and faster gains, was it now possible to see that some pcs had been programed to handle problems that were actually handled by improving auditor training and expertise! We now have that with the Golden Age of Tech.

Nothing in this issue changes the lower Grade Chart. If you are not Clear, your route is through the Grades just as listed on the Grade Chart. But, there are specific rundowns LRH advised C/Ses to employ to handle any barriers to your rapid progress through the lower Grades.

And if you are a stalled Clear, and you are stalled if you have not moved onto the OT levels, then the precise actions you need are those for stalled Clears and not some other lower Grade Chart action.

All organizations in the world have received instructions based on RTC's investigation into arbitraries on all public making it up to OT. What this means is that all org technical staff know precisely how to program your case and what service to deliver to ensure your most rapid progress to OT. Org administrative staff are similarly briefed so as to ensure all lines are geared to helping you accomplish this. You can therefore be assured that your route across the Bridge will be just what LRH intended.

We stand at the threshold of the new millennium. The future of this planet depends on clearing away aberrations and the widespread making of OTs and returning beings of Earth to native state. We in RTC are very dedicated to achieving the aims of Scientology. Achieving those aims, in the final analysis, depends solely and exclusively on a full spiritual rehabilitation of all beings on this planet.

Therefore, nothing is more important to us than YOU making it to OT. LRH's researches and discoveries resulted in making the route through the lower levels and up to OT a rocket ride. If someone has told you it takes a long time, or you feel that way even if they haven't told you, let me indicate that is FALSE DATA.

Contact your org for your exact technical programing. You have a goal to make it to OT. You can, and RTC stands ready to help you achieve that goal.

THERE ARE NO BARRIERS TO YOUR GOAL OF OT

Send in the "I Want to Go OT" Club application in the attached insert, and we will immediately:

- Do a standard, A-to-B case analysis. Available to all Clears, Grade IV completions, NED completions, Power and Power Plus Releases who are new to AOLA, this requires no donation. In fact it requires nothing of you but a call to AOLA letting us know you want it done.
- Provide you with a tailor-made case program. Also at no cost, you will have an exact technical estimate that clearly charts your direct and fast route to OT. This means everything you need – and only what you need – to get through OT Preparations, Clear Certainty Rundown™ auditing (as needed) and OT Eligibility.
- Get you on the Solo Startup program. No matter where you live, if you're Clear or a NED® completion, we'll get you soaring to OT on your Solo Auditor Course.

No sidetracks, no detours, no Q and A. Plain and simple: NO ARBITRARIES.

AT AOLA WE PUT YOU AT

CAUSE ON ROUTE TO

When you arrive at AOLA, you're greeted by staff, whose sole purpose is delivering LRH's legacy of spiritual freedom to you. At every point of service to our public, we operate from Golden Age of Tech for OT programs that ensure your Solo and Advanced Courses are 100% on-policy and in-tech.

YOUR OT

WITH ON-SOURCE LRH TOOLS TO DEBUG ANY CASE ARBITRARIES AND GOLDEN AGE OF TECH FOR OT BREAKTHROUGHS, YOUR ADVANCED ORGANIZATION IS TURNING THE RUGGED RIDE THROUGH THE "AT RISK" ZONE INTO A SURE, SWIFT ROUTE TO OT.

Without all the tools to hand to forge ahead from Clear to the Advanced Courses and The Bridge to full OT, that jump might look daunting in the extreme. But, what makes that jump appear so formidable to some – especially in light of just having attained the goal of Clear, and having made the "I'm definitely going to go OT" postulate?

No question: That's the decision you've made – a decision that's more rock solid than the MEST universe itself. Yet, when we're talking about the zone of risk, it's precisely at that point that the life confront process of all time begins. Before you take a step, the bizarre faces of counter-intention – the likes of which you've never seen before – can begin to lurk around every corner.

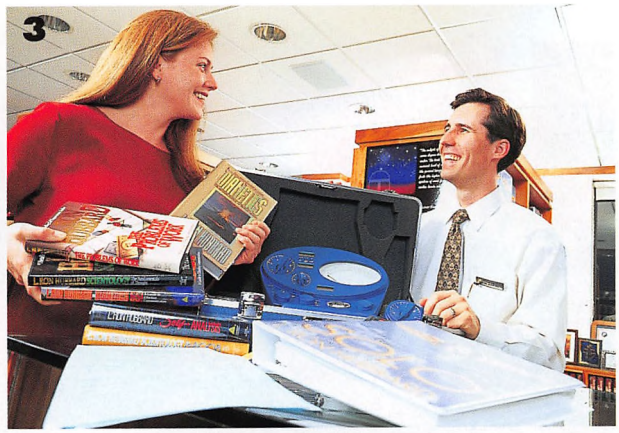

That's when it's time to step back and have a look at the phenomena you're encountering – and what's in place for you at AOLA to take you right through the cacophony of CI standing in your path to OT. So, let's take it apart, right here, right now: Here are real, doable steps one can take to bulldoze through the complexities, the arbitraries, the stops – and make it through the non-interference zone to the spiritual freedom and ability of OT.

2. Let's face it, sometimes it takes a terminal to help you confront life matters in order to chart your course to full OT, especially if you live some distance from AOLA. Connect up with your Field Staff Member who will help speed your way to our door.

1. You're just a phone call away from the help you need from AOLA's Advance Scheduling Registrar to get you onto your OT Preps, OT Eligibility and Solo Auditor Courses. Today, at your local org and here at AOLA we have the Solo Startup , which includes the handling, and disposing of, any case arbitrary that might now stand in the way of your fast progress onto the Advanced Courses. (See "Your Progress to OT [Arbitraries Cancelled!]" in this issue for specifics.)

3. No single tool for making it to OT is more crucial than the Mark Super VII Quantum E-Meter. At our bookstore, you'll get your Quantum (available at a sizable discount for full-time Solo students), course materials that will take you through your Solo checksheets – and the OT books and lectures that will give you the broad scope of LRH's legacy of OT.

4. When you make that walk to our Solo and Advanced Courses course rooms, here's what you're overcoming – as told by LRH to the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course when he inaugurated the Solo Auditor Courses: "What I have done in the development of this material is impossible. It could never have been done.... The last fifty thousand years it's never been done, so why should it ever be done? ...All I'm asking you to do, is do the impossibility of 'Do it.' That's simple, isn't it?"

5. Time and again, those who have made it most rapidly through the Wall of Fire on OT III, have stated that just arriving on the Solo Auditor Course and moving through the checksheet alone will quell life's storms. Once you're here, you'll learn exactly why that is so.

6/7. On the Solo Auditor Course, you cycle through the E-Meter drills five times (more than on any other course in Scientology!) to gain total competence and certainty as an auditor – your auditor on all Solo-audited OT levels for your eternity.

8/9. On the Solo Course, you'll make full use of the E-Meter Drills Simulator to become a perfect Solo auditor – regardless of previous auditing experience or lack of it. And when you pass your Session Drills, you'll have no doubt whatsoever that you can really be in session as a Solo auditor because you no longer have attention on the mechanics.

10. While on your Solo training, you can complete OT Preparations and OT Eligibility auditing. And if you think this is a long runway or there are mysterious unknowns involved, just look through the success stories of our OT Eligibility completions: "Wins and gains far beyond my expectations." "Fantastic results in my life – I got a great new job, my income has gone up and my postulates are working better than ever." "Having sorted out the reasons for my decline, I can now truly, really start being far more OT again." And that's just a sampling of one week's successes!

11. With your OT Eligibility secured, you stand at the threshold of LRH's legacy of OT. When you walk through these doors, you're sounding the death knell to every bank dramatization that has stood in the way of your spiritual freedom. YOU'RE GOING OT!

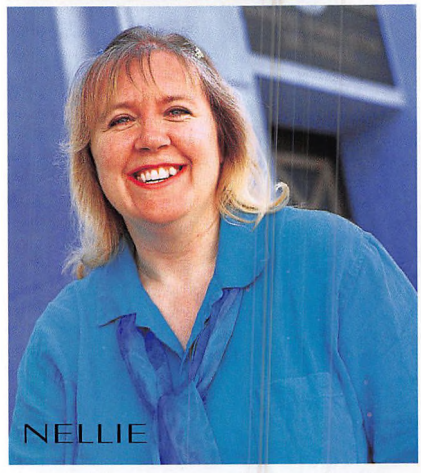

To put yourself at cause on your route to OT, call AOLA's Advance Scheduling Registrar at (323) 953-3300.

NELLIE

BELINDA MASON-WAITT

Belinda, a veterinarian from Orange County, just recently earned her Solo wings as a graduate of the Solo Part II Course.

Solo I is a meaty course, but it's life changing. Everything has changed: my mock-up, my dynamics – everything. It's amazing. Every second is worth it once you step into that room as your own auditor and you see what you are capable of.

I had such amazing case gain on Solo II. Life got better and better and better with each day on this course. Then I realized something: I wasn't killing myself to do the C/Ses or get these floating TAs. It wasn't hard. I had been made into a perfect Solo auditor.

On Solo I, I would see people go into the Solo Assist rooms (where you audit the Solo II C/Ses). I would see them go in looking one way, and a short time later coming out looking totally different. You can see faces change in just minutes. Now I know what that's like. There's nothing like seeing your own needle and then, being able to make it float!

I tell all my friends how blown out I am after these two courses, and they all remind me that this is only the beginning.

NELLIE NORTHCROSS

Nellie co-audited up The Bridge, attesting to Clear in 1996. She is now on OT III.

After attesting to Clear, I went straight onto Solo I at AOLA. The Golden Age of Tech just came out. It was my first Golden Age of Tech course and it was mind blowing.

Something meanwhile came up – a question on whether or not I was Clear, and I was not really moving for a few months. Then the bulletin from RTC came out on arbitraries on The Bridge. My folders were reviewed again by the Snr C/S and it was determined, based on this study, that I was in fact Clear. This whole cycle was sorted out to VGIs and 100% Standard Tech. I knew I was Clear!

I can't imagine having stopped at Clear and not moving on to the OT levels. I was happy as a Clear, but there was something there that didn't need to be there. I know there's still more case to handle of course, but it's a whole different level than lower on The Bridge. You address a whole different aspect of life on the OT levels.

You open up the course pack when you start OT III and you just know life will never be the same. The changes are incredible. I look at things so totally differently. I'm creating more because it's me that wants to create. It's with my total willingness and enthusiasm. Everything I do is on my determinism, not someone else's.

On OT III, I know it's not just me, my family and my friends anymore. It's the whole planet that I need to be responsible for. And my postulates? Oh do they stick – no doubt about it. I think of something, and within 30 minutes, I have a response.

We need to do this to clear the planet.

JOHN JOSEPH

John, a software developer, attested to Clear in 1990 and, after doing the Solo Certainty Course, moved up The Bridge to New OT V.

I did the Solo Course in 1990 after attesting to Clear. The tech estimate I was given at the time seemed insurmountable. Then the "Arbitraries Cancelled" issue came out from RTC and I got a renewed interest in doing my OT levels. My new tech estimate turned out to be very short, so I wrapped up an FPRD list, did my OT Eligibility, and it was lightening fast from there.

I did Solo Certainty and came out at the end with unshakable certainty on what I needed to handle in session.

As a Clear I had a sense of what was bothering me, and would think, "This doesn't seem like me. Why am I thinking this way?" It didn't make sense. I was thinking things I didn't want to think. Also, I had a lot of fixed attention on time and places. This freed up so I can use these attention units much better. It's made me more efficient. Now, I very often find myself solving problems before they need to be solved.

But here is something Clears need to know: If you got told something about your OT Preps or Eligibility that didn't indicate or was an inval, have the C/Ses at AOLA look at your folder. They know what's going on when it comes to Clears and making OTs. I really got that RTC is here to ensure it's all done right and by the book. All the arbitraries are now off the line, so just get it looked into.

If there's something going on that you can't explain and you don't like, you're gonna find out exactly what it's all about when you do the OT levels. So, don't waste anymore time and get going.

Everyone at AOLA has only one purpose: to get you through that Second Wall of Fire. This help is irresistible because the intention is pure. I step in that front door of AOLA and I'm in an oasis of theta in the middle of LA. There is such a singularity of purpose. It is so refreshing. Just get here. You can't help but make it to OT.

THE TOOL TO BRING YOU TO CAUSE OVER YOUR OWN CASE FOREVER

pastoral counseling device

For eons, countless attempts have been made to return man to native state. But lacking an E-Meter, even the most enlightened of Earth's beings have been unable to blow through the barriers to OT.

But today, we have that E-Meter – a Golden Age of Tech breakthrough that never misses a read: the Mark Super VII Quantum E-Meter. With the Quantum's automatically-adjusting variable sensitivity, you will, with utter exactness and accuracy, see clearly every read, every time. You'll know with confidence that you have the exact charge – with nothing missed.

And that means everything to your making it to full OT.

If you haven't seen the Quantum in operation, come to AOLA or go into your local org and ask to see the video that explains the Quantum breakthrough in full.

And be sure you get an actual demonstration.

THE ONLY TOOL WITH THE ACCURACY & EXACTNESS TO TAKE YOU TO FULL OT

DEFINITIONS

Advanced Courses: those courses above Grade VA, specifically dealing with materials of which one has to Solo audit in order to attain the stable gains of the grade.

Bridge, The: the route to Clear and OT, which we call The Bridge Classification, Gradation and Awareness Chart. It is a term originating in early Dianetics days to symbolize travel from unknowingness to revelation.

Clear: the name of a state achieved through auditing or an individual who has achieved this state. A Clear is an unaberrated person and is rational in that he forms the best possible solutions he can on the data he has and from his viewpoint.

Dianetics: man's most advanced school of the mind. The word comes from Greek dia, through, and nous, soul. Dianetics is defined as what the soul is doing to the body.

MEST: the physical universe. A word coined from the initial letters of Matter, Energy, Space and Time, which are the component parts (elements) of the physical universe.

Operating Thetan (OT): a thetan exterior who can have but doesn't have to have a body in order to control or operate thought, life, matter, energy, space and time.

Org: an organization that delivers Dianetics and Scientology training and processing.

OT Committee: A committee formed of the OTs in an organization's field, who work with the organization to achieve the purpose: TO HELP LRH ORGANIZE AND CHANNEL OT FORCES, INTERESTS AND RESOURCES FOR THE GREATEST GOOD FOR SCIENTOLOGY.

OT Preparations: a tailor-made auditing program designed to handle any case areas that could cause one difficulty on the OT levels.

OT Eligibility: eligibility for the OT levels is determined by passing a False Purpose Rundown Confessional for which one is awarded an "Eligibility for OT Levels" slip. This Confessional step is often called "OT Eligibility."

Rundown: a series of steps which are auditing actions and processes designed to handle a specific aspect of a case.

Theta: energy peculiar to life or a thetan which acts upon material in the physical universe and animates it, mobilizes it and changes it; natural creative energy of a thetan which he has free to direct toward survival goals, especially when it manifests itself as high-tone, constructive communications.

Thetan: the person himself – not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind or anything else; that which is aware of being aware; the identity which is the individual.

Whole track: the moment-to-moment record of a person's existence in this universe in picture and impression form.

OT PHENOMENA

WILD EXPERIENCES FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE OT LEVELS

Ever since I arrived at AOLA to go OT, I have been after a certain friend of mine who was Clear to get onto the Solo Course. She was a very upstat, active Scientologist, but was either on other courses, or considering doing something else besides Solo. I kept telling her to just get onto Solo.

I was auditing on OT II and she came to LA to visit. We were at dinner one evening and I looked straight at her and there it was: right in front of me I could perceive exactly the consideration that was sitting in her space about getting onto Solo and going OT. I saw it and thought, "That's what it is!" I didn't say anything to her (I knew I didn't have to) and she left for home that night.

The next day I got an e-mail from her saying she finally decided to take my advice and get onto the Solo Course at her local org. – S.J.

This was a real lesson in OT intention, and it gave me an understanding of how being an OT is being cause over MEST. In this case, it literally saved my life.

I was heading home after work one day. The freeway off-ramp was right next to an on-ramp separated only by a big bump as the "divider" of the ramps. There was a semi truck behind me and another car about eight feet in front of me. As we were exiting, a car was approaching the on-ramp at a very high speed. For some reason, he decided to turn around while on the on-ramp, go over the bump and get off the freeway. He was going about as fast as you possibly could and still maintain some control of the vehicle. I saw him approaching me and realized that he was headed right for me. With no less than Tone 40 intention, I projected this toward the car and thought, "No!" About a quarter of a second disappeared for the physical universe and the next thing I knew, his bumper glanced my front tire with no more force than that of a hard kick. The car went right between me and the car in front of me and no one was injured.

There is no way, under "ordinary" circumstances, that this could have happened in the physical universe. He was creating a fatal accident with me as the target and I was not going to agree with that. The lesson: OT intention is good. If it wasn't for the fact that I had regained that ability on OT III, I'd be a goner. – J.S.

We were working on a project for a very big company, and we were nearing the end. There was a lot of pressure from the company to finish the project, and they wanted a report from us RIGHT NOW. We completed the report just before lunch and I called the delivery service so that they could deliver our report to the company. The line was constantly busy, but as I could really feel the intensity from the company, I kept calling and finally got through.

The man who picked up the phone was surprised and said, "Oh, you're calling?!?!?!?!" I answered yes, and told him why I was calling. When the delivery boy arrived, he asked me if I had heard that all the phone lines in the area of the delivery company were down and not working. There had also been radio reports letting people know that it was impossible to get through to that area. I just acknowledged him and sent him away fast, to deliver the report.

A few hours later I heard on the radio that the phones were again working, and then suddenly realized what I had done. It was pure intention! – M.E.

Two of my co-workers had gotten into a disagreement – something that happens now and again between these two terminals. I was usually the one who assisted to set things right again between them. They were not Scientologists, and being a trained OT myself, I found it to be routinely simple to sort out.

This particular day, I was very busy wearing a hat from above and didn't have a chance to get with them right off the bat. But I named a very specific product I wanted to get: the terminal that was out of line would apologize (something he has a hard time doing) and they would get back in comm. At my earliest opportunity, I would break away and have a comm cycle with this terminal and get him to see that he should apologize and restore the ARC. I figured I'd get to it in about a half-hour.

"I WENT IN SESSION AND HANDLED SOMETHING THAT I KNEW, WITH TOTAL CERTAINTY, HAD AN AFFECT ON MY FATHER."

About a half-hour later, I noticed that they had gotten in comm. I asked the other terminal, "Did you guys sort it out?"

"Yes, I can't believe it – he even apologized!"

It was handled exactly as I postulated without having to do anything in the physical universe. – S.J.

I got in comm with a close friend of mine, a Clear, about going OT. She'd been progressing, but certainly not as quickly as she could, and she didn't really have any plans to secure more Bridge as there was no "need" to do so in the near future – or so she thought.

I knew that her resources were not that great, but so what? Before I even started the comm cycle, I decided she would take a major step further toward OT in spite of the apparent lack of wherewithal.

I did my best to communicate the vastness of going OT. I felt like I was able to get her to duplicate the nature of it without her having experienced it, and that going full OT is more of a duty and transcends 1D case gain. I felt she got the order of magnitude of the activity. We ended the comm cycle on a very good note.

A few days later she brought me an invoice from the org. Her OT Preps and Eligibility package were secured! She's now working on her OT III package. – R.F.G.

My dad was very ill. He had a dangerous blood clot near his heart and had been getting medical treatment for it over a period of a year. The illness would go away, then come back again; and so it went, back and forth to a point where he was told that he had to have surgery. He was also told his chances for recovery were poor. I was told that he would get this operation on a Wednesday morning.

That same Wednesday morning I went in session and handled something that I knew, with total certainty, had an affect on my father. When I came out of session my mother called and told me that dad was going to have his surgery the next day as the doctor was ill.

Then, the next day, while the doctor was preparing my father for the operation he could find absolutely no sign of the blood clot – or that it had ever existed. There was no need for the surgery!

The next time I saw my dad his ARC for me was higher than it had ever been, and for the first time in our lives we were really in comm. – E.U.

AOLA NEWS

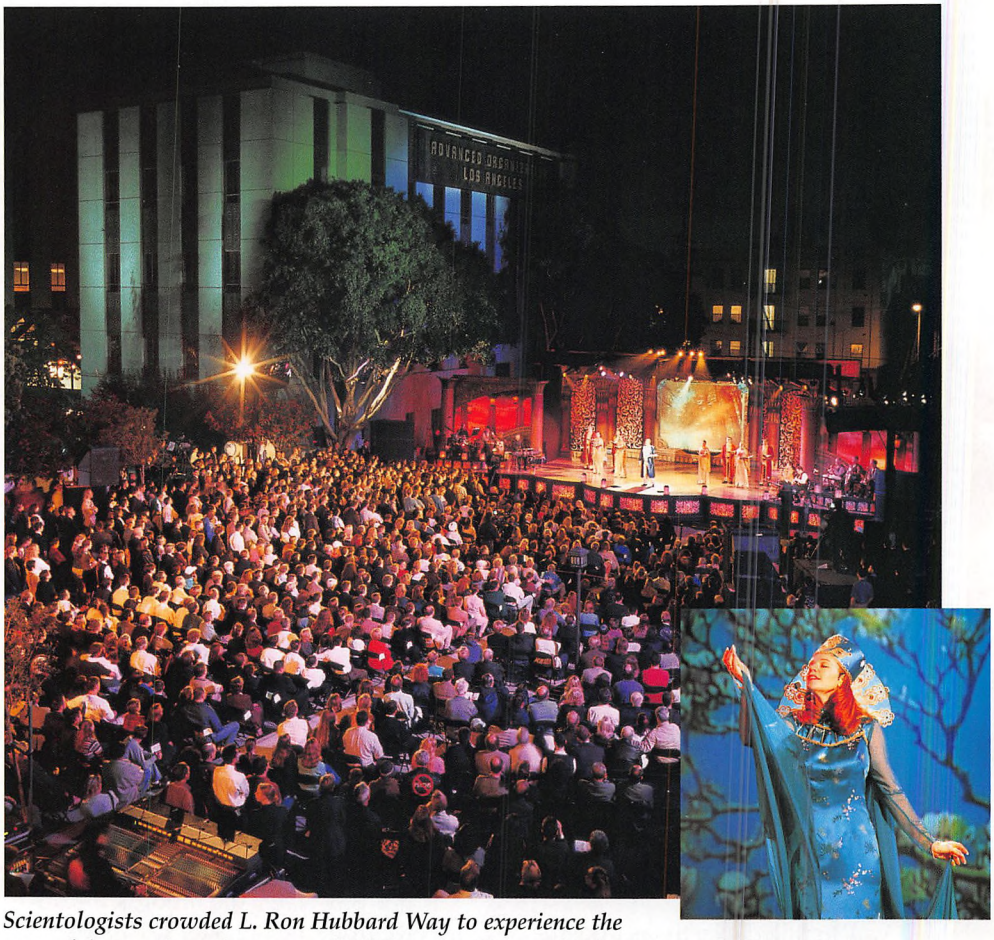

SPECTACULAR OT MILLENNIUM EVENTS CREATE "INSTANT SPIRITUAL REVITALIZATION"

Summer has taken on a life of its own at AOLA. For several years, weekly events from the Freewinds have served to rally the Scientologists from across the Americas to move onto their advanced levels of The Bridge – and why not on L. Ron Hubbard Way, where one can travel unimpeded door-to-door up that route.

Never has this been more the case than in this first summer of the new millennium – the OT Millennium, which is, in fact, the name for the series of weekly events taking place on LRH Way. Each week the buzz and bustle builds, and every weekend the events – some live, some presented on video from the Freewinds – are resulting in actual progress up The Bridge to OT for thousands of Scientologists.

The first wave came with the event celebrating the 12th Anniversary of the release of New OT VIII at the Maiden Voyage Cruise of the Freewinds. Attendance surpassed any previous Anniversary event – and so did the enthusiasm for not only getting up to OT, but being a part of a team of OTs actually creating this OT millennium.

Spotlighting this exact push was International Management's validation of OT Ambassadors who have been energetically helping Scientologists around the world move more rapidly up The Bridge. And, as is tradition, OT Achievement awards were given to OTs responsible for helping others go free – in volume. The first proud recipient, Orange County's OT Committee Chairman, Yvonne Prince, is a stellar example. She started up her OT Committee with just a handful of area OTs and, in the past year, has expanded it to one of the most productive OT Committees on the planet with 50 active members. The Orange County Committee's "Revitalization Days" and other actions have resulted in LRH tech being delivered to 4,100 Scientologists, more than 360 people introduced to Dianetics and Scientology, and over 630 Scientologists taking their next step on The Bridge.

Scientologists crowded L. Ron Hubbard Way to experience the powerful operatic performance of LRH's poem, Hymn of Asia, now available on CD.

But this was just one of countless accomplishments that have, all told, meant for greater expansion of Scientology and more beings moving onto and up The Bridge than ever before.

THE GAME OF OT LAUNCH RECEIVES RAVE RESPONSE

This event climaxed with the release

With the Hymn of Asia operatic performance delivering the ultimate in emotional impact, the native desire for spiritual freedom was revitalized for every thetan in the house.

of the newest LRH OT lecture series, The Game of OT, Exteriorization & Havingness. What brought the audience to their feet – and a stampede to the new lecture series booth afterwards – was what these lectures reveal: how to become cause over any game you are playing and restoring your self-determinism over anything.

"You are in a game and you have to find it and get above it and control it," is how one OT sizes up the effect of this new series on him.

This information is available nowhere else. Getting it down cold and into use can be the difference between your being an effect of the game of life and being the controller of it – all the way to OT.

HYMN OF ASIA PERFORMANCES CELEBRATE GOAL OF SPIRITUAL FREEDOM

Who could have ever imagined it: being able to experience the magnitude of LRH's legacy in a one-hour presentation that not one of the thousands in attendance will ever forget.

Yet, of all the words they'd ever heard about the state of OT, all the superlatives uttered, all the grand descriptive told and retold, none have come with quite the power of the two operatic performances of L. Ron Hubbard's Eastern Poem, Hymn of Asia. Never before had LRH's message of spiritual freedom come to life for so many on such an aesthetic wavelength. But this is exactly what took place at the doorstep of AOLA this summer. And what made these performances even more memorable is that thousands walked away with their own recording of the power and aesthetics of this LRH masterpiece, for this was the release of the new Hymn of Asia musical CD to the world's largest community of Scientologists.

Here are just a few of the thousands of praises heard from those who attended these historic performances:

- "Best production I've ever seen – thoroughly theta and powerful. Makes me realize I should study the Great Lessons more."
- "I felt great love and hope," said another. "It really represented LRH's feeling and spirit. He is right there in front of you."
- "It was very dramatic and it puts a person right there – I can't imagine not being exterior," said another.
- "It just doesn't get any better than this!"

With local video events of the CD's release in every org, Scientologists across the Americas will soon have just that opportunity. For information on the new Hymn of Asia CD and local showings of the release event, call your local org or AOLA at (323) 953-3300.

"THE SOLO AUDITOR"

A pilot must know how to operate the controls of his aircraft so he can swiftly take off and smoothly guide the plane to his destination. The same goes for the Solo auditor – he must have the exact level of certainty and competence to take himself to his destination – OT.

As LRH wrote, "If the Solo auditor is so all-thumbs with his papers, meters, platens that they distract him from his own bank, he is not likely to as-is or cognite."

This film demonstrates every part of Solo auditing skill, so you gain certainty that yes, you can Solo audit. And your ability to audit is your guarantee that you will make all the gain there is on the OT levels.

TECH FILM NEWS

LRH TECH FILMS MAKE OTS WITH CERTAINTY

On the Solo Auditor Course, "taking in a film" is not the spectator's exercise it might be outside our doors. For those soaring to OT, it means total duplication of every piece of tech the Solo student needs to get the full gains of all Solo audited levels.

"THAT REACTION OF THE NEEDLE WHICH OCCURS AT THE PRECISE END OF ANY MAJOR THOUGHT VOICED BY THE AUDITOR." – LRH.

If there's one place this definition of an instant read makes an imprint on you and your OT future, it's in the film room of the Solo Auditor Course. That's where you duplicate the technical basics of Solo auditing so cold, there's no question of whether or not you can expertly handle anything that comes up in a Solo session.

This being the case with all our new Golden Age of Tech Solo auditors, Advance! wanted to zero in on just why so many Solo course and auditing success stories mention "total certainty," "LRH Tech Films" and "the power of Solo technology" all in one breath.

Our Solo Course Sups give us our first clues: they know exactly what the most troubling problems are for Solo students, and for any situation they prescribe the exact LRH Tech Film to blow such problems out of the water. They've broken down their handlings of the most common uncertainties by these basics:

• The ability to recognize an F/N and call it accurately. By seeing – and studying – E-Meter Reads, E-Meter Reads Drill film and The Solo Auditor film, students know with utter certainty what an F/N looks like, its range of size, its motion, how to properly see it and when to call it.

• Recognition of the importance of placing a thought or question into an exact location with great precision – a skill demonstrated in The Solo Auditor, which LRH developed in 1980 specifically for Solo students.

• The exact technique for establishing your correct E-Meter sensitivity so there is no concern that the meter will read properly when it counts – in session. The precise way to ensure this is also shown on The Solo Auditor.

• The speed of setting up a Solo session. Once again, The Solo Auditor film sets the standard. Our sups, get this drill-drill-drilled in with each Solo student – so much so that our Golden Age of Tech Solo auditors own the controls when they settle into the cockpit for their first session.

• Getting instant reads and calling them properly. When students just can't seem to get reads on an otherwise sessionable fellow student, it's a trip to the film room to see The Cycle of Communication. LRH wrote that metering and TRs, are "the backbone of all auditing," and in this film students see, and can emulate, every component of communication that, correctly applied, will result in an in-session, in-comm pc.

Students having a hard time calling instant reads will, with a pink sheet from their Sup, see E-Meter Reads Drill film. To show just what impact this film has, here's a recent success from one such student:

"I was doing E-Meter Drill 22, E-Meter Hidden Date, This Life, on my fourth time through. I had miscalled three instant reads and my supervisor gave me a pink sheet to see the E-Meter Reads Drill film three times in a row. I rather liked the idea of watching this film with the sole purpose of really seeing when the needle reacted – especially on those very short one-syllable words! THOSE were the ones I was having the most trouble with.

"So I watched. I blew off quite a bit of confusion. I watched again and again until I could see that every read was instant. In fact, I realized that my TR 0 had to be perfectly in just watching the film to spot this!

"It then became so simple after that. Instant is instant. It has an exact moment when it occurs. I don't care what happens before that moment or just after it. I went on to drill EM 22 after this and passed it! I knew when something was prior, or latent, but I wouldn't fall for it under any circumstances. You can make the huge mistake of having a 'hunch' about something and indicating a wrong read. That's why you use the meter and only call instant reads!"

By viewing and using LRH's Tech Films on the Hubbard Solo Auditor Course, any considerations about your ability to handle anything that comes up in a Solo session will vanish. All that's left are the full gains of all Solo audited levels – and cause over your own case in or out of session.

NEW RELEASE!

Operate at cause in the MEST universe

Throughout recorded history great thinking men have searched for truth. Nothing they found brought man any closer to spiritual freedom. But unlike philosophers of the past who wrote about life from "ivory towers," Ron engaged in life with uncommon vigor, seeking every avenue open to him, getting into the nooks and crannies of existence, searching for and discovering the answers to set man free.

The Research & Discovery Series contains these answers. They are the only full record of the most valuable research track ever undertaken – the complete lectures and demonstrations of L. Ron Hubbard.

In Research & Discovery Volume 15, Operating at Cause in the MEST Universe, you'll discover Ron's major breakthroughs about life and operating as an OT.

REGAIN NATIVE ABILITIES

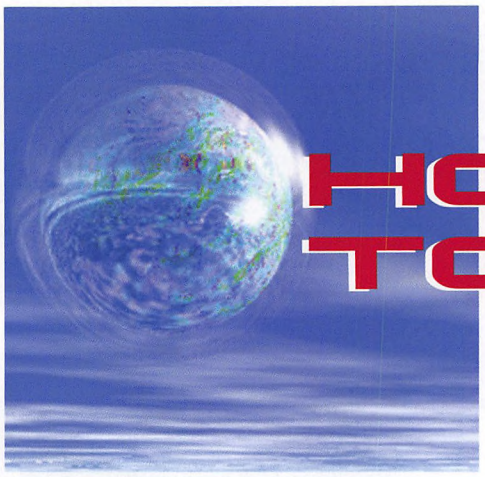

In the more than 780 pages of this volume, you'll find answers about the body, mind, thetan, postulates, perception, reverse vectors, anchor points, energy, flows, space and the Tone Scale that will forever change the way you perceive and operate in this universe.

Having this R&D volume is your guarantee of gaining the truth about how this universe works – direct from Ron at the point he discovered it.

So, step out of the mechanics of the MEST universe. Start operating right now as an OT by using the OT data in Research & Discovery Volume 15, Operating at Cause in the MEST Universe.

SCIENTOLOGY TECHNOLOGY
PROTECT IT
IT IS YOUR FUTURE
Report Matters of RTC Concern

For the first time ever, only because of the legacy of technology LRH left us, man has the means to reverse the dwindling spiral and return to Native State. Moreover, achieving that state is possible only to the degree we apply the tech just as LRH intended. And as LRH stated, keeping Scientology working is a responsibility shared by all members of the Scientology religion.

The vast majority of Scientologists earnestly study and work hard to increase their knowledge and improve their skills to standardly apply Dianetics and Scientology to all areas of their lives.

At times some unintentionally misapply a technical or administrative procedure and fail to achieve the expected results. That is easily corrected. More rarely, ill-intentioned people deliberately alter standard procedure (known as squirreling) or attempt to prevent application of the technology entirely. Behind such activities is always the intention to prevent others from going free. That must be gotten off the lines.

Knowledge Reports exist to provide Scientologists with a communication line to report any off-policy, out-tech or out-ethics situations they may encounter. Such reports are sent to the Ethics section of the organization concerned, with a copy to the person the report is about. The Ethics section receiving the report is responsible for dealing with the matter and creating a safe environment in accordance with policy so those honestly seeking spiritual betterment are not hindered.

Such reports also are invaluable to Religious Technology Center and its Inspector General Network. As the owner of the Scientology trademarks, RTC is the protector of the Scientology religion. The Inspector General Network of RTC is an independent investigatory and policing body whose function is to keep Scientology working by ensuring the pure and ethical use of Dianetics and Scientology technology.

There are certain matters of particular importance and concern to RTC as provided here on a detailed list. Whenever these occur, copies of your reports should also be sent to RTC. RTC's Inspector General Network uses such reports to help locate hidden suppression, infiltration, subversion or corruption within and external to Scientology Churches, Missions and other Church organizations – to protect The Bridge for all.

In some cases, had alert and caring Scientologists not reported a situation to the Inspector General Network, it could have taken longer to detect a suppressive. But thanks to reports received, suppression often has been more rapidly detected and rooted out, and Standard Tech and policy restored.

You may communicate directly to RTC about such matters. Many public and staff members do so, and they also write in about good results they have received through standard application of tech and policy. All such communications are valuable to RTC.

Please send your reports to the Reports Officer RTC at 1710 Ivar Avenue, Suite 1100, Los Angeles, CA 90028, USA. Telephone: (323) 663-3258. Fax: (323) 667-0960.
